(4004 B.C.)

THE ORIGINAL CREATION

1 In the beginning (refers to the beginning of creation, or at least the creation as it refers to this universe; God, unformed, unmade, uncreated, had no beginning; He always was, always is, and always shall be) God (the phrase, "In the beginning God," explains the first cause of all things as it regards creation) created the heaven and the Earth (could be translated "the heavens and the Earth" because God created the entirety of the universe)**.

CHAOS

2 And the Earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep (God did not originally create the Earth without form and void; it became this way after a cataclysmic happening; this happening was the revolt of Lucifer against God, which took place some time in the dateless past). And the Spirit of God (Holy Spirit) moved upon the face of the waters (the moving of the Holy Spirit signified and signifies the beginning of life)**.

FIRST DAY

3 And God said (presents the manner in which creation or re-creation was carried out; some ten times this phrase is used, and in the exact manner, with the exception of the last time, where it says, "And the LORD God said" [Gen. 2:18]), Let there be light: and there was light (God is the essence of light [Jn. 1:4-9]; God's Word is of such magnitude that light continues to expand in the universe at the rate of 186,000 miles a second)**.

4 And God saw the light, that it was good (it did what it was designed to do): and God divided the light from the darkness (simply refers to the fact that there were now periods of light and darkness; darkness is simply the absence of light).

5 And God called the light Day (a character description), and the darkness He called Night (has to do with the revolution of the Earth). And the evening and the morning were the first day (literal 24-hour days).

SECOND DAY

6 And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters (refers to an expanse between the waters, so to speak, called "the atmosphere"), and let it divide the waters from the waters (water in the rain clouds and water on the Earth).

7 And God made the firmament (there is a difference in "made" and "created"; "made" refers to something already created, but brought back to a useful existence), and divided the waters which were under the firmament (oceans, seas, rivers, etc.) from the waters which were above the firmament (water in the clouds, which comes down upon the Earth): and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament heaven (the word as used here pertains to the atmosphere around the Earth). And the evening and the morning were the second day (a 24-hour time frame).

THIRD DAY

9 And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place (refers to the places designed for the waters on the Earth, seas, oceans, rivers, etc.), and let the dry land appear: and it was so (refers to the continents being formed, which necessitated great convulsions on the Earth).

10 And God called the dry land Earth (refers to the Supreme Being naming what He had created)*; and the gathering together of the waters called He Seas: and God saw that it was good (Divine approval).

[11] And God said, Let the Earth bring forth grass (a carpet), the herb yielding seed (vegetables), and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind (indicates that the different species of plants are already fixed), whose seed is in itself, upon the Earth: and it was so (the modern dogma of the origin of species by development is unbiblical).

[12] And the Earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind (the first creation of plant life did not come from seed, but that it came into being through the power of the Word): and God saw that it was good (pertains not only to the fact of creation, but as well the order of creation).

[13] And the evening and the morning were the third day (on this day was the first creation of life, i.e., "the plants, etc.").

FOURTH DAY

[14] And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night (God is not here creating the sun, moon, and stars, that having already been done "in the beginning"); and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years (refers in essence to "time"):

[15] And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the Earth: and it was so (proclaims the fact that God said it, and His glorious Word contained such power that these planetary bodies will ever carry out their prescribed function).

[16] And God made two great lights (the sun and the moon); the greater light to rule the day (the sun), and the lesser light to rule the night (in fact, the moon has no light within itself; it is a reflection of the sun, hence much lesser, exactly as the Scripture says): He made the stars also (God "created" the sun, moon, and stars at some unknown period of time "in the beginning," and afterwards, when preparing the Earth for man, He "made," i.e., "pointed them in relation to the Earth [regulated them] as light-holders, as measurers of time, and as vehicles of revelation" [Ps. 19]).

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the Earth (refers to their function),

18 And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good (everything is now set for animate life, i.e., "animal life as opposed to plant life").

19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

FIFTH DAY

20 And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that has life, and fowl that may fly above the Earth in the open firmament of heaven (here the creatures of the sea are distinguished from all previous creations, and in particular from vegetation, as being possessed of a vital principle; this does not, of course, contradict the well-known Truth that plants are living organisms; only that the life principle of the animal kingdom is different from that of the vegetable kingdom).

21 And God created great whales, and every living creature that moves, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good (some ten times in the First Chapter of Genesis, the phrase, "after his kind," or similar is used; this completely shoots down the theory of evolution; Science has never been able to cross that barrier and, in fact, will never be able; in other words, there is no such thing as an animal that is half fish and half land animal; as well, there is no such thing as a fish that is half whale and half shark; the barrier regarding the different "kinds" remains, and ever shall remain).

22 And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the Earth (it may be asked as why God did not bless the plant life? of them Moses simply says that God saw that it was good, but He did not bless them; but here, God begins a new way of propagation, namely, that from living bodies come forth other similar living bodies, which is not true of trees and plants; the pear tree, for example, does not bring forth another pear tree, but only a pear, while a bird produces a bird and a fish a fish, etc.; here, then, is a new creative work, for a living body propagates others out of itself; in fact, the Blessing of God means propagation; His Blessing is just as powerful to propagate as His curse is to cut off).

[23] And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

THE SIXTH DAY

[24] And God said, Let the Earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the Earth after his kind: and it was so (proclaims the fact that God leaves nothing empty that He has made, but furnishes all with His store and riches).

[25] And God made the beast of the Earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creeps upon the Earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good (tells us unequivocally that God designed each species of the animal kingdom in such a way that it cannot be crossed).

[26] And God said, Let Us make man in Our Image, after Our Likeness (the creation of man was preceded by a Divine consultation; as well, the pronouns "Us" and "Our" proclaim the consultation held by the Three Persons of the Divine Trinity, Who were One in the creative work; "image" and "likeness" enable us to have fellowship with God; however, it does not mean we are gods, or can become gods; "in Our Image after Our Likeness" actually refers to true Righteousness and Holiness [Eph. 4:24]): and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the Earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the Earth (this dominion was given by God to man, and is always subject to God; the relationship of man to the balance of creation is now defined to be one of rule and supremacy; the sphere of His lordship is from the lowest to the highest of the subjects placed beneath his sway).

27 So God created man in His Own Image (the word "man" should have the definite article, and should read "the man," that is, Adam — the same man Adam spoken of in 2:7; these are not, therefore, two accounts of the creation of man, but one Divine statement), in the Image of God created He him (the Image of God was lost at the Fall; however, the restoration of the Image was carried out at the Cross, but the completion of that restoration will not take place until the First Resurrection); male and female created He them (represents, at least as far as we know, the first time that God has created the female gender, at least as it regards intelligent beings; there is no record of any female Angels)**.

28 And God blessed them (again, speaks of the ability to reproduce), and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the Earth (the word "replenish" carries the idea of a former creation on the Earth before Adam and Eve; according to Isaiah 14 and Ezekiel 28, Lucifer ruled this world for an undetermined period of time, and did so in Righteousness and Holiness as a beautiful Angel created by God; if, in fact, he did rule the world at that time, it would stand to reason that there had to be some type of creation on the Earth for him to rule; the word "replenish" refers to that creation), and subdue it (and that man has done; however, he would have done it much sooner, but for the Fall): and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moves upon the Earth.

29 And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the Earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat (refers to the fact that both animals and mankind were vegetarians before the Fall; incidentally, this was changed after the Flood [Gen. 9:3])**.

30 And to every beast of the Earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creeps upon the Earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so (this tells us that animals were not originally created as predators; in other words, all animals were then vegetarian as well, which means that all, and not just some, were docile)**.

31 And God saw every thing that He had made, and, behold, it was very good (means that it was not simply good, but good exceedingly; it is not man alone whom God surveys, but the completed cosmos, with man as its crown and glory). And the evening and the morning were the sixth day (the word "evening" signified the fact that the new day began at sunset, instead of 12 midnight as it presently does in our reckoning of time).

CHAPTER 2

SEVENTH DAY

[1] Thus the heavens and the Earth were finished, and all the host of them (proclaims the fact that when the heavens and the Earth were completed, they were a brilliant array).

[2] And on the seventh day God ended His Work which He had made; and He rested on the seventh day from all His Work which He had made (it doesn't mean that God was tired, for He cannot be such [Isa. 40:28]; it simply means that He had finished the work).

[3] And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it He had rested from all His Work which God created and made (the Sabbath, or seventh day, or Saturday, the last day of the week, is meant by God to be a Type of the Salvation Rest which one finds in Christ; that's the reason it was a part of the Ten Commandments).

SUMMARY

[4] These are the generations of the heavens and of the Earth when they were created ("generations" here refer to "Divine divisions;" it refers to the manner in which all were created, as outlined in Chapter 1), in the day that the LORD God made the Earth and the heavens (presents the new name of God as "Jehovah Elohim"; this Chapter reveals Christ as Jehovah Elohim, man's Redeemer; the First Chapter reveals Him as Elohim, man's Creator),

[5] And every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew (the second day of creation is addressed here, which obviously preceded day three, when plant life was developed): for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the Earth (it seems that rain came to the Earth on day three, which caused the Earth to "bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind"), and there was not a man to till the ground (all of this was before man was created, showing that he had nothing to do with the creation, that being altogether of God).

6 But there went up a mist from the Earth, and watered the whole face of the ground (this pertains to day two of Creation; at that time, day two, there went up a mist from the Earth, which prepared the Earth for the seed which God evidently planted on the beginning of day three, and which rain on day three then brought forth).

7 And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground (proclaims the physical body made of clay), and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life (the "breath of life," which comes from God, pertains to the soul and spirit of man; this was done with the first man, Adam, God breathing the soul and the spirit into man, and thereafter it comes automatically at conception); and man became a living soul (man is a soul, has a spirit, both which reside in the physical body; the soul addresses the body; the spirit addresses God; the physical body addresses the world).

THE GARDEN OF EDEN

8 And the LORD God planted a Garden eastward in Eden (it was actually planted before Adam was created; the area is believed by some Scholars to be the site where the city of Babylon would ultimately be built); and there He put the man whom He had formed (the Garden of Eden was to be the home place of man).

9 And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight (beautiful trees), and good for food (every fruit tree imaginable, even those which bear nuts); the Tree of Life also in the midst of the Garden (evidently contained a type of fruit; 3:22 says as much! the Tree of Life had the power of so renewing man's physical energies that his body, though formed of the dust of the ground and, therefore, naturally mortal, would, by its continual use, live on forever; Christ is now to us the "Tree of Life" [Rev. 2:7; 22:2]; and the "Bread of Life" [Jn. 6:48, 51]), and the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil (presents the tree of death).

10 And a river went out of Eden to water the Garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads (four rivers).

11 The name of the first is Pison (is believed to be the "Ganges"): that is it which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold (believed to be India);

12 And the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onyx stone (Verses 11 and 12 present the first mention in the Bible of the precious metal, gold; it is mentioned last in the Bible as it refers to the main thoroughfare of the New Jerusalem, in which we are told is "pure gold" [Rev. 21:21]).

13 And the name of the second river is Gihon (is believed to be the Nile): the same is it that compasseth the whole land of Ethiopia.

14 And the name of the third river is Hiddekel (is believed to be the Tigris): that is it which goes toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates. (These rivers at the present time have their sources far apart. The explanation, no doubt, lies in the flood, which altered the topography of the Earth. The headwaters of the first two were drastically changed, while the last two remain basically the same. In fact, it is believed that the Garden of Eden may have been located, as stated, at the joining of the Tigris and Euphrates, which is the site of ancient Babylon.)

15 And the LORD God took the man, and put him into the Garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it.

16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the Garden you may freely eat (as stated, before the Fall, man was vegetarian):

17 But of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, you shall not eat of it (as for the "evil," that was obvious; however, it is the "good" on this tree that deceives much of the world; the "good" speaks of religion; the definition of religion pertains to a system devised by men in order to bring about Salvation, to reach God, or to better oneself in some way; because it is devised by man, it is unacceptable to God; God's answer to the dilemma of the human race is "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" [I Cor. 1:23]): for in the day that you eat thereof you shall surely die (speaks of spiritual death, which is separation from God; let it be understood that the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil was not the cause of Adam's Fall; it was a failure to heed and obey the Word of God, which is the cause of every single failure; spiritual death ultimately brought on physical death, and has, in fact, filled the world with death, all because of the Fall).

GOD'S FORESIGHT FOR MAN

[18] And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone (doesn't mean that the idea of a companion for Adam suddenly presented itself to the Lord; God never intended that man should be alone); I will make him an help meet for him (this is not meant to infer that the creation of woman was an afterthought; there is no Plan of God that is incomplete!)**.

ADAM AND THE ANIMAL WORLD

[19] And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air (the animals and the fowls were created out of dust, exactly as man); and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof (carried within the name that Adam gave to each one of these creatures are the characteristics of that particular animal or fowl; so we are speaking here of a man who had amazing intelligence; to do all of this, Adam had to have a distinct knowledge of speech, the meaning of all words, and the capacity of attaching words to ideas; why not? Adam had the greatest Teacher that man has ever had, "the LORD God")**.

[20] And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found a help meet for him (we learn from this that the animal creation was of far greater magnitude and intelligence than at the present; it was the Fall which changed that creation [Rom. 8:19-23]).

THE CREATION OF WOMAN

[21] And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept (records the first anesthesia): and He took one of his ribs (the word "rib" here actually means "side"), and closed up the flesh instead thereof (the woman is not merely of a rib, but actually of one side of man)**;

[22] And the rib (side), which the LORD God had taken from man, made He a woman (the Hebrew says, "built He a woman"; Horton says, "When God created the man, the word 'form' was used, which is the same word used of a potter forming a clay jar; but the word 'build' here seems to mean God paid even more attention to the creation of the woman"), and brought her unto the man (presents a formal presentation, with God, in essence, performing the first wedding; thus He instituted the bonds of the Marriage Covenant, which is actually called the Covenant of God [Prov. 2:17], indicating that God is the Author of this sacred institution; this is the marriage model, and was instituted by God; any other model, such as the homosexual marriages, so-called, can be constituted as none other than an abomination in the Eyes of God [Rom. 1:24-28])**.

THE FIRST MARRIAGE UNION

[23] And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh (that is, she is man's counterpart, not merely in feeling and sense — his flesh — but in his solid qualities): she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man (God did not take the woman out of man's feet to be stepped on as an inferior; nor out of his head to be put on a pedestal as a superior; but from his side, close to his heart as an equal).

[24] Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife (this Passage must be viewed as an inspired declaration of the law of marriage): and they shall be one flesh (points to a unity of persons, not simply to a conjunction of bodies, or a community of interests, or even a reciprocity of affections)**.

THE STATE OF INNOCENCE

25 And they were both naked (refers to an absence of clothing, at least as we understand such; they were actually enswathed in ethereal and transfiguring light), the man and his wife, and were not ashamed (were not ashamed, because there was nothing of which to be ashamed)**.

CHAPTER 3

THE FALL OF MAN

[1] Now the serpent was more subtle than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made (the word "subtle," as used here, is not negative, but rather positive; everything that God made before the Fall was positive; it describes qualities such as quickness of sight, swiftness of motion, activity of self-preservation, and seemingly intelligent adaptation to its surroundings). And he said unto the woman (not a fable; the serpent before the Fall had the ability of limited speech; Eve did not seem surprised when he spoke to her!), Yes, has God said, You shall not eat of every tree of the Garden? (The serpent evidently lent its faculties to Satan, even though the Evil One is not mentioned. That being the case, Satan spoke through the serpent, and questioned the Word of God.)

[2] And the woman said unto the serpent (proclaims Satan leveling his attack against Eve, instead of Adam; his use of Eve was only a means to get to Adam), We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the Garden (the trial of our first parents was ordained by God, because probation was essential to their spiritual development and self-determination; but as He did not desire that they should be tempted to their Fall, He would not suffer Satan to tempt them in a way that would surpass their human capacity; the tempted might, therefore, have resisted the tempter)**:

[3] But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the Garden, God has said, You shall not eat of it, neither shall you touch it, lest you die (Eve quoted what the Lord had said about the prohibition, but then added, "neither shall you touch it")**.

[4] And the serpent said unto the woman, You shall not surely die (proclaims an outright denial of the Word of God; as God had preached to Adam, Satan now preaches to Eve; Jesus called Satan a liar, which probably refers to this very moment [Jn. 8:44]):

5 For God does know that in the day you eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened (suggests the attainment of higher wisdom), and you shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. (In effect says, "You shall be Elohim." It was a promise of Divinity. God is Omniscient, meaning that His knowledge of evil is thorough, but not by personal experience. By His very Nature, He is totally separate from all that is evil. The knowledge of evil that Adam and Eve would learn would be by moral degradation, which would bring wreckage. While it was proper to desire to be like God, it is proper only if done in the right way, and that is through Faith in Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross.)

6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food (presents the lust of the eyes), and that it was pleasant to the eyes (the lust of the flesh), and a tree to be desired to make one wise (the pride of life), she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat (constitutes the Fall), and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat (refers to the fact that evidently Adam was an observer to all these proceedings; some claim that he ate of the forbidden fruit which she offered him out of love for her; however, no one ever sins out of love; Eve submitted to the temptation out of deception, but "Adam was not deceived" [I Tim. 2:14]; he fell because of unbelief; he simply didn't believe what God had said about the situation; contrast Verse 6 with Luke 4:1-13; both present the three temptations, "the lust of the flesh," "the lust of the eyes," and "the pride of life"; the first man falls, the Second Man conquers).

7 And the eyes of them both were opened (refers to the consciousness of guilt as a result of their sin), and they knew that they were naked (refers to the fact that they had lost the enswathing light of purity, which previously had clothed their bodies); and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons (sinners clothe themselves with morality, sacraments, and religious ceremonies; they are as worthless as Adam's apron of fig leaves).

8 And they heard the Voice of the LORD God walking in the Garden in the cool of the day (the "Voice" of the Lord had once been a welcome sound; it is now a dreaded sound, because of their sin; it is not that the Voice of the Lord had changed, for it hadn't; it was the same Voice that they had heard since creation; He hadn't changed, but they had): and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the Garden (here is the dawn of a new era in the history of humanity; the eye of a guilty conscience is now opened for the first time, and God and the universe appear in new and terrible forms).

9 And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where are you? (This is the first question in the Old Testament. "Where is he?" is the first question in the New Testament [Mat. 2:2]. The Old Testament, God seeking the sinner; the New Testament, the sinner seeking God.)

10 And he (Adam) said, I heard Your Voice in the Garden, and I was afraid (fear is the first reaction of fallen man; Adam's consciousness of the effects of sin was keener than his sense of the sin itself), because I was naked; and I hid myself (he was naked to the Judgment of God, because of sin, which must be judged; he tried to hide himself from God, even as untold millions have, but never with any success; God wanted Adam to know that he who hides himself from Him is never hidden from Him, and that he who runs away from Him can never escape Him).

11 And He said, Who told you that you were naked (carries Adam's mind from the effect to the sin that had caused it; as long as a man feels sorrow only for the results of his action, there is no Repentance, and no wish to return to the Divine Presence)? Have you eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded you that you should not eat? (The way the question is framed removes the pretext of ignorance, and also points to the fact that the sin had been carried out in direct violation of the Divine prohibition [Calvin].)

12 And the man said, The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat (Adam first of all blamed God, and then blamed Eve; he recapitulates the history, as if, in his view, it was a matter of course that he should act as he had done; man has been doing this ever since).

13 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that you have done? (The two questions, "Where are you?" and "What is this that you have done?" comprise the human problem.) And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat (presents Eve blaming the serpent; in a sense, she was blaming God as well, simply because God had made the serpent).

THE ADAMIC COVENANT AND CURSES

14 And the LORD God said unto the serpent (as we shall see, presents no question or interrogation being posed toward the serpent at all; God judges him, and it is in listening to this judgment that the guilty pair hear the first great Promise respecting Christ), Because you have done this, you are cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field (refers to this animal being reduced from possibly the highest place and position in the animal kingdom to the lowest); upon your belly shall you go, and dust shall you eat all the days of your life (if in fact the serpent was an unwitting tool in the hand of Satan, then I think that the Lord would not have placed a curse upon this animal)**:

15 And I will put enmity (animosity) between you and the woman (presents the Lord now actually speaking to Satan, who had used the serpent; in effect, the Lord is saying to Satan, "You used the woman to bring down the human race, and I will use the woman as an instrument to bring the Redeemer into the world, Who will save the human race"), and between your seed (mankind which follows Satan) and her Seed (the Lord Jesus Christ); it (Christ) shall bruise your head (the Victory that Jesus won at the Cross [Col. 2:14-15]), and you shall bruise His Heel (the sufferings of the Cross).

16 Unto the woman He said, I will greatly multiply your sorrow and your conception (the original Plan of God was that husband and wife would bring sons and daughters of God into the world; due to the Fall, they can only bring sons and daughters into the world in the "likeness of Adam" [Gen. 5:3]); in sorrow you shall bring forth children (as a result of the Fall, children would be born into a world of sorrow); and your desire shall be to your husband, and he shall rule over you (her husband, instead of God, would now rule over her).

[17] And unto Adam He said, Because you have hearkened unto the voice of your wife (Adam hearkened unto his wife instead of God), and have eaten of the tree, of which I commanded you, saying, You shall not eat of it (the tree itself contained no evil properties in the fruit; the Fall, as stated, was caused rather by disobedience to the Word of God): cursed is the ground for your sake; in sorrow shall you eat of it all the days of your life (Earth was originally intended to be a paradise, but now it will give up its largesse reluctantly; as well, the phrase, "all the days of your life," proclaims the death sentence, which means that life is now terminal, all as a result of "spiritual death," which was, and is, separation from God)**;

[18] Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to you (thorns and thistles were not originally in the creation of God, this being a result of the curse, which is a result of the sin of man); and you shall eat the herb of the field (this would not now grow freely, as originally intended, but only now with great care and great labor)**;

[19] In the sweat of your face shall you eat bread (food will be obtained by hard labor), till you return unto the ground (the life-source, which was formerly in God, is now in food, and which is woefully insufficient); for out of it were you taken: for dust you are, and unto dust shall you return (the Power of God alone could keep the dust alive; that being gone, to dust man returns).

[20] And Adam called his wife's name Eve; because she was the mother of all living. (God named the man, and called him Adam, which means "red earth." Adam named the woman, and called her Eve, which means "life." Adam bears the name of the dying body, Eve of the living soul.)

[21] Unto Adam also and to his wife did the LORD God make coats of skins, and clothed them (in the making of coats of skins, God, in effect, was telling Adam and Eve that their fig leaves were insufficient; as well, He was teaching them that without the shedding of blood, which pertained to the animals that gave their lives, which were Types of Christ, is no remission of sin; in this first sacrifice was laid the foundation of the entirety of the Plan of God as it regards Redemption; also, it must be noticed that it is the "LORD God" Who furnished these coats, and not man himself; this tells us that Salvation is altogether of God and not at all of man; the Life of Christ given on the Cross, and given as our Substitute, provides the only covering for sin; everything else must be rejected).

EXPULSION FROM THE GARDEN

[22] And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of Us, to know good and evil (the Lord knew evil, not by personal experience, but rather through Omniscience; man now knows evil by becoming evil, which is the fountainhead of all sorrow in the world; the pronoun "Us" signifies the Godhead, "God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit"): and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the Tree of Life, and eat, and live forever (this would have been the worst thing of all, to have an Adolf Hitler to live forever, etc.):

[23] Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the Garden of Eden (in effect, this was an act of mercy; man is expelled from the Garden, lest by eating the Tree of Life he should perpetuate his misery; but God's Love for him, though fallen and guilty, is so strong that He accompanies him into exile; as well, through Jesus Christ, God's only Son, Who will be given in Sacrifice, the Lord will show Adam, and all who would follow him, how to come back into Paradise; regrettably, there is no record that Adam and Eve placed any faith in the Lord; unfortunately, untold billions have followed suit), to till the ground from whence he was taken (refers to a place of toil, not to a place of torment).

[24] So He (God) drove out the man (implies the idea of force and displeasure); and He placed at the east of the Garden of Eden Cherubims (these Cherubims signified the Holiness of God, which man had now forfeited), and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the Tree of Life (the "flaming sword" was emblematic of the Divine Glory in its attitude towards sin).

CHAPTER 4

CAIN AND ABEL

[1] And Adam knew Eve his wife (is the Biblical connotation of the union of husband and wife in respect to the sex act); and she conceived, and bore Cain (the first child born to this union, and would conclude exactly as the Lord said it would, with "sorrow"), and said, I have gotten a man from the LORD (by Eve using the title "LORD," which means "Covenant God," and which refers to the "Seed of the woman," [Gen. 3:15], she thought Cain was the Promised One; she evidently didn't realize that it was impossible for fallen man to bring forth the Promised Redeemer).

[2] And she again bore his brother Abel ("Abel" means "vanity;" Cain being the oldest, this shows that Eve by now had become disillusioned with her firstborn, undoubtedly seeing traits in him which she knew could not be of the Promised Seed; she was losing faith in God). And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground (both were honorable professions).

[3] And in process of time it came to pass (the phrase used here refers to a long indefinite period), that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the LORD. (This was probably the first offering that he brought, even though the Lord had explained to the First Family the necessity of the Sacrificial System, that is, if they were to have any type of communion with God and forgiveness of sins. There is evidence that Adam, at least for a while, offered up sacrifices. Cain knew the type of Sacrifice that the Lord would accept, but he rebelled against that admonition, demanding that God accept the labor of his hands, which, in fact, God could not accept. So we have, in the persons of Cain and Abel, the first examples of a religious man of the world and a genuine man of Faith.)

4 And Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock and of the fat thereof (this is what God demanded; it was a blood sacrifice of an innocent victim, a lamb, which proclaimed the fact that Abel recognized his need of a Redeemer, and that One was coming Who would redeem lost humanity; the Offering of Abel was a Type of Christ and the price that He would pay on the Cross of Calvary in order for man to be redeemed). And the LORD had respect unto Abel and to his offering: (As stated, this was a Type of Christ and the Cross, the only Offering which God will respect. Abel's Altar is beautiful to God's Eye and repulsive to man's. Cain's altar is beautiful to man's eye and repulsive to God's. These "altars" exist today; around the one that is Christ and His atoning work, few are gathered, around the other, many. God accepts the slain lamb and rejects the offered fruit; and the offering being rejected, so of necessity is the offerer.)

5 But unto Cain and to his offering He had not respect (let us say it again, God has no respect for any proposed way of Salvation, other than "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" [I Cor. 1:23; 2:2]). And Cain was very angry, and his countenance fell (that which filled Abel with peace filled Cain with wrath; the carnal mind displays its enmity against all this Truth which so gladdens and satisfies the heart of the Believer).

6 And the LORD said unto Cain (God loves Cain, just as He did Abel, and wishes to bless him also), Why are you angry (Abel's Altar speaks of Repentance, of Faith, and of the Precious Blood of Christ, the Lamb of God without blemish; Cain's altar tells of pride, unbelief, and self-righteousness, which always elicits anger)? and why is your countenance fallen (anger, in one form or the other, accompanies self-righteousness, for that is what plagued Cain; God's Righteousness can only come by the Cross, while self-righteousness is by dependence on works)**?

7 If you do well, shall you not be accepted (if you bring the correct sacrifice, and thereby place your faith)? and if you do not well, sin (a Sin-Offering) lies at the door (a lamb was at the door of the Tabernacle). And unto you shall be his desire, and you shall rule over him (the Lord promised Cain dominion over the Earth of that day, if he would only offer up, and place his trust in, the right Sacrifice; He promises the same presently to all who trust Christ [Mat. 5:5]).

CAIN MURDERS ABEL

[8] And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and killed him (the first murder; Cain's religion was too refined to kill a lamb, but not too cultured to murder his brother; God's Way of Salvation fills the heart with love; man's way of salvation inflames it with hatred; "Religion" has ever been the greatest cause of bloodshed).

[9] And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is Abel your brother? (Adam sins against God and Cain sins against man. In their united conduct, we have sin in all its forms, and that on the first page of human history.) And he said, I know not: Am I my brother's keeper (He showed himself a "liar" in saying, "I know not"; "wicked and profane" in thinking he could hide his sin from God; "unjust" in denying himself to be his brother's keeper; "obstinate and desperate" in not confessing his sin)**?

[10] And He (God) said, What have you done (this concerns man's sins, the fruit of his sinful nature)? The voice of your brother's blood cries unto Me from the ground. (There is some Scriptural evidence that Cain cut his brother's throat. Thus, with the first shedding of human blood, that ominous thought sprang up, divinely bestowed, that the Earth will grant no peace to the one who has wantonly stained her fair face with the life-stream of man.)

[11] And now are you cursed from the Earth (Cain repudiated the Cross, murdered his brother, and is now cursed by God; this is the first curse leveled by God against a human being), which has opened her mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand (was the beginning of what has proven to be a saturation; from then until now, the Earth has been soaked with the blood of innocent victims)**;

[12] When you till the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto you her strength (presents the fact that Cain had polluted man's habitation, and now, when he tilled the soil, it would resist him as an enemy); a fugitive and a vagabond shall you be in the Earth (presents the search, not of a better lot, but under the compulsion of an evil conscience)**.

13 And Cain said unto the LORD, My punishment is greater than I can bear (Cain did not see the enormity of his sin, but the severity of his punishment; in other words, there was no repentance).

14 Behold, You have driven me out this day from the face of the Earth (Adam's sin brought expulsion from the inner circle, Cain's from the outer); and from Your face shall I be hid (to be hidden from the Face of God is to be not regarded by God, and not protected by His Guardian care); and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the Earth (a wanderer); and it shall come to pass, that everyone who finds me shall (seek to) kill me. (The reference by Cain to other individuals proves that in the some 100 plus years since Adam and Eve were created, the first parents had other children. By this time, there could very well have been several thousands of people on the Earth, and no doubt were.)

15 And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever kills Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold (Cain was allowed to live in order that he might be a perpetual warning to others that the blood of their fellowman must not be spilled; however, very few heeded, as few presently heed). And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him (we aren't told what the mark was, but evidently, all knew).

THE FIRST CIVILIZATION

16 And Cain went out from the Presence of the LORD (those in rebellion against God do not at all desire His Presence, and for all the obvious reasons), and dwelt in the land of Nod, on the east of Eden ("Nod" means "wandering;" the majority of the human race "wander," because they don't know God and, therefore, have no peace).

17 And Cain knew his wife (Biblical terminology for conception); and she conceived, and bore Enoch: and he built a city (actually means "was building" or "began to build;" the idea is, it was not finished; and so it has been, and is, with the human race; nothing is ever quite finished with the unredeemed, simply because what is built doesn't satisfy), and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enoch (carries the idea, due to the meaning of the name Enoch, that this city would be a place of education and learning — but it was education and learning without God).

18 And unto Enoch was born Irad: and Irad begat (fathered) Mehujael: and Mehujael begat Methusael: and Methusael begat Lamech (all of this was three hundred or more years after the creation of Adam and Eve).

19 And Lamech took unto him two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah (the first instance of polygamy recorded in the Bible).

20 And Adah bore Jabal: he was the father of such as dwell in tents, and of such as have cattle.

21 And his brother's name was Jubal: he was the father of all such as handle the harp and organ (it seems that Jubal was the originator of musical instruments; man's ear is now filled with other sounds than those which issue from Calvary, and his eye is filled with other objects than a Crucified Christ).

22 And Zillah, she also bore Tubal-cain, an instructor of every artificer in brass and iron: and the sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah (Tubal-cain was the first one to begin to work with metals; the name of "Cain" was probably added to show that these were "Cainites;" "Naamah" means "beautiful").

23 And Lamech said unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice; you wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech: for I have slain a man to my wounding, and a young man to my hurt.

24 If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, truly Lamech seventy and sevenfold. (This is the first recorded poem in human history. Like so much poetry ever since, it glorifies immorality and murder, and denies coming wrath. Man has attempted to deny judgment ever since; nevertheless, judgment one day is coming [Rev. 20:11-15].)

THE SPIRITUAL SEED RENEWED

25 And Adam knew his wife again; and she bore a son, and called his name Seth (after dealing with Cain's line in the beginnings of corruption of violence, Moses goes back some years to the birth of "Seth;" the Holy Spirit will single out "Seth," because he was in the lineage of Christ; the name "Seth" means "appointed substitute"): For God, said she, has appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain killed. (When "Cain" was born, Eve said, "I have gotten a man from the LORD," indicating that she believed in the Covenant of Genesis 3:15. Now she uses the term "God," in effect stating that she has lost faith in the Covenant. As stated, this "seed" would be the one through whom Christ would come, but because of faithlessness, Eve did not know or believe this.)

26 And to Seth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name Enos (the name "Enos" means "sickly, mortal, decaying man;" the awful results of the Fall are now beginning to sink in): then began men to call upon the N ame of the LORD (probably refers to contempt; quite possibly the family of Cain, knowing that Seth had now taken the place of Abel, as it regards the "firstborn" or "appointed one," contemptuously refers to them as the "God people," or the "Lord people").

CHAPTER 5

ADAM'S DESCENDANTS

[1] This is the book of the generations of Adam (corresponds with the phrase, "The Book of the Generation of Jesus Christ," Who was the Last Adam [Mat. 1:1]). In the day that God created man, in the Likeness of God made He him (the "Likeness of God" is the "Glory of God" [II Cor. 4:6]. Through the Fall, man lost that glory; however, at the First Resurrection of Life, every Believer will regain that glory [Rom. 8:17])**;

[2] Male and female created He them (refers to the fact that homosexuality is a grievous sin before God); and blessed them (the blessing was lost as a result of the Fall, but has been regained in Christ), and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created (Adam, in the Hebrew, is the word for humankind in general beside the specific name for the first man)**.

[3] And Adam lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat (fathered) a son in his own likeness (God originally intended for mankind to procreate "sons and daughters of God" into the world; due to the Fall, sons and daughters could be brought into the world only in the likeness of their original parent, Adam, a product of his fallen nature; it is called "original sin"), and after his image (means that Adam no longer had the Image of God; the "likeness" and "image" are now after Satan [Jn. 8:44]); and called his name Seth (even though Seth was not the Promised One, still, he represented a ray of hope; through him, rather his line, the Promised One would come)**:

[4] And the days of Adam after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred years: and he begat sons and daughters (the intimation is, Adam was able to father children, and Eve to conceive, for some 800 years. Exactly how many children they brought into the world we aren't told. But it had to be many):

5 And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years: and he died (the family history of this, the Heavenly Race, is marked by death; no matter how long a member of the family lived, yet three words attend the name: "and he died").

THE FAMILY OF SETH

6 And Seth lived an hundred and five years, and begat (fathered) Enos:

7 And Seth lived after he begat Enos eight hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters:

8 And all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years: and he died.

THE FAMILY OF ENOS

9 And Enos lived ninety years, and begat Cainan:

10 And Enos lived after he begat Cainan eight hundred and fifteen years, and begat sons and daughters:

11 And all the days of Enos were nine hundred and five years: and he died.

THE FAMILY OF CAINAN

12 And Cainan lived seventy years, and begat Mahalaleel:

13 And Cainan lived after he begat Mahalaleel eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and daughters:

14 And all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years: and he died.

THE FAMILY OF MAHALALEEL

15 And Mahalaleel lived sixty and five years, and begat Jared:

16 And Mahalaleel lived after he begat Jared eight hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters:

17 And all the days of Mahalaleel were eight hundred ninety and five years: and he died.

THE FAMILY OF JARED

18 And Jared lived an hundred sixty and two years, and he begat Enoch (Enoch and Abel are the only two men from creation to the flood, with the exception of Noah, listed who lived for God. There may have been others, but the Bible doesn't say):

19 And Jared lived after he begat Enoch eight hundred years, and begat sons and daughters:

20 And all the days of Jared were nine hundred sixty and two years: and he died.

THE FAMILY OF ENOCH

21 And Enoch lived sixty and five years, and begat Methuselah (apparently, Enoch was 65 years of age when he was converted and entered into this Divine fellowship; the name "Methuselah" means: "The Deluge (the flood) shall be sent when he is dead"; so, Methuselah was a living, walking testimony that judgment was coming upon the Earth because of its terrible wickedness; however, only Noah and his family believed; so the flood came a little less than a thousand years after Methuselah was born):

22 And Enoch walked with God (three statements are made in the Bible respecting Enoch: "he walked with God" [Gen. 5:22]; "he witnessed for God" [Jude, Vs. 14]; "he pleased God" [Heb. 11:5]) after he begat Methuselah three hundred years, and begat sons and daughters (Enoch did not live a life of isolation, but he did live a life of separation. Such is demanded of all Believers)**:

23 And all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty and five years (converted at 65 years old, he faithfully lived for God some 300 years)**:

24 And Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him (Enoch was one of the two men in history who did not die, Elijah being the other. He was translated, and as Paul said, "that he should not see death" [Heb. 11:5]).

THE FAMILY OF METHUSELAH

25 And Methuselah lived an hundred eighty and seven years, and begat Lamech (Noah will be born to Lamech).

26 And Methuselah lived after he begat Lamech seven hundred eighty and two years, and begat sons and daughters:

27 And all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty and nine years: and he died (Methuselah lived longer than anyone has ever lived, 969 years; he apparently died just before Noah's flood; despite his Godly father, there is no record that he lived for God).

THE FAMILY OF LAMECH

28 And Lamech lived an hundred eighty and two years, and begat a son:

29 And he called his name Noah (we are now introduced to Noah, one of the central figures of the Bible, and of all time. His name means "rest"), saying, This same shall comfort us concerning our work and toil of our hands, because of the ground which the LORD has cursed (it seems that Lamech, the father of Noah, had been given a Revelation concerning this child. The comfort he brought, as it regards the curse, had to do with the Ark, and the One Who would ultimately come through his lineage, the Son of God, Who would remove the greater curse — the curse of the broken Law [Gal. 3:13]).

30 And Lamech lived after he begat Noah five hundred ninety and five years, and begat sons and daughters (but none of the brothers and sisters of Noah believed the Word of the Lord, and thereby perished in the flood)**:

31 And all the days of Lamech were seven hundred seventy and seven years: and he died.

THE FAMILY OF NOAH

32 And Noah was five hundred years old: and Noah begat Shem, Ham, and Japheth (due to the fact that every human being on the face of the Earth died in the flood, with the exception of Noah and his family, this means that every person who has ever lived since then is a descendant of either Shem, Ham, or Japheth).

CHAPTER 6

WICKEDNESS OF MANKIND

[1] And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the Earth, and daughters were born unto them (the events of this Chapter probably begin at about the time of Enoch, which was about a thousand years before the flood. There were, no doubt, several millions of people on the face of the Earth at that time. Verse 1 is not meant to imply that the births of baby girls were more than that of baby boys, but is rather meant to set up the narrative for that which is about to be said)**,

[2] That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose (the "sons of God" portrayed here refer to fallen Angels, which had thrown in their lot with Lucifer, who led a revolution against God some time in eternity past; in order to spoil the human lineage through which the Messiah would ultimately come, they would seek to corrupt that lineage, and to do so by marrying the "daughters of men," thereby producing a mongrel race, so to speak, of which at least some of these offspring turned out to be "giants"; at any rate, all who were the result of such a union were tainted; the term "sons of God" in the Old Testament, at least as it is used here, is never used of human beings, but always of Angels, whether righteous or fallen [Job 1:6; 2:1]; in his short Epistle, Jude mentions these particular "Angels." He said that they "kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation"; he then said what their sin was: "going after strange flesh." Concerning this, Jude also said that God "has reserved [them] in everlasting chains unto darkness unto the Judgment of the great day" [Jude, Vss. 6-7]).

THE WARNING OF GOD

3 And the LORD said, My Spirit (Holy Spirit) shall not always strive with man (the Lord is speaking here of the man, Adam, and not mankind in general), for that he also is flesh (refers to the fact that even though the first man was created personally by God, he still was flesh, and because of the Fall must ultimately die): yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years (from the time of this announcement, Adam was to be given 120 years to repent; there is no evidence that he did; many think that this 120 years refer to the time limit to repent before the Flood; however, it has nothing to do with the Flood, as we will later prove).

4 There were giants in the Earth in those days (as a result of the union of the fallen Angels with the "daughters of men"); and also after that ("those days" speak of the time before the Flood, while "also after that" speaks of the time after the Flood; in fact, Goliath, who was killed by David, was one of those specimens), when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bore children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown (these terms, "mighty men, men of renown" shoot down the hypotheses of these terms referring merely to the lineage of Seth and the lineage of Cain).

5 And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the Earth (these "men of renown," the giants, were developing more and more ways of wickedness), and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually (Due to this infestation, the evil began with the very thought processes, and incorporated every human being; this was a continuous action of evil which never let up, and constantly grew more degrading).

6 And it repented the LORD that He had made man on the Earth (God does not change as it regards His Nature; however, the fact that the Lord repents presents the truth that God, in consistency with His Immutability, assumes a changed position in respect to changed man), and it grieved Him at His Heart (this is not merely an anthropomorphic statement, as some claim, but a true statement regarding the Nature of God; sin grieves the Lord!).

7 And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the Earth (the wickedness of man had become so great, if God had not done this, man would ultimately have destroyed himself, although it would have taken much longer. Sin has to be judged, and inevitably will be judged); both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repents Me that I have made them (the animal kingdom was made for man, and if man is destroyed, there is no more purpose or reason for the animal kingdom; so it must be destroyed as well).

NOAH AND THE ARK

8 But Noah found Grace in the sight of the LORD (this is the first time that Grace is mentioned in the Bible. Grace refers to the Goodness of God extended to undeserving man).

9 These are the generations of Noah (the Holy Spirit brings this out, because Noah and his family were perfect in their lineage, in that it had not been corrupted by the union of fallen angels and women): Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations (Noah was justified before God by Faith in the Promised Seed; for Paul later said that he was an heir of the Righteousness which is by Faith [Heb. 11:7]), and Noah walked with God (this was the only man on the face of the Earth at this time of which this could be said).

10 And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth (we learn from the last Verse of the previous Chapter that these sons were not born to Noah until he was some "500 years old").

11 The Earth also was corrupt before God, and the Earth was filled with violence (meaning that all were corrupted respecting the lineage concerning the union of fallen angels and women).

12 And God looked upon the Earth, and, behold, it was corrupt ("God looked" denotes a special observance, as though He had instituted an inquiry into its real condition [Ps. 14:2; 33:13-14]; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the Earth (the lineage of the entire race, due to the union of fallen angels and women, was marred. This was the plan of Satan to keep the Redeemer from coming into the world, Who could only function through an uncorrupted lineage. Other than Noah and his family, the entirety of the human race was polluted).

[13] And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before Me (the Lord had investigated the situation thoroughly); for the Earth is filled with violence through them (the Hebrew says, "For the Earth is filled with violence from their faces"; the idea is, they knew what they were doing, and thereby, in effect, dared God to stop them); and, behold, I will destroy them with the Earth (God had no choice! but for Noah, the human race would have been no more, and this world would have been turned back to a place "without form, and void, with darkness upon the face of the deep" [Gen. 1:2]).

[14] Make thee an Ark of gopher wood (the Ark was a Type of Christ); rooms shall you make in the Ark, and shall pitch it within and without with pitch.

[15] And this is the fashion which you shall make it of: The length of the Ark shall be three hundred cubits, the width of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits (using 18 inches to the cubit, it was to be 450 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high).

[16] A window shall you make to the Ark, and in a cubit shall you finish it above; and the door of the Ark shall you set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shall you make it (the Hebrew words translated "window" and "door" carry a different meaning than appears on the surface; for instance, the word "window" was evidently a means, not merely of lighting the Ark, but also of ventilating it; it probably was an open space about 18 inches high, running all around the Ark, which would have given a sufficient supply of air, and would have been protected by the overhanging eaves of the roof; as well, it is believed that the "door" probably extended throughout the three floors or stories. The Ark would probably have displaced about 30,000 tons or more; consequently, it was a monstrous ship).

[17] And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the Earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and everything that is in the Earth shall die (this referred to all things, with the exception of the fish in the sea [Vs. 20]).

18 But with you will I establish My Covenant (this is the first time that the word "Covenant" is used in the Bible. This pertains to the Covenant of the Promised Seed [Gen. 3:15]); and you shall come into the Ark, you, and your sons, and your wife, and your sons' wives with you (presents the fact that his entire family was saved).

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shall you bring into the Ark, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female (Scientists declare the distinct species of four-footed animals to be about 250; if this number be doubled, and a certain proportion multiplied by 7 for the clean animals, and if an equal number of birds be added and 12 cubic feet allotted to each animal and to each bird, the total number of cubic feet so used would be about one million, leaving approximately two million cubic feet for provisions; so I think it should be obvious that there was an abundance of room in the Ark for its inhabitants).

20 Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the Earth after his kind, two of every sort shall come unto you, to keep them alive (I think it is obvious, from the phrase, "shall come unto you," that the Spirit of the Lord caused these animals and fowls to come to Noah).

21 And take you unto you of all food that is eaten, and you shall gather it to you; and it shall be for food for you, and for them (not knowing how long the flood waters would remain on the Earth, evidently Noah filled the vessel to the brim with provisions).

22 Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he (nothing greater could be said about any man!).

CHAPTER 7

(2349 B.C.)

GOD'S COMMAND TO ENTER THE ARK

[1] And the LORD said unto Noah, Come thou and all your house into the Ark (the Epistle to the Hebrews states that Noah prepared this Ark because he believed the Divine warning; as well, the word "Come," as used by the Lord, presents the fact that God is the first One in the Ark; had He been outside, He would have said, "Go into the Ark!"); for you have I seen righteous before Me in this generation (refers to Noah's Faith in the coming Redeemer, for that is the only Faith that God will recognize; Paul wrote of him: "And became heir of the Righteousness which is by Faith" [Heb. 11:7]; the Faith addressed here speaks of Christ and what He would do at the Cross; Noah only had a dim view of that coming time, but, as dim as it was, he placed his past, his present, and his future in the Promise of God to send the "Seed")**.

[2] Of every clean beast you shall take to you by sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

[3] Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the Earth (this is not a reference to the Levitical Law, for that would not be given for another 900 years; probably the clean animals mentioned were such as from the days of Adam and Abel, as had been offered in sacrifice; thus, provision was made for Noah's sacrifice on his exit from the Ark, when the flood would subside)**.

[4] For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the Earth forty days and forty nights (the command to enter the Ark was given a week before the rains would begin — and rain such as the world had never known); and every living substance that I have made will I destroy from off the face of the Earth.

5 And Noah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him (this is the second time that the Holy Spirit through Moses speaks of Noah's obedience).

THE FLOOD BEGINS

6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the Earth (this Verse proves that the 120 years of Genesis 6:3 had nothing to do with the time limit until the flood; in fact, the Bible doesn't tell us how long it was that the warning was given to the people; the number six is generally a Scriptural symbol of suffering; in the Apocalypse, the sixth seal, the sixth trumpet, and the sixth vial introduce critical periods of affliction).

7 And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the Ark, because of the waters of the flood (concerning this time, Paul said in Hebrews 11:7 that they did this thing "being moved with fear and impelled by faith").

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of everything that creeps upon the Earth.

9 There went in two and two unto Noah into the Ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah (nothing short of Divine power could have effected such a timely and orderly entrance of the creatures into this huge vessel).

10 And it came to pass after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the Earth (that which Noah had preached for a number of years was now a reality).

11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened (the water came from above and from below; as well, it is believed by some Scientists, and rightly so, that the waters came with such force from the Earth, that it would have taken only a few days to have cut the Grand Canyon and other such similarities).

12 And the rain was upon the Earth forty days and forty nights (the literal Hebrew translation is, "And there was violent rain...").

13 In the selfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the Ark *(on the day the rains began, Noah and his family entered the Ark);

14 They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creeps upon the Earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.

15 And they went in unto Noah into the Ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life (the Lord gave these animals the instinct to do what they did).

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the LORD shut him in (the contrast between the two names of the Deity is most vividly presented here; in this one Verse, both "God" and "LORD" are used. It is "Elohim" Who commands Noah about the beasts; it is "Jehovah," the Covenant God, Who ensures his safety by closing the Ark behind him; nothing can more fully express the Believer's perfect security in Christ than those words, "the LORD shut him in").

17 And the flood was forty days upon the Earth; and the waters increased, and bore up the Ark, and it was lift up above the Earth (wherever it was that Noah built the Ark, the flood waters reached it, and it began to float).

18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the Earth; and the Ark went upon the face of the waters (probably pertains to the fact that the scoffers flattered themselves that it would abate, and never come to extremity; but still it increased, and prevailed).

19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the Earth; and all the high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered (those who dwelt upon the tops of the loftiest mountains perished equally with those who lived in the deepest valleys; there was no difference; many who live upon the mountains of morality think themselves secure from the judgment of fire that is now coming, and pity the certain fate of those who live in the depths of vice; but without Christ, all will perish).

20 Fifteen cubits upward (above the highest mountains) did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered (many Scholars believe that before the flood the tallest mountain in the world was approximately 10,000 feet or less; "the great deep being broken up" changed much of the topography of the world, making huge canyons and, at the same time, huge mountains).

21 And all flesh died that moved upon the Earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creeps upon the Earth, and every man (the fish were not destroyed)**:

22 All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died (not one wave of that judgment reached Noah; he was absolutely safe; Noah could not perish because the Ark could not perish; the Ark could not perish because Jehovah was in the Ark; in effect, the Ark was Christ; therefore, God was in Christ, reconciling man unto Himself).

23 And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the Earth: and Noah only remained alive, and they who were with him in the Ark (only those who are "in Christ" are saved. There are no exceptions [Jn. 3:16]).

24 And the waters prevailed upon the Earth an hundred and fifty days.

CHAPTER 8

THE WATERS RECEDE

[1] And God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the Ark (the idea of God remembering, as given here, does not mean that God had forgotten, or that He could forget; it simply means that He will now give His attention to whatever it is that is being addressed, whether of judgment or of blessing); and God made a wind to pass over the Earth, and the waters assuaged (concerning this, Mackintosh says, "Now, it is thought that Enoch is a figure of the Church, which shall be taken away before human evil reaches its climax, and before the Divine Judgment falls thereon; Noah, on the other hand, is a figure of the remnant of Israel, who shall be brought through the deep waters of affliction, and through the fire of judgment, and led into the full enjoyment of Millennial bliss, in virtue of God's everlasting Covenant")**;

[2] The fountains also of the deep and the windows of heaven were stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained (the two words in this Verse, "fountains" and "windows," proclaim to us the terrible ferocity of the flood; in fact, it was probably of such ferocity that it literally reshaped much of this world)**;

[3] And the waters returned from off the Earth continually: and after the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters were abated (while it took the Lord only one day to handle the water which covered the Earth during the time of creation [Gen. 1:6-8], it took much longer as it regards the flood of Noah's time; while both of these floods were caused by sin, the first by the rebellion of Angels, and the second by the rebellion of men, we find that the rebellion caused by men requires a far greater extent of attention by the Lord; the reason? God gave far greater dominion to Adam, i.e., mankind, than He did the Angelic creation)**.

4 And the Ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat (notice the following remarkable facts: "On the seventeenth day of Abib (April) the Ark rested on Mount Ararat; on the seventeenth day of Abib the Israelites passed over the Red Sea; on the seventeenth day of Abib, Christ, our Lord, rose again from the dead).

5 And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month: in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen (from the time that the Ark found a resting place on Ararat until many mountains could be seen were three months).

6 And it came to pass at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the Ark which he had made (Noah and God had dwelt together in the Ark for a full solar year, that is, from the seventeenth day of the second month until the twenty-seventh of the corresponding month in the following year — three hundred and sixty-five days)**:

7 And he sent forth a raven, which went forth to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the Earth (the raven flew away, and did not return).

8 Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground;

9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the Ark, for the waters were on the face of the whole Earth: then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the Ark (while the tops of some mountains were visible, still, these were a place of death instead of life; the dove could find no resting place in such an area, seeking that which was clean, so she comes back to the Ark).

10 And he stayed yet other seven days; and again he sent forth the dove out of the Ark;

11 And the dove came in to him in the evening; and, lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf plucked off: so Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the Earth.

12 And he stayed yet other seven days; and sent forth the dove; which returned not again unto him any more (the dove didn't return, because this time it no doubt found a suitable resting place, meaning that the waters were abating).

13 And it came to pass in the six hundredth and first year (Noah's age), in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the Earth: and Noah removed the covering of the Ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was dry (this refers to its surface only. There would be about 57 or 58 more days, according to the next Verse, making a complete solar year of 365 days, from the time the flood began until it was sufficiently dry).

14 And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the Earth dried.

LEAVING THE ARK

15 And God spoke unto Noah, saying (we find from this short Scripture that Noah waited on the Lord; he did nothing presumptuously), 16 Go forth of the Ark, you, and your wife, and your sons, and your sons' wives with you (the Lord, being in the Ark with Noah, would tell him "Go forth of the Ark").

17 Bring forth with you every living thing that is with you, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creeps upon the Earth; that they may breed abundantly in the Earth, and be fruitful, and multiply upon the Earth (this proclaims the fact that the flood was universal).

18 And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him:

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, and whatsoever creeps upon the Earth, after their kinds, went forth out of the Ark (the idea is, the animals did not leave the Ark in confusion, or at random, but in orderly fashion, each one sorting to its own kind).

NOAH'S SACRIFICE

[20] And Noah built an Altar unto the LORD; and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered Burnt Offerings on the Altar (Civilization, as it sprang from the sons of Noah, has its foundation in the Cross of Christ, i.e., "the Altar").

[21] And the LORD smelled a sweet savor (the burning of the Sacrifice was sweet unto the Lord, because it spoke of the Coming Redeemer, Who would lift man out of this morass of evil); and the LORD said in His Heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake (the "curse" of which God speaks here refers to the fact that He will not again visit the Earth with a flood); for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more everything living, as I have done (it means that God will take into consideration the results of the Fall, over which man at the time has no control; however, there is a remedy, which is the Altar, i.e., "the Cross").

[22] While the Earth remained, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease (the Promise is given here that the seasons of the year will continue forever, because the Earth will remain forever).

CHAPTER 9

THE COVENANT

[1] And God blessed Noah and his sons, and said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the Earth (the Blessing that God gave to Noah was in effect a Covenant; the Covenant concerned the subject matter of the Verse).

[2] And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the Earth, and upon every fowl of the air, upon all that moves upon the Earth, and upon all the fish of the sea; into your hand are they delivered (to be delivered into the hand of man refers to the fact that man would be able to tame and reduce certain animals to be of help to him).

[3] Every moving thing that lives shall be meat for you; even as the green herb have I given you all things. (All the animals, if so desired, could serve as food, as well as could vegetables; Genesis 1:29 implies that man was exclusively vegetarian before the flood.)

[4] But flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall you not eat (man is prohibited from eating blood; there were several reasons; however, the main reason was because the shedding of blood in Sacrifices typified the Great Atonement which would be carried out by Christ, in the shedding of His Life's Blood).

[5] And surely your blood of your lives will I require; at the hand of every beast will I require it, and at the hand of man; at the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man (this Verse condemns suicide, as well as homicide; this is a solemn proclamation of the sanctity of human life).

6 Whoso sheds man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed (in this Covenant, we actually have the institution of Government; the Passage speaks of cold-blooded murder; that being the case, the State has the right to take the life of such a murderer): for in the Image of God made He man (capital punishment is not meant by God to serve as a deterrent, but rather to portray the inherent worth of man).

7 And you, be ye fruitful, and multiply; bring forth abundantly in the Earth, and multiply therein (were it not for demonic religion and man's rebellion against God, the Earth could easily care for 100 billion people).

8 And God spoke unto Noah, and to his sons with him, saying (the problem with the world is that it ignores what God has said)**,

9 And I, behold, I establish My Covenant with you, and with your seed after you (the Covenant that God established with Noah was to be extended to all thereafter; in fact, it still stands)**;

10 And with every living creature that is with you, of the fowl, of the cattle, and of every beast of the Earth with you; from all that go out of the Ark, to every beast of the Earth. (This Covenant includes all of God's creation on Earth.)

11 And I will establish My Covenant with you, neither shall all flesh be cut off anymore by the waters of a flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the Earth. (This Covenant guarantees that the world will never again be destroyed by water.)

12 And God said, This is the token of the Covenant which I make between Me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations (means that generations of people will continue forever)**:

13 I do set My bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a Covenant between Me and the Earth (the whole creation rests, as to its exemption from a second deluge, on the eternal stability of God's Covenant, of which the bow is the token).

14 And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the Earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud (the rainbow):

15 And I will remember My Covenant, which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh (it doesn't mean that there will not be local floods, but rather a flood to destroy the entirety of the Earth).

16 And the bow shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the Everlasting Covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the Earth (in this Passage, we are told that this Covenant is everlasting; in the Hebrew, it means "the Covenant of Eternity").

17 And God said unto Noah, This is the token of the Covenant, which I have established between Me and all flesh that is upon the Earth (the Covenant being universal, the sign of the rainbow is also universal).

18 And the sons of Noah, who went forth of the Ark, were Shem, and Ham, and Japheth: and Ham is the father of Canaan. (The entirety of the population of the Earth, and for all time since the flood, are descendants of Shem, Ham, and Japheth; "Canaan" is mentioned because his lineage will prove to be bitter enemies of Israel about 800 years into the future.)

19 These are the three sons of Noah: and of them was the whole Earth overspread (this means that every single person on the Earth died in the flood, with the exception of this family).

NOAH'S DRUNKENNESS

20 And Noah began to be an husbandman, and he planted a vineyard:

21 And he drank of the wine, and was drunken; and he was uncovered within his tent. (This is the first mention of wine in the Bible, or any type of intoxicating beverage. Inasmuch as the first mention of intoxicating beverage in the Bible reveals such a shameful episode, we cannot help but garner from this illustration, as given by the Holy Spirit concerning Noah, the warning against alcohol taught here.)

22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren without (sin is like leaven; it always spreads; Noah not only gets drunk, but now pulls off his clothes, and does so intentionally; there is a form of insanity about sin).

23 And Shem and Japheth took a garment, and laid it upon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father; and their faces were backward, and they saw not their father's nakedness (a lack of love exposes sin, while the Love of God covers sin, but without condoning it).

24 And Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done unto him (there are some Scholars who believe that either Ham or Canaan, and more likely Canaan, committed an act of homosexuality on the Patriarch; while there is no concrete proof of such, there is definitely some indication in that direction).

THE CURSE ON CANAAN

25 And he said, Cursed be Canaan; a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren. (What was this curse? It had absolutely nothing to do with the skin of some people being black. In fact, all the descendants of Ham and Canaan were not black; some were white, and we speak of those who occupied the land of Canaan. The evidence is, it was only upon those, and because they opposed Israel, hence the statement being "Cursed be Canaan." Even then, Canaanites who placed their faith in God could escape it. Rahab, a Canaanite and a harlot, is an excellent example. She placed her faith in God and after a period of purification, was brought into Israel's camp. She married an Israelite, and became an ancestress of David, and even the greater Son of David, the Lord Jesus Christ [Josh. 6:25; Mat. 1:5; Heb. 11:31].)

26 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Shem (through Shem would come the Jewish people, who would give the world the Word of God and, as well, would bring forth the Messiah, the Saviour of the world); and Canaan shall be his servant (the Canaanites in Israel were defeated by David, and became the servants of Israel).

[27] God shall enlarge Japheth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem (Israel, the descendants of Shem, would reject Christ, while the descendants of Japheth would accept Him, which means that the Blessing intended for Shem, i.e., Israel, would instead go to the descendants of Japheth, i.e., the Gentiles); and Canaan shall be his servant. (The descendants of Canaan continue unto this hour [2003], in a sense, to be the servants of Japheth. For instance, the descendants of Canaan, wherever they might be, in a sense, answer to the United States, which part of the population are descendants of Japheth.)

[28] And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.

[29] And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years: and he died. (This means that Noah lived almost to the birth of Abraham, and was thus, in all probability, a witness of the building of the Tower of Babel, and of the consequent dispersion of mankind.)

CHAPTER 10

THE DESCENDANTS OF THE SONS OF NOAH

1 Now these are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth: and unto them were sons born after the flood. (The order was Shem, Ham, and Japheth; however, the order is now reversed, with Japheth, as we shall see, being first, because of his ascendancy.)

THE SONS OF JAPHETH

2 The sons of Japheth; Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras.

3 And the sons of Gomer; Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

4 And the sons of Javan; Elishah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

5 By these were the Isles (borders) of the Gentiles divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations. (This is the first mention of the word "Gentiles" in the Bible. Originally it was a general term for "nations," but gradually acquired a restricted sense by usage. It ultimately came to apply to all nations of the world, and all people, with the exception of the Jews. This Chapter explains the origin of nations.)

THE SONS OF HAM

6 And the sons of Ham; Cush, and Mizraim, and Phut, and Canaan.

7 And the sons of Cush; Seba and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtechah: and the sons of Raamah; Sheba, and Dedan.

8 And Cush begat Nimrod: he began to be a mighty one in the Earth. (The word "begat" speaks of the lineage. The great figure of this Chapter is Nimrod, and the great city of the Chapter is Babylon. He and his city foreshadow the coming Antichrist and his city. He may be assumed to have counseled and built the Tower of Babel of the next Chapter. He led the first organized rebellion against God.)

9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD (has nothing to do with hunting animals, but rather refers to opposition to the Lord): wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD. (As stated, Nimrod instituted the first organized rebellion against the Lord, and thereby the ways of the Lord, and thereby those who followed the Lord. He "hunted" them down, possibly even killing those who worshipped Jehovah; consequently, Babylon has always stood for every false religion, every false doctrine, and every false way. That's why it is referred to as "the great whore... the mother of harlots and abominations of the Earth" [Rev. 17:1, 5].)

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel (Babylon: Nimrod founded that city), and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

11 Out of that land went forth Asshur, and built Nineveh, and the city Rehoboth, and Calah (should be translated "out of that land went forth Nimrod in Assyria and built Nineveh," which means he founded both Babylon and Nineveh; Asshur was the son of Shem, and not Ham)**,

12 And Resen between Nineveh and Calah: the same is a great city.

13 And Mizraim begat Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim, 14 And Pathrusim, and Casluhim, (out of whom came Philistim,) and Caphtorim.

15 And Canaan begat Sidon his firstborn, and Heth,

16 And the Jebusite, and the Amorite, and the Girgasite,

17 And the Hivite, and the Arkite, and Sinite,

18 And the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite: and afterward were the families of the Canaanites spread abroad. (The tribes listed in Verses 16 through 18 occupied the Land of Canaan, and were the greatest nemeses to Israel upon her attempts to conquer the land. These are the names read often in your Bible, as they refer to opposition against the people of God. This was planned by Satan, no doubt, from the time of Noah.)

19 And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as you come to Gerar, unto Gaza; as you go, unto Sodom, and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zeboim, even unto Lasha.

20 These are the sons of Ham, after their families, after their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations. (Satan will do his best to place the enemies of your soul within your promised possession, just as he ultimately placed these enemies in the Land of Israel, who greatly opposed the people of God.)

THE SONS OF SHEM

21 Unto Shem also, the father of all the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder, even to him were children born.

22 The children of Shem; Elam, and Asshur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram.

23 And the children of Aram; Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash.

24 And Arphaxad begat Salah; and Salah begat Eber.

25 And unto Eber were born two sons: the name of one was Peleg; for in his days was the Earth divided; and his brother's name was Joktan. (Shem was in the lineage of the Promised Seed, so out of Shem ultimately sprang Jesus, the Plant of Renown [Ezek. 34:29; Lk. 3:36]. The Earth being divided in the days of Peleg refers to the time of the Tower of Babel, and the confusion of the languages by God. The name "Peleg" means "division." It refers here to language being divided, rather than land being divided.)

26 And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, 27 And Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah,

28 And Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba,

29 And Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab: all these were the sons of Joktan.

30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as you go unto Sephar a mount of the east.

31 These are the sons of Shem, after their families, after their tongues, in their lands, after their nations.

32 These are the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations, in their nations: and by these were the nations divided in the Earth after the flood. (All the nations of the world sprang from the three sons of Noah, Japheth, Ham, and Shem. As stated, the "sons of Shem" make up the Semitic people of the world, constituting mostly the Jews and the Arabs; however, the Jews do not recognize the Arabs in this capacity, concluding them to be Gentiles. As well, from this line, "the sons of Shem," would come the Messiah, the Saviour of the world, the Redeemer of mankind. It is ironic that even though the Redeemer came from this line, He is not now recognized as such by the far greater number of this lineage.)

CHAPTER 11

THE TOWER OF BABEL

[1] And the whole Earth was of one language, and of one speech (before the flood and immediately after the flood, there was only one language on the face of the Earth; even though we have no way of knowing specifically, that language was probably Hebrew).

[2] And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east (doesn't refer to every single person, but rather that a great group went in that direction, more than likely led by Nimrod; the phrase, "from the east," should have been translated "in the east"), that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there. (This prince, Nimrod, and his city, Babylon, and the plain on which it was erected, Shinar, all claim attention. They represent Satan's efforts, using man as his agent, to oppose and destroy God's Plans. God has His Prince and His City; so has Satan. And these opposing princes with their cities occupy most of the pages of the Bible — the closing pages of the Book revealing the triumph of Immanuel and Jerusalem over the Antichrist and Babylon.)

[3] And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for morter (considering the materials with which they were to use, they definitely did not plan for this city and tower to be temporary).

[4] And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven (probably signifies the worship of the Zodiac, i.e., "the planetary bodies"); and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole Earth. ("They said" marks the undeniable evil of the human heart. They had no regard for what God wanted. In this one Verse, we find the seedbed of all rebellion against God, whether then or now! In fact, this was the very first organized rebellion against God. The Lord had told Noah and his sons to "be fruitful, multiply, and replenish the Earth" [9:1]. Now, the followers of Nimrod are doing the very opposite. The Lord wanted mankind to be scattered over the Earth, but these rebels were determined to defy what God desired.)

5 And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men built (men rule, but God overrules).

6 And the LORD said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language *(which was actually the Will of God); and this they begin to do *(to rebel against God): and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do (in other words, their rebellion will only intensify).

7 Go to, let Us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech. (The pronoun "Us", as it regards the Lord, proclaims the Trinity; there is one God, but manifest in three Persons, "God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit." At least a hundred or more languages were here introduced, which made it impossible for these rebels to function together with any type of cohesion.)

8 So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the Earth *(those who spoke the same language banded together and went elsewhere): and they left off to build the city (there is some evidence that they finished the tower, but not the city).

9 Therefore is the name of it called Babel *(means "confusion;" "Babel" is also the Hebrew name for "Babylon;" the tower of Babel and the city itself, for that matter, had their origin in deliberate, determined, enthusiastic, exalting hostility to the Divine purpose, that they should spread themselves abroad upon the face of the whole Earth; and herein lies the essence of all rebellion: whatever thought, counsel, or word derives its inspiration, be it only in an infinitesimal degree, from antagonism to the Mind of God, that is sin); because the LORD did there confound the language of all the Earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the Earth. (As stated, men rule, but God overrules!)

THE GENERATIONS OF SHEM

10 These are the generations of Shem: Shem was an hundred years old, and begat Arphaxad two years after the flood:

11 And Shem lived after he begat Arphaxad five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

12 And Arphaxad lived five and thirty years, and begat Salah:

13 And Arphaxad lived after he begat Salah four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

14 And Salah lived thirty years, and begat Eber:

15 And Salah lived after he begat Eber four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

16 And Eber lived four and thirty years, and begat Peleg:

17 And Eber lived after he begat Peleg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.

18 And Peleg lived thirty years, and begat Reu:

19 And Peleg lived after he begat Reu two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters.

20 And Reu lived two and thirty years, and begat Serug:

21 And Reu lived after he begat Serug two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.

22 And Serug lived thirty years, and begat Nahor:

23 And Serug lived after he begat Nahor two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

[24] And Nahor lived nine and twenty years, and begat Terah:

[25] And Nahor lived after he begat Terah an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.

[26] And Terah lived seventy years, and begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran. (The generations now pick up again with Shem, because through his lineage the Son of God would be born into the world; however, it stops here with Abraham, and for a specific reason. It was to this man that the Lord gave the meaning of Justification by Faith. Regarding spiritual things, this was a great step forward.)

THE DESCENDANTS OF TERAH

[27] Now these are the generations of Terah: Terah begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran begat Lot.

[28] And Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his nativity, in Ur of the Chaldees.

[29] And Abram (Abraham) and Nahor took them wives: the name of Abram's wife was Sarai; and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Iscah.

[30] But Sarai was barren; she had no child. (Abraham now comes into view, and will prove to be one of the greatest men of God who ever lived. Even though Sarah was barren, the Lord, years later, even when she was 90 years of age, would rectify that problem. In fact, from the loins of Abraham and the womb of Sarah would come the Jewish people, raised up for the express purpose of giving the world the Word of God and, as well, serving, one might say, as the womb of the Messiah.)

TERAH MOVES FROM UR TO HARAN

[31] And Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his son's son, and Sarai his daughter in law, his son Abram's wife; and they went forth with them from Ur of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan; and they came unto Haran, and dwelt there.

32 And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years: and Terah died in Haran. (With the entire family leaving Ur of the Chaldees, and journeying toward Canaan, we know that by now Abraham has had the great Revelation from God. How this Revelation came to him, we aren't told! The entire family goes with Abraham, which seems to not have been the Will of God.)

CHAPTER 12

THE ABRAHAMIC COVENANT

[1] Now the LORD had said unto Abram (referring to the Revelation which had been given to the Patriarch a short time before; this Chapter is very important, for it records the first steps of this great Believer in the path of Faith), Get thee out of your country (separation), and from your kindred (separation), and from your father's house (separation), unto a land that I will show you (refers to the fact that Abraham had no choice in the matter; he was to receive his orders from the Lord, and go where those orders led him)**:

[2] And I will make of you a great Nation (the Nation which God made of Abraham has changed the world, and exists even unto this hour; in fact, this Nation "Israel" still has a great part to play, which will take place in the coming Kingdom Age), and I will bless you, and make your name great (according to Scripture, "to bless" means "to increase;" the builders of the Tower of Babel sought to "make us a name," whereas God took this man, who forsook all, and "made his name great"); and you shall be a blessing: (Concerns itself with the greatest blessing of all. It is the glory of Abraham's Faith. God would give this man the meaning of Salvation, which is "Justification by Faith," which would come about through the Lord Jesus Christ, and what Christ would do on the Cross. Concerning this, Jesus said of Abraham, "Your father Abraham rejoiced to see My day: and he saw it, and was glad" [Jn. 8:56].)

[3] And I will bless them who bless you (to bless Israel, or any Believer, for that matter, guarantees the Blessings of God), and curse him who curses you (to curse Israel, or any Believer, guarantees that one will be cursed by God): and in you shall all families of the Earth be blessed. (It speaks of Israel, which sprang from the loins of Abraham and the womb of Sarah, giving the world the Word of God and, more particularly, bringing the Messiah into the world. Through Christ, every family in the world who desires blessing from God can have that Blessing, i.e., "Justification by Faith.")

4 So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him *(this was his first surrender; there were seven in all: 1. He surrenders here his native land; 2. He surrenders his family; 3. He then surrenders the vale of the Jordan; 4. He then surrenders the riches of Sodom; 5. He surrenders self; 6. He then surrenders Ishmael; and lastly, 7. He surrenders Isaac; each painful surrender was followed by increased spiritual wealth); and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran (the Holy Spirit notes Abraham's age upon his departure, signifying that the revelation may have come several years earlier).

5 And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in Haran; and they went forth to go into the land of Canaan; and into the land of Canaan they came. (From Haran to Canaan was approximately 350 miles. Abraham had 318 trained men with him [14:14], meaning that they were trained to fight as soldiers. In fact, there may have been as many as a thousand people in this entourage.)

6 And Abram passed through the land unto the place of Sichem, unto the plain of Moreh. And the Canaanite was then in the land. (Abraham finds the hateful, impure, and hostile Canaanite in God's land. That being an example, the young Believer expects after conversion to find nothing in his nature hostile to Christ, but is distressed and perplexed very soon to painfully learn that, alas, the Canaanite is in the land, and that he is now commencing a lifelong battle with what the New Testament calls "the flesh." — Williams)

7 And the LORD appeared unto Abram *(though the hostile Canaanite was in the land, the Lord was there as well), and said, Unto your seed will I give this land (the "seed" through Isaac, and not Ishmael; Satan has contested this Promise from the very beginning, with the struggle continuing even unto this hour, as it regards Israel and the Palestinians): and there built he an Altar unto the LORD, Who appeared unto him. (The "Altar" and its Sacrifice represented the Lord Jesus Christ, and the price He would pay on the Cross in order to redeem humanity. The Promises of God to Abraham, as are all the Promises of God, are built upon the foundation of the "Altar," i.e., "the Cross.")

8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Beth-el, and pitched his tent, having Beth-el on the west, and Hai on the east ("Beth-el" means "House of God," while "Hai" means "the heap of ruins"): and there he built an Altar unto the LORD, and called upon the Name of the LORD. (The "Altar" and the "tent" give us the two great features of Abraham's character. He was a worshipper of God, hence the Cross, and a stranger in the world, hence the tent. Our prayers are based upon our Faith in Christ and what Christ has done for us at the Cross, of which the Altar was a Type.)

9 And Abram journeyed, going on still toward the south ("south" was toward Egypt, which direction Abraham should not have gone).

ABRAM'S SOJOURN IN EGYPT

10 And there was a famine in the land (a famine in God's land? it was allowed by the Lord as a test of Faith, as everything for the Believer is a test of Faith): and Abram went down into Egypt to sojourn there (the Lord didn't call Abram to Egypt, but rather to Canaan; better to starve in Canaan, than to live in luxury in Egypt); for the famine was grievous in the land.

11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Egypt (it is not possible to go into Egypt, spiritually speaking, without partaking of Egypt), that he said unto Sarai his wife, Behold now, I know that you are a fair woman to look upon (now begins the repulsive picture of contemptible and abject cowardice):

12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Egyptians shall see you, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they will kill me, but they will save you alive.

13 Say, I pray you, you are my sister: that it may be well with me for your sake; and my soul shall live because of you. (God had a Plan: that Plan was for Abraham and Sarah to bring a son into the world, through whom ultimately the Messiah, the Redeemer of the world, would come. Satan had a plan: that plan was to foil the Plan of God, and to do so through the weakness of Abraham. Abraham had a plan: but Abraham's plan is not now the Plan of God, but is rather a plan of deception, which God can never honor.)

ABRAM DECEIVES PHARAOH

14 And it came to pass, that, when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman that she was very fair.

15 The princes also of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her before Pharaoh: and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house. ("Pharaoh" was the official title of the kings of Egypt. The particular Monarch who occupied the Egyptian throne at the time of Abraham's arrival is believed to have been "Necao;" with some thinking he may have been "Ramessemenes." Sarah is taken into Pharaoh's house in order that she might become the mother of a child by the Egyptian king, thus defeating the Messianic Promise made to Abraham. This was Satan's plan.)

16 And he (Pharaoh) entreated Abram well for her sake: and he had sheep, and oxen, and he asses, and menservants, and maidservants, and she asses, and camels (all of these Pharaoh gave to Abraham; the riches he acquired in Egypt were nothing by comparison to the riches he stood to lose).

17 And the LORD plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai Abram's wife. (In Canaan, Abraham was a blessing; in the land of Egypt, he is a curse. In the path of faith, the Christian is likewise a blessing to the world, but in the path of self-will, a curse.)

18 And Pharaoh called Abram, and said (in what manner Pharaoh came to know that the plagues falling on his house were because of Sarah, we aren't told; Sarah was blameless in this, the fault being that of Abraham), What is this that you have done unto me? why did you not tell me that she was your wife? (Abraham had told those who were representing Pharaoh that Sarah was his sister. In fact, this was a half-truth. She was the daughter of his father, but not the daughter of his mother [20:12]. But because he intended to deceive, God looked at this episode as a "lie.")

19 Why did you say, She is my sister? so I might have taken her to me to wife: now therefore behold your wife, take her, and go your way (because of Abraham's deception, this heathen prince hurries this man of God out of his land as he would chase away a pestilence; it was not Abraham's finest hour).

20 And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him (Abraham): and they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had (the mighty Pharaoh saw the Power of God, even though it was in a negative way; what effect it had on him, other than this which we see in the Scripture, we aren't told).

RETURN TO CANAAN

[1] And Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, into (from) the south (if Abraham went "down" into Egypt in 12:10, Grace brings him "up" out of Egypt, as recorded in this Verse; they left the south to go north, back to Canaan).

[2] And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold (these were the Blessings of God, but it did not make up for his lapse of Faith).

[3] And he went on his journeys from the south even to Beth-el, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth-el and Hai;

[4] Unto the place of the Altar, which he had made there at the first: and there Abram called on the Name of the LORD. (He went back to the mountaintop where his tent had been at the beginning, and there, doubtless with tears and shame, he called by Sacrifice on the Name of the Lord. His backslidings were forgiven, his soul was restored, and he resumes his true life as a pilgrim and a worshipper with his tent and his Altar, neither of which he had in Egypt. Until the Believer comes back to the Cross, of which the Altar is a Type, true Restoration cannot be found.)

ABRAM AND LOT

[5] And Lot also, which went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents (Lot didn't seem to realize that his blessings were strictly because of Abraham).

[6] And the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together:

for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together. (Worldly substance generally causes problems, even as it did here. There was strife in the Church. In fact, the "Church" of that day consisted of the families of Abraham and Lot, at least as far as we know.)

7 And there was a strife between the herdmen of Abram's cattle and the herdmen of Lot's cattle: and the Canaanite and the Perizzite dwelled then in the land. (The strife no more produced the worldliness in Lot than it produced the faith in Abraham; it only manifested, in the case of each, what was really there. The Canaanite and the Perizzite observed this "strife," as they always observe such. What did they see?)

8 And Abram said unto Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray you, between me and you, and between my herdmen and your herdmen; for we be Brethren. (The bent toward Sodom is now beginning to exert itself in the heart of Lot. This "bent" demands its "rights," which demands to be able to choose for itself, which, at the same time, means that it does not trust God to make the choice.)

9 Is not the whole land before you? separate yourself, I pray you, from me: if you will take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if you depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left. (This was a test for both Abraham and Lot.)

10 And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered everywhere, before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the Garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, as you come unto Zoar ("the lust of the eyes").

11 Then Lot chose him all the plain of Jordan; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated themselves the one from the other. (Lot didn't seem to realize, as most don't realize, that he was blessed by God because of Abraham. He should have said to Abraham, that whatever the Patriarch desired, that's what he desired. But instead, he chose for himself, and as the future will prove, chose very unwisely. When he separated himself from Abraham, he separated himself from the Blessing.)

12 Abram dwelt in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelt in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent toward Sodom. (Slowly but surely, the self-will of Lot takes him toward destruction, even as self-will always does.)

13 But the men of Sodom were wicked and sinners before the LORD exceedingly (the Holy Spirit through Moses, as he wrote the text, is very quick to characterize Sodom and its inhabitants).

THE COVENANT

14 And the LORD said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him (directly Lot departs, God draws near to Abraham), Lift up now your eyes, and look from the place where you are northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward (the Lord tells Abraham that the Promises are given to him, and not to Lot)**:

15 For all the land which you see, to you will I give it, and to your seed for ever. (The modern Palestinians should look at the statement, "And to your seed forever.")

16 And I will make your seed as the dust of the earth (Sarah is barren, and yet God promises a number beyond comprehension): so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall your seed also be numbered. (This includes not only the Jews who serve the Lord, but also every Gentile Believer who has ever lived.)

17 Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and in the breadth of it; for I will give it unto you (this is a walk of Faith).

18 Then Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelt in the plain of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and built there an Altar unto the LORD. (There was no Altar in Sodom, which Lot chose. All who travel in that direction are in quest of something quite different from that. It is never the worship of God, but the love of the world that leads them thither. Abraham builds an Altar unto the Lord, which means that his Faith is reestablished in Christ, and what Christ will do to redeem humanity by dying on the Cross. Hebron was about 22 miles south of Jerusalem, on the way to Beer-

ABRAM RESCUES LOT

[1] And it came to pass in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of nations; (If it is to be noticed, the Spirit of God occupies Himself with the movements of "kings and their armies" only when such movements are in any wise connected with the people of God; otherwise, they are of little significance!)

[2] That these made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar.

[3] All these were joined together in the vale of Siddim, which is the salt sea.

[4] Twelve years they served Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled. (These five kings had been ruled by Chedorlaomer for some twelve years, and now they rebel.)

[5] And in the fourteenth year came Chedorlaomer, and the kings who were with him, and smote the Rephaims in Ashteroth Karnaim, and the Zuzims in Ham, and the Emims in Shaveh Kiriathaim,

[6] And the Horites in their mount Seir, unto El-paran, which is by the wilderness. (In the names "Rephaims," "Zuzims," and "Emims," and possibly even the "Horites," we have, once again, the entrance of the giants, which were a product of the union of fallen angels and women [6:4]. Irrespective of their size, "Chedorlaomer" defeated them.)

7 And they returned, and came to En-mishpat, which is Kadesh, and smote all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites, who dwelt in Hazezon-tamar.

8 And there went out the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (the same is Zoar;) and they joined battle with them in the vale of Siddim;

9 With Chedorlaomer the king of Elam, and with Tidal king of nations, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar; four kings with five. (We have in Verse 8 the mention of Sodom, where Lot dwelt, and which causes the interest of Jehovah, and points to the reason for all this being included in these Passages. It is obvious from the Text that Lot was not at all in proper relationship with the Lord; however, the Lord, despite that fact, continued to monitor his every move and, in effect, to exercise a form of security and protection for him, despite his having moved in with the Sodomites. Every Believer should understand the significance of all of this. You are bought with a price; that price is the shed Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ.)

10 And the vale of Siddim was full of slimepits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and fell there; and they who remained fled to the mountain.

11 And they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their victuals, and went their way.

12 And they took Lot, Abram's brother's son, who dwelt in Sodom, and his goods, and departed. (Lot, in his compromised position, could neither deliver Sodom nor himself. The only way to help and bless the world is to live apart from it, in fellowship with God.)

13 And there came one who had escaped, and told Abram the Hebrew; for he dwelt in the plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner: and these were confederate with Abram.

14 And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his trained servants, born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them unto Dan.

15 And he divided himself against them, he and his servants, by night, and smote them, and pursued them unto Hobah, which is on the left hand of Damascus.

16 And he brought back all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people. (Abraham had little interest in the happenings, had it not been for Lot. He hears that Lot has been taken captive, and sets about to rescue him. Concerning this, Mackintosh says: "The claims of a brother's trouble are answered by the affections of a brother's heart. This is Divine. Genuine Faith, while it always renders us independent, never renders us indifferent. It will never wrap itself up in its fleece while a brother shivers in the cold.")

17 And the king of Sodom went out to meet him (Abraham) after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings who were with him, at the valley of Shaveh, which is the king's dale. (As we shall see here, there is no time so dangerous to the Christian as the morrow after a great spiritual victory.)

18 And Melchizedek (this man appears on the scene, who is a King and a Priest and, above all, who is a Type of Christ [Ps. 110:4; Heb. 5:5-6]; some Scholars believe that Melchizedek could actually have been Shem, the son of Noah; Shem was alive at this time, and actually lived for about 60 years more; in fact, some think he died when Abraham was about 150 years of age; his name means, "King of Righteousness" and "King of Peace" [Heb. 7:2]) king of Salem (Jerusalem) brought forth bread and wine (the "bread and wine" symbolize the broken Body and shed Blood of our Lord, which was necessary for the Salvation of mankind [Mat. 26:29; Mk., Chpt. 14; Lk. 22:15; Rom. 8:21]): and he was the Priest of the Most High God. (Melchizedek, as a Priest, symbolized the coming Christ, Who is our Great High Priest [Heb. 7:15-17]. David prophesied, about a thousand years after Abraham, "The Lord has sworn, and will not repent, You [Christ] are a Priest forever after the order of Melchizedek" [Ps. 110:4]. Abraham is here introduced to God by a different name than he had previously known, "El Elyon," meaning "Most High God.")

19 And he (Melchizedek) blessed him *(Abraham), and said, Blessed be Abram of the Most High God, Possessor of heaven and Earth: (Melchizedek blessing Abraham means that the standing of Melchizedek was greater than that of Abraham. The reason? Melchizedek was a Type of Christ [Heb. 7:4, 7].)

20 And blessed be the Most High God, Who has delivered your enemies into your hand. (We find here that Melchizedek did not come forth when Abraham was in pursuit of Chedorlaomer, but when the king of Sodom was in pursuit of Abraham. This makes a great moral difference. Mackintosh says: "A deeper character of communion was needed to meet the deeper character of conflict.") And he gave him tithes of all. (This is the first time that "tithes" are mentioned in Scripture. It refers to a tenth part. Abraham paid tithe to Melchizedek, who was a Type of Christ; consequently, Abraham's children, which make up the Church presently, are to continue to pay tithe to those carrying out the Work of God.)

THE TEMPTATION

21 And the king of Sodom said unto Abram, Give me the persons, and take the goods to yourself. (Satan will now use the king of Sodom, endeavoring to draw Abraham into his web. He will use money to do so.)

22 And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lift up my hand unto the LORD, the Most High God, the Possessor of heaven and Earth *(the king of Sodom may have proposed an amalgamation of sorts with Abraham; but the Patriarch proclaims to all concerned that his allegiance is totally and completely to "the LORD, the Most High God, the Possessor of heaven and Earth"; in this, he proclaims the fact that he is beholden to no man, but yet gracious to all men),

23 That I will not take from a thread even to a shoelatchet, and that I will not take any thing that is yours, lest you should say, I have made Abram rich (the temptation is strong, and in more ways than one; however, the Patriarch passes the test with flying colors)**:

[24] Save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men which went with me, Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion. (Abraham was held to a much higher standard than those with him. While it was no problem for them to take some of the goods, he could not take even as much as a "shoelatchet." The man of God presently should understand the lesson taught here, that while we are in the world, we are never to be of the world.)

CHAPTER 15

THE ABRAHAMIC COVENANT

[1] After these things the Word of the LORD came unto Abram in a Vision (this presents one of the four ways which God spoke to individuals in Old Testament times [Num. 12:6-8]: 1. He spoke in Visions [Amos 7:1]; 2. He spoke in dreams [Gen. 41:1; Dan. 2:1]; 3. He revealed Himself by speaking directly to the Prophets "mouth to mouth" [Num. 12:8]; and, 4. He spoke through His Word [Mat. 4:4]; [the time of the Gospels was still under Old Testament authority]), saying, Fear not, Abram (shows that fear had been present; he was afraid he would be killed by enemies before the great Promise of God could come to pass in his life, regarding a son being brought into the world, which was necessary as it regards the coming Incarnation of Christ): I am your shield (protection), and your exceeding great reward (the Lord was telling the Patriarch that he had his eyes too much on the Promise, instead of the Giver of the Promise; the Lord is to always be looked at as the reward, and then the Promise is sure to come; but too often we get our eyes on the gift instead of the Giver).

[2] And Abram said, LORD God, what will you give me, seeing I go childless, and the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus? (Seeing I have no child, how can the promise be brought to pass? Can Eliezer be my heir? Even looking toward Eliezer portrays telltale signs of the flesh, which will come to sad fruition regarding the episode with Hagar.)

[3] And Abram said, Behold, to me You have given no seed (no son): and, lo, one born in my house is my heir (translation: as it stands at the present, "the son of my house," not born of me, is of now my heir; Eliezer is his name).

4 And, behold, the Word of the LORD came unto him, saying (the Lord rejects this thinking), This shall not be your heir (not Eliezer); but he who shall come forth out of your own bowels shall be your heir (the Lord can only accept that which He brings forth).

5 And He (the Lord) brought him (Abraham) forth abroad, and said, Look now toward Heaven (the answer is from Heaven, and not otherwise), and tell the stars (count the stars), if you be able to number them: and He (the Lord) said unto him (Abraham), So shall your seed be. (While Abraham was worrying about having one son, in fact, the Lord tells him, his seed shall be as the stars of the heavens for multitude. And so it is!)

6 And he (Abraham) believed in the LORD (exercised Faith, believing what the Lord told him); and He (the Lord) counted it to him (Abraham) for Righteousness. (This is one of the single most important Scriptures in the entirety of the Word of God. In this simple term, "Abraham believed the LORD," we find the meaning of Justification by Faith. Abraham was Saved by Grace through Faith, not by his good works. There is no other way of Salvation anywhere in the Bible. God demands Righteousness; however, it is the Righteousness afforded strictly by Christ and Christ Alone. Anything else is self-righteousness, and totally unacceptable to God. Directly the sinner believes God's Testimony about His Beloved Son, he is not only declared righteous, but he is made a son and an heir.)

THE SACRIFICE

7 And He (the Lord) said unto him (Abraham), I am the LORD Who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give you this land to inherit it. (The Lord now reaffirms and, greater yet, expands the Revelation. We find from the examples of the Bible Greats, and our own experiences as well, that the Lord has to constantly reaffirm His Promises to us and, as well, to strengthen our Faith. It doesn't take much to weaken our Faith, despite our claims to the contrary.)

8 And he said, LORD God, whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it? (Abraham asks two questions, "What will You give me?" [15:2], and "Whereby shall I know?" Christ is the answer to the first question; the Covenant to the second.)

9 And He (the Lord) said unto him (to Abraham), Take Me an heifer of three years old, and a she goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon. (The Covenant is founded on Grace, for five living creatures are sacrificed to establish it. Five in the Scripture is the number of Grace; and these five sacrifices set out the fullness of the great Sacrifice of Calvary. – Williams.

The "heifer" symbolized the Priestly Office of Christ. The "she goat" symbolized His Prophetic Office. The "ram" symbolized His Kingly Office. Jesus was Priest, Prophet, and King. The "turtledove" symbolized Him being led and guided strictly by the Holy Spirit, while the "young pigeon" symbolized Him obeying the Spirit in every capacity.)

10 And he (Abraham) took unto him all these, and divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another: but the birds divided he not (the dividing of the three larger animals in Sacrifice, which means their bodies were literally cut in two pieces, with one piece on one side and the other piece on the other, signified the terrible depth of sin which the Cross alone could answer).

11 And when the fowls came down upon the carcases (the fowls represent the opposition to the Cross by demon spirits), Abram drove them away (in the Name of Jesus, we have power over demon spirits and, as Abraham, we must "drive them away").

12 And when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and, lo, an horror of great darkness fell upon him (represents the sufferings which would come to God's people Israel and, as well, to Saints presently).

13 And He (the Lord) said unto Abram, Know of a surety that your seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years (the four hundred years pertain to the time from the weaning of Isaac to the deliverance of the Children of Israel from Egyptian bondage; the time frame covered the time spent both in Canaan, before it belonged to them, and Egypt, as well);

14 And also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge (Egypt): and afterward shall they come out with great substance (much gold and silver, etc., given to them by the Egyptians when they left [Ex. 11:1-3]).

15 And you shall go to your fathers in peace (while Abraham would not see that coming time, nevertheless, it would come; the word "peace" proclaims the fact that what God had called him to do, he will have done); you shall be buried in a good old age (he was 175 years old when he died).

16 But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again (the count began when the sons of Jacob were born; the first generation began with Levi, the second with Kohath, the third being Amram, and "the fourth generation" being Moses; Moses would lead them out of Egyptian bondage): for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full. (As the Book of Job teaches, Job's friends were wrong when they thought that God immediately brings judgment on sinners. In fact, He is patient and longsuffering; however, He is also just, and the judgment will eventually come, if there is no repentance, even as it did on the Amorites.)

17 And it came to pass, that, when the sun went down, and it was dark (represents the state of this world, now filled with sin), behold a smoking furnace (proclaims the furnace of affliction that Israel will have to pass through, and, in fact, every Believer), and a burning lamp that passed between those pieces (the "burning lamp" passed between the pieces of the Sacrifice, and proclaims the "Word of God"; this presents the Biblical authority of the Cross, which the Sacrifices represented).

THE COVENANT CONCERNING THE BOUNDARIES

18 In the same day the LORD made a Covenant with Abram, saying, Unto your seed have I given this land (Promises based on the Precious Blood of Christ are so absolutely sure that faith can claim them as already possessed; hence, the Believer in the Lord Jesus Christ is neither ashamed nor afraid to say, "I am saved"), from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates (the actual area promised by God to Abraham goes all the way to the Nile River in Egypt, which includes the Sinai, the Arab Peninsula, much of modern Iraq, most of Syria, and all of Lebanon):

19 The Kenites, and the Kenizzites, and the Kadmonites,

20 And the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaims,

21 And the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Girgashites, and the Jebusites. (Ten nations are listed here, nations which occupied the land of Canaan. Ten is the number of completeness in the Bible, and indicates that the entirety of this land, which would also include other tribes, would be given to Abraham's descendants.)

CHAPTER 16

SARAH AND HAGAR

[1] Now Sarai Abram's wife bore him no children: and she had an handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar (the previous Chapter sets out the faithfulness of God, this Chapter, the faithlessness of Abraham).

[2] And Sarai said unto Abram (meaning that it wasn't the Lord who spoke to Abraham), Behold now, the LORD has restrained me from bearing (proclaims the impatience of unbelief; the "flesh" quickly tires of waiting for the Divine promise): I pray you, go in unto my maid (the path of Faith is full of dignity, the path of unbelief full of degradation); it may be that I may obtain children by her (tired of waiting, they no longer set their hopes upon God, but rather upon the Egyptian slave girl). And Abram hearkened to the voice of Sarai (which means that the Patriarch was not hearkening to the Voice of the Lord)**.

[3] And Sarai Abram's wife took Hagar her maid the Egyptian (the Epistle to the Galatians declares that Sarah and Hagar represent the two principles of Law and Grace; Hagar represents salvation by works; Sarah Salvation by Faith; these principles are opposed to one another; Ishmael is born as the result of man's planning and energy; Isaac is born as the result of God's planning and energy; in the birth of Ishmael, God had nothing to do with it and, as regards the birth of Isaac, man was dead; so it is today, salvation by works entirely depends on man's capacity to produce them; Salvation by Faith upon God's ability to perform them; under a covenant of works, God stands still in order to see what man can do; under the Covenant of Grace, man stands still to see what God has done; the two covenants are opposed; it must be either Hagar or Sarah; if Hagar, God has nothing to do with it; if Sarah, man has nothing to do with it —

Williams), after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife. (As stated, ten being the number of completion, is it possible that, at this time, God had planned to bring forth Isaac? Or better yet, how much do our failures of faith hinder in our lives that which God desires to do? Or worse still, how much does it delay us with what He desires to do?)

4 And he (Abraham) went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes (she began to act unkindly toward Sarah, actually with contempt!).

5 And Sarai said unto Abram, My wrong be upon you (Abraham and Sarah think that, by their clever plan, they can hasten and bring to pass the Divine Promise; the result is misery; he succeeds in his plan, Ishmael is born; but better were it for Abraham and the world had he never been born! It is disastrous when the self-will plans of the Christian succeed): I have given my maid into your bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: the LORD judge between me and you. (Sarah now sees her wrong, but too late! Works of the flesh, and this definitely was a work of the flesh, always bring on dissension.)

6 But Abram said unto Sarai, Behold, your maid is in your hand; do to her as it pleases you. And when Sarai dealt hardly with her, she fled from her face (the Scripture doesn't tell us what Sarah did).

THE ANGEL

7 And the Angel of the LORD found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to Shur (every evidence is, this "Angel of the Lord" is none other than a pre-incarnate appearance of the Lord Jesus Christ).

8 And He said, Hagar, Sarai's maid, from where did you come? and where will you go? And she said, I flee from the face of my mistress Sarai.

9 And the Angel of the LORD said unto her, Return to your mistress, and submit yourself under her hands (had she not obeyed, she would no doubt have died in the wilderness).

[10] And the Angel of the LORD said unto her, I will multiply your seed exceedingly, that it shall not be numbered for multitude. (However, the Lord said nothing about Faith, because there was no faith in the heart of Hagar, and neither would there be any in the heart of her son, Ishmael.)

[11] And the Angel of the LORD said unto her, Behold, you are with child, and you shall bear a son, and shall call his name Ishmael; because the LORD has heard your affliction. (The fault of her situation did not belong with Hagar, but rather with Abraham and Sarah; however, she ultimately forfeited what the Lord could have done for her by opposing His Plan, which was Isaac. "Ishmael" means "God hears;" however, it has nothing to do with Ishmael, but rather the plight of Hagar.)

[12] And he will be a wild man; his hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren. (These predictions describe the Arab people perfectly. They cannot get along with anyone in the world, and they cannot even get along among themselves. The descendants of Ishmael dwell in the presence of all his brethren [Israel], but do not subdue them and, in fact, never will subdue them!)

[13] And she called the name of the LORD Who spoke unto her (Hagar recognized that the Angel was, in fact, the Lord, actually the God of Abraham), your God sees me: for she said, Have I also here looked after Him Who sees me? (Hagar gave the name to the Lord of "El Roi," which means, "You are a God Who permits Himself to be seen." As is obvious, she truly had a wonderful Revelation, but, sadly and regrettably, her self-will overrode her faith. She wanted her son, Ishmael, to be the heir of Promise, but that was not to be. She would even go so far, even as we will see, to try to kill Isaac. And so do all who reject the Cross follow in her footsteps.)

[14] Wherefore the well was called Beer-lahai-roi; behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered. ("Beer-lahai-roi" means "Well of the Living-Seeing

God.”)

15 And Hagar bore Abram a son: and Abram called his son’s name, which Hagar bore, Ishmael. (Hagar, without doubt, related to Abraham all that had happened, placed herself under the authority of Sarah, and Abraham was then careful to name the boy what the Lord had said — “Ishmael.”)

ISHMAEL IS BORN

16 And Abram was fourscore and six years old (86), when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram. (Abraham would yet have to wait some 14 years before the Promise would be fulfilled. As previously asked, I have to wonder if this lapse of faith did not prolong the waiting period for the Promise to be realized!)

CHAPTER 17

THE REVELATION

[1] And when Abram was ninety years old and nine, the LORD appeared to Abram (some thirteen years have passed since his last Revelation), and said unto him, I am the Almighty God (in the Hebrew is "El Shaddai," which means "Strong so as to overpower;" the Lord is telling the Patriarch that He is able to bring to pass what He has promised); walk before Me, and be thou perfect (the Patriarch must be perfect in his Faith; it must not waver as it had done regarding the situation with Hagar, but must rest in Almighty God, Who is able to perform what He has promised).

[2] And I will make My Covenant between Me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly (the Lord now renews the Covenant with Abraham, which greatly enlarges upon the Promises previously made).

[3] And Abram fell on his face: and God talked with him, saying (either the Power of God was so great that the Patriarch "fell," or else, he did so out of reverence, which is probably the case),

ABRAHAM

[4] As for Me, behold, My Covenant is with you, and you shall be a father of many nations (and so he was!).

[5] Neither shall your name any more be called Abram (which means "exalted father"), but your name shall be Abraham ("father of the multitudes"); for a father of many nations have I made you.

THE COVENANT ENLARGED

6 And I will make you exceeding fruitful, and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come out of you (He was saying to the Patriarch, and as stated, that He was able, whatever the need).

7 And I will establish My Covenant between Me and you and your seed after you in their generations for an Everlasting Covenant (that means this Covenant is valid even to this moment and, in fact, ever will be; the Palestinians should learn that), to be a God unto you, and to your seed after you (this Covenant is linked to "Justification by Faith," which means that it is now a part of the New Covenant, which is also referred to as "The Everlasting Covenant" [Heb. 13:20]).

8 And I will give unto you, and to your seed after you, the land wherein you are a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God (the Jews, having forfeited their possession through rebellion against God, and especially their rejection of Jesus Christ, have caused a rupture; however, the Covenant still stands, and will come to full bloom in the coming Kingdom Age, which is not long off).

CIRCUMCISION

9 And God said unto Abraham, you shall keep My Covenant therefore, you, and your seed after you in their generations (this could well be called a "Covenant of Grace," and as such is everlasting; it is "from" everlasting in the counsels of it, and "to" everlasting in the consequences of it).

10 This is My Covenant, which you shall keep, between Me and you and your seed after you; Every man child among you shall be circumcised (this Covenant had only one outward ordinance, and that was Circumcision; the balance was entirely of Faith).

11 And you shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a token of the Covenant between Me and you (Circumcision, in a sense, is a Type of the Cross; blood is shed and separation is made).

12 And he who is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations, he who is born in the house, or, bought with money of any stranger, which is not of your seed (the little boy baby was not to be circumcised until he was eight days old, because at that time the blood would coagulate; before then, he could bleed to death; as well, every male in the family of Abraham must be circumcised, and later that would include the entirety of the Nation of Israel).

[13] He who is born in your house, and he who is bought with your money, must needs be circumcised: and My Covenant shall be in your flesh for an Everlasting Covenant (this Covenant is everlasting, but only in Christ; under the New Covenant, Paul stated that we are to experience the circumcision of the heart, which is a spiritual work [Phil. 3:3]; under the New Covenant, everything being fulfilled in Christ, of which circumcision was a Type of His Sacrifice, the rite is no longer necessary; in fact, it carries no spiritual meaning now whatsoever).

[14] And the uncircumcised man child whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people; he has broken My Covenant (in effect, Israelite men who refused to be circumcised, or mothers who refused to circumcise their baby boys, had broken the Covenant and, if continuing that direction of rebellion, would be eternally lost; it was, and is, the same as disavowing the Cross).

SARAH

[15] And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai ("my princess," referring to the fact that she was Abraham's princess alone), but Sarah shall her name be (simply means "princess;" the idea is, whereas she was formerly Abraham's princess only, she will now be recognized as a princess generally and, in fact, in a sense, could be referred to as the "mother of the Church").

[16] And I will bless her, and give you a son also of her (this is the first time in all of God's dealings with Abraham that He had mentioned the fact that the promised son would be of Sarah): yes, I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations; kings of people shall be of her (her "blessing" spoke of increase, which includes even the Church and, in a sense, the Lord Jesus Christ).

17 Then Abraham fell upon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him who is an hundred years old (Abraham's laughter was that of joy [Jn. 8:56]? and shall Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear? (Paul said of him: "He considered not the deadness of Sarah's womb" [Rom. 4:19].)

18 And Abraham said unto God, O that Ishmael might live before You! (Abraham asked the Lord that Ishmael might have some place, and not be completely left out.)

19 And God said, Sarah your wife shall bear you a son indeed; and you shall call his name Isaac (the name Isaac means "laughter"): and I will establish My Covenant with him for an Everlasting Covenant, and with his seed after him. (The Covenant is to be established with Isaac and not Ishmael. This completely shoots down the contention of the Muslims that Ishmael was the chosen one, unless you don't believe the Bible. Through Isaac the Lord Jesus Christ, the Saviour of mankind, would ultimately come.)

ISHMAEL

20 And as for Ishmael, I have heard you: Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly (the Lord would bless Ishmael, but not as it regards the Covenant); twelve princes shall he beget, and I will make him a great nation (the blessing here pronounced was not because of Ishmael, but because of Abraham, and Abraham alone).

21 But My Covenant will I establish with Isaac, which Sarah shall bear unto you at this set time in the next year (so now they know when the child will be born).

22 And He (the Lord) left off talking with him, and God went up from Abraham (Communion with the Lord is the most profitable exercise there is).

THE SEALED COVENANT

[23] And Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all who were born in his house, and all who were bought with his money (servants), every male among the men of Abraham's house; and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the self-same day, as God had said unto him (the obedience of Abraham in circumcising the entirety of his house, servants and all, should be a lesson to us).

[24] And Abraham was ninety years old and nine, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

[25] And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin (even though Ishmael was circumcised, he who was born after the flesh was by his natural birth a rebel, even though he may enter in an outward covenant).

[26] In the selfsame day was Abraham circumcised, and Ishmael his son (two men were circumcised; by that rite both men entered the Covenant; however, only one of the men, Abraham, was saved).

[27] And all the men of his house, born in the house, and bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him. (This one Passage tells us that every single man in the house of Abraham was saved, whether servants, slaves, or family, that is, if they believed. The Epistles to the Romans, to the Galatians, and to the Colossians teach that Christians are circumcised in the Cross of Christ, baptized into the Death of Christ, and raised in the Resurrection of Christ, all of which circumcision was a Type.)

HEAVENLY VISITORS

[1] And the LORD appeared unto him (Abraham) in the plains of Mamre: and he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day (the First Verse of this Chapter confirms the experience of the Christian that a fresh Revelation of the Lord to the soul follows upon obedience to a Divine command — Williams);

[2] And he lift up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three Men stood by Him (stood by the Lord; these were Angels): and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground (implies worship, for he knew this was the Lord),

[3] And said, My LORD, if now I have found favor in Your sight, pass not away, I pray You, from Your servant (Abraham had found favor in God's sight, but only by and through the Faith which he exhibited):

[4] Let a little water, I pray You, be fetched, and wash Your Feet, and rest Yourselves under the tree (the Lord and the Angels did not need such; however, the "washing of the feet" and the "rest" symbolized a Spiritual Truth; it spoke of the humility which is required on the part of Believers and, as well, the "rest" which the Lord alone can provide):

[5] And I will fetch a morsel of bread, which will comfort Your Hearts (bread is a Type of the Word of God and, as well, of the Lord Jesus Christ [Jn. 6:35]; Abraham giving the Lord bread, along with His Angelic associates, proclaims what the Lord will do for the whole of humanity and, above all, that He would actually be that bread; this is the "bread" which satisfies all spiritual hunger); after that You shall pass on (but not before I have shown You the dignity and respect You deserve): for therefore are

You come to Your Servant. And they said, So do, as you have said (the Lord favorably received guarantees the favorable blessing).

[6] And Abraham hastened into the tent unto Sarah, and said, Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes upon the hearth (spiritual activity in the heart of one servant of Christ's stirs up activity in the hearts of other servants).

[7] And Abraham ran unto the herd, and fetched a calf tender and good, and gave it unto a young man; and he hastened to dress it (as the calf would be killed, likewise would the Son of God, all of which served as a Type).

[8] And he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before Them; and he stood by Them under the tree, and They did eat (Jesus told us that we must eat as well; I speak of the "eating of Christ," which, in effect, speaks of evidencing Faith in Him and what He has done for us at the Cross [Jn. 6:53-58, 63]).

SARAH

[9] And They (the Lord and the Angels) said unto him (Abraham), Where is Sarah your wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent (one of the greatest announcements ever made in human history is now forthcoming).

[10] And He (the Lord) said, I will certainly return unto you according to the time of life (according to this time next year); and, lo, Sarah your wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard it in the tent door, which was behind Him.

[11] Now Abraham and Sarah were old and well stricken in age (Abraham was 100 and Sarah was 90); and it ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.

[12] Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, After I am waxed old shall I have pleasure, my lord (Abraham) being old also? (Unbelief makes men cowards and liars. Sarah laughs with unbelief, and then, through fear, denies the fact. Despite, however, her incredulity, and despite Satan's seeming success in having retarded the birth of a child till it was impossible to nature — despite it all, the mighty words of Grace and Promise are spoken — "Sarah shall have a son!")

13 And the LORD said unto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, which am old? (There is in the Scripture the laughter of faith and the laughter of unbelief. Psalm 126:2 fulfills the former, and Matthew 9:24 the latter. Sarah's laughter was that of unbelief.)

14 Is anything too hard for the LORD? (the actual Hebrew says: "Is anything too wonderful for Jehovah?") At the time appointed I will return unto you, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.

15 Then Sarah denied, saying, I laughed not *(she lied); for she was afraid *(unbelief tenders fear). And He said, No; but you did laugh (the Lord gently rebukes her).

SODOM AND GOMORRAH

16 And the Men (the Lord and the Angels) rose up from thence, and looked toward Sodom *(it was not a look of Grace, and because of their great sin): and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way (walked a little distance with Them).

17 And the LORD said, Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do *(the secret of the Lord is with them who fear Him);

18 Seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty Nation, and all the nations of the Earth shall be blessed in him? (Both predictions came through exactly as spoken by the Lord.)

19 For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him *(the actual Hebrew says, "For I have known him in order that he may command his sons..."), and they shall keep the Way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment (this is the responsibility of the modern Church as well, a responsibility, incidentally, which by and large has been abrogated); that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which He has spoken of him (looking back from this present time to the time of Abraham, all have come to pass exactly as the Lord promised).

20 And the LORD said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous (the sin of these twin cities had become so great that it threatened contamination of the entirety of that part of the world; consequently, they had to be destroyed; in other words, the Lord had to perform major surgery, just as a surgeon does presently in order to save the patient);

21 I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto Me; and if not, I will know (all sin is inherently offensive in the Eyes of the Almighty; but some forms of wickedness are more presumptuously daring or more intrinsically loathsome than others, and of such sort were the sins of Sodom; the phrase, "I will know," doesn't mean that God didn't already know, for He knows all things, past, present, and future; the statement has reference to the Perfect Justice of God; at the Judgment, no one will be able to claim insensitivity or unfairness on the part of God [Rev. 20:11-15]).

22 And the Men (the two Angels) turned their faces from thence (from Abraham), and went toward Sodom: but Abraham stood yet before the LORD (after the Lord explained to Abraham what He was about to do, Abraham would now intercede for Lot).

LOT

23 And Abraham drew near, and said, Will You also destroy the righteous with the wicked (he was thinking of Lot)?

24 Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city: will You also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous who are therein (we find from this narrative how important the righteous are, as it involves the overall scheme of things)?

25 That be far from You to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from You: Shall not the Judge of all the Earth do right? (We can be confident that the Judge of the Earth shall do right. That Judge is the Lord!)

26 And the LORD said, If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes.

27 And Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the LORD, which am but dust and ashes (we find here the humility of the great Patriarch)**:

28 Peradventure there shall lack five of the fifty righteous: will You destroy all the city for lack of five? And He said, If I find there forty and five, I will not destroy it.

29 And he (Abraham) spoke unto Him (the Lord) yet again, and said, Peradventure there shall be forty found there. And He said, I will not do it for forty's sake.

30 And he said unto Him, Oh let not the LORD be angry, and I will speak (I think it can easily be said that the Lord delights in the Believer pressing, as it regards petitions and desires): Peradventure there shall thirty be found there. And He said, I will not do it, if I find thirty there.

31 And he said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the LORD: Peradventure there shall be twenty found there. And He said, I will not destroy it for twenty's sake.

32 And he said, Oh let not the LORD be angry, and I will speak yet but this once: Peradventure ten shall be found there. And He said, I will not destroy it for ten's sake. (We are here witnessing true Intercession.)

33 And the LORD went His way, as soon as He had left communing with Abraham: and Abraham returned unto his place. (While the Lord now goes His way, He doesn't do so until Abraham ceases his petitioning.

Abraham ceased asking before God ceased giving.)

CHAPTER 19

TWO ANGELS

[1] And there came two Angels (referred to previously as two men) to Sodom at evening; and Lot sat in the gate of Sodom (Lot sitting at the gate probably denoted position and authority; he may have even been the mayor of Sodom): and Lot seeing them rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground (from this action, it is possible that the two Angels revealed themselves and their mission to Lot at this time);

[2] And he said, Behold now, my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and wash your feet, and you shall rise up early, and go on your ways (as it regards Abraham and Lot, the Lord remained to commune with the Patriarch, while he merely sent His two Angels to Sodom as it regards Lot). And they said, No; but we will abide in the street all night (in fact, the Angels, as we see here, didn't even desire to enter into the house of Lot; what a rebuke!).

[3] And he (Lot) pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house (the Angels, on their part, had to be pressed to accept hospitality from the nephew which they at once accepted from the uncle; fellowship with the world hinders and limits communion and makes the soul lethargic); and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread, and they did eat (the "unleavened Bread" speaks of Christ).

THE MOB

[4] But before they lay down (retired for the night), the men of the city, even the men of Sodom (homosexuals), compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter: (The principle of evil, which the Bible calls "sin," and which has wrought such ruin in human nature, painfully appears in this Chapter. Sodomy is the end result of the reprobate mind [Rom. 1:24-28].)

5 And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men who came in to you this night? (the sin of homosexuality was the primary sin which occasioned the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah [Jude, Vss. 6-7]) bring them out unto us, that we may know them (the words "know them" pertained to the loathsomeness of the homosexual act).

6 And Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him (locked the door to his house, so these depraved men could not enter)**,

7 And said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly (the Text marks this sin as unspeakably vile, by telling us that they commanded Lot to bring out his guests so that they could seduce them publicly and in the sight of the whole population; they had lost all sense of shame and decency, for they make no attempt at perpetrating this shameful vice in secret).

8 Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do you to them as is good in your eyes (wisdom from the lukewarm Believer is always flawed, as is evidenced here): only unto these Men do nothing; for therefore came They under the shadow of my roof (we cannot profit by the world and, at the same time, bear effectual testimony against its wickedness).

9 And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow came in to sojourn, and he will needs be a judge (it seems that Lot, however, had spoken out against these things so often that the men of Sodom accused him of wanting to play the judge): now will we deal worse with you, than with Them. And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door. (Due to Abraham having rescued many Sodomites from Chedorlaomer, evidently these homosexuals had declared Lot, the nephew of Abraham, off limits. But now, due to Lot's protection of the two Angels, they are breaking their commitment to him.)

THE ANGELS

10 But the Men (the two Angels) put forth Their hand (opened the door and grabbed Lot), and pulled Lot into the house to Them, and shut to the door (little did these perverts know as to who these men actually were).

11 And they smote the men who were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door (the word in the Hebrew actually means that they were not totally blind, but that they would not see properly).

LOT

12 And the Men (the Angels) said unto Lot, Have you here any besides? son in law, and your sons, and your daughters, and whatsoever you have in the city, bring them out of this place (to attempt to reprove the world's ways, while we profit by association with it, is vanity; thus it was too with Lot's testimony to his sons-in-law):

13 For We will destroy this place (has happened, no doubt, many times in many places in history past), because the cry of them is waxen great before the Face of the LORD (all sin is in God's Face, which will ultimately, if not repented of, end in judgment); and the LORD has sent Us to destroy it.

THE SONS-IN-LAW

14 And Lot went out, and spoke unto his sons in law, which married his daughters (which were to marry), and said, Up, get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city. But he seemed as one who mocked unto his sons in law (the nearer the world approaches the end, the more it laughs at the Divine threats pronounced upon the wicked).

LOT DELIVERED

15 And when the morning arose, then the Angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take your wife, and your two daughters, which are here; lest you be consumed in the iniquity of the city (as the Angels hastened Lot, likewise the Holy Spirit is hastening the modern Church, as it regards the Rapture).

16 And while he (Lot) lingered, the Men (the two Angels) laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the LORD being merciful unto him: and They brought him forth, and set him without the city (the loving patience of the Angels with this unhappy procrastinator was most touching; its cause is revealed in the words, "the LORD being merciful unto him").

17 And it came to pass, when They (the two Angels) had brought them forth abroad, that he (one of the Angels) said, Escape for your life; look not behind you, neither stay you in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest you be consumed (God demanded of them a total abandonment in heart and will of the condemned cities).

18 And Lot said unto them, Oh, not so, my LORD (it seems that now Jehovah Himself, though not mentioned, has now appeared upon the scene):

19 Behold now, Your Servant has found grace in Your sight, and You have magnified Your Mercy, which You have showed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die (the folly of Lot in lingering, and further in preferring his own place of safety to that proposed by the Angels, illustrate the deep unbelief of the heart):

20 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh, let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live (people do not do stupid things when they are in the Will of God; it's when they are attempting to function in the realm of disobedience that they become foolish in their direction).

21 And He (the Lord) said unto him, See, I have accepted you concerning this thing also (his request to go into this little city instead of the mountain), that I will not overthrow this city, for the which you have spoken (it was a prayer that Lot would have wished had never been answered in a positive way; the Believer must always be careful to ask in the Will of God).

[22] Make haste, escape quickly; for I cannot do anything till you come out of Sodom. (The Lord had promised Abraham that Lot would be spared; therefore, destruction could not come to Sodom and Gomorrah until Lot was safely removed; in a sense, this typifies the coming Rapture of the Church; the Judgment of God, which is coming on this world, in fact, cannot come, until the Believers are removed [I Thess. 5:9].) Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar (the city which the Lord allowed Lot to enter into).

DESTRUCTION

[23] The sun was risen upon the Earth when Lot entered into Zoar.

[24] Then the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven (the Lord, Whom we now know as God the Son, called judgment from the Lord out of heaven, Whom we now know as God the Father; considering that the Holy Spirit inspired the writing of this, we have here the Trinity)**;

[25] And He overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground (all the cities of the plain were destroyed, except Zoar; the cause was supernatural, not natural; therefore, this wasn't an earthquake, as some have claimed).

LOT'S WIFE

[26] But his wife looked back from behind him (disobeying the Word of the Lord [Vs. 17]; the Hebrew means that "she kept looking back steadily, wistfully, and with desire;" her heart was in Sodom, so her soul was in Sodom, as well; regrettably and sadly, it is now in Hell), and she became a pillar of salt (Jesus reminded the world of this episode by pointedly saying, "Remember Lot's wife" [Lk. 17:32]).

ABRAHAM

27 And Abraham got up early in the morning to the place where he stood before the LORD (indicates that he was in prayer)**:

28 And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and, lo, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace (these cities were situated at the southern extremity of the Dead Sea; the word "furnace" indicates that this was no ordinary fire, but that the heat was so intense that everything melted, which means there was nothing left).

29 And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt (the words, "God remembered Abraham," proclaim the fact that Abraham's intercessory petition did not go unanswered; in this case, Abraham was a Type of Christ, serving as a mediator between God and Lot).

MOAB AND BEN-AMMI

30 And Lot went up out of Zoar, and dwelt in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Zoar (having disobeyed the Lord, Lot now lives in fear; he is fearful that God will destroy Zoar as well, so he moves to a nearby mountain): and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters (his wealth had once been so great that he and Abraham could not dwell together because of the size of their herds; but now he is living in a cave, with this being his miserable home; wealth or no wealth, there is no profit in going in the direction of Satan).

31 And the firstborn said unto the younger, Our father is old, and there is not a man in the Earth to come in unto us after the manner of all the Earth (the preservation of the family line was important in ancient times; since Lot was old, and now poor, with all his belongings destroyed along with Sodom, his daughters saw no prospect for marriage; so now, they will commit a monstrous sin):

32 Come, let us make our father drink wine (the second occasion in the Bible that the word "wine" is used indicating intoxicating beverage, the first occasion being that of Noah [9:20-22]; the only course for the Child of God is total abstinence as it regards any and all intoxicating beverage), and we will lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father. (His own daughters make him drunk, and in his drunkenness, he becomes the instrument of bringing into existence the Ammonites and the Moabites — the determined enemies of the people of God. What a volume of solemn instruction is here!)

33 And they made their father drink wine that night: and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose (this was no drunken orgy, but still, it was a revolting sin; the cause was a lack of faith, as the cause of all sin is a lack of faith).

34 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the firstborn said unto the younger, Behold, I lay yesternight with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and you go in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father (the details of this account clearly show that Lot, when he went to the mountain cave, endeavored to escape from his problems, not by carrying them to the Throne of God, where all Believers should carry them, but by drowning them in dissipation).

35 And they made their father drink wine that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose (considering that these girls had been raised in Sodom, at least for a good part of their lives, it is not strange that the older daughter suggested incest as the only way they could preserve the family line; they had been greatly influenced by the low moral standards of their environment).

36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father (after this, Lot disappears from sacred history, not even his death being recorded; even though there is no Biblical record, it is believed that Abraham took Lot and his daughters into his home and supported them).

37 And the firstborn bore a son, and called his name Moab (means "from my father"): the same is the father of the Moabites unto this day.

38 And the younger, she also bore a son, and called his name Ben-ammi (means "son of my people"): the same is the father of the children of Ammon unto this day (despite their ignoble beginnings, the Lord showed a concern for them as descendants of Lot [Deut. 2:9, 19], but regrettably, they later became enemies of Israel [I Sam. 14:47; II Ki. 3:5; II Chron. 20:1, 22]).

CHAPTER 20

ABRAHAM AND ABIMELECH

[1] And Abraham journeyed from thence toward the south country, and dwelled between Kadesh and Shur, and sojourned in Gerar. (The sin and misery that resulted years before from journeying "toward the south country" should have taught him never again to move in that direction. But man, as such, never learns nor can learn spiritual lessons. We will find here that sin is just as hateful in a man of God as in a man of the world, and its guilt is greater. Abraham must have been deeply shocked at the power of unbelief in his nephew Lot, but was he equally shocked at the power of evil in himself, as this Chapter records?)

[2] And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister (Abraham once more forsakes the path of Faith; and, in denying his wife, sinks to a depth of moral degradation that is contemptible in the extreme; we find here that an old sin is an easy sin): and Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah. (His fall on this occasion was deeper than the prior one; for he now had the Divine Promise that, within that very year, Sarah should become the mother of a miraculous child. So long as the Christian walks in the path of Faith, he is clothed with dignity and ennobled with courage. But, when directly he leaves that path, he falls lower than even the children of the Evil One.)

[3] But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, you are but a dead man, for the woman which you have taken; for she is a man's wife. (If God had not intervened, Abraham's sin would have been disastrous. If it is to be noticed, Sarah is again referred to by the Holy Spirit as Abraham's wife. The "sister" thing was mentioned only by Abraham, and not by the Lord. While she was Abraham's half-sister, still, Abraham's claim to Abimelech was a half-truth, therefore, looked at by

4 But Abimelech had not come near her: and he said, LORD, will You slay also a righteous nation? (The Philistine Prince, already knowing of the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, fears that he and his people are in the same destruction, unless the Lord is pacified quickly.)

5 Said he not unto me, She is my sister? and she, even she herself said, He is my brother: in the integrity of my heart and innocency of my hands have I done this (in fact, the man was innocent; it was Abraham and Sarah who had done wrong).

6 And God said unto him in a dream, Yes, I know that you did this in the integrity of your heart; for I also withheld you from sinning against Me: therefore suffered I you not to touch her.

7 Now therefore restore the man his wife; for he is a Prophet, and he shall pray for you, and you shall live: and if you restore her not, know you that you shall surely die, you, and all who are yours. (All of these facts reveal the unsparing truth, and make it plain, that Abraham, by natural disposition and character, was cowardly and false. He was only noble when energized by faith.)

8 Therefore Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid (it is emphasized in this Chapter that natural goodness and integrity, as in the case of Abimelech, do not necessarily make a man a Child of God and, on the other hand, a temporary moral lapse through fear does not unmake the Believer a member of the household of faith).

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said unto him, What have you done unto us? and what have I offended you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? you have done deeds unto me that ought not to be done. (It is interesting that this heathen king understood the word "sin," which means that he had some knowledge of God, which was greatly increased after the dream which he had. On the path of Faith, God's people are a blessing to the world; on the path of unbelief, they are a curse.)

10 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What did you see, that caused you to do this thing? (How guilty all of us are in this respect. We as Believers are recipients and projectors of His Light. But how so often what we in fact project is not entirely that which we have received.)

11 And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of God is not in this place; and they will kill me for my wife's sake (once the path of faith is abandoned, the judgment of the Child of God becomes faulty).

12 And yet indeed she is my sister; she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife (as stated, Abraham dwells on the fact that Sarah is indeed his half-sister, while the Holy Spirit emphasizes the fact of the lady being his wife [Vss. 2-3, 7]).

13 And it came to pass, when God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said unto her, This is your kindness which you shall show unto me; at every place where we shall come, say of me, He is my brother (this scheme, formulated by Abraham at the very beginning, was not of God, but rather out of his own mind and, therefore, a work of the flesh, which direction always brings trouble, extreme trouble).

14 And Abimelech took sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and womenservants, and gave them unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife (despite the wrongdoing on the part of Abraham, the Lord blessed the Patriarch; he does the same with us oftentimes).

15 And Abimelech said, Behold, my land is before you: dwell where it pleases you (Abimelech had sense enough to realize that the Blessings of God were upon Abraham; consequently, he offers him a place in "his land;" he no doubt, experienced great Blessings from God because of this act, and so will anyone else who blesses God's Children).

16 And unto Sarah he said, Behold, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver (by referring to Abraham as her "brother," in effect, this heathen prince is telling her, "Don't do that again; it doesn't become you"): behold, he is to you a covering of the eyes, unto all who are with you, and with all other: thus she was reproved. (Abimelech, in effect, is saying, "If you openly claim Abraham as your husband, this, to be sure, will be protection enough for you and, in fact, for the entirety of your clan. It is sad when we, as Believers, have to take reproof from the world. A Divine principle, however, shines forth in this sad Chapter. And that is that God, in His Amazing Grace, is not ashamed to be called the God of a poor, feeble, imperfect, and stumbling man, if there is, despite all the weakness, faith and love in the heart. The Patriarch, by his own faithlessness, has deeply degraded himself so as to be justly rebuked by the heathen prince, yet God, in His faithfulness, clothes him with dignity, and honors him in the presence of Abimelech.)

[17] So Abraham prayed unto God: and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his maidservants; and they bore children.

[18] For the LORD had fast closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah Abraham's wife. (The closing Verses of this Chapter contain a solemn lesson for all Believers. Because of Abraham's abandonment of the path of Faith, and for as long as he failed to walk in that path, there were no children born to Abimelech and to his household. This physical fact illustrates a spiritual reality in Christian experience. It is not unreasonable to learn from all this that the birth of spiritual children in the Gospel is hindered or delayed by the inconsistent conduct of Believers — Williams.)

CHAPTER 21

THE BIRTH OF ISAAC

[1] And the LORD visited Sarah as He had said, and the LORD did unto Sarah as He had spoken (despite all of Satan's hindrances, Isaac, the progenitor and Type of the Messiah, is born).

[2] For Sarah conceived, and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him. (Referring back to the past Chapter, if it be objected that this whole occurrence is incredible, because no heathen prince would desire to marry a woman upwards of ninety years of age, or to conceive such a passion for her that to secure her he would murder her husband — the very fate which Abraham feared for himself — it may be replied that God must have miraculously renewed her youth, so that she became sufficiently youthful in appearance to suitably be desirable. Three times in these first two verses, the clause points to the supernatural character of Isaac's birth.)

[3] And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bore to him, Isaac. (The name means "laughter." It speaks of blessing, increase, healing, life, and well-being [Jn. 10:10]. As Isaac was a Type of Christ, it would not be wrong to say that one of the names of Christ is "laughter.")

[4] And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac being eight days old, as God had commanded him (this was a sign of the Covenant that God would ultimately send a Redeemer into this world).

[5] And Abraham was an hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him (this verse is placed in the Text so that all may know that Isaac's birth was indeed miraculous).

6 And Sarah said, God has made me to laugh, so that all who hear will laugh with me. (The mention of Sarah's name some five times thus far in this Chapter is done for purpose and reason; the Holy Spirit is impressing the fact that Sarah was in truth the very mother of this miraculous child. Sarah had once laughed in unbelief; she now laughs in Faith, a laughter incidentally expressing joy which will never end. It all pointed to Christ. Because of Christ, untold millions have laughed for joy.)

7 And she said, Who would have said unto Abraham, that Sarah should have given children suck? for I have born him a son in his old age (this is a poem, and could very well have been a song, and probably was).

8 And the child grew, and was weaned (the custom in those days was to nurse children for two to three years before they were weaned; however, there is some indication that Isaac was approximately five years old when he was weaned): and Abraham made a great feast the same day that Isaac was weaned (at this time, the boy was turned over to his father for training, at which time his education began).

THE BONDWOMAN AND HER SON

9 And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had born unto Abraham, mocking. (The effect of the birth of Isaac, a work of the Spirit, was to make manifest the character of Ishmael, a work of the flesh. The end result of the "mocking" was that Ishmael actually desired to murder Isaac [Gal. 4:29]. Ishmael was probably eighteen to twenty years old at this time.)

10 Wherefore she said unto Abraham, Cast out this bondwoman and her son: (Isaac and Ishmael symbolize the new and the old natures in the Believer. Hagar and Sarah typify the two Covenants of works and Grace, of bondage and liberty [Gal., Chpt. 4]. The birth of the new nature demands the expulsion of the old. It is impossible to improve the old nature. How foolish, therefore, appears the doctrine of moral evolution!) for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, even with Isaac. (Allowed to remain, Ishmael would murder Isaac; allowed to remain, the flesh will murder the Spirit. The Divine way of holiness is to "put off the old man," just as Abraham "put off" Ishmael. Man's way of holiness is to improve the "old man," that is, to improve Ishmael. The effort is both foolish and hopeless.)

11 And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight because of his son. (It is always a struggle to cast out this element of bondage, that is, salvation by works, of which this is a type. For legalism is dear to the heart. Ishmael was the fruit, and, to Abraham, the fair fruit of his own energy and planning, which God can never accept.)

12 And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in your sight because of the lad, and because of your bondwoman; in all that Sarah has said unto you, hearken unto her voice; for in Isaac shall your seed be called. (It is labor lost to seek to make a crooked thing straight. Hence, all efforts after the improvement of nature are utterly futile, so far as God is concerned. The "flesh" must go, which typifies the personal ability, strength, and efforts of the Believer. The Faith of the Believer must be entirely in Christ and what Christ has done at the Cross. Then, and then alone, can the Holy Spirit have latitude to work in our lives, bringing forth perpetual victory [Rom. 6:14]. It must ever be understood, "in Isaac [in Christ] shall your seed be called.")

13 And also of the son of the bondwoman will I make a nation, because he is your seed (out of this "work of the flesh" ultimately came the religion of Islam, which claims that Ishmael is the promised seed, and not Isaac).

14 And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and the child, and sent her away: and she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beer-sheba. (This moment marks a distinct advance in the spiritual experience of Abraham. From this moment onwards all is strength and victory. He casts out the bondwoman and her son; he no longer fears the prince of this world [Abimelech], but reproves him; and now that the heir is come, Christ in Type, he knows himself to be the possessor of Heavenly as well as earthly promises.)

15 And the water was spent in the bottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs (she told Ishmael to sit down, with a shrub providing a little shade; "child," in the Hebrew, can refer to a "young man," which applies to Ishmael).

16 And she went, and sat her down over against him a good way off, as it were a bow shot: for she said, Let me not see the death of the child. And she sat over against him, and lift up her voice, and wept (without water, both of them would die very soon).

THE COVENANT

17 And God heard the voice of the lad; and the Angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What ails you, Hagar? fear not; for God has heard the voice of the lad where he is. (It is not said that either Ishmael or his mother prayed to God in their distress. Hence the Divine interposition on their behalf was due solely to Mercy and to God's love for Abraham.)

18 Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in your hand; for I will make him a great nation. (Ishmael, being between 18 and 20 years old at this time, the phrase actually means, "place your hand on his shoulder and steady him." True to God's Promise, the Arabs sprang from Ishmael.)

19 And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink (evidently, the Lord had purposely blinded her to the well, until certain things could be made known to her, and that she would acknowledge them, which required a modicum of Faith).

20 And God was with the lad (which means that the Lord, despite Ishmael's murderous attitude toward Isaac, did all for the sake of Abraham); and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt (we have here the beginning of the Arab

ABRAHAM

22 And it came to pass at that time, that Abimelech and Phichol the chief captain of his host spoke unto Abraham, saying, God is with you in all that you do (It is evident that Abimelech was a smart man; he had sense enough to know that if God was with Abraham, He would be with all who befriended Abraham; modern Christians could take a lesson from this man)**:

23 Now therefore swear unto me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son: but according to the kindness that I have done unto you, you shall do unto me, and to the land wherein you have sojourned (Abimelech wants the covenant to extend even to his grandson).

24 And Abraham said, I will swear (Abimelech recognized that Abraham had power with God; he wanted to be on the positive side of that power, and not the negative).

25 And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of a well of water, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away (the ownership of wells in that part of the world was a jealously guarded possession).

26 And Abimelech said, I do not know who has done this thing; neither did you tell me, neither yet heard I of it, but today (this shows that Abimelech was not dealing falsely with Abraham; he did not know of the situation).

27 And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Abimelech; and both of them made a covenant (these animals evidently were for sacrifice).

28 And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves (this was a symbol of a covenant, with which Abimelech was not familiar).

29 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What do these seven ewe lambs mean which you have set by themselves? (Seven ewe lambs are picked out and placed by themselves, and by accepting these, Abimelech bound himself to acknowledge and respect Abraham's title to the well. Apparently this manner of ratifying an oath was unknown to the Philistines.)

30 And he (Abraham) said, For these seven ewe lambs shall you take of my hand, that they may be a witness unto me, that I have dug this well. (If Abimelech takes the seven lambs, which he obviously did, this shows that he agrees with Abraham's contention concerning the fact that the well had originally belonged to him, and had been fraudulently taken.)

31 Wherefore he called that place Beer-sheba; because there they did swear both of them. (The word in Hebrew for "swearing" is a passive verb, literally signifying "to be sevened," that is, done or confirmed by seven.)

32 Thus they made a covenant at Beer-sheba: then Abimelech rose up, and Phichol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines. (This area ruled by Abimelech is called here "the land of the Philistines" for the first time; however, the main body of the Philistines who established their cities in the south coastal plain of Canaan did not arrive until later.)

33 And Abraham planted a grove (tree) in Beer-sheba (accordingly he takes possession of the land, thereby planting a tree; in the Hebrew the word is "tree" and not "grove"), and called there on the Name of the LORD, the Everlasting God. (The Patriarch now refers to Jehovah as "El'olam." In 14:22, Abraham claimed for Jehovah that He was "El Elyon," the supreme God; in 17:1, Jehovah reveals Himself as "El Shaddai," the Almighty God; and now Abraham claims for him the attribute of eternity. As he advanced in holiness, Abraham also grew in knowledge of the manifold nature of the Deity of God.)

34 And Abraham sojourned in the Philistines' land many days (the Patriarch would actually live here until he died).

CHAPTER 22

ISAAC

[1] And it came to pass after these things, that God did tempt Abraham (the word "tempt" should have been translated "test" or "prove," for that's what it means in the Hebrew; it is a high honor to be tested by God), and said unto him, Abraham: and he said, Behold, here I am.

[2] And He said, Take now your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love (the first mention of love in the Bible), and go into the land of Moriah (the name "Moriah" means "Jehovah is Provider"); and offer him there for a Burnt Offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell you of (human sacrifice was abhorrent to the nature of Jehovah, so the Patriarch must now prove to himself that what he is hearing is definitely from God; this abject lesson, perhaps the greatest in human history, would portray to Abraham the means by which God would redeem humanity — by death, the death of His only Son, of which Isaac, as the only son of Abraham, was a Type).

[3] And Abraham rose up early in the morning (prompt obedience), and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and clave the wood for the Burnt Offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him. (For the salvation of humanity, human sacrifice was demanded, because the blood of bulls and goats could not take away sins [Heb. 10:4]; however, it would have to be the sacrifice of One Who is Perfect, hence, the necessity of the Incarnation [Isa. 7:14].)

[4] Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off (this was no doubt the longest three days of Abraham's life).

[5] And Abraham said unto his young men, Abide you here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship (praise is what we do, while worship is what we are; every part and particle of our life and living should be worship of the Lord; while all worship is not praise, all praise definitely is worship; this is the first time that the word "worship" is used in the Bible), and come again to you (he believed that God would raise the boy from the dead).

6 And Abraham took the wood of the Burnt Offering, and laid it upon Isaac his son (symbolic of Christ carrying the Cross [Jn. 19:17]); and he took the fire in his hand (typical of the judgment of God which would fall upon Christ instead of upon sinful man), and a knife (symbolic of the death that Christ would die); and they went both of them together (God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself [II Cor. 5:19]).

7 And Isaac spoke unto Abraham his father, and said, My father (Isaac, as the unresisting Burnt Offering, is a striking Type of Him Who said, "I delight to do Your Will, O My God"): and he said, Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the lamb for a Burnt Offering? (John the Baptist would answer that question by saying, "Behold the Lamb of God, Which takes away the sin of the world" [Jn. 1:29].)

8 And Abraham said, My son, God will provide Himself a lamb for a Burnt Offering: so they went both of them together. (Isaac was to be a Type of the Son of God, provided by the Lord, Who would redeem mankind by the giving of Himself in Sacrifice on the Cross.)

A RAM

9 And they came to the place which God had told him of (this would be the place of the threshingfloor which David bought, and where Solomon's Temple would be built); and Abraham built an Altar there (it is believed that the Holy of Holies, which contained the Ark of the Covenant in the Temple, was built over this exact spot), and laid the wood in order (signifying the Cross), and bound Isaac his son (typical of Jesus being nailed to the Cross), and laid him on the Altar upon the wood (typical of Jesus stretched on the Cross).

10 And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son (perhaps the Lord asked more of Abraham than He has ever asked of any man; when Abraham took the knife, his surrender was complete).

11 And the Angel of the LORD (this was the Lord Himself) called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham (He Who said, "Abraham, Abraham," was the same One Who said, "Martha, Martha," "Simon, Simon," and "Saul, Saul"; the repetition denotes urgency): and he said, Here am I. (It was the trial that God intended, not the act.)

12 And He said, Lay not your hand upon the lad, neither do you anything unto him (Abraham didn't have to kill the boy to prove himself to God, but he had to fully intend to do so, and that he did!): for now I know that you fear God, seeing you have not withheld your son, your only son from Me (should have been translated, "for I the knowing One knew that you feared God, and that you would not withhold your son, your only son, from Me").

13 And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns (this is the doctrine of Substitution plainly laid out; the ram was offered up in Sacrifice instead of his son; likewise, Jesus was offered up as our Substitute): and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a Burnt Offering in the stead of his son (even though the Doctrine of Substitution is clearly set forth here, its corresponding Doctrine of Identification is not so clearly stated, that awaiting Moses [Num. 21:9]; but still, we are seeing here the very heart of the Salvation Plan).

14 And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovah-jireh (meaning "the Lord will provide"): as it is said to this day, In the mount of the LORD it shall be seen (should read "in this mount Jehovah shall be seen"; this was fulfilled in II Samuel 24:25; I Chronicles 21:26; II Chronicles 7:1-3).

THE COVENANT CONFIRMED

15 And the Angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time (this will involve Revelation; however, let the Reader understand that the "Revelation" is entirely dependent upon the Substitution; in other words, "No Cross, no Revelation!")**,

[16] And said, By Myself have I sworn, says the LORD, for because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son (while Isaac wasn't sacrificed, actually in a figure he was and, as well, in a figure raised from the dead [Heb. 11:18-19]; in essence, he was a figure of Christ)**:

[17] That in blessing I will bless you (blessing always refers to increase), and in multiplying I will multiply your seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore (this includes the Church as well, and for all time); and your seed shall possess the gate of his enemies (this speaks of Jesus Christ defeating Satan, and doing so by removing Satan's legal right to hold man in bondage, which legal right is sin; Jesus did it at the Cross; there the gates of Hell were torn down [Mat. 16:18])**;

[18] And in your seed shall all the nations of the Earth be blessed (the "Seed" is the Lord Jesus Christ [Gal. 3:16]); because you have obeyed My Voice (obedience to the Word of God is the requirement).

[19] So Abraham returned unto his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beer-sheba; and Abraham dwelt at Beer-sheba. (The return of Abraham to Beer-sheba with Isaac had to be the happiest journey that Abraham ever took. It was truly a journey of victory.)

[20] And it came to pass after these things, that it was told Abraham, saying, Behold, Milcah, she has also born children unto your brother Nahor (this Chapter concludes with an account of Nahor's family, who settle at Haran [Gen. 12:1-5]; none of this would have been given, but for the connection which it had with the Work of God on Earth; from these people mentioned here both Isaac and Jacob took wives, which had to do with the formation of the nation of Israel, and ultimately the birth of Christ)**;

Aram,

22 And Chesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel.

23 And Bethuel begat Rebekah: these eight Milcah did bear to Nahor, Abraham's brother.

24 And his concubine, whose name was Reumah, she bore also Tebah, and Gaham, and Thahash, and Maachah.

CHAPTER 23

SARAH

[1] And Sarah was an hundred and twenty-seven years old: these were the years of the life of Sarah (Sarah is the only woman in the Bible whose age, death, and burial are recorded)**.

[2] And Sarah died in Kirjath-arba; the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan: and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her. (The phrase, "in the land of Canaan," is given regarding the place of Sarah's death, in order that we might know that she did not die in the country of the Philistines, but rather in the "Promised Land." She had fought this good fight of Faith with Abraham every step of the way; consequently, in a sense, as he was the "father of us all" [Rom. 4:16], Sarah was the "mother of us all" [I Pet. 3:6].)

[3] And Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spoke unto the sons of Heth, saying,

[4] I am a stranger and a sojourner with you (this was a confession of his real inheritance, a better country, even an Heavenly [Heb. 11:13]): give me a possession of a buryingplace with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight (this request of the sons of Heth was a sign to Abraham of his right and title to the land of Canaan, which the sons of Heth would not have understood)**.

[5] And the children of Heth answered Abraham, saying unto him,

[6] Hear us, my lord: you are a mighty prince among us: in the choice of our sepulchres bury your dead; none of us shall withhold from you his sepulchre, but that you may bury your dead.

7 And Abraham stood up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, even to the children of Heth.

8 And he communed with them, saying, If it be your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight; hear me, and intreat for me to Ephron the son of Zohar (they had no idea that Abraham was looking forward to the possession of the whole land; and because he did so look forward, the possession of a grave was by no means a small matter to him)**,

9 That he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he has, which is in the end of his field; for as much money as it is worth he shall give it me for a possession of a buryingplace among you. (In the purchasing of Machpelah for a buryingplace, Abraham gave expression to his Faith as it regards Resurrection. "He stood up from before his dead." Faith cannot long keep death in view; it has a higher object. Resurrection is that which ever fills the vision of Faith and, in the power thereof, it can rise up from before the dead.)

10 And Ephron dwelt among the children of Heth: and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the audience of the children of Heth, even of all who went in at the gate of his city, saying,

11 No, my lord, hear me: the field give I to you, and the cave that is therein, I give it to you; in the presence of the sons of my people I give it to you: bury your dead (the Canaanites had no idea of the expectations which were giving character to Abraham's actions on this occasion).

12 And Abraham bowed down himself before the people of the land. (His purchase of this tomb was not only a proof of his love for Sarah, but a testimony to his belief that she would rise again and with him possess the whole land, which, to be sure, he will see in totality in the coming Kingdom Age.)

13 And he spoke unto Ephron in the audience of the people of the land, saying, But if you will give it, I pray you, hear me: I will give you money for the field; take it of me, and I will bury my dead there (this is the first time that money is mentioned in the Bible as a medium of exchange).

14 And Ephron answered Abraham, saying unto him,

15 My lord, hearken unto me: the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver; what is that between me and you? bury therefore your dead (the reason so much attention is given to this by the Holy Spirit is because it proclaims the hope of Resurrection and the inheritance founded thereon).

16 And Abraham hearkened unto Ephron; and Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver, which he had named in the audience of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, current money with the merchant (while Abraham would pay the Canaanites for Machpelah, he would look to the Lord for the entirety of the land of Canaan, which most certainly one day will be his).

17 And the field of Ephron, which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field, and the cave which was therein, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all the borders round about, were made sure (in the cave of Machpelah, his own remains, and those of Isaac, Rebekah, Jacob, and Leah were deposited; Rachel alone of the great Patriarchal family was not buried here)

18 Unto Abraham for a possession in the presence of the children of Heth, before all who went in at the gate of his city (the bargain was sealed).

19 And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre: the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan.

20 And the field, and the cave that is therein, were made sure unto Abraham for a possession of a buryingplace by the sons of Heth. (Abraham's love for Sarah demanded an honored tomb for her precious dust, and faith in respect of her furnishes a testimony as to her resurrection. Love bent down over her sleeping face, and faith "stood up" from before its dead, proclaiming the Resurrection that is most surely to come.)

CHAPTER 24

ELIEZER

[1] And Abraham was old, and well stricken in age: and the LORD had blessed Abraham in all things. (Abraham was now about 140 years old, and would actually live to the age of 175 [25:7]. He lived some 35 years after Isaac was married, and lived to see Esau and Jacob nearly grown up.

Chapters 22 through 24 present a startling picture. In Chapter 22, the son is offered up; in Chapter 23, Sarah is laid aside, which represents Israel being laid aside; and in Chapter 24, the servant is sent forth to procure a bride for him who had been, as it were, received from the dead in a figure.

When we turn to the New Testament, we see a remarkable similarity: 1. The rejection and death of Christ, corresponding to the offering up of Isaac; 2. The setting aside of Israel after the flesh, corresponding with the death of Sarah; and, 3. The calling out of the Church to occupy the high position of the Bride of the Lamb, typified by a bride for Isaac.)

[2] And Abraham said unto his oldest servant of his house (Eliezer), who ruled over all that he had, Put, I pray you, your hand under my thigh (Eliezer, in a sense, is a Type of the Holy Spirit; the putting the hand under the thigh of the Patriarch, which was the source of posterity, points to Abraham's future descendants, and in particular to Christ, the Promised Seed; so the oath was equivalent to a swearing by Him Who was to come, namely Christ)**:

[3] And I will make you swear by the LORD, the God of heaven, and the God of the Earth, that you shall not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell (these were descendants of Ham, and not Shem, with the latter being the lineage through which Christ would come, and only through that lineage [9:26]):

4 But you shall go unto my country, and to my kindred (descendants of Shem), and take a wife unto my son Isaac (typical of the Holy Spirit calling out Believers as a bride for Christ, of Whom Isaac was a Type).

5 And the servant (Eliezer) said unto him (Abraham), Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land: must I needs bring your son again unto the land from where you came?

6 And Abraham said unto him, You beware that you bring not my son thither again (by no means was Isaac to be taken to the particular land where his wife was to be found; the Promised Land was his home, and opportunity for temptation must not be put in his way).

7 The LORD God of heaven, which took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and Who spoke unto me, and Who swore unto me, saying, Unto your seed will I give this land; He shall send His Angel before you, and you shall take a wife unto my son from thence (the Lord would send an Angel who would precede Eliezer, and thereby prepare the way).

8 And if the woman will not be willing to follow you, then you shall be clear from this my oath: only bring not my son thither again (the instructions were specific: Isaac was to remain in Canaan, and the woman was to come to Canaan to be with him).

9 And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master (as Abraham had demanded), and swore to him concerning that matter.

PRAYER

10 And the servant took ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed (the number "ten" portrays completeness; the Salvation of our Lord is a complete Salvation); for all the goods of his master were in his hand (all the goods of our Heavenly Father are in the Hand of the Holy Spirit, of Whom Eliezer was a Type): and he arose, and went to Mesopotamia, unto the city of Nahor (the Holy Spirit came to this Earth on the Day of Pentecost in a new dimension, of which Mesopotamia was a Type).

[11] And he made his camels to kneel down without the city by a well of water at the time of the evening, even the time that women go out to draw water (the "well of water" is a Type of the "Living Water").

[12] And he said O LORD God of my master Abraham, I pray you, send me good speed this day, and show kindness unto my master Abraham (Eliezer does not trust his own instincts or personal wisdom; he rather seeks leading from the Lord, ever conscious of the significance of his journey).

[14] And let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down your pitcher, I pray you, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give your camels drink also: let the same be she that You have appointed for Your servant Isaac; and thereby shall I know that You have showed kindness unto my master (the "fleece," so to speak, was not simple or easy; camels drink an awful lot of water, and for a young lady to draw enough water to slake the thirst of ten camels, and for her to volunteer to do so, even without being asked, would have to be the Lord).

REBEKAH

[15] And it came to pass, before he had done speaking, that, behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder (we have the first mention here of Rebekah, who will be the wife of Isaac, and who will figure so prominently in the great Plan of God).

[16] And the damsel was very fair to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her: and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up (a Type of the Church partaking of the Water of Life).

17 And the servant *(Eliezer)*ran to meet her, and said, Let me, I pray you, drink a little water of your pitcher.

18 And she said, Drink, my lord: and she hasted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for your camels also, until they have done drinking. (Most of the wells in those days were fed by a spring, with a series of steps that led down to the water; consequently, to walk up those steps carrying one or two goatskins full of water was no easy task, especially to slake the thirst of ten camels.)

20 And she hasted, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels (a Type of the Church giving the "Water of Life" to a lost world).

21 And the man wondering at her held his peace, to witness whether the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not ("wondering at her" means that he "eagerly or carefully watched her").

22 And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden earring (a jewel for her forehead) of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold (worth about $5,000 in 2003 money; a Type of the "gifts" given by the Holy Spirit to the Church);

23 And said, Whose daughter are you? tell me, I pray you: is there room in your father's house for us to lodge in? (presents the question that the Holy Spirit asks of every believing sinner).

24 And she said unto him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, which she bore unto Nahor (Rebekah mentions her father's mother to show that she was descended from a high born wife, and not from a concubine).

25 She said moreover unto him, We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in (Rebekah said, "There is room;" the Holy Spirit awaits the same answer from us).

[26] And the man bowed down his head, and worshipped the LORD.

[27] And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of my master Abraham, who has not left destitute my master of his mercy and his truth: I being in the way, the LORD led me to the house of my master's brethren (the prayer of Eliezer shows that he understood the significance of all of this).

[28] And the damsel ran, and told them of her mother's house these things.

[29] And Rebekah had a brother, and his name was Laban: and Laban ran out unto the man, unto the well (Rebekah was a witness of what she had experienced, which brought others to Eliezer; we must be a witness as well).

[30] And it came to pass, when he saw the earring and the bracelets upon his sister's hands (does the world see in us Righteousness and Holiness, of which these gifts were a Type?), and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus spoke the man unto me; that he came unto the man; and, behold, he stood by the camels at the well (the Bible said that Laban "saw" and "heard;" the world must "see" and they must "hear"!).

[31] And he said, Come in, you blessed of the LORD; why do you stand without? for I have prepared the house, and room for the camels (many people want the "gifts" of the Spirit, but they don't want to make room for the camels, i.e., that which they consider to be an imposition; but if we are to have the "gifts," we must make room for the camels).

[32] And the man (Eliezer) came into the house: and he (Laban) ungirded his camels, and gave straw and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet, and the men's feet who were with him (with Eliezer).

ELIEZER

[33] And there was set meat before him (before Eliezer) to eat: but he said, I will not eat, until I have told my errand. And he (Laban) said, Speak on

(the "Marriage Supper of the Lamb" cannot commence until the errand of the Holy Spirit has been completed, which is to secure the Bride for Christ).

[34] And he said, I am Abraham's servant (he is careful to say exactly what Abraham has said; we as well must be very careful that we faithfully deliver the Word of the Lord, and not err in that delivery).

[35] And the LORD has blessed my master greatly; and he is become great: and He has given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and menservants, and maidservants, and camels, and asses (after Eliezer identifies himself, he promotes Abraham, which the Holy Spirit always does, of Whom Eliezer was a Type, as it regards God the Father and God the Son).

[36] And Sarah my master's wife bore a son to my master when she was old: and unto him has he given all that he has (the Heavenly Father has given all things unto the "Son").

[37] And my master made me swear, saying, You shall not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell:

[38] But you shall go unto my father's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son (Israel was to be that wife, but having forfeited the position, the Church now takes Israel's place, at least during the Dispensation of Grace).

[39] And I said unto my master, Peradventure the woman will not follow me.

[40] And he said unto me, The LORD, before Whom I walk (order my behavior), will send His Angel with you, and prosper your way; and you shall take a wife for my son of my kindred, and of my father's house (under the New Covenant, we now have the constant help of the Holy Spirit [Jn. 14:16], which is even greater than the help of Angels):

[41] Then shall you be clear from this my oath, when you come to my kindred; and if they give not you one (will not allow the girl to go), you shall be clear from my oath.

42 And I came this day unto the well, and said, O LORD God of my master Abraham, if now You do prosper my way which I go:

43 Behold, I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass, that when the virgin comes forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray you, a little water of your pitcher to drink;

44 And she said to me, Both (Eliezer and those with him) you drink, and I will also draw water for your camels: let the same be the woman whom the LORD has appointed out for my master's son.

45 And before I had done speaking in my heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew water: and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray you.

46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give your camels drink also: so I drank, and she made the camels drink also.

47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter are you? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore unto him: and I put the earring upon her face (on her forehead), and the bracelets upon her hands.

48 And I bowed down my head, and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, which had led me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter unto his son.

49 And now if you will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.

REBEKAH'S JOURNEY

50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, The thing proceeds from the LORD: we cannot speak unto you bad or good. (They obviously recognized the Hand of the Lord in all of these things, and conducted themselves accordingly.)

51 Behold, Rebekah is before you, take her, and go, and let her be your master's son's wife, as the LORD has spoken. (The journey she would travel would be about 700 miles distant. It was very long in those days, and they would probably never see Rebekah again.)

52 And it came to pass, that, when Abraham's servant heard their words, he worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth. (If it is to be noticed, Eliezer frequently worships the Lord, being careful to give Him thanks.)

53 And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things. (Considering how rich Abraham was, and how important this event, the worth of all of this was undoubtedly staggering. Thus are the spiritual gifts to the Church, made possible by Christ and what He did at the Cross, and given to us by the Holy Spirit. He has given to us "precious things.")

54 And they did eat and drink, he and the men who were with him, and tarried all night; and they rose up in the morning, and he (Eliezer) said, Send me away unto my master (give me permission to leave!).

55 And her brother and her mother said, Let the damsel abide with us a few days, at the least ten; after that she shall go.

56 And he said unto them, Hinder me not, seeing the LORD has prospered my way; send me away that I may go to my master (knowing the urgency of his mission, Eliezer is anxious to get underway).

57 And they said, We will call the damsel, and enquire at her mouth.

58 And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Will you go with this man *(this is the question that the Holy Spirit is asking everyone who would be a part of the Bride of Christ)? And she said, I will go. (She was leaving her family and, as stated, possibly to never see them again. Whenever we come to Christ, we, in effect, as well, must give up our families, our friends, and everything, for that matter. Our answer must be as quick as was the answer of Rebekah, "I will go"!)

59 And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her nurse, and Abraham's servant, and his men.

60 And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, You are our sister, be thou the mother of thousands of millions, and let your seed possess the gate of those which hate them. (Little did they realize the staggering numbers they presented would in fact come to pass. Every single person who has ever come to Christ is a part of these "thousands of millions." As well, her "Seed," the Lord Jesus Christ, has "possessed the gate" of all enemies, signifying total victory in every capacity.)

61 And Rebekah arose, and her damsels, and they rode upon the camels, and followed the man *(as well, we are to follow the Holy Spirit in all of His leading, and always without exception, He will lead us to Christ): and the servant (Eliezer) took Rebekah, and went his way.

ISAAC AND REBEKAH

62 And Isaac came from the way of the well Lahai-roi; for he dwelt in the south country.

63 And Isaac went out to meditate in the field at the eventide *(evening): and he lifted up his eyes, and saw, and, behold, the camels were coming (while in prayer, he happened to look up and, behold, he saw the camel train coming).

64 And Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she lighted off the camel (Rebekah would meet Isaac at his place of prayer).

65 For she had said unto the servant *(Eliezer), What man is this who walks in the field to meet us? And the servant had said, It is my master: therefore she took a veil, and covered herself (the Lord had arranged this marriage, and all marriages which He arranges are as they should be; Rebekah was beautiful, a virgin and, above all, she was the Will of the Lord for Isaac).

66 And the servant told Isaac all things that he had done (it was quite a story!).

67 And Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her; and Isaac was comforted after his mother's death. (In those days, the primitive marriage ceremony consisted solely of the taking of a bride before witnesses. The word "death" is added here by the translators. It was not in the original Text. It is as if the Holy Spirit would not conclude this beautiful and joyful narrative with a note of sorrow.)

CHAPTER 25

KETURAH

1 Then again Abraham took a wife, and her name was Keturah (Sarah having waxed old and vanished away [Heb. 9:13], that is, the Jewish Covenant of works, Keturah, the Gentile, now appears with her sons; thus is the future pictured).

2 And she bore him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah.

3 And Jokshan begat Sheba and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, and Letushim, and Leummim.

4 And the sons of Midian; Ephah, and Epher, and Hanoch, and Abidah, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah. (Abraham was probably between 140 and 150 years old when these sons were born. So, we must conclude that the rejuvenation given to Abraham by the Lord, as it regards the birth of Isaac, carried over for many more years, which it no doubt did. With God all things are possible! This having been accomplished, the nations of the Earth [represented by Keturah and her sons] will be raised up as children of Abraham and receive their inheritance, which of course speaks of the Church.)

5 And Abraham gave all that he had unto Isaac (only the Child of the Spirit can be heir to the Promises).

6 But unto the sons of the concubines, which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and sent them away from Isaac his son, while he yet lived, eastward, unto the east country (there is a vast difference in mere "gifts" than the entirety of the inheritance; in the natural or literal sense the same holds true; those who follow the way of the Cross can have no fellowship with those who follow the way of the flesh).

ABRAHAM'S DEATH AND BURIAL

7 And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived, an hundred threescore and fifteen years (175 years).

8 Then Abraham gave up the ghost, and died in a good old age, an old man, and full of years; and was gathered to his people. (Abraham was born about two years after the death of Noah, and was contemporary with Shem, Noah's son, for many years. Few men in history, if any, have affected the world as did Abraham. That which characterized his person and his life was that of Faith, and we speak of Faith in Christ and what Christ would do to redeem the fallen sons of Adam's lost race. It could be said of him as it was said of Paul, "He fought a good fight, finished the course, and kept the faith" [II Tim. 4:7-8].)

9 And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Mamre; (It is pleasant to read that Isaac and Ishmael stood side by side at their father's grave, which speaks to us of prophetic overtones. This will literally happen in the coming Kingdom Age.)

10 The field which Abraham purchased of the sons of Heth: there was Abraham buried, and Sarah his wife. (This burial plot alone belonged to Abraham and Sarah when they died; however, that burial place proclaimed to all that one day the entirety of the land, which would ultimately be called "Israel," would belong to him; and it yet shall, in the coming Kingdom Age.)

11 And it came to pass after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his son Isaac; and Isaac dwelt by the well Lahai-roi ("well of the living one;" God blessed Isaac, but it doesn't mention anything about God blessing the other sons of Abraham).

DESCENDANTS OF ISHMAEL

12 Now these are the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's handmaid, bore unto Abraham (Ishmael had every opportunity to serve God, but, regrettably, he chose another path):

13 And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebajoth; and Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam,

14 And Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa,

15 Hadar, and Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah:

16 These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their towns, and by their castles; twelve princes according to their nations.

17 And these are the years of the life of Ishmael, an hundred and thirty and seven years: and he gave up the ghost and died; and was gathered unto his people.

18 And they dwelt from Havilah unto Shur, that is before Egypt, as you go toward Assyria: and he died in the presence of all his brethren. (Ishmael was the head of the Arab people, who regrettably, at least for the most part, chose also a path of faithlessness. Christ being rejected, as always is the case, a false deity filled the void. That false deity was Muhammad, who has enslaved the Arab people from then until now. For there is no freedom outside of Christ.)

ESAU AND JACOB

19 And these are the generations of Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham begat Isaac (Isaac was born of the Spirit):

20 And Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah to wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of Padan-aram, the sister to Laban the Syrian ("Laban the Syrian" is mentioned here simply because he will figure very prominently as it regards Jacob, Rebekah's son).

[21] And Isaac intreated the LORD for his wife, because she was barren (Satan hindered the birth of Jacob for twenty years): and the LORD was intreated of him, and Rebekah his wife conceived (God overruled the malice of Satan to emphasize once more the great truth that He displays the riches of His Grace and Glory where nature is dead; this is a principle in the spiritual life which nature is unwilling to learn).

[22] And the children struggled together within her (they were twins in her womb; two energies struggled within her, the one believing and the other unbelieving, and were present even before they were born; it is like the two natures, sin nature and Divine Nature, within the Believer); and she said, If it be so, why am I thus (could be paraphrased, "If, in answer to prayer, God is about to give me the joy of being a mother, why am I so physically oppressed that I am in danger of death?"; it must indeed have appeared perplexing to her that such an answer to prayer should be accompanied by such mysterious suffering)? And she went to enquire of the LORD.

[23] And the LORD said unto her, Two nations are in your womb, and two manner of people shall be separated from your bowels (those two nations were Edomites and Israelites; from the time of their birth, Esau and Jacob would be separated, divided, even hostile, for they would have nothing in common); and the one people shall be stronger than the other people (Jacob, who was younger, would be the stronger, but only through the Lord); and the elder shall serve the younger (every person is born with a sin nature, which makes that the "elder;" the Divine Nature comes into the Believer at conversion, and is the younger; however, if we follow God's pattern of victorious living, which is Jesus Christ and Him Crucified, "the elder shall serve the younger," meaning that the Divine nature will be victorious over the sin nature).

[24] And when her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb.

25 And the first came out red, all over like an hairy garment; and they called his name Esau (his name means "the hairy one," which speaks of sensuality).

26 And after that came his brother out, and his hand took hold on Esau's heel (Jacob taking hold of Esau's heel at birth portrays the Believer trying to gain spiritual supremacy by means of the flesh and not the Spirit, which characterized Jacob for many years); and his name was called Jacob (meaning "heel-catcher" or "supplanter"): and Isaac was threescore years old (60) when she bore them.

THE BIRTHRIGHT

27 And the boys grew: and Esau was a cunning hunter, a man of the field; and Jacob was a plain man, dwelling in tents (the original Hebrew proclaims Esau as a wild, undisciplined man, and Jacob as a quiet, mature individual; he was sensible, diligent, dutiful, and peaceful).

28 And Isaac loved Esau (preferred Esau above Jacob, which proclaims a character flaw in Isaac, which was to bring him grief; the Holy Spirit in the Epistle to the Hebrews calls Esau a "profane person," and this because he sold his birthright), because he did eat of his venison: but Rebekah loved Jacob (she remembered the prediction of Verse 23).

29 And Jacob sod pottage (a stew): and Esau came from the field, and he was faint:

30 And Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray you, with that same red pottage; for I am faint: therefore was his name called Edom (the father of the Edomites).

31 And Jacob said, Sell me this day your birthright. (The birthright then dealt primarily with spiritual things, of which Esau had no regard or concern. It had to do with the earthly inheritance of Canaan, but would take place hundreds of years in the future. It referred to the possession of the Covenant Blessing, which included his seed being as the stars of the sky and all the families of the Earth being blessed in him. As well, it was the progenitorship of the Promised Seed, which was the greatest Blessing of all, and spoke of Christ. The firstborn was to receive the birthright, and Esau was the firstborn.)

32 And Esau said, Behold, I am at the point to die: and what profit shall this birthright do to me? (Esau bartered future and eternal wealth for present and temporary need. He had no concern for spiritual things, so the birthright meant nothing to him.)

33 And Jacob said, Swear to me this day; and he swore unto him: and he sold his birthright unto Jacob. (Jacob, deplorable as was his character, valued Divine and eternal blessing; and, had he placed himself in God's Hands, the prophecy made to his mother before he was born would have been fulfilled to him, and without the degradation and suffering which his own scheming brought upon him.)

34 Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentiles; and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way: thus Esau despised his birthright. (The natural heart places no value on the things of God, as we see evidenced in the choices made by Esau. To the natural heart, God's Promises are a vague, valueless, powerless thing, simply because God is not known. Upon that which the unredeemed cannot see, they place no value. Thus it was with Esau.)

CHAPTER 26

ISAAC

[1] And there was a famine in the land, beside the first famine that was in the days of Abraham (it is not so difficult for Satan to break down the faith of a Believer; so small a matter as a famine is sufficient). And Isaac went unto Abimelech king of the Philistines unto Gerar ("Abimelech" is a title, somewhat like "President" or "Pharaoh;" so this was not the same man who dealt with Abraham, a time of some 80 or more years having now passed).

[2] And the LORD appeared unto him, and said, Go not down into Egypt; dwell in the land which I shall tell you of (if it is disastrous to the Spiritual Life for the Christian to go down into "Egypt," it is dangerous to go down unto "Gerar," for it is a halfway house to Egypt):

[3] Sojourn in this land (the Land of Promise), and I will be with you, and will bless you (the Blessing was conditional on staying in the "Promised Land," as the same Blessing is conditional presently in the spiritual sense); for unto you, and unto your seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath which I swore unto Abraham your father; (Horton says: "The reason Isaac could inherit the Promise and enjoy God's Presence and Blessing was because Abraham obeyed God, fulfilled the obligations of God put on him, kept the requirements, commandments, rules, and instructions God gave him." Many times, our blessings are predicated on the obedience of someone else. We should not forget that, thinking that it's our great faith.)

[4] And I will make your seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto your seed all these countries; and in your seed shall all the nations of the Earth be blessed (basically, the Lord reaffirms the Promise

He had already made to Abraham, and which He now makes to Isaac);

5 Because that Abraham obeyed My Voice, and kept My Charge, My Commandments, My Statutes, and My Laws. (In essence, the Lord is telling Isaac that if he wants to continue to enjoy God's Blessings, he must continue in the same sort of faith and obedience as did his father Abraham. Regrettably, much of the modern Church is trying to change the "charge.")

ABIMELECH

6 And Isaac dwelt in Gerar: (There is no indication that the Lord told Isaac to go to Gerar. The indication is that he went there according to his own leading and direction. Events prove that.)

7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife; and he said, She is my sister: (The Patriarch practices deception here exactly as did his father Abraham. It is positive that Isaac knew in detail of his father's episode in Egypt, and the wrongness of the act. So why did he follow the same course?) for he feared to say, She is my wife; lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah; because she was fair to look upon. (The Child of God must never act out of "fear," but always from the position of "faith.")

8 And it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out at a window, and saw, and, behold, Isaac was sporting with Rebekah his wife. (His deception is found out. The Lord always leaves a "window.")

9 And Abimelech called Isaac, and said, Behold, of a surety she is your wife; and how did you say, She is my sister? And Isaac said unto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her. (Once again, God's primary emissary on Earth is humiliated. In fact, sin always humiliates.)

10 And Abimelech said, What is this you have done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lain with your wife, and you should have brought guiltiness upon us. (Matthew Henry said: "There is nothing in Isaac's denial of his wife to be imitated, or even excused. The impartiality of the sacred historian records it for our warning, and to show that Righteousness comes not by the Law, but by Faith in Christ.")

11 And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He who touches this man or his wife shall surely be put to death. (The sin of Isaac was greater than the sin of his father Abraham. While no sin is to be excused, Isaac had this unsavory example before him, so there was no excuse for what he did.)

12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year an hundredfold: and the LORD blessed him. (We find here that God blessed Isaac materially, but we also find that there is a vast difference between material blessings and Spiritual Blessings.)

13 And the man waxed great, and went forward, and grew until he became very great *(we can never judge that a person's condition with the Lord is right because of prosperous circumstances):

14 For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of servants: and the Philistines envied him. (A man may, like Isaac, become rich in "Gerar," but it is not recorded that Jehovah appeared to Isaac in Gerar. He appeared to him before he went there [in Lahai-roi] and, in fact, the very night of the day that he left.)

15 For all the wells which his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them, and filled them with earth (did so after Isaac arrived).

16 And Abimelech said unto Isaac, Go from us; for you are much mightier than we.

ISAAC, THE WELL-DIGGER

17 And Isaac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there. (We find that Isaac still wasn't in the place where the Lord wanted him, as far as him dwelling in the Land was concerned. He is still in Gerar, which is Philistine country. How many do we see surrounded by God's Blessings, but do not have God's Presence?)

18 And Isaac dug again the wells of water, which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham (these wells had been stopped for some time): and he called their names after the names by which his father had called them (wells in that part of the world, then and now, are extremely important).

19 And Isaac's servants dug in the valley, and found there a well of springing water.

20 And the herdmen of Gerar (Philistines) did strive with Isaac's herdmen, saying, The water is ours: and he called the name of the well Esek (contention); because they did strive with him (many times the opposition we receive, while definitely wrong on the part of the one who is doing the opposing, still, the Lord uses these things, at times, to further His Cause in our lives).

21 And they dug another well, and did strive for that also: and he called the name of it Sitnah (hatred).

22 And he removed from thence, and dug another well; and for that they did not strive: and he called the name of it Rehoboth (there is room); and he said, For now the LORD has made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land. (Despite the fact that there is no contention for this particular well, Isaac seems to now understand that he still isn't exactly where God wants him to be.)

23 And he went up from thence to Beer-sheba. (Several years of strife and contention could have been avoided had Isaac earnestly sought the Lord in the beginning as it regarded his dwelling place. The Lord wanted the Patriarch in Beer-sheba.)

24 And the LORD appeared unto him the same night (immediately when Isaac left Gerar and went to Beer-sheba, which was where the Lord wanted him, "The Lord appeared unto him the same night"), and said, I am the God of Abraham your father: fear not, for I am with you, and will bless you, and multiply your seed for My Servant Abraham's sake. (The Lord intends for Isaac to emulate his father, hence, Him holding up Abraham as an example. As well, Abraham is spoken of, although dead, but not as one who has ceased to be. In fact, Abraham right then was in Paradise, along with Abel, Enoch, Noah, and probably many others.)

25 And he built an Altar there (this typified Christ and the price He would pay; in fact, "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" was what it was all about, and is what it's all about; Isaac built no Altar in Gerar, because the Cross and disobedience do not go together), and called upon the Name of the LORD (there is a difference in calling on the Name of the Lord when one is outside the Will of God than when one is in the center of God's Will; this "calling" is anchored in faith and victory, and will be rewarded accordingly), and pitched his tent there (because the Lord was there): and there Isaac's servants dug a well (the Hebrew word used here means that they opened the well, which had been stopped or closed by violence or neglect).

THE COVENANT

26 Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath one of his friends, and Phichol the chief captain of his army (Abimelech now seeks peace with Isaac, because the fear of the Lord is on Isaac).

27 And Isaac said unto them, Why do you come to me, seeing you hate me, and have sent me away from you? (Williams says, "It is when Isaac definitely separates himself from the men of Gerar that they come to him seeking blessing through him from God. All the time that he dwelt among them, it is not recorded that they approached him in this way. This is one of the many lessons in the Bible which teach the Christian that he best helps the world when living in separation from it.")

28 And they said, We saw certainly that the LORD was with you (the Hand of the Lord is now on Isaac for power and protection, which had not previously been; it was obvious even to the enemies of the Patriarch): and we said, Let there be now an oath between us, even between us and you, and let us make a covenant with you (a covenant to settle the strife)**;

29 That you will do us no hurt, as we have not touched you, and as we have done unto you nothing but good, and have sent you away in peace: you are now the blessed of the LORD. (Abimelech had enough sense to recognize that Isaac was now "blessed of the Lord," and that he must act accordingly. Regrettably, many in the modern Church do not seemingly have even as much spiritual discernment as that heathen prince of long ago.)

30 And he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink (the covenant was made).

31 And they rose up at a certain time in the morning, and swore one to another: and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.

32 And it came to pass the same day, that Isaac's servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had dug, and said unto him, We have found water. (The water here is symbolic of the Water of Life which would be afforded by the Lord Jesus Christ, the "Seed" of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.)

33 And he called it Shebah (which means "the well of the oath;" it was symbolic of the Covenant made by the Lord with Abraham concerning Redemption): therefore the name of the city is Beer-sheba unto this day.

ESAU'S WIVES

34 And Esau was forty years old when he took to wife Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Bashemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite (these girls were in the line of Ham and Canaan, which was cursed [9:25-26]; at this time the Lord recognized only the line of Shem, because through Shem the Messiah would come)**:

35 Which were a grief of mind unto Isaac and to Rebekah.

CHAPTER 27

(1760 B.C.)

THE STOLEN BLESSING

[1] And it came to pass, that when Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see (as the physical dimness, there was spiritual dimness as well), he called Esau his oldest son (older than Jacob by just a few minutes; in fact, they were twins, but totally dissimilar in both appearance and character), and said unto him, My son: and he said unto him, Behold, here am I.

[2] And he said, Behold now, I am old, I know not the day of my death (in fact, it would be many years before Isaac would die):

[3] Now therefore take, I pray you, your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field, and take me some venison (Esau sold his birthright for a mess of pottage; his father was prepared to sell it for a dish of venison! Williams says: "Humbling picture of a man of God under the power of his lower sensual nature!");

[4] And make me savoury meat, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat; that my soul may bless you before I die. (This was to be the blessing of the birthright; Isaac had been told by God at the time of Jacob's birth that Jacob was to possess the birthright. But yet he ignores this Word from the Lord, and proceeds in his determination to give the birthright to Esau, despite the fact that Esau knew the Lord not at all!)

[5] And Rebekah heard when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it. (Rebekah, overhearing the intentions of Isaac, proceeds now to manage the affairs herself; therefore, she steps outside the path of Faith.)

6 And Rebekah spoke unto Jacob her son, saying, Behold, I heard your father speak unto Esau your brother, saying (the history of Jacob is a treasure house of spiritual instruction for the people of God; Jacob as no other man symbolizes the Sanctification process; Jacob symbolizes it so well, because he is a sad illustration of the destructive power of fallen human nature)**,

7 Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and bless you before the LORD before my death.

8 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to that which I command you (Rebekah schemes in order to get Jacob the birthright, exactly as Sarah schemed to give Abraham a son; both were on the path of self-will).

9 Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; and I will make them savoury meat for your father, such as he loves (Jacob's history, as we shall see, teaches the lesson which the natural will is so unwilling to learn, that planning for self instead of resting in the Hand of God brings sorrow)**:

10 And you shall bring it to your father, that he may eat, and that he may bless you before his death (to obtain the birthright by subterfuge).

11 And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man (now the deception begins in earnest)**:

12 My father peradventure will feel me, and I shall seem to him as a deceiver; and I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing. (As shown here, Jacob was the most unlovely member of the family; yet Grace chose him to be the head of all the nations of the Earth.)

13 And his mother said unto him, Upon me be your curse, my son: only obey my voice, and go fetch me them. (Abraham and Sarah attempted to deceive Pharaoh; Isaac and Rebekah attempted to deceive Abimelech; Jacob and Rebekah attempted to deceive Isaac. Such is the path of self-will.)

14 And he went, and fetched, and brought them (two kids of the goats) to his mother: and his mother made savoury meat, such as his father loved.

15 And Rebekah took goodly raiment of her eldest son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob her younger son:

16 And she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck:

17 And she gave the savoury meat and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob (all of this which we observe is a perfect description of resorting to the flesh; such never pleases God [Rom. 8:8]).

18 And he came unto his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I; who are you, my son?

19 And Jacob said unto his father, I am Esau your firstborn; I have done according as you bade me: arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, that your soul may bless me (Jacob lies to his father, which God can never condone).

20 And Isaac said unto his son, How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because the LORD your God brought it to me (a Believer's sin is worse than the sin of an unbeliever, simply because it makes the Lord, in essence, a part of the sin; thus, blasphemy is added to disobedience).

21 And Isaac said unto Jacob, Come near, I pray you, that I may feel you, my son, whether you be my very son Esau or not. (Henry says, "It was one of those crooked measures which have too often been adopted to accomplish the Divine Promises; as if the end would justify, or at least excuse, the means.")

22 And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father; and he (Isaac) felt him (Jacob), and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau (the entirety of this transaction speaks of fraud).

23 And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands: so he blessed him. (Isaac was wrong; Rebekah was wrong; and Jacob was wrong.)

24 And he said, Are you my very son Esau? And he said, I am.

25 And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless you. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 And his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son.

27 And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD has blessed:

28 Therefore God give you of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the Earth, and plenty of corn and wine: (There are two grand points brought out in Jacob's history — God's purpose of Grace, on the one hand; and on the other, self-will plotting and scheming to reach what that purpose would have infallibly brought about without any plot or scheme at all.)

29 Let people serve you, and nations bow down to you: be lord over your brethren, and let your mother's sons bow down to you: cursed be everyone who curses you, and blessed be he who blesses you. (This part of the Blessing points to Christ, Who would be in the lineage of Jacob. God did not need the aid of such elements as Rebekah's cunning and Jacob's gross deceit in order to accomplish His Purpose. He had said, "The elder shall serve the younger." This was enough — enough for Faith, but not enough for self-will, which must ever adopt its own ways and, as stated, know nothing of what it is to wait on God.)

DECEPTION DISCOVERED

30 And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

31 And he also had made savoury meat, and brought it unto his father, and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that your soul may bless me (even though Jacob had tried to obtain the birthright by having Esau sell it to him, it is obvious here that Esau did not recognize what had transpired [25:27-34]).

32 And Isaac his father said unto him, Who are you? And he said, I am your son, your firstborn Esau. (Esau represents those in the Church who would walk the path of self-will. Jacob represents those who know the path of Faith, but would leave that path and suffer greatly. Isaac represents those who are in positions of leadership, and know so little of the Mind of God that they would give the birthright to the Devil instead of to Christ.)

33 And Isaac trembled very exceedingly (he trembled exceedingly at what he had almost done in giving the birthright to Esau, considering that he had been told by God at the time of Jacob's birth that he [Jacob] was to possess the birthright; he trembles exceedingly under a just fear; this fear brings him back into the path of Faith, and directly he returns to that path, he steps from self-will to dignity), and said, Who? where is he who has taken venison, and brought it to me, and I have eaten of all before you came, and have blessed him? yes, and he shall be blessed ("the will of the flesh" made Isaac wish to bless Esau, but Faith in the end conquered [Heb. 11:20], and he cries respecting Jacob: "I have blessed him, and he shall be blessed").

ESAU'S REMORSE

34 And when Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said unto his father, Bless me, even me also, O my father (Esau wanted the material part of the blessing, but had no regard whatsoever for the spiritual part; unfortunately, far too many in the modern Church follow the same path of material possessions; Jesus said so [Rev. 3:17]).

35 And he (Isaac) said, Your brother came with subtilty, and has taken away your blessing (the birthright normally belonged to the firstborn, which Esau here claims; however, it had been promised to Jacob by the Lord [25:23]; however, this gave Jacob no right whatsoever to practice deceit).

36 And he (Esau) said, Is not he rightly named Jacob? for he has supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright; and, behold, now he has taken away my blessing. And he said, Have you not reserved a blessing for me? (First of all, the "blessing" went with the "birthright." As well, only one son could inherit the spiritual prerogatives of the birthright, and the temporal lordship which accompanied it.)

37 And Isaac answered and said unto Esau, Behold, I have made him your lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants; and with corn and wine have I sustained him: and what shall I do now unto you, my son? (In other words, there is no more blessing, and rightly so! All Blessing comes in and through Christ and what He did at the Cross, and Esau had no regard for that. Millions want the blessing, but not Christ! Such cannot be.)

38 And Esau said unto his father, Have you but one blessing, my father? bless me, even me also, O my father. And Esau lifted up his voice, and wept (however, once again we reiterate, his remorse was not for the true blessing, but only for the material benefits).

39 And Isaac his father answered and said unto him, Behold, your dwelling shall be the fatness of the Earth, and of the dew of heaven from above (most Expositors consider that the preposition "of" should be translated "from;" thus, it would read, "Behold, your dwelling shall be away from the fat places of the Earth, and away from the dew of heaven from above, and by your sword you shall live")**;

40 And by your sword shall you live (they have been, and are, a violent people), and you shall serve your brother (the Edomites were the descendants of Esau, and they served Israel for nearly 900 years); and it shall come to pass when you shall have the dominion, that you shall break his yoke from off your neck (in the first days of Joram, and then of Ahaz, Edom revolted, and recovered its freedom, exactly as Isaac had prophesied; so, in reality, there was no blessing for Esau, as there can be no blessing for those who demean Christ and the price that He has paid for man's redemption).

JACOB FLEES FROM ESAU

41 And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him *(despite the deception, Esau had no cause to hate Jacob; he knew that the prophecy had given the birthright to Jacob; as well, he knew that his profligate lifestyle did not warrant such; he had no desire to be the Priest of the family, in fact, no desire for the things of God whatsoever; so his hatred was fueled by ungodliness, not by any imagined wrong): and Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then will I kill my brother Jacob (the flesh always tries to kill that which is of the Spirit).

42 And these words of Esau her elder son were told to Rebekah: and she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, your brother Esau, as touching you, does comfort himself, purposing to kill you. (Jacob himself was a sad illustration of the destructive power of fallen human nature. But yet, he truly loved the Lord, and truly wanted the things of the Lord. He just tried to obtain them in the wrong way.)

43 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice; and arise, flee thou to Laban my brother to Haran *(now, the bitter fruits of sin rise to the surface);

44 And tarry with him a few days, until your brother's fury turn away *(that "few days" would turn into twenty years; in fact, Jacob would never see his mother again);

45 Until your brother's anger turn away from you, and he forget that which you have done to him: then I will send, and fetch you from thence: why should I be deprived also of you both in one day?

46 And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth: if Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these which are of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me? (There is no doubt that Rebekah was concerned about "the daughters of the land," and none of them being a suitable wife for Jacob; however, her real reason at this time for sending Jacob away was not that which she told Isaac, but rather because she feared for his life as it regards the anger of Esau.

From this Chapter, we learn what a profane person actually is, even as the Holy Spirit describes Esau [Heb. 12:16]. It is one who would like to hold both worlds, one who would like to enjoy the present without forfeiting his title to the future. It is the person who attempts to use God, instead of God using him.)

CHAPTER 28

JACOB

[1] And Isaac called Jacob, and blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, You shall not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan (it was not the Will of God for Esau or Jacob to marry "the daughters of the land," but now that Jacob was the recipient of the Blessing, thereby the chosen one as it regards the birthright, which had to do with the coming of the Redeemer into the world, it was imperative that he not marry one of the Canaanite girls, as had his brother Esau; their lineage was of the cursed line of Canaan; he was rather to take a wife of one of the daughters of Laban, his mother's brother).

[2] Arise, go to Padan-aram, to the house of Bethuel your mother's father; and take you a wife from thence of the daughters of Laban your mother's brother (now we have the commencing of God's special dealings with Jacob; now begins the "making of a man").

[3] And God Almighty bless you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, that you may be a multitude of people (the appellative "God Almighty" means "El-Shaddai," and promises guardianship and companionship")**;

[4] And give you the Blessing of Abraham, to you, and to your seed with you; that you may inherit the land wherein you are a stranger, which God gave unto Abraham (Paul addressed the "Blessing of Abraham" [Gal. 3:14]; it means "Justification by Faith;" it refers to a believing sinner who is justified before God by simply having Faith in Christ and what Christ has done for us at the Cross).

[5] And Isaac sent away Jacob; and he went to Padan-aram unto Laban, son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother (Isaac now fully seems to have returned to the path of Faith; there is now no attempt to substitute Esau for Jacob, or to lessen the privileges of the latter, but, with hearty cheerfulness, he blesses the younger son, and confirms him in the possession of the whole Abrahamic Blessing).

6 When Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob, and sent him away to Padan-aram, to take him a wife from thence; and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, You shall not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan (Esau, knowing nothing of the path of Faith, concludes erroneously that the reason that Isaac gave Jacob the Blessing is because he [Esau] had married Canaanite women);

7 And that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Padan-aram (the "obedience" mentioned here of Jacob was the opposite of that concerning Esau);

8 And Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan pleased not Isaac his father;

9 Then went Esau unto Ishmael, and took unto the wives which he had Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife. (In fact, Ishmael had been dead now for some years, so it refers to Esau going to the family of Ishmael. The truth is, Ishmael was no closer to acceptance than the daughters of Canaan. He had long before been rejected by the Holy Spirit, and had been thrust out of the family of Abraham. This portrays any Believer who doesn't understand the true path of Faith and tries to build his case on a work of the flesh. And, if the Believer doesn't understand the Cross, he will, without fail, resort to the flesh.)

JACOB'S VISION

10 And Jacob went out from Beer-sheba, and went toward Haran (Jacob is alone, but yet God and all the Holy Angels are with him, as we shall see).

11 And he stopped at a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set; and he took of the stones of that place, and put them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep (the "sleep" represents him ceasing from his personal activity and God beginning His Personal activity; Jacob has much to learn, and it will begin here).

[12] And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the Earth, and the top of it reached to Heaven: and behold the Angels of God ascending and descending on it (in a sense, the "ladder" represents Christ; He Alone is the Way to Heaven; He would refer to this at the beginning of His Ministry [Jn. 1:51]).

[13] And, behold, the LORD stood above it, and said, I am the LORD God of Abraham your father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon you lie, to you will I give it, and to your seed (the words "above it" in the original Hebrew actually should read "beside him"; not only did the Angels descend by it to him, but God Himself descended this stairway of glory and stood by him; the Patriarch, destitute and with a stone for a pillow, literally having to leave this land, is now told by the Lord, "To you will I give it, and to your seed;" only Faith could accept such a Promise)**;

[14] And your seed shall be as the dust of the Earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in you and in your seed shall all the families of the Earth be blessed (all of this speaks of Christ, Who Alone is the Blessing; His Gospel, through the Cross, would go and, in fact, has gone, to the entirety of the world).

[15] And, behold, I am with you, and will keep you in all places where you go, and will bring you again into this land; for I will not leave you, until I have done that which I have spoken to you of (the Lord said to Jacob: 1. I am with you; 2. I will keep you; 3. I will bring you again into this land; and, 4. I won't leave you, until I have done all that of which I have spoken to you; these same Promises are to us as well!).

JACOB'S VOW

[16] And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the LORD is in this place; and I knew it not (for the first time, the Lord reveals Himself to Jacob; this is the night that Jacob was "born from above"; all of this tells us that all hopes of the flesh must die before the Spirit can properly be revealed to us).

[17] And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the House of God, and this is the Gate of Heaven (could be translated, "How all-inspiring is this place!"; the "Gate of Heaven" is Jesus Christ).

[18] And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it (the "stone" is a Type of Christ, with the "oil" serving as a symbol of the Holy Spirit; no doubt, he was inspired by the Lord to do this).

[19] And he called the name of that place Beth-el: but the name of that city was called Luz at the first ("Beth-el" means "House of God"; "Luz" means "separation"; the Lord can turn "Luz" into the "House of God," only as the Believer is separated from the world).

[20] And Jacob vowed a vow *(the first recorded vow in the Bible), saying, If God be with me *(should read, "Since God be with me"), and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on,

[21] So that I come again to my father's house in peace *(free from Esau's avenging threats); then shall the LORD be my God:

[22] And this stone *(representing Christ), which I have set for a pillar, shall be God's House *(all of this sets the stage for the Holy Spirit making the Believer His Sanctuary; it was all made possible by the Cross [Jn. 14:16-20]): and of all that You shall give me I will surely give the tenth unto you. (This obviously means that Jacob gave a tenth of his vast herds of sheep and cattle to the Lord as a Sacrifice. If that, in fact, was the case, we now find Jacob offering up Sacrifices to a degree as no one else. If the tithe which we propose to give to the Lord doesn't advance the grand Message of "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" [I Cor. 1:23; 2:2], then we actually aren't really paying tithe. The first occasion of tithing mentioned in the Bible was when Abraham paid tithes to Melchizedek, who was a Type of Christ as our Great High Priest. Jesus would become this by dying on the Cross as a Sacrifice [14:18-20]. So both occasions of paying tithes speak to the Cross.)

CHAPTER 29

(1760 B.C.)

JACOB MEETS RACHEL

[1] Then Jacob went on his journey, and came into the land of the people of the east (this "journey" would last for some twenty years).

[2] And he looked, and behold a well in the field, and, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great stone was upon the well's mouth.

[3] And there were all the flocks gathered: and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in his place.

[4] And Jacob said unto them, My brethren, from where are you? And they said, Of Haran are we.

[5] And he said unto them, Do you know Laban the son of Nahor? And they said, We know him (Laban is Jacob's mother's brother).

[6] And he said unto them, Is he well? And they said, He is well: and, behold, Rachel his daughter comes with the sheep (this is the first mention of Rachel in the Bible; she will figure very prominently in the great Plan of God, being the mother of both Joseph and Benjamin; she was the ancestress of three of the great Tribes of Israel, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh, the latter two being the sons of Joseph).

[7] And he said, Lo, it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: water you the sheep, and go and feed them.

[8] And they said, We cannot, until all the flocks be gathered together, and till they roll the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep (the reason probably was that Laban owned the well, and the other flocks could not be watered until Rachel first of all had watered her flock).

9 And while he (Jacob) yet spoke with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep: for she kept them (we readily see the Hand of the Lord working in this situation regarding the meeting of Jacob with Rachel).

10 And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother (three times the Holy Spirit has Moses, when writing this account, to repeat the term, "his mother's brother"; it is not done unintentionally; the idea is, Jacob has met with his own relations, with "his bone and his flesh").

11 And Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice, and wept (the Patriarch is overcome with emotion, and I think mostly at the joy of seeing the Hand of God working in his life).

12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's brother, and that he was Rebekah's son: and she ran and told her father (Jacob was actually the nephew of Laban).

13 And it came to pass, when Laban heard the tidings of Jacob his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. And he (Jacob) told Laban all these things (Laban would no doubt have been well over 100 years of age at this time, possibly even as much as 120; Laban did now almost exactly what he had done those many years before, when he was told by Rebekah his sister of Eliezer [24:29]).

14 And Laban said to him, Surely you are my bone and my flesh. And he abode with him the space of a month (after this, he went out and obtained his own place).

LABAN

15 And Laban said unto Jacob, Because you are my brother, should you therefore serve me for nought? tell me, what shall your wages be? (Jacob the dealer meets now with Laban the dealer, and they are both seen, as it were, straining every nerve to outwit each other.)

16 And Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

17 Leah was tender eyed; but Rachel was beautiful and well favored.

18 And Jacob loved Rachel; and said, I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter (Jacob is now about to begin to reap the bitter fruit of his sin).

19 And Laban said, It is better that I give her to you, than that I should give her to another man: abide with me.

20 And Jacob served seven years for Rachel; and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her (it is a popular mistake to suppose that Jacob did not marry Rachel till the end of the seven years, or even the second seven years; every evidence is that he took her immediately for his wife, and then served the time allotted).

JACOB AND LEAH

21 And Jacob said unto Laban, Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in unto her (his "days" being fulfilled simply means that the contract had been agreed upon, that he was to serve Laban seven years for Rachel; this is proven by Verse 30).

22 And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast.

23 And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him; and he went in unto her (when Leah went in to Jacob, she no doubt was wearing a veil and, as well, the room was probably dark; Jacob thought it was Rachel).

24 And Laban gave unto his daughter Leah Zilpah his maid for an handmaid.

25 And it came to pass, that in the morning, behold, it was Leah: and he said to Laban, What is this you have done unto me? did I not serve (agree) with you for Rachel? wherefore then have you beguiled me? (The deception that Jacob practiced upon Isaac cost him at least 14 years of servitude.)

26 And Laban said, It must not be so done in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn (this was a custom that Laban had concocted on his own; there is no evidence of such in that part of the world).

27 Fulfill her week (serve me seven years for Leah), and we will give you this also for the service (give him Rachel) which you shall serve with me yet seven other years.

RACHEL

28 And Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week (he agreed to the transaction of seven more years, making a total of fourteen): and he gave him Rachel his daughter to wife also.

29 And Laban gave to Rachel his daughter Bilhah his handmaid to be her maid.

30 And he went in also unto Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with him yet seven other years (in all of this we find that the Lord is chastising Jacob; the Lord doesn't actually punish his children, but He definitely does chastise his children; chastisement is designed to teach us something, while punishment contains no instruction, only hurt; Jacob is being chastised; he seems to recognize this, and accept it).

LEAH'S CHILDREN

31 And when the LORD saw that Leah was hated (the word "hated" here means "loved less"), he opened her womb: but Rachel was barren (there is no indication that Jacob mistreated Leah, but there is indication that Rachel did; the Lord saw all of this and, as a result, He made Leah fruitful and, at the same time, He made Rachel barren; in fact, Leah was the ancestress of both David and our Lord; and there could have been no greater honor than that! We should allow this to be a lesson to us, in that the Lord sees everything, and acts accordingly).

32 And Leah conceived, and bore a son, and she called his name Reuben (the name actually means, "See, a son"): for she said, Surely the LORD has looked upon my affliction; now therefore my husband will love me (Leah was not to blame in all of this situation, so Rachel, her sister, shouldn't have taken the situation out on her; as noted, the Lord didn't take kindly to what was happening).

33 And she conceived again, and bore a son; and said, Because the LORD has heard I was hated, He has therefore given me this son also: and she called his name Simeon (his name means "hearing"; she is functioning from the position that the Lord has heard her petition).

34 And she conceived again, and bore a son; and said, Now this time will my husband be joined unto me, because I have born him three sons: therefore was his name called Levi (his name means "joined").

35 And she conceived again, and bore a son: and she said, Now will I praise the LORD: therefore she called his name Judah; and left bearing. (Judah means "praise." So, in these four sons we have a symbol of the entirety of the Plan of Redemption. The "son" is born, it "hears" the Gospel, it is "joined" to the Lord, and it "praises" the Lord. But, as we shall see in the next Chapter, it doesn't end here.)

CHAPTER 30

BILHAH

[1] And when Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister; and said unto Jacob, Give me children, or else I die (Rachel pictures Israel; Leah, the Church; Rachel is first loved, but not possessed – sorrowful and childless; Leah, blessed with children and triumphant; Paul, in a sense, addressed this in Galatians 4:27; Rachel blames Jacob, but the fault is not that of Jacob, but rather hers; instead of seeking Jacob, she should have sought the Lord).

[2] And Jacob's anger was kindled against Rachel: and he said, Am I in God's stead, Who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb? (Jacob directs Rachel to the Lord.)

[3] And she said, Behold my maid Bilhah, go in unto her; and she shall bear upon my knees, that I may also have children by her (all of this shows precious little Faith in God; while it seems that both Rachel and Leah understood somewhat the significance of them having children, their understanding was only partial, because they seemed to walk more by sight than by Faith).

[4] And she gave him Bilhah her handmaid to wife: and Jacob went in unto her (this was the custom in those days; the child that Bilhah would have would be looked at as that of Rachel, but only in a sense; the Holy Spirit plainly proclaims the actual mother).

JACOB'S CHILDREN

[5] And Bilhah conceived, and bore Jacob a son. (Concerning this, Calvin says, "So, God often strives to overcome men's wickedness through kindness, and pursues the unworthy with His Grace.")

6 And Rachel said, God has judged me, and has also heard my voice, and has given me a son: therefore called she his name Dan. (The name means "judging." Whether Jacob understood such or not is open to question; however, he must have 13 sons in order to found the Nation of Israel. Twelve would be for the regular tribes, while one would be for the Priestly Tribe. But, as usual, even as here, the flesh is mixed with faith.)

7 And Bilhah Rachel's maid conceived again, and bore Jacob a second son.

8 And Rachel said, With great wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed: and she called his name Naphtali (his name means "wrestling").

9 When Leah saw that she had left bearing, she took Zilpah her maid, and gave her Jacob to wife (resorts to the flesh).

10 And Zilpah Leah's maid bore Jacob a son.

11 And Leah said, A troop comes: and she called his name Gad (Gad means, "good fortune").

12 And Zilpah Leah's maid bore Jacob a second son.

13 And Leah said, Happy am I, for the daughters will call me blessed: and she called his name Asher (means "happy").

14 And Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them unto his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, Give me, I pray you, of your son's mandrakes. (These Passages present a perfect picture of prayer mixed with superstition. According to Oriental superstition, the mandrake possessed the virtue of promoting fruitfulness and fertility. It was an apple-like fruit.)

15 And she said unto her, Is it a small matter that you should take my husband? and would you take away my son's mandrakes also? And Rachel said, Therefore he shall lie with you tonight for your son's mandrakes (Rachel makes a bargain with Leah).

16 And Jacob came out of the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, You must come in unto me; for surely I have hired you with my son's mandrakes. And he lay with her that night.

17 And God hearkened unto Leah, and she conceived, and bore Jacob the fifth son. (From this Verse, we know that Leah sought the Lord as it regards her conceiving another son, which she did. The Lord heard and answered her prayer, and this despite the fact that superstition had been involved regarding the mandrakes. How so much the Lord overlooks in answering prayer for all of us.)

18 And Leah said, God has given me my hire, because I have given my maiden to my husband: and she called his name Issachar (means, "reward").

19 And Leah conceived again, and bore Jacob the sixth son.

20 And Leah said, God has endued me with a good dowry; now will my husband dwell with me, because I have born him six sons: and she called his name Zebulun. (Means "dwelling." So, in the six sons of Leah, we have the totality of the Plan of God. A "son" is born; he "hears" the Gospel; he is "joined" to Christ; he "praises" the Lord; he is "rewarded"; and he will "dwell" with the Lord forever.)

21 And afterwards she bore a daughter, and called her name Dinah.

JOSEPH

22 And God remembered Rachel (that the mandrakes could not remove sterility, the Lord demonstrated by allowing Rachel's barrenness to continue at least two years longer, though she had made use of this supposed remedy, and by opening Leah's womb without them; we should learn from all of this how the Lord rules in all things; but, once again, it's so easy for any of us to resort to the flesh), and God hearkened to her, and opened her womb (it seems that Rachel finally resorted strictly to the Lord).

[23] And she conceived, and bore a son; and said, God has taken away my reproach (God Alone can take away the reproach):

[24] And she called his name Joseph; and said, The LORD shall add to me another son. (Joseph's name means "adding." So, Rachel prophesies that the Lord will give her another son. As well, all of these sons are Types of Christ. Reuben: Jesus is the "Son" of God. Simeon: through Jesus we "hear" God. Levi: through Jesus we are "joined" to the Father. Judah: through Jesus, God had accepted our "praises." Dan: Jesus has taken the "judgment" due us. Naphtali: Jesus has "wrestled" the power of darkness, all on our behalf, and has defeated the foe. Gad: Jesus is the "troop" Who has fought on our behalf, and has brought us "good fortune." Asher: Jesus has made us "happy." Issachar: Jesus is our "reward." Zebulun: Jesus has made it possible for Believers to "dwell" in the House of the Lord forever. Joseph: Jesus has "added" all Believers to the Kingdom. Benjamin: Jesus is the Father's "strong right hand," and sits with Him in Heavenly Places. And as He does, so do we [Eph. 2:6]. Manasseh and Ephraim will be born to Joseph. There will be no tribe named Joseph, his two sons taking his place, making the total of the necessary 13 Tribes.)

WAGES

[25] And it came to pass, when Rachel had born Joseph, that Jacob said unto Laban, Send me away, that I may go unto my own place, and to my country.

[26] Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have served you, and let me go: for you know my service which I have done you. (The phrase, "For whom I have served you, and let me go," proves that both Leah and Rachel became his wives immediately and then he served the fourteen years for them.)

[27] And Laban said unto him, I pray you, if I have found favor in your eyes, tarry: for I have learned by experience that the LORD has blessed me for your sake. (Laban did not really serve the Lord; however, he did know that Jehovah was real, and that the Blessings of God were definitely upon Jacob. So, for material benefits alone, he desires that the Patriarch remain with him as long as possible. We should learn a lesson from all of this. The Blessings of the Lord upon any individual will fall out as well on those around such a person.)

28 And he (Laban) said, Appoint me your wages, and I will give it.

29 And he (Jacob) said unto him (unto Laban), You know how I have served you, and how your cattle was with me.

30 For it was little which you had before I came, and it is now increased unto a multitude; and the LORD has blessed you since my coming: and now when shall I provide for my own house also?

31 And he (Laban) said, What shall I give you? And Jacob said, You shall not give me any thing: if you will do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep your flock:

32 I will pass through all your flock today, removing from thence all the speckled and spotted cattle, and all the brown cattle among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats: and of such shall be my hire.

33 So shall my righteousness answer for me in time to come (God will bless me), when it shall come for my hire before your face: every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the sheep, that shall be counted stolen with me (all that are speckled, spotted, or brown shall be mine).

34 And Laban said, Behold, I would it might be according to your word. (Some have criticized Jacob, as it regards this particular agreement. They have attributed such to devious ways, trickery, and even dishonesty; however, it would appear that he acted honestly. The Lord will never bless sin and dishonesty, or even the slightest hint of evil. So, if the Lord is involved, and He definitely was, we must conclude that the acts, whatever they may have been, were righteous.)

35 And he removed that day the he goats that were ringstraked and spotted, and all the she goats that were speckled and spotted, and every one that had some white in it, and all the brown among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his (Jacob's) sons.

36 And he (Laban) set three days' journey between himself and Jacob: and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks. (Laban required that there should be an interval of between 30 and 40 miles between "himself," that is, his flocks, and those of Jacob. His wealth in sheep and goats must have been enormous to require so large a separate feeding ground. All of this, we learn from Verse 30, had been the result of Jacob's care.)

PROSPERITY

37 And Jacob took him rods of green poplar, and of the hazel and chestnut tree; and pilled white strakes in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods. (Whenever Jacob proposed his plan, which would give him all of the spotted and mingled sheep and goats, Laban reasoned, and rightly so under normal circumstances, that the number of animals falling into this category would be small indeed. The Lord told Jacob what to do in this situation. It is said to have been frequently observed that, particularly in the case of sheep, whatever fixes their attention in copulation is marked upon the young; however, it will be safer to ascribe this to Divine Blessing than to human craft.)

38 And he set the rods which he had pilled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs when the flocks came to drink, that they should conceive when they came to drink.

39 And the flocks conceived before the rods, and brought forth cattle ringstraked, speckled, and spotted.

40 And Jacob did separate the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the ringstraked, and all the brown in the flock of Laban; and he put his own flocks by themselves, and put them not unto Laban's cattle. (Incidentally, the term "cattle," as used in the Old Testament, can refer to all domestic animals, such as lambs, goats, oxen, or heifers. In the Passages of our study, it seems to refer to all types.)

[41] And it came to pass, whensoever the stronger cattle did conceive, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods.

[42] But when the cattle were feeble, he put them not in: so the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's.

[43] And the man (Jacob) increased exceedingly, and had much cattle, and maidservants, and menservants, and camels, and asses. (We must conclude that the proposal of such a singular condition on the part of Jacob was an act, not of folly, but of faith, being tantamount to a committal of his cause to God instead of Laban. The acceptance of the agreement on the part of Laban was a display of greed, and a proof that the bygone years of prosperity had only increased that greed. Increase in the best sense is God's Promise. It will be sent as He wills, and when He wills, but will be found the true answer to prayer and the true manifestation of love. On all that belongs to us, the blessing rests.)

CHAPTER 31

JEALOUSY

1 And he (Jacob) heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob has taken away all that was our father's; and of that which was our father's has he gotten all this glory. (As long as Jacob was increasing the wealth of Laban, and he [Jacob] remained poor, Laban had no problem with that. But once Jacob begins to prosper, and begins to do so in a grand way, this creates jealousy in Laban.)

2 And Jacob beheld the countenance of Laban, and, behold, it was not toward him as before (jealousy).

3 And the LORD said unto Jacob, Return unto the land of your fathers, and to your kindred; and I will be with you (it is so pleasing to the heart to note the minute leading of the Lord in the life of the Patriarch; it is now time for him to return to Canaan; he has been away for some twenty years).

4 And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field unto his flock,

5 And said unto them, I see your father's countenance, that it is not toward me as before; but the God of my father has been with me (he gives the praise to the Lord for his prosperity).

6 And you know that with all my power I have served your father.

7 And your father has deceived me, and changed my wages ten times; but God suffered him not to hurt me. (When Laban saw that Jacob's flocks were increasing according to the bargain originally made, he then changed the rules. Whatever it was that he did we aren't told; however, we do note that God overruled whatever it is that Laban did, and continued to bless

[8] If he said thus, The speckled shall be your wages; then all the cattle bore speckled: and if he said thus, The ringstraked shall be your hire; then bore all the cattle ringstraked (men rule, but God overrules!).

[9] Thus God has taken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me (from all of this, we learn that Jacob had not done anything wrong, or else God would not have prospered him).

[10] And it came to pass at the time that the cattle conceived, that I lifted up my eyes, and saw in a dream, and, behold, the rams which leaped upon the cattle were ringstraked, speckled, and grisled (specifying to Jacob that it was the Lord Who had given the increase).

CANAAN

[11] And the Angel of God spoke unto me in a dream, saying, Jacob: And I said, Here am I (this is actually Jehovah!).

[12] And He (the Lord) said, Lift up now your eyes, and see, all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ringstraked, speckled, and grisled: for I have seen all that Laban has done unto you (we should take a lesson from this, understanding that the Lord sees and notes all).

[13] I am the God of Beth-el (He reaffirms that He is the God of Beth-el, which proclaims the fact that every promise given there to Jacob still held true), where you anointed the pillar (which spoke of Christ and the Holy Spirit), and where you vowed a vow unto Me (this was the "tenth" that was to be given to the Lord; all of these animals had been offered up in sacrifice, seeming that Jacob had been faithful to the vow [28:20]): now arise, you get out from this land, and return unto the land of your kindred (as stated, twenty years had passed since he had seen his kindred).

JACOB

14 And Rachel and Leah answered and said unto him, Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house? (Both Rachel and Leah understood completely the duplicity of their father. He not only had done Jacob wrong, but he had wronged them as well.)

15 Are we not counted of him strangers? for he has sold us, and has quite devoured also our money (it's a shame that Laban figures so prominently in the Gospel Message, but yet never came to know the Lord).

16 For all the riches which God has taken from our father, that is ours, and our children's: now then, whatsoever God has said unto you, do (they recognized the Hand of God in all of this, and readily acquiesced to Jacob's proposal to leave).

17 Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels;

18 And he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Padan-aram, for to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan (these twenty years that Jacob has been gone are silent regarding Isaac).

19 And Laban went to shear his sheep: and Rachel had stolen the images that were her father's (the images had to do with her inheritance, of which we will momentarily address).

20 And Jacob stole away unawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled.

21 So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed over the river, and set his face toward the mount Gilead (for Jacob to leave in this manner shows that the situation had become intolerable).

THE PURSUIT

22 And it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob was fled.

23 And he took his brethren (his sons and others) with him, and pursued after him (after Jacob) seven days' journey; and they overtook him in the mount Gilead.

24 And God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed that you speak not to Jacob either good or bad (the Lord warning Laban in a dream indicates that the man intended to do Jacob harm).

25 Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount: and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gilead.

26 And Laban said to Jacob, What have you done, that you have stolen away unawares to me, and carried away my daughters, as captives taken with the sword? (This was totally untrue. Rachel and Leah had voluntarily accompanied their husband in his departure.)

27 Wherefore did you flee away secretly, and steal away from me; and did not tell me, that I might have sent you away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret, and with harp?

28 And have not suffered me to kiss my sons and my daughters? you have now done foolishly in so doing. (Laban's words are hypocritical. More than likely, the Lord told Jacob to depart as he did because of Laban's hostile intentions.)

29 It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt: but the God of your father spoke unto me yesternight, saying, You take heed that you speak not to Jacob either good or bad.

30 And now, though you would need be gone, because you sore longed after your father's house, yet wherefore have you stolen my gods? (Jacob had no idea that Rachel had taken these things.)

31 And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid: for I said, Peradventure you would take by force your daughters from me.

32 With whomsoever you find your gods, let him not live: before our brethren discern for you what is yours with me, and take it to you. For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them. (When there was any question about the inheritance, the person who had the teraphim [gods] was considered to have the right to the double portion of the primary heir. When Jacob first came, he was welcomed into the family and adopted as the heir, since Laban had no sons at the time. But Laban had sons born shortly after, and that normally would invalidate Jacob's claim unless he possessed the teraphim. Rachel felt Jacob deserved more than he was getting, so she stole them for his benefit, and for the benefit of Jacob's family. There is no evidence she wanted to worship these images — Horton.)

[33] And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two maidservants' tents; but he found them not. Then went he out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent. (How foolish for Laban to call those things his gods which could be stolen! Could he expect protection from things that could neither resist nor discover their invaders?)

[34] Now Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the camel's furniture, and sat upon them. And Laban searched all the tent, but found them not.

[36] And Jacob was angry, and did chide with Laban: and Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my trespass? what is my sin, that you have so hotly pursued after me? (Jacob was now very angry. Instead of Laban being sad regarding his two daughters and all of his grandchildren leaving, and knowing that he would possibly never see them again, he was more interested in material things than anything else.)

[37] Whereas you have searched all my stuff (it is interesting that Jacob referred to these images as "stuff"), what have you found of all your household stuff? set it here before my brethren and your brethren, that they may judge between us both.

38 This twenty years have I been with you; your ewes and your she goats have not cast their young, and the rams of your flock have I not eaten.

39 That which was torn of beasts I brought not unto you; I bore the loss of it; of my hand did you require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night.

40 Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from my eyes.

41 Thus have I been twenty years in your house; I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your cattle: and you have changed my wages ten times. (Jacob rehearses his twenty years with Laban and, in effect, is saying that Laban has absolutely no reason to be angry with him.)

42 Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham (Whom Laban did not serve), and the fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely you had sent me away now empty. God has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands, and rebuked you yesternight. (The dream that the Lord gave to Laban. What a spectacle of infinite humor, if it were not so sad — a man seeking for his lost gods! The Gospel presents us with the opposite picture — the ever present God seeking for His lost children.)

THE COVENANT

43 And Laban answered and said unto Jacob, These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these cattle are my cattle, and all that you see is mine: and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have born? (At Beth-el, Jacob learned what God was; at Haran, what man was. And what a difference! At Beth-el, God enriched him: at Haran, man robbed him! Laban wrongly claims everything that Jacob has, but recognizes, due to the Power of God, that there is nothing he can do regarding the taking of them.)

44 Now therefore you come, let us make a Covenant, I and you; and let it be for a witness between me and you. (Laban wanted this Covenant because he was afraid, relative to what the Lord had told him in the dream.)

45 And Jacob took a stone (a Type of Christ), and set it up for a pillar.

46 And Jacob said unto his brethren, Gather stones; and they took stones, and made an heap: and they did eat there upon the heap (for both to eat signified an agreement).

47 And Laban called it Jegar-sahadutha (the heap of witness): but Jacob called it Galeed (in Hebrew, it means the same thing, "the heap of witness").

48 And Laban said, This heap is a witness between me and you this day. Therefore was the name of it called Galeed;

49 And Mizpah (a "beacon or watchtower"); for he (Laban) said, The LORD watch between me and you, when we are absent one from another (Laban uses the Name of the "Lord," but really does not know Him).

50 If you shall afflict my daughters, or if you shall take other wives beside my daughters, no man is with us; see, God is witness between me and you (at this stage, Laban makes a show of piety as it regards his daughters, but his actions have spoken much louder than his words).

51 And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold this pillar, which I have cast between me and you:

52 This heap be witness, and this pillar be witness, that I will not pass over this heap to you, and that you shall not pass over this heap and this pillar unto me, for harm.

53 The God of Abraham, and the god of Nahor, the god of their father, judge between us (Laban now adds an oath to the covenant, calling on the God of Abraham, and the gods of Nahor, to judge between Jacob and Laban; all of this proves that Laban worshipped many so-called gods; he really doesn't know the God of Abraham, but only puts Him into the mix, and on the same level as the gods of Nahor). And Jacob swore by the fear of his father Isaac. (Jacob ignored the gods of Nahor, and took his oath only in the name of the only True God, Who was the "fear" of, or "the One Reverenced by, Isaac.")

54 Then Jacob offered sacrifice upon the mount, and called his brethren to eat bread: and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the mount. (The Sacrifice meant nothing to Laban, even though he was well acquainted with this practice, but everything to Jacob. In essence, Jacob was saying that he was placing his faith and confidence in what the Sacrifice represented, namely the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the price that He would pay to redeem the lost sons of Adam's fallen race.)

55 And early in the morning Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed them: and Laban departed, and returned unto his place. (So, Laban passes from the scene, not to be mentioned again, except in passing [46:18, 25]. He had seen the Hand of God greatly so in the life of Jacob, with the Lord, as stated, even speaking to him in a dream; however, he has no heart for God, and thereby the opportunity of Heaven was eternally lost to him.)

(1739 B.C.)

ESAU

[1] And Jacob went on his way, and the Angels of God met him (obeying the Lord, the Patriarch has the assurance of the protection of Angels).

[2] And when Jacob saw them (the Lord pulls back the cover of the spirit world, and allows Jacob to see the Angelic Host which will accompany him), he said, This is God's Host: and he called the name of that place Mahanaim (at Beth-el, some twenty years before, his possessions consisted of a staff; but now he has become a host; "Mahanaim" means "two camps — his feeble camp and the encircling camp of God's mighty Angels").

[3] And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother unto the land of Seir, the country of Edom (some believe that Esau was the founder of the ancient city of Petra, and may have been there when Jacob sent for him).

[4] And he commanded them, saying, Thus shall you speak unto my lord Esau; Your servant Jacob says thus, I have sojourned with Laban, and stayed there until now:

[5] And I have oxen, and asses, flocks, and menservants, and womenservants: and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find grace in your sight.

[6] And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to your brother Esau, and also he comes to meet you, and four hundred men with him. (One doesn't bring that many men, as it regards a mere greeting. It is almost positive that Esau had other things in mind, and they were not exactly meant to be pleasant.)

7 Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed (did he not remember the host of Angels around him? But before we criticize Jacob, we must, as well, look at ourselves): and he divided the people who were with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two bands;

8 And said, If Esau come to the one company, and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape.

9 And Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the LORD which said unto me, Return unto your country, and to your kindred, and I will deal well with you: (Like many today, Jacob first makes his plans and then prays! He should have reversed the action. But the sense of having acted wrongly those years ago regarding his brother, Esau, fills the heart with a thousand fears, and robs the Christian of confidence toward God and dignity before man.)

10 I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies (Jacob's prayer is the first recorded in the Bible), and of all the truth, which you have showed unto your servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands. (His prayer was correct, but his faith, as of yet, wasn't!)

11 Deliver me, I pray you, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he will come and smite me, and the mother with the children. (Jacob asked the Lord to deliver him, but then turns around and tries to appease Esau with a present. Was he placing more confidence in a few lambs than he did Jehovah, to Whom he had just been committing himself? But, as stated, before we criticize him, we had best look into the glass of our own hearts.)

12 And You said, I will surely do you good, and make your seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

13 And he lodged there that same night; and took of that which came to his hand a present for Esau his brother (concerning this, Mackintosh says: "Now, praying and planning will never go together. If I plan, I am leaning more or less on my plan; but when I pray, I should lean exclusively upon God. Hence, the two things are perfectly incompatible, they virtually cancel out each other. When my eyes fill with my own management of things, I am not prepared to see God acting for me; and, in that case, prayer is not the utterance of my need, but the mere superstitious performance of something which I think ought to be done, or it may be asking God to sanctify my plans. This will never do. The life of Faith is not asking God to sanctify and bless my means, but it is asking Him to do it all Himself");

14 Two hundred she goats, and twenty he goats, two hundred ewes, and twenty rams, 15 Thirty milk camels with their colts, forty cattle, and ten bulls, twenty she asses, and ten foals.

16 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves; and said unto his servants, Pass over before me, and put a space between drove and drove.

17 And he commanded the foremost (the men in the lead), saying, When Esau my brother meets you, and asks you, saying, For Whom do you work? and where are you going? and whose are these before you?

18 Then you shall say, They be your servant Jacob's; it is a present sent unto my lord Esau: and, behold, also he (Jacob) is behind us.

19 And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, On this manner shall you speak unto Esau, when you find him.

20 And say ye moreover, Behold, your servant Jacob is behind us. For he said, I will appease him with the present that goes before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure he will accept of me. (In 2003 currency, these gifts would have amounted to well over $100,000. Jacob's idea was that the gifts to Esau would be given drove by drove. If he accepted them, this would mean that he came to Jacob in peace. No sooner had the Patriarch quit praying, that he started planning, which means that he wasn't really trusting the Lord as he should have been.)

[21] So went the present over before him: and himself lodged that night in the company (with his family).

[22] And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two womenservants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford Jabbok.

[23] And he took them (his family), and sent them over the brook, and sent over that he had. (The brook Jabbok crosses the Jordan about 30 miles north of the Dead Sea.)

ISRAEL

[24] And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a Man with him until the breaking of the day. (In this Chapter, and in Hosea [Chpt. 12], this Man is called God, the Angel, Elohim Sabaoth, and Jehovah. In this scenario, we find that it was not with Esau, his brother, with whom he had to contend, but with Jehovah Himself. This is always the case with every Believer.)

[25] And when He saw (the Lord saw) that He prevailed not against him (against Jacob), He touched the hollow of his thigh (Jacob's thigh); and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as He wrestled with him. (The great principle that God cannot give victory to "the flesh" appears in this night scene. It is the broken heart that begins to experience what Divine Power means. Better for the sun to rise upon a limping Israel than to set upon a lying Jacob. Jacob, for his misconduct, was exiled from the Promised Land, having nothing but his staff. He returns a wealthy prince, but lamed. So, Israel, cast out of Jehovah's Land because of her sin, will return with abundance, but broken and contrite in spirit.)

[26] And He said (the Lord said), Let Me go, for the day breaks. And he said (Jacob said), I will not let You go, except You bless me. (Williams says, "When sore broken by that mighty Hand, he ceased to wrestle and clung with weeping and supplication to the very God Who wounded him, then it was that he got the victory and the glorious name of Israel.")

27 And He (the Lord) said unto him, What is your name? And he said, Jacob. (Of course, the Lord already knew Jacob's name. So, why did He insist on Jacob pronouncing his name? He wanted Jacob to admit who and what he actually was, which the name Jacob adequately portrayed. True Faith requires that we admit what we are, before we can receive what He is!)

28 And He (the Lord) said, Your name shall be called no more Jacob (meaning deceiver or supplanter), but Israel (a Prince of God): for as a Prince have you power with God and with men, and have prevailed (as we shall see, Jacob's change was instant, but yet gradual).

29 And Jacob asked Him, and said, Tell me, I pray You, Your Name. And He said, Wherefore is it that you do ask after My name? (The Lord's answer is revealing. He responds with another question: the idea is, Jacob, by now, ought to know Who the One is with Whom he has been struggling. And the next statements prove that he did.) and He (the Lord) blessed him (Jacob) there (He gave him power with God and with men).

30 And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel (means "the Face of God"): for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved (Jacob will never be the same again).

31 And as he passed over Penuel the sun rose upon him, and he halted upon his thigh. (The sun is now rising, but upon a crippled Jacob. If the Lord is to reveal Himself to an individual, the flesh must be crippled. That is an absolute necessity!)

32 Therefore the children of Israel eat not of the sinew which shrank, which is upon the hollow of the thigh, unto this day: because He (the Lord) touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew that shrank. (This particular sinew is the proper name for the large tendon which takes its origin from the spinal cord and extends down the thigh unto the ankle. It was called by the Greeks the "tendo Achillis," because it reaches the heel. So, the "heel-catcher" became a "Prince with God.")

CHAPTER 33

(1739 B.C.)

RECONCILIATION

[1] And Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, Esau came, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children unto Leah (those who belonged to Leah), and unto Rachel (those who belonged to Rachel), and unto the two handmaids (etc.).

[2] And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph hindermost (those he considered his greatest love were at the rear).

[3] And he passed over before them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

[4] And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and kissed him: and they wept (the action of Esau shows how groundless were Jacob's fears, and how needless his plans).

[5] And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, Who are those with you? And he said, The children which God has graciously given your servant. (It is obvious that Esau is a powerful Chieftain. How so sad that this man did not see the great spiritual truths. In that case, it would have been "the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Esau." But such was not to be!)

[6] Then the handmaidens came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves.

[7] And Leah also with her children came near, and bowed themselves: and after came Joseph near and Rachel, and they bowed themselves.

8 And he said, What is the meaning of all these droves which I met? And he said (Jacob said), These are to find grace in the sight of my lord.

9 And Esau said, I have enough, my brother; keep that you have unto yourself.

10 And Jacob said, No, I pray you, if now I have found grace in your sight, then receive my present at my hand: for therefore I have seen your face, as though I had seen the Face of God, and you were pleased with me.

11 Take, I pray you, my blessing that is brought to you; because God has dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough. And he urged him, and he took it. (Esau accepting the gift, as well, stated that he had accepted Jacob, and there were no hard feelings.)

12 And he said (Esau said), Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go before you.

13 And he (Jacob) said unto him, My lord knows that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me: and if men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die.

14 Let my lord, I pray you, pass over before his servant: and I will lead on softly, according as the cattle that goes before me and the children be able to endure, until I come unto my lord unto Seir (Jacob never did get to Seir).

15 And Esau said, Let me now leave with you some of the folk who are with me. And he said, There is no need! let me find grace in the sight of my lord.

16 So Esau returned that day on his way unto Seir.

CANAAN

17 And Jacob journeyed to Succoth, and built him an house (this is the first mention of a "house" as it regards the Patriarchs), and made booths for his cattle: therefore the name of the place is called Succoth. (Jacob went to Succoth. But the Lord had not said, "I am the God of Succoth," but rather, "I am the God of Beth-el." Events will prove that Jacob was not in the Will of God.)

18 And Jacob came to Shalem, a city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan-aram; and pitched his tent before the city (referred to the fact that he was claiming this area as his domicile).

19 And he bought a parcel of a field, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of Hamor, Shechem's father, for an hundred pieces of money.

20 And he erected there an Altar, and called it El-elohe-Israel. (Jacob erects an Altar at Shechem, for the conscience is uneasy without religious forms, but the Divinely chosen place for the Altar was Beth-el.)

CHAPTER 34

DINAH

[1] And Dinah the daughter of Leah, which she bore unto Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land (this seems very innocent; however, these daughters led to a companionship with shame; the Christian has to be very careful concerning the world and its ways).

[2] And when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the country, saw her, he took her, and lay with her, and defiled her (Pulpit says, "Dinah paid the full penalty of her carelessness; she suffered the fate which Satan had planned for Sarah and Rebekah in the land of Pharaoh and Abimelech; she was seen and taken by the son of the prince, forcibly, it seems, against her will, but yet with the claims of affection by her lover).

[3] And his soul clave unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the damsel, and spoke kindly unto the damsel (probably refers to marriage).

[4] And Shechem spoke unto his father Hamor, saying, Get me this damsel to wife (marriages were arranged in those days, so Shechem asked his father Hamor to work out the arrangements).

[5] And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter: now his sons were with his cattle in the field: and Jacob held his peace until they were come.

[6] And Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jacob to commune with him (supposedly to make arrangements for the marriage).

[7] And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it: and the men were grieved, and they were very angry, because he (Shechem) had wrought folly in Israel in lying with Jacob's daughter: which thing ought not to be done (in this Verse, the word "Israel" is used for the first time to designate Jacob's descendants, which actually became the great nation of Israel; the phrase, "folly in Israel," became a standing expression for acts done against the sacred character which belonged to Israel as a separated and covenanted community, as the people of God).

[8] And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shechem longs for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife (the special wickedness of Shechem consisted in dishonoring a daughter of one who was the head of the theocratic line and, therefore, under peculiar obligations to lead a holy life).

[9] And you make marriages with us, and give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you (by the act of intermarriage, Satan will compromise and corrupt the sacred lineage).

[10] And you shall dwell with us: and the land shall be before you; dwell and trade you therein, and get you possessions therein (the end result of this plan, as fomented by Satan, was to ultimately stop the Incarnation; the lineage must be kept pure).

[11] And Shechem said unto her father and unto her brethren, Let me find grace in your eyes, and what you shall say unto me I will give (in essence, Shechem was saying that whatever they asked, as far as monetary value was concerned, he would pay it).

[12] Ask me never so much dowry and gift, and I will give according as you shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife.

[13] And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father deceitfully, and said, because he had defiled Dinah their sister (the sons of Jacob practice deceit in this situation, in which Jacob had no part therein; however, God no more overlooks deceit in His Own than He does in those outside the Covenant)**:

[14] And they (the brothers of Dinah) said unto them (Shechem and those with him)*, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised; for that were a reproach unto us:

[15] But in this will we consent unto you: If you will be as we be, that every male of you be circumcised;

[16] Then will we give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people (the sons of Jacob are now beginning to show the traits which will ultimately lead to their desire to murder Joseph).

[17] But if you will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone.

REVENGE

[18] And their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamor's son.

[19] And the young man deferred not to do the thing (did not want to put it off), because he had delight in Jacob's daughter: and he was more honorable than all the house of his father (in other words, Shechem was sincere).

[20] And Hamor and Shechem his son came unto the gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying (presented the proposal to them),

[21] These men are peaceable with us; therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade therein; for the land, behold, it is large enough for them; let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters (Jacob's sons were of the Semitic stock and, therefore, possessed of high physical and mental endowments; and, as they were rich in cattle and other wealth, their incorporation with the people of Shechem, or so they reasoned, would raise it to a high rank; so they agreed to Hamor's proposal).

[22] Only herein will the men (Jacob's clan) consent unto us for to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised.

[23] Shall not their cattle and their substance and every beast of theirs be ours? only let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us (we find here that Hamor is practicing deceit as well; this was not the idea of Shechem, he being more honorable than his father, but it was the idea of his father and the other men of the city).

[24] And unto Hamor and unto Shechem his son hearkened all who went out of the gate of his city; and every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city (in that Hamor agreed so readily, we must come to the conclusion that circumcision was something not unknown to them and, as well, something that they regarded as a small price to pay for what they believed they would receive).

[25] And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and killed all the men (there is nothing that would justify what these men did).

[26] And they killed Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out.

[27] The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister (in fact, the annals of uncivilized warfare scarcely record a more atrocious crime).

[28] They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field,

[29] And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even all that was in the house (and we must understand, this was the Church of that day!).

[30] And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, You have troubled me to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites: and I being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and kill me; and I shall be destroyed, I and my house (Jacob readily sees the hand of Satan in all of this and, but for the protection of the Lord, he was right).

[31] And they said, Should he deal with our sister as with an harlot?

CHAPTER 35

(1732 B.C.)

BETHEL

[1] And God said unto Jacob, Arise, go up to Beth-el, and dwell there (in essence, this is what the Lord had told Jacob to do when he first came back to Canaan; to be out of the Will of God, as was Jacob, always invites disaster!): and make there an Altar unto God, Who appeared unto you when you fled from the face of Esau your brother. (Nearly ten years had passed since Jacob had come back to the Land of Promise. At that time, those ten years ago, the Lord had said to Jacob, "Return unto your Land, I am the God of Bethel." The Lord did not say, "I am the God of Succoth." But how slow was he to obey this command! And it cost him dearly.)

[2] Then Jacob said unto his household, and to all who were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, and be clean, and change your garments (when Jacob learns that he is to meet God publicly at Bethel, he at once feels that idols cannot be brought into fellowship with that House and, accordingly, he commands the surrender of all the strange gods that were in their hands and in their ears, and he buried them beneath the oak at Shechem; these were either brought by Jacob's servants from Mesopotamia, or adopted in Canaan, or perhaps possessed by the women taken captive during the problem of the recent past)**:

[3] And let us arise, and go up to Beth-el (now at last he goes "up unto Bethel"; physically, and morally, it was indeed a going-up; but how slow he had been the last ten years to obey this command! Had he gone swiftly to Bethel, when he left Syria, and had he "dwelt" there, as commanded, what sin and sorrow would have been avoided!); and I will make there an Altar unto God, Who answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way which I went. (The "Altar" was a Type of Christ and the death He would die on the Cross in order to redeem fallen humanity. It was the centerpiece of man's relationship with God in Old Testament times, and it continues to be such presently in the form of the Cross. If the Cross is removed, or ignored, or set aside in any way, then it ceases to be Faith that God will recognize. The Faith that God recognizes is that which is anchored squarely in the Cross [Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11; I Cor. 1:17-18, 21, 23; 2:2; Col. 2:14-15].)

4 And they gave unto Jacob all the strange gods which were in their hand, and all their earrings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the oak which was by Shechem. (At Shechem Jacob kept his Saviour and his Salvation to himself, and permitted his family and household to retain their idols. But this cannot be suffered if God is to be recognized and publicly confessed as the God of Bethel. The "strange gods" must go!)

5 And they journeyed: and the terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob (the Lord protected them, or else they would have been slaughtered by surrounding enemies).

6 So Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan, that is, Beth-el, he and all the people who were with him.

7 And he built there an Altar, and called the place El-beth-el (the "God of the House of God"): because there God appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of his brother (some thirty years before).

8 But Deborah Rebekah's nurse died, and she was buried beneath Beth-el under an oak: and the name of it was called Allon-bachuth ("the oak of weeping"; Rebekah was Jacob's mother; no doubt, he was attached to Deborah, who had been a servant of his mother for many years; he would miss her greatly).

9 And God appeared unto Jacob again, when he came out of Padan-aram, and blessed him (which was done some ten years before, when Jacob wrestled with the Lord; it should be noted that the Lord did not appear to Jacob while he was at Succoth, except to speak to him and tell him to leave the place; the Revelation of the Lord, as it regards blessing, cannot come to us unless we are in the center of God's Will).

10 And God said unto him, Your name is Jacob: your name shall not be called any more Jacob, but Israel shall be your name: and He (God) called his name Israel (the renewal of the name given to Jacob some ten years earlier at Peniel was most possibly done because the Patriarch feared that he had forfeited the Blessing; but the Gifts and Calling of God are without Repentance).

11 And God said unto him, I am God Almighty (El-Shaddai, the all sufficient One): be fruitful and multiply (which can only be done with the Blessings of the Lord); a Nation and a company of nations shall be of you, and kings shall come out of your loins (and so they did)**;

12 And the Land which I gave Abraham and Isaac, to you I will give it, and to your seed after you will I give the Land. (Satan has fought this from then until now. The latest in the long line of opposers are the Palestinians; however, let it be known, that what God says will happen, will happen. In the coming Kingdom Age, Israel will then possess all that God has promised, and in totality.)

13 And God went up from him in the place where He talked with him.

14 And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he talked with him, even a pillar of stone (a Type of Christ): and he poured a Drink Offering thereon (the first mention of a "Drink Offering" in Scripture), and he poured oil thereon. (This Stone figures Christ the Rock of Ages, anointed with the Holy Spirit, typified by the oil, and filled with the joy of God, typified by the "Drink Offering.")

15 And Jacob called the name of the place where God spoke with him, Beth-el (House of God).

BENJAMIN

16 And they journeyed from Beth-el; and there was but a little way to come to Ephrath: and Rachel travailed, and she had hard labour.

17 And it came to pass, when she was in hard labour, that the midwife said unto her, Fear not; you shall have this son also (the midwife is speaking of the prophecy given to Rachel when Joseph was born, that "the Lord shall add to me another son" [30:22-24]).

18 And it came to pass, as her soul was in departing, (for she died) that she called his name Ben-oni: but his father called him Benjamin. (Sorrowing nature calls him "Ben-oni," i.e., "child of my sorrow." Faith calls him "Benjamin," i.e., "son of the right hand." Prophetic picture of Him Who was to be at first the "Man of Sorrows," and then the "Man at God's Right Hand.")

19 And Rachel died, and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Beth-lehem (she was buried where the Son of God, some 1,700 years later, would be born).

20 And Jacob set a pillar upon her grave: that is the pillar of Rachel's grave unto this day.

21 And Israel journeyed (throughout the Chapter, the Patriarch is called Jacob, except in Verses 21-22, where three times the Holy Spirit names him Israel; how strange this contradiction appears to human wisdom! Jacob is his name of weakness, Israel, of strength; and yet is he only named Israel in connection with wandering and dishonor? when we are weak, He is strong [II Cor. 12:10]), and spread his tent beyond the tower of Edar.

22 And it came to pass, when Israel dwelt in that land, that Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine: and Israel heard it. Now the sons of Jacob were twelve (with this sin, Reuben, the firstborn, forfeited the birthright; Jesus would not be born through that line, but rather through the Tribe of Judah)**:

23 The sons of Leah; Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun:

24 The sons of Rachel; Joseph, and Benjamin:

25 And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's handmaid; Dan, and Naphtali:

26 And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's handmaid: Gad, and Asher: these are the sons of Jacob, which were born to him in Padan-aram. (The twelve sons of Jacob are listed here, who would head up the Tribes of Israel, with Manasseh and Ephraim taking the place of Joseph, making the total thirteen. There would actually be thirteen Tribes, counting Levi, which was the Priestly Tribe.)

THE DEATH OF ISAAC

27 And Jacob came unto Isaac his father unto Mamre, unto the city of Arbah, which is Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac sojourned.

28 And the days of Isaac were an hundred and fourscore years (180 years).

29 And Isaac gave up the ghost, and died, and was gathered unto his people, being old and full of days: and his sons Esau and Jacob buried him. (They laid Isaac beside his ancestral greats in the family burying-place of Machpelah, where already slept the lifeless bodies of Abraham and Sarah, awaiting the Resurrection, while his spirit went to company with theirs in the better country, even an Heavenly. Jacob was with Isaac when he died, and Esau came to the grave.)

CHAPTER 36

ESAU

1 Now these are the generations of Esau, who is Edom. (This is important only in the sense of showing us the portion of Esau, who had his place in this life, and not the life to come [Ps. 17:14]. It shows his sons establishing themselves in the world, with their riches and their possessions, while the heirs of Promise, that is, Jacob and his sons, are still pilgrims and strangers. This furnishes a prophetic picture.)

2 Esau took his wives of the daughters of Canaan (from the cursed line of Canaan [9:23-27]); Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite;

3 And Bashemath Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebajoth.

4 And Adah bore to Esau Eliphaz; and Bashemath bore Reuel;

5 And Aholibamah bore Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah: these are the sons of Esau, which were born unto him in the land of Canaan.

6 And Esau took his wives, and his sons, and his daughters, and all the persons of his house, and his cattle, and all his beasts, and all his substance, which he had got in the land of Canaan; and went into the country from the face of his brother Jacob.

7 For their riches were more than that they might dwell together; and the land wherein they were strangers could not bear them because of their cattle.

8 Thus dwelt Esau in mount Seir: Esau is Edom. (In all of this, we find that Esau is repeatedly called Edom. This is the name which perpetuated the remembrance of his selling his birthright for a mess of pottage. We find that Esau continued the same profane despiser of heavenly things, despite being a member of the sacred family.)

9 And these are the generations of Esau the father of the Edomites in mount Seir (Petra):

10 These are the names of Esau's sons; Eliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau, Reuel the son of Bashemath the wife of Esau.

11 And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, and Gatam, and Kenaz.

12 And Timna was concubine to Eliphaz Esau's son; and she bore to Eliphaz Amalek: these were the sons of Adah Esau's wife. (The "Amalek" mentioned here is probably the Amalekite nation which attacked Israel at Horeb. In Biblical typology, Amalek is looked at as a type of the flesh. When Israel experienced the miracle of the water coming from the Rock, which was a Type of Christ and the Holy Spirit, the Scripture says, "Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim" [Ex. 17:6-8].)

13 And these are the sons of Reuel; Nahath, and Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah: these were the sons of Bashemath Esau's wife.

14 And these were the sons of Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah the daughter of Zibeon, Esau's wife: and she bore to Esau Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah.

15 These were dukes of the sons of Esau: the sons of Eliphaz the firstborn son of Esau; duke Teman, duke Omar, duke Zepho, duke Kenaz, 16 Duke Korah, duke Gatam, and duke Amalek: these are the dukes who came of Eliphaz in the land of Edom; these were the sons of Adah.

17 And these are the sons of Reuel Esau's son; duke Nahath, duke Zerah, duke Shammah, duke Mizzah: these are the dukes who came of Reuel in the land of Edom; these are the sons of Bashemath Esau's wife.

18 And these are the sons of Aholibamah Esau's wife; duke Jeush, duke Jaalam, duke Korah: these were the dukes who came of Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, Esau's wife.

19 These are the sons of Esau, who is Edom, and these are their dukes.

20 These are the sons of Seir the Horite, who inhabited the land; Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, 21 And Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan: these are the dukes of the Horites, the children of Seir in the land of Edom.

22 And the children of Lotan were Hori and Hemam; and Lotan's sister was Timna.

23 And the children of Shobal were these; Alvan, and Manahath, and Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

24 And these are the children of Zibeon; both Ajah, and Anah: this was that Anah who found the mules in the wilderness, as he fed the asses of Zibeon his father.

25 And the children of Anah were these; Dishon, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah.

26 And these are the children of Dishon; Hemdan, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran.

27 The children of Ezer are these; Bilhan, and Zaavan, and Akan.

28 The children of Dishan are these; Uz, and Aran.

29 These are the dukes who came of the Horites; duke Lotan, duke Shobal, duke Zibeon, duke Anah,

30 Duke Dishon, duke Ezer, duke Dishan: these are the dukes who came of Hori, among their dukes in the land of Seir.

THE KINGS OF EDOM

31 And these are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom, before there reigned any king over the children of Israel. (Concerning this Chapter, Matthew Henry says, "In external prosperity and honor, the children of the Covenant are often cast behind, and those who are out of the Covenant, such as Esau, seemingly get ahead. We may suppose it is a trial to the Faith of God's Israel to hear of the pomp and power of the kings of Edom, while they were bond slaves in Egypt; but those who look for great things from God must be content to wait for them; God's time is the best time.

"Observe, Mount Seir is called the land of their possession. While the Israelites dwelt in the house of bondage, and their Canaan was only the Land of Promise, the Edomites dwelt in their own habitations, and Seir was in their possession. The children of this world have their all in hand, and nothing in hope [Lk. 16:25]; while the children of God have their all in hope, and little in hand. But all things considered, it is better to have Canaan in Promise than Mount Seir in possession.")

32 And Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom: and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

33 And Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead.

34 And Jobab died, and Husham of the land of Temani reigned in his stead.

35 And Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad, who smote Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Avith.

36 And Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his stead.

37 And Samlah died, and Saul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his stead.

38 And Saul died, and Baal-hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead.

39 And Baal-hanan the son of Achbor died, and Hadar reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Pau; and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

40 And these are the names of the dukes who came of Esau, according to their families, after their places, by their names; duke Timnah, duke Alvah, duke Jetheth,

41 Duke Aholibamah, duke Elah, duke Pinon,

42 Duke Kenaz, duke Teman, duke Mibzar,

43 Duke Magdiel, duke Iram: these be the dukes of Edom, according to their habitations in the land of their possession: he is Esau the father of the Edomites.

CHAPTER 37

JOSEPH'S DREAMS

[1] And Jacob dwelt in the land wherein his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan (having dispensed with Esau in the previous Chapter, and having mentioned him at all simply because he was a son of Isaac, we now pick up the narrative of Jacob, which includes the story of Joseph).

[2] These are the generations of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren (Joseph is one of the most, if not the most, remarkable Types of Christ found in the entirety of the Old Testament); and the lad was with the sons of Bilhah (Dan and Naphtali), and with the sons of Zilpah (Gad and Asher), his father's wives: and Joseph brought unto his father their evil report (these men were in the Covenant, but not of the Covenant).

[3] Now Israel (Jacob) loved Joseph more than all his children (the name "Israel" is used here of Jacob by the Holy Spirit, signifying that what Jacob had done, as it regards loving Joseph, was not wrong, but rather right; some claim that Jacob caused the problem among his sons by favoring Joseph; not true!), because he was the son of his old age (actually means that Joseph possessed the wisdom of an old man though so young): and he made him a coat of many colors. (Such a coat was given to the son for whom the birthright was designed. The Holy Spirit proclaimed that it should go to Joseph, and not Reuben, who was actually the firstborn. Whoever had this position was to be the high priest of the family, which, in essence, Joseph was after Jacob died. The future, as we shall see, bears this out.)

[4] And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

(This perfectly epitomizes Christ; of Whom Joseph was one of the most remarkable Types found in the Word of God. God loved His Son, and showed it greatly by lavishing upon Him all the Power of the Holy Spirit. As a result, the Jews, who were His brethren, so to speak, hated Him. Such follows to the present, in that those who are of the Spirit [the Cross] are hated by those who are of the flesh.)

5 And Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren: and they hated him yet the more. (The Lord revealed the future to Joseph in a dream. While the dream definitely referred to him, it more so referred to Christ and Israel, with these men who hated Joseph being a type of Israel. He told his brothers the truth, and they hated him even more. Thus was it with Joseph's great antitype. Christ bore witness to the Truth, and His testimony to the Truth was answered, on man's part, by the Cross.)

6 And he said unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed:

7 For, behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance (bowed) to my sheaf. (It was the Will of the Lord to relate this dream, which these brothers would remember, and would see come to pass exactly as the dream proclaimed. Pulpit Commentary says, regarding this, "He related this dream, in the simplicity of his heart, and in doing so he was also guided, unconsciously it may be, but still really, by an overruling providence, Who made use of this very telling of the dream as a step toward its fulfillment.)

REJECTION

8 And his brethren said to him, Shall you indeed reign over us? or shall you indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words. (The hatred that Joseph's brethren exhibited toward him represents the Jews in Christ's day. "He came to His Own, and His Own received Him not." He had "no form nor comeliness" in their eyes. They would not own Him as the Son of God, or as the King of Israel. They hated Him!)

9 And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and behold, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me. (This prophetically portrays the Second Coming, when all the Tribes of Israel will, at the time, bow at the feet of Christ [Zech. 12:10; 13:1, 6; 14:9].)

10 And he told it to his father, and to his brethren: and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this dream that you have dreamed? Shall I and your mother and your brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to you to the earth? (This is exactly what they did after Joseph became Viceroy of Egypt. It is exactly what Israel, as well, will do, in a coming glad day.)

11 And his brethren envied him; but his father observed the saying (even though Jacob had rebuked Joseph, still, the Patriarch realized that there was more to this than a mere dream)**,

12 And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in Shechem (about 50 miles distance)**.

13 And Israel (Jacob) said unto Joseph, Do not your brethren feed the flock in Shechem? come, and I will send you unto them. And he said to him, Here am I. (The short phrase, "Here am I," foreshadows the statement of Christ, "Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the Book it is written of Me, I delight to do Your Will, O My God: yes, Your Law is within My Heart" [Ps. 40:7-8].)

14 And he (Jacob) said to him (to Joseph), Go, I pray you, see whether it is well with your brethren, and well with the flocks; and bring me word again. So he sent him out of the vale of Hebron, and he came to Shechem. (All of this portrays the fact that Jacob little understood the degree of hatred the brothers had against Joseph.)

15 And a certain man found him, and, behold, he was wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying, What do you seek?

16 And he said, I seek my brethren: tell me, I pray you, where they feed their flocks.

17 And the man said, They are departed hence; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan (about 12 miles north of Shechem, making the total distance that Joseph had come approximately 62 miles). And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

THE PLOT

18 And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they conspired against him to kill him. (It was thus with Christ as well. When He was born, Herod sought to kill Him [Mat., Chpt. 2].)

19 And they said one to another, Behold, this dreamer comes (little did they realize that these dreams would come to pass exactly according to their portrayal).

20 Come now therefore, and let us kill him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, Some evil beast has devoured him: and we shall see what will become of his dreams (we see here the ruling of the sin nature).

21 And Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands; and said, Let us not kill him. (Reuben was the firstborn. This meant that when Jacob died, he would receive a double portion of the inheritance; however, the birthright had been given to Joseph. So Reuben would have had more to gain from Joseph's death than anyone, but he seemed to have a heart that wasn't totally hardened.)

22 And Reuben said unto them, Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him; that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again. (He thought later to come back and rescue Joseph, as evidently he had to go somewhere, but he would come back too late. They would have sold Joseph as a slave.)

23 And it came to pass, when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they stripped Joseph out of his coat, his coat of many colors that was on him (the flesh hates the Spirit, the latter of which the coat was a Type; however, when they took the coat, they did not take the anointing, for the coat was only a symbol of such)**;

[24] And they took him, and cast him into a pit: and the pit was empty, there was no water in it. (When we look at Joseph in the pit and in the prison, and look at him afterwards as ruler over all the land of Egypt, we see the difference between the thoughts of God and the thoughts of men; and so when we look at the Cross, and then "the Throne of the Majesty in the Heavens," we see the same thing.)

[25] And they sat down to eat bread (evidently, their idea was, when they put him in the pit, to let him starve to death; but now a change of events comes about): and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a company of Ishmeelites came from Gilead with their camels bearing spicery and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt.

[26] And Judah said unto his brethren, What profit is it if we kill our brother, and conceal his blood?

[27] Come, and let us sell him to the Ishmeelites, and let not our hand be upon him; for he is our brother and our flesh. And his brethren were content. (Along with Reuben, Judah is the one who saved the life of Joseph, suggesting that they sell him as a slave; however, this was little an act of mercy on the part of Judah, inasmuch as under normal circumstances, they were consigning him to a life worse than death.)

EGYPT

[28] Then there passed by Midianites merchantmen (they were along with the Ishmeelites); and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmeelites for twenty pieces of silver: and they brought Joseph into Egypt. (Joseph being a Type of Christ, the Saviour was sold for thirty pieces of silver. As Joseph was taken into Egypt, likewise, the Gentiles accepted Christ.)

DECEPTION

29 And Reuben returned unto the pit; and, behold, Joseph was not in the pit; and he rent his clothes. (When Reuben returned, it seems that he was genuinely sorry about the turn of events; however, his brothers explained to him what they had done, and the record proclaims the fact that he did nothing further.)

30 And he returned unto his brethren, and said, The child is not; and I, whither shall I go? (What shall I do?)

31 And they took Joseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood (as Rebekah and Jacob had used a "kid of the goats" to deceive Isaac [27:9], likewise, Jacob is deceived by a "kid of the goats")**;

32 And they sent the coat of many colors, and they brought it to their father; and said, This have we found: know now whether it be your son's coat or no (they evidently got a servant or a slave to take the bloody coat to Jacob, and to give him the story they had concocted).

33 And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat; an evil beast has devoured him; Joseph is without doubt rent in pieces (it seems that they who brought the news to Jacob had suggested this, and Jacob believed it).

34 And Jacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days (this terrible heartache, this terrible sorrow, would last for twenty years, meaning that it was one of the greatest tests that God ever called upon a man to undergo).

35 And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted; and he said, For I will go down into the grave unto my son mourning. Thus his father wept for him. (Jacob knew that the Lord had told him to give Joseph the birthright. That being the case, why would the Lord then allow his life to be taken by a wild animal, or so Jacob thought?)

36 And the Midianites sold him into Egypt unto Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's, and captain of the guard. (The Hand of the Lord, although having no part whatsoever in the evil being carried out, still, guided events, even as we shall see.)

CHAPTER 38

JUDAH

1 And it came to pass at that time, that Judah went down from his brethren, and turned in to a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah. (This Chapter is a parenthesis introduced here as an actual picture of the sin, darkness, corruption, and self-will of Joseph's brethren during the whole period of his absence from them and as the certain fruit of their rejection of him. It is, as well, a fore-picture of the moral condition of the Jews today, as the result of their rejection of the Messiah.)

2 And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite, whose name was Shuah; and he took her, and went in unto her (Judah marrying a Canaanite sinned with his eyes open, for he must have known the Will of God in that matter [Gen. 24:3; 26:35; 27:36; 28:1]).

3 And she conceived, and bore a son; and he called his name Er.

4 And she conceived again, and bore a son; and she called his name Onan.

5 And she yet again conceived, and bore a son; and called his name Shelah: and he was at Chezib, when she bore him. (Chronologically, it is believed by some that Chapter 38 should follow Chapter 33.)

6 And Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, whose name was Tamar. (This Chapter is also placed here in order to show the connection between Christ and His predecessor, Judah. Chapter 1 of Matthew shows how truly Christ made Himself of no reputation and, by being born a member of the Tribe of Judah, humbled Himself. For in that genealogy the names Tamar and Bathsheba appear. But He in no wise inherited from these any taint of sin, for He was conceived of the Holy Spirit, and, though born of a woman, was wholly free from moral corruption.)

7 And Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD killed him (exactly as to how this happened, we aren't told; it probably means that he became grossly involved in Canaanite idolatry).

8 And Judah said unto Onan, Go in unto your brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to your brother.

9 And Onan knew that the seed should not be his *(he didn't want it to be his); and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother (Judah demanded this in order that the lineage would continue; however, Onan, in essence, was saying by his actions that he cared nothing about a Redeemer coming into the world; he didn't want Tamar for a wife, so he refused the command of his father, Judah).

10 And the thing which he did displeased the LORD: wherefore He killed him also. (Again, in what manner the Lord did this, we aren't told. The major reason all of this was so grievous in the sight of the Lord was because it had to do with the lineage of the coming Redeemer, which was the single most important thing in the world.)

11 Then said Judah to Tamar his daughter in law, Remain a widow at your father's house, till Shelah my son be grown: for he said, Lest peradventure he die also, as his brethren did. And Tamar went and dwelt in her father's house.

12 And in process of time the daughter of Shuah Judah's wife died; and Judah was comforted, and went up unto his sheepshearers to Timnath, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

TAMAR

13 And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold your father in law goes up to Timnath to shear his sheep.

14 And she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her face with a vail, and wrapped herself, and sat in an open place, which is by the way to Timnath; for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife. (It does not follow that Judah blamed Tamar for the deaths of his two sons; however, the loss of these two in succession must have frightened him, for he made no move to give his third son, Shelah, to her for marriage.)

15 When Judah saw her, he thought her to be an harlot; because she had covered her face.

16 And he turned unto her by the way, and said, Go to, I pray you, let me come in unto you; (for he knew not that she was his daughter in law.) And she said, What will you give me, that you may come in unto me? (The conduct of Tamar, though in every way reprehensible, is not to be attributed to mere lust, or inordinate desire for children, but was most probably to assert her right to a place among the ancestresses of the Patriarchal family. We find from all of this, and as should be obvious, that God will show that His choice is of Grace, and not of merit, and that Christ came into the world to save sinners, even the chiefest of sinners, and is not ashamed, upon their repentance, to be allied to them.)

17 And he said, I will send you a kid from the flock (a baby lamb). And she said, Will you give me a pledge, till you send it? (Something she could hold that was personally his, until she received the animal).

18 And he said, What pledge shall I give you? And she said, Your signet, and your bracelets, and your staff that is in your hand. And he gave it to her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him. (This is what she had planned; the pledge she demanded would incriminate Judah. His problem was lust, while hers was commitment.)

19 And she arose, and went away, and laid by her vail from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood.

20 And Judah sent the kid (baby lamb) by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand: but he found her not.

21 Then he asked the men of that place, saying, Where is the harlot, who was openly by the way side? And they said, There was no harlot in this place.

22 And he returned to Judah, and said, I cannot find her; and also the men of the place said, that there was no harlot in this place.

23 And Judah said, Let her take it to her, lest we be shamed (she had the items of his pledge with her): behold, I sent this kid (baby lamb), and you have not found her.

24 And it came to pass about three months after, that it was told Judah, saying, Tamar your daughter in law has played the harlot; and also, behold, she is with child by whoredom (while she was with child, it was not by whoredom; how so quick we are to judge). And Judah said, Bring her forth, and let her be burned (Judah was quick to condemn her, when, in reality, he was just as guilty, even much more so).

25 When she was brought forth, she sent to her father in law, saying, By the man, whose these are, am I with child: and she said, Discern, I pray you, whose are these, the signet, and bracelets, and staff.

26 And Judah acknowledged them, and said, She has been more righteous than I; because that I gave her not to Shelah my son. And he knew her again no more. (But still, the sons were his, and Tamar was now an ancestress of the Patriarchal family.)

TWINS

27 And it came to pass in the time of her travail, that, behold, twins were in her womb.

28 And it came to pass, when she travailed, that the one put out his hand: and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This came out first. (All of this had to do with the coming Redeemer.)

29 And it came to pass, as he drew back his hand, that, behold, his brother came out: and she said, How have you broken forth? this breach be upon you: therefore his name was called Pharez (this one was in the lineage of Christ, because he was the firstborn).

30 And afterward came out his brother, that had the scarlet thread upon his hand: and his name was called Zarah. (Luther asks why such things were placed in Scripture. He answers: 1. That no one should be self-righteous; 2. That no one should despair. There is forgiveness for all who will humbly come to the Lord; and, 3. To remind us that Gentiles, by natural right, are brothers, mothers, and sisters to our Lord; the Word of Salvation is a Word for the whole world.)

CHAPTER 39

JOSEPH

[1] And Joseph was brought down to Egypt; and Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, and Egyptian, bought him of the hands of the Ishmeelites, which had brought him down thither. (An Eastern race then governed Egypt, hence the reason that Potiphar is three times declared to be an "Egyptian." In the story of Joseph, we will perceive a remarkable chain of events, all tending to one grand point, namely, the exaltation of the man who had been in the pit — once again, a Type of Christ.)

[2] And the LORD was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian. (Some eight times in this Chapter, in one way or the other, it is said that the Lord was with Joseph. Eight speaks of Resurrection, so it tells us that whatever happened to Joseph, no matter how adverse it seemed at the moment, a Resurrection was coming.)

BLESSINGS

[3] And his master saw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD made all that he did to prosper in his hand. (Potiphar had more sense than most modern Christians. He saw that the Hand of the Lord was on Joseph, and took advantage of that, even as he should have done. Many times the Church will regrettably respond with jealousy; consequently, the Work of God is greatly hindered by such action and attitudes.)

[4] And Joseph found grace in his sight, and he served him: and he made him overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand. (This does not imply that Potiphar was acquainted with Jehovah, but

5 And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake (we are blessed for Jesus' sake); and the Blessing of the LORD was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field. (How do we correlate all of this, with the Lord being with Joseph, and yet he is a slave? Even though not for a moment is the wrongdoing of his brothers condoned by the Lord, still, the Lord was in all of this; even though Joseph did not know what the future held, he maintained his Faith in the Lord, thereby walking by Faith instead of by sight. Had he done otherwise, the Lord could not have blessed him. Many Christians forfeit blessing, simply because they refuse to humble themselves before the Lord. Joseph could easily have grown bitter, until the bitterness overtook him. But he put it all in the Hands of his Lord, even as we must do.)

6 And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not ought he had, save the bread which he did eat. And Joseph was a goodly person, and well favored (he was impeccably honest and, as well, very handsome).

7 And it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph, and she said, Lie with me. (Tradition says that Zuleikah was her name; she was at first the most virtuous of women, but when she saw Joseph, she was so affected, that she lost all self-control, and became a slave to her passions. It is said that she made a dinner inviting 40 of the most beautiful women in Egypt, who, when they saw Joseph, were so moved with admiration that they exclaimed with one accord that he must be an Angel.)

8 But he refused, and said unto his master's wife, Behold, my master trusts me with all that is in the house, and he has committed all that he has to my hand (the action of Joseph in resisting this temptation pressed upon him showed him to be the true firstborn)**;

9 There is none greater in this house than I; neither has he kept back anything from me but you, because you are his wife: how then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God? (Williams says that Joseph urged three reasons against this wrongdoing: "1. Gratitude to his master, who had put everything into his hand; 2. Respect for the woman, seeing that she was Potiphar's wife; and, 3. Fear of God.")

[10] And it came to pass, as she spoke to Joseph day by day, that he hearkened not unto her, to lie by her, or to be with her (it was a continuing temptation, pressed upon day-by-day, with him continuing to resist).

[11] And it came to pass about this time, that Joseph went into the house to do his business; and there was none of the men of the house there within. (Evaluating Joseph, some would claim that after advances had been made, he should not have gone back into the house; however, of this he had no choice. His business demanded that he frequent the place. It is certain that he would have done anything to have avoided contact with this woman, but the situation actually presented itself as a trap. And so the trap is ultimately sprung.)

[12] And she caught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me: and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out. (This is the second occasion that the Sacred History speaks of Joseph's garment. His brothers took the one; Potiphar's wife the other. They tried to hide their sin with that garment; she tried to hide hers in the same manner.)

[13] And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth,

WRONGLY ACCUSED

[14] That she called unto the men of her house, and spoke unto them, saying, See, he (Potiphar) has brought in an Hebrew unto us to mock us; he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice:

[15] And it came to pass, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled, and got him out. (Matthew Henry says: "Chaste and holy love will continue, though slighted; but sinful love is easily changed into sinful hatred. Those who have broken the bonds of modesty will never be held by the bonds of Truth.")

16 And she laid up his garment by her, until his lord (Potiphar) came home. (The Devil would surmise that if he cannot get Joseph to do that which is wrong, he will have him locked up in prison for years. Of course, the Lord could have stopped all of this; however, the remainder of the Chapter tells us why not!)

17 And she spoke unto him (Potiphar) according to these words, saying, The Hebrew servant, which you have brought unto us, came in unto me to mock me:

18 And it came to pass, as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled out.

PRISON

19 And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spoke unto him, saying, After this manner did your servant to me; that his anger was kindled (Satan's trap is now sprung).

20 And Joseph's master took him, and put him into the prison, a place where the king's prisoners were bound: and he was there in the prison. (In one moment, Joseph exchanged a palace for a prison. Psalms 105:17-20 states that he was laid in iron and his feet hurt with fetters.)

21 But the LORD was with Joseph, and showed him mercy, and gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison. (The Lord was with Joseph as much in the prison as he had been in the palace. We should take a lesson from this.)

22 And the keeper of the prison committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners who were in the prison; and whatsoever they did there, he was the doer of it. (This was Joseph's training ground. Would he pass the test? In fact, he passed it with flying colors.)

23 The keeper of the prison looked not to anything that was under his hand; because the LORD was with him, and that which he did, the LORD made it to prosper. (However, this would not have been the case had Joseph grown bitter. He accepted this position, without saying a word or attempting to justify or defend himself. In other words, he left everything up to the Lord.)

CHAPTER 40

(1718 B.C.)

THE DREAMS

[1] And it came to pass after these things, that the butler of the king of Egypt and his baker had offended their lord the king of Egypt.

[2] And Pharaoh was angry against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers.

[3] And he put them in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Joseph was bound.

[4] And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them: and they continued a season in ward. (In Chapter 39, Satan uses Potiphar's wife; and in Chapter 40, he uses Pharaoh's chief butler. The former he used to put Joseph into the dungeon; and the latter he used to keep him there, through his ungrateful negligence; but all in vain. God was behind the scenes. His finger was guiding all things.)

[5] And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream in one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in the prison. (In studying the Word of God, it becomes obvious that the Lord quite often uses dreams to carry forth His Work in some way.)

[6] And Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, and, behold, they were sad.

[7] And he asked Pharaoh's officers who were with him in the ward of his lord's house, saying, Wherefore look you so sadly today? (They sensed that the dreams were important.)

8 And they said unto him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it (it seems they had sought the help of others to interpret the dreams, but to no avail). And Joseph said unto them, Do not interpretations belong to God? tell me them, I pray you. (Joseph "served" the prisoners, and, no doubt, with gentle sympathy; he pleased his master; and he preached faithfully the Word of the Lord, whether it announced Grace or wrath — Williams.)

THE BUTLER'S DREAM

9 And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me;

10 And in the vine were three branches: and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot forth; and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes:

11 And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand: and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

12 And Joseph said unto him, This is the interpretation of it: The three branches are three days:

13 Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up your head, and restore you unto your place: and you shall deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when you were his butler.

JOSEPH'S REQUEST

14 But think on me when it shall be well with you, and show kindness, I pray you, unto me, and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house:

15 For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews: and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.

(Verses 14 and 15 record the fact that Joseph never accused his brethren. He merely referred to him being stolen away. Likewise, Jesus did not come to condemn, but to save.)

THE BAKER'S DREAM

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I also was in my dream, and, behold, I had three white baskets on my head:

17 And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of bakemeats for Pharaoh; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head.

18 And Joseph answered and said, This is the interpretation thereof: The three baskets are three days:

19 Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up your head from off you, and shall hang you on a tree; and the birds shall eat your flesh from off you. (God Alone knows the future, and He is able to reveal it to men, should He so desire. The manner in which the Holy Spirit used Joseph in this instance would come under the heading of three New Testament Gifts of the Spirit: "discerning of spirits," "the Word of Knowledge," and "the Word of Wisdom" [I Cor. 12:8-10].)

DREAMS FULFILLED

20 And it came to pass the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, that he made a feast unto all his servants: and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants.

21 And he restored the chief butler unto his butlership again; and he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand *(exactly as Joseph had stated would happen):

22 But he hanged the chief baker: as Joseph had interpreted to them (once again, exactly as Joseph had stated).

23 Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but forgot him. (Divine discipline permitted that Joseph should be tempted in all points, and so the chief cupbearer forgot him, although he knew his innocence, and that he possessed a mysterious relationship to God. All these facts helped to build up Joseph as a very striking Type of Israel's Saviour and the world's Redeemer.)

CHAPTER 41

PHARAOH'S DREAM

1 And it came to pass at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh dreamed: and, behold, he stood by the river (as to exactly how long that Joseph spent in prison, we aren't told; however, we do know that he stayed there two more years after the interpretation of the dream for the chief butler).

2 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven well favored cattle and fatfleshed; and they fed in a meadow.

3 And, behold, seven other cattle came up after them out of the river, ill favored and leanfleshed; and stood by the other cattle upon the brink of the river.

4 And the ill favored and leanfleshed cattle did eat up the seven well favored and fat cattle. So Pharaoh awoke.

5 And he slept and dreamed the second time: and, behold, seven ears of corn (either barley or wheat, for there was no corn in that part of the world at that time, as we know of such presently) came up upon one stalk, rank and good.

6 And, behold, seven thin ears and blasted with the east wind sprung up after them.

7 And the seven thin ears devoured the seven rank and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and, behold, it was a dream.

INTERPRETATION SOUGHT

8 And it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dream; but there was none who could interpret them unto Pharaoh. (The Egyptian "Book of the Dead," now in the British Museum in London, with its sacred cows and mystic number "seven" — a book beyond doubt well known to Pharaoh — must have helped to convince the king that this double dream was supernatural.)

9 Then spoke the chief butler unto Pharaoh, saying, I do remember my faults this day (with none of the magicians able to interpret the dream, or at least to Pharaoh's satisfaction, it began to be known in the Palace as to the dilemma, until it reached the chief butler)**:

10 Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put me in ward in the captain of the guard's house, both me and the chief baker:

11 And we dreamed a dream in one night, I and he; we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.

12 And there was there with us a young man, an Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret.

13 And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was; me he (you) restored unto mine office, and him he (you) hanged.

THE INTERPRETATION

14 Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon: and he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh. (Events now transpire which no human hand could manipulate. Only God could do such a thing. This should teach us that we should allow the Lord to plan for us. Men forgot Joseph, but it is double certain that God didn't forget Joseph. And neither will He forget you. This is at least one of the reasons that we must look to God instead of men.)

15 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none who can interpret it: and I have heard say of you, that you can understand a dream to interpret it. (The Lord, once again, uses dreams to reveal His Will.)

[16] And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, It is not in me: God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace. (Joseph could have claimed great things, but instead he gave all the glory to God for giving him the interpretation of these dreams.)

[17] And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river (the Nile River)**:

[18] And, behold, there came up out of the river seven cattle, fatfleshed and well favored; and they fed in a meadow:

[19] And, behold, seven other cattle came up after them, poor and very ill favored and leanfleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness:

[20] And the lean and the ill favored cattle did eat up the first seven fat cattle:

[21] And when they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were still ill favored, as at the beginning. So I awoke.

[22] And I saw in my dream, and, behold, seven ears came up in one stalk, full and good:

[23] And, behold, seven ears, withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them:

[24] And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears: and I told this unto the magicians; but there was none that could declare it to me.

[25] And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one: God has showed Pharaoh what He is about to do. (The dream was doubled, in order, as Joseph says in Verse 32, to denote its Divine certainty and, as well, to portray its immediate happening, as well as its futuristic happening.)

[26] The seven good cattle are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years: the dream is one.

[27] And the seven thin and ill favored cattle that came up after them are seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be seven years of famine. (Discoveries many years ago at the First Cataract, and at El-Kab, record the fact of this seven years famine. The date is given as 1700 B.C. This date accords with accepted Bible chronology.)

[28] This is the thing which I have spoken unto Pharaoh: What God is about to do He shows unto Pharaoh.

[29] Behold, there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt:

[30] And there shall arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine shall consume the land;

[31] And the plenty shall not be known in the land by reason of that famine following; for it shall be very grievous.

[32] And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice; it is because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass. (The interpretation, as given by Joseph, and which greatly concerned Pharaoh, was to take place in the immediate future. But due to the fact of the dream being doubled, it has an Endtime meaning, as well, and which will be of far greater magnitude than that which would take place in Joseph's day. It is as follows:

We know that this terrible famine which would follow the seven years of plenty would bring Joseph's brothers to him, ultimately along with his father, Jacob. This represents Israel coming to Christ, for Joseph is a Type of Christ, which they shall do at the conclusion of the seven-year Great Tribulation Period. So, the seven years of famine point to the coming seven-year Great Tribulation Period prophesied by Daniel and foretold by our Lord [Dan. 9:27; Mat. 24:21].

As well, the "east wind" mentioned in Verse 27 localizes the Great Tribulation Period that is coming, which will affect the entire Earth, but will have its beginning in the Middle East.

As it regards the seven years of plenty which immediately preceded the seven years of famine, looking at it in the prophetic sense, we can take the number "seven" in two different ways.

The number "seven," which is God's number of perfection, could pertain to the Church, and it being completed, and then taken out of the world immediately before the seven years of Tribulation. Or, even as the seven years of famine correspond exactly to the coming seven years of Great Tribulation, the seven years of plenty could refer to a tremendous harvest of souls immediately preceding the Rapture, which will be followed by the Great Tribulation. Quite possibly, both particulars will come into play. There will be a great harvest of souls, fulfilling the Prophecy of Joel about the Lord pouring out His Spirit upon all flesh, which Peter infers will be in the last days in a greater way than ever, which will conclude the Church Age [Acts. 2:16-21].)

33 Now therefore let Pharaoh look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plentiful years.

35 And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn (grain) under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.

36 And that food shall be for store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land perish not through the famine. (This famine was designed by God, not only to bless and instruct Egypt, but mainly to be the means of bringing Joseph's brothers in repentance to his feet. It is all, as well, and as stated, a picture of present and future facts.)

JOSEPH

37 And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants (Pharaoh recognized the wisdom of what he was hearing from the young man, Joseph)**.

38 And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Can we find such a one as this is, a man in whom the Spirit of God is? (The term "Spirit of God," as used by Pharaoh, in the Hebrew is "Ruach Elohim," and would have been understood by Pharaoh as referring to the sagacity and intelligence of a Deity. Other than that, he would have had no knowledge as to What or Who the Spirit of God actually was.)

39 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God has showed you all this, there is none so discreet and wise as you are (Joseph, while yet in humiliation, becomes the interpreter of the thoughts and counsels of God; and in his elevation executes with power those counsels, and subjects all Egypt to Him Who sat upon the throne.

In all this was Joseph a wonderfully full Type of Christ, Who, in the humiliation of His First Advent, revealed the counsels and affections of God's Heart, and Who will, in the glory of His Second Advent, establish the Kingdom of God in power over the whole Earth.):

40 You shall be over my house, and according unto your word shall all my people be ruled: only in the throne will I be greater than you. (So, in a moment's time, Joseph is promoted to the august position of the Prime Minister of Egypt, and is thus one of the most powerful men in the world.)

41 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, See, I have set you over all the land of Egypt.

42 And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck (giving Joseph his ring proclaimed the fact that Joseph's position was real and not merely honorary; Joseph's authority was to be absolute and universal, which it was; there was no part of Egypt over which he didn't have control)*;

[43] And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had; and they cried before him, Bow the knee: and he made him ruler over all the land of Egypt.

[44] And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I am Pharaoh, and without you shall no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt.

[45] And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphnath-paaneah (the very name that Pharaoh gave Joseph was prophetic; his Hebrew name, Joseph, means "Jehovah shall add"; his Egyptian name means "life more abundant"; so, in essence, both of his names meant "Jehovah shall add life more abundant," which portrays Christ, as well [Jn. 10:10]); and he gave him to wife Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of On. And Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt.

[46] And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt. (Our Lord, as well, began His public ministry at 30 years old.)

[47] And in the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth by handfuls.

[48] And he (Joseph) gathered up all the food of the seven years, which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field, which was round about every city, laid he up in the same.

[49] And Joseph gathered corn (grain) as the sand of the sea, very much, until he left numbering; for it was without number.

[50] And unto Joseph were born two sons before the years of famine came, which Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of On bore unto him.

[51] And Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh: For God, said he, has made me forget all my toil, and all my father's house.

[52] And the name of the second called he Ephraim: For God has caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction. (Joseph was given a Gentile wife, which was a type of the Gentile wife given to Christ, for the Church is mostly Gentile. Manasseh means "forgetfulness," while Ephraim means "fruitfulness." This is indicative of his spiritual condition. He forgot the injustice done to him, and the Lord made him fruitful. It should be a lesson to us.)

[53] And the seven years of plenteousness, that was in the land of Egypt, were ended.

FAMINE

[54] And the seven years of famine began to come, according as Joseph had said: and the famine was in all lands (refers to all lands of the Middle East); but in all the land of Egypt there was bread. (It was Egypt only which had food, and because of Pharaoh heeding what the Lord had said, and appointing Joseph to head up the program.)

[55] And when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread: and Pharaoh said unto all the Egyptians, Go unto Joseph; what he says to you, do. (No nation has ever had a more honest man to guide its affairs than did Egypt with Joseph.)

[56] And the famine was over all the face of the Earth (that part of the world): And Joseph opened all the storehouses, and sold unto the Egyptians; and the famine waxed sore in the land of Egypt. (Just as the Lord said it would!)

[57] And all countries (in the Middle East) came into Egypt to Joseph for to buy corn (grain); because that the famine was so sore in all lands. (While there were, no doubt, many reasons for the famine, at least one of the primary reasons was to bring Jacob and his family into Egypt, just as the coming Great Tribulation will bring Israel to Christ.)

CHAPTER 42

(1707 B.C.)

JOSEPH'S BRETHREN

[1] Now when Jacob saw that there was corn (grain) in Egypt, Jacob said unto his sons, Why do you look one upon another? (In other words, go down into Egypt and buy grain!)

[2] And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is corn (grain) in Egypt: get you down thither, and buy for us from thence; that we may live, and not die (evidently, the famine was severe in Canaan).

[3] And Joseph's ten brethren went down to buy corn (grain) in Egypt (a group of this nature was much safer than one or two making the trip).

[4] But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, Jacob sent not with his brethren; for he said, Lest peradventure mischief befall him (not only did Jacob love this boy, and because he was the son of Rachel, but, as well, he no doubt felt, Joseph now being lost, that the Lord would place the mantel on Benjamin).

[5] And the sons of Israel came to buy corn (grain) among those who came (many others from Canaan and other parts of the Middle East were in Egypt, as well, in order to buy grain): for the famine was in the land of Canaan.

[6] And Joseph was the governor over the land, and he it was who sold to all the people of the land: and Joseph's brethren came, and bowed down themselves before him with their faces to the earth (Joseph's dream concerning the sheaves bowing down to him [37:7] is now fulfilled).

[7] And Joseph saw his brethren, and he knew them, but made himself strange unto them, and spoke roughly unto them; and he said unto them, From where do you come? And they said, From the land of Canaan to buy food. (Had Joseph thought of his own dignity and of his own affection, he would have revealed himself at once to his brothers. Such a revelation, however, would have produced only confusion, but not repentance. He loved them and, therefore, sought their spiritual welfare; consequently, he acted so as to bring their sin to remembrance, to make them confess it with their own lips, and not just to him and in his presence, for he still concealed himself from them, but to God and in His Presence — Williams.)

8 And Joseph knew his brethren, but they knew not him.

9 and Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said unto them, You are spies; to see the nakedness of the land you are come (this accusation was morally true; for the men who were guilty of the treachery, cruelty, and stupidity of 34:25-29 would have acted similarly in Egypt, if they had had the power; however, as events will prove, they were not the same men they had been those many years before).

10 And they said unto him, No, my lord, but to buy food are your servants come.

11 We are all one man's sons; we are true men, your servants are no spies.

12 And he said unto them, No, but to see the nakedness of the land you are come.

13 And they said, Your servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and, behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is not.

14 And Joseph said unto them, That is it that I spoke unto you, saying, You are spies:

15 Hereby you shall be proved: By the life of Pharaoh you shall not go forth hence, except your youngest brother come hither. (Reasoning that Jacob had probably transferred the birthright to Benjamin, he wanted to know the attitude of these men toward Benjamin. So he "proves them.")

THE BROTHERS

16 Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, and you shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you: or else by the life of Pharaoh surely you are spies.

17 And he put them all together into ward three days. (Likewise, Israel will be under tremendous pressure by the Antichrist for a little over three years.)

18 And Joseph said unto them the third day, This do, and live; for I fear God (what must these men have thought when Joseph mentions "Elohim," the God of the Hebrews? All of this had to be extremely strange to them, because they knew that Elohim was little known, if at all, outside of their respective family)**:

19 If you be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison: go you, carry corn (grain) for the famine of your houses (Joseph now softens his demands, in that he at first stated that nine of the brothers would remain in Egypt, while one was sent to fetch Benjamin; but now he limits that to just one remaining in Egypt, while the nine go back home)**:

20 But bring your youngest brother unto me; so shall your words be verified, and you shall not die. And they did so (when they return, Benjamin must come with them).

21 And they said one to another, We are verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear; therefore is this distress come upon us (as Israel in a coming sad day, of which they are a type, the brothers of Joseph are called to pass through deep and searching trial, through intensely painful exercises of conscience).

22 And Reuben answered them, saying, Did I not speak unto you, saying, Do not sin against the child; and you would not hear? therefore, behold, also his blood is required (after all of these years, their consciences still bother them, and rightly so! Sin can only be forgotten when it is properly forgiven by the Lord. And it cannot be properly forgiven until one properly confesses such to the Lord).

23 And they knew not that Joseph understood them; for he spoke unto them by an interpreter (but he did understand them).

SIMEON

24 And he turned himself about from them, and wept; and returned to them again, and communed with them, and took from them Simeon, and bound him before their eyes (why Simeon was chosen, we aren't told; he could have been the ringleader in the terrible sin that had been committed against Joseph those long years earlier).

25 Then Joseph commanded to fill their sacks with corn (grain), and to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provision for the way: and thus did he unto them (this coincides with the sustenance that the Lord will give Israel during the Great Tribulation [Rev. 12:6]).

26 And they loaded their asses with the corn (grain), and departed thence.

27 And as one of them opened his sack to give his ass provender in the inn, he espied (found) his money; for, behold, it was in his sack's mouth (easily found).

28 And he said unto his brethren, My money is restored; and, lo, it is even in my sack: and their heart failed them, and they were afraid, saying one to another, What is this that God has done unto us? (Actually, they were right! It was God Who was guiding these events, giving Joseph instructions all along the way as to how he could handle the situation; however, because of their sin, a sin committed about 20 years before, they were thinking of God in a very negative way. It is no different presently.)

JACOB

[29] And they came unto Jacob their father unto the land of Canaan, and told him all that befell unto them; saying,

[30] The man, who is the lord of the land, spoke roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country.

[31] And we said unto him, We are true men; we are no spies:

[32] We be twelve brethren, sons of our father; one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.

[33] And the man, the lord of the country, said unto us, Hereby shall I know that you are true men; leave one of your brethren here with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and be gone:

[34] And bring your youngest brother unto me: then shall I know that you are no spies, but that you are true men: so will I deliver you your brother, and you shall traffick in the land.

[35] And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that, behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack: and when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid. (From the terminology used by these men at this present time, it is obvious that a change has taken place in their lives; however, it is a change that is not quite yet complete.)

SORROW

[36] And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have you bereaved of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and you will take Benjamin away: all these things are against me. (Jacob thinks that Joseph is dead; and likewise, Israel thinks that Jesus is dead, denying that He rose from the dead.)

[37] And Reuben spoke unto his father, saying, Kill my two sons, if I bring him (Benjamin) not to you: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to you again.

38 And he said, My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he is left alone: if mischief befall him by the way in the which you go, then shall you bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave. (This Verse speaks of Jacob's great sorrow. The Great Tribulation Period is called "the time of Jacob's trouble." But then it says, "but he shall be saved out of it" [Jer. 30:7]. Likewise, Jacob will be saved out of this "sorrow.")

CHAPTER 43

(1707 B.C.)

EGYPT

1 And the famine was sore in the land (likewise, the Great Tribulation, which is yet to come, and of which this Verse is a type, will be "sore in the land of Israel").

2 And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the corn which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them, Go again, buy us a little food (it seems that the grain which they obtained in Egypt was used solely as their own personal food, with the flocks and herds evidently eating other things).

3 And Judah spoke unto him, saying, The man did solemnly protest unto us, saying, You shall not see my face, except your brother be with you (Reuben is the firstborn, and should have taken the lead in all these matters, but it is Judah who in fact stands in the position of leadership; Jesus will come from the Tribe of Judah).

4 If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food:

5 But if you will not send him, we will not go down: for the man said unto us, You shall not see my face, except your brother be with you (Joseph's skill — that skill which only love can give — in leading his brothers step by step to a confession of their sin against him, and to a sense of its blackness in the sight of God, is a picture of the future action of the Lord Jesus Christ in bringing Israel to recognize her sin in rejecting Him, and the consequent enormity of that sin against God — Williams).

6 And Israel said, Wherefore dealt you so ill with me, as to tell the man whether you had yet a brother? (The Holy Spirit now refers to Jacob as "Israel." This refers to the fact of Jacob's obedience in sending Benjamin, even though he did not desire to do so. Whenever the Holy Spirit uses the name "Israel" as it refers to Jacob, always and without exception, it is referring to Faith and, in a sense, a milestone in his faith walk.)

7 And they said, The man asked us straitly of our state, and of our kindred, saying, Is your father yet alive? have you another brother? and we told him according to the tenor of these words: could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother down?

8 And Judah said unto Israel his father, Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we may live, and not die, both we, and you, and also our little ones.

9 I will be surety for him; of my hand shall you require him: if I bring him not unto you, and set him before you, then let me bear the blame for ever:

10 For except we had lingered, surely now we had returned this second time (had it not been for this critical issue, the taking of Benjamin, due to the lack of food, they would have already returned).

11 And their father Israel said unto them, If it must be so now, do this; take of the best fruits in the land in your vessels, and carry down the man a present, a little balm, and a little honey, spices, and myrrh, nuts, and almonds:

12 And take double money in your hand; and the money that was brought again in the mouth of your sacks, carry it again in your hand; peradventure it was an oversight *(all of this was to prove that they were honest men; little did they realize what Joseph's intentions actually were):

13 Take also your brother, and arise, go again unto the man *(under no consideration would Jacob have allowed Benjamin to have gone to Egypt, but that he had reached the place to where there was no choice; this was God's Will, and sometimes the Lord has to box us into a corner, before we will obey that Will):

14 And God Almighty give you Mercy before the man, that he may send away your other brother, and Benjamin. If I be bereaved of my children, I am bereaved. (By using the title, "God Almighty," which means "El Shaddai," the Patriarch is referring to the Covenant God of Abraham [17:1]. El Shaddai means "the All-Sufficient One.")

15 And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph. (He was their brother and their saviour, but yet they did not know him. Likewise, Israel will stand before Christ at the Second Coming, and will not know Him [Zech. 13:6].)

16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the ruler of his house, Bring these men home, and kill (slaughter a lamb for a meal), and make ready; for these men shall dine with me at noon. (The union of Benjamin with Joseph points forward to the day when Christ, as Benjamin, will be the Son of the Right Hand to Israel and, as Joseph, King over all the Earth.)

17 And the man did as Joseph bade; and the man brought the men into Joseph's house. (Israel will one day be brought to the Heavenly Joseph's house. Paul said so [Rom. 11:26-27].)

FEAR

18 And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Joseph's house; and they said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we brought in; that he may seek occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bondmen, and our asses (the special attention they were being given, they erroneously read as negative).

19 And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they communed with him at the door of the house,

20 And said, O sir, we came indeed down at the first time to buy food:

21 And it came to pass, when we came to the inn, that we opened our sacks, and, behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight: and we have brought it again in our hand.

[22] And other money have we brought down in our hands to buy food: we cannot tell who put our money in our sacks.

[23] And he said (the steward said), Peace be to you, fear not: your God, and the God of your father, has given you treasure in your sacks: I had your money. And he brought Simeon out unto them. (Strangely, the steward speaks of Elohim, Whom the Egyptians did not know. The conduct of Joseph cannot be explained except on the ground of his inspiration. He is not acting. He is not trifling with human feelings. He is not merely following the dictate of his own personal affections. He is, under Divine direction, planning for the removal of his father's house to Egypt, that the people of God may pass through their season of trial in the house of bondage — Spence.)

[24] And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their asses provender (food).

[25] And they made ready the present against Joseph came at noon: for they heard that they should eat bread there (the further it goes, the stranger it becomes; surely, the lord of Egypt didn't invite rank strangers from other nations of the Earth into his house to eat with him, and especially lowly shepherds! But yet here they were).

JOSEPH

[26] And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed themselves to him to the earth (again, they fulfilled his dream [37:7, 9]).

[27] And he asked them of their welfare, and said, Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he yet alive? (It must have seemed strange to the sons of Jacob to hear the lord of Egypt asking personal questions about their father and his health, etc.)

28 And they answered, Your servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive. And they bowed down their heads, and made obeisance (it had been approximately 20 years since Joseph had seen his father, Jacob).

29 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother, of whom you spoke unto me? And he said, God be gracious unto you, my son. (This is the first time that Joseph had seen Benjamin. He had not yet been born when Joseph was sold into Egypt.)

WEEPING

30 And Joseph made haste; for his bowels did yearn upon his brother: and he sought where to weep; and he entered into his chamber, and wept there. (The scene was poignant, not only as it expressed the feelings of the moment, but it presents itself in a much larger way, even as it typifies that coming day when Christ will stand before Israel. At long last, the sons of Jacob will have come home. In fact, in all of history, there has never been anything so drastic as the fall of Jacob, and I speak of the Nation of Israel and their rejection of Christ. It eclipses every other happening [Rom. 11:15].)

31 And he washed his face, and went out, and refrained himself, and said, Set on bread (serve the meal).

THE BANQUET

32 And they set on for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians, which did eat with him, by themselves: because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the Hebrews; for that is an abomination unto the Egyptians. (The meal presented here is indicative of that which will take place at the Second Coming, when both Jews and Gentiles will fellowship with Christ, of Whom Joseph was a Type.)

33 And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth: and the men marvelled one at another (they were seated according to their ages, beginning with Reuben, who was the firstborn, unto Benjamin, who was the youngest. How did the lord of Egypt know these things, Joseph's brothers must have pondered?).

34 And he took and sent messes (the food) unto them from before him: but Benjamin's mess was five times so much as any of theirs. And they drank, and were merry with him. (The number "five" is the number of the Grace of God. The name "Benjamin" means "My strong right hand," typifying Christ. In a coming day, when Israel comes back to Christ, even though Christ has "a strong right hand," He will deal with Israel in "Grace," signified by the food given to Benjamin, which was five times more than his brothers.)

(1707 B.C.)

THE FINAL TEST

[1] And he commanded the steward of his house, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth.

[2] And put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his corn (grain) money. And he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.

[3] As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses.

[4] And when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Joseph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men; and when you do overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have you rewarded evil for good? (The casual reader may think that Joseph is being somewhat harsh respecting this particular episode; however, due to enormity of the sin of these brothers, with the exception of Benjamin, Joseph must make certain that there has indeed been true Repentance in their hearts.)

[5] Is not this it in which my lord drinks, and whereby indeed he divines? you have done evil in so doing.

[6] And he overtook them, and he spoke unto them these same words (no doubt, Joseph had told the man exactly what to say to his brothers).

[7] And they said unto him, Wherefore says my lord these words? God forbid that your servants should do according to this thing:

8 Behold, the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again unto you out of the land of Canaan: how then should we steal out of your lord's house silver or gold?

9 With whomsoever of your servants it be found, both let him die, and we also will be my lord's bondmen. (They are right, and they are wrong! They are right in that they didn't steal the cup, but they are wrong in that it's not in one of the sacks.)

10 And he said, Now also let it be according unto your words: he with whom it is found shall be my servant (slave): and you shall be blameless. (The same steward who has greeted them previously now stands before them, as it regards the cup that is supposedly missing. He is the one who had placed the cup in Benjamin's sack, so he knew exactly where it was.)

11 Then they speedily took down every man his sack to the ground, and opened every man his sack.

12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest: and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

13 Then they rent their clothes, and loaded every man his ass, and returned to the city.

JUDAH

14 And Judah and his brethren came to Joseph's house; for he was yet there: and they fell before him on the ground. (Joseph's detention of Simeon, and afterwards of Benjamin, was skillfully designed so as to find out if they still were indifferent to the cries of a captive brother and the tears of a bereaved father.)

15 And Joseph said unto them, What deed is this that you have done? do you not know that a man as I can certainly divine?

16 And Judah said, What shall we say unto my lord? what shall we speak? or how shall we clear ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants: behold, we are my lord's servants, both we, and he also with whom the cup is found. (The distress of Judah and the others shows that they were no longer, in heart, the men of some twenty years back. None can teach like God. He Alone can produce in the conscience the true sense of sin, and bring the soul down into the profound depths of its own condition in His Presence. The "iniquity" of which Judah spoke was that of the selling of their brother so many long years before. They can only think of this one great commanding sin, the rejection of their brother Joseph.)

17 And he (Joseph) said, God forbid that I should do so (he is saying that he has no desire to keep all the brothers, only the one in whose sack the cup was found, namely Benjamin): but the man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my servant (slave); and as for you, get you up in peace unto your father.

18 Then Judah came near unto him, and said, Oh my lord, let your servant, I pray you, speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not your anger burn against your servant: for you are even as Pharaoh. (This Chapter contains one of the most impassioned pleas ever made by one man to another. Judah makes this plea unto Joseph.)

19 My lord asked his servants, saying, Have you a father, or a brother?

20 And we said unto my lord, we have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loves him.

21 And you said unto your servants, Bring him down unto me, that I may set my eyes upon him.

22 And we said unto my lord, The lad cannot leave his father: for if he should leave his father, his father would die.

23 And you said unto your servants, Except your youngest brother come down with you, you shall see my face no more.

24 And it came to pass when we came up unto your servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.

25 And our father said, Go again, and buy us a little food.

26 And we said, We cannot go down: if our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down: for we may not see the man's face, except our youngest brother be with us.

27 And your servant my father said unto us, You know that my wife bore me two sons:

28 And the one went out from me, and I said, Surely he is torn in pieces; and I saw him not since:

29 And if you take this also from me, and mischief befall him, you shall bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

30 Now therefore when I come to your servant my father, and the lad be not with us; seeing that his life is bound up in the lad's life;

31 It shall come to pass, when he sees that the lad is not with us, that he will die: and your servants shall bring down the gray hairs of your servant our father with sorrow to the grave.

32 For your servant became surety for the lad unto my father, saying, If I bring him not unto you, then I shall bear the blame to my father forever.

33 Now therefore, I pray you, let your servant abide instead of the lad a bondman (a slave) to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren.

34 For how shall I go up to my father, and the lad be not with me? lest peradventure I see the evil that shall come on my father.

CHAPTER 45

JOSEPH

[1] Then Joseph could not refrain himself before all them who stood by him; and he cried, Cause every man to go out from me. And there stood no man with him, while Joseph made himself known unto his brothers (Zechariah the Prophet said, and speaking of a coming day: "And they shall look upon Me Whom they have pierced," of which this scene of Joseph and his brothers is a type [Zech. 12:10]).

[2] And he wept aloud: and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard (the Egyptians, who had just left the room, could not help but overhear his loud sobbing; they reported these happenings to Pharaoh).

[3] And Joseph said unto his brothers, I am Joseph (the effect of this announcement can be better imagined than described; hitherto he had been known to his brothers as Zaphnath-paaneah; he evidently now speaks to them in Hebrew); does my father yet live? And his brothers could not answer him; for they were troubled at his presence. (What will Israel's reaction be when Christ says to them at the Second Coming, "I am Jesus"?)

[4] And Joseph said unto his brothers, Come near to me, I pray you. And they came near. And he said, I am Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt. (The Text indicates that they don't know what to do. Quite possibly, he wondered if they understood when he first said, "I am Joseph." So now he identifies himself in such a way that there can be no misunderstanding. He is the brother whom they sold as a slave.)

[5] Now therefore be not grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that you sold me hither: for God did send me before you to preserve life. (Joseph's heart beat true to God and to his brothers. He kept pressing upon them that it was God Who had taken him out of the pit and placed him upon the Throne. The way he says all of this leads them to feel that it was against God that they had sinned, rather than against himself, which actually was true, and made the sin even worse.)

6 For these two years has the famine been in the land: and yet there are five years, in the which there shall neither be earing nor harvest.

7 And God sent me before you to preserve you a posterity in the Earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance. (Joseph attempts to lessen their grief and sorrow by showing them that whatever it was they intended, God overruled it, and turned it around for good. Only God can take that which is wrong and make it right.)

8 So now it was not you who sent me hither, but God: and he has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt. (In fact, only God could have done this. Men rule, but God overrules!)

JACOB

9 Make haste, and go up to my father, and say unto him, Thus says your son Joseph, God has made me lord of all Egypt: come down unto me, tarry not (now Joseph gives instructions as to his father Jacob; but with that, the brothers now have another problem; they're going to have to confess to Jacob as to what happened with Joseph those long years before)**:

10 And you shall dwell in the land of Goshen (the richest part of Egypt), and you shall be near unto me, you, and your children, and your children's children, and your flocks, and your herds, and all that you have:

11 And there will I nourish you; for yet there are five years of famine; lest you, and your household, and all that you have, come to poverty (this is typical of Israel in the coming Great Tribulation, when God will sustain them [Rev. 12:6]).

12 And, behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaks unto you (Joseph is telling his brothers to inspect him closely, and they will see, even beyond the shadow of a doubt, that it is truly Joseph who is speaking to them).

13 And you shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen; and you shall haste and bring down my father hither (this is a type of Israel, when, at a coming glad day, "they [Israel] shall declare My Glory [of Christ] among the Gentiles" [Isa. 66:19]).

14 And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept; and Benjamin wept upon his neck.

15 Moreover he kissed all his brothers, and wept upon them: and after that his brothers talked with him. (This scene is typical of the coming day when Israel will recognize Christ, which will be at the Second Coming [Zech. 12:10]. Joseph kissing all of his brothers portrays the seal of recognition, of reconciliation, and of Salvation.)

PHARAOH'S INVITATION

16 And the fame thereof was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, Joseph's brothers are come: and it pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants.

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Say unto your brothers, This do you; load your beasts, and go, get you unto the land of Canaan;

18 And take your father and your households, and come unto me: and I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and you shall eat the fat of the land. (Joseph's grace in covering up their sin before they confessed it, in hiding it from Pharaoh, and in hasting to acknowledge them before Pharaoh as his brothers, illustrate the richer Grace of Him Who says, "Your sins and iniquities will I remember no more" [Heb. 10:17].)

19 Now you are commanded, this do you; take you wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come.

20 Also regard not your stuff; for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours. (And so will it be that of Israel in a coming glad day, when they finally accept the Lord Jesus Christ as their Saviour and Messiah.)

JOSEPH

21 And the Children of Israel did so (the Holy Spirit referring here to Jacob as "Israel" signifies the fact that it is the Will of God for Jacob to come into Egypt): and Joseph gave them wagons, according to the commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way.

22 To all of them he gave each man changes of raiment (spiritually speaking, Israel, in a coming glad day, will have a "change of raiment," i.e., "the robe of Righteousness"); but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of raiment. ("Silver" speaks of Redemption and what will transpire with Israel. "Five" speaks of Grace, and speaks of the fact that the Grace of God will award Israel a robe of Righteousness, which, in effect, is the Righteousness of Christ, and which can only be given by Grace [Eph. 2:8-9].)

23 And to his father he sent after this manner; ten asses loaded with the good things of Egypt, and ten she asses loaded with corn (grain) and bread and meat for his father by the way (the famine will touch them no longer [Jer. 30:7])**.

24 So he sent his brothers away, and they departed: and he said unto them, See that you fall not out by the way (don't be delayed)**.

25 And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan unto Jacob their father (the implication is, they will not only give him this most wonderful news, the most wonderful that Jacob will have ever heard, but, as well, they will have to tell him the truth concerning what they did to Joseph so many years before)**,

26 And told him (meaning that they told him everything), saying, Joseph is yet alive (for some 20 years, Jacob has suffered; the suffering is now over; Joseph is yet alive; Christ is alive! What more can we say!), and he is governor over all the land of Egypt. And Jacob's heart fainted, for he believed them not. (The scene with Joseph revealing himself to his brothers was, in fact, one of the most, if not the most, poignant in history; then the scene with the brothers before their father Jacob had to be a close second.)

[27] And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said unto them: and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived (the Patriarch knew that his sons personally had no way to obtain such wagons; he now knows that they are telling him the truth)**:

[28] And Israel said, It is enough; Joseph my son is yet alive: I will go and see him before I die (it is noteworthy that Jacob is again referred to in this Verse as "Israel"; it refers to his Faith, as feeble as it was, being rewarded, and rewarded grandly, "Joseph is yet alive"!).

CHAPTER 46

EGYPT

[1] And Israel took his journey with all that he had (by the Holy Spirit using here the name "Israel," this tells us that Jacob moves forward with a renewed confidence and Faith in God, Who had originally changed his name; in other words, he is now in the direct center of the Perfect Will of God, which alone God can bless), and came to Beer-sheba, and offered Sacrifices (these Sacrifices epitomized God, Who would become flesh and dwell with men, and thereby go to the Cross, offering Himself up as a Sacrifice, which alone could atone for the sin of man) unto the God of his father Isaac (this stipulates that what God had given to Abraham had been passed down to Isaac, and now is passed down to Jacob; in other words, the Vision is the same)**.

[2] And God spoke unto Israel in the visions of the night (once again, by the use of the name "Israel," such signifies Faith on the part of Jacob), and said, Jacob, Jacob (why the use of both names by the Lord of "Israel" and "Jacob"? When we look at this Verse, we are looking at Sanctification in both its positional and conditional form. The "spiritual position" of Jacob was that of perfect Sanctification, as it is with all Believers; however, our "spiritual condition" is not necessarily up to our spiritual position. In fact, it is the Work of the Holy Spirit, Who strives throughout our lives to bring our "condition" up to our "position." He can only do such as our Faith is anchored firmly in Christ and the Cross, which then gives Him latitude to work). And he said, Here am I (Jacob's Faith was now such that he could hear the Word of the Lord)**.

[3] And He said, I am God (in the Hebrew, "I am the El, the Mighty One"), the God of your father (the same Message that God gave to Isaac, He also gives to Jacob; in brief, it refers to God becoming flesh, dwelling with man, and dying on a Cross, in order that man might be redeemed; Angels could not redeem man because they were of another creation; so God would have to redeem man, and would have to do so by becoming man, with Redemption being carried out by the God-Man, the Lord Jesus Christ, going to the Cross, where there, and there alone, Redemption could be effected [Gen. 3:15; Rom. 5:1; 6:3-14; I Cor. 1:17-18, 1:17-21, 1:17-23; 2:2; Eph. 2:13-18; Col. 2:14-15]): fear not to go down into Egypt (Jacob did fear to go down into Egypt, simply because his father Isaac had been forbidden by God to go there); for I will there make of you a great nation (the Lord's plans are far bigger than we can even dare to think; He will now use Egypt to further His purposes):

4 I will go down with you into Egypt (this is not the idea of a local deity following them when they changed their abodes, and thereby confined to the district in which they happen, for the time being, to reside, but a metaphorical expression for the efficiency and completeness of the Divine protection — Kalisch); and I will also surely bring you up again (this has a twofold meaning, in that Jacob would be brought back to Canaan for burial and, as well, that the nation which would come from his loins would, as well, be brought back): and Joseph shall put his hand upon your eyes (he had never thought to see Joseph; however, the Lord here assures him that he will not only see his son, but that Joseph will be with him when he dies).

5 And Jacob rose up from Beer-sheba (Jacob was 130 years old at the time, and this event was 215 years after the call of Abraham; Jacob now truly "rises up" in Faith, and because he has heard from Heaven): and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him (the name "Israel" is again used by the Holy Spirit, signifying Jacob's Faith; the principle of Faith was the only commodity, so to speak, which would propel Jacob nearer to the Lord).

6 And they took their cattle, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt, Jacob, and all his seed with him (a spiritual threshold is now being crossed; even though it will be some 255 years before Israel will actually possess the Promise, as it regards the land of Canaan, great strides are now being made):

7 His sons, and his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters, and all his seed brought he with him into Egypt.

JACOB'S FAMILY

8 And these are the names of the Children of Israel (the Holy Spirit once again uses the Faith name of Jacob, "Israel"), which came into Egypt, Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn.

9 And the sons of Reuben; Hanoch, and Phallu, and Hezron, and Carmi.

10 And the sons of Simeon; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman.

11 And the sons of Levi; Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

12 And the sons of Judah (the Tribe from which our Lord would come [49:10]); Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Pharez, and Zarah: but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Pharez were Hezron and Hamul.

13 And the sons of Issachar; Tola, and Phuvah, and Job (this is the same Job of the Book which bears his name), and Shimron.

14 And the sons of Zebulun; Sered, and Elon, and Jahleel.

15 These be the sons of Leah, which she bore unto Jacob in Padan-aram, with his daughter Dinah: all the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty-three.

16 And the sons of Gad; Ziphion, and Haggi, Shuni, and Ezbon, Eri, and Arodi, and Areli.

17 And the sons of Asher; Jimnah, and Ishuah, and Isui, and Beriah, and Serah their sister: and the sons of Beriah; Heber, and Malchiel.

18 These are the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter, and these she bore unto Jacob, even sixteen souls.

19 The sons of Rachel, Jacob's wife; Joseph, and Benjamin.

20 And unto Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, which Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of On bore unto him.

21 And the sons of Benjamin were Belah, and Becher, and Ashbel, Gera, and Naaman, Ehi, and Rosh, Muppim, and Huppim, and Ard.

22 These are the sons of Rachel, who were born to Jacob: all the souls were fourteen.

23 And the sons of Dan; Hushim.

24 And the sons of Naphtali; Jahzeel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shillem.

25 These are the sons of Bilhah, which Laban gave unto Rachel his daughter, and she bore these unto Jacob: all the souls were seven.

26 All the souls who came with Jacob into Egypt, which came out of his loins, besides Jacob's sons' wives, all the souls were sixty-six;

27 And the sons of Joseph, which were born him in Egypt (but nevertheless were Israelites), were two souls: all the souls of the house of Jacob, which came into Egypt, were seventy.

28 And he sent Judah before him unto Joseph, to direct his face unto Goshen; and they came into the land of Goshen (we see here that the Tribe of Judah is taking the lead, the Tribe, as stated, from which our Lord would come).

JOSEPH AND JACOB

29 And Joseph made ready his chariot, and went up to meet Israel his father, to Goshen, and presented himself unto him (the translation here tells us little; however, in the Hebrew such terminology is commonly used of the appearance of God or His Angels; it is employed here in this manner to indicate the glory in which Joseph came to meet Jacob; this meeting is symbolic of the great meeting which will take place in the near future of the Second Coming, when our Heavenly Joseph will present Himself to Israel [Zech. 13:6]); and he fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while (however, they were tears of joy, just as it will be at the Second Coming, when Jesus and Jacob will meet in Grace).

[30] And Israel (Faith) said unto Joseph, Now let me die, since I have seen your face, because you are yet alive (national Israel doesn't yet know it or believe it, but Jesus is yet alive).

[31] And Joseph said unto his brethren, and unto his father's house, I will go up, and show Pharaoh, and say unto him, My brethren, and my father's house, which were in the land of Canaan, are come unto me (one of the greatest moments in human history will be when Israel finally comes to Christ)**;

[32] And the men are shepherds, for their trade has been to feed cattle; and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.

[33] And it shall come to pass, when Pharaoh shall call you, and shall say, What is your occupation?

[34] That you shall say, Your servants' trade has been about cattle from our youth even until now (the word "cattle" stood for heifers, oxen, sheep, goats, etc.), both we, and also our fa thers: that you may dwell in the land of Goshen (the most fertile part of Egypt, at least as it referred to the grazing of cattle and sheep); for every shepherd is an abomination unto the Egyptians (the word "abomination," as used here, refers to the fact that there was some type of religious connotation to the attitude of Egyptians towards shepherds; at any rate, Joseph does not attempt to conceal from Pharaoh the low caste of shepherds, his brothers, but he trusts in God that what was an abomination to the Egyptians will be made, by the Grace of God, acceptable; and so it was).

CHAPTER 47

JACOB MEETS PHARAOH

[1] Then Joseph came and told Pharaoh, and said, My father and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan; and, behold, they are in the land of Goshen.

[2] And he took some of his brethren, even five men, and presented them unto Pharaoh (as far as we know, no one in Egypt ever knew anything about the wickedness of the past deeds of Joseph's brothers; such is true forgiveness; it not only forgives sin, but it forgets, as well).

[3] And Pharaoh said unto his brethren, What is your occupation? And they said unto Pharaoh, Your servants are shepherds, both we, and also our fathers (that the brothers were shepherds, which Joseph had been, as well, served as a Type of the Good Shepherd, Who would give His Life for the sheep [Jn. 10:11]).

[4] They said moreover unto Pharaoh, For to sojourn in the land are we come; for your servants have no pasture for their flocks; for the famine is sore in the land of Canaan: now therefore, we pray you, let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen.

[5] And Pharaoh spoke unto Joseph, saying, Your father and your brethren are come unto you:

[6] The land of Egypt is before you; in the best of the land make your father and brethren to dwell; in the land of Goshen let them dwell: and if you know any men of activity among them, then make them rulers over my cattle. (Joseph, raised from the pit to the throne, another Type of Christ, enriches his brothers with all the Promises which they, by their rejection of him, had forfeited, but which are now, upon the ground of Grace, restored to them. At the same time, they are given the richest province in Egypt. The Egyptians, themselves representative of all the nations of the Earth, are saved from death by Joseph. All of this is a striking picture of what is yet to come to pass. This is the subject of Romans, Chapters 9, 10, and 11, in which Chapters it is pointed out that Israel and the Gentiles will inherit the Promises, in fellowship, solely upon the ground of pure Grace.)

7 And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh: and Jacob blessed Pharaoh. (And without contradiction, the less is blessed of the greater. The least and most faltering of God's children is superior to the mightiest Monarch, and is conscious of such superiority — Williams.)

8 And Pharaoh said unto Jacob, How old are you?

9 And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, The days of the years of my pilgrimage are an hundred and thirty years: few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage (more than likely, there was no one in Egypt who was as old as Jacob; as well, he will not die until he is 147 years of age, some 17 years after coming into Egypt).

10 And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh (for the second time, the Holy Spirit proclaims the Patriarch blessing Pharaoh, again signifying that while Pharaoh may be the greatest in the eyes of men, Jacob is the greatest in the Eyes of God, Whose Eyes Alone matter).

JOSEPH

11 And Joseph placed his father and his brothers, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

12 And Joseph nourished his father, and his brothers, and all his father's household, with bread, according to their families.

13 And there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very sore, so that the land of Egypt and all the land of Canaan fainted by reason of the famine. (We now learn just how severe this famine actually was. Had it not been for Joseph, Egypt would have seen the starvation of tens of thousands of its people. So, Joseph was the great benefactor of this land and its people, exactly as Jesus will be the Great Benefactor of the Gentiles at the Second Coming, when the world, at that time, will be in a critical state.)

THE PLAN

14 And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn (grain) which they bought: and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

15 And when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan (meaning that the people had no more money to buy grain), all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, and said, Give us bread: for why should we die in your presence? for the money fails (we have no more money).

16 And Joseph said, Give your cattle; and I will give you for your cattle (give you grain), if money fail.

17 And they brought their cattle unto Joseph (whether sheep, goats, cattle, horses, etc.): and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses: and he fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year.

18 When that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide it from my lord, how that our money is spent; my lord also has our herds of cattle; there is not ought left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands:

19 Wherefore shall we die before your eyes, both we and our land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Pharaoh: and give us seed, that we may live, and not die, that the land be not desolate.

20 And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Pharaoh's.

21 And as for the people, he removed them to cities from one end of the borders of Egypt even to the other end thereof.

THE PRIESTS

22 Only the land of the priests bought he not; for the priests had a portion assigned them of Pharaoh, and did eat their portion which Pharaoh gave them: wherefore they sold not their lands. (Some have claimed that Joseph robbed the Egyptians of their liberties, and converted a free people into a horde of abject slaves. Nothing could be further from the truth. In fact, had it not been for Joseph, and the Divine Wisdom which he was given during this extremely trying time, as stated, hundreds of thousands of people would literally have starved to death. As it was, the people were looked after, and there is no record that anyone starved.)

TENANT LAWS

23 Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Pharaoh: lo, here is seed for you, and you shall sow the land.

24 And it shall come to pass in the increase, that you shall give the fifth part unto Pharaoh, and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones. (When Joseph levied the 20% tax, this was one of the fairest arrangements that any people had ever known. No doubt, this wisdom was given to him by the Lord. For instance, at this particular time [2003], counting state, local, and federal income taxes, the rate is approximately 50 %.)

25 And they said, You have saved our lives: let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants.

[26] And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt unto this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part; except the land of the priests only, which became not Pharaoh's.

JACOB

[27] And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions therein, and grew, and multiplied exceedingly (they came in 70 strong, and would leave out, about 215 years later, upwards of over 2 million people).

[28] And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years: so the whole age of Jacob was an hundred forty and seven years.

[29] And the time drew near that Israel must die (by the use of the name "Israel," the Holy Spirit tells us that Jacob would die in Faith, and great Faith at that): and he called his son Joseph, and said unto him, If now I have found grace in your sight, put, I pray you, your hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me; bury me not, I pray you, in Egypt (feeble as was his body, and imperfect as was his faith, as all faith regrettably is imperfect, yet did Jacob esteem God's land, the land of Canaan, and the Promises connected therewith, as unspeakably superior to Egypt, with all its prosperity and glory)**:

[30] But I will lie with my fathers, and you shall carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their buryingplace. And he said, I will do as you have said.

[31] And he said, Swear unto me. And he swore unto him. And Israel bowed himself upon the bed's head. (He makes Joseph swear that when he dies, he will put his bones where his heart was, in the land of Canaan. As a Believer, where is your heart?)

CHAPTER 48

THE SONS OF JOSEPH

[1] And it came to pass after these things (Hebrews 11:21 throws much light on the beautiful Forty-eighth Chapter of Genesis; in fact, in Chapters 48 and 49, Jacob shines as never before; if it is to be noticed, the Holy Spirit refers to him again and again as "Israel"; this is the great Faith action of his life; feeble and dying, and having nothing except the staff on which he leaned and worshipped, he yet bestowed vast and unseen possessions on his grandsons — Williams), that one told Joseph, Behold, your father is sick: and he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim (these boys must have been about 18 or 20 years old at the time)**.

[2] And one told Jacob, and said, Behold, your son Joseph comes unto you: and Israel strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed. (Joseph wants his two grandsons to know and realize that even though they have been born in Egypt, and all they have ever known is Egypt, still, they aren't Egyptians, but rather of the house of Jacob, i.e., Israelites. Such is a portrayal of Believers born in this present world, but nevertheless not of this world, but rather of the world to come. And finally, the significance of the change of name from "Jacob" to "Israel" is not to be overlooked. By faith [it is always Faith], the great Patriarch, moved upon by the Lord, will claim the Promises, and chart the course of Israel. Though the eyes of the Patriarch are, in the natural, very dim, even as we shall see, his Faith burns brightly, actually brighter than ever; hence he is called "Israel.")

[3] And Jacob said unto Joseph, God Almighty (Jacob refers to God as "El Shaddai," using the same name which God had used of Himself, when He appeared to the Patriarch at Bethel, which was after the sad experience of Shechem [35:7-15]) appeared unto me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me,

4 And said unto me, Behold, I will make you fruitful, and multiply you, and I will make of you a multitude of people; and will give this land to your seed after you for an everlasting possession. (The Palestinians should read these words very carefully.)

5 And now your two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, which were born unto you in the land of Egypt before I came unto you into Egypt are mine; as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine. (By this, Jacob indicated he was bypassing the older sons and was making sure that Joseph would get the double portion of the birthright. This would apply to Ephraim and Manasseh, hence Jacob, by the Holy Spirit, claiming them as his own.)

6 And your issue, which you beget after them, shall be yours, and shall be called after the name of their brethren in their inheritance. (Even though he may have, there is no Scriptural record that Joseph had children other than Ephraim and Manasseh. But if he did, they could not be reckoned, as it regards the "blessing," as it pertained to Ephraim and Manasseh. In other words, their blessing would have to be in the blessing of the two. All of this was of extreme significance, and because it pertained to the raising up of the Nation of Israel, through which the Messiah would come, and the Word of God would be given. In fact, nothing in the world was more important than this, hence the Holy Spirit instructing Jacob accordingly.)

7 And as for me, when I came from Padan, Rachel died by me in the land of Canaan in the way, when yet there was but a little way to come unto Ephrath: and I buried her there in the way of Ephrath; the same is Beth-lehem (where Rachel died is where Jesus would be born; "except a grain of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abides alone: but if it die, it brings forth much fruit" [Jn. 12:24]).

THE BLESSING

8 And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said, Who are these? (That Jacob did not at first discern the presence of the sons of Joseph shows that his adoption of them into the number of the theocratic family was prompted, not by the accidental impulse of a natural affection excited through beholding these young men, but by the inward prompting of the Spirit of God.)

9 And Joseph said unto his father, They are my sons, whom God has given me in this place. And he said, Bring them, I pray you, unto me, and I will bless them. (The "blessing" consisted of Joseph's double portion, with a portion being given to each of these sons, which, as stated, contained a significance all out of proportion to natural thinking.)

10 Now the eyes of Israel were dim for age, so that he could not see. And he brought them near unto him; and he kissed them, and embraced them. (Even though the Patriarch was blind, or nearly so, the Holy Spirit refers to him as "Israel," because he could "see" by Faith.)

11 And Israel said unto Joseph, I had not thought to see your face: and, lo, God has shown me also your seed. (Satan had told the Patriarch that he would never see Joseph again. But now the Holy Spirit says, "You have not only seen Joseph, but his sons, as well." True Faith in God is never disappointed.)

12 And Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth (proclaims the fact that Joseph understood the tremendous import of what was here being said and done).

13 And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand *(because Ephraim was the younger), and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand *(because he was the older), and brought them near unto him.

14 And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger *(signifying by his right hand that the greater part of the blessing would go to Ephraim, even though he was the younger), and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, guiding his hands wittingly *(guided by the Holy Spirit); for Manasseh was the firstborn (but for the Spirit of God would have received the greater portion).

15 And he blessed Joseph (the double portion would go to Joseph's sons; just before Jacob blesses these young men, the aged Patriarch takes his staff and, leaning upon it so as not to fall, bows in grateful worship before God; Paul mentioned this [Heb. 11:21]), and said, God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which fed me all my life long unto this day (he specifies that the blessing about to be pronounced was from God and God Alone),

16 The Angel which redeemed me from all evil (the Lord is referred to here as an Angel, but is not to be confused with that particular creation), bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the Earth. (The "name" spoke of Promise, while the "multitude" spoke of Blessing. The Promise had to do with the coming Redeemer, Who definitely did come. The blessing concerns the multitude, and has only partially been fulfilled, but definitely will be fulfilled in the coming Millennium, when Israel will be the leading nation on Earth.)

17 And when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him (because Ephraim was the younger, and thereby normally should not receive the greater portion): and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head unto Manasseh's head.

18 And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, my father: for this is the firstborn (Manasseh is the first born); put your right hand upon his head.

19 And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations. (The northern kingdom of Israel, about 800 years into the future, would also be called "Ephraim"; however, the greater fulfillment concerning "a multitude of nations" awaits the coming Kingdom Age.)

20 And he blessed them that day, saying, In you shall Israel bless, saying, God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh: and he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

21 And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die: but God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers (which would happen about 240 years into the future).

22 Moreover I have given to you one portion above your brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow. (We aren't told exactly what Jacob meant by his statement. This could very well have been a conflict with the Amorites, of which we are given no information; however, it could speak of the coming day when Israel will vanquish all who contest their right to the Promised Land, which will take place at the Second Coming.)

CHAPTER 49

[1] And Jacob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you in the last days. (This Chapter forms one of the great dispensational prophecies of the Word of God. It concerns the "latter days," and the "last days." This is the first occurrence of this expression: "the last days."

The Prophecy may be thus divided: Reuben, Simeon, and Levi, the moral history of Israel up to the First Advent; Judah, the apparition of the Messiah and His rejection; Zebulun and Issachar, the dispersion and subjugation of the Jews among the Gentiles; Dan, the appearing and kingdom of the Antichrist. Gad, Asher, and Naphtali present the cry of anguish of the elect sons of Israel for the Second Coming of Christ. Joseph and Benjamin together predict the Second Coming, in glory, of Israel's Messiah — Williams.)

[2] Gather yourselves together and hear, you sons of Jacob; and hearken unto Israel your father. (In Verses 1 and 2, the Holy Spirit impresses the use of both names, "Jacob" and "Israel." As the twelve sons gather in his presence, he is referred to as "Jacob"; however, when it refers to the prophecies that will be given, he is referred to by his princely name, "Israel.")

[3] Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power (this is what Reuben should have been)**:

[4] Unstable as water, you shall not excel (no Prophet, Ruler, or great man sprang out of Reuben); because you went up to your father's bed; then you defiled it: he went up to my couch (35:22).

[5] Simeon and Levi are brothers (guilty of the same sin); instruments of cruelty are in their habitations (34:25-29).

[7] Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel; I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel. (The Tribe of Simeon, when coming into the Land of Israel several centuries into the future, would have no inheritance, but, in fact, would have their part in the inheritance of Judah. As well, Levi would have no inheritance at all, but would have their curse turned into a blessing as they became the Priestly Tribe of Israel, but yet scattered over the nation, fulfilling the prophecy.)

[8] Judah, you are he whom your brethren shall praise (the name Judah means "praise," and it is from this Tribe that the Messiah would come): Your hand shall be in the neck of Your enemies (speaks of the great victory that Christ would win over Satan and all the powers of darkness at the Cross [Col. 2:14-15]); your father's children shall bow down before You (Israel will do this at the Second Coming).

[9] Judah is a lion's whelp (refers to a young lion, in the power of its youth, absolutely invincible; this represented Christ in the flower of His manhood, full of the Holy Spirit, healing the sick, casting out demons, raising the dead, and doing great and mighty things, with every demon spirit trembling at His Feet): from the prey (the lion is always seeking the prey, never the prey seeking the lion), My Son (Jesus is the Son of God), You are gone up (meaning that Christ is always on the offensive): He stooped down, He couched as a lion (a rampant lion, standing on his hind feet, ready to pounce, which, in fact, was the emblem of the Tribe of Judah), and as an old lion (referring to one ripening into its full strength and ferocity); who shall rouse Him up? (Who would be so foolish as to contest the absolute invincibility of Christ?)

[10] The sceptre shall not depart from Judah (the "Sceptre" is defined as "a staff of office and authority," which pertains to Christ), nor a Lawgiver from between His Feet (refers to the fact that Judah was meant to be a guardian of the Law, which they were; the Temple was in Jerusalem, which was a part of the Tribe of Judah, and which had to do with the Law), until Shiloh come (when Jesus came, typified by the name "Shiloh," Who, in fact, was, and is, the True Lawgiver, He fulfilled the Law in totality by His Life and His Death, thereby satisfying all of its just demands); and unto Him shall the gathering of the people be (the only way to God the Father is through Christ the Son; the only way to Christ the Son is through the Cross; the only way to the Cross is through an abnegation of self [Lk. 9:23-24]).

[11] Binding his foal unto the vine (the "Vine" speaks of fruit, and, in fact, "the blood of grapes," which speaks of what He did on the Cross in the shedding of His Life's Blood, in order to bring forth this fruit [Jn. 15:1]), and his animal's colt unto the choice vine; He washed His Garments in wine, and His clothes in the blood of grapes (all of this speaks of the Cross, and Him washing His Garments in wine, i.e., "in blood")**:

[12] His Eyes shall be red with wine (His eyes ever toward the Cross), and His Teeth white with milk (speaks of the Righteousness of Christ; it is Righteousness which He has always had, but now is made possible to us, due to what He did in His Sufferings, i.e., "the blood of grapes").

[13] Zebulun shall dwell at the haven of the sea; and he shall be for an haven of ships (this portrayal of Zebulun is not so much geographical as it is occupational; the closest that this Tribe came to the Mediterranean was about 10 miles; however, the great trade routes from north to south, etc., went through Zebulun, with them being very active in commerce); and his border shall be unto Zidon (should have been translated, "And his borders shall be towards Zidon").

14 Issachar is a strong ass couching down between two burdens:

15 And he saw (Issachar saw) that rest was good, and the land that it was pleasant; and bowed his shoulder to bear (the Tribe of Issachar bordered the Jordan River and, as a result, favored some of the best agricultural areas in all of Israel), and became a servant unto tribute (has to do with agricultural pursuits, and not subjugation by another nation).

16 Dan shall judge his people, as one of the Tribes of Israel.

17 Dan shall be a serpent by the way, an adder in the path, that bites the horse heels, so that his rider shall fall backward. (Dan had the ability to bear rule, yet became a treacherous serpent. It is certainly observable that the first introduction of idolatry in Israel is ascribed to the Tribe of Dan [Judg., Chpt. 18] and, in the numbering of the Tribes of Revelation, Chapter 7, the name Dan is omitted.

As well, it is believed that the Antichrist, who will be Jewish, will spring from the Tribe of Dan, once again likened to "an adder in the path," a most venomous serpent.)

18 I have waited for Your Salvation, O LORD (speaks of the Second Coming).

19 Gad, a troop shall overcome him: but he shall overcome at the last ("Gad" will be overcome by the Antichrist during the Great Tribulation, but "shall overcome at the last," which speaks of the Second Coming).

20 Out of Asher his bread shall be fat, and he shall yield royal dainties. ("Asher" could well be the first of the Tribes to welcome Christ upon His Second Coming. The phrase, "yield royal dainties," pertains to an excellent presentation for the King. That King is the Lord Jesus Christ.)

21 Naphtali is a hind (a female deer) let loose: he gives goodly words. ("Naphtali" will have wonderful words for Christ upon His return. They will be words of repentance [Zech. 13:1].)

22 Joseph is a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well; whose branches run over the wall (Joseph, as Judah, is a Type of Christ, hence the flowing and glowing superlatives. Judah is portrayed as Christ in His sufferings; while Joseph is portrayed as Christ in His Millennial Blessings)**:

23 The archers have sorely grieved Him, and shot at Him, and hated Him (all speaks of what Israel did to Christ)**:

24 But His Bow abode in strength, and the Arms of His Hands were made strong by the Hands of the mighty God of Jacob (Christ did, despite the opposition, what He came to do, which refers to the Cross); (from thence is the Shepherd, the Stone of Israel:) (Christ is referred to here by two names, "Shepherd" and "Stone of Israel.")

25 Even by the God of Your Father, Who shall help You (it is Christ Alone Who enjoys the Blessings of the Father; and those Blessings come upon Him in every manner); and by the Almighty, Who shall bless you with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lie under, blessings of the breasts, and of the womb (we must understand that God does not bless man, per se, but rather He blesses Christ; if one is in Christ, then one is blessed)**:

26 The Blessings of Your Father have prevailed above the blessings of my progenitors (ancestors) unto the utmost bound of the everlasting hills (as long as the hills last, the Blessings of God will last; inasmuch as the hills are "everlasting," this means that the Blessings of God, through Christ, are everlasting, as well): they shall be on the head of Joseph (the Blessings will be upon Christ, of Whom Joseph was a Type), and on the crown of the head of Him Who was separate from His Brethren (even though Christ was a man, still, He was separate from all other men, and because, as well, He was the Son of God).

27 Benjamin shall ravin (something seized as prey) as a wolf (the Tribe of Benjamin may very well be the leading Tribe to oppose the Antichrist; it is plain by this that Jacob was guided in what he said by the Spirit of Prophecy, and not by natural affection; else he would have spoken with more tenderness of his beloved son Benjamin): in the morning he shall devour the prey, and at night he shall divide the spoil (could well take place during the coming Great Tribulation, as the Tribe of Benjamin fully opposes the Antichrist).

28 All these are the Twelve Tribes of Israel: and this is it that their father spoke unto them, and blessed them; every one according to his blessing he blessed them (even though Reuben, Simeon, and Levi were under the marks of their father's displeasure, yet he is said to bless them, every one according to his blessing; for none of them were rejected as Esau).

29 And he charged them, and said unto them, I am to be gathered unto my people: bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite (the heart of the Patriarch was not set upon the wealth of his luxurious bedchamber, but was far away in God's chosen land; we, as well, must ever remember that while we are in the world, we must not be of the world; our treasure is elsewhere),

30 In the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite for a possession of a buryingplace (the great Patriarch never allowed all of the splendor of Egypt and its ease to turn his Faith from its correct object; it was ever in Christ and the Cross).

31 There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife; and there I buried Leah. (His demand that he be buried where Abraham and Isaac were buried proclaimed, within itself, and made a statement, that all of these were staking a claim to the entirety of the land. God had promised it to them, and ultimately that Promise would be realized.)

32 The purchase of the field and of the cave that is therein was from the children of Heth.

THE DEATH OF JACOB

33 And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the ghost, and was gathered unto his people. (The last hours of the great Patriarch were filled with prophecies and predictions concerning the Twelve Tribes of Israel, which would ultimately bring the Redeemer into the world. He died when that Prophecy was uttered, but he did not die until it was uttered. It must be said of Jacob that he kept the Faith that was once delivered unto Abraham and his father Isaac. He had not allowed that torch to fall to the ground, or even be dimmed. At his death, it burned brightly and, in fact, brighter than ever.)

CHAPTER 50

BURIAL OF JACOB

[1] And Joseph fell upon his father's face, and wept upon him, and kissed him. (Joseph closed his father's eyes, as predicted by the Lord to Jacob [46:4]. Verse 1 is a picture of Christ weeping over Israel. Jacob was dead physically, and alive spiritually. Israel was alive physically, and dead spiritually.)

[2] And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father: and the physicians embalmed Israel (Jacob's body was embalmed, but his soul and spirit went into Paradise, there to be with his grandfather Abraham and his father Isaac, and every other Believer who had lived up until this time).

[3] And forty days were fulfilled for him; for so are fulfilled the days of those which are embalmed (it took that long for the process): and the Egyptians mourned for him seventy days (death is an enemy; it is the last enemy which will be defeated [I Cor. 15:26]; Jesus took the sting out of death at the Cross but, at the end of the Kingdom Age, death will then be totally defeated, and forever [Rev., Chpt. 20]).

[4] And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spoke unto the house of Pharaoh, saying, If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Pharaoh, saying (the fact that Joseph did not speak personally to Pharaoh accords with discoveries which show that mourners at that time did not shave and, therefore, could not enter into the royal presence)**,

[5] My father made me swear, saying, Lo, I die: in my grave which I have dug for me in the land of Canaan, there shall you bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray you, and bury my father, and I will come again (as stated, Joseph was speaking to Pharaoh through members of the royal court).

6 And Pharaoh said, Go up, and bury your father, according as he made you swear.

7 And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt (the grandeur of Jacob's funeral procession must have been a wonder to behold; it is amazing to think of this great Patriarch, a pilgrim all his life, being carried to his final resting place by the grandeur of mighty Egypt; it is one of the few times in history that the world recognized the greatness that was among them)**,

8 And all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen.

9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen: and it was a very great company.

10 And they came to the threshingfloor of Atad, which is beyond Jordan, and there they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation: and he made a mourning for his father seven days (they were now in the land of Canaan; "seven" is God's perfect number; as such, it speaks of a perfect Salvation, which will ultimately lead to the Resurrection).

11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians: wherefore the name of it was called Abel-mizraim, which is beyond Jordan. (The Canaanites had no understanding of what Joseph was doing, thinking this was some type of ritual concerning the Egyptians.)

12 And his sons (Jacob's sons) did unto him according as he commanded them:

13 For his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field for a possession of a buryingplace of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre (Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob were very wealthy in flocks, gold, and silver; however, when they died, as all, the only thing they took with them was their Faith).

JOSEPH

14 And Joseph returned into Egypt, he, and his brothers, and all who went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.

15 And when Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, Joseph will peradventure hate us, and will certainly requite us all the evil which we did unto him. (Joseph's brothers never did quite understand who their brother was, or what he was. Now that Jacob was dead, they expected evil of Joseph. They did not, and even perhaps could not, understand that Joseph, being a Type of Christ, would deal with them, not with judgment, but with Mercy and Grace.)

16 And they sent a messenger unto Joseph, saying, Your father did command before he died, saying (they claimed that Jacob had said before he died that they should ask Joseph to forgive them of their great sin against him)**,

17 So shall you say unto Joseph, Forgive, I pray you now, the trespass of your brothers, and their sin; for they did unto you evil: and now, we pray you, forgive the trespass of the servants of the God of your father (they are quoting the words to Joseph which Jacob had told them to say). And Joseph wept when they spoke unto him. (Concerning this, Williams says, "The incurable unbelief of the heart is illustrated by the cruel thoughts of Joseph's brothers as to his affection for them. This unbelief moved Joseph to tears; and in his action and language he once more stands forth as, perhaps, the most remarkable Type of Christ in the entirety of the Bible.")

18 And his brothers also went and fell down before his face; and they said, Behold, we be your servants. (This Verse records the last of five times the brothers bowed before Joseph, fulfilling the dreams [37:5-11]. One day, in its greater fulfillment, which will be in the latter days, Israel will fall down at the Feet of the Lord Jesus Christ, of Whom Joseph was a Type.)

19 And Joseph said unto them, Fear not: for am I in the place of God? (The question of Joseph, in effect, says, "I am not the Judge and, therefore, I do not punish. If any punishment is meted out, it will be God Who does it, and not me. You have nothing to fear from me.")

20 But as for you, you thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive. (This Verse holds one of the greatest Promises found in the entirety of the Word of God. God can take the evil which is planned against the Believer, that is, if the Believer will fully trust, and turn it to good, until there is nothing left but good.)

21 Now therefore do not fear: I will nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spoke kindly unto them (a perfect Type of Christ).

JOSEPH'S DEATH

22 And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his father's house: and Joseph lived an hundred and ten years.

23 And Joseph saw Ephraim's children of the third generation; the children also of Machir the son of Manasseh were brought up upon Joseph's knees. (Joseph was 110 years old when he died. He lived in Egypt 93 years, and his father's descendants lived there 215 years. This man who was sold as a slave into Egypt became a viceroy of the most powerful and richest nation on the face of the Earth. He was without a doubt one of the most beautiful Types of Christ who ever lived.)

24 And Joseph said unto his brothers, I die: and God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land unto the land which He swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. (Joseph using the names of his great-grandfather, his grandfather, and his father portrays the fact that when the torch of Faith was passed to him, he did not allow it to dim.)

25 And Joseph took an oath of the Children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from hence. (When the Children of Israel left out of Egypt, some 3 million strong, which they would do approximately 122 years later, Moses was careful to "take the bones of Joseph with him" [Ex. 13:19]. Wandering some 40 years in the wilderness, making a total of approximately 162 years from when Joseph died, Joshua, no doubt, attended the burial of those sacred bones — sacred because of Faith.)

26 So Joseph died, being an hundred and ten years old: and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt. (The Book of Genesis begins with life and ends with death. It starts with Creation and ends with a coffin. It begins with a living God and ends with a dead man, and all because of the Fall.)

CHAPTER 1

ISRAEL IN EGYPT

1 Now t hese are the names of the Children of Israel, which came into Egypt; every man and his household came with Jacob. (We look at the 70 souls, Jacob's family, which, by the Hand of Lord, were brought from Canaan to Egypt, and brought there for safe-keeping, one might say. They were insignificant in the eyes of the world, but, if God be in it, we must never despise the day of small things.)

2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah,

3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin,

4 Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

5 And all the souls who came out of the loins of Jacob were seventy souls: for Joseph was in Egypt already. (The Book of Genesis is the story of the Fall of man. The Book of Exodus is the story of the Redemption of man. Hence, the work of Redemption by Christ is called His "Exodus" [decease, going out of the world, Lk. 9:31].)

6 And Joseph died, and all his brothers, and all that generation. (If we are to notice, this Book begins with names, hence, Salvation is a personal matter. Joseph died about 80 years before Moses was born.)

7 And the Children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them (the Blessings of the Lord were upon Israel).

OPPRESSION

8 Now there arose up a new king over Egypt, which knew not Joseph (who had no regard for Joseph; this "new king" was probably either Rameses I, or his son, Seti I).

9 And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the Children of Israel are more and mightier than we (it is believed they numbered approximately 2½ million; it has been stated by some that in the Egyptian records there is no mention of the Hebrews, as the Bible claims; however, it is known that at about the time of the Hebrew sojourn, there was in Egypt a subject race, often employed in forced labors, called "Aperu" or "Aperiu," and it seems impossible to deny that this word is a very fair Egyptian equivalent for the Biblical "Hebrews"; we are forced, therefore, either to suppose there were in Egypt, at one and the same time, two subject races with names almost identical, or to admit the identification of the "Aperu" with the descendants of Jacob)**:

10 Come on, let us deal wisely with them; lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that, when there falls out any war, they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and so get them up out of the land. (Pharaoh sets out to destroy God's people. To be sure, his plans to do so were keen and far-reaching, at least as long as God was left out; but the entrance of God into these plans turned their wisdom to folly. All schemes which ignore God illustrate the same.)

11 Therefore they did set over them taskmasters to afflict them with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh treasure cities, Pithom and Raamses. (The ruins of these two cities exist presently and, in fact, the latter was the residence of the Court. There is a good possibility that the miracles of Moses recorded in Exodus, Chapter 7 took place in this Court [Ps. 78:12, 43]. So, the great palaces built by the Children of God, who were used as slaves, would see the mighty Power of God made evident in them.)

12 But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were grieved because of the Children of Israel. (Concerning this, Mackintosh says, "In reference to the king of Egypt, it may assuredly be said, he did 'greatly err' not knowing God or His changeless counsels.

He knew not that, hundreds of years back, before even he had breathed the breath of mortal life, God's Word and Oath — 'two immutable things' — had infallibly secured the full and glorious deliverance of that very people, in fact, a people which, at that time, the time of the Oath of God, didn't even exist, whom Pharaoh was going, in his earthly wisdom, to crush. All this was unknown to him and, therefore, all his thoughts and plans were founded upon ignorance of that great foundation — truth of all truths, namely that 'God is.' Pharaoh vainly imagined that he, by his management, could prevent the increase of those concerning whom God had said, 'They shall be as the stars of heaven, and as the sand which is upon the seashore.' His wise dealings, therefore, were simply madness and folly.")

13 And the Egyptians made the Children of Israel to serve with rigour *("rigour" is derived from a root which means "to break in pieces, to crush"):

14 And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field: all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour.

15 And the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, of which the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah *(it is ironic that the names of the mighty Pharaohs of that day are all but lost to history, whereas the names of these two women who obeyed God are recognized by multiple millions in every generation; the two named here were evidently in charge of many, if not all, of the midwives among the people of Israel):

16 And he said, When you do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools *(when the child is about to be born); if it be a son, then you shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then she shall live. (This murderous scheme hatched up by Pharaoh, or someone in his court, was supposed to weaken Israel by denying further growth. Some may ask as to why the Lord allowed such to happen? The answer is quite simple! Had Israel not suffered greatly, they would not have wanted to leave Egypt.)

17 But the midwives feared God, and did not as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men children alive. (The midwives, as well, concocted a scheme, no doubt inspired by the Lord, that would bring about the desired results.)

18 And the king of Egypt called for the midwives (Shiphrah and Puah), and said unto them, Why have you done this thing, and have saved the men children alive?

19 And the midwives said unto Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women; for they are lively, and are delivered ere the midwives come in unto them. (This scheme called for the midwives to be late, which brought about the desired results.)

20 Therefore God dealt well with the midwives (meaning that this is what the Lord told them to do, and He blessed them for their obedience): and the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty (Pharaoh's scheme was foiled).

21 And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God (they feared God above Pharaoh), that He (God) made them houses (gave them large families).

THE CRUEL COMMAND

22 And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every son who is born you shall cast into the river, and every daughter you shall save alive. (While Pharaoh desired to weaken the Israelites by demanding that the boy babies be killed at birth, Satan's plan was far more sinister. This is the serpent's enmity against the Seed of the woman. If this could have been carried out concerning the male children being destroyed, there would have been no David, just to name one instance, and, if no David, no David's Son. There is no record that the Israelites obeyed this injunction concerning the river. In fact, God used the river, even as we shall see, to bring about His Divine Will.)

CHAPTER 2

(1571 B.C.)

THE BIRTH OF MOSES

[1] And there went a man of the house of Levi, and took to wife a daughter of Levi. (This means that Moses was a member of the Tribe of Levi, which was to be the Priestly Tribe. He was a Type of Christ, our Great High Priest.)

[2] And the woman conceived, and bore a son: and when she saw him that he was a goodly child, she hid him three months. (Miriam and Aaron, Moses' sister and brother, were already born when Moses was born. Jochebed was his mother, with Amram being his father.

Concerning Moses, Pink says, "From Adam to Christ there is none greater than Moses. He is one of the few characters of Scripture whose course is sketched from his infancy to his death. The fierce light of criticism has been turned upon him for generations, but he is still the most commanding figure of the ancient world.

"In character, and faith, in the unique position assigned him as the mediator of the Old Covenant, and in achievements, he stands first among the heroes of the Old Testament.

"All of God's early dealings with Israel were transacted through Moses. He was a Prophet, Priest, and King in one person, and so united all the great and important functions which later were distributed among a plurality of persons. The history of such an one is worthy of the strictest attention, and his remarkable life deserves the closest study.")

[3] And when she (the mother of Moses) could not longer hide him (Pharaoh had given the orders that all boy babies were to be instantly killed), she took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the flags by the river's brink. (That which stands out so vividly in this account is the faith of Jochebed, the mother of Moses. She no doubt was led by the Lord in doing this.)

[4] And his sister stood afar off, to witness what would be done to him.

MOSES' EARLY YEARS

[5] And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river (the Lord had something in mind that Jochebed could not have possibly dreamed); and her maidens walked along by the river's side (the Nile River); and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it (the Holy Spirit had everything timed just right — the place, the person, and the progress).

[6] And when she (the daughter of Pharaoh) had opened it, she saw the child: and, behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children. (Someone has well said, "On that memorable day, God floated His navy on the tears of a baby's cheeks.")

[7] Then said his sister (Moses' sister, Miriam) to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call to you a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for you? (Miriam was led by the Lord in doing this.)

[8] And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the maid went and called the child's mother (however, Pharaoh's daughter did not, at least at this time, know that this was Moses' mother).

[9] And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give you your wages. And the woman took the child, and nursed it. (So Jochebed would take care of baby Moses, and be paid by the State for doing so. I wonder what Satan thought of this.)

[10] And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. (At a given time, the daughter of Pharaoh wanted Moses to come live with her in the Palace. Him becoming her son proclaims the fact that else her mother was dead or could not have children, so Moses was being raised to be the Pharaoh of Egypt.) And she called his name Moses: and she said, Because I drew him out of the water. (To show how little the Holy Spirit thought of the palace of Pharaoh, He, in effect, devotes only one Verse to these years of Moses' life.)

THE EGYPTIAN

[11] And it came to pass in those days, when Moses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens (from the language of Hebrews 11:24, it is clear that a time came when Moses had the choice of accepting or refusing the throne of Egypt; he refused, and cast in his lot with the hated and oppressed Hebrews): and he spied an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren.

[12] And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he killed the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand. (This was a "work of the flesh" on the part of Moses and, as all works of the flesh, it could have nothing but disastrous consequences.)

[13] And when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and he said to him who did the wrong, Why do you smite your fellow?

[14] And he said, Who made you a prince and a judge over us? do you intend to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known.

[15] Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to kill Moses. (Josephus said that the Egyptians, from the throne down, were envious of Moses, and partly afraid of him. They thought, due to his great success in defeating the Ethiopians [the Jewish Targums say that Moses was a General in the Egyptian army], that he might take advantage of his good fortune and try to subvert their government. So, when Moses, in defending the Hebrew, killed an Egyptian, this was the proverbial straw that broke the camel's back.) But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sat down by a well. (Haldeman says of Moses: "The life of Moses presents a series of striking antitheses. For instance, he was the child of a slave, and the son of a queen. He was born in a hut, and lived in a palace. He inherited poverty, and enjoyed unlimited wealth. He was the leader of armies, and the keeper of flocks. He was the mightiest of warriors, and the meekest of men. He was educated in the court of Egypt, and yet dwelt in the desert. He had the wisdom of Egypt, and the faith of a child. He was fitted for the city, and wandered in the wilderness. He was tempted with the pleasures of sin, and endured the hardships of virtue. He was backward in speech, and yet talked with God. He had the rod of a shepherd, and the power of the Infinite. He was a fugitive from Pharaoh, and an ambassador from Heaven. He was the giver of the Law, and the forerunner of Grace.")

16 Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters *(this man had three names, "Reuel," "Jethro," and "Raguel"; the last name means "a friend of God"; he was a descendant of Abraham by Keturah; he was a worshipper of the True God): and they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.

17 And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock.

18 And when they came to Reuel their father, he said, How is it that you are come so soon to day? (Meaning that they had finished watering the flock early.)

19 And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock. (Moses was really not an Egyptian, but evidently the young ladies thought he was.)

20 And he said unto his daughters, And where is he? why is it that you have left the man? call him, that he may eat bread.

21 And Moses was content to dwell with the man: and he gave Moses Zipporah his daughter. (We must assume that the Lord led Moses to Jethro [Reuel], and that Zipporah was destined to be his wife. But yet, Zipporah didn't prove to be as close to Moses as she should have been.)

22 And she bore him a son, and he called his name Gershom: for he said, I have been a stranger in a strange land. (Moses is about to begin his true education of 40 years duration. Some have said that it took about 40 hours to get Moses out of Egypt, but about 40 years to get Egypt out of Moses.)

23 And it came to pass in process of time, that the king of Egypt died (this refers to the Pharaoh who desired to kill Moses): and the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up unto God by reason of the bondage. (The pressure from Egypt is now becoming so hard and so difficult on the Israelites that they are now ready to leave. To be frank, they would in no way have left Egypt had the blessings continued, as it was during the time of Joseph. At times, the Lord has to allow difficulties, in order for us to become willing to do His Will.)

24 And God heard their groaning, and God remembered His Covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. (It is not clear here how much the Israelites were conscious of God, or whether they had almost forgotten Him. We do know that it was God Who took the initiative in their deliverance in view of His Covenants and Promises to their fathers. God always keeps His Word!)

25 And God looked upon the Children of Israel, and God had respect unto them. (The glorious Name "Elohim" occurs five times in Verses 23-25. As yet, He was not now known to Israel as "Jehovah." That would come a little later. Five is the number of Grace. No moral excellence in the Children of Israel attracted God's love; it was their misery that drew out His Heart to them: A. He "heard" their groaning; B. He "remembered" His Covenant; C. He "looked" upon them; and, D. He "had respect" unto them.)

CHAPTER 3

THE BURNING BUSH

[1] Now Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the backside of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb. (What God would do with Moses was not learned in the palaces of Egypt, but was learned at "the backside of the desert.")

[2] And the Angel of the Lord (actually, the Lord Himself) appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush (40 years in the desert was needed to humble the strength of the "flesh" and destroy its hope; the possible king of Egypt was now an obscure shepherd): and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed. (The flame of fire in the lowly desert bush — the emblem of Deity and Humanity of Christ — and the great name "I AM" proceeding out from the fire revealed this Almighty Power to Moses. If it's done in the flesh, it will consume the person, i.e., "the bush"; however, if it's done by the Power of the Holy Spirit, the bush will burn and not be consumed.)

[3] And Moses said, I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt.

[4] And when the LORD saw that he (Moses) turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he said, Here am I. (The Voice that called, "Moses, Moses," was the very same Voice that said, "Martha, Martha." Nothing can be more interesting or instructive than the mode in which Jehovah was pleased to reveal Himself to Moses.)

[5] And He (God) said, Draw not near hither: put off your shoes from off your feet, for the place whereon you stand is Holy ground. (Wherever God is, that place is Holy. And it is Holy only as long as God is there.)

[6] Moreover He said, I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob (the God of the Covenants given unto these men). And Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look upon God. (As far as we know, this appearance by God to Moses was the first appearance since Jacob's going down into Egypt about 215 years before. As well, if it is to be noticed, the Lord didn't say, "I 'was' the God of Abraham..." etc., but "I 'am'...," proving that these Patriarchs were still alive, even though they had died physically a long time before.)

[7] And the LORD said, I have surely seen the affliction of My People which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows (the Lord has "seen," He has "heard," and He "knows")**;

[8] And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians (Egypt was a type of the world; "the Lord delivers us from this present evil world"; he does so by the means of the Cross [Gal. 1:4]), and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey (the Lord delivers us from something [sin], and thereby to something [Salvation], typified by Canaanland); unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites. (While Egypt represents the world, these various tribes which then occupied the Promised Land typify "flesh" which endeavors to hinder the Believer. All victory is won by and through Christ and the Cross.)

THE COMMISSION

[9] Now therefore, behold, the cry of the Children of Israel is come unto Me: and I have also seen the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them. (Henry says concerning this: "As the poorest of the oppressed are not below God's cognizance, so the highest and greatest of their oppressors are not above His check, but He will surely visit for these things.")

10 Come now therefore, and I will send you unto Pharaoh, that you may bring forth My People the Children of Israel out of Egypt. (With one man, the Lord would deliver nearly 3 million of His people out of the mightiest nation on Earth, determined to hold them captive. It is the same presently! All the Lord needs is one man, or woman, who will be willing to preach His Word, and deliverance will be effected, even for the hardest cases. God is able!)

11 And Moses said unto God, Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the Children of Israel out of Egypt? (The carnal mind is not subject to the Law of God, neither indeed can be. The very Moses, who in 2:11-13 stepped forward with energy to champion his people, is the very same Moses, who in 3:11-13 steps back and declares himself unequal to the task. Faith neither steps forward nor backward, but holds the Hand which says: "Certainly I will be with you.")

12 And he said, Certainly I will be with you; and this shall be a token unto you, that I have sent you: When you have brought forth the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God upon this mountain (Mount Sinai, where the Law was given, and which happened exactly as the Lord said it would).

13 And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the Children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers has sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is His Name? what shall I say unto them? (The human heart is full of questions; consequently, it reasons and questions when unhesitating obedience is that which is due to God; and still more marvelous is the Grace that bears with all the reasonings and answers all the questions. To the Israelites, God had been known by titles, such as "El" or "Elohim," which mean "The Lofty One"; or "Shaddai," which means "The Powerful"; or "Jahveh" or "Jehovah," "The Existent One." However, these Names were more descriptions than anything else.)

14 And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and He said, Thus shall you say unto the Children of Israel, I AM has sent me unto you. (Dr. Pentecost translated the Name, "I was, I am, and I shall always continue to be." I am whatever you need!)

15 And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shall you say unto the Children of Israel, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me unto you: this is My Name for ever, and this is My Memorial unto all generations. (The Lord reminds Moses to tell Israel that He is the same One Who spoke to the Patriarchs and, as well, that this Name, "I AM THAT I AM," will be His Name forever. He changes not; He is the same yesterday, and today, and forever. His Name is Jesus; and that is God's greatest Name!)

16 Go, and gather the Elders of Israel together, and say unto them, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared unto me, saying, I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt (God sees everything that is done to His children, be it negative or positive)**:

17 And I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey. (Before, Moses had made the plans [when he killed the Egyptian], and they could not succeed. Now, God makes the plans, and they are guaranteed of success.)

18 And they shall hearken to your voice (this was the Message; and Moses' faith in delivering it was strengthened beforehand by the Divine assurance that it would be believed): and you shall come, you and the Elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt, and you shall say unto him, the LORD God of the Hebrews has met with us: and now let us go, we beseech you, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God. (The three days' journey was not deceitfully proposed by God, but furnished as a test for Pharaoh.)

19 And I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, not by a mighty hand. (Through foreknowledge, God knew that Pharaoh would not allow the Children of Israel to leave.)

20 And I will stretch out My Hand, and smite Egypt with all My Wonders which I will do in the midst thereof: and after that he will let you go. (The Lord would use Pharaoh's obstinate heart to serve as a warning of the Power and Glory of God to all the surrounding nations.)

21 And I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians: and it shall come to pass, that, when you go, you shall not go empty (God planned that His people should receive proper wages for all their hard labor before leaving Egypt, and so they did!)**:

22 But every woman shall borrow (ask) of her neighbor, and of her who sojourns in her house, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: and you shall put them upon your sons, and upon your daughters; and you shall spoil the Egyptians. (Upon hearing this, I'm sure the Elders of Israel must have been somewhat surprised! They couldn't imagine Pharaoh letting them go, much less loading them down with jewels and raiment, etc. However, whatever God says that He will do, irrespective as to how preposterous it might seem at the beginning, how unlikely, how virtually impossible, to be sure will come to pass. God cannot lie!)

CHAPTER 4

THE ROD

1 And Moses answered and said, But, behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The LORD has not appeared unto you. (The hesitating and timid Moses of Mount Horeb was the same courageous and self-reliant Moses who smote the Egyptian dead! His strength then unfitted him as a Divine instrument, and now his weakness unfits him — Williams.)

2 And the LORD said unto him, What is that in your hand? And he said, A rod. (The "rod," within itself, was nothing!)

3 And He (God) said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from before it. (By the rod turning to a serpent, a venomous one at that, Moses, in essence, was being told that he was going to come up against the powers of darkness. Egypt was actually ruled by demon spirits, which worked through Pharaoh and the magicians, etc. It was a nation wholly taken over by demon spirits, and ruled thereby.)

4 And the LORD said unto Moses, Put forth your hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand (this told Moses that he had power over Satan)**:

5 That they may believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared unto you. (The Lord would help Moses, thereby letting the people know that he was functioning within the boundaries of the same Promises which God had given to the Patriarchs.)

6 And the LORD said furthermore unto him, Put now your hand into your bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom: and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous as snow. (Putting his hand into his bosom showed him what man is, a sinner, hence symbolized by leprosy.)

7 And he said, Put your hand into your bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again; and plucked it out of his bosom, and, behold, it was turned again as his other flesh. (Thus we see here, in this particular "sign," that which Jesus Christ can perform, as it regards the Salvation of the soul. He can cleanse from all sin, and He Alone can cleanse from all sin. While Christ is always the Source, the Cross is always the Means.)

8 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe you, neither hearken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign. (The only answer to the serpent, i.e., "Satan," and the sin which he causes, which is so hideous it can only be symbolized by the dread disease of "leprosy," is the Blood, the Precious Blood, of the Lord Jesus Christ, epitomized in the next Verse.)

9 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe also these two signs, neither hearken unto your voice, that you shall take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land: and the water which you take out of the river shall become blood upon the dry land. (The only answer to sin is the shed blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. The pronoun "they" refers to the Elders of the Israelites.)

10 And Moses said unto the LORD, O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither heretofore, nor since You have spoken unto Your Servant: but I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue. (Verses 10 through 12 portray the Call of God upon man. "I am not eloquent." And even if we were, it would not save anyone.)

11 And the LORD said unto him, Who has made man's mouth? or who makes the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD? (God could and would have cured the defect in Moses' speech, whatever it was; could and would have added eloquence to his other gifts, if he had even at this point yielded himself unreservedly to the Lord's guidance and heartily accepted his mission. Nothing is too hard for the Lord.)

12 Now therefore go, and I will be with your mouth, and teach you what you shall say.

13 And he said, O my Lord, send, I pray you, by the hand of him whom you will send. (Moses would feel safer leaning on the arm of Aaron than leaning on the arm of Jehovah! And yet Aaron was no real help to him, but the contrary; Aaron made the golden calf.)

AARON

14 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and he said, Is not Aaron the Levite your brother? I know that he can speak well. And also, behold, he comes forth to meet you: and when he sees you, he will be glad in his heart. (Nothing is more dishonoring to God, or more dangerous for us, than a mock humility. When we refuse to occupy a position which the Grace of God assigns us because of our not possessing certain virtues and qualifications, this is not humility, but rather unbelief!)

15 And you shall speak unto him, and put words in his mouth: and I will be with your mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what you shall do. (The Lord would give Moses the words to say, and it would be the duty of Aaron to accept what Moses said as Divine.)

16 And he shall be your spokesman unto the people: and he shall be, even he shall be to you instead of a mouth, and you shall be to him instead of God. (In other words, Moses speaking to Aaron was the same as God speaking to him.)

17 And you shall take this rod in your hand, wherewith you shall do signs. (In effect, the Lord is telling Moses that He could use anything, even a wooden stick. This should have made Moses very ashamed!)

18 And Moses went and returned to Jethro his father-in-law, and said unto him, Let me go, I pray you, and return unto my brethren which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace. (Had Moses left for Egypt without first notifying his father-in-law, it would have been grossly discourteous, and even the height of ingratitude. This act of Moses manifested his thoughtfulness of others and his appreciation of favors received.)

EGYPT

[19] And the LORD said unto Moses in Midian, Go, return into Egypt: for all the men are dead which sought your life. (From the way the Lord commands Moses here, it would seem that he was still reluctant to go. The Lord would reassure him by telling him that "all" the men in Egypt who sought to kill him from 40 years back were now dead. So, there need be no fear from this source; however, before we criticize the reluctance of Moses, we should look at ourselves first of all.)

[20] And Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of Egypt: and Moses took the rod of God in his hand. (His sons were Gershom [2:22], and Eliezer [18:4], the latter probably an infant. This "rod" is the same one of Verse 2, which had now become "the Rod of God," and because of the miracles of Verses 3 and 4. The Lord commands him to take this Rod to Egypt.)

[21] And the LORD said unto Moses, When you go to return into Egypt, see that you do all those wonders before Pharaoh, which I have put in your hand: but I will harden his heart, that he shall not let the People go. (The hardening of Pharaoh's heart doesn't mean that God tampered with Pharaoh's will, but rather, by foreknowledge, looked at the heart of the Monarch, and thereby knew what Pharaoh would do. God would simply supply the opportunity.)

[22] And you shall say unto Pharaoh, Thus sa ys the LORD, Israel is My son, even My firstborn (Pharaoh would understand this terminology fully, for he, himself, was called "Son of Ra")**:

[23] And I say unto you, Let My son go, that he may serve Me: and if you refuse to let him go, behold, I will kill your son, even your firstborn. (So, at the outset, Moses was to tell Pharaoh that if he didn't let the Children of Israel go, his firstborn would die. So, the Monarch was not without warning. At any point he could have repented, and his firstborn would have been spared, as well as the destruction of Egypt.)

24 And it came to pass by the way in the inn, that the LORD met him *(met Moses), and sought to kill him (threatened to kill the child; this was Eliezer, the infant; concerning this, Williams says: "Moses was commanded to announce to Pharaoh that Jehovah, the God of Israel, was about to slay his [Pharaoh's] son; but Moses had to learn that disobedience and rebellion in him was just as hateful as in Pharaoh; and that God, because of His nature, must judge with death sin wherever found").

25 Then Zipporah (the wife of Moses) took a sharp stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet, and said, Surely a bloody husband are you to me. (We find here that the wife of Moses was not too very much in sympathy with the things of God. So, Moses, not desiring to create a family problem, had evidently acquiesced to his wife, and had neglected to circumcise the baby boy.)

26 So He (God) let him (the child) go: then she said, A bloody husband you are, because of the circumcision. (Even though Zipporah circumcised the child, she, with anger and passion, declared that her husband's religion was a religion of blood, i.e., "of blood-stained rites." Thus, Moses had to learn that God would judge him before He judged Pharaoh, and that rebellion in the one was the same as rebellion in the other; and this lesson must have enabled Moses to proclaim this dreadful truth with the force of a personal experience — Williams.)

MOSES AND AARON

27 And the LORD said to Aaron, Go into the wilderness to meet Moses. And he went, and met him in the mount of God, and kissed him. (Aaron met Moses at Mount Sinai, perhaps very shortly after he received the revelation of the burning bush, etc. The brothers had been separated for some 40 years.)

28 And Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD Who had sent him, and all the signs which He had commanded him. (And now Aaron is to find out that he is to be the spokesman for Moses as it regards the tremendous confrontation, which would take place quite a number of times, between Moses and the Monarch of Egypt.)

29 And Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the Elders of the Children of Israel (the Scripture is silent regarding the trip to Egypt; the Scripture seems to indicate that Moses sent his wife and children back to Jethro [18:2])**:

30 And Aaron spoke all the words which the LORD had spoken unto Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people (the serpent, the leprous hand, and the blood, all observed by the Elders).

31 And the people believed: and when they heard that the LORD had visited the Children of Israel, and that He had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped. (Moses had said, "The people will not believe me." But the question was not as to whether they would believe him, but whether they would believe God. Their faith reached out at this time and, in fact, they did believe.)

CHAPTER 5

PHARAOH

1 And afterward Moses and Aaron went in, and told the Pharaoh (according to many authorities, the Pharaoh at that time was "Menephthap," the son and successor of "Rameses II"; history records that he was a weak individual, but, because of certain events, had an exalted opinion of himself; the close of Chapter 4 presents the people worshipping in believing joy; the close of Chapter 5 sets before the reader the same people filled with unbelieving bitterness; the glad tidings of Salvation is one thing; the struggle against the power that tries to keep the soul in bondage is quite another), Thus says the LORD God of Israel, Let My People go, that they may hold a feast unto Me in the wilderness. (If it is to be noticed, the Holy Spirit, in giving Moses direction regarding the Sacred Text, in no way recognizes the splendor of Egypt. The character of the Message that Moses was to deliver to Pharaoh was not calculated to compromise or pacify.)

2 And Pharaoh said, Who is the LORD, that I should obey His Voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, neither will I let Israel go. (Satan will not easily allow his captives to go free; and God permits the bitter experience of Satan's power in order to exercise and strengthen Faith. Mackintosh says: "When we contemplate Israel amid the brick kilns of Egypt, we behold a graphic figure of the condition of every child of Adam's fallen race by nature. There they were, crushed beneath the enemy's galling yoke, and having no power to deliver themselves. The mere mention of the word 'liberty' only caused the oppressor to bind his captives with a stronger fetter, and to lade them with a still more grievous burden. Consequently, it was absolutely necessary that deliverance should come from without." Nevertheless, Pharaoh will soon find out exactly "Who is the Lord!")

3 And they (Moses and Aaron) said, The God of the Hebrews has met with us: let us go, we pray you, three days' journey into the desert, and sacrifice unto the LORD our God; lest He fall upon us with pestilence, or with the sword. (This simple statement tells us, even as given to Moses by the Lord, that it is the Cross only which holds back the Judgment of God. In other words, the only thing standing between man and Hell is the Cross of Christ.)

HARDENED HEART

4 And the king of Egypt said unto them, Why do you, Moses and Aaron, let the people from their works? get you unto your burdens. (They will now find that the burdens are increased. As the Children of Israel, it seems that many do not too very much mind being slaves to Satan, until the burdens become so heavy that they cannot be borne. Invariably, that will happen!)

5 And Pharaoh said, Behold, the people of the land now are many (the Israelites), and you make them rest from their burdens.

6 And Pharaoh commanded the same day the taskmasters of the people, and their officers, saying,

7 You shall no more give the people straw to make brick, as heretofore: let them go and gather straw for themselves. (Oftentimes, the setting to carry out the Will of God will result in Satan's anger, with opposition being increased.)

8 And the tale (number) of the bricks, which they did make heretofore, you shall lay upon them; you shall not diminish ought thereof: for they be idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our God. (At the mention of Sacrifice, Pharaoh increased the pressure and the workload, almost to a killing pace. When the Believer first begins to hear the Message of the Cross, he will find the opposition of Satan greatly increasing. This will be confusing at first, but the Believer should take heart. The enemy does this because he knows the Believer has now found the source of victory; therefore, he seeks to move the Believer's faith from the Cross to other things, by discouragement, etc.)

9 Let there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labor therein; and let them not regard vain words. (Pharaoh regarded the offering of "Sacrifices" as "vain words." Regrettably, much of the modern Church does the same, as it regards the Cross.)

10 And the taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spoke to the people, saying, Thus sa ys Pharaoh, I will not give you straw.

11 Go ye, get you straw where you can find it: yet not ought of your work shall be diminished. (Even though you have to get the straw yourselves, you must turn out just as much work as previously.)

12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble instead of straw. (It is good for a man to learn painfully the nature of sin's dominion, and his absolute helplessness in the grip of that monarch.)

13 And the taskmasters hasted them, saying, Fulfill your works, your daily tasks, as when there was straw. (The first move of Israel toward deliverance plunged her into deeper misery so that the people would have preferred being left quiet in their slavery. This is oftentimes the spiritual experience of awakened sinners, or even awakened Christians to the Message of the Cross.)

14 And the officers of the Children of Israel, which Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherefore have you not fulfilled your task in making brick both yesterday and today, as heretofore? (Satan wanted them to be willing to remain as slaves in Egypt. He almost succeeded!)

15 Then the officers of the Children of Israel came and cried unto Pharaoh, saying, Why do you deal thus with your servants? (Instead of crying unto the Lord, these leaders of the Israelites turned unto Pharaoh for relief. So often we as modern Believers follow suit. We appeal to man instead of God.)

16 There is no straw given unto your servants, and they say to us, Make brick: and, behold, your servants are beaten; but the fault is in your own people. (The natural man ever prefers to lean upon an arm of flesh than be supported by Him Who is invisible.)

17 But he (Pharaoh) said, You are idle, you are idle: therefore you say, Let us go and do Sacrifice to the LORD. (It is the "Sacrifice" which rankled Pharaoh, even though he would not have been aware as to what exactly it all meant. The Cross always rankles Satan.)

18 Go therefore now, and work; for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall you deliver the tale (number) of bricks. (We should learn that it's not Scriptural for us to make plans and then ask God to bless those plans. If God makes the plans, they are assured of blessing. So, leave Pharaoh alone, and depend exclusively on the Lord for all that is to be done.)

MOSES

19 And the officers of the Children of Israel did see that they were in evil case, after it was said, You shall not minish (reduce) ought from your bricks of your daily task.

20 And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh:

21 And they said unto them, The LORD look upon you, and judge; because you have made our savour to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to kill us. (Moses was no doubt prepared for the rebuff which he had himself received from Pharaoh, for the Lord had plainly said that He would harden the king's heart. But, so far as the inspired record informs us, nothing has been told him that he would meet with discouragement and opposition from his own brethren. A real testing was this for God's servant, for it is far more trying to be criticized by our own Brethren, by those whom we are anxious to help, than it is to be persecuted by the world.)

22 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, LORD, wherefore have You so evil entreated this people? why is it that You have sent me? (The second sentence of this Verse should read: "Lord, wherefore have you suffered Your people to be so evil entreated?")

23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in Your Name, he has done evil to this people; neither have You delivered Your People at all. (The opposition of Pharaoh, and the unbelief and anger of Israel, were a double discouragement for Moses.)

CHAPTER 6

[1] Then the LORD said unto Moses, Now shall you see what I will do to Pharaoh: for with a strong hand shall He (the Lord) let them go, and with a strong hand shall He (the Lord) drive them out of his (Pharaoh's) land. (As stated here, the "Strong Hand" is not Pharaoh's, but God's. In essence, the Lord is saying, "By means of My Strong Hand [or "overpowering might"] laid upon him shall he be induced to let them go.)

[2] And God spoke unto Moses, and said unto him, I am the LORD (concerning all of this, Pink says: "There is much for us to learn in this; we defeat ourselves by being occupied with the difficulties of the way; God has made known to us the triumphant outcome of good over evil and, instead of being harassed by the fiery darts which the Evil One now hurls against us, we ought to rest on the assuring Promise that 'The God of Peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly'" [Rom. 16:20])**:

[3] And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty ("All-Sufficient One"), but by My Name JEHOVAH was I not known to them. (In fact, the Name "Jehovah" was used from the very beginning; however, the full meaning of it was not made known unto Israel until it was time to fulfill the Promises and Covenants with them as a nation.)

[4] And I have also established My Covenant with them (instead of turning away from so unbelieving and petulant a people, God, in His love, pity, and Grace, encourages them and Moses by telling them Who He was, What He was, and What He would do), to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers. (As we have stated, they must not look at the difficulties, and neither must we. We must instead look at the Promise.)

5 And I have also heard the groaning of the Children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage; and I have remembered My Covenant. (Five times He declares that He is "Jehovah" [Vss. 2-3, 6-8]; and seven times He utters the great words, "I will," [Vss. 6-8]; and three times He declares, "I have," [Vss. 4-5].)

6 Wherefore say unto the Children of Israel, I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judgments (this is a perfect example of the Believer held in bondage; the Believer is being held captive by an intelligent force, namely Satan and his demon spirits; consequently, these evil powers do not yield to the Band-Aids of man; they will only yield to a superior force, and the only superior force in the universe is the Lord Jesus Christ; the Source of deliverance is always Christ, while the Means of deliverance is always the Cross [Col. 2:14-15])**:

7 And I will take you to Me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and you shall know that I am the LORD your God, which brings you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. (This was all done, in essence, by the Cross, of which the slain lamb and the blood applied to the doorposts were symbols [12:3, 7, 13].)

8 And I will bring you in unto the land, concerning the which I did swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it you for a heritage: I am the LORD. (If we can believe it, He can do it.)

9 And Moses spoke so unto the Children of Israel: but they hearkened not unto Moses for anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage. (Hope deferred makes the heart sick. The Israelites, who had expected a speedy deliverance, and found themselves the more downtrodden for Moses' interference, were too much dispirited to be cheered even by the gracious Promises and Assurances which Moses was commissioned to give. The Samaritan version of this account says: "And they said to Moses, Let us alone, let us serve the Egyptians; for it is better for us to serve the Egyptians than die in a wilderness."

Lest we think of the Israelites too harshly, we should look at ourselves. As evidenced here, the Promises of God do not mean a problem-free environment. The Lord allows the problems to teach us trust and obedience. But all too often we allow the problems to stop us from receiving God's best.)

10 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

11 Go in, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he let the Children of Israel go out of his land. (Moses is to continue to demand of Pharaoh that he let Israel go. And that's the same thing that we must do as Believers. Because the demon forces of darkness do not yield at the beginning does not mean they aren't going to yield. We are to stand our ground, keep believing that what Jesus did at the Cross is sufficient, which it most certainly is, and keep commanding the Evil One to go.)

12 And Moses spoke before the LORD, saying, Behold, the Children of Israel have not hearkened unto me; how then shall Pharaoh hear me, who is of uncircumcised lips? (Moses is speaking of his inability to speak properly. Concerning this, Matthew Henry says: "Though our infirmities ought to humble us, yet they ought not to discourage us from doing our very best in any service we have to do for God. His strength is made perfect in our weakness.")

13 And the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Aaron, and gave them a charge unto the Children of Israel, and unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the Children of Israel out of the land of Egypt. (The Lord seemingly ignored the complaint of Moses, rather giving a "charge" to both Moses and Aaron. That "charge" is incumbent upon us presently, as well! We are to stand upon the Promises of God, and command Satan to leave that which God has promised to us. All of this is a perfect example to us.)

GENEALOGIES

14 These be the heads of their fathers' houses: The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel; Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi: these be the families of Reuben.

15 And the sons of Simeon; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman: these are the families of Simeon.

16 And these are the names of the sons of Levi according to their generations; Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari: and the years of the life of Levi were an hundred thirty and seven years.

17 The sons of Gershon; Libni, and Shimi, according to their families.

18 And the sons of Kohath; Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel: and the years of the life of Kohath were an hundred thirty and three years.

19 And the sons of Merari; Mahali and Mushi: these are the families of Levi according to their generations.

20 And Amram took him Jochebed his father's sister to wife; and she bore him Aaron and Moses: and the years of the life of Amram were an hundred and thirty and seven years.

21 And the sons of Izhar; Korah, and Nepheg, and Zichri.

22 And the sons of Uzziel; Mishael, and Elzaphan, and Zithri.

24 And the sons of Korah; Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph: these are the families of the Korhites.

25 And Eleazar Aaron's son took him one of the daughters of Putiel to wife; and she bore him Phinehas: these are the heads of the fathers of the Levites according to their families. (The Grace that gave the Promises of the First Chapter records the names of those whom Pharaoh declared to be his slaves.)

[26] These are that Aaron and Moses, to whom the LORD said, Bring out the Children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their armies. (God numbers those who belong to Himself, and He calls them "My people," though they still were in the power of the enemy [5:1].)

[27] These are they which spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the Children of Israel from Egypt: these are that Moses and Aaron. (To make this Grace more amazing, the three Tribes of Reuben, Simeon, and Levi are chosen as representing the whole nation.)

[28] And it came to pass on the day when the LORD spoke unto Moses in the land of Egypt,

[29] That the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, I am the LORD: speak thou unto Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say unto you. (Moses was not to add to, or subtract from, that which the Lord had said; and neither are we!)

[30] And Moses said before the LORD, Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh hearken unto me? (To these two, God would give the charge, and to these two would come the victory, despite the fact that Moses was a man of "uncircumcised lips.")

CHAPTER 7

(1491 B.C.)

PHARAOH

[1] And the LORD said unto Moses, See, I have made you a god to Pharaoh: and Aaron your brother shall be your prophet. (Moses having declared that he was of "uncircumcised lips," that is, that he was wanting in eloquence, Grace once more pitied his fears, and Aaron is appointed to be his prophet, i.e., "his spokesman.")

[2] You shall speak all that I command you (the Word of God Alone holds the answer): and Aaron your brother shall speak unto Pharaoh, that he send the Children of Israel out of his land. (The weakness of the instrument was fully manifested that it might the better be seen that the power was in Jehovah Alone, and of Jehovah acting not so much in response to Faith, as in Covenant faithfulness and in sovereign Grace.)

[3] And I will harden Pharaoh's heart (the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart, by providing the means for the monarch to do so; in fact, He does the same with all; some accept the Lord, while some rebel, even as did Pharaoh), and multiply My Signs and My Wonders in the land of Egypt. (It is God's purpose that Israel shall be preeminent in the Earth; and, therefore, everyone who presumes to stand in the way of that preeminence must be set aside. Divine Grace must find its object; and everyone who would act as a barrier in the way of that Grace must be taken out of the way, whether it be Egypt, Babylon, or "the beast that was, is not, and yet is"; it matters not. Divine Power will clear the channel for Divine Grace to flow and eternal woe be to all who stand in the way. The Palestinians should read these words very carefully.)

[4] But Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you (through foreknowledge, the Lord knew this), that I may lay My Hand upon Egypt, and bring forth

My Armies, and My People the Children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments. (The idea is, Pharaoh would not yield, would not give in, would not heed the voice of God, as given him through Moses and Aaron, so the Lord turns the tables on him, using his obstinacy to further the Glory of God.)

5 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I stretch forth My Hand upon Egypt, and bring out the Children of Israel from among them. (He will allow Egypt to do her worst, to put forth her best, to use all the power that she possessed, to keep the Children of Israel as slaves, but, despite this power, the Lord will prevail.)

6 And Moses and Aaron did as The LORD commanded them, so did they. (That's all the Lord requires of us, as well!)

7 And Moses was fourscore years old (80 years old), and Aaron fourscore and three years old (83 years old), when they spoke unto Pharaoh.

THE SERPENT

8 And the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying (Verses 8 and 9 portray the beginning of miracles, at least as it regards Egypt; each miracle was designed by God to embarrass and show the utter helplessness of Egypt's gods against the God of Israel)**,

9 When Pharaoh shall speak unto you, saying, show a miracle for you: then you shall say unto Aaron, Take your rod, and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shall become a serpent. (This is the first miracle, but yet it is not counted among the ten which would affect Egypt. The first miracle that would affect Egypt, which would be the first of the ten, would be the turning of all water to blood, including the mighty Nile River. The serpent is a type of Satan. The Lord was saying by this rod turning to a serpent that the kingdom of Egypt was Satanic.)

10 And Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh, and they did so as the LORD had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it became a serpent. (Let the Reader understand that this happened exactly as the Word of God said it happened. To deny that is to deny God!)

[11] Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers: now the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments. (This proclaims the fact that these magicians did actually bring about this miracle, in which Satan himself helped them.)

[12] For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents: but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods. (The only power on Earth that is greater than the power of Satan is the Power of God, evidenced here by "Aaron's rod swallowing up their rod," i.e., "the serpent.")

[13] And He (God) hardened Pharaoh's heart, that he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said (7:3-4).

[14] And the LORD said unto Moses, Pharaoh's heart is hardened, he refuses to let the people go. (Satan does not give in easily, as should be obvious.)

[15] Get thee unto Pharaoh in the morning; lo, he goes out unto the water; and you shall stand by the river's brink against he come; and the rod which was turned to a serpent shall you take in your hand. (This would be the scene of the first miracle designed to affect Egypt.)

[16] And you shall say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews has sent me unto you, saying, Let My People go, that they may serve Me in the wilderness: and, behold, hitherto you would not hear.

[17] Thus says the LORD, In this you shall know that I am the LORD (will see His miracle-working power): behold, I will smite with the rod that is in my hand upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to blood. (The Nile is a large river, so this must have seemed totally preposterous to Pharaoh. The necessity of the shed blood of Christ seems preposterous to the world; nevertheless, it is true.)

[18] And the fish that is in the river shall die (at least three species of the Nile fish were sacred — the "oxyrhineus," the "lepidotus," and the "phagrus"; in fact, the River Nile was worshipped by the Egyptians under various names and symbols; it was called the "father of life," and the "father of the gods"; thus, this miracle was a blow to the gods of Egypt), and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall loathe to drink of the water of the river.

BLOOD

19 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take your rod, and stretch out your hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their streams, upon their rivers, and upon their ponds, and upon all their pools of water, that they may become blood; and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone. (The Egyptians abhorred blood, and their horror must have been extreme when they saw that their sacred river, and all other water in their country, turned to blood. Again, let it be emphasized that this literally happened.)

20 And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood.

21 And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river; and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

22 And the magicians of Egypt did so with their enchantments: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, neither did he hearken unto them; as the LORD had said. (We find that the effect on Pharaoh's heart was to harden it. Such is the incurable hatred of the natural heart that Divine judgments harden instead of subdue it.)

23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he set his heart to this also. (He refused to yield!)

[24] And all the Egyptians dug round about the river for water to drink; for they could not drink of the water of the river.

[25] And seven days were fulfilled (the blood remained for that long), after that the LORD had smitten the river (the number "seven" indicates that God will be fully able to accomplish what He has declared).

CHAPTER 8

FROGS

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, Go unto Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus says the LORD, Let My People go, that they may serve Me. (This Verse, as others, portrays the demand by God to Satan, "Let My people go, that they may serve Me." This is the only power that Satan recognizes. The Church flounders helplessly when it uses the "ways of Egypt" to attempt to deliver men from Egypt. It simply cannot be done. Only God can deliver.)

[3] And the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into your house, and into your bedchamber, and upon your bed, and into the house of your servants, and upon your people, and into your ovens, and into your kneadingtroughs (due to the fact that the frog was a god to the Egyptians, they could not kill them, but yet the frogs drove them to the point of insanity; their animal-worship was thus proved absurd and ridiculous; the type of frog that invaded Egypt at that time has the scientific name of "Rana Mosaica," and resembles our toad, and is a disgusting object, which crawls rather than leaps, and croaks perpetually)**:

[4] And the frogs shall come up both on you, and upon your people, and upon all your servants (the frogs coming up on Pharaoh proved the helplessness of his claim as a "god")**.

[5] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch forth your hand with your rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt.

6 And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt (over the entirety of the land, with the exception of Goshen, where the Children of Israel resided [Vs. 22]).

7 And the magicians did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt (considering that the land was literally inundated with frogs, I'm sure the people really appreciated the Egyptian magicians bringing even more frogs on the scene).

8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Intreat the LORD, that He may take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice unto the LORD (this request by Pharaoh was an admission that the Lord was greater than all the gods of Egypt; this is the first time that he had sent for Moses and Aaron).

9 And Moses said unto Pharaoh, Glory over me (of what do I have this honor?): when shall I intreat for you, and for your servants, and for your people, to destroy the frogs from you and your houses, that they may remain in the river only? (Even though the Scripture is silent regarding this, it is more than likely possible that Pharaoh's magicians tried to take away the frogs, but could not succeed in doing so.)

10 And he said, Tomorrow. (What a stupid answer! They could have been taken away immediately. One more night with the frogs.) And he said, Be it according to your word: that you may know that there is none like unto the LORD our God (and Pharaoh was helpless to contest this claim).

11 And the frogs shall depart from you, and from your houses, and from your servants, and from your people; they shall remain in the river only.

12 And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: and Moses cried unto the LORD because of the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh.

13 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields.

14 And they gathered them together upon heaps: and the land stank (hundreds of millions of frogs died at once, and one can well imagine the stench that filled the land).

15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was respite, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said. (With the plague of frogs lifted, Pharaoh reneges on his promise to let the people go, which is indicative of most of humanity. God is quickly forgotten when the judgment lifts.)

LICE

16 And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out your rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt (the hardened heart of the Monarch was answered by a plague of lice).

17 And they did so; for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and it became lice in man, and in beast; all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt. (When Aaron smote the ground, and its "dust" became lice, and the lice came upon the Egyptians, it was a graphic showing-forth of the awful fact that man by nature is under the curse of a thrice-Holy God.)

18 And the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not: so there were lice upon man, and upon beast. (By slight of hand, it was possible, it seems, for Jannes and Jambres, the lead magicians of Egypt, to turn rods into serpents, water into blood, and to bring up frogs out of the river; however, it was impossible for them to turn dust into lice. The only other living creature that the Bible says is made out of dust is man. Thus, they were helpless.)

19 Then the magicians said unto Pharaoh, This is the Finger of God (the term actually reads "of a God"; all that they meant to say was, "This is beyond the power of man — it is supernatural — some god must be helping the Israelites"): and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said. (As we shall see, the stubbornness of Pharaoh only falls out to a portrayal of the Power of God. Either way, some way, God is glorified!)

FLIES

[20] And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; lo, he comes forth to the water; and say unto him, Thus says the LORD, Let My People go, that they may serve Me.

[21] Else, if you will not let My People go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon you, and upon your servants, and upon your people, and into your houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are. (This miracle was designed to manifest the helplessness of Beelzebub, the god of flies, who was supposed to have power to prevent flies. The type of fly mentioned here is said to have been the "Blatta Orientalis." It was a kind of beetle, which inflicts very painful bites with their jaws. They also gnaw and destroy clothes, household furniture, leather, and articles of every kind, and either consume or render worthless all eatables. It is said they can even drive people out of their houses and, at the same time, devastate the fields.)

[22] And I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which My People dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end you may know that I am the LORD in the midst of the Earth. (The indication is that none of the plagues affected the Children of Israel, and neither were they meant to affect the Children of Israel.)

[23] And I will put a division between My People and your people: tomorrow shall this sign be. (That "division" is still maintained by the Lord as it regards the world and His people. While the Lord may chastise His people, He never sends judgment, because such judgment was tendered at Calvary.)

[24] And the LORD did so; and there came a grievous swarm of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt: the land was corrupted by reason of the swarm of flies. (This means all the crops were lost, plus all the grass eaten. In other words, Egypt was left denuded, with the exception of Goshen.)

25 And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land. (This is the first compromise made by Pharaoh: "Sacrifice to your God in the land." It is Satan's trick that the Believer be not only in the world, but, as well, of the world.)

26 And Moses said, It is not meet (possible) to do so; for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God: lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us? (Pharaoh knew this, as well!)

27 We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as He shall command us. (Moses did not take the bait.)

28 And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only you shall not go very far away: intreat for me. (This was the second compromise! Go, but not very far away. As Believers, we must never forget that one of the great themes of the Bible is "separation.")

29 And Moses said, Behold, I go out from you, and I will intreat the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, tomorrow: but let not Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.

30 And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and intreated the LORD (asked the Lord to remove the flies).

31 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and He removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; there remained not one. (In fact, everything the Lord did in this situation, in one way or the other, constituted a miracle. There were billions of flies, buzzing, gnawing, and eating; and then the next moment there wasn't even "one.") 32 And Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

CHAPTER 9

(1491 B.C.)

THE CATTLE

[1] Then the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let My People go, that they may serve Me. (This Chapter portrays the plagues of God deepening in their intensity. When they are concluded, mighty Egypt will be seriously affected. The Lord God of Heaven was not ashamed to call Himself "the Lord God of the Hebrews," individuals who were slaves. He calls them "My people.")

[2] For if you refuse to let them go, and will hold them still (a people still amid the defilements and abominations of Egypt could not have been a witness for the Holy One; nor can anyone now, while mixed up with the defilements of a corrupt, worldly religion, possibly be a bright and steady witness for a crucified and risen Christ)**,

[3] Behold, the Hand of the LORD is upon your cattle which is in the field (did not include those in stalls, etc.), upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep: there shall be a very grievous murrain (their three popular gods were the bull, the cow, and the ram; "murrain" means a plague that kills).

[4] And the LORD shall sever between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt (the word "cattle" stood for all type of domestic animals): and there shall nothing die of all that is the Children's of Israel. (All of this affords a striking demonstration of the absolute rulership of God. He completely controls every creature He has made. The herds of the Egyptians might be dying all around them, but the cattle of Israel were as secure as though there had been no epidemic at all.

There is a spiritual meaning and application to all of this. And it is that meaning that we here, as Believers under the New Covenant, must derive.

This world and all its works will be destroyed — as completely as were the beasts of Egypt. By contrast, the sparing of the cattle of the Israelites intimates that the works of the new nature in the Believer will "abide" [I Cor. 3:14].)

5 And the LORD appointed a set time, saying, Tomorrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land. (If it is to be noticed, the Lord gave time to Pharaoh to repent, in other words, to obey in allowing Israel to leave before He brought this other plague on the land. But all were to no avail.)

6 And the LORD did that thing on the morrow, and all the cattle of Egypt died *(all domestic animals): but of the cattle of the Children of Israel died not one.

7 And Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go. (The Cross of Christ has not only put away the Believer's sins, but also dissolved forever our connection with the world; and, on the ground of this, we are privileged to regard the world as a crucified thing, and to be regarded by it as a crucified one [Gal. 2:20]. Thus, it stands with the Believer and the world — it is crucified to him and he to it. This is the real, dignified position of every true Believer. And, to be sure, this position will ultimately guarantee release from all of Satan's bondages.)

BOILS

8 And the LORD said unto Moses and unto Aaron, Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the Heaven in the sight of Pharaoh. (The "furnace" mentioned here was probably the furnace where human victims to the god Typhon were offered in sacrifice. These victims were offered in order to avert plagues.)

9 And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and shall be a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt. (If the sacrifices of human victims among the Egyptians were offered to avert plagues, the ashes which Moses was ordered by the Lord to scatter instead of doing so brought a fresh plague, which proclaims the helplessness of these demon gods.)

[10] And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it up toward Heaven; and it became a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast. (This was the sixth plague, and was brought about without any notice. It was also, like the third, a plague which inflicted direct injury upon the person. As well, this plague proclaims the fact that the Lord can send sickness upon individuals, if He so desires. While all sickness and death are the result of the Fall, still, the Lord has total control of these things, as should be obvious.)

[11] And the magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils; for the boil was upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians. (The magicians made no attempt to exert their so-called magical powers, and for all the obvious reasons. The boils were upon Pharaoh as well. But, instead of it causing him to humble himself before God, it seemed to have the very opposite effect.)

[12] And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had spoken unto Moses. (Once again, the Lord provided the means for Pharaoh to harden his own heart. The Lord did not tamper with the will of the Monarch in all of this. In other words, Pharaoh was not forced by the Lord to take the position which he took. All of this was of his own volition.)

HAIL

[13] And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let My People go, that they may serve Me. (In all of this, we learn that Satan does not let God's people go easily. In other words, when the Believer first begins to hear the Message of the Cross, and this great truth is made real to his heart, and he realizes through the Cross that he can be free from the dominion of sin, Satan always puts up quite a fight in order to discourage such a Believer from continuing on this course of victory. All of this concerning the Children of Israel and Pharaoh's obstinacy portray the example. But, as the example continues, if the Believer will persevere, total and complete victory will be his [Rom. 6:14; 8:1-2, 11].)

[14] For I will at this time send all My Plagues upon your heart, and upon your servants, and upon your people; that you may know that there is none like Me in all the Earth. (With Pharaoh failing to respond to Mercy and Grace, the Lord resorts to judgment, i.e., "plagues," and first of all for the purpose that Egypt, and all the other surrounding nations, might know that their gods, whatever they were, were nothing but fanciful objects and, in reality, there was only one God, i.e., "Jehovah.")

[15] For now I will stretch out My Hand, that I may smite you and your people with pestilence; and you shall be cut off from the Earth. (God will further show Pharaoh that He is the Supreme One over the elements, and that they, under His Will and Command, can be either instruments of blessing or destruction. Actually, this Verse proclaims Grace, for it gave Pharaoh warning.)

[16] And in very deed for this cause have I raised you up, for to show in you My Power; and that My Name may be declared throughout all the Earth. (Up until now, Jehovah was known only to the descendants of Abraham. But now, and because of the obstinacy of Pharaoh, all the nations in that vicinity would learn Who Jehovah was, and eventually the entirety of the Earth, which is now the case.)

[17] As yet you exalt yourself against My People, that you will not let them go? (As stated, Satan does not give up easily; however, if the Believer will keep his Faith in Christ and the Cross, to be sure, ultimately victory will be his [I Jn. 5:4].)

[18] Behold, tomorrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as has not been in Egypt since the foundation thereof even until now. (The Lord gives warning as to when the next plague was going to come — tomorrow. Once again, this is Grace.)

19 Send therefore now, and gather your cattle, and all that you have in the field; for upon every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall die.

20 He who feared the Word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses (those who believed the Word of the Lord, and feared it, would get under shelter; he who did not regard the Word of the Lord would ignore the shelter — but to their peril; it is the same presently; they who believe the Word give their hearts to Christ; they who do not, ignore that Word, and to their peril)**:

21 And he who regarded not the Word of the LORD left his servants and his cattle in the field. (It would seem strange, and considering the miracles of the recent past, that anyone in Egypt would still be in a state of unbelief; however, this Passage plainly tells us that such persons existed. It is the same presently!)

22 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch forth your hand toward Heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt. (Whatever crops there were in Egypt at that time were totally and completely destroyed, along with all cattle and sheep which were left unattended.)

23 And Moses stretched forth his rod toward Heaven: and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground; and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt. (This "hail" was mingled with fire, such as Egypt, and no doubt the world, had never seen.)

24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. (As the "boils" were physical portrayals of the spiritual morality of unredeemed man, likewise, this judgment was expressive of the wrath of a Holy and sin-hating God.)

25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail smote every herb of the field, and broke every tree of the field. (This plague of "thunder, hail, and fire" was directed against "Isis" and "Osiris," the gods of light, health, fertility, arts, and agriculture. Water, fire, earth, and air were all objects of Egyptian idolatry. God showed Pharaoh and his people that He was the Supreme One over these elements, and that, instead of helping the Egyptians, they, under God's Will and Command, were instruments of destruction.)

[26] Only in the land of Goshen, where the Children of Israel were, was there no hail. (The only thing that stands between man and Hellfire is the Cross of Christ.)

[27] And Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, I have sinned this time: the LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked. (While the right words were said, it was an insincere repentance. He was only admitting what was obviously the truth. He didn't intend to change his ways. True Repentance is a turning from the wrong direction to the right direction. And Repentance cannot be true unless Faith is anchored in Christ and the Cross, of which the Sacrifices which Moses demanded were a symbol.)

[28] Intreat the LORD (for it is enough) that there be no more mighty thunderings and hail; and I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer. (His words were hollow, and because his repentance was insincere.)

[29] And Moses said unto him, As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands unto the LORD; and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that you may know how that the Earth is the LORD's. (As Pharaoh would not admit that the Earth is the Lord's, neither will modern man.)

[30] But as for you and your servants, I know that you will not yet fear the LORD God. (Moses knew that the repentance of Pharaoh was surface only.)

[31] And the flax and the barley was smitten: for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was bolled (the "flax" and the "barley" harvests were lost, which no doubt caused great hardship in Egypt).

32 But the wheat and the rie were not smitten: for they were not grown up (were not yet planted; the previous two Verses tell us that the entirety of the time frame of the ten plagues probably was about three to four months in duration).

33 And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands unto the LORD: and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured upon the Earth. (Moses and Aaron evidently had some type of shelter over their heads to protect them as they left the palace, or else the Lord withheld the hail and rain from them wherever they went, which very well could have been the case.)

34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants. (Such is the state of many. They repent at the threat of judgment or its actual advent, but when it is lifted, they renege on their promise.)

35 And the heart of the Pharaoh was hardened, neither would he let the Children of Israel go; as the LORD had spoken by Moses. (A few days ago, I was praying for particular individuals, asking the Lord to warn them. He spoke to my heart, telling me, "I am warning them constantly, and in many and varied ways, but they will not see or listen.")

CHAPTER 10

LOCUSTS

[1] And the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh: for I have hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that I might show these My Signs before him (God used the stubbornness of the Monarch to reveal His Power; as shown here in Pharaoh, if a person wills resistance to God, the Lord Wills the ability to resist even more; if they will Righteousness, God Wills more Righteousness [Mat. 5:6])**:

[2] And that you may tell in the ears of your son, and of your son's son, what things I have wrought in Egypt, and My Signs which I have done among them; that you may know how that I am the LORD. (God would do such great things in this situation that even the Holy Spirit would constantly speak of this particular time in the centuries that followed. The Psalms proclaimed this fact [Ps. 78; 105; 106; 68:6-7; 77:14-20; 81:5-6; 124:1-3; 135:8-9; 136:10-15].)

[3] And Moses and Aaron came in unto Pharaoh, and said unto him, Thus sa ys the LORD God of the Hebrews, How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? let My People go, that they may serve Me. (This was the seventh and final time that God would make this demand. This Verse also presents the great question that God ever asks the human family, "How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me?")

[4] Else, if you refuse to let My People go, behold, tomorrow will I bring the locusts into your coast (the god Serapis was believed by the Egyptians to protect them from the locusts; this eighth plague struck at that belief)**:

[5] And they shall cover the face of the Earth, that one cannot be able to see the Earth: and they shall eat the residue of that which is escaped, which remains unto you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which grows for you out of the field (in other words, Egypt, for all practical purposes, would be completely destroyed):

6 And they shall fill your houses, and the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; which neither your fathers, nor your fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the Earth unto this day. And he (Moses) turned himself, and went out from Pharaoh (in other words, Moses didn't even wait for a response from Pharaoh).

7 And Pharaoh's servants said unto him, How long shall this man be a snare unto us? let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God: do you not know yet that Egypt is destroyed? (This Verse proclaims, for the first time, that Pharaoh's officers intervened and requested Pharaoh to yield.)

8 And Moses and Aaron were brought again unto Pharaoh: and he said unto them, Go, serve the LORD your God: but who are they who shall go? (There was no reason for this question, considering that the demand had been very clear in the past; everyone who pertained to Israel would go.)

9 And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we must hold a feast unto the LORD. (Every Believer should ask for, and claim, the Salvation of the entirety of his family, excluding none.)

10 And he (Pharaoh) said unto the them, Let the LORD be so with you, as I will let you go, and your little ones: look to it; for evil is before you. (In essence, Pharaoh, who concludes himself to be a god, pits himself against Jehovah. What a foolish move it would prove to be! The "evil" was not before Moses and Aaron, but before Pharaoh.)

11 Not so: go now you who are men, and serve the LORD (the third compromise is proposed by Pharaoh; he will let the men go to offer Sacrifice unto the Lord, but not the wives and children); for that you did desire. And they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence (dismissed with hostility).

12 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail has left (Mercy rejected, always and without exception, brings Judgment).

13 And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all that night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts (the wind blowing from the east all that day and all that night should have been a warning to Pharaoh; however, and as stated, he who wills resistance to God has resistance willed to him by God).

14 And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the coasts of Egypt: very grievous were they; before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such. (When the locusts had finished, there would not be a green thing left in Egypt. Such portrays the terrible devastation of sin.)

15 For they covered the face of the whole Earth, so that the land was darkened; and they did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left: and there remained not any green thing in the trees, or in the herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt. (If the officers of Pharaoh thought that Egypt was destroyed [Vs. 7], they now know that it is completely destroyed.)

16 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste; and he said, I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you. (How many hours or days the locusts plagued Egypt before Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron, we aren't told; however, it was probably only a few hours when Moses and Aaron were hastily called back. All sin, either directly or indirectly, is directed against God. It is an affront to His Holiness, His Righteousness, and to His very Being. It is the ruination of all that is good!)

17 Now therefore forgive, I pray you, my sin only this once, and intreat the LORD your God, that He may take away from me this death only. (The Monarch said the right words; however, once again, his confession was "a shallow-mouthed confession." The only answer for sin is the Cross of Christ.)

[18] And he (Moses) went out from Pharaoh, and intreated (requested of) the LORD.

[19] And the LORD turned a mighty strong west wind, which took away the locusts, and cast them into the Red Sea; there remained not one locust in all the coasts of Egypt. (As the Lord removed all the locusts, which were destroying Egypt, likewise, He can remove all sin and its effects. The requirement is that we fully trust Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross [Heb. 10:12].)

[20] But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the Children of Israel go. (Again we state, he who wills resistance against the Lord is willed more resistance by the Lord.)

DARKNESS

[21] And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out your hand toward Heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt. (This is the ninth plague, and it robs the Egyptians of their supreme god, the Sun, and proved Jehovah Alone to be God. The Sun was worshipped by the Egyptians under the title of "Ra." In fact, the name "Ra" came conspicuously forward in the title of the kings, Pharaoh, or rather "Phra," meaning "the Sun," which meant that Pharaoh was god. What a pitiful god he was!)

[22] And Moses stretched forth his hand toward Heaven; and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days (Moses stretching his hands toward Heaven signified that God was in complete and full charge, and not man; whatever man may say or do, Heaven will always have the final word)**:

[23] They saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days: but all the Children of Israel had light in their dwellings. (In Goshen, there was light. This was literal; however, it was, as well, meant by the Holy Spirit to symbolize the spiritual light which the Children of Israel did have, and which the Egyptians did not have.)

[24] And Pharaoh called unto Moses, and said, Go ye, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be stayed: let your little ones also go with you. (This was the fourth proposal by Pharaoh of compromise: A. "Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land" — 8:25; B. "Sacrifice to the Lord your God in the wilderness; only you shall not go very far away" — 8:28; C. "Go now you who are men [men only], and serve the Lord" — 10:11; and, D. "Go ye, serve the Lord; only let your flocks and your herds be stayed" — 10:24.)

[25] And Moses said, You must give us also sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice unto the LORD our God. (Moses turns down flat this offer by Pharaoh, and further demands that Pharaoh provide them with sheep for the Burnt Offerings.)

[26] Our cattle also shall go with us; there shall not a hoof be left behind (the Believer should not allow Satan to have any part of one's possessions); for thereof must we take to serve the LORD our God; and we know not with what we must serve the LORD, until we come thither. (The statement of this Verse points to a lesson true at all times. The second step in the spiritual life is not revealed until the first is taken [Jn. 7:17]. "Egypt" must be left, that is the first step, before the nature of spiritual worship, which is the second step, can be learned.)

[27] But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go.

[28] And Pharaoh said unto him, Get you from me, take heed to yourself, see my face no more; for in that day you see my face you shall die. (The reply of Pharaoh indicates violent anger.)

[29] And Moses said, You have spoken well, I will see your face again no more. (It is generally believed that Moses did not leave out of the presence of Pharaoh with these particular words, but continued to address the Monarch for some little time, actually his parting words being those which are given in Verses 4 through 8 of the next Chapter.)

CHAPTER 11

VALUABLES

[1] And the LORD said unto Moses, Yet will I bring one plague more upon Pharaoh, and upon Egypt (this tenth and last plague would touch the dearest of all in Egypt, the firstborn, and that from Pharaoh down; sin touches all!); afterwards he will let you go hence: when he shall let you go, he shall surely thrust you out hence altogether. (Egypt, by now, was wreckage. What had formerly been the most powerful nation on the face of the Earth was now virtually destroyed. Anyone or anything who and which sets themselves against God, no matter how strong, rich, or powerful, will face certain doom. As well, regarding the Believer who totally places his Faith and trust in Christ and what Christ has done at the Cross, to be sure, Satan will let them go. He has no choice [Rom. 6:14].)

[2] Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man borrow (ask) of his neighbour, and every woman of her neighbour, jewels of silver and jewels of gold. (The Hebrew word "Shaal," translated "borrow," actually should have been translated "ask." "Borrow" carries the connotation that the object obtained will be returned; however, Israel wasn't coming back into Egypt, so there was no thought of returning these items, and the Egyptians understood that as well! By the silver and gold being given to the Israelites in copious amounts, the Lord was paying Israel for their years of servitude; therefore, they left out of Egypt rich.)

[3] And the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people. (At the beginning, Moses was disdained; however, by the Power of God, the situation has radically changed. In the coming Kingdom Age, the world will look at all Believers in the same light that Egypt then looked at Moses.)

DEATH

4 And Moses said, Thus says the LORD (believed to have been spoken at the conclusion of the plague of darkness), About midnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt (Moses gives Pharaoh the final word from the Lord and, to be sure, it is a chilling assessment; truly it was "midnight" for Egypt; the day of Grace was over, and the final judgment is about to begin):

5 And all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits upon his throne, even unto the firstborn of the maidservant who is behind the mill; and all the firstborn of beasts. (The death of all the "firstborn" in Egypt constituted a severe blow. The monarchy was hereditary, and the oldest son was known as the "hereditary Crowned Prince." Estates descended to the oldest son and, in many cases, high dignities also. As well, it was believed by the Egyptians that their "afterlife" [life after death] continued through the firstborn. In other words, if the firstborn was lost, there was no afterlife. So, this "plague" was the greatest of all and, as well, the most far-reaching.)

6 And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it any more. (The "cry" that was registered in Egypt must not be blamed on a loving and compassionate God, but on the stubbornness of Pharaoh and, as well, of a hardhearted people. Men tend to blame God; however, if this situation is studied carefully, we find that God dealt with Egypt through Grace upon Grace, but they would not yield. In such cases, even the "judgment of God" must be concluded as Grace.)

7 But against any of the Children of Israel shall not a dog move his tongue, against man or beast: that you may know how that the LORD does put a difference between the Egyptians and Israel. (As is obvious here, there is a great "difference" between the Redeemed and the unredeemed. The former are protected by the Lord, while the latter enjoy no such protection.)

8 And all these your servants (Pharaoh's servants) shall come down unto me (to Moses), and bow down themselves unto me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people who follow you (get out of Egypt): and after that I will go out. And he (Moses) went out from Pharaoh in a great anger. (This Passage portrays Moses delivering the last message to Pharaoh. It is straight and to the point. Moses went out from the presence of Pharaoh with great anger, because he knew that all of this was so unnecessary. Hundreds of thousands would die, and the truth is, not one single person needed to die. Moses was angry at the stubbornness of the Monarch, who had watched Egypt, little by little, as it was destroyed, but who still refused to acquiesce to the demands of Almighty God.)

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you: that My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt. (The Lord would use the stubbornness of the Monarch to glorify the Power of God.)

10 And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh: and the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the Children of Israel go out of his land. (But the hour would shortly come when Pharaoh would have no choice; as well, Satan has no choice but to let go of the Believer who has placed his Faith exclusively in Christ and the Cross [Rom. 6:3-14].)

CHAPTER 12

(1491 B.C.)

THE PASSOVER

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt saying (this Chapter is a perfect picture of Christ, the True Pascal Lamb)**,

[2] This month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you. (The person doesn't really begin to live until he comes to Christ; as well, the Believer doesn't really begin to enjoy the "more abundant life" afforded him by Christ until he learns God's Prescribed Order of Victory, which is Faith in Christ and the Cross exclusively, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work, thereby bringing about the graces of the Fruit of the Spirit [Rom. 8:1-2, 11; Gal. 5:16-25]. All Believers have "more abundant life" [Jn. 10:10], but all Believers are not enjoying more abundant life and, in fact, cannot until they learn God's Prescribed Order of Victory, which is the Cross [I Cor. 1:17-18, 21, 23; 2:2; Gal. 6:14; Col. 2:14-15].)

[3] Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying (Another great lesson learned here is the fact that neither Moses nor Aaron introduced any legislation of their own, either at this time or later. The whole system, spiritual, political, and ecclesiastical, was received by Divine Revelation, commanded by God, and merely established by the agency of the two brothers. This proclaims the fact that Salvation is all of God and none of man. This problem presents itself when man attempts to insert his means and ways into that which God has devised, which, in fact, the modern Church is now doing), In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for an house: (In the Fourth Chapter of Genesis, it is a lamb for each person. Now it is a lamb for each house. Upon the giving of the Law, it would be a lamb for the entirety of the nation. But when Jesus came, He would be the Lamb for the entirety of the world [Jn. 1:29]. The offering up of the Lamb in Sacrifice was a Type of Christ, and what He would do at the Cross, all on our behalf. The lamb represented innocence and gentleness. The Prophets represented the tender compassion of God for His people under the figure of the Shepherd and the Lamb [Isa. 40:11], and ultimately the intention of God for His people used the lamb as an important symbol; therefore, the Lamb was a worthy symbol of our Saviour, Who, in innocence, patiently endured suffering as our Substitute [I Pet. 1:19].)

4 And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house take it according to the number of the souls; every man according to his eating shall make your count for the lamb. (Every person had to partake of the Passover. This was mandatory. Even though the lamb represented the entire house, it had to be partaken by each and every individual in that house. It is the same as it regards Salvation, which is always very personal.)

5 Your lamb shall be without blemish (Christ was without blemish, Who the lamb represented, "holy, harmless, undefiled" — a "lamb without spot" [I Pet. 1:19]), a male of the first year (meant to portray the virile manhood of Christ; in other words, He didn't die in the throes of old age, but rather in the prime of manhood): you shall take it out from the sheep, or from the goats (the "goats" then represented were different from our goats presently; then they were very similar to the sheep, actually, with their long flowing mane, even more beautiful than the sheep):

6 And you shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month (they were to select the animal on the tenth day, and then kill it on the fourteenth day [Vs. 3]; it was to be minutely inspected during these four days, that no trace of illness would be observed; representing Christ, it had to be perfect): and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening. (The actual Hebrew says, "between the two evenings," which was about 3 p.m. This was the exact time that Jesus died on the Cross of Calvary [Mat. 27:46].)

7 And they shall take of the blood (which represented the shed Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ), and strike it on the two side posts and on the upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it (eat the Passover; in I Corinthians 5:7-8, we have the Divine Authority for our regarding the contents of Exodus, Chapter 12, as typical of what our Blessed Saviour did on the Cross; at the deliverance of the Children of Israel from Egypt, the blood, which represented the shed Blood of Christ, was to be put on the side posts and the upper posts of the house; later, it would be applied to the Mercy Seat on the Great Day of Atonement; now, by Faith, it is applied to our hearts [Jn. 3:16; Eph. 2:13-18]).

[8] And they shall eat the flesh in that night (in essence, Jesus was referring to this in John 6:53-55; of course, He wasn't speaking of His flesh literally being eaten, but was speaking rather of our Faith in Him and what He would do for us at the Cross; our Faith must be in the entirety of His Finished Work), roast with fire (this spoke of the Judgment of God that would come upon Him as the Sin-Bearer, which was death, instead of us), and unleavened bread (this typified the Perfection of Christ; He was Holy, harmless, and undefiled [Heb. 7:26], of which the lack of leaven was a Type); and with bitter herbs they shall eat it (the "bitter herbs" were to remind the Children of Israel of the slavery which they had experienced in Egypt [Ex. 1:14]; as well, the Cross ever reminds us presently of that from which we were redeemed, abject slavery to Satan).

[9] Eat not of it raw, nor sodden at all with water (this speaks of accepting Christ, but without the Cross, which God cannot condone), but roast with fire (speaks of the Cross and the price paid there); his head with his legs, and with the purtenance thereof. (The purtenance pertained to the intestines, which were removed and washed, and then placed back in the animal and, as obvious here, to be eaten when the lamb was consumed. This speaks of partaking of all of the Cross. Sin goes to the very vitals; therefore, for sin to be properly addressed, and in every capacity, everything that Christ did at the Cross must be accepted, and without fail.)

[10] And you shall let nothing of it remain until the morning (all of it must be consumed, referring to the fact that we must accept all of Christ, or else we will not have any of Christ; untold millions attempt to accept Christ as a good man, a great example, even a miracle worker, but they care not for the Cross; if Christ is to be had at all, He can only be had by and through the Cross; otherwise, we have "another Jesus" [II Cor. 11:4]); and that which remains of it until the morning you shall burn with fire. (This tells us that Christ cannot be received in stages. He can only be received in totality. Burning the remainder "with fire" once again points to the Cross. We must always remember, Christ is the Source, while the Cross is the Means.)

[11] And thus shall you eat it; with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand (proclaims the fact that they were leaving Egypt; after the Law was given, and Israel was safely ensconced in the Promised Land, they were to eat the Passover resting, and for all the obvious reasons); and you shall eat it in haste (the same admonition, however, should hold true for the modern Believer, in that we should be eagerly awaiting the moment when the Trump of God shall sound and, thereby, we will be raptured away [I Thess. 4:13-18]): it is the LORD's Passover. (Concerning this, Pink says: "The Death of Christ glorified God if never a single sinner had been saved by the virtue of it. The more we study the teaching of Scripture on this subject, and the more we lay hold by simple Faith of what the Cross meant to God, the more stable will be our peace, and the deeper our joy and praise." The Passover was ever a Type of the Cross. In I Corinthians 5:7, we read: "Christ our Passover." He is now "our" Passover, because He was first the "LORD's Passover.")

[12] For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the LORD. (The words "pass through" could be translated "go through," since the word used is entirely unconnected with the "Passover." According to Exodus 12:23, the Lord did not personally go through the land of Egypt that particular night, but rather that He used an Angel. The "beasts" were included, because animal worship was an important part of the religion of the Egyptians. So, the Lord directed His judgment against every facet of Egyptian life and living.)

[13] And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where you are (the blood applied to the door posts meant that their Faith and trust were in the Pascal Lamb; the blood then applied was only a "token," meaning that it was then but a symbol of One Who was to come, Who would redeem mankind by the shedding of His Life's Blood): and when I see the blood, I will pass over you (this is, without a doubt, one of the single most important Scriptures in the entirety of the Word of God; the lamb had taken the fatal blow; and because it had taken the blow, those in the house would be spared; it was not a question of personal worthiness, self had nothing whatever to do in the matter; it was a matter of faith; all under the cover of the blood were safe, just as all presently under the cover of the Blood are safe; this means that they were not merely in a savable state, but rather that they were "saved"; as well, they were not partly saved and partly exposed to judgment, they were wholly saved, and because there is no such thing as partial Justification; the Lord didn't say, "When I see you," or, "When I see your good works," etc., but, "When I see the blood"; this speaks of Christ and what He would do at the Cross in order that we might be saved, which pertained to Him giving Himself in Sacrifice, which necessitated the shedding of His Precious Blood [I Pet. 1:18-19]), and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt. (Salvation from the "plague" of Judgment is afforded only by the shed Blood of the Lamb, and Faith in that shed Blood.)

14 And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and you shall keep it a feast to the LORD throughout your generations; you shall keep it a feast by an ordinance forever. (The Passover is continued in the Lord's Supper [I Cor. 5:7-8]. In this way, the Passover may be regarded as still continuing unto Christianity, and is intended to continue, at least throughout the Kingdom Age, which is yet to come. The Passover per se is not continued, simply because it represented the Type, which was carried out through the offering of clean animals. Now that Christ has come and fulfilled the Type, it would not be proper to eat the Passover as it once was celebrated, and because all that it symbolized or represented was fulfilled in Christ.)

15 Seven days shall you eat unleavened bread (the Feast of "Unleavened Bread" was to be kept in conjunction with the Passover Feast; the "Unleavened Bread" symbolized the Perfection of Christ; the number "seven" symbolized His Perfection in totality; in other words, He was not Perfect just some of the time, but was Perfect all of the time); even the first day you shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel (would be eternally lost; sin destroys and destroys completely! the entire idea of the Cross was to atone for all sin and, as well, to make it possible for the Believer to live a life free from the domination of sin, which can only be done by one ever making the Cross the object of one's Faith, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work in one's life; otherwise, it cannot be done [Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11; Gal. 6:14]).

[16] And in the first day there shall be an holy convocation (all of this was "holy" unto the Lord, and what it typified, which speaks of what Christ did at the Cross, had better be holy to us, as well), and in the seventh day there shall be an holy convocation to you (the "first day" and the "seventh day" indicated that the entirety of this convocation was "holy"); no manner of work shall be done in them (signifying that it is "not of works, lest any man should boast" [Eph. 2:8-9]), save that which every man must eat, that only may be done of you (the only "works" that God will recognize is the Work of Christ at the Cross, and our Faith in that Finished Work).

[17] And you shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread; for in this selfsame day have I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall you observe this day in your generations by an ordinance forever. (The Cross is referred to as "The Everlasting Covenant" [Heb. 13:20].)

[18] In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at evening. (The phrase "in the first month," as it regards this Verse, refers to the fact that Christ and His Cross are to be first and foremost. In fact, the Cross is not within itself a Doctrine, but rather the Foundation of all Doctrine [I Pet. 1:18-19].)

[19] Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses: for whosoever eats that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger, or born in the land. (The absence of leaven proclaims the fact that what Jesus would do would make it possible for us to live free of the domination of sin. As well, "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" is the answer for the entirety of the world, and the only answer!)

[20] You shall eat nothing leavened (meaning that we are to have victory over all sin); in all your habitations shall you eat unleavened bread (while the Bible doesn't teach sinless perfection, it definitely does teach that sin is not to have dominion over us [Rom. 6:14])**.

[21] Then Moses called for all the Elders of Israel, and said unto them, Draw out and take you a lamb according to your families, and kill the Passover. (The "Elders" of Israel were to take the lead, and the people were to follow. If Preachers will presently "preach the Cross," most of the people will follow. Concerning the Passover, Pink says: "The institution and ritual of the Passover supply us with one of the most striking and blessed foreshadowments of the Cross-work of Christ to be found anywhere in the Old Testament. Its importance may be gathered from the frequency which the title of 'Lamb' is afterwards applied to the Saviour, a title which looks back to what is before us in Exodus 12" [Jn. 1:29; I Pet. 1:19].)

[22] And you shall take a bunch of hyssop (the "hyssop" was not connected with the "Lamb," but with the application of its blood; it speaks, then, not of Christ, but of the sinner's appropriation of the Sacrifice of Christ; "hyssop" was a type of grass which grew in crevices between the rocks), and dip it in the blood that is in the bason, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the bason (in fact, the blood applied to the header [lintel] and two side posts formed a perfect cross; we are to never regard the Cross of Christ as a mere circumstance in the Life of Christ referring to His sin-bearing; it was the grand and only scene of sin-bearing; He did not bear our sins anywhere else; He did not bear them in the manger, nor in the wilderness, nor in the Garden, but "only on the Tree" [I Pet. 2:24]); and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning. (The death Angel was to come through at night and, beyond the protection of the Blood of the Lamb, there was no assurance of safety. In fact, there was no safety outside of this application, just as there is no safety presently outside of this application.)

[23] For the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when He sees the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you. (The word "destroyer" implies the fact that the Lord sent an Angel to carry out this task. The only protection from judgment is the Cross of Christ.)

[24] And you shall observe this thing for an ordinance to you and to your sons forever. (Some three times the Lord ordered Israel to "keep the Feast of the Passover forever" [Ex. 12:14, 17, 24], and implied it in Exodus 13:10. In essence, this tells us that the Work of Christ on the Cross was, and is, a Finished Work, which means that it will never have to be repeated, and there will never have to be anything added.)

[25] And it shall come to pass, when you be come to the land which the LORD will give you, according as He has promised, that you shall keep this service. (Every "Promise" of God is based, without exception, on the great Sacrifice of Christ.)

[26] And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, What mean you by this service? (In this Passage, we are plainly told that it is our responsibility to properly relate and explain the great Sacrifice of Christ to our children. This we must not fail to do.)

[27] That you shall say, It is the sacrifice of the LORD's Passover, who passed over the houses of the Children of Israel in Egypt, when He smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. (The application of the Blood spelled Salvation for the Children of Israel, but destruction for the Egyptians. Spiritually speaking, it is no less presently!) And the people bowed the head and worshipped. (Without a proper understanding of the Cross, true Worship of God cannot be properly enjoined.)

[28] And the Children of Israel went away, and did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they. (They went to prepare the Passover, and no doubt paid careful attention to that preparation. Their very lives and eternal souls depended on it.)

DEATH OF THE FIRSTBORN

[29] And it came to pass, that at midnight the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle. (The blame for all the deaths of the firstborn in Egypt had to be laid at the feet of Pharaoh, and not God.)

30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead. (Believing that the afterlife consisted of the prosperity of the firstborn, what had happened to them was tantamount to a Christian being consigned to eternal darkness, the loss of the soul. The "great cry" was not only for their dead, but, as well, that Pharaoh would let Israel go.)

31 And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both you and the Children of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as you have said. (At the beginning, the Monarch had asked the question, "Who is the Lord, that I should obey His Voice to let Israel go?" [5:2]. He now knows as to exactly Who is the Lord!)

32 Also take your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be gone; and bless me also. (Trembling with fear, the Monarch requests of Moses and Aaron that they should "bless him also." To be sure, the less will be blessed of the better.)

33 And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We be all dead men. (The Lord knew this would happen; consequently, He told Israel, as it regards the Passover, "You shall eat it in haste" [Vs. 11]. In other words, "Be ready to go!")

34 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneadingtroughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders. (They were ready to go!)

35 And the Children of Israel did according to the word of Moses: and they borrowed (asked) of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment:

36 And the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they lent (gave, with no thought of it being returned) unto them such things as they required. And they spoiled the Egyptians (meaning that much gold and silver, etc., were given to the Israelites).

THE EXODUS

37 And the Children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth (a distance of about 15 miles), about six hundred thousand on foot who were men, beside children (refers to men of war, between 20 and 50 years of age; counting all the women and children, and men over 50, the total number was approximately 3 million).

38 And a mixed multitude went up also with them (Egyptian sympathizers, of which the number was considerable); and flocks, and herds, even very much cattle (as Moses said, "Not one hoof shall be left behind" [10:26,]).

39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because they were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victual. (They were ordered to leave immediately, and did so.)

40 Now the sojourning of the Children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years. (This doesn't mean that they dwelt in Egypt for 430 years, but it is rather from the time of Abraham, when he was 75 years old, and called of God to leave Ur of Chaldees, that the 430 years are reckoned. They actually spent some 215 years in Egypt proper.)

41 And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt. (The phrase, "the hosts of the Lord," refers to the fact that they belonged to Him.)

42 It is a night to be much observed unto the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: this is that night of the LORD to be observed of all the Children of Israel in their generations. (This first Passover-night was a night of the Lord, much to be observed; but the last Passover-night, in which Christ was betrayed, and in which the first Passover, with the rest of the ceremonial institutions, was superseded and abolished, was a night of the Lord much more to be observed; when a yoke, heavier than that of Egypt, was broken from off our necks, and a land better than that of Canaan, set before us. That first Passover was a temporal deliverance to be celebrated in their generation; this an eternal Redemption to be celebrated in the praises of glorious Saints, world without end — Matthew Henry.)

THE PASSOVER

43 And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the Ordinance of the Passover: There shall no stranger eat thereof *(the idea is, they were the Lord's by purchase — bought with a price; the unredeemed have no understanding of Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross; consequently, they cannot partake of Him without accepting Him as Saviour and Lord):

44 But every man's servant who is bought for money, when you have circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof. (Circumcision has its antitype in the Cross. The male alone was circumcised; the female was represented in the male. So, in the Cross, Christ represents His Church, and hence the Church is crucified with Christ; nevertheless the Church lives by the Life of Christ known and exhibited on Earth, through the Power of the Holy Spirit [Rom. 8:1-2, 11; Gal. 2:20].)

45 A foreigner and a hired servant shall not eat thereof. (The ordinance of circumcision formed the grand boundary line between the Israel of God and all the nations that were upon the face of the Earth; the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ forms the boundary between the Church and the world.)

46 In one house shall it be eaten; you shall not carry forth ought of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall you break a bone thereof. (The flesh of the Lamb was not to be taken out of the house, but rather eaten in the house, typifying the fact that none are saved outside of the Family of God. The "house" is Christ. And let it be known, there is no Salvation out of this "house." As well, not a bone of Christ was broken in the Crucifixion, signifying that the True Body of Christ is one.)

47 All the congregation of Israel shall keep it. (As all of Israel was to keep the Passover, likewise, all Believers must look to the Cross. There is no exception.)

48 And when a stranger shall sojourn with you, and will keep the Passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one who is born in the land: for no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof. (The word "stranger" refers to Gentiles. They could come into the Covenant, but only if they came God's Way. It is the same presently. To be saved, irrespective as to who the person might be, they must exhibit Faith in Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross.)

49 One law shall be to him who is homeborn, and unto the stranger who sojourns among you. (The Lord doesn't have two ways of Salvation, only "one." That is Christ, even as it has always been Christ.)

50 Thus did all the Children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they. (It was the Word of the Lord, and to disobey meant death.)

51 And it came to pass the selfsame day, that the LORD did bring the Children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies. (The word "armies" refers to the fact that the people were organized as they came out of Egypt, which means they did not come out as a rabble. The Lord was their Captain and, through Him, they possessed great power.)

CHAPTER 13

THE FIRSTBORN

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Sanctify unto Me all the firstborn, whatsoever opens the womb among the Children of Israel, both of man and of beast: It is Mine. (The "firstborn," who were to be sanctified to the Lord, which means set apart unto the Lord, were to typify Christ. Jesus is the Son of God, in essence, regarding His humanity, the "firstborn.")

[3] And Moses said unto the people, Remember this day, in which you came out from Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by strength of Hand the LORD brought you out from this place (Israel was to understand that they had been delivered out of this "house of bondage," not by their own ingenuity, strength, ability, or talent, but by the "Power of God." It takes Almighty Power to overcome sin. That Power is registered in the Holy Spirit. He works exclusively within the parameters of the Finished Work of Christ, and demands that we have Faith in that Finished Work [Rom. 6:3-14]): there shall no leavened bread be eaten. (Once again, the "Unleavened Bread" symbolizes the Perfection of Christ, which was absolutely necessary, if He was to serve as the Perfect Sacrifice. The Cross alone deals with sin.)

[4] This day came ye out in the month Abib. (This was a certain day, in a certain month, in which the Children of Israel were brought out of Egyptian bondage. This tells us, and in no uncertain terms, that Salvation is not merely a philosophical quest, but rather a genuine, "know-so" Salvation.)

[5] And it shall be when the LORD shall bring you into the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which He swore unto your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you shall keep this service in this month. (The Land which the Lord would give them would be grand and great, but would be filled with enemies; however, if they faithfully followed the Lord, every enemy would be defeated, and so it is presently. The Christian can walk in perpetual victory only as he understands the Cross, which is the secret of all victory. The Cross must ever be the object of our Faith, by and through which the Holy Spirit works, thereby making His Power available to us [Rom. 8:1-2, 11].)

6 Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be a feast to the LORD. (In fact, this Feast lasted throughout the entirety of the seven days, but the first day and the last were to be kept especially holy [Lev. 23:6-8]. The seventh day of the seven days, deemed a special day, refers to the Finished Work of Christ, in that His Mission would be a completed Mission.)

7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days (the number "seven" specifies and symbolizes a perfect victory afforded the Child of God, all made possible by Christ, and what He would do at the Cross); and there shall no leavened bread be seen with you, neither shall there be leaven seen with you in all your quar ters. (Leaven was a type of sin. The Christian is to be free from all sin, as it regards domination [Rom. 6:14].)

8 And you shall show your son in that day, saying, This is done because of that which the LORD did unto me when I came forth out of Egypt. (We as Believers must "boast" of the Cross, and do so constantly [Gal. 6:14].)

9 And it shall be for a sign unto you upon your hand, and for a memorial between your eyes, that the LORD's Law may be in your mouth: for with a strong Hand has the LORD brought you out of Egypt. (There can be little doubt that the Jewish system of "phylacteries" grew mainly out of this Passage, and was intended as a fulfillment of the commands contained in it. "Phylacteries" were strips of parchment with Passages of Scripture written upon them and deposited in small boxes, which were fastened by a strap, either to the left arm, or across the forehead.)

10 You shall therefore keep this Ordinance in his season from year to year. (Immediately that Israel was redeemed out of Egypt, instructions were given respecting the annual observance of the Passover. That is to say, Israel was to perpetually confess to the world that her salvation out of Egypt, and her settlement in Canaan, was wholly due to the preciousness of the Blood of the Pascal Lamb. The people of God presently are to give a like testimony.)

11 And it shall be when the LORD shall bring you into the land of Canaanites, as He swore unto you and to your fathers, and shall give it you,

12 That you shall set apart unto the LORD all that opens the matrix (the womb), and every firstling that comes of a beast which you have; the males shall be the LORD's.

13 And every firstling of an ass you shall redeem with a lamb; and if you will not redeem it, then you shall break his neck: and all the firstborn of man among your children shall you redeem. (This Verse legislated the Redemption of man and of an ass by the death of a lamb. This is humbling to human pride. The ass was an unclean animal; and, with its broken neck, fitly pictured the true moral condition of the most cultivated man. But the death of the lamb obtained redemption. Only thus can sinners by saved. If the ass wasn't redeemed, it was to be killed. It is the same with unbelievers; failure to accept Christ, of which the lamb was a Type, means the loss of the soul.)

14 And it shall be when your son asks you in time to come, saying, What is this? that you shall say unto him, By strength of Hand the LORD brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage (all of this concerning the "firstborn" were symbolisms of Christ, as God's Son, Who would redeem humanity by going to the Cross; Israel was delivered on that basis)**:

15 And it came to pass, when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that the LORD slew all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of beast: therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that opens the matrix, being males; but all the firstborn of my children I redeem. (Man's firstborn is a Type of the firstborn of God, in His Authority and Priestly function among His brethren, and as the object of the Father's love and trust. The death of Egypt's firstborn did burst the bonds of Israel; the death of God's firstborn, the bonds of His people. So, the Cross has a double effect: it condemns the Christ-rejecter, and it brings to Salvation the Christ-acceptor.)

[16] And it shall be for a token upon your hand, and for frontlets between your eyes: for by strength of Hand the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt. (Once again, this refers to "phylacteries," the same as in Verse 9.)

THE CLOUD AND THE FIRE

[17] And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them not through the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, Lest peradventure the people repent when they see war, and they return to Egypt (we should ever seek the Lord as it regards direction and leading; if we let Him make the plans, the plans will succeed; if we make the plans ourselves, and expect Him to bless those plans, that He will not do)**:

[18] But God led the people about, through the way of the wilderness of the Red Sea (He would lead them into and through the wilderness, in order to teach them trust, faith, and obedience): and the Children of Israel went up harnessed out of the land of Egypt (could be translated, "The Children of Israel went up by five in a rank out of the land of Egypt"; "five" in Scripture ever speaks of Grace or favor; this probably refers to five large groups).

[19] And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him: for he (Joseph) had straitly sworn the Children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you; and you shall carry up my bones away hence with you (even though Joseph had the glory of Egypt given to him by God, still, his heart was never in Egypt, but in Canaanland, for that was the land promised to Abraham by God, where a mighty nation would rise up, a nation totally different than any other nation in the world, a people who belonged exclusively to Jehovah; as well, there is some small evidence in the Text that not only were the bones of Joseph brought out, but also the bones of all the sons of Jacob).

[21] And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night (concerning this, Mackintosh says: "The Lord not only conducted them safely outside the bounds of Egypt, but He also came down, as it were, in His traveling chariot, to be their Companion through all the vicissitudes of their wilderness journey; this was Divine Grace; they were not merely delivered out of the furnace of Egypt and then allowed to make the best of their way to Canaan — such was not God's manner toward them; He went before them; He was 'a guide, a glory, a defense, to save them from every fear'")**:

[22] He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people. (As Israel was led both day and night by this particular "cloud," likewise, the Holy Spirit is to the Believer, "The Spirit of Wisdom and Understanding, the Spirit of Counsel and Might, the Spirit of Knowledge and of the Fear of the Lord" [Isa. 11:2].)

CHAPTER 14

(1491 B.C.)

INSTRUCTIONS

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Speak unto the Children of Israel, that they turn and encamp before Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the Sea, over against Baal-zephon: before it shall you encamp by the Sea. (The Lord continues to direct Israel as to exactly where they should go. From the military point of view, Israel had blundered badly, or so Pharaoh thought! In effect, they were hemmed in. But God was leading them and, as well, had a Plan and Purpose for taking them on this particular route, as we shall see. If we as Believers make the plans, they are guaranteed of failure. If God makes them, they are guaranteed of success.)

[3] For Pharaoh will say of the Children of Israel, They are entangled in the land, the wilderness has shut them in. (Through foreknowledge, the Lord knew what Pharaoh would reckon in his evil heart, when he saw the Children of Israel seemingly hemmed in.)

[4] And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, that he shall follow after them (the idea is, God would provide the means by which Pharaoh would harden his own heart; God is said to do many things, when, in fact, He does not personally do such, but does set the stage); and I will be honoured upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; that the Egyptians may know that I am the LORD. And they did so. (Pharaoh's continued rebellion will fall out instead to the Glory of God. If God's people truly follow the Lord, whatever Satan does will always fall out to the Glory of God, but only if God's people fully trust and obey.)

[5] And it was told the king of Egypt that the people fled: and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us? (Satan doesn't easily give up his attempts to hold Believers in bondage. But, if the Believer doesn't flag in his faith, and I speak of Faith in Christ and the Cross, total and complete victory is guaranteed [Rom. 6:14].)

6 And he (Pharaoh) made ready his chariot, and took his people with him:

7 And he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them. (Josephus records that Pharaoh had 50,000 horsemen and 200,000 footmen, as well as all the chariots.)

8 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the Children of Israel: and the Children of Israel went out with a high hand. (The "high hand" refers to a certain degree of pride and confidence. Regrettably, the "high hand" would change when they faced the Red Sea.)

9 But the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them encamping by the Sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, before Baal-zephon. (As stated, Pharaoh thought he had them hemmed in. So, in his mind, his victory was assured.)

10 And when Pharaoh drew near, the Children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and, behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were sore afraid: and the Children of Israel cried out unto the LORD. (Verses 10 through 12 record the complaints of Israel. The fear, unbelief, and anger of the very people who had witnessed God's wonders in the land of Egypt would appear incredible, but that each Bible student finds these evils in his own heart, and learns by sad experience that great depression of mind usually follows exceptional spiritual triumphs — Williams.)

11 And they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, have you taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore have you dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt? (Unbelief cried out:

"The wilderness will become our grave"; but the result was that the Sea became Pharaoh's grave.)

[12] Is not this the word that we did tell you in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? (All Israel could see at this time was either slavery to the Egyptians, or to die in the wilderness. So most Christians compromise with the world and stay in slavery. They do not understand deliverance, because they're looking for it in the wrong place. There is an alternative to Egypt, and to dying in the wilderness. It is the Cross [Gal. 6:14].) For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

[13] And Moses said unto the people (from this statement, we learn what the Preacher is supposed to preach), Fear ye not (that has always been the Word of the Lord; with God on our side, and us looking wholly to Him, we have nothing to fear [II Tim. 1:7]), stand still (all attempts at self-help must end; all activities of the flesh must cease; the workings of nature must be subdued; our Faith must rest completely in Christ and the Cross, and nothing else), and see the Salvation of the LORD (please notice, it is the "Salvation of the Lord," and not at all of us; it is all by virtue of His Sacrificial, Atoning Work at the Cross), which He will show to you today (victory is yours "today," if you will only believe and, by that, I mean believe correctly, which refers to the fact that the Cross is ever the object of our Faith [Rom. 6:3-14]): for the Egyptians whom you have seen today, you shall see them again no more forever. (This didn't mean that they would never again see Egyptians, but it meant that they would never see them in this posture of what looked like victory for the Egyptians. The Believer may see the vices in the world, but they will no longer control him or, in fact, have any part in him. And this victory is "forever" [Jn. 14:16-17].)

[14] The LORD shall fight for you, and you shall hold your peace. (The Lord could fight for Israel only as long as they "stood still." Had they turned and tried to fight the Egyptians themselves, and in any capacity, this would have hindered the Lord fighting for them, and they no doubt would have been defeated. Someone has well said, "In Justification, the Lord fights 'for' us, and in Sanctification, He fights 'in' us.")

15 And the LORD said unto Moses, Wherefore do you cry unto Me? (The Children of Israel were crying unto the Lord, but their cry was not of Faith, but rather of defeat. They complained, and accused Moses, which was the same as accusing God.) speak unto the Children of Israel, that they go forward (Faith is ever "forward")**:

16 But you lift up your rod, and stretch out your hand over the Sea, and divide it (with the command to go forward came the provision of Grace; this was to be the greatest miracle yet since creation; but the Lord has now performed even a greater miracle in delivering His people, and I refer to the Cross and the Resurrection): and the Children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the Sea. (From this it is very clear that the waters of the Red Sea did not begin to divide until the feet of the Israelites came to their very brink, otherwise they would have crossed by sight, and not "by Faith.")

17 And I, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them: and I will get Me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen. (Men do not have the final word, that belongs to God. We must never forget, God's honor is always at stake. Proper Faith in Him will always vindicate His honor, despite the decision of men.)

18 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten Me honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

19 And the Angel of God, which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them (the "Angel of God" spoken of in this Verse is actually a preincarnate appearance of the Lord Jesus Christ; the Lord Jesus is Jehovah and, one might say, the Jehovah of the Old Testament; He placed Himself between Israel and the enemy; in the same manner, the Believer may look for his difficulties, and not find them, because God is between him and them); and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them (this is the Holy Spirit)**:

20 And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and it was a cloud and darkness to them (to the Egyptians), but it gave light by night to these (to Israel): so that the one came not near the other all the night. (Concerning this, Mackintosh says: "How like the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ!

"Truly, that Cross has a double aspect likewise. It forms the foundation of the Believer's peace and, at the same time, seals the condemnation of a guilty world. The self-same blood which purges the Believer's conscience, and gives him perfect peace, stains this Earth and consummates its guilt. The very mission of the Son of God which strips the world of its cloak, and leaves it wholly without excuse, clothes Believers with a fair mantle of Righteousness, and fills their mouth with ceaseless praise.

"The very same Lamb Who will terrify, by His unmitigated wrath, all tribes and classes of Earth, will lead, by His gentle Hand, His Blood-bought flock through the green pastures and beside the still waters forever!" [Rev. 6:15-17; 7:13-17].)

THE RED SEA

[21] And Moses stretched out his hand over the Sea; and the LORD caused the Sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the Sea dry land, and the waters were divided. (The "strong east wind" that God used to push back a path through the Sea was a Divine miracle, not something accomplished by the mere uncontrolled forces of nature itself. The indication is, the Children of Israel began to walk out into the Sea, with God opening it before them. The Sea opened at about the pace that they could slowly walk.)

[22] And the Children of Israel went into the midst of the Sea upon the dry ground (this puts to rest the fallacy of the skeptics, that the Sea was only about two inches deep at this juncture; they didn't walk across through shallow water, but rather on "dry ground"): and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left. (It is believed that the path through the Sea was from ten to twelve miles wide. Its depth was somewhere between 20 and 40 feet. The location was probably in the vicinity of the modern Suez, between the Bitter Lakes. The Lakes were then a part of the Gulf. The Psalmist said, "He made the waters to stand as an heap" [Ps. 78:13]. This must have been quite a sight with that wall of water standing up on either side!)

23 And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the Sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen. (Whether Pharaoh actually went in himself, the Scripture doesn't say; however, I choose to believe that the pride of Pharaoh demanded that he lead this charge and this attack.)

24 And it came to pass, that in the morning watch the LORD looked unto the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the host of the Egyptians (Josephus says concerning this: "Showers of rain came down from the sky, and dreadful thunders and lightning, with flashes of fire; thunderbolts also were darted upon them; nor was there anything which could be sent by God upon man as indications of His wrath, which did not happen upon this occasion." The words, "troubled the host," in the Hebrew, actually mean "threw it into confusion"),

25 And took off their chariot wheels, that they drove them heavily (they found that their mighty chariot army did them no good): so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel; for the LORD fights for them against the Egyptians. (They saw that the Lord was not only fighting for the Children of Israel, but was, at the same time, fighting against the Egyptians. They had been led into a trap, caused by their own rebellion against God. So, they had no one but themselves to blame.)

26 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out your hand over the Sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen. (The Lord not only delivered Israel, but, as well, defeated the Egyptians. At Calvary, the Lord not only delivered us, but He also defeated Satan [Col. 2:14-15].)

27 And Moses stretched forth his hand over the Sea, and the Sea returned to his strength when the morning appeared (at about daybreak); and the Egyptians fled against it; and the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the Sea. (Exactly as the Lord had said, Israel would see these Egyptians no more.)

[28] And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the Sea after them; there remained not so much as one of them. (As every Egyptian was totally and completely defeated, Satan was totally and completely defeated, as well, at the Cross. Not one single bondage of darkness was excluded, but rather Jesus addressed them all.)

[30] Thus the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the seashore. (Thus concluded the stubbornness of Pharaoh! Faith in Christ and the Cross renders death to the forces of evil.)

[31] And Israel saw that Great Work which the LORD did upon the Egyptians (God always performs a "great work"; He is still performing great works, and He shall ever continue to perform great works): and the people feared the LORD, and believed the LORD, and His servant Moses. (But regrettably, we will soon find that their faith was a shallow faith.)

CHAPTER 15

THE SONG OF MOSES

[1] Then sang Moses and the Children of Israel this song unto the LORD, and spoke, saying (there was no singing in Egypt; there was groaning; singing only follows Redemption; Moses began and ended his wilderness life with a song; that of Deuteronomy, Chapter 32 is the one referred to in Revelation 15:3; this song portrayed in this Chapter is the oldest song of praise in existence; its theme is Jehovah Jesus; it begins with Redemption, and ends with Glory), I will sing unto the LORD, for He has triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider has He thrown into the Sea. (The Lord is given the praise here. This song, accompanied by musical instruments [Vs. 20], proclaims at least one of the greatest, if not the greatest, means of praise and worship found in the Bible. We know this, simply because the Book of Psalms, which contains 150 songs, is the longest Book in the Bible. By devoting this much space to music and singing, the Holy Spirit is telling us here of its value, as it regards the worship of the Lord.)

[2] The LORD is my strength and song (the phrase actually says in the Hebrew, "My strength and song is JAH"; in fact, the name "JAH" had not previously been used; it is an abbreviated form of Jehovah), and He is become my Salvation: He is my God, and I will prepare Him an habitation (means, in the Hebrew, "I will glorify Him"); my father's God, and I will exalt Him. (The pronouns, as it refers to the Lord, "He," "Him," "Thy," "Thou," and "Thee," are found 33 times in this Psalm! How significant and how searching is this!)

[3] The LORD is a Man of War (not we ourselves; when we try to place ourselves in that position, we get defeated every time; in fact, the only fight that we are called upon to fight is "the good fight of Faith" [I Tim. 6:12]): the LORD is His Name (could be translated, "Jehovah, the Alone-Existing

One"; before Him, all other existence fades and falls into nothingness).

4 Pharaoh's chariots and his host has He cast into the Sea: his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red Sea. (It would be some time before Egypt would recover. One thing is certain, they didn't try to follow Israel into the wilderness.)

5 The depths have covered them: they sank into the bottom as a stone (covered with armor, it served only as a weight to drown them, which it did).

6 Your Right Hand, O LORD, is become glorious in power: Your Right Hand, O LORD, has dashed in pieces the enemy. (The "right hand," as it refers to the Lord, is used as a figure of speech. It signifies power.)

7 And in the greatness of Your Excellency You have overthrown them who rose up against You: You sent forth Your Wrath, which consumed them as stubble. (The verbs in this Verse are future. Consequently, it should read, "You will overthrow them who rise up against You." And then, "You will send forth your wrath." The last phrase, "which consumed them as stubble," is present tense, and concerns the victory over the Egyptians. So, in this Verse, we have an account not only of what the Lord has done regarding the Egyptians, but the Promise that He will fight thusly for us as well!)

8 And with the blast of Your Nostrils the waters were gathered together, the floods stood upright as an heap, and the depths were congealed in the heart of the Sea. (Concerning the word "congealed," some have taken it to mean that the waters froze; however, considering the climate of Egypt, that is unlikely; and yet, it definitely could have happened. Still others have asked the question, "Are we justified in taking literally the strong expressions of a highly wrought poetical description?"

We definitely are justified. It is the Holy Spirit Who gave Moses these very words, and, to be sure, the description in no way stretches the truth as it regards what God has done, and, above all, what He can do.)

9 The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them. (If the Devil could do all the things that he claims that he will do, he would have done them a long time ago. He hasn't done them, because he can't do them. "He is a liar, and the father of it" [Jn. 8:44].)

10 You did blow with Your Wind, the Sea covered them: they sank as lead in the mighty waters. (Here we have another fact that is not mentioned in the account, but yet which is implied. The immediate cause of the return of the waters was a wind. As a "strong east wind" had caused the water to part, now this new wind, and that which had been devised by the Lord, must have arisen contrary to the former wind, blowing from the northwest or the north, and thus produced the effect described.)

11 Who is like unto You, O LORD, among the gods? (gods mentioned in this Verse pertain to the gods worshipped by the Egyptians) Who is like You, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders? (How few today "glory" in God's Holiness! How few "praise" Him for His "Faithfulness"! How few are acquainted with His "wonders"!)

12 You stretched out Your Right Hand, the Earth swallowed them. (His Hand Alone defeated one of the mightiest armies in the world, and did so by the use of the elements.)

13 You in Your Mercy have led forth the people which You have redeemed (to purchase the slave out of the marketplace): You have guided them in Your Strength unto Your Holy Habitation. (The ultimate conclusion of this "holy habitation" is the Holy Spirit dwelling in the Believer, which has been made possible by the Cross [I Cor. 3:16].)

14 The people shall hear, and be afraid (what is the world presently hearing as it regards the Church?): sorrow shall take hold on the inhabitants of Palestina (and this is exactly what happened!).

15 Then the dukes of Edom shall be amazed; the mighty men of Moab, trembling shall take hold upon them; all the inhabitants of Canaan shall melt away.

16 Fear and dread shall fall upon them; by the greatness of Your Arm they shall be as still as a stone; till Your People pass over, O LORD, till the people pass over, which You have purchased. (All of this portrays in Type what Christ accomplished at the Cross [Col. 2:14-15]. As these enemy nations feared Israel, likewise, all fallen angels and demon spirits, even Satan himself, greatly fear the Child of God who understands and knows that he has "passed over" into the inheritance, purchased for us by the Lord Jesus Christ.)

17 You shall bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of Your Inheritance, in the place, O LORD, which You have made for You to dwell in, in the Sanctuary, O LORD, which Your Hands have established. (While this pointed to Canaan, Jerusalem, and the future building of the Temple, more than all, its total meaning has to do with the Believer's position in Christ, for Biblical history has always strained toward this conclusion.)

18 The LORD shall reign forever and ever. (This closes this great and beautiful Song. It ends as it began — with "the Lord." Faith views the eternal future without fear.)

THE SONG OF MIRIAM

19 For the horse of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into the Sea, and the LORD brought again the waters of the Sea upon them; but the Children of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the Sea. (This is the song of Miriam, which will be explained more fully in Verse 21.)

20 And Miriam the Prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances. (Miriam was the sister of both Moses and Aaron. She is the first woman whom the Bible honors with the title of "Prophetess." Pulpit says of her: "Miriam is regarded by the Prophet Micah [Mic. 6:4] as having had a share in the deliverance of Israel, with her claiming the prophetic gift in Numbers 12:2. Her claim appears to be allowed both in the present Passage, and in Numbers 12:6-8, where the degree of her inspiration, however, is placed below that of Moses.")

[21] And Miriam answered them, Sing ye to the LORD, for He has triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider has He thrown into the Sea. (The idea seems to be, that the men would sing a Verse of the song, with Miriam, and tens of thousands of women, answering them with the words of Verse 19. This would have been quite a moment, with all of these women, led by Miriam, answering each Verse. Thus, we see how the Lord uses the women here in praise and worship, with Miriam also being used as a Prophetess.)

THE BITTER WATERS

[22] So Moses brought Israel from the Red Sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water. (God tests Faith in order to strengthen and enrich it.)

[23] And when they came to Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of it was called Marah. (Marah means "bitter." Pink says: "While the wilderness may and will make manifest the weakness of God's Saints and, as well, our failures, this is only to magnify the Power and Mercy of Him Who brought us into the place of testing. Further, and we must understand, God always has in view our ultimate good." The bitter waters of Marah typify life and its disappointments.)

[24] And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink? (Three days before, the Children of Israel were rejoicing on the shores of the Red Sea. Now, some 72 hours later, they are "murmuring against Moses." Such presents a lack of Faith. "Tests" brought upon us by the Lord portray what is in us. Regrettably, it doesn't take much to bring out the unbelief.)

[25] And he cried unto the LORD *(Moses set the example; there is no help outside of the Lord, but man, even the Church, seem to find difficulty in believing this); and the LORD showed him a Tree (the "tree" is a Type of the Cross [Acts 5:30; 10:39; 13:29; Gal. 3:13; I Pet. 2:24]), which when he had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweet (we must put the Cross into every difficulty and problem of life, which alone holds the answer; only by this means can the bitter waters be made "sweet"): there He (God) made for them a Statute and an Ordinance, and there He proved them (tested them! We must understand that God doesn't give victory to men, only to Christ; His Victory becomes ours, as we are properly in Him [Jn. 14:20; Rom. 6:3-5]), [26] And said, If you will diligently hearken to the Voice of the LORD your God, and will do that which is right in His Sight, and will give ear to His Commandments, and keep all His Statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon you, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the LORD Who heals you. (It is demanded that all these "Statutes" and "Ordinances" be perfectly kept; however, no man can boast of such; Christ has perfectly kept all the Commandments and, as our Substitute, kept them perpetually. Looking to Him, we can claim this blessing. As well, the "healing" Promised here has to do not only with physical diseases but, as well, of emotional and spiritual diseases. The Cross is to be put into the bitter waters of these problems, whatever they might be. They can then be made sweet. The name "LORD," in the Hebrew, as used here, is "Jehovah-Ropheka," which means "Jehovah, the Healer." Jehovah has proven Himself as the Deliverer of Israel, and now He proclaims Himself as their "Healer.")

[27] And they came to Elim, where were twelve wells of water (the number "twelve" is the number of God's Government; but we must remember, this is God's Government, and not particular governments devised by man; it symbolized the Twelve Tribes of Israel and, futuristically, the Twelve Apostles, on which, in a sense, the New Covenant would be built, because they were eyewitnesses of Christ, regarding His Life, Ministry, Crucifixion, Resurrection, Ascension and, by faith, His Exaltation), and threescore and ten palm trees (the 70 Palm Trees are symbolic of Ministry, which must be built on the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the Chief Cornerstone [Lk. 10:1, 17]): and they encamped there by the waters (signals the place in which the Believer is to rest [Mat. 11:28]; as long as the Doctrine is "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified," which speaks of the foundation, Typed by the "twelve wells of water," and the Ministry, Typed by the "threescore and ten Palm Trees," Christ will be found in all His Glory, and will be to the Believer what He desires to be).

CHAPTER 16

THE WILDERNESS OF SIN

[1] And they took their journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the Children of Israel came unto the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt. (This First Verse tells us that the Children of Israel had been on the road exactly one month, having left Egypt the fifteenth of the first month. It must be remembered that "the Pillar of the Cloud" led them in this direction; and yet, it was a direction that seemed to be most inhospitable. But the Lord had a purpose for this direction.)

[2] And the whole congregation of the Children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness: (If we murmur against God's man or woman, we have, in effect, murmured against God. Pink says: "Here was the selfsame people who had been Divinely spared from the ten plagues on Egypt, who had been brought forth from the land of bondage, miraculously delivered at the Red Sea, Divinely guided by a Pillar of Cloud and Fire, day and night — now 'murmuring,' complaining, rebelling!")

[3] And the Children of Israel said unto them, Would to God we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt (as we read these words, we are reading an "oath"; this means that their sin was aggravated by an oath; they took the Divine Name "in vain"; the future proves the fact that they got exactly that for which they asked; they didn't die in Egypt, but they did die in the wilderness; as Believers, we must be very careful as to what we say), when we sat by the flesh pots, and when we did eat bread to the full (they lied! as slaves of the merciless Egyptians, there is no ground whatsoever for us to suppose that they "sat by the flesh pots" or "ate bread to the full"; unbelief is always based on a lie); for you have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger. (God had promised that they should worship Him at Sinai [3:12]; consequently, it was not possible, then, for them to die with hunger in the wilderness. In the face of difficulties, we tend to forget the Promises of God.)

4 Then said the LORD unto Moses, Behold, I will rain bread from Heaven for you (the Manna prefigured the descent of the True Bread, of which if a man eat he shall live forever [Jn. 6:51]); and the people shall go out and gather a certain rate every day (this proclaims the fact that we are to partake of Christ every day), that I may prove them, whether they will walk in My Law, or no. (Everything the Lord does with us is to "prove us." How will we act? How will we react?)

5 And it shall come to pass, that on the sixth day they shall prepare that which they bring in; and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily. (They were to gather twice as much on the sixth day as they had on the previous days, but which the Lord would miraculously multiply, in order that they may have sustenance the next day, on which they would not be allowed to do any work. Very shortly, the Lord would institute the Sabbath.)

6 And Moses and Aaron said unto all the Children of Israel, At evening, then you shall know that the LORD has brought you out from the land of Egypt (even though Moses didn't record it here, Verse 13 proclaims the fact that quails were sent in the evening)**:

7 And in the morning, then you shall see the Glory of the LORD; for that He hears your murmurings against the LORD: and what are we, that you murmur against us? (The next morning, the Manna was sent. The murmurings of Verses 6 through 8 proclaim that God hears and sees all the acts of man and will hold each person responsible as to "right" and "wrong" in every detail [I Cor. 3:11-15].)

8 And Moses said, This shall be, when the LORD shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full; for that the LORD hears your murmurings which you murmur against Him: and what are we? your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD. (Verse 8 is basically a repetition of Verse 7; but it emphasizes the statements of that Verse, and prepares the way for what follows. When looking back toward Egypt, Israel murmured; when looking forward toward the wilderness, they saw the Glory of the Lord. Discontent magnifies what is past, and vilifies what is present, without regard to truth or reason. The absurd then murmurs!)

9 And Moses spoke unto Aaron, Say unto all the congregation of the Children of Israel, Come near before the LORD: for He has heard your murmurings. (Those in positions of Godly leadership do not hear all the murmurs of those whom they are attempting to lead. It is well that we do not, perhaps because we could not bear it: but God hears, and yet bears.)

10 And it came to pass, as Aaron spoke unto the whole congregation of the Children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and, behold, the Glory of the LORD appeared in the Cloud. (This Verse seems to indicate that the entirety of the Children of Israel should present themselves as a "whole congregation" to the Lord. Concerning the "Glory of the Lord" appearing in the Cloud, it is not known whether something was visible or not, but, more than likely, the Cloud took on a new appearance of greater glory.)

11 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

12 I have heard the murmurings of the Children of Israel: speak unto them, saying, At evening you shall eat flesh *(the quail), and in the morning you shall be filled with bread *(the Manna); and you shall know that I am the LORD your God. (Past miracles are convincing. But unless there are fresh evidences of God, the natural man will soon forget and lapse into unbelief again. "Murmuring" was the first sin committed by Israel after being delivered from Egyptian bondage. We must understand how displeased the Lord is at such action.)

QUAIL AND MANNA

13 And it came to pass, that at evening the quails came up, and covered the camp: and in the morning the dew lay round about the host. (It seems that the quails, as appears by the subsequent narrative, were supplied, not regularly, but only on rare occasions; in fact [so far as appears] only here in the wilderness of Sin, and at Kibroth-hattavah in the wilderness of Paran [Num. 11:31-34]. The mention of the "dew" in this manner implies that, that which looked like dew was, in part, dew, but not wholly so. The next Verse explains it to a greater degree.)

14 And when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there lay a small round thing, as small as the hoar frost on the ground.

15 And when the Children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, It is Manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moses said unto them, This is the Bread which the LORD has given you to eat. (The Manna was so precious that it could not bear contact with the Earth. It fell upon the dew and had to be gathered before the Sun came up. This teaches us that yesterday's blessing will not do for today, nor today's for tomorrow. Thus must the Christian feed upon Christ daily as He reveals Himself in the Scriptures.)

16 This is the thing which the LORD has commanded, Gather of it every man according to his eating, an omer for every man, according to the number of your persons; take ye every man for them which are in his tents. (In Egypt, Israel had slave food; in the desert, Angel's food. The test quickly revealed that the natural man had little appetite for Heavenly things, for the people soon called it "light food.")

17 And the Children of Israel did so, and gathered, some more, some less. (Israel in the desert presented a striking picture! Egypt was behind them, Canaan was before them, the wilderness was around them, and the Manna was above them.)

18 And when they did mete it with an omer (an "omer" is the equivalent of six pints; considering there were approximately 3 million people, this would play out to some 18 million pints, or about 13.5 million pounds gathered daily; to help us understand it even more, it would take a train pulling 45 cars, each car having in it 15 tons, to take care of one day's supply; this means that approximately 1.5 million tons of Manna were gathered annually by Israel; and let it be remembered that this continued for nearly 40 years! Great is our God!), he who gathered much had nothing over, and he who gathered little had no lack (Christians who hoard money will find that it will not grow as they think; Christians who give generously to the Work of God will find that personally, and for their family, they will "have no lack"; God blesses us, in order that we may bless His Work); they gathered every man according to his eating. (That which the Lord gives to us as Believers should be used according to our need, and the balance be given to the Work of God; however, we must make certain that what we are supporting is truly the Work of God.)

[19] And Moses said, Let no man leave of it till the morning. (What they gathered, they were to eat. None was to be left over for the next day. This means that we must partake of Christ every day. As well, what we receive today from the Lord will not suffice for tomorrow. Tomorrow must, and will, bring a fresh enduement of power from on high.)

[20] Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto Moses; but some of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms, and stank: and Moses was angry with them. (That which some Christians are trying to present to the world "stinks," at least in the nostrils of God, because it is someone else's vision, or yesterday's blessing.)

[21] And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating: and when the sun waxed hot, it melted. (Thus must the Christian feed upon Christ every day.)

[22] And it came to pass, that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much Bread, two omers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses. (They were allowed to gather twice as much on the sixth day, because the Manna would not fall on the seventh day.)

THE SABBATH REST

[23] And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD has said, Tomorrow is the Rest of the Holy Sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which you will bake today, and seethe that you will seethe; and that which remains over lay up for you to be kept until the morning. (The day of rest here suddenly reappears after a silence of more than 2,000 years. Redemption being accomplished, typified by deliverance from Egypt, the Sabbath is gifted to Israel. The Jewish Sabbath was meant to serve as a portrayal of the "rest" that one receives when coming to Christ. In other words, Christ is the fulfillment of the Sabbath, hence that particular day not being kept, in the old manner, under the New Covenant.)

[24] And they laid it up (the Manna) till the morning, as Moses bade: and it did not stink, neither was there any worm therein (the double amount gathered on Friday, with the leftover to be used on Saturday).

[25] And Moses said, Eat that today; for today is a Sabbath unto the LORD: today you shall not find it (the Manna) in the field.

[26] Six days you shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the Sabbath, in it there shall be none.

[27] And it came to pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none. (Man has little heart for God's rest. His nature is bad. He can neither rest with, nor work for, God. If God makes a rest for him, he will not keep it; and if God tells him to work, he will not do it. In this Chapter, Israel, at least to a certain degree, refused the Sabbath as a gift, and in Numbers 15 disobeyed it as a Law.)

[28] And the LORD said unto Moses, How long refuse you to keep My Commandments and My Laws?

[29] See, for that the LORD has given you the Sabbath, therefore He gives you on the sixth day the Bread of two days; abide ye every man in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.

[30] So the people rested on the seventh day. (As stated, this particular day, the Sabbath, commanded by God for Israel to keep, was meant to serve as a Type of Christ, and the "rest" He would give, on acceptance of Him [Mat. 11:28-30].)

31 And the House of Israel called the name thereof Manna: and it was like coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey. (Manna was a provision made for God's people. It was not a question of Redemption, that having been obtained by the Blood at the Cross, and there alone. Manna was meant to proclaim Christ, and His sustenance for the Saints, and that on a daily basis. The wilderness afforded little. In Jehovah Alone was their portion.)

A TESTIMONY

32 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commands, Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations; that they may see the Bread wherewith I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt. (A container of Manna was to be kept as a most precious memorial of the faithfulness of God. Whereas the Manna held over would normally breed worms and stink, the Manna addressed here in this Verse would be sustained by the Power of God for many, many centuries. The miracles of the past are to never be forgotten, but related over and over.)

33 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a pot, and put an omer full of Manna therein, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations.

34 As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Testimony, to be kept. (The "Testimony" was the Ten Commandments, kept on two tablets of stone, and preserved in the Ark of the Covenant.)

35 And the Children of Israel did eat Manna forty years, until they came to a land inhabited; they did eat Manna, until they came unto the borders of the land of Canaan.

36 Now an omer is the tenth part of an ephah.

CHAPTER 17

WATER

[1] And all the congregation of the Children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, after their journeys, according to the Commandment of the Lord, and pitched in Rephidim: and there was no water for the people to drink. (It might seem strange that God, Who professed to love Israel, should lead them into a desert, both foodless and waterless. But love led them there that they might learn the desperate unbelief of their own hearts, and the unfailing faithfulness of God's heart.)

[2] Wherefore the people did chide with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why chide you with me? wherefore do you tempt the Lord? (Only in a desert could God reveal what He can be to those who trust Him; for only there was Israel dependent upon Him for everything. Without God — nothing; with God — everything. When we criticize God's man, we are in essence criticizing God. The questions of the wilderness are: "What?" "Where?" "How?" Faith has a brief but comprehensive answer to all three, namely, "God!")

[3] And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore is this that you have brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst? (First of all, they tempted the Lord, which is a want of Faith, and now they "murmur," which proved to be one of their greatest sins, because murmuring always exhibits unbelief.)

[4] And Moses cried unto the LORD saying, What shall I do unto this people? they be almost ready to stone me. (One of the most prominent traits of the character of Moses is that, at the occurrence of a difficulty, he always carried it straight to God [Ex. 15:25; 24:15; 32:30; 33:8; Num.

5 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go on before the people, and take with you of the Elders of Israel; and your rod, wherewith you smote the river, take in your hand, and go.

6 Behold, I will stand before you there upon the Rock in Horeb; and you shall smite the Rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the Elders of Israel. (This is one of the most beautiful Types found in the entirety of Scripture. The "Rock" was a Type of Christ [I Cor. 10:1-4]. The Rock being "smitten" typified the Cross [Isa. 53:4]. The "water" coming out of the Rock was a Type of the Holy Spirit [Jn. 7:37-39]. However, the water, i.e., "the Holy Spirit," was not available until the Rock [Christ] was smitten [crucified — Jn. 14:16-20]. In fact, Christ, the Cross, our Faith, and the Holy Spirit constitute the basis of Christianity [Gal., Chpt. 5].)

7 And he called the name of the place Massah (contention), and Meribah (strife), because of the chiding of the Children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us, or not? (This proclaims the fact that the smitten Rock, which gushed forth with a river of water, was not brought about because of the Righteousness and Holiness of the people, but strictly because of the Grace of God; however, for the Believer to stay on a wrong path of unbelief will ultimately bring total destruction [Rom. 8:12].)

AMALEK

8 Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim. (The reception of the Holy Spirit, of which the water was a Type, immediately causes war. It's the war between the "flesh" and the "Holy Spirit" [Gal. 5:17].)

9 And Moses said unto Joshua, Choose us out men, and go out, fight with Amalek: tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the Rod of God in my hand. (Up to this point God had fought for them. Then, Israel was to stand still and see His Salvation [14:13-14]; but the command now is to go out and fight. There is an immense difference between Justification and Sanctification. The one is Christ fighting "for" us; the other, the Holy Spirit fighting "in" us. The entrance of the new nature is the beginning of warfare with the old.)

10 So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. (Amalek pictures the old carnal nature. He was the grandson of Esau, who before and after birth tried to murder Jacob, and who preferred the mess of pottage to the birthright. This carnal nature wars against the Spirit; "it is not subject to the Law of God, neither indeed can be" [Rom. 8:7]. "Hur" means "light" — the emblem of Divine Holiness, and so points to the Holy Spirit. "Joshua" was a Type of Christ.)

11 And it came to pass, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed: and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed. (The hands "upheld" signified total dependence on the Lord. When the Believer is totally depending on the Lord, and what He did for us at the Cross, the victory of Christ belongs to us; otherwise, it doesn't!)

12 But Moses' hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun. (The "Stone," as well, is symbolic of Christ. Moses' exhaustion portrays the fact that our own efforts soon result in spiritual burn-out. But once we are in God's glorious way [sitting on the Stone], the victory is ours. "Aaron" was a Type of Christ as our Great High Priest, and "Hur," whose name means "light," speaks to us of the Holy Spirit. This is the help afforded the Child of God. But unfortunately, most Christians are trying to hold up their hands [trusting in God] by their own personal strength, which is doomed to failure.)

13 And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword. (The "sword" here is a Type of the Word of God [Eph. 6:17]. The Word of God holds the answer to every single problem which pertains to "Life and Godliness" [II. Pet. 1:3-4].)

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in the Book (this Verse presents the birth of the Bible as a written Book; the command was "Write this in 'the' Book," not in 'a' book), and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under Heaven. (It is remarkable that the first mention of the Bible should be in connection with the hostility of the natural man [Amalek] to the spiritual man [Israel].)

15 And Moses built an Altar, and called the name of it Jehovah-nissi (the Lord my Banner; the "Altar," of course, is a Type of Calvary; Christ is our Banner only through the Cross)**:

16 For he said, Because the LORD has sworn that the LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation. (Amalek was to dwell in the land, but not to reign in it. Romans 6:12 says, "Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal bodies." The command would be unmeaning if the sin nature were not existing in the Christian. The sin nature dwells in a Believer, but dwells and reigns in an unbeliever.)

CHAPTER 18

JETHRO

[1] When Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel His people, and that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt (in the Hebrew, "father-in-law" and "brother-in-law" present the same word; Reuel, Moses' father-in-law was dead, and had been succeeded by Jethro, probably his son and, therefore, the brother-in-law, and not the father-in-law, of Moses)**;

[2] Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back (it is obvious from the account given in Chapter 4 that Moses sent his wife, Zipporah, along with their two sons, Eliezer and Gershom, back to her own kin folk, the Midianites, before he went to Egypt)**,

[3] And her two sons; of which the name of the one was Gershom; for he said, I have been an alien in a strange land:

[4] And the name of the other was Eliezer; for the God of my father, said he, was my help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh:

[5] And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife (Moses' sons and wife) unto Moses into the wilderness, where he encamped at the Mount of God (concerning the time factor of this visit by Jethro, Pink says that Exodus, Chapter 18 is a parenthesis, interrupting the chronological order of the Book, which the Holy Spirit intended to do; he went on to say that Exodus, Chapter 17 portrays Israel at Rephidim, and then, in Chapter 19, they are viewed at Sinai; so the incident recorded in Chapter 18 occurred just as Israel was about to leave Sinai and enter into the wilderness of Paran; it was in the third month after leaving Egypt that Israel reached the Mount of the Law; it was eleven months later that Jethro came to bring Moses' wife and children):

6 And he said unto Moses, I your father-in-law Jethro am come unto you, and your wife, and her two sons with her.

7 And Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and did obeisance, and kissed him; and they asked each other of their welfare; and they came into the tent.

8 And Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done unto Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the travail that had come upon them by the way, and how the LORD delivered them.

9 And Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, whom He had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians.

10 And Jethro said, Blessed be the LORD, Who has delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, Who has delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

11 Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods: for in the thing wherein they dealt proudly He was above them (from this statement, it seems that Jethro, like most heathen, believed in a plurality of gods and, therefore, had regarded the God of Israel as merely one among many equals; now he renounces this creed, and emphatically declares his belief that Jehovah is above all other gods; however, even though he has now confessed Jehovah as greater, still, it seems that he clings to the belief that other gods existed).

12 And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took a Burnt Offering and Sacrifices for God: and Aaron came, and all the Elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law before God (this Verse proclaims the fact that Moses knew and understood, as well as all the Elders of Israel, which he now relates to Jethro, that Israel's might and power were all in the Blood of the Lamb).

MAN'S ADVICE

[13] And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses sat to judge the people: and the people stood by Moses from the morning unto the evening.

[14] And when Moses' father-in-law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this thing that you do to the people? why do you sit alone, and all the people stand by you from morning unto evening? (Moses, for this particular time, succumbed to the temptation of the flesh, to rely on the weak arm of flesh. He listened to man instead of God. That problem persists with us even unto this hour.)

[15] And Moses said unto his father-in-law, Because the people come unto me to enquire of God (while the responsibility of Moses was immense, he was not asked to bear these people alone, for God was with him)**:

[16] When they have a matter, they come unto me; and I judge between one and another, and I do make them know the Statutes of God, and His Laws (it was God Who actually was bearing them; Moses was but the instrument; he might just as well have spoken of his rod as bearing the people; he was merely an instrument in God's Hand, as the rod was in his)**.

[17] And Moses' father-in-law said unto him, The thing that you do is not good (it is here the servants of Christ constantly fail; and the failure is all the more dangerous because it wears the appearance of humility).

[18] You will surely wear away, both you, and this people who is with you: for this thing is too heavy for you; you are not able to perform it yourself alone (if God has imposed the responsibility, He will surely do with the person what is necessary to sustain it).

[19] Hearken now unto my voice, I will give you counsel, and God shall be with you: Be the representative of the people to God, that you may bring the causes unto God (it is never the fruit of humility to depart from a Divinely-appointed post; on the contrary, the deepest humility will express itself by remaining there, which is simple dependence upon God)**:

20 And you shall teach them ordinances and laws, and shall show them the way wherein they must walk, and the work that they must do (it is a sure evidence of being occupied with self when we shrink from Service on the ground of inability; God does not call us unto Service on the ground of our ability, but of His Own; the truth is, the advice given by Jethro was not of God).

21 Moreover you shall provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens (the question is not of the advice offered by Jethro, whether good or bad, but rather that it came from the heart of man, and not from God; that's where the problem was; Moses was to look to the Lord for everything, which the Lord demands that we do presently; while I value the advice and counsel of my brother and sister in the Lord, it is the Holy Spirit Who guides me into all truth [Jn. 16:13-15]).

22 And let them judge the people at all seasons: and it shall be, that every great matter they shall bring unto you, but every small matter they shall judge: so shall it be easier for yourself, and they shall bear the burden with you. (Some may ask, "Could not God use one such as Jethro to give advice and counsel?" God can use anything; however, had He been using Jethro, He would first of all have related this to Moses.)

23 If you shall do this thing, and God command you so, then you shall be able to endure, and all this people shall also go to their place in peace.

24 So Moses hearkened to the voice of his father-in-law, and did all that he had said (in essence, Moses complained of the burden, and the burden was speedily removed; but with it the high honor of being allowed to carry it).

25 And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens (there was no fresh power introduced; it was the same Spirit, whether in one or in many; there was no more value or virtue in the flesh of many men than in the flesh of one man).

[26] And they judged the people at all seasons: the hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.

[27] And Moses let his father-in-law depart; and he went his way into his own land. (There was nothing in this wrong way of power gained, but a great deal in the way of dignity lost, by this movement on the part of Moses, as he listened to Jethro, instead of the Lord. There is a distinct possibility that the rebellion of Korah came out of these man-devised plans [Num., Chpt. 16].)

CHAPTER 19

SINAI

[1] In the third month, when the Children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness of Sinai.

[2] For they were departed from Rephidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai (this desert, immediately before Mount Sinai, is approximately two miles long and a half mile wide; it is nearly flat, and could easily accommodate the nearly 3 million Israelites who would gather here), and had pitched in the wilderness; and there Israel camped before the Mount (the Feast of the Passover witnessed Israel's departure from Egypt, and now they are soon to come to the Feast of Pentecost, which would occasion the giving of the Law, 50 days after Passover).

THE COVENANT

[3] And Moses went up unto God, and the LORD called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shall you say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Children of Israel (this is Mount Sinai, where the Law was given);

[4] You have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto Myself (this speaks of a Salvation wholly of God).

[5] Now therefore, if you will obey My Voice indeed, and keep My Covenant, then you shall be a Peculiar Treasure unto Me above all people: for all the Earth is Mine (now, in Christ, spiritual Israel, which is the Church, is a part of this "Peculiar Treasure"):

6 And you shall be unto Me a Kingdom of Priests, and an Holy Nation. These are the words which you shall speak unto the Children of Israel (these were God's people, in fact, the only people on the face of the Earth who fell into this category; even though all the Earth was His, still, these were the only people who knew Him).

7 And Moses came and called for the Elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the LORD commanded him.

8 And all the people answered together, and said, All that the LORD has spoken we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the LORD. (Man has ever proclaimed his ability to obey God, and has ever portrayed his constant failure. Had they known their own hearts, they would have replied that such a condition was impossible to them; and they would have cast themselves upon God that He would give them new hearts capable of such an obedience. This would have been granted, and the Feast promised in Chapter 5 enjoyed. Instead of the Feast, there was fear and judgment.)

THE PEOPLE

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto you in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with you, and believe you forever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD. (God is "thrice-Holy." As such, He has to veil Himself when He speaks to sinful man.)

10 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and sanctify them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their clothes (the word "sanctify" actually means "set apart" and, in this case, "set apart exclusively to the Lord")**,

11 And be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon Mount Sinai (three days were to be spent in preparation of the people).

12 And you shall set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that you go not up into the Mount, or touch the border of it: whosoever touches the Mount shall be surely put to death (as is obvious, before the Cross, man was very limited as to how he could approach God; since the Cross, "whosoever will may come" [Rev. 22:17])**:

[13] There shall not an hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the trumpet sounds long, they shall come up to the Mount.

[14] And Moses went down from the Mount unto the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes (sanctification then was mostly external, meaning symbolic; however, since the Cross, Sanctification is a spiritual work).

[15] And he said unto the people, Be ready against the third day: come not at your wives (once again, this had to do with the sanctification process).

[16] And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the Mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that was in the camp trembled. (And rightly so! The Cross alone has opened up the way.)

[17] And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the nether part of the Mount. (It is not that God is unapproachable. In fact, He wanted man to approach, but, due to the sinfulness of man, this, at the time, was the best that could be done.)

[18] And Mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole Mount quaked greatly. (All of this proclaims the awful Holiness of God Almighty. What a mighty God we serve!)

MOSES

[19] And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him by a voice (may be translated, "And God kept answering him by a voice"; this explains how the following Chapters were given to Moses).

[20] And the LORD came down upon Mount Sinai, on the top of the Mount: and the LORD called Moses up to the top of the Mount; and Moses went up (it is believed that Aaron at this time may have been with Moses).

[21] And the LORD said unto Moses, Go down, charge the people, lest they break through unto the LORD to gaze, and many of them perish (no sooner had Moses arrived at the appointed place that the Lord told him to go back down; once again, the people must be warned).

[22] And let the priests also, which come near to the LORD, sanctify themselves, lest the LORD break forth upon them (none were excluded, concerning the warning).

[23] And Moses said unto the LORD, The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai: for you charged us, saying, Set bounds about the Mount, and sanctify it (if men presently attempt to come into the Presence of God by any means other than the Cross, spiritual death is the result, and sometimes physical death [Eph. 2:13-18]).

[24] And the LORD said unto him, Away, get thee down, and you shall come up, you, and Aaron with you: but let not the priests and the people break through to come up unto the LORD, lest He (the Lord) break forth upon them.

[25] So Moses went down unto the people, and spoke unto them.

CHAPTER 20

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

[1] And God spoke all these words, saying (the Ten Commandments given by God to Moses on Mount Sinai are the foundation of all law, at least law that is righteous, for the entire world; it is the moral Law of God and, as such, cannot change)**,

[2] I am the LORD your God, which have brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage (the Lord doesn't appeal to the Israelites as Creator, even though He definitely was that; He appealed to them as their Deliverer; as a result, He was to be obeyed by His people from a sentiment of love, not by fear).

[3] You shall have no other gods before Me (the manner in which this First Commandment is given indicates that each individual of the nation is addressed severally, and is required personally to obey the Law, a mere general national obedience being insufficient; this Commandment requires the worship of one God Alone, Jehovah; it implies, in point of fact, that there is no other God).

[4] You shall not make unto yourself any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in Heaven above, or that is in the Earth beneath, or that is in the water under the Earth.

[5] You shall not bow down yourself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them who hate Me;

[6] And showing mercy unto thousands of them who love Me, and keep My Commandments. (The prohibition intended here does not forbid the arts of sculpture, painting, photography, etc., or even to condemn the use of them, but to disallow the worship of God under material forms. Those who ignore this Commandment are guilty of the sin of idolatry. Also, many have tried to derive from Verse 5 that which they refer to as the "family curse"; however, let it be known and understood, every curse was addressed at the Cross of Calvary [Gal. 3:13-14]. As well, Jesus has perfectly kept all the Commandments, and all who trust Him, and what He did for us at the Cross, are participants of God's gracious Mercy.)

[7] You shall not take the Name of the Lord your God in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless who takes His Name in vain (taking the Name of the Lord in vain pertains to all blasphemy, all swearing, all perjury and, in fact, all irreverent use of God's Name in ordinary life).

[8] Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy.

[9] Six days you shall labour, and do all your work:

[10] But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God: in it you shall not do any work, you, nor your son, nor your daughter, your manservant, nor your maidservant, nor your cattle, nor your stranger that is within your gates:

[11] For in six days the LORD made Heaven and Earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath Day, and hallowed it. (The seventh day was not so much to be a day of worship, as we think of such now, but rather a day of "rest." Even the very beasts, pressed into man's service since the Fall, shall rest. All were to observe this day. Everything pertaining to the Law of Moses, in some way, spoke of Christ. The "Sabbath" was no exception. It was meant to portray the fact that there is "rest" in Christ and, in fact, that there is rest "only in Christ" [Mat. 11:28-30]. So, when a person presently accepts Christ, they are in effect keeping the Sabbath, which speaks of the "rest" that we have in Christ — rest from self-effort to attain unto Righteousness. Even though there was no written command by the Holy Spirit to do so, gradually we find Believers, during the time of the Early Church, as recorded in the Book of Acts, making Sunday, the first day of the week, the day of our Lord's Resurrection, their day of worship, etc., which is different than the Sabbath of old, because Christ has fulfilled in totality the old Jewish Sabbath.)

12 Honour your father and your mother: that your days may be long upon the land which the LORD your God gives you (honoring the father and the mother sets the stage for the honoring of God; the first five Commandments have to do with man's obligation toward God, while the last five have to do with his obligation toward his fellowman).

13 You shall not kill (should have been translated, "Thou shalt do no murder"; God, in His Holy Word, commands magistrates to put evil men to death [Rom. 13:4]; that is not murder; to "kill" and to "commit murder" are two different verbs in the Hebrew Text).

14 You shall not commit adultery (regarding this sin, both man and woman are placed in the same category; our duty toward our neighbor is to respect the bond on which the family is based, and that conjugal honor which to the true man is dearer than life; marriage, according to the original institution, makes the husband and wife "one flesh" [Gen. 2:24]; and to break in upon this sacramental union was at once a crime and a profanity; it is a sin against man and against God).

15 You shall not steal (as it regards our neighbor, we are to respect his property; we simply don't take that which doesn't belong to us).

16 You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour (false witness is of two kinds, public and private; we may either seek to damage our neighbor by giving false evidence against him in a court of justice, or simply culminate him to others in our social intercourse with them).

17 You shall not covet your neighbour's house, you shall not covet your neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is your neighbour's (covetousness addresses what causes the evil deed; this Commandment teaches men that there is One Who sees the heart; to Whose Eyes "all things are naked and open"; and Who cares far less for the outward act than the inward thought or motive from which the act proceeds).

FEAR

18 And all the people saw the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw it, they removed, and stood afar off (the word "saw" in this Verse is a particular type of Hebrew verb which means "perceive, witness"; in other words, no one of the hundreds of thousands of the Children of Israel had any doubt as to what they had witnessed and experienced).

19 And they said unto Moses, You speak with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die (as powerful as was this manifestation, one far more powerful was yet to be manifested, and we speak of the coming of Christ, Who manifested the Father as He had not been manifested before).

20 And Moses said unto the people, Fear not: for God is come to prove you, and that His fear may be before your faces, that you sin not (the Lord manifesting Himself in this fashion was not meant to strike fear in the people, even though it definitely did that, but rather that the people would want to obey the Lord, because of His Almighty Power).

21 And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where God was (the Cross made it possible for all who "stand afar off" to now "come near" [Rev. 22:17]).

WORSHIP

22 And the LORD said unto Moses, Thus you shall say unto the Children of Israel, You have seen that I have talked with you from Heaven (the greatest Revelation yet!).

23 You shall not make with Me gods of silver, neither shall you make unto you gods of gold (no image was to be made of what they thought God looked like; even if made of silver or gold it would be grossly wrong).

[24] An Altar of earth you shall make unto Me, and shall sacrifice thereon your Burnt Offerings, and your Peace Offerings, your sheep, and your oxen: in all places where I record My Name I will come unto you, and I will bless you. (The Altar pictures Christ and what He would do for us at the Cross. The earth pictured His humanity; the stone, His Deity; the shed blood of the animal sacrificed, His priceless Life sacrificed to put away sin and bring the sinner back to God [I Pet. 3:18]. All blessings come exclusively through the Cross, and no blessings come other than through the Cross, at least not from God.)

[25] And if you will make Me an Altar of stone, you shall not build it of hewn stone: for if you lift up your tool upon it, you have polluted it. (No tool was to embellish the Altar; it was perfect in its beauty to the eye of God. And such was, and is, Jesus. As well, one might seek to paint the lily or adorn the rose, as for man to attempt to add to the beauty of Him Who is altogether lovely. As well, man must not seek to add to Calvary, or take from Calvary, which the "tool" would do, and which it is doing in countless places at present.)

[26] Neither shall you go up by steps unto My Altar, that your nakedness be not discovered thereon. (When man exalts himself above God, he only exposes his own moral nakedness. The Cross, of which the Altar was a Type, must not be changed in any way. If so, meaning if men try to picture or present Christ in another fashion rather than "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" [I Cor. 1:23], they then find themselves with "another Jesus" [II Cor. 11:4]. Lifting up the tool upon the stone, desiring to make it into their own likes or dislikes, thereby pollutes the Message. This is the great sin of the modern Church.)

CHAPTER 21

SERVANTS

[1] Now these are the Judgments which you shall set before them (the legislation involving this Chapter, and the following two, points to a loving God charting a moral course for a corrupt people).

[2] If you buy an Hebrew servant, six years he shall serve: and in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing (the servants in the economy of Israel, as designed by God, had no kindred spirit whatsoever with that which we think of today as slavery; it was the same as an individual hiring himself to a particular master or family to serve for a period of time, which payment would include certain things; the time for this particular servitude was six years).

[3] If he came in by himself, he shall go out by himself: if he were married, then his wife shall go out with him (if the man was married when he indentured himself, when he had served the agreed upon time, his wife would be free with him).

[4] If his master have given him a wife, and she have born him sons or daughters; the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself (in this case, he would have to make arrangements as it regards his wife and children).

[5] And if the servant shall plainly say, I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free (all of this proclaims the Servanthood of Christ and, thereby, the manner in which we are to serve the Lord)**:

[6] Then his master shall bring him unto the judges; he shall also bring him to the door, or unto the door post; and his master shall bore his ear through with an aul; and he shall serve him forever. (This perfectly Types our Lord Jesus Christ. He indentured Himself to the human race, and served perfectly. During this time, He gained a wife, i.e., "the Church" [Rom. 7:4]. The union of Himself with this corporate body has brought forth "children" [Eph. 2:13-18]. Furthermore, He was "pierced" on the Cross for you and me, thereby guaranteeing His position as "Intercessor" on our behalf, and forever. He did this because He loves the Father, and He loves us.)

7 And if a man sell his daughter to be a maidservant, she shall not go out as the menservants do.

8 If she please not her master, who has betrothed her to himself, then shall he let her be redeemed: to sell her unto a strange nation he shall have no power, seeing he has dealt deceitfully with her.

9 And if he have betrothed her unto his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters.

10 If he take him another wife; her food, her raiment, and her duty of marriage, shall he not diminish.

11 And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out free without money. (How does all of this picture Christ? It does so in the fact that He has bought us [I Cor. 6:20; 7:23]. The "maidservant" refers to Israel. Israel desired to remain under the Law; therefore, she chose a secondary position. "Another wife" refers to the Church. But yet, Israel is to continue to be supported, which the Lord has done with this people in a distant way. Not desiring to remain at all, she has been allowed to go her own way. But that way has proven to be most unsatisfactory. But even as Hosea predicted, and showed by his own personal experiences, Israel will return.

While all of this had to do with everyday life and living as it regards Israel of long ago, still, it had a prophetic meaning, as well, to which we have briefly alluded. We must never forget that Jesus is the True Israel, just as He is the True Church and the True Man.)

MURDER

[12] He who smites a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to death (this speaks of that which we now refer to as "cold-blooded murder").

[13] And if a man lie not in wait, but God deliver him into his hand; then I will appoint you a place where he shall flee. (These statements involve aggravated assault, or even second-degree murder. Six cities of refuge were to be designated, where the shedder of blood might flee, and where he might be safe from relatives of the deceased, until his cause was tried before the men of his own city, or else the High Priest dies [Num. 35:22-25]. When the High Priest died, the accused could then go free. Of course, this had to do with Christ, our Great High Priest, Who died on the Cross of Calvary that we might go free.)

[14] But if a man come presumptuously upon his neighbour, to kill him with guile; you shall take him from My Altar, that he may die. (Joab is a perfect example of this [I Ki. 2:28-34]. The idea is, in some cases, the condemned could grab hold of the horns of the Altar and be spared; however, this was only in cases where his action had seemed justified. Bringing it up to the present time, the Holy Spirit is telling us here that one cannot claim to trust Christ and what Christ did at the Cross and, at the same time, continue presumptuously in sin. Many have the erroneous idea that if they claim to have Faith in Christ, this covers their wayward direction. It doesn't! Jesus saves us from sin, not in sin!)

[15] And he who smites his father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death.

KIDNAPPING

[16] And he who steals (kidnaps) a man, and sells him (as a slave), or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.

PARENTAL DISHONOR

[17] And he who curses his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death. (Pulpit Commentary says concerning this: "The unsystematic character of the arrangement in this Chapter is remarkably shown by this interruption of the consideration of different sorts of homicide, in order to introduce offenses of quite a different character, and those not very closely allied to each other." Three capital crimes requiring capital punishment are noted here: 1. The dishonoring of parents, whether striking the parent by the child, or 2. Cursing the mother or the father, both were punishable by death; and, 3. Kidnapping is as well punishable by death.

The severity of the sentence indicates that in God's sight such sins are of the deepest dye.)

OFFENSES

[18] And if men strive together, and one smite another with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but keeps his bed:

[19] If he rise again, and walk abroad upon his staff, then shall he who smote him be quit (acquitted): only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and shall cause him to be thoroughly healed.

[20] And if a man smite his servant, or his maid, with a rod, and he die under his hand; he shall be surely punished.

[21] Notwithstanding, if he continue a day or two, he shall not be punished: for he is his money (meaning that he has paid for the services of the servant and, providing the cause was just, he must not be punished, even though he did hit him).

[22] If men strive, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart from her (the pregnancy is terminated), and yet no mischief follow: he shall be surely punished, according as the woman's husband will lay upon him; and he shall pay as the judges determine.

[23] And if any mischief follow, then you shall give life for life,

[24] Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

[25] Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe. (The order of retaliation, as it referred to here, was seldom carried out under Jewish Law, but was rather settled by the giving of money or labor, etc.; however, let it ever be understood, the Scripture also says: "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay, says the Lord" [Lev. 19:18; Deut. 32:35]. Jesus said, "With what measure you mete, it shall be measured to you again" [Mat. 7:2]. The Word of God, in one way or the other, will always be carried out.)

[26] And if a man smite the eye of his servant, or the eye of his maid, that it perish; he shall let him go free for his eye's sake.

[27] And if he smite out his manservant's tooth, or his maidservant's tooth; he shall let him go free for his tooth's sake.

[28] If an ox gore a man or a woman, that they die: then the ox shall be surely stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be quit (won't be responsible).

[29] But if the ox were wont to push with his horn in time past, and it had been testified to his owner, and he has not kept him in, but that he has killed a man or a woman; the ox shall be stoned, and his owner also shall be put to death.

[30] If there be laid on him a sum of money, then he shall give for the ransom of his life whatsoever is laid upon him (pay money instead of forfeiting his life, which was what was normally done).

[31] Whether he have gored a son, or have gored a daughter, according to this judgment shall it be done unto him.

[32] If the ox shall push a manservant or a maidservant; he shall give unto their master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

33 And if a man shall open a pit, or if a man shall dig a pit, and not cover it, and an ox or an ass fall therein;

34 The owner of the pit shall make it good, and give money unto the owner of them; and the dead beast shall be his.

35 And if one man's ox hurt another's, that he die; then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money of it, and the dead ox also they shall divide.

36 Or if it be known that the ox has used to push in time past, and his owner has not kept him in; he shall surely pay ox for ox; and the dead shall be his own. (He will be responsible. We also see in all of this that God is no respecter of persons. What was applicable to the poorest of the poor was just as applicable to the rich and the powerful.

All of this shows us the amazing love of God, and the shocking depravity of man. It is humiliating to learn that such laws had to be made to protect men from the appalling evil which prompted them to oppress one another. On the other hand, the tender Love of God shines forth like the Sun in this legislation. That mighty love even thought upon the tooth of a little slave girl, and enacted that she should be set free if so slightly injured [Vs. 27].)

CHAPTER 22

RESTITUTION

[1] If a man shall steal an ox, or a sheep, and kill it, or sell it; he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep.

[2] If a thief be found breaking up (breaking into a house), and be smitten that he die, there shall no blood be shed for him (justifiable homicide).

[3] If the sun be risen upon him, there shall be blood shed for him (the thief has no intention of harming anyone; therefore, if he is maliciously killed, the man who kills him may very well suffer the same fate from the man's relatives); for he should make full restitution (the thief should replace what he has stolen); if he have nothing, then he shall be sold for this theft (sold as a slave, in order that the debt be paid).

[4] If the theft be certainly found in his hand alive, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep; he shall restore double.

[5] If a man shall cause a field or vineyard to be eaten, and shall put in his beast, and shall feed in another man's field; of the best of his own field, and of the best of his own vineyard, shall he make restitution (as I'm certain is obvious by now, property rights were held sacred).

[6] If fire break out, and catch in thorns, so that the stacks of corn, or the standing corn, or the field, be consumed therewith; he who kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.

[7] If a man shall deliver unto his neighbour money or stuff to keep, and it be stolen out of the man's house; if the thief be found, let him pay double.

8 If the thief be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto the judges, to see whether he have put his hand unto his neighbour's goods. (The Law of Moses, which in reality is the Law of God, taught Israel many things. It taught them how they should conduct themselves toward God, and also went into minute detail as to how they should conduct themselves toward their fellowman. Nothing was left out, with every single thing covered; Israel was expected to abide by this legislation.)

9 For all manner of trespass, whether it be for ox, for ass, for sheep, for raiment, or for any manner of lost thing, which another challenges to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before the judges (a trial); and whom the judges shall condemn, he shall pay double unto his neighbour.

10 If a man deliver unto his neighbour an ass, or an ox, or a sheep, or any beast, to keep; and it die, or be hurt, or driven away, no man seeing it:

11 Then shall an oath of the LORD be between them both, that he has not put his hand unto his neighbour's goods; and the owner of it shall accept thereof, and he shall not make it good.

12 And if it be stolen from him, he shall make restitution unto the owner thereof.

13 If it be torn in pieces, then let him bring it for witness, and he shall not make good that which was torn.

14 And if a man borrow ought of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or die, the owner thereof being not with it, he shall surely make it good.

15 But if the owner thereof be with it, he shall not make it good: if it be an hired thing, it came for his hire. (While the Law was totally fulfilled in Christ, which means that it is not now incumbent upon Believers, still, the principle of Law will always, and without exception, be carried out in Christ, that is, if Christ is properly addressed.)

ENTICEMENT

16 And if a man entice a maid that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall surely endow her to be his wife (if this law was followed now, this sin would be greatly decreased).

17 If her father utterly refuse to give her unto him, he (the one who committed the sin) shall pay money according to the dowry of virgins.

CAPITAL CRIMES

18 You shall not suffer a witch to live (this applied to Israel only, and is not incumbent on modern Believers; however, it must be readily understood that God is unalterably opposed to all type of witchcraft).

19 Whosoever lies with a beast (engage in intercourse) shall surely be put to death (this sin is grossly unnatural, in that it insults God, as it regards His role as Creator; any such act pulls one down to the level of an animal, thereby insulting God's highest form of creation, which is man).

20 He who sacrifices unto any god, save unto the LORD only, he shall be utterly destroyed. (Pulpit says: "Sacrifice was the chief act of worship; and to sacrifice to a false god was to renounce the True God. Under a theocracy, which Israel was, this was rebellion, and rightly punished with death. In states which were not a theocracy [God-ruled], and none were with the exception of Israel, such would not be a civil offense, and would be left to the final judgment of the Almighty.")

VARIOUS DUTIES

21 You shall neither vex a stranger (a Gentile) nor oppress him: for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

22 You shall not afflict any widow, or fatherless child.

23 If you afflict them in any wise, and they cry at all unto Me, I will surely hear their cry;

24 And My wrath shall wax hot, and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless. (The Gentile, referred to as a "stranger," was placed with the widow and the orphan, and made the special object of God's care. In fact, it was on account of the neglect of this precept that the capture of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar, and the destruction of its inhabitants, was allowed to take place [Jer. 22:3-5].)

25 If you lend money to any of My people that is poor by you, you shall not be to him as an usurer, neither shall you lay upon him usury. (In the lending of money, Jews were not to charge other Jews interest on that money. On the other hand, it was distinctly declared that interest might be taken from strangers [Deut. 23:20].)

26 If you at all take your neighbour's raiment to pledge (as collateral), you shall deliver it unto him by that the sun goes down:

27 For that is his covering only, it is his raiment for his skin: wherein shall he sleep? and it shall come to pass, when he cries unto Me, that I will hear; for I am gracious.

28 You shall not revile the gods (Judges or Magistrates), nor curse the ruler of your people (the office must be respected).

29 You shall not delay to offer the first of your ripe fruits, and of your liquors (Tithes): the firstborn of your sons shall you give unto Me (dedicate to the Lord).

30 Likewise shall you do with your oxen, and with your sheep: seven days it shall be with his dam (the mother); on the eighth day you shall give it Me (due to the Fall, birth was viewed as an unclean process, which it was, and is, and, therefore, nothing was fit for presentation to God except after a particular interval, here, seven days).

31 And you shall be holy men unto Me ("to be set apart exclusively unto God"): neither shall you eat any flesh that is torn of beasts in the field; you shall cast it to the dogs. (It was because the blood of such an animal would not be properly drained from it. Some would remain in the tissues, and thence the animal would be unclean.)

CHAPTER 23

(1491 B.C.)

ETHICAL MATTERS

[1] You shall not raise a false report: put not your hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness. (This deals with the Ninth Commandment, in that we must not bear false witness.)

[2] You shall not follow a multitude to do evil; neither shall you speak in a cause to decline after many to wrest judgment (just because a multitude of people may champion a particular cause doesn't necessarily mean that it's right)**:

[3] Neither shall you countenance a poor man in his cause (in courts of justice, strict justice is to be rendered without any leaning either towards the rich or towards the poor; to lean either way is to pervert judgment).

[4] If you meet your enemy's ox or his ass going astray, you shall surely bring it back to him again (it is remarkable as to how close this particular law comes to New Testament Christianity).

[5] If you see the ass of him who hates you lying under his burden, and would forbear to help him, you shall surely help with him (do unto others as you would have them do unto you).

[6] You shall not wrest the judgment of your poor in his cause (while Verse 3 warned that the poor were not to be favored simply because they were poor, this Verse goes a step further, in effect, stating that the poor must not be maltreated simply because they are poor).

[7] You must keep far from a false matter; and the innocent and righteous slay you not: for I will not justify the wicked (in effect, the Holy Spirit through Moses is saying here that the innocent and the righteous can be seriously hurt by the spreading of "false matters").

[8] And you shall take no gift: for the gift blinds the wise, and perverts the words of the righteous (this Verse condemns all bribery).

[9] Also you shall not oppress a stranger *(Gentile): for you know the heart of a stranger, seeing you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

[10] And six years you shall sow your land, and shall gather in the fruits thereof:

[11] But the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie still; that the poor of your people may eat: and what they leave the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner you shall deal with your vineyard, and with your oliveyard. (The seventh year was to be a sabbatical year, when no crops were to be planted, and the land was to lie fallow. It is believed that the "seventy years" of captivity by the Babylonians were intended to make up for the failure of this observance of the sabbatical year. This being the case, we must understand that God says what He means, and means what He says!)

[12] Six days you shall do your work, and on the seventh day you shall rest: that your ox and your ass may rest, and the son of your handmaid, and the stranger, may be refreshed (as well, Israel was to remember the Sabbath, which speaks of the seventh day; as stated, this was a symbol of the "rest" which one would find in Christ).

[13] And in all things that I have said unto you be circumspect *(be careful to obey these laws): and make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of your mouth (Israelites were not to mention the names of heathen gods; they were rather to praise the Lord, and do so constantly).

THREE NATIONAL FEASTS

[14] Three times you shall keep a Feast unto Me in the year. (Man's corrupt doctrine is never to be added to the fact of Atonement; hence the importance and sweetness of the expressions "My Sacrifice" and "Feast unto Me" — Williams.)

15 You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread: (you shall eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded you, in the time appointed of the month Abib; for in it you came out from Egypt: and none shall appear before Me empty:) (This Feast took place during the time of the barley harvest, which would correspond with our April. During the seven day period, three Feasts were observed: "Passover," "Unleavened Bread," and "Firstfruits." All typified Christ: "Crucifixion," "Perfect Life," "Resurrection." As well, none were to come before the Lord without the proper Sacrifice.)

16 And the Feast of Harvest, the firstfruits of your labours, which you have sown in the field *(this was the Feast of Pentecost, which took place 50 days after Passover, corresponding with our May; it typified Christ as the Baptizer with the Holy Spirit): and the Feast of Ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when you have gathered in your labours out of the field. (This was the Feast of Tabernacles, which took place at the time of the fruit harvest, corresponding with our October; it incorporated three Feasts: "Trumpets," "Atonement," and "Tabernacles." The entire time was approximately 15 days.)

17 Three times in the year all your males (from each family) shall appear before the LORD God (at these seven Feasts conducted three times a year, April, May, and October).

18 You shall not offer the blood of My Sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the fat of My Sacrifice remain until the morning. (It shall be burned immediately on the Altar. Nothing must be added to the Cross, or taken from the Cross. The Cross of Christ is the revealed truth of God's judgment on sin. Never associate the idea of martyrdom with the Cross of Christ. It was the supreme triumph, and it shook the very foundations of Hell. There is nothing in time or eternity more certain and irrefutable than what Jesus Christ accomplished on the Cross — He made it possible for the entire human race to be brought back into a right-standing relationship with God.)

19 The first of the firstfruits of your land you shall bring into the house of the LORD your God. You shall not seethe (boil) a kid (baby lamb) in his mother's milk. (This is repeated three times in the Law of Moses [Ex. 23:19; 34:16; Deut. 14:21]. This prohibition had to do with the lamb being a symbol, or even a Type, of the coming Son of God, Who would give Himself for our sins on the Cross of Calvary. Christ did not die in the womb and, as well, even though Satan tried his hardest, He obviously was not killed as a baby. So, it was prohibited that a baby lamb would be used in this fashion.)

INSTRUCTIONS

20 Behold, I send an Angel before you, to keep you in the way, and to bring you into the place which I have prepared. (The "Angel" mentioned here is the "Son of God.")

21 Beware of Him, and obey His Voice, provoke Him not; for He will not pardon your transgressions: for My Name is in Him. (Jewish Commentators claim the Angel to be Moses; however, the expressions, "pardon" and "My Name is in Him," are too high for Moses, or any man, for that matter.)

22 But if you shall indeed obey His Voice, and do all that I speak; then I will be an enemy unto your enemies, and an adversary unto your adversaries. (This holds true at present, as well!)

23 For My Angel shall go before you, and bring you in unto the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites: and I will cut them off. (While the enemies would be present in the Promised Land, Israel didn't have to worry; the Lord would go before them and handle the situation. He does the same for us presently.)

24 You shall not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do after their works: but you shall utterly overthrow them, and quite break down their images. (Israel was to rid the land of all heathen gods.)

25 And you shall serve the LORD your God, and He shall bless your bread, and your water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of you. (What a Promise!)

26 There shall nothing cast their young, nor be barren, in your land (Israel would be fruitful as it regards large families): the number of your days I will fulfill (long life).

27 I will send My Fear before you, and will destroy all the people to whom you shall come, and I will make all your enemies turn their backs unto you. (The Lord promises to destroy all the enemies of Israel. Can modern Believers claim the same Promises? We can claim these Promises, and even greater, because we now have a better Covenant, based on better Promises [Heb. 8:6].)

28 And I will send hornets before you, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite, from before you. (The Lord has the entirety of creation at His disposal to use as He sees fit. So, He can take something as small as a "hornet" and use it as His army, which He did.)

29 I will not drive them out from before you in one year; lest the land become desolate, and the beast of the field multiply against you.

30 By little and little I will drive them out from before you, until you be increased, and inherit the land. (Had their obedience been more complete, the power of the Canaanitish nations would have been more thoroughly broken, and the sufferings and servitude related in the Book of Judges would not have had to be endured.)

31 And I will set your bounds from the Red Sea (takes in all of Sinai, the exact area occupied by Israel some years back, when they defeated the Egyptians, but given back to Egypt in the Camp David Accords) even unto the Sea of the Philistines (the Mediterranean), and from the desert (marks the eastern boundary, which probably included some of modern-day Saudi Arabia) unto the river (the "river" in the Pentateuch is always the "Euphrates," which marked the northern boundary; so we can see from all of this that Israel was promised much more than what they actually attained, except under David): for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and you shall drive them out before you. (We are living as Believers in a fallen world. It is ruled by the prince of darkness; consequently, the Lord sets boundaries, as it regards His Children, with guaranteed victories within those boundaries, that is, if we properly follow the Lord.)

32 You shall make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. (Every enemy must be rooted out of the land, just as every enemy must be rooted out of our own lives. Total trust in the Lord, and what He accomplished at Calvary, which gives the Holy Spirit the latitude to work in our lives, is the only way this can be done [Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11; Gal. 6:14].)

33 They shall not dwell in your land, lest they make you sin against Me: for if you serve their gods, it will surely be a snare unto you. (Anything we leave in our lives that is a reproach to the Lord will ultimately be a "snare unto us." Everything that is un-Christlike must be rooted out!)

CHAPTER 24

THE BLOOD

[1] And H e (the Lord) said unto Moses, Come up unto the LORD, you, and Aaron, and Nadab, and Abihu (Aaron's sons), and seventy of the elders of Israel; and you shall worship afar off. (The short phrase "afar off" proclaims the best the Law can do. One can search out the Law, and not be able to find the two words, "Draw nigh." The Blood of Jesus Alone makes it possible for believing sinners to "draw nigh," and that alone [Eph. 2:13-18].)

[2] And Moses alone shall come near the LORD: but they (all the others) shall not come near: neither shall the people go up with him.

[3] And Moses came and told the people all the Words of the LORD, and all the Judgments: and all the people answered with one voice, and said, All the Words which the LORD has said will we do. (That which Moses told the people as he came down from the mountain pertained to the legislation given us in Chapters 21-23.)

[4] And Moses wrote all the Words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and built an Altar under the hill, and twelve pillars, according to the Twelve Tribes of Israel. (The "Altar" represents Christ and what He would do at the Cross. The "twelve pillars" represent the Government of God, with the number "twelve" in the Bible always standing for that principle. So, we see here that the Government of God is built on the Foundation of the Cross, which, in effect, was in the Mind of God from before the foundation of the world [I Pet. 1:18-20]. If we attempt to build a government outside of the Cross, or to tamper in any way with the Cross, as it regards the changing of its meaning, we have just instituted a government devised by man, which God can never accept. And that's exactly what the modern Church is doing.)

5 And he sent young men of the Children of Israel, which offered Burnt Offerings, and sacrificed Peace Offerings of oxen unto the LORD. (The "Burnt Offerings" signified that God would give His all as it refers to the Redemption of man, and the "Peace Offerings" signified that the "Whole Burnt Offering" was accepted by God, and peace is now restored. The "Peace Offering" could also be offered after the "Sin" and "Trespass Offerings.")

6 And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basons; and half of the blood he sprinkled on the Altar. (The blood, which symbolized the life of the victim, was the essential part of every Sacrifice, and was usually poured over the Altar, or, at any rate, sprinkled upon it, as the very crowning act of Offering [Lev. 1:5; 3:8].)

7 And he took the Book of the Covenant, and read in the audience of the people (the first mention of the Bible, at least in its beginning form, is given in Exodus 17:14; it is interesting that the first mention would be in connection with the hostility of the natural man, symbolized by Amalek, to the spiritual man, symbolized by Israel; and now the Bible is mentioned again in connection with the giving of the Law): and they said, All that the LORD has said will we do, and be obedient. (While they possibly desired to be obedient, there was no way they could be, because the obedience that God demands is a perfect obedience, which man is incapable of rendering. Their only recourse was the "Altar," i.e., "the Cross.")

8 And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the Blood of the Covenant, which the LORD has made with you concerning all these words. (The blood being sprinkled on the people probably pertained to their leaders and representatives. It could hardly have referred to being sprinkled on nearly 3 million people. Half of the blood was sprinkled on the Altar, thus pledging God to His engagement; the other half was sprinkled upon the people, so pledging them.)

9 Then went up Moses, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the Elders of Israel (before the invitation of Verse 1 could be accepted, the Blood of the Burnt and Peace Offerings must be shed; men, even though they may be as distinguished as these Princes, cannot approach God in their own person; they can only draw near through the Blood of Jesus):

[10] And they saw the God of Israel (John 1:18 says: "No man has seen God at any time"; this statement given by Moses does not contradict that statement; for the word "seen" in John 1:18 refers to "comprehend," or to "fully comprehend"; in other words, "No man has fully comprehended God at any time."): and there was under His Feet as it were a paved work of a Sapphire Stone (the Sapphire Stone expressed the purity of God), and as it were the body of Heaven in His clearness (means that they saw Him clearly).

[11] And upon the nobles of the Children of Israel He laid not His Hand: also they saw God, and did eat and drink. (Previously, they couldn't even approach the mountain. So, how do we explain here the difference? We must assume that it was the "Altar" which made the difference. Blood had been shed, a Covenant had been made.)

FORTY

[12] And the LORD said unto Moses, Come up to Me into the Mount, and be there: and I will give you Tables of Stone, and a Law, and Commandments which I have written; that you may teach them. (It's our business as Preachers of the Gospel to teach the Word of God to the people.)

[13] And Moses rose up, and his minister Joshua: and Moses went up into the Mount of God. (Evidently, Moses was instructed by the Lord to take Joshua with him. It is doubtful that Joshua was able to go into the very Presence of God as did Moses; nevertheless, he at least went part way, and evidently stayed the entirety of the time, because we find him coming down with Moses, when, some forty days later, Moses descended from the mountain [32:17].)

[14] And he (Moses) said unto the Elders (70 men), Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aaron and Hur are with you:

if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them (the latter two were left in charge).

15 And Moses went up into the Mount, and a Cloud covered the Mount. (Evidently, Moses stopped when he arrived at the Cloud.)

16 And the Glory of the LORD abode upon Mount Sinai, and the Cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day He called unto Moses out of the midst of the Cloud. (Moses evidently waited until the Lord called him.)

17 And the sight of the Glory of the LORD was like devouring fire on the top of the Mount in the eyes of the Children of Israel. (It looked like the entirety of the top of the Mountain was on fire, with this being seen by all of the Children of Israel.)

18 And Moses went into the midst of the Cloud (Joshua stayed at the edge of the Cloud, and did not go further), and got him up into the Mount: and Moses was in the Mount forty days and forty nights (without food or water; so the Lord had to miraculously sustain him).

CHAPTER 25

THE TABERNACLE

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Speak unto the Children of Israel, that they bring Me an Offering: of every man who gives it willingly with his heart you shall take My Offering. (Pink says: "We have now arrived at the longest, and most blessed, but least read and understood section of this precious Book of Exodus. From the beginning of Chapter 25 to the end of Chapter 40 — except the important parenthesis in 32 to 34 — the Holy Spirit has given us a detailed description of the Tabernacle, its structure, furniture, and Priesthood. When we consider, and understand, that more space is devoted to the account of the Tabernacle than to any other single object or subject treated in the Bible, we then begin to understand its vast significance. It took but two Chapters to portray the record of God's Work in creating this Earth, and fitting it for human habitation. By comparison, some 12 Chapters are needed to tell us about the Tabernacle.

The reason? Everything about the Tabernacle pointed to Christ, and was a Type of Christ in some way.")

[3] And this is the Offering which you shall take of them; gold, and silver, and brass,

[4] And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair,

[5] And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood,

[6] Oil for the light, spices for anointing oil, and for sweet incense,

7 Onyx stones, and stones to be set in the Ephod, and in the Breastplate. (The Lord could have brought about these "Offerings" in any number of ways; however, His method is that we give to His Work, and then He blesses us. You can't out-give God!)

8 And let them make Me a Sanctuary: that I may dwell among them. (As far as is known, the Ark of Noah, the Tabernacle of Moses, and the Temple of Solomon, with the plans for the last one actually given to David, are the only buildings ever erected from plans furnished by direct Revelation from God [Gen. 6:14-16; I Chron. 28:11-12, 19]. Since the Fall of man in the Garden of Eden, the Lord has been working steadily to bring man back to Himself. He longs to dwell with us, and that He now does, all made possible by the Cross.)

9 According to all that I show you, after the pattern of the Tabernacle, and the pattern of all the instruments thereof, even so shall you make it. (The "Pattern" was all of God, and not at all of man. Salvation is the same! We must not deviate from the blueprint, of which both are identical — Jesus.)

ARK OF THE COVENANT

10 And they shall make an Ark (the Ark of the Covenant, a Type of the Throne of God) of Shittim Wood (referred to as "indestructible wood," and a Type of the Perfect, unsullied, physical Body of our Lord): two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof (3 and 3/4 feet), and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof (2 and 1/4 feet), and a cubit and a half the height thereof (2 and 1/4 feet)**.

11 And you shall overlay it with Pure Gold, within and without shall you overlay it (a type of the Deity of Christ), and shall make upon it a Crown of Gold round about (represents the status of our Lord as King)**.

12 And you shall cast four rings of gold for it (staves were to be inserted in the rings for the Ark to be moved, which it was occasionally, at least until the Temple was built about 500 years later; it signifies Christ Who desires to be with us at all times), and put them in the four corners thereof (wherever we are led to go, north, south, east, or west, He will be with us); and two rings shall be in the one side of it, and two rings in the other side of it. (If we are in His Will, He will be with us, just as much one place as the other.)

13 And you shall make staves of Shittim Wood (once again, portraying the Perfect Humanity of Christ), and overlay them with Gold (portraying His Deity; while Jesus is Very Man, He is also Very God; He is with us as God, by virtue of the fact that He came to be with us as Man, and for the purpose of going to the Cross, which makes His perpetual Presence possible).

14 And you shall put the staves into the rings by the sides of the Ark, that the Ark may be borne with them (the assurance of the perpetual Presence of Christ).

15 The staves shall be in the rings of the Ark: they shall not be taken from it. (This would be the case until Solomon's Temple, when the Priests would bring the Ark of the Covenant into the House of the Lord, place it under the giant Cherubim, and then would "draw out the staves" [I Ki. 8:6-8].)

16 And you shall put into the Ark the Testimony which I shall give you (the two tables of stone, containing the Ten Commandments).

17 And you shall make a Mercy Seat of Pure Gold (the Mercy Seat formed the covering for the Ark; on it was sprinkled the Atoning Blood, which the High Priest did once a year, on the Great Day of Atonement; it was of this Blood-sprinkled Mercy Seat that God spoke when He said: "There will I meet with you"; here, in Type, was the only meeting place between God and the sinner; here, Righteousness and Peace kissed each other; it was all gold, signifying the Deity of Christ, signifying also that His Deity was not marred by Him becoming Man; Christ is the Mercy Seat): two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof (3 and 3/4 feet), and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof (2 and 1/4 feet).

18 And you shall make two Cherubims of gold (they pertained to God's Judicial authority; they seemed to be the highest among the Angelic order, or at least in the capacity in which they function), of beaten work shall you make them, in the two ends of the Mercy Seat. (They were not attached to the ends of the Mercy Seat, but were actually a part of the Mercy Seat. In other words, the Mercy Seat and the two Cherubim were all one piece of gold. The two Cherubim looked down on the Mercy Seat.)

[19] And make one Cherub on the one end, and the other Cherub on the other end: even of the Mercy Seat shall you make the Cherubims on the two ends thereof.

[20] And the Cherubims shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the Mercy Seat with their wings (stretched above their heads, and pointing forward, with the four wings meeting each other in the middle), and their faces shall look one to another; toward the Mercy Seat shall the faces of the Cherubims be. (They looked down upon the blood which was applied to the Mercy Seat once a year, on the Great Day of Atonement.)

[21] And you shall put the Mercy Seat above upon the Ark; and in the Ark you shall put the Testimony (Ten Commandments) that I shall give you.

[22] And there I will meet with you, and I will commune with you from above the Mercy Seat, from between the two Cherubims which are upon the Ark of the Testimony, of all things which I will give you in Commandment unto the Children of Israel. (It is only above the Blood-stained Mercy Seat that God will meet with sinful human beings, because that's the only place that He can meet with sinful human beings, and not malign His Righteousness and Holiness. Concerning this, Mackintosh says: "Thus it is that the soul of the believing sinner finds peace. He sees that God's Righteousness and His Justification rest upon precisely the same basis, namely Christ's accomplished Work. When man, under the powerful action of the Truth of God, takes his place as a sinner, God can, in the exercise of Grace, take His place as a Saviour, and then every question is settled, for the Cross having answered all the claims of Divine Justice, Mercy's copious streams can flow unhindered. When a Righteous God and a ruined sinner meet on a Blood-sprinkled platform, all is settled forever — settled in such a way as perfectly glorifies God, and eternally saves the sinner.")

TABLE OF SHEWBREAD

[23] You shall also make a Table of Shittim Wood (once again, this indestructible wood, a perfect Type of the Perfection of the Humanity of Christ): two cubits shall be the length thereof (3 feet), and a cubit the breadth thereof (1 and 1/2 feet), and a cubit and a half the height thereof (2 and 1/4 feet).

[24] And you shall overlay it with Pure Gold (typical of the Deity of Christ), and make thereto a Crown of Gold round about (Christ is King).

[25] And you shall make unto it a border of an hand breadth round about (it is interesting that the width of the crown is described as a "hand breadth," which is approximately three to four inches high; this corresponds with the Words of Christ: "Neither shall any pluck them out of My hand" [Jn. 10:28]), and you shall make a Golden Crown to the border thereof round about. (The Table was to hold bread, which, again, was a Type of Christ. The crown would tend to keep the bread in place, so that it would not slip off the Table, especially during times when Israel was instructed by the Lord to move. This speaks of the security of the Believer, all in Christ.)

[26] And you shall make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four feet thereof.

[27] Over against the border shall the rings be for places of the staves to bear the Table.

[28] And you shall make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold, that the Table may be borne with them. (Wherever the Lord led Israel, even though it was in the wilderness, His Table accompanied them! So, wherever the Christian's lot may be cast, even though it may be in a prison, such as Paul, the Believer can continue to feed on Christ, for Christ is ever with him.)

29 And you shall make the dishes thereof, and spoons thereof, and covers thereof, and bowls thereof, to cover withal: of pure gold shall you make them. (The "dishes" were no doubt used by the Priests when they ate the Bread on the seventh day. The "spoons" and the "cover" were more than likely used in connection with the Frankincense, which was to be poured over the Bread, symbolizing the Fragrance and Purity of Christ. The "bowls" were probably cups, and were used in connection with the "Drink Offerings," which were poured out before the Lord "in the Holy Place" [Num. 28:7].)

30 And you shall set upon the Table Shewbread before Me always. (This was a Type of Christ, as the "Bread of Life" [Jn. 6:58]. Christ is always before the Father, making Intercession for us [Heb. 7:25].)

GOLDEN CANDLESTICK

31 And you shall make a Candlestick of Pure Gold (should have been translated "Lampstand"): of beaten work shall the Candlestick be made: his shaft, and his branches, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers, shall be of the same. (The idea is, the entirety of the Lampstand was made out of one piece of gold. The Lampstand was the only source of light in the entirety of the Holy Place. It is a Type of Christ as the Light of the world.

The "bowls" or "cups" formed the first ornament on each branch, and are likened to almonds, which signify the Resurrection [Num. 17:1-8]. The "knops" could have been translated "pomegranates," which speak of fruit. The "flowers" could have been translated "lilies," and speak of purity. The lily-blossoms supported the lamps, which were separate.)

32 And six branches shall come out of the sides of it; three branches of the Lampstand out of the one side, and three branches of the Lampstand out of the other side (six is the number of man, and which is the Body of Christ, whether Israel or the Church; Verse 36 tells us that the entirety of the Lampstand was "one beaten work of pure gold," meaning that these branches were not welded or fastened to the side of the main stem, but were rather a part of the main stem; this speaks of our being "in Christ")**:

33 Three bowls made like unto almonds, with a knop and a flower in one branch; and three bowls made like almonds in the other branch, with a knop and a flower: so in the six branches that come out of the Lampstand. (We might ask the question as to why there were three bowls [almond-blossoms] on each stem, and only one pomegranate and only one lily? This tells us that the almond-blossom, which represents Resurrection, which speaks of the Cross, is the foundation on which everything is based. This is where the emphasis must always be [I Cor. 1:17].)

34 And in the Lampstand shall be four bowls made like unto almonds, with their knops and their flowers. (The main middle stem had "four bowls," along with "four knops," and "four flowers." This made twelve ornaments, which speaks of the Government of Christ.)

35 And there shall be a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches that proceed out of the Lampstand.

36 Their knops and their branches shall be of the same: all of it shall be one beaten work of pure gold. (Even though the branches came out even at the top, even with the main shaft, as would be obvious, the outward branch would be the longest of all, with the middle branch next to the longest, with the branch closest to the stem being the shortest. But yet, all of them had the same number of ornamentation.

This tells us that all Believers can enjoy Resurrection Life, bear fruit, and develop purity. All done by the Holy Spirit, because of the Cross [I Cor. 1:23].)

37 And you shall make the seven lamps there of ("seven" is God's number of perfection, and here speaks of perfect illumination, which only the Holy Spirit can do): and they shall light the lamps thereof (the Lamps were cleaned and lit twice a day, at the time of the morning and evening Sacrifices [9 a.m. and 3 p.m.]), that they may give light over against it (over against the Table of Shewbread and the Altar of Incense).

38 And the tongs thereof, and the snuffdishes thereof, shall be of pure gold (had to do with the cleaning of the wick, or replacing the wick, in order that the light might burn clean and bright).

39 Of a talent of pure gold shall he make it, with all these vessels (weighed about 120 pounds; at January 2004 prices, it would have been worth about $576,000).

40 And look that you make them after their pattern, which was shewed you in the Mount. (Moses was instructed to follow the Pattern exactly, which means it was not to be deviated from in any capacity. This tells us that the Work of the Spirit in our hearts and lives must be carried out strictly on God's Terms, and His Terms alone.)

CHAPTER 26

CURTAIN OF LINEN

[1] Moreover you shall make the Tabernacle with ten Curtains of Fine Twined Linen, and Blue, and Purple, and Scarlet: with Cherubims of cunning work shall you make them (the Tabernacle was one, as it regarded its purpose; it pictured, in its every facet, the Person and Work of Christ; these "ten Curtains" had to do with the inner covering of the Tabernacle; they were elaborately embroidered, and joined together; the "Linen" was a Type of the Righteousness of Christ; the color "Blue" represents the Heavenly Place of Christ; the "Purple" His Royalty as King; the "Scarlet" speaks of His shed Blood; the "Cherubims" denote His Holiness).

[2] The length of one Curtain shall be eight and twenty cubits (42 feet), and the breadth of one Curtain four cubits (6 feet): and every one of the Curtains shall have one measure (probably the Curtains formed the ceiling of the Tabernacle; this suggests that the Curtains set before us the One Who humbled Himself, and became obedient unto death, but Who is now exalted and glorified on high).

[3] The five Curtains shall be coupled together one to another (Grace is the keynote of all this, and so expressed by the number "five" and its multiples); and other five Curtains shall be coupled one to another.

[4] And you shall make loops of blue upon the edge of the one curtain from the selvedge in the Coupling; and likewise shall you make in the uttermost edge of another curtain, in the Coupling of the second (these "Couplings" fasten the whole of the ten curtains together so that they were "one Tabernacle"; thus, they pointed to the blessed unity and uniformity of the Character and Life of Christ).

5 Fifty loops shall you make in the one Curtain, and fifty loops shall you make in the edge of the Curtain that is in the coupling of the second; that the loops may take hold one of another.

6 And you shall make fifty taches of Gold, and couple the Curtains together with the taches: and it shall be one Tabernacle (the gold, as always, represents the Deity of Christ).

GOATS' HAIR

7 And you shall make Curtains of Goats' Hair to be a covering upon the Tabernacle: eleven Curtains shall you make. (There were four coverings to the top of the Tabernacle. The second covering immediately above the Linen, which was the part that could not be seen, was a covering of "Goats' Hair." This symbolized the Prophetic Office of Christ.)

8 The length of one curtain shall be thirty cubits (45 feet), and the breadth of one curtain four cubits (6 feet): and the eleven curtains shall be all of one measure.

9 And you shall couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and shall double the sixth curtain in the forefront of the Tabernacle ("five" is the number of Grace, while "six" is the number of man; so we have here the Grace of God shown to man, Who is Christ).

10 And you shall make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is outmost in the coupling, and fifty loops in the edge of the curtain which couples the second.

11 And you shall make fifty taches of brass (copper), and put the taches into the loops, and couple the tent together, that it may be one.

12 And the remnant that remains of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the backside of the Tabernacle.

13 And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the other side of that which remains in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side, to cover it.

RAMS' AND BADGERS' SKINS

14 And you shall make a covering for the tent of Rams' Skins (typified Christ as King) dyed Red (the King Who died on the Cross), and a covering above of Badgers' Skins. (These denote the Office of Christ as High Priest. There were four coverings which made up the top of the Tabernacle: Fine Twined Linen, Goats' Hair, Rams' Skins, and Badgers' Skins. The Badgers' Skins were the top covering, and the only covering seen from the outside. As well, this last covering was the least attractive of all. "There is no beauty that we should desire Him" [Isa. 53:2].)

BOARDS AND SILVER SOCKETS

15 And you shall make Boards for the Tabernacle of shittim wood standing up. (These Boards for the inside walls of the Tabernacle typified the Redemptive Work of Christ, even as we shall see. From the outside, they could not be seen, because the top of the Tabernacle covered by the various skins reached down to the ground on either side.)

16 Ten cubits (15 feet) shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and a half (2 and 1/4 feet) shall be the breadth (width) of one board.

17 Two tenons (an open hand) shall there be in one board, set in order one against another: thus shall you make for all the boards of the Tabernacle. (Two "tenons" were under each board, making a total of 100 tenons.)

18 And you shall make the boards for the Tabernacle, twenty boards on the south side southward.

19 And you shall make forty sockets of Silver under the twenty boards (Silver denotes Redemption); two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons. (It is believed that each socket of silver weighed about a talent, which is about 120 pounds; consequently, this would have provided a tremendous foundation, which was intended.)

20 And for the second side of the Tabernacle on the north side there shall be twenty boards:

21 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

22 And for the sides of the Tabernacle westward you shall make six boards.

23 And two boards shall you make for the corners of the Tabernacle in the two sides.

24 And they shall be coupled together beneath, and they shall be coupled together above the head of it unto one ring: thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two corners.

25 And they shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

OUTSIDE BARS

26 And you shall make bars of Shittim Wood (once again, this indestructible wood proclaims the Perfect Humanity of Christ); five for the boards of the one side of the Tabernacle,

27 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the Tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the Tabernacle, for the two sides westward. (The Tabernacle was to always face the east; therefore, there were no boards on this side, but rather five pillars. This was the entrance, as well.)

THE MIDDLE BAR

[28] And the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end.

THE GOLD OVERLAY

[29] And you shall overlay the boards with Gold (typical of the Deity of Christ), and make their Rings of Gold for places for the bars: and you shall overlay the bars with Gold. (These "Rings of Gold" were evidently attached to the boards, through which the bars passed. They pertained to the Work of the Spirit in connecting all the Ministries of Christ. Even though our Saviour had different Ministries, all ultimately played out to Christ as Saviour.)

[30] And you shall rear up the Tabernacle according to the fashion thereof which was shewed you in the Mount. (In other words, Moses must not add anything to the design nor take something from the design. It was all of God and none of man.)

THE INNER VEIL

[31] And you shall make a Veil of Blue, and Purple, and Scarlet, and Fine Twined Linen of cunning work: with Cherubims shall it be made (this was the inner Veil, which separated the Holy Place from the Holy of Holies; once again, the colors represented Christ from above, hence, the "Blue," with the "Purple" representing His Royalty, and the "Scarlet," His shed Blood, while the "Linen" represented His Righteousness, and the Cherubims, His Holiness):

[32] And you shall hang it upon four pillars of Shittim Wood overlaid with Gold (portrays both the Humanity and the Deity of Christ): their Hooks shall be of Gold, upon the four Sockets of Silver (speaks of Redemption, which was the purpose of the Cross; the object of a "veil" is to hide; "Come not" [Lev. 16:2] was the warning which it consistently gave forth; thus, the Veil foreshadowed the moral glories of the Saviour, but, at the same time, showed, by the very display of such Heavenliness of Character, how far fallen man was away from God — Pink).

TABERNACLE FURNITURE

[33] And you shall hang up the Veil under the taches, that you may bring in thither within the Veil the Ark of the Testimony (Ark of the Covenant): and the Veil shall divide unto you between the Holy Place (first compartment) and the Most Holy (the Holy of Holies, where resided the Ark of the Covenant).

[34] And you shall put the Mercy Seat upon the Ark of the Testimony in the Most Holy Place.

[35] And you shall set the Table without the Veil, and the Lampstand over against the Table on the side of the Tabernacle toward the south: and you shall put the Table on the north side. (These Sacred Vessels were placed in the Holy Place, the first compartment.)

THE OUTER VEIL

[36] And you shall make an hanging for the door of the tent (the front), of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework. (The "Veil" had "Cherubims" embroidered upon it, while the Door described here had none. The Veil was suspended from four pillars, while the Door was suspended from five. The outstanding difference between them was this: The Veil was to shut out, whereas the Door was to give admittance. The Veil barred the way into the Holiest, the "Door" was for the constant entrance of the Priests into the Holy Place. Incidentally, the colors given here never vary, because the Work of Christ never varies.)

[37] And you shall make for the hanging five pillars of Shittim Wood (the Humanity of Christ, with "five" being the number of Grace), and overlay them with Gold, and their hooks shall be of Gold (portraying the Deity of Christ): and you shall cast five sockets of brass (copper) for them. (Copper, symbolically, prefigures Judgment, which Jesus would endure at the Cross, all in our stead.)

CHAPTER 27

THE BRAZEN ALTAR

[1] And you shall make an Altar (typified the Cross) of Shittim Wood (the Humanity of Christ), five cubits long (7 and 1/2 feet long), and five cubits broad; the Altar shall be foursquare (it is the same Gospel for all of mankind, whether north, south, east, or west): and the height thereof shall be three cubits (4 and 1/2 feet).

[2] And you shall make the horns (speaks of total dominion over sin, which would be purchased at the Cross) of it upon the four corners thereof (signifying that Salvation is the same for all): his horns shall be of the same: and you shall overlay it with brass. (This Altar of indestructible wood was to be "overlaid with copper." Until the metallurgy of the not-too-distant past, copper had a greater resistance to fire, even than gold or silver. It would consequently protect the wood, that it would not catch fire and be consumed. Pink says: "The copper plates on the Altar protected it from the fervent heat and prevented it from being burned up; so Christ passed through the fires of God's wrath without being consumed. He is mighty to save, because He was mighty to endure.")

[3] And you shall make his pans to receive his ashes (ashes from the sacrifices which were burned), and his shovels, and his basons, and his fleshhooks, and his firepans: all the vessels thereof you shall make of brass. (Ashes testified to the thoroughness of the fire's work in having wholly consumed the Offering. They also witnessed to the acceptance of the Sacrifice on behalf of the offerer, and so they were to him a token that his sins were gone. The Words of Christ from the Cross expressed the fulfillment of this detail of our Type: "It is finished" announced that the Sacrifice had been offered, accepted, and gone up to God as a sweet savour — Pink.)

4 And you shall make for it a grate of network of brass; and upon the net shall you make four brazen rings in the four corners thereof (the "rings" were for the moving of the Altar from place to place).

5 And you shall put it under the compass of the Altar beneath, that the net may be even to the midst of the Altar (somewhere alongside the middle of the Altar, there seemed to be a protrusion all the way around, on which the Priests could stand, in order to properly attend the Sacrifices).

6 And you shall make staves for the Altar, staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with brass. (These "staves" were for moving the Altar. When Israel moved, everything had to be moved. This teaches us that there never comes a period in the Christian life where the Atoning Blood of Christ, of which this Altar was a Type, can be dispensed with.)

7 And the staves shall be put into the rings, and the staves shall be upon the two sides of the Altar, to bear it.

8 Hollow with boards shall you make it: as it was shewed you in the Mount, so shall they make it. (Once again, the Pattern must be followed minutely.)

THE OUTER COURT

9 And you shall make the Court of the Tabernacle (this was at the front of the Tabernacle, facing the east): for the south side southward there shall be hangings for the Court of Fine Twined Linen of an hundred cubits long for one side (using 18 inches to the cubit, it was 150 feet long and 75 feet wide; the "linen" typified the Perfect Righteousness of Christ)**:

10 And the twenty pillars thereof and their twenty sockets shall be of brass (copper); the hooks of the pillars and their fillets shall be of silver (the "copper" spoke of Judgment, which Jesus took on our behalf, while the "silver" spoke of Redemption, which came forth from the Judgment).

11 And likewise for the north side in length there shall be hangings of an hundred cubits longs, and his twenty pillars and their twenty sockets of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

12 And for the breadth (width) of the Court on the west side shall be hangings of fifty cubits (75 feet): their pillars ten, and their sockets ten. (There were 60 pillars placed at intervals of five cubits all around the Court. This, as well, speaks of the Grace of God. Verse 10 seems to indicate that the Pillars were made of copper; however, in the original Hebrew, in which this was written, there is indication that the modifying clause "of copper" refers only to the "sockets" and not to the Pillars. Possibly the Pillars were made of "Shittim Wood," the same as the Pillars for the Door and for the support of the Veil. Once again, this all speaks of the Perfect Humanity of Christ.)

13 And the breadth of the Court on the east side eastward shall be fifty cubits.

14 The hangings of one side of the gate shall be fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their sockets three.

15 And on the other side shall be hangings fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their sockets three.

THE GATE

16 And for the gate of the Court shall be an hanging of twenty cubits (the Gate which led into the Outer Court was 30 feet wide), of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework: and their pillars shall be four, and their sockets four. (This is the "gate" at the front of the Outer Court, facing the east, through which all Israelites came, in order to offer Sacrifices.)

17 All the pillars round about the Court shall be filleted with silver; their hooks shall be of silver, and their sockets of brass. (The Court was as far as the Israelites, other than the Priests, could come, at least as it regards the Tabernacle, and then only so far as the Brazen Altar. But everything about the Outer Court, as well as the Tabernacle, spoke of Christ in His Atoning, Mediatorial, or Intercessory Work, even down to the small pins, which were of brass. As always, the latter spoke of the Judgment that He would undergo on our behalf.)

[18] The length of the Court shall be an hundred cubits (150 feet), and the breadth (width) fifty everywhere (75 feet), and the height five cubits (7 and 1/2 feet high) of fine twined linen, and their sockets of brass.

[19] All the Vessels of the Tabernacle in all the service thereof, and all the pins thereof, and all the pins of the Court, shall be of brass (copper).

THE OIL

[20] And you shall command the Children of Israel, that they bring you pure oil olive (there was no source of light in the Tabernacle, with the exception of the Golden Lampstand; this portrays Christ as the Light of the world, but, as well, portrays the Work of the Holy Spirit within His Heart and Life, which was to a degree not known by anyone else) beaten for the light (the word "beaten" emphasizes the fact that this particular oil did not come easily; the crushing of the olives was typical of the price paid by Christ for our Redemption), to cause the lamp to burn always. (This light was to never go out, inasmuch as the Light of Christ is never extinguished.)

[21] In the Tabernacle of the congregation without the Veil, which is before the Testimony (Ark of the Covenant), Aaron and his sons shall order it from evening to morning before the LORD (twice a day Aaron and his sons, and those who would follow him in that order, would replenish the oil in the Golden Lampstand, and trim the wicks; it was commanded by God that this be done into infinity): it shall be a Statute for ever unto their generations on the behalf of the Children of Israel. (The sadness is, the Lamp is going out presently in many Churches.)

CHAPTER 28

THE PRIESTHOOD

[1] And take thou unto thee Aaron your brother, and his sons with him, from among the Children of Israel, that he may minister unto Me in the Priest's office, even Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons. (Five Priests were chosen from among the Tribe of Levi, headed up by Aaron as the High Priest. In fact, all High Priests were to succeed from Aaron. "Five" being the beginning, "Grace" is the foundation and energy of the Priesthood.)

[2] And you shall make Holy Garments for Aaron your brother for Glory and for Beauty. (These garments were designed solely by the Lord, and were designed to portray Christ in His High Priestly Ministry.)

[3] And you shall speak unto all who are wise hearted, whom I have filled with the Spirit of Wisdom (the Holy Spirit), that they may make Aaron's garments to consecrate him, that he may minister unto Me in the Priest's office.

GARMENTS

[4] And these are the garments which they shall make; a Breastplate, and an Ephod, and a Robe, and a broidered Coat, a Mitre, and a Girdle: and they shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, and his sons, that he may minister unto Me in the Priest's office.

THE MATERIALS

[5] And they shall take gold, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen (as stated, these colors do not vary)**.

THE EPHOD

[6] And they shall make the Ephod of gold, of blue, and of purple, of scarlet, and fine twined linen, with cunning work. (This was the outer Robe worn by the High Priest. It was made of two parts, one covering the back, and the other covering the front, these being joined together at the shoulders by golden clasps, which formed the setting for the onyx stones.)

[7] It shall have the two shoulder-pieces thereof joined at the two edges thereof; and so it shall be joined together.

[8] And the Curious Girdle of the Ephod, which is upon it, shall be of the same, according to the work thereof: even of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen. (The "Curious Girdle" was a sash of sorts, tied around the waist. It speaks of preparation for service. "He took a towel and girded Himself" [Jn. 13:4].)

[9] And you shall take two onyx stones, and grave on them the names of the Children of Israel (these two onyx stones were a part of the Ephod, and were actually designed to join the back and the front of the Ephod together at the shoulders)**:

[10] Six of their names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their birth. (These were worn on the shoulders of the High Priest, portraying strength, typifying Christ, Who protected Israel at all times. Pink says: "The shoulder which sustains the universe [Heb. 1:3] upholds the feeblest and most obscure member of the Blood-bought congregation.")

[11] With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, shall you engrave the two stones with the names of the Children of Israel: you shall make them to be set in ouches of Gold. (The "Gold" declares the Deity of Christ, hence, the Power of Almighty God was available to all of Israel.)

12 And you shall put the two stones upon the shoulders of the Ephod for stones of memorial unto the Children of Israel: and Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD upon his two shoulders for a memorial. (God doesn't forget, and that "memorial" will come to fruition at the Second Coming, when Jacob will come home.)

13 And you shall make ouches of gold;

14 And two chains of pure gold at the ends; of wreathen work shall you make them, and fasten the wreathen chains to the ouches. (These "chains" tie us to Christ!)

THE BREASTPLATE

15 And you shall make the Breastplate of Judgment with cunning work (the "Breastplate" was attached to the front of the Ephod); after the work of the Ephod you shall make it: of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen, shall you make it. (Incidentally, the word "curious" simply means "cunning," signifying that its design was extraordinary.)

16 Foursquare it shall be being doubled; a span shall be the length thereof, and a span shall be the breadth thereof (a span equaled about 8 inches).

17 And you shall set in it settings of stones, even four rows of stones: the first two shall be a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this shall be the first row.

18 And the second row shall be an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond.

19 And the third row a ligure, an agate, and an amethyst.

20 And the fourth row a beryl, and an onyx, and a jasper: they shall be set in gold in their inclosings. (There were twelve jewels in number, one for each Tribe, set in four rows of three each.)

21 And the stones shall be with the names of the Children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet; every one with his name shall they be according to the Twelve Tribes. (As the names of the Tribes of the Children of Israel were inscribed on the onyx stones on the shoulders of the High Priest, signifying strength, likewise, the same names were to be inscribed on the twelve stones worn over the heart of the High Priest, signifying the Love of God. So, this means that every single Believer, for we are spiritual Israel, is secured by both "strength" and "love," all anchored in the Cross [Jn. 3:16].)

22 And you shall make upon the Breastplate chains at the ends of wreathen work of pure gold.

23 And you shall make upon the Breastplate two rings of gold, and shall put the two rings on the two ends of the Breastplate.

24 And you shall put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the Breastplate.

25 And the other two ends of the two wreathen chains you shall fasten in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulderpieces of the Ephod before it.

26 And you shall make two rings of gold, and you shall put them upon the two ends of the Breastplate in the border thereof, which is in the side of the Ephod inward.

27 And two other rings of gold you shall make, and shall put them on the two sides of the Ephod underneath, toward the forepart thereof, over against the other coupling thereof, above the Curious Girdle of the Ephod.

28 And they shall bind the Breastplate by the rings thereof unto the rings of the Ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be above the Curious Girdle of the Ephod, and that the Breastplate be not loosed from the Ephod.

29 And Aaron shall bear the names of the Children of Israel in the Breastplate of Judgment upon his heart, when he goes in unto the Holy Place, for a memorial before the LORD continually. (Thus, the people of God, as represented by our names, are chained to our Great High Priest.)

URIM AND THUMMIN

[30] And you shall put in the Breastplate of Judgment the Urim and the Thummin (there was a pocket of sorts in the back of the Breastplate, next to Aaron's heart, where was kept the "Urim" and the "Thummin"; the first word means "Lights," while the second means "Perfections"; so we must conclude that the judgment rendered would be "perfect"; the Bible doesn't say exactly what these things were, but some believe they must have been material objects of some kind, possibly one stone with the word "yes" inscribed on it, and the second stone with the word "no" inscribed on it); and they shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goes in before the LORD: and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the Children of Israel upon his heart before the LORD continually. (As wonderful as that was, due to the Cross, we today have much more. The Holy Spirit Himself abides continually within our hearts and lives, and is ready at all times to give us His Leading and Guidance [Jn. 14:16-17; 16:13-15].)

THE ROBE

[31] And you shall make the Robe of the Ephod all of blue. (This symbolizes Christ as our Great High Priest in Heaven [Heb. 8:4]. It was all of "blue," signifying that Intercession would be, and, in fact, is, carried forth in Heaven [Heb. 7:25].)

[32] And there shall be an hole in the top of it, in the midst thereof: it shall have a binding of woven work round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of an habergeon, that it be not rent. (This Robe was worn beneath the "Ephod" and the "Breastplate.")

[33] And beneath upon the hem of it you shall make pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, round about the hem thereof (the pomegranates were made like tassels, and signified the "Fruit of the Spirit"

[Gal. 5:22-23]); and bells of gold between them round about (these represented the "Gifts of the Spirit" [I Cor. 12:7-10]):

34 A golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe round about.

35 And it shall be upon Aaron to minister: and his sound shall be heard when he goes in unto the Holy Place before the LORD (on the Great Day of Atonement, the High Priest would wear this beautiful garment into the Holy Place, and then remove it, leaving only the linen undergarments, signifying that Christ redeemed us, not with "glory and beauty," but rather with His spotless Righteousness, signified by His shed Blood, symbolized by the white linen; He would then offer up blood on the Mercy Seat, and come back into the Holy Place, where he would then put on the blue Robe once again), and when he comes out, that he die not. (When he put on the Robe, the bells would begin to ring, and the people then knew that the sacrificial blood had been accepted, because they could hear the ringing of the bells.)

THE HOLY CROWN

36 And you shall make a plate of pure gold, and grave upon it, like the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD. (This Golden Plate was the symbol of the essential Holiness of the Lord Jesus. The Saints are represented by Him and accepted in Him. Because of our legal and vital union with Him, His Holiness is ours. So, what am I saying? I'm saying that you as a Believer must look away from yourself, with your ten thousand failures, and put your eye on that Golden Plate. You can behold in the perfections of your Great High Priest the measure of your eternal acceptance with God. Christ is our Sanctification as well as our Righteousness.)

37 And you shall put it on a blue lace (signifies Heaven), that it may be upon the Mitre (a Turban); upon the forefront of the Mitre it shall be.

38 And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the Children of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before the LORD. (Imperfection attaches to everything that man does; and even the Sacrifices that the people offered to God required to be atoned for and purified. It was granted to the High Priest in his official capacity to make the necessary Atonement, and so render the people's gifts acceptable.)

THE GARMENTS

[39] And you shall embroider the Coat of fine linen, and you shall make the Mitre of fine linen, and you shall make the Girdle of needlework. (The very fact of embroidery speaks of a Finished Work. The fact that the garments of Aaron's sons contain no embroidery tells us that their work was never finished, which, in fact, it wasn't. They were continually offering up Sacrifices, simply because the blood of bulls and goats could not really take away sins. But Aaron being the more particular Type of Christ specified what the Work of Christ would be, which would be one Sacrifice, once and for all, the Sacrifice of Himself, which would suffice forever. The "embroidery" specified this [Heb. 10:12].)

[40] And for Aaron's sons you shall make coats, and you shall make for them girdles, and bonnets shall you make for them, for glory and for beauty. (This seems to imply that the attire of the Priests, other than the High Priest, was a dress of pure white, without anything ornamental, such as the colors on Aaron's garments. Still, these snow-white garments, signifying the Righteousness of Christ, were still looked at as garments "for glory and for beauty" [Lev. 16:4; Mk. 9:3; Jn. 20:12; Acts 1:10; Rev. 4:4; 6:11; 7:9, 14].)

[41] And you shall put them upon Aaron your brother, and his sons with him; and shall anoint them, and consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister unto Me in the Priest's office. (All of this which was done was only a representation in symbolic form of what Christ would do in reality [Heb. 8:6-7.])

[42] And you shall make them linen breeches to cover their nakedness; from the loins even unto the thighs they shall reach (the clothing covering the "nakedness" had as much, or more, to do with covering the Judgment of God than it did modesty):

43 And they shall be upon Aaron, and upon his sons, when they come in unto the Tabernacle of the congregation, or when they come near unto the Altar to minister in the Holy Place; that they bear not iniquity, and die; it shall be a Statute for ever unto him and his seed after him. (This was to be taken so seriously that the Priests were warned, if they ignored any part of their garments, even those which were covered, such as the undergarments, they could be stricken that they die.)

CHAPTER 29

CONSECRATION

[1] And this is the thing that you shall do unto them to hallow them, to minister unto Me in the Priest's office: Take one young bullock, and two rams without blemish. (This Chapter pertains to the consecration of the Priests. It began with Sacrifice, i.e., "the Cross." All consecration must begin with the Cross, or else it isn't consecration. The "young bullock" symbolized the Manhood of Christ, while the two rams symbolized His Kingly Nature.)

[2] And unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened tempered with oil, and wafers unleavened anointed with oil: of wheaten flour shall you make them. (The "unleavened bread" signifies the Perfect Life of Christ, and the "oil" typified the Holy Spirit, which was upon Him without measure [Jn. 3:34]. The "flour" symbolized the purity and glory of Christ.)

[3] And you shall put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bullock and the two rams. (The unleavened bread and the wafers were put into one basket, because all pertained to Christ.)

CLEANSING

[4] And Aaron and his sons you shall bring unto the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation, and shall wash them with water. (Even though it does not mention it here, this was probably before the great Laver. The washing with water speaks of the Word of God [I Cor. 6:11].)

THE HIGH PRIEST

5 And you shall take the garments, and put upon Aaron the Coat, and the Robe of the Ephod, and the Ephod, and the Breastplate, and gird him with the Curious Girdle of the Ephod:

6 And you shall put the Mitre upon his head, and put the Holy Crown upon the Mitre. (All of these things were Types of Christ, in His Atoning, Intercessory, and Mediatorial Work. It was topped off by the placing of the "Holy Crown" upon his head. It marked the royal character of the High Priest, who, as the main Type of Christ in the Mosaic Law, was bound to be "Prophet, Priest, and King." But yet, all of these things were but types, and carry no reality, except by Faith. Everything looked forward to the One Who was to come, Who would redeem humanity, and do so by going to the Cross.)

7 Then you shall take the anointing Oil, and pour it upon his head, and anoint him. (This signified, as would be obvious, the Holy Spirit [Lk. 4:18-19].)

THE ORDER

8 And you shall bring his sons, and put Coats upon them.

9 And you shall gird them with Girdles, Aaron and his sons, and put the Bonnets on them: and the Priest's office shall be theirs for a perpetual Statute: and you shall consecrate Aaron and his sons. (If it is to be noticed, Aaron was anointed before the blood was shed, as it respects the Sacrifices being offered. This was done in this manner, because he stands before us as the Type of Christ, Who, in virtue of what He was in His Own Person, was anointed with the Holy Spirit long before the work of the Cross was accomplished. The sons of Aaron, even as we shall see, on the other hand, who in a sense represent Believers, were not anointed until after the blood was shed, presenting the fact that the Holy Spirit could not come until after the Cross.)

THE SIN OFFERING

10 And you shall cause a bullock to be brought before the Tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the bullock (in effect, transferring their sins to this innocent victim; this portrays Christ taking our sins upon Himself, and then paying the penalty for those sins, which we will see momentarily).

11 And you shall kill the bullock before the LORD, by the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation. (This was commanded by the Lord. This tells us that Jesus had to die. In fact, His Crucifixion was not an execution, or an assassination, it was a Sacrifice. It had been planned by God from before the foundation of the world. It was the very purpose for why Christ came [I Pet. 1:18-20].)

12 And you shall take of the blood of the bullock, and put it upon the horns of the Altar with your finger ("horns" specify power; as well, these horns were on all four corners of the Altar, pointing toward the north, south, east, and west; this signified the Power of the Cross in delivering man from sin [I Cor. 1:18], and that this great Salvation would be for all of humanity, hence, the horns pointing in all directions), and pour all the blood beside the bottom of the Altar. (This signified the Blood that would be shed by Christ at the Crucifixion, in the pouring out of His Life, which would redeem humanity, at least for those who will believe [Eph. 2:13-18].)

13 And you shall take all the fat that covers the inwards, and the caul that is above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and burn them upon the Altar. (The "fat" signified the health and prosperity of the animal, symbolizing that God would give His best for our Redemption and, as well, it signified blessing upon the one who receives Redemption [Gal. 2:20-21].)

14 But the flesh of the bullock, and his skin, and his dung, shall you burn with fire without the camp: it is a Sin Offering. (The curse of sin, which was on them, made them unfit for food, and even unworthy of burial within the camp. So the remains were to be taken outside the camp, and burned with fire. Jesus was the Sin-Offering. He suffered "without the camp," i.e., "without the gate" [Heb. 13:12].)

THE BURNT OFFERING

[15] You shall also take one ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

[16] And you shall slay the ram, and you shall take his blood, and sprinkle it round about upon the Altar. (The portrayal in the Levitical Offerings of Substitution and Identification is the very heart of the Gospel. Jesus Christ became our Substitute, and we identify with Him, and are, thereby, saved [Rom. 5:1]. As the "young bullock" of Verse 10 represented Christ at the height of His Manhood giving Himself for the sin of the world, the "ram" represented Christ in His position as King. The "ram" signified that the death of Christ was not merely the death of just anyone, it was the death of the Son of God, the "King of kings and Lord of lords" [Jn. 3:16].)

[17] And you shall cut the ram in pieces (signifying that sin is more than a surface problem; it goes to the very vitals of the individual), and wash the inwards of him (this portrays the purity of Christ), and his legs (signifying that the "walk" of Christ was perfect), and put them unto his pieces, and unto his head (portrays the fact that Christ was perfectly lucid at all times during the Crucifixion).

[18] And you shall burn the whole ram upon the Altar: it is a Burnt Offering unto the LORD (the "Burnt Offering" signifies consecration; the Lord would give Heaven's best for our Redemption): it is a sweet savour (it was such because it represented what Christ would do in order to redeem fallen humanity), an offering made by fire unto the LORD. (The "fire" signified the Judgment of God which came upon Christ, instead of upon us. Once again, it's the Doctrine of Substitution and Identification.)

CONSECRATION

[19] And you shall take the other ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram (do so before it was killed).

[20] Then shall you kill the ram, and take of his blood, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of Aaron (presenting the fact that Christ heard only the Father [Jn. 14:24]), and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand (proclaims the fact that Christ always did right), and upon the great toe of their right foot (Christ always walked right regarding character), and sprinkle the blood upon the Altar round about. (This proclaimed the fact that they could not live as they ought to live, do as they ought to do, be as they ought to be, without Faith in Christ and what He would do for us at the Cross [Rom. 6:3-5].)

[21] And you shall take of the blood that is upon the Altar, and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him (it seems that the "blood" and the "anointing oil" were mixed together, and then sprinkled upon Aaron, upon his garments, as well as upon his sons, etc.; this proclaims the way in which the Holy Spirit works; He works entirely within the parameters of the great Sacrifice of Christ, typified by the "blood" [Rom. 8:2-3]): and he shall be hallowed (consecrated), and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

[22] Also you shall take of the ram the fat and the rump, and the fat that covers the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder; for it is a ram of consecration:

[23] And one loaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the LORD:

[24] And you shall put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons; and shall wave them for a Wave Offering before the LORD. (All of this specifies thankfulness for material blessings, but, above all, for what Christ would do in order to redeem humanity. "Wave Offerings" now are carried out by Believers lifting their hands and praising the Lord.)

[25] And you shall receive them of their hands, and burn them upon the Altar for a Burnt Offering, for a Sweet Savour before the LORD: it is an Offering made by fire unto the LORD. (This signifies that our praises to the Lord are done strictly because of what Christ has done at the Cross, and such are accepted by the Lord solely because of our Faith in Christ and His Atoning Work at the Cross [Eph. 2:13-18].)

THE PEACE OFFERINGS

[26] And you shall take the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration, and wave it for a Wave Offering before the LORD: and it shall be your part. (In other words, they could take this part for themselves for food, symbolizing the eating of Christ [Jn. 6:53].)

[27] And you shall sanctify the breast of the Wave Offering, and the shoulder of the Heave Offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons *(the shoulder was to be "heaved," while the breast was to be "waved"; the former typified Christ taking our sins upon Himself, while the latter typified thankfulness that He had done so):

[28] And it shall be Aaron's and his sons' by a Statute for ever from the Children of Israel: for it is an Heave Offering: and it shall be an Heave Offering from the Children of Israel of the Sacrifice of their Peace Offerings, even their Heave Offering unto the LORD. (When a Burnt, Sin, or Trespass Offering was presented to the Lord by the Priests, and on behalf of the people, then a "Peace Offering" was to be presented to the Lord. It signified that God had accepted the Offerings, and Peace with God was restored. A part of the flesh of the Peace Offering was to be given to the Priests and, as well, to the individuals who offered up the Sacrifice. They were then to have a feast, celebrating the restored Peace. Under the New Covenant, we do the same thing now, by simply praising the Lord; however, all of this tells us that our praises must ever be based on the fact of what Christ did for us at the Cross [Col. 2:14-15].)

[29] And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons' after him, to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them.

[30] And that son that is Priest in his stead shall put them on seven days, when he comes into the Tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the Holy Place. (The High Priesthood was to ever remain in the family of Aaron, which it did down through the centuries, with the exception of the last years when Jesus came. Then it was dictated by Rome. The consecration which lasted for "seven days," "seven" being God's number of perfection, all typified the Perfection of Christ [Heb. 7:26-27].)

31 And you shall take the ram of the consecration, and seethe (roast) his flesh in the Holy Place.

32 And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket (which Jesus addressed in John 6:53-63; this is symbolic of one accepting all that Christ did at the Cross), by the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation (Jesus is the "Door" [Jn. 10:1, 9]).

33 And they shall eat those things wherewith the Atonement was made, to consecrate and to sanctify them: but a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy (a stranger could not partake of this repast, referring to the fact that the person who doesn't know Christ surely cannot partake of His Blessings [Jn. 3:3]).

34 And if ought of the flesh of the consecrations, or of the bread, remain unto the morning, then you shall burn the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy. (This pertains to the fact that one must partake of all of Christ, in other words, the entirety of the Cross, which all of this typifies.)

35 And thus shall you do unto Aaron, and to his sons, according to all things which I have commanded you: seven days shall you consecrate them.

36 And you shall offer every day a bullock for a Sin Offering for Atonement: and you shall cleanse the Altar, when you have made an Atonement for it, and you shall anoint it, to sanctify it. (This proclaims the fact that Christ sanctified the Cross, but the Cross didn't sanctify Him, because He didn't need such. This completely abrogates the erroneous doctrine, as taught by some, that "Jesus died spiritually" while on the Cross. This meant He died as a sinner and went to the burning side of Hell, which is not taught in the Bible. The Bible doesn't teach that Redemption was afforded in Hell, but rather on the Cross [Eph. 2:13-18; Col. 2:14-15]. Despite the fact that the Cross was a place where sin was atoned, still, Christ, by His Perfection, sanctified it in totality.)

[37] Seven days you shall make an Atonement for the Altar, and sanctify it; and it shall be an Altar most holy: whatsoever touches the Altar shall be holy. (Jesus sanctified the Cross; consequently, everything done there is "most holy." As well, everyone who places their faith and trust in Christ, and what He did at the Cross, is "holy"; however, it is all of Him, and none of us [I Cor. 1:17-18]. All of this tells us that there is no holiness for Believers outside of the "Cross.")

THE DAILY OFFERINGS

[38] Now this is that which you shall offer upon the Altar: two lambs of the first year day by day continually. (The word "continually" stresses the fact that the Believer must place his faith and trust in Christ and the Cross, doing so daily, and everlastingly [Lk. 9:23-24].)

[39] The one lamb you shall offer in the morning (9 a.m.); and the other lamb you shall offer at evening (3 p.m.; Jesus was placed on the Cross at 9 a.m., the time of the morning sacrifice, and died at 3 p.m., the time of the evening sacrifice [Lk. 23:44-46])**:

[40] And with the one lamb a tenth deal of the flour (typifying the Perfect Manhood and Perfect Life of Christ) mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil (typifying the Holy Spirit, which was on Him and in Him, as in no other, and brought to fruition after the wilderness experience, hence, the word "beaten," which speaks of the crushing of the olives [Mat. 3:16; 4:1-11]); and the fourth part of an hin (about a quart) of wine for a Drink Offering (which speaks of "joy," which all will have who follow Christ [I Pet. 1:8])**.

[41] And the other lamb you shall offer at evening, and shall do thereto according to the Meat Offering (Thanksgiving Offering) of the morning, and according to the Drink Offering thereof, for a Sweet Savour, an Offering made by fire unto the LORD (all of this represents what Christ would do at the Cross and, as such, is a "Sweet Savour" to God the Father [Mat. 3:17]).

[42] This shall be a continual Burnt Offering throughout your generations at the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD (a continual trust in Christ and the Cross; hence Paul referred to the Cross as "The Everlasting Covenant" [Heb. 13:20]): where I will meet you, to speak there unto you. (Christ is the Source, but the Cross is the Means by which God meets with us, and the only Means!)

[43] And there I will meet with the Children of Israel, and the Tabernacle shall be sanctified by My Glory (His Glory is only upon that which is of Christ, and is extended to man by and through what Christ did at the Cross [Heb. 10:10]).

[44] And I will sanctify the Tabernacle of the congregation, and the Altar: I will sanctify also both Aaron and his sons, to minister to Me in the Priest's office (the Lord sanctified the Tabernacle, because it was a Type of Christ; the Altar, as well, was sanctified, because it represented Christ and what He would do at the Cross; all the Priests were sanctified, because they were Types of Christ; it must be noted that it is all in Christ and what He did at the Cross).

THE PROMISE

[45] And I will dwell among the Children of Israel, and will be their God. (Due to the Cross, the Lord now dwells within the heart and life of the Believer [I Cor. 3:16].)

[46] And they shall know that I am the LORD their God, Who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them: I am the LORD their God. (All of this tells us that the Lord will meet with us and dwell with us, only as we go by the way of the slain Lamb [Jn. 1:29].)

CHAPTER 30

(1491 B.C.)

ALTAR OF INCENSE

[1] And you shall make an Altar to burn Incense upon (this was the Altar of Incense, which portrays Christ making Intercession for us constantly [Heb. 7:25-26]): of Shittim Wood shall you make it (indestructible wood, portraying the perfect manhood of Christ [I Cor. 15:45-47]).

[2] A cubit shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth (width) thereof (1 and 1/2 feet); foursquare shall it be: and two cubits (3 feet) shall be the height thereof: the horns thereof shall be of the same (as the four horns of the Brazen Altar signified that the power of Redemption was for all, likewise, the four horns of the Altar of Incense stipulate the fact that the Believer can have total and complete victory in Christ, with sin having no dominion over us [Rom. 6:14]; however, it can only be done by the Believer placing his faith exclusively in Christ and the Cross, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to perform the work within our lives [Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11]).

[3] And you shall overlay it with Pure Gold (while the wood typified the Humanity of Christ, the "Gold" typified His Deity), the top thereof, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns thereof; and you shall make unto it a Crown of Gold round about (signifying the Kingly character of Christ [Jn. 19:19]).

[4] And two golden rings shall you make to it under the crown of it, by the two corners thereof, upon the two sides of it shall you make it ("two" is the number of "witness," and speaks of the Holy Spirit, Who is here to testify of Christ [Jn. 15:26]); and they shall be for places for the staves to bear it withal (the "staves" of wood overlaid with gold intimate that it is the God-Man Whom the Spirit is here to glorify; at times it had to be moved, so it was to be a day and night companion of a pilgrim people [Mat. 28:20]).

5 And you shall make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold.

6 And you shall put it before the Veil that is by the Ark of the Testimony (Ark of the Covenant), before the Mercy Seat that is over the Testimony (the Ten Commandments inside the Ark of the Covenant), where I will meet with you. (The "Altar of Incense" was to sit immediately in front of the Veil, which separated the Holy Place from the Holy of Holies. So, in point of fact, it was situated immediately in front of the Ark of the Covenant. Even though the "Veil" separated these two Sacred Vessels, the very fact that they were this close tells us that the separation was only temporary. When Christ came, the "Veil" would be removed [Mat. 27:51; Rev. 22:17].)

7 And Aaron shall burn thereon sweet Incense every morning: when he dresses the lamps (the Golden Lampstand), he shall burn Incense upon it.

8 And when Aaron lights the lamps at evening, he shall burn Incense upon it, a perpetual Incense before the LORD throughout your generations. (One or more coals of fire were to be taken from the Brazen Altar, which typified the Cross, and placed on the Altar of Incense, with Incense poured over the coals, which filled the Holy Place with a sweet fragrance, all typifying the Intercession of Christ on our behalf; however, it must be understood that the Intercession of Christ does not really pertain to Him doing anything in Heaven on our behalf, but that the fact of His Presence at the Throne of God guarantees that Intercession [Heb. 7:25-26]. If something other than His mere Presence was required, that would mean that the work which He did at the Cross was not a Finished Work. But it was a Finished Work, and requires nothing else added [Jn. 19:30; Heb. 10:12-14].)

9 You shall offer no strange incense there on (the Incense poured on the burning coals had to be that which the Lord had designed, and no other kind; anything else would be called "strange incense," and would be unacceptable! As we will later study, the Incense was made of ingredients which pictured and portrayed Christ in His Atoning Work; that and that alone is what God will recognize), nor burnt sacrifice (the Lord will recognize no Sacrifice but that of the Cross, of which the Brazen Altar was a Type; the Altar of Incense was for worship and intercession only, all made possible by the Cross; "works religion" typifies a sacrifice offered on the Altar of Incense, which God can never accept), nor Meat Offering (concerning this, Pink says: "This, in figure, tells us that our Great High Priest expects no blessings which His Blood has not purchased, and expects pardon from Divine Justice for no sins for which Faith has not been evidenced. And incidentally, the measure of the Blessings which are given is God's estimate of the life which He gave"); neither shall you pour Drink Offering thereon. (Anytime the Believer places his faith and trust in anything other than the Cross, he violates the Cross of Christ, and wrongly uses the Altar of Incense, which, if continued, will bring on great chastisement from the Lord [Heb. 12:5-11].)

[10] And Aaron shall make an Atonement upon the horns of it once in a year with the Blood of the Sin Offering of Atonements: once in the year shall he make Atonement upon it throughout your generations: it is most holy unto the LORD. (This speaks of the Great Day of Atonement, which took place once a year. The "Blood" applied to the "horns" typifies the fact that the Believer can have total dominion over sin, but can only do so by Faith and Trust in Christ and the shedding of His Blood on the Cross of Calvary. Victory comes by that route alone! [Rom. 6:3-5].)

ATONEMENT MONEY

[11] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[12] When you take the sum (census) of the Children of Israel after their number, then shall they give every man a ransom for his soul unto the LORD, when you number them; that there be no plague among them, when you number them. (Verses 11 through 16 portray the ransom or Redemption money. The money was a special tax of registration in Israel, as a memorial or reminder of God's provision of Redemption, and of their obligation under the terms of the Mosaic Covenant. Christ died on the Cross; "He gave Himself a ransom for all" [I Tim. 2:6].)

[13] This they shall give, everyone who passes among them that are numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary: (a shekel is twenty gerahs:) an half shekel shall be the Offering of the LORD (equal to about $40 in 2004 money).

[14] Every one who passes among them who are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an Offering unto the LORD.

[15] The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when they give an Offering unto the LORD, to make an Atonement for your souls. (All gave the same whether "rich" or "poor," placing every man on an equal footing in relation to God and obligation to the Law. It should be noted that the money did not actually redeem the soul. Not even the blood of bulls and other animals did this [Heb. 10:4; I Pet. 1:18-23], but rather Faith in the Blood of the coming Redeemer, of which the blood of sacrifices was a Type. It was strictly for a "memorial," even as the next Verse proclaims. Incidentally, this shekel was of silver, hence, silver is a type of Redemption.)

[16] And you shall take the Atonement money of the Children of Israel, and shall appoint it for the service of the Tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be a memorial unto the Children of Israel before the LORD, to make an Atonement for your souls. (A "census" taken of the Children of Israel was important, because they belonged to God, and they belonged to Him by virtue of the slain lamb, and their Faith in that Sacrifice [Gen. 15:6; Rom. 4:3].)

THE BRAZEN LAVER

[17] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[18] You shall also make a Laver of brass (copper), and his foot also of brass (a pedestal on which it sat), to wash withal: and you shall put it between the Tabernacle of the congregation and the Altar (Brazen Altar), and you shall put Water therein. (The "Water" was a Type of the Word of God. One might say that the Brazen Altar was for the sinner; the Brazen Laver for the Saint. The former testified of the Blood of Christ; the latter, of the Word of God; the former cleansed the conscience; the latter, the conduct [Eph. 5:26].)

[20] When they go into the Tabernacle of the congregation, they shall wash with water, that they die not; or when they come near to the Altar to minister, to burn Offerings made by fire unto the LORD:

[21] So they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they die not: and it shall be a Statute forever to them, even to him and to his seed throughout their generations. (The "hands" spoke of their "doing," while the "feet" spoke of their "walk," referring to lifestyle. Before attending to the duties of the Lord, they needed cleansing from constant defilement, hence the command for the "hands" and "feet" continually to be washed. The Word of God, of which the Brazen Laver was a Type, works on the same principle for us presently. The Word of God directs us to the Cross, which alone makes right our conduct. As they needed constant washing, we, as well, need constant washing.)

HOLY ANOINTING OIL

[22] Moreover the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[23] Take thou also unto you principal spices, of pure Myrrh (a gum which exudes from a particular tree through incisions made for the purpose; this typifies Christ Who was pierced for us, and from Whose wounds there flowed a sweet smelling savour to God [Isa. 53:5]) five hundred shekels (the shekel at that time was actually a "weight" instead of a coin; it was about one third of a modern ounce; representing silver, the five hundred shekels were worth, in 2004 money, about $500), and of sweet Cinnamon half so much, even two hundred and fifty shekels (Cinnamon was very rare at that time; it came from the inner bark or rind of a tree allied to the laurel), and of sweet Calamus two hundred and fifty shekels (came from aromatic reeds),

[24] And of Cassia five hundred shekels (came from the inner bark distinct from the Cinnamon tree), after the shekel of the sanctuary, and of Oil olive an hin (about a gallon; all of these spices were extracted by either cutting or crushing or both; such proclaimed the fact that the great Work carried out by Christ on the Cross of Calvary presents, in a sense, a "cutting" and a "crushing" [Isa. 53:5]):

[25] And you shall make it an Oil of holy ointment, an ointment compound after the art of the apothecary (maker of perfumes): it shall be an holy anointing Oil. (The "Oil" was a Type of the Holy Spirit, with the perfumes being a Type of Christ. The minutest emotions of Christ's Nature as a Man were perfect; and all were "of like weight" in His sinless Nature.)

[26] And you shall anoint the Tabernacle of the congregation therewith, and the Ark of the Testimony (signifying that it was all dedicated to the Lord),

[27] And the Table (Table of Shewbread) and all his vessels, and the Candlestick (Lampstand) and his vessels, and the Altar of Incense, [28] And the Altar of Burnt Offering with all his vessels (the Brazen Altar), and the laver and his foot (Brazen Laver).

[29] And you shall sanctify them, that they may be most holy: whatsoever touches them shall be holy (because it symbolized Christ).

[30] And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may minister unto Me in the Priest's office (they were Types of Christ, as well).

[31] And you shall speak unto the Children of Israel, saying, This shall be an holy anointing Oil unto Me throughout your generations (or at least until the Cross was a fact, and the Holy Spirit could then come in a new dimension; then, these things would no longer be needed).

[32] Upon man's flesh shall it not be poured, neither shall you make any other like it, after the composition of it: it is holy, and it shall be holy unto you. (This ointment was not to be imitated, nor poured upon man's flesh. Spiritual graces cannot be imitated, nor can they be given to men "in the flesh.")

33 Whosoever compounds any like it, or whosoever puts any of it upon a stranger (Gentile), shall even be cut off from his people (meaning that this particular Israelite would lose his soul; the Holy Spirit, Who glorifies Christ, must not be trifled with [Mat. 12:31-32).

THE INCENSE

34 And the LORD said unto Moses, Take unto you sweet spices, Stacte, and Onycha, and Galbanum: these sweet spices with pure Frankincense (these four typified the Intercessory Work of Christ, all on our behalf): of each shall there be a like weight (as stated, Christ was Perfect in every respect)**:

35 And you shall make it a perfume, a confection after the art of the apothecary, tempered together, pure and holy (prepared by one who was skilled in this art)**:

36 And you shall beat some of it very small (refers to the fact that Intercession by Christ on our behalf is needed in all things, even in the very small things), and put of it before the Testimony in the Tabernacle of the congregation, where I will meet with you: it shall be unto you most holy. (These spices mentioned are those which made up the Incense that was poured upon the coals of fire, which were brought from the Brazen Altar, and placed on the Altar of Incense.)

37 And as for the perfume which you shall make, you shall not make to yourselves according to the composition thereof: it shall be unto you holy for the LORD (to be used only as directed by the Word of God; God's Government is exact in His Word; it must not be changed, diluted, added to, or taken from).

38 Whosoever shall make like unto that, to smell thereto, shall even be cut off from his people (will lose his soul; all of this, in one way or the other, points to Christ and the Cross; if the Cross is rejected, then Salvation is rejected, as well!)*.

CHAPTER 31

(1491 B.C.)

THE WORKMEN

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] See, I have called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the Tribe of Judah (it is believed that "Bezaleel" was the grandson of Hur, who it is believed was the brother-in-law of Moses, having married his sister Miriam; the choice of these principal workmen was that of God, and not Moses):

[3] And I have filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship (before the Cross, the Holy Spirit only came upon individuals who had been called of God for a certain task, even as Bezaleel; now, since the Cross, the Holy Spirit resides in the hearts and lives of all Believers [I Cor. 3:16]),

[4] To devise cunning works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,

[5] And in cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of timber, to work in all manner of workmanship. (All of this shows us that the Holy Spirit can, and will, help us in every aspect of our life and living, providing what we do is right.)

[6] And I, behold, I have given with him Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan: and in the hearts of all who are wise hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded you (if it is to be noticed, the Lord said here "wise hearted," instead of "wise headed"; this means that the Holy Spirit functioned in the hearts of these individuals, leading them and helping them as to what they should do);

7 The Tabernacle of the congregation, and the Ark of the Testimony, and the Mercy Seat that is thereupon, and all the furniture of the Tabernacle,

8 And the Table and his furniture, and the pure Candlestick with all his furniture, and the Altar of Incense,

9 And the Altar of Burnt Offering with all his furniture, and the Laver and his foot,

10 And the Cloths of service, and the holy Garments for Aaron the Priest, and the Garments of his sons, to minister in the Priest's office,

11 And the anointing Oil, and sweet Incense for the Holy Place: according to all that I have commanded you shall they do. (We must remember, the Holy Spirit worked with these individuals to prepare that which pointed to Christ, and what He would do, which speaks of the Cross. Now, the Holy Spirit points back to a Finished Work [Rom. 8:2].)

THE SABBATH

12 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

13 Speak thou also unto the Children of Israel, saying, Verily my Sabbaths you shall keep: for it is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations; that you may know that I am the LORD Who does sanctify you. (The Sabbath, as stated, represented the "rest," which one now finds in Christ. This "sign" was to be between the Lord and Israel. It was never meant to be a sign between the Lord and the Church.)

14 You shall keep the Sabbath therefore; for it is holy unto you: everyone who defiles it shall surely be put to death: for whosoever does any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people (will lose his soul)**.

15 Six days may work be done; but in the seventh is the Sabbath of Rest, holy to the LORD (because it represented Christ and what Christ would do in order to bring "Rest" to the soul): whosoever does any work in the Sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death.

16 Wherefore the Children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual Covenant.

17 It is a sign between Me and the Children of Israel for ever: for in six days the LORD made heaven and Earth, and on the seventh day He rested, and was refreshed.

TWO STONE TABLES

18 And He gave unto Moses, when He had made an end of communing with him upon Mount Sinai, two Tables of Testimony, tables of stone, written with the Finger of God (these were the Ten Commandments, five on one stone, and five on the other).

CHAPTER 32

THE GOLDEN CALF

[1] And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the Mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him. (Israel, as we shall see, could not go very long without strong spiritual leadership; neither can the modern Church. Without Moses being present, the people would cry, "Make us gods." It has little changed! Aaron will acquiesce to the demands of the people, as too much of the spiritual leadership does presently.)

[2] And Aaron said unto them, Break off the golden earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me.

[3] And all the people broke off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron. (Unless we hover close to Christ, none of us are very far from the "golden calf." For instance, most Churches give people what they want, instead of what they need. The "seeker-sensitive" Churches and, in fact, most all, are perfect examples of this [Acts 5:29].)

[4] And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a molten calf: and they said, These be your gods, O Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt. (The calf was the great god of the Egyptians. It was carried in the vanguard of their processions. Sacrifices were offered to it, and lascivious dances executed in its honor. It was worshipped as the generator of life, with, no doubt, the Israelites being very familiar with this practice. Golden calves, regrettably, at the present time, abound plentifully.)

5 And when Aaron saw it, he built an Altar before it (all golden calves are religious); and Aaron made proclamation, and said, Tomorrow is a feast to the LORD. (Williams says: "One of the great ploys of Satan is not to abolish God, but to represent Him by something visible. Also, Satan can, through a religious teacher like Aaron, associate idolatry with Christ, recognize the good in all religions, and provide a worship that appeals to man's natural heart. In fact, everything was done by Aaron under the cover of 'religion.'")

6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play. (Their "play" referred to licentiousness and vulgarity of the worst order. Cain had the right Altar, but the wrong sacrifice [Gen., Chpt. 4]. Israel here had the right sacrifices, but the wrong altar. The Lord could not accept either one, because both were man-devised — and that is the great problem of the modern Church [II Cor. 11:4].)

7 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go, get thee down; for thy (your) people, which thou (you) brought out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves (by the use of the pronouns "thy" and "thou," we learn that God had disowned Israel here; in Verse 11, Moses disowns them himself; in a sense, the entirety of the nation of Israel, at least as a whole, had made spiritual orphans of themselves)**:

8 They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, These be your gods, O Israel, which have brought you up out of the land of Egypt. (These were a people "in whom was no Faith" [Deut. 32:20; Heb. 4:1-2].)

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people (hardened heart)**:

10 Now therefore let Me alone, that My wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of you a great nation.

(The only thing that stands between man and eternal Hell is the Cross of Christ. That being abandoned, as it was by Israel, judgment must follow — and it always does!)

INTERCESSION

11 And Moses besought the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why does Your wrath wax hot against Your people, which You have brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand? (All of these things, as wonderful as they were and, in a sense, is the same presently with every Believer, still, cannot condone sin. As should be obvious, this refutes the unscriptural doctrine of unconditional eternal security.)

12 Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did He bring them out, to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the Earth? Turn from Your fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against Your people.

13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, Your servants, to whom You swore by Your Own Self, and said unto them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it forever. (As much as anything, this was a test for Moses. I think most Bible Scholars, in addressing this scenario, make God too little and Moses too big.)

14 And the LORD repented of the evil which He thought to do unto His people. (This doesn't mean that the Lord did something wrong, but rather that He simply turned aside from the proposed direction. Oftentimes, even as here, what God does is predicated on what we do. In fact, the entirety of this generation did die in the wilderness, and did so because of unbelief.)

MOSES

15 And Moses turned, and went down from the Mount, and the two Tables of the Testimony were in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other were they written (the Ten Commandments, written by the "Finger of God" [31:18]).

[16] And the tables were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, graven upon the tables. (The Law began with the Judgment of God, even as all Law must begin with the Judgment of God.)

[17] And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said unto Moses, There is a noise of war in the camp. (It seems that Joshua has waited for Moses for the entirety of the 40 days and 40 nights. He did so about halfway down the mountain. He will now accompany Moses to the base of the Mountain.)

[18] And he said, It is not the voice of them who shout for mastery, neither is it the voice of them who cry for being overcome: but the noise of them that sing do I hear. (This was a far cry from the song of Moses, which celebrated the deliverance of the Children of Israel from Egyptian bondage [Ex., Chpt. 15.)

[19] And it came to pass, as soon as he came near unto the camp, that he saw the calf, and the dancing: and Moses' anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and broke them beneath the Mount. (The anger of Moses was righteous indignation, and rightly so. He broke the Tables as a symbol of the anger of God, and not by him losing his temper.)

[20] And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and strawed it upon the water, and made the Children of Israel drink of it. (The Lord wanted Moses to do what he did, in order to show the people the utter, absolute worthlessness of this idol they had made.)

[21] And Moses said unto Aaron, What did this people unto you, that you have brought so great a sin upon them? (Verses 21-24 record Aaron's excuse. He blames his actions on the people. Bible Repentance demands that God be justified, and we be condemned. This means that God demands that we accept the blame for our failure. This is the only kind of Repentance that He will honor.)

22 And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord wax hot: you know the people, that they are set on mischief. (Most Preachers presently, like Aaron, are little concerned about sin. This means they do not properly understand sin or the Cross!)

23 For they said unto me, Make us gods, which shall go before us: for as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him. (In a fashion, he is now blaming the situation on Moses!)

24 And I said unto them, Whosoever has any gold, let them break it off. So they gave it me: then I cast it into the fire, and there came out this calf (at least one of the most lame excuses that's ever been offered; and yet, as far as we know, the Lord did not direct Moses to punish Aaron in any way; it was not because he was the brother of Moses, because God is no respecter of persons; quite possibly, the magnitude of what he had done, which directly caused the deaths of some 3,000 men, creating a terrible amount of suffering, was punishment enough; as the High Priest, he was to stand as a mediator between God and the people, thereby saving their lives; and for him to be the cause of their deaths had to weigh heavily upon him).

IDOLATERS SLAIN

25 And when Moses saw that the people were naked; (for Aaron had made them naked unto their shame among their enemies [this refers not only to licentiousness, but, as well, to them being naked to the Judgment of God]**:)

26 Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is on the LORD's side? (The Hebrew actually says, "Who for Jehovah?" It formed an excellent rallying cry. Those who were engaging in this licentiousness, and those who saw no fault in it, obviously were not on the Lord's side. Neither are those which are in that camp presently!) let him come unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him. (That day, the sons of Levi won the Priesthood. The curse was broken [Gen. 49:5-7].)

27 And he said unto them, Thus says the LORD God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and kill every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour. (This which was to be done, first of all, was instruction from the Lord. Concerning this, Pink says: "So in preaching to idolaters today it is the 'wrath' of a Holy God, and not His Love [which is a Truth for His Own people only], which needs pressing upon them" [Rom. 1:18].)

28 And the Children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men. (These were the ones who had mocked the call of Moses, and had continued on in their wicked ways. They were determined to continue to worship the golden calf. This tells us that at the giving of the Law, three thousand men lost their lives, and their souls. On the Day of Pentecost, the beginning of Grace, three thousand men were saved [Acts 2:41].)

29 For Moses had said, Consecrate yourselves today to the LORD, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day. (This concerned the Tribe of Levi, and that they would be installed as Priests of the Lord on this particular day.)

30 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people, You have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up unto the LORD; peradventure I shall make an Atonement for your sin. (The people had sinned, and the only thing that could make Atonement for sin was the Cross of Christ, which was portrayed in symbolic form respecting the Sacrifices. Moses could not atone for sin; the following terminology proves the point. For all practical purposes, it seems that the Lord ignored his statements.)

31 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold. (Some sins are worse than others, and idolatry, which comes in many forms, is one of the worst of all [Jn. 19:11].)

32 Yet now, if You will forgive their sin; and if not, blot me, I pray You, out of Your Book which You have written. (This is the first mention of the "Book of Life" found in the Bible. God could only forgive the sins of those who asked for such forgiveness [I Jn. 1:9].)

[33] And the LORD said unto Moses, Whosoever has sinned against Me, him will I blot out of My Book. (Concerning this, Williams says: "Moses descended from on high with the Law. Confronted with man's sin, he broke both Tables, then returned with a cheerless 'peradventure' on his lips to seek an uncertain forgiveness. He failed!

"Christ descended from on high, fulfilled the Law, and having, on behalf of sinners, suffered its full penalty, returned to Heaven having shed His Precious Blood, the sign of His accomplished Atonement, to obtain an absolutely certain forgiveness.")

[34] Therefore now go, lead the people unto the place of which I have spoken unto you: behold, My Angel shall go before you: nevertheless in the day when I visit I will visit their sin upon them. (It has been argued, and even conjectured, that this "Angel" is different from the "Angel" of Exodus 23:20. It is my thought that this is the same Angel. It seems as though the Lord had threatened to remove this Angel, Who, in essence, was a pre-incarnate appearance of Christ, but now consents that He may remain with Israel, thereby continuing to lead and to watch over them.)

[35] And the LORD plagued the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made. (The word "plagued" here means "to push, defeat, inflict disease, kill, smite, put to the worst." Exactly what the Lord did, we aren't told. It seems to have been in the form of chastisement, and seems somewhat, as the next Chapter proclaims, to have had a positive effect.)

CHAPTER 33

THE JOURNEY

[1] And the LORD said unto Moses, Depart, and go up hence, you and the people which you have brought up out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I swore unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, Unto your seed will I give it (the host, according to the command of the Lord, will now start toward the Promised Land; however, the unbelief which brought about the golden calf would also shut the door to entrance into the Promised Land; that generation would die in the wilderness, and take 38 years to do so; so their sin delayed the Plan of God, as all sin delays the Plan of God)**:

[2] And I will send an Angel before you; and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite (the Lord never said that the Promised Land would be free of enemies, but He does promise victory over those enemies; regrettably, Israel, as we will later see, did not believe Him)**:

[3] Unto a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of you; for you are a stiffnecked people: lest I consume you in the way (to have the Presence of the Lord is the greatest thing in the world, unless the Believer decides on a wrong direction; that being the case, that "Presence," which is meant to bless, will instead destroy).

CONSECRATION

[4] And when the people heard these evil tidings, they mourned: and no man did put on him his ornaments. (Due to their great sin, the Lord wanted them to know that this was no time for festivities, levity, or decorations. In other words, they must take the matter very seriously.)

5 For the LORD had said unto Moses, Say unto the Children of Israel, You are a stiff-necked people: I will come up into the midst of you in a moment, and consume you: therefore now put off your ornaments from yourself, that I may know what to do unto you. (In essence, the Lord was telling the Children of Israel that what Pharaoh could not do, He could do in a moment.)

6 And the Children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by the mount Horeb.

THE TENT

7 And Moses took the Tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the Tabernacle of the Congregation. And it came to pass, that every one which sought the Lord went out unto the Tabernacle of the Congregation, which was without the camp. (The Hebrew word used here is "ohel," which means "tent," and should have been translated accordingly. The Hebrew word for "Tabernacle" is "mishkan," which was not used here. Moses moved his own tent outside the camp, because the main Tabernacle had not yet been built.)

8 And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the Tabernacle (tent), that all the people rose up, and stood every man at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the Tabernacle. (The Lord telling Moses to take his tent outside of the Camp was really an act of Grace. Had it remained in the Camp, judgment may very well have fallen on the people.)

9 And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the Tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the Tabernacle, and the LORD talked with Moses (the "cloudy pillar" denoted the Presence of God).

10 And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the Tabernacle door: and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man in his tent door. (But yet, the worship will prove to be somewhat shallow, more out of fear than anything else.)

11 And the LORD spoke unto Moses face to face, as a man speaks unto his friend. And he (Moses) turned again into the camp: but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the Tabernacle. (Joshua would one day take the place of Moses, even though it would be many years into the future. But the Holy Spirit had already begun his training, showing the preparation time that was needed.)

THE GLORY

12 And Moses said unto the LORD, See, You say unto me, Bring up this people: and You have not let me know whom You will send with me. Yet You have said, I know you by name, and you have also found Grace in My sight. (Moses reminds the Lord of the Promises the Lord has made to him. We are encouraged to do the same [Isa. 43:26].)

13 Now therefore, I pray Thee, if I have found Grace in Your sight, show me now Your way, that I may know You, that I may find Grace in Your sight: and consider that this nation is Your People. (Moses makes "Grace" the foundation of his petition, which foundation alone God will honor. If we come to Him on the basis of supposed merit, we will not be received. And we must always remember, Grace comes to the Believer strictly on the premise of the Finished Work of Christ. In fact, it can come no other way! [Gal. 2:20-21; 5:4].)

14 And He (the Lord) said, My Presence shall go with you, and I will give you rest.

15 And he (Moses) said unto Him (the Lord), If Your Presence go not with me, carry us not up hence. (Moses, in essence, demands that the Presence of God accompany him, and that the enterprise was impossible without the companionship of the Lord.)

16 For wherein shall it be known here that I and Your People have found Grace in Your Sight? Is it not in that You go with us? so shall we be separated, I and Your People, from all the people who are upon the face of the Earth. (It was that companionship, and nothing else, that separated Israel from the surrounding nations.)

[17] And the LORD said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that you have spoken: for you have found Grace in My Sight, and I know you by name. (This speaks of relationship far more than the mere knowledge of Moses' name. In fact, the Lord knows the name of every person on the Earth.)

[18] And he said, I beseech You, show me Your Glory. (Grace comes first, then Glory.)

[19] And He (the Lord) said, I will make all My Goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim the Name of the LORD before you; and will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy. (The Lord shows "Grace" and "Mercy" to those who meet His conditions. Those conditions are simple: Faith in Christ and what Christ has done for us at the Cross, and that exclusively.)

[20] And He (the Lord) said, You cannot see My Face: for there shall no man see Me, and live. (We must remember that Moses was asking to see God in all His Glory, which, we learn here, is impossible, and for any number of reasons.)

[21] And the LORD said, Behold, there is a place by Me, and you shall stand upon a Rock (Henry says concerning this: "The 'Rock' in Horeb was typical of Christ the Rock; the Rock of Israel, and the Rock of Ages, the Rock of refuge, Salvation, and strength; comparable to one for shelter, solidity, firmness, strength, and duration; happy are they who stand upon this Rock; they are safe and secure, they stand on high, and have noble prospects of the perfections of God, and of the riches of His Grace and Goodness" [Ps. 40:2; Isa. 33:16; Mat. 7:24])**:

[22] And it shall come to pass, while My Glory passes by, that I will put you in a clift of the Rock, and will cover you with My Hand while I pass by (the "clift of the Rock" could be likened to the precious shed Blood of Jesus Christ, which covers the individual whose Faith is placed therein; it is believed that this particular "clift" is the same cave where Elijah would go, while in a very depressed state, some 800 years into the future [I Ki. 19:9]):

23 And I will take away My Hand, and you shall see My Back Parts: but My Face shall not be seen. (Some have claimed that these statements are merely anthropomorphisms; however, I think not! From the descriptions given in the Word of God, I personally believe that the Lord has a Spirit Body that, if seen, would be very similar to a human body, at least as far as shape is concerned.)

CHAPTER 34

THE SECOND TABLES

1 And the LORD said unto Moses, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first: and I will write upon these tables the Words that were in the first tables, which you broke. (The Ten Commandments were given again, but they were to be committed to the Ark of the Covenant — the symbol of Him Who said, "Thy Word have I hid in My heart" — Williams.)

2 And be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning unto Mount Sinai, and present yourself there to Me in the top of the Mount. ("Grace" is the keynote of this Chapter.)

3 And no man shall come up with you, neither let any man be seen throughout all the Mount; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that Mount. (While the Lord told Moses to hew the tables of stone all over again, because Moses had broken the first two, there is no record that God reprimanded him. Perhaps we could say that the repetition of the giving of the Ten Commandments the second time underlines God's Love and Patience with us. Many times He has to do the work all over again within our lives.)

4 And he hewed two tables of stone like unto the first; and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up unto Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tables of stone. (The Law is written on stone, while Grace is written on the heart.)

REVELATION

5 And the LORD descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the Name of the LORD. (The Lord revealed His Character and Nature, which His Name proclaims.)

[6] And the LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, The LORD, The LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in Goodness and Truth (all of this was epitomized in the Lord Jesus Christ).

[7] Keeping Mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty (the unrepentant cannot experience forgiveness from the Lord); visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation. (However, once any member of a family comes to Christ, this curse is broken [II Cor. 5:17].)

[8] And Moses made haste, and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped.

[9] And he said, If now I have found Grace in Your Sight, O Lord, let my Lord, I pray You, go among us: for it is a stiffnecked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for Your Inheritance. (The wondrous Revelation of God in this Chapter is declared in II Corinthians to have been the ministration of death; for as the people were still under Law, the more gracious God was, the more guilty they were [II Cor. 3:6-9].)

THE COVENANT

[10] And He (the Lord) said, Behold, I make a Covenant: before all your people I will do marvels, such as have not been done in all the Earth, nor in any nation: and all the people among which you are shall see the Work of the LORD: for it is a terrible thing that I will do with you. (For all this, Israel still had problems believing, which cost that generation the Promised Land.)

[11] Observe thou that which I command you this day: behold, I drive out before you the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite. (The Lord driving out these enemies, at least when Israel came to the Promised Land, was contingent upon them rendering proper obedience, even as it is presently.)

12 Take heed to yourself, lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land where you go, lest it be for a snare in the midst of you (to make a covenant with the world is to invite disaster)**:

13 But you shall destroy their altars, break their images, and cut down their groves (in this Verse is found the first mention of Phallic worship in the Bible; such was the object of worship described here as a "grove" or "Ashera"; in blunt language, this is the male member [II Cor. 6:14-18; 7:1])**:

14 For you shall worship no other god: for the LORD, Whose Name is Jealous, is a jealous God (in this sense, the jealousy of God is of the essence of His Moral Character, a major cause for worship and confidence on the part of His People, and a ground for fear on the part of His enemies; the Lord will not share His People with Satan; as well, the jealousy evidenced by the Lord is in no way selfish, as it is with mankind)**:

15 Lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go a whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and one call you, and you eat of his sacrifice;

16 And you take of their daughters unto your sons, and their daughters go a whoring after their gods, and make your sons go a whoring after their gods.

17 You shall make yourself no molten gods. (The Word of God is emphatic, that it teaches separation from the world; however, it doesn't teach isolation. There is a great difference in the two.)

INSTRUCTIONS

18 The Feast of Unleavened Bread shall you keep. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, in the time of the month Abib: for in the month Abib you came out from Egypt. (It is touching to recognize the love which repeated the Ten Commandments and the Sacrifices and Feasts connected therewith. This was not mere repetition; it was loving instruction.)

19 All that open the matrix (womb) is Mine; and every firstling among your cattle, whether ox or sheep, that is male. (The "firstborn," not only of man, but even the male animals, were to be given to the Lord. This was typical of Christ, Who was God's Son. Regarding the Incarnation, He was the "firstborn" [Jn. 3:16].)

20 But the firstling of an ass you shall redeem with a lamb (by offering up a lamb in sacrifice, which was typical of Christ being offered up for unclean humanity, of which the "ass" was a type): and if you redeem him not, then shall you break his neck. All the firstborn of your sons you shall redeem. And none shall appear before Me empty. (The firstborn could not be redeemed, unless sacrifice was offered; likewise, there is no Redemption for humanity without Faith in the Sacrifice of Christ, of which all of this was a Type.)

21 Six days you shall work, but on the seventh day you shall rest: in earing time (plowing time) and in harvest you shall rest. (Christ is God's rest [Heb., Chpt. 4]. The honor, or dishonor, done to the Sabbath was a test under Law; the honor, or dishonor, done to Christ, the test under Grace. Death was the penalty of dishonoring the Sabbath; a similar penalty attaches to dishonoring Christ [Rom. 6:23].)

22 And you shall observe the Feast of Weeks, of the firstfruits of wheat harvest (the feast of Pentecost, which took place in our May or June), and the Feast of Ingathering at the year's end (of Tabernacles, which took place in October).

23 Thrice in the year shall all your menchildren appear before the Lord GOD, the God of Israel (April, June, and October).

24 For I will cast out the nations before you, and enlarge your borders: neither shall any man desire your land, when you shall go up to appear before the LORD your God thrice in the year (with all the men gathered in Jerusalem, enemies might think this would be the time to attack Israel; however, the Lord promises His Protection).

[25] You shall not offer the Blood of My sacrifice with leaven (many, if not most, Jewish Scholars, I believe, limit this prohibition to the Passover Lamb; in fact, concerning the Feast of Pentecost, leaven is required [Lev. 23:17]); neither shall the Sacrifice of the Feast of the Passover be left unto the morning (this represents the fact that one must partake totally of Christ, and not partially).

[26] The first of the firstfruits of your land you shall bring unto the House of the LORD your God ("Firstfruits" speak of Tithes). You shall not seethe a kid in his mother's milk (the little baby lamb was not to be boiled in his mother's milk; killing the little animal at its birth, and cooking it in this manner, showed a disrespect for the coming Redeemer, represented by the lamb).

MOSES

[27] And the LORD said unto Moses, You write these Words: for after the tenor of these Words I have made a Covenant with you and with Israel. (The words which Moses wrote are those found in Verses 10 through 26.)

[28] And he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water. And He (the Lord) wrote upon the tables the Words of the Covenant, the Ten Commandments. (The latter portion of this Verse seems to imply that Moses wrote the Ten Commandments on the two Tables of stone; however, it was the Lord Who wrote these Words [34:1; Deut. 10:2].)

[29] And it came to pass, when Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tables of Testimony in Moses' hand, when he came down from the Mount, that Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone while he talked with him (with Aaron — this was the Presence of God on Moses).

[30] And when Aaron and all the Children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come near him (this shining indicated that the Glory of God on Moses' face was like rays or darts of lightning shooting forth).

31 And Moses called unto them; and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned unto him: and Moses talked with them.

32 And afterward all the Children of Israel came near: and he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him in Mount Sinai.

33 And till Moses had done speaking with them, he put a veil on his face. (Paul addressed this incident in II Corinthians, Chapter 3. In a context that stresses the transforming Power of God in the life of the Believer, Paul first explores Moses' motive in using the veil. It was so that the Israelites might not gaze at his face "while the radiance was fading away" [II Cor. 3:13].)

34 But when Moses went in before the LORD to speak with Him, he took the veil off, until he came out. And he came out, and spoke unto the Children of Israel that which he was commanded.

35 And the Children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone: and Moses put the veil upon his face again, until he went in to speak with Him (with the Lord — Richards says concerning this: "The veil symbolizes hiding our real selves from one another and must be removed in our relationships with other Believers; because Jesus is within Believers, effecting our inner transformation, we see His Face in one another's lives, for we 'are being transformed into His likeness' by the Work of the Holy Spirit; this attitude of openness is in contrast to the position Moses took, but it is necessary within the Church").

CHAPTER 35

(1491 B.C.)

THE SABBATH

[1] And Moses gathered all the congregation of the Children of Israel together, and said unto them, These are the words which the LORD has commanded, that you should do them (God's rest [the Sabbath] opens this section, and His resting place [the Tabernacle] closes it).

[2] Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you an holy day, a Sabbath of Rest to the LORD: whosoever does work therein shall be put to death.

[3] You shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations upon the Sabbath day. (Concerning this, Williams says: "What distinguishes God's People is participation in God's Rest. Christ is God's Rest [Heb., Chpt. 4]. The honor, or dishonor, done to the Sabbath was the test under Law. The honor, or dishonor, done to Christ, the test under Grace. Death was the penalty of dishonoring the Sabbath; a similar penalty attaches to dishonoring Christ.")

THE TABERNACLE

[4] And Moses spoke unto all the congregation of the Children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD commanded, saying (these commands were for the entirety of the People of Israel; none were to be excluded),

[5] Take ye from among you an offering unto the LORD; whosoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, an offering of the LORD; gold, and silver, and brass,

6 And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair,

7 And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood,

8 And oil for the light, and spices for anointing oil, and for the sweet incense,

9 And onyx stones, and stones to be set for the Ephod, and for the Breastplate. (As Verse 5 states, this Offering is to be of a "willing heart," which means that it is not a tax. In fact, all Offerings to the Lord, whether back under Law, or presently under Grace, must be of a "willing heart," or else it is not recognized by the Lord.)

10 And every wise hearted among you shall come, and make all that the LORD has commanded (all were to participate, giving of their valuables, and for those who had talent in certain areas, as well, of their time and labor)**;

11 The Tabernacle, his tent, and his covering, his taches, and his boards, his bars, his pillars, and his sockets (all, in one way or the other, were Types of Christ, in either His Mediatorial, Intercessory, or Atoning Work)**,

12 The Ark, and the staves thereof, with the Mercy Seat, and the Veil of the covering,

13 The Table (Table of Shewbread), and his staves, and all his vessels, and the Shewbread,

14 The Candlestick (Lampstand) also for the light, and his furniture, and his lamps, with the Oil for the light,

15 And the Incense Altar, and his staves, and the anointing Oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the door at the entering in of the Tabernacle,

16 The Altar of Burnt Offering, with his brasen grate, his staves, and all his vessels, the Laver and his foot,

17 The hangings of the court, his pillars, and their sockets, and the hanging for the door of the court,

18 The pins of the Tabernacle, and the pins of the court, and their cords,

19 The cloths of service, to do service in the Holy Place, the holy garments for Aaron the Priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the Priest's office. (Although the world at that time would have understood this not at all, the truth is, the Tabernacle was the single most important thing happening on the face of the Earth. As well, at the present time, the activities of the Holy Spirit in the Body of Christ fall into the same category.)

20 And all the congregation of the Children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

21 And they came, every one whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and they brought the LORD's Offering to the work of the Tabernacle of the congregation, and for all his service and for the holy garments (the "willing hearted" and the "wise hearted" and the "stirred hearted" offered themselves and their gifts to the Lord; thus "willingness" and "obedience" characterized the people).

22 And they came, both men and women, as many as were willing hearted, and brought bracelets, and earrings, and rings, and tablets, all jewels of gold: and every man who offered offered an offering of gold unto the LORD.

23 And every man, with whom was found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and red skins of rams, and badgers' skins, brought them.

24 Every one who did offer an offering of silver and brass brought the LORD's Offering: and every man, with whom was found shittim wood for any work of the service, brought it.

25 And all the women who were wise hearted did spin with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, both of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine linen.

[26] And all the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun goats' hair. (However, all of this work was done exactly according to the pattern which the Lord had given to Moses. They must not deviate from that pattern one iota; likewise, as all of this was a pattern of Redemption, this tells us that we must not depart whatsoever from the Word of God, and in any capacity.)

[27] And the rulers brought onyx stones, and stones to be set, for the Ephod, and for the Breastplate;

[28] And spice, and Oil for the light, and for the anointing Oil, and for the sweet incense.

[29] The Children of Israel brought a willing offering unto the LORD, every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all manner of work, which the LORD had commanded to be made by the hand of Moses. (At Calvary, Christ was a "Willing Offering.")

ANOINTED WORKERS

[30] And Moses said unto the Children of Israel, See, the LORD has called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the Tribe of Judah (Christ was from the Tribe of Judah; so, in a sense, Bezaleel was a Type of Christ)**;

[31] And He (the Lord) has filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship (Christ was filled and anointed by the Holy Spirit for all manner of service [Lk. 4:18-19])**;

[32] And to devise curious works (beautifully crafted), to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,

[33] And in the cutting of stones, to set them, and in the carving of wood, to make any manner of cunning work. (The work then was in items; the Work of the Holy Spirit now is in hearts and lives, which the Spirit does by the Authority of Christ [Jn. 16:14].)

[34] And He (the Lord) has put in his heart (Bezaleel's) that he may teach, both he, and Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the Tribe of Dan.

[35] Them has He filled with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of work, of the engraver, and of the cunning workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of them who do any work, and of those who devise cunning work. (A part of the Work of the Holy Spirit was to give to Bezaleel the gift of being able to teach others, and so enabled him to form a body of skilled workmen to carry out his conceptions.)

CHAPTER 36

ABUNDANCE

[1] Then wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whom the LORD put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the Sanctuary, according to all that the LORD had commanded. (There is a volume of instruction in all of this. We are too prone to regard the Word of God as insufficient for the minute details connected with His worship and service. This is a great mistake — a mistake which has proved the fruitful source of evils and errors in the professing Church.)

[2] And Moses called Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, even everyone whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it (if the Word of God furnishes a man thoroughly unto "all good works" [II Tim. 3:16-17], it follows, as a necessary consequence, that whatever I find not in its pages cannot possibly be a good work)**:

[3] And they received of Moses all the offering, which the Children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the Sanctuary, to make it withal. And they brought yet unto him free offerings every morning (such giving will always bring about great blessing).

[4] And all the wise men, who wrought all the work of the Sanctuary, came every man from his work which they made;

[5] And they spoke unto Moses, saying, The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work, which the LORD commanded to make. (Concerning all of this, Williams says, "The minute repetition in these Chapters of the materials used in the construction of the Tabernacle, and of the vessels and furniture of that place of worship, is tiresome to a secular reader, but precious to a spiritual eye. Why this minute repetition? Because the Tabernacle, its curtains, its boards, its hooks, its sockets, its pins, its spoons — everything connected with it, displayed to God's heart the infinite perfections and glories of His Dearly Beloved Son.")

6 And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the Sanctuary. So the people were restrained from bringing.

7 For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much. (We find in these Passages a beautiful picture of the devotion that the people gave to the Work of the Lord, as it involved the Sanctuary. It needed no effort to move the hearts of the people to give, no earnest appeals, no impressive arguments. The Scripture says that their "hearts stirred them up." This was the true way, and it is still the true way; consequently, the streams of voluntary devotion flowed from within. They all felt it was their sweet privilege to give to the Lord, not with a narrow heart, but after a princely fashion, until they had given "enough, and too much.")

THE LINEN CURTAINS

8 And every wise hearted man among them who wrought the work of the Tabernacle made ten Curtains of Fine Twined Linen (portraying the Righteousness of Christ), and Blue (signifying Christ came from Heaven), and Purple (signifying His Royalty as a King), and Scarlet (signifying His shed Blood on the Cross of Calvary): with Cherubims of cunning work (beautiful, exact work) made he them (signifying the Holiness of Christ).

9 The length of one curtain was twenty and eight cubits (42 feet), and the breadth of one curtain four cubits (6 feet): the curtains were all of one size. (This was the covering that was seen on the inside of the Tabernacle at the ceiling. The curtains symbolized the Righteousness of Christ.)

10 And he coupled the Five curtains one unto another (five signifies Grace): and the other Five curtains he coupled one unto another.

[11] And he made loops of blue on the edge of one curtain from the selvedge in the coupling: likewise he made in the uttermost side of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

[12] Fifty loops made he in one curtain, and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain which was in the coupling of the second: the loops held one curtain to another.

[13] And he made fifty taches (knobs) of gold, and coupled the curtains one unto another with the taches: so it became one Tabernacle. (All of this signifies that the Body of Christ is "one," made that way by Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross.)

GOATS' HAIR

[14] And he made curtains of Goats' Hair for the tent over the Tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them. (This was placed on the backside of the curtain of linen, which means it could not be seen. It signified the Prophetic Office of Christ.)

[15] The length of one curtain was thirty cubits (45 feet), and four cubits (6 feet) was the breadth (width) of one curtain: the eleven curtains were of one size.

[16] And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.

[17] And he made fifty loops upon the uttermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain which couples the second.

[18] And he made fifty taches of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one. (We are one in Christ.)

RAMS' AND BADGERS' SKINS

[19] And he made a covering for the tent of Rams' Skins (signified Christ as King) dyed Red (signifying that a King would Die on the Cross, thereby shedding His Life's Blood), and a covering of Badgers' Skins above that (this was the last and final covering, actually the covering seen by all the people; this signified Christ as the High Priest of His people).

BOARDS AND SOCKETS

[20] And he made boards for the Tabernacle of Shittim Wood, standing up (these were for the sides of the Tabernacle; the "shittim wood" was also referred to as "indestructible wood," which means that it was a Type of the Humanity of Christ).

[21] The length of a board was ten cubits (15 feet), and the breadth (width) of a board one cubit and a half (2 and 1/4 feet).

[22] One board had two tenons (hands), equally distant one from another: thus did he make for all the boards of the Tabernacle.

[23] And he made boards for the Tabernacle; twenty boards for the south side southward:

[24] And forty sockets of Silver (Redemption is symbolized in the Old Testament by silver) he made under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

[25] And for the other side of the Tabernacle, which is toward the north corner, he made twenty boards,

[26] And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

[27] And for the sides of the Tabernacle westward (the rear) he made six boards.

[28] And two boards made he for the corners of the Tabernacle in the two sides.

[29] And they were coupled beneath, and coupled together at the head thereof, to one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners. (All Believers are coupled to Christ, Who is "Head.")

[30] And there were eight boards, and their sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, under every board two sockets.

THE BARS

[31] And he made bars of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the Tabernacle,

[32] And five bars for the boards of the other side of the Tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the Tabernacle for the sides westward.

[33] And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other. (As should by now be overly obvious, the Lord gave to Moses minute instructions concerning the design of the Tabernacle. Everything was planned by God, down to the minutest detail, which means that it was not to be changed in any capacity.)

GOLD

[34] And he overlaid the boards with Gold (signifying the Deity of Christ), and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold. (The "bars" held the boards in place and, as well, signified the one purpose of Christ, to which He was confined, which was the Cross [Isa. 50:7].)

THE INNER VEIL

35 And he made a Veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen (if it is to be noticed, these colors did not vary): with Cherubims (signifying the Holiness of Christ) made he it of cunning work.

36 And he made thereunto four pillars of Shittim Wood (the Humanity of Christ), and overlaid them with Gold (the Deity of Christ): their hooks were of gold; and he cast for them four sockets of Silver (the latter represented Redemption; however, due to the fact that Jesus was God, hence the "gold," He would have to become a man, The Man Christ Jesus, in order to die on a Cross, thereby effecting this Redemption; the "four pillars" represent the fourfold Gospel, typified by the Gospel of John, Jesus Saves; the Gospel of Mark, Jesus heals; the Gospel of Luke, Jesus Baptizes with the Holy Spirit; and the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus is coming again).

THE OUTER VEIL

37 And he made an hanging for the Tabernacle door of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, of needlework;

38 And the Five pillars of it with their hooks: and he overlaid their Chapiters and their fillets with gold: but their five sockets were of Brass. ("Five" in Biblical numerology specifies "Grace." Jesus had five names [Isa. 9:6]. As well, the Ministry is made up of five callings, "Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, Pastors, and Teachers" [Eph. 4:11]. The "chapiters" represent the "Finished Work of Christ" [I Ki. 7:15-20]. These "five pillars" were set in "sockets of copper," whereas the others were in sockets of silver. "Copper" represents the Judgment of God, which Jesus suffered on our behalf. It would result in Redemption, hence, the "silver sockets" under the four Pillars. Once again, we see only Christ, but we see, as well, the Cross.)

CHAPTER 37

(1491 B.C.)

ARK OF THE COVENANT

[1] And Bezaleel made the Ark of Shittim Wood: two cubits and a half (3 and 3/4 feet) was the length of it, and a cubit and a half (2 and 1/4 feet) the breadth (width) of it, and a cubit and a half the height of it (in a sense, this was God's Dwelling Place on Earth, as it regards His association with man):

[2] And he overlaid it with Pure Gold within and without (signifying the Deity of Christ), and made a Crown of Gold to it round about (signifying that Jesus was a King).

[3] And he cast for it four rings of gold, to be set by the four corners of it; even two rings upon the one side of it, and two rings upon the other side of it.

[4] And he made staves of Shittim Wood (the wood signified the Humanity of Christ), and overlaid them with gold.

[5] And he put the staves into the rings by the sides of the Ark, to bear the Ark. (When the people were told by the Lord to move, the Ark, plus all the other Sacred Vessels of the Tabernacle, were to move as well. Due to the Cross, the Holy Spirit now lives within our hearts and lives, at least all who are Born-Again and, consequently, is with us at all times. As should be obvious, the abiding Presence of the Holy Spirit is far better than the old method, hence Paul saying that we now have a "Better Covenant" [Heb. 8:6].)

MERCY SEAT

6 And he made the Mercy Seat of Pure Gold (which sat on top of the Ark of the Covenant): two cubits and a half (3 and 3/4 feet) was the length thereof, and one cubit and a half (2 and 1/4 feet) the breadth (width) thereof.

7 And he made two Cherubims of gold, beaten out of one piece made he them, on the two ends of the Mercy Seat (meaning that the two Cherubims and the Mercy Seat were all of one piece of gold);

8 One Cherub on the end on this side, and another Cherub on the other end on that side: out of the Mercy Seat made he the Cherubims on the two ends thereof. (The Mercy of God, based on the Holiness of God, tells us that only Christ can come near. He Alone is Holy!)

9 And the Cherubims spread out their wings on high, and covered with their wings over the Mercy Seat (the four wings touched each other in the middle), with their faces one to another; even to the Mercy Seatward were the faces of the Cherubims (the faces looked down toward the Mercy Seat; inside the Ark were the Ten Commandments on two tablets of stone; man had broken them repeatedly; so they saw the broken Law; however, with the blood applied to the Mercy Seat, which it was once a year by the High Priest, instead of seeing the broken Law, they saw the blood [Ex. 12:13]).

10 And he made the Table (holding twelve loaves) of Shittim Wood: two cubits (3 feet) was the length thereof, and a cubit (1 and 1/2 feet) the breadth (width) thereof, and a cubit and a half (2 and 1/4 feet) the height thereof:

11 And he overlaid it with Pure Gold (as the "wood" signified the Humanity of Christ, which was necessary in order that He might go to the Cross, the "gold" typified His Deity; while He laid aside the expression of His Deity, He never laid aside the possession of His Deity), and made thereunto a Crown of Gold round about (signifying the Kingship of Christ).

12 Also he made thereunto a border of an handbreadth round about; and made a Crown of Gold for the border thereof round about. (In essence, there were two crowns around the Table of Shewbread. They spoke of His two comings. He came the first time as a King, but was not recognized as such. When He comes back the second time, He definitely will be recognized as King, "King of kings, and Lord of lords.")

13 And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings upon the four corners that were in the four feet thereof.

14 Over against the border were the rings, the places for the staves to bear the Table (when it was moved).

15 And he made the staves of Shittim Wood, and overlaid them with Gold, to bear the Table.

16 And he made the vessels which were upon the Table, his dishes, and his spoons, and his bowls, and his covers to cover withal, of pure gold. (The above Verses portray the Table of Shewbread, a Type of Christ as the Bread of Life.)

THE GOLDEN CANDLESTICK

17 And he made the Candlestick of Pure Gold (the Lampstand is a Type of Christ as the Light of the world; incidentally, the Hebrew word should have been translated Lampstand, because it's not a candlestick; in fact, no candles were involved): of beaten work made he the Candlestick (beaten and shaped by the craftsman's hand, this portrays Christ in His Sufferings); his shaft (the middle stem, which portrayed Christ as the Source of all Blessings), and his branch, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers, were of the same:

18 And six branches going out of the sides thereof; three branches of the Candlestick out of the one side thereof, and three branches of the Candlestick out of the other side thereof (the three on each side, totaling

"six," which is the number of man, represent the Church, the Body of Christ; the middle prong, representing Christ, added with the six totaled "seven," which is God's Perfect Number; the idea is, the People of God cannot be complete, not at all, without Christ):

19 Three bowls made after the fashion of almonds in one branch (represents the Resurrection of Christ), a knop (represents pomegranates, i.e., "fruit") and a flower (was no doubt the lily, denoting "purity"); and three bowls made like almonds in another branch, a knop and a flower; so throughout the six branches going out of the Candlestick.

20 And in the Candlestick were four bowls made like almonds, his knops, and his flowers (the "four bowls" represent the fourfold Gospel, "Salvation, Holy Spirit Baptism, Divine Healing, and the Second Coming"):

21 And a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches going out of it (the repetition of the branches proclaims the fact that all in the Church are treated the same by the Holy Spirit and, abiding by the Word, will receive the same Blessings from the Lord).

22 Their knops and their branches were of the same: all of it was one beaten work of pure gold (all being one piece signifies that the Mercy of God is based entirely upon the Holiness of God).

23 And he made his seven lamps ("seven," being God's Perfect Number, proclaims perfect illumination), and his snuffers (for the trimming of the wicks), and his snuffdishes, of pure gold (signifying that God Alone can make the Believer what the Believer ought to be).

24 Of a talent of pure gold made he it, and all the vessels thereof (worth about $576,000 in 2004 money).

INCENSE ALTAR

25 And he made the Incense Altar of Shittim Wood: the length of it was a cubit (1 and 1/2 feet), and the breadth (width) of it a cubit (the Incense Altar, which sat immediately in front of the Veil which separated the Holy Place from the Holy of Holies, was a Type of the Intercessory Work of our Lord, as our Great High Priest [Heb. 7:26-28]); it was foursquare (stipulating the fact that the Intercession is the same for all men everywhere, at least for those who believe); and two cubits (3 feet) was the height of it; the horns thereof were of the same (four horns protruded out from the Altar, one at each corner).

26 And he overlaid it with Pure Gold, both the top of it, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns of it: also he made unto it a Crown of Gold round about (once again, stipulating Christ as King).

27 And he made two rings of gold for it under the crown thereof, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides thereof, to be places for the staves to bear it withal.

28 And he made the staves of Shittim Wood, and overlaid them with gold (the staves inserted in the rings, by which the Altar of Incense could be handled when it was moved, speaks to us of the constant need of Intercession, irrespective as to where we might be).

ANOINTING OIL

29 And he made the Holy Anointing Oil, and the pure incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the apothecary. (For the composition of the oil, see Exodus 30:23-25. The composition of the Incense is given in Exodus 30:34-35.)

CHAPTER 38

THE BRASEN ALTAR

[1] And he made the Altar of Burnt Offering of Shittim Wood: five cubits was the length thereof (7 and 1/2 feet), and five cubits the breadth (width) thereof; it was foursquare; and three cubits (4 and 1/2 feet) the height thereof. (This was the Altar where the Burnt Offerings were offered. The Vessel sat outside immediately in front of the Tabernacle.)

[2] And he made the horns thereof on the four corners of it (horns stand for power and dominion; the idea is that the Sacrifice of Christ would be a total and complete Sacrifice, answering every problem of the entirety of the human race, consequently, the "four corners"); the horns thereof were of the same: and he overlaid it with brass.

[3] And he made all the Vessels of the Altar, the pots, and the shovels, and the basons, and the fleshhooks, and the firepans: all the Vessels thereof made he of brass. (The "copper," which characterizes this particular Vessel, speaks of Judgment, and Judgment which came upon Christ instead of upon us.)

[4] And he made for the Altar a brasen grate of network under the compass thereof beneath unto the midst of it. (Evidently, this was an extension on the Altar, which protruded out, and encircled the Altar. It was there, evidently, to catch parts of the Sacrifice which might fall off, so that they not fall to the ground. No part of the Sacrifice of Christ must be lost.)

[5] And he cast four rings for the four ends of the grate of brass, to be places for the staves.

[6] And he made the staves of Shittim Wood, and overlaid them with brass (copper).

7 And he put the staves into the rings on the sides of the Altar, to bear it withal; he made the Altar hollow with boards. (As all the other Sacred Vessels had to be transported when the Camp of Israel moved, so did the great Brazen Altar. This tells us, among other things, that there is never a time, place, or situation in which we no longer need the Cross of Christ, of which the Altar was a Type.)

THE LAVER

8 And he made the Laver of brass (the copper Laver, filled with water, symbolized the Word of God, with Jesus as the Living Word [Jn. 1:1]), and the foot of it of brass (the pedestal on which it sat), of the lookingglasses of the women assembling, which assembled at the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation. (The women who assembled here portrayed their zeal for the things of God, and contributed their bronze plates, which emitted a high polish and were used as mirrors, from which the Brazen Laver was made. As it was easy to see one's reflection in the high polish of the Laver, likewise, one can see one's self in the Word of God, of which the Laver was a Type.)

THE COURT

9 And he made the Court (which surrounded the Tabernacle): on the south side southward the hangings of the Court were of Fine Twined Linen (symbolizing the Righteousness of Christ), an hundred cubits (150 feet)**:

10 Their pillars were twenty (were probably made of Shittim Wood), and their brasen sockets twenty (the "sockets" in which the pillars sat); the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver. (The silver symbolizes Redemption. The spotless white walls that surrounded the Tabernacle on every side were a standing witness to the Holiness of Him Whose dwelling it was.)

[11] And for the north side the hangings were an hundred cubits (150 feet), their pillars were twenty, and their sockets of brass twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

[12] And for the west side were hangings of fifty cubits (75 feet), their pillars ten, and their sockets ten; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

[13] And for the east side eastward fifty cubits.

[14] The hangings of the one side of the gate were fifteen cubits (22 and 1/2 feet); their pillars three, and their sockets three.

[15] And for the other side of the Court gate, on this hand and that hand, were hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three. (The "gate," or entrance, into the Court was 20 cubits, or 30 feet, wide [Ex. 27:16], which left 15 cubits, or 22 and 1/2 feet, on each side, making up the total of 50 cubits, or 75 feet, for each end. As one can see, the "gate," or entrance, to the Court was wide. The entrance was a Type of Christ, Who said, "I am the Door: by Me if any man enter in, he shall be Saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture" [Jn. 10:9].)

[16] All the hangings of the Court roundabout were of Fine Twined Linen (snow-white, typifying the Righteousness of Christ).

[17] And the sockets for the pillars were of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver; and the overlaying of their chapiters of silver; and all the pillars of the Court were filleted with silver (once again, expressing Redemption, all in Christ).

THE GATE

[18] And the hanging for the gate of the Court was needlework, of Blue (typifying the Heavenly origin of Christ), and Purple (typifying His Position as King), and Scarlet (typifying His shed Blood on the Cross of Calvary), and Fine Twined Linen (typifying His Righteousness): and twenty cubits (30 feet) was the length, and the height in the breadth was five cubits (7 and 1/2 feet; the merely curious could not see over this fence), answerable to the hangings of the Court.

[19] And their pillars were four, and their sockets of brass four; their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their chapiters and their fillets of silver.

[20] And all the pins of the Tabernacle, and of the Court round about, were of brass.

THE OFFERINGS

[21] This is the sum of the Tabernacle, even of the Tabernacle of Testimony, as it was counted, according to the Commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, son of Aaron the Priest. (Ithamar was placed in charge. Aaron had four sons, and Ithamar was the youngest. Two of the sons, Nadab and Abihu, would be slain by the Lord for using "strange fire" [Lev. 10:1-2].)

[22] And Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the Tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD commanded Moses (was in charge).

[23] And with him was Aholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the Tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a cunning workman, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, and fine linen. (Everything was designed by the Lord, even down to the minute details. These designs were to be followed minutely and without fail.)

[24] All the gold that was occupied for the work in all the work of the Holy Place, even the gold of the Offering, was twenty and nine talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary (about $14,000,000, in 2004 currency).

[25] And the silver of them that were numbered of the congregation was an hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and threescore and fifteen shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary (about $750,000, in 2004 currency)**:

[26] A bekah for every man, that is, half a shekel, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, for everyone who went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward (these were men of war and, if a census was taken, each man was responsible to pay a half shekel of silver, worth about $3; as silver signified Redemption, this tells us that Israel's power and strength did not rest upon force of arms, but rather on the Power of God and, more particularly, the shed Blood of the Lamb, which Redemption portrayed), for six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty men (603,550 at the time of this census, and, as stated, all men of war; these were counted from 20 years old upward to 50 years old; counting those younger and older, as well as all the women and girls, the population would then have been approximately 3 million).

[27] And of the hundred talents of silver were cast the sockets of the Sanctuary, and the sockets of the Veil; an hundred sockets of the hundred talents, a talent for a socket (about 75 pounds).

[28] And of the thousand seven hundred seventy and five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their chapiters, and filleted them.

[29] And the brass (copper) of the Offering was seventy talents, and two thousand and four hundred shekels.

[30] And therewith he made the sockets to the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation, and the Brasen Altar, and the brasen grate for it, and all the Vessels of the Altar (copper signified judgment)**,

[31] And the sockets of the Court round about, and the sockets of the Court gate, and all the pins of the Tabernacle, and all the pins of the court round about.

CHAPTER 39

THE PRIESTLY GARMENTS

[1] And of the blue, and purple, and scarlet, they made cloths of service, to do service in the Holy Place (the first compartment of the Tabernacle), and made the Holy Garments for Aaron; as the LORD commanded Moses. (The reason the study of the Tabernacle is of such spiritual profit is simply because every part and parcel of this structure, plus all of its Sacred Vessels, symbolized Christ in some manner; therefore, to learn the Tabernacle is to learn Christ.)

[2] And he made the Ephod (the outer Robe worn by the High Priest) of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen (this contained all the colors used by the other material, but with one addition, "gold"; actually, this was more than a mere color, but rather gold wires, as portrayed in the next Verse, and probably woven into the hem).

[3] And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue, and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, with cunning work. (This Garment must have been strikingly beautiful! In fact, as far as we know, these are the only Garments in the history of man that were designed by the Lord of Glory.)

[4] They made shoulderpieces for it, to couple it together: by the two edges was it coupled together (the back and the front were coupled together at the shoulders).

[5] And the Curious Girdle (a sash, tied around the waist) of his Ephod, that was upon it, was of the same, according to the work thereof; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; as the Lord commanded Moses (this Girdle presents Christ as it regards His preparation for Service).

6 And they wrought onyx stones inclosed in ouches of gold, graven, as signets are graven, with the names of the Children of Israel. (These were shoulderboards, one might say, one to each shoulder, with the names of the Children of Israel inscribed on these stones, six to the side.)

7 And he put them on the shoulders of the Ephod, that they should be stones for a memorial to the Children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses (inasmuch as these were worn on the shoulders of the High Priest, it tells us that these Twelve Tribes were, in effect, worn on the Shoulders of Christ, with the shoulders denoting strength, of which all of this was a Type).

8 And he made the Breastplate of cunning work (the Breastplate also carried the names of the Twelve Tribes of Israel inscribed on precious stones; thus, Israel was carried not only on the Shoulders of Christ, but, as well, over His Heart), like the work of the Ephod; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 It was foursquare; they made the Breastplate double: a span was the length thereof (about 9 inches), and a span the breadth thereof, being doubled (the "Breastplate" being doubled probably pertained to the pouch which contained the Urim and the Thummin, which was somewhat of a pocket on the inside of the front of the Breastplate).

10 And they set in it four rows of stones: the first row was a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this was the first row.

11 And the second row, an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond.

12 And the third row, a ligure, an agate, and an amethyst.

13 And the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper: they were inclosed in ouches of gold in their inclosings (settings).

14 And the stones were according to the names of the Children of Israel, twelve, according to their names ("twelve" is God's number for His Government), like the engravings of a signet, everyone with his name, according to the Twelve Tribes. (All of these were precious stones, signifying the worth and value which God placed upon His People.)

[15] And they made upon the Breastplate chains at the ends, of wreathen work of pure gold (the chains fastened the Breastplate to the shoulderpieces of the Ephod).

[16] And they made two ouches of gold, and two gold rings; and put the two rings in the two ends of the Breastplate.

[17] And they put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the Breastplate.

[18] And the two ends of the two wreathen chains they fastened in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulderpieces of the Ephod, before it (the chains signified the binding of Christ to the Believer, and the Believer to Christ).

[19] And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the Breastplate, upon the border of it, which was on the side of the Ephod inward. (All of these tedious explanations, as it regards this garment worn by the High Priest, might seem somewhat excessive to the unspiritual eye. However, the Holy Spirit has a reason for including all of this information.

Inasmuch as the High Priest was a Type of Christ, this helps us to learn more about the Person of Christ, as it regards His Atoning, Mediatorial, and High Priestly Work. As well, it shows our relationship with Him, inasmuch as we are tied to Him, even as portrayed by the "chains," and forever fastened to Him, as portrayed by the "rings.")

[20] And they made two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the Ephod underneath, toward the forepart of it, over against the other coupling thereof, above the Curious Girdle of the Ephod.

[21] And they did bind the Breastplate by his rings unto the rings of the Ephod with a lace of blue, that it might be above the Curious Girdle of the Ephod, and that the Breastplate might not be loosed from the Ephod; as the LORD commanded Moses. (Of all the garments, the "Breastplate" was the chief and most costly of the vestments, the other garments being, as it were, a foundation and background for it — this central article pointing to the very "heart" of Christ Himself.)

[22] And he made the Robe of the Ephod of woven work, all of blue. (This Robe embodied the color of the heavens; it was all of blue, stipulating the Heavenly Character of our Great High Priest.)

[23] And there was an hole in the midst of the Robe, as the hole of an habergeon, with a band round about the hole, that it should not rend.

[24] And they made upon the hems of the Robe pomegranates (fruit) of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen. (This portrays the fact that the Ministry of Christ brings forth much "fruit" and, as well, we are to do the same [Jn., Chpt. 15].)

[25] And they made bells of pure gold (whereas the "pomegranate" was merely a form, actually a tassel, the "golden bell" was actually a real article, which rang every time the High Priest walked or moved), and put the bells between the pomegranates upon the hem of the Robe, round about between the pomegranates;

[26] A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, round about the hem of the Robe to minister in; as the LORD commanded Moses. (It was at His Ascension that our Great High Priest passed into the Heavenly Sanctuary, and consequent upon this, on the Day of Pentecost, His "sound" was heard in the outpouring of the Spirit, which was carried by the Apostles, ultimately to the ends of the Earth. The "fruit" is seen in the multitudes who have been Saved. Even more glorious will be His Sound and Fruit when "He comes out" again, and returns to this Earth, and redeems His People, Israel, and sets up His Kingdom.

Even though this Robe was worn by the High Priest of Israel, the very embodiment of the Levitical Law, still, this is most important, for it defines the essential nature of Christianity as contra-distinguished from Judaism.

The whole system takes its character from the Priest. Because Christ is the Heavenly Priest, His People are partakers of a Heavenly Calling [Heb. 3:1], and our inheritance is also there [I Pet., Chpt. 1].)

[27] And they made coats of fine linen of woven work for Aaron, and for his sons *(the word "coats" in this Verse is an unfortunate translation; actually these were underclothes, which consisted of a long white linen tunic or shirt, having tight-fitting sleeves, and reaching nearly to the feet),

[28] And a Mitre of fine linen *(a turban worn by the High Priest), and goodly Bonnets of fine linen *(worn by all the other Priests), and linen Breeches of fine twined linen *(as always, the snow-white linen portrayed the Righteousness of Christ),

[29] And a Girdle of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, of needlework; as the LORD commanded Moses (the "Curious Girdle").

[30] And they made the Plate of the Holy Crown of pure gold *(the symbol of the essential Holiness of our Lord), and wrote upon it a writing, like to the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD (the assignment of a Crown to the High Priest gave him a great dignity, which marked him as a Type of our Lord in His Threefold Office of Prophet, Priest, and King).

[31] And they tied unto it a lace of blue, to fasten it on high upon the Mitre; as the LORD commanded Moses. (Pink says, "Because of our legal and vital union with Christ, His Holiness is ours." Pink goes on to say, "O Christian Reader, look away from yourself, with your ten thousand failures, and fix your eyes on that Golden Plate. Behold in the perfections of your Great High Priest the measure of your eternal acceptance with God. Christ is our Sanctification as well as our Righteousness!")

[32] Thus was all the work of the Tabernacle of the tent of the congregation finished: and the Children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did they. (The frequent repetition of the words, "as the Lord commanded Moses," should be noted. Nothing was left to man's ingenuity or taste.)

33 And they brought the Tabernacle unto Moses, the tent, and all his furniture, his taches, his boards, his bars, and his pillars, and his sockets,

34 And the covering of Rams' Skins dyed red, and the covering of Badgers' Skins, and the Veil of the covering,

35 The Ark of the Testimony, and the staves thereof, and the Mercy Seat,

36 The Table, and all the Vessels thereof, and the Shewbread,

37 The pure Candlestick (Lampstand), with the lamps thereof, even with the lamps to be set in order, and all the Vessels thereof, and the oil for light,

38 And the Golden Altar, and the anointing Oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the Tabernacle door,

39 The Brasen Altar, and his grate of brass, his staves, and all his Vessels, the Laver and his foot,

40 The hangings of the Court, his pillars, and his sockets, and the hanging for the Court gate, his cords, and his pins, and all the Vessels of the service of the Tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation, 41 The cloths of service to do service in the Holy Place, and the Holy Garments for Aaron the Priest, and his sons' garments, to minister in the Priest's office.

42 According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the Children of Israel made all the work.

43 And Moses did look upon all the work, and, behold, they had done it as the LORD had commanded, even so had they done it: and Moses blessed them. (In all of this, and as we have repeatedly stated, nothing is left to chance, no place allowed for scheming. All is God.

Those Israelites skilled in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, the greatest builders in the world of that day, were not allowed to build this structure. Instead, Moses was bidden to make all things after the pattern shown him in the Mount.

And, as well, after the "Pattern" had been completely set before Moses, the Lord makes known to him who were to be the principal workmen. The choice of them was His, not Moses'; and this means that their equipment for the work was Divine and not human.

All of this pertains to the fact that Salvation is all of the Lord, and not at all of human participation. In fact, the moment we seek to add to, or take from, God's Plan, the Plan is of no more use. The Plan of Redemption is of Heavenly Origin, and it must not be sullied by Earthly intervention.)

CHAPTER 40

(1491 B.C.)

THE TABERNACLE

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] On the first day of the first month shall you set up the Tabernacle of the tent of the congregation. (The setting up of the Tabernacle, with the Sacred Vessels placed in proper order so that the proper worship of the Lord may begin, was the single most important thing on Earth at that particular time. One year had passed since they had left Egypt.)

[3] And you shall put therein the Ark of the Testimony (Ark of the Covenant), and cover the Ark with the Veil (hang the "Veil" between the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies, with the Ark situated in the latter; the "Veil" thereby hid it from view).

[4] And you shall bring in the Table, and set in order the things that are to be set in order upon it (put the twelve loaves of bread on the Table); and you shall bring in the Candlestick (Lampstand), and light the lamps thereof (the Lampstand sat on the north side of the Tabernacle, with the Table of Shewbread situated on the south side).

[5] And you shall set the Altar of gold for the incense before the Ark of the Testimony, and put the hanging of the door to the Tabernacle (this was at the front of the Tabernacle, which led into the Holy Place).

[6] And you shall set the Altar of the Burnt Offering before the door of the Tabernacle of the tent of the congregation (this Brazen Altar was a Type of the Cross).

[7] And you shall set the Laver between the tent of the congregation and the Altar, and shall put water therein (the Priests, upon entering the Holy Place, which they did constantly, had to wash their hands and feet in this water each time they went in, signifying the cleansing by the Word, which is needed by all Believers, and constantly).

[8] And you shall set up the Court round about (the fence), and hang up the hanging at the court gate (the one entrance into the Court).

[9] And you shall take the anointing Oil (a Type of the Holy Spirit, which would anoint Christ [Lk. 4:18-19]), and anoint the Tabernacle (a Type of Christ), and all that is therein, and shall hallow it (consecrate it totally to the Lord), and all the Vessels thereof: and it shall be holy.

[10] And you shall anoint the Altar of the Burnt Offering, and all his Vessels, and sanctify the Altar: and it shall be an Altar most holy. (Christ sanctified the Altar, i.e., "the Cross," meaning that the Cross didn't sanctify Christ. This completely refutes the unscriptural doctrine that Jesus died spiritually on the Cross. That statement means that some believe and teach that Jesus became a sinner on the Cross, died and went to Hell, as all sinners do, and was Born-Again in Hell, etc. None of that happened! The Cross, and the Cross alone, was the place of victory, and total victory at that. When He said, "It is finished," the Scripture tells us that "the Veil of the Temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom" [Mat. 27:51]. This tells us that the Cross opened up the way for all of mankind, by exhibiting Faith in Christ, to enter the very Holy of Holies.)

[11] And you shall anoint the Laver and his foot, and sanctify it.

CONSECRATION

[12] And you shall bring Aaron and his sons unto the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water. (The "water" is typical of the Word of God [Eph. 5:26].)

[13] And you shall put upon Aaron the Holy Garments, and anoint him, and sanctify him; that he may minister unto Me in the Priest's office. (There is no more Priesthood in the New Covenant, because Christ has satisfied all the demands of Mediation, with Himself becoming the Mediator. It was all done through the Cross [I Tim. 2:5].)

14 And you shall bring his sons, and clothe them with coats:

15 And you shall anoint them, as you did anoint their father, that they may minister unto Me in the Priest's office: for their anointing shall surely be an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations (as long as the Old Covenant lasted, which it did unto Christ).

16 Thus did Moses: according to all that the LORD commanded him, so did he (he never deviated from the pattern, not whatsoever).

17 And it came to pass in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, that the Tabernacle was reared up. (The first day of the first month of the second year, in a sense, tells Israel that they now have a new beginning. They should be careful that they make the most of it.)

18 And Moses reared up the Tabernacle, and fastened his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up his pillars.

19 And he spread abroad the tent over the Tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it; as the LORD commanded Moses. (Today, these things are but a memory, having all been satisfied by what Christ did at the Cross, which made them unnecessary. But until Christ came, the Tabernacle and the Temple were necessary, for God sought to dwell among His People.)

20 And he took and put the Testimony (Ten Commandments, written on two stone tablets)into the Ark, and set the staves on the Ark, and put the Mercy Seat above upon the Ark:

21 And he brought the Ark into the Tabernacle (into the Holy of Holies), and set up the Veil of the covering (separating the Holy of Holies from the Holy Place), and covered the Ark of the Testimony; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 And he put the Table (Table of Shewbread) in the tent of the congregation, upon the side of the Tabernacle northward, without the Veil.

23 And he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD (twelve loaves); as the LORD had commanded Moses.

24 And he put the Candlestick (Lampstand) in the tent of the congregation, over against the Table, on the side of the Tabernacle southward.

25 And he lighted the lamps before the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses. (Moses lit the lamps "before the Lord," which referred to the fact that the Lord was minutely inspecting everything that was done.)

26 And he put the Golden Altar (Altar of Incense) in the tent of the congregation before the Veil (it was situated in the Holy Place, in fact, sitting immediately in front of the Ark of the Covenant, but separated by the "Veil"):

27 And he burnt sweet incense thereon; as the LORD commanded Moses (it was burned twice a day, at the time of the morning and evening Sacrifices — 9 a.m. and 3 p.m.).

28 And he set up the hanging at the door of the Tabernacle (the front door, covered by a curtain containing the same colors as the Veil immediately in front of the Holy of Holies).

29 And he put the Altar of Burnt Offering (a Type of the Cross) by the door of the Tabernacle of the tent of the congregation, and offered upon it the Burnt Offering and the Meat Offering; as the LORD commanded Moses. (The Tabernacle, having been made according to the Divine Pattern, even as we shall see, was filled with the Divine Glory, but not until precious blood had been shed by the Sacrifices on the Brazen Altar, and with all anointed with Holy Oil. Only in a Crucified and Anointed Saviour can God dwell with man.)

30 And he set the Laver between the tent of the congregation and the Altar, and put water there, to wash withal.

31 And Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet thereat:

32 When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near unto the Altar, they washed; as the LORD commanded Moses. (The "water" typified the Word, with the "washing" typifying its application. Without the Word being applied to our lives, it serves no purpose.)

33 And he reared up the Court round about the Tabernacle and the Altar (the fence), and set up the hanging of the Court gate (the entrance to the Court). So Moses finished the work (and exactly as the Lord had instructed him).

THE GLORY

34 Then a Cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the Glory of the LORD filled the Tabernacle. (The Glory that filled the Tabernacle fills our hearts and lives presently in the Person of the Holy Spirit.)

35 And Moses was not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the Cloud abode thereon, and the Glory of the LORD filled the Tabernacle. (The idea seems to be that Moses attempted to enter the Tabernacle, but the Glory of the Lord occupied the Tabernacle, at least at this time, in such a powerful way that the Law-Giver was unable to do so. There is even a possibility that it knocked him off his feet.)

36 And when the Cloud was taken up from over the Tabernacle, the Children of Israel went onward in all their journeys. (Israel did not determine or decide where they would go, or how long they would stay where they were. Not even Moses decided this. It was all decided by the moving of the Cloud. The great question is, "Where is the Cloud?")

37 But if the Cloud were not taken up, then they journeyed not till the day that it was taken up. (They didn't move until the Cloud moved.)

38 For the Cloud of the LORD was upon the Tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the House of Israel, throughout all their journeys. (So, the great Book of Exodus closes out with the "Glory of the Lord." It began with the People of God serving as slaves in Egypt. It ends with them free from Egyptian bondage and, furthermore, the Glory of the Lord residing in their midst.)

CHAPTER 1

(1490 B.C.)

LAW OF BURNT OFFERINGS

[1] And t he LORD called unto Moses, and spoke unto him out of the Tabernacle of the congregation, saying (the Holy Spirit has now taken up abode in the Tabernacle, actually in the Holy of Holies, where He dwelt between the Mercy Seat and the Cherubim [I Cor. 3:16]),

[2] Speak unto the Children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man of you bring an Offering unto the LORD, you shall bring your Offering of the cattle, even of the herd, and of the flock. (There is no mention of any woman bringing an Offering to the Lord, as it regards the Sacrifice of an animal. This was always done by a man. Why?

Even though Eve sinned first, it was Adam, the fountainhead of the human race, who dragged down mankind through the Fall. Whatever happened to him would pass on to the entirety of mankind. This is the reason that the "Last Adam" was necessary [I Cor. 15:45]. As well, the Sacrificial System had been instituted immediately after the Fall [Gen., Chpt. 4]. However, it didn't come into full bloom until the Law was given, as here noted.)

[3] If his offering be a Burnt Sacrifice of the herd (a whole Burnt Offering, typifying Christ giving His all), let him offer a male without blemish (symbolic of the perfection of Christ): he shall offer it of his own voluntary will (would probably be better translated, "he shall offer it for the Lord's acceptance"; if the Offering was accepted, so was the offerer; if the Offering was rejected, the offerer was rejected as well!) at the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD. (The man had sinned before the Lord, so the Sacrifice must be presented before the Lord.)

[4] And he shall put his hand upon the head of the Burnt Offering (in effect, transferring his sin and guilt to the innocent victim, all typifying Christ taking our sins upon Himself); and it shall be accepted for him to make Atonement for him (refers to the animal being accepted as a Substitute on behalf of the sinner; at the Cross, Christ became our Substitute, and our identification with Him guarantees us Atonement).

5 And he shall kill the bullock before the LORD (typifying the death of Christ on the Cross): and the Priests, Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood, and sprinkle the blood round about upon the Altar that is by the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation (the assisting Priest would catch in a basin the blood that poured from the slain animal's throat; he would then take the blood to the Brazen Altar, and throw it around the bottom of the Altar; in some respects, this was the most essential part of the ceremony, the blood representing the life [Lev. 17:11], which was symbolically received at the hands of the offerer, and presented by the Priests to God; in the antitype, our Lord exercised the function of the sacrificing Priest, when He presented His Own Life to the Father, as He hung upon the Altar of the Cross).

6 And he shall flay the Burnt Offering, and cut it into his pieces (this signified how terrible and how deep a thing that sin actually is; sin is not merely exterior; it is interior; it is a disease of the vitals, affecting every single part of the human being).

7 And the sons of Aaron the Priest shall put fire upon the Altar (typical of the Judgment of God, which Christ took upon Himself, all on our behalf), and lay the wood in order upon the fire (the "wood" was typical of the Cross):

8 And the Priests, Aaron's sons, shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that is on the fire which is upon the Altar (the parts, as designated here, signify that the Cross dealt with every aspect of the sinner and sin):

9 But his inwards and his legs shall he wash in water: and the Priest shall burn all on the Altar, to be a Burnt Sacrifice (a Whole Burnt Offering), an Offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD. (The "Burnt Offering," the "Meat Offering," and the "Peace Offering" are sacrifices of a "sweet savour." The expression is never used with regard to the "Sin Offering" and "Trespass Offering." The "washing" signified the purity of Christ.

We should have a very defective apprehension of the mystery of the Cross were we only to see in it that which meets man's need as a sinner. There were depths in that mystery which only the Mind of God could fathom. It is, therefore, important to see that when the Holy Spirit would furnish us with foreshadowings of the Cross, He gives us, in the very first place, one which sets it forth in its aspect Godward. This alone would be sufficient to teach us that there are heights and depths in the Doctrine of the Cross which man never could reach. There is in the Cross that which only God could know and appreciate. Hence, it is that the Burnt Offering gets the first place. It typifies Christ's death as viewed and valued by God Alone.)

10 And if his Offering be of the flocks, namely, of the sheep, or of the goats, for a Burnt Sacrifice; he shall bring it a male without blemish. (The ritual of the Burnt Offering was the same, whether the victim was a bullock, sheep, or goat.)

11 And he shall kill it on the side of the Altar northward before the LORD (Heaven is to the north [Ps. 48:2; Isa. 14:13]): and the Priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle his blood round about upon the Altar.

12 And he shall cut it into his pieces, with his head and his fat: and the Priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is upon the Altar:

13 But he shall wash the inwards and the legs with water: and the Priest shall bring it all, and burn it upon the Altar: it is a Burnt Sacrifice, an Offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD. (Even though the instructions are basically the same for the lamb as they had been for the bullock, they are meticulously given again. The significance lies in Who the Offering represented.)

14 And if the Burnt Sacrifice for his Offering to the LORD be of fowls, then he shall bring his Offering of turtledoves, or of young pigeons. (The fowls were for the poorest of the poor, stating the fact that the shedding of the blood of an innocent victim was absolutely necessary, and that was the case, whether rich or poor.)

15 And the Priest shall bring it unto the Altar, and wring off his head, and burn it on the Altar; and the blood thereof shall be wrung out at the side of the Altar (the Jews say that the sacrifice of birds was one of the most difficult services the Priests had to do; they would need to take as much care in offering this sacrifice as in any of the others)**:

16 And he shall pluck away his crop with his feathers, and cast it beside the Altar on the east part, by the place of the ashes (the "ashes" signified that all sin was atoned)**:

17 And he shall cleave it with the wings thereof, but shall not divide it asunder: and the Priest shall burn it upon the Altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire: it is a Burnt Sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD. (These little turtledoves, or young pigeons, were accepted by the Lord as much as that of an ox or bullock, or even a lamb.)

CHAPTER 2

(1490 B.C.)

LAW OF MEAT OFFERINGS

[1] And when any will offer a Meat Offering unto the LORD (presently, "meat" refers to flesh; however, in Bible times, it just simply referred to food; the Hebrew for "Meat Offering" is "Minchah," and means "a gift made by an inferior to a superior"; it actually was a "Gratitude or Thanksgiving Offering"; this is the only Sacrifice where blood was not shed; as the "Burnt Offering" typified Christ in "death," the "Meat Offering" typified Him in "life"), his offering shall be of fine flour (presents the Perfect Manhood of Christ, typified by the "fine flour"); and he shall pour oil upon it (typical of the Holy Spirit upon Christ), and put frankincense thereon (frankincense is "white," which speaks of the "purity of Christ"; as well, frankincense is bitter, which speaks of the bitterness that Christ had to undergo, not only in His Life and living, but, as well, in His Death on the Cross [Isa 53:3])**:

[2] And he shall bring it to Aaron's sons the Priests (so close was the union of the Burnt Offering and the Meat Offering, that the Burnt Offering was never offered without the accompaniment of the Meat Offering [Num. 15:4]): and he shall take thereout his handful of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof; and the Priest shall burn the memorial of it upon the Altar, to be an Offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD (the "memorial" pertained to the Israelite not failing to remember what the Lord had done for him; as well, it pertains to the fact that God will not forget His Promises [Ps. 20:4])**:

[3] And the remnant of the Meat Offering shall be Aaron's and his sons' (when the Meat Offering was brought to the Priests, and I speak of it being brought by Israelites who were offering up Sacrifices, only about a handful was burned on the Altar along with the Burnt Offering, with the Priests taking the remainder for themselves, for this is what was ordered by the Lord): it is a thing most holy of the Offerings of the LORD made by fire (they had to eat it within the precincts of the Tabernacle, as was the case with all food that was "most holy"; this included the "Shewbread" and the flesh of the "Sin Offering" and of the "Trespass Offering" [Lev. 10:12]).

4 And if you bring an oblation (a sacrificial present) of a Meat Offering baked in the oven (prepared before it was brought to the Tabernacle), it shall be unleavened cakes (a Type of the sinlessness of Christ) of fine flour (Perfect Life of Christ) mingled with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil (Type of the Holy Spirit on Christ).

5 And if your oblation be a Meat Offering baked in a pan, it shall be of fine flour unleavened, mingled with oil.

6 You shall part it in pieces, and pour oil thereon: it is a Meat Offering. (The Reader lacking in spirituality may grow weary at the tedious instructions given, wondering why all of this was necessary. All of this represents Christ and the Perfect Life that He lived, which alone could serve as a Perfect Sacrifice; consequently, we should understand that anything that portrays Christ is of the utmost significance.)

7 And if your oblation be a Meat Offering baked in the fryingpan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.

8 And you shall bring the Meat Offering that is made of these things unto the LORD: and when it is presented unto the Priest, he shall bring it unto the Altar (the "Altar" always represents the Cross; as this "Offering" was prepared for the Altar, likewise, Christ was prepared for the Altar).

9 And the Priest shall take from the Meat Offering a memorial thereof, and shall burn it upon the Altar: it is an Offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD (it was a "sweet savour," simply because it represented the Perfection of Christ).

10 And that which is left of the Meat Offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is a thing most holy of the Offerings of the LORD made by fire.

11 No Meat Offering, which you shall bring unto the LORD, shall be made with leaven: for you shall burn no leaven, nor any honey, in any Offering of the LORD made by fire. (Leaven represents decay and corruption, which, of course, was, and is, the opposite of Christ, Who had no sin. So, the more we understand about these instructions given, the more we understand Christ. "Honey," as well, causes fermentation, so it could not be used. There was neither error nor corruption in Jesus.)

12 As for the oblation of the firstfruits, you shall offer them unto the LORD: but they shall not be burnt on the Altar for a sweet savour (the Altar represents the Crucifixion of Christ, and the price that He would pay there; consequently, this is a price that we couldn't pay, so our goodness, etc., is not to be added to the Finished Work of Christ).

13 And every oblation of your Meat Offering shall you season with salt (salt is a preservative and, therefore, serves as a Type in the Old Testament of the Word of God); neither shall you suffer the salt of the Covenant of your God to be lacking from your Meat Offering: with all your Offerings you shall offer salt. (It is called "the salt of the Covenant," referring to the enduring character of the Covenant. God Himself has so ordained it in all things, which means that nothing can alter it and no influence can ever corrupt it, because it is the unalterable, unchangeable, indescribable, eternal Word of Almighty God.

The "salt" proclaims, "Thus says the Lord" and, as such, runs at cross purposes with men's desires. Every true Preacher of the Gospel will have his Message "seasoned with salt" [Mat. 5:13; Col. 4:6].)

14 And if you offer a Meat Offering of your firstfruits unto the LORD, you shall offer for the Meat Offering of your firstfruits green ears of corn (grain) dried by the fire, even corn (grain) beaten out of full ears. (The Meat Offering was not a Sin Offering, but rather a "sweet savour" Offering. Thus, its meaning is definitely fixed; and, moreover, the intelligent interpretation of it must ever guard, with holy jealousy, the precious truth of Christ's spotless Humanity, and the true nature of His associations, which the Meat Offering represents.)

15 And you shall put oil upon it, and lay frankincense thereon: it is a Meat Offering.

16 And the Priest shall burn the memorial of it, part of the beaten corn (grain) thereof, and part of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof: it is an Offering made by fire unto the LORD. (Inasmuch as part of the Meat Offering was burned in the fire, and part eaten by the Priests, we should understand that this symbolized Christ in His Perfect Life, but yet a life that would be given on the Cross, hence the burning of the Meat Offering on the Altar. This signifies, as well, that Christ came to this world but for one purpose, and that was to go to the Cross. His Life was Perfect, His Demeanor Perfect, His Way Perfect, His Manner Perfect, all for the purpose of being a Perfect Sacrifice.)

CHAPTER 3

PEACE OFFERINGS

[1] And if his oblation (a sacrificial present or gift) be a Sacrifice of Peace Offering, if he offer it of the herd; whether it be a male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD. (The Burnt Offering pictured Christ dying; the Meat Offering, Christ living. The Peace Offering presents Him as making peace by the Blood of His Cross, and so establishing for man communion with God. In both the "Peace Offering" and the "Trespass Offering," we learn of the presence of the Sin Nature in the heart and life of the Believer. But we find out, even more fully in the Peace Offering, that even though the Sin Nature dwells in us, it is not to rule in us [Rom. 6:12].)

[2] And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his Offering (this portrays the beautiful doctrine of Substitution and Identification; the animal became the substitute in the sinner's place, and by the laying of his hand or hands on the head of his Offering, he identified with that substitute; that, in effect, is the heart of the Gospel; Christ became our Substitute, and we identify with Him in all He did, but, more particularly, what He did for us at the Cross), and kill it at the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation (the person who brought the Sacrifice had to personally kill it): and Aaron's sons the Priests shall sprinkle the blood upon the Altar round about. (The sinner trusted in what the Sacrifice represented, and its blood was sprinkled on the Altar round about; for fellowship is encircled by Atonement, and only exists within it. Thus, God and the worshipper were brought into fellowship. Peace was established. Its eternal and unshakeable foundation was not the worthfulness of the worshipper, but the preciousness of the sprinkled blood.)

[3] And he shall offer of the Sacrifice of the Peace Offering an Offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat that covers the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards (the "fat" and the "blood" symbolized the priceless life and the precious inward affections of the Lamb of God),

[4] And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

[5] And Aaron's sons shall burn it on the Altar upon the Burnt Sacrifice, which is upon the wood that is on the fire: it is an Offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

[6] And if his Offering for a Sacrifice of Peace Offering unto the LORD be of the flock; male or female, he shall offer it without blemish (the "male or female" of the animals being allowed stipulates that all, both man and woman, can have fellowship and peace with God).

[7] If he offer a lamb for his Offering, then shall he offer it before the LORD (whether the poor man's lamb or goat were offered, or the rich man's heifer, all were precious in God's sight, and received the same ceremony).

[8] And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his Offering, and kill it before the Tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sons shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about upon the Altar.

[9] And he shall offer of the Sacrifice of the Peace Offering an Offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat thereof, and the whole rump, it shall he take off hard by the backbone; and the fat that covers the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards (the fire does not represent Hell, as some teach; it represents the Judgment of God poured out upon Christ instead of us, and speaks of the death that Christ would die; His Death totally and completely finished the work of Redemption [Lk. 23:46; Jn. 19:30; Mat. 27:50-51]),

[10] And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

11 And the Priest shall burn it upon the Altar: it is the food of the Offering made by fire unto the LORD (all of this specifies that God gave His Best, as it regards the giving of His Only Son).

12 And if his Offering be a goat, then he shall offer it before the LORD.

13 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of it, and kill it before the Tabernacle of the congregation: and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood thereof upon the Altar round about.

14 And he shall offer thereof his Offering, even an Offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat that covers the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

15 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

16 And the Priest shall burn them upon the Altar: it is the food of the Offering made by fire for a sweet savour: all the fat is the LORD's.

17 It shall be a perpetual Statute for your generations throughout all your dwellings, that you eat neither fat nor blood. (As the "fat" represented the prosperity of Christ given to us, likewise, the "blood" represented His Life freely given for us. The Peace Offering represented the blessedness and joyousness of communion between God and man. Like the Passover, the Peace Offering at once commemorated a historical event, and prefigured a blessing to come. The Passover, for instance, always looked backwards to the deliverance from Egypt, but yet forward to "Christ our Passover sacrificed for us" [I Cor. 5:7]. In like manner, the Peace Offering commemorated the making of the Covenant, and prefigured the blessed state of communion to be brought about by the Sacrifice of the Cross.)

CHAPTER 4

(1490 B.C.)

SIN OFFERINGS

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Speak unto the Children of Israel, saying, If a soul shall sin through ignorance against any of the Commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them (Chapter 4 represents the "Sin Offering"; Christ became a Sin Offering on the Cross [Isa. 53:10]; the words in this Verse, "through ignorance," signified that a person, irrespective of his knowledge of the Word of God, cannot really know what sin actually is; this is humbling and comforting; it reveals that the efficacy of Christ's Atonement for sin is not to be measured by man's consciousness of sin, but by God's measurement of it; to believe this fact fills the heart with a Divine peace)**:

[3] If the Priest that is anointed do sin according to the sin of the people; then let him bring for his sin, which he has sinned, a young bullock without blemish unto the LORD for a Sin Offering. (In the "Burnt Offering," the sinlessness of the victim was transferred to the worshipper. In the "Sin Offering," the sinfulness of the sinner was transferred to the victim.)

[4] And he shall bring the bullock unto the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD; and shall lay his hand upon the bullock's head, and kill the bullock before the LORD. (The "sin of ignorance" is committed constantly at the present time, by both Preacher and people. Not understanding the Cross, millions make other things the object of their faith, which, in effect, puts them in the position of committing the sin of "spiritual adultery" [Rom. 7:1-4]. Even though this sin, at least most of the time, is committed in ignorance, it is still sin before

God, and gross sin at that!)

5 And the Priest that is anointed shall take of the bullock's blood, and bring it to the Tabernacle of the congregation:

6 And the Priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seven times before the LORD, before the Veil of the Sanctuary (this blood was sprinkled on the Altar of Incense; it was sprinkled "seven times," denoting a complete and full cleansing afforded by Christ; "seven" is God's number of completion and perfection).

7 And the Priest shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the Altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the Tabernacle of the congregation (the blood applied to the four horns of the Altar of Incense speaks to the fact that even though forgiveness for Believers is available at all times, which the golden Altar of Incense represents, the horns, which speak of dominion, testify to us that we in fact should have dominion over all sin; but it also testifies to the fact that such dominion cannot come about except by the Cross of Christ and our Faith in that Finished Work, typified by the "blood" applied to the "horns" [Rom. 6:3-14]); and shall pour all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the Altar of the Burnt Offering, which is at the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation. (The effectiveness of the blood applied to the horns of the Altar of Incense is all based upon the fact that a Whole Burnt Offering has been originally offered on the Brazen Altar, which means that everything is predicated on that.

In the Redemption of the transgressor, the Priest did everything; the man, nothing. He stood, he looked, he listened, he believed! Like action today in relation to Christ on the Cross ensures conscious Salvation.)

8 And he shall take off from it all the fat of the bullock for the Sin Offering; the fat that covers the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

9 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away,

[10] As it was taken off from the bullock of the Sacrifice of Peace Offerings: and the Priest shall burn them upon the Altar of the Burnt Offering.

[12] Even the whole bullock shall he carry forth without the camp unto a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn him on the wood with fire: where the ashes are poured out shall he be burnt. (The carcass of the slain animal was not to be burned upon the Brazen Altar, at least as it regards the Sin Offering, but rather taken to a place "without the camp," and burned there. Why?

This means that when the Christian sins, as bad as it is, the Christian doesn't have to get saved all over again. In the "Sin Offering," we see the means and the manner by which relationship is restored. "Ashes" signify that what was there has been consumed, typifying our sin being consumed by Christ in His Sacrificial, Atoning Work. Properly confessed, there is nothing left of those sins.)

LAWS

[13] And if the whole congregation of Israel sin through ignorance, and the thing be hid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done somewhat against any of the Commandments of the LORD concerning things which should not be done, and are guilty (as we have stated, "sins of ignorance" are not confined only to Old Testament times; in fact, more Believers presently are committing such sins than ever before in history; if the Believer doesn't understand the Cross as it regards our Sanctification [Rom., Chpt. 6], such a Believer will attempt to live this life by means of the flesh; God labels such as "spiritual adultery" [Rom. 7:1-4]; such constitutes trust placed in anything other than Christ and the Cross, and is sin [Rom. 8:8])**;

14 When the sin, which they have sinned against it, is known, then the congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sin, and bring him before the Tabernacle of the congregation (this Passage proclaims the fact that the only solution for sin of any nature is the Cross; then and now the Believer is directed to the Cross).

15 And the Elders of the congregation shall lay their hands upon the head of the bullock before the LORD (transferring the guilt to the innocent victim, typifying Christ on the Cross suffering for our sins): and the bullock shall be killed before the LORD (signifying Christ Who died for our sins).

16 And the Priest Who is anointed shall bring of the bullock's blood to the Tabernacle of the congregation (the Blood of Jesus Christ alone cleanses from all sin, of which this is a Type [I Jn. 1:7])**:

17 And the Priest shall dip his finger in some of the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, even before the Veil (sprinkle it on the Altar of Incense; "seven times" signifies the Perfect Redemption afforded by Christ).

18 And he shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the Altar which is before the LORD, that is in the Tabernacle of the congregation (these four horns on the Altar of Incense signified the dominion that the Believer is to have over all sin [Rom. 6:14]; the blood being applied to all four of the horns tells us that the Believer can have total and complete victory within his life; if the Believer properly places his faith exclusively in Christ and the Cross, understanding that all that he receives from the Lord comes to him directly through the Cross, this will give the Holy Spirit latitude to work in one's life, thereby bringing about victory over the world, the flesh, and the Devil; in fact, this is God's Prescribed Order, and His only prescribed order; anything else will bring defeat [Gal. 5:4-5]), and shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the Altar of the Burnt Offering (the Brazen Altar), which is at the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation (forgiveness and victory are all made possible by the Cross, and the Cross alone, typified by the Brazen Altar, and the blood being poured out at its base).

19 And he shall take all his fat from him, and burn it upon the Altar (the "fat" typifies Blessing and prosperity, which can only come through Christ, and what He has done for us at the Cross)**.

20 And he shall do with the bullock as he did with the bullock for a Sin Offering, so shall he do with this: and the Priest shall make an Atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them (God, being just, passes over sin until it is made known by the conscience, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; then He holds Believers responsible and will judge and severely chastise them, if the sin is allowed to continue [Jn. 16:7-11; Rom. 2:12-16])**.

21 And he shall carry forth the bullock without the camp, and burn him as he burned the first bullock: it is a Sin Offering for the congregation. (While the "fat" was to be burned on the Altar, with the blood poured out at its base, the carcass of the animal, constituting the "Sin Offering," must be taken outside the camp and burned. The blood signifies that the sin is atoned, and the carcass being burned outside the camp signifies that all sin is now gone.)

22 When a ruler has sinned, and done somewhat through ignorance against any of the Commandments of the LORD his God concerning things which should not be done, and is guilty;

23 Or if his sin, wherein he has sinned, come to his knowledge; he shall bring his Offering, a kid of the goats, a male without blemish (if it is to be noticed, even though the ritual varied a little bit according to who it was that sinned, in effect, the remedy was the same, the shed blood of the innocent victim, typifying Christ)**:

24 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the goat, and kill it in the place where they kill the Burnt Offering before the LORD: it is a Sin Offering. (As with all, even if it is a Priest or a ruler, the guilt of sin must be transferred to the innocent victim, and is done so by the laying on of hands on the head of the victim, all typifying Christ. As stated, in the Whole Burnt Offering, the perfection of the victim is passed to the sinner. In the Sin Offering, the sin of the individual is passed to the innocent victim, all typifying Christ [Heb. 7:27].)

25 And the Priest shall take of the blood of the Sin Offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the Altar of Burnt Offering, and shall pour out his blood at the bottom of the Altar of Burnt Offering (the blood being applied to the four horns at the four corners of the Brazen Altar typify that Christ and Him Crucified is the only answer for the sin of humanity, and that refers to all of humanity [Jn. 3:16]).

26 And he shall burn all his fat upon the Altar, as the fat of the sacrifice of Peace Offerings: and the Priest shall make an Atonement for him as concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

27 And if any one of the common people sin through ignorance, while he does somewhat against any of the Commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and be guilty;

28 Or if his sin, which he has sinned, come to his knowledge: then he shall bring his Offering, a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he has sinned. (As is obvious here, in the eyes of God, sin is sin, irrespective as to who commits it. It must be addressed and, in essence, addressed the same way, even if it's a "common person," or a "ruler," or a "Priest," or even the entirety of the nation of Israel. The only answer is the Cross.)

29 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the Sin Offering, and slay the Sin Offering in the place of the Burnt Offering (Jesus became a Sin Offering on the Cross [Isa. 53:10]).

30 And the Priest shall take of the blood thereof with his finger and put it upon the horns of the Altar of Burnt Offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the Altar. (If it is to be noticed, the solution for all, with some minor variations, is the same. So, why the constant repetition? It is that we might know the seriousness of the matter, as it regards the horror of sin, and its only solution, which is the shed Blood of Jesus Christ [Eph. 2:13-18].)

31 And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat is taken away from off the Sacrifice of Peace Offerings; and the Priest shall burn it upon the Altar for a sweet savour unto the LORD; and the Priest shall make an Atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him. (Under the Old Covenant, how could a person know for sure that he was forgiven? First of all, he had to place his faith in the trustworthiness of the Word spoken to him. Second, he had to understand the value of the Blood shed for him, at least in a sense, knowing that it pointed to One Who was to come.)

32 And if he bring a lamb for a Sin Offering, he shall bring it a female without blemish. (In this case, a female lamb was required, in effect stating that it was through Eve that the first temptation came, and that it would be through a woman that Redemption would come [Isa. 7:14].)

33 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the Sin Offering, and slay it for a Sin Offering in the place where they kill the Burnt Offering.

34 And the Priest shall take of the blood of the Sin Offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the Altar of Burnt Offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the Altar:

35 And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the Sacrifice of the Peace Offerings; and the Priest shall burn them upon the Altar, according to the Offerings made by fire unto the LORD: and the Priest shall make an Atonement for his sin that he has committed, and it shall be forgiven him. (In order to obtain forgiveness for his sin, the man said nothing, and did nothing, except to lay his hand upon the head of the spotless substitute, thus transferring his guilt and its doom to the substitute. The Law claimed the man's life as the just penalty for his sin. The sin being transferred, the Law then claimed the life of the substitute; and directly that life was surrendered, the full claim of the Law was satisfied and the man thereby saved, all typifying Christ.)

CHAPTER 5

(1490 B.C.)

THE TRESPASS OFFERING

[1] And if a soul sin, and hear the voice of swearing, and is a witness, whether he has seen or known of it; if he do not utter it, then he shall bear his iniquity (the Trespass Offering was provided to atone for trespass against God, and trespass against man; in trespass against God, Sacrifice came first and restitution afterwards; in trespass against man, this order was reversed).

[2] Or if a soul touch any unclean thing, whether it be a carcase of an unclean beast, or a carcase of unclean cattle, or the carcase of unclean creeping things, and if it be hidden from him; he also shall be unclean, and guilty (the carcass insinuates death; death is caused by original sin; so, if a dead animal or dead human being was touched, the person doing so was rendered unclean, and had to go through a particular ceremony to once again be clean; these are constant reminders in the old Law of sin and its effect).

[3] Or if he touch the uncleanness of man, whatsoever uncleanness it be that a man shall be defiled withal, and it be hid from him; when he knows of it, then he shall be guilty (pertains to touching a leper or a dead body).

[4] Or if a soul swear, pronouncing with his lips to do evil, or to do good, whatsoever it be that a man shall pronounce with an oath, and it be hid from him; when he knows of it, then he shall be guilty in one of these (we should learn from all this that there are no little sins in the eyes of God; there is not a Christian on Earth, however eminent, who does not, every day he lives, accumulate guilt enough to ruin him forever, were it not that he has "An Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous" [I Jn. 2:1-2]).

[5] And it shall be, when he shall be guilty in one of these things, that he shall confess that he has sinned in that thing *(Seiss says: "With all his efforts, prayers, joys, and consecration, the best Christian is still very faulty." He goes on to say: "Christ has taught us to pray daily, 'Forgive us our trespasses'; but why continue praying for forgiveness, if we have not continual trespasses to be forgiven? I know and preach that 'the Blood of Jesus Christ cleanses from all sin.' That is a precious Truth to me. But did He not continue a Priest forever, daily presenting His Atoning Blood anew on our behalf, we should most certainly come into condemnation. It is only because 'He continues ever,' that He is 'able to save them to the uttermost who come unto God by Him, seeing He ever lives to make intercession for them.' If He did not ever live to make intercession for us, we could not stand for a single day" [Heb. 7:25]):

[6] And he shall bring his Trespass Offering unto the LORD for his sin which he has sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb or a kid of the goats, for a Sin Offering; and the Priest shall make an Atonement for him concerning his sin (once again, the only answer for sin is the Cross).

[7] And if he be not able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring for his trespass, which he has committed, two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, unto the LORD; one for a Sin Offering, and the other for a Burnt Offering (as is obvious here, provision was made for the poorest of the poor; "turtledoves" and "pigeons" were very inexpensive; and yet, if sin was committed, sacrifice had to be offered, irrespective as to who the person might be; the first pigeon or turtledove was a "Sin Offering," which required the shedding of blood, and the second was a "Burnt Offering," symbolizing satisfaction to God by perfect obedience to Him in making Atonement; both symbolized the Perfect Obedience of Christ as man's Substitute).

[8] And he shall bring them unto the Priest, who shall offer that which is for the Sin Offering first, and wring off his head from his neck, but shall not divide it asunder (if it was divided, considering the smallness of the turtledove or pigeon, blood might be spilled, and there would not be enough to apply to the Altar; this tells us of the effectiveness and necessity of the Blood):

9 And he shall sprinkle of the blood of the Sin Offering upon the side of the Altar; and the rest of the blood shall be wrung out at the bottom of the Altar: it is a Sin Offering. (As the Christian advances in this Divine life, he becomes conscious that those sins that he has committed are but branches from a root, streams from a fountain; and, moreover, that sin in his nature is that fountain — that root. This leads to a far deeper exercise which can only be met by a deeper insight into the Work of the Cross. In a word, the Cross will need to be apprehended as that in which God Himself has "condemned sin in the flesh" [Rom. 8:3].)

10 And he shall offer the second (second Offering) for a Burnt Offering, according to the manner: and the Priest shall make an Atonement for him for his sin which he has sinned, and it shall be forgiven him. (In the "Burnt Offering," we are conducted to a point beyond which it is impossible to go, and that is the Work of the Cross, as accomplished under the immediate Eye of God, and as the expression of the unswerving devotion of the heart to Christ. In all cases, we begin with the Cross, and end with the Cross.)

11 But if he be not able to bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, then he who sinned shall bring for his Offering the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour (about two double handfuls) for a Sin Offering; he shall put no oil upon it (this is for the poorest of the poor; but yet sin has to be dealt with; no "oil" could be applied to this Offering, simply because there was no shedding of blood; the Holy Spirit, of which the oil was a Type, works only within the parameters of the Finished Work of Christ; this means if the Cross is not preached, the Holy Spirit will not work), neither shall he put any frankincense thereon: for it is a Sin Offering (frankincense was not to be added either, because it represented the bitter Life of Christ, which would be given on the Cross in Sacrifice; while the "fine flour" represented that Perfect Life, due to the fact that no blood was shed, it could not represent the Cross).

12 Then shall he bring it to the Priest, and the Priest shall take his handful of it, even a memorial thereof, and burn it on the Altar, according to the Offerings made by fire unto the LORD: it is a Sin Offering. (Let it be understood, the non-bloody substitute, namely the flour, being permitted was only an exception for the benefit of the very poor, and only in the cases specified, which does not invalidate the general rule that without the shedding of blood there is no remission of sin; the "flour" was burned on the Altar, and the Altar typified the Cross, which, in this case, sufficed.)

13 And the Priest shall make an Atonement for him as touching his sin that he has sinned in one of these, and it shall be forgiven him: and the remnant shall be the Priest's, as a Meat Offering (about a handful of flour was given to the Priest, with him using it as a "Meat Offering"; the "Meat Offering" was not an offering for sin; it was a Thank Offering, in that sin had now been atoned).

14 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

15 If a soul commit a trespass, and sin through ignorance, in the holy things of the LORD (anything pertaining to the Work or the Word of God is considered "holy"; to be sure, it is very easy to sin in these matters; the "flesh" so often intrudes [Rom. 8:8]); then he shall bring for his trespass unto the LORD a ram without blemish out of the flocks, with your estimation by shekels of silver, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, for a Trespass Offering (whatever was the worth of the ram, a fifth part of that value was also to be given to the Priest in shekels of silver; the silver represented Redemption).

16 And he shall make amends for the harm that he has done in the holy thing, and shall add the fifth part thereto, and give it unto the Priest: and the Priest shall make an Atonement for him with the ram of the Trespass Offering, and it shall be forgiven him. (We find in the Trespass Offering, by the fifth part being added, that through the Cross, God has not merely received back what was lost, but has actually become a gainer. He has gained more by Redemption than ever He lost by the Fall. He reaps a richer harvest of glory, honor, and praise from the Cross of Redemption than ever

He could have reaped from that of Creation.

As it regards the Believer, Faith evidenced in the Cross will give back all that was lost, and more besides [Mk. 9:23]. Concerning this, Mackintosh says: "Who could have conceived this? When we behold man, and the creation of which he was lord, laid in ruins at the feet of the enemy, how could we conceive that, from amid those ruins, God should gather richer and nobler spoils than any which our unfallen world could have yielded? Blessed be the Name of Jesus in all of this! It is to Him we owe it all. It is by His precious Cross that ever a truth so amazing, so Divine, could be enunciated. Assuredly, the Cross involved a mysterious wisdom 'which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory'" [I Cor. 2:8].)

[17] And if a soul sin, and commit any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the Commandments of the LORD; though he wist it not, yet is he guilty, and shall bear his iniquity. (Sins committed in ignorance will have the same negative results as sins committed knowingly. Presently, to the greater extent, this refers to Believers who do not understand the Cross as it refers to Sanctification, and, thereby, attempt to live for God in all the wrong ways. This constitutes sin, because "whatsoever is not of faith [Faith in Christ and the Cross] is sin" [Rom. 14:23]. This is very confusing to the Believer, especially if he is sincere before the Lord; however, the Lord cannot overlook sin in any fashion. And tragically, the great sin of the modern Church is its ignorance of the Cross, whether knowing or otherwise. The results are catastrophic.)

[18] And he shall bring a ram without blemish out of the flock, with your estimation, for a Trespass Offering, unto the Priest: and the Priest shall make an Atonement for him concerning his ignorance wherein he erred and wist it not, and it shall be forgiven him.

[19] It is a Trespass Offering: he has certainly trespassed against the LORD. (The expressions, "through ignorance" and "wist it not," or "knew it not," dispose of the popular fallacy that sincerity secures Salvation.)

CHAPTER 6

(1490 B.C.)

RESTITUTION

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] If a soul sin, and commit a trespass against the LORD, and lie unto his neighbour in that which was delivered him to keep, or in fellowship, or in a thing taken away by violence, or has deceived his neighbour;

[3] Or have found that which was lost, and lies concerning it, and swears falsely; in any of all these that a man does, sinning therein:

[4] Then it shall be, because he has sinned, and is guilty, that he shall restore that which he took violently away, or the thing which he has deceitfully gotten, or that which was delivered him to keep, or the lost thing which he found, (Concerning this, Mackintosh says: "There is a fine principle involved in the expression in Verse 2, 'against the Lord.' Although the matter in question was a wrong done to one's neighbor, yet the Lord looked upon it as a trespass against Himself. Everything must be viewed in reference to the Lord. It matters not who may be affected; Jehovah must get first place. Thus, when David's conscience was pierced by the arrow of conviction, in reference to his treatment of Uriah, he exclaims, 'I have sinned against the Lord' [II Sam. 12:13]. This principle does not in the least, however, interfere with the injured man's claim.")

[5] Or all that about which he has sworn falsely; he shall even restore it in the principal (restore its full value), and shall add the fifth part more thereto, and give it unto him to whom it appertains, in the day of his Trespass Offering.

6 And he shall bring his Trespass Offering unto the LORD, a ram without blemish out of the flock, with your estimation, for a Trespass Offering, unto the Priest (not only must the guilty party restore what he has taken from his neighbor, and do so fully, with even adding twenty percent; as well, he must take a ram to the Priest to be offered in Sacrifice, and also it seems that twenty percent in silver must be added; the idea of all of this is to show that sin is a costly business!)**:

7 And the Priest shall make an Atonement for him before the LORD: and it shall be forgiven him for any thing of all that he has done in trespassing therein. (So, when a person has trespassed against his neighbor, restitution must be made first before the sacrifice can be offered. Jesus addressed this very thing, when He said, "Therefore if you bring your gift to the Altar, and there remember that your brother has ought against you; leave there your gift before the Altar, and go your way; first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift" [Mat. 5:23-24].)

THE BURNT OFFERING

8 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

9 Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the Law of the Burnt Offering: It is the Burnt Offering, because of the burning upon the Altar all night unto the morning, and the fire of the Altar shall be burning in it. (Beginning with Verse 8 through the Seventh Chapter, we have the "Law of the Burnt Offering," the "Meat Offering," the "Sin Offering," the "Trespass Offering," and the "Peace Offering." We also have the Law of the High Priest's "Consecration Offering.")

10 And the Priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen breeches shall he put upon his flesh (the "linen" symbolized the Righteousness of Christ [Rev. 19:8]), and take up the ashes which the fire has consumed with the Burnt Offering on the Altar, and he shall put them beside the Altar (this points to the fact that the Cross has reduced our sins to nothing, typified by the ashes)**.

11 And he shall put off his garments, and put on other garments (garments of glory and beauty), and carry forth the ashes without the camp unto a clean place. (Only the Blood of Christ can make the sinner "clean." As well, as the Burnt Offering was to burn all night, this represents the night of mystery of the fragrance of Christ's offering up of Himself to God, which ascends continually. "In the morning" He will appear to His people Israel in His double glory as the White-robed Priest and the Glory-crowned Mediator; and it will then be demonstrated to the world, as foreshadowed here by the honourable treatment of the ashes, that His Person and His Work have been accepted of God.)

12 And the fire upon the Altar shall be burning in it; it shall not be put out: and the Priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the Burnt Offering in order upon it; and he shall burn thereon the fat of the Peace Offerings. (The fire that burned, and was to never go out, testified on the one hand to the unceasing delight of God in the Sacrifice of Christ and, on the other hand, to His unceasing hatred of sin. False teachers today put this fire out by denying the doctrines of the Atonement and of the wrath to come. The "fire" addresses both, "Atonement" and "wrath.")

13 The fire shall ever be burning upon the Altar; it shall never go out (the fire that consumed the Burnt Offering, and was to never go out, originally came from Heaven [9:24]).

MEAT OFFERING

14 And this is the Law of the Meat Offering: the sons of Aaron shall offer it before the LORD; before the Altar. (As we shall see, the Meat Offering, as the other Offerings, was first for God and His glory, and then for man and his need. It being offered before the Altar signifies that God can only receive our thanksgiving which is based upon the Cross, for the Meat Offering was, in essence, a "Thank Offering.")

15 And he shall take of it his handful, of the flour of the Meat Offering (the "flour" typified the Perfection of Christ), and of the oil thereof (typifying the Holy Spirit upon Christ), and all the frankincense which is upon the Meat Offering (typifying the bitterness that Christ would suffer, all on our behalf), and shall burn it upon the Altar (typifying the Cross) for a sweet savour (sweet to God, because it represented our Redemption, and our thankfulness for that Redemption), even the memorial of it, unto the LORD. (As the "Meat Offering" was to ever be a memorial of what God would do to redeem humanity, likewise, the Lord's Supper serves the same purpose [I Cor. 11:24-25]. As the "Meat Offering" was then to be a memorial of what He would do, now it is a memorial of what He has done.)

16 And the remainder thereof shall Aaron and his sons eat (symbolic of what Christ said concerning His Flesh and His Blood, symbolic of the Cross [Jn. 6:53-54, 63]): with unleavened bread shall it be eaten in the Holy Place (the unleavened bread typifies the Perfection of Christ); in the court of the Tabernacle of the congregation they shall eat it (proclaiming the fact that it must be eaten near the "Altar," i.e., the "Cross").

17 It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it unto them for their portion of My Offerings made by fire; it is most holy, as is the Sin Offering, and as the Trespass Offering (as the Sin Offering and the Trespass Offering, so was the "Meat Offering" "most Holy"; thus, the Holy Spirit testifies to the sinlessness of Christ as a man, and at the moment in which He was "made to be a Sin Offering" upon the Cross).

18 All the males among the Children of Aaron shall eat of it (pertained only to the Priests; today, due to the Cross, every Believer can partake of Christ, because all Believers are "kings and priests unto God" [Rev. 1:6]). It shall be a Statute forever in your generations concerning the Offerings of the LORD made by fire: everyone who touches them shall be holy (because it represents Christ, Who is altogether Holy).

THE PRIESTS

19 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

20 This is the Offering of Aaron and of his sons, which they shall offer unto the LORD in the day when he is anointed (which would take place very shortly — Chapter 8); the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a Meat Offering perpetual, half of it in the morning, and half thereof at night (this proclaims the special relationship of the High Priest to the Meat Offering; his Meat Offering was to be offered morning and evening; it was to be wholly burnt, not eaten [Heb. 7:27]; Aaron, though High Priest, was a sinner, and twice every day had to shelter himself, in type, behind a sinless Saviour).

[21] In a pan it shall be made with oil (typical of the Holy Spirit upon Christ); and when it is baked, you shall bring it in: and the baked pieces of the Meat Offering shall you offer for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

[22] And the Priest of his sons that is anointed in his stead shall offer it: it is a Statute for ever unto the LORD; it shall be wholly burnt.

[23] For every Meat Offering for the Priest shall be wholly burnt: it shall not be eaten (part of it, in fact, was to be eaten [Vss. 16-18], but this particular part was not to be eaten, but rather burned on the Altar; this signified that one cannot partake of Christ, unless he does so through and by the Cross).

SIN OFFERING

[24] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[25] Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the Law of the Sin Offering (the Personal Holiness of Christ is more strikingly presented in the Sin Offering, than in any of the other Sacrifices): In the place where the Burnt Offering is killed shall the Sin Offering be killed before the LORD: it is most holy. (Concerning this, Mackintosh says: "This is most marked and striking. The Holy Spirit did not need to guard with such jealousy the Personal Holiness of Christ in the Burnt Offering; but lest the soul should, by any means, lose sight of that Holiness while contemplating the place which the Blessed One became the Sin Offering, we are again and again reminded of it by the words 'it is most holy.'

"The same point is observable 'in the Law of the Trespass Offering' [Lev. 7:1-6]. Never was the Lord Jesus more fully seen to be 'the Holy One of God' than when He was 'made sin' upon the cursed tree. The vileness and blackness of that with which He stood identified on the Cross only served to show out more clearly that He was 'most holy.' Though a sin-bearer, He was sinless; though enduring the Wrath of God, He was the Father's delight; though deprived of the Light of God's countenance, He dwelt in the Father's bosom." As should be obvious, this completely destroys the erroneous doctrine that Jesus died spiritually while on the Cross, thus becoming a sinner, etc.)

[26] The Priest who offers it for sin shall eat it: in the Holy Place shall it be eaten, in the court of the Tabernacle of the congregation. (God gave the Sin Offering as food for the Priests to bear the iniquity of the congregation, and to make Atonement for them [Lev. 10:17]. Once again, we go back to John, Chapter 6, in the eating of the flesh and the drinking of the blood regarding Christ.

The flesh provided by the Sin Offering constituted a part of the livelihood of the Priests, as it constitutes our spiritual livelihood presently [Ezek. 44:28-29]. It was to be eaten in the Holy Place of the Sanctuary. In fact, eight of the Offerings [there were others besides the blood Sacrifices] had to be eaten in the precincts of the Sanctuary.)

[27] Whatsoever shall touch the flesh (flesh of the Sin Offering) thereof shall be holy *(in a sense, making this the holiest Offering of them all): and when there is sprinkled of the blood thereof upon any garment, you shall wash that whereon it was sprinkled in the Holy Place (this proclaims to us the preciousness of the Blood).

[28] But the earthen vessel wherein it (the Sin Offering) is sodden shall be broken: and if it be sodden in a brasen pot, it shall be both scoured, and rinsed in water (so desperate a malady is sin, that anything that came in contact with the Sin Offering had to be washed, broken, or scoured).

[29] All the males among the Priests shall eat thereof: it is most holy.

30 And no Sin Offering, whereof any of the blood is brought into the Tabernacle of the congregation to reconcile withal in the Holy Place, shall be eaten: it shall be burnt in the fire. (Concerning this, Williams says: "The Sin Offering whose blood was brought into the Sanctuary symbolizes Christ bearing before God the sin of the whole world. The Sin Offering whose blood was not so brought in, but whose flesh was eaten by the Priest, presents Christ as making His Own the sins of the individual sinner who believes upon Him.)

CHAPTER 7

(1490 B.C.)

TRESPASS OFFERINGS

[1] Likewise this is the Law of the Trespass Offering: it is most holy (the "Meat Offering," the "Sin Offering," and the "Trespass Offering" were labeled as "most holy"; the "Whole Burnt Offering" and the "Peace Offering" were "holy").

[2] In the place where they kill the Burnt Offering shall they kill the Trespass Offering: and the blood thereof shall he sprinkle round about upon the Altar (the Burnt Offering and the Sin and Trespass Offerings being slain upon the one spot sets out the unity of the death of Christ in its two aspects; at Golgotha He was, at one and the same moment, accursed of God as the Sin and Trespass Offerings, and Beloved of the Father as the Burnt Offering).

[3] And he shall offer of it all the fat thereof; the rump, and the fat that covers the inwards,

[4] And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul that is above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away:

[5] And the Priest shall burn them upon the Altar for an Offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a Trespass Offering (the "fat" and inwards of the animal were to be burned on the Altar, symbolizing the vitals of the human being, ruined by sin, which only the Cross of Christ could assuage, symbolized by the Altar).

[6] Every male among the Priests shall eat thereof: it shall be eaten in the Holy Place: it is most holy (understanding this proclaims to us, in no uncertain terms, the absolute Holiness, the "most Holiness," of the Cross of Calvary).

7 As the Sin Offering is, so is the Trespass Offering: there is one law for them: the Priest who makes Atonement therewith shall have it (the same rule, as stated in Leviticus 6:27-28, applies to both Offerings; hence, what is omitted in the regulation of the one must be supplied from the directions given in the other).

8 And the Priest who offers any man's Burnt Offering, even the Priest shall have to himself the skin of the Burnt Offering which he has offered (the animal stripped of its skin proclaims the fact that sin is more than mere surface; it goes to the very vitals of the human being).

9 And all the Meat Offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is dressed in the fryingpan, and in the pan, shall be the Priest's who offers it.

10 And every Meat Offering, mingled with oil, and dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one as much as another (the Priests were Types of Christ; their receiving these portions typified the giving of Himself).

THE PEACE OFFERING

11 And this is the Law of the Sacrifice of Peace Offerings, which he shall offer unto the LORD (pertains to the individual bringing the sacrifice; a part was to be eaten by him, and a part by the Priests [Vss. 28-34]).

12 If he (the one who brings the sacrifice) offer it for a thanksgiving (thanksgiving that peace has been restored between himself and God, due to the Sin or Trespass Offerings being presented to the Lord, and accepted), then he shall offer with the Sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil, of fine flour, fried (all symbolize Christ, His Perfection, and Anointing by the Holy Spirit).

13 Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his Offering leavened bread with the Sacrifice of thanksgiving of his Peace Offerings (the Law of the Peace Offering commanded unleavened cakes and leavened bread; the former symbolize the sinless Humanity of Christ; the latter, the sinful humanity of the worshipper; Christ had sin on Him as the sin-bearer, but not in Him; the worshipper, on the other hand, had sin in him, but not on him, meaning that he could not atone for his own sin).

14 And of it he shall offer one out of the whole oblation for an Heave Offering unto the LORD (the right shoulder), and it shall be the Priest's who sprinkles the blood of the Peace Offerings.

15 And the flesh of the sacrifice of his Peace Offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day that it is offered; he shall not leave any of it until the morning (this typifies that we must partake of all of Christ, and not merely a part of Christ; many desire Him as a good man, but not as a Sacrifice; some as Saviour, but not as Baptizer with the Holy Spirit, etc.).

16 But if the Sacrifice of his Offering be a vow, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offers his Sacrifice: and on the morrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten:

17 But the remainder of the flesh of the Sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire.

18 And if any of the flesh of the Sacrifice of his Peace Offerings be eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed unto him who offers it: it shall be an abomination, and the soul who eats of it shall bear his iniquity. (Concerning this, Williams says: "This Law taught the offerer to closely associate the death and sufferings of the slain lamb with the blessing for which he gave thanks. It teaches men today the same lesson. To disassociate worship and thanksgiving from the anguish and blood-shedding of the Lord Jesus, in other words, to separate all of this from the Cross, is to offer to God an abomination, and to bring death into the soul and into the Church.")

19 And the flesh (of the Sacrifice) that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burnt with fire: and as for the flesh, all that be clean shall eat thereof.

[20] But the soul that eats of the flesh of the Sacrifice of Peace Offerings, that pertain unto the LORD, having his uncleanness upon him, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

[21] Moreover the soul that shall touch any unclean thing, as the uncleanness of man, or any unclean beast (dead bodies or lepers), or any abominable unclean thing, and eat of the flesh of the Sacrifice of Peace Offerings, which pertain unto the LORD, even that soul shall be cut off from his people. (Ceremonial cleanliness was obligatory before eating the Peace Offering. Disobedience in this matter entailed death. To profess faith in the Person and Atonement of Christ, and claim fellowship with Him, and be secretly unclean ensures the wrath of God. In other words, while there is definitely liberty in the Cross, there is not license in the Cross.)

FAT AND BLOOD

[22] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[23] Speak unto the Children of Israel, saying, You shall eat no manner of fat, of ox, or of sheep, or of goat.

[24] And the fat of the beast that dies of itself, and the fat of that which is torn with beasts, may be used in any other use: but you shall in no wise eat of it.

[25] For whosoever eats the fat of the beast, of which men offer an Offering made by fire unto the LORD, even the soul that eats it shall be cut off from his people. (The fat of the animal signified its health and prosperity; consequently, it served as a Type of God giving His very Best, as it regards the Lord Jesus Christ, from Whom we receive all good things. As well, the fat being burned on the Altar symbolizes the means by which all of these good things come to us, and that is through the Cross.)

[26] Moreover you shall eat no manner of blood, whether it be of fowl or of beast, in any of your dwellings.

27 Whatsoever soul it be that eats any manner of blood, even that soul shall be cut off from his people. (The prohibition against the eating of blood was brought over, as well, into the New Covenant [Acts 15:19-20]. The life of the flesh is in the blood, and the "blood" symbolizes the Life of Christ poured out, all on our behalf, which alone could cleanse from all sin [Eph. 2:13-18].)

THE PRIESTS

28 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

29 Speak unto the Children of Israel, saying, He who offers the Sacrifice of his Peace Offerings unto the LORD shall bring his oblation unto the LORD of the Sacrifice of his Peace Offerings (the Peace Offering being offered to God signified that peace had been interrupted by sin, and now had been restored).

30 His own hands shall bring the Offerings of the LORD made by fire (the one who had sinned must personally bring the Peace Offering), the fat with the breast, it shall he bring, that the breast may be waved for a Wave Offering before the LORD (the "Wave Offering" derived its name from the fact that whatever was offered was waved first of all toward the Brazen Altar, symbolizing the price that Christ would pay, and thanking Him for paying it, and then the Priest would turn, continuing to lift the Offering high, and wave the breast toward the four corners of the universe, in effect saying that what Christ would do at the Cross would suffice for all).

31 And the Priest shall burn the fat upon the Altar: but the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'.

32 And the right shoulder shall you give unto the Priest for an Heave Offering of the Sacrifices of your Peace Offerings.

33 He among the sons of Aaron, who offers the blood of the Peace Offerings, and the fat, shall have the right shoulder for his part.

34 For the wave breast and the heave shoulder have I taken of the Children of Israel from off the Sacrifices of their Peace Offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the Priest and unto his sons by a Statute for ever from among the Children of Israel. (Christ's shoulder "upholds," and His breast "consoles," all those who trust in Him. The "Heave Offering" was lifted up and down several times, up as a symbol of offering it to God, Who is above, and down again as a symbol of God coming to this Earth and becoming man in the form of the Lord Jesus Christ.)

35 This is the portion of the anointing of Aaron, and of the anointing of his sons, out of the Offerings of the LORD made by fire, in the day when he presented them to minister unto the LORD in the Priest's office;

36 Which the LORD commanded to be given them of the Children of Israel, in the day that He anointed them, by a Statute for ever throughout their generations. (The "Statute" that these two parts of the Peace Offering are to be given to Aaron and his descendants, who may officiate at the Sacrifice, is binding upon the Israelites as long as the Priesthood lasts.)

37 This is the Law of the Burnt Offering, of the Meat Offering, and of the Sin Offering, and of the Trespass Offering, and of the consecrations, and of the Sacrifice of the Peace Offerings (five Offerings: "five" is God's number of Grace; Jesus would satisfy all of these Offerings by the one Sacrifice of Himself on the Cross of Calvary)**;

38 Which the LORD commanded Moses in Mount Sinai, in the day that he commanded the Children of Israel to offer their oblations unto the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.

CHAPTER 8

(1490 B.C.)

CONSECRATION OF THE PRIESTS

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and a bullock for the Sin Offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread; (As we study this Book of Leviticus, we will find that its major subject is "a Sacrifice, a Priest, and a Place of Worship." Chapters 8 through 10 pertain to Priesthood, but Sacrifice is the foundation of it all. This speaks of the Cross of Christ. The sinner needs a Sacrifice, the worshipper needs a Priest. Christ is both. All of these things mentioned in the Second Verse point to Christ and Christ alone.)

[3] And you gather all the congregation together unto the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation (even though only the representatives of the people could actually observe the ritual, considering there were approximately 3 million, still, the answer for "all" then was Christ and the Cross, and the answer now for "all" is Christ and the Cross).

[4] And Moses did as the LORD commanded him; and the assembly was gathered together unto the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation.

[5] And Moses said unto the congregation, This is the thing which the LORD commanded to be done. (Concerning this, Mackintosh says: "Had the Word been disregarded, the glory would not have appeared [9:23-24]. The two things were intimately connected. The slightest deviation from 'Thus says Jehovah' would have prevented beams of the Divine Glory from appearing to the congregation of Israel. Had there been the introduction of a single rite or ceremony not enjoined by the Word, or had there been the omission of ought which that Word commanded, the Lord would not have manifested His Glory. He could not sanction, by the Glory of His Presence, the neglect or rejection of His Word. He can bear with ignorance and infirmity [spiritual weakness], but He cannot sanction neglect or disobedience.")

6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water (as these Priests were Types of Christ, this "washing" was meant to portray the sublime purity of Jesus, Who "was Holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners" [Heb. 7:26]).

THE CLOTHING

7 And he put upon him the coat (speaks of the Deity of Christ), and girded him with the girdle (speaks of the service of Christ to humanity), and clothed him with the robe (speaks of the Righteousness of Christ), and put the Ephod upon him (presents the strength of Christ), and he girded him with the Curious Girdle of the Ephod, and bound it unto him therewith (typifies the Work of the Spirit within the Life of Christ [Lk. 4:18-19]).

8 And he put the breastplate upon him (inasmuch as this was worn over the heart of the Priest, it pertained to the Love of Christ, in that He would give Himself for humanity): also he put in the Breastplate the Urim and the Thummim (the two words mean "lights and perfection"; they concern the leading of the Holy Spirit).

9 And he put the Mitre upon his head (speaks of authority; Jesus is the "Head" of the Church [Col. 1:18-19]); also upon the Mitre, even upon his forefront, did he put the Golden Plate, the Holy Crown (on this appeared the solemn inscription, "Holiness to the Lord"; this, of course, represented the absolute Holiness of Christ); as the LORD commanded Moses.

ANOINTING

10 And Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the Tabernacle and all that was therein, and sanctified them (the "oil" was a Type of the Holy Spirit, Who can now function literally, and not merely in a symbolic sense, all because of the Cross of Christ [Rom. 8:2]).

11 And he sprinkled thereof upon the Altar seven times (the number "seven" speaks of the total dominion over sin which the Holy Spirit can give us, all made possible by the Cross [Rom. 6:14; Rev. 5:6]), and anointed the Altar (Type of the Cross) and all his vessels, both the Laver and his foot (Type of the Word of God), to sanctify them (this Passage tells us that Sanctification can only be brought about by the Holy Spirit; no man, by his own strength, no matter how sincere, can sanctify himself [Rom. 8:1-2, 11]).

12 And he poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him (the anointing oil was "poured" upon Aaron, who typified Christ, "Who was anointed with the oil of gladness above His fellows" [Ps. 45:7; Heb. 1:9]).

13 And Moses brought Aaron's sons, and put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bonnets upon them; as the LORD commanded Moses. (Aaron and his sons together represent Christ and His Priestly house [Rev. 1:6]; Aaron alone represents Christ in His Sacrificial and Intercessory function; Moses and Aaron together represent Christ as King and Priest.)

THE OFFERINGS

14 And he brought the bullock for the Sin Offering (in fact, Aaron and his sons stood as penitent sinners by the side of the Sin Offering, which was now offered for the first time; the "Sin Offering" was called "most holy," because it cleansed the sinner from all sin; in the "Whole Burnt Offering," Christ took His Perfection and gave it to the sinner; in the "Sin Offering," Christ took the sinner's sin and made it His Own, thereby justifying the sinner, because Christ has paid the price for that sin and, in fact, all sin [I Jn. 2:2]): and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the bullock for the Sin Offering (this represented their sins being transferred to the innocent victim, typifying Christ taking our sins upon Himself [Heb. 7:27]).

15 And he killed it (the guilty party had to personally kill the innocent animal, symbolizing the fact that it was our sins which put Christ on the Cross); and Moses took the blood (signified Christ shedding His Life's Blood on the Cross of Calvary), and put it upon the horns of the Altar roundabout with his finger (signified that God's Plan of Redemption was for the entirety of the universe), and purified the Altar (Christ sanctified the Cross, the Cross didn't sanctify Christ; this puts to rest the erroneous idea that Jesus died spiritually on the Cross), and poured the blood at the bottom of the Altar, and sanctified it, to make reconciliation upon it (this signified the purpose of the Altar, and its purpose alone! The "Altar" is the place of death, and, more specifically, the place of the Death of Christ, which alone atoned for the sin of the world [Jn. 1:29]).

16 And he took all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses burned it upon the Altar (signified that sin is more than merely surface; it goes to the very vitals of man, which the Cross alone addresses; it took the best, symbolized by the "fat," that God had, His only Son, to redeem mankind [Jn. 3:16]).

17 But the bullock, and his hide, his flesh, and his dung, he burnt with fire without the camp; as the LORD commanded Moses. (The bullock was a "Sin Offering"; consequently, it could not be burned on the Altar. Of the four bloody Offerings, it was only the Whole Burnt Offering which could be burned totally upon the Altar, because it represented the Perfection of Christ, and not sin. All of these things being taken outside the camp and burned typified our sins being taken away, and all because of the Cross.)

BURNT OFFERING

18 And he brought the ram for the Burnt Offering (this represented the Perfection of Christ, so it could be wholly burned on the Altar): and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram (transferring their sins to this innocent victim, typifying Christ).

19 And he killed it: and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the Altar round about.

[20] And he cut the ram into pieces (signifying that Christ gave His all); and Moses burnt the head, and the pieces, and the fat (signifying Christ taking our judgment).

[21] And he washed the inwards and the legs in water (portrayed the purity of Christ); and Moses burnt the whole ram upon the Altar: it was a Burnt Sacrifice for a sweet savour, and an Offering made by fire unto the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

CONSECRATION RAM

[22] And he brought the other ram, the ram of consecration (we find from the sacrifice of the ram that true consecration can only come about through the Cross, and our Faith in that Finished Work [Rom. 6:3-14]): and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram (even though Aaron had been chosen by the Lord as the Great High Priest, he and his sons, who were Priests as well, had to undergo the same Sacrificial Offerings as the worst sinner in Israel).

[23] And he killed it; and Moses took of the blood of it (whether we contemplate the Doctrine of Sacrifice, or the Doctrine of Consecration, we find the shedding of blood gets the same important place; this portrays the fact that the Cross is not only for Salvation but, as well, is for Sanctification [Rom. 8:1-2, 11]), and put it upon the tip of Aaron's right ear (a blood-stained ear was needed to hearken to the Divine communications), and upon the thumb of his right hand (a blood-stained hand was needed to execute the services of the Sanctuary), and upon the great toe of his right foot (a blood-stained foot was needed to tread the courts of the Lord's House).

[24] And he brought Aaron's sons, and Moses put of the blood upon the tip of their right ear, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet: and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the Altar round about. (The shedding of blood was the foundation of all sacrifice for sin, and it stood connected with all the vessels of the Ministry, and with all the functions of the Priesthood. The reason for so much false doctrine in the modern Church is because most presently little understand the typology of the Old Testament, as it presents Christ in the entirety of His Work.)

25 And he took the fat, and the rump, and all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right shoulder:

26 And out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before the LORD, he took one unleavened cake *(there was only "One" Who was Perfect, and that was Christ), and a cake of oiled bread *(the Holy Spirit upon Christ [Lk. 4:18-19]), and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and upon the right shoulder *(all signifies Christ, Who Alone could satisfy the righteous demands of a thrice-Holy God):

WAVE OFFERING

27 And he put all upon Aaron's hands, and upon his sons' hands, and waved them for a Wave Offering before the LORD (the "Wave Offering" signified thanksgiving unto the Lord, and that He Alone was the Author of Salvation).

28 And Moses took them from off their hands, and burnt them on the Altar upon the Burnt Offering *(once again, we are taken back to the Cross, typified by the Burnt Offering): they were consecrations for a sweet savour *(all of this tells us that the Lord is pleased only with Christ and the Cross, which means that if we are to please God, our Faith must rest entirely in the Cross of Christ; that alone is a "sweet savour" to the Lord): it is an Offering made by fire unto the LORD.

29 And Moses took the breast, and waved it for a Wave Offering before the LORD: for of the ram of consecration it was Moses' part; as the LORD commanded Moses (this signified that even Moses had to partake of Christ, as do all).

THE ANOINTING

30 And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the Altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron (Aaron and his sons had already been anointed with oil and had the blood applied; it is now done again, which were fitting conclusions to their consecration; it was meant to show that the Sanctification process is an ongoing process, thereby the necessity of continued trust in the Blood and need of continued anointing with the Holy Spirit), and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his sons' garments with him; and sanctified Aaron, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him. (Beautiful and costly as was the raiment of Aaron, yet the oil and the blood were applied. This simply means that the beauty and glory of Salvation, typified by the garments of Aaron, are all made possible by what Jesus did at the Cross.)

THE FOOD

31 And Moses said unto Aaron and to his sons, Boil the flesh at the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation: and there eat it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it (this furnishes a fine Type of Christ and His people feeding together upon the results of the accomplished Atonement).

32 And that which remains of the flesh and of the bread shall you burn with fire (this signifies that all of Christ must be consumed; in other words, it is all of Christ, or it's none of Christ! He cannot be accepted in part).

CONSECRATION

33 And you shall not go out of the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation in seven days, until the days of your consecration be at an end: for seven days shall he consecrate you (the number "seven" typifies perfection; only by Faith in Christ and the Cross can a perfect consecration be entertained, all brought about by the Holy Spirit [Rom. 8:1-2, 11]).

34 As he has done this day, so the LORD has commanded to do, to make an Atonement for you (by the Sacrificial Offerings).

35 Therefore shall you abide at the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation day and night seven days, and keep the charge of the LORD, that you die not: for so I am commanded (it has not changed! If we fail to abide by the Word of God, we will spiritually die).

36 So Aaron and his sons did all things which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses (they were not to deviate at all from the ritual, because it all represented Christ).

CHAPTER 9

(1490 B.C.)

OFFERINGS OF AARON

[1] And it came to pass on the eighth day, that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the Elders of Israel (this Chapter describes Aaron in his role of mediation as the High Priest; it symbolizes Christ in this intercessory role, which He now occupies [Heb. 7:25]; the "eighth day" corresponds with Jesus being raised from the dead, which He was, in essence, on the eighth day; He was raised on the first day of the week, which was eight days after a full Sabbath week; according to ancient tradition, the eighth day of Aaron was the first day of March)**;

[2] And he said unto Aaron, You take a young calf for a Sin Offering, and a ram for a Burnt Offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD. (Concerning this, Seiss says: "Everywhere, even in our holiest moods and most sacred doings, there still flashes out the stern and humiliating accusation — 'O man, you are a sinner! All your goodness is but abomination apart from Christ! Your only hope is in Him Whose body was broken and Whose Blood was shed for the remission of sins!'"

All of this means that our hand must be ever kept on the brow of the Atoning Lamb. We must never cease to rest upon Jesus and His offering of Himself for us. We must ever look to the Cross.)

[3] And unto the Children of Israel you shall speak, saying, You take a kid of the goats for a Sin Offering, and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, for a Burnt Offering;

[4] Also a bullock and a ram for Peace Offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD; and a Meat Offering mingled with oil: for today the LORD will appear unto you.

PREPARATIONS

5 And they brought that which Moses commanded before the Tabernacle of the congregation: and all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD (all of Israel was commanded to bring forth the specified Sacrifices, which, no doubt, the Elders of Verse 1 did, on behalf of all the people)**.

6 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commanded that you should do: and the Glory of the LORD shall appear unto you (if it is to be noticed, everything depended on the Sacrifices; this means everything presently depends on the Cross, of which the Sacrifices were a Type; if the true "Glory of God" is to appear, it can only be done through and by the Cross of Christ)**.

7 And Moses said unto Aaron, Go unto the Altar, and offer your Sin Offering, and your Burnt Offering, and make an Atonement for yourself, and for the people: and offer the offering of the people, and make an Atonement for them; as the LORD commanded. (Atonement means reconciliation. Its ultimate conclusion is the reconciliation of God and man through the Sacrificial Death of Jesus Christ, of which all of this was a Type.)

OFFERINGS FOR THE PRIESTS

8 Aaron therefore went unto the Altar, and killed the calf of the Sin Offering, which was for himself (Aaron, although the Great High Priest, still, was a sinner who needed the saving Grace of Christ)**.

9 And the sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him: and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it upon the horns of the Altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the Altar (without the shedding of blood, and only a particular blood at that, the Blood of Christ, there is no remission of sins [Heb. 10:4])**:

10 But the fat, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver of the Sin

Offering, he burnt upon the Altar; as the LORD commanded Moses.

11 And the flesh and the hide he burnt with fire without the camp. (Proclaims the fact that all sin would be completely expiated in the Death of Christ, which means "to do away with the guilt incurred." The whole curse fell upon the Substitute. The Atonement was not completed until the whole sacrifice was consumed.)

12 And he killed the Burnt Offering; and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled round about upon the Altar.

13 And they presented the Burnt Offering unto him, with the pieces thereof, and the head: and he burnt them upon the Altar (the "Burnt Offering" symbolized the Perfection of Christ, and Him giving that Perfection to the sinner).

14 And he did wash the inwards and the legs (portraying the purity of Christ), and burnt them upon the Burnt Offering on the Altar.

OFFERINGS FOR THE PEOPLE

15 And he brought the people's Offering, and took the goat, which was the Sin Offering for the people, and killed it, and offered it for sin, as the first (sin has to be dealt with first of all!).

16 And he brought the Burnt Offering, and offered it according to the manner (with sin handled, then the Perfection of Christ can be given to the cleansed sinner, typified by the Burnt Offering).

17 And he brought the Meat Offering, and took an handful thereof, and burnt it upon the Altar, beside the Burnt Sacrifice of the morning (this was a handful of flour, which was to render thanks for God accepting the Offerings that had been presented).

18 He killed also the bullock and the ram for a sacrifice of Peace Offerings, which was for the people: and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled upon the Altar round about (with the sin question settled, and thanksgiving offered, and the Perfection of Christ rendered to the seeking one, the Peace of God, which had been interrupted, is now restored, typified by the "Peace Offering"),

19 And the fat of the bullock and of the ram, the rump, and that which covered the inwards, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver:

20 And they put the fat upon the breasts, and he burnt the fat upon the Altar:

21 And the breasts and the right shoulder Aaron waved for a Wave Offering before the LORD; as Moses commanded. (The "Wave Offering" signified that all the Blessings came from above, which means that Redemption would come from above, and would do so in the form of the Lord Jesus Christ, of which these sacrifices were Types.)

22 And Aaron lifted up his hand toward the people, and blessed them, and came down from offering of the Sin Offering, and the Burnt Offering, and Peace Offerings. (The lifting up of the hands of the Priests became a custom in blessing the people when completing their duties for them in the rituals; however, the "blessing" could be pronounced only on the basis of the completed sacrifice, i.e., "the Cross.")

23 And Moses and Aaron went into the Tab ernacle of the congregation, and came out, and blessed the people: and the Glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people. (There is no "Glory" other than through the Cross.)

24 And there came a fire out from before the LORD (it came from the Holy of Holies, actually from the Ark of the Covenant, and passed through the Veil and, as well, the hanging curtain at the front, without burning it), and consumed upon the Altar the Burnt Offering and the fat: which when all the people saw, they shouted, and fell on their faces. (This was a visible manifestation of the Judgment of God upon the Sacrifice. It was a type of the Judgment that Jesus would take while on the Cross, all on our behalf. But remember the following:

That judgment is assuaged only by Christ and the Cross; otherwise, it comes upon the individual, irrespective as to whoever that individual might be.)

CHAPTER 10

(1490 B.C.)

STRANGE FIRE

[1] And Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron (they were Priests), took either of them his censer, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered strange fire before the LORD, which He commanded them not. (This was "fire" which came from something other than the Brazen Altar. As such, it was not a type of Christ and Him Crucified and, therefore, could not be recognized by God. It was the sin of Cain. They attempted to put the "strange fire" on the Altar of Incense, situated immediately in front of the Veil. All false doctrine falls into this same category and, thereby, presents a fearful spectacle.)

[2] And there went out fire from the LORD (from the Ark of the Covenant, which passed through the Veil without burning it), and devoured them, and they died before the LORD. (A short time earlier, fire had come out from this same place and consumed the Sacrifice on the Altar [9:24]. Inasmuch as the Cross of Christ was ignored here, that same fire came upon the sinner instead of the Sacrifice.)

[3] Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the LORD spoke, saying, I will be sanctified in them who come near Me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace. (The Lord is saying by this statement that if men place on His Altar the workings of their own corrupt will, what must be the result? Judgment!)

[4] And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said unto them, Come near, carry your brethren from before the Sanctuary out of the camp.

[5] So they went near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp; as

Moses had said. (It seems that the bolt of lightning which killed the both of them didn't even burn their coats. That they were the sons of Aaron did not stop the judgment, meaning that all must understand that it is the Cross or death.)

[6] And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons (the only two left to Aaron), Uncover not your heads, neither rend your clothes; lest you die, and lest wrath come upon all the people: but let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD has kindled. (While normally it would have been proper for the people of Israel to have mourned the deaths of these Priests, the High Priest and his remaining sons must prove their submission to the Divine chastisement by crushing their individual feeling of sorrow. In fact, a murmur on their part would have brought God's Wrath on themselves, and possibly even on Israel as a whole, whom they represented.)

[7] And you shall not go out from the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation, lest you die: for the anointing oil of the LORD is upon you. And they did according to the word of Moses. (For the remaining Priests to have mourned would, in essence, have been saying that the Cross was of little significance; regrettably, that's what many modern Preachers are now saying.)

REGULATIONS

[8] And the LORD spoke unto Aaron, saying,

[9] Do not drink wine nor strong drink, you, nor your sons with you, when you go into the Tabernacle of the congregation, lest you die: it shall be a Statute for ever throughout your generations (the Law given here by the Lord has led to the thought that Nadab and Abihu had acted under the excitement of intoxicating drink; in other words, they were drunk; so we have here in this Verse a prohibition "forever" against any type of strong drink)**:

[10] And that you may put difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean (without a proper understanding of the Cross, it is very difficult to properly discern the difference as demanded here [Gal. 2:20-21]);

[11] And that you may teach the Children of Israel all the Statutes which the LORD has spoken unto them by the hand of Moses. (The Priests, which number would grow extensively very shortly, were to teach the people the Law of Moses. It is the same now with God-called Preachers [Eph. 4:11-12].)

[12] And Moses spoke unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons who were left, Take the Meat Offering that remains of the Offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the Altar: for it is most holy (the "Meat Offering" was the only Offering of the five Sacrifices which was an unbloody Sacrifice; in other words, even though it was referred to as a "Meat Offering," in fact, it had no meat, as we think of such, but rather grain, which was ground into a fine flour; this Offering signified Christ in His Perfection and, as well, it signified thanksgiving to God for giving humanity such a Gift [Jn. 3:16]; it was to be eaten beside the Altar, typifying the Cross, which tells us that everything comes to us through the Cross):

[13] And you shall eat it in the Holy Place, because it is your due, and your sons' due, of the Sacrifices of the LORD made by fire: for so I am commanded (this was a part of their duties, because it symbolized the partaking of Christ).

[14] And the wave breast and heave shoulder shall you eat in a clean place; you, and your sons, and your daughters with you: for they be your due, and your sons' due, which are given out of the Sacrifices of Peace Offerings of the Children of Israel (the "Peace Offerings" were to be eaten by the family, thereby celebrating "Peace" which had been restored).

[15] The heave shoulder and the wave breast shall they bring with the Offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a Wave Offering before the LORD; and it shall be yours, and your sons' with you, by a Statute for ever; as the LORD has commanded (the "heave-up" signified that this God-man would come from Heaven; the "heave-down" signified that He would come down to this Earth; the "Wave Offering" signified Thanksgiving).

16 And Moses diligently sought the goat of the Sin Offering, and, behold, it was burnt: and he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron which were left alive, saying (Aaron and his two remaining sons should have eaten the goat of the Sin Offering, so making the sins of the people their own; but his personal grief unfitted him for bearing their sorrows; how different the True Aaron in John 16:22; He laid His Own immeasurable griefs aside and His loving Heart engaged itself with those of His Disciples)**,

17 Wherefore have you not eaten the Sin Offering in the Holy Place, seeing it is most holy, and God has given it you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make Atonement for them before the LORD? (Priests in the Sanctuary were not to bewail, but to worship — they were not to weep, as in the presence of death, but to bow their anointed heads in the Presence of the Divine visitation.)

18 Behold, the blood of it was not brought in within the Holy Place: you should indeed have eaten it in the Holy Place, as I commanded. (When Moses began to inquire into this particular "rite," he found that no blood had been brought into the Holy Place, and that the carcass of the Sin Offering had been mistakenly burned, when it should have been eaten. Moses was angry! He was concerned that if any part of the ritual was mishandled, misinterpreted, or ignored, the Judgment of God might now fall on the remaining Priests.)

19 And Aaron said unto Moses, Behold, this day have they offered their Sin Offering and their Burnt Offering before the LORD; and such things have befallen me; and if I had eaten the Sin Offering today, should it have been accepted in the sight of the LORD? (Concerning this, Ellicott says, "But while he, Eleazar, and Ithamar were thus duly performing the Sacrificial rites, Nadab and Abihu, the other two sons, transgressed, and were suddenly struck down dead, thus overwhelming the survivors with sorrow, and rendering them unfit to partake of the Sacrifices. Unfitted as they thus were by mourning and the sense of their own sinfulness, that if they had partaken of this solemn meal it would not have been acceptable to the Lord." They were right!)

20 And when Moses heard that, he was content. (Moses acknowledged Aaron's plea to be just, and that he had himself spoken hastily. Hence, Jewish tradition ascribed the mistake to Moses, not to Aaron. Jewish tradition further says, when Moses heard it, he approved of the explanation. Whereupon he sent a herald through the whole camp of Israel, saying, "It is I from whom the Law had been hid, and my brother Aaron brought it to my remembrance.")

CHAPTER 11

(1490 B.C.)

ANIMALS

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses and to Aaron, saying unto them,

[2] Speak unto the Children of Israel, saying, These are the beasts which you shall eat among all the beasts that are on the Earth (Priesthood having been established, to it was now committed the judgment of that which was defiled).

[3] Whatsoever parts the hoof, and is clovenfooted, and chews the cud, among the beasts, that shall you eat (the Laws of this Chapter and following for several Chapters were not only a test of obedience, and a loving provision for the health and happiness of the people, but they also give a humbling picture of the weakness and corruption of fallen human nature).

[4] Nevertheless these shall you not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof: as the camel, because he chews the cud, but divides not the hoof; he is unclean unto you (it should be noted that the Word of the Lord was the one and only judge in all of these matters).

[5] And the coney, because he chews the cud, but divides not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

[6] And the hare (rabbit), because he chews the cud, but divides not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

[7] And the swine, though he divide the hoof, and be clovenfooted, yet he chews not the cud; he is unclean to you.

8 Of their flesh shall you not eat, and their carcase shall you not touch; they are unclean to you. (Why would the Lord give specific instructions of this nature, as it regarded the eating of certain animals and fowls, etc.? In Acts, Chapter 10, as it regards the vision given to Simon Peter, all of these rulings were rescinded. In fact, as it regards Christianity, which is the outgrowth of true Judaism, there are no prohibitions whatsoever of this nature. The reason for these particular laws, and the understanding of them, such knowledge was not totally necessary, but rather obedience, because Israel was a set-apart people, actually raised up for the very purpose of bringing Christ the Redeemer into the world. As they were to be the womb of the Messiah, so to speak, things which the Lord specified as being "unclean" were forbidden. As stated, they didn't have to understand it all, but they definitely must obey. Once Christ came, all of these prohibitions ended.)

9 These shall you eat of all that are in the waters: whatsoever has fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, them shall you eat.

10 And all that have not fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of any living thing which is in the waters, they shall be an abomination unto you:

11 They shall be even an abomination unto you; you shall not eat of their flesh, but you shall have their carcases in abomination.

12 Whatsoever has no fins nor scales in the waters, that shall be an abomination unto you.

13 And these are they which you shall have in abomination among the fowls; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospray,

14 And the vulture, and the kite after his kind;

15 Every raven after his kind;

16 And the owl, and the night hawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after his kind,

17 And the little owl, and the cormorant, and the great owl,

18 And the swan, and the pelican, and the gier eagle,

19 And the stork, the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.

20 All fowls that creep, going upon all four, shall be an abomination unto you.

21 Yet these may you eat of every flying creeping thing that goes upon all four, which have legs above their feet, to leap withal upon the Earth;

22 Even these of them you may eat; the locust after his kind, and the bald locust after his kind, and the beetle after his kind, and the grasshopper after his kind.

23 But all other flying creeping things, which have four feet, shall be an abomination unto you.

24 And for these you shall be unclean: whosoever touches the carcase of them shall be unclean until the evening (an unclean animal, fish, bird, or reptile, when dead, defiled whatsoever it touched).

25 And whosoever bears ought of the carcase of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening (which means that in the meantime, the person could not offer Sacrifices).

26 The carcases of every beast which divides the hoof, and is not clovenfooted, nor chews the cud, are unclean unto you: everyone who touches them shall be unclean.

27 And whatsoever goes upon his paws, among all manner of beasts that go on all four, those are unclean unto you: whoso touches their carcase shall be unclean until the evening (approximately 6 p.m.).

28 And he who bears the carcase of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening; they are unclean unto you.

29 These also shall be unclean unto you among the creeping things that creep upon the Earth; the weasel, and the mouse, and the tortoise after his kind,

30 And the ferret, and the chameleon, and the lizard, and the snail, and the mole.

31 These are unclean to you among all that creep: whosoever does touch them, when they be dead, shall be unclean until the evening.

32 And upon whatsoever any of them, when they are dead, does fall, it shall be unclean; whether it be any vessel of wood, or raiment, or skin, or sack, whatsoever vessel it be, wherein any work is done, it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the evening; so it shall be cleansed. (All of this may seem to be tedious to the unspiritual eye and mind; however, we must understand that God desired to keep His people free from the defilement consequent upon touching, tasting, or handling that which was unclean. They were not their own and, hence, they were not to do as they pleased. They belonged to Jehovah; His Name was called upon them; they were identified with Him. As a result, His Word was to be their grand regulating standard in every case. Other nations might eat what they pleased, but Israel enjoyed the high privilege of eating that only which was pleasing to Jehovah.)

33 And every earthen vessel, whereinto any of them falls, whatsoever is in it shall be unclean; and you shall break it (not only were Israelites forbidden to touch that which was unclean, if their property came into contact with such, such was to be destroyed).

34 Of all meat which may be eaten, that on which such water comes shall be unclean: and all drink that may be drunk in every such vessel shall be unclean.

35 And everything whereupon any part of their carcase falls shall be unclean; whether it be oven, or ranges for pots, they shall be broken down: for they are unclean, and shall be unclean unto you.

CLEAN AND UNCLEAN

36 Nevertheless a fountain or pit, wherein there is plenty of water, shall be clean: but that which touches their carcase shall be unclean.

37 And if any part of their carcase fall upon any sowing seed which is to be sown, it shall be clean.

38 But if any water be put upon the seed, and any part of their carcase fall thereon, it shall be unclean unto you.

39 And if any beast, of which you may eat, die; he who touches the carcase thereof shall be unclean until the evening.

40 And he who eats of the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening; he also who bears the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening.

41 And every creeping thing that creeps upon the Earth shall be an abomination; it shall not be eaten.

42 Whatsoever goes upon the belly, and whatsoever goes upon all four, or whatsoever has more feet among all creeping things that creep upon the Earth, them you shall not eat; for they are an abomination.

43 You shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creeps, neither shall you make yourselves unclean with them, that you should be defiled thereby.

HOLY

44 For I am the LORD your God: you shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and you shall be holy; for I am Holy: neither shall you defile yourselves with any manner of creeping thing that creeps upon the Earth. (We would ask ourselves the question as to whether the keeping of all these rules and regulations actually made one holy. The truth is, the keeping of these rules and regulations did not make one holy, even as the Sacrifices did not save one. But what it all represented definitely did have a bearing and effect upon these individuals. In some way, all of these things, and whatever they might have been, pointed to Christ. It is from Him Alone that all Holiness and Righteousness come to us.

So, faith in the One to Whom all these rules, regulations, and Sacrifices pointed would make one holy.)

45 For I am the LORD Who brought you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: you shall therefore be holy, for I am holy. (Concerning personal holiness in its present posture, there can be no progress in the condition of Holiness into which the Believer is introduced, but there is, and ought to be, progress in the apprehension, experience, and practical exhibition of that Holiness. These things should never be confounded. All true Believers are in the same condition of Holiness and Sanctification, but their practical measure may vary to any conceivable degree.

Actually, this should be easy to understand. The condition arises out of our being brought near to God by the Blood of the Cross; the practical measure will depend upon our keeping near by the power of the Spirit [Rom. 8:1-2, 11].)

46 This is the law of the beasts, and of the fowl, and of every living creature that moves in the waters, and of every creature that creeps upon the Earth:

47 To make a difference between the unclean and the clean, and between the beast that may be eaten and the beast that may not be eaten. (To be sure, the Holy Spirit continues to "make a difference between the unclean and the clean." True Holiness is to "walk after the Spirit" [Rom. 8:1]. This can be done only according to God's prescribed order of victory, which is for the Believer to understand that everything we receive from the Lord comes to us exclusively by the means of the Cross. Christ is the Source, but the Cross is the Means; consequently, the Cross must ever be the object of our faith. That done and maintained, the Holy Spirit will then perform His Work of Christlikeness within our hearts and lives, but only after that manner [Gal. 2:20-21; Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-11].)

CHAPTER 12

(1490 B.C.)

PURIFICATION OF WOMEN

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses saying,

[2] Speak unto the Children of Israel, saying, If a woman have conceived seed, and has given birth to a man child: then she shall be unclean seven days; according to the days of the separation for her infirmity shall she be unclean (the birth of a child recalled the sin and disobedience of Eden, and that the woman was the instrument of that rebellion).

[3] And in the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin (all baby boys) shall be circumcised. (Circumcision was the physical sign of the Old Covenant; it symbolized separation from this world unto God. Concerning this, Mackintosh says, "The effect of all Scripture, when properly interpreted to one's own soul, which is done directly by the Power of the Holy Spirit, is to lead us out of self to Christ. Wherever we see our fallen nature, at whatever stage of its history we contemplate it — whether in its conception, at its birth, or at any point along its whole career from the womb to the coffin — it wears the double stamp of infirmity and defilement.)

[4] And she shall then continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirty days (adding the seven days of Verse 2, upon the birth of a little boy the woman was to be unclean 40 days); she shall touch no hallowed thing, nor come into the Sanctuary, until the days of her purifying be fulfilled. (All of this proclaims original sin, and its terrible ruin. While man may try to deny the fact of sin, he cannot deny the results of sin.)

[5] But if she bear a maid child (a little girl), then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her separation: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying threescore and six days (totals 80 days; the doubling of the time of defilement, as it regarded the birth of a little girl, was meant to portray the fact that it was Eve who had first sinned).

THE OFFERING

6 And when the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the first year for a Burnt Offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtledove, for a Sin Offering, unto the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation, unto the Priest (the shadow of the Cross passes before us in a double way in this Chapter. First, it is in the circumcision of the "manchild" and, second, it is in the Burnt Offering and the Sin Offering, whereby the mother was restored from every defiling influence.

As an aside, the extreme poverty of our Lord's Earthly parents was evidenced by their bringing two pigeons, the one for a Sin Offering, and the other for a Burnt Offering [Lk. 2:24]):

7 Who shall offer it before the LORD, and make an Atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the issue of her blood. This is the law for her who has born a male or a female. (In both of these Offerings, the "Burnt Offering" and the "Sin Offering," the two grand aspects of the Death of Christ are introduced here as the only thing which could possibly meet and perfectly remove the defilement connected with man's natural birth. The "Burnt Offering" signified the Perfection of Christ offered up in Sacrifice, which God demanded, that is, if the sin debt was to be forever settled. The "Sin Offering" presents the Death of Christ as bearing upon the sinner's need. In other words, the Sin Offering proclaimed the sinner's sin placed on Christ, while the Burnt Offering portrayed the Perfection of Christ given to the sinner.

All of this tells us that nothing but blood-shedding could impart cleanness. The Cross is the only remedy for man's infirmity and man's defilement. Wherever that glorious work is apprehended by Faith, and we speak of the Sacrifice of Christ, there is perfect cleanness in joy.)

8 And if she be not able to bring a lamb, then she shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons; the one for the Burnt Offering, and the other for a Sin Offering: and the Priest shall make an Atonement for her, and she shall be clean. (The Priest alone could make atonement for her, that is, if she brought the proper sacrifices; the Priest was a Type of Christ.)

CHAPTER 13

(1490 B.C.)

THE SIGNS OF LEPROSY

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses and Aaron, saying,

[2] When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a rising, a scab, or bright spot, and it be in the skin of his flesh like the plague of leprosy; then he shall be brought unto Aaron the Priest, or unto one of his sons the Priests (considering all the minute attention given to this disease, we know that God intended for leprosy to be a type of sin. From this Chapter, we will learn how absolutely horrible, putrefying, deadly, evil and destructive that sin actually is, which the Holy Spirit strongly desires that we learn.

If it is to be noticed, if it was thought that the person possibly had contracted leprosy, he was to be brought to the Priests for inspection, and not to a physician. This further shows that God intended for this dread malady to be a portrayal, a type, of sin. The Priest was a Type of Christ; so the sinner is to be brought to Christ):

[3] And the Priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh: and when the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague in sight be deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: and the Priest shall look on him, and pronounce him unclean. (The Priest alone could diagnose the plague of leprosy. It really didn't matter what others said, only what the Priest said; likewise, it is what Christ, i.e., "the Word," says that provides the true course. It doesn't matter what man says about sin; it's what the Lord says about sin.)

[4] If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white; then the Priest shall shut up him who has the plague seven days (the Priest was not guided by his own thoughts, his own feelings, or his own wisdom; he was to be guided strictly by the Word of the Lord, which had been given to him by Moses):

5 And the Priest shall look on him the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague spread not in the skin; then the Priest shall shut him up seven days more:

6 And the priest shall look on him again the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague be somewhat dark, and the plague spread not in the skin, the Priest shall pronounce him clean: it is but a scab: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean. (We learn from this that Holiness cannot permit anyone to remain in who ought to be out; and, on the other hand, Grace will not have anyone out who ought to be in.)

7 But if the scab spread much abroad in the skin, after that he has been seen of the Priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen of the Priest again.

8 And if the Priest see that, behold, the scab spreads in the skin, then the Priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a leprosy. (If the Word is not the infallible guide, then terrible injustices will be done, people will be hurt, and souls could even be lost. It is incumbent upon Preachers and, in fact, all Believers, that the Word of God be the deciding factor in everything.)

9 When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought unto the Priest (leprosy was, for the most part, hereditary; after afflicting the parent, it was very apt to break out in the child; this is a perfect description of the terrible malady of sin; sin began in Adam, our first parent, and has passed on to the entirety of the human race):

10 And the Priest shall see him: and, behold, if the rising be white in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and there be quick raw flesh in the rising:

11 It is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh, and the Priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up: for he is unclean (in other words, there is no doubt that this individual has leprosy).

12 And if a leprosy break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of him who has the plague from his head even to his foot, wheresoever the Priest looks;

13 Then the Priest shall consider: and, behold, if the leprosy have covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean who has the plague: it is all turned white: he is clean. (A leper, white all over, was clean. He was a leper, but the disease was not active in him; it was, in a sense, dead. Thus, "sin" should be "dead" in the Christian [Rom., Chpt. 6].)

14 But when raw flesh appears in him, he shall be unclean.

15 And the Priest shall see the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean: for the raw flesh is unclean: it is a leprosy. (As the signs of leprosy were obvious here, likewise, ultimately, the signs of sin will become obvious.)

16 Or if the raw flesh turn again, and be changed unto white, he shall come unto the Priest;

17 And the Priest shall see him: and, behold, if the plague be turned into white; then the Priest shall pronounce him clean who has the plague: he is clean. (Everyone who trusts Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross can be pronounced as "clean.")

18 The flesh also, in which, even in the skin thereof, was a boil, and is healed,

19 And in the place of the boil there be a white rising, or a bright spot, white, and somewhat reddish, and it be shewed to the Priest;

20 And if, when the Priest sees it, behold, it be in sight lower than the skin, and the hair thereof be turned white; the Priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague of leprosy broken out of the boil.

21 But if the Priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hairs therein, and if it be not lower than the skin, but be somewhat dark; then the Priest shall shut him up seven days:

22 And if it spread much abroad in the skin, then the Priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague. (It is the responsibility of the Preacher of the Gospel to pronounce sin as sin; unfortunately, the modern Church has, by and large, attempted to redefine sin by referring to it by other names. For instance, drunkenness is referred to as a disease.)

23 But if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not, it is a burning boil: and the Priest shall pronounce him clean.

24 Or if there be any flesh, in the skin whereof there is a hot burning, and the quick flesh that burns have a white bright spot, somewhat reddish, or white;

25 Then the Priest shall look upon it: and, behold, if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and it be in sight deeper than the skin; it is a leprosy broken out of the burning: wherefore the Priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy. (As is painfully obvious, the very smallest speck of leprosy was intolerable; likewise, the smallest amount of sin is intolerable with God.)

26 But if the Priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hair in the bright spot, and it be no lower than the other skin, but be somewhat dark; then the Priest shall shut him up seven days (for inspection)**:

27 And the Priest shall look upon him the seventh day: and if it be spread much abroad in the skin, then the Priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

28 And if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not in the skin, but it be somewhat dark; it is a rising of the burning, and the Priest shall pronounce him clean: for it is an inflammation of the burning.

29 If a man or woman have a plague upon the head or the beard;

30 Then the Priest shall see the plague: and, behold, if it be in sight deeper than the skin; and there be in it a yellow thin hair; then the Priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a dry scall, even a leprosy upon the head or beard.

31 And if the Priest look on the plague of the scall, and, behold, it be not in sight deeper than the skin, and that there is no black hair in it; then the Priest shall shut up him who has the plague of the scall seven days:

32 And in the seventh day the Priest shall look on the plague: and, behold, if the scall spread not, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the scall be not in sight deeper than the skin;

33 He shall be shaven, but the scall shall he not shave; and the Priest shall shut up him who has the scall seven days more:

34 And in the seventh day the Priest shall look on the scall: and, behold, if the scall be not spread in the skin, nor be in sight deeper than the skin; then the Priest shall pronounce him clean: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

35 But if the scall spread much in the skin after his cleansing;

36 Then the Priest shall look on him: and, behold, if the scall be spread in the skin, the Priest shall not seek for yellow hair; he is unclean.

37 But if the scall (a scab-like sore which was surface only) be in his sight at a stay, and that there is black hair grown up therein; the scall is healed, he is clean: and the Priest shall pronounce him clean.

38 If a man also or a woman have in the skin of their flesh bright spots, even white bright spots;

39 Then the Priest shall look: and, behold, if the bright spots in the skin of their flesh be darkish white: it is a freckled spot that grows in the skin; he is clean.

40 And the man whose hair is fallen off his head, he is bald; yet is he clean.

41 And he who has his hair fallen off from the part of his head toward his face, he is forehead bald: yet is he clean. (The minute directions given in this Chapter, and the care and patience enjoined by the Priests, show how God distinguishes between sin and infirmity.)

42 And if there be in the bald head, or bald forehead, a white reddish sore; it is a leprosy sprung up in his bald head, or his bald forehead.

43 Then the Priest shall look upon it: and, behold, if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the leprosy appears in the skin of the flesh;

44 He is a leprous man, he is unclean: the Priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean: his plague is in his head. (As the Priest pronounced the leprosy, likewise, the true Preacher of the Gospel, as previously stated, is to correctly identify sin.)

45 And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent (carries the spiritual meaning that man's personal righteousness is insufficient for acceptance by God; the leper's torn garment says, "I am undone, useless, and I am separated from God"), and his head bare (this signifies that the sinner had, and has, no protection against the anger and wrath of God; in other words, he is naked to the Judgment of God), and he shall put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry, Unclean, unclean. (When any person professes Salvation by any means other than Christ and the Cross, whether they realize it or not, they are saying, "Unclean, unclean.")

46 All the days wherein the plague shall be in him he shall be defiled (sin defiles, and in every capacity); he is unclean: he shall dwell alone (despite the noise and the crowds, there is a terrible loneliness about sin); without the camp shall his habitation be (sin separates people from God)**.

47 The garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it be a woolen garment, or a linen garment;

48 Whether it be in the warp, or woof; of linen, or of woolen; whether in a skin, or in any thing made of skin;

49 And if the plague be greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it is a plague of leprosy, and shall be shewed unto the Priest:

50 And the Priest shall look upon the plague, and shut up it that has the plague seven days:

51 And he shall look on the plague on the seventh day: if the plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in a skin, or in any work that is made of skin; the plague is a fretting leprosy; it is unclean.

52 He shall therefore burn that garment, whether warp or woof, in woolen or in linen, or anything of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosy; it shall be burnt in the fire.

53 And if the Priest shall look, and, behold the plague be not spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin;

54 Then the Priest shall command that they wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it up seven days more:

55 And the Priest shall look on the plague, after that it is washed: and, behold, if the plague have not changed his color, and the plague be not spread; it is unclean; you shall burn it in the fire; it is fret inward, whether it be bare within or without.

56 And if the Priest look, and, behold, the plague be somewhat dark after the washing of it; then he shall rend it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof:

57 And if it appear still in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it is a spreading plague: you shall burn that wherein the plague is with fire.

58 And the garment, either warp, or woof, or whatsoever thing of skin it be, which you shall wash, if the plague be departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and shall be clean.

59 This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of wool or linen, either in the warp, or woof, or anything of skins, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean. (Leprosy in a garment is a type of sin in a man's circumstances, or habits. The Priest was commanded to show the same patience and care in judging a garment as in judging a man.

Sometimes a Christian must abandon part of his business because of evil attaching to it, and sometimes he must abandon it all together. This is a principle which affects the whole Christian life.

The carnal mind finds this Chapter tiresome, uninteresting, and unpleasant; however, to the spiritual mind, it is humbling and comforting. Love untiring and infinite wisdom are the foundation of these Statutes. The Reader finds himself as a moral leper in the tender, patient, wise, and loving hands of the Heavenly Priest; and, accordingly, he studies every word with humiliation and adoration — Williams.)

CHAPTER 14

(1490 B.C.)

CLEANSING LAWS

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing: He shall be brought unto the Priest (as the Priest was a Type of Christ, there is cleansing for sin only in Christ and the Cross; so the sinner must be brought to Christ, and not the Church, or good works, etc.):

[3] And the Priest shall go forth out of the camp (Christ came from Heaven for the sole purpose of seeking out sinners); and the Priest shall look (Christ Alone can diagnose and cleanse), and, behold, if the plague of leprosy be healed in the leper;

[4] Then shall the Priest command to take for him who is to be cleansed two birds alive and clean (one was to be killed, typifying the Cross, and the other was to be let loose into the heavens, typifying the Resurrection), and cedar wood (a Type of the Cross), and scarlet (speaks of a piece of cloth that was the color of scarlet, which typified the shed Blood of Christ), and hyssop (typifies the humanity of Christ, i.e., "Incarnation," God becoming man; the "hyssop" sprinkled the blood, typifying the blood being sprinkled from the wounds of Christ on the Cross):

[5] And the Priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over running water (the "earthen vessel" speaks of the humanity of Christ, just as the hyssop; the "running water" symbolizes the Word of God, in which Jesus was, and is, the Living Word):

[6] As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water (all were based upon the preciousness and efficacy of the shed blood; apart from the Blood of Jesus, moral reformation and spiritual power are impossible)**:

[7] And he shall sprinkle upon him who is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times ("seven" is God's number, which proclaims a total and complete cleansing), and shall pro nounce him clean (if one fully trusts Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross, he can be "pronounced clean"), and shall let the living bird loose into the open field (typifying Resurrection, "raised with Him in newness of life" [Rom. 6:3-5])**.

[8] And he who is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water, that he may be clean (excepting the washing of himself in water, the leper did nothing for his cleansing; the Priest did everything): and after that he shall come into the camp, and shall tarry abroad out of his tent seven days.

[9] But it shall be on the seventh day, that he shall shave all his hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair he shall shave off: and he shall wash his clothes, also he shall wash his flesh in water, and he shall be clean. (Directly the repentant sinner is cleansed by the Precious Blood of Christ, he is called upon to "cleanse himself" from all defilement of the flesh and spirit [II Cor. 7:1]. This cleansing is effected by the washing of water by the Word [Eph. 5:26]. That is, he judges himself and his habits [his clothes] by the infallible standard of the Holy Scriptures, and he resolutely turns away from everything condemned by the Word. Thus, he cleanses himself.)

THE SACRIFICES

[10] And on the eighth day he shall take two he lambs without blemish, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish, and three tenth deals of fine flour for a Meat Offering, mingled with oil, and one log of oil. (The leper was cleansed by blood, by water, and by oil. These symbolized the Blood of Christ, the Word of God, and the Holy Spirit.)

[11] And the Priest who makes him clean shall present the man that is to be made clean, and those things, before the LORD, at the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation (this triple cleansing restored him to the camp, to his family, and to the Tabernacle)**:

[12] And the Priest shall take one he lamb, and offer him for a Trespass Offering, and the log of oil, and wave them for a Wave Offering before the LORD (as the Trespass Offering was presented by the Priest, it was done differently than normally done for other Trespass Offerings; in the case before us, not only did oil accompany it, but both the Trespass Offering and the oil were waved by the Priest, which did not take place on any other occasion in connection with the Trespass Offering and Sin Offering; actually, in no other case was the entire victim waved before the Lord)**:

[13] And he shall slay the lamb in the place where he shall kill the Sin Offering and the Burnt Offering, in the Holy Place: for as the Sin Offering is the Priest's, so is the Trespass Offering: it is most holy (these two Offerings, plus the Meat Offering, were labeled as "most holy" [Lev. 2:3]; the Whole Burnt Offering and the Peace Offering were labeled as "holy." Why the difference? The overriding thrust of all that Christ did was deliverance from sin, of which leprosy was a type, hence these particular Offerings being labeled "most holy")**:

[14] And the Priest shall take some of the blood of the Trespass Offering, and the Priest shall put it upon the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed (typifying that all "hearing" had now been cleansed by the blood and, henceforth, he would hear only that which is of the Lord), and upon the thumb of his right hand (now he would "do" right), and upon the great toe of his right foot (now he would "walk" right [Rom. 8:1])**:

[15] And the Priest shall take some of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand (the "oil" typifies the Holy Spirit; the blood having been applied, the Holy Spirit can now effect His Work in the heart and life of the former leper, i.e., "sinner")**:

[16] And the Priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD (the oil being sprinkled before the Lord seven times proclaimed a perfect cleansing; this means that the Holy Spirit has put His seal of approval on the Finished Work of Christ)**:

17 And of the rest of the oil that is in his hand shall the Priest put upon the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the Trespass Offering (the "oil," a Type of the Holy Spirit, could not be applied until the "blood," a Type of the Sacrifice of Christ, was first applied)**:

18 And the remnant of the oil that is in the Priest's hand he shall pour upon the head of him who is to be cleansed: and the Priest shall make an Atonement for him before the LORD (again we state, and unequivocally, that it's all based on the Blood; the Holy Spirit works entirely within the parameters of the Finished Work of Christ, and no other way [Rom. 8:2])**.

19 And the Priest shall offer the Sin Offering, and make an Atonement for him who is to be cleansed from his uncleanness; and afterward he shall kill the Burnt Offering (the other ewe lamb mentioned in Verse 10 is now offered as a Sin Offering; symbolically, this pictures Christ taking the sinner's guilt; after the Sin Offering was presented, the Priest was now to kill the "Burnt Offering"; as the Sin Offering took the sinner's guilt and placed it on Christ, the Burnt Offering would now take the Perfection of Christ and give it to the believing sinner)**:

20 And the Priest shall offer the Burnt Offering and the Meat Offering upon the Altar: and the Priest shall make an Atonement for him, and he shall be clean (a small part of the "Meat Offering" was burned on the Altar, and the balance eaten by the Priest)**.

21 And if he be poor, and cannot get so much; then he shall take one lamb for a Trespass Offering to be waved, to make an Atonement for him, and one tenth deal of fine flour mingled with oil for a Meat Offering, and a log of oil;

22 And two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, such as he is able to get;

and the one shall be a Sin Offering, and the other a Burnt Offering. (Even though the Sacrifices may be altered somewhat, the ritual was identical for the poor man's sacrifices as it was for the rich. The solemnity and imposing nature of the service is not diminished, as both rich and poor are alike in the Presence of the Lord.)

[23] And he shall bring them on the eighth day for his cleansing unto the Priest, unto the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation, before the LORD (the "eighth day" is Resurrection Day, Jesus having been raised on that day).

[24] And the Priest shall take the lamb of the Trespass Offering, and the log of oil, and the Priest shall wave them for a Wave Offering before the LORD:

[25] And he shall kill the lamb of the Trespass Offering, and the Priest shall take some of the blood of the Trespass Offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot:

[26] And the Priest shall pour of the oil into the palm of his own left hand:

[27] And the Priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the LORD:

[28] And the Priest shall put of the oil that is in his hand upon the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the place of the blood of the Trespass Offering:

[29] And the rest of the oil that is in the Priest's hand he shall put upon the head of him who is to be cleansed, to make an Atonement for him before the LORD. (Two great facts shine here with exceptional luster; and both were of Grace. First, the uniting together of God's House with the leper's house; and, second, the placing side by side of the High Priest and the leper; for these two were sprinkled with blood and anointed with oil. Only Aaron's sons were similarly consecrated; and thus, ceremonially, was the leper "put among the sons.")

30 And he shall offer the one of the turtledoves, or of the young pigeons, such as he can get (the Priest represented our Great High Priest passed into the heavens; his double cleansing of the leper illustrated Justification and Sanctification)**;

31 Even such as he is able to get, the one for a Sin Offering, and the other for a Burnt Offering, with the Meat Offering: and the Priest shall make an Atonement for him who is to be cleansed before the LORD. (The first cleansing, one might say, pictured Christ's Atoning Work for the sinner; the second cleansing, the Holy Spirit's Work in the Believer, giving him assurance of Salvation, deliverance from his sins, and power to live a holy life and to enter into the Presence of God. The blood was his title, and the Spirit [oil], his capacity.)

32 This is the law of him in whom is the plague of leprosy, whose hand is not able to get that which pertains to his cleansing. (Verses 21 through 32 legislated, in Grace, for those who were too poor to provide the more costly Sacrifices; but, in such cases, it still was absolute that the Sacrifice must be a Sacrifice of blood [Heb., Chpts. 9-10.)

LEPROSY IN HOUSES

33 And the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

34 When you be come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a possession, and I put the plague of leprosy in a house of the land of your possession;

35 And he who owns the house shall come and tell the Priest, saying, It seems to me there is as it were a plague in the house (in all of this, even as we have seen, and shall see, there is but one cure for sin, whether in an individual, or a community, or in nature, and that one cure is the cleansing Blood of Christ)**:

36 Then the Priest shall command that they empty the house, before the Priest go into it to see the plague, that all that is in the house be not made unclean: and afterward the Priest shall go in to see the house:

[37] And he shall look on the plague, and, behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow strakes, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall (bringing this up to the time of the Cross, we will attempt to apply it to our modern circumstances; the Church at Corinth is an excellent example; it was a spiritual house, composed of spiritual stones; in that particular house at Corinth, there was found the plague of leprosy, i.e., "a man who had taken up with his father's wife," evidently while the father was still alive [I Cor., Chpt. 5]; Paul informed the Church that this man had to repent, which means dissolving the relationship, as should be obvious, or else he had to be excommunicated; he used "leaven" as an example; if it's not removed, it will ultimately infect the whole);

[38] Then the Priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days:

[39] And the Priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look: and, behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house;

[40] Then the Priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and they shall cast them into an unclean place without the city:

[41] And he shall cause the house to be scraped within round about, and they shall pour out the dust that they scrape off without the city into an unclean place:

[42] And they shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other morter, and shall plaister the house.

[43] And if the plague come again, and break out in the house, after that he has taken away the stones, and after he has scraped the house, and after it is plaistered;

[44] Then the priest shall come and look, and, behold, if the plague be spread in the house, it is a fretting leprosy in the house; it is unclean.

45 And he shall break down the house, the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the morter of the house; and he shall carry them forth out of the city into an unclean place. (Bringing the type unto the present, and actually into the entirety of the Church Age, we must conclude that if a Fellowship or Denomination has left the ways of the Lord and is going in another direction, there must be a clean break from that particular "house." While the house may continue to exist, and even thrive according to the standards of the world, as far as God is concerned, it is "no more." The leprosy, i.e., "sin," began small; however, it was not properly addressed and ultimately, and eventually, it overtook the entirety of the house, with it then, at least spiritually speaking, slated for destruction.)

46 Moreover he who goes into the house all the while that it is shut up shall be unclean until the evening. (Continuing to bring the situation into the present, the Believer cannot remain in an unscriptural environment, as it regards false doctrine. Association brings spiritual uncleanliness. If there's anything this "type" shows us, it is this Truth.)

47 And he who lies in the house shall wash his clothes; and he who eats in the house shall wash his clothes.

48 And if the Priest shall come in, and look upon it, and, behold, the plague has not spread in the house, after the house was plaistered: then the Priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed.

49 And he shall take to cleanse the house two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop:

50 And he shall kill the one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water:

51 And he shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times:

52 And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet:

53 But he shall let go the living bird out of the city into the open fields, and make an Atonement for the house: and it shall be clean. (For all practical purposes, the cleansing of the house, which, as is obvious, presents a material structure, as it regards the plague of leprosy, was the same as the cleansing of the leper himself. In all cases, even material objects, the blood had to be applied.)

54 This is the law for all manner of plague of leprosy, and scall,

55 And for the leprosy of a garment, and of a house,

56 And for a rising, and for a scab, and for a bright spot:

57 To teach when it is unclean, and when it is clean: this is the law of leprosy. (Regarding this, Mackintosh says: "I do not doubt in the least that this whole subject of leprosy has a great dispensational bearing, not only upon the house of Israel, but also upon the professing Church."

As an example, the Divine Priest stands in a judicial attitude with respect to His house at Pergamos [Rev. 2:12-16]. He could not be indifferent to symptoms so alarming, but He patiently and graciously gives time to repent. If reproof, warning, and discipline prove unavailing, judgment must take its course.

While we preach Christ Crucified, and that Salvation comes by Faith alone, simply because the Word proclaims that [Eph. 2:8-9], still, true Salvation will always point to a surrender of self to the obedience of Christ. In other words, there must be a total change in the whole manner of life.

We must come to the conclusion that if what we profess is not powerful enough to work a complete revolution in our lives, leading us to obey and follow Christ, it will avail us nothing before God.)

CHAPTER 15

(1490 B.C.)

DEFILEMENT

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses and to Aaron, saying,

[2] Speak unto the Children of Israel, and say unto them, When any man has a running issue out of his flesh, because of his issue he is unclean (the Hebrew word for "issue" is "zuwb," and means "to have a sexual flux"; it probably refers to "gonorrhea" or "blenorrhea").

[3] And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue: whether his flesh run with his issue, or his flesh be stopped from his issue, it is his uncleanness.

[4] Every bed, whereon he lies that has the issue, is unclean: and everything, whereon he sits, shall be unclean. (We note here the corruption of fallen nature; it is defiled. Walking or sleeping, sitting, standing, or lying, its very touch conveyed pollution — a painful lesson for proud humanity — Williams.)

[5] And whosoever touches his bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

[6] And he who sits on anything whereon he sat who has the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

[7] And he who touches the flesh of him who has the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

[8] And if he who has the issue spit upon him who is clean; then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

9 And what saddle soever he rides upon who has the issue shall be unclean.

10 And whosoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until the evening: and he who bears any of those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

11 And whomsoever he touches who has the issue, and has not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

12 And the vessel of earth, that he touches which has the issue, shall be broken: and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

13 And when he who has an issue is cleansed of his issue; then he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean. (The giving of these ceremonial rituals, for they within themselves cleansed nothing, were given in order that we may understand not only the terrible power of sin, but, as well, the totality of the Fall and, above all, the cure for these terrible things, which alone is the Cross of Christ. When we read these Passages, these are the truths that the Holy Spirit means for us to comprehend and understand.)

SACRIFICES

14 And on the eighth day he shall take to him two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD unto the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation, and give them unto the Priest:

15 And the Priest shall offer them, the one for a Sin Offering, and the other for a Burnt Offering; and the Priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD for his issue. (It is amazing how deep-seated the contaminations of sin are. Even the Godliest Believer, who loves the Lord supremely, and is attempting to live for God to the best of his ability, who trusts in Christ and what Christ has done for us at the Cross, still, due to the contamination, will find sin unintentionally escaping from him, contaminating himself and those who come in contact with him, or touching what he has touched, spiritually speaking. In fact, even though we don't like to admit it, the whole nature of the Believer is yet so full of remaining corruption, that the least agitation causes it to trickle over [Rom. 7:21]. That's the reason that glorification is an absolute necessity.)

16 And if any man's seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the evening.

17 And every garment, and every skin, whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the evening.

18 The woman also with whom man shall lie with seed of copulation, they shall both bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the evening. (We find in this section that the cleansing power of the shed Blood, and the sanctifying virtue of the Word of God, is the only way of cleansing and Holiness.)

PURIFICATION OF WOMEN

19 And if a woman have an issue, and her issue in her flesh be blood, she shall be put apart seven days: and whosoever touches her shall be unclean until the evening (this pertains to the monthly period of women; it denotes impurity, which is a result of the Fall; this doesn't mean that the woman is sinning because of such action, but it does mean that she was defiled; the Cross of Christ, thankfully, took away that impurity).

20 And everything that she lies upon in her separation shall be unclean: everything also that she sits upon shall be unclean.

21 And whosoever touches her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

22 And whosoever touches anything that she sat upon shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

23 And if it be on her bed, or on anything whereon she sits, when he touches it, he shall be unclean until the evening.

24 And if any man lie with her at all, and her flowers (discharge) be upon him, he shall be unclean seven days; and all the bed whereon he lies shall be unclean. (Superficial views of sin would lead men to imagine that a sin done in ignorance is not a guilty thing. God says differently, because He looks into the heart and discerns the deep-seated source.)

25 And if a woman have an issue of her blood many days out of the time of her separation, or if it run beyond the time of her separation; all the days of the issue of her uncleanness shall be as the days of her separation: she shall be unclean (Mk. 5:25-29).

26 Every bed whereon she lies all the days of her issue shall be unto her as the bed of her separation: and whatsoever she sits upon shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her separation.

27 And whosoever touches those things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

28 But if she be cleansed of her issue, then she shall number to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean.

SACRIFICES

29 And on the eighth day she shall take unto her two turtles (turtledoves), or two young pigeons, and bring them unto the Priest, to the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation.

30 And the Priest shall offer the one for a Sin Offering, and the other for a Burnt Offering; and the Priest shall make an Atonement for her before the LORD for the issue of her uncleanness.

31 Thus shall you separate the Children of Israel from their uncleanness; that they die not in their uncleanness, when they defile My Tabernacle that is among them. (In truth, as we study this, we are encouraged to come into a knowledge that sin is a much larger matter than we are conscious of; that, in fact, it goes beyond all our conceptions but, at the same time, it is within the reach and grasp of our Lord's Atoning Power. If He thus sets our sins, and even our secret sins, in the light of His countenance, it is that He may have them entirely removed.)

32 This is the law of him who has an issue, and of him whose seed goes from him, and is defiled therewith;

33 And of her who is sick of her flowers (discharge), and of him who has an issue, of the man, and of the woman, and of him who lies with her who is unclean.

CHAPTER 16

(1490 B.C.)

THE DAY OF ATONEMENT

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered before the LORD, and died (mention is made here again of the two sons of Aaron who were stricken dead by the Lord because of their offering up of "strange fire," and done so in order that Aaron might understand the total and complete seriousness of these rituals. If it is to be noticed, there is a voluminous amount of repetition in all of these instructions given to Moses by the Lord. Regarding this, Seiss says: "The success of the pulpit, and the benefit of our weekly attentions upon the Sanctuary, depend much more upon the continuous reiteration of the same great Truths of the Gospel, than upon any power of invention in the Preacher. It is not so much the presentation of new thoughts and brilliant originalities that converts men and builds them up in Holiness, as the clear and constant exhibition of the plain doctrines of Grace")**;

[2] And the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron your brother, that he come not at all times into the Holy Place within the Veil before the Mercy Seat, which is upon the Ark; that he die not: for I will appear in the cloud upon the Mercy Seat. (This is one of the most important Chapters in the Bible. It deals with the Great Day of Atonement. The Lord is saying here to Aaron that even though he is the Great High Priest, still, he is not to come into the Holy of Holies any other time, except on the one day each year of Atonement. To do so meant that he would die. All of this foreshadows the Lamb of God taking away the sin of the world [Jn. 1:29].)

[3] Thus shall Aaron come into the Holy Place (the Holy of Holies where the Ark of the Covenant was): with a young bullock for a Sin Offering, and a ram for a Burnt Offering. (The phrase, "Come into the Holy Place," would have been better translated, "within the Veil." These two Offerings were not for Israel, but rather for Aaron himself. He was ever reminded that even though he was the Great High Priest chosen of God, and chosen to stand between God and Israel, still, he was but a sinner and, thereby, had to offer up Sacrifice the same as the most ungodly in Israel.)

4 He shall put on the holy linen coat (representing the Righteousness of Christ; he was to divest himself of his garments of glory and beauty, meaning that Jesus did not redeem us by His Glory, but rather by His Righteousness; he was the Perfect, Righteous Sacrifice; therefore, He was accepted by God), and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are holy garments ("linen" in the Old Testament represented Righteousness [Rev. 19:14]); therefore shall he wash his flesh in water, and so put them on (he must be "personally" and "characteristically" pure and spotless).

5 And he shall take of the congregation of the Children of Israel two kids of the goats for a Sin Offering, and one ram for a Burnt Offering (these Offerings were for Israel).

6 And Aaron shall offer his bullock of the Sin Offering, which is for himself, and make an Atonement for himself, and for his house (he had to offer these Sacrifices for himself, before he could offer Sacrifices for Israel).

7 And he shall take the two goats, and present them before the LORD at the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation (according to tradition, the two goats were to be the same in size, color, and value, and as nearly alike as possible).

8 And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for the LORD, and the other lot for the scapegoat (one goat would be offered in Sacrifice, and the other would be sent alive into the wilderness, and called the "goat of departure").

9 And Aaron shall bring the goat upon which the LORD's lot fell, and offer him for a Sin Offering (the two goats represented and completed one Atonement for sin; the goat that died typified the Death of Christ, which addressed the root cause of sin; the scapegoat represented all acts of sin removed and taken away).

10 But the goat, on which the lot fell to be the scapegoat, shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make an Atonement with him, and to let him go for a scapegoat into the wilderness (when the goat was led into the wilderness, Atonement was complete; the sins transferred figuratively on the goat were already atoned for, and blood was sprinkled before the Lord; both animals represented one Sin Offering).

THE SIN OFFERING FOR THE HIGH PRIEST AND HIS FAMILY

11 And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the Sin Offering, which is for himself, and shall make an Atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the Sin Offering which is for himself:

12 And he shall take a censer full of burning coals of fire from off the Altar (the Brazen Altar) before the LORD, and his hands full of sweet incense beaten small, and bring it within the Veil *(fire from the Brazen Altar, typifying Christ and the Cross, was the only fire acceptable; any other fire was "strange fire," and would bring death):

13 And he shall put the incense upon the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the Mercy Seat that is upon the Testimony, that he die not (the incense was made of the particular spices of "Stacte," "Onycha," "Galbanum," with "pure Frankincense" [Ex. 30:34]. Holding the censer containing the coals of fire from the Brazen Altar in one hand, and the container with the Incense in the other hand, the High Priest went through the Veil that separated the Holy Place from the Holy of Holies, and advanced to the Ark of the Covenant, where he deposited the censer between its two staves.

The High Priest now poured the crushed spices upon the coals in the censer, and stayed there until the whole place was filled with a cloud of smoke, taking special care that the Mercy Seat and the Cherubim should be enveloped in the cloud. If this wasn't done properly, he could be stricken dead. The "Incense" typified the Intercession of Christ, which He has offered on behalf of all Saints, from the time of the Cross):

14 And he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it with his finger upon the Mercy Seat eastward (the solemn ritual of the Great Day of Atonement declared that entrance into the Presence of God was barred to the sinner, and that the blood of bulls and goats could not rend the Veil that shut men out from God.

It further declared that atoning blood was the basis for entrance to God's Throne; hence, the nearer the worshipper approached to that Throne, the greater was the value attached to the Blood shed at the Brazen Altar. In fact, the entire way from the Brazen Altar by the Brazen Laver, the Golden Altar, and the Veil, and up to the Throne, represented by the Ark of the Covenant, was a blood-sprinkled way.

Standing before the Ark of the Covenant, in the midst of the cloud furnished by the Incense upon the coals of fire, he would dip his finger in the blood of the slain bullock, and sprinkle it upon the Mercy Seat); and before the Mercy Seat shall he sprinkle of the Blood with his finger seven times (sprinkled "seven times" on the Mercy Seat signified that the Redemption afforded by Christ would be a perfect Redemption).

THE SIN OFFERING FOR THE PEOPLE

15 Then shall he kill the goat of the Sin Offering, that is for the people, and bring his blood within the Veil, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the Mercy Seat, and before the Mercy Seat (Aaron will now enter the Holy of Holies for the third time; the first time he offered Incense, and the second time he offered the blood of the bullock for himself and his family; this time he will enter in regard to Israel as a whole; we learn from this, by the entrance of the High Priest into the Holy of Holies, that Atonement could only be effected before the Throne of Jehovah; as well, only the Blood of Christ, typified by these particular Sacrifices, could make that Atonement):

16 And he shall make an Atonement for the Holy Place, because of the uncleanness of the Children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins: and so shall he do for the Tabernacle of the congregation, that remains among them in the midst of their uncleanness (even though these were God's chosen people, they still needed Atonement; as well, only the Blood of Christ, typified by these particular Sacrifices, could make that Atonement; so this means, as ought to be obvious, that any other proposed way of Salvation, any other proposed means of Salvation, in fact, anything instituted by man, will instantly be unacceptable to God; only the Blood of Jesus Christ, God's Son, can "cleanse from all sin" [I Jn. 1:7]).

[17] And there shall be no man in the Tabernacle of the congregation when he goes in to make an Atonement in the Holy Place, until he come out, and have made an Atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel. (When the High Priest atoned for the Holy Place, no man was to be present other than himself. This nullifies all the arguments and practices of pretentious Priesthoods that make claims of direct representation as mediators between God and the people, while Christ is in the Heavenly Tabernacle, as now, carrying on His Priestly Work [Heb. 4:14-16; 5:1-14]. Christ is the only Mediator between God and men [I Tim. 2:4-6; Heb. 9:24].)

[18] And he shall go out unto the Altar that is before the LORD (the Altar of Incense, which sat immediately in front of the Veil in the Holy Place), and make an Atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the Altar round about (horns in the Bible signify dominion or rulership; the idea is, by the blood being applied to these horns, which spoke of what Christ would do for us at the Cross, the fact that the horns pointed in all four directions of the compass signifies that we can have, and, in fact, are meant to have, total and complete dominion over all works of the flesh; we are told how to do this in the Sixth Chapter of Romans).

[19] And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and hallow it from the uncleanness of the Children of Israel (the blood sprinkled "seven times" signifies a total dominion; in other words, what Christ did for us at the Cross, if we follow God's Prescribed Order, no sin will have dominion over us, but only if we follow His Order [Rom. 6:14]).

THE SCAPEGOAT

20 And when he has made an end of reconciling the Holy Place, and the Tabernacle of the congregation, and the Altar, he shall bring the live goat:

21 And Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the Children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them upon the head of the goat (inasmuch as the blood of bulls and goats could not take away sins [Heb. 10:4], the conscience of the people of Israel was not eased; there was still a nagging knowledge, so to speak, that the sins remained [Heb. 9:9]; this being the case, something else was needed, something visible, which could portray their sins being removed; that which filled this void was the scapegoat), and shall send him away by the hand of a fit man into the wilderness (this "fit man" was one who had been appointed for the occasion)**:

22 And the goat shall bear upon him all their iniquities unto a land not inhabited: and he shall let go the goat in the wilderness. (As stated, this goat was actually labeled "the goat of departure," which referred to the sins of the people departing from them, which, in a sense, gave them a visible sign that their sins were now atoned. Concerning this, Keil says: "The reason for making use of two animals is to be found purely in the physical impossibility of combining all features that had to be set forth in the Sin Offering in one animal.")

23 And Aaron shall come into the Tabernacle of the congregation, and shall put off the linen garments, which he put on when he went into the Holy Place, and shall leave them there (the work of Atonement now finished, Aaron could once again put on his garments of glory and beauty)**:

24 And he shall wash his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his Burnt Offering, and the Burnt

Offering of the people, and make an Atonement for himself, and for the people. (The "Sin Offerings" now presented, which means that sin is atoned, the "Burnt Offerings" can now be offered, which will be two rams, one for himself, and one for the people. The "Sin Offering" proclaimed the sins of Israel being taken by Christ, so now the "Burnt Offerings" can be engaged, which means that the Perfection of Christ can be given to Aaron and the people.)

[25] And the fat of the Sin Offering shall he burn upon the Altar (the "fat" was always burned on the Altar, regardless of the type of Offering, typifying the prosperity of Christ given to those who would accept Him as Lord and Redeemer; a sickly animal had very little, if any, fat, while a healthy animal, as would be obvious, would have fat surrounding the various internal organs).

[26] And he who let go the goat for the scapegoat shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward come into the camp (we derive from this the fact of the defilement of sin; any contact with the scapegoat, because it was bearing the sins of Israel, defiled the one making the contact).

[27] And the bullock for the Sin Offering, and the goat for the Sin Offering, whose blood was brought in to make Atonement in the Holy Place, shall one carry forth without the camp; and they shall burn in the fire their skins, and their flesh, and their dung (the majority of the Sin Offering was eaten by the Priests [10:17-18], signifying the taking of Christ in totality, which is done by expressing faith in Him and what He did at the Cross [Jn. 6:53-56]; while the "fat" was burned on the Altar, the residue, such as the "skin," etc., was taken outside the camp and burned, signifying that Christ, as the Sin Offering, died outside the camp [Heb. 13:11-12]; as well, the residue reduced to ashes signified that our sins are no more).

[28] And he who burns them shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp (the one who burned the skins of the animals, etc.).

THE DAY OF ATONEMENT

29 And this shall be a Statute for ever unto you: that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall afflict your souls, and do no work at all, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger who sojourns among you (the Great Day of Atonement was the only "fast" day a year for Israel; the purpose of the abstinence from food and labor was to bring the soul of each individual into harmony with the solemn rites of purification publicly performed, not by themselves, but by the High Priest)**:

30 For on that day shall the Priest make an Atonement for you, to cleanse you, that you may be clean from all your sins before the LORD.

31 It shall be a Sabbath day of rest unto you, and you shall afflict your souls, by a Statute for ever (the Great Day of Atonement was observed more or less until the Babylonian captivity, and afterward in their restoration until the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70)**.

32 And the Priest, whom he shall anoint, and whom he shall consecrate to minister in the Priest's office in his father's stead, shall make the Atonement, and shall put on the linen clothes, even the holy garments (the idea of this Verse pertains to the succession of High Priests who would follow down through the centuries)**:

33 And he shall make an Atonement for the Holy Sanctuary, and he shall make an Atonement for the Tabernacle of the congregation, and for the Altar, and he shall make an Atonement for the Priests, and for all the people of the congregation. (All the High Priests who would follow Aaron were to perform the service of expiation of sin, as detailed in this Chapter.)

34 And this shall be an everlasting Statute unto you, to make an Atonement for the Children of Israel for all their sins once a year. And he (Aaron) did as the LORD commanded Moses. (The "Everlasting Statute" lasted as long as the Earthly Jerusalem lasted, and until the Heavenly Jerusalem, so to speak, was instituted, when it had a spiritual fulfillment once for all. In other words, Jesus Christ, by His Life and living, and, above all, by the Sacrificial, Atoning Sacrifice of Himself, fulfilled all of the Law of Moses. In fact, Christ was, one might say, "The Great Day of Atonement," referring to an enlightened day that will never end, and a darkness which has been dispelled forever.)

CHAPTER 17

(1490 B.C.)

ONE PLACE OF SACRIFICE

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying (if it is to be noticed, over and over again this phrase is used, signifying that all was of God and nothing at all of man; in other words, Moses must not deviate from what the Lord had told him; this is a lesson that religious man finds very difficult to obey),

[2] Speak unto Aaron, and unto his sons, and unto all the Children of Israel, and say unto them; This is the thing which the LORD has commanded, saying,

[3] What man soever there be of the house of Israel, who kills an ox, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or who kills it out of the camp (should have been translated "sacrifices," in the place of "kills"),

[4] And brings it not unto the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation, to offer an Offering unto the LORD before the Tabernacle of the LORD; blood shall be imputed unto that man; he has shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among his people (Mackintosh says: "A man might say, Can I not offer a Sacrifice in one place as well as another? The answer is, Life belongs to God, and His claim thereto must be recognized in the place where He has appointed — before the Tabernacle of the Lord. That was the only meeting-place between God and man. To offer elsewhere proved that the heart did not want God.

"The moral of this is plain. There is one place where God has appointed to meet the sinner, and that is the Cross — the antitype of the Brazen Altar. There and there alone has God's claims upon the life been duly recognized. To reject this meeting-place is to bring down judgment upon oneself — it is to trample underfoot the just claims of God, and to arrogate to oneself a right to life which all have forfeited"):

5 To the end that the Children of Israel may bring their Sacrifices, which they offer in the open field (which they have been offering in the open field), even that they may bring them unto the LORD, unto the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation, unto the Priest, and offer them for Peace Offerings unto the LORD (in essence, some three times the warning is given concerning the offering up of Sacrifices in places except the Tabernacle, or Temple, that is, when the Temple would be built [Vss. 4, 7, 10]).

6 And the Priest shall sprinkle the blood upon the Altar of the LORD at the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation, and burn the fat for a sweet savour unto the LORD. (Expositors say: "The Blood of Christ is the foundation of everything. It is the ground of God's Righteousness in justifying an ungodly sinner who believes on the Name of the Son of God; and it is the ground of the sinner's confidence in drawing near to a Holy God, Who is of purer eyes than to behold evil. God would be just in the condemnation of the sinner; but through the Death of Christ, He can be just and the Justifier of him who believes — a just God and a Saviour.

"The Righteousness of God is His consistency with Himself — His acting in harmony with His revealed character. Hence, were it not for the Cross, His consistency with Himself would, of necessity, demand the death and judgment of the sinner; but in the Cross, that death and judgment were borne by the sinner's surety, so that the same Divine consistency is perfectly maintained, while a Holy God justifies an ungodly sinner through Faith. It is all through the Blood of Jesus — nothing less, nothing more, and nothing different.")

7 And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto devils, after whom they have gone a whoring. This shall be Statute for ever unto them throughout their generations (by the use of the words "no more," we know that the Children of Israel, or at least some of them, did sacrifice unto devils while in Egypt; the short phrase "Statute forever" means exactly what it says; the Cross is the Way of Salvation, and it will never change; Paul referred to it as "The Everlasting Covenant" [Heb. 13:20]).

8 And you shall say unto them, Whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers which sojourn among you, who offers a Burnt Offering or sacrifice,

9 And brings it not unto the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation, to offer it unto the LORD; even that man shall be cut off from among his people (once again the warning is given about offering sacrifices in places other than at "the door of the Tabernacle"; this typifies one Sacrifice, the Lord Jesus Christ; and one place of Sacrifice, the Cross of Calvary).

THE EATING OF BLOOD FORBIDDEN

10 And whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn among you, who eats any manner of blood; I will even set my face against that soul who eats blood, and will cut him off from among his people (the blood represents life, and, above all, the Life of Christ poured out on behalf of lost sinners; this prohibition was as well carried over into the New Covenant [Acts 15:19-20]).

11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood (it should be translated "for the soul of the flesh is in the blood"; the Hebrew word here rendered "life" occurs twice more in this very Verse, and is properly translated "soul"): and I have given it to you upon the Altar to make an Atonement for your souls: for it is the blood (the Blood of Christ) that makes an Atonement for the soul. (This latter phrase plainly and purely tells us that the Death of Christ on the Cross, which was brought about by the shedding of His Precious Blood, which means that in the shedding of His Blood, His Life poured out, is not only the means of Salvation, but, in fact, is the only means of Salvation.

The expositor says: "When man duly takes his place as one possessing no title whatsoever to life — when he fully recognizes God's claims upon him, then the Divine record is, 'I have given you the life to make an Atonement for your soul.' Yes, Atonement is God's gift to man; and be it carefully noted that this Atonement is in the Blood, and only in the Blood, and we speak of the Blood of Christ. It is not the Blood and something else. The Word is most explicit. It attributes Atonement exclusively to the Blood"

[Heb. 9:22; Eph. 1:7; Col. 1:14; I Jn. 1:6; Rev., Chpt. 12].)

[12] Therefore I said unto the Children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger who sojourns among you eat blood.

[13] And whatsoever man there be of the Children of Israel, or of the strangers (Gentiles) who sojourn among you, which hunts and catches any beast or fowl that may be eaten; he shall even pour out the blood thereof, and cover it with dust.

[14] For it is the life of all flesh; the blood of it is for the life thereof: therefore I said unto the Children of Israel, You shall eat the blood of no manner of flesh: for the life of all flesh is the blood thereof: whosoever eats it shall be cut off (considering the sternness of the warnings given, and considering that this prohibition, as stated, was carried over as well into the New Covenant, we should realize how significant these words are, and how so very much the Lord means exactly what He says; for Him to say something one time is of extreme significance, for Him to say it two times, and even three or more, the point should be well taken).

[15] And every soul who eats that which died of itself, or that which was torn with beasts, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger (Gentile), he shall both wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening: then shall he be clean.

[16] But if he wash them not, nor bathe his flesh; then he shall bear his iniquity (the problem of the human race is that it does not take the Word of God very seriously, or does not consider it at all; but let all understand, there are consequences, severe consequences, to ignoring the Word of God).

CHAPTER 18

(1490 B.C.)

INCEST FORBIDDEN

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Speak unto the Children of Israel, and say unto them, I am the LORD your God. (In this Chapter, we will have revealed to us the Character of God, and the character of man. We will see that the character of man is desperately evil. This is the condition of man without God, and, as is painfully obvious, none are excluded.)

[3] After the doings of the land of Egypt, wherein you dwelt, shall you not do: and after the doings of the land of Canaan, where I will bring you, shall you not do: neither shall you walk in their ordinances. (The expositors say, "It was not, by any means, the judgment of an Israelite in opposition to the judgment of an Egyptian or of a Canaanite; but it was the Judgment of God above all. Egypt might have her practices and her opinions, and so might Canaan; but Israel was to have the opinions and practices laid down in the Word of God, even as we shall see in the next two Verses.")

[4] You shall do My Judgments, and keep My Ordinances, to walk therein: I am the LORD your God (the Word of the Lord must always be the criteria for all things).

[5] You shall therefore keep My Statutes, and My Judgments: which if a man do, he shall live in them: I am the LORD. (Our life and living must always be based strictly upon the Word. And as we learn the Word, we will find that the short phrase, "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified," is the story of the Word, meaning that the Cross is the provision for all, and the only provision for all.)

6 None of you shall approach to any who is near of kin to him, to uncover their nakedness: I am the LORD (incest is forbidden).

7 The nakedness of your father, or the nakedness of your mother, shall you not uncover: she is your mother; you shall not uncover her nakedness.

8 The nakedness of your father's wife shall you not uncover: it is your father's nakedness.

9 The nakedness of your sister, the daughter of your father, or daughter of your mother, whether she be born at home, or born abroad, even their nakedness you shall not uncover.

10 The nakedness of your son's daughter, or of your daughter's daughter, even their nakedness you shall not uncover: for their's is your own nakedness.

11 The nakedness of your father's wife's daughter, begotten of your father, she is your sister, you shall not uncover her nakedness.

12 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's sister: she is your father's near kinswoman.

13 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister: for she is your mother's near kinswoman.

14 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's brother, you shall not approach to his wife: she is your aunt.

15 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law: she is your son's wife; you shall not uncover her nakedness.

16 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your brother's wife: it is your brother's nakedness.

17 You shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, neither shall you take her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; for they are her near kinswomen: it is wickedness.

18 Neither shall you take a wife to her sister, to vex her, to uncover her nakedness, beside the other in her life time. (The word "nakedness" refers to sexual intercourse, whether in the bonds of incestuous marriage, which marriage would be sinful, or outside of the bonds of marriage, which would be fornication. Concerning these things, Pulpit says, "Verses 6 through 19 contain the law of incest, or the prohibited degrees of marriage. The positive law of marriage, as implanted in the human heart, would be simply that any man of full age might marry any woman of full age, provided that both parties were willing. But this liberty is at once controlled by a number of restrictions, the main purpose of which is to prevent incest, which, however much one nation may come to be indifferent to one form of it, and other to another, is yet abhorrent to the feelings and principles of mankind. The Hebrew restrictive law is contained in one Verse, 'None of you shall approach to any who is near of kin to him, to uncover their nakedness: I am the LORD.'

"In fact, all these Verses are simply an amplification and an explanation of the words, 'near of kin to him.'")

IMMORALITY

19 Also you shall not approach unto a woman to uncover her nakedness, as long as she is put apart for her uncleanness (refers to a woman's monthly period).

20 Moreover you shall not lie carnally with your neighbour's wife, to defile yourself with her (the prohibition against adultery).

21 And you shall not let any of your seed pass through the fire to Molech (this was the so-called deity associated with Ammon, which was a neighbor of Israel [I Ki. 11:7]; this idol was called "the abomination of the Ammonites," and was associated with the sacrifice of children in the fire [Lev. 20:2-5; II Ki. 17:31; 23:10; Jer. 32:35]; "Molech" is also sometimes called "Milcom"), neither shall you profane the Name of your God: I am the LORD. (The idea is that under no circumstances were children to be offered up to Idols in sacrifice, which was the abominable habit of the heathen, and actually world-wide in scope.)

22 You shall not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination (proclaims the terrible sin of the abomination of homosexuality; whatever man says, God says it is an abomination; God help America to see the awfulness of homosexual marriages).

23 Neither shall you lie with any beast to defile yourself therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is confusion. (Concerning this sin, Ellicott says: "The necessity for the prohibition of this shocking crime, for which the Mosaic Law enacts the penalty of death [Lev. 20:15-16; Ex. 22:18], will appear all the more important when it is borne in mind that this degrading practice actually formed a part of the religious worship of the Egyptians in connection with the goat deities. In other words, the Israelites were very familiar with this perversion, having lived in Egypt for so long."

It is said that the disease of syphilis originated with men cohabiting with sheep.)

WARNINGS

24 Defile not ye yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you:

25 And the land is defiled: therefore I do visit the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land itself vomits out her inhabitants. (From the creation, the Earth itself shared in the punishment of man's guilt [Gen. 3:17], and, at the restitution of all things, she is to participate in man's restoration [Rom. 8:19-22]. The physical condition of the land, therefore, at least after a measure, depends on the moral conduct of man. That's the reason that most nations cannot feed themselves. And what little true Christianity there is in America is the reason for the abundant harvests; however, we are fastly losing what little Christianity we presently have, and that points to a dire future.)

[26] You shall therefore keep My Statutes and My Judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations (obey the Word of the Lord); neither any of your own nation, nor any stranger who sojourns among you (don't allow the heathen to practice their abominations in the land of Israel; God help America in the opening of her arms to the abominable religion of Islam):

[27] (For all these abominations have the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled;) (in other words, that's the reason I'm going to dispel the Canaanites who presently occupy the land of Canaan, and give it to you).

[28] That the land spue not you out also, when you defile it, as it spued out the nations that were before you (in other words, if you ignore My Word, I will vomit you out, even though you are My chosen people, just as I vomited out the heathen; and that's exactly what happened).

[29] For whosoever shall commit any of these abominations, even the souls who commit them shall be cut off from among their people (the warning is given).

[30] Therefore shall you keep My Ordinance, that you commit not any one of these abominable customs, which were committed before you, and that you defile not yourselves therein: I am the LORD your God. (The last phrase lends a weight to these Commandments that is beyond compare. His Word better be heeded, now as well as then.)

CHAPTER 19

(1490 B.C.)

HOLINESS

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Speak unto all the congregation of the Children of Israel, and say unto them, You shall be holy: for I the LORD your God am Holy. (Before the Cross, Israelites were severely limited in their ability to keep the Word of God. It was because animal blood was insufficient to take away the sin of man; consequently, the Holy Spirit, without Whose help Holiness cannot be perfected, was severely limited. After the Cross, which addressed in totality the sin debt, taking it all away, the Holy Spirit can now abide permanently within the hearts and lives of Believers, and will help us to live holy, providing our faith is ever placed in Christ and the Cross [Jn. 14:16-17; 16:7-14; Rom. 8:1-2, 11].)

HONOR PARENTS; KEEP THE SABBATH

[3] You shall fear every man his mother, and his father (render due honor to parents), and keep My Sabbaths: I am the LORD your God (the Sabbath in the Old Testament was a type of the "rest" which would be had in Christ when He came; trusting Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross constitutes, presently, the keeping of Sabbaths; since the Cross, the word "Sabbath" has nothing to do with a day or time, but rather Christ).

IDOLATRY

[4] Turn you not unto idols, nor make to yourselves molten gods: I am the LORD your God. (Anything presently which adds to "Christ and Him Crucified," or ignores it altogether, is idolatry. In fact, religion is the greatest idol of all.)

THE PEACE OFFERING

5 And if you offer a Sacrifice of Peace Offerings unto the LORD, you shall offer it at your own will (could include a lamb, a goat, or a bullock [Lev., Chpt. 3]. It signified that peace had been restored between this particular individual who had brought the Offering and God. The phrase, "You shall offer it at your own will," would have been better translated, "You shall offer it for your acceptance." If the Offering was accepted, the offerer was accepted as well, because the Offering was a Type of Christ).

6 It shall be eaten the same day you offer it, and on the morrow: and if ought remain until the third day, it shall be burnt in the fire. (All the Offering was to be consumed in the allotted time, which typified Christ being totally accepted. Some of the Offering being left over for the third day, or even later, in essence, said that Christ was not being accepted totally in that which He did for us, which, in fact, pertains to the Cross.)

7 And if it be eaten at all on the third day, it is abominable; it shall not be accepted (as stated, if the Offering was rejected by God, then the offerer was rejected, as well; Cain is a perfect example of this [Gen., Chpt. 4]).

8 Therefore everyone who eats it (eats it after the second day) shall bear his iniquity *(shall be held responsible by God for sinning), because he has profaned the hallowed thing of the LORD *(because it pointed strictly to Christ): and that soul shall be cut off from among his people (if he does not repent).

LAW OF GLEANINGS

9 And when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap the corners of your field, neither shall you gather the gleanings of your harvest.

10 And you shall not glean your vineyard, neither shall you gather every grape of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and stranger: I am the LORD your God (the object of this Law is to inculcate a general spirit of mercy, which is willing to give up its own exact rights in kindness to others suffering from want; it is to be done in the spirit of Christ, Who has given us everything, in fact, the greatest gift of all, Salvation purchased at great price; this means that presently our spirit, attitude, and personality must always be in the capacity of the spirit of the Cross).

PROHIBITIONS

11 You shall not steal, neither deal falsely (the Eighth Commandment), neither lie one to another (the Ninth Commandment [Ex., Chpt. 20]).

12 And you shall not swear by My Name falsely, neither shall you profane the Name of your God: I am the LORD (the Third Commandment).

OPPRESSION

13 You shall not defraud your neighbour, neither rob him: the wages of him who is hired shall not abide with you all night until the morning (in other words, common laborers were to be paid each day at the end of the day, because their needs were great).

14 You shall not curse the deaf, nor put a stumblingblock before the blind, but shall fear your God: I am the LORD (all who were handicapped were to be treated with the deepest compassion).

15 You shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: you shall not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shall you judge your neighbour (the poor must not be allowed to break the Law because they are poor, and the rich must not be allowed to break the Law because they are rich; all are to be treated, as it regards the Law, equally).

FALSE WITNESS

16 You shall not go up and down as a talebearer among your people (would have been better translated, "You shall not go about slandering"): neither shall you stand against the blood of your neighbour; I am the LORD (refers to the fact of lying against a fellowman, which could cause his death; the short phrase, "I am the LORD," in effect says if this be done, the Lord will have vengeance on the perpetrator [Rom. 12:18-19]).

LOVE

17 You shall not hate your brother in your heart: you shall in any wise rebuke your neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him (Jesus addressed this in Matthew 18:15-17).

18 You shall not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of your people, but you shall love your neighbour as yourself: I am the LORD (fulfills the second half of the entirety of the Ten Commandments).

SEPARATION

19 You shall keep My Statutes. You shall not let your cattle gender with a diverse kind: you shall not sow your field with mingled seed: neither shall a garment mingled of linen and wool come upon you. (The spiritual application of this Passage presently has to do with the mixing of false doctrine with the True. Paul said: "You cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils" [I Cor. 10:21]. Hooker says: "He cannot love the Lord Jesus with all his heart who lends one ear to His Apostles and another to false teachers.")

SEXUAL ACTIVITY

20 And whosoever lies carnally with a woman (sexual intercourse), who is a bondmaid (a slave, or else a woman who was working in a certain household for a period of time in order to pay off a debt), betrothed to an husband (engaged to be married to someone else), and not at all redeemed, nor freedom given her; she shall be scourged (for committing this act); they shall not be put to death (the man and the woman), because she was not free (the death penalty was not demanded because she was not free to make a choice; but yet, she was still guilty, so scourging was required).

[21] And he shall bring his Trespass Offering unto the LORD (the man has sinned against the woman), unto the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation, even a ram for a Trespass Offering (thereby suffering the expense of doing such, which was the punishment for the man committing this sin).

[22] And the Priest shall make an Atonement for him with the ram of the Trespass Offering before the LORD for his sin which he has done: and the sin which he has done shall be forgiven him (the basic idea of this prohibition concerns itself not so much with the sin of adultery as it does cohabiting with someone who is engaged to be married to another; adultery is forbidden in any case, but the sin compounds itself, if committed with one who is engaged to be married to someone else).

FRUIT

[23] And when you shall come into the land, and shall have planted all manner of trees for food, then you shall count the fruit thereof as uncircumcised: three years shall it be as uncircumcised unto you: it shall not be eaten of. (It is said that fruit trees yield better fruit afterwards if the blossoms be nipped off ["circumcised"] during the earliest years. It is even said that the fruit of the first year is unwholesome.)

[24] But in the fourth year all the fruit thereof shall be holy to praise the LORD withal. (In the fourth year, the fruit was to be dedicated to the Lord. It was offered up to Him with songs of praise; perhaps with festival songs, as in that seen in the vineyards of Shiloh [Judg. 21:19-21].)

[25] And in the fifth year shall you eat of the fruit thereof, that it may yield unto you the increase thereof: I am the LORD your God. (This entire precept was in some way a memorial of the "forbidden tree of paradise." Every fruit tree was to stand unused for three years, as a test of obedience. Every stranger saw, in Israel's orchards and vineyards, proof of their obedience to their supreme Lord — a witness for Him. And what a solemn shadow they cast over the fallen sons of Adam there, reminding them of the first father's sin. As well, "five" is God's number of Grace. As fruit was allowed to develop, likewise, Believers are to develop in the Lord, and can do so only by the Grace of God [Jn. 15:1-8].)

PAGAN PRACTICES

26 You shall not eat anything with the blood *(blood was not to be eaten, and, in fact, was, in a sense, to be held sacred): neither shall you use enchantment, nor observe times (any type of superstition was to be avoided).

27 You shall not round the corners of your heads, neither shall you mar the corners of your beard (all had to do with superstition, and must not be engaged by God's people).

28 You shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you: I am the LORD. (Pagans were accustomed to making small incisions in their physical bodies, or to putting marks upon their flesh as a sign of mourning for their loved ones who had recently died. But the Lord forbade anything of this nature among His people.

The incision represented a separation and, in fact, an eternal separation, in the minds of the pagans. In essence, by the Lord commanding His people to not engage in such activities, He, in effect, was telling them that death, that is if they would faithfully serve Him, did not end it all. In other words, if their loved ones had been in the Covenant, and had Faith in the Covenant, and the ones living continued to have Faith in the Covenant, they would see each other again.)

PROSTITUTION

29 Do not prostitute your daughter, to cause her to be a whore; lest the land fall to whoredom, and the land become full of wickedness. (This refers to the worship of heathen gods, which demanded temple prostitutes, and which was common among the heathen. Israel must not engage in such.

As well, all adultery and fornication were a violation of the Second and the Seventh Commandments [Ex. 20:4, 14]. In fact, there must be no form of sexual immorality among God's people. The people of the Lord must be clean physically and morally.)

THE SABBATH AND THE SANCTUARY

30 You shall keep My Sabbaths (the Sabbath was not actually a day of worship, but rather a day of "rest"; it was so important, because it pictured in type the "rest" which would be afforded by Christ when He would come; so when a Christian presently serves the Lord, he has entered into His "rest" and, by doing this, is, at the same time, keeping the Sabbath — a Spiritual Sabbath [Mat. 11:28-30]), and reverence My Sanc tuary: I am the LORD (then it referred to a Tabernacle or Temple; now it refers to the physical body and mind [I Cor. 3:16; Rom. 12:1-2]).

THE OCCULT

31 Regard not them who have familiar spirits (a "familiar spirit" is a demon spirit that is invisible, which possesses the individual, and helps that person relate certain things to those who seek counsel and advice), neither seek after wizards, to be defiled by them (functions in the occult, pretending to tell the people answers to their questions): I am the LORD your God (we as Believers are to have no association with such works of darkness; we are to be led strictly by the Holy Spirit [Jn. 16:13-15]).

HONOR

32 You shall rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and fear your God: I am the LORD (respect is to be shown to the aged; however, it goes deeper here than that; it refers to one who, by experience and age, has great knowledge of the Lord and God's Word; they are to be deeply respected for that knowledge).

OPPRESSION

33 And if a stranger sojourn with you in your land, you shall not vex him (pertains to a Gentile who had willingly come under the Covenant of Abraham).

34 But the stranger who dwells with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and you shall love him as yourself; for you were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God (a proselyte was to be treated exactly as another Jew).

INJUSTICE

35 You shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in meteyard, in weight, or in measure (portrays honesty in all things).

36 Just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin, shall you have: I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt (as well, as modern Believers we are to look at these commands as presently being incumbent upon us, just as they were upon Israel).

37 Therefore shall you observe all My Statutes, and all My Judgments, and do them: I am the LORD (the Lord didn't say that Israel was to observe some of His Statutes and Commandments, but rather all of them).

CHAPTER 20

(1490 B.C.)

SEVERE PENALTIES

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying (the constant use of this statement proclaims that all of this is the Word of the Lord and, therefore, must not be changed in any manner, and must be adhered to strictly),

[2] Again, you shall say to the Children of Israel, Whosoever he be of the Children of Israel, or of the strangers (Gentiles) who sojourn in Israel, who gives any of his seed (his children) unto Molech (as stated, the Ammonite god); he shall surely be put to death: the people of the land shall stone him with stones (this particular sin was looked at as a capital crime, which, if continued, would destroy Israel, which sadly it ultimately did; its penalty was death by stoning).

[3] And I will set My face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people (if he does not repent, he will be eternally lost); because he has given of his seed unto Molech, to defile My Sanctuary, and to profane My Holy Name (under the New Covenant, the Sanctuary of the Lord is the physical body and mind of the Believer; idolatry, which this is, and which presently stands for anything in which one places one's faith other than Christ and the Cross, will ultimately bring destruction on the individual, if Repentance is not forthcoming [I Cor. 3:16-17]).

[4] And if the people of the land do any ways hide their eyes from the man, when he gives of his seed unto Molech, and kill him not:

[5] Then I will set My face against that man, and against his family, and will cut him off, and all that go a whoring after him, to commit whoredom with Molech, from among their people (the present meaning is that if a true Preacher of the Gospel does not stand up against false doctrine, God will ultimately visit such a Preacher with judgment, with the possibility being that he could definitely lose his soul [Ezek. 3:17-21]).

THE OCCULT

[6] And the soul who turns after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go whoring after them, I will even set My face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people (presently, any direction that's not "Christ and Him Crucified" falls, in one way or the other, into occultism, irrespective of the religious face it carries [I Cor. 1:17-18, 23; 2:2]).

HOLINESS

[7] Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be ye holy: for I am the LORD your God.

[8] And you shall keep My Statutes, and do them: I am the LORD which sanctify you (Israel could "sanctify themselves" only by trying to obey the Lord; if their hearts were in the Word, and their Faith was anchored in what the Sacrifices represented, namely the coming Redeemer, on that basis the Lord would sanctify them, but only on that basis [Lev. 9:22-24]).

PARENTAL DISRESPECT

[9] For every one who curses his father or his mother shall be surely put to death: he has cursed his father or his mother; his blood shall be upon him (death for cursing one's parents may seem harsh; however, Israel was being prepared to bring the Messiah into the world; consequently, great restrictions were placed upon them, for the obvious reasons; Godly parents were to be looked at as a symbol of God; in other words, if children would curse their parents, they would as well curse God, for the former symbolized the latter).

DEATH FOR ADULTERY

10 And the man who commits adultery with another man's wife, even he who commits adultery with his neighbour's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death (these penalties are not carried over into the New Covenant; but let the Reader understand that while adultery may not bring on physical death under the New Covenant, it definitely will bring on spiritual death, that is, if one continues such a course, thereby refusing to repent).

DEATH FOR INCEST

11 And the man who lies with his father's wife has uncovered his father's nakedness: both of them shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

12 And if a man lie with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death: they have wrought confusion; their blood shall be upon them (the idea of the statement, "their blood shall be upon them," pertains to the fact that the penalty for the crime is the fault of the perpetrator).

DEATH FOR HOMOSEXUALITY

13 If a man also lie with mankind, as he lies with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them (the Lord speaks here of homosexuality as "an abomination"; the word "Abomination," in the Hebrew, is "towebah," and means "something disgusting, an abhorrence").

DEATH FOR INCEST

14 And if a man take a wife and her mother, it is wickedness: they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they; that there be no wickedness among you (the necessity of the Lord having to give these Commands and Warnings portrays to us the glaring fact of man's total depravity).

DEATH FOR BESTIALITY

15 And if a man lie (engage in intercourse) with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and you shall kill the beast.

16 And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie down thereto, you shall kill the woman, and the beast: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

DEATH FOR OTHER SEXUAL SINS

17 And if a man shall take his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness; it is a wicked thing; and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people: he has uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity.

18 And if a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness (monthly period), and shall uncover her nakedness; he has discovered her fountain, and she has uncovered the fountain of her blood: and both of them shall be cut off from among their people (the monthly discharge of the feminine gender speaks of impurity, and harks back to the original sin of Eve; to engage in intercourse at such a time, in essence, was a denial of the Fall and its cause; due to Christ and what He did at the Cross, this particular prohibition no longer applies, at least in the sense that it did before the Cross; nevertheless, it still should be held to in principle, and for all the obvious reasons).

19 And you shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister, nor of your father's sister: for he uncovers his near kin: they shall bear their iniquity (all of this, as is obvious, pertains to incest, which was common among the surrounding nations).

20 And if a man shall lie with his uncle's wife, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness: they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless (which was a great reproach).

21 And if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing: he has uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.

COMMANDS

[22] You shall therefore keep all My Statutes, and all My Judgments, and do them: that the land, where I bring you to dwell therein, spue you not out (the Commands of the Lord were to be the guiding structure of Israel, and not the ways of the heathen nations which surrounded them; it is the same presently under the New Covenant).

[23] And you shall not walk in the manners of the nation, which I cast out before you: for they committed all these things, and therefore I abhorred them (God hates sin, wherever it is found).

[24] But I have said unto you, You shall inherit their land, and I will give it unto you to possess it, a land that flows with milk and honey: I am the LORD your God, which have separated you from other people (this is carried over into the New Covenant, as well, with the Holy Spirit, through Paul, stating basically the same thing [II Cor. 6:14-18]; the Lord here plainly says that one cannot at the same time have "milk and honey" and "sin").

[25] You shall therefore put difference between clean beasts and unclean, and between unclean fowls and clean: and you shall not make your souls abominable by beast, or by fowl, or by any manner of living thing that creeps on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean (certain prohibitions were leveled against Israel that are not carried over into the New Covenant, because Israel was to be the womb of the Messiah, so to speak).

[26] And you shall be holy unto Me: for I the LORD am holy, and have severed you from other people, that you should be Mine (Israel was to belong to the Lord, and to belong to the Lord exclusively; it is the same with Believers presently).

MEDIUMS AND WIZARDS

[27] A man also or woman who has a familiar spirit, or who is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones: their blood shall be upon them (the greater gist of this Verse is that Israel look exclusively to the Lord for leading and guidance, and not to other means, especially the means of the powers of darkness).

CHAPTER 21

(1490 B.C.)

HOLINESS

[1] And the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto the Priests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, There shall none be defiled for the dead among his people:

[2] But for his kin, that is near unto him, that is, for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother,

[3] And for his sister a virgin, who is near unto him, which has had no husband; for her may he be defiled (it meant that the Priests were not to touch a dead body, with the exception of their close relatives; both physical and spiritual death are the result of sin, hence this prohibition).

[4] But he shall not defile himself, being a chief man among his people, to profane himself (Chapters 21 and 22, with great detail, portray the Divine requirements in reference to those who are Priests unto God).

[5] They shall not make baldness upon their head, neither shall they shave off the corner of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh (the heathen did this whenever a loved one died, etc.).

[6] They shall be holy unto their God, and not profane the Name of their God: for the Offerings of the LORD made by fire, and the bread of their God, they do offer: therefore they shall be holy (in effect, they portrayed Christ and the Cross).

[7] They shall not take a wife who is a whore, or profane; neither shall they take a woman put away from her husband (divorced): for he is holy unto his God.

8 You shall sanctify him therefore; for he offers the bread of your God: he shall be holy unto you: for I the LORD, which sanctify you, am holy.

9 And the daughter of any Priest, if she profane herself by playing the whore, she profanes her father: she shall be burnt with fire.

THE HIGH PRIEST

10 And he who is the High Priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured, and who is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not uncover his head, nor rend his clothes (the instructions now shift from what we might refer to as ordinary Priests to the High Priest; even if a loved one died, he was not to alter his appearance at all);

11 Neither shall he go in to any dead body, nor defile himself for his father, or for his mother;

12 Neither shall he go out of the Sanctuary, nor profane the Sanctuary of his God (even if he hears of the death of a near relative, whatever duties he is performing in the Sanctuary must not be stopped); for the crown of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the LORD.

13 And he shall take a wife in her virginity.

14 A widow, or a divorced woman, or profane, or an harlot, these shall he not take: but he shall take a virgin of his own people to wife (whereas it seems that an ordinary Priest could marry a widow, the High Priest could only marry a virgin).

15 Neither shall he profane his seed among his people: for I the LORD do sanctify him (when the father who was High Priest died, his oldest son was to be the next High Priest; so they were to prepare from the time they were children; they were to live a sanctified life).

NO BLEMISH

16 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

17 Speak unto Aaron, saying, Whosoever he be of your seed in their generations who has any blemish, let him not approach to offer the bread of his God (that Holiness becomes God's House forever is true in all periods of time; God demanded an unblemished Priest and an unblemished Sacrifice; such was Christ as Priest and Sacrifice).

18 For whatsoever man he be who has a blemish, he shall not approach: a blind man, or a lame, or he who has a flat nose, or anything superfluous (exceeding what is sufficient or necessary),

19 Or a man who is brokenfooted, or brokenhanded,

20 Or crookbackt, or a dwarf, or who has a blemish in his eye, or be scurvy, or scabbed, or has his stones (testicles) broken;

21 No man who has a blemish of the seed of Aaron the Priest shall come near to offer the Offerings of the LORD made by fire: he has a blemish; he shall not come near to offer the bread of his God.

22 He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the most holy (Sin Offering, Trespass Offering, and Meat Offering), and of the holy (Whole Burnt Offering and Peace Offering; the Law forbade a Priest who was physically imperfect to exercise his office; however, Grace furnished him his daily bread; in other words, if he was blemished in some way, he could still serve as a Priest, but could only attend certain duties).

23 Only he shall not go in unto the Veil, nor come near unto the Altar (he could not offer Sacrifices), because he has a blemish; that he profane not My Sanctuaries: for I the LORD do sanctify them.

24 And Moses told it unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the Children of Israel.

CHAPTER 22

(1490 B.C.)

THE HOLINESS OF OFFERINGS

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, that they separate themselves from the holy things of the Children of Israel, and that they profane not My Holy Name in those things which they hallow unto Me: I am the LORD (as the last Chapter concluded with the command to disqualify certain Priests to offer Sacrifices, this Chapter opens with conditions under which even the legally qualified Priests must not partake of the Offerings).

[3] Say unto them, Whosoever he be of all your seed among your generations, who goes unto the holy things, which the Children of Israel hallow unto the LORD (pertains to the Priests eating certain of the Sacrifices, which they were required to do), having his uncleanness upon him (meaning that he had defiled himself in some way, or was defiled through no fault of his own), that soul shall be cut off from My Presence: I am the LORD (in the case of defilement, for whatever reason, the Priest was to undergo purification before he could once again partake of the Sacrifices; to fail to do so could cause the loss of his soul).

[4] What man soever of the seed of Aaron (a Priest) is a leper, or has a running issue; he shall not eat of the holy things (the Sacrifices), until he be clean (has been purified). And whoso touches anything that is unclean by the dead, or a man whose seed goes from him (masturbation)**;

[5] Or whosoever touches any creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatsoever uncleanness he has;

6 The soul which has touched any such shall be unclean until evening (continues to speak of Priests), and shall not eat of the holy things (the Sacrifices), unless he wash his flesh with water (the purification process).

7 And when the sun is down, he shall be clean, and shall afterward eat of the holy things; because it is his food.

8 That which dies of itself, or is torn with beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith; I am the LORD.

9 They shall therefore keep My Ordinance, lest they bear sin for it, and die therefore, if they profane it: I the LORD do sanctify them. (Mackintosh says: "Had they to be warned against unholy contact? So have we. Had they to be warned against unholy alliance? So have we. Had they to be warned against all manner of ceremonial uncleanliness? So have we to be warned against 'all filthiness of the flesh and spirit' [II Cor. 7:1]. Were they shorn of many of their loftiest Priestly privileges by bodily blemish and imperfect natural growth? So are we by moral blemish and imperfect spiritual growth.")

MORE INSTRUCTIONS

10 There shall no stranger (Gentile) eat of the holy thing: a sojourner of the Priest, or an hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing (cannot partake of the Sacrifices).

11 But if the Priest buy any soul with his money (servant), he shall eat of it, and he who is born in his house: they shall eat of his meat (meaning that these members of his family can partake of the Sacrifices, as well).

12 If the Priest's daughter also be married unto a stranger (Gentile), she may not eat of an Offering of the holy things.

13 But if the Priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is returned unto her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's meat: but there shall be no stranger (Gentile) eat thereof.

14 And if a man (someone in the house of the Priest) eat of the holy thing (Sacrifices) unwittingly (not knowing that it is a part of a Sacrifice), then he shall put the fifth part thereof unto it (20 percent of what it's worth in money), and shall give it unto the Priest with the holy thing (with the remainder of the Sacrifice).

15 And they shall not profane the holy things of the Children of Israel, which they offer unto the LORD;

16 Or suffer them to bear the iniquity of trespass, when they eat their holy things: for I the LORD do sanctify them.

LAWS

17 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

18 Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the Children of Israel, and say unto them, Whatsoever he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel (Gentile proselytes), who will offer his oblation for all his vows, and for all his freewill Offerings, which they will offer unto the LORD for a Burnt Offering;

19 You shall offer at your own will a male without blemish, of the beeves, of the sheep, or of the goats (speaks of people offering Sacrifices).

20 But whatsoever has a blemish, that shall you not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you.

21 And whosoever offers a Sacrifice of Peace Offerings unto the LORD to accomplish his vow, or a freewill offering in beeves or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein (these Sacrifices represented Christ; therefore, they must be perfect; the temptation was always there to offer a sickly animal, because it wasn't worth much anyway).

22 Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a wen, or scurvy, or scabbed, you shall not offer these unto the LORD, nor make an Offering by fire of them upon the Altar unto the LORD.

[23] Either a bullock or a lamb that has anything superfluous or lacking in his parts, that may you offer for a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

[24] You shall not offer unto the LORD that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut; neither shall you make any offering thereof in your land.

[25] Neither from a stranger's (Gentile's) hand shall you offer the bread of your God of any of these; because their corruption is in them, and blemishes be in them: they shall not be accepted for you.

INSTRUCTIONS

[26] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[27] When a bullock, or a sheep, or a goat, is brought forth, then it shall be seven days under the dam (its mother); and from the eighth day (eight days old) and thenceforth it shall be accepted for an Offering made by fire unto the LORD.

[28] And whether it be cow, or ewe, you shall not kill it and her young both in one day.

[29] And when you will offer a Sacrifice of Thanksgiving unto the LORD, offer it at your own will.

[30] On the same day it shall be eaten up (a Thanksgiving Offering, consisting of bread); you shall leave none of it until the morrow (represents the fact that Christ must be accepted totally): I am the LORD.

[31] Therefore shall you keep My Commandments, and do them: I am the LORD.

[32] Neither shall you profane My Holy Name; but I will be hallowed among the Children of Israel: I am the LORD which hallow you,

33 That brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD. (All of this typifies Christ and what He would do at the Cross, as it regards the Redemption of lost humanity. That's the reason the instructions were so minute, so delicate, so detailed.)

CHAPTER 23

(1490 B.C.)

THE FEASTS

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Speak unto the Children of Israel, and say unto them, Concerning the Feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are My Feasts. (Israel's sacred year contained one weekly and seven annual Feasts, but the annual Feasts were related to the weekly Feast. The weekly Feast was the Sabbath; the seven annual Feasts were: Passover, Unleavened Bread, Firstfruits, Pentecost, Trumpets, Atonement, and Tabernacles. All proclaimed the Work of Christ in the Plan of Redemption, in some fashion.)

[3] Six days shall work be done: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of rest, an holy convocation; you shall do no work therein: it is the Sabbath of the LORD in all your dwellings (the Feast of the Sabbath stood apart as being God's rest; it was a Prophecy and a Promise of the rest in Christ that remained to the people of God, which we presently enjoy; in other words, whereas the Sabbath then was a day, now it is a Person, the Lord Jesus Christ; acceptance of Him and resting in Him presently constitute the keeping of the Sabbath).

PASSOVER

[4] These are the Feasts of the LORD, even holy convocations, which you shall proclaim in their seasons.

[5] In the fourteenth day of the first month at evening is the LORD's Passover (the words "at evening" should read "between the evenings," i.e., at any time from sunset of one day to sunset of the next; "Passover" figures Redemption, as carried out by our Lord).

UNLEAVENED BREAD

6 And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread unto the LORD: seven days you must eat Unleavened Bread.

7 In the first day you shall have an holy convocation: you shall do no servile work therein.

8 But you shall offer an Offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days: in the seventh day is an holy convocation: you shall do no servile work therein. (Unleavened Bread figured the perfect, unspotted, unsullied life of Christ, which was offered up in Sacrifice. On the first and seventh day no work was to be done, signifying that Salvation is not by works [Eph. 2:8-9]. Let all understand that we can know nothing of "rest," nothing of "holiness," and nothing of "fellowship," save on the ground of the death of Christ. It is peculiarly striking, significant, and beautiful to observe that directly God's rest is spoken of, and we speak of the Sabbath in Verse 3, the next thing introduced is the blood of the paschal lamb, symbolizing the Crucifixion of Christ.)

FIRSTFRUITS

9 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the Children of Israel, and say unto them, When you be come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then you shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest unto the Priest:

11 And he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD, to be accepted for you: on the morrow after the Sabbath the Priest shall wave it (the sheaf of Firstfruits was to be waved on the day after the Sabbath; that was the day that Christ rose from the grave; no Sin Offering accompanied the sheaf, for Jesus was sinless).

12 And you shall offer that day when you wave the sheaf an he lamb without blemish of the first year for a Burnt Offering unto the LORD (signifying the perfection of Christ given to believing man).

13 And the Meat Offering thereof shall be two tenth deals of fine flour (signified the Perfect Life of Christ) mingled with oil (the Holy Spirit on and within Christ [Lk. 4:18-19]), an Offering made by fire unto the LORD for a sweet savour (the cakes were to be burned on the Altar, signifying the death of Christ, and that such was pleasing to God): and the Drink Offering thereof shall be of wine, the fourth part of an hin (symbolizing the joy that comes of Salvation, all afforded by Christ).

14 And you shall eat neither bread, nor parched corn, nor green ears, until the selfsame day that you have brought an Offering unto your God: it shall be a Statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings (part of this Offering was to be eaten by the Priests, and part burned on the Altar; "Firstfruits" symbolized the Resurrection of Christ).

PENTECOST

15 And you shall count unto you from the morrow after the Sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the Wave Offering; seven Sabbaths shall be complete (the day after seven complete weeks was the fiftieth day, hence the name "Pentecost," which actually meant, in the Hebrew, "fifty" or "fiftieth"):

16 Even unto the morrow after the seventh Sabbath shall you number fifty days; and you shall offer a new Meat Offering unto the LORD (a Thanksgiving Offering, which contained no flesh, but rather grain).

17 You shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven; they are the Firstfruits unto the LORD (the "leaven" is intended to foreshadow those who, though filled with the Holy Spirit, and adorned with His gifts and graces, have, nevertheless, "evil" dwelling is us; in other words, the sin nature is still in the Child of God [Rom., Chpt. 6]; although the sin nature dwells there, it is not to rule and reign [Rom. 6:12]).

[18] And you shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish of the first year, and one young bullock, and two rams: they shall be for a Burnt Offering unto the LORD, with their Meat Offering, and their Drink Offerings, even an Offering made by fire, of sweet savour unto the LORD.

[19] Then you shall sacrifice one kid of the goats for a Sin Offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of Peace Offerings. (Concerning this, Mackintosh says: "The assembly, on the Day of Pentecost, for this was the day that the Holy Spirit was outpoured, stood in the full value of the Blood of Christ, and was crowned with the Gifts of the Holy Spirit; but there was leaven there also. No power of the Spirit could do away with the fact there was evil dwelling in the people of God. It might be suppressed and kept out of view, but it was there. This fact is foreshadowed in the 'type' by the leaven in the two loaves, and it is set forth in the actual history of the Church; for albeit God the Holy Spirit was present in the assembly, the flesh was there likewise. Flesh is flesh, nor can it ever be made ought else than flesh.

"The Holy Spirit did not come down on the Day of Pentecost to improve nature or to do away with the fact of its incurable evil, but to baptize Believers into one body, and connect them with their Living Head in Heaven.")

[20] And the Priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits for a Wave Offering before the LORD, with the two lambs: they shall be holy to the LORD for the Priest.

[21] And you shall proclaim on the selfsame day, that it may be an holy convocation unto you: you shall do no servile work therein: it shall be a Statute forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations. (The command to do no servile work is repeated ten times in connection with these Feasts. Man's activities were forbidden to intrude themselves into a Salvation which was Divine and perfect. God desired happy redeemed children in his family, not slaves. Pentecost proclaimed Christ as the Baptizer with the Holy Spirit, all made possible by the Cross.)

22 And when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not make clean riddance of the corners of your field when you reap, neither shall you gather any gleaning of your harvest: you shall leave them unto the poor, and to the stranger (Gentiles): I am the LORD your God (this Verse proclaims God's welfare program; for those who did not own land, and found themselves on hard times, they, according to the Law, could reap the corners of the fields, and thereby obtain grain that they could use for food).

TRUMPETS

23 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

24 Speak unto the Children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, shall you have a Sabbath, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, an holy convocation (the Feast of Trumpets pertains both to the Church and to Israel; it speaks, first of all, to the Church, which will signal the Rapture, and thereby the close of the Church Age; but the same trumpets which signal the end of the Church will, at the same time, signal the beginning of the restoration of Israel).

25 You shall do no servile work therein: but you shall offer an Offering made by fire unto the LORD.

ATONEMENT

26 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

27 Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of Atonement: it shall be an holy convocation unto you; and you shall afflict your souls, and offer an Offering made by fire unto the LORD (this was the only day in the Jewish year where Israel was ordered to fast; however, it was followed by a great Feast).

28 And you shall do no work in that same day: for it is a day of Atonement, to make an Atonement for you before the LORD your God (this was the one day of the year that the High Priest went into the Holy of Holies to offer up Incense, and blood on the Mercy Seat, all for himself and the entirety of Israel).

29 For whatsoever soul it be that shall not be afflicted in that same day, he shall be cut off from among his people (anyone who refused to "fast," and remained in that frame of mind, could lose their soul).

30 And whatsoever soul it be that does any work in that same day, the same soul will I destroy from among his people (the demand that no work be done on this particular day was meant to portray Salvation by Faith, and not by works [Eph. 2:8-9]).

31 You shall do no manner of work: it shall be a Statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings (until Christ would come, Who, in effect, was the Atonement, which would be brought about on the Cross of Calvary).

32 It shall be unto you a Sabbath of rest, and you shall afflict your souls: in the ninth day of the month at evening, from evening unto evening, shall you celebrate your Sabbath (Israel was to "rest" on this day, typifying the rest that Christ would bring, and which would come to the seeking soul; whereas then it was only one day of rest, typified every week by the Sabbath, now it is a perpetual rest, because all is in Christ [Mat. 11:28-30]).

TABERNACLES

33 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

34 Speak unto the Children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days unto the LORD (this Feast pictures Israel safe in Christ, and enjoying the coming Millennial reign, when she will finally gain her place and position ordained by the Lord so long, long ago, as chief of the nations).

35 On the first day shall be an holy convocation: you shall do no servile work therein (the Feast of Tabernacles took place in the month of October, the time of the fruit harvest; it began some five days after the Great Day of Atonement).

36 Seven days you shall offer an Offering made by fire unto the LORD: on the eighth day shall be an holy convocation unto you; and you shall offer an Offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a solemn assembly; and you shall do no servile work therein.

37 These are the Feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an Offering made by fire unto the LORD, a Burnt Offering, and a Meat Offering, a Sacrifice, and Drink Offerings, everything upon his day (daily Sacrifices):

38 Beside the Sabbaths of the LORD, and beside your gifts, and beside all your vows, and beside all your freewill Offerings, which you give unto the LORD (the Feast of Tabernacle Offerings were to be over and above the regular Offerings, whatever they may have been).

39 Also in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the fruit of the land, you shall keep a Feast unto the LORD seven days: on the first day shall be a Sabbath, and on the eighth day shall be a Sabbath.

40 And you shall take you on the first day the boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days (somewhat like a Campmeeting).

41 And you shall keep it a Feast unto the LORD seven days in the year. It shall be a Statute forever in your generations: you shall celebrate it in the seventh month (as stated, our October).

42 You shall dwell in booths seven days; all who are Israelites born shall dwell in booths:

43 That your generations may know that I made the Children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God (in a sense, this would remind them of their wilderness wanderings).

44 And Moses declared unto the Children of Israel the Feasts of the LORD.

CHAPTER 24

(1490 B.C.)

THE LAMPS

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Command the Children of Israel, that they bring unto you pure oil olive beaten for the light (the "pure oil" represents the Grace of the Holy Spirit, founded upon the Work of Christ, as exhibited by the Lampstand of "beaten gold"), to cause the Lamps to burn continually (the "olive" was pressed to yield "oil," and the gold was "beaten" to form the Lampstand; in other words, the Grace and Light of the Spirit are founded upon the Death of Christ and maintained in clearness and power by the Priesthood of Christ; the lamp burning "continually" refers to the fact that Christ was led perfectly by the Holy Spirit at all times).

[3] Without the Veil of the Testimony, in the Tabernacle of the congregation (in the Holy Place, the first room of the Tabernacle), shall Aaron order it from the evening unto the morning before the LORD continually (the "Lamps" were to be attended by the Priests every morning at 9 a.m., the time of the morning Sacrifice, and every evening at 3 p.m., the time of the evening Sacrifice; at that time, the wicks were to be trimmed, or replaced, and the oil replenished): it shall be a Statute forever in your generations (its fulfillment under the New Covenant pertains to the Holy Spirit abiding in the heart and life of the Believer forever [Jn. 14:16-17]).

[4] He shall order the Lamps upon the pure Candlestick (Lampstand) before the LORD continually (this was a continuous process that demanded attention every morning and every evening, and must not be neglected; it was "before the Lord").

SHEWBREAD

5 And you shall take fine flour (Type of the Perfect Life of Christ), and bake twelve cakes thereof ("twelve" is God's number for Government; however, we must always remember that it's the Government of God, as outlined in God's Word, and not the government of man; this has always been the greatest hindrance to the Work of God; men attempt to change the Government of God by instituting man-devised government, and claiming it to be of God): two tenth deals shall be in one cake (the "cake" represents Christ, and refers to the fact that Government is strictly of Him [Rev. 1:12-16]).

6 And you shall set them in two rows, six on a row (all of this "bread" representing Christ), upon the pure table before the LORD (this "pure table" was covered with "pure gold" that stood before the Lord; "pure frankincense" was to be burned upon the "pure table"; this signifies that all things connected with Jehovah and His worship were to be pure, thus typifying the purity of life and conduct of the worshippers who come before Him).

7 And you shall put pure frankincense (a bitter substance) upon each row (there were two stacks of cakes, six to the stack, with a container of frankincense on top of each stack, continually burning), that it may be on the bread for a memorial (the memory of Christ must be kept alive constantly, which, by and large, pertains to what He did for us at the Cross), even an Offering made by fire unto the LORD (the burning of the frankincense at the top of the stacks made the Shewbread an Offering made by fire unto Jehovah; actually, the loaves were not burned in the fire, for they were to be eaten by the Priests in the Holy Place as the most holy of the Offerings; the "fire" represented judgment, whether the burning out of dross in the lives of Believers [Mat. 3:11], or judgment for sin [Lev. 10:1-2]).

8 Every Sabbath he shall set it in order before the LORD continually (every Sabbath, all twelve loaves of the bread were to be eaten by the Priests, with new loaves taking their place; it was a Type of our partaking of Christ as the Bread of Life [Jn. 6:58]), being taken from the Children of Israel by an Everlasting Covenant (pertains to the fact that every Israelite had to give a half shekel of silver each year, which contributed annually toward the maintenance of the service in the Sanctuary, the securing of ingredients, etc.; "silver" represented Redemption, which is what Christ would bring about as a result of His death on the Cross).

9 And it shall be Aaron's and his sons' *(refers to the entirety of the Priesthood, which were to be in the lineage of Aaron); and they shall eat it (each Sabbath) in the Holy Place *(the first room of the Tabernacle): for it is most holy (because it typified Christ in His Perfection, with that perfection given to Believers, typified by the bread being eaten by the Priests) unto him of the Offerings of the LORD made by fire by a perpetual Statute (all of this was fulfilled in Christ, but it continues to be perpetual in that Believers are to partake of Christ constantly; He is our "rest," typified by the Sabbath).

BLASPHEMY

10 And the son of an Israelitish woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the Children of Israel: and this son of the Israelitish woman and a man of Israel strove together in the camp *(this is a picture, in type, of the nation of Israel itself, represented by the son of the Israelitish woman, who would seek to kill the true man of Israel, the Lord Jesus Christ);

11 And the Israelitish woman's son blasphemed the Name of the Lord and cursed *(the idea is, he cursed God and God's Law). And they brought him unto Moses: (and his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan *[the fact that both her personal and tribal names are so distinctly specified here indicates that the record of this incident is designed to point out the ungodly issue of so unholy an alliance, and to guard the Hebrew women against intermarriage with heathen]:)

12 And they put him in ward *(a jail cell), that the mind of the LORD might be shown them (the subjection of mind that appears in this Verse, and the anxiety to do what God wished, and not to act in the heat of their own judgment, is very gracious — Williams).

THE VERDICT

[13] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[14] Bring forth him who has cursed without the camp; and let all who heard him lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him (physical death under the New Covenant is not now demanded, because Jesus fulfilled the Law in every respect, in effect dying for all; but still, to be sure, spiritual death follows for anyone who takes the Word of God lightly).

[15] And you shall speak unto the Children of Israel, saying, Whosoever curses his God shall bear his sin (shall suffer the consequences).

[16] And he who blasphemes the Name of the Lord, he shall surely be put to death, and all the congregation shall certainly stone him: as well the stranger (Gentile), as he who is born in the land, when he blasphemes the Name of the Lord, shall be put to death.

[17] And he who kills (murders) any man shall surely be put to death.

[18] And he who kills a beast shall make it good; beast for beast (these Laws had already been given and recorded in Exodus, Chapter 21; at least one of the reasons they are repeated is that it must be known that they are applicable alike to the proselyte, the Gentile, and the Israelite).

[19] And if a man cause a blemish in his neighbour; as he has done, so shall it be done to him;

[20] Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth: as he has caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be done to him again (actually, these Laws were seldom carried out; most of the time, a value in money was placed upon the infraction, with it being paid to the victim, that is, if wrong had actually been done).

[21] And he who kills a beast, he shall restore it: and he who kills a man, he shall be put to death.

22 You shall have one manner of Law, as well for the stranger, as for one of your own country: for I am the LORD your God (as previously stated, there must be "one manner of Law," applicable in the same manner for all).

23 And Moses spoke to the Children of Israel, that they should bring forth him who had cursed out of the camp, and stone him with stones. And the Children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 25

(1491 B.C.)

THE SEVENTH YEAR

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses in Mount Sinai, saying,

[2] Speak unto the Children of Israel, and say unto them, When you come into the land which I give you, then shall the land keep a Sabbath unto the LORD.

[3] Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard, and gather in the fruit thereof;

[4] But in the seventh year shall be a Sabbath of rest unto the land, a Sabbath for the LORD: you shall neither sow your field, nor prune your vineyard. (The doctrine of this Chapter is that the people of Israel and the land of Israel belong to Jehovah, and that He, as the Divine Redeemer, has redeemed them both at the expense of His Own Precious Blood — Williams.)

[5] That which grows of its own accord of your harvest you shall not reap, neither gather the grapes of your vine undressed: for it is a year of rest unto the land (once again, this Sabbatical year, coming about every seventh year, symbolized the "rest" found only in Christ [Mat. 11:28-30]).

[6] And the Sabbath of the land shall be meat for you; for you, and for your servant, and for your maid, and for your hired servant, and for your stranger that sojourns with you,

[7] And for your cattle, and for the beast that are in your land, shall all the increase thereof be meat. (Incidentally, in later years, Israel went about 490 years ignoring this Sabbath year, which would total 70 Sabbath years that they ignored the Command of the Lord. In respect to this, the land lay fallow for 70 years, while Israel languished in Babylon. We must understand that God says what He means, and means what He says [26:43].)

YEAR OF JUBILEE

8 And you shall number seven Sabbaths of years unto you, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven Sabbaths of years shall be unto you forty and nine years. (So there was a weekly Sabbath, a seventh year Sabbath, and a fiftieth year Sabbath. The fiftieth year Sabbath would actually entail two years of Sabbatical years in succession. The first one would be the seventh year of the seven year cycle, and the next one would be the fiftieth year, which was the Year of Jubilee.)

9 Then shall you cause the trumpet of the Jubilee to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month *(this is the Year of Jubilee, which came every fiftieth year), in the Day of Atonement shall you make the trumpet sound throughout all your land (the trumpet blowing throughout the land was done on the Great Day of Atonement, which was the first day of the Year of Jubilee).

10 And you shall hallow the fiftieth year *(every fiftieth year was the Year of Jubilee), and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof *(at the beginning of this particular year, every prisoner went free, every debt was cancelled, and all property went back to the original owner; in fact, the Jubilee voided all contracts and released all slaves; it was symbolic of the new beginning which a person experiences when they come to Christ): it shall be a Jubilee (joy) unto you; and you shall return every man unto his possession, and you shall return every man unto his family.

11 A Jubilee shall that fiftieth year be unto you: you shall not sow, neither reap that which grows of itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it of your vine undressed.

12 For it is the Jubilee; it shall be holy unto you (because it represented Christ, Who would set men free by virtue of the Cross): you shall eat the increase thereof out of the field (what grew of its own accord in the Year of Jubilee).

13 In the year of this Jubilee you shall return every man unto his possession (all real property, such as land and houses, was to return to the original owner; so when something was purchased, it was actually only leased until the Year of Jubilee).

14 And if you sell ought unto your neighbour, or buy ought of your neighbour's hand, you shall not oppress one another (if somebody lost their property through foreclosure, it was to come back to them on the Year of Jubilee; this practice stopped much oppression):

15 According to the number of years after the Jubilee you shall buy of your neighbour, and according unto the number of years of the fruits he shall sell unto you (all transactions were judged according to the number of years left before the Year of Jubilee):

16 According to the multitude of years you shall increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years you shall diminish the price of it: for according to the number of the years of the fruits does he sell unto you.

17 You shall not therefore oppress one another; but you shall fear your God: for I am the LORD your God (meaning that the Lord made these Laws, not man!).

18 Wherefore you shall do My Statutes, and keep My Judgments, and do them; and you shall dwell in the land in safety (in other words, the safety of Israel depended on her abiding by the Word of the Lord).

19 And the land shall yield her fruit, and you shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety (all prosperity depended on obedience to the Word of God).

20 And if you shall say, What shall we eat the seventh year? behold, we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase:

[21] Then I will command My Blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years (for the sixth year; for the seventh year, which is to be a Sabbath; and then the following year, which is the fiftieth year; among other things, the "Year of Jubilee" taught Faith and trust in the Lord).

[22] And you shall sow the eighth year (the year after the Year of Jubilee), and eat yet of old fruit until the ninth year; until her fruits come in you shall eat of the old store (eat of the increase that the Lord gave on the sixth year [Vs. 21]).

[23] The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is Mine; for you are strangers and sojourners with Me. (The Land of Israel still belongs to God, just as much as it did those thousands of years ago. The Palestinians should learn and understand that.)

REDEMPTION OF PROPERTY

[24] And in all the land of your possession you shall grant a redemption for the land (the land could be redeemed by a near relative).

[25] If your brother be waxed poor, and has sold away some of his possession, and if any of his kin come to redeem it, then shall he redeem that which his brother sold.

[26] And if the man have none to redeem it (the original owner who lost the property), and himself be able to redeem it (the near of kin who desires to redeem it)**;

[27] Then let him count the years of the sale thereof, and restore the overplus unto the man to whom he sold it; that he may return unto his possession (the redemption price would be according to the number of years left before the Year of Jubilee).

[28] But if he be not able to restore it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him who has bought it until the Year of Jubilee: and in the Jubilee it shall go out, and he shall return unto his possession (it will go back to the original owner).

29 And if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year may he redeem it (he can buy it back within a year at the price for which he sold it, if he so desires).

30 And if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be established for ever to him who bought it throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the Jubilee (houses in cities were looked at differently; they were not to go back to the original owner on the Year of Jubilee, that is, if they were not redeemed during the first year after the sale).

31 But the houses of the villages which have no wall round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country: they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the Jubilee (go back to the original owner on the Year of Jubilee).

32 Notwithstanding the cities of the Levites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Levites redeem at any time (the Levites were not bound by the Year of Jubilee).

33 And if a man purchase of the Levites, then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession, shall go out in the Year of Jubilee: for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the Children of Israel (at any rate, exactly as most others, all property purchased from Levites would go back to them on the Year of Jubilee).

34 But the field of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold; for it is their perpetual possession (land which belonged to the Levites could not be sold, but must remain in their possession; so, if they incurred debts, that debt had to be settled another way other than confiscating their property).

REDEEMING THE POOR

35 And if your brother be waxed poor, and fallen in decay with you (to your knowledge); then you shall relieve him (help him): yes, though he be a stranger (Gentile), or a sojourner; that he may live with you (Gentile proselytes to the Covenant of Abraham must be treated exactly as Israelites).

36 Take thou no usury of him, or increase (regarding loans, no Israelite was to charge interest of another Israelite or proselyte): but fear your God; that your brother may live with you (on an equal status).

37 You shall not give him your money upon usury, nor lend him your victuals for increase (don't try to make money regarding one in need, but rather help him by loaning him money at no interest, etc.).

38 I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

39 And if your brother who dwells by you be waxed poor, and be sold unto you; you shall not compel him to serve as a bondservant (you must not treat him as a slave):

40 But as an hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with you, and shall serve you unto the Year of Jubilee (ever how long that might be).

41 And then shall he depart from you, both he and his children with him, and shall return unto his own family, and unto the possession of his fathers shall he return (completely free of all obligations, whatever they may have been).

42 For they are My servants, which I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: they shall not be sold as bondmen (the Lord had redeemed all Israelites out of Egypt; therefore, no Israelite must make a slave of a fellow Israelite).

43 You shall not rule over him with rigour; but shall fear your God (in today's terminology, we must remember that every other Believer belongs to the Lord, and treat him accordingly, whether we like him or not).

44 Both your bondmen, and your bondmaids, which you shall have, shall be of the heathen who are round about you; of them shall you buy bondmen and bondmaids (of the Gentiles).

45 Moreover of the children of the strangers (Gentiles) who do sojourn among you, of them shall you buy, and of their families who are with you, which they begat in your land: and they shall be your possession (but fellow Israelites must not be bought and sold as bondmen and bondmaids).

46 And you shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession (if the father bought the bondman or bondmaid, when he died, they were then to be the property of the children); they shall be your bondmen for ever: but over your brethren the Children of Israel, you shall not rule one over another with rigour (while these were slaves, they were not so in the sense that we think of such presently; they were to be treated with all kindness, not like the Israelites had been treated in Egypt [Deut. 15:15]).

SERVANTS REDEEMED

47 And if a sojourner or stranger (Gentile) wax rich by you, and your brother who dwells by him wax poor, and sell himself unto the stranger or sojourner by you, or to the stock of the stranger's family:

48 After that he is sold he may be redeemed again; one of his brethren may redeem him (where a Gentile slave couldn't be redeemed and set free, an Israelite slave, who had been bought by a Gentile, could):

49 Either his uncle, or his uncle's son, may redeem him or any who is near of kin unto him of his family may redeem him; or if he be able, he may redeem himself.

50 And he shall reckon with him who bought him from the year that he was sold to him unto the Year of Jubilee: and the price of his sale shall be according unto the number of years, according to the time of an hired servant shall it be with him. (The new start in business at the end of Jubilee was based upon another year of release fifty years in the future, and, thereby, increased or diminished the value of a sale or mortgage. Likewise, as the Christian realizes the nearness or remoteness of the Coming of the Lord, so he places a low or a high value on earthly things.)

51 If there be yet many years behind, according unto them he shall give again the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for.

52 And if there remain but few years unto the Year of Jubilee, then he shall count with him, and according unto his years shall he give him again the price of his redemption (the price would be according to the number of years served, and the number of years left, before the Year of Jubilee).

53 And as a yearly hired servant shall he be with him: and the other shall not rule with rigour over him in your sight (a fellow Israelite, as stated, was not to be treated as a slave, but rather as a hired servant, in other words, an employee).

54 And if he be not redeemed in these years, then he shall go out in the Year of Jubilee, both he, and his children with him (set free).

55 For unto Me the Children of Israel are servants; they are My servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God. (In order to save fallen man, our Saviour had to become man, in effect becoming our "kinsman." He did this in order to possess the right to offer the price of Redemption [Heb. 2:14].)

CHAPTER 26

(1491 B.C.)

NO IDOLATRY

[1] You shall make you no idols nor graven image, neither rear you up a standing image, neither shall you set up any image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I am the LORD your God (of this terrible sin, which embraced all types of immorality, every other nation in the world was guilty).

[2] You shall keep My Sabbaths, and reverence My Sanctuary: I am the LORD. (If any other "god" is worshipped, there can be no Sabbatical "rest." The "rest" we now have in Christ is based solely upon His Finished Work, and our Faith anchored in that Sacrifice.

If the Preacher is not preaching the Cross, thereby his hearers placing their faith in something else, whether they realize it or not, they are serving "another Jesus," which, pure and simple, is idol worship of some sort. That is the great sin of the modern Church [II Cor. 11:4].)

BLESSINGS OF OBEDIENCE

[3] If you walk in My Statues, and keep My Commandments, and do them (following this condition, "if," we find some of the most glorious Promises found anywhere in the Word of God. In truth, fallen man simply could not keep the Statutes and Commandments. Not even Israel, in the very best of circumstances, or the very best among them, could accomplish this task. But they were to try! The Sacrificial System, the very core of Mosaic Law, was the answer, and the only answer to failure)**;

[4] Then I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit (failure to obey the Word of the Lord, with most cases it being totally ignored, with other gods worshipped, presents the reason that most nations in the world cannot feed themselves).

[5] And your threshing shall reach unto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach unto the sowing time: and you shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely (Divine abundance, and Divine protection).

[6] And I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid: and I will rid evil beasts out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land (freedom from war).

[7] And you shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword (promised victory).

[8] And five of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword (the Lord promised to give the best in Israel a 100-to-1 superiority in power, and the least among them 20-to-1).

[9] For I will have respect unto you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish My Covenant with you (promised fruitfulness).

[10] And you shall eat old store, and bring forth the old because of the new (will not have eaten all of the old before the new is ready, because of abundance).

[11] And I will set My Tabernacle among you: and My Soul shall not abhor you (the secret of Israel's prosperity was that the Lord was among them).

[12] And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and you shall be My People (under the New Covenant, it is even better, far better; the Holy Spirit now lives constantly in our hearts and lives [Jn. 14:17]).

[13] I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that you should not be their bondmen; and I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you go upright. (The Lord delivered Israel from Egyptian bondage by virtue of the slain Lamb, with the blood applied to the doorposts. Victory presently is found in the same manner, only in the Cross! Only in the Cross! [Rom. 6:3-14].)

PENALTIES FOR DISOBEDIENCE

[14] But if you will not hearken unto Me, and will not do all these Commandments;

[15] And if you shall despise My Statutes, or if your soul abhor My Judgments, so that you will not do all My Commandments, but that you break My Covenant (the glowing Promises of Blessings for obedience are now followed by a catalogue of calamities of the most appalling nature, which will overtake the Israelites if they disobey the Divine Commandments)**:

[16] I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and the burning ague (fever), that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and you shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it (if the Lord be for us, who can be against us? [Rom. 8:31]; and if the Lord be against us, who can be for us?).

[17] And I will set My Face against you, and you shall be slain before your enemies: they who hate you shall reign over you; and you shall flee when none pursues you (instead of being victorious, their enemies would be victorious over them; fear would rule them, even as it rules all Believers who try to live for God outside of the Cross [Rom. 8:15; II Tim. 1:7]).

[18] And if you will not yet for all this hearken unto Me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins (if all of these things do not have the desired effect, which is to bring Israel back to God, then the Judgment will be multiplied seven times).

[19] And I will break the pride of your power (the Lord promised to break the pride of their power, which means that their trust would ultimately come to rest in their own army, instead of God; their enemies would waste these armies that looked mighty in their sight; with God, no nation or group of nations in the world could even think of overrunning Israel; without God, the weakest nation could overcome them); and I will make your Heaven as iron, and your Earth as brass (instead of Heaven being opened to their prayers, it would be closed, "as iron"; instead of the Earth yielding its increase, it would be "as brass"):

20 And your strength shall be spent in vain (wasted effort): for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits (all blessings were dependent upon obedience to God; it is the same presently!).

PLAGUES

21 And if you walk contrary unto Me, and will not hearken unto me; I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins (Judgment will at times bring people back to God; but, if it doesn't, God has promised to increase the pressure, even seven times more than had previously been rendered; all Believers should read these words very carefully).

22 I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and your high ways shall be desolate (because of the fear of bandits).

23 And if you will not be reformed by Me by these things, but will walk contrary unto Me;

24 Then will I also walk contrary unto you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins (to have the Lord contrary to us, which sin does, is the single worst thing that can ever happen to any individual).

25 And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of My Covenant: and when you are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence among you; and you shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy (those who persist in rebellion are here told that they cannot escape the Lord; wherever they go, they will be found, and the results will not be pleasant).

[26] And when I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight: and you shall eat, and not be satisfied (food would be in such short supply that ten families, represented by "ten women," would have to exist or subsist on the amount that would normally be consumed by one family).

[27] And if you will not for all this hearken unto Me, but walk contrary unto Me;

[28] Then I will walk contrary unto you also in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins ("seven" is God's number for perfection, totality, and universality; it is that in blessing, and it will be the same in chastisement; in other words, the chastisement will be total).

[29] And you shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall you eat (famine because of sin).

[30] And I will destroy your high places, and cut down your images, and cast your carcases upon the carcases of your idols, and My Soul shall abhor you. (As the Lord would use His Power for blessing upon obedience, He will use His Power here for judgment because of disobedience. The judgment declared here shows the helplessness of the gods worshipped. To prove the point, the enemies of Israel would slaughter tens of thousands of Israelites, even in the very presence of their idols, showing again their helplessness.)

[31] And I will make your cities waste, and bring your Sanctuaries unto desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours. (The great Temple in Jerusalem, which had once been the House of God, was destroyed by the Babylonian Monarch, Nebuchadnezzar. This meant the Sacrifices would now be stopped, which would signal the total doom of Israel, because these Sacrifices represented the Cross. That repudiated and taken away, there was nothing left! Let the modern Church read these words very carefully.)

32 And I will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies which dwell therein shall be astonished at it (what had once been such a verdant garden will now become a cesspool, even to the extent that Israel's enemies would be astonished at it).

33 And I will scatter you among the heathen (which is exactly what happened), and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

34 Then shall the land enjoy her Sabbaths, as long as it lies desolate, and you be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her Sabbaths. (The "Sabbaths" of both days and years were so very important, because of what they symbolized. In their totality, whether on the seventh day of the week, or the seventh year, or the fiftieth year, they all, and without exception, symbolized the "rest" which would come with Christ, and one's acceptance of Him. If we try to make less of the Sabbaths than this, we greatly misinterpret Scripture. If we try to make more, it is an impossible task, for there could be nothing greater than Christ, and what Christ would do at the Cross for Adam's fallen race.)

35 As long as it lies desolate it shall rest; because it did not rest in your Sabbaths, when you dwelt upon it. (For about 490 years, Israel ignored the seventh year Sabbaths. This meant that 70 years of Sabbaths were owed to God. He collected those Sabbaths by forcing Israel into Babylonian bondage, where they stayed exactly 70 years.)

36 And upon them who are left alive of you I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursues (constant fear!).

37 And they shall fall one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursues: and you shall have no power to stand before your enemies (the Cross alone provides such power [I Cor. 1:18]; all other efforts are fruitless).

38 And you shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.

[39] And they who are left of you shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them. (Verses 36 through 39 predict the destruction of Israel by the Babylonians, and then by the Romans. They also predict these ancient people in great sorrow, scattered all over the world, which is exactly what has happened, because of their forsaking the Lord their God.)

[40] If they shall confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against Me, and that also they have walked contrary unto Me ("if they shall confess their iniquity"; this is the one condition for personal and national restoration)**;

[41] And that I also have walked contrary unto them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their uncircumcised hearts be humbled, and they then accept of the punishment of their iniquity (this is basically the same as I John 1:9)**:

[42] Then will I remember My Covenant with Jacob, and also My Covenant with Isaac, and also My Covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land (the moment the people, through confession of their sins, attempt to come back into the Covenant, they will be readily accepted).

[43] The land also shall be left of them (should be translated, "But the land shall be deserted by them"), and shall enjoy her Sabbaths, while she lies desolate without them: and they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity: because, even because they despised My Judgments, and because their soul abhorred My Statutes (in essence, the Lord plainly predicted here that Israel would, in fact, ignore His Word).

[44] And yet for all that, when they be in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break My Covenant with them: for I am the LORD their God. (God's Covenants, at least on His part, cannot be broken. While men may break the Covenant, which Israel definitely did, and which many do as it regards the New Covenant, the Covenant stands. But, to be sure, those, whoever they might be, who register unbelief toward the Covenant will definitely be lost.)

45 But I will for their sakes remember the Covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the LORD. (In these Passages, plus many others given in the Word of God [Rom., Chpts. 9-11], we find the Lord promising that the Covenant He made with the Patriarchs will ultimately and in totality be fulfilled. This completely abrogates the foolish notion held by some in the modern Church, who claim that Israel is no longer of any spiritual significance. I find that as difficult to believe as I do the denial of the Cross.)

46 These are the Statutes and Judgments and Laws, which the LORD made between Him and the Children of Israel in Mount Sinai by the hand of Moses. (Every one of these Laws was instituted by God, which means that man had no part in their formation at all. Inasmuch as these were the Laws of God, they were perfect in every respect.)

CHAPTER 27

(1491 B.C.)

VOWS

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Speak unto the Children of Israel, and say unto them, When a man shall make a singular vow, the persons shall be for the LORD by your estimation (as a people, Israel was birthed by the Lord, and done so for a particular principle and purpose; as such, they had to be taught the significance of all their doings, and especially vows made to God; they had to understand that these were not just idle words made in the heat of necessity, but that the Lord looked at these vows as serious things indeed).

[3] And your estimation shall be of the male from twenty years old even unto sixty years old, even your estimation shall be fifty shekels of silver, after the shekel of the Sanctuary (the amounts stipulated were in silver, which figured Redemption; for the "vow," whatever it may have been, to have been binding, the amount of money stipulated, and for the different people, must be given to the Sanctuary).

[4] And if it be a female, then your estimation shall be thirty shekels.

[5] And if it be from five years old even unto twenty years old, then your estimation shall be of the male twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

[6] And if it be from a month old even unto five years old, then your estimation shall be of the male five shekels of silver, and for the female your estimation shall be three shekels of silver.

[7] And if it be from sixty years old and above; if it be a male, then your estimation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

[8] But if he be poorer than your estimation, then he shall present himself before the Priest, and the Priest shall value him; according to his ability who vowed shall the Priest value him. (The Priest, in this case, becomes the exponent of Grace. Israel at Mount Horeb made a "singular vow," which, when tested by the standard of Righteousness, failed. But the True Aaron, the Great High Priest, the Lord Jesus Christ, will estimate her in Grace, and will fulfill for her all the righteous requirements of a vow.)

VOWS INVOLVING ANIMALS

[9] And if it be a beast, whereof men bring an Offering unto the LORD, all that any man gives of such unto the LORD shall be holy (makes a vow concerning a Sacrifice).

[10] He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change beast for beast, then it and the exchange thereof shall be holy.

[11] And if it be any unclean beast, of which they do not offer a Sacrifice unto the LORD, then he shall present the beast before the Priest (it is said that no vow mentally made or conceived was deemed binding; it had to be distinctly pronounced in words before the Lord and before the Priest)**:

[12] And the Priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: as you value it, you who are the Priest, so shall it be (a value was put on the animal which could not be sacrificed because it was unclean, and that amount of money was to be paid to the Sanctuary to satisfy the vow).

[13] But if he will at all redeem it, then he shall add a fifth part thereof unto your estimation (whatever the Priest valued the animal, 20 percent was to be added, at least in this case, simply because it was an animal which was unclean, and could not be offered in Sacrifice to begin with).

VOWS CONCERNING A HOUSE

14 And when a man shall sanctify his house to be holy unto the LORD (make a vow concerning his house), then the Priest shall estimate it, whether it be good or bad: as the Priest shall estimate it, so shall it stand.

15 And if he who sanctified it will redeem his house (pay money to the Sanctuary instead), then he shall add the fifth part of the money of your estimation unto it, and it shall be his (the vow will be satisfied).

VOWS CONCERNING THE FIELDS

16 And if a man shall sanctify unto the LORD some part of a field of his possession, then your estimation shall be according to the seed thereof: an homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver (the value would be judged according to the amount of grain grown on the land).

17 If he sanctify his field from the Year of Jubilee, according to your estimation it shall stand.

18 But if he sanctify his field after the Jubilee, then the Priest shall reckon unto him the money according to the years that remain, even unto the Year of the Jubilee, and it shall be abated from your estimation (in this case, all were valued according to the number of years left before the Year of Jubilee).

19 And if he who sanctified the field (vowed the field) will in any wise redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of your estimation unto it, and it shall be assured to him (if anyone else redeemed it, they would do so at the estimation; however, if the man who made the vow redeemed it, he was to add 20 percent to the estimation of the Priest).

20 And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more.

21 But the field, when it goes out in the Jubilee (the time runs out), shall be holy unto the LORD, as a field devoted; the possession thereof shall be the Priest's (the field now belongs to the Sanctuary, and is to be used for its upkeep).

22 And if a man sanctify unto the LORD a field which he has bought, which is not of the fields of his possession;

23 Then the priest shall reckon unto him the worth of your estimation, even unto the Year of the Jubilee: and he shall give your estimation in that day, as a holy thing unto the LORD (if a man vowed a vow concerning a field he did not really own, when the Year of Jubilee came around, the Priest was to estimate the worth, with the man giving that much money to the Sanctuary, which would then satisfy the vow).

24 In the Year of the Jubilee the field shall return unto him of whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land did belong (in other words, when the Year of Jubilee came about, the land would not revert to the man who made the vow, who really did not own the field, but would revert to its rightful owner, whoever that may have been).

25 And all your estimations shall be according to the shekel of the Sanctuary: twenty gerahs shall be the shekel (the "shekel" was not actually a coin, at least at that time, but a particular weight of silver, approximately one ounce).

FIRSTBORN OF ANIMALS

26 Only the firstling of the beasts, which should be the LORD's firstling, no man shall sanctify it; whether it be ox, or sheep: it is the LORD's (two classes of objects were forbidden to be vowed: 1. The firstborn of beasts; and, 2. Devoted things).

27 And if it be of an unclean beast, then he shall redeem it according to your estimation (the estimation of the Priest), and shall add a fifth part of it thereto: or if it be not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your estimation (a vow could be made of the firstborn of unclean animals, and then the amount of money paid to the Sanctuary according to the estimation of the Priest, which would satisfy the vow; however, if it was the firstborn of a clean animal, such as a lamb, goat, heifer, etc., it could not be vowed).

ANY DEDICATED THING

28 Notwithstanding no devoted thing, that a man shall devote unto the LORD of all that he has, both of man and beast, and of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is most holy unto the LORD (all gifts devoted to the Lord in this manner became the property of the Sanctuary [Num. 18:14]).

29 None devoted, which shall be devoted of men, shall be redeemed; but shall surely be put to death. (This speaks of clean animals devoted to God from birth. They could not be redeemed, but had to be offered in Sacrifice. Christ was totally devoted to the Lord by His parents when He was a child, and rightly so, and was not redeemed, and was put to death. But He was put to death, not for His Own sins, for He had no sins, but for the sins of others; consequently, He made it possible for all of mankind to be redeemed, at least those who will believe [Jn. 3:16].)

TITHES

30 And all the tithe (10 percent) of the land, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD's: it is holy unto the LORD. (Tithing did not begin with Moses or the Law. The first mention of tithing refers to Abraham giving tithes to Melchizedek [Gen. 14:20; Heb. 7:4]. As well, Jacob vowed the tenth to the Lord [Gen. 28:22]. Although included in the Mosaic institution, the fact is, tithing preceded the Law, and continues unto this hour. Tithing is the tenth, for that's what the word means, and fell into the same category as the "firstborn." In other words, as the firstborn of both man and beast belonged to the Lord, likewise, tithes belong to the Lord presently.

As stated, Abraham paid tithe to Melchizedek. This man, even as Paul reiterates in Hebrews, Chapter 7, was a Type of Christ. Abraham is a type of all Believers. Inasmuch as Abraham paid tithe to this man, we, as Believers, the children of Abraham, continue to pay tithe to Christ, by supporting His Work, of whom Melchizedek was a Type [Heb. 7:1-5].)

31 And if a man will at all redeem ought of his tithes, he shall add thereto the fifth part thereof (meaning that he fails to pay his tithes when they are owed, and when they are actually paid, he has to add 20 percent).

32 And concerning the tithe of the herd, or of the flock, even of whatsoever passes under the rod, the tenth shall be holy unto the LORD (it is still holy unto the Lord, and ever shall be; this is the Lord's way of financing His Work, and I speak of both Tithes and Offerings; I cannot conceive of a Believer, at least a true Believer, considering what the Lord has done for him, not wanting to support the Work of God by paying his Tithe, and even more).

33 He shall not search whether it be good or bad, neither shall he change it: and if he change it at all, then both it and the change thereof shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed (we must not figure God out of our giving by trying to make changes).

34 These are the Commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses for the Children of Israel in Mount Sinai.

CHAPTER 1

(1490 B.C.)

THE CENSUS

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the Tabernacle of the congregation, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying (unfortunately, the wilderness experience seems to be absolutely necessary, at least in some manner, for every Christian)**,

[2] Take ye the sum of all the congregation of the Children of Israel, after their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of their names, every male by their polls (every person in Israel was numbered, and done so at the command of the Lord, even as every Believer presently is numbered by the Lord)**;

[3] From twenty years old and upward, all who are able to go forth to war in Israel: you and Aaron shall number them by their armies. (While the theme of Leviticus is worship, that of Numbers is warfare. This means that spiritual Israelites are to be warriors as well as worshippers. Paul said, "War a good warfare" [I Tim. 1:18]. In Exodus 30:11, it was commanded that whenever a census was taken of the men of Israel, a half shekel of silver [about half an ounce] had to be given to the Sanctuary for every man. Silver, in the Old Testament, was a type of Redemption, thereby stating that Israel's power was not in her standing army, whatever that might have been, but rather the fact that she was bought by the blood of the Lamb.)

THE CENSUS TAKERS

[4] And with you there shall be a man of every Tribe; every one head of the house of his fathers (the head of each Tribe would be responsible for the census of that Tribe)**.

5 And these are the names of the men who shall stand with you: of the Tribe of Reuben; Elizur the son of Shedeur.

6 Of Simeon; Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

7 Of Judah; Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

8 Of Issachar; Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

9 Of Zebulun; Eliab the son of Helon.

10 Of the children of Joseph: of Ephraim; Elishama the son of Ammihud: of Manasseh; Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

11 Of Benjamin; Abidan the son of Gideoni.

12 Of Dan; Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

13 Of Asher; Pagiel the son of Ocran.

14 Of Gad; Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

15 Of Naphtali; Ahira the son of Enan.

16 These were the renowned of the congregation, Princes of the Tribes of their fathers, heads of thousands in Israel.

17 And Moses and Aaron took these men which are expressed by their names (all of these men were chosen by God, and none by Moses or Aaron):

THE ASSEMBLY

18 And they assembled all the congregation together on the first day of the second month, and they declared their pedigrees after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, by their polls (this was 13 months after they had left Egypt).

19 As the LORD commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai (they had been in the wilderness for 13 months).

REUBEN: 46,500

20 And the Children of Reuben, Israel's oldest son, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war (Fellowship with God means warfare with the world; hence 14 times in this Chapter occur the words, "all who were able to go forth to war")**;

21 Those who were numbered of them, even of the Tribe of Reuben, were forty and six thousand and five hundred.

SIMEON: 59,300

22 Of the Children of Simeon, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, those who were numbered of them, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

23 Those who were numbered of them, even of the Tribe of Simeon, were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.

GAD: 45,650

24 Of the Children of Gad, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

25 Those who were numbered of them, even of the Tribe of Gad, were forty and five thousand six hundred and fifty.

JUDAH: 74,600

[26] Of the Children of Judah, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

[27] Those who were numbered of them, even of the Tribe of Judah, were threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred (Judah was the largest Tribe, and was the Tribe from which Jesus came [Gen. 49:10]).

ISSACHAR: 54,400

[28] Of the Children of Issachar, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

[29] Those who were numbered of them, even of the Tribe of Issachar, were fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

ZEBULUN: 57,400

[30] Of the Children of Zebulun, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

[31] Those who were numbered of them, even of the Tribe of Zebulun, were fifty and seven thousand and four hundred.

EPHRAIM: 40,500

[32] Of the Children of Joseph, namely, of the Children of Ephraim, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

33 Those who were numbered of them, even of the Tribe of Ephraim, were forty thousand and five hundred.

MANASSEH: 32,200

34 Of the Children of Manasseh, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

35 Those who were numbered of them, even of the Tribe of Manasseh, were thirty and two thousand and two hundred.

BENJAMIN: 35,400

36 Of the Children of Benjamin, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

37 Those who were numbered of them, even of the Tribe of Benjamin, were thirty and five thousand and four hundred. (Christian conflict is not a warfare with personal doubts and fears as to one's Salvation, but it is a succession of battles with enemies of God within and without, i.e., "sin and self" — Williams.)

DAN: 62,700

38 Of the Children of Dan, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

39 Those who were numbered of them, even of the Tribe of Dan, were threescore and two thousand and seven hundred.

ASHER: 41,500

40 Of the Children of Asher, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

41 Those who were numbered of them, even of the Tribe of Asher, were forty and one thousand and five hundred.

NAPHTALI: 53,400

42 Of the Children of Naphtali, throughout their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

43 Those that were numbered of them, even of the Tribe of Naphtali, were fifty and three thousand and four hundred.

GRAND TOTAL: 603,550

44 These are those who were numbered, which Moses and Aaron numbered, and the Princes of Israel, being twelve men: each one was for the house of his fathers.

45 So were all those who were numbered of the Children of Israel, by the house of their fathers, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war in Israel;

46 Even all they who were numbered were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty. (Of this first census, all perished because of unbelief, except two, Joshua and Caleb. The Holy Spirit, in I Cor., Chpt. 10, says that these facts are recorded to admonish those who think they stand to take heed lest they fall.)

LEVITES NOT NUMBERED

47 But the Levites after the Tribe of their fathers were not numbered among them (this was the Priestly Tribe).

48 For the LORD had spoken unto Moses, saying,

49 Only you shall not number the Tribe of Levi, neither take the sum of them among the Children of Israel:

APPOINTMENT

50 But you shall appoint the Levites over the Tabernacle of Testimony, and over all the vessels thereof, and over all things that belong to it: they shall bear the Tabernacle, and all the vessels thereof; and they shall minister unto it, and shall encamp round about the Tabernacle.

51 And when the Tabernacle sets forward, the Levites shall take it down: and when the Tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up: and the stranger (Gentile) who comes near shall be put to death.

52 And the Children of Israel shall pitch their tents, every man by his own camp, and every man by his own standard, throughout their hosts. (In the Tribes, Ephraim took the place of Joseph, and Manasseh took the place of Levi in the Twelve-Tribe arrangement of Israel. The Tribe of Levi was not counted, being chosen as the Ministers of the other Tribes, and without any definite allotment of land among the other Twelve Tribes.)

53 But the Levites shall pitch round about the Tabernacle of Testimony, that there be no wrath upon the congregation of the Children of Israel: and the Levites shall keep the charge of the Tabernacle of Testimony. (The Levites were not included in the numbering, which means they were exempted by Divine direction. Their function was the Tabernacle, and in every capacity. When Israel camped, the Tribe of Levi pitched their tents around the Tabernacle, and were responsible for its protection. No one else of the other Tribes was to penetrate this cordon of protection, except to bring Sacrifices. All the Priesthood was of the Tribe of Levi; however, all Levites were not Priests, the latter group coming solely from the family of Aaron.)

54 And the Children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did they.

CHAPTER 2

(1490 B.C.)

CAMP ASSIGNMENTS

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

[2] Every man of the Children of Israel shall pitch by his own standard, with the ensign of their father's house: far off about the Tabernacle of the congregation shall they pitch (the position of the standard was determined by the position of the Tabernacle; the Tabernacle was the center of everything, even as Christ must be the center of everything presently, of Whom the Tabernacle was a Type).

THE EAST SIDE

[3] And on the east side toward the rising of the sun shall they of the standard of the camp of Judah pitch throughout their armies: and Nahshon the son of Amminadab shall be captain of the Children of Judah.

[4] And his host, and those who were numbered of them, were threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred.

[5] And those who do pitch next unto him shall be the Tribe of Issachar: and Nethaneel the son of Zuar shall be captain of the Children of Issachar.

[6] And his host, and those who were numbered thereof, were fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

[7] Then the Tribe of Zebulun: and Eliab the son of Helon shall be captain of the Children of Zebulun.

8 And his host, and those who were numbered thereof, were fifty and seven thousand and four hundred. (The three Tribes of Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun were to camp on the east side of the Tabernacle. These were their assigned places, and they were not to deviate from those places. As well, the Lord assigns a particular Ministry for each and every Believer. Regrettably, most never know what that Ministry is, because of a lack of consecration. As well, many, if not most, try to fill a position designed by men, or themselves, and not the Lord. It is the same as one of the Tribes of Israel camping in a spot not designated for them.)

9 All who were numbered in the camp of Judah were an hundred thousand and fourscore thousand and six thousand and four hundred, throughout their armies (these three Tribes, numbering 186,400, were said to be in the "Camp of Judah"). These shall first set forth. (Judah means "praise." So, when the camp moved, Judah was to go first, which meant that Israel was to be led by "praise.")

THE SOUTH SIDE

10 On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben according to their armies: and the captain of the Children of Reuben shall be Elizur the son of Shedeur.

11 And his host, and those who were numbered thereof, were forty and six thousand and five hundred.

12 And those which pitch by him shall be the Tribe of Simeon: and the captain of the Children of Simeon shall be Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. (Even though "Simeon" had a place here in the wilderness, when Israel went into the Promised Land, because of the curse [Gen. 49:5-7], they had no place. Levi was under this curse, as well, but became the Priestly Tribe, because of standing with Moses, as it regarded the Golden Calf [Ex. 32:25-28]. Simeon ultimately had his inheritance within the inheritance of Judah [Josh. 19:1]. Likewise, the entirety of the human race has been cursed because of the Fall; however, our Heavenly Judah, the Lord Jesus Christ, has made provision for us to have an inheritance within His vast Inheritance [Rom. 8:17].)

13 And his host, and those who were numbered of them, were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.

14 Then the Tribe of Gad: and the captain of the sons of Gad shall be Eliasaph the son of Reuel.

15 And his host, and those who were numbered of them, were forty and five thousand and six hundred and fifty.

16 All who were numbered in the camp of Reuben were an hundred thousand and fifty and one thousand and four hundred and fifty, throughout their armies. And they shall set forth in the second rank (the three Tribes of Reuben, Simeon, and Gad were to encamp on the south side of the Tabernacle. All three Tribes numbered 151,450).

LEVITES: 22,000

17 Then the Tabernacle of the congregation shall set forward with the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camp: as they encamp, so shall they set forward, every man in his place by their standards. (As the camp moved, Judah led the way with "praise." The rear was brought up by Dan, whose name means "judgment," meaning that anyone who attacked Israel would be judged by God. At the center were the Levites, whose name means "joined," or "communion.")

THE WEST SIDE

18 On the west side shall be the standard of the camp of Ephraim according to their armies: and the captain of the sons of Ephraim shall be Elishama the son of Ammihud.

19 And his host, and those who were numbered of them, were forty thousand and five hundred.

20 And by him shall be the Tribe of Manasseh: and the captain of the Children of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

21 And his host, and those who were numbered of them, were thirty and two thousand and two hundred.

22 Then the Tribe of Benjamin: and the captain of the sons of Benjamin shall be Abidan the son of Gideoni.

23 And his host, and those who were numbered of them, were thirty and five thousand and four hundred.

24 All who were numbered of the camp of Ephraim were an hundred thousand and eight thousand and an hundred, throughout their armies. And they shall go forward in the third rank. (When encamped or on the march, Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh were nearest to the Mercy Seat. Hence their being named in Psalms 80:1-2. There were 108,100 in the three Tribes of Ephraim, Manasseh, and Benjamin.)

THE NORTH SIDE

25 The standard of the camp of Dan shall be on the north side by their armies: and the captain of the Children of Dan shall be Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

26 And his host, and those who were numbered of them, were threescore and two thousand and seven hundred.

27 And those who encamp by him shall be the Tribe of Asher: and the captain of the Children of Asher shall be Pagiel the son of Ocran.

28 And his host, and those who were numbered of them, were forty and one thousand and five hundred.

29 Then the Tribe of Naphtali: and the captain of the Children of Naphtali shall be Ahira the son of Enan.

30 And his host, and those who were numbered of them, were fifty and three thousand and four hundred.

31 All they who were numbered in the camp of Dan were an hundred thousand and fifty and seven thousand and six hundred. They shall go hindmost with their standards. (The three Tribes of Dan, Asher, and Naphtali were encamped on the north side, with their total population of 157,600.)

GRAND TOTAL: 603,550 MEN BESIDES THE LEVITES

32 These are those which were numbered of the Children of Israel by the house of their fathers: all those who were numbered of the camps throughout their hosts were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.

33 But the Levites were not numbered among the Children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses.

34 And the Children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses: so they pitched by their standards, and so they set forward, every one after their families, according to the house of their fathers. (As we have surveyed this Chapter, we have learned about God's order. We have learned, as stated, that "praise" must lead the way. And if "praise" rightly leads the way, drawing sustenance from the "communion" that is in the center, which comes from the Tabernacle, i.e., "Christ," and nourishes all, then Divine Judgment will protect the rear guard against all the powers of darkness that would seek to hinder the Church of the Living God.)

CHAPTER 3

(1490 B.C.)

THE SONS OF AARON

[1] These also are the generations of Aaron and Moses in the day that the LORD spoke with Moses in Mount Sinai.

[2] And these are the names of the sons of Aaron; Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

[3] These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the Priests which were anointed, whom he consecrated to minister in the Priest's office.

[4] And Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD, when they offered strange fire before the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children: and Eleazar and Ithamar ministered in the Priest's office in the sight of Aaron their father. (God cannot abide sin in any form, and when it's sin against the Cross, as was the sin of Nadab and Abihu, it is most grievous indeed. The tragedy is, this sin, the sin of "strange fire," is being committed today as never before; and the results are the same, "death" [Gal. 5:2-4].)

THE LEVITES

[5] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[6] Bring the Tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the Priest, that they may minister unto him. (As we will find out in this Chapter, Grace entrusted the Levites with the Tabernacle and its vessels when on the march, and Love apportioned to each the load suited to his strength.)

[7] And they shall keep his charge, and the charge of the whole congregation before the Tabernacle of the congregation, to do the service of the Tabernacle. (The Holy Spirit had originally said of the Tribe of Levi, through the Patriarch Jacob, "O my soul, come not thou into their secret," which spoke of the evil of their hearts in all its unrighteousness; yet the Lord could bring Levi into His Secret, and unite him to His Assembly. He could take him out of his habitation, wherein were instruments of cruelty, and bring him into the Tabernacle to be occupied with the holy instruments and vessels that were there. Only the Grace of God could do such a thing!)

[8] And they shall keep all the instruments of the Tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the Children of Israel, to do the service of the Tabernacle (this same "charge" is given to all Believers presently).

[9] And you shall give the Levites unto Aaron and to his sons: they are wholly given unto him out of the Children of Israel.

[10] And you shall appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall wait on their Priest's office: and the stranger (Gentile) who comes near shall be put to death (because they were not under the Abrahamic Covenant).

THE SUBSTITUTE

[11] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[12] And I, behold, I have taken the Levites from among the Children of Israel instead of all the firstborn that opens the matrix among the Children of Israel: therefore the Levites shall be mine (it seems that the Lord had originally planned to use the firstborn of every family as the Priestly Tribe; but, due to a series of events, the Grace of God would give the Tribe of Levi that high and holy honor.

Concerning this, Mackintosh says: "In Faith's arithmetic, God is the only significant figure; and having Him, you may add as many ciphers as you please. If all your Faith is in the Living God, it ceases to be a question of your need, and resolves itself into a question of His Sufficiency");

[13] Because all the firstborn are Mine; for on the day that I smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I hallowed unto Me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast: Mine shall they be: I am the LORD.

DUTIES ASSIGNED TO THE LEVITES

14 And the LORD spoke unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying,

15 Number the Children of Levi after the house of their fathers, by their families: every male from a month old and upward shall you number them. (Whereas the numbering of all the other Tribes began at 20, it began at one month old regarding the boy babies of the Levites.)

16 And Moses numbered them according to the Word of the LORD, as he was commanded.

17 And these were the sons of Levi by their names; Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari.

18 And these are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families; Libni, and Shimei.

19 And the sons of Kohath by their families; Amram, and Izehar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

20 And the sons of Merari by their families; Mahli, and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to the house of their fathers.

21 Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimites: these are the families of the Gershonites:

22 Those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, even those who were numbered of them were seven thousand and five hundred.

23 The families of the Gershonites shall pitch behind the Tabernacle westward.

24 And the chief of the house of the father of the Gershonites shall be Eliasaph the son of Lael.

THE CHARGE

25 And the charge of the sons of Gershon in the Tabernacle of the congregation shall be the Tabernacle, and the tent, the covering thereof, and the hanging for the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation,

26 And the hangings of the court, and the curtain for the door of the court, which is by the Tabernacle, and by the Altar round about, and the cords of it for all the service thereof. (The Gershonites were in charge of the things listed, as it regards the Tabernacle. It was their responsibility for taking down this part of the Tabernacle, whenever the Holy Spirit desired that the Camp of Israel be moved. They were responsible, as well, for re-erecting it. Also, it was their duty to protect it and maintain it when it was erected.)

THE KOHATHITES

27 And of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izeharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: these are the families of the Kohathites.

28 In the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charge of the Sanctuary.

29 The families of the sons of Kohath shall pitch on the side of the Tabernacle southward.

30 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the son of Uzziel.

31 And their charge shall be the Ark, and the Table, and the Candlestick, and the Altars, and the vessels of the Sanctuary wherewith they minister, and the hanging, and all the service thereof.

32 And Eleazar the son of Aaron the Priest shall be chief over the chief of the Levites, and have the oversight of them who keep the charge of the Sanctuary. (As the Tabernacle proper was the charge of the Gershonites, the sacred vessels which went inside of the Tabernacle were the charge of the Kohathites.)

THE MERARITES

33 Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites: these are the families of Merari.

34 And those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were six thousand and two hundred.

35 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail: these shall pitch on the side of the Tabernacle northward.

36 And under the custody and charge of the sons of Merari shall be the boards of the Tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and the sockets thereof, and all the vessels thereof, and all that serves thereto, 37 And the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords.

38 But those who encamp before the Tabernacle toward the east, even before the Tabernacle of the congregation eastward, shall be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping the charge of the Sanctuary for the charge of the Children of Israel; and the stranger (Gentile) who comes near shall be put to death.

39 All who were numbered of the Levites, which Moses and Aaron numbered at the Commandment of the LORD, throughout their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were twenty and two thousand. (The charge of the Merarites consisted of everything not included in that of the Gershonites and the Kohathites. It must be understood that there was a greater dignity in carrying a lowly "pin" of the Tabernacle than in wielding the mighty scepter of Egypt.)

REDEMPTION

40 And the LORD said unto Moses, Number all the firstborn of the males of the Children of Israel from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names. (One should be careful to note the Divine order of all things, and that neither Moses nor the Levites were to deviate one iota from that which had been instructed.)

41 And you shall take the Levites for me (I am the LORD) instead of all the firstborn among the Children of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the Children of Israel.

42 And Moses numbered, as the LORD commanded him, all the firstborn among the Children of Israel.

43 And all the firstborn males by the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those who were numbered of them, were twenty and two thousand two hundred and threescore and thirteen (the number was 22,273; this does not refer to all the firstborn of the Children of Israel, which would have numbered much higher, but rather to those baby boys which had been born since coming out of Egypt, a time frame of about 13 months).

THE LEVITES

44 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

45 Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the Children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle; and the Levites shall be Mine: I am the LORD.

46 And for those who are to be redeemed of the two hundred and threescore and thirteen of the firstborn of the Children of Israel, which are more than the Levites;

47 You shall even take five shekels apiece by the poll, after the shekel of the Sanctuary shall you take them: (the shekel is twenty gerahs:)

48 And you shall give the money (about $30 in 2004 currency), wherewith the odd number of them is to be redeemed, unto Aaron and to his sons.

49 And Moses took the redemption money of them who were over and above them who were redeemed by the Levites:

50 Of the firstborn of the Children of Israel took he the money; a thousand three hundred and threescore and five shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary (a little over $8,000 in 2004 currency):

51 And Moses gave the money of them who were redeemed unto Aaron and to his sons, according to the Word of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses. (It must have been perfectly beautiful to mark God's workers in the wilderness. Each one was at his post, and each moved in his Divinely appointed sphere. Hence, the moment the cloud was lifted up, and the order issued to strike, every man knew what he had to do, and he addressed himself to that and to nothing else. No man had any right to think for himself in these capacities: Jehovah thought for all. Unfortunately, far too many in the modern Church are attempting to push the Lord aside, and to serve in the place of the Lord, in effect, doing the thinking for the people. This the Lord can never accept, because He Alone is the "Head" of the Church. He will never abrogate that position [Col. 1:17-19].)

CHAPTER 4

(1490 B.C.)

THE DUTIES OF THE KOHATHITES

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

[2] Take the sum of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, after their families, by the house of their fathers,

[3] From thirty years old and upward even until fifty years old, all who enter into the host, to do the work in the Tabernacle of the congregation. (Those who would be Priests, who were of the family of Aaron, and those who would serve in the various appointments of the Levites, as given here, were to be 30 years of age before they began this work, and were to cease their activity at 50 years of age. Jesus was 30 years old, fulfilling this type, when He began His Ministry [Lk. 3:23].)

[4] This shall be the service of the sons of Kohath in the Tabernacle of the congregation, about the most holy things:

[5] And when the camp sets forward, Aaron shall come, and his sons, and they shall take down the covering Veil (the Veil that hung between the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies), and cover the Ark of Testimony with it (the Ark of the Covenant, when it was to be moved)**:

[6] And shall put thereon the covering of badgers' skins (which was to lay over the Veil), and shall spread over it a cloth wholly of blue (the last covering, typifying that this was of Heaven), and shall put in the staves thereof (so it could be carried on the shoulders of the Priests).

[7] And upon the Table of Shewbread they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put thereon the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and covers to cover withal: and the continual bread shall be thereon (this Fourth Chapter portrays the work of the Priests, along with the Levites, who served in the tearing down, moving, and setting up again of the Tabernacle, plus all of its holy Vessels; God gave explicit instructions concerning the same; they were to be followed to the letter):

[8] And they shall spread upon them a cloth of scarlet, and cover the same with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put in the staves thereof (the disposition of the coverings that hid the Ark, the Table, the Lampstand, the Altar of Incense, the Vessels of Ministry, and the Brazen Altar set forth the sufferings of Christ and the glories that should follow).

[9] And they shall take a cloth of blue, and cover the Candlestick (Lampstand) of the light, and his lamps, and his tongs, and his snuffdishes, and all the oil vessels thereof, wherewith they minister unto it:

[10] And they shall put it and all the Vessels thereof within a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put it upon a bar (the outward covering in each case was badger-skin, except the Ark of the Covenant, which was a type of the Throne of Jehovah; its outermost covering was a cloth of blue, to illustrate possibly the Heavenly character of the kingdom which was proposed then to be set up upon Earth, and which will be introduced at the Second Coming).

[11] And upon the Golden Altar (the Altar of Incense) they shall spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put to the staves thereof:

[12] And they shall take all the instruments of Ministry, wherewith they minister in the Sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put them on a bar (an apparatus used for their transportation):

[13] And they shall take away the ashes from the Altar, and spread a purple cloth thereon (the "ashes" symbolized all sin atoned and, in fact, no sin left, made possible by virtue of Christ and the Cross):

14 And they shall put upon it all the Vessels thereof, wherewith they minister about it, even the censers, the fleshhooks, and the shovels, and the basins, all the Vessels of the Altar (the Brazen Altar); and they shall spread upon it a covering of badgers' skins, and put to the staves of it ("badgers' skins" were a type of the High Priestly Ministry of Christ).

15 And when Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the Sanctuary, and all the Vessels of the Sanctuary, as the camp is to set forward; after that, the sons of Kohath shall come to bear it: but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they die. These things are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the Tabernacle of the congregation. (After the Priests had prepared all the Sacred Vessels for transportation, then, and then only, could the Kohathites come in to take them away. They were not for a moment to go in and look upon the holy things, lest they die [II Sam. 6:7]. Concerning this, Williams says: "When God dwells in power in the camp, it is as when a wire is charged with electricity. Hence, when He withdrew, men could look on, and handle, these holy things with impunity. The carnal curiosity which would analyze Christ's Human Nature brings death unto the soul.")

16 And to the office of Eleazar the son of Aaron the Priest pertains the oil for the light, and the sweet incense, and the daily Meat Offering, and the anointing oil, and the oversight of all the Tabernacle, and of all that therein is, in the Sanctuary, and in the Vessels thereof (Eleazar, the son of Aaron, was in charge of the Kohathites).

THE KOHATHITES

17 And the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

18 Cut you not off the Tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites:

19 But thus do unto them, that they may live, and not die, when they approach unto the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in, and appoint them every one to his service and to his burden (Kohathites had to be especially careful in the handling of the Sacred Vessels, that they not die; that's how critical the situation was, and that's how critical the situation still is; spiritual death is the end result of mishandling the Word of God):

20 But they shall not go in to see when the holy things are covered, lest they die (they could only go in to carry these things out after they had been properly covered and attended to by the Priests).

THE DUTIES OF THE GERSHONITES

21 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

22 Take also the sum of the sons of Gershon, throughout the houses of their fathers, by their families;

23 From thirty years old and upward until fifty years old shall you number them; all who enter in to perform the service, to do the work in the Tabernacle of the congregation.

24 This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, to serve, and for burdens:

25 And they shall bear the curtains of the Tabernacle, and the Tabernacle of the congregation, his covering, and the covering of the badgers' skins that is above upon it (the roof), and the hanging for the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation,

26 And the hangings of the Court, and the hanging for the door of the gate of the Court (the entrance into the Court), which is by the Tabernacle and by the Altar round about, and their cords, and all the instruments of their service, and all that is made for them: so shall they serve.

27 At the appointment of Aaron and his sons shall be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their burdens, and in all their service: and you shall appoint unto them in charge all their burdens.

28 This is the service of the families of the sons of Gershon in the Tabernacle of the congregation: and their charge shall be under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the Priest (the Gershonites carried all the hangings belonging to the Tabernacle and to the Outer Court, with the single exception of the "Veil," which was wrapped around the Ark of the Covenant; as well, Ithamar, the son of Aaron, was in charge of the Gershonites).

THE DUTIES OF THE MERARITES

29 As for the sons of Merari, you shall number them after their families, by the house of their fathers;

30 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old shall you number them, everyone who enters into the service, to do the work of the Tabernacle of the congregation.

31 And this is the charge of their burden, according to all their service in the Tabernacle of the congregation; the boards of the Tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and sockets thereof,

32 And the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords, with all their instruments, and with all their service: and by name you shall reckon the instruments of the charge of their burden.

33 This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service, in the Tabernacle of the congregation, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the Priest. (The "charge" they were given was very important, even down to the "pins," which seemed to be the least of the items. If it's of the Lord, irrespective as to how small it might seem to be, it is important. Ithamar was in charge of this group as well, which means they were under Christ, for the Priesthood was a Type of Christ.)

KOHATH NUMBERED: 2,750

34 And Moses and Aaron and the chief of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites after their families, and after the house of their fathers,

35 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service, for the work in the Tabernacle of the congregation:

36 And those who were numbered of them by their families were two thousand seven hundred and fifty.

37 These were they who were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all who might do service in the Tabernacle of the congregation, which Moses and Aaron did number according to the Commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses. (We find the word "numbered" used over and over in these Verses. This tells us that each person is very special in the Eyes of God.)

GERSHON NUMBERED: 2,630

38 And those who were numbered of the sons of Gershon, throughout their families, and by the house of their fathers,

39 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service, for the work in the Tabernacle of the congregation,

40 Even those who were numbered of them, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers, were two thousand and six hundred and thirty.

41 These are they who were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, of all who might do service in the Tabernacle of the congregation, whom Moses and Aaron did number according to the Commandment of the LORD.

MERARI NUMBERED: 3,200

42 And those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers,

43 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service, for the work in the Tabernacle of the congregation,

44 Even those who were numbered of them after their families, were three thousand and two hundred.

45 These be those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the Word of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

THREE GROUPS: 8,580

46 All those who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the chief of Israel numbered, after their families, and after the house of their fathers,

47 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, everyone who came to do the service of the Ministry, and the service of the burden in the Tabernacle of the congregation,

48 Even those who were numbered of them, were eight thousand and five hundred and fourscore.

49 According to the Commandment of the LORD they were numbered by the hand of Moses, every one according to his service, and according to his burden: thus were they numbered of him, as the LORD commanded Moses. (Everything we are now studying is tied to Christ and the Cross. In fact, every single thing about the Tabernacle, all of its Vessels, the Sacrificial System, the Priesthood, their duties, and the duties of the Levites, all pictured Christ and His Redemptive Work, which, of course, is the Cross [I Cor. 1:17-18, 21, 23;; 2:2; Gal. 6:14].)

CHAPTER 5

(1490 B.C.)

CAMP REGULATIONS

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Command the Children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every leper, and everyone who has an issue, and whosoever is defiled by the dead (where God dwells, evil must be put out; where evil was committed, provision was made for restitution and forgiveness; but it had to be done God's Way; "leprosy" was a type of sin, and "death" was the result of sin [Rom. 6:23]):

[3] Both male and female shall you put out, without the camp shall you put them; that they defile not their camps, in the midst whereof I dwell (sin unconfessed and lacking Repentance separates one from God; the two, God and sin, cannot dwell together).

[4] And the Children of Israel did so, and put them out without the camp: as the LORD spoke unto Moses, so did the Children of Israel.

LAW OF RESTITUTION

[5] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[6] Speak unto the Children of Israel, When a man or woman shall commit any sin that men commit, to do a trespass against the LORD, and that person be guilty (Verses 5 through 10 concern trespasses against the Lord and against one's fellowman; while all sin is against the Lord, the weight of this Commandment is toward one Believer trespassing against another);

[7] Then they shall confess their sin which they have done: and he shall recompense his trespass with the principal thereof, and add unto it the fifth part thereof, and give it unto him against whom he has trespassed.

8 But if the man have no kinsman to recompense the trespass unto, let the trespass be recompensed unto the LORD, even to the Priest; beside the ram of the Atonement, whereby an Atonement shall be made for him. (In the case of private wrongs, restitution was to be made to the full amount of the injury done, with the addition of one-fifth to that amount. In case of the death of the person who suffered the injury, restitution should be made to his near kinsman. But also, in the event of there being no near kinsman, restitution should be made to the Lord, by giving the stipulated amount to the Priests, in order that it be used for the service of the Sanctuary.)

9 And every Offering of all the holy things of the Children of Israel, which they bring unto the Priest, shall be his (shall belong to the Priest).

10 And every man's hallowed things shall be his: whatsoever any man gives the Priest, it shall be his.

JEALOUSY

11 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

12 Speak unto the Children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man's wife go aside, and commit a trespass against him (the sin of adultery)**,

13 And a man lie with her carnally, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and be kept close, and she be defiled, and there be no witness against her, neither she be taken with the manner;

14 And the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled (he suspects that adultery has been committed, but has no proof): or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled (his suspicion is wrong)**:

15 Then shall the man bring his wife unto the Priest, and he shall bring her Offering for her, the tenth part of an ephah of barley meal; he shall pour no oil upon it, nor put frankincense thereon; for it is an Offering of jealousy, an Offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to remembrance (designed, if there in fact be iniquity, that it be exposed).

16 And the Priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD:

17 And the Priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is in the floor of the Tabernacle the Priest shall take, and put it into the water (the water of jealousy was a loving provision made by God for the protection of helpless women; however, it had a greater spiritual meaning; the "earthen vessel" was a Type of the Humanity of Christ; the "dust" from the floor of the Tabernacle symbolized the misery, hurt, and depravity of the human race; it symbolizes fallen man):

18 And the Priest shall set the woman before the LORD, and uncover the woman's head, and put the Offering of memorial in her hands, which is the jealousy Offering: and the Priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that causes the curse:

19 And the Priest shall charge her by an oath, and say unto the woman, If no man has laid with you, and if you have not gone aside to uncleanness with another instead of your husband, be thou free from this bitter water that causes the curse:

20 But if you have gone aside to another instead of your husband, and if you be defiled, and some man has laid with you beside your husband:

21 Then the Priest shall charge the woman with an oath of cursing, and the Priest shall say unto the woman, The LORD make you a curse and an oath among your people, when the LORD does make your thigh to rot, and your belly to swell (the bitter water, if the woman were guilty, would cause tremendous physical infirmities, meaning that she could not have children; if not guilty, there would be no ill effect; no doubt, the Holy Spirit superintended this);

22 And this water that causes the curse shall go into your bowels, to make your belly to swell, and your thigh to rot (providing the woman is guilty): And the woman shall say, Amen, amen. (The truth is, all of humanity was guilty. Jesus drank the bitter water on our behalf, and died on the Cross, even though He was not guilty at all. He took our place, and "redeemed us from the curse of the Law, being made a curse for us" [Gal. 3:13].)

[23] And the Priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall blot them out with the bitter water:

[24] And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causes the curse: and the water that causes the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter.

[25] Then the Priest shall take the jealousy Offering out of the woman's hand, and shall wave the Offering before the Lord, and offer it upon the Altar (this signified thankfulness to the Lord, that He would ascertain the right or the wrong in this situation; in other words, the Lord would be the Judge):

[26] And the Priest shall take an handful of the Offering, even the memorial thereof, and burn it upon the Altar, and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the water (as always, the Altar and the burning typified what Christ would do on the Cross).

[27] And when he has made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, that, if she be defiled, and have done trespass against her husband, that the water that causes the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall rot: and the woman shall be a curse among her people (in a broader interpretation of this "law of jealousies," such portrays the record of Israel's shame and sin in departing from the Living God and crucifying her Saviour, which was all blotted out in the bitter waters of Calvary [Col 2:14; Isa. 43:25]).

[28] And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall conceive seed (will be able to bear children, meaning that she wouldn't be able to bear children were she guilty).

29 This is the law of jealousies, when a wife goes aside to another instead of her husband, and is defiled;

30 Or when the spirit of jealousy comes upon him, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the LORD, and the Priest shall execute upon her all this law.

31 Then shall the man be guiltless from iniquity, and this woman shall bear her iniquity. (While this was true under the Law, as it could only be true under the Law, it is no longer true presently. Christ has taken our place. "He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities" [Isa. 53:5].)

CHAPTER 6

(1490 B.C.)

THE NAZARITE

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Speak unto the Children of Israel, and say unto them, When either man or woman shall separate themselves to vow a vow of a Nazarite, to separate themselves unto the LORD (from the Nazarite idea came the Rachabites, the Essenes, Anchorites, Hermits, Monks, and other monastic orders; to say that Christ was a Nazarite is unscriptural, for He drank of the fruit of the vine and touched the dead, which Nazarites were forbidden to do [Mat. 9:25; 11:19; 26:29; Mk. 14:25])**:

[3] He shall separate himself from wine and strong drink, and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or dried (the Nazarite must not touch any type of alcoholic beverage, or even anything that pertained to a vineyard, such as grapes or grape juice).

[4] All the days of his separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the vine tree, from the kernels even to the husk (while the life of the Nazarite was one of separation, it was not to be one of isolation; in fact, his life was to be one of action, one of uninterrupted devotion to the Divine Service).

[5] All the days of the vow of his separation there shall no razor come upon his head: until the days be fulfilled, in the which he separates himself unto the LORD, he shall be holy, and shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow (in those days, long hair on a man signified weakness, and the evidence is, most of those who entertained a Nazarite vow were men; so, by demanding this, the Holy Spirit was showing the weakness of man, irrespective as to who the person might be).

6 All the days that he separates himself unto the LORD he shall come at no dead body (death in all of its forms is a product originally of sin [Rom. 6:23]).

7 He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die: because the consecration of his God is upon his head (even if a close loved one died, he was not to touch them).

8 All the days of his separation he is holy unto the LORD.

9 And if any man die very suddenly by him, and he has defiled the head of his consecration (has touched a dead body); then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall he shave it.

10 And on the eighth day (Resurrection day) he shall bring two turtles (turtledoves), or two young pigeons, to the Priest, to the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation:

11 And the Priest shall offer the one for a Sin Offering, and the other for a Burnt Offering, and make an Atonement for him, for that he sinned by the dead, and shall hallow his head that same day (all sin, and all defilement, and to any degree, can only be addressed at the Cross).

12 And he shall consecrate unto the LORD the days of his separation, and shall bring a lamb of the first year for a Trespass Offering: but the days that were before shall be lost, because his separation was defiled.

13 And this is the law of the Nazarite, when the days of his separation are fulfilled: he shall be brought unto the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation:

14 And he shall offer his Offering unto the LORD, one he lamb of the first year without blemish for a Burnt Offering, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish for a Sin Offering, and one ram without blemish for Peace Offerings (even though Christ never took the Nazarite vow, the truth is, He was the One True and Perfect Nazarite in the world.

He maintained from the first to the last the most complete separation from all mere earthly joy.

Concerning this, Mackintosh says, "From the moment He entered upon His Public Work, He kept Himself apart from all that was of this world, His Heart was fixed upon God and His Work, with a devotion that nothing could shake. No claims of Earth or nature were ever allowed, for a single moment, to come in-between His Heart and that Work which He came to do. His Eye was single and His heart undivided. This is apparent from the first to the last. He could say to His Disciples, 'I have meat to eat that you know not of'; and when they, not knowing the deep significance of His Words, said 'Has any man brought Him ought to eat?' He replied, 'My meat is to do the Will of Him Who sent Me, and to finish His Work'" [Jn. 4:34]), 15 And a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, and wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oil, and their Meat Offering, and their Drink Offerings (everything said here typified Christ in some fashion, regarding His Mediatorial, Intercessory, and Atoning Work).

16 And the Priest shall bring them before the LORD, and shall offer his Sin Offering, and his Burnt Offering:

17 And he shall offer the ram for a Sacrifice of Peace Offerings unto the LORD (with the Sin Offering and Burnt Offering now offered, the "Peace Offerings" can now be offered, simply because peace with God has now been re-established), with the basket of unleavened bread (typifying the Perfection of Christ as a Man): the Priest shall offer also his Meat Offering (a Thanksgiving Offering), and his Drink Offering (typifying a life poured out solely for the Lord).

18 And the Nazarite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it in the fire which is under the Sacrifice of the Peace Offerings (the long hair, which the Nazarite might be tempted to keep as a proud memorial of his consecration, he had to place into the fire to be burnt; and so will the Holy Spirit do to our pride, if we allow Him proper latitude).

[19] And the Priest shall take the sodden shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them upon the hands of the Nazarite, after the hair of his separation is shaven:

[20] And the Priest shall wave them for a Wave Offering before the LORD: this is holy for the Priest, with the wave breast (thanksgiving to the Lord) and heave shoulder (symbolizes Christ coming from Heaven to this Earth, in order to give His Life that humanity might be redeemed): and after that the Nazarite may drink wine.

[21] This is the law of the Nazarite who has vowed, and of his Offering unto the LORD for his separation, beside that that his hand shall get: according to the vow which he vowed, so he must do after the law of his separation. (Even though all the separation was done by the Nazarite, he must ever understand that the separation itself contained no Blessing. The Blessing came from the Lord and, more particularly, from Christ, and what He would do at the Cross, typified by the many Sacrifices offered.)

PRIESTLY BENEDICTION

[22] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[23] Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise you shall bless the Children of Israel, saying unto them (how very many times we think that the Blessings come upon us because of our separation, consecration, or dedication; however, it must forever be understood that God cannot bless sinful man, irrespective of his dedication or consecration, but rather He blesses Christ within us, and Christ Alone)**,

[24] The LORD bless you, and keep you:

[25] The LORD make His Face shine upon you, and be gracious unto you (Christ is the Source of all blessings, with the Cross being the Means;

Grace is made possible solely by the Cross [Gal. 2:21; 5:2-4])*:

[26] The LORD lift up His countenance upon you, and give you peace.

[27] And they shall put My Name upon the Children of Israel; and I will bless them. (Above all, God is a God of blessing. He desires to do such for His children. All blessings come exclusively, as stated, through Christ and the Cross; consequently, the Cross must ever be the object of our Faith, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work within our lives [Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11].)

CHAPTER 7

(1490 B.C.)

THE ALTAR

[1] And it came to pass on the day that Moses had fully set up the Tabernacle, and had anointed it, and sanctified it, and all the instruments thereof, both the Altar and all the Vessels thereof, and had anointed them, and sanctified them;

[2] That the Princes of Israel, heads of the house of their fathers, who were the Princes of the Tribes, and were over them who were numbered, offered (Chapter 7 concerns itself with the dedication of the Brazen Altar and the gifts of the twelve Tribes of Israel):

[3] And they brought their Offering before the LORD, six covered wagons, and twelve oxen; a wagon for two of the Princes, and for each one an ox: and they brought them before the Tabernacle (all Offerings must be to the Lord, and we must make doubly certain that they are never for self-aggrandizement).

SERVICE

[4] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[5] Take it of them, that they may be to do the service of the Tabernacle of the congregation; and you shall give them unto the Levites, to every man according to his service (it seems that the Lord had laid it on the hearts of the Princes of the Tribes to bring covered wagons, which were to be used for the transportation of the Tabernacle, when it was disassembled and, according to the Holy Spirit, moved to another place).

[6] And Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them unto the Levites.

7 Two wagons and four oxen he gave unto the sons of Gershon, according to their service:

8 And four wagons and eight oxen he gave unto the sons of Merari, according unto their service, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the Priest.

9 But unto the sons of Kohath he gave none: because the service of the Sanctuary belonging unto them was that they should bear upon their shoulders (this included the Ark of the Covenant, the Golden Lampstand, the Altar of Worship, and the Table of Shewbread, along with the Brazen Altar and the Brazen Laver; however, the balance of the Tabernacle and the fence could be carried in the wagons, etc.).

10 And the Princes offered for dedicating of the Altar in the day that it was anointed, even the Princes offered their Offering before the Altar (Brazen Altar).

11 And the LORD said unto Moses, They shall offer their Offering, each Prince on his day, for the dedicating of the Altar (this means that the "Altar" was the centerpiece of the whole of Israel, typifying the Cross, which is the centerpiece of Christianity).

12 And he who offered his Offering the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, of the Tribe of Judah ("Judah" means "praise"; so the dedication of the Altar began with Praise)**:

13 And his Offering was one silver charger, the weight thereof was an hundred and thirty shekels (worth about $780 in 2004 currency), one silver bowl of seventy shekels (worth about $420), after the shekel of the Sanctuary; both of them were full of fine flour (typical of the Perfection of the Manhood of Christ) mingled with oil (typical of the Holy Spirit on Christ) for a Meat Offering (a Thanksgiving Offering to God for giving us Christ)**:

14 One spoon of ten shekels of gold, full of incense:

15 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a Burnt Offering:

16 One kid of the goats for a Sin Offering:

17 And for a Sacrifice of Peace Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the Offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab. (Concerning this, Williams says: "The human historian would compress the Offerings of these Princes into one Verse — for they were all identical; but to God they were so precious that they are minutely detailed and repeated.")

18 On the second day Nethaneel the son of Zuar, Prince of Issachar, did offer:

19 He offered for his Offering one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a Meat Offering:

20 One spoon of gold of ten shekels, full of incense:

21 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a Burnt Offering:

22 One kid of the goats for a Sin Offering:

23 And for a Sacrifice of Peace Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the Offering of Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

24 On the third day Eliab the son of Helon, Prince of the Children of Zebulun, did offer:

25 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a Meat Offering:

26 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

27 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a Burnt Offering:

28 One kid of the goats for a Sin Offering:

29 And for a Sacrifice of Peace Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the Offering of Eliab the son of Helon.

30 On the fourth day Elizur the son of Shedeur, Prince of the Children of Reuben, did offer:

31 His offering was one silver charger of the weight of an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a Meat Offering:

32 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

33 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a Burnt Offering:

34 One kid of the goats for a Sin Offering:

35 And for a Sacrifice of Peace Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the Offering of Elizur the son of Shedeur.

36 On the fifth day Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, Prince of the Children of Simeon, did offer:

37 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a Meat Offering:

38 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

39 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a Burnt Offering:

40 One kid of the goats for a Sin Offering:

41 And for a Sacrifice of Peace Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the Offering of Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

42 On the sixth day Eliasaph the son of Deuel, Prince of the Children of Gad, offered:

43 His offering was one silver charger of the weight of an hundred and thirty shekels, a silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a Meat Offering:

44 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

45 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a Burnt Offering:

46 One kid of the goats for a Sin Offering:

47 And for a Sacrifice of Peace Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the Offering of Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

48 On the seventh day Elishama the son of Ammihud, Prince of the Children of Ephraim, offered:

49 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekels of the Sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a Meat Offering:

50 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

51 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a Burnt Offering:

52 One kid of the goats for a Sin Offering:

53 And for a Sacrifice of Peace Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Elishama the son of Ammihud.

54 On the eighth day offered Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, Prince of the Children of Manasseh:

55 His offering was one silver charger of the weight of an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a Meat Offering:

56 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

57 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a Burnt Offering:

58 One kid of the goats for a Sin Offering:

59 And for a Sacrifice of Peace Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the Offering of Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

60 On the ninth day Abidan the son of Gideoni, Prince of the Children of Benjamin, offered:

61 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a Meat Offering:

62 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

63 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a Burnt Offering:

64 One kid of the goats for a Sin Offering:

65 And for a Sacrifice of Peace Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the Offering of Abidan the son of Gideoni. (The Tribe of Benjamin was one of the smallest; thus we find that the Offering of the smallest Tribe was given as much importance in the Eyes of God as the Offering of the greatest Tribe.)

66 On the tenth day Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai, Prince of the Children of Dan, offered:

67 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a Meat Offering:

68 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

69 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a Burnt Offering:

70 One kid of the goats for a Sin Offering:

71 And for a Sacrifice of Peace Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the Offering of Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

72 On the eleventh day Pagiel the son of Ocran, Prince of the Children of Asher, offered:

73 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a Meat Offering:

74 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

75 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a Burnt Offering:

76 One kid of the goats for a Sin Offering:

77 And for a Sacrifice of Peace Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the Offering of Pagiel the son of Ocran.

78 On the twelfth day Ahira the son of Enan, Prince of the Children of Naphtali, offered:

79 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a Meat Offering:

80 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

81 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a Burnt Offering:

82 One kid of the goats for a Sin Offering:

83 And for a Sacrifice of Peace Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the Offering of Ahira the son of Enan.

84 This was the dedication of the Altar, in the day when it was anointed, by the Princes of Israel: twelve chargers of silver, twelve silver bowls, twelve spoons of gold:

[85] Each charger of silver weighing an hundred and thirty shekels, each bowl seventy: all the silver vessels weighed two thousand and four hundred shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary:

[86] The golden spoons were twelve, full of incense, weighing ten shekels apiece, after the shekel of the Sanctuary: all the gold of the spoons was an hundred and twenty shekels.

[87] All the oxen for the Burnt Offering were twelve bullocks, the rams twelve, the lambs of the first year twelve, with their Meat Offering: and the kids of the goats for Sin Offering twelve.

[88] And all the oxen for the Sacrifice of the Peace Offerings were twenty and four bullocks, the rams sixty, the he goats sixty, the lambs of the first year sixty. This was the dedication of the Altar, after that it was anointed. (As stated, the "Brazen Altar" was the single most important Vessel. Some may argue that the Ark of the Covenant was the most important; in the true sense of the word that would be true. But yet, there was no way that the Ark of the Covenant could be reached, unless one first went by the Brazen Altar, of which the latter was typical of Christ and the Cross.)

MOSES

[89] And when Moses was gone into the Tabernacle of the congregation to speak with Him, then he heard the Voice of one speaking unto him from off the Mercy Seat that was upon the Ark of Testimony, from between the two Cherubims: and He (God) spoke unto him. (The Voice that spoke to Moses from the flame of the Mercy Seat was also the same Voice that spoke from the flame of the burning bush, and from the Glory of Revelation 1:12. It was also the Voice that said, "Learn of Me" [Mat. 11:29].)

CHAPTER 8

(1490 B.C.)

THE LAMPS

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Speak unto Aaron, and say unto him, When you light the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light over against the Candlestick. (These "Lamps" were a Type of Christ, Who is the "Light of the world" [Jn. 8:12]. Christ is the Source of that light, the Cross is the Means of that light, and the Holy Spirit is the Instrument by and through which the light comes to fallen humanity, typified by the oil. So, in the Golden Lampstand, we have Christ, the Cross, and the Holy Spirit. The Reader must understand that all the things which the Lord is, and He is everything, cannot be given to the lost sons of Adam's fallen race, except by the means of the Cross [I Cor. 1:23].)

[3] And Aaron did so; he lit the lamps thereof over against the Candlestick (Lampstand), as the LORD commanded Moses.

[4] And this work of the Candlestick was of beaten gold (typifying Christ, Who is God, but Who would become Man, hence the word "beaten"), unto the shaft thereof (the central shaft of the Golden Lampstand typifies Christ), unto the flowers thereof, was beaten work (the "flowers" come about in the life of the Believer, which the six stems on the two sides of the shaft represent, only as those stems are properly in Christ, i.e., the main shaft): according unto the pattern which the LORD had showed Moses, so he made the Candlestick (the "Pattern" is the Word of God; we must not deviate from that Word).

THE LEVITES

[5] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

6 Take the Levites from among the Children of Israel, and cleanse them. (The "Levites" were representatives of the congregation, whereas the Priests were representatives of Christ. The Priests had already been consecrated, and now the Levites were, as well, to be consecrated for service, i.e., "cleansed," which could only be done by the "blood of the lamb.")

7 And thus shall you do unto them, to cleanse them: Sprinkle water of purifying upon them (a Type of the Word of God, water taken from the Brazen Laver), and let them shave all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean (the "shaving" and "washing" were symbolic of Sanctification, which could only truly come about upon the advent of the Holy Spirit in a new Dispensation, after the Cross [Jn. 14:16-17])**.

8 Then let them take a young bullock (Sin Offering) with his Meat Offering (a Thanksgiving Offering consisting of bread, and no flesh), even fine flour (Perfection of Christ) mingled with oil (Holy Spirit upon Christ), and another young bullock shall you take for a Sin Offering.

9 And you shall bring the Levites before the Tabernacle of the congregation: and you shall gather the whole assembly of the Children of Israel together:

10 And you shall bring the Levites before the LORD (near the Brazen Altar): and the Children of Israel shall put their hands upon the Levites (probably the tribal Princes; the laying on of hands signified that the obligation to assist personally in the service of the Sanctuary was transferred from the whole congregation to the Levites)**:

11 And Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD for an Offering (Wave Offering) of the Children of Israel, that they may execute the service of the LORD. (There numbered more than 8,000 Levites, so, most probably, leaders among them marched up and down beside the Altar, symbolic of the Wave Offering. They now belonged to the Lord, and were to do His service only.)

12 And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks (transferring their sins to the bullocks in type, symbolic of Christ, Who would take our sins on the Cross): and you shall offer the one (bullock) for a Sin Offering, and the other for a Burnt Offering, unto the LORD, to make an Atonement for the Levites (there was no Peace Offering; for the subject here was not worship and fellowship, as in Leviticus, but the service and warfare of the Wilderness).

13 And you shall set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them for an Offering unto the LORD.

14 Thus shall you separate the Levites from among the Children of Israel: and the Levites shall be Mine (for the Lord's service only).

15 And after that shall the Levites go in to do the service of the Tabernacle of the congregation: and you shall cleanse them, and offer them for an Offering.

16 For they are wholly given unto Me from among the Children of Israel: instead of such as open every womb, even instead of the firstborn of all the Children of Israel, have I taken them unto Me. (Previously, it seems that the Lord had designated that the firstborn of the males would serve in this capacity, but changed it to the sons of Levi, i.e., "the Levites.")

17 For all the first born of the Children of Israel are Mine, both man and beast: on the day that I smote every firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for Myself (the "firstborn," in a sense, were types of Christ, Who would be the "Firstborn among many brethren," signifying Christ as the originator of Salvation [Rom. 8:29]).

18 And I have taken the Levites for all the firstborn of the Children of Israel (the Levites took the place of the firstborn, as it regards service to the Sanctuary).

19 And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the Children of Israel, to do the service of the Children of Israel in the Tabernacle of the congregation, and to make an Atonement for the Children of Israel: that there be no plague among the Children of Israel, when the Children of Israel come near unto the Sanctuary. (The idea of the Levites "making an Atonement" has to do with the fact that they functioned in the realm of the Sanctuary, with its chief purpose being the Brazen Altar and the Sacrifices. Believers helping to take the Message of the Cross to a dying world fall into the same category. Paul said so [Phil. 4:17-19]. The only thing that stands between the people and the "plague" is the Cross of Christ.)

20 And Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the Children of Israel, did to the Levites according unto all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did the Children of Israel unto them.

21 And the Levites were purified, and they washed their clothes; and Aaron offered them as an Offering before the LORD; and Aaron made an Atonement for them to cleanse them.

22 And after that went the Levites in to do their service in the Tabernacle of the congregation before Aaron, and before his sons: as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did they unto them. (This refers only to the time that the Tabernacle was to be moved. If anybody but the Priests went in any other time, they could be stricken dead.)

LEVITICAL SERVICE

23 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

24 This is it that belongs unto the Levites: from twenty and five years old and upward they shall go in to wait upon the service of the Tabernacle of the congregation (it was changed here from 30 to 25 and during the time of David it was changed to 20 [I Chron. 23:24-27])**:

25 And from the age of fifty years they shall cease waiting upon the service thereof, and shall serve no more:

26 But shall minister with their brethren in the Tabernacle of the congregation, to keep the charge, and shall do no service. Thus shall you do unto the Levites touching their charge. (Those over 50 were given some honorary duties, that they might have some place and post in the House of God.)

CHAPTER 9

(1490 B.C.)

THE PASSOVER

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

[2] Let the Children of Israel also keep the Passover at his appointed season (which would have been in our April; they had kept the Passover one year earlier in Egypt).

[3] In the fourteenth day of this month, at evening, you shall keep it in his appointed season: according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof, shall you keep it. (Redemption by blood was their foundation and, as well, is the foundation also of all Christian experience. It cleanses the conscience, restores the soul, and inspires the songs and feasts of Canaan. Never in this world, nor in that which is to come, will redeemed men reach a degree of holiness that will permit them to dispense with the Precious Blood of Christ. The indication is, this was the last time they kept the Passover in the wilderness, which was a time frame of approximately 40 years. Considering that there were approximately 3 million people, it is not known exactly how they accomplished this Passover, considering the river of blood that would have to be poured out at the Altar. It is believed it would have taken well over 100,000 lambs. All of this tells us that our Salvation didn't come cheaply.)

[4] And Moses spoke unto the Children of Israel, that they should keep the Passover.

[5] And they kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month at evening in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the Children of Israel.

6 And there were certain men, who were defiled by the dead body of a man, that they could not keep the Passover on that day: and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day:

7 And those men said unto him, We are defiled by the dead body of a man: wherefore are we kept back, that we may not offer an Offering of the LORD in His appointed season among the Children of Israel?

8 And Moses said unto them, Stand still, and I will hear what the LORD will command concerning you. (Let all Believers understand that we must have the Mind of the Lord in all things.)

UNCLEAN

9 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the Children of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your posterity shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be in a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the Passover unto the LORD.

11 The fourteenth day of the second month at evening they shall keep it, and eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. (This meant they could eat it a month late. If they were unclean, they would have time now to be purified. If they were on a journey, and could be back before the appointed time, they could then eat it.)

12 They shall leave none of it unto the morning, nor break any bone of it: according to all the Ordinances of the Passover they shall keep it (even though they were doing so of themselves at a later time; but all the Ordinances must be kept).

13 But the man who is clean, and is not in a journey, and forbears to keep the Passover (does not keep the Passover), even the same soul shall be cut off from among his people: because he brought not the Offering of the LORD in his appointed season, that man shall bear his sin (one would lose one's soul if the Passover was ignored; likewise, one will lose one's soul presently, if the Cross is ignored).

[14] And if a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the Passover unto the LORD; according to the Ordinance of the Passover, and according to the manner thereof, so shall he do: you shall have one Ordinance, both for the stranger (Gentile), and for him who was born in the land (in essence, Faith in Christ and the Cross is identical for all).

THE CLOUD

[15] And on the day that the Tabernacle was reared up the cloud (Glory of the Lord) covered the Tabernacle, namely, the tent of the Testimony: and at evening there was upon the Tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until the morning (the Testimony was the Decalogue written on the two tables of stone, and enshrined within the Ark of the Covenant, the moral law which lay at the heart of Judaism; the tent of the Testimony was the Holy of Holies, in which the Ark dwelt).

[16] So it was always: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night (this supernatural phenomenon was not transitory, but rather permanent, at least as long as the Israelites were in the wilderness).

[17] And when the cloud was taken up from the Tabernacle, then after that the Children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the Children of Israel pitched their tents. (Williams says, "God protected them by day and by night. He planned for them. He chose their camping ground. He decided when they were to march and when they were to rest. According to the Word of the Lord, they journeyed and, according to the Word of the Lord, they abode in their tents — whether by day or by night, or whether it were two days, or a month, or a year. Thus, Israel's Shepherd led His flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.")

[18] At the Commandment of the LORD the Children of Israel journeyed, and at the Commandment of the LORD they pitched: as long as the cloud abode upon the Tabernacle they rested in their tents.

19 And when the cloud tarried long upon the Tabernacle many days, then the Children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD, and journeyed not (everything was according to the disposition of the cloud).

20 And so it was, when the cloud was a few days upon the Tabernacle; according to the Commandment of the LORD they abode in their tents, and according to the Commandment of the LORD they journeyed.

21 And so it was, when the cloud abode from evening unto the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed.

22 Or whether it were two days or a month, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the Tabernacle, remaining thereon, the Children of Israel abode in their tents, and journeyed not: but when it was taken up, they journeyed.

23 At the Commandment of the LORD they rested in the tents, and at the Commandment of the LORD they journeyed: they kept the charge of the LORD, at the Commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

CHAPTER 10

(1490 B.C.)

TWO TRUMPETS

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Make thee two trumpets of silver (in the Old Testament, "silver" portrays Redemption); of a whole piece shall you make them: that you may use them for the calling of the Assembly, and for the journeying of the camps (the two silver trumpets illustrate the Old and the New Testaments; they were made of one piece; and their testimony to the host of Israel, however varied the Message, was one; their ministry was: first, to gather the people together around the Tabernacle; and, second, to set them in motion for Canaan).

[3] And when they shall blow with them, all the Assembly shall assemble themselves to you at the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation.

[4] And if they blow but with one trumpet, then the Princes, which are heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves unto you.

[5] When you blow an alarm, then the camps that lie on the east parts shall go forward (the trumpets were used to sound an alarm for war and, as well, a joyful sound for Festival).

[6] When you blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall take their journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys (the trumpets, as well, were a Type of the Word of God being rightly divided and presented to the people).

[7] But when the congregation is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm (this particular blast did not signal war, but rather a Festival gathering).

8 And the sons of Aaron, the Priests, shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you for an Ordinance forever throughout your generations (as stated, the sound of these trumpets continue in the presentation of the Word of God, and shall do so forever).

9 And if you go to war in your land against the enemy that oppresses you, then you shall blow an alarm with the trumpets; and you shall be remembered before the LORD your God, and you shall be saved from your enemies (in the Word of the Lord alone do we find victory over our enemies, and that particular word is the Cross [Rom. 6:3-14; I Cor. 1:17-18, 21, 23; 2:2; Gal. 6:14]).

10 Also in the day of your gladness, and in your solemn days, and in the beginnings of your months, you shall blow with the trumpets over your Burnt Offerings, and over the Sacrifices of your Peace Offerings; that they may be to you for a memorial before your God: I am the LORD your God (whether in war or in worship, the purpose was not to convoke the people, nor to give signals to the host, but to put God in mind of His Promises, and to invoke His Covenanted Grace; if systematically the Priests were to blow the trumpets the first of each month over their Sacrifices, which signified the Cross, this means that unless we preach the Cross, we aren't blowing the correct sound [I Cor. 1:18]).

LEAVING SINAI

11 And it came to pass on the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, that the cloud was taken up from off the Tabernacle of the testimony (Israel had rested an entire year at Mount Sinai; the tender love which planned such rest after the excitement of the coming out of Egypt, and the march to Horeb, showed how real was the care and affection that God had for His people; the "cloud" moved, so they were to move).

12 And the Children of Israel took their journeys out of the wilderness of Sinai; and the cloud rested in the wilderness of Paran (even though it was a wilderness, the "cloud" was there; the Presence of the Lord can turn a wilderness into a Paradise, that is, if we will only believe Him).

13 And they first took their journey according to the Commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

ORDER OF THE MARCH

14 In the first place went the standard of the camp of the Children of Judah according to their armies: and over his host was Nahshon the son of Amminadab (Judah means "praise," so Israel was led by praise when they marched; this is our example, so it should be followed presently, as well; everything should begin by Praise to the Lord [I Cor. 10:6-7]).

15 And over the host of the Tribe of the Children of Issachar was Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

16 And over the host of the Tribe of the Children of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon.

17 And the Tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set forward, bearing the Tabernacle (the general structure of the apparatus was packed upon the six wagons provided for this purpose [7:5-9]).

18 And the standard of the camp of Reuben set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elizur the son of Shedeur.

19 And over the host of the Tribe of the Children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

20 And over the host of the Tribe of the Children of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

21 And the Kohathites set forward, bearing the Sanctuary: and the other did set up the Tabernacle against they came (the Kohathites could not set up the sacred Vessels of which they were in charge, until the Tabernacle was erected, of which the Gershonites and Merarites were in charge).

22 And the standard of the camp of the Children of Ephraim set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elishama the son of Ammihud.

[23] And over the host of the Tribe of the Children of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

[24] And over the host of the Tribe of the Children of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideoni.

[25] And the standard of the camp of the Children of Dan set forward, which was the rereward of all the camps throughout their hosts: and over his host was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai (the Tribe of Dan brought up the rear, whose name means "judgment"; this meant that any enemy who attempted to strike Israel from the rear would be judged by the Lord).

[26] And over the host of the Tribe of the Children of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran.

[27] And over the host of the Tribe of the Children of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan (it is sad when we read here these names, and realize that they all perished in the wilderness because of a lack of Faith [Heb. 4:1-6]).

[28] Thus were the journeyings of the Children of Israel according to their armies, when they set forward.

[29] And Moses said unto Hobab, the son of Raguel the Midianite, Moses' father in law, We are journeying unto the place of which the LORD said, I will give it you: come thou with us, and we will do you good: for the LORD has spoken good concerning Israel (it is not exactly certain as to who was Hobab; some think this could have been another name for Jethro; there is no Hebrew name for father-in-law; the Hebrew word simply means "a marriage relation"; so this man probably was Jethro or a brother of Jethro).

[30] And he said unto him, I will not go; but I will depart to my own land, and to my kindred (Hobab foolishly refused to join the people of God; as a result, his descendants [I Sam. 15:6] nearly perished as the result of their ancestor's folly; wherever the Lord is, that is where we should desire to be).

31 And he said, Leave us not, I pray you; forasmuch as you know how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and you may be to us instead of eyes (this had nothing to do with direction, that being provided entirely by the Lord; it rather pertained to the peculiarities of the wilderness, of which Hobab evidently was greatly familiar).

32 And it shall be, if you go with us, yes, it shall be, that what goodness the LORD shall do unto us, the same will we do unto you (the same invitation is now given to all! [Mat. 11:28-30]).

33 And they departed from the Mount of the LORD three days' journey: and the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD went before them in the three days' journey, to search out a resting place for them (this was their first move after leaving Sinai, but, regrettably, because of unbelief, the future would not bode well).

34 And the cloud of the LORD was upon them by day, when they went out of the camp (they journeyed, the entire near 3 million of them, under the shadow of the cloud; today we have more and better, in that the Holy Spirit abides permanently within us [I Cor. 3:16]).

35 And it came to pass, when the Ark set forward, that Moses said, Rise up, LORD, and let Your enemies be scattered; and let them who hate You flee before You (the 68th Psalm seems to have been written as a result of this prayer of Moses; let it ever be known, if our Faith is firmly anchored in the Cross of Christ, giving the Holy Spirit latitude to work within our lives, the "enemies" will most definitely be scattered [Rom. 8:1-2, 11]).

36 And when it rested, he said, Return, O LORD, unto the many thousands of Israel. (When the Ark and the Cloud set forward, it was the Almighty God going on before to victory; when the Ark and the Cloud rested, it was the all-merciful God returning to protect and cherish His Own.)

CHAPTER 11

(1490 B.C.)

COMPLAINT

[1] And when the people complained, it displeased the LORD: and the LORD heard it (complaining means unbelief, and unbelief always leads to spiritual death; before they came to Sinai, the Lord had passed over similar murmurings without any chastisement [Ex. 15:24; 16:2]; but He will not let this pass; by now, they should know better; we must never take God's Mercy and Grace as a condoning of sin; if sin continues, as it did here with Israel, chastisement will ultimately come); and His anger was kindled; and the fire of the LORD burnt among them, and consumed them who were in the uttermost parts of the camp (most probably, this fire came from the Holy of Holies, striking down the complainers, exactly as it did Nadab and Abihu [Lev. 10:1-2]).

[2] And the people cried unto Moses; and when Moses prayed unto the LORD, the fire was quenched (Moses served as a Type of Christ, our Intercessor).

[3] And he called the name of the place Taberah (a burning): because the fire of the LORD burnt among them (because of unbelief).

ISRAEL'S DEMAND

[4] And the mixed multitude who was among them fell a lusting (this "mixed multitude" were Egyptians, who had come out of Egypt with Israel; this proves the fact that although they were "in" Israel, they were not "of" Israel; they "lusted" for flesh to eat, registering dissatisfaction with what the Lord had provided; complaints, as here, generally draw sympathy from the disgruntled): and the Children of Israel also wept again, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat? (They had flocks and herds, but the increase of them would little more than suffice for sacrifice; so, they could not slaughter them for ordinary eating.)

5 We remember the fish, which we did eat in Egypt freely; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlick *(unbelief forgot the slavery, as unbelief always forgets that which it should not forget, and remembers that which it should not remember):

6 But now our soul is dried away: there is nothing at all, besides this manna, before our eyes (it only needed the test of the Wilderness to make visible the incurable unbelief and ignorance of their hearts; forgetting the lash of the taskmaster, they recalled the perishing bread of Egypt and turned away with loathing from the Manna! To a heart not in communion with God, Christ, the True Manna, becomes distasteful, and nourishment is sought in "the world," which holds in bondage those who go down to it).

7 And the Manna was as coriander seed *(a flavoring type of seed, which probably had the capacity to flavor the Manna to whatever was desired), and the colour thereof as the colour of bdellium (white [Ex. 16:31]).

8 And the people went about, and gathered it, and ground it in mills, or beat it in a mortar, and baked it in pans, and made cakes of it: and the taste of it was as the taste of fresh oil (in Exodus 16:31, it is said to have tasted like wafers made with honey).

9 And when the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the Manna fell upon it (there seems to be little or no connection between the dew and the Manna; when the dew evaporated in the morning, it left a deposit of Manna upon the ground).

MOSES COMPLAINS

10 Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent *(such was the contagion of evil, that every family was infected; they seemed to be acting as a petulant child, who, throwing a tantrum, thinks thereby to get his way): and the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly; Moses also was displeased (the complaining was directed against God, and against Moses as His Minister).

[11] And Moses said unto the LORD, Wherefore have You afflicted Your Servant? (These passionate complaints were clearly wrong, because exaggerated) and wherefore have I not found favor in Your sight, that You lay the burden of all this people upon me? (In a word, Moses forgot himself and his duty as mediator, and, in his indignation at the sin of the people, committed the same sin himself.)

[12] Have I conceived all this people? have I begotten them, that You should say unto me, Carry them in your bosom, as a nursing father bears the sucking child, unto the land which You swear unto their fathers?

[13] Whence should I have flesh (meat) to give unto all this people? for they weep unto me, saying, Give us flesh, that we may eat.

[14] I am not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me (evidently, Jethro's advice seemed ultimately to be of no consequence; in fact, it was of no consequence [Ex., Chpt. 18]).

[15] And if you deal thus with me, kill me, I pray you, out of hand, if I have found favour in Your sight; and let me not see my wretchedness (like Elijah, Moses petulantly calls upon God to kill him out of hand; and yet, these two men appeared with the God of Glory upon the Mount of Transfiguration!).

SEVENTY MEN

[16] And the LORD said unto Moses, Gather unto Me seventy men of the Elders of Israel, whom you know to be the Elders of the people, and officers over them *(these were chosen by God, and not by Jethro; it is believed that the Sanhedrin, the ruling body of Israel, originated with the Seventy Elders); and bring them unto the Tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with you.

[17] And I will come down and talk with you there: and I will take of the Spirit (Holy Spirit) which is upon you, and will put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, that you bear it not yourself alone (a pitying Grace relieved him of the weight of his charge while upbraiding him; however, Moses was, in truth, no whit less burdened, for the spiritual power granted to the Seventy Elders was taken from him).

[18] And say thou unto the people, Sanctify yourselves against tomorrow, and you shall eat flesh: for you have wept in the Ears of the LORD, saying, Who shall give us flesh to eat? for it was well with us in Egypt (this is what they said, and what came up into the ears of the Lord. What a travesty! It wasn't well with them in Egypt. They were slaves, and, thereby, begging God to deliver them [Ex. 3:9]): therefore the LORD will give you flesh, and you shall eat.

[19] You shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days;

[20] But even a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome unto you: because that you have despised the LORD which is among you, and have wept before Him, saying, Why came we forth out of Egypt? (We as Believers had better be careful for what we pray. It might be answered!)

[21] And Moses said, The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand footmen (men of war, beside those younger and older, and the women and children); and You have said, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month (unbelief is registered in Moses' statement).

[22] Shall the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them? (Moses had complained, so it hindered his faith. Complaining always hinders faith. If Moses' faith, in the world of that day, could be hindered, what about us presently?)

[23] And the LORD said unto Moses, Is the LORD's Hand waxed short? you shall see now whether My Word shall come to pass unto you or not (there is no situation which the Lord cannot handle, if His people will only believe Him).

[24] And Moses went out, and told the people the words of the LORD, and gathered the seventy men of the Elders of the people, and set them round about the Tabernacle (evidently, the Lord told Moses to place these "Elders" in a certain place and position).

[25] And the LORD came down in a cloud, and spoke unto him, and took of the Spirit (Holy Spirit) that was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy Elders: and it came to pass, that, when the Spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, and did not cease. (The "cloud" was the perpetual Presence with them. When the Spirit of the Lord came upon the Elders, they could then function in the service of the Lord. Without that Presence, they could do nothing. The crying need of the Church at this hour is a fresh enduement of "power from on high."

Concerning Moses and this situation, Theodoret says, "Just as a man who kindles a thousand flames from one flame does not lessen the first in communicating light to others, so God did not diminish the Grace imparted to Moses by the fact that he communicated of it to the seventy." The prophesying of these men, no doubt, was a declaration of God's wonderful Works.)

[26] But there remained two of the men in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the Spirit rested upon them; and they were of them who were written, but went not out unto the Tabernacle: and they prophesied in the camp. (These two were of the seventy. However, because of other duties, more than likely, that demanded their attention, they could not accompany the others to the Tabernacle. Nevertheless, the Spirit of the Lord came upon them as well, even where they were, wherever that may have been.

This is a symbol of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, which would begin at the Tabernacle, i.e., Temple in Jerusalem, but would quickly spread all over the world. Peter said so [Acts 2:39].)

[27] And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp.

28 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, one of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, forbid them (whereas Joshua, although wrong, was not wrong from a malicious spirit; regrettably, untold numbers of modern Church leaders are now trying to do what Moses would not do, "forbid them").

29 And Moses said unto him, Do you envy for my sake? would God that all the LORD's People were Prophets, and that the LORD would put His Spirit upon them! (This is the correct spirit of all true men and women of God.)

30 And Moses got him into the camp (left the Tabernacle, and went into the camp), he and the Elders of Israel.

GOD SENDS QUAIL

31 And there went forth a wind from the LORD (a wind Divinely sent for this purpose [Ps. 78:26]), and brought quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, as it were a day's journey on this side, and as it were a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and as it were two cubits (3 feet) high upon the face of the Earth (this doesn't mean that the quails were piled upon the ground to a height of 3 feet, but that they flew at that height, and so were easily captured).

32 And the people stood up all that day, and all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails: he who gathered least gathered ten homers (about 60 bushels): and they spread them all abroad for themselves round about the camp.

THE PLAGUE

33 And while the flesh was yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the Wrath of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD smote the people with a very great plague. (What the "plague" was, we aren't told. As well, as to how many were stricken, we aren't told. Israel desired God's gifts, but had no heart for the Giver. To accept the gifts of that bountiful Hand, and to seek to enjoy them independently of it, brings death into the soul. There is indication that some of them gave credit to one of the gods of the Egyptians for the quail instead of Jehovah, hence the judgment.)

34 And he (Moses) called the name of that place Kibroth-hattaavah: because there they buried the people who lusted (whatever the plague was, it killed some of the people).

35 And the people journeyed from Kibroth-hattaavah unto Hazeroth; and abode at Hazeroth. ("Kibroth-hattaavah" means "graves of greediness.")

CHAPTER 12

(1490 B.C.)

MIRIAM AND AARON

[1] And Miriam (Moses' sister) and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married: for he had married an Ethiopian woman. (Some claim that this was actually Zipporah, and others claim that it was not, but rather that Zipporah had died, and Moses had taken this woman as his wife; or else Zipporah had not died, and Moses had taken to himself a second wife. The latter is doubtful!

At any rate, this woman was of dark skin, and greatly envied by Miriam, who evidently felt she was not worthy of such a place and position. Also, Miriam being first mentioned shows that she was the leader of this complaint. As we shall see, the Lord did not at all take kindly to the accusations of these two. It is obvious that Satan was attempting to use this to diminish Moses in the eyes of the people, and attempted to do so by Moses' closest relatives.)

[2] And they said, Has the LORD indeed spoken only by Moses? has He not spoken also by us? And the LORD heard it. (Miriam and Aaron claimed here that the Lord had told them to do what they were doing. It's bad enough to do wrong, but worse yet when we pull God into our wrong, by attempting to make Him the Author of such. God heard that then, and He hears such now; as well, the end result will be the same now as then — severe chastisement for the guilty party.)

[3] (Now the man Moses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the Earth [inasmuch as this is a parenthetical statement, the probability is strong that Moses didn't actually write it, but that it was written by someone else later, and inserted into the Sacred Text and, as well, sanctioned by the Holy Spirit; it is highly unlikely that Moses would have said such of himself].)

GOD DEFENDS MOSES

4 And the LORD spoke suddenly unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam (how the Lord did this, we aren't told; however, the word "suddenly" points to something unexpected and unusual), Come out you three (from the camp) unto the Tabernacle of the congregation. And they three came out.

5 And the LORD came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the Tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forth.

6 And He said, Hear now My words: If there be a Prophet among you, I the LORD will make Myself known unto him in a vision, and will speak unto him in a dream (the way that Prophecies are generally given by the Lord).

7 My servant Moses is not so (the Lord here puts Moses above all the Prophets of the Old Testament, other than John the Baptist, who introduced Christ [Lk. 7:28]), who is faithful in all My house. (Miriam and Aaron were saying that Moses wasn't faithful, and we speak of the marriage, but the Lord said the opposite. We had better be certain that we say exactly what the Lord is saying.)

8 With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and the similitude of the LORD shall he behold (the idea is that Moses, at times, literally saw the Spirit Body of the Lord; it is not possible, I think, to derive anything else from this Text; as well, the Lord in this manner spoke to Moses, and, one might say, "face to face"): wherefore then were you not afraid to speak against My servant Moses? (The words "speak against" refer to finding fault, but fault that didn't exist. As we shall see, the Lord did not look upon their sin sympathetically, even as He can never look upon sin sympathetically.)

9 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them; and He (the Lord) departed. (It's one thing to have man angry with us; it is something else altogether to have the Lord angry at us. The cause of this anger was the cruel criticism of Moses' sister and brother. The Holy Spirit through James addressed this as well, as it regards modern Believers [James, Chpt. 3].)

LEPROSY

10 And the cloud departed from off the Tabernacle; and, behold, Miriam became leprous, white as snow: and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous. (This plainly tells us that Miriam was the leader in this rebellion. Even though Aaron sinned by going along with her, he was not the instigator. The Hebrew Text points to the fact that the leprosy put on Miriam by the Lord was its worst and final stage. The word "looked" means that the High Priest gazed with astonishment.)

11 And Aaron said unto Moses, Alas, my lord, I beseech you, lay not the sin upon us, wherein we have done foolishly, and wherein we have sinned. (The manner in which Aaron now addresses Moses tells us that he rightly acknowledges Moses' superior position, thereby abandoning all pretension to equality. As well, he frankly confesses his sin, which he should have done.)

12 Let her (Miriam) not be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he comes out of his mother's womb (as well, Aaron also conducts himself as a High Priest, which he was, thereby interceding on behalf of his sister; he was horrified at the condition of Miriam, as all leprosy of this type affects the victim in its final stages; in other words, Miriam would have died shortly had not the Lord healed her).

INTERCESSION

13 And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, Heal her now, O God, I beseech you (he pleads for her, who had done so wrong, which is true Christlikeness; Jesus addressed this when He said, "Pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you" [Mat. 5:44]).

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, If her father had but spit in her face, should she not be ashamed seven days? (The Lord proclaims as to how serious this sin was; Miriam had attempted to embarrass Moses publicly; in turn, the Lord embarrassed her publicly; once again, Jesus addressed this by saying, "With what measure you mete, it shall be measured to you again" [Mat. 7:2].) let her be shut out from the camp seven days, and after that let her be received in again.

15 And Miriam was shut out from the camp seven days: and the people journeyed not till Miriam was brought in again. (Miriam's sin stopped the entirety of the Work of God, numbering nearly 3 million people, for an entire week. From this we should understand just how serious that sin actually is.)

16 And afterward the people removed from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wilderness of Paran. (They were not far from the Promised Land, and the Lord intended for them to now go in; however, as we shall see, unbelief caused them to languish over 38 more years in that wilderness.)

CHAPTER 13

(1490 B.C.)

TWELVE SPIES

1 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

2 Send thou men, that they may search the land of Canaan, which I give unto the Children of Israel: of every Tribe of their fathers shall you send a man, everyone a ruler among them. (Deuteronomy 1:25 proclaims the fact that these rulers had demanded this, and the Lord had agreed to allow them to do such. Why did they need to search the land when the Lord had already told them what it was? As well, they were committing the terrible sin of unbelief by questioning the Lord. It would cost them dearly.)

3 And Moses by the Commandment of the LORD sent them from the wilderness of Paran: all those men were heads of the Children of Israel.

4 And these were their names: of the Tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur.

5 Of the Tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori.

6 Of the Tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

7 Of the Tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph.

8 Of the Tribe of Ephraim, Oshea (Joshua) the son of Nun.

9 Of the Tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu.

10 Of the Tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi.

11 Of the Tribe of Joseph, namely, of the Tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi.

[12] Of the Tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli.

[13] Of the Tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael.

[14] Of the Tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi.

[15] Of the Tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

[16] These are the names of the men which Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Oshea the son of Nun Jehoshua (means help or Salvation; it was changed to Joshua, which means "Saviour" [Neh. 8:17]. The fact that our Saviour received the same name, because He was our Saviour, throws a halo of glory about it, which we cannot ignore. In the Divine providence Hoshea became Joshua, because he was destined to be the temporal saviour of his people, and to lead them into their promised rest — Pulpit. All of these men listed above, with the exception of Caleb and Joshua, registered unbelief, and thereby delayed the Plan of God for over 38 years. More than likely they, as well, lost their souls).

THE SPIES

[17] And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said unto them, Get you up this way southward, and go up into the mountain:

[18] And see the land, what it is, and the people who dwell therein, whether they be strong or weak, few or many (it would seem that Moses was guilty here of at least some indiscretion in the giving of these directions; irrespective as to the condition of the people, whether weak or strong, it was God Who was to give them the land; they had only to take possession boldly)**;

[19] And what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad; and what cities they be that they dwell in, whether in tents, or in strong holds;

20 And what the land is, whether it be fat or lean, whether there be wood therein, or not. And be ye of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the firstripe grapes.

21 So they went up, and searched the land from the wilderness of Zin (the extreme southern boundary of the Promised Land [Josh. 15:1-3]) unto Rehob, as men come to Hamath.

22 And they ascended by the south, and came unto Hebron; where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the children of Anak, were. (These very well could have been giants, the result of cohabitation between fallen angels and women [Gen. 6:4]. This was Satan's plan to pollute the human race, through which Jesus would have to come, that is, if man was to be delivered.) (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt [one of the oldest cities in the world]**.)

23 And they came unto the Brook of Eshcol, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bore it between two upon a staff (quite a large cluster); and they brought of the pomegranates, and of the figs.

24 The place was called the brook Eshcol, because of the cluster of grapes which the Children of Israel cut down from thence.

25 And they returned from searching of the land after forty days. ("Forty" is God's probationary number in the Bible. Regrettably, as Adam and Eve, they failed that probation. Although not stated in the Bible, most probably Adam and Eve walked with the Lord some forty days before the Fall.)

THE EVIL REPORT

26 And they went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the Children of Israel, unto the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and shewed them the fruit of the land.

27 And they told him, and said, We came unto the land where you sent us, and surely it flows with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it (in other words, it was exactly as the Lord said it would be).

28 Nevertheless the people be strong who dwell in the land, and the cities are walled, and very great: and moreover we saw the children of Anak there (giants).

29 The Amalekites dwell in the land of the south: and the Hittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, dwell in the mountains: and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and by the coast of Jordan.

30 And Caleb stilled the people before Moses (the evil report of faithlessness given by ten of the spies had greatly unsettled the people; little did they realize it would cost them their lives), and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it (this was the language of faith; but Faith and Truth are never popular [14:10]; had they only believed and acted upon their faith, they were, in fact, well able to overcome it, because the Lord was with them).

31 But the men who went up with him said, We be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we (but they were not stronger than God; however, doubt and unbelief always look to self, and say, "We cannot," while faith looks to the Lord, and says, "We can!").

32 And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the Children of Israel (to doubt and deny the Word of God is always constituted "an evil report"), saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eats up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people that we saw in it are the men of a great stature (doubt and unbelief see the difficulties, while faith sees the victory).

33 And there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak, which come of the giants: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight. (As a Believer, what do you see? Giants or God? Grasshoppers or God's Greatness?)

CHAPTER 14

(1490 B.C.)

REBELLION

[1] And all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and the people wept that night (it was the weeping of unbelief).

[2] And all the Children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would God we had died in this wilderness! (They were to get exactly what they said. That entire generation died in the wilderness.)

[3] And wherefore has the LORD brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt? (God is now blamed, whereas before they had only blamed Moses and Aaron.)

[4] And they said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt. (Pulpit says, "Nothing less than an entire and deliberate revolt was involved in the wish to elect a captain for themselves, for the Lord was the Captain of this host [Josh. 5:14-15]. The proposal to depose Him, and to choose another in His place, marked the extremity of the unbelief, and the ingratitude of the people.")

[5] Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the Assembly of the congregation of the Children of Israel (this was not so much to make intercession for them, but mostly because of the enormity of the sin, and what Moses and Aaron knew would follow).

JOSHUA AND CALEB

6 And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of them who searched the land, rent their clothes (the "tearing of their clothes" was meant to serve as a symbol unto the people of the extremity of the situation, hoping to turn them around)**:

7 And they spoke unto all the company of the Children of Israel, saying, The land, which we passed through to search it, is an exceeding good land.

8 If the LORD delight in us, then He will bring us into this land, and give it us; a land which flows with milk and honey.

9 Only rebel not ye against the LORD, neither fear you the people of the land; for they are bread for us: their defense is departed from them, and the LORD is with us: fear them not. ("If the Lord be with us, who can be against us?")

GOD'S ANGER

10 But all the congregation bade stone them with stones (that was the answer to the Faith of Joshua and Caleb). And the Glory of the LORD appeared in the Tabernacle of the congregation before all the Children of Israel (whatever type of demonstration there was, the Children of Israel observed it all)**.

11 And the LORD said unto Moses, How long will this people provoke Me? and how long will it be ere they believe Me, for all the signs which I have shown among them? (Signs and wonders, even those which are real, will little turn the head of doubt. It is simple faith in God's Word which one must have [Rom. 5:1; Eph. 2:8-9].)

12 I will smite them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will make of you a greater nation and mightier than they. (I personally feel that this was a test for Moses, as it regarded personal ambition. If that, in fact, is correct, he passed it with flying colors.)

INTERCESSION

13 And Moses said unto the LORD, then the Egyptians shall hear it, (for You brought up this people in Your might from among them;)

14 And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: for they have heard that You LORD are among this people, that You LORD are seen face to face, and that Your cloud stands over them, and that You go before them, by day in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night.

15 Now if You shall kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of You will speak, saying,

16 Because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land which He swore unto them, therefore He has slain them in the wilderness. (Pulpit says, "Moral or religious difficulties could not be comprehended by the heathen nations as standing in the way of God's purposes. Physical hindrances were the only ones they could understand; so if the Lord killed all the Israelites in the wilderness, it could only be in order, or so they would think, to cover His Own defeat and failure before the rival deities of the surrounding nations.")

17 And now, I beseech You, let the Power of my LORD be great, according as You have spoken, saying (Moses brings before the Lord His Own argument, which, as would be obvious, was a telling force)**,

18 The LORD is longsuffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression (if proper Repentance is engaged), and by no means clearing the guilty (if Repentance is not forthcoming, judgment will definitely come), visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation (that is, if there is no Repentance)**.

19 Pardon, I beseech You, the iniquity of this people according unto the greatness of Your mercy, and as You have forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now. (The Lord pardoned the iniquity of the Israelites only so far as stopping the judgment of total destruction. Unfortunately, they really did not ask for forgiveness, and engaged in no true Repentance.)

PUNISHMENT

[20] And the LORD said, I have pardoned according to your word ("The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much" [James 5:16]):

[21] But as truly as I live, all the Earth shall be filled with the Glory of the LORD (this will come about to a great extent during the coming Millennial Reign, and totally in the coming Perfect Age, which will last forever [Rev., Chpts. 21-22]).

[22] Because all those men which have seen My Glory, and My miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tempted Me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to My Voice (the ten temptations were: Red Sea, Ex., Chpt. 14; Marah, Ex., Chpt. 15; Sin, Ex., Chpt. 16; Manna, Ex. 16:20; Manna, Ex. 16:27; Rephidim, Ex., Chpt. 17; Horeb, Ex., Chpt. 32; Taberah, Num., Chpt. 11; Kibroth, Num., Chpt. 11; Kadesh, Num., Chpt. 14);

[23] Surely they shall not see the land which I swore unto their fathers, neither shall any of them who provoked Me see it (all who were twenty years old or older would die in the wilderness; it seems that the Levites were exempted from this curse, inasmuch as they had no representative among the spies):

[24] But My servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and has followed Me fully, him will I bring into the land whereinto he went; and his seed shall possess it (God honors Faith wherever it is found).

[25] (Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwelt in the valley.) Tomorrow turn you, and get you into the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea. (It seems this statement was made in reference to Caleb. When, some forty years later, his inheritance was given to him, the "Vale of Hebron" was occupied by two hostile peoples; nevertheless he, and again because of his Faith, would definitely prevail.)

[26] And the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

27 How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, which murmur against Me? I have heard the murmurings of the Children of Israel, which they murmur against Me (as should be obvious, the Lord hears all; we as Believers should remember that, and speak accordingly; the Lord honors Faith words, but delights not at all in doubt words).

28 Say unto them, As truly as I live, says the LORD, as you have spoken in My Ears, so will I do to you (they had wished to die in the wilderness, and in the wilderness they would die! [14:2])**:

29 Your carcases shall fall in this wilderness; and all that were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward which have murmured against Me (this included all who had been enrolled as soldiers of the Lord, but had refused, and had incurred the guilt of mutiny; that offense is punishable by death [Chpts. 1-2]).

30 Doubtless you shall not come into the land, concerning which I swore to make you dwell therein, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun (as stated, God honored the Faith of these two men).

31 But your little ones, which you said should be a prey (to the enemy), them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which you have despised (how so much this should be a lesson to all modern Believers; God cannot abide doubt and unbelief).

32 But as for you (said with contempt), your carcases, they shall fall in this wilderness.

33 And your children shall wander in the wilderness forty years, and bear your whoredoms, until your carcases be wasted in the wilderness (until this generation died off, the younger ones could not go into the Promised Land).

34 After the number of the days in which you searched the land, even forty days, each day for a year, shall you bear your iniquities, even forty years, and you shall know My breach of promise (they were to know and understand that the quantity and quality of their punishment was entirely due to themselves; and it needed no other justification; if God assigns reasons at all, He assigns such as can be understood by those to whom He speaks).

35 I the LORD have said, I will surely do it unto all this evil congregation, who are gathered together against Me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die (faithlessness is always "against God").

DEATH OF THE TEN SPIES

36 And the men, which Moses sent to search the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against Him, by bringing up a slander upon the land (when we slander God's gift, we slander God; wherever God places the Believer, even in a wilderness, the Believer must thank the Lord constantly, and never allow a word of doubt to come out of his mouth),

37 Even those men who did bring up the evil report upon the land, died by the plague before the LORD (it seems they all died at one time, by what method we aren't told, but which was visible to the entire congregation).

38 But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of the men who went to search the land, lived still (in one way or the other, that plague continues to operate; it is only Faith which spares mankind, and, we might quickly add, Faith in Christ and the Cross [I Cor. 1:17]).

39 And Moses told these sayings unto all the Children of Israel: and the people mourned greatly. (However, it seems that their "mourning" did not lead them to true Repentance.)

ISRAEL DEFEATED

40 And they rose up early in the morning, and got them up into the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, we be here, and will go up unto the place which the LORD has promised: for we have sinned (theirs was not a true Repentance, but merely consisted of a frantic effort to avoid the punishment which their sin had incurred).

41 And Moses said, Wherefore now do you transgress the Commandment of the LORD? but it shall not prosper. (Concerning this, Williams says, "Verses 39 through 45 illustrate the presumption of the natural heart, just as the closing Verses of Chpt. 13 illustrate the cowardice. The carnal mind [Rom., Chpt. 8] cannot serve God; it is timid when it should be bold, and bold when it should be timid. It advances when it should stand still; and it stands still when it should advance.")

42 Go not up, for the LORD is not among you; that you be not smitten before your enemies.

43 For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and you shall fall by the sword: because you are turned away from the LORD, therefore the LORD will not be with you.

44 But they presumed to go up unto the hill top (they operated on presumption): nevertheless the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD, and Moses, departed not out of the camp (this attitude shows that their repentance was not true; they are still disobeying the Lord).

45 Then the Amalekites came down, and the Canaanites which dwelt in that hill, and smote them, and discomfited them, even unto Hormah. (God with them, they could not be defeated; without the Lord, they were already defeated.)

CHAPTER 15

(1490 B.C.)

OFFERINGS

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Speak unto the Children of Israel, and say unto them, When you be come into the land of your habitations, which I give unto you (meaning that these things would not be carried out until they reached the Promised Land; we have no way of knowing as to exactly when the Lord gave this information to Moses),

[3] And will make an Offering by fire unto the LORD, a Burnt Offering, or a Sacrifice in performing a vow, or in a Freewill Offering, or in your solemn feasts, to make a sweet savour unto the LORD, of the herd, or of the flock (these Offerings were somewhat different than the ordinary Offerings):

[4] Then shall he who offers his Offering unto the LORD bring a Meat Offering of a tenth deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of an hin of oil.

[5] And the fourth part of an hin of wine for a Drink Offering shall you prepare with the Burnt Offering or Sacrifice, for one lamb (the "Drink Offering" portrayed the Life of Christ, which would be poured out).

[6] Or for a ram, you shall prepare for a Meat Offering two tenth deals of flour mingled with the third part of an hin of oil.

[7] And for a Drink Offering you shall offer the third part of an hin of wine, for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

[8] And when you prepare a bullock for a Burnt Offering, or for a Sacrifice in performing a vow, or Peace Offerings unto the LORD:

9 Then shall he bring with a bullock a Meat Offering of three tenth deals of flour mingled with half an hin of oil (the "Meat Offerings" actually had no flesh, but were altogether grain, made into loaves of bread).

10 And you shall bring for a Drink Offering half an hin of wine, for an Offering made by fire (the Burnt Offerings or the Peace Offerings), of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

11 Thus shall it be done for one bullock, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid (a baby lamb).

12 According to the number that you shall prepare, so shall you do to everyone according to their number (the strict proportion of the Meat and Drink Offering was to be carried out with respect to the number of animals offered, as well as the individual value of the Sacrifices).

13 All who are born of the country shall do these things after this manner, in offering an Offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

14 And if a stranger (Gentile) sojourn with you, or whosoever be among you in your generations, and will offer an Offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD; as you do, so he shall do.

15 One Ordinance shall be both for you of the congregation, and also for the stranger who sojourns with you, an Ordinance forever in your generations: as you are, so shall the stranger (Gentile) be before the LORD (one Sacrifice was to be for the congregation, and also for the stranger; and so Christ offered up Himself, not only to redeem Israel, but also to save the world [Jn. 3:16]).

16 One law and one manner shall be for you, and for the stranger who sojourns with you.

MORE INSTRUCTIONS

17 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

18 Speak unto the Children of Israel, and say unto them, When you come into the land where I bring you,

19 Then it shall be, that, when you eat of the bread of the land, you shall offer up an Heave Offering unto the LORD (was to be "heaved" up and down, signifying that Christ would come from Heaven to this Earth, in order to redeem fallen humanity).

20 You shall offer up a cake of the first of your dough for an Heave Offering: as you do the Heave Offering of the threshingfloor, so shall you heave it.

21 Of the first of your dough you shall give unto the LORD an Heave Offering in your generations. (Verses 17 through 21 taught the people that the bread that came up out of the ground for their nutriment was as great a miracle as the bread that came down from Heaven. Hence, the perpetual Heave Offering of Verse 21 acknowledged that Jehovah not only gave them the land, but also was the Creator of the "bread of the land.")

22 And if you have erred, and not observed all these Commandments, which the LORD has spoken unto Moses (these were sins of ignorance; provision is made here for the forgiveness of such sins — a provision which was sorely needed, considering the great complexity of the Law, and the inadequate training they had had for the accurate observance of it)**,

23 Even all that the LORD has commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day that the LORD commanded Moses, and henceforward among your generations (future generations must know and understand the Law, and in every respect)**;

24 Then it shall be, if ought be committed by ignorance without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one young bullock for a Burnt Offering, for a sweet savour unto the LORD, with his Meat Offering, and his Drink Offering, according to the manner, and one kid of the goats for a Sin Offering. (Verses 22 through 28 provided the sweet-savour offering for the sin of omission, i.e., "ignorance," whether committed by all the people, or by an individual. The Burnt Offering, the Sin Offering, the Meat Offering, and the Drink Offering typified the infinite Sacrifice of the Lamb of God as being necessary to cover even so small a sin as the sin of omission. This means that the Cross of Christ is absolutely needed in every aspect of life and living, and we speak of present times.)

25 And the Priest shall make an Atonement for all the congregation of the Children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them; for it is ignorance: and they shall bring their Offering, a Sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD, and their Sin Offering before the LORD, for their ignorance:

26 And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the Children of Israel, and the stranger (Gentile) who sojourns among them; seeing all the people were in ignorance.

27 And if any soul sin through ignorance, then he shall bring a she goat of the first year for a Sin Offering.

28 And the Priest shall make an Atonement for the soul that sins ignorantly, when he sins by ignorance before the LORD, to make an Atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him.

29 You shall have one law for him who sins though ignorance, both for him who is born among the Children of Israel, and for the stranger (Gentile) who sojourns among them.

30 But the soul that does ought presumptuously (defiantly), whether he be born in the land, or a stranger, the same reproaches the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

31 Because he has despised the Word of the LORD, and has broken His Commandment, that soul shall utterly be cut off; his iniquity shall be upon him (this refers to viciously, with purpose, and openly flouting the Law of God; such a person would be "cut off," would face the ultimate penalty — death, and the loss of his soul).

THE SABBATH-BREAKER

[32] And while the Children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man who gathered sticks upon the Sabbath day.

[33] And they who found him gathering sticks brought him unto Moses and Aaron, and unto all the congregation.

[34] And they put him in ward (in a holding cell), because it was not declared what should be done to him (Moses would seek the Lord).

[35] And the LORD said unto Moses, The man shall be surely put to death: all the congregation shall stone him with stones without the camp.

[36] And all the congregation brought him without the camp, and stoned him with stones, and he died; as the LORD commanded Moses. (Provision was made for the sin of ignorance in connection with obedience to the Word of the Lord, but there was no Offering commanded for the sin of indifference. Regrettably, that sin is very visible today in modern Christendom. Human opinion is set above Divine injunction.)

FRINGES ON GARMENTS

[37] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[38] Speak unto the Children of Israel, and bid them that they make them fringes in the borders of their garments throughout their generations, and that they put upon the fringe of the borders a ribband of blue (this was to make it visible to all of Israel that they were a Heavenly people, and that this great fact should especially be present to their hearts when necessarily coming in closest touch with the Earth; it was to be worn on the outer garment, and on each of the four corners as a tassel of blue):

[39] And it shall be unto you for a fringe, that you may look upon it, and remember all the Commandments of the LORD, and do them; and that you seek not after your own heart and your own eyes, after which you use to go a whoring (the tasseled Hebrew was a marked man in other eyes, and in his own; he could not pass himself off as one of the heathen; he was perpetually reminded of the special relation in which he stood to the Lord; in other words, he wore the colors of the Lord; that color was blue, reminding him that his help came from above)**:

40 That you may remember, and do all My Commandments, and be holy unto your God.

41 I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God; I am the LORD your God. (Concerning this, Pulpit says, "This intensely solemn formula twice repeated here may serve to show how intimately the smallest observances of the Law were connected with the most profound and most comforting of spiritual truths, if only observed in faith and true obedience. The whole of their experience with the Lord, both theoretical and practical, lay in those words, and was symbolized in the tassel.")

CHAPTER 16

KORAH'S REBELLION

[1] Now Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took men: (This Chapter reveals the incurable evil of the human heart. It is naturally opposed to God, and all that pertains to God, as evidenced by the rebellion of Korah. Korah was first cousin, it seems, to Moses and Aaron. He was camped close to the Tribe of Reuben, hence their association in this rebellion.

The phrase "took men" emphasizes the fact that he persuaded them as to his cause. And what was that cause?)

[2] And they rose up before Moses, with certain of the Children of Israel, two hundred and fifty Princes of the Assembly, famous in the congregation, men of renown: (Is it possible that Jethro's unspiritual and unscriptural advice to Moses had a part in this? [Ex. Chpts. 18, 21-22]. God chose Aaron to be High Priest. Korah "gainsayed" that, which means that he disputed God's choice of Aaron as High Priest [Jude, Vs. 11]. As well, the Princes of Reuben attacked the kingship given to Moses by God. The spirit, therefore, of this rebellion was to cast down the Blessed One — Christ — Whom God has appointed both King and Priest.)

[3] And they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, You take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the LORD is among them: wherefore then lift you up yourselves above the congregation of the LORD? (Korah and those who followed him attempted to change the Government of God, which has always been the crowning sin of the Church, whether the Church before the Cross, or the Church after the Cross. God's Word is His Government. To stray from that Word at all, which Korah did, is to instigate rebellion against the Lord, which God cannot countenance in any form.)

[4] And when Moses heard it, he fell upon his face *(that is, he stepped aside so the rebels should stand face-to-face with God; he did not attempt to defend himself and Aaron; he left all to the Judgment of God and, to be sure, that Judgment was terrible):

[5] And he spoke unto Korah and unto all his company, saying, Even tomorrow the LORD will shew who are His, and who is holy; and will cause him to come near unto Him: even him whom He has chosen will He cause to come near unto Him. (Their sin was not only rebellion against God in the normal sense of the word, but, in actuality, they were opposing the Headship of Christ. They were, in a sense, saying that there were many men in Israel who could fill the shoes of Moses, and many who could fill the shoes of Aaron as the High Priest. So, in a sense, they were not only denying the Headship of Christ, but, as well, His High Priestly Ministry. We should read these words carefully, because, in essence, we are reading here the sin of the modern Church.)

[6] This do; Take you censers, Korah, and all his company *(the "censers" were used by the Priests, and especially the High Priest, as it regarded the Holy Place, where the Table, the Lampstand, and the Altar of Incense were; they spoke of the Intercession of Christ, all on behalf of Believers; so, in effect, these individuals were claiming they could serve in this capacity the same as Aaron);

[7] And put fire therein *(this fire was supposed to come from the Brazen Altar), and put incense in them before the LORD tomorrow: and it shall be that the man whom the LORD does choose, he shall be holy: you take too much upon you, you sons of Levi. (They should have remembered what happened to Nadab and Abihu [Lev. 10:1-2]. To be sure, their sin was even worse than that of these two Priests, who had been stricken dead by the Lord. Rebellious man, however, always seeks to put a religious face on his erroneous direction.)

[8] And Moses said unto Korah, Hear, I pray you, you sons of Levi (evidently, others in the Tribe of Levi, the Priestly Tribe, had sided with Korah)**:

[9] Seems it but a small thing unto you, that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to Himself to do the service of the Tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister unto them? (Moses is addressing this to the Tribe of Levi, in effect telling them that they were usurping that which God had called them to do. They were rebelling against God's order.)

[10] And He has brought you near to Him, and all your brethren the sons of Levi with you: and seek ye the Priesthood also? (The "Priesthood" of Israel of old was a Type of Christ. Everything they did symbolized Christ in His Mediatorial, Intercessory, or Atoning Work. The Lord had given specific instructions as to how the entirety of the Sacrificial System was to be carried out, and who was to carry it out. So, in effect, these rebels were pushing Christ aside. That is the sin of the modern Church. While the unredeemed world attempts to create another god, the Church, sadly, attempts to create another Sacrifice. Only the Sacrifice of Christ is acceptable. Anyone or anything else, no matter how religious it might be, can never be accepted by God.)

[11] For which cause both you and all your company are gathered together against the LORD (Let it ever be known, when we pervert the Word of the Lord, this puts us "against the Lord"): and what is Aaron, that you murmur against him? (Moses is saying that Aaron is just a poor, weak human being, attempting to carry out the Work of the Lord. While they thought they were opposed to Aaron, in truth, they were opposed to the Lord. When we oppose that which is of God, we have, in essence, opposed God.)

[12] And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab: which said, We will not come up (meaning that they would not obey what Moses said; evidently they were in league with Korah)**:

13 Is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land that flows with milk and honey (they were referring to Egypt), to kill us in the wilderness, except you make yourself altogether a prince over us? (In the first place, Moses didn't put himself in this position, God did!)

14 Moreover you have not brought us into a land that flows with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: will you put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up. (They refused to recognize that they were still in the wilderness because of their unbelief. Being condemned to 38 years of wandering in that wilderness was their fault, and not the fault of Moses and Aaron. Men forever attempt to blame their circumstances on others, instead of where it rightfully belongs — themselves.)

JUDGMENT

15 And Moses was very wroth, and said unto the LORD, Respect not thou their offering: I have not taken one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them (he had not enriched himself one iota as a result of his position; as well, he is asking the Lord that their sacrifices not be accepted, which means that unless the situation was rectified, they would be eternally lost).

16 And Moses said unto Korah, Be thou and all your company before the LORD, thou, and they, and Aaron, tomorrow:

17 And take every man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring ye before the LORD every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; you also, and Aaron, each of you his censer (they were demanding that they serve in some capacity in the Priesthood, so their claims would now be put to the test).

18 And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them (whether it was fire from the Brazen Altar or not, we aren't told), and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron (the "door of the Tabernacle" probably referred here to the opening, or gate, that led into the Court; so, they stood in that opening, or else immediately outside, where they could be observed by all the people).

19 And Korah gathered all the congregation against them unto the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation: and the Glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation. (There seemed to have been quite a number who sided with Korah against Moses and Aaron. In answer to this, the Lord appeared. What exactly that means, we aren't told. At any rate, the entirety of the congregation of Israel knew that it was the Lord.)

SEPARATION

20 And the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

21 Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment. (The situation was different before the Cross, and for many reasons; however, to be sure, although in a different way, the Lord is still consuming those who rebel against Christ and the Cross. While it may take a different form, the end result is the same [Rom. 1:18].)

22 And they (Moses and Aaron) fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh (Who made man), shall one man sin (Korah), and will You be wroth with all the congregation? (Moses intercedes for Israel that they not be judged for Korah's sin. It was this man who had misled all the rest. Deceiving spirits were at work then, even as now.)

JUDGMENT

23 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

24 Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the Tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 And Moses rose up and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and the Elders of Israel followed him.

[26] And he spoke unto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest you be consumed in all their sins. (Evidently, Moses and the Elders of Israel were standing near the tents of these individuals. The Lord has already told him that Judgment was soon to come.)

[27] So they got up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: And Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little children (regrettably, the Judgment would include the entirety of the families).

[28] And Moses said, Hereby you shall know that the LORD has sent me to do all these works; for I have not done them of my own mind.

[29] If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then the LORD has not sent me (the die is now cast!).

[30] But if the LORD make a new thing, and the Earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, and they go down quick into the pit; then you shall understand that these men have provoked the LORD. (Knowing of all the miracles that Moses had seen, and that the Lord had worked through the hand of this man to do mighty things, one would think that these men would have repented; however, deception is a powerful force. Even though proof is offered, deception cannot see the reality, because deception doesn't want to see the reality; therefore, it believes a lie, which is the condition of most of the world, and even most of the Church.)

[31] And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that was under them (this must have been a very fearful sight and, to be sure, many observed it).

[32] And the Earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods (this speaks of the entirety of these three families of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram).

33 They, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into the pit (into Hell itself), and the Earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation.

34 And all Israel that were round about them fled at the cry of them: for they said, Lest the Earth swallow us up also.

35 And there came out a fire from the LORD (from the Ark of the Covenant in the Holy of Holies), and consumed the two hundred and fifty men who offered incense (exactly as it did Nadab and Abihu [Lev. 10:1-2]).

THE ALTAR

36 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

37 Speak unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the Priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning (from among the charred and smouldering corpses), and scatter thou the fire yonder; for they are hallowed (the censers had been made holy by their proposed use, even though sacrilegiously; they pointed to Christ in His Intercessory Work).

38 The censers of these sinners against their own souls (the people attempting to use them were woefully wrong, and their use in this manner was wrong; however, the censers were still "hallowed," because of what they represented), let them make them broad plates for a covering of the Altar (the Brazen Altar: everything used in the rituals and ceremonies of the Tabernacle was, in some way, attached to the Altar, as everything presently, as it pertains to the Lord, is attached to the Cross, of which the Altar was a Type): for they offered them before the LORD, therefore they are hallowed: and they shall be a sign unto the Children of Israel. (In other words, every time they brought their Sacrifices to be offered, they would see the Altar, and the plates of the censers that covered the Altar, in effect stating, "Don't blaspheme this Altar.")

39 And Eleazar the Priest took the brasen censers, wherewith they that were burnt had offered; and they were made broad plates for a covering of the Altar:

40 To be a memorial unto the Children of Israel, that no stranger, which is not of the seed of Aaron, come near to offer incense before the LORD; that he be not as Korah, and as his company: as the LORD said to him by the hand of Moses. (Unfortunately, under the New Covenant, many are presently committing the sin of Korah. They are substituting a government of their own making; however, they must remember, as the Cross is the means of all blessings, at the same time, it is also the means of all judgment.)

MURMURINGS

41 But on the morrow all the congregation of the Children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, You have killed the people of the LORD. (They had, in truth, forfeited their own lives, and Moses and Aaron had no more part in their deaths than Peter had in the deaths of Ananias and Sapphira. They didn't seem to realize that their own immunity from judgment was due to the intercession of those whom they were now falsely charging. An evil heart that refuses to change cannot change.)

42 And it came to pass, when the congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the Tabernacle of the congregation: and, behold, the cloud covered it, and the Glory of the LORD appeared (once again, they were angering the Lord, and greatly so!)**.

43 And Moses and Aaron came before the Tabernacle of the congregation.

ANOTHER PLAGUE

44 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

45 Get you up from among this congregation, that I may consume them as in a moment. And they fell upon their faces (once again, Moses intercedes on behalf of the people, even though they are murmuring constantly against him; we should learn here as to what the Lord thinks of such).

[46] And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a censer (typical of the Intercession of Christ), and put fire therein from off the Altar (typical of the Cross), and put on incense, and go quickly unto the congregation, and make an Atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the LORD; the plague is begun. (There is no intimation in Scripture that this had ever been done before, and I speak of going among the people with Incense. As it had no precedent, so it never seems to have been repeated. No Sacrifice was offered; however, there could well have been a Sacrifice on the Altar at that time, with the blood poured out at the base. At any rate, the fire came from the Altar, where Sacrifices were offered repeatedly, with the blood poured out at the base of the Altar. So, in a sense, as should be obvious, there had been shedding of blood.)

[47] And Aaron took as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the congregation; and, behold, the plague was begun among the people: and he put on incense, and made an Atonement for the people (this is a portrayal, in Type, of the Gospel being taken to dying humanity; against the plague of sin there is no other hope).

[48] And he stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed (the only thing that stands between dying, lost humanity and eternal judgment is the Cross of Christ [I Cor. 1:23; 2:2; Eph. 2:13-18; Col. 2:14-15]).

[49] Now they who died in the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, beside them who died about the matter of Korah (exactly what the plague was, we aren't told; evidently, those who "murmured against Moses and Aaron" were stricken).

[50] And Aaron returned unto Moses unto the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation: and the plague was stayed. (As stated, there is only one thing that will stop the plague of sin and all of its effects, and that is the Cross. When the modern Church proposes humanistic psychology, or any other supposed solution, it is tantamount to blasphemy against the Lord. The answer is the Cross, and the Cross alone!)

CHAPTER 17

(1454 B.C.)

AARON'S ROD THAT BUDDED

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Speak unto the Children of Israel, and take of every one of them a rod according to the house of their fathers, of all their Princes according to the house of their fathers twelve rods: you write every man's name upon his rod. (Each rod of the twelve bore a mighty name. Through the night in which they lay hidden within the Tabernacle, the sons of Israel might have expressed confidence in such-and-such a name, as today many in the modern Church do the same. But, in the morning, all the rods were found to be dead sticks, notwithstanding the names they bore, except the rod of Aaron. It, alone, was living, beautiful, and accepted. — Williams.)

[3] And you shall write Aaron's name upon the rod of Levi: for one rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers (concerning Aaron's rod, the total would have been thirteen).

[4] And you shall lay them up in the Tabernacle of the congregation before the testimony, where I will meet with you (evidently the rods were placed in the Holy Place before the Veil which hid the Ark of the Covenant).

[5] And it shall come to pass, that the man's rod, whom I shall choose, shall blossom: and I will make to cease from Me the murmurings of the Children of Israel, whereby they murmur against you (the problem was, they didn't want God's choice, but rather a choice of their own).

[6] And Moses spoke unto the Children of Israel, and every one of their Princes gave him a rod apiece, for each Prince one, according to their fathers' houses, even twelve rods: and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

[7] And Moses laid up the rods before the LORD in the Tabernacle of witness (verification would be made).

[8] And it came to pass, that on the morrow Moses went into the Tabernacle of witness; and, behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi was budded, and brought forth buds, and bloomed blossoms, and yielded almonds (this did not signify the greatness of Aaron, but the One of Whom Aaron was a Type, the Lord Jesus Christ; it signified His Death, hence, the dead stick to begin with, and Resurrection, signified by the buds, blossoms, and almonds).

[9] And Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD unto all the Children of Israel: and they looked, and took every man his rod.

[10] And the LORD said unto Moses, Bring Aaron's rod again before the testimony, to be kept for a token against the rebels; and you shall quite take away their murmurings from Me, that they die not (because of Christ, which the rod represented, Mercy was granted, even though the people did not at all deserve such).

[11] And Moses did so: as the LORD commanded him, so did he.

[12] And the Children of Israel spoke unto Moses, saying, Behold, we die, we perish, we all perish (as someone has said, "They were fearful to offend, yet not loving to obey").

[13] Whosoever comes anything near unto the Tabernacle of the LORD shall die: shall we be consumed with dying? (But yet, the dying was their fault, and theirs alone, even though they tried to blame Moses and Aaron, which, in essence, was blaming the Lord. It is man's age-old problem of refusing to accept responsibility.)

CHAPTER 18

(1454 B.C.)

PRIESTLY FUNCTIONS

[1] And the LORD said unto Aaron, You and your sons and your father's house with you shall bear the iniquity of the Sanctuary: and you and your sons with you shall bear the iniquity of your Priesthood. (Thus the Children of Israel found security in that very Priest Whom they despised and rejected. It is the same with Christ! The Lord of Glory, despised and rejected by the world, at the same time, is their only hope.)

[2] And your brethren also of the Tribe of Levi, the Tribe of your father, bring thou with you, that they may be joined unto you, and minister unto you: but you and your sons with you shall minister before the Tabernacle of witness (the Levites were to help in certain ways; much work was to be done, and done constantly, which required the hands of a good number of people; and yet, even as we shall see, the duties of the Levites were limited).

[3] And they shall keep your charge, and the charge of all the Tabernacle (do exactly what Aaron told them to do): only they shall not come near the vessels of the Sanctuary and the Altar, that neither they, nor you also, die (if Aaron did not properly assign their duties to them, and warn of the danger, not only would they die, but he would die as well; it is the same presently! All of this represented the Cross and, if the Cross today is improperly attended, to be sure, spiritual death is the result).

[4] And they shall be joined unto you, and keep the charge of the Tabernacle of the congregation, for all the service of the Tabernacle: and a stranger (in this case, one not a Levite) shall not come near unto you.

[5] And you shall keep the charge of the Sanctuary, and the charge of the Altar (the "Altar" was the single most important vessel of the entire installation): that there be no wrath any more upon the Children of Israel (the "Altar" alone stood between the people and death, and is the same presently!).

[6] And I, behold, I have taken your brethren the Levites from among the Children of Israel: to you they are given as a gift for the LORD, to do the service of the Tabernacle of the congregation.

[7] Therefore you and your sons with you shall keep your Priest's office for everything of the Altar (the Brazen Altar, typifying the Cross), and within the Veil (the Ark of the Covenant, into which presence the High Priest could come only once a year, on the Great Day of Atonement; however, the way to the Ark of the Covenant, in a sense a symbol of the Throne of God, could only be reached by the way of the "Altar"); and you shall serve: I have given your Priest's office unto you as a service of gift: and the stranger (one not a Levite) who comes near shall be put to death.

OFFERINGS

[8] And the LORD spoke unto Aaron, Behold, I also have given you the charge of My Heave Offerings of all the hallowed things of the Children of Israel; unto you have I given them by reason of the anointing, and to your sons, by an Ordinance forever (all of this information concerning the Priesthood comes immediately after the rebellion of Korah to intrude into that high and Holy Office).

[9] This shall be yours of the most holy things, reserved from the fire: every oblation of theirs, every Meat Offering of theirs (the people), and every Sin Offering of theirs, and every Trespass Offering of theirs, which they shall render unto Me, shall be most holy for you and for your sons (these three particular Offerings were "most holy," simply because they represented Christ, and what He would do on the Cross to address the terrible problem of Sin; the Burnt Offering and the Peace Offering were designated as "holy").

[10] In the most holy place shall you eat it; every male shall eat it: it shall be holy unto you. (Concerning this, Williams says, "Aaron and his sons were to make the sins of the people so truly their own that they were to eat the Sin Offerings, as already commanded in Leviticus.")

[11] And this is yours; the Heave Offering of their gift (heaved up and down by the Priests, signifying that Christ would come from above, down to this Earth), with all the Wave Offerings (signifying that all Blessings come from the Lord) of the Children of Israel: I have given them unto you, and to your sons and to your daughters with you, by a Statute forever: everyone who is clean in your house shall eat of it.

[12] All the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the firstfruits of them which they shall offer unto the LORD, them have I given you (the love that appointed this Ministry provided for its maintenance, by granting to it all the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat; along with particular Offerings, which could be eaten by the Priests and their families, this provided most of their sustenance; when the people drifted from the Lord, as they, at times did, thereby omitting most of the Sacrifices, the Priests went hungry).

[13] And whatsoever is first ripe in the land, which they shall bring unto the LORD, shall be yours; everyone who is clean in your house shall eat of it (meaning they were not ceremonially defiled in some way).

[14] Every thing devoted in Israel shall be yours (the thing devoted, whatever it was, was to be brought to the Sanctuary).

[15] Every thing that opens the matrix in all flesh, which they bring unto the LORD, whether it be of men or beasts, shall be yours: nevertheless the firstborn of man shall you surely redeem, and the firstling of unclean beasts shall you redeem (with the appropriate amount of money).

[16] And those that are to be redeemed from a month old shall you redeem, according to your estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.

[17] But the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, you shall not redeem; they are holy: you shall sprinkle their blood upon the Altar, and shall burn their fat for an Offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

[18] And the flesh of them shall be yours, as the wave breast and as the right shoulder are yours.

[19] All the Heave Offerings of the holy things, which the Children of Israel offer unto the LORD, have I given you, and your sons and your daughters with you, by a Statute forever: it is a covenant of salt forever before the LORD unto you and to your seed with you (salt was the natural emblem of that which is incorruptible; therefore, a Type of the Word of God).

[20] And the LORD spoke unto Aaron, You shall have no inheritance in their land, neither shall you have any part among them: I am your part and your inheritance among the Children of Israel (in essence, the portion given to the Priests was more desirable than any other portion; the Lord faithfully blesses those who faithfully serve Him).

TITHES

[21] And, behold, I have given the Children of Levi all the tenth (Tithe) in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, even the service of the Tabernacle of the congregation. (The record of the first Tithe being paid was that of Abraham paying Tithe to Melchizedek [Gen. 14:17-20]. Now the Tithes were assigned to the Levites and their maintenance. There were thousands of them; however, if all of Israel were faithful in this respect, the needs of each one would be met. Regrettably, they were not always faithful.

It is the same presently regarding Tithing. As it went then to support the Work of God, it continues to do the same.)

[22] Neither must the Children of Israel henceforth come near the Tabernacle of the congregation, lest they bear sin, and die (the Priests and the Levites alone could attend to the duties of the Tabernacle).

23 But the Levites shall do the service of the Tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall bear their iniquity: it shall be a Statute forever throughout your generations, that among the Children of Israel they have no inheritance.

24 But the Tithes of the Children of Israel, which they offer as an Heave Offering unto the LORD, I have given to the Levites to inherit: therefore I have said unto them, Among the Children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

THE LEVITES

25 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

26 Thus speak unto the Levites, and say unto them, When you take of the Children of Israel the tithes which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then you shall offer up an Heave Offering of it for the LORD, even a tenth part of the tithe. (Thus, the principle of giving a tenth part of all to God was carried out consistently throughout the whole of God's people.)

27 And this your Heave Offering shall be reckoned unto you, as though it were the corn of the threshingfloor, and as the fullness of the winepress.

28 Thus you also shall offer an Heave Offering unto the LORD of all your tithes, which you receive of the Children of Israel; and you shall give thereof the LORD's Heave Offering to Aaron the Priest (the Levites tithed the people, the Priests tithed the Levites).

29 Out of all your gifts you shall offer every Heave Offering of the LORD, of all the best thereof, even the hallowed part thereof out of it (the best was to always go to the Lord).

30 Therefore you shall say unto them, When you have heaved the best thereof from it, then it shall be counted unto the Levites as the increase of the threshingfloor, and as the increase of the winepress (the "increase" pertained to the tithe, a tenth).

31 And you shall eat it in every place, you and your households: for it is your reward for your service in the Tabernacle of the congregation.

32 And you shall bear no sin by reason of it, when you have heaved from it the best of it (they would not incur any guilty responsibility by enjoying it, as and where they pleased): neither shall you pollute the holy things of the Children of Israel, lest you die (the Levites must not intrude into the office of the Priests).

CHAPTER 19

(1454 B.C.)

THE RED HEIFER

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

[2] This is the Ordinance of the Law which the LORD has commanded (Williams says, "This Chapter being found in Numbers and not in Leviticus shows inspiration. Had the sacrifice of the red heifer been invented by Jewish Priests, as some affirm, they would have placed it in the Book of Leviticus), saying, Speak unto the Children of Israel, that they bring you a red heifer without spot, wherein is no blemish, and upon which never came yoke (the heifer symbolizes Christ; it was spotless externally and without blemish internally; "without yoke" means it was free from any bondage whatever; as well, the color "red" refers to the fact that Christ robed Himself with the red earth of manhood)**:

[3] And you shall give her unto Eleazar the Priest, that he may bring her forth without the camp, and one shall slay her before his face (Christ was led of the Spirit to Calvary, where He offered up Himself)**:

[4] And Eleazar the Priest shall take of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle of her blood directly before the Tabernacle of the congregation seven times (the sprinkling of the blood seven times speaks of a perfect Redemption, all made possible by the death of Christ on the Cross, necessitating the shedding of His Blood [Eph. 2:13-18])**:

[5] And one shall burn the heifer in his sight; her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall he burn (the fire had a double meaning: 1. It spoke first of all of the Judgment of God upon Christ, instead of upon us to whom it rightfully belonged — all of humanity; and, 2. The Judgment poured out upon Christ signified that all sin was atoned; Justification means that one is declared by God as "not guilty," but it goes further and means that one is also "innocent"; it also refers to the fact that every sin is forgiven, and taken away; and last of all, the justified person is placed in a position before God as if he had never sinned; that is Justification [Rom. 5:1-2]):

6 And the Priest shall take cedar wood (typical of the Cross), and hyssop (typical of the Humanity of Christ), and scarlet (typical of the shed Blood), and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer (meaning that the heifer is a Type of Christ dying on the Cross of Calvary, atoning for the sin of mankind).

7 Then the Priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the Priest shall be unclean until the evening. (Even though the Priests were Types of Christ, still they were only types; consequently, when dealing with sin, which this ritual did, they became unclean, and had to go through a cleansing process. The difference in the Type and Christ is that Christ dealt with sin on the Cross, but dealt with it in regard to its penalty. His Perfection was never marred or sullied by sin. In other words, He sanctified the Cross with His Perfection and, above all, His shed Blood.)

8 And he who burns her (the heifer) shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the evening.

9 And a man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up without the camp in a clean place (signifying that the price that Christ would pay would be total, and would leave nothing of sin; the nothingness was symbolized by the ashes), and it shall be kept for the congregation of the Children of Israel for a water of separation: it is a purification for sin (of course, this was only a symbolism of the real purification that would come with the death of Christ on the Cross; in the symbol, the ashes would be mixed with water, and then applied to that which was polluted).

10 And he who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening: and it shall be unto the Children of Israel, and unto the stranger who sojourns among them, for a Statute forever (the word "forever" pertained to the entirety of the time of the Law; when Jesus came, this was fulfilled, and was no longer needed, because His Blood cleanses from all sin [I Jn. 1:7]).

WATER OF PURIFICATION

11 He who touches the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days (death in all its forms is the ultimate conclusion of sin, and is a result of the Fall).

12 He shall purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean: but if he purify not himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean. (Williams says, "Restoration was only possible after an application of the ashes of the heifer on the third day and on the seventh day. The three days prior to the first purging fastened on the conscience the hatefulness of sin to God; the four days prior to the second and final application of the ashes and running water instructed the conscience as to the perfection of the purge and the wonders of the grace that provided it."

He goes on to say, "Possibly the third day pointed to the Resurrection of Christ; the seventh day to His return in Glory. During the first period only an imperfect sense of the fullness of His Sacrifice is possible; but in the coming glorious seventh day there will be a perfected consciousness of this fullness.")

13 Whosoever touches the dead body of any man who is dead, and purifies not himself, defiles the Tabernacle of the LORD (the uncleanness of death was not simply a personal matter; it involved, if not duly purged, the whole congregation, and reached even to God Himself, for its defilement spread to the Sanctuary); and that soul shall be cut off from Israel: because the water of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; his unclean ness is yet upon him (the ashes were to be mixed with the water, and then applied to that which was polluted; it was called "the water of separation").

14 This is the Law, when a man dies in a tent: all who come into the tent, and all who are in the tent, shall be unclean seven days.

15 And every open vessel, which has no covering bound upon it, is unclean. (Pulpit says, "If the vessel was open, its contents were polluted by the odour of death.")

16 And whosoever touches one who is slain with a sword in the open fields, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days (this means that if a bone is touched, even though a thousand years old, it will defile the individual who does the touching, and will bring about exclusion from the camp, at least for seven days; even then, the purification process must be engaged).

17 And for an unclean person they shall take the ashes of the burnt heifer of purification for sin, and running water shall be put thereto in a vessel:

18 And a clean person shall take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it upon the tent, and upon all the vessels, and upon the persons who were there, and upon him who touched a bone, or one slain, or one dead, or a grave (this is what Jesus was referring to in Matthew 23:27)**:

19 And the clean person shall sprinkle upon the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day: and on the seventh day he shall purify himself, and wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and shall be clean at evening (the words "at evening" refer to the defiled person pronounced clean; this speaks of the preciousness of Christ's atoning Blood, and its sufficiency to cleanse from all sin; at the evening of life, this is the greatest assurance of all).

20 But the man who shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from among the congregation, because he has defiled the Sanctuary of the LORD: the water of separation has not been sprinkled upon him; he is unclean (in New Covenant terminology, this speaks of the individual who ignores the only remedy for sin, which is the shed Blood of Jesus Christ, thereby placing his faith in something else; he will be eternally lost).

21 And it shall be a perpetual Statute unto them, that he who sprinkles the water of separation shall wash his clothes; and he who touches the water of separation shall be unclean until evening.

22 And whatsoever the unclean person touches shall be unclean; and the soul that touches it shall be unclean until evening. (All of this is meant to portray the awfulness of sin. The whole design of this ritual is meant to impress upon mankind this truth. The defilement of sin reached even to the very means Divinely appointed as a remedy. This is what Paul meant when he said, "Who shall deliver me from the body of this death?" [Rom. 7:24]. When he used the pronoun "Who" instead of "what," the Apostle was on his way to truth.)

CHAPTER 20

MIRIAM

[1] Then came the Children of Israel, even the whole congregation, into the desert of Zin in the first month (this is the first month of the fortieth year after they had come out of Egypt; from the time of the spies until the occurrences of this Chapter was 38 years, of which nothing is recorded; this tells us that "unbelief," for this is what caused the delay, does nothing for God; how many days, weeks, months, or even years of our lives are wasted, all because we were outside of the Will of God?): and the people abode in Kadesh; and Miriam died there, and was buried there. (Is it possible that Miriam never allowed her heart to be properly cleansed from her rebellion against Moses, which, if so, could have contributed unto her untimely death?)

[2] And there was no water for the congregation: and they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron. (This is a new generation, and yet they too murmur against the great Law-Giver and the High Priest, both which mean they are murmuring against the Lord.)

LACK OF WATER

[3] And the people chode with Moses, and spoke, saying, Would God that we had died when our brethren died before the LORD!

[4] And why have you brought up the congregation of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our cattle should die there? (The Lord had brought them there, not Moses.)

[5] And wherefore have you made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us in unto this evil place? it is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither is there any water to drink. (In fact, it was a difficult place! However, the Lord led them here because He loved them. He desired to reveal to them His inexhaustible resources, that is, if they would only believe. It is the same with us presently! Everything is a test. How will we respond?)

[6] And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the Assembly unto the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation, and they fell upon their faces: and the Glory of the LORD appeared unto them (they took the situation to the Lord).

WATER FROM THE ROCK

[7] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[8] Take the rod (the same rod with which Moses had smitten the Rock in Rephidim [Ex. 17:6]), and you gather the Assembly together, you, and Aaron your brother, and you speak unto the Rock before their eyes (the "Rock" represents Christ, and what He would do at Calvary to redeem fallen humanity; it had already been smitten, typifying the once-for-all Sacrifice of Christ [Heb. 10:12]; to call forth the blessings was all that was now needed); and it shall give forth his water, and you shall bring forth to them water out of the Rock (typifying the Work of the Holy Spirit that would be made possible by Christ and what He did at the Cross; Christ is the Source, while the Cross is the Means): so you shall give the congregation and their beasts drink.

[9] And Moses took the rod from before the LORD, as He commanded him.

[10] And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the Rock, and he said unto them, Hear now, you rebels; must we fetch you water out of this Rock? (In his irritation, Moses placed himself and Aaron in the position of supplying the water, when the Lord Alone could do such a thing.)

[11] And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the Rock twice (the Lord told him to speak to the Rock, not smite the Rock; to smite the Rock, in essence, greatly abrogated the Type; the Rock smitten in Rephidim was a Type of the Sacrifice of Christ on the Cross; to smite the Rock again, in essence, stated that the first Sacrifice was insufficient, and would have to be repeated; such a sin was great! Regrettably, much of the modern Church world continues to smite the Rock, committing the same sin as Moses; in fact, the sin is much worse presently, because the Rock is now history instead of prophetic): and the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also (we should not mistake the Blessings of the Lord for the approval of the Lord; that is always a mistake).

THE PENALTY

[12] And the LORD spoke unto Moses and Aaron, Because you believed Me not, to sanctify Me in the eyes of the Children of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them. (The penalty, i.e., "chastisement," was severe, because the sin was severe. Is the Lord saying to the modern Church Leaders, "Because you believe Me not, to sanctify Me in the eyes of Believers?" Anything that denigrates the Cross is sin, gross sin!)

[13] This is the water of Meribah (strife); because the Children of Israel strove with the LORD, and He was sanctified in them (in that He brought water out of the Rock, despite the sin of Moses; Paul said, "And that Rock was Christ" [I Cor. 10:4]).

THE EDOMITES

[14] And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of Edom, Thus says your brother Israel (this phrase recalled the history of Esau and Jacob, and of the brotherly kindness which the former had shown to the latter, at a time when he had him in his power [Gen., Chpt. 33]), You know all the travail that has befallen us:

[15] How our fathers went down into Egypt, and we have dwelt in Egypt a long time (215 years); and the Egyptians vexed us, and our fathers (made slaves of the Israelites):

16 And when we cried unto the LORD, He heard our voice, and sent an Angel, and has brought us forth out of Egypt: and, behold, we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of your border (close to your border):

17 Let us pass, I pray you, through your country: we will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the king's high way, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed your borders.

18 And Edom said unto him, You shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against you with the sword. (This exchange between Israel and Edom portrayed the gentleness of the one and the hatred of the other; however, just as God would not let Esau injure Jacob, so now He forbade Jacob to injure Esau [Deut. 2:4-5].)

19 And the Children of Israel said unto him, We will go by the high way: and if I and my cattle drink of your water, then I will pay for it: I will only, without doing anything else, go through on my feet.

20 And he said, You shall not go through. And Edom came out against him with much people, and with a strong hand.

21 Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his border: wherefore Israel turned away from him. (Pulpit says, "This was the first of a series of hostile acts, prompted by vindictive jealousy, which ultimately brought down the wrath of God upon Edom.")

22 And the Children of Israel, even the whole congregation, journeyed from Kadesh, and came unto Mount Hor.

AARON'S DEATH

23 And the LORD spoke unto Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor, by the coast of the land of Edom, saying,

[24] Aaron shall be gathered unto his people: for he shall not enter into the land which I have given unto the Children of Israel, because you rebelled against My Word at the water of Meribah (Aaron was held guilty, exactly as Moses).

[25] Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up unto mount Hor:

[26] And strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son: and Aaron shall be gathered unto his people, and shall die there. (I know this hurt Moses greatly, to be told these words by the Lord.)

[27] And Moses did as the LORD commanded: and they went up into Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation. (No doubt, the announcement had been made to Israel that their High Priest, the very first one, was going to die. But the pain must have been felt more keenly by Moses.)

[28] And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son (it affects the heart greatly to picture the farewell of Moses and Aaron upon Mount Hor; both were representatives of the Law, and the Law could never inherit the Promised Land; so both must die without going into the Promised Land); and Aaron died there in the top of the Mount: and Moses and Eleazar came down from the Mount.

[29] And when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, they mourned for Aaron thirty days, even all the house of Israel.

CHAPTER 21

(1453 B.C.)

THE CANAANITES

[1] And when king Arad the Canaanite, which dwelt in the south, heard tell that Israel came by the way of the spies; then he fought against Israel, and took some of them prisoners.

[2] And Israel vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If You will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities (the Lord had instructed Israel to do this, even though it had not yet been recorded; such commands were given by the Lord in this fashion because of the gross iniquity of the people — iniquity so bad, such as incest, bestiality, homosexuality, etc., which means they were totally taken over by demon spirits; consequently, their execution was like the removal of a cancer).

[3] And the LORD hearkened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities: and He called the name of the place Hormah (close to the southern tip of the Dead Sea).

THE FIERY SERPENTS

[4] And they journeyed from Mount Hor by the way of the Red Sea, to compass the land of Edom: and the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way (the "way" is not always easy, but this difficult way was their own doing; if their fathers had believed the Lord, they would have been in the Promised Land approximately 38 years before).

[5] And the people spoke against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, neither is there any water; and our soul loathes this light bread (hates the Manna. They had the same heart of rebellion as their fathers. Wherever the Believer finds himself, and no matter how difficult may seem the way at present, he must not complain. To do so presents a gross insult to the Lord, and for many and varied reasons. We should thank the Lord, and do so daily, irrespective of the circumstances. If the "way" is hard, we should try to learn the lesson which the Lord is trying to teach us, and ask Him to deliver us. He will!).

[6] And the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of Israel died. (It says that the "LORD" sent these fiery serpents. Let all understand, everything which happens to a Believer, be it negative or positive, is either "caused" by the Lord, or "allowed" by the Lord. Believers belong to the Lord. As such, Satan can do nothing against us, unless the Lord allows it.)

[7] Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD, and against you; pray unto the LORD, that He take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people. (This is the first and only recorded occasion on which the people directly asked for the intercession of Moses — Pulpit.)

SERPENT OF BRASS

[8] And the LORD said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole (the "serpent," i.e., "sin and Satan," was the reason for the Cross, and the pole was a Type of the Cross): and it shall come to pass, that everyone who is bitten, when he looks upon it, shall live (everyone who looks to Christ and the Cross has the sentence of death abated and, therefore, shall "live").

[9] And Moses made a serpent of brass (copper), and put it upon a pole and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived (approximately 400 years earlier, the Lord had shown Abraham the manner of Salvation; it would be through the death of an innocent victim, namely the Son of God [Jn. 8:36]; it was to Moses, however, as recorded here, that the Lord proclaimed the way that the Son of God would die; it would be by the Cross, symbolized by the serpent on the pole).

THE MARCH TOWARD MOAB

10 And the Children of Israel set forward, and pitched in Oboth.

11 And they journeyed from Oboth, and pitched at Ije-abarim, in the wilderness which is before Moab, toward the sunrising.

12 From thence they removed, and pitched in the valley of Zared.

13 From thence they removed, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, which is in the wilderness that comes out of the coasts of the Amorites: for Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

14 Wherefore it is said in the book of the wars of the LORD (such a book did not survive antiquity), What He did in the Red Sea, and in the brooks of Arnon,

15 And at the stream of the brooks that goes down to the dwelling of Ar, and lies upon the border of Moab.

16 And from thence they went to Beer: that is the well whereof the LORD spoke unto Moses, Gather the people together, and I will give them water. (Pulpit says, "That they were told to dig for water instead of receiving it from the Rock showed the end of the wilderness journey to be at hand, and the transition shortly to be made from the miraculous to natural supplies.")

17 Then Israel sang this song, Spring up, O well; sing you unto it (a great Truth is here given us. Problems? Sing to them, and I speak of songs of Faith. The longest Book in the Bible, Psalms, is given over totally to music and singing, showing us the high value that the Lord places on this type of worship, "Sing ye unto it"):

18 The princes dug the well, the nobles of the people dug it, by the direction of the Law-Giver, with their staves (the Lord gave this direction to Moses, and Moses gave it to the people). And from the wilderness they went to Mattanah:

19 And from Mattanah to Nahaliel: and from Nahaliel to Bamoth:

20 And from Bamoth in the valley, that is in the country of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, which looks toward Jeshimon.

VICTORY

21 And Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, saying,

22 Let me pass through your land: we will not turn into the fields, or into the vineyards; we will not drink of the waters of the well: but we will go along by the king's high way, until we be past your borders.

23 And Sihon would not suffer Israel to pass through his border: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness: and he came to Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

24 And Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from Arnon unto Jabbok, even unto the children of Ammon: for the border of the Children of Ammon was strong.

25 And Israel took all these cities: and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all the villages thereof.

26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even unto Arnon. (Strengthened by the waters of the hidden well, Israel entered upon a life of continuous victory. Sihon fell before the celestial pilgrims. Then the Amorites were driven out. And, finally, Og, the king of Bashan, and his people were destroyed until there were none left alive. The Amorites had been given 400 years in which to repent [Gen. 15:16], but in vain. And God, in His love to the human family, ordained the total destruction of these unspeakably depraved people.)

[27] Wherefore they who speak in proverbs, say, Come into Heshbon, let the city of Sihon be built and prepared:

[28] For there is a fire gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon: it has consumed Ar of Moab, and the lords of the high places of Arnon. (As the next Verses proclaim, the boasts of these heathen would turn to bitterness.)

[29] Woe to you, Moab! you are undone, O people of Chemosh (Chemosh was the national god of the Moabites [I Ki. 11:7; Jer. 48:7]): he has given his sons who escaped, and his daughters, into captivity unto Sihon king of the Amorites.

[30] We (Israel) have shot at them; Heshbon is perished even unto Dibon, and we have laid them waste even unto Nophah, which reaches unto Medeba.

[31] Thus Israel dwelt in the land of Amorites. (With God on their side, Israel couldn't lose. The Amorites were given up to be the most powerful people of that region; however, they were totally defeated by Israel.)

[32] And Moses sent to spy out Jaazer, and they took the villages thereof, and drove out the Amorites who were there.

VICTORY OVER OG

[33] And they turned and went up by the way of Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he, and all his people, to the battle at Edrei. (Og was of the race of the giants, made that way by the ungodly union of fallen angels and women [Gen. 6:4]. This was Satan's great attempt to pollute the region from which the Messiah would ultimately come. This also was one of the reasons that God gave for all these people to be destroyed. These were polluted, contaminated races, and for the reasons mentioned.)

34 And the LORD said unto Moses, Fear him not: for I have delivered him into your hand, and all his people, and his land; and you shall do to him as you did unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

35 So they smote him, and his sons, and all his people, until there was none left him alive: and they (Israel) possessed his land. (If obedience and Faith are rendered, the word from the Lord always is, "Fear not"!)

CHAPTER 22

(1452 B.C.)

BALAAM

[1] And the Children of Israel set forward, and pitched in the plains of Moab on this side Jordan by Jericho.

[2] And Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

[3] And Moab was sore afraid of the people, because they were many: and Moab was distressed because of the Children of Israel (the Lord will make our enemies to be fearful of us, that is, if our path is a path of obedience).

[4] And Moab said unto the Elders of Midian, Now shall this company lick up all that are round about us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field. And Balak the son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time.

[5] He sent messengers therefore unto Balaam the son of Beor to Pethor (an out-of-Covenant Prophet), which is by the river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt: behold, they cover the face of the Earth, and they abide over against me (even though the miracle of their deliverance had taken place nearly 40 years before, still, it was very well known by all the surrounding countries what God had done there).

[6] Come now therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people (Balak requests of Balaam); for they are too mighty for me: peradventure I shall prevail, that we may smite them, and that I may drive them out of the land: for I know that he whom you bless is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed (evidently, Balaam had some type of reputation).

7 And the Elders of Moab and the Elders of Midian departed with the rewards of divination in their hand (which Peter calls "the wages of unrighteousness"); and they came unto Balaam, and spoke unto him the words of Balak.

8 And he said unto them, Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, as the LORD shall speak unto me: and the princes of Moab abode with Balaam (had he been where he should have been with the Lord, he would not have had to seek the Lord as it regards cursing or blessing Israel; he would have already known they were God's people).

GOD FORBIDS BALAAM

9 And God came unto Balaam, and said, What men are these with you?

10 And Balaam said unto God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent unto me, saying,

11 Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, which covers the face of the Earth: come now, curse me them; peradventure I shall be able to overcome them, and drive them out.

12 And God said unto Balaam, You shall not go with them; you shall not curse the people: for they are blessed (what God has blessed, nothing can curse).

13 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Balak, Get you into your land: for the LORD refuses to give me leave to go with you.

14 And the princes of Moab rose up, and they went unto Balak, and said, Balaam refuses to come with us.

GOD PERMITS BALAAM

15 And Balak sent yet again princes, more, and more honourable than they.

16 And they came to Balaam, and said to him, Thus says Balak the son of Zippor, Let nothing, I pray you, hinder you from coming unto me:

17 For I will promote you unto very great honour, and I will do whatsoever you say unto me: come therefore, I pray you, curse me this people (the world still gives such allurements; stupid are the people and, above all, the Preachers, who heed such a call; they will find themselves, every time, fighting God, a battle they cannot win).

18 And Balaam answered and said unto the servants of Balak, If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the Word of the LORD my God, to do less or more.

19 Now therefore, I pray you, tarry you also here this night, that I may know what the LORD will say unto me more (the Lord had already spoken to Balaam; but we know that, in his heart, Balaam doesn't want to obey the Lord; the truth is, the Lord isn't saying what Balaam wants to hear).

20 And God came unto Balaam at night, and said unto him, If the men come to call you, rise up, and go with them; but yet the Word which I shall say unto you, that shall you do. (Many have argued that Balaam was not a true worshipper of the Lord and, therefore, not a true Prophet, but merely a soothsayer, etc. But, every Scriptural indication is that whatever Balaam may be at this time, he once was a true Prophet. If Balaam will not obey the Lord, the Lord will use him anyway, to deliver a Message, a series of Prophecies, some of the most astounding in history.)

THE ANGEL

21 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.

22 And God's anger was kindled because he went (as it regards Believers, even those of Balaam's stripe, everything is a test. How will we act? How will we react? Even though Balaam had received permission from the Lord to go, the truth is, he was going anyway, hence the anger of the Lord): and the Angel of the LORD stood in the way for an adversary against him. Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants were with him (he was determined to curse the People of God, and for money; let it ever be said, God is "against" all who follow such a course).

[23] And the ass saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam smote the ass, to turn her into the way (events are caused by the Lord, but far too often men fail to see that).

[24] But the Angel of the LORD stood in a path of the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side.

[25] And when the ass saw the Angel of the LORD, she thrust herself unto the wall, and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall: and he smote her again.

[26] And the Angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left (today, as on that day, disobeying God degrades man below the brute beast).

[27] And when the ass saw the Angel of the LORD, she fell down under Balaam: and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with a staff.

[28] And the LORD opened the mouth of the ass, and she said unto Balaam, What have I done unto you, that you have smitten me these three times? (Self-will refused to be instructed by circumstances, but a will yielded to God is careful to observe them. Three times Balaam refused to learn from the animal on which he rode; and so blinded was he by the love of money that the dumb beast, speaking with man's voice, failed to make him hesitate — Williams. No, this is not a fable! The Lord actually caused the animal to speak. If we deny such, then we deny God and His Word.)

[29] And Balaam said unto the ass, Because you have mocked me: I would there were a sword in my hand, for now would I kill you.

30 And the ass said unto Balaam, Am not I your ass, upon which you have ridden ever since I was yours unto this day? was I ever wont to do so unto you? And he said, No. (The astounding thing about this is that Balaam was so full of covetousness that the speaking of the animal didn't seem to faze him. And now he answers the animal, once again brushing aside the phenomenon of what has taken place. Sin can have such a hold upon a person that they take all leave of their senses, in order to carry out their devious design.)

31 Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and he bowed down his head, and fell flat on his face (he now knows that if he says the wrong thing, he's a dead man).

32 And the Angel of the LORD said unto him, Wherefore have you smitten your ass these three times? behold, I went out to withstand you, because your way is perverse before me ("perverse" means "leading headlong to destruction")**:

33 And the ass saw me, and turned from me these three times: unless she had turned from me, surely now also I had killed you, and saved her alive.

34 And Balaam said unto the Angel of the LORD, I have sinned; for I knew not that you stood in the way against me: now therefore, if it displease you, I will get me back again. (Pharaoh, Balaam, Achan, Saul, David, and Judas said respectively, "I have sinned"; but only David said this sincerely.)

35 And the Angel of the LORD said unto Balaam, Go with the men: but only the word that I shall speak unto you, that you shall speak. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak (still blinded by greed, the man doesn't realize that he has just signed his death warrant).

BALAK

36 And when Balak heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meet him unto a city of Moab, which is in the border of Arnon, which is in the utmost coast.

37 And Balak said unto Balaam, Did I not earnestly send unto you to call you? wherefore did you not come unto me? am I not able indeed to promote you to honour?

38 And Balaam said unto Balak, Lo, I am come unto you: have I now any power at all to say anything? the Word that God puts in my mouth, that shall I speak. (He did speak the Word of the Lord, even as we shall see; however, he also spoke other words, which the Lord did not give him, and which brought about his own death, even as we shall see.)

39 And Balaam went with Balak (he could go with the Lord or with Balak; he couldn't go with both), and they came unto Kirjath-huzoth.

40 And Balak offered oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes who were with him (there is even a possibility that Balak offered these sacrifices to Jehovah; nevertheless, such, if it be the case, could never be accepted by the Lord).

41 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Balak took Balaam, and brought him up into the high places of Baal, that thence he might see the utmost part of the people.

CHAPTER 23

(1452 B.C.)

SACRIFICES

[1] And Balaam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven oxen and seven rams. (There is only one "Altar," i.e., "Cross," not seven. Man always tends to change what God has originally ordained. Why? It is easier to "walk after the flesh," than it is to "walk after the Spirit" [Rom. 8:1].)

[2] And Balak did as Balaam had spoken; and Balak and Balaam offered on every altar a bullock and a ram (God will never sanction a corruption of His Word).

[3] And Balaam said unto Balak, Stand by your burnt offering, and I will go: peradventure the LORD will come to meet me: and whatsoever he shows me I will tell you. And he went to an high place (where exactly that was, we are not told).

[4] And God met Balaam (as to how, again we aren't told): and he (Balaam) said unto Him (God), I have prepared seven altars, and I have offered upon every altar a bullock and a ram.

[5] And the LORD put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, Return unto Balak and thus you shall speak (the Lord ignored the so-called sacrifices, exactly as He ignores every sacrifice presently which is not the Cross).

FIRST PROPHECY

[6] And he (Balaam) returned unto him (Balak), and, lo, he stood by his burnt sacrifice, he, and all the princes of Moab.

7 And he took up his parable, and said, Balak the king of Moab has brought me from Aram, out of the mountains of the east, saying, Come, curse me Jacob, and come, defy Israel (Satan has not stopped this type of attack from then until now).

8 How shall I curse, whom God has not cursed? or how shall I defy, whom the LORD has not defied? (The doctrine of Balaam's first Prophecy is that of Rom., Chpt. 9-11. It is that God has chosen, numbered, separated, and blessed the Children of Israel.)

9 For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him: lo, the people shall dwell alone, and shall not be reckoned among the nations. (And so it has been from then until now. Israel is different than any nation in the world, and it is because they are the chosen of God. Admittedly, they've been away from the Lord for a long, long time; however, that is soon to change, which will take place at the Second Coming.)

10 Who can count the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? (From his vantage point, Balaam, more than likely, could only see one of the four great camps into which the host was divided, so say the Jewish Targums.)Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his! (The "Righteousness" of which Balaam speaks is a spotless, Divine Righteousness. It can only be obtained by Faith in Christ, and what Christ has done at the Cross [Rom. 6:3-14]. By saying this, Balaam meant that God would be to blame if he did not so die. Sadly, he did not die the death of the righteous.)

11 And Balak said unto Balaam, What have you done unto me? I took you to curse my enemies, and, behold, you have blessed them altogether.

12 And he answered and said, Must I not take heed to speak that which the LORD has put in my mouth?

13 And Balak said unto him, Come, I pray you, with me unto another place, from where you may see them: you shall see but the utmost part of them, and shall not see them all: and curse me them from there. (The People of God cannot be cursed. Jesus answered the curse of the broken law at the Cross of Calvary, which, as well, handled every other curse, and of every description [Gal. 3:13].)

14 And he brought him into the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered a bullock and a ram on every Altar. (The first seven evidently not being enough, he builds seven more altars. While law is open-ended, Grace is complete within itself.)

15 And he said unto Balak, Stand here by your burnt offering, while I meet the LORD yonder.

16 And the LORD met Balaam, and put a word in his mouth, and said, Go again unto Balak, and say thus.

SECOND PROPHECY

17 And when he came to him, behold, he stood by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him. And Balak said unto him, What has the LORD spoken? (This heathen recognized Jehovah as God, but only among many other gods.)

18 And he took up his parable, and said, Rise up, Balak, and hear; hearken unto Me, you son of Zippor:

19 God is not a man, that He should lie; neither the son of man that He should repent (God does not change; through the loins of Abraham and the womb of Sarah, the Lord had raised up the Jewish people; even though they have strayed, as stated, they will be brought back, because God has said it, and He doesn't lie): has He said, and shall He not do it? or has He spoken, and shall He not make it good?

20 Behold, I have received Commandment to bless: and He has blessed; and I cannot reverse it (Satan and all his power cannot reverse the Blessings of God upon the one who follows a path of obedience [Lk. 9:23-24])**.

21 He has not beheld iniquity in Jacob, neither has He seen perverseness in Israel (this speaks of Justification by faith): the LORD his God is with him, and the shout of a king is among them (Christ is that King).

22 God brought them out of Egypt; he (Israel) has as it were the strength of an unicorn (probably refers to the African Rhino).

23 Surely there is no enchantment against Jacob, neither is there any divination against Israel (no witchcraft against the People of God will ever prosper): according to this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, What has God wrought!

24 Behold, the people shall rise up as a great lion, and lift up himself as a young lion (the Lion of the Tribe of Judah [Rev. 5:5]): he shall not lie down until he eat of the prey, and drink the blood of the slain (predicts the fate of the Antichrist [Ezek. 39:3-5]).

25 And Balak said unto Balaam, Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all.

26 But Balaam answered and said unto Balak, Told I not you, saying, All that the LORD speaks, that I must do?

27 And Balak said unto Balaam, Come, I pray you, I will bring you unto another place; peradventure it will please God that you may curse me them from there.

28 And Balak brought Balaam unto the top of Peor, that looks toward Jeshimon.

29 And Balaam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bullocks and seven rams (the third group of seven, but to no avail).

30 And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

CHAPTER 24

THIRD PROPHECY

[1] And when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he went not, as at other times, to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness. (Concerning this, Williams says, "This Chapter shows that the Prophet in his 'madness' was willing to listen to the voice of the Devil, though unwilling to listen to the voice of the Lord. The corruption, depravity, and rebellion of man's will is fearfully and mysteriously illustrated in Balaam. Even at the time of being consciously subject to the Moving of the Holy Spirit, in his thirst for money he sought by enchantments to become inspired of an Unclean Spirit. So, knowledge of spiritual things is not spiritual knowledge.")

[2] And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel abiding in his tents according to their Tribes; and the Spirit of God came upon him (but it doesn't mean that he had the Spirit of God, for he definitely didn't!).

[3] And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor has said, and the man whose eyes are open has said (meaning that he saw a vision)**:

[4] He has said, which heard the Words of God, which saw the Vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:

[5] How goodly are your tents, O Jacob, and your tabernacles, O Israel! (The Lord looked at Israel in that manner, and He presently looks at the Church, the true Church, that is, in the same manner.)

[6] As the valleys are they spread forth, as gardens by the river's side, as the trees of lign aloes which the LORD has planted, and as cedar trees beside the waters. (Israel is meant to be a blessing to the entirety of the world, and definitely will fulfill that role in the coming Kingdom Age.)

[7] He shall pour the water out of His Buckets, and His Seed shall be in many waters (in the Kingdom Age, Israel will enrich all nations), and His King (the Lord Jesus Christ) shall be higher than Agag, and His Kingdom shall be exalted (Israel will be the leading Nation in the world in the Kingdom Age).

[8] God brought him forth out of Egypt; he has as it were the strength of an unicorn (once again, the strength of an African Rhino): he shall eat up the nations his enemies, and shall break their bones, and pierce them through with his arrows (even though this covers a wide spectrum of time, the major fulfillment will be during the Battle of Armageddon; Israel will then do all of these things, but with the help of the Messiah [Zech. 14:3]).

[9] He couched, he lay down as a lion, and as a great lion: who shall stir him up? Blessed is he who blesses you, and cursed is he who curses you (the first promise that God gave concerning Israel, when they were yet in the loins of Abraham [Gen. 12:1-3]).

[10] And Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and he smote his hands together: and Balak said unto Balaam, I called you to curse my enemies, and, behold, you have altogether blessed them these three times.

[11] Therefore now flee thou to your place: I thought to promote you unto great honour; but, lo, the LORD has kept you back from honour.

[12] And Balaam said unto Balak, Spake I not also to your messengers which you sent unto me, saying, [13] If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the Commandment of the LORD, to do either good or bad of my own mind; but what the LORD says, that will I speak?

FOURTH PROPHECY

[14] And now, behold, I go unto my people: come therefore, and I will advertise you what this people shall do to your people in the latter days (speaks of the coming Kingdom Age).

15 And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor has said, and the man whose eyes are open has said:

16 He has said, which heard the Words of God, and knew the knowledge of the Most High, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:

17 I shall see Him, but not now (the Messiah would come, but not then): I shall behold Him, but not nigh (not at this time, the time of Balaam): there shall come a Star out of Jacob, and a Sceptre shall rise out of Israel (the Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ), and shall smite the corners of Moab, and destroy all the children of Sheth.

18 And Edom shall be a possession, Seir also shall be a possession for His enemies; and Israel shall do valiantly (in the coming Kingdom Age, Israel will occupy most of the area of the Middle East).

19 Out of Jacob shall come He Who shall have dominion (the Lord Jesus Christ), and shall destroy him who remains of the city (the Battle of Armageddon, when the Antichrist and his armies shall be destroyed).

FIFTH PROPHECY

20 And when he looked on Amalek, he took up his parable, and said, Amalek was the first of the nations (to attack Israel, and did so when they came out of Egypt [Ex. 17:8-16]); but his latter end shall be that he perish forever (in typology, Amalek is a type of the flesh; this prediction tells us that the way of the flesh will ultimately be totally defeated; it will take place at the coming Resurrection of Life [I Cor. 15:51-54]).

21 And he looked on the Kenites, and took up his parable, and said, Strong is your dwellingplace, and you put your nest in a rock.

22 Nevertheless the Kenite shall be wasted, until Asshur shall carry you away captive (speaks of the Antichrist making his debut of world domination, which will fail).

23 And he took up his parable, and said Alas, who shall live when God does this!

24 And ships shall come from the coast of Chittim, and shall afflict Asshur, and shall afflict Eber, and he also shall perish forever (pertains to the last days, and speaks of the Antichrist, who will perish in the Battle of Armageddon).

25 And Balaam rose up, and went and returned to his place: and Balak also went his way.

CHAPTER 25

BAAL

1 And Israel abode in Shittim, and the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab (Balaam could not get the Lord to curse Israel, so he concocted another scheme; through this counsel, Israel would be seduced [31:16]).

2 And they called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods (and Israel was invited, under the guise of peace): and the people did eat, and bowed down to their gods.

3 And Israel joined himself unto Baal-peor (seduced by the daughters of Moab): and the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel (while nothing could cause the Lord to be angry at Israel as His People, He definitely was angered at their sin, as He is all sin).

JUDGMENT

4 And the LORD said unto Moses, Take all the heads of the people, and hang them up before the LORD against the sun (in other words, execute those who are guilty), that the fierce anger of the LORD may be turned away from Israel (if they continued on this course, the entirety of the nation could be destroyed).

5 And Moses said unto the judges of Israel (the first place where judges are mentioned by this name), Slay y ou everyone his men who were joined unto Baal-peor (the worship of this heathen god entailed every type of sexual immorality, which was used to seduce Israel).

6 And, behold, one of the Children of Israel came and brought unto his brethren a Midianitish woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the Children of Israel (flaunting their wickedness before all), who were weeping before the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation (realizing the depths of this depravity, and the judgment that it would bring upon Israel, a great foreboding filled the hearts of many, and rightly so!).

[7] And when Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the Priest, saw it, he rose up from among the congregation, and took a javelin in his hand (he seems to have been the only son of Eleazar, then the High Priest, and his natural successor in the office of High Priest).

[8] And he went after the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her belly. So the plague was stayed from the Children of Israel. (God cannot abide sin in any form. If Christ is accepted, judgment is stopped, because He has borne the judgment for all, at least all who will accept Him. If Christ is rejected, then ultimately judgment must come upon the sinner. There is no alternative.)

[9] And those who died in the plague were twenty and four thousand. (In I Corinthians 10:8, Paul said "twenty-three thousand." There is no contradiction. The ones addressed by Paul took place in one day. Evidently, a thousand died the following day.)

THE PRIESTHOOD

[10] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[11] Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the Priest, has turned My Wrath away from the Children of Israel, while he was zealous for My sake among them, that I consumed not the Children of Israel in My jealousy. (We are to be as zealous today against sin as was Phinehas so long ago; however, the type of zealousness presently commanded is that the Believer be determined to rid himself of all sin, which can only be done by making the Cross of Christ the Object of one's Faith, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to perform the Work, Who Alone can do such [Rom.

8:1-2, 11].)

12 Wherefore say, Behold, I give unto him My Covenant of peace:

13 And he shall have it, and his seed after him, even the Covenant of an everlasting Priesthood; because he was zealous for his God, and made an Atonement for the Children of Israel. (Phinehas, by his act, became a Type of Christ, Who would defeat Satan at the Cross. The "Everlasting Priesthood" belongs to Christ, and will belong to Him forever [Heb. 7:21-24].)

14 Now the name of the Israelite who was slain, even who was slain with the Midianitish woman, was Zimri, the son of Salu, a Prince of a chief house among the Simeonites.

15 And the name of the Midianitish woman who was slain was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur; he was head over a people, and of a chief house in Midian.

WILES OF SATAN

16 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

17 Vex the Midianites, and smite them:

18 For they vex you with their wiles, wherewith they have beguiled you in the matter of Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of a Prince of Midian, their sister, which was slain in the day of the plague for Peor's sake. (All of this tells us that the women of Midian were employed by their rulers, on the advice of Balaam, in a deliberate plot to entangle the Israelites in heathen rites and heathen sins, which would alienate them from the favor of God. While the Lord would greatly punish Israel for her sin, as stated here, He also took vengeance on those who enticed them into that sin. Some seven years later, Balaam was also killed by the Children of Israel [Josh. 13:22]. Due to his rebellion against God, he did not die the death of the righteous. His love of money closed that door, and did so forever.)

CHAPTER 26

(1452 B.C.)

NUMBERING ISRAEL

[1] And it came to pass after the plague, that the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the Priest, saying,

[2] Take the sum of all the congregation of the Children of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, throughout their fathers' house, all who are able to go to war in Israel. (Concerning this, Williams says, "Their pilgrimage ended. Israel was now about to enter the Promised Land. The remaining Chapters of this Book are occupied, therefore, with matters proper to that great event: and accordingly in this Chapter God numbers afresh His People, and counts them by name as heirs ready to take possession of the inheritance.")

[3] And Moses and Eleazar the Priest (High Priest) spoke with them in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho, saying,

[4] Take the sum of the people, from twenty years old and upward; as the LORD commanded Moses and the Children of Israel, which went forth out of the land of Egypt. (Concerning the last census that Moses took, nearly forty years earlier at Sinai, concerning those who were twenty years old and older, not a single one of those individuals were left, with the exception of Caleb and Joshua. The Holy Spirit in Hebrews, Chpts. 3-4, states that these perished because the Word preached did not profit them, because they had no faith.

Victorious Christian living results from believing the Word of God, and acting upon it. Merely listening to the Gospel avails precious little. Power to realize Salvation, to overcome sin, and to grow in Grace comes as the Word of God is grasped by Faith. Faith alone takes possession of all that God offers.)

TRIBE OF REUBEN: 43,730

5 Reuben, the oldest son of Israel (Jacob): the Children of Reuben; Hanoch, of whom comes the family of the Hanochites: of Pallu, the family of the Palluites:

6 Of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites: of Carmi, the family of the Carmites.

7 These are the families of the Reubenites: and they who were numbered of them were forty and three thousand and seven hundred and thirty. (Reuben, as predicted in Genesis 49:4, shows a decrease of 2,730. This is one of the many undesigned evidences in the Bible of inspiration.)

8 And the sons of Pallu; Eliab.

9 And the sons of Eliab; Nemuel, and Dathan, and Abiram. This is that Dathan and Abiram, which were famous in the congregation, who strove against Moses and against Aaron in the company of Korah, when they strove against the LORD (even though they were "famous" among the people, they were not famous at all with the Lord; in fact, they tried to usurp authority over the Lord, and lost their souls in the process):

10 And the Earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up together with Korah, when that company died, what time the fire devoured two hundred and fifty men: and they became a sign.

11 Notwithstanding the Children of Korah died not. (In fact, the descendants of Korah were prominent in Solomon's Temple. Samuel and Heman were of them; as well, two groups of Psalms are associated with them: 42 through 49 and 84 through 88.)

30 These are the sons of Gilead: of Jeezer, the family of the Jeezerites: of Helek, the family of the Helekites:

31 And of Asriel, the family of the Asrielites: and of Shechem, the family of the Shechemites:

32 And of Shemida, the family of the Shemidaites: and of Hepher, the family of the Hepherites.

33 And Zelophehad the son of Hepher had no sons, but daughters: and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

34 These are the families of Manasseh, and those who were numbered of them, fifty and two thousand and seven hundred.

TRIBE OF EPHRAIM: 32,500

43 All the families of the Shuhamites, according to those who were numbered of them, were threescore and four thousand and four hundred.

TRIBE OF ASHER: 53,400

49 Of Jezer, the family of the Jezerites: of Shillem, the family of the Shillemites.

50 These are the families of Naphtali according to their families: and they who were numbered of them were forty and five thousand and four hundred.

GRAND TOTAL: 601,730

51 These were the numbered of the Children of Israel, six hundred thousand and a thousand seven hundred and thirty.

DIVISION OF THE LAND

52 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

53 Unto these the land shall be divided for an inheritance according to the number of names.

54 To many you shall give the more inheritance, and to few you shall give the less inheritance: to everyone shall his inheritance be given according to those who were numbered of him (in other words, the larger portions will be given to the larger Tribes, and the smaller portions to the smaller Tribes).

55 Notwithstanding the land shall be divided by lot (according to the Urim and the Thummim; these items were carried in the Breastplate of the High Priest; so this means that the Holy Spirit would actually be the One Who would divide up the land among the Tribes): according to the names of the Tribes of their fathers they shall inherit.

56 According to the lot shall the possession thereof be divided between many and few.

LEVITES NUMBERED: 23,000

57 And these are they who were numbered of the Levites after their families: of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites: of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites: of Merari, the family of the Merarites.

58 These are the families of the Levites: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, the family of the Korathites. And Kohath begat Amram.

59 And the name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, whom her mother bore to Levi in Egypt: and she bore unto Amram Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister.

60 And unto Aaron was born Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

61 And Nadab, and Abihu died, when they offered strange fire before the LORD.

62 And those who were numbered of them were twenty and three thousand, all males from a month old and upward: for they were not numbered among the Children of Israel, because there was no inheritance given them among the Children of Israel.

A NEW GENERATION

63 These are they who were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the Priest, who numbered the Children of Israel in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho.

64 But among these there was not a man of them whom Moses and Aaron the Priest numbered, when they numbered the Children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.

65 For the LORD had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness. And there was not left a man of them, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun. (Thirty-eight years were wasted, plus an entire generation of people, simply because of unbelief.)

CHAPTER 27

(1452 B.C.)

THE LAW OF INHERITANCE

1 Then came the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph: and these are the names of his daughters; Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah.

2 And they stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the Priest, and before the Princes and all the congregation, by the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation, saying,

3 Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not in the company of them who gathered themselves together against the LORD in the company of Korah; but died in his own sin, and had no sons.

4 Why should the name of our father be done away from among his family, because he has no son? Give unto us therefore a possession among the brethren of our father.

5 And Moses brought their cause before the LORD. (The faith of the daughters of Zelophehad presents a striking contrast to the unbelief of those who fell in the desert. While yet in the Wilderness, they claim by faith the unseen fields of Canaan; and, further, their faith leaped a barrier which both nature and Law set before them.

This was precious and refreshing to the heart of God; and, accordingly, special legislation was given to meet their faith — Williams.)

THE VICTORY OF FAITH

6 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

7 The daughters of Zelophehad speak right: you shall surely give them a possession of an inheritance among their father's brethren; and you shall cause the inheritance of their father to pass unto them.

8 And you shall speak unto the Children of Israel, saying, If a man die, and have no son, then you shall cause his inheritance to pass unto his daughter.

9 And if he have no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance unto his brethren.

10 And if he have no brethren, then you shall give his inheritance unto his father's brethren.

11 And if his father have no brethren, then you shall give his inheritance unto his kinsman who is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it: and it shall be unto the Children of Israel a Statute of judgment, as the LORD commanded Moses (a Statute determining a legal right).

MOSES AND JOSHUA

12 And the LORD said unto Moses, Get thee up into this mount Abarim, and see the land which I have given unto the Children of Israel. (Moses had already been told that he should not enter the Promised Land [20:12], yet he is allowed the consolation of seeing it with his eyes before his death. It would seem from Deut. 3:25-27 that this favor was accorded him in answer to his prayer — Pulpit.)

13 And when you have seen it, you also shall be gathered unto your people, as Aaron your brother was gathered.

14 For you rebelled against My Commandment in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, to sanctify Me at the water before their eyes: that is the water of Meribah in Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.

15 And Moses spoke unto the LORD, saying,

16 Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the congregation,

17 Which may go out before them, and which may go in before them, and which may lead them out, and which may bring them in; that the congregation of the LORD be not as sheep which have no shepherd. (The Expositors say, "For himself not even a word of complaint at his punishment, which must have seemed, thus close at hand, more inexplicably severe than ever; all his thoughts and his prayers for the people — that one might take his place, and reap for himself and Israel the reward of all his toil and patience.")

18 And the LORD said unto Moses, Take thee Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand upon him (it seems that the hand of Moses was laid upon him in view of all of Israel, at least of its representatives; but let it be noted that the Lord chose Joshua, and not Moses; as well, the Lord had told Moses long before that Joshua would take his place, and Moses, no doubt, did his best to prepare him)**;

19 And set him before Eleazar the Priest, and before all the congregation; and give him a charge in their sight (give him instructions regarding his duties)**.

20 And you shall put some of your honour upon him, that all the congregation of the Children of Israel may be obedient (the blessing of Moses would go a long way toward Joshua being accepted by the people of Israel)**.

21 And he shall stand before Eleazar the Priest, who shall ask counsel for him after the judgment of Urim before the LORD (this is the Urim and Thummim of Exodus 28:30 and Leviticus 8:8; what they actually were, and how they were actually used in consulting God, it is not told us in Scripture; it does not appear that Moses ever sought the judgment of the Urim, for he possessed more direct means of ascertaining the direct Will of God; nor does it seem ever to have been resorted to after the time of David, for the "more sure Word of Prophecy" seemed to have superseded it): at his word (the word of Joshua) shall they go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he, and all the Children of Israel with him, even all the congregation.

22 And Moses did as the LORD commanded him: and he took Joshua, and set him before Eleazar the Priest, and before all the congregation:

23 And he laid his hands upon him, and gave him a charge, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

CHAPTER 28

(1452 B.C.)

THE DAILY OFFERINGS

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Command the Children of Israel, and say unto them, My Offering, and My Bread for My Sacrifices made by fire, for a sweet savour unto Me, shall you observe to offer unto Me in their due season. (All of this, in some way, represented Christ, in either His Atoning, Mediatorial, or Intercessory Work. When He came, and went to the Cross, it was all fulfilled, for Christ is the end of the Law [Rom. 10:4].)

[3] And you shall say unto them, This is the Offering made by fire which you shall offer unto the LORD; two lambs of the first year without spot day-by-day, for a continual Burnt Offering.

[4] The one lamb you shall offer in the morning (9 a.m.), and the other lamb shall you offer at evening (3 p.m.)**;

[5] And a tenth part of an ephah of flour for a Meat Offering (a Thanksgiving Offering), mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil (oil derived from olives being crushed typified the Holy Spirit, Who was within and upon Christ).

[6] It is a continual Burnt Offering, which was ordained in Mount Sinai for a sweet savour, a Sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

[7] And the Drink Offering (symbolic of the Life of Christ poured out) thereof shall be the fourth part of an hin for the one lamb: in the Holy Place shall you cause the strong wine to be poured unto the LORD for a Drink Offering.

8 And the other lamb shall you offer at evening: as the Meat Offering of the morning, and as the Drink Offering thereof, you shall offer it, a Sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD (sweet to the Lord, simply because it represented Christ, Who was to come, and Who would redeem fallen humanity).

WEEKLY SACRIFICES

9 And on the Sabbath day two lambs of the first year without spot, and two tenth deals of flour for a Meat Offering, mingled with oil, and the Drink Offering thereof (on the Sabbath, the Sacrifices were to be doubled regarding the lambs, two in the morning, and two in the evening):

10 This is the Burnt Offering of every Sabbath, beside the continual Burnt Offering, and his Drink Offering.

MONTHLY SACRIFICES

11 And in the beginnings of your months you shall offer a Burnt Offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, seven lambs of the first year without spot (these were to be offered on the first day of each month, which would be the time of the full moon);

12 And three tenth deals of flour for a Meat Offering, mingled with oil, for one bullock; and two tenth deals of flour for a Meat Offering, mingled with oil, for one ram;

13 And a several tenth deal of flour mingled with oil for a Meat Offering unto one lamb; for a Burnt Offering of a sweet savour, a Sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

14 And their Drink Offerings shall be half an hin of wine unto a bullock, and the third part of an hin unto a ram, and a fourth part of an hin unto a lamb: this is the Burnt Offering of every month throughout the months of the year.

15 And one kid of the goats for a Sin Offering unto the LORD shall be offered, beside the continual Burnt Offering, and his Drink Offering. (The doctrine of these Offerings and those of Leviticus is the same, i.e., life and righteousness through an atoning Saviour: and that doctrine was as fresh and as precious to Moses at the close as at the beginning of his Ministry.

The Sacrifices in Leviticus mainly provided for the life of the Wilderness; these in Numbers for that of the Promised Land.

The Levitical Sacrifices rather set out, in type, the results of Christ's Atonement and the blessing of sinners; the Offerings of these two Chapters direct attention to the glory and perfection of Him Who accomplished the Atonement.

But, it will be noted throughout these Chapters that no matter what the day or feast, when in Canaan, the Sin Offering was never to be omitted; for no spiritual attainment negates the need of the Atoning Death of Christ. — Williams.)

THE PASSOVER

16 And in the fourteenth day of the first month is the Passover of the LORD (this was conducted once a year, even as all the Feasts; the "first month" corresponded with our April; it was a Type of the Death of Christ on the Cross).

UNLEAVENED BREAD

17 And in the fifteenth day of this month is the feast: seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten (this Feast began a day after the Passover; it pictured the Perfect life of Christ).

18 In the first day shall be an holy convocation; you shall do no manner of servile work therein (Salvation is by faith, and not of works [Eph. 2:8-9]; ironically enough, the Law was made up entirely of works; however, it pointed toward the One Who was to come, Who would do away with all works, because of His great Work at the Cross of Calvary):

[19] But you shall offer a Sacrifice made by fire for a Burnt Offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, and seven lambs of the first year: they shall be unto you without blemish (the Offerings are outlined here as to what will be done when they came into the Promised Land; thus, the great lesson is taught that Salvation from Egypt, maintenance in the Desert, and rest in the Promised Land are all based upon the Precious Blood of Christ):

[20] And their Meat Offering (Thanksgiving Offering) shall be of flour (typifying the Perfect Life of Christ) mingled with oil (typifying the Holy Spirit upon and within Christ [Lk. 4:18-19]): three tenth deals shall you offer for a bullock, and two tenth deals for a ram (the Thanksgiving Offering was to be presented along with the Burnt Offering; in one way or the other, all typified Christ in His Mediatorial, Intercessory, and Atoning Work);

[21] A several tenth deal shall you offer for every lamb (Thanksgiving Offering), throughout the seven lambs:

[22] And one goat for a Sin Offering, to make an Atonement for you. (As we have stated, it must be noted that no matter what the day or the Feast, when in Canaan, the Sin Offering was never to be omitted; for no spiritual work can be accomplished without there first being the atoning Death of Christ, as typified by the Sin Offering. This means that presently we are to understand that our Salvation, and our victorious daily living, are predicated solely on the Cross of Christ. The moment we cease to make the Cross of Christ the total object of our faith, at that moment, we are in the flesh, and cannot please God [Rom. 8:8].)

[23] You shall offer these beside the Burnt Offering in the morning, which is for a continual Burnt Offering (the Burnt Offering typified Christ giving His all, for this was the only Offering which was wholly burned on the Altar; it proclaimed the Perfection of Christ, the "all" of Christ, given to the believing sinner).

24 After this manner you shall offer daily, throughout the seven days (of Unleavened Bread), the meat of the sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD: it shall be offered beside the continual Burnt Offering, and his Drink Offering (this was the Offering made of flour and oil, in other words, a cereal or bread Offering, which was the Thanksgiving Offering, but referred to as the "Meat Offering").

25 And on the seventh day you shall have an holy convocation; you shall do no servile work (regarding the people, no work was to be done on the first and seventh day of Unleavened Bread, which immediately followed the Passover; as stated, this portrayed the fact that Salvation is entirely of Grace through Faith, and not of Works [Eph. 2:8-9]).

FEAST OF PENTECOST

26 Also in the day of the firstfruits, when you bring a new Meat Offering unto the LORD, after your weeks be out (seven weeks after the Passover), you shall have an holy convocation; you shall do no servile work (this is the Feast of Pentecost, held the last of May; it typified Christ as the Baptizer with the Holy Spirit [Mat. 3:11]):

27 But you shall offer the Burnt Offering for a sweet savour unto the LORD; two young bullocks, one ram, seven lambs of the first year;

28 And their Meat Offering of flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals unto one bullock, two tenth deals unto one ram,

29 A several tenth deal unto one lamb, throughout the seven lambs;

30 And one kid of the goats, to make an atonement for you (a Sin Offering).

31 You shall offer them beside the continual Burnt Offering, and his Meat Offering, (they shall be unto you without blemish) and their Drink Offerings (the last Offering typified the Life of Christ poured out on the Cross of Christ).

CHAPTER 29

(1452 B.C.)

FEAST OF TRUMPETS

[1] And in the seventh month, on the first day of the month (our October), you shall have an holy convocation; you shall do no servile work: it is a day of blowing the trumpets unto you (proclaims Christ as the First Resurrection of Life, i.e., "the Rapture of the Church" [I Thess. 4:13-18]).

[2] And you shall offer a Burnt Offering for a sweet savour unto the LORD; one young bullock, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year without blemish:

[3] And their Meat Offering shall be of flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals for a bullock, and two tenth deals for a ram,

[4] And one tenth deal for one lamb, throughout the seven lambs:

[5] And one kid of the goats for a Sin Offering, to make an Atonement for you (thus, day-by-day, week-by-week, month-by-month, and year-by-year, there was to be a national and unbroken testimony to the Preciousness of Christ as God's Beloved Son, in Whom His Soul delighted; and a confession that their possession of that land, and its milk and honey, was wholly due to the Preciousness of the Blood shed by that Saviour for the remission of their sins):

[6] Beside the Burnt Offering of the month, and his Meat Offering, and the daily Burnt Offering, and his Meat Offering, and their Drink Offerings, according unto their manner, for a sweet savour, a Sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

GREAT DAY OF ATONEMENT

7 And you shall have on the tenth day of this seventh month an holy convocation; and you shall afflict your souls: you shall not do any work therein (this is the Great Day of Atonement, when the High Priest went into the Holy of Holies, offering up blood on the Mercy Seat, the only day of the year he, and he alone, could enter the Holiest; on this day, the entirety of Israel was to fast, actually the only fast day of the year; they were to do no work, signifying Salvation by Grace):

8 But you shall offer a Burnt Offering unto the LORD for a sweet savour; one young bullock, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year; they shall be unto you without blemish (typifying the Perfection of Christ):

9 And their Meat Offering shall be of flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals to a bullock, and two tenth deals to one ram,

10 A several tenth deal for one lamb, throughout the seven lambs:

11 One kid of the goats for a Sin Offering (the Sin Offering is never absent); beside the Sin Offering of Atonement, and the continual Burnt Offering, and the Meat Offering of it, and their Drink Offerings.

FEAST OF TABERNACLES

12 And on the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have an holy convocation; you shall do no servile work, and you shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days (the entirety of this time, which incorporated the three Feasts of Trumpets, Atonement, and Tabernacles, lasted approximately 22 days; a representative man from every family was required to attend):

13 And you shall offer a Burnt Offering, a Sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD; thirteen young bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year; they shall be without blemish:

14 And their Meat Offering shall be of flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals unto every bullock of the thirteen bullocks, two tenth deals to each ram of the two rams,

15 And a several tenth deal to each lamb of the fourteen lambs:

16 And one kid of the goats for a Sin Offering; beside the continual Burnt Offering, his Meat Offering, and his Drink Offering.

17 And on the second day you shall offer twelve young bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without spot:

18 And their Meat Offering and their Drink Offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

19 And one kid of the goats for a Sin Offering; beside the continual Burnt Offering, and the Meat Offering thereof, and their Drink Offerings.

20 And on the third day eleven bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish;

21 And their Meat Offering and their Drink Offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

22 And one goat for a Sin Offering; beside the continual Burnt Offering, and his Meat Offering, and his Drink Offering.

23 And on the fourth day ten bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

24 Their Meat Offering and their Drink Offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

25 And one kid of the goats for a Sin Offering; beside the continual Burnt Offering, his Meat Offering, and his Drink Offering.

26 And on the fifth day nine bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without spot:

27 And their Meat Offering and their Drink Offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

28 And one goat for a Sin Offering; beside the continual Burnt Offering, and his Meat Offering, and his Drink Offering.

29 And on the sixth day eight bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

30 And their Meat Offering and their Drink Offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

31 And one goat for a Sin Offering; beside the continual Burnt Offering, his Meat Offering, and his Drink Offering.

32 And on the seventh day seven bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

33 And their Meat Offering and their Drink Offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

34 And one goat for a Sin Offering; beside the continual Burnt Offering, his Meat Offering, and his Drink Offering.

35 On the eighth day you shall have a solemn assembly: you shall do no servile work therein:

36 But you shall offer a Burnt Offering, a Sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD: one bullock, one ram, seven lambs of the first year without blemish:

37 Their Meat Offering and their Drink Offerings for the bullock, for the ram, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

38 And one goat for a Sin Offering; beside the continual Burnt Offering, and his Meat Offering, and his Drink Offering.

39 These things you shall do unto the LORD in your set feasts, beside your vows, and your freewill offerings, for your Burnt Offering, and for your Meat Offerings, and for your Drink Offerings, and for your Peace Offerings.

40 And Moses told the Children of Israel according to all that the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 30

(1452 B.C.)

VOWS

[1] And Moses spoke unto the heads of the Tribes concerning the Children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD has commanded.

[2] If a man vow a vow unto the LORD, or swear an oath to bind his soul with a bond; he shall not break his word, he shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth (in that these were God's people, their word was to be as the Word of the Lord; hence, when the Man Christ Jesus said, "I will pay my vows unto Jehovah," and "I delight to do Your Will, O My God," there was no release for Him; the bitter cup of Gethsemane had to be drained [Ps. 116:14; 40:8]).

SINGLE WOMEN

[3] If a woman also vow a vow unto the LORD, and bind herself by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth;

[4] And her father hear her vow, and her bond wherewith she has bound her soul, and her father shall hold his peace at her; then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she has bound her soul shall stand.

[5] But if her father disallow her in the day that he hears; not any of her vows, or of her bonds wherewith she has bound her soul, shall stand: and the LORD shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her. (If the vow had been made before witnesses, no doubt the father's veto must be pronounced before witnesses also, that is, if he desired to do such, which he had the right to do under the Law.)

MARRIED WOMEN

6 And if she had at all an husband, when she vowed, or uttered ought out of her lips, wherewith she bound her soul;

7 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her in the day that he heard it: then her vows shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

8 But if her husband disallowed her on the day that he heard it; then he shall make her vow which she vowed, and that which she uttered with her lips, wherewith she bound her soul, of none effect: and the LORD shall forgive her (as far as the legal status of the woman was concerned, there was little difference under Jewish Law whether she was married or only betrothed; in either case, she was accounted as belonging to her husband, with all that she had [Deut. 22:23-24; Mat. 1:19-20]).

WIDOWS AND DIVORCEES

9 But every vow of a widow, and of her who is divorced, wherewith they have bound their souls, shall stand against her.

10 And if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath;

11 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her, and disallowed her not: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

12 But if her husband has utterly made them void on the day he heard them (meaning that vows must be spoken audibly, meaning that mental vows were not recognized); then whatsoever proceeds out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand: her husband has made them void; and the LORD shall forgive her.

13 Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void.

14 But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her from day to day; then he establishes all her vows, or all her bonds, which are upon her: he confirms them, because he held his peace at her in the day that he heard them (did not disallow the vows).

15 But if he shall any ways make them void after that he has heard them; then he shall bear her iniquity. (Williams says, "There was release for a woman, but she could not effect it herself; only one who was related to her, and who loved her, could do so. Such was Israel. She vowed at Sinai to perform all that Jehovah commanded. Her Divine Bridegroom and Husband permitted the vow; but she, having failed to keep it, came, therefore, under the sentence of death. To redeem her from this doom, her Husband, in grace, took it upon Himself, and so delivered her from her vow. She could not deliver herself.")

16 These are the Statutes, which the LORD commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between the father and his daughter, being yet in her youth in her father's house. (One may wonder why vows were so important and, thereby, such space in the Bible given to them? As stated, the word of all Believers, whether Israel of old, or Believers presently, is to be as the Word of the Lord. Jesus said, "Let your communication be, Yes, yes; No, no: for whatsoever is more than these comes of evil" [Mat. 5:37].)

CHAPTER 31

(1452 B.C.)

MIDIANITES

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Avenge the Children of Israel of the Midianites: afterward shall you be gathered unto your people. (In effect, the Lord is telling Moses here that his work on Earth was not done so long as the Midianites remained unpunished. The sin of Chapter 25 occasioned this war. Christians make wars for themselves by forming fellowships with the world. The warfare to which we are actually called to accomplish is that of Ephesians 6, and our wisdom and our obedience is to pass through this world as strangers and pilgrims, having no relations whatsoever, except those of Gospel testimony and natural sympathy, with those whom we must necessarily meet as we journey.

However, if, because of that forbidden union, war results, God gives a complete victory; provided that which did the seducing be utterly destroyed — Williams.)

[3] And Moses spoke unto the people, saying, Arm some of yourselves unto the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and avenge the LORD of Midian. (In seducing the people of the Lord, the Midianites had insulted and injured the majesty of God Himself.)

[4] Of every Tribe a thousand, throughout all the Tribes of Israel, shall you send to the war (the Lord selected the number).

[5] So there were delivered out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every Tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.

[6] And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of every Tribe, them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest, to the war, with the holy instruments, and the trumpets to blow in his hand. (If it is to be noted, Joshua, who normally would have been sent to fight this battle, has, in his place, Phinehas, the son of the High Priest, Eleazar. This tells us that this was a war that Israel would not have had to wage if she had not forsaken the road of obedience to the Word of God, as outlined in Chapter 25.)

7 And they warred against the Midianites, as the LORD commanded Moses; and they killed all the males.

8 And they killed the kings of Midian, beside the rest of them who were slain: namely, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian: Balaam also the son of Beor they slew with the sword. (Balaam did not die the death of the righteous, but perished fighting against the People of God. Money was his downfall.)

9 And the Children of Israel took all the women of Midian captives, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods.

10 And they burnt all their cities wherein they dwelt, and all their goodly castles, with fire.

11 And they took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of men and of beasts.

12 And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, unto Moses, and Eleazar the Priest, and unto the congregation of the Children of Israel, unto the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by Jordan near Jericho.

13 And Moses, and Eleazar the Priest, and all the Princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them without the camp.

14 And Moses was angry with the officers of the host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the battle.

15 And Moses said unto them, Have you saved all the women alive? (Evidently, orders had been given by Moses that all were to be killed, men, women, and children. Many may object to this, thinking it exceedingly cruel; however, it must be remembered that it is God Who gave these instructions, and not Moses. This tells us two things: 1. Those who oppress God's People will ultimately be destroyed. But we must always remember that vengeance belongs to the Lord, and not man. In other words, we are to let the Lord do the doing [Rom. 12:19]; and, 2. As well, these people had become so depraved that their continued existence could have greatly hindered civilization. The Lord giving such instructions was the same as a cancer being removed from a patient in order that the patient might live.)

16 Behold, these caused the Children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the LORD (back when that sin was committed some months before).

17 Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known man by lying with him.

18 But all the women children, who have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves (not for immoral purposes, as some have claimed, but for domestic service; in fact, upon reaching the age of accountability, she could become a member of the Family of Israel, and claim her freedom, after one to seven years, if she so desired).

19 And you must abide without the camp seven days: whosoever has killed any person, and whosoever has touched any slain, purify both yourselves and your captives on the third day, and on the seventh day (death has always been the ultimate result of original sin).

20 And purify all your raiment, and all that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood.

21 And Eleazar the Priest said unto the men of war which went to the battle, This is the Ordinance of the Law which the LORD commanded Moses;

22 Only the gold, and the silver, the brass (copper), the iron, the tin, and the lead.

23 Every thing that may abide the fire, you shall make it go through the fire, and it shall be clean (clothing, of course, would be burned in the fire, and so could not be kept): nevertheless it shall be purified with the water of separation (from the red heifer, Chapter 19): and all who abide not the fire you shall make go through the water (the soldiers themselves, having killed or having touched the dead, must go through a purification process, which pertained to the "water of separation").

24 And you shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you shall be clean, and afterward you shall come into the camp (speaking to the soldiers who had participated in this conflict).

DIVIDING THE SPOILS

25 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

26 Take the sum of the prey that was taken, both of man and of beast, you, and Eleazar the Priest, and the chief fathers of the congregation:

27 And divide the prey into two parts; between them who took the war upon them, who went out to battle, and between all the congregation:

28 And levy a tribute unto the LORD of the men of war which went out to battle: one soul of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the beeves, and of the asses, and of the sheep:

29 Take it of their half, and give it unto Eleazar the Priest, for an Heave Offering of the LORD (part was to be given to the Priests).

30 And of the Children of Israel's half, you shall take one portion of fifty, of the persons, of the beeves, of the asses, and of the flocks, of all manner of beasts, and give them unto the Levites, which keep the charge of the Tabernacle of the LORD. (As the soldiers were to give a tithe, so to speak, to the Priests, they were, as well, to give a tithe unto the Levites, although the amounts were different.)

31 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

32 And the booty, being the rest of the prey which the men of war had caught, was six hundred thousand and seventy thousand and five thousand sheep (675,000).

33 And threescore and twelve thousand beeves (72,000 cattle),

34 And threescore and one thousand asses (61,000),

35 And thirty and two thousand persons in all, of women who had not known man by lying with him.

36 And the half, which was the portion of them who went out to war, was in number three hundred thousand and seven and thirty thousand and five hundred sheep (337,500):

37 And the LORD's tribute of the sheep was six hundred and threescore and fifteen (675).

38 And the beeves were thirty and six thousand; of which the LORD's tribute was threescore and twelve (72).

39 And the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred; of which the LORD's tribute was threescore and one (61).

40 And the persons were sixteen thousand; of which the LORD's tribute was thirty and two persons.

41 And Moses gave the tribute, which was the LORD's Heave Offering, unto Eleazar the Priest, as the LORD commanded Moses.

42 And of the Children of Israel's half, which Moses divided from the men who warred, 43 (Now the half that pertained unto the congregation was three hundred thousand and thirty thousand and seven thousand and five hundred sheep,

44 And thirty and six thousand beeves,

45 And thirty thousand asses and five hundred,

46 And sixteen thousand persons:)

47 Even of the Children of Israel's half, Moses took one portion of fifty, both of man and of beast, and gave them unto the Levites, which kept the charge of the Tabernacle of the LORD; as the Lord commanded Moses (thus the Priests and the Levites were maintained as well).

48 And the officers which were over thousands of the host, the captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, came near unto Moses:

49 And they said unto Moses, Your servants have taken the sum of the men of war which are under our charge, and there lacks not one man of us. (Williams says, "Through this great conflict the twelve thousand came through without the loss of one man, and through the greater conflict of Rev., Chpts. 7 through 14, the 144,000 [12,000 times 12] will also triumphantly come, and stand, not one missing, with the Lamb upon Mount Zion.")

50 We have therefore brought an oblation for the LORD, what every man has gotten, of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and tablets, to make an atonement for our souls before the LORD (it seems they kept nothing of these precious metals, etc.).

51 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest took the gold of them, even all wrought jewels.

52 And all the gold of the Offering that they offered up to the LORD, of the captains of thousands, and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels (worth approximately $1.5 million in 2004 currency).

53 (For the men of war had taken spoil, every man for himself.)

54 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the Tabernacle of the congregation, for a memorial for the Children of Israel before the LORD.

CHAPTER 32

(1452 B.C.)

REUBEN AND GAD

[1] Now the Children of Reuben and the Children of Gad had a very great multitude of cattle: and when they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gilead, that, behold, the place was a place for cattle;

[2] The Children of Gad and the Children of Reuben came and spoke unto Moses, and to Eleazar the Priest, and unto the Princes of the congregation, saying,

[3] Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nebo, and Beon,

[4] Even the country which the LORD smote before the congregation of Israel, is a land for cattle, and your servants have cattle:

[5] Wherefore, said they, if we have found grace in your sight, let this land be given unto your servants for a possession, and bring us not over Jordan. (God's Plan for Israel was, first, to conquer Canaan, and second, the vast region between the Jordan and the Euphrates. Reuben and his allies elected to reverse this; the result was present suffering and future loss. Self-will always, and without exception, leads to loss.)

[6] And Moses said unto the Children of Gad and to the Children of Reuben, Shall your brethren go to war, and shall you sit here?

[7] And wherefore discourage you the heart of the Children of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD has given them? (There is always a tendency in the heart to find a resting place in the blessings on the Wilderness side of Jordan rather than to desire eagerly the richer inheritance beyond Jordan. If the Believer would enjoy the highest possible life, there must be a passing out of the Wilderness of a stunted Christian life into the Canaan of a life of joy and of power in the Holy Spirit. In other words, the Believer must cease all self-will, thereby placing our Faith exclusively in Christ and His Cross, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work within our lives, and thereby to bring about the desired results, which He Alone can do [Rom. 8:1-2, 11].)

[8] Thus did your fathers, when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land.

[9] For when they went up unto the valley of Eshcol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the Children of Israel, that they should not go into the land which the LORD had given them.

[10] And the LORD's anger was kindled the same time, and He swore, saying,

[11] Surely none of the men who came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swore unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob; because they have not wholly followed me:

[12] Save Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite, and Joshua the son of Nun: for they have wholly followed the LORD (the Lord never forgets unbelief on the part of His People, and neither does He ever forget Faith).

[13] And the LORD's anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation, who had done evil in the sight of the LORD, was consumed (unbelief can never inherit the land [Heb. 3:11; 4:6]).

[14] And, behold, you are risen up in your father's stead, an increase of sinful men, to augment yet the fierce anger of the LORD toward Israel (in other words, Moses told Israel that they were little better than their fathers, if at all).

[15] For if you turn away from after Him, He will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and you shall destroy all this people (to leave the Perfect

Will of God, even to the slightest degree, always has its negative results).

COMPROMISE

16 And they came near unto him, and said, We will build sheepfolds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones:

17 But we ourselves will go ready armed before the Children of Israel, until we have brought them unto their place: and our little ones shall dwell in the fenced cities because of the inhabitants of the land.

18 We will not return unto our houses, until the Children of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance. (This meant that they were to immediately bid farewell to their wives and children and march away to a seven-year war, in which many of them would probably lose their lives. If we plan for ourselves, there is always trouble; if the Lord plans for us, everything falls into place, a good place.)

19 For we will not inherit with them on yonder side Jordan, or forward; because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side Jordan eastward (in a spiritual sense, the Promised Land side of Jordan symbolizes a death to self).

20 And Moses said unto them, If you will do this thing, if you will go armed before the LORD to war (it doesn't seem as though Moses sought the Lord about this decision, which, if correct, is always a mistake)**,

21 And will go all of you armed over Jordan before the LORD, until He has driven out His enemies from before Him,

22 And the land be subdued before the LORD: then afterward you shall return, and be guiltless before the LORD, and before Israel; and this land shall be your possession before the LORD.

23 But if you will not do so, behold, you have sinned against the LORD: and be sure your sin will find you out (in essence, they had made a vow).

24 Build you cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and do that which has proceeded out of your mouth.

25 And the Children of Gad and the Children of Reuben spoke unto Moses, saying, Your servants will do as my lord commands.

26 Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our cattle, shall be there in the cities of Gilead:

27 But your servants will pass over, every man armed for war, before the LORD to battle, as my lord says.

28 So concerning them Moses commanded Eleazar the Priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the Tribes of the Children of Israel:

29 And Moses said unto them, If the Children of Gad and the Children of Reuben will pass with you over Jordan, every man armed to battle, before the LORD, and the land shall be subdued before you; then you shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession:

30 But if they will not pass over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.

31 And the Children of Gad and the Children of Reuben answered, saying, As the LORD has said unto your servants, so will we do.

32 We will pass over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, that the possession of our inheritance on this side Jordan may be ours.

33 And Moses gave unto them, even to the Children of Gad, and to the Children of Reuben, and unto half the Tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land, with the cities thereof in the coasts, even the cities of the country round about.

34 And the Children of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer,

35 And Atroth, Shophan, and Jaazer, and Jogbehah,

36 And Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran, fenced cities: and folds for sheep.

37 And the Children of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kirjathaim, 38 And Nebo, and Baal-meon, (their names being changed,) and Shibmah: and gave other names unto the cities which they built.

MANASSEH

39 And the Children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead, and took it, and dispossessed the Amorite which was in it.

40 And Moses gave Gilead unto Machir the son of Manasseh; and he dwelt therein.

41 And Jair the son of Manasseh went and took the small towns thereof, and called them Havoth-jair.

42 And Nobah went and took Kenath, and the villages thereof, and called it Nobah, after his own name.

CHAPTER 33

(1490 B.C.)

A SUMMARY

[1] These are the journeys of the Children of Israel, which went forth out of the land of Egypt with their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron.

[2] And Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys by the Commandment of the LORD: and these are their journeys according to their goings out. (Williams says, "The love that led Israel through the great and terrible Wilderness for forty years, so that they lacked nothing, commanded Moses to minutely record their wanderings. This command, and this record, reveal the tenderest love, and prove that their Divine Shepherd accompanied them every step of the way from Egypt to Canaan. In all their afflictions, He was afflicted; He cherished them as a nurse her children; He suffered not their garments to wax old, nor their feet to swell [Neh., Chpt. 9]. This Chapter shows that He never lost sight of them for a single day.")

[3] And they departed from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the morrow after the Passover the Children of Israel went out with an high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians.

[4] For the Egyptians buried all their first born, which the LORD had smitten among them: upon their gods also the LORD executed judgments (Egypt was left a waste).

[5] And the Children of Israel removed from Rameses, and pitched in Succoth (the Lord commanded this historical narrative be written, not only for historical interest, but to show us that the Lord watches over us continually, in fact, never takes an eye off our doings, recording all things; we should remember this, thereby making every day, even every minute, count for the Lord).

6 And they departed from Succoth, and pitched in Etham, which is in the edge of the wilderness.

7 And they removed from Etham, and turned again unto Pi-hahiroth, which is before Baal-zephon: and they pitched before Migdol.

8 And they departed from before Pi-hahiroth, and passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness (the great miracle of the Red Sea opening), and went three days' journey in the wilderness of Etham, and pitched in Marah.

9 And they removed from Marah (where the Lord had made the bitter waters sweet — Ex., Chpt. 15), and came unto Elim: and in Elim were twelve fountains of water, and threescore and ten palm trees; and they pitched there.

10 And they removed from Elim, and encamped by the Red Sea.

11 And they removed from the Red Sea, and encamped in the wilderness of Sin.

12 And they took their journey out of the wilderness of Sin, and encamped in Dophkah.

13 And they departed from Dophkah, and encamped in Alush.

14 And they removed from Alush, and encamped at Rephidim, where was no water for the people to drink (the Rock was there smitten, with a veritable river of water pouring out — Ex., Chpt. 17).

15 And they departed from Rephidim, and pitched in the wilderness of Sinai.

16 And they removed from the desert of Sinai, and pitched at Kibroth-hattaavah.

17 And they departed from Kibroth-hattaavah, and encamped at Hazeroth.

18 And they departed from Hazeroth, and pitched in Rithmah.

19 And they departed from Rithmah, and pitched at Rimmon-parez.

20 And they departed from Rimmon-parez, and pitched in Libnah.

21 And they removed from Libnah, and pitched at Rissah.

22 And they journeyed from Rissah, and pitched in Kehelathah.

23 And they went from Kehelathah, and pitched in mount Shapher.

24 And they removed from mount Shapher, and encamped in Haradah.

25 And they removed from Haradah, and pitched in Makheloth.

26 And they removed from Makheloth, and encamped at Tahath.

27 And they departed from Tahath, and pitched at Tarah.

28 And they removed from Tarah, and pitched in Mithcah.

29 And they went from Mithcah, and pitched in Hashmonah.

30 And they departed from Hashmonah, and encamped at Moseroth.

31 And they departed from Moseroth, and pitched in Bene-jaakan.

32 And they removed from Bene-jaakan, and encamped at Hor-hagidgad.

33 And they went from Hor-hagidgad, and pitched in Jotbathah.

34 And they removed from Jotbathah, and encamped at Ebronah.

35 And they departed from Ebronah, and encamped at Ezion-gaber.

36 And they removed from Ezion-gaber, and pitched in the wilderness of Zin, which is Kadesh.

37 And they removed from Kadesh, and pitched in mount Hor, in the edge of the land of Edom.

38 And Aaron the Priest went up into mount Hor at the Commandment of the LORD, and died there, in the fortieth year after the Children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the first day of the fifth month (this is the only place where the date of Aaron's death is given).

39 And Aaron was an hundred and twenty and three years old when he died in mount Hor.

40 And king Arad the Canaanite, which dwelt in the south in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the Children of Israel.

41 And they departed from Mount Hor, and pitched in Zalmonah.

42 And they departed from Zalmonah, and pitched in Punon.

43 And they departed from Punon, and pitched in Oboth.

44 And they departed from Oboth, and pitched in Ije-abarim, in the border of Moab.

45 And they departed from Iim, and pitched in Dibon-gad.

46 And they removed from Dibon-gad, and encamped in Almon-diblathaim.

47 And they removed from Almon-diblathaim, and pitched in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo.

48 And they departed from the mountains of Abarim, and pitched in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho.

49 And they pitched by Jordan, from Beth-jesimoth even unto Abel-shittim in the plains of Moab.

PREPARATIONS

[50] And the LORD spoke unto Moses in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho, saying,

[51] Speak unto the Children of Israel, and say unto them, When you are passed over Jordan into the land of Canaan;

[52] Then you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their pictures, and destroy all their molten images, and quite pluck down all their high places (in the spiritual sense, every Believer must "lay aside every weight, and the sin which does so easily beset us" [Heb. 12:1], which can be done only as our Faith is anchored firmly in Christ and the Cross, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work in our lives, bringing about the desired results; any other way is futile [Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11; Gal. 6:14]):

[53] And you shall dispossess the inhabitants of the land, and dwell therein: for I have given you the land to possess it (but yet, the enemies must be dispossessed; as repeatedly stated, this can only come about by Faith in Christ and the Cross).

[54] And you shall divide the land by lot (the Urim and the Thummim) for an inheritance among your families: and to the more you shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer you shall give the less inheritance: every man's inheritance shall be in the place where his lot falls (meaning that the Holy Spirit through the Urim and the Thummim would draw the boundaries); according to the Tribes of your fathers you shall inherit.

[55] But if you will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you; then it shall come to pass, that those which you let remain of them shall be pricks in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein you dwell (the works of the flesh must go, or else we will find that they will cause us tremendous problems [II Cor. 6:14-18; 7:1]).

[56] Moreover it shall come to pass, that I shall do unto you, as I thought to do unto them (sin in the Believer, if left unaddressed, can be condoned by the Lord no more than sin in the unbeliever — even less).

CHAPTER 34

(1452 B.C.)

BORDERS OF CANAAN

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

[2] Command the Children of Israel, and say unto them, When you come into the land of Canaan; (this is the land that shall fall unto you for an inheritance, even the land of Canaan with the coasts (borders) thereof:) (The hand of love that guided the sons of Israel through the desert, in this Chapter, fixed the bounds of their habitation. It was only a very real and tender love that could occupy itself with such details. But the people were Jehovah's people — the land, Emmanuel's land — and to love, nothing is small or unimportant — Williams.)

[3] Then your south quarter shall be from the wilderness of Zin along by the coast of Edom, and your south border shall be the outmost coast of the salt sea (Dead Sea) eastward:

[4] And your border shall turn from the south to the ascent of Akrabbim, and pass on to Zin: and the going forth thereof shall be from the south to Kadesh-barnea, and shall go on to Hazar-addar, and pass on to Azmon:

[5] And the border shall fetch a compass from Azmon unto the river of Egypt (some conclude this "River" to be about halfway of Sinai, with others believing that it is the Suez), and the goings out of it shall be at the sea (Mediterranean).

[6] And as for the western border, you shall even have the great sea (Mediterranean) for a border: this shall be your west border.

[7] And this shall be your north border: from the great sea you shall point out for you Mount Hor:

[8] From Mount Hor you shall point out your border unto the entrance of Hamath; and the goings forth of the border shall be to Zedad:

[9] And the border shall go on to Ziphron, and the goings out of it shall be at Hazar-enan: this shall be your north border. (This took in most of modern Syria, actually going about 75 miles north of Damascus. It was occupied during the time of David, but was not held by the following kings. In the coming Kingdom Age, the borders of Israel will include all of this and much more.)

[10] And you shall point out your east border from Hazar-enan to Shepham:

[11] And the coast shall go down from Shepham to Riblah, on the east side of Ain; and the border shall descend, and shall reach unto the side of the sea of Chinnereth eastward:

[12] And the border shall go down to Jordan, and the goings out of it shall be at the salt sea (Dead Sea): this shall be your land with the coasts thereof round about (the eastern border would have included most of modern Jordan, but, again, David alone conquered this particular territory; the kings which followed, by and large, lost it to heathen tribes).

[13] And Moses commanded the Children of Israel, saying, This is the land which you shall inherit by lot, which the LORD commanded to give unto the nine Tribes, and to the half Tribe (as with Israel of old, presently, we fail to obtain all of our inheritance; we, regrettably, settle for half measures, or even less; such should not be! All that the Lord has promised us, even though it may not be easy to obtain, it most definitely can be obtained, because He has promised it to us; in other words, everything for which He paid such a price at the Cross, and I speak of the "firstfruits" which we can now have, we should make certain, in Christ, that we obtain it all [Rom. 8:23])**:

[14] For the Tribe of the Children of Reuben according to the house of their fathers, and the Tribe of the Children of Gad according to the house of their fathers, have received their inheritance; and half the Tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance:

15 The two Tribes and the half Tribe have received their inheritance on this side Jordan near Jericho eastward, toward the sunrising. (The two Tribes of Reuben and Gad received their inheritance on the eastern side of the Jordan River, in what is now modern day Jordan. As well, half of the Tribe of Manasseh also was on the eastern side of Jordan, with the other part on the western side. In fact, Manasseh had the largest portion, with the exception of Judah.)

THE LEADERS

16 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying,

17 These are the names of the men which shall divide the land unto you: Eleazar the Priest, and Joshua the son of Nun.

18 And you shall take one Prince of every Tribe, to divide the land by inheritance.

19 And the names of the men are these: Of the Tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

20 And of the Tribe of the Children of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud.

21 Of the Tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon.

22 And the Prince of the Tribe of the Children of Dan, Bukki the son of Jogli.

23 The Prince of the Children of Joseph, for the Tribe of the Children of Manasseh, Hanniel the son of Ephod.

24 And the Prince of the Tribe of the Children of Ephraim, Kemuel the son of Shiphtan.

25 And the Prince of the Tribe of the Children of Zebulun, Elizaphan the son of Parnach.

26 And the Prince of the Tribe of the Children of Issachar, Paltiel the son of Azzan.

27 And the Prince of the Tribe of the Children of Asher, Ahihud the son of Shelomi.

28 And the Prince of the Tribe of the Children of Naphtali, Pedahel the son of Ammihud.

29 These are they whom the Lord commanded to divide the inheritance unto the Children of Israel in the land of Canaan. (If it is to be noticed, the Lord selected the men who were to head up the Tribes, a man from each Tribe, with Eleazar, the High Priest, and Joshua being in charge, thus, satisfying the ecclesiastical and military heads respectively of the theocracy.)

CHAPTER 35

(1451 B.C.)

CITIES OF THE LEVITES

[1] And the LORD spoke unto Moses in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho, saying,

[2] Command the Children of Israel, that they give unto the Levites of the inheritance of their possession cities to dwell in; and you shall give also unto the Levites suburbs for the cities round about them. (Concerning the Levites, Williams says, "The tender love that portioned out a goodly heritage to each Tribe — to the weakest as well as to the strongest — did not fail to provide a fitting maintenance for Levi. Forty-eight cities were given to him in all Israel. Thus, the prediction of Gen. 49:7 was fulfilled and, at the same time, turned into honor and blessing because of the faithfulness expressed in Ex. 32:26.

"Jehovah became Levi's inheritance, they were His personal servants and, therefore, wholly cast upon Him for their daily bread. They were to concern themselves about His Service, He having undertaken to concern Himself about their maintenance.")

[3] And the cities (48) shall they have to dwell in; and the suburbs (surrounding land) of them shall be for their cattle, and for their goods, and for all their beasts.

[4] And the suburbs of the cities, which you shall give unto the Levites, shall reach from the wall of the city and outward a thousand cubits (1,500 feet) round about (a little over a quarter of a mile around the city was portioned off for the Levites, that they might graze their stock on this particular land).

[5] And you shall measure from without the city on the east side two thousand cubits (3,000 feet), and on the south side two thousand cubits, and on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits; and the city shall be in the midst: this shall be to them the suburbs of the cities. (Along with the 1,500 feet surrounding these cities, a further measure of 3,000 feet was granted beside that. Buildings on the inner grant might be sold by the Levites, but none of the land outside of that.)

6 And among the cities which you shall give unto the Levites there shall be six cities for refuge, which you shall appoint for the manslayer, that he may flee thither: and to them you shall add forty and two cities. (This refers to an individual who kills someone by accident. These cities were not for murderers. If the "manslayer" could reach one of these cities, the relatives of the victim could not touch him. He was to stay in this City of Refuge until the death of the High Priest. When the High Priest died, the man was free and, by Law, the victim's relatives must not bother him.

The Avenger of Blood symbolized the Law. It demanded the death of the manslayer. The death of the High Priest satisfied this claim and liberated the manslayer. Christ's Death, not His Life, rent the Veil, and frees the sinner from the curse of the broken Law. Similarly, the death of the Lamb, not its spotlessness, redeemed the Law-breaker of Lev., Chpt. 4. The manslayer was then at liberty to return to his possession.

When Israel shall look upon Him Whom they have pierced, it will be then revealed to them that His Death restores them to the land and Family of God.)

7 So all the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be forty and eight cities: them shall you give with their suburbs.

8 And the cities which you shall give shall be of the possession of the Children of Israel: from them who have many you shall give many; but from them who have few you shall give few: every one shall give of his cities unto the Levites according to his inheritance which he inherits.

CITIES OF REFUGE

9 And the Lord spoke unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the Children of Israel, and say unto them, When you be come over Jordan into the land of Canaan;

11 Then you shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you; that the slayer may flee thither, which kills any person at unawares (accidentally).

12 And they shall be unto you cities for refuge from the avenger; that the manslayer die not, until he stand before the congregation in judgment (after the High Priest died, if it was felt by the authorities that a trial was necessary, one could then be conducted).

13 And of these cities which you shall give six cities shall you have for refuge.

14 You shall give three cities on this side Jordan, and three cities shall you give in the land of Canaan, which shall be cities of refuge (three cities were to be on the east side of the Jordan River, and three cities on the west side).

15 These six cities shall be a refuge, both for the Children of Israel, and for the stranger (Gentile), and for the sojourner among them: that everyone who kills any person unawares (accidentally) may flee thither. (Those six cities were: "Kadesh, Golan, Shechem, Ramoth, Hebron, and Bezer.")

WILLFUL MURDER

16 And if he smite him with an instrument of iron, so that he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death (in other words, there were no cities of refuge for murderers).

17 And if he smite him with throwing a stone, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

18 Or if he smite him with an hand weapon of wood, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

19 The revenger of blood himself shall slay the murderer: when he meets him, he shall slay him (the relatives or friends of the one murdered).

20 But if he thrust him of hatred, or hurl at him by laying of wait, that he die;

21 Or in enmity smite him with his hand, that he die: he who smote him shall surely be put to death; for he is a murderer: the revenger of blood shall slay the murderer, when he meets him.

INVOLUNTARY KILLING

22 But if he thrust him suddenly without enmity, or have cast upon him any thing without laying of wait,

23 Or with any stone, wherewith a man may die, seeing him not, and cast it upon him, that he die, and was not his enemy, neither sought his harm (was done accidentally).

24 Then the congregation shall judge between the slayer and the revenger of blood according to these judgments (a trial was to be conducted):

25 And the congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the revenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to the city of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shall abide in it unto the death of the High Priest, which was anointed with the holy oil (Jesus was our High Priest; His death satisfied all claims against us, and gave us our freedom).

26 But if the slayer shall at any time come without the border of the city of his refuge, whither he was fled;

27 And the revenger of blood find him without the borders of the city of his refuge, and the revenger of blood kill the slayer; he shall not be guilty of blood (if the individual leaves the city of refuge before the death of the High Priest, and is killed by friends or relatives of the victim, they will not be charged with any crime):

28 Because he should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the High Priest: but after the death of the High Priest the slayer shall return into the land of his possession (and there be protected by the Law).

29 So these things shall be for a Statute of judgment unto you throughout your generations in all your dwellings. (Rather until Christ would come, Who, as our High Priest, would fulfill all obligations, thereby making moot and invalid these particular Laws. Christ satisfied all the requirements of the Law in every respect, and did so by His Perfect Life. As well, He satisfied the demands of the broken Law, of which all were guilty, except Christ, and did so by dying on the Cross [Gal. 3:13-14]. So when a person accepts and receives Christ as one's personal Saviour, all the claims of the Law are satisfied in that acceptance.)

MURDERERS

30 Whoso kills any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the mouth of witnesses: but one witness shall not testify against any person to cause him to die (under the Law of Moses, there had to be two or more eye witnesses to the crime before the person could be put to death; one eye witness was not enough; such shows the high value that God placed upon life).

31 Moreover you shall take no satisfaction for the life of a murderer, which is guilty of death: but he shall be surely put to death (if there are two or more personal witnesses to the crime, the guilty person is to be put to death).

32 And you shall take no satisfaction for him who is fled to the city of his refuge (he cannot claim safety and protection in one of the cities of refuge, as could one who had accidentally killed another), that he should come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the Priest (the Cities of Refuge were to never be a haven for murderers).

33 So you shall not pollute the land wherein you are: for blood it defiles the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him who shed it (if a person commits cold-blooded murder, and there are two or more eye witnesses, such a person must be executed; to not take proper steps in such situations pollutes the land; so that means, regarding the untold thousands of abortions performed each year in the United States, that the land is polluted with blood; one day God will demand payment).

34 Defile not therefore the land which you shall inhabit, wherein I dwell: for I the LORD dwell among the Children of Israel. (This was under the old Law; however, it applies presently to the nations of the world which consider themselves to be predominantly Christian. God does not change, even as God cannot change.)

CHAPTER 36

FEMALE INHERITANCE

[1] And the chief fathers of the families of the Children of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near, and spoke before Moses, and before the Princes, the chief fathers of the Children of Israel (as necessities arose in the Wilderness journey, or in the conquest of Canaan, there were additions made to the Civil Law, as for instance in this Chapter, but never any change in the legislation respecting Atonement and Worship):

[2] And they said, The LORD commanded my lord (Moses) to give the land for an inheritance by lot (the Urim and the Thummim) to the Children of Israel: and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother unto his daughters.

[3] And if they be married to any of the sons of the other Tribes of the Children of Israel, then shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be put to the inheritance of the Tribe whereunto they are received: so shall it be taken from the lot of our inheritance.

[4] And when the Jubilee (Year of Jubilee) of the Children of Israel shall be, then shall their inheritance be put unto the inheritance of the Tribe whereunto they are received: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the Tribe of our fathers. (In practice, no property would be considered to have finally changed hands until the Year of Jubilee, when an extensive re-settlement took place, and when all titles not successfully challenged would be considered as confirmed.)

MARRIAGE

5 And Moses commanded the Children of Israel according to the Word of the LORD, saying, The Tribe of the sons of Joseph has said well.

6 This is the thing which the LORD does command concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them marry to whom they think best; only to the family of the Tribe of their father shall they marry (to gain the inheritance of their father, these young women must marry a man from their own Tribe).

7 So shall not the inheritance of the Children of Israel remove from Tribe to Tribe (the boundaries of each Tribe must not be moved): for every one of the Children of Israel shall keep himself to the inheritance of the Tribe of his fathers.

8 And every daughter, who possesses an inheritance in any Tribe of the Children of Israel, shall be wife unto one of the family of the Tribe of her father, that the Children of Israel may enjoy every man the inheritance of his fathers.

9 Neither shall the inheritance remove from one Tribe to another Tribe; but every one of the Tribes of the Children of Israel shall keep himself to his own inheritance.

10 Even as the LORD commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad:

11 For Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married unto their father's brothers' sons:

12 And they were married into the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the Tribe of the family of their father.

13 These are the Commandments and the Judgments, which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses unto the Children of Israel in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho.

CHAPTER 1

(1451 B.C.)

THE PROMISE OF GOD

[1] These be the words which Moses spoke unto all Israel on this side Jordan in the wilderness, in the plain over against the Red Sea, between Paran, and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazeroth, and Dizahab. (This Message was given by Moses to Israel shortly before the great Law-giver died, and thereby shortly before Israel went into the Promised Land.)

[2] (There are eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of mount Seir unto Kadesh-barnea [Eleven days' journey from Mount Sinai, where the Law was given]**.)

[3] And it came to pass in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spoke unto the Children of Israel, according unto all that the LORD had given him in Commandment unto them (this will be his last word to Israel; the time of these "Words" will be approximately a month previous to his death; the theme of his Message is that possession of Canaan was dependent upon the keeping of the Law given at Sinai; Sinai was one of the peaks of a mountain mass named Horeb)**;

[4] After he had slain Sihon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, which dwelt at Astaroth in Edrei (by the destruction of these kings, who sought to bar the access of the Israelites to the Promised Land, God had given proof that He would indeed fulfill His Promise to His people)**:

[5] On this side Jordan, in the land of Moab, began Moses to declare this Law, saying (nothing but prosperity was promised upon fidelity to that Law, and nothing but misery if unfaithful thereto; a lesson of the Book is the impossibility of the natural man taking hold upon and keeping Divine privileges),

6 The LORD our God spoke unto us in Horeb, saying, You have dwelt long enough in this Mount (the phrase, "Lord our God," implies the Covenant union of Israel with Jehovah, and presupposes the existence of that Covenant, which was entered into at Sinai):

7 Turn you, and take your journey, and go to the Mount of the Amorites, and unto all the places near thereunto, in the plain, in the hills, and in the vale, and in the south, and by the sea side, to the land of the Canaanites, and unto Lebanon, unto the great river, the river Euphrates. (This description encompasses the whole of the Promised Land. It included all of modern Jordan, Syria, and even Iraq, at least as far as the Euphrates River. It was considerably larger than the small portion claimed by Israel presently. To be sure, in the coming Kingdom Age, Israel will occupy all of this, and possibly even more.)

8 Behold, I have set the land before you: go in and possess the land which the LORD swore unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give unto them and to their seed after them (God keeps His Promises! As well, Israel could have occupied the land 38 years earlier had they evidenced faith).

JUDGES

9 And I spoke unto you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you myself alone:

10 The LORD your God has multiplied you, and, behold, you are this day as the stars of Heaven for multitude (exactly as the Lord told Abraham it would be [Gen. 15:5-6]).

11 (The LORD God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as you are, and bless you, as He has promised you! *[God desires to bless His people. The only qualification is obedience.])

12 How can I myself alone bear your cumbrance (entanglements), and your burden, and your strife?

13 Take you wise men, and understanding, and known among your Tribes, and I will make them rulers over you (you select the ones you desire).

14 And you answered me, and said, The thing which you have spoken is good for us to do.

15 So I took the chief of your Tribes, wise men, and known, and made them heads over you, Captains over thousands, and Captains over hundreds, and Captains over fifties, and Captains over tens, and Officers among your Tribes.

16 And I charged your Judges at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your brethren, and judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the stranger who is with him.

17 You shall not respect persons in judgment; but you shall hear the small as well as the great; you shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the Judgment is God's: and the cause that is too hard for you, bring it unto me, and I will hear it.

18 And I commanded you at that time all the things which you should do. (It appears from the following Passages that this arrangement of the people selecting leaders over them did not turn out too very well. These leaders, even as the following Passages proclaim, registered unbelief, and doomed that generation of Israel in the wilderness.)

REBELLION

19 And when we departed from Horeb, we went through all that great and terrible wilderness, which you saw by the way of the mountain of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-barnea.

[20] And I said unto you, You are come unto the mountain of the Amorites, which the LORD our God does give unto us.

[21] Behold, the LORD your God has set the land before you: go up and possess it, as the LORD God of your fathers has said unto you; fear not, neither be discouraged.

[22] And you came near unto me every one of you, and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search us out the land, and bring us word again by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shall come. (If we plan for ourselves, in some way, the plans are always wrong. If we allow God to plan for us, His plans are guaranteed of success. Israel did not allow the Lord, at least at this juncture, to plan for them. The knowledge they sought portrayed a lack of faith.)

[23] And the saying pleased me well: and I took twelve men of you, one of a Tribe (Moses was guilty somewhat in this situation, as well; he should have taken the matter to the Lord, but the evidence is that he didn't)**:

[24] And they turned and went up into the mountain, and came unto the valley of Eshcol, and searched it out.

[25] And they took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down unto us, and brought us word again, and said, It is a good land which the LORD our God does give us.

[26] Notwithstanding you would not go up, but rebelled against the Commandment of the LORD your God:

[27] And you murmured in your tents, and said, Because the LORD hated us, He has brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us (they lied on God; to be sure, that is one of the biggest sins in the modern Church, as well!).

[28] Whither shall we go up? Our brethren have discouraged our heart, saying, The people is greater and taller than we; the cities are great and walled up to heaven; and moreover we have seen the sons of the Anakims there (they saw the walled cities and the giants; what is it that you see?).

[29] Then I said unto you, Dread not, neither be afraid of them (we are to "see" the Promises of God alone, for we walk by Faith and not by sight).

[30] The LORD your God which goes before you, He shall fight for you, according to all that He did for you in Egypt before your eyes (they had seen the great miracles of the Lord, so they should have known better)**;

[31] And in the wilderness, where you have seen how that the LORD your God bore you, as a man does bear his son, in all the way that you went, until you came into this place (the miracles which began in Egypt continued in the wilderness, and were obvious to all).

[32] Yet in this thing you did not believe the LORD your God (they registered a continuing unbelief), [33] Who went in the way before you, to search you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, to show you by what way you should go, and in a cloud by day (the visible Presence of God was obvious, both day and night, and for all to see; as well, that visible Presence led them, and supplied their every need; so, again and again, due to the constant miracles, they had no cause for unbelief — and neither do we).

PUNISHMENT

[34] And the LORD heard the voice of your words, and was angry, and swore, saying,

[35] Surely there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see that good land, which I swore to give unto your fathers (all Promises of God to us are dependent upon our obedience, and that speaks of continuing Faith in Him)**,

[36] Save Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him will I give the land that he has trodden upon, and to his children, because he has wholly followed the LORD (God is no respecter of persons; what He did for Caleb and Joshua, He will do for any and all who believe Him).

[37] Also the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, saying, You also shall not go in thither (speaks of his own failure in striking the Rock, when he was told to speak to It [Num. 20:7-12]).

[38] But Joshua the son of Nun, which stands before you, he shall go in thither: encourage him: for he shall cause Israel to inherit it (as Joshua, even the greatest among us need encouragement).

[39] Moreover your little ones, which you said should be a prey, and your children, which in that day had no knowledge between good and evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it (they had accused God of bringing their children into the wilderness in order to kill them, and He, in answer to that accusation, told them that their children would survive the wilderness and inherit the Promised Land, but they would not [Num., Chpt. 14]).

[40] But as for you, turn you, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea.

DEFEAT

[41] Then you answered and said unto me, We have sinned against the LORD, we will go up and fight, according to all that the LORD our God commanded us. And when you had girded on every man his weapons of war, you were ready to go up into the hill. (However, what they were doing now was in the flesh; the only result could be defeat. Many in the modern Church are fighting, but they are fighting a battle which the Lord never designed. Presently, we are told to fight only one fight, "the good fight of faith," which refers to Faith in Christ, and what He has done for us at the Cross [I Tim. 6:12].)

[42] And the LORD said unto me, Say unto them, Go not up, neither fight; for I am not among you; lest you be smitten before your enemies (they were warned!).

43 So I spoke unto you; and you would not hear, but rebelled against the Commandment of the LORD, and went presumptuously up into the hill (presumption is one of the great sins of the modern Church).

44 And the Amorites, which dwelt in that mountain, came out against you, and chased you, as bees do, and destroyed you in Seir, even unto Hormah.

45 And you returned and wept before the LORD; but the LORD would not hearken to your voice, nor give ear unto you (the weeping was for their dilemma, and not the weeping of the soul for their sin of unbelief).

46 So you abode in Kadesh many days, according unto the days that you abode there (out of the Will of God, the days are long!).

CHAPTER 2

(1453 B.C.)

FORTY YEARS

[1] Then we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea, as the LORD spoke unto me: and we compassed Mount Seir many days. (These "many days" are the thirty-eight years, during which the people wandered in the wilderness before they camped the second time at Kadesh. Out of the Will of God, men tend to run in circles.)

[2] And the LORD spoke unto me, saying,

[3] You have compassed this mountain long enough: turn you northward (after 38 years, they are now turning toward Canaan; this means that the generation of unbelief had now died).

[4] And command you the people, saying, You are to pass through the coast of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir; and they shall be afraid of you: take you good heed unto yourselves therefore:

[5] Meddle not with them; for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as a foot breadth; because I have given Mount Seir unto Esau for a possession (Gen. 36:8).

[6] You shall buy meat of them for money, that you may eat; and you shall also buy water of them for money, that you may drink (the Lord told them exactly what to do).

[7] For the LORD your God has blessed you in all the works of your hand: he knows your walking through this great wilderness: these forty years the LORD your God has been with you; you have lacked nothing (the Lord proved to Israel that even though they were in a wilderness, still, He could "set a table for them," which He did [Ps. 78:19-29]).

[8] And when we passed by from our brethren the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the plain from Elath, and from Ezion-gaber, we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

MOAB

[9] And the LORD said unto me, Distress not the Moabites, neither contend with them in battle: for I will not give you of their land for a possession; because I have given Ar unto the children of Lot for a possession (Gen. 19:36-38).

[10] The Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims;

[11] Which also were accounted giants, as the Anakims; but the Moabites called them Emims (these were a race of giants, the result of the ungodly union of fallen angels and women [Gen. 6:4]).

[12] The Horims also dwelt in Seir before time: but the children of Esau succeeded them, when they had destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their stead; as Israel did unto the land of his possession, which the LORD gave unto them.

[13] Now rise up, said I, and get you over the brook Zered. And we went over the brook Zered.

[14] And the space in which we came from Kadesh-barnea, until we were come over the brook Zered, was thirty and eight years; until all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the host, as the LORD swore unto them.

[15] For indeed the Hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from among the host, until they were consumed (Heb. 4:1-6).

[16] So it came to pass, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people (Israel lay for 38 years in the wilderness, paralyzed by unbelief, like the man at the Pool of Bethesda [Jn. 5:5]; he pictured the nation; Jesus, the true Joshua, brought him over the unseen Jordan into the goodly land; but the Pharisees and Scribes of that day were as blind to such wonders as are the Pharisees and Scribes of the present time)**,

[17] That the LORD spoke unto me, saying,

[18] You are to pass over through Ar, the coast of Moab, this day:

THROUGH AMMON

[19] And when you come near over against the Children of Ammon, distress them not, nor meddle with them: for I will not give you of the land of the children of Ammon any possession; because I have given it unto the children of Lot for a possession (Gen. 19:38)**.

[20] (That also was accounted a land of giants: giants dwelt therein in old time; and the Ammonites call them Zamzummims;

[21] A people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims; but the LORD destroyed them before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead:

[22] As He did to the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, when He destroyed the Horims from before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead even unto this day:

[23] And the Avims which dwelt in Hazerim, even unto Azzah, the Caphtorims, which came forth out of Caphtor, destroyed them, and dwelt in their stead.) (The "giants" spoken of in these Verses, who were nine-feet-plus tall, were the offspring of the union of fallen angels and women [Gen. 6:4]. Satan tried this tactic before the flood, and after the flood. In fact, this was one of the great reasons for the flood. After the flood, Satan would seek to populate the area of the Promised Land, in order to hinder the Children of Israel, polluting them, so as to stop the coming of the Messiah. If it is to be noticed, the Verses of our study proclaim the fact that the Lord helped various people to defeat these giants, without them, of course, knowing it was the Lord Who had done such.)

THE AMORITE

24 Rise ye up, take your journey, and pass over the river Arnon: behold, I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land: begin to possess it, and contend with him in battle (as should be overly obvious, the Lord is the One Who gives the victory; the river Arnon was on the east side of the Dead Sea, about half way of that body of water).

25 This day will I begin to put the dread of you and the fear of you upon the nations who are under the whole heaven, who shall hear report of you, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of you (speaking of the nations near the Promised Land; they would have had this 38 years before, but for unbelief).

26 And I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth unto Sihon king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying, 27 Let me pass through your land: I will go along by the high way, I will neither turn unto the right hand nor to the left.

28 You shall sell me meat for money, that I may eat; and give me water for money, that I may drink: only I will pass through on my feet (meaning they would not stop for any length of time);

29 (As the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar, did unto me;) until I shall pass over Jordan into the land which the LORD our God gives us.

30 But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him: for the LORD your God hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into your hand, as appears this day (in these statements, as given by Moses, we are given a behind-the-scenes view of the manner in which the Lord works; when His Children are in His Will, thereby walking obediently, He pulls all the strings, so to speak; He will do such now, exactly as He did then, if the Believer will walk in obedience).

31 And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have begun to give Sihon and his land before you: begin to possess, that you may inherit his land.

32 Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Jahaz.

33 And the LORD our God delivered him before us; and we smote him, and his sons, and all his people.

34 And we took all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed the men, and the women, and the little ones of every city, we left none to remain:

35 Only the cattle we took for a prey unto ourselves, and the spoil of the cities which we took.

36 From Aroer, which is by the brink of the river of Arnon, and from the city that is by the river, even unto Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us: the LORD our God delivered all unto us (as these enemies were defeated, under the New Covenant, every enemy in our lives can be defeated, but only if we do it God's Way; that Way is for us to fully trust Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross; in other words, the Cross of Christ must ever be the Object of our Faith; that being the case, the Holy Spirit, Who works exclusively within the parameters of the Finished Work of Christ, will then mightily help us, as only He can do; this is God's Prescribed Order of Victory [Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11; I Cor. 1:17-18, 21, 23; 2:2; Eph. 2:13-18; Col. 2:14-15])*:

37 Only unto the land of the children of Ammon you came not, nor unto any place of the river Jabbok, nor unto the cities in the mountains, nor unto whatsoever the LORD our God forbad us.

CHAPTER 3

(1452 B.C.)

VICTORY

[1] Then we turned, and went up the way to Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.

[2] And the LORD said unto me, Fear him not: for I will deliver him, and all his people, and his land, into your hand; and you shall do unto him as you did unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

[3] So the LORD our God delivered into our hands Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people: and we smote him until none was left to him remaining.

[4] And we took all his cities at that time, there was not a city which we took not from them, threescore cities (60), all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

[5] All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates, and bars; beside unwalled towns a great many.

[6] And we utterly destroyed them, as we did unto Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children, of every city (again, with the Lord leading the charge, victory is certain in all capacities).

[7] But all the cattle, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves.

[8] And we took at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites the land that was on this side Jordan, from the river of Arnon unto Mount Hermon;

9 (Which Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion; and the Amorites call it Shenir;)

10 All the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, unto Salchah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

11 For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of giants; behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is it not in Rabbath of the children of Ammon? nine cubits (13½ feet) was the length thereof, and four cubits (6 feet) the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man. (Once again, a part of the population was made up of the "giants," which were easily defeated by God's people. To have the help of the Lord is to have everything. To not have that help is to have nothing.)

EAST OF THE JORDAN

12 And this land, which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, and half Mount Gilead, and the cities thereof, gave I unto the Reubenites and to the Gadites.

13 And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, being the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half tribe of Manasseh; all the region of Argob, with all Bashan, which was called the land of giants.

14 Jair the son of Manasseh took all the country of Argob unto the coasts of Geshuri and Maachathi; and called them after his own name, Bashan-havoth-jair, unto this day.

15 And I gave Gilead unto Machir.

16 And unto the Reubenites and unto the Gadites I gave from Gilead even unto the river Arnon half the valley, and the border even unto the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon;

17 The plain also, and Jordan, and the coast thereof, from Chinnereth (Sea of Galilee) even unto the sea of the plain, even the Salt Sea (Dead Sea), under Ashdoth-pisgah eastward.

18 And I commanded you at that time, saying, The LORD your God has given you this land to possess it: you shall pass over armed before your brethren the Children of Israel, all who are meet for the war.

19 But your wives, and your little ones, and your cattle, (for I know that you have much cattle,) shall abide in your cities which I have given you;

20 Until the LORD have given rest unto your brethren, as well as unto you, and until they also possess the land which the LORD your God has given them beyond Jordan: and then shall you return every man unto his possession, which I have given you.

CHARGE TO JOSHUA

21 And I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, Your eyes have seen all that the LORD your God has done unto these two kings: so shall the LORD do unto all the kingdoms where you passed.

22 You shall not fear them: for the LORD your God He shall fight for you. (When the Lord fights for us, victory is guaranteed. He will do so presently, that is if our Faith has the correct Object, which must always be the Cross [Gal. 6:14].)

THE PROMISED LAND

23 And I besought the LORD at that time, saying,

24 O LORD God, You have begun to show Your Servant Your Greatness, and Your mighty Hand: for what God is there in heaven or in Earth, Who can do according to Your Works, and according to Your Might?

25 I pray You, let me go over, and see the good land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lebanon.

26 But the LORD was wroth with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the LORD said unto me, Let it suffice you; speak no more unto

Me of this matter. (As much as wrongly striking the Rock the second time, which, in effect, denied the veracity of Calvary, which was a grievous sin, Moses being the great Lawgiver, and due to the fact that the Law can never inherit the Promises, this, I feel, was at least a part of the reason that Moses could not go in [Gal. 3:18].)

27 Get thee up into the top of Pisgah, and lift up your eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold it with your eyes: for you shall not go over this Jordan.

28 But charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him: for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which you shall see (the Law could "see" Salvation, but it took Faith to obtain it [Eph. 2:8-9]).

29 So we abode in the valley over against Beth-peor.

CHAPTER 4

(1451 B.C.)

GOD'S LAW

[1] Now therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the Statutes and unto the Judgments, which I teach you, for to do them, that you may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers gives you. (The Law of God was divided into three parts, the Civil, the Ceremonial, and the Moral. The truth is, due to man's fallen condition, keeping the Law of God was beyond his ability. So, the Sacrificial System served as a means to atone for sin; however, every Israelite was definitely to try to keep the Law. The only One Who kept the Law perfectly, and in every respect, was the Lord Jesus Christ, Who did it all on our behalf [Gal. 4:4].)

[2] You shall not add unto the Word which I command you, neither shall you diminish ought from it, that you may keep the Commandments of the LORD your God which I command you (regrettably, Israel decimated this Command; by the time of Christ, they had added over 600 oral laws to the original Law of Moses, even claiming that the oral laws were more important; diminishing the Word of God, or adding to the Word of God, or ignoring it altogether is the sin of the modern Church).

[3] Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of Baal-peor: for all the men who followed Baal-peor, the LORD your God has destroyed them from among you (this should have been a lesson!).

[4] But you who did cleave unto the LORD your God are alive every one of you this day.

[5] Behold, I have taught you Statutes and Judgments, even as the LORD my God commanded me, that you should do so in the land where you go to possess it.

6 Keep therefore and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these Statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people. (The Law of God, devised totally by the Lord, placed Israel light-years ahead of all the surrounding nations, and in every capacity.)

7 For what nation is there so great, who has God so near unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon Him for? (In fact, no other nation throughout the entirety of the world was so blessed as Israel. The Lord belonged to Israel exclusively.)

8 And what nation is there so great, that has Statutes and Judgments so righteous as all this Law, which I set before you this day? (None!)

9 Only take heed to yourself, and keep your soul diligently, lest you forget the things which your eyes have seen, and lest they depart from your heart all the days of your life: but teach them to your sons, and your sons' sons (this was the key to all continued blessings)**;

10 Specially the day that you stood before the LORD your God in Horeb, when the LORD said unto me, Gather Me the people together, and I will make them hear My words, that they may learn to fear Me all the days that they shall live upon the Earth, and that they may teach their children.

11 And you came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire unto the midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and thick darkness (Moses takes Israel back, at least in their remembrance, to Mount Sinai, where the Law was originally given).

12 And the LORD spoke unto you out of the midst of the fire: you heard the Voice of the words, but saw no similitude; only you heard a Voice (they did not see the shape of God).

13 And He declared unto you His Covenant, which He commanded you to perform, even Ten Commandments; and He wrote them upon two tables of stone. (This was the Moral Law, and it is still in force, because Moral Law cannot change. Believers keep the Law by simply trusting Christ and what Christ did at the Cross, which gives the Holy Spirit the latitude to develop Righteousness and Holiness in one's life. The Moral Law is then kept, and kept fully, without the Believer even having to address the subject [Rom. 8:2].)

14 And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you Statutes and Judgments, that you might do them in the land where you go over to possess it (it was required of every Israelite that they understand the Law).

WARNING AGAINST IDOLATRY

15 Take ye therefore good heed unto yourselves; for you saw no manner of similitude on the day that the LORD spoke unto you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire:

16 Lest you corrupt yourselves, and make you a graven image, the similitude of any figure, the likeness of male or female (in other words, had they seen a similitude of God, they would have fashioned an idol as to what they had seen; the implication here is that God has a Spirit Body)**,

17 The likeness of any beast that is on the Earth, the likeness of any winged fowl that flies in the air (no image is to be made of anything of this nature)**,

18 The likeness of any thing that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the Earth:

19 And lest you lift up your eyes unto heaven, and when you see the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, should be driven to worship them, and serve them, which the LORD your God has divided unto all nations under the whole heaven (most of the nations of the world worshipped these things mentioned here by the Lord).

20 But the LORD has taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be unto Him a people of inheritance, as you are this day.

[21] Furthermore the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and swore that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land, which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance:

[22] But I must die in this land, I must not go over Jordan: but you shall go over, and possess that good land (how these words must have hurt Moses).

A WARNING

[23] Take heed unto yourselves, lest you forget the Covenant of the LORD your God, which He made with you, and make you a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, which the LORD your God has forbidden you.

[24] For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, even a jealous God (He is jealous over His People, because He loves us, and will not endure any rivalry in our affection and devotion).

[25] When you shall beget children, and children's children, and you shall have remained long in the land, and shall corrupt yourselves, and make a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, and shall do evil in the sight of the LORD your God, to provoke Him to anger (while those in the modern Church do not make graven images of sorts, still, idolatry, sadly, is alive and well; anything that we place before Christ and Him Crucified becomes an idol; to be sure, such provokes the Lord to anger):

[26] I call Heaven and Earth to witness against you this day, that you shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto you go over Jordan to possess it; you shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed (the warning is clear!).

[27] And the LORD shall scatter you among the nations (and that's exactly what happened), and you shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the LORD shall lead you (whatever nation that the Israelites found themselves in, they would always be in the minority, and treated accordingly).

[28] And there you shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

29 But if from thence you shall seek the LORD your God, you shall find Him, if you seek Him with all your heart and with all your soul. (What a beautiful Promise! If honesty and sincerity find lodging in the heart of any person, irrespective as to what they have done, if the Lord is sought, He will be found.)

30 When you are in tribulation, and all these things are come upon you, even in the latter days (actually refers to the coming Great Tribulation [Mat. 24:21]), if you turn to the LORD your God, and shall be obedient unto His Voice;

31 (For the LORD your God is a merciful God;) He will not forsake you, neither destroy you, nor forget the Covenant of your fathers which He swore unto them (ultimately, the Lord will bring the Jews back to their rightful place, with every Promise being kept, which will take place at the Second Coming [Zech. 13:6])**.

ISRAEL CHOSEN BY GOD

32 For ask now of the days that are past, which were before you, since the day that God created man upon the Earth, and ask from the one side of heaven unto the other, whether there has been any such thing as this great thing is, or has been heard like it? (The Lord delivered Israel out of Egyptian bondage and, as well, was with Israel through the entirety of the past forty years, performing miracles on a daily basis; no, there had never been anything like it.)

33 Did ever people hear the Voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you have heard, and live?

34 Or has God assayed to go and take Him a nation from the midst of another nation, by temptations, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty Hand, and by a stretched out Arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 Unto you it was shown, that you might know that the LORD He is God; there is none else beside Him (there is no other God).

36 Out of Heaven He made you to hear His Voice, that He might instruct you: and upon Earth He showed you His great fire; and you heard His Words out of the midst of the fire.

37 And because He loved your fathers (Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, etc.), therefore He chose their seed after them, and brought you out in His Sight with His mighty Power out of Egypt;

38 To drive out nations from before you greater and mightier than you are, to bring you in, to give you their land for an inheritance, as it is this day.

39 Know therefore this day, and consider it in your heart, that the LORD He is God in Heaven above, and upon the Earth beneath: there is none else.

40 You shall keep therefore His Statutes, and His Commandments, which I command you this day, that it may go well with you, and with your children after you, and that you may prolong your days upon the Earth, which the LORD your God gives you, for ever. (The Expositors say, "The sum of this whole exhortation is, first of all, to acknowledge and lay to heart that God is the Alone God of the universe, in Heaven and on Earth; hence, as well, to be obedient to His Laws; and so, to have, as a recompense, a happy continuance in the beloved land.")

CITIES OF REFUGE

41 Then Moses severed three cities on this side Jordan toward the sunrising (as cities of refuge);

42 That the slayer might flee thither, which should kill his neighbour unawares, and hated him not in times past; and that fleeing unto one of these cities he might live (not for murderers, but for those who would kill accidentally):

43 Namely, Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country, of the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, of the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, of the Manassites.

THE MOSAIC LAW

44 And this is the Law which Moses set before the Children of Israel:

45 These are the Testimonies, and the Statutes, and the Judgments, which Moses spoke unto the Children of Israel, after they came forth out of Egypt,

46 On this side Jordan, in the valley over against Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the Children of Israel smote, after they were come forth out of Egypt:

47 And they possessed his land, and the land of Og king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorites, which were on this side Jordan toward the sunrising;

48 From Aroer, which is by the bank of the river Arnon, even unto Mount Sion, which is Hermon, 49 And all the plain on this side Jordan eastward, even unto the sea of the plain, under the springs of Pisgah.

CHAPTER 5

(1451 B.C.)

ISRAEL AND GOD'S COVENANT

[1] And Moses called all Israel, and said unto them, Hear O Israel, the Statutes and Judgments which I speak in your ears this day, that you may learn them, and keep, and do them (the necessity of all of Israel learning the Law; likewise, modern Believers must learn the Bible, and do so for themselves).

[2] The LORD our God made a Covenant with us in Horeb.

[3] The LORD made not this Covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day (the Covenant made at Sinai, with Israel as a people).

[4] The LORD talked with you face to face in the Mount of the midst of the fire,

[5] (I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to show you the Word of the LORD: for you were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the Mount;) saying,

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

[6] I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

[7] You shall have none other gods before Me. (Expositors say, "In this, the First Commandment, the great principle and basis of all true spirituality is asserted — monotheism [one God], as opposed to polytheism [many gods]. There is but one God, and that God is Jehovah, the self-existent and eternal, Who yet has personal relations with men.")

[8] You shall not make you any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the Earth beneath, or that is in the waters beneath the Earth:

[9] You shall not bow down yourself unto them, nor serve them: for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them who hate Me (this Passage is often used to buttress the false doctrine of the family curse, so-called; it is true that there is a curse upon succeeding generations, but only those who hate the Lord; the Salvation of one person in such a family breaks such a curse, not only for the person, but greatly ameliorates the effect on the unsaved members of the family also [II Cor. 5:17])**,

[10] And showing mercy unto thousands of them who love Me and keep My Commandments (this Commandment no doubt accounts for the fact that Israel alone of the civilized nations of antiquity has left no monuments of art for the instruction or admiration of posterity).

[11] You shall not take the Name of the LORD your God in vain: for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that takes His Name in vain (this Commandment addresses all profanity, and false swearing by the Name of God and, as well, all irreverent use of the Name [Lev. 19:12]).

[12] Keep the Sabbath day to sanctify it, as the LORD your God has commanded you.

[13] Six days you shall labor, and do all your work:

[14] But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God: in it you shall not do any work, you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your manservant, nor your maidservant, nor your ox, nor your ass, nor any of your cattle, nor your stranger that is within your gates; that your manservant and your maidservant may rest as well as you.

15 And remember that you were a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the LORD your God brought you out thence through a mighty hand and by a stretched out arm: therefore the LORD your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day. (Williams says, "The observance of the Sabbath, which in Exodus 20 is urged because of God's creation rest, is commanded here in the interest of slaves as well. This shows God's tender pity for the defenseless. Israel is enjoined here to remember that she herself was a slave in the land of Egypt." Presently, all who accept Christ, Who in effect is the Sabbath, in essence keep the Sabbath. The Sabbath in its entirety speaks of "rest," which is a type of the rest which is found only in Christ [Mat. 11:28-30].)

16 Honour your father and your mother, as the LORD your God has commanded you; that your days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with you, in the land which the LORD your God gives you. (Pulpit says, "Where parents are not honored, a flaw lies at the basis, and the stability of the entire social fabric is endangered; as well, those who will not honor their parents will not honor God.")

17 You shall not kill (shall not murder).

18 Neither shall you commit adultery (extends to all forms of immorality).

19 Neither shall you steal (the property of another must not be taken by fraud or outright theft).

20 Neither shall you bear false witness against your neighbour (speaks of gossip, outright lying, and slander of every nature).

21 Neither shall you desire your neighbour's wife, neither shall you covet your neighbour's house, his field, or his manservant, or his maidservant, his ox, or his ass, or any thing that is your neighbour's (covetousness means that a person must not even desire, at least in a fraudulent manner, that which belongs to another).

GOD'S PRESENCE

22 These words the LORD spoke unto all your assembly in the Mount out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great Voice: and He added no more. And He wrote them in two tables of stone, and delivered them unto me (the Lord spoke the Ten Commandments audibly to Israel, and then wrote them on two tables of stone, and gave them to Moses).

23 And it came to pass, when you heard the Voice out of the midst of the darkness, (for the mountain did burn with fire,) that you came near unto me, even all the heads of your Tribes, and your Elders;

24 And you said, Behold, the LORD our God has showed us His Glory and His Greatness, and we have heard His Voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that God does talk with man, and he lives (they did not die upon hearing the Voice of God).

25 Now therefore why should we die? for this great fire will consume us: if we hear the Voice of the LORD our God any more, then we shall die (they were afraid if God continued to talk with them with an audible voice, that ultimately they would die as a result).

26 For who is there of all flesh, who has heard the Voice of the Living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived?

27 Go thou near, and hear all that the LORD our God shall say: and speak thou unto us all that the LORD our God shall speak unto you; and we will hear it, and do it (they asked that the Lord speak solely with Moses, and He could convey the message to them).

28 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, when you spoke unto me; and the LORD said unto me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken unto you: they have well said all that they have spoken (the Lord approved of what Israel had requested, because they expressed a proper reverence and a due sense on their part of the unworthiness of sinful men to come into the Presence of the Great and Holy God).

29 O that there were such an heart in them, that they would fear Me, and keep all My Commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever! (God looks upon the heart, and will accept no service or worship that is not rendered from the heart.)

30 Go say to them, Get you into your tents again (this was at the time of the giving of the Law at Mount Sinai).

31 But as for you (Moses), you stand here by Me, and I will speak unto you all the Commandments, and the Statutes, and the Judgments, which you shall teach them, that they may do them in the land which I give them to possess it.

32 You shall observe to do therefore as the LORD your God has commanded you: you shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

33 You shall walk in all the ways which the LORD your God has commanded you, that you may live, and that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which you shall possess. (All of this is of extreme significance, in that these people were raised up for the purpose of serving, one might say, as the womb of the Messiah, and to whom the Word of God would be given; consequently, all of this pertains to our Salvation. When we read these Old Testament accounts, we should understand that each happening brings us a few steps closer to the Redemption we now possess in Christ. Understanding it in that fashion makes it much more important — actually, the single most important thing in the world.)

CHAPTER 6

(1451 B.C.)

THE GREAT COMMANDMENT

[1] Now these are the Commandments, the Statutes, and the Judgments, which the LORD your God commanded to teach you, that you might do them in the land where you go to possess it (the prosperity of Israel, and the Blessings of the Lord upon the "land," and in every capacity, had to do with Israel understanding and obeying the Law; it is the same with us presently as it regards obeying the Word of God):

[2] That you might fear the LORD your God, to keep all His Statutes and His Commandments, which I command you, you, and your son, and your son's son, all the days of your life; and that your days may be prolonged (the "fear" mentioned here is not a slavish fear, but rather a fear of the Lord in respect to disobeying Him, and of that to which such disobedience would lead).

[3] Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe to do it; that it may be well with you, and that you may increase mightily, as the LORD God of your fathers has promised you, in the land that flows with milk and honey (to do the best they could to obey the Law; the Lord promised that it would go well with them, and that they would be greatly blessed; the word "blessing" actually refers to "increase"; so Israel's increase depended upon her obedience to the Lord).

[4] Hear, O Israel: the LORD our God is one LORD (there are two Hebrew words for the English word "one"; the first means a single or only one; the second, a compound unity; it is the second that is used in this Verse; so this Verse implies the Trinity):

[5] And you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might (Jesus quoted this Verse in Matthew 22:37).

DUTIES OF PARENTS

6 And these words, which I command you this day, shall be in your heart (Alexander says, "Where true love to God exists in the heart, it will manifest itself in a regard to His Will, and in the diligent keeping of His Commandments"; the Believer can keep the Commandments of the Lord only by understanding that Christ is the Source, while the Cross is the Means; when our Faith is anchored exclusively in Christ and His Cross, the Holy Spirit will keep the Commandments through us)**:

7 And you shall teach them diligently unto your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up (the Word of God must be the criteria for all things; the command given then has not changed, it is the same presently).

8 And you shall bind them for a sign upon your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes (the Israelites took this literally, and made phylacteries, putting them on their foreheads and their wrists; it was a small boxlike affair, containing a thin piece of leather on which were inscribed one or more Passages of Scripture; unfortunately, the Jews made a ritual of such, doing it more for show than anything else [Mat. 23:5]).

9 And you shall write them upon the posts of your house, and on your gates (the Word of God was to ever be before Israel, and in every capacity).

DISOBEDIENCE

10 And it shall be, when the LORD your God shall have brought you into the land which He swore unto your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give you great and goodly cities, which you built not,

11 And houses full of all good things, which you filled not, and wells

digged, which you dug not, vineyards and olive trees, which you planted not; when you shall have eaten and be full;

[12] Then beware lest you forget the LORD, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage (prosperity often occasions forgetfulness of God).

[13] You shall fear the LORD your God, and serve Him, and shall swear by His Name (refers to worship).

[14] You shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the people which are round about you (the command still holds for modern Believers [II Cor. 6:14-18])**;

[15] (For the LORD your God is a jealous God among you) lest the anger of the LORD your God be kindled against you, and destroy you from off the face of the Earth (God cannot abide sin in His Own, any more than in the world; in fact, He can abide it, much less in His Own; He is "jealous" of anything in the life of any Believer which is not wholly according to the Word of God).

[16] You shall not tempt the LORD your God, as you tempted Him in Massah (the Lord quoted this Verse to Satan in the temptation in the Wilderness).

[17] You shall diligently keep the Commandments of the LORD your God, and His Testimonies, and His Statutes, which He has commanded you (Jesus said the same thing in John 14:15; as stated, this can only be done by Christ living this life through us, which He does according to our Faith anchored in Himself and the Cross, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work in our lives; then, and only then, will the Commandments be kept [Gal. 2:20-21; Rom. 8:1-2, 11]).

[18] And you shall do that which is right and good in the sight of the LORD: that it may be well with you, and that you may go in and possess the good land which the LORD swore unto your fathers,

19 To cast out all your enemies from before you, as the LORD has spoken. (The Lord working thusly for Israel was predicated solely upon them keeping the Law. Being unable to do so, they were at least to try, and then fall back on the Sacrificial System, which pointed to the One Who was to come. Unfortunately, Israel tried to obtain Righteousness by keeping the Law, with a dependence on self instead of the Lord [Rom. 10:3-4].)

THE CHILDREN

20 And when your son asks you in time to come, saying, What mean the Testimonies, and the Statutes, and the Judgments, which the LORD our God has commanded you?

21 Then you shall say unto your son, We were Pharaoh's bondmen in Egypt; and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand:

22 And the LORD showed signs and wonders, great and sore, upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his household, before our eyes:

23 And He brought us out from thence, that He might bring us in, to give us the land which He swore unto our fathers. (This was to be told repeatedly and, as well, so is our conversion to be told repeatedly.)

24 And the LORD commanded us to do all these Statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our good always, that He might preserve us alive, as it is at this day.

25 And it shall be our Righteousness, if we observe to do all these Commandments before the LORD our God, as He has commanded us. (As stated, Israel had to try; however, no man except Christ was fully able to keep the Law; consequently, they were to fall back on the Sacrificial System, and what it represented, namely Christ and the Cross. Righteousness has never come to anyone except by Faith, and that refers to Faith in Christ [Gen. 15:6]. Unfortunately, Israel attempted to attain to Righteousness by the simple fact of their effort to keep the Commandments, which meant that their faith was in themselves instead of the Lord. The modern Church has the same problem.)

CHAPTER 7

(1451 B.C.)

SEPARATION

[1] When the LORD your God shall bring you into the land where you go to possess it, and has cast out many nations before you, the Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than you (the Lord could easily have destroyed these nations, exactly as He did Sodom and Gomorrah, etc., but He deemed it desirable that Israel dispel them in order that Israel might learn trust and faith; faith comes by hearing the Word; however, faith put to practice can only come about by experience; it is the same with us presently; the Holy Spirit "helps us," which means that we have a part to play ourselves; that part is Faith in Christ and the Cross [Rom. 8:26])**;

[2] And when the LORD your God shall deliver them before you; you shall smite them, and utterly destroy them; you shall make no covenant with them, nor show mercy unto them (the wickedness of these Tribes had reached such a state that there was nothing left but extermination; but God made that decision, not man, even though man was the instrument in carrying it out; likewise, anything and everything in our lives which isn't Christlike must be "smitten" and "destroyed")**:

[3] Neither shall you make marriages with them; your daughter you shall not give unto his son, nor his daughter shall you take unto your son.

[4] For they will turn away your son from following Me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and destroy you suddenly. (When we join the world, thinking to win the world, the world instead wins us. The unredeemed are brought to the Lord God's Way. Any other way has the opposite effect. God's Way is the Word being preached and anointed by the Spirit, with conviction seizing the heart of the unredeemed [Jn. 16:7-14; I Cor. 2:2.])

5 But thus shall you deal with them; you shall destroy their altars, and break down their images, and cut down their groves, and burn their graven images with fire (there can be no compromise with sin).

6 For you are an holy people unto the LORD your God: the LORD your God has chosen you to be a special people unto Himself, above all people who are upon the face of the Earth (Israel, God's chosen People!).

ISRAEL

7 The LORD did not set His Love upon you, nor choose you because you were more in number than any people; for you were the fewest of all people (in fact, the entirety of the line had begun with Abraham and Sarah):

8 But because the LORD loved you, and because He would keep the oath which He had sworn unto your fathers (Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob), has the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt (God loved Israel, and all He asked in return was that they love Him; it is the same presently with Believers!).

9 Know therefore that the LORD your God, He is God, the Faithful God, which keeps covenant and mercy with them who love Him and keep His Commandments to a thousand generations (God has never broken His Covenants, and never will break His Covenants; it is man who breaks the Covenants);

10 And repays them who hate Him to their face, to destroy them: He will not be slack to him who hates Him, He will repay him to his face (Israel is warned again against disobedience; if they come to the place that they "hate" the Lord, destruction is sure; and that's exactly what happened!).

OBEDIENCE

[11] You shall therefore keep the Commandments, and the Statutes, and the Judgments, which I command you this day, to do them. (The Law of Moses, which was really the Law of God, was hands-down the fairest legislation the world had ever known. In fact, it was the only legislation that had come strictly from God, and not at all from man. As a result, the fact of having this Law put Israel far ahead of the surrounding nations or, in fact, any nation in the world.)

[12] Wherefore it shall come to pass, if you hearken to these Judgments, and keep, and do them, that the LORD your God shall keep unto you the Covenant and the Mercy which He swore unto your fathers:

[13] And He will love you, and bless you, and multiply you: He will also bless the fruit of your womb, and the fruit of your land, your corn, and your wine, and your oil, the increase of your cattle, and the flocks of your sheep, in the land which He swore unto your fathers to give you.

[14] You shall be blessed above all people: there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle.

[15] And the LORD will take away from you all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which you know, upon you; but will lay them upon all them who hate you. (However, we must remember that all of these blessings are conditional, even as blessings now are conditional. The condition is obedience.)

[16] And you shall consume all the people which the LORD your God shall deliver you; your eye shall have no pity upon them: neither shall you serve their gods; for that will be a snare unto you (the world is a snare to many Christians presently).

[17] If you shall say in your heart, These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them?

[18] You shall not be afraid of them: but shall well remember what the LORD your God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all Egypt (we should remember and recount the great Blessings of the Lord concerning the past, which will give us faith for the present and for the future);

[19] The great temptations which your eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty Hand, and the stretched out Arm, whereby the LORD your God brought you out: so shall the LORD your God do unto all the people of whom you are afraid (in other words, you don't have to be afraid; the Lord is with you!).

[20] Moreover the LORD your God will send the hornet among them, until they who are left, and hide themselves from you, be destroyed (God has all of Creation at His disposal, which He may use at any time, even something as lowly as a "hornet").

[21] You shall not be affrighted at them: for the LORD your God is among you, a mighty God and terrible (whatever the enemy has or is, God is greater!).

[22] And the LORD your God will put out those nations before you by little and little: you may not consume them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon you (likewise, Sanctification is of the same process; little by little, the works of the flesh fall by the wayside, or at least that's the way it ought to be).

[23] But the LORD your God shall deliver them unto you, and shall destroy them with a mighty destruction, until they be destroyed (faith exercised on the part of God's people guarantees the mighty Power of God evidenced on our behalf).

[24] And He shall deliver their kings into your hand, and you shall destroy their name from under heaven: there shall no man be able to stand before you, until you have destroyed them (but, once again, there were conditions).

[25] The graven images of their gods shall you burn with fire: you shall not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto you, lest you be snared therein: for it is an abomination to the LORD your God (unfortunately, idolatry is still alive and well, and comes in many forms; in fact, religion is the worst idolatry of all!).

26 Neither shall you bring an abomination into your house, lest you be a cursed thing like it: but you shall utterly detest it, and you shall utterly abhor it; for it is a cursed thing (idols or parts of idols; all such were cursed by God, which means they were devoted to destruction).

CHAPTER 8

(1451 B.C.)

MERCY

[1] All the Commandments which I command you this day shall you observe to do, that you may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD swore unto your fathers.

[2] And you shall remember all the way which the LORD your God led you these forty years in the wilderness, to humble you, and to prove you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep His Commandments, or no. (With the Believer, everything is a test. How will we act? How will we react?)

[3] And He humbled you, and suffered you to hunger, and fed you with Manna, which you knew not, neither did your fathers know; that He might make you know that man does not live by bread only, but by every word that proceeds out of the Mouth of the LORD does man live. (These very words were uttered by Christ to Satan regarding the temptation in the wilderness [Mat. 4:4]. Every "Word" in the Bible is important. We must as well understand that the Bible is the Word of God, which means that it doesn't merely contain the Word of God.)

[4] Your raiment waxed not old upon you, neither did your foot swell, these forty years (this means that God supernaturally caused their clothing to last for forty years, as well as their shoes; what a miracle!).

[5] You shall also consider in your heart, that, as a man chastens his son, so the LORD your God chastens you (in fact, if the Lord doesn't chasten us, this means we aren't His Child [Heb. 12:8]).

[6] Therefore you shall keep the Commandments of the LORD your God, to walk in His Ways, and to fear Him (we are to walk in His Ways, and not our ways).

CANAAN

[7] For the LORD your God brings you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills;

[8] A land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of oil olive, and honey;

[9] A land wherein you shall eat bread without scarceness, you shall not lack any thing in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you may dig brass (copper).

WARNINGS

[10] When you have eaten and are full, then you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land which He has given you.

[11] Beware that you forget not the LORD your God, in not keeping His Commandments, and His Judgments, and His Statutes, which I command you this day:

[12] Lest when you have eaten and are full, and have built goodly houses, and dwelt therein;

[13] And when your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold is multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied;

[14] Then your heart be lifted up, and you forget the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage;

[15] Who led you through that great and terrible wilderness, wherein were fiery serpents, and scorpions, and drought, where there was no water;

Who brought you forth water out of the Rock of flint;

16 Who fed you in the wilderness with Manna, which your fathers knew not, that He might humble you, and that He might prove you, to do you good at your latter end;

17 And you say in your heart, My Power and the might of My Hand have gotten me this wealth.

18 But you shall remember the LORD your God: for it is He Who gives you power to get wealth, that He may establish His Covenant which He swore unto your fathers, as it is this day. (Williams says, "They were to be watchful lest prosperity caused them to forget the Redeemer Who delivered them from the bondage of Egypt; and they were to guard against thinking that their prosperity was due to their own intelligence and power.")

19 And it shall be, if you do at all forget the LORD your God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify against you this day that you shall surely perish.

20 As the nations which the LORD destroyed before your face, so shall you perish; because you would not be obedient unto the Voice of the LORD your God. (In effect, and clearly so, the Lord is saying, as He destroyed the heathen nations and gave their land to the Children of Israel, if Israel turned her back upon Him, He would destroy them as well; and that's exactly what happened!)

CHAPTER 9

(1451 B.C.)

THE LAND PROMISED TO ISRAEL

[1] Hear, O Israel: You are to pass over Jordan this day, to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than yourself, cities great and fenced up to heaven,

[2] A people great and tall, the children of the Anakims, whom you know, and of whom you have heard say, Who can stand before the children of Anak! (Without the Lord, there was no way that Israel could have taken the land of Canaan. But with the Lord, they could do all things.)

[3] Understand therefore this day, that the LORD your God is He which goes over before you; as a consuming fire He shall destroy them, and He shall bring them down before your face: so shall you drive them out, and destroy them quickly, as the LORD has said unto you.

[4] Speak not thou in your heart, after that the LORD your God has cast them out from before you, saying, For my righteousness the LORD has brought me in to possess this land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD does drive them out from before you (it wasn't because Israel was so good that these nations were driven out, but simply because the pagans were so wicked).

[5] Not for your righteousness, or for the uprightness of your heart, do you go to possess their land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD your God does drive them out from before you, and that He may perform the word which the LORD swore unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (Gen. 15:16).

ISRAEL'S FAILURE AND REBELLION

6 Understand therefore, that the LORD your God gives you not this good land to possess it for your righteousness; for you are a stiffnecked people.

7 Remember, and forget not, how you provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that you did depart out of the land of Egypt, until you came unto this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD. (Many blessings are promised here, but promised not at all because of the righteousness of Israel. The truth was, they were stiffnecked and rebellious. But God loved them just the same, and sought, again and again, to bless them.)

8 Also in Horeb you provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you to have destroyed you (Ex. 32:9-10).

9 When I was gone up into the Mount to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the Covenant which the LORD made with you, then I abode in the Mount forty days and forty nights, I neither did eat bread nor drink water:

10 And the LORD delivered unto me two tables of stone written with the Finger of God; and on them was written according to all the words, which the LORD spoke with you in the Mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly (the Ten Commandments [Ex., Chpt. 20]).

11 And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the Covenant.

12 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, get thee down quickly from hence; for your people which you have brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they are quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image (the golden calf [Ex., Chpt. 32]).

13 Furthermore the LORD spoke unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people:

14 Let Me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under heaven: and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.

15 So I turned and came down from the Mount, and the Mount burned with fire: and the two tables of the Covenant were in my two hands.

16 And I looked, and, behold, you had sinned against the LORD your God, and had made you a molten calf: you had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you.

17 And I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and broke them before your eyes (there is no record that the Lord reprimanded Moses for this act).

18 And I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread, nor drink water, because of all your sins which you sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.

19 For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, wherewith the LORD was angry against you to destroy you. But the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also (Moses pleaded for the Lord to spare Israel [Ex. 32:31-35]).

20 And the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time (the evidence here is that the Lord would have killed Aaron had not Moses interceded for him).

21 And I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even until it was small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descends out of the Mount.

22 And at Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah, you provoked the LORD to wrath (Num. 11:1-3).

23 Likewise when the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then you rebelled against the Commandment of the LORD your God, and you believed Him not, nor hearkened to His Voice (Num. 13:17-33; 14:1-45]).

[24] You have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you.

INTERCESSION

[25] Thus I fell down before the LORD forty days and forty nights, as I fell down at the first; because the LORD had said He would destroy you.

[26] I prayed therefore unto the LORD, and said, O LORD God, destroy not Your People and Your Inheritance, which You have redeemed through Your Greatness, which You have brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty Hand.

[27] Remember Your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not unto the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin (Moses served as a mediator between God and Israel):

[28] Lest the land whence You brought us out say, Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which He promised them, and because He hated them, He has brought them out to slay them in the wilderness.

[29] Yet they are Your People and Your Inheritance, which You brought out by Your mighty Power and by Your stretched out Arm.

CHAPTER 10

(1491 B.C.)

THE TABLES OF STONE

[1] At that time the LORD said unto me, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto Me into the Mount, and make thee an Ark of wood (the Ark of the Covenant).

[2] And I will write on the tables the words that were in the first tables which you broke, and you shall put them in the Ark.

[3] And I made an Ark of shittim wood, and hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and went up into the Mount, having the two tables in my hand.

[4] And He wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the Ten Commandments, which the LORD spoke unto you in the Mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the Assembly: and the LORD gave them unto me. (The Ten Commandments, when investigated thoroughly, are found to be the foundation of all sensible law in the world and, in fact, ever have been. When a nation strays from its concepts, sooner or later, that nation begins to pay the price.)

[5] And I turned myself and came down from the Mount, and put the tables in the Ark which I had made; and there they be, as the LORD commanded me.

[6] And the Children of Israel took their journey from Beeroth of the children of Jaakan to Mosera: there Aaron died, and there he was buried: and Eleazar his son ministered in the Priest's office in his stead (the office of the High Priest).

[7] From thence they journeyed unto Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbath, a land of rivers of waters.

8 At that time the LORD separated the Tribe of Levi, to bear the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister unto Him, and to bless in His Name, unto this day (the appointment of the Tribe of Levi for service took place in connection with that of Aaron and his sons to the Priesthood [Num. 3:4]).

9 Wherefore Levi has no part nor inheritance with his brethren; the LORD is his Inheritance, according as the LORD your God promised him.

10 And I stayed in the Mount, according to the first time, forty days and forty nights; and the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also, and the LORD would not destroy you.

11 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, take your journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land, which I swore unto their fathers to give unto them.

THE EXHORTATION

12 And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all His Ways, and to love Him, and to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul,

13 To keep the Commandments of the LORD, and His Statutes, which I command you this day for your good? (God had shown great favor to Israel. What return did He require? Only that they would fear Him, love Him, and obey Him.)

14 Behold, the heaven and the heaven of heavens is the LORD's your God, the Earth also, with all that therein is (the Lord is the Creator of all things).

15 Only the LORD had a delight in your fathers to love them, and He chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day (meaning that Israel was honored more than any other people on the face of the Earth).

16 Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiffnecked (they were to humble their heart before God).

17 For the LORD your God is God of gods, and LORD of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible, which regards not persons, nor takes reward (the Lord is the complex and sum of all that is Divine):

18 He does execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loves the stranger, in giving him food and raiment (the Lord vindicates the right of the defenseless, if they will only look to Him [Ps. 68:6; 146:9]).

19 Love ye therefore the stranger: for you were strangers in the land of Egypt (Israel knew what it was to be a stranger in a strange land; so they were to reciprocate with strangers, and even at the command of the Lord).

20 You shall fear the LORD your God; Him shall you serve, and to Him shall you cleave, and swear by His Name (the last phrase refers to praising the Lord).

21 He is your praise, and He is your God, Who has done for you these great and terrible things, which your eyes have seen.

22 Your fathers went down into Egypt with threescore and ten persons (70 people); and now the LORD your God has made you as the stars of heaven for multitude (Gen. 15:5).

CHAPTER 11

(1491 B.C.)

GREATNESS OF THE LORD

[1] Therefore you shall love the LORD your God, and keep His Charge, and His Statutes, and His Judgments, and His Commandments, always.

[2] And know ye this day: for I speak not with your children which have not known, and which have not seen the chastisement of the LORD your God, His Greatness, His mighty Hand, and His stretched out Arm,

[3] And His Miracles, and His Acts, which He did in the midst of Egypt unto Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and unto all his land;

[4] And what He did unto the army of Egypt, unto their horses, and to their chariots; how He made the water of the Red Sea to overflow them as they pursued after you, and how the LORD has destroyed them unto this day (the Red Sea opening, and the defeat of the Egyptian army, which was in hot pursuit after Israel, with the water closing over them, was one of the greatest miracles the world has ever known; forty years later, the Holy Spirit through Moses declares that Egypt still had not yet recovered);

[5] And what He did unto you in the wilderness, until you came into this place;

[6] And what He did unto Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben: how the Earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the substance that was in their possession, in the midst of all Israel:

[7] But your eyes have seen all the great Acts of the LORD which He did (so they knew the Power of God, and had witnessed it firsthand).

8 Therefore shall you keep all the Commandments which I command you this day, that you may be strong, and go in and possess the land, where you go to possess it;

9 And that you may prolong your days in the land, which the LORD swore unto your fathers to give unto them and to their seed, a land that flows with milk and honey.

DESCRIPTION

10 For the land, where you go in to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence you came out, where you sowed your seed, and watered it with your foot, as a garden of herbs (countries in those days, and in that part of the world, irrigated their crops by pumping an apparatus with the foot, which pumped the water; to say the least, it was a difficult task)**:

11 But the land, where you go to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, and drinks water of the rain of heaven:

12 A land which the LORD your God cares for: the eyes of the LORD your God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year even unto the end of the year (a land on which Jehovah's regard was continually fixed, over which He watched with unceasing care, and which was sustained by His bounty; a land, therefore, wholly dependent on Him, and so a fitting place for a people also wholly dependent on Him, who owed to His Grace all that they were and had).

CONDITIONS

13 And it shall come to pass, if you shall hearken diligently unto My Commandments which I command you this day, to love the LORD your God, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul,

14 That I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your corn, and your wine, and your oil.

15 And I will send grass in your fields for your cattle, that you may eat and be full (the Lord was the Author of all Blessings, as He is still the Author of all Blessings).

16 Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and you turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them (regrettably, this is exactly what Israel ultimately did);

17 And then the LORD's wrath be kindled against you, and He shut up the heaven, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and lest you perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD gives you (as is overly obvious, the Lord could turn it on, and He could turn it off; the blessing depended on obedience).

18 Therefore shall you lay up these My words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes (phylacteries).

19 And you shall teach them your children, speaking of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up (the Word of the Lord was to be on the lips of all of God's people all of the time; it should be the same presently as well).

20 And you shall write them upon the door posts of your house, and upon your gates (this signified that their blessings were due to the Word of God):

21 That your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the LORD swore unto your fathers to give them, as the days of heaven upon the Earth (the world has tried repeatedly to duplicate this, but all to no avail; only the Lord can make it "Heaven on Earth").

22 For if you shall diligently keep all these Commandments which I command you, to do them, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His Ways, and to cleave unto Him;

23 Then will the LORD drive out all these nations from before you, and you shall possess greater nations and mightier than yourselves (all because of the help of the Lord).

[24] Every place whereon the soles of your feet shall tread shall be yours (respecting the area of which the Lord had promised them): from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even unto the uttermost sea (the Mediterranean) shall your coast be.

[25] There shall no man be able to stand before you: for the LORD your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that you shall tread upon, as He has said unto you.

A BLESSING AND A CURSE

[26] Behold, I set before you this day a Blessing and a curse (Jesus took the penalty of the curse upon Himself, all on our behalf [Gal. 3:13])**;

[27] A blessing, if you obey the Commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day:

[28] And a curse, if you will not obey the Commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which you have not known (regrettably, this is exactly what Israel did; but, as stated, Jesus, on the Cross, took the penalty of the broken law upon Himself, at least for all who will believe [Jn. 3:16]).

[29] And it shall come to pass, when the LORD your God has brought you in unto the land whither you go to possess it, that you shall put the blessing upon Mount Gerizim (called the Mount of Blessing), and the curse upon Mount Ebal (called the Mount of evil. The two mountains named stand opposite to each other, with a valley between, about two hundred yards broad at the widest part, in which stood the town of Shechem. They were selected for the purpose mentioned, doubtless, because of their relative position, and probably also because they stand in the center of the land, both from north to south, and from east to west. Incidentally, Gerizim, the Mount of Blessing, was, and is, fertile and smooth. Ebal is the opposite, barren and rugged. As stated, they make excellent object lessons, which the Lord intended).

30 Are they not on the other side Jordan, by the way where the sun goes down, in the land of the Canaanites, which dwell in the champaign over against Gilgal, beside the plains of Moreh?

31 For you shall pass over Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God gives you, and you shall possess it, and dwell therein.

32 And you shall observe to do all the Statutes and Judgments which I set before you this day.

CHAPTER 12

(1451 B.C.)

DESTROY IDOL WORSHIP

[1] These are the Statutes and Judgments, which you shall observe to do in the land, which the LORD God of your fathers gives you to possess it, all the days that you live upon the Earth.

[2] You shall utterly destroy all the places, wherein the nations which you shall possess served their gods, upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every green tree (all places of idol worship, wherever they were found, were to be totally and completely destroyed, when Israel entered the land):

[3] And you shall overthrow their altars, and break their pillars, and burn their groves with fire; and you shall hew down the graven images of their gods, and destroy the names of them out of that place (they were to utterly destroy everything having even a remote connection with idolatry).

[4] You shall not do so unto the LORD your God (Israel was not to build altars, as did the heathen, but was to have one designated place).

ONE PLACE OF SACRIFICE

[5] But unto the place which the LORD your God shall choose out of all your Tribes to put His Name there, even unto His habitation shall you seek, and there you shall come (the one center for national worship foreshadowed Calvary, to which, in spirit, all must go in order to meet God, and worship Him; one center for worship secured purity of doctrine and national unity):

[6] And there you shall bring your Burnt Offerings, and your Sacrifices, and your Tithes, and Heave Offerings of your hand, and your Vows, and your Freewill Offerings, and the firstlings of your herds and of your flocks:

[7] And there you shall eat before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice in all that you put your hand unto, you and your households, wherein the LORD your God has blessed you (if it is to be noticed, the Lord, at this time, did not tell Israel as to where that place would be).

[8] You shall not do after all the things that we do here this day, every man whatsoever is right in his own eyes.

[9] For you are not as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance, which the LORD your God gives you (upon entering Canaan, the Lord would bring about a more structured government, all based on the Law).

[10] But when you go over Jordan, and dwell in the land which the LORD your God gives you to inherit, and when He gives you rest from all your enemies round about, so that you dwell in safety;

[11] Then there shall be a place which the LORD your God shall choose to cause His Name to dwell there; there shall you bring all that I command you; your Burnt Offerings, and your Sacrifices, your Tithes, and the Heave Offering of your hand, and all your choice Vows which you vow unto the LORD:

[12] And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you, and your sons, and your daughters, and your menservants, and your maidservants, and the Levite that is within your gates; forasmuch as he has no part nor inheritance with you (all of this is repeatedly presented as a scene of rejoicing; even slaves were to have their share in the joy).

[13] Take heed to yourself that you offer not your Burnt Offerings in every place that you see:

[14] But in the place which the LORD shall choose in one of your Tribes, there you shall offer your Burnt Offerings, and there you shall do all that

I command you (while there were definitely set places in Israel where the Tabernacle was pitched, still, it was not until the Temple was built by Solomon that a permanent place was established, which was about 500 years from the time of Moses).

15 Notwithstanding you may kill and eat flesh in all your gates, whatsoever your soul does lust after, according to the Blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you: the unclean and the clean may eat thereof, as of the roebuck, and as of the hart (they could feel free to kill and eat that which they desired, but it must not be a Sacrifice).

16 Only you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour it upon the earth as water (the life of the flesh is in the blood; Jesus would shed His Blood in order to obtain Salvation for Adam's fallen race; consequently, the blood is never to be eaten, and is to be handled in a certain way, as proclaimed here).

HOLY THINGS

17 You may not eat within your gates the tithe of your corn, or of your wine, or of your oil, or the firstlings of your herds or of your flock, nor any of your vows which you vowed, nor your Freewill Offerings, or Heave Offering of your hand (these had to do with the Peace Offerings and such, or anything dedicated to the Lord)**:

18 But you must eat them before the LORD your God in the place which the LORD your God shall choose, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your manservant, and your maidservant, and the Levite that is within your gates: and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God in all that you put your hands unto. (The Lord would appoint a place, which would be where the Tabernacle was located, and then, later on, the Temple, which would be situated in Jerusalem. If the Offering entailed a feast, which all Peace Offerings did, then it must be eaten at the designated place. That place was where the Altar was, typifying Calvary. This tells us that all restoration, all fellowship, all rejoicing, in fact, all things which come from the Lord, are made possible by Christ, of which the Sacrifices typified, and the means is the Cross, typified by the Altar.)

19 Take heed to yourself that you forsake not the Levite as long as you live upon the Earth (the "Levites" tended the things of the Lord, without which the people could not approach God; in a sense, the fivefold Ministry presently serves in that capacity [Eph. 4:11-13]).

20 When the LORD your God shall enlarge your border, as He has promised you, and you shall say, I will eat flesh, because your soul longs to eat flesh; you may eat flesh, whatsoever your soul lusteth after (desires).

21 If the place which the LORD your God has chosen to put His Name there be too far from you, then you shall kill of your herd and of your flock, which the LORD has given you (all prosperity for the Believer is made possible solely by the Lord), as I have commanded you, and you shall eat in your gates whatsoever your soul lusts (seeks) after.

22 Even as the roebuck and the hart is eaten, so you shall eat them: the unclean and the clean shall eat of them alike (pertains to animals not offered in Sacrifice).

23 Only be sure that you eat not the blood: for the blood is the life; and you may not eat the life with the flesh. (Concerning this, Expositors say, "The Hebrew word used is 'nephesh.' By this word, the Hebrews designated the animal life-principle in men and in beasts; and as without this the body was a mere inert mass, the word came to be used for 'life' generally. Of this life the blood was believed to be the seat, and was regarded as the symbol, so that to shed blood was tantamount to the taking away of life. As the blood, moreover, was the life, in it was supposed to lie the propitiatory [satisfying] power — the power, when shed, of atoning for sin, as the giving of life for life.

"The prohibition of eating it doubtless had respect to this. It was not merely to prevent ferocity in men towards the lower animals that the eating of blood was interdicted, but specially because there was in this a sort of profanation, a putting to a common use of what appertained to a sacred rite.")

24 You shall not eat it; you shall pour it upon the Earth as water.

25 You shall not eat it; that it may go well with you, and with your children after you, when you shall do that which is right in the sight of the LORD.

26 Only your holy things which you have, and your vows, you shall take, and go unto the place which the LORD shall choose:

27 And you shall offer your Burnt Offerings, the flesh and the blood, upon the Altar of the LORD your God: and the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out upon the Altar of the LORD your God, and you shall eat the flesh. (This Scripture points to the fact as to why the blood is so sacred. The "Altar" represented the Cross, and the "blood" typified the poured out Life of the Son of God, Who would give Himself for the Redemption of humanity. Original sin passes down to man through the blood, which is the life of the flesh; consequently, the entirety of the human race is polluted and sick with sin. The only remedy, and thank God there is a remedy, is the shed Blood of Jesus Christ, Whose Blood was Perfect, because He was not born of natural procreation, but was conceived in the womb of Mary by the decree of the Holy Spirit; as well, He lived a Perfect, unsullied, unspotted Life, totally without sin. Therefore, He could go to the Cross as a Perfect Sacrifice, and when His Blood was shed, it atoned for all sin, past, present, and future, at least for all who will believe [Eph. 2:13-18].)

28 Observe and hear all these words which I command you, that it may go well with you, and with your children after you for ever, when you do that which is good and right in the sight of the LORD your God (the Lord required obedience).

29 When the LORD your God shall cut off the nations from before you, where you go to possess them, and you succeed them, and dwell in their land;

30 Take heed to yourself that you be not snared by following them, after that they be destroyed from before you; and that you enquire not after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? even so will I do likewise (don't emulate the heathen and, as well, we presently are not to emulate the world).

31 You shall not do so unto the LORD your God: for every abomination to the LORD, which He hates, have they done unto their gods; for even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods (human sacrifices).

32 What thing soever I command you, observe to do it: you shall not add thereto, nor diminish from it (don't add to My Word, or take from My Word).

CHAPTER 13

(1451 B.C.)

FALSE PROPHETS

[1] If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and gives you a sign or a wonder,

[2] And the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spoke unto you, saying, Let us go after other gods, which you have not known, and let us serve them (no matter the signs or the wonders, if what is being said is not Scriptural, it must not be heeded);

[3] You shall not hearken unto the words of that Prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the LORD your God proves you, to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul. (The Lord allows false preachers and false teachers to succeed for a while, in order to test His people. To be sure, He already knows what His people will do, or won't do. The test is for our benefit.)

[4] You shall walk after the LORD your God, and fear him, and keep His Commandments, and obey His Voice, and you shall serve Him, and cleave unto Him (the Lord and His Word alone are to be the Objects of our Faith, and not other things).

[5] And that Prophet, or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death; because he has spoken to turn you away from the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to thrust you out of the way which the LORD your God commanded you to walk in. So shall you put the evil away from the midst of you. (Presently, if God's people refuse to support such, the Ministry of false prophets would simply die. But unfortunately, most modern Christians so little know their Bible that they little know anymore what is right or wrong, true or false; therefore, most of the modern Church supports that which is not of God, which means it's of the Devil, thinking all the time they are supporting the Lord's Work.)

6 If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son, or your daughter, or the wife of your bosom, or your friend, which is as your own soul, entice you secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which you have not known, you, nor your fathers;

7 Namely, of the gods of the people which are round about you, near unto you, or far off from you, from the one end of the Earth even unto the other end of the Earth;

8 You shall not consent unto him, nor hearken unto him; neither shall your eye pity him, neither shall you spare, neither shall you conceal him:

9 But you shall surely kill him; your hand shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people.

10 And you shall stone him with stones, that he die; because he has sought to thrust you away from the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

11 And all Israel shall hear, and fear, and shall do no more any such wickedness as this is among you. (Stern measures were demanded, simply because the Nation was at stake. To be sure, Satan would use the tactic of false prophets graphically so to try to turn Israel away from God. Ultimately, he would succeed. He is doing the same presently and, regrettably, succeeding admirably so! Satan is a master at making people believe that what is actually of God, isn't, and what isn't of God, is!)

IDOLATROUS CITIES

12 If you shall hear say in one of your cities, which the LORD your God has given you to dwell there, saying,

13 Certain men, the children of Belial, are gone out from among you, and have withdrawn the inhabitants of their city, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which you have not known;

14 Then shall you enquire, and make search, and ask diligently; and, behold, if it be truth, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought among you;

15 You shall surely smite the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it utterly, and all that is therein, and the cattle thereof, with the edge of the sword.

16 And you shall gather all the spoil of it into the midst of the street thereof, and shall burn with fire the city, and all the spoil thereof every whit, for the LORD your God: and it shall be an heap for ever; it shall not be built again (everything that false doctrine touches is soiled and polluted, spiritually speaking).

17 And there shall cleave nought of the cursed thing to your hand: that the LORD may turn from the fierceness of His anger, and show you mercy, and have compassion upon you, and multiply you, as He has sworn unto your fathers;

18 When you shall hearken to the Voice of the LORD your God, to keep all His Commandments which I command you this day, to do that which is right in the eyes of the LORD your God. (Every trace of idol worship was to be utterly destroyed; for what men do not see does not tempt them so powerfully as what they do see.)

CHAPTER 14

(1451 B.C.)

CLEAN AND UNCLEAN FOOD

1 You are the children of the LORD your God: you shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead (the heathen did this).

2 For you are an holy people unto the LORD your God, and the LORD has chosen you to be a peculiar people unto Himself, above all the nations that are upon the Earth (Israel was to receive the Word of the Lord from Jehovah and give it to the world; as well, they were to be the womb of the Messiah, hence all the restrictions — and all the restrictions were done for purpose and reason, which, if violated, would hinder Israel's very purpose).

3 You shall not eat any abominable thing.

4 These are the beasts which you shall eat: the ox, the sheep, and the goat,

5 The hart, and the roebuck, and the fallow deer, and the wild goat, and the pygarg (antelope), and the wild ox, and the chamois (wild sheep).

6 And every beast that parts the hoof, and cleaves the cleft into two claws, and chews the cud among the beasts, that you shall eat.

7 Nevertheless these you shall not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the cloven hoof; as the camel, and the hare, and the coney: for they chew the cud, but divide not the hoof; therefore they are unclean unto you.

8 And the swine (hogs), because it divides the hoof, yet chews not the cud, it is unclean unto you: you shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcase.

9 These you shall eat of all that are in the waters: all that have fins and scales shall you eat:

10 And whatsoever has not fins and scales you may not eat; it is unclean unto you.

11 Of all clean birds you shall eat.

12 But these are they of which you shall not eat: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospray,

13 And the glede, and the kite, and the vulture after his kind,

14 And every raven after his kind,

15 And the owl, and the night hawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after his kind,

16 The little owl, and the great owl, and the swan,

17 And the pelican, and the gier eagle, and the cormorant,

18 And the stork, and the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.

19 And every creeping thing that flies is unclean unto you: they shall not be eaten.

20 But of all clean fowls you may eat.

21 You shall not eat of anything that dies of itself: you shall give it unto the stranger that is in your gates, that he may eat it; or you may sell it unto an alien (Gentile): for you are an holy people unto the LORD your God. You shall not seethe a kid (a baby lamb) in his mother's milk (for the reason that the "lamb" was more typical of Christ than any other of the animal kingdom [Jn. 1:29]; when Jesus went to the Cross, all of these particular rules regarding eating were concluded; this is proven in Acts, Chpt. 10, regarding the Vision given to Simon Peter).

TITHES

22 You shall truly tithe all the increase of your seed, that the field brings forth year by year. (Tithing means to give a tenth. The foundation for tithing was not given in the Law, but rather some 400 years earlier with Abraham. He paid tithe to Melchizedek, who was a Type of Christ [Gen. 14:19-20; Heb. 5:6]. All of us are children of Abraham [Gal. 3:7], so that means that tithing continues, even unto this hour. Inasmuch as Abraham paid tithe to Melchizedek, who was a Type of Christ, tithing continues even under the New Covenant. We are to pay tithe to help finance the Work of God, which is the same as paying them to Christ.)

23 And you shall eat before the LORD your God, in the place which He shall choose to place His Name there, the tithe of your corn, of your wine, and of your oil, and the firstlings of your herds and of your flocks; that you may learn to fear the LORD your God always.

24 And if the way be too long for you, so that you are not able to carry it; or if the place be too far from you, which the LORD your God shall choose to set His Name there, when the LORD your God has blessed you:

25 Then shall you turn it into money, and bind up the money in your hand, and shall go unto the place which the LORD your God shall choose *(if the Israelite lived a long distance from the Tabernacle or Temple, which means that he could not drive animals that distance, or take great amounts of wheat, etc., he was to sell the tenth, and then take the money to the Tabernacle, and purchase the animals there that were needed for sacrifice, etc.):

26 And you shall bestow that money for whatsoever your soul lusts after *(desires), for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatsoever your soul desires: and you shall eat there before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice, you, and your household,

27 And the Levite that is within your gates; you shall not forsake him; for he has no part nor inheritance with you.

28 At the end of three years you shall bring forth all the tithe of your increase the same year, and shall lay it up within your gates:

29 And the Levite, (because he has no part nor inheritance with you,) and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, which are within your gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfied; that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do. (The meaning of the third year is as follows: the tithe of the first and second years was to be eaten before the Lord at the Sanctuary. What was not used, and they only used a small part, the balance was given to the Sanctuary; the tithe of the third year was for the poor and needy, including the Levites.)

CHAPTER 15

(1451 B.C.)

SABBATICAL YEAR

[1] At the end of every seven years you shall make a release.

[2] And this is the manner of the release: Every creditor that lends ought unto his neighbour shall release it; he shall not exact it of his neighbour, or of his brother; because it is called the LORD's release. (This didn't mean that the debt was no longer owed, but only that the debtor on the seventh year was not to be pressed for payment. As during the Sabbatical year the land lay uncultivated, and the debtor consequently would earn nothing, it was reasonable that he should not then be pressed for payment. So, every loan took this seventh year into account.)

[3] Of a foreigner you may exact it again (meaning that this law did not apply to the foreigner): but that which is yours with your brother your hand shall release;

[4] Save when there shall be no poor among you; for the LORD shall greatly bless you in the land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance to possess it (the Lord wants to bless His People, that all poverty be erased; and if God's People will wholly follow Him, rendering obedience, it will be erased, because this is the Will of the Lord; this Fourth Verse says so!)**:

[5] Only if you carefully hearken unto the Voice of the LORD your God, to observe to do all these Commandments which I command you this day.

[6] For the LORD your God blesses you, as He promised you: and you shall lend unto many nations, but you shall not borrow; and you shall reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over you (in other words, if the Lord's People would carefully hearken unto the Lord, they would be the most blessed nation on Earth; that was God's intention, but, regrettably, Israel did the very opposite).

RELIEF FOR THE POOR

7 If there be among you a poor man of one of your brethren within any of your gates in your land which the LORD your God gives you, you shall not harden your heart, nor shut your hand from your poor brother *(despite the Promise of great Blessing, regrettably, many simply would not hearken unto the Voice of the Lord, but would rather hearken unto their own voice, or the voice of others; in one way or the other, poverty will always be the result):

8 But you shall open your hand wide unto him, and shall surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wants (faith-filled Believers are to be generous).

9 Beware that there be not a thought in your wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and your eye be evil against your poor brother, and you give him nought; and he cry unto the LORD against you, and it be sin unto you (in other words, don't take advantage of the seventh year to refuse to lend money to one in need, just because it's the sixth year; to conduct oneself in a greedy manner constitutes sin).

10 You shall surely give him, and your heart shall not be grieved when you give unto him: because that for this thing the LORD your God shall bless you in all your works, and in all that you put your hand unto (if those in Israel wanted the Blessings of the Lord, they must obey the Lord, seeking diligently to carry out His Word).

11 For the poor shall never cease out of the land *(despite the Promises of God, regrettably, some will not properly heed): therefore I command you, saying, You shall open your hand wide unto your brother, to your poor, and to your needy, in your land. (Israel's welfare program was the third year of tithing the produce of the entirety of the land, to be given to the poor and needy, along with the Levites. Not failing this and, as well, lending to those who were truly in need, one can readily see that the welfare program was generous.)

RELEASE OF SERVANTS

12 And if your brother, an Hebrew man, or an Hebrew woman, be sold unto you, and serve you six years; then in the seventh year you shall let him go free from you.

13 And when you send him out free from you, you shall not let him go away empty:

14 You shall furnish him liberally out of your flock, and out of your floor, and out of your winepress: of that wherewith the LORD your God has blessed you you shall give unto him.

15 And you shall remember that you were a bondman in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you: therefore I command you this thing to day. (The unchanging motive, perpetually repeated, why Israel should be compassionate to the needy and to strangers was the remembrance of their own bondage in Egypt and the Grace that delivered them from it. They were not to receive the Grace of God in vain; they were to show that Grace to others in order that no discredit should attach to their Redeemer's Name.)

16 And it shall be, if he say unto you, I will not go away from you; because he loves you and your house, because he is well with you *(in other words, the servant doesn't want to be set free, because he is being treated right, and desires to remain where he is);

17 Then you shall take an aul, and thrust it through his ear unto the door *(the doorframe), and he shall be your servant for ever *(but he does so voluntarily, and proven by the mark left by the aul). And also unto your maidservant you shall do likewise.

18 It shall not seem hard unto you, when you send him away free from you; for he has been worth a double hired servant to you, in serving you six years: and the LORD your God shall bless you in all that you do.

CONSECRATION OF THE FIRSTLINGS

19 All the firstling males that come of your herd and of your flock you shall sanctify unto the LORD your God: you shall do no work with the firstling of your bullock, nor shear the firstling of your sheep.

20 You shall eat it before the LORD your God year by year in the place which the LORD shall choose, you and your household. (The firstborn of the flock, whatever it might be, that is, if it is healthy, must not be used for commerce of any nature. It must be taken to the Sanctuary, and offered in Sacrifice, with that which wasn't needed given to the service of the Sanctuary.)

21 And if there be any blemish therein, as if it be lame, or blind, or have any ill blemish, you shall not sacrifice it unto the LORD your God.

22 You shall eat it within your gates: the unclean and the clean person shall eat it alike, as the roebuck, and as the hart (it can be used as common food).

23 Only you shall not eat the blood thereof; you shall pour it upon the ground as water (this law was given concerning the firstborn of animals as a portrayal of Christ, Who would be the "firstborn among many brethren," which referred to Him being the Author of all Salvation [Rom. 8:29]).

CHAPTER 16

(1451 B.C.)

THE PASSOVER

[1] Observe the month of Abib (our April), and keep the Passover unto the LORD your God: for in the month of Abib the LORD your God brought you forth out of Egypt by night (the Passover was to remind Israel and future generations of the great deliverance from Egypt, and that they were to never forget it).

[2] You shall therefore sacrifice the Passover unto the LORD your God, of the flock and the herd, in the place which the LORD shall choose to place His Name there (the greatest reason for the Passover was that it would serve as a Type of the coming Redeemer, Who would die on a Cross on this very day; in effect, Jesus was the Passover).

UNLEAVENED BREAD

[3] You shall eat no leavened bread with it; seven days shall you eat unleavened bread therewith, even the bread of affliction; for you came forth out of the land of Egypt in haste: that you may remember the day when you came forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life. (The Feast of Unleavened Bread began the day after Passover, and lasted seven days. Whatever it meant to the Jews then, its total meaning had reference to Christ and His Perfection, symbolized by the bread that was unleavened. "Leaven" is a type of fermentation.)

[4] And there shall be no leavened bread seen with you in all your coast seven days; neither shall there any thing of the flesh, which you sacrificed the first day at evening, remain all night until the morning.

[5] You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your gates, which the LORD your God gives you:

6 But at the place which the LORD your God shall choose to place His Name in, there you shall sacrifice the Passover at evening, at the going down of the sun, at the season that you came forth out of Egypt.

7 And you shall roast and eat it in the place which the LORD your God shall choose: and you shall turn in the morning, and go unto your tents.

8 Six days you shall eat unleavened bread: and on the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD your God: you shall do no work therein (symbolizing the fact that Salvation is by Grace through Faith, and not of works [Eph. 2:8-9]).

FEAST OF PENTECOST

9 Seven weeks shall you number unto you: begin to number the seven weeks from such time as you begin to put the sickle to the corn (wheat; there was no corn there as we think of such now; the Feast of Pentecost took place exactly 50 days after the Passover).

10 And you shall keep the Feast of Weeks unto the LORD your God with a tribute of a Freewill Offering of your hand, which you shall give unto the LORD your God, according as the LORD your God has blessed you (nothing is specifically prescribed; each was to give of his own freewill, as the Lord had prospered him):

11 And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your manservant, and your maidservant, and the Levite who is within your gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, who are among you, in the place which the LORD your God has chosen to place His Name there. (As to the Feasts, Williams says, "God surrounded Himself with joy, He invited His people to share that joy, and He urged them to bring the stranger and the needy into that joy. Christ and His fullness were pictured in these gladsome Feasts.

"But there was an interesting distinction between the joy of Pentecost and the joy of Tabernacles. The one was associated with redemption from Egypt, and its joy was to be joined with watchfulness. But the joy of Tabernacles was to be without care, for it foreshadowed the kingdom.")

[12] And you shall remember that you were a bondman in Egypt: and you shall observe and do these Statutes.

FEAST OF TABERNACLES

[13] You shall observe the Feast of Tabernacles seven days, after that you have gathered in your corn and your wine (this is a type of the coming Kingdom Age, when Christ will reign supreme over the entirety of the world):

[14] And you shall rejoice in your Feast, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your manservant, and your maidservant, and the Levite, the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, who are within your gates.

[15] Seven days shall you keep a solemn Feast unto the LORD your God in the place which the LORD shall choose: because the LORD your God shall bless you in all your increase, and in all the works of your hands, therefore you shall surely rejoice.

[16] Three times in a year shall all your males appear before the LORD your God in the place which He shall choose; in the Feast of Unleavened Bread (April), and in the Feast of Weeks (the first days of June), and in the Feast of Tabernacles (October): and they shall not appear before the LORD empty (must bring Sacrifices):

[17] Every man shall give as he is able, according to the Blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you.

LAWS OF JUSTICE

[18] Judges and Officers shall you make you in all your gates, which the LORD your God gives you, throughout your Tribes: and they shall judge the people with just judgment (no instruction is given as to the number of Judges and Officers, or as to the mode of appointing them).

[19] You shall not wrest judgment (do not render dishonest judgment); you shall not respect persons (whether rich or poor), neither take a gift (no bribery): for a gift does blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous.

[20] That which is altogether just shall you follow, that you may live, and inherit the land which the LORD your God gives you.

[21] Thou shall not plant thee a grove of any trees near unto the Altar of the LORD your God, which you shall make thee. (This was not the planting of trees, as we think of such, but rather the erecting of the "asherah." This was an idol of wood in the form of a pillar, usually placed by the side of the altars of Baal. It was the symbol of Astarte, the great Canaanitish goddess, the companion and revealer of Baal. Unspeakable orgies were also conducted at these sites.)

[22] Neither shall you set up any image; which the LORD your God hates (there must be nothing that lends toward idolatry).

CHAPTER 17

(1451 B.C.)

IMPERFECT SACRIFICES

[1] You shall not sacrifice unto the LORD your God any bullock, or sheep, wherein is blemish, or any evilfavouredness: for that is an abomination unto the LORD your God (the Sacrifices were meant to be Types of Christ; as such, they had to be perfect; otherwise, they were an insult to God, as would be obvious).

DEATH PENALTY

[2] If there be found among you, within any of your gates which the LORD your God gives you, man or woman, who has wrought wickedness in the sight of the LORD your God, in transgressing His Covenant,

[3] And has gone and served other gods, and worshipped them, either the sun, or moon, or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded;

[4] And it be told you, and you have heard of it, and enquired diligently, and, behold, it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought in Israel:

[5] Then shall you bring forth that man or that woman, which have committed that wicked thing, unto your gates, even that man or that woman, and shall stone them with stones, till they die (the land must be kept free from all idolatry; regrettably, Israel ultimately succumbed to this travesty).

[6] At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he who is worthy of death be put to death; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death (one eyewitness was not enough evidence, at least regarding the Law of Moses, to condemn a person to death; there must be two or three witnesses; an extremely high value was placed by the Lord on life).

[7] The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death (the two or three witnesses were to throw the first stones), and afterward the hands of all the people. So you shall put the evil away from among you.

SUPREME COURT

[8] If there arise a matter too hard for you in judgment, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy within your gates: then shall you arise, and get you up into the place which the LORD your God shall choose;

[9] And you shall come unto the Priests the Levites, and unto the Judge who shall be in those days, and enquire; and they shall show you the sentence of judgment (a declaration of what was legally right)**:

[10] And you shall do according to the sentence, which they of that place which the LORD shall choose shall show you; and you shall observe to do according to all that they inform you (matters of controversy were not to be decided independently of God, but, on the contrary, in direct connection with Him)**:

[11] According to the sentence of the law which they shall teach you, and according to the judgment which they shall tell you, you shall do: you shall not decline from the sentence which they shall show you, to the right hand, nor to the left (the law is to be observed).

DEATH FOR IRREVERENCE

[12] And the man who will do presumptuously, and will not hearken unto the Priest who stands to minister there before the LORD your God, or unto the Judge, even that man shall die: and you shall put away the evil from Israel (no one must take the law into their own hands).

[13] And all the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more presumptuously.

CHOICE OF A KING

[14] When you are come unto the land which the LORD your God gives you, and shall possess it, and shall dwell therein, and shall say, I will set a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me;

[15] You shall in any wise set him king over you, whom the LORD your God shall choose (the Lord must choose the king, not the people): one from among your brethren shall you set king over you: you may not set a stranger over you, which is not your brother (no one but a Jew could be king over Israel).

[16] But he shall not multiply horses to himself (in other words, the strength of the army of Israel was to be the Lord and not horses and chariots), nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses (don't look to Egypt, but look to the Lord): forasmuch as the LORD has said unto you, You shall henceforth return no more that way (this was at least one of the great sins of Israel, which occasioned their defeat at the hands of the Babylonians; they trusted in Egypt instead of the Lord [Jer. 37:5-10]).

[17] Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that his heart turn not away (evidently, Solomon did not heed these words): neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold (men who have great sums of money, or even nations, tend to trust in the money instead of God).

[18] And it shall be, when he sits upon the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write him a copy of this Law in a book out of that which is before the Priests the Levites (should Israel desire a king, he was to obey the instructions of Verses 14-20; he was, with his own hand, to write a copy of the Bible; he was to read it every day; he was to obey it; he was not to deviate from it in any particular)*:

19 And it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life: that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this Law and these Statutes, to do them (the modern Christian should heed these words, as well, making the Bible a part of his everyday life and study):

20 That his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he turn not aside from the Commandment, to the right hand, or to the left: to the end that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he, and his children, in the midst of Israel.

CHAPTER 18

PRIESTS AND LEVITES

[1] The Priests the Levites, and all the Tribe of Levi, shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel: they shall eat the Offerings of the LORD made by fire, and his inheritance. (Only one of the five Levitical Offerings was consumed wholly, which was the Burnt Offering. The other four Offerings were to be given to the Priests, with the exception of the fat and certain other things of the animal, which were to be burned on the Altar. If the people did what they should do, which means they should offer Sacrifices as they needed to, which was often, the Levites would then have sufficient maintenance; otherwise, not so!)

[2] Therefore shall they have no inheritance among their brethren: the LORD is their inheritance, as He has said unto them.

[3] And this shall be the Priest's due from the people, from them who offer a Sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep; and they shall give unto the Priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw (parts of the animal).

[4] The firstfruit also of your corn, of your wine, and of your oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep, shall you give him (a tenth of their crops were to go to the Priests and the Sanctuary, i.e., "firstfruit").

[5] For the LORD your God has chosen him out of all your Tribes, to stand to minister in the Name of the LORD, him and his sons for ever (continually until the Messiah would come, Who, by His Death on the Cross of Calvary, would bring to an end the necessity of Priests, and Sacrifices, etc.).

[6] And if a Levite come from any of your gates out of all Israel, where he sojourned, and come with all the desire of his mind unto the place which the LORD shall choose (only some of the Levites were engaged in the service of the Sanctuary; the rest lived in their towns throughout the country; if they should feel led of the Lord to go and serve at the Tabernacle or Temple, they should be accepted)**;

[7] Then he shall minister in the Name of the LORD his God, as all his brethren the Levites do, which stand there before the LORD.

[8] They shall have like portions to eat, beside that which comes of the sale of his patrimony (having sold his home; he should not be expected to use those funds, whatever they may have been, but should share in the Offerings brought, the same as the other Priests, or Levites)**.

PAGAN PRACTICES FORBIDDEN

[9] When you are come into the land which the LORD your God gives you, you shall not learn to do after the abominations of those nations (again and again, Israel was warned concerning this)**.

[10] There shall not be found among you any one who makes his son or his daughter to pass through the fire (human sacrifice), or who uses divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch,

[11] Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. (The last is one who professed to call up the dead, and from them to learn the secrets of the future. All of these things had to do with witchcraft, and were not at all to be a part of Israel, and for all the obvious reasons. Israel was to look to God, and never to these abominations.)

[12] For all who do these things are an abomination unto the LORD: and because of these abominations the LORD your God does drive them out from before you (in other words, this is at least part of the reason that these heathen tribes were driven from Canaan)**.

[13] You shall be perfect with the LORD your God (the word "perfect" means single-hearted, that is, pure from idolatry)**.

14 For these nations, which you shall possess, hearkened unto observers of times, and unto diviners: but as for you, the LORD your God has not suffered you so to do.

THE PROPHET MESSIAH

15 The LORD your God will raise up unto you a Prophet from the midst of you, of your brethren, like unto me; unto Him you shall hearken (that Prophet would be the Lord Jesus Christ);

16 According to all that you desired of the LORD your God in Horeb in the day of the Assembly, saying, Let me not hear again the Voice of the LORD my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I die not (the Holiness of God was more than Israel could stand).

17 And the LORD said unto me, They have well spoken that which they have spoken.

18 I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto you, and will put My Words in His Mouth; and He shall speak unto them all that I shall command Him. (All that Christ taught and the very words He used in His Teaching were from God. There was no misgiving in the Divine Mind as to that certitude. Seven times He asserted that all His Words and Statements were given to Him by God.)

19 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken unto My Words which He shall speak in My Name, I will require it of him. (Israel had to answer for their rejection of Christ. They would not heed His Words. They lost that generation, plus all the generations since, and they lost their Nation. Likewise, every person now who hears the Gospel and turns Christ aside will one day answer for what he has heard. It is called the Great White Throne Judgment [Rev. 20:11-15].)

FALSE PROPHETS

20 But the prophet, which shall presume to speak a word in My Name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die (that was the sentence in Israel, and for all the obvious reasons; it is the same presently, spiritually speaking).

21 And if you say in your heart, How shall we know the word which the LORD has not spoken?

22 When a prophet speaks in the Name of the LORD, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD has not spoken, but the prophet has spoken it presumptuously: you shall not be afraid of him (how many self-anointed prophets presently are constantly giving forth prophecies, even with names and dates, which do not come to pass; and the modern Church is so jaded, they do not seem to realize that they have been hearing a false prophet).

CHAPTER 19

(1451 B.C.)

CITIES OF REFUGE

[1] When the LORD your God has cut off the nations, whose land the LORD your God gives you, and you succeed them, and dwell in their cities, and in their houses;

[2] You shall separate three cities for you in the midst of your land, which the LORD your God gives you to possess it (the cities of refuge are addressed in Numbers 35:11).

[3] You shall prepare you a way, and divide the coasts of your land, which the LORD your God gives you to inherit, into three parts, that every slayer may flee thither.

[4] And this is the case of the slayer, which shall flee thither, that he may live: Whoso kills his neighbour ignorantly, whom he hated not in time past (the cities of refuge were for individuals who killed someone accidentally; they could flee to one of these cities, and the relatives of the victim could not touch there the one who had become embroiled in the situation; however, these cities were not for murderers)**;

[5] As when a man goes into the wood with his neighbour to hew wood, and his hand fetched a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the head slips from the helve, and lights upon his neighbour, that he die; he shall flee unto one of those cities, and live (accidental death)**:

[6] Lest the avenger of the blood (a relative or friend of the victim) pursue the slayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and kill him; whereas he was not worthy of death, inasmuch as he hated him not in time past (as stated, the man's death was an unfortunate accident).

7 Wherefore I command you, saying, You shall separate three cities for you (for this purpose).

8 And if the LORD your God enlarge your coast, as He has sworn unto your fathers, and give you all the land which He promised to give unto your fathers;

9 If you shall keep all these Commandments to do them, which I command you this day, to love the LORD your God, and to walk ever in His Ways; then shall you add three cities more for you, beside these three (these latter three would be on the east side of the Jordan River):

10 That innocent blood be not shed in your land, which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance, and so blood be upon you (the design of appointing these cities was to prevent the shedding of innocent blood, which would be the case if the unintentional manslayer was killed by one of the relatives of the man he had accidentally killed).

11 But if any man hate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, and smite him mortally that he die, and flees into one of these cities:

12 Then the Elders of his city shall send and fetch him thence, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die (as stated, the cities of refuge were not for murderers, but for those who killed someone accidentally).

13 Your eye shall not pity him, but you shall put away the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with you. (Capital punishment for capital crimes is one of the Commandments of the Lord; while execution of the guilty does not serve as a deterrent, it does serve to show the worth that God places on human life. If a man or a woman in cold blood takes the life of another, his or her life is to be forfeited, as well [Rom. 13:1-7].)

LANDMARKS

14 You shall not remove your neighbour's landmark, which they of old time have set in your inheritance, which you shall inherit in the land that the LORD your God gives you to possess it (this pertains to landmarks which have been placed to mark the boundaries of possessions; they were not to be surreptitiously altered).

WITNESSES

15 One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sins: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established (as in courts of law presently, even an eyewitness account is often faulty; that's the reason that two or more are demanded here, in order that the rights of individuals be protected).

PERJURY

16 If a false witness rise up against any man to testify against him that which is wrong;

17 Then both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before the LORD, before the Priests and the Judges, which shall be in those days;

18 And the Judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, behold, if the witness be a false witness, and has testified falsely against his brother;

19 Then shall you do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother: so shall you put the evil away from among you.

20 And those which remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil among you (such directions were given in order that individuals would be fearful of lying on someone else).

[21] And your eye shall not pity; but life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot (most of the time, this was never carried out, but, instead, certain amounts of money were given to satisfy the situation).

CHAPTER 20

(1451 B.C.)

WAR

[1] When you go out to battle against your enemies, and see horses, and chariots, and a people more than you, be not afraid of them: for the LORD your God is with you, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt. (The Lord promised to be with Israel in time of war, that is, if the cause of Israel was right.

Even though this Promise was addressed to a nation, it holds true for modern Believers, as well, as it regards spiritual warfare; however, the warfare in which every Christian must engage, and it is incumbent upon all, can be engaged successfully only if we function according to God's prescribed order. That order is: Christ is always the "Source" of all things which come from God. The Cross is the "Means" by which it is given to us. This means that we must ever make the Cross the object of our Faith, and not allow it to be moved anywhere else. This done, the Holy Spirit, Who works conclusively within the Finished Work of Christ, will work on our behalf, guaranteeing victory within our lives. In this way, and this way only, can victory be won and maintained [Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11; Eph. 2:13-18; Col. 2:14-15; Gal., Chpt. 5; 6:14].)

[2] And it shall be, when you are come near unto the battle, that the Priest shall approach and speak unto the people (by the "Priest" being used instead of a military commander, this shows that the battle was more spiritual than anything else; with the Child of God, in one way or the other, everything is spiritual)**,

[3] And shall say unto them, Hear, O Israel, you approach this day unto battle against your enemies: let not your hearts faint, fear not, and do not tremble, neither be you terrified because of them;

4 For the LORD your God (as by now is obvious, the phrase, "LORD your God," so often used, refers to Covenant) is He Who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you (with the Lord, Israel was invincible! Without the Lord, Israel was easily defeated; it is the same presently in our own personal hearts and lives).

MILITARY SERVICE

5 And the Officers shall speak unto the people, saying, What man is there who has built a new house, and has not dedicated it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it.

6 And what man is he who has planted a vineyard, and has not yet eaten of it? let him also go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man eat of it.

7 And what man is there who has betrothed a wife, and has not taken her? let him go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her (according to Josephus, this exemption was for a year).

8 And the Officers shall speak further unto the people, and they shall say, What man is there who is fearful and fainthearted? let him go and return unto his house, lest his brethren's heart faint as well as his heart. (Fear and doubt are contagious; so the Holy Spirit says, "Those who are plagued with such, get them out of the army." He is saying the same thing presently. More than anything else, the Church needs people who truly believe God.)

9 And it shall be, when the Officers have made an end of speaking unto the people, that they shall make Captains of the armies to lead the people (evidently, these individuals were to be chosen more for their Faith in the Lord, and we do not mean reckless presumption, than for their military expertise).

FOREIGN CITIES

10 When you come near unto a city to fight against it, then proclaim peace unto it (invite it peaceably to surrender).

11 And it shall be, if it make you answer of peace, and open unto you, then it shall be, that all the people who are found therein shall be tributaries unto you, and they shall serve you (service rendered as tribute, whether for a season or in perpetuity).

12 And if it will make no peace with you, but will make war against you, then you shall besiege it:

13 And when the LORD your God has delivered it into your hands, you shall smite every male thereof with the edge of the sword:

14 But the women, and the little ones, and the cattle, and all that is in the city, even all the spoil thereof, shall you take unto yourself; and you shall eat the spoil of your enemies, which the LORD your God has given you.

15 Thus shall you do unto all the cities which are very far off from you, which are not of the cities of these nations. (The information given in these Passages has to do with foreign cities, and not the heathenistic tribes which occupied the land of Canaan. At times, invaders from afar would come against Israel. If that happened, Israel would not only defeat their army, but sometimes would have to attack their homeland, wherever that was. If they did, certain rules were laid down by the Lord, which they were to follow.)

LOCAL BATTLES

16 But of the cities of these people, which the LORD your God does give you for an inheritance (those who were occupying the land of Canaan), you shall save alive nothing that breathes:

17 But you shall utterly destroy them; namely, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; as the LORD your God has commanded you (to these particular people, no offer of peaceful submission was to be made, and when the city was taken, all the inhabitants without reserve were to be destroyed. Why? The next Verse tells us why)*:

18 That they teach you not to do after all their abominations, which they have done unto their gods; so should you sin against the LORD your God (if the abominations of these heathen tribes, who served all types of gods, were taken up by the Israelites, they would lose their way and be destroyed exactly as the heathen; and that's exactly what ultimately happened!).

19 When you shall besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, you shall not destroy the trees thereof by forcing an axe against them: for you may eat of them, and you shall not cut them down (for the tree of the field is man's life) to employ them in the siege (fruit bearing trees):

20 Only the trees which you know that they be not trees for meat, you shall destroy and cut them down; and you shall build bulwarks against the city that makes war with you, until it be subdued.

CHAPTER 21

(1451 B.C.)

UNSOLVED MURDER

[1] If one be found slain in the land which the LORD your God gives you to possess it, lying in the field, and it be not known who has killed him:

[2] Then your Elders and your Judges shall come forth, and they shall measure unto the cities which are round about him who is killed:

[3] And it shall be, that the city which is next unto the slain man, even the Elders of that city shall take an heifer, which has not been wrought with, and which has not drawn in the yoke (the Lord was to be brought into all of this, thus showing His tender Solicitude for individuals as well as for nations, and the regard He had for family life — Williams);

[4] And the Elders of that city shall bring down the heifer unto a rough valley, which is neither eared nor sown, and shall strike off the heifer's neck there in the valley (break the heifer's neck; this was not a sacrifice, but simply a symbolical representation of the infliction of death on the undiscovered murderer):

[5] And the Priests the sons of Levi shall come near; for them the LORD your God has chosen to minister unto Him, and to bless in the Name of the LORD; and by their word shall every controversy and every stroke be tried (the Priests were to be heavily involved, because everything as it pertained to Israel was spiritual):

[6] And all the Elders of that city, who are next unto the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley:

[7] And they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it (again, all of this shows the sacredness of human life).

8 Be merciful, O LORD, unto Your people Israel, whom You have redeemed, and lay not innocent blood unto Your people of Israel's charge. And the blood shall be forgiven them.

9 So shall you put away the guilt of innocent blood from among you, when you shall do that which is right in the sight of the LORD (expiation was made by the killing of the transgressor, when he could be found [19:13]; when he was not known, by the process described here; of course, if afterwards he was apprehended, he would suffer the penalty he had incurred).

MARRIAGE

10 When you go forth to war against your enemies, and the LORD your God has delivered them into your hands, and you have taken them captive,

11 And you see among the captives a beautiful woman, and have a desire unto her, that you would have her to your wife;

12 Then you shall bring her home to your house, and she shall shave her head, and pare her nails;

13 And she shall put the raiment of her captivity from off her, and shall remain in your house, and bewail her father and her mother a full month: and after that you shall go in unto her, and be her husband, and she shall be your wife (all of these things demanded were signs of purification, of separation from former heathenism, preparatory to reception among the Covenant People of Jehovah).

14 And it shall be, if you have no delight in her, then you shall let her go where she will; but you shall not sell her at all for money, you shall not make merchandise of her, because you have humbled her (the Law of God, as given to Moses, which took into account even the feelings of a slave girl, so to speak, which as well guaranteed her rights; at that time, there was no law in the world that was even remotely as fair and equitable as the Law of God).

THE FIRSTBORN

15 If a man have two wives, one beloved, and another hated, and they have born him children, both the beloved and the hated; and if the firstborn son be hers that was hated:

16 Then it shall be, when he makes his sons to inherit that which he has, that he may not make the son of the beloved firstborn before the son of the hated, which is indeed the firstborn:

17 But he shall acknowledge the son of the hated for the firstborn, by giving him a double portion of all that he has: for he is the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn is his (the firstborn inherited twice as much as any of the other sons).

DEATH

18 If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, which will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and that, when they have chastened him, will not hearken unto them:

19 Then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the Elders of his city, and unto the gate of his place;

20 And they shall say unto the Elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton, and a drunkard.

21 And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones, that he die: so shall you put evil away from among you; and all Israel shall hear, and fear (gluttony and drunkenness were regarded by the Hebrews as highly criminal; the word rendered by "glutton" includes other kinds of excess besides eating; it designates one who is prodigal, who wastes his means or wastes his person by indulgence).

CRIMINALS

22 And if a man have committed a sin worthy of death, and he be to be put to death, and you hang him on a tree:

23 His body shall not remain all night upon the tree, but you shall in any wise bury him that day; (for he who is hanged is accursed of God;) that your land be not defiled, which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance. (This is the reason that the religious leaders of Israel demanded that Jesus be put on the Cross [Mat. 27:23]. They knew that one put on the tree was accursed of God, and so they reasoned that the people would then think, were He really the Messiah, God would never allow Him to be put on a Cross. They did not realize that the Lord had foretold the event of the Cross some 1,500 years earlier, as it concerned the brazen serpent on the pole [Num. 21:8-9]. It was necessary that Jesus go to the Cross, in order that He might atone for all the sins of mankind, at least for all who will believe [Jn. 3:16]. So, Jesus was made a curse on the Cross, not because of His sins, for He had none, but for the sin of the whole world, and for all time [Jn. 1:29; Gal. 3:13].)

CHAPTER 22

(1451 B.C.)

LAWS

[1] You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep go astray, and hide yourself from them: you shall in any case bring them again unto your brother.

[2] And if your brother be not near unto you, or if you know him not, then you shall bring it unto your own house, and it shall be with you until your brother seek after it, and you shall restore it to him again.

[3] In like manner shall you do with his ass; and so shall you do with his raiment; and with all lost thing of your brother's, which he has lost, and you have found, shall you do likewise: you may not hide yourself. (This law had been given in Exodus 23:4-5. Honesty is demanded here in all things.)

VARIOUS REGULATIONS

[4] You shall not see your brother's ass or his ox fall down by the way, and hide yourself from them: you shall surely help him to lift them up again (provide help for those who need such).

[5] The woman shall not wear that which pertains unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all who do so are abomination unto the LORD your God. (Pulpit says, "The Divinely instituted distinction between the sexes was to be sacredly observed and, in order to do this, the dress and other things appropriate to the one were not to be used by the other. Whatever tended to obliterate the distinction between the sexes tends to licentiousness."

So as not to misunderstand this, both men and women in those days wore robes; however, the robes for the men were different than the robes for the women, as would be obvious. At times, presently, women wear slacks, i.e., "trousers." However, as is also obvious, the trousers worn by a woman are different than those worn by a man. So, that means it's not wrong for a woman to wear slacks, i.e., "trousers," etc.)

[6] If a bird's nest chance to be before you in the way in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young ones, or eggs, and the dam (mother) sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, you shall not take the dam with the young:

[7] But you shall in any wise let the dam go, and take the young to you; that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days. (The Expositors say, "These precepts are designed to foster humane feelings toward the lower animals, not less to preserve regard to that affectionate relation between parents and their young, which God has also established as a law in the animal world.")

[8] When you build a new house, then you shall make a battlement for your roof, that you bring not blood upon your house, if any man fall from thence (the roof of houses in that part of the world is mostly flat; as well, during the summer, oftentimes, members of the family, or others, will sleep on the roof, in order to catch the night breeze; a banister was to be erected around the roof to serve as protection).

[9] You shall not sow your vineyard with divers seeds: lest the fruit of your seed which you have sown, and the fruit of your vineyard, be defiled.

[10] You shall not plow with an ox and an ass together.

[11] You shall not wear a garment of divers sorts, as of woollen and linen together. (Concerning this, Williams says, "Mixed teaching, like mixed seeds, produces sterility. At Creation [Gen., Chpt. 1], there was no mixture; and, hence, fertility. Every seed was 'after his kind,' and was pronounced by God to be 'good.' The seed that Christian workers and Ministers are to sow must be the unmixed Word of God. His Word is not to be mixed with man's philosophy. Christ, the True Minister, said, 'I have given them Your Word,' 'I have not spoken from Myself.'

"The ox was 'clean,' the ass 'unclean.' Together they formed an unequal yoke. When Christian people join with the unconverted in Christian work, or marriage, or business, it is an unequal yoke, and can never have Divine approval.")

[12] You shall make yourself fringes upon the four quarters of your vesture, wherewith you cover yourself (tassels with blue thread, signifying that their help came from Heaven).

CHASTITY

[13] If any man take a wife, and go in unto her, and hate her,

[14] And give occasions of speech against her, and bring up an evil name upon her, and say, I took this woman, and when I came to her, I found her not a maid *(claiming that she wasn't a virgin):

[15] Then shall the father of the damsel, and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the damsel's virginity unto the Elders of the city in the gate:

[16] And the damsel's father shall say unto the Elders, I gave my daughter unto this man to wife, and he hates her;

[17] And, lo, he has given occasions of speech against her, saying, I found not your daughter a maid; and yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity. And they shall spread the cloth before the Elders of the city.

[18] And the Elders of that city shall take that man and chastise him *(meaning that he lied about the girl, because he didn't want her for other reasons, whatever they might have been);

[19] And they shall amerce him in an hundred shekels of silver, and give them unto the father of the damsel, because he has brought up an evil name upon a virgin of Israel: and she shall be his wife; he may not put her away all his days (if he did so, he was adding sin to sin).

[20] But if this thing be true, and the tokens of virginity be not found for the damsel:

[21] Then they shall bring out the damsel to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones that she die: because she has wrought folly in Israel, to play the whore in her father's house: so shall you put evil away from among you. (The Nation had to be kept pure, at least as far as possible, because, as stated, it was to serve as the womb of the Messiah. As such, immorality must be put away and, if not, severe penalties attached.)

[22] If a man be found lying with a woman married to an husband, then they shall both of them die, both the man that lay with the woman, and the woman: so shall you put away evil from Israel.

[23] If a damsel who is a virgin be betrothed unto an husband, and a man find her in the city, and lie with her;

[24] Then you shall bring them both out unto the gate of that city, and you shall stone them with stones that they die; the damsel, because she cried not, being in the city; and the man, because he has humbled his neighbour's wife: so you shall put away evil from among you. (This was the case with the young woman who was brought to Jesus by the Pharisees, described in John 8:1-11. The difference is, they brought the young woman to Jesus, but didn't bring the man. They were quite ready to stone her, which they used to entrap Christ. Of course, their scheme didn't work; however, the Law had to be kept by Christ. So, how could He say to her, knowing that without a doubt she was guilty of adultery, "Neither do I condemn you: Go, and sin no more"? [Jn. 8:11].

He kept the Law perfectly by dying in her place, exactly as He did for all of us; therefore, the Law was kept perfectly.)

[25] But if a man find a betrothed damsel in the field, and the man force her, and lie with her: then the man only who lay with her shall die.

[26] But unto the damsel you shall do nothing; there is in the damsel no sin worthy of death: for as when a man rises against his neighbour, and kills him, even so is this matter:

[27] For he found her in the field, and the betrothed damsel cried, and there was none to save her.

[28] If a man find a damsel who is a virgin, which is not betrothed, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found;

[29] Then the man who lay with her shall give unto the damsel's father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife; because he has humbled her, he may not put her away all his days.

[30] A man shall not take his father's wife, nor discover his father's skirt (this is a prohibition against all types of incestuous connections).

CHAPTER 23

EXCLUDED FROM THE CONGREGATION

[1] He who is wounded in the stones (testicles), or has his privy member cut off, shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD. (This did not pertain to accidents, etc. It rather pertained to prohibitions concerning idolatry. Parents in the heathen tribes surrounding Israel often mutilated in various ways their children, either in honor of their gods, or else to get higher wages for them as servants. Israel was not to conduct herself at all in this manner. Of course, children who would be treated thusly, who had no choice in the matter, could certainly be forgiven by the Lord; however, if such children were in the Tribe of Levi, they couldn't function as Priests, although they could definitely be saved.)

[2] A bastard shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the LORD. (As well, this pertains to idolatry. Many children in heathen tribes were born, not in wedlock, but as a result of idolatrous, licentious ceremonies. As well, it pertained to one born out of wedlock in any case. Again, to be sure, the child would have no responsibility in the matter. But, still, while it could certainly be saved and live for God, such a child could not be a Priest, even if a Levite.)

[3] An Ammonite or Moabite shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to their tenth generation shall they not enter into the congregation of the LORD for ever (the number "ten," at least used in this fashion, was a number of indefiniteness; in other words, it meant forever; Ammon and Moab had met the Israelites with hostility, and had brought Balaam to curse them, which curse God turned upon these heathen tribes; however, those who evidenced Faith in God, even as it was with Ruth, who was a Moabitess, could definitely enter into the congregation of the Lord; in fact, Ruth, due to her Faith, was an ancestress of our Saviour [Mat. 1:5]):

4 Because they (the Ammonites and Moabites) met you not with bread and with water in the way, when you came forth out of Egypt; and because they hired against you Balaam the son of Beor of Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse you.

5 Nevertheless the LORD your God would not hearken unto Balaam; but the LORD your God turned the curse into a Blessing unto you, because the LORD your God loved you (the entirety of the human race, because of the Fall, is plagued with a curse; but Jesus turned the curse into a Blessing, and did so at the Cross [Gal. 3:13-14]).

6 You shall not seek their peace nor their prosperity all your days for ever (God blesses those who bless His People, and places a curse upon those who do the opposite; in other words, the harm that the world would seek to do to the people of God is ultimately turned by God against the world).

7 You shall not abhor an Edomite for he is your brother: you shall not abhor (hate) an Egyptian; because you were a stranger in his land (the Edomites were descendants of Esau, therefore, the brother of Jacob; even though the Egyptians harmed Israel greatly at the last, Egypt, in fact, gave solace and help to Jacob at the beginning; God does not forget that done to His Children, good or bad).

8 The children who are begotten of them shall enter into the congregation of the LORD in their third generation (providing they desired to become a proselyte Jew).

RULES FOR SANITATION

9 When the host goes forth against your enemies, then you must keep yourself from every wicked thing (when the people went forth to war, all impurity and defilement were to be kept out of their camp, because their victory depended on the Blessings of the Lord; and God cannot bless that which is wicked).

10 If there be among you any man, who is not clean by reason of uncleanness that chances him by night, then shall he go abroad out of the camp, he shall not come within the camp:

11 But it shall be, when evening comes on, he shall wash himself with water: and when the sun is down, he shall come into the camp again (as is obvious here, purity was demanded at all times).

12 You shall have a place also without the camp, where you shall go forth abroad:

13 And you shall have a paddle upon your weapon; and it shall be, when you will ease yourself abroad, you shall dig therewith, and shall turn back and cover that which comes from you (sanitary conditions were demanded, because these people were God's People)**:

14 For the LORD your God walks in the midst of your camp, to deliver you, and to give up your enemies before you; therefore shall your camp be holy: that He see no unclean thing in you, and turn away from you (while the Lord walked up and down among them at that time, the Holy Spirit now lives within the hearts and lives of Believers [I Cor. 3:16]; consequently, the same demands, as would be obvious, and even more, are upon the modern Child of God; every single thing we do, we are to keep in mind that the Holy Spirit is with us at all times and, thereby, conduct ourselves accordingly).

VARIOUS REGULATIONS

15 You shall not deliver unto his master the servant which is escaped from his master unto you (the reference is to a foreign slave who had fled from the harsh treatment of his heathen master, and desired to seek refuge in Israel; he was to be given that refuge and not returned to his heathen master)**:

16 He shall dwell with you, even among you, in that place which he shall choose in one of your gates, where it likes him best: you shall not oppress him (all of this was a type of the lost coming to Christ, and entering into the Family of God).

17 There shall be no whore of the daughters of Israel, nor a sodomite of the sons of Israel (whoredom in every capacity is banned, as well as homosexuality).

18 You shall not bring the hire of a whore, or the price of a dog (the latter has nothing to do with the canine variety, but rather likens homosexuals to dogs), into the House of the LORD your God for any vow: for even both these are abomination unto the LORD your God (but yet, Rahab the harlot was allowed to come into the Family of God, and even to become an ancestress of Christ; she did so by Faith, which always overrides all law [Mat. 1:5]; none of this means that such people cannot be Saved, but only that Israel must oppose these sins greatly).

19 You shall not lend upon usury to your brother; usury of money, usury of victuals, usury of anything that is lent upon usury (an Israelite was to not charge interest on a loan given to a fellow Israelite)**:

20 Unto a stranger (Gentile) you may lend upon usury (can charge interest); but unto your brother you shall not lend upon usury: that the LORD your God may bless you in all that you set your hand to in the land where you go to possess it (the Blessings of the Lord then, and the Blessings of the Lord now, depend upon obedience to Him; then it was obedience to the Law, now it is obedience to Grace).

21 When you shall vow a vow unto the LORD your God, you shall not slack to pay it: for the LORD your God will surely require it of you; and it would be sin in you (don't vow if you don't intend to pay it, because God is going to collect the vow in one way or the other; it is the same thing presently with Tithes; every Christian pays Tithes, whether willingly or not; God, in one way or the other, will collect).

22 But if you shall forbear to vow, it shall be no sin in you (no one is under any obligation to vow, this is to be a purely voluntary act).

23 That which is gone out of your lips you shall keep and perform; even a freewill offering, according as you have vowed unto the LORD your God, which you have promised with your mouth (our word is to be the same as the Word of the Lord, at least as it regards integrity and veracity).

24 When you come into your neighbour's vineyard, then you may eat grapes your fill at your own pleasure; but you shall not put any in your vessel (eat all you want, but don't take any with you, because the grapes belong to someone else).

25 When you come into the standing corn (grain) of your neighbour, then you may pluck the ears with your hand; but you shall not move a sickle unto your neighbour's standing corn (complete honesty is demanded at all times).

CHAPTER 24

(1451 B.C.)

LAW OF DIVORCE

1 When a man has taken a wife, and married her, and it come to pass that she find no favour in his eyes, because he has found some uncleanness in her: then let him write her a bill of divorcement, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house.

2 And when she is departed out of his house, she may go and be another man's wife.

3 And if the latter husband hate her, and write her a bill of divorcement, and gives it in her hand, and sends her out of his house; or if the latter husband die, which took her to be his wife;

4 Her former husband, which sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after that she is defiled; for that is abomination before the LORD: and you shall not cause the land to sin, which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance. (Concerning this, Pulpit says, "This is not a law sanctioning or regulating divorce; this is simply assumed as what might occur; and what is regulated here is the treatment by the first husband of a woman who has been divorced a second time." The minute regulations of these Chapters show how God came into the most intimate concerns of His People. To those who loved Him, this was a deep joy, but to those who did not love Him, an intolerable and irritating intrusion — Williams.)

LAWS FOR NEWLYWEDS

5 When a man has taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war, neither shall he be charged with any business: but he shall be free at home one year, and shall cheer up his wife which he has taken (this proclaims the fact that family life in Israel was very important, hence this regulation).

PLEDGES

6 No man shall take the nether or the upper millstone to pledge: for he takes a man's life to pledge (if a man were deprived of that by which food for the sustaining of life could be prepared, his life itself would be imperiled; so such an item could not be used as a pledge or mortgage).

KIDNAPPING

7 If a man be found stealing any of his brethren of the children of Israel (kidnapping), and makes merchandise of him, or sells him; then that thief shall die; and you shall put evil away from among you (the penalty for kidnapping was death).

LEPROSY

8 Take heed in the plague of leprosy, that you observe diligently, and do according to all that the Priests the Levites shall teach you: as I commanded them, so you shall observe to do.

9 Remember what the LORD your God did unto Miriam by the way, after that you were come forth out of Egypt (Lev., Chpts. 13-14]).

SACREDNESS OF THE HOME

10 When you do lend your brother any thing, you shall not go into his house to fetch his pledge.

11 You shall stand abroad, and the man to whom you do lend shall bring out the pledge abroad unto you. (This concerns someone who had borrowed a sum of money on something in his house, such as furniture, etc. If he could not pay the money, the one to whom the mortgage was given could not come into his house and collect. The man must bring it out.)

12 And if the man be poor, you shall not sleep with his pledge (concerning one who had pledged his garment)**:

13 In any case you shall deliver him the pledge again when the sun goes down, that he may sleep in his own raiment, and bless you: and it shall be righteousness unto you before the LORD your God. (Williams says, "The spirit of all these ordinances is very touching as showing the goodness and pity of God, Who deigns to take knowledge of all these things, and to teach His People delicacy, propriety, consideration for others, sensitiveness — in a word, Christlikeness.")

OPPRESSION

14 You shall not oppress an hired servant who is poor and needy, whether he be of your brethren, or of your strangers (Gentiles) who are in your land within your gates:

15 At his day you shall give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down upon it (at the end of each day's work, the wages for the day were to be paid to day laborers); for he is poor, and sets his heart upon it: lest he cry against you unto the LORD, and it be sin unto you.

INDIVIDUAL RESPONSIBILITY

16 The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers: every man shall be put to death for his own sin (this Passage completely obliterates the modern false teaching of the family curse).

INJUSTICE

17 You shall not pervert the judgment of the stranger, nor of the fatherless; nor take a widow's raiment to pledge:

[18] But you shall remember that you were a bondman in Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you thence: therefore I command you to do this thing (to enforce this, the people are reminded that they themselves as a Nation had been in the condition of strangers and bondmen in Egypt).

GLEANING

[19] When you cut down your harvest in your field, and have forgotten a sheaf in the field, you shall not go again to fetch it: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow: that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands (in a sense, this was at least a part of God's welfare program).

[20] When you beat your olive tree, you shall not go over the boughs again: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow (leave something for the poor).

[21] When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you shall not glean it afterward: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow.

[22] And you shall remember that you were a bondman in the land of Egypt: therefore I command you to do this thing.

CHAPTER 25

SCOURGING

[1] If there be a controversy between men, and they come unto judgment, that the Judges may judge them; then they shall justify the righteous, and condemn the wicked (wickedness must not be condoned).

[2] And it shall be, if the wicked man be worthy to be beaten, that the Judge shall cause him to lie down, and to be beaten before his face, according to his fault, by a certain number.

[3] Forty stripes he may give him, and not exceed: lest, if he should exceed, and beat him above these with many stripes, then your brother should seem vile unto you ("forty" is God's probationary number; however, such punishment was to be rendered by the Judge, and not at all by individuals taking the law into their own hands).

CARE OF BEASTS

[4] You shall not muzzle the ox when he treads out the corn. (The Expositors say, "The leaving of the ox unmuzzled when treading out the grain was in order that the animal might be free to eat of the grain which its labor severed from the husk. This prohibition, therefore, was dictated by a regard for the rights and claims of animals employed in labor; but there is involved in it the general principle that all labor is to be duly requited, whether by animal or man; hence, Paul used this very Verse to proclaim the necessity of supporting the Work of God" [I Cor. 9:9].)

FAMILIES

5 If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry without unto a stranger: her husband's brother shall go in unto her, and take her to him to wife, and perform the duty of an husband's brother unto her (that is, if he was not already married, or if the woman had no children).

6 And it shall be, that the firstborn which she bears shall succeed in the name of his brother which is dead, that his name be not put out of Israel (shall be enrolled in the family register as heir of the deceased, and shall perpetuate his name; this had to do with the fact that the Messiah would come from a certain family in Israel, hence each family was to be kept intact as far as possible).

7 And if the man like not to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the gate unto the Elders, and say, My husband's brother refuses to raise up unto his brother a name in Israel, he will not perform the duty of my husband's brother.

8 Then the Elders of his city shall call him, and speak unto him: and if he stand to it, and say, I like not to take her;

9 Then shall his brother's wife come unto him in the presence of the Elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, and spit in his face, and shall answer and say, So shall it be done unto that man who will not build up his brother's house.

10 And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him who has his shoe loosed (an example of this is found in Gen., Chpt. 38, even long before the Law was given).

ASSAULT AND BATTERY

11 When men strive together one with another, and the wife of the one draws near for to deliver her husband out of the hand of him who smites him, and puts forth her hand, and takes him by the secrets (shall not induce such pain by bruising the testicles, which could make the man impotent)**:

12 Then you shall cut off her hand, your eye shall not pity her.

JUST WEIGHTS AND MEASURES

13 You shall not have in your bag divers weights, a great and a small.

14 You shall not have in your house divers measures, a great and a small.

15 But you shall have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and just measure shall you have: that your days may be lengthened in the land which the LORD your God gives you.

16 For all who do such things, and all who do unrighteously, are an abomination unto the LORD your God (honesty in all things).

AMALEK

17 Remember what Amalek did unto you by the way, when you were come forth out of Egypt;

18 How he met you by the way, and smote the hindmost of you, even all who were feeble behind you, when you were faint and weary; and he feared not God.

19 Therefore it shall be, when the LORD your God has given you rest from all your enemies round about, in the land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance to possess it, that you shall blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven; you shall not forget it. (Amalek was to be utterly destroyed; not so the Egyptian. The Egyptian pictures man, as such; the Amalekite, man as the willing agent of evil. This means that the attitude of the Christian toward ordinary men of the world is necessarily different from that towards the willing and determined enemies of goodness and justice.

God Who condemned Amalek to utter extinction was the very same God

Who tenderly sheltered the little bird of Verse 22:6. The same God appeared in flesh, and in Luke 12:5-6 taught that the hand that upholds the little sparrow also thrusts wicked men into Hell. As well, Amalek, in Biblical typology, is a type of the flesh, which must be eradicated in the hearts and lives of Believers. This can be done only by the Believer placing his Faith exclusively in Christ and the Cross, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work in our lives, Who Alone can perform this task [Rom. 6:3-14; Gal., Chpt. 5].)

CHAPTER 26

(1451 B.C.)

FIRSTFRUITS

[1] And it shall be, when you are come in unto the land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance, and possess it, and dwell therein;

[2] That you shall take of the first of all the fruit of the earth, which you shall bring of your land that the LORD your God gives you, and shall put it in a basket, and shall go unto the place which the LORD your God shall choose to place His Name there (the best of the first of the harvest; there is no specification as to the amount to be offered; it was to be brought to the Tabernacle, and later on to the Temple).

[3] And you shall go unto the Priest who shall be in those days, and say unto him, I profess this day unto the LORD your God, that I am come unto the country which the LORD swore unto our fathers for to give us (as well, this produce was to now belong to the Priest, who was a Type of Christ; all of this means that the Place, the Priest, the Worshipper, and the character of his worship all foreshadowed Calvary, the Great High Priest, the Lord Jesus Christ, Salvation by Grace, and the thankfulness and holiness which are the fruits of Grace).

[4] And the Priest shall take the basket out of your hand, and set it down before the Altar of the LORD your God (the "Altar" was the Brazen Altar, which was a Type of Calvary; this tells us that all worship must have as its foundation the Cross of Christ, hence Paul saying, "We preach Christ Crucified" [I Cor. 1:23]).

[5] And you shall speak and say before the LORD your God, A Syrian ready to perish was my father, and he went down into Egypt, and sojourned there with a few, and became there a Nation, great, mighty, and populous (the reference is to Jacob, the father of the Twelve Tribes):

6 And the Egyptians evil entreated us, and afflicted us, and laid upon us hard bondage:

7 And when we cried unto the LORD God of our fathers, the LORD heard our voice, and looked on our affliction, and our labour, and our oppression:

8 And the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty Hand, and with an outstretched Arm, and with great terribleness, and with signs, and with wonders:

9 And He has brought us into this place, and has given us this land, even a land that flows with milk and honey.

10 And now, behold, I have brought the firstfruits of the land, which You, O LORD, have given me. And you shall set it before the LORD your God, and worship before the LORD your God (the worshipper is confessing here that Grace has brought him into this good land promised to the fathers; and that the same Grace has filled his cup to overflowing, the bounty of which the basket of firstfruits was the evidence):

11 And you shall rejoice in every good thing which the LORD your God has given unto you, and unto your house, you, and the Levite, and the stranger who is among you (the worshipper as described here was to come with joy bearing his basket of firstfruits to the place of the Burnt and Sin Offerings chosen by God; the basket testified that God was the Author of all the worshipper's happiness; it was a joying before God in the enjoyment of what He had given; but due to the fact that it was to be brought to the "Altar," such proclaims to us that all Blessings flow to the Believer as a result of what Jesus did at the Cross, and that alone).

TITHES

12 When you have made an end of tithing all the tithes of your increase the third year (the year that all tithes were to go to the Priests and the Sanctuary [Num. 18:24])*, which is the year of tithing, and have given it unto the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, that they may eat within your gates, and be filled;

13 Then you shall say before the LORD your God, I have brought away the hallowed things out of my house, and also have given them unto the Levite, and unto the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all Your Commandments which You have commanded me: I have not transgressed Your Commandments, neither have I forgotten them:

14 I have not eaten thereof in my mourning, neither have I taken away ought thereof for any unclean use, nor given ought thereof for the dead: but I have hearkened to the Voice of the LORD my God, and have done according to all that You have commanded me. (This is not a self-righteous boast; it is rather a solemn profession of attention to duties which might have been neglected, and refers, not to the keeping of every Commandment, but to the having faithfully done all that the Law required in respect of Tithes.)

15 Look down from Your Holy Habitation, from Heaven, and bless Your people Israel, and the land which You have given us, as You swore unto our fathers, a land that flows with milk and honey (blessing is here requested, and, to be sure, blessing will be abundantly given).

OBEDIENCE

16 This day the LORD your God has commanded you to do these Statutes and Judgments: you shall therefore keep and do them with all your heart, and with all your soul.

17 You have avouched the LORD this day to be your God, and to walk in His Ways, and to keep His Statutes, and His Commandments, and His Judgments, and to hearken unto His Voice:

18 And the LORD has avouched you this day to be His Peculiar People, as He has promised you, and that you should keep all His Commandments;

[19] And to make you high above all nations which He has made, in praise, and in name, and in honour; and that you may be an holy people unto the LORD your God, as He has spoken. (Moses concludes his address by a solemn admonition to the people to keep and observe the Laws and Commandments, which the Lord by him had laid upon them, reminding them that they had entered into covenant with God, and had thereby pledged themselves to obedience to all that He had enjoined, as He on His part had pledged Himself to be their Benefactor, Who would fulfill to them all His gracious Promises, and would exalt them above all the nations of the Earth — Pulpit.

In truth, it was not possible for Israel to properly keep these Laws and Commandments; however, they were to try, and to do so with all of their hearts. For their failures, the Sacrificial System was provided as Atonement for sin, which was a Type of the Cross. On that basis, God would greatly bless them; however, if they ignored His Laws and Commandments, which they sadly did, Judgment would come upon them, which regrettably did happen.)

CHAPTER 27

(1451 B.C.)

THE ALTAR

[1] And Moses with the Elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, Keep all the Commandments which I command you this day (possession of the land depended on obedience to the Law).

[2] And it shall be on the day when you shall pass over Jordan unto the land which the LORD your God gives you, that you shall set thee up great stones, and plaister them with plaister:

[3] And you shall write upon them all the words of this Law, when you are passed over, that you may go in unto the land which the LORD your God gives you, a land that flows with milk and honey; as the LORD God of your fathers has promised you (it is not actually known as to whether each and all of the legislative enactments of the Torah were to be recorded, or rather the substance and essence of the Law; but even if the whole was to be inscribed, there would be no serious difficulty in the way of carrying this into effect, seeing there is no limitation as to the number of the stones to be set up; at any rate, this Law was to be plain and clear for all to see).

[4] Therefore it shall be when you be gone over Jordan, that you shall set up these stones, which I command you this day, in Mount Ebal, and you shall plaister them with plaister (Mount Ebal, which was right beside Mount Gerizim, and located in the very center of Israel, was referred to as the "Mount of cursing," which pertained to the Judgment of God; the stones were to be set up upon this Mount, stipulating that if the Laws were broken, the curse of the broken Law would come upon the perpetrators, even as we shall see in the latter part of this Chapter).

[5] And there shall you build an Altar unto the LORD your God, an Altar of stones: you shall not lift up any iron tool upon them.

[6] You shall build the Altar of the LORD your God of whole stones: and you shall offer Burnt Offerings thereon unto the LORD your God (the stones which made up the Altar, which was a Type of Christ and the Cross, were to be whole stones, and not stones which had been made to fit by man; this tells us that the Cross of Christ must not be altered in any way; the fact that this "Altar" was to be set up on Mount Ebal, the place of cursing, tells us that man's problem is sin; it was not to be set up on Mount Gerizim, which was the Mount of Blessing; but regrettably, this is where the modern Church has set her Altar, which refuses to admit that man's problem is sin; as well, the Law was kept only by Christ, hence, the Altar on Mount Ebal; and we as Believers can keep the Moral Law, which is still incumbent upon all, only by fully trusting Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross)**:

[7] And you shall offer Peace Offerings, and shall eat there, and rejoice before the LORD your God (Burnt Offerings and Peace Offerings were commanded, but no Sin Offering; for the action of that day presupposes a redeemed people, but placed under the curse if they should break the Law; the Apostle Paul based his argument in Galatians 3 upon this Chapter — Williams).

[8] And you shall write upon the stones all the words of this Law very plainly. (The blessings of Gerizim are entirely omitted here, for the subject was the judgment that would surely follow upon failure in a full obedience to the Commandments engraved upon the stones.

As stated, the Altar was erected on Ebal, not on Gerizim; and, as pointed out, Sin Offerings are not mentioned. The Burnt Offerings and Peace Offerings were to be presented by those who had fulfilled the righteousness of the Law. Only one Man accomplished that; and He on the Mount of cursing erected an Altar upon which He offered up Himself as a Sin Offering for all those who by disobedience had brought upon themselves the doom of the Law, that is, death. At the same time, in thus offering up Himself, He became, on behalf of these guilty Law-breakers, the Burnt Offering and the Peace Offering, which our sin and failure made it impossible to bring to God — Williams.)

9 And Moses and the Priests the Levites spoke unto all Israel, saying, Take heed, and hearken, O Israel; this day you are become the people of the LORD your God (much responsibility was upon them).

10 You shall therefore obey the Voice of the LORD your God, and do His Commandments and His Statutes, which I command you this day.

11 And Moses charged the people the same day, saying,

12 These shall stand upon Mount Gerizim to bless the people, when you are come over Jordan; Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin (these particular Tribes were to stand upon Mount Gerizim, which was very close to Mount Ebal, and pronounce blessings upon Israel, which account of Blessings is given in the next Chapter):

13 And these shall stand upon Mount Ebal to curse; Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali (they were to stand for the curse; it does not say they were to curse the people; all who broke the Law were cursed).

CURSES

14 And the Levites shall speak, and say unto all the men of Israel with a loud voice (they were probably situated between the two mountains, with a Levite standing a voice distance away from another, and shouting loudly the Message of the Lord, in order that all of Israel might hear),

15 Cursed be the man who makes any graven or molten image, an abomination unto the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and puts it in a secret place. And all the people shall answer and say, Amen (each of the first eleven curses is directed against some particular sin already denounced in the Law).

16 Cursed be he who sets light by his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen (the failure to honor the father and the mother).

17 Cursed be he who removes his neighbour's landmark. And all the people shall say, Amen (by fraud, attempts to steal another's property by secretly moving the boundary).

[18] Cursed be he who makes the blind to wander out of the way. And all the people shall say, Amen (cruel to the handicapped).

[19] Cursed be he who perverts the judgment of the stranger (Gentile), fatherless, and widow. And all the people shall say, Amen (failure to show kindness to all, even the least among them).

[20] Cursed be he who lies with his father's wife; because he uncovers his father's skirt. And all the people shall say, Amen (incest).

[21] Cursed be he who lies with any manner of beast. And all the people shall say, Amen (bestiality, which was prominent among the heathen).

[22] Cursed be he who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen (again, incest is mentioned).

[23] Cursed be he who lies with his mother in law. And all the people shall say, Amen (the sin of incest was prominent among the heathen, therefore, the triple admonition).

[24] Cursed be he who smites his neighbour secretly. And all the people shall say, Amen (tries to harm him behind his back).

[25] Cursed be he who takes reward to slay an innocent person. And all the people shall say, Amen (contract killings).

[26] Cursed be he who confirms not all the words of this Law to do them. And all the people shall say, Amen (the Law, as given by God, was to govern Israel in all that she did; in fact, Israel constituted the only people in the world who had the Law of God, which made them superior in every respect).

CHAPTER 28

(1451 B.C.)

THE BLESSINGS

[1] And it shall come to pass, if you shall hearken diligently unto the Voice of the LORD your God, to observe and to do all His Commandments which I command you this day, that the LORD your God will set you on high above all nations of the Earth (the condition for all the Blessings which will be pronounced is obedience):

[2] And all these Blessings shall come on you, and overtake you, if you shall hearken unto the Voice of the LORD your God (the Blessings will be so abundant that they will literally chase down the people of God).

[3] Blessed shall you be in the city, and blessed shall you be in the field (the location doesn't matter, the Blessings will come).

[4] Blessed shall be the fruit of your body (the children), and the fruit of your ground (crops), a nd the fruit of your cattle, the increase of your kine, and the flocks of your sheep (herds).

[5] Blessed shall be your basket and your store (the storehouses will be full).

[6] Blessed shall you be when you come in, and blessed shall you be when you go out (no time limit on the Blessings).

[7] The LORD shall cause your enemies who rise up against you to be smitten before your face: they shall come out against you one way, and flee before you seven ways (because the Lord will fight for Israel).

[8] The LORD shall command the Blessing upon you in your storehouses, and in all that you set your hand unto; and He shall bless you in the land which the LORD your God gives you (when the Command from the Lord is given, nothing can stop that Command).

9 The LORD shall establish you an holy people unto Himself, as He has sworn unto you, if you shall keep the Commandments of the LORD your God, and walk in His Ways (once again, the condition of obedience is put before the people).

10 And all people of the Earth shall see that you are called by the Name of the LORD; and they shall be afraid of you (the fame of Israel, and her Blessings given by the Lord, will be spread abroad, with all heathen nations afraid of attacking her, because of her God).

11 And the LORD shall make you plentiful in goods, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your cattle, and in the fruit of your ground, in the land which the LORD swore unto your fathers to give you (everything will be bountiful).

12 The LORD shall open unto you His good Treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto your land in His season, and to bless all the work of your hand: and you shall lend unto many nations, and you shall not borrow (the treasure-house of Heaven would be open to Israel).

13 And the LORD shall make you the head, and not the tail; and you shall be above only, and you shall not be beneath; if that you hearken unto the Commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day, to observe and to do them *(again, obedience is set before Israel):

14 And you shall not go aside from any of the words which I command you this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them (Israel was to faithfully obey the Law; as well, Believers under the New Covenant can claim the same Promises, in fact, much more easily than Israel of old, because of Christ and the Cross; as wonderful as this is which the Lord promises Israel, He now promises even more under the New Covenant, which Paul referred to as a "Better Covenant" [Heb. 8:6]).

DISOBEDIENCE

15 But it shall come to pass, if you will not hearken unto the Voice of the LORD your God, to observe to do all His Commandments and His Statutes which I command you this day; that all these curses shall come upon you, and overtake you (the curse thus appears as the exact counterpart of the blessing, and because of disobedience):

16 Cursed shall you be in the city, and cursed shall you be in the field (as the blessings were nationwide, the curse likewise shall be).

17 Cursed shall be your basket and your store (the storehouses will be empty).

18 Cursed shall be the fruit of your body, and the fruit of your land, the increase of your kine, and the flocks of your sheep (the children will be sickly, and the herds will be few and thin).

19 Cursed shall you be when you come in, and cursed shall you be when you go out (nothing that is done will stop the curse).

20 The LORD shall send upon you cursing, vexation, and rebuke, in all that you set your hand unto for to do, until you be destroyed, and until you perish quickly; because of the wickedness of your doings, whereby you have forsaken Me (Blessings for obedience, destruction for disobedience; it is the same presently).

21 The LORD shall make the pestilence cleave unto you, until He has consumed you from off the land, where you go to possess it (sickness will be the lot of Israel).

22 The LORD shall smite you with a consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with mildew; and they shall pursue you until you perish (if the Lord be against us, who can be for us?).

23 And your Heaven that is over your head shall be brass (prayers will not be answered), and the Earth that is under you shall be iron (will not yield crops).

24 The LORD shall make the rain of your land powder and dust (there will be no rain): from heaven shall it come down upon you, until you be destroyed (the curses shall come from heaven, because of disobedience).

25 The LORD shall cause you to be smitten before your enemies: you shall go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them: and shall be removed into all the kingdoms of the Earth (this happened totally in A.D. 70, when Titus, the Roman General, laid Jerusalem waste, with hundreds of thousands of Jews sold all over the world as slaves, and they remained scattered for nearly 2,000 years).

26 And your carcase shall be meat unto all fowls of the air, and unto the beasts of the Earth, and no man shall fray them away (utter defeat in battle).

27 The LORD will smite you with the botch of Egypt, and with the emerods, and with the scab, and with the itch, whereof you can not be healed (the Lord controls diseases and sickness, as is obvious here).

28 The LORD shall smite you with madness, and blindness, and astonishment of heart (fear and insanity):

29 And you shall grope at noonday, as the blind gropes in darkness, and you shall not prosper in your ways: and you shall be only oppressed and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save you (once again, if God be against us, who can be for us?).

30 You shall betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: you shall build an house, and you shall not dwell therein: you shall plant a vineyard, and shall not gather the grapes thereof (plans and labor will be in vain).

31 Your ox shall be slain before your eyes, and you shall not eat thereof: your ass shall be violently taken away from before your face, and shall not be restored to you: your sheep shall be given unto your enemies, and you shall have none to rescue them (without God, Israel will be helpless before her enemies).

32 Your sons and your daughters shall be given unto another people, and your eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day long; and there shall be no might in your hand (Israel will be powerless).

33 The fruit of your land, and all your labours, shall a nation which you know not eat up; and you shall be only oppressed and crushed always (labor will be wasted):

34 So that you shall be mad for the sight of your eyes which you shall see (all that is seen is destruction).

35 The LORD shall smite you in the knees, and in the legs, with a sore botch that cannot be healed, from the sole of your foot unto the top of your head (the Lord can heal, and the Lord can bring about disease).

36 The LORD shall bring you, and your king which you shall set over you, unto a nation which neither you nor your fathers have known; and there shall you serve others gods, wood and stone (and this is exactly what happened!).

37 And you shall become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all nations where the LORD shall lead you (this has been fulfilled to the letter, as well!).

38 You shall carry much seed out into the field, and shall gather but little in; for the locust shall consume it (efforts will be wasted).

39 You shall plant vineyards, and dress them, but shall neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes; for the worms shall eat them.

40 You shall have olive trees throughout all your coasts, but you shall not anoint yourself with the oil; for your olive shall cast his fruit (will not bring forth fruit).

41 You shall beget sons and daughters, but you shall not enjoy them; for they shall go into captivity (will be stolen as slaves by heathen tribes).

42 All your trees and fruit of your land shall the locust consume.

43 The stranger that is within you shall get up above you very high; and you shall come down very low (Gentiles in Israel will prosper, but Israelites won't).

44 He shall lend to you, and you shall not lend to him: he shall be the head, and you shall be the tail.

45 Moreover all these curses shall come upon you, and shall pursue you, and overtake you, till you be destroyed; because you hearkened not unto the Voice of the LORD your God, to keep His Commandments and His Statutes which He commanded you (disobedience):

46 And they shall be upon you for a sign and for a wonder, and upon your seed for ever (this, though it may imply the final and utter rejection of Israel as a Nation, does not, however, preclude the hope of restoration; in fact, Israel will be restored, and fully [Rom. 11:25-27]).

47 Because you served not the LORD your God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things (all of these curses would come upon them, because they would not serve God);

48 Therefore shall you serve your enemies which the LORD shall send against you, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon your neck, until he have destroyed you (if Israel would not serve God, they would have to serve their enemies).

49 The LORD shall bring a nation against you from far, from the end of the Earth, as swift as the eagle flies; a nation whose tongue you shall not understand (and that happened, again and again);

50 A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor show favour to the young (and so are all nations which don't know God):

51 And he shall eat the fruit of your cattle, and the fruit of your land, until you be destroyed: which also shall not leave you either corn, wine, or oil, or the increase of your kine, or flocks of your sheep, until he have destroyed you (complete destruction).

52 And he shall besiege you in all your gates, until your high and fenced walls come down, wherein you trusted, throughout all your land: and he shall besiege you in all your gates throughout all your land, which the LORD your God has given you (these cities will be destroyed, which they were by the Babylonians).

53 And you shall eat the fruit of your own body, the flesh of your sons and of your daughters, which the LORD your God has given you, in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith your enemies shall distress you (exactly as predicted here, Israel ultimately resorted to cannibalism [II Ki. 6:28-29; Jer. 19:9; Lam. 2:20; 4:10]):

54 So that the man who is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children which he shall leave (there will be no love in the family, but only hatred):

55 So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he has nothing left him in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith your enemies shall distress you in all your gates (that Israel could be reduced to such is beyond comprehension, but they were; however, they couldn't say that they were not warned).

56 The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter,

57 And toward her young one who comes out from between her feet, and toward her children which she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly in the siege and straitness, wherewith your enemy shall distress you in your gates. (How could the greatest people on the face of the Earth, so favored by God, fall so low? The answer is simple. When we forsake God, and continue to do so despite continued warnings to return, God will ultimately forsake us. These terrible situations predicted here are the result of such disobedience.)

58 If you will not observe to do all the words of this Law that are written in this Book, that you may fear this glorious and fearful name, THE LORD YOUR GOD (this speaks of the entirety of the Book of the Law);

59 Then the LORD will make your plagues wonderful, and the plagues of your seed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and sore sicknesses, and of long continuance.

60 Moreover He will bring upon you all the diseases of Egypt, which you were afraid of; and they shall cleave unto you.

61 Also every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in the Book of this Law, them will the LORD bring upon you, until you be destroyed (we learn from this, as should be obvious, that God controls all sickness and disease; he may use Satan as His instrument to bring about such, but, still, it is the Lord Who is always in control).

62 And you shall be left few in number, whereas you were as the stars of heaven for multitude; because you would not obey the Voice of the LORD your God (once again, disobedience of the Word of the Lord is the cause).

63 And it shall come to pass, that as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought; and you shall be plucked from off the land where you go to possess it (the Lord rejoices in doing good for those who obey Him, and continues to rejoice over bringing evil on those who disobey Him; the idea is, the Lord rejoices in stamping out evil, even if such evil is found in His chosen People).

64 And the LORD shall scatter you among all people, from the one end of the Earth even unto the other; and there you shall serve other gods, which neither you nor your fathers have known, even wood and stone (in other words, if they wouldn't serve God, then they would have to serve idols).

65 And among these nations shall you find no ease, neither shall the sole of your foot have rest: but the LORD shall give you there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind:

66 And your life shall hang in doubt before you; and you shall fear day and night, and shall have none assurance of your life (a continued vexation of spirit):

67 In the morning you shall say, Would God it were evening! and at evening you shall say, Would God it were morning! for the fear of your heart wherewith you shall fear, and for the sight of your eyes which you shall see (the person of disobedience is plagued by fear constantly).

68 And the LORD shall bring you into Egypt again with ships, by the way whereof I spoke unto you, You shall see it no more again: and there you shall be sold unto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall buy you (after the capture of Jerusalem by Titus, the Jews were in large numbers carried into Egypt, and there subjected to the most ignominious bondage, exactly as the Scripture foretold).

CHAPTER 29

(1451 B.C.)

THE COVENANT

[1] These are the words of the Covenant, which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the Children of Israel in the land of Moab, beside the Covenant which He made with them in Horeb (this was not a new Covenant in addition to that made at Sinai, but simply a renewal and reaffirmation of that Covenant).

[2] And Moses called unto all Israel, and said unto them, You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt unto Pharaoh, and unto all his servants, and unto all his land (in other words, what the Lord had just said He will render for disobedience, He is able to do; remember Egypt!)**;

[3] The great temptations which your eyes have seen, the signs, and those great miracles (so they knew what God could do)**:

[4] Yet the LORD has not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day (the Lord gave you a heart in order that you might perceive, and eyes that you might see, and ears that you might hear, so that you are without excuse).

[5] And I have led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes are not waxed old upon you, and your shoe is not waxed old upon your foot (even the very clothing they wore constituted a miracle, in that it did not wear out in all of the forty years of wandering in that awful wilderness).

[6] You have not eaten bread, neither have you drunk wine or strong drink: that you might know that I am the LORD your God (whatever they had in the wilderness, God gave it to them, in order that they might know).

7 And when you came unto this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us unto battle, and we smote them:

8 And we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half Tribe of Manasseh (the Lord helped us to do this).

A COMMAND

9 Keep therefore the words of this Covenant, and do them, that you may prosper in all that you do (prosperity has always followed a true obedience of the Word of the Lord).

10 You stand this day all of you before the LORD your God; your Captains of your Tribes, your Elders, and your Officers, with all the men of Israel,

11 Your little ones, your wives, and the stranger who is in your camp, from the hewer of your wood unto the drawer of your water:

12 That you should enter into Covenant with the LORD your God, and into His Oath, which the LORD your God makes with you this day (the Covenant was to include all, then and in the future):

13 That He may establish you to day for a people unto Himself, and that He may be unto you a God, as He has said unto you, and as He has sworn unto your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob (all the Promises the Lord made to the Patriarchs, He will carry out, that is, if the people will only serve Him with an obedient heart).

14 Neither with you only do I make this Covenant and this oath;

15 But with him who stands here with us this day before the LORD our God, and also with him who is not here with us this day (the Covenant was not only with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, but all who were present that day, and all Israelites who would be born thereafter, at least until the Messiah came, Who would bring about the New Covenant [Gal. 4:4-5]):

DISOBEDIENCE

16 (For you know how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt; and how we came through the nations which you passed by;

17 And you have seen their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them [in the Hebrew language, these terms concerning heathen gods are given in contempt]**:)

18 Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or Tribe, whose heart turns away this day from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you a root that bears gall and wormwood (a striking image of the destructive fruit borne by idolatry; and let the Reader understand, idolatry, even in Christendom, isn't dead; any worship that is centered up in anything except Jesus Christ and Him Crucified can be construed as nothing more than idolatry [I Jn. 5:21])**;

19 And it come to pass, when he hears the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of my heart, to add drunkenness to thirst (the idea is, for the individual who functions in disobedience, let him not think that because he seems to be doing well at the moment, that Judgment is not forthcoming; it will come!)**:

20 The LORD will not spare him, but then the anger of the LORD and His jealousy shall smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this Book shall lie upon him, and the LORD shall blot out his name from under Heaven (will remove his name out of the Book of Life, which means he will be eternally lost, that is, if no true Repentance is forthcoming).

21 And the LORD shall separate him unto evil out of all the Tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the Covenant that are written in this Book of the Law (if the entirety of the Tribe is living for God except one man, the righteousness of the entirety of the Tribe will not cover the one man; the Lord will seek him out, and he will answer for his own sin; let no one think they can escape the awful Eye of God)**:

[22] So that the generation to come of your children who shall rise up after you, and the stranger who shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which the LORD has laid upon it;

[23] And that the whole land thereof is brimstone, and salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor bears, nor any grass grows therein, like the overthrow of Sodom, and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the LORD overthrew in His anger, and in His wrath:

[24] Even all nations shall say, Wherefore has the LORD done thus unto this land? what means the heat of this great anger?

[25] Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the Covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them forth out of the land of Egypt:

[26] For they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods whom they knew not, and whom He had not given unto them:

[27] And the anger of the LORD was kindled against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this Book:

[28] And the LORD rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day (the whole world will know why they were dispelled, and so it is!).

[29] The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this Law. (Williams says, "This Verse is much misunderstood. It does not mean that the secret things belong to God, and the revealed things to His People; but it does mean that God's Purposes, whether secret or revealed, all belong to Israel." So there was no excuse for Israel, as there is no excuse for modern day Believers. As they had the Law before them, we have the Word of God, as well, before us!)

CHAPTER 30

(1451 B.C.)

TRUE REPENTANCE REWARDED

[1] And it shall come to pass, when all these things are come upon you, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before you, and you shall call them to mind among all the nations, where the LORD your God has driven you (in effect, the Lord through Moses tells Israel that they will fail Him, thereby bringing the curses upon themselves),

[2] And shall return unto the LORD your God, and shall obey His Voice according to all that I command you this day, you and your children, with all your heart, and with all your soul (true Repentance);

[3] That then the LORD your God will turn your captivity, and have compassion upon you, and will return and gather you from all the nations, whither the LORD your God has scattered you (this will take place at the Second Coming [Zech. 12:1]).

[4] If any of yours be driven out unto the outmost parts of heaven, from thence will the LORD your God gather you, and from thence will He fetch you (at the Second Coming, the Lord will gather every Jew from all the nations of the world, and bring them to Israel [Jer. 32:37-41]):

[5] And the LORD your God will bring you into the land which your fathers possessed, and you shall possess it; and He will do you good, and multiply you above your fathers (all the Blessings promised will now be possessed, because of obedience, which includes, above all, the acceptance of the Lord Jesus Christ as their Messiah and Saviour [Zech. 13:6]).

[6] And the LORD your God will circumcise your heart, and the heart of your seed, to love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, that you may live (this speaks of the New Covenant accepted by Israel, which refers to the Lord Jesus Christ, and which Paul mentioned [Rom. 2:28-29]).

[7] And the LORD your God will put all these curses upon your enemies, and on them who hate you, which persecuted you.

[8] And you shall return and obey the Voice of the LORD, and do all His Commandments which I command you this day.

[9] And the LORD your God will make you plenteous in every work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your cattle, and in the fruit of your land, for good: for the LORD will again rejoice over you for good, as He rejoiced over your fathers (a complete restoration, which the Holy Spirit through Paul also predicted [Rom. 11:26])**:

[10] If you shall hearken unto the Voice of the LORD your God, to keep His Commandments and His Statutes which are written in this Book of the Law, and if you turn unto the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul (in other words, if Israel would only try to obey, Blessings would be theirs; but if they forsook the Lord, as they ultimately did, the Blessings would be replaced with Judgment, which they were).

GOD'S WORD

[11] For this Commandment which I command you this day, it is not hidden from you, neither is it far off (if any were ignorant, it was because they desired to be; the way had been made plain to them).

[12] It is not in Heaven, that you should say, Who shall go up for us to Heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it? (While the Law originated in Heaven, the Lord had sent it down to Earth.)

[13] Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it? (The Law was not in another place, hard to find.)

14 But the Word is very near unto you, in your mouth, and in your heart, that you may do it (in other words, if Israel was ignorant, or anyone among them, it was a willful ignorance; it is the same presently with modern Christians; anyone who wants to know the Word of God can know the Word of God).

OBEDIENCE

15 See, I have set before you this day life and good, and death and evil (Israel had a choice, even as modern Christians have a choice)**;

16 In that I command you this day to love the LORD your God, to walk in His Ways, and to keep His Commandments and His Statutes and His Judgments, that you may live and multiply: and the LORD your God shall bless you in the land where you go to possess it (the ingredients for blessings, so to speak, were as near to them as the Bible; and so it is presently!).

17 But if your heart turn away, so that you will not hear, but shall be drawn away, and worship other gods, and serve them;

18 I denounce unto you this day, that you shall surely perish, and that you shall not prolong your days upon the land, where you pass over Jordan to go to possess it (the warning is amply given).

19 I call Heaven and Earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, Blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both you and your seed may live (once again, the choice was theirs; the way had been made crystal clear to them; therefore, they could not claim ignorance)**:

20 That you may love the LORD your God, and that you may obey His Voice, and that you may cleave unto Him: for He is your life, and the length of your days: that you may dwell in the land which the LORD swore unto your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them (Israel is told here to cleave unto the Lord, for He is everything they need; once again, it is the same presently! Jesus is all that we need [Lk.

4:18-19])*.

CHAPTER 31

(1451 B.C.)

MOSES

[1] And Moses went and spoke these words unto all Israel.

[2] And he said unto them, I am an hundred and twenty years old this day (this day, whatever it might have been, was his birthday); I can no more go out and come in (not because of a lack of physical strength, but because his Ministry was now finished): also the LORD has said unto me, You shall not go over this Jordan (Moses was a type of the Law, and the Law can never possess the land, because of the feebleness of man's moral nature, all brought about by the Fall; only Grace can inherit the Promise [Gal. 3:18]).

[3] The LORD your God, He will go over before you, and He will destroy these nations from before you, and you shall possess them: and Joshua, He shall go over before you, as the LORD has said. (Joshua was chosen by the Lord to lead Israel into the Promised Land. He is a Type of Christ. Actually, the Jewish name of Jesus was "Joshua." It means "Saviour." Jesus has done for us what we could not do for ourselves. In other words, He became our Substitute, and our identification with Him guarantees us His Victory [Jn. 14:20].)

[4] And the LORD shall do unto them as He did to Sihon and to Og, kings of the Amorites, and unto the land of them, whom He destroyed (while Israel was the instrument, it was the Lord Who actually destroyed these enemies, as He Alone can do such!).

[5] And the LORD shall give them up before your face, that you may do unto them according unto all the Commandments which I have commanded you (with the Lord, Israel could not be defeated).

6 Be strong and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them: for the LORD your God, He it is Who does go with you; He will not fail you, nor forsake you (What a Promise! And to be sure, this Promise holds true even unto this moment, and even greater [Heb. 8:6]).

JOSHUA

7 And Moses called unto Joshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong and of a good courage: for you must go with this people unto the land which the LORD has sworn unto their fathers to give them; and you shall cause them to inherit it (our Heavenly Joshua Alone has already done for us everything that is needed; for us to possess the Heavenly Promise, we must but place our Faith exclusively in Christ and the Cross; the Holy Spirit will then see to it that every Promise is possessed [Rom. 8:1-2, 11]).

8 And the LORD, He it is Who does go before you; He will be with you, He will not fail you, neither forsake you: fear not, neither be dismayed (let the Reader understand that this Promise given to Israel so long ago is just as valid now, and even more so, because of Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross [Rom. 6:3-14]).

THE PRIESTS

9 And Moses wrote this Law, and delivered it unto the Priests the sons of Levi, which bore the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD, and unto all the Elders of Israel.

10 And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of every seven years, in the solemnity of the year of release, in the Feast of Tabernacles, 11 When all Israel is come to appear before the LORD your God in the place which He shall choose, you shall read this Law before all Israel in their hearing (the entirety of the Law was to be read every seven years, and all of Israel was required to hear it).

12 Gather the people together, men, and women, and children, and your stranger that is within your gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this Law (none were to be excluded, all were to be included):

13 And that their children, which have not known any thing, may hear, and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as you live in the land where you go over Jordan to possess it (future generations were commanded by the Lord to know the Law, exactly as these here this day).

GOD'S MESSAGE TO MOSES

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, the days approach that you must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves in the Tabernacle of the congregation, that I may give him a charge. And Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the Tabernacle of the congregation (Moses and Joshua were instructed by the Lord to go into the Sanctuary).

15 And the LORD appeared in the Tabernacle in a Pillar of a cloud: and the Pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the Tabernacle (the Presence of the Lord).

16 And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, you shall sleep with your fathers; and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the gods of the strangers (Gentiles) of the land, where they go to be among them, and will forsake Me, and break My Covenant which I have made with them (the Lord predicts that Israel will fail, which they did!).

17 Then My Anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide My Face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that day, Are not these evils come upon us, because our God is not among us? (This was not very pleasant for Moses to hear, but it was the truth.)

18 And I will surely hide My face in that day for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods (idolatry was the basic cause of the downfall of Israel, at least when the Lord allowed them to be taken over by the Babylonians, which would be approximately 800-plus years into the future).

[19] Now therefore write ye this song for you, and teach it the Children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for Me against the Children of Israel (this refers to the song which follows in the next Chapter; this shows the value that the Holy Spirit places on songs which glorify the Lord).

[20] For when I shall have brought them into the land which I swore unto their fathers, that flows with milk and honey; and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and waxed fat: then will they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and provoke Me, and break My Covenant (prosperity oftentimes causes people to forsake the Lord).

[21] And it shall come to pass, when many evils and troubles are befallen them, that this song shall testify against them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: for I know their imagination which they go about, even now, before I have brought them into the land which I swore (were this a history of human imagination, the inventor would never dream of closing the service of one great Chieftain, and beginning the exploits of another, in such a cloud of gloom and depression).

THE CHARGE

[22] Moses therefore wrote this song the same day, and taught it the Children of Israel.

[23] And he gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge, and said, Be strong and of a good courage: for you shall bring the Children of Israel into the land which I swore unto them: and I will be with you.

[24] And it came to pass, when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this Law in a Book, until they were finished,

THE LEVITES

[25] That Moses commanded the Levites, which bore the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD, saying, [26] Take this Book of the Law, and put it in the side of the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there for a witness against you (there was to be no excuse!).

[27] For I know your rebellion, and your stiff neck: behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, you have been rebellious against the LORD; and how much more after my death?

[28] Gather unto me all the Elders of your Tribes, and your Officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and call Heaven and Earth to record against them.

[29] For I know that after my death you will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will befall you in the latter days (has double meaning: the destruction of Israel in A.D. 70, and the acceptance of the Antichrist by Israel, which is yet future, which will bring about the Great Tribulation [Mat. 24:21]); because you will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger through the work of your hands.

[30] And Moses spoke in the ears of all the congregation of Israel the words of this song, until they were ended.

CHAPTER 32

(1451 B.C.)

THE SONG OF MOSES

[1] Give ear, O ye Heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O Earth, the Words of My Mouth (both Heaven and Earth are called to account, because this song affects both).

[2] My Doctrine shall drop as the rain, My Speech shall distil as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the showers upon the grass (the Word of the Lord always brings prosperity):

[3] Because I will publish the Name of the LORD: ascribe ye greatness unto our God (it is the Greatness of God as the Almighty that is celebrated here).

[4] He is the Rock, His Work is perfect: for all His Ways are judgment: a God of Truth and without iniquity, Just and Right is He. (Five times in this Song Jehovah is praised as the Rock [Vss. 4, 15, 18, 30-31]. The occurrences in Verses 31 and 37 ironically refer to the false rocks of the nations. Five is the number of Grace.)

[5] They have corrupted themselves, their spot is not the spot of His Children: they are a perverse and crooked generation. (Israel claimed to be the Children of God, but they were not; they were rather a stain and a reproach [Isa. 1:4]. How much does this pertain to the modern Church?)

[6] Do ye thus requite the LORD (repay Him for His Blessings by corrupting yourselves), O foolish people and unwise? Is not He your Father Who has bought you? Has He not made you, and established you?

[7] Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations: ask your father, and he will show you; your Elders, and they will tell you.

[8] When the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when He separated the sons of Adam, He set the bounds of the people according to the number of the Children of Israel (long before there was an Israel, the Lord was planning for them).

[9] For the LORD's portion is His People; Jacob is the lot of His Inheritance (the Lord measured out the inheritance of Israel, and did it Personally).

[10] He found him in a desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness; He led him about, He instructed him, He kept him as the Apple of His Eye (this must be taken as indicating that Israel is ever in the Eye of the Lord, the object of His constant and tenderest care).

[11] As a eagle stirs up her nest, flutters over her young, spreads abroad her wings, takes them, bears them on her wings:

[12] So the LORD Alone did lead him, and there was no strange god with him (Israel must admit that none of the strange gods worshipped by the heathen had anything to do with what the Lord Alone had done for them).

[13] He made him ride on the high places of the Earth, that he might eat the increase of the fields; and He made him to suck honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock (blessings);

[14] Butter of kine (cattle), and milk of sheep, with fat of lambs, and rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, with the fat of kidneys of wheat; and you did drink the pure blood of the grape. (This does not speak of fermented wine, as some claim. What they esteemed as a luxury was the pure unadulterated juice of the grape, freshly pressed out and drunk with the foam on it. Verses 7-14 celebrate His Goodness and Bounty during the period of the Pentateuch.)

[15] But Jeshurun waxed fat ("Jeshurun" means "righteous"; He predicts that Israel will fall into a state, the opposite of that to which it was destined)*, and kicked: you are waxed fat, you are grown thick, you are covered with fatness; then he forsook God which made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his Salvation. (Verses 15-19 record Israel's evil response to that goodness during the period of their kings. They foolishly esteemed the "Rock.")

16 They provoked Him to jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they Him to anger (sinners in the hands of an angry God).

17 They sacrificed unto devils (demons)*, not to God; to gods whom they knew not, to new gods that came newly up, whom your fathers feared not (gods recently invented or discovered).

18 Of the Rock Who begat you you are unmindful, and have forgotten God Who formed you (rebelled against their Maker).

19 And when the LORD saw it (saw the idols)*, He abhorred them, because of the provoking of His Sons, and of His Daughters.

20 And He said, I will hide My Face from them, I will see what their end shall be: for they are a very froward generation, children in whom is no faith. (This Verse contemplates the period between the Captivity in Babylon and the Advent of the Messiah. They had faith all right, but it was in the wrong thing, their own religion. It is the same problem presently!)

21 They have moved Me to jealousy with that which is not God; they have provoked Me to anger with their vanities: and I will move them to jealousy with those which are not a people; I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation. (This Verse relates to the period of the Acts of the Apostles [Rom. 10:11]. It pertains to the Lord turning to the Gentiles.)

22 For a fire is kindled in My anger, and shall burn unto the lowest Hell, and shall consume the Earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains. (Verses 22-33 relate to Israel's dispersion among the nations of the world, after A.D. 70.)

23 I will heap mischiefs upon them; I will spend My arrows upon them

(as Righteousness brings Blessings, wickedness brings Judgment).

[24] They shall be burnt with hunger, and devoured with burning heat, and with bitter destruction: I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them, with the poison of serpents of the dust.

[25] The sword without, and terror within, shall destroy both the young man and the virgin, the suckling also with the man of gray hairs (has happened to Israel countless times in the last nearly 2,000 years, but more particularly during the Holocaust of World War II).

[26] I said, I would scatter them into corners, I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men *(at least what they once had been):

[27] Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemy *(could be translated, "That I should be provoked to wrath by the enemy ascribing the destruction of Israel to their own prowess"), lest their adversaries (Israel's adversaries) should behave themselves strangely, and lest they should say, Our hand is high, and the LORD has not done all this (the enemies of Israel should realize that they can only do to Israel what God allows them to do; and to be sure, one day He will turn on the enemies of Israel, and will do so with a fury [Ezek., Chpts. 38-39]).

[28] For they are a Nation void of counsel, neither is there any understanding in them.

[29] O that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end! (The end result of forsaking God.)

[30] How should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, except their Rock had sold them, and the LORD had shut them up?

[31] For their rock is not as our Rock, even our enemies themselves being Judges (that "Rock" was Christ [I Cor. 10:4]).

[32] For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, and of the fields of Gomorrah:

their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters are bitter (by using Sodom and Gomorrah as comparisons, the Lord is saying that Israel is good for nothing but destruction)**:

33 Their wine is the poison of dragons, and the cruel venom of asps (and this is said of Israel by the Lord; so we know now why they crucified the Saviour).

34 Is not this laid up in store with Me, and sealed up among My treasures? (Verses 34-43 pertain to Israel's sufferings under the future Antichrist, and their final restoration.)

35 To Me belongs vengeance and recompence; their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste (the coming Great Tribulation [Mat. 24:21]).

36 For the LORD shall judge His People, and repent Himself for His Servants, when He sees that their power is gone, and there is none shut up, or left (Israel is at the place of extermination, which they will be under the Antichrist; then the Lord will, in effect, say, "It's enough!").

37 And He shall say, Where are their gods, their rock in whom they trusted, 38 Which did eat the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink offerings? let them rise up and help you, and be your protection (of course, there will be none to help; this speaks of the coming Battle of Armageddon).

39 See now that I, even I, am He, and there is no god with Me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any who can deliver out of My Hand (there is no God but Jehovah).

40 For I lift up My Hand to Heaven, and say, I live for ever.

41 If I whet My glittering Sword, and My Hand take hold on Judgment; I will render vengeance to My Enemies, and will reward them who hate Me.

[42] I will make My Arrows drunk with blood, and My Sword shall devour flesh; and that with the blood of the slain and of the captives, from the beginning of revenges upon the enemy (this is the Battle of Armageddon, described in Ezekiel, Chapters 38-39).

[43] Rejoice, O ye nations, with His People: for He will avenge the blood of His Servants, and will render vengeance to His Adversaries, and will be merciful unto His Land, and to His People (this pertains to the Second Coming, when the Lord will then "avenge the blood of His servants" [Zech. 14:1-4]).

MOSES CHARGES ISRAEL

[44] And Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he, and Hoshea (Joshua) the son of Nun.

[45] And Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel:

[46] And he said unto them, Set your hearts unto all the words which I testify among you this day, which you shall command your children to observe to do, all the words of this Law.

[47] For it is not a vain thing for you; because it is your life: and through this thing you shall prolong your days in the land, where you go over Jordan to possess it (Moses tells Israel that the entirety of their lives and living were bound up in obedience to the Law; it is the same presently with the Word of the Lord; but, sadly, the modern Church is leaving the Word of the Lord).

CANAAN

[48] And the LORD spoke unto Moses that selfsame day, saying,

[49] Get thee up into this mountain Abarim, unto Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho; and behold the land of Canaan, which I give unto the Children of Israel for a possession:

[50] And die in the mount where you go up, and be gathered unto your people; as Aaron your brother died in Mount Hor, and was gathered unto his people:

[51] Because you trespassed against Me among the Children of Israel at the waters of Meribah-Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because you sanctified Me not in the midst of the children of Israel. (The sin of striking the Rock the second time instead of speaking to it, as the Lord commanded, was actually a grievous sin. The Rock typified Christ, Who would be smitten at Calvary and, from what He would do at the Cross, a life-giving stream would pour forth for thirsting humanity. To turn and strike the Rock again at a later time, in essence, spoiled the Type, which, in effect, said that the Cross of Christ, regarding its Sacrifice, was insufficient. In other words, it was a repudiation of the Cross, which, no doubt, Moses did not intend to do. But, nevertheless, it was done [Num. 20:11-13]. Let all know and understand, if works of the Law, and we refer to Law that's made up by any individual or religious Denomination, are resorted to, pure and simple, "Christ shall profit you nothing" [Gal. 5:2]. Everything we receive from the Lord, Christ is the Source and the Cross is the Means [Rom. 6:3-14].)

[52] Yet you shall see the land before you; but you shall not go thither unto the land which I give the Children of Israel. (As previously stated, the Law can never inherit the Promise. It is not that the Law is unfavorable, but rather that man is unable to render perfect Law-keeping [Gal. 3:18].)

CHAPTER 33

(1451 B.C.)

MOSES BLESSED ISRAEL

[1] And this is the Blessing, wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the Children of Israel before his death.

[2] And he said, The LORD came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir unto them; He shined forth from Mount Paran, and He came with ten thousands of Saints: from His right Hand went a fiery Law for them (from His celestial Seat, where myriads of Angels surround His Throne).

[3] Yea, He loved the people; all His Saints are in Your Hand: and they sat down at Your Feet; every one shall receive of Your Words (everyone shall be blessed who receives Your Words).

[4] Moses commanded us a Law, even the inheritance of the congregation of Jacob (Israel inherited the Law, which placed them in a category all to themselves, far ahead of all the other nations of the world, at least as long as they obeyed that Law).

[5] And He was king in Jeshurun (meaning the Upright Ones, which was God's tender name for His People), when the heads of the people and the Tribes of Israel were gathered together.

REUBEN

[6] Let Reuben live, and not die; and let not his men be few (Reuben was prophesied by Jacob to be "unstable as water" [Gen. 49:4]; but the Lord through Moses gives Reuben a promise, in effect saying that the Tribe would not die, despite the sin that had been committed [Gen. 35:22]).

JUDAH

[7] And this is the Blessing of Judah: and he said, Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah, and bring him unto his people: let his hands be sufficient for him; and You be an help to him from his enemies (the Blessing of Judah is in the form of a prayer to the Lord; the prayer was answered in that Judah's hands were sufficient in that this Tribe brought forth the Messiah).

LEVI

[8] And of Levi he said, Let your Thummim and your Urim be with your Holy One, Whom you did prove at Massah, and with Whom you did strive at the waters of Meribah;

[9] Who said unto his father and to his mother, I have not seen him; neither did he acknowledge his brethren, nor knew his own children: for they have observed Your Word, and kept Your Covenant.

[10] They shall teach Jacob Your Judgments, and Israel Your Law: they shall put incense before You, and Whole Burnt Sacrifice upon Your Altar.

[11] Bless, LORD, his substance, and accept the work of his hands; smite through the loins of them who rise against him, and of them who hate him, that they rise not again. (Even though Levi was cursed by God, as recorded in Genesis 49:5-7, that curse was wiped away because "they have observed Your Word, and kept Your Covenant" [Num. 25:1-13]. Moses passes over Simeon, possibly because, as Jacob foretold, he was to be scattered among his brethren [Gen. 49:7]. In fact, his inheritance was within the territory of Judah [Josh. 19:2-9]. So the blessing on Judah would have been the blessing on Simeon.)

BENJAMIN

12 And of Benjamin he said, The beloved of the LORD shall dwell in safety by him; and the LORD shall cover him all the day long, and he shall dwell between His Shoulders ("to be between the Shoulders" is to be carried on the back [I Sam. 17:6]; as a father might thus bear his child, so should Benjamin be borne of the Lord).

JOSEPH

13 And of Joseph he said, Blessed of the LORD be his land, for the precious things of Heaven, for the dew, and for the deep that couches beneath,

14 And for the precious fruits brought forth by the sun, and for the precious things put forth by the moon,

15 And for the chief things of the ancient mountains, and for the precious things of the lasting hills,

16 And for the precious things of the Earth and the fullness thereof, and for the good will of him who dwelt in the bush: let the Blessing come upon the head of Joseph, and upon the top of the head of him who was separated from his brethren.

17 His glory is like the firstling of his bullock, and his horns are like the horns of unicorns: with them he shall push the people together to the ends of the Earth: and they are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh (Ephraim and Manasseh were the sons of Joseph, and it is actually two Tribes which Moses here blesses; all the blessings of all the Tribes will come to fulfillment in the Kingdom Age, and not before; if it is to be noticed, there is no reprimanding of the Tribes here whatsoever).

ZEBULUN AND ISSACHAR

18 And of Zebulun he said, Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out; and, Issachar, in your tents.

19 They shall call the people unto the mountain; there they shall offer Sacrifices of Righteousness: for they shall suck of the abundance of the seas, and of treasures hid in the sand.

GAD

20 And of Gad he said, Blessed be he who enlarges Gad: he dwells as a lion, and tears the arm with the crown of the head.

21 And he provided the first part for himself, because there, in a portion of the Law-Giver, was he seated; and he came with the heads of the people, he executed the justice of the LORD, and his judgments with Israel.

DAN

22 And of Dan he said, Dan is a lion's whelp: he shall leap from Bashan.

NAPHTALI

23 And of Naphtali he said, O Naphtali, satisfied with favour, and full with the Blessing of the LORD: possess thou the west and the south.

ASHER

24 And of Asher he said, Let Asher be blessed with children; let him be acceptable to his brethren, and let him dip his foot in oil (some have endeavored to claim that this pointed to crude oil, which was in the vicinity of the boundaries of the Tribe of Asher; however, it doesn't refer to that at all; it refers to the Moving and Operation of the Holy Spirit, Who is symbolized by "oil").

25 Your shoes shall be iron and brass (refers to the fact that the dwelling of Asher shall be strong and impregnable); and as your days, so shall your strength be.

[26] There is none like unto the God of Jeshurun (means "the Upright One"), Who rides upon the Heaven in your help, and in His excellency on the sky (the Lord is far above the ridiculous idol gods of the heathen nations).

[27] The Eternal God is your Refuge, and underneath are the Everlasting Arms: and He shall thrust out the enemy from before you; and shall say, Destroy them (God is the Refuge or Dwelling-place of His People; over us is His sheltering protection, and underneath us is the support of His Everlasting Arms).

[28] Israel then shall dwell in safety alone: the fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine; also his heavens shall drop down dew.

[29] Happy are you, O Israel: who is like unto you, O people saved by the LORD, the Shield of your help, and Who is the Sword of your Excellency! and your enemies shall be found liars unto you; and you shall tread upon their high places. (As stated, all of these great predictions given by the Holy Spirit through Moses looked beyond the present time, and even the distant future, to the coming glad day when Israel will, at long last, fully accept the Lord Jesus Christ as her Saviour, her Messiah, and her Lord. This will be at the Second Coming, commencing the Kingdom Age. Then Israel will fulfill all of these predictions.)

CHAPTER 34

(1451 B.C.)

THE DEATH OF MOSES

1 And Moses went up from the plains of Moab unto the mountain of Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, that is over against Jericho. And the LORD showed him all the land of Gilead, unto Dan (this was no doubt done by Revelation).

2 And all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, unto the utmost sea.

3 And the south, and the plain of the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, unto Zoar.

4 And the LORD said unto him, This is the land which I swore unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto your seed: I have caused you to see it with your eyes, but you shall not go over thither. (Moses, as the servant of Jehovah, and the Mediator of the First Covenant, could not bring Israel into the Resurrection Life beyond Jordan. Was Moses disappointed? I don't think so! I cannot conceive of the Lord allowing disappointment to cloud the home-going of the great Law-Giver. He saw the land, but he could not obtain it, because, as stated, the Law can never inherit the Promise. But, in Christ, he did obtain it, and shall, because of the Cross [Lk. 9:28-31].)

5 So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the Word of the LORD. (The phrase is actually, "at the Mouth of the Lord." It is interpreted by some Jewish scholars as, "by a kiss of the Lord." Perhaps Maimonides explained it best. He said, "Moses died in a moment of holiest joy in the knowledge and love of God.")

6 And He (the Lord) buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Beth-peor: but no man knows of his sepulchre unto this day. (Man is so insensate and idolatrous that Israel would, without doubt, have given Divine honors to the Great Leader when dead, who, while living, they treated with ingratitude, and more than once set about to murder! Such is man, and such is his nature!)

7 And Moses was an hundred and twenty years old when he died: his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated (his natural strength was not weakened by old age).

8 And the Children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days: so the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended.

JOSHUA

9 And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the Spirit of Wisdom (the Holy Spirit); for Moses had laid his hands upon him: and the Children of Israel hearkened unto him, and did as the LORD commanded Moses (Joshua had been selected by the Lord, and there was, no doubt, about his place and position).

10 And there arose not a Prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face (as long as this First Covenant was to last, no Prophet could arise in Israel like unto Moses; there is but One Who is worthy of greater honor than Moses, namely, the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Who is placed as a Son over all the House of God, in which Moses was found faithful as a servant, Jesus Christ, the Founder and Mediator of the New and Everlasting Covenant [Heb. 3:2-6; 13:20]), 11 In all the signs and the wonders, which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land,

12 And in all that mighty hand, and in all the great terror which Moses showed in the sight of all Israel. (Moses died, but God did not die!)

CHAPTER 1

(1451 B.C.)

GOD COMMISSIONS JOSHUA

[1] Now after the death of Moses the Servant of the LORD it came to pass, that the LORD spoke unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister, saying (as to how the Lord spoke to Joshua, we aren't told; however, the greater weight seems to point toward inward Revelation)**,

[2] Moses My Servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, you, and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them, even to the Children of Israel (Joshua begins his Ministry at the banks of Jordan, where Christ was baptized, and enters upon the public exercise of his Prophetic Office; I'm sure the Reader knows that the name Joshua is the Hebrew derivative of the Greek "Jesus," the Name of our Blessed Lord Himself; Israel had dwelt in the wilderness for some forty years; it was now time for them to go into the Promised Land)**.

[3] Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given unto you, as I said unto Moses (it was not God's Will that one foot breadth was to rest in the hands of its former owners; likewise, the Holy Spirit intends presently for everything in our lives to be removed which hinders our progress with the Lord; it is God's Will that we possess the entirety of the Promise, which pertains to total victory over the world, the flesh, and the devil [James 4:5])**.

[4] From the wilderness and this Lebanon even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and unto the Great Sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your coast (this includes modern Syria, Jordan, and part of Arabia; all of this was never actually in the hand of the Israelites, save during the reigns of David and Solomon; however, during the coming Kingdom Age, Israel will possess all of that, and more).

5 There shall not any man be able to stand before you (before Joshua) all the days of your life: as I was with Moses, so I will be with you: I will not fail you, nor forsake you. (Concerning this, Williams says, "Moses, as representing the Law, could not bring Israel into the Promised Land; he must die, for he had made one failure under that Law, and possession of Canaan by Law could only be by a perfect obedience to it. Man, being a sinner, cannot give this perfect obedience. Joshua, Type of the risen Saviour, brought Israel into the goodly Land. Grace, operating in the Power of the Holy Spirit, which it always does, can bring men into the enjoyment of that which the Law, because of man's moral weakness, on which it acts, can never do.")

6 Be strong and of a good courage: for unto this people shall you divide for an inheritance the land, which I swore unto their fathers to give them. (Moses was a servant in the Wilderness, Joshua, a son in the Land. The subject of Deuteronomy is the Wilderness; that of Joshua is the Land. Most Christian people are satisfied to be servants in the Wilderness; few ambition to be sons in the Land.

Joshua's success depended upon his obedience to his two companions — the Eternal Word, manifested in this Verse, and the Written Word, manifested in Verse 8; that is, Jesus and the Bible. Obedience to such companionship alone gives a victorious Christian experience — Williams.)

7 Only be thou strong and very courageous, that you may observe to do according to all the Law, which Moses My Servant commanded you: turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may prosper whithersoever you go. (Prosperity depended upon a strict adherence to the Law of God. Whereas Israel, at that time, only had a partial Revelation, the Law, now, we have the entirety of the Revelation of God, given in the entirety of His Word. It, and it alone, portrays the Way. To deviate from the Word of God is to deviate from prosperity. To adhere to the Word of God is to prosper, and to prosper in all things.)

8 This Book of the Law shall not depart out of your mouth (Israel was to talk the Word constantly); but you shall meditate therein day and night (think upon the Word constantly), that you may observe to do according to all that is written therein (as stated, we must not deviate): for then you shall make your way prosperous, and then you shall have good success. (What a Promise!)

9 Have not I commanded you? Be strong and of a good courage (go forward, and don't be discouraged); be not afraid (Satan will blow and bluster, but there is nothing he can do, providing we will continue to trust the Lord, and continue forward), neither be thou dismayed (there will be hindrances, but don't let them deter you or even slow you down): for the LORD your God is with you wheresoever you go (and if the Lord be with us, and He most definitely will, if we adhere strictly to the Word, Satan is then defeated, and prosperity of every stripe is guaranteed).

JOSHUA ASSUMES COMMAND

10 Then Joshua commanded the Officers of the people, saying,

11 Pass through the host, and command the people, saying, Prepare you victuals; for within three days you shall pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which the LORD your God gives you to possess it. (They could have possessed it some 38 years earlier, had they only evidenced Faith. But unbelief caused them to languish in the wilderness for some 38 extra years; likewise, far too many modern Christians languish in a spiritual wilderness because of misplaced faith. To inherit the Promised Land, we must, without fail, evidence Faith in Christ and the Cross, which will give the Holy Spirit latitude to work in our lives, Who Alone can help us to possess all that God has promised [I Cor. 1:17-18, 21, 23;; 2:2].)

12 And to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to half the Tribe of Manasseh, spoke Joshua, saying,

13 Remember the word which Moses the Servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, The LORD your God has given you rest, and has given you this land.

14 Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle, shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side Jordan; but you shall pass before your brethren armed, all the mighty men of valour, and help them;

15 Until the LORD have given your brethren rest, as He has given you, and they also have possessed the land which the LORD your God gives them: then you shall return unto the land of your possession, and enjoy it, which Moses the LORD's Servant gave you on this side Jordan toward the sunrising. (Had the two Tribes and the half Tribe permitted God to choose for them, how much happier and safer they would have been! But they chose for themselves land on the wrong side of Jordan, and brought upon themselves many sorrows and early captivity [I Ki. 22:3]. Such is the sad experience of Christian people who plan for themselves and do not have fellowship with the thoughts of God. God's Plan was, first, to conquer Canaan, and then the land stretching from the Jordan to the Euphrates. The two Tribes and the half Tribe thought the reverse would be the better plan. It wasn't! Even as man's plans are never the better plan.)

JOSHUA'S LEADERSHIP

16 And they answered Joshua, saying, All that you command us we will do, and wheresoever you send us, we will go (obedience is easy when all goes well with us, and when it makes little demand upon our Faith).

17 According as we hearkened unto Moses in all things (this was not at all absolutely correct), so will we hearken unto you: only the LORD your God be with you, as He was with Moses.

18 Whosoever he be who does rebel against your commandment, and will not hearken unto your words in all that you command him, he shall be put to death; only be strong and of a good courage. (The worthlessness of man's promises of fidelity at the close of this Chapter contrasts with the worthfulness of God's Promises of faithfulness at the opening of the Chapter.)

CHAPTER 2

(1451 B.C.)

TWO SPIES

[1] And Joshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two men to spy secretly, saying, Go view the land, even Jericho. And they went, and came into an harlot's house, named Rahab, and lodged there. (This was an Inn of sorts. The two spies did not know that Rahab was a harlot. As well, some have attempted to claim that Rahab had been forced into temple prostitution; however, the Greek Text of Hebrews 11:31 proves that she was a common harlot.

The "two spies" served no military purpose whatsoever. So why did Joshua send them?

The Lord told him to do such, because of Rahab, even though Joshua did not know or understand such at the time. The Lord knew that Faith lodged in the heart of this harlot, and God will go to any lengths to honor Faith [Heb., Chpt. 11].)

RAHAB

[2] And it was told the king of Jericho, saying, Behold, there came men in hither tonight of the Children of Israel to search out the country (how the king found this out, we aren't told).

[3] And the king of Jericho sent unto Rahab, saying, Bring forth the men who are come to you, which are entered into your house: for they be come to search out all the country.

[4] And the woman took the two men, and hid them, and said thus, There came men unto me, but I did not know from where they came:

5 And it came to pass about the time of shutting of the gate, when it was dark, that the men went out: where the men went I do not know: pursue after them quickly; for you shall overtake them.

6 But she had brought them up to the roof of the house, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order upon the roof.

7 And the men pursued after them the way to Jordan unto the fords: and as soon as they which pursued after them were gone out, they shut the gate. (We know from this that Rahab lied. The sacred historian simply narrates the fact, and makes no comment whatever upon it.

The roofs of houses, then as now, were flat in those regions. She hid the men on the roof under stalks of flax. The germ of Faith was already stirring in her heart, and it was Faith that would be amply rewarded. We must not judge Rahab, for all of this was shortly before her conversion. To be sure, we must not judge Rahab at all.)

THE PLEDGE

8 And before they (the two spies) were laid down (to go to sleep), she came up unto them upon the roof;

9 And she said unto the men, I know that the LORD has given you the land, and that your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you (Rahab's Faith is shown by the expression, "has given"; what God wills, she regarded as already done).

10 For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea for you, when you came out of Egypt (despite the fact that this took place about forty years earlier); and what you did unto the two kings of the Amorites, who were on the other side Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom you utterly destroyed.

11 And as soon as we had heard these things, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more courage in any man, because of you: for the LORD your God, He is God in Heaven above, and in Earth beneath.

(This declaration, bearing in mind the circumstances of the person who uttered it, is as remarkable as Peter's, "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God" [Mat. 16:16-17]. Upon the utterance of this statement of Faith, Rahab was saved.)

12 Now therefore, I pray you, swear unto me by the LORD, since I have showed you kindness, that you will also show kindness unto my father's house, and give me a true token (Williams says, "Rahab was a debauched member of a doomed race. Yet Grace saved her. She based her plea for Salvation upon the fact that she was justly ordained by God to destruction. Many people refuse to bestir themselves in the matter of personal Salvation because of the belief that if they are ordained to be saved, they will be saved, and if ordained to be lost, they will be lost; however, all sinners are justly ordained to be lost [Rom. 5:12] and, therefore, all sinners may be saved.

*"Rahab prefaced her plea for Salvation by declaring that she knew all were doomed to destruction, and because of this Divine Judgment, she asked for a true token that would assure her of her safety in the Day of Wrath that was coming"):

13 And that you will save alive my father, and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death (a Faith that is born of God always evidences itself by seeking the Salvation of others; her petition was answered favorably).

14 And the men answered her, Our life for yours, if you utter not this our business. And it shall be, when the LORD has given us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with you.

15 Then she let them down by a cord through the window: for her house was upon the town wall, and she dwelt upon the wall.

16 And she said unto them, Get you to the mountain, lest the pursuers meet you; and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers be returned: and afterward may you go your way.

THE SCARLET THREAD

[17] And the men said unto her, We will be blameless of this your oath which you have made us swear (if you do not obey what we are about to tell you to do).

[18] Behold, when we come into the land, you shall bind this line of scarlet thread in the window which you did let us down by: and you shall bring your father, and your mother, and your brethren, and all your father's household, home unto you (upon her request, the way of Salvation was immediately made clear and plain to her; it was a very simple way; all she had to do was to hang a piece of scarlet cloth [thread] in the window; a child could do that; as well, Salvation presently from the Wrath to come is equally simple; trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ, and in His Precious Blood, secures eternal Salvation).

[19] And it shall be, that whosoever shall go out of the doors of your house into the street, his blood shall be upon his head, and we will be guiltless: and whosoever shall be with you in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand be upon him.

[20] And if you utter this our business, then we will not honor your oath which you have made us to swear. (The assurance of Salvation to Rahab was not built upon an inward experience, but rather upon an outward evidence — that is, the scarlet line. In it was perfection; in herself imperfection. Looking upon that "true token" and believing the testimony respecting it, she was assured of deliverance in the Day of Doom that was coming. Thus, the outward token gave an inward peace. The Believer in Jesus enjoys a similar peace. The preciousness of Christ's Blood, and the Testimony of the Holy Scriptures concerning it, is the outward token which brings assurance of Salvation to the heart that trusts Christ. It was vain for Rahab to seek for Salvation upon the ground of personal worthiness; for she was vile indeed. It is equally vain for the most moral to claim Salvation today, for all have sinned, none are righteous, and all are under sentence of death [Rom. 5:12].

The condition was that the red cord would hang from the window, and that all must stay in the house where the window was. To leave the house would leave its protection. Safety was guaranteed for all who remained in the house, destruction for all who left the house. It is the same with the Blood of Christ, which the scarlet thread represented.

As long as we remain in the house of safety provided by the Blood, we are safe. To leave this house of safety, which is Faith in Christ and Him Crucified, guarantees destruction.)

THE REPORT

21 And she said, According unto your words, so be it. And she sent them away, and they departed: and she bound the scarlet line in the window. (Rahab lost not a moment in making her calling and election sure. She bound the scarlet thread in the window; and as directly she did so, she was saved — that is, she was in safety, and assured of safety. Prior to binding the scarlet line in the window, she was ordained to destruction, but, from the moment she trusted that "true token," she was ordained to Salvation, as well as all her family, provided they stayed in the house, which means that they placed their trust in the scarlet thread as well.)

22 And they went, and came unto the mountain, and abode there three days, until the pursuers were returned: and the pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but found them not.

23 So the two men returned, and descended from the mountain, and passed over, and came to Joshua the son of Nun, and told him all things that befell them:

24 And they said unto Joshua, Truly the LORD has delivered into our hands all the land; for even all the inhabitants of the country do faint because of us. (Their report was one of Faith, totally unlike the report that had been given some 38 years earlier, which doomed a generation to die in the wilderness [Num., Chpt. 13].)

CHAPTER 3

(1451 B.C.)

THE JORDAN RIVER

[1] And Joshua rose early in the morning; and they removed from Shittim, and came to Jordan, he and all the Children of Israel, and lodged there before they passed over (they were not told how they would pass over, only that it would be done).

INSTRUCTIONS

[2] And it came to pass after three days, that the Officers went through the host (they had evidently been told by Joshua what to tell the people);

[3] And they commanded the people, saying, When you see the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD your God, and the Priests the Levites bearing it, then you shall remove from your place, and go after it. (The "Priests" who carried the Ark on their shoulders, and the Staves on each side of the Ark were for that very purpose, were Types of Christ, Who Alone has the Glory of God, represented by the Ark. Jesus said to the prospective Disciples, "Follow Me." He is still saying the same thing to millions of people. Regrettably, far too many are following other things.)

[4] Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits (about 3,000 feet) by measure: come not near unto it, that you may know the way by which you must go: for you have not passed this way heretofore. (Before the Cross, men could not approach God, at least not directly, because the blood of bulls and goats could not take away sin [Heb. 10:4]. Since the Cross, we are invited to come boldly to the Throne of Grace, and to do so as often as we like [Heb. 4:16].)

[5] And Joshua said unto the people, Sanctify yourselves: for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among you (they were to make certain they were ceremonially clean, for that was the best they could do at that time).

[6] And Joshua spoke unto the Priests, saying, Take up the Ark of the Covenant, and pass over before the people. And they took up the Ark of the Covenant, and went before the people (as is here obvious, all the plans were God's Plans, and not at all of man; a perfect blueprint is laid out here for us; we should not fail to use it).

THE PROMISE

[7] And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day will I begin to magnify you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with you.

[8] And you shall command the Priests who bear the Ark of the Covenant, saying, When you are come to the brink of the water of Jordan, you shall stand still in Jordan. (Deliverance from Egypt was not necessarily a type of Salvation, as many think. In fact, while in Egypt, the Lord referred to the Israelites as "My People" [Ex. 3:7]. They were Saved, not by being delivered out of Egypt, but by trusting in the Abrahamic Covenant [Gen. 15:6]. The deliverance from Egypt typified Deliverance from domination of the sin nature [Rom. 6:14]. That Deliverance was effected, even as it is effected presently, by Faith in the slain Lamb [Ex. 12:13].

In the wilderness, Israel ceased to have Faith in the slain Lamb, and thereby wandered aimlessly for some 38 years, and with an entire generation dying in that wasteland. Regrettably and sadly, millions of modern Christians follow suit. They take their Faith away from the slain Lamb and place it in something else. Such a direction always guarantees death.

Crossing the Jordan is a Type of the Baptism with the Holy Spirit, for it is impossible to claim the Promises of God without the Leading, Guidance, and Power of the Spirit, Who, however, always works within the framework of Christ and the Cross [Rom. 8:2].)

PROPHECY

[9] And Joshua said unto the Children of Israel, Come hither and hear the Words of the LORD your God.

[10] And Joshua said, Hereby you shall know that the Living God is among you, and that He will without fail drive out from before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Perizzites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Jebusites (these heathen tribes typify enemies of the flesh which seek to hinder our progress with the Lord; victory can come to the Believer only as the Believer maintains his Faith in Christ and the Cross, which gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work within our lives [Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11]).

[11] Behold, the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD of all the Earth passes over before you into Jordan (Christ, of which the Ark of the Covenant was a Type, has gone before us and secured the victory; Faith and trust in Him guarantees us His Victory; to be sure, it is a victory which He has won solely for us).

[12] Now therefore take you twelve men out of the Tribes of Israel, out of every Tribe a man (the number "twelve" is God's number of Government; however, it is His Government, and not that of man; this means that man must not dilute it in any way).

[13] And it shall come to pass, as soon as the soles of the feet of the Priests who bear the Ark of the LORD, the LORD of all the Earth, shall rest in the waters of Jordan, that the waters of Jordan shall be cut off from the waters that come down from above; and they shall stand upon an heap. (The Priests being a Type of Christ as well, the moment their feet touched the waters, the waters fled! Such is the Power of Christ over the enemies of our soul. But, understand, Jordan will flee only before Christ, and not at all before us.)

WATERS DIVIDED

14 And it came to pass, when the people removed from their tents, to pass over Jordan, and the Priests bearing the Ark of the Covenant before the people;

15 And as they who bore the Ark were come unto Jordan, and the feet of the Priests who bore the Ark were dipped in the brim of the water, (for Jordan overflowed all his banks all the time of harvest [flooded every spring. Normally the Jordan River is about 30 to 40 feet wide. It is said, however, when it flooded during those times, which it did every spring, that its depth would increase to about 40 feet, and its width to nearly two miles. No doubt, Jericho felt somewhat safe, thinking that Israel could not cross the swollen river. They reckoned without the Power of God],)

16 That the waters which came down from above stood and rose up upon an heap very far from the city Adam, that is beside Zaretan: and those that came down toward the sea of the plain, even the Salt Sea (Dead Sea), failed, and were cut off: and the people passed over right against Jericho. (This can be construed as none other than one of the greatest miracles ever performed by the Lord. Furthermore, the Lord had them to cross opposite Jericho, with the inhabitants of that city, no doubt, observing this spectacle.)

17 And the Priests who bore the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the midst of Jordan, and all the Israelites passed over on dry ground, until all the people were passed clean over Jordan. (Many people think of Jordan, as described here, as a type of death, with Canaan as a Type of Heaven; however, while Jordan is a type of death, it is rather a type of the death of the flesh, with Canaan a Type of our possession of the Promises of God by the Power of the Holy Spirit.)

CHAPTER 4

(1451 B.C.)

TWELVE STONES

[1] And it came to pass, when all the people were clean passed over Jordan, that the LORD spoke unto Joshua, saying,

[2] Take you twelve men out of the people, out of every Tribe a man,

[3] And command you them, saying, Take you hence out of the midst of Jordan, out of the place where the Priests' feet stood firm, twelve stones, and you shall carry them over with you, and leave them in the lodging place, where you shall lodge this night. (We will find in this Chapter that there are two distinct memorials set up, both consisting of twelve stones.)

[4] Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the Children of Israel, out of every Tribe a man:

[5] And Joshua said unto them, Pass over before the Ark of the LORD your God into the midst of Jordan, and take you up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according unto the number of the Tribes of the Children of Israel:

[6] That this may be a sign among you, that when your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean you by these stones?

[7] Then you shall answer them, That the waters of Jordan were cut off before the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD; when it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off: and these stones shall be for a memorial unto the Children of Israel forever. (Four facts are stated about these stones. They were "taken," they were "carried," they were "laid down," and they were "set up." The origin of the stones was the deep bed of Jordan; their purpose was to testify that Israel owed her entrance into the goodly land only and wholly to Divine Grace and Power. In the Baptism of Christ, the Believer dies to his old life and rises into a New Life; and we are reminded that, as to our moral origin, we were buried beneath the waters of the Wrath of God; that, as to our present position, we are now set up upon Resurrection ground; and it is our duty to testify daily to the Glory of Christ, the one and only Saviour. The Lord Jesus Christ said to the Pharisees that if the children were silent, the very stones would cry out! These stones set up at Gilgal cried out day and night!)

8 And the Children of Israel did so as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of Jordan, as the LORD spoke unto Joshua, according to the number of the Tribes of the Children of Israel, and carried them over with them unto the place where they lodged, and laid them down there.

9 And Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the Priests which bore the Ark of the Covenant stood: and they are there unto this day. (The first memorial could, no doubt, be referred to as Jordan stones, but these spoken of in this Ninth Verse must be referred to as Wilderness stones. These twelve stones buried on the bottom of the Jordan River, where the feet of the Priests had stood, signify the death and burial of Israel's forty years of unbelief and sinning in the Wilderness. The Lord is saying to Israel that that time is over, buried, out of sight, and forgotten, typical of all our sins of the past, that is, if we have properly trusted Christ [I Jn. 1:9]. Unfortunately, far too many modern Christians seem to take delight in diving down to the bottom of Jordan, spiritually speaking, and retrieving those stones and bringing them to the surface, thereby constantly reminding people of such-and-such sin. I would hope we could see the terrible insult to Christ that such a thing is, and, in fact, that such action is sinful and wicked. Sins forgiven are to never be held over someone's head.)

10 For the Priests which bore the Ark stood in the midst of Jordan, until everything was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to speak unto the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua: and the people hasted and passed over. (What a scene this must have been! The majestic Ark of the Covenant held on the shoulders of the Priests, all in the midst of Jordan, with the waters held up by the mighty Power of God, that the people could walk across on dry ground, flood or not!)

[11] And it came to pass, when all the people were clean passed over, that the Ark of the LORD passed over, and the Priests, in the presence of the people.

[12] And the Children of Reuben, and the Children of Gad, and half the Tribe of Manasseh, passed over armed before the Children of Israel, as Moses spoke unto them:

[13] About forty thousand prepared for war passed over before the LORD unto battle, to the plains of Jericho.

[14] On that day the LORD magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him, as they feared Moses, all the days of his life. (Joshua was a Type of Christ, Who actually carried the name, "Joshua," which means "Saviour." The Greek derivative is "Jesus.")

THE JORDAN

[15] And the LORD spoke unto Joshua, saying; (this is the Way of the Lord; He calls men and women, and then He speaks to them, giving leading and guidance; unfortunately, most of the Church have long since ceased to hear from the Lord, that is, if they ever heard from Him, and are thereby led by men; the results are obvious), [16] Command the Priests that bear the Ark of the Testimony, that they come up out of Jordan.

[17] Joshua therefore commanded the Priests, saying, Come ye up out of Jordan.

[18] And it came to pass, when the Priests who bore the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD were come up out of the midst of Jordan, and the soles of the Priests' feet were lifted up unto the dry land, that the waters of Jordan returned unto their place, and flowed over all his banks, as they did before. (Williams says, "There was but one way into Canaan and that the Divine way made by the Ark of the Covenant. There is but one way into Heaven. Jesus says, "I am the way." The Ark typified Him — its precious wood, His Humanity; its gold, His Deity; its blood-sprinkled cover, His Atonement. As the Ark descended into the depth of Jordan and rolled back its waters, so Christ descended into the deep waters of the Wrath of God and opened the one way into everlasting life.")

GILGAL

[19] And the people came up out of Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and encamped in Gilgal, in the east border of Jericho (the name "Gilgal" means "rolled away"; their encampment in this place typified that the sins, doubt, and unbelief of the Wilderness had rolled away)**.

[20] And those twelve stones, which they took out of Jordan, did Joshua pitch in Gilgal (this was an appropriate place for these twelve memorial stones to be set up; in a sense, it was a new beginning for Israel; with Faith in Christ, any individual can have a new beginning)**.

[21] And he (Joshua) spoke unto the Children of Israel, saying, When your children shall ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean these stones?

[22] Then you shall let your children know, saying, Israel came over this Jordan on dry land. (The Miracles of the past which the Lord has given us are to be related again and again, in essence, lived again and again. While we cannot live off past Miracles, they do give us Faith for the present times and the future, which they are meant to do.)

[23] For the LORD your God dried up the waters of Jordan from before you, until you were passed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red Sea, which He dried up from before us, until we were gone over (of the nearly three million people who left Egypt, some forty years before, only two of them would actually go into the Promised Land, Joshua and Caleb; doubt and unbelief killed the others, while Faith brought Joshua and Caleb through)**:

24 That all the people of the Earth might know the Hand of the LORD, that it is mighty: that you might fear the LORD your God for ever (the "Hand of the Lord" is mighty to save!).

CHAPTER 5

(1451 B.C.)

CIRCUMCISION

[1] And it came to pass, when all the kings of the Amorites, which were on the side of Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, which were by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of Jordan from before the Children of Israel, until we were passed over, that their heart melted, neither was there spirit in them anymore, because of the Children of Israel. (Even though the hearts of the kings of the Amorites melted with fear before Israel, still, as Chapter 10 proclaims, they would oppose Israel. No matter what, Satan will oppose the Child of God, but victory is assured if God's Way is followed, even as did Joshua.)

[2] At that time the LORD said unto Joshua, Make thee sharp knives, and circumcise again the Children of Israel the second time.

[3] And Joshua made him sharp knives, and circumcised the Children of Israel at the hill of the foreskins.

[4] And this is the cause why Joshua did circumcise: All the people who came out of Egypt who were males, even all the men of war, died in the wilderness by the way, after they came out of Egypt.

[5] Now all the people who came out were circumcised: but all the people who were born in the wilderness by the way as they came forth out of Egypt, them they had not circumcised. (Israel was about to smite the Seven Nations of Canaan with the Sword of the Lord. But before they were fitted to use that Sword on others, they must themselves feel its sharpness and "die beneath its stroke." This was illustrated in Circumcision, which in essence is a Type of the Cross. Separation was made and blood was shed. We as Believers are to be separated from the world, and this can only be done by looking to Christ and the Cross, which latter the blood symbolizes.

Only those are fitted to use the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God, who have themselves experienced the death-stroke which it gives to "Nature" — that is, to the natural man, his wisdom and his goodness. It is most bitter to a man to learn that all his goodness must be slain with the Sword of the Lord just as much as all his badness. But to the true Believer, this is most sweet; for it brings him into a Resurrection life, and the power of that life takes all strength from Satan. Man, as man, let him be ever so religious, has no strength against Satan. Jericho's walls never fall before him!

So, Circumcision was a symbol of Christ and the Cross, and the price that He would there pay in order to deliver fallen humanity.)

[6] For the Children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the people who were men of war, which came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they obeyed not the Voice of the LORD: unto whom the LORD swore that He would not show them the land, which the LORD swore unto their fathers that He would give us, a land that flows with milk and honey. (An entire generation died because of unbelief. As stated, the only two, of the nearly three million who left Egypt, who finally reached the Promised Land were Joshua and Caleb. Unbelief was the downfall, while Faith was the victory [I Jn. 5:4].)

[7] And their children, whom He (the Lord) raised up in their stead, them Joshua circumcised: for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way (while in the wilderness).

[8] And it came to pass, when they had done circumcising all the people, that they abode in their places in the camp, till they were whole (in the face of the enemy, Joshua rendered the entirety of the male population helpless; but their weakness would be their strength [II Cor. 12:9-10]).

[9] And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day have I rolled away the reproach of Egypt from off you. Wherefore the name of the place is called Gilgal unto this day. (The reproach of Egypt was dual. So long as Israel wandered in the Wilderness, Egypt reproached them with the taunt that Jehovah could not bring them into the Promised Land; and, further, all of Egypt that attaches to a Servant of God is a reproach to him. That double reproach was "rolled away" at Gilgal.)

THE PASSOVER

10 And the Children of Israel encamped in Gilgal, and kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month at evening in the plains of Jericho. (This is the first Passover in the Promised Land. Israel eating the Passover proclaims that her Redemption out of Egypt, and her position in the Land of Promise, were alike due to the preciousness of the Blood of the Lamb. True spiritual victories can only be won where there is this Testimony to the Person and Work of the Lord Jesus Christ. Circumcision symbolized "the death of self." The Passover symbolized "testimony to the Blood of the Lamb.")

MANNA CEASES

11 And they did eat of the old corn of the land on the morrow after the Passover, unleavened cakes, and parched corn in the selfsame day.

12 And the Manna ceased on the morrow after they had eaten of the old corn of the land; neither had the Children of Israel Manna anymore; but they did eat of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year. (Manna was Angel's food — it was sufficient for the Wilderness and its defective spiritual life; however, the "old corn of the land" symbolized the Word of God, and is a necessity of the strength needed for spiritual conquests. Everything must be by the Word.)

THE MAN WITH A DRAWN SWORD

13 And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, behold, there stood a man over against him with his sword drawn in his hand: and Joshua went unto him, and said unto him, Are you for us, or for our adversaries? (This was a pre-incarnate appearance of Christ, Whom Joshua didn't recognize.)

14 And He (the Lord) said, No; but as Captain of the Host of the LORD am I now come. And Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and did worship, and said unto Him, What says my Lord unto His servant? (Joshua then recognized Him as the Lord. Concerning this, Williams says, "An absolute condition of victory is full surrender to Christ as Lord. He must be accepted as Captain, be permitted to plan, and be fully obeyed.")

15 And the Captain of the LORD's Host said unto Joshua, Loose your shoe from off your foot; for the place whereon you stand is Holy. And Joshua did so. (The demand that the shoes be removed from Joshua's feet, and the removal of those shoes, guaranteed that He Who now spoke to Joshua was a Divine Person, actually, as stated, a pre-incarnate appearance of Christ.

The removal of the shoes in essence indicated that Joshua was giving up all ownership and leadership, thereby giving Christ total control.

We have four steps to victory here: 1. The death of self — Circumcision; 2. Testimony to the Blood of the Lamb — Passover; 3. Feeding on the Word of God — old corn of the land; and, 4. Subjection to Christ as Lord — pulling off the shoes.)

CHAPTER 6

(1451 B.C.)

JERICHO

[1] Now Jericho was straitly shut up because of the Children of Israel: none went out, and none came in (the strong fortress barred Israel's entrance to the land; Satan will always have such a fortress to hinder our spiritual progress; it was impregnable, therefore, its conquest was impossible to Israel, but not impossible to God!).

[2] And the LORD said unto Joshua, See, I have given into your hand Jericho, and the king thereof, and the mighty men of valour (evidently, the Lord told Joshua these things when He appeared to him, as recorded in the previous Chapter).

[3] And you shall compass the city, all you men of war, and go round about the city once. Thus shall you do six days (probably the strangest plan of battle ever formed).

[4] And seven Priests shall bear before the Ark seven trumpets of rams' horns: and the seventh day you shall compass the city seven times, and the Priests shall blow with the trumpets (the number "seven" as used here is not without purpose and design; Biblically the number symbolizes perfection, totality, and universality; these are God's Plans, and they always succeed; we should cease to make plans for ourselves, and let God plan for us; as stated, His Plans always succeed).

[5] And it shall come to pass, that when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall ascend up every man straight before him. (This was a shout of obedience and a shout of victory. Spiritually, the "shout" had everything to do with the wall falling down flat, but, physically and materially, it had no effect at all, as would be obvious. The wall falling down flat was strictly a Miracle of God.)

[6] And Joshua the son of Nun called the Priests, and said unto them, Take up the Ark of the Covenant, and let seven Priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the Ark of the LORD.

[7] And he said unto the people, Pass on, and compass the city, and let him who is armed pass on before the Ark of the LORD. (The Lord didn't need Israel to march around Jericho seven days, or even one day, for the walls to fall down. So why did He have them do this? It was to teach them trust, dependence on Him, and obedience, even though they did not at all understand the directions, as neither would anyone; however, understanding what the Lord is doing is not necessarily the criteria, obedience is!)

[8] And it came to pass, when Joshua had spoken unto the people, that the seven Priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns passed on before the LORD, and blew with the trumpets: and the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD followed them.

[9] And the armed men went before the Priests who blew with the trumpets, and the rereward came after the Ark, the Priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets. (There is another problem that arises out of this illustration. Many have marched around particular obstacles, when the Lord had not said to do so, and when the ingredient was presumption instead of Faith. Let the Reader understand that presumption is just as bad as disobedience. Presumption brings reproach on the Work of the Lord, just as bad as disobedience!)

[10] And Joshua had commanded the people, saying, You shall not shout, nor make any noise with your voice, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I bid you shout; then shall you shout. (As a military maneuver, all of this was worse than useless. But it was not a military maneuver, but rather that which was spiritual.)

[11] So the Ark of the LORD compassed the city, going about it once: and they came into the camp, and lodged in the camp (they only marched around the city one time, ever how long that took, after which they went back to their camp, along with the Ark of the Lord).

[12] And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the Priests took up the Ark of the LORD.

[13] And seven Priests bearing seven trumpets of rams' horns before the Ark of the LORD went on continually, and blew with the trumpets: and the armed men went before them; but the rereward came after the Ark of the LORD, the Priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

[14] And the second day they compassed the city once, and returned into the camp: so they did six days.

[15] And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they rose early about the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times: only on that day they compassed the city seven times (according to the directions of the Lord).

[16] And it came to pass at the seventh time, when the Priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said unto the people, Shout; for the LORD has given you the city.

[17] And the city shall be accursed, even it, and all who are therein, to the LORD: only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all who are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent (Faith will take the city, and Faith will save Rahab).

[18] And you, in any wise keep yourselves from the accursed thing, lest you make yourselves accursed, when you take of the accursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble it. (Unfortunately, there was one man who didn't obey, which caused Israel great trouble. Everything about the city was cursed by God, because it was wholly given over to idol worship. The modern Christian, likewise, must be very careful about his entanglement with the world. While we are "in" the world, we are not to be "of" the world. In fact, if the world gets into the Believer, it is the same as water getting into the ship. Ruin is the result!)

19 But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are consecrated unto the LORD: they shall come into the treasury of the LORD (an expression used of anything specially devoted to God).

THE FALL OF JERICHO

20 So the people shouted when the Priests blew with the trumpets: and it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city. (Had they attempted to do so without the leading of the Lord, casualties would have been great; however, following the Lord, there is no record that there were any casualties among the army of Israel at all.)

21 And they utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword (this they were commanded to do!).

RAHAB AND HER FAMILY

22 But Joshua had said unto the two men who had spied out the country, Go into the harlot's house, and bring out thence the woman, and all that she has, as you swore unto her. (Salvation by the scarlet line was not only simple, it was also sure. When the Day of Wrath came, it gave the safety it promised. Thus will it be in the Day of the Wrath to come. That Day will prove how sure is the Salvation which follows upon simply trusting Jesus — Williams.)

23 And the young men who were spies went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had; and they brought out all her kindred, and left them without the camp of Israel (and so Rahab and the entirety of her family were saved).

24 And they burnt the city with fire, and all that was therein: only the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put into the treasury of the House of the LORD.

25 And Joshua saved Rahab the harlot alive, and her father's household, and all that she had; and she dwells in Israel even unto this day (proving that this account was written during her lifetime); because she hid the messengers, which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho. (Although slated for destruction, her Faith saved her. Rahab married Salmon, one of the Princes of Israel. She is included in our Lord's Genealogy [Mat. 1:5]. To what heights of glory her Faith took her, and so may it be for all who will dare to believe God. The Lord took her harlotry and turned it into Holiness. He took the curse that was upon her and turned it into a Blessing. What He did for her, He will do for you.)

CURSE ON JERICHO

26 And Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the LORD, who rises up and builds this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his firstborn, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it. (The object of this solid pronouncement was to preserve Jericho as a spot devoted to God forever. And for this reason a curse was pronounced upon anyone who should attempt to build a city upon the devoted spot. It does not seem that it was forbidden to build habitations on the spot, for Jericho is frequently mentioned in the New Testament. What seems to have been forbidden was the erection of a fortified city. This curse pronounced by Joshua actually fell on the reckless Hiel [I Ki. 16:34]; he saw the laying of its foundation marked by the death of his eldest son, while the death of his youngest followed its completion.)

27 So the LORD was with Joshua; and his fame was noised throughout all the country (what an honor for the Holy Spirit to say that the Lord is with anyone).

CHAPTER 7

(1451 B.C.)

AI

[1] But the Children of Israel committed a trespass in the accursed thing: for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the Tribe of Judah, took of the accursed thing: and the anger of the LORD was kindled against the Children of Israel. (Sin, as we shall see, was the cause. If one single member of the community of Israel violated the specific laws laid down by God imposed on them, the whole body was liable for his sin, until it had purged itself by a public act of restitution. So, Paul regards the Corinthian Church as polluted by the presence of one single offender, until he was publicly expelled, or he repented. There is some evidence that he repented [I Cor. 5:2, 6-7; II Cor. 2:4-11].)

[2] And Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth-aven, on the east side of Beth-el, and spoke unto them, saying, Go up and view the country. And the men went up and viewed Ai. (Had Joshua prayed about Ai, and it doesn't seem that he did, the sin would have been immediately discovered and defeat avoided. The danger after a victory is evident, because of over-confidence. In such an atmosphere, it is easy to forget to pray.)

[3] And they returned to Joshua, and said unto him, Let not all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ai; and make not all the people to labour there; for they (the people of Ai) are but few.

[4] So there went up there of the people about three thousand men: and they fled before the men of Ai.

[5] And the men of Ai smote of them about thirty and six men: for they chased them from before the gate even unto Shebarim, and smote them in the going down: wherefore the hearts of the people melted, and became as water. (Hidden sin was the cause of this failure. In the life of victory, God is the one and only strength of the Believer; he has no other strength. But God cannot give that strength if sin be indulged. If He did, He would deny His Own Nature, which is Holiness. When He acts in Power, in the midst of His People, He must act in harmony with His Own Nature; and hence, He must judge sin in the camp of Israel with the same "fierce anger" with which He judged it in the city of Jericho. That judgment in both cases was death.

Sin can be overcome in the life of the Believer only by the Believer looking exclusively to Christ and the Cross. It is at the Cross where sin was addressed, and only at the Cross. When the Believer places his Faith exclusively in Christ and the Cross, and it must be in both, the Holy Spirit will then work mightily in the heart and life of such a Believer, giving total and complete victory [Rom. 8:1-2, 11; I Cor. 1:17-18, 21, 23;; 2:2; Gal. 6:14; Col. 2:14-15].)

[6] And Joshua rent his clothes, and fell to the earth upon his face before the Ark of the LORD until the eventide, he and the Elders of Israel, and put dust upon their heads. (They knew something was wrong, bad wrong, but didn't know what it was. As stated, they evidently had not prayed about the situation at Ai before now. Had they done so, the lives of 36 men would have been spared.)

[7] And Joshua said, Alas, O LORD God, wherefore have You at all brought this people over Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? would to God we had been content, and dwelt on the other side Jordan!

[8] O LORD, what shall I say, when Israel turns their backs before their enemies!

[9] For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear of it, and shall environ us round, and cut off our name from the Earth: and what will You do unto Your great name? (It doesn't take very much for the Faith of even the strongest Saint, such as Joshua, to be weakened. He had just seen one of the greatest moves of God in the history of man, the opening of the Jordan River, and the destruction of the city of Jericho without the loss of a single Israelite. So why will he now question the Lord?

If there is a problem, then it's not the Lord's fault, but rather ours!)

SIN UNCOVERED

10 And the LORD said unto Joshua, Get thee up; wherefore liest thou thus upon your face?

11 Israel has sinned, and they have also transgressed My Covenant which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the accursed thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and they have put it even among their own stuff (however, the Lord did not tell Joshua who it was).

12 Therefore the Children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed: neither will I be with you any more, except you destroy the accursed from among you (to the point and simple! God cannot bless sin, and this is one of the greatest examples that one could ever know. If God would not bless Israel then because of sin, He will not bless us now, if we are guilty of the same thing).

13 Up, sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves against tomorrow: for thus says the LORD God of Israel, There is an accursed thing in the midst of you, O Israel: you cannot stand before your enemies, until you take away the accursed thing from among you. (Regrettably, millions of modern Christians fall into this category. The "accursed thing" could fall into many categories. The only way that it can be defeated is for the Believer to express his Faith exclusively in Christ and what Christ has done at the Cross. Then, and only then, can and will the Holy Spirit work within one's life, Who Alone can remove the "accursed thing" [Rom. 6:3-14; I Cor. 1:17-18, 23; Gal. 6:14].)

14 In the morning therefore you shall be brought according to your

Tribes: and it shall be, that the Tribe which the LORD takes shall come according to the families thereof; and the family which the LORD shall take shall come by households; and the household which the LORD shall take shall come man by man.

15 And it shall be, that he who is taken with the accursed thing shall be burnt with fire (stoned to death, and then burned with fire, which was then the system), he and all who he has: because he has transgressed the Covenant of the LORD, and because he has wrought folly in Israel. (The enemies of the Lord would claim that such is barbaric; however, the truth is, it is the sin that is barbaric, because it allows Satan to "steal, kill, and destroy" [Jn. 10:10]. Instructions had been plainly and clearly given to the entirety of the army of Israel that no spoil was to be taken in Jericho by the soldiers, or anyone else of the Tribes of Israel. So, to disobey this was to do so in the Face of God, with defiance and arrogance, which, if allowed to continue, would wreck Israel.

If someone has a contagious disease, it is not cruel to quarantine that person where they cannot infect others. In fact, it would be cruel not to do so. No, the Lord was not cruel in what He demanded; He would have been cruel not to have done so.)

ACHAN

16 So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel by their Tribes; and the Tribe of Judah was taken (how the Lord informed Joshua of this, we aren't told)**:

17 And he brought the family of Judah; and he took the family of the Zarhites: and he brought the family of the Zarhites man by man; and Zabdi was taken (again, in some manner, the Holy Spirit said, "This is the one")**:

18 And he brought his household man by man; and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the Tribe of Judah, was taken.

19 And Joshua said unto Achan, My son, give, I pray you, glory to the LORD God of Israel, and make confession unto Him; and tell me now what you have done; hide it not from me.

20 And Achan answered Joshua, and said, Indeed I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and thus and thus have I done:

21 When I saw among the spoils a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it.

JUDGMENT

22 So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran unto the tent; and, behold, it was hid in his tent, and the silver under it.

23 And they took them out of the midst of the tent, and brought them unto Joshua, and unto all the Children of Israel, and laid them out before the LORD.

24 And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had: and they brought them unto the valley of Achor.

25 And Joshua said, Why have you troubled us? the LORD shall trouble you this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones. (Babylon and money have a hateful attraction for the Christian. He finds these things among the unconverted around him, as Achan found them in Jericho, and his heart covets them. This explains the weakness of the modern Church. These sins are indulged instead of being confessed and forsaken. God has, therefore, withdrawn His Power, and there is universal weakness and defeat. Fellowship with God can only be enjoyed if resolute separation from all evil be observed.

Achan involved his family in the like ruin with himself. The use of the plural in the Hebrew Text suggests that they, like Sapphira, were privy to the theft [Acts 5:1-2].)

[26] And they raised over him a great heap of stones unto this day. So the LORD turned from the fierceness of His anger. Wherefore the name of that place was called, The Valley of Achor, unto this day. (If the discovery and judgment of sin be painful, and if there be faithfulness in dealing with it, then Grace gives both blessing and victory, and the Valley of Achor becomes a Door of Hope [Hos. 2:15]. Sin should be greatly feared, but neither its bitterness nor its punishment should be dreaded, that is, if it is properly confessed [I Jn. 1:9]; for it is at this point that God resumes His Victory, thereby restoring fellowship to His errant Child.

Let the Reader understand that Israel was under Law, whereas presently we are under Grace. Observing what Law is, and how it must be enforced, should cause every Believer to shrink back from engaging in Law. If the Christian tries to live by Law, which, regrettably, the far greater majority of the modern Church is attempting to do, Law, incidentally, devised by man, but still Law nevertheless, they are then brought under its curse [Gal. 3:10]. And, to be sure, that's not the way that any Believer wants to live.

This is the Age of Grace, and Grace comes to the Child of God in an uninterrupted flow, which is the only way we can successfully live for God, providing the Believer places his Faith exclusively in Christ and the Cross. This is imperative [Gal., Chpt. 5].)

CHAPTER 8

(1451 B.C.)

AI

[1] And the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear not, neither be thou dismayed: take all the people of war with you, and arise, go up to Ai: see, I have given into your hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land (if God gives something, then the obtaining of such treasure must be done in God's Way; the problem with the modern Church is that it has abrogated God's Government, instituted government of its own devisings, papered it with a Scripture or two, and then labeled it as "God's Government"; that which man conceives is never of God, irrespective as to how religious it may be):

[2] And you shall do to Ai and her king as you did unto Jericho and her king: only the spoil thereof, and the cattle thereof, shall you take for a prey unto yourselves: you must lay an ambush for the city behind it (when God gives directions, victory is the guaranteed result; if proper relationship with Him through prayer, the study of the Word, and, above all, constant Faith in Christ and the Cross, such will then guarantee proper leading).

[3] So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up against Ai: and Joshua chose out thirty thousand mighty men of valour, and sent them away by night.

[4] And he commanded them, saying, Behold, you shall lie in wait against the city, even behind the city: go not very far from the city, but all of you be ready (they were ready, simply because they were following directions given directly by the Lord):

[5] And I, and all the people who are with me, will approach unto the city:

and it shall come to pass, when they come out against us, as at the first, that we will flee before them,

6 (For they will come out after us) till we have drawn them from the city; for they will say, They flee before us, as at the first: therefore we will flee before them.

7 Then you shall rise up from the ambush, and seize upon the city: for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand.

8 And it shall be, when you have taken the city, that you shall set the city on fire: according to the Commandment of the LORD shall you do. See, I have commanded you (the taking of these cities, and the destruction of them, were symbolic of the victory that is to be won within our present-day lives and living; the Promised Land was God's Land; consequently, all enemies must be put to the sword; likewise, we as Believers now belong to the Lord; everything in our lives that is not proper must be subjected to the Sword of the Spirit, with the Fire of the Spirit burning out the dross [Mat. 3:11; Eph. 6:17]).

CAPTURE OF THE CITY

9 Joshua therefore sent them forth: and they went to lie in ambush, and abode between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of Ai: but Joshua lodged that night among the people (among the army).

10 And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and numbered the people, and went up, he and the Elders of Israel, before the people to Ai. (God numbers exactly those who would do battle in His Service. It was then physical, as well as spiritual; it is now altogether spiritual. The fight at present is "the good fight of Faith" [I Tim. 6:12-13]. This "fight" in which we are called upon to engage pertains to our Faith. This refers to one exclusively placing his Faith in Christ and the Cross. The Cross must never be separated from Christ, and we speak of its benefits [Eph. 2:13-18; Gal. 6:14].)

11 And all the people, even the people of war who were with him, went up, and drew near, and came before the city, and pitched on the north side of Ai: now there was a valley between them and Ai.

12 And he took about five thousand men, and set them to lie in ambush between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of the city.

13 And when they had set the people, even all the host that was on the north of the city, and their liers in wait on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley.

14 And it came to pass, when the king of Ai saw it, that they hasted and rose up early, and the men of the city went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at a time appointed, before the plain; but he did not know that there were liers in ambush against him behind the city.

15 And Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness.

16 And all the people who were in Ai were called together to pursue after them: and they pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city.

17 And there was not a man left in Ai or Beth-el, who went not out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel (which the Lord knew they would do!).

18 And the LORD said unto Joshua, Stretch out the spear that is in your hand toward Ai; for I will give it into your hand. And Joshua stretched out the spear that he had in his hand toward the city (the Lord told Joshua to stretch out the spear toward the city, which was a symbol of Faith).

19 And the ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand: and they entered into the city, and took it, and hasted and set the city on fire.

20 And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and, behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to Heaven, and they had no power to flee this way or that way: and the people who fled to the wilderness turned back upon the pursuers (the army of Israel ceased their fleeing, and then turned to fight the men of Ai).

[21] And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again, and slew the men of Ai (everything in our lives not proper with the Lord must be slain, and can be slain, but only by the Believer placing his Faith exclusively in Christ and the Cross [Rom. 6:3-14]).

[22] And the other issued out of the city against them (the soldiers of Israel came out of the city against the soldiers of Ai); so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side (Israel had the army of Ai between two forces, soldiers of Israel on one side, and soldiers of Israel on the other side): and they smote them, so that they let none of them remain or escape.

[23] And the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

VICTORY

[24] And it came to pass, when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness wherein they chased them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, that all the Israelites returned unto Ai, and smote it with the edge of the sword.

[25] And so it was, that all who fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thousand, even all the men of Ai.

[26] For Joshua drew not his hand back, wherewith he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. (These individuals were so steeped in sin and idolatry that one Archaeologist stated, "The God of Israel, Who gave instructions that all of these heathen tribes in the land of Canaan be exterminated, did future generations an untold service." Second, had they been allowed to remain, knowing the human heart, Israel would have been corrupted. Regrettably, after the death of Joshua, some were allowed to remain, and the corruption of Israel is exactly what took place. If weights and sins in our lives aren't exterminated, which can only be exterminated by the Cross, they will ultimately wreck us [Heb. 12:1-2].)

[27] Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Israel took for a prey unto themselves, according unto the Word of the LORD which He commanded Joshua.

[28] And Joshua burnt Ai, and made it an heap forever, even a desolation unto this day (I have personally been to this site, and there is nothing left, not even ruins).

[29] And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until eventide: and as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his carcase down from the tree, and cast it at the entering of the gate of the city, and raise thereon a great heap of stones, that remains unto this day (the day that the Book of Joshua was written; it was probably written by Joshua, with the exception of the last five Verses, which record his death).

VICTORY CELEBRATED

[30] Then Joshua built an Altar unto the LORD God of Israel in Mount Ebal (according to the Word of the Lord, the Altar was built on Mount Ebal, the Mount of Cursing, which relates to the curse of sin, and not Mount Gerizim, the Mount of Blessing. Christ, Who Alone perfectly obeyed the Law, had, therefore, enjoyed, as a Man, its blessing, yet, voluntarily, in love for those who, by sinning, had incurred its curse, ascended the hill of malediction, and, in His Own Person, suffered the Judgment, and thus brought out from under the curse those who were sentenced to death [Gal. 3:13-14]. Regrettably, the modern Church is attempting to build the Altar, i.e., "the Cross," that is, if the Cross is considered at all, on Mount Gerizim, the Mount of Blessing, which is a denial of the real problem of man, which is sin)**,

[31] As Moses the Servant of the LORD commanded the Children of Israel, as it is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, an Altar of whole stones, over which no man has lift up any iron (the Altar, a Type of the Cross, built of stones unshaped, symbolizes the fact that we must not add to the Cross nor take from the Cross); and they offered thereon Burnt Offerings unto the LORD, and sacrificed Peace Offerings (all of this typified the fact that sin is man's problem, and that the Cross is the only remedy).

[32] And he (Joshua) wrote there upon the stones a copy of the Law of Moses (exactly as he had been commanded by Moses to do [Deut. 27:2, 8]), which he wrote in the presence of the Children of Israel.

[33] And all Israel, and their Elders, and Officers, and their Judges, stood on this side the Ark and on that side before the Priests the Levites, which bore the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD, as well the stranger, as he who was born among them; half of them over against Mount Gerizim, and half of them over against Mount Ebal; as Moses the Servant of the LORD had commanded before, that they should bless the people of Israel (all of these stood at the foot of Mount Gerizim, the Mount of Blessing, where the Ark of the Covenant was then located, and pronounced Blessings upon Israel; but let it be understood, all of these Blessings were predicated on a proper understanding of the "Altar" and its use).

[34] And afterward he read all the words of the Law, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the Book of the Law.

[35] There was not a word of all that Moses commanded, which Joshua read not before all the Congregation of Israel, with the women, and the little ones, and the strangers who were conversant among them. (It is incumbent upon us presently, as Preachers of the Gospel, to announce to the entirety of the Church the Word of the Lord, taking nothing from it, nor adding anything to it.)

CHAPTER 9

ALLIANCE

1 And it came to pass, when all the kings which were on this side Jordan, in the hills, and in the valleys, and in all the coasts of the Great Sea over against Lebanon, the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, heard thereof;

2 That they gathered themselves together, to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one accord (this is but an example of the enemy coming against the modern Child of God with reinforcements; however, as Joshua and Israel of old, if directions from the Lord are sought and received, victory will be sure).

THE GIBEONITES

3 And when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done unto Jericho and to Ai,

4 They did work wilily, and went and made as if they had been ambassadors, and took old sacks upon their asses, and wine bottles (wine skins), old, and rent, and bound up;

5 And old shoes and clouted upon their feet, and old garments upon them; and all the bread of their provision was dry and mouldy.

6 And they went to Joshua unto the camp at Gilgal (Gilgal was about three miles east of Jericho), and said unto him, and to the men of Israel, We be come from a far country (Gibeon was actually only about fifteen miles west of Jericho): now therefore make you a league with us (this was strictly forbidden in Exodus 23:32; 34:12).

7 And the men of Israel said unto the Hivites (its chief city was Gibeon, but the people were Hivites), Peradventure you dwell among us; and how shall we make a league with you?

8 And they said unto Joshua, We are your servants. And Joshua said unto them, Who are you? and from where do you come?

9 And they said unto him, From a very far country your servants are come because of the Name of the LORD your God: for we have heard the fame of Him, and all that He did in Egypt,

10 And all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites, who were beyond Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon, and to Og king of Bashan, which was at Ashtaroth (to buttress their deceit, they carefully neglected to mention Jericho and Ai, which were recent victories).

11 Wherefore our Elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, Take victuals with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say unto them, We are your servants: therefore now make you a league with us.

12 This our bread we took hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we came forth to go unto you; but now, behold, it is dry, and it is mouldy:

13 And these bottles (skins) of wine, which we filled, were new; and, behold, they be rent: and these our garments and our shoes are become old by reason of the very long journey (as stated, it was actually only about fifteen miles, which could be easily traversed in one day).

14 And the men took of their victuals, and asked not counsel at the Mouth of the LORD. (The Holy Spirit is careful to delineate this failure on the part of Israel. At Ai, Israel trusted her own strength, and did not pray, and was defeated. At Gibeon, she trusted her own wisdom, and did not pray, and was defeated! The sharp lesson taught at Ai was quickly forgotten. Such is the natural heart!)

15 And Joshua made peace with them, and made a league with them, to let them live: and the princes of the congregation swore unto them. (Satan is more to be dreaded as a humble supplicant than as a roaring lion. To make him flee, he only needs to be resisted; but to stand against his wiles, the whole armor of God must be employed. Had Joshua asked counsel at the Mouth of the Lord instead of putting the moldy bread of the Gibeonites into his own mouth, so to speak, he would not have fallen into this snare. Satan, through the mouth of the Gibeonite, abundantly quoted the Bible to Joshua [Vss. 6, 9-10, 24], just as afterwards he did to the greater than Joshua, but the Lord defeated him with three Verses out of the Law.

Had Joshua so acted, he would have gotten the victory as well.

Satan can only deceive the Christian when we take the management into our own hands, instead of consulting the Lord.)

DECEPTION DISCOVERED

16 And it came to pass at the end of three days after they had made a league with them, that they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them (only about fifteen miles due west).

17 And the Children of Israel journeyed, and came unto their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and Kirjath-jearim.

18 And the Children of Israel smote them not, because the princes of the congregation had sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation murmured against the princes.

19 But all the princes said unto all the congregation, We have sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel: now therefore we may not touch them (the word of the Child of God is to be as the Word of the Lord).

PUNISHMENT

20 This we will do to them; we will even let them live, lest wrath be upon us, because of the oath which we swore unto them.

21 And the princes said unto them, Let them live; but let them be hewers of wood and drawers of water unto all the congregation; as the princes had promised them. (The Gibeonites became the Nethinim. The word means "given," i.e., devoted to the Sanctuary of Jehovah. Their lives were spared because the princes of Israel had taken an oath to them in the Name of Jehovah; but, because of their deceit, they were condemned to be drawers of water to the House of the Lord. They were not condemned to domestic slavery to the Israelites, but rather to "the congregation," which refers to the Tabernacle, and later the Temple. Grace, therefore, brought them into the glory and joy of Psalms 84:10, and instructed David to appoint them to high position in the Temple [Ezra 8:20]. In fact, they were the first to return with Ezra and Nehemiah from Babylonian captivity, pledging themselves to keep the Statutes given by God to Moses [Ezra 2:43-58; Neh. 7:60]. They are last read of in Nehemiah 3:26; 10:28; and 11:21, as making their homes outside the water-gate of Jerusalem. Why the water-gate? Because being near the water supply, they could more readily discharge the honorable bondage to which Joshua had condemned them, of being drawers of water to the Temple of Jehovah. Thus, a curse justly pronounced by Law becomes, by Grace, a Blessing.)

22 And Joshua called for them, and he spoke unto them, saying, Wherefore have you beguiled us, saying, We are very far from you; when (in fact) you dwell among us?

23 Now therefore you are cursed, and there shall none of you be freed from being bondmen, and hewers of wood and drawers of water for the House of my God.

24 And they answered Joshua, and said, Because it was certainly told your servants, how that the LORD your God commanded His Servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you, therefore we were sore afraid of our lives because of you, and have done this thing.

[25] And now, behold, we are in your hand: as it seems good and right unto you to do unto us, do.

[26] And so did he (Joshua) unto them, and delivered them out of the hand of the Children of Israel, that they slew them not (as stated, the curse of the Law was turned to a Blessing).

[27] And Joshua made them that day hewers of wood and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the Altar of the LORD, even unto this day, in the place which he should choose (to their credit, as stated, they ever remained faithful).

CHAPTER 10

(1451 B.C.)

THE AMORITE CONFEDERATION

[1] Now it came to pass, when Adoni-zedec king of Jerusalem had heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it (this is the first mention of Jerusalem in the Bible, as a proper name; it was mentioned first, about 500 years earlier, as "Salem"); as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king; and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them;

[2] That they feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all the men thereof were mighty.

[3] Wherefore Adoni-zedec king of Jerusalem, sent unto Hoham king of Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of Lachish, and unto Debir king of Eglon, saying,

[4] Come up unto me, and help me, that we may smite Gibeon: for it has made peace with Joshua and with the Children of Israel. (When anyone makes peace with the Divine Joshua, he brings upon himself the anger of his companions. Thus it was with Gibeon; however, Joshua was able to protect and deliver the Gibeonites. Our Lord is able to deliver from our enemies those who know Him as their Peace.)

[5] Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped before Gibeon, and made war against it.

THE APPEAL TO JOSHUA

6 And the men of Gibeon sent unto Joshua to the camp to Gilgal, saying, Slack not your hand from your servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us: for all the kings of the Amorites who dwell in the mountains are gathered together against us. (Let the Believer understand that it is our Heavenly Joshua Alone Who can help us. No one else can. He does so by us evidencing Faith in Him and what He has done for us at the Cross. Then, and then alone, the Holy Spirit can work mightily on behalf of us against the powers of darkness. To be sure, He has never lost a battle [Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11; Gal. 6:14].)

7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valour.

8 And the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear them not (the keynote of Joshua's life and ministry, as of the keynote of every soldier of God): for I have delivered them into your hand; there shall not a man of them stand before you.

9 Joshua therefore came unto them suddenly, and went up from Gilgal all night.

HAILSTONES

10 And the LORD discomfited them before Israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goes up to Beth-horon, and smote them to Azekah, and unto Makkedah (a distance of about 25 miles).

11 And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Beth-horon, that the LORD cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died: they were more which died with hailstones than they whom the Children of Israel slew with the sword (the Power of the Lord is not limited respecting those who have Faith in Him; however, such Power is available only if we go according to His Direction, and not from the position of presumption).

THE SUN

12 Then spoke Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the Children of Israel, and he (Joshua) said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon.

13 And the Sun stood still, and the Moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the Book of Jasher? (A book no longer in existence, nor any of its copies.) So the Sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day. (It is said that this is confirmed by State documents of Egypt, China, and Mexico, which record this double-day. It is said that Herodotus, and Lord Kingsborough, in his history of the Mexicans, and the Chinese philosopher Huai-nan-Tzu quoted these records. The hill of Gibeon, at the moment when Joshua spoke, was behind him to the east, and the sun was setting in front of him to the west. It was evening, and a continuance of the daylight was needed in order to complete the victory.)

14 And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the LORD fought for Israel. (God is a miracle-working God. The Bible opens with miracles, continues with miracles, and concludes with miracles, i.e., "proclaims them into the eternal future.")

VICTORY OVER THE ENEMY

15 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal (returned in victory).

16 But these five kings fled, and hid themselves in a cave at Makkedah.

17 And it was told Joshua, saying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Makkedah.

18 And Joshua said, Roll great stones upon the mouth of the cave, and set men by it for to keep them:

[19] And stay ye not, but pursue after your enemies, and smite the hindmost of them; suffer them not to enter into their cities: for the LORD your God has delivered them into your hand (they were not to be diverted from the purpose of annihilating the enemy by the important news that the heads of the confederacy were in their hands).

[20] And it came to pass, when Joshua and the Children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they were consumed, that the rest which remained of them entered into fenced cities (under guard).

[21] And all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace: none moved his tongue against any of the Children of Israel. (Who would be so foolish as to speak negative things against ones being used so mightily by God? Regrettably, the modern Church seems to have little learned this lesson.)

[22] Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings unto me out of the cave.

[23] And they did so, and brought forth those five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

[24] And it came to pass, when they brought out those kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the Captains of the men of war which went with him, Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them. (There is but one way to deal with sin, and that is to place the triumphant foot of Faith upon its neck, and put it to death. It is impossible to improve sin, just as, in the Judgment of God, it was impossible for Israel to improve these five kings. Man, in his folly, tries to improve what is opposed to God; but the failure of his efforts ever reveals its foolishness. There is no such thing as moral evolution. The Cross of Christ is the only answer for sin, and, to be sure, sin is the problem.)

25 And Joshua said unto them, Fear not, nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage: for thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom you fight. (This great Promise, and even greater, is to us as well. Paul said, "Sin [the sin nature] shall not have dominion over you" [Rom. 6:14]; however, there is only one way that such victory can be assured. The Believer must understand that all things come to us from God by the Person of Christ, with the Means being the Cross [Rom. 6:3-14]. The Holy Spirit, Who Alone can bring about these victories, and Who works exclusively within the parameters of the Finished Work of Christ, will then do great and mighty things for us [Rom. 8:1-2, 11].)

26 And afterward Joshua smote them, and slew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening. (As stated, victory over sin, of which all of this is a type, can only come about by it being utterly destroyed within our lives. This was all made possible at the Cross, and only at the Cross. There sin was dealt with, as it regards its cause and its cure [Jn. 1:29].)

27 And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the Sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and laid great stones in the cave's mouth, which remain until this very day.

COMPLETION OF THE CONQUEST

28 And that day Joshua took Makkedah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof he utterly destroyed, them, and all the souls who were therein; he let none remain: and he did to the king of Makkedah as he did unto the king of Jericho (this king was not with the five listed in Verse 23).

29 Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, unto Libnah, and fought against Libnah (due west of Gilgal, about 40 miles)**:

30 And the LORD delivered it also, and the king thereof, into the hand of Israel; and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls who were therein; he let none remain in it; but did unto the king thereof as he did unto the king of Jericho.

31 And Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, unto Lachish, and encamped against it, and fought against it (about 40 miles southwest of Gilgal):

32 And the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, which took it on the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls who were therein, according to all that He (the Lord) had done to Libnah. (If it is to be noticed, it was not the stratagem of Israel that won these victories, but rather the Lord, Who told Joshua what to do. If we seek the Face of the Lord as we should, as well, He will give us guidance and direction. Jesus said so [Jn. 16:13-15].)

33 Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua smote him and his people, until he had left him none remaining. (No sin of any nature is to be left remaining in our lives. But let us say it again, because it is so very, very important. Victory for the Child of God can be obtained only by looking exclusively to Christ, understanding that everything He gives us is by the Means of the Cross; consequently, the Cross must ever be the Object of our Faith. Then the Holy Spirit will gloriously work on our behalf [Rom. 8:1-2, 11; Col. 2:14-15].)

34 And from Lachish Joshua passed unto Eglon, and all Israel with him; and they encamped against it, and fought against it (about 45 miles southwest of Gilgal):

35 And they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls who were therein he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36 And Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, unto Hebron; and they fought against it (about 35 miles south of Gilgal):

37 And they took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the souls who were therein; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon; but destroyed it utterly, and all the souls who were therein.

[38] And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir; and fought against it (about 45 miles southwest of Gilgal):

[39] And he took it, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof; and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls who were therein; he left none remaining: as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to the king thereof; as he had done also to Libnah, and to her king.

[40] So Joshua smote all the country of the hills, and of the south, and of the vale, and of the springs, and all their kings: he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed all who breathed, as the LORD God of Israel commanded. (To get every enemy out of our lives with the exception of one is not sufficient. The one that remains can cause us tremendous problems and difficulties; so all, as it pertains to sin of any nature, must be destroyed, as these victories of Joshua symbolize.)

[41] And Joshua smote them from Kadesh-barnea even unto Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, even unto Gibeon.

[42] And all these kings and their land did Joshua take at one time, because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.

[43] And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal. (True strength is always to be had at Gilgal; there self is judged and mortified, and God and His Power realized and enjoyed. The repeated mention, therefore, of Gilgal in this Chapter expresses an important principle which must be true in the experience of the Christian, if he is to win victories over sin. "Gilgal" was the place of circumcision, which, in a sense, is a Type of the Cross. Separation is made, and blood is shed. This is the only manner in which "self" can be properly addressed — at the Cross [Jn. 5:1-9].)

CHAPTER 11

(1450 B.C.)

DAY OF VICTORY

[1] And it came to pass, when Jabin king of Hazor had heard those things, that he sent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph (Hazor was about 90 miles due north of Gilgal; it was about 10 miles north of the Sea of Galilee),

[2] And to the kings who were on the north of the mountains, and of the plains south of Chinneroth (Sea of Galilee), and in the valley, and in the borders of Dor on the west (located on the Mediterranean Sea),

[3] And to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and to the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the mountains, and to the Hivite under Hermon in the land of Mizpeh.

[4] And they went out, they and all their host with them, much people, even as the sand that is upon the sea shore in multitude, with horses and chariots very many (all the heathen kings).

[5] And when all these kings were met together, they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel (about 10 miles northwest of the Sea of Galilee).

[6] And the LORD said unto Joshua, Be not afraid because of them: for tomorrow about this time will I deliver them up all slain before Israel: you shall hough their horses, and burn their chariots with fire (hamstring their horses, which made them unfit for war, but not for agriculture).

[7] So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly; and they fell upon them.

8 And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, who smote them, and chased them unto great Zidon, and unto Misrephoth-maim, and unto the valley of Mizpeh eastward; and they smote them, until they left them none remaining.

9 And Joshua did unto them as the LORD bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire (Israel had no horses or chariots, but yet they defeated these enemies, who were far superior to them, regarding military warfare; Israel defeated them, because the Lord was with Israel).

10 And Joshua at that time turned back, and took Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword: for Hazor beforetime was the head of all those kingdoms. (Williams says, "The frequent mention of Hazor [Vss. 1, 10-11, 13] introduces a great principle. Hazor was the center of power of that part of the world. Natural wisdom would propose to make it the seat of government, so that it should be that for God which before it had been for the world. But God will in no wise allow the world's seat of power to become that of His People. His People were to depend exclusively on Him, and to dwell with Him at Gilgal. Accordingly, Hazor is totally destroyed. Not a vestige of its former power must remain to compete with Gilgal. The center and source of power must be all Divine.")

11 And they smote all the souls that were therein with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them: there was not any left to breathe: and he burnt Hazor with fire (the fire of the Spirit will destroy every vestige of the world within our lives, if we will only look to Christ and the Cross [Mat. 3:11]).

SUMMARY

12 And all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them, did Joshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and he utterly destroyed them, as Moses the Servant of the LORD commanded.

13 But as for the cities that stood still in their strength, Israel burned none of them, save Hazor only; that did Joshua burn (should have been translated, "But, as for the cities that still stood, in their strength, Israel burned none of them, save Hazor only").

[14] And all the spoil of these cities (the cities that were not burned), and the cattle, the Children of Israel took for a prey unto themselves; but every man they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither left they any to breathe.

[15] As the LORD commanded Moses His Servant, so did Moses command Joshua, and so did Joshua; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses (the Holy Spirit says this often concerning Joshua, meaning that "obedience to the Lord" was the secret of his strength).

[16] So Joshua took all that land, the hills, and all the south country, and all the land of Goshen, and the valley, and the plain, and the mountain of Israel, and the valley of the same;

[17] Even from the Mount Halak, that goes up to Seir, even unto Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon under Mount Hermon: and all their kings he took, and smote them, and slew them.

[18] Joshua made war a long time with all those kings.

[19] There was not a city that made peace with the Children of Israel, save the Hivites the inhabitants of Gibeon: all other they took in battle.

[20] For it was of the LORD to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that he (Joshua) might destroy them utterly, and that they might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, as the LORD commanded Moses. (All of this is symbolic of the victories we must win in our Christian experience. But let the Reader understand, God does not give victory to sinful men, but only to His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, which was paid for at the Cross. The Believer, properly in Christ, can have this victory, but only as we are properly in Christ [Jn. 14:20].)

[21] And at that time came Joshua, and cut off the Anakims from the mountains, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel: Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities.

22 There was none of the Anakims left in the land of the Children of Israel: only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, there remained. (These were the giants, a product of the union of fallen angels and women [Gen. 6:4]. The offspring of those who remained in Gaza, etc., which would later be the country of the Philistines, would be destroyed by David. Goliath was one of them [I Sam., Chpt. 17]. Why the Lord didn't have Joshua to defeat these as well, we aren't told; however, we do know that everything the Lord does is for purpose and reason. In other words, everything that pertains to His Children is a test. How will we act? How will we react?)

23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD said unto Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel according to their divisions by their Tribes. And the land rested from war (it is believed that this conquest took possibly from five to seven years).

CHAPTER 12

(1450 B.C.)

EASTERN CANAAN

[1] Now these are the kings of the land, which the Children of Israel smote, and possessed their land on the other side Jordan toward the rising of the sun, from the river Arnon unto Mount Hermon, and all the plain on the east (as we study this Chapter, we will find that where there was faithfulness, there was rest; but where Israel was disobedient, thereby not destroying all which they were commanded to destroy, there was compromise and defeat; this is an ever-present principle in the experience of the Believer; to a mind which is governed by the spirit of this world, Chapters in the Bible which contain lists of names are uninteresting, but not so to those who sit where Mary sat, when she hungrily listened to Christ [Lk. 10:38-42]; we hang with appetite over every word that the Holy Spirit has written; consequently, to such Believers the list of victories in this Chapter is full of interest)**:

[2] Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, and ruled from Aroer, which is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and from the middle of the river, and from half Gilead, even unto the river Jabbok, which is the border of the Children of Ammon;

[3] And from the plain to the Sea of Chinneroth (Sea of Galilee) on the east, and unto the Sea of the plain, even the Salt Sea (Dead Sea) on the east, the way to Beth-jeshimoth; and from the south, under Ashdoth-pisgah:

[4] And the coast of Og king of Bashan, which was of the remnant of the giants, who dwelt at Ashtaroth and at Edrei,

[5] And reigned in Mount Hermon, and in Salcah, and in all Bashan, unto the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and half Gilead, the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

6 Them did Moses the Servant of the LORD and the Children of Israel smite: and Moses the Servant of the LORD gave it for a possession unto the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half Tribe of Manasseh.

THE WEST SIDE OF JORDAN

7 And these are the kings of the country which Joshua and the Children of Israel smote on this side Jordan on the west, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon even unto the Mount Halak, that goes up to Seir; which Joshua gave unto the Tribes of Israel for a possession according to their divisions;

8 In the mountains, and in the valleys, and in the plains, and in the springs, and in the wilderness, and in the south country; the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites:

9 The king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is beside Beth-el, one;

10 The king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one;

11 The king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one;

12 The king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one;

13 The king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one;

14 The king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one;

15 The king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one;

16 The king of Makkedah, one; the king of Beth-el, one;

17 The king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hepher, one;

18 The king of Aphek, one; the king of Lasharon, one;

19 the king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one;

20 The king of Shimron-meron, one; the king of Achshaph, one;

21 The king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one;

22 The king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam of Carmel, one;

23 The king of Dor in the coast of Dor, one; the king of the nations of Gilgal, one;

24 The king of Tirzah, one; all the kings thirty and one. (Concerning this, Williams says, "On the Wilderness side of Jordan Israel conquered only two kings, on the Canaan side thirty-one. So it is in the Christian life.

"Those who are satisfied to stop short of claiming and enjoying all the exceeding great and precious Promises of the New Covenant win but few victories over sin and self and the world, but those who go on unto perfection [Heb. 6:1] win many victories.

"It is encouraging and touching to read of these thirty-one victories so definitely and individually recorded. There were not just thirty victories, but thirty-one. Each several victory was important in the Eye of God and precious to the heart of God, however uninteresting and small they might appear to man. No victory over the enemy is small to God's mind.")

CHAPTER 13

LANDS YET UNCONQUERED

[1] Now Joshua was old and stricken in years; and the LORD said unto him, You are old and stricken in years (Joshua, at this time, was 101 years of age), and there remains yet very much land to be possessed. (The account in this Chapter given to us concerning the possession of the land, or the lack thereof, points to every Believer that which the Lord has prepared for us; however, there are enemies between the Promise and the Possession. God has a Perfect Plan for us, but, regrettably, so few of us press through to that Perfect Plan. We all too often stop short! The words, "there remains yet very much land to be possessed," should strike long, hard, and true to the heart of every Believer.)

[2] This is the land that yet remains: all the borders of the Philistines, and all Geshuri (and we must remember, it is the Holy Spirit Who is delineating these things),

[3] From Sihor, which is before Egypt, even unto the borders of Ekron northward, which is counted to the Canaanite: five lords of the Philistines; the Gazathites, and the Ashdothites, the Eshkalonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the Avites:

[4] From the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and the Mearah that is beside the Sidonians, unto Aphek, to the borders of the Amorites:

[5] And the land of the Giblites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrising, from Baal-gad under Mount Hermon unto the entering into Hamath.

[6] All the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon unto Misrephoth-maim, and all the Sidonians, them will I drive out from before the Children of Israel: only divide you it by lot unto the Israelites for an inheritance, as I have commanded you.

7 Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance unto the nine Tribes, and the half Tribe of Manasseh,

8 With whom the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond Jordan eastward, even as Moses the Servant of the LORD gave them;

9 From Aroer, that is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain of Medeba unto Dibon;

10 And all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, unto the border of the Children of Ammon;

11 And Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maachathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan unto Salcah;

12 All the kingdom of Og in Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, who remained of the remnant of the giants: for these did Moses smite, and cast them out.

13 Nevertheless the Children of Israel expelled not the Geshurites, nor the Maachathites: but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites until this day. (The word "nevertheless" proclaims failure among the people of God to possess all that was promised. Such is the sad condition of far too many Believers. While some victories are won, "nevertheless" some things remain — things which steal, kill, and destroy. How many enemies remain unsubdued in the hearts of Believers?

There is only one way that victory can be attained in the life of the Christian. Not ten ways, not five ways, not even two ways, only one way.

All victory over sin, and in every capacity, and, to be sure, sin is the problem, was purchased and thereby attained at the Cross of Calvary [Eph. 2:13-18; Col. 2:14-15; Gal., Chpt. 5; 6:14]. As a result, the Believer's Faith, and this is so very, very important, must ever have the Cross of Christ as its Object [Rom. 6:3-14]. If the Believer is faithful in anchoring his Faith in the Cross of Christ, and maintaining his Faith in the Cross of Christ, the Holy Spirit, Who works exclusively within the parameters of the Finished Work of Christ, will, without fail, subdue every enemy within our hearts and lives [Rom. 8:1-2, 11]. That, and that alone, is God's Prescribed Order Of Victory; otherwise, instead of the Believer subduing the enemies of his soul, the enemies of his soul will subdue him.)

14 Only unto the Tribes of Levi He gave none inheritance; the Sacrifices of the LORD God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, as He said unto them (they were to be Ministers of the Sanctuary exclusively).

REUBEN'S INHERITANCE

15 And Moses gave unto the Tribe of the Children of Reuben inheritance according to their families.

16 And their coast was from Aroer, that is on the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain by Medeba;

17 Heshbon, and all her cities that are in the plain; Dibon, and Bamoth-baal, and Beth-baal-meon,

18 And Jahaza, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath,

19 And Kirjathaim, and Sibmah, and Zareth-shahar in the mount of the valley,

20 And Beth-peor, and Ashdoth-pisgah, and Beth-jeshimoth,

21 And all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses smote with the princes of Midian, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, which were dukes of Sihon, dwelling in the country. (All of these places named represent victories by God's People over their enemies. Considering that the Holy Spirit inspired all of this, even down to naming the places, portrays to us a tremendous truth.

In Heaven, the Lord enumerates our victories, which are all precious in His Sight, and, as well, mentions the failures, and does so by using the word "nevertheless" in Verse 13.

To be sure, Satan will do his best to hinder in every capacity. As should be obvious, he doesn't want us to win any victories; however, we definitely can have all that the Lord has promised us, and we must not stop short of total victory. In Christ and the Cross, coupled with our Faith, which gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work, we can, spiritually speaking, possess the entirety of the land [Rom. 8:2, 11].)

BALAAM SLAIN

22 Balaam also the son of Beor, the soothsayer, did the Children of Israel slay with the sword among them who were slain by them. (If Balaam originally was a true Prophet of God, the tragedy is that he sold his gift to the highest bidder, and was reduced in the mind of God to nothing more than a "soothsayer." How many modern Prophets fall into the same category?

It seems, instead of returning to his own land, he went to visit the Midianites, whose Elders had joined in the invitation given by Moab [Num. 22:7], and persuaded them to entice the Israelites into idolatry and licentiousness [Num., Chpt. 25]. For this crime, he met with the punishment he had deserved, and was involved in the destruction which fell on the Midianites by God's express command, in consequence of their treachery [Num. 25:16-18] — Blunt.)

REUBEN'S INHERITANCE

23 And the border of the Children of Reuben was Jordan, and the border thereof. This was the inheritance of the Children of Reuben after their families, the cities and the villages thereof (the borders of Reuben's inheritance seem to go from the river Arnon, which was about half way the length of the Dead Sea, and went a little ways north past the Dead Sea, with the Jordan River as its western boundary).

GAD'S INHERITANCE

24 And Moses gave inheritance unto the Tribe of Gad, even unto the Children of Gad according to their families.

25 And their coast was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the Children of Ammon, unto Aroer that is before Rabbah;

26 And from Heshbon unto Ramath-mizpeh, and Betonim; and from Mahanaim unto the border of Debir;

27 And in the valley, Beth-aram, and Beth-nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, Jordan and his border, even unto the edge of the Sea of Chinnereth on the other side Jordan eastward.

28 This is the inheritance of the Children of Gad after their families, the cities, and their villages.

MANASSEH'S INHERITANCE

29 And Moses gave inheritance unto the half Tribe of Manasseh: and this was the possession of the half Tribe of the Children of Manasseh by their families.

30 And their coast was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, threescore cities:

31 And half Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were pertaining unto the Children of Machir the son of Manasseh, even to the one half of the Children of Machir by their families.

32 These are the countries which Moses did distribute for inheritance in the plains of Moab, on the other side Jordan, by Jericho, eastward.

33 But unto the Tribe of Levi Moses gave not any inheritance: the LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, as he said unto them.

CHAPTER 14

(1444 B.C.)

CANAAN DIVIDED BY LOT

[1] And these are the countries which the Children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the Priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the Tribes of the Children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them.

[2] By lot was their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine Tribes, and for the half Tribe. (The words "by lot" had to do with the Urim and the Thummim; whatever these things were, they were kept in a pouch on the back of the Breastplate of the High Priest; some think they were two stones, with the word "yes" on one, and the word "no" on the other; however, that description is only speculation. Irrespective, it was the Holy Spirit Who parceled off the land and its boundaries, and did so through the means of the Urim and the Thummim.)

[3] For Moses had given the inheritance of two Tribes and an half Tribe on the other side Jordan (the east side of Jordan): but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them.

[4] For the Children of Joseph were two Tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their cattle and for their substance.

[5] As the LORD commanded Moses, so the Children of Israel did, and they divided the land.

CALEB

[6] Then the Children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite said unto him, You know the thing that the LORD said unto Moses the man of God concerning me and you in Kadesh-barnea.

7 Forty years old was I when Moses the Servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh-barnea to espy out the land; and I brought him word again as it was in mine heart.

8 Nevertheless my brethren that went up with me made the heart of the people melt: but I wholly followed the LORD my God.

9 And Moses swore on that day, saying, Surely the land whereon your feet have trodden shall be your inheritance, and your children's forever, because you have wholly followed the LORD my God.

10 And now, behold, the LORD has kept me alive, as he said, these forty and five years, even since the LORD spoke this word unto Moses, while the Children of Israel wandered in the wilderness: and now, lo, I am this day fourscore and five years old (85 years old).

11 As yet I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both to go out, and to come in. (Out of all of this, Caleb's Faith shines like the Sun. His was a Divine Faith. Such Faith overcomes the world.)

12 Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the LORD spoke in that day; for you heard in that day how the Anakims were there, and that the cities were great and fenced: if so be the LORD will be with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as the LORD said. (Williams says, "Giant sins entrenched on strong mountains are helpless before a Faith that is born of God. This fact may be experienced by any and all Believers, if they will but wholly follow the Lord as did Caleb.")

13 And Joshua blessed him, and gave unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh Hebron for an inheritance.

14 Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite unto this day, because that he wholly followed the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba; which Arba was a great man among the Anakims. And the land had rest from war. (The record proclaims that Caleb, because of his Faith in God, took possession of this mountain, and expelled the greatest of the giants, whose name was Arba. The result was that Kirjath-arba — that is, the city of Arba — became Hebron — that is, "fellowship," for that's what Hebron means! As well, where there is true Faith, there is "rest from war.")

CHAPTER 15

THE BOUNDARIES OF JUDAH

[1] This then was the lot of the Tribe of the Children of Judah by their families (the Tribe from which Jesus would come); even to the border of Edom the wilderness of Zin southward was the uttermost part of the south coast. (By far, Judah had the largest portion. In fact, her portion was so large that Simeon had her portion within the portion of Judah, but which only took up a small part of that vast area. The portion of Simeon included the city of Beersheba. Judah's portion extended all the way from Jerusalem in the north to the brook of Egypt due south, a distance of well over a hundred miles.)

[2] And their south border was from the shore of the Salt Sea, from the bay that looks southward:

[3] And it went out to the south side to Maaleh-acrabbim, and passed along to Zin, and ascended up on the south side unto Kadesh-barnea, and passed along to Hezron, and went up to Adar, and fetched a compass to Karkaa:

[4] From thence it passed toward Azmon, and went out unto the river of Egypt; and the goings out of that coast were at the sea: this shall be your south coast.

[5] And the east border was the Salt Sea, even unto the end of Jordan. And their border in the north quarter was from the bay of the sea at the uttermost part of Jordan:

[6] And the border went up to Beth-hogla, and passed along by the north of Beth-arabah; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of

Reuben:

7 And the border went up toward Debir from the valley of Achor, and so northward, looking toward Gilgal, that is before the going up to Adummim, which is on the south side of the river: and the border passed toward the waters of En-shemesh, and the goings out thereof were at En-rogel:

8 And the border went up by the valley of the son of Hinnom unto the south side of the Jebusite; the same is Jerusalem: and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lies before the valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the valley of the giants northward:

9 And the border was drawn from the top of the hill unto the fountain of the water of Nephtoah, and went out to the cities of Mount Ephron; and the border was drawn to Baalah, which is Kirjath-jearim:

10 And the border compassed from Baalah westward unto Mount Seir, and passed along unto the side of Mount Jearim, which is Chesalon, on the north side, and went down to Beth-shemesh, and passed on to Timnah:

11 And the border went out unto the side of Ekron northward: and the border was drawn to Shicron, and passed along to Mount Baalah, and went out unto Jabneel; and the goings out of the border were at the Sea.

12 And the west border was to the Great Sea, and the coast thereof. This is the coast of the children of Judah round about according to their families.

CALEB'S PORTION

13 And unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a part among the Children of Judah, according to the Commandment of the LORD to Joshua, even the city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron.

14 And Caleb drove thence the three sons of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak.

15 And he went up thence to the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before was Kirjath-sepher.

16 And Caleb said, He who smites Kirjath-sepher, and takes it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.

17 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife. (The Holy Spirit is quick to record the victory of Othniel. When God enriches His People, everything is real, substantial, and definite. He gives largely; and His Blessings may, without fear of disappointment, be counted just as this Chapter records the 116 cities given to Judah.

However, a life of blessing with God has definite borders, just as the lot of Judah had its Divinely marked boundaries. It is important that God should choose a lot in life for each one of His People, and that we not choose such a lot ourselves, and that we be satisfied with what God gives us. But, one of the problems is that far too many Believers, not satisfied with what God has given them, seek to enlarge their borders of their own volition, which God will never honor. And yet, the Lord, at times, does stretch our Faith, even as He did that of Othniel, which can claim added blessings; however, the Holy Spirit, in such a case, will always inform the Believer, which means that such a Believer must never function from the position of presumption.)

18 And it came to pass, as she came unto him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she lighted off her ass; and Caleb said unto her, What would you?

19 Who answered, Give me a Blessing; for you have given me a south land; give me also Springs of Water. And he gave her the upper springs, and the nether springs. (Achsah's Faith is to be commended. She asked for a "Blessing," and, to be sure, the Lord will always honor such a request. Her father gave her the Springs of Water, which would water the land, making it very fertile. This is a Type of the Holy Spirit, given to those who ask [Lk. 11:13]. Without the Springs of Water, the land was basically worthless. With the springs, it was extremely valuable.

Likewise, without the Holy Spirit, of which these springs, in a sense, were a Type, the life of the Believer is unproductive. With the Christ and the Cross as the object of the Believer's Faith, such a life will be extremely fertile and productive.)

THE CITIES OF JUDAH

20 This is the inheritance of the Tribe of the Children of Judah according to their families.

21 And the uttermost cities of the Tribe of the Children of Judah toward the coast of Edom southward were Kabzeel, and Eder, and Jagur,

22 And Kinah, and Dimonah, and Adadah,

23 And Kedesh, and Hazor, and Ithnan,

24 Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth,

25 And Hazor, Hadattah, and Kerioth, and Hezron, which is Hazor,

26 Amam, and Shema, and Moladah,

27 And Hazar-gaddah, and Heshmon, and Beth-palet,

28 And Hazar-shual, and Beer-sheba, and Bizjothjah,

29 Baalah, and Iim, and Azem,

30 And Eltolad, and Chesil, and Hormah,

31 And Ziklag, and Madmannah, and Sansannah,

32 And Lebaoth, and Shilhim, and Ain, and Rimmon: all the cities are twenty and nine, with their villages:

33 And in the valley, Eshtaol, and Zoreah, and Ashnah,

34 And Zanoah, and En-gannim, Tappuah, and Enam,

35 Jarmuth, and Adullam, Socoh, and Azekah,

36 And Sharaim, and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim; fourteen cities with their villages:

37 Zenan, and Hadashah, and Migdal-gad,

38 And Dilean, and Mizpeh, and Joktheel,

39 Lachish, and Bozkath, and Eglon,

40 And Cabbon, and Lahmam, and Kithlish,

41 And Gederoth, Beth-dagon, and Naamah, and Makkedah; sixteen cities with their villages:

42 Libnah, and Ether, and Ashan,

43 And Jiphtah, and Ashnah, and Nezib,

44 And Keilah, and Achzib, and Mareshah; nine cities with their villages:

45 Ekron, with her towns and her villages:

46 From Ekron even unto the sea, all that lay near Ashdod, with their villages:

47 Ashdod with her towns and her villages, Gaza with her towns and her villages, unto the river of Egypt, and the Great Sea, and the border thereof:

48 And in the mountains, Shamir, and Jattir, and Socoh,

49 And Dannah, and Kirjath-sannah, which is Debir,

50 And Anab, and Eshtemoh, and Anim,

51 And Goshen, and Holon, and Giloh; eleven cities with their villages:

52 Arab, and Dumah, and Eshean,

53 And Janum, and Beth-tappuah, and Aphekah,

54 And Humtah, and Kirjath-arba, which is Hebron, and Zior; nine cities with their villages:

55 Maon, Carmel, and Ziph, and Juttah,

56 And Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and Zanoah,

57 Cain, Gibeah, and Timnah; ten cities with their villages:

58 Halhul, Beth-zur, and Gedor,

59 And Maarath, and Beth-anoth, and Eltekon; six cities with their villages:

60 Kirjath-baal, which is Kirjath-jearim, and Rabbah; two cities with their villages:

61 In the wilderness, Beth-arabah, Middin, and Secacah,

62 And Nibshan, and the city of Salt, and En-gedi; six cities with their villages.

THE JEBUSITES

63 As for the Jebusites the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the Children of Judah could not drive them out: but the Jebusites dwell with the Children of Judah at Jerusalem unto this day. (Jerusalem remained in the power of the Jebusite until David, a type of Israel's mighty King, captured it. In how many lives is found a fortress opposed to the Government of the Lord, which ought to have been conquered at the beginning?

Satan knew that Jerusalem would ultimately become the Capital of Israel; therefore, he would seek to make it his stronghold, which he did for many, many years.

This tells us that the very area in the Believer's life which is ungodly, and which the Believer has the greatest difficulty in conquering, is the very area which the Holy Spirit desires to make our strong suit, in essence, His Capital. This is why the battle is so intense in such a capacity. Spiritually speaking, the Jebusite must be driven out of the land, with nothing left of that former enemy.)

CHAPTER 16

(1444 B.C.)

THE SONS OF JOSEPH

1 And the lot of the Children of Joseph fell from Jordan by Jericho, unto the water of Jericho on the east, to the wilderness that goes up from Jericho throughout Mount Beth-el,

2 And goes out from Beth-el to Luz, and passes along unto the borders of Archi to Ataroth,

3 And goes down westward to the coast of Japhleti, unto the coast of Beth-horon the nether, and to Gezer: and the goings out thereof are at the sea.

4 So the Children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance.

BORDERS OF EPHRAIM

5 And the border of the Children of Ephraim according to their families was thus: even the border of their inheritance on the east side was Ataroth-addar, unto Beth-horon the upper;

6 And the border went out toward the sea to Michmethah on the north side; and the border went about eastward unto Taanath-shiloh, and passed by it on the east to Janohah;

7 And it went down from Janohah to Ataroth, and to Naarath, and came to Jericho, and went out at Jordan.

8 The border went out from Tappuah westward unto the river Kanah; and the goings out thereof were at the sea. This is the inheritance of the Tribe of the Children of Ephraim by their families.

9 And the separate cities for the Children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the Children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.

10 And they drove not out the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer: but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites unto this day, and serve under tribute. (This was wrong for Ephraim to have done. They were to destroy these nations, whatever they may have been, and not put them to tribute [Deut. 31:3]. The Holy Spirit is never satisfied with half measures. Every vestige of evil must be destroyed in our lives. It is not enough that we merely have victory over the weakness, whatever it might be. The weakness itself, and in every capacity, must be removed. This can be done only by the Believer understanding that everything comes to us through Christ and the Cross, which demands that the Cross ever be the Object of our Faith. And, as we've said over and over again, the Holy Spirit will then help us grandly, thereby performing the work as it needs to be performed, and which only He can do [Rom. 8:1-2, 11].)

CHAPTER 17

(1444 B.C.)

BORDERS OF MANASSEH

[1] There was also a lot for the Tribe of Manasseh; for he was the firstborn of Joseph; to wit, for Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead: because he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead and Bashan. (The whole land was, in effect, first given to Judah and Joseph, the other Tribes receiving their portions according as they stood in relationship to the Royal and firstborn sons of Jacob. These sons, united, typify Christ, to Whom the whole land is promised [Ps. 2; 110].

All was according to the Word of the Lord. The casting of lots, the men who were to cast them, the divisions by families, by Tribes, and by names — all was Divine — nothing was left either to the will or wisdom of man.

The portions were allotted "according to their families." This expressed the measure of their need; and it was richly supplied. In Ephesians, the Believer's "lot" is given, not necessarily in proportion to either faith or need, "but according to His riches" [Eph., Chpt. 1].

Williams says, "The meanings of the Hebrew names of the towns and mountains, etc., which, on the one side, separated a Tribe from the world, and, on the other side, from a brother-Tribe, are full of valuable teaching for the Believer. They plainly show how fellowship with evil, on the one hand, or a lack of fellowship with truth, on the other hand, sap faith and rob the servant of God of power to drive out the inhabitants of the Land.")

[2] There was also a lot for the rest of the Children of Manasseh by their families; for the Children of Abiezer, and for the Children of Helek, and for the Children of Asriel, and for the Children of Shechem, and for the Children of Hepher, and for the Children of Shemida: these were the male Children of Manasseh the son of Joseph by their families.

3 But Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

4 And they came near before Eleazar the Priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren. Therefore according to the Commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father. (Some four times the Holy Spirit records the Faith of the five daughters of Zelophehad [Num. 26:33; 27:1; 36:11; Josh. 17:4]. Even though they were women, and no provision had been made for them in the Law, as it regards inheritance, their Faith claimed such just the same as their male counterparts. As well, through Faith, they forged a path, not only for themselves, but for all other families in Israel where all the offspring were females.)

5 And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, which were on the other side Jordan;

6 Because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons: and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead. (We are told here where the "daughters of Manasseh" had their inheritance. It was on the west side of the Jordan River. [Manasseh had a portion on both sides of the Jordan River.])

7 And the coast of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethah, that lies before Shechem; and the border went along on the right hand unto the inhabitants of En-tappuah.

8 Now Manasseh had the land of Tappuah: but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the Children of Ephraim;

9 And the coast descended unto the river Kanah, southward of the river: these cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh: the coast of Manasseh also was on the north side of the river, and the outgoings of it were at the sea:

10 Southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea is his border; and they met together in Asher on the north, and in Issachar on the east.

11 And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher Beth-shean and her towns, and Ibleam and her towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of En-dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and her towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns, even three countries.

12 Yet the Children of Manasseh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

13 Yet it came to pass, when the Children of Israel were waxed strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute; but did not utterly drive them out. (Once again, we have the Word of God being compromised, which would fall out to tremendous problems and trouble later on for Israel.)

COMPLAINTS

14 And the Children of Joseph spoke unto Joshua, saying, Why have you given me but one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing I am a great people, forasmuch as the LORD has blessed me hitherto?

15 And Joshua answered them, If you be a great people, then get thee up to the wood country, and cut down for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the giants, if Mount Ephraim be too narrow for you.

16 And the Children of Joseph said, The hill is not enough for us: and all the Canaanites who dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both they who are of Beth-shean and her towns, and they who are of the valley of Jezreel.

17 And Joshua spoke unto the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, You are a great people, and have great power: you shall not have one lot only:

18 But the mountain shall be yours; for it is a wood, and you shall cut it down: and the outgoings of it shall be yours: for you shall drive out the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots, and though they be strong. (The boasting, discontent, unbelief, selfishness, and cowardice of the Children of Joseph was, with fine scorn, rebuked by Joshua, who was himself of the Tribe of Joseph. Despite the encouragement given by Joshua, the Children of Joseph did not drive the Canaanites out, as Verses 11-13 show. The reason for this was that they did not trust in God, but preferred an unworthy compromise with neighbors, who, however rich in warlike material, were sunk in sensuality and sloth — Pulpit.)

CHAPTER 18

(1444 B.C.)

THE TABERNACLE

1 And the whole congregation of the Children of Israel assembled together at Shiloh, and set up the Tabernacle of the congregation there. And the land was subdued before them. (Shiloh was about 25 miles north of Jerusalem. It was pretty much in the center of the land. The Tabernacle remained at Shiloh and Gibeon for 300 years, and ceased to be used when replaced by Solomon's Temple.)

UNPOSSESSED LAND

2 And there remained among the Children of Israel seven Tribes, which had not yet received their inheritance.

3 And Joshua said unto the Children of Israel, How long are you slack to go to possess the land, which the LORD God of your fathers has given you? (Seven of the Tribes, as we see here, had been very slow to proceed forward. That is symbolic of far too many Christians. Is it possible that our Heavenly Joshua is asking the same question of modern Christians, as Joshua asked of Israel of old?)

4 Give out from among you three men for each Tribe: and I will send them, and they shall rise, and go through the land, and describe it according to the inheritance of them; and they shall come again to me.

5 And they shall divide it into seven parts: Judah shall abide in their coast on the south, and the house of Joseph shall abide in their coasts on the north.

6 You shall therefore describe the land into seven parts, and bring the description hither to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD our God (determine exactly what the Lord would desire).

7 But the Levites have no part among you; for the Priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance: and Gad, and Reuben, and half the Tribe of Manasseh, have received their inheritance beyond Jordan on the east, which Moses the Servant of the LORD gave them.

8 And the men arose, and went away: and Joshua charged them who went to describe the land, saying, Go and walk through the land, and describe it, and come again to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the LORD in Shiloh. (Evidently, they were to describe what they desired regarding the partitioning of the land, with the Lord, of course, having the final say. This tells us that it is perfectly proper for Believers to describe to the Lord what they want, but always with the idea that our primary objective is the Will of God, which means that it's what He wants.)

9 And the men went and passed through the land, and described it by cities into seven parts in a book, and came again to Joshua to the host at Shiloh.

10 And Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD (the Urim and the Thummim): and there Joshua divided the land unto the Children of Israel according to their divisions.

BENJAMIN'S TERRITORY

11 And the lot of the Tribe of the Children of Benjamin came up according to their families (this means that the Lord provided for Benjamin a plot sufficiently large to amply take care of each family; no one family, therefore, needed to be apprehensive as to the supply of its necessities): and the coast of their lot came forth between the Children of Judah and the Children of Joseph.

12 And their border on the north side was from Jordan; and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north side, and went up through the mountains westward; and the goings out thereof were at the wilderness of Beth-aven.

13 And the border went over from thence toward Luz, to the side of Luz, which is Beth-el, southward; and the border descended to Ataroth-adar, near the hill that lies on the south side of the nether Beth-horon.

14 And the border was drawn thence, and compassed the corner of the sea southward, from the hill that lies before Beth-horon southward; and the goings out thereof were at Kirjath-baal, which is Kirjath-jearim, a city of the Children of Judah: this was the west quarter.

15 And the south quarter was from the end of Kirjath-jearim, and the border went out on the west, and went out to the well of waters of Nephtoah:

16 And the border came down to the end of the mountain that lies before the valley of the son of Hinnom, and which is in the valley of the giants on the north, and descended to the valley of Hinnom, to the side of Jebusi on the south, and descended to En-rogel,

17 And was drawn from the north, and went forth to En-shemesh, and went forth toward Geliloth, which is over against the going up of Adummim, and descended to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben,

18 And passed along toward the side over against Arabah northward, and went down unto Arabah:

19 And the border passed along to the side of Beth-hoglah northward: and the outgoings of the border were at the north bay of the Salt Sea at the south end of Jordan: this was the south coast.

20 And Jordan was the border of it on the east side. This was the inheritance of the Children of Benjamin, by the coasts thereof round about, according to their families.

21 Now the cities of the Tribe of the Children of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and the valley of Keziz.

22 And Beth-arabah, and Zemaraim, and Beth-el,

23 And Avim, and Parah, and Ophrah,

24 And Chephar-haammonai, and Ophni, and Gaba; twelve cities with their villages:

25 Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth,

26 And Mizpeh, and Chephirah, and Mozah,

27 And Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah,

28 And Zelah, Eleph, and Jebusi, which is Jerusalem, Gibeah, and Kirjath; fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the Children of Benjamin according to their families.

CHAPTER 19

(1444 B.C.)

THE INHERITANCE OF SIMEON

[1] And the second lot came forth to Simeon, even for the Tribe of the Children of Simeon according to their families: and their inheritance was within the inheritance of the Children of Judah. (Simeon, because of his misconduct [Gen. 49:7], was under a curse. As a result, he was really to have no inheritance in the Promised Land. And so he didn't, and again, so he did!

Judah shared her inheritance with the outcast brother, and thus doubled her joy. Dividing Divine blessing with others doubles it. This is a great principle, and should motivate our actions at all times.

Thus it was that Simeon, justly doomed to wrath, was taken up in Grace — the curse being turned into a blessing — and given a seat among the sons at the King's table; for the Lord sprang out of Judah [Heb. 7:14].

Simeon was saved by Grace, not by works; the name means "hearing." The Holy Spirit in Galatians 3:2 contrasts salvation by doing and salvation by hearing, and teaches that only upon the latter principle can sinners be given a portion in the Heavenly Canaan — Williams.

In truth, Simeon and Judah proclaim a type of the human race, and our Lord in His Grace. The whole of the human race is cursed. But our Heavenly Judah, by His Grace, and certainly not through any good thing that we have done, has made room for us in His Inheritance. And, to be sure, a place in Judah's Inheritance is the greatest position of all.)

[2] And they had in their inheritance Beer-sheba, and Sheba, and Moladah,

3 And Hazar-shual, and Balah, and Azem,

4 And Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah,

5 And Ziklag, and Beth-marcaboth, and Hazar-susah,

6 And Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhen; thirteen cities and their villages:

7 Ain, Remmon, and Ether, and Ashan; four cities and their villages:

8 And all the villages that were round about these cities to Baalath-beer, Ramath of the south. This is the inheritance of the Tribe of the Children of Simeon according to their families.

9 Out of the portion of the Children of Judah was the inheritance of the Children of Simeon: for the part of the Children of Judah was too much for them: therefore the Children of Simeon had their inheritance within the inheritance of them.

THE INHERITANCE OF ZEBULUN

10 And the third lot came up for the Children of Zebulun according to their families: and the border of their inheritance was unto Sarid:

11 And their border went up toward the sea, and Maralah, and reached to Dabbasheth, and reached to the river that is before Jokneam;

12 And turned from Sarid eastward toward the sunrising unto the border of Chisloth-tabor, and then goes out to Daberath, and goes up to Japhia,

13 And from thence passes on along on the east to Gittah-hepher, to Ittah-kazin, and goes out of Remmon-methoar to Neah;

14 And the border compasses it on the north side to Hannathon: and the outgoings thereof are in the valley of Jiphthah-el:

15 And Kattath, and Nahallal, and Shimron, and Idalah, and Beth-lehem:

twelve cities with their villages.

16 This is the inheritance of the Children of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

THE INHERITANCE OF ISSACHAR

17 And the fourth lot came out to Issachar, for the Children of Issachar according to their families.

18 And their border was toward Jezreel, and Chesulloth, and Shunem,

19 And Haphraim, and Shihon, and Anaharath,

20 And Rabbith, and Kishion, and Abez,

21 And Remeth, and En-gannim, and En-haddah, and Beth-pazzez;

22 And the coast reaches to Tabor, and Shahazimah, and Beth-shemesh; and the outgoings of their border were at Jordan: sixteen cities with their villages.

23 This is the inheritance of the Tribe of the Children of Issachar according to their families, the cities and their villages.

THE INHERITANCE OF ASHER

24 And the fifth lot came out for the Tribe of the Children of Asher according to their families.

25 And their border was Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph,

26 And Alammelech, and Amad, and Misheal; and reaches to Carmel westward, and to Shihor-libnath;

27 And turns toward the sunrising to Beth-dagon, and reaches to Zebulun, and to the valley of Jiphthah-el toward the north side of Beth-emek, and Neiel, and goes out to Cabul on the left hand,

28 And Hebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah, even unto great Zidon;

29 And then the coast turns to Ramah, and to the strong city Tyre; and the coast turns to Hosah; and the outgoings thereof are at the sea from the coast to Achzib:

30 Ummah also, and Aphek, and Rehob: twenty and two cities with their villages.

31 This is the inheritance of the Tribe of the Children of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

THE INHERITANCE OF NAPHTALI

32 The sixth lot came out to the Children of Naphtali, even for the Children of Naphtali according to their families.

33 And their coast was from Heleph, from Allon to Zaanannim, and Adami, Nekeb, and Jabneel, unto Lakum; and the outgoings thereof were at Jordan:

34 And then the coast turns westward to Aznoth-tabor, and goes out from thence to Hukkok, and reaches to Zebulun on the south side, and reaches to Asher on the west side, and to Judah upon Jordan toward the sunrising.

35 And the fenced cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Chinnereth,

36 And Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor,

37 And Kedesh, and Edrei, and En-hazor,

38 And Iron, and Migdal-el, Horem, and Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh; nineteen cities with their villages.

39 This is the inheritance of the Tribe of the Children of Naphtali according to their families, the cities and their villages.

THE INHERITANCE OF DAN

40 And the seventh lot came out for the Tribe of the Children of Dan according to their families.

41 And the coast of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Ir-shemesh,

42 And Shaalabbin, and Ajalon, and Jethlah,

43 And Elon, and Thimnathah, and Ekron,

44 And Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalath,

45 And Jehud, and Bene-berak, and Gath-rimmon,

46 And Me-jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border before Japho.

47 And the coast of the Children of Dan went out too little for them: therefore the Children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father.

48 This is the inheritance of the Tribe of the Children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

JOSHUA'S INHERITANCE

49 When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their coasts (borders), the Children of Israel gave an inheritance to

Joshua the son of Nun among them:

50 According to the Word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked, even Timnath-serah in Mount Ephraim: and he built the city, and dwelt therein. (First of all, Joshua did not ask for anything for himself until all the others had received their portions. He asked for a particular city, and the Lord said that he could have it. "Timnath" means "the portion that remains," while "Serah" means "city of the Sun." This could well be symbolic of the Baptism with the Holy Spirit, i.e., "the portion that remains." As well, "Serah" could typify the life that flows from the Spirit, as it flows from the Sun.)

51 These are the inheritances, which Eleazar the Priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the Tribes of the Children of Israel, divided for an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation. So they made an end of dividing the country. (Here the fact is emphasized that God distributed the land to Israel; He employed others to do such; however, it was all done with the decorum of proper proceedings. The fact that God decided the portion for each Tribe effectually prevented any challenge as to the justness of the distribution. From this, the lesson may be learned that the right way is to allow the Lord to choose for us, instead of us choosing for ourselves.)

CHAPTER 20

(1444 B.C.)

SIX CITIES OF REFUGE

[1] The LORD also spoke unto Joshua, saying,

[2] Speak to the Children of Israel, saying, Appoint out for you cities of refuge, whereof I spoke unto you by the hand of Moses:

[3] That the slayer who kills any person unawares and unwittingly may flee there: and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood. (The cities of refuge were not for murderers, but rather to protect those who had killed someone accidentally; protect them from members of the family of the victim who sought revenge, and for whatever reason.)

[4] And when he who does flee unto one of those cities shall stand at the entering of the gate of the city, and shall declare his cause in the ears of the Elders of that city, they shall take him into the city unto them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among them.

[5] And if the avenger of blood pursue after him, then they shall not deliver the slayer up into his hand; because he smote his neighbour unwittingly, and hated him not beforetime (there was no bad blood between them, so to speak).

[6] And he shall dwell in that city, until he stand before the congregation for judgment, and until the death of the High Priest who shall be in those days: then shall the slayer return, and come unto his own city, and unto his own house, unto the city from where he fled. (The High Priest is a Type of Christ. When the High Priest died, the man was free to return to his home, and would be protected by law. When Jesus died on the Cross, this made it possible for men to be free, at least those who would accept Him, of which all of this was a type [Rom. 8:2].)

7 And they appointed Kedesh in Galilee in Mount Naphtali, and Shechem in Mount Ephraim, and Kirjath-arba, which is Hebron, in the mountain of Judah.

8 And on the other side Jordan by Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness upon the plain out of the Tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead out of the Tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the Tribe of Manasseh. (Hebrews 6:18 sets forth Christ as the City of Refuge for sinners guilty of His Blood; and the six cities appointed by Joshua display, by the meaning of their names, something of the sufficiency of that Saviour; for in Him is found: "Holiness" [Kadesh]; "Strength" [Shechem]; "Fellowship" [Hebron]; "Safety" [Bezer]; "Uplifting" [Ramoth]; and, "Happiness" [Golan]. God puts Holiness first and Happiness last. Man reverses this — Williams.)

9 These were the cities appointed for all the Children of Israel, and for the stranger who sojourns among them, that whosoever kills any person at unawares might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the congregation.

CHAPTER 21

(1444 B.C.)

THE LEVITES

[1] Then came near the heads of the fathers of the Levites unto Eleazar the Priest (the High Priest), and unto Joshua the son of Nun, and unto the heads of the fathers of the Tribes of the Children of Israel;

[2] And they spoke unto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, The LORD commanded by the hand of Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs thereof for our cattle.

[3] And the Children of Israel gave unto the Levites out of their inheritance, at the Commandment of the LORD, these cities and their suburbs.

[4] And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites: and the Children of Aaron the Priest, which were of the Levites, had by lot out of the Tribe of Judah, and out of the Tribe of Simeon, and out of the Tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities (the Kohathites were in charge of the Vessels of the Sanctuary [Num. 3:31]).

[5] And the rest of the Children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the Tribe of Ephraim, and out of the Tribe of Dan, and out of the half Tribe of Manasseh, ten cities.

[6] And the Children of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the Tribe of Issachar, and out of the Tribe of Asher, and out of the Tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half Tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities (the Gershonites were in charge of the Tabernacle proper [Num. 3:25]).

[7] The Children of Merari by their families had out of the Tribe of Reuben, and out of the Tribe of Gad, and out of the Tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities (the Merarites were in charge of the structure of the Tabernacle [Num. 3:36]).

COMMAND OF THE LORD

[8] And the Children of Israel gave by lot unto the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses. (The Lord did not at all fail to provide for the Tribe of Levi, even though they had brought upon themselves a curse due to their slaughter of the Shechemites [Gen., Chpt. 34]. As a result, Judgment scattered them in Israel, but Grace made them a Kingdom of Priests and gave them 48 cities with their pasture-lands. Some three times this was declared to have been the Commandment of the Lord [Vss. 2-3, 8].)

[9] And they gave out of the Tribe of the Children of Judah, and out of the Tribe of the Children of Simeon, these cities which are here mentioned by name,

[10] Which the Children of Aaron, being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the Children of Levi, had: for theirs was the first lot.

[11] And they gave them the city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, with the suburbs thereof round about it.

[12] But the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, gave they to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his possession.

[13] Thus they gave to the Children of Aaron the Priest Hebron with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Libnah with her suburbs,

[14] And Jattir with her suburbs, and Eshtemoa with her suburbs,

[15] And Holon with her suburbs, and Debir with her suburbs,

shemesh with her suburbs; nine cities out of those two Tribes.

17 And out of the Tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with her suburbs, Geba with her suburbs, 18 Anathoth with her suburbs, and Almon with her suburbs; four cities.

19 All the cities of the Children of Aaron, the Priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

20 And the families of the Children of Kohath, the Levites which remained of the Children of Kohath, even they had the cities of their lot out of the Tribe of Ephraim.

21 For they gave them Shechem with her suburbs in Mount Ephraim, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Gezer with her suburbs, 22 And Kibzaim with her suburbs, and Beth-horon with her suburbs; four cities.

23 And out of the Tribe of Dan, Eltekeh with her suburbs, Gibbethon with her suburbs, 24 Aijalon with her suburbs, Gath-rimmon with her suburbs; four cities.

25 And out of the half Tribe of Manasseh, Tanach with her suburbs, and Gath-rimmon with her suburbs; two cities.

26 All the cities were ten with their suburbs for the families of the Children of Kohath that remained.

27 And unto the Children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, out of the other half Tribe of Manasseh they gave Golan in Bashan with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Beesh-terah with her suburbs; two cities.

28 And out of the Tribe of Issachar, Kishon with her suburbs, Dabareh with her suburbs, 29 Jarmuth with her suburbs, En-gannim with her suburbs; four cities.

30 And out of the Tribe of Asher, Mishal with her suburbs, Abdon with her suburbs, 31 Helkath with her suburbs, and Rehob with her suburbs; four cities.

32 And out of the Tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Hammoth-dor with her suburbs, and Kartan with her suburbs; three cities.

33 All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

34 And unto the families of the Children of Merari, the rest of the Levites, out of the Tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with her suburbs, and Kartah with her suburbs, 35 Dimnah with her suburbs, Nahalal with her suburbs; four cities.

36 And out of the Tribe of Reuben, Bezer with her suburbs, and Jahazah with her suburbs, 37 Kedemoth with her suburbs, and Mephaath with her suburbs; four cities.

38 And out of the Tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Mahanaim with her suburbs, 39 Heshbon with her suburbs, Jazer with her suburbs; four cities in all.

40 So all the cities for the Children of Merari by their families, which were remaining of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities. (Six cities were appointed as cities of refuge [20:7-8]; however, Chapter 21 only mentions five of these cities: Verse 13, Hebron; Verse 21, Shechem; Verse 27, Bashan; Verse 32, Kadesh; and, Verse 38, Ramoth. "Bezer" is not mentioned. Why? 22:10-34 may provide the answer.

An altar, which was the product of man's imagination, rebellious imagination we might quickly add, was set up close to Bezer. This neutralized it as a city of refuge. Why? God has but one center of Atonement and Blessing in Type, and that is Calvary. Any other center, even an exact pattern, denies that Divine Center. Bezer's sufficiency as a refuge was based upon the atoning sacrifices at Shiloh, as was everything else in Israel. The erection of the Reubenite altar destroyed that sufficiency, because it destroyed that base.

In this present modern Age, man is putting forth all types of solutions as imitations of Christ's atoning work; consequently, the Cross has been set aside. But let it ever be known, there is no other refuge for sinners, only the Cross! Only the Cross! Only the Cross!)

THE PORTION OF THE LEVITES

41 All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the Children of Israel were forty and eight cities with their suburbs.

42 These cities were everyone with their suburbs round about them: thus were all these cities (scattered all over Israel).

THE POSSESSION

43 And the LORD gave unto Israel all the land which He swore to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein. (The Book of Joshua is the story of the Promised Land, and its possession. Even though the Lord gave it to Israel, they had to take it, which must be a lesson for us presently.

The Promise and the Possession are two different things. The Lord has designed it that we have to use our Faith and Trust in Him in order to possess the land. If we follow His Word exactly, we will see nothing but victory. If we veer from the designed course, a course incidentally laid out by the Lord, we will suffer defeat. So, as a Believer, we should study this Book of Joshua intently, for it is, in type, God's blueprint for victory.)

44 And the LORD gave them rest round about, according to all that He swore unto their fathers: and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand. (While the Lord definitely did deliver these enemies into their hand, at times, Israel failed to do their part regarding Faith [16:10; 17:12-13].)

45 There failed not ought of any good thing which the LORD had spoken unto the House of Israel; all came to pass (all definitely will come to pass, if we will only believe the Lord).

CHAPTER 22

(1444 B.C.)

THE BLESSING AND THE WARNING

[1] Then Joshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half Tribe of Manasseh,

[2] And said unto them, You have kept all that Moses the Servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you:

[3] You have not left your brethren these many days unto this day, but have kept the charge of the Commandment of the LORD your God.

[4] And now the LORD your God has given rest unto your brethren, as He promised them: therefore now return ye, and get you unto your tents, and unto the land of your possession, which Moses the Servant of the LORD gave you on the other side Jordan (on the eastern side).

[5] But take diligent heed to do the Commandment and the Law which Moses the Servant of the LORD charged you, to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all His Ways, and to keep His Commandments, and to cleave unto Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul.

[6] So Joshua blessed them, and sent them away: and they went unto their tents.

[7] Now to the one half of the Tribe of Manasseh Moses had given possession in Bashan: but unto the other half thereof gave Joshua among their brethren on this side Jordan westward. And when Joshua sent them away also unto their tents, then he blessed them,

8 And he spoke unto them, saying, Return with much riches unto your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with brass, and with iron, and with very much raiment: divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.

9 And the Children of Reuben and the Children of Gad and the half Tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the Children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go unto the country of Gilead, to the land of their possession, whereof they were possessed, according to the Word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

THE ALTAR

10 And when they came unto the borders of Jordan, that are in the land of Canaan, the Children of Reuben and the Children of Gad and the half Tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by Jordan, a great altar to see to. (Such an altar was sternly forbidden by God; for it opened the door to idolatry. There was to be only one place for the Altar, the place which God appointed, which now was Shiloh [Deut. 12:5-8].

Jesus Christ and Him Crucified is the answer [I Cor. 1:23]. Anything else proposed, even that which looks right but is not actually the Cross, must be rejected out of hand, because God has rejected all such things. He accepts the Cross of Christ, and nothing else!)

THE DISPUTE

11 And the Children of Israel heard say, Behold, the Children of Reuben and the Children of Gad and the half Tribe of Manasseh have built an altar over against the land of Canaan, in the borders of Jordan, at the passage of the Children of Israel (close by where the Jordan River was miraculously opened).

12 And when the Children of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the Children of Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up to war against them.

13 And the Children of Israel sent unto the Children of Reuben, and to the Children of Gad, and to the half Tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest,

14 And with him ten princes, of each chief house a prince throughout all the Tribes of Israel; and each one was an head of the house of their fathers among the thousands of Israel.

15 And they came unto the Children of Reuben, and to the Children of Gad, and to the half Tribe of Manasseh, unto the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them, saying,

16 Thus says the whole congregation of the LORD, What trespass is this that you have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that you have built you an altar, that you might rebel this day against the LORD?

17 Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we are not cleansed until this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD,

18 But that you must turn away this day from following the LORD? and it will be, seeing you rebel today against the LORD, that tomorrow He will be wroth with the whole congregation of Israel.

19 Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession be unclean, then pass ye over unto the land of the possession of the LORD, wherein the LORD's Tabernacle dwells, and take possession among us: but rebel not against the LORD, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar beside the Altar of the LORD our God.

20 Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? and that man perished not alone in his iniquity.

THE EXPLANATION

21 Then the Children of Reuben and the Children of Gad and the half Tribe of Manasseh answered, and said unto the heads of the thousands of Israel,

22 The LORD God of gods, the LORD God of gods, He knows, and Israel he shall know; if it be in rebellion, or if in transgression against the LORD, (save us not this day,)

23 That we have built us an altar to turn from following the LORD, or if to offer thereon Burnt Offering or Meat Offering, or if to offer Peace Offerings thereon, let the LORD himself require it;

24 And if we have not rather done it for fear of this thing, saying, In time to come your children might speak unto our children, saying, What have you to do with the LORD God of Israel?

25 For the LORD has made Jordan a border between us and you, you Children of Reuben and Children of Gad; you have no part in the LORD: so shall your children make our children cease from fearing the LORD.

26 Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an Altar, not for Burnt Offering, nor for Sacrifice:

27 But that it may be a witness between us, and you, and our generations after us, that we might do the service of the LORD before Him with our Burnt Offerings, and with our Sacrifices, and with our Peace Offerings; that your children may not say to our children in time to come, You have no part in the LORD.

28 Therefore said we, that it shall be, when they should so say to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say again, Behold the pattern of the Altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for Burnt Offerings, nor for Sacrifices; but it is a witness between us and you.

29 God forbid that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn this day from following the LORD, to build an altar for Burnt Offerings, for Meat Offerings, or for Sacrifices, beside the Altar of the LORD our God that is before His Tabernacle.

PHINEHAS

30 And when Phinehas the Priest, and the princes of the congregation and heads of the thousands of Israel which were with him, heard the words that the Children of Reuben and the Children of Gad and the Children of Manasseh spoke, it pleased them.

31 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest said unto the Children of Reuben, and to the Children of Gad, and to the Children of Manasseh, This day we perceive that the LORD is among us, because you have not committed this trespass against the LORD: now you have delivered the Children of Israel out of the Hand of the LORD.

32 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest, and the princes, returned from the Children of Reuben, and from the Children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, unto the land of Canaan, to the Children of Israel, and brought them word again.

33 And the thing pleased the Children of Israel; and the Children of Israel blessed God, and did not intend to go up against them in battle, to destroy the land wherein the Children of Reuben and Gad dwelt.

34 And the Children of Reuben and the Children of Gad called the altar Ed: for it shall be a witness between us that the LORD is God. (This should have been translated, "And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad gave a name to the altar, 'For it is a witness between us.'" The account does not say that God was well-pleased; nor does it say that Joshua asked counsel of God in the matter. The truth is, it was not well-pleasing to the Lord, and Eleazar the High Priest should have demanded that it be torn down.)

CHAPTER 23

THE EXHORTATION

[1] And it came to pass a long time after that the LORD had given rest unto Israel from all their enemies round about, that Joshua waxed old and stricken in age (the "long time" was approximately 8 years)**.

[2] And Joshua called for all Israel, and for their Elders, and for their heads, and for their Judges, and for their Officers, and said unto them, I am old and stricken in age:

[3] And you have seen all that the LORD your God has done unto all these nations because of you; for the LORD your God is He Who has fought for you.

[4] Behold, I have divided unto you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your Tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even unto the Great Sea (the Mediterranean) westward.

[5] And the LORD your God, He shall expel them from before you, and drive them from out of your sight; and you shall possess their land, as the LORD your God has promised unto you. (All the enemies were not yet driven out, but the Promise is given here that if the people will obey the Lord, to be sure, total victory will be the result, with no enemies left. Thus far, no enemies stood before them, at least for those who truly followed the Lord. Continued victory is promised here!)

[6] Be ye therefore very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, that you turn not aside therefrom to the right hand or to the left (Israel is told here that prosperity depends upon their fidelity to the Bible; it is the same presently! We must not add to the Word of God, nor take from the Word of God);

[7] That you come not among these nations, these who remain among you; neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow yourselves unto them (presently, any form of worship that is not anchored squarely in "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" can only be construed as idolatry [I Cor. 1:17-18, 21, 23;; 2:2]):

[8] But cleave unto the LORD your God, as you have done unto this day (give fidelity to His Book, and love to Him Personally).

[9] For the LORD has driven out from before you great nations and strong: but as for you, no man has been able to stand before you unto this day.

[10] One man of you shall chase a thousand: for the LORD your God, He it is Who fights for you, as He has promised you. (What a Promise!)

[11] Take good heed therefore unto yourselves, that you love the LORD your God.

[12] Else if you do in any wise go back, and cleave unto the remnant of these nations, even these who remain among you, and shall make marriages with them, and go in unto them, and they to you:

[13] Know for a certainty that the LORD your God will no more drive out any of these nations from before you; but they shall be snares and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off this good land which the LORD your God has given you (regrettably, that's exactly what happened!).

[14] And, behold, this day I am going the way of all the Earth: and you know in all your hearts and in all your souls, that not one thing has failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spoke concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing has failed thereof (from that time until now, about 3,500 years, the same thing can still be said; not one Word of the Lord has ever failed, and, in fact, cannot fail).

15 Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all good things are come upon you, which the LORD your God promised you; so shall the LORD bring upon you all evil things, until He has destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God has given you (as the Lord blesses for obedience, at the same time, He will send Judgment for disobedience; this must not be forgotten).

16 When you have transgressed the Covenant of the LORD your God, which He commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed yourselves to them; then shall the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and you shall perish quickly from off the good land which He has given unto you.

CHAPTER 24

JOSHUA'S FAREWELL ADDRESS

[1] And Joshua gathered all the Tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the Elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their Judges, and for their Officers; and they presented themselves before God (at the Tabernacle, where the Altar and the Ark of the Covenant were).

[2] And Joshua said unto all the people, Thus says the LORD God of Israel, Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the flood in old time, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor: and they served other gods. (When Grace found Abraham, he was an idolater. In fact, in one way or the other, all who do not know the Lord are guilty of the sin of idolatry. With many it is the worship of "self." Even in Christendom, idols are plentiful, although in a different form than during the time of Joshua. Many worship their Churches, their Denominations, etc.)

[3] And I took your father Abraham from the other side of the flood (the Euphrates River), and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and gave him Isaac (the Lord was the Author of all of these things, as it pertained to Abraham).

[4] And I gave unto Isaac Jacob and Esau: and I gave unto Esau Mount Seir, to possess it; but Jacob and his children went down into Egypt.

[5] I sent Moses also and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did among them: and afterward I brought you out. (From this Chapter, we learn that Joshua stood in the Office of the Prophet. We find the proof of this in Verses 2 and 27. In fact, everything between these two Verses, and including those Verses, is prophetic.)

6 And I brought your fathers out of Egypt: and you came unto the Sea; and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen unto the Red Sea.

7 And when they cried unto the LORD, He put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the Sea upon them, and covered them; and your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt: and you dwelt in the wilderness a long season. (It was the Will of the Lord that Israel would spend a short period of time in the wilderness, in order that they might learn faith and trust in Him. That time frame would have been approximately 2 years; however, they instead would spend approximately 40 years in the wilderness because of unbelief. It was truly "a long season.")

8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt on the other side Jordan; and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, that you might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you (as long as Israel served the Lord, the Lord fought for them).

9 Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you:

10 But I would not hearken unto Balaam; therefore he blessed you still: so I delivered you out of his hand.

11 And you went over Jordan, and came unto Jericho: and the men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I delivered them into your hand (seven nations strong, which were defeated by the Lord).

12 And I sent the hornet before you, which drove them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites; but not with your sword, nor with your bow (the Lord used the lowly hornet to effect victory).

13 And I have given you a land for which you did not labour, and cities which you built not, and you dwell in them; of the vineyards and oliveyards which you planted not do you eat.

[14] Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve Him in sincerity and in truth: and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve ye the LORD.

[15] And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom you will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served who were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD (the warrior cannot answer for others, but he does answer for himself; and his answer should be the answer of every human being on Earth).

[16] And the people answered and said, God forbid that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods;

[17] For the LORD our God, He it is Who brought us up and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and which did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way wherein we went, and among all the people through whom we passed:

[18] And the LORD drove out from before us all the people, even the Amorites which dwelt in the land: therefore will we also serve the LORD; for He is our God. (The people answered correctly; however, as the near future would prove, their hearts were not exactly according to their words.)

[19] And Joshua said unto the people, You cannot serve the LORD: for He is an Holy God; He is a jealous God; He will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins. (The idea is, the word "forgive," as used here, "signifies to remove or to bear the burden of guilt." In other words, God could not do such, if proper Atonement is not made, which is the proper Sacrifice, which is a Type of the Cross, and Faith in that Sacrifice. "Transgressions" signifies "a breach of covenant." One can have Forgiveness, Mercy, and Grace only on the basis of the Crucified Christ, and Faith in that atoning Work [Jn. 3:16; Eph. 2:8-9].)

[20] If you forsake the LORD, and serve strange gods, then He will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after that He has done you good (in all of this, God doesn't change; He rewards obedience, and brings Judgment on disobedience).

THE COVENANT

[21] And the people said unto Joshua, No; but we will serve the LORD.

[22] And Joshua said unto the people, You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen you the LORD, to serve Him. And they said, We are witnesses.

[23] Now therefore put away, said he, the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart unto the LORD God of Israel. (This Passage proves that there was still idolatry among the Israelites, despite the great things done for them by the Lord. This is why John the Beloved said, "Little children, keep yourselves from idols" [I Jn. 5:21].)

[24] And the people said unto Joshua, The LORD our God will we serve, and His Voice will we obey.

[25] So Joshua made a Covenant with the people that day, and set them a Statute and an Ordinance in Shechem.

THE MONUMENT

[26] And Joshua wrote these words in the Book of the Law of God, and took a great stone, and set it up there under an oak, that was by the Sanctuary of the LORD.

[27] And Joshua said unto all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness unto us; for it has heard all the words of the LORD which He spoke unto us: it shall be therefore a witness unto you, lest you deny your God (the Lord told the Pharisees that the very stones were prepared to give their testimony to His Person and Mission [Lk. 19:40]).

28 So Joshua let the people depart, every man unto his inheritance. (This would be the last time that many of them would see Joshua, one of the greatest men of God who ever lived.)

JOSHUA'S DEATH

29 And it came to pass after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun, the Servant of the LORD, died, being an hundred and ten years old. (No higher accolade could be given to any man or woman than to refer to them as "the Servant of the Lord." Joshua closed his life with the full consciousness that he had discharged the duties God had imposed upon him, and had done so without failure of Faith.)

30 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-serah, which is in Mount Ephraim, on the north side of the hill of Gaash. (Tradition says that they carved the rising Sun on the stone placed over the entrance to the tomb. This commemorated the tremendous miracle wrought by the Lord, when Joshua asked for the day to be lengthened that the victory may be complete. God honored his request.)

31 And Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the Elders that overlived Joshua, and which had known all the works of the LORD, that He had done for Israel. (We see here the value of personal influence. All the days of Joshua's government were only 14 years, and all the days of the Elders who outlived him only 3 years; and then came Israel's swift lapse into the abominations of idolatry — Williams.)

32 And the bones of Joseph, which the Children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for an hundred pieces of silver: and it became the inheritance of the Children of Joseph. (Incidentally, both Joseph and Joshua each lived to be 110 years old [Gen. 50:24-26].)

33 And Eleazar the son of Aaron died; and they buried him in a hill that pertained to Phinehas his son, which was given him in Mount Ephraim. (A glorious Chapter closes, with now a darker Chapter concerning Israel about to begin.)

CHAPTER 1

JUDAH AND SIMEON

[1] Now after the death of Joshua it came to pass, that the Children of Israel asked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites first, to fight against them? (Joshua died, but God didn't die! They "asked the LORD" as to what they should do, which is what they should have done. In fact, we as Believers should ask the Lord about everything.)

[2] And the LORD said, Judah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand. (Christ came from the Tribe of Judah; so, in essence, the Lord is saying that if we follow our Heavenly Judah, victory will be ours.)

[3] And Judah said unto Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with you into your lot. So Simeon went with him. (Simeon had been cursed because of the slaughter of the Shechemites, which, of course, had taken place many years before. The curse meant that they would have no inheritance in Israel, when, in fact, Israel possessed the land; however, the Tribe of Judah, which had the largest inheritance of all, gave Simeon an inheritance within their inheritance [Josh. 19:1; Gen. 49:5-7]. Likewise, the whole of humanity was cursed, because of the Fall; consequently, we had no inheritance. But our Heavenly Judah made a way for us, by giving us a part in His inheritance. If we go with Judah, i.e., "our Heavenly Judah," we are guaranteed the victory.)

[4] And Judah went up; and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand: and they killed of them in Bezek ten thousand men.

5 And they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek: and they fought against him, and they killed the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

6 But Adoni-bezek fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

7 And Adoni-bezek said, Threescore and ten kings, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, gathered their meat under my table: as I have done, so God has requited me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died. (Evidently, he had committed the same atrocity on some 70 lesser kings, which rendered them helpless to hold a sword, or to properly run. Apparently, the leaders of the Tribe of Judah had heard about his atrocities, and treated him accordingly.)

VICTORIES

8 Now the children of Judah had fought against Jerusalem, and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire (but evidently they didn't hold it).

9 And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites, who dwelt in the mountain, and in the south, and in the valley.

10 And Judah went against the Canaanites who dwelt in Hebron: (now the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba:) and they killed Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai (this was evidently done by Caleb [Josh. 15:14]; these were most likely giants).

11 And from thence he went against the inhabitants of the Debir: and the name of Debir before was Kirjath-sepher:

12 And Caleb said, He who smites Kirjath-sepher, and takes it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.

13 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.

14 And it came to pass, when she came to him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she lighted from off her ass; and Caleb said unto her, What will you?

15 And she said unto him, Give me a blessing: for you have given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the nether springs. (If the field was to be given to her, then she felt she also had the right to ask for the springs of water to make the field fertile, which she did, and which she received. In a sense, the springs are a Type of the Holy Spirit, without which there would be no spiritual fertility in our lives.)

CONQUESTS AND FAILURES

16 And the children of the Kenite, Moses' father in law (or rather "brother-in-law"), went up out of the city of the palm trees (Jericho) with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which lies in the south of Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people. (Evidently, Hobab, who declined to go when invited some time earlier, eventually accepted Moses' offer [Num. 10:29-30].)

17 And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they killed the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called Hormah. (In Verse 3, it says, "Simeon went with Judah," because the places which follow were all in Judah's portion; but now we read, "Judah went with Simeon," because the two places named were in Simeon's portion [Josh. 19:4].)

18 Also Judah took Gaza with the coast thereof, and Askelon with the coast thereof, and Ekron with the coast thereof.

19 And the LORD was with Judah; and he drove out the inhabitants of the mountain; but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron. (The first phrase, "The LORD was with Judah," means that they could definitely have driven out those with the chariots of iron had they only exercised proper Faith. Evidently, they didn't! The truth is, without God, it was all impossible for Israel, but, with the Lord, all things are possible.)

[20] And they gave Hebron unto Caleb, as Moses said: and he expelled thence the three sons of Anak (Vs. 10)**.

[21] And the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who inhabited Jerusalem; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem unto this day. (The same held true for Benjamin as it did for Judah; they evidently did not exercise proper Faith. The "Jebusites," one of the most fierce and warlike tribes, continued to inhabit Jerusalem until the time of David, when he expelled them, some 500 years later. That's a long time to have an enemy in one's very midst; however, it is typical of Satan endeavoring to build strongholds in our lives. Only proper Faith in Christ and the Cross, which gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work in our lives, can bring about victory over the world, the flesh, and the Devil. Far too many Believers have "Jebusites" in their lives!)

FAILURE

[22] And the house of Joseph, they also went up against Beth-el: and the LORD was with them. (By this phrase, we are shown what God can do, regarding the heart which trusts Him. But the ground won by Faith can only be held by Faith; and very soon, therefore, the Canaanite and the Philistine recovered possession of what they had lost.)

[23] And the house of Joseph sent to descry Beth-el. (Now the name of the city before was Luz.)

[24] And the spies saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said unto him, Show us, we pray you, the entrance into the city, and we will show you mercy.

[25] And when he showed them the entrance into the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword; but they let go the man and all his family.

26 And the man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called the name thereof Luz: which is the name thereof unto this day. (The man was determined to build what God had determined to destroy. He had an opportunity to know the God of Israel, but rebelled against that opportunity.

Rahab's action was the reverse. She and her family were the only ones saved out of the doom of Jericho. But Grace changed her heart, and she joined the people of God.)

27 Neither did Manasseh drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shean and her towns, nor Taanach and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns: but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

28 And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute, and did not utterly drive them out. (As failure after failure is recorded, it doesn't mean that Israel didn't have the power to drive out the heathen, but rather that they just simply disobeyed God, and let them remain, which proved to be exactly what the Lord said would happen. Instead of Israel winning the heathen to Jehovah, the heathen won the people of God to their heathen idols. It is the same with the modern Church.

While the Bible does not teach isolation from the world, it definitely does teach separation. We are "in" the world, but never to be "of" the world. The ship is in the water, but trouble comes, and greatly so, when the water gets in the ship [II Cor. 6:14-18; 7:1].)

29 Neither did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

30 Neither did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries.

31 Neither did Asher drive out the inhabitants of Accho, nor the inhabitants of Zidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of Achzib, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob:

[32] But the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: for they did not drive them out.

[33] Neither did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth-anath; but he dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and of Beth-anath became tributaries unto them.

[34] And the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the mountain: for they would not suffer them to come down to the valley (as stated, if the enemy is allowed to remain, he will ultimately make a slave out of the Believer. The situation had become so bad in Israel that the Tribe of Dan could not even live in the valley, or plant crops therein; they were virtual prisoners in their own land; and so it is)**:

[35] But the Amorites would dwell in Mount Heres in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim: yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, so that they became tributaries (they should have driven them out).

[36] And the coast of the Amorites was from the going up to Akrabbim, from the rock, and upward.

CHAPTER 2

(1425 B.C.)

THE LORD

[1] And an Angel of the LORD (actually, a preincarnate appearance of Christ) came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said, I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land which I swore unto your fathers; and I said, I will never break My Covenant with you (the Lord has never broken a Covenant, but, most definitely, man breaks it repeatedly).

[2] And you shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land; you shall throw down their altars: but you have not obeyed My Voice: why have you done this? (This is the question the Lord continues to ask of many Believers! As stated, if we make a league with the world, the world doesn't become more Christian, but rather we become more worldly.)

[3] Wherefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you; but they shall be as thorns in your sides, and their gods shall be a snare unto you (in other words, if Israel disobeyed the Lord, He would withhold His help; in that case, Israel could but fail!).

[4] And it came to pass, when the Angel of the LORD spoke these words unto all the Children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice, and wept (as to exactly how the Lord delivered this Word unto Israel, we aren't told here; perhaps He used the High Priest; however, any guess is but speculation).

[5] And they called the name of that place Bochim (means "weeping"): and they sacrificed there unto the LORD. (Exactly where "Bochim" was, we aren't told, but many think that it was near Shiloh. In fact, the Sacrifices were probably carried out at Shiloh. It seems that the people repented; however, it is also obvious that their repentance was shallow.)

JOSHUA

6 And when Joshua had let the people go, the Children of Israel went every man unto his inheritance to possess the land (this was after Joshua's farewell address, given to us in Chapter 24 of his Book)**.

7 And the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD, that He did for Israel.

8 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being an hundred and ten years old. (This happened before the events of Verses 1-5.)

9 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in the Mount of Ephraim, on the north side of the hill Gaash.

10 And also all that generation were gathered unto their fathers: and there arose another generation after them, which knew not the LORD, nor yet the works which He had done for Israel. (The statement about Joshua and the elders is repeated here designedly by the Holy Spirit, in order to justify the righteous indignation and words of the Angel of Jehovah — Williams.)

APOSTASY

11 And the Children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served Baalim (some six times this phrase is used in this Book of Judges; in all of these six Passages, the definite article, "the evil", should be used; it means "idolatry" [2:11; 3:7, 12; 4:1; 6:1; 10:6; 13:1])**:

12 And they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the people who were round about them, and bowed themselves unto them, and provoked the LORD to anger. (The doctrine of this Chapter is that the Lord cannot give victories to the flesh [Rom. 8:8]. These people had seen God move mightily at the crossing of the Jordan, the fall of Jericho, and a hundred other similar victories; however, miracles, as wonderful as they are, seldom, if ever, hold people to the tried-and-true. It is Faith alone which can accomplish that, and, above all, Faith in the correct object, which is Christ and the Cross, i.e., the Word of God [I Cor. 1:17-18, 21, 23; 2:2].)

[13] And they forsook the LORD, and served Baal and Ashtaroth (Baal and Ashtaroth are frequently coupled together; this was the god of the Zidonians; their worship was accompanied by the most vile immoralities).

[14] And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and He delivered them into the hands of spoilers who spoiled them, and He sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies.

[15] Whithersoever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had sworn unto them: and they were greatly distressed (gods invented by men are served faithfully; however, the fact that Israel was at perpetual war with Jehovah proclaims the fact that the Lord was not an invention of man; as the Lord had worked for Israel, He now works against Israel; God hasn't changed; what He did then, He does now!).

JUDGES

[16] Nevertheless the LORD raised up Judges, which delivered them out of the hand of those who spoiled them. (The Hebrew word for "judge" means "one who sets right what has been put wrong." We will find that all of these Judges were all distinguished by some disability, as will appear when each one's history is studied, and they will be found to illustrate the principle that God uses weak things to confound the mighty [I Cor. 1:27].)

[17] And yet they would not hearken unto their Judges, but they went a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves unto them: they turned quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in, obeying the Commandments of the LORD; but they did not so.

[18] And when the LORD raised them up Judges, then the LORD was with the Judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the Judge: for it repented the LORD because of their groanings by reason of them who oppressed them and vexed them. (With these Judges, God gave gracious revivals; but, after each revival, the nation fell into deeper sin and bondage.)

[19] And it came to pass, when the Judge was dead, that they returned, and corrupted themselves more than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down unto them; they ceased not from their own doings, nor from their stubborn way. (Without proper spiritual leadership, basically every time the Church will go into apostasy. That is the problem with the modern Church. Its leadership, for all practical purposes, is man-appointed, which God can never recognize.)

[20] And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and He said, Because that this people has transgressed My Covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto My Voice;

[21] I also will not henceforth drive out any from before them of the nations which Joshua left when he died:

[22] That through them I may prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not.

[23] Therefore the LORD left those nations, without driving them out hastily; neither delivered He them into the hand of Joshua. (Everything, as it regards the Child of God, is a test. How will we act? How will we react?)

CHAPTER 3

PROVING ISRAEL

[1] Now these are the nations which the LORD left, to prove Israel by them, even as many of Israel as had not known all the wars of Canaan (the younger generation had not witnessed the miracles of the recent past; they would now need to be proven, as to whether they would follow the Lord or heathen idols; every Believer, in one way or the other, is "proven"; this is not that the Lord might know, for He already knows, but, rather, that we might know)**;

[2] Only that the generations of the Children of Israel might know, to teach them war, at the least such as before knew nothing thereof (a considerable period of "rest" had followed Joshua's conquests, during which the younger Israelites had no experience of war; but, if they were to keep their hold of Canaan, it was needful that they understand war and victory; every generation of Believers must be "proven"; will they lean on the arm of flesh, or will they look to Christ and the Cross? Unfortunately, the sword held by most in the modern Church is not "of the Spirit," which is actually the Word of God, but rather something else altogether [Eph. 6:17])**;

[3] Namely, five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites who dwelt in Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal-hermon unto the entering in of Hamath.

[4] And they were to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would hearken unto the Commandments of the LORD, which He commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

[5] And the Children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, Hittites, and Amorites, and Perizzites, and Hivites, and Jebusites:

6 And they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

7 And the Children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgot the LORD their God, and served Baalim and the groves. (As we have stated, friendship with the world doesn't make the world more Godly, but rather the Christian more worldly.)

OTHNIEL

8 Therefore the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and He sold them into the hand of Chushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia: and the Children of Israel served Chushan-rishathaim eight years. (Idolatry always leads to slavery in some way. For Israel, it was to a heathen power; presently, it is to Satan himself. And we must remember, any worship that's not anchored in Christ and the Cross is unscriptural, and, in fact, in one way or the other, is idolatry!)

9 And when the Children of Israel cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer to the Children of Israel, who delivered them, even Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother. (Any time that Israel cried to the Lord, irrespective as to how wrong they had previously been, He always heard their cry, and answered with deliverance. It is the same presently! No matter the problem, if you will sincerely cry to the Lord, He will hear and answer, irrespective as to what you may have done in the past that is wrong.)

10 And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel, and went out to war: and the LORD delivered Chushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand; and his hand prevailed against Chushan-rishathaim. (Othniel was the first Judge of Israel. He was able to perform this mighty feat of valor, because the "Spirit of the Lord" was upon him. The secret then was the Spirit of the Lord, and the secret now is the Spirit of the Lord. There are all type of things greater than we are, but there is nothing greater than the Spirit of the Lord, for He is God [Jn. 14:17-20].)

[11] And the land had rest forty years. And Othniel the son of Kenaz died. (After the death of Othniel, Israel will, once again, be without proper leadership, and apostasy was the result, as apostasy is always the result in such case.)

APOSTASY

[12] And the Children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD. (If it is to be noticed, it was the Lord Who strengthened Eglon, the king of Moab, even though this heathen had no personal knowledge of the reason for his military strength. As well, the Lord directed the mind of this man toward Israel. Why? Unless they were in dire straits, Israel simply would not function properly. So the Lord brought upon them great misery through this heathen king.

All of this tells us that the Lord presently does the same thing with Believers who are going in the wrong direction. Paul called it, "chastisement" [Heb. 12:5-14]. Sometimes the Lord uses sickness, sometimes He uses the unredeemed, etc.; however, everything He does, irrespective as to what it might be, is all done for our good. So, even though the person who wrongs us, that is, if the Lord uses such, is wrong himself or herself in what is being done, to be sure, such an individual will answer to the Lord. Still, we must understand that the Lord has allowed such, and not allow bitterness to get in our heart toward such a person. Even though the Lord may use such, it doesn't mean that He condones their action. To be sure, as Eglon, they will ultimately answer.)

[13] And he (Eglon) gathered unto him the children of Ammon and Amalek, and went and smote Israel, and possessed the city of palm trees (Jericho).

[14] So the Children of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years (eighteen years of bondage that wasn't necessary at all; it was because they had done evil in the sight of the Lord).

EHUD

15 But when the Children of Israel cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised them up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera, a Benjamite, a man lefthanded: and by him the Children of Israel sent a present unto Eglon the king of Moab. (In some way, each one of these Judges expressed some form of weakness; Othniel was the son of a younger brother; Ehud was left-handed; Shamgar had but an ox goad; Deborah was a woman; Gideon was the least in the poorest family in Manasseh; Jephthah was the son of a harlot; and Samson was a Nazarite.)

16 But Ehud made him a dagger which had two edges, of a cubit length; and he did gird it under his raiment upon his right thigh.

17 And he brought the present unto Eglon king of Moab: and Eglon was a very fat man.

18 And when he had made an end to offer the present, he sent away the people who bore the present (that he and Eglon might be alone).

19 But he himself turned again from the quarries (should have been translated, "graven images") that were by Gilgal (we learn from this that idols had been set up at Gilgal — an outrage upon the hallowed associations of that sacred spot; it was the dwelling-place of the Angel of Jehovah, or had been [2:1]. Gilgal pictures the broken and contrite heart in which God dwells. If He be grieved away from such an heart, very quickly it becomes the home of graven images — Williams), and said, I have a secret errand unto you, O king: who said, Keep silence. And all who stood by him went out from him.

20 And Ehud came unto him; and he was sitting in a summer parlour, which he had for himself alone. And Ehud said, I have a message from God unto you. And he arose out of his seat. (The "Message from God" is always that every enemy in our life be put to the sword, i.e., "the Sword of the Spirit," which is the Word of God, which means that the enemy not merely be defeated, but be slain [Eph. 6:17].)

21 And Ehud put forth his left hand, and took the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly:

22 And the haft also went in after the blade; and the fat closed upon the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly; and the dirt came out (spiritually speaking, this is the only way to get the "dirt" out of our lives).

23 Then Ehud went forth through the porch, and shut the doors of the parlour upon him, and locked them.

24 When he was gone out, his servants came; and when they saw that, behold, the doors of the parlour were locked, they said, Surely he covers his feet in his summer chamber (is asleep).

25 And they tarried till they were ashamed (could have been several hours, or even as much as a whole day): and, behold, he (Eglon) opened not the doors of the parlour; therefore they took a key, and opened them: and, behold, their lord was fallen down dead on the earth.

VICTORY OVER MOAB

26 And Ehud escaped while they tarried, and passed beyond the quarries (graven images), and escaped unto Seirath.

27 And it came to pass, when he was come, that he blew a trumpet in the mountain of Ephraim, and the Children of Israel went down with him from the Mount, and he before them (Ehud, the second Judge of Israel, blew the trumpet of war, because the Lord through him would deliver Israel; if there was ever a time in the modern Church to "blow the trumpet," it is now!).

28 And he said unto them, Follow after me: for the LORD has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him, and took the fords of Jordan toward Moab, and suffered not a man to pass over (Moab was on the eastern side of the Dead Sea; it was the area occupied, as well, by the Tribe of Reuben).

29 And they killed of Moab at that time about ten thousand men, all lusty, and all men of valour; and there escaped not a man (no casualties of Israel are listed; therefore, the indication is that there were none; when Israel had the Lord with them, nothing could defeat them, and when they didn't have the Lord, they were already defeated).

30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest fourscore years (80 years).

SHAMGAR

31 And after him was Shamgar the son of Anath, which killed of the Philistines six hundred men with an ox goad: and he also delivered Israel. (Nothing more is known of Shamgar, except the mention of him in Deborah's song [5:6]. The Text indicates that this one man, armed with nothing but an ox goad, which was something like a spear, killed 600 Philistines single-handedly. Obviously, the Spirit of God helped him mightily. But, despite the help of the Lord, which was obvious to all, still, again and again, Israel would go into apostasy. Such is the heart of the natural man!)

CHAPTER 4

(1316 B.C.)

CANAAN OPPRESSES ISRAEL

[1] And the Children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, when Ehud was dead (again, we state, without proper spiritual leadership, the Church is like a ship without a rudder).

[2] And the LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; the captain of whose host was Sisera, which dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles.

[3] And the Children of Israel cried unto the LORD: for he (Sisera) had nine hundred chariots of iron; and twenty years he mightily oppressed the Children of Israel (having 900 chariots of iron tells us that Sisera was a mighty warlord; as well, the words, "mightily oppressed," proclaim the fact that Israel had virtually become slaves in their own land — slaves to Sisera; sin will take a person further than they want to go, at a price higher than they can afford to pay).

DEBORAH

[4] And Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, she judged Israel at that time. (This Chapter and the following could be cited as the women's Chapters. We find that Deborah's Faith brought about a great victory, and Jael's fidelity destroyed a great tyrant. Both of these women were raised up by God for their respective Ministries. So, this puts to rest the idea that God does not call women to preach, etc. Paul said that in Christ "there is neither male nor female: for you are all one in Christ Jesus" [Gal. 3:28].)

[5] And she dwelt under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Beth-el in Mount Ephraim: and the Children of Israel came up to her for judgment. (Williams says of her, "There was one heart that did not tremble before Sisera and his 900 chariots of iron. She 'sat as Judge' under a palm tree near Beth-el. Her namesake, Rebecca's nurse, was buried there, about 400 years back.")

6 And she sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedesh-naphtali, and said unto him, Has not the LORD God of Israel commanded, saying, Go and draw toward Mount Tabor, and take with you ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun? (Deborah speaks here as a Prophetess, announcing God's commands, not her own opinions; declaring God's Promises, not merely her own hopes or wishes — Pulpit.)

7 And I will draw unto you to the river Kishon Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into your hand (this is the Promise).

8 And Barak said unto her, If you will go with me, then I will go: but if you will not go with me, then I will not go (we have little history on Barak; we do know that his faith seemed to be weak; he wanted someone near and visible upon whom he could lean; to such a feeble faith, the arm, even of a woman, gives more confidence than the Arm of God; consequently, God did not honor him, because he did not honor God; God is best honored by being trusted).

9 And she said, I will surely go with you: notwithstanding the journey that you take shall not be for your honour; for the LORD shall sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh. (Jael would be the woman. What a rebuke to Barak!)

VICTORY

10 And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; and he went up with ten thousand men at his feet: and Deborah went up with him (10,000 men went with him).

11 Now Heber the Kenite, which was of the children of Hobab the father in law of Moses, had severed himself from the Kenites, and pitched his tent unto the plain of Zaanaim, which is by Kedesh.

12 And they showed Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to Mount Tabor.

13 And Sisera gathered together all his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people who were with him, from Harosheth of the Gentiles unto the river of Kishon (a formidable army).

14 And Deborah said unto Barak, Up; for this is the day in which the LORD has delivered Sisera into your hand: is not the LORD gone out before you? So Barak went down from Mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him. (In the natural, what could they do against all of these iron chariots? However, they were not functioning in the natural, but rather by the Power of God.)

15 And the LORD discomfited Sisera, and all his chariots, and all his host, with the edge of the sword before Barak; so that Sisera lighted down off his chariot, and fled away on his feet (the Hebrew word for "discomfited" implies supernatural discomfiture).

16 But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the host, unto Harosheth of the Gentiles: and all the host of Sisera fell upon the edge of the sword; and there was not a man left. (It was a defeat that was total, and there is no indication that the army of Israel lost even a single man. Without the Lord, some minor victories may be won, but at a fearful price. With Him, it is total victory, at no loss whatsoever.)

SISERA SLAIN

17 Howbeit Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite: for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite (Jabin was the king of Canaan).

18 And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said unto him, Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; fear not. And when he had turned in unto her into the tent, she covered him with a mantle.

[19] And he said unto her, Give me, I pray you, a little water to drink; for I am thirsty. And she opened a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.

[20] Again he said unto her, Stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be, when any man does come and enquire of you, and say, Is there any man here? that you shall say, No. (The mighty military commander of the Canaanites is reduced here to depending on a woman. Such are the Ways of the Lord, concerning those who oppose Him.)

[21] Then Jael Heber's wife took a nail of the tent, and took an hammer in her hand, and went softly unto him, and smote the nail into his temples, and fastened it into the ground: for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died. (Williams says, "God, Who energized Shamgar to destroy the Philistine with an ox goad, strengthened Jael to kill the Syrian with a tent-peg.")

[22] And, behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said unto him, Come, and I will show you the man whom you seek. And when he came into her tent, behold, Sisera lay dead, and the nail was in his temples. (The Holy Spirit labels only two women as preeminently "blessed among women"; the one was Jael [5:24], and the other the Virgin Mary [Lk. 1:28]. Mary, of course, is associated with the advent of Israel's, and the world's, Redeemer; Jael, with the judgment of Israel's oppressor.)

JABIN

[23] So God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the Children of Israel.

[24] And the hand of the Children of Israel prospered, and prevailed against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan (a tremendous victory!).

CHAPTER 5

(1316 B.C.)

SONG OF TRIUMPH

[1] Then sang Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam on that day, saying (victory precedes singing, while defeat precedes weeping),

[2] Praise you the LORD for the avenging of Israel, when the people willingly offered themselves (the people willingly offered themselves to be used of the Lord, and the Lord willingly avenged Israel).

[3] Hear, O you kings; give ear, O you princes; I, even I, will sing unto the LORD; I will sing praise to the LORD God of Israel (the "kings" and "princes" were those of the enemy; they found out as to Who exactly was the God of Israel).

[4] LORD, when You went out of Seir, when You marched out of the field of Edom, the Earth trembled, and the heavens dropped, the clouds also dropped water.

[5] The mountains melted from before the LORD, even that Sinai from before the LORD God of Israel (the mighty Power of God formerly manifested toward Israel is now recalled).

[6] In the days of Shamgar the son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the highways were unoccupied, and the travellers walked through byways (Israel was so beaten down by the enemy that they were afraid to even walk on the roads; because of sin, the people of God had been reduced to this low state).

[7] The inhabitants of the villages ceased, they ceased in Israel, until that I Deborah arose, that I arose a mother in Israel (until the Lord at this time raised up Deborah, Israel was leaderless).

[8] They chose new gods; then was war in the gates: was there a shield or spear seen among forty thousand in Israel? (Israel was guilty of idolatry, which had reduced the people to being defenseless; the only defense against Satan is the Cross of Christ; anything else leaves the Believer defenseless [I Cor. 1:17-18].)

[9] My heart is toward the governors of Israel, who offered themselves willingly among the people. Bless ye the LORD (the leaders in Israel were to "bless the LORD," because of the great victory that had been won).

[10] Speak, you who ride on white asses, you who sit in judgment, and walk by the way (they were not only to bless the Lord, they were also to speak the Blessings; and what they were to speak is set out in the next Verse).

[11] They who are delivered from the noise of archers in the places of drawing water, there shall they rehearse the righteous Acts of the LORD, even the righteous acts toward the inhabitants of his villages in Israel: then shall the people of the LORD go down to the gates (the idea is this: the water wells were where gossip was exchanged and news proclaimed; instead of the Syrians talking at these wells about their great victory over Israel, which would have been the case had they won, instead, Israel would boast; however, they were to boast about the "righteous Acts of the LORD," and not the achievements of individuals).

[12] Awake, awake, Deborah: awake, awake, utter a song: arise, Barak, and lead your captivity captive, you son of Abinoam (Deborah seems to go back to the time the Lord moved upon her with the Divine Call).

[13] Then He (the Lord) made him who remains have dominion over the nobles among the people: the LORD made me have dominion over the mighty (the Lord gave her victory over Sisera and the king of Canaan).

[14] Out of Ephraim was there a root of them against Amalek; after you, Benjamin, among your people; out of Machir came down governors, and out of Zebulun they who handle the pen of the writer. (The Holy Spirit through Deborah delineates those who helped in the battle, and those who didn't. The Tribes of Ephraim, Benjamin, Zebulun, and Issachar helped bring about the victory.)

15 And the princes of Issachar were with Deborah; even Issachar, and also Barak: he was sent on foot into the valley. For the divisions of Reuben there were great thoughts of heart (Reuben was divided, and division always stops the "great thoughts of heart").

16 Why abode you among the sheepfolds, to hear the bleatings of the flocks? For the divisions of Reuben there were great searchings of heart (God gives the "Vision," and brings about "provision"; however, Satan then comes in, attempting to bring about "division"; this is what happened to Reuben, and the Holy Spirit is quick to say so).

17 Gilead abode beyond Jordan *(probably pertains to the Tribe of Dan, which portion was on the east side of Jordan; they seemed to think that the conflict did not include them, simply because of their location): and why did Dan remain in ships? (The celebrated harbor of Joppa was in the Tribe of Dan; they did not want to interrupt their business, so the Tribe of Dan neglected to help.) Asher continued on the sea shore, and abode in his breaches (the Tribe of Asher bordered the Mediterranean Sea; with them it was business as usual, as well!).

18 Zebulun and Naphtali were a people who jeoparded their lives unto the death in the high places of the field (the Holy Spirit speaks very highly of these two Tribes, as is obvious here).

19 The (heathen) kings came and fought, then fought the kings of Canaan in Taanach by the waters of Megiddo; they took no gain of money (these "kings" had thought to plunder Israel; instead they would all die).

20 They fought from heaven *(according to Josephus, a great storm arose in the face of the Canaanites, which led to their utter defeat); the stars in their courses fought against Sisera (whatever the phrase means, the Lord used the elements against the enemies of Israel).

21 The river of Kishon swept them away, that ancient river, the river Kishon. O my soul, you have trodden down strength (this river is normally a very narrow stream; however, the storm evidently caused the river to flood, which played havoc with the chariots, etc.).

[22] Then were the horsehoofs broken by the means of the pransings, the pransings of their mighty ones (the flooding river caused this).

[23] Curse you Meroz, said the Angel of the LORD, curse you bitterly the inhabitants thereof; because they came not to the help of the LORD, to the help of the LORD against the mighty. (The inhabitants of the city of Meroz could easily have been of great help and great service in this battle, but evidently refused to do so. The Holy Spirit tells us here that a curse was placed on them by the "Angel of the LORD," in other words, the Lord Almighty!

When the Holy Spirit begins to do a certain thing, and Believers take a neutral position, they lose the manifestation and the experience of the Power of God. But if, like these people of Meroz, they are so placed that they can help, but refuse to do so, then they bring death upon their souls.)

[24] Blessed above women shall Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite be, blessed shall she be above women in the tent (as stated, the only other woman spoken of in this fashion by the Holy Spirit was Mary the Mother of our Lord).

[25] He (Sisera) asked water, and she gave him milk; she brought forth butter in a lordly dish (this made him feel that she was overwhelmed by his supposed greatness).

[26] She put her hand to the nail, and her right hand to the workmen's hammer; and with the hammer she smote Sisera, she smote off his head, when she had pierced and stricken through his temples.

[27] At her feet he bowed, he fell, he lay down: at her feet he bowed, he fell: where he bowed, there he fell down dead (to be killed in battle by a woman presented, at that time, the height of disgrace).

[28] The mother of Sisera looked out at a window, and cried through the lattice, Why is his chariot so long in coming? why tarry the wheels of his chariots? (Meaning that he wasn't coming home!)

[29] Her wise ladies answered her, yes, she returned answer to herself (their answer could not have been more wrong)**,

[30] Have they not sped? have they not divided the prey; to every man a damsel or two; to Sisera a prey of divers colours, a prey of divers colours of needlework, of divers colours of needlework on both sides, meet for the necks of them who take the spoil? (The comfort these ladies tried to give to the mother of Sisera would turn to ashes in their mouths.)

[31] So let all your enemies perish, O LORD: but let them who love Him be as the Sun when he goes forth in his might. And the land had rest forty years. (Each such victory was a foretaste of the final victory over sin and death, which took place at the Cross, and of the glory of the redeemed Church.)

CHAPTER 6

(1249 B.C.)

APOSTASY

[1] And the Children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midian seven years (despite what Israel had seen regarding the great victory over Sisera, they once again lapsed into apostasy).

[2] And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel (because the Lord allowed such): and because of the Midianites the Children of Israel made them the dens which are in the mountains, and caves, and strong holds (the people of God, who were to be the strongest on the face of the Earth, are now reduced to living in dens and caves, because of fear).

[3] And so it was, when Israel had sown (sowed the seed for crops), that the Midianites came up, and the Amalekites, and the children of the east, even they came up against them;

[4] And they encamped against them, and destroyed the increase of the Earth, till you come unto Gaza, and left no sustenance for Israel, neither sheep, nor ox, nor ass (Israel is reduced to starvation; such are the wages of iniquity!).

[5] For they (the enemy) came up with their cattle and their tents, and they came as grasshoppers for multitude; for both they and their camels were without number: and they entered into the land to destroy it (the Lord allowed all of this, because of Israel's idolatry; let not the Believer think that because this is the day of Grace, God operates any differently; He doesn't!).

[6] And Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites; and the Children of Israel cried unto the LORD (as stated, irrespective as to what they had done, when Israel cried unto the Lord, without fail, He always heard and answered them; He will do the same presently [I Jn. 1:9]).

THE PROPHET

7 And it came to pass, when the Children of Israel cried unto the LORD because of the Midianites, (Why is it that so many Believers will have to come to a place of utter defeat and humiliation, before they will properly cry to the Lord? If we would cry to the Lord at all times, there would be no impoverishment, as addressed in the previous Verse.)

8 That the LORD sent a prophet unto the Children of Israel, which said unto them, Thus says the LORD God of Israel, I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondage;

9 And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out from before you, and gave you their land;

10 And I said unto you, I am the LORD your God; fear not the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell: but you have not obeyed My voice. (To their cry of distress, a Prophet is sent by the Lord; however, his call to Repentance is unheeded. This appears, as we shall see, from the fact that the men of Gideon's village wished to kill him, because he destroyed their idols.)

GIDEON

11 And there came an Angel of the LORD, and sat under an oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash the Abiezrite: and his son Gideon threshed wheat by the winepress, to hide it from the Midianites. (The Israelites, God's chosen People, because of their sin, were hard put to even feed themselves, much less enjoy prosperity, because the enemy took everything they had. Let's say it again: sin will take you further than you want to go, and cost you more than you can afford to pay.)

12 And the Angel of the LORD (in fact, this was a preincarnate appearance of the Lord Jesus Christ) appeared unto him, and said unto him, The LORD is with you, you mighty man of valour. (If the Lord appeared to you at this moment, what would He say about you?)

13 And Gideon said unto Him, Oh my Lord, if the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all His Miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD has forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites. (Oppression breathed in every word spoken by Gideon. The truth was, the Lord had not forsaken Israel, but, instead, Israel had forsaken the Lord. This was the reason for all of their problems.)

14 And the LORD (proving that this Angel was, in fact, the Lord of Glory) looked upon him, and said, Go in this your might, and you shall save Israel from the hand of the Midianites: have not I sent you? (The Lord commissions Gideon at this moment, and it is a commission of astounding proportions. Why Gideon?)

15 And he said unto Him, Oh my Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? (A note of sarcasm!) behold, my family is poor in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house. (This was at least one of the reasons that the Lord chose Gideon. He had an exalted opinion of the Lord, but none at all of himself. "Meekness and lowliness" are absolute necessities if one is to be truly used of God [Mat. 11:28-30].)

16 And the LORD said unto him, Surely I will be with you, and you shall smite the Midianites as one man (the Lord being with Gideon is the key, and alone the key).

17 And he said unto Him, If now I have found grace in Your sight, then show me a sign that You talk with me. (Considering what the Lord has told him that he must do, Gideon wants to make certain that it is the Lord to Whom he is speaking, and not something else. So he asks for a sign.)

18 Depart not hence, I pray You, until I come unto You, and bring forth my present (a Sacrificial Offering), and set it before You. And He (the Lord) said, I will tarry until you come again (until you come with the Sacrifice).

[19] And Gideon went in, and made ready a kid (a young lamb for Sacrifice), and unleavened cakes of an ephah of flour (the Thanksgiving Offering); the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto Him under the oak, and presented it ("presented," as used here, is a Hebrew word especially used of Sacrifices and Offerings [Amos 5:25]).

[20] And the Angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them upon this rock, and pour out the broth. And he did so (the "Rock" became an Altar).

[21] Then the Angel of the LORD put forth the end of the staff that was in His Hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and there rose up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. Then the Angel of the LORD departed out of his sight. (The consuming of the Sacrifice by fire from Heaven was the token of its being accepted. It was a Type of the Judgment of God, which would fall on the Lord Jesus Christ, necessitating His Death, in the giving of Himself as a Perfect Sacrifice, which will atone for the sins of man. Gideon's action proclaims the fact that he based everything on the atoning Sacrifice. Faith in that Sacrifice, and what it represented, is the primary reason that the Lord chose Gideon. Faith in the atoning Work of Christ is the only Faith that God will recognize. Regrettably, as it regards the Church as a whole, this type of Faith seems to be in short supply.)

[22] And when Gideon perceived that He was an Angel of the LORD, Gideon said, Alas, O LORD God! for because I have seen an Angel of the LORD face to face.

[23] And the LORD said unto him, Peace be unto you; fear not: you shall not die (this was said to Gideon before the Lord departed out of his sight).

[24] Then Gideon built an Altar there unto the LORD, and called it Jehovah-shalom (the Lord is peace): unto this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

GIDEON OBEYS THE LORD

[25] And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Take your father's young bullock, even the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that your father has, and cut down the grove that is by it (it seems that Gideon was basically the only one in his family who truly lived for God; his father worshipped "Baal," one of the most vulgar and hideous idol gods):

[26] And build an Altar unto the LORD your God upon the top of this rock (where the altar of Baal had been; this is the crying need of the modern Church; it needs to turn from altars of its own making, and place its Faith exclusively in Christ and His Cross), in the ordered place, and take the second bullock, and offer a Burnt Sacrifice with the wood of the grove which you shall cut down (the "grove" was really idols of the "Asherah," several of which evidently had been made out of wood; this was one of the most despicable of idols, actually a portrayal of the male member; this is how far that Gideon's family had sunk down spiritually).

[27] Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said unto him: and so it was, because he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night (men grow angry when their idols are touched, and religious men most of all).

[28] And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove was cut down that was by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the Altar that was built (the Altar to the Lord).

[29] And they said one to another, Who has done this thing? And when they enquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing.

[30] Then the men of the city said unto Joash, Bring out your son, that he may die: because he has cast down the altar of Baal, and because he has cut down the grove that was by it. (Those who follow idolatry, even in modern-day religion, and to be sure, and sadly, the modern Church is full of it, respond to the Cross exactly as these men did to Gideon, wanting to kill him.)

[31] And Joash said unto all who stood against him, Will you plead for Baal? will you save him? he who will plead for him, let him be put to death while it is yet morning: if he be a god, let him plead for himself, because one has cast down his altar. (It seems as if the courage of Joash, Gideon's father, was rising under the influence of his son's brave deed. In essence, he says that instead of Gideon being killed, that he, Joash, would kill anyone who would plead for Baal. His answer was, "Let Baal plead for himself"; however, these heathen gods were nothing, only figments of man's imagination.)

[32] Therefore on that day he called him (called Gideon) Jerub-baal ("is an idol anything?"), saying, Let Baal plead against him (against Gideon), because he has thrown down his altar (Gideon was given a nickname, so to speak, which showed his contempt for these heathen gods).

[33] Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the children of the east were gathered together, and went over, and pitched in the valley of Jezreel (this seemed to be their periodic foray into Israel, at which time they would plunder the land; they would find that their reception now would not be as before)**.

[34] But the Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon, and he blew a trumpet; and Abiezer was gathered after him (the whole family of Abiezer, numbering probably thousands, sprang to his side; the Spirit of the Lord was upon him, and the blowing of the trumpet, in essence, said it was time to strike).

[35] And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; who also was gathered after him: and he sent messengers unto Asher, and unto Zebulun, and unto Naphtali (various Tribes); and they came up to meet them.

THE FLEECE

[36] And Gideon said unto God, If you will save Israel by my hand, as You have said, [37] Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the floor; and if the dew be on the fleece only, and it be dry upon all the earth beside, then shall I know that you will save Israel by my hand, as You have said.

[38] And it was so: for he rose up early on the morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water.

[39] And Gideon said unto God, Let not Your anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: let me prove, I pray You, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew.

[40] And God did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground. (Concerning this, Williams says, "The double test with the fleece made plain to Gideon that God could withhold and grant blessing. He could bless Gideon, and no one else; and, on the other hand, He could bless everybody else, and not Gideon. Rahab and Jericho illustrate the one action and Nineveh and Jonah the other.")

CHAPTER 7

(1249 B.C.)

THREE HUNDRED MEN

[1] Then Jerub-baal, who is Gideon, and all the people who were with him, rose up early, and pitched beside the well of Harod: so that the host of the Midianites were on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley (the nickname "Jerub-baal" is used here by the Holy Spirit in order to proclaim the fact that Gideon is opposed to all idols, and of every description).

[2] And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people who are with you are too many for Me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel vaunt themselves against Me, saying, My own hand has saved me (man, it seems, always wants to have a hand in his own Salvation and victory in the Lord; this is the bane of the Church!).

[3] Now therefore go to, proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, Whosoever is fearful and afraid, let him return and depart early from Mount Gilead. And there returned of the people twenty and two thousand; and there remained ten thousand (the cowardly were given the option of returning home, and 22,000 did so; there is no place for "fear" in the Work of God; the Lord cannot use such, as is so very much evidenced here).

[4] And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many; bring them down unto the water, and I will try them for you there: and it shall be, that of whom I say unto you, This shall go with you, the same shall go with you; and of whomsoever I say unto you, This shall not go with you, the same shall not go.

[5] So he brought down the people unto the water: and the LORD said unto Gideon, Everyone who laps of the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, him shall you set by himself; likewise everyone who bows down upon his knees to drink.

6 And the number of them who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water.

7 And the LORD said unto Gideon, By the three hundred men who lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into your hand: and let all the other people go every man unto his place.

8 So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel every man unto his tent, and retained those three hundred men: and the host of Midian was beneath him in the valley. (Jonathan, Saul's son, would later say, "There is no restraint to the LORD to save by many or by few" [I Sam. 14:6]. Those who lapped water had their hands free in order to fight, if necessary, and thereby showed their diligence. There were three hundred of these, and the Lord used those particular people. In fact, He did not really need anyone, as ought to be obvious, but He allows us to participate in His Work, in order to build us up in the Faith.)

THE SIGN OF VICTORY

9 And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Arise, get you down unto the host; for I have delivered it into your hand (the Lord has a way, and He has a time).

10 But if you fear to go down, go you with Phurah your servant down to the host (the "host" consisted of approximately 135,000 men [8:10]; Gideon was to face this "host" with just 300 men; despite what the Lord had told him, one can well understand his consternation)**:

11 And you shall hear what they say; and afterward shall your hands be strengthened to go down unto the host. Then went he down with Phurah his servant unto the outside of the armed men who were in the host.

12 And the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the sea side for multitude (Satan, it seems, always brings formidable odds against the Believer).

13 And when Gideon was come, behold there was a man who told a dream unto his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and, lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the host of Midian, and came unto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it, that the tent lay along (Gideon and his servant, standing outside the tent in the dark, overheard this conversation; bread made from barley was the poorest of all bread; so the Lord is showing Gideon that one cake of barley bread, with God behind it, could overturn the greatest tent in the camp of Midian, symbolizing the leadership of the army of the enemy).

14 And his fellow answered and said, This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel: for into his hand has God delivered Midian, and all the host (the dream and the interpretation are striking evidences of the terror which Gideon's name had already inspired among the Midianites; the Lord had placed the fear of Gideon into the hearts of the enemy).

TRUMPETS, LAMPS, AND PITCHERS

15 And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the interpretation thereof, that he worshipped, and returned into the host of Israel, and said, Arise; for the LORD has delivered into your hand the host of Midian (the fear is gone, and faith remains).

16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet in every man's hand, with empty pitchers, and lamps within the pitchers (clay pitchers).

17 And he said unto them, Look on me, and do likewise: and, behold, when I come to the outside of the camp, it shall be that, as I do, so shall you do (the 300 were to watch Gideon, and do exactly what he was doing; the Lord, no doubt, had given him instructions as to exactly what he should do).

18 When I blow with a trumpet, I and all who are with me, then blow you the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and say, The Sword of the LORD, and of Gideon (all were to blow the trumpets at a given signal, and all were to shout, "The Sword of the LORD, and of Gideon").

19 So Gideon, and the hundred men who were with him, came unto the outside of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch; and they had but newly set the watch *(close to 11 p.m.): and they blew the trumpets, and broke the pitchers that were in their hands (which they had been told to do).

20 And the three companies blew the trumpets, and broke the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow withal: and they cried, The Sword of the LORD, and of Gideon.

21 And they stood every man in his place round about the camp; and all the host ran, and cried, and fled (fear already gripped the enemy, and, with the shouting, the glowing lights from the broken pitchers, along with the blowing of the trumpets, they imagined all sorts of things, which is exactly what the Lord intended).

22 And the three hundred blew the trumpets, and the LORD set every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the host *(the Midianites, thinking the enemy was upon them, not being able, in the dark, to distinguish friend from foe, mistook their own people who were running from pursuing Israelites, and fell upon and killed one another): and the host fled to Beth-shittah in Zererath, and to the border of Abel-meholah, unto Tabbath.

VICTORY

23 And the men of Israel gathered themselves together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after the Midianites.

[24] And Gideon sent messengers throughout all Mount Ephraim, saying, Come down against the Midianites, and take before them the waters unto Beth-barah and Jordan. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and took the waters unto Beth-barah and Jordan (to cut off the potential escape of the Midianites).

[25] And they took two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb; and they killed Oreb upon the rock Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side Jordan. (The capture of Oreb and Zeeb is celebrated in Psalms 83:11 and Isaiah 10:26. So, we learn from this just how important was this victory which the Lord gave to Gideon.)

CHAPTER 8

(1249 B.C.)

THE KINGS OF MIDIAN

[1] And the men of Ephraim said unto him, Why have you served us thus, that you called us not, when you went to fight with the Midianites? And they did chide with him sharply (Gideon had not consulted them, nor asked their aid; now that the war had been so successful, the men of Ephraim were much displeased at not having been consulted).

[2] And he said unto them, What have I done now in comparison of you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer? (Gideon seems to have known the answer of Solomon, even some 500 years before the birth of that King, "The soft answer turns away wrath" [Prov. 15:1].)

[3] God has delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? Then their anger was abated toward him, when he had said that (the men of Ephraim had captured the two mightiest princes of the Midianites).

[4] And Gideon came to Jordan, and passed over, he, and the three hundred men who were with him, faint, yet pursuing them (pursuing the enemy).

[5] And he said unto the men of Succoth, Give, I pray you, loaves of bread unto the people who follow me; for they be faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian.

[6] And the princes of Succoth said, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread unto your army? (For fear that Gideon should fail, and thereby that the Midianites would rise back up, they refused even food to his weary followers.

It is sad when petulance is shown because of a seeming slight in connection with the Lord's Work, as it was with Ephraim, but it is so much sadder when sympathy is shown to the enemy, and help refused to the servants of God, who, though faint, are yet pursuing. The problem witnessed here is all too often the problem in the modern Church. Many Christians, instead of helping to win victories for the Lord, try to hinder those who are winning victories.)

7 And Gideon said, Therefore when the LORD has delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers (it is not clear as to exactly what is meant by these statements concerning punishment; the lack of faith among the people of Succoth is what seems to have irritated Gideon the most, and rightly so!).

8 And he went up thence to Penuel, and spoke unto them likewise: and the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered him (from all of this, we see that Israel had become very fragmented, with each Tribe somewhat standing on its own, in other words, close to the place of being twelve distinct nations).

9 And he spoke also unto the men of Penuel, saying, When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower (what tower it was, we aren't told).

10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their hosts with them, about fifteen thousand men, all who were left of all the hosts of the children of the east: for there fell an hundred and twenty thousand men who drew sword (as is obvious here, Israel had won a tremendous victory).

11 And Gideon went up by the way of them who dwelt in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and smote the host: for the host was secure (or thought they were).

12 And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued after them, and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and discomfited all the host (Gideon's attention was directed at these two kings, so some of the 15,000 may have escaped; however, to be sure, they would no more harm Israel).

[13] And Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle before the sun was up,

[14] And caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and enquired of him: and he described unto him the princes of Succoth, and the elders thereof, even threescore and seventeen (77) men.

[15] And he came unto the men of Succoth, and said, Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, with whom you did upbraid me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread unto your men who are weary?

[16] And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth (it seems they were put to death).

[17] And he beat down the tower of Penuel, and killed the men of the city (if he killed these, then he killed those of Succoth, as well!).

[18] Then said he unto Zebah and Zalmunna. What manner of men were they whom you slew at Tabor? And they answered, As you are, so were they; each one resembled the children of a king (at this stage, these two heathen kings seemed not to have known that these men whom they killed were brothers of Gideon).

[19] And he said, They were my brethren, even the sons of my mother: as the LORD lives, if you had saved them alive, I would not kill you (as to exactly when his brothers had lost their lives, we aren't told).

[20] And he said unto Jether his firstborn, Up, and kill them. But the youth drew not his sword: for he feared, because he was yet a youth.

[21] Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise you, and fall upon us: for as the man is, so is his strength. And Gideon arose, and slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and took away the ornaments that were on their camels' necks (crescent-shaped ornaments of gold and silver, which, as well as "chains," were hung as ornaments on their camels' necks).

[22] Then the men of Israel said unto Gideon, Rule you over us, both you, and your son, and your son's son also: for you have delivered us from the hand of Midian (in essence, they wanted Gideon to be a king over Israel; however, the time predicted by Moses that a king would, in fact, rule over Israel was not yet come [Deut. 17:14-15]).

[23] And Gideon said unto them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: the LORD shall rule over you (Gideon answered correctly).

[24] And Gideon said unto them, I would desire a request of you, that you would give me every man the earrings of his prey. (For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.)

[25] And they answered, We will willingly give them. And they spread a garment, and did cast therein every man the earrings of his prey.

[26] And the weight of the golden earrings that he requested was a thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold (worth about $340,000 in 2004 currency); beside ornaments, and collars, and purple raiment that was on the kings of Midian, and beside the chains that were about their camels' necks.

[27] And Gideon made an ephod thereof, and put it in his city, even in Ophrah: and all Israel went thither a whoring after it: which thing became a snare unto Gideon, and to his house. (The people of Israel began to worship this thing, which was very displeasing to the Lord. Why did Gideon do what he did, and why did Israel worship this thing?

What is more commendable and pleasing to the religious mind than to use the wealth of the enemy in making an ephod? Was not an ephod a Bible garment? Was it not of Divine ordination? And Gideon put his foot in the snare; and the very man who had destroyed a gross form of idolatry in his home and his city set up a refined form of the same evil in his kingdom.)

28 Thus was Midian subdued before the Children of Israel, so that they lifted up their heads no more. And the country was in quietness forty years in the days of Gideon.

GIDEON'S CHILDREN

29 And Jerub-baal (Gideon) the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house.

30 And Gideon had threescore and ten sons (70 sons) of his body begotten: for he had many wives.

31 And his concubine who was in Shechem, she also bore him a son, whose name he called Abimelech.

32 And Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites. (Gideon remains to us as one of the most remarkable characters of the Old Testament, not indeed without faults and blemishes, and not wholly unspoiled by prosperity, but still a great man, and an eminent servant of God — Pulpit.)

APOSTASY

33 And it came to pass, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the Children of Israel turned again, and went a whoring after Baalim, and made Baal-berith their god.

34 And the Children of Israel remembered not the LORD their God, Who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side:

35 Neither showed they kindness to the house of Jerub-baal, namely,

Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had showed unto Israel. (Hervey says, "Forgetfulness of God is often the parent of ingratitude to men. The heart of stone which is not touched by the love of Christ is also insensible to the kindness of man.")

CHAPTER 9

(1209 B.C.)

ABIMELECH

1 And Abimelech the son of Jerub-baal went to Shechem unto his mother's brethren, and communed with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying,

2 Speak, I pray you, in the ears of all the men of Shechem, Whether is better for you, either that all the sons of Jerub-baal, which are threescore and ten (70) persons, reign over you, or that one reign over you? remember also that I am your bone and your flesh.

3 And his mother's brethren spoke of him in the ears of all the men of Shechem all these words: and their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech; for they said, He is our brother.

4 And they gave him threescore and ten (70) pieces of silver out of the house of Baal-berith, wherewith Abimelech hired vain and light persons, which followed him.

5 And he went unto his father's house at Ophrah, and killed his brethren the sons of Jerub-baal, being threescore and ten persons, upon one stone: notwithstanding yet Jotham the youngest son of Jerub-baal was left; for he hid himself.

6 And all the men of Shechem gathered together, and all the house of Millo, and went, and made Abimelech king, by the plain of the pillar that was in Shechem. (Abimelech was a son of Gideon. It is amply illustrated in this Chapter that he who sows to the flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption. Abimelech, born of the will of the flesh, became a channel and an instrument of evil to Israel. Israel would have fared much better, and the family of Gideon as well, had he never been born! When Gideon looked at this baby when he was born, little did he realize that he had given conception to a monster. A wrong action, which, at the time, seems harmless, bears bitter fruit in after-years. To become king of sorts, he would murder all of his brothers, some 69 total.)

JOTHAM

7 And when they told it to Jotham, he went and stood in the top of Mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said unto them, Hearken unto me, you men of Shechem, that God may hearken unto you (as stated in Verse 5, Jotham was the youngest son of Gideon, and the only one left alive of the slaughter of his 69 brothers — all murdered by Abimelech).

8 The trees went forth on a time to anoint a king over them; and they said unto the olive tree, Reign you over us.

9 But the olive tree said unto them, Should I leave my fatness, wherewith by me they honour God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees?

10 And the trees said to the fig tree, Come you, and reign over us.

11 But the fig tree said unto them, Should I forsake my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to be promoted over the trees?

12 Then said the trees unto the vine, Come you, and reign over us.

13 And the vine said unto them, Should I leave my wine, which cheers God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees?

14 Then said all the trees unto the bramble, Come you, and reign over us.

15 And the bramble said unto the trees, If in truth you anoint me king over you, then come and put your trust in my shadow: and if not, let fire come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars of Lebanon. (Jotham's allegory was both a parable and a prophecy. It had an immediate fulfillment; for the men of Shechem elected the bramble to rule over them, and mutual destruction was the result.

But the allegory had a wider significance. In the Scriptures, Israel is figured as a fig tree, an olive tree, and a vine. These symbolize national blessing, covenant blessing, and spiritual blessing. The bramble is a fore-picture of the coming Antichrist. In the future dark day of Israel's rebellion, she will turn aside from all Divine fullness, and put her trust in the rule of the Antichrist; and mutual destruction will be the result — Williams.)

16 Now therefore, if you have done truly and sincerely, in that you have made Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerub-baal and his house, and have done unto him according to the deserving of his hands;

17 (For my father fought for you, and adventured his life far, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian:

18 And you are risen up against my father's house this day, and have slain his sons, threescore and ten persons, upon one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his maidservant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother;)

19 If you then have dealt truly and sincerely with Jerub-baal and with his house this day, then rejoice you in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you:

20 But if not, let fire come out from Abimelech, and devour the men of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and let fire come out from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and devour Abimelech.

21 And Jotham ran away, and fled, and went to Beer, and dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.

THE REVOLT

22 When Abimelech had reigned three years over Israel,

23 Then God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech (if men desire evil, as did Abimelech, God will see to it that they get evil):

24 That the cruelty done to the threescore and ten sons of Jerub-baal might come, and their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother, which killed them; and upon the men of Shechem, which aided him in the killing of his brethren.

25 And the men of Shechem set liers in wait for him in the top of the mountains, and they robbed all who came along that way by them: and it was told Abimelech.

26 And Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brethren, and went over to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

27 And they went out into the fields, and gathered their vineyards, and trode the grapes, and made merry, and went into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech (the evil spirit is at work here, doing what God sent him to do).

28 And Gaal the son of Ebed said, Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? is not he the son of Jerub-baal? and Zebul his officer? serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem: for why should we serve him?

29 And would to God this people were under my hand! then would I remove Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Increase your army, and come out (Gaal sends a challenge to Abimelech to come out and fight him).

THE PLOT

30 And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was kindled (Zebul, it appears, was governor of the city under Abimelech).

31 And he sent messengers unto Abimelech privily, saying, Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brethren be come to Shechem; and, behold, they fortify the city against you.

32 Now therefore up by night, you and the people that is with you, and lie in wait in the field:

33 And it shall be, that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, you shall rise early, and set upon the city: and, behold, when he and the people that is with him come out against you, then may you do to them as you shall find occasion.

34 And Abimelech rose up, and all the people who were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in four companies.

35 And Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and Abimelech rose up, and the people that were with him, from lying in wait.

ABIMELECH

36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, Behold, there come people down from the top of the mountains. And Zebul said unto him, You see the shadow of the mountains as if they were men.

37 And Gaal spoke again and said, See there come people down by the middle of the land, and another company come along by the plain of Meonenim.

38 Then said Zebul unto him, Where is now your mouth, wherewith you said, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? is not this the people that you have despised? go out, I pray now, and fight with them.

39 And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

40 And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him, and many were overthrown and wounded, even unto the entering of the gate.

41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shechem.

SHECHEM

42 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people went out into the field; and they told Abimelech.

43 And he took the people, and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the field, and looked, and, behold, the people were come forth out of the city; and he rose up against them, and smote them.

44 And Abimelech, and the company that was with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and the two other companies ran upon all the people who were in the fields, and killed them.

45 And Abimelech fought against the city all that day; and he took the city, and killed the people that was therein, and beat down the city, and sowed it with salt.

46 And when all the men of the tower of Shechem heard that, they entered into an hold of the house of the god Berith.

47 And it was told Abimelech, that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

48 And Abimelech gat him up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the people that were with him; and Abimelech took an ax in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it, and laid it on his shoulder, and said unto the people who were with him, What you have seen me do, make haste, and do as I have done.

49 And all the people likewise cut down every man his bough, and followed Abimelech, and put them to the hold, and set the hold on fire upon them: so that all the men of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.

DEATH OF ABIMELECH

50 Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it.

51 But there was a strong tower within the city, and thither fled all the men and women, and all they of the city, and shut it to them, and gat them up to the top of the tower.

52 And Abimelech came unto the tower, and fought against it, and went hard unto the door of the tower to burn it with fire.

53 And a certain woman cast a piece of a millstone upon Abimelech's head, and all to break his skull.

54 Then he called hastily unto the young man his armourbearer, and said unto him, Draw your sword, and kill me, that men say not of me, A women killed him. And his young man thrust him through, and he died.

55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man unto his place.

56 Thus God rendered the wickedness of Abimelech, which he did unto his father, in killing his seventy brethren:

57 And all the evil of the men of Shechem did God render upon their heads: and upon them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerub-baal. (Thus we see the low state to which Israel had fallen, and all because of sin.)

CHAPTER 10

(1206 B.C.)

TOLA AND JAIR

[1] And after Abimelech there arose to defend Israel Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar; and he dwelt in Shamir in Mount Ephraim.

[2] And he judged Israel twenty and three years, and died, and was buried in Shamir (this is the only information we are given as it regards Tola).

[3] And after him arose Jair, a Gileadite, and judged Israel twenty and two years.

[4] And he had thirty sons who rode on thirty ass colts, and they had thirty cities, which are called Havoth-jair unto this day, which are in the land of Gilead.

[5] And Jair died, and was buried in Camon (this is the totality of information we have about this man, as well).

APOSTASY

[6] And the Children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD, and served Baalim, and Ashtaroth, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of Zidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines, and forsook the LORD, and served not Him. (As is obvious, Israel had now sunk to an all-time low. This appears to be the lowest point of debasement that they touched at this period of their history.)

[7] And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and He sold them into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hands of the children of Ammon. (They seemed to forget, or else they didn't know, that the Lord, Whom they were supposed to serve, could bring about any situation He so desired. It is still the same presently. Everything that happens to a Child of God is either caused or allowed by the Lord. This we must never forget.)

8 And that year they vexed and oppressed the Children of Israel: eighteen years, all the Children of Israel who were on the other side Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.

9 Moreover the children of Ammon passed over Jordan to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was sore distressed. (The words of Verse 8 may be translated "broke and crushed them." In earlier days, when serving one false god, they were oppressed but on one side, but now, serving a multitude of idols, they are oppressed on both sides. This fact is as true for men and nations presently as it was then.)

ISRAEL CRIES TO GOD

10 And the Children of Israel cried unto the LORD, saying, We have sinned against You, both because we have forsaken our God, and also served Baalim. (Williams says, "But there was sufficient energy of life in Israel to bring out the cry of confession. To be conscious of misery is a sign of life. Because of the deceitfulness of the heart, and because of the deceitfulness of sin, bondage is accepted after a slight struggle, and then, after a time, the slave becomes unconscious of the slavery.

"The confession 'we have sinned against You' showed true Repentance, for it showed a sense of injury done to God, and not merely sorrow because of the miseries that lay upon themselves. Remorse is not repentance — mental distress because of the painful results of sin is not repentance; but a sense of the grief and dishonor occasioned to God, and sorrow because He has been sinned against, that is Repentance. David and Simon Magus illustrate true and false repentance. The one cried out, 'I have sinned against the Lord.' His first thought was God and His Glory. The other said, 'Pray for me that none of these things come upon me.' His first thought was himself and to secure exemption from punishment.")

[11] And the LORD said unto the Children of Israel, Did not I deliver you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines?

[12] The Zidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites, did oppress you; and you cried to Me, and I delivered you out of their hand. (All of this was a matter of record, and many alive at that time knew at least some of these deliverances.)

[13] Yet you have forsaken Me, and served other gods: wherefore I will deliver you no more.

[14] Go and cry unto the gods which you have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation. (Well, of course, these so-called gods were merely figments of men's imaginations. They didn't even exist! So why did Israel, who had the privilege of having relationship with Jehovah, the only True God, desire to submit themselves to such evil?

The problem was, and is, the sin nature. This is the nature of man that bends itself toward sin, and all because of the Fall. While they had no excuse, still, before the Cross, they did not have the Holy Spirit abiding within their lives on a permanent basis; therefore, they were, for all practical purposes, denied much of the help the Holy Spirit now gives.

And even presently, if the Believer doesn't understand that all victory is received and maintained by our Faith in Christ and the Cross, the sin nature will once again begin to dominate the person [Rom. 8:32; 6:12-13].)

GENUINE REPENTANCE

[15] And the Children of Israel said unto the LORD, We have sinned: do Thou unto us whatsoever seems good unto You; deliver us only, we pray Thee, this day.

[16] And they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the LORD: and His soul was grieved for the misery of Israel. (The soul of the Lord being "grieved" means that He literally could not bear their suffering any longer. He would answer their prayer and deliver them.)

17 Then the children of Ammon were gathered together, and encamped in Gilead. And the Children of Israel assembled themselves together, and encamped in Mizpeh.

18 And the people and princes of Gilead said one to another, What man is he who will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? he shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

CHAPTER 11

JEPHTHAH

[1] Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valour, and he was the son of an harlot: and Gilead begat Jephthah. (Perhaps because he was the son of a harlot, he was despised, rejected, and hated; however, God used him greatly, even as we shall see. If a person's heart is toward God, irrespective of the past, God can use such a person, and often does so in order to rebuke His People, and to confound man's wisdom and power.)

[2] And Gilead's wife bore him sons; and his wife's sons grew up, and they thrust out Jephthah, and said unto him, You shall not inherit in our father's house; for you are the son of a strange woman (in a word, Jephthah was disinherited).

[3] Then Jephthah fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of Tob: and there were gathered vain men to Jephthah, and went out with him (these were broken or bankrupt men, who gravitated toward Jephthah, as, at a later time, similar individuals joined David in the Cave of Adullam).

[4] And it came to pass in process of time, that the children of Ammon made war against Israel.

[5] And it was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob (evidently, Jephthah had made a name for himself in some way, as it regards military expertise)**:

[6] And they said unto Jephthah, Come, and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.

[7] And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, Did not you hate me, and expel me out of my father's house? And why are you come unto me now when you are in distress? (This proclaims the fact that his expulsion was not the private act of his own brothers turning him out of the house they lived in, but rather a tribal act in which the elders of Gilead had taken a part.)

[8] And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Therefore we turn again to you now, that you may go with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

[9] And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, If you bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon, and the LORD deliver them before me, shall I be your head?

[10] And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah. The LORD be witness between us, if we do not so according to your words.

[11] Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captain over them: and Jephthah uttered all his words before the LORD in Mizpeh. (As is obvious here, Jephthah was a man of Faith, and, thereby, desired the Will of God in these matters.)

[12] And Jephthah sent messengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What have you to do with me, that you are come against me to fight in my land?

[13] And the king of the children of Ammon answered unto the messengers of Jephthah, Because Israel took away my land, when they came up out of Egypt, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and unto Jordan: now therefore restore those lands again peaceably (this king demanded the surrender of a certain area of land as the only condition of peace).

[14] And Jephthah sent messengers again unto the king of the children of Ammon:

[15] And said unto him, Thus says Jephthah, Israel took not away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon:

16 But when Israel came up from Egypt, and walked through the wilderness unto the Red Sea, and came to Kadesh;

17 Then Israel sent messengers unto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray you, pass through your land: but the king of Edom would not hearken thereto. And in like manner they sent unto the king of Moab: but he would not consent: and Israel abode in Kadesh. (All of this of which is related took place over 300 years before.)

18 Then they went along through the wilderness, and compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, but came not within the border of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

19 And Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said unto him, Let us pass, we pray you, through your land into my place.

20 But Sihon trusted not Israel to pass through his coast (borders): but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

21 And the LORD God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they smote them: so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country.

22 And they possessed all the coasts of the Amorites, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and from the wilderness even unto Jordan.

23 So now the LORD God of Israel has dispossessed the Amorites from before His people Israel, and should you possess it? (In other words, Israel had come by these lands legitimately.)

24 Will not you possess that which Chemosh your god gives you to possess? So whomsoever the LORD our God shall drive out from before us, them will we possess. (In effect, Jephthah is pitting the Lord God against the idols of the Ammonites.)

25 And now are you anything better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them (Jephthah now advances another argument to prove the justice of his cause and the unreasonableness of the Ammonite claim. If the territory in question was Moabite property, how came it that Balak laid no claim to it? So, if Balak, those long years before, had laid no claim to this area, neither should the Ammonites)**,

26 While Israel dwelt in Heshbon and her towns, and in Aroer and her towns, and in all the cities that be along by the coasts of Arnon, three hundred years? why therefore did you not recover them within that time? (Good question!)

27 Wherefore I have not sinned against you, but you do me wrong to war against me: the LORD the Judge be judge this day between the Children of Israel and the children of Ammon.

28 Howbeit the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not unto the words of Jephthah which he sent him.

JEPHTHAH'S RASH VOW

29 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed over Gilead, and Manasseh, and passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed over unto the children of Ammon. (The Spirit of the Lord is what is guiding Jephthah, and he makes his move according to the Lord's command.)

30 And Jephthah vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If you shall without fail deliver the children of Ammon into my hands, 31 Then it shall be, that whatsoever comes forth of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, shall surely be the LORD's, and I will offer it up for a Burnt Offering (the word "and" in the Hebrew is frequently translated "or" in the Scriptures; so, it would then read, "shall surely be the LORD's, or I will offer it up for a Burnt Offering").

VICTORY

32 So Jephthah passed over unto the children of Ammon to fight against them; and the LORD delivered them into his hands.

33 And he smote them from Aroer, even till you come to Minnith, even twenty cities, and unto the plain of the vineyards, with a very great slaughter. Thus the children of Ammon were subdued before the Children of Israel.

JEPHTHAH'S VOW FULFILLED

34 And Jephthah came to Mizpeh unto his house, and, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances: and she was his only child; beside her he had neither son nor daughter.

35 And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he rent his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low, and you are one of them that trouble me: for I have opened my mouth unto the LORD, and I cannot go back.

36 And she said unto him, My father, if you have opened your mouth unto the LORD, do to me according to that which has proceeded out of your mouth; forasmuch as the LORD has taken vengeance for you of your enemies, even of the children of Ammon.

37 And she said unto her father, Let this thing be done for me: let me alone two months, that I may go up and down upon the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my fellows.

38 And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two months: and she went with her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains.

39 And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she returned unto her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed:

and she knew no man. And it was a custom in Israel, 40 That the daughters of Israel went yearly to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year. (Jephthah did not put his daughter to death and offer up her body as a Burnt Sacrifice to Jehovah, for such sacrifices were sternly forbidden in the Law [Lev. 18:21; 20:2-5]. What he did was the following:

He dedicated his daughter to Jehovah by a perpetual virginity. This is conclusive from the statement in Verse 39 that after her father had performed his vow, "she knew no man," that is, she never was married.

Considering that no children would be born into this family, this meant that the line of Jephthah would end with his death and her death; however, Jephthah is mentioned in Hebrews 11:32 as one of the great giants of Faith. And so he was!)

CHAPTER 12

(1143 B.C.)

THE EPHRAIMITES

[1] And the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and went northward, and said unto Jephthah, Wherefore passed you over to fight against the children of Ammon, and did not call us to go with you? we will burn your house upon you with fire. (Carnal men with carnal ideas, as were the Ephraimites, tread where Angels fear to tread. In the first place, they had no right whatsoever to speak to Jephthah in this fashion; secondly, did they not realize that they were insulting the man who had just defeated the Ammonites, and, above all, that God was with him?)

[2] And Jephthah said unto them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon; and when I called you, you delivered me not out of their hands. (It seems that Jephthah asked the help of Ephraim when he was first made chief of the Gileadites, and they refused, partly because they thought the attempt desperate, and partly because it seems they were offended at his leadership.)

[3] And when I saw that you delivered me not, I put my life in my hands, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and the LORD delivered them into my hand: wherefore then are you come up unto me this day, to fight against me?

[4] Then Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim: and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, You Gileadites are fugitives of Ephraim among the Ephraimites, and among the Manassites.

[5] And the Gileadites took the passages of Jordan before the Ephraimites: and it was so, that when those Ephraimites which were escaped said, Let me go over; that the men of Gilead said unto him, Are you an Ephraimite? If he said, No;

6 Then said they unto him, Say now Shibboleth (which means, in the Hebrew, "a stream"): and he said Sibboleth (means "a burden"): for he could not frame to pronounce it right. Then they took him, and killed him at the passages of Jordan: and there fell at that time of the Ephraimites forty and two thousand (it's probably not translated correctly; it probably should be "forty plus two thousand," i.e., 2,040).

JEPHTHAH'S DEATH

7 And Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then died Jephthah the Gileadite, and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.

IBZAN, ELON, AND ABDON

8 And after him Ibzan of Beth-lehem judged Israel.

9 And he had thirty sons, and thirty daughters, whom he sent abroad, and took in thirty daughters from abroad for his sons. And he judged Israel seven years.

10 Then died Ibzan, and was buried at Beth-lehem (from no record of Ibzan's Judgeship being preserved, we may infer that no important events took place in his time).

11 And after him Elon, a Zebulonite, judged Israel; and he judged Israel ten years.

12 And Elon the Zebulonite died, and was buried in Aijalon in the country of Zebulun.

13 And after him Abdon the son of Hillel, a Pirathonite, judged Israel.

14 And he had forty sons and thirty nephews, who rode on threescore and ten (70) ass colts: and he judged Israel eight years.

15 And Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the mount of the Amalekites. (Jephthah and Abdon present a contrast. The one risked his life, won a great victory, delivered Israel, and after a childless life was buried in an unknown grave. Such is the gratitude of man!

The other risked nothing that is recorded. He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, and his grave is described with great minuteness. But the Holy Spirit, as stated, in Hebrews 11:32, places Jephthah's valorous name among the golden tablets of the eternal records, and ignores Abdon. God never forgets those who trust and serve Him, however much they may be forgotten by man — Williams.)

CHAPTER 13

THE ANGEL

[1] And the Children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD delivered them into the hand of the Philistines forty years. (Over and over again, we see this terrible disposition of Israel. They go into deep sin; and to bring them to their senses, the Lord allows them to be taken over by the heathen. After they suffer immeasurably for a period of time, they begin to call on the Name of the Lord, begging for help; and, always, the Lord would hear and answer, even as He will always hear and answer such a plea. But what a sad commentary on the plight of the human heart.

The Philistines now become prominent, and continue to be so up to the time of David, when they were finally subdued.

The Philistine represents a fact: Samson, whom we will study in the next four Chapters, represents a principle.

The fact is, there are enemies within the Christian's heart, for the Philistine was an inward, and not an outward, foe. The principle is that this inward enemy can only be defeated by the Believer understanding that his victory comes exclusively through Christ and what Christ has done at the Cross, demanding our ever constant Faith in Christ and the Cross. Then, and then only, can the Holy Spirit function and work within our lives, bringing about the desired consecration [I Cor. 1:17-18, 21, 23; 2:2; Gal. 6:14].)

[2] And there was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren, and bore not.

[3] And the Angel of the LORD appeared unto the woman, and said unto her, Behold now, you are barren, and bearest not: but you shall conceive, and bear a son. (This is very similar to Abraham and Sarah [Gen. 17:19; 18:10, 14], to Hannah [I Sam. 1:17], to Elizabeth [Lk. 1:13], and to the Blessed Virgin [Lk. 1:31]. The Angel of Jehovah, incidentally, was the same Angel Who appeared to Gideon, actually, the Lord Jesus Christ in angelic form.)

4 Now therefore beware, I pray you, and drink not wine nor strong drink, and eat not any unclean thing (until Samson would be born, his mother was to consecrate herself as a Nazarite)**:

5 For, lo, you shall conceive, and bear a son; and no razor shall come on his head: for the child shall be a Nazarite unto God from the womb: and he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines. (Samson was to be a Nazarite from his mother's womb. That meant that he was not to drink any type of intoxicating drink, or even grape juice. He was not to cut his hair, nor was he to go near a dead body, even that of his nearest relation. If the last rule was inadvertently broken, the Nazarite had to undergo closely-detailed purification rites. If it is to be noticed, Samson would not actually deliver Israel from the Philistines, but most definitely would begin the process.)

6 Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, A Man of God came unto me, and His Countenance was like the countenance of an Angel of God, very terrible: but I asked him not whence He was, neither told He me His name:

7 But He said unto me, Behold, you shall conceive, and bear a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing: for the child shall be a Nazarite to God from the womb to the day of his death.

ANOTHER APPEARANCE

8 Then Manoah intreated the LORD, and said, O my Lord, let the Man of God which You did send come again unto us, and teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born (no matter how evil that Israel became, there were always a few who still looked to God, even as evidently did Manoah and his wife).

9 And God hearkened to the voice of Manoah; and the Angel of God came again unto the woman as she sat in the field: but Manoah her husband was not with her.

10 And the woman made haste, and ran, and showed her husband, and said unto him, Behold, the Man has appeared unto me, Who came unto me the other day.

11 And Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the Man, and said unto Him, Are you the Man Who spoke unto the woman? And He said, I am.

12 And Manoah said, Now let Your words come to pass. How shall we order the child, and how shall we do unto him? (He knew this would be a special child.)

13 And the Angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Of all that I said unto the woman let her beware.

14 She may not eat of anything that comes of the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing: all that I commanded her let her observe.

15 And Manoah said unto the Angel of the LORD, I pray You, let us detain You, until we shall have made ready a kid for You (a young lamb for sacrifice).

16 And the Angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Though you detain Me, I will not eat of your bread: and if you will offer a Burnt Offering, you must offer it unto the LORD. For Manoah knew not that He was an Angel of the LORD.

17 And Manoah said unto the Angel of the LORD, What is Your name, that when Your sayings come to pass we may do You honour? (The faith of Manoah was very admirable, and his ignorance very deplorable; for if not rebuked, he would have given Divine honor to a person whom he believed to be a creature and not the Creator; however, this was, in fact, a preincarnate appearance of the Lord Jesus Christ.)

[18] And the Angel of the LORD said unto him, Why ask you thus after My name, seeing it is secret?

[19] So Manoah took a kid (small lamb) with a Meat Offering, and offered it upon a rock unto the LORD: and the Angel did wonderously; and Manoah and his wife looked on.

[20] For it came to pass, when the flame went up toward Heaven from off the Altar, that the Angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the Altar. And Manoah and his wife looked on it, and fell on their faces to the ground. (In essence, when asked what was His name, the Angel replied, "Wonderful." This, in the Hebrew Text, is the same word as in Isaiah 9:6. His doing wondrously in ascending up to Heaven in the flame of fire proved Him to be entitled to this Great Name.

Christ is a Wonderful Saviour. He is Wonderful for what He is to sinners, and Wonderful because of what He does for Saints.)

[21] But the Angel of the LORD did no more appear to Manoah and to his wife. Then Manoah knew that He was an Angel of the LORD.

[22] And Manoah said unto his wife, We shall surely die, because we have seen God (Manoah now knows that this Angel is actually the Lord).

[23] But his wife said unto him, If the LORD were pleased to kill us, He would not have received a Burnt Offering and a Meat Offering at our hands, neither would He have showed us all these things, nor would as at this time have told us such things as these. (It seems that Manoah's wife had a deeper insight into the things of the Lord than did her husband. The Divine directions respecting the child having been given to the Mother is a striking instance of the fact that the boy's future, as with all boys, largely depends upon a mother's proper training.

Her reasoning was right; the fact that the Angel accepted the Sacrifice was an evidence of Salvation and Life, and not of condemnation and death. The truth is, Jesus is All in All!

Sinners are Saved, not so much by their acceptance of Christ, but by God's acceptance of Christ on our behalf; but sinners must accept this Saviour in order to profit by the Divine acceptance of His Person and Work [Jn. 1:12].)

THE BIRTH OF SAMSON

24 And the woman bore a son, and called his name Samson: and the child grew, and the LORD blessed him.

25 And the Spirit of the LORD began to move him at times in the camp of Dan between Zorah and Eshtaol. (Israel had at this time fallen so completely into the power of the enemy that only a Nazarite could be used by God to deliver them. But, as always, so in this case, man failed. Christ was the true Nazarite. The source of His Strength was a secret unknown to the world. At that time, Israel was in a worse bondage than that of the Philistines, who didn't even know the Lord; and He, the Lord Jesus Christ, in the power of full consecration, walked among sinners separate from them — separate from evil — yet He was in the midst of them as their Light and their Salvation. So, as Samson, He began to save His people from the Philistines in His First Advent, and, as David, He will complete His saving Work in His Second Advent — Williams.)

CHAPTER 14

(1141 B.C.)

SAMSON

[1] And Samson went down to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines.
