14 I am poured out like water, and all My bones are out of joint: My heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of My bowels (Crucifixion was one of the most, if not the most, horrible forms of death ever devised by evil men; coupling that with the spiritual torture, which was even far worse, we have suffering that is unimaginable).

15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and My tongue cleaves to My jaws; and You have brought Me into the dust of death (but yet, His death would be totally unlike any other death that had ever been experienced; it would be the death of a Perfect One, Who purposely laid down His Life as a Sacrifice).

16 For dogs have compassed Me (refers to the Gentiles, who carried out the Crucifixion): the assembly of the wicked have inclosed Me (refers to the Scribes, Priests, and the Pharisees, actually, the religious leaders of Israel): they pierced My hands and My feet (nailing Him to the Cross).

17 I may tell all My bones: they look and stare upon Me (Christ hung on the Cross in complete humiliation, in other words, totally naked).

18 They part My garments among them, and cast lots upon My vesture (uttered a thousand years before the fact, Mat. 27:35, Mk. 15:24, Lk. 23:34, and Jn. 19:24 all record its fulfillment).

19 But be not You far from Me, O LORD: O My Strength, haste You to help Me. (Jesus was placed on the Cross at 9 a.m. [Mk. 15:25]. From 12 noon until 3 p.m., the latter being the time when Jesus died and also the time of the evening sacrifice, darkness covered the land for that three-hour period — the period when Jesus was bearing the sin penalty of the world [Mat. 27:45]. During that three-hour period, the Lord would not answer the prayers of Christ, nor help Him in any way; however, at the moment He died, the sin penalty was paid [Mat. 27:51], and the Lord could, and in fact most definitely did, answer His prayers from that moment on [Jn. 19:30; Lk. 23:46].)

20 Deliver My soul from the sword; My darling (My soul) from the power of the dog (the Gentiles, and more particularly Pilate).

21 Save Me from the lion's mouth (religious leaders of Israel): for You have heard Me from the horns of the unicorns (wild bulls, again typifying the religious leaders of Israel).

22 I will declare Your name unto My brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise You. (Verses 1 through 21 present to us the sufferings of the Messiah, while Verses 22 through 31 present to us the Exaltation and Glory of the Messiah. We are to declare His Name all over the world, and praise Him for what He has done in redeeming man.)

23 You who fear the LORD, praise Him; all you the seed of Jacob, glorify

Him; and fear Him, all you the seed of Israel (all Believers are to praise the Lord for what He has done; Jesus is the Source, and the Cross is the Means).

[24] For He (God the Father) has not despised nor abhorred the affliction (suffering) of the Afflicted (His Only Begotten Son); neither has He hid His face from Him (not permanently, actually for only about three hours); but when He (our Saviour) cried unto Him (God the Father), He heard (cried out of the death world, and the Lord heard Him, and raised Him from the dead).

[25] My praise shall be of You in the great congregation (every Saint is to praise God for what Jesus has done for us at the Cross): I will pay My vows (devotions) before them who fear Him.

[26] The meek shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise the LORD who seek Him: your heart shall live forever (the Cross afforded us eternal life).

[27] All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the LORD: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before You (when Jesus died on the Cross, He died not only for Israel, but for the entirety of mankind).

[28] For the kingdom is the LORD's: and He is the Governor among the nations (this privilege is afforded Him because of Calvary).

[29] All they that be fat upon Earth shall eat and worship: all they who go down to the dust shall bow before Him: and none can keep alive his own soul (life is Christ's gift; the soul cannot be kept spiritually alive except through Him, by His quickening Spirit [Jn. 6:53, 63]).

[30] A seed shall serve Him; it shall be accounted to the LORD for a generation (what Jesus did at the Cross shall be told of the Lord to generation after generation).

[31] They shall come, and shall declare His Righteousness unto a people who shall be born, that He has done this (the words, "that He has done this," speak of the great price He paid for man's Redemption; it is done; "It is Finished" [Jn. 19:30]; this shall be told from generation to generation, and so has it been)*.

CHAPTER 23

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE SHEPHERD PSALM

[1] The LORD is My Shepherd; I shall not want. (Even though this beautiful Psalm applied to David, and to all Believers as well, more than all it applied to Christ.

Williams says, "Only one voice sang this Psalm in perfect tune. It was the Voice of Jesus. When walking through the dark valley of His earthly Life, Jehovah was His Shepherd. There is no suggestion of sin in the Psalm. Its great theme is not so much what Jehovah gives, or does, as what or Who He is."

And yet, at the same time, as Christ presents Himself as the Sheep, He is also presented as the Great Shepherd of His People, for He was raised from the dead in order to be such [Heb. 13:20].)

[2] He makes Me to lie down in green pastures (any other voice that is followed will lead only to barren pastures): He leads Me beside the still waters. (The 23rd Psalm makes it abundantly clear that the Church is not the Saviour, neither is religious hierarchy the Saviour, neither are rules and regulations the Saviour. Only the Lord is. We can follow Him, or we can follow other things; we cannot follow both.)

[3] He restores My soul (when the sheep skin their forehead foraging for grass, the shepherd would pour oil over the wounds): He leads Me in the paths of Righteousness for His Name's sake. (At times the lamb will leave the appointed path, even doing so several times, being retrieved each time by the shepherd. But, if it leaves too many times, the shepherd, upon retrieving it from the rocky crevices, will take his staff and break one of the legs. He then carefully "sets" the leg, and then lays the lamb on his shoulder close to his heart. He carries it until the wound is healed. That is a symbol of chastisement [Heb. 12:5–11].)

4 Yes, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil (the powers of darkness, constituting powerful attacks by Satan): for You are with Me; Your rod and Your staff they comfort Me. (The ideal position for the "lamb" is to allow the Shepherd to fight for him. In fact, the only fight we are told to fight is the "good fight of Faith" [I Tim. 6:12].

What a comfort it is to know that the "rod" and "staff" are constantly beating back the powers of darkness on our behalf.)

5 You prepare a table before Me in the presence of My enemies (and these "enemies" cannot touch this "prepared table"): You anoint My head with oil (a Type of the Holy Spirit); My cup runs over (a figure of speech that refers to abundance)**.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow Me all the days of My life ("goodness" gives us green pastures and still waters; "mercy" retrieves us when we foolishly leave the "paths of righteousness"): and I will dwell in the House of the LORD for ever (as long as the Lord is our Shepherd, we can expect all of this, "all the days of our lives")**.

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE KING OF GLORY

[1] The Earth is the LORD's, and the fullness thereof; the world, and they who dwell therein (God created the Earth, so it legally belongs to Him; sadly, it is now in rebellion against Him, being dominated more or less by Satan and evil spirit forces [II Cor. 4:4; Eph. 2:2; I Jn. 5:19]; however, with the Second Coming, all of this will be rectified)**.

[2] For He has founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods (founded and established it above...)**.

[3] Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in His Holy Place? (Speaks of the time that Christ will enter Jerusalem and take His Place as the Ruler of the entirety of the world.)

[4] He Who has clean hands, and a pure heart; Who has not lifted up His soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully (only the Lord Jesus Christ could fit this description)**.

[5] He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of His Salvation (in effect, God can only bless His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ; He blesses us when we are properly in Christ, and only when we are properly in Christ [Jn. 14:20; 15:5], which we can only be by and through the Cross [Gal., Chpt. 5)**.

[6] This is the generation of them who seek Him, who seek Your face, O Jacob. Selah. (Jacob is used as an example, because by faith Jacob received everything good, when truly he only merited condemnation [Gen. 28:12–15; 48:16].)

[7] Lift up your heads, O you gates; and be you lift up, you everlasting doors; and the King of Glory shall come in (this is Christ making His entrance into Jerusalem at the beginning of the Kingdom Age; as the previous Psalm proclaims, Israel must first accept Christ as the Shepherd, even as the Song of Solomon proclaims, before they can have Him as King)*.

[8] Who is this King of Glory? (The Lord Jesus Christ, the only One with clean hands.) The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle (meaning that He fought the battle at Calvary as the Good Shepherd, and did so for all of mankind)*.

[9] Lift up your heads, O you gates; even lift them up, you everlasting doors; and the King of Glory shall come in (the triumphant entry of Jesus into Jerusalem, which will take place immediately after the Second Coming [Zech., Chpt. 14])*.

[10] Who is this King of Glory? The LORD of Hosts, He is the King of Glory. Selah. (The answer is: "Jesus Jehovah.")

A PSALM OF DAVID: A PRAYER OF DISTRESS

[1] Unto You, O LORD, do I lift up My soul (while this is a prayer of distress from David, and can be for us as well, more particularly, it is a prayer of distress from the Messiah serving as the Intercessor for His People [Heb. 7:26–27])**.

[2] O My God, I trust in You: let Me not be ashamed, let not My enemies triumph over Me (the theme of the entirety of the Book of Psalms is "trust in God")**.

[3] Yes, let none who wait on You be ashamed (though the Lord, at times, tarries long, ultimately He will answer): let them be ashamed which transgress without cause (who will not wait on the Lord)**.

[4] Show Me Your Ways, O LORD; teach Me Your Paths (few Christians seek the "Ways of the Lord"; most seek His Acts [Ex. 33:13])**.

[5] Lead Me in Your Truth, and teach Me: for You are the God of My Salvation; on You do I wait all the day (again, they who wait on the Lord will not be ashamed)**.

[6] Remember, O LORD, Your tender Mercies and Your Lovingkindnesses; for they have been ever of old (past mercies form a ground for the expectation of future blessings; God's Character cannot change; His action at one time will always be consistent with His action at another)**.

[7] Remember not the sins of My youth, nor My transgressions: according to Your Mercy remember You Me for Your goodness' sake, O LORD (an Earthly father does not remember youthful sins against his son; how much less will our Heavenly Father!)**.

[8] Good and upright is the LORD: therefore will He teach sinners in the Way (this Verse is a barrier to those who would insist upon teaching sinless perfection; truly the Child of God should hate sin and strive to follow wholly after the Lord; but, at the same time, the very nature of "the flesh" causes error; however, the Blood cleanses and Grace covers [I Jn. 1:7; 2:1–2])**.

[9] The meek will He guide in judgment: and the meek will He teach His Way (the coin that will spend in God's economy is "meekness and humility")**.

[10] All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth unto such as keep His Covenant and His Testimonies (this can be done only as the Believer looks exclusively to Christ and the Cross; then, and then alone, will the Holy Spirit help, without Whom we cannot keep anything [I Cor. 1:17–18, 23; Rom. 8:1–2, 11])**.

[11] For Your Name's sake, O LORD, pardon My iniquity; for it is great. (Our Great High Priest, when confessing His People's iniquity as His Own, asks for pardon on two grounds: 1. The magnitude of the sin; and, 2. The Name and Character of God as a pardoning God. Man tries to belittle his sin and magnify his penitence; he pleads for pardon, because the one is so small and the other is so great. However, the Great High Priest, the Lord Jesus Christ, rightly estimates all sin as being great and urges its magnitude as grounds for pardon.)

[12] What man is he who fears the LORD? him shall He teach in the Way that he shall choose (the Lord shall make His Way plain to the God-fearing man)**.

[13] His soul shall dwell at ease; and his seed shall inherit the Earth (Righteousness will ultimately prevail!)**.

[14] The secret of the LORD is with them who fear Him; and He will show them His Covenant (the Word of the Lord will be opened to the Believer who truly fears the Lord)**.

15 My eyes are ever toward the LORD; for He shall pluck My feet out of the net (the Lord Alone can keep one out of the net, or pull one out of the net, which refers to sin's entanglement)**.

16 Turn You unto Me, and have mercy upon Me; for I am desolate and afflicted (the cause doesn't matter, as long as we truly turn to Him for help)**.

17 The troubles of My heart are enlarged: O bring You Me out of My distresses (once again, the Lord Alone can do this)**.

18 Look upon My affliction and My pain; and forgive all My sins (once again, we point to the Intercessory Work of Christ, which is carried out merely by His Presence before the Throne of God [Heb. 7:25])**.

19 Consider My enemies; for they are many; and they hate Me with cruel hatred (the greatest hatred will come from the apostate Church)**.

20 O keep My soul, and deliver Me: let Me not be ashamed; for I put My trust in You.

21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve Me; for I wait on You (only our Saviour can claim "integrity and uprightness")**.

22 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles. (This prayer has not yet been answered, not because of the Intercessor, but because of Israel's rebellion. Ultimately, it will be answered in all its totality. Israel will be redeemed. The same can be said for every Child of God who puts his Faith and trust in the Lord.)

CHAPTER 26

A PSALM OF DAVID: A PETITION FOR EXONERATION

[1] Judge Me, O LORD; for I have walked in My integrity: I have trusted also in the LORD; therefore I shall not slide. (This presents David pleading regarding his own petitions. But more than all, it presents the Son of David pleading for Israel and also for you and me. If one will read these Psalms with not only David's petition in mind, but also the petition of the Greater Petitioner, our Intercessor, the Psalm will become much more understandable.

In effect, our LORD is telling Jehovah to judge Him rather than us. The integrity of which He speaks is His Own and not ours.).

[2] Examine Me, O LORD, and prove Me; try My reins and My heart (every Child of God should urge the Holy Spirit to probe deep within the heart to "prove me" — to see that we are abiding in the Word of God and not in a man-made gospel)**.

[3] For Your lovingkindness is before My eyes: and I have walked in Your Truth. (Only the Lord Jesus Christ could actually say such; only He has constantly "walked in Your Truth."

This Psalm is rich with instruction for the people of God in all Dispensations, but two facts full of consolation are especially prominent: 1. That help is sure to be given in response to such a Pleader and to such a plea; and, 2. That this Divine Priest is willing and able to live His blameless Life in whosoever will trust Him.)

[4] I have not sat with vain persons, neither will I go in with dissemblers (the only way a Believer can rise to such spiritual height is through Christ; He becomes our Substitute, and our identification with Him gives us His Perfection)**.

[5] I have hated the congregation of evildoers; and will not sit with the wicked (those who are opposed to the true Gospel of Christ; with those our Lord will not participate)**.

[6] I will wash My Hands in innocency: so will I compass Your Altar, O LORD (the only way that we can attain to the Righteousness of Christ is by fully trusting in the Cross and what Jesus did there, symbolized here by the "Altar")**:

[7] That I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all Your wondrous Works (the Believer is to ever keep these wondrous Works in mind, and to constantly thank the Lord for such; then those "wondrous Works" will become a part of our lives)**.

[8] LORD, I have loved the habitation of Your House, and the place where Your Honour dwells (presently, this speaks of the Holy Spirit abiding in us personally [I Cor. 3:16])**.

[9] Gather not my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloody men:

[10] In whose hands is mischief, and their right hand is full of bribes. (Unfortunately, David, in committing adultery with Bath-sheba, and then the cold-blooded murder of her husband, Uriah, and in his efforts to cover these terrible sins, became the very thing which he cried against. But God forgave him, as the Lord will forgive all who sincerely repent. In one way or the other, all of us fall into the same category with David.)*

[11] But as for Me, I will walk in My integrity: redeem Me, and be merciful unto Me (we can "walk in integrity" only in Christ; we do this by constantly expressing Faith in Him and the Cross, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work within our lives [Rom. 8:1–2, 11])**.

[12] My foot stands in an even place: in the congregations will I bless the LORD. (As the Intercessor, His Foot was planted upon the smooth, righteous pavement of the Divine Audience Chamber, and the Foot itself was as "even" as the pavement on which it stood, for, as prefigured in the Meat-Offering, there was an evenness in His Life among men that all their hatred, treachery, and snares failed to roughen. In Christ Alone, and through His Cross, can our "foot stand in an even place.")

CHAPTER 27

A PSALM OF DAVID: TRUST AND COMMITMENT TO GOD

[1] The LORD is My Light and My Salvation; whom shall I fear? the LORD is the Strength of My Life; of whom shall I be afraid? (This portrays Christ in the Garden of Gethsemane and on His Way to Calvary. As He looked through the darkness, seeing the lanterns and torches held by those who were coming to seize Him, His heart sang of the quiet confidence of an assured Faith.)

[2] When the wicked, even My enemies and My foes, came upon Me to eat up My flesh, they stumbled and fell (this pertains to the scores who came to arrest Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane; Jesus asked them, "Whom do you seek?" They answered, "Jesus of Nazareth." He then answered, "I am He," and, when He said that, the Scripture says, "They went backward and fell to the ground," thereby fulfilling this statement by David a thousand years earlier [Jn. 18:6])**.

[3] Though an host should encamp against Me, My heart shall not fear: though war should rise against Me, in this will I be confident (there is torment in fear, but Jesus had no torment at all, simply because there was no fear)**.

[4] One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the House of the LORD all the days of My Life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to enquire in His Temple (the doctrine of this Psalm is that the Messiah is an all-sufficient High Priest for His People, and that He can, by His example, by His Ministry, and by His Spirit in us, carry us triumphantly through the sharpest trials and through death itself [Heb. 4:14])**.

[5] For in the time of trouble He shall hide Me in His Pavilion: in the secret of His Tabernacle shall He hide Me; He shall set Me up upon a rock.

6 And now shall My head be lifted up above My enemies round about Me: therefore will I offer in His Tabernacle Sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yes, I will sing praises unto the LORD. (As David cried these words, little did he realize that He was saying what the Messiah would say. Verses 5–6 reveal the unshakable confidence of Christ in His Father, and His conviction as to Resurrection, and He consequently pledges Himself to sing loud praises in the Heavenly Temple. These were among the joys that the Father set before Him, because of which He endured the Cross, despising its shame [Heb. 12:2].)

7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with My voice: have mercy also upon Me, and answer Me. (Verses 7–10 belong to the moment of His arrest and the abandonment of His Disciples.)

8 When You said, Seek you My Face; My Heart said unto You, Your Face, LORD, will I seek (Christ looked to the Heavenly Father Alone, for none other could help; it is the same presently with all Believers!)**.

9 Hide not Your Face far from Me; put not Your Servant away in anger: You have been My Help; leave Me not, neither forsake Me, O God of My Salvation (a petition of Christ to the Father, which was fully answered)**.

10 When My father and My mother forsake Me, then the LORD will take Me up (in fact, at the Crucifixion, all forsook Christ, all except the Lord!)**.

11 Teach Me Your Way, O LORD, and lead Me in a plain path, because of My enemies (that "path" was Calvary; it is the same path presently, that which the Lord teaches [Lk. 9:23–24])**.

12 Deliver Me not over unto the will of My enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against Me, and such as breathe out cruelty (this speaks of the trial of Christ, when the religious leaders of Israel sentenced Him to die)**.

13 I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living (He believed that though crucified, yet would He be raised from the dead, and, on the way to Pilate's judgment hall, He addressed the words of the next Verse to His Own Heart).

14 Wait on the LORD: be of good courage, and He shall strengthen your heart: wait, I say, on the LORD. (The word "courage" means "be encouraged." What a statement to make when on the way to Calvary! Due to the agony of the Garden and Satan's efforts to kill Him, He was strengthened in His Heart by "waiting on the LORD." What a lesson for us!)

CHAPTER 28

A PSALM OF DAVID: A PRAYER FOR GOD'S HELP

[1] Unto You will I cry, O LORD My Rock; be not silent to Me: lest, if You be silent to Me, I become like them who go down into the pit. (This is a prayer of David, but more importantly, the prayer of the Son of David, and again as an Intercessor on our part. What comfort it is to feel the heartthrob of His Petition, as He becomes One with us!)

[2] Hear the voice of My supplications, when I cry unto You, when I lift up My Hands toward Your Holy Oracle. (In the Old Testament, the "Holy Oracle" was the "Most Holy Place," which contained the Ark of the Covenant, where God dwelt between the Mercy Seat and the Cherubim.

Under the New Covenant, we are to petition the Father in Heaven in the Name of Jesus Christ [Jn. 16:23].)

[3] Draw Me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, who speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts. (Verses 1–2 proclaim the great chasm that divides the Child of God from the wicked, which are described in Verses 3–5. The wicked actually love their sins, because "mischief is in their hearts.")

[4] Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert (when one considers that this is the prayer of the Son of God, Who gave Himself for a wicked world, then one should realize the thoughts of God for those who will not repent)**.

[5] Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operation of His Hands, He shall destroy them, and not build them up (most of the world falls into the category of Verses 3–5)**.

[6] Blessed be the LORD, because He has heard the voice of My Supplications. (Now, Christ acts as the Great High Priest in the perfection of the Faith, of which He is the Author and Finisher, by declaring that His Supplications have been heard. God always hears the Intercession of the Great Intercessor, the Lord Jesus Christ. In Verse 2, we have the petition that God will "hear the supplications." In Verse 6, we have the assurance that He has "heard the supplications" — and for all time.

While Christ is now beside the Father making Intercession for us [Heb. 1:3; 7:25], the Intercession that He has made, which stands for time and eternity, is found in these Psalms. In fact, no other Intercession is needed.

So, His very Presence at the Throne of God means that He and His Intercession have been accepted, which means it is a "Finished Work.")

7 The LORD is My Strength and My Shield; My Heart trusted in Him, and I am helped: therefore My Heart greatly rejoices; and with My Song will I praise Him. (Let it ever be said, "There is no other help.")

8 The LORD is their Strength and He is the saving Strength of His Anointed. (This Passage declares the Trinity. He Who anoints is God the Father, and He Who is anointed is God the Son; the oil with which He is anointed is symbolic of God the Holy Spirit.)

9 Save Your people, and bless Your inheritance: feed them also, and lift them up for ever. (Now that the Lord has heard this petition, and the sin of the Believer has been washed away because of the Intercession of Christ made possible by the Cross [that which is given to us in Psalm 22], we are no longer in the "pit," but now we are as sheep in "green pastures" and beside the "still waters" with Him feeding us. He has promised to do so "forever.")

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE VOICE OF GOD

[1] Give unto the LORD, O you mighty (the mightiest Angels), give unto the LORD glory and strength. (The Divine Psalmist calls upon the Angels to worship Jehovah. In this Psalm, the Messiah takes us to a higher level of praise, and rightly so, now that our sins have been forgiven, even as the last Psalm proclaims.)

[2] Give unto the LORD the glory due unto His Name; worship the LORD in the beauty of Holiness. (He can only be worshipped in the "beauty of Holiness," which means "in Spirit and in Truth" [Jn. 4:24]. All Holiness is in Christ. We obtain such by having Faith in Him and what He has done for us at the Cross, and by that way alone [I Cor. 1:17–18].)

[3] The Voice of the LORD is upon the waters: the God of Glory thunders: the LORD is upon many waters.

[4] The Voice of the LORD is powerful; the Voice of the LORD is full of majesty.

[5] The Voice of the LORD breaks the cedars; yes, the LORD breaks the cedars of Lebanon.

[6] He makes them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion like a young unicorn.

[7] The Voice of the LORD divides the flames of fire.

[8] The Voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness; the LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.

[9] The Voice of the LORD makes the hinds to calve, and discovers the forest: and in His Temple does every one speak of His Glory. (The actual Hebrew rendering is, "Does everyone say, 'Glory.'" If the Voice of the Lord carries out all of these many things described by David, and more than all described by the Greater Son of David, surely we can give our little voice to Him in praise.)

10 The LORD sits upon the flood *(Noah's flood); yes, the LORD sits King for ever. (The doctrine of this Psalm is that Jehovah is mightier than the Angels of His might; that He is stronger than the forces of nature; that He is Almighty; and that all this limitless strength is at the disposition of His weakest child. The forces against us may be mighty, but He Who loves and cares for us is mightier than they.)

11 The LORD will give strength unto His People; the LORD will bless His People with peace *(this means that the Lord gives His Own Strength and Peace to us).

CHAPTER 30

A PSALM OF DAVID: PRAISE FOR DELIVERANCE

[1] I will extol You, O LORD; for You have lifted me up, and have not made my foes to rejoice over me. (This is a prayer-praise song that was sung at the dedication of the House of David. As well, it will be sung at the dedication of the future Millennial Temple, and by the Messiah.)

[2] O LORD my God, I cried unto You, and You have healed me (this pertains to Israel at the dawn of the Great Millennial Day, when, at long last, she will be healed)**.

[3] O LORD, You have brought up my soul from the grave: You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit (down through the many centuries, it has looked as if Israel would be totally destroyed, especially during World War II, when Hitler's killing machine slaughtered over six million Jews. The greater Hitler, the Antichrist, will go even further by taking Israel to the edge of extinction, but the Lord will actually bring their "soul from the grave," and against impossible odds will "keep them alive")**.

[4] Sing unto the LORD, O you saints of His, and give thanks at the remembrance of His Holiness (this should be the song of every Child of God, but more pointedly it will be the song of redeemed Israel at the conclusion of the Battle of Armageddon, when they, at long last, return from their spiritual exile)**.

[5] For His anger endures but a moment; in His favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning. (Many Saints of God have gathered strength from this Passage, and rightly so. But more pointedly, this points to Israel's rebellion and God's Anger. Even though His Anger against Israel has lasted now for some 2,500 years, in the light of eternity, the Holy Spirit calls it but "a moment."

Israel's "night" has now lasted for about 2,000 years. However, the "morning" is about to break over the horizon. This speaks of that Millennial morn, when Israel will, at long last, accept the Lord Jesus as her Messiah. And then this "morning" will last forever.)

[6] And in my prosperity I said, I shall never be moved (the prosperity continued as long as Israel's obedience continued; when her obedience faltered, the prosperity faltered)**.

[7] LORD, by Your favour You have made my mountain to stand strong: You did hide Your Face, and I was troubled (it is the Lord Who made Israel strong, actually like a mountain; but then Israel rebelled, and the Lord hid His Face)**.

[8] I cried to You, O LORD; and unto the LORD I made supplication (one of the great purposes of the Great Tribulation is to bring Israel back to God; the Lord will then push her to the place to where she will "cry to the Lord" [Zech. 12:10])**.

[9] What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise You? shall it declare Your Truth? (Israel's argument is that there is only profit to God in Israel's Salvation, not in her destruction.)

[10] Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me: LORD, be You my Helper (God will hear this cry, as He will hear the cry of anyone who petitions Him thusly; at long last, Israel's pride is broken; she no longer stands haughty; she cries for mercy, and pleads with the Lord that He once again be her "Helper")**.

[11] You have turned for me my mourning into dancing: You have put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness (this speaks of the coming of the Lord, and His Deliverance of Israel in the Battle of Armageddon; Israel will then accept Christ as Saviour and Lord, and be "girded with gladness")**;

[12] To the end that my glory may sing praise to You, and not be silent. O LORD my God, I will give thanks unto You for ever (Israel is saying that never again will she discontinue singing praise to the Lord)**.

A PSALM OF DAVID: PRAYER FOR VICTORY OVER ENEMIES

[1] In You, O LORD, do I put My trust; let Me never be ashamed: deliver Me in Your righteousness. (The theme of this Psalm is trust in God. Its doctrine is that the Messiah was tested in all points, yet was without sin; that as Captain of His People's Salvation, He was perfected through suffering; He was a Man of Sorrows and acquainted with grief, and was hated, despised, and rejected of men [Isa., Chpt. 53].)

[2] Bow down Your ear to Me; deliver Me speedily: be You My strong Rock, for an house of defence to save Me (in fact, in these first two Verses, our Lord prays to be rescued from the Scribes, Pharisees, and Herodians, who were seeking His life)**.

[3] For You are My Rock and My fortress; therefore for Your Name's sake lead Me, and guide Me (considering the number of enemies who surrounded Him, if He were to fully obey the Father and carry out His mission, He would say, "Lead Me, and guide Me")**.

[4] Pull Me out of the net that they have laid privily for Me: for You are My Strength (the Pharisees, along with Scribes and Herodians, constantly attempted to entangle Him in His talk; He cried for deliverance)**.

[5] Into Your hand I commit My Spirit: You have redeemed Me, O LORD God of Truth (on the Cross, He uttered aloud the first sentence of this Verse)**.

[6] I have hated them who regard lying vanities: but I trust in the LORD (the "lying vanities" spoken of here refer to idols that Israel had worshipped in centuries past, which caused her so many troubles and, as well, the "idols" of ritualistic religion of the present time)**.

[7] I will be glad and rejoice in Your Mercy: for You have considered My trouble; You have known My soul in adversities (if it were possible, Immanuel was more precious to God when in adversity, trouble, and danger than at any other time; man refuses generally to recognize a companion when in adversity, but God did not so act toward His Servant; He actually recognized both Him and His adversities)**;

[8] And have not shut Me up into the hand of the enemy: You have set my feet in a large room (the "large room" pertains to Calvary, where the greatest victory of all time was won, and afforded Christ a "Name which is above every name" [Phil. 2:9–11])**.

[9] Have mercy upon Me, O LORD, for I am in trouble: My Eye is consumed with grief, yes, My Soul and My Belly (the "grief" that He experienced as He came unto His Own, and His Own received Him not, can only be measured imperfectly by mere mortals)**.

[10] For My life is spent with grief, and My years with sighing: My strength fails because of My iniquity, and My bones are consumed (this in no way means that He had sinned or failed; it means that He took our iniquity as His Own. What a statement!)**.

[11] I was a reproach among all My enemies, but especially among My neighbours, and a fear to My acquaintance: they who did see Me without fled from Me (He was a joke to His enemies and a derision to His neighbors; His relatives abandoned Him through fear of being put out of the Synagogue)**.

[12] I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken vessel (Israel flatly refused to believe that He was the Messiah; He did not carry their credentials, neither did He fit their description)**.

[13] For I have heard the slander of many: fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against Me, they devised to take away My life ("slander" is one of Satan's favorite tactics; actually the name "Satan" means "slanderer")**.

[14] But I trusted in You, O LORD: I said, You are My God (as David did not attempt to defend himself, the Son of David did not attempt to defend Himself either; the matter, as severe as it was, was placed in the Hands of the Lord. What an example for us to follow!).

15 My times are in Your hand: deliver Me from the hand of My enemies, and from them who persecute Me (the Master's Faith was not broken; He kept believing that His times and His Mission were not in man's hands, but in God's [Lk. 13:33]).

16 Make Your Face to shine upon Your Servant: save Me for Your Mercies' sake (the Face of the LORD shining upon anyone, as it most definitely did upon our Saviour and God's Son, is a sure sign of great favor and great blessings).

17 Let Me not be ashamed, O LORD; for I have called upon You: let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave (for sure, death would silence the lying lips of those who opposed the Son of God, even as it ultimately did — "but after this, the judgment" [Heb. 9:27]).

18 Let the lying lips be put to silence; which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous (it was religious pride that opposed Christ; it was religious pride that nailed Him to the Cross; religious pride showed Him nothing but contempt).

19 Oh how great is Your goodness, which You have laid up for them who fear You; which You have wrought for them who trust in You before the sons of men! (To serve the Lord will bring untold blessings; to oppose Him will bring ultimate judgment.)

20 You shall hide them in the secret of Your Presence from the pride of man: You shall keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues ("the secret place of the Most High" [91:1]).

21 Blessed be the LORD: for He has showed Me His marvelous kindness in a strong city (when in Jerusalem, the Pharisees showed Christ no respect at all, but the Father showed Christ "His marvelous kindness").

22 For I said in My haste, I am cut off from before Your eyes: nevertheless You heard the voice of My Supplications when I cried unto You (the Son of Man knew that except for God it was impossible for Him to be delivered).

23 O love the LORD, all you His saints: for the LORD preserves the faithful, and plentifully rewards the proud doer (as the Lord preserves the faithful, He will, at the same time, judge the "proud doer").

24 Be of good courage, and He shall strengthen your heart, all you who hope in the LORD (in the very face of the enemy, the Lord will strengthen us).

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE BLESSEDNESS OF FORGIVENESS

[1] Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered. (This Psalm speaks of the terror of unconfessed sin, and then of the blessing of confessed sin. David probably wrote this Psalm immediately after the sin with Bath-sheba, and shortly before the coming of Nathan the Prophet.

Once again, the reader will be taken into the heart of God, resulting in the Intercessory Work of Christ, our Great High Priest.

In this Psalm, the Lord will speak in His Own Name, as the Great High Priest of His People, on our behalf, as if He Himself were the guilty transgressor.

What a consolation it is to have a Priest Who thus makes Himself One with the repentant sinner, pleads and prays as the sinner ought to plead and pray but cannot, and uses the very words which will be acceptable to God. Such an High Priest becomes repentant man.)

[2] Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD imputes not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile (although we are guilty, the Lord will not impute iniquity to us, providing our Faith is in Christ, Who has taken the guilt of penalty upon Himself, all at the Cross of Calvary)**.

[3] When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long (no load is heavier to bear than unconfessed sin)**.

[4] For day and night Your Hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah. (No night is so black as when the Hand of God is held over one's face to shut out the light because of unconfessed sin.)

5 I acknowledged my sin unto You, and my iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD; and You forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah. (Verse 5 proclaims the joy of sins forgiven versus the misery of the unconfessed sin of Verse 4.)

6 For this shall everyone who is Godly pray unto You in a time when You may be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come near unto him (the term "Godly" means one to whom God shows Mercy; it expresses the attitude of God toward the repentant sinner, rather than the moral worthiness of the repentant sinner toward God)**.

7 You are my Hiding Place; You shall preserve me from trouble; You shall compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah. (Unconfessed sin stifles the song; forgiveness and Deliverance bring on the song.)

8 I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you shall go: I will guide you with My eye (with such instruction, teaching, and guidance, we cannot fail!)**.

9 Be you not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto you (as these animals must be restrained, so must the willful Christian be constrained)**.

10 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he who trusts in the LORD, Mercy shall compass him about (there is precious little mercy with man, but with the Lord there is abundant Mercy)**.

11 Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, you righteous: and shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart (the true Believer in this world is the only one who has anything to truly shout about!)**.

CHAPTER 33

PROBABLY WRITTEN BY DAVID: PRAISE TO THE LORD

[1] Rejoice in the LORD, O you righteous: for praise is comely for the upright (the word "rejoice" actually means "shout for joy"; consequently, "praise" should be in the heart of every Child of God constantly)**.

[2] Praise the LORD with harp: sing unto Him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings (music is an undeniable part of the worship of God; it is at this time, and will be forever, even in Heaven [Rev. 5:8])**.

[3] Sing unto Him a new song; play skillfully with a loud noise (this "new song" is spoken of some seven times in the Old Testament and once in the New [Rev. 14:3]; it pertains to present Salvation and also to the coming Millennial Reign)**.

[4] For the Word of the LORD is right; and all His Works are done in truth (the Holy Spirit is telling us here that what the "Word of the LORD" says about God's Creation is correct)**.

[5] He loves Righteousness and Judgment: the Earth is full of the goodness of the LORD (the "Righteousness" that God is speaking of here is the Righteousness of His Son, Jesus Christ, which is freely given to the believing sinner upon faith — Faith in Christ and the Cross [Eph. 2:8–9])**.

[6] By the Word of the LORD were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of His Mouth (the "Word of the LORD" speaks of the Lord Jesus Christ [Jn. 1:1–5]; "of the LORD" speaks of Jehovah, with "the breath of His Mouth" speaking of the Holy Spirit; consequently, we have the Trinity outlined in this Passage)**.

[7] He gathers the waters of the sea together as an heap: He lays up the depth in storehouses (in this Passage, we are told of tremendous forces that would, in fact, destroy the Earth, were they not held in check by the "Word of the LORD").

8 Let all the Earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him (in fact, the Earth as a whole does not "fear the LORD"; precious few "stand in awe of Him"; nevertheless, the day is soon to come when this Scripture will be literally fulfilled).

9 For He spoke, and it was done; He commanded, and it stood fast (this is the way the Earth and the Universe were created [Heb. 11:3]).

10 The LORD brings the counsel of the heathen to nought: He makes the devices of the people of none effect (if the Lord didn't stop the "counsel" and "devices" of the heathen, the world would have been destroyed a long time ago).

11 The counsel of the LORD stands for ever, the thoughts of His heart to all generations (the latter phrase speaks of the Bible; because it is the Word of the Lord, it will stand forever).

12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD; and the people whom He has chosen for His Own inheritance (it was once Israel, but now it is the Church — the True Church).

13 The LORD looks from Heaven; He beholds all the sons of men (He numbers the very hairs of our heads, and notes every sparrow's fall [Lk. 12:6–7]).

14 From the place of His habitation He looks upon all the inhabitants of the Earth (everything is under His control).

15 He fashions their hearts alike; He considers all their works (in other words, God did not fashion some hearts to be evil and some to be righteous; all are equal, and all have the power of choice; upon man's choice, God considers man's works).

16 There is no king saved by the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength (irrespective as to who the man might be, the only sure protection is God)*.

17 An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them who fear Him, upon them who hope in His Mercy;

19 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine (for sure protection, man must look to the Lord!).

20 Our soul waits for the LORD: He is our Help and our Shield.

21 For our heart shall rejoice in Him, because we have trusted in His Holy Name.

22 Let Your Mercy, O LORD, be upon us, according as we hope in You (proper hope in the Lord will always bring Mercy).

CHAPTER 34

A PSALM OF DAVID: THANKS FOR DELIVERANCE

[1] I will bless the LORD at all times: His praise shall continually be in my mouth (while these words are those of David, they are more so of the Greater Son of David; according to this Verse, we should praise the Lord continually)**.

[2] My soul shall make her boast in the LORD: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad. (The word "humble" is the key word that unlocks the mystery of this Psalm. That the Holy Spirit should give this to David immediately after his degrading conduct in Gath is incomprehensible to the self-righteous and to strangers of the Spiritual Life. Verse 18 will explain it when we arrive at that Passage.)

[3] O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt His Name together (the purpose of the schooling is to so humble the Saint that he will trust the Lord, praising and magnifying Jehovah)**.

[4] I sought the LORD, and He heard me, and delivered me from all my fears (when the Believer is mortified, ashamed, broken, contrite in spirit, and amazed that such a wretch should find pardon and deliverance, then the soul is restored and fresh revelation is given respecting the Divine David, Who found deliverance, not by deceiving man, but in trusting God)**.

[5] They looked unto Him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed (such will always be the case)**.

[6] This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles. (Here the Messiah portrays Himself as a "poor man," because all mankind falls into the same category. We cannot save ourselves. We cannot deliver ourselves. In fact, self cannot improve self, irrespective of the efforts made.

To look at self clothes the face with misery; to look at man clothes it with distraction; to look at God makes it shine. So it was with Moses [II Cor., Chpt. 3].)

[7] The Angel of the LORD encamps round about them who fear Him, and delivers them (the Hebrew word for "encamp" is related to the name "Mahanaim," meaning "two camps" [Gen. 32:1–2]; one was Jacob's feeble camp; the other, the encompassing camp of God's mighty Angels [II Ki. 6:17]).

[8] O taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man who trusts in Him (here the eternal invitation is given to all that if they will only "taste," then they will "see" that "the LORD is good"; regrettably, most will not "taste").

[9] O fear the LORD, you His Saints: for there is no want to them who fear Him (this means that we understand that the Lord says what He means, and means what He says).

[10] The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they who seek the LORD shall not want any good thing (what a promise!).

[11] Come, you children, hearken unto Me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD (we are told that the "fear of the LORD" is the secret of receiving good things; now we are told that the Holy Spirit will "teach us how to fear the Lord").

[12] What man is he who desires life, and loves many days, that he may see good? (The next two Verses tell us how.)

[13] Keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from speaking guile (this can only be done as the Believer places his Faith exclusively in Christ and the Cross, which then gives him the help of the Holy Spirit, Who Alone can tame the tongue [I Cor. 1:18; James, Chpt. 3]).

[14] Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.

15 The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and His ears are open unto their cry (His "eyes" are watching us, and His "ears" are listening to us; He is waiting for us to call on Him).

16 The Face of the LORD is against them who do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the Earth (which will ultimately be done!).

17 The righteous cry, and the LORD hears, and delivers them out of all their troubles (take the problem to the Lord).

18 The LORD is near unto them who are of a broken heart; and saves such as be of a contrite spirit (man is naturally proud and, with pride being the foundational sin of all sin, man is not easily brought to the place of the "broken heart" and "contrite spirit"; the word "contrite" means "broken and crushed"; the Lord would bring David to this state despite his failure of faith).

19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivers him out of them all (the Lord doesn't promise us a trouble-free existence, but He does promise to deliver us).

20 He keeps all his bones: not one of them is broken (Satan may do some damage, but it will not be lethal!).

21 Evil shall kill the wicked: and they who hate the righteous shall be desolate (because the Lord is with the righteous).

22 The LORD redeems the soul of His servants: and none of them who trust in Him shall be desolate (the latter phrase actually says "shall be held guilty" or "shall be condemned"; those whom God has redeemed He justifies and saves from all condemnation [Rom. 8:1–2]).

A PSALM OF DAVID: A PRAYER FOR DELIVERANCE

[1] Plead my cause, O LORD, with them who strive with Me: fight against them who fight against Me. (Even though written by David, more than all it presents Christ, the Lamb of God, surrounded by the wolves of Satan and his followers [Jn. 15:20–25]. This Psalm, which is more a Prophecy than a petition, relates to His rejection and Crucifixion. It reveals the love of God's Heart to man, and the hatred of man's heart to God.)

[2] Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for My help.

[3] Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them who persecute Me: say unto My soul, I am Your Salvation.

[4] Let them be confounded and put to shame who seek after My soul: let them be turned back and brought to confusion who devise My hurt (they who persecute Christ and His followers can ultimately expect the following Verses to apply to them)**.

[5] Let them be as chaff before the wind: and let the Angel of the LORD chase them.

[6] Let their way be dark and slippery: and let the Angel of the LORD persecute them (it would be improper for David or any other sinful man to present such petitions to God; but, in such Psalms, the Petitioner is the Sinless Man, Christ Jesus, and He fittingly calls for the Divine Judgment upon those who hate Him, for, in hating Him, they hate God and His People, and also Goodness, Righteousness, and Truth)**.

[7] For without cause have they hid for Me their net in a pit, which without cause they have digged for My soul (when people rebel against the Lord or against true followers of the Lord, it is always, and without exception, "without cause")**.

[8] Let destruction come upon him at unawares; and let his net that he has hid catch himself: into that very destruction let him fall (while it is not fitting for any Believer to pray accordingly, it is definitely fitting for Christ to cry for vengeance upon His tormentors, and it is most fitting for Him to do so in our interests, as well)**.

[9] And My soul shall be joyful in the LORD: it shall rejoice in His Salvation.

[10] All My bones shall say, LORD, who is like unto You, Who delivers the poor from him who is too strong for him, yes, the poor and the needy from him who spoils him? (As in Verse 6 of Psalm 34, likewise, the Messiah, along with David and the Believer, are called "the poor"; and they who are arrayed against us are "too strong for us"; however, the Lord will help us, and we will praise His Name.)

[11] False witnesses did rise up; they laid to My charge things that I knew not (as David was accused, Christ was also accused; the very name "Satan" means "slanderer"; it should be wisely considered that when Christians accuse other Christians, they are becoming tools of Satan)**.

[12] They rewarded Me evil for good to the spoiling of My soul (as David had done nothing but good for his enemies and for Israel, likewise, the Son of David)**.

[13] But as for Me, when they were sick, My clothing was sackcloth: I humbled My soul with fasting; and My prayer returned into My own bosom (who this was that David was speaking of is not known)**.

[14] I behaved Myself as though he had been My friend or brother: I bowed down heavily, as one who mourns for his mother (likewise, the Lord Jesus Christ clothed Himself in "sackcloth" [the Incarnation] over Israel and the lost world; His "fasting" included the denial of all that He had previously known, in order that He might "humble Himself" for the souls of man)**.

[15] But in My adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together:

yes, the abjects gathered themselves together against Me, and I knew it not; they did tear Me, and ceased not (Why? They do no less presently! All true followers of Christ can basically expect the same)**:

16 With hypocritical mockers in feasts, they gnashed upon Me with their teeth (when David needed help, these for whom he had cried to God on their behalf turned against him and rejoiced over his suffering; they did the same with Christ; as they hurled at David every accusation, even more so they hurled at Christ the venom of the pit)**.

17 LORD, how long will You look on? rescue My soul from their destructions, My darling from the lions (the "lions" refer to the demon powers of darkness, who registered themselves in the lives of the Pharisees and Sadducees, who would destroy Christ)**.

18 I will give You thanks in the great congregation: I will praise You among much people (David is saying that he will not allow such to stop his praises to God, and the Messiah claims the fact that His Victory is in His Praises to God — and so is our victory!)**.

19 Let not them who are My enemies wrongfully rejoice over Me: neither let them wink with the eye who hate Me without a cause (the horror is this: those who did this to Him were not the harlots or the thieves, but those who called themselves religious, and thereby righteous; however, they were self-righteous; this was the Church of Jesus' day; it also characterizes the modern Church)**.

20 For they speak not peace: but they devise deceitful matters against them who are quiet in the land.

21 Yes, they opened their mouth wide against Me, and said, Aha, aha, our eye has seen it (our eye has seen his downfall, which probably spoke of David at the time of Absalom's rebellion; it would have been the same with Jesus and Judas)**.

22 This You have seen, O LORD: keep not silence: O LORD, be not far from Me.

[23] Stir up Yourself, and awake to My judgment, even unto My cause, My God and My LORD.

[24] Judge Me, O LORD My God, according to Your Righteousness; and let them not rejoice over Me.

[25] Let them not say in their hearts, Ah, so would we have it: let them not say, We have swallowed Him up.

[26] Let them be ashamed and brought to confusion together who rejoice at My hurt: let them be clothed with shame and dishonour who magnify themselves against Me. (The entirety of this Petition, from Verse 17 through Verse 26, was answered regarding both David and the Messiah. It will be honored regarding every true Child of God, as well.)

[27] Let them shout for joy, and be glad, who favour My righteous cause: yes, let them say continually, Let the LORD be magnified, which has pleasure in the prosperity of His servant (this Passage is powerful; it is saying that only those who favor His "righteous cause" will "shout for joy, and be glad")**.

[28] And My tongue shall speak of Your Righteousness and of Your praise all the day long.

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE STEADFAST LOVE AND FAITHFULNESS OF GOD

[1] The transgression of the wicked says within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes (the first thing that happens to the wicked is the loss of "the fear of God").

[2] For he flatters himself in his own eyes, until his iniquity be found to be hateful (dealing from a wicked heart, the transgressor makes himself believe that he is capable of carrying out any wickedness; however, his iniquity will not come out the way he thinks).

[3] The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he has left off to be wise, and to do good (all who do not follow the Lord and adhere to His Word fall into this category).

[4] He devises mischief upon his bed; he sets himself in a way that is not good; he abhors not evil (this Fourth Verse, in simple and few words, proclaims to us the reason for the misery of the world).

[5] Your Mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens; and Your Faithfulness reaches unto the clouds (a man who is so described in Verses 1–4 would find no compassion on Earth, but the Grace that is born in the heavens and written upon the clouds, as exhibited in these Passages, can pity and save such a sinner; to those who will come to Him, God is "faithful" to show "mercy").

[6] Your Righteousness is like the great mountains; Your Judgments are a great deep: O LORD, You preserve man and beast. (Man has no righteousness on his own and, in fact, cannot attain any by his own merit, work, or effort. But God has Righteousness that is so abundant, it stands like "great mountains."

"Your Judgments" speaks of God's Word. Irrespective of how much man may probe into the depths of the Bible, still, he cannot scale its heights or plumb its depths. In other words, its riches are inexhaustible.)

[7] How excellent is Your Lovingkindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of Your Wings (God is pictured by Satan as brutal, judgmental, harsh, and destructive; the Holy Spirit tells us rather that God is "Lovingkindness")**.

[8] They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of Your House; and You shall make them drink of the river of Your Pleasures (anyone who follows Christ is "abundantly satisfied," which is the only true satisfaction there is)**.

[9] For with You is the fountain of life: in Your Light shall we see light (there is no "life" outside of God; all else is death; likewise, there is no true knowledge, wisdom, or understanding other than the illumination of His "Light," which is found in His Word)**.

[10] O continue Your Lovingkindness unto them who know You; and Your Righteousness to the upright in heart (which the Lord will most abundantly do, providing the Believer continues to look to Christ and the Cross [I Cor. 1:17])**.

[11] Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me (pride is the foundation sin of all sin, and the sin of which the Believer must be most aware; if pride overtakes the Believer, the hand of the wicked against the Believer can then cause great harm)**.

[12] There are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and shall not be able to rise (this refers to the place or state of pride in which the wicked fall and will not rise again; it was pride that caused Lucifer to fall [Ezek. 28:11–17])**.

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE RIGHTEOUS VINDICATED

[1] Fret not yourself because of evildoers, neither be you envious against the workers of iniquity. (This Psalm anticipates the two principle difficulties which confuse and discourage beginners in the Christian life. That they should be hated by their fellowmen because they have become followers of Christ is unexpected and painful, and that evil doers should prosper is confounding. However, the Holy Spirit tells us regarding these things, "Don't fret yourself.")

[2] For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb (in other words, the wicked may prosper for a time, but only for a time)**.

[3] Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shall you dwell in the land, and verily you shall be fed (in other words, don't look to the wicked or at the wicked, but rather "the Lord," and in Him put your "trust")**.

[4] Delight yourself also in the LORD: and He shall give you the desires of your heart (what a Promise!)**.

[5] Commit your way unto the LORD; trust also in Him; and He shall bring it to pass.

[6] And He shall bring forth your righteousness as the light, and your judgment as the noonday (these things will ultimately be rewarded)**.

[7] Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for Him: fret not yourself because of him who prospers in his way, because of the man who brings wicked devices to pass (in Verses 3–7, we have the four keys to a victorious life: "Trust," "Delight," "Commit," and "Rest")**.

[8] Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not yourself in any wise to do evil (never turn to that which is evil to remedy the situation, whatever the situation might be; continue to "trust, delight, commit, and rest").

[9] For evildoers shall be cut off: but those who wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the Earth (always, and without exception, the righteous will come out on top, because the righteous have prepared for eternity).

[10] For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yes, you shall diligently consider his place, and it shall not be (this speaks of the coming Kingdom Age).

[11] But the meek shall inherit the Earth (again, the Kingdom Age); and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace (Isa. 2:4).

THE GOOD AND THE WICKED CONTRASTED

[12] The wicked plots against the just, and gnashes upon him with his teeth (Christ is the "Just").

[13] The LORD shall laugh at him: for He sees that his day (the wicked) is coming (there will be a judgment [Rev. 20:11–15]).

[14] The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to kill such as be of upright conversation (the one who is poor and needy is Christ; as well, "conversation" means "lifestyle").

[15] Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken (Israel also comes under the heading of the "poor and needy," with the "broken bow" referring to the Battle of Armageddon and the Second Coming).

[16] A little that a righteous man has is better than the riches of many wicked (too often the righteous are deceived into seeking the same rewards that the wicked seek out; if money and riches are the goal in the Christian's life, he will pierce himself through with many sorrows [I Tim. 6:10]; even though most Christians have only "a little" of this world's goods, still, this is better than the abundance of the wicked, because the Blessings of the Lord are upon the "little").

17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the LORD upholds the righteous.

18 The LORD knows the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be for ever.

19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied (we have His Promise; He keeps His Promises).

20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall be as the fat of lambs: they shall consume; into smoke shall they consume away.

21 The wicked borrows, and pays not again: but the righteous shows mercy, and gives (the difference in the economy of the world and the economy of God).

22 For such as be blessed of Him shall inherit the Earth; and they who be cursed of Him shall be cut off (the pronouns "Him" refer to Christ).

23 The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD: and he delights in his way (the "Good Man" is the Lord Jesus Christ).

24 Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the LORD upholds him with His Hand (this Passage tells us that what God is promising is not an uneventful life; there will be difficulties along the way; in fact, at times the Believer looks as though he will be defeated and "utterly cast down"; but we have the Promise of the Lord that He will pick us up and start us again on our way).

25 I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread. (What a Promise! God's Word is true. If our steps are "ordered by the Lord," we will never be forsaken, nor will we suffer want. Such will be until the Lord calls us home [Heb. 11:35–40].)

[26] He is ever merciful, and lends; and his seed is blessed.

[27] Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore.

[28] For the LORD loves Judgment, and forsakes not His Saints; they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off (the word "Judgment," as rendered here, refers to the Bible; in other words, God loves His Word).

[29] The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever (the coming Kingdom Age, and then forever [Rev., Chpts. 21–22]).

[30] The mouth of the righteous speaks wisdom, and his tongue talks of Judgment (talks of the Word of God).

[31] The Law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide (speaks of Christ, and all who truly follow Christ, which can only be done by taking up the Cross daily [Lk. 9:23–24]).

[32] The wicked watch the righteous, and seek to kill him (refers to Christ!).

[33] The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged (again, speaks of Christ).

[34] Wait on the LORD, and keep His Way, and He shall exalt you to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, you shall see it. (The lessons taught here are to wait "on" God, and to wait "for" God, when perplexed by the prosperity of evil doers and when oppressed by them.

The Messiah Himself, in the days of His flesh, when in the midst of His foes, perfectly learned and lived the lessons of this Psalm.)

[35] I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green bay tree (thus did the Pharisees and Sadducees during the time of Christ).

[36] Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not: yes, I sought him, but he could not be found (prophesied a thousand years before it happened, Jerusalem, i.e., "the Pharisees and Sadducees" were totally destroyed in A.D. 70).

[37] Mark the Perfect Man, and behold the upright: for the end of that Man is peace (Christ is the "Perfect Man").

[38] But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off.

[39] But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD: He is their strength in the time of trouble (Verses 38–39 speak of the Battle of Armageddon, and the destruction of Israel's enemies).

[40] And the LORD shall help them, and deliver them: He shall deliver them from the wicked (from the Antichrist), and save them, because they trust in Him (at that day they shall and will be Saved [Zech. 13:1]).

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE PRAYER OF A PENITENT HEART

[1] O LORD, rebuke Me not in Your wrath: neither chasten Me in Your hot displeasure. (Although picturing David as pleading to God in regard to his sin and asking for help, in an even greater measure it pictures the Messiah, by revealing the thoughts that filled His heart up to and while upon the Cross. It describes His sympathetic Intercession for His People, for whom He was suffering the Wrath of God because of their sin. As well, it records the hatred and ingratitude of those who ought to have loved Him.)

[2] For Your arrows stick fast in Me, and Your Hand presses Me sore. (Himself sinless, here He loads Himself with the Believer's sins, makes full confession of them, admits the justice of the Divine Wrath upon them, and utters no reproach against those members of His nation who sought to destroy Him.

What a possession it is to have a Priest Who can perfectly fulfill the Divine requirements, and Who can furnish to His People in all Dispensations the fitting vehicle of language with which to approach God in confession and prayer!

As He takes upon Himself the sin of the world [II Cor. 5:21], He knows that the Wrath of God will be directed at Him instead of the ones who rightly deserved it — namely you and me.)

[3] There is no soundness in My flesh because of Your anger; neither is there any rest in My bones because of My sin. (It is difficult for the Believer to fully understand the total Intercession of Christ on our behalf, as He literally takes our sin unto Himself — "My sin." In order for the great price of Redemption to be paid and for man to go free, our sin must become "His sin." Consequently, the "rebuke," the "chastening," and the

[4] For My iniquities are gone over My head: as an heavy burden they are too heavy for Me (they were “heavy” because He bore the sin of the entirety of the world)**.

[5] My wounds stink and are corrupt because of My foolishness (sin is truly foolishness; every sin is committed by a fool; foolishness it is, and yet God gave Heaven’s best to redeem man from this “foolishness”)**.

[6] I am troubled; I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long (while on the Cross!)**.

[7] For My loins are filled with a loathsome disease: and there is no soundness in My flesh (the words, “a loathsome disease,” should have been translated “a burning fever,” for, in the Hebrew, the word “loathsome” means “burning”; as He hung on the Cross, a burning fever wracked His Body, even as this Perfect Body was being offered as the Perfect Sacrifice)**.

[8] I am feeble and sore broken: I have roared by reason of the disquietness of My heart.

[9] LORD, all My desire is before You; and My groaning is not hid from You (while He was on the Cross!)**.

[10] My heart pants, My strength fails Me: as for the light of My eyes, it also is gone from Me (the “light” of His Eyes was His Heavenly Father; the Lord pulled the blinds on this horrible scene, and refused to look at His Only Son, because He was bearing the sin of the whole world)**.

[11] My lovers and My friends stand aloof from My sore; and My kinsmen stand afar off (at the Crucifixion, all forsook Him)**.

[12] They also who seek after My life lay snares for Me: and they who seek My hurt speak mischievous things, and imagine deceits all the day long (this pertains to the Pharisees and the Sadducees, plus virtually the entire religious hierarchy of Israel).

13 But I, as a deaf man, heard not; and I was as a dumb man who opens not his mouth (our Lord conducted Himself as though He did not hear their taunts; likewise, He did not open His Mouth in His Own defense).

14 Thus I was as a man who hears not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For in You, O LORD, do I hope: You will hear, O LORD My God (He would let the LORD God fight His battles).

16 For I said, Hear Me, lest otherwise they should rejoice over Me: when My foot slips (when He was put on the Cross), they magnify themselves against Me.

17 For I am ready to halt (to be offered), and My sorrow is continually before Me.

18 For I will declare My iniquity; I will be sorry for My sin. (These were the words of David. Possibly he was speaking of the terrible sin with Bath-sheba.

But yet, it portrays Christ, as well, in His great Intercessory Work. He literally took our sin as His Own "sin.")

19 But My enemies are lively, and they are strong: and they who hate Me wrongfully are multiplied (this Verse proclaims the terrible opposition by Satan leveled against Christ because of His redeeming the whole of mankind).

20 They also who render evil for good are My adversaries; because I follow the thing that good is (anyone who opposes Christ or those who truly follow Christ oppose the good).

21 Forsake Me not, O LORD: O My God, be not far from Me.

22 Make haste to help Me, O LORD My Salvation (and thus the Father did, in raising Christ from the dead!)*.

A PSALM OF DAVID: HUMAN FRAILTY

[1] I said, I will take heed to My ways, that I sin not with My tongue: I will keep My mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before Me (there was only one Man Who could bridle His Tongue and Who did not sin with His Lips; He was the sinless Son of Man)**.

[2] I was dumb with silence, I held My peace, even from good; and My sorrow was stirred. (It must have been a great temptation to pronounce a curse upon the Pharisees, Sadducees, and Scribes, who so bitterly opposed Him. But, He did not do so. He literally put a "bridle on His Mouth."

His enemies would think that His silence bespoke a lack of intelligence; however, His "silence" was the Mercy and Grace of God. Had He spoken Judgment, they would have been instantly destroyed.)

[3] My heart was hot within Me, while I was musing the fire burned: then spoke I with My tongue (it is difficult for the Bible student to imagine the humanity of the Son of God; there was temptation to step outside of the Will of God in respect to His enemies; the anger of righteous indignation burned within His heart; however, to have done so would have been disastrous.)**,

[4] LORD, make Me to know My end, and the measure of My days, what it is; that I may know how frail I am (in this we see the totality of the Incarnation [God becoming Man]; as God, He was unlimited; as Man, He was very much limited, i.e., "frail" [II Cor. 13:4])**.

[5] Behold, You have made My days as an handbreadth; and My age is as nothing before You: verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah. (What a rebuke to the greedy, demanding, preening pride of arrogant man!)

6 Surely every man walks in a vain show: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heaps up riches, and knows not who shall gather them (outside of Christ, "every man" walks in vanity)**.

7 And now, LORD, what wait I for? My hope is in You (in other words, "What is My purpose in life?" The question is asked, and the answer is given, "My hope is in You")**.

8 Deliver Me from all My transgressions: make Me not the reproach of the foolish. (In other Psalms, it says that the wicked spoke "mischievous things" against Him. And yet He, in the wonders of His Grace, took upon Himself the very sin which they committed in thus falsely accusing Him, and confessed it as His Own!

Although He could have confounded them with a fitting "good" reply [Vs. 2], yet He remained dumb before them [Vs. 1]. His heart was stirred with sorrow for them [Vs. 2], while, at the same time, it felt the biting flame of their cruel words [Vs. 3]. But though dumb before men, He was eloquent before God.)

9 I was dumb, I opened not My mouth; because You did it (it was the Will of God for Him not to answer His accusers)**.

10 Remove Your stroke away from Me: I am consumed by the blow of Your Hand. (The knowledge He had, which was given to Him by the Father, did not make Him insensible or stoical. If so, He would not have been human, and He was fully human. Accordingly, He cried for relief from the pressure of that afflicting Hand, while recognizing its Justice and citing His Own preciousness to God. He prayed for strength to pursue this path of affliction until the day dawned when He would go back to the Glory from whence He came, and then would be no more afflicted.)

11 When You with rebukes do correct man for iniquity, You make his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity. Selah. (If He were to be truly Man, He would have to take the "rebukes" that justice demanded. Under these "rebukes," there would be "no beauty that we should desire Him" [Isa. 53:2].)

[12] Hear My prayer, O LORD, and give ear unto My cry; hold not Your peace at My tears: for I am a stranger with You, and a sojourner, as all My fathers were (these same words that we often cry to the Father have already been laid at His Feet by His Only Son, Who stands in our place)**.

[13] O spare Me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence, and be no more (as David pleaded for "strength," likewise, the Son of David pleads to the Father for strength for Himself, which, in reality, is for us; without that "strength," we could not make it)**.

A PSALM OF DAVID: PRAISE FOR ANSWERED PRAYER

[1] I waited patiently for the LORD; and He inclined unto Me, and heard My cry. (The word "patiently" directs our attention to the thought that God, at times, does not answer immediately; however, the latter portion of this Verse encourages us that ultimately He will answer and "hear my cry."

The theme is threefold: 1. As the/our Redeemer: He atones for our sins, having loaded them upon Himself and having confessed them as His Own; 2. As our High Priest: He burdens Himself with our sorrows, encourages us to follow Him in His life of absolute confidence in God, teaching us to believe in Promises which never fail, and furnishes us with perfect forms of confession, prayer, and praise; and, 3. As our Commander: As such, He engages to deliver us from the powers of darkness, which, in fact, He has already done at the Cross [Col. 2:14–15].)

[2] He brought Me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set My feet upon a rock, and established My goings (the words here are figurative of the state of sin and death out of which God Alone can save; He does so by the means of the Cross; trying to extricate ourselves by our own means, we only seek deeper into the "miry clay"; trusting in Him and what He did at the Cross will bring us out)**.

[3] And He has put a new song in My mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD (the doctrine of this Psalm is Christ's Perfect Obedience to the Will of God as the Sin-bearer of His People, and His Perfect Patience in waiting on and for God to deliver Him and them out of all afflictions)**.

[4] Blessed is that man that makes the LORD his trust, and respects not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies (trust placed in anything other than "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" is trust placed in a lie [I Cor. 3:23]).

5 Many, O LORD My God, are Your wonderful Works which You have done, and Your thoughts which are to usward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto You: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered (it is strange that much of the modern Church declares that modern man faces problems that are not addressed in the Bible; and yet the Psalmist says that the "wonderful works" of God are so many, and His "thoughts" [counsel and cure for our plight] are so numerous, addressing themselves to far more than we would ever need, or that mere mortals could ever begin to enumerate, that only the Messiah could both declare them and speak of them).

6 Sacrifice and offering You did not desire; My ears have You opened: Burnt Offering and Sin Offering have You not required (the Divine displeasure with animal sacrifices and offerings is defined in Hebrews, Chapter 10 as displeasure with them as types and symbols; animal blood simply would not suffice [Heb. 10:4]; and yet this does not conflict with God's infinite delight in the one great Sacrifice of Calvary; the contrast, on the contrary, heightens that delight).

7 Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the Book it is written of Me (the words, "Lo, I come," signal His Incarnation, and the word "Book" is the Bible; in that Book, it was "engraved" concerning Him that He was to be born as a Man and suffer as a Sacrifice; regrettably, the world attempts to manufacture another god, while the Church attempts to manufacture another sacrifice),

8 I delight to do Your Will, O My God: yes, Your Law is within My heart (the Incarnation and Atonement were necessary as predicted of Him and prescribed to Him in the Scriptures, and the statement is made that He delighted to obey these prescriptions, for they were not only in the "Book," but also in His "heart").

9 I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained My lips, O LORD, You know.

10 I have not hid Your Righteousness within My Heart; I have declared Your Faithfulness and Your Salvation: I have not concealed Your Lovingkindness and Your Truth from the great congregation (Christ was faithful to deliver the entirety of the Word of God)**.

11 Withhold not You Your tender Mercies from Me, O LORD: let Your Lovingkindness and Your Truth continually preserve Me (sadly, man would show the Messiah no "mercy" or "lovingkindness"; the only thing that preserved Him was "Your Truth")**.

12 For innumerable evils have compassed Me about: My iniquities have taken hold upon Me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of My head: therefore My heart fails Me (calamities and afflictions in the sense of "evils" and "iniquities" result from sin; however, these sorrows and troubles did not result from the Messiah's sins, for He had none, but from the sins of those whom He came to save; these griefs so bent Him down that He was not able to look up, and they enfeebled His physical powers so that His heart fainted; in fact, never was there sorrow in this world comparable to His! [Mk 14:34])**.

13 Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver Me: O LORD, make haste to help Me (man gave Him "no help"; even His Own Disciples would not associate themselves with His suffering or His dying; His Own kindred forsook Him; if these Passages do not proclaim the depravity of man, nothing does!)**.

14 Let them be ashamed and confounded together who seek after My soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward and put to shame who wish Me evil (the religious men of Jesus' day desired that the only truly good Man Whoever lived lose His soul; let this ever be a lesson to mankind; the true Child of God must ever be wary of the world and doubly wary of organized religion)**.

15 Let them be desolate for a reward of their shame who say unto Me, Aha, aha (these Verses are a prediction foretelling the doom of the haters of the Messiah, just as Verse 16 predicts the Salvation and felicity of those who love Him)**.

16 Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You: let such as love Your Salvation say continually, The LORD be magnified (the contrast is outstanding; those who reject Him will be "driven backward"; those who seek Him and accept Him will "rejoice and be glad")**.

17 But I am poor and needy; yet the LORD thinks upon Me: You are My Help and My Deliverer; make no tarrying, O My God. (Some are "poor" and some are "needy," but only One was, in the fullest sense, poor and needy at the same time.

The words, "make no tarrying, O My God," refer to the speedy conclusion of the Sacrifice that must be offered, not because of the pain of the "poor and needy," but rather because of the hurried necessity of the Redemption of man.

As we have stated, every one of these Psalms speaks of Christ in some way, whether in His Atoning, Mediatorial, or Intercessory Work.)

A PSALM OF DAVID: A PRAYER FOR DELIVERANCE

[1] Blessed is he who considers the poor: the LORD will deliver him in time of trouble. (This Psalm concludes the first Book of Psalms, or what is called the "Genesis Book." As Genesis opens with the first Adam in blessing and closes with his children in affliction, so this first Book of the Psalms opens with the Second Man in blessing and closes with His people in affliction. The Pharaoh of Israel's first affliction [the Book of Exodus] prefigures the Antichrist of Israel's future and last affliction.)

[2] The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the Earth: and You will not deliver him unto the will of his enemies (this Verse has a triple meaning: 1. It speaks of the Lord preserving David when Absalom sought to overthrow him and even kill him; 2. It speaks of Christ in His Earthly Ministry Whom the religious leaders desired to kill, even before the Crucifixion; and, 3. It speaks of Israel being weak and faint in the Great Tribulation Period, and then delivered by the Second Coming)**.

[3] The LORD will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: You will make all his bed in his sickness (God's future loving sympathy to the fainting elect of Israel is contrasted here with man's duplicity and heartlessness [Vss. 5–8])**.

[4] I said, LORD, be merciful unto me: heal my soul; for I have sinned against You (as David prays this prayer, he knows that the terrible difficulties that are now coming against him, due to the rebellion of his son Absalom, are permitted by God because of his [David's] sins; likewise, God will permit judgment against Israel by the Antichrist due to Israel's terrible denial of her own Son and Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ; as well, it speaks of Christ interceding for Israel, making her rebellion His Own)**.

5 My enemies speak evil of me, When shall he die, and his name perish? (The Messiah defines the conduct of Israel's enemies as hatred against Himself. And yet Israel desired the death of Christ and for His Name to perish. In fact, they have fought that Name for nearly two thousand years, despite the fact that He Alone is their Saviour; however, they will not know this until the Second Coming.)

6 And if he come to see me, he speaks vanity: his heart gathers iniquity to itself; when he goes abroad, he tells it. (This Passage has a triple meaning: 1. It speaks of David and those who would attempt to destroy him; 2. It speaks of Israel and their terrible opposition to their Messiah, Jesus Christ; and, 3. It speaks of the world and also the apostate Church that hates both Christ and His People. They desire the destruction of both. They treat them with falsehood, malice, and slander. While the apostate Church speaks favorably of Christ, it is, in reality, another Christ [II Cor. 11:4].)

7 All who hate me whisper together against me: against me do they devise my hurt (there is no doubt of a double fulfillment in these Verses of both David and Christ; every statement could be understood of both men; Ahithophel, David's trusted advisor, led the rebellion against David; Judas, likewise, led such against Christ)**.

8 An evil disease, say they, cleaves fast unto him: and now that he lies he shall rise up no more (multiple tens of thousands in Israel, led by Ahithophel and Absalom, claimed that David had an evil heart [evil disease]; they attributed all types of malignity to him; they claimed that it would be impossible for him to overcome it, and so they concluded him to be finished and, therefore, "fair game"; they said the same of Christ, but both David and Christ rose again)**.

9 Yes, my own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, has lifted up his heel against me (this speaks of Ahithophel and his betrayal of David; in an even greater sense, it speaks of Judas, and shows to what extent he was a familiar friend of Christ [Acts 1:25])**.

10 But You, O LORD, be merciful unto me, and raise me up, that I may requite them (this is the prayer of David that he will be raised up from the deep humiliation and seeming defeat experienced as he fled from Absalom and was betrayed by Ahithophel [II Sam. 15:31]; but in an even greater sense, this speaks of the great Resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ, when, on the third day, He came out of the tomb).

[11] By this (the Resurrection) I know that You favor me, because my enemy does not triumph over me (Ahithophel, along with treacherous Absalom, did not triumph over David; likewise, Judas and the evil elders of Israel did not triumph over Christ; even more so, the "enemy," Death, did not triumph over the Lord; at Calvary, Jesus broke the back of sin and death, which was verified by the Resurrection).

[12] And as for me, You uphold me in my integrity, and set me before Your Face for ever. (How could David speak of his "integrity," especially after his terrible sin with Bath-sheba? He could do so because the "integrity" of which he spoke was not man's integrity, but God's. The Lord set David before "His face forever," because David's sin had been forgiven forever.

As well, in this Passage, Christ is asserting that, because of His sinlessness [integrity], He would be seated upon the Throne of Glory forever. Now that His sinlessness has become our sinlessness, which is God's true "integrity," we are seated together with Christ in the heavenlies [Eph. 2:6] — "before Your face.")

[13] Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen, and Amen. (This Psalm closes the Genesis Book of the five Books of the Psalms. It closes with a fitting "Amen, and Amen.")

THE EXODUS BOOK PROBABLY WRITTEN BY DAVID: AN INTENSE LONGING FOR GOD

[1] As the hart (deer) pants after the water brooks, so pants my soul after You, O God. (This is the First Psalm of the Exodus Book. As the Book of Exodus opens with an oppressed people longing for deliverance, likewise, this Psalm opens with David being oppressed and longing for deliverance.

This is the first of some ten Psalms written for the sons of Korah. It doesn't really say that these sons of Korah wrote the Psalms, but more implies that they sang them. Even though it is not stated, probably David wrote this Psalm, and maybe some or all of the others of Korah.

Korah himself died under the wrath of God [Num. 16:31], but his children were spared [Num. 26:11]. These special Psalms, therefore, sing of redeeming Grace.

This was probably composed when David was fleeing Absalom. He was cut off from worship at the Tabernacle in Jerusalem, where the Ark of God resided. At this stage he likely had no knowledge if he would be restored to the throne or not. As the Psalm is begun, we feel the heart's cry of a man who wants God more than anything else.)

[2] My soul thirsts for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God? (This Psalm gives a forepicture of Israel when out of Covenant relationship with Jehovah and suffering the oppression of the Antichrist. At that time, she will cast herself for Deliverance upon God as Elohim.

This means that the Messiah, for that's Who this Psalm portrays, cries for Israel and, as the Redeemer, He cries for us.)

[3] My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is your God? (This was said of David in his darkest hour, and also of Christ by the religious leaders of Israel, when He was on the Cross. Moreover, this very taunt will be addressed to the unhappy sons of Israel by the Antichrist and his minions in the coming "Time of Jacob's Trouble" [Joel 2:17].)

[4] When I remember these things, I pour out my soul in me: for I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the House of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude who kept holyday (David said, "I remember"! As well, it speaks of Christ remembering all the times of worship before His public Ministry began, and with it the rejection of Israel!)**.

[5] Why are you cast down, O my soul? and why are you disquieted in me? Hope you in God: for I shall yet praise Him for the help of His Countenance (David has faith and confidence that he will be restored to the throne, and so he was!)**.

[6] O my God, my soul is cast down within me: therefore will I remember You from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from the hill Mizar ("the hill Mizar" lies between Mount Hermon and the Jordan River, a long ways from Jerusalem; no matter how far away from the Tabernacle, he would continue to remember and worship)**.

[7] Deep calls unto deep at the noise of your waterspouts: all your waves and your billows are gone over me (in effect, David is saying by this statement that at times we must be brought into deep distress before we can be brought to the deep things of God; when this deep distress happens, it is as though we have been thrown into a "waterspout," with such spewing us up and tumbling us head over heels; we are defenseless, but yet this is necessary, that is, if we are to be brought to the place of total consecration)**.

[8] Yet the LORD will command His Lovingkindness in the daytime, and in the night His song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life (during the day, David felt the kindness of the Lord, and continuously; in the night, he sang the Psalms, and then prayed himself to sleep)**.

9 I will say unto God my Rock, Why have You forgotten me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy? (This Verse not only pictures David's troubles, but also the coming future suffering of Israel under the Antichrist; in fact, the suffering will be so severe that they will think the Promises made by God to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob are forgotten.)

10 As with a sword in my bones, my enemies reproach me; while they say daily unto me, Where is your God? (Not only did David's enemies say this of him, "Where is your God?", but it was also said to Christ while He was on the Cross. It will also be said to Israel by the Antichrist during the Battle of Armageddon, when it seems like the Chosen People will be completely annihilated. And finally, the same presently is at times said to us.)

11 Why are you cast down, O my soul? and why are you disquieted within me? hope you in God: for I shall yet praise Him, Who is the health of my countenance, and my God. (By Faith, David claims restoration, i.e., "health." Likewise, at the Second Coming, the Lord will bring Israel back to "health." He will do the same for all who will trust Him.)

THE EXODUS BOOK PROBABLY WRITTEN BY DAVID: PRAYER FOR DELIVERANCE FROM THE UNGODLY

[1] Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation: O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man. (This Psalm also has three basic meanings: 1. David crying to God to be delivered from Absalom; 2. The Greater Son of David crying to God to be delivered from the evil religious leaders of Israel; and, 3. The Messiah crying to God in Israel's place during the time of the Great Tribulation, with threatened destruction from the "deceitful and unjust man," the Antichrist.)

[2] For You are the God of my strength: why do You cast me off? Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy? (In other words, "Lord, Why have You allowed this?")

[3] O send out Your Light and Your Truth: let them lead me; let them bring me unto Your Holy Hill, and to Your Tabernacles (a petition for the Lord to lead us will be answered favorably)**.

[4] Then will I go unto the Altar of God, unto God my exceeding joy: yes, upon the harp will I praise You, O God my God (despite the terrible distress, David never lost his song)**.

[5] Why are you cast down, O my soul? and why are you disquieted within me? hope in God: for I shall yet praise Him, Who is the health of my countenance, and my God. (This Psalm ends exactly as the previous Psalm. David is praising the Lord now, but he will "yet praise Him" on the "Holy Hill" and in the "Tabernacle.")

AUTHOR UNKNOWN, IT DOESN'T APPEAR TO BE DAVIDIC: A CRY FOR HELP

[1] We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what work You did in their days, in the times of old. (Whoever the writer was, it seems that the Holy Spirit took him back in spirit to the great Deliverance by God of Israel under Joshua. As well, the latter part of the Psalm seems to include Israel under the trying days of the Antichrist, and her cry for Deliverance.)

[2] How You did drive out the heathen with Your Hand, and planted them: how You did afflict the people, and cast them out (this is a reference to the Lord casting the heathen nations out of the Promised Land; as well, it is a physical example of the spiritual experience in our own lives, with the Lord driving out the works of the flesh)**.

[3] For they got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them: but Your right Hand, and Your arm, and the light of Your Countenance, because You had a favor unto them (as it was not possible for Israel to gain their inheritance by "their own sword," likewise, it is not possible for us to obtain our spiritual inheritance by the works of the flesh; it can only be done by our Faith in Christ and what He did for us at the Cross, which gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work on our behalf [Rom. 8:1–2, 11])**.

[4] You are my King, O God: command deliverances for Jacob (being King, You have a right to command; we pray that, at this present time, You will command our deliverance)**.

[5] Through You will we push down our enemies: through Your Name will we tread them under who rise up against us (only through the Lord can victory be ours; as well, this victory can come only by Faith in Christ and the Cross [Rom. 6:3–14]).

6 For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me (human ability, no matter how strong, is woefully insufficient as it regards victory over the world, the flesh, and the Devil [Gal., Chpt. 5]).

7 But You have saved us from our enemies, and have put them to shame who hate us (some think that Hezekiah may have written this Psalm; if so, he rejoices in the enemies of Israel being defeated).

8 In God we boast all the day long, and praise Your Name for ever. Selah. (Paul said, "God forbid that I glory [boast] save in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by Whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world" [Gal. 6:14].)

9 But You have cast off, and put us to shame; and go not forth with our armies. (Prophetically, this Psalm is a forepicture of the affliction of the believing remnant of Israel under the oppression of the Antichrist. Presently, it speaks of every Christian who, at one time or the other, due to failure, suffers chastisement at the hands of God. Nevertheless, God's chastisement is never punitive, but rather redemptive.)

10 You make us to turn back from the enemy: and they who hate us spoil for themselves.

11 You have given us like sheep appointed for meat; and have scattered us among the heathen (this happened in A.D. 70, and continues in a sense unto this hour).

12 You sold Your People for nought, and do not increase Your wealth by their price (the wealth of the Kingdom of God was not increased by this necessary act, but actually decreased).

13 You make us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them who are round about us.

14 You make us a byword among the heathen, a shaking of the head among the people (and that's exactly what has happened!)**.

[15] My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face has covered me,

[16] For the voice of him who reproaches and blasphemes; by reason of the enemy and avenger (Israel is reproached and blasphemed, and yet the Lord seems to do nothing about it)**.

[17] All this is come upon us: yet have we not forgotten You, neither have we dealt falsely in Your Covenant (at the beginning of the Great Tribulation, Israel will cry these words, but they are false)**.

[18] Our heart is not turned back, neither have our steps declined from Your Way;

[19] Though You have sore broken us in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shadow of death. (Here, Israel is admitting that God has rightly broken them because they had, for a long period of time, forgotten Him with their hearts turned back from Him.

The "place of dragons" concerns that terrible time when Israel will accept the Antichrist and think he is, in fact, the Messiah. Because of this, they will be brought to the "shadow of death." The Antichrist will declare war on them, with Israel at that time coming close to total annihilation [Jn. 5:43].)

[20] If we have forgotten the Name of our God, or stretched out our hands to a strange god (in fact, they did "forget the Name of their God," and they did "stretch out their hands to a strange god" [Dan. 11:39]; the Antichrist, who Israel at the beginning will think is the Messiah, will actually be a "strange god")**;

[21] Shall not God search this out? for He knows the secrets of the heart.

[22] Yes, for Your sake are we killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter (Paul quoted this Passage in Romans 8:36; the Holy Spirit through Paul uses this Passage in the correct sense, basically stating that the things God allows to come upon us are meant to bring us closer to God; rather than separating us from God, they are designed to bring us into compliance with His Will).

[23] Awake, why do You sleep, O Lord? arise, cast us not off for ever. (This will be the cry of Israel during the closing days of the Battle of Armageddon, when it looks like they will be annihilated. In a sense, it is Christ interceding for Israel, which He no doubt will do at that time!)

[24] Wherefore do You hide Your Face, and forget our affliction and our oppression? (During the Battle of Armageddon, Israel will be pressed beyond measure, with no visible hope in sight.)

[25] For our soul is bowed down to the dust: our belly cleaves unto the Earth (this will be the darkest hour of Israel's history, when, as Zechariah prophesied, they will come close to extinction [Zech. 14:1–3]).

[26] Arise for our help, and redeem us for Your Mercies' sake. (This prayer will be answered after so many years of spiritual declension. Zechariah said so [Zech. 14:3].

The reason God will answer is because of "Your Mercies' sake.")

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: THE KING; MESSIAH'S MAJESTY AND POWER

[1] My heart is inditing a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made touching the King: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer. (This Psalm is actually the answer to the prayer and petition of the last four Verses of the previous Psalm.

Its setting could have actually been about Solomon and his queen. Solomon was a Type of Christ in the Millennial Reign. Israel is portrayed here as the queen in the coming Kingdom Age.)

[2] You are fairer than the children of men: grace is poured into Your lips: therefore God has blessed You for ever (this speaks of Israel's praises of Christ after they have accepted Him, which will take place at the Second Coming)**.

[3] Gird Your Sword upon Your Thigh, O Most Mighty, with Your Glory and Your Majesty (at this time, Jesus will have become a mighty Man of War in defeating the Antichrist and, in fact, all of Israel's enemies)**.

[4] And in Your Majesty ride prosperously because of Truth and Meekness and Righteousness: and Your right Hand shall teach You terrible things (the Lord will be "prosperous" in His attack upon the Antichrist)**.

[5] Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; whereby the people fall under You (these "enemies" include the Antichrist and all his armies)**.

[6] Your Throne, O God is for ever and ever: the sceptre of Your Kingdom is a right sceptre (among other things, this Scripture proves the Deity of Jesus Christ as God)**.

7 You love righteousness, and hate wickedness: therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness above Your fellows (Jesus was anointed by the Holy Spirit to a greater degree than any ever has been or ever will be [Lk. 4:18–19; Jn. 3:34])**.

8 All Your garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made You glad (pictures the Glory of Christ!)**.

9 Kings' daughters were among Your honourable women: upon Your right hand did stand the queen in gold of Ophir (speaks of Israel during the coming Kingdom Age, when they will have accepted Christ, having finally reached their privileged position)**.

10 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline your ear; forget also your own people, and your father's house (Israel's golden day has now dawned; consequently, they are to forget the past [Acts 1:6–7])**;

11 So shall the King greatly desire your beauty: for He is your Lord: and worship you Him ("the King" is the Lord Jesus Christ; at long last, Israel will recognize and worship Him)**.

12 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift; even the rich among the people shall intreat your favour (this stands for the Gentile nations, which will come with their "gifts")**.

13 The King's daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought gold (glorious Israel!)**.

14 She shall be brought unto the King in raiment of needlework: the virgins her companions who follow her shall be brought unto you (at long last, Israel accepts Christ as "the King"; in turn, He will gloriously adorn her)**.

15 With gladness and rejoicing shall they be brought: they shall enter into the King's Palace (Solomon's Palace was glorious; likewise, the "King's Palace" will be even more glorious, of which Solomon's was a Type).

16 Instead of your fathers shall be your children, whom you may make princes in all the Earth (the fathers of old rejected Christ, but their children will accept Him, which speaks of the future).

17 I will make your name to be remembered in all generations: therefore shall the people praise you for ever and ever (Christ will never again be rejected and, consequently, the people shall "praise Him forever and ever," which includes both the Gentiles and the Jews).

MAY HAVE BEEN WRITTEN BY HEZEKIAH: GOD IS OUR REFUGE AND STRENGTH

[1] God is our Refuge and Strength, a very present Help in trouble. (There is some evidence that this Psalm was written during the siege of Jerusalem by the Assyrians. It is quite possible that the Holy Spirit gave it at that time through Isaiah to Hezekiah at Jerusalem.

If that, in fact, is the case, it addresses itself as well to the siege of Jerusalem which will take place by the Antichrist in the Battle of Armageddon [Zech. 14:1–3].)

[2] Therefore will not we fear, though the Earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea (this statement addresses itself to "fear," which plagues every Christian at one time or another)**;

[3] Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah. (By the use of descriptive statements, the Holy Spirit outlines just how strong this effort of Satan was.)

[4] There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the Holy Place of the Tabernacles of the Most High (this reaches forward to the coming Kingdom Age, when a veritable river will flow out of the Temple, by the Altar, toward the Dead Sea, with a branch going into the Mediterranean; consequently, the Dead Sea [as it is now called] will no longer be dead, but will teem with life; in a sense, that river will be symbolic of the Holy Spirit, Who Alone brings life, with Christ as its Source, and the Cross as its means [Col. 2:14–15])**.

[5] God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early (this speaks of the invasion of the Assyrians under Sennacherib, and also of the Antichrist, of which the latter is yet future).

6 The heathen raged, and kingdoms were moved: He uttered His Voice, and Earth melted. (Isaiah, Chpt. 37 records the rage of this "heathen." As stated, it speaks of Sennacherib. Still, it speaks of an even greater fulfillment during the Battle of Armageddon, when the Lord will utter His Voice before His armies and defeat the raging nations surrounding Jerusalem [Zech., Chpt. 14; Rev. 19:11–21].)

7 The LORD of Hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our Refuge. Selah. (The reason for Israel's victory is the "LORD of Hosts." It is the same presently, but in a little different way. Presently, the victory has already been won at Calvary. Faith in that Finished Work guarantees the victory afforded by the Cross.)

8 Come, behold the Works of the LORD, what desolations He has made in the Earth (this has to do with the Great Tribulation, and pertains to the "Seven Seals," "Seven Trumpets," etc.).

9 He makes wars to cease unto the end of the Earth; He breaks the bow, and cuts the spear in sunder; He burns the chariot in the fire (this will happen at the beginning of the Kingdom Age; Jesus Christ is the Prince of Peace; He Alone can bring peace [Isa. 2:2–4; Mic. 4:1–8]).

10 Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the Earth (this is exactly what happened with Sennacherib, and will be exactly what will happen at the Second Coming).

11 The LORD of Hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our Refuge. Selah. (To the self-righteous mind, it would seem that God should speak of Himself as the "God of Israel" instead of the "God of Jacob," considering what the name Jacob means. However, "Jacob" is what we are; "Israel" is what only God can make of us.)

IT IS BELIEVED IT MAY HAVE BEEN WRITTEN BY EITHER HEZEKIAH OR ISAIAH: GOD REIGNS OVER ALL THE EARTH

[1] O clap your hands, all you people; shout unto God with the voice of triumph. (This is the only place in the Bible that commands us to clap our hands respecting praise to God; other places in the Bible allude to it [II Ki. 11:12; Ps. 98:8; Isa. 55:12].

If it was written by Hezekiah or Isaiah, it was during the time immediately following the great victory over Sennacherib, brought about entirely by the Lord. It is a time of praise!)

[2] For the LORD Most High is terrible: He is a great King over all the Earth (Sennacherib had made his boasts, and now the Holy Spirit through the people of Jerusalem makes His boast, which proclaims the "LORD Most High" as "King over all the Earth")**.

[3] He shall subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet (He has, and He will!)**.

[4] He shall choose our inheritance for us, the excellency of Jacob whom He loved. Selah. (The "excellency of Jacob" means the supremacy of Jacob over the nations, which will take place in the coming Kingdom Age.)

[5] God is gone up with a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet (even though this speaks of the victory over the Assyrians, it also speaks of the great victory yet to come over the Antichrist, which will take place at the Second Coming)**.

[6] Sing praises to God, sing praises: sing praises unto our King, sing praises (the closer to God that one gets, the more the song of praises becomes prominent).

7 For God is the King of all the Earth: sing you praises with understanding (the Holy Spirit is saying that we should have "understanding" regarding this matter; "Jesus Christ is King of all the Earth," and not the Antichrist).

8 God reigns over the heathen: God sits upon the Throne of His Holiness (in the coming Millennial Reign, the Lord of Glory will reign over the entirety of the Earth, and will do so Personally from Jerusalem).

9 The princes of the people are gathered together, even the people of the God of Abraham: for the shields of the Earth belong unto God: He is greatly exalted. (This pertains to the great victory of the Lord defeating the army of the Assyrians in one night with one Angel [II Ki. 19:35; Isa. 37:36]. In a greater sense, it speaks of the tremendous victory of the Lord Jesus Christ over the Antichrist, which, of course, is yet future. But as surely as the previous victory took place, as surely will this victory take place!)

AS WELL, THIS PSALM COULD HAVE BEEN WRITTEN BY EITHER ISAIAH OR HEZEKIAH: ZION, THE CITY OF THE GREAT KING

[1] Great os the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of His Holiness. (The celebration over the Assyrians continues. As well, these same Passages speak in prophetic tones of the coming victory over the Antichrist. As stated, as surely as the previous, most definitely will be the future.)

[2] Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole Earth, is Mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King. (Jerusalem is situated in the exact geographical center of the Earth. In the coming Kingdom Age, Jerusalem will be what God has always intended, "The Joy of the Whole Earth.")

[3] God is known in her palaces for a refuge (in the great cities and the governmental centers of the world, men are known; but, in this great city and palace, God will be known)**.

[4] For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together. (This speaks of the kings of the Earth during Hezekiah's day, who assembled to destroy Jerusalem. They felt they could not lose, but lose they did! It will be the same during the days of the Antichrist!)

[5] They saw it, and so they marveled; they were troubled, and hasted away. (Why did they run? They ran because the Lord, with one Angel, in one night, killed 185,000 Assyrians, completely decimating their army [II Ki. 19:35; Isa. 37:36].)

[6] Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail. (And no wonder! For the first time in their history, they came up against the God of Glory!)

7 You break the ships of Tarshish with an east wind. (If Hezekiah wrote this Psalm, he probably little understood the full meaning of this Verse given to him by the Holy Spirit. Its greater fulfillment will be at the Battle of Armageddon, with the Antichrist having great warships anchored in the Mediterranean, aiding his great strike against Israel. The Lord will break those ships, and do so with "an east wind," whatever that actually means.)

8 As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of Hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it for ever. Selah. (During the time of Hezekiah, Judah saw what the Lord could do. At the Second Coming, which will end the Battle of Armageddon, Israel will once again see what the Lord can do. And so will the entirety of the world!)

9 We have thought of Your Lovingkindness, O God, in the midst of Your Temple (the writer is referring to the times of prayer in "the Temple," when the enemy was at the gate)**.

10 According to Your Name, O God, so is Your praise unto the ends of the Earth: Your right Hand is full of Righteousness (God's action being ever in harmony with His Character, His fame, therefore, extends and will extend to the very ends of the Earth)**.

11 Let Mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of Your Judgments (while Judah rejoiced at the great victory over Sennacherib, still, this pertains to the even greater victory over the coming Antichrist, of which the victory over Sennacherib was a symbol)**.

12 Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof (the idea is, peace now reigns because the Prince of Peace now reigns)**.

13 Mark you well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; that you may tell it to the generation following. (This Psalm is sung in testimony of the great victory won by the Lord in the sending of His Angel to defeat the Assyrians, and which should be told forever. And so it has been! And so it shall be!)

14 For this God is our God for ever and ever: He will be our Guide even unto death. (This Psalm had its limitations when sung by Hezekiah. It will have no limitations when sung by the People of God at the beginning of the great Millennial Reign. Jesus Christ will then be "our Guide." Thank God! Ultimately, there will be no more death [Rev. 21:4].)

AS WELL, THIS PSALM MAY HAVE BEEN WRITTEN BY EITHER ISAIAH OR HEZEKIAH: TRUST IN GOD, NOT RICHES

[1] Hear this, all you people; give ear, all you inhabitants of the world (As stated, it is not known exactly who wrote this Psalm; however its theme is Salvation, then from the Assyrians, and now from sin. The Speaker, in effect, is the Lord Jesus Christ. In these first four Verses, He proposes an enigma, and invites all the nations of the Earth to hear His solution of it.

The enigma is: man, being without understanding and without power, how can he redeem himself from the dominion of death?):

[2] Both low and high, rich and poor, together (all are in the same condition, in desperate need of a Redeemer)**.

[3] My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding (the "wisdom" given here is from Heaven; likewise, the Lord of Glory is the only One Who has "understanding" of Death, Hell, and what it takes to redeem man from such)**.

[4] I will incline my ear to a parable: I will open my dark saying upon the harp (through this Psalm set to music, the answer will be given; likewise, if our modern Christian music doesn't extol Christ and the price He paid at the Cross, it is of no worth)**.

[5] Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about? (This Psalm will support Israel's faith in her future suffering under the oppression of the false messiah, just as in the past its truth sustained her while oppressed by the Assyrian.)

of their riches;

7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him (the Holy Spirit through Peter plainly tells us that man cannot be redeemed by silver or gold; it takes the priceless Blood of Jesus to redeem fallen humanity, and that alone [I Pet. 1:18–20])**:

8 (For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceases for ever [after death, the efforts by the Lord to redeem souls will "cease forever"; there is no such thing as purgatory; such is not taught in the Bible]**:)

9 That he should still live for ever, and not see corruption (this can be brought about, Eternal Life, only by Faith in Christ and what Christ has done for us at the Cross [Jn. 3:3–16; Eph. 2:13–18])**.

10 For he sees that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others (if the rich man dies trusting in his riches to save him, he will die as a fool; only the redeeming Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ can be taken with us in death [Eph. 2:13–18])**.

11 Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations; they call their lands after their own names (such individuals think, by calling "their lands after their own names," that they will perpetuate their memory; irrespective, they are soon forgotten)**.

12 Nevertheless man being in honour abides not: he is like the beasts that perish (man cannot perpetuate himself except in the new birth and by the Lord Jesus Christ; all else is folly; if he thinks otherwise, his thinking is no higher than "the beasts that perish")**.

13 This their way is their folly: yet their posterity approve their sayings. Selah. (No matter the plans made to perpetuate the names and memories, even though their children attempt to carry it out, and we speak of the wicked, the Holy Spirit says, "Their way is their folly.")

14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling (all the riches and power of the wicked are consumed in the grave; conversely, the Godly shall be resurrected, and with their Faith in Christ, will have "dominion")**.

[15] But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for He shall receive me. Selah. (This refers to the Great Resurrection of Life, which will take place at the Rapture of the Saints [I Thess. 4:13–18].)

[16] Be not you afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased (this speaks of the wicked)**;

[17] For when he dies he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him (riches, fame, power, and glory count as nothing after death, only Salvation, which is in Christ)**.

[18] Though while he lived he blessed his soul: and men will praise you, when you do well to yourself (none of this has any effect on eternity)**.

[19] He shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall never see light (this means that irrespective of his riches and power, the wicked will ultimately die; as well, they will be cast into outer darkness [Mat. 8:12; 25:30; Jude, Vs. 13])**.

[20] Man who is in honour, and understands not, is like the beasts that perish. (The lesson taught in this Psalm is very simple: man cannot redeem himself, irrespective of his might, majesty, or wealth. Christ is the only One Who can redeem the soul, and He does so by His Precious Shed Blood, which requires Faith by the believing sinner [Eph. 2:8–9].

Regrettably, the far greater majority of the human race has chosen to disbelieve the Word of the Lord, and instead has believed in frail, poor, flawed man, despite the never-ceasing failure of all.)

A PSALM OF ASAPH: GOD IS THE JUDGE

[1] The mighty God, even the LORD, has spoken, and called the Earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof. (As far as we know, Asaph wrote twelve Psalms, of which this is the first.

The doctrine of this Verse is: "The God of gods, even Jehovah Messiah, summons the Earth to judgment." The certitude of this judgment is so sure that it is spoken of as a present fact. The extent of this judgment from the "rising of the sun" to "its going down" is repeated in Matthew 24:27.)

[2] Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God has shined (immediately prior to the appearance of the Messiah at the Second Coming, Israel will be reduced to the lowest possible depth of misery and well-nigh extinction as a nation; but, at that moment, her Deliverer will appear on Mount Zion with all the accompaniments of terrific majesty, as at Sinai, and He will summon the whole Earth to judgment)*.

[3] Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before Him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about Him (this speaks as well of His Second Coming during the Battle of Armageddon; He came the first time as a Lamb; He will come the second time as the conquering King of kings and Lord and lords [Rev. 19:11–21])*.

[4] He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the Earth, that He may judge His People ("His People" refer to the Jewish people, who have rejected Him for all these many centuries; Zechariah spoke of this moment [Zech. 12:10–14])*.

[5] Gather My Saints together unto Me: those who have made a Covenant with Me by Sacrifice. (The term here, "My Saints," does not refer to the Blood-bought Church that has already been raptured some seven years earlier, but rather to the Jewish people, as designated by their "Covenant of Sacrifice."

The term "Saints" does not express the Believer's moral attitude toward God, but God's attitude toward the Believer.

This "Covenant" made by Sacrifice, as it refers to Israel, was typified in Exodus 24:8, explained in Hebrews 9:20, and fulfilled in I Corinthians 5:7. It pointed toward Calvary and is illustrated in Genesis 15:9–21.)

6 And the heavens shall declare His Righteousness: for God is Judge Himself. Selah. (This refers to the judgment of the nations, as to how they opposed Israel or helped Israel [Mat. 25:31–46].)

7 Hear, O My People, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against you: I am God, even your God *(this is the Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ, addressing Israel; His "testimony against them" will concern their rejection of Him at His First Advent; they, at that time, rejected Him as the Messiah; now He is telling them "I am God, even your God").

8 I will not reprove you for your Sacrifices or your Burnt Offerings, to have been continually before Me *(the Lord is saying that His reproof that He will give to Israel does not concern the true Sacrifices that they should have offered before Him continually, but will be for the sacrifices that were offered not for their true rightful purpose [Atonement], but those which constituted "works" alone, as though they were feeding a hungry God, which was the method of the heathen).

9 I will take no bullock out of your house, nor he goats out of your folds *(in essence, "I need no bullocks or goats").

10 For every beast of the forest is Mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills *(in other words, "I do not need your animals; I have plenty of My Own").

11 I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are Mine.

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you: for the world is Mine, and the fullness thereof (this refers back to the heathen gods to which the Pagans offered sacrifices in order to appease their hunger; God is saying, in effect, "Don't class Me as a heathen god or treat Me thusly")**.

[13] Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats? (Israel lost the true purpose of what the Sacrifices really meant, and conducted themselves as heathen offering up their sacrifices to appease Jehovah.)

[14] Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay your vows unto the Most High (now He alludes to the correct manner in which the Sacrifices should have been offered; they should have been offered in "thanksgiving" for the "Way" that God had made for His People to have their sins covered; they were to serve as a symbol of the Redeemer Who was to come into the world, Who would give His Life for fallen humanity; sacrifices offered for any other purpose would be rejected out of hand)**:

[15] And call upon Me in the day of trouble: I will deliver you, and you shall glorify Me (offering the Sacrifices in the right way, which symbolized the coming Redeemer and the price that He would pay on Calvary's Cross, guaranteed deliverance)**.

[16] But unto the wicked God says, What have you to do to declare My Statutes, or that you should take My Covenant in your mouth? (Every nation of the world that has rejected the true Sacrifice of Christ has persecuted Israel. They will now answer!)

[17] Seeing you hate instruction, and cast My Words behind you (to most nations of the world, the Word of God means little; now they will answer!)**.

[18] When you saw a thief, then you consented with him, and have been partaker with adulterers (the Lord is saying to the nations that opposed Israel [before His Coming] that they joined in with "thieves" in their treatment of Israel; this means that they sought to take away from Israel that which God had rightly promised her; as well, they consorted with idol-worshippers [adulterers] in their ill-treatment of these ancient people)**.

[19] You gave your mouth to evil, and your tongue framed deceit.

20 You sit and speak against your brother: you slander your own mother's son (here, He speaks directly to the Arab world; Ishmael was Isaac's brother; so, in effect, the Arabs have slandered their own mother's son; even though Sarah was Isaac's mother, and Hagar was Ishmael's mother, still, Sarah was looked at as the foster mother of Ishmael; because Hagar was Sarah's servant, she could only bear the son according to Sarah's wishes [Gen. 16:1–6])**.

21 These things have you done, and I kept silence: you thought that I was altogether such an one as yourself: but I will reprove you, and set them in order before your eyes (due to the false religion of Islam, the Arabs have thought that they were praying to God, and that He was "one" with them; they will now know they have been wrong; the Promise was not through Ishmael, but through Isaac [Gen. 17:18–19]; they have mistaken God's "silence" for approval; at this coming day, prophesied about 3,000 years ago, the world of Islam will then answer)**.

22 Now consider this, you who forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver (the Lord is saying here that the Arab world of Islam, which has substituted this false religion in the place of God, is now in danger of being "torn to pieces" with none being able to "deliver them")**.

23 Whoso offers praise glorifies Me: and to him who orders his conversation (manner of behavior) aright will I show the Salvation of God (the idea seems to be that the nations of the world which have opposed God and His Plan will now be given an opportunity to repent; to those who do, Salvation will be afforded them; otherwise, judgment! This will be at the beginning of the Kingdom Age)**.

A PSALM OF DAVID: A PRAYER FOR FORGIVENESS AND CLEANSING

[1] Have mercy upon me, O God, according to Your Lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of Your tender Mercies blot out my transgressions. (This is a Psalm of David, written when Nathan the Prophet came unto him after the sin with Bath-sheba and the murder of her husband Uriah [II Sam., Chpt. 12]. This Psalm was given by the Holy Spirit to David when, his heart broken and contrite because of his sin against God, he pleaded for pardon through the Atoning Blood of the Lamb of God, foreshadowed in Exodus, Chapter 12. Thus, he was not only fittingly provided with a vehicle of expression in Repentance and Faith, but he was also used as a channel of prophetic communication.

David, in his sin, Repentance, and Restoration, is a forepicture of Israel. For as he forsook the Law and was guilty of adultery and murder, so Israel despised the Covenant, turned aside to idolatry [spiritual adultery], and murdered the Messiah.

Thus the scope and structure of this Psalm goes far beyond David. It predicts the future confession and forgiveness of Israel in the day of the Messiah's Second Coming, when, looking upon Him Whom they pierced, they shall mourn and weep [Zech., Chpts. 12–13].

As well, this is even more perfectly a vivid portrayal of the Intercessory Work of Christ on behalf of His People. Even though David prayed this prayer, the Son of David would make David's sin [as well as ours] His Own, and pray through him that which must be said.

This means that this is the truest prayer of Repentance ever prayed, because it symbolizes the Intercessory Work of the Son of David.)

[2] Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin

(man's problem is sin, and man must admit that; the only remedy for sin is "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified," to which David, in essence, appealed [Heb. 10:12]; the Blood of Jesus Christ alone cleanses from all sin [I Jn. 1:7]).

3 For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me (the acknowledgement of Verses 3 and 4 is the condition of Divine forgiveness; all sin, in essence, is committed against God; therefore, God demands that the transgressions be acknowledged, placing the blame where it rightfully belongs — on the perpetrator; He cannot and, in fact, will not, forgive sin that is not acknowledged and for which no responsibility is taken).

4 Against You, You only, have I sinned, and done this evil in Your sight: that You might be justified when You speak, and be clear when You judge. (While David's sins were against Bath-sheba, her husband Uriah, and all of Israel, still, the ultimate direction of sin, perfected by Satan, is always against God.

All sin is a departure from God's Ways to man's ways.

David is saying that God is always "justified" in any action that He takes, and His "judgment" is always perfect.).

5 Behold, I was shaped in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me. (Unequivocally, this Verse proclaims the fact of original sin. This Passage states that all are born in sin, and as a result of Adam's Fall in the Garden of Eden.

When Adam, as the federal head of the human race, failed, this means that all of humanity failed. It means that all who would be born would, in effect, be born lost.

As a result of this, the Second Man, the Last Adam, the Lord Jesus Christ, had to come into this world, in effect, God becoming Man, to undo what the original Adam did. He would have to keep the Law of God perfectly, which He did, all as our Substitute, and then pay the penalty for the terrible sin debt owed by all of mankind, for all had broken the Law, which He did by giving Himself on the Cross of Calvary [Jn. 3:16].

To escape the judgment of original sin, man must be "born again," which is carried out by the believing sinner expressing Faith in Christ and what Christ did at the Cross [Jn. 3:3; Eph. 2:8–9].)

6 Behold, You desire truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part You shall make me to know wisdom (man can only deal with the externals, and even that not very well; God Alone can deal with the "inward parts" of man, which is the source of sin, which speaks of the heart; in other words, the heart has to be changed, which the Lord Alone can do [Mat. 5:8]).

7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. (The petition, "purge me with hyssop," expresses a figure of speech. "Purge me with the blood which on that night in Egypt was sprinkled on the doorposts with a bunch of hyssop" [Ex. 12:13, 22] portrays David's dependence on "the Blood of the Lamb."

David had no recourse in the Law, even as no one has recourse in the Law. The Law can only condemn. All recourse is found exclusively in Christ and what He did for us at the Cross, of which the slain lamb and the blood on the doorposts in Egypt were symbols [Ex. 12:13].)

8 Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which You have broken may rejoice. (Forgiveness for the past never exhausts the fullness of pardon. There is provision for the future.

The expression, "bones which You have broken," presents a figure of speech meaning that one cannot proceed until things have been made right with God. It is as though a man's leg is broken, and he cannot walk. Unforgiven sin immobilizes the soul the same as a broken bone immobilizes the body.)

9 Hide Your Face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities. (Unforgiven sin stares in the Face of God. This can only be stopped when the sins are put away, which can only be done by proper Confession and Repentance, with the Blood of Jesus being applied by Faith. When this is done, the "iniquities" are "blotted out" as though they had never existed. This is "Justification by Faith" [Rom. 5:1].)

10 Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. (David's heart was unclean. Sin makes the heart unclean. The word "create" is interesting. It means the old heart is infected by sin, is diseased, and cannot be salvaged. God must, spiritually speaking, "create a clean heart" [Ezek. 18:31].

Also, it is impossible for any individual to have a "right spirit" if there is unconfessed sin.)

11 Cast me not away from Your Presence; and take not Your Holy Spirit from me. (If sin is unconfessed and rebellion persists, God will ultimately "cast away" the individual "from His Presence." He will also "take the Holy Spirit" from the person. This refutes the doctrine of Unconditional Eternal Security.)

12 Restore unto me the joy of Your Salvation; and uphold me with Your free Spirit. (Part of the business of the Holy Spirit is "restoration," but only if the individual meets God's conditions, as David did, and as we must do. With unconfessed sin, all "joy" is lost. With sin confessed, cleansed, and put away, the "joy of... Salvation" returns. A clean heart, a willing spirit, and a steadfast will are then given by the Holy Spirit.)

13 Then will I teach transgressors Your Ways; and sinners shall be converted unto You. (Before Repentance, David was in no condition to proclaim God's truth to "transgressors," because he was a transgressor himself.

Upon true Repentance, David was now ready to teach and to preach, and the Holy Spirit attested to that.)

14 Deliver me from blood guiltiness, O God, You God of my Salvation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of Your Righteousness. (This refers to the terrible sin of having Uriah, the husband of Bath-sheba, killed [II Sam. 11:14–21].

Only the consciously pardoned sinner can "sing aloud" of God's Righteousness. Unpardoned men can speak of His Mercy, but their thoughts about it are unholy thoughts.)

15 O LORD, open You my lips; and my mouth shall show forth Your praise. (Proper praise to the Lord cannot go forth as long as there is unconfessed sin. This is the reason for such little praise in most Churches, and far too often the praise which actually is offered is hollow. True praise can only come from a true heart!)

16 For You desire not Sacrifice; else would I give it: You delight not in Burnt Offering. (No penance, sacraments, or costly gifts of Churches or men, regarding expiation of past sins, are desired or accepted by God. Only Faith and trust in Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross can be accepted by the Lord.

Unfortunately, the world tries to create a new god, while the Church tries to create another sacrifice. There is only one Sacrifice for sin [Heb. 10:12].)

17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, You will not despise. (True Repentance will always include a "broken spirit" and a "broken and contrite heart." Such alone will accept Christ and what Christ has done at the Cross. God will accept nothing less.)

18 Do good in Your good pleasure unto Zion: build You the walls of Jerusalem. (Verses 18–19 are not, as some think, a meaningless addition to the Psalm by some later writer. They both belong to the structure and prophetic scope of the Psalm.

David's sin, confession, and Restoration illustrate this future chapter in Israel's history. With their idolatry [spiritual adultery] and murder forgiven, they will go forth as messengers of the Gospel to win other nations to wholehearted faith and service in and for Christ.

Upon Israel's Repentance, the Lord will once again "build You the walls of Jerusalem.")

19 Then shall You be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with Burnt Offering and Whole Burnt Offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon Your Altar. (The sacrificial program under the old system was lawful, because it pointed to the coming Redeemer. Since Christ and the Cross, they are no longer necessary, and for all the obvious reasons. Why the symbol when the substance is available?

During the Millennial Reign, the sacrificial system will be restored, but only as a memorial of what Christ has done at the Cross [Ezek., Chpts. 40–48].)

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE DOOM OF THE WICKED

[1] Why boastest you yourself in mischief, O mighty man? the Goodness of God endures continually. (This Psalm was written by David at the time when Doeg the Edomite caused David much harm.

Even though the Psalm concerns itself with Doeg, even more so it concerns itself with the Antichrist, who will declare war with Israel at the midpoint of the Great Tribulation; therefore, David is a Type of Christ in this Psalm, and Doeg is a type of the Antichrist.

The Holy Spirit uses this occasion to portray not only that which had happened, but also that which will come in the distant future during the Great Tribulation [Mat. 24:21].)

[2] The tongue devises mischief; like a sharp razor, working deceitfully. (There are few people in the Bible who were more treacherous or evil than Doeg the Edomite. He falsely accused the High Priest and his family, who were true to David, which resulted in them losing their lives.

During the latter half of the Great Tribulation, the Antichrist will totally fulfill this Passage. Daniel said, "He shall speak great words against the Most High" [Dan. 7:25].

James addressed the tongue, saying, "It is full of deadly poison" [James 3:8]. Only the Holy Spirit can tame the tongue.)

[3] You love evil more than good; and lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah. (This fits Doeg, and it fits the Antichrist.)

[4] You love all devouring words, O you deceitful tongue. (Doeg illustrates the Antichrist. He plotted the destruction of David; he loved evil rather than good; he falsely accused the High Priest, Ahimelech; and he rejoiced at Saul's murderous command authorizing him to destroy Ahimelech's entire family plus many other Priests [I Sam. 22:9–23].)

5 God shall likewise destroy you forever, He shall take you away, and pluck you out of your dwelling place, and root you out of the land of the living. Selah. (This speaks of both Doeg and the Antichrist, of which Doeg was a type.)

6 The righteous also shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him *(these words are but an indication of the laughter of Israel concerning the Antichrist, when he is destroyed by the Lord Jesus Christ at the Lord's Second Coming; Israel is called here "the righteous," and so they will be when they accept the Lord Jesus Christ as their Saviour at His Second Advent):

7 Lo, this is the man who made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness. (No doubt, Saul made Doeg rich; however, the gold and silver given to him by Saul could in no way protect him in his "wickedness."

Likewise, the Antichrist will have great riches [Dan. 11:43]. However, those who trust in "riches" instead of trusting in "God" will ultimately fail.)

8 But I am like a green olive tree in the House of God: I trust in the Mercy of God for ever and ever. (As Verses 8 and 9 portray David at that particular time, they even more portray the Messiah in the coming Day. Jesus Christ perfectly and eternally trusts. He is the "green olive tree.")

9 I will praise You for ever, because You have done it: and I will wait on Your Name; for it is good before Your Saints. (David praises the Name of the Lord for his victory over the efforts of Satan to destroy him.

In its fuller meaning, it pertains to the Messiah as He praises God in the execution of His Wrath upon the Antichrist. It is this Divine action which is pointed to in the word "it.")

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE FOOLISHNESS OF MAN

[1] The fool has said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none who does good. (This Psalm is very similar to Psalm 14; however, even though similar, still, they are different.

For instance, in Psalm 14 the attention of the reader is directed to the suffering of the Messiah and His servants and, therefore, is private.

The Fifty-third Psalm is given respecting the judgment of the oppressor [the Antichrist] and the deliverance of the oppressed; consequently, it is for public use.

The "fool" who is spoken of here actually refers to the Antichrist. He is a fool because he says, "There is no God." Despite all the "good" that he will promise the world, there will be no "good" that is done, but rather evil.)

[2] God looked down from Heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any who did understand, who did seek God. (This refers to the Great Tribulation Period and will signal the rise of the Antichrist. At this time, God will pour out tremendous plagues and judgments on this planet; however, He will search planet Earth to see if such can be avoided, being true to His nature as a God of Mercy. Regrettably, He will find none at all who will cry out after God; all will in fact refuse to repent [Rev. 9:20–21].)

[3] Every one of them is gone back: they are altogether become filthy; there is none who does good, no, not one. (Paul quoted this Passage in Romans 3:10–18. Going to the bottom line, all who follow the Antichrist will be "filthy," with none doing "good.")

[4] Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up My People as they eat bread: they have not called upon God. (These "workers of iniquity" included those who followed Saul. They attempted, at Saul's command, to kill David. David "called upon God"; they did not.

In a greater way, it refers to the followers of the Antichrist, who have "'no knowledge' of God." They are all "workers of iniquity" [Dan. 8:24].)

5 There were they in great fear, where no fear was: for God has scattered the bones of him who encamps against you (against Israel): you have put them to shame, because God has despised them. (This Verse proclaims the destruction of the Antichrist. When the power of God explodes against the "man of sin," the Antichrist will then be "in great fear." The statement, "where no fear was," refers to the Antichrist thinking that God will not take action against him, but now he sees that God has come on the scene and will completely destroy him.

This Verse and the last Verse point to the place and predict the time of the destruction of this fool and his followers. His folly is described in II Thessalonians 2:4, as well as in Verse 1 of this Psalm.

The "scattering of the bones" refers to the conclusion of the Battle of Armageddon, when Israel will spend some seven months burying the dead [Ezek. 39:11–12].

The "shame" of the defeat of the Antichrist and his followers will be obvious to the whole world, "because God has despised them.")

6 Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When God brings back the captivity of His People, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad. (This will be fulfilled at the Second Advent of Christ. At long last, the "captivity" of Israel will be ended. Then "Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad" [Zech. 14:20–21].)

A PSALM OF DAVID: A CRY FOR HELP

[1] Save me, O God, by Your Name, and judge me by Your strength. (This is a Psalm of David, which was written when the Ziphites intended to betray him to Saul [I Sam., Chpt. 23]. David is a Type of Christ. He delivered certain people, but yet they betrayed him; likewise, Christ has delivered the world, and yet they betray Him.

In either case, David did not attempt to avenge himself [Rom. 12:19]. He knew that vengeance belongs to God, and that the trusting servant, when tried, does not take matters into his own hands, but relies on his Master to rescue him.)

[2] Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth. (The answer to any problem that any Believer may have is to "take it to the Lord in prayer.")

[3] For strangers are risen up against me, and oppressors seek after my soul: they have not set God before them. Selah. (The "strangers" were the men of Keilah, and the "oppressors" were Saul and his henchmen. Why would they seek David's destruction? They did so because "they have not set God before them."

When it comes to God, men cannot be neutral. They are either opposed to Him or in favor of Him.

As this spoke of David, it also spoke of the Greater Son of David!)

[4] Behold, God is my Helper: the LORD is with them who uphold my soul. (This means that the few who did seek to help David would be immeasurably blessed by "the LORD.")

[5] He shall reward evil unto my enemies: cut them off in Your Truth.

(This ultimately happened exactly as David prayed. His "enemies" were ultimately "cut off." The reason is obvious. It was because of "Your Truth." Men should find out what "God's Truth" is and follow it. His "Truth" is His Word.)

6 I will freely sacrifice unto You: I will praise Your Name, O LORD; for it is good. (This "sacrifice" was offered in faith; likewise, "praise" was also offered in faith. Despite the difficulties and circumstances, David knew that God would ultimately deliver him.)

7 For He has delivered me out of all trouble: and my eye has seen His desire upon my enemies. (Most probably this was written by faith. He called those things that were not as though they were — and that day of victory ultimately came!

The setting of this Psalm is aptly described; however, prophetically, it concerns the Messiah and the minority of the Jews who will, in the last days, believe on Him — possibly even the 144,000.

Jesus asked for a just punishment upon their enemies. Being Himself sinless as Man and righteous as God, He can demand a fitting judgment. He claims a just sentence upon these convicted transgressors.)

A PSALM OF DAVID: BETRAYAL

[1] Give ear to my prayer, O God; and hide not Yourself from my supplication. (This Psalm was written by David during the time when his son, Absalom, and his most trusted advisor, Ahithophel, rebelled against him by seeking to take his throne and thereby turn the hearts of Israel against him. It was no doubt the most awful time in David's life.

It also portrays the Lord Jesus Christ, Who was betrayed by His personal Disciple and chosen Apostle, Judas.

Even though this Psalm concerns David's time, still, it more so concerns the hatred and treachery which the Messiah suffered Personally in the days of His flesh, and which He now suffers and will yet suffer in sympathy with His People [Col. 1:24].

How wonderful it is to be permitted to hear Christ speaking to His Father! The Gospels record the Words and Acts of Christ; the Psalms reveal His Prayers and Thoughts.)

[2] Attend unto me, and hear me: I mourn in my complaint, and make a noise (the cry of the Messiah to God was because of the attitude of Israel against Him; He would come unto His Own, and His Own would receive Him not [Jn. 1:11])**;

[3] Because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked: for they cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they hate me. (While this concerns David and those who would take his throne and his life, still, in a greater way, it concerns Israel, who hated Christ. Why did they hate Him? They did so because their deeds were evil.

Absalom and Ahithophel felt justified in their actions. David said, "They cast iniquity upon me." They felt that because of David's sin with Bathsheba and against Uriah that they not only could, but in fact should, take his throne.

In the first place, David was, in God's great Mercy and Forgiveness, the same after his sin as he had been before; however, self-righteousness can never see this. In their minds, David had forfeited his crown and his place, so they took matters into their own hands. They did not recognize God's Mercy, Grace, or Love. They only saw their own jaded, selfish ambition.

Men would do well to heed the words of this Psalm. If they, as Absalom and Ahithophel, deny forgiveness to David, likewise, it will be denied to them.

As stated, in its greater fulfillment, this Psalm speaks of Christ in His Earthly Ministry. David had sinned, so his enemies felt they had cause against him. Jesus never sinned, so His enemies would manufacture deceit against Him.)

4 My heart is sore pained within me: and the terrors of death are fallen upon me. (David felt this way at this lowest of times. In the greater fulfillment by the Son of David, He would in no way be at fault, and yet He would take all the fault unto Himself, suffering the "terrors of death" as though He had sinned.)

5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and horror has overwhelmed me. (To fuel this "fearfulness and trembling" was the realization that he had sinned, and terribly so! True, God had put away his sin, but yet the nagging fear was there that perhaps God would allow Absalom and Ahithophel to have their way.

Prophetically, Christ would enter into the same agony because He would enter into our place and position. That's the reason that He Alone can be the True Intercessor. Only One Who had never sinned could fill this place, and Christ Alone fits this description.)

6 And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I fly away, and be at rest. (Historically, David is symbolized by this dove, but prophetically, it means the Messiah. The unnatural rebellion of Absalom and the treachery of Ahithophel foreshadow the rebellion of Israel and the betrayal of Judas.)

7 Lo, then would I wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. Selah. (There seemed to be no answer to David's dilemma.)

8 I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest. (He "would," but he couldn't! The only escape is in Christ!)

9 Destroy, O LORD, and divide their tongues: for I have seen violence and strife in the city. (David prays that the excellent advice of Ahithophel will be "divided." This prayer was answered [II Sam. 15:31].)

10 Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof: mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it. (This refers to the leaders of the plot to overthrow David and put Absalom on the throne.)

11 Wickedness is in the midst thereof: deceit and guile depart not from her streets. ("Deceit" is Satan's greatest weapon. His ambition is to make people believe that what is of God, isn't, and that what is not of God, is. He is amazingly successful.)

12 For it was not an enemy who reproached me; then I could have borne it: neither was it he who hated me who did magnify himself against me; then I would have hid myself from him *(David is speaking here of the betrayal of Ahithophel; in a greater fulfillment, it speaks of the betrayal of the Messiah by Judas; so, when one reads the words of this Twelfth Verse, one is actually reading the thoughts of Christ concerning Judas):

13 But it was you, a man my equal, my guide, and my acquaintance. (The words, "equal," "guide," and "acquaintance," as applied to Judas, may be translated "My chosen," for Jesus elected him an Apostle, "My fellow tribesman," as Judas was the only member of the Twelve, who, like the Lord, was of the Tribe of Judah.)

14 We took sweet counsel together, and walked unto the House of God in company. (David is speaking of the times that he went into the Tabernacle to worship God with Ahithophel. For three and a half years, Judas walked with Jesus. This tells us that association, environment, and participation do not save one. Salvation must come from the heart, and Ahithophel had not fully given his heart to David. Judas, above all, had not fully given his heart to Christ.)

15 Let death seize upon them, and let them go down quick into Hell: for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them. (This is exactly what happened! David could only say this by the Spirit of God. Thus, in reality, it is the Greater Son of David Who utters these words. In His perfection, He is qualified to do so, and He Alone!)

16 As for me, I will call upon God; and the LORD shall save me. (There is no other solution! And yet most of the modern Church opts for humanistic psychology.)

17 Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and He shall hear my voice. (Three times a day David prays.)

18 He has delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me: for there were many with me. (The Lord assures David that He will "deliver his soul." He has "peace" that the victory will be his. The "many" to whom David refers are the Host who are with God. As well, such is available to every true Believer, and for all time.)

19 God shall hear, and afflict them, even He Who abides of old. Selah. Because they have no changes, therefore they fear not God. (Unregenerate man, in his stubbornness, will not change. In fact, he cannot change, unless he turns solely to the Lord. Most won't do that, because they have no fear of God.)

20 He has put forth his hands against such as be at peace with him: he has broken his covenant. (Whenever Ahithophel rebelled against David, and thereby the Lord, he actually broke a spiritual Covenant that he had made to support David and the Work of God. Judas did the same thing.)

21 The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords. (This refers to both Ahithophel and Judas, and even more so to the Antichrist.)

22 Cast your burden upon the LORD, and He shall sustain you: He shall never suffer the righteous to be moved. (This should be a tremendous encouragement to all true Believers. Take your burden to the Lord and leave it there!)

23 But You, O God, shall bring them down into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in You. (Be it ever remembered that God's Way will ultimately win out. Those who trusted Ahithophel went "down into the pit of destruction." Those who trusted Judas did likewise. Those who trust the Antichrist, in that coming day, will also be destroyed; however, those who put their trust in the Lord will ever gain the victory.)

A PSALM OF DAVID: PRAYER FOR DELIVERANCE

[1] Be merciful unto me, O God: for man would swallow me up; he fighting daily oppresses me. (This Psalm was written by David when Saul was trying to kill him, and he joined the Philistines in Gath [I Sam., Chpts. 21, 27]. As expressed here, David's terrible problem, with Saul trying to kill him, was a "daily" battle.)

[2] My enemies would daily swallow me up: for they be many who fight against me, O You Most High. (David's experiences while far from his Father's house and in exile among those who hated him occasioned this Psalm. Nevertheless, he was inspired to write it, but its full theme is the experience of the Messiah when living in this world among sinners, and far from the glory which He had with the Father before the world was. Actually, Christ is the Speaker; His are the petitions; and His are the expressions of Faith and Confidence.)

[3] What time I am afraid, I will trust in You. (David did not deny the presence of fear; however, through him the Holy Spirit tells us here the antidote for fear, and all other problems, for that matter. "I will trust in You.")

[4] In God I will praise His Word, in God I have put my trust; I will not fear what flesh can do unto me. (Confidence in man and his word never gives occasion for praise. Confidence in God and His Word gives constant occasion for praise.)

[5] Every day they wrest my words: all their thoughts are against me for evil. (This describes the constant pursuits and plots against David by Saul and his men. As well, and even more so, this pertains to the Scribes and Pharisees, who conducted themselves in the same manner against Christ.)

6 They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, they mark my steps, when they wait for my soul. (The Scribes and Pharisees pounced on every Word Jesus said, attempting to trap Him in His speech; incidentally, they were never able to do so.)

7 Shall they escape by iniquity? in Your anger cast down the people, O God. (This prayer sets itself against those who would set themselves against God.)

8 You tell my wanderings: put You my tears into Your bottle: are they not in Your book? (The Holy Spirit through David is saying that despite David's "wanderings" and his attempts to escape from Saul, God knew at all times exactly where he was. The "tears in the bottle" proclaim an ancient custom that spoke of tremendous pathos and pain. Whenever the Believer sets out to carry out the Will of God for his life, Satan will do all he can to oppose these efforts. And the Lord allows the Evil One certain latitude in order that we may learn to have Faith and to place our trust exclusively in the Word of God.)

9 When I cry unto You, then shall my enemies turn back: this I know; for God is for me. (The phrase, "this I know," is a most precious declaration of the Perfect Faith of God's Beloved Son.)

10 In God will I praise His Word: in the LORD will I praise His Word. (God's Word is the only body of revealed Truth in the world today, and in fact ever has been; consequently, every Christian should make it his life's work to learn the "Word."

The double statement in this Verse is not an oversight. It was done by the Holy Spirit in order for us to understand the significance that God places on His Word.)

11 In God have I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do unto me. (Once again, the Holy Spirit is telling us that in order to gain the strength and confidence we must have in life's journey, we must "put our trust in God." Then the fear of man leaves.)

12 Your vows are upon me, O God: I will render praises unto You. (This is not God making vows, but David vowing to be God's servant, to give his whole life to Him, and to render praises for His benefits.)

13 For You have delivered my soul from death: will not You deliver my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living? (The sense of this Verse is that God will surely deliver the Messiah's soul out of the death world and His Body out of the grave. The word "falling" has, in the Hebrew Text, no moral significance. It means a thrusting down. Man proposed to thrust Christ's dishonored Body down into the Earth. God placed Christ's Body in an honored tomb instead, raised it in glory, and caused Him to walk in Resurrection Life.

In His Incarnation, He was an "ear" [perfect obedience]; in Resurrection, He was a "foot" [perfect walk], for His enemies will be made a footstool for His Feet and, in that day of universal dominion, His feet shall stand upon the Mount of Olives [Zech., Chpt. 14].)

A PSALM OF DAVID: GOD DELIVERS DAVID FROM KING SAUL

[1] Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my soul trusts in You: yes, in the shadow of Your wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast. (This was probably written by David when he was being chased by Saul, and was in the cave of Engedi. It was one of the most critical times in David's life. The sweet singer of Israel could not trust in any man to save him. If he was to be saved, the Lord Alone would have to do it; consequently, David's trust in the Lord is overwhelmingly obvious here. It most definitely must be a lesson to us.)

[2] I will cry unto God Most High; unto God Who performs all things for me. (The words, "all things," are not in the original Hebrew Text; therefore, the Verse is a blank check. In other words, whatever is needed, God will do; however, we must keep our petitions in the scope of His Will.)

[3] He shall send from Heaven, and save me from the reproach of him who would swallow me up. Selah. God shall send forth His Mercy and His Truth. (Even though this is a Psalm of David, even more so it is a Psalm of the Greater Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. This Verse proclaims Christ's descent into the realm of the dead. It also proclaims His glorious Resurrection from the grave.

Actually, the entire Psalm is the language of the Messiah, with the exception of Verses 5 and 11, which are addressed to him by the Holy Spirit.)

[4] My soul is among lions: and I lie even among them who are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword. (In His Earthly Ministry, our Lord was constantly beset by the opposition of demon spirits.

The latter part of this Verse speaks of the hatred of man directed toward the Messiah. There was no distinction or difference in the vehemence of their hatred from the hatred of demons; actually, the hatred within the Scribes and Pharisees was placed there by demon spirits. In fact, Christ met with almost universal hatred.)

[5] Be You exalted, O God, above the hea vens; let Your Glory be above all the Earth. (In this Verse, the Holy Spirit addresses the Lord Jesus Christ, and does so as God. The imperative sense of the Hebrew verb employed here implies the certainty of the desired exaltation, and so marks the contrast with the sufferings described in Verse 4.)

[6] They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down: they have dug a pit before me, into the midst whereof they are fallen themselves. Selah. (As Saul and his henchmen hated David, likewise, the Scribes and Pharisees hated the Lord Jesus Christ.

Every Christian should allow this Psalm to be a warning that if he moves his tongue against that which God has truly anointed, or lifts his hand against the same, it will ultimately destroy him.)

[7] My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing and give praise. (No matter what happened, David would not lose his song and, thereby, would not lose his praise for God. What a testimony!)

[8] Awake up, my glory; awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early. (David will "awake early" in order to have time with the Lord in communion and fellowship. At times, this was accompanied with the harp and him singing the Psalms.)

[9] I will praise You, O Lord, among the people: I will sing unto You among the nations. (In the cave of Engedi, little did he realize how prophetic this statement was. These Psalms have been sung by untold millions from then until now, and in fact will ever be sung.)

[10] For Your Mercy is great unto the heavens, and Your Truth unto the clouds. (What would he sing? He would sing of God's "mercy" and His “truth.” There could be nothing greater to sing about.)

11 Be You exalted, O God, above the heavens: let Your Glory be above all the Earth. (Once again, and even in double measure, the Holy Spirit proclaims Jesus Christ as “God.” One day His “Glory will be above all the Earth.” In fact, this will be fulfilled in the coming Millennial Reign.)

CHAPTER 58

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE DEPRAVITY OF THE WICKED

[1] Do you indeed speak righteousness O congregation? do you judge uprightly, O you sons of men? (This Psalm speaks of the leaders of Israel during David's day aligning themselves with Saul, and trying to destroy David, who was God's anointed.

Likewise, the Psalm characterizes the leaders of Israel during Christ's Earthly sojourn. They are "the wicked" of Verses 3 and 4.

The Psalm also speaks of the Antichrist coming against Israel in the last half of the Great Tribulation, attempting to destroy her.)

[2] Ye s, in heart you work wickedness; you weigh the violence of your hands in the Earth. (The hearts of those under Saul who opposed David were "wicked." They lived by "violence." The same could be said even more so about the oppressors of the Messiah. As well, it speaks of the "evil hearts" of the Antichrist and his followers.)

[3] The wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies. (In general, this speaks of the total depravity of man. More particularly, it speaks of the Antichrist and his followers.)

[4] Their poison is like the poison of a serpent: they are like the deaf adder that stops her ear (while this speaks of all who would oppose Christ, prophetically, it applies to the Antichrist; he will poison the world against Israel by "speaking lies")**;

[5] Which will not hearken to the voice of charmers, charming never so wisely. (The "adder" is said to be "deaf," and consequently very difficult to charm. The idea is, in the coming Great Tribulation, all other forms of evil must give way to the Antichrist. He will not be deterred from his path.)

6 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth: break out the great teeth of the young lions, O LORD. (This speaks of those who opposed David and who opposed Christ. As well, it speaks of those who will oppose Israel at the Battle of Armageddon.)

7 Let them melt away as waters which run continually: when He bends His bow to shoot His arrows, let them be as cut in pieces (this was fulfilled concerning David and Christ; prophetically, it will be fulfilled at the Battle of Armageddon, when the Antichrist will be defeated by the coming of the Lord.)

8 As a snail which melts, let every one of them pass away: like the untimely birth of a woman, that they may not see the sun. (In short, everyone who opposes Christ will ultimately "pass away.")

9 Before your pots can feel the thorns, He shall take them away as with a whirlwind, both living, and in His Wrath. (Prophetically, this speaks of the Antichrist and his followers being completely destroyed by the Wrath of God.)

10 The righteous (Israel) shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance: he (Israel) shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked (speaks of the defeat of the Antichrist at the Battle of Armageddon [Ezek., Chpts. 38–39])**.

11 So that a man shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: verily He is a God Who judges in the Earth. (Regarding those who trust the Lord, even as David, ultimately they will prevail. Prophetically, it speaks of the Lord judging the Earth in the realm of defeating the Antichrist and all who follow him.)

CHAPTER 59

A PSALM OF DAVID: A PRAYER FOR PROTECTION AND PUNISHMENT

[1] Deliver me from my enemies, O my God: defend me from them who rise up against me. (The occasion of this Psalm is found in I Sam., Chpt. 19, when Saul tried to apprehend David in order to kill him.

This Psalm is very similar to the previous Psalm, portraying David being delivered from the murderous hatred of his encircling enemies. It also typifies the deliverance of the Messiah from the acute hatred of the religious leaders of Israel, as they tried to kill Him before His time in order to prevent Calvary.

It also typifies the deliverance of Israel from the Antichrist during the latter half of the Great Tribulation, and at the Battle of Armageddon.)

[2] Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloody men.

[3] For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul: the mighty are gathered against me; not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O LORD. (Saul is attempting to kill David, not because of any "transgression" or "sin" against Saul, but because of Saul's great evil. It does not mean that David had never sinned; it simply means that Saul's anger with him was not because of any sin or transgression against him on David's part.

As well, Israel hated Christ, not because of any "transgression" or "sin" on His part, but because of their own "transgression and sin.")

[4] They run and prepare themselves without my fault: awake to help me, and behold. (It seemed to David that the Lord was asleep; but, of course, that was incorrect. The Lord was watching over David minutely, even as He watches over every single one of His children.)

5 You therefore, O LORD God of Hosts, the God of Israel, awake to visit all the heathen: be not merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah. (The "heathen" refer to the nations which will surround Jerusalem during the Battle of Armageddon. This Prophecy relates to the last hours of that time. Verses 13 and 16 point to this fact.

The believing remnant of Israel is pictured as shut up in Jerusalem by the nations and by certain wicked transgressors. The Messiah, in Spirit, takes His place in their midst, cheers them with the assurance of deliverance, and prays for the destruction of their besiegers. Judgment, consequently, is the keynote of this Psalm.)

6 They return at evening: they make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city. (This refers to the Antichrist and his armies attempting to take Jerusalem. In fact, half of the city will fall to the Antichrist, which will take place immediately before the Second Coming [Zech. 14:2–3].)

7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth: swords are in their lips: for who, say they, does hear? (At this time, Israel will cry to God for deliverance, because they realize that now the Messiah is their only hope. The Antichrist will taunt their appeal!)

8 But You, O LORD, shall laugh at them; You shall have all the heathen in derision. (The Lord's disdain for the Antichrist is referred to with the brief comment, "laugh at them.")

9 Because of his strength will I wait upon You: for God is my defence. (As David says these words, so will Israel at that coming time.)

10 The God of my mercy shall prevent me: God shall let me see my desire upon my enemies. (This was fulfilled in David's life. It will have a greater fulfillment regarding Israel in the Last Days. At the time of this writing [2004], most of the world could be constituted as an enemy of Israel. No matter! Israel will ultimately prevail, because she will cry to the Lord, and He will come to her rescue. It is the Second Coming!)

11 Kill them not, lest my people forget: scatter them by Your Power; and bring them down, O LORD our Shield. (In other words, David's prayer is that the Lord will defeat the enemy in such a fashion that all will know that it is the Lord Who has done such. To be sure, this is exactly what will happen at the Battle of Armageddon.)

[12] For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips let them even be taken in their pride: and for cursing and lying which they speak. (It should be noticed that the sin of all three, Saul, the religious leaders of Israel, and the Antichrist, is "pride.")

[13] Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be: and let them know that God rules in Jacob unto the ends of the Earth. Selah. (God doesn't rule in "Jacob" presently; however, that is going to change in the not-too-distant future. As an aside, it doesn't say that God rules in Muhammad, etc.)

[14] And at evening let them return; and let them make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city. (This Verse is very similar to Verse 6.)

[15] Let them wander up and down for meat, and grudge if they be not satisfied. (This Verse speaks of the near victory by the Antichrist over Jerusalem. Even though some two-thirds of Israel will have already been destroyed [Zech. 13:8], still, the Antichrist will "grudge" and "be not satisfied," until all Israel is destroyed. He will be sorely disappointed.)

[16] But I will sing of Your Power; yes, I will sing aloud of Your Mercy in the morning: for You have been my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble. (Prophetically, this speaks of the "Day of Jacob's Trouble" [Jer. 30:7]. Despite the power of the Antichrist, the "power" of the Lord will be much greater. Therefore, David, as well as the Messiah, will sing of such.)

[17] Unto You, O my Strength, will I sing: for God is my defence, and the God of my mercy. (This is a beautiful Passage, signifying God's "strength" and "defense," which He gives not only to Israel, but to all who love Him and proclaim His Name.)

A PSALM OF DAVID: A PRAYER FOR ISRAEL'S DELIVERANCE

[1] O God, You have cast us off, You have scattered us, You have been displeased; O turn Yourself to us again. (This Psalm was written by David when he fought the enemy in a place called "Zobah," which is in Mesopotamia [I Chron. 18:1–5]. While David fought up north, Joab was fighting in the south, and it took him some six months to defeat the enemy. David cries to the Lord because of these problems.)

[2] You have made the Earth to tremble; You have broken it: heal the breaches thereof; for it shakes. (The greater fulfillment of this prayer and prophecy will be during the Time of Jacob's Trouble, and his deliverance out of it. During the Great Tribulation, the Earth will literally "tremble.")

[3] You have showed Your people hard things: You have made us to drink the wine of astonishment. (Regarding David, he was astonished that it took Joab so long to win the victory over the Edomites; however, the greater fulfillment pertains to Israel, who will be reduced to "astonishment" when the Antichrist breaks his seven-year covenant with them, declares war, and threatens their very existence.)

[4] You have given a banner to them who fear You, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah. (Prophetically, this speaks of the Battle of Armageddon, when the Messiah will be Israel's Jehovah-Nissi [the Lord our Banner]. Israel's only hope in this Battle will be this "banner." Little by little, she will draw around this "banner," and so should God's servants in all times and in all circumstances [Ex. 17:8–16].)

[5] That Your beloved may be delivered; save with Your right Hand, and hear me. (To be sure, the Lord will hear Israel, and she will be delivered from the Antichrist.)

6 God has spoken in His holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of my head; Judah is my lawgiver (these Passages dogmatically proclaim the fact that God has drawn the boundaries for Israel; this means that this area doesn't belong to the Arabs, or anyone else)**;

8 Moab is My washpot; over Edom will I cast out My shoe: Philistia, triumph you because of Me. ("Moab" and "Edom" now make up modern Jordan. The Philistines have long since ceased to exist, with the Palestinians, so-called, occupying the Gaza strip, which is a small part of the area that the Philistines once occupied.

The Lord is saying here that the enemies of Israel will all be defeated, and will be forced to recognize Israel's place and position, all because of the Lord Jesus Christ.

David was having problems with these areas, and the Lord is merely telling him that the day is coming when these problems would be ended, and forever.)

9 Who will bring Me into the strong city? who will lead Me into Edom? (This refers to the Antichrist breaking his covenant with Israel at the midpoint of the Great Tribulation, and actually declaring war on her. Israel will then flee to "the strong city," which is located in ancient "Edom," and which corresponds to the present day Petra.)

10 Will not You, O God, which had cast us off? and You, O God, which did not go out with our armies? (The Tenth Verse actually answers the questions of Verse 9. Because of Israel's backsliding, God has "cast them off"; however, at this prophetical time, the situation is about to change.)

11 Give us the help from trouble: for vain is the help of man. (The "trouble" referred to here is the seven-year Great Tribulation, which Jesus said would be the worst ever [Mat. 24:21]. At that time, it seems that no nation in the world will come to the help of Israel. However, in a sense, this is the Plan of God. With no one to help her, Israel will then cry out to God.)

12 Through God we shall do valiantly: for He it is Who shall tread down our enemies. (This speaks of the Lord coming to Israel's rescue during the Battle of Armageddon [Rev., Chpt. 19] in order to "tread down our enemies." He Alone can do such! As well, both Verses 11 and 12 apply to, and should be heeded by, every Believer. Truly, God is our refuge, and He Alone can overcome the powers of darkness; in fact, He already has at Calvary's Cross [Col. 2:14–15].)

CHAPTER 61

A PSALM OF DAVID: A HYMN OF TRUST AND CONFIDENCE

[1] Hear my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer. (The words are David's, but the Speaker is actually the Messiah. The doctrine of this and similar Psalms is the perfection of the Faith of the Messiah. As Man, He had to undergo every form of hatred, affliction, and adversity. The sharper these became, the more He trusted. So, His moral glory as the Servant of Jehovah shines through all. He voluntarily took upon Himself this position of dependence and suffering in union with and on behalf of His People.)

2 From the end of the Earth will I cry unto You, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the Rock that is higher than I. (The petitions of the Messiah are evident in the four Gospels, as He, over and over again, resorts to a private place of prayer [Mat. 14:23; 26:36; Mk. 6:46; Lk. 9:28; Jn., Chpt. 17]. The "Rock" was His Father [Deut. 32:4, 15, 18, 31; I Sam. 2:2]. Irrespective of how high our problems may be, "the Rock is higher.")

[3] For You have been a shelter for Me, and a strong tower from the enemy. (The "Shelter" for the Messiah was God the Father. He must be our "Shelter" as well. As dependent Man, He prayed to be led to a Rock Shelter that was Divine; as sinless Man, He conceived of no higher joy than to perpetually dwell in the presence of God.)

[4] I will abide in Your Tabernacle forever: I will trust in the covert of Your wings. Selah. (The instigation of the Holy Spirit is to pull the Believer into total "trust" in God. This refers to "trust" for every facet and walk of life.)

[5] For You, O God, have heard my vows: You have given me the heritage of those who fear Your Name. (David had made "vows" unto the Lord. He failed in some of these vows; however, the Greater Son of David did not fail in any of His "Vows." He said, "I will always do those things that please Him" [Jn. 8:29].

He has not received His "heritage" as of yet. It will be forthcoming shortly at the Rapture of the Church, and when Israel is gathered to Him at the beginning of the Kingdom Age.)

6 You will prolong the King's life: and His years as many generations. (David died at 70 years of age; however, his life was "prolonged" through the life of the Messiah, that is, in fact, unending.)

7 He shall abide before God forever: O prepare Mercy and Truth, which may preserve Him. (Today, Christ is seated by the right hand of the Father and will "abide before God forever.")

8 So will I sing praise unto Your Name forever, that I may daily perform my vows. (David was the first one of whom we know who actually and continually sang praises "unto Your Name forever." If he did that under the Old Covenant of Law, how could we do less under the New Covenant of Grace?

The statement, "daily perform my vows," actually means to trust God at all times.)

A PSALM OF DAVID: A PSALM OF LONGING AND TRUST

1 Truly my soul waits upon God: from Him comes my Salvation. (As the last Psalm, while David says the words, the actual Speaker is the Messiah.)

2 He only is my Rock and my Salvation; He is my defence; I shall not be greatly moved. (Man's hatred of the Messiah occupies the first four Verses of the Psalm. Man's hatred of God's People occupies the following six. If we take up our own "defense," we will fail. If He is our "defense," we cannot fail.)

3 How long will you imagine mischief against a man? you shall be killed all of you: as a bowing wall shall you be, and as a tottering fence. (Matthew 16:27 and Acts 17:31 make it evident that the Messiah is the Man of Verse 3 and the God of Verse 12. The religious leaders of Israel looked at Jesus as One so feeble that they could easily dispense with Him. They hungered for His Life, and their hearts were enflamed with the very hatred of Hell. These were the men who shouted, "Crucify Him! Crucify Him!"

The Prophecy, "you shall be slain all of you," happened exactly as predicted. In A.D. 70, Rome completely destroyed Jerusalem and the Temple. Over one million Jews died in that carnage, with other hundreds of thousands sold as slaves.)

4 They only consult to cast Him down from His excellency: they delight in lies: they bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. Selah. (The Scribes, Pharisees, and Sadducees were liars like their father, the Devil [Jn. 8:44–55]. It is impossible for the self-righteous to truly love God or those who truly follow the Lord.)

5 My soul, wait you only upon God; for my expectation is from Him. (When man has been disappointed enough by other men, he will then "wait only upon God." No "expectation" should be looked to from other men. The Lord Alone will provide.)

[6] He only is my Rock and my Salvation: He is my defence; I shall not be moved. (David, as well as the Greater Son of David, once again uses the word "only" concerning his "Rock" and "defense." From this position, he says, "I shall not be moved.")

[7] In God is my Salvation and my glory: the Rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God. (Over and over again in the Psalms, the Holy Spirit repeats these statements in one form or the other. It is done so for our benefit.)

[8] Trust in Him at all times; you people, pour out your heart before Him: God is a refuge for us. Selah.

[9] Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity. (The idea is, if we as Believers trust in men in any capacity, we will be disappointed. We must fully trust in the Lord.)

[10] Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them. (Our hearts must at all times be on God and His Word, and never on the things of this world, no matter what they might be.)

[11] God has spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongs unto God. (It is "not by human might, nor by human power, but by My Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts" [Zech. 4:6].)

[12] Also unto You, O LORD, belongs Mercy: for You render to every man according to his work. (He blesses us according to our work, but He does not judge us because of failure, as He might, and because of His "Mercy.")

CHAPTER 63

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE PRAYER OF A THIRSTING SOUL

[1] O God, You are my God; early will I seek You: my soul thirsts for You, my flesh longs for You in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is (this Psalm was written by David while he was in the wilderness of Judah, fleeing from Saul; it was a dark time in his life.

The statement, "early will I seek You," seems to have been a habit with David [Ps. 57:8–9]. The statement, "my soul thirsts for You," was also a statement often repeated by David [Ps. 42:1–2]. This gives us an insight into David's consecration. How many hearts really "thirst" for God?);

[2] To see Your Power and Your Glory, so as I have seen You in the Sanctuary. (The phrase, "a dry and thirsty land, where no water is," of Verse 1, pertains to the fact that David, while fleeing from Saul, did not have access to the Sanctuary. It was a spiritual dryness of which he spoke.)

[3] Because Your Lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise You. (David could easily have blamed the Lord for his predicament, but he never resorted to such. He never allowed the present situation, no matter how dark it may have been, to steal his worship of God. What a lesson for us!)

[4] Thus will I bless You while I live: I will lift up my hands in Your Name. (The first ten Verses sing of the First Advent of David's Son and Lord. The Eleventh Verse speaks of His Second Advent [Rev., Chpt. 19]. In His First Advent, He found this world a wilderness, a dry and weary land, without one stream of moral refreshment, and His heart longed for the joys He had tasted from all eternity in His Father's bosom.

But if He found this world to be a thirsty wilderness, yet He found God to be a satisfying Source of perfect joy and happiness.)

[5] My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise You with joyful lips (when you read these words of David, you are also reading the words of the Greater Son of David)**:

[6] When I remember You upon my bed, and meditate on You in the night watches ("meditation" on the Word of God [both day and night] will cure one of fear, stress, and, thereby, most sicknesses)**.

[7] Because You have been my help, therefore in the shadow of Your wings will I rejoice (quite possibly, David had before him the Scroll of the 91st Psalm, which had been written by Moses about 500 years before [Ps. 91:1–4])**.

[8] My soul follows hard after You: Your right Hand upholds me. (David's statement means that no matter what the situation, or where it leads, he will follow. Many Christians follow if it is profitable [or if they think it is]. Many, when facing difficult times, cease to follow.)

[9] But those who seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the Earth. (David is speaking of Saul and those who would ally themselves with him. The Greater Son of David is speaking of the Scribes, Pharisees, and Sadducees. Those who rejected Him all died and went to Hell. It is the same now, and in fact always has been, for all who reject Him [Jn. 14:6].)

[10] They shall fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes. (Exactly as the Holy Spirit predicted, it was brought to pass. Saul "fell by the sword." In A.D. 70, all of Jerusalem "fell by the sword.")

[11] But the King shall rejoice in God; everyone who swears by Him shall glory: but the mouth of them who speak lies shall be stopped. (This speaks of David, and it came to pass exactly as stated; however, it speaks even in greater measure of the Greater Son of David and His Second Coming [Rev., Chpt. 19].)

CHAPTER 64

A PSALM OF DAVID: PRAYER FOR PROTECTION

[1] Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy. (The leaders of the Jews composed in private crafty questions for the Lord, so as to entangle Him in His teaching, and thus to be in a position to accuse Him either to the Sanhedrin or the Roman Government as a heretic or an insurgent, and consequently condemn Him to execution.)

[2] Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked; from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity (be it known that the greatest "iniquity" of all is found in the realm of religion. [Religion is anything that is man-devised; Salvation is that which is God-devised, and is found only in the Word of God.] Shockingly, "the wicked" were actually the Church of Jesus' day)**:

[3] Who whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words (as is recorded in Mat., Chpt. 22 and Lk., Chpt. 11, these "wicked" religious leaders devised their entanglements, and then in public rudely and vehemently proposed their questions to Him. In this Psalm are found His comments about their conduct and His appeal to God about it)**:

[4] That they may shoot in secret at the Perfect: suddenly do they shoot at Him, and fear not. (Jesus Christ was "the Perfect." They had lost all "fear" of God. The terrible sin of not fearing God is the product of self-righteousness, which plagued the religious rulers of Israel and, sadly, plagues the majority of the modern Church.)

[5] They encourage themselves in an evil matter: they commune of laying snares privily; they say, Who shall see them? (Encouraging themselves in their evil purpose, the Scribes and Pharisees suddenly sprang their questions upon Christ, secreting themselves under an assumption of moral earnestness and patriotism.)

6 They search out iniquities; they accomplish a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep. ("Iniquities" here mean "iniquitous questions" – questions which they hoped would involve Him with the Jewish or Roman Governments. They were so clever and crafty in their questions that they were sure, they thought, to accomplish the desired purpose.

Christ, Who read their thoughts and knew their hearts, gives in this Verse His judgment on both. He says that their hearts were deep, meaning deep with "iniquity.")

7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly shall they be wounded. (With many arrows, they tried in vain to wound Him, but God shall without fail suddenly and fatally wound them with only one arrow, which is His Word. And He did!)

8 So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: all who see them shall flee away. (When they stand before God in the Judgment, the bitter slanders of their tongues shall rise in judgment against them and cause them to perish.)

9 And all men shall fear, and shall declare the Work of God; for they shall wisely consider of His doing. (There will come an hour when the entirety of mankind will praise the Lord for all He has done, even judging the rebels.)

10 The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in Him; and all the upright in heart shall glory. (At the very time that this just judgment shall fall upon the enemy, the Lord, Who is both Perfect and Righteous, shall be glorified together with the upright — He upon His Throne, and we round about it.)

A PSALM OF DAVID: PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING TO GOD

[1] Praise waits for You, O God, in Sion: and unto You shall the vow be performed. (Written by David, this Psalm involves itself in the Blessings of God that come upon those who place their trust in the Lord and stand upon His Promises.

It also points to the coming Kingdom Age, when Christ will reign over a happy Earth. At that time, Israel will perform her vow of praise, as well as every Believer. Then the converted nations will unite with Israel in the worship of the Messiah. Then the Gentiles will rejoice with His People [Rom. 15:10]. Christ will reign, not only in Zion, but also over the entire Earth, and will fill it with happiness and joy.)

[2] O You Who hears prayer, unto You shall all flesh come. (This Verse proclaims a promise to all that God hears our believing petitions. As well, this Scripture speaks of the coming Kingdom Age, when ambassadors from all over the world will come to the Lord Jesus, Who will be governing from Jerusalem, and will present their petitions unto Him. He will give them instant answers, which will revolutionize their countries, people, and circumstances.)

[3] Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, You shall purge them away. (David is saying here that iniquitous actions prevail against him by his enemies. But he then says that his heart, contrited by the Holy Spirit, does not speak further of man's transgressions against him, but only of his own transgressions against God. His faith looks forward for purging to Calvary, as our faith now looks back to Calvary. Faith then said, "You shall purge"; faith now says, "You have purged.")

[4] Blessed is the man whom You choose, and cause to approach unto You, that he may dwell in Your Courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of Your House, even of Your Holy Temple. (The Lord chooses those who choose Him.)

[5] By terrible things in righteousness will You answer us, O God of our Salvation; Who is the confidence of all the ends of the Earth, and of them who are afar off upon the sea (at the time of this writing and for all the years of the distant past, God has not been "the confidence" of all people; however, He is worthy of such, and this statement proclaims by faith that this definitely will be the case in the eternal future)**:

[6] Which by His strength sets fast the mountains; being girded with power (with His "strength," He will still the tumult of the people, and so establish universal peace; this will begin at the Second Coming)**:

[7] Which stills the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people (there is an unsettling spirit that has always plagued the Earth; this unsettling spirit has been caused by man's estrangement from God; when Jesus reigns, this unsettled spirit will vanish)**.

[8] They also who dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at Your tokens: You make the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice. (The demonstration of our Lord over nature and over man will compel all who dwell even in the uttermost parts of the Earth to worship Him. The rejoicing will not stop, continually going from morning to evening. And no wonder! Jesus reigns!)

[9] You visit the Earth, and water it: You greatly enrich it with the river of God, which is full of water: You prepare them corn, when You have so provided for it. (The watering of the Earth has to do not only with great fertility being brought back to the entirety of the planet, even with the deserts blossoming as a rose, but, as well, speaks of the Blessings and Presence of God which will "visit the Earth," and will be the cause of all the blessings.)

[10] You water the ridges thereof abundantly: You settle the furrows thereof: You make it soft with showers: You bless the springing thereof.

(This Passage is so freighted with blessing that it is difficult to put the entirety of the meaning given by the Holy Spirit into English [or any other language]. It means that years as well as days will be crowned with goodness. Hill and vale will wave with golden grain, the pastures will be clothed with flocks, and Earth's happy inhabitants will be constrained to sing aloud and shout for joy. It will be a time of Heaven on Earth. It is called the one-thousand-year Millennial Reign [Rev., Chpt. 20]. Then Jesus Christ will reign supreme from Jerusalem as the Premier of the Earth.)

11 You crown the year with Your goodness; and Your paths drop fatness. (Men have ever looked to the beginning of each new year with hope and anticipation; they are always disappointed. However, with the Advent of the Son of Man, each year will come forth with promise, "crowned" with His "goodness.")

12 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills rejoice on every side. (Even the "wilderness" parts of the Earth will rejoice with great blessing, and "on every side.")

13 The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing. (The Hebrew Text is very emphatic, and actually says, "They shall most certainly sing."

This 65th Psalm is one of David's greatest songs of blessing. It was, no doubt, later sung many times by the great choirs at the Temple in anticipation of the coming Glory. It should be sung by every Child of God presently; it definitely will be sung by every Child of God tomorrow.)

CHAPTER 66

THE WRITER IS UNKNOWN: A SONG OF PRAISE AND WORSHIP

[1] Make a joyful noise unto God, all you lands (this Psalm will be sung by Israel and the Messiah at the opening of the Millennium)**:

[2] Sing forth the honour of His Name: make His praise glorious. (The "Name" of the Lord Jesus Christ has never been honored in the Earth. Actually, it was never even honored by Israel, but, in fact, was blasphemed. Now, at long last, at the beginning of the great Kingdom Age, the "Name" of the Messiah will be honored all over the world, and all men will sing His praises. The "Glory of His Name" will be universal.)

[3] Say unto God, How terrible are You in Your Works! through the greatness of Your Power shall Your enemies submit themselves unto You. (The word "terrible" has reference to the "greatness of Your Power." The Lord is not just mighty, but Almighty. Due to this "Power," all "enemies" on the Earth will "submit themselves unto Him.")

[4] All the Earth shall worship You, and shall sing unto You; they shall sing to Your Name. Selah. (This speaks of the coming Kingdom Age, which will be a time of universal praise and universal worship.)

[5] Come and see the Works of God: He is terrible in His doing toward the children of men (in the coming Kingdom Age, the topic of conversation on every tongue, and all over the world, will be "the Works of God")**.

[6] He turned the sea into dry land: they went through the flood on foot: there did we rejoice in Him (the sense of this Verse is that if one doubts what God will do in the future, one should look back at what He has done in the past)**.

7 He rules by His Power forever; His eyes behold the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah. (Let every nation realize that God rules in the affairs of men. His Way will ultimately triumph. "Let not the rebellious" think that they can overcome Him.)

8 O bless our God, you people, and make the voice of His praise to be heard (is His praise heard from your lips? From your Church?)**:

9 Which holds our soul in life, and suffers not our feet to be moved ("holding our soul in life" means the preserving of our Salvation)**.

10 For You, O God, have proved us: You have tried us, as silver is tried (Faith must be tested, and great Faith must be tested greatly; it is absolutely necessary for our consecration)**.

11 You brought us into the net; You laid affliction upon our loins (at times affliction is necessary in order to bring us to the place spiritually that we ought to be)**.

12 You have caused men to ride over our heads; we went through fire and through water: but You brought us out into a wealthy place. ("Some through the waters and some through the flood, some through the fire, but all through the Blood!" But it's worth it to be brought to the "wealthy place.")

13 I will go into Your House with Burnt Offerings: I will pay You my vows (every Believer must be brought to Calvary, in that he understands that everything that comes to him from the Lord comes exclusively through Christ as the Source and the Cross as the means; the "Burnt Offerings" are symbolic of the Cross)**,

14 Which my lips have uttered, and my mouth has spoken, when I was in trouble (our "lips" must ever speak of the price that He paid, which alone has given us victory over the "trouble" of sin)**.

15 I will offer unto You Burnt Sacrifices of fatlings, with the incense of rams; I will offer bullocks with goats. Selah. (All are symbolic of Calvary, which alone opens the door. The only way to God the Father is through Christ [Jn. 14:6]. The only way to Christ is through the Cross. And the only way to the Cross is by denial of self [Lk. 9:23–24].)

16 Come and hear, all you who fear God, and I will declare what He has done for my soul *(the greatest witness in the world is a redeemed soul giving a testimony to others, telling what the Lord has done for them).

17 I cried unto Him with my mouth, and He was extolled with my tongue *(our "tongue" should be used always to praise the Lord, and never used for slander or gossip).

18 If I regard iniquity in my heart, the LORD will not hear me *(the reason most prayers are never heard and answered is because individuals will not confess the sin that lurks within their hearts and repent of it being there):

19 But verily God has heard me; He has attended to the voice of my prayer *(the writer is saying that God has heard him, proving that he had not held on to, or loved, iniquity in his heart).

20 Blessed be God, which has not turned away my prayer, nor His Mercy from me *(the channel to God can only be kept open if we depend on Calvary and forsake all sin, as the Lord lives in us [Gal. 2:20]).

THE WRITER IS UNKNOWN: LET ALL THE PEOPLE PRAISE YOU

[1] God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause His Face to shine upon us; Selah. (The "shining of God's Face upon us" is one of the most beautiful Passages found in the Bible. It signifies the Blessings of God upon the person or the people in question.)

[2] That Your Way may be known upon Earth, Your saving health among all nations. (The Prophetic Doctrine that the Salvation of the world depends upon the Restoration of Israel [Rom., Chpt. 11] is repeated in the last two Verses, as it is affirmed in these first two Verses. This repetition emphasizes its importance.)

[3] Let the people praise You, O God; let all the people praise You (as prosperity covers the entirety of the Earth, and in every capacity, and we speak of the Kingdom Age, all the people will then definitely praise the Lord)**.

[4] O let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for You shall judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon Earth. Selah. (Many nations of the world presently are in deep poverty. All of that will change when Jesus rules and reigns Personally from Jerusalem.)

[5] Let the people praise You, O God; let all the people praise You. (This is a repetition of Verse 3, given by the Holy Spirit in a double manner that all may know the significance that God places on His people praising Him.

At this time, only a very small number of people throughout the Earth praise the Lord. In fact, only a small number in the Church praise the Lord. In the Millennial Kingdom, the entirety of the Earth ["all people"] shall "praise You.")

6 Then shall the Earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, shall bless us. (A most remarkable revelation is given to us in this Passage. Much of the world presently is plagued by drought, famine, and starvation.

With Israel in her proper place, and the kingdoms of this world praising the Lord, "then will the 'Earth yield her increase,'" and there will be abundance for all!)

7 God shall bless us; and all the ends of the Earth shall fear Him. (To use an old Pentecostal phrase, "It's Blessing Time!")

CHAPTER 68

A PSALM OF DAVID: A SONG OF TRIUMPH

[1] Let God arise, let His enemies be scattered: let them also who hate Him flee before Him. (This statement, originated by the Holy Spirit through Moses [Num. 10:35], was used by David as he composed the entirety of this Psalm, which was more than likely sung as the Ark was being brought into Jerusalem. The Ark of the Covenant represented the Presence of God, which was reached only through the Cross, represented by the Brazen Altar. All "enemies" flee before the shed Blood of Christ [Eph. 2:13–18].)

[2] As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: as wax melts before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the Presence of God. (The "Presence of God," here represented by the Ark, is the key to all things. This can be had only as the Believer places his Faith and trust exclusively in Christ and what Christ did at the Cross, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work. The Holy Spirit will respond to nothing else, only the Cross [Rom. 8:1–2, 11].)

[3] But let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before God: yes, let them exceedingly rejoice. (The "righteous" need have no fear of Satan providing the "Presence of God" is present. Let us state it again:

We must ever realize that Christ is always the Source, while the Cross is always the Means.)

[4] Sing unto God, sing praises to His Name: extol Him Who rides upon the heavens by His Name JAH, and rejoice before Him. (According to the Psalms, Spirit-anointed music is the highest form of praise there is.

"JAH" is an abbreviation of Jehovah, the Self-Existent One – He Who is, and was, and is to come. This is the only place in the Bible that this name is used in this fashion.)

5 A Father of the fatherless, and a Judge of the widows, is God in His Holy Habitation. (This tells us that this Almighty God, in His distant Habitation, and in the sinless essence of His Being, is a Father of the fatherless and a Guardian of the widow. As well, He restores and enriches rebellious sinners, if they will only yield to Him.)

6 God sets the solitary in families: He brings out those which are bound with chains: but the rebellious dwell in a dry land. (The word "solitary" means singular, or one. In the Hebrew, the word is "yachid," which means that the one will unite.

God oftentimes has one person in a family who is serving Him; consequently, the Salvation of the entirety of the family is dependent upon that one person.

If the light is given by the solitary one, and it is rebuked, the Lord says, "The rebellious shall dwell in a dry land.")

7 O God, when You went forth before Your People, when You did march through the wilderness; Selah (David recalls the wilderness experience)**:

8 The Earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the Presence of God: even Sinai itself was moved at the Presence of God, the God of Israel (this Passage is a clear reference to the time when Israel received the Law at Sinai [Ex. 19:16–25])**.

9 You, O God, did send a plentiful rain, whereby You did confirm Your inheritance, when it was weary (this refers to the Manna and the quails "raining" upon Israel from Heaven, and the water which flowed for them from the Smitten Rock)**.

10 Your congregation has dwelt therein: You, O God, have prepared of Your goodness for the poor (without God, Israel, while in the wilderness, was "poor" indeed; but God had "prepared" for them)**.

11 The Lord gave the Word: great was the company of those who published it (the "Word" that is spoken of here concerns the Law given on Mount Sinai; it has been "published" ever since)**.

12 Kings of armies did flee apace: and she who tarried at home divided the spoil. (This speaks of the conquest of the Promised Land by Joshua. More so, even as the previous Verses, it speaks of the Coming of the Lord at the Battle of Armageddon. The Antichrist will attempt to "flee." Israel will then "divide the spoil." The Prophet Zechariah said: "The wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together" [Zech. 14:14].)

13 Though you have lien among the pots, yet shall you be as the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with yellow gold. (The idea here is that Israel, who had been living in slavery in Egypt, would come forth as a beautiful dove covered with silver and with feathers tipped in gold.

The greater fulfillment will be in the Millennial Reign in her future restoration as the head of all nations on Earth. This thrown-away "pot" will come to Jesus and be saved, and will finally realize her place and position, but only in Christ.)

14 When the Almighty scattered kings in it, it was white as snow in Salmon (the sense of this terminology, even as it speaks of Israel's victories under Joshua, even more so pertains to the Lord dispersing the armies of Israel's enemies during the Battle of Armageddon; the scattering of these armies will be like snowflakes driven by a storm against the dark wooded slopes of Mount Salmon near Shechem)**.

15 The hill of God is as the hill of Bashan; an high hill as the hill of Bashan. (In this Passage, God is laying claim to Israel as His Land. He calls it "the Hill of God." Because of this statement, the battle has raged from the time that God gave this land to Abraham. It rages even today. The Antichrist will attempt to take this "hill." He will fail!)

16 Why leap you, you high hills? this is the hill which God desires to dwell in; yes, the LORD will dwell in it forever. (This Land of Israel, referred to as "the Hill," is where God desires to dwell, and will do so forever. The Muslim world, and all of the world for that matter, should understand that. It belongs to Israel, not the Arabs.)

17 The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of Angels: the Lord is among them, as in Sinai, in the Holy Place. (This speaks of the Coming of the Lord Jesus Christ [Rev., Chpt. 19]. If we are to take this Passage literally, it means that there will be over 20 million "chariots of God" occupied by Angels involved in the Second Coming. It further says, "The Lord will be among them.")

18 You have ascended on high, You have led captivity captive: You have received gifts for men; yes, for the rebellious also, that the LORD God might dwell among them. (Paul quoted this Scripture in Ephesians 4:8–10. It refers to Christ just before His Resurrection going down into Paradise and liberating all the Old Testament Saints, who, in fact, had been held captive by Satan, hence the term "have led captivity captive," and taking all of them with Him to Glory. Now, when a Believer dies, instead of being taken to the heart of the Earth, which was the destination before the Cross, he is now instantly taken to Heaven, and all because of the Cross [Ps. 16:10; Mat. 12:40; Heb. 2:14–15; Lk. 16:19–31; II Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21–24; Rev. 6:9–11].)

19 Blessed be the LORD, who daily loads us with benefits, even the God of our Salvation. Selah. (Every single "benefit" comes to us by the means of the Cross, with Christ as the Source.)

20 He Who is our God is the God of Salvation; and unto God the Lord belong the issues from death. (Two things are here said: (1) Only the Lord can save. (2) Only the Lord can redeem man from spiritual "death.")

21 But God shall wound the head of His enemies, and the hairy scalp of such an one as goes on still in his trespasses. (This was done at the Cross of Calvary [Col. 2:14–15].)

22 The LORD said, I will bring again from Bashan, I will bring My People again from the depths of the sea (this speaks of the regathering of Israel at the beginning of the Kingdom Age)**:

23 That your foot may be dipped in the blood of Your enemies, and the tongue of Your dogs in the same (this speaks of the Battle of Armageddon, when the great Gentile armies will be defeated, along with the Antichrist, referred to as "dogs").

[24] They have seen Your goings, O God; even the goings of my God, my King, in the Sanctuary (when the world government under Christ is set up in Jerusalem at the beginning of the Kingdom Age, the entire world will "know" and "see").

[25] The singers went before, the players on instruments followed after; among them were the damsels playing with timbrels. (When David wrote this Psalm, and when it was sung as the Ark was being brought into Jerusalem, he was referring to the worship of the "singers" and the "musicians."

In its greater fulfillment, it refers to the Lord Jesus Christ going into Jerusalem, possibly even through the Eastern Gate. This will be at the beginning of the Millennial Reign. It will be a time of such rejoicing as the world has never seen before.)

[26] Bless you God in the congregations, even the Lord, from the fountain of Israel. (This simply has reference to Israel's praising God as a nation. They will then finally accept Jesus Christ as Messiah. Then "the fountain of Israel" will bubble forth with praises of the Lord.)

[27] There is little Benjamin with their ruler, the princes of Judah and their council, the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali. (As David sings this song while watching the Ark of God being carried on the shoulders of the Priests into Jerusalem, his eyes scan the representatives of the various Tribes.

The greater fulfillment will be when Jesus Christ, the Greater Son of David, comes into Jerusalem to begin the one-thousand-year Millennial Reign. All the Tribes, in fact, will be there.

Incidentally, Benjamin was the least of the Tribes and the last on the jasper stone of Aaron's Breastplate; however, jasper is the first stone in the foundations of the Holy City [Rev. 21:19].)

[28] Your God has commanded Your strength: strengthen, O God, that which You have wrought for us. (When David wrote these words, Israel, as commanded by God, was well on its way to becoming the premier nation on the face of the Earth. However, the prophetical meaning of this Passage is the greater blessing of Israel in the Millennial Reign.)

[29] Because of Your Temple at Jerusalem shall kings bring presents unto You. (When David wrote these words, the Temple had not yet been built. When it would be built by Solomon, David's son, kings from all over the world would bring presents to Solomon.

The greater fulfillment will be when representatives from all nations in the world come to Jerusalem to bring "presents" to the Lord Jesus Christ. Solomon was a Type of the Greater than Solomon.)

[30] Rebuke the company of spearmen, the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the people, till every one submit himself with pieces of silver: scatter You the people who delight in war. (The future supremacy of Israel over all Earthly monarchs is compared here, as in Daniel, to wild beasts, and predicted in the last stirring stanza of this song [Vss. 28–35]. Then, because of the Almighty Power of Jesus Christ, the nations of the world will be "rebuked.")

[31] Princes shall come out of Egypt; Ethiopia shall soon stretch out her hands unto God. (All of this happened in a measure during the reign of Solomon. It will happen on a worldwide basis when the Greater than Solomon reigns in Jerusalem.)

[32] Sing unto God, you kingdoms of the Earth; O sing praises unto the Lord; Selah (in view of the great happenings which will take place all over the world in the Millennial Reign, all the "kingdoms of the Earth" will "sing unto God," and rightly so!)**:

[33] To Him Who rides upon the heavens of heavens, which were of old; lo, He does send out His Voice, and that a mighty Voice (the meaning of the Verse is that, as God has reigned supreme within the heavens, He will then reign supreme upon the Earth; His "mighty Voice" will be heard in every nation of the world).

34 Ascribe you strength unto God: His excellency is over Israel, and His strength is in the clouds (the idea is, God has the strength to do what He has promised, and that He will do).

35 O God, You are terrible out of Your Holy Places: the God of Israel is He Who gives strength and Power unto His People. Blessed be God. (Not only is God great in His "Holy Places," but, as well, He will show the world that He is great in every facet of life and living, irrespective as to what it might be.)

CHAPTER 69

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE SUFFERING SERVANT

[1] Save me, O God; for the waters are come in unto my soul. (Eight quotations from the New Testament establish the relationship of this Psalm to the Messiah [Mat. 27:34; Mk. 15:23; Jn. 2:17; 15:25; 19:29; Rom. 11:9; 15:3; II Cor. 6:2]. The voice is, therefore, that of the Man of Sorrows, excepting Verses 22–28, which record the prediction of the Holy Spirit of temporary wrath upon Israel because of its supreme sin in the Crucifixion of their King and Redeemer [Rom. 11:9–12].

The Psalm throbs with unspeakable agony. Jesus at Calvary, as the great Trespass Offering, restored that which He took not away, that is, He perfectly restored to God the love and obedience of which man had robbed God, at the same time He voluntarily charged Himself with man's foolishness and guiltiness, and called them His Own, thereby declaring Himself to be the guilty Person.)

[2] I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me. (David is speaking of the terrible difficulties that his failure regarding Bath-sheba has brought upon him. From these Passages, we understand the horror of sin. Truly the words, "deep mire," perfectly describe sin. There is no way that one can extricate himself from such without the Power of God. In fact, only the Cross can extricate one from the "deep mire.")

[3] I am weary of my crying: my throat is dried: my eyes fail while I wait for my God. (All of us, at one time or the other, have failed God. Our concern and attitude certainly should be the same as David's. This speaks of true Repentance.)

[4] They who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head: they who would destroy me, being my enemies wrongfully, are mighty: then I restored that which I took not away. (This is quoted by Christ in St.

John 15:25. He, through His death on Calvary, "restored" that which man lost by his rebellion against God. Because of sinful hearts, men hated him "without a cause.")

5 O God, You know my foolishness; and my sins are not hid from You. (Even though David uttered these words, it more so points to Christ in His Intercessory Work, Who takes our sins as His Own and prays to the Father for us, as though He is asking for Mercy and Pardon for His Own sin, when in fact He has never sinned. Actually, when one reads these Psalms, one is reading the Intercessory Work of Christ. These words stand for time and eternity, meaning that Christ does not presently have to say anything else. His very Presence at the Throne of God guarantees that His Intercession is accepted by the Father, all on our behalf [Heb. 1:3; 7:25–27].)

6 Let not them who wait on You, O Lord GOD of Hosts, be ashamed for my sake: let not those who seek You be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel. (The meaning of Verses 6 and 7 is that God's abandonment, so to speak, of His Beloved Son at Calvary might upset the faith of those who confide in God for Deliverance from human or Satanic hatred. He prayed that they might understand that He, as the Trespass Offering, should be so forsaken.)

7 Because for Your sake I have borne reproach; shame has covered my face. (Bearing the sin penalty on the Cross, our Lord suffered untold reproach and shame.)

8 I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's children. (This Prophecy refutes the lie of the Catholic Church that Mary had no other children but Christ. The Gospels are replete with the fact that His Own "Brethren" [His half-brothers] did not believe in Him, at least before the Cross [Jn. 7:5].)

9 For the zeal of Your House has eaten me up; and the reproaches of them who reproached You are fallen upon me. (Our Lord quoted this Passage in St. John 2:17. All the rebellion of the evil hearts of men against God was directed at the Lord Jesus Christ.)

10 When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach. (Even though all of these Passages refer to David in some manner, their basic intent is to portray Christ. No human being ever suffered the "reproach" that Christ suffered, not even remotely so!)

11 I made sackcloth also my garment; and I became a proverb to them. (There is no record that Christ literally wore "sackcloth"; therefore, this Passage proclaims that which Christ gave up and became for lost humanity. It is referred to as the self-emptying of Christ [Phil. 2:5–8].)

12 They who sit in the gate speak against me; and I was the song of the drunkards. (The short phrase, "sit in the gate," speaks of those who held positions of authority. Ridicule was heaped upon David, because of the incident with Bath-sheba. But with Christ there was no wrong, and yet the religious leaders of Israel spoke vehemently against Him, and they did all within their power to make the Name of Christ a reproach until it was "the song of the drunkards.")

13 But as for me, my prayer is unto You, O LORD, in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of Your Mercy hear me, in the truth of Your Salvation. (This speaks of David as a Type of Christ. Both, David and Christ, cried to God incessantly. David, as a Type of Christ, knew that God was his only hope. The Greater Son of David would likewise cry to God for leading and guidance.

This should be an example to us. God is the only One Who can protect us and can, in fact, change our situation, whatever it might be.)

14 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: let me be delivered from them who hate me, and out of the deep waters. (David is speaking in this Passage of the terrible "mire" of sin he has fallen into, regarding Bath-sheba. His enemies, of which he seemed to have many, greatly used this as a weapon against him.

The same could be said for Christ in an even greater way, except He committed no sin; however, He would so much take our sin upon Himself, becoming one with its penalty, that He would suffer the full effects of its horror, even though He Himself never failed even one time.)

15 Let not the waterflood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me. (This terminology inspired by the Holy Spirit is a perfect picture of the efforts of Satan to destroy an individual. These Passages could well apply to the horror of Gethsemane, when Satan attempted to kill Christ before He could go to the Cross. Only God's intervention saved His Life [Lk. 22:43–44].)

16 Hear me, O LORD; for Your Lovingkindness is good: turn unto me according to the multitude of Your tender Mercies. (The Hebrew word translated "Lovingkindness" means "Grace," and as "tender Mercies," it signifies the same tender affection that mothers show their offspring. If it is to be noticed, it is used quite often in the Psalms.)

17 And hide not Your face from Your servant; for I am in trouble: hear me speedily. (The only relief from "trouble" is for the Believer to express Faith in Christ and the Cross, which will then give the Holy Spirit the latitude to apply the Word and its effect to your heart and life.)

18 Draw near unto my soul, and redeem it: deliver me because of my enemies. (Anyone who is truly called of God will experience the opposition of these "enemies." These will come from three sources: the world, the apostate Church, and demon spirits.)

19 You have known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour: my adversaries are all before You. (Most of the adversaries against Christ were those of the religious leaders of His day.)

20 Reproach has broken my heart; and I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none. (This spoke of David, but far more of Christ. It probably refers to His trial and the terrible ordeal on the Cross. He actually died of a "broken heart" [Jn. 19:34].)

21 They gave me also gall for my meat; and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink. (This was fulfilled at the Crucifixion [Mat. 27:48]. It must be remembered that those who did this were not the drunks, the thieves, or the harlots who nailed Christ to a Cross, but, instead, it was the religious leaders of that day. Regrettably, it has not changed from then until now.)

22 Let their table become a snare before them: and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap. (The "table" that is referred to here is actually that which the Lord prepares for His Own [Psalm 23]. Judas did not want the "table" that the Lord had prepared; he desired another "table." It would become a "snare." Along with Judas, this also speaks of the Priests who opposed Christ, and most did!)

23 Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not; and make their loins continually to shake. (They refused "light," so now they will have "darkness." This "darkness" will bring a fear that will cause them "continually to shake." And so it did!)

24 Pour out Your indignation upon them, and let Your wrathful anger take hold of them. (Judas committed suicide, as did Caiaphas, the High Priest. Also, Jerusalem, some thirty-seven years later [A.D. 70], was totally destroyed by the Roman army.)

25 Let their habitation be desolate; and let none dwell in their tents. (This was quoted about Judas in Acts 1:20. It was also quoted in part by Christ concerning Israel and Jerusalem [Lk. 13:34–35].)

26 For they persecute Him whom You have smitten; and they talk to the grief of those whom You have wounded. (The Father Himself smote the Son, which speaks of the Cross [Isa. 53:4].

27 Add iniquity unto their iniquity: and let them not come into Your Righteousness. (This speaks of Judas and the religious leaders of Israel blaspheming the Holy Spirit. They added this "iniquity unto their iniquity.")

28 Let them be blotted out of the Book of the living, and not be written with the righteous. (This proves that names can be blotted out of the Book of Life. The same thing is said in other places of the Bible, as well [Ex. 32:33; Rev. 3:5; 22:19]. That this is the Book of Life is clear from the fact that it is the Book wherein the names of the righteous are written.)

[29] But I am poor and sorrowful: let Your Salvation, O God, set me up on high. (The religious leaders of Israel would not set Christ "on high," meaning they would not recognize Him for Who He actually was; however, the Father most definitely did "set Him upon high.")

[30] I will praise the Name of God with a song, and will magnify Him with thanksgiving. (David was noted for praising the Name of the Lord "with a song." As well, Jesus and His Disciples sang a song at the Last Supper [Mat. 26:30].)

[31] This also shall please the LORD better than an ox or bullock that has horns and hoofs. (David is saying that praise to the Name of the Lord in song and thanksgiving pleases the Lord better than animal sacrifices. In a greater measure, it speaks of the Greater Sacrifice of Christ on the Cross, which was better than animal sacrifices.)

[32] The humble shall see this, and be glad: and your heart shall live that seek God. (Even though the "humble" refers to all Believers in a general sense, even more so it speaks of Christ.)

[33] For the LORD hears the poor, and despises not His prisoners. (The word "poor" refers to Christ. "His prisoners" refer to those who follow Him. The Lord will always hear Christ, and those who follow Him will never be "despised by God.")

[34] Let the Heaven and Earth praise Him, the seas, and everything that moves therein. (The One Who is called "humble" and "poor" will ultimately see the entirety of the heavens and the Earth praising Him. This will be fulfilled in the Millennial Reign, and forever.)

[35] For God will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah: that they may dwell there, and have it in possession. (This speaks of the coming Kingdom Age. As well, it tells us, by the use of the word "Zion," which is strictly Jewish, that the Land of Israel belongs to the Jews, and not to the Arabs. It is their possession, and given to them by the Lord [Gen. 17:19, 21].)

36 The Seed also of His Servants shall inherit it: and they who love His Name shall dwell therein. (Here, Jesus is called "the Seed." Paul wrote, "And to thy Seed, which is Christ" [Gal. 3:16]. At the beginning of the Kingdom Age, the dispute concerning the Land of Israel will forever end. "The Lord Jesus Christ shall inherit it.")

CHAPTER 70

A PSALM OF DAVID: A CRY FOR HELP

[1] Make haste, O God, to deliver me; make haste to help me, O LORD. (The majority of this Psalm is almost identical to Verses 13–17 of Psalm 40. The theme of that in the Fortieth Psalm is the Messiah's Personal sufferings in His First Advent; that of this Psalm, His sympathetic sufferings with His People immediately prior to His Second Advent.)

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded who seek after my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, who desire my hurt. (Israel will cry these words in the closing days of the Tribulation [the time of Jacob's Trouble]. In effect, the Son of David, as portrayed here, will have already prayed this prayer on their behalf. This Second Verse will be fulfilled at the Second Coming.)

[3] Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame who say, Aha, aha. (During the Battle of Armageddon, the Antichrist will think surely that victory is within his grasp; however, he will be put to "shame" at the Coming of the Lord Jesus.)

[4] Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You: and let such as love Your Salvation say continually, Let God be magnified. (This refers in general to anyone who would "seek the Lord." It refers more pointedly to Israel in the last days when they will, at long last, "seek God.")

[5] But I am poor and needy: make haste unto me, O God: You are my Help and my Deliverer: O LORD, make no tarrying. (The words, "make no tarrying," refer to the Battle of Armageddon, when it seems as though all hope is gone. In fact, Israel's only hope at that time will be the Coming of the Messiah. He will hear this prayer and answer it.)

DAVID PROBABLY WROTE THIS PSALM: A PRAYER FOR GOD'S HELP IN OLD AGE

[1] In You, O LORD, do I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion. (Even though there is no proof of the authorship of this Psalm, however, there is a good possibility that it was given to David for the purpose of refreshing his heart during the dark days of Absalom's rebellion. It must also have refreshed the heart of the Greater Son of David when He was suffering man's hatred, and it will feed the faith of Israel in the future and darkest day of her history.)

[2] Deliver me in Your Righteousness, and cause me to escape: incline Your ear unto me, and save me. (This seems to be language that David would have used at the time of Absalom's rebellion. It would refer at a later day to the Lord Jesus Christ, as well, and to Israel, who will face the Antichrist in the last days.)

[3] Be You my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: You have given commandment to save me; for You are my Rock and my Fortress. (Trust exclusively in the Lord guarantees the "Commandment" to save us. This Commandment cannot be abrogated by the powers of darkness. The reason is, God is a "Rock" and a "Fortress," and, as well, "my Rock" and "my Fortress.")

[4] Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man. (This is the cry of the true Israel, the Lord Jesus Christ, as He intercedes on behalf of His People, that they be delivered out of the hands of the Antichrist. To be sure, this prayer will most definitely be answered.)

[5] For You are my hope, O Lord GOD: You are my trust from my youth. (Once again, "trust" in God is the theme. Man can either "hope" in other men or "hope" in God. He cannot place "hope" in both.)

[6] By You have I been holden up from the womb: You are He Who took me out of my mother's bowels: my praise shall be continually of You. (This speaks of David and, as well, of the Incarnation of Christ. It also speaks of Israel, which was born from Sarah's womb.)

[7] I am as a wonder unto many; but You are my strong Refuge. (The meaning of this Verse is that due to David's, the Messiah's, and Israel's many enemies, it was "a wonder" that each survived. They did so because God was their "strong Refuge.")

[8] Let my mouth be filled with Your praise and with Your honour all the day. (David and the Messiah fulfilled this Passage in its entirety. Israel one day will fill her mouth with praise of the Lord Jesus Christ "all the day." As well, this should hold true for every Believer.)

[9] Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength fails. (Most particularly, this speaks of Israel in the last half of the Great Tribulation. At that time, her strength will fail. So, she pleads with God to not forsake her. The pleading is that God should not forsake her because of her great sin; therefore, God will not forsake her and will come to her rescue.)

[10] For my enemies speak against me; and they who lay wait for my soul take counsel together *(these "enemies" of David and the Messiah were all religious; the greater enemies of Israel are the Muslims, and all of that, of course, is religious; religion, which is man-devised, has ever been the nemesis of God),

[11] Saying, God has forsaken him: persecute and take him; for there is none to deliver him. (Absalom and his cohorts would say this of David because of the situation with Bath-sheba. Israel thought and said the same thing of Christ at His trial and Crucifixion. The Antichrist will say the same to Israel during the latter half of the Great Tribulation [Mat. 7:1–2].)

[12] O God, be not far from me: O my God, make haste for my help. (This cry came from David at the most critical time in his life, during Absalom's rebellion. This cry came from Christ, as well, while on the Cross. Prophetically, it will come from Israel during the Battle of Armageddon, when it seems that all is lost.)

[13] Let them be confounded and consumed who are adversaries to my soul; let them be covered with reproach and dishonour who seek my hurt. (This prayer was answered in totality. Absalom was killed, Israel was ultimately destroyed, and the Antichrist will be defeated and killed at the Battle of Armageddon by the Coming of the Lord.)

[14] But I will hope continually, and will yet praise You more and more. (In Psalms 70 and 71, the word "continually" is used three times: 1. "Say continually, let God be magnified" [Ps. 70:4]; 2. "Continually resort to my strong habitation," which is God [71:3]; and, 3. "But I will hope continually" [71:14].)

[15] My mouth shall show forth Your Righteousness and Your Salvation all the day; for I know not the numbers thereof. (The expression, "I know not the numbers," is a figure denoting infinitude [without number].)

[16] I will go in the strength of the Lord GOD: I will make mention of Your Righteousness, even of Yours only. (The Righteousness of Christ Alone is recognized by God, which is made possible to us through the Cross and our Faith in that Finished Work. All else is self-righteousness, which God can never accept [Gal. 2:21].)

[17] O God, You have taught me from my youth: and hitherto have I declared Your wondrous Works. (Of course, both David and the Messiah "declared" His "wondrous Works." Israel will also do this in the Kingdom Age.)

[18] Now also when I am old and greyheaded, O God, forsake me not; until I have shown Your strength unto this generation, and Your Power to everyone who is to come. (David most certainly said these words of himself, desiring strongly that he finish the work God had called him to do. But, its greater fulfillment pertains to Israel. She is now old, but the Lord is going to give her another opportunity, of which she will take full advantage, meaning that this prayer will be answered. In the coming Kingdom Age, Israel will "show the strength of the Lord to that generation.")

[19] Your Righteousness also, O God, is very high, Who has done great things: O God, who is like unto You! (The righteousness of man is very low. The righteousness of God "is very high." Men keep trying to earn their own righteousness, which is impossible, especially when it's free from God for the asking. Righteousness comes exclusively by Christ, with Him as the Source, but the Cross as the means. Simple Faith in what He has done for us at the Cross guarantees instant imputed Righteousness.)

[20] You, Who have showed me great and sore troubles, shall quicken me again, and shall bring me up again from the depths of the Earth. (This speaks of the Resurrection of Christ; because He lives, we shall live also [Rom. 6:3–5].)

[21] You shall increase my greatness, and comfort me on every side. (All of this applies to David, Christ, and Israel. It, as well, applies to every Christian.)

[22] I will also praise You with the psaltery, even Your Truth, O my God: unto You will I sing with the harp, O You Holy One of Israel. (This Passage gives further proof that David was the author. Music is an integral part of worship. In fact, music and singing present the highest form of praise.)

[23] My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing unto You; and my soul, which You have redeemed. (David says that he would sing of God's great redemptive power and more specifically about the Redemption of his own soul.)

[24] My tongue also shall talk of Your Righteousness all the day long: for they are confounded, for they are brought unto shame, who seek my hurt. (Either David said these words by faith concerning Absalom or else this latter portion was written after the defeat of Absalom. As well, they were “brought to shame” who sought the hurt of the Messiah. They will be brought to shame who seek the “hurt” of Israel in the Battle of Armageddon.)

A PSALM OF DAVID: PRAYER FOR SOLOMON

[1] Give the king Your Judgments, O God, and Your Righteousness unto the king's son. (The Lord gave David this Psalm when Solomon was appointed to the Throne, which would have been very shortly before David died.)

[2] He shall judge Your People with righteousness, and Your poor with judgment. (Solomon would do this, and, above all, the Greater than Solomon, of Whom Solomon was a type, will carry this forth in the coming Kingdom Age.)

[3] The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness. (This speaks of the coming Kingdom Age, when "righteousness shall cover the Earth, as waters cover the sea.")

[4] He shall judge the poor of the people, He shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor. (This speaks of Christ coming to the aid of the "'poor' and 'needy,'" which, in this case, is Israel, and defeating, on their behalf, the Antichrist, who is the oppressor.)

[5] They shall fear You as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations. (In effect, the coming Kingdom Age will never end [Ps. 89:29; Jer. 31:35–36].)

[6] He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass: as showers that water the Earth (the Blessings of Christ in the coming Kingdom Age will be abundant over the entirety of the Earth)**.

[7] In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endures (speaking of Solomon, who was a Type of Christ, but more particularly of Christ Himself)**.

[8] He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the Earth (this speaks of the entirety of planet Earth)**.

[9] They who dwell in the wilderness shall bow before Him; and His enemies shall lick the dust (the phrase, "shall lick the dust," is always a picture of complete submission of enemies)**.

[10] The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts (this happened in measure to Solomon, who was a Type of Christ; however, the type only pointed toward the future glory that will encompass the entirety of the Earth in the coming Kingdom Age)**.

[11] Yes, all kings shall fall down before Him: all nations shall serve Him. (This speaks of the coming Kingdom Age, when Christ will rule over the entirety of the world, and do so from Jerusalem [Ezek. 48:35].)

[12] For He shall deliver the needy when he cries; the poor also, and him who has no helper. (This speaks of Israel in her coming Restoration [Rom. 11:26].)

[13] He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy. (This will be the time that Israel accepts Christ as their Saviour and their Lord [Zech. 13:1].)

[14] He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence: and precious shall their blood be in His sight. (The "deceit and violence" will be practiced on Israel by the Antichrist and, in fact, by much of the world. But all will learn in that day just how precious before God is the blood of all of the Children of Israel.)

[15] And He shall live, and to Him shall be given the gold of Sheba: prayer also shall be made for Him continually; and daily shall He be praised. (This Prophecy was partially fulfilled when the queen of Sheba came to Solomon. It will be totally fulfilled in the coming Kingdom Age, when the Lord Jesus Christ will solve every problem, thereby making the world what it ought to be.)

16 There shall be an handful of corn in the Earth upon the top of the mountains; the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the Earth. (The idea is, a handful of seed will bring forth such a crop as to defy all description, thereby doing away with all hunger in the world, and on a grand scale.)

17 His Name shall endure forever: His Name shall be continued as long as the sun: and men shall be blessed in Him: all nations shall call Him blessed. (In Jesus Alone will this be done. This rules out Muhammad, Joseph Smith, and any other fake luminary.)

18 Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel, Who Only does wondrous things. (He always has done "wondrous things," and He always will do "wondrous things"!)

19 And blessed be His glorious Name forever: and let the whole Earth be filled with His Glory; Amen, and Amen. (Today the Earth is not filled with "His Glory." In that day, the Kingdom Age and forever, the entirety of the Earth, with no part excluded, will be filled with the "Glory" of Jesus Christ. A double "Amen" is given, proclaiming the certitude of its fulfillment.)

20 The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended. (More than likely, this was the last Psalm written by David. When the Psalms were organized, no doubt, the Holy Spirit inspired the placement of each Psalm. As previously stated, the 150 Psalms [songs] are comprised into five Books corresponding to the five Books of the Pentateuch. Each Psalm was placed exactly where the Holy Spirit desired it, irrespective of the order in which He inspired it to be written.)

THE LEVITICUS BOOK A PSALM OF ASAPH: THE PROSPERITY OF THE WICKED AND THEIR END

[1] Truly God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart. (This is the third Book of the Psalms, referred to as "The Leviticus Book." Its subject is the Sanctuary, as that of the first Book was the Blessed Man [Christ], and that of the second, Israel [His People].

Israel, as a worshipper in her future time of trouble, is the subject of this Book rather than the Messiah and the Remnant, which are that of the first two Books. Most definitely, God was good to Israel.)

[2] But as for me (Asaph), my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped. (Asaph was the leader of the choral worship under David [I Chron. 16:4–5]. So he held a very high spiritual position in Israel.)

[3] For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked. (Asaph, perplexed with the problem that the ungodly prosper and the children of the Kingdom suffer, learns the lesson that outside the Sanctuary, the mind is distracted and the heart fermented, but that inside, all is peace. Looking in confounds; looking out confuses; looking up comforts.

Asaph's problem was "self." Preoccupation with "self" always leads to spiritual distraction. Men have ever tried to improve self; men have ever failed. Even Christian man fails, when endeavoring to improve "self." "Self" can only be conquered when it is hidden in Christ [Jn. 14:20].)

[4] For there are no bands in their death: but their strength is firm. (When one becomes enamored with "self," then one's Spiritual Judgment becomes flawed. Asaph fell into the age-old trap. First of all, "prosperity" is not the purpose of Redemption; Salvation is.

Second, Asaph is wrong about the "death" of the wicked. It is anything but positive.)

5 They are not in trouble as other men; neither are they plagued like other men. (The truth is, the system of this world is not of God, but of Satan; consequently, the Child of God is constantly "plagued" by that system.

But considering that, still, the life of the follower of Christ is, by far, the most rewarding life there is. If there were no eternity, living for God would still be, by far, the greater choice.)

6 Therefore pride compasses them about as a chain, violence covers them as a garment. (Asaph is saying that "the wicked" constantly engage themselves in "violence," with few negative results. They are filled with "pride," and, instead of it bringing destruction, it seems to reward them.)

7 Their eyes stand out with fatness: they have more than heart could wish. (These statements show that Asaph has given this much thought. Due to his preoccupation with "self," Satan has made great inroads into his soul. One of Satan's greatest weapons is to make the Christian think that, by living for God, he is truly missing out. However, we must always remember that Satan is a liar and the father of lies. Actually, the opposite is true.)

8 They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily. (The speech of the wicked is lofty concerning how they will oppress people, and no harm seems to come to them.)

9 They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walks through the Earth. (Everything they say is in opposition to the Word of God. They boast of what they will do, evil as it may be, and they seem to be able to do it without hindrance.)

10 Therefore his people return hither: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them. (They cause men who have been converted from a life of covetousness to return to it.)

11 And they say, How does God know? and is there knowledge in the Most High? (In other words, they laugh at God, thinking they are getting by with their wickedness.)

12 Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches. (It is true that some of the ungodly "prosper" [financially], but, as a whole, it is not true. In fact, it is seldom true. Taking the whole world into consideration, for every one prosperous wicked man there are ten thousand who are the very opposite.)

13 Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocency. (Every attack that Satan levels against a Believer, irrespective of its direction, is for one purpose: to destroy the faith of the individual. In other words, Asaph is saying that there is no profit in living for God.

How wrong he is! The rewards of the wicked, such as they are, are fleeting and temporal. The rewards of the righteous are eternal.)

14 For all the day long have I been plagued, and chastened every morning. (The Lord is sorely displeased with complaints. This is the opposite of faith and appreciation for what the Lord has done for us. And yet, so many of us are guilty of this sin — thanklessness.)

15 If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend against the generation of Your children. (He knew that the evidence was against him. Wickedness was not profitable, and living for God is.)

16 When I thought to know this, it was too painful for me (now Asaph realizes he is wrong; he knows he is sliding down a path that leads only to destruction; still, he does not know the answer to his dilemma)**;

17 Until I went into the Sanctuary of God; then understood I their end. (How could the Sanctuary give him the answers? Because the Sanctuary is where God dwelt. Now, he no longer sees the alleged prosperity of the wicked, but the Glory of God. Then and only then do the flaws of the wicked become obvious. As well, when he sees the Lord, he no longer sees himself.)

18 Surely You did set them (the wicked) in slippery places: You cast them down into destruction. (On the surface, the road of the wicked may look prosperous; however, upon closer inspection, it is easy to see that it is "slippery." Being so, they will fall to their own "destruction.")

19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors. (Now Asaph begins to see what the situation really is. The wicked look as though they are so prosperous, and then, all of a sudden, they are bankrupt and "brought into desolation" — "as in a moment!"

Now he sees that all of their boasting and clamor against God is but a facade. In a moment, they are "utterly consumed with terrors.")

20 As a dream when one awakes; so, O Lord, when You awake, You shall despise their image. (At times, it may seem as though the Lord is asleep; however, after a short period, the Lord will "awake." Then He will intrude into their "evil dream.")

21 Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins. (Now that Asaph has seen the Lord, he has come under Holy Spirit conviction. He is "grieved," because of his sin. What he has done now dawns upon him, and he is cut to the core of his being.)

22 So foolish was I, and ignorant: I was as a beast before You. (The Holy Spirit causes Asaph to see that the direction he had been traveling was foolish indeed! In fact, one of the chief ministries of the Spirit is to smite with conviction. Were it not that, the Christian would too often get off course, and would not know how to get back on course.)

23 Nevertheless I am continually with You: You have held me by my right hand. (The Lord does not cast us off when we begin to go astray. Rather, He deals with us, speaks to us, and attempts to pull us back to the right direction. In doing so, He will literally, spiritually speaking, hold us by the hand.)

24 You shall guide me with Your counsel, and afterward receive me to Glory. (Asaph had previously been listening to the "counsel" of self-will. Now he tells the Lord, "I will listen to Your counsel." God's "counsel" is His Word.)

[25] Whom have I in Heaven but You? and there is none upon Earth that I desire beside You. (After seeing the Lord and receiving a fresh touch from Glory, he realizes that his Salvation is not money, place, or position, but Christ. He now knows that Christ satisfies all.)

[26] My flesh and my heart fails: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion forever. (When Asaph begins to lean on his own strength, which is woefully inadequate, he "fails." But now he realizes that "God is his strength." Also, he now knows that anything and everything he needs can be provided by God — "my portion forever.")

[27] For, lo, they who are far from You shall perish: You have destroyed all them who go a whoring from You. (He now fully sees the position of the wicked. They "shall perish.")

[28] But it is good for me to draw near to God: I have put my trust in the Lord GOD, that I may declare all Your Works. (Some bad things have happened, but some "good" is coming out of this, as well. His perilous situation has caused him to "draw near to God." Now, his "trust" is in the Lord, and not in the things of the world. Asaph vows that he will no longer talk about the prosperity of the wicked, but now will "declare all Your works." This should be a great lesson to us!)

CHAPTER 74

A PSALM OF ASAPH: THE DEVASTATION OF MOUNT ZION

[1] O God, why have You cast us off forever? why does Your anger smoke against the sheep of Your pasture? (The question is asked by the Psalmist concerning the anger of God against Israel. The "anger" was not without cause. Israel had repeatedly gone into deep sin and rebellion, and that despite the repeated efforts by the Lord to bring them to the Altar of Repentance. Then and only then did God's "anger smoke against the sheep of His pasture.")

[2] Remember Your congregation, which You have purchased of old; the rod of Your inheritance, which You have redeemed; this Mount Zion, wherein You have dwelt. (This Psalm could also refer to the Intercessory Ministry of Christ on behalf of His People. Little can the pleadings of the sinner, as sincere as they may be, assuage the terrible wrong that has been done against God. Coupled with contrition and humility must be Christ's Intercessory Work [Heb. 7:25]. In effect, everything the Believer receives from God comes through His Son, Christ Jesus, and the means is always the Cross. In fact, God cannot really bless poor fallen man, even though he is redeemed. He can only bless Christ within us.)

[3] Lift up your feet unto the perpetual desolations; even all that the enemy has done wickedly in the sanctuary. (This refers to "the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the Prophet, stand in the Holy Place" [Mat. 24:15], and refers to the Antichrist placing his image in the Jewish Temple at Jerusalem for the last three and a half years of the Great Tribulation.)

[4] Your enemies roar in the midst of Your congregations; they set up their ensigns for signs. (The word "ensigns" means "standard." It refers to the Antichrist's image that will be set up in the rebuilt Temple at Jerusalem [Dan. 8:9–14; 9:27; 11:45; Rev. 13:1–18; 14:9–11; 20:4–6].)

5 A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees. (Verses 5 and 6 are meant to contrast each other. Verse 5 refers to the building of the Temple. Verse 6 refers to its destruction.)

6 But now they break down the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers.

7 They have cast fire into Your Sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the Dwelling Place of Your Name to the ground. (The Lord, when foretelling the destruction of the Temple by the Romans, in substance repeated Verses 7 and 8 of this Psalm. They cast it down to the ground; they did not leave one stone upon another; and history says they also burned all the Synagogues in Israel [Lk. 21:6].)

8 They said in their hearts, Let us destroy them together: they have burned up all the Synagogues of God in the land. (This is the first mention of "Synagogues" in the Old Testament. It was a place of religious assemblies. Jesus preached extensively in the Synagogues in the first two years of His Earthly Ministry. By and large, He was banned from most, if not all, of the Synagogues during the last year of His public Ministry. Now it becomes somewhat obvious as to why God allowed them to be "burned.")

9 We see not our signs: there is no more any prophet: neither is there among us any who knows how long. (This refers to the time between Malachi and John the Baptist, when there was no Prophet for a period of approximately 400 years. Then, after the rejection of the Lord Jesus Christ, Who was the True Prophet, Israel has now gone for about 2,000 years with "no Prophet" and "no signs.")

10 O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme Your Name forever? (This Passage certainly had meaning concerning the destruction of Judah by Nebuchadnezzar, but much more so it refers to the Great Tribulation, when the Antichrist, as the "adversary," will "reproach." He, as no other, will "blaspheme" the Name of the Lord.)

out of Your bosom. (This prayer will be answered at the Battle of Armageddon, when God will take His "Right Hand" [the Lord Jesus Christ] out of His "bosom" and dethrone the Antichrist.)

12 For God is my King of old, working Salvation in the midst of the Earth. (Verses 12 through 17 proclaim by the Psalmist the greatness and glory of God. It is a plea for God to exert Himself and come to the rescue of His people.)

13 You did divide the sea by Your strength: You broke the heads of the dragons in the waters. (This refers to the great deliverance of Israel from Egyptian bondage, with the opening of the Red Sea. Here, the majesty of Egypt, "the dragons," was broken.)

14 You broke the heads of leviathan in pieces, and gave him to be meat to the people inhabiting the wilderness. (The word "leviathan" is a symbol for Satan. The language here is figurative of the defeat of Satanic powers.)

15 You did cleave the fountain and the flood: You dried up mighty rivers. (The first part of this Verse seems to refer to the water that came out of the Rock, when it was smitten by Moses [Ex. 17:6]. The latter portion refers to the drying up of the Jordan River when Joshua crossed with the Children of Israel into the Promised Land [Josh. 3:13–17].)

16 The day is Yours, the night also is Yours: You have prepared the light and the sun (proclaims the fact that God is the Creator of all things; as well, He also has the power to protect what He has created)**.

17 You have set all the borders of the Earth: You have made summer and winter. (This Verse refers to God making the seasons, such as summer and winter, which are eternal [Gen. 1:14–18; 8:22].)

18 Remember this, that the enemy has reproached, O LORD, and that the foolish people have blasphemed Your Name. (This speaks of those who have opposed the people of God down through the many centuries; however, its greater fulfillment will be when the Antichrist attempts to destroy Israel.)

[19] O deliver not the soul of Your turtledove unto the multitude of the wicked: forget not the congregation of Your poor forever. (Both statements, "Your turtledove" and "Your poor," refer to Israel. The Intercessor, Who now reverts from His role of Creator to that of pleading for His People, will ask the Father that they not be turned over to "the wicked." Paul called him "that wicked" [II Thess. 2:8] — the Antichrist.)

[20] Have respect unto the Covenant: for the dark places of the Earth are full of the habitations of cruelty. (The "Covenant" that is spoken of here refers to the Promises that were made to the Prophets of old. It is referred to by Christ in the Lord's Prayer, "Thy Kingdom come, Thy Will be done, in Earth as it is in Heaven" [Mat. 6:9–10].)

[21] O let not the oppressed return ashamed: let the poor and needy praise Your Name. (The plea is for the "oppressed" [Israel] to win this conflict with the Antichrist. Israel, as well, is referred to as "the poor" and "needy.")

[22] Arise, O God, plead Your Own cause: remember how the foolish man reproaches You daily. (There are two points made in this Verse; both are beautiful: 1. Israel's Advocate presses this condition of His People [poor and needy] as a reason why they should be delivered and 2. He identifies their interests with God; hence, their Advocate, the Lord Jesus Christ, calls on God to arise and plead His Own cause.)

[23] Forget not the voice of Your enemies: the tumult of those who rise up against You increases continually. (The clamor by the Antichrist will increase in intensity in the Battle of Armageddon. It seems there is no way he can lose, but lose he will, because the Lord will "arise and plead His Own cause" [Rev., Chpt. 19].)

CHAPTER 75

A SONG OF ASAPH: A WARNING TO THE WICKED

[1] Unto You, O God, do we give thanks, unto You do we give thanks: for that Your Name is near Your wondrous Works declare. (The speaker of this Verse is the Redeemed; the Messiah Himself is the Speaker in the remaining Verses. He is addressed as God. The expression, "Your Name is near," refers to His manifested appearance in His future Coming.)

[2] When I shall receive the congregation I will judge uprightly. (This speaks of the Second Coming, when the Lord will then set up His Government, which will cover the entirety of the Earth.)

[3] The Earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved: I bear up the pillars of it. Selah. (This predicts the termination in confusion and guilt of man's government, as well as the firm establishment of the Messiah's rule. The latter portion of this Verse speaks of all creations that are upheld by God through Christ [Heb. 1:3].)

[4] I said unto the fools, Deal not foolishly: and to the wicked, Lift not up the horn (eastern women once wore a protruding ornament on the forehead called "a horn"; as sons were born, the horn was raised, hence the expression, "to lift up the horn"; it means to become proud; it addresses itself to all who would be lifted up in pride, and specifically to the Antichrist)**:

[5] Lift not up your horn on high: speak not with a stiff neck. (The coming Antichrist will lift himself up greatly [II Thess. 2:4].)

[6] For promotion comes neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south. (The Antichrist will claim great things. In actuality, he will be able to do nothing, at least that is lasting. As well, if it is to be noticed, the "north" is not mentioned, proclaiming the fact that promotion does come from the north, which has to do with the direction of Heaven and, consequently, the Throne of God.)

7 But God is the Judge: He puts down one, and sets up another. (Regrettably, men, even in the modern Church, look to other men for promotion. They little remember that "God is the Judge." In effect, God is saying that He is the One Who will "lift up the horn," not man. If man does such, it will only breed pride. If God does such, it breeds humility.

In the strict interpretation of this Verse, it means that the Lord will "put down" the Antichrist, and "set up" the Lord Jesus Christ.)

8 For in the Hand of the LORD there is a cup, and the wine is red; it is full of mixture; and He pours out of the same: but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the Earth shall wring them out, and drink them. (This speaks of the judgment that is coming upon the Earth during the time of the Great Tribulation. Jesus said it would be worse than any time had ever been in history [Mat. 24:21].)

9 But I will declare forever; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob. (The Lord blessed Jacob, when, in fact, Jacob deserved nothing good; consequently, the beautiful phrase, "God of Jacob," tells us that the Lord will so honor anyone who will meet His conditions. Those conditions are Faith in Christ and what Christ did at the Cross [Lk. 9:23–24; Gal., Chpt. 5].)

10 All the horns of the wicked also will I cut off; but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted. (Evil will not take best; Righteousness will take best!)

A PSALM OF ASAPH: A SONG OF DELIVERANCE

[1] In Judah is God known: His Name is great in Israel. (At the time of the writing, God was known in "Judah." He is not known there now; however, He will be known there in the near future. As well, His Name will be "great in Israel."

Psalm 74 speaks of the enemy in the Sanctuary. Psalm 75 speaks of the Messiah in the Sanctuary. Psalm 76 speaks of Messiah's destruction of the haters of the Sanctuary. Its fulfillment belongs to the predictions of Zech., Chpts. 12 and 14, along with Rev., Chpt. 19, and other similar Prophecies.)

[2] In Salem also is His Tabernacle, and His Dwelling Place in Zion. ("Salem" is Jerusalem. "Zion" is where the Tabernacle was located, near where the Temple would later be built. God then dwelt in the Tabernacle in the Holy of Holies, between the Mercy Seat and the Cherubim. Due to the Cross, He now dwells in the hearts and lives of Believers [I Cor. 3:16].)

[3] There broke He the arrows of the bow, the shield, and the sword, and the battle. Selah. (This speaks of the Battle of Armageddon, when the Lord will break in pieces the weapons of the Antichrist [Ezek. 39:9].)

[4] You are more glorious and excellent than the mountains of prey. (Man must learn that God is greater than His creation. The Verse also speaks of the future days of the Antichrist, when he will invade Israel, taking it for "prey." He will there learn that God is more glorious in battle than in any other manner [Zech. 14:1–3].)

[5] The stouthearted are spoiled, they have slept their sleep: and none of the men of might have found their hands. (This Passage has a double meaning: 1. It speaks of the defeat of the Jebusites by God under David and 2. It speaks prophetically of the Antichrist, when he too will not be able to "find his hands," with his armies being defeated [Rev., Chpt. 19].

6 At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep. (This refers to both the Jebusites, whose army was slaughtered, and the Antichrist, whose armies will be slaughtered [Ezek. 39:11–29].)

7 You, even You, are to be feared: and who may stand in Your sight when once You are angry? (Once again, this refers to the Jebusites, and prophetically to the Antichrist. It says, "For the great day of His [God's] Wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?" [Rev. 6:17].)

8 You did cause judgment to be heard from Heaven; the Earth feared, and was still (this reveals that Israel had some difficulty in taking the stronghold of Zion from the Jebusites, and might not have done so if God had not helped; as well, it refers to His Second Coming, when half of Jerusalem will fall to the Antichrist [Zech., Chpt. 14])**,

9 When God arose to judgment, to save all the meek of the Earth. Selah. (The "meek of the Earth," refers to Israel when the Antichrist will seek to destroy them totally. At that time, God will "arise to judgment.")

10 Surely the wrath of man shall praise You: the remainder of wrath shall You restrain. (The "wrath of man" refers to the wrath of the Antichrist. "The remainder of wrath" refers to the Antichrist being halted in his efforts to destroy Israel and the subsequent dominion of the Earth by the Coming of the Lord [Rev., Chpt. 19].)

11 Vow, and pay unto the LORD your God: let all who be round about Him bring presents unto Him Who ought to be feared. (Under David and Solomon, this was partially fulfilled [II Chron. 9:13–14]. It will be completely fulfilled in the Millennial Reign, when Christ rules from Jerusalem [Zech. 14:14].)

12 He shall cut off the spirit of princes: He is terrible to the kings of the Earth. (This means that, in the days of the Millennial Reign, men will rule only under Christ. If they refuse to carry out His Commands, the price will be "terrible" [Zech. 14:16–19].)

A PSALM OF ASAPH: THE GREATNESS OF GOD

[1] I cried unto God with my voice, even unto God with my voice; and He gave ear unto me. (This Psalm has a double meaning: 1. It refers to any Believer who calls on the Lord and 2. It is a prophetic portrayal of Israel in the last half of the Great Tribulation, when it seems that she will be completely destroyed by the Antichrist. No doubt, Israel will refer repeatedly to this Psalm during that particular time.)

[2] In the day of my trouble I sought the LORD: my sore ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted. (Unfortunately, the modern Church is presently being taught to look elsewhere than to the Lord. But, let it be known, He Alone can help!)

[3] I remembered God, and was troubled: I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah. (The meaning of this Verse is that Asaph felt God could have prevented him from getting into this trouble and, therefore, he "complains." When he did so, his spirit "was overwhelmed." Complaining is never in the Will of God!)

[4] You hold my eyes waking: I am so troubled that I cannot speak. (Fear overwhelms him, and he registers doubt.)

[5] I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times. (Israel will, in the days of "Jacob's Trouble," do the same thing. They will remember God's opening of the Red Sea, the waters of Jordan, and the fighting of their battles. They will hunger for Him to do it again.)

[6] I call to remembrance my song in the night: I commune with my own heart: and my spirit made diligent search. (Asaph now begins to search his own heart.)

[7] Will the Lord cast off forever? and will He be favourable no more? (At times, the Lord allows such to take place, all designed to teach us Faith and Trust.)

[8] Is His Mercy clean gone forever? does His Promise fail for evermore? (This will be the thoughts of Israel at the latter half of the Great Tribulation. The Antichrist will have turned on her, and she faces extinction!)

[9] Has God forgotten to be gracious? has He in anger shut up His tender Mercies? Selah. (Preoccupation with self only leads to these questions and to doubt. When an individual comes to this place, doubt has degenerated to despair. As stated, Israel will cry these words in the last half of the Great Tribulation. Their only hope is God, but it seems as though the heavens are brass, and He will not answer.)

[10] And I said, This is my infirmity: but I will remember the years of the Right Hand of the Most High. (Here, the Psalmist ceases his dejected self-occupation, and becomes occupied with God. Consequently, his despondency vanishes. This is the only cure for misery and despair.

He first of all says, "I will remember," and speaks of the years of past blessings. He will account them and speak of them in his mind.)

[11] I will remember the Works of the LORD: surely I will remember Your Wonders of old. ("The Works of the LORD" pertain to the things that the Lord has done in one's life. These things are to be remembered and accounted.)

[12] I will meditate also of all Your Work, and talk of Your doings. (Not only are we to remember what the Lord has done, but we should meditate on it, and then, at every chance, talk about "Your doings." If we "talk" of God's doings, then we cannot talk of doubt and unbelief.

God's Word and Ways are timeless. As it worked for Asaph, it will work for anyone who will embark upon that which was tendered by the Holy Spirit.

1. Remember His ancient Works, and those done personally for us; 2. Meditate on His great Works; and, 3. Talk of His great Works.)

13 Your way, O God, is in the Sanctuary: Who is so great a God as our God? (Occupation of heart with others outside the Sanctuary and occupation of heart with self inside the Sanctuary both produce misery, but occupation of heart with God inside the Sanctuary gives comfort and victory. Despite our circumstances, "God is Great!")

14 You are the God Who does wonders: You have declared Your Strength among the people. (The "Strength of God" is gained by the Believer evidencing Faith in Christ and what Christ has done at the Cross [I Cor. 1:18].)

15 You have with Your arm redeemed Your People, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah. (As the Lord has redeemed His People in times past, He most definitely will do so during the time of the coming Great Tribulation. In fact, this is a Prophecy which says that He will.)

16 The waters saw You, O God, the waters saw You; they were afraid: the depths also were troubled. (This speaks of the Red Sea, and the Lord opening that body of water on behalf of His Children, when they were delivered out of Egypt [Ex. 14:21–31].)

17 The clouds poured out water: the skies sent out a sound: Your arrows also went abroad. (Due to the fact that the Lord delivered His People in ancient times, He will also do so at the Battle of Armageddon, to which this Verse pertains.)

18 The voice of Your thunder was in the heaven: the lightnings lightened the world: the Earth trembled and shook. (This, as well, refers to the coming Battle of Armageddon.)

19 Your Way is in the sea, and Your path in the great waters, and Your footsteps are not known. (The sense of this Passage is that as "footsteps" are not left in the sea, neither is the "Way" of God so easily tracked. God's "Way" is His Word. It is not man's way. Man does not understand it and, in fact, within himself, cannot understand it [Rom. 11:33].)

20 You led Your People like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

(The names, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, and Aaron, are significant. Moses and Aaron typify Christ as King and Priest. A flock thus doubly led is surely led. Jacob and Joseph [Vs. 15] express how doubly precious to God is the flock itself, because the sheep are the sons of these fathers so beloved of God.)

WRITTEN BY ASAPH: GOD'S DEALINGS WITH HIS PEOPLE ISRAEL

[1] Give ear, O my people, to my law: incline your ears to the words of my mouth. (Jesus called Asaph "a Prophet" [Mat. 13:35]. In fact, all who wrote the Psalms must be placed in that category.

This Verse presents an Old Testament command to obey the Law of Moses. In fact, the statement, "Give ear to my law," is found some 32 times in the Old Testament, but not once in the New. The reason is simple:

Jesus fulfilled all the Law, and Faith in Him and what He has done at the Cross makes Believers dead to the Law [Rom. 7:4].)

[2] I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old (this was quoted by Matthew concerning Christ [Mat. 13:35]. The puzzle here is not in the expression of mystery or in words hard to understand, but in great wonderment of how these many miraculous things happened to Israel. This Verse refers strictly to Christ)**:

[3] Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us (these great happenings, which God performed from the very beginning, were remembered, and then began to be written down by Moses [Lk. 24:27])**.

[4] We will not hide them from their children, showing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and His Strength, and His wonderful Works that He has done (the Holy Spirit is saying here that it is extremely important for parents to recount the "wonderful works of God" to "their children")**.

[5] For He established a Testimony in Jacob, and appointed a Law in Israel, which He commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children. (That the children should be taught the Word of God by the fathers was not a suggestion; it was a "command." The "Testimony in Jacob" was the Lord's Personal dealings with the Patriarch; He would change him from Jacob, the schemer, to Israel, the Prince with God.

The "Law in Israel" was that which was given by God to Moses.

Concerning these two things, Israel was to constantly relate them to their children. Incidentally, it was not a suggestion, but rather a command.)

6 That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children (a Move of God is actually limited to the present generation unless that generation proclaims the Truth to the coming generation)**:

7 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the Works of God, but keep His Commandments (this is the only way to a successful life and living)**:

8 And might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not stedfast with God (the idea is, if the children aren't properly taught, everything will be lost)**.

9 The children of Ephraim, being armed, and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle (he is probably speaking of the northern kingdom of Israel, which sometime went under the name of "Ephraim")**.

10 They kept not the Covenant of God, and refused to walk in His Law (this is the reason for the lack of victory regarding Ephraim, and it is the reason for the lack of victory now)**;

11 And forgot His Works, and His Wonders that He had shown them (these "works" and "wonders" were not properly shown and related to the children)**.

12 Marvelous things did He in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

13 He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and He made the waters to stand as an heap (the miracle of the Red Sea crossing).

14 In the daytime also He led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

15 He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths (the water out of the Rock).

16 He brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers (this means that this was no slight trickle that came out of the Rock, but rather a small river — enough to slake the thirst of some three million people, plus all of the animals).

17 And they sinned yet more against Him by provoking the Most High in the wilderness. (Miracles do not produce Faith; only the Word of God can produce Faith [Rom. 10:17]. During the time of Christ, Israel had the greatest array of miracles the world had ever known, but to no avail. They crucified their Lord!)

18 And they tempted God in their heart by asking meat for their lust (in other words, they were not satisfied with the Manna).

19 Yes, they spoke against God; they said, Can God furnish a table in the wilderness? (He could, and He did!)

20 Behold, He smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can He give bread also? can He provide flesh for His People? (Even though these people saw the miracle of bringing water out of the Rock, which was actually a Type of the great Eternal Life that Christ would provide for the whole world, still, these faithless people not only did not understand its meaning, but also held it with contempt.)

21 Therefore the LORD heard this, and was wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel (let it ever be understood that God cannot condone sin in His Chosen any more than He can in those who do not profess His Name);

22 Because they believed not in God, and trusted not in His Salvation (their sin was unbelief. It is, as well, the sin of the modern Church. I speak of a lack of Faith in Christ and the Cross):

23 Though He had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the doors of Heaven, 24 And had rained down Manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of Heaven.

25 Man did eat Angels' food: He sent them meat to the full (we are told here that the Manna was "Angels' food").

26 He caused an east wind to blow in the heaven: and by His Power He brought in the south wind.

27 He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea (the quail [Num. 11:20]):

28 And He let it fall (the quail) in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations.

29 So they did eat, and were well filled: for He gave them their own desire (if it is to be noticed, it was "their desire" and not God's);

30 They were not estranged from their lust. But while their meat was yet in their mouths,

31 The wrath of God came upon them, and killed the fattest of them, and smote down the chosen men of Israel. (Israel's lust and complaints angered God, so His wrath fell on them. We should allow this to be a lesson to us, as well.)

32 For all this they sinned still, and believed not for His wondrous Works. (Ultimately, they died in this wilderness, and never did see the Promised Land; all of this was because of unbelief.)

33 Therefore their days did He consume in vanity, and their years in trouble. (And unbelief was the reason!)

34 When He killed them, then they sought Him: and they returned and enquired early after God. (Sometimes it takes the Judgment of God to get people to repent.)

35 And they remembered that God was their Rock, and the high God their Redeemer. (Still, their attitude was to "use God" rather than to "serve God.")

36 Nevertheless they did flatter Him with their mouth, and they lied unto Him with their tongues. (What a foolish thing to do, considering that God knows the thoughts and hearts of men!)

37 For their heart was not right with Him, neither were they stedfast in His Covenant. (This was the problem. It was a "heart" problem. It was not a question of understanding or of knowledge. It was a question of "an evil heart of unbelief.")

38 But He, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yes, many a time turned He His anger away, and did not stir up all His wrath. (In this Passage, we are given a most beautiful description of the Love of God.)

39 For He remembered that they were but flesh; a wind that passes away, and comes not again. (In other words, the Lord knows the frailty of the flesh and, due to the fall of man, the constant pressure of the sin nature.)

40 How oft did they provoke Him in the wilderness, and grieve Him in the desert! (Actually, they provoked Him some ten times in approximately two years [Num. 14:22].)

41 Yes, they turned back and tempted God, and limited the Holy One of Israel. (We limit God when we fail to take Him at His Word.)

42 They remembered not His Hand, nor the day when He delivered them from the enemy. (The Holy Spirit is telling us that Israel had no faith, because they forgot the great miracles the Lord had performed for them in the past. Over and over again, the Holy Spirit admonishes us to constantly meditate and talk about the things He has done in the past. This is His Word; it builds faith [Ps. 77:10–12].)

43 How He had wrought His Signs in Egypt, and His Wonders in the field of Zoan (Verses 43 through 58 proclaim the great miracles and wonders of God performed in Egypt, as well as in the Promised Land)**:

44 And had turned their rivers into blood; and their floods, that they could not drink.

45 He sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them; and frogs, which destroyed them.

46 He gave also their increase unto the caterpillar, and their labour unto the locust. (This is what the Lord did to Egypt, because they refused to let God's People go.)

47 He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore trees with frost.

48 He gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to hot thunderbolts.

49 He cast upon them the fierceness of His anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by sending evil angels among them. (These were probably righteous Angels who carried out the intended results of God's "anger, wrath, indignation, and trouble," referred to as "evil.")

50 He made a way to His anger; He spared not their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence;

51 And smote all the firstborn in Egypt; the chief of their strength in the tabernacles of Ham:

52 But made His own People to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock. (The Holy Spirit, through Asaph, outlines the tender leading of Israel by Jehovah. In fact, He became their Shepherd.)

[53] And He led them on safely, so that they feared not: but the sea overwhelmed their enemies (the Red Sea).

[54] And He brought them to the border of His Sanctuary, even to this mountain, which His Right Hand had purchased (the Land of Israel).

[55] He cast out the heathen also before them, and divided them an inheritance by line, and made the Tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents (this Passage means that the Holy Spirit drew the boundaries in this Land for each particular Tribe).

[56] Yet they tempted and provoked the Most High God, and kept not His Testimonies:

[57] But turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitful bow (this is a bow which flips back and harms the person trying to shoot it).

[58] For they provoked Him to anger with their high places, and moved Him to jealousy with their graven images (upon arriving in the Promised Land, Israel quickly took upon herself the practices of the heathen round about her).

[59] When God heard this, He was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel (because of their sin):

[60] So that He forsook the Tabernacle of Shiloh, the Tent which He placed among men (the Lord could no longer live among Israel);

[61] And delivered His Strength into captivity, and His Glory into the enemy's hand (the Ark of God, for a period of time, was taken by the Philistines [I Sam. 4:11]).

[62] He gave His People over also unto the sword; and was wroth with His inheritance.

63 The fire consumed their young men; and their maidens were not given to marriage.

64 Their Priests fell by the sword; and their widows made no lamentation (Hophni and Phinehas fell by the sword and their widows made no lamentation; Phinehas' wife, when dying, bewailed the loss of the Ark more than the loss of her husband [I Sam. 4:17–18])**.

65 Then the Lord awaked as one out of sleep, and like a mighty man who shouts by reason of wine (this refers to the defeat of the Philistines by Israel [I Sam. 7:7–14])**.

66 And He smote His enemies in the hinder parts: He put them to a perpetual reproach.

67 Moreover He refused the Tabernacle of Joseph, and chose not the Tribe of Ephraim (the "Tabernacle of Joseph" is the Sanctuary at Shiloh, which was north of Bethel, and thus within the limits of the Tribe of Ephraim)**:

68 But chose the Tribe of Judah, the Mount Zion which He loved. (When a permanent site was to be assigned to the Tabernacle and the Ark, God did not choose for them the position of Shiloh, but rather that of Jerusalem. The choice was made when David was, by God's command, anointed to be king [I Sam. 16:1–12].)

69 And He build His Sanctuary like high palaces, like the Earth which He has established forever. (This was the place where the great Temple was ultimately built, with the plans given to David, but with David's son, Solomon, actually building the structure.)

70 He chose David also His servant, and took him from the sheepfolds (Saul was man's choice, while David was God's choice; He took David from humble beginnings; David started out by feeding sheep; he was promoted to feeding God's People)**:

71 From following the ewes great with young He brought him to feed

Jacob His People, and Israel His Inheritance.

72 So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart; and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands. (The Lord, through David, fed Israel, because David had "integrity of heart." However, the "integrity" that David had was God's integrity, and not man's.

Let it ever be known that only those who have God's "integrity" will be the shepherds that God desires, guiding God's sheep "by the skillfulness of His hands" — the Holy Spirit.)

A PSALM OF ASAPH: A PRAYER FOR THE DESTRUCTION OF HEATHEN ENEMIES

[1] O God, the heathen are come into Your inheritance; Your Holy Temple have they defiled; they have laid Jerusalem on heaps. (The Psalm has a triple meaning: 1. It speaks of the time when Nebuchadnezzar would take Jerusalem, destroying the Temple; 2. It refers to Titus, the Roman General, who destroyed Jerusalem and the Temple in A.D. 70; and, 3. It refers to the future Temple, which will be defiled by the Antichrist at the midway point of the Great Tribulation.)

[2] The dead bodies of Your servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of Your Saints unto the beasts of the Earth. (Daniel said that the Antichrist would "destroy the mighty and the holy people" [Dan. 8:24].)

[3] Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; and there was none to bury them.

[4] We are become a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to them who are round about us. (This happened in the past, and it will also happen in the future [Lam. 2:15–16].)

[5] How long, LORD? will You be angry forever? shall Your jealousy burn like fire? (These questions were, no doubt, asked many times in the past; however, they will be asked with even greater intensity during the latter half of the Great Tribulation, called "The Time of Jacob's Trouble" [Jer. 30:7].)

[6] Pour out Your wrath upon the heathen who have not known You, and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon Your Name (considering that Israel has a long history with Jehovah, she wonders as to why the Lord is not pouring out His wrath upon the heathen, who care not at all for Him?).

7 For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste His Dwelling Place (even though happening many times in the past, once again it refers to the coming Great Tribulation, when the Antichrist will lay waste Jerusalem and the Temple).

8 O remember not against us former iniquities: let Your tender Mercies speedily prevent us: for we are brought very low. (During the latter half of the Great Tribulation, two-thirds of the population of Israel will be killed [Zech. 13:8]. It will look as if they will be totally annihilated. They realize that they have sinned greatly in the past. They are now pleading with the Lord not to remember "their former iniquities." This is a true prayer of Repentance and one that Israel has seldom prayed. It is a prayer that will be heard and answered.)

9 Help us, O God of our Salvation, for the glory of Your Name: and deliver us, and purge away our sins, for Your Name's sake. (This moment, even though futuristic, is so holy that one is brought to tears even while reading the words.

As this will be the prayer of Israel during the Battle of Armageddon, likewise, it should be the prayer of the entirety of the modern Church. It is a prayer of true Repentance.)

10 Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God? let Him be known among the heathen in our sight by the revenging of the blood of Your servants which is shed. (And that's exactly what the Lord will do. It is called the "Second Coming"!)

11 Let the sighing of the prisoner come before You; according to the greatness of Your Power preserve You those who are appointed to die (the Lord will answer this prayer; Zechariah prophesied, "Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when He fought in the day of battle" [Zech. 14:3]);

12 And render unto our neighbours sevenfold into their bosom their reproach, wherewith they have reproached You, O Lord. (And that's exactly what will happen [Ezek. 38:18].)

13 So we Your People and sheep of Your pasture will give You thanks forever: we will show forth Your praise to all generations. (This Passage lets us know that the Prophecy given in this Psalm pertains more to the coming Great Tribulation and the Second Coming of the Lord. Then, Israel will truly give the Lord "thanks forever." They have never done that in the past. They will do so in the future!)

CHAPTER 80

A PSALM OF ASAPH: A PRAYER FOR RESTORATION

[1] Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, You Who led Joseph like a flock; You Who dwell between the Cherubims, shine forth. (The blessing of Joseph [Gen. 49:22–26] uses the figures of the "Shepherd" and the "Vine, whose fruitful branches run over the wall." Hence, the nation is here called Joseph, and the Messiah is addressed as its Shepherd. This Psalm, as the previous, delineates Israel's history and future.)

[2] Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh stir up Your Strength, and come and save us. (When the cloud was taken up from Israel in the wilderness, the Tribes journeyed. Following the Kohathites, who were bearing the Sanctuary and the Ark, came Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh. Accordingly, in this Psalm, they occupy this position in relation to the Ark. These Tribes were the Children of Rachel.)

[3] Turn us again, O God, and cause Your F ace to shine; and we shall be Saved. (In Ezekiel, we are told of the Glory of God departing from Jerusalem and the Temple [Ezek. 11:22–23]. Ezekiel also saw the Glory of God returning [Ezek. 43:1–5]. The latter will be during the opening days of the Millennial Reign.

The Psalmist, and actually Christ as the Intercessor, prays for that Glory to return. In fact, it will return when the Messiah returns, to the discomfiture of Israel's oppressors, and thus will recover and replant His Vine.)

[4] O LORD God of Hosts, how long will You be angry against the prayer of Your People? (The anger of God against His People, because they killed the Messiah, has lasted now for nearly 2,000 years.)

[5] You feed them with the bread of tears; and give them tears to drink in great measure. (No people on Earth have shed tears as long as Israel has, due to the great sorrow brought upon them because of their rejection of their Messiah and the world's Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ.)

6 You make us a strife unto our neighbours: and our enemies laugh among themselves. (This has happened many times in Israel's history; it is happening even now with Israel's neighbors, Saudi Arabia, Jordan, Syria, Egypt, Iraq, Iran, etc. The greater meaning has to do with the Time of Jacob's Trouble, when it looks like Israel will be totally destroyed by the Antichrist. Her enemies will then "laugh among themselves.")

7 Turn us again, O God of Hosts, and cause Your Face to shine; and we shall be Saved. (This is a petition for Israel to be restored to nationhood and to the worship of God in the Sanctuary. In complete form, this will not be done until the Second Coming.)

8 You have brought a vine out of Egypt: You have cast out the heathen, and planted it *(that "vine" is Israel).

9 You prepared room before it, and did cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land *(the Land of Promise).

10 The hills were covered with the shadow of it, and the boughs thereof were like the goodly cedars *(great growth!).

11 She sent out her boughs unto the sea, and her branches unto the river *(extended to the Mediterranean Sea and the Euphrates River).

12 Why have You then broken down her hedges, so that all they who pass by the way do pluck her? (The Lord allowed this to happen to Israel because of her rebellion against Him.)

13 The boar out of the wood does waste it, and the wild beast of the field does devour it *(basically, this refers to Rome and her subjugation of Israel, which took place before the First Advent of Christ).

14 Return, we beseech You, O God of Hosts: look down from Heaven, and behold, and visit this vine (the words, "once more," should be supplied in these petitions, because that meaning is found in the Hebrew Text; it actually says, "Once more look down from Heaven! Once more behold! Once more visit this vine!");

[15] And the vineyard which Your Right Hand has planted, and the branch that You made strong for Yourself (in fact, this prayer ultimately will be answered; God will restore Israel [Rom., Chpt. 11]).

[16] It is burned with fire, it is cut down: they perish at the rebuke of Your Countenance. (This means that the shining of His Countenance will save His People; its rebuking will destroy their foes. This Verse should read, "They [the destroyers of the vine] shall perish at the rebuke of Your Countenance.")

[17] Let Your Hand be upon the Man of Your Right Hand, upon the Son of Man whom You made strong for Yourself. (The Chaldee reads, "King Messiah," the Man upon God's Right Hand. It is possibly to this Verse and Prophecy that the Lord pointed when claiming for Himself the title, "Son of Man.")

[18] So will not we go back from You: quicken us, and we will call upon Your Name. (The moral results of the Messiah's entrance into the Sanctuary are seen in this Verse. Whenever Jesus enters into the Millennial Temple, Israel will never again turn their back on Him.)

[19] Turn us again, O LORD God of Hosts, cause Your Face to shine; and we shall be saved. (For the soul into which He shines, there is no going back; whomever He quickens, He eternally attaches to His Name. With Him Alone is there Salvation.)

WRITTEN BY ASAPH: GOD'S GOODNESS AND MAN'S WAYWARDNESS

[1] Sing aloud unto God our strength: make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob. (The expression, "God of Jacob," means the "God of all Grace." These are His Old Testament and New Testament titles. Israel's Messiah is the Speaker in this Psalm. In it are the tender Thoughts and loving Purposes of His Heart for His Sheep [Mat. 23:37; Lk. 19:42].)

[2] Take a Psalm, and bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant harp with the psaltery. (As many other Passages do, this Passage proclaims not only the approval, but actually the creation, of musical instruments for the worship of God. Such was done at that time, is being done now, and actually will be done forever in eternity, in praise to God [Rev. 5:8–9].)

[3] Blow up the trumpet in the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day. (The terms, "new moon" and "solemn feast day," all have to do with the Law of Moses, which was all fulfilled in Christ, and in actuality is no more. But that which it represented, the worship of God, most definitely continues, and will ever continue.)

[4] For this was a Statute for Israel, and a Law of the God of Jacob. (Under the Old Covenant, Israel was the only nation on Earth that had the "Law of God.")

[5] This He ordained in Joseph for a Testimony, when He went out through the land of Egypt: where I heard a language that I understood not. (This does not mean that the Great Shepherd did not understand the Egyptian language, but that He did not acknowledge the Egyptians as His Sheep. The Hebrew verb here should be translated "acknowledge," as in Psalms 32:5, instead of the word "understood.")

6 I removed his (Israel's) shoulder from the burden: his hands were delivered from the pots (this refers to Israel's deliverance as slaves from Egyptian bondage).

7 You called in trouble, and I delivered you; I answered you in the secret place of thunder: I proved you at the waters of Meribah. Selah. (This means that the "waters of Meribah," etc., [waters of murmuring and strife] were a test [Ex. 17:7]. In fact, everything, as it regards the Child of God, is a test.)

8 Hear, O My People, and I will testify unto You: O Israel, if you will hearken unto Me (Verses 8 through 10 may be understood as having been addressed to Israel upon leaving Egypt);

9 There shall no strange god be in you; neither shall you worship any strange god. (The "strange god" expressed here refers to heathenistic idols, which were actually representations of demon spirits. Regrettably, many "strange gods" abide in the modern Church. Modern psychology is a "strange god." So is "philosophy," which is "vain deceit" [Col. 2:8]. In fact, anything that is not "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified," and that exclusively, presents a "strange god.")

10 I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt: open your mouth wide, and I will fill it (this meant that every desire and need of Israel would be fulfilled, if they would only believe God).

11 But My People would not hearken to My Voice; and Israel would none of Me. (Is the modern Church presently in the same spiritual condition?)

12 So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust: and they walked in their own counsels. (If Believers do not desire God's "Counsel," which is His Word, and that exclusively, then He will allow such Believers to walk in their "own counsels." Such presents disaster!)

13 Oh that My People had hearkened unto Me, and Israel had walked in My Ways! (The Ministry of the Holy Spirit is to straighten out man's walk, which can only be done as we evidence Faith in Christ and what Christ did for us at the Cross; this is the Faith through which the Holy Spirit exclusively works [Rom. 8:1–2, 11].)

14 I should soon have subdued their enemies, and turned My Hand against their adversaries. (The "adversaries" came whenever Israel turned to her own ways instead of God's Way.)

15 The haters of the LORD should have submitted themselves unto Him: but their time should have endured forever. (The Lord is saying that He would have subdued these "haters," if only Israel would have "'submitted themselves unto Him' — God." If they had done so, Israel would have never been defeated, and would have, in fact, "endured forever.")

16 He should have fed them also with the finest of the wheat: and with honey out of the rock should I have satisfied you. (These are affectionate terms, with "wheat" speaking of prosperity and "honey out of the rock" speaking of God's special additional Blessings.)

A PSALM OF ASAPH: GOD THE RIGHTEOUS JUDGE

[1] God stands in the congregation of the mighty; He judges among the gods. (The first four Verses of this Psalm are an account of the Lord Jesus standing in the Temple in the midst of what was the congregation of God and judging the rulers of the people. He fulfilled the first four Verses [Mat., Chpts. 21–23; Jn., Chpts. 8–10].)

[2] How long will you judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Selah. (Israel was designed by God to be His representative in the Earth and judge of the nations. Hence, her magistrates were termed "gods" — representatives of God.

Israel failed to fulfill this Divine Purpose; therefore, the prediction of this Psalm is that the Messiah will take up this Divine Purpose and perfectly fulfill it as Judge of Israel and of all nations — through His Body, the Church [Eph. 1:20–23].)

[3] Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy. (When religious leaders leave the Way of God and devise their own ways, the people then become pawns. True and righteous judgment demands that true Servants of God serve the people [Jn. 13:12–17]. When religion prevails, the Way of God is turned upside down, with the people washing the feet of religious leaders.)

[4] Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked. (Deliverance can be effected only by looking to Christ as the Source, and the Cross as the means [Lk. 4:18].)

[5] They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the Earth are out of course. (These wicked religious leaders of Israel would not hear Christ; therefore, they continued in darkness until the nation was finally destroyed, with the Gospel then being given to the Gentiles.)

6 I have said, You are gods; and all of you are Children of the Most High. (The statement means that God had appointed Israel as judges [gods], simply because they were chosen of God and, therefore, the Children of God; however, Israel failed to fulfill this purpose and ultimately was destroyed.)

7 But you shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes. (Israel was so lifted up in herself, that she felt she merited righteousness. The Lord's pronouncements, in effect, told them they would die and die lost [Mat., Chpt. 23]. Even though they were called a "prince," or a representative of God, still, they would "fall." And that they did!)

8 Arise, O God, judge the Earth: for You shall inherit all nations. (Israel failed, but Jesus Christ will never fail. The Messiah has taken up this Divine Purpose, and will perfectly fulfill it as Judge of Israel and of all nations.)

A PSALM OF ASAPH: A PRAYER FOR THE DESTRUCTION OF ISRAEL'S ENEMIES

[1] Keep not Your silence, O God: hold not Your peace, and be not still, O God. (As the previous Psalm proclaimed the destruction of Israel by the Messiah because of their terrible rebellion, this Psalm reflects the efforts of the Antichrist to completely annihilate Israel.)

[2] For, lo, your (Israel's) enemies make a tumult: and they who hate you have lifted up the head. (This "head," representing ten nations, as outlined by Daniel [Dan. 7:7; Rev. 13:1], will join with the Antichrist in opposing Israel.)

[3] They have taken crafty counsel against Your People, and consulted against Your Hidden Ones. (The "crafty counsel" means that the seven-year pact that the Antichrist will make with Israel will be broken at the midpoint. The term, "Hidden Ones," means that the Antichrist will think that God no longer cares for Israel. His Care has been somewhat "hidden," but will now come forth to full bloom.)

[4] They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance. (This is the "evil thought" of Ezek. 38:10.)

[5] For they have consulted together with one consent: they are confederate against You (these who are "confederate" are the ten horns of Dan. 7:7; John said these kings would be confederates with the Antichrist [the beast — Rev. 17:12])**:

[6] The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmaelites; of Moab, and the Hagarenes;

7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; the Philistines with the inhabitants of Tyre;

8 Assur also is joined with them: they have helped the children of Lot. Selah.

9 Do unto them as unto the Midianites; as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the brook of Kison:

10 Which perished at En-dor; they became as dung for the Earth.

11 Make their nobles like Oreb, and like Zeeb: yes, all their princes as Zebah, and as Zalmunna (these nations listed were confederates against Israel, and are representative of the ten nations in the last days which, under the Antichrist, will oppose and persecute Israel greatly):

12 Who said, Let us take to ourselves the Houses of God in possession. (This speaks of the Antichrist, who will take over the rebuilt Temple at the midpoint of his seven-year pact with Israel. He will do this by setting up his own statue in the "House of God," and will demand worship [II Thess. 2:4].)

13 O my God, make them like a wheel; as the stubble before the wind.

14 As the fire burns a wood, and as the flame sets the mountains on fire;

15 So persecute them with Your tempest, and make them afraid with Your storm.

16 Fill their faces with shame; that they may seek Your Name, O LORD.

17 Let them be confounded and troubled forever; yes, let them be put to shame, and perish (and all of this will most definitely happen at the Second Coming):

18 That men may know that You, Whose Name alone is JEHOVAH, are the Most High over all the Earth. (Ezekiel said concerning God's Deliverance of Israel in the Battle of Armageddon, "The heathen shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel" [Ezek. 39:7].)

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: THE BLESSING

[1] How amiable are Your Tabernacles, O LORD of Hosts! (The word "Tabernacles," in the Hebrew, is "Mishkan." It means "dwellingplace" or "where God dwells." The word is also the plural of "majesty," expressing the greatness and glory of the Sanctuary.

The doctrine of this Psalm is that the Sanctuary is a home of pure and satisfying bliss, and that the road to it is a highway of happiness, even though it passes through a valley of weeping.)

[2] My soul longs, yes, even faints for the Courts of the LORD: my heart and my flesh cries out for the living God. (The Psalm is somewhat Davidic. It is possible that it was written by David when he was being chased by Saul. Only those who have the longing of Verse 2 will reap the blessing of Verse 11.)

[3] Yes, the sparrow has found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even Your Altars, O LORD of Hosts, my King, and my God. (The Psalmist is saying that as the "sparrow" and the "swallow" have a house and a nest, likewise, until man finds God and God's Dwelling Place, man will have no home. That home can be found only by trust in Christ and the Cross, of which the "Altars" were a Type.)

[4] Blessed are they who dwell in Your House: they will be still praising You. Selah. (Unceasing praise [I Chron. 9:33] fills the hearts and clothes the lips of those who dwell with God.)

[5] Blessed is the man whose strength is in You; in whose heart are the Ways of them. (Over and over again, the Ways of God are contrasted with the ways of man. "Blessed is the man" who follows the Ways of God [His Way is in His Word]. There is no blessing to the man who follows the ways

[6] Who passing through the valley of Baca make it a well; the rain also fills the pools. (The "valley of Baca" actually means "the valley of weeping." It produces a well of tears. If the spirit of the Believer is carnal, this valley will only be a valley of weeping, but to the Spiritual Heart, it will be a new nature and unfailing reservoir of strength and refreshment.)

[7] They go from strength to strength, every one of them in Zion appears before God. (The expression, "strength to strength," refers to enough "strength" for the day but not the morrow. There will be a fresh supply of "strength" awaiting at that time.)

[8] O LORD God of Hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah. (Now that the weary traveler has come through the "valley of Baca" and has made it a "well," going from "strength to strength," he finally stands before the "God of Jacob.")

[9] Behold, O God our Shield, and look upon the Face of Your Anointed. (The Lord here is referred to as "our Shield," meaning that He has protected us on this trying journey, in effect, the journey of life. Now He will let us see "the Face of Your Anointed" — the Lord Jesus Christ. He is the only Mediator between God and man [I Tim. 2:5]. Now that we have this Mediator [Your Anointed], we are given assurance of our audience with God.)

[10] For a day in Your Courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the House of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness. (Now that the Sanctuary has been reached and we are able to stand before the Lord and see His "Face," the conclusion is easily reached. A few moments in the Presence of God is greater than anything Satan or the world would have to offer a thousand times over. It is worth a "thousand valleys of Baca" to have this short time in the Presence of God.)

[11] For the LORD God is a Sun and Shield: the LORD will give grace and glory: no good thing will He withhold from them who walk uprightly. (We must not make the mistake in this Passage of assuming that we know what the good things are! We must allow Him to give us the "good things" that He desires to give.)

12 O LORD of Hosts, blessed is the man who trusts in You. (The man who places his trust in God will always be "blessed.")

CHAPTER 85

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: GOD'S ANGER REMOVED FROM ISRAEL

[1] LORD, You have been favourable unto Your land: You have brought back the captivity of Jacob. (Again, the Scripture states that the Land of Israel belongs to God, and He has given it to Jacob. The "captivity of Jacob" will end at the Second Coming, when Israel will then accept Christ as Saviour and Lord [Zech. 13:6].)

[2] You have forgiven the iniquity of Your People, You have covered all their sin. Selah. (At the Second Coming, Israel will pray the great prayer of David's Repentance [Ps. 51], and will be forgiven their sins.)

[3] You have taken away all Your wrath: You have turned Yourself from the fierceness of Your anger. (This will be brought to pass when Israel accepts Christ, Whom they rejected so long ago.)

[4] Turn us, O God of our Salvation, and cause Your anger toward us to cease. (The expression, "turn us," actually speaks of Repentance.)

[5] Will You be angry with us forever? will You draw out Your Anger to all generations? (The "generations" addressed here refer to the long period of time that has passed between the First Advent of Christ to the moment of reconciliation — now approximately 2,000 years.)

[6] Will You not revive us again: that Your People may rejoice in You? (The prayer, "revive us again," as it will be prayed by Israel at the Second Coming, should be prayed now by the Church!)

[7] Show us Your Mercy, O LORD, and grant us Your Salvation. (In His Intercessory role, the Greater Son of David will, no doubt, pray this prayer on behalf of Israel. In fact, they could never be accepted otherwise. Israel does not ask for justice, but for "mercy" — and even more so, "Your Mercy.")

[8] I will hear what God the LORD will speak: for He will speak peace unto His People, and to His Saints: but let them not turn again to folly. (If David prayed this prayer regarding Israel's great sin in joining Absalom's rebellion, the Lord will answer by telling them not to "turn again to folly." Sadly, they did not heed the Lord the first time. In the Latter Day, they will heed Him and never again "turn to folly.")

[9] Surely His Salvation is near them who fear Him; that glory may dwell in our land. (When Jesus Christ dwells in Jerusalem, which He most surely shall, "glory will dwell in our land.")

[10] Mercy and Truth are met together; Righteousness and Peace have kissed each other. (Under the Law, "Mercy" and "Truth" could not meet. "Righteousness" and "Peace" could not kiss or greet each other. However, in Christ, the two will meet.

Jesus satisfied the Law and did so in every capacity. He did so at the Cross. Christ is the Source and the Cross is the Means.)

[11] Truth shall spring out of the Earth; and Righteousness shall look down from Heaven. (This Passage means that only a Heaven-born Righteousness could undertake the justification of guilty men. The foundation of this Salvation was laid at Golgotha, where, in the Cross of Jesus, Verse 10 was fulfilled. There, Truth and Righteousness judged sin in the Person of Christ, and with that one and only question between God and man now settled, Mercy and Peace flowed freely to sinners.)

[12] Yes, the LORD shall give that which is good; and our land shall yield her increase. (When Israel gets right with God, this will trigger an abundance of blessings throughout the entirety of the Earth [Rom. 11:15].)

[13] Righteousness shall go before Him; and shall set us in the way of His Steps. (Two thousand years ago, Jesus Christ asked Israel to "follow Me." They refused to do so. Now, at long last, they shall follow "the way of His

A PSALM OF DAVID: A PSALM OF PETITION, PENITENCE, AND PRAISE

[1] Bow down Your Ear, O LORD, hear me: for I am poor and needy. (Actually, the title of this Psalm is "A Prayer of David." More so, it is an Intercession by the Messiah on behalf of His People; therefore, He will take their place and pray the prayer they need to pray by saying, "I am poor and needy."

The occasion was probably when David was forgiven of his great sin with Bath-sheba, was delivered from Absalom's rebellion, and was restored to his throne.

Its greater occasion will be the Intercession of Christ on behalf of Israel, a prayer which will be answered at the Second Coming.)

[2] Preserve my soul; for I am holy: O You my God; save Your Servant who trusts in You. (The Virgin Mary, in Verse 16, emphasizes the fact that Christ became truly Man; otherwise, He could not be an Advocate for men. It was necessary that, as Man, He should be tempted in all points [Heb. 4:15]. It was equally necessary that, as an Intercessor, He should be sinless; hence, He, the True David, could say what David himself could never say, "I am holy.")

[3] Be merciful unto Me, O Lord: for I cry unto You daily. (As David cried "daily" for deliverance from the powers of darkness that sought to destroy him, likewise, our Heavenly Intercessor, the Lord Jesus Christ, intercedes on our behalf "daily." He pleads for mercy [Heb. 7:25].)

[4] Rejoice the soul of Your Servant: for unto You, O Lord, do I lift up my soul. (David can rejoice and the Greater Son of David can rejoice, because the Lord has answered this prayer.)

5 For You, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them who call upon You. (The Lord is ready to do all these things upon proper confession of sin.)

6 Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer; and attend to the voice of my supplications. ("Prayer" is the great bulwark of the Christian. Sadly, few engage in its blessed Promises [James 5:13].)

7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon You: for You will answer Me. (Three things are said here: 1. Trouble will come; 2. When it comes, call on God; and, 3. God will answer.)

8 Among the gods there is none like unto You, O Lord; neither are there any works like unto Your Works. (The title "gods" actually refers to heathenistic "gods," which are actually demon spirits. There is no God but Jehovah!)

9 All nations whom You have made shall come and worship before You, O Lord; and shall glorify Your Name. (This is yet unfulfilled. It will be totally fulfilled in the Millennial Reign.)

10 For You are great, and do wondrous things: You are God Alone. (On the entirety of the planet, when Christ comes back, He will be "God Alone." Muhammad will be no more; Buddha will be no more. Likewise, all other pretenders will vanish into oblivion.)

11 Teach me Your Way, O LORD; I will walk in Your Truth: unite my heart to fear Your Name. (David prays these words, as we should. More so, the Messiah, as the Intercessor, will pray them on behalf of Israel.)

12 I will praise You, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will glorify Your Name forevermore. (Praise should be a continuous occupation for every Child of God.)

13 For great is Your Mercy toward me: and You have delivered my soul from the lowest Hell. (The Lord was gracious to David in forgiving him his great sin, so that he did not die eternally lost. In a greater way, this is the petition of the Son of God praying for His Resurrection, a prayer which was carried out a thousand years before the fact. During the three days and nights that Christ was in the heart of the Earth, He preached to the spirits in prison, which were fallen angels, and He delivered every righteous soul out of Paradise [I Pet. 3:19; Eph. 4:8–9]. All of the underworld is referred to as "Hell," including Paradise. There is no Scriptural record of Jesus going to the burning side of Hell.)

14 O God, the proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of violent men have sought after my soul; and have not set You before them. ("The proud" spoken of here refer to the Scribes, Pharisees, and Sadducees. "The assemblies of violent men" are the Sanhedrin. At the trial of Jesus, God had no part in their proceedings; they "have not set You before them." Consequently, they would perform their hellish deed.)

15 But You, O LORD, are a God full of com passion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in Mercy and Truth. (The world says that God is "cruel," while the Word of God says the opposite.)

16 O turn unto me, and have mercy upon me; give Your strength unto Your Servant, and save the Son of Your handmaid. (Israel would not save the "Son" of the Virgin Mary, "Your handmaid"; however, God will save "the Son" and, in effect, ultimately will save Israel.)

17 Show me a token for good; that they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed: because You, LORD, have helped Me, and comforted Me. (The "token for good" that was shown Him was His Resurrection. Those who hated Him saw it. They were not ashamed then, but, at the Second Coming, they will be ashamed [Zech. 12:10].)

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: THE GLORIES OF ZION

[1] His foundation is in the holy mountains. (Even though this Psalm was written "for the sons of Korah," it could very well have been penned by David. It was probably given by the Spirit on the occasion of the bringing up of the Ark to Jerusalem [II Sam., Chpt. 6]. The "holy mountains" probably refer to those of Jerusalem, or possibly the entirety of the Land of Israel.)

[2] The LORD loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob. (This means that the Lord has chosen Zion as His chief habitation in Israel [Isa. 8:18; Ps. 48:2; 50:2; 78:68]. This Passage plainly tells us that the Muslims will not occupy Zion much longer.)

[3] Glorious things are spoken of you, O city of God. Selah. (This speaks of Jerusalem.)

[4] I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to them who know me: behold Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia; this man was born there. (Psalms 22:27 will possibly help explain Verse 4. The two names given here by the Holy Spirit, "Rahab" [meaning Egypt] and "Babylon", are expressed in Hebrew, "arrogance" and "confusion." The two terms fitly portray the nature of human government.

In the coming Kingdom Age, Jerusalem will be the princely city of the nations of the world. It will be that for many reasons, but the greatest reason of all is that Jesus was born there. [Bethlehem may be accounted as a suburb of Jerusalem.]

Coupled with Calvary and the Resurrection, there is no event that supersedes this. Zion's greatness is attributed to the birth of Christ and not to His Crucifixion. The Crucifixion was the foulest murder ever carried out by wicked hearts. It, as well, was carried out in "Zion."

But, inasmuch as this great event of Psalm 87 takes place in the Millennial Reign, this terrible sin committed by the people of Zion will no longer be remembered by God and, in fact, will be blotted out, even as all sins are blotted out, once the person is washed in the Blood of the Lamb [Eph. 2:13–18].)

5 And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her: and the Highest Himself shall establish her (Jerusalem D.C. [David's Capital]).

6 The LORD shall count, when He writes up the people, that this Man was born there. Selah. (Irrespective of who may have been born in Jerusalem down through the centuries, as mentioned in Verse 5, the only one Who really counts is "this Man," i.e., "the Lord Jesus Christ.")

7 As well the singers as the players on instruments shall be there: all my springs are in you. (All blessings will flow out of Zion [Isa. 2:2–4].)

CHAPTER 88

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: THE CRY OF A DESPERATE MAN

[1] O Lord God of my Salvation, I have cried day and night before You (as the Holy Spirit has given to the world the words of Jonah's prayer [Jonah, Chpt. 2], so has He given in this Psalm the words of the Messiah's prayer. How amazing that the Spirit of Truth should here invite men to contemplate the eternal Son of God when shut up in the abyss, and should communicate to them the very words of the prayer which He from thence addressed to God!)**:

[2] Let my prayer come before You: incline Your ear unto my cry (just as our Saviour trusted God during His lifetime and when hanging upon the Cross, so He trusted Him when imprisoned in Sheol. He truly believed that God would deliver Him; God did!)**;

[3] For my soul is full of troubles: and my life draws near unto the grave. (This Psalm could as well be a part of the prayer that Jesus prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane.)

[4] I am counted with them who go down into the pit: I am as a man who has no strength (He had much "strength" to deliver others. He had no "strength" to deliver Himself. For had He delivered Himself, He could not have delivered others.

The "pit" refers to the Paradise part of Hell, where all the righteous souls were held captive from Abel to the Resurrection of Christ. Christ had to go down into that "pit" and "led captivity captive" [Eph. 4:8]):

[5] Free among the dead, like the dead who lie in the grave, whom You remember no more: and they are cut off from Your Hand. (When Jesus died on Calvary, no one, not even His most ardent Disciples, believed He would rise from the dead [Lk., Chpt. 24]. He was put in the "grave" [the tomb] to be "remembered no more."

The phrase, "And they are cut off from Your hand," refers to Jesus being "smitten of God and afflicted" [Isa. 53:4]. The Disciples could not understand how He could be "cut off" and be the Messiah at the same time! They lacked understanding, because they lacked knowledge of the Word [Lk. 24:25–27]. They did not, at the time, realize that His being "cut off" meant that we would not be "cut off.")

6 You have laid me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the deeps. (Jesus breached this "lowest pit" and "darkness in the deeps" that we have no fear. The first Adam caused the darkness; the Last Adam conquered the darkness.)

7 Your wrath lies hard upon me, and You have afflicted me with all Your waves. Selah. (He took the "wrath" that I should have justly received. In taking this "wrath," He had to be "afflicted" by God [Isa. 53:4].)

8 You have put away my acquaintance far from me; You have made Me an abomination unto them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth. (The "acquaintance" that He speaks of here pertains to all — His Disciples, His Own relatives, even God and the Holy Angels. Truly He was "made an abomination unto them," because he was bearing the sin of the world [II Cor. 5:21].)

9 My eye mourns by reason of affliction: LORD, I have called daily upon You, I have stretched out my hands unto You. (This Passage proves the truth of Christ's Personal helplessness. The secret of His total Victory was His "calling daily upon You." The "stretching out the hands unto God" refers to a total dependence upon God [Jn. 8:28–29].)

10 Will You show wonders to the dead? shall the dead arise and praise You? Selah. (Truly, God would "show wonders to the dead," i.e., "Christ," and raise Him from the dead. Truly, He would "arise and praise You.") in the grave" by raising Christ from the dead. These Passages are some of the most miraculous and wonderful in Scripture. The great victory won by Jesus Christ guarantees to every Believer victory as well!)

11 Shall Your Lovingkindness be declared in the grave? or Your Faithfulness in destruction? (Truly, God's "lovingkindness" was "declared

[12] Shall Your Wonders be known in the dark? and Your Righteousness in the land of forgetfulness? (Satan taunted Christ with these questions.)

[13] But unto You have I cried, O LORD; and in the morning shall my prayer prevent You. (The Messiah took these accusations of Satan to the Father. In effect, He is saying that, on the third "morning," He will be resurrected from the dead. In this Passage, we are given this Promise from the Father.)

[14] LORD, why do You cast off my soul? why do You hide Your Face from me? (God would do this, because there was no other choice. The Saviour was bearing the curse of sin for the whole world. This was the fulfillment of the Prophecy of John the Baptist, "Behold the Lamb of God, Who takes away the sin of the world" [Jn. 1:29].

Isaiah prophesied these words, "And we hid as it were our faces from Him" [Isa. 53:3].)

[15] I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up: while I suffer Your terrors I am distracted. (Christ's Mission on Earth was to die on Calvary. This was why He came, and "from my youth up." When He was twelve years old, He said these words, "Do you not know that I must be about My Father's business?" [Lk. 2:49]. What was His Father's business? It was many things, but the primary business was to die on Calvary, in order that man might be redeemed [I Pet. 1:18–20].)

[16] Your fierce wrath goes over Me; Your terrors have cut me off. (God's "wrath" had to be poured out on Him, that is, if we were to be redeemed. God cannot abide sin in any form, even on His Only Son, despite the fact that His Son had never sinned. But, still, He became one with my sin and failure, taking the full penalty upon Himself. That penalty was the wrath of God that culminated in His Death on the Cross.)

[17] They came round about me daily like water; they compassed me about together. (The meaning of this Verse is that the enemies of Christ constantly swarmed around Him and attempted to catch Him in His speech, or even to kill Him before He would go to Calvary. As water, when poured out, runs over someone or something, likewise, these enemies did the same.)

[18] Lover and friend have You put far from me, and my acquaintance into darkness. (When Jesus went to the Cross, both those who loved Him and those who were considered friends forsook Him. The Scripture says that "all forsook Him and fled" [Mat. 26:56].)

PROBABLY WRITTEN BY ETHAN: PRAISE FOR THE LORD

[1] I will sing of the Mercies of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known Your Faithfulness to all generations. (Williams says, "The Messiah, in the confidence of Coronation and of the fulfillment of the sure Promises made to Him as David [Acts 13:34], recites these Promises, voices the lament of His people at their seeming breach, and then closes the Psalm as He began it, with praise to Jehovah.

Thus, during His life of sorrow, His death of shame, and His arrest in Sheol, nothing is seen in Him but perfection — perfection of faith toward God and of love toward man.")

[2] For I have said, Mercy shall be built up forever: Your Faithfulness shall You establish in the very heavens. (The Law came by Moses, but Grace and Truth came by Jesus Christ [Jn. 1:17].)

[3] I have made a Covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant.

[4] Your seed will I establish forever, and build up your throne to all generations. Selah. (II Sam., Chpt. 7, records the Davidic Covenant, promising David an Eternal Seed and Throne. Jesus Christ is the Root of David and will reign supremely forever. That was the intention of the Davidic Covenant, and it will yet be realized.)

[5] And the heavens shall praise Your wonders, O LORD: Your Faithfulness also in the congregation of the Saints. (This Chapter is replete with the "faithfulness" of God. The word occurs seven times [Vss. 1, 2, 5, 8, 24, 33, 49]. Actually, the word "lovingkindness" in Verse 49 could have been translated "faithfulness.")

6 For who in the heaven can be compared unto the LORD? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD? (These "sons of the mighty" are Angels, plainly stating that no Angel "in the heaven" can be compared unto the Lord. So, both on Earth and in Heaven, there is nothing to compare with the Lord Jesus Christ.)

7 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the Saints, and to be had in reverence of all them who are about Him. (Sadly, there is not much "reverence" for Christ in this present world. Shortly, this will change.)

8 O LORD God of Hosts, who is a strong LORD like unto You? or to Your Faithfulness round about You? (Quite possibly, Jesus had this Scripture in mind when He talked about the stronger man [Himself] overcoming the strong man [Satan] and spoiling his house [Mat. 12:29].)

9 You rule the raging of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, You still them. (The spirit world of darkness is likened to "the raging of the sea." Only Jesus can "still them." How foolish it is for poor fallen man to think that pitiful humanistic psychology, or such like, can still these "waves"!)

10 You have broken Rahab (Egypt) in pieces, as one that is dead; You have scattered Your enemies with Your strong Arm. ("Rahab" is a poetic name for Egypt, and means "boastful" or "arrogant." The Lord, in delivering the Children of Israel from Egyptian bondage, "broke Rahab.")

11 The heavens are Yours, the Earth also is Yours: as for the world and the fulness thereof, You have founded them. (This declares that the heavens and the Earth and all in them are the creation of God, and not a product of evolution.)

12 The north and the south You have created them: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in Your Name. (As Verse 11 refers to the entirety of the Earth, Verse 12 refers to Israel. As the battle has raged for the world in general, it has raged even more regarding Israel. In the Abrahamic Covenant, God promised the Land to Abraham's descendant, Isaac. Instead, Ishmael, a product of the flesh, has attempted to wrest this Land from Isaac. The contest rages even today. This Verse is a statement that says, in effect, that Isaac will be the recipient of the Land, according to the Covenant. This means that it will not go to the Arabs.)

[13] You have a mighty Arm: strong is Your Hand, and high is Your Right Hand. (In the Twelfth Verse, the Promise is made that Satan will not obtain the Land of Israel, and in this Thirteenth Verse, the statement is made that God has "a mighty Arm" and a "strong Hand" to carry out that which He has promised. "High is Your Right Hand" means that there is no one stronger.)

[14] Justice and Judgment are the habitation of Your Throne: Mercy and Truth shall go before Your Face. (The Lord is strong because of four qualities: 1. "Justice"; 2. "Judgment"; 3. "Mercy"; and, 4. "Truth.")

[15] Blessed is the people who know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of Your Countenance. (The "joyful sound" in this instance concerns the people who live in the Millennium and hear the "joyful sound" of the trumpet on the morning of Jubilee, which will proclaim deliverance to the captives and restoration of their forfeited estates. Then the Davidic Covenant will be fulfilled in all its totality. Israel will be the supreme nation on the face of the Earth. Its people will be "blessed.")

[16] In Your Name shall they rejoice all the day: and in Your Righteousness shall they be exalted. (There are many names given to our Lord in the Old Testament; however, the greatest name ever is that which was spoken by the Angel Gabriel, "You shall call His Name JESUS: for He shall save His people from their sins" [Mat. 1:21].)

[17] For You are the Glory of their strength: and in Your favour our horn shall be exalted. (The word "horn" in the Scriptures refers to kings [Dan. 7:7–8, 19–24; Rev. 17:12–17]. This refers to David ruling over Israel in the coming Kingdom Age, but even more so to the King of kings, the Lord Jesus Christ.)

[18] For the LORD is our defence; and the Holy One of Israel is our King *(the Lord Jesus Christ).

19 Then You spoke in vision to Your Holy One, and said, I have laid help upon One Who is mighty; I have exalted One chosen out of the people. (The "vision" that is spoken of here concerns the many Prophecies that are given concerning the coming of the Redeemer, beginning with Gen. 3:15. Jesus spoke of these in Lk. 24:27.)

20 I have found David my servant; with my holy oil have I anointed him. (This refers to Samuel anointing David with oil as the future king of Israel, even while Saul was then king [I Sam., Chpt. 16]. Christ would come through David's family [II Sam., Chpt. 7].)

21 With whom my hand shall be established: my arm also shall strengthen him (and the Lord did exactly that!)**.

22 The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness afflict him. (In many ways, Satan endeavored to kill David, but this Passage tells us that the Lord protected him.)

23 And I will beat down his foes before his face, and plague them who hate him. (The struggle lasted for nearly 15 years, but ultimately Saul was killed on Mount Gilboa. Saul's mission to destroy David, inspired by Satan, was a fruitless effort because God was on David's side.

Likewise, those who oppose Christ, which has been and will be.)

24 But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him: and in my name shall His Horn be exalted. ("His Horn" refers to the Messiah, Who would come through David [II Sam. 7:12–17; Rev. 22:16].)

25 I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers. (This refers to David conquering all from the Mediterranean to the Euphrates. Powerful armies opposed him; none succeeded.)

26 He shall cry unto me, You are my Father, my God, and the Rock of my Salvation. (David referred to the Lord by three titles: "my Father," "my God," and "the Rock of my Salvation.")

27 Also I will make Him my Firstborn, higher than the kings of the Earth. (After these statements concerning David, the next prediction is that David's Son, the Messiah, shall also be the Son of the Heavenly Father — the Firstborn and only truly Begotten Son of God, Whom God is to exalt higher than all kings of the Earth.)

28 My mercy will I keep for him forevermore, and my Covenant shall stand fast with him. (The Text now reverts back to David and the Davidic Covenant, which is unconditional, because it is anchored in the Greater Son of David.)

29 His seed also will I make to endure forever, and his throne as the days of Heaven. (After referring to the Messiah in Verse 27, God resumes His predictions concerning David and the Davidic Covenant. This means that the throne of David will exist forever. Even though Israel ultimately lost her way, still, God will bring her back and restore her with the throne of David once again becoming supreme and lasting forever.)

30 If his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments;

31 If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments;

32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes (in other words, God will chastise those He loves)**.

33 Nevertheless my lovingkindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail. (The Lord means that even though David or particular individuals in his lineage would sin, and even though He would have to "visit their transgression with the rod," still, He would follow the lineage through to Christ, which He did. God's "faithfulness did not fail," as it cannot fail.)

34 My Covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips. (This was the Promise that was given approximately a thousand years before Christ. Satan did everything within Hell's power to break this "Covenant." At one time, the only person in the lineage who was left was baby Joash, with all the others of the lineage being killed by the wicked queen, Athaliah [II Chron. 22:10]. However, this little baby boy survived and became the king of Judah, with the lineage continuing until the Birth of Christ.)

35 Once have I sworn by my holiness that I will not lie unto David. (This Passage refers to the events that transpired in II Sam., Chpt. 7. God's Promises are sure.)

36 His seed shall endure forever, and his throne as the sun before Me. (God guarantees this Covenant with David, as He guaranteed the Solaric Covenant.)

37 It shall be established forever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in Heaven. Selah. (This means that, at the Second Coming of Christ, David, and every Saint of God who has ever lived, will come back to reign on Earth forever. At that time, David will once again be established as king over Israel. He will serve under Christ, along with all the Glorified Saints. This will be during the one-thousand-year Millennial Reign, and then in the New Heaven and the New Earth forever.)

38 But You have cast off and abhorred, You have been wroth with Your anointed. (This speaks of David. Verses 38 through 46 refer back to Verses 31 through 32. David sinned greatly [Bath-sheba and Uriah] and so did Solomon and all of his kingly descendants. As a result, God did exactly what He said He would do, as He always will [Vs. 32].)

39 You have made void the Covenant of Your Servant: You have profaned his crown by casting it to the ground. (If Ethan the Ezrahite actually wrote this Psalm, then his statement here is prophetic, because it refers to the dispersion of Israel to Babylon, and then even to the final dispersion, after Titus the Roman General destroyed Jerusalem in A.D. 70.

The statement, "Made void the Covenant of Your Servant," is not a contradiction of the Thirty-fourth Verse, where is says, "My Covenant will I not break." It means this:

Even though Israel was totally dispersed in A.D. 70, actually ceasing to be a nation for nearly 2,000 years, still, the Covenant will be brought back to fruition at the conclusion of the Great Tribulation. For this length of time it has been "made void"; however, it has not been broken, and will be reestablished at the Second Coming of Christ.)

40 You have broken down all his hedges; You have brought his strong holds to ruin. (This came to pass in the Babylonian dispersion, as well as the total destruction in A.D. 70.)

41 All who pass by the way spoil him: he is a reproach to his neighbours. (During the dispersion to Babylon, the Prophet Ezekiel mentioned these nations that would "spoil" Israel. They were Ammon, Edom, Moab, Philistia, Tyre, and others [Ezek., Chpts. 25–26].)

42 You have set up the right hand of his adversaries; You have made all his enemies to rejoice. (Whereas God so many times in the past had fought for Israel, now He fights against Israel, and all because of sin.)

43 You have also turned the edge of his sword, and have not made him to stand in the battle.

44 You have made his glory to cease, and cast his throne down to the ground. (Jeremiah refers to this in his Lamentations [Lam. 2:17].)

45 The days of his youth have You shortened: You have covered him with shame. Selah. (The meaning of this Verse pertains to both David and Judah. The glory of David and the power of Judah were cut short in comparison to what they might have been. Sin was the cause; consequently, they were "covered with shame.")

46 How long, LORD? will You hide Yourself forever? shall Your wrath burn like fire? (It has now been nearly 2,000 years since the Lord has hidden His Face from Israel. They have suffered untold agony, and all because they rejected their Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ, and accepted a worldly king [Jn. 19:15].)

47 Remember how short my time is: wherefore have You made all men in vain? (The Psalmist now laments the present status of Israel. In this Passage, we see that man is more concerned with his own circumstances than with God's Glory and how he has been offended. God's interests are generally last. True Repentance little laments our plight, but, instead, our terrible sin against God and how we have defrauded Him.)

48 What man is he who lives, and shall not see death? shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave? Selah. (The Psalmist seems to be asking, in view of the fact that men sin and die, how is it that God can keep His Covenant with David?)

49 Lord, where are Your former Lovingkindnesses, which You swore unto David in Your Truth? (The plea is for the Lord to bring Israel back to her place of greatness.)

50 Remember, Lord, the reproach of Your servants; how I do bear in my bosom the reproach of all the mighty people *(truly Israel has definitely suffered terrible reproach; however, the fault is that of Israel alone, and not at all of God; they desired Caesar, and that proved to be a very unwise choice);

51 Wherewith Your enemies have reproached, O LORD; wherewith they have reproached the footsteps of Your anointed. (The Holy Spirit, due to God's great Promises to Israel, still refers to them as "Your anointed." They have been away from God for a long time, but the Scripture says they are coming home.)

52 Blessed be the LORD forevermore. Amen, and Amen. (This closes the Leviticus Book of Psalms, with the Holy Spirit saying that regardless of the way the situation looks, the Lord is "blessed." As well, the suffering spoken of in Verses 50 through 51 are those suffered by Christ as High Priest in sympathy with the sufferings of His People. This is an effective picture of the identification of a True Advocate with the miseries and sorrows of those He represents.)

CHAPTER 90

THE NUMBERS BOOK THE AUTHOR IS MOSES: THE EVERLASTING GOD

[1] LORD, You have been our dwelling place in all generations. (Moses is saying that the Lord is our "dwelling place," and so it is "in all generations." This is the same as "in Him we live, and move, and have our being" [Acts 17:28]. In other words, we look to God for everything.)

[2] Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever You had formed the Earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, You are God. (Those who pass through life depending on their own strength find it a way of labor and sorrow; those who lean on the arm of Adonai, Who is Eternal, find it a way of joy and rejoicing — even in the wilderness.)

[3] You turn man to destruction; and say, Return, you children of men. (Whereas the Second Verse speaks of Creation, the Third Verse speaks of the Fall. God gave man the choice of eating of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, or not eating of it. They were told not to, but if so, they would suffer the consequence, which was eternal death [Gen. 2:17]. The latter part of this Verse is an appeal for man to return to God.)

[4] For a thousand years in Your sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night. (Man should look at eternity as God looks at eternity. In other words, we should base our actions on the eternal, instead of the temporal. Sadly, the majority of the world sells out for the temporal.)

[5] You carry them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which grows up. (Verse 2 speaks of Creation, Verse 3 speaks of the Fall, and Verse 5 speaks of Noah's Flood. In its broader meaning, it speaks of death as "a flood." It speaks of life as "grass," which flourishes for a short while and then is gone.)

6 In the morning it flourishes, and grows up; in the evening it is cut down, and withers. (This is the way that the Holy Spirit describes man's life.)

7 For we are consumed by Your anger, and by Your wrath are we troubled. (The "anger" and "wrath" mentioned here speaks of the curse that God placed upon the human race because of the Fall. God cannot abide sin in any form.)

8 You have set our iniquities before You, our secret sins in the light of Your Countenance. (This Passage means that God will judge sins, both secret and open.)

9 For all our days are passed away in Your wrath: we spend our years as a tale that is told. (This Ninth Verse speaks of the pride of man's heart being broken, its self-sufficiency banished, and its energies governed by wisdom.)

10 The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away. (For all of man's vaunted modern prowess, the lifespan is basically, on the average, between 70 and 80 years old.)

11 Who knows the power of Your anger? even according to Your fear, so is Your wrath. (For the most part, men do not fear God. Many do not even believe there is a God. Nevertheless, there is a God, and He will do exactly as He has said in His Word. His Power is absolute but not arbitrary.)

12 So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. (In view of man's perilous condition and his short lifespan, Moses pleads with the Lord to "teach us." This Verse should sum up the cry of the human heart, but, regrettably, it little does.)

13 Return, O LORD, how long? and let it repent You concerning Your servants. (The dark background of Verses 3 through 12 makes the doctrine of Verses 13 through 17 the more precious to Faith. The doctrine is that the only hope for the Earth and its inhabitants is in the coming of the Messiah. His Advent will compensate for all the calamities of the wilderness in this night of misery and pain, and He will endow man with a new moral nature, so that the works of man's hands will be only good.)

14 O satisfy us early with Your Mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. (The sense of this Verse is that there is no satisfaction other than with the "Mercy" of God. Only when we are recipients of such may we "rejoice and be glad all our days.")

15 Make us glad according to the days wherein You have afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil. (This should be the cry of every man, even the most consecrated Christian. Moses is asking that the days of affliction be no more than the days of gladness.)

16 Let Your Work appear unto Your Servants, and Your Glory unto their children. (The sense of this Verse is far more reaching than we at first realize. It is as follows: 1. That our failures not stop "Your Work" and 2. That the next generation would know "Your Glory.")

17 And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and establish You the work of our hands upon us; yes, the work of our hands establish You it. (The sense of this Verse is that there is no "beauty" on the Earth other than that which is given by the Lord. As well, the "work of our hands" is nothing unless it is established by God.)

PROBABLY WRITTEN BY MOSES: GOD IS A REFUGE AND A FORTRESS

[1] He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. (The previous Psalm introduced the Wilderness and contrasted the misery and happiness of travelers in it who trust self or God. This Psalm points to the one Man Who passed through it undefiled, unhurt, and trusting and loving God in perfection.

The absence of a superscription suggests that the Psalm was written by Moses, for the previous one was written by him. If this be so, then all the Scriptures quoted in the temptation in the desert [Mat., Chpt. 4] were Mosaic.

That the Messiah is the great figure of this Psalm is decided by Mat. 4:6.)

[2] I will say of the LORD, He is My Refuge and My Fortress: My God; in Him will I trust. (As Christ enters the "secret place of the Most High," the Holy Spirit assures Him that companionship with God will be a safe refuge from Satan's power and from all the dangers of the way.)

[3] Surely He shall deliver You from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. (The "snare of the fowler" was the demon forces of darkness that opposed Christ, either through the evil religious leaders of Jesus' day, or in their own capacity. They came in such quantity that they were called the "noisome pestilence," which means a "rushing calamity" — one that sweeps everything before it. Christ had the promise of the Holy Spirit that He would be delivered, and so He was!)

[4] He shall cover You with His feathers, and under His wings shall You trust: His truth shall be Your shield and buckler. (This Passage has to do with the Holy of Holies. It speaks of where God dwelt between the Cherubim and the Mercy Seat. He invited Christ to dwell there with Him.

In turn, Christ paid the price for us, that the Holy Spirit may dwell in us [I Cor. 3:16].)

5 You shall not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flies by day *(the "terror by night" speaks of the spiritual darkness of Satan. The "arrow that flies by day" refers to the deliberate effort by Satan to destroy the soul. The Evil One devises a temptation, oppression, or trap for the Believer, and then shoots it like an "arrow." The only thing that can stop it is the "Shield and Buckler" of Verse 4);

6 Nor for the pestilence that walks in darkness; nor for the destruction that wastes at noonday. ("The pestilence that walks in darkness" pertains to every scourge of Satanic darkness. The "destruction that wastes at noonday" refers to Satan's destroying great multitudes, yet not touching the Child of God, who is dwelling in the "secret place of the Most High.")

7 A thousand shall fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; but it shall not come near you. (Untold millions are being destroyed by the powers of darkness; but the Believer who puts his trust in God is promised that "it shall not come near you.")

8 Only with your eyes shall you behold and see the reward of the wicked. (The results of living without God are overly obvious!)

9 Because You have made the LORD, Who is My Refuge, even the Most High, Your Habitation *(the Holy Spirit here is the Speaker. The Messiah is assured victory by the Holy Spirit only because He "has made the LORD His Refuge." Since Christ is our Substitute, the Lord can be our "Habitation" as well);

10 There shall no evil befall You, neither shall any plague come near Your dwelling. (Because His "dwelling" is in the "secret place of the Most High," it is impossible for "evil" to befall you. Verses 11 and 12 were quoted by Satan, and his quoting them showed his intelligence in recognizing that the Psalm applied to Jesus [Mat. 4:6].)

11 For He shall give His Angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways. (This shows how much Satan knows the Bible, but yet he still thinks he can circumvent the Word of God. Angels did constantly help Christ [Mat. 4:11; Lk. 4:10–11]. However, Satan corrupted the Scripture by omitting "in all your ways," and inserting in its place "at any time." The Messiah's path through the desert of the Wilderness was one of dependence upon God. Satan's effort in the temptation was to move Him to independence, but he failed. Christ walked a path of perfect submission, obedience, and dependence; likewise, all those who walk after Him in like dependence and faith can be assured of His Victory.)

12 They shall bear you up in their hands, lest you dash your foot against a stone. (Satan attempted to get Christ to commit the sin of presumption, which means to twist the Word of God in order that it mean something that God did not intend.)

13 You shall tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shall you trample under feet. (Satan quoted Verses 11 through 12 in the temptation of Christ, but he did not dare quote Verse 13, because it promised his defeat [Gen. 3:15].)

14 Because he has set his love upon Me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he has known My Name. (These are the words of the Father. How amazing that sinful men should be permitted to hear the sweet converse of the Three Persons of the Trinity!)

15 He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him. (Christ has been greatly honored for what He did at the Cross by being given a Name that is above every name [Phil. 2:9].)

16 With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my Salvation. (This speaks of Christ, but even more so, it speaks of the man who trusts Christ, and thereby reaps the benefits of what Jesus did at Calvary, all on our behalf.)

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: A SONG FOR THE SABBATH DAY

[1] It is a good thing to give thanks unto the LORD, and to sing praises unto Your Name, O Most High (this is a Wilderness Psalm, which proclaims the Sabbath as God's Rest for His People. The Sabbath was symbolic of the "rest" that is found only in Christ. Here, Israel sings of Him and addresses Him as "Jehovah" [the LORD] and "Elyon" [Most High]. Consistently, the Holy Spirit proclaims the "good thing" of thanking and praising the Lord)**:

[2] To show forth Your Lovingkindness in the morning, and Your Faithfulness every night. (This proclaims constant praises both "morning" and "night." The Lord is portrayed in "lovingkindness" and "faithfulness.")

[3] Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery; upon the harp with a solemn sound. (The Holy Spirit through David orchestrated the worship of God through musical instruments, choirs, songs, and singers; therefore, all true worship of God in any and all Churches would come from the Root of David.)

[4] For You, LORD, have made me glad through Your Work: I will triumph in the Works of Your Hands. (The praises are rendered to God for what the Lord has done for Israel.)

[5] O LORD, how great are Your Works! and Your thoughts are very deep. (When we revert back to the helplessness of man in Psalm 90, realizing what God has done for us, then how can we help but praise Him!)

[6] A brutish man knows not; neither does a fool understand this. (God calls "fools" those who do not understand worship toward God. At the Fall, man did descend toward the animal kingdom. At the New Birth, he is made a New Creature, consequently becoming more like God. In other words, God is saying that those who do not know nor understand the worship of God are little more than brute beasts.)

[7] When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed forever (ultimately, the righteous will be blessed, and ultimately the wicked will be destroyed)**:

[8] But You, LORD, are Most High forevermore. (This Verse actually means that Jehovah will be enthroned forever. This statement, preceded and followed by declarations as to the destruction of the wicked, makes terribly clear the doctrine that the eternity of His Government necessitates the eternity of their misery. For as long as His Government lasts, a rebellion and recovery by them will be impossible.)

[9] For, lo, Your enemies, O LORD, for, lo, Your enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered. (Israel looked at her enemies as God's enemies, and so they were!)

[10] But my horn shall You exalt like the horn of an unicorn: I shall be anointed with fresh oil. (The word "horn" refers to Israel's future exaltation as the premier nation of the world, which will take place in the Millennial Reign. At that time, she will be brought back to God, will accept Jesus Christ, and will be "anointed with fresh oil.")

[11] My eye also shall see my desire on my enemies, and my ears shall hear my desire of the wicked who rise up against me. (Every Promise given here to Israel can be accepted and enjoyed by the modern Believer, except those Promises which are Dispensational, and thereby affect Israel only.)

[12] The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon. (The Believer is comparable to a palm and to a cedar. The one grows in a sandy plain, the other on a rugged mountain. The one has a taproot that draws nourishment from beneath, the other is refreshed from above. The one is beautiful, the other strong. The Christian has a secret source of life; he receives blessing from beneath and from above, and he is morally beautiful and strong.)

13 Those who be planted in the House of the LORD shall flourish in the Courts of our God. (The inference in this Verse is that "the wicked" of Verse 7 may flourish for a while, but then they will be cut off. Nevertheless, those who are "planted" in God's Grace will eternally "flourish.")

14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing (this speaks of all Believers, but primarily of Israel in her "old age"; having been away from God for so long and finally brought back to Him, she will then begin to "bring forth fruit"; during the Great Millennial Reign, she "shall be fat and flourishing")**;

15 To show that the LORD is upright: He is my Rock, and there is no unrighteousness in Him. (The fruit and strength of the Spirit exhibited in the Christian life is an effective testimony to the moral glory of the Lord Jesus Christ. Finally recognizing that moral glory, Israel will shout with exultation, "He is my Rock — there is no unrighteousness in Him!")

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: THE LORD IS CLOTHED WITH MAJESTY

[1] The LORD reigns, He is clothed with majesty; the LORD is clothed with strength, wherewith He has girded Himself: the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved. (The great price at Calvary has been paid, and the Holy Spirit can now abide in the hearts of believing, born-again men. It can now also be said that "the world also is stablished." Now that this great price has been paid and the "lion, adder, and the dragon" defeated [Ps. 91:13], there is no doubt of the outcome. "It cannot be moved.")

[2] Your Throne is established of old: You are from everlasting. (All human history, in its final settlement, is comprised in the brief compass of this Psalm. It sets out the Majesty of the King's Person and the stability of His Kingdom [Vs. 1], plus the antiquity of His Throne, and the eternity of His Being.)

[4] The LORD on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yes, than the mighty waves of the sea. (This is likened to Christ stilling the raging of the Galilean Sea [Jn. 6:16], as He will still the future raging of the hostile nations and will establish universal peace.)

[5] Your Testimonies are very sure: Holiness becomes Your House, O LORD, forever. ("Your Testimonies" refer to God's Word in its various Revelations of Truth, while the foundation of God's House is "Holiness," as the foundation of man’s house is unholiness.)

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: A PRAYER FOR VENGEANCE ON THE OPPRESSORS

1 O LORD God, to Whom vengeance belongs; O God, to Whom vengeance belongs, show Yourself. (This Psalm corresponds with the time of "Jacob's Trouble" [Jer. 30:7], and will introduce the Antichrist, who will be the greatest work of the flesh ever devised by Satan.

In the latter half of the Great Tribulation, Israel will cry to God as never before. When it seems that she faces annihilation, she will plead with the Lord, "show Yourself.")

2 Lift up Yourself, You Judge of the Earth: render a reward to the proud. (Israel, upon realizing that no nation in the world will lift a hand to save her, and we speak of the coming Great Tribulation, will cry for the Messiah to come. He is her only hope. The "proud" spoken of here pertains to the man of sin, the Antichrist.)

3 LORD, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph? (How long before the Lord works vengeance on the Antichrist?)

4 How long shall they utter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves? (The followers of the Antichrist will boast of what looks like the annihilation of Israel.)

5 They break in pieces Your People, O LORD, and afflict Your heritage. (This concerns the Antichrist breaking his seven-year covenant with Israel at the midpoint. He will then set out to systematically destroy "Your heritage.")

6 They kill the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless. (The Antichrist will attempt to do what Hitler failed to do. He will have no mercy on any. He will hate Israel with a passion, thinking that if he can destroy them, the entirety of the Word of God will fall to the ground.)

7 Yet they say, the LORD shall not see, neither shall the God of Jacob regard it. (In effect, the Antichrist will blaspheme the Lord of Glory, proclaiming that God can do nothing to stop him. As well, he will blaspheme the Old Testament, claiming that the "God of Jacob does not regard it."

What he does not know is that the very words he is using, "the God of Jacob," specifically refer to the God Who met Jacob when he had nothing and deserved nothing, and gave him Grace and the Promise of every known blessing of life [Gen., Chpt. 28]. Likewise, this same God will once again come to the rescue of "Jacob" [Israel] when she has nothing and deserves nothing good and, in effect, will give Israel Grace and certain victory over the man of sin.)

8 Understand, you brutish among the people: and you fools, when will you be wise? (In this Passage, the Holy Spirit calls the Antichrist and those who follow him "fools"!)

9 He who plants the ear, shall He not hear? He Who forms the eye, shall He not see? (The Holy Spirit is informing the Antichrist that God sees all and hears all.)

10 He Who chastises the heathen, shall not He correct? He Who teaches man knowledge, shall not He know? (The Holy Spirit is saying that, as the Lord chastised the heathen of the past, He will likewise chastise the heathen of the present, meaning the Antichrist.)

11 The LORD knows the thoughts of man, that they are vanity. (The Lord will conclude all the great thoughts and claims of the Antichrist as being "vanity," which means "empty nothings.")

12 Blessed is the man whom You chasten, O LORD, and teach him out of Your Law (the sense of this Verse is that the Great Tribulation is Israel's chastening, and that, through this chastening, she will be brought back to "Your Law" [Jer. 30:7]);

13 That You may give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be digged for the wicked. (Israel will ultimately be given "rest"; the Antichrist ultimately will fall into the "pit" [II Thess. 2:8].)

14 For the LORD will not cast off His People, neither will He forsake His inheritance. (The Lord has made many Promises that Israel will be brought to restoration. This Passage is but one of those many.)

15 But judgment shall return unto righteousness: and all the upright in heart shall follow it. (Judgment divorced from righteousness entails oppression. When the Son of Man returns to judge the Earth, the judgment will return to Righteousness and all the upright in heart will gladly follow in its train.)

16 Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity? (The confession of Verses 16 through 19 is that the Messiah Alone could protect defenseless Israel.)

17 Unless the LORD had been my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence. (At that time [the Battle of Armageddon], it will seem that no nation on Earth will come to Israel's rescue. But the Lord will come to her aid!)

18 When I said, my foot slips; Your Mercy, O LORD, held me up. (When it looks like Israel has surely lost, and that the Antichrist will gain the victory, she will cry, "Have mercy, O LORD, hold me up!" And that He shall do [Zech. 14:3–4].)

19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me Your comforts delight my soul. (This means that at this critical juncture in Israel's long history, the only "comforts" she will have are the Promises of God, which will "delight my soul.")

20 Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with You, which frames mischief by a law? (In this Passage, Israel contrasts the Earth under the Antichrist versus the Earth under Christ. Daniel said that the Antichrist would "think to change times and laws" [Dan. 7:25]. Actually, this has ever been man's problem. He continues to try to change God's Laws into his own man-made laws; this always brings "mischief.")

21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood. (Here Israel is called "the righteous," because they are the ancient people of the Book. The Antichrist will "condemn" them to death. Instead, he will die.)

22 But the LORD is my defence; and my God is the Rock of my refuge. (After so many years in the wilderness, Israel is finally coming home. She now realizes that her own strength cannot save her, nor the strength of any other nation, since none will come to her aid. She now knows that God Alone is her "Rock.")

23 And He shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yes, the LORD our God shall cut them off. (Ezek., Chpts. 38 and 39, proclaim exactly how the Lord will do this.)

CHAPTER 95

A PSALM OF DAVID: A PSALM OF PRAISE TO GOD

[1] O come, let us sing unto the LORD: let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our Salvation. (Psalm 94 portrayed the wilderness journey. Now the first fingers of dawn are about to break upon the Millennial morn. The long night of Israel's weeping is about to come to an end. Israel has seen the Earth under the Antichrist. Now she will see the Earth under Christ.

The "joyful noise" that we are to make is the singing of hymns of praise [96:1–3].)

[2] Let us come before His Presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto Him with Psalms. (We are given here a wonderful directive by the Holy Spirit concerning the approach of the Believer to the Lord. It is to be with "thanksgiving" and "singing.")

[3] For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods. (Creation Rest, Redemption Rest, and Millennial Rest are all based upon the Person and Work of Christ. Faith brings us into these Rests; unbelief excludes us.)

[4] In His Hand are the deep places of the Earth: the strength of the hills is His also. (This means that God is Lord over Hell, and also over the entirety of the Earth.)

[5] The sea is His, and He made it: and His Hands formed the dry land. (Over and over again, the Holy Spirit refutes the lie of evolution. God is the Creator of all, and He deserves worship by all.)

[6] O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the LORD our Maker. (This Verse is the great invitation to come to Jesus. He is God's Rest — an ineffable Rest. How wonderful is the Grace that invites sinners to share God's Rest! This is a Rest that never can be disturbed; its wonders are developed by the God of Glory [Heb., Chpts. 3–4].)

7 For He is our God; and we are the people of His Pasture, and the sheep of His Hand. Today if you will hear His Voice *(this Passage is quoted in Hebrews 3:7–11 and 4:7; what a privilege to say, "He is our God" and that "we are the people of His Pasture"; as well, the expression, "the sheep of His Hand," refers to our being made by Him; it has a far greater meaning than if a shepherd purchases sheep; in this instance, it means that God created the sheep — "the sheep of His Hand"; accordingly, we are admonished to "hear His Voice," the voice of the Shepherd),

8 Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness *(the wilderness was a proving time for Israel; regrettably, they failed!):

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work. (Israel tempted the Lord in the wilderness, and refused to believe, even though they "saw His Work.")

10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people who do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways *(Israel challenged God to provide a table for them in the desert and, when it was provided, declared that Pharaoh's was better, so they desired to appoint a captain to return to Egypt! [Num. 14:3–4]):

11 Unto whom I swore in my wrath that they should not enter into my rest. (The greatest sin of all just may be the sin of faithlessness. The entire fabric of the Plan of God demands Faith. Men forsake God because they don't believe God. In the Wilderness, Israel showed unbelief. They died because of that unbelief and "could not enter into God's rest.")

POSSIBLY WRITTEN BY DAVID: A NEW SONG OF PRAISE TO THE LORD

[1] O Sing unto the LORD a new song: sing unto the LORD, all the Earth. (The setting of this song seems to be at the beginning of the Millennial Reign. Israel, having sung the previous Psalm, now invites the nations to join her in "a new song." Psalm 97 will be that song. This "new song" belongs to the day when the kingdoms of the world shall become the Kingdom of Jehovah and of His Christ [Rev. 11:15; 12:10].)

[2] Sing unto the LORD, bless His Name, show forth His Salvation from day to day. (The doctrine of this Psalm is that the Advent of the Messiah into the world will make it a Paradise, and that His Rule alone can eliminate dissension, war, misery, and injustice, and furthermore will establish society in an enduring brotherhood — "His Salvation.")

[3] Declare His Glory among the heathen, His Wonders among all people. (Men may test the reality and credibility of this Prophecy by surrendering their sinful hearts to the Government of Immanuel. They will then experience love, peace, and a moral power that their hearts were strangers to, previous to conversion.

Much of the world is presently steeped in demonic Islam, Hinduism, spiritism, and other works of darkness; however, during the great Kingdom Age to come, the whole world will finally know of His Glory.)

[4] For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised: He is to be feared above all gods. (Satan's great contest with God has always been to make himself God instead of Jehovah. He has sought to do this through demon spirits, idol worship, false religions, etc. Paul addressed himself to this in II Cor., Chpt. 11.)

[5] For all the gods of the nations are idols: but the LORD made the heavens ("idols," in the Hebrew, is "elilim," and means "nothings, vanities, emptiness, things of nought"; regrettably, the far greater majority of the world serves these "nothings" instead of the Lord Who created all things)**.

[6] Honour and majesty are before Him: strength and beauty are in His Sanctuary. (The emphasis is on the pronoun "His." There are many other sanctuaries at present in the world, but they are false. As just stated, they are "nothings." The only "strength" and "beauty" in the world are in "His Sanctuary," which now refers to born-again Believers serving as the Temple of the Holy Spirit [I Cor. 3:16].)

[7] Give unto the LORD, O you kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength. (The nations of the world are invited to share in this "strength" and "beauty." They are invited to give the "LORD" the "glory" due His Name, instead of wasting it on "idols.")

[8] Give unto the LORD the glory due unto His Name: bring an offering, and come into His Courts. (The latter half of this Verse, concerning the bringing of Offerings, refers to the Prophecies of Zechariah. In the coming Kingdom Age, the nations of the world will come to Jerusalem to keep the "Feast of Tabernacles" [Zech. 14:16–19].)

[9] O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness: fear before Him, all the Earth. (In the coming Kingdom Age, everything will be "holiness," even the "bells of the horses" [Zech. 14:20].)

[10] Say among the heathen that the LORD reigns: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: He shall judge the people righteously. (For the first time, the world in its entirety will know government that is not corrupt, because "the LORD reigns.")

[11] Let the heavens rejoice, and let the Earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof. (When Jesus Christ reigns over the entirety of planet Earth in the glorious Kingdom Age, then the heavens can rejoice and the Earth can be glad. The sea will roar, not with anger, but with praises unto the Lord.)

12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice (for the first time since Lucifer's original Fall, Planet Earth will be in union with God, because Jesus Christ reigns)

13 Before the LORD: for He comes, for He comes to judge the Earth: He shall judge the world with Righteousness, and the people with His Truth. (This is the judgment of the nations during the coming Kingdom Age [Mat. 25:31–46].)

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: THE LORD REIGNS: REJOICE

[1] The LORD reigns; let the Earth rejoice; let the multitude of isles be glad thereof. (As the previous Psalm gave the invitation, this Psalm proclaims its fulfillment. This is the "new song" that is spoken of in 96:1. It is new for Earth, but not for Heaven. It sings of a new day for humanity — a day of Righteousness, peace, and brotherhood. It will dawn when God causes His First Begotten to return to the Earth on that Great Millennial Morn and commands all the Angels to worship Him [Heb. 1:6].)

[2] Clouds and darkness are round about Him: Righteousness and Judgment are the habitation of His Throne. (The reason for the great "gladness" on Earth is because "Righteousness and Judgment are the habitation of His Throne.")

[3] A fire goes before Him, and burns up His enemies round about. (This will be the Second Coming at the Battle of Armageddon [II Thess. 1:7–8].)

[4] His lightnings enlightened the world: the Earth saw, and trembled. (His Second Coming will be with such manifestations as the world has never seen before. The very heavens will dance with joy [Mat. 24:27, 29–30].)

[5] The hills melted like wax at the Presence of the LORD, at the Presence of the Lord of the whole Earth. (According to the Prophecies, the Second Coming will be the most phenomenal event that has ever transpired on planet Earth.)

[6] The heavens declare His Righteousness, and all the people see His Glory. (There is a good possibility that the Second Coming will be flashed by television all over the world. There is no doubt that hundreds, if not thousands, of television cameras, representing every network in the world, will be recording the Battle of Armageddon. Thus, they will be there at the moment of the Second Coming.)

7 Confounded be all they who serve graven images, who boast themselves of idols: worship Him, all you gods. (Then, and beyond the shadow of a doubt, the world will know that Jesus is God, and not idols or false religions.)

8 Zion heard, and was glad; and the daughters of Judah rejoiced because of Your Judgments, O LORD. (Israel will now accept Jesus Christ as both Saviour and Lord.)

9 For You, LORD, are high above all the Earth: You are exalted far above all gods. (At long last, the Holy Spirit is telling us that at the time of the Kingdom Age, all false worship will be ended. The Lord Alone will be worshipped!)

10 You who love the LORD, hate evil: He preserves the souls of His Saints; He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked. (Particularly, this refers to the deliverance of Israel from the Antichrist during the Battle of Armageddon. In general, it refers to all Believers who place their Faith and trust in Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross [Gal. 1:4].)

11 Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart. (By and large, the world has known nothing but spiritual darkness. Now it will know "light." The Coming of the Lord will bring "gladness" to the entirety of the planet.)

12 Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous; and give thanks at the remembrance of His holiness. (The word "Holiness" really means that everything will be set apart for His Service. And we mean everything!)

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: PRAISE TO GOD FOR HIS SALVATION

[1] O sing unto the LORD a new song; for He has done marvelous things: His Right Hand, and His holy Arm, has gotten Him the victory. (This glorious "new song" will salute Jehovah Messiah on that Millennial Morn, and will have three voices: 1. Restored Israel will now have a "new song"; 2. The Gentile nations will as well sing this song; well may men sing at the prospect of such a rule; they have never enjoyed a government exhibiting righteousness and equity; now they will; and, 3. Nature, for the first time since the Fall, will respond to its Creator in harmony [Rom. 8:22].)

[2] The LORD has made known His Salvation: His Righteousness has He openly shown in the sight of the heathen. (The word "Salvation" refers to Deliverance from the powers of sin, Satan, and darkness. Only Jesus Christ can set men free. He is the Source, and the Cross is the Means [Rom. 6:3–14].)

[3] He has remembered His Mercy and His Truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the Earth have seen the Salvation of our God. (As the nations of the world in olden times witnessed with wonder the birth of the Twelve Tribes, so they will see with astonishment their Restoration. This will take place at the Second Coming.)

[4] Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all the Earth: make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise. (The world has ever attempted its celebrations; however, they ring with a hollow sound. Now, and at long last, there is a true "joyful noise," because the Lord Himself is the Author of this celebration.)

[5] Sing unto the LORD with the harp; with the harp, and the voice of a Psalm.

6 With trumpets and sound of cornets make a joyful noise before the LORD, the King. (The very structure of music, which was originally created by the Lord, has within it the incorporation of the Divine Trinity. It is combined under three headings, all given by God: 1. Melody: this refers to an ordered structure of sound; 2. Harmony: this has to do with the accompanying voices or instruments regarding the different parts of music, such as lead, alto, bass, or tenor; and, 3. Rhythm: this has to do with measured beats of which many of the Psalms were written.

During the coming Kingdom Age, the world will be filled with music — but music unto God, even as it was originally intended. In fact, in a sense, "the LORD, the King" will be the Conductor.)

7 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they who dwell therein.

8 Let the floods clap their hands: let the hills be joyful together (the harmony of Nature was interrupted at the Fall [Gen., Chpt. 3; Ps. 8]; now, for the first time in history, Nature is at one with God)**.

9 Before the LORD; for He comes to judge the Earth: with righteousness shall He judge the world, and the people with equity. (For the first time, the entirety of the world will have a fair judgment.)

CHAPTER 99

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: ADMONITIONS TO FEAR, PRAISE, AND WORSHIP GOD

[1] The LORD reigns; let the people tremble: He sits between the Cherubims; let the Earth be moved. (This will take place at the beginning of the Kingdom Age.)

2 The LORD is great in Zion; and He is high above all the people. (Animated by this great vision, the pilgrim company joyfully shouts, "Jehovah takes the Kingdom." The meaning of the statement, "high above all the people," refers to the Deity of the Messiah. While it is true He is Very Man; still, He is also Very God.)

[3] Let them praise Your great and terrible Name; for it is Holy (meaning without impurity of any nature)**.

[4] The King's strength also loves judgment; You do establish equity, You execute judgment and righteousness in Jacob. (This Verse promises that the Power of the king shall be employed on behalf of judgment, equity, and Righteousness. This is not true of Earthly governments and monarchs.

If one will notice, the word "equity" is used repeatedly by the Holy Spirit in these Psalms, meaning that the Lord of Glory will at long last bring equality on Earth.)

[5] Exalt you the LORD our God, and worship at His footstool; for He is Holy. (In the Third Verse, it says, "His Name is Holy," and in this Verse it says, "He is Holy.")

[6] Moses and Aaron among His Priests, and Samuel among them who call upon His Name; they called upon the LORD, and He answered them. (Moses actually exercised the Office of Priest before Aaron [Ex. 24:6–8]. So, both Moses and Aaron were among His Priests. Samuel represents the Prophets.

The Holy Spirit recognizes and brings forward those who in the past were true to His communications, despite national and ecclesiastical apostasy.

These men figure together all who loved and trusted the Messiah in the past and who were faithful to His Word. Even though they died thousands of years ago, true to His Promise, they will appear with our Lord in the glory of His Kingdom, and along with them all whom they represent and who exercised the faith that they exercised.)

[7] He spoke unto them in the cloudy pillar: they kept His Testimonies, and the Ordinance that He gave them. (We are told here that the Holy Spirit judged all before the Cross in the light of Justification by Faith and called them righteous when, in fact, they had no righteousness. This means that they entered into His Victory, and were accorded the same as the New Testament Saints.)

[8] You answered them, O LORD our God: You were a God Who forgave them, though You took vengeance of their inventions. (Two great Divine principles appear in this Verse: 1. That God forgives confessed sin and 2. That He judges its action.)

[9] Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at His Holy Hill; for the LORD our God is Holy. (The Fifth Verse extols Israel to worship the Lord; this Ninth Verse extols the nations of the world to praise Israel's God and Lord.)

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: A CALL TO PRAISE THE LORD

[1] Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all you lands. (Seven times in these Psalms, men are commanded to make a "joyful noise unto the Lord" [66:1; 81:1; 95:1–2; 98:4–6; 100:1]. "Seven" is God's number, speaking of totality, completion, perfection, fulfillment, and universality. This speaks of Christ reigning supreme in the Kingdom Age. Every country in the world will then serve Him.)

[2] Serve the LORD with gladness: come before His Presence with singing. (Then the theme of the world will be "gladness and singing.")

[3] Know you that the LORD He is God: it is He Who has made us, and not we ourselves; we are His People, and the sheep of His pasture. (Several things are said in this Verse: 1. Jesus Christ is God, not Buddha, Muhammad, etc.; 2. We are the product of His Hand, not a product of senseless, mindless evolution; 3. He saved us; we could not save ourselves; 4. We are His People; and, 5. We will forage in His pasture, and a wonderful pasture it is!)

[4] Enter into His Gates with thanksgiving, and into His Courts with praise: be thankful unto Him, and bless His Name. (Even though this Verse refers to the old economy of God, in essence it means that every Believer, when coming into our Lord's Presence in prayer, should begin with "thanksgiving" and "praise.")

[5] For the LORD is good; His Mercy is everlasting; and His truth endures to all generations. (Everything else falls by the wayside, while "His Truth" marches on, and does so forever.)

CHAPTER 101

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE KING'S MANIFESTO

[1] I will sing of mercy and judgment: unto You, O LORD, will I sing. (This Psalm portrays the character and capacity of the King to Whom is to be given the Kingdom. This Psalm, plus several which follow, show how Christ was to be tested by suffering, whether Personal or sympathetic. David, who wrote this Psalm, and was a Type of Him, was also tested by suffering. His Personal Perfection is the subject of the first two Verses)**,

[2] I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way, O when will You come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart. (The expression, "behave myself wisely," was said of David several times, while he was with Saul, and when Saul was attempting to kill him [I Sam. 18:5, 14–15]. As well, the Greater Son of David behaved Himself wisely. David's way was not perfect; however, the Way of the Son of Man was "a Perfect Way," because He had a "Perfect Heart." David could only desire these things; Christ was these things.)

[3] I will set no wicked thing before my eyes: I hate the work of them who turn aside; it shall not cleave to me. (This was the heart of David, although not always his actions.

The "turning aside" has to do with deviating from the Word of God. The Sadducees denied the Word of God. The Pharisees twisted the Word of God, as well as adding to it. Christ said that He hated their work.)

[4] A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person. (The word "froward" means "perverse" or "wicked." The sense of this Verse is that Christ would never agree to, or place approval upon, the perverseness of the Scribes, Sadducees, and Pharisees. They were classified as "a wicked person.")

[5] Whoso privily slanders his neighbour, him will I cut off: him who has a high look and a proud heart will not I suffer. (In general, this applies to anyone; however, its greater fulfillment pertains to the action of the Scribes, Sadducees, and Pharisees, who slandered Christ.)

[6] My eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with Me: he who walks in a perfect way, he shall serve Me. (Christ here says that He would put His Eyes upon the "faithful of the land," instead of upon the ruling religious hierarchy.)

[7] He who works deceit shall not dwell within My House: he who tells lies shall not tarry in My sight. (Regrettably, most organized religion works from a foundation of "deceit." As its master, Satan, it functions by "telling lies.")

[8] I will early destroy all the wicked of the land; that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the LORD. (At the very beginning of the Millennial Reign, Christ will put down the "wicked of the land.")

CHAPTER 102

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: A PRAYER OF PENITENCE

[1] Hear My prayer, O LORD, and let My cry come unto You. (The subject of this Psalm is twofold. The glories of Christ as the Great King are contrasted with His sufferings as the Rejected Man. Here, as in so many other Scriptures, His sufferings and glories are brought together, and always in that order. It was necessary that He should be both the Man of Sorrows and the Mighty God. As the One, He is equipped with Mercy; as the Other, with Judgment. He is the Afflicted One of this Psalm.)

[2] Hide not Your face from Me in the day when I am in trouble; incline Your ear unto Me: in the day when I call answer Me speedily. (Both Verses 1 and 2 pertain to Christ as Very Man, although never ceasing to be Very God, yet the Perfect Sacrifice.)

[3] For My days are consumed like smoke, and My bones are burned as an hearth. (The sufferings He endured from the opposition of virtually all of Israel, especially the religious hierarchy, literally consumed Him.)

[4] My heart is smitten, and withered like grass; so that I forget to eat My bread. (As Christ dealt with a lost world, brokenhearted over its destitute spiritual condition, it says of Him, "In the mean while His Disciples prayed Him, saying, Master, eat" [Jn. 4:31].)

[5] By reason of the voice of My groaning My bones cleave to My skin. (This Passage tells us that the entirety of His Earthly Ministry was filled with such consternation because of the terrible sin of the people, especially the religious leaders.)

[6] I am like a pelican of the wilderness: I am like an owl of the desert. (Both the "pelican" and the "owl" were unclean fowls and, thereby, unacceptable. Christ was treated by the religious hierarchy like an unclean fowl.)

7 I watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the house top. (A sparrow was seldom alone, unless its mate was killed. There was no one who could enter into the sufferings of Christ, and for all the obvious reasons.)

8 My enemies reproach Me all the day; and they who are mad against Me are sworn against Me. (The Scribes and Pharisees, as is evident from this Verse, bound themselves by an oath to destroy Him.)

9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled My drink with weeping (the great sorrow of our Lord was twofold: 1. Israel's rejection of Him and 2. What it would mean to them),

10 Because of Your indignation and Your wrath: for You have lifted Me up, and cast Me down. (On the Mount of Transfiguration, He was "lifted up," for the Voice said, "This is My Beloved Son"; and on the Mount of Condemnation [Calvary], He was "cast down," for He cried, "Why have You forsaken Me?")

11 My days are like a shadow that declines; and I am withered like grass. (He did not come to live, He came to die. But in His Death, He bought eternal life.)

12 But You, O LORD, shall endure forever; and Your remembrance unto all generations. (Whereas Verses 1 through 11 speak of His First Advent, Verses 12 through 22 speak of His Second Advent. As the First was in suffering and sorrow, the Second shall be in glory and victory.)

13 You shall arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favour her, yes, the set time, is come. (The "set time" for Israel began in 1948, when she was restored, at least partially, as a nation. It will come to fruition in the Battle of Armageddon, when it seems that Israel and Jerusalem will be completely destroyed. At that time, Israel will cry out to God for her Messiah. He will then "arise" and "have mercy upon Zion" [Rev., Chpt. 19].)

14 For Your servants take pleasure in her stones, and favour the dust thereof. (Modern Israel desires the world to look at Jerusalem as her capital, but with the United States, as well as most other nations, not doing so for fear of offending the Arabs. All need to read these Verses.)

15 So the heathen shall fear the Name of the LORD, and all the kings of the Earth Your Glory. (This will take place in the coming Kingdom Age.)

16 When the LORD shall build up Zion, He shall appear in His Glory. (Israel is God's prophetic time clock. The Lord has already begun to build up Zion, so this tells us that we are living in the very last of the last days, regarding the Church Age.)

17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer. (The "destitute" here pertains to Israel in the Battle of Armageddon. God will hear their prayer and will answer it.)

18 This shall be written for the generation to come: and the people which shall be created shall praise the LORD. (This speaks of those who will be born in the coming Kingdom Age.)

19 For He has looked down from the height of His Sanctuary; from Heaven did the LORD behold the Earth *(the specific meaning of this Passage, through Verse 22, is that God will see Israel's plight in the latter half of the Great Tribulation, and especially in the Battle of Armageddon, when He will come to their rescue);

20 To hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose those that are appointed to death *(this pertains to the efforts by the Antichrist to completely annihilate Israel);

21 To declare the Name of the LORD in Zion, and His praise in Jerusalem *(when Israel rejected Christ in His First Advent, the Lord withdrew from visible protection of that nation. For nearly 2,000 years now, they have wandered throughout the nations of the world. In the latter half of the Great Tribulation, and especially during the Battle of Armageddon, the Lord will once again begin to visibly show Himself, and upon His Second Advent will actually set up His Earthly headquarters in Jerusalem);

22 When the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve the LORD. (The sense of this Verse is the glory of the Millennial Morn. Satan's day is over.)

23 He weakened My strength in the way; He shortened My days.

24 I said, O My God, take Me not away in the midst of My days: Your years are throughout all generations. (First of all, these two Passages refer to the Messiah in His Earthly Ministry and the price He paid for the Deliverance of humanity. Second, it refers to Israel, when her days were shortened because of sin. She was meant to be a light "throughout all generations," but she herself extinguished that light. However, that light will be restored, and Israel will faithfully serve the Lord "throughout all generations.")

25 Of old have You laid the foundation of the Earth: and the heavens are the work of Your Hands. (Not mindless evolution!)

26 They shall perish, but You shall endure: yes, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shall You change them, and they shall be changed (this means that the heavens and the Earth will ultimately be changed. The idea here is that they are being affected by sin and the bondage of corruption. They will be renewed and liberated from this corrupt state to a new and eternal state and be kept eternally new when all sin is put down [I Cor. 15:24–28], with everything then restored as before the curse. There will be no more curse or bondage of corruption after this [Rom. 8:21–24; Heb. 1:10–12; Rev. 21:1; 22:3])**:

27 But You are the same, and Your years shall have no end. (The material creations that have been cursed and brought under the bondage of corruption to wax old will, of necessity, be renewed and changed to the state of eternal newness. God will never wax old nor need to be renewed. He is eternally the same.)

28 The children of Your servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before You. (This has a twofold meaning: 1. It refers to Israel, which will be restored and will worship God forever and 2. It means that eternal generations of natural people shall continue upon planet Earth forever, and will be established. In other words, the Plan of God for the human race was not cancelled by the Fall [Gen., Chpt. 3], but was only delayed.)

DAVID IS THE AUTHOR: THANKSGIVING TO THE LORD

[1] Bless the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless His Holy Name. (The subject of this Psalm is Redemption. It begins with thanksgiving unto the Lord for all that He has done. In essence, it refers to the "benefits" of the Cross.)

[2] Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits (while Christ is the Source of all benefits, the Cross is the Means)**:

[3] Who forgives all your iniquities; Who heals all your diseases (the Lord Alone can forgive sin [I Jn. 1:9]; the Lord Alone can heal [I Pet. 2:24])**;

[4] Who redeems your life from destruction; Who crowns you with lovingkindness and tender mercies (the word "redeemed" means to purchase something back that has been lost through death, default, or failure to pay; Jesus did so by the means of the Cross [Eph. 2:13–18])**;

[5] Who satisfies your mouth with good things; so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's. (The "eagle" was used by the Holy Spirit as an example. Once a year, eagles cast off their old feathers and receive new ones; therefore, despite their age, they have the continued look of youthfulness. Likewise, upon acceptance of Christ, and the individual becoming a new creature with the guilt of sin removed, the redeemed one always has a youthful spirit!)

[6] The LORD executes righteousness and judgment for all who are oppressed. (The word "oppressed" has to do with Satan's heavy hand upon the human race. The Lord Alone can deliver those who are oppressed by the Devil. He does so through our Faith in Him and what He has done for us at the Cross [Acts 10:38].)

7 He made known His Ways unto Moses, His Acts unto the Children of Israel. (Natural intelligence can recognize Divine "Acts," but only to the Spiritual Mind does God make known His "Ways.")

8 The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy. (In this and the following Verses, God outlines His dealings with Israel while in the wilderness, and even in the Land. His dealings are thusly with us.)

9 He will not always chide: neither will He keep His anger forever. (Irrespective of what has happened, if the Believer will humble himself and confess his wrongdoing, the Lord will discontinue His admonishment and cool His anger. God does not hold grudges.)

10 He has not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities. (This is the reason God takes a stern attitude toward Believers who will not show mercy nor be quick to forgive. He expects us to conduct ourselves toward others as He has conducted Himself toward us.)

11 For as the Heaven is high above the Earth, so great is His Mercy toward them who fear Him. (This refers to unlimited Mercy, but with a condition. The condition is that we "fear Him." If we do, there will be less iniquities.)

12 As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us. (This is equivalent to "blotting out our sins" [Acts 3:19; Isa. 43:25; 44:22]. It is impossible to bring the east and the west together; so it is impossible to bring the forgiven sinner and his forgiven sins together. This Divine fact gives to those who believe it a peace which nothing can destroy.)

13 Like as a father pities his children, so the LORD pities them who fear Him (as a result, He has great Mercy on us)**.

14 For He knows our frame; He remembers that we are dust. (God remembers what man forgets [our infirmities]; man remembers what God forgets [our sins].)

15 As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourishes. (As a flower is beautiful for a short time, so is man. But then....)

16 For the wind passes over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more. (As a flower blooms and then is shortly gone, so man passes away. One cannot tell where the flower had been, and one can little tell where man has been, irrespective of how great he formerly was!)

17 But the Mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them who fear him, and His Righteousness unto children's children (the sense of this Verse has to do with the previous Verses; there is no dependability in man, but there is great dependability in "the Mercy of the Lord")**;

18 To such as keep His Covenant, and to those who remember His Commandments to do them. (God will not and, in fact, cannot, show His Mercy to those who flout His Word.)

19 The LORD has prepared His Throne in the Heavens; and His kingdom rules over all. (This will come to fruition in the coming Kingdom Age. Then the Lord's Prayer will be answered, "Your Will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven.")

20 Bless the LORD, you His Angels, who excel in strength, who do His Commandments, hearkening unto the voice of His Word. (All the righteous Angels praise Him, and so should we, especially considering that we have experienced Redemption, which Angels have never known.)

21 Bless you the LORD, all you His hosts; you Ministers of His, who do His pleasure. (Angels are called here "Ministers," meaning that they carry out His Will according to "His pleasure.")

22 Bless the LORD, all His Works in all places of His dominion: bless the LORD, O my soul. (The Psalm ends as it begins, with an admonishment for us to ever kneel in reverence and respect to the Lord of Glory, Who has given us all good things, despite the fact that we are poor, frail, flawed, and fallen human beings made of dust.)

CHAPTER 104

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: PRAISE TO GOD THE CREATOR

[1] Bless the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, You are very great; You are clothed with honour and majesty. (This Psalm will show that the conception of Deity and of creative power is not human, but Divine, and the language is that of pure science. None of the great religions of the world, either ancient or modern, approach this portrayal in sublimity or accuracy.)

[2] Who covers Yourself with light as with a garment: Who stretches out the heavens like a curtain (this refers to the great light in which God dwells that no man can approach unto [I Tim. 6:16]. In this Passage, light appears like in Genesis, Chapter 1, as the first attribute and evidence of the Creator. The word "curtain" means "tabernacle" and should have been so translated)**:

[3] Who lays the beams of His chambers in the waters: Who makes the clouds His chariot: Who walks upon the wings of the wind (the sense of this Verse is that creation serves the Creator)**:

[4] Who makes His Angels spirits; His ministers a flaming fire (as the previous two Verses show the Lord's wisdom as Creator of the heavens, this Verse shows His supremacy over the Angels)**:

[5] Who laid the foundations of the Earth, that it should not be removed forever (creation demands a Creator)**.

[6] You cover it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains. (This refers to the first universal flood, as described in Gen. 1:2, which was the result of Lucifer's Fall. It does not refer to Noah's flood.)

7 At Your rebuke they fled; at the voice of Your thunder they hasted away (this refers to Gen. 1:2).

8 They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys unto the place which You have founded for them.

9 You have set a bound that they may not pass over; that they turn not again to cover the Earth. (In Gen. 1:2, the waters covered the entirety of the Earth. Verses 7 through 9 simply mean that God appointed the waters certain places and the dry land certain places.)

10 He sends the springs into the valleys, which run among the hills. (This simply means that the Lord is the Creator of every river, lake, and even the springs, whether above ground or underground.)

11 They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses quench their thirst.

12 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which sing among the branches.

13 He waters the hills from His chambers: the Earth is satisfied with the fruit of Your Works.

14 He causes the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth food out of the earth (all of these present the Laws of God regarding plant life, and also the animal kingdom, all for the "service of man");

15 And wine that makes glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengthens man's heart (all are created by God, and according to certain Laws).

16 The trees of the LORD are full of sap; the cedars of Lebanon, which He has planted (the Lord planted them by the decree of His Word, which is a continuing process, with new trees coming forth from the seed of the old);

17 Where the birds make their nests: as for the stork, the fir trees are her house.

18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats; and the rocks for the conies. (The previous two Verses declare God as the Creator of fowls as well as animals and all their dwellingplaces.)

19 He appointed the moon for seasons: the sun knows his going down. (The reference to "the moon" is another reference to the Solaric Covenant [Gen. 1:14–19; 8:22; Jer. 33:20; Dan. 2:21]. The reference made about the sun "going down" is a figure of speech. In fact, the sun does not really move. It is the Earth that moves — one rotation every twenty-four hours.)

20 You make darkness, and it is night: where in all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.

22 The sun arises, they gather themselves together, and lay them down in their dens.

23 Man goes forth unto his work and to his labour until the evening. (Many animals do much of their work at night, while man does his work during the day.)

24 O LORD, how manifold are Your Works! in wisdom have You made them all: the Earth is full of Your riches. (No wonder that Paul said, "O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His Judgments, and His Ways past finding out!" [Rom. 11:33].)

25 So is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts. (The continents of this planet have been minutely inspected for precious metals, etc., at least as far as modern technology allows such to be done; however, the riches of the great oceans of the world have little been tapped. That awaits the Coming of the Lord.)

[26] There go the ships: there is that leviathan, whom You have made to play therein. (The word "leviathan," in the Hebrew, is "livyathan," which means "a great sea serpent." It is also a symbol of Satan [Job, Chpt. 41].)

[27] These wait all upon You; that You may give them their meat in due season. (All of creation, whatever it might be, is totally dependent upon God for sustenance regarding daily life and living.)

[28] That You give them they gather: You open Your Hand, they are filled with good *(while the Lord gives the sustenance, man must gather it, which he does in various ways).

[29] You hide Your face, they are troubled: You take away their breath, they die, and return to their dust. (Death is a result of the curse. While God never originally intended for man to die, we have no Biblical knowledge as it regards His intentions concerning the animal kingdom, at least in this respect [Gen. 3:14–21].)

[30] You send forth Your Spirit, they are created: and You renew the face of the Earth. (The sense of this Verse is that God upholds this planet and all of His Creation by "His Spirit." In other words, the Spirit of God, Who originally moved upon the face of the waters [Gen. 1:2], from that time, continues to move in order to insure God's Creation. Therefore, the prognostications by some that this Earth will be destroyed by the "greenhouse effect," "ozone depletion," or other similar theories, hold no Scriptural or literal reality.)

[31] The Glory of the LORD shall endure forever: the LORD shall rejoice in His Works. (As long as the Glory of the Lord endures, and it will endure forever, His Creation will also endure forever.)

[32] He looks on the Earth, and it trembles: He touches the hills, and they smoke. (The sense of this Verse is that God has such awesome Power that He is able to do with His Creation what He desires.)

33 I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live: I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

34 My meditation of Him shall be sweet: I will be glad in the LORD. (Singing of the Lord's wonderful Works and meditating on those Works are the cure for fear, worry, and anxiety.)

35 Let the sinners be consumed out of the Earth, and let the wicked be no more. Bless you the LORD, O my soul. Praise you the LORD. (The word translated "praise" here should have been translated "Hallelujah." In fact, this is the first time the word "Hallelujah" is used in the Old Testament. It is interesting that it is connected with the overthrow of the wicked, which guarantees that such will ultimately be done. The actual fulfillment will be at the Second Coming.)

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: GOD'S WONDROUS WORKS ON BEHALF OF ISRAEL

[1] O give thanks unto the LORD; call upon His Name: make known His deeds among the people. (In this Psalm, we will find that the action of the Messiah with Israel is a picture and a Promise of His future action with the world. The Covenant consummated at Calvary will be the basis of His Millennial Rule, and the Promises of that Covenant will then be performed and fulfilled. In fact, all of these Promises constitute the benefits of the Cross.)

[2] Sing unto Him, sing Psalms unto Him: talk you of all His wondrous Works. (As it is the Holy Spirit Who is the Speaker in this Psalm, then we must realize how absolutely significant are these words! Every Believer should "sing" of all the wondrous Works of the Lord, and do so constantly. As well, we must constantly "talk" of all these great works. This builds Faith!)

[3] Glory you in His Holy Name: let the heart of them rejoice who seek the LORD. (We are told here that seeking the Lord brings rejoicing, because seeking Him brings forth wondrous things, all on our behalf.)

[4] Seek the LORD, and His strength: seek His face evermore. (Seek the Lord about every problem. This is the answer to man's dilemma and, in fact, the only answer. This plainly tells us that humanistic psychology has no place in the thinking of the true Believer.)

[5] Remember His marvellous Works that He has done; His Wonders, and the Judgments of His Mouth (this pertains to the Word of God, which every Believer ought to study minutely)**;

[6] O you seed of Abraham His servant, you children of Jacob His chosen.

(Every Believer, whether Jew or Gentile, is the "Seed of Abraham" [Gal. 3:7]; however, the ultimate Seed is the Lord Jesus Christ [Gal. 3:16]. "Jacob" pertains strictly to Israel, as God's chosen People.)

7 He is the LORD our God: His Judgments are in all the Earth. (His "Judgments" refer to His Law and Word. At this moment, this Passage has not yet been fulfilled. It will be fulfilled in the coming Kingdom Age.)

8 He has remembered His Covenant forever, the Word which He commanded to a thousand generations. (The Lord entered into a Covenant with Israel, and that Covenant still holds good. He has not forgotten it, and will never forget it. In essence, it has been suspended for approximately 2,000 years, but will once again flower into full potential at the Second Coming. At that time, Israel will fully accept the Lord Jesus as Saviour and Lord. The Covenant will actually be the New Covenant, to which the Old Covenant always pointed. And this New Covenant is "The Everlasting Covenant," meaning that it will never have to be suspended or amended [Heb. 13:20].)

9 Which Covenant He made with Abraham (Justification by Faith [Gal. 3:14–29]), and His oath unto Isaac (pertains to the supremacy of Israel and the coming Kingdom Age, as well as the Land of Israel [Gen. 22:17–18; 26:2–4]);

10 And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a Law, and to Israel for an Everlasting Covenant (this Covenant of the Land of Israel belonging to the sons of Jacob cannot be abrogated):

11 Saying, Unto you will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance (the Arabs should read this and believe it [Gen 13:15; 15:18]):

12 When they were but a few men in number; yes, very few, and strangers in it. (When Abraham and his family were called to the land of Canaan, they were truly few in number, by comparison to the inhabitants of the land [Gen. 34:20; Deut. 7:7; Heb. 11:9].)

13 When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people (they sojourned among the Philistines [Gen., Chpt. 20] and the Egyptians [Gen., Chpts. 46–50])**;

[14] He suffered no man to do them wrong: yes, He reproved kings for their sakes (Pharaoh and Abimelech were threatened with death if they touched them [Gen. 12:17; 20:3; 26:11])**;

[15] Saying, Touch not My anointed, and do My Prophets no harm. (Regarding those who are truly Prophets of the Lord, this admonition had better be heeded!)

[16] Moreover He called for a famine upon the land: He broke the whole staff of bread. (The length that God will go to ensure His Covenant with His People, which we will study in succeeding Verses, should make us realize that His every Word will come to pass exactly as spoken.)

[17] He sent a man before them, even Joseph, who was sold for a servant (God had nothing to do with Joseph's brothers, regarding their hate and their ungodliness; yet God would use the situation to bring about His intended results)**:

[18] Whose feet they hurt with fetters: he was laid in iron (Gen., Chpt. 39, gives us the account)**:

[19] Until the time that His Word came: the Word of the LORD tried him. (Regarding the mission that God had for Joseph, which Joseph was not even aware of, he would have to be put to the test. Faith must be tested, and great Faith must be tested greatly.)

[20] The king sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free (Gen. 41:14)**.

[21] He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his substance (Gen. 41:40)**:

[22] To bind his princes at his pleasure; and teach his senators wisdom. (At this time, Egypt was the most powerful nation on the face of the Earth; consequently, the advisors to Pharaoh, here called "senators," would now be taught by an ex-convict. Only the Lord could work out such a thing.)

[23] Israel also came into Egypt; and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham (which the Lord told the Patriarch to do [Gen. 46:6]).

[24] And He (the Lord) increased His People (Israel) greatly; and made them stronger than their enemies (stronger than Egypt).

[25] He turned their heart to hate His People, to deal subtilly with His servants. (This does not mean that God forced Egypt to hate the Israelites. It does mean that God provided the opportunity for them to do so; however, this was done by their own free will. Had this not happened, the Israelites would not have desired to leave Egypt and go to Canaan, which was the original intention of the Lord.)

[26] He sent Moses His servant; and Aaron whom he had chosen. (The Lord chose Moses, while Moses chose Aaron [Ex. 3:10].)

[27] They (Moses and Aaron) showed His (the Lord's) signs among them (among the Egyptians), and wonders in the land of Ham (Ex., Chpts. 7–12).

[28] He sent darkness, and made it dark; and they rebelled not against His Word. (The close connection between the plague of darkness and the compelled submission of the Egyptians is very striking. God sent the darkness, and the Egyptians let the Hebrews go. This alludes possibly to the ninth plague, but, as a substantive statement, the word "darkness" is to be understood as a covering term expressive of the entire period of the Divine punitive action upon Pharaoh. It was indeed a time of darkness for him, and it lasted several months.)

[29] He turned their waters into blood, and killed their fish (Ex. 7:20).

[30] Their land brought forth frogs in abundance, in the chambers of their kings (Ex. 8:6).

31 He spoke, and there came divers sorts of flies, and lice in all their coasts (Ex. 8:17).

32 He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land (turned the rain to hail).

33 He smote their vines also and their fig trees; and broke the trees of their coasts (Ps. 78:47).

34 He spoke, and the locusts came, and caterpillers, and that without number (Ex. 10:4), 35 And did eat up all the herbs in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

36 He smote also all the firstborn in their land, the chief of all their strength (Ex. 12:29).

37 He brought them forth also with silver and gold: and there was not one feeble person among their Tribes. (The "silver and gold" mentioned here was payment for the many years of slavery. It may seem to some that God is not keeping account; however, when His payday does come, and it will come, it will be done as only He can do.

As well, He healed all the sick who were among them and gave them strength, even unto the eldest.)

38 Egypt was glad when they departed: for the fear of them fell upon them (Ex. 12:33).

39 He spread a cloud for a covering; and fire to give light in the night (Ex. 13:21).

40 The people asked, and He brought quails, and satisfied them with the bread of Heaven (Ex. 16:12).

41 He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river. (The "Rock" was a Type of Christ. The "waters" that "gushed out" were a Type of the Eternal Life being given according to the price He paid at Calvary. The "dry places" are symbolic of this world and the barrenness of its spiritual obligation. The "river" symbolized the magnitude of this great gift of God. It was not a trickle of water that came out of this Rock, but a veritable "river" — enough to satisfy some three million Israelites, with all their cattle, sheep, and other livestock. As well, there is enough to satisfy the thirst of every heart that comes to this life-giving stream.)

42 For He remembered His Holy Promise, and Abraham His Servant. (These were the Promises that God gave to Abraham [Gen. 12:1–3; 13:14–18; 15:18–21; 17:1–8].)

43 And He brought forth His People with joy, and His chosen with gladness *(also, we should ever rejoice and praise His Holy Name, realizing that He has delivered us from the terrible bondages of darkness. What "joy" we should have! What "gladness" should characterize our hearts and lives!):

44 And gave them the lands of the heathen: and they inherited the labour of the people *(as well, the great inheritance that God has given us is carved out of that which Satan intended for the destruction of our lives);

45 That they might observe His Statutes, and keep His Laws. Praise you the LORD. (Once again, the word "praise" here should have been translated "Hallelujah," for that's what it means in the Hebrew. Psalm 104 also closes accordingly.)

CHAPTER 106

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: ISRAEL'S SINS AND GOD'S MERCY

[1] Praise you the LORD. O give thanks unto the LORD; for He is good: for His Mercy endures forever. (This is the last Psalm of that which is commonly called "The Numbers Book," or Book No. 4 — Psalms 90 through 106.

This Psalm predicts with confidence that Christ will establish a just understanding and a gracious government over man, and that He will change the Earth, at present a wilderness, into a paradise.

In view of this, the Psalm begins with "Hallelujah" [Praise].)

[2] Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? who can show forth all His praise? (The answer is that no one can exhaustively analyze, understand, or show the meaning and purpose of Divine actions, or adequately praise such actions. But the Messiah can, and He will show forth all God's praises.)

[3] Blessed are they who keep judgment, and he who does righteousness at all times. (This Passage shows us that spiritual intelligence will always recognize Divine actions and bow and worship because of such actions. Spiritual intelligence also results only from subjection of the mind to the Scriptures and from an unvarying life of righteous conduct. Only Christ could fit this description!)

[4] Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that You bear unto Your People: O visit me with Your Salvation (the author requests two things, "favor," and "Salvation")**;

[5] That I may see the good of Your chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of Your nation, that I may glory with Your inheritance. (Love delights in possession, hence the terms "Your people," "Your chosen," "Your nation," "Your inheritance.")

6 We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly. (The nature of evil is seen in the terms "sin," "iniquity," and "wickedness.")

7 Our fathers understood not Your wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of Your mercies; but provoked Him at the sea, even at the Red Sea. (Israel did not wish to understand, nor take the trouble to study the ten plagues, nor wish to remember the countless mercies of their Great Shepherd. Forty hours took Israel out of Egypt, but forty years did not take Egypt out of Israel.)

8 Nevertheless He saved them for His Name's sake, that He might make His mighty power to be known. (If one will notice, God did not save Israel because of their righteousness or morality, but for "His Name's sake.")

9 He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up: so He led them through the depths, as through the wilderness. (The waters that stood up like two walls on both sides of the Children of Israel were symbolic of the great weight of sin binding the sinner. When Jesus Christ died on Calvary, He opened a path through that great "depth" of sin, so that all who will may come. The sinner little knows how lost he is, and the Christian little knows how saved he is.)

10 And He saved them from the hand of him who hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy. (The enemy in this case was Egypt, whose sponsor was Satan. Israel could have only been extricated by God. No military force in the world could have carried this out; only God could and did.)

11 And the waters covered their enemies: there was not one of them left. (As every Egyptian in that army drowned, from their mightiest generals to their lowliest foot soldiers, likewise, every single enemy of our soul has been defeated at Calvary.)

12 Then believed they His Words; they sang His praise. (When the Believer truly knows the Lord, he will "sing His praise." When he begins to drift, the song will drift as well.)

13 They soon forgot His Works; they waited not for His counsel (unfortunately, this fits the modern Church, as well)**:

14 But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert (doubt can never see God, even when He is in the very midst; Faith always sees God)**.

15 And He gave them their request; but sent leanness into their soul. (Israel wanted things, but not Christ. The modern Church wants things, but not Christ. Everything but Christ brings "leanness.")

16 They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the Saint of the LORD. (The example is found in Num., Chpts. 12, 16–17.)

17 The Earth opened and swallowed up Dathan and covered the company of Abiram. (Num., Chpt. 16, gives the account of this episode. The warning is clear.)

18 And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burned up the wicked. (Men will have Holy Ghost fire, or else they will have the fire of God's judgment.)

19 They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped the molten image. (The sacred name of Horeb is given to Sinai so as to heighten the sin of representing the God of Glory by a beast that eats grass.)

20 Thus they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eats grass. (This Passage portrays the fact that the idol worship of Egypt was still ingrained in the Israelites.)

21 They forgot God their Saviour Who had done great things in Egypt (this is speaking of the mighty plagues that God brought upon the Egyptians; Israel forgot that He was their Saviour, not man!)**;

22 Wondrous Works in the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red Sea. (Egypt is referred to here as the descendants of Noah's son, Ham. These Passages show the incurable evil of the human heart.)

23 Therefore He said that He would destroy them, had not Moses His chosen stood before Him in the breach, to turn away His wrath, lest He should destroy them. (None of us would be here, irrespective of past experiences in the Lord, were it not for our Heavenly Moses, the Lord Jesus Christ. He turns away the wrath of God from us.)

24 Yes, they despised the pleasant land, they believed not His Word (the cause of all error, sin, failure, wrong direction, incorrect leading, and straying from God is because of failure to believe the Bible)**:

25 But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the Voice of the LORD. (Murmuring and complaining has to be one of the greatest sins in the life of any Believer. Such action always marks faithlessness.)

26 Therefore He lifted up His hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness (the Lord considered the unbelief of the Children of Israel at least as great a sin as the making of the golden calf)**:

27 To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands. (This was done twice: 1. The dispersion into Babylon; and 2. The destruction of Jerusalem by Titus in A.D. 70.)

28 They joined themselves also unto Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead. (The Baal cults affected and challenged the worship of the Lord throughout Israelite history. Little by little, Israel switched her allegiance from the God of Heaven, Who was her "Master" and "Husband," to Baal, by referring to him by the same names.

The "sacrifices of the dead" have to do with communicating with the dead. This cannot be done, and all such efforts are in the realm of witchcraft.)

29 Thus they provoked Him to anger with their inventions: and the plague broke in upon them. (The word "inventions" has to do with new ways of committing sin. All sin ultimately invites, and will entertain, "plague." America and Canada are today "plagued" because of sin. These "plagues" consist of alcoholism, drug addiction, AIDS, homosexuality, etc., all resulting in untold heartache, suffering, and sorrow for the people.)

30 Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed. (Men are ever seeking to stop the "plague" by human means. It is not possible to do so. Only one thing can stop the plague, "Fidelity to the Bible.")

31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness unto all generations forevermore. (Phinehas became the third High Priest. God gave him an everlasting Priesthood because of his zeal for righteousness in slaying the rebels. He will be an everlasting Priest like all the Redeemed, who are made Kings and Priests to reign on Earth [Rev. 1:5–6; 5:10; 20:4–6; 22:4–5].)

32 They angered Him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes (the Children of Israel who did this thing comprised the group who were to go into the Promised Land. The old unbelieving generation had now died off. So, in fact, the evil heart of unbelief that resided in their fathers resided in them as well. They complained, they murmured, they blamed their plight on Moses. Man's complaints, like these, are usually senseless):

33 Because they provoked his spirit, so that he spoke unadvisedly with his lips. (The sin that Moses committed was in striking the Rock the second time, when God had told him just to speak to it. The Rock was a Type of Christ [I Cor. 10:4]. It had already been previously smitten once, which was a Type of Christ's dying at Calvary [Ex. 17:5–7].

When Moses smote the Rock the second time, in effect, and by symbolism, he was saying that the first smiting of the Rock, symbolizing Jesus' dying on Calvary, did not suffice for the sins of man, so Christ needed to be crucified again. This was a grievous sin in the mind of God.)

34 They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom the LORD commanded them (this speaks of the Jebusites, the Hivites, and others

35 But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works. (As Israel did not come to terms with these idol worshippers, likewise, we cannot come to terms with hindrances within our lives. If we do not defeat them, they will defeat us. As well, we can only defeat them by looking exclusively to Christ and what He did for us at the Cross [Judg. 3:5–6].)

36 And they served their idols: which were a snare unto them. (These heathen people did not become acclimated to Israel's God, but, rather, Israel became acclimated to their gods [idols]. This is the law of regression. If one rotten apple is placed in a barrel of good apples, the rotten apple does not become healthy as the good apples. The opposite happens.)

37 Yes, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils,

38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood. (Israel sank to the lowest depths of sinful bondage. They actually began to engage in human sacrifice, offering their sons and daughters to these idol gods.)

39 Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions. (They went ever deeper into sin, actually inventing new ways to sin.)

40 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against His People, insomuch that He abhorred His own inheritance (because of their deep, deep sin, and their refusing to turn to Him, despite the many warnings; Jesus addressed this as well [Mat. 23:37]).

41 And He gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they who hated them ruled over them. (He did not do so until all avenues of Mercy and Grace were exhausted [Jer. 7:25–26].)

42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand. (When Israel was living for God, her enemies made no headway whatsoever against her; however, when Israel turned away from God, then God allowed her enemies to "oppress them.")

43 Many times did He deliver them; but they provoked Him with their counsel, and were brought low for their iniquity. (All because of sin!)

44 Nevertheless He regarded their affliction, when He heard their cry (the Lord answered this, as it regards His answer to Solomon [II Chron. 7:14]):

45 And He remembered for them His Covenant, and repented according to the multitude of His mercies. (The Lord was always ready to forgive Israel and deliver them, if they would only meet His righteous terms of the Covenant.)

46 He made them also to be pitied of all those who carried them captives. (In other words, God gave Israel favor in the eyes of their captors [II Ki., Chpt. 25; Dan. 1:19; 6:2].)

47 Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto Your Holy Name, and to triumph in Your praise. (This request and prayer were answered in regards to the dispersion at Babylon. It has not been answered concerning their dispersion in A.D. 70, because Israel, since the Crucifixion of Christ, has not truly repented. They will at the Second Coming.)

48 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting: and let all the people say, Amen. Praise you the LORD. (This fourth Book closes with the expected "Amen," but the repeated "Amen" is changed to "Hallelujah" here. This harmonizes with the theme of the Book. "Amen" expresses the desire that the wilderness journey should end and the Kingdom should be established. "Hallelujah" joyfully announces the gratification of both desires.)

THE DEUTERONOMY BOOK AUTHOR UNKNOWN: PRAISE TO GOD FOR DELIVERANCE

[1] O give thanks unto the LORD, for He is good: for His mercy endures forever. (This is the first Psalm of the fifth Book of Psalms, which corresponds to the Fifth Book of the Pentateuch [Deuteronomy].

Prosperity is shown to be dependent upon acceptance of the Word of God as the rule of life. But the Message is not now directed to a new and untried people, but, instead, to a tested, rebellious, and fallen people.

Therefore, this fifth Book presents the beauteous picture of the Messiah coming as the Word of God with healing and help to those who, by disobedience to that Word, had brought themselves to ruin.)

[2] Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy (the "enemy" is the Antichrist, and the "redeemed" pictures Israel immediately after the Second Coming, at which time they will accept the Lord; as well, all redeemed, and in every Dispensation, should "say so")**;

[3] And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south. (This will be completely fulfilled after the Second Coming.)

[4] They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in.

[5] Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them. (The entirety of the world has by and large become a wilderness to the Jews since their rejection of Christ. Here they are grouped into four companies: wanderers, prisoners, fools, and homeless.)

6 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and He delivered them out of their distresses. (This Verse, in a few simple words, proclaims the Coming of the Lord. It will be during the Battle of Armageddon.)

7 And He led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation. (This speaks of the Lord's great victory at Armageddon [Ezek., Chpts. 38–39]. The "city of habitation" is Jerusalem. Now, and at long last, it will be safely inhabited.)

8 Oh that men would praise the LORD for His goodness, and for His wonderful Works to the children of men! (The entirety of this Psalm is a paean (song of praise) to God for the great Deliverance He has brought, which speaks of the defeat of the Antichrist at the Battle of Armageddon.)

9 For He satisfies the longing soul, and fills the hungry soul with goodness. (Someone has said, "The soul of man is so big that only God can fill it up.")

10 Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron (pointedly, this Verse refers to Israel in her great Redemption from the terrible bondage which resulted from their rejection of the Word of God; in general, the Passage speaks to all who are without Christ, and man's foolishness of futility of trying to save himself)**;

11 Because they rebelled against the Words of God, and contemned the counsel of the Most High (this pertains to the rejection of Jesus Christ by Israel)**:

12 Therefore He brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was none to help. (When Israel rejected Jesus Christ, there remained no more remedy for them. As well, it pertains to all who fall into this category. One cannot help but weep as one reads this Scripture.)

13 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and He saved them out of their distresses. (The "trouble" spoken of here is the time of "Jacob's Trouble" [Jer. 30:7]. The "distress" speaks to the terrible latter half of the Great Tribulation, when the Antichrist will turn on Israel. The Lord will save them by the Second Coming.)

14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and broke their bands in sunder. (Israel has walked in darkness, and even the shadow of death, since they rejected Christ. At the Second Coming, the Lord will "break their bands asunder" [Ps. 2:3].)

15 Oh that men would praise the LORD for His goodness, and for His wonderful Works to the children of men! (This same Verse is repeated four times [Vss. 8, 15, 21, 31]. When the Holy Spirit repeats Himself in this fashion, it is not without purpose.)

16 For He has broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder. (The bondages of Satan on human beings are spoken of as "brass" and "iron." How foolish of man to think that humanistic psychology, or anything else for that matter, can break this bondage! The truth is, it was broken at Calvary, and our Faith in Christ and His Finished Work gives us freedom, and that alone gives us freedom.)

17 Fools because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted. (The word "fools" means those who are perverse, those depending upon their own wisdom, which is foolishness to God [I Cor. 1:20–25].)

18 Their soul abhors all manner of meat; and they draw near unto the gates of death. (The "meat" spoken of here refers to the "meat" of the Word of God [I Cor. 3:2; 10:3; Heb. 5:12, 14].)

19 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and He saves them out of their distresses. (This is the very nature of the Lord. Poor man stumbles after his own foolish wisdom and, with his back to the wall, he cries to the Lord. Then, with Mercy and Grace, the Lord saves us. How wonderful is our Lord!)

20 He sent His Word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions. (This can only be done by Christ being the only Source and the Cross being the only means. The Holy Spirit will work in no other fashion [Rom. 8:2].)

[22] And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare His Works with rejoicing. (Any time the word "sacrifice" is mentioned in the Scriptures, it has its root in the Cross. So this Verse tells us that all of our "thanksgiving" to Him should be based exclusively on the Cross, for that's where the great Sacrifice was offered.)

[23] They who go down to the sea in ships, who do business in great waters (knowing that the Lord has created all things, He is the One we should look to in order to find protection; of course, every person should do all that is within their power to take advantage of every protecting source, with the final alternative always being the Lord)**;

[24] These see the Works of the LORD, and His Wonders in the deep. (All of this shows that the Lord is mightily concerned about all the activity of His Children.)

[25] For He commands, and raises the stormy wind, which lifts up the waves thereof. (Irrespective if it's Satan who causes the storm, the Lord is the One Who has the final say. In other words, Satan has to get permission from Him to do whatever he does.)

[26] They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble. (Due to modern technology, man is very sure of himself; however, in a moment's time, by using the power of nature, God can make man realize how absolutely helpless he actually is.)

[27] They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wit's end.

[28] Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and He brings them out of their distresses. (We are admonished to ask God for help exactly as the Disciples asked the Lord for help in the storm that threatened them on the Sea of Galilee.)

29 He makes the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still. (This shows us that it is God's Power that governs nature.)

30 Then are they glad because they be quiet; so He brings them unto their desired haven. (All should teach trust in the Lord, and thereby seek Him for the desired result.)

31 Oh that men would praise the LORD for His Goodness, and for His wonderful Works to the children of men! (This is the fourth repetition of this Passage by the Holy Spirit. He wishes to impress upon us our absolute helplessness and God's absolute Power, and that we should continually praise Him for His Goodness extended to us.)

32 Let them exalt Him also in the congregation of the people, and praise Him in the assembly of the elders. (This means that gatherings of Christians should be filled with praise to the Lord.)

33 He turns rivers into a wilderness, and the watersprings into dry ground;

34 A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them who dwell therein. (In these two Scriptures, we are given the reason for the hunger, starvation, famine, want, and poverty in all countries of the world. It is because of "the wickedness of them who dwell therein.")

35 He turns the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into watersprings. (Conversely, upon Repentance, the Holy Spirit informs us that God can reverse a desperate situation.)

36 And there He makes the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation *(much of the world at this present time goes to bed hungry each night; only God has the answer to these problems; but, regrettably, the far greater majority of the human race little looks to Him);

37 And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase. (This will happen on a worldwide basis in the Millennial Reign, when Christ reigns supreme.)

38 He blesses them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; and suffers not their cattle to decrease. (That which belongs to the Child of God should be an oasis in the midst of a desert. With Faith in God and in His Word, even now this can be so.)

39 Again, they are minished and brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrow. (Once again, the Holy Spirit calls our attention to the wages of sin.)

40 He pours contempt upon princes, and causes them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way. (These Verses emphasize the ruin to nature and to man that results from disobedience to God's Law.)

41 Yet sets He the poor on high from affliction, and makes Him families like a flock. (This is God's Message to "the poor" of the world. If they will seek the Lord, He has promised to hear and answer.)

42 The righteous shall see it, and rejoice: and all iniquity shall stop her mouth. (The Holy Spirit emphasizes to us that if we will but follow the Word of the Lord, the Lord will set His People on high, above the reach of calamity, unless He has other Plans [Heb. 11:32–40].)

43 Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the lovingkindness of the LORD. (The Holy Spirit has so carefully laid out the path to ruin and the path to Redemption and, as well, the paths of both poverty and plenty. It's up to us to follow the right path.)

A PSALM OF DAVID: ISRAEL LOOKS TO GOD FOR HELP

[1] O God, My heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise, even with My Glory. (The Speaker here is the Messiah. His heart is "fixed" in order to obtain the Will of God regarding the Salvation of mankind, the Restoration of Israel, and the Restoration of all things. Even though not yet an accomplished fact, in the heart of God it is, nevertheless, thought of as such; therefore, the Messiah "will sing and give praise" as though it is already accomplished. He will do it even with "My Glory," signifying that the Glory of God rests upon the fulfillment of these Divine Promises.)

[2] Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early. (David is saying here that he would arise early in order to spend time alone with God. He would worship with both praise and music.)

[3] I will praise You, O LORD, among the people: and I will sing praises unto You among the nations. (Little did David realize that the Psalms God had given him would actually be sung "among the nations." However, its greater fulfillment will be in the coming days of the Millennial Reign, when David will truly sing these Psalms in every nation of the world.)

[4] For Your Mercy is great above the heavens: and Your Truth reaches unto the clouds. (Here, "Mercy" is linked to "Truth." These are the two great attributes of God and speak of the Messiah. He is "Mercy" in living form and is "Truth" in visible proclamation [Jn. 1:1–5].)

[5] Be You exalted, O God, above the heavens: and Your Glory above all the Earth (this is a prayer that is, in effect, a Prophecy; God has never been truly exalted; however, at the Advent of the soon-coming Kingdom Age, He will then be exalted throughout the entirety of Planet Earth)**;

6 That Your beloved may be delivered: save with Your Right Hand, and answer me. ("Your Beloved" speaks of the Messiah. The petition, approximately a thousand years before the Incarnation, was that He may be able to accomplish His Task and be delivered from the powers of darkness.)

7 God has spoken in His holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth. (To the petition of Verse 6, the answer is forthcoming, "God has spoken in His holiness"; therefore, the Messiah "will rejoice." Israel will be restored!)

8 Gilead is Mine; Manasseh is Mine; Ephraim also is the strength of My head; Judah is My Lawgiver (Judah is called the "Lawgiver," because it was from the Tribe of Judah that Christ came)**;

9 Moab is My washpot; over Edom will I cast out My shoe; over Philistia will I triumph. (In these Passages, the Messiah predicts the future supremacy of Israel and the subjugation of the Gentiles.)

10 Who will bring Me into the strong city? who will lead Me into Edom? (The "strong city" is referring to "Sela" or "Petra.")

11 Will not You, O God, Who has cast us off? and will not You, O God, go forth with our hosts? (This Verse pertains to the flight of Israel to Petra, when she will flee from the Antichrist in the second half of the Great Tribulation. There the Lord will protect them for 1,260 days [Mat. 24:15–22; Rev. 12:6, 14].)

12 Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man. (The "trouble" addressed here is the full-scale attack by the Antichrist in order to destroy Israel, which will take place, as stated, in the second half of the Great Tribulation. At that time, there will be no fellow nations to help Israel.)

13 Through God we shall do valiantly: for He it is Who shall tread down our enemies. (The major reason for the Great Tribulation is that Israel might be brought back to God. At that time, they will be placed in such a position, with no nation in the world to help them, staring annihilation in the face, that they will then call upon God. He will answer, and His Answer will be the Second Coming. To be sure, at that time, "He it is Who shall tread down our enemies" [Rev., Chpt. 19].)

THE AUTHOR IS DAVID: A PSALM OF VENGEANCE ON ENEMIES

[1] Hold not Your peace, O God, of my praise (the Holy Spirit is the Author of this Psalm [Acts 1:16–22]. The Speaker is the Messiah. The instrument is David. Consequently, it has a double fulfillment in David and the Messiah)**;

[2] For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful are opened against me: they have spoken against me with a lying tongue. (This speaks of the mouths of both Ahithophel, who raised up against David, and Judas, against Christ. They lied because there was nothing derogatory they could truthfully say about David or the Messiah.)

[3] They compassed me about also with words of hatred; and fought against me without a cause. (The Holy Spirit emphasizes the words, "without a cause.")

[4] For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer. (The meaning of this Verse is that both David and the Messiah gave their love to both Ahithophel and Judas. Sadly, both became adversaries. Neither David nor Christ lifted their hands against these adversaries. Instead, they took it to the Lord in prayer. What a lesson for us!)

[5] And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love. (The Holy Spirit, once again, emphasizes the gravity of this sin.)

[6] Set you a wicked man over him: and let Satan stand at his right hand. (Accordingly, the language of this Psalm is judicial and prophetic. All enemies of the Word of God will be judged.)

[7] When he shall be judged, let him be condemned: and let his prayer become sin. (If a person does not truly repent, condemnation is the only conclusion.)

[8] Let his days be few; and let another take his office. (The days of Judas were few. He was probably in his late twenties or early thirties when he committed suicide. As well, another took his office [Acts 1:23–26].)

[9] Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow. (And this is exactly what happened!)

[10] Let his children be continually vagabonds, and beg: let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places. (True Repentance on the part of these addressed will turn this around, but only true Repentance. The Lord does not make children pay for the sins of their fathers, unless they continue on the same path [Ezek. 18:4, 20].)

[11] Let the extortioner catch all that he has; and let the strangers spoil his labour. (This Passage, at least in part, was fulfilled when the Priests refused to take back the blood money [thirty pieces of silver], thereby desiring no part of him thereafter [Mat., Chpt. 27].)

[12] Let there be none to extend mercy unto him: neither let there be any to favour his fatherless children. (The evidence is, the wife and children of Judas continued in rebellion.)

[13] Let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following let their name be blotted out. (The idea is, if he had children, let them die without offspring. This would mean that their family would come to an end, which it, no doubt, did.)

[14] Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out. (There is some evidence that the mother of Judas was a co-conspirator in the plot. As well, due to the action of Judas, the sins of his fathers would be visited upon him [Ex. 20:5].)

[15] Let them be before the LORD continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the Earth. (Sins unrepented are always before the Lord continually. As well, it would seem that the children of Judas were cut off in death before marriage, thereby leaving no posterity. Consequently, there is no memory, because they do not exist.)

16 Because that he remembered not to show mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy Man, that he might even kill the broken in heart. (Christ was the poor and needy Man. His was the wounded heart.)

17 As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him: as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him. (The cursing spoken of here has little, if anything, to do with profanity. It is speaking of the terrible curse of sin. In other words, Judas delighted not in the blessing that Christ would bring as the Giver of eternal life. He loved sin and desired to continue therein. In fact, this Verse speaks of both Ahithophel and Judas.)

18 As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones. (Sin is not an external matter only; it penetrates the very heart and vitals of the sinner.)

19 Let it be unto him as the garment which covers him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually. (At this moment, Judas Iscariot is in Hell. That is a somber thought, but true. He could have been an Apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ forever, ruling and reigning with Him. His name could have been inscribed on the foundations of that city built foursquare [Rev. 21:14]. Instead, he is in Hell, and the garment of sin covers him. It will squeeze him like a girdle forever.)

20 Let this be the reward of my adversaries from the LORD, and of them who speak evil against my soul. (This is not only concerning the fate of Judas and Ahithophel, but is also the fate of all who spurn, refuse, and reject the Mercy, Grace, and extended Love of the Lord Jesus Christ.)

21 But do You for me, O GOD the Lord, for Your Name's sake: because Your Mercy is good, deliver You me. (The efforts of both Judas and Ahithophel were to murder Christ and David. The plea here is for Deliverance from their evil actions. The prayer was answered.)

22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me. (There is no hurt like the hurt of a broken heart.)

23 I am gone like the shadow when it declines: I am tossed up and down as the locust. (These are the words of David, when set upon by his son, Absalom, and his most trusted advisor, Ahithophel. They are the words of Christ, as well, in using none of His great Power to defend Himself against the traitor, Judas Iscariot.)

24 My knees are weak through fasting; and my flesh fails of fatness. (These were the words of David, no doubt, in seeking God regarding the great rebellion that had been brought against him by both Absalom and Ahithophel. There is no record that Christ fasted while in His Earthly Ministry, other than the temptation in the wilderness.)

25 I became also a reproach unto them: when they looked upon me they shook their heads. (This speaks of Christ being on the Cross. The pronoun "them" refers not to the drunks, drug addicts, or harlots, but rather to the religious leaders of that day.)

26 Help me, O LORD my God: O save me according to Your Mercy (there was no one to whom either David or Christ could turn but God; there was no man to help)**:

27 That they may know that this is Your Hand; that You, LORD, have done it. (The prayer of both David and the Messiah was that God would act so powerfully on their behalf that there would be no doubt as to Who had accomplished their Deliverance. Even their worst enemies would have to know that it was God. And that's exactly what happened!)

28 Let them curse, but bless You: when they arise, let them be ashamed; but let Your servant rejoice. (The sense of this Verse is that despite the curse that was willed upon them by their adversaries, it would not and, in fact, could not, stop the Blessings of the Lord.)

29 Let my adversaries be clothed with shame, and let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle. (Sin and rebellion confuse men. The cause of the loss of both of these men, Judas and Ahithophel, is because they rejected God's only solution for sin, which is Christ and the Cross [Jn. 6:53–71].)

30 I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth; yes, I will praise Him among the multitude. (David, by faith, cries to God, and by faith he praises God. It is a praise of victory, although, at that time, victory had not yet come. But victory would come, as victory did.)

31 For he shall stand at the right hand of the poor, to save him from those who condemn his soul. (In Psalm 109, Jehovah stands at the right hand of the Poor Man, the Lord Jesus Christ. In Psalm 110, the Poor Man sits at the right hand of Jehovah.)

DAVID IS THE AUTHOR: THE ETERNAL KING AND PRIEST

[1] The LORD (Jehovah) said unto my (David's) Lord (here it is translated "Adonai," but should have been translated "Jehovah"), Sit You at My Right Hand (Heb. 1:3), until I make Your enemies Your footstool. (This Verse covers the whole of the present period of time from Acts 1:9 to II Thess. 1:7. It will be fulfilled at the Second Coming.)

[2] The LORD shall send the rod of Your strength out of Zion: rule You in the midst of Your enemies. (This Verse pictures the enthronement of Christ in Zion, and the committal to His Hand of the sceptre of strength, emblem of His worldwide dominion. This is speaking of the Millennial Reign.)

[3] Your People shall be willing in the day of Your power, in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning: You have the dew of Your youth. (Both statements in this Verse refer to the Resurrection — the one to its occasion, the other to its continuance.)

[4] The LORD has sworn, and will not repent, You are a Priest forever after the order of Melchizedek. (This is addressed in Heb. 5:6 and 6:20. Christ is the Eternal Priest. The Priestly "Order of Melchizedek" was different from the Levitical or the Aaronic Priesthood. The Melchizedek Order was eternal, with the Aaronic Order being temporary [Gen. 14:17–20].)

[5] The Lord at Your Right Hand shall strike through kings in the day of His wrath.

[6] He shall judge among the heathen, He shall fill the places with the dead bodies; He shall wound the heads over many countries. (Both Verses 5 and 6 predict the triumph of the Messiah over the Antichrist and his followers [Ezek., Chpts. 38–39].)

7 He shall drink of the brook in the way: therefore shall He lift up the head. (The "lifting up of the head" means that Christ will be exalted over the nations of the world and, as the only Head, He will rule in Righteousness, Holiness, and Judgment [Isa. 2:2–4; Dan. 2:44–45; Zech., Chpt. 14; Rev. 20:4–6].)

CHAPTER 111

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: PRAISE TO THE LORD

[1] Praise you the LORD. I will praise the LORD with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation. (This and the two following Psalms are the three Hallelujah Psalms, which Israel will sing to the Messiah on the day of His enthronement in Zion. Psalm 111 claims the perfection of His Works; Psalm 112, the perfection of His Ways; Psalm 113, the perfection of His Person.)

[2] The Works of the LORD are great, sought out of all them who have pleasure therein. (This Verse pertains to the great Works of God studied with great pleasure by those who fear Him.)

[3] His Work is honourable and glorious: and His Righteousness endures forever. (The only work that is honorable is that which is done for God and is of God.)

[4] He has made His wonderful Works to be remembered: the LORD is gracious and full of compassion. (Verses 2 through 4 extol the glory of His Works. Actually, mere words could never plumb the depths nor scale the heights of that which He has done.)

[5] He has given meat unto them who fear Him: He will ever be mindful of His Covenant. (There has always been a breakdown on man's side of the Covenant. For everywhere that man is placed, man fails; nevertheless, the viability of the Covenant is in Christ and not man. Consequently, there is no fear or even possibility of the Covenant being broken. It is all in Christ [Gal. 3:11–18].)

[6] He has shown His People the power of His Works, that He may give them the heritage of the heathen. (In other words, the Lord is always able to carry out what He has promised.)

7 The Works of His Hands are verity and judgment; all His Commandments are sure. (The word "verity" means "truth." All of this is given in contrast to man's works and laws, which are flawed, faulty, and soon perish.)

8 They stand fast forever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness. (The Works of the Lord are eternal, because they are of the Lord.)

9 He sent redemption unto His People: He has commanded His Covenant forever: Holy and reverend is His Name. (Men are to ever reverence God and His Word.)

10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they who do His Commandments: His praise endures forever. (When men lose "the fear of the LORD," which means they ignore His Word, they lose wisdom.)

CHAPTER 112

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: BLESSED IS THE MAN WHO FEARS THE LORD

[1] Praise you the LORD. Blessed is the man who fears the LORD, who delights greatly in His Commandments. (This Song is an expansion of the last Verse of the previous Psalm. It praises the Messiah because of His Ways on Earth, and because He molds men into His Own moral Image.)

[2] His seed shall be mighty upon Earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed. (If we delight greatly in the Word of the Lord, we shall be greatly blessed.)

[3] Wealth and riches shall be in His House: and His Righteousness endures forever. (It is into "His House" that we are invited, where wealth and riches abide.)

[4] Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness: He is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous. (The word "upright" in Verse 2 is singular in the Hebrew Text, and thereby applies to the Messiah. The word "upright" in this Verse is plural in the Hebrew Text, and thereby applies to His servants. Thus is the argument illustrated that He can make His servants like Himself.)

[5] A good man shows favour, and lends: he will guide his affairs with discretion. (The Blessings of the Lord make it possible for the "good man" to "lend.")

[6] Surely he shall not be moved forever: the righteous shall be in everlasting remem brance. (Prosperity, at times, comes even to the unrighteous, but is fleeting and ultimately goes away. The contrast given by the Holy Spirit concerning the righteous is that their prosperity shall last forever, because it is anchored in Christ.)

7 He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: his heart is fixed, trusting in the LORD.

8 His heart is established, he shall not be afraid, until he see his desire upon his enemies. (Evil tidings shall not put the Believer in fear, for he knows the Lord will undertake.)

9 He has dispersed, he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever; his horn shall be exalted with honour. (This Verse speaks directly of the Messiah. He enriches, His benefits never end, and He triumphs.)

10 The wicked shall see it, and be grieved; he shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away: the desire of the wicked shall perish. ("Wicked" in the first line of this Verse is singular in the Hebrew Text. It means the lawless one of Dan. 11:36 and II Thess. 2:8. "Wicked" in the last line of this Verse is plural in the Hebrew Text, and means the lawless ones, i.e., the followers of the Antichrist.

Thus, the great picture is drawn. The Antichrist and those who hope in him will perish, while those whose expectation is based on Christ will triumph.)

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: PRAISE TO GOD

[1] Praise you the LORD. Praise, O you servants of the LORD, praise the Name of the LORD. (It brings these Psalms very near to the heart, when one remembers that they [113–118] were sung by the Lord Himself on the night of His betrayal.

Only those who are the servants of God can worship God. What the Messiah Personally is, as already stated, is the theme of this Psalm.)

[2] Blessed be the Name of the LORD from this time forth and forevermore. (The words, "from this time forth," relate to the occasion of His future enthronement in Zion. The duration of that Kingdom is foretold in this Verse, "forevermore.")

[3] From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same the LORD's Name is to be praised. (Concerning the world, the extent of His Kingdom is predicted here — worldwide.)

[4] The LORD is high above all nations, and His Glory above the heavens. (As Verse 3 proclaimed the extent of His reign, Verse 4 proclaims its universality.)

[5] Who is like unto the LORD our God, Who dwells on high (the Hebrew Text says, "Who has enthroned Himself on high"; God enthrones Himself, for there is none greater than He)**,

[6] Who humbles Himself to behold the things that are in Heaven, and in the Earth! (To interest Himself in the heavens is wonderful condescension, but to descend in His affection still lower to the Earth is Amazing Grace [Gen. 1:1].)

[7] He raises up the poor out of the dust, and lifts the needy out of the dunghill (the Lord delights to help the poor, the hurting, the suffering — if they will only trust Him)**;

8 That He may set him with princes, even with the princes of his people. (If trusted, the Lord leads one into great blessings.)

9 He makes the barren woman to keep house, and to be a joyful mother of children. Praise you the LORD. (The "barren woman" speaks of Israel in her glorious Restoration. The Psalm begins with "Hallelujah" [Praise]. It ends with "Hallelujah.")

CHAPTER 114

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: GOD'S POWER DEMONSTRATED IN THE EXODUS

[1] When Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of strange language (this Verse commemorates the powerful, even the all-powerful, Deliverance of Israel from Egyptian bondage. The name "Jacob" is used here and in Verse 7 to emphasize that Grace, not merit, forms the basis of past and future Deliverance for Israel, as well as all Believers, and for all time)**;

[2] Judah was His sanctuary, and Israel His dominion. (Evidently, this Psalm was written after the Kingdom was divided [II Ki., Chpt. 17].)

[3] The sea saw it, and fled: Jordan was driven back.

[4] The mountains skipped like rams, and the little hills like lambs. (The argument of this Psalm is, as to the past, that if nature, represented by the Red Sea, Sinai, and Jordan, trembled at the manifestation of God, how much more should the sinners of Canaan tremble before Him?)

[5] What ailed you, O you sea, that you fled? you Jordan, that you were driven back?

[6] You mountains, that you skipped like rams; and you little hills, like lambs? (The Holy Spirit draws our attention to the great Power of God, to which even nature must respond accordingly.)

[7] Tremble, you Earth, at the Presence of the Lord, at the Presence of the God of Jacob (the "Presence of the Lord" means His "Parousia" or Revelation — that is, His future coming in Power and great Glory. The word "Lord," in this Verse, is "Adon." The idea is, if the Lord shows such kindness and affection for His ancient People, then so much fearful doom will fall upon all who ill-treat them [Mat. 25:31–46]. The Arabs, and all other nations for that matter, should read these words very carefully. It says "The God of Jacob," not the god of Muhammad);

8 Which turned the rock into a standing water, the flint into a fountain of waters. (The sense of the Verse is that the Rock was Christ [I Cor. 10:4]. It actually refers to the waters from the Smitten Rock [Ex. 17:6; Num. 20:11]. "The flint" stands for the stony heart of men, which is melted by the Grace of God and turned into "a fountain of waters" [Jn. 4:13–14].)

CHAPTER 115

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: PRAISE TO GOD WHO IS OUR HELP AND SHIELD

[1] Not unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto Your Name give glory, for Your mercy, and for Your truth's sake. (This Song has to do with the beginning of the Millennial Reign. On the happy morning of Israel's Restoration, she will ascribe to the Messiah the Glory of the Deliverance sung in the previous Psalm.)

[2] Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is now their God? (All the world will then see Israel's God.)

[3] But our God is in the heavens: He has done whatsoever He has pleased. (In this Passage, Israel is saying that her God is in the heavens, and is, therefore, invisible, and not a visible god of wood or stone in the Earth, as viewed by the heathen.)

[4] Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. (These Verses contrast Jehovah with the helplessness of idols and idolatry.)

[5] They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not:

[6] They have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not:

[7] They have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat. (The Holy Spirit is speaking of objects made by the hands of men and, therefore, dead.)

[8] They who make them are like unto them; so is everyone who trusts in them. (This Verse states what has been, and it continues to be true to the fact that the worshippers of idols become like the idols which they worship — senseless, cruel, and impure. Multitudes presently worship idols made with their own hands or within their minds. An idol is an idol, whether it be made manually or mentally, and to worship God under the similitude of metal, stone, bread, or mind is idolatry — such as are many religious activities in both Catholic and Protestant Churches.)

9 O Israel, trust you in the LORD: He is their help and their shield. (As Israel of old could not trust in the Lord and idols at the same time, likewise, the modern Church cannot trust in psychology, education, therapy, or counseling, and the Lord at the same time.)

10 O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD: He is their help and their shield. (The "house of Aaron" pertains to the Ministry. If the Priesthood placed its trust in the Lord, basically the majority of the people would follow suit.)

11 You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD: He is their help and their shield. (The Holy Spirit pinpoints here the admonition of trusting the Lord, even down to the specific individual.)

12 The LORD has been mindful of us: He will bless us; He will bless the House of Israel; He will bless the house of Aaron. (This means that the Lord will greatly bless the Ministry, of which Aaron is a symbol, if the Ministry will only place their Faith and trust exclusively in Him.)

13 He will bless them who fear the LORD, both small and great. (This refers even to the individual.)

14 The LORD shall increase you more and more, you and your children. (The very word "blessing" means "increase.")

15 You are blessed of the LORD which made Heaven and Earth. (Over and over again, the Bible proclaims the Lord as the Creator of all things; and He didn't use evolution to do such.)

16 The Heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD's: but the Earth has He given to the children of men. (In the Garden of Eden, God gave dominion of Planet Earth to Adam [Gen. 1:26]. So this Verse tells us that other planets, regardless of modern technology, will never be seriously inhabited.)

17 The dead praise not the LORD, neither any who go down into silence. (This speaks of the spiritually dead, those who died without knowing the Lord.)

18 But we will bless the LORD from this time forth and forevermore. Praise the LORD. (All Believers, totally unlike unbelievers, will praise the Lord forever.)

CHAPTER 116

DAVID IS THE AUTHOR: PRAISE TO GOD FOR DELIVERANCE

[1] I love the LORD, because He has heard my voice and my supplications. (This might be called the Resurrection Psalm. The comforting message to faith in this Song is that the Resurrection of Christ is a pledge and assurance of the Resurrection of His People, and that as God carried Him victoriously through the sorrows of life and of death, so will He triumphantly carry those who, by faith, are united to Him. Hence, our Resurrection is based upon and connected with His Resurrection.)

[2] Because He has inclined His ear unto me, therefore will I call upon Him as long as I live. (This Psalm, sung by Him and His little flock on the eve of His Crucifixion, will be sung again by Him in the midst of the great congregation on the morn of His Coronation.)

[3] The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of Hell got hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow. (The first section of this Psalm [Vss. 3–11] presents the Messiah's recalling of His First Advent while in weakness and atonement. In Verses 12 through 19, He anticipates His Second Advent in Power and Glory, and He praises and worships Jehovah in respect to both.)

[4] Then called I upon the Name of the LORD; O LORD, I beseech You, deliver my soul. (His sorrows in the death world and His prayer when there are the subject of Verses 3–6, and His joyful testimony on the morning of His Resurrection is the theme of Verses 7–11.)

[5] Gracious is the LORD, and righteous; yes, our God is merciful. (As should be understood, the Messiah spoke more of His petitions, supplications, prayers, and victories through David than through any other Psalmist. This was because it was through David's lineage that the Messiah would come [II Sam., Chpt. 7].)

6 The LORD preserves the simple: I was brought low, and He helped me. (The word "simple" refers to "sinless"; because He was such, He was guarded safely when in Sheol.)

7 Return unto your rest, O my soul; for the LORD has dealt bountifully with you. (The "rest" intended in this Verse is that of St. John 17:4–5. Having accomplished Redemption, our Lord returned to the repose of the Father's Bosom.)

8 For You have delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears, and my feet from falling. (The word "falling" has no moral significance here, for it is impossible for the Messiah to morally stumble. The Hebrew word means "a thrusting down.")

9 I will walk before the LORD in the land of the living. (Delivered from being "thrust down," in Death, He is now raised up in Resurrection.)

10 I believed, therefore have I spoken: I was greatly afflicted *(this faith of Verse 10 is most striking, for it was exercised by the Messiah when in the regions of death, and is now exercised by Him in Resurrection):

11 I said in my haste, All men are liars. (The word "haste," in the Hebrew, does not mean "hastily," but "hasting on." No one thought that Christ would be raised from the dead, not even His closest Disciples. Concerning the Resurrection, at least after He was crucified, all were liars.)

12 What shall I render unto the LORD for all His benefits toward me? (We cannot render anything. In fact, the Lord has nothing for sale. It is all a Gift.)

13 I will take the cup of Salvation, and call upon the Name of the LORD. (Being Saved, we have the right to petition our Heavenly Father and expect an answer [I Jn. 5:14].)

14 I will pay my vows unto the LORD now in the presence of all His

People. (What Christ did in the Redemption of man was done "in the presence of all" [Ps. 40:7].)

15 Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of His Saints. (The word "precious" means "costly." It is costly to the Work of God upon the passing of any of His Saints. The only light in the world is the Light of Christ which reposes in the lives of the Saints.)

16 O LORD, truly I am Your servant; I am Your servant, and the son of Your handmaid: You have loosed my bonds. (The sense of this Verse is twofold — it speaks of both David and the Messiah. Its message is humility. The word "handmaid," likewise, has a double meaning. It refers both to Mary and to Israel, for Jesus was born of both the Virgin and of Israel. His Father loosed Him from the bonds of death and raised Him from the dead.)

17 I will offer to You the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the Name of the LORD. (We must understand that from this Verse we learn that all "thanksgiving" is based upon the Sacrifice of Christ.)

18 I will pay my vows unto the LORD now in the presence of all His People, (this is the second time this Verse is given to us verbatim, but not without cause; it refers to the tremendous victories won by the Lord Jesus Christ on behalf of a world that was loved by Him, but yet a world altogether unlovely.)

19 In the courts of the LORD' s House, in the midst of you, O Jerusalem. Praise you the LORD. (This will be fulfilled at the beginning of and throughout the great Kingdom Age. At that time, and continually all over the world, the great victories bought and paid for by the Lord Jesus Christ will be heralded "in the presence of all His People." No wonder the world at that time will say, "Praise you the LORD.")

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: PRAISE THE LORD

1 O praise the LORD, all you nations: praise Him, all you people. (The Apostle Paul quotes this Verse in Rom. 15:11. This short Song proclaims the beginning of the great Millennial Reign. Israel now invites the nations of the world to unite with her in praising the Messiah, and the reason is set out in the Second Verse.)

2 For His merciful kindness is great toward us: and the truth of the LORD endures for ever. Praise you the LORD. (The phrase, "is great toward," should read "has prevailed over." This tells us that the Lord will fulfill to Israel the Promise of the Kingdom and, in His abounding Grace, which will prevail over all their misconduct, He will forgive their sins.)

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: THANKSGIVING FOR THE LORD'S SALVATION

[1] O give thanks unto the LORD; for He is good: because His mercy endures forever. (This was the last Song sang at the Pascal Supper, as stated by the Hebrew historians. It gives it an added preciousness to the heart who knows the Lord to picture Him singing it immediately before setting out for Gethsemane.)

[2] Let Israel now say, that His mercy endures forever. (Israel will repeatedly say this because of the constant failure that checkers her past through her present. Therefore, they realize that it is only by the Mercy of God that they have been spared.)

[3] Let the house of Aaron now say, that His mercy endures forever. (As well, the Priesthood constantly failed and failed constantly; therefore, any act of Grace extended toward them by the Messiah can only be attributed to "His Mercy.")

[4] Let them now who fear the LORD say, that His mercy endures forever. (Those who properly fear the Lord will see that "His mercy endures forever.")

[5] I called upon the LORD in distress: the LORD answered me, and set me in a large place. (In the coming Great Tribulation, and especially in the Battle of Armageddon, Israel will call on the Lord, and He will answer her. It is remarkable in the fact that He has not answered her in over 2,000 years. But then He will answer; then He will set her "in a large place.")

[6] The LORD is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me? (Once Israel realizes that God has heard her and is coming to her rescue, which pertains to the Second Coming, then all fear is dispelled [Zech.

7 The LORD takes my part with them who help me: therefore shall I see my desire upon them who hate me. (Israel, at long last, realizes that to have the Lord on her side and take her part is better than all men in their riches.)

8 It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man. (Confidence in man was Israel's great problem, and it is the problem of the modern Church, as well.)

9 It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in princes. (Some think that because a person is rich and powerful that they can truly help. Most will not and, if they do, it is the Lord Who moves upon them to do so.)

10 All nations compassed me about: but in the Name of the LORD will I destroy them. (This speaks of the nations of the world that will gather at the Battle of Armageddon.)

11 They compassed me about; yes, they compassed me about: but in the Name of the LORD I will destroy them. (Regardless of the number of nations arrayed against Israel during the Battle of Armageddon, they will go down in defeat.)

12 They compassed me about like bees; they are quenched as the fire of thorns: for in the Name of the LORD I will destroy them. (The hundreds of thousands of men gathered at Armageddon will push at Israel "like bees." Regardless of the number, they will be defeated.)

13 You have thrust sore at me that I might fall: but the LORD helped me. (The pronoun "you" is important because it refers to Satan. He energized the enemies of Verses 7–12.)

14 The LORD is my strength and song, and is become my Salvation. (Israel confesses here that her Restoration apart from the once-rejected Messiah is impossible.)

15 The voice of rejoicing and Salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the Right Hand of the LORD does valiantly. (This rejoicing will take place at the Second Coming, when the Lord then vanquishes all of Israel's enemies.)

16 The Right Hand of the LORD is exalted: the Right Hand of the LORD does valiantly. (The Right Hand of Jehovah is symbolic of His Power [Ex. 15:6; Ps. 17:7; 20:6; 44:3].)

17 I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD. (During the Battle of Armageddon, it looks like Israel will die; but the Second Coming will change that.)

18 The LORD has chastened me sore: but He has not given me over unto death. (Israel now acknowledges the wisdom and love which permitted her sufferings at the hands of man. She approves these moral lessons. When the Believer comes to this place, he can expect the same type of Deliverance that God will give to Israel.)

19 Open to me the Gates of Righteousness: I will go into them, and I will praise the LORD (the "Gates of Righteousness" were opened to her upon the First Advent of Christ; she refused to walk through those gates; now, the Lord has given her a second opportunity)**:

20 This Gate of the LORD, into which the righteous shall enter. (Israel, on her own, could never claim righteousness. Neither can we! Now, she accepts the Righteousness that the Lord freely gives unto her, which she rejected so long ago in favor of her own righteousness [Rom. 10:3].)

21 I will praise You: for You have heard me, and are become my Salvation. (Now, Israel proclaims that the once-rejected Saviour is her God and Redeemer.)

22 The stone which the builders refused is become the Head Stone of the corner. (The Lord Jesus is the Stone, and furthermore, "the Head Stone." This was quoted and referred to in Mat. 21:42, Mk. 12:10–11, Lk. 20:17, Acts 4:11, and I Pet. 2:4–8.)

[23] This is the LORD's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes. (The whole of Salvation is from the Lord. None of it pertains to man in the realm of its origin. All pertains to God.)

[24] This is the day which the LORD has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it. (This refers to Israel's great day of Restoration. She will then acknowledge that it is all of the Lord and none of her. Consequently, it will be a day of rejoicing and gladness.)

[25] Save now, I beseech You, O LORD: O LORD, I beseech You, send now prosperity. (These words were sung by Christ, when He made His entrance into Jerusalem [Mat. 21:9]. Prophetically, it pertains to Israel's glad day, when, at the Feast of Tabernacles, at the beginning of and throughout the Millennial Reign, she will not only ask the Lord for prosperity, but will also rejoice in a prosperity already sent, because Jesus Christ is that prosperity.)

[26] Blessed be He Who comes in the Name of the LORD: we have blessed you out of the House of the LORD. (At the beginning of the Great Millennial Reign, Christ will once again come into Jerusalem, and Israel will shout these words all over again. The difference will be that now Israel is a Redeemed Israel, and they now know Who He is.)

[27] God is the LORD, which has shown us light: bind the Sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns of the Altar. (At this time, the Kingdom Age, Israel will proclaim to the world that they now understand the meaning of the Sacrifices of old. When the Sacrifice was bound with cords to the Altar, likewise, Jesus Christ died on Calvary for Israel and the whole of humanity.)

[28] You are my God, and I will praise You: You are my God, I will exalt You. (Here, after some 2,000 years, Israel will exalt Christ. They will proclaim to the whole world that "Messiah is my God.")

[29] O give thanks unto the LORD; for He is good: for His mercy endures forever. (Thus, Israel closes this grand and great Psalm even as it was opened. It was opened with Mercy. It closes with Mercy. Israel will then proclaim to the whole world that “God is good.”)

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: ALEPH, BLESSINGS OF THE WORD OF GOD

[1] Blessed are the undefiled in the Way, who walk in the Law of the LORD. (There are twenty-two Stanzas in this Psalm, as there are twenty-two letters [words] in the Hebrew alphabet. Consequently, the first Stanza begins with the first letter of the Hebrew alphabet, going all through the twenty-two Stanzas, with each beginning with the corresponding Hebrew letter.

The word "undefiled" [perfect] can only be spoken of the Messiah. He Alone walked perfectly in the Law of the Lord.)

[2] Blessed are they who keep His Testimonies, and who seek Him with the whole heart. (Also, there are ten different words used throughout this Psalm, which are each a word for the Bible, actually in all 176 Verses, with the exception of four: 90, 121, 122, and 132. The words are, "Way, Testimonies, Commandments, Word, Statutes, Precepts, Judgments, Laws, Truth, Ordinances." We are to seek Him "with the whole heart" and not a divided heart.)

[3] They also do no iniquity: they walk in His Ways. (To "do no iniquity" is the goal. The Messiah Alone did this.)

[4] You have commanded us to keep Your Precepts diligently. (This is to be the whole duty of man [Eccl. 12:13].)

[5] O that my ways were directed to keep Your Statutes! (Due to the Fall, the ways of man are the opposite of the Ways of God. Since the Cross, Born-Again man now has a Divine Nature. Therefore, upon Faith directed toward Christ and the Cross, a person has the help of the Holy Spirit and, through Christ, the "Statutes" are kept.)

6 Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all Your Commandments. (Unless we respect "all" of God's Commandments, there will be shame within our hearts, and rightly so.)

7 I will praise You with uprightness of heart, when I shall have learned Your righteous Judgments. (The moral condition of the heart is decided by obedience to the Word of God; consequently, true worship depends upon true knowledge of the Word.)

8 I will keep Your Statutes: O forsake me not utterly. (The sense of this Verse is: "Do not in any case take away this Lamp in which I am trusting, else I shall stumble in the darkness and fall.")

BETH, PERSONAL HOLINESS THROUGH THE WORD

9 Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to Your Word. (The applied Word alone can cleanse.)

10 With my whole heart have I sought You: O let me not wander from Your Commandments. (The Messiah Alone could say that He always sought the Lord with His whole heart and never did wander from the Commandments of the Lord.)

11 Your Word have I hid in my heart, that I might not sin against You. (Before the lips can fitly declare the teaching of the Scripture, the heart must be home to the Scriptures. Its Words form the rule of Faith, and subjection to its Judgments is the secret of a life of victory.)

12 Blessed are You, O LORD: teach me Your Statutes. (Revelation knowledge of the Bible is the only true knowledge of the Word there is. This comes about by the Lord teaching us, which He does through the fivefold Ministry [Eph. 4:11], or directly by the Holy Spirit [Gal. 1:12].)

13 With my lips have I declared all the Judgments of Your Mouth. (This is the obligation of every Believer, and especially the Preacher. Regrettably, with many, some Judgments are declared, but not all. The Messiah declared them all, even though it aroused great anger in the hearts of the religious hierarchy.)

14 I have rejoiced in the way of Your Testimonies, as much as in all riches. (Our learning and understanding of the Word of God must be placed at the very top of all things sought. It is by far the most important.)

15 I will meditate in Your Precepts, and have respect unto Your Ways. (The phrase, "meditate in Your Precepts," is the secret of life.)

16 I will delight myself in Your Statutes: I will not forget Your Word. (The Messiah delighted Himself constantly in the Word of God. This was His delight. What is your delight?)

GIMEL, PRAYER AND HUNGER FOR ENLIGHTENMENT

17 Deal bountifully with Your servant, that I may live, and keep Your Word. (The reader will find that the first four Verses of this Stanza express the activities of the heart toward God excited by the study of, and the obedience to, His Word. The second four Verses express the contempt and hatred that an obedient person receives from man.)

18 Open You my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of Your Law. (There are wondrous things in the Word, but the eyes must be unveiled in order to see them. To see them, the reader must sit where Mary of Bethany sat [Lk. 10:38–42].)

19 I am a stranger in the Earth: hide not Your Commandments from me. (The Bible makes its lover a stranger in this world, but it is a satisfying companion for the lonely exile. The Bible-lover will find no companionship among those who deny its contents.)

20 My soul breaks for the longing that it has unto Your Judgments at all times. (This is an expression used of deep passion or intense longing, and shows to what extent the Psalmist hungered for Righteousness [Mat. 5:6].)

21 You have rebuked the proud who are cursed, which do err from Your Commandments. (Those who are too proud to subject their wills to the teaching of the Scriptures bring a curse, and not a blessing, upon themselves, and become the bitter persecutors of those who make the Scriptures their delight.)

22 Remove from me reproach and contempt; for I have kept Your Testimonies. (The sense of this Verse is for the lover of the Bible not to allow reproach and contempt to weaken his love for the Word of God.)

23 Princes also did sit and speak against me: but Your servant did meditate in Your Statutes. (All of these Passages speak of Christ as our example. The mightiest in Israel spoke against Christ, but His solace was "Your Statutes.")

24 Your Testimonies also are my delight and my counselors. (What a rebuke to a worldly Church that seeks the counsel of men from a man-made philosophy with its man-made answers. The Word of God Alone should be our Counselor.)

DALETH, GETTING INSTRUCTION FROM THE WORD

25 My soul cleaves unto the dust: quicken You me according to Your Word. (The Messiah's love for the Bible and His Perfect Obedience to its teaching alone illustrate the statements of this Stanza. The idea is, the soul will fall into the dust [defeat], unless it is quickened by the Word of God.)

26 I have declared my ways, and You heard me: teach me Your Statutes. (Such a heart attempts to hide nothing from God.)

27 Make me to understand the way of Your Precepts: so shall I talk of Your wondrous Works. (The entire life, inward and outward, must be subjected to the searchlight of the Holy Scriptures.)

28 My soul melts for heaviness: strengthen

You me according unto Your Word. (Once again, the Holy Spirit calls our attention to the difficulties of the way, and that "strength" can come only through "Your Word.")

29 Remove from me the way of lying: and grant me Your Law graciously. (This is a request by the Messiah, and it also should be our request that all falsity, prevarication, and everything that is contrary to Truth, or that is the opposite of the Way of the Truth, would be removed from us.)

30 I have chosen the Way of Truth: Your Judgments have I laid before me. (The "Way of Truth" is the Bible.)

31 I have stuck unto Your Testimonies: O LORD, put me not to shame. (The word "stuck" actually means "I have been glued to." Let it be known that being glued to "Your Testimonies" is not one way of victory, but the only way.)

32 I will run the way of Your Commandments, when You shall enlarge my heart. ("To enlarge the heart" means "to arouse its moral affections." To understand and profit by the Scriptures, contrition of heart, rather than cleverness of head, is necessary.)

HE, GIVE ME UNDERSTANDING

33 Teach me, O LORD, the way of Your Statutes; and I shall keep it unto the end. (Allow me to remind the Bible Student that these petitions are the heartthrob and cry of the Messiah; therefore, if they are of Him, they should be of us.)

34 Give me understanding, and I shall keep Your Law; yes, I shall observe it with my whole heart. (This Stanza teaches that if the Bible Student disassociates the Book from its Author, his eyes will be unopened, his mind uninstructed, his heart unaffected, and his feet unled.)

35 Make me to go in the path of Your Commandments; for therein do I delight. (The sense of this Verse is that the human heart is so turned away from the Paths of God that the Holy Spirit must use Power to bring us back to the correct path, and will do so only upon the petitioning cry of the searching heart.)

36 Incline my heart unto Your Testimonies, and not to covetousness. (The Bible is more precious than gold. It can fill the broken heart with hope and strength. That is something money cannot do.)

37 Turn away my eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken You me in Your Way. (Any teaching that does not harmonize with the Bible is "vanity.")

38 Stablish Your Word unto Your servant, who is devoted to Your fear. (There is little devotion to the Word of God when there is little devotion to the "fear of God.")

39 Turn away my reproach which I fear: for Your Judgments are good. (The Lord Alone can turn away the reproach of sin.)

40 Behold, I have longed after Your Precepts: quicken me in Your Righteousness. (The "Righteousness" spoken of is God's Righteousness, which He imputes to Believers.)

VAU, I TRUST IN YOUR WORD

41 Let Your mercies come also unto me, O LORD, even Your Salvation, according to Your Word. (A Salvation which is not according to God's Word is a false salvation. It can neither silence mockers, nor influence kings.)

42 So shall I have wherewith to answer him who reproaches me: for I trust in Your Word. (The world reproaches those who trust solely in the Word of God.)

43 And take not the word of Truth utterly out of my mouth; for I have hoped in Your Judgments. (The Psalmist is actually saying that the Word of God is his only hope, as it is likewise our only hope.)

44 So shall I keep Your Law continually forever and ever. (Only the Messiah could say such.)

45 And I will walk at liberty: for I seek Your Precepts. (The Bible alone brings liberty.)

46 I will speak of Your Testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed. (Multitudes believe that a life shut in-between the covers of the Bible must necessarily be a narrow one. The opposite is found by experience to be the truth.)

47 And I will delight myself in Your Commandments, which I have loved. (The love and delight of the Psalmist comes from "Your Commandments," and not the things of the world.)

48 My hands also will I lift up unto Your Commandments, which I have loved; and I will meditate in Your Statutes. (Over and over, the Holy Spirit draws our attention to "mediating in His Statutes." This is the answer for stress, nervous disorders, emotional disturbances, and all other such problems.)

ZAIN, GOD'S WORD, THE SOURCE OF COMFORT

49 Remember the Word unto Your servant, upon which You have caused me to hope. (The Messiah expresses to Jehovah the fact of total dependence being placed in the Word.)

50 This is my comfort in my affliction: for Your Word has quickened me. (The Messiah does not deny affliction, nor does He offer any direction that guarantees no affliction, but He does offer hope in the Word of God, which "quickens me.")

51 The proud have had me greatly in derision: yet have I not declined from Your Law. (The proud deride the Promises of the Bible, but the humble rest upon them and hold fast to them.)

52 I remembered Your Judgments of old, O LORD; and have comforted myself. (The comfort that every soul needs can only be derived from the Bible.)

53 Horror has taken hold upon me because of the wicked who forsake

Your Law. (A holy anger and a just indignation become the true witness for God and for His Truth.)

[54] Your Statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage. (The word "songs" is an indication that David may have been the author of this Psalm.)

[55] I have remembered Your Name, O LORD, in the night, and have kept Your Law. (This speaks of meditation on the "Word" and the "Name" in the night of problems.)

[56] This I had, because I kept Your Precepts. (The Messiah Alone satisfies the language of this section, as He Alone illustrates the faith, loyalty, and love of all the other sections of this Psalm.)

CHETH, SATISFACTION BY THE WORD

[57] You are my portion, O LORD: I have said that I would keep Your Words. (The bane of the modern Church is that "portions" devised by man attempt to usurp authority over the "portions" given by God.)

[58] I intreated Your favour with my whole heart: be merciful unto me according to Your Word. ("Favor" means the conscious Presence of God.)

[59] I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto Your Testimonies. (Turn to the Bible; always turn to the Bible!)

[60] I made haste, and delayed not to keep Your Commandments. (This could only be said of the Messiah.)

[61] The bands of the wicked have robbed me: but I have not forgotten Your Law. (The perfect keeping of the perfect Law did not keep away the bands of the wicked, nor their insidious activity, but it did give a comfort that nothing else could give.)

[62] At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto You because of Your righteous Judgments. (The sense of this Psalm and this Passage is that neither suffering nor ease could weaken the affection of the heart for the Scriptures.)

63 I am a companion of all them who fear You, and of them who keep Your Precepts. (The companions of the Messiah were not the religious leaders of His day.)

64 The Earth, O LORD, is full of Your mercy: teach Me Your Statutes. (As the adversity of Verse Sixty-one failed to turn the Messiah away from the Bible, so neither did the prosperity of Verse Sixty-four weaken His fidelity to it.)

TETH, TEACH ME GOOD JUDGMENT

65 You have dealt well with Your servant, O LORD, according unto Your Word. (Fidelity to "Your Word" ensures Blessings from the Lord. He honors nothing else.)

66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge: for I have believed Your Commandments. (According to the Bible, immediately upon conversion, intelligence instantly increases.)

67 Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept Your Word. (As a True Priest and Advocate, Christ presents Himself as the guilty One and, at the same time, credits us with the perfection of the obedience which only He personally rendered to the Word of God.)

68 You are good, and do good; teach me Your Statutes. (The Statutes of God fill the Earth with goodness.)

69 The proud have forged a lie against me: but I will keep Your Precepts with my whole heart. (The hatred of the proud against the lover of the Bible makes the Bible more precious to the meek.)

70 Their heart is as fat as grease; but I delight in Your Law. (A heart "as fat as grease" is insensible and stupid. Such a heart is incompetent to judge the Commandments of God.)

[71] It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn Your Statutes. (Chastening and discipline make the Bible more precious and the life more fruitful. They are helpful Bible teachers.)

[72] The Law of Your mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver. (The possession of the Scriptures is greater wealth than all the treasure the world contains.)

JOD, RIGHTEOUSNESS OF THE WORD

[73] Your hands have made me and fashioned me: give me understanding, that I may learn Your Commandments. (The True Speaker is Christ, and the words apply to Him in perfection, as they apply to others of necessity only in part.)

[74] They who fear You will be glad when they see me; because I have hoped in Your Word. (Israel will be glad in the coming day, when they see Christ.)

[75] I know, O LORD, that Your Judgments are right, and that You in faithfulness have afflicted me. (In the strictest interpretation, this Passage applies to Christ in His Incarnation.)

[76] Let, I pray You, Your merciful kindness be for my comfort, according to Your Word unto Your servant. (If one will notice, the Messiah here does not pray for the removal of these afflictions, but instead for the enjoyment of compensating comforts, but only such comforts as accorded with God's Word.)

[77] Let Your tender mercies come unto me, that I may live: for Your Law is my delight. ("Delight" in the Hebrew Text stands in the plural number and, therefore, means "supreme delight.")

[78] Let the proud be ashamed; for they dealt perversely with me without a cause: but I will meditate in Your Precepts. (This pertains to the Scribes and Pharisees, who dealt perversely with Christ. He retreated to the Word of the Lord.)

79 Let those who fear You turn unto me, and those who have known Your Testimonies. (Those who feared God turned to the Messiah. Those who did not fear God turned to the "proud" [Pharisees].)

80 Let my heart be sound in Your Statutes; that I be not ashamed. (Soundness in the Word of God is the criteria.)

CAPH, ALL YOUR COMMANDMENTS ARE FAITHFUL

81 My soul faints for Your Salvation: but I hope in Your Word. (No man who longs for and faints for Salvation from God will go unheard [Mat. 5:6].)

82 My eyes fail for Your Word, saying, When will You comfort me? (The first part of this Scripture could be translated, "I will not stop looking for the fulfillment of Your Word and, in fact, will look, if necessary, until I go blind.")

83 For I am become like a bottle in the smoke; yet do I not forget Your Statutes. (This pertains to Israel's rejection of Christ and the constant persecution heaped upon Him by the Pharisees. His hope was in the Word.)

84 How many are the days of Your servant? when will You execute Judgment on them who persecute me? (Christ, as Lord, could, at any moment, have destroyed His persecutors, but, as Man, He would not take vengeance into His Own hands, for vengeance belongs unto God [Rom. 12:19].)

85 The proud have dug pits for me, which are not after Your Law. (The "proud" are the self-righteous Pharisees. Mat., Chpt. 15, records some of the pits that the proud dug for Him.)

86 All Your Commandments are faithful: they persecute me wrongfully; help You me. (The sense of the first part of this Passage is that even though God did not deem it desirable to lift the persecution, still, the Word of God would see Him through.)

87 They had almost consumed me upon earth; but I forsook not Your Precepts. ("Almost" means "quickly." The sense of the Verse is: they wished to quickly make an end of me.)

88 Quicken me after Your lovingkindness; so shall I keep the Testimony of Your mouth. (The word "quicken" means "make alive.")

LAMED, GOD'S WORD IS ETERNAL

89 Forever, O LORD, Your Word is settled in Heaven. (God's Word is eternal.)

90 Your faithfulness is unto all generations: You have established the Earth, and it abides. (All man-made religious laws change, and change constantly. The Word of God never changes.)

91 They continue this day according to Your Ordinances: for all are Your servants. (The heavens are God's creation, and are upheld by His Word [Heb. 11:3].)

92 Unless Your Law had been my delights, I should then have perished in my affliction. (God's Law was the Messiah's "delights," meaning the supreme joy of His Heart.)

93 I will never forget Your Precepts: for with them You have quickened me. (The Messiah gives all the credit to the Bible for victory, sustenance, power, and for keeping Him alive.)

94 I am Yours, save me; for I have sought Your Precepts. (The word "save" signifies preservation through trial and opposition.)

95 The wicked have waited for me to destroy me: but I will consider Your Testimonies. ("The wicked" in the Messiah's day referred to the Pharisees.)

96 I have seen an end of all perfection: but Your Commandment is exceeding broad. (There is an end or boundary to the extent of God's Work in Creation, but no boundary to His Word in Revelation — it is infinite and eternal.)

MEM, I LOVE YOUR LAW

97 O how I love Your Law! it is my meditation all the day. (Even though all the Passages in this Psalm refer to the Messiah and His love for God's Word, still, the Holy Spirit lifts the Greater Son of David to a higher exclamation in this thirteenth chorus than all previously given. Once again, we are drawn to His constant "meditation.")

98 You through Your Commandments have made me wiser than my enemies: for they are ever with me. (The pronoun "they" refers to the "Commandments.")

99 I have more understanding than all my teachers: for Your testimonies are my meditation. (Even as a young boy, Jesus knew more about the Word of God than His teachers [Lk. 2:40–49].)

100 I understand more than the ancients, because I keep Your Precepts. (The claim is made, and accurately so, that Christ understood more about God and His Word than even the great Patriarchs and Prophets of the past — all because of the knowledge of and the keeping of "Your Precepts.")

101 I have refrained my feet from every evil way, that I might keep Your Word. (Only Christ could make such a statement!)

102 I have not departed from Your Judgments: for You have taught me. (In previous choruses of this One Hundred Nineteenth Psalm, we have witnessed the petition of the Holy Spirit to serve as Teacher. We have here the exclamation that the petition was heard and granted.)

103 How sweet are Your Words unto my taste! yes, sweeter than honey to my mouth! (As in the previous Stanza, the Messiah sang of the strength of God's Word, so here He sings of its sweetness.)

104 Through Your precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way. (This Stanza closes with the statement that the wisdom which flows from the Scriptures destroys all desire for false teaching.)

NUN, GOD'S WORD IS A LAMP AND A LIGHT

105 Your Word is a Lamp unto my feet, and a Light unto my path. (The only "Lamp" in the world that produces "true Spiritual Light" is the Bible.)

106 I have sworn, and I will perform it, that I will keep Your righteous Judgments. (The Messiah has sworn His fidelity to the Word, and by no less than Himself.)

107 I am afflicted very much: quicken me, O LORD, according unto Your Word. (Even though the Path did lighten and gladden, still, it was a Path of affliction from God. Some modern doctrines have attempted to make the Path golden. It is not! It is a Path that is freighted with tests. The tests are from God.)

108 Accept, I beseech You, the freewill offerings of my mouth, O LORD, and teach me Your Judgments. (The "freewill Offering" spoken of here is "the Sacrifice of Praise" [Heb. 13:15].)

109 My soul is continually in my hand: yet do I not forget Your Law. (To have "the life in the hand" means to be in deadly danger. This danger was from the Pharisees.)

110 The wicked have laid a snare for me: yet I erred not from Your Precepts. (These "snares" were laid by the Pharisees [Mat. 26:3–4].)

111 Your Testimonies have I taken as an heritage forever: for they are the rejoicing of my heart. (The Bible was not only a present help for the Messiah, but, in fact, stands as His security forever, because it never changes.)

112 I have inclined my heart to perform Your Statutes alway, even unto the end. (A lamp is useless unless used.)

SAMECH, GOD'S WORD IS A REFUGE AND A SHIELD

[113] I hate vain thoughts: but Your Law do I love. (The statement, "I hate vain thoughts," means "I hate false teaching.")

[114] You are my hiding place and my shield: I hope in Your Word. (The Law inspired the confidence of the Messiah, and its Author, the Holy Spirit, was His hiding place and shield.)

[115] Depart from me, you evildoers: for I will keep the Commandments of my God. (The choice then, and the choice now, is either man's ways or God's Ways.)

[116] Uphold me according unto Your Word, that I may live: and let me not be ashamed of my hope.

[117] Hold You me up, and I shall be safe: and I will have respect unto Your Statutes continually. ("Uphold me" and "hold me up" are noteworthy verbs in the Hebrew Text. They represent God's supporting the Believer from both above and beneath — carried and, at the same time, held by the hand.)

[118] You have trodden down all them who err from Your Statutes: for their deceit is falsehood. (The Messiah gives the Glory to God for the failure of these false teachers to detach Him from the Bible.)

[119] You put away all the wicked of the Earth like dross: therefore I love Your Testimonies.

[120] My flesh trembles for fear of You; and I am afraid of Your Judgments. (These two Scriptures are clear: all false teachers and false teaching will ultimately be doomed.)

AIN, THE PSALMIST HAS OBEYED GOD'S LAWS

[121] I have done judgment and justice: leave me not to my oppressors.

(Christ, being perfect, affirms in this Stanza the moral perfection of the Bible and declares it to be His Rule of life.)

122 Be surety for Your Servant for good: let not the proud oppress me. (Here, He prays for deliverance from His detractors and bases His claim to be delivered from them on His integrity, as is outlined in the previous Verse, on His Relationship to God, and on His Loyalty to the Scriptures.)

123 My eyes fail for Your Salvation, and for the Word of Your Righteousness. (The word "fail" expresses longing and desire.)

124 Deal with Your servant according unto Your mercy, and teach me Your Statutes.

125 I am Your servant; give me understanding, that I may know Your Testimonies. (Twice in these two Verses the Messiah implores the Holy Spirit to teach Him the Word of God. In the Incarnate state, therefore, as Man, He had to learn exactly as we do.)

126 It is time for You, LORD, to work: for they have made void Your Law. (The words, "to work," mean "to intervene.")

127 Therefore I love Your Commandments above gold; yes, above fine gold. (He Who was Himself the Incarnate Word of God reveals here His Affection for the Written Word of God.)

128 Therefore I esteem all Your Precepts concerning all things to be right; and I hate every false way. (In this Verse, the Messiah testifies to the inspiration, moral perfection, inerrancy, and authority of the Bible, and declares that its effect as a moral teacher is to beget hostility to evil. He says that all its Precepts concerning all things are right.)

PE, THE ENTRANCE OF YOUR WORDS GIVES LIGHT

129 Your Testimonies are wonderful: therefore does my soul keep them. (Immanuel's love for the Scriptures and His grief because men ignore them are the keynotes of this Stanza.)

130 The entrance of Your Words gives light; it gives understanding unto the simple. (The word "simple" means "sincere." To the sincere heart God will reveal Himself.)

131 I opened my mouth, and panted: for I longed for Your Commandments. (This Passage exemplifies the absolute thirst for the Word of God by the Messiah.)

132 Look you upon me, and be merciful unto me, as You used to do unto those who love Your Name. (Should be translated, "as You give judgment to those who love Your Name.")

133 Order my steps in Your Word: and let not any iniquity have dominion over me. (Could be translated: "Guide my steps by Your Word, cause my conduct to harmonize with the Bible, and let not any iniquitous action of man have power against me.")

134 Deliver me from the oppression of man: so will I keep Your Precepts. (His prayer for deliverance from oppression was not in order that He might have leisure to enjoy Himself, but liberty to practice the teachings of the Bible.)

135 Make Your face to shine upon Your servant; and teach me Your Statutes. (The phrase, "Make Your face to shine," means "Give me Your Favor or Grace.")

136 Rivers of waters run down my eyes, because they keep not Your Law. (In a previous Stanza [Vs. 126], the Messiah mourned because men made void His Father's Law; here He weeps because they did not prize and obey it.)

TZADDI, YOUR WORD IS VERY PURE

137 Righteous are You, O LORD, and upright are Your Judgments. (The extolling of the Word of God in these Passages is a wonder to behold, and by the Messiah, at that!)

138 Your Testimonies that You have commanded are righteous and very faithful. (In fact, these are the only true Testimonies in the world, and actually ever have been.)

139 My zeal has consumed me, because my enemies have forgotten Your Words. (Here the Messiah pours out His Grief because men forget God's Word.)

140 Your Word is very pure: therefore Your servant loves it. (Only the Word of God is pure, with man's word never being pure.)

141 I am small and despised: yet do not I forget Your Precepts. (The word "small" means "insignificant.")

142 Your Righteousness is an everlasting Righteousness, and Your Law is the Truth. (The Righteousness of the Divine Essence and the Righteousness of His Testimonies are one and the same Righteousness. As a consequence, all the Statements and Doctrines of the Bible are free from error.)

143 Trouble and anguish have taken hold on me: yet Your Commandments are my delights. (The sense of this Verse is: "I have trouble and anguish, but they do not cause me to turn from You or Your Word.")

144 The Righteousness of Your Testimonies is everlasting: give me understanding, and I shall live. (The only "Righteousness" is found in the Word of God, which denies all man-made righteousness.)

KOPH, GOD'S WORD IS A SOURCE OF STRENGTH

145 I cried with my whole heart; hear me, O LORD: I will keep Your Statutes. (His cry to God to help Him in His fidelity to the Word ensured the keeping of that Word. The word "cried" refers to a heart-longing desire akin to physical hunger or thirst.)

146 I cried unto You; save me, and I shall keep Your Testimonies.

147 I prevented the dawning of the morning, and cried: I hope in Your Word.

148 My eyes prevent the night watches, that I might meditate in Your Word. (These two Verses portray Christ studying the Word both morning and night.)

149 Hear my voice according unto Your lovingkindness: O LORD, quicken me according to Your Judgment. (The Messiah desired that the Scriptures be the instrument and channel of refreshment and vivification to His Mind and Faith. He prayed to be kept within the banks of that channel.)

150 They draw near who follow after mischief: they are far from Your Law. (How strange it was that the Pharisees were so near Him, yet did not know Him, because they did not know God's Word!)

151 You are near, O LORD; and all Your Commandments are Truth. (This Passage tells us that God hovers near all fidelity to His Word.)

152 Concerning Your Testimonies, I have known of old that You have founded them forever. (The last Verse in this chorus proclaims the Messiah testifying to the inspiration and antiquity of the Sacred Scriptures. He declares God to be their Author, and predicts that they will endure forever [Mat. 24:35].)

RESH, GOD'S WORD IS A SOURCE OF DELIVERANCE

153 Consider my affliction, and deliver me: for I do not forget Your Law. (The word "deliver," in the Hebrew, as used here, is "halaz," and means "to rescue with a gentle hand.")

154 Plead my cause, and deliver me: quicken me according to Your Word. (When suffering injustice, most men defend themselves, but the Messiah resigned Himself to God, pleading for His deliverance.)

155 Salvation is far from the wicked: for they seek not Your Statutes.

(Deliverance was near to this dependent Man because He loved the Bible, but was far from the self-reliant because they despised it.)

156 Great are Your tender mercies, O LORD: quicken me according to Your Judgments. (The name "LORD" refers to "Covenant" and promises such.)

157 Many are my persecutors and my enemies; yet do I not decline from Your Testimonies. (Their every effort was to push Him away from the Bible. Instead, it drew Him closer.)

158 I beheld the transgressors, and was grieved; because they kept not Your Word. (This Passage could be translated, "I looked upon the traitors and loathed them because they kept not Your Word.")

159 Consider how I love Your Precepts: quicken me, O LORD, according to Your lovingkindness. (In contrast to the treachery of the Pharisees to that Holy Law, He could truthfully exclaim, "Consider how I love it!")

160 Your Word is true from the beginning: and every one of Your righteous Judgments endures forever. (In this Verse, He repeats the testimony of Verse One Hundred Fifty-two, but especially urges the inerrancy of this Sacred Volume.)

SCHIN, GREAT PEACE HAVE THEY WHICH LOVE YOUR LAW

161 Princes have persecuted me without a cause: but my heart stands in awe of Your Word. (This Verse refers to the persecution of Christ by the rulers and leaders of Israel.)

162 I rejoice at Your Word, as one who finds great spoil. (The greatest treasure of all is found in "Your Word," and will produce exhilarating rejoicing.)

163 I hate and abhor lying: but Your Law do I love. (The sense of this Verse is that the persecutors of Christ were liars, as are all those who vacillate from God's Word.)

164 Seven times a day do I praise You because of Your righteous Judgments. (The word "seven" signifies completion, fulfillment, totality, and perfection. It means that the "praise" of the Messiah was perfect and unceasing.)

165 Great peace have they who love Your Law: and nothing shall offend them. ("Great peace" follows fidelity to and love of "Your Law.")

166 LORD, I have hoped for Your Salvation, and done Your Commandments.

167 My soul has kept Your Testimonies; and I love them exceedingly.

168 I have kept Your Precepts and Your Testimonies: for all my ways are before You. (Only a perfect Believer could make the statements of these last three Verses. Such a Believer was Jesus of Nazareth.)

TAU, YOUR LAW IS MY DELIGHT

169 Let my cry come near before You, O LORD: give me understanding according to Your Word. (This is the Twenty-second and final Stanza. If possible, it increases in intensity the Messiah's extolling the Word of God. It opens with a "cry" for the "understanding" of the Bible.)

170 Let my supplication come before You: deliver me according to Your Word. (This word "deliver," in the Hebrew, is "nazal," which means "to pluck out of the hands of the enemy; to recover.")

171 My lips shall utter praise, when You have taught me Your Statutes. (The word "utter" means "to bubble over with." The effect of Heaven's legislation is to make Earthly lips overflow with praise.)

172 My tongue shall speak of Your Word: for all Your Commandments are righteousness. (In these last two Verses, we have "praise" and "testimony." His utterance to God was "praise." His utterance to man was "testimony," or "Your Word.")

[173] Let Your hand help me; for I have chosen Your Precepts. (Neither the deliverance by man's hand nor the prosperity of his ways were desired by Christ, but God's Salvation and His Word were.)

[174] I have longed for Your Salvation, O LORD; and Your Law is my delight. (The word "Salvation," hinged with God's Covenant ["O LORD"], guarantee total deliverance, victory, development, and fulfillment.)

[175] Let my soul live, and it shall praise You; and let Your Judgments help me. (We "live not by bread alone, but by every Word that proceeds out of the mouth of God" [Mat. 4:4].)

[176] I have gone astray like a lost sheep; seek Your servant; for I do not forget Your Commandments. (To wander as a lost sheep here expresses defenselessness and loneliness, and not moral defection.)

CHAPTER 120

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: PRAYER OF DISTRESS

[1] In my distress I cried unto the LORD, and He heard me. (In the great One Hundred Nineteenth Psalm, with its twenty-two Stanzas, the Messiah sang of the Lamp [the Bible] that lightens the celestial way. In these next fifteen Psalms, which are called the "Songs of Degrees" or "Ascents," He will sing of that way, for it is an ascending way — it leads up to God.)

[2] Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips, and from a deceitful tongue. (The slanderous tongues of the Pharisees attested to the innocency of the Messiah.)

[3] What shall be given unto you? or what shall be done unto you, you false tongue? (The sense of this Verse is that the Lord called the Pharisees "a false tongue.")

[4] Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper. (The idea is, the "tongues" of the Scribes and Pharisees would burn in the fires of Hell.)

[5] Woe is me, that I sojourn in Mesech, that I dwell in the tents of Kedar! (Mesech and Kedar were sons of Ishmael. They represent the Scribes and Pharisees, who were indeed of the seed of Abraham, but born after the flesh.)

[6] My soul has long dwelt with him who hates peace. (The Lord's Earthly life was a short one, yet it was so filled with sorrows that, measured by suffering, it could truthfully be recorded as a long one.)

[7] I am for peace: but when I speak, they are for war. (The True Messiah was Peace Personified and was rejected by Israel. The false messiah will promise peace but will bring war.)

CHAPTER 121

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: A SONG OF DEGREES, GOD'S SUSTAINING POWER

[1] I will lift up my eyes unto the hills, from whence comes my help. (The Messiah here is not saying that His help comes from the hills. The next Verse explains it.)

[2] My help comes from the LORD, Who made Heaven and Earth. (In other words, my help comes from the Lord, Who made the hills, and, in fact, all of Heaven and Earth.)

[3] He will not suffer your foot to be moved: He Who keeps you will not slumber. (As long as our foot is anchored on the path of His Word, He will see to it that nothing can move it off.)

[4] Behold, He Who keeps Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. (The Lord watched over us constantly and forever. He never sleeps!)

[5] The LORD is your keeper: the LORD is your shade upon your right hand. (The "right hand" was considered the hand of strength. God will protect our strength.)

[6] The sun shall not smite you by day, nor the moon by night. (This simply means that the Lord will not permit His Creation to work against us, but actually on our behalf.)

[7] The LORD shall preserve you from all evil: He shall preserve your soul. (Presently, the Lord does such by our abiding Faith in Christ and the Cross, which then gives us the help and Power of the Holy Spirit [Rom. 8:1–2, 11].)

[8] The LORD shall preserve your going out and your coming in from this time forth, and even forevermore. (This is an ironclad contract that requires only “trust in the Lord,” which now refers to Trust in Christ and the Cross. Christ is always the Source, while the Cross is always the Means.)

CHAPTER 122

THE AUTHOR IS DAVID: PRAY FOR THE PEACE OF JERUSALEM

[1] I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the House of the LORD. (The Messiah's heart, saddened by the long centuries of Israel's unbelief, is now gladdened by their cry, "Let us go into the House of Jehovah.")

[2] Our feet shall stand within your gates, O Jerusalem. (The Vision belongs to the future, but faith makes present what Grace promises.)

[3] Jerusalem is built as a city that is compact together (this statement in abbreviated form exclaims the fact of Jerusalem's tremendous troubles of the past, which are now over)**:

[4] Whither the Tribes go up, the Tribes of the LORD, unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the Name of the LORD. (Here in Jerusalem, and we speak of the coming Kingdom Age, Israel's twelve Tribes, redeemed and with new hearts, are presented as worshippers.)

[5] For there are set Thrones of Judgment, the Thrones of the House of David. (This Throne will be placed in Jerusalem. It signifies the government of the world that will be upon the Shoulder of the Messiah [Isa. 9:6].)

[6] Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper who love you. (This command by the Holy Spirit should be obeyed by all Christians. Prosperity is promised to all who obey it [Gen. 12:3].)

[7] Peace be within your walls, and prosperity within your palaces. (The Holy Spirit in Verse 6 not only tells us to pray for the peace of Jerusalem, but also gives us the prayer that we ought to pray. It is this Seventh Verse.)

8 For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within you. (Two perfections of the Messiah's heart appear in the last two Verses — its sensitivity to the voice of the Holy Spirit and its affection for the people of God's choice.)

9 Because of the House of the LORD our God I will seek your good. (This Song is for David. It relates to David, that is, to the True David, the Messiah.)

CHAPTER 123

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: PRAYER FOR MERCY

[1] Unto You lift I up my eyes, O You Who dwells in the heavens. (The contrast is shown here between the great King of the heavens and the proud but puny king of the nations, evidenced in Verse 4.)

[2] Behold, as the eyes of the servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the LORD our God, until that He have mercy upon us. (In the east, in ancient times, masters directed their servants with the hand rather than with the voice. Servants, therefore, watched the hand of their masters; likewise, God's Hand directs, supplies, protects, comforts, caresses, corrects, and rewards His servants.)

[3] Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt. (Even though Israel is held in contempt, the Lord will hear her cry during the coming Battle of Armageddon and have Mercy upon her.)

[4] Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those who are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud. (The one called "the proud" will be the Antichrist. He will be "at ease," thinking that victory is his. He will find, to his dismay, that will not be the case.)

THE AUTHOR IS DAVID: PRAISE FOR DELIVERANCE

[1] If it had not been the LORD Who was on our side, now may Israel say (the folly of seeking the trembling hand of man is folly indeed! The Lord Alone is the Saviour);

[2] If it had not been the LORD Who was on our side, when men rose up against us (Satan uses men; almost always they are men of religion; they do the work of their father, the Devil):

[3] Then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us (the Lord, when calling past victories to remembrance, animates Israel to trust for present ones):

[4] Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul:

[5] Then the proud waters had gone over our soul. (The enemy here is compared to a raging flood.)

[6] Blessed be the LORD, Who has not given us as a prey to their teeth.

[7] Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped. (In a vainglorious cylinder of Sennacherib's, now in the British Museum in London, the proud monarch records that he shut up Hezekiah in Jerusalem "as a bird in a cage." But the Scriptures of Truth relate that the snare of the fowler was broken and the bird escaped [II Chron., Chpt. 32]. As well, the Holy Spirit through David wrote this hundreds of years before the fact.)

[8] Our help is in the Name of the LORD, Who made Heaven and Earth. (How so much the Holy Spirit implores us to look to the Lord, and not man!)

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: GOD SURROUNDS AND PROTECTS HIS PEOPLE

[1] They who trust in the LORD shall be as Mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abides forever. (Despite Satan's repeated attacks, God has promised that Zion will always remain. He speaks of Jerusalem. The Muslims should read this!)

[2] As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the LORD is round about His People from henceforth even forever. (The word "henceforth" defines the time of the fulfillment of this Prophecy. It will be the morn of Christ's Millennial Reign.)

[3] For the rod of the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous: lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity. (This Passage would have been better translated, "The Sceptre of the lawless one [Dan. 11:36; II Thess. 2:8] shall not remain upon the lot of the righteous." The "righteous" are Christ and all who follow Him. The place is Israel. This Verse predicts the close of the Antichrist's reign and of his possession of God's pleasant land.)

[4] Do good, O LORD, unto those who be good, and to them who are upright in their hearts.

[5] As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, the LORD shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Israel. (Righteousness will be rewarded, while wickedness will be judged.)

CHAPTER 126

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: DELIVERANCE FROM CAPTIVITY

[1] When the LORD turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them who dream. (This pictures the deliverance of Jerusalem from Sennacherib. It was so glorious that it all seemed like a dream [II Ki. 19:20–35].)

[2] Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, The LORD has done great things for them. (The deliverance of Jerusalem was so outstanding that it was noticed by all the heathen round about, with them giving glory to God. The Lord sent one Angel and destroyed 185,000 Assyrians in one night [II Ki. 19:35].)

[3] The LORD has done great things for us; whereof we are glad.

[4] Turn again our captivity, O LORD, as the streams in the south. ("To turn again our captivity" is a figure of speech for the restoration of prosperity.)

[5] They who sow in tears shall reap in joy.

[6] He who goes forth and weeps, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him. (Paul said, "This Seed is Christ" [Gal. 3:16]. The "sheaves" are symbolic of the harvest which, at long last, is Righteousness.)

CHAPTER 127

WRITTEN BY SOLOMON: TRUSTING GOD IS FRUITFUL

[1] Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain who build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman wakes but in vain. (The sense of this Verse is that faith contrasts the sufficiency of God with the insufficiency of man.)

[2] It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so He gives His beloved sleep. (The argument of this Verse is that God gives to His loved ones, while asleep, treasures that men toil for early and late in vain.)

[3] Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is His reward. (The "house" built by the Lord will be full of children, built of living stones — a multitude of redeemed sinners that no man can number [I Pet. 2:5; Rev. 7:9].)

[4] As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth. (God is building a spiritual house of sons. The "Mighty Man" is the Lord Jesus Christ. These sons, loved and energized by Him, become more than conquerors.)

[5] Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate. ("The Man" is Jesus Christ. The great price paid at Calvary was not in vain. Millions have flocked and will flock to His banner, and the gates of Hell shall not prevail against them [Mat. 16:18].)

CHAPTER 128

WRITER UNKNOWN: THE REWARDS OF FAITHFULNESS

[1] Blessed is everyone who fears the LORD; who walks in His Ways. (This is fulfilled now in part; it will be fulfilled totally in the coming Kingdom Age.)

[2] For You shall eat the labour of your hands: happy shall you be, and it shall be well with you. (This speaks of the coming Kingdom Age, when the deserts will blossom like the rose.)

[3] Your wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of your house: your children like olive plants round about your table.

[4] Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed who fears the LORD. ("Your wife" refers to Israel, who is no longer the "wife of whoredoms." As well, the "children" will not be "children of whoredoms"; they came from the wayward wife, but this "wife," a fully restored Israel, shall be a "fruitful vine" [Hos. 1:2; Chpt. 14].)

[5] The LORD shall bless you out of Zion: and you shall see the good of Jerusalem all the days of your life.

[6] Yes, you shall see your children's children, and peace upon Israel. (This will take place in the coming Kingdom Age, and will most definitely be fulfilled to the letter.)

CHAPTER 129

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: A PRAYER FOR JUDGMENT FOR THOSE WHO AFFLICT ISRAEL

[1] Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth, may Israel now say (the Speaker here is the Messiah; here He recalls Israel's struggles in her beginnings as a nation):

[2] Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth: yet they have not prevailed against me. (The Haman's, the Herod's, and the Hitler's have repeatedly tried to destroy Israel. They have all failed!)

[3] The plowers plowed upon my back: they made long their furrows. (This pertains to Israel while in Egyptian slavery [Ex. 2:23–24].)

[4] The LORD is righteous: He has cut asunder the cords of the wicked. (This statement, "Jehovah is righteous," is placed in the center of this Psalm. It vindicates His actions in permitting the past and future afflictions of His People.)

[5] Let them all be confounded and turned back who hate Zion. (This prayer was prayed by the Messiah and is, therefore, guaranteed of fulfillment.)

[6] Let them be as the grass upon the housetops, which withers afore it grows up. (The prediction is clear — all who oppose Israel, including the Antichrist, will "wither.")

[7] Wherewith the mower fills not his hand; nor he who binds sheaves his bosom. (In this Passage, the Antichrist is likened to "the mower." He will not fill his hand nor gather profit from his invasion of Israel, which will take place in the middle of the Great Tribulation, and at its conclusion.)

[8] Neither do they which go by say, The blessing of the LORD be upon you: we bless you in the Name of the LORD. (The sense of this Verse is that even though Israel has long strayed from God, still, their oppressor will have no blessing from the Lord.)

CHAPTER 130

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: MY SOUL WAITS FOR THE LORD

[1] Out of the depths have I cried unto You, O LORD. ("The depths" relate to the depth of affliction which Israel will suffer under the false messiah, which will be the just punishment of her rejection of the True Messiah.)

[2] Lord, hear my voice: let Your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications. (The Messiah requests that Jehovah hear His voice on behalf of His People.)

[3] If You, LORD, should mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand? (The depravity of all men is declared in this Verse.)

[4] But there is forgiveness with You, that You may be feared. (The cry for forgiveness of sins must be addressed to God, for He Alone can forgive. As well, a cry for deliverance from oppression is to be made to Him, for He is mighty to save.)

[5] I wait for the LORD, my soul does wait, and in His Word do I hope.

[6] My soul waits for the Lord more than they who watch for the morning: I say, more than they who watch for the morning. (This is a faith that waits "on" God and that waits "for" God. Saul was willing to wait "on" God, but not to wait "for" God, and so he lost the Kingdom [I Sam. 10:8; 13:8–14].)

[7] Let Israel hope in the LORD: for with the LORD there is mercy, and with Him is plenteous redemption.

[8] And He shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities. (This Song of Trust gives abundant hope, not only for Israel, but for all who would take advantage of God's great Salvation Plan.)

CHAPTER 131

THE AUTHOR IS DAVID: HUMILITY BEFORE THE LORD

[1] LORD, my heart is not haughty, nor my eyes lofty: neither do I exercise myself in great matters, or in things too high for me. (This is a Song of Triumph. It speaks of humility, which is, in fact, the greatest Triumph of all.)

[2] Surely I have behaved and quieted myself, as a child that is weaned of his mother: my soul is even as a weaned child. (Even though David wrote these Words, the Messiah is the Speaker and, thereby, the Subject of this Song. The sense of this Verse is that, as a weaned child submits its will to that of its mother, so will the Messiah, as God's perfect king, be wholly subject to God; by ruling in His fear, this will form a contrast to self-willed human kings.)

[3] Let Israel hope in the LORD from henceforth and forever. (She is to do this because the character of the King is such that a perfect government will be enjoyed by His subjects, and Israel will dwell in peace.)

CHAPTER 132

THE AUTHOR IS DAVID: WORSHIP AND BLESSINGS WITH THE RETURN OF THE ARK

[1] LORD, remember David, and all his afflictions (this Psalm contains a Prayer and a Promise and, as always, the Promise exceeds the Prayer in Grace)**:

[2] How he swore unto the LORD, and vowed unto the mighty God of Jacob (the "Vow" that David makes concerns the bringing of the Ark of the Covenant to Jerusalem)**;

[3] Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house, nor go up into my bed;

[4] I will not give sleep to my eyes, or slumber to my eyelids,

[5] Until I find out a place for the LORD, an habitation for the mighty God of Jacob. (It is obvious that David has placed the business of Israel and his own occupation aside, with his total attention being given to the bringing of the Ark to Jerusalem.)

[6] Lo, we heard of it at Ephratah: we found it in the fields of the wood. (If this is to be taken literally, the implications are woeful and give us an indication of the terrible spiritual plight of Israel under Saul. It seems it was little known at this time as to exactly where the Ark of the Covenant actually was.)

[7] We will go into His Tabernacles: we will worship at His footstool. (This is the indication that God has chosen Jerusalem as the appointed place for His Name. This is the first time the Ark will reside in Zion at Jerusalem.)

[8] Arise, O LORD, into Your rest; You, and the Ark of Your strength. (David, no doubt, was referring to the great Prophecy of Moses, as given in

Num. 10:35–36.)

9 Let Your Priests be clothed with Righteousness; and let Your Saints shout for joy. (There can be tremendous religious activity without the presence of the Ark, but there can be no real "joy." Only His Presence provides such.)

10 For Your servant David's sake turn not away the face of Your anointed. (Three men were prominently associated with the Ark of Israel: Eli, the Priest; Samuel, the Prophet; and David, the king. They all sinned and failed, but in Him Whom they typified there is not, nor can there be, sin or failure.)

11 The LORD has sworn in truth unto David; He will not turn from it; Of the fruit of your body will I set upon your throne.

12 If your children will keep My Covenant and My Testimony that I shall teach them, their children shall also sit upon your throne forevermore. (This will be fulfilled in totality in the coming Kingdom Age, and will continue forever.)

13 For the LORD has chosen Zion; He has desired it for His habitation.

14 This is My rest forever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it. (Satan has ever contested this Promise of God concerning Zion and Jerusalem. Presently, the Muslims claim the city for Muhammad. The Jews claim it for the Promises, of which this is but one. While the contest may be fierce, nevertheless, the following Verses will be fulfilled.)

15 I will abundantly bless her provision: I will satisfy her poor with bread. (This is a Promise that the Government of the Lord will prosper. This will take place during the coming Kingdom Age, when Christ rules in Zion.)

16 I will also clothe her Priests with Salvation: and her Saints shall shout aloud for joy. (In Verse Fifteen, we have the Promise of material and financial prosperity concerning the coming days of Jerusalem. In this Verse, we have the Promise of coming Holy Spirit Revival. That which Israel rejected on the Day of Pentecost, they will now accept.)

17 There will I make the horn of David to bud: I have ordained a lamp for My Anointed. (The word "horn" represents power and authority that will be held by Jesus Christ. "My Anointed" refers directly to Christ.)

18 His enemies will I clothe with shame: but upon Himself shall His crown flourish. (We are told here that the prosperity of the Son of David will be forever, and His dominion will be likewise [Dan. 2:35].)

CHAPTER 133

THE AUTHOR IS DAVID: THE JOY OF BROTHERHOOD AND HARMONY

[1] Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! (There are two types of unity: the man-made variety, and that which can only be given by God, which will always have the Cross as its Foundation.)

[2] It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments;

[3] As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life forevermore. (Faith can sing in days of sorrow, "All will be well." Most probably this Psalm was sung by Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem in their day of disunion and distress.

The unity predicted in this Prophecy will be the creation of the Holy Spirit, and yet cannot be effected until the Coming of the Lord.

A lack of unity is because of a lack of fidelity to the Bible. Fidelity to the Bible "commands the Blessing of the Lord.")

CHAPTER 134

DAVID IS PROBABLY THE AUTHOR: AN EXHORTATION TO PRAISE

[1] Behold, bless you the LORD, all ye servants of the LORD, which by night stand in the House of the LORD. (This is the last of the Songs of Degrees or Ascents and is, therefore, a Song of Triumph. It is a scene of Millennial peace and glory, for Christ now reigns in Jerusalem. The Holy Spirit now invites the servants of Jehovah to praise Jehovah in the House of Jehovah.)

[2] Lift up your hands in the Sanctuary, and bless the LORD. (It is difficult for us to imagine at the present time the praise and worship that will characterize Jerusalem in that day, especially at the Temple site [Ezek., Chpts. 40–48].)

[3] The LORD Who made Heaven and Earth bless you out of Zion. (As the first two Verses invited the servants of Jehovah to praise Him, Verse 3 is the response to the invitation. In the Millennial Day, men will bless Him, and He will bless men.)

CHAPTER 135

PROBABLY WRITTEN BY DAVID: PRAISE TO GOD FOR HIS GREATNESS

[1] Praise you the LORD. Praise you the Name of the LORD; praise Him, O you servants of the LORD (the word "praise," in the Hebrew, means "Hallelujah!"; therefore, this Psalm begins with "Hallelujah" and closes with "Hallelujah")**,

[2] You who stand in the House of the LORD, in the courts of the House of our God. (These "courts" are in front of the Temple, and are where the people worship.)

[3] Praise the LORD; for the LORD is good: sing praises unto His Name; for it is pleasant. (Singing praises unto the Lord is one of the highest forms of worship.)

[4] For the LORD has chosen Jacob unto Himself, and Israel for His peculiar treasure. (This Psalm points toward the time that the Messiah will dwell in Jerusalem. The Song will then be sung by redeemed Israel at the Coronation of the Great King in Zion.)

[5] For I know that the LORD is great, and that our Lord is above all gods (that which is inspired by Satan and the depraved figments of men's imagination)**.

[6] Whatsoever the LORD pleased, that did He in Heaven, and in Earth, in the seas, and all deep places. (This Passage extols the Lord as Creator of the heavens and the Earth, and all that is therein.)

[7] He causes the vapours to ascend from the ends of the Earth; He makes lightnings for the rain; He brings the wind out of His treasuries. (The heathen worshipped idols in order to secure good weather for their crops, etc. We are told here that God controls the weather.)

[8] Who smote the first born of Egypt, both of man and beast. (The great deliverance of Israel from Egyptian bondage is ever portrayed by the Holy Spirit as an example of the Power of God.)

[9] Who sent tokens and wonders into the midst of you, O Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants. (In the Eyes of God, Pharaoh is placed no higher than his servants. All answer to God!)

[10] Who smote great nations, and killed mighty kings;

[11] Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan *(these kings and kingdoms were emissaries of Satan, resplendent with his power; they were placed there and energized by Satan for the very purpose of hindering the Children of Israel from taking their inheritance):

[12] And gave their land for an heritage, an heritage unto Israel His People. (Instead of Satan taking that which is rightfully ours, we are intended by the Lord to take from Satan. It can be done if we look to Christ and the Cross, and do so exclusively, which gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work within our lives [Rom. 8:1–2, 11].)

[13] Your Name, O LORD, endures forever; and Your memorial, O LORD, throughout all generations. (Satan does not fear us as personalities; however, he does fear "the Name of the Lord," and greatly so!)

[14] For the LORD will judge His people, and He will repent Himself concerning His servants. (The sense of this Verse is that the Lord will judge the righteous after the Rapture [I Cor. 3:11–15]. This pertains to works and not sins, which were already judged at Calvary.)

[15] The idols of the heathen are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. (The term, "work of men's hands," has to do with all religious work. The meaning of the word "religion," in its strictest spiritual sense, is that it is man-made and not God-made.)

16 They have mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not;

17 They have ears, but they hear not; neither is there any breath in their mouths. (The Word of God has "Life." As well, it has "Light." All which is made by man, irrespective of its religious content, have no "Life" or "Light.")

18 They who make them are like unto them: so is every one who trusts in them. (The worshippers of idols take upon themselves the character of these idols, i.e., "religion." Thus, the followers of the religion of Islam take upon themselves the character of that religion, which is hate and murder.)

19 Bless the LORD, O House of Israel: bless the LORD, O House of Aaron:

20 Bless the LORD, O House of Levi: you who fear the LORD, bless the LORD. (The impotency of idols and of everyone who trusts in them is contrasted with the Almightiness of the Messiah and the happiness of those who trust in Him.)

21 Blessed be the LORD out of Zion, which dwells at Jerusalem. Praise you the LORD. (As stated, this Psalm is prophetic, with its fulfillment pointing toward the coming Kingdom Age.)

CHAPTER 136

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING TO GOD

[1] O give thanks unto the LORD; for He is good: for His Mercy endures forever. (We must never forget that "God is good!" Therefore, He is merciful.)

[2] O give thanks unto the God of gods: for His Mercy endures forever. (The Hebrew for "God of gods" is "Elohim of the Elohim." He is speaking here of the Trinity of which all are equal. In the Trinity, "His Mercy endures forever.")

[3] O give thanks to the Lord of lords: for His Mercy endures forever. (The Hebrew is "Adonim of the Adonim," which means "Sovereign of the sovereigns; Master of the masters; Ruler of the rulers.")

[4] To Him Who Alone does great wonders: for His Mercy endures forever. (God Alone can perform constructive miracles.)

[5] To Him Who by wisdom made the heavens: for His Mercy endures forever. (This ascribes to God all the planetary systems.)

[6] To Him Who stretched out the Earth above the waters: for His Mercy endures forever (who separated the land and the seas; the attention which the Holy Spirit gives to the Mercy of God in all of these Verses is beautifully amazing, and rightly so!)**.

[7] To Him Who made great lights: for His Mercy endures forever (God is "Light," so the creation of Light is a natural result of His Divine Person)**:

[8] The sun to rule by day: for His Mercy endures forever:

[9] The moon and stars to rule by night: for His Mercy endures forever.

(The Holy Spirit is telling us here that all of Creation, and its ordered existence, is a result of the Mercy of God.)

10 To Him Who smote Egypt in their firstborn: for His Mercy endures forever *(this tells us that all Judgments poured out on Egypt were a result of Mercy; the Lord could have smitten Egypt at the beginning; however, He sent Judgments, including the death of the firstborn, all in order to get them to repent, but to no avail):

11 And brought out Israel from among them: for His Mercy endures forever *(to bring Israel out was not only an act of Mercy for Israel, but for Egypt as well):

12 With a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm: for His Mercy endures forever. (The "strong hand" and the "stretched out arm," which God used to deliver Israel, were all because of Mercy.)

13 To Him Who divided the Red Sea into parts: for His Mercy endures forever *(this Passage destroys the myth that the Red Sea, at the place of the crossing, was only a few inches deep):

14 And made Israel to pass through the midst of it: for His Mercy endures forever *(it took Faith for Israel to pass through; they had to believe that God, Who had made this path through the Sea, would, as well, continue to defy the laws of gravity by holding the water up like two walls on either side):

15 But overthrew Pharaoh and his host in the Red Sea: for His Mercy endures forever. (The indication here is that Pharaoh drowned along with his army.)

16 To Him Who led His people through the wilderness: for His Mercy endures forever. (God intended for the stay in the wilderness to be of short duration — a few months to two years at the most. The forty years was because of Israel's unbelief and rebellion.)

17 To Him Who smote great kings: for His Mercy endures forever (this speaks of Pharaoh as well as the kings mentioned in the following Verses):

18 And killed famous kings: for His Mercy endures forever:

19 Sihon king of the Amorites: for His Mercy endures forever:

20 And Og the king of Bashan: for His Mercy endures forever (tradition says that Sihon was the brother of king Og; both were Amorites; they were giants of the race of the Rephaim at the time of the conquest of Palestine):

21 And gave their land for an heritage: for His Mercy endures forever:

22 Even an heritage unto Israel His servant: for His Mercy endures forever. (Og's territory was given to the half-Tribe of Manasseh [Deut. 3:13]. Sihon's territory was given to the Tribes of Reuben and Gad [Num. 32:23–38; Josh. 13:10].)

23 Who remembered us in our low estate: for His Mercy endures forever (God remembers His Mercy and Grace and forgets our sins; man forgets God's Mercy and Grace and remembers our sins):

24 And has redeemed us from our enemies: for His Mercy endures forever. (The word "redeemed" means to rescue and to break the power of the one who has us bound, namely Satan. This Redemption is so powerful that it not only redeems us, but also destroys our enemies.)

25 Who gives food to all flesh: for His Mercy endures forever. (The "food" addressed here pertains not only to spiritual food, but also to natural food.)

26 O give thanks unto the God of Heaven: for His Mercy endures forever. (As "His Mercy endures forever," likewise, our "thanks unto Him" should endure forever.)

CHAPTER 137

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: THE MOURNING OF THE EXILES IN BABYLON

1 By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down, yes, we wept, when we remembered Zion. (The two cities of Jerusalem and Babylon are opposed. The one is God's city; the other, man's. The one figures truth; the other, falsehood. The one represents the Kingdom of Light; the other, that of darkness. These cities exist today as principles.)

2 We hanged our harps upon the willows in the midst thereof. (Captivity to the world paralyzes both hand and tongue so that it is impossible in such an atmosphere to sing the Lord's Song.)

3 For there they who carried us away captive required of us a song; and they who wasted us required of us mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion. (The word "there" emphasizes the hostile environment.)

4 How shall we sing the LORD's song in a strange land? (As well as typifying the historical narrative of an actual event, this Verse also portrays the Christian who has lost his way.)

5 If I forget you, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning. (The harpist is saying that even though he is not playing his harp, he has not forgotten how. As well, even though he is not in Jerusalem, he will not forget her glory and her joys.)

6 If I do not remember you, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy. (The Psalmist realizes what he has lost and what he must regain. He has faith that it will be regained.)

7 Remember, O LORD, the children of Edom in the day of Jerusalem;

who said, Rase it, rase it, even to the foundation thereof. (Inasmuch as Edom rejoiced in the day of Jerusalem's defeat, probably the lament of this Psalm refers to Nebuchadnezzar's destruction of Jerusalem.)

8 O daughter of Babylon, who is to be destroyed; happy shall he be, who rewards you as you have served us. (It seems this Prophecy was given before Babylon was destroyed and promised its destruction.)

9 Happy shall he be, who takes and dashes your little ones against the stones. (The language is figurative. Babylon represents idolatry; her children are the idol images beloved by her. To destroy these is indeed happiness to the servants of Truth.)

CHAPTER 138

THE AUTHOR IS DAVID: I WILL PRAISE YOU WITH MY WHOLE HEART

[1] I will praise You with my whole heart: be fore the gods will I sing praise unto You. (The predictions in Verses 4 through 6 relate to the time when all the kings of the Earth — the gods of this Verse — will become subject to the Words of the Messiah's mouth.)

[2] I will worship toward Your Holy Temple, and praise Your Name for Your lovingkindness and for Your Truth: for You have magnified Your Word above all Your Name. (His Name means His Reputation and Character for faithfulness and goodness. His Word is His Promise. In that future day, His Performance will exceed His Promise, thereby magnifying His Word above all His Name.)

[3] In the day when I cried You answered me, and strengthened me with strength in my soul. (On the Millennial Morn, Israel will proclaim in song that all her expectations founded upon the Promises of God will be surpassed by their performance.)

[4] All the kings of the Earth shall praise You, O LORD, when they hear the Words of Your Mouth.

[5] Yes, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD: for great is the glory of the LORD. (Such praise, which is presently foreign, will, at that time, the Kingdom Age, be common.)

[6] Though the LORD be high, yet has He respect unto the lowly: but the proud He knows afar off. (He, as the Self-humbled One [Phil. 2:8], will be enthroned; the proud one [the Antichrist — Isa. 10:13; Dan. 11:36] will be afar off in the Lake of Fire [Rev. 19:20].)

7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, You will revive me: You shall stretch forth Your Hand against the wrath of my enemies, and Your Right Hand shall save me.

8 The LORD will perfect that which concerns me: your Mercy, O LORD, endures forever: forsake not the works of Your own Hands. (The confidence of the Messiah and His People in the trustworthiness of the Promises of God is expressed in these last two Verses. He and His People are one; hence, He walks with them in the midst of trouble.)

CHAPTER 139

THE AUTHOR IS DAVID: THE PRESENCE AND POWER OF GOD

[1] O Lord, You have searched me, and known me. (There is absolute harmony here between the Incarnate Word of God [the Lord Jesus Christ] and the Written Word of God. This Psalm is, therefore, fittingly placed in this Deuteronomy Book of the Psalms, for it reveals the perfect submission and obedience of Christ's human nature to the Word of God.)

[2] You know my downsitting and my uprising, You understand my thoughts afar off. (God, by searching and trying the heart, finds out such.)

[3] You compass my path and my lying down, and are acquainted with all my ways. (The word "compass" means "scrutinize." Therefore, God scrutinized the path of the Messiah and inspected all His Ways. He found nothing but perfection.)

[4] For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, You know it altogether. (God knew all about the Words of the Messiah, His Ways, and even His Thoughts, while they were being formed. He found all to be perfect [I Pet. 2:22; 3:10].)

[5] You have beset me behind and before, and laid Your Hand upon me. (The words, "to lay," signify to lay protectingly, while "beset" means "to guard.")

[6] Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it. (The sense of this Verse is that the Messiah greatly admired God's infinite Intelligence and Love and rejoiced that it was impossible to get outside of them. He lived and moved and had His being in God.)

[7] Where shall I go from Your Spirit? or where shall I flee from Your Presence? (The Messiah exalted in the knowledge that the greatest distance could not separate Him from God, nor the darkest night hide Him from the Father's loving Eye.)

[8] If I ascend up into Heaven, You are there: if I make my bed in Hell, behold, You are there. (Jesus is now in Heaven by the right hand of the Father [Heb. 1:3]. As well, He went down into the Paradise-side of Hell at the time of His Death, and also preached to the fallen angels held there in prison. There is no record that He went into the burning side of Hell [I Pet. 3:19].)

[9] If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

[10] Even there shall Your Hand lead me, and Your Right Hand shall hold me. (Our Lord became our Substitute in all of these things and, therefore, guaranteed the Father's help to us exactly as it was to Him, for we are joint-heirs with Him [Rom. 8:17].)

[11] If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.

[12] Yes, the darkness hides not from You; but the night shines as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to You. (The meaning of these two Verses is that all is open before God.)

[13] For You have possessed my reins: You have covered me in my mother's womb. (This Passage pertains to the Incarnation of Christ. The words "possess" and "cover" mean here "to collect and to knit together"; "reins" is a comprehensive term embracing the human body both physically and emotionally.)

[14] I will praise You; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are Your Works; and that my soul knows right well. (This Passage certainly refers to every human being; yet it particularly refers to the Messiah. The miraculous nature of His birth and His full testimony to it form the subjects for praise. "Fearfully" signifies "miraculously.")

[15] My substance was not hid from You, when I was made in secret, and

[16] Your eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in Your book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them. (This pertains to the Perfect Body created for the Son of God. The members of that sinless body were not "imperfect" but "unperfect," which means "unformed in fact," but all its parts were inscribed from eternity.)

[17] How precious also are Your thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them! (The Messiah was made of the same material as the First Adam, which emphasizes the fact that His Body was human and not angelic. In fact, His human Body was the supreme Work of God's Own hands [Heb. 10:5].)

[18] If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with You. (This Verse speaks of Christ's Death and Resurrection, and the continual preciousness of the Incarnation, even during those times.)

[19] Surely You will kill the wicked, O God: depart from me therefore, you bloody men.

[20] For they speak against You wickedly, and Your enemies take Your Name in vain. (These Passages speak of the absolute sinless perfection of this human body that was developed by God for the Incarnation and, therefore, for the Redemption of man, by providing a perfect Sacrifice. It was never tainted by sin, not even the slightest!)

[21] Do not I hate them, O LORD, who hate You? and am not I grieved with those who rise up against You?

[22] I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them my enemies. (The "hatred" expressed here is a perfect hatred, not a sinful hatred. This demands a sinless nature, which Christians do not now have.)

[23] Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts:

[24] And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the Way everlasting. (These Passages refer not only to all Believers, but more particularly to the Messiah. The Perfect One was to be searched by God in a manner that no human heart has ever been searched; nothing but perfection was found.)

CHAPTER 140

THE AUTHOR IS DAVID: PRAYER FOR DELIVERANCE FROM ONE'S ENEMIES

[1] Deliver me, O LORD, from the evil man: preserve me from the violent man (the "evil man" and the "violent man" pertain to the Pharisees, Sadducees, and the Herodians, with their snares, nets, and gins, as in Mat., Chpt. 22)**;

[2] Which imagine mischiefs in their heart; continually are they gathered together for war. (The four Gospels record these "mischiefs.")

[3] They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; adders' poison is under their lips. Selah. (It is remarkable that all of these statements pertain to the religious elite of Israel at the time of Christ. In fact, Satan's greatest effort is from within the Church.)

[4] Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked; preserve me from the violent man; who have purposed to overthrow my goings. (Every intention of "these wicked" was to stop the mission of Christ. It is the same presently. The Lord Alone is our help!)

[5] The proud have hid a snare for me, and cords; they have spread a net by the wayside; they have set gins for me. Selah. (The Pharisees and Sadducees and their followers are called "the proud." All religion has pride as its foundation. This pride always produces self-righteousness.)

[6] I said unto the LORD, You are my God: hear the voice of my supplications, O LORD. (The Messiah's defense was His Heavenly Father, as our defense must be our Heavenly Father.)

[7] O GOD the Lord, the strength of my Salvation, You have covered my head in the day of battle. (The Messiah attributed to His Father the Source of all His Strength. As well, during the horror of Calvary, His Head [Headship] was covered and protected by the Father, while the head of the enemy was uncovered and, thereby, bruised [Gen. 3:15].)

[8] Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the wicked: further not his wicked device; lest they exalt themselves. Selah. (While Verses 1 through 5 address themselves to the Pharisees and Sadducees, Verses 8 through 11 pertain to the Antichrist and the False Prophet.)

[9] As for the head of those who compass me about, let the mischief of their own lips cover them. (There is a possibility that David was speaking of Absalom, regarding his rebellion. If so, this Passage was fulfilled. It was also fulfilled in the Pharisees and Sadducees, who persecuted Christ. It will be fulfilled in the Antichrist and the False Prophet at the Second Coming.)

[10] Let burning coals fall upon them: let them be cast into the fire; into deep pits, that they rise not up again. (We are told in this Passage concerning the Antichrist and his followers that "they rise not up again.")

[11] Let not an evil speaker be established in the Earth: evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him. (The "evil speaker" could have referred to Absalom, as well as Judas, and all who oppose the Lord. But more particularly it concerns the Antichrist.)

[12] I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and the right of the poor.

[13] Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto Your Name: the upright shall dwell in Your Presence. (The words, "afflicted," "poor," "righteous," and "upright," all refer to the Messiah. God will maintain no cause except that of the Messiah, so our faith, without fail, must be in Him [Jn. 14:6].)

CHAPTER 141

THE AUTHOR IS DAVID: PRAYER TO BE KEPT FROM SIN AND TEMPTATION

[1] LORD, I cry unto You: make haste unto me; give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto You. (This is a Psalm of David, and yet the voice of the Messiah. The tenor of this Verse tells us that the Father was the Messiah's total dependence. He sought help only from Him.)

[2] Let my prayer be set forth before You as incense; and the lifting up of my hands as the evening Sacrifice. (The "Incense" had to do with the Golden Altar, with it being offered up at least twice a day. The "evening Sacrifice" took place at 3 p.m., the exact time that Jesus died on the Cross.)

[3] Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips. (The Messiah is the only One of Whom it can be said that His Heart was Perfect before God; consequently, everything that came from His Lips was edifying and holy.)

[4] Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to practice wicked works with men who work iniquity: and let me not eat of their dainties. (The separation from evil which characterized Christ when on Earth also characterizes those in whom He dwells.)

[5] Let the Righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness: and let Him reprove me; it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities. ("The Righteous" could only refer to the Heavenly Father. God does not allow fellow Christians to smite each other. Vengeance belongs to Him, and no one else. It is proper for the Lord to chastise us, but not proper for anyone else to do so [Heb. 12:5–11]. If anyone else attempts to chastise a Christian, "calamity" will come upon them.)

6 When their judges are overthrown in stony places, they shall hear my words; for they are sweet. (The words, "in stony places," in the Hebrew, read "the hands of the rock." This refers to Christ. The religious leaders were overthrown by the "Rock," and then the common people heard the "sweet words" of Christ [Jn. 7:46].)

7 Our bones are scattered at the grave's mouth, as when one cuts and cleaves wood upon the Earth. (This Passage shows the hatred of man's heart to the Messiah and His followers.)

8 But my eyes are unto you, O GOD the Lord: in You is my trust; leave not my soul destitute. (Protection from these "judges" [self-righteous Pharisees, Vs. 6] can be given only by God.)

9 Keep me from the snares which they have laid for me, and the gins of the workers of iniquity. (So the "hands of the Rock" of Verse 6 overthrew those who had planned that the hands of the snare should overthrow Him. The Hebrew word used here shows that the Rock is an immovable Rock [Mat. 16:18].)

10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets, while that I withal escape. (The sense of this Verse is that the Pharisees, Sadducees, and the Herodians were caught in their own snares, but the Messiah passed safely through and over them.)

CHAPTER 142

THE AUTHOR IS DAVID: DAVID'S PRAYER IN THE CAVE OF ADULLAM

[1] I cried unto the LORD with my voice; with my voice unto the LORD did I make my supplication. (Even though this Psalm portrays the heart of David, even more so it portrays the Messiah, when He was shut up in the prison-house of Sheol.)

[2] I poured out my complaint before Him; I showed before Him my trouble. (As David poured out his complaints to God and David's Greater Son poured out His to the Father, likewise we are given an example which we are to follow.)

[3] When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then You knew my path. In the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me. (The sense of this Verse is that when the Messiah's Spirit was overwhelmed within Him, then He was supported by the remembrance that God knew His life of sorrow. This implies conscious sinlessness. He invited God to scrutinize His conduct from the cradle to the Cross. It was a life of constant and bitter trial, but it was a sinless life. He was tested daily by snares laid for Him, but He never sinned. Men hated Him, but He was unspeakably precious to God.)

[4] I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man who would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul.

[5] I cried unto You, O LORD: I said, You are my refuge and my portion in the land of the living. (This speaks of the time when Christ went to the Cross. The phrase, "No man cared for my soul," has reference to His dying on the Cross and, thereby, being made a curse by God. In reality, while He was made a curse by God, it was not because of His sin, for He had none, but because of our sin [Gal. 3:13].)

6 Attend unto my cry; for I am brought very low: deliver me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than I. (Shut up in the prison-house of Sheol, into which He descended from Golgotha, He trusts, prays, and believes. He cries for deliverance and predicts the triumph which His Resurrection will bring to the righteous.)

7 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise Your Name: the righteous shall compass me about; for You shall deal bountifully with me. (Here the Messiah prays that He will be delivered out of the death world. He knows that His prayer will be answered and the subsequent joy that His Resurrection will bring to His People.)

DAVID IS THE AUTHOR: A PRAYER IN THE HOUR OF DARKNESS AND DISTRESS

[1] Hear my prayer, O LORD, give ear to my supplications: in Your faithfulness answer me, and in Your righteousness. (While this Psalm speaks of David, in a greater way, it points to the Messiah, Who prays out of the depths and darkness of Sheol. The Holy Spirit allows us, thereby, to see inside this dark moment.)

[2] And enter not into judgment with Your servant: for in Your sight shall no man living be justified. (In this Verse, David and the Greater Son of David declare the Righteousness of God and the unrighteousness of man. As Jehovah's Atoning Servant, He occupies the center of the Verse as the Mediator or the Daysman. The idea is, man cannot justify himself, but God will freely justify man upon believing Faith, which pertains to believing exclusively in Christ.)

[3] For the enemy has persecuted my soul; he has smitten my life down to the ground; he has made me to dwell in darkness, as those who have been long dead. (The "enemy" of both Verses 3 and 4 is death, the last enemy that is to be destroyed. He who has the power of death is Satan. The Messiah's death on the Cross is foretold in these two Verses.)

[4] Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed within me; my heart within me is desolate. (The extremity of horror which Christ suffered in the death world is revealed in the statements that He dwelt in darkness. The very fact of death constituted this horror.)

[5] I remember the days of old; I meditate on all Your Works; I muse on the Work of Your Hands. (The depth of this anguish was deepened by the remembrance of the Glory which He had with the Father before and at Creation.)

6 I stretch forth my hands unto You: my soul thirsts after You, as a thirsty land. Selah. (The language of intense suffering, a full subjection of will, and of confident expectation of the Promised Resurrection are all expressed in Verses 6 through 11.)

7 Hear me speedily, O LORD: my spirit fails: hide not Your face from me, lest I be like unto them who go down into the pit. (In effect, this Verse tells us that Jesus did not go into the burning side of Hell, as some teach. As well, He did not die a lost soul, as some also teach. The Lord does not hear nor answer the prayers of a lost soul in Hell. To be sure, Jehovah heard the prayers of Christ and answered them, even while He was in the death world.)

8 Cause me to hear Your lovingkindness in the morning; for in You do I trust: cause me to know the way wherein I should walk; for I lift up my soul unto You. (He prayed for the Father to raise Him in the morning. And that He did!)

9 Deliver me, O LORD, from my enemies: I flee unto You to hide me. (Now, with the great price of Redemption paid, the Father will answer this prayer and deliver Christ from the enemy of death.)

10 Teach me to do Your will; for You are my God: Your Spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness. (The "land of uprightness" refers to the Resurrection.)

11 Quicken me, O LORD, for Your Name's sake: for Your Righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble. (The words, "quicken me," actually mean "make me alive," which refers to the Resurrection. This prayer was answered, and for "Your Name's sake.")

12 And of Your mercy cut off my enemies, and destroy all them who afflict my soul: for I am Your servant. (The prayer of this Verse has been answered partially; it will be answered totally at the conclusion of the Millennial Reign. Of that one can be sure!)

CHAPTER 144

THE AUTHOR IS DAVID: I WILL SING A NEW SONG

[1] Blessed be the LORD my strength, Who teaches my hands to war, and my fingers to fight (the time of this writing was probably after the putting down of the rebellion of Absalom [II Sam., Chpt. 18].

The two previous Psalms, which preserve the prayer of the Messiah when in the darkness of the grave, are followed in this Psalm by the triumph and sunshine of the Resurrection and Millennial mornings. These glorious mornings are brought together here, as they are in so many Passages in the Bible.

The "fight" we are now to fight is the "good fight of Faith," and that alone [I Tim. 6:12]):

[2] My goodness, and my fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and He in Whom I trust; Who subdues my people under me. (The Lord is all of this to the Believer, and even more. To obtain this help, the Believer must simply place his Faith exclusively in Christ and what Christ has done for us at the Cross, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work in our lives [Rom. 8:1–2, 11].)

[3] LORD, what is man, that You take knowledge of him! or the son of man, that You make account of him!

[4] Man is like to vanity: his days are as a shadow that passes away. (That the Mighty God should so concern Himself with man, who is as a breath and a shadow, as to send His Beloved Son to redeem him, fills the heart with wonder and praise.)

[5] Bow Your heavens, O LORD, and come down: touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.

6 Cast forth lightning, and scatter them: shoot out Your arrows, and destroy them. (David is referring here to the might and majesty of God, relative to His appearance on Mount Sinai [Ex. 19:16–19]. If the Lord could do all of that, then the Lord could deliver him, and so He did!)

7 Send Your Hand from above; rid me, and deliver me out of great waters, from the hand of strange children;

8 Whose mouth speaks vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood. (David was delivered, and the Messiah was delivered. This speaks of David being placed on the throne and Christ being Resurrected.)

9 I will sing a new song unto You, O God: upon a psaltery and an instrument of ten strings will I sing praises unto You.

10 It is He Who gives salvation unto kings: Who delivers David His servant from the hurtful sword. (In all this, David was a Type of the Messiah, Who, having been raised from the dead, promised to sing a new song on mounting His Millennial Throne.)

11 Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children, whose mouth speaks vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood (in both Verses 7 and 11, the word "strange" is derived from a Hebrew root signifying "to know and not to know"; the Messiah's enemies in His First Advent knew Him and yet refused to know Him [Jn. 7:28])**:

12 That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth; that our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace:

13 That our garners may be full, affording all manner of store: that our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our streets:

14 That our oxen may be strong to labour; that there be no breaking in, nor going out; that there be no complaining in our streets. (This prayer has not yet been fulfilled in totality, only in part. It will be fully brought about and fulfilled when Jesus reigns in Jerusalem. This speaks of the Kingdom Age, which is yet to come.)

15 Happy is that people, that is in such a case: yes, happy is that people, whose God is the LORD. (Down through the many, vast centuries, men have longed for David's prayer to be answered. On that glad morning when Jesus comes back, it will then be answered, and happiness will be the order of the day for all people, everywhere, and for all time [Rev., Chpt. 19; Isa. 9:6–7].)

CHAPTER 145

THE AUTHOR IS DAVID: GREAT IS THE LORD, AND GREATLY TO BE PRAISED

[1] I will extol You, my God, O King; and I will bless Your Name forever and ever. (Even though this pertains to David, even more so it pertains to the Greater Son of David, Who will lead this Song on the Millennial Morn, with all enemies defeated, and the great congregation of Israel and the Glorified Saints will respond.)

[2] Every day will I bless You; and I will praise Your Name forever and ever. (Praise to the Lord is the hallmark of every true Believer.)

[3] Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and His greatness is unsearchable. (On that Millennial morn, the world will look out upon a landscape that, for the first time in human history, is bathed in peace. The praise for such will be given to "the Lord.")

[4] One generation shall praise Your works to another, and shall declare Your mighty acts. (In the Kingdom Age to come, the greater topic of conversation will always be "Your works" and "Your mighty acts." Thus, the conversation will not be on sports, entertainment, the stock market, etc.)

[5] I will speak of the glorious honour of Your majesty, and of Your wondrous works. (In these Passages, Christ extols the Father, while the people extol the Messiah.)

[6] And men shall speak of the might of Your terrible acts: and I will declare Your greatness.

[7] They shall abundantly utter the memory of Your great goodness, and shall sing of Your righteousness. (In that day, men will speak of God's great Power, and also of the great Goodness of God.)

[8] The LORD is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy.

[9] The LORD is good to all: and His tender mercies are over all His works. (Verses 8 through 9 are the Song. The Song concerns the character of Jehovah.)

[10] All Your works shall praise You, O LORD; and Your saints shall bless You. (The great price that was paid at Calvary for the Redemption of man is called here "Your works." For that we will ever praise Him.)

[11] They shall speak of the glory of Your Kingdom, and talk of Your power (such will be the topic of all conversation)**;

[12] To make known to the sons of men His mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of His Kingdom. (During the Millennial Reign, the priority of Jehovah will be the evangelization of the world.)

[13] Your Kingdom is an everlasting Kingdom, and Your dominion endures throughout all generations. (This Kingdom proclaims the interpretation by Daniel of the dream which was given much later to Nebuchadnezzar [Dan. 2:44–45].)

[14] The LORD upholds all who fall, and raises up all those who be bowed down. (Because of sin, man has ever been "bowed down." In the coming Kingdom Age, by the Power of God, he will be "raised up.")

[15] The eyes of all wait upon You; and You give them their meat in due season. (The eyes of the whole world in that day will be directed toward the Messiah. Because of this, the Earth will then yield her increase, which will guarantee a world without hunger, want, or poverty.)

[16] You open Your Hand, and satisfy the desire of every living thing. (As Jesus touched the bread and fed the great multitudes and they were all satisfied, He will, likewise, satisfy the righteous hunger of every heart.)

[17] The LORD is righteous in all His Ways, and holy in all His Works. (In that coming day, the entirety of the world will admit that "His Ways" are right and "His Works" are Holy.)

[18] The LORD is near unto all them who call upon Him, to all who call upon Him in truth. (In this Passage, we are told that all of the servants of God may presently foretaste, on a personal basis, in their hearts the sweetness and power of Christ's future perfect Earthly government.)

[19] He will fulfill the desire of them who fear Him: He also will hear their cry, and will save them. (Not only will the Lord do this in the coming Kingdom Age, but also, and as always, He will do so now, that is, if men will only believe Him.)

[20] The LORD preserves all them who love Him: but all the wicked will He destroy. (This tells us that in the end Righteousness will prevail.)

[21] My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD: and let all flesh bless His Holy Name forever and ever. (This was David's commitment; it should be our commitment as well. However, its greater fulfillment will come during the Kingdom Age.)

CHAPTER 146

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: PRAISE TO GOD, MIGHTY CREATOR

[1] Praise you the LORD. Praise the LORD, O my soul. (As the five Books of the Psalms correspond to the five Books of the Pentateuch, so the five closing Hallelujah Psalms also correspond. This Psalm is, therefore, the "Genesis Psalm." It recalls the forming of man and the creation of the worlds.)

[2] While I live will I praise the LORD: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being. (Each Psalm begins and ends in the Hebrew Text with the word, "Hallelujah." They will be sung by the happy subjects of Christ's future Kingdom.)

[3] Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.

[4] His breath goes forth, he returns to his Earth; in that very day his thoughts perish. (The great struggle in the Christian is always concerning the trusting of man or God. These very Verses tell us that modern, humanistic psychology holds no help.)

[5] Happy is he who has the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God. (The singer contrasts man and the Messiah, showing the inability of the one and the sufficiency of The Other as the Saviour. Thus, man: faithless, powerless, and mortal; Messiah: Faithful, All-Powerful, Eternal.

The Old Testament title, "God of Jacob," corresponds to the New Testament title, "God of all Grace." He met Jacob when he deserved nothing and promised him everything.)

[6] Which made Heaven, and Earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keeps truth forever (Verses 6 through 10 contrast what God can do versus what man can do)**:

[7] Which executes judgment for the oppressed: which gives food to the hungry. The LORD looses the prisoners (God uses His Power to lift up man and set him free, while man, if he has any power, generally uses it to enrich himself)**:

[8] The LORD opens the eyes of the blind: the LORD raises them who are bowed down: the LORD loves the righteous (since this Passage is very similar to Verse 14 of the previous Psalm, and inasmuch as David wrote that Psalm, quite possibly he wrote this one, as well)**:

[9] The LORD preserves the strangers; He relieves the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked He turns upside down. (All that is portrayed in these Passages could have been the way of Earth for all these millennia. Instead, man, in his rebellion, has made it mostly a Hell instead of a Heaven. However, the "way of the wicked" is just about over, and then "the Way of the Lord" will be the covering of the entire world.)

[10] The LORD shall reign forever, even your God, O Zion, unto all generations, Praise you the LORD. (This Kingdom that is soon to come will not be the government of man, which comes and goes, but will, in effect, last forever.)

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: GREAT IS OUR GOD

[1] Praise You the LORD: for it is good to sing praises unto our God; for it is pleasant, and praise is comely. (As Psalm 146 was a symbol of the Book of Genesis, likewise, this Psalm is symbolic of the Book of Exodus, which portrays Israel's great Deliverance, and which points to her even greater Deliverance from the Antichrist in the coming Great Tribulation. This is a Millennial Song, which will be sung on that Millennial Morn.)

[2] The LORD does build up Jerusalem: He gathers together the outcasts of Israel. (Israel, for nearly 2,000 years, has lived as "outcasts" all over the world. In the coming Kingdom Age, all of that will change.)

[3] He heals the broken in heart, and binds up their wounds. (When Jesus healed the man born blind [Jn., Chpt. 9], this was a type of Israel in her blindness and Israel which will wash and finally be able to see. Again, this will take place in the coming Kingdom Age.)

[4] He tells the number of the stars; He calls them all by their names. (If we take this literally, and we certainly should, this means that God calls all the stars by name.

In the 1950's, astronomers claimed that there were about 40 sextillion stars in the vast universe, which are suns to other planets. They have presently increased that number, but have left it open-ended. [Forty sextillion is the number 40 followed by twenty-one zeros.] At any rate, God knows the exact number, for He made them [Isa. 45:18].

It is said that there are approximately 500,000 words in Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. If all the names of all the stars were put in books of this size, it would take 80 quadrillion books to list the name of every star. [Eighty quadrillion is the number 80 followed by 15 zeros.])

5 Great is our Lord, and of great power; His understanding is infinite. (Considering Verse 4, the phrase, "Great is our Lord," has to be summed up as a gross understatement.)

6 The LORD lifts up the meek: He casts the wicked down to the ground. (The strict interpretation of this Passage portrays Israel as "the meek." The Antichrist is portrayed as "the wicked.")

7 Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving; sing praise upon the harp unto our God (the Millennial Reign, in which this Song will be sung, will be a time of music)**:

8 Who covers the heaven with clouds, Who prepares rain for the Earth, Who makes grass to grow upon the mountains. (We have here the regulation by God of His Creation.)

9 He gives to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry. (The animal kingdom is portrayed here as not only created by God, but, as well, superintended by God.)

10 He delights not in the strength of the horse: He takes not pleasure in the legs of a man. (The sense of this Passage is that God takes no delight in those things in which man trusts.)

11 The LORD takes pleasure in them who fear Him, in those who hope in His mercy. (If we want to know what pleases God, we find it in this Verse.)

12 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem; praise your God, O Zion. (Now restored Israel can truly praise the Lord.)

13 For He has strengthened the bars of your gates; He has blessed your children within you. (Israel could have had this at the First Advent, but their rejection of Christ destroyed the "bars of their gates." Their acceptance of Christ at the beginning of the Kingdom Age will restore all that has been lost.)

14 He makes peace in your borders, and fills you with the finest of the wheat. (God delights in giving good things to His children.)

15 He sends forth His Commandment upon Earth: His Word runs very swiftly. ("His Commandment" is the Bible. Within its pages is the wisdom of the ages. It alone contains the only Revealed Truth in the world today and, in fact, ever has been.)

16 He gives snow like wool: He scatters the hoarfrost like ashes. (All of this is superintended by God.)

17 He casts forth His ice like morsels: who can stand before His cold? (All of this functions according to God's Word.)

18 He sends out His Word, and melts them: He causes His wind to blow, and the waters flow. (We are told here that everything is held up by the glorious and beauteous Word of God. This means that the world does not have to fear a coming "greenhouse" effect, etc.)

19 He shows His Word unto Jacob, His Statutes and His Judgments unto Israel. (His election of Israel as the depository of His Word and as the channel of its communication to the world moved both Moses and Paul to wonder and worship [Deut. 4:8; Rom. 3:2; 11:33].)

20 He has not dealt so with any nation: and as for His Judgments, they have not known them. Praise You the LORD. (Israel was chosen by God to give the world the Word of God, which they did, and to serve as the womb of the Messiah, which they also did. They were also destined to evangelize the world, which they have not yet done, but will do in the coming Kingdom Age [Isa. 66:19–20].)

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: LET ALL CREATION PRAISE GOD

[1] Praise You the LORD. Praise You the LORD from the heavens: praise Him in the heights. (This is the third of the five Hallelujah Psalms. It corresponds to the Leviticus Book of the Pentateuch, and as such ordains Worship as the subject of that Book. The reach of this worship is vast. It reaches from the depths beneath the Earth [Vs. 7] to the heights above the heavens.)

[2] Praise y ou Him, all His Angels: praise you Him, all His Hosts. (In the coming Kingdom Age, for the first time, the entirety of God's vast creation will praise Him and continue to praise Him.)

[3] Praise you Him, sun and moon: praise Him, all you stars of light.

[4] Praise Him, you heavens of heavens, and you waters that be above the heavens. (All these things praise Him by functioning in the orderly manner in which they were created.)

[5] Let them praise the Name of the LORD: for He commanded, and they were created.

[6] He has also stablished them forever and ever: He has made a decree which shall not pass. (This present Earth little recognizes such. Instead, school children are taught the mindless drivel of evolution as the origin of all things. To the contrary, on the coming Kingdom Day, the entirety of the world will know and understand Who God is, what He has done, and His greatness.)

[7] Praise the LORD from the Earth, you dragons, and all deeps:

[8] Fire, and hail; snow, and vapours; stormy wind fulfilling His Word:

9 Mountains, and all hills; fruitful trees, and all cedars:

10 Beasts, and all cattle; creeping things, and flying fowl (then, and we speak of the coming Kingdom Age, all creation will function exactly as God originally intended, which will be different than the present time, because the Fall has adversely affected everything)**:

11 Kings of the Earth, and all people; princes, and all judges of the Earth:

12 Both young men, and maidens; old men, and children (these two Verses speak of all people, both small and great, praising the Lord)**:

13 Let them praise the Name of the LORD: for His Name alone is excellent; His glory is above the Earth and Heaven.

14 He also exalts the horn of his people, the praise of all His saints; even of the children of Israel, a people near unto Him. Praise you the LORD. (Verse 14 reveals that this Mighty God, Whom both the heavens and the Earth are eternally to adore, is the Messiah, the God of Israel. The heavens are to adore Him because He created them, and He maintains them. At long last, and we speak of the Kingdom Age, the Earth will follow suit.

The phrase, "The Earth and Heaven," is noteworthy. This order is only found here and in Gen. 2:4. It is connected with the Divine title, "Jehovah Elohim" [the Eternal Creator]. This title, as it occurs in Gen. 2:4 and Verse 13 [the LORD], expresses God's relationship as a Redeeming Saviour. The Earth is, therefore, made to precede the heavens.)

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: LET ALL THE SAINTS PRAISE GOD

[1] Praise you the LORD. Sing unto the LORD a new song, and His praise in the congregation of Saints. (This is the fourth Hallelujah Psalm and corresponds to the Book of Numbers. At the close of that Book, Israel stood at the entrance of Canaan, her brows wreathed with the victory over the Moabites and the Amorites. In this Psalm, she stands at the entrance of the Millennial Kingdom, crowned with victory over the Antichrist and the False Prophet.

The "new song" can be entered into, because there has been a "new creation" [II Cor. 5:17].)

[2] Let Israel rejoice in Him Who made him: let the children of Zion be joyful in their King. (The whole of this Passage is a prophetical prayer for God's People and applies to their Restoration and reign with the Messiah.)

[3] Let them praise His Name in the dance: let them sing praises unto Him with the timbrel and harp. (Israel's worship was always demonstrative.)

[4] For the LORD takes pleasure in His People: He will beautify the meek with Salvation. (The last phrase could be translated, "He will adorn the meek with victory." "Meekness" is the criteria, which can only be reached by one's Faith being placed entirely in Christ and the Cross [Mat. 11:28–30].)

[5] Let the Saints be joyful in glory: let them sing aloud upon their beds. (The word "beds," or couches of glory, here refer to "thrones." In one sense, this section [Vss. 5–9] foretells the efficiency, the piety, and the equity of the Government which Israel will exercise over the nations of the Earth.)

6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand (this Government will be efficient because of the two-edged sword; it will be pious, for the high praises of God will be in their mouths; it will be just, for it will exact vengeance; it will be impartial, for it will bind kings; it will be legal, for it will execute the judgment written in the Statute Books of Heaven)**;

7 To execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people;

8 To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron;

9 To execute upon them the judgment written: this honour have all His Saints. Praise You the LORD. (In the coming glorious day of the Millennial Reign, the twelve Apostles will sit upon twelve Thrones judging the twelve Tribes of Israel. As is evident, Israel will sit on thrones judging the nations of the Earth, along with the glorified Saints. In the Millennium, the nations of the Earth will be allocated by God in correspondence with and in relation to the boundaries of the sons of Jacob [Deut. 32:8].

That the Church will reign with Christ is plainly taught in Scripture as well [II Tim. 2:12; Rev. 5:10].)

CHAPTER 150

AUTHOR UNKNOWN: FINAL DOXOLOGY

[1] Praise You the LORD. Praise God in His Sanctuary: praise Him in the firmament of His power. (This is the fifth and, therefore, last Hallelujah Psalm. As well, it should be described as the "Deuteronomy Psalm" of the Deuteronomy Book.

In this glad day of the Kingdom Age, with Christ reigning supreme in Jerusalem, praise will be offered unto God continually all over the world.

The Divine titles in this Psalm are "El" and "Jah." "El" is essentially the Almighty, and "Jah" signifies the Ever-existing One, for example, Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today, and forever.)

[2] Praise Him for His mighty acts: praise Him according to His excellent greatness. (The theme of praise will be twofold: 1. What He does — His mighty Acts and 2. What He is — His excellent Greatness. These express His Glory as Creator, as Redeemer, as the Lamb of God, and as the Son of God. The scene of worship in the Book of Revelation is Heaven; in this Psalm, it is the Earth in unison with Heaven.)

[3] Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet: praise Him with the psaltery and harp.

[4] Praise Him with the timbrel and dance: Praise Him with stringed instruments and organs.

[5] Praise Him upon the loud cymbals: praise Him upon the high sounding cymbals. (These praises portray to us the fact that the worship is not only spontaneous, but orchestrated, exactly as it is now in praise and worship. By and large, the musicians of the world have formerly dedicated their talents to the Evil One. Now these talents will be dedicated exclusively to God's Glory.)

6 Let every thing that has breath praise the LORD. Praise You the LORD. (The very first Psalm calls the Messiah "the Blessed Man." In this last Psalm He is worshipped as "the Blessed God." All of the 148 intervening Psalms sing of the countless perfections of His Nature and of His Actions, as both Son of Man and Son of God.

The cry here is that everything that has breath must praise the Lord. In the coming Kingdom Age, this will be brought about. Men will have nothing but praise for Him.

The Book of Psalms assures this. Its pages are wet with tears, and its music broken with sighs, but its last Song is a burst of satisfied rapture. Its five Volumes fitly close with a loud "Hallelujah!")

CHAPTER 1

TITLE

1 The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel (the Wisdom in this Book is not human sagacity, cleverness, or ability, but the application to the smallest details of human life of the Wisdom that built the heavens and the Earth and maintains them in being)**;

PURPOSE OF THE BOOK

2 To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding (the theme of this Verse is "to know"; that which we are instructed to know could be categorized as "the Bible," which is "Wisdom")**;

3 To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity (the theme of this Verse is "to receive"; therefore, if we "know" the Bible, we will then "receive" its instruction)**;

4 To give subtilty to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion. (If we "know" the Bible and then "receive" its instruction, we will then be able to "give" the benefit of our knowledge to others.)

5 A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels (if we know the Bible, the Holy Spirit then considers us "wise," and we will, thereby, continue to "increase learning" through His wise counsels)**:

6 To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings. (The natural man receives not the things of the Spirit [I Cor. 2:14]. Therefore, we are told in the following Verse how this understanding can come about.)

A WARNING

7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction. (So, the beginning of this God-breathed road is "the fear of the LORD." Men do not fear Him because most do not believe Him.)

8 My son, hear the instruction of your father, and forsake not the law of your mother:

9 For they shall be an ornament of grace unto your head, and chains about your neck. (The Book opens with a double statement that fear of God [Vs. 7] and obedience to parents form the foundation of a just relationship to God and man.

Chains of gold about the neck indicate political dignity; therefore, the sense of the Passage is that rulership of men must be preceded by fidelity to God's Commands, showing consecration of parents to God's Word, and submission by children to Godly parents.)

10 My son, if sinners entice you, consent you not. (This tells us that if parents have not been properly guided by the Word that they may properly instruct their sons and daughters, then the enticement of sinners will be successful in its allurement; this, sadly, is the lot of most.)

11 If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause (Verses 11 through 14 suggest the evil enticement fomented by Satan that lurks in the path of every young man and young lady. To be sure, these enticements are deadly, characterized by the words "blood," "grave," and "the pit"):

12 Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, as those who go down into the pit (as a result of lacking the Wisdom of God, the land is filled with blood, the graves cannot be dug fast enough, and Hell opens her mouth without measure):

13 We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil (Satan lies, and men love to believe his lies; he is the master of deception; there is no precious substance that can be obtained by such measures; and, if there is, it brings no satisfaction)**:

14 Cast in your lot among us; let us all have one purse (this "purse" carries wages of sin, which is death)**:

15 My son, walk not you in the way with them; refrain your foot from their path (the reference is that it is impossible to make the right decision concerning the right path unless the solidity of the Bible is our foundation)**:

16 For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood (the spirit of this Passage ensconces itself in the heart of every Bible rejecter)**.

17 Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird (the argument of this Verse is that as a bird with its eyes open flies into a net spread for its destruction, so evil men rush with their eyes wide open into death)**.

18 And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives (they seek to kill others for ill-gotten gain; in the killing of others, they also kill themselves)**.

19 So are the ways of everyone who is greedy of gain; which takes away the life of the owners thereof (the far greater majority of the world is "greedy of gain," and will do anything up to and including murder to accomplish their purpose)**.

WISDOM SPEAKS

20 Wisdom cries without; she utters her voice in the streets (in Lk. 7:35, the Lord Jesus says, "Wisdom is justified of all her children"; the Wisdom who speaks here to Solomon and to all men invites them to become her sons)**:

21 She cries in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates:

in the city she utters her words, saying (although Righteousness is not nearly as proliferated as evil, still, the crying of Wisdom which God gives is ample enough that it will appeal even to the "simple"), [22] How long, you simple ones, will you love simplicity? and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge? (The terms, "simple," "scorner," and "fool," mark regression. The man who treats Wisdom with good humor and polite inattention presently becomes a mocker and finally a hater.

So it was with the Pharisees and the rulers of the Synagogue. At first, they politely permitted the Lord to read the Scriptures in the Synagogue and to preach; but very soon they began to mock Him; and, finally, they hated and crucified Him.)

[23] Turn you at My reproof: behold, I will pour out My Spirit unto you, I will make known My Words unto you. (Wisdom speaks and pleads with the frivolous, the mockers, and the hostile, promising them that if they would "turn," she would abundantly enrich them with her own spirit and with understanding. But such is conditional upon conversion, and conversion is repugnant to man, because it humbles him.)

[24] Because I have called, and you refused; I have stretched out My hand, and no man regarded (the whole of humanity is set apart in two camps: those who follow God-given Wisdom, i.e., the Bible, and those who reject God-given Wisdom)**;

[25] But you have set at nought all My counsel, and would none of My reproof (the implication is that man willingly and deliberately sets aside "God's counsel"; then the "reproofs" come; they are but signposts directing our attention to the coming catastrophe; most mock and continue on)**:

[26] I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear comes (this Verse does not mean that Wisdom will actually deride her rejecters; it is the language of idiomatic argument; the rejecters laughed and mocked at Wisdom; when, therefore, calamities came upon them, which Wisdom predicted, their laughter and mocking turned upon themselves, and so Wisdom may be justly said to deride their calamity);

[27] When your fear comes as desolation, and your destruction comes as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish comes upon you. (Some may argue that such does not come to all who ignore God; however, they are only looking at the physical and the material. Spiritually, it is definite.)

[28] Then shall they call upon Me, but I will not answer; they shall seek Me early, but they shall not find Me (while it is certainly true that God will hear any and all who earnestly cry out to Him, still, the sense of this Passage is that a late call cannot undo the irreparable harm done in a misspent life):

[29] For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the LORD (there is a "choice" that everyone has to make; those who "choose" the wrong path do so because they "hate knowledge," i.e., "the Bible"):

[30] They would none of My counsel: they despised all My reproof. (The almost identical repetition of this Passage from Verse 25 is not by accident, but by design. If men reject the "counsel" of God and "despise His reproof," then the following Passage must come to pass.)

[31] Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices. (Man's problem is "his own way" and "his own devices." It is either God's Way, which brings life, or our way, which brings death.)

[32] For the turning away of the simple shall kill them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them. (The "simple" turns away from God and is, thereby, destroyed. Likewise, the "prosperity of fools" does not bring the gain that they anticipated in Verse 19, but instead destruction.)

[33] But whoso hearkens unto Me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil. (In this First Chapter of Proverbs, written by Solomon, we are given the blueprint for living: God's Way versus our way. Those who listen to Him shall "dwell safely" and shall have no "fear.")

THE BLESSINGS AND REWARDS OF HEEDING WISDOM

[1] My son, if you will receive My Words, and hide My Commandments with you (God gives His "Words" and "Commandments," but does not force men to receive them)**;

[2] So that you incline your ear unto wisdom, and apply your heart to understanding (the words "incline" and "apply" simply speak of priority)**;

[3] Yes, if you cry after knowledge, and lift up your voice for understanding (this speaks of a conscious unending effort that sets one's heart to earnestly seek for God's "knowledge" and "understanding")**;

[4] If you seek her as silver, and search for her as for hid treasures (the Holy Spirit points to the earnest efforts of men in seeking wealth; if one will do the same in seeking after the things of God, our quest will not be fruitless, as it is for the far greater majority of those who seek for gold)**;

[5] Then shall you understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God. (The "knowledge of God" is the Bible.)

[6] For the LORD gives wisdom: out of His mouth comes knowledge and understanding. (If we do what the Lord has told us to do, He will give what He has promised.)

[7] He lays up sound wisdom for the righteous: He is a buckler to them who walk uprightly. ("Sound wisdom" is from God. All the wisdom of the world is sensual and is, therefore, devilish [James 3:15]. Consequently, it can only destroy.)

[8] He keeps the paths of judgment, and preserves the way of His Saints.

(The added bonus of those who have the Wisdom of God is that God watches over and protects all such Disciples.)

9 Then shall you understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yes, every good path. (Verse 3 in the previous Chapter says that we would "receive" such, with this Passage saying that we would "understand" such.)

10 When wisdom enters into your heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto your soul;

11 Discretion shall preserve you, understanding shall keep you *(how little "discretion" and "understanding" we have today, even in the ranks of the Church):

12 To deliver you from the way of the evil man, from the man who speaks froward things *(the sense of this Passage is that the world is filled with such a vortex of evil that it is impossible not to be sucked into this maelstrom without the "Wisdom" and "Knowledge" that God Alone gives);

13 Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness;

14 Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked;

15 Whose ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths *(actually, this characterizes the entirety of the world — "crooked"; conversely, only that which is of God is "straight"):

16 To deliver you from the strange woman, even from the stranger which flatters with her words;

17 Which forsakes the guide of her youth, and forgets the Covenant of her God.

18 For her house inclines unto death, and her paths unto the dead.

19 None who go unto her return again, neither take they hold of the paths of life. (The Hebrew word for "strange woman" is "zur," which means an apostate or foreign religion. Religious teachers who lead people away from the Scriptures are likened in these Passages to women who are faithless to their husbands.

The words, "strange" and "stranger," are different in the Hebrew Text. The first means "apostate"; the second, "foreign." They suggest that a faithless wife ceases to be of Israel and makes herself an alien.)

20 That you may walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous. (In this Chapter, we have "evil men," "strange women," and now "good men." The choice is ours. What shall it be?)

21 For the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it. (The "upright" and the "perfect" is Christ.)

22 But the wicked shall be cut off from the Earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it. (Both Verses 21 and 22 allude to the coming Kingdom Age, and to every Child of God who can claim by faith the glory and the possession of these glad promises, even now.)

CHAPTER 3

AN EXHORTATION TO OBEDIENCE

1 My son, forget not My Law; but let your heart keep My Commandments:

2 For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to you. (In Chapter 1 we have the foundation laid for true prosperity and life, which is Wisdom. This Wisdom is the Word of God.

Chapter 2 tells us how to receive such.

Chapter 3 now tells us that when prosperity comes, we must not forget from whence it came — "forget not My Law.")

3 Let not mercy and truth forsake you: bind them about your neck; write them upon the table of your heart:

4 So shall you find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man. (The Holy Spirit is informing us here that finding favor with God must come first. If such is done with God, it will automatically come about with man. Too often, religious man seeks to find favor with other religious men. The end result is that favor is ultimately found with neither God nor man.)

5 Trust in the LORD with all your heart; and lean not unto your own understanding.

6 In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths. (Man's problem has always been man's will, whether Christian or otherwise. In these Passages, we are told here that we do not have the self-sufficiency to run this race alone.)

7 Be not wise in your own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil.

8 It shall be health to your navel, and marrow to your bones. (The phrase, "Be not wise in your own eyes," is, as we have mentioned in the previous Passage, the bane, blight, and terminal flaw of man.)

9 Honour the LORD with your substance, and with the firstfruits of all your increase:

10 So shall your barns be filled with plenty, and your presses shall burst out with new wine. (The word "firstfruits" speaks of the tenth, and, therefore, tithing. Tithing is carried over into the New Testament, as well. The Melchizedek Priesthood is eternal and must be supported by the children of Abraham, which include every Believer [Heb. 6:20; 7:1-11].)

11 My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of His correction:

12 For whom the LORD loves He corrects; even as a father the son in whom he delights. (We find from this Text that Wisdom shows her love as much in rebuking as in enriching.)

13 Happy is the man who finds wisdom, and the man who gets understanding. (Happiness and joy are two different things. The first pertains to externals and can, therefore, be enjoyed even by the ungodly. The latter pertains to that which is within, and can only be enjoyed by those who know the Lord and, thereby, have this precious Fruit of the Spirit [Gal. 5:22-23].)

14 For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold. (Precious few, even Christians, understand that knowledge of the Word of God is of more value than even silver and gold.)

15 She is more precious than rubies: and all the things you can desire are not to be compared unto her. (Most, if not all, Christians would agree with this statement, but yet they little believe it in their hearts. If they did, they would devote more attention to this all-important aspect of life — the study of the Word.)

16 Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honour. (The Holy Spirit is telling us here that the very thing we think we must spend all of our time and attention to acquire, namely silver and gold, will, in fact, come to us if we will place the Word of God first!)

17 Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace. (Most everything that one does in life has its negatives; however, the Holy Spirit tells us here that the study and pursuit of the Word of God has no negatives whatsoever.)

18 She is a tree of life to them who lay hold upon her: and happy is everyone who retains her. (The phrase, "tree of life," is interesting. It is spoken of in Gen. 2:9, and portrays man's losing access to it. It is spoken of again in the Book of Revelation [Rev. 2:7; 22:2, 14]; it is there regained. Therefore, between the loss and the restoration, we are given this Promise of access. The key is the Bible.)

19 The LORD by wisdom has founded the Earth; by understanding has He established the heavens.

20 By His knowledge the depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew. (This Wisdom delights to order and prosper the smallest details of a man's private and public life.)

21 My son, let not them depart from your eyes: keep sound wisdom and discretion:

22 So shall they be life unto your soul, and grace to your neck. (In effect, this tells us that what the soul is truly looking for, and that alone which will satisfy, is the Bible. For in the Bible, and in the Bible alone, are found all of these attributes.)

23 Then shall you walk in your way safely, and your foot shall not stumble. (Billions of dollars are spent each year on seminars, convocations, and motivational clinics that try to do what this Passage promises. All fail, because God and His Word Alone give the security that the heart craves.)

[24] When you lie down, you shall not be afraid: yes, you shall lie down, and your sleep shall be sweet. (The safety, security, and well-being that one craves can only be derived by going God's Way. His Way is His Word.)

[25] Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it comes.

[26] For the LORD shall be your confidence, and shall keep your foot from being taken. (The Word of God not only guards from stumbling, but delivers from fear by keeping the soul in fellowship with God.)

TREATMENT OF NEIGHBORS

[27] Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of your hand to do it. (This is the kindness that all Christians should show to other Christians, and even to the wicked, for that matter. It is the Spirit of Christ that should characterize all of the Godly.)

[28] Say not unto your neighbour, Go, and come again, and tomorrow I will give; when you have it by you. (This Passage is very much akin to the Sermon on the Mount [Mat. 5:42].)

[29] Devise not evil against your neighbour, seeing he dwells securely by you. (In essence, the Lord addressed this Text [Mat. 5:44].)

[30] Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done you no harm. (The idea here is "without cause.")

[31] Envy you not the oppressor, and choose none of his ways. (The spirit of "oppression" characterizes the human family. Too often Christians choose the "ways" of the oppressor, thinking to get gain. Wrong choice!)

[32] For the froward is abomination to the LORD: but His secret is with the righteous. (The word "froward" means "perverse" or "one who turns aside." This refers to one who follows his own ways, instead of God's Ways.)

[33] The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked: but He blesses the habitation of the just. (The sense of this Passage is that the "curse of the LORD" is in the house of the wicked the world over, and for all time. As well, a Christian can bring such a curse upon himself by forsaking the True Word of God, and embracing false doctrine [Gal. 1:8-9].)

[34] Surely He scorns the scorners: but He gives grace unto the lowly. (This is another one of the many Passages in the Bible that tell us that God greatly opposes pride, while giving Grace to the humble. He will not give Grace to the proud. Therefore, Paul was numbered, as would be obvious, with the "lowly" [II Cor. 12:9].)

[35] The wise shall inherit glory: but shame shall be the promotion of fools. (The wise shall "inherit," not "merit," glory. Fools, clothed with shame, shall "merit" judgment and go into everlasting contempt [Dan. 12:2].)

A FATHER'S WISDOM AND ADVICE

[1] Hear, you children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding. (We will now learn the source of this great Wisdom, which will prove extremely interesting.)

[2] For I give you good doctrine, forsake you not my law.

[3] For I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother. (Solomon was speaking of his father, David, and his mother, Bath-sheba. He claims to have received the "doctrine" and the "Law" from David; therefore, in these Passages we have the manner in which the Holy Spirit chose regarding Solomon's great Wisdom. Along with what David taught him, which, of course, was generated by the Holy Spirit, likewise, the Lord gave Solomon the great Gift of Wisdom [I Ki. 3:9-15].)

[4] He taught me also, and said unto me, Let your heart retain my words: keep my commandments, and live. (Solomon recalls the countless hours that David painstakingly taught him the Ways of the Lord.)

[5] Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth. (This "Wisdom" consisted of what David taught his son, Solomon, which was derived from the Word of God. At this time, David would have had as his Bible the Pentateuch [Genesis through Deuteronomy], as well as Joshua, Judges, and possibly Ruth. There is every evidence that Solomon was well versed in the great Law of Moses.)

[6] Forsake her not, and she shall preserve you: love her, and she shall keep you. (Solomon would heed these words for the greater part of his life; however, in the latter part of his reign, he would do what David had admonished him not to do, which was to forget and forsake the Ways of the Lord [I Ki. 11:4].)

7 Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all your getting get understanding. (There are six different Hebrew words translated "Wisdom." We have likened "Wisdom" and the "Bible" as one and the same; however, in the strict and narrow interpretation of the word, this would not be totally correct. It would more so apply to the comprehension and understanding of the Bible. Still, without the Bible, there can be no Wisdom.)

8 Exalt her, and she shall promote you: she shall bring you to honour, when you do embrace her.

9 She shall give to your head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory shall she deliver to you. (Without fail, we are told that "Wisdom" [the Bible] will fulfill the cry of the human heart. It is sad when even the Church little exalts the Bible, but, rather, promotes the works of man.)

10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of your life shall be many. (While it is certainly true that things seen with the eye are important, still, the way the Gospel is imparted is by the hearing of the ear [Mat. 11:15].)

11 I have taught you in the way of wisdom; I have led you in right paths. (The "Way of Wisdom" and the "Right Paths" are the Bible. The tragedy is that no one but Christ has ever faithfully walked the "Right Paths.")

12 When you go, your steps shall not be straitened; and when you run, you shall not stumble. (This Verse should read, "When you walk" and "if you run." To walk is obligatory; to run is optional. Wisdom secures both. When walking, the way opens — it is not "straitened"; if running, the feet are guarded from stumbling [Jude, Vs. 24].)

13 Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go: keep her; for she is your life. (This refers to the Truth that the Bible, and the Bible alone, holds the secret of eternal life.)

14 Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men. (The inference is that "the path of the wicked" constantly beckons.)

15 Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away. (The Holy Spirit is emphatic in giving us a fourfold warning.)

16 For they sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall. (We are told here that spiritual vigilance is ever required.)

17 For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence. (Such who follow this path of evil always conclude in "wickedness" and "violence.")

18 But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shines more and more unto the perfect day. (The Word of God alone leads to that "perfect day.")

19 The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble. (The Bible is the only Light [Ps. 119:105]. Everything else is darkness, irrespective of its claims, and induces stumbling.)

20 My son, attend to my words; incline your ear unto my sayings.

21 Let them not depart from your eyes; keep them in the midst of your heart. (We are admonished here to continue to read the Bible and to study it daily. As well, its teachings are to embed themselves into our hearts.)

22 For they are life unto those who find them, and health to all their flesh. (In these Passages, we learn the secret of life. The Word of God is "Life" and "Health.")

23 Keep your heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life. (The "issues of life" speak of the Foundation of the Faith, which is "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" [I Cor. 1:23].)

24 Put away from you a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from

you. (The word "froward" means to be habitually disposed toward disobedience and opposition to the Word of God. The word "perverse" means basically the same. So we are told here not to question the Bible, find fault with it, or oppose it.)

25 Let your eyes look right on, and let your eyelids look straight before you. (Irrespective of the attractions that may try to draw us away, our "eyes" must continue to look to the Word of God.)

26 Ponder the path of your feet, and let all your ways be established.

27 Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove your foot from evil. (The word "ponder" means to "prayerfully weigh," that is, not to enter hastily upon any course of conduct.)

CHAPTER 5

(1000 B.C.)

WARNINGS AGAINST THE PURVEYORS OF FALSE DOCTRINE

[1] My son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow your ear to my understanding:

[2] That you may regard discretion, and that your lips may keep knowledge. (Wisdom and understanding are distinct, one from the other. Understanding is the discrimination which recognizes Wisdom. A child, not having understanding, cannot discriminate between a glass ball and a diamond. So, to discern between the gaudy glass of folly and the simple beauty of Wisdom, understanding is needed.)

[3] For the lips of a strange woman drop as an honeycomb, and her mouth is smoother than oil:

[4] But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two edged sword.

[5] Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on Hell.

[6] Lest you should ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that you can not know them. (Wisdom [the Bible], the true Woman, pictures true Salvation; the strange woman represents false religion. The strange woman [apostasy] is Wisdom's enemy and rival.

The teaching of the inspired Scriptures always has been, and is, unacceptable to man. False teaching [I Jn. 4:5] has been, and is, to him as the droppings of a honeycomb, but the honey is poisoned and ends in death.)

[7] Hear me now therefore, O you children, and depart not from the words of my mouth. (Over and over again, warnings are given concerning departure from the Word of God.)

8 Remove your way far from her, and come not near the door of her house (Israel was forbidden even to look at false worship, and Wisdom warns against approaching idolatry's door; obedience to this injunction will save Christians from being lured into apostasy)**:

9 Lest you give your honour unto others, and your years unto the cruel (the physical suffering which follows upon vice is a fearful picture of the wreckage wrought in the soul by false religion)**:

10 Lest strangers be filled with your wealth; and your labours be in the house of a stranger;

11 And you mourn at the last, when your flesh and your body are consumed (the problem of the Church is the "strange woman," which speaks of false doctrine; as an example, modern psychology is the HIV of the modern Church)**,

12 And say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof (departure from God's Word is quickly followed by enslavement to evil)**;

13 And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined my ear to them who instructed me! (Without fail, the Lord will provide a Godly voice. If we do not hear, we are without excuse [Rom. 1:20].)

14 I was almost in all evil in the midst of the congregation and assembly. (It seems strange that one would lose his way in "the midst of the congregation." And yet, this is Satan's greatest field of endeavor. Sadly, most lose their way in Church because of false doctrine that it taught from behind the pulpit.)

15 Drink waters out of your own cistern, and running waters out of your own well. (The "cistern" here is the Bible. Years later, Jeremiah would refer to this very Passage [Jer. 2:13].)

16 Let your fountains be dispersed abroad, and rivers of waters in the streets. (It is insensible for man to turn from Wisdom to folly; from the Word of God to man-made religions.)

[17] Let them be only your own and not strangers' with you. (The word "strangers" once again refers to false doctrine, false apostles, and idol worship.)

[18] Let your fountain be blessed: and rejoice with the wife of your youth.

[19] Let her be as the loving hind and pleasant roe; let her breasts satisfy you at all times; and be you ravished always with her love. (Solomon is enjoining, as his father David enjoined him, to not forsake Jehovah, Who is responsible for all blessings. Regrettably, Solomon would not heed his own injunction. The God of Glory, Who touched him in his youth, would be forsaken in Solomon's old age.)

[20] And why will you, my son, be ravished with a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger? (The Holy Spirit once again gives warning concerning the "strange woman" [false doctrine, false apostles, and idol worship].)

[21] For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and He ponders all his goings. (A record is kept by the Lord of every sparrow that falls to the ground, and every hair lost from the head of each person [Mat. 10:29-30].)

[22] His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his sins.

[23] He shall die without instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray. (The word "take" in Verse 22 means "entrap." The statement, "cords of his sins," refers to bondage. It is a bondage that man, within himself, cannot break. It can be broken only by the Power of God through the Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ, and our Faith in that Finished Work [Eph. 2:13-18; Gal. 2:20]. The gist of all of this is that religion is the greatest entrapment of all. Deliverance from religion can be effected only by the Power of the Holy Spirit, which functions on the basis of Christ and

His Finished Work of the Cross [Rom. 6:3-5, 14; 8:1-2, 11].)

CHAPTER 6

(1000 B.C.)

ADVICE AGAINST GUARANTEEING A DEBT

[1] My son, if you be surety for your friend, if you have stricken your hand with a stranger,

[2] You are snared with the words of your mouth, you are taken with the words of your mouth. (This Passage pertains to standing good for the debts of another. While it does not absolutely forbid it, it does strongly suggest the wisdom of thinking very carefully before such is done. The word "friend" means a neighbor who is a "stranger.")

[3] Do this now, my son, and deliver yourself, when you are come into the hand of your friend; go, humble yourself, and make sure your friend.

[4] Give not sleep to your eyes, nor slumber to your eyelids.

[5] Deliver yourself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler. (On the surface, this would speak to the entanglement of guaranteeing the debt of others and the freeing of oneself from such as quickly as possible.)

THE ANT AND THE SLUGGARD: LAZINESS CONDEMNED

[6] Go to the ant, you sluggard: consider her ways, and be wise:

[7] Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,

[8] Provides her meat in the summer, and gathers her food in the harvest. (That the Holy Spirit chose the ant as the example portrays the minute detail which God gave to even the most delicate of His glorious Creation.)

9 How long will you sleep, O sluggard? when will you arise out of your sleep?

10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

11 So shall your poverty come as one who travels, and your want as an armed man. (As the Holy Spirit speaks to the lack of diligence concerning the affairs of life, even more so, He speaks to the danger of spiritual lethargy. The balance of the Chapter effectively bears this out.)

12 A naughty person, a wicked man, walks with a froward mouth.

13 He winks with his eyes, he speaks with his feet, he teaches with his fingers (the word "naughty" means "worthless" or "a man of Belial" [Satan]; the word "froward" means "a lying mouth")**;

14 Frowardness is in his heart, he devises mischief continually; he sows discord.

15 Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken without remedy. (This would appear to be the "apostate" [stranger] of Verse 1. As the Holy Spirit divulges the heart of such individuals, He is, at the same time, portraying the heart of those who proclaim false doctrine — anything that turns one away from the Word of God.)

SEVEN SINS OF THE WICKED

16 These six things does the LORD hate: yes, seven are an abomination unto Him (the phrase, "six things, yes, seven," is a figure of speech arresting attention and signifying that the list is not exhaustive)**:

17 A proud look (pride leads the list), a lying tongue (such always follows "a proud look"), and hands that shed innocent blood (this pertains to murderers; however, it also pertains to those who murder someone's character)**,

18 An heart that devises wicked imaginations (the "heart" of the "proud" devises "wicked imaginations" because the heart has not been changed), feet that be swift in running to mischief (as pride is deceptive, this sin is, therefore, cloaked; it actually believes it is doing right)**,

19 A false witness that speaks lies (the difference in the "lying tongue" of Verse 17 and the "false witness" of Verse 19 is that the "lying tongue" will only tell the truth if it suits his advantage; otherwise, he will lie; the "false witness" premeditates lies; he concocts schemes that are made up of lies, in order to carry out a perfidious evil design), and he who sows discord among brethren (individuals who "sow discord" do so for the purpose of carrying out schemes)**.

WARNINGS AGAINST SPIRITUAL ADULTERY

20 My son, keep your father's commandment, and forsake not the law of your mother (religious, rather than moral, evil is warned against in this fourth, and last, section of the Chapter [Vss. 20-35])**:

21 Bind them continually upon your heart, and tie them about your neck. (The Bible governs the heart and adorns the neck. It gives outward beauty of life and inward wealth of principle.)

22 When you go, it shall lead you; when you sleep, it shall keep you; and when you awake, it shall talk with you. (The three Persons of the Trinity appear in this Verse. God the Father guides [Ps. 32:8; Jer. 3:4]. God the Son guards [Ps. 121:4]. God the Holy Spirit teaches [Lk. 12:12; Jn. 14:26].)

23 For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life (this Verse repeats the triplet; the Lamp guides, the Light guards, and reproof teaches; there is no "Lamp" or "Light" in the world other than the Bible)**:

24 To keep you from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman. (There is an attraction to false teaching as is outlined in this Passage.)

25 Lust not after her beauty in your heart; neither let her take you with her eyelids. (False religious teaching always has an amazing attraction. The majority of the world follows this "strange woman," with only a few following the Bible [Mat. 7:14].)

26 For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread: and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life. (As immorality leads to destruction, so does a false way of salvation; hence, the term used is "the precious life.")

27 Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?

28 Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned?

29 So he who goes in to his neighbour's wife; whosoever touches her shall not be innocent. (Once again, the Holy Spirit likens the infidelity of marriage vows being broken to spiritual immorality [Rom. 7:1-4].)

30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry;

31 But if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house. (In Verses 30 through 35, the Holy Spirit presents an argument that is irrefutable.)

32 But whoso commits adultery with a woman lacks understanding: he who does it destroys his own soul. (While this Passage definitely addresses itself to physical adultery, still, the true meaning has to do with spiritual adultery, i.e., "forsaking Christ and the Cross for another way" [Rom., Chpts 1-4].)

33 A wound and dishonour shall he get; and his reproach shall not be wiped away.

34 For jealousy is the rage of a man: therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

35 He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though you give many gifts. (This illustration vividly pictures the spiritual ruin which results from turning away from Christ to "another gospel" [Gal. 1:6; II Cor. 11:4; Rom. 7:1-4].)

CHAPTER 7

THE STRANGE WOMAN

[1] My son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with you. (This Chapter dramatically illustrates the seducing power of false teaching, as is illustrated here by the figure of a treacherous wife, who, in the absence of her husband, allures a youth to do evil.)

[2] Keep my commandments, and live; and my law as the apple of your eye. (The Bible is the Word of God and, therefore, contains the only teaching that leads to life.

The phrase, "the apple of your eye," presents the pupil of the eye, which is very tender and delicate. The implication is that we should treat the Bible as we do this sensitive part of our body.)

[3] Bind them upon your fingers, write them upon the table of your heart. (The implication is that the Bible should be used by all Christians with the same frequency that they use their fingers.)

[4] Say unto wisdom, You are my sister; and call understanding your kinswoman (the terms, "my sister" and "your kinswoman," refer to very close relatives; the implication is that we should treat the Bible as much a part of our family as our own blood relatives)**:

[5] That they may keep you from the strange woman, from the stranger which flatters with her words. ("Strange woman," in the Hebrew, refers to an Israelite woman gone over to the idolatrous impurities of heathen religion. "The stranger" refers to a purely foreign woman, who does not worship Israel's God, and is, in fact, a worshipper of heathenistic idols. Both represent false doctrine.)

6 For at the window of my house I looked through my casement,

7 And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding,

8 Passing through the street near her corner; and he went the way to her house,

9 In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night (the "young man void of understanding" does not refer to one who is young in age, but one who is young in the Word of God)**:

10 And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart. (This "woman" is the "strange woman" or the "stranger" of Verse 5. This young man, having precious little knowledge of the Bible, does not recognize what he sees, which is the case with so many modern Christians.)

11 (She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house ["loud and stubborn" refer to the tenacity and insistence of the peddler of false doctrine]**:

12 Now is she without, now in the streets, and lies in wait at every corner [the sense of this Verse is that there is no place in the world that is safe from this "strange woman," except "the secret place of the Most High," which is Christ and the Cross (Ps. 91:1; I Cor. 1:23)]**.)

13 So she caught him, and kissed him, and with an impudent face said unto him (so many have been "caught" by this "strange woman"; she will treat her devotees very kindly, putting on "an impudent face," which means a friendly, confident, and sincere face; it is appealing, and many fall for it)**,

14 I have peace offerings with me; this day have I payed my vows. (In this Verse is the key to the deception. This "strange woman" mentions "Peace Offerings," but no "Burnt Offerings." The "Burnt Offering" signified Calvary, which alone could guarantee Peace with God. In effect, this "strange woman" claims that she can have Peace with God without Calvary, hence, no mention of a Burnt Offering.

The starting point of all false doctrine is an improper understanding of the Cross.)

15 Therefore came I forth to meet you, diligently to seek your face, and I have found you. (The purveyors of false doctrine, which mean they are false apostles and thereby Satan's ministers [II Cor. 11:12-15], are always diligent to seek out those who are ignorant of the Word of God.)

16 I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt *(to get in "bed" with false apostles is the general idea).

17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon. (The description given here is very similar to that given in Psalms 45:8. The description in Psalms is of Christ; hence, this "strange woman" claims to present Christ. However, it is a Christ without Calvary, which means it is "another Jesus" [II Cor. 11:4].)

18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning: let us solace ourselves with loves. (In these false doctrines, "love" is usually center stage. The word "loves" is also used because it is plural, going in many directions, and seeking many affections. The Love of God is pure and singular.)

19 For the goodman is not at home, he is gone a long journey *(the "goodman" is the same as the Watchman or the Master; he should be "earnestly contending for the Faith" [Jude, Vs. 3], but, in fact, other things demand his attention; how so sadly true of so many modern Preachers):

20 He has taken a bag of money with him, and will come home at the day appointed. (The things of this world demand the time and the attention of the "goodman," and he, therefore, neglects his true calling [II Tim. 2:4].)

21 With her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him. (False doctrine is so subtle. Its appeal is tantalizing, and its power is strong, because it is the power of Satan.)

22 He goes after her straightway, as an ox goes to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks (the statement given here by the Holy Spirit is clear; even though the promises of false doctrine and false apostles are tantalizing, their only conclusion will be "slaughter"; those who follow them become "a fool")**;

23 Till a dart strike through his liver; as a bird hastes to the snare, and knows not that it is for his life. (The analogy is compelling. No matter how wonderful the false doctrine sounds, if it is not "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified," the end result will be death.)

24 Hearken unto me now therefore, O you children, and attend to the words of my mouth. (The implication should be clear. The "children" are those who are true followers of the Lord; irrespective, they are not immune. In fact, they are the very ones whom the "strange woman" seeks after.)

25 Let not your heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths. (The warning is clear!)

26 For she has cast down many wounded: yes, many strong men have been slain by her. (This "strange woman" has been extremely successful in her bid for the souls of men. Many mighty ones have gone down before her wiles.)

27 Her house is the way to Hell, going down to the chambers of death. (There is nothing worse than a false way of salvation. This "strange woman" pictures all such false ways. To make it easy to understand, "false ways" pertain to any way that is not "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" [I Cor. 1:23].)

CHAPTER 8

WISDOM IS PERSONIFIED

1 Does not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice? (The entirety of this Chapter is devoted to "Wisdom," which is the Word of God. So, the True Gospel makes its appeal to men exactly as the false.)

2 She stands in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.

3 She cries at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors. (This emphasizes the truth that the Holy Spirit is seeking at every intersection of life to put forth the Word of God.)

4 Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man. (This means the old and young alike.)

5 O you simple, understand wisdom: and, you fools, be you of an understanding heart. (The implication is that men are "simple" because they do not understand the Bible; they are "fools" simply because they do not have a heart that seeks after the Word of God.)

6 Hear; for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things. (This means that if it's not truly Biblical, then it's not truly right!)

7 For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is an abomination to my lips. (The only revealed Truth in the world is the Bible. It alone sets the standard for morality and righteousness.)

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing froward or perverse in them. (The only "Righteousness" that God will recognize is taught in the Bible.)

9 They are all plain to him who understands, and right to them who find knowledge. (God's Word is plain and clear concerning understanding, to those who truly desire Biblical Knowledge.)

10 Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

11 For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it. (How many Christians place the Bible and the knowledge of it superior to gold and silver?)

12 I wisdom dwell with prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions. (The phrase, "witty inventions," refers to the great questions of life that seem to have no answers, but, in fact, are given to us in the Bible, namely, "Where did man come from?" "Where is man now?" and "Where is man going in the future?")

13 The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate. (The "evil way" is all that is not truly of the Bible.)

14 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding; I have strength. (In this Passage, the Lord is saying that He really doesn't "have" Counsel, but, in fact, He "is" Counsel, etc.)

15 By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.

16 By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the Earth. (The spirit of the world proclaims that only those of simple mind would believe and peruse the Bible. The Holy Spirit here says otherwise.)

17 I love them who love me; and those that seek me early shall find me. (The Lord promises here that if anyone seeks to know and understand His Word, thereby finding Wisdom, He guarantees that it will be found.)

18 Riches and honour are with me; yes, durable riches and righteousness.

(The riches given by the Word of God are durable and do not flee away as gold and silver.)

[19] My fruit is better than gold, yes, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver. (Once again, the Holy Spirit emphasizes the fact that if we place the seeking of silver and gold ahead of the Bible, we have made a very poor choice.)

[20] I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment (the Bible, and the Bible alone, tells us of "the way of righteousness"; it also shows us [and it alone] "the paths of judgment")**:

[21] That I may cause those who love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures. (And so the proclamation is to all that the path to success, honor, durable riches, Righteousness, and judgment is found in the treasure house of the Bible.)

WISDOM IS EVERLASTING

[22] The LORD possessed me in the beginning of His Way, before His Works of old. (This speaks of the beginning of His Creation, which was all carried out by His Word [Heb. 11:3].)

[23] I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the Earth was. (These Passages illustrate the Truth that the Word of God did not come about as a result of God's Creation, but, in fact, is the cause of His Creation.)

[24] When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.

[25] Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth (the Lord, with His Word, brought forth all these things)**:

[26] While as yet He had not made the Earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world. (The "highest part of the dust" refers to "the first particle of matter — the primitive atom.")

27 When He prepared the heavens, I was there: when He set a compass upon the face of the depth (Christ, Who is the Word, Who is Wisdom, was with the Father in preparation of the Creation, and, in fact, created all things [Jn. 1:1-3])**:

28 When He established the clouds above: when He strengthened the fountains of the deep:

29 When He gave to the sea His decree, that the waters should not pass His Commandment: when He appointed the foundations of the Earth (it was all done by the Word of God!)**:

30 Then I was by Him, as one brought up with Him: and I was daily His delight, rejoicing always before Him;

31 Rejoicing in the habitable part of His Earth; and my delights were with the sons of men. (This speaks of Christ, Who is Wisdom, Who is the Word, and Who was with God, i.e., "Him" [Jn. 1:1-3].)

INVITATION TO SEEK WISDOM

32 Now therefore hearken unto me, O you children: for blessed are they who keep my ways. (Man has the choice of his own ways, which really are Satan's ways, or God's Ways. God's Ways are ensconced in His Word.)

33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not. (The wise accept this instruction; the unwise refuse it.)

34 Blessed is the man who hears me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors. (Wisdom will not come uninvited to any man.)

35 For whoso finds me finds life, and shall obtain favour of the LORD. (Any life promised by anything other than what we find in the Bible is a lie.)

36 But he who sins against me wrongs his own soul: all they who hate me love death. (If we sin against the Bible, which is disobeying or ignoring its instructions, we have sinned against our souls.)

CHAPTER 9

(1000 B.C.)

AN INVITATION TO WISDOM'S BANQUET

[1] Wisdom has built her house, she has hewn out her seven pillars ("seven" is God's number of perfection, totality, completion, and universality; it's the same Church for all of mankind):

[2] She has killed her beasts (animal sacrifices before the Cross); she has mingled her wine (joy which comes with Salvation); she has also furnished her table (made provision for all things).

[3] She has sent forth her maidens (the word in the Hebrew refers to both young men and young women sent as missionaries over the world): she cries upon the highest places of the city (uses every means to get out the Gospel),

[4] Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: as for him who wants understanding, she says to him, (Verses 4 through 6 present the invitation of Wisdom to the lost, in comparison to the invitation extended by the "strange woman" of Chapter 7.)

[5] Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled (the "bread" and the "wine" symbolize the broken Body of our Lord, along with His shed Blood [Mat. 26:26-30; I Cor. 10:16-17]).

[6] Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding (the Holy Spirit is telling us to turn a deaf ear to the "strange woman" [false doctrine and false apostles] and go the way of the Bible, which is true understanding).

[7] He who reproves a scorner gets to himself shame: and he who rebukes a wicked man gets himself a blot. (In this Passage, the Preachers of Verse

3 are told of the reception they will receive. Scorners will mock them, and the violent will injure them.)

8 Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate you: rebuke a wise man, and he will love you. (Those who live by ways and means other than the Bible do not know how to take a kind rebuke.)

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning. (We are told in this Passage that irrespective as to how "wise" one may be, the Bible will make him "yet wiser.")

10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding. (Once again, the Holy Spirit tells us that all of our knowledge is futile, unless we have the "fear of the LORD." That is the "beginning of wisdom," and that alone!)

11 For by me your days shall be multiplied, and the years of your life shall be increased. (Length of physical life is not necessarily intended in this Verse, but rather fullness and usefulness of Spiritual Life.)

12 If you be wise, you shall be wise for yourself: but if you scorn, you alone shall bear it. (The idea is that the rejecter of the Gospel Message must personally suffer the consequences of his rejection.)

AVOID FALSE DOCTRINE AT ALL COST

13 A foolish woman is clamorous: she is simple, and knows nothing. (The "foolish woman" is similar to the "strange woman" of 7:5. It is remarkable the number of times the Holy Spirit likens the infidelity of the female gender to spiritual adultery [Rom. 7:1-4].)

14 For she sits at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city,

15 To call passengers who go right on their ways (as the Holy Spirit sends His Messengers and they "cry upon the high places of the city" [preaching the Gospel], likewise, those who peddle their false doctrine also utilize the same "high places"):

[16] Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him who wants understanding, she says to him (the "simple" of Verse 4 are appealed to by the Holy Spirit; they are also appealed to by the "foolish woman"),

[17] Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant. (Wisdom's last cry is, "Forsake the foolish, and live!" [Vs. 6]. The last cry of the "foolish woman" is, "Stolen waters are sweet!")

[18] But he knows not that the dead are there; and that her guests are in the depths of Hell. (The conclusion of all false doctrine propagated by false apostles, of which the "foolish woman" is symbolic, is "spiritual death.")

CHAPTER 10

THE WISE AND THE FOOLISH CONTRASTED

[1] The proverbs of Solomon. A wise son makes a glad father: but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother. (The "wise son" is the one who follows the Word of God, which will make glad his earthly father and his Heavenly Father. Such is contrasted with the "foolish son," who is the opposite.)

[2] Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: but righteousness delivers from death. (There are some who may tend to disagree with this statement; however, the type of "profit" of which the Holy Spirit is speaking is that which is eternal in value and consequence.)

[3] The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but He casts away the substance of the wicked. (This speaks of the Lord taking care of the "righteous" regarding material needs, and serving as a shield regarding Satanic attacks [Gen. 15:1].)

[4] He becomes poor who deals with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent makes rich. (The words, "slack hand," actually mean "deceitful hand.")

[5] He who gathers in summer is a wise son: but he who sleeps in harvest is a son who causes shame. (This Proverb illustrates "diligence.")

[6] Blessings are upon the head of the just: but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

[7] The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot. (The argument of Verses 6 through 7 is that a righteous person is a fount of blessing to society, but an unrighteous person is a source of injury, even though he tries to hide the fact with honeyed words.)

8 The wise in heart will receive commandments: but a prating fool shall fall. (The "wise" are those who follow the Commandments of the Lord.)

9 He who walks uprightly walks surely: but he who perverts his ways shall be known. (Such a person is never afraid of detection, because he never acts in deceit.)

10 He who winks with the eye causes sorrow: but a prating fool shall fall. ("To wink with the eye," in the east as well as other parts of the world, is a method of signaling a bribe to a judge or, in general society, of injuring the character of an acquaintance.)

11 The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but violence covers the mouth of the wicked. (The only "life" in this world is that which is given by Christ. Ideally, the "mouth" of such a one becomes a fount of blessing.)

12 Hatred stirs up strifes: but love covers all sins. (Those who love to stir up the failing of others, while hiding their own, show that their hearts are filled with "hatred.")

13 In the lips of him who has understanding wisdom is found: but a rod is for the back of him who is void of understanding. (Those who understand and believe the Bible become a fount of wisdom; however, for the Believer who strays from the Bible, chastisement from God will be forthcoming [Heb. 12:5-8].)

14 Wise men lay up knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction. (Those who truly know the Bible will not repeat the negative things they hear about others; conversely, the fool repeats them everywhere, and causes strife.)

15 The rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty. (The rich, in order to become richer and to accumulate even more, will oftentimes destroy the poor.)

16 The labour of the righteous tends to life: the fruit of the wicked to sin. (In many and varied ways, the Holy Spirit proclaims the desired direction, which gives life. He also points out the way of the wicked, which brings death.)

17 He is in the way of life who keeps instruction: but he who refuses reproof errs. (The "instruction" that is spoken of here is the Bible, and it points to "the way of life.")

18 He who hides hatred with lying lips, and he who utters a slander, is a fool. ("Hypocrisy" deals with the first part of this Verse, while "gossip" deals with the latter part.)

19 In the multitude of words there wants not sin: but he who refrains his lips is wise. (Those who talk a lot, especially about other people, will usually sin with their tongues.)

20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth. (The "tongue of the just" will be quick to hear and slow to speak.)

21 The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want of wisdom. (The "righteous" bless, while the unrighteous curse.)

22 The blessing of the LORD, it makes rich, and He adds no sorrow with it. (Those who ignore the Word of God may, for a time, be blessed, but the sorrow that comes with it is so expensive that none can afford it.)

23 It is as sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding has wisdom. (The essence of this Proverb is that one who does not know or abide by the Bible will do mischief and cause great harm.)

24 The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him: but the desire of the righteous shall be granted. (Wickedness carries its own "fear," while Righteousness dispels all fear.)

25 As the whirlwind passes, so is the wicked no more: but the righteous is an everlasting foundation. (This Proverb portrays the house built upon the sand, and the house built upon the Rock [Mat. 7:24-27].)

[26] As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to them who send him. (The Holy Spirit labels as "sluggards" all who do not know and abide by the Bible; they will ultimately prove no good to those who employ their services.)

[27] The fear of the LORD prolongs days: but the years of the wicked shall be shortened. (To "fear the LORD" and to serve Him prolong our lives.)

[28] The hope of the righteous shall be gladness: but the expectation of the wicked shall perish. (Outside of Christ, there is no hope!)

[29] The Way of the LORD is strength to the upright: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity. (To follow the "Way of the Lord" is to constantly gain strength.)

[30] The righteous shall never be removed: but the wicked shall not inhabit the Earth. (This points to the coming Kingdom Age [Mat. 5:5].)

[31] The mouth of the just brings forth wisdom: but the froward tongue shall be cut out. (All of the boasts of the "froward" [crooked] tongue will come to naught, irrespective of how strong such presently looks. However, that which is said by "the just" will ultimately be realized.)

[32] The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked speaks frowardness. (The righteous know, because they know what the Bible says; however, the wicked speak crookedly, because they do not know or believe the Bible.)

THE CONTRAST OF THE WISE AND THE FOOLISH

[1] A false balance is abomination to the LORD: but a just weight is His delight. (The tender Love of God for men, and especially for the poor, appears in these Proverbs, for, if they were obeyed, injustice, dishonesty, fraud, and cruelty would cease to exist. Four times it is stated that fraud in business is abominable in God's sight [11:1; 16:11; 20:10, 23].)

[2] When pride comes, then comes shame: but with the lowly is wisdom. (Over and over again, the Holy Spirit portrays humility as the example [Isa. 66:2].)

[3] The integrity of the upright shall guide them: but the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them. (The word "perverseness" means treacherous and unfaithful. The "integrity" addressed here is God's integrity, which is His Word.)

[4] Riches profit not in the day of wrath: but righteousness delivers from death. (Among men, riches can do wonders; with God, they purchase nothing.)

[5] The righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way: but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness. (The word "perfect" here means "blameless." This is the age-old contest between man's righteousness and God's Righteousness.)

[6] The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them: but transgressors shall be taken in their own naughtiness. (There are two types of righteousness: 1. Imputed Righteousness, which comes from the Lord, and is given to Believers upon Faith in Christ and the Cross; and, 2. Self- righteousness, which comes about by works, which God will not recognize.)

7 When a wicked man dies, his expectation shall perish: and the hope of unjust men perishes. (Irrespective of how rich, powerful, strong, or great the wicked are, they will always come to a hopeless end.)

8 The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked comes in his stead. (Daniel and his wicked accusers illustrate this Verse.)

9 An hypocrite with his mouth destroys his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered. (Jesus exposed those who were quick to point out the faults of others while ignoring their own [Mat. 7:1-5] by calling them "hypocrites.")

10 When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices: and when the wicked perish, there is shouting. (Mordecai and Haman illustrate this Verse.)

11 By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted: but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked. (Unfortunately, the "upright" in any city are seldom noticed, but rather are oftentimes opposed and even persecuted. "The wicked" little know that the ones they are persecuting are the reason for their blessing!)

12 He who is void of wisdom despises his neighbour: but a man of understanding holds his peace. (Having to live beside a neighbor constantly, it is best to hold our peace regarding many things of which we might like to speak a word. If a man has "understanding," which comes from the Bible alone, he will use such wisdom.)

13 A talebearer reveals secrets: but he who is of a faithful spirit conceals the matter. (In the Hebrew, the word "talebearer" is "holechrachil," which means "a peddler of scandal." Doeg is a good example of such talebearing [I Sam. 21:7].)

14 Where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counselors there is safety. (The "counsel" addressed here concerns that which comes from the Bible, and the Bible alone.)

15 He who is surety for a stranger shall smart for it: and he who hates suretiship is sure. ("Stranger" signifies "one who has forsaken truth." Such is man. Christ, in His Love for man, became man's surety; as a consequence, He was sorely broken at Calvary.)

16 A gracious woman retains honour: and strong men retain riches. (Two things are addressed in this Proverb — a woman who has grace, and men who have strength. The Lord is the giver of both.)

17 The merciful man does good to his own soul: but he who is cruel troubles his own flesh. (In this one Proverb is found the key to much sickness.)

18 The wicked works a deceitful work: but to him who sows righteousness shall be a sure reward. (Sadly, almost all of the world is made up of "the wicked." Consequently, almost everything in the world that is done should come under the heading of "a deceitful work." That is the reason for most of the sorrow in the world.)

19 As righteousness tends to life: so he who pursues evil pursues it to his own death. (In this Proverb, "life" and "death" are set before us, and the cause for both.)

20 They who are of a froward heart are abomination to the LORD: but such as are upright in their way are His delight. (The word "froward" refers to one who is disobedient and rebellious. This speaks of one who constantly opposes God's Will.)

21 Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered. (There is no way that "the wicked" can avoid the coming punishment, irrespective of their strength or agreements.

The "Righteous" is Christ, while the "seed" refers to those who serve Christ.)

22 As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman who is without discretion. (This refers to a beautiful woman who has no "discretion." Her beauty is wasted, as a "jewel of gold" would be wasted in the nose of a pig.)

23 The desire of the righteous is only good: but the expectation of the wicked is wrath. (The word "desire" is a strong word which characterizes the whole of humanity, whether good or bad.)

24 There is that scatters, and yet increases; and there is that withholds more than is meet, but it tends to poverty. (In the abbreviated meaning, the statement is, "What you give, you gain; what you keep, you lose" [Lk. 6:38; II Cor. 8:15; 9:6; Gal. 6:7-8].)

25 The liberal soul shall be made fat: and he who waters shall be watered also himself. (Who is the "liberal soul"? It is he who "scatters" [gives liberally] into that which is definitely of God, and not "false apostles or deceitful workers.")

26 He who withholds corn, the people shall curse him: but blessing shall be upon the head of him who sells it. (This speaks of trouble and difficulty that comes to a community when individuals take advantage of such by increasing the price of the item that is needed, irrespective of the suffering of the people.)

27 He who diligently seeks good procures favour: but he who seeks mischief, it shall come unto him. (This speaks of seeking the "good" of others.)

28 He who trusts in his riches shall fall: but the righteous shall flourish as a branch. (Those who trust in God are described as a beautiful branch which continues to grow into a full flower.)

29 He who troubles his own house shall inherit the wind: and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart. (This speaks of those who ignore these Proverbs and travel in directions of their own making. They shall "inherit the wind.")

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he who wins souls is wise. (He who tells others about Christ is, in effect, presenting to them "a tree of life.")

31 Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the Earth: much more the wicked and the sinner. (This simply means that all will reap what they sow.)

CHAPTER 12

FOOLISH AND WISE CONTRASTED

[1] Whoso loves instruction loves knowledge: but he who hates reproof is brutish. (The Bible gives instruction which generates knowledge. This has to do with the true knowledge of life. Much knowledge is generated in other capacities, and may or may not be true; however, the knowledge that pertains to life is found only in the Bible.)

[2] A good man obtains favour of the LORD: but a man of wicked devices will He condemn. ("Favor of the LORD" is the highest attainment of any seeker. It is stated that only a "good man" can secure such; however, the "goodness" is only that which God gives. There is a "goodness" devised by the world, and even at times by the Church, that God will neither accept nor recognize. He will accept only that which comes from Himself.)

[3] A man shall not be established by wickedness: but the root of the righteous shall not be moved. (Irrespective of money, power, or position, a man who has built such by "wickedness" will know no lasting security.)

[4] A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she who makes ashamed is as rottenness in his bones. (Ruth is an excellent example of "a virtuous woman" [Ruth 3:11].)

[5] The thoughts of the righteous are right: but the counsels of the wicked are deceit. (So much is said here in such a short Verse. The troubles of the entirety of the world are wrapped up in this Proverb. Regrettably, there are precious few who are "righteous," with many who are "wicked." Consequently, "deceit" characterizes the dealings of man.)

[6] The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them. (Upright men benefit society, but evil men destroy a nation.)

7 The wicked are overthrown, and are not: but the house of the righteous shall stand. (The "house of the righteous" refers to that which is built upon the Rock, Who is the Lord Jesus Christ [Mat. 7:24].)

8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom: but he who is of a perverse heart shall be despised. (To get "His Wisdom," we must learn "His Word.")

9 He who is despised, and has a servant, is better than he who honours himself, and lacks bread. (The one "despised" in this Verse is different than the one "despised" in Verse 8. The one in Verse 8 is "despised" by God. In this Verse, he is commended by God. God despises those who do not adhere to His Word, and the world despises those who do.)

10 A righteous man regards the life of his beast: but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel. (The Holy Spirit regards animals and contends that "a righteous man" will have mercy.)

11 He who tills his land shall be satisfied with bread: but he who follows vain persons is void of understanding. (The Bible extols the value of honest labor. Absence of the Bible promotes vanity and lack of understanding.)

12 The wicked desire the net of evil men: but the root of the righteous yields fruit. ("The net of evil men" denotes what is caught in it. Consequently, hundreds of thousands, or even millions, of young people desire what is caught in the net of the drug pushers or of Hollywood. They envy these supposed high dividends and desire the same. However, the fruit that is produced comes from a "corrupt tree" and produces "evil fruit" [Mat. 7:17].

The good tree, which is "the righteous" yields "good fruit.")

13 The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips: but the just shall come out of trouble. (God does not promise an absence of trouble for those who follow the teachings of the Bible; however, He does promise that "the just" shall be delivered out of the trouble.)

14 A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth: and the recompence of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him. (The "man" addressed here is "the just" of Verse 13. The "fruit of his mouth" will be "good" because it comes from "Wisdom," which is the Bible [Vs. 8].)

15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he who hearkens unto counsel is wise.

16 A fool's wrath is presently known: but a prudent man covers shame. (The "fool" is the one who does not believe the Bible. He trusts his own "way." God calls him "a fool."

The Sixteenth Verse means that a fool will make his wrath known at once when he is offended, but a wise man will hold his peace.)

17 He who speaks truth shows forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit. (The only "truth" that can be addressed is that which is of Christ. He Alone "shows forth righteousness." All else is a "false witness" and spawns "deceit.")

18 There is that speaks like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health. (Thank God for the few Preachers who have "the tongue of the wise," which is the Bible, which gives Spiritual "health.")

19 The lip of truth shall be established forever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment. (Those who forsake the Bible have a "lying tongue." What they say only lasts for a moment, because it changes with the telling.)

20 Deceit is in the heart of them who imagine evil: but to the counselors of peace is joy. (Deception is Satan's greatest weapon, and his children "imagine evil" because "deceit is in their hearts.")

21 There shall no evil happen to the just: but the wicked shall be filled with mischief. (This means that no "evil" can come from the "Wisdom" of the Bible. There is no fear of such in its "counsel.")

22 Lying lips are abomination to the LORD: but they who deal truly are

His delight. (It is impossible to "deal truly" and, thereby, be a "delight" to the Lord without abiding by the Bible. Anything other than the Bible results in "lying lips" and is an "abomination to the LORD.")

[23] A prudent man conceals knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaims foolishness. (The "prudent man conceals knowledge" because the world is little interested in his "knowledge," because his "knowledge" comes from the Bible; consequently, the world feeds on "foolishness.")

[24] The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be under tribute. (Those who adhere to the work ethic of the Bible will prosper. Those who do not adhere to the work ethic of the Bible will find themselves in debt.)

[25] Heaviness in the heart of man makes it stoop: but a good word makes it glad. (The "good word" that is truly spoken of here is the Word of God. Only it can truly make the heart "glad.")

[26] The righteous is more excellent than his neighbour: but the way of the wicked seduces them. ("The righteous," who comes from Christ, blesses his neighbor, while "the wicked" seduces his neighbor.)

[27] The slothful man roasts not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious. ("The slothful man," who attempts to make his living by devious means, contributes nothing to the community. Conversely, the "diligent man" provides substance, which is "precious" for the community.)

[28] In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death. (The "Way of Righteousness" is the "Way of the Bible." It alone brings "life," which stems from Christ.)

PROVERBS OF TEMPORAL AND ETERNAL GOOD

[1] A wise son hears his father's instruction: but a scorner hears not rebuke. (The surface meaning of this Passage is obvious; constructive criticism by the wise is needed. Those who are not wise scorn the rebuke and continue on in their erroneous way.)

[2] A man shall eat good by the fruit of his mouth: but the soul of the transgressors shall eat violence.

[3] He who keeps his mouth keeps his life: but he who opens wide his lips shall have destruction. (In the spiritual sense, the "fruit of our mouth" should be the Word of God.)

[4] The soul of the sluggard desires, and has nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat. (This Passage proclaims the blessing of the work ethic and the poverty of the lazy.)

[5] A righteous man hates lying: but a wicked man is loathsome, and comes to shame. (The entirety of the world's system, which is Godless, is based on "lying," hence, all the problems.)

[6] Righteousness keeps him who is upright in the way: but wickedness overthrows the sinner. (The obvious sense is that "wickedness" will ultimately bring the "sinner" to ruin, and that "Righteousness," which can only be supplied by Christ and is freely imputed by Him, will guarantee success.)

[7] There is that makes himself rich, yet has nothing: there is that makes himself poor, yet has great riches. (This speaks of those who have much money, but yet they are poor, simply because they are selfish and give no help to anyone.

Then there are those who use what comes into their hands as a blessing to others. In the things that really count, they have "great riches.")

8 The ransom of a man's life are his riches: but the poor hears not rebuke. (The sense of this Passage is that the hoarding of wealth makes a man's life his "ransom." In other words, because of his riches, he is a target in many respects.)

9 The light of the righteous rejoices: but the lamp of the wicked shall be put out. (The "light" of "the righteous" is the "light" that comes from the Bible. It is the "light" that Christ produces in the lives of His followers. Such brings rejoicing.)

10 Only by pride comes contention: but with the well advised is wisdom. ("Pride" is the foundation sin of all sin [6:16-17]. It stems from Satan, as humility stems from Christ. "Pride" breeds "contention," because it is ever seeking its own. Humility, which can only be given by Christ, generates "wisdom." The Holy Spirit calls such "well advised.")

11 Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished: but he who gathers by labour shall increase. (The sense of the Passage is that "wealth" gathered by labor benefits society, but "wealth" obtained by gambling, crime, or any other means is "a vanity." It is useless to the well-being of the community.)

12 Hope deferred makes the heart sick: but when the desire comes, it is a tree of life. (All "hope" outside of Christ is never realized. All "hope" in Christ is ever realized.)

13 Whoso despises the Word shall be destroyed: but he who fears the Commandment shall be rewarded. (The "Word of God" is the only answer for the ills of man. As well, one can only know the Word if one also knows its Author.)

14 The law of the wise is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death. (The "wise" to whom the Holy Spirit refers are those who adhere to the Word of God. God has ordained it a "Law" that such will be "a fountain of life." Everything outside of the Bible is "a snare of death.")

15 Good understanding gives favour: but the way of transgressors is hard. (Those who transgress the Word of God will find their way "hard.")

16 Every prudent man deals with knowledge: but a fool lays open his folly. (The spiritual sense of this Proverb is that all true "knowledge" comes from the Bible, and the man who seeks this "knowledge" is "prudent" [wise].)

17 A wicked messenger falls into mischief: but a faithful ambassador is health. (If an "ambassador" is "faithful" to the Bible, he will bring messages of "health"; if not, then "mischief.")

18 Poverty and shame shall be to him who refuses instruction: but he who regards reproof shall be honoured. (If the individual faithfully follows the instruction given by the Word of God, he will, at the same time, highly regard the "reproof" of those who try to instruct him for the better.)

19 The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul: but it is abomination to fools to depart from evil. (To obtain what is really desirable demands self-denial. But it is most distasteful to a fool to obtain anything worthful by the surrender of worthless and injurious pleasures.)

20 He who walks with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed. (Every Christian should diligently search for the Preacher who preaches the whole Counsel of God. If he does otherwise, he is associating with "fools" and will come to destruction.)

21 Evil pursues sinners: but to the righteous good shall be repayed. (God's Law is that if a person wills evil, God wills evil unto him. If he wills "good," the Lord also wills "good" to him [Gal. 6:7].)

22 A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children: and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just. (The term "laid up," as it pertains to the "wealth of the sinner," refers to the coming Kingdom Age, when the meek will inherit the Earth [Mat. 5:5].)

[23] Much food is in the tillage of the poor: but there is that is destroyed for want of judgment. (The sense of this Proverb is that "the poor" are in their state partly because of bad management. They have very little foresight. When they get something, they quickly spend it and very seldom endeavor to plan ahead.)

[24] He who spares his rod hates his son: but he who loves him chastens him betimes. (Hatred spares the rod; love uses it.)

[25] The righteous eats to the satisfying of his soul: but the belly of the wicked shall want. (This, as well, constitutes a Law of God: "the righteous" are content with moderate desires and pleased with their lot in life. Conversely, "the wicked," regardless of how much they have, are never satisfied.)

CHAPTER 14

THE RIGHTEOUS AND THE WICKED CONTRASTED

[1] Every wise woman builds her house: but the foolish plucks it down with her hands. (Over and over again, the Holy Spirit alludes to the "woman," whether "strange," "evil," "foolish," "gracious," or "virtuous." In this Verse, He speaks of both the "wise" and "foolish" woman in the building of their "house.")

[2] He who walks in his uprightness fears the LORD: but he who is perverse in his ways despises Him. (Once again, our attention is called to the "fear of the LORD" or the lack of such. We learn from this and many other similar Scriptures that the Holy Spirit puts great stock in the "fear of the LORD.")

[3] In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them. ("Pride" is the foundation of all sin. It produces the fountainhead of sin, which is unbelief. Those who speak in a prideful way are called "foolish" by the Holy Spirit. The conversation of the "wise" is of humility and, thereby, preserves them.)

[4] Where no oxen are, the crib is clean: but much increase is by the strength of the ox. (The sense of the Passage is that "you can't make an omelet without breaking some eggs." As long as there is activity, there's going to be some untidiness, but there will also be increase.)

[5] A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies. (Men are not liars because they lie; they lie because they are liars.)

[6] A scorner seeks wisdom, and finds it not: but knowledge is easy unto him who understands. (The scornful Pharisee professed to seek wisdom and found nothing; to the understanding Ethiopian, knowledge was easy [Acts, Chpt. 8]. Jesus is Wisdom. He was a stumbling-stone to the Pharisee, but a stepping-stone to the Ethiopian.)

7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when you perceive not in him the lips of knowledge. (This is the Law of Separation [II Cor. 6:14-18]. The only "lips of knowledge" are those that know the Word of God.)

8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit. (The only way that one can "understand his way" is to know the Bible. Such is spoken of by the Holy Spirit as "wise and prudent.")

9 Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour. (Fools mock the Sin Offering [the Atonement], but among the righteous it is prized.)

10 The heart knows his own bitterness; and a stranger does not intermeddle with his joy. (The "heart" that is spoken of here is the "heart" of a Christian. One who is a "stranger" to God and His Ways has no knowledge of the burden that is carried or the "joy" that resides in the heart of a true Christian.)

11 The house of the wicked shall be overthrown: but the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish. (The "upright" is a pilgrim, and as such has no "house," but rather a tent. This world is not his home, and he is seeking a city whose Builder and Maker is God. To the unspiritual eye, such looks not at all stable. But the Holy Spirit says the opposite.)

12 There is a way which seems right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death. (Salvation by sacraments and personal merit [in other words, any way other than the Cross] is to most men an acceptable way to eternal life, but, in reality, it leads to death. The right way is "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified," and that alone [I Cor. 1:23].)

13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful; and the end of that mirth is heaviness. (A false way of salvation, of which many abound, may bring momentary surface "laughter." But it will not and, in fact, cannot satisfy the hunger and craving of the human heart. When it's all over, the "heart" is "sorrowful" and "heavy.")

14 The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself. (This speaks of the fact that the "backslider" does so "in heart" before it becomes outwardly observable.)

15 The simple believe every word: but the prudent man looks well to his going. (Two individuals are placed before us; "the simple" and "the prudent." Irrespective of their education, God calls "simple" those who "believe every word" except the Bible. The Holy Spirit calls "prudent" the one who "looks well to his going," which refers to searching out the Bible for its direction.)

16 A wise man fears, and departs from evil: but the fool rages, and is confident. (The "wise man" believes the Bible, fears God, and "departs from evil.")

17 He who is soon angry deals foolishly: and a man of wicked devices is hated. (The quickly-angered will always deal foolishly. As well, the cool-tempered intriguer is the opposite of the above, but his coolness under pressure does not denote piety, but rather a scheming for personal gain.

Both the quick-tempered and the intriguer are led by their own impulses and not by God. Both will lead to wrong paths.)

18 The simple inherit folly: but the prudent are crowned with knowledge. (To the unspiritual ear, Verse 18 seems to be but a repetition of Verse 15; however, the Holy Spirit, from many directions, attempts to get us to understand that He calls those who do not believe the Bible "the simple," irrespective of their otherwise so-called education.)

19 The evil bow before the good; and the wicked at the gates of the righteous. (Good will ultimately triumph, even though at present it seems impossible.)

20 The poor is hated even of his own neighbour: but the rich has many friends. (Consequently, Jesus was despised and hated [Isa., Chpt. 53].)

21 He who despises his neighbour sins: but he who has mercy on the poor, happy is he. (In this Proverb, the Lord tells us that He will look after the "poor" who trust in Him.)

22 Do they not err who devise evil? but mercy and truth shall be to them who devise good. (Concerning the affairs of life, all that is devised outside of the Bible is "evil." All the truly "good" that is devised comes from the Bible, and will give "Mercy and Truth.")

23 In all labour there is profit: but the talk of the lips tends only to penury. (There are many who talk much, but do nothing. Those who truly "labor" will know "profit" [Mat. 6:7].)

24 The crown of the wise is their riches: but the foolishness of fools is folly. (Riches do not make a fool cease his foolishness; even though he is rich, he is still a "fool.")

25 A true witness delivers souls: but a deceitful witness speaks lies. (A Preacher of the True Gospel of Jesus Christ is a true witness and greatly helps men; the Preacher of "modern thought" and "another gospel" propagates falsehood and, thereby, leads men to destruction [II Cor. 11:4].)

26 In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence: and his children shall have a place of refuge. (Once again, the Holy Spirit points to the "fear of the LORD." Such is the foundation of true Righteousness.)

27 The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death. (To escape eternal death and be united to life, there is one sure and only way; it is to fear Jehovah. That means to love, serve, and follow the Lord Jesus Christ [Lk. 9:23-24].)

28 In the multitude of people is the king's honour: but in the want of people is the destruction of the prince. (At the present, "the King" [the Lord Jesus Christ] does not have "the multitude" on His Side. In the coming glad day of the Kingdom Age, this will change, and all will serve Him.)

29 He who is slow to wrath is of great understanding: but he who is hasty of spirit exalts folly. (The quick-tempered are that way for a reason: such shows pride and, thereby, a lack of trust in God. The one who is "slow to wrath" and is, thereby, "of great understanding" shows that his dependence is in the Lord and not in himself.)

30 A sound heart is the life of the flesh: but envy the rottenness of the bones. (In this Proverb, the Holy Spirit is portraying to us the secret of good health. A "sound heart" is the heart that is right with God. No envy, jealousy, pride, malice, greed, or hatred abides there. If such abides, we are told it will "rot the bones.")

31 He who oppresses the poor reproaches his Maker: but he who honours Him has mercy on the poor. (Most of the world oppress the poor and thereby reproach God, because God made all men, whether they be rich or poor. Then the Holy Spirit plainly tells us that if we honor God, we will have "mercy on the poor.")

32 The wicked is driven away in his wickedness: but the righteous has hope in his death. (Belshazzar illustrates the first line of this Verse; the Apostle Paul, the second line.)

33 Wisdom rests in the heart of him who has understanding: but that which is in the midst of fools is made known. (The sense of this Proverb is that a wise man does not display his wisdom, but a fool parades all he knows.)

34 Righteousness exalts a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people. (This holds true for any nation. "Much Bible, much freedom; little Bible, little freedom; no Bible, no freedom.")

35 The king's favour is toward a wise servant: but his wrath is against him who causes shame. (The "wise servant" will know his Bible, and consequently "has understanding.")

CHAPTER 15

THE USE OF THE TONGUE

[1] A soft answer turns away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger. (Even one grievous word stirs up anger. Any discussion that becomes heated automatically becomes an uncontrolled discussion, which will only lead to more "wrath."

Self is the cause of heated exchanges. Only when self is properly hidden in Christ is the "soft answer" possible [Gal. 2:20].)

[2] The tongue of the wise uses knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools pours out foolishness. (The "wise" are those who know their Bibles. "Fools" are those who do not know their Bibles. The first "uses knowledge aright," while the latter "pours out foolishness.")

[3] The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good. (This Proverb portrays the Omnipresence of God, meaning that He is everywhere. Such constant observation is terribly unsettling to the unspiritual heart, but, to those who know and love their Redeemer, such knowledge is invigorating to the spirit and comforting to the soul.)

[4] A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit. (The gist of the Proverb is that the Christ-controlled life is "a tree of life," while the life that is not controlled by Christ is "perverse" and becomes a broken tree [Gal. 2:20].)

[5] A fool despises his father's instruction: but he who regards reproof is prudent. (The unteachable spirit is one where self rules, and Christ does not rule.)

CONTRASTS BETWEEN THE RIGHTEOUS AND THE WICKED

6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble. ("Much treasure" is the unsearchable riches of Christ.)

7 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish does not so. (In many and varied ways, the Holy Spirit constantly calls attention to "the wise," whose "knowledge" is from the Bible; conversely, He calls "fools" those who do not adhere to the Word of God.)

8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD: but the prayer of the upright is His delight.

9 The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the LORD: but He loves him who follows after righteousness.

10 Correction is grievous unto him who forsakes the way: and he who hates reproof shall die. (The worship of the self-willed [Vs. 8] and the way [the conduct] of the self-willed [Vs. 9] are both abominable. Such was Cain's worship and conduct. Abel illustrates the prayer of the upright and God's Way of Righteousness.)

11 Hell and destruction are before the LORD: how much more then the hearts of the children of men? (This Proverb, like Verse 3, proclaims all open to the Lord, as well as the unseen world. Also, only God knows the hearts of men!)

12 A scorner loves not one who reproves him: neither will he go unto the wise. (The "scorner" holds the "wise" in disdain, because he feels his way is right and, therefore, does not need correction or reproof. Such an intractable spirit will not abide by the Bible.)

13 A merry heart makes a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken. (The true "merry heart" can only come about by Christ abiding in the heart and having complete control. Then the "heart" is not moved by good or bad news, but its joy is in the Lord.)

14 The heart of him who has understanding seeks knowledge: but the mouth of fools feeds on foolishness. (The Holy Spirit, once again, calls our attention to the fact that the Bible is the fountainhead of knowledge, and we speak of the way that life should be lived.)

15 All the days of the afflicted are evil: but he who is of a merry heart has a continual feast. (The "merry heart" has to do with total occupation by Christ.)

16 Better is little with the fear of the LORD than great treasure and trouble therewith. (Christ is a Substitute for every good thing; nothing is a substitute for Him.)

17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith. (Better is a poor man's dinner where love is than a rich man's feast where hatred and strife are.)

18 A wrathful man stirs up strife: but he who is slow to anger appeases strife. (Anger only stirs up more anger; he who shows coolness under fire calms the strife.)

19 The way of the slothful man is as an hedge of thorns: but the way of the righteous is made plain. (The knowledge of the Word of God alone, and it applied to our hearts and lives, can keep us from the unnecessary thorns.)

20 A wise son makes a glad father: but a foolish man despises his mother. (A wise son honors his parents, but a foolish one despises them.)

21 Folly is joy to him who is destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding walks uprightly. ("Understanding" is joy to the upright, while "folly" is joy to the fool.)

22 Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counselors they are established. (The "multitude of counselors" are the Books of the Bible.)

23 A man has joy by the answer of his mouth: and a word spoken in due season, how good is it! (The only safe "word" is the "Word of God." It is good in any "season." It always brings "joy." It should always be the "answer of the mouth.")

24 The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from Hell beneath. (Only this "way of life," which is Christ and Him Crucified, will spare one from "Hell beneath.")

25 The LORD will destroy the house of the proud: but He will establish the border of the widow. (The "widow" is used as symbolism for the humbled and abased. God will exalt humility and abase pride [Lk. 18:14].)

26 The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD: but the words of the pure are pleasant words. ("Pleasant words" come from the Bible. They are sure to be "pure." The Blood of Jesus, along with the Word of God, bring purity, and that alone.)

27 He who is greedy of gain troubles his own house; but he who hates gifts shall live. (The love of money is the root of all evil. This means that the present-day greed message "troubles" God's House.)

28 The heart of the righteous studies to answer: but the mouth of the wicked pours out evil things. ("The righteous" studies his heart to know what the Bible says about any particular question.)

29 The LORD is far from the wicked: but He hears the prayer of the righteous. (To those who have the imputed Righteousness of the Lord, as well, it is guaranteed that their prayers will be heard. What a comfort!)

30 The light of the eyes rejoices the heart: and a good report makes the bones fat. (The light and glad tidings of the Gospel rejoice the heart and make fat the bones.)

31 The ear that hears the reproof of life abides among the wise. (The "reproof of life" is the Word of God, and the Word of God alone!)

32 He who refuses instruction despises his own soul: but he who hears reproof gets understanding. (The "instruction" that the Bible gives is not only for man's good, but, in effect, is the only way of Salvation. If it is refused, it is a sin against one's own soul.)

33 The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom; and before honour is humility. ("Humility" is the foundation of all Christlikeness. The only personal thing that Christ said about Himself was, "I am meek and lowly in heart" [Mat. 11:29].)

CHAPTER 16

THE FEAR OF THE LORD AND OBEDIENCE

[1] The preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the LORD. (As the Proverbs of Chapters 10 through 15 affect man's relationships with his fellowman, so the Proverbs of Chapters 16 through 19 concern man's relationship to God.

One might say that man proposes, but God disposes, and that is the doctrine of this Proverb.)

[2] All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but the LORD weighs the spirits. (Conscience is a blind guide unless enlightened by the Word of God.)

[3] Commit your works unto the LORD, and your thoughts shall be established. (Faith in Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross will help us to "walk after the Spirit," thereby with all thoughts properly established [Rom. 8:1-2, 11].)

[4] The LORD has made all things for Himself: yes, even the wicked for the day of evil. (The sense of this Proverb is that God's Plan was designed for and by Himself. In this Plan is the Truth that the "wicked" will suffer for their evil unless they repent.)

[5] Every one who is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished. (Pride is the foundation sin of all sin. It breeds unbelief.

God has pledged that even though the proud join "hand in hand," and despite all of their power and riches, still, they will not go unpunished.)

6 By mercy and truth iniquity is purged: and by the fear of the LORD men depart from evil. ("Purged" denotes "covered" or "atoned for." Mercy and Truth atoned for iniquity at Calvary. The moral effect of this great fact and Doctrine is to cause men to fear God and depart from evil.)

7 When a man's ways please the LORD, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him. (The idea of the Proverb is that even though the "enemies" remain "enemies," they realize that God is with this man, and there is nothing they can do to cause him harm. Therefore, they make peace.)

8 Better is a little with righteousness than great revenues without right. (The song says, "Little is much when God is in it.")

9 A man's heart devises his way: but the LORD directs his steps. (The idea of the Lord directing one's steps is glorious beyond compare. Irrespective of the seeming dangers, the steps will be sure and the way will be secure.)

10 A divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth transgresses not in judgment. (The phrase, "a Divine sentence," refers to the king or magistrate of any nature using the Bible as the guide for all judgment.)

11 A just weight and balance are the LORD'S: all the weights of the bag are His Work. (In this Proverb, as well as others similar, the Holy Spirit impresses upon everyone God's demand for honesty.)

12 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness: for the throne is established by righteousness. (If bribery, deceit, and calumny are practiced by the leadership of any country, state, city or organization, it will ultimately result in the whole being adversely affected. This is the reason God calls it an "abomination.")

13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him who speaks right. (The only way that any king or leader can have "righteous lips" [to speak that which is right] is to speak according to the Bible.)

14 The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it. (In these Passages, the monarchical form of government is being addressed; however, it would apply to the democratic form, as well. Advisors are supposed to pacify the anger of the leader.)

15 In the light of the king's countenance is life; and his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain. (If men would make as much effort to win the favor of God as they do the favor of monarchs or political leaders, their blessing would be unlimited.)

16 How much better is it to get wisdom than gold! and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver! (The "wisdom" and "understanding" referred to here is that which comes from the Bible. Despite the fact that the Holy Spirit tells us that this is so much better than "gold or silver," still, most spend far more of their time and effort to obtain money rather than the knowledge of the Word of God.)

17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he who keeps his way preserves his soul. (There is no way that any Christian can continue to live "in evil" and "preserve his soul.")

18 Pride goes before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall. (Pride is the foundational cause of man's lost condition. It is the principal sin of self-righteousness. It was such that nailed Christ to the Cross.)

19 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud. (This Proverb characterizes Christ. He never in any manner associated with the proud Pharisees. He rather associated Himself with "the lowly," and, in fact, chose fishermen and a lowly tax collector as His Disciples.)

20 He who handles a matter wisely shall find good: and whoso trusts in the LORD, happy is he. (This Proverb could be translated: "He who gives heed unto the Word of God shall find good; and he who trusts in Jehovah, Oh how happy is he!")

21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetness of the lips increases learning. (There is no way that one can be "wise in heart" without allowing the Bible to be his teacher and guide.)

[22] Understanding is a wellspring of life unto him who has it: but the instruction of fools is folly. (This Proverb can easily be abbreviated and explained by saying, "If one understands the Bible, it will be to him 'a wellspring of life.'")

[23] The heart of the wise teaches his mouth, and adds learning to his lips. (The "wise" person is the one who knows the Bible and is, therefore, wise in the things of God, which are the things that really matter.)

[24] Pleasant words are as an honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones. ("Pleasant words" speak of kind words, which have their foundation in the Bible.)

THE BROAD ROAD THAT LEADS TO DEATH

[25] There is a way that seems right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death. (This same Proverb is quoted in 14:12. It is given thusly by the Holy Spirit by design. The entirety of the problems of the human family is because of wrong direction. The only "true way" is "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" [I Cor. 1:14-18, 21, 23; 2:2].)

[26] He who labours labours for himself; for his mouth craves it of him. (This speaks of selfish labor, which has no basis or foundation in the Work or Word of God. Such is done to satisfy some appetite or meet some alleged need in life; therefore, this means that selfishness and greed characterize the far greater majority of the human family.)

[27] An ungodly man digs up evil: and in his lips there is as a burning fire. (As an example, Ham uncovered the nakedness of his father, Noah, while Shem and Japheth covered the nakedness of their father [Gen. 9:22-23].)

[28] A froward man sows strife: and a whisperer separates chief friends. (The word "froward" means one who is habitually disobedient. Such a one loves to spread gossip and rumors about others.)

29 A violent man entices his neighbour, and leads him into the way that is not good. (The "violent man" pertains to those who are willing to commit any act to get what they want.)

30 He shuts his eyes to devise froward things: moving his lips he brings evil to pass. (The pronoun "he" refers to the "violent man" of Verse 29. He is constantly devising evil things.)

31 The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness. (The "hoary head" speaks of age; however, it is a "crown of glory" only if it adheres to the "way of righteousness.")

32 He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city. (True self-control can only be given by the Holy Spirit. It comes through Christ, and our Faith in Him and what He has done for us at the Cross [Gal. 2:20-21].)

33 The lot is cast into the lap; but the whole disposing thereof is of the LORD. (The sense of this Passage is that the Lord is the One Who gives the direction, and that man should seek to be led by the Lord in all things.)

CHAPTER 17

GOOD AND EVIL SPEECH

[1] Better is a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than an house full of sacrifices with strife. (Poverty with peace and contentment is better than plenty with strife. As well, great religious activity is often accompanied by "strife.")

[2] A wise servant shall have rule over a son who causes shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren. (The Holy Spirit is saying that irrespective of a person's status in life, if he will wholly follow the Lord and make himself "wise" through the Bible, then God will promote him.)

[3] The fining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but the LORD tries the hearts. (The Holy Spirit is saying that inasmuch as "silver and gold" are precious, they are both placed in the furnace to remove the impurities. At times, the Believer has to go through the "fiery trial" in order to remove moral and spiritual impurities [James 1:2; I Pet. 1:7; 4:12; Rev. 3:18].)

[4] A wicked doer gives heed to false lips; and a liar gives ear to a naughty tongue. (God calls those who enjoy hearing gossip "liars." Likewise, the "liar" loves to hear and pass on the gossip of other "liars.")

[5] Whoso mocks the poor reproaches his Maker: and he who is glad at calamities shall not be unpunished. (In this Proverb, the Lord plainly states that whosoever takes advantage of the poor reproaches the Lord. God has promised that such "shall not be unpunished.")

[6] Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers. (One of the happiest things in the life of a grandfather is the grandchildren.)

[7] Excellent speech becomes not a fool: much less do lying lips a prince. (The sense of this Proverb is that we should not expect a prince to lie anymore than we would expect a fool to use "excellent speech.")

[8] A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him who has it: whithersoever it turns, it prospers. (If one will find his "gift," thank the Lord for it, and use it for God's Glory, then prosperity will come.)

[9] He who covers a transgression seeks love; but he who repeats a matter separates very friends. (Transgressions which have been forgiven are to be covered.)

[10] A reproof enters more into a wise man than an hundred stripes into a fool. (A mild "reproof" will be instantly picked up by a "wise man," and he will take it to heart and correct the situation.)

[11] An evil man seeks only rebellion: therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him. (Those who would foment "rebellion" against Righteousness will sooner or later come to grief.)

MORAL VIRTUES AND CONTRARY VICES

[12] Let a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly. (Who are these fools? They are those who do not regard the Bible as the Word of God, consequently ignoring its contents.)

[13] Whoso rewards evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house. (As is obvious, evil cannot be rewarded by God. It must be forsaken and, thereby, forgiven.)

[14] The beginning of strife is as when one lets out water: therefore leave off contention, before it be meddled with. (The Holy Spirit compares the "beginning of strife" to a small crack in a dam.)

15 He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the just, even they both are abomination to the LORD. (Self-righteousness will always justify the wickedness of those who agree with its concepts. Self-righteousness will also condemn the just, i.e., "those who trust exclusively in Christ.")

16 Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, seeing he has no heart to it? (A "fool" is one who does not know God and, thereby, ignores God's Word.)

17 A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity. (There are many fair-weather friends; when the storms come, they leave. However, a true friend will continue to "love," irrespective of the circumstances and situations. These are few and far between.)

18 A man void of understanding strikes hands, and becomes surety in the presence of his friend. (This concerns a man who makes foolish bargains, or else he stands good for the debt of another.)

19 He loves transgression who loves strife: and he who exalts his gate seeks destruction. ("Strife" will sooner or later lead to sin. That's the reason we are told in Verse 14 to "leave off contention," which causes strife.)

20 He who has a froward heart finds no good: and he who has a perverse tongue falls into mischief. (The evil heart and lying tongue will come to "no good." Such are all who do not fear God and keep His Word.)

21 He who begets a fool does it to his sorrow: and the father of a fool has no joy. ("The begetting of a fool" has to do with raising a child outside the boundaries of God and His Word.)

22 A merry heart does good like a medicine: but a broken spirit dries the bones. (A "merry heart" can only be brought about by total trust in the Lord.)

23 A wicked man takes a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment. (True "judgment" is sidestepped by the bribe.)

[24] Wisdom is before him who has understanding; but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the Earth. (Men are running even to the "ends of the Earth," attempting to find Wisdom, understanding, or the "pearl of great price." They little know that all that they seek is right at their fingertips, and it's in a Book called "the Bible.")

[25] A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her who bore him. (The father and mother who raise a son without God and without the Bible are raising a "fool.")

[26] Also to punish the just is not good, nor to strike princes for equity. (To punish one who has truly repented of sin, and is now just, and made so by the Grace of God, presents a gross injustice. It is the same as anarchy, which leads to the ruin for a community or a nation.)

[27] He who has knowledge spares his words: and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit. (One who truly has "knowledge" [Bible knowledge] will not have a know-it-all attitude. He will "spare his words.")

[28] Even a fool, when he holds his peace, is counted wise: and he who shuts his lips is esteemed a man of understanding. (From this, we certainly should learn that hasty words only bring regret, contention, and sorrow. They never show us to be people of "wisdom and understanding.")

CHAPTER 18

FOOLISH AND WISE WORDS

1 Through desire a man, having separated himself, seeks and intermeddles with all wisdom. (Multiple tens of millions the world over separate themselves and seek to learn the wisdom of the ages without the Bible. Such presents itself as a fruitless exercise.)

2 A fool has no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself. (The "fool" of this Proverb is the one who constantly tries to find "himself." Proper "understanding" of one's self can only be found in the Bible.)

3 When the wicked comes, then comes also contempt, and with ignominy reproach. (The less one values the Bible, the less "contempt" one will have for the way of "the wicked.")

4 The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters, and the wellspring of wisdom as a flowing brook. (The worldly wisdom of man is like a brackish pool that quickly dries up; however, for the man who knows and understands the Bible, his "mouth" will be as "deep waters.")

5 It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment. (The only correct "judgment" in the world is that which comes from "the righteous." Mostly, and with great loss, they are ignored.)

6 A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calls for strokes.

7 A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul. (Spiritually, the "fool" is the one who does not know the Bible; because of his lack of true knowledge, he will quickly find trouble. His "mouth" will guarantee his destruction.)

[8] The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly. (A "talebearer" in this Passage is likened to a slanderer. His "words" are as morsels that go down into the heart of the listener and cause "wounds.")

[9] He also who is slothful in his work is brother to him who is a great waster. (The "great waster" is one who does not properly care for that which is entrusted to him.)

[10] The Name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous runs into it, and is safe. (The correct spiritual posture for the Christian is to fear Satan and in no way attempt to face him in one's own strength, but, instead, quickly run to Christ. Only there is one guaranteed safety.)

[11] The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as an high wall in his own conceit. (Verse 11 contrasts with Verse 10. Verse 10 is fact and Verse 11 is fiction. Only the one who runs to "the Lord" will be safe. The one who runs to riches does so out of "his own conceit," and ultimately comes to destruction.)

[12] Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour is humility. (The spirit of the world is pride and "haughtiness." It ultimately leads to destruction. The Spirit of Christ is "humility"; it ultimately leads to "honor.")

[13] He who answers a matter before he hears it, it is folly and shame unto him. (The Holy Spirit is telling us here that no man, at least within himself, can be so brilliant or intelligent that he can make the proper decision before hearing all the matter!)

[14] The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity; but a wounded spirit who can bear? (The world, and even the Church, are full of man-made solutions to "the wounded spirit." Faith in Christ and His Atoning Work is the only answer [Gal. 5:4].)

15 The heart of the prudent gets knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeks knowledge. (The only true "knowledge" of life is the Bible.)

16 A man's gift makes room for him, and brings him before great men. (The idea the Holy Spirit imposes is that the individual is there, not because of himself, but due to his "gift." The possessor of such must never forget that the Giver of this "Gift" is God.)

17 He who is first in his own cause seems just; but his neighbour comes and searches him. (The Holy Spirit is telling us that we should not jump to conclusions upon hearing the first witness.)

18 The lot causes contentions to cease, and parts between the mighty. (The "lot" has to do with the Old Testament "Urim and Thummim." They were used to divine the Will of the Lord in specific matters.

This tells us that we must seek God's Will in all matters, for He Alone holds the solution.)

19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a castle. (The word "offended" should have been translated "injured.")

20 A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled. (If the "fruit of the mouth" and the "increase of the lips" be Heavenly, then there is inward contentment; if not, then there is inward desolation.)

21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they who love it shall eat the fruit thereof. (Christians who constantly talk doubt, in effect, talk "death." Those who speak the Word of God speak "life.")

22 Whoso finds a wife finds a good thing, and obtains favour of the LORD. (This Passage tells us that celibacy for Believers is not required, and marriage is honorable in all [Heb. 13:4].)

23 The poor uses intreaties, but the rich answers roughly. (Sadly, this Proverb has been true for all time. The "poor" and needy cry to the rich for the necessities of life, but all too often they are answered roughly. One day Jesus is coming back, and then these terrible wrongs will be made right!)

24 A man who has friends must show himself friendly: and there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother. (The greatest "Friend" of all is the Lord Jesus Christ. He will never leave you nor forsake you [Heb. 13:5].)

CHAPTER 19

PROVERBS OF PERSONAL CHARACTER

[1] Better is the poor who walks in his integrity, than he who is perverse in his lips, and is a fool. (The intention of this Proverb is that poverty with integrity is better than wealth with dishonesty.)

[2] Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he who hastens with his feet sins. (If the "soul" be without the "knowledge" of the Bible, it cannot come to "good.")

[3] The foolishness of man perverts his way: and his heart frets against the LORD. (Self-will causes men to make fools of themselves.)

[4] Wealth makes many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbour. (Money attracts many friends, but most are fair-weather ones. "The poor," by not having any money, also have few friends.)

[5] A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he who speaks lies shall not escape. (God hates a "lying tongue" and a "false witness." Considering that, judgment will ultimately come on those who practice such.)

[6] Many will intreat the favour of the prince: and every man is a friend to him who gives gifts. (The heart of man is basically hypocritical, and is shown in these efforts.)

[7] All the brethren of the poor do hate him: how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursues them with words, yet they are wanting to him. (While the "prince" is in power, everyone is his "friend." However, when he is out of office and can no longer bestow "gifts," possibly because of reversal of fortunes, and becomes "poor," those who formerly swore allegiance to their dying day now "hate him.")

8 He who gets wisdom loves his own soul: he who keeps understanding shall find good. (The "Wisdom" and "understanding" of this Proverb mean Heavenly Knowledge, which can only come from the Bible.)

9 A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he who speaks lies shall perish. (Verse 9 is not a needless repetition of Verse 5. The latter Verse defines the punishment announced in the former; the repetition emphasizes God's just anger against falsehood and His love for humanity, especially for the oppressed.)

10 Delight is not seemly for a fool; much less for a servant to have rule over princes. (The first part of this Proverb refers to a "fool" who is of royal birth and enjoys luxury, rank, and honor. His rule brings no "delight."

The second part refers to a "servant" who somehow finds himself in a position of authority. Generally when this happens, he is cruel and tyrannical.)

11 The discretion of a man defers his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression. (A forgiving spirit marks the true man of God under both the First and Second Covenants.)

12 The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion; but his favour is as dew upon the grass. (Opposition to lawful government ensures just suffering, but obedience secures prosperity.)

13 A foolish son is the calamity of his father: and the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping. (An example is the Chinese water torture. A drop of water dropped on a person's head causes little difficulty, but, if perpetually continued, will drive one to insanity.)

14 House and riches are the inheritance of fathers: and a prudent wife is from the LORD. (This woman is the utter contrast to the one in Verse 13. She may have many causes for complaint, but she avoids them all.)

15 Slothfulness casts into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger. (In the Bible, laziness is, as by now should be obvious, roundly condemned.)

16 He who keeps the commandment keeps his own soul; but he who despises his ways shall die. (He who cherishes "the Commandment" [the Bible] safeguards his life; indifference to Divine teaching [His Ways] causes spiritual death.)

17 He who has pity upon the poor lends unto the LORD; and that which he has given will He pay him again. (In this Proverb, God guarantees the "gift" or the debt.)

18 Chasten your son while there is hope, and let not your soul spare for his crying. (This speaks of proper discipline.)

19 A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment: for if you deliver him, yet you must do it again. (The need of such a man is for his "great wrath" to be throttled, not for someone to pay his fine.)

COUNSEL AND INSTRUCTION

20 Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that you may be wise in your latter end. (The "counsel" and "instruction" spoken of here pertain to the Bible.)

21 There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the Counsel of the LORD, that shall stand. (The Bible alone will stand, because it is the Word, i.e., "the Counsel of the LORD.")

22 The desire of a man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar. (The latter portion of this Proverb means that a little kindness received from a poor man is better than the false promises of a rich liar.)

23 The fear of the LORD tends to life: and he who has it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil. (To love and serve the Lord Jesus Christ leads to an endless life of abiding bliss; not to do so results in everlasting misery.)

24 A slothful man hides his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again. (The "slothful" is constantly claiming to be sick [hiding his hand in his bosom] when, in fact, he is only lazy and wants somebody to put food in "his mouth." If it is done once, he will want it done "again" and "again." That's the reason Paul said, "If they don't work, they don't eat" [II Thess. 3:10].)

25 Smite a scorner, and the simple will beware: and reprove one who has understanding, and he will understand knowledge. (Some claim that punishment for crime is no deterrent! While it is true that it is not the best deterrent, which is the conversion of the soul, still, judgment of evil is definitely a deterrent.)

26 He who wastes his father, and chases away his mother, is a son who causes shame, and brings reproach. (This speaks of a son who wastes the father's goods, and then, upon the father's death, refuses to allow the aged mother to live with him, or else to provide for her necessities.)

27 Cease, My son, to hear the instruction that causes to err from the words of knowledge. (All the Proverbs spoken to "My son" are from the Lord to Solomon. Anything that steers a person away from the Bible is called "error" by the Holy Spirit.)

28 An ungodly witness scorns judgment: and the mouth of the wicked devours iniquity. (The "ungodly witness" is similar to the "false witness" of 19:9. God has promised that such would not be unpunished.)

29 Judgments are prepared for scorners, and stripes for the back of fools. (The Holy Spirit states unequivocally that despite the scorning "mouth" of "the wicked," judgments are prepared by God for these "scorners.")

CHAPTER 20

[1] Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise. (The Holy Spirit here says that "wine mocks," and it causes a "raging" in the hearts and lives of all who imbibe. As well, it is a great "deceiver." This means that every Believer ought to be a teetotaler.)

[2] The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion: whoso provokes him to anger sins against his own soul. (Righteous government is to be obeyed.)

[3] It is an honour for a man to cease from strife: but every fool will be meddling. (Everything short of violating the Word of God is to be done to stop "strife." Those who do not do so are called "fools" by the Lord.)

[4] The sluggard will not plow by reason of the cold; therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing. (If we allow hindrances to stop us doing what needs to be done, then nothing will ever be done, and we will come to poverty.)

[5] Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out. (At the beginning of inquiry men will not usually reveal what they really think or want. They generally talk around the edges. Consequently, only those who truly know the Bible have proper "understanding," and can, therefore, normally draw out what needs to be known.)

[6] Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find? (Boasters can readily be found on every side, but trustworthy men must be sought for.)

[7] The just man walks in his integrity: his children are blessed after him.

(The "integrity" addressed here is the "integrity" that God gives.)

[8] A king who sits in the throne of judgment scatters away all evil with his eyes. (A righteous king judges evil, disclaims personal moral perfection and, in fellowship with God, protects the poor against the injustice of evildoers.)

[9] Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin? (The only way that purity can be brought about is by Faith and trust in Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross. Only then can all sins be washed away [I Jn. 1:7].)

[10] Divers weights, and divers measures, both of them are alike abomination to the LORD. ("Divers" refers to that which is fraudulent. All dishonesty is an abomination to the LORD.)

[11] Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right. (Most of the world attempts to replace the Bible with secular education. The results are obvious.)

[12] The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the LORD has made even both of them. (The "hearing ear" is meant to hear only the Lord, and the "seeing eye" meant to observe only what the Lord wants, namely His Word to be obeyed.)

[13] Love not sleep, lest you come to poverty; open your eyes, and you shall be satisfied with bread. (Over and over again, the Holy Spirit lauds industry, while condemning laziness.)

[14] It is naught, it is naught, says the buyer: but when he is gone his way, then he boasts. (Men attempt to belittle the object of their proposed purchase in order to get it at a cheaper price; after it is purchased, they boast as to its quality and at their bargain.)

[15] There is gold, and a multitude of rubies: but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel. (The "knowledge" spoken of is that which comes exclusively from the Bible.)

16 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger: and take a pledge of him for a strange woman. (The sense of the Proverb is that those who are of heathenistic religions, and those who serve a corrupt Christianity, cannot be trusted.)

17 Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel. ("Bread of deceit" means wealth obtained by falsehood.)

18 Every purpose is established by counsel: and with good advice make war. (In other words, we should "look before we leap.")

19 He who goes about as a talebearer reveals secrets: therefore meddle not with him who flatters with his lips. (The sense of this Proverb is that some individuals are "talebearers" by disposition. As such, they will flatter a person to get him to reveal "secrets." They will then proceed to spread the "secrets" far and wide. The Holy Spirit is saying that we should not have any association with these type of people.)

20 Whoso curses his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness. (There are three Laws given in Verses 20 through 22. They are given by God and are, therefore, unfailing.)

21 An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning; but the end thereof shall not be blessed. (Money that we do not have to work for generally brings no blessing.)

22 Say not you, I will recompense evil; but wait on the LORD, and He shall save you. (To recompense evil for evil will not be blessed of the Lord, but those who trust God to reward evil in His Own time will see such vengeance brought about by His Hand [Rom. 12:19].)

23 Divers weights are an abomination unto the LORD; and a false balance is not good. (This Proverb is very similar to Verse 10 by design. Such is repeated in Deut. 25:13 and in Prov. 11:1 and 16:11. Due to the repetition, I think it should be obvious that the Holy Spirit places great stock in honesty.)

[24] Man's going are of the LORD; how can a man then understand his own way? (This Proverb holds the key to man's success or failure. Man's goings are to be "of the LORD" and not the mindless claptrap of evolution, psychology, or other of man's absurdities!)

[25] It is a snare to the man who devours that which is holy, and after vows to make enquiry. (Most of the world is in a "snare" because they have taken that which is "holy," namely their lives, and used them for the pursuit of self.)

[26] A wise king scatters the wicked, and brings the wheel over them. (A nation is blessed which has a leader who will protect it from "the wicked" and who will bring such evil to punishment.)

[27] The spirit of man is the candle of the LORD, searching all the inward parts of the belly. (Man can have contact with the Lord only by and through his spirit; therefore, they who worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth [Jn. 4:24].)

[28] Mercy and truth preserve the king: and his throne is upholden by mercy.

[29] The glory of young men is their strength: and the beauty of old men is the gray head. (What is presented here is contrasted glory. The truth is, the "glory" of both young and old should be their knowledge of the Word of God. "Strength" soon fades and the "gray head" is soon to die; the Word of God endures forever!)

[30] The blueness of a wound cleanses away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly. (This speaks of the correction of the child. It is amazing that man made by God thinks he knows more than God! Such arrogancy is the result of man's pride.

As a man-made adage says, "When all else fails, read the instructions," i.e., "the Bible.")

CHAPTER 21

[1] The king's heart is in the Hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water: He turns it whithersoever He will. (The general sense of this Proverb is that "kings" or leaders may think that because of their position they are not controlled by God. This Proverb tells us differently.)

[2] Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the LORD ponders the hearts. (This comes under the heading of: "Man looks at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks on the heart" [I Sam. 16:7].)

[3] To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice. (The idea is that even though "sacrifice" is certainly "acceptable to the LORD," still, "to do justice and judgment," in other words to simply do right, which requires no "sacrifice," is "more acceptable to the LORD." "To obey is better than to sacrifice" [I Sam. 15:22].)

[4] An high look, and a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked, is sin. (This means that the "proud" do not consider such as sin, and they see no need for a "Sin Offering.")

[5] The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of everyone who is hasty only to want. (The "diligent" will count the cost before they begin work on the tower [Lk. 14:28].)

[6] The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them who seek death. (Treasures obtained by a "lying tongue" are, likewise, taken away by a "lying tongue.")

[7] The robbery of the wicked shall destroy them; because they refused to do judgment. (Those who refuse God's "Judgment" [Righteousness] are given Satan's wickedness by default. What we sow, we reap [Gal. 6:7].)

[8] The way of man is froward and strange: but as for the pure, his work is right. (The straightness of the one man is contrasted with the crookedness of the other.)

[9] It is better to dwell in a corner of the housetop, than with a brawling woman in a wide house. (There are several Passages that are very similar to this Proverb [19:13; 25:24; 27:15]. The repetition was by design and given by the Holy Spirit.)

[10] The soul of the wicked desires evil: his neighbour finds no favour in his eyes. (All are called "the wicked" who do not believe in God or His Word. Such cannot be trusted by anyone, even "his neighbor.")

[11] When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise: and when the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge. (The "wise" are instructed by the Bible, which is "knowledge.")

[12] The righteous man wisely considers the house of the wicked: but God overthrows the wicked for their wickedness. (In Verse 10, the wicked have no sympathy for anyone, even their neighbors; however, in this Verse, "the Righteous" have sympathy for "the wicked.")

[13] Whoso stops his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard. (What we sow, we reap [Gal. 6:7].)

[14] A gift in secret pacifies anger: and a reward in the bosom strong wrath. (Upright men act justly under all circumstances and refuse to shield themselves from public or private hostility by trying to bribe their way out of scandal or the revelation of wrongdoing!)

[15] It is joy to the just to do judgment: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity. (This Proverb proves the folly of the previous Verse in attempting to pacify anger with bribery. The truly "just" will accept the true "Judgment" of God. Actually, it will be a "joy" to him, because God's "Judgment" is always corrective and never punitive.)

16 The man who wanders out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead. (The "way of understanding" is the way of the Bible. To leave that "Way" is to leave life.)

17 He who loves pleasure shall be a poor man: he who loves wine and oil shall not be rich. (Lack of diligence and lack of responsibility produce laziness and are roundly condemned by the Bible.)

18 The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright. (At present, it might look like "the wicked" and "the transgressor" shall be the winners in this game of life; however, God says that "the wicked" shall be ultimately cut off by God's Judgment in order to preserve the Righteous.)

19 It is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman. (While it is true that men become as easily embroiled in contention as women, still, men are much quicker to let the matter rest. Women have a greater tendency not to do so.)

20 There is treasure to be desired and oil in the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish man spends it up. (The "wise" are those who know their Bibles and will consequently conserve what God gives them.)

21 He who follows after righteousness and mercy finds life, righteousness, and honour. (This somewhat coincides with Jesus' statement, "Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after Righteousness: for they shall be filled" [Mat. 5:6].)

22 A wise man scales the city of the mighty, and casts down the strength of the confidence thereof. (The Holy Spirit in this Proverb tells us that Wisdom [knowledge of the Bible and how to use it] is greater than "might.")

23 Whoso keeps his mouth and his tongue keeps his soul from troubles. (How so many times all of us have proven this Proverb absolutely correct! We talk when we should have been listening.)

24 Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who deals in proud wrath. (This concerns the man who treats his fellowman with pride, contempt, and violence. He merits an opprobrious name.)

25 The desire of the slothful kills him; for his hands refuse to labour. (The "desire" of the lazy is that he be able to eat, drink, be clothed, and be housed without working for it.)

26 He covets greedily all the day long: but the righteous gives and spares not. (Because "the slothful" will not work ["his hands refuse to labor"], he "covets" that which the righteous have, and "greedily" at that, thereby breaking the Tenth Commandment [Ex. 20:17].)

27 The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more, when he brings it with a wicked mind? (Many during the time of Israel thought that the Sacrifices atoned for their sin, when they actually had no intention of quitting the sin business. God calls this an "abomination.")

28 A false witness shall perish: but the man who hears speaks constantly. (The testimony of a truthful witness stands, but that of an untruthful one will ultimately be found out, and he will "perish.")

29 A wicked man hardens his face: but as for the upright, he directs his way. (A "wicked man" makes bold his face and statements in order to hide his guilt, which will ultimately be found out.)

30 There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the LORD. (What a beautiful Promise! Irrespective of the opposition, with all of its earthly wisdom and understanding, if it is fighting against God, it cannot win [Rom. 8:31].)

31 The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but safety is of the LORD. (The "safety" of the United States is the Lord. We must never forget that!)

CHAPTER 22

CHOOSING A GOOD NAME

[1] A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold. (The sense of this Proverb is that most men would sacrifice anything and everything, even their "good name," in order to obtain "riches." Such is a sorry choice! To do so deems the right way of God as less than the way of "riches.")

[2] The rich and poor meet together: the LORD is the maker of them all. (This doesn't mean that God made some men to be rich and some to be poor, but rather that He is the Maker of all, regardless as to whether they are rich or poor. Moreover, since they are equal before God, they should be the same before a king or leader.)

[3] A prudent man foresees the evil, and hides himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished. (The "prudent man" is the one who lives his life by the Bible and, therefore, "foresees evil." He can, therefore, protect himself from its environment.

The "simple" can be likened to those who do not know or believe the Bible and are, therefore, ignorant of the vicissitudes of the spirit world.)

[4] By humility and the fear of the LORD are riches, and honour, and life. (Verse 4 is contrasted with Verse 1. These are the true "riches, and honor, and life.")

[5] Thorns and snares are in the way of the froward: he who does keep his soul shall be far from them. (The word "froward" is often used by the Holy Spirit in these Proverbs. It means "to be habitually disposed to disobedience and opposition." Such will find their way beset by "thorns and snares.")

6 Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it. (The words, "train up," mean to "hedge up" or "hedge in." It is like building a fence around a child; however, what are to be fenced in must be two things: the child and the Bible. This is the "way he should go.")

7 The rich rule over the poor, and the bor rower is servant to the lender. (It is not wrong to borrow money as long as our capabilities are such that we can easily repay; however, if those capabilities are ever diminished, the "borrower" will learn, to his dismay, the truth of this statement.)

8 He who sows iniquity shall reap vanity: and the rod of his anger shall fail. (This is the law of sowing and reaping [Lk. 6:38; Gal. 6:7-8].)

9 He who has a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he gives of his bread to the poor. (Most people go through life desiring to be "getters" and consequently are discontented. The true Christian goes through life as a "giver" and consequently is happy, because "giving" is God's economy [Jn. 3:16].)

10 Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out; yes, strife and reproach shall cease. (The "scorner" is one who scorns the Bible and sets his own course. Wherever he is, "strife and reproach" will be also.)

11 He who loves pureness of heart, for the grace of his lips the king shall be his friend. (There is never any friction between just men and just governments.)

12 The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge, and He overthrows the words of the transgressor. (God prospers truth but overthrows false teaching.)

13 The slothful man says, There is a lion without, I shall be killed in the streets. (This Proverb illustrates the truth of the absurdities that the "slothful" come up with to keep from working!)

14 The mouth of strange women is a deep pit: he who is abhorred of the LORD shall fall therein. (The Hebrew word for "strange women" is "zur," and means "a Hebrew woman who has turned apostate by leaving Jehovah and going to a foreign religion." Such refers to all false religion and false doctrine.)

15 Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him. (The word "foolishness" in the Hebrew is "ivveleth," which means "silliness, perverseness, careless of body and soul."

This does not refer to the sin nature, but instead to the by-product of the Fall, which is a perverted or erroneous way.

The "rod of correction" cannot subdue a sin nature, but it can subdue foolishness, and even "drive such from him.")

16 He who oppresses the poor to increase his riches, and he who gives to the rich, shall surely come to want. (The "want" that God says will come to the "oppressor" is not always material want. Above all, it is spiritual want.

Giving to the "rich" in order to curry favor will not come out with the intended results. In fact, such gifts are wasted, and the giver is that much more impoverished.

Men are importuned to look to God for their sustenance and not to rich people or any other source [Mk. 11:24].)

17 Bow down your ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply your heart unto my knowledge. (Strangely enough, the Gospel is not given by seeing, but by hearing [Rom. 10:17].)

18 For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you; they shall withal be fitted in your lips. (The Holy Spirit frames the words perfectly. Diligence given to the Word of God and the making of it a part of our very being is not laborious, but rather "pleasant.")

19 That your trust may be in the LORD, I have made known to you this day, even to you. (It is impossible to have "trust" in the Lord, unless one adequately knows His Word [Rom. 10:17].)

[20] Have not I written to you excellent things in counsels and knowledge,

[21] That I might make you know the certainty of the words of truth; that you might answer the words of truth to them who send unto you? (The word "excellent" in the Hebrew is "shalishim," which means "threefold" or "three."

There is no distinct proof exactly as to what this means if it does not refer to the three writings of Solomon: Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and Song of Solomon.

God's Word is "truth." It does not merely "contain" truth, but in fact "is" Truth.)

[22] Rob not the poor, because he is poor: neither oppress the afflicted in the gate:

[23] For the LORD will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those who spoiled them. (By now it should be obvious that God looks very sternly at those who would "oppress the afflicted.")

[24] Make no friendship with an angry man; and with a furious man you shall not go:

[25] Lest you learn his ways, and get a snare to your soul. (Association breeds similarity.

Such anger addressed here is a Godless direction and means to get what it desires at any cost, whether to others or self. It does not know the Will of God and does not want the Will of God. It is a pursuit that characterizes most of the world. It means to step on as many people as one has to in order to get where one is going.

Believers should not associate with such individuals.)

26 Be not you one of them who strike hands, or of them who are sureties for debts.

27 If you have nothing to pay, why should he take away your bed from under you? (The "striking of hands" has to do with the making of contracts. In other words, "Don't be quick to do so unless you know exactly what you're doing."

"Sureties for debts" refers to standing good for someone else's debt. Never go into such an agreement unless you are prepared to pay the debt yourself, for that is what you will probably have to do.)

28 Remove not the ancient landmark, which your fathers have set. ("Landmarks" of old separated fields and properties and served as boundaries. If they were movable objects such as stones, some people were tempted to gradually move the stones over, especially if the property was owned by those who were living elsewhere or were incapacitated, thereby stealing their land.

The Lord is saying that He observes all things, even to the moving of a stone. Honesty in all matters is demanded by the Holy Spirit.)

29 Seest you a man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before mean men. (The Hebrew word for "mean" is "chashok," which means "men of no repute."

The Holy Spirit is saying that those who are not "diligent" concerning their affairs can rest assured that they will never see advancement; conversely, they shall forever deal with men of no repute.)

CHAPTER 23

GLUTTONY

[1] When you sit to eat with a ruler, consider diligently what is before you (the sense of this Proverb is "deceit" [Vs. 3])**:

[2] And put a knife to your throat, if you be a man given to appetite. (This Verse should read, "For you will put a knife to your throat," meaning to ruin yourself.

The phrase, "given to appetite," has little to do with food. It is speaking of the desire for gain, such as property, advancement, money, etc.)

[3] Be not desirous of his dainties: for they are deceitful meat. (This type of "ruler," and all such like, are said by the Holy Spirit to be "deceitful." So, if anything he has is desired, one should know what to expect — in other words, don't desire it.)

[4] Labour not to be rich: cease from your own wisdom. (The "ceasing from your own wisdom" refers to a course and path that is not laid out by God. The Holy Spirit is saying, "Trust the Lord and let Him be your Wisdom."

The Apostle Paul probably drew from this Proverb regarding I Tim. 6:9.)

[5] Will you set your eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward Heaven. ("Riches are temporary, so don't set your eyes on such, but rather set your eyes on the Lord.")

[6] Eat you not the bread of him who has an evil eye, neither desire you his dainty meats:

[7] For as he thinks in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, says he to you; but his heart is not with you.

[8] The morsel which you have eaten shall you vomit up, and lose your sweet words. (In these three Verses, the Holy Spirit is saying that Christians who have a desire to be rich will be thrown very soon into the company of those who have an "evil eye." Consequently, the end result will not be good.)

[9] Speak not in the ears of a fool: for he will despise the wisdom of your words. (The "fool" is one who does not desire the instruction of the Bible and will not adhere to its Wisdom.

It may have been in the wisdom of this Proverb that the True Solomon refused to speak to Herod. He also, when sitting with rulers and rich men, observed the counsel of Verses 1 through 3 and 6 through 8.)

[10] Remove not the old landmark; and enter not into the fields of the fatherless (this Verse is not a meaningless repetition of Verse 28 in the previous Chapter; the first refers to an unwise changing of a father's previous arrangement of property; the other to a dishonest seizure of that which belongs to the defenseless)**:

[11] For their redeemer is mighty; he shall plead their cause with you. (Basically, as the word "redeemer" is used here, it refers to "kinsman redeemer.")

[12] Apply your heart unto instruction, and your ears to the words of knowledge. ("Instruction" and "knowledge," as they regard life, come strictly from the Bible.)

[13] Withhold not correction from the child: for if you beat him with the rod, he shall not die.

[14] You shall beat him with the rod, and shall deliver his soul from Hell. (Erroneous and harmful habits uncorrected in a child will only become more perverted upon adulthood. They have caused countless numbers to be eternally lost.

Proper correction is not child abuse. It is a proclamation to the child that the parent loves it enough to correct it.

Real child abuse is when a child is raised without the benefit of the instruction and guidance of the Bible. That is the greatest child abuse of all.)

PARENTS' DESIRE FOR A SON: WISDOM

15 My son, if your heart be wise, my heart shall rejoice, even mine.

16 Yes, my reins shall rejoice, when your lips speak right things. (A son or daughter on erroneous paths and uncorrected will bring great grief to the heart of parents. A "wise son" will bring great pleasure to parents.

The word "reins" refers to the heart or the soul and spirit.)

17 Let not your heart envy sinners: but be you in the fear of the LORD all the day long.

18 For surely there is an end; and your expectation shall not be cut off. (Sometimes "sinners" prosper and Christians envy them, especially when they seem to have abundance.

The Holy Spirit is telling us here that our eyes, hearts, and minds should not be on "sinners," regarding their prosperity or anything of the like, but instead should dwell "in the fear of the LORD all the day long."

As well, "an end" or conclusion is coming, and for the "sinner," it is not going to be pleasant. But the recompense for those who love and follow Christ is that their "expectation shall not be cut off." They will be rewarded by being with Christ forever [Rev., Chpt. 22].)

19 Hear you, my son, and be wise, and guide your heart in the way.

[20] Be not among winebibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh:

[21] For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags. (The "wise" one of Verse 19 is the one who allows his life to be guided by the Bible. He is contrasted with the slaves of appetite in Verse 20 and the poverty and misery of Verse 21.)

[22] Hearken unto your father who begat you, and despise not your mother when she is old. (The child is to "hearken" unto the father as long as the father guides the child by the way of the Word of God.)

[23] Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding. (Such action is placed at far greater value than silver or gold. All pertain to the Word of God.)

[24] The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: and he who begets a wise child shall have joy of him.

[25] Your father and your mother shall be glad, and she who bore you shall rejoice. (This Proverb informs us as to what the ambition of the parents should be regarding their child. He is to be a "wise child," one who makes the Bible his instructor and guide. Only this will bring joy and gladness to a parent.)

[26] My son, give me your heart, and let your eyes observe my ways.

[27] For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit.

[28] She also lies in wait as for a prey, and increases the transgressors among men. (The "strange woman" of Verse 27 refers to an Israelite who has gone over to a foreign religion. In effect, the Holy Spirit says here that she is committing spiritual adultery.

Presently, every Believer who makes something other than Christ and the Cross the object of his faith is committing spiritual adultery [Rom. 7:1-4].)

[29] Who has woe? who has sorrow? who has contentions? who has babbling? who has wounds without cause? who has redness of eyes?

30 They who tarry long at the wine; they who go to seek mixed wine. (The "wine" addressed here is fermented wine, the kind that will make one drunk. Its effects are given in these Verses.)

31 Look not you upon the wine when it is red, when it gives his colour in the cup, when it moves itself aright. (The allurement of intoxicating beverage is given here by the Holy Spirit. This Verse, within itself, proclaims the futility, and even the stupidity, of those who maintain the harmlessness, as they put it, of moderate drinking. There is no such thing.)

32 At the last it bites like a serpent, and stings like an adder. (If one wants to know what the Holy Spirit thinks about intoxicating beverages, this Passage is an adequate description. It likens it to the bite of a poisonous snake.)

33 Your eyes shall behold strange women, and your heart shall utter perverse things. (The "strange women" of this Proverb is the same as in Verse 27, and refers to apostate religion.

In this Passage, we are told that false doctrine and intoxicants go hand in hand.)

34 Yes, you shall be as he who lies down in the midst of the sea, or as he who lies upon the top of a mast. (False doctrines and alcoholic beverages are similar. Both lead to foolish directions. Let such a person not think that the end result will be anything but catastrophic.

Anyone who would "lie upon the top of a mast," and be so foolish as to think they will not fall off, is likened to those who are embroiled in false doctrine.)

35 They have stricken me, shall you say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again. (Like those who are addicted to alcohol, those addicted to false doctrine and apostasy will "seek it yet again," despite the terrible discomfort and sickness always brought on by this evil.

False doctrine and the apostate way have the same type of hold on their victims. They are exploited, "stricken," emotionally "beaten," and still they come back for more. Satan is a hard taskmaster. God gives, Satan takes!)

CHAPTER 24

WISE LIVING

[1] Be not you envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them.

[2] For their heart studies destruction, and their lips talk of mischief. (No matter how prosperous the evil man may be, the Believer is never to be envious of him or the things he has, especially considering that what the Believer has is far more.)

[3] Through wisdom is an house built; and by understanding it is established (the "Wisdom" that is spoken of here pertains to the teaching of the Bible; there is no other "Wisdom")**:

[4] And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches. (The enduring prosperity of Verses 3 through 4 is contrasted with the temporary prosperity of Verses 1 and 2, which is based on earthly scheming. Only the prosperity that comes from Christ is of lasting consequence.)

[5] A wise man is strong; yes, a man of knowledge increases strength. (Only those who know their Bibles are both "wise" and "strong.")

[6] For by wise counsel you shall make your war: and in multitude of counselors there is safety. (The "counsel" addressed here pertains to the Bible. As well, its Books are "Counselors.")

[7] Wisdom is too high for a fool: he opens not his mouth in the gate. (The term, "in the gate," refers to the action of a city magistrate, who, in days of old, had his judicial and civic buildings near the gate of the city.

If a community gives leadership to one who is not wise in the Bible, the Lord calls such a "fool." He will not open his mouth to any good. Tragically, too many "fools" sit in seats of government!)

8 He who devises to do evil shall be called a mischievous person. (The words, "mischievous person," have to do with a schemer of plots. Regrettably, many of these occupy positions "in the gate.")

9 The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men. (The foolishness addressed here speaks of that which is "perverse." The word in the Hebrew is "evveleth." Such foolishness makes one corrupt.)

10 If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small. (Moral strength based upon earthly wisdom fails when tested, but Heavenly Wisdom gives a "strength" based on the Bible, which cannot fail.)

11 If you forbear to deliver them who are drawn unto death, and those who are ready to be killed;

12 If you say, Behold, we knew it not; does not He Who ponders the heart consider it? and He Who keeps your soul, does not He know it? and shall not He render to every man according to his works? (This Proverb has two meanings:

1. It is incumbent upon governments to protect the innocent from punishment and death.

2. It is the obligation of every Christian to rescue the perishing and to do his utmost to save all who are on the way to eternal death. Inaction in this matter entails the Judgment of God — "render to every man.")

ADVICE TO A SON

13 My son, eat you honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet to your taste:

14 So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto your soul: when you have found it, then there shall be a reward, and your expectation shall not be cut off. (The Holy Spirit tells us that "Wisdom" [the Word of God] shall be to the taste the same as "honey."

As well, those who spend their lives studying and understanding the Bible will always, and without fail, reap its great blessings.)

15 Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting place:

16 For a just man falls seven times, and rises up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief. (The sense of this Proverb is that calamity may well overtake an honest man. Bad things do happen, at times, to good people.

However, any who would attempt to take advantage of such an occurrence will be looked at by God as "a wicked man."

The Holy Spirit says that this "just man" will "rise up again," and his oppressor will be overthrown beyond recovery. The "wicked" cannot ultimately succeed, while the "just" cannot ultimately lose.)

17 Rejoice not when your enemy falls, and let not your heart be glad when he stumbles:

18 Lest the LORD see it, and it displease Him, and He turn away His wrath from him. (The sense is that whatever has caused our "enemy" to fall resides also, in some measure, in us; consequently, if our "heart be glad" at his discomfiture, then we have an improper understanding of our own righteousness, or lack thereof.)

19 Fret not yourself because of evil men, neither be you envious at the wicked;

20 For there shall be no reward to the evil man; the candle of the wicked shall be put out. (Christians, at times, are "envious at the wicked." We should remember that their prosperity is only temporary, and their punishment, unless they turn to God, eternal. No matter how it looks now, their "candle shall be put out.")

21 My son, fear you the LORD and the king: and meddle not with them who are given to change:

22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knows the ruin of them both? (Those "given to change" speak of anarchy. The spirit of anarchy is one of the most, if not the most, dangerous spirits that can get hold of men [II Pet. 2:10].

Men are to render to Caesar the things which are Caesar's and unto God the things that are God's [Mat. 22:21].

In this Proverb, the Holy Spirit commands us to respect civil government [Rom. 13:1-7].)

ADVICE AND COMMANDS

23 These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.

24 He who says unto the wicked, You are righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him:

25 But to them who rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blessing shall come upon them.

26 Every man shall kiss his lips who gives a right answer. (We must not have respect of persons in judgment.

Because of money or other things, when leaders refer to the "wicked" as "righteous," this will ultimately lead to the wreckage of a nation.

In a spiritual sense, when Preachers condone wrongdoing, proverbially speaking, so as not to rock the boat, this will also lead to the wreckage of Christianity. Leaders who follow the command of the Lord will be blessed, irrespective of the present circumstances.)

27 Prepare your work without, and make it fit for yourself in the field; and afterwards build your house. ("Take care first to attend to the business, and the business will 'build the house.'")

[28] Be not a witness against your neighbour without cause; and deceive not with your lips. (Extra care must be taken regarding one's "neighbor," simply because he is your "neighbor," and one must continue to live beside him; consequently, all must be done, even to the taking of a loss, to "remain on good terms.")

[29] Say not, I will do so to him as he has done to me: I will render to the man according to his work. (The Christian is to never pay "kind for kind." Instead, he is to "bless those who curse him" [Mat. 5:44]. When we are reviled, we are to revile not again [I Pet. 2:23].)

[30] I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;

[31] And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down.

[32] Then I saw, and considered it well: I looked upon it, and received instruction.

[33] Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

[34] So shall your poverty come as one who travels; and your want as an armed man. (This is an exceptionally long Proverb; however, its lesson will be the Salvation of all who follow its precepts.

To be brief, the Holy Spirit once again greatly condemns slothfulness.)

CHAPTER 25

COMPARISONS, INSTRUCTIONS, AND WARNINGS

[1] These are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out. (The word "also" makes it clear that the preceding Proverbs are Solomon's, as well.

These Proverbs were copied by the men of Hezekiah — not imagined or remembered, but actually copied from the original manuscript.)

[2] It is the Glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to search out a matter. (God conceals just how bad man really is because of His Mercy and Grace.

Conversely, authorities are honored when they investigate a matter and bring it to a righteous and lawful conclusion.

The reason for the juxtaposition is because man knows only the external actions of others, while only God knows the heart.)

[3] The Heaven for height, and the Earth for depth, and the heart of kings is unsearchable. (The idea is the instability, changeableness, and the variableness of man, even "kings."

Conversely, God can be depended upon to do the same thing in every situation every time [James 1:17].)

[4] Take away the dross from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessel for the finer.

[5] Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness. (As it is impossible to have pure "silver" unless the "dross" is taken away, likewise, "wicked counselors" must be "taken away" from the king or leader. Until such is done, there will be no "Righteousness" in his government.)

6 Put not forth yourself in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men:

7 For better it is that it be said unto you, Come up hither; than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince whom your eyes have seen. (The sense of this Proverb is that we are not to promote ourselves. If we do, sooner or later, someone will demote us. The essence is that we let God do the promoting.)

8 Go not forth hastily to strive, lest you know not what to do in the end thereof, when your neighbour has put you to shame.

9 Debate your cause with your neighbour himself; and discover not a secret to another:

10 Lest he who hears it put you to shame, and your infamy turn not away. (Every effort should be made to put down "strife" regarding one's "neighbor." The simple reason is that you have to live next door to him. This could go, as well, for a fellow Church member, fellow employee, etc.

Jesus mentioned this [Mat. 18:15].)

11 A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver. (The word "pictures" should be translated "baskets."

"Fitly spoken" is a phrase that means "timely" or "appropriate."

The only True "Word" that fits the description of "apples of gold" is the Bible. How so much Wisdom God has given to man, and how so little man takes advantage of it! Mostly, it is ignored.)

12 As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprover upon an obedient ear. (The "wise reprover" is the one who knows his Bible and kindly imparts its Wisdom to others.

The "obedient ear" is the one who takes the advice of the Proverb and commentary of Verse 11. The Holy Spirit likens such instruction to "gold" that is being given unto the "obedient ear.")

13 As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to them who send him: for he refreshes the soul of his masters. (During winter, when the snow fell in Judea, some of it would be taken deep into caves where the temperature was very cool. If it were correctly stored in these certain places, it would not melt.

Therefore, during the "time of harvest," when the sun was hot, water that was cooled by "snow" was brought from the place of storage and was very refreshing.

As such is refreshing, so is a "faithful messenger" bearing good news. This could be likened to the Gospel being taken to those who have not had the privilege to hear.)

14 Whoso boasts himself of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain. (As parched ground in dire need of rain is denied such by "clouds" that give none, likewise, so is a "boaster" who promises large gifts but, in fact, gives nothing!)

15 By long forbearing is a prince persuaded, and a soft tongue breaks the bone. (The "prince" in this case is a "judge" or "magistrate." Very seldom will a hard tongue break down his resistance. The Holy Spirit says here that a "soft tongue" or a gentle approach will subdue the most obstinate and turn away wrath.)

16 Have you found honey? eat so much as is sufficient for you, lest you be filled therewith, and vomit it. (Because of the sweetness of "honey," the temptation is to eat more than we need.

Such is the same regarding any good thing. In all walks of life, if we would subdue greed and heed this Proverb, then the good will remain good.)

17 Withdraw your foot from your neighbour's house; lest he be weary of you, and so hate you. (In other words, "Don't wear out your welcome!")

18 A man who bears false witness against his neighbour is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow. (All the weapons listed are weapons of destruction. Such is a "false witness." Regrettably, if a man is a "false witness," he seldom changes. To put confidence in such is not only a wasted effort, but it is also a very hurtful one.)

19 Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint. (When one is in "trouble," one desires someone in whom "confidence" can be placed.

To place "confidence" in "an unfaithful man," especially in a "time of trouble," is like trying to eat with a "broken tooth" or run with a "foot out of joint.") 20 As he who takes away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre, so is he who sings songs to an heavy heart. (Too often in modern religious society, a world that has a broken heart is approached by the gospel of entertainment. Such will not heal the broken or "heavy heart."

There is one thing, or rather Person, Who will. His Name is Jesus. He, and He Alone, can heal the "heavy heart" [Lk. 4:18].)

21 If your enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink:

22 For you shall heap coals of fire upon his head, and the LORD shall reward you. (This was quoted by the Apostle Paul in Rom. 12:20.

As fire melts the hardest metal, so love melts the hardest heart.)

23 The north wind drives away rain: so does an angry countenance a backbiting tongue. (Whenever a "backbiting tongue" is rebuked, it stops. If more Christians would show displeasure at gossip and slander, there would be less of such.)

24 It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than with a brawling woman and in a wide house. (The Holy Spirit is saying here that it is better to dwell in that small room which houses only a few Believers in the Word of God than to dwell in a "wide house" with many people and the "brawling woman" of false doctrine.)

25 As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country. (This Proverb is similar to Verse 13.

The "good news" is the Gospel being taken to a lost world.)

26 A righteous man falling down before the wicked is as a troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring. (As the purest spring becomes contaminated if trampled upon, so do Christians, if they permit themselves to be influenced by the world, or if they fall into sin and disobedience.)

27 It is not good to eat much honey: so for men to search their own glory is not glory. (As eating too much "honey" makes one ill, so men searching for "their own glory" proves to be no "glory" at all.)

28 He who has no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls. (In ancient times, cities that were "without walls" were virtually defenseless; likewise, so is a person who has no control over his passions or temper. Such control can only be had by Faith exhibited constantly in Christ and the Cross, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work in our lives [Rom. 8:1-2, 11].)

CHAPTER 26

THE ARGUMENTS OF A FOOL

1 As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honour is not seemly for a fool. (To be blunt, the Lord labels as "fools" all those who do not know and abide by His Word.)

2 As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, so the curse causeless shall not come. (There is a "cause," and it is the failure to know and abide by the Word.)

3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back. (Because of the repeated breaking of God's Laws, the "fool" always finds himself in difficult straits.)

4 Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest you also be like unto him.

5 Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit. (Verse 5 seems, at first sight, to be antagonistic to the purport of the preceding Verse, but it is not really so. In this case, the words, "according to his folly," mean "as his folly deserves." In other words, he is to be exposed and shamed, which will hopefully bring him to a better mind. This is to be done "lest he be wise in his own conceit.")

6 He who sends a message by the hand of a fool cuts off the feet, and drinks damage. (He who transacts business by the hand of a fool is like the man who cuts off his own feet; he renders himself helpless.)

7 The legs of the lame are not equal: so is a parable in the mouth of fools. (This means that a "fool" affecting Wisdom is as manifestly absurd as a lame man affecting a graceful manner of walking.)

8 As he who binds a stone in a sling, so is he who gives honour to a fool. (Once again, the "fool" is the person who does not believe in, nor abide by, the Word of God. Regrettably, the world is full of this kind, and always has been. This is the reason for all the heartache in the world presently, and always has been.)

9 As a thorn goes up into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools. (A "drunkard," in his inebriation, is insensitive to a "thorn" that pricks his hand; likewise, a "fool" has absolutely no idea of the true worth of the knowledge of the Bible.)

10 The great God Who formed all things both rewards the fool, and rewards transgressors. (The word for "God" in this Verse is "rab," and may mean either the great God or a great man. It probably refers to "man" instead of "God," and means this:

"A master craftsman makes or forms all things well, but he who hires a fool hires a transgressor who will spoil the work.")

11 As a dog returns to his vomit, so a fool returns to his folly. (Peter referred to this Proverb by using it in reference to backsliders who go back into sin [II Pet. 2:22]. This shows that Peter was a student of the Proverbs.)

12 Seest you a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him. (In these Passages, the only one whom God puts on a lower level than a "fool" is a "conceited fool." This is a lesson on self-conceit, self-importance, and self-exaltation. Such is the opposite of Christlikeness.)

13 The slothful man says, There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets. (This Proverb is very similar to 22:13. The idea is that a lazy man will use any excuse, no matter how preposterous, to keep from having to work.)

14 As the door turns upon his hinges, so does the slothful upon his bed. (A door always turns in the same place, and a sluggard moves about but never advances; he suggests any excuse for inactivity.)

15 The slothful hides his hand in his bosom; it grieves him to bring it again to his mouth. (The meaning is that the lazy man hides his hand in his bosom and is too lazy to take it out, dip into the dish, and put food into his mouth. Paul addressed this [II Thess. 3:10].)

16 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason. (Someone has said that "lack of knowledge is when you don't know. Ignorance is when you don't know that you don't know."

The "slothful" are ignorant.)

17 He who passes by, and meddles with strife belonging not to him, is like one who takes a dog by the ears. (Some dogs, when held up by the ears, will become very angry and, when let go, will turn on the one doing so to them.)

18 As a mad man who casts firebrands, arrows, and death,

19 So is the man who deceives his neighbour, and says, Am not I in sport? (This pertains to a hypocritical and affected interest in a neighbor's business, and in meddling in his affairs. Such a one is pretending to help, but is, in fact, "deceiving" the neighbor.)

20 Where no wood is, there the fire goes out: so where there is no talebearer, the strife ceases. (A fire cannot be kept going without fuel.)

21 As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife. (A "talebearer" is a "contentious man" [or woman]. Such "kindles [stirs] strife.")

22 The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly. (When the "tale receiver" hears the words of the "talebearer," they at first taste like delicious morsels; however, soon he will find that these very "words" will cause a spiritual sickness in his innermost being.)

23 Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross. (This Proverb speaks of hypocrisy. Even though a broken piece of pottery may have a thin silver covering, still, it is worthless, and it will soon reveal itself to be so.)

[24] He who hates dissembles with his lips, and lays up deceit within him (as well, this also describes a hypocrite; the word "dissembles" means "to hide under a false appearance"; such a person is saying things with his mouth that he does not mean within his heart; while his lips proclaim blessing, his heart is devising wickedness [deceit])**;

[25] When he speaks fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart. (It doesn't matter how "fair" [well] that this hypocrite speaks, his "heart" is wicked. As well, the Lord uses the number "seven," which speaks of totality and completeness, i.e., "complete wickedness.")

[26] Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be showed before the whole congregation. ("Hatred" drives this individual, and is the fuel for his hypocrisy. Why the hatred? Men hate because of alleged wrongdoing carried out against them, because of jealousy, envy, or for any variety of evil reasons. True Believers must "forget" what others have done to them and turn it over to the Lord.)

[27] Whoso digs a pit shall fall therein: and he who rolls a stone, it will return upon him. (This Proverb points to Jacob, who deceived with a kid of the goats, and was deceived by a kid of the goats; to David, who slew with the sword, and mourned his son slain by the sword. Every Christian should heed well these words: "it will return upon him.")

[28] A lying tongue hates those who are afflicted by it; and a flattering mouth works ruin. (This is a Law of God. Liars hate their victims, as robbers hate their victims. Only in Christ can this Law be broken.

The injured forgive, but the injurer, never.)

CHAPTER 27

(700 B.C.)

INSTRUCTIONS AND ADMONITIONS FOR SONS

1 Boast not yourself of tomorrow; for you know not what a day may bring forth. (A Christian should not "boast," period! The rich fool of Lk. 12:20 boasted of the morrow, but that night his soul was required of him. [Not all fools are poor; some are rich!])

2 Let another man praise you, and not your own mouth; a stranger, and not your own lips. (Self-praise denotes pride.)

3 A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both. (The "fool" loses his temper, hindering and hurting all around him, and he doesn't even have sense enough to know the damage that he is causing.)

4 Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before envy? (The word "envy," as used here, would have probably been better translated "jealousy." The sense of this Proverb is that a "cruel" temper is destructive, but is not as deadly as the hatred of "jealousy.")

5 Open rebuke is better than secret love. (A love that says and does nothing is not as valuable as an affection that rebukes.)

6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful. (A "friend" who will kindly tell you of your mistakes or faults is not destructive, but rather helpful [faithful]. Conversely, the one who flatters and "kisses," proclaiming everything to be wonderful and well, when, in reality, it is not, is said by God to be "deceitful" and, therefore, an "enemy.")

7 The full soul loathes an honeycomb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet. (The one who has come by riches without having to earn them does not understand what he has and, thereby, does not appreciate them. Conversely, the "hungry soul," whether rich or poor, having earned what he has, finds value in that which does not even seem to have value.)

[8] As a bird that wanders from her nest, so is a man who wanders from his place. (The "place" that God proposes for each person, if vacated, is done so because of self-will. To "wander" in self-will is as the little bird that wanders from its nest away from the care of its parent and, therefore, exposes itself to great danger.)

[9] Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so does the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel. ("Hearty counsel" speaks of the sincere counsel of the soul. Such "counsel" comes from the Bible.)

[10] Your own friend, and your father's friend, forsake not; neither go into your brother's house in the day of your calamity: for better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off. (The moment a person comes to Christ, his allegiance, affection, and relationships change. As a result, fellow followers of Christ become even closer than one's own blood relatives [relatives who do not know the Lord].)

[11] My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him who reproaches me. (In this Proverb, the Holy Spirit is speaking directly to Solomon, and likewise to everyone. The Bible is the only Book of teaching or instruction that can produce character. Most of the world reproaches the Bible, but, when they do so, they reproach Him [the Holy Spirit] Who inspired it. As well, whenever Preachers use anything but the Bible, they are reproaching the Holy Spirit.)

[12] A prudent man foresees the evil, and hides himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished. (God calls "prudent" those who know, understand, and live by the Bible. God calls "simple" those who do not believe the Bible, or else do not take the time to study its contents.)

[13] Take his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman. (The simple meaning of this Proverb is that neither the one who worships strange gods nor the one who has forsaken the True God can be trusted. The intent of the Holy Spirit is to impress upon the Bible student the simple truth that the only honesty in the world is that which is taught by the Bible and given by Jesus Christ.)

14 He who blesses his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him. (Its reason is self-seeking and deceitful.)

15 A continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike.

16 Whosoever hides her hides the wind, and the ointment of his right hand, which betrays itself. (The word "contention" means "rivalry, competition, and discord." It means one who exhibits an often perverse and wearisome tendency to quarrels and disputes. It is the opposite of being peaceable.

As the smell of "ointment" on the hand cannot be hidden, likewise the "contentious woman" cannot be hidden. She will quickly make herself known.

The "contentious woman" has some relationship to the "strange woman" of Verse 13, which speaks of false doctrine and the part of Christianity which is apostate.)

17 Iron sharpens iron; so a man sharpens the countenance of his friend. (It takes an iron file to sharpen an ax. Likewise, it takes a man with strong courage, holy ambition, and with a strong moral and Spiritual Life, to "sharpen" or affect the lives of his friends and others.)

18 Whoso keeps the fig tree shall eat the fruit thereof: so he who waits on his master shall be honoured. (If the "fig tree" is carefully tended, surely some of the fruit will go to the one responsible. Likewise, if a man is faithful in his responsibilities and duties, it should be noticed and proper recognition and reward given.)

19 As in water face answers to face, so the heart of man to man. (This Proverb should humble all of us; it declares that, upon looking into the heart of the vilest criminal, one finds his own heart reflected. There is no difference, for all have sinned. Jesus Christ Alone is the only answer [Jn. 14:6].)

20 Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied. (This Proverb portrays the "unsatisfied man," who typifies almost all of the human family. Men are not satisfied, because they seek that which cannot satisfy. Only Christ can satisfy the soul.)

21 As the fining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold; so is a man to his praise. (Silver and gold are tested by fire, and man is tested by praise. Few endure the test; they are wise whom praise affects not.)

22 Though you should bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him. (The sense of this Proverb is that "foolishness" cannot be educated out of a "fool." The "fool" is one who has no desire for God or His Word.)

23 Be you diligent to know the state of your flocks, and look well to your herds. (In this Proverb, the Holy Spirit proclaims the necessity for "diligence." Whatever is given to us, we are to care for it diligently.)

24 For riches are not forever: and does the crown endure to every generation? (The "crown" speaks of a king. He is being told that the day is coming when he will no longer be king and, therefore, he must make sure, concerning his "flocks" and "herds," that he may have something to live on. The present state of his prosperity may not last forever!)

25 The hay appears, and the tender grass shows itself, and herbs of the mountains are gathered. (In other words, "Make hay while the sun shines.")

26 The lambs are for your clothing, and the goats are the price of the field.

27 And you shall have goats' milk enough for your food, for the food of your household, and for the maintenance for your maidens. (This principle governs the spiritual as well as the business life.)

CHAPTER 28

(700 B.C.)

MORE COMPARISONS

[1] The wicked flee when no man pursues: but the righteous are bold as a lion. (This posture is such because the "wicked" have done wrong and, thereby, see harm coming from every direction. Conversely, the "righteous" have harmed no one, and consequently fear no one; they are "bold" because of a clear conscience. The "righteous" are those who follow the Lord and His Word.)

[2] For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged. (The "understanding and knowledge" spoken of here are derived from the Bible. Any country, state, city, or community that would be so blessed as to have such a man of the Bible at its helm is blessed indeed!)

[3] A poor man who oppresses the poor is like a sweeping rain which leaves no food. (Tragically, this Proverb is rather the rule than the exception. Seemingly, the "poor," if given the opportunity to serve in even the least position of authority, will usually "oppress" their fellow poor.)

[4] They who forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them. (They who forsake the Bible applaud the enemies of the Bible, but lovers of the Bible oppose and condemn them.)

[5] Evil men understand not judgment: but they who seek the LORD understand all things. (Ahab accused Elijah of being the author of the Divine Judgment resting on the land. Being evil, Ahab was not willing to understand Judgment, and that, in effect, he [Ahab] was the cause of the "Judgment.")

6 Better is the poor who walks in his uprightness, than he who is perverse in his ways, though he be rich. (It is better to be poor and righteous than to be rich and wicked. Wealth does not excuse sin; poverty cannot effect goodness.)

7 Whoso keeps the law is a wise son: but he who is a companion of riotous men shames his father. (An appetite for the Bible is contrasted here with greediness for human teaching. The latter causes shame.)

8 He who by usury and unjust gain increases his substance, he shall gather it for him who will pity the poor. (The Lord is the One Who does "pity the poor," and He will see to it that, ultimately, a just accounting will be forthcoming.)

9 He who turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination. (Outward worship, where the heart refuses obedience to the Gospel, is an abomination to God.)

10 Whoso causes the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: but the upright shall have good things in possession. (The "good things" spoken of in this Passage have to do with that which makes a person "upright," which is the "Righteousness of Christ." That which was Abel's "possession" could not be taken away by Cain, nor did death take it away either [I Jn. 3:12].

Ultimately, all who forsake the Way of God for their own way will fall into "his own pit.")

11 The rich man is wise in his own conceit; but the poor who has understanding searches him out. (Belshazzar was wise in his own eyes, but a poor man, Daniel, exposed his folly [Dan., Chpt. 5].)

12 When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is hidden. (Any nation, city, or community that is privileged to have "righteous men" in positions of leadership will see "rejoicing," and this will bring "great glory."

Conversely, when "the wicked rise" to positions of leadership, as is often the case, righteous men must hide.)

13 He who covers his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesses and forsakes them shall have mercy. (Achan covered his transgressions [Josh., Chpt. 7], and neither he nor Israel prospered until he was found out and justly judged. Had he voluntarily confessed his sin and forsaken it, he would have found Mercy. Many are willing to confess their sins, at least after a fashion, but few are willing to forsake them.)

14 Happy is the man who fears always: but he who hardens his heart shall fall into mischief. (The broken and contrite spirit produces a "happiness" that only God can give. The "hardened heart" cannot be dealt with by the Holy Spirit. Such hearts will go astray.)

15 As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people. ("Roaring" would have probably been better translated "growling." A lion growls when devouring its prey, and a bear prowls when seeking its prey. Both actions express the conduct of a wicked prince to his defenseless people, and especially the "poor people.")

16 The prince who wants understanding is also a great oppressor: but he who hates covetousness shall prolong his days. (The word "wants" would have been better translated "lacks." Such a man lacks understanding of the Bible; consequently, he oppresses the people because of covetousness.

The closer to the Bible that a ruler follows, the longer will be his days in office.)

17 A man who does violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him. (This speaks of one who is guilty of murder. No one is to help such a "person.")

18 Whoso walks uprightly shall be saved: but he who is perverse in his ways shall fall at once. (The sense of this Proverb is that straight paths lead to prosperity, both materially and spiritually. The double-minded direction speaks of two ways, both good and bad, with the person attempting to walk both ways at the same time. Obviously, he will fall and "at once.")

19 He who tills his land shall have plenty of bread: but he who follows after vain persons shall have poverty enough. (This Proverb characterizes one who works for what he gets and the other who tries to gain what he wants by illicit means.)

20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he who makes haste to be rich shall not be innocent. (The one who "makes haste to be rich" implies fraud.)

21 To have respect of persons is not good: but for a piece of bread that man will transgress. (The word "man" in the Hebrew implies a "strong man"; this points to the humbling fact that if a "strong man" has "respect of persons," he is, at the same time, for sale to the highest bidder.)

22 He who hastens to be rich has an evil eye, and considers not that poverty shall come upon him. (The Holy Spirit has much to say about those who strive to "be rich" [I Tim. 6:9-10].)

23 He who rebukes a man afterwards shall find more favour than he who flatters with the tongue. (A "flatterer" seeks not the truth, but rather to impress an individual in order to obtain something. Such never bodes any good.)

24 Whoso robs his father or his mother, and says, It is no transgression; the same is the companion of a destroyer. (Hebrew Law declared property to belong to the entirety of the family; therefore, undutiful children, at times, might take money or goods and declare it to not be a "transgression". But Heavenly Wisdom declares such a person to be a thief and a "destroyer." Scrupulous honesty is demanded by the Lord in all matters.)

25 He who is of a proud heart stirs up strife: but he who puts his trust in the LORD shall be made fat. (The "proud heart" is the bane of all people, but especially the Christian. Such pertains to a greedy disposition. It will always "stir up strife," because it is never satisfied with the path that God has laid out, but rather seeks its own direction.)

[26] He who trusts in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walks wisely, he shall be delivered. (The one who "walks wisely" is the one who follows the Bible. He alone "shall be delivered.")

[27] He who gives unto the poor shall not lack: but he who hides his eyes shall have many a curse. (To "hide the eyes" means to divert attention from the misery of "the poor." The Holy Spirit commands that attention be given to the poor.)

[28] When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase. (In this world, too much and too often the "wicked" rule, hence, the condition of much of mankind!)

CHAPTER 29

COMPARISONS CONTINUED

[1] He, who being often reproved hardens his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy. (Whenever one will not accept the "reproof" of the Lord, then there is no other remedy.)

[2] When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked bear rule, the people mourn. (Every good government since the dawn of time owes such to the "authority" of the Bible. It is an unfailing Law: much Bible, much freedom; little Bible, little freedom; no Bible, no freedom.)

[3] Whoso loves wisdom rejoices his father: but he who keeps company with harlots spends his substance. (The "Wisdom" spoken of here refers to "Heavenly Wisdom," which pertains to the Word of God. This "Wisdom" has stated that immorality will "spend the substance," both economically and spiritually.)

[4] The king by judgment establishes the land: but he who receives gifts overthrows it. (The bane of any nation is political leaders who are "for sale.")

[5] A man who flatters his neighbour spreads a net for his feet. ("Flattery" is another form of lying.)

[6] In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous do sing and rejoice. (Wrongdoing leads to trouble, but right doing to gladness.)

[7] The righteous consider the cause of the poor: but the wicked regard not to know it. (All who are "righteous" will ever be concerned about the plight of the "poor." The Holy Spirit, over and over again, tells us that they are not to be ignored and, thereby, forgotten. The Lord will hold all accountable who do so.)

[8] Scornful men bring a city into a snare: but wise men turn away wrath. (Had there been even ten wise men in Sodom, Divine wrath would have been turned away, but the city being filled with scoffers [Gen. 19:14] caused it to be set aflame.)

[9] If a wise man contends with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest. (The "wise men" are those who love the Bible and derive "Wisdom" from it. The "foolish man" is the one who scorns the Word of God and goes his own way; consequently, whatever he does will be wrong, whether it be anger or laughter.)

[10] The bloodthirsty hate the upright: but the just seek his soul. (Jezebel, in her hatred of Naboth and Elijah, illustrates this Proverb.)

[11] A fool utters all his mind: but a wise man keeps it in till afterwards. (The "fool" is one who ignores the Bible and, thereby, gives "his mind," which is not the mind of Christ, and is, thereby, spurious. His wisdom is earthly wisdom, which will bless no one.

Conversely, the "wise man" is the one who knows his Bible and attempts to live by it.)

[12] If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked. (If a political leader surrounds himself with those who are wicked, the advice he gets from them will be distorted, i.e., "lies." A corrupt tree cannot produce good fruit.)

[13] The poor and the deceitful man meet together: the LORD lightens both their eyes. (Even though both "the poor" and "the deceitful" are totally different, still, the Lord knows the hearts of both. All will ultimately be brought to account. The "deceiver" may deceive the "poor," but he cannot "deceive" God.)

[14] The king who faithfully judges the poor, his throne shall be established forever. (The coming, future Kingdom of the Messiah is described in this Proverb.)

[16] When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increases: but the righteous shall see their fall. (Ultimately, Righteousness will prevail! [Mat. 5:5])

[17] Correct your son, and he shall give you rest; yes, he shall give delight unto your soul. (Some five times in the Book of Proverbs the Holy Spirit counsels the wise and necessary discipline of children.)

[18] Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he who keeps the Law, happy is he. (The "Vision" and the "Law" point to the Bible, always the Bible!)

[19] A servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understand he will not answer. (The word "answer" should have been translated "obey." A disobedient servant must be corrected with something sterner than mere words [Heb. 12:5-11].)

[20] Seest you a man who is hasty in his words? there is more hope of a fool than of him. (The man with the "hasty words" implies a "fiery-tempered man." Such portrays that "self" is ruling instead of Christ. Self never bodes well.)

[21] He who delicately brings up his servant from a child shall have him become his son at the length. (The implication is that such a "servant," brought up from a child with all responsibility, will ultimately conduct himself as "a son."

Eliezer, who was a servant born in Abraham's house [Gen. 15:2-3], is a perfect example of this Proverb.)

22 An angry man stirs up strife, and a furious man abounds in transgression. (Both the "angry" and the "furious" are led by "self," and not by the Holy Spirit.)

23 A man's pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit. (Self always breeds "pride," while the "humble" always breed "honor.")

24 Whoso is partner with a thief hates his own soul: he hears cursing, and betrays it not. (The individual who conceals the evil plotting of a "thief," under the guise of not wanting to become involved, actually becomes a "partner" with the "thief," and is doing terrible damage to "his own soul.")

25 The fear of man brings a snare: but whoso puts his trust in the LORD shall be safe. (The Believer can either "fear man" or "fear the Lord." He cannot fear both. If he fears man, he will be made a slave of man and will always find himself in a "snare." "Safety" is guaranteed only to him "who puts his trust in the LORD."

26 Many seek the ruler's favour; but every man's judgment comes from the LORD. (An earthly ruler may err and oftentimes does in dispensing favors, but Emmanuel the Prince will exercise discriminating judgment infallibly.)

27 An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he who is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked. (These two cannot walk together, because they cannot be agreed.)

CHAPTER 30

(700 B.C.)

THE SAYINGS OF AGUR

[1] The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, even the prophecy: the man spoke unto Ithiel, even unto Ithiel and Ucal (the Jewish Talmud says that Solomon was referred to by several names, "Agur" being one of them; that being the case, "Jakeh" was another name for David; actually, Ithiel and Ucal may have been disciples of Agur [Solomon])**,

[2] Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man.

[3] I neither learned wisdom, nor have the knowledge of the holy. (Solomon did not consider himself special, because the Wisdom which he had was given to him by God.

In Verses 2-3, it should be possible for us to see why God loved Solomon so much [II Sam. 12:24].

The greatest commodity in the halls of Heaven is humility. Solomon, in these two Verses, portrays a humility seldom seen. This man characterized such in his early years and was blessed by God as few men have ever been blessed.)

[4] Who has ascended up into Heaven, or descended? who has gathered the wind in his fists? who has bound the waters in a garment? who has established all the ends of the Earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if you can tell? (This Verse exclaims tremendous "knowledge of the holy," and yet it is not a contradiction of Verse 3. The "knowledge" that is evidenced in this Verse, which is phenomenal, came through the Wisdom given to him by God and not through education and knowledge acquired by the normal means of study. It was a Revelation from God.)

5 Every Word of God is pure: He is a shield unto them who put their trust in Him. (This tells us that "every Word" in the Bible is ordained and inspired of God [Mat. 4:4].)

6 Add you not unto His Words, lest He reprove you, and you be found a liar. (Unfortunately, this is the sin of the Church. Men either take away or add to the Word of God.)

7 Two things have I required of you; deny me them not before I die (Solomon asked for only two things in life. What would we request if such an opportunity presented itself?)**:

8 Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me (in other words, Solomon is saying: 1. That everything should be removed from him except the Bible; all else is "vanity and lies"; and, 2. He asks that God would be the dispenser of what He wanted him to have; in other words, he would leave such in the Hands of the Lord)**:

9 Lest I be full, and deny You, and say, Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain. (These two requests show not only great Wisdom, but also tremendous consecration.)

10 Accuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse you, and you be found guilty. (One of the reasons that God takes such a dim view of this sin is because there is no defense against a lie.)

11 There is a generation that curses their father, and does not bless their mother. (Sadly, this present "generation" falls into this category. If one is raised without the influence of the Bible, no less can be expected.)

12 There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness. (As well, this characterizes this present generation. It speaks of a present self-righteous Church. Self-righteousness justifies one's self. It is "pure in its own eyes," but, in reality, is "filthy" in the sight of God.)

13 There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eyelids are lifted up. (This speaks of a "generation" that is full of vanity, pride, and insolence [Ps. 10:4; Dan. 4:37; I Jn. 2:16].)

14 There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off the Earth, and the needy from among men. (The Pharisees are described adequately in this Verse as they attempted to "devour" the "poor and needy" Man from among men. That Man was Christ Jesus. There is nothing in the world crueler than man-made religion.)

15 The horseleach has two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yes, four things say not, It is enough (this speaks of a generation that never has enough and who will prey on their neighbor to gain even more)**:

16 The grave; and the barren womb; the Earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that says not, It is enough. ("Grave" should have been translated "Hell." This place is never full despite the fact that the majority of the human race has gone there. As well, the barren womb always craves a child, even as the dry earth longs for water to quench its parched surface. The fire is also greedy for everything that will burn.)

17 The eye that mocks at his father, and despises to obey his mother, the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it. (The "father" and "mother" spoken of in this Proverb pertain to those who follow the Bible. If they are "mocked" and "despised," destruction is sure.)

18 There be three things which are too wonderful for me, yes, four which I know not (to show one the difference in man's wisdom and God's Wisdom, if man had written such, he would have written about things that he had devised, made, or perfected; as well, it would have been dated almost by the time the words were written; conversely, the "wonderful" things mentioned by the Holy Spirit cease to be no less "wonderful" now than some 3,000 years ago when this Proverb was first written)**:

19 The way of an eagle in the air; the way of a serpent upon a rock; the way of a ship in the midst of the sea; and the way of a man with a maid. (All four speak of that which leaves no trace of its path.)

[20] Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eats, and wipes her mouth, and says, I have done no wickedness. (The "adulterous woman" attempts to leave no trace. She claims, "I have done no wickedness," because there seems to be no trace of what she has done.

However, the Holy Spirit is saying that even though there may be no discernible trace of where the eagle has flown, still, God knows this, and also He knows every action of the "adulterous woman.")

[21] For three things the Earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear (from the throne to the kitchen, all is unrest and confusion when God is not recognized and served)**:

[22] For a servant when he reigns; and a fool when he is filled with meat;

[23] For an odious woman when she is married; and an handmaid that is heir to her mistress. (When a "servant" reigns, he will lord it over all who have the misfortune to be in his employ or kingdom.

The "fool" thinks his stomach is filled because of his great wisdom.

The Holy Spirit says that if a woman is "odious" before marriage, so will she be after marriage.

The "handmaid," as proclaimed here, falls into the same category as the "servant.")

[24] There be four things which are little upon the Earth, but they are exceeding wise (these things that are mentioned are feeble and defenseless, but, because of wisdom, they have food, security, government, and dignity)**:

[25] The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer (as small as they are, the ant has a systemized government; the Holy Spirit says that men would do well to observe it)**;

26 The conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks (the "conies" are so observant and wary that they are almost impossible to apprehend)**;

27 The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands (there is power in unity, even as the locusts portray)**;

28 The spider takes hold with her hands, and is in kings' palaces (for their size, spiders have an amazing ability to fend for themselves; the Holy Spirit implores us to at least use the wisdom given to these little creatures)**.

29 There be three things which go well, yes, four are comely in going (the four things mentioned are graceful in their actions)**:

30 A lion which is strongest among beasts, and turns not away for any (the "lion" has been called the "king of the beasts"; he alone is the leader)**;

31 A greyhound; an he goat also; and a king, against whom there is no rising up (the "greyhound" runs races, and is very graceful in his action; the "he goat" stands at the head, the majestic head, of the sheep; a "king" who deals honestly and correctly with his subjects cannot be toppled)**.

32 If you have done foolishly in lifting up yourself, or if you have thought evil, lay your hand upon your mouth. ("Confess your sins unto the Lord, Who forgives, and not to man, who will not forgive.")

33 Surely the churning of milk brings forth butter, and the wringing of the nose brings forth blood: so the forcing of wrath brings forth strife. (The "forcing of wrath" speaks of self-will. It is angry because it has not had its way. Man's way always ends in "strife" and confusion. God's Way always ends in fulfillment, development, rejoicing, and Righteousness.)

CHAPTER 31

THE WORDS OF KING LEMUEL

[1] The words of king Lemuel, the prophecy that his mother taught him. ("Lemuel" was another name for Solomon. His mother was Bath-sheba. The sense of this Proverb is that his mother kept teaching him continually.)

[2] What, my son? and what, the son of my womb? and what, the son of my vows? (From this Passage, we know that Bath-sheba dedicated Solomon to God before his birth. He was a child of Repentance and Faith.)

[3] Give not your strength unto women, nor your ways to that which destroys kings. (The obviousness of immorality is apparent in this Passage; however, its deeper meaning pertains to the false woman, idolatry, as is contrasted with the True Woman, the Gospel.)

[4] It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink (the admonition of the Holy Spirit through Bath-sheba to her son Solomon is clear and plain: "Leave strong drink alone!")**:

[5] Lest they drink, and forget the Law, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted. (The pain of "strong drink," even moderately consumed, causes men to "forget the Law," which means to forget the Word of God; consequently, "Judgment" is perverted in such a case, and in whatever capacity.)

[6] Give strong drink unto him who is ready to perish, and wine unto those who be of heavy hearts.

[7] Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more. (This pertains possibly to one ready to be executed, or another in extreme difficulties. The same is done in modern times, with certain drugs prescribed by doctors.)

8 Open your mouth for the dumb in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction. (Bath-sheba seems to have a premonition that God will graciously open the heavens regarding Wisdom that would be given to her son Solomon. She seemed to know and understand that the helpless, afflicted, and defenseless would come to him in order for him to champion their "cause.")

9 Open your mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy. (Solomon was a Type of Christ and, as such, he was instructed, through his mother Bath-sheba by the Holy Spirit, to "judge righteously.")

10 Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. (The word "virtuous" is not limited in Hebrew, as in English, in its meaning; it is a covering term suggesting character and ability. Spiritually, the dialogue concerning the "virtuous woman" can also apply to the Church and what it ought to be.)

11 The heart of her husband does safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. (He has absolute confidence in her faithfulness.)

12 She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. (He is blessed by her tireless and unfailing industry, which will last all the days of her life.)

13 She seeks wool, and flax, and works willingly with her hands. (She goes to every length to save money, even "working willingly with her hands." There is no hint of laziness about her.)

14 She is like the merchants' ships; she brings her food from afar. (If she buys something, she does so with the idea in mind of using some of it and selling the other to pay for that which she has used.)

15 She rises also while it is yet night, and gives meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens. (She takes the lead in guiding the house, and expects all who are in the household to follow her example, which they do.)

16 She considers a field, and buys it: with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard. (She is constantly planning as to how to provide for her growing family.)

17 She girds her loins with strength, and strengthens her arms. (She keeps herself and her family in good health with proper food and clothing.)

18 She perceives that her merchandise is good: her candle goes not out by night. (She produces quality product.)

19 She lays her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff. (All of this was a part of the spinning wheel, showing her industriousness and ability.)

20 She stretches out her hand to the poor; ye s, she reaches forth her hands to the needy. (Even though she works hard for her money, she does not fail to help the "poor" and the "needy." She does so because she knows that God honors such.)

21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet. (She has prepared for the coming winter with suitable clothing for all of her household. She thinks ahead. Coming difficulties do not catch her shortsighted.)

22 She makes herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple. (Even though she is very conservative, still, money is not her God. Therefore, she does not skimp in providing the furniture for her home, or for her own personal clothing. It is such that befits her station in life, as one who is blessed by God and is a Child of God.)

23 Her husband is known in the gates, when he sits among the elders of the land. (As her husband was guided in his choice of her, likewise, she was guided by the Holy Spirit in her choice of him. He is a leader in the community.)

24 She makes fine linen, and sells it; and de livers girdles unto the merchant. (Once again, her business ability places her on a par with her husband. The Holy Spirit gives her no lesser position. She is capable of being a captain of industry and a maker of excellent decisions.)

25 Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come. (All that she manufactures is done so with quality. Her goods are sought the world over.)

26 She opens her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. (Even though this virtuous woman, whose price is far above rubies, is said by the Holy Spirit to be a captain of industry with striking and startling abilities, still, her "mouth" is a mouth of "Wisdom." Despite all her qualities and riches, still, her "tongue" is not harsh, but always "kind.")

27 She looks well to the ways of her household, and eats not the bread of idleness. (Even though she is now greatly blessed, still, there is no place for "idleness" in her thinking or doing. In essence, industry never stops.)

28 Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her. (Such women could not be praised too highly.

Bath-sheba was truly led by the Holy Spirit and inspired greatly to write the instruction that she did for her son Solomon. She was quite a lady!)

29 Many daughters have done virtuously, but you excel them all. (It seems that the husband of this "virtuous woman" speaks in this Verse. He claims that many have done "virtuously," but that this one whom God has given him, his lovely wife, "excels them all."

If this is to be carried to its conclusion, David spoke these words about Bath-sheba. Such is God; such is Grace.)

30 Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman who fears the LORD, she shall be praised.

31 Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates. (These two closing Verses of this Chapter are the Holy Spirit's conclusion, not only to the Chapter itself, but to the Message of the entirety of the Book of Proverbs. That Message is: the fear of the Lord secures abiding favor, moral beauty, public approbation, and eternal recompense.)

CHAPTER 1

INTRODUCTION AND THEME

1 The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem. (The beginning of this Book has a majesty that defies description. The title, "son of David," not only applies to Solomon, but also to the Greater Son of David, the Lord Jesus Christ [Mat. 1:1].

In fact, the title, "Son of David," contains, within itself, no majesty whatsoever, but rather shame, until it is attached to the King of kings and Lord of lords. Only then does it sparkle with majesty.)

2 Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher, vanity of vanities; all is vanity. (The Holy Spirit says here that all that man is and has done, irrespective of his riches, beauty, power, or glory, can never satisfy the cravings of the human heart.

The word "vanity" means "empty nothings." Ironically enough, Solomon, when he wrote this Book, was not right with God.)

3 What profit has a man of all his labour which he takes under the sun? (This Book discusses "labor" as man's proposed "end" or ideal of happiness. The Book argues that, as an end, it is unsatisfying, however profitable it may be as a means.)

4 One generation passes away, and another generation comes: but the Earth abides forever. (The brevity of human life is contrasted with the age of the Earth. The word "forever" is comparative, not absolute.)

5 The sun also arises, and the sun goes down, and hastes to his place where he arose. (The anguish of Verses 5 through 11 is that all things move in an appointed circle, and so there is, to man, the dissatisfaction of recurrence.)

6 The wind goes toward the south, and turns about unto the north; it whirls about continually, and the wind returns again according to his circuits.

7 All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they return again.

8 All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. (The lesson the Holy Spirit is portraying to us is that any and all that the "eye" sees or the "ear" hears can never satisfy the craving of the human heart.

Man thinks that if he can just obtain what he sees, it will bring fulfillment and satisfaction. It never does, because things cannot satisfy.)

9 The thing that has been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

10 Is there anything whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it has been already of old time, which was before us. (There is, in reality, "nothing new"; that is, nothing occurs or can occur which can transport man into a new world or give him new joys or new emotions. Modern inventions are only "new" in a comparative, and not in an absolute, sense.)

11 There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after. (This Verse says that the records of the antediluvian world are totally destroyed, except for the information that is given to us in the Bible [from the time of Adam to Noah's flood]. God destroyed it all, thereby saying that man did nothing worthwhile. In fact, what man did was grossly evil, so evil that it had to be destroyed.)

12 I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem. (Solomon called himself a "Preacher," and so he was. He was called of God to be such.)

13 And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under Heaven: this sore travail has God given to the sons of man to be exercised therewith. (All that science can do is to recognize the vanity of all of man's efforts to turn Earth into a Heaven without God.)

[14] I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit. (The gist of this Passage is that man cannot solve man's problem. That problem is a sinful, fallen nature that is in rebellion against God.)

[15] That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and that which is wanting cannot be numbered. (Man's inability to straighten what has been made morally crooked and to furnish what is defective is insisted on with Truth in this entire Book.)

[16] I communed with my own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten more wisdom than all they who have been before me in Jerusalem: yes, my heart had great experience of wisdom and knowledge. (No man in the world ever has had the "Wisdom" or the "Knowledge" that Solomon had. As well, his great "Wisdom" was given to him by God. In other words, it was a Gift of God.

However, this did not bring Salvation and, in fact, could not bring Salvation. Solomon's experience bore this out as no other man who has ever lived.)

[17] And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit. (Solomon had the money and the power to do what millions would like to do but simply cannot afford to do. But after it was done, he said, "This also is vexation of spirit.")

[18] For in much wisdom is much grief: and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow. ("Wisdom" without God only brings "grief." "Knowledge" without God only brings "sorrow."

This is not to say that these attributes are disapproved of by the Lord. The meaning is that even these lofty ideals will bring no satisfaction without Christ.)

CHAPTER 2

(977 B.C.)

PLEASURE IS VAIN

[1] I said in my heart, Go to now, I will prove you with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure: and, behold, this also is vanity. (The dissatisfaction and vexation of spirit which Solomon experienced in testing the insufficiency of industry, philosophy, and pleasure were the more painful because of his possession of the superhuman wisdom which remained with him, for the greater the capacity of enjoyment, the greater the disappointment and vexation. His misery was, therefore, greater than that of any who preceded or succeeded him because of his unique gift of wisdom. If ordinary intelligence finds everything "under the sun" to be vanity, extraordinary intelligence finds it to be "vanity of vanities.")

[2] I said of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What good does it? (The finest comedians of the land were brought in. After the laughter subsided, the question still remained, "What good does it?")

[3] I sought in my heart to give myself unto wine, yet acquainting my heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the Heaven all the days of their life. (That which is "good for the sons of men" is that which is found only in the Bible. It is amazing how man will try everything except the Bible.

Solomon wrote the Proverbs and knew what the Holy Spirit told him concerning "wine.")

GREAT WORKS ARE VAIN

[4] I made me great works; I built me houses; I planted me vineyards:

5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits:

6 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that brings forth trees (Millions say, "My work is my life." If so, they will find that the last day on the job will be the most unrewarding of all.

Only if one says, "Christ is my life," will true satisfaction, fulfillment and realization be attained!):

7 I got me servants and maidens, and had servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me (self says that it will be rewarded and served if it has many "servants" to command; as well, great herds of "cattle" seem to be the craving of the empty heart)**:

8 I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I got me men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as musical instruments, and that of all sorts. (Great riches and the pomp of court would have made this court the greatest in the history of man in times past, present, or future.

Few have been the kingdoms where wealth was no object. And the few that have had abundant wealth have had little wisdom. Solomon had both!)

9 So I was great, and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me. (In His love, God has placed this Book in the Bible for the warning and instruction of His Children; in His Goodness, He denies them the means of making the woeful experiment which Solomon found so bitter.)

10 And whatsoever my eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and this was my portion of all my labour. (Only one man in history was able to get all that his heart desired and all that his eyes beheld. That man was Solomon. He found it to be vanity.)

11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun. (All of this was done with an attempt to take the place of the Lord. As someone has well said, "The soul of man is so big, that only God can fill it up.")

[12] And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and madness, and folly: for what can the man do who comes after the king? even that which has been already done. (No one ever was, or will be, as efficiently equipped as Solomon was for this terrible experience.)

[13] Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness. (Solomon once knew God in a great and personal way. The Lord even gave him a special name, "Jedidiah," which means "beloved of Jehovah."

So, why would anyone leave such glory and grandeur for "folly"?

The answer to that "Why?" shows the incurable evil of the human heart which resulted from the Fall of man in the Garden of Eden.)

[14] The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walks in darkness: and I myself perceived also that one event happens to them all. (In Verses 12 through 17, Solomon set himself to "behold wisdom" [to study philosophy], with the result that he observed that death no more respected the wise man than the fool. Thus, he discovered philosophy also to be vanity.)

[15] Then said I in my heart, As it happens to the fool, so it happens even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity. (In essence, Solomon is saying that riches, wisdom, and power cannot change the things that really matter. Solomon said, "It happens to the fool, and it happens even to me."

The Holy Spirit is impressing upon us the futility of this present life, that is, if it is lived without Christ.)

[16] For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool forever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dies the wise man? as the fool. (Everything that is done, irrespective of its seeming worth, will be "forgotten," except that which is done for God. Such lasts forever.)

17 Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit. (The only One Who can make life worth living is Christ Jesus. A life totally immersed in Him, irrespective of its circumstances, will bring fulfillment, satisfaction, and contentment, as well as "joy unspeakable and full of glory" — but only in Christ [Jn. 10:10].)

18 Yes, I hated all my labour which I had taken under the sun: because I should leave it unto the man who shall be after me. (If Solomon had used the great Wisdom that God have given him [greater than any man had ever had or would ever have] to fill the land with the Word of God, the future might have been far different. Instead, he used his great Wisdom to enrich himself and Israel. That which looks so beautiful to the natural eye was taken so easily by the king of Egypt very shortly thereafter.)

19 And who knows whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have showed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity. (His son, Rehoboam, was his successor, and he was a "fool.")

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun. (Anything and everything tied to this present world that is done other than for God, and that which is built strictly by man, no matter how grandiose, will lead one to "despair.")

21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man who has not laboured therein shall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil. (The wise man's "portion" or share is labor, difficulty, and sometimes great sorrow, but his foolish successor's share is the possession without effort of all that his father painfully toiled to bring into being.)

22 For what has man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he has laboured under the sun? (Jesus answered this by giving us the statement recorded in Mat. 6:19-21.)

23 For all his days are sorrows, and his travail grief; yes, his heart takes not rest in the night. This is also vanity. (The Holy Spirit is informing us in a grand manner that the only thing that is not "vanity" is the labor carried out for the Work of God.)

24 There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the Hand of God. (Life is meant to be a pleasure, not a rat race. Paul said, "But Godliness with contentment is great gain" [I Tim. 6:6].)

25 For who can eat, or who else can hasten hereunto, more than I? (Solomon verified that a life of honest labor ministers a happiness appointed by the Hand of God. In this Verse, "eat and drink" are to be understood as enjoyment of needful food with an appetite quickened by honest "labor.")

26 For God gives to a man that is good in His sight wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner He gives travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit. (He who thus works for his daily bread in obedience to the Divine Will, to him God recompenses wisdom, knowledge, and joy. But to the disobedient, He gives the fruitless toil of amassing wealth that brings no enjoyment, as honest labor does to the Godly man.)

CHAPTER 3

(977 B.C.)

A TIME FOR EVERYTHING

[1] To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the Heaven (to misunderstand this Chapter is to misunderstand the purpose of God):

[2] A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

[3] A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

[4] A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

[5] A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

[6] A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

[7] A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

[8] A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace. (One can only know and understand these respective "times," if one properly "walks after the Spirit" [Rom. 8:1]. This can be done only by the Believer exhibiting Faith in Christ as the Source, and the Cross as the Means, and maintaining his Faith in that capacity. The Holy Spirit works entirely within the framework of the Finished Work of Christ. He demands of us, which is precious little to demand, that our Faith ever be in that Finished Work. That being done, the Spirit of God will work in our lives, leading and guiding us [Jn. 16:13-15; Rom. 8:2, 11].)

9 What profit has he who works in that wherein he labours? (If, in fact, man labors only for this present world, there is no "profit." However, if man's "labor" is engaged to provide the necessities of life and to do the Work of God to help take the Gospel to the world, then the "profit" will be eternal.)

10 I have seen the travail, which God has given to the sons of men to be exercised in it. (God has given labor to man as a discipline and not as an end. Consequently, to make the actions of labor the chief end of life is to seek a profitless object.)

11 He has made everything beautiful in His time: also He has set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God makes from the beginning to the end. (In this Verse, the word "world" should have been translated "eternity." God has made everything beautiful in its season and, at the same time, given to man the consciousness of "eternity." But He has limited this intelligence so that man cannot review or criticize the whole of God's actions as they embrace the past and the future. This is done in order to humble man and to teach him to trust God.)

12 I know that here is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life. (Man is meant to rejoice in God's creation, as all of this was created for the good of man.)

13 And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God. (The eating, drinking, and toiling, and the enjoyment resulting from such, mean that legitimate labor is man's daily duty, but it is not the end or purpose of his being.)

14 I know that, whatsoever God does, it shall be forever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God does it, that men should fear before Him. (The immutability and unchangeableness of God's actions and purposes awaken reverential fear, holy love, and worship in all who are born of the Spirit.)

15 That which has been is now; and that which is to be has already been; and God requires that which is past. (The sense of this Passage is that God's Word is immutable, and that in the coming Judgment, whether at the Great White Throne or at the Judgment Seat of Christ, God will require obedience to His Word which was given in the "past.")

16 And moreover I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there. (A difficulty is presented in this Verse, but answered in Verse 17. The difficulty is: if God governs human affairs, why is injustice found where justice is enthroned? The answer is that God permits this folly on the part of man in order to humble him, and He will then, in a future life, judge him for his wrongdoing.)

17 I said in my heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work. (The word "there" means in the world beyond the grave, that is, in the great day of future judgment. Two judgments are mentioned here, "the Judgment Seat of Christ" [Rom. 14:10; I Cor. 3:11-15] and "the Great White Throne Judgment" [Rev. 20:13-15].

At the first, only Believers will be present, and will be judged only for their actions and motives on Earth, and not for their sins, which were judged at Calvary. At the second judgment, only unbelievers will be there. Each will include all.)

18 I said in my heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts. (Solomon is not teaching evolution, but that men and beasts alike have bodies that die and go back to dust.

As well, it is also true that men can become bestial in lust and conduct.

In the Fall, man lost God-consciousness and fell to the far lower level of self-consciousness.)

19 For that which befalls the sons of men befalls beasts; even one thing befalls them: as the one dies, so dies the other; yes, they have all one breath; so that a man has no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity. (Both man and beast live and die; however, it was not originally the Plan of God that man should die. This came about through the Fall. It will be rectified in the coming Resurrection [I Cor., Chpt. 15].)

20 All go unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again. (This speaks of the body only, which is made of "dust," and which goes back to "dust." It does not speak of the soul or spirit, which are indestructible.

The bodies of both men and animals go back to dust from which they were made.)

21 Who knows the spirit of man that goes upward, and the spirit of the beast that goes downward to the Earth? (As the previous Verse spoke of the body, this Verse speaks of the "spirit" of both man and beast.

While it is obvious that the spirit of the redeemed goes upward, the only way that it can be said that the spirit of the unredeemed goes upward is in view of the fact that God is in control of both the righteous and unrighteous. At His Command, the spirit of the unredeemed goes downward into the pit [Ezek. 31:14; Lk. 16:23-31].)

22 Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him? (Man's happiness is in making the best of the present and cheerfully enjoying what the Lord offers without anxious care for the future; nevertheless, only one who has made his peace with God and has entrusted his past, present, and future into the Hands of the Saviour can rest in complete assurance.)

CHAPTER 4

OPPRESSIONS BY OTHERS INCREASE VANITY

[1] So I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter. (This Chapter portrays a world that has banished God from its life; consequently, there is confusion, ignorance, and misery. Such characterizes most of the present world.

The words, "so I returned," mean "I resumed my investigation.")

[2] Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are yet alive. (The tragedy is that the "dead," without God, do not end their oppression but, in actuality, it increases, and forever.)

[3] Yes, better is he than both they, which has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. (Solomon reasons, and despite his great Wisdom, that it would be better that man not even be born; however, all of this is reasoning without God. If, in fact, there were no God, no Saviour, and no "Comforter," then the argument would be valid; however, there is a "Comforter," and He is the Holy Spirit [Jn. 14:16].)

[4] Again, I considered all travail, and every right work, that for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit. (Any work for God should be met with approval; however, it is almost always, if not always, met with opposition. The reason is "envy" or control. Men cannot control that which is of God; therefore, they oppose it.)

THE INCREASE OF VANITY

5 The fool folds his hands together, and eats his own flesh. (Solomon observed that the man who, with grasping hand, enriched himself by promoting himself, or else by robbing others, was a fool, for he ate his own flesh, that is, opposed that which could have been a blessing even to him.)

6 Better is an handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit. (Men are too quick to trade inner peace for "things" that add nothing to one's life, but rather destroy it [Lk., Chpt. 15].)

7 Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun. (The Book of Ecclesiastes, more than any other book, proclaims the "vanity, foolishness, and folly" of all of man's efforts.)

8 There is one alone, and there is not a second; yes, he has neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither says he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yes, it is a sore travail. (Solomon then observed what this constant quest of life without God ultimately brought about. It brought an acute selfishness.)

9 Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour. (In the action of this Verse, we further learn that it is not good for man to be alone [Gen. 2:18].)

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him who is alone when he falls; for he has not another to help him up. (The Holy Spirit through Solomon says, "Help him up.")

11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone? (Every effort is made by the Holy Spirit to show the value of two rather than one. In all of the travels of the Apostle Paul, he almost always took one or more with him, and for the obvious reasons.)

12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken. (The "threefold cord" proclaims the truth that the spiritual power of two is more than double. That's the reason it is so important for two or more to agree together in prayer [Mat. 18:19-20].)

13 Better is a poor and a wise child than an old and foolish king, who will no more be admonished. (The words that were given by Solomon in Verses 13 through 16 were actually a prophecy of what would happen to himself; to his son, Rehoboam; and to his servant, Jeroboam.

He became the "old and foolish king" who refused to listen to the Divine admonition [I Ki. 3:14; 9:3-9; 11:9-40].)

14 For out of prison he comes to reign; whereas also he who is born in his kingdom becomes poor. (Jeroboam was the poor but clever youth who came out of prison and was made king. The great nation of Israel, then the greatest on the face of the Earth, would now be split.)

15 I considered all the living which walk under the sun, with the second child that shall stand up in his stead. (As Solomon considered his son, Rehoboam, perhaps even then he knew that Rehoboam had little relationship, if any, with the Lord, and consequently would come to ruin, which he did.)

16 There is no end of all the people, even of all who have been before them: they also who come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit. (If the investigator limits his observations to what takes place "under the sun," then is the conclusion indeed a just one that "all is vanity" and a feeding upon wind.

But the Christian recognizes that God exists, that there is a future life, and that having been gifted with free will, it is reasonable that God should permit man liberty of action. Although such liberty involves suffering, the misery is overruled by God for the ultimate good of His People, and for the discipline, humbling, and moral enrichment of man.)

CHAPTER 5

CAUTION AGAINST HASTY VOWS

[1] Keep your foot when you go to the House of God, and be more ready to hear, than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil. ("Keep your foot" means to be reverent. The "House of God" refers to the Presence of God. "To hear" means to obey.

Cain offered the "sacrifice of fools" [Gen. 4:3-5]. Most of that which calls itself "Church" falls into the same category.

The only Sacrifice that God will accept is the Sacrifice of His Son, Christ Jesus. This is what Abel's offering typified.

Any message that does not make Christ the Source and the Cross the Means is a "sacrifice of fools.")

[2] Be not rash with your mouth, and let not your heart be hasty to utter anything before God: for God is in Heaven, and you upon Earth: therefore let your words be few. (This Verse points to loud religious profession with the lips.)

[3] For a dream comes through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words. (The first part of this Verse speaks of busy activity that oftentimes causes one to have dreams which cannot be remembered the next morning.

As well, the man who constantly prattles at the mouth is called "a fool" by God, and his words are like the "dream" that cannot be remembered.)

[4] When you vow a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for He has no pleasure in fools: pay that which you have vowed. (In no uncertain terms, the Holy Spirit has told us to be very careful about making a "vow." However, if one is made, we are to keep it.)

5 Better is it that you should not vow, than that you should vow and not pay. (If a person makes a "vow," he should do all within his power and ability to keep that "vow." However, if a person makes a rash "vow," and it turns out that it is impossible to keep, one should plead with the Lord to forgive such rashness, and then lay the "vow" aside.)

6 Suffer not your mouth to cause your flesh to sin; neither say you before the Angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands? (The "mouth" too often causes the "flesh to sin." This Verse should make us understand how serious that God takes "vows.")

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but fear you God. (The professors of ceremonial religion construct a worship of dreams, vanities, and many words. God calls it "empty nothings," which characterize all the religions of the world. Religion is a man-made system used in place of a God-given Salvation. A true experience with God is a personal relationship with God, which can only come through an acceptance of Jesus Christ and what He did for us at the Cross [Lk. 9:23].)

8 If you see the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he who is higher than the highest regards; and there be higher than they. (The argument of this Verse is: if God, Who is higher than the kings of the Earth, temporarily permits oppression, His Child is not to be stumbled or be confused by this fact, but to accept the Divine purpose, realizing that God will ultimately call to justice those who "pervert judgment." No matter how high the king, president, etc., may be, God is "higher.")

9 Moreover the profit of the Earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field. (The Earth has the potential, we are told, to feed 100 billion people. Because of religion and the powers of darkness, it strains at present with the approximate population of 6-1/2 billion. In the coming Kingdom

Age, all of that will change.)

10 He who loves silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he who loves abundance with increase: this is also vanity. (Why? As man is a physical being, he is also a spiritual being. The soul and the spirit of man can only be satisfied by God, and not by silver or gold.)

11 When goods increase, they are increased who eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes? (Other than the food we eat, the clothes we wear, and a home to live in, plus whatever physical or material needs we may have, what actual good is there in great accumulation of properties and things? All that one can do is look at them.)

12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep. (The "rich" are constantly concerned about their abundance, so sleep oftentimes escapes their eyes.)

13 There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt. (This is the tragic story of so many!)

14 But those riches perish by evil travail: and he begets a son, and there is nothing in his hand. (If riches are all that a father can give a son, then he has really given him nothing. The greatest thing that one can give is Christ.)

15 As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand. (A very wealthy man died. As the funeral train passed, someone was heard to ask, "How much did he leave?" Another who stood nearby answered immediately, "He left it all"!)

16 And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and what profit has he who has laboured for the wind? (Man is born naked, and he leaves naked. If he has all of this world's goods and none of God, he will have "labored for the wind." Such characterizes almost all of humanity. That is the reason that Jesus instead told us to lay up treasures in Heaven [Mat. 6:19-20].)

17 All his days also he eats in darkness, and he has much sorrow and wrath with his sickness. (The Lord calls the grasping after riches a "sickness." He says that those who follow this course, no matter how rich they may be, are in "darkness.")

18 Behold that which I have seen: it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he takes under the sun all the days of his life, which God gives him: for it is his portion. (God means for men to enjoy life, "to enjoy the good." Such can be, but only if men will seek after the Lord, obey His Word, and seek His Will.

The "enjoyment" comes because of what God puts in the heart, and not what the person has accumulated or gathered.)

19 Every man also to whom God has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God. (In this Passage, we are told that God does in fact give some people "riches and wealth." Those to whom the Lord has given such must understand that it was done in order that such a person may bless the Kingdom of God.)

20 For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answers him in the joy of his heart. (The only things of his life that will be worth remembering are those things that are done for God.)

CHAPTER 6

(977 B.C.)

THE VANITY AND EVILS OF LIFE

[1] There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:

[2] A man to whom God has given riches, wealth, and honour, so that he wants nothing for his soul of all that he desires, yet God gives him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eats it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease. (The word "common" should read "heavy," for the misery described in Verses 2 through 7 is peculiar to the miser, and not to all men. The rich man of Verse 2 is to be distinguished from the rich man of 5:19. The one uses the given wealth legitimately; the other hoards it.

The moral of this statement is that any individual who seeks riches without God, of whom there are many, is laboring only for "vanity," which is "empty nothings.")

[3] If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and also that he have no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he. (The moral of this is that only God can make life what it ought to be.)

[4] For he comes in with vanity, and departs in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

[5] Moreover he has not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this has more rest than the other. (Three things are said in these two Verses: 1. Man "comes in with vanity," which is a result of the Fall; 2. "And departs in darkness," that is, if he doesn't know the Lord; and, 3. "And his name shall be covered with darkness." This means forever. Whether rich or poor, this is the state of the human race without God.)

6 Yes, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet has he seen no good: do not all go to one place? (The sense of this Passage is that irrespective of the length of life, without God, this will only point to wasted opportunities. He will go to the same "place" where every Christ-rejecter has gone!)

7 All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. (Man without God is never satisfied because all that he seeks to obtain cannot satisfy. Only Jesus can satisfy the soul [Jn. 4:13-14].)

8 For what has the wise more than the fool? what has the poor, who knows to walk before the living? (In both cases, the word "advantage" should be supplied after the word "what." The "wise" is one who knows the Lord, so his advantage is great, to say the least!)

9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit. (The unspiritual heart is never satisfied and is, therefore, ever the victim of "the wandering of the desire." He keeps thinking that if such-and-such can be obtained, then satisfaction and fulfillment will come. It won't!)

10 That which has been is named already, and it is known that it is man: neither may he contend with him who is mightier than he. (This Verse can be paraphrased: "Whatsoever he be, whether rich or poor, his name was given him long ago, and is known to be Adam" [a morsel of red dust]. So how can such a one contend with his Creator?)

11 Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man the better? (Irrespective of the fact that man uses "many words" in disputation with his Maker, such words only increase vanity and fail to better him.)

12 For who knows what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spends as a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun? (The Lord Alone can supply such answers; otherwise, there is no answer.)

CHAPTER 7

(977 B.C.)

CHOOSE THE BETTER THINGS

1 A good name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth. (The only truly "good name" is the Name of Christ, and the only ones who can truly say they have a "good name" are those who take the Name of Christ upon themselves.

To him who has this "good name," but only such a one, is the death-day better than the birthday, for it introduces him to a blissful and perfect life "above the sun" [Phil. 1:23].)

2 It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart. (To the flesh, this Passage seems wrong; however, the "house of mourning" has a tendency to show to us our true selves, to help us think more highly of others and, thereby, to humble us, which is better.)

3 Sorrow is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better. ("Sorrow" has a tendency to drive people to their knees. "Laughter" has a tendency to exalt self.)

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. (The "wise" are those who know their Bibles and, therefore, understand the gravity of the situation; consequently, to the "wise," the "house of mourning" speaks of intercessory and travailing prayer.)

5 It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools. (Man, and religious man above all, does not like to be rebuked, so he seeks out the "song of fools," which speaks of false doctrine.)

6 For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity. (A fire of thorns makes a great noise, but lasts only a short time; likewise, the "laughter of the fool" makes a great noise, but dies just as quickly.)

7 Surely oppression makes a wise man mad; and a gift destroys the heart. (The "wise man" is one who knows and understands the Bible. If such a one begins to "oppress" others and, at the same time, overlooks injustice done to another because he has taken bribes, he will then ultimately be driven to "madness." Sin against light is the worst sin of all.)

8 Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. (The sense of Verses 7 and 8 is that the follower of the Lord begins to look to the world and, thereby, ceases to look to the Lord, for both cannot be looked upon at the same time. By looking at the world, he begins to feel that he is not getting his just due, and that his living for God has not brought the prosperity he desires. So he succumbs to the wiles of the world.)

WISDOM IS BETTER THAN WEALTH

9 Be not hasty in your spirit to be angry: for anger rests in the bosom of fools. (All things done to us, irrespective as to how bad they might be, must be quickly turned over to the Lord. Let Him take care of the situation [Rom. 12:18-21].)

10 Say not you, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for you do not enquire wisely concerning this. (In this Passage, the Holy Spirit warns us not to complain of having fallen upon difficult days, for such irritation shows a want of Heavenly Wisdom and a questioning of the love that plans all things for man's good.)

11 Wisdom is good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit to them who see the sun. (The "wisdom" that is spoken of is that which is derived from the Word of God. An "inheritance" without such "wisdom" will bring no "profit.")

12 For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom gives life to them who have it. (This Passage tells us that "wisdom" is greater than "money." Wisdom shields from the ills of life, and so does money; however, money can be lost, but wisdom, never.)

13 Consider the Work of God: for who can make that straight, which He has made crooked? (The argument of these Verses is: if God sends adversity [makes a thing crooked], who can reverse His Decree and defeat His Will? Heavenly Wisdom teaches a joyful acceptance of His Will, if He grants prosperity; and an approbation of His Will, if He ordains adversity.)

14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also has set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him. (This Passage may be rendered in this way: "In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity be thankful. Consider that God has even made or set the one side by side with the other, so that man shall not find any cause of complaint against Him.")

SELF-RIGHTEOUSNESS

15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who prolongs his life in his wickedness. (First of all, this Passage does not mean that a man perishes because he is righteous; neither does it mean that a wicked man prolongs his life by being wicked. It does mean that some just men die at an early age, even though "righteous." As well, some men, despite their wickedness, live long lives.

We must leave such things in the Hands of God!)

16 Be not righteous over much; neither make yourself over wise: why should you destroy yourself? (There must not be any self-righteousness in the heart of the Believer, for such will destroy.)

17 Be not over much wicked, neither be you foolish: why should you die before your time? (This is not meant that it is satisfactory in the Eyes of God to be "wicked" in a small degree. It does mean that our situation is already perilous, and to aggravate our sinfulness could bring upon us the wrath of God, with our life cut short.)

[18] It is good that you should take hold of this; yes, also from this withdraw not your hand: for he who fears God shall come forth of them all. (A proper fear of God will destroy all self-righteousness.)

DO NOT TRUST IN MIGHT

[19] Wisdom strengthens the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city. (A city is far better off having ten wise men than ten mighty men; regrettably, the world has many "mighty men" and precious few "wise men.")

[20] For there is not a just man upon Earth, who does good, and sins not. (The moral of this Passage is that men, within themselves, are fatally flawed.

I wonder when the Church will look at these Verses and realize that humanistic psychology has no answer? Jesus Christ Alone, and what He did for us at the Cross, is the only answer [I Cor. 1:23; 2:2; Jn. 3:16].)

[21] Also take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest you hear your servant curse you *(we are importuned here to have a forbearing and forgiving spirit):

[22] For oftentimes also your own heart knows that you yourself likewise have cursed others. (Such instruction humbles us with a consciousness that all hearts are diseased by sin and are, in this sense, alike.)

DISCOVERIES OF A BACKSLIDER

[23] All this have I proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me. (Even with his great wisdom, wisdom given by God, Solomon still could not find a way to slake the thirst of the human heart outside of God.)

24 That which is far off, and exceeding deep, who can find it out? (That which is far off and exceeding deep is Heavenly Wisdom. It is impossible to be found out by Earthly wisdom.)

25 I applied my heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness (this Verse can be thus rendered: "I resumed by investigations, and I determined to ascertain and learn the cause of actions [the actions of self-righteousness on the one hand and of debauchery on the other], and to know the wickedness of folly and the extravagance of foolishness." No man in history has ever had the means to do this as Solomon had; therefore, God would turn his backslidings into instruction. Even with all of his "wisdom," he was unable to find the answers to the great questions of life outside of God, because there are no answers outside of God)**:

26 And I find more bitter than death the woman, whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoso pleases God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her. (In this Verse, the cause of self-righteousness and of profligacy is found to be idolatry. This is symbolized by a woman. Salvation by personal merit and immorality characterize idolatrous nations and people.)

27 Behold, this have I found, says the preacher, counting one by one, to find out the account (all of this is so given by the Holy Spirit that we may be instructed by Solomon's failures)**:

28 Which yet my soul seeks, but I find not: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found. (This all resulted from his exercise of self-will. He chose idolatrous women, and they corrupted him. Had he sought Divine guidance in the matter, God would have given him one wife, and he would have lived the experience that "he who finds a God-given wife finds a good thing."

Probably the one honest man of which he speaks was the Prophet Ahijah [I Ki. 11:29], but, doubtless, this is a prophetic utterance and points to the only human being Who was Perfect, the True Man, the Man, Christ Jesus.)

29 Lo, this only have I found, that God has made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions. (The declaration of this Verse is that God made Adam and Eve upright, but they and their children introduced many inventions, the most popular of which are idolatry and polygamy. Solomon suffered from these two.)

CHAPTER 8

(977 B.C.)

RESPECT FOR RULERS

[1] Who is as the wise man? and who knows the interpretation of a thing? a man's wisdom makes his face to shine, and the boldness of his face shall be changed. (When Christ, Who is Wisdom, lives by the Power of the Holy Spirit in the heart of man, man is made intelligent, and his face, naturally discontented and gloomy, is made bright and peaceful [Gal. 2:20].)

[2] I counsel you to keep the king's commandment, and that in regard of the oath of God. (This basically has to do with Psalm 89:35. Verses 3 through 5 prove that the Messiah is intended. The "King" is Christ!)

[3] Be not hasty to go out of His sight: stand not in an evil thing; for He does whatsoever pleases Him. (We should seek to please Christ in all things, which we can do only by constantly exhibiting Faith in Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross [Rom., Chpt. 6]. As well, Christ has the Power to do "whatsoever pleases Him," not whatsoever pleases us!)

[4] Where the word of a King is, there is power: and who may say unto Him, What do You? (Even though God will not answer the questions of prideful conceit, still, He will answer the questions of the broken, contrite, searching heart [Isa. 66:2].)

[5] Whoso keeps the commandment shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerns both time and judgment. (The Christian, though he knows there will be a day of judgment, feels no terror, because all has been committed to "the King.")

THE INEQUITIES OF LIFE

6 Because to every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him. (The "misery of man" is the guilt of unpardoned sin and the knowledge that a future day of reckoning is coming. That "misery" can only be assuaged at the Cross of Christ.)

7 For he knows not that which shall be: for who can tell him when it shall be? (No man knows "when" that time of judgment will come; however, the righteous man is not troubled, because he has committed the judgment to Christ.)

8 There is no man that has power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither has he power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those who are given to it. ("Wickedness" here means a way of salvation other than God's Way. Human priests offer dying men a salvation which they themselves have invented, and many Preachers also offer a salvation other than the Bible. Such "wickedness" will not deliver those who trust it.)

9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man rules over another to his own hurt. (To rule over another in the things of the Lord will ultimately bring hurt — both to the ruler and to the ruled. This is "the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes," which the Lord hates [Rev. 2:15].)

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity. (This pertains to the "wicked" dying in the false hope of a false plan of salvation.)

11 Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. (The government is morally and spiritually obligated to put down all "evil work," whether in the hearts and lives of individuals or in entire nations. To not do so will only increase the evil.)

12 Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them who fear God, which fear before Him (the "sinner" placed in his best position cannot begin to compare with the "well-being" of those who "fear God")**:

[13] But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he fears not before God. (Even though the days of the "wicked" can be prolonged, nevertheless, there will come a day that it will all end.)

[14] There is a vanity which is done upon the Earth; that there be just men, unto whom it happens according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity. (Irrespective as to how things may look on the surface, it is eternity to which one must look.)

[15] Then I commended mirth, because a man has no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God gives him under the sun. (The argument and teaching of the Book of Ecclesiastes is that going the opposite direction of the Lord is folly, for God exists and will bring every action into judgment.)

[16] When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the Earth: (for also there is that neither day nor night sees sleep with his eyes [some are so engrossed in their business that they cannot even sleep at night, which means there is no enjoyment in their business]**:)

[17] Then I beheld all the Work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yes farther; though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it. (To understand everything about God, even the wisest man is unable to do so. Neither are we meant to do so. We can know many things, but the only true thing worthwhile of knowing is that our soul is right with God.)

CHAPTER 9

ALL THINGS COME ALIKE TO ALL

[1] For all this I considered in my heart even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the Hand of God: no man knows either love or hatred by all that is before them. (The contrast between the "Work of God" in Verse 17 of the previous Chapter and the "works of man" in this Verse expresses the whole philosophy of life. All the "works" of both "the righteous" and "the wicked" "are in the Hand of God"; the Lord has total control, with all "love" and "hatred" measured by Him.)

[2] All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him who sacrifices, and to him who sacrifices not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he who swears, as he who fears an oath. (The modern confession message has attempted to do away with all the vicissitudes of life; it fails, as it must, because some trials are the Will of God.)

[3] This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yes, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. (The "one event" that Solomon is speaking of is death. It comes to all, irrespective of their being rich, poor, great, or small. Yet, despite this fact, men's hearts are filled with evil and madness, so long as they live without God.)

[4] For to him who is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion. (There is hope for Salvation only while the individual is alive. All opportunities for Salvation are on this side of the grave.)

5 For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not anything, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten.

6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun. (When the life on this Earth is ended, the soul and the spirit, whether of the wicked or the righteous dead, have no more earthly involvement, at least at this time.)

PRINCIPLES FOR LIVING

7 Go your way, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God now accepts your works. (The sense of this Verse is that in view of man's rebellion in the Garden of Eden, God has designed this life and existence and the hereafter accordingly. If man will understand that and give his heart to God, and, thereby, seek the Will of God for his life and existence, God will "accept his works." Consequently, there will be "joy" and a "merry heart.")

8 Let your garments be always white; and let your head lack no ointment. (Such can be done only in Christ!)

9 Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of the life of your vanity, which he has given you under the sun, all the days of your vanity: for that is your portion in this life, and in your labour which you take under the sun. (There is no profit in this life other than God. All else, irrespective of its seeming glory, riches, or grandeur, is "vanity." Over and over again, Solomon comes back to the futility of this life without God.)

10 Whatsoever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, where you go. (The word "grave" really speaks of "Sheol" or "Hell." This means that no earthly activity necessary to human life on this planet is carried on in Hell. Our Christianity should not be just a part of our lives, but all of our lives. "Do it with your might.")

11 I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happens to them all. (The words, "I returned," mean "I resumed my investigations." The moral is that the only sure thing is a life lived for God.)

12 For man also knows not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falls suddenly upon them. (The statement of this Verse is that man is suddenly ensnared by death, as birds and fish are by a net. This fact reveals his ignorance and his helplessness. How uncertain life is without God!)

WISDOM IS BETTER THAN STRENGTH

13 This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me (the "wisdom" of which he will now speak is from the Lord and brings about great good; but yet, it will be little appreciated; such is the Bible!)**:

14 There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it:

15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man. (This is a perfect analogy of the Word of God and its Power to deliver, and of the world, which quickly forgets that delivering Power.)

16 Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard. (There is no true "wisdom" outside of God. But sadly, this "wisdom" is despised, and its words are not heard.)

17 The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him who rules among fools. (The Lord Jesus Christ, by His Wisdom, i.e., "the Cross," delivered man from the power of "the great king" [Satan], and yet He is forgotten and despised by men.)

18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroys much good. (The "wisdom" addressed here is the Bible. It is better than "weapons of war."

However, as more and more men and women who do not know God and who do not believe His Word are installed in government, little by little, one can see them "destroying much good.")

CHAPTER 10

(977 B.C.)

WISDOM AND FOLLY

[1] Dead flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so does a little folly him who is in reputation for wisdom and honour. (One little inconsistency in the character of a renowned Believer destroys his testimony as effectually as a dead fly destroys the fragrance of a precious ointment. The greater the renown, the greater the damage.)

[3] Yes also, when he who is a fool walks by the way, his wisdom fails him, and he says to everyone that he is a fool. (Two types of wisdom are portrayed in these two Verses: 1. Wisdom that comes from the Bible alone and 2. Wisdom that comes from the world. The "right hand" speaks of power [Mat. 26:64] and, therefore, wisdom that comes from God. The "left hand" speaks of the power of this world; God says that all who follow it are "fools.")

[4] If the spirit of the ruler rise up against you, leave not your place; for yielding pacifies great offences. (The words, "leave not your place," mean that one does not assert oneself when attacked, but, by using gentleness, escapes worse evils. The true Christian will yield even in the face of great offenses, unless the offenses demand violation of the Word of God. If that be the case, he cannot "yield.")

[5] There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceeds from the ruler. (Solomon now speaks of "rulers" who do not use the wisdom of God in their appointments of people to high places. Such is the bane of society.)

6 Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place. (This is portrayed by king Ahasuerus' promoting of Haman to a place of "great dignity," while Mordecai, who was rich in wisdom and who had, in fact, saved the king's life, "sits in a low place," i.e., has a small place in government [Esther 3:1-2].)

7 I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the Earth. (Solomon had seen these things and instantly recognized the stupidity of rulers who did not wisely appoint their officials. Such all too often characterizes man's government.)

8 He who digs a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaks a hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

9 Whoso removes stones shall be hurt therewith; and he who cleaves wood shall be endangered thereby.

10 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct. (We should make the Lord a part of all of our doings, even those things which only seem to be menial.)

WISE MEN AND FOOLS

11 Surely the serpent will bite without enchantment; and a babbler is no better. (The argument of this Verse is that both a slanderer and a serpent should be skillfully avoided. The slanderer is looked at by the Lord the same as a snake.)

12 The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

14 A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him? (Human science multiplies books and theories and wearies itself in such labor. But its uselessness and ignorance concerning the great questions of life are demonstrated by its inability to declare the future.)

15 The labour of the foolish wearies every one of them, because he knows not how to go to the city. ("To go to the city" proverbially expresses the inability of a fool to find his way to even so conspicuous a place. Man is mentally and spiritually incapable of finding his way to the Holy City, hence the necessity of Divine Revelation.)

FOLLY IN HIGH PLACES

16 Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child, and your princes eat in the morning! (In the East, this speaks of neglect of duty, for that is the time that princes are supposed to have ministered justice at the gate of the city.)

17 Blessed are you, O land, when your king is the son of nobles, and your princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness! (The words, "eat in due season," mean that one is not to neglect duty in order to indulge appetite. Too many times public officials forget that they are servants of the people and use their office for personal gain as well as to engage in vice [drunkenness].)

18 By much slothfulness the building decays; and through idleness of the hands the house drops through. (The fabric of government and of the state are compared here to a neglected house which suffers serious damage when members of the government neglect duty and give themselves over to debauchery and pleasure. Such is the condition of too many countries in the world.)

19 A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes merry: but money answers all things. (This means "money responds to all things"; that is, money can procure all the luxuries needed for banquetings and revelings.

This Verse can be understood as a drunken reply of the princely revelers to the rebuke contained in Verse 18.)

[20] Curse not the king, no not in your thought; and curse not the rich in your bedchamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which has wings shall tell the matter. (Solomon, being a king, knew how that things said by others easily found way to his ears. We should take a lesson from such, which means to keep our mouths closed.)

CHAPTER 11

DOING GOOD THINGS

[1] Cast your bread upon the waters: for you shall find it after many days. (We have here the Promise of the Lord that every Blessing Promised will be fulfilled, even though some of the fulfillment may be "after many days." We are not to lose faith. The guarantee has been given.)

[2] Give a portion to seven, and also to eight; for you know not what evil shall be upon the Earth. (The number "seven" is God's number of Perfection. We are to give this Perfect Gospel to others. The number "eight" is the number of Resurrection. There is only one Gospel in the world that will guarantee a Resurrection, and I speak of the immediate life and the life to come, and that is the Gospel of Jesus Christ. To do what we can to take this Gospel to others must never be predicated on the "evil" that pervades the Earth. It is our business to "occupy" until He comes.)

[3] If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the Earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falls, there i t shall be. (Whatever position in which the Christian finds himself is an opportunity for the Blessings of the Lord, irrespective as to what that position might be. Many Christians always try to put themselves in another place. In other words, if they were in the other place, God could bless; however, the Holy Spirit tells us that it doesn't matter which way the tree falls, God is able to move in that particular situation. Believe Him and receive!)

[4] He who observes the wind shall not sow; and he who regards the clouds shall not reap. (The Christian who looks at circumstances, adverse situations, negatives, or any other so-called hindrance, is not exercising faith. We should "sow" and expect to "reap.")

5 As you know not what is the way of the Spirit, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her who is with child: even so you know not the Works of God Who makes all. (In this Verse, the Holy Spirit tells us that it is useless to try to find out exactly how God does things. His Power is infinite.

We do not know how "bones" can grow from sperm "in the womb of her who is with child." However, it happens, because God is the God of the impossible [Mat. 19:26]. So, believe Him despite circumstances.)

6 In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening withhold not your hand: for you know not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good. (Men exhibit great faith in the system of this world, even though they have absolutely no certainty of success or prosperity. "Surely," the Holy Spirit says, "we can exhibit as much faith in God!")

7 Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun:

8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that comes is vanity. (These Verses testify that youth and mature age, however richly provided with pleasures, are bound to lead to decrepitude and death; they are, therefore, vanity of vanities, if God be excluded.)

LIVE IN VIEW OF COMING JUDGMENT

9 Rejoice, O young man, in your youth; and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth, and walk in the ways of your heart, and in the sight of your eyes: but know you, that for all these things God will bring you into judgment. (While the young man is to rejoice in his youth, he is to always remember that sooner or later a "Judgment Day" is coming. Consequently, one should live one's life with that Judgment Day ever in view.)

10 Therefore remove sorrow from your heart, and put away evil from your flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity. (All dreams of early childhood outside of the Lord are vanity.)

CHAPTER 12

(977 B.C.)

REMEMBER YOUR CREATOR

[1] Remember now your Creator in the days of your youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when you shall say, I have no pleasure in them (in the "days of one's youth," how so few remember the Creator, and how so few are saved!);

[2] While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain (in youth, life appears all bright; if there is rain, sunshine quickly follows; but it is not so in old age; clouds then return after the rain; similarly, the mind loses its power of recovery and cheerfulness):

[3] In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those who look out of the windows be darkened (more than once in the Bible, "the house" figures the human body),

[4] And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low (the cry of a bird causes the aged to start; the power to distinguish melodies is lost; the nerve to climb, or even to walk, is broken; the hair turns white; the lightest load becomes a burden);

[5] Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goes to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets (if the Creator is not remembered in the days of one's youth, then there will be a fear to meet God. What will that "long home" be? Will it be Heaven, or will it be Hell?):

6 Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern. (All of this pictures the human body, which ultimately wears out.)

7 Then shall the dust return to the Earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God Who gave it. (The human body is made of dust, and goes back to dust at death; however, the human spirit then becomes the property of God. If redeemed, it will go to Heaven [II Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:22-23; Rev. 6:9-11]; if unredeemed, to Hell [Isa. 14:9; Lk. 16:19-31].)

HEED THE WORDS OF THE WISE

8 Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher; all is vanity. (Solomon, as "the Preacher," although in the later years losing his way with God, nevertheless, preached the most powerful evangelistic message ever preached, as recorded in this Book of Ecclesiastes.

Such are the disappointments, miseries, and mournful end of life, as viewed "under the sun" and independent of God; exceptional intelligence fittingly declares it all to be "vanity of vanities." The whole world should take notice!)

9 And moreover, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yes, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many Proverbs. (Solomon wrote some 3,000 Proverbs [I Ki. 4:32], of which less than 1,000 are included in the Book of Proverbs. Those that are in the Book are inspired of God and are the Wisdom of God. The others are the wisdom of Solomon and, thereby, not deemed worthy, even though no doubt brilliant, to be included among the Words of God.

The "knowledge" that Solomon "taught the people" was the "knowledge of God," which made Israel the greatest nation on the face of the Earth.)

10 The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth. (The eternal value of Sacred Writings is contrasted in Verses 9 through 12 with the worthlessness of human writings.)

11 The Words of the Wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd. (These are "Words" that one can depend on. They are called the "Words of the Wise," and are labeled as such throughout Proverbs and Ecclesiastes.

Today, these "Words" span from Genesis through Revelation. They begin with, "In the beginning God" [Gen. 1:1]. They end with the words, "The Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen." [Rev. 22:21].)

12 And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh. (Human writings, however numerous, lead nowhere and only produce weariness. The Divine Writings lead to Christ and to Heaven. They are Words of delight; they refresh and do not weary.)

CONCLUSION: THE CHIEF DUTIES OF MAN

13 Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep His Commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. (Having heard all that can be said in favor of trying to secure happiness in this life by the use of material agents, the conclusion is:

It is impossible; the only happy life is one in fellowship with God and the Bible; such fellowship produces the ideal man; any other life is madness, because there is a day coming when every action, however hidden, will be brought into the unsparing light of the Throne of God and judged, unless cleansed and covered by the Blood [I Jn. 1:7].)

14 For God shall bring every work into judg ment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. (The subject then of this Book is the folly of seeking happiness and fulfillment "under the sun," and that the possession of exceptional intelligence only renders more evident the folly and unhappiness of this quest.)

Song of Solomon

Chapters

1 — 2 — 3 — 4 — 5 — 6 — 7 — 8

CHAPTER 1

(1014 B.C.)

THE LOVE OF THE SHULAMITE FOR THE SHEPHERD

[1] The song of songs, which is Solomon's. (The interpretation of this "Song" belongs to Israel. She, as the unfaithful wife of the prophecies of Jeremiah and Ezekiel, has been judged. But she is to be new born as a pure virgin [Hos., Chpt. 2] and, as such, be betrothed to the Divine Solomon, become the wife of the Lamb, and reign with Him over the Millennial Earth. Consequently, the fulfillment of this Song belongs to that future time.

As in Ecclesiastes all is emptiness, so in the Song of Songs all is fullness. Christ and the world are contrasted.

In the one Book, the heart is too large for the portion; in the other, the portion is too large for the heart.

If in the Sacred Scriptures one Book may be spoken of as more sacred than another, then this Book could possibly be called the most sacred of all. It is the Holy of Holies of Communion with God. Although expressing Israel, it also carries the figure of a Bride and a Bridegroom, which is expressed in the love of Christ to the Believer and of the Believer to Christ. There is no sin and, therefore, no shame.)

[2] Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: for your love is better than wine. (The beautiful Shulamite speaks of her shepherd betrothed. To "kiss with the mouth" implies betrothal. The Reader must study this Book with the understanding that sin and shame are no more and, therefore, the love is pure.)

[3] Because of the savour of your good ointments your name is as ointment poured forth, therefore do the virgins love you. (In effect, the phrase,

“Your Name is as ointment poured forth,” refers to Christ.)

4 Draw me, we will run after you: the king has brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in you, we will remember your love more than wine: the upright love you. (Israel is portrayed here in this Song as the Bride of Christ, for Solomon is here a Type of Christ, which, needless to say, will not interfere with the Church. Also, in the coming Kingdom Age, Israel fits the harmony of other great allegories and Prophecies concerning the sons of Jacob.)

5 I am black, but comely, O you daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon. (As this Shulamite speaks, she is now addressing the daughters of Jerusalem. She confesses that she is as unlovely as the “tents of Kedar,” [meaning the black tent of the Arab]. But through the comeliness that has been put upon her, she is as the curtains of Solomon. So is the Believer in himself and in Christ.)

6 Look not upon me, because I am black, because the sun has looked upon me: my mother’s children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but my own vineyard have I not kept. (Likewise, Israel’s relatives, such as the Moabites and the Ammonites, treated her with disdain. In fact, such continues even unto this hour in the form of the Palestinians.)

7 Tell me, O you whom my soul loves, where you feed, where you make your flock to rest at noon: for why should I be as one who turns aside by the flocks of your companions? (In this Verse, the Bride cries out for a fellowship sweeter than that of her companions. Christian fellowship is sweet, but it is “veiled”; the heart desires the sweeter fellowship of the Bridegroom Himself.)

8 If you know not, O you fairest among women, go your way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed your kids beside the shepherds’ tents. (As the Shulamite speaks of her shepherd lover, the court ladies answer her. In her request as to where he is, they encourage her to be a little bolder and take her small flock of sheep to where he may be tending his sheep.

The scenario is as follows:

Both Solomon and the shepherd are types of Christ. The beautiful Shulamite girl is a type of Israel. So how can both be types of Christ?

The moral is this: before Israel can have Messiah King, she must accept Messiah Shepherd. This she would not do at the First Coming. But this she will do at the Second Coming.)

9 I have compared you, O my love, to a company of horses in Pharaoh's chariots.

10 Your cheeks are comely with rows of jewels, your neck with chains of gold.

11 We will make you borders of gold with studs of silver. (Solomon is now speaking, using terminology appropriate for that time. He declares her to be the fairest among women, and adds words of admiring love. He tells her that he will be most quickly found in the places of daily duty.)

THE SHULAMITE AND THE SHEPHERD TOGETHER

12 While the king sits at his table, my spikenard sends forth the smell thereof.

13 A bundle of myrrh is my wellbeloved unto me; he shall lie all night betwixt my breasts.

14 My beloved is unto me as a cluster of camphire in the vineyards of En-gedi. (In these three Verses, the Shulamite [the Bride] speaks to her shepherd lover. She has not responded to Solomon's overtures to her. Her heart responds rather to the young shepherd with whom she is deeply in love.)

15 Behold, you are fair, my love; behold, you are fair; you have doves' eyes. (Now the lowly shepherd speaks. He insists on the loveliness of the Bride in his eyes, repeating the declaration — emphasis being laid on the word “behold” and on the word “are.”)

16 Behold, you are fair, my beloved, yes, pleasant: also our bed is green.

17 The beams of our house are cedar, and our rafters of fir. (Now the Bride cries in response, “Behold, you are fair,” intimating that he alone was fair and she herself was unlovely.

In the east at noontide, shepherds rest upon a bed of green grass beneath the shade of pleasant trees, both cedar and fir. This is spoken of in these two Verses.)

CHAPTER 2

(1014 B.C.)

THE SHULAMITE AND THE SHEPHERD SPEAK OF THEIR MUTUAL LOVE

1 I am the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valleys. (Having spoken of the beauty of her Bridegroom and of this house of the forest, she humbly adds that she is no better than the rose of Sharon or the lily of the valley. These were the most common flowers of the field.

The Church is fond of referring to Christ as the "Rose of Sharon" and the "Lily of the Valley." And so He is! Everything that Christ will be to Israel in the coming glad day, so He is to the Church, and more. Therefore, every sweet expression that is applied by the Holy Spirit to Israel and Christ can be said, as well, of the Church and Christ.)

2 As the lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters. (In response to the statement of the Bride that she is a common field-flower, the Bridegroom replies that as beautiful as the daughters of Jerusalem may be, they are, in comparison with her, no better than thorns; she is, in his eyes, as a lily.

One lily, but many thorns! So it is; and so it has always been. God's People are a little flock, comparable to one lily; the unconverted are without number and are comparable to many thorns.)

3 As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste. (The following is that which is given to the Believer upon the acceptance of Christ:

1. "I sat down": in union with Him, there is rest.

2. “With great delight”: there is joy.

3. “His shadow”: there is shelter from the heat.

4. “His fruit was sweet to my taste”: in Christ, there is ample sustenance.)

4 He brought me to the banqueting house, and his banner over me was love. (Christian experience knows the truth of this, for all that the Bridegroom here is to the Bride, Christ is to the Believer.)

5 Stay me with flagons, comfort me with apples: for I am sick of love. (It is impossible to describe a love for and to Christ that contains such emotion that one is so overcome he must cry out to be strengthened under such spiritual emotion.)

6 His left hand is under my head, and his right hand does embrace me. (Such is the nature of communion. A word, or a look, or a thought suffices to break it, and the Bride resting here in a restful sleep upon the arm of the beloved is a very lovely picture of the Believer’s communion with Christ.)

THE LOVERS ARE SEPARATED; THEY SEEK AND FIND EACH OTHER

7 I charge you, O you daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that you stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

8 The voice of my beloved! behold, he comes leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills. (The strength of the love of the shepherd for the Shulamite is evidenced by his speedily overcoming all hindrances. He will run hastily to her.)

9 My beloved is like a roe or a young hart: behold, he stands behind our wall, he looks forth at the windows, showing himself through the lattice. (As Christ comes to us, sometimes His Face is dimmed; He is behind the lattice. Our thoughts are that if He were only near, the problems would vanish; however, there is a glorious purpose to His method. The next Verse tells us what that purpose is.)

10 My beloved spoke, and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away. (Him not showing Himself clearly [behind the lattice] is in order that we may come unto Him.)

11 For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone (the shepherd is telling his betrothed that hindrances such as the rains are now "over and gone"; he is attempting to draw her near.)**;

12 The flowers appear on the Earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land ("turtle" should read "turtle dove"; the entirety of this Passage speaks of the beginning of the great Kingdom Age; the "winter" [signifying terrible war and tribulation] is past, now "flowers appear on the Earth")**;

13 The fig tree puts forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away. (This speaks of the coming of the Lord [Mat. 24:28-31]. At that time, the Lord will bid Israel to come to Him, which she will. Zechariah, as possibly no other Prophet, spoke of this moment [Zech. 13:8-9].)

14 O my dove, who is in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see your countenance, let me hear your voice; for sweet is your voice, and your countenance is comely. (These are the tender words that Christ will speak unto wayward Israel at His Second Coming. These same words are given to the Church, as well.

That Christ should declare the Believer's face to be comely and the voice sweet is amazing love. He desires first to see the face and then to hear the voice. This is a tremendous encouragement to prayer. He loves to see His People drawing near to Him, and He loves to hear them speaking to Him.)

15 Take us the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines: for our vines have tender grapes. (Now, the Bride is speaking. Directly the Lord makes a manifestation of Himself to the soul, at once there is a conscious recognition of the little sins [little foxes] that hinder the grapes of testimony, and there is the desire to bring Christ practically into the daily life in order to set it right.

Only this type of nearness to Christ can point out the flaws that are otherwise hidden.)

16 My beloved is mine, and I am his: he feeds among the lilies.

17 Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be you like a roe or a young hart upon the mountains of Bether. (The Bride now establishes her heart in the knowledge of her union with him and where she will be sure of fellowship with him. She then prays that at dawn of day he will return quickly as a roe or a young hart over the mountains that then separate them.

Israel in that coming glad day will speak tenderly and kindly of the Lowly Shepherd Whom she once spurned.)

CHAPTER 3

SHE TELLS OF HER SEARCH

[1] By night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loves: I sought him, but I found him not. (Once the Lowly Shepherd, Christ, sought Israel; now Israel seeks "Him.")

[2] I will rise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loves: I sought him, but I found him not. (In the coming latter half of the Great Tribulation, Israel will greatly search for the Messiah, but, until the Second Coming, she will have to say, "I found Him not.")

[3] The watchmen who go about the city found me: to whom I said, Saw you him whom my soul loves? (Her full heart, like Mary's at the sepulcher, she assumes that everybody is interested in her beloved. She, therefore, does not mention his name to the watchmen. Just as the Angels at the tomb were uninteresting to Mary, so were the watchmen to the Bride. She rather sought "Him.")

[4] It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loves: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her who conceived me. (At long last, the Bride finds the Bridegroom. Two thousand years ago, she did not realize Who He was and rejected Him. Now, she knows Who He is and "will not let Him go.")

[5] I charge you, O you daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that you stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please. (Truly, Israel will go through a dark night of Tribulation during the time of "Jacob's Trouble" [Jer. 30:7]. Now that communion is restored and the heart brought into the joy, confidence, and rest of union with Christ, it is His Will that nothing should interrupt that rest.)

THE ARRIVAL OF HER BELOVED

6 Who is this who comes out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant? (The scene now changes from the Shepherd to Solomon. Verses 6 through 11 portray Solomon's procession back to Jerusalem from Shunem, the home of the Shulamite. With Solomon in his procession is the young Shulamite. He will endeavor to win her over with flatteries.)

7 Behold his bed, which is Solomon's; threescore valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel. (Sixty of the most valiant men of all Israel surround Solomon as his bodyguards. The word "bed" should have been translated "car of state" or "chariot.")

8 They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man has his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night. (Despite the greatness and glory of Solomon and of Israel, still, there was "fear in the night." Men's hearts are unspeakably evil; therefore, men who were "expert in war" were needed as guards.

However, in the coming glorious Kingdom Age, when Christ will reign supreme over the entirety of the world, there will be no "fear in the night" [Isa. 54:14].)

9 King Solomon made himself a chariot of the wood of Lebanon.

10 He made the pillars thereof of silver, the bottom thereof of gold, the covering of it of purple, the midst thereof being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem. (This chariot, no doubt, was a wonder to behold!)

11 Go forth, O you daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart. (In the coming Kingdom Age, this scene, with Solomon now as a Type of Christ, will no doubt be repeated many times and in many variations. The coming and going of Christ, Who will no doubt often travel all over the world, will be marked by striking celebration everywhere He goes.)

CHAPTER 4

THE SHEPHERD ADORES HIS BELOVED

[1] Behold, you are fair, my love; behold, you are fair; you have doves' eyes within your locks: your hair is as a flock of goats, that appear from mount Gilead. (All of this Chapter, with the exception of the Sixth and final Verses, pertains to Solomon, as he attempts to win the hand of the beautiful Shulamite.)

[2] Your teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, which came up from the washing; whereof every one bear twins, and none is barren among them. (This speaks of Israel at the beginning of the Kingdom Age and immediately after recognizing Christ as the Messiah and being washed of all her past iniquity [Zech. 13:1].

It is interesting that the Holy Spirit through Solomon would mention the phrase, "your teeth," concerning "sheep."

Sheep have no teeth except on the bottom jaw; therefore, they cannot tear flesh, but can only eat grass and the like. Therefore, at long last, Israel is docile, kind, and gracious. The warlike, rebellious spirit of Satan is now gone, and gone forever.

As well, all will be fruitful and productive with "none barren among them." Heretofore, almost all were "barren.")

[3] Your lips are like a thread of scarlet, and your speech is comely: your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within your locks. (The reddened "lips" speak of Israel's acceptance of Christ's sacrificial offering of Himself at Calvary. Whereas the "temples" of their foreheads were once hard like granite [Ps. 78:8], now, they are soft like a "pomegranate.")

4 Your neck is like the tower of David built for an armoury, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men. (The "bucklers" and "shields of mighty men" speak of Israel during the coming Kingdom Age, when she will, at long last, be the mightiest nation in the world.)

5 Your two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies. (A gazelle feeds not on, but among, the lilies. The best pasture is found there. This Verse not only points to the beauty of the Bride's form, but to the softness and gentleness of her character.)

6 Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense. (The speaker here is not Solomon, but the Shulamite. Her answer to all of his praises is modesty.)

7 You are all fair, my love; there is no spot in you. (Christ will have said these words to the Church a short time earlier [Eph. 5:27]. Now He will say these words to Israel.)

8 Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards. (Christ's call demands a forsaking of everything in order to be His.)

9 You have ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; you have ravished my heart with one of your eyes, with one chain of your neck. (The word "ravished" probably should have been rendered "emboldened." It means to "make courageous." Love in the beginning overpowers, but the general idea must be that of "smitten" or "captured.")

10 How fair is your love, my sister, my spouse! how much better is your love than wine! and the smell of your ointments than all spices! (Actually, these are the words of the Greater Son of David as He utters them to Israel, which will take place at the beginning of the Kingdom Age.)

11 Your lips, O my spouse, drop as the honeycomb: honey and milk are under your tongue; and the smell of your garments is like the smell of Lebanon. (The use of the term, "the smell of Lebanon," is interesting. It refers to the great cedars of Lebanon that grew in abundance. They were huge trees that were used for many purposes, not the least of which was to provide the great foundation timbers for the Temple.

However, what is being referred to here is something else entirely.

This type of tree gives forth a "smell" that is not at all offensive to the human nose and is actually very sweet and pleasant, but it has the very opposite effect upon serpents and certain types of insects. In other words, there are no snakes where these trees are!

The "smell" of religion, education, riches, or personal achievement is no offense at all to the Evil One, but the "smell of Lebanon," he cannot stand. That glorious aroma is Christ.)

12 A garden inclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a fountain sealed. (The idea of a paradise or garden is carried from the beginning of Scripture to the end, this symbol of perfect blessedness. It is found only in Christ, as Israel will ultimately see.)

13 Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; camphire, with spikenard,

14 Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices:

15 A fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, and streams from Lebanon. (Solomon continues to speak. The fragrances mentioned here speak of prayer, relationship, and worship [Ex. 30:23-25, 34-35].)

The "fountain of gardens" speaks of a life that produces fruit that is a holy and pleasant fragrance to the nostrils of our Lord.

The "well of living waters" speaks of the "well of water" springing up into "everlasting life" [Jn. 4:13-14].

The "streams from Lebanon" speak of the mighty Baptism with the Holy Spirit.)

16 Awake, O north wind; and come, you south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits. (This is the answer of the Bride to the lavish praises of Solomon. The north and south winds represent various influences from different quarters that flow gently over the garden and call forth the fragrance and fruits. There is a rich suggestion in such words.

However, the "spices" do not flow out except under extreme pressure, whether by cold or by heat, which speaks of the coming Great Tribulation, which will bring Israel to Christ [Mat. 24:21].)

CHAPTER 5

THE SHULAMITE AND HER BELOVED

[1] I am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O friends; drink, yes, drink abundantly, O beloved. (Now Solomon responds to the invitation of the last Verse of the last Chapter. He comes into the "garden." This symbolizes Christ coming to Israel at the beginning of the great Kingdom Age, after Israel has invited Him.

Whereas the first part of this Verse was spoken by Solomon, the last two lines are spoken by the Shulamite. The "friends" referred to here speak of all the Gentile world, who, at the beginning of the Kingdom Age, are invited to come and "drink, yea, drink abundantly" of the water of life freely [Rev. 22:17].)

[2] I sleep, but my heart wakes: it is the voice of my beloved who knocks, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night. (The lowly shepherd is now knocking. The Shulamite is now speaking, and referring back to her searchings of Chapter 3, Verses 1 through 4. She has been greatly moved by Solomon's appeal, but now her heart goes back to her lowly shepherd, who seeks her hand. This beautiful Passage speaks not only to Israel, but as well to the Church.)

[3] I have put off my coat; how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them? (The meaning is, "I have retired to rest; do not disturb me." Sloth, reluctance, ease, and lethargy here keep her back. How so true of both the individual soul and of the Church in spiritual decline!

Yes, she "washed her feet," but Christ did not wash them; consequently, in His Eyes, Whose Eyes alone matter, they are not clean.

How so much it portrays Israel of some 2,000 years ago; she was so holy in her own eyes that she refused her Messiah, the Lowly Shepherd, and accepted a robber [Jn. 18:40].)

4 My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels were moved for him. (The doors of ancient homes had in them a door-hole. If someone was anticipated, the bolt or lock could be left in the open position, where, by pressing it, the door would open.

How much the lowly shepherd loved her! How he tried to come to her!

As applied to the Saviour, what infinite suggestiveness! He would be with us; He not only knocks at the door, but is impatient to enter. He tries the lock and too often finds it locked. He is repelled. He is resisted. He is coldly excluded.

The four Gospels portray Christ trying in vain to reach Israel, but they would not. Too sadly, it describes the Church, as well.

The phrase, "my bowels were moved for him," could have been translated, "my heart was moved for him.")

5 I rose up to open to my beloved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with sweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock. (She should have been expecting him and, thereby, had the door open; however, it was locked. As well, she was asleep and did not hear the cry, "Behold, the Bridegroom cometh" [Mat. 25:5-6].

When she finally did arise, she ladened herself with all the accoutrements of religion. To her, it was "sweet smelling," but to the Lord it was not. How so much we make our preparations, and so much they are unacceptable to Him!)

6 I opened to my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: my soul failed when he spoke: I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer. (She took so long to open the door that whenever it finally was opened, he had "withdrawn himself." He was not interested in her religious preparations, but only in her.)

[7] The watchmen who went about the city found me, they smote me, they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me. (The "watchmen" in this case were the soldiers of the mighty Roman army, who "went about the city." That "city" was Jerusalem.

"They took my veil from me" speaks of Israel, who could have been the Bride of Christ. But, in that day of so long ago, she refused Him. Her "veil" was taken from her and she was made to wander from nation to nation exactly as Moses had prophesied that she would do [Deut. 28:64].)

[8] I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if you find my beloved, that you tell him, that I am sick of love. (Israel's cry for some 2,000 years, while scattered all over the world, was "next year, Jerusalem."

The phrase, "sick of love," refers to the hurt that has come to her because her love for Him has not been returned. In other words, "as He once sought me, I now seek Him."

This will happen in the last half of the Great Tribulation, when it looks like Israel will be totally annihilated by the Antichrist. She will then realize that her only Salvation is the coming of the Messiah. He will come!)

[9] What is your beloved more than another beloved, O you fairest among women? what is your beloved more than another beloved, that you do so charge us? (The court ladies, the "daughters of Jerusalem," answer her with sarcasm. Her "beloved" is the Lord Jesus Christ, Who they little recognize; consequently, the nations of the world have treated Israel this last 2,000 years with sarcasm and with disdain.

Even though the following Passages glowingly describe Him and are beautifully accurate, still, she does not realize that her beloved, the Lowly Shepherd, and the Great King are One and the Same.)

[10] My beloved is white and ruddy, the chiefest among ten thousand. (The Shulamite now speaks of her lowly shepherd. Strangely enough, the word "white" actually means "dark red," and corresponds to the Vision that John saw on the Isle of Patmos.

Truly, He is the "fairest among ten thousand.")

11 His head is as the most fine gold, his locks are bushy, and black as a raven.

12 His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters, washed with milk, and fitly set.

13 His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers: his lips like lilies, dropping sweet smelling myrrh.

14 His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl: his belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires.

15 His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold: his countenance is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.

16 His mouth is most sweet: yes, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem. (This description corresponds somewhat with the Visions of Daniel and John the Beloved in the Book of Revelation [Dan. 7:13-14; Rev. 1:12-16]. There are ten corporeal excellencies enumerated in this description; however, all of this, plus one thousand more, could not adequately portray the attributes of greatness and beauty in the Son of Man.

On a coming glad day, at the beginning of the Kingdom Age when Christ returns, Israel will then say to the "daughters of Jerusalem," whoever they may be, speaking of Christ, the One Who has nail-prints in His Hands, "this is my Beloved, this is my Friend.")

CHAPTER 6

MUTUAL PLEASURE

[1] Whither is your beloved gone, O you fairest among women? whither is your beloved turned aside? that we may seek him with you. (This Verse portrays the nations of the world who now are seeking after Christ. This will be at the beginning of the great Kingdom Age, when Israel [the Shulamite] finally accepts the Lowly Shepherd of Israel, the Lord Jesus Christ.)

[2] My beloved is gone down into his garden, to the beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

[3] I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine: he feeds among the lilies. (In 2:16, the Bride joyfully said, "My beloved is mine." But in this Third Verse, she says, with deeper and chastened intelligence and no longer able to think with satisfaction of her love to him, "I am my beloved's." She speaks not of Solomon, but of the lowly shepherd. This marks very real progress in the Spiritual Life and establishes the heart in the assurance of Salvation.

Two thousand years ago, Israel spoke of Christ in terms of hatred, anger, and murder. She accused Him to being an imposter. Now she says the very opposite.

To "feed in the gardens" speaks of the Second Adam, Who was, and is, the Tree of Life. In the first Garden, the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil was unfaithfully attended and, thereby, the Garden was destroyed. Now, the True Tree of Life, the Lord Jesus Christ, will be faithfully attended, and the Garden will be preserved forever.)

THE KING'S APPEAL

4 You are beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah, comely as Jerusalem, terrible as an army with banners. (Now Solomon, in all his splendor and glory, comes on the scene. He will once again attempt to draw the Shulamite away from her lowly shepherd betrothed.

He tells her how beautiful she is, likening her to the beauty of Jerusalem, which, to the Jewish heart, was unexcelled. He will use all his wiles to pull her away. He will not succeed, despite his riches, wisdom, splendor, and glory. In this beautiful spiritual soliloquy, she must accept the lowly shepherd.

Even though this incident no doubt happened to Solomon, with every incident being very real, still, the Holy Spirit used it to draw a picture of Israel's future. Israel would reject her Lowly Shepherd, the Lord Jesus Christ, and even crucify Him. Therefore, to be accepted by the Lord, she must, and without reservation, finally accept this Lowly Shepherd Whom she once spurned.

Even though in this soliloquy the lowly shepherd and Solomon are very different people, nevertheless, in the mind of the Spirit they are one and the same. Both are types of Christ. One figures the Shepherd, Who gave His Life for the world, including Israel, even though rejected and spurned by Israel. The other figures the victorious Christ, triumphant over all, as evidenced by Solomon.

In the spiritual sense, Israel must accept the Shepherd before she can have the King, and that she will do at the Second Coming.)

5 Turn away your eyes from me, for they have overcome me: your hair is as a flock of goats that appear from Gilead. (Solomon uses all of his flattery to appeal to her. He speaks of the beauty of her "eyes," because now she truly can see. The Shepherd came to "open the eyes of the blind" [Lk. 4:18].)

6 Your teeth are as a flock of sheep which go up from the washing, whereof every one bears twins, and there is not one barren among them. (Solomon now speaks to her as he did previously [4:2]. Israel in that coming glad day will be like a lamb, not like a bear or a lion. The Holy Spirit draws this analogy to show that Israel, in fact, had the spirit of a carnivorous animal when Jesus first came, but now has the spirit of a lamb.

7 As a piece of a pomegranate are your temples within your locks. (The forehead of Israel was once hard as granite, but now it is soft and tender like a "pomegranate.")

8 There are threescore queens, and four score concubines, and virgins without number. (These represent the Gentile nations that will flock to Christ in the Kingdom Age. But to Israel, and to Israel alone, He says the following:)

9 My dove, my undefiled is but one; she is the only one of her mother, she is the choice one of her who bore her. The daughters saw her, and blessed her; yes, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her. (Then Israel will be very special to Christ and to the world. The Gentile nations [daughters and concubines] will "bless her and praise her." Of the nations of the world in the coming Kingdom Age, she will be "the choice."

The phrase, "She is the only one of her mother," speaks of Isaac. That was the only one whom God called "your Seed," which actually spoke of Christ [Gen. 21:12].)

10 Who is she who looks forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners? (Israel has suffered much these past 2,000 years, actually more than any other nation has ever suffered. The world has not understood her role; neither has she understood her role.

However, the many Promises that God made to the Patriarchs, as well as to the Prophets, will finally be realized in that coming glad day. When she stands before Christ, she will be "fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners.")

11 I went down into the garden of nuts to see the fruits of the valley, and to see whether the vine flourished, and the pomegranates budded. (Verses 11 through 12 are spoken by the Shulamite. Solomon is making his boldest appeal, but without success. In effect, the Shulamite is telling Solomon that she is seeking her beloved lowly shepherd. As stated, in the spiritual sense, this must be done. Israel must accept the Lowly One before she can accept the Glorious One.)

12 Or ever I was aware, my soul made me like the chariots of Ammi-nadib. (She is saying that she is "aware" of Solomon's appeal to her, but that her "soul" is not bonded to Solomon. Instead, it is bonded to the lowly shepherd.)

13 Return, return, O Shulamite; return, return, that we may look upon you. What will you see in the Shulamite? As it were the company of two armies. (Here Solomon begs her to return so that he, as well as all his court, may look upon her beauty. It is the strongest appeal yet.

He will make one more appeal, as recorded in the next Chapter. She will spurn that as well.)

CHAPTER 7

[1] How beautiful are your feet with shoes, O prince's daughter! the joints of your thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cunning workman. (Solomon will now make his last and most powerful appeal to the Shulamite. He will address words of admiring love to the Bride. She is altogether perfect. The most minute scrutiny discovers no blemish in her.

To the pure in mind, this is sacred and precious. This section of the Song helps the Believer to realize how beautiful he is in the eyes of Christ; but it also fills him with humility, for he knows that his moral beauty is not his own, but rather Christ's comeliness put upon him.)

[2] Your navel is like a round goblet, which wants not liquor: your belly is like an heap of wheat set about with lilies. (If one will notice, the exclamation is totally different from that of sensual statements! As Verse 1 speaks of the creation of Israel [Gen. 12:1-3], Verse 2 describes Israel's form.)

[3] Your two breasts are like two young roes that are twins. (Israel, before Christ, could not nourish her children. Her spiritual condition was one of destitution, emaciation, and death. Jeremiah addressed this [Jer. 4:31].

Now Israel, because of her acceptance of Christ, will have what she could have had all along!)

[4] Your neck is as a tower of ivory; your eyes like the fishpools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbim: your nose is as the tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus.

[5] Your head upon you is like Carmel, and the hair of your head like purple; the king is held in the galleries. (If one is to notice, Israel's geography as a nation is described here.)

[6] How fair and how pleasant are you, O love, for delights! (In a sense, Jesus said the same thing to Israel at His First Advent. Tragically, Israel at that time was neither "fair" nor "pleasant," but rather evil. Even though He spoke kindly to them, they spoke harshly to Him [Jn. 8:48].

Thankfully and grandly, they will respond favorably on the coming glad Millennial Day, but only after much sorrow and trouble [Jer. 30:7].)

[7] This your stature is like to a palm tree, and your breasts to clusters of grapes. (In ancient times, the Palm Tree denoted the emblem of love, which characterizes Christ.

The "breasts" speak of the bearing of nourishing fruit, hence, "clusters of grapes" [Jn., Chpt. 15]. On that coming glad day of the Kingdom Age, Israel will at long last function according to her creation, which is to nourish the entirety of the world, which can only be done in Christ.)

[8] I said, I will go up to the palm tree, I will take hold of the boughs thereof: now also your breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of your nose like apples (the Lord delights in these "fruits of righteousness," which come forth from the life and love of His People; they will be the true adornment of Israel, and are to be the true adornment of the Church at present; the people of God are never so beautiful in the eyes of their Saviour as when they are covered with gifts and graces that are their active expression in the world; then it is when He Himself fills presently His Church, and then Israel, with His Presence)**;

[9] And the roof of your mouth like the best wine for my beloved, that goes down sweetly, causing the lips of those who are asleep to speak. (This Verse speaks of very intimate and close communion. The sense of this Passage is that even with the most intimate contact, there is no hint of disorder, vulgarity, uncleanliness, or distaste.

Only Christ can make one so lovely, so clean, so pure, and so holy.

When we read this Ninth Verse, we are reading the difference between man's broken cisterns that can hold no water [Jer. 2:13] and the Purity, Holiness, and Righteousness that only Christ can give.

In the coming Millennial Day, everyone will exclaim Israel's beauty. It will be the "beauty of holiness" [Ps. 29:2].)

THE SHEPHERD AND THE MAIDEN LOVER REUNITED

10 I am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me. (Solomon, with all his glory, riches, wisdom, and power, has made his most extravagant appeal to the Shulamite. She has spurned him, as she must.

Israel's major problem upon the First Advent of Christ was her desire for exaltation. She was not looking for a Lowly Peasant Shepherd Messiah. Instead, she wanted, and even demanded, a Triumphant Messiah [Jn. 6:15]. Consequently, she rejected her Messiah, crucified Him on the Cross, and thereby destroyed herself.

Nevertheless, the Promises of God made to the Patriarchs and Prophets remain firm. Those Prophecies concerning Israel's glad and future Restoration must be fulfilled [Isa. 4:2-4], but can be fulfilled only when she accepts the Lowly Shepherd, which she will at the Second Coming. Then she can be exalted.)

11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages. (The Shulamite now turns her back on all of Solomon's riches, glory, and beauty. She accepts the lowly station of the "field" and "villages."

These Verses also point forward to the time when Israel will go forth with Immanuel in this certainty and communion of His Love to enjoy the fruit of the Millennial Earth. It is the way of humility instead of the way of pride. It is the way that all must come; hence, not many mighty or noble are called! [I Cor. 1:26].)

12 Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine flourish, whether the tender grape appear, and the pomegranates bud forth: there will I give you my loves. (In the coming glad Millennial Day, all manner of precious fruit, new and old, will appear in restored Israel to delight the heart of Him Whom she at first rejected.

Now she understands her reason for being. As well, the follower of Christ should hear His Words in John, Chpt. 15, concerning the bearing of fruit and watching the "Vine" flourish.

We, like Israel, continue to try to bear fruit apart from the Vine. It cannot be done [Jn. 15:5].)

13 The mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates are all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for you, O my beloved. (The "mandrakes" were called "love flowers" or "love fruit." Now, as the Shulamite gives the "pleasant fruits" to "my beloved," likewise, Israel will one day finally give such to Christ. Israel thought that to be great she must be powerful. Now she learns that to be great she must be lowly.

So it is with the Christian. Then we will bear "much fruit.")

CHAPTER 8

(1014 B.C.)

THE LOVERS SPEAK; THE HAPPY ENDING

[1] O that you were as my brother, who sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find you without, I would kiss you; yes, I should not be despised. (It seems that in Verses 1 through 4 the Shulamite is speaking to Solomon concerning his appeal to her. In the spiritual sense, one can see the transformation that will take place in Israel. The desire will no longer be for glory and grandeur, but rather for the true love that she will find in her Lowly Shepherd. What a beautiful picture the Holy Spirit paints of Israel's coming Salvation!)

[2] I would lead you, and bring you into my mother's house, who would instruct me: I would cause you to drink of spiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate. (She would further desire that Solomon allow her to take him to her "mother's house," which harks back to the Patriarchs, and what the Lord originally intended Israel to be, and which she will be in the coming Kingdom Age.)

[3] His left hand should be under my head, and his right hand should embrace me. (In effect, she is saying that she will allow such affection only in the presence of her mother. So it says that Israel can have such intimate relationship with Christ only as they go back to the spirit of the Patriarchs.)

[4] I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that you stir not up, nor awake my love, until he please. (She calls to the "daughters of Jerusalem" that they seek no more her hand for Solomon. With kindness, yet firmly, she has made her decision. She will take the hand of the lowly peasant shepherd.

On that day when she charged the "daughters of Jerusalem" regarding the lowly shepherd, she painted a picture in type that would take thousands of years to fulfill, but would be as certain as God Himself, because He was actually the One Who painted this glorious and beautiful portrait. It is very soon to come to pass in totality.)

5 Who is this who comes up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? I raised you up under the apple tree: there your mother brought you forth: there she brought you forth who bore you. (The question of Verse 5 is asked by the "daughters of Jerusalem," that is, by the nations who will be redeemed in relationship with Jerusalem.

The picture presented in Verses 5 through 7 is most touching and gracious. The Bridegroom and the Bride are presented coming together up out of the wilderness; she is leaning upon Him, and we are permitted to hear their sweet converse. Hers is the weakness and His the strength. She leans on Him.

They have their backs to the wilderness and their faces toward the spice mountains. She is not alone. He accompanies her. Such is the relationship between Christ and the Believer.)

6 Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which have a most vehement flame. (The speaker in Verses 5 through 7 is the Beloved. He first reminds the Bride of where [in His Grace] He found her [Gen., Chpt. 3], and then gently hints at her past unfaithfulness in having given her heart and her arm to others, thus causing Him to suffer the bitter pains of a holy jealousy. He urges that for the future her heart and arm might be sealed for Him.

The "seal" is the signet ring, which means to "impress." It was sometimes carried by a string around the neck and on the breast and would, therefore, be near the heart [Gen. 38:18]. It was sometimes worn on the finger, as well.

The true Believer understands well such language. He knows that the maintenance of devout affection is not a matter of mere desire and will. The Lord Himself must help us with His blessed Gifts, the influence of His gracious Spirit, to overcome the feebleness and fickleness of a fallen heart. We want to be close to the heart of the Saviour. We want to be constantly in His Eye, so diligently employed in His Service, and so closely associated with the Work of His mighty Arm that we shall be ever receiving from Him the signs and evidences of His Approval and Affection. The priceless value of such love is described in I Cor. 13:3. It is an unquenchable flame; nothing can resist it.)

7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned. (This is the love of Christ setting its affections upon an object wholly unworthy of such affection. The corrupt Christian Church teaches that Divine love can be purchased by works of merit and that God's Justice and Pity can be bought with a sufficiency of money and so induce Him to release His suffering Children from the pains of a supposed purgatory that does not even exist.

The last line of this Verse may be understood to read, "he and it would utterly be condemned," that is, both the man and his money would be rejected in the effort to purchase the love of God.)

8 We have a little sister, and she has no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for? (Now the Shulamite's brothers will speak. They see her coming back on the arm of the lowly shepherd. They proclaim that they have known her all her life. They recall when she was "little" and had "no breasts," meaning no maturity.

The words of both Verses 8 through 9 do not seem to be words of endearment, but rather of sarcasm and contempt. These sons of her mother do not at all see in her what the Beloved sees. Likewise, the world little sees in the Believer what Christ sees!)

9 If she be a wall, we will build upon her a palace of silver: and if she be a door, we will inclose her with boards of cedar. (The brothers of the Shulamite were not speaking kindly of their sister. The word "little" in Verse 8 does not have an affectionate meaning. They claimed that she was neither "a wall" nor "a door" [of no use to exclude or to admit], that is, she was good for nothing.

However, what the nations of the world, represented by these brothers, could not see in Israel, Christ did, and what the world does not see in us, Christ does!)

[10] I am a wall, and my breasts like towers: then was I in his eyes as one who found favour. (Now the Shulamite speaks. She exalts in the consciousness that even though she is despised by her brothers, the children of their common mother, yet she is beautiful in the eyes of her Beloved.

Thus will Israel be beautiful in the eyes of her Beloved, Christ Jesus.

Only Grace can say, "I was in His Eyes as one who found favor."

In that coming glad day when Christ rescues Israel from the onslaught of Satan and finally restores her to a position of glory, it will not be because Israel was beautiful, lovely, or merited such. In fact, she merits nothing! Only Grace can function in such a climate.

The scene is now reversed. Christ originally came "despised and rejected of men" [Isa. 53:3], and Israel rejected Him.

Now, Israel will be "despised and rejected of men"; however, Christ will not reject her, but instead "in His Eyes they will find favor.")

[11] Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; he let out the vineyard unto keepers; every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

[12] My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: you, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred. (The contrast between the compulsion of Law and the compelling of love is set out in Verses 11 and 12. Solomon's tenants were bound to furnish the legal rent of the vineyard hired out to them, but love constrained the Bride to give the produce of her vineyard, while at the same time not forgetting what was justly due to the laborer.)

[13] You who dwell in the gardens, the companions hearken to your voice: cause me to hear it. (Now her Beloved Shepherd Bridegroom speaks. He says, "Your companions in the vineyard hear your voice. That is good, but speak to Me, 'cause Me to hear it!'"

Such is Christ's complaint today. Many speak to their companions in testimony and in the necessary ordering of Christian service, but they neglect private prayer and secret communion.

He wants to hear our voice! This is the second time that He has requested such, emphasizing the strong desire [2:14].

The word "jealousy," as found in Verse 6, is set in order in this Passage as well. While it is true that others needed to hear her story, still, more than all, He says, "Cause Me to hear it."

That He would even want to hear our voice is beyond our pale of understanding. What do we have to say to Him that could be of interest? Quite possibly it is not so much what we say, but the love with which we must say it!)

14 Make haste, my beloved, and be you like to a roe or to a young hart upon the mountains of spices. (The Song closes with the ardent cry of the Bride to the Bridegroom to hasten His return, to come as a roe or a young hart, that is, to come quickly.

Thus, this Book, the last of the poetic Books, corresponds to, and closes like, the Book of Revelation, the last of the Prophetic Books.

There the Bride says, "Come!" [Rev. 22:17]. And the Bridegroom answers, "Yes, I am coming." And the Bride repeats, "Do so! Come, Lord Jesus!"

The principal personages and the circumstances in the two Books are similar. The Bride, Israel, is despised and ill-treated by the sons, the nations. She and they are children of a common mother [compare 8:5 with Gen., Chpt. 3 and Ezek., Chpt. 16].

The Bridegroom is the Messiah. The Bride's vineyard is the Land of Israel. The Divine Solomon's vineyard is the Gentile world.

In the Book of Revelation, as in the Song of Songs, the Bridegroom descends into the wilderness, rescues His Bride from her persecutors, celebrates His marriage with her, establishes His Kingdom, and makes her His companion in His Glory.

All of this tells us that Christ Alone can satisfy the deepest longings of the human heart.)

CHAPTER 1

INTRODUCTION

[1] The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah. (Isaiah was a contemporary of Jonah, Amos, Hosea, and Micah. It is thought that he began to preach at about 15 years of age and died at about 85. Tradition says that Manasseh placed Isaiah in a hollow log and cut him in two [Heb. 11:37]. This great Book which bears his name was written about 800 years before Christ.

His Prophecies covered the entire or the partial reign of some four kings, as listed in the Text. [Every message was primarily related to Judah, Jerusalem, or to the Jews and their Holy City.]

He is called "the Millennial Prophet," having given more Prophecies concerning that coming grand day than any other Prophet. As well, he was quoted by Christ more than any other Prophet.

Of the four kings under whom Isaiah prophesied, "Hezekiah" was the Godliest.)

GOD'S CASE AGAINST JUDAH

[2] Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O Earth: for the LORD has spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against Me. (In this Verse, all nature is invoked to hear Jehovah make complaint of the ingratitude of His People. The invocation is cast in the same form which is so common in Deuteronomy [Deut. 4:26; 30:19; 31:28; 32:1] and seems to indicate familiarity with that Book.

To step out of the Song of Solomon into Isaiah is to pass from sunshine to shadow. The love that exults in the one laments in the other.

Actually, Isaiah is not the One actually speaking here, but rather Jehovah. The Prophet is only His mouthpiece.)

3 The ox knows his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel does not know, My People do not consider. (The meaning of this Verse seems to be, "My People do not consider Me, do not reflect on My relation to them as Lord and Master.")

4 Ah sinful nation, a people laden with in iquity, a seed of evildoers, children who are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward. (According to Isaiah, holiness is the most essential element of God's nature; hence, he would call Him "the Holy One of Israel."

In their forsaking the Lord, Judah did not renounce His worship, but actually continued it; however, it was reduced to a mere formality. The people "honored Him with their lips, while their hearts were far from Him" [Isa. 29:13].)

5 Why should you be stricken anymore? you will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment. (The statement of Verses 5 and 6 not only describes moral character, or rather the lack thereof, but also the severity of future just but unavailing punishment. Israel refused to repent notwithstanding such punishment.

The "head" and "heart" of Israel respectively represented the intellectual and moral natures. Israel had turned away from God in both her mind and heart.

The deadly "bruises" and "sores" of Israel, while but a spiritual analogy, still, could not be cured by anything except the Lord.)

7 Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

8 And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city. (The descriptions given in these two Verses were literally fulfilled about 175 years after this stern prediction; however, a prelude to its destruction by Babylon was rendered by the Edomites and the Philistines, who invaded Judea in the time of Ahaz [II Chron. 28:17-18].)

A CALL TO REPENTANCE

9 Except the LORD of Hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah. (In a sense, there were always two Israels. There was the "remnant" which served the Lord, and which was always very small; and the balance of Israel, which rebelled against the Lord. It is the same in the modern Church; consequently, every blessing experienced by Israel, whatever it may have been, was because of that "small remnant." Once again, it is the same in the modern Church.)

10 Hear the Word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the Law of our God, you people of Gomorrah. (The Holy Spirit likens Israel to "Sodom and Gomorrah." However, the people will meet the Prophecy of Isaiah with an appeal to the fact that they maintain all the outward ordinances of religion as required by the Law, and are, therefore, blameless. In response to this, the Prophet denounces such a pretense of religion as an aggravation of their sin, and then characterizes their whole worship as an "abomination.")

11 To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto Me? says the LORD: I am full of the Burnt Offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he goats. (The very worship which God Himself had commanded was debased by them and became an abomination in His Sight, because they looked to the ceremony instead of what the ceremony represented, namely, "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified.")

12 When you come to appear before Me, who has required this at your hand, to tread My Courts? (The Lord required more than mere bodily attendance and a trampling of His Courts with their feet, when their hearts were far from Him.)

13 Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto Me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting. (All the religious activity, which in fact was genuine and actually God-given, still, was emptied of all its significance and became hateful to God — a mere form; consequently, it was, as stated, an "abomination.")

14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts My soul hates: they are a trouble unto Me; I am weary to bear them. (The Hebrew word for "weary" is "la'ah," which means "to be disgusted, grieved, loathe.")

15 And when you spread forth your hands, I will hide My eyes from you: yes, when you make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood. (If their hands had been "spread forth" with a broken heart and with Repentance, the Lord would not have hidden His Eyes.)

GOD'S DEMANDS

16 Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before My eyes; cease to do evil (sin defiles, hence the need for a spiritual "washing"; defilement has always been felt by men universally wherever there has been any sense of sin; only the Blood of Jesus Christ, which in fact was symbolized by the animal sacrifices, can take away sin; however, Israel did not trust in what the sacrifices represented, but rather the ceremony itself, which God could never tolerate);

17 Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow. (The idea is, if a person is truly right with God, they will also treat their fellow man right.)

18 Come now, and let us reason together, says the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. (There is no greater invitation found in the Bible than this one given by the Holy Spirit through the Prophet Isaiah.

In this Passage, sins are spoken of as "scarlet." Such has a reference to blood-guiltiness. All sin is murder in some form, hence the blood-guiltiness.

This glorious Passage illustrates to us the eternal Truth that irrespective of the evil, wickedness, deception, and weight of sin, the Lord stands ready, upon proper confession and Repentance, to forgive all and, therefore, to cleanse all. As stated, this is done exclusively by Faith in Christ and His shed Blood [Eph. 2:13-18].)

19 If you be willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land:

20 But if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it. (This means, "If you consent in your wills and are also obedient in your actions."

The "eating of the good of the land" refers to blessing and Satan's not devouring the increase.

The idea is that God controls all. If we obey Him, blessing will be ours. If we do not obey Him, He will allow enemies to come in and "devour with a sword.")

21 How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers. (The word "judgment" does not refer here to the negative, but rather to the positive. It spoke of right doing and doing right which could only come from the Lord.

Jerusalem is not called here an idolatress, but rather one who has left her first love and turned to other attractions. Faithful once to her Lord, she has now cast Him off — she is as an adulterous wife; she no longer obeys or loves her husband.

This is identical to the modern Christian who makes something other than the Cross of Christ the object of his faith. The Holy Spirit through Paul referred to such as "spiritual adulterers" [Rom. 7:1-4].)

22 Your silver is become dross, your wine mixed with water (this means that the great men of Israel had deteriorated)**:

23 Your princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: everyone loves gifts, and follows after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither does the cause of the widow come unto them. ("Gifts" mean "bribes." God's Love perpetually appears throughout the Bible in indignant denunciation of injustice and hardness of heart toward the widow and fatherless.)

PROMISED RESTORATION

24 Therefore says the Lord, the LORD of Hosts, the Mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease Me of My adversaries, and avenge Me of My enemies (the title, "Mighty One of Israel," is peculiar to Isaiah; Verses 24 through 27 speak of the day, which is even yet to come, when Israel will be completely restored; it is the coming Kingdom Age)**:

25 And I will turn My Hand upon you, and purely purge away your dross, and take away all your sin (this Promise has to do with the Prophecy of Zechariah [Zech. 12:10]; it will take place at the Second Coming)**:

26 And I will restore your judges as at the first, and your counsellors as at the beginning: afterward you shall be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city. (The Lord is promising to bring back the time when the nation will renew its first love and be as it was in the days of David and the early days of Solomon. As stated, this will take place at the Second Coming, when Israel will then accept Christ as Saviour and Lord. However, it cannot happen until Jesus is accepted.)

27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness. (Jerusalem and Zion are the names of the only city that God has promised to redeem and to make His eternal, earthly capital. This will take place at the Second Advent of Christ.)

JUDAH'S JUDGMENT

28 And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they who forsake the LORD shall be consumed. (This Passage, among many others, completely refutes the doctrine of "Unconditional Eternal Security." This clearly refers to those who no longer have faith in the Lord, thereby rejecting Him, and doing so to the point of being destroyed. Men are warned not to forsake God [Deut. 12:19; 14:27].)

29 For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which you have desired, and you shall be confounded for the gardens that you have chosen. (The reference in Verses 29 through 31 is to idolatry. It is figured by "oaks" and "gardens." The garden probably was an imitation of the Garden of Eden, and the oak, of the Tree of Life.)

30 For you shall be as an oak whose leaf fades, and as a garden that has no water. (This is to be contrasted with the godly, whose "leaf shall not wither" [Ps. 1:3].)

31 And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them. ("Tow" referred to the fiber of flax or hemp, which had the idea of being fragile.

The word "maker" refers to the makers of pillars, or Asherahs, as idols.

This Verse speaks of eternal Hell, where all who rebel against God shall go [Ps. 9:17].)

CHAPTER 2

(760 B.C.)

IMMEDIATE JUDGMENT; FUTURE GLORY; THE MILLENNIUM

1 The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. (The word "saw," as used here by Isaiah, basically means the same thing as "Vision.")

2 And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD's House shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it. (Verses 2 through 4 in this Chapter correspond to Mic. 4:1-3. Micah's Prophecy was 17 years later than Isaiah's. Some wonder if the latter Prophet borrowed from the former, but this shows a want of intelligence. When God repeats a message, the repetition emphasizes its preciousness to Him and its importance to man.

In both of the Prophecies, Isaiah and Micah, the Lord reveals the character of the Kingdom He proposed to set up on the Earth; in the latter, it is repeated to the nations. All of this will take place in the coming Kingdom Age.)

3 And many people shall go and say, Come you, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the House of the God of Jacob; and He will teach us of His Ways, and we will walk in His Paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the Law, and the Word of the LORD from Jerusalem. (The "Law," as referred to here, has no reference to the Law of Moses, but rather to instruction, direction, and teaching. Again, this is the coming Kingdom Age, when the Messiah, "The Greater than Solomon," will rule the world by Wisdom, Grace, and Love.)

4 And He shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. (The words, "judge among," should read "arbitrate between", and "rebuke" would have been better translated "decide the disputes of." Man's courts of arbitration are doomed to failure, but, to Messiah's Court, success is promised here.)

JUDGMENT AND CHASTISEMENT BEFORE BLESSING

[5] O house of Jacob, come you, and let us walk in the light of the LORD. (Jacob was an unlovely person, who deserved nothing good and had nothing to offer, but was given everything by Christ. Such is Grace! The "light" mentioned here is God's moral teaching. It is the teaching of the Bible.)

[6] Therefore You have forsaken Your people the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers. (Instead of Judah being a "light" to the rest of the world, the world has now darkened Judah's "light." Instead of surrounding nations taking on Judah's ways of Godliness, which the Lord intended, Judah has taken on the world's ways of ungodliness.)

[7] Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots (the overaccumulation of wealth, the striking of partnerships with heathen nations, the multiplication of horses, and the making of idols were all strictly forbidden by the Mosaic Law)**:

[8] Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made (the sacred historians declare that both Uzziah and Jotham maintained the worship of Jehovah and disallowed idolatry [II Ki. 15:3, 34; II Chron. 26:4; 27:2], so what is spoken of here of private devotion is idol-worship)**:

[9] And the mean man bows down, and the great man humbles himself: therefore forgive them not. (The bowing down and humbling of this Verse refer to the adoration of images; "the mean man" and "the great man" figure all ranks of society. While outwardly loyal to the Law [1:11-15], they, like the Pharisees, were private idolaters [Lk. 16:14; Col. 3:5].)

THE DAY OF THE LORD

10 Enter into the rock, and hide you in the dust, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of His Majesty. (This proclamation is intended to humble the proud "mean man" and the proud "great man.")

11 The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the LORD Alone shall be exalted in that day. ("In that day" refers to the Second Advent. The "man with the lofty looks" is the Antichrist. He "shall be humbled." Jesus Christ Alone will "be exalted in that day.")

12 For the day of the LORD of Hosts shall be upon everyone who is proud and lofty, and upon everyone who is lifted up; and he shall be brought low (the very nature of the Antichrist and all who follow him will be "proud and lofty"; the Holy Spirit says, "he shall be brought low" [Rev., Chpt. 19]):

13 And upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan (these "cedars" and "oaks" are symbolic of mighty and powerful men who will throw in their lot with the "man of sin," attempting to annihilate Israel and take over the world; again, the Holy Spirit says that they will be brought down),

14 And upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up (once again, the "mountains" and "hills" stand for nations, kingdoms, and powers ruled by the great men of Verse 13; a blanket condemnation of all of man's efforts is enjoined here),

15 And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall (this speaks of the preparations, war efforts, and military armaments amassed for Israel's annihilation),

16 And upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant pictures.

(This refers to the mighty navies of the Antichrist and all preparations for war.

The "pleasant pictures" refer to their idols, which shall all be utterly destroyed.)

17 And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low: and the LORD Alone shall be exalted in that day. (This Passage is very similar to Verse 11, and is so intended by the Holy Spirit. The very nature of the Antichrist and his followers will be "pride." But he and all his minions "shall be made low.")

IDOLATRY ABOLISHED

18 And the idols He shall utterly abolish. (The "idol" spawning the "idols" will be the Antichrist, and all will be "utterly abolished," which will take place at the Second Coming.)

19 And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the Earth, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of His Majesty, when He arises to shake terribly the Earth. (This speaks of the Second Coming.)

20 In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats;

21 To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of His Majesty, when He arises to shake terribly the Earth. (For emphasis, the Holy Spirit repeats the admonition of the Nineteenth Verse in the latter portion of the Twenty-first Verse. The coming of the Lord will definitely "shake terribly the Earth." It will, and without doubt, be the most cataclysmic and momentous happening ever experienced on the face of this planet.)

22 Cease you from man, whose breath is in his nostrils: for wherein is he to be accounted of? (The judgment of Verses 12 through 21 had a partial fulfillment in the destruction of Jerusalem by the Babylonians. But its plenary fulfillment is described in Rev., Chpt. 6.

The first Verse, Verse 10, and the last Verse of this Message give the import which is the folly of dependence upon man and the wisdom of trusting the Messiah. As for man, he is the feeble creature of a moment, but the Messiah is an all-sufficient and eternal refuge.)

CHAPTER 3

JUDGMENT ON JUDAH

[1] For, behold, the Lord, the LORD of Hosts, does take away from Jerusalem and from Judah the stay and the staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water (the entirety of this particular Chapter refers to the coming Judgment, with Babylon used as God's instrument; the Prophecy would be fulfilled about 150 years into the future, even though Judah and Jerusalem did not know, at this time, exactly when it would come)**,

[2] The mighty man, and the man of war, the judge, and the prophet, and the prudent, and the ancient (the idea is once again presented that man is not to be trusted, but rather the Lord)**,

[3] The captain of fifty, and the honourable man, and the counsellor, and the cunning artificer, and the eloquent orator. (The Holy Spirit says to Judah and Jerusalem that irrespective of the talents and ability of the man in question, nevertheless, man, even the "honorable man," will fail. Once again, "trust God!")

[4] And I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them. (The word "children" would have been better translated "youths." This came to pass exactly as the Holy Spirit said:

The extreme youth of the later kings of Judah at that date of their accession is very remarkable. After Hezekiah, only one was as much as 25 years old when he came to the throne. Jehoahaz was 23 [II Ki. 24:18]; Jehoiachin, 18 [II Ki. 24:8]; Manasseh was 12 years old when he became king [II Ki. 21:1]; and Josiah was but 8 [II Ki. 22:1].)

[5] And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable. (Isaiah said that respect for the aged would disappear. Youths would set at naught the counsel of the aged.)

[6] When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, You have clothing, be you our ruler, and let this ruin be under your hand (the Prophecy was that the day would come when no one would want to serve in positions of leadership, because the situation seemed hopeless)**:

[7] In that day shall he swear, saying, I will not be an healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people. (And it came to pass exactly as the Holy Spirit predicted.)

[8] For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of His Glory. (The reason for this "ruin" is hereby given: "their tongue and their doings are against the LORD."

Backsliding is seldom, if ever, brought about by an explosion, but rather by leakage.)

[9] The show of their countenance does witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves. (Rebellion will quickly show itself on the "countenance," for all sin, in its final form, is rebellion against God.

The phrase, "they have rewarded evil unto themselves," refers to the "Ways of God" being perverted and turned by being compromised and diluted.)

[10] Say you to the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

[11] Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him. (The contrast is given here between the "righteous" and the "wicked." God will reward the "righteous," while bringing judgment upon the "wicked."

This portrays the fact that the Ways of the Lord are very clear and simple: obey and be blessed; disobey and be judged.)

12 As for My people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O My People, they which lead you cause you to err, and destroy the way of your paths.

13 The LORD stands up to plead, and stands to judge the people. ("To destroy [swallow up] the way of your paths" means to do away with the Bible as the rule of moral conduct. "Your paths" denote the "paths of righteousness" designed by God for His People [Ps. 23:3].)

14 The LORD will enter into judgment with the ancients of His People, and the princes thereof: for you have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

15 What mean you that you beat My People to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? says the Lord GOD of Hosts. (In these Passages, the Lord holds the leadership responsible for the oppression of the people, and especially of the poor.)

16 Moreover the LORD says, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet ("the daughters of Zion" are the female inhabitants of Jerusalem; the word "haughty" means that they are "proud"; the statement, "stretched forth necks and wanton eyes," indicates the desire to attract men's attention; they were shameless and immodest in this effort)**:

17 Therefore the Lord will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will discover their secret parts. (Basically, this refers to war, and the clothing being taken away by the victors, which would cause the women to suffer great shame and indignities.)

18 In that day the Lord will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their cauls, and their round tires like the moon,

19 The chains, and the bracelets, and the mufflers,

20 The bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the headbands, and the tablets, and the earrings,

21 The rings, and nose jewels,

22 The changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the wimples, and the crisping pins,

23 The glasses, and the fine linen, and the hoods, and the vails. (Judah and Jerusalem suffered all of these indignities when Nebuchadnezzar sacked Jerusalem and led God's people into captivity. This would happen about 150 years later.

However, due to the words, "in that day," the main thrust of this Prophecy refers to the coming Great Tribulation, when Israel will face threatened annihilation by the Antichrist [Mat. 24:21].)

24 And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet smell there shall be stink; and instead of a girdle a rent; and instead of well set hair baldness; and instead of a stomacher a girding of sackcloth; and burning instead of beauty. (The words, "in that day," continue to refer to the coming Great Tribulation. But again, it also happened during the siege by Nebuchadnezzar.)

25 Your men shall fall by the sword, and your mighty in the war.

26 And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she being desolate shall sit upon the ground. (Inasmuch as the words, "in that day," are given in Verse 18 and continued in Verse 1 of the following Chapter, which describes the coming Millennium, it is certain that the future fulfillment of this Prophecy concerns that coming terrible and yet glad day — terrible because of the horrible suffering that will come to Israel, and glad because of the resultant acceptance of the Saviour by Israel. It will be the time of the Second Coming of Jesus.)

CHAPTER 4

JERUSALEM'S GLORIOUS FUTURE: THE MILLENNIUM

[1] And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: only let us be called by your name, to take away our reproach. (Verses 1 and 2 refer to the Great Tribulation that is soon to come upon this Earth [Mat. 24:21], as well as the coming glorious Millennium.

As Isaiah's Prophecy continues, the Holy Spirit, after giving the horrors of the yet to come Great Tribulation, now continues with a glorious Word of Mercy.)

MESSIAH REIGNING

[2] In that day shall the Branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the Earth shall be excellent and comely for them who are escaped of Israel. (This is the coming Millennial Reign. The phrase, "are escaped of Israel," refers to the remnant which shall escape the future Tribulation and the Battle of Armageddon. The "Branch of the LORD" is Christ.)

A HOLY PEOPLE

[3] And it shall come to pass, that he who is left in Zion, and he who remains in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem (Israel, after a long night of thousands of years, will finally come home, but at great price [Zech. 14:16-21])**:

[4] When the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the Spirit of Judgment, and by the Spirit of Burning. (This speaks of the conversion of the Remnant, immediately after the Battle of Armageddon and the Second Coming. Israel, at that time, will be saved by accepting Jesus as Saviour.

The "Spirit of Judgment" and the "Spirit of Burning" have to do with the Office Work of the Holy Spirit. He will deal with Israel in Him bringing them to Christ in exactly the same manner that He has dealt with all men.)

GOD'S GLORY RESTORED

5 And the LORD will create upon every dwelling place of Mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory shall be a defence. (In that coming Glad Day, Jerusalem, and especially the Temple area, will be totally different from anything the world has ever known.

Hovering over Mount Zion will be a "pillar of cloud by day" and "fire by night," which will be eternal symbols and manifestations of His Presence. As Ezekiel said, "The LORD is there" [Ezek. 48:35].)

6 And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain. (All of this is Christ: the "Tabernacle," the "Shadow," the "Place of Refuge," and the "Covert."

All of this proves that Israel is going to be restored. In fact, the Church Age has almost come to its conclusion. It is being phased out, which will conclude with the Rapture, and Israel will be restored [Rom., Chpt. 11].)

CHAPTER 5

SONG OF GOD'S VINEYARD: A PARABLE OF JUDGMENT

[1] Now will I sing to My wellbeloved a song of My beloved touching His vineyard. My wellbeloved has a vineyard in a very fruitful hill (the first four Chapters were one complete Prophecy; now a new Prophecy by Isaiah begins; it has no connection to the previous Prophecy except in Message; the "vineyard" is Israel; the singer is "Elohim" and the "Beloved" is His Beloved Son [Lk., Chpt. 20])**:

[2] And He fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a winepress therein: and He looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes. (Isaiah is using metaphors to describe the "vineyard," i.e., "Israel." Despite all the work done regarding this vineyard, "it brought forth wild grapes." It should have been the choicest of fruit, but, instead, it brought forth a worthless product.)

[3] And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt Me and My vineyard.

[4] What could have been done more to My vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes? (In these Passages is an awful finality. When the Lord said there is nothing more He could do, this denotes an effort of retrieval that is far beyond our capacity to grasp or understand!)

[5] And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to My vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down:

6 And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned, nor digged; but there shall come up briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it. (As is obvious, there is now a change in the Message; the style becomes abrupt, the tone fierce and menacing. Consequently, the Lord did exactly what He said He would do. During the time of Nebuchadnezzar, and then in A.D. 70, all of this came to pass, and in most horrifying detail.

The "rain" spoken of concerns spiritual renewal. Since Israel's rejection of Christ, there has been no spiritual "rain" in any capacity. As well, she has brought forth "briars and thorns" in the spiritual sense.)

SIN OF JUDAH: GREED

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of Hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah His pleasant plant: and He looked for judgment, but behold oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry. (Instead of this "vineyard of the LORD" producing good and pleasant plants, it produced instead "oppression" and wickedness.)

8 Woe unto them who join house to house, who lay field to field, till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the Earth! (The expression "field to field" refers to covetousness. They were coveting more fields until they would own them all, so as to be great in the Earth. This is the first "Woe!")

9 In my ears said the LORD of Hosts, Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

10 Yes, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah. (The Lord had promised in the beginning that Israel would be a land of "milk and honey." Now, because of sin and rebellion, He promises "desolation."

Incidentally, the word "ephah" has reference concerning its total fulfillment in the Prophecy of Zechariah. It concerns Babylon being rebuilt "in the land of Shinar" [Zech. 5:5-11].

This is all because of the spiritual declension and fall of Israel. Even though this Prophecy was given nearly 2,800 years ago, truly the beginning of its fulfillment has already begun. Babylon will be rebuilt, whether the city or the system [Rev., Chpt. 18].)

DRUNKEN INDULGENCE

11 Woe unto them who rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them! (As the first "Woe!" was pronounced on covetousness, now a second "Woe!" is pronounced on pleasure-seekers. As well, this mirrors the modern Church [II Tim. 3:1-5].)

12 And the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but they regard not the Work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of His Hands. (The instruments of music are not condemned, but their wrong use is. The Blessings of God are the source of all the good things which have happened to us, but presently, even in the Churches, we no longer "consider the operation of His Hands.")

13 Therefore My People are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge: and their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst. (The "captivity" of which Isaiah speaks is a spiritual captivity that was already pandemic in the nation. The reason:

They had no "knowledge" of the Word of God.

If the modern Believer doesn't understand the Message of the Cross, which in effect is the story of the Bible, then spiritual captivity is the result. Freedom over the world, the flesh, and the Devil can be brought about only by Christ and what Christ did at the Cross, which gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work in one's life. All that is required of the Believer is to exhibit Faith in Christ and what Christ did at the Cross, and this on a perpetual basis [Rom. 6:3-14]. But the truth is that the modern Church has "knowledge" of many things, but little at all as it regards the Word of God.)

14 Therefore Hell has enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he who rejoices, shall descend into it. (The end result of this "captivity" is eternal Hell; consequently, the bottom line reads, "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" or eternal Hell.)

[15] And the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled (the sense of this Passage is that "pride" is the cause of Israel's sins, as well as our sins)**:

[16] But the LORD of Hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and God Who is Holy shall be sanctified in Righteousness. (This Passage means that the Holy God shows Himself to be Holy by Righteousness; by executing this righteous judgment on Jerusalem, the Holy God shows His Holiness. God must judge sin, either in Christ on the Cross, which is its rightful place, or else in the individual, which spells doom.)

[17] Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of the fat ones shall strangers eat. (The meaning is that human habitations will become pastures for animals, which is exactly what happened to the Holy Land.)

INIQUITIES AND APOSTASY

[18] Woe unto them who draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope (now the third "Woe!" is pronounced against those who openly pile up sin upon sin and scoff at God)**:

[19] Who say, Let Him make speed, and hasten His Work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it! (The implication of this Passage is chilling! Isaiah's Prophecies are being mocked by the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. They use one of Isaiah's favorite titles of God, not from any belief in Him, but rather in a mocking spirit.)

[20] Woe unto them who call evil good, and good evil; who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! (This is the fourth "Woe!" The idea is that Israel had so perverted the Scripture that anymore they didn't know right from wrong. Does it sound familiar?)

PRIDE, INTEMPERANCE, AND INJUSTICE

21 Woe unto them who are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight! (This is the fifth "Woe!" Self-conceit is the antithesis of humility; as humility is, in a certain sense, the crowning virtue, so is self-conceit a sort of finishing touch put to vice.)

22 Woe unto them who are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink:

23 Which justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him! (This is the sixth "Woe!" This seems to be a repetition of the second "Woe!" However, there is a marked difference!

This "Woe!" concerns the leaders of Judah. They are drinkers but do not succumb to their liquor; therefore, this sixth "Woe!" may be considered to be pronounced more upon their corruption than upon their drinking, and so is really quite distinct from the previous "Woe!")

GOD WILL BRING JUDGMENT ON JUDAH

24 Therefore as the fire devours the stubble, and the flame consumes the chaff, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the Law of the LORD of Hosts, and despised the Word of the Holy One of Israel. (Judgment is now pronounced, and will come in two directions — a judgment of ruin and destruction.

The phrase, "despised the Word," does not refer to the "written Word," but to the declarations of God by the mouth of His Prophets; however, in effect, much of what the Prophets said was included in the written Text.)

25 Therefore is the anger of the LORD kindled against His People, and

He has stretched forth His Hand against them, and has smitten them: and the hills did tremble, and their carcases were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this His Anger is not turned away, but His Hand is stretched out still. (These words imply that God's judgment upon Judah will not be a single stroke, but a continuous smiting, covering some considerable era of time.

The language used is meant to portray the coming horror in cataclysmic terms. There is to be no mistake concerning God's intentions.)

[26] And He will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss unto them from the end of the Earth: and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly (these Verses through Verse 30 portray the coming judgment by Babylon)**:

[27] None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken (the metaphor is meant to describe the power and fierceness of the attack of the enemy)**:

[28] Whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent, their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind (the Holy Spirit, looking ahead some 150 years into the future, would proclaim by Prophecy to Isaiah the coming judgment; all of this was given at this time in order that Judah might turn and repent; but sadly they did not, because they would not!)**:

[29] Their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions: yes, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it. (Again, this is meant to denote the fierceness of the intruder.)

[30] And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea: and if one look unto the land, behold darkness and sorrow, and the light is darkened in the heavens thereof. ("In that day" when the judgment proceeds and Judah looks to her own self for deliverance, she will behold nothing but "darkness and sorrow."

Judah's only help was God. Without Him, they had no hope. It is the same presently with individual Believers.)

CHAPTER 6

(760 B.C.)

ISAIAH'S VISION AND COMMISSION

[1] In the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the LORD sitting upon a Throne, high and lifted up, and His train filled the temple. (That which Isaiah saw, Who is Jehovah, was actually a preincarnate appearance of the Lord Jesus Christ, and is declared so by the Holy Spirit in Jn. 12:37-41. It places Jehovah, Jesus the Saviour, in the midst of guilty and lost men, just as He is seen at Golgotha, for there they crucified two thieves with Him, placing Him in their midst.

It is believed that king Uzziah died in 759 B.C.)

[2] Above it stood the Seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. (The word "Seraphim" means "fiery ones." This is the only mention of these celestial beings in Scripture. These Seraphim were stationed above the Throne of God and appear to have led in Divine Worship.

In the light of the Throne, Isaiah learned that he was a moral leper, that his people were moral lepers, and that they altogether were as vile as king Uzziah.

If the sinless Seraphim, in the Presence of the thrice-Holy Lord of Hosts, had to veil both their faces and their feet, then how hopeless was it for a moral leper such as Isaiah to stand in such a light!)

[3] And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of Hosts: the whole Earth is full of His Glory. (The phrase, "one cried," means "kept crying." Day and night they are saying, "Holy, Holy, Holy." The triple repetition of "Holy, Holy, Holy" has been understood in all ages of the Church as connected with the Doctrine of the Trinity.)

4 And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him who cried, and the House was filled with smoke. (First of all, let us look at the energy of the worship conducted here. So vigorous was this act that the thresholds of the Divine Temple shook, and the Holy Place was filled with smoke.)

5 Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of Hosts. (In Chpt. 5, Isaiah had pronounced six "Woes!" upon Judah; now he pronounces one on himself!

The sinless King of this Verse is to be contrasted with the leprous king of Verse 1.

The word "undone" means "justly doomed to death." Such thought is the product of true Repentance. What Isaiah saw produced in him a deep feeling of unworthiness.)

6 Then flew one of the Seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the Altar (Isaiah needed a cleansing and a covering of his sin. The living coal from off the Altar of Burnt Offering, symbolizing the fire of the Wrath of God and the Blood of the Lamb of God, when brought in contact with his "unclean lips," removed his iniquity and expiated his sin.

The "Altar" represented Calvary, to which sinful man is exposed before he can be cleansed and Saved. The essence of true conviction is a deep overwhelming concern over what I am, not so much what I have done or not done. It is more important what man is than what he has done, and man is a sinner.

Genuine moral cleansing must be carried out in the heart of the sinner in order to be saved, and that can only be accomplished by Faith in the shed Blood of Christ, of which this was a symbol [Rom. 3:24-25; Heb. 9:22; I Pet. 1:18-23; I Jn. 1:7-9])*:

7 And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this has touched your lips;

and your iniquity is taken away, and your sin purged. (There is no other way to be cleansed and expiated than through the Wrath of God and the Atoning Blood of Christ. These are revealed and glorified at Calvary. There, God judged sin infinitely and eternally in the Person of Christ, and His Precious Blood shed there is the one and only and perfect expiation for cleansing of sin.)

[8] Also I heard the Voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for Us? Then said I, Here am I; send me. (As in the case of Saul of Tarsus on the road to Damascus [Acts, Chpt. 9], true conversion manifested itself here in surrender and activity.

The pronoun "Us" suggests the Trinity.)

[9] And He said, Go, and tell this people, Hear you indeed, but understand not; and see you indeed, but perceive not. (The command was, "Go, and tell.")

[10] Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed. (Isaiah is commanded to effect, by his preaching, that which his preaching would in fact bring about. It would not awaken the people out of their apathy; it would not stir them to Repentance. Instead, it would only harden and deaden them. These words have a national as well as an individual application.

He was commanded to "Go," but yet he is told that there will be no favorable response.)

[11] Then said I, Lord, how long? And He answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate (the answer to the question of this Verse is found in Rom. 11:25; it is faith alone that could ask this question; this blindness will rest on Israel's heart until the consummation of the judgment inflicted on her)**,

[12] And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land. (This was fulfilled in totality. In A.D.

70, Israel was totally destroyed, with millions of Jews scattered all over the world, and remaining in that posture until 1948.)

[13] But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof. (The meaning of the first part of this Verse is that if there be only a tenth of the population left in the country, then this, too, shall be destined to further judgment and destruction. Yet there is a Holy Promise in this Passage!

The "teil tree" and the "oak tree" are types of trees which shoot up again from the stump after being cut down. There will remain a "holy seed" that will be hidden, a living root cherished by Israel's faithful God, and the day will come when that root will spring up into a greater and fairer tree than it ever was in the past [Rom. 11:16-18, 23-27].)

CHAPTER 7

THE ALLIANCE OF SYRIA AND ISRAEL AGAINST JUDAH

[1] And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it. (Ahaz was one of the most wicked kings who reigned in Judah, yet God would repeatedly speak to him, endeavoring to bring him to Repentance, but without success.

Pekah, the king of the Northern Kingdom of Israel, had the last prosperous reign in the ten-Tribe Kingdom of Israel. It began two years before Uzziah died and continued to the third year of the reign of Ahaz.

Rezin and Pekah desired to place on the throne of Judah a person in whom they could thoroughly depend. It was not really their design to conquer Judah, but only to change the king. But the Holy Spirit says, "They could not prevail against it.")

[2] And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim (another name for the Northern Kingdom of Israel). And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind. (The statement, "it was told the house of David," refers to the Promises that God made to David concerning his lineage continuing on the Throne unto the coming of the Messiah. Even though Judah completely lost her way and was taken over by the Babylonians, still, the Throne was preserved exactly as predicted.)

GOD'S PROMISE OF DELIVERANCE TO AHAZ

[3] Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, you, and Shear-jashub your son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field (Isaiah's child was to accompany him as a symbol in order that his name might carry a message of judgment and grace to the heart of king Ahaz. The little boy's name is "Shear-jashub," which means "a remnant shall return." It is thought that the Lord had told Isaiah by Revelation to give his son this name; it was given in order to testify of his faith, both in the threats and in the promises of which he had been made the mouthpiece)**;

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither be fainthearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah. (To an energetic, warlike, and capable monarch like Ahaz, king of the Southern Kingdom of Judah, the injunction to do nothing but believe was both trying and irritating.

To predict the destruction of both the Northern Kingdom of Israel and Syria within 65 years was the purpose of this Prophecy.

Also, to call the king of Israel merely "the son of Remaliah" was a sign of contempt by the Lord.)

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against you, saying,

6 Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal (the Scripture does not say who the son of Tabeal was, but no doubt he was a prince chosen by the kings of Syria and Ephraim to be king of Jerusalem and, thereby, their servant. This was the effort of Satan to do away with the lineage of David and replace him with their own king. Satan's design was to foil the Prophecy given to David concerning the Messiah coming through his family [II Sam. 7:12, 16].

In fact, until Judah was taken captive by Babylon nearly 200 years later, David's heirs continued to occupy the throne; however, even though David's house no longer occupied the throne after the Babylonian captivity, because there was no throne, the lineage continued. So Satan's attempt was foiled):

7 Thus says the Lord GOD, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass. (Actually, the statement says, "The Lord Jehovah declares it shall not stand," meaning that the plans of Syria and Israel against Judah would not succeed.)

8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If you will not believe, surely you shall not be established. (The implication here is that Syria and Ephraim [Israel] have merely human heads — the one, Rezin; the other, Pekah — but Judah, it is implied, has a Divine Head, even Jehovah.

Ahaz is given an opportunity to believe God and turn loose of the frail "arm of flesh" on which he was prone to trust. Yet the offer was given by the Lord in a somewhat negative way, since the Lord knew the evil heart of king Ahaz.

Distrust of this promise would lead him to take steps which would not tend to "establish" him, but would make his position even more insecure [II Ki. 16:7-18; II Chron. 28:16-20].)

10 Moreover the LORD spoke again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 Ask you a sign of the LORD your God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above. (Ahaz had no faith in God, so he would not ask for a sign. He really desired to have help from Assyria and, thereby, to continue in idolatry [II Ki. 16:7-8].)

12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD. (Such is "the flesh." It refuses a sign when offered one and demands a sign when refused one [Mk. 8:12].)

SIGN OF THE VIRGIN BIRTH; IMMANUEL: GOD WITH US

13 And he said, Hear you now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will you weary my God also? (To "weary" a man is to doubt his promises. Ahaz is in such a weak spiritual condition that he neither realizes nor understands the threat of Satan. It is not against Ahaz only, but also against the "house of David." Evil men are conspiring to move the "house of David.")

14 Therefore the Lord Himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a Son, and shall call His Name Immanuel. (Without a doubt, this Prophecy is one of the greatest, if not the greatest, in the Bible.

In Hebrew, the word "virgin" is "haalmah," which means "the virgin — the only one that ever was or ever will be a mother in this way."

The "Son" Who would be born would be the "Son of God." The word "Immanuel" means "God with us." Such was fulfilled in Christ.

This Prophecy was given by God as a rebuttal to the efforts of Satan working through the kings of Syria and Israel to unseat Ahaz. In other words, their efforts to make void the Promise of God given to David would come to naught.)

15 Butter and honey shall He eat, that He may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good. (The Prophecy actually was twofold: first of all, Isaiah's little son, a mere suckling of a child who was then present, served as the immediate sign. That sign pertained to the destruction of the kings of Syria and Ephraim, which would take place about 3 years later.

The greater part of the Prophecy concerned the virgin-born Child, Who would be born about 750 years later, Who, in effect, would be the Messiah.)

16 For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that you abhor shall be forsaken of both her kings. (The prediction here is that the two kings of Syria and Israel will be killed. This happened, as stated, about 3 years later [II Ki. 15:30].)

INVASION OF JUDAH BY ASSYRIA

17 The LORD shall bring upon you, and upon your people, and upon your father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria. (God, Who could read Ahaz's heart and its plans, addressed to him personally the message of this Verse. He tells him plainly that great as were the miseries suffered by the kingdoms since the disruption [the separation of Israel and Judah], they would be exceeded by those now about to come.)

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. (The phrase, "in that day," does not pertain here to the Millennium, as it often does, but speaks of Assyria and Egypt invading Judah.)

19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes. (The colorful description characterizes the totality of the overflowing army respecting its invasion of Judah.)

20 In the same day shall the Lord shave with a razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard. (All of this refers to total destruction upon Judah.)

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow, and two sheep;

22 And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat who is left in the land. (At first glance, these Passages seem to indicate abundance; however, they are really denoting poverty.

In his inscriptions, Tiglath-Pileser, the Assyria king, mentions his carrying off many thousands of horned cattle and sheep from the countries which he overran or conquered, which refers to these two Verses.)

23 And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place shall be, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, it shall even be for briers and thorns. (The general meaning seems to be that not even the best vineyards would be cultivated at that time [after the invasion of Assyria], but would lie in waste and grow only "briers and thorns.")

24 With arrows and with bows shall men come thither; because all the land shall become briers and thorns. (The references are to the land being depopulated because of war and its population being taken as slaves; therefore, desolation will rule.

What a sad commentary on the land that once flowed with "milk and honey"; a land that was God's choice land; a land that was the joy of the whole Earth. All of this was because of sin.)

25 And on all hills that shall be dug with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns: but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle. (The sense of this Verse is that the "briers and thorns" will be so thick in some areas of Judah that it will be difficult for one to even walk. Men will send their cattle into these places, as they alone will be able to penetrate such a congestion without harm.)

CHAPTER 8

(742 B.C.)

INVASION OF SYRIA AND ISRAEL BY ASSYRIA; THE PROPHETIC NAMES OF ISAIAH'S SONS

[1] Moreover the LORD said unto me, Take you a great roll, and write in it with a man's pen concerning Maher-shal'al-hash-baz. (Isaiah was to write upon the roll that he was to have another son, and that this little boy was to be a sign to Israel. His name, which is the longest in the Bible, literally means "plunder speeds, spoil hastens."

The tablet posted in a conspicuous place was to be read by all.)

[2] And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the Priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah. (Uriah the High Priest was Ahaz's colleague in idolatry [II Ki. 16:16]. Him attaching his signature to the tablet predicting the birth of Isaiah's symbolic child made the denial of the circumstances of the birth and its prediction impossible.

All of this shows that association with Godliness does not guarantee Godliness. Uriah the High Priest is intimately associated here with one of the greatest Prophets who ever lived, namely Isaiah, yet he would know none of Isaiah's Righteousness.)

[3] And I went unto the Prophetess; and she conceived, and bore a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Maher-shal'al-hash-baz. (Even though the term "the Prophetess" does not necessarily mean here that the wife of Isaiah uttered Prophecies, still, more than likely, the Lord did use her in this capacity.)

[4] For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria. (All of this was fulfilled a little bit short of two years after it was uttered. Even though the Scripture does not record this foray into Samaria, still, the inscriptions of Tiglath-Pileser, the Assyrian king, supplied the deficiency. They state that this monarch "sent the population, the goods of the people of Beth-Omri, and their furniture to the land of Assyria." This place was Samaria, i.e., "Israel.")

5 The LORD spoke also unto me again, saying (in view of the pointed and direct Prophecies of Isaiah given to him by the Lord, there was no excuse for Judah's continued rebellion against God. Proper Repentance on the part of Ahaz and Judah would have secured the help of the Lord rather than His judgment)**,

6 Forasmuch as this people refuses the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son (in essence, the Lord is saying that inasmuch as the Northern Kingdom of Israel preferred the Syrians, He would give them even more, the Assyrians; however, it would not be a pleasant trip.

The waters "that go softly" speak of Christ, as the "river strong and many" of Assyria speaks of Satan.

As well, Verses 7 and 8 also point forward to the time in the future when the Assyrian, i.e., the Antichrist, will conquer Immanuel's land [Dan. 11:45]);

7 Now therefore, behold, the Lord brings up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks ("the river" is the Euphrates. The overflow of the latter portion of the Verse speaks not only of the coming invasion by the Assyrians of Judah, but also looks forward to the coming Antichrist, who will attempt to completely destroy Israel)**:

JUDAH INVADED ALSO

8 And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, he shall reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of your land, O Immanuel. (This Prophecy as well has not only a near meaning, but also reaches into the far distant future of the Antichrist. The use of the word "Immanuel" speaks of the Antichrist, who will attempt to make this land his land. He will fail!

The statement, "He shall reach even to the neck," refers to the Assyrian attack stopping short of destroying Judah. The flood shall not submerge the head, but only rise as high as the neck. This was fulfilled under Hezekiah, when the Assyrians took most of Judah, but failed to take Jerusalem, the head.)

FALSE AND TRUE DEPENDENCE

9 Associate yourselves, O you people, and you shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all you of far countries: gird yourselves, and you shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and you shall be broken in pieces. ("Give ear, all you of far countries" refers to the outlying nations that are to witness the discomfiture of the Assyrian boast [II Chron. 32:21-23]. The Prophecy was fulfilled exactly as the Lord spoke through Isaiah.)

10 Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us. (No matter how clever the plan of the opposition against God's People, such would come to naught.)

11 For the LORD spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying (it was not merely idolatry against which Isaiah was warned, but that the whole spirit and tone of the society of his day was in conflict with Jehovah)**,

12 Say you not, A confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither fear you their fear, nor be afraid. (The word "ye" implies a transition from the singular to the plural. It implies that Isaiah did not stand totally alone, but had at least some followers, a "little flock."

The idea of the Verse is that the majority of the people favored an alliance with Assyria and, therefore, would accuse Isaiah and others of treason who did not support this cause, but in effect proclaimed trust in the Lord.)

13 Sanctify the LORD of Hosts Himself; and let Him be your fear, and let Him be your dread. (God is "sanctified" by being trusted [Num. 20:12]. These who feared Rezin of Syria and Pekah of Samaria, despite God's assurances that their designs should fail, did not believe in Him, and so did not "sanctify" Him.)

14 And He shall be for a Sanctuary; but for a Stone of stumbling and for a Rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. (A "Sanctuary" is a refuge, and something more. It is a Holy Refuge, a place which is a refuge because of its holiness.

The Prophecy is that both the "houses" of Israel and Judah would ultimately forsake Jehovah and find in Him a "snare" and a "Rock of offense."

As well, it is a direct Prophecy of the coming of the Messiah and His Ministry in Israel.

Christ is the "Sanctuary" to those who will believe Him — a place of safety. He would also be the "Stone of stumbling" and the "Rock of offense.")

15 And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken. (This refers to Israel's destruction by Titus in A.D. 70.)

16 Bind up the Testimony, seal the Law among My disciples. (These Words are still those of Jehovah and are addressed to His servant, Isaiah.

God commands that the Prophecy shall be written on a Scroll, which is then to be carefully tied with a string and sealed for future use. It is yet for an appointed time to be fulfilled.)

17 And I will wait upon the LORD, Who hides His face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for Him.

18 Behold, I and the children whom the LORD has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of Hosts, Who dwells in Mount Zion. (The phrase, "from the LORD of Hosts, Who dwells in Mount Zion," means that God had not left Zion. The Shechinah still rested between the Cherubim and the Holy of Holies. While this is so, God is still with His People — "Immanuel." Sadly, Judah took little advantage of the Glory and Grace that were in their midst.)

19 And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead? (Isaiah was speaking of those in Judah who were attempting to contact departed loved ones and claiming communication with the dead.

The question is: should not these individuals seek a Living God rather than dead people?)

20 To the Law and to the Testimony: if they speak not according to this Word, it is because there is no light in them. (The great question should always be, and about any situation, "Is it Biblical?")

21 And they shall pass through it, hardly bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king and their God, and look upward. (The prediction is that Judah would not blame themselves for their problems, but would rather blame God.)

22 And they shall look unto the Earth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness. (This "darkness" refers here to demon spirits.)

CHAPTER 9

(771 B.C.)

THE PROMISE OF THE COMING MESSIAH

[1] Nevertheless the dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the first He lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, and afterward did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee of the nations. (The translation from the Hebrew to the English is thought by some Scholars not to have been as sufficient as it could have been.

The major weakness in the translation of this Verse seems to be the latter part where it says, "and afterward did more grievously afflict her." This should have been translated, "So, in the latter time, He has brought honor on the way of the sea."

Actually, the "way of the sea" has reference to the "Sea of Galilee," where Christ carried out most of His Ministry.

The "Galilee of the nations" refers to the district where the far greater number of His Miracles were performed.)

[2] The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light: they who dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them has the light shined. (To the end of this Verse the Prophecy concerns itself with the First Advent. As well, Verses 1 and 2 were quoted by Matthew concerning Christ [Mat. 4:15-16].

The "darkness" spoken of here is called "the shadow of death." Such pictures acute bondage. The only panacea for this "darkness" is the "great light" of Christ.

This powerful Passage closes with the Word, "upon them has the light shined." How many are there in the world who do not fall into this category? How many are there who have never seen any "light"?

How many?)

3 You have multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy: they joy before you according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil. (The basic intent of this Verse pertains to Israel's coming rejection of the Lord Jesus Christ. They saw the "great light," but would not accept the "great light," and in fact crucified their Lord.

At the coming of Christ, the nation truly was "multiplied"; however, the "joy" was not increased, because the religious leadership of Israel rejected Christ. They could have had tremendous "joy," but they refused the Giver of joy and lost their way.)

4 For you have broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midian. (When Christ came, He would break the yoke of Satan off their shoulders, at least for those who would believe. The "yoke" addressed here is sin. The "oppressor" is the prince of darkness, who had well nigh brought all mankind under his dominion when Christ came.)

5 For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; but this shall be with burning and fuel of fire. (The Holy Spirit is telling Judah here to take their eyes off of military power, and look to the Lord. He Alone holds the answer!)

6 For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given: and the Government shall be upon His Shoulder: and His Name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. (This glorious Promise pertains not only to the First Advent, but to the Second Advent, as well.

The pronoun "us" refers to Israel. From the Seed of Abraham, which spawned the Jewish people, and hence ultimately the Messiah, the greatest Promise of all time would finally be fulfilled.

The phrase, "Government on His Shoulder," refers to the coming Kingdom Age, when Christ will rule and reign over the entirety of the Earth [Dan. 7:13-14; I Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 11:15; 20:4-10].)

[7] Of the increase of His Government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon His Kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even forever. The zeal of the LORD of Hosts will perform this. (The last phrase guarantees that what the Lord has promised, He will perform.

The first part of this Verse has reference to the fact that there will not be an immediate subjugation of the Earth upon the Lord's return, but that the Messiah's Kingdom shall ever increase more and more until it ultimately fills the world.)

JUDGMENT ON ISRAEL

[8] The Lord sent a word into Jacob, and it has lighted upon Israel. (The Holy Spirit here resumes the history of the nation from Chpt. 5.

At the close of Chpt. 5, the national history is interrupted in order to introduce the Messiah, for He was to spring out of Judah, that is, out of the Southern Kingdom.

The last section of this Prophecy [10:33; 12:6] presents the Messiah destroying the Antichrist and establishing the Kingdom of God in the Earth.)

[9] And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, who say in the pride and stoutness of heart (in this Passage, we find the cause of Israel's sin and rebellion against the Lord; the sin was "pride"; such is the foundation of all sin),

[10] The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones: the sycomores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars. (In this Verse, we have the defiance of the people against the judgments of God.

In effect, they are saying, "We have suffered moderate damage, but we will more than make up for it; we will replace all our losses with something better.") [11] Therefore the LORD shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and join his enemies together (the "adversaries" of Rezin, king of Damascus, were the Assyrians.

The pronoun "him" refers to Israel [Ephraim].

The "joining of the enemies together," which meant in opposition to Israel, was, in effect, the Lord's "confederation"); [12] The Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel with open mouth. For all this His anger is not turned away, but His hand is stretched out still. (This speaks of the Syrians coming from the east and the Philistines coming from the west.

The "stretched out hand" refers to either mercy or judgment. If they had repented, the judgment would have ceased. Inasmuch as they continued impenitent, the "hand" was "stretched out," not to save, but to smite.)

[13] For the people turned not unto Him Who smote them, neither do they seek the LORD of Hosts. ("Conversion," i.e., "turning around," ensures blessing, and speaks of Repentance; to refuse to turn around makes wrath certain.

Israel set herself to seek after Baal from the time of Ahab [I Ki. 16:31]. The reform of Jehu [II Ki. 10:28] had gone but skin-deep, for Baal was still "sought to" rather than Jehovah, when the final judgment came [II Ki. 17:16; Hos. 2:13].)

[14] Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, in one day. (This colorful expression refers to the whole nation, from the highest to the lowest.)

[15] The ancient and honourable, he is the head; and the prophet who teaches lies, he is the tail.

16 For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they who are led of them are destroyed. ("Leaders" in Verse 16 should read "flatterers"; these are the prophets of Verse 15. Like many Preachers of the present day, they flatter their congregations by preaching what the people like to hear instead of what God said.)

THE EVIL CONSEQUENCES OF SIN

17 Therefore the Lord shall have no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on their fatherless and widows: for everyone is an hypocrite and an evildoer, and every mouth speaks folly. For all this His anger is not turned away, but His hand is stretched out still. (The phrase, "His hand is stretched out still," is found some five times in the Book of Isaiah. It indicates that God's Anger is still strong and that His People had not responded to mercy or judgment; therefore, other judgments would have to come [5:25; 9:12, 17, 21; 10:4]. Each time a series of punishments is mentioned, it ends with this statement.)

18 For wickedness burns as the fire: it shall devour the briers and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest, and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke. (As the "wickedness" is total, likewise, the judgment will be total!)

19 Through the wrath of the LORD of Hosts is the land darkened, and the people shall be as the fuel of the fire: no man shall spare his brother. (The "land darkened" is not used in this fashion elsewhere in Scripture. The light they rejected will now turn to darkness.)

20 And he shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm (this Passage refers to the spirit and lust for blood that is permeating the entirety of the land; it is a time of looting, stealing, robbing, and murder, even of one's neighbors, as Israel had never seen)**:

21 Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together shall be against Judah. For all this His anger is not turned away, but His hand is stretched out still. (These two are mentioned as the two principal Tribes of the Northern Kingdom [I Chron. 9:3; II Chron. 30:1]. The meaning is that they would fight each other and then "join together against Judah.")

CHAPTER 10

(713 B.C.)

SINS OF LEADERS

1 Woe unto them who decree unrighteous decrees, and who write grievousness which they have prescribed;

2 To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of My people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless! (The Holy Spirit in these two Verses calls attention to the perversion of justice. The "poor" and the "widows" who were helpless were the classes who were the chief sufferers of this perversion of justice, and all caused by the declension of the spiritual leaders.

They were very careful to be legal in their doings, but the Lord truly saw their hearts and His answer was, "Woe unto them!")

JUDGMENT ON SIN

3 And what will you do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will you flee for help? and where will you leave your glory? (The "day of visitation" referred to the coming Judgment. Then there will be no one to help; the Lord through the Prophet is speaking of these religious leaders.)

4 Without Me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the dead. For all this His anger is not turned away, but His Hand is stretched out still. (The feebleness and misery of these unrighteous magistrates portrayed in Verses 1 and 2 are vividly pictured by viewing them as bowing down even to prisoners and falling before deadly, wounded men.

The Lord is saying that these "crooks" will have nowhere to flee, unless they shall crouch amid the captives who are being carried off or fall amid the slain.

The final phrase of this Fourth Verse is used several times by the Holy Spirit to denote the serious and severity of the situation.)

ASSYRIA, GOD'S ROD OF CHASTENING ON ISRAEL: ASSYRIA'S JUDGMENT FORETOLD

5 O Assyrian, the rod of My anger, and the staff in their hand is My indignation. (A new Prophecy begins with this Verse. Assyria, after being God's instrument to punish Israel, shall herself be punished in turn.)

6 I will send him against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of My wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets. (The "hypocritical nation" mentioned here is Ephraim, sometimes referred to as Samaria, or Israel, which was the ten-Tribe Northern Kingdom.)

7 Howbeit he means not so, neither does his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few. (The monuments record that "the nations not a few" that the Assyrian leader proposed to cut off were the Egyptians, the Libyans, and the Ethiopians. He believed himself to be a free agent, but it is shown here that he was but an instrument in the Hands of God. He exalted himself and meant to go beyond what God charged him to do; therefore, God destroyed him.)

8 For he said, Are not my princes altogether kings? (One mark of the superiority of Assyria to other countries was to be seen in the fact that her king had not mere officers, but vassal kings, under him, hence, the title "king of kings" assumed by so many Assyrian Monarchs.)

9 Is not Calno as Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria as Damascus? (This Verse should read, "Is not Calno as much mine as Carchemish?")

10 As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria (it is quite in accordance with Syrian ideas that the conquered countries should be called "kingdoms of the idols" [literally, "no gods"]. The Assyrian Monarchs regarded their own gods alone as really deserving of the name. Consequently, they made war very much with the object of proving the superiority of their deities over those of their neighbors — hence, their practice of carrying off the idols from the various cities which they conquered, or else of inscribing on them "the praises of Asshur")**;

11 Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols? (This Prophecy was probably uttered during the reign of Ahaz, when that wicked king and all Judah had turned to idols, which was about 30 years before the Assyrian invasion. This Prophecy attests the inspiration of the Bible. No political forecast, however clever, could predict with such minuteness the actions and words of a king these years beforehand.)

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that when the Lord has performed His whole Work upon Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks. (The "work" assigned to Assyria by the Lord was the destruction of the Northern Kingdom of Israel, and a share in the trial, punishment, and discipline of Judah. The last task seems to have been the humiliation of Manasseh, which brought about his Repentance [II Chron. 33:11-13].

However, the king of Assyria overstepped his bounds, and so the Lord promised to destroy him, which He ultimately did.)

13 For he said, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man (the vainglorious language of the Assyrian king corresponds with that found on the monuments; this is one of the numberless, undesigned testimonies to the antiquity and truthfulness of the Book of Isaiah)**:

14 And my hand has found as a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathers eggs that are left, have I gathered all the Earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped. (The Assyrians were fond of comparing their enemies to birds. The word "peeped" refers to the inhabitants of these particular nations who offered not so much as even a feeble resistance that a bird would make when its nest is robbed.)

15 Shall the axe boast itself against him who hews therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him who shakes it? as if the rod should shake itself against them who lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were no wood. (For Assyria to assert herself as if she were independent of God is like a rod attempting to sway the hand that holds it.)

16 Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of Hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire. (In this Passage, the Lord says that the glory and pride of the king of Assyria shall be destroyed like a great fire consuming the fuel.)

17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briers in one day (the "Light of Israel" is a Messianic title. The phrase, "In one day," refers to the destroying by an Angel of the Lord of 185,000 of Assyria's best soldiers, and all in one day. Therefore, it came to pass exactly as prophesied [II Ki. 19:35]. Israel's [Judah's] "Light" was not an idol made of stone or wood, but instead was Jehovah)**;

18 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body: and they shall be as when a standardbearer faints. (Here it is predicted about 30 years beforehand the manner of the death which struck the Assyrian host at Lachish.)

19 And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, that a child may write them. (Both Verses 18 and 19 refer to the Angel of the Lord smiting the 185,000 of the Assyrian army in one night and of few being left. Actually, the Prophecy says, and it was carried out, that so few survived that a lad could count them.)

20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him who smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in Truth. (All of these Passages, beginning with Verse 5, have reference to the Assyrian Monarch, Sennacherib. They will as well have reference to the coming Antichrist.

The pronoun "him" refers to the Assyrian king. Judah leaned upon him [Sennacherib] in the past, and will lean upon him [Antichrist] in the future, but never again, for she will lean upon the Messiah in Truth, i.e., sincerely. He Alone is Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel.)

21 The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the Mighty God. (The Messiah is entitled here "The Mighty God," because He is "The Mighty God."

The "remnant" refers to the Jews who will be left after the Battle of Armageddon. They will come to the Lord.)

22 For though your people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return: the consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness. (Verses 22 and 23 are exegetical of the term "remnant" and bring out its full force. The Promise had been made to Abraham that his seed should be "like the sand of the sea for multitude" [Gen. 22:17]. This Promise had been fulfilled [I Ki. 4:20], but now the sins of the people would produce a reversal of it. It would be a "remnant," and only a "remnant," of the nation who would escape. Judah, in the time of Hezekiah and in the time of the Coming of the Lord, would have to make a fresh start, as from a new beginning [Ezra 2:64].)

23 For the Lord GOD of Hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the land. (This will take place at the Second Coming.)

24 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD of Hosts, O My people who dwell in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite you with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against you, after the manner of Egypt. (This Passage speaks of the invasion of Sennacherib and also of the future invasion of the Antichrist.)

[25] For yet a very little while, and the indignation shall cease, and My anger in their destruction. (This refers to the coming Great Tribulation, and that it will be only for a very short time in duration.

The "anger" and "destruction" spoken of here refer to God's "anger" against the Antichrist and God's "destruction" of this evil one.)

[26] And the LORD of Hosts shall stir up a scourge for him according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt. (The word "Scourge" should be printed with a capital "S," for it is here a Messianic title. Christ will be a "Scourge" against the Antichrist [II Thess. 2:8].)

[27] And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall be taken away from off your shoulder, and his yoke from off your neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing. (The words, "because of the anointing," should have been translated "by reason of the appearing of the Anointed One," Christ.)

[28] He is come to Aiath, he is passed to Migron; at Michmash he has laid up his carriages *(in a Passage of magnificent poetic Prophesy in Verses 28 through 32, Isaiah, in a vision, describes the approach of the Antichrist and his hosts against Jerusalem. The march of Sennacherib and his army in the days of Hezekiah was a foreshadowing of this greater future danger):

[29] They are gone over the passage: they have taken up their lodging at Geba; Ramah is afraid; Gibeah of Saul is fled.

[30] Lift up your voice, O daughter of Gallim: cause it to be heard unto Laish, O poor Anathoth. (Anathoth was Jeremiah's birthplace. These too were near Jerusalem, which no doubt the Antichrist will occupy upon his invasion of Jerusalem [Ezek., Chpts. 38-39].)

[31] Madmenah is removed; the inhabitants of Gebim gather themselves to flee. (These villages were near Jerusalem toward the north. Their inhabitants flee as the Assyrian [Antichrist] approaches.)

32 As yet shall he remain at Nob that day: he shall shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem. (It is believed that "Nob," which was a city of Priests, and only a few miles from Jerusalem, will be the headquarters of the Antichrist while he is seeking to take Jerusalem [Zech. 14:1-5; Lk. 21:20-24; Rev. 11:1-2]. This is where he will shake his fist at Mount Zion.)

33 Behold, the Lord, the LORD of Hosts, shall lop the bough with terror: and the high ones of stature shall be hewn down, and the haughty shall be humbled. (The "haughty" speaks of the Antichrist and how he will be "humbled" by the Lord Jesus Christ.)

34 And He shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a Mighty One. ("He" refers to Jehovah. "A Mighty One" refers to the "the Anointed One."

The word "Lebanon" refers to its great cedar trees, which the Antichrist envisions himself like; however, he will "fall.")

CHAPTER 11

(713 B.C.)

THE RIGHTEOUS REIGN OF THE BRANCH (THE MESSIAH) OUT OF JESSE'S ROOTS

[1] And there shall come forth a Rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots (this Verse has to do with the Incarnation, with the balance of the Chapter referring to the glorious reign of Christ during the Millennium. The word "Rod," in this instance, refers to a "tender branch," which means a tender shoot sprouting out of the root of a dead, fallen tree, referring both to humanity in general and Israel in particular. Jesse was David's father, and through this family the Messiah would come; and so He did!)**:

[2] And the Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon Him (upon Christ), the Spirit of Wisdom and Understanding, the Spirit of Counsel and Might, the Spirit of Knowledge and of the fear of the LORD (this proclaims the Perfection of the Holy Spirit in all His attributes listed here resting upon the Messiah)**;

[3] And shall make Him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD: and He shall not judge after the sight of His Eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of His Ears (the words, "quick understanding," would probably have been better translated "the breath of His nostrils shall be in the Fear of the LORD." It suggests a disposition instinct with delight in God and fragrant with God [Gen. 8:21]. As a result, His Judgment of all things will be perfect)**:

[4] But with Righteousness shall He judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the Earth: and He shall smite the Earth with the rod of His Mouth, and with the breath of His Lips shall He kill the wicked. (The "smiting of the Earth" might be better stated "the oppressor of the land," referring to the Antichrist. The word "reprove" means "to set right with equity" or "to administer justice on behalf of the meek.")

5 And Righteousness shall be the girdle of His Loins, and Faithfulness the girdle of His Reins. (This Verse presents Immanuel as Priest. The "loins" speak of the physical, with the "reins" speaking of the heart and, therefore, the spiritual. For the first time, the human family in Christ will witness perfection. In fact, the Man Christ Jesus will be girdled with Perfection.)

CONDITIONS DURING THE MILLENNIUM

6 The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. (The character and nature of the planet, including its occupants and even the animal creation, will revert to their posture as before the Fall.)

7 And the cow and the bear shall feed *(feed together); their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. (This Passage plainly tells us that the carnivorous nature of the animal kingdom will be totally and eternally changed.)

8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice' den. (Even though some of the curse will remain on the serpent in the Millennium, in that he continues to writhe in the dust, still, the deadly part will be removed [Gen. 3:14].)

EXTENT OF MESSIAH'S REIGN

9 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain: for the Earth shall be full of the Knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea. (The "holy mountain" refers to the dwelling place of Christ during the Kingdom Age, which will be Jerusalem. And from that vantage point shall go out the "knowledge of the LORD," which will cover the entirety of the Earth.)

10 And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and His rest shall be glorious. (The words, "in that day," as in most cases, refer to the Great Tribulation, the Battle of Armageddon, the Second Coming of the Lord, and the coming Kingdom Age.

The "root of Jesse" refers to David and the Promise made by the Lord to David in II Sam., Chpt. 7. Hence, Christ is really the "root of Jesse," "the Son of David.")

ISRAEL, GOD'S PEOPLE, TO BE RESTORED

11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set His Hand again the second time to recover the remnant of His People, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. (Once again, "in that day," refers to Christ reigning Personally in Jerusalem. The first gathering of the "remnant," as it refers to Israel, took place when Israel was gathered out of the Medo-Persian Empire and brought back to the Promised Land. In a sense, the second gathering began in 1948. It will be fulfilled in totality at the beginning of the Kingdom Age, when Jews all over the world will recognize Christ as their Messiah and, thereby, desire to come to Israel and live near Him.)

12 And He shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the Earth. (Here, Israel is called "outcasts," and they have been such ever since their rejection of Christ and the destruction of Jerusalem by Titus in A.D. 70.

The central theme of this Verse is Christ. Israel will now [during the Kingdom Age] recognize Him, and Him Alone, as their True Messiah. Jerusalem, the place of His Crucifixion, will now be the place of His Glory. The Jews will come to this Glory from "the four corners of the Earth.")

13 The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex

Ephraim. (This pertains to the splitting of Israel into two nations, with the ten Tribes forming the Northern Kingdom called "Ephraim," and the two Tribes of "Judah" and "Benjamin" making up the Southern Kingdom. The Holy Spirit is saying that the old "envy" between the two will be forever dissipated. The nation will be one again, but only in Christ.)

14 But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west; they shall spoil them of the east together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them. (This Passage refers to the long and continued fight over possession of the Promised Land. This Verse proclaims the fact that this land that was promised to Israel by the Lord will finally be realized [Gen. 15:7; Num. 34:1-12; Isa. 60:12; Ezek. 47:13; 48:35].)

15 And the LORD shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with His mighty Wind shall He shake His Hand over the river, and shall smite it in the seven streams, and make men go over dryshod.

16 And there shall be an highway for the remnant of His People, which shall be left, from Assyria; like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt. (From this Passage, it seems that the Euphrates River in that day will be made by the Hand of the Lord into "seven rivers." They very well could turn the Arabian Peninsula, which is now a desert, into a garden.

The whole of this part of the world is presently gripped in the Satanic maw of Islam. The prediction is that not only will the topography of the Middle East be changed, but the demonic control of the region will be dispelled, as well.)

CHAPTER 12

(713 B.C.)

A PSALM OF PRAISE; MILLENNIAL WORSHIP

[1] And in that day you shall say, O LORD, I will praise You: though You were angry with me, Your anger is turned away, and You comfort me. (Israel is saying that even though the Lord had been "angry" with her because of her Crucifixion of Christ, nevertheless, "Your anger is turned away.")

[2] Behold, God is my Salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the LORD JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; He also is become my Salvation. (A part of this is from the "Song of Moses" [Ex. 15:2]. As Moses sang this song on the shores of the Red Sea after Israel's great Deliverance, Israel, likewise, will once again sing this great "song" and call it "my song." From what looked like certain annihilation at the hands of the Antichrist, she has been delivered, and the Antichrist, like Pharaoh, has been destroyed.)

[3] Therefore with joy shall you draw water out of the wells of Salvation. (The "wells of salvation" speak of a constant, flowing, never-ending source — not a cistern — for unfailing assurance, consolation, hope, and victory.)

[4] And in that day shall you say, Praise the LORD, call upon His Name, declare His Doings among the people, make mention that His Name is exalted. (Four things are listed here that Israel will then do, and which Believers should do now: 1. Praise the Lord constantly; 2. Call upon His Name constantly; 3. Declare His doings among the people constantly; and, 4. Make mention that His Name is exalted constantly.)

[5] Sing unto the LORD; for He has done excellent things: this is known in all the Earth. (In the coming Kingdom Age, Christ will be the theme "in all the Earth.")

6 Cry out and shout, you inhabitant of Zion: for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of you. (This refers to a constant Campmeeting, when Christ finally reigns upon this Earth.)

CHAPTER 13

THE DOOM OF BABYLON PREDICTED

[1] The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see. (According to Isaiah's Prophecies, Babylon is the first city or empire to be judged. And so she was! She has been, is, and will be, the great enemy. She is Satan's city in opposition to Jerusalem, which is the Messiah's city.)

[2] Lift you up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles. (This Passage has to do with the capture of Babylon by the Medes, but, even more so, it symbolizes the calling of the nations to gather to fight at Armageddon.)

[3] I have commanded My sanctified ones, I have also called My mighty ones for My anger, even them who rejoice in My highness. (This refers to the Second Coming, which will destroy the Antichrist.)

[4] The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: the LORD of Hosts musters the Host of the battle. (Once again, this refers to the Battle of Armageddon and the destruction of the Antichrist, which will take place at the Second Coming.)

[5] They come from a far country, from the end of the Heaven, even the LORD, and the weapons of His indignation, to destroy the whole land. (At this time, and we continue to speak of Armageddon, the Lord will lead this charge.)

JUDGMENT IN THE DAY OF THE LORD

6 Howl you; for the day of the LORD is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty. (The "howling" refers to Israel's destitute condition during the Battle of Armageddon, immediately before the Second Coming of Christ; however, the Lord will definitely then come, with the Antichrist then destroyed.)

7 Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man's heart shall melt (even though this pertains to the near destruction of Babylon by Cyrus, it portrays in an even greater way the helplessness of the Antichrist and his armies at the Second Coming of Christ)**:

8 And they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman who travails: they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames. (This speaks of Israel's condition just before the Second Coming [I Thess. 5:2-3].)

9 Behold, the day of the LORD comes, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and He shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it. (While these Passages have a limited reference to the near destruction of Babylon by the Medes and Persians, their total fulfillment awaits the coming Battle of Armageddon and the Second Coming of the Lord.)

10 For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine. (As is obvious, none of this happened during the first destruction of Babylon; however, it will happen in the last half of the Great Tribulation and at the Second Coming [Mat. 24:29].)

11 And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible. ("The proud" and "the terrible" refer to the Antichrist in particular and to all his followers in general.)

12 I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir. (So great will be the destruction, and so many men will be killed that they will be as scarce as "the golden wedge of Ophir"

[Ezek., Chpts. 38-39].)

13 Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the Earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of Hosts, and in the day of His fierce anger. (For the last nearly 2,000 years, the world has little known the "wrath" or "anger" of God. During the last half of the Great Tribulation, and especially during the Battle of Armageddon, His "wrath" and "anger" will most definitely be directed toward the Earth.)

14 And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man takes up: they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land. (This speaks of the great fear of the people at the exhibition of the "wrath" and "anger" of the Lord, which will take place, as stated, in the latter half of the Great Tribulation.)

15 Everyone who is found shall be thrust through; and everyone who is joined unto them shall fall by the sword. (This Passage is saying that all in the armies of the Antichrist who do not flee will perish.)

16 Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished. (This refers to the Prophecies of Zechariah, which will be fulfilled in totality at the Battle of Armageddon [Zech. 14:2].)

17 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver; and as for gold, they shall not delight in it. (This Passage, as is obvious, refers to the Medes and the Persians attacking Babylon and taking the city. Their object was not plunder, but rather conquest and the extension of dominion.)

18 Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eyes shall not spare children. (Isaiah now predicts a great slaughter concerning the coming invasion of Babylon by the Medes, which would take place about 200 years from the time of Isaiah.)

FINAL DESOLATION OF BABYLON

19 And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. (Verses 19 through 22 relate to the judgment described in Rev. 16:6 and 18:1-2; therefore, this Passage does not refer to the invasion by the Medes.)

20 It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there; neither shall the shepherds make their fold there. (After the destruction of Babylon near the close of the Great Tribulation [Rev., Chpt. 18], the area shall never be inhabited again. This could not be said of the destruction of Babylon in the past; in fact, the city continued for several centuries.)

21 But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures; and owls shall dwell there, and satyrs shall dance there.

22 And the wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces: and her time is near to come, and her days shall not be prolonged. (In the coming Millennium, and even into the New Earth [Rev., Chpts. 21-22], there will be certain openings in the Earth where men can actually see into eternal Hell. Some have suggested that this spot [Babylon] so long used as a site of rebellion against God will be one of those openings.

If so, the words, "satyrs" and "dragons," could refer to demon spirits which, at that time, will be visible as one looks down into these openings.)

CHAPTER 14

(712 B.C.)

IN THE MILLENNIUM: ISRAEL RESTORED AND EXALTED

[1] For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob. (The entirety of this Chapter concerns itself with the Restoration of Israel, which actually began in 1948, and will be completed shortly after the Second Coming.)

[2] And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place: and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD for servants and handmaids: and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors. (The nations of the world that have caused Israel great sorrow and trouble will see the roles reversed, and we speak of the coming Kingdom Age. Whereas the "oppressors" once ruled over them, now Israel will rule over the "oppressors.")

[3] And it shall come to pass in the day that the LORD shall give you rest from your sorrow, and from your fear, and from the hard bondage wherein you were made to serve (Israel could have had this "rest" all along, but for their rebellion against the Lord)**,

ISRAEL'S SONG OF TRIUMPH

[4] That you shall take up this Proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How has the oppressor ceased! the golden city ceased! (This will come to pass at the Second Coming, with this song then, no doubt, being sung, because Israel will have then accepted Christ.)

[5] The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked, and the sceptre of the rulers. (The Antichrist is called here "the wicked." Paul addressed him as such, as well [II Thess. 2:8]. At the Battle of Armageddon, he will be "broken," along with his cohorts [Ezek., Chpts. 38-39].)

6 He who smote the people in wrath with a continual stroke, he who ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hinders. (The phrase, "none hinders," refers to the nations of the world, which will have no power against the Lord of Glory when He comes back. The "people" in this Passage basically refer to Israel, and the efforts of the Antichrist to completely destroy them.)

7 The whole Earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing.

8 Yes, the fir trees rejoice at You, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since You are laid down, no feller is come up against us. (The tranquility of this Verse results from the doom of the Antichrist.)

9 Hell from beneath is moved for you to meet you at your coming: it stirs up the dead for you, even all the chief ones of the Earth; it has raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations. (That this place called "Hell" is literal cannot be denied by any honest investigation of Scripture. The most powerful one to enter that place will be the Antichrist; however, his just doom will be the same as all others.)

10 All they shall speak and say unto you, Are you also become weak as we? are you become like unto us? (This one Passage should be a warning to all who think their power, pomp, and prestige will reserve some special place for them in God's eternity. It will not!)

11 Your pomp is brought down to the grave, and the noise of your viols: the worm is spread under you, and the worms cover you. (The "dead" spoken of in Verse 9 refer to the "Rephaim," the giants who once inhabited certain parts of the Earth, and who were the results of the ungodly union of fallen angels and women [Gen. 6:4].

The "viols" speak of the pomp and ceremony that once accompanied the Antichrist.

The "worm" is spoken of in a figurative sense here of the never-dying consciousness of men in Hell [Mk. 9:44-46].)

12 How are you fallen from Heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how are you cut down to the ground, which did weaken the nations! (Isaiah's Prophecy now switches from the Antichrist to his unholy sponsor, Satan himself.

"Lucifer" is the name of Satan. Actually, he is an angel, originally created by God, who served the Lord in righteousness for an undetermined period of time.

When he fell, he led a revolution against God, with about one-third of the Angels, it seems, throwing in their lot with him [Rev. 12:4]. Therefore, all the pain, suffering, misery, heartache, death, and deception which have ruled the nations from the very beginning can be laid at the doorstep of this revolution headed up by Satan.)

13 For you have said in your heart, I will ascend into Heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north:

14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the Most High. (In these two Verses, we see the foment of Satan's rebellion and revolution against God. It seems that Lucifer, while true to the Lord, was given dominion of the Earth, which was before Adam. After his fall, he worked deceitfully to get other angelic rulers to follow him in his war against God.)

15 Yet you shall be brought down to Hell, to the sides of the pit. (This would be the lot of Satan and all who seek to be like God, but in a wrong way, in effect, by making themselves god.)

16 They who see you shall narrowly look upon you, and consider you, saying, Is this the man who made the Earth to tremble, who did shake kingdoms (now the Prophecy reverts back to the Antichrist; we know this because it addresses him by saying, "Is this the man...?")**;

17 Who made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; who opened not the house of his prisoners? (The debut of the Antichrist, which will take place shortly after the Rapture of the Church, will not bring the promised peace and prosperity, but instead will make the world a prison.)

[18] All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, everyone in his own house.

[19] But you are cast out of your grave like an abominable branch, and as the raiment of those who are killed, thrust through with a sword, who go down to the stones of the pit; as a carcase trodden under feet. (Despite the fact that the Antichrist will come closer than any man to conquering the entirety of the world, still, his final end will be ignominious, degrading, and despicable. He will be killed by the Lord at the Battle of Armageddon.)

[20] You shall not be joined with them in burial, because you have destroyed your land, and killed your people: the seed of evildoers shall never be renowned. (In this Verse, we have some proof that the Antichrist will be an apostate Jew, because it uses the words, "your land" and "your people." Some even think, because of the Prophecies of Jacob, that the Antichrist will come from the Tribe of Dan [Gen. 49:17].)

DESOLATION OF BABYLON

[21] Prepare slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers; that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities. (Verses 21 through 23 pertain to the destruction and the desolation of rebuilt Babylon [Rev., Chpt. 18].)

[22] For I will rise up against them, says the LORD of Hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name, and remnant, and son, and nephew, says the LORD. ("Babylon" is man's city and, hence, of Satan. It was built by Nimrod as a sign of rebellion against God [Gen. 10:8-10]. It, in its rebellion, will be no more.)

[23] I will also make it a possession for the bittern, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, says the LORD of Hosts.

(The destruction by the Lord of this city will be like something that is swept clean.)

24 The LORD of Hosts has sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand *(the word "thought" would have been better translated "intended"; Verses 24 through 27 contain a sixfold oath by the Lord to destroy the Antichrist):

25 That I will break the Assyrian in My Land, and upon My Mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders. (The inference is that the "yoke" of the Antichrist is so strong that neither Israel nor the nations can throw it off in their own power. But the Lord will definitely throw it off.)

26 This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole Earth: and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations. (Satan has contested God for dominion of this "Earth" and its inhabitants from the beginning. At the Second Coming, the contest will end. Instead of iniquity, Righteousness will then cover the entirety of the whole Earth.)

27 For the LORD of Hosts has purposed, and who shall disannul it? and His Hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back? (In this Passage, we have the emphatic Promise that all of this will be done by "the LORD of Hosts." The prediction will not fail!)

28 In the year that king Ahaz died was this burden. (As was to be expected, Babylon, an immense religious system and the political and world opponent of the Throne of David, was first judged. The other nations hostile to Israel now enter the Prophetic scene, even as we shall see.)

THE WARNING TO PALESTINE

29 Rejoice not you, whole Palestina, because the rod of him who smote you is broken: for out of the serpent's root shall come forth a cockatrice, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent. (The immediate fulfillment concerned the defeat of Philistia by Uzziah [II Ki. 15:1-7; II Chron. 28:16-21]; however, the total fulfillment has to do with the present time, even as it regards modern Israel and the Palestinians. In other words, the Palestinians will not win.)

30 And the firstborn of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety: and I will kill your root with famine, and he shall kill your remnant. (II Ki., Chpt. 18, records the fulfillment of this Prophecy in the immediate future. Its total fulfillment concerns the distant future. The "poor" and "needy" refer to Judah, i.e., "Israel," who will be protected by the Lord and will "lie down in safety.")

31 Howl, O gate; cry, O city; you, whole Palestina, are dissolved: for there shall come from the north a smoke, and none shall be alone in his appointed times. (The word "Palestina" refers to the Philistines. The land addressed here extends along the Mediterranean from Gaza on the south to Lydda on the north. As stated, the problem rages even unto this modern time. But, in this Passage, we are told that the Palestinian problem will be solved at the Second Coming.)

32 What shall one then answer the messengers of the nation? That the LORD has founded Zion, and the poor of His people shall trust in it. (The sense of the entirety of this Prophecy [Vss. 28-32] pertains to the land that God promised Israel. It has been contested from that moment until now. The prediction is that those who contested it will not have it. It belongs to Israel, referred to as "the poor of His people.")

CHAPTER 15

MOAB'S DESTRUCTION DESCRIBED

[1] The burden of Moab. Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence (this Prophecy was uttered in the year that king Ahaz died [14:28] and had a primary fulfillment three years later; however, its exhaustive fulfillment awaits the future.

Moab, Ammon, and Edom are part of present-day Jordan, which means that these Prophecies not only pertain to Isaiah's day, but also have a future fulfillment, even as we shall see);

[2] He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off. (These "high places" were centers of idolatrous worship; the two most important were upon Nebo and Medeba. The Prophet, in Vision, sees the terror-stricken Moabites hastening up these mountains to seek help from their god, Chemosh, but in vain.

The "baldness" of the heads consisted of the practice of cutting off the hair because of mourning.)

[3] In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, weeping abundantly. (This Prophecy speaks of the coming invasion by Assyria of Moab, which would take place about three years from this time.

Through the Prophecies of Isaiah, the Lord gave them ample time for Repentance, but to no avail. They continued to appeal to their idol gods.)

[4] And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voices shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him. (The last statement, "his life shall be grievous," personifies the Moabite people and the terrible judgment that was coming.)

[5] My heart shall cry out for Moab; his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an heifer of three years old: for by the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction. (Isaiah, upon seeing the terrible judgment in his Vision that was coming upon idol-worshipping Moab, cried out for them. He sympathizes with the sufferings of Moab as a kindred people [Gen. 19:37], and perhaps as having, in the person of Ruth, furnished an ancestress to the Messiah [Mat. 1:5].)

[6] For the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the hay is withered away, the grass fails, there is no green thing. (This Verse speaks of the desolation that is coming to this land.)

[7] Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brook of the willows. ("The abundance" speaks of the property that the people will endeavor to carry with them when they flee the enemy.)

[8] For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Beer-elim. (A hope had been entertained of the pursuit slackening, but it is disappointed.)

[9] For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring more upon Dimon, lions upon him who escapes of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land. (The Prophecy is that so many people will die that the "waters of Dimon" will run red with blood. Of those who escape the enemies' lance, "lions" and wild animals will help destroy the majority of the remnant of Moab.)

CHAPTER 16

MOAB THE PROTECTOR OF ISRAEL IN THE TRIBULATION

[1] Send you the lamb to the ruler of the land from Sela (Petra) to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion. (The "lamb" refers to Israel. At the midpoint of the Great Tribulation, when the Antichrist attacks Israel, showing his true colors, Israel will then flee to Moab, which is modern-day Jordan [Mat. 24:15-24; Rev. 12:6, 14].)

[2] For it shall be, that, as a wandering bird cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon. (The "wandering bird" speaks of Moab, who will be highly disturbed at the events that are taking place when the Antichrist suddenly attacks Israel, and Israel is forced to flee. Moab [Jordan] will welcome Israel at that time.)

[3] Take counsel, execute judgment; make your shadow as the night in the midst of the noonday; hide the outcasts; bewray not him who wanders. (Once again, Israel is referred to as "the outcasts." Moab is instructed to hide these outcasts, and not to betray them.)

[4] Let My outcasts dwell with you, Moab; be you a covert to them from the face of the spoiler (the Antichrist): for the extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceases, the oppressors are consumed out of the land. (The "extortioner," the "spoiler," and the "oppressor" are all names for the Antichrist.

The Holy Spirit requests of "Moab" at the time of the invasion by the Antichrist that His "outcasts" dwell with them. The place that is being spoken of is Petra, which is in present-day Jordan. For this reason, the Holy Spirit will cause the country of Jordan to escape out of the hand of the Antichrist [Dan. 11:40-45].)

5 And in mercy shall the throne be established: and he shall sit upon it in truth in the Tabernacle of David, judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness. (We are emphatically told here that the "Tabernacle of David" shall be once again set up, which will take place after the Church Age [Acts 15:13-18].)

MOAB'S SINS: PRIDE, ARROGANCE, AND INSOLENCE; LAMENT FOR MOAB

6 We have heard of the pride of Moab; he is very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: but his lies shall not be so. (The immediate judgment upon Moab is again taken up in Verses 6 through 12. These Prophecies as well compare with the Prophecies in Chapter 15. This concerns the soon coming invasion by Assyria.)

7 Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab, every one shall howl: for the foundations of Kir-hareseth shall you mourn; surely they are stricken. (This speaks of the judgment that shall come upon the entirety of the nation, and not on just a few.)

8 For the field of Heshbon languish, and the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, they are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness: her branches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea. ("The lords of the heathen" are probably the Assyrians, who made a practice of destroying the fruit trees in enemy country for the mere purpose of doing mischief.)

9 Therefore I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water you with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for the shouting for your summer fruits and for your harvest is fallen. (This Verse portrays the great sorrow and mourning over the destruction of the country and the wasting of its crops.)

10 And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage shouting to cease. (At the grape harvest, there were times of great celebration and joy; however, all of this would be taken away, says the Holy Spirit.)

11 Wherefore my bowels shall sound like an harp for Moab, and my inward parts for Kir-haresh. (In his Vision, seeing the coming destruction, Isaiah was moved with deep compassion for these people.)

12 And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail. (This Verse pictures the Moabites presenting themselves before their idol, and, like the worshippers of Baal at Carmel, they wearied themselves in their fruitless cries to him.)

13 This is the Word that the LORD has spoken concerning Moab since that time. (The words, "since that time," refer to the Prophecy of 15:1.)

14 But now the LORD has spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of an hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and feeble. (Concerning some of the heathen people, the annihilation was to be absolute, but Moab would have a remnant, very small and of little account; however, this remnant is to be redeemed in the latter days, and in fact presently occupies modern Jordan, and for the express purpose of protecting Israel, which she will do in the latter half of the Great Tribulation.)

CHAPTER 17

AN ORACLE CONCERNING THE RUIN OF DAMASCUS

[1] The burden of Damascus. Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap. (The defeat of Rezin and the destruction of Damascus was fulfilled by the Assyrians [II Ki. 16:5-8].)

[2] The cities of Aroer are forsaken: they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid. (The destruction of these cities was to be so complete that cattle would pasture on their former sites; there would be no man to drive them away.)

[3] The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, says the LORD of Hosts. (The Prophecy was that "Ephraim" was to be destroyed. Sargon did not destroy Samaria on the occasion of his first capture, but he says that he "reduced it to a heap of ruins" on the occasion of his second capture.

In effect, when the Lord speaks of the "remnant of Syria" being "as the glory of the Children of Israel," He is using irony.)

[4] And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean. (The Holy Spirit continues to speak of the destruction of the Northern Kingdom of Israel.)

[5] And it shall be as when the harvestman gathers the corn, and reaps the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he who gathers ears in the valley of Rephaim. (Death is the "harvestman" here and gathers the Israelites by shocks or sheaves into his garner. It is a dire Prophecy.)

[6] Yet gleaning grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, says the LORD God of Israel. (Due to the great destruction by the Assyrians, the remnant of Syria and Ephraim would be small.)

[7] At that day shall a man look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel. (After the terrible chastisement, the remnant left had a tendency to look to the Lord instead of their idols. This took place about 75 years after Isaiah's Prophecy.)

[8] And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his fingers have made, either the groves, or the images. (In this Verse, we are told that Israel finally ceased their idol-worship.)

[9] In that day shall his strong cities be as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch, which they left because of the Children of Israel: and there shall be desolation. (Normally the phrase, "in that day," applies to the Endtime, and especially the Millennium; however, it rather applied here to the destruction by the Assyrians, which would take place not too many years distant.)

[10] Because you have forgotten the God of your Salvation, and have not been mindful of the Rock of your strength, therefore shall you plant pleasant plants, and shall set it with strange slips (the reasons are here given for the great chastisement of the Northern Kingdom of Israel)**:

[11] In the day shall you make your plant to grow, and in the morning shall you make your seed to flourish: but the harvest shall be a heap in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow. (Again, the Holy Spirit speaks of this coming time when even the crops would be destroyed.)

[12] Woe to the multitude of many people, which make a noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters! (The Prophecy, although continuing, no longer refers to Israel's present problems, but to a later time; actually, Verses 12 through 14 refer to the coming Tribulation, the rise of the Antichrist, and the Battle of Armageddon.)

13 The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind.

14 And behold at eveningtide trouble; and before the morning he is not. This is the portion of them who spoil us, and the lot of them who rob us. (This pictures the gathering of many nations against Israel at the Battle of Armageddon. It will be at that time when God will rebuke them and fight for Israel [Ezek., Chpts. 38-39; Joel, Chpt. 3; Zech., Chpt. 14; Rev., Chpt. 19].)

CHAPTER 18

(714 B.C.)

THE DOWNFALL OF ETHIOPIA

[1] Woe to the land shadowing with wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia (the word, "Woe," is used here of judgment; the Prophecy given here regarding "Ethiopia" does not concern Israel's present judgments during the time of Isaiah, but rather the latter days, as in Verses 12 through 14 of the previous Chapter)**:

[2] Who sends ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters, saying, Go, you swift messengers, to a nation scattered and peeled, to a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden down, whose land the rivers have spoiled! (Some Scholars contend that the entirety of Verse 2 refers to Ethiopia. While that may be true, still, the language expressed does not seem to fit Ethiopia, but rather Israel.)

JUDGMENT DESCRIBED

[3] All you inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the Earth, see you, when He lifts up an ensign on the mountains; and when He blows a trumpet, hear you. (The entirety of the "world" is called to attention regarding that which the Lord will do at the Battle of Armageddon. The pronoun "He" refers to Jehovah. The "Ensign" that He will lift up is the Messiah.

It seems that the Lord Himself will "blow a trumpet" at the Second Coming of Christ [Joel 2:1; Zech. 9:14; I Thess. 4:16].)

[4] For so the LORD said unto me, I will take My rest, and I will consider in My dwelling place like a clear heat upon herbs, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest. (The action of the Messiah during the entire period of Israel's rejection and up to "the time" of Verse 7 is declared in Verses 4 through 6. His silence concerning Israel during this time, which now numbers approximately 2,000 years, is predicted in this Verse. In effect, He says, "I will be inactive; yet will I keep looking for My dwellingplace; I will be to them like sunshine after rain, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest."

He is saying that He will neither cease to love nor lose sight of His ancient People.)

5 For afore the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, He shall both cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and take away and cut down the branches. ("He" is the Divine Vine-Dresser, the Messiah. His instrument will be the Antichrist.)

6 They shall be left together unto the fowls of the mountains, and to the beasts of the Earth: and the fowls shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the Earth shall winter upon them. (If Israel's faithful Redeemer likens His People to a Vine, so does He liken their enemies to ravenous vultures and wild beasts.)

FUTURE RESTORATION

7 In that time shall the present be brought unto the LORD of Hosts of a people scattered and peeled, and from a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden under foot, whose land the rivers have spoiled, to the place of the Name of the LORD of Hosts, the Mount Zion. ("In that time" refers to the Antichrist's armies, which will be destroyed in the Battle of Armageddon. Then the Millennium will begin. Israel, at that time, will offer herself as a "present" to the Messiah, and, at the same time, the Gentile nations will offer her as a "present" to Him. The gift will be made upon "Mount Zion.")

CHAPTER 19

THE FALL OF EGYPT

[1] The burden of Egypt. Behold, the LORD rides upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at His Presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it. (This Verse mentions the "idols of Egypt." Egypt has always been symbolic of the world. The Deliverance of the Children of Israel out of Egypt symbolizes the Born-Again experience, as well as victory over Satan, concerning the Child of God.

This speaks of the Second Coming, when Egypt will accept the Lord.)

[2] And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. (When this civil war in Egypt will take place in connection with these last-day events is not stated, but it is clear that at Armageddon men will be so confused that they will turn on each other [Zech. 14:13-14].)

[3] And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst thereof; and I will destroy the counsel thereof: and they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them who have familiar spirits, and to the wizards. (Egypt, except for the short time under Joseph [Gen., Chpt. 41], has always been ruled, at least indirectly, by demon spirits. At the time of the Antichrist, they will consult these spirits, but all in vain.)

[4] And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, says the Lord, the LORD of Hosts. (This Passage tells us that the Lord will allow Egypt to be defeated by the Antichrist. This will happen at approximately the outset of the Great Tribulation.)

DESOLATION

5 And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up. (The "sea" referred to here is probably the Nile. The "rivers" wasted and dried up refer, no doubt, to a phenomenon of nature brought about by the Lord, which will take place during the time of the Great Tribulation, beginning possibly with the invasion of the Antichrist.)

6 And they shall turn the rivers far away; and the brooks of defence shall be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flags shall wither.

7 The paper reeds by the brooks, by the mouth of the brooks, and everything sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, and be no more. (During the time of the Great Tribulation, which will last for some seven years, the Lord Himself will disturb the planetary bodies, causing tremendous disturbance on Earth. Egypt will probably be greatly affected by this [Rev. 6:12-17].)

8 The fishers also shall mourn, and all they who cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and they who spread nets upon the waters shall languish.

9 Moreover they who work in fine flax, and they who weave networks, shall be confounded.

10 And they shall be broken in the purposes thereof, all who make sluices and ponds for fish. (These Verses merely reflect the fact of industries being brought to a standstill during the time of the Great Tribulation.)

CAUSE OF DESTRUCTION

11 Surely the princes of Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say you unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings? ("The princes" of Verses 11 through 13 refer to the priest-princes. They were a travesty of God's kings and priests. They claimed superhuman knowledge and royal descent.)

12 Where are they? where are your wise men? and let them tell you now, and let them know what the LORD of Hosts has purposed upon Egypt. (This is a tremendous challenge! The Prophets of Jehovah addressed it more than once to the prophets of idolatry, for only God can foretell what will surely happen!)

13 The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of Noph are deceived; they have also seduced Egypt, even they who are the stay of the tribes thereof. ("Zoan" was the seat of the Egyptian Court. It was there that Moses announced the ten plagues. Once again, God calls the leaders of Egypt "deceived fools." They are deceived because they listen to these "counselors" who receive their information from demon spirits.)

14 The LORD has mingled a perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to err in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggers in his vomit. (While the leaders of Egypt will not understand it, still, the cause of their problems is demon spirits. It is the same presently in many nations of the world.)

15 Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which the head or tail, branch or rush, may do. (In ancient times, Egypt was supposed to be the center of wisdom. There will be no wisdom in the coming day of the Great Tribulation. There will be nothing but confusion.)

EGYPT'S ULTIMATE DELIVERANCE; MILLENNIAL BLESSINGS, PEACE

16 In that day shall Egypt be like unto women: and it shall be afraid and fear because of the shaking of the Hand of the LORD of Hosts, which He shakes over it. (This Verse is the portrayal of wrath and judgment that shall come "in that day." It pertains basically to the Battle of Armageddon, which will cause Egypt much more trouble than normal, due to the fact that the "LORD of Hosts" will express a particular anger toward it, because of Egypt's perverseness toward Israel.)

17 And the land of Judah shall be a terror unto Egypt, everyone who makes mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of Hosts, which He has determined against it. (In the coming Battle of Armageddon, Judah will have the "counsel of the LORD of Hosts," while Egypt will be trusting in demon spirits. The outcome is inevitable!)

[18] In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt speak the language of Canaan, and swear to the LORD of Hosts; one shall be called, The city of destruction. (The five great cities of ancient Egypt were originally cities of unrighteousness. Here, they will be turned to cities of Righteousness. This will be in the Kingdom Age, after the Second Coming.)

[19] In that day shall there be an Altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a Pillar at the border thereof to the LORD. ("An Altar" and "a Pillar," not "altars" and "pillars," for there is only one way of Redemption and one Testimony. Obviously, this "Altar" will be for men to offer Sacrifices to God in the Millennium, like the one to be used in Jerusalem for the same purpose during this period.

The "Pillar" is to be used only as a sign and witness to commemorate an event, which speaks of Egypt's Deliverance by the Lord from the Antichrist.)

[20] And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto the LORD of Hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall cry unto the LORD because of the oppressors, and He shall send them a Saviour, and a Great One, and He shall deliver them. (The "Saviour" and "Great One" will be none other than the Lord Jesus Christ. Only He can "deliver.")

[21] And the LORD shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day, and shall do sacrifice and oblation; yes, they shall vow a vow unto the LORD, and perform it. (Now, the Glory of the Lord will cover Egypt, and they will gladly serve Him.

Upon this "Altar" mentioned in Verse 19, they will "do sacrifice and oblation." This will be in the Kingdom Age.)

[22] And the LORD shall smite Egypt: He shall smite and heal it: and they shall return even to the LORD, and He shall be intreated of them, and shall heal them. (Before the "healing" can come, the "smiting" must come first, which it shall!)

[23] In that day shall there be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyr ia, and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians. ("In that day" refers to the Millennium. Consequently, the animosity, hatred, and anger which have characterized this area of the world since the dawn of time have now finally been wrested away from Satan, and the land will then be ruled by the Lord of Glory. The hatred is now gone.)

[24] In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even a blessing in the midst of the land (these three nations speak of Noah's three sons, which refer to the entire world, and will become servants to Jehovah; the human race consists of these three great families: Assyria, Israel, and Egypt, i.e., Japheth, Shem, and Ham [Gen. 9:27]; these three countries, "Israel," "Egypt," and "Assyria" [modern Iraq], instead of being a curse, will now be a "blessing")**:

[25] Whom the LORD of Hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be Egypt My people, and Assyria the Work of My Hands, and Israel My inheritance. (This tells us that the Arabs will ultimately come to Christ, thereby disavowing the religion of Islam. Actually, it will be no more, as well as all the other religions of the world. In that Glad Day, there will be One Saviour, Who is the world's Redeemer, Who is the Lord Jesus Christ.)

CHAPTER 20

EGYPT'S IMMEDIATE CONQUEST BY ASSYRIA

[1] In the year that Tartan came unto Ashdod, (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him,) and fought against Ashdod, and took it (this Prophecy is different from the Prophecy of the previous Chapter, which is obvious; its lesson for Israel was the bitter fruit that the servants of God must taste when the arm of flesh is leaned upon and not the Arm of God)**;

[2] At the same time spoke the LORD by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go and loose the sackcloth from off your loins, and put off your shoe from your foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot. (Jehovah was the Speaker and Isaiah was His Instrument. The Prophet was not naked, as we think of such, simply laying aside his peculiar prophetic garment.)

[3] And the LORD said, Like as My servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Ethiopia (the "three years" mentioned here probably refer to the same number mentioned in 16:14; within three years, Moab, Egypt, and Ethiopia were to be destroyed, which they were)**;

[4] So shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. (Such was meant the object lesson of Isaiah of Verse 2 to portray. So complete and abject would be the enslavement of the Egyptian warriors that they would not even be given loin cloths to wrap around their naked bodies. Such showed the utter defeat and humiliation of the Egyptians.)

[5] And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory. (The Prophet is telling Judah not to look to "Ethiopia" or "Egypt" for help, because none would be forthcoming from these sectors, due to the fact that they themselves would be completely destroyed.)

6 And the inhabitant of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and how shall we escape? (Judah would ask the question, "How shall we escape?" If they cannot get the help of Ethiopia and Egypt, what can they do?

They would learn that their escape was the Lord of Hosts; He sent an Angel, who killed 185,000 Assyrians and caused the others to flee [Isa. 37:36-38].)

CHAPTER 21

(714 B.C.)

THE FALL OF BABYLON, MEDO-PERSIA THE SPOILER

[1] The burden of the desert of the sea. As whirlwinds in the south pass through; so it comes from the desert, from a terrible land. (The phrase, "the desert of the sea," refers to Babylon.)

[2] A grievous vision is declared unto me; the treacherous dealer deals treacherously, and the spoiler spoils. Go up, O Elam: besiege, O Media; all the sighing thereof have I made to cease. (The primal occasion of the fulfillment of this Prophecy was the destruction of Babylon some 200 years later by the Medes and Persians on the night that Belshazzar was slain. This means that the command to Elam and to Media to go up and besiege Babylon was a Divine command. This was done because of Babylon's treatment of Israel.)

[3] Therefore are my loins filled with pain: pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman who travails: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it. (The Prophet is horror-stricken at the devastation, the ruin, the carnage.)

[4] My heart panted, fearfulness affrighted me: the night of my pleasure has he turned into fear unto me. (This was no doubt the night of the handwriting on the wall, which saw the fall of Babylon to the Medes and Persians [Dan., Chpt. 5].)

[5] Prepare the table, watch in the watchtower, eat, drink: arise, you princes, and anoint the shield. (This speaks of war and destruction, when the Medes and the Persians would break through and take the city.)

[6] For thus has the Lord said unto me, Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he sees. (The Holy Spirit will, in effect, give Isaiah a ringside seat as to what he will observe. These are the judgments which will come upon Babylon.)

[7] And he saw a chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels; and he hearkened diligently with much heed (Isaiah saw something that would happen many years into the future; such pinpoint accuracy should provide information to anyone who desires to know of the Hand of God, even minutely so, in world affairs!)**:

[8] And he cried, A lion: My lord, I stand continually upon the watchtower in the daytime, and I am set in my ward whole nights (the sense of the Verse is that the Prophet cried as a "lion"; he can contain himself no longer)**:

[9] And, behold, here comes a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her gods He has broken unto the ground. (The masses of infantry and cavalry seen by the watchman in Vision were the hosts of Media and Elam. The repetition of the word "fallen" and the use of the present tense emphasize the sure fulfillment of the Prophecy. It, in fact, happened exactly as stated!)

[10] O my threshing, and the corn of my floor: that which I have heard of the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you. (The "bruised corn" of the threshingfloor describes Israel as oppressed by the Babylonians. The Lord identifies Himself here with these hapless slaves and is not ashamed to call them "His people.")

THE MESSAGE TO DUMAH (EDOM)

[11] The burden of Dumah. He calls to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night? (The word "Dumah" refers to Idumea or Edom. There is a play here upon words, for "Dumah" means "silence." The Prophecy foretold an eternal silence for the sons of Esau.

Evidently, the Edomites appealed to the Prophet as to their future. The answer would not be to their liking.)

12 The watchman said, The morning comes, and also the night: if you will enquire, enquire you: return, come. (In essence, Isaiah says: "For Israel, the morning is indeed coming, but for Edom, the night"; and yet, in the tender compassion of the Holy Spirit, He adds, "If you are in earnest and are inquiring sincerely, then turn away from your idols and come to the Light." But Edom refused the gracious invitation and has passed away into the eternal night.)

THE FATE OF ARABIA

13 The burden upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall you lodge, O you travelling companies of Dedanim. (There is a play upon the word "Arabia." It has to do with the word "sunset." For the sons of Ishmael, there is an evening of sorrow as they "lodge in the forest," but not a night of eternal silence. And so they have continued unto this day!)

14 The inhabitants of the land of Tema brought water to him who was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him who fled. (The fleeing Dedanites are helped by the descendants of Abraham as they pass through. They are given bread and water.)

15 For they fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness of war. (This Prophecy pertains to the invasion by Assyria, which would happen very shortly. Isaiah sees the defeat of the Arabians, as well as their fleeing for their lives and from the heartache of war.)

16 For thus has the Lord said unto me, Within a year, according to the years of an hireling, and all the glory of Kedar shall fail (the word "Kedar" refers to another part of Arabia; the Prophet says that the judgment upon Arabia will take place "within a year"; this pertains to the invasion by Assyria)**:

17 And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be diminished: for the LORD God of Israel has spoken it. (These people glory, not only in their wealth, but in their "number of archers" and their "mighty men." They felt secure!

However, they have sinned greatly, and now they were sinning against Light, because the Holy Spirit through the Prophet was pinpointing to them exactly what was going to take place in the near future, even in a year.)

CHAPTER 22

THE FALL OF JERUSALEM

[1] The burden of the valley of vision. What ails you now, that you are wholly gone up to the housetops? ("The valley of vision" is Jerusalem. Just as Babylon, her great rival, is pictured in the prior Chapter as "the wilderness of the sea," so Jerusalem is named here "the valley of vision." Man's city is morally, intellectually, and spiritually a "desert"; God's City is a center of Vision, i.e., of Divine Revelation.

The "housetops" pertain to the Jews looking from this vantage point for the approaching Assyrians, even though at this time only a spearhead was coming from Sennacherib.)

[2] You who are full of stirs, a tumultuous city, a joyous city: your dead men are not killed with the sword, nor dead in battle. (Hezekiah is revealed in this episode as sincere in his Repentance and Faith; however, his people, as revealed in this Prophecy, were insincere.

The phrase, "Your dead men... not dead in battle," refers to a blockade rather than a siege.)

[3] All your rulers are fled together, they are bound by the archers: all who are found in you are bound together, which have fled from far. (This Verse expresses the idea that the people in Jerusalem were benumbed by fear, and were helpless against the great army of the Assyrians, which demanded surrendered.)

[4] Therefore said I, Look away from me; I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people. (The burden that Isaiah expresses is the true burden that comes only to Godly men, and to those who understand the gravity of the situation. Isaiah will

"weep bitterly.")

5 For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity by the Lord GOD of Hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains. (Isaiah proclaims the fact that the "Lord GOD of Hosts" is allowing such to happen to Judah because of sin.

The phrase, "crying to the mountains," has not been adequately translated by the Scholars. It probably refers to idols in those areas, which, of course, could do Judah no good whatsoever!)

6 And Elam bore the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield. (This Verse indicates that the Medes and the Persians accompanied the Assyrian army.)

7 And it shall come to pass, that your choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate. (At times, the Lord allows Satan certain latitude against us, making the situation so hopeless that we will be forced to turn to the Lord. It is a shame that God's People have to be brought to this place, but, seemingly, most of us do at one time or the other!)

8 And he discovered the covering of Judah, and you did look in that day to the armour of the house of the forest. (The "covering of Judah" refers to that which hid their weakness either from themselves or from the enemy — probably the former. God drew this aside, and they suddenly saw their danger and began to think how they could best defend themselves against the coming Assyrians.)

9 You have seen also the breaches of the city of David, that they are many: and you gathered together the waters of the lower pool. (This portrays Hezekiah attempting to repair any place in the wall that might afford any type of advantage for the enemy.)

10 And you have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have you broken down to fortify the wall. (Certain "houses" in Jerusalem, built of stone and no doubt luxurious and beautiful, were marked for destruction in order that the stones could be used to repair the walls.)

11 You made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool: but you have not looked unto the Maker thereof, neither had respect unto Him Who fashioned it long ago. (The pronoun "Him" refers to Jehovah. However intelligent Hezekiah's efforts may have been, the people did not really lean upon God for Deliverance, nor did they recognize that this chastening was from Him, that Sennacherib was His Instrument, and that God had "done" and "fashioned" this trial long beforehand.)

12 And in that day did the Lord GOD of Hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth *(even though the Message is from Isaiah, it is actually sent by "the Lord GOD of Hosts"; He calls the people to Repentance):

13 And behold joy and gladness, killing oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine: let us eat and drink; for tomorrow we shall die. (God called them to "weeping and mourning" for their sins, but instead He received merriment, revelry, joking, and partying.)

14 And it was revealed in my ears by the LORD of Hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you till you die, says the Lord GOD of Hosts. (The people mocked, it seems, the Spirit of God, hence the fearful doom pronounced in this Verse.)

SHEBNA REMOVED FROM OFFICE

15 Thus says the Lord GOD of Hosts, Go, get you unto this treasurer, even unto Shebna, which is over the house, and say *(it seems that "Shebna," the appointed "treasurer" of the nation and, therefore, in Hezekiah's cabinet, was himself a stranger to the Grace of God; the people held fast to their sins and pleasures, with "Shebna" as their leader in such rebellion),

16 What have you here? and whom have you here, that you have hewed you out a sepulchre here, as he who hews him out a sepulchre on high, and who graves an habitation for himself in a rock? (Shebna had made great preparations for his burial. He was to be disappointed. He would be taken captive and buried in a foreign land.)

17 Behold, the LORD will carry you away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover you. (The words, "cover you," seem to indicate that Shebna had scoffed at the appeal by the Lord for Repentance.)

18 He will surely violently turn and toss you like a ball into a large country: there shall you die, and there the chariots of your glory shall be the shame of your Lord's house. ("Your Lord" refers to Hezekiah, but more so to the Lord of Glory. This man would be the shame of Hezekiah's governmental cabinet.)

19 And I will drive you from your station, and from your state shall he pull you down. (The pronoun "he" refers to Hezekiah. It seems that Hezekiah, upon the advice of Isaiah, dispossessed Shebna from public office.)

ELIAKIM PLACED IN OFFICE

20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call My servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah (the office of "treasurer" and of prefect of the palace was taken from Shebna and given to "My servant Eliakim"; no higher honor could God pay any man that to give him the simple title of "My servant"; this He bestowed upon "Eliakim"):

21 And I will clothe Him with your robe, and strengthen Him with your girdle, and I will commit your government into His hand: and He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. (Such terminology could only describe God's Son and our Saviour. Whereas Judah had been plagued with "Shebnas," she will now, at long last, be led by "My Servant." Then the "government shall be upon His shoulder" [Isa. 9:6].)

22 And the key of the house of David will I lay upon His shoulder; so He shall open, and none shall shut; and He shall shut, and none shall open. (The spiritual "key" of the house of David had to do with the Promise that God made to David concerning the coming of the Messiah, and that the Messiah would come through his family [II Sam., Chpt. 7].

So as to make it unmistakably perfect, David's lineage to the birth of Jesus concluded in both Joseph and Mary, making the claim irrefutable.)

23 And I will fasten Him as a Nail in a sure place; and He shall be for a glorious Throne to His Father's House. (Christ is Jehovah's sure Nail, fastened in a sure place, i.e., the heavenlies; no one who is suspended upon Him shall ever be confounded, but, on the contrary, shall be ennobled.)

24 And they shall hang upon Him all the glory of His Father's House, the offspring and the issue, all vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons. (Multiple millions can say that upon that "Nail" they have hung their eternal hopes for a golden tomorrow and blissful future. None will be disappointed!)

25 In that day, says the LORD of Hosts, shall the Nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off: for the LORD has spoken it. (The "Nail" in the sure place is Christ. At His Crucifixion, He was "cut down," but not for Himself, but rather for lost humanity [I Pet. 2:24; I Jn. 2:2; II Cor. 5:19; Eph. 2:16; Col. 2:14]. Through His Resurrection, however, the Nail is put back firmly in place and will never be removed.)

CHAPTER 23

THE MESSAGE TO TYRE: DESOLATION

[1] The burden of Tyre. Howl, you ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them. ("Tyre," in its early days, was a great stronghold. "Tarshish" refers to Spain and "Chittim" refers to Cyprus.)

[2] Be still, you inhabitants of the isle; you whom the merchants of Zidon, who pass over the sea, have replenished. (The general meaning of the words, "have replenished," concern Zidon, which was secondary to Tyre and, for the most part, acquiesced to Tyrian supremacy.)

[3] And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a mart of nations. ("Sihor" is another name for the Nile River in Egypt. The phrase, "mart of nations," has to do with Tyre's being somewhat of a clearinghouse for great cargo vessels from Egypt and other countries.)

[4] Be you ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea has spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins. (This Passage has to do with Zidon's statement respecting Tyre. Even though Tyre was the stronger of the two cities, it seems that Zidon in essence had founded this great trade mart; so Zidon was considered to be Tyre's mother. Zidon would be so weakened by Tyre's fall that she declared that she would never found or begin another city.)

[5] As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre. (The Egyptians bore no great affection towards foreign nations. They were a people whose charity began and ended at home. But the fall of Tyre was always a shock to them and they felt it portended evil to themselves.)

6 Pass you over to Tarshish; howl, you inhabitants of the isle. (When Nebuchadnezzar would lay siege to the city, approximately 100 years into the future, many of the inhabitants would flee, taking their wealth with them. So when the city was finally taken, even after a thirteen-year siege, Nebuchadnezzar found very little of value. It so enraged him that he destroyed the place completely.)

7 Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her own feet shall carry her afar off to sojourn. (The "feet" of Tyre were her ships. As a man flees upon his feet, so the Tyrians would flee upon their ships.)

8 Who has taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the Earth? (The question as to "Who has taken this counsel against Tyre?" will be answered in the next Verse.)

9 The LORD of Hosts has purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the Earth. (This Verse tells us that God was the One Who took "counsel against Tyre." It presents the judgment of Tyre as an earnest of the universal judgment yet to come upon the world, which will abase the pride of all human glory and cover with contempt the great ones of the Earth.)

10 Pass through your land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more strength. (The announcement is here given by the Holy Spirit that colony cities, such as "Tarshish," were no more to be subject to the bonds of Tyre.)

11 He stretched out His Hand over the sea, He shook the kingdoms: the LORD has given a commandment against the merchant city, to destroy the strongholds thereof. ("He" is the Lord of Glory. "He" would give instructions for the destruction of the city, because of her pride.)

12 And he said, You shall no more rejoice, O you oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: arise, pass over to Chittim; there also shall you have no rest. (The meaning of the Passage is that once the quest by the Babylonians commences, they will not cease until they have accomplished their intended purpose.)

[13] Behold the land of the Chaldeans; this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for them who dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin. (The Prophet points to Assyria, a stronger and much more ancient government, and urged that it would fall before the king of the Chaldeans. How much more surely would Tyre fall!)

[14] Howl, you ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste. (Alexander's destruction of the city was the final and complete fulfillment of the Prophecy. So the Prophecy would be several hundreds of years in its total fulfillment. "The mills of God grind slowly, but they grind exceedingly fine.")

RESTORATION AFTER SEVENTY YEARS

[15] And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as an harlot. (The phrase, "the days of one king," means the duration of the Babylonian kingdom. It lasted exactly seventy years. During the seventy years, Jerusalem was a captive and Tyre, a desolation [Jer. 25:11].)

[16] Take an harp, go about the city, you harlot who has been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that you may be remembered. (In addressing Tyre as a harlot, the Prophet does not seem to mean more than that her aims were, or at any rate had been, selfish and worldly — such as to sever man and God. Hers had been the covetousness which is "idolatry" [Col. 3:5].)

[17] And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the Earth. (While Tyre regained her power, wealth, and fame, even as here recorded, the new city was taken by Alexander the Great, which was about 250 years after the former one had been destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar.)

18 And her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them who dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing. (Oftentimes, the Holy Spirit will give Prophecies that will span from one age to the other without a break in the sentence. Such is the case, evidently, in this particular Prophecy.

In essence, this Verse looks forward to the coming Millennium, when Tyre will then be blessed by Christ, with the old times then forgotten.)

CHAPTER 24

THE TRIBULATION: CHAOS, WASTE, JUDGMENT

[1] Behold, the LORD makes the Earth empty, and makes it waste, and turns it upside down, and scatters abroad the inhabitants thereof. (The intention of the Holy Spirit is for the hearer of this Prophecy to understand that as Israel is affected, so, at least in some measure, is the entirety of the Earth. This Verse could read, "Behold, Jehovah shall make the Land of Palestine empty, and shall make it waste, and shall turn it upside down, and shall scatter abroad its inhabitants.")

[2] And it shall be, as with the people, so with the Priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him. (The inhabitants in this Passage are divided into six groups doubled. "Six" in the Scriptures is the number of man and expresses his imperfection, for it comes short of the perfect number "seven." Man was created on the sixth day, and the number of the future superman will be "666."

These Passages, in some limited way, have had fulfillment in the past; however, their greater fulfillment concerns the Great Tribulation yet to come and the Battle of Armageddon.)

[3] The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD has spoken this Word. (With the emphasis placed on "the LORD has spoken this Word," we are given an idea of the unchangeable position of God. Perfection doesn't need to change.)

[4] The Earth mourns and fades away, the world languishes and fades away, the haughty people of the Earth do languish. (When the word "Earth" is here used, the manifold thrust of the Passage is toward Israel;

however, during this time of the Great Tribulation, the judgments of God, even though centered up in the Middle East, will also affect the entirety of the Earth [Mat. 24:21; Rev., Chpt. 6].)

5 The Earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the Everlasting Covenant. (The reason for the Great Tribulation that is to come is because of the acute violation of the Word of God [Mat. 24:21].)

6 Therefore has the curse devoured the Earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the Earth are burned, and few men left. (The justice of this Divine action is stated in Verses 5 and 6. This Passage basically speaks of the Second Coming of Christ, when so many men will be killed that blood will run to the horses' bridles [Rev. 14:20; Ezek. 38:22].)

7 The new wine mourns, the vine languishes, all the merryhearted do sigh. (In olden times, the harvest constituted days of merrymaking. It was the grandest time of the year. But at this coming time, there will be no "merryhearted," but only those who "do sigh.")

8 The mirth of tabrets ceases, the noise of them who rejoice ends, the joy of the harp ceases. (All is dismay and wretchedness — desolation in the present and worse desolation expected in the future.)

9 They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them who drink it. (This Passage does not mean that men will cease drinking alcohol; they will probably drink even more, yet without any accompanying merriment that usually corresponds with such action.

During the last three and a half years of the Great Tribulation, there will be no more "joy" in Israel.)

10 The city of confusion is broken down: every house is shut up, that no man may come in. (This probably addresses Jerusalem. Chaos reigns. There is no civic life, no government, no order, and nothing but confusion [Zech. 14:2].)

11 There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone. (During the Great Tribulation, there is implication that great amounts of alcohol will be consumed. They will desire its opiate for the oblivion it brings when drunk to excess.)

12 In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction. (No amount of negotiations, diplomacy, or treaty agreements can halt the inevitable march of this coming doom, because the Third Verse says, "The LORD has spoken this Word."

Even though this judgment is horrifying, still, it is not meant by the Lord to be punitive, but rather corrective.)

JEWISH REMNANT REJOICES

13 When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, there shall be as the shaking of an olive tree, and as the gleaning grapes when the vintage is done. (The idea of this Verse is to portray the tremendous number of Jews who will be killed in the latter half of the Great Tribulation and at the Battle of Armageddon. Zechariah said that two-thirds would die [Zech. 13:8]. There are approximately 5 million Jews in Israel presently. The death of two-thirds would leave about 1.6 million alive. As stated, it won't be a pleasant time!)

14 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the sea. (This refers to the remnant that is left at the beginning of the Kingdom Age, after Christ has returned, and those remaining in Israel have accepted Him as Saviour and Lord. There will be great rejoicing [Zech. 13:9].)

15 Wherefore glorify you the LORD in the fires, even the Name of the LORD God of Israel in the isles of the sea. (It seems that the word "fires" is an unfortunate translation. The rendering which the Hebrew seems to suggest is that the "Lord" will be glorified even to the borders of Israel.

"Crying aloud from the sea" refers to the border on the west, which is the Mediterranean.)

A NEW AGE FOLLOWING JUDGMENT

16 From the uttermost part of the Earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, My leanness, my leanness, woe unto me! the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yes, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously. (The "Righteous" is the "Messiah." Israel rejected the "Righteous One" and accepted the "treacherous dealers," which brought a terrible "leanness." Now they will have finally realized their tragic mistake, and, at long last, will glorify "the Righteous," i.e., "Christ.")

17 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon you, O inhabitant of the Earth. (The Prophecy now reverts back to the time of the Great Tribulation. "Fear" will captivate the entirety of mankind and even the atmosphere.)

18 And it shall come to pass, that he who flees from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he who comes up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the Earth do shake. (These great judgments in the coming Great Tribulation will affect the entirety of the Earth [Rev. 6:12-17; 11:13; 16:17-21].)

19 The Earth is utterly broken down, the Earth is clean dissolved, the Earth is moved exceedingly. (The implication from the Scholars is that the English translation is very feeble compared to the original. Giant earthquakes, greater than the world has ever seen before, will no doubt be instrumental in this great calamity [Rev. 16:18].)

20 The Earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; and it shall fall, and not rise again. (The phrase, "shall be removed like a cottage," means to sway to and fro like a hammock. During this time, one can well imagine what will happen to the tides, mountains, and even vast continents! [Rev. 16:16-21].)

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones who are on high, and the kings of the Earth upon the Earth. (The words, "in that day," refer to the Battle of Armageddon. Then, all the mighty men on Earth, plus Satan, demon spirits, and fallen angels, will be dealt with by the Lord at the Second Coming [Rev. 19:19-21; 20:1-10].)

22 And they shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be visited. (Satan and all fallen angels and demon spirits will be locked in the bottomless pit for a thousand years [Rev. 20:1-7]. At the end of that thousand years will be the second resurrection of damnation, when every unsaved person who has ever lived will stand before God at the Great White Throne Judgment. There will be no reprieve.

So, Jesus Christ can be your Saviour today or your Judge tomorrow; but one way or the other, all will face Christ [Rev. 20:11-15].)

THE MILLENNIAL REIGN OF THE MESSIAH

23 Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when the LORD of Hosts shall reign in Mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and before His ancients gloriously. (The Chapter closes with the glorious Promise of the coming Kingdom Age.)

CHAPTER 25

MILLENNIAL WORSHIP: PRAISE FOR GOD'S PAST RIGHTEOUS JUDGMENTS

[1] O Lord, You are my God; I will exalt You, I will praise Your Name; for You have done wonderful things; Your counsels of old are faithfulness and truth. (This Chapter pertains to the coming Millennial morn, when the cause of all suffering will be put away and the cause of all life will be enthroned. He is Christ. The Promises are glorious and they will surely come to pass.)

[2] For You have made of a city an heap; of a defenced city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built. (The things outlined in this Chapter include the destruction of Babylon, which represents all of man's rebellion against God. It will never be rebuilt. Sin and rebellion have had their day; Righteousness now prevails.)

[3] Therefore shall the strong people glorify You, the city of the terrible nations (Babylon) shall fear You. (Babylon, whether the actual city or the system, is the city indicated in Verse 2; it will be rebuilt by the Antichrist, who will head it up; it will express all the opposition to the True Prince of this world from the day of its foundation by Nimrod. But now all of that will have its end, and will never rise again.)

[4] For You have been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall. (The "poor" and "needy" in this Passage refer to Israel in particular and to all who follow the Lord in all ages, in opposition to the "strong people" and "terrible nations" in Verse 3, which oppose God's People.

While the efforts by the Evil One against the Child of God are mighty, still, the protection by the Righteous One is Almighty!)

5 You shall bring down the noise of strangers, as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of a cloud: the branch of the terrible ones shall be brought low. (The Prophecy now reverts from the Millennial Reign back to the Battle of Armageddon and the defeat of the Antichrist.)

PRAISE FOR BLESSINGS TO GOD'S PEOPLE AND JUDGMENT ON ENEMIES

6 And in this mountain shall the LORD of Hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined. (The greatness of this "feast" is vividly suggested by the way the words are heaped together. This is even more apparent in the Hebrew Text.

The Kingdom Age will be the grandest time the world has ever known. For the first time, planet Earth will be at rest from all war, starvation, pain, and sickness.)

7 And He will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and the vail that is spread over all nations. ("In this mountain" refers to the headquarters of Christ on Earth, which will be Jerusalem and Mount Zion.

Since Adam's Fall, no one has ever seen the world, or man for that matter, as God originally created them. When Christ comes back, for the first time things will be as they ought to be, because Christ reigns.)

8 He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of His people shall He take away from off all the Earth: for the LORD has spoken it. (The "swallowing up of death in victory" has to do with the First Resurrection of life. While death will not be taken away totally from the Earth during the Kingdom Age, it definitely will be taken away totally for all who know Christ.

Hosea, who was a contemporary of Isaiah, was the first one to mention the abolishment of death. Other than that, this Passage by Isaiah was the first announcement that death was to disappear and cease to be a possibility. To have such an announcement as this was an enormous advance on the dim and vague conceptions of a future life current to that time. Hitherto, men had been "through fear of death all their lives subject to bondage" [Heb. 2:14]. Now, they were taught that in the Resurrection-life there would be no fear and no possibility of death.

The joyous outburst of the Apostle Paul, when he quotes the present Passage [I Cor. 15:54], is the natural thanksgiving song of reassured humanity from recognizing its final Deliverance from the unspeakable terror of death and the unknown beyond.

This great pronouncement is closed by the words, "The LORD has spoken it." There can be no retraction. The blessings promised are certain to be obtained. As stated, this will be during the Millennial Reign.)

9 And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for Him, and He will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for Him, we will be glad and rejoice in His Salvation. (The words, "in that day," place the time factor of this great pronouncement in the Millennium, which is the same as the "Kingdom Age."

The phrase, "this is our God," means "this Man is Jehovah," speaking of Christ.

The words, "He will save us," refer to the Second Coming, when the Lord of Glory, the One they first rejected, will come and save them. He is the only One Who can save them.)

10 For in this mountain shall the Hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be trodden down under Him, even as straw is trodden down for the dunghill. (Once again, "this mountain" refers to Mount Zion in Jerusalem. The first nine Verses of this Chapter contain the song that is to be sung; the last three, faith's subscription as the certitude of its being sung.

"Moab" is representative of every form of human hostility. In fact, the Moabites in ancient times were the bitterest of all the adversaries of Israel

[II Ki. 24:2; Ezek. 25:8-11]. Therefore, they are regarded as the fittest representatives of the human adversaries of God.)

11 And He shall spread forth His Hands in the midst of them, as he who swims spreads forth his hands to swim: and He shall bring down their pride together with the spoils of their hands. (Christ will only have to order the decree and it shall be done; that refers to whatever is needed. All enemies of Righteousness will be put down, and forever.)

12 And the fortress of the high fort of your walls shall He bring down, lay low, and bring to the ground, even to the dust. ("Your walls" refer to both Babylon and Moab. Thus, Babylon and Moab are morally united in this Prophecy. Babylon often appears as a political oppressor and Moab as a spiritual corruptor [Num., Chpts. 22-24].

The idea is that this "fortress" of Satan will be brought down to the ground, even to the dust, which insures certain, total, and absolute defeat, never to rise again.)

CHAPTER 26

(712 B.C.)

A MILLENNIAL SONG: PRAISE FOR THE SALVATION OF THE RIGHTEOUS AND PUNISHMENT OF THE WICKED

[1] In that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong city; Salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks. (The entirety of this Chapter is a Millennial song to be sung by Judah as a song of triumph in that coming Glad Day.

The "night" of Israel's captivity and subjection [Vs. 9] is to be succeeded by the "day" of her Restoration and glory.

"The lofty city" [Babylon, Vs. 5], representative of Satan's whole power, will be destroyed, and the "strong city" [Jerusalem] will be beautified and fortified by Jehovah, its Salvation.

The words, "in that day," signify the coming Millennium, and consequently have not yet been fulfilled.)

[2] Open you the gates, that the righteous nation which keeps the Truth may enter in. (Israel has never fully kept "the Truth," but now will do so. "The Truth" is the Word of God.)

[3] You will keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on You: because he trusts in You. (The keynote of this Passage is "Peace." It speaks of the coming Glad Day of the Millennium, when Christ, the Prince of Peace, reigns supremely on Earth.

As well, every Believer can presently enjoy the tremendous fruit of this Promise by keeping our minds centered on Christ and what Christ has done for us at the Cross. This shows total and complete "trust.")

4 Trust y ou in the LORD forever: for in the LORD JEHOVAH is everlasting strength (Jehovah is the Rock of Ages, the Undefeatable One, the Eternal Strong One. The implication of this Verse is that whereas men, even faithful men, will sometimes prove unfaithful, the Lord can be trusted "forever." He will not change or vary in direction. What He says today, He will say tomorrow)**:

5 For He brings down them who dwell on high; the lofty city, He lays it low; He lays it low, even to the ground; He brings it even to the dust. ("The lofty city" is Babylon. It speaks of Satan's efforts through man from the beginning, and it will never rise again. Immediately before or at the Second Coming, the Lord will "lay it low.")

6 The foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy. (The "poor" and "needy" constitute Israel. Now, energized by Christ, she shall tread down the glory and power of the enemy.)

THE WAY OF THE RIGHTEOUS

7 The way of the just is uprightness: You, Most Upright, do weigh the path of the just. (The way of the just can be described with one word — uprightness. The "Most Upright" is Christ. He is the One Who makes level the "path of the just." As well, one can be "just" only in Christ and Faith in what He did for us at the Cross.)

8 Yes, in the way of Your judgments, O LORD, have we waited for You; the desire of our soul is to Your Name, and to the remembrance of You. (The righteous nation and the righteous person do not follow the judgments of their own wisdom, but walk in the way of Divine Judgments, and in the energy of true affection for the absent but expected Messiah.)

9 With my soul have I desired You in the night; yes, with my spirit within me will I seek You early: for when Your judgments are in the Earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness. (This is similar to a portion of the Lord's Prayer, "Your Will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven" [Mat. 6:10]. That prayer has yet to be answered, but most surely it will be answered!)

THE WAY OF THE WICKED

10 Let favour be shown to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: in the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD. (This Verse foretells the present dispensation of Grace and predicts man's rejection of it. Verses 9 and 11 point to the day of wrath that is to succeed it. Then man will learn that God is faithful to His People and righteous in His punishment of their adversaries.)

11 LORD, when Your Hand is lifted up, they will not see: but they shall see, and be ashamed for their envy at the people; yes, the fire of Your enemies shall devour them. (This Verse may be thus understood: "Lord, Your Hand is lifted up in indignation in defense of Your People, Israel; yet the wicked nations do not recognize it; but they shall see Your Zeal for Your ancient People and shall be ashamed; and the fire reserved for Your Adversaries shall devour them."

If men will not yield to God's Grace, they must bow to His Wrath!)

THE PRAYER OF GOD'S PEOPLE ANSWERED

12 LORD, You will ordain peace for us: for You also have wrought all our works in us. (As it is with Israel, so it is with Believers; our Salvation is ordained and accomplished by God Alone.)

13 O LORD our God, other lords beside You have had dominion over us: but by You only will we make mention of Your Name. (The "other lords" were the oppressors of the past. But it is the Lord Alone Who holds the answers.)

14 They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore have You visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish. (Those who oppressed Israel, Isaiah says, are "dead" and "deceased," and shall not rise and live in the First Resurrection [Rev.

20:6]; however, they shall rise in the second resurrection of damnation [Rev. 20:14-15], and then they shall be punished, destroyed, and all their memory caused to perish.)

15 You have increased the nation, O LORD, You have increased the nation: You are glorified: You have removed it far unto all the ends of the Earth. (The Lord increased Israel, and then removed it, because of rebellion against Righteousness. But Israel will be restored.)

16 LORD, in trouble have they visited You, they poured out a prayer when Your chastening was upon them. (Israel has done this many times in the past, but will do it even in a greater way during the last half of the Great Tribulation. At that time, they will truly be "in trouble" [Jer. 20:1-9; Dan. 12:1; Rev., Chpt. 12].)

17 Like as a woman with child, who draws near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and cries out in her pangs; so have we been in Your sight, O LORD. (Paul alluded to this in I Thess. 5:3. Israel will then find out that the Antichrist is not really the Messiah, but an imposter, meaning that the last half of the Great Tribulation is going to be a terrible time for Israel, actually more terrible than she has every known before [Mat. 24:21].)

18 We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the Earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen. (In effect, the Holy Spirit is saying through Isaiah that Israel has brought forth nothing in the world but "wind." They did not bring any "deliverance to the Earth," as God intended, because they became too lifted up in their own self-righteousness. "The inhabitants of the world," namely the Gentiles, did not bow to Israel's God, but instead continued to worship idols [Rom. 10:1-3].)

RESURRECTION OF THE JUST; PUNISHMENT OF THE UNJUST

19 Your dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, you who dwell in dust: for your dew is as the dew of herbs, and the Earth shall cast out the dead. (The Holy Spirit in this Passage declares the Truth of the coming Resurrection of Life [I Thess.

4:16-18]. The phrase, "And the Earth shall cast out the dead," refers to the giants, or the Rephaim, which the Earth will not yield up in Resurrection. This concerns fallen angels who cohabited with women, bringing forth a race of giants [Gen. 6:4].)

20 Come, My people, enter you into your chambers, and shut your doors about you: hide yourself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast. (This speaks of the latter half of the Great Tribulation, and comprises about three and a half years. At this time, when Israel is invaded by the Antichrist, she will flee to Petra, which is in modern-day Jordan, comprising the area once known as Edom and Moab.)

21 For, behold, the LORD comes out of His Place to punish the inhabitants of the Earth for their iniquity: the Earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her dead. (This proclaims the Wrath of God being poured out upon the Earth in the coming Great Tribulation. It refers, as well, to the Battle of Armageddon, which will take place at the very conclusion of the Great Tribulation.)

CHAPTER 27

SATAN DEFEATED AT ARMAGEDDON

1 In that day the LORD with His sore and great and strong sword shall punish Leviathan the piercing serpent, even Leviathan that crooked serpent; and He shall kill the dragon that is in the sea. (The words, "in that day," refer to the Great Tribulation and the Millennium. As well, "Leviathan" refers to Satan. Victory over this "Evil One" will take place at the Battle of Armageddon [Rev., Chpt. 19].)

A MILLENNIAL SONG

2 In that day sing you unto her, A vineyard of red wine. (This refers to the Millennium, when this "Vineyard" called Israel will, at long last, bring forth the proper fruit, and in copious amounts!)

3 I the LORD do keep it; I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day. (This guarantees that Israel will never again wander, but rather will walk close to the Lord, and forever.)

4 Fury is not in Me: who would set the briers and thorns against Me in battle? I would go through them, I would burn them together. (The anger of the Lord toward Judah has been eternally abated, because they have accepted Him as Saviour and Lord. As well, He will allow no "briers and thorns" to grow in this Vineyard. In effect, it will be a pure Vineyard.)

5 Or let him take hold of My strength, that he may make peace with Me, and he shall make peace with Me. (Now the Lord addresses the nations of the world that have previously thrown in their lot with the Antichrist. The Lord will invite these nations to "make peace with Me." Every indication is that they will!)

6 He shall cause them who come of Jacob to take root: Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit. (Israel being now in her rightful place will insure the blessing of the entirety of the world [Ps. 67].)

7 Has He smitten him, as He smote those who smote him? or is he dead according to the slaughter of them who are killed by Him? (The question of this Verse is: "Did God chasten Israel in the same measure that He smote her oppressors?" The following Verse supplies the answer. It is "No!"

8 In measure, when it shoots forth, you will debate with it: he stays his rough wind in the day of the east wind. (The words, "in measure," refer to the purging of Israel, but not to its destruction. The words, "when it shoots forth," refer to the stroke of judgment which was for correction and not for destruction. The "rough wind" was tempered as well as the tempestuous and violent "east wind."

Israel is the mystery people of the ages. By all logical accounts, they should have gone into the dark night long ago; nevertheless, despite the ferocious attacks by the enemy, they have remained a viable people. It is because of this one Verse!)

9 By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged; and this is all the fruit to take away his sin; when he makes all the stones of the Altar as chalkstones that are beaten in sunder, the groves and images shall not stand up. (The cleansing effect of this purging of the Vine is declared. In this Verse, the word "fruit" means "results." The result of chastening is that iniquity is purged and sin taken away.

This is not necessarily the expiation of guilt by the Atonement of Christ, for that has already been done, but it is the purging of a branch already in the True Vine [Zech. 13:1; Jn., Chpt. 15].)

10 Yet the defenced city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof. (The "defensed city" is Jerusalem. Isaiah now comes back to his present day, and speaks of the coming destruction of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar. This would happen a little over a hundred years later. Jerusalem was destroyed again in A.D. 70. And even though it was inhabited, and has been from then until now, still, for the last 2,000 years, as far as God is concerned, spiritually it is "left like a wilderness.")

11 When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come, and set them on fire: for it is a people of no understanding: therefore He Who made them will not have mercy on them, and He Who formed them will show them no favour. (A little over a hundred years after this Prophecy, Israel was "broken off," exactly as was prophesied by Isaiah.)

ISRAEL WILL BE REGATHERED TO MOUNT ZION

12 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall beat off from the channel of the river unto the stream of Egypt, and you shall be gathered one by one, O you Children of Israel. (The words, "in that day," as usual, speak of the Millennium. After Israel accepts Jesus as their Saviour and Lord, which they will immediately after the Second Coming, there will be a great migration of Jews from all over the world to Israel, and with great joy.)

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the LORD in the Holy Mount at Jerusalem. ("The great trumpet" will be the Jubilee Trump, summoning all Israel to the Feast of Tabernacles, which will be celebrated to and with the Messiah at Jerusalem. When the "trumpet" blows, "the outcasts" will finally come home!)

CHAPTER 28

WOE TO EPHRAIM

[1] Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them who are overcome with wine! (Chapters 28 through 35 may be regarded as one continuous Prophecy. Its "woes" are contrasted with the "burdens" of the preceding section. In these "woes," the Divine purpose is alternately thrown into sharp contrast.

The men of Ephraim [the Northern Kingdom] were drunkards, both actually and morally. They were intoxicated with the strong wine of idolatry.)

[2] Behold, the Lord has a mighty and strong one, which as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the Earth with the hand. (The "mighty and strong one" pertains to the king of Assyria, who was to destroy the Northern Kingdom and, thereby, take the Ten Tribes into captivity [II Ki., Chpt. 17].

As well, after "cast down," supply the words, "drunkards of Ephraim."

[3] The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden under feet (this "crown of pride" is the self-complacency and boastful spirit of the Israelite people, who will be "trodden under feet" by the Assyrians)**:

[4] And the glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the hasty fruit before the summer; which when he who looks upon it sees, while it is yet in his hand he eats it up. (Figs ripen in August, but some which ripen in June are considered a great delicacy. Immediately, they are plucked then and eaten. So would Sennacherib, the Assyrian prince, quickly and thoroughly swallow up

Samaria.)

5 In that day shall the LORD of Hosts be for a Crown of Glory, and for a Diadem of beauty, unto the residue of His People. (Across the gloom of this Chapter is cast the bright ray of Verses 5 and 6. The Prophecy of these two Verses pertains to Isaiah's day, as well as the coming Millennium.)

6 And for a spirit of judgment to him who sits in judgment, and for strength to them who turn the battle to the gate. (Hezekiah came to the throne of Judah only three years before the fatal siege of Samaria, the Northern Kingdom, began. It was the dawn of a day of promise for the Southern Kingdom, such as the Prophet seems to point to in these two Verses. Under Hezekiah, the Lord would bring back "a spirit of judgment," which pertains to the following of the Bible.

The "strength" addressed here pertains to Hezekiah smiting the Philistines, etc. [II Ki. 18:8].)

WOE TO JUDAH

7 But they also (Judah) have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; the Priest and the Prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment. (The magistrates were "Priests." The Preachers were "Prophets." These were drunk in the pulpit ["they reel in Vision"] and were tipsy while on the bench ["they stumble in judgment"]. This tells us that the reformation effected by Hezekiah was but a half-reformation. It put away idolatry, but it left untouched a variety of moral evils.)

8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean. (Isaiah says, "There is no place," referring to the fact that every part of Judah, from the ruling order to the Priestly order, was contaminated. It was quite an indictment!)

9 Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them who are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts. (This Verse is meant to be understood as the mocking words of the scornful men of Jerusalem [Vs. 14]. They taunted Isaiah with his own words, "knowledge" and "doctrine," insinuating that they were mere "catch-words."

The term translated "doctrine" properly means "tidings," and involves the idea that the Prophet obtained the teachings so designated by direct Revelation from God.)

10 For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little (the Hebrew word for "precept" is "tsav" and means "injunction" or "commandment." The second "precept" is from the Hebrew word "tsavah," which means "to enjoin" or "to appoint, charge, set in order." The Hebrew for "line" is "qav," which means "a rule, measuring cord, here a little and there a little."

The idea is that everything must be measured by the Word of God. No other "measurement" will be accepted. To be sure, Judah fell woefully short):

11 For with stammering lips and another tongue will He speak to this People. (The phrase, "stammering lips," refers to a proper language being spoken, but yet the people hearing it would not understand it. Paul quoted this same Passage as it regards the Gift of Tongues as a sign to unbelievers [I Cor. 14:21-22]. Oftentimes, the Holy Spirit used strange circumstances to present Prophecy proclaiming tremendously important coming events, even as this Prophecy does.

Such also was the Prophecy given through Isaiah of the Birth of Christ through a "virgin" [Isa. 7:14]. The occasion would be the unbelief, ridicule, and scorn of wicked Ahaz.

Therefore, it seems that the Holy Spirit designed both these Prophecies [the Virgin Birth of Christ and the Baptism with the Holy Spirit], to occasion faith in Believers and unbelief in mockers!)

12 To whom He said, This is the rest wherewith you may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear. (Coupled with Verse 11, this tells us that speaking with other tongues brings about a "rest" from the tiredness of the journey of life. As well, speaking with other tongues brings about a "refreshing," which rejuvenates the person. Many people ask, "What good is there in speaking with other tongues?" This mentioned by Isaiah presents two blessings, of which there are many. Regrettably, despite this tremendous gift given to the people of God, at least to those who will believe, like Judah of old, most "will not hear," even as Paul quoted Isaiah [I Cor. 14:21].)

13 But the Word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken. (The meaning is that because they would not hear, therefore, by a just judgment, will the simplicity of the Gospel become a stumblingblock to them, resulting in their captivity.

While this "captivity" pertained to Judah of old, it also pertains to modern Christians who "will not hear.")

JERUSALEM WARNED

14 Wherefore hear the Word of the LORD, you scornful men, who rule this people which is in Jerusalem. (Isaiah now turns from a denunciation of the Priests and Prophets, who especially opposed his teaching, to a threatening of the great men who guided the course of public affairs. He called them "scornful men.")

15 Because you have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with Hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves (the "covenant of death" that Isaiah was speaking of was probably Judah's agreement with Egypt. It also refers to the "covenant" that Israel will make with the Antichrist at the beginning of the Great Tribulation.

It is very interesting to see the terminology used by the Holy Spirit. Truly the "covenant" that Judah had made, whatever it was, was with "death" and "Hell"):

16 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a Stone, a tried Stone, a precious Corner Stone, a sure Foundation: he who believes shall not make haste. (This Passage speaks of the Lord Jesus Christ. As Zion was not itself the Corner Stone, so the Church is not the Saviour. Christ is the "Stone," but sadly almost the entirety of the world stumbles over this "tried Stone."

Every "foundation" that is not "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" is built upon "lies" and "falsehood.")

17 Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place. (A "plummet" is a piece of metal on a string that makes a straight line of its own weight as it hangs down. Not only is the Messiah the Foundation, He is also the "Plummet," i.e., He is the standard of Righteousness that will stand in the judgment. All who stand there will be measured by this Divine Line and Plummet, and those who are not found as perfect and sinless as He will be rejected.)

18 And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with Hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then you shall be trodden down by it. (The Assyrians, like an overflowing scourge, would go through Judah. The Holy Spirit is saying that the entire clever arrangement by which Judah thought to avert the danger from themselves will come to naught.)

19 From the time that it goes forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation only to understand the report. (The words, "to understand the report," are an allusion to Verse 9. They had scorned Isaiah's "doctrine," when he taught them by word of mouth; they will understand it too well and find it "nothing but a terror," when it is impressed upon them by its actual fulfillment.)

20 For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it. (The Jews will have made themselves a bed in which they can have no comfort or ease, and consequently no rest. But they will only have themselves to blame! This also has reference to the Plumbline. The righteousness produced by man is woefully inadequate.)

[21] For the LORD shall rise up as in Mount Perazim, He shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that He may do His work, His strange work; and bring to pass His act, His strange act. (Just as God broke forth at Gibeon and at Perazim [II Sam. 5:20], so He was about to break forth upon His Own People; but, He adds with anguish in His tone, to act against them would be for Him a foreign and an unwanted action, i.e., "a strange work."

It was Judah's strange conduct which caused God's strange action. They had become, as it were, Philistines.)

[22] Now therefore be you not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord GOD of Hosts a consumption, even determined upon the whole Earth. (The Holy Spirit through the Prophet now entreats Judah to repent.)

AN ILLUSTRATION OF THE FARMER

[23] Give you ear, and hear My voice; hearken, and hear My speech. (Judah at this time would in fact partially hear. Because of the intercession of Hezekiah and Isaiah, God would send an Angel who would kill 185,000 Assyrian soldiers. Thus, Jerusalem and Judah would be spared, at least for now.)

[24] Does the plowman plow all day to sow? does he open and break the clods of his ground? (Using a farmer as an example, the Lord in effect says that He will try again to bring Judah to the place she ought to be.)

[25] When he has made plain the face thereof, does he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in the principal wheat and the appointed barley and the rie in their place? (The detail to which the Holy Spirit went in describing how the farmer protects his land and plants the seed illustrates the detail with which God had prepared the spiritual soil of Judah.)

[26] For his God does instruct him to discretion, and does teach him. (That which taught man then, and that which teaches man now, is the Word of God.)

[27] For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

[28] Bread corn is bruised; because he will not ever be threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen. (The idea is that the farmer will not continue always threshing the grain nor crunching it with his cart wheel and with his horses. In other words, he will not bruise it.

The afflictions which God sends upon His People are adapted to their strengths or the lack thereof, and to their needs. In no case are they used to crush and injure; only such violence is used that is required to detach the good seed from the husk. Where the process is most severe, still, the "bread corn" is not "bruised.")

[29] This also comes forth from the LORD of Hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working. (The Prophet goes no further, but leaves his disciples to draw the conclusion that God's Own method of working will be similar to the farmer threshing the grain [Prov. 8:14].)

CHAPTER 29

(712 B.C.)

JUDGMENT ON JERUSALEM

[1] Woe to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David dwelt! add you year to year; let them kill sacrifices. (The word "Ariel" means "the Lion of God," which is another name for Jerusalem.

Judah thought that their religious activity [the offering of the Sacrifices] would cancel the judgment that was determined upon Jerusalem; however, their experience was ceremony only, with no relationship with the Lord.)

[2] Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be heaviness and sorrow: and it shall be unto me as Ariel. (Two things are said here: 1. The religious activity, for all the obvious reasons, would not stop God's Hand of Judgment and 2. Despite what will happen, Jerusalem will ultimately be the "Lion of God."

[3] And I will camp against you round about, and will lay siege against you with a mount, and I will raise forts against you. (These things did not happen when Sennacherib invaded Judah and threatened Jerusalem. So, the coming Tribulation will see its total fulfillment.)

[4] And you shall be brought down, and shall speak out of the ground, and your speech shall be low out of the dust, and your voice shall be, as of one who has a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and your speech shall whisper out of the dust. (This Passage has to do with the Antichrist breaking his seven-year covenant with Israel at the midpoint and actually invading the land.

The "familiar spirit" that is spoken of here speaks of the Antichrist setting up his statue in the Temple and demanding worship [II Thess. 2:4].)

5 Moreover the multitude of your s trangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be as chaff that passes away: yes, it shall be at an instant suddenly. (The "strangers" speak of the hordes who are with the Antichrist when he comes into Israel at the end of the seven-year period, determined to completely destroy the holy people.

Even though the Antichrist will have so many men in his army that they are likened by the Holy Spirit as "small dust," still, they will "pass away" as "chaff." Isaiah also said it would be done "suddenly," which will take place at the Coming of the Lord.)

6 You shall be visited of the LORD of Hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire. (This will no doubt be the greatest phenomenon the world has ever known. At times in the past, the Lord has used the elements; however, He will use them here as never before [Ezek. 38:17-23].)

JUDGMENT ON HER ENEMIES

7 And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all who fight against her and her munition, and who distress her, shall be as a dream of a night vision. (Both Verses 7 and 8 continue to speak of the coming Battle of Armageddon, but also have reference to Jerusalem's Deliverance from the Assyrian horde.

Most, if not all, of Psalm 126 is devoted to the miraculous deliverance of Jerusalem from the Assyrian.)

8 It shall even be as when an hungry man dreams, and, behold, he eats; but he awakes, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreams, and, behold, he drinks; but he awakes, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul has appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against Mount Zion. (The idea is, the Antichrist will feel certain that he is going to take Jerusalem and destroy every Jew down to the last man.

He is like a "hungry man" who dreams he has eaten a full meal, and awakens and finds that, in fact, he has not eaten anything, but rather is "empty." Contrary to his thoughts, his efforts as well are going to come up "empty.")

THE BLINDNESS OF ISRAEL

9 Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry you out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. (This Verse should read: "Be ye amazed and you shall be amazed! Blind yourselves and you shall become blind!" — that is, a judicial blindness would descend upon them, and they would be amazed at God's Action toward them.

But these Verses actually belong to the future. Because Israel shut her eyes to the Work and Person of the Messiah at His First Advent, the Book of God and its Vision have ever since been covered with a veil to them and will so remain up to the Second Advent.)

10 For the LORD has poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes: the Prophets and your rulers, the seers has He covered. (The "deep sleep" spoken of here refers to a spiritual deadness and impassiveness — an inability to appreciate or even to understand spiritual warnings.)

11 And the Vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one who is learned, saying, Read this, I pray you: and he says, I cannot; for it is sealed *(these were "learned" men; in other words, they were knowledgeable in the Word of God; these were the spiritual leaders of Israel, and yet they were totally without spiritual understanding; they were devoid of spiritual discernment; even the rulers were but "blind leaders of the blind"):

12 And the book is delivered to him who is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray you: and he said, I am not learned. (The thrust of this Message has little to do with academic excellence. Isaiah is speaking of the spiritual deadness of the people, irrespective of their ability to read or write.)

13 Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near Me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour Me, but have removed their heart far from Me, and their fear toward Me is taught by the precept of men (this Passage was quoted by Christ [Mat. 15:7-9]; there are four causes of spiritual blindness recorded here: 1. Drawing near to God with the mouth only; 2. Honoring Him with the lips only; 3. Removing the heart far from Him; and, 4. Fearing Him only after the precept of men)**:

[14] Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid. (The idea of the Passage is that despite the unbelief of men, God's Work would nevertheless be carried out. While it is true that the unbelief would cause millions to die eternally lost, still, some would accept. Those who accept will receive Eternal Life.)

[15] Woe unto them who seek deep to hide their counsel from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who sees us? and who knows us? (In particular, this Passage applies to the secret negotiations between the rulers in Jerusalem and the king of Egypt. They conducted themselves as if the Lord did not know their actions.)

[16] Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay: for shall the work say of him who made it, He made me not? or shall the thing framed say of him who framed it, He had no understanding? (These people were so perverse and wrong-headed that they inverted the relation in which they stood to God and God to them. In their thinking, God was to be passive, or merely given opportunities of action; they were to mold, or so they thought, their own plans and carve out their own destinies. Taking their destinies into their own hands was equivalent to saying that they were their own masters, which they could not be if God made them.

To refuse to take counsel of God and to direct the national policy by the light of their own reason was to tax God with having no understanding.)

THE REDEMPTION OF ISRAEL

[17] Is it not yet a very little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest? (The Holy Spirit through Isaiah leaps ahead, leaving behind the unbelief, the doubting, and the spiritual obstinacy of Judah. The time that He now speaks of is the coming Kingdom Age, which has not even yet come to pass, but most surely will.)

[18] And in that day shall the deaf hear the Words of the Book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness. (The words, "in that day," at least as far as total fulfillment is concerned, refer to the coming Millennial Reign.)

[19] The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. (In effect, the Holy Spirit is saying that even though the men of Judah would not hear the "Holy One of Israel," nevertheless, the "meek" and the "poor" among men, referring to the Gentiles, would "rejoice in the Holy One of Israel."

This is a veiled reference to the Church, which even Isaiah himself probably did not understand.)

[20] For the terrible one is brought to nought, and the scorner is consumed, and all who watch for iniquity are cut off (this refers to the Battle of Armageddon, when the Antichrist will be killed, with all the scorners at that time set straight; this, of course, will take place at the Second Coming)**:

[21] That make a man an offender for a word, and lay a snare for him who reproves in the gate, and turn aside the just for a thing of nought. (This is the spirit of self-righteousness, which prevailed upon the First Advent of Christ. The Pharisees laid many "snares" for Christ; still, they never caught Him. As well, Christ was the Only Truly "Just" Individual Who ever lived. Israel "turned Him aside for a thing of naught." In other words, for no reason at all!)

[22] Therefore thus says the LORD, Who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob, Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now wax pale. (In the coming Kingdom Age, Israel will finally conduct herself as she should, because of her acceptance of Christ. This means that "Jacob" will no longer be ashamed.)

23 But when he sees his children, the work of My Hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify My Name, and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall fear the God of Israel. (This will take place during the coming Kingdom Age, when Israel will accept the Christ Whom they so long rejected. At that time, they will "sanctify the Holy One of Jacob" [Zech. 13:1].)

24 They also who erred in spirit shall come to understanding, and they who murmured shall learn doctrine. (The "murmuring" speaks of doubt and unbelief. The phrase, "shall learn doctrine," means that they will willingly receive the teaching of God's Prophets and profit by it.)

CHAPTER 30

(713 B.C.)

THE FUTILITY OF TRUSTING EGYPT AND THE PHARAOH

[1] Woe to the rebellious children, says the LORD, who take counsel, but not of Me; and who cover with a covering, but not of My Spirit, that they may add sin to sin (in the preceding Chapter, the design of the Jewish rulers to seek the alliance of Egypt was covertly looked at and condemned; now it is openly declared and rebuked.

"Counsel" which is not of the Word of God is also not from God.

As well, only the Spirit of God can cover someone, which He does through the Word, which speaks of what Jesus did for us at the Cross. Actually, the "covering" comes for each Believer through Christ, Who Alone can actually cover. And He does so by the Spirit through the Cross. Christ is the Source, while the Cross is the Means.

Any poor mortal who thinks he can be the "covering" for another presents spiritual and Scriptural ignorance):

[2] Who walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at My mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt! (Egypt symbolized the world. The words, "who walk," insinuate that either the Jewish ambassadors had already started for Egypt or the Prophet sees them as if starting.

The words, "have not asked at My mouth," refer to the fact that Hezekiah, or at least the nobles of Judah, had not taken this matter to the Lord as they ought to have done [Num. 27:21].)

[3] Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion. (It is a "shame" for God's People to place their trust in man and not in God. The "confusion" is obvious. God's People are supposed to only seek the Lord for help and not the ways of the world, which are actually of Satan.)

4 For his princes were at Zoan, and his ambassadors came to Hanes. ("Zoan" was one of the principal cities of ancient Egypt, and it was probably the same as "Tanis." "Hanes" was probably not very far from "Zoan." To this place came Hezekiah's ambassadors. They would seek the help of the Egyptians against Assyria; however, we already know what the Lord has said about this!)

5 They were all ashamed of a people who could not profit them, nor be an help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach. (From this proposed alliance, Judah would be "put to shame" and become "also a reproach," which will always be the case for those who turn to the world instead of to the Lord.)

6 The burden of the beasts of the south: into the land of trouble and anguish, from whence come the young and old lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people who shall not profit them.

7 For the Egyptians shall help in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I cried concerning this, Their strength is to sit still. (The intent of the Holy Spirit is to portray the great efforts being made by Judah to appeal to Egypt, even to going through the howling desert; they would not so much as seek the Lord, even though He was with them in Jerusalem.)

GOD WILL JUDGE ISRAEL FOR REBELLION

8 Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come forever and ever *(Isaiah was told to write an account of this happening in a "Book." It was to be a warning to others, and so it was! As well, it became a part of the Bible):

9 That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children who will not hear the Law of the LORD (the leaders of Judah were both rebels and liars. Not being a fashionable Preacher like many today, Isaiah did not hesitate to tell them so. How they must have hated him! They were rebels, for they rebelled against the Law, and they were liars, because they claimed to keep it)**:

[10] Which say to the Seers, See not; and to the Prophets, Prophesy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits (the lips of the false prophets did not use the words of Verses 10 through 11; but their hearts did, and God, Who reads the heart, can expose its hatred and folly.

Now, almost all the modern pulpits speak "smooth things" and "prophesy deceits." They aren't hard to find; most any Church on Sunday morning will suffice):

[11] Get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us. (The irreligious Jews were weary of this constant iteration and wished to hear no more concerning the "Holy One," Whose very Holiness was a reproach to them.)

[12] Wherefore thus sa ys the Holy One of Israel, Because you despise this Word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon ("this Word" was the Word of God given by the Prophet; the people despised it!; He plainly told them that looking to Egypt was in vain; it was a message they did not want to hear)**:

[13] Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking comes suddenly at an instant. (The Holy Spirit told them through Isaiah that they were building a wall [lack of trust in God] which looked strong on the outside, but would suddenly break "at an instant.")

[14] And he shall break it as the breaking of the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit. (The implication is that the destruction would be so complete that there wouldn't be left even a piece large enough to carry water from a pit. The ruin would be total.)

15 For thus says the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel; In returning and rest shall you be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: and you would not. ("In returning and rest" refers to their turning back from their proposed embassage to Egypt and their resting in the Promises of God. This would result in Deliverance.

However, the admonition, "and you would not," not only held true then, but sadly holds true now.)

16 But you said, No; for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall you flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they who pursue you be swift. (Rather than come to God and allow Him to have His Way in their lives, they would rather allow Jerusalem to be destroyed and themselves rendered homeless. Their flippant answer was, "We will flee upon horses.")

17 One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall you flee: till you be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on an hill. (A pole upon the top of a mountain and a flagstaff on a hill are duplicated figures expressing loneliness and depopulation.)

SPIRITUAL AND MATERIAL BLESSINGS IN THE MILLENNIUM

18 And therefore will the LORD wait, that He may be gracious unto you, and therefore will He be exalted, that He may have mercy upon you: for the LORD is a God of Judgment: blessed are all they who wait for Him. (Verses 18 through 26 portray a renewal of Promise. The denunciations of the preceding Passages had been so terrible that, without some counterpose of Promise, they would have produced a general despair.

This was not the Divine purpose! Judah's probation still continued; therefore, it was not necessary to let it be seen that the Divine longsuffering was not yet exhausted — there were still conditions under which God would be gracious to His People. The conditions were "crying to the Lord" and the entire abolition of idolatry.)

19 For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: you shall weep no more: He will be very gracious unto you at the voice of your cry; when He shall hear it, He will answer you. (This has to do with the Battle of Armageddon, when Israel will cry to the Lord, and also to the Millennium; however, it also applies to any and all, and for all time, who will "cry" unto Him.)

20 And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, yet shall not your teachers be removed into a corner any more, but your eyes shall see your teachers (the "teachers being removed into a corner" referred to the Prophets who were sent by the Lord to Israel, but who were so maltreated that they had to hide in a "corner," i.e., flee for their lives. The "bread of adversity" and the "water of affliction," which are chastisements given by the Lord, are always given in love)**:

21 And your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, This is the Way, walk you in it, when you turn to the right hand, and when you turn to the left. (This pertains to the coming Kingdom Age, when Israel will finally be led by the Lord, and in totality!)

22 You shall defile also the covering of your graven images of silver, and the ornament of your molten images of gold: you shall cast them away as a menstruous cloth; you shall say unto it, Get you hence. (When the Holy Spirit has His Way, He will cleanse our lives of all "graven images" of self-will and rebellion. Once He begins to speak to us and deal with us, we will then begin to see sin and rebellion as filthy as they really are — "a menstruous cloth.")

23 Then shall He give the rain of your seed, that you shall sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the Earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall your cattle feed in large pastures. (This will take place with Israel in the coming Kingdom Age, but it can take place even now in the heart and life of every Christian who will dare to follow the Lord and do things His Way. Note the contrast of the "bread of adversity" in Verse 20 to the "bread of increase" in this Verse.)

24 The oxen likewise and the young asses that ear the ground shall eat clean provender, which has been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan. (The Passage speaks of victory!)

25 And there shall be upon every high mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. (This exhibition of Amazing Grace will synchronize with an exhibition of appalling judgment. It will be the day of destruction of the Antichrist, symbolized by the slaughter and destruction of mighty men ["towers"]; in Isaiah's day, this included the annihilation of the Assyrians and their generals [Isa. 37:36].)

26 Moreover the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD binds up the breach of His People, and heals the stroke of their wound. (This will be literal, and will take place in the coming Kingdom Age. The extended "light" of the moon and of the sun speaks of healing, for "light" heals. Such will heal not only Israel, but the entirety of the Earth.)

JUDGMENT ON ISRAEL'S ENEMIES

27 Behold, the Name of the LORD comes from far, burning with His anger, and the burden thereof is heavy: His lips are full of indignation, and His tongue as a devouring fire (this is a description of the Second Coming, when the Lord will completely destroy the Antichrist and the totality of his army [Ezek., Chpts. 38-39])**:

28 And His breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err. (This statement is a metaphor describing the fierceness of God's Judgment. It will reach to the "midst of the neck," meaning that it will be so deep that men cannot walk against it.

During the Battle of Armageddon, many "nations" will throw in their lot with the Antichrist, thinking not only to destroy all Jews, but also to take over the entirety of the world. Their "vanity" will bring on their destruction. The Lord will "sift" them with the "sieve" of their own "vanity," meaning that the snare they did lay for Israel will catch them instead.)

29 You shall have a song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goes with a pipe to come into the mountain of the LORD, to the Mighty One of Israel. (After the defeat of the Antichrist, Israel will now sing. Their song will be "to the Mighty One of Israel." At His First Advent, they crucified Him; at His Second Advent, they will sing to Him.)

30 And the LORD shall cause His glorious voice to be heard, and shall show the lighting down of His arm, with the indignation of His anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones. (This was prophesied by Ezekiel, as well [Ezek. 38:17-21]. This Passage refers to the Battle of Armageddon, with the "Assyrian" [Sennacherib] serving as a symbol.)

31 For through the Voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod. (The "Assyrian" refers to Sennacherib, as well as to the coming Antichrist. The "glorious voice" of the Messiah was not "heard" when He first came; however, it will very well now be heard.)

32 And in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which the LORD shall lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battles of shaking will He fight with it. (As the Lord snatches certain victory out of certain defeat, as the tide instantly turns in favor of His People [the Second Coming], and as the strokes of the Divine Rod smite that wicked king [the Antichrist], God's People will play upon "tabrets and harps.")

33 For Tophet is ordained of old; yes, for the king it is prepared; he has made it deep and large: the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, does kindle it. (This Passage speaks of the instant defeat of the Antichrist, a defeat so total that it will be absolutely complete.)

CHAPTER 31

THE FOLLY OF TRUSTING EGYPT

[1] Woe to them who go down to Egypt for help; and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the LORD! (This Chapter is one of warning, yet also of victory. The people go "down" into Egypt, both geographically and morally; in their fear of the Assyrians, they put their trust in the wisdom and cavalry of the Egyptians instead of in the Lord.)

[2] Yet He also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back His Words: but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of them who work iniquity. (In this Verse, the Holy Spirit is using intense irony. He is saying that "wisdom is not wholly confined to the human counselors whose advice Judah follows. He [Jehovah] is 'wise,' too, and could give prudent counsel, if His Advice were asked."

By making the statement in this fashion, the Holy Spirit is attempting to bring Judah to the place of comparing God's Wisdom, as opposed to the wisdom of the Egyptians.

The "house of the evildoers" is Jerusalem, "the workers of iniquity" are the men of Judah, and their "help" is the Egyptians.)

[3] Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not Spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out His Hand, both he who helps shall fall, and he who is helped shall fall down, and they all shall fail together. (In this Verse, the comparison is made between the "flesh" and the "Spirit." The "Egyptians" had nothing but the arm of "flesh," while Judah had the Power of the "Spirit," that is, if they would only use it. And that's the problem with the modern Church, as well! As Judah, it resorts to the ways of the world, instead of the Lord. What a sorry trade!)

GOD PROMISES PROTECTION TO HIS PEOPLE; HE CALLS FOR THEIR TRUST

[4] For thus has the LORD spoken unto me, Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so shall the LORD of Hosts come down to fight for Mount Zion, and for the hill thereof. (Verse Four points to the Might of the God of Israel and Verse Five to His Love. His Might is illustrated by a strong lion putting evil shepherds to flight, and His Love by the action of a bird hovering over its nest in order to protect its brood from the hawk.

The image of these proposals is best explained as representing Jehovah standing over and keeping guard on Jerusalem, which He will allow no one to rend from Him.)

[5] As birds flying, so will the LORD of Hosts defend Jerusalem; defending also He will deliver it; and passing over He will preserve it. (The Prophecy of this Chapter definitely refers to Isaiah's day, and the Deliverance of Jerusalem from the Assyrians; however, more particularly, it is directed to a future day when the Antichrist will attempt to destroy Israel and Jerusalem, but will be stopped by the Coming of the Lord.)

[6] Turn you unto Him from Whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted. (There is a great tenderness in this appeal. It pertained to Israel then, and it pertains to Israel of a coming day. Israel, at the beginning of the Great Tribulation, will accept the false messiah. This is what the Lord means by "deeply revolted.")

[7] For in that day every man shall cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for a sin. (The words, "in that day," speak of Israel's conversion, when she will return unto Jehovah, for true conversion is marked by a turning away from all "idols" and by the destruction of everything that disputes God's Kingdom in the soul.)

8 Then shall the Assyrian fall with the sword, not of a mighty man; and the sword, not of a mean man, shall devour him: but he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be discomfited. (The destruction of the Assyrian host in one night at Lachish by the Lord sending one Angel is predicted in Verses 8 and 9, but that did not exhaust the prediction of this Prophecy. Its total fulfillment awaits the destruction of the Antichrist and his host.

The Assyrian did not fall with the sword of a "mighty man" or of a "mean man"; he, like the future Assyrian, was "broken without hand," for a plague destroyed his army [Dan. 8:25].)

9 And he shall pass over to his strong hold for fear, and his princes shall be afraid of the Ensign, says the LORD, Whose fire is in Zion, and His furnace in Jerusalem. (As stated, the entirety of this Prophecy refers to both Sennacherib, who even then was bearing down upon Jerusalem, and to the Antichrist, who is yet to come.

The "Ensign" is the Holy Spirit. He dwelt between the Mercy Seat and the Cherubim, and could send "fire" out from that thrice-Holy Place if necessary [II Chron. 7:1].)

CHAPTER 32

(713 B.C.)

THE COMING MILLENNIAL REIGN OF THE RIGHTEOUS KING, THE MESSIAH

[1] Behold, a King shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment. (The flavor of the Prophecy continues from the previous Chapter. The Antichrist, the false king, is now defeated, and the true "King" now "reigns in righteousness" over the entirety of the world. This "King" is the "Lord Jesus Christ."

The "princes" refer to the resurrected Saints of all time, who will be kings and priests in the coming Kingdom Age [Dan. 7:19; I Cor. 6:1-3; Zech. 14:5; II Tim. 2:12; Rev. 5:10; 12:5; 20:1-10; 22:4-5].)

[2] And a man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land. (This "Man" is "The Man Christ Jesus." As well, the world is a "dry place," spiritually speaking. He will be "rivers of water" that will cover this world with the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea [Isa. 11:9]. Christ is the "Great Rock," and His "Shadow" will cover the entirety of the Earth.)

[3] And the eyes of them who see shall not be dim, and the ears of them who hear shall hearken. (Heretofore, it has been very difficult for people to "see" and "hear" the Gospel. But, in that coming day, the Kingdom Age, all "eyes" shall "see," and all "ears" shall "hear" and "hearken," meaning that most will hear and believe.)

[4] The heart also of the rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly. (Those who are "rash" refer to the ones who would not give themselves time to understand the warnings addressed to them, or to think of the real character of their actions. Then, they will be given a different "heart" and "shall understand knowledge," meaning the Bible.

The "tongue of the stammerers" speaks of Preachers of the Gospel, who will then have perfect knowledge of the Word of God and the anointing to deliver it. They "shall be ready to speak plainly.")

5 The vile person shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful. (The "vile person" of this Verse refers to the modern Preachers of today who are fools and "churls." They are admired as "liberal" [i.e., broadminded] and "bountiful," [i.e., emancipated], but the Holy Spirit calls such Preachers and their preaching "folly," "iniquity," "profaneness," and "error."

The world and most of the Church calls them "liberal" and "bountiful." God calls them "vile persons.")

6 For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail. (This speaks of false prophets in Isaiah's day, false apostles in Paul's day [II Cor. 11:13-15], and false Preachers in our day.

Consequently, those who are spiritually "hungry" are not fed, and those who are spiritually "thirsty" do not have their thirst slaked. Such characterizes the far greater majority of modern Christendom.)

7 The instruments also of the churl are evil: he devises wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaks right. (The "instruments" [i.e., the arguments or teaching] of the "false apostle" are also evil; they impoverish and destroy the seekers with lying words, though opposed by "the needy" [i.e., Christ's servants] who speak the right [i.e., "plead Truth."])

8 But the liberal devises liberal things; and by liberal things shall he stand. (The "liberal," in the spiritual sense [and good sense, we might add], refers here to the Preacher of the Gospel who truly preaches the Word of God. In the minds of people at the present, the word "liberal" is the same as in Verse 5. For example, the modernists, who do not believe the Word of God, are presently called "liberal." As we have previously stated, God calls them "vile.")

WARNING TO THE WOMEN OF JERUSALEM

9 Rise up, you women who are at ease; hear my voice, you careless daughters; give ear unto my speech. (The "women" and "daughters" symbolize here the Hebrew people. In essence, the entirety of the population of Judah is admonished to hear what the Lord is saying through the Prophet.)

10 Many days and years shall you be troubl ed, you careless women: for the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come. (The portend of this Verse is frightening! The "vintage" definitely did "fail." The "gathering," which speaks of the harvest, "shall not come." A little over a hundred years from this time, Judah was destroyed and Jerusalem taken by Nebuchadnezzar and the Babylonians. They remained captive for some seventy years.)

11 Tremble, you women who are at ease; be troubled, you careless ones: strip you, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins. (The repetition of this Verse is, as usual, emphatic; its object is to impress those whom the Prophet is addressing with a certainty of the coming Judgment.

The "sackcloth" speaks of extreme suffering and sorrow.... Still, Judah would not repent!)

12 They shall lament for the teats, for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine. (This says that everything will be barren in Israel — and all because of sin!)

13 Upon the land of My People shall come up thorns and briers; yes, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city (this was literally fulfilled! Sennacherib carried off approximately 200,000 captives from Judea before he was turned back by the visitation of the Angel. "The joyous city" has the sense of unholy mirth; in other words, "Eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!"):

[14] Because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the forts and towers shall be for dens forever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks (in Vision, the Prophet sees Jerusalem deserted by her inhabitants, the grand houses of the rich empty, the strongholds haunted by wild beasts, and the slopes of the hills fed on by sheep, etc.

The Scholars say that the entirety of this Passage is "grammatically strange, the language becoming more complicated, disjointed, and difficult." It is as if there is no language in which the Holy Spirit can properly express Himself, at least that human beings can properly understand);

[15] Until the Spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest. (The "Holy Spirit" being poured out upon Israel, and in fact the entirety of the world, which will make "the wilderness a fruitful field," will happen at the very end of the Great Tribulation, after the Battle of Armageddon, immediately after the return of Christ [Zech. 12:10-13:1].)

[16] Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field. (The word "then" signifies when the "Spirit" is poured out upon Israel and the world "from on high." Then "judgment" and "righteousness" will "remain." Everything that God does is attended by the "Holy Spirit.")

[17] And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance forever. (The word "forever" in this Passage means "forever, eternity without end." The "Righteousness" which will cover the Earth then, without fail and perpetually, will be the "Righteousness of Christ," which is made possible by what He did at the Cross.)

[18] And My People shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places (the picture is one of total security; war has forever ended; the boundaries and "dwellings" are "sure," i.e., secure.

The world has ever tried to bring this about, but with no success, because the world cannot bring such about; it can only come through Christ);

19 When it shall hail, coming down on the forest; and the city shall be low in a low place. (Babylon, which has always symbolized man's rebellion against God and which is yet to be rebuilt on or close to its ancient site, will be completely destroyed at the conclusion of the Great Tribulation. It is necessary for the intrusion of this Passage in order to portray the demise of man's efforts and the victory of the Holy Spirit.)

20 Blessed are you who sow beside all waters, who send forth thither the feet of the ox and the ass. (During the Millennium, seed-time and harvest will be times of happiness, and not of apprehension, as now. The idea is that every effort of prosperity will be "blessed." No effort will be fruitless; all will be bountiful!

The Glorious One, Whom the world now scorns, will be the One Who brings peace, prosperity, and great glory to the entirety of the world. His Name is Jesus.)

CHAPTER 33

(713 B.C.)

WOE TO THE ANTICHRIST

[1] Woe to you who spoils, and you were not spoiled; and dealt treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with you! when you shall cease to spoil, you shall be spoiled; and when you shall make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with you. (The whole of this Chapter contrasts Christ with the Antichrist. The one king is willful, a spoiler, a traitor, a devastator, and a murderer. The Other came not to do His Own Will; He enriches with abundance of Salvation, Wisdom, and Knowledge; He is faithful; He fills the land with plenty; and He abolishes sickness and death.

The first "they" of Verse 1 means the servants of Hezekiah; the second "they," the sons and servants of Sennacherib.)

[2] O LORD, be gracious unto us; we have waited for You: be You their arm every morning, our Salvation also in the time of trouble. (The Spirit of Christ in Isaiah pleads with and for the sons of Israel; hence, the change of pronoun from "we" to "their." The word "arm" means "defense.")

[3] At the noise of the tumult the people fled; at the lifting up of Yourself the nations were scattered. (The "tumult" spoken of refers to the night of terror, when the host of the Assyrians was destroyed by the coming of the Angel; 185,000 Assyrians died that night. More particularly, it speaks of the "tumult" that will prevail when Jesus Christ comes back in the Battle of Armageddon and destroys the Antichrist. At this time, "the nations will be scattered.")

[4] And your spoil shall be gathered like the gathering of the caterpiller: as the running to and fro of locusts shall he run upon them. (Upon the coming of the Angel who killed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers, the Israelites gathered the "spoil" as locusts leap upon and gather every green thing. Likewise, when Jesus Christ abruptly intervenes in the Battle of Armageddon, the armies of the Antichrist will be destroyed and much spoil gathered [Zech. 14:14].)

5 The LORD is exalted; for He dwells on high: He has filled Zion with Judgment and Righteousness. (On this night in question when the Angel was sent, Jehovah did indeed lift up Himself; hence, He is declared to be "exalted." And yet, the total exaltation awaits a future fulfillment.)

6 And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of Your times, and strength of Salvation: the fear of the LORD is His treasure. (The "stability of Your times" is a beautiful statement which the world has little enjoyed. It refers to the Messiah as the true Hezekiah. In His times, there shall be a boundless Salvation; the wealth which will distinguish Him will be His fear of Jehovah.)

7 Behold, their valiant ones shall cry without: the ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly. (The "ambassadors of peace," sent by Hezekiah to Sennacherib to beg him to respect the covenant, were refused admission to the king's presence and had to remain "without." As well, this is a portend of the coming Great Tribulation, when Israel will try to make peace with the Antichrist, but to no avail [Dan. 7:19-25; 8:20-25; 9:27; 12:7].)

8 The highways lie waste, the wayfaring man ceases: he has broken the covenant, he has despised the cities, he regards no man. (Hezekiah stripped the Temple of its wealth and gave it to Sennacherib. The Assyrian king took the money, broke the covenant that had been made, and devastated the country. All this suffering, as well as the Temple sacrilege, would have been avoided, if only Hezekiah had obeyed the Bible and not followed his own counsel. All of this was totally unnecessary!)

9 The Earth mourns and languishes: Lebanon is ashamed and hewn down: Sharon is like a wilderness; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits. (Man now being at his extremity of misery and helplessness, Grace can act and Judgment fall — Grace to God's People and Wrath to their foes — but sadly, most have to come to the extremity of misery before

Grace can work.)

10 Now will I rise, says the LORD; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up Myself. (The word "now" gives us the time. Sennacherib has robbed Judah, insulted God, and now threatens Jerusalem. The Lord will "lift Himself up" by sending one Angel, who will destroy 185,000 of the troops of Sennacherib.)

11 You shall conceive chaff, you shall bring forth stubble: your breath, as fire, shall devour you. (All the Assyrian plans against Jerusalem shall be mere "chaff" and "stubble." They shall all come to naught. On an even greater scale, this will happen to the Antichrist and all who are with him.)

12 And the people shall be as the burnings of lime: as thorns cut up shall they be burned in the fire. ("Thorns" and "lime" burn very hot but are consumed very quickly. Such will be the brevity of time that God will use to stop Sennacherib.)

MESSIAH'S MILLENNIAL REIGN

13 Hear, you who are far off, what I have done; and, you who are near, acknowledge my might. (The great miracle that God brought about by the sending of an Angel and destroying 185,000 of the Assyrian army in one night was definitely heard "far off." As well, it was acknowledged that it was the Hand of the Lord and not of man [II Chron. 32:23].)

14 The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness has surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings? (The Jews who desired to go down into Egypt and seek their help were now "afraid." The Holy Spirit called them "sinners" and "hypocrites." The "devouring fire" spoken of here is the "Wrath of God." The "everlasting burnings" have to do with the Judgment of God, which would come upon them next, as well as eternal Hellfire. Although "in Zion," yet were they Godless, i.e., without God and unlike God, that is, unconverted. Similarly, multitudes today are in that which professes to be the City of God, but their hearts are strangers to Christ.)

15 He who walks righteously, and speaks uprightly; he that despises the gain of oppressions, who shakes his hands from holding of bribes, who stops his ears from hearing of blood, and shuts his eyes from seeing evil (if a person really knows the Lord, Righteousness is going to be their lifestyle, which will be obvious; in other words, when a person comes to Christ, they are gloriously changed; otherwise, they haven't really come to Christ!)**;

16 He shall dwell on high: his place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks: bread shall be given him; his waters shall be sure. (In today's terminology, to "dwell on high" refers to being "raised up together, and made to sit together in Heavenly Places in Christ Jesus" [Eph. 2:6].

The "munitions of Rocks" refer to Christ. Paul said, "That Rock was Christ" [I Cor. 10:4].

The "Bread that is given" is the "Bread of Life," which is the True Bread, Christ Jesus [Jn. 6:32, 35].

The "sure waters" refer to the mighty Baptism with the Holy Spirit [Jn. 7:37-39].)

A VISION OF JERUSALEM UNDER THE MESSIAH: AT PEACE, RESTORED

17 Your eyes shall see the King in His beauty: they shall behold the land that is very far off. (At this time, Jerusalem saw Hezekiah in sackcloth, but the day is coming when they will see the Messiah, the King, in His "beauty.")

18 Your heart shall meditate terror. Where is the scribe? where is the receiver? where is he who counted the towers? (God's Wrath, as exhibited with terror in the destruction of the Assyrian host, shook with terror the heart of the unconverted in Zion, but was a subject of profitable meditation for the heart of the converted. The faithful, when musing on the destruction of the enemy, exultingly ask, "Where now are these unbelieving officials?")

19 You shall not see a fierce people, a people of a deeper speech than you can perceive; of a stammering tongue, that you cannot understand. (That generation did no longer see the Assyrians; however, the Verse has a far greater meaning. The greater meaning goes all the way to the Antichrist. The word "not" is to be understood in the sense of "never again." Israel's enemies will never again be seen, for war in the Kingdom Age will now be a thing of the past [Isa. 2:2-4].)

20 Look upon Zion, the city of our solemnities: your eyes shall see Jerusalem a quiet habitation, a tabernacle that shall not be taken down; not one of the stakes thereof shall ever be removed, neither shall any of the cords thereof be broken. (Sennacherib thought to reduce "Zion" to ashes, destroying its Temple. Instead, he was destroyed. More particularly, this Passage refers to the coming Glad Day when Christ will reign supreme in Jerusalem. The Believer will feast his eyes upon the King and upon His Kingdom.)

21 But there the glorious LORD will be unto us a place of broad rivers and streams; wherein shall go no galley with oars, neither shall gallant ship pass thereby. (Great rivers were the foundation of wealth and strength for Assyria and Egypt, the greatest Monarchies of that day; however, the Messiah, and not rivers, etc., will be the foundation of all wealth and strength in the coming Millennial Day. The Lord will be to all as broad and deep streams of Grace and Glory. On such streams, no warship will ever sail; for there will be no war, because the Messiah will be Judge, Lawgiver, and King. He will be an Almighty Saviour.)

22 For the LORD is our Judge, the LORD is our Lawgiver, the LORD is our King; He will save us. (Jesus Christ is everything!)

23 Your tacklings are loosed; they could not well strengthen their mast, they could not spread the sail: then is the prey of a great spoil di vided; the lame take the prey. (The overthrow of the enemy is compared to a shipwreck and to a ruin so complete that even cripples would become victors. The spoil at Armageddon will be in great abundance, and those who were thought to have been defeated will "take the prey." This refers to Israel.)

24 And the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick: the people who dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity. (When sin is abolished, sickness shall no more exist. The one is the cause; the other, the effect. This will be the blessing of the coming Kingdom Age, when Christ will reign Personally and Supreme.)

CHAPTER 34

ARMAGEDDON; GOD'S WRATH ON THE NATIONS

[1] Come near, you nations, to hear; and hearken, you people: let the Earth hear, and all that is therein; the world, and all things that come forth of it. (Chapters 34 and 35 form one Prophecy. Chapter 34 pertains to the Great Tribulation, while Chapter 35 pertains to the coming Millennium.

In this Prophecy, as throughout the Bible, the evening of judgment precedes the morning of blessing. Man, in his energies, must be judged and broken before the Kingdom of God can be established.)

[2] For the indignation of the LORD is upon all nations, and His fury upon all their armies: He has utterly destroyed them, He has delivered them to the slaughter. (This speaks of the nations and the armies that will be gathered at Jerusalem in order to destroy that city and to annihilate the Jews. The Lord will meet this with "His fury.")

[3] Their dead also shall be cast out, and their stink shall come up out of their carcases, and the mountains shall be melted with their blood. (Concerning statements such as "the mountains shall be melted with their blood," some have accused Isaiah of lapsing into hyperbole; however, Isaiah is merely speaking the words of the Holy Spirit, and it is certain that He would not resort to such!

Actually, the entirety of the army of the Antichrist will be destroyed, with the exception of one-sixth, and this will happen in one day [Ezek. 39:2; Zech. 14:1-15; Rev. 19:11-21].)

[4] And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf

falls off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree. (This speaks of the Great Tribulation, which will last for seven years. During this time, "the host of Heaven," which includes the stars and planetary bodies, will be greatly affected. The word "dissolved" seems to imply that their orderly conduct will be interrupted, which will cause tremendous upheaval on the Earth [Rev. 8:7-12].)

5 For My sword shall be bathed in Heaven: behold, it shall come down upon Idumea, and upon the people of My curse, to judgment. ("Idumea" is the same as "Edom," and symbolizes all who are opposed to Zion. It represents "all the nations," "Edom" and "Adam" being the same word.

"The sword bathed in Heaven" is the Wrath of God purposed in Heaven and descending upon guilty man like the fire fell out of Heaven upon Sodom.

The statement, "the people of My curse," literally means "the people on whom I have laid a curse" — the Edomites. To be cursed is one thing, but to be cursed by God is something else altogether.)

6 The sword of the LORD is filled with blood, it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea. (The "Sacrifices" are mentioned because they are used as an example of the coming "slaughter." This will be in the Great Tribulation and at the Battle of Armageddon.

At that time, the Lord, in effect, will perform major surgery on planet Earth; otherwise, Earth would be destroyed.)

7 And the unicorns shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness. (All the power of man, as symbolized by the strong animals of this Verse, shall be destroyed in that day.)

8 For it is the day of the LORD's vengeance, and the year of recompences for the controversy of Zion. (The "controversy of Zion" relates not only to the hostility of the nations to Israel, but also to the age-long war of man against God. This war has raged since the Fall of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. All of this will come to a head in the Great Tribulation [Mat. 24:21].)

9 And the streams thereof shall be turned into pitch, and the dust thereof into brimstone, and the land thereof shall become burning pitch.

10 It shall not be quenched night nor day; the smoke thereof shall go up forever: from generation to generation it shall lie waste; none shall pass through it forever and ever. (These two Verses seem to describe one of the openings in the Earth where men will be able to see down into Hell, which will exist during the entirety of the Millennial Reign.)

11 But the cormorant and the bittern shall possess it; the owl also and the raven shall dwell in it: and he shall stretch out upon it the line of confusion, and the stones of emptiness. (This continues to describe the opening in the Earth, which could well be the site of Babylon [Isa. 66:22-24].)

12 They shall call the nobles thereof to the kingdom, but none shall be there, and all her princes shall be nothing. (This speaks of all the "nobles" who have lived down through the ages but refused to serve God. Irrespective of their nobility and their lofty station in life, they will not gain entrance into the "Kingdom.")

13 And thorns shall come up in her palaces, nettles and brambles in the fortresses thereof: and it shall be an habitation of dragons, and a court for owls. (This tells us what the Lord says about those things in which man placed such stock; they are good for nothing except to grow "nettles and brambles.")

14 The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the wild beasts of the island, and the satyr shall cry to his fellow; the screech owl also shall rest there, and find for herself a place of rest. (In Lev. 17:7, the word "satyr" is used for "devils," and probably means this here. The idea of this Passage is that on this particular site, wherever it may be [probably where Babylon once existed], the sounds that come from it will be debilitating, to say the least. The "screeching" and "crying" will characterize the horror of eternal Hell, which it represents [Mat. 8:12].)

15 There shall the great owl make her nest, and lay, and hatch, and gather under her shadow: there shall the vultures also be gathered, every one with her mate. (The type of animals and fowls that are mentioned here come under the heading of "unclean." Such will characterize this place.

Many may ask the question, "Why would the Lord have such a place or opening to Hell in the Earth?" Perhaps the purpose of this opening will be to cause coming generations to abhor sin and its consequences. When natural men can actually see into eternal Hell, it will be a great warning to them to walk in the Ways of God. Not only men on the New Earth, but Angels also, and all other beings will be able to look into this place and see how horrible the punishment of sin is [Rev. 14:9-11].

Horrifying as the thought may be, the view may be God's best method of keeping eternal generations in line with His Laws and Commandments, as they progress in the New Earth in the eternal future.)

16 Seek you out of the Book of the LORD, and read: no one of these shall fail, none shall want her mate: for My mouth it has commanded, and His Spirit it has gathered them. (It seems as if the Holy Spirit senses the unbelief of men regarding these predictions and proclaims to all that "no one of these shall fail." Mankind is ordered to "seek you out of the Book of the LORD, and read" and understand that of all the things predicted, all shall come to pass.)

17 And He has cast the lot for them, and His Hand has divided it unto them by line: they shall possess it forever, from generation to generation shall they dwell therein. (The words, "He has cast the lot for them," refer to the fact that God allots to all nations of the Earth their particular destiny. It all has to do with their acceptance or rejection of Him. It is said that "His Hand" draws the line of their habitation; consequently, He has said, "The wicked shall be turned into Hell, and all the nations that forget God" [Ps. 9:17].)

CHAPTER 35

MILLENNIUM: LAND RESTORED; PEOPLE HEALED; HIGHWAY OF HOLINESS

[1] The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose. (This pertains to the coming Kingdom Age. The previous Chapter, which was the first part of this Prophecy, proclaims the cause of all sorrow, pain, heartache, and destruction, which is sin and man's rebellion against God, which will be destroyed by the Lord Jesus Christ; this Chapter, the concluding part of the Prophecy, portrays what God can do in a heart and life that is yielded to Him. As the spiritual renewal takes place in hearts and lives, the material, economic, domestic, and physical renewal will take place over the entirety of the Earth.)

[2] It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing: the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the Glory of the LORD, and the excellency of our God. ("The Glory of the LORD, and the excellency of our God" is the cause of the "abundant blossoming" and the "rejoicing even with joy and singing.")

[3] Strengthen y ou the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees. (With these exceeding great and precious Promises, the servants of Truth are commanded to strengthen trembling and apprehensive Believers. With the "Glory of the LORD" now paramount, even the "weak" gain "strength," and "feeble knees" are no longer so.)

[4] Say to them who are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompence; He will come and save you. (This Passage expresses again the Doctrine of the Coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. As well, this Verse points to the period predicted in II Peter 3:10 and Rev. 19:11-21. However, we greatly shortchange the Scriptures if we limit this Passage only to the Second Coming of Christ. Its words are pointed at every Child of God in every period.

The sentence, "He will come and save you," actually says, "He will come Himself to save you." There is One Alone Who can save, and He must do it Himself; to do it, He must "come" to us.)

5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. (Verses 5 and 6 had a fulfillment in the Messiah's First Advent, but their moral and plenary fulfillment belong to His Second and future Advent. Christ did not work miracles in His First Advent as mere wonders, but because it was predicted here that when He came, He would work miracles of this nature; hence, His performing these particular Miracles proved Him to be the predicted Messiah. But His rejection postponed to the future the wonders and blessings of this entire Chapter.)

6 Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert. (The entire complexion of that future Glad Day [the Millennium] will be changed. Sickness and disease will be at an end. "Then" the "lame man" will not only be able to walk, but will have such freedom of movement that he will be able to "leap as an hart." "Then" the "bound tongue" will not only be able to speak, but "sing," as well!

However, in the spiritual sense, this has even a greater meaning! Due to the Fall, men have been "spiritually lame" as well as "spiritually dumb." "Then" all such will "dance in the Spirit" and "sing His praises"!

Due to the Fall, the world is a "wilderness." But at that time, the "waters" and "streams," signifying the Holy Spirit, will make the "desert blossom as the rose.")

7 And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes. ("Jackals" make their home in the sandy desert. They will be banished and their haunts turned into verdant meadows. Many nations of the world presently cannot now feed themselves due to "parched ground." This Passage proclaims the fact that all the Earth will then become fertile. "Springs of water" will burst through the desert floor, which will then be turned into a garden. Areas deserted and given over to desolation will then be "fat pastures" grazed by cattle.)

8 And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of Holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein. (The Scripture definitely predicts a literal "highway" that will be built from Egypt through Israel to Assyria [Isa. 11:6; 19:23-25]; however, these Passages do not refer to that particular "highway," but to "The way of Holiness."

It is proclaimed by the Holy Spirit that the "way" is "holiness." Holiness characterizes all that God is and does.)

9 No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon, it shall not be found there; but the redeemed shall walk there (such proclaims the Truth that Satan, as a "roaring lion," shall not have access to "The way of holiness"; demon spirits, i.e., "ravenous beasts" also "shall not be found there"; therefore, the victory that every true Child of God earnestly desires is found in "The way of Holiness."

*Its complete fulfillment portrays the Millennial Reign, when Satan and all his minions of darkness will be locked away; consequently, only the "redeemed" shall occupy this "highway"):

10 And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away. (Verses 8 through 10 can be summed up by saying, "The unclean shall not pass over it, for He shall be with them walking in the way; so even the simple shall not go astray therein." It shall be the Way of the Lord [Mal. 3:1] and, therefore, not only will His companionship exclude evil and assure arrival, but it will protect from peril.

With such a Keeper on the way and such a harbor at the close, it is not to be wondered at that the ransomed of the Lord shall be characterized by songs, joy, and by gladness.

"Sorrow and sighing shall flee away," that is, the bliss of the redeemed shall not in the perfect state be liable to be broken as was the innocent joy of Eden's Garden.)

CHAPTER 36

(710 B.C.)

HISTORICAL INTERLUDE: ASSYRIA'S INVASION OF JUDAH

[1] Now it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the defenced cities of Judah, and took them. (This is the third time that the Holy Spirit records the facts relating to Hezekiah and the proposed attack by Assyria against Jerusalem, thereby denoting its significance. Its significance lies in the fact that this episode is a symbol of the future invasion of Israel by the Antichrist. As Sennacherib was stopped, so will the Antichrist.)

[2] And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field. ("Rabshakeh," seemingly, was the head of the Assyrian expedition against Jerusalem. He is there to demand the surrender of Jerusalem. "The conduit of the upper pool" is the same place Isaiah stood with Ahaz about 28 years before [7:3].)

[3] Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the Scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the Recorder. ("Eliakim" and "Shebna" were sent outside the city to meet with Rabshakeh; this is the same "Shebna" whom Isaiah prophesied against in Chapter 22.)

AN INSULTING MESSAGE TO HEZEKIAH OF JUDAH

[4] And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say you now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein you trust? (Of the three Assyrian envoys, Rabshakeh alone obtains mention in Isaiah, because he was the spokesman. He was probably chosen for such because he could speak Hebrew fluently.

He refers to the king of Assyria as "the great king." This is meant to insinuate that no king anywhere in the world is as great as "the king of Assyria." However, "Rabshakeh" is to find, to his dismay, that his king, Sennacherib, is subservient to another King, "the LORD of Glory."

Rabshakeh chides Hezekiah about his trust being placed in Egypt. This tells us that trusting man rather than God exposes the Christian to the contempt of the world.)

5 I say, sayest you, (but they are but vain words) I have counsel and strength for war: now on whom do you trust, that you rebel against me? (It seems that Rabshakeh had obtained a copy of the proposed agreement between Judah and Egypt, or that the very words had been verbally reported to him.)

6 Lo, you trust in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him. (When the Assyrian spoke of this "broken reed," namely "Egypt," he was speaking from knowledge instead of merely boasting.)

7 But if you say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not He, Whose high places and Whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, You shall worship before this Altar? (To destroy the fashionable materials and corrupt ceremonies of worldly religion is misunderstood by the world and accounted sacrilege. Rabshakeh was totally ignorant of the Ways of God and had misunderstood Hezekiah's destruction of the idol groves, thinking he had offended the God of Judah.)

8 Now therefore give pledges, I pray you, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you be able on your part to set riders upon them. (Rabshakeh continues to reproach Judah.)

9 How then will you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? (Judah's true weakness was her lack of dependence on God, not her lack of military preparation.)

10 And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? the LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it. (Rabshakeh's statements make it obvious that the Prophesy given by Isaiah some years before had been read or seen by him. Its use by him was a clever ruse to persuade the people to disobey Jehovah. When unconverted men quote the Bible in support of their projects or doctrines, they contradict themselves and expose their ignorance of the Scriptures and their hatred of God.

Neither Sennacherib nor his captain, Rabshakeh, believed in Jehovah. Their statements are made from the viewpoint of ego. They imagined themselves to be so high and mighty that if there is a God, they are His princely ones in the Earth.

Sennacherib misunderstood Isaiah's Prophecy. It was certainly true that God did ordain the Assyrians [without them being aware of such] to overthrow certain countries, which included the Northern Kingdom of Israel, and also to chasten Judah; however, He never gave them a commission to destroy Judah. So, in this, they were overstepping their bounds, and would face dire consequences.)

JUDAH'S ANSWER

11 Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray you, unto your servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people who are on the wall. (Rabshakeh spoke in Hebrew, desiring that the people hear his words, as well as their leaders, in order to weaken their will to resist. The request of the Jews will be ignored.

Incidentally, regarding the three Jews addressed here, "Eliakim" and "Shebna" stand in contrast. "Eliakim" is a Type of Christ; hence, he is symbolic of the Spirit. "Shebna" is a type of Satan; hence, he is a type of the flesh [Isa. 22:15-24].

"Shebna" strongly encourages seeking the help of the Egyptians, while "Eliakim" strongly urges trust in God. The majority in Jerusalem at that time followed "Shebna," while a small remnant followed Isaiah and "Eliakim" [Isa. 1:9]. In fact, almost all the religious leaders of Jerusalem followed the carnal path of "Shebna.")

MESSAGE TO THE PEOPLE

12 But Rabshakeh said, Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words? has he not sent me to the men who sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own urine with you? (The language used by Rabshakeh shows his contempt for Judah.)

13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear you the words of the great king, the king of Assyria. (Satan always cries with a "loud voice." He also says it in the "language" that we easily understand.)

14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you. (Rabshakeh claims to speak for "the king," Sennacherib. Satan has plenty of envoys. Therefore, the people had a choice; they could believe Rabshakeh or "Hezekiah."

If the people had not had strong spiritual leadership in the persons of "Hezekiah" and "Isaiah," they would no doubt have acquiesced to Rabshakeh.)

15 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. (The words of Isaiah given to Hezekiah no doubt had come to the ears of Sennacherib. So now we have the Word of the Lord versus the word of Sennacherib.)

16 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me: and eat you every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink you every one the waters of his own cistern (in other words, the war will cease if you will "make an agreement with me"; this has ever been Satan's ploy; the message is "compromise," which is never of God!);

[17] Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards. (Despite the golden promises, the plan was to take Judah captive into Assyria, as they had already taken Ephraim. This is Satan's plan for the modern Christian, as well! He promises everything, but only gives captivity.)

[18] Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. Has any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? (The boast of Rabshakeh was not hollow, at least regarding the "gods" of the nations. As far as the Assyrians were concerned, this was a religious war. Their success in the religious character of their wars justified this boast.)

[19] Where are the gods of Hamath and Arphad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? (In this Passage, Rabshakeh boasts of his god, Asshur, over "the gods of Hamath and Arphad." Sennacherib sees no distinction between the cities where Jehovah was worshipped, as supposedly in Samaria, than those which acknowledged other gods. As Samaria fell, which supposedly worshipped Jehovah, why should not Jerusalem fall? Therefore, he equates Samaria's God with Judah's.)

[20] Who are they among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? (In this statement, Rabshakeh places Jehovah in the same category as the idol gods of other nations. That Jehovah would deliver Judah, there was no doubt! However, the manner in which He delivered them was because of this insult. He would humiliate them so greatly that Sennacherib would not recover. As well, Jerusalem would not suffer the loss of one single person or even an arrow being shot against its wall. So much for the god, Asshur!)

[21] But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not. (There are occasions when faith's most effective reply to insulting language is the dignity of silence, and her best refuge is prayer.)

22 Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the Scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the Recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh. (If one will notice, "Shebna the Scribe" was dressed in sackcloth the same as "Eliakim." There the similarity ended. Eliakim wanted the Will of God, while Shebna wanted his place and position salvaged. This describes far too many Christians!)

CHAPTER 37

HEZEKIAH DISTRESSED; ASKS ISAIAH TO PRAY

[1] And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the House of the LORD. (This Chapter is actually a continuation of the previous; therefore, the two constitute but one narrative. Whatever difficulties of faithlessness that had previously plagued Hezekiah have now been thrown off, and he is doing what he should have done all along. He is taking his difficulties to the Lord. The Assyrians are threatening his destruction, and he realizes there is no hope except in God.)

[2] And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the Scribe, and the elders of the Priests covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the Prophet the son of Amoz. (They should have done this at the beginning!)

[3] And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth. (The Passage, "the children are come to the birth... etc.," was a proverbial phrase for a time of extreme difficulty. Judah was in sore trouble and was expecting deliverance; however, it seemed now as if she would not have enough strength to go through the crisis, but would perish through weakness.)

[4] It may be the LORD your God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to reproach the Living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD your God has heard: wherefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left. (Notice the manner in this Verse in which Hezekiah couches his terminology. He doesn't plead with the Lord regarding the merit of Judah, but rather the blasphemy of "Rabshakeh." He knows that neither he nor Judah have any merit with God. This attitude should be a model for us, as well.

"The remnant that is left" refers to the great number of Judaeans who have already been taken captive from the other cities of Judah, with only those who are in Jerusalem remaining.)

GOD PROMISES DELIVERANCE

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall you say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that you have heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me. (The blasphemy of Rabshakeh was against the Lord, and would be answered in kind.)

7 Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land. (The words, "I will send a blast upon him," rather mean "I will put a spirit within him," i.e., "I will remove from him the spirit of pride and arrogancy and instead will infuse into his heart a spirit of hesitation and fear." When the Lord takes a hand in a situation, this Verse gives us the proof of the ample provision that He has to do whatever He desires.

The "blast" was the sending of an Angel from Heaven, who would kill 185,000 Assyrian soldiers in one night. Sennacherib would give up his plans for the destruction of Jerusalem and return to his own land. Ultimately, he was killed by his own sons.)

ASSYRIA'S ARROGANT ATTITUDE, MORE INSULTS TO GOD AND JUDAH

8 So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish. (After Rabshakeh concluded his mission, not realizing the wheels he had set in motion, he returned to Sennacherib, for he found him attempting to destroy "Libnah." It seems that this was the next stronghold on the way to Egypt.)

9 And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with you. And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying *("Tirhakah king of Ethiopia" is among the most famous of the Monarchs belonging to this period; it seems this king had defeated Egypt and now ruled both Ethiopia and Egypt; the movement of Tirhakah provoked rather than alarmed Sennacherib, who had already defeated one Egyptian army a short time before; he was confident of success against any effort that the Egyptians might make),

10 Thus shall you speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not your God, in Whom you trust, deceive you, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. (Sennacherib recognized Jehovah as a God, the God of the Jews, but put Him on the same par with the other "gods of the nations," for whom he had no respect.)

11 Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them utterly; and shall you be delivered? (In fact, Sennacherib at this time was the most powerful monarch on the face of the Earth; therefore, these boasts were not hollow threats!)

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar? (He enumerates here areas which had been taken by the Assyrians.)

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arphad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? (Sennacherib, like Satan, delights in boasting of his victories.)

HEZEKIAH PRAYS TO GOD FOR HELP

14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the House of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. (This last message was sent to Hezekiah in a

"letter." In II Chron. 32:17, the word "letters" is used, signifying plurality and indicating an arrogant, insulting, and boastful letter. The "spreading" of the letter "before the LORD" did not imply on Hezekiah's part that God did not know its contents previously, but was designed thusly that Sennacherib's reproach of the God of Judah would be ever before the Lord.)

15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying (this is the answer!),

16 O LORD of Hosts, God of Israel, Who dwells between the Cherubims, You are the God, even You Alone, of all the kingdoms of the Earth: You have made Heaven and Earth. (Hezekiah's prayer is very interesting and well worth our attention. It would be the same that we would pray today, with one exception. Now, we are admonished to pray to the Lord in the Name of Jesus [Jn. 16:23].)

17 Incline Your ear, O LORD, and hear; open Your eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which has sent to reproach the Living God. (This is a conscious pleading of the Promise made to Solomon [II Chron. 7:15]. Hezekiah is calling to account this Promise, as we can also call to account the many Promises made in the Word of God [Mk. 9:23; Mat. 18:18; Jn. 14:14; 15:7].

Petition that is offered to the Lord without being based on the Word of God is a fruitless petition.)

18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations, and their countries (actually, this was fact which was impossible to deny),

19 And have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them. (If one will notice, Hezekiah did not deny the existence or even the power of the Assyrians. Let it be known, like here, that the confession of existing problems does not show a lack of faith and that the denial of certain difficulties does not make them any less real.)

20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the Earth may know that you are the LORD, even You only. (Every petition that is made to the Lord, like Hezekiah's, should not be for deliverance or triumph over enemies for our own sakes, or the sake of others, but rather for the "Glory of God.")

GOD'S ANSWER: SENNACHERIB WILL BE CRUSHED

[21] Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas you have prayed to Me against Sennacherib king of Assyria (either Isaiah knew that Hezekiah was seeking the Lord concerning the Assyrian threat, or else the Lord revealed it to him; the Promise had already been given by the Lord through Isaiah that Sennacherib would not be successful in this venture [37:7], so it would seem that Hezekiah was showing a lack of faith by continuing to plead when the Promise had already been given; but not necessarily so!; in truth, our faith has to be constantly reassured; hence, David would repeatedly cry to the Lord for reassurance, despite the fact that the Lord had said that he would be king of Israel [I Sam. 16:1, 12-13; Ps. 13])**:

[22] This is the Word which the LORD has spoken concerning him; The virgin, the daughter of Zion, has despised you, and laughed you to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. (The expression, "virgin daughter," represents Jerusalem as a tender maiden, weak and delicate, yet still bold enough to stand up against Sennacherib and all his hosts and bid him defiance. Confident that the Lord will protect her, she "laughs him to scorn." This is God's answer to the boasts of Sennacherib, and, due to its source, it must be taken extremely seriously.)

[23] Whom have you reproached and blas phemed? and against Whom have you exalted your voice, and lifted up your eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel. (This proclaims the fact that Sennacherib is fighting against God. It is a battle that he cannot hope to win!)

[24] By your servants have you reproached the Lord, and have said, By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir trees thereof: and I will enter into the height of his border, and the forest of his Carmel. (In this Passage, the Holy Spirit is not claiming that Sennacherib has actually uttered these words with his mouth, but that he has thought them within his heart.)

[25] I have dug, and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the besieged places. (The Lord continues to proclaim the boasts of Sennacherib.)

[26] Have you not heard long ago, how I have done it; and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that you should be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps. (In this Passage, Isaiah, after speaking as the person of Sennacherib, breaks off without warning and returns to speaking as the person of Jehovah. In this Passage, Sennacherib is reproached by the Holy Spirit for not knowing what he ought to have known and might have known, if he had only listened to the voice of conscience and reason. The words, "now have I brought it to pass," refer to the fact that all that Sennacherib had done, he had done as God's instrument, by God's permission — even by His aid; however, Sennacherib had become so lifted up in his own pride that he thought his victories were due to his own ability, tactical designs, and military expertise.)

[27] Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up. (God, having decreed the success of the Assyrians, affected them [in part] by infusing weakness into the nations that were their adversaries. Sennacherib thought it was his military prowess that effected his victories, when God now says the opposite.)

[28] But I know your abode, and your going out, and your coming in, and your rage against Me. (Sennacherib, even though an unwitting instrument in the Hands of God, still, could have known all he needed to know about God, if he had only taken the time and the trouble to learn. Verse 26 says so! So, for not taking the time to learn about God and, therefore, to understand the secret of his victories, he would incur the Wrath of God.)

29 Because your rage against Me, and your tumult, is come up into My ears, therefore will I put My hook in your nose, and My bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came. (Sennacherib proposed the shocking cruelty of this Verse for Hezekiah and his people, but, figuratively, he was made to suffer it himself.)

30 And this shall be a sign unto you, You shall eat this year such as grows of itself; and the second year that which springs of the same: and in the third year sow you, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof. (Agriculture had been impossible for the two prior years, because of the invasion of the Assyrians. But now God encourages the remnant of His People to go out of the city into the country and till the ground, for He promised that the Assyrian king should never return to injure them. Therefore, it seems that the acute danger lasted for about two years.)

31 And the remnant that is escaped of the House of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward (the Blessing of God is now upon Judah; in a short time, she recovered her ancient vigor so that under Josiah she was able to extend her dominion over almost the whole of the old Israelite territory [II Chron. 34:6, 18])**:

32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they who escape out of Mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD of Hosts shall do this. (The "remnant" speaks of those who escaped the incursion of the last two years. In fact, many had died or had been taken captive.

The phrase, "the zeal of the LORD of Hosts," is used by the Holy Spirit to insure the fulfillment of what has been promised. God's People will be blessed and grow strong once again.)

33 Therefore thus sa ys the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it. (Sennacherib had planned all along to lay siege against Jerusalem. The Holy Spirit through Isaiah says that no siege will be laid against the city.)

34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, says the LORD. (This Promise assured Hezekiah that he would not be confronted with this enemy.)

[35] For I will defend this city to save it for My Own sake, and for My servant David's sake. (Hezekiah is told here by no less than the Holy Spirit that he could not boast that the beauty or fervor of his prayer purchased the victory, for God told him that He would deliver the city, not for Hezekiah's sake, but for David's sake, i.e., "for the Messiah's sake."

The phrase, "I will defend his city," literally means "I will cover over this city, as a bird covers its young with its wings.")

THE FULFILLMENT OF GOD'S PROMISE

[36] Then the Angel of LORD went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when they (those in Judah) arose early in the morning, behold, they (the Assyrians) were all dead corpses. (The scene of the account was probably about 25 miles from Jerusalem. Word would have come quickly to Jerusalem concerning the "dead bodies" that were lying everywhere.

This great Miracle instituted by the Lord ranks in the same category as the opening of the Red Sea and the destruction of the Egyptian army, as well as the opening of the Jordan and the falling of the walls of Jericho!)

[37] So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. (In this Passage, the Holy Spirit, and with short shift, dispenses with "Sennacherib." The word "departed" has the same meaning as a dog leaving with its tail between its legs. He went back to his capital, "Nineveh."

He lived for some 18 or 20 years longer after this and made other military expeditions elsewhere; however, he made no further expeditions toward Jerusalem, or even toward Egypt. The Jews had peace so far as the Assyrians were concerned.

In his military life, he tackled many little tin gods; however, when he faced Jerusalem, he faced the God of the ages, his Creator. It was to be an experience he would never forget!)

38 And it came to pass, as he was wor shipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Armenia: and Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead. (Ancient history records that Sennacherib bequeathed his throne to his youngest son, Esar-haddon. In order to gain the favor of his god, he promised to sacrifice the two elder sons to that divinity, so-called. These sons, doubtless prompted by fear on the one hand and by jealousy on the other, murdered their father in December of that year. But six months later, they were obliged to flee to Armenia to escape the vengeance of Esar-haddon.

Sennacherib had the opportunity to accept the God of Israel, but instead he attempted to destroy God's People. In turn, he was destroyed himself.)

CHAPTER 38

HEZEKIAH'S SICKNESS AND RECOVERY

[1] In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the Prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus says the LORD, Set your house in order: for you shall die, and not live. (The words, "in those days," refer to the fourteenth year of Hezekiah's reign; consequently, his sickness took place during the time of the Assyrian invasion and prior to the final Deliverance of Jerusalem.

It seems from II Chron. 32:25 that Hezekiah's sickness was brought on by his heart that was filled with pride.

In the previous Chapter, we see Sennacherib humbled because of his pride. In this Chapter, we see God's Own [Hezekiah] humbled because of his pride. God cannot tolerate such in His Own no more than He can in the heathen.)

[2] Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD (the "turning of his face to the wall" denotes a turning away from all his accomplishments, supposed merit, and things he held so dear; it also spoke of his helplessness; it is that which is demanded by God of everyone who comes to Him, irrespective of the cause or reason)**,

[3] And said, Remember now, O LORD, I beseech You, how I have walked before You in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in Your sight. And Hezekiah wept sore. (Hezekiah was only 39 years old. As yet, he had no son to succeed him. When he died at the age of 54, his son Manasseh, who succeeded him, was but 12 [II Ki. 21:1; II Chron. 33:1].

The "perfect heart" must be understood in this manner:

From his statement in Verse 17, we know that he was not claiming sinlessness. He was referring to his efforts to put away idol worship out of Judah and to restore true Temple Worship, which had been discontinued by his evil father, Ahaz [II Chron., Chpts. 29-31].

The Holy Spirit said that "Hezekiah wept sore," which denotes his humbling himself before the Lord; such humbling is always demanded by God.)

4 Then came the Word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying (Hezekiah's Repentance was quick and with a sincere heart)**,

5 Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father, I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears: behold, I will add unto your days fifteen years. (As far as we know, this is the only time that the Lord ever informed one as to exactly how much longer they would live. He was 39 years old when this Promise of 15 more years was given. Therefore, he died at the age of 54, exactly as the Lord said.)

6 And I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city. (This points to the two-year period when the Assyrians were threatening Jerusalem. The Promise must have been very sweet to his ears. His life would be extended, and Jerusalem would be delivered.)

7 And this shall be a sign unto you from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that He has spoken (it seems from Verse 22 that Hezekiah had asked for a "sign" that it was now proper for him to "go up to the House of the Lord."

Possibly, before his Repentance, he may have felt that he was unclean and, thereby, unworthy. In response to his request for such a "sign," the Lord will give him far more in the way of a "sign" than he had envisioned);

8 Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the sun dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down. (The sign would be powerful indeed! It concerned the rotation of the Earth on its axis. Such an outstanding sign seemed to speak to the lack of faith in Hezekiah's heart.

The Scripture emphasizes that this was the "sun dial of Ahaz." Ahaz was so unbelieving and so lacking in desire to serve God that he ignored the offer of the Lord as it regarded a "sign." Now, the Lord will give Hezekiah, Ahaz's son, a "sign" on the same sun dial.

The sun dial going ten degrees backward would constitute a "long day.")

9 The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness (the "writing" spoken of here is a Psalm written by Hezekiah concerning the great Miracle the Lord had performed for him)**:

10 I said in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years. (The words, "I am deprived of the residue of my years," speak of his work being cut short, even in the middle of it. He feels that his work is not finished, and yet he is dying!)

11 I said, I shall not see the LORD, even the LORD, in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world. (In effect, he is saying that if he died, he would not be able to see and worship the Lord, "as I do now in the land of the living.")

12 My age is departed, and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent: I have cut off like a weaver my life: he will cut me off with pining sickness: from day even to night will you make an end of me. (The entirety of the Text seems to be not so much the fear of dying, but of being cutoff in the midst of his days, not being able to finish the work that God had called him to do.)

13 I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will He break all my bones: from day even to night will You make an end of me. (His terminology implies that he has disobeyed God and, in doing so, has angered Jehovah.)

14 Like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter: I did mourn as a dove: my eyes fail with looking upward: O LORD, I am oppressed; undertake for me. (He is proclaiming the fact that he cannot approach the Lord from the basis of personal merit, for he has none. He can only appeal to God's Mercy and Grace and, therefore, weakly request, "Undertake for me.")

15 What shall I say? He has both spoken unto me, and Himself has done it: I shall go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul. (The Lord heard his petition and answered him. His prayer has been answered. As well, he is at a loss to express his wonder and gratitude. He gives the Lord all the praise and glory by saying, "and Himself has done it."

The phrase, "I shall go softly all my years," refers to walking "softly" before the Lord. The added "years" that the Lord will give him, he intends to walk humbly before Jehovah.)

16 O LORD, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: so will You recover me, and make me to live. (In effect, Hezekiah is revealing somewhat of his failure, and his revival. He is saying that man lives by "these things," meaning "The Word of God"; in such, "is the life of my spirit.")

17 Behold, for peace I had great bitterness: but You have in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for You have cast all my sins behind Your back. (This proclaims the fact that Hezekiah in Verse 3 was speaking only of the work that he had attempted for the Lord, and not of his own personal life. Now, he says, "All my sins" are gone, and are "behind Your back," and can be seen by You no more.)

18 For the grave cannot praise You, death can not celebrate You: they who go down into the pit cannot hope for Your truth. (Hezekiah is speaking of the work that we are able to do for the Lord in this life. When death comes, our work is ended.)

19 The living, the living, he shall praise You, as I do this day: the father to the children shall make known Your truth. (His statement is this: As You, Lord, have given me the privilege to continue to "live," I will spend this "life" by "praising You.")

20 The LORD was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the House of the LORD. (The words, "The LORD was ready to save me," mean "He came to my rescue, came and saved me.")

[21] For Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaister upon the boil, and he shall recover. (The "boil" symbolized the sinful corruption that been in his life. The "lump of figs" made into a "plaister" and "laid upon the boil" symbolized the Healing Power of God, Who Alone can remove the corruption of sin, which caused the sickness in the first place.)

[22] Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the House of the LORD? (Through the symbolism of this "plaister," portraying the Power of God, laid upon the "boil," which symbolized his sinful corruption, and it being taken away, he knew now that his sins were forgiven and washed, and that he could "go up to the House of the LORD.")

CHAPTER 39

HEZEKIAH'S MISTAKE

[1] At that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered. (The words, "at that time," refer to the time after the healing of Hezekiah, probably within the year. The Babylonian Empire was just now beginning to flex its muscles and was, therefore, breaking loose from the mighty Assyrian Empire.

Isaiah, Chpt. 37, records Hezekiah receiving a "letter" from the Assyrian, threatening his destruction. This "letter" that he now receives from the hand of the "king of Babylon" is filled with sympathy. The first letter sent him to God; this letter pulled him from God. Satan's persecution is to be feared much less than his offer of compromise.)

[2] And Hezekiah was glad of them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah showed them not. (The words, "and" and "his," occur each five times in this Verse. They call attention to, and emphasize, Hezekiah's childish ostentation in directing attention to the wonders of his palace rather than to the "wonders" of God's action in retiring the shadow of the sun, and in healing the king's sickness.)

BABYLONIAN CAPTIVITY FORETOLD

[3] Then came Isaiah the Prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto you? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon. (Isaiah was not sent for! He came unbidden to rebuke the king. This bold attitude was one which Prophets were entitled to take by virtue of their office, which called upon them to bear testimony, even before kings, and to have no respect of persons.

Isaiah said, "What said these men?" It was actually said with contempt. He receives little answer from Hezekiah.)

4 Then said he, What have they seen in your house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in my house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them. (Hezekiah does not withhold from him the information, because he is not ashamed of the act, but rather glories in it. Once again, pride is the culprit. He desires that the envoy from Babylon see all of his great riches and power, and, thereby, desire his alliance.

The trap by Satan is subtly set.)

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the Word of the LORD of Hosts (there is no indication that the Lord punished Hezekiah for this deed, even though the sin was great; however, II Chron. 32:31 addresses itself to this which Hezekiah did)**:

6 Behold, the days come, that all who are in your house, and that which your fathers have laid up in store until this day shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, says the LORD. (Isaiah was a true and brave servant of the Gospel; he did not fear to warn even kings of the Wrath of God.)

7 And of your sons who shall issue from you, which you shall beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. (When Isaiah said this, Hezekiah had no sons. Manasseh was born about three years later [II Ki. 20:20; 21:1].

Judah was later carried to Babylon because of her rejection of the Law, and beyond Babylon because of her rejection of the Law-giver, the Lord Jesus Christ [I Ki. 14:15; Amos 5:27; Lev. 26:33; Deut. 28:64; Acts 7:43].)

8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, Good is the Word of the LORD which you have spoken. He said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days. (II Chron. 32:26 shows that the king's Repentance was sincere and accepted by the Lord. The words, "For there shall be peace and truth in my days," are not said with a lack of concern for the future, but that God has forgiven him of this sin, and will not bring judgment upon Judah in "my days.")

CHAPTER 40

THE LORD, THE MESSIAH, TO COME

[1] Comfort you, comfort you My People, says your God. (In this First Verse, Judah's faithful God hastens, beforehand, to assure the exiles [when they are later banished to Babylon], prophetically, that He will not forget nor lose sight of them.

The Assyrian struggle is over. The Prophet has accepted into the depths of his spirit God's announcement that the true spoiler, "the rod of His Anger, and the staff of His Indignation," is no more Assyria, but rather Babylon. The Prophet has accepted the sentence that his people, because of their sin [in fact continued sin] and refusal to repent, are to go into captivity.)

[2] Speak y ou comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she has received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins. (This Passage leaps ahead until after the captivity, which will be many years in the future.

The phrase, "double for her sins," actually refers to the practice of "possessing the double."

If a Jew went bankrupt, he was to list all of his indebtedness on a skin and nail it in a conspicuous place, where it could be seen by all. At times, a benefactor would stand good for the entirety of the debt, take down the skin, double it over [hence, "the double"], and write his name on the front, meaning that he would pay all indebtedness.

When Jesus died on the Cross, He took the penalty for all of our sins upon Himself, and then doubled over the account, meaning the sins can no longer be seen, because they are gone, and wrote His Name on the front, meaning that He has paid the price. So, we can also say, even though Gentiles, that through Christ and what He did at the Cross, that we "possess the double.")

3 The voice of him who cries in the wilderness, Prepare you the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. (The "voice" of this Verse was partially fulfilled in John the Baptist, but will be totally fulfilled in the coming ministry of Elijah [Mal. 4:5-6]. His ministry will immediately precede Christ's apparition in Glory. Morally, John the Baptist was Elijah to his generation, and introduced the Redemption Glory of the Messiah, exhibited at Calvary, and perfected in His First Advent.

The "wilderness" and "desert" represent the world. As well, it represented Israel that had lost her way; therefore, the Promise is for the Restoration of that nation, which will yet take place.)

4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain *(when Christ comes the Second Time, "every valley" in the world, filled with its hurting and weeping, will at that time "be exalted." The "mountain" and "hill" represent the oppressors of the world. They will be brought down from their exalted position, and "shall be made low." Only Christ can make the "crooked" "straight," and the "rough places plain," and that He shall do!):

5 And the Glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it. ("The Glory of the Lord" is Jesus Christ. At the Second Coming, "all flesh shall see it together.")

6 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field *(the "voice" in this Passage is that of the Holy Spirit. He instructs the Prophet what to proclaim. The message is, and will ever be, a humbling one; but its acceptance by man is a fundamental of Salvation):

7 The grass withers, the flower fades: because the Spirit of the LORD blows upon it: surely the people is grass. (Man, as symbolized here by the word "grass," has no moral worth. To prove that, "the Spirit of the LORD blows upon it," exposing all deadly flaws.)

8 The grass withers, the flower fades: but the Word of our God shall stand forever. (The Love and Truth which tell man of his moral ruin reveal to him, at the same time, an ever-living Saviour Whose Word is infallible and eternal.)

9 O Zion, that brings good tidings, get you up into the high mountain; O Jerusalem, that bring good tidings, lift up your voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God! (Isaiah is saying that the Preacher is to point Israel to Jesus of Nazareth and cry, "Behold your God!")

10 Behold, the Lord GOD will come with strong hand, and His arm shall rule for Him: behold, His reward is with Him, and His work before Him. (His title as "Adonai-Jehovah" expresses His claim as King of all the Earth. The phrase, "His arm shall rule for Him," means that Christ will not need to lean on another's arm for governmental powers. Moreover, when He comes, He will "reward" His People and "recompense" His enemies.)

11 He shall feed His flock like a shepherd: He shall gather the lambs with His arm, and carry them in His bosom, and shall gently lead those who are with young. (The Perfection of His Love as a Shepherd is set out in this Verse with exquisite beauty.)

GOD'S MIGHTY POWER AND MAJESTY

12 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of His hand, and meted out Heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the Earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance? (Verses 12 through 31 concern the Might and the Greatness of God contrasted with the weakness of man and the futility of idols.)

13 Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD, or being His counselor has taught Him? (This was quoted by Paul in Rom. 11:34 and referred to in I

Cor. 2:16. In this Passage, Isaiah seems to shift from God the Father to God the Holy Spirit. The direction mentioned was ordered by the "Spirit of the LORD." But who, Isaiah asks, "directed" [or "regulated"] the Spirit Himself? The answer is instant and obvious — "no one" — making Him indivisible with God the Father.)

14 With whom took He counsel, and who instructed Him, and taught Him in the path of Judgment, and taught Him Knowledge, and showed to Him the Way of Understanding? (God instructs, because He knows all; therefore, none "can instruct Him." Likewise, He teaches, and does not need to be "taught," because He knows all.)

15 Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, He takes up the isles as a very little thing. (As God weighs mountains and hills in His balance, so He can take up in His Own Hands "lands" or "countries," with all their inhabitants, and do with them as seems to Him good. They are of no burden to Him.)

16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a Burnt Offering. (In this Passage, God is in effect saying that if all the "beasts" in Lebanon were offered as Sacrifice and all the great forests of this country, which were noted for their great Firs and Cedars, were used for wood for the fires of the Sacrifices, such would not be "sufficient." But Christ was sufficient!)

17 All nations before Him are as nothing; and they are counted to Him less than nothing, and vanity. (In Verse 15, individual "nations" had been declared to be of no account; now the same is said of all the nations of the Earth collectively.)

18 To whom then will you liken God? or what likeness will you compare unto Him? (This great God and Saviour, Jesus Christ, is contrasted here with idols in Verses 18 through 26.)

19 The workman melts a graven image, and the goldsmith spreads it over with gold, and casts silver chains. (The Holy Spirit through Isaiah now employs ridicule, and the first ground of His ridicule is the formation of an image. It is made by man himself out of known material substance. Can it be supposed that such things are "likenesses" of God, or that He is comparable to them?)

[20] He who is so impoverished that he has no oblation chooses a tree that will not rot; he seeks unto him a cunning workman to prepare a graven image, that shall not be moved. (As someone has said, "The thing carries its own satire" in the mere plain description of it. Is such a thing comparable to God?)

[21] Have you not known? have you not heard? has it not been told you from the beginning? have you not understood from the foundations of the Earth? (That God made a Revelation of Himself to man at, and from, the beginning is clear from this Verse and Rom. 1:19-21. Therefore, man has no excuse for the worship of idols, religion, or the works of his own hands.

Modern man has the Bible, which is the Word of God and, thereby, fully explains itself so that man has no excuse.)

[22] It is He who sits upon the circle of the Earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grass hoppers; Who stretches out the heavens as a curtain, and spreads them out as a tent to dwell in (the word "upon" would better read "above." The words, "the circle of the Earth," reveal that the Earth is round. The "curtain" speaks of the atmosphere surrounding the Earth, which protects it from violent rays coming from the Sun. While the Bible is not a scientific Textbook, and is not meant to be, still, whatever it does say about science is impeccably correct):

[23] Who brings the princes to nothing; He makes the judges of the Earth as vanity. (Men who think of themselves as mighty count as nothing to God. Men rule, but God overrules!)

[24] Ye s, they shall not be planted; yes, they shall not be sown: yes, their stock shall not take root in the Earth: and He shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble. (The idea of this Passage is: all of man's efforts, no matter how powerful he may think he is, in his opposition to God, sow the seed of his own destruction.)

25 To whom then will you liken Me, or shall I be equal? says the Holy One. (Once again, the Holy Spirit asks the question. This is a summary to conclude the section, as Verse 18 concludes the preceding one. If God is paramount over idols, over nature, and over humanity, to whom can He be likened? Is He not altogether unique and incomparable?)

26 Lift up your eyes on high, and behold Who has created these things, that brings out their host by number: He calls them all by names by the greatness of His might, for that He is strong in power; not one fails. (Some 50 years ago, it was claimed by Astronomers that there were over 40 sextillion [40,000,000,000,000,000,000,000] stars in the Universe. There are as well approximately 500,000 entries in the Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. If every one of these stars were named, there would be enough names to fill approximately 80 quadrillion [80,000,000,000,000,000] books of this size. To understand that the Supreme Being has created all of these stars, and calls them each by name, is beyond our comprehension!)

27 Why sayest you, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the LORD, and my judgment is passed over from my God? (Understanding, at least somewhat, of the Greatness of God, and then to think that we can hide things from Him, presents foolishness of the highest order.)

28 Have you not known? have you not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the Earth, faints not, neither is weary? there is no searching of His understanding. (In this Verse, the Lord tells Israel and us that He never fails or wearies in upholding the feeblest of His people, nor does He ever tire of our circumstances, nor grow uninterested in our affairs. On the contrary, far from fainting in His Action on our behalf, He, as the next Verse tells us, gives power to those who do faint among us. The strongest men grow feeble in effort and interest, but the "Great Shepherd" never!)

29 He gives power to the faint; and to them who have no might He increases strength. (So far is He from being "faint" Himself that He has superabundant energy to impart to any who are faint among His servants. What a Promise!)

[30] Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall (this has reference to the fact that even the most vigorous and powerful men will faint under enough strain and eventually fall; man's strength is grossly limited, even the strength of the strongman; however, those who trust the Lord, as the next Verse tells us, will not "fall")**:

[31] But they who wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint. (The word "wait," in the Hebrew, is "qavah," and means "to bind together by twisting." The sense is that if we really "wait upon the LORD," we will be constantly seeking His Face and, being bound together with Him, we will be desirous of carrying out His Will.

The Holy Spirit uses "eagles" as an example. "Eagles" do not stay perpetually young, but do in fact periodically take on a luster on their wings that gives them a perpetual youthful appearance. Such is intended here!

God promises to give strength for the journey in order that we may "run" and "not be weary.")

CHAPTER 41

(712 B.C.)

THE SOVEREIGNTY OF GOD OVER THE NATIONS

[1] Keep silence before Me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak: let us come near together to judgment. (Through Isaiah, God is the Speaker. The idea of this Passage is that before God man has no argument; hence, "Keep silence before Me.")

[2] Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? He gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow. (It seems from Verse 8 that this "righteous man" is "Abraham, My friend." He was called from the east in Righteousness to Jehovah's foot; for God said to him, "Walk before Me and be thou perfect" [Gen. 17:1]. He made him ruler over kings; for they became as dust to his sword and as stubble to his bow.)

[3] He pursued them, and passed safely; even by the way that he had not gone with his feet. ("He pursued them" refers to Abraham rescuing Lot when he was taken captive by the four kings, as outlined in Gen. 14:1-3. His "passing safely by the way that he had not gone with his feet" refers to him refusing to take anything from "the king of Sodom" [Gen. 14:21-24]. He won the battle with the four kings with "his feet." He won the battle with the king of Sodom with his spirit. All by the Power of the Holy Spirit, the latter victory was greater even that the former!)

[4] Who has wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD, the first, and with the last; I am He. (The generations chosen from the beginning were the children of Abraham; for they were all in their father's loins when God chose him [Heb. 7:10].

"I, Jehovah, the first, and with the Last — I Am." This glorious title occurs three times in Isaiah and three times in the Book of Revelation.)

5 The isles saw it, and feared; the ends of the Earth were afraid, drew near, and came. (This refers to Israel, as is evident in Verse 8, and the seven nations of idolaters in Canaan, and their appeal to their idols for salvation from the victorious soldiers of Joshua. Rahab declared that the hearts of the inhabitants of the land were melting with terror [Josh. 2:9-11]. Thus, again, the folly of idolatry is evidenced.)

6 They helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage. (The courage of the confederate nations which tried to stop Joshua was of no consequence with the Lord.)

7 So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he who smooths with the hammer him who smote the anvil, saying, It is ready for the sodering: and he fastened it with nails, that i t should not be moved. (As they would make their idol, they would then need to "solder" and "nail" it so that the wretched object might be kept erect and not show its weakness by falling over. Such is the spiritual dumbness of man!)

ISRAEL IS GOD'S SOVEREIGN CHOICE

8 But you, Israel, are My servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham My friend. (In Verses 8 through 20, the existence and love of an irresistible Power of the God of Israel are set out. The name "Israel" means "Prince with God," while "Jacob" means "schemer." God's ever purpose was to change "Jacob, the schemer" into "Israel, the Prince with God," which He did!)

9 You whom I have taken from the ends of the Earth, and called you from the chief men thereof, and said unto you, You are My servant; I have chosen you, and not cast you away. (Concerning the "chief men thereof," the idea is that God had the ability to choose anyone. He had His pick of the "chief men." However, it was Abraham whom He chose, i.e., "Jacob.")

GOD WILL GIVE ISRAEL VICTORY; HE WILL BLESS HIS PEOPLE

10 Fear you not; for I am with you: be not dismayed; for I am your God: I will strengthen you; yes, I will help you; yea, I will uphold you with the right hand of My Righteousness. (The progression in this Verse is most precious: "I am with you"; but He comes yet nearer: "I will strengthen you"; and still closer: "I will help you"; and finally, He throws His arms around His Child and says, "I will uphold you.")

11 Behold, all they who were incensed against you shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they who strive with you shall perish.

12 You shall seek them, and shall not find them, even them who contended with you: they who war against you shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought. (The order, as given here, is one of climax. Similarly, with each augmentation of the hostility, there is an augmentation of the sentence of punishment. In essence, the Holy Spirit through Isaiah is saying that all who trust the Lord will be vindicated.)

13 For I the LORD your God will hold your right hand, saying unto you, Fear not; I will help you. (God Himself will be their [our] strength, courage, power, and their glory, and will Personally interfere on their behalf, taking them, as it were, by their right hand. As an adult leads a little child, thereby giving it protection, the Lord promises to do the same for Israel, and for us!)

14 Fear not, you worm Jacob, and you men of Israel; I will help you, says the LORD, and your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel. (It is the "worm Jacob" that is to become a "new sharp threshing instrument having teeth," and who is to break in pieces the great nations and the lesser nations, here compared to mountains and hills.

The Passage, "worm Jacob," is given here so that Israel will recognize that such is done, not because they are good, but because God is good.)

15 Behold, I will make you a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: you shall thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shall make the hills as chaff. (Israel is to be more than just sustained here. Strength is to be given her to take the aggressive, and to subdue her enemies under her. This will occur when Jesus comes back. Then every Promise that God made to the Patriarchs and Prophets will be brought to pass.)

16 You shall fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and you shall rejoice in the LORD, and shall glory in the Holy One of Israel. (Israel in the past has little "rejoiced" or "gloried" in the "LORD." However, her strength has always been derived from this Source, and this Source Alone!)

17 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue fails for thirst, I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them. (The "poor and needy" represent Israel. The "water" represents the "Water of Life." Israel doesn't have this "Water of Life," so her "thirst" continues; however, in the Battle of Armageddon, the Lord will hear their cries, and that "thirst" will be forever slaked.)

18 I will open rivers in the high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water. (Often the Holy Spirit likens the spiritual rejuvenation to the "wilderness" being made fertile, and that by ample irrigation. Life is a "wilderness," and can enjoy fertility only in Christ. How so much, and so often, does man attempt to make the "wilderness" fertile, but fail he does, as fail he must! Only Christ can do such!)

19 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah tree, and the myrtle, and the oil tree; I will set in the desert the fir tree, and the pine, the box tree together (the trees named are the choicest in Israel; the idea is that we have a deep relationship with the One Who does the planting; in fact, Isaiah will later say that we are "the planting of the Lord" [61:3])**:

20 That they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD has done this, and the Holy One of Israel has created it. (In that future day of blessing, Israel, now barren and stony, will become beauteous and fertile as the Garden of the Lord; and the nations of the Earth will recognize that these wonders are the Work of God and not idols.)

THE LORD IS THE ONE WHO DECLARES THE FUTURE

[21] Produce your cause, says the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, says the King of Jacob. (In view of all of this that the Lord will do, Isaiah once again compares Jehovah with idols. He says, "Produce your cause," etc., i.e., "state your case in favor of idolatry; bring forth your weighty arguments," etc.)

[22] Let them bring them forth, and sh ow us what shall happen: let them show the former things, what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come. (The words, "Let them bring them forth," is basically the same as "Produce your cause." God claims that the power of predicting the future is His Own inalienable prerogative. He defies the idol-gods and their votaries to give any clear prediction of future events.

The Bible alone proclaims future events, which means all the other so-called holy books are mere works of men's hands — "idols.")

[23] Show the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that you are gods: yes, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together. (In effect, the Lord is saying, concerning these idols, "If you cannot prophesy, what can you do? In actuality, you cannot do 'good' or 'evil.'" In effect, He is saying, "You have no power to do anything.")

[24] Behold, you are of nothing, and your work of nought: an abomination is he who chooses you. (This Scripture declares an idol to be an abomination. Hence, an idolater becomes an abomination; not only abominable, but worse, an abomination; for a man becomes morally like that which he worships, and idolatry and obscenity are one. As the false god is abomination, so the True God, the Messiah, is Righteousness; not only Righteous, but Righteousness itself.)

25 I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun shall he call upon My Name: and he shall come upon princes as upon morter, and as the potter treads clay. (Cyrus was the one raised up by God to fulfill His Word concerning the punishment of Babylon and the freeing of Israel [Jer., Chpt. 25; Dan. 1:21; 6:28; Ezra, Chpt. 1]. This Prophecy was fulfilled about 140 years later. Abraham was the man from the east, Cyrus, the man from the north; both are types of the Son of Man, Who, in His Second Advent, will destroy all idols and all idolaters.)

26 Who has declared from the beginning, that we may know? and before time, that we may say, He is righteous? Yes, there is none who shows, yes, there is none who declares, yes, there is none who hears your words. (Said in contrast to this prediction as to Cyrus, the challenge is repeated to the dumb idols to produce such a prediction on their part, thus demonstrating their trustworthiness. But the Verse closes with the statement that not one of the countless idols that men worship could "declare" anything, or "reveal" anything, or could even utter one word. They were all dumb!)

27 The first shall say to Zion, Behold, behold them: and I will give to Jerusalem one who brings good tidings. (The Messiah speaks here and calls to Zion to behold the fulfillment of His Prediction. Idols bring nothing, while the Lord always brings "Good Tidings.")

28 For I beheld, and there was no man; even among them, and there was no counselor, that, when I asked of them, could answer a word. (Not only are the idols themselves dumb, but their worshippers, when challenged to defend them, are dumb also; and the inability of the idols to act, as to speak, is again pointed to in this Verse.

Let it ever be understood that outside of the Bible there is "no counselor.")

29 Behold, they are all vanity; their works are nothing: their molten images are wind and confusion. ("Wind and confusion" adequately describe anything and everything that is not of the Lord. This final "outburst of scorn" is directed primarily against the idol-worshippers and, only through them, against the idols.)

CHAPTER 42

MESSIAH'S FIRST ADVENT

[1] Behold My servant, Whom I uphold; My elect, in Whom My soul delights; I have put My Spirit upon Him: He shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles. (Almost the entirety of this Chapter concerns itself with Prophecy extolling the coming of the Messiah in both His First and Second Advents. As well, Israel is addressed in her rejection of Christ in His First Advent.

God had only one Perfect Servant on Earth, His Own and well-beloved Son, in Whom His soul delighted. He speaks of Him in the Scriptures as "My Servant."

The Holy Spirit in Mat. 12:9-23 declares the Servant of this Prophecy to be Jehovah Messiah.)

[2] He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause His voice to be heard in the street. ("Cry" here means "to claim His rights.")

[3] A bruised reed shall He not break, and the smoking flax shall He not quench: He shall bring forth judgment unto truth. (This presents the image of the weak and depressed in spirit, the lowly and dejected. Christ would deal tenderly with such, not violently.

Where the flame of devotion burns at all, however feebly and dimly, the Messiah will take care not to quench it; rather, He will tend it, trim it, give it fresh oil, and cause it to burn more brightly.)

[4] He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till He have set judgment in the Earth: and the isles shall wait for His Law. (In a sense, this Verse is the exact opposite of the previous. Compared to those whom He helps, He will Himself show no signs of the weakness with which He is compassionate with others. As a "Light," He will burn brightly and strongly; as a "Reed" or "Rod," He will be firm and unbroken.)

5 Thus says God the LORD, He Who created the heavens, and stretched them out; He Who spread forth the Earth, and that which comes out of it; He Who gives breath unto the people upon it, and Spirit to them who walk therein *(the phrase, "Thus says God the LORD," literally means "Thus says the One God Jehovah." Actually, the entirety of the utterance beginning with the first word of the First Verse is the utterance of God; however, the Prophet suddenly stops, and seemingly makes a new beginning. The Holy Spirit wants it to be perfectly clear that the announcement of the "Servant of the Lord" [Christ] and His mission is from the Almighty, and that He is able to do what He has predicted):

6 I the LORD have called You in righteousness, and will hold Your hand, and will keep You, and give You for a Covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles *(all statements in Verses 6 and 7 refer to the Messiah, as well as Verses 1 through 4. In the humiliation and grace of His First Coming, it is predicted that He would not assert His rights nor judge His enemies, but that, on the contrary, He would introduce the New Covenant of Salvation for Israel, and for the Gentiles, and illuminate and liberate alike through the preaching of the Gospel [I Cor. 1:21]);

7 To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them who sit in darkness out of the prison house. ("To open the blind eyes" refers to spiritual blindness [Lk. 4:18-19]. Christ Alone can deliver, and He does so through the Means of the Cross, and through that Means alone [I Cor. 1:17-18, 23; 2:2].)

8 I am the LORD: that is My Name: and My Glory will I not give to another, neither My praise to graven images. (The phrase actually says, "I the Lord. I Who am all that the Name "Jehovah" signifies — self-existent, eternal, self-sufficing, independent, omnipotent, omniscient, and, therefore, unique, One Whose Glory cannot be shared with any other being that exists — least of all with images which are mere vanity and nothingness.")

9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them. (In Verses 5 through 8, God speaks to the Messiah; and in Verses 9 through 12, He points to the fulfillment of "former things," i.e., Prophecies, and predicts "new things," i.e., new Prophecies.

The point is that only God can do such things! The "former things" came to pass and, therefore, the "new things" will also come to pass.)

GIVE GLORY TO GOD

10 Sing unto the LORD a new song, and His praise from the end of the Earth, you who go down to the sea, and all who are therein; the isles, and the inhabitants thereof. (The words, "new song," have reference to the coming Kingdom Age, when Christ will rule and reign supremely over the entirety of the Earth, totally changing its government, bringing everything into subjection unto Him, which will give to the entirety of the world a "new song."

As well, every single Believer can presently have that "new song," which is given freely according to our Faith evidenced in Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross [I Cor. 1:23].)

11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar does inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains. (This Passage continues the results of the "new song." Hitherto, the "wilderness" has had little to shout about. Now the "wilderness," because of Christ, will be turned into a garden.)

12 Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare His praise in the islands. (Glory is to be given to the Lord over the entirety of the Earth, and in the Kingdom Age most definitely will be done!)

MESSIAH'S SECOND ADVENT; JUDGMENT AND RESTORATION

13 The LORD shall go forth as a mighty Man, He shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: He shall cry, yes, roar; He shall prevail against His enemies. (This pertains to His Second Coming, and the carrying out of that which has been predicted.)

[14] I have long time held My peace; I have been still, and refrained Myself: now will I cry like a travailing woman; I will destroy and devour at once. (Righteous men have long wondered, "Why did not God step in and take a hand in the Hell that this world has become?" The answer is that now, and for His Own reasons which are valid and right, He is "holding His peace." The sense of the Verse is that He has chafed, as it were, under the necessity of inaction, and has with difficulty "refrained Himself." Now He will "refrain" no longer.)

[15] I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools. (The result of God's "stirring up His Jealousy" and giving a free vent to His Feelings will be the destruction of the great and mighty ones of the Earth. The "mountains and hills" of fortifications, wealth, and power gathered by the Antichrist will be "made waste.")

[16] And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them. ("The blind" here can only mean captive Israel, about to be destroyed by the Antichrist. Because of her long rejection of her Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ, she is still dim-sighted from the effect of her old sins against Light and, therefore, greatly needing God's guidance. God promises to "bring them" out of captivity "by a way not hitherto known to them" — the way of voluntary release by the favor of the new King, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Two thousand years ago, with the rejection of Christ, Israel chose "crooked things." Now these "crooked things" shall be made "straight," because the "straight One" is Christ.)

[17] They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, who trust in graven images, who say to the molten images, You are our gods. (In the past, Israel trusted in "graven images," their own self-righteousness; they will, in fact, accept the false messiah and say to him, "You are our god," i.e., messiah. At the coming of the Lord, they will then be "greatly ashamed" that they did this!)

18 Hear, you deaf; and look you blind, that you may see. (Previously, because of their rejection of Christ, Israel has been "deaf" and "blind." Now, and we speak of the Second Coming, Israel will then "hear" and "see.")

19 Who is blind, but My servant? or deaf, as My messenger whom I sent? who is blind as he who is perfect, and blind as the LORD's servant? (This Verse speaks of Israel, but as well of the Church. Israel then was "His servant" and "His messenger." The Church is now such. Apostate Israel refused their True Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ, and will accept a false messiah, the Antichrist. Tragically, the apostate Church also refuses the Lord Jesus Christ and the Cross, and will accept a false christ, the Antichrist.)

20 Seeing many things, but you observe not; opening the ears, but he hears not. (Israel had seen so many things that were sent from God; the miracles, the Law, the Prophets, and then even the Messiah, "but you observe not." Jesus ministered unto their "ears," but "they heard not." There is no blindness like willful blindness! In God's Eyes, this is perhaps the worst sin of all!)

21 The LORD is well pleased for His Righteousness' sake; He will magnify the Law, and make it honourable. (Despite the fact that Israel would not honor the Law, the Lord most definitely did. In fact, His Righteousness demanded such!)

22 But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivers; for a spoil, and none says, Restore. (God's True Messenger, the Messiah, did not fail. He lived and preached the Law, and made the teaching great and glorious, totally unlike what the Pharisees had done. But yet they would not accept Him.

By not accepting Christ and His Way, "they are all of them snared in holes." They could have had a Heaven, but instead were put in "holes," i.e., "death camps.")

[23] Who among you will give ear to this? Who will hearken and hear for the time to come? (The Holy Spirit through Isaiah says, "Surely there are some among you, less hardened than the rest, who will take advantage of My warning and repent at this, the eleventh hour.")

[24] Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the LORD, He against Whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in His Ways, neither were they obedient unto His Law. (Even though "Israel" was God's Chosen, still, the Lord could not tolerate their self-way in them, any more than He could in the heathen. Therefore, He gave "Jacob" to the "robbers.")

[25] Therefore He has poured upon him the fury of His anger, and the strength of battle: and it has set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart. (God's chastisement is meant to draw us back to Himself. He does it for "our profit, that we might be partakers of His Holiness" [Heb. 12:10]. If that fails, there is no hope!)

CHAPTER 43

GOD HAS REDEEMED HIS PEOPLE

[1] But now thus says the LORD Who created you, O Jacob, and He Who formed you, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed you, I have called you by your name; you are Mine. (In this Chapter, the Holy Spirit through Isaiah portrays two things: Israel's purpose and God's greatness! The last Verse of the previous Chapter portrays Israel's refusal to repent. Set over against this impenitence, ignorance, and rebellion are displayed the Grace, Power, and Love of the Messiah.)

[2] When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow you: when you walk through the fire, you shall not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon you. (Israel's past history affords striking proofs of the truthfulness of this Verse. The future will reveal yet more striking proofs of its truth. Such Prophecies not only apply to Israel, but any follower of the Lord.)

[3] For I am the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Saviour: I gave Egypt for your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for you. (Particular countries which would have destroyed Israel were instead destroyed by the Lord, which is referred to as "your ransom." As well, the Lord paid the ransom on the Cross, which was demanded by God, which was the giving of His Life, that whosoever will, may find life [Jn. 3:16].)

[4] Since you were precious in My sight, you have been honourable, and I have loved you: therefore will I give men for you, and people for your life. (Israel became "precious" from the time that the Promise was given to Jacob that in his seed all the nations of the Earth should be blessed [Gen. 28:14]. Henceforward, God placed the interests of Israel above those of "men" generally and markedly above those of any other "people."

The only reason they have suffered such defeat and failure is because of their rejection of God and their Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ.)

5 Fear not: for I am with you: I will bring your seed from the east, and gather you from the west (Verses 1 through 4 portray the preservation of Israel, while Verses 5 through 7 portray the gathering of Israel, which in essence began in 1948 and will be finished at the Second Coming);

6 I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the Earth (as stated, this will take place on a worldwide scale immediately after the Second Coming, because Israel will have then made Christ her Saviour and her Lord);

7 Even every one who is called by My Name: for I have created him for My Glory, I have formed him; yes, I have made him. (The very name of "Israel" means "Prince of God" or "Soldier of God," and thus every Israelite was "called by God's Name.")

8 Bring forth the blind people who have eyes, and the deaf who have ears. (Israel is described here as "blind people who have eyes"; in other words, a people long blind, who have now, to some extent, recovered their sight and are ready to witness for God. As stated, this will take place in the Kingdom Age.)

9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: who among them can decla re this, and show us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth. (This of which the Lord will do, and we speak of the Restoration of Israel, will be of such magnitude that the Lord will gather the nations of the world that they may observe "and say, It is truth.")

ISRAEL'S MISSION

10 You are My witnesses, says the LORD, and My servant whom I have chosen: that you may know and believe Me, and understand that I am

He: before Me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after Me. (As in the previous Verse, the nations are invited to come together and challenged once more to vindicate their idols by fulfilled Prophecy. But it is in vain that they will seek for witnesses! But the Messiah will bring forth His witnesses, even His Servant Israel to prove that there is no God but the God of Israel; that He "declares" and "saves" and "shows"; that He is from everlasting; and that He is Almighty.)

[11] I, even I, am the LORD; and beside Me there is no Saviour. (None but God can save men. Man cannot make atonement for his followers. In this Passage is found the telling point of the Gospel, and the contention arousing Satan's anger. Emphatically, it is declared that the Lord is the only "Saviour." Satan deceives men into believing otherwise.)

[12] I have declared, and have saved, and I have showed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore you are My witnesses, says the LORD, that I am God. (It could be translated, "I did what the idol-gods cannot do — announced Deliverance and effected it, and further proclaimed [or published] it at the time when you Israelites had no idolatry among you." Therefore, He is saying, "There is no excuse for you not to believe.")

DECLARATIONS OF GOD TO ISRAEL

[13] Yes, before the day was I am He; and there is none that can deliver out of My hand: I will work, and who shall let it? (The first part of this Verse, "before the day was I am He," refers to the Truth that God was just as powerful before He delivered Judah from Sennacherib as He was at the time of their Deliverance. God does not change! He says, "I will work, and who can stop it?")

[14] Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships. (Now the Prophecy is given concerning the coming destruction of Babylon. It would happen approximately 170 years in the future.

The "ships" speak of the "Chaldeans," a special ruling group of Babylonians, who would attempt to escape. Instead of the "ships" becoming their saviour, they would be tombs; hence, the "cry."

The words, "for your sake," speak of Israel's Restoration, which would take place in the Medo-Persian Empire; however, its greater fulfillment awaits the coming Kingdom Age.)

15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the creator of Israel, your King. (In this Passage, we are told that the "LORD" is the only One Who can make such predictions as are outlined in the previous Verse and unfailingly make them come to pass. He tells them here that He is "their King." Sadly, some 750 years later, they would say, "We have no king but Caesar" [Jn. 19:15].)

16 Thus says the LORD, Who makes a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters (this has reference to God's Deliverance of Israel out of Egypt by the "way in the sea"; these "mighty waters" would be pushed back, with a "path" made through them for Israel's safe crossing);

17 Who brings forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow. (The Chaldeans were to perish as completely as the Egyptians did in the Red Sea. The words, "quenched as tow," refer to the wick that was made of flax; it was very flimsy and, thereby, easily extinguished. The Lord is saying that the Babylonians will be extinguished as easily.)

18 Remember you not the former things, neither consider the things of old. (The Holy Spirit is saying that the old Deliverance will be as nothing compared with the new. Israel must cast its eye forwards, not backwards.)

19 Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall you not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert. (This refers to the Millennial Reign, when Christ will reign supreme from Jerusalem, and Israel, at long last, will accept Him as Lord and Saviour.)

[20] The beast of the field shall honour Me, the dragons and the owls: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to My People, My Chosen. (These wild beasts and fowls of this Verse may possibly figure the Gentile nations. Many will come to Christ, because of His Power to save.)

[21] This People have I formed for Myself; they shall show forth My praise. (Finally, and at long last, "this people," i.e., Israel, "shall show forth My praise.")

[22] But you have not called upon Me, O Jacob; but you have been weary of Me, O Is rael. (Constantly, the Holy Spirit contrasts "Jacob" and "Israel." He attempts to make them into "Israel, the Prince of God," while they insist upon being "Jacob, the schemer and supplanter.")

[23] You have not brought Me the small cattle of your Burnt Offerings; neither have you honoured Me with your sacrifices. I have not caused you to serve with an Offering, nor wearied you with Incense. (In these Passages, we are witnessing a loving parent pleading with his children; and with pity, compassion, love, and tenderness!)

[24] You have bought Me no sweet cane with money, neither have you filled Me with the fat of your Sacrifices: but you have made Me to serve with your sins, you have wearied Me with your iniquities. (It is actually "sweet calamus" referred to here by the Lord using the term "sweet cane." It was used in the Incense that was poured on the Golden Altar [Ex. 30:23; Ezek. 27:19].

It seems that Israel had grown weary of offering the Incense, and also of the Sacrifices; consequently, the "fat," symbolic of God's best given for humanity, i.e., "the Lord Jesus Christ," was no longer burned on the Altar. They forgot the source of their prosperity.

When one no longer makes the Cross the object of one's faith, of which the Sacrifices were a symbol, one then also does not define sin as one should!)

[25] I, even I, am He Who blots out your transgressions for My Own sake, and will not remember your sins. (The recital of Israel's contempt of and disobedience to the Law is cleft in two and seemingly disjointed and interrupted by the declaration of this Verse. Such is the heart of God! When sin reaches its climax, as it did at Calvary, and becomes unbearable, Grace puts away the sin instead of putting away the sinner!

As man under the First Covenant despised the spotless Lamb and its atoning Blood — God's Way of Salvation in type — so man today denies and despises the Divine Way of the Cross as it refers to Justification and Sanctification through the Precious Blood of Christ, the Lamb without blemish and without spot.)

[26] Put Me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare you, that you may be justified. (The answer is: "I cannot produce any defense." When man is brought to this consciousness, he listens with wonder to the glad tidings offering him a spotless Righteousness in and through Christ and what He did for us at the Cross!)

[27] Your first father has sinned, and your teachers have transgressed against Me. (The "first father" refers to Abraham. "Your teachers" refer to the Priests and Levites of the Sanctuary, who also sinned! The idea of this Passage is that Israel cannot fall back upon merit.)

[28] Therefore I have profaned the princes of the Sanctuary, and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches. (The "profaning of the princes of the Sanctuary" refers to the captivity, when the Babylonians took Jerusalem and destroyed the Temple. It refers to the principal members of the Priesthood who were carried into captivity with the rest of the people [II Ki. 25:18].

Israel, at that time, was "given to the curse" of a severe bondage, and to the "reproaches" of the neighboring nations.)

CHAPTER 44

(712 B.C.)

GOD'S SPIRIT TO BE ON ISRAEL, HIS SERVANT-NATION

[1] Yet now hear, O Jacob My servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen (the Lord is saying, "Be not dismayed at what has been said; listen a little longer")**:

[2] Thus says the LORD Who made you, and formed you from the womb, which will help you; Fear not, O Jacob, My servant; and you, Jesurun, whom I have chosen. (After proclaiming to Israel exactly what they were — sinners, the Lord now assures them of His Love and Grace. He introduces this message with: "Yet now hear."

The words, "from the womb," are used here for increased emphasis. They emphasize that no man had anything to do with the bringing forth of these people called "Israel." They were strictly a Work of God and, as such, will be strictly restored. The name "Jesurun" refers to something special.)

[3] For I will pour water upon him who is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour My Spirit upon your seed, and My blessing upon your offspring (this Promise had a fulfillment at Pentecost; but the future only will bring the total fulfillment.

The "water" here is a figure of the Holy Spirit; the "willows," a figure of the sons of Israel.

This is the Promise to which Peter pointed in Acts 2:39. It is a Promise to Israel and to her children. As such, and as other Scriptures show, it was to overflow from Israel to all the nations of the Earth. It will yet do so!):

[4] And they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water courses. (Israel rejected their "Pentecost" some 2,000 years ago. But now at the Second Advent of Christ they will accept, and gladly! At this time, He will "pour water upon him who is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground."

This infusion of the Holy Spirit upon and within Israel shall cause them to blossom as "willows by the water courses.")

5 One shall say, I am the LORD's; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by the name of Israel. (The idea of this Passage is that untold thousands of Gentiles, seeing the blessings of the Lord upon Israel, will no doubt take as a surname the "name of Israel."

This means that the heathen nations, instead of looking scornfully on and uttering gibes and jeers, even as they have done for thousands of years, will hasten to enroll themselves among the worshippers of Jehovah, and do so through Israel.)

THE FOLLY OF IDOLATRY

6 Thus says the LORD the King of Israel, and His Redeemer the LORD of Hosts; I am the First, and I am the Last; and beside Me there is no God. (Let all know and understand: there is no "Redeemer" but the Lord! There is One God, manifest in Three Persons: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit, Who are all One in essence [I Cor. 8:6; Eph. 4:3-6; Heb. 1:8; Jn. 1:1-2; 20:28; Acts 5:3-4; II Jn. 3; Acts 2:34].)

7 And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for Me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them show unto them. (The pronoun "them" in the last sentence refers to idolaters. They are challenged to declare the things that are coming, and that shall come, as only the Lord can do!)

8 Fear you not, neither be afraid: have not I told you from that time, and have declared it? you are even My witnesses. Is there a God beside Me? yes, there is no God; I know not any. (Israel's Saviour keeps assuring His People here that they are His; that they always have been His; that they always shall be His; that He will never forget them; that though all other nations may perish, they never shall.

"From that time" refers to the time that God appointed [i.e., elected] His ancient people.

The statement, "Beside Me there is no God," literally means: "There is no Rock"; i.e., "no sure ground of trust or confidence in anything else.")

9 They who make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their delectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed. (The idolaters, as witnesses to the supposed existence and power of their idols, are themselves like the idols. They neither see nor know; they have neither vision nor intelligence. Hence, the reason [idolatry] for the terrible problems which beset planet Earth!)

10 Who has formed a god, or molten a graven image that is profitable for nothing? (The meaning of the Passage is: "Who has been so foolish as to do so — to take so much trouble about a thing which cannot possibly profit anyone?"

So it can truthfully be said that all who do not serve the Lord Jesus Christ "have formed their own god.")

11 Behold, all his fellows shall be ashamed: and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together. (The essence of this Verse is: Even if all the worshippers and makers of idols should all be "gathered together" and "stand up" to help one another, yet would they be unable to effect anything. Gathered together against God, they would "tremble and be ashamed.")

12 The smith with the tongs both works in the coals, and fashions it with hammers, and works it with the strength of his arms: yes, he is hungry, and his strength fails: he drinks no water, and is faint. (The Holy Spirit uses sarcasm in these Passages, speaking of the smith who makes an ax for the carpenter with which he can cut down a strong tree and fashion it into the figure of a handsome man, or whatever, that it may stand in the house; and that is all that it can do, for it cannot provide food and drink for the fainting smith or famished carpenter.)

13 The carpenter stretches out his rule; he marks it out with a line; he fits it with planes, and he marks it out with the compass, and makes it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house. (Idolatry blinds the senses that a man will cook his food with one-half of a tree and bow down and worship the other half as a god able to deliver him. He worships a god whom he himself makes!)

14 He hews him down cedars, and takes the cypress and the oak, which he strengthens for himself among the trees of the forest: he plants an ash, and the rain does nourish it. (The idea of this Passage is that God made the trees of any and all varieties; then senseless man, deceived by Satan, takes one and proposes to make a god of it. How stupid!)

15 Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof, and warm himself; ye s, he kindles it, and bakes bread; yes, he makes a god, and worships it; he makes it a graven image, and falls down thereto. (He worships what he makes. Again, I say, "How stupid!" He doesn't seem to realize that he has to be more intelligent than what he has made. So why worship something that is less intelligent than the maker?)

16 He burns part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eats flesh; he roasts roast, and is satisfied: yes, he warms himself, and says, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire (he takes part of the tree and uses the wood to build a fire, thereby preparing his meal; with the other half, he fashions a god. Hence, men take on the nature of that which they worship. In this case, it is a dumb idol; consequently, its maker becomes more dumb!)**:

17 And the residue thereof he makes a god, even his graven image: he falls down unto it, and worships it, and prays unto it, and says, Deliver me; for you are my god. (The Harvard graduate would smile at such ignorance; and yet, if the graduate knows not the Lord Jesus Christ, he is himself an idolater, functioning in the same capacity as the one he ridicules!)

18 They have not known nor understood: for He has shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand. (The word "shut" means to be daubed with clay. When anyone turns from the Revelation God has given of Himself in Scriptures and bows down to idols, or places something else ahead of God, a judicial blindness from God descends upon him.)

19 And none considers in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; ye s, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to the stock of a tree? (The phrase, "none considers in his heart," refers to the fact that the idolaters had once had it in their power to think and reason justly upon the absurdity of such conduct as that which was now habitual to them. But they have lost the power. They had suffered themselves little by little to be deluded.

This is the reason that religious bondage is the worst bondage of all, for this is the type of bondage of which the Holy Spirit through Isaiah speaks.)

20 He feeds on ashes: a deceived heart has turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand? (Anything and everything apart from God and His Word is a lie!)

THE LORD THE REDEEMER OF ISRAEL

21 Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for you are My servant: I have formed you; you are My servant: O Israel, you shall not be forgotten of Me. (The things that He desires Israel to "remember" is the futility of idol worship. He says the same to us today!

The words, "I have formed you," pertain to the duty of absolute and unquestioning obedience contained in the relation of that which is formed to that which has formed it.)

22 I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, your transgressions, and, as a cloud, your sins: return unto Me; for I have redeemed you. (The phrase,

"Return unto Me," is the underlying condition of both Restoration and forgiveness. It signals Repentance! Then, and then only, can the "sins" be "blotted out.")

[23] Sing, O y ou heavens; for the LORD has done it: shout, you lower parts of the Earth: break forth into singing, you mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD has redeemed Jacob, and glorified Himself in Israel. (The implication of this Passage is that if Israel is right with God, the "heavens will sing," the lower parts of the Earth will "shout," etc.

Conversely, if Israel is depressed, as she now is, the Earth must "mourn and languish." At the coming Kingdom Age, Israel will no longer languish!)

[24] Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, and He Who formed you from the womb, I am the LORD Who makes all things; Who stretches forth the heavens alone; Who spreads abroad the Earth by Myself *(not only is the Deliverance absolutely determined in God's Counsels, but the Deliverer Himself is always chosen and designated; that Deliverer is Christ, which He has done through the Cross);

[25] Who frustrates the tokens of the liars, and makes diviners mad; Who turns wise men backward, and makes their knowledge foolish *(the world today is full of psychics, mediums, prognosticators, channelers, new-agers, and pretenders to knowledge of the future, etc. God calls them "liars"!);

[26] Who confirms the word of the His servant, and performs the counsel of His messengers; Who says to Jerusalem, You shall be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, You shall be built, and I will raise up the decayed places thereof *(this was fulfilled approximately 200 years later, when Cyrus, king of Persia, made a decree that Jews could return to their own land and rebuild their City and Temple [II Chron. 36:22-23]):

[27] Who says to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up your rivers (this proclaims, approximately 200 years before it happened, how the riverbed of the Euphrates would be dried up so that Cyrus could take the city of Babylon)*:

28 Who says of Cyrus, He is My shepherd, and shall perform all My pleasure: even saying to Jerusalem, You shall be built; and to the Temple, Your foundation shall be laid. (Amazingly enough, the Lord calls Cyrus by name approximately 150 years before he was born, and about 200 years before these things came to pass.)

CHAPTER 45

GOD HAS CHOSEN CYRUS AND WILL HELP HIM

[1] Thus says the LORD to His anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have held, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut (this Chapter gives us a direct address of God to a heathen king, which is without parallel in Scripture.

The phrase, "His anointed," as it pertains to Cyrus, refers to what Cyrus would do, and not to holiness and character.

The "two leaved gates" refer to the great gates which went down into the Euphrates River, built to keep out intruders. They were left unlocked, which made it possible for the army of Cyrus to take Babylon. As stated, these predictions were given about 200 years before they actually happened);

[2] I will go before you, and make the crooked places straight: I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron (on the night that Belshazzar was slain, these gates, by a strange oversight, were left open; the Medes had diverted the course of the river, and so the soldiers marched up its dried bed and entered the city through the open gates, thus becoming masters of Babylon after a siege of two years. Belshazzar and his government had thought the city impregnable, but God said differently!)**:

[3] And I will give you the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that you may know that I, the LORD, which call you by your name, am the God of Israel. (This pertained to the treasures and riches of Babylon.)

[4] For Jacob My servant's sake, and Israel My elect, I have even called you by your name: I have surnamed you, though you have not known Me. (The conqueror's name was Agradetes, but God surnamed him Cyrus; and, as predicted in these Verses, he has ever since been known by this name.

Josephus said that this Prophecy was pointed out to Cyrus on his conquest of Babylon, and he thereupon determined to fulfill what was written; however, he probably already knew about it from his mother, Esther.)

[5] I am the LORD, and there is none else, there is no God beside Me: I girded you, though you have not known Me (the Holy Spirit is calling to attention the fact that none but "the LORD" could forecast such minute detail concerning something that would happen approximately 200 years in the future)**:

[6] That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none beside Me. I am the LORD, and there is none else. (The phrase, "from the rising of the sun, and from the west," is meant to call attention to all the world, from the extreme east to the extreme west, to these wonderful occurrences, so that Jehovah's Hand in them would be perceived and His sole Godhead would be acknowledged; for only Jehovah could do such a thing!)

THE LORD THE CREATOR

[7] I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these things. (All of this debunks the stupidity of evolution. The phrase, "I create evil," is rendered according to the following: the Hebrew word used here for "evil" is "ra," and is never rendered "sin," but rather "calamity, diversity, distress and trouble." This "evil" is meant to be directed by God at the enemies of His People.)

[8] Drop down, you heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the Earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the LORD have created it. (The Holy Spirit, upon proclaiming Israel's release from captivity, when in fact they have not even yet gone into captivity, leaps ahead to the coming Glad Day, when "the LORD" will reign supreme in the world, and Israel will finally come to the place of God's intentions. At this prospect, the Prophecy is that "the heavens will come down to Earth," and consequently, "the skies will pour down righteousness.")

9 Woe unto him who strives with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the Earth. Shall the clay say to him who fashions it, What do you make? or your work, He has no hands? (The "woe" announced in Verses 9 through 13 is directed against those in Isaiah's day among the Hebrews who criticized the action of God in choosing a heathen prince as the deliverer of His People. These objectors are compared to potsherds objecting to the action of the potter.

The idea of this Passage is that man is no more entitled to lift up his voice against his Maker than the vessel to rebel against the man who shapes it.)

10 Woe unto him who says unto his father, What do you beget? or to the woman, What have you brought forth? (This Verse is to be understood in the light of the angry utterance of a son and heir at the birth of a brother. It illustrates the anger and jealousy of the people of Israel at the Divine action in choosing and blessing the Gentiles.)

11 Thus says the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask Me of things to come concerning My sons, and concerning the work of My hands command you Me. (This Passage has been misunderstood by many, thinking it gave the right to the pottery to command the potter. The merit of the entirety of this Chapter [and more particularly Verses 7 through 12] speaks to the Omnipotence and Omniscience of God, and the folly of the individual "striving with his Maker"!

There should have been a question mark at the end of the sentence.)

12 I have made the Earth, and created man upon it: I, even My hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded. (The idea of all of this is: God is saying, "I do the commanding, and not you!")

13 I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways: he shall build My city, and he shall let go My captives, not for price nor reward, says the LORD of Hosts. (The pronoun "him" refers to Cyrus, and to him being raised up by the Lord for a special task and mission. The phrase, "in righteousness," means "to carry out My righteous purposes." "Directing all his ways" means making it possible for him to do what needs to be done. The "captives" refer to Israel.)

AN EVERLASTING SALVATION FOR ISRAEL

[14] Thus says the LORD, The labour of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia and of the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over unto you, and they shall be yours: they shall come after you; in chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down unto you, they shall make supplication unto you, saying, Surely God is in you; and there is none else, there is no God. (This Passage refers to the fact that the Gentiles robbed the sons of Israel and carried them away in fetters of iron and brass; but they will, in the future day of Restoration, come up to Jerusalem in chains of love and Repentance, bringing their wealth with them, and confessing that there is but One True and Living God, Jehovah, Messiah, the God of Israel.

The latter phrase, "There is no God," actually says, "There is no other God.")

[15] Verily You are a God Who hides Yourself, O God of Israel, the Saviour. (In the coming Kingdom Age, the Gentile world will exclaim that the Lord is now visible to all. As well, this Text means that the Lord hides many of His Plans from men, even though He is still our Saviour. Such is designed by the Holy Spirit so that man will develop trust and dependence on God, instead of having to be told everything that the Lord will do.)

[16] They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion together who are makers of idols. (This pertains to the coming Kingdom Age, when all religions will be ashamed in the Face of Christ.)

[17] But Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an everlasting Salvation:

you shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end. (The "Everlasting Salvation" means one which will continue age after age. The general sense of the Passage is that those who trust in the Lord shall be vindicated, and shall never "be ashamed nor confounded.")

GOD THE CREATOR AND SAVIOUR

18 For thus says the LORD Who created the heavens; God Himself Who formed the Earth and made it; He has established it, He created it not in vain, He formed it to be inhabited: I am the LORD; and there is none else. (The heaping together of the terms of this Verse shows how much more the Scriptures tell us about the creation of the worlds than the professors of modern science. The terms, "created," "formed," "made," and "established," are terms of exact science. The prognosticators of the lie of evolution have never been able to determine the "first cause" of all things. This Verse and so many others tell us that God is the "First Cause.")

19 I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the Earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek y ou Me in vain: I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are right. (Things are not right merely because the Lord declares such, but because in fact they "are right.")

20 Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, you who are escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge who set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god who cannot save. (The statement, "and pray unto a god who cannot save," is a heartrending word! Sadly, it incorporates most of the world.)

21 Tell you, and bring them near; yes, let them take counsel together: who has declared this from ancient time? who has told it from that time? have not I the LORD? and there is no God else beside Me; a just God and a Saviour; there is none beside Me. (This Verse could be thusly stated: "Tell you [O Israel] and bring forth the Prophecy of Isaiah; let them [the idolaters] confer together, and then ask them who declared this Prophecy 200 years ago? Who predicted it from that time?"

To this there could be but one answer: the Only True and Living God.)

[22] Look unto Me, and be you saved, all the ends of the Earth: for I am God, and there is none else. (Truth, having in the previous Verse confounded the idolaters, Grace, in this Verse, offers them without exception a sure and eternal Salvation in the words, "Look unto Me...."

[23] I have sworn by Myself, the Word is gone out of My mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto Me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear. (God swears "by Himself," because He can swear by no greater peer [Heb. 6:13]. He condescends, for man's sake, to confirm in this way Promises that are exceedingly precious.

He said that His Word "shall not return." In other words, it will not be withdrawn or retracted. God's Gifts and Promises are "without Repentance" [Rom. 11:29].

"Every knee bowing" and "every tongue confessing" refer to the universal turning to God, which will take place in the coming Kingdom Age.)

[24] Surely, shall one say, in the LORD have I righteousness and strength: even to Him shall men come; and all who are incensed against Him shall be ashamed. (All of this is ascribed to Christ, so asserting His Deity, that He is Jehovah, and that all men shall worship Him as God by bowing the knee to Him.)

[25] In the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory. (Self-justification, as practiced by Israel, brought self-righteousness, and resulted in pride and misery. God's Justification, which is by Faith, and which is in Christ and what Christ has done for us at the Cross, always brings "glory," which is the "Glory of God," and not the glory of man.)

CHAPTER 46

THE IDOLS OF BABYLON ARE POWERLESS

[1] Bel bows down, Nebo stoops, their idols were upon the beasts, and upon the cattle: your carriages were heavy laden; they are a burden to the weary beast. (The fall of the gods of Babylon is among the direct consequences of the victories of Cyrus. The Prophet expresses the downfall of material imagery, graphically describing the fate of the idols themselves. The latter portion of the Verse refers to the many idols being torn from their pedestals, seized as spoils, and carried off by the soldiers of Cyrus.)

[2] They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but themselves are gone into captivity. (The meaning of this Passage is that these gods were, in each case, unable to deliver or save from capture. Consequently, they were carried off on the backs of "weary beasts."

As they held men in superstitious "captivity," likewise, they "themselves are gone into captivity.")

GOD IS OMNIPOTENT

[3] Hearken unto Me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the House of Israel, which are borne by Me from the belly, which are carried from the womb (even though this Prophecy was given some 200 years before the fact, still, the Holy Spirit is addressing Israel at the time of their Restoration from Babylon. He says, "Hearken unto Me." The very reason they had to undergo some 70 years of captivity was because they did not "hearken" unto Him!)**:

[4] And even to your old age I am He; and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you.

(The implication is this: The mother carries the child for a while, but soon tires of carrying him and leaves him to shift for himself. But God's tender Care for His People lasts from their infancy through their boyhood and manhood to their old age. The Everlasting Arms never weary. God's watchfulness, His Providence, and His Protection never fail.

The statement, "I have made, and I will bear," refers to the creation of the Creator, and that He will see it through to ultimate victory.)

5 To whom will you liken Me, and make Me equal, and compare Me, that we may be like? (There is no equal to the Lord! There is only one image of God that is favored by the Holy Spirit. Paul said: "For whom He did foreknow, He also did predestinate to be conformed to the Image of His Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brethren" [Rom. 8:29]. He wants us to be in the Image of Christ! Actually, the entire mission of the Holy Spirit is to "conform us" to that Image.)

6 They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith; and he makes it a god: they fall down, yes, they worship. (Once again, the Holy Spirit puts forth the fallacy of worshipping something inferior to the one who made it.)

7 They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he stands; from his place shall he not remove: ye s, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble. (Let it ever be known that if it's not Christ, it is an idol and, as such, it "cannot answer, nor save out of trouble.")

8 Remember this, and show yourselves men: bring it again to mind, O you transgressors. (It could be translated, "Remember, and keep remembering this fact, and show yourselves men against idolatry." In other words, "quit acting like a beast, which can neither consider nor understand, and act like the 'man' that God made you!")

9 Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like Me (the things that the Lord has done in the past, and will do in the present for those who believe Him, prove Him to be God in a sense in which the Word cannot be applied to any other. The Word, "I am God," in the original, is "I am El... I am Elohim." "El" is "The Mighty One," "The Omnipotent"; Elohim, "the Godhead in all its fullness."

How touching to the heart that God, Who made the worlds and created man, that He would condescend to plead with poor mortals to investigate Him and prove His claims),

10 Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all My pleasure (all of this declares that God has a distinct, Divine Plan; to be sure, that Plan will be carried through to completion):

11 Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man who executes My counsel from a far country: yes, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it. (At this time, it was strange to Jewish ears that God would use a heathen, a Gentile, and "from a far country." But this is exactly what the Lord did, as it regards Cyrus, whom He refers to as a "ravenous bird.")

RESTORATION OF ISRAEL

12 Hearken unto Me, you stouthearted, who are far from righteousness (the transgressors of Verse 8 and the "stouthearted" of this Verse were those Hebrews who desired to retain the worship of idols together with the worship of Jehovah. Man, by nature, is "far from righteousness"; hence, in order to save him, God must bring near His Righteousness):

13 I bring near My Righteousness; it shall not be far off, and My Salvation shall not tarry: and I will place Salvation in Zion for Israel My Glory. (Salvation is found alone in Zion, i.e., in Christ; and it is found in Him with eternal Glory [II Tim. 2:10].

The implication of this Passage is that if any individual desires the "Righteousness of God," then "it shall not be far off." If one will earnestly seek, then "His Salvation will not tarry."

What a glorious Promise to all who are in trouble and cry to Him for help!)

CHAPTER 47

(712 B.C.)

JUDGMENT ON BABYLON

[1] Come down and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon, sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for you shall no more be called tender and delicate. (These Passages predict the fall of Babylon, and have a twofold fulfillment:

The entirety of this Chapter should be read in connection with Rev., Chpt. 18. Both Chapters predict the future doom of the city of Babylon. The city was founded by Nimrod, the first Antichrist, and will be restored with great magnificence by the last Antichrist.

Babylon, in the Scripture, symbolizes corruption of Divine Truth, developed into the enemy of Truth. So the entirety of this Chapter presents Babylon as a proud queen degraded to the lowest form of slavery.

The words, "sit on the ground," should read "sit throneless on the ground."

The words, "virgin daughter," mean "hitherto uncaptured" or "impregnable." So this Chapter concerns the destruction of Babylon by Cyrus, and then, in the future day, the destruction of Babylon by an earthquake [Rev. 16:17-21].)

[2] Take the millstones, and grind meal: uncover your locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers. (In Verses 2 and 3, grinding corn and fetching water express the most abject slavery. The phrase, "Make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers," refers to long lines of men and women being taken from their city into captivity. In so doing, they would have to wade through streams, and would expose parts of their person which delicacy required to be concealed. The idea is of total defeat!)

3 Your nakedness shall be uncovered, yes, your shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and I will not meet you as a man. (The idea of this Verse is that the Lord will spare, or give quarter, to no one. The "vengeance" guaranteed would have to do with Babylon's treatment of the Jews.)

4 As for our Redeemer, the LORD of Hosts is His Name, the Holy One of Israel. (The essence of this Verse is that Babylon has no "Redeemer," because of her worship of idols, but Israel has a "Redeemer," even in times of distress. "The LORD of Hosts is His Name.")

5 Sit you silent, and get you into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for you shall no more be called, The lady of king doms. (The "lady of kingdoms" could possibly be better expressed as "the mistress of kingdoms." The phrase, "Sit you silent, and get you into darkness," refers to this fallen people hiding in shame and silence, as well as in darkness, as disgraced persons who shrink from being seen by their fellows.)

6 I was wroth with My People, I have polluted My inheritance, and given them into your hand: you did show them no mercy; upon the ancient have you very heavily laid your yoke. (The Holy Spirit saying that Israel was shown no "mercy" implies that the Lord wanted "mercy" to be shown!)

7 And you said, I shall be a lady forever: so that you did not lay these things to your heart, neither did remember the latter end of it. (Babylon should have reasoned that if God punished His Own people so severely because of idolatry, how much more severely would He punish them, "the Chaldeans," because of their wickedness, and how terrible would be their end.

The phrase, "I shall be a lady forever," pertains to what Babylon says, but the Lord says otherwise.)

8 Therefore hear now this, you who are given to pleasures, who dwells carelessly, who says in your heart, I am, and none else beside me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children (among Babylon's sins, she said in her heart, "I am, and there is none else beside me." She here assumes a Divine title; however, she would come to know exactly, as it regards Jehovah, as to what Divinity actually meant):

9 But these two things shall come to you in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon you in their perfection for the multitude of your sorceries, and for the great abundance of your enchantments. (This was partially fulfilled by Cyrus; however, the total fulfillment of this Passage remains to the last days of the Great Tribulation, when Babylon will be destroyed in one day, exactly as predicted here [Rev. 18:1-24].)

10 For you have trusted in your wickedness: you have said, None sees me. Your wisdom and your knowledge, it has perverted you; and you have said in your heart, I am, and none else beside me. (Once again, the Holy Spirit emphasizes the fact that the Babylonian Monarch claimed that he was the kingly substitute of God on Earth. The "wisdom" and "knowledge" which "perverted them" refers to astrology, which, when once entered upon, seduces the mind from all genuine and fruitful study of the celestial phenomena, and leads into a labyrinth of absurdities.)

11 Therefore shall evil come upon you; you shall not know from whence it rises: and mischief shall fall upon you; you shall not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon you suddenly, which you shall not know. (The implication of this Verse is that the "evil" that will come upon them, which in fact would be sent by God, could not be warded off or charmed away by "sorceries" or "enchantments.")

12 Stand now with your enchantments, and with the multitude of your sorceries, wherein you have laboured from your youth; if so be you shall be able to profit, if so be you may prevail. (The Holy Spirit now uses sarcasm. In effect, He is saying, "For many centuries, you have relied upon your enchantments and sorceries. See if they will help you now!")

13 You are wearied in the multitude of your counsels. Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save you from these things that shall come upon you. (The Holy Spirit through Isaiah invites Babylon's best, whoever they might be, to stop the course of events that were going to come, because they were ordained by God.)

14 Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it. (The last line of this Verse means that these diviners were to be totally destroyed, and that the doom that should fall upon them would not be as a little fire that one could comfortably sit at, but a devouring fire of horror and death.)

15 Thus shall they be unto you with whom you have laboured, even your merchants, from your youth: they shall wander everyone to his quarter; none shall save you. (The sense of this Verse is that the powerful influence that Babylon had, which involved itself with every nation in the world of that day, would be destroyed along with all commerce and activity. In other words, destruction would be complete!)

CHAPTER 48

ISRAEL'S UNFAITHFULNESS REBUKED

[1] Hear you this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah, which swear by the Name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness. ("Jacob" is the nation's natural name; "Israel" is the spiritual name. "To swear by the Name of Jehovah" is an idiom expressive of worship. The phrase, "But not in truth, nor in righteousness," expresses the thought of worshipping, but neither in sincerity nor pure from idolatry.)

[2] For they call themselves of the Holy City, and stay themselves upon the God of Israel; The LORD of Hosts is His Name. (The essence of this Verse is the idea that Judah put great dependence and store upon the outward and formal, as the fact of their belonging to the "Holy City," Jerusalem. Compare the boasts of the Jews in our Lord's time, "We be Abraham's seed" [Jn. 8:33].)

[3] I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of My mouth, and I showed them; I did them suddenly, and they came to pass. ("The former things" concern the predicted birth of Isaac and the foretold exodus from Egypt. The words, "showed" and "declared," as well as "suddenly," refer to the Deliverance from Egypt, and that there was nothing to indicate its coming, and yet it came "suddenly.")

[4] Because I knew that you are obstinate, and your neck is an iron sinew, and your brow brass (the argument of Verses 4 through 8 is that God, knowing beforehand the obstinacy with which His People would cling to idols and attribute all their good fortune to them, here announces, some two hundred years in advance, what should happen in the days of Cyrus;

this would make it impossible for the people to credit their idols with this happy change in their circumstances);

5 I have even from the beginning declared it to you; before it came to pass I showed it you: lest you should say, My idol has done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, have commanded them. (It has been already observed that there was a strong tendency to idolatry among the Jews, not only before, but also during, the captivity! [Ezek. 20:32].)

6 You have heard, see all this; and will not you declare it? I have sh owed you new things from this time, even hidden things, and you did not know them. (The "new things" contrasted with the "former things" of Verse 3 mean the Prophecies respecting Cyrus and the restoration.)

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when you heard them not; lest you should say, Behold, I knew them. (The words, "they are created now," do not mean that God is hastily formulating a new plan, but that what has lain in secret in God's counsels from all eternity is now being revealed to man.)

8 Yes, you heard not; yes, you knew not; yes, from that time that your ear was not opened: for I knew that you would deal very treacherously, and were called a transgressor from the womb. (Israel had ears, but they would not "hear," and consequently they did not "know." It was a willful deadness and, thereby, a willful ignorance!)

GOD'S FORBEARANCE: HIS APPEAL TO ISRAEL

9 For My Name's sake will I defer My anger, and for My praise will I refrain for you, that I cut you not off. (Israel's annihilation was not escaped from because of their goodness, but because of the Glory of Jehovah's Name and Praise.)

10 Behold, I have refined you, but not with silver; I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction. (Israel was "refined" in Egypt, and was to be "refined" after Isaiah's day in Babylon, and will be "refined" during the coming Great Tribulation. The "furnace of affliction" always has to do with wrongdoing on the part of the individual or nation. The Lord allows the affliction, hopefully, that it will bring the person or nation to Repentance! Consequently, Israel still has one great "furnace of affliction" to go through!)

[11] For My Own sake, even for My Own sake, will I do it: for how should My Name be polluted? and I will not give My glory unto another. (Had the Lord not deferred His Anger and had He cut Israel off, then would His Name have been profaned and His Glory would have been given to another god.)

[12] Hearken unto Me, O Jacob and Israel, My called; I am He; I am the First, I also am the Last. (The Holy Spirit is impressing upon Israel the seriousness of the situation by considering Who it is by Whom they have been called — "I am He" — i.e., "I am the absolute and eternally unchangeable One, the Alpha and Omega of all history." "The First and also The Last" means "from Whom and to Whom are all things" [Rom. 11:36].)

[13] My Hand also has laid the foundation of the Earth, and My Right Hand has spanned the heavens; when I call unto them, they stand up together. (Heaven and Earth and all things that are in them, except man, are prompt to perform God's Will and rise up at once at His Call to show their readiness.)

[14] All y ou, assemble yourselves, and hear; which among them has declared these things? The LORD has loved him: he will do His pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans. (This is all the more startling when one realizes that the Babylonian Empire, at the time of Isaiah's Prophecy, had not even come into being, much less a settled power in the world! So, such Prophecies proclaim the inexhaustible Power of God, plus His Omniscience, i.e., "the knowledge of all things, past, present, and future.")

[15] I, even I, have spoken; yes, I have called him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous. (Cyrus is represented as raised up by God, "called" by Him and commissioned by Him "to do all his pleasure.")

16 Come you near unto Me, hear you this; I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there am I: and now the Lord GOD, and His Spirit, has sent Me. (God, "from the beginning" and from His first dealings with Israel, had raised up a succession of Prophets who had declared His Will, not "in secret," or ambiguously, but openly and plainly, so that all who heard might understand.

The pronoun "Me," the last word of this Verse, pertains to the Coming Messiah.)

ISRAEL'S REGATHERING FROM BABYLON

17 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the LORD your God Who teaches you to profit, Who leads you by the way that you should go. (The Promise of this Scripture is absolutely phenomenal! The Word of God is extolled here; if the Word is followed, the result will be tremendous "profit," and in every capacity.)

18 O that you had hearkened to My Commandments! then had your peace been as a river, and your righteousness as the waves of the sea (the idea of this Passage is that Israel should try to keep the Commandments to the very best of their ability. In truth, they were not capable of doing so, but they were supposed to try. Had they sincerely tried, the Lord would have abundantly blessed them)**:

19 Your seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of your bowels like the gravel thereof; his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before Me. (This Prophecy looks ahead some two hundred years when Israel will be coming back from dispersion, and then it looks ahead even unto the present hour. Due to Israel's Crucifixion of Christ, they cut themselves off from God; as a nation, they went into oblivion and actually were scattered all over the world.)

20 Go you forth of Babylon, flee you from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare you, tell this, utter it even to the end of the Earth; say you, The LORD has redeemed His servant Jacob. (The sons of Israel were to forsake Babylon and her idols and to testify to the ends of the Earth that their Deliverance was due to Jehovah Messiah, and not to any false god.)

21 And they thirsted not when he led them through the deserts: he caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them: he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out. (The Promise is that God would superintend their passage exactly as He did their forefathers those many centuries before. The Holy Spirit is saying, "As the 'Rock' was Christ for Israel coming out of Egypt, the 'Rock' was Christ as they would come out of Babylon.")

22 There is no peace, sa ys the LORD, unto the wicked. (This Prophecy closes with a tremendous Promise and tremendous warning! Those who follow Him will never "thirst," while those who do not follow Him will have "no peace." As eternal is the flowing water of life from the "Smitten Rock," eternal is the misery of the "wicked."

The world does not have a choice regarding its Saviour. It is Jesus Christ and Eternal Life or wickedness and eternal misery! There is no in-between.)

CHAPTER 49

MESSIAH'S CALL AND COMMISSION

[1] Listen, O isles, unto Me; and hearken, you people, from far; The LORD has called Me from the womb; from the bowels of My mother has He made mention of My Name. (The Speaker in Verses 1 through 6 is the Messiah; He invites the inhabitants of the "Isles" and the people, that is, the whole Gentile world, to listen to Him.

The phrase, "The LORD has called Me from the womb," speaks of the Incarnation. In order to save the human family, God would have to become Man. He would be called "Immanuel," which means "God with us" [Isa. 7:14].)

[2] And He has made My mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of His Hand has He hid Me, and made Me a polished shaft; in His quiver has He hid Me (no one knew the Word like Christ; in fact, He was, and is, the "the Living Word" [Jn. 1:1].

The imagery recurs in the Book of Revelation, when John said, "And out of His mouth went a sharp twoedged sword" [Rev. 1:16].

The phrase, "In the shadow of His hand has He hid Me," means that He was reserved until the time that He would be revealed to the world, and even then would be guided and protected by the Hand of God);

[3] And said unto me, You are My Servant, O Israel, in Whom I will be glorified. (The word "Servant" is used concerning the Messiah. He Alone portrayed the true "Servant spirit." The Prophecy is that now Christ, addressed as "Israel," would stand as a new federal head to the Nation, which would be summed up in Him. Moreover, Christ would be, in a truer sense than any other, the "Israel" or "Prince with God." In fact, Jesus is the True Man, the True Israel, and the True Church.)

4 Then I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent My strength for nought, and in vain: yet surely My judgment is with the LORD, and My work with My God. (From the Exodus to Pentecost, He labored and spent Himself for Israel, but in vain; yet His "judgment," i.e., vindication, was with Jehovah, and His "work," i.e., His reward, with His God.)

5 And now, says the LORD Who formed Me from the womb to be His Servant, to bring Jacob again to Him, Though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and My God shall be My strength. (This Verse predicts that Christ will gather Israel to God; that the ability enabling Him to do so will be God's; and that He Himself shall always be glorious in the Eyes of Jehovah.

The words, "Though Israel be not gathered," in the Hebrew, actually mean "though Israel be not yet gathered," and point to temporary disappointments owing to Israel's unbelief, but that the Messiah will ultimately not only bring back all the Tribes of Jacob to Jehovah, but, in addition and in union with them, will bring back to God the whole of rebellious humanity, at least those who will believe Him.)

6 And He said, It is a light thing that You should be My Servant to raise up the Tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give You for a light to the Gentiles, that You may be My Salvation unto the end of the Earth. (The phrase, "It is a light thing," refers to the fact that God considers the "raising up of the Tribes of Jacob" and the "Restoration of the preserved of Israel" as a small thing in comparison to what else the Messiah will do.

As well, He will also be a "light to the Gentiles," i.e., "the whole world"!)

MESSIAH'S HUMILIATION AND EXALTATION

7 Thus says the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and His Holy One, to Him Whom man despises, to Him Whom the nation abhors, to a servant of rulers, Kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD Who is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and He shall choose You. (This Passage gives our Lord's humiliation and exaltation. The Speaker in Verses 7 through 12 is Jehovah, and the One spoken to [His Holy One] is "Immanuel" — despised by man and abhorred by Israel. Such was He in His First Advent. But, in His Second Advent, kings, when they see Him, shall stand in awe because of Him, and princes shall fall and worship Him.

This is the first place in the Prophecies of Isaiah where this note of the Messiah being "despised" is brought forward. It is found earlier in the Psalms [Ps. 22:6].)

HIS MINISTRY

[8] Thus says the LORD, In an acceptable time have I heard You, and in a day of Salvation have I helped You: and I will preserve You, and give You for a Covenant of the people, to establish the Earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages (the Father helped the Son throughout His Earthly Ministry; however, the "acceptable time" and "day of Salvation" refer to Calvary and the Resurrection, where at Calvary every foe was defeated [Col. 2:14-15].

The phrase, "To establish the Earth," is powerful indeed! Through what Jesus did at the Cross, the "Earth" will be brought back to its original place as before the Fall. This will cause the "desolate heritage" to once again become fruitful!);

[9] That you may say to the prisoners, Go forth; to them who are in darkness, Show yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places. (Due to what Christ did at the Cross, the prisoners can be released from the prison house of darkness. Coming out to the Light, "they shall feed in the ways" and have great "pastures.")

[10] They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun smite them: for He Who has mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall He guide them. (Verses 9 through 13 picture the Great Shepherd, the Lord Jesus Christ, leading His sheep to Zion. In particular, Verses 9 and 10 speak of Israel; in general, they speak of all who accept Christ.)

11 And I will make all My mountains a way, and My highways shall be exalted. (Satan endeavors to make the Christian think that even though he might make it, still, it's going to be so difficult that the journey will not be worth the effort! Conversely, the Holy Spirit tells us that Christ, despite the "mountains of difficulties," will make it a happy, joyous, and glorious "way," and an "exalted highway.")

12 Behold, these shall come from far: and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim. (The four points of the compass appear in this Verse, with the word "far" representing the south, and the word "Sinim" representing, as many Scholars believe, China and, therefore, the east.

In any case, this reference is not to the dispersed Jews, but to the remote Gentiles, who will pass from all quarters of the Earth into the Kingdom of the Redeemer.)

RESTORATION OF ISRAEL

13 Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O Earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the LORD has comforted His People, and will have mercy upon His afflicted. (The exclamations of both the "heavens" and the "Earth" are given here at the Restoration of Israel and the fulfillment of these great Promises! This is happening because Israel, who has been so long "afflicted" because of their sins, has now come back to the Lord and is "comforted.")

14 But Zion said, The LORD has forsaken me, and my Lord has forgotten me. (At her most terrible time, with Jerusalem falling and the Antichrist pressing for total destruction, Israel will realize that the Messiah is her only hope; and yet it seems from events "the LORD has forsaken me, and my Lord has forgotten me." But the following Passages address this cry of Israel!)

15 Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? ye s, they may forget, yet will I not forget you. (The Lord speaks of Israel as His "child." The analogy is drawn of a woman who loves her child, "the son of her womb." She loves it, no matter how it looks, or what it has done!

The Holy Spirit then says that God's Love is far greater than that; even though some mothers "may forget," yet He says, "I will not forget you.")

16 Behold, I have graven you upon the palms of My Hands; your walls are continually before Me. (It is said that there was a custom among pilgrims to Jerusalem to have representations of the city or Temple tattooed on their hands and arms to remind them of the sacred places. They were called "ensigns of Jerusalem."

The Lord uses this analogy, which would have been easily understood by the Jews.

The Lord uses the "walls" as the symbol that is to be "graven" or "portrayed." Such speaks of Divine protection. In other words, the walls, which have long since fallen down, spiritually speaking, will be rebuilt. David mentioned this in his prayer of Repentance [Ps. 51:18].)

17 Your children shall make haste; your destroyers and they who made you waste shall go forth of you. (This speaks of the Second Coming of Christ, with the defeat of the Antichrist and Israel finally accepting the Lord as their Saviour. When this happens, Jews from all over the world will "make haste" to come to Israel.)

18 Lift up your eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to You. As I live, says the LORD, You shall surely clothe You with them all, as with an ornament, and bind them on You, as a bride does. (The phrase, "All these," continues to refer to "Your children" of Verse 17. There will be an astonishment in Israel, as well as in the entirety of the world, at the number of Jews who will come from all over the world to Israel; all will be welcome.)

19 For your waste and your desolate places, and the land of your destruction, shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they who swallowed you up shall be far away. ("The land of your destruction" refers to Israel, which has become a graveyard for the entirety of the Jewish people. Now it will be the opposite! All those who threatened to "swallow you up" surely "shall be far away," even in Hell itself, at least as far as the Antichrist is concerned!

At the beginning of the Kingdom Age, so many Jews will come to Israel that even the "waste" and "desolate places" will be fully used; still, room will be at a premium.)

20 The children which you shall have, after you have lost the other, shall say again in your ears, The place is too strait for me: give place to me that I may dwell. (As stated, the Holy Spirit continues to speak of the millions of Jews who will come to Israel from all parts of the world at the beginning of the Kingdom Age.)

21 Then shall you say in your heart, Who has begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who has brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been? (At the very conclusion of the Battle of Armageddon, and at the return of Christ, after losing so many millions in this terrible conflict, the leaders of Israel will wonder if they have enough people to once again be a viable nation. But then millions will begin to come from all over the world, with Israel then asking the question, "Where have they been?")

ISRAEL'S ENEMIES DESTROYED

22 Thus says the Lord GOD, Behold, I will lift up My Hand to the Gentiles, and set up My Standard to the people: and they shall bring your sons in their arms, and your daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders. (The "Standard" that the Lord will set up is Jesus Christ. Not only will the Jews be rallying to "My Standard," but the "Gentiles," as well!

The Gentile world, realizing that Israel is God's Chosen People, and that they have finally accepted Christ as their Messiah, and knowing that God will bless all who favor His People, will do everything they can to provide aid, comfort, money, and help regarding their relocation to the Land of Israel.)

[23] And kings shall be your nursing fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers: they shall bow down to you with their face toward the Earth, and lick up the dust of your feet; and you shall know that I am the LORD: for they shall not be ashamed who wait for Me. (The phrase, "Lick up the dust," is an expression of complete submission. "Kings and queens," i.e., world leaders, will "bow down to you." This will be done, not so much because of the Jew himself, but rather because of the "LORD of Glory," and Israel's relationship with Him.)

[24] Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered? (The mighty and terrible one of Verses 24 and 25 is the Antichrist. His "prey" and lawful captives will be the sons of Israel. They will have accepted him as the messiah, as predicted in John 5:43 and will, consequently, be his lawful captives. Concerning this, the next Verse tells us what Christ will do.)

[25] But thus sa ys the LORD, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him who contends with you, and I will save your children. (The "Deliverance" that will come to Israel, even at the last minute, will be the Second Coming of Christ. At that time, the "prey," i.e., Israel, "shall be delivered."

Even though the Antichrist will be "terrible," still, Christ will be far "more terrible."

The phrase, "I will contend with him who contends with you," should be well noted! That holds true for all time, not only for Israel, but also for every Believer.)

[26] And I will feed them who oppress you with their own flesh; and they shall be drunk with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am your Saviour and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob. (This Passage proclaims the destruction of the Antichrist and all who oppose Israel in that coming day of the Battle of Armageddon. At that time, and we continue to speak of the Second Coming, the entirety of the world will know that "the LORD is Israel's Saviour and her Redeemer." He is "the Mighty One of Jacob.")

CHAPTER 50

UNFAITHFUL ISRAEL DIVORCED BY GOD

[1] Thus says the LORD, Where is the bill of your mother's divorcement, whom I have put away? or which of My creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have you sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away. (In fact, the Lord had "put away," "written a bill of divorcement," concerning the Northern Kingdom of Israel; however, concerning Judah, He had not so done, and her children were wrong to suppose themselves altogether cast off.

They had, in fact, "by their transgressions," especially their idolatries, willfully divorced themselves, or at any rate separated themselves, from God. But no sentence had gone forth from Him to bar reconciliation and return.

Neither had He sold them to a "creditor." Consequently, the Babylonians are not thus their rightful owners — they are still God's Children, His Property, and the object of His Care.)

[2] Wherefore, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer? Is My Hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, at My rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stink, because there is no water, and die for thirst. (The Prophecy now jumps from Judah's present difficulties to a future day when He Who is Himself the Mighty God came from Heaven to Earth to seek and bless her. But no one would receive Him or open the door to Him when He knocked [Jn. 1:11; Acts 13:46; 28:28]. His dignity as God is declared in this Verse. He proclaims that if Judah will only believe Him, He can "redeem" her from all the difficulties brought on by her sins. In fact, by using the words, "Is My hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem?" He proclaims the Truth that He is able to deliver from any and all situations, if men will only believe Him.)

3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering. (The assertion here is that if He so chooses, He could leave all nature in absolute darkness — a power necessarily belonging only to Him Who said, "Let there be light; and there was light" [Gen. 1:3].)

MESSIAH, THE OBEDIENT SERVANT

4 The Lord GOD has given Me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a Word in season to him who is weary: He wakens morning by morning, He wakens My ear to hear as the learned. (The intent of the Holy Spirit in this Chapter is to portray to man the inexhaustible Power of God that could, if He so chose, use that Power in any capacity, but rather chose to send His Only Son to "redeem" not only Israel, but the entirety of mankind.

In this Verse, He is presented as the Perfect Disciple. He only spoke the Words which were given Him by God ["that I should know how to speak"]. He asserted this seven times when on Earth [Jn. 7:16; 8:28, 46-47; 14:10, 24; 17:8].

The phrase, "He wakens morning by morning, He wakens My ear to hear as the learned," refers to the fact that God held immediate and constant communication with the "Servant" — not enlightening Him occasionally, as He did the Prophets by dreams and visions, but continually whispering in His Ear.

In fact, the phrase, "Morning by morning," is not to be narrowed to the bare literal meaning, but to be taken in the sense of "uninterruptedly." All of this was not necessarily for His Own benefit, but rather that "He should know how to speak a Word in season to him who is weary.")

5 The Lord GOD has opened My ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back. (This Verse pertains to the entire willingness of Christ to hear the Father, and to do so as the True Servant, as contrasted with the professed servant, or Children of Israel.

The phrase, "Neither turned away back," refers to Him being most tried. Even in the Garden of Gethsemane, His final Word was, "Not My Will, but Thine, be done" [Lk. 22:42].)

HIS SUFFERING AND HELP

6 I gave My back to the smiters, and My cheeks to them who plucked off the hair: I hid not My face from shame and spitting. (This Verse addresses itself to the hours before the Crucifixion. Mat. 26:67 and 27:26 fulfill this Passage.

That our Lord, of such power as is described in Verse 3, could contain Himself, when His Own People would treat Him thusly, is beyond comprehension! Their response to His Love was their hate. They whipped Him, pulled His beard from His Face, and spit on Him.

Their doing it was no surprise. By His Omniscience, He knew before He came what the results would be. And yet, He came anyway!)

7 For the Lord GOD will help Me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set My face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed. (Lk. 9:31, 51 fulfill this Verse. The "help" that His Father gave Him was that He might finish the task of redeeming mankind. The idea of redeeming someone who responds only with hate cannot be comprehended by the mortal mind, especially when one considers what that Redemption costs!

The phrase, "I set My face like a flint," refers to the resolve of accomplishing a certain thing despite all the scorn and hatred.)

8 He is near Who justifies Me; who will contend with Me? let us stand together: who is My adversary? let him come near to Me. (The idea of this Verse is that those who "contend with Me," i.e., accuse Me, will have to answer to the One Who "justifies Me," namely "The Lord GOD.")

9 Behold, the Lord GOD will help Me; who is he who shall condemn Me? lo, they all shall wax old as a garment; the moth shall eat them up. (The only One Who can truly help is "the Lord GOD.")

COMMAND TO TRUST THE LORD

10 Who is among you who fears the LORD, who obeys the voice of His servant, who walks in darkness, and has no light? let him trust in the Name of the LORD, and stay upon His God. (There are times of darkness in every Believer's experience; but light will surely be had if the Voice of Jehovah's Servant be obeyed. And the "Servant" is Christ.)

11 Behold, all you who kindle a fire, who compass yourselves about with sparks: walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that you have kindled. This shall you have of My Hand; you shall lie down in sorrow. (The idea of this Verse is that all enemies who kindle their own fires of accusation and judgment against the Messiah shall reap what they sow to their own sorrow.)

CHAPTER 51

TRUST GOD; HIS MERCY BESTOWED ON ABRAHAM'S SEED

[1] Hearken to Me, you who follow after righteousness, you who seek the LORD: look unto the Rock whence you are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence you are digged. (Abraham and Sarah are referred to as "the Rock" from which Israel was hewn. The "hole of the pit" refers to idolatry from whence Abraham and Sarah were brought, for they were idolaters when they came to the Lord.

The idea of this Verse is: Israel was raised up from an aged man and a barren woman and made into a numerous nation, a multitude like the sand of the sea.)

[2] Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah who bore you: for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him. (The idea is: If God could multiply the progeny of one man, how much more could He make a flourishing nation out of the exiles, who, though but a "Remnant" of the pre-captivity Israel, were yet many thousands in number, that is, if Judah would only believe Him.)

COMFORT PROMISED: ZION AND WASTE PLACES WILL BE RESTORED

[3] For the LORD shall comfort Zion: He will comfort all her waste places; and He will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody. (The Promise of this Verse has several applications. It certainly referred to Judah after the captivity, if they would only believe the Lord; it, as well, refers to Israel upon the Second Advent of the Lord. But these Promises also picture the perpetual bliss promised to all who listen to and obey the Lord Jesus Christ.)

CALL TO ISRAEL

4 Hearken unto Me, My People; and give ear unto Me, O My nation: for a Law shall proceed from Me, and I will make My judgment to rest for a light of the people. (The spiritual life is sustained, as well as initiated, by the principle of "hearing." The Divine provision for this is the Bible. That is the "Law," which has proceeded from God; and that is the "Judgment" established to be the "light of the nations.")

5 My Righteousness is near; My Salvation is gone forth, and My arms shall judge the people; the isles shall wait upon Me, and on My arm shall they trust. (Christ is both "Righteousness" and "Salvation." As "Salvation," He has gone forth, and, as "Righteousness," He has come near. He is, therefore, within the reach of all sinners; and all who come to Him, sincerely seeking Him, will find exactly what He has promised!)

6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the Earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the Earth shall wax old like a garment, and they who dwell therein shall die in like manner: but My Salvation shall be forever, and My Righteousness shall not be abolished. (The Lord uses the most stable illustration to be found, His Own Creation. As glorious and stable as this Creation is, still, it will one day have to be refurbished; however, His "Salvation" and "Righteousness," which refer to His Word, shall be forever, and shall not be abolished.)

7 Hearken unto Me, you who know righteousness, the people in whose heart is My Law; fear you not the reproach of men, neither be you afraid of their revilings. (Progress in the Christian life entails increasing hostility from the world, and even from the Church.)

8 For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool: but My Righteousness shall be forever, and My Salvation from generation to generation. (If men themselves never wholly pass away, yet it is otherwise with their judgments. These perish absolutely, disappear, and are utterly forgotten. In other words, the taunts will come to a speedy end, while those whose will and affections are governed by the Scriptures will live forever.)

9 Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD; awake, as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. Are you not it that has cut Rahab, and wounded the dragon? (The phrase, "Awake, awake," is a cry of faith and desire addressed to the Messiah by those who hearken unto Him, and in whose heart is His Law. "Rahab" is a symbolic expression for Egypt. The name actually means "pride" or "the proud one." The phrase, "Wounded the dragon," refers to Egypt's power and such being destroyed at the Red Sea.)

10 Are you not it which has dried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that has made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over? (This Passage pertains to the Deliverance of the Children of Israel from Egypt and the opening of the Red Sea.)

11 Therefore the redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away. (This speaks of Israel's acceptance of Christ as the Messiah and, as such, will be "redeemed." At that time, and we speak of the beginning of the Kingdom Age, and from all over the world, they shall come to "Zion" with "singing and everlasting joy." Then, the "sorrow and mourning" of thousands of years "shall flee away.")

COMFORT AND RESTORATION PROMISED

12 I, even I, am He Who comforts you: who are you, that you should be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass *("I, even I" refers to Christ as the only One Who can "comfort you." The "man" referred to in this Verse is the oppressor, the Antichrist. Under his oppression, Israel will reach the lowest depth of misery. They are admonished here to not "be afraid" of him, but to look to the Lord);

13 And forget the LORD your Maker, Who has stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the Earth; and has feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressor? (The Lord chastises Israel for forgetting Him Who has created all things, and then living in fear of the oppressor, whoever the oppressor might be.

In this Verse, the gauntlet is laid down. Believers can trust the Lord or fear man. You can't do both.)

[14] The captive exile hastens that he may be loosed, and that he should not die in the pit, nor that his bread should fail. (In a strict sense, "the captive exile" refers to Israel in the latter half of the Great Tribulation, and more particularly in the Battle of Armageddon, when bottled up by the Antichrist, facing extermination. The Promise by God is that Israel, by the Second Coming of the Lord, will be "loosed" and will not "die in the pit." As well, her sustenance will not fail; the Lord will see to that.

In general, the Promise is to all who will dare to believe God, whoever they might be!)

[15] But I am the LORD your God, Who divided the sea, Whose waves roared: the LORD of Hosts is His Name. (The reference is once more to the great miracle wrought at the Exodus, when the Red Sea was "divided" before the host of Israelites [Ex. 14:21].)

[16] And I have put My Words in your mouth, and I have covered you in the shadow of My Hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the Earth, and say unto Zion, You are My People. (Regarding its total fulfillment, this pertains to the Millennium, when Israel will be converted under the Messiah, and will trust, love, and serve Him. For the last two thousand years, God has refused to say concerning Israel, "You are My People." Now, because of their turning to Him, this will all change.)

CALL TO JERUSALEM

[17] Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which has drunk at the Hand of the LORD the cup of His fury; you have drunk the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out. (This speaks of the Battle of Armageddon, when the Antichrist will attempt to annihilate the Jews. As well, it refers to "Jerusalem" when it fell to Babylonian captivity, but its greater fulfillment pertains to the coming time of Jacob's trouble [Jer. 30:7].)

18 There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she has brought forth; neither is there any who takes her by the hand of all the sons that she has brought up. (There was no one to help Israel during the time of the Babylonian siege. Neither will there be anyone to help during the time of the Battle of Armageddon, when it seems that every nation in the world will either side with the Antichrist or else remain neutral.)

19 These two things are come unto you; who shall be sorry for you? desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword: by whom shall I comfort you? (There is only One Who can comfort Israel, and that is the Lord Jesus Christ, and that He will do at the Second Coming.)

20 Your sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of your God. (This speaks of both the invasion by Nebuchadnezzar and by the Antichrist. The difference is this: Israel was not rescued during the siege by the Babylonians, but will be rescued at the siege of the Antichrist. But not without great destruction!

The phrase, "Full of the fury of the LORD," refers to God's Wrath being poured upon Israel, because of their great sins and refusal to accept Him as their Saviour.

Only when Israel is destitute, trapped like a "wild bull in a net," panting, exhausted, and incapable of the least resistance, will they finally turn to the Lord. Then, the "fury" that has been turned upon them will now be turned upon their adversaries.)

21 Therefore hear now this, you afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine (rebellion against God has such an effect upon individuals that it is as if they are drunk, when in fact they have not taken any intoxicating beverage at all)**:

22 Thus says your Lord the LORD, and your God Who pleads the cause of His People, Behold, I have taken out of your hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of My fury; you shall no more drink it again (their punishment will now be complete! They had asked for Caesar as their king and had received Caesar, along with "desolation, destruction, famine, and the sword."

Now, their True Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ, the One they rejected, upon hearing their cry, will come to their rescue. It will be the greatest phenomenon the world has ever known! It will be at the Battle of Armageddon, with Christ coming Himself, leading His great Army, which will include every Saint of God who has ever lived.

When He rescues Israel, He will take the "cup of trembling out of their hands" for them to "no more drink it again"):

23 But I will put it into the hand of them who afflict you; which have said to your soul, Bow down, that we may go over: and you have laid your body as the ground, and as the street, to them who went over. (The Antichrist will make his boasts that he is going to so completely destroy Israel that nothing will be left. However, his "certain victory" will be turned into "certain defeat," by the return of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Saviour of Israel.

Instead of the Antichrist walking on Israel, his "body" will be laid "on the ground," and conquering feet will tread upon it.

He demanded that Israel "bow down." Instead, he will "bow down," because his evil sponsor, Satan, "bowed down" to Christ at Calvary.)

CHAPTER 52

(712 B.C.)

THE LORD WILL DELIVER ZION FROM CAPTIVITY

[1] Awake; awake; put on your strength, O Zion; put on your beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the Holy City: for henceforth there shall no more come into you the uncircumcised and the unclean. (This Chapter speaks of Israel's Restoration, as well as the First and Second Advents of the Messiah. The admonition to "Zion" is to "awake." This concerns the coming in of the Messiah, and of her preparation for Him.

When Christ comes back, Jerusalem will no more be a contested city, even as it has been for so many centuries, but will be then what its name means, "peace.")

[2] Shake yourself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose yourself from the bands of your neck, O captive daughter of Zion. (The essence of this Verse concerns itself with the long history of Israel's rebellion against God, and their resultant captivities.

The phrase, "Shake yourself from the dust," refers to Israel wandering among the nations for so long, even as an outcast. Now, at the Second Coming, she will "arise" from her position of debasement, and will "sit down" in a seat of authority, but all under Christ.)

[3] For thus says the LORD, You have sold yourselves for nought; and you shall be redeemed without money. (The essence of this Scripture is: God received nothing when He allowed His People to become slaves of the Babylonians and others. He took no price for them and, therefore, is free to claim them back without payment. He has but to say the Word, and He is about to say it!)

[4] For thus says the Lord GOD, My People went down aforetime into

Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause. (For many years, the title "Assyrian" was generally assumed to be an error in the Hebrew Text, but excavations about the turn of the Twentieth Century proved that the Pharaoh of the oppression was, by race, Assyrian. He was a type of Israel's last great oppressor, who will also be an Assyrian [a Jewish Assyrian].)

[5] Now therefore, what have I here, says the LORD, that My People is taken away for nought? they who rule over them make them to howl, says the LORD; and My Name continually every day is blasphemed. (Cruel taskmasters vexed the captive Israelites by insulting their God. When God's People are brutally treated and insulted, in effect, God is brutally treated and insulted!)

[6] Therefore My People shall know My Name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am He Who does speak: behold, it is I. (This speaks of the Deliverance of the Children of Israel from Egypt, with a Strong and Mighty Hand, as well as their Deliverance from Babylon, by the overthrow of Belshazzar by Cyrus the Mede, whom God had raised up. As well, it refers to the coming day, when the Antichrist will seek to once and for all destroy Israel, but will instead be destroyed himself by Christ. It will be the day that the Lord speaks, and He says, "Behold, it is I." The "I" is emphatic, proclaiming enough Power to destroy the future Assyrian many times over!)

[7] How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of Him who brings good tidings, Who publishes peace; Who brings good tidings of good, Who publishes Salvation; Who says unto Zion, Your God reigns! (The "beautiful feet" are those of the Messiah. This Verse is often misapplied to the proclamation of the Gospel by Preachers. As a secondary meaning, it certainly could refer to such; however, the overflowing application concerns itself only with the Messiah. Only His "feet" are "beautiful." Only He "brings good tidings." Only He "publishes peace." Only He "publishes Salvation."

When He comes, the entirety of the world will say, "Your God reigns!" [Ps. 97:1].)

[8] Your watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion. (The evidence is: during the Battle of Armageddon, "watchmen" will be stationed at particular points in Jerusalem, looking up to the heavens in anticipation of His Coming. He will not disappoint them!

As they see Him coming, these "watchmen" will proclaim His Coming with gladness of heart and a cry of triumph.

It will not be an apparition, but rather a Coming visible to all, and even "eye to eye" with the watchmen.)

[9] Break forth into joy, sing together, you waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD has comforted His People, He has redeemed Jerusalem. (The struggle has always been between Satan's city, "Babylon," and God's city, "Jerusalem." However, Babylon is now destroyed, and "Jerusalem" is "redeemed" from the hands of the enemy, never again to fall into such a state. It will take place at the Second Coming.)

[10] The LORD has made bare His holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the Earth shall see the Salvation of our God. (This speaks of the Coming of the Lord, with the Antichrist being defeated, and defeated before the entirety of the world.)

[11] Depart you, depart you, go you out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go you out of the midst of her; be you clean, who bear the vessels of the LORD. (While the Bible does not teach isolation for the Believer, it definitely does teach separation, and we speak of separation from the world, symbolized by Babylon.)

[12] For you shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: for the LORD will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rereward. (When Israel forsook Babylon at the end of their 70 years of captivity, they did not need to flee, "go out with haste," for the way was prepared for them. Not only was the way prepared, but the Lord also was their "rereward," referring to their "rear guard." Obedience, either for Israel or the modern Believer, guarantees God's total protection.)

THE SUFFERING OF THE LORD'S "SERVANT," THE MESSIAH

13 Behold, My Servant shall deal prudently, He shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high. ("My Servant" is the Lord Jesus Christ. The phrase, "Shall deal prudently," means to be circumspect and intelligent. "Extolled" means to be lifted up, honored, magnified, and respected, with the words, "very high," referring to Christ being exalted higher than any and all else [Eph. 1:20-23; Phil. 2:9-11; Col. 1:15-18; Heb. 1:3; I Pet. 3:22].)

14 As many were astonied at You; His visage was so marred more than any man, and His form more than the sons of men (this Prophecy predicts the sufferings of Christ in His First Advent, and the glories that shall follow in His Second [I Pet. 1:11].

In these Passages, Isaiah seems to sit at the foot of the Cross of Calvary; he views the Redeemer as He hung upon the accursed tree, after He had been buffeted, crowned with thorns, smitten, scourged, and crucified, when His Face was covered with bruises and gore, His Frame and Features distorted with agony):

15 So shall He sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at Him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider. (The "as" of Verse 14 corresponds with the "so" of Verse 15. The statement is: That just as the Messiah astonished men by the humiliation of His First Advent, so will He astonish them by the Glory of His Second. For as in His First Coming, the basest of men mocked Him, so in His Second, the chiefest of men will stand in silent awe before Him.

"And that which they had not heard shall they consider," refers to the facts of Christ's Humiliation, Sufferings, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension to Heaven — events that had never entered into the hearts of men to conceive, and of which, therefore, no tongue had ever spoken.)

CHAPTER 53

THE SUFFERING SERVANT: THE MESSIAH, JESUS CHRIST

[1] Who has believed our report? and to whom is the Arm of the LORD revealed? ("Our report," refers to this very Prophecy, as well as the other Messianic Prophecies delivered by Isaiah. To Israel was "the Arm of the LORD revealed." And to Israel is ascribed the "unbelief," which destroyed them.

The Revelation of "the Arm of the LORD" requires the eye of Faith to see it. Unbelief can always assign the most plainly providential arrangements to happy accident. It takes Faith to believe the report that is revealed.)

[2] For He shall grow up before Him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: He has no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see Him, there is no beauty that we should desire Him. (To God's Eye, Israel, and the entirety of the Earth for that matter, were a "dry ground," but that Eye rested with delight upon one tender plant which had a living root. It was Jesus!

The Hebrew verbs in these Verses [through Verse 7] are to be regarded as "perfects of prophetic certitude." This means that in the mind of God all has been finished before the foundation of the world and done so in the Divine Counsels [I Pet. 1:18-20].

The words, "Before Him," mean "before Jehovah" — under the fostering care of Jehovah. God the Father had His Eye fixed upon the Son with a watchfulness and tenderness and love.

This "sapling" from the house of David shall become the "root" out of which His Church will grow. The Messiah will be a fresh sprout from the stump of a tree that had been felled, i.e., from the destroyed Davidic Monarchy.

The words, "He has no form nor comeliness," refer to the fact that He had none during His Sufferings, but now He has it more than anyone else except the Father and the Holy Spirit [Eph. 1:20-23; Phil. 2:9-11; Col. 1:15-18; I Pet. 3:22].

The words, "There is no beauty that we should desire Him," refer to His Sufferings, which include His peasant upbringing and, as a consequence, His Poverty, as well as His lack of association with the aristocracy!)

3 He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from Him; He was despised, and we esteemed Him not. (Him being "rejected of men" means "One from Whom men held themselves aloof." Why? He was pure Holiness and they were pure corruption.

"A man of sorrows," refers to Jesus taking all the sorrows of humanity upon Himself.

"Acquainted with grief," actually refers to diseases and sicknesses, for that's what the word "grief" in the Hebrew means.

"And we hid as it were our faces from Him," describes the treatment of the Servant by His fellowmen. Again, Why? He was not the type of Messiah they wanted!

"He was despised, and we esteemed Him not," refers to the fact that the religious leadership of Israel esteemed Him not at all. He came to deliver men from sin, but that wasn't the type of deliverance they desired!)

4 Surely He has borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem Him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. (Twelve times within the space of nine Verses the Prophet asserts, with the most emphatic reiteration, that all the Servant's sufferings were vicarious; i.e., borne for man to save him from the consequences of his sins, to enable him to escape punishment. In other words, Jesus did this all for us.

"Yet we did esteem Him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted," proclaims the fact that because He died on a Cross, Israel assumed that He died under the curse of God, because Moses had said, "For he who is hanged is accursed of God" [Deut. 21:23].

What they did not understand was that He was not accursed, neither in Himself was cursed, but in fact was "made a curse for us."

Israel assumed He was "smitten of God," and, in a sense, He was. He suffered in our stead, actually as our Substitute, which means that the blow that should have come to us instead went to Him. But yet, it was not for His sins, because He had none, but instead was for our sins. He was "afflicted" for us. As stated, He was our Substitute.)

5 But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon Him; and with His stripes we are healed. ("He was wounded for our transgressions," pertains to the manner in which He died, which was the price He paid for the Redemption of humanity.

"He was bruised for our iniquities," means that what He suffered was not at all for Himself, but all for us. It was for our iniquities. Look at the Cross, and then say, "My sin did this."

"The chastisement of our peace was upon Him," means that if peace between God and man was to be restored, all which Adam lost, then Jesus would have to bring it about. Here is the simple doctrine of the Gospel — the death of Christ. All other founders of religions base their claims upon their life and their teaching — their death was a calamity, and without significance. But the death of Christ was His Glory, and forms the imperishable foundation of the one and only Salvation. His purpose in coming was to die.

"And with His stripes we are healed," definitely pertains to physical healing, but is far greater in meaning than that. Its greater meaning refers to being healed of the terrible malady of sin.)

6 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD has laid on Him the iniquity of us all. (Sheep without a shepherd get lost easily. Man as sheep has wandered from the right path; he has become so hopelessly lost that it is impossible for him, within his own means, to come back to the right path. Therefore, the Lord had to come from Heaven down to this wilderness called Earth and, thereby, seek and save man, who is lost.

"We have turned every one to his own way," refers to the fact that the whole world, collectively and individually, has sinned and come short of the Glory of God. This "erroneous way" has led to death, suffering, sorrow, heartache, loneliness, despair, and pain. This is the reason that everything that man touches dies! Whereas everything that God touches lives! So man desperately needs God's Touch, i.e., "the Atonement of Calvary."

"And the LORD has laid on Him the iniquity of us all," refers to the total price He paid for our total Salvation. The penalty for every sin for all of humanity and for all time was laid on Christ. God the Father, as the primary disposer of all things, lays upon the Son the burden which the Son voluntarily accepts. He comes into the world to do the Father's Will, and the Father's Will is to secure the Salvation of man, at least for those who will believe.)

[7] He was oppressed, and He was afflicted, yet He opened not His Mouth: He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so He opens not His Mouth. (The first phrase refers to all that was done to Him in His humiliation, suffering, and agony. He could so easily have vindicated Himself from every charge; therefore, He self-abased Himself.

It seemed like an admission of guilt, and in fact was, but not His guilt, but the guilt of those who were accusing Him, as well as the entirety of the world.

Of all the Levitical Offerings [five total], the "lamb" was the animal most used; hence, John the Baptist would say, "Behold the Lamb of God, which takes away the sin of the world" [Jn. 1:29].)

[8] He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare

His generation? for He was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of My People was He stricken. ("He was taken from prison and from judgment," refers to a violence which cloaked itself under the formalities of a legal process.

"And who shall declare His generation," refers to the fact of Him being "cut off" [Dan. 9:26], which means that He would have no posterity.

"For the transgression of My People was He stricken," can be summed up in what He suffered, and all on our behalf. This must never be forgotten: Every single thing He suffered was not at all for Himself, or for Heaven in any capacity, but all for sinners.)

9 And He made His grave with the wicked, and with the rich in His death; because He had done no violence, neither was any deceit in His mouth. ("And He made His grave with the wicked," means that he was appointed such by the religious hierarchy of Israel, but Joseph of Arimathea, a rich man, asked that Jesus be buried in his personal tomb instead, and so He was. "Because He had done no violence, neither was any deceit in His mouth," proclaims the sinlessness of Christ, and forms the main argument in the Epistle to the Hebrews for the superiority of the New Covenant over the Old [Heb. 7:26-28; 9:14].

As no other man was ever without sin, it follows that the Servant of this present Chapter is, and can be no other than, Christ.)

10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise Him; He has put Him to grief: when You shall make His soul an offering for sin, He shall see His seed, He shall prolong His days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in His Hand. ("Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise Him," refers to the sufferings of Christ, which proceeded from the "determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God" [Acts 2:23], and which, being permitted by Him, were in some way His doing. It "pleased Him" moreover that they should be undergone, for the Father saw with satisfaction the Son's self-sacrifice, and He witnessed with joy man's Redemption and Deliverance effected thereby.

"He has put Him to grief," actually says "He has put Him to sicknesses" or

"He has made Him sick." This spoke of the time He was on the Cross bearing our sins and "sicknesses" [Mat. 8:16-17; I Pet. 2:24]. And yet, while all sin and sickness were atoned at the Cross, the total effects of such will not be completely dissipated until the coming Resurrection [Rom. 8:23].

"When You shall make His soul an offering for sin," is powerful indeed! The word "offering" in the Hebrew is "Asham," and means "a Trespass Offering," an "offering for sin."

Offerings for sin, or "guilt offerings," were distinct from "sin offerings." The object of the former was "satisfaction"; of the latter, "expiation." The Servant of Jehovah was, however, to be both. He was both the "Sin Offering" and the "Guilt Offering."

This completely destroys the idea that Jesus died spiritually on the Cross, meaning that He became a sinner on the Cross, and died and went to Hell as all sinners, and was born again in Hell after three days and nights of suffering, etc. None of that is in the Word of God. While Jesus definitely was a "Sin Offering," He was not a sinner, and did not become a sinner on the Cross. To have done so would have destroyed His Perfection of Sacrifice, which was demanded by God. In other words, the Sacrifice had to be perfect, and He was perfect in every respect.

"He shall see His seed," refers to all His "true followers," which include all who have ever been Born-Again.

"He shall prolong His days," refers to His Resurrection.

"And the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in His Hand," refers to the great victory that He would win at Calvary, which will ultimately restore everything that Adam lost.)

[11] He shall see of the travail of His soul, and shall be satisfied: by His knowledge shall My righteous Servant justify many; for He shall bear their iniquities. (The "travail of His soul" pertains to His Sacrifice for sin, which has resulted in the Restoration of man, at least for those who will believe.

"And shall be satisfied," refers to the fact that even though the price was high, actually beyond comprehension, still, it was worth the Redemption it accomplished.

What Jesus did at the Cross made it possible for man to be fully and totally "justified" in the Eyes of God, which comes about by man exhibiting Faith in Christ and what Christ did at the Cross.)

[12] Therefore will I divide Him a portion with the great, and He shall divide the spoil with the strong; because He has poured out His soul unto death: and He was numbered with the transgressors; and He bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors. (To be appointed with the great and to divide the spoil with the strong is figurative language expressive of full victory. It means here that Christ, by His Death, delivers from Satan mankind who was held captive.

"Because He has poured out His soul unto death," means that Christ not only died for man, but, as it were, "poured out His soul" with His Own Hand to the last drop. The expression emphasizes the duration and the voluntariness of the Messiah's sufferings. In other words, He laid down His Own life and no man took it from Him [Jn. 10:18].

"And He was numbered with the transgressors," refers to the actions of the Jews toward Him. He was crucified between two thieves. He was condemned as a "blasphemer" [Mat. 26:65], crucified with malefactors [Lk. 23:32], called "that deceiver" [Mat. 27:63], and regarded generally by the Jews as accursed [Deut. 21:23].

"And He bore the sin of many, and made Intercession for the transgressors," is, in the Hebrew, an act, though begun in the past, not yet completed. The "Intercession for transgressors" was begun on the Cross with the compassionate words, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do" [Lk. 23:34]. This Intercession for Believers has continued ever since and will ever continue [Rom. 8:34; Heb. 7:25]; such Intercession is made possible by what Christ did at the Cross.)

CHAPTER 54

GOD'S EVERLASTING LOVE FOR ISRAEL

[1] Sing, O barren, you who did not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, you who did not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, says the LORD. (The singing of this Chapter will be the moral result of the weeping of the prior one. The Tribes of Israel, having wailed because of Him, will then sing because of Him. This is a great moral principle. Before the heart can taste the joy of God's Salvation, there must be the recognition and confession of its guilt and its rejection of Christ.

The "barren" woman, at least in this case, is Israel. Two periods of her history are pointed to: 1. As the married wife, i.e., when in official relationship with God and 2. When out of relationship as the "desolate" woman.

During the first period of her history, she gave birth to many sons; but during the second period, which is yet to come, she will give birth to a countless multitude.

As well, Paul quoted this very Passage, using it to prove that more will be saved under the New Covenant than under the Old [Gal. 4:27]. As such, the Church has many more "children," i.e., followers of the Lord, than Israel of old! Moreover, the Gentiles, who were once "barren," can now "sing," because of having been included in the great Salvation plan [Jn. 3:16]. So, in essence, this Passage, as given, has two meanings.)

[2] Enlarge the place of your tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of your habitations: spare not, lengthen your cords, and strengthen your stakes (the entirety of this Chapter speaks of the coming Glad Day, when Israel will have prayed the 51st Psalm and, thereby, blotted out the terrible sin of crucifying Christ, as is outlined in the previous Chapter, and has finally accepted Christ as their Messiah and Saviour. As such, they will "sing" and then be blessed in a manner that is beyond description);

[3] For you shall break forth on the right hand and on the left; and Your Seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited. (The first phrase speaks of Israel's Restoration, which will take place in the coming Kingdom Age.

"And Your Seed shall inherit the Gentiles," refers to Christ as the "Seed" settling the dispute between Israel and the Gentiles concerning the Land of Israel. This means that this dispute, which rages at the present, will not be settled until the Second Coming.)

[4] Fear not; for you shall not be ashamed: neither be you confounded; for you shall not be put to shame: for you shall forget the shame of your youth, and shall not remember the reproach of your widowhood any more. (The shame of Israel's "youth" was idolatry, with the "reproach" of her "widowhood," her present rejection. This "reproach" has lasted now for about 2,000 years.

The words, "fear not," have to do with Israel, when she realizes that the Christ she crucified is truly her Messiah. Realizing that He has just destroyed the Antichrist, what will He in turn do to her? The answer will be extremely comforting.

He will not only not hurt them, but instead will forgive them, wash them, cleanse them, and renew His Covenant with them.)

[5] For your Maker is your husband; the LORD of Hosts is His Name; and your Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; The God of the whole Earth shall He be called. (The words, "Maker" and "Husband," refer to the Lord as being such to Israel.

At the present time, Jesus is not recognized as God by the world. However, when He comes back in the clouds of Heaven in Power and Glory and restores Israel, which He shall, He will then be recognized as "The God of the whole Earth," which refers not only to the Jews, but to the Gentiles, as well [Rom. 3:29].)

6 For the LORD has called you as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when you were refused, sa ys your God. (The word "called" is actually "recalled," i.e., recall you to Himself — summon you to return and once more resume the office of the wife.

The words, "When you were refused," refer to Israel being cast off, and Jehovah taking her back into the old relationship as a man takes back "the wife of his youth," when she had been for a long time "cast off." This will take place in the Kingdom Age.)

7 For a small moment have I forsaken you; but with great mercies will I gather you.

8 In a little wrath I hid My face from you for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on you, says the LORD your Redeemer. (Regarding eternity, it has only been a "small moment" respecting Israel's lost condition. As well, the words, "little wrath," seem inappropriate; however, compared to what God could have done, He rather restrained Himself.

Compared to the "kindness" which the Lord will show Israel, which is "everlasting," His Wrath is truly only "for a moment." This is indicative of God's manner [Ps. 30:5].)

9 For this is as the waters of Noah unto Me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the Earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with you, nor rebuke you. (The Promise of this Verse is: as God assured Noah that He would never again destroy the Earth with a flood, so does He promise Israel that He will never again rebuke her with His Wrath. This speaks of the coming Millennial Reign, when Israel will have come back to Him and repented of her past. The Lord will not use wrath again, because there will be no need for such to be done, due to Israel's continued faithfulness.)

10 For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but My kindness shall not depart from you, neither shall the Covenant of My peace be removed, says the LORD Who has mercy on you. (This will take place at the Second Coming, when Israel will then accept Christ as Saviour and Lord [Zech. 13:1].)

[11] O you afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay your stones with fair colours, and lay your foundations with sapphires. (The present condition of Jerusalem is that of the first part of this Verse, and the remainder of the Verse, with those following, picture her future happiness and glory.)

[12] And I will make your windows of agates, and your gates of carbuncles, and all your borders of pleasant stones. (One should compare Jerusalem's present with her future and realize that her future could have been her present. This beauty is because of Christ; without Christ, such is impossible!)

[13] And all your children shall be taught of the LORD; and great shall be the peace of your children. (The Messiah Himself, in Jn. 6:45, quoted this Verse. The truth of this Verse was not the case in His First Advent, but it will be so in His Second.)

[14] In Righteousness shall you be established: you shall be far from oppression; for you shall not fear: and from terror; for it shall not come near you. (In that coming Glad Day, when Israel accepts Christ as her Messiah, she then will be totally and completely free from "oppression," "fear," and "terror."

Such can be said in the Christian heart, and at the present, for all whose "Righteousness" is "established" in Christ and not in self, which can only be done by the Believer exhibiting Faith constantly in Christ and the Cross [Lk. 9:23-24].)

[15] Behold, they shall surely gather together, but not by Me: whosoever shall gather together against you shall fall for your sake. (The words, "But not by Me," address themselves to the many times in the past that God had had to bring chastisement upon Israel, and for her many sins.

The Prophet is referring here to Satan being loosed from the pit at the conclusion of the Kingdom Age, and going out to deceive the nations of the Earth.

In effect, the Lord is saying, "This will happen, but it will not be from Me," and will be quickly stopped, for Israel's sake.)

16 Behold, I have created the smith who blows the coals in the fire, and who brings forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy.

17 No weapon that is formed against you shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against you in judgment you shall condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their Righteousness is of Me, says the LORD. (Irrespective of the efforts made by Satan to come against the people of God, it must ever be remembered that the Lord is in control of all things. This means that "no weapon that is formed against the Believer shall prosper." More particularly, it refers to Israel, but, in general, it refers to all who trust the Lord, because "this is the heritage of the servants of the LORD," and that includes all Believers, and for all time. However, it must be remembered that it is alone the "Righteousness" of the Lord which closes the door to every enemy and "weapon.")

CHAPTER 55

GOD'S PROMISE TO ALL

[1] Ho, everyone who thirsts, come you to the waters, and he who has no money; come you, buy, and eat; yes, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. (With Chapter 53 proclaiming the great price that was paid at Calvary, and Chapter 54 proclaiming the coming grand and glorious Kingdom Age, now the inhabitants of the entirety of the world are invited to come and partake of the One Who guarantees entrance into that Kingdom.

Three times in this one Passage the word "come" is used. It corresponds to Rev. 22:17; it is used three times there as well! The triple invitation corresponds to the Trinity: "God the Father," "God the Son," and "God the Holy Spirit." All are participants in the great Salvation Plan.

The four articles of purchase, as are outlined in Verses 1 and 2 are: "water, bread, wine, and milk." Such expresses the plenitude of Grace in the Saviour, as exhibited in the four Gospels.

The word "buy" is used, and yet the purchase price is not "money." Were it so, most could never obtain the treasure. Therefore, the price that is demanded is the heart of man! [Rom. 10:9-10].

Then the phrase is used, "and eat." Men must partake of Christ before they can become a part of Christ, which can be done only by Faith in Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross.)

[2] Wherefore do you spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfies not? hearken diligently unto Me, and eat you that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. (Accepting the Spirit's invitation through the Prophet will satisfy fully. As someone has well said, "The soul of man is so big that only God can fill it up.")

[3] Incline your ear, and come unto Me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an Everlasting Covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. ("Incline your ear," refers to the Words given by Christ, when He said, "he who has ears to here, let him hear" [Mk. 4:9].

The "Everlasting Covenant" refers to the "New Covenant," the Divine David, the Lord Jesus Christ. It is called "the sure mercies of David," referring to God becoming Man, the Incarnation [Heb. 13:20; Isa. 7:14].)

[4] Behold, I have given Him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people. (The pronoun "Him" refers to Christ. He Alone is the "witness to the people." He "came to bear witness to the Truth" [Jn. 18:37].

As well, He is "Leader and Commander to the people." He "feeds and leads" His People [Rev. 7:17], and is the "Commander" under Whose banner they serve [II Tim. 2:3-4].

The word "people," in the Hebrew, is actually "peoples," and rather refers to the entirety of mankind, at least those who will believe in Him.)

[5] Behold, You shall call a nation that You knew not, and nations who knew not You shall run unto You because of the LORD Your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, for He has glorified You. (The first phrase refers to the calling and Salvation of the Gentiles, which Christ afforded by what He did at the Cross [Mat. 21:33-44; Jn. 10:16].

"Because of the LORD Your God," refers to "God" as the Father of the Messiah. God gave "Him" not only for Israel, but for the entirety of mankind.

The "Holy One of Israel" refers to the fact that God always intended for "Israel" to be the bearer of this great Message of Eternal Life, and to the entirety of mankind, but "Israel" refused!

"For He has glorified You," refers to Jehovah glorifying the Messiah, which was done at His Resurrection, because of what He did to bring Redemption to mankind — all of mankind.)

REPENTANT SINNERS TOLD TO SEEK THE LORD

6 Seek you the LORD while He may be found, call you upon Him while He is near *(the entirety of this Verse, as given by the Holy Spirit, has rather a tone of reproach. Israel, as well as all, must "seek the Lord" without delay, or the opportunity will be past. Therefore, the admonition in this Verse is one of warning, proclaiming to us the fact that there can come a time when God cannot be found!):

7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. (A general promise of forgiveness of sin upon Repentance and amendment of life was implied by the Lord from the very beginning [Gen. 4:4], but was actually given to Israel through Solomon [II Chron. 7:14]. The Doctrine is largely preached by the Prophet, but is nowhere so distinctly and emphatically laid down as in this place. God's Will is to "multiply pardon," if man will only turn to Him.

The words, "abundantly pardon," have the idea of "Justification by Faith." God sets the sin aside as though it never happened, which can only be brought about by Faith in Christ and what Christ did at the Cross, of which the Sacrifices in Isaiah's day were symbols.)

8 For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My Ways, says the LORD. (The idea of this Passage is that the "thoughts" of God and the "Ways" of God are so far above the comprehension of man, that man must take these statements by Faith. However, Verse 8, in essence, points toward the Sacrifice of Christ, which would be nearly 800 years into the future, and which would bring about the Redemption of mankind, at least for those who will believe.)

9 For as the heavens are higher than the Earth, so are My Ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. (Through the Word of God we are given some of the "thoughts" and "Ways" of God; however, so few Believers actually take advantage of this treasure trove of wisdom.)

[10] For as the rain comes down, and the snow from Heaven, and returns not thither, but waters the Earth, and makes it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater (the sense of this Passage is not in its direction, but in its mission)**:

[11] So shall My Word be that goes forth out of My mouth: it shall not return unto Me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. (God's Word is creative. With the utterance, the result is achieved. It is given not for just a special time, but for the benefit of the people of God in all ages.)

THE REDEEMED WILL LIVE IN JOY

[12] For you shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. (The idea of this Verse is that the captives of Jacob will ultimately be led forth from captivity by the Leader and Commander of Verse 4. When Israel is finally restored by Christ, because they have finally accepted Him as Saviour and Messiah, the entirety of the world will be grandly blessed [Rom. 11:12].)

[13] Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off. (Sinful man is born morally a "thorn" and a "brier." But the Messiah and Saviour can recreate him as a "fir tree" and a "myrtle."

A sincere thirst for forgiveness of sins and for communion with God is marked by a separation from all known sin, and by a subjection and attachment of heart and will to the Lord Jesus Christ, in Whom are found Salvation and Righteousness, and Who is Himself the Saviour of the New Covenant [Lk. 22:20], which was made possible by the Cross [Eph. 2:13-

18].)

CHAPTER 56

DO JUSTICE; KEEP GOD'S JUDGMENTS; GOD'S CONCERN INCLUDES THE GENTILES

[1] Thus says the LORD, Keep you Judgment, and do Justice: for My Salvation is near to come, and My Righteousness to be revealed. ("Judgment" and "Justice" have to do with the Word of God. In essence, Christ is all of this and more. He is the Salvation which would come, and in fact did come, and the Righteousness which was to be revealed, and in fact was revealed.)

[2] Blessed is the man who does this, and the Son of Man who lays hold on it; who keeps the sabbath from polluting it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil. (Jesus Christ is God's True Sabbath. Worshipping and serving Him thereby "keeps the Sabbath.")

[3] Neither let the son of the stranger, who has joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD has utterly separated me from His People: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree. (The idea of this Passage, continuing to refer to the coming Kingdom Age, is that under the New Covenant none are excluded.)

[4] For thus says the LORD unto the eunuchs who keep My sabbaths, and choose the things that please Me, and take hold of My Covenant (certain individuals, such as "eunuchs," were denied certain privileges in the official life of Israel, because those in positions of leadership were to be types of Christ [Deut. 23:1]; however, this did not preclude their Salvation, but only their service. Under the New Covenant, no such restriction is allowed, because Christ has already come! As well, in the coming Kingdom Age, when the Law of Moses, at least to a certain degree, will be reinstituted, the old restrictions will not be binding, because Christ is present);

5 Even unto them will I give in My house and within My walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off. ("Even unto them," refers to any and all who will accept Christ as Saviour, irrespective of their nationality, race, or handicap, as being accepted with full rights and privileges! Such is the New Covenant [Rev. 22:17].

"Sons and daughters" refers to Israel; the acceptance of Christ, irrespective as to who the person might be, gives them a place and position better than Israel had under the Old Covenant.)

6 Also the sons of the stranger, who join themselves to the LORD, to serve Him, and to love the Name of the LORD, to be His servants, every one who keeps the sabbath from polluting it, and takes hold of My Covenant ("My Covenant" refers to "The Everlasting Name," which refers to Christ. It is the New Covenant!);

7 Even them will I bring to My holy mountain, and make them joyful in My House of Prayer: their Burnt Offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon My Altar; for My House shall be called an House of Prayer for all people. (The House of Prayer, the Burnt Offerings, the sacrifices, the Altar, and the Sabbath will all be restored in the coming Kingdom Age, and so point back to Christ and to Calvary; prior to the First Advent, they pointed forward to them [Ezek., Chpts. 40-48].

Jesus addressed Himself to the phrase, "an House of Prayer for all people," [Mk. 11:17]. In His day, it was made a "house of merchandise." In the coming Glad Day, it will fulfill that which God originally intended.)

8 The Lord GOD which gathers the outcasts of Israel says, Yet will I gather others to Him, beside those who are gathered unto Him. ("The others" that Adonai Jehovah will gather to Israel will be the "other sheep" of which He Himself speaks in Jn. 10:16, i.e., the Gentiles. They were to be brought in, and in fact have already been brought in. Thus, there is one flock and One Shepherd.)

9 All you beasts of the field, come to devour, yes, all you beasts in the forest. (In the last four Verses of this Chapter and the first two of the next, Israel is compared to a flock of sheep neglected by unfaithful shepherds, who feed themselves and persecute the Godly. Such was the moral condition which caused Israel to become an outcast.

When shepherds are unfaithful, wild beasts ravage the flocks. The beasts of this Verse symbolize the Gentile princes who will press the Israelites — past, present, and future.)

BLIND WATCHMEN REPROVED

10 His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. (The idea, as presented by the Holy Spirit, is that Israel lost her way because of these "blind watchmen," i.e., Preachers! Israel forfeited all the great Promises because of these "dumb dogs" that "cannot bark," which means they do not preach the Truth or warn of false doctrine.)

11 Yes, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds who cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter. (In Jesus' day, these "watchmen" were called "blind guides" of the Gospel [Mat. 15:14; Lk. 6:39]. They did not have the spiritual discernment which would enable them to lead people aright. Instead of acting as faithful watchdogs who give warning of the approach of danger by their barking, they remain apathetic and utter no warning at all. It is as if they pass their lives in sleep.

Not only do they fail in the way of neglect of duty, but they are actively culpable. Being worldly and not spiritually minded, they are "greedy" after gain, i.e., "greedy dogs.")

12 Come you, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant. (The Prophets of Isaiah's time, as well as the time of Christ, were not only negligent of their duty, and covetous, but they were given to excess regarding entertainment.

Such crucified their Saviour when He came, and such today reject their Saviour Who has come!)

CHAPTER 57

(698 B.C.)

GOD'S CARE FOR THE RIGHTEOUS

[1] The righteous perish and no man lays it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come. (The word translated "perish" does not imply violence, but the context implies a premature death. The righteous disappear — are taken from the Earth before their natural time.

The Text is so structured that, in effect, the Holy Spirit is saying that inasmuch as these "righteous" were not appreciated, but rather hated for their Godly walk, and as such were a rebuke to ungodly but religious Israel, the Lord prematurely took them away in death.

"No man lays it to heart," refers to the fact that no one asked what it means — no one is disturbed, no one grieves.

"And merciful men are taken away," implies that "mercy" was found only in these few "righteous." When these were taken, very little "mercy" was left in the religious heart of spiritually demented Israel!

"None considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come," refers to the fact that God may permit the premature death of His servants as an escape from calamities worse than death [I Ki. 14:13; II Ki. 22:20].)

[2] He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness. (The pronoun "he" refers to the "righteous man" of Verse 1, while the pronoun "they" refers to the same. "He shall enter into peace," refers to "a state of peace." "Walking in his uprightness," has to do with walking according to the Word of God, and not according to public opinion, or the false paths of these religious hypocrites.)

THE WICKED AND UNFAITHFUL REBUKED

3 But draw near hither, you sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the whore. ("Sorcery" has to do with seeking leading and guidance from anything other than the Word of God. As well, the words, "adulterer and the whore," refer to Israel being unfaithful to God, Who was actually their Husband, and taking up with idols.

Paul referred to Believers who placed their trust and faith in anything except Christ and Him Crucified as "spiritual adulterers." It is basically the same as this which Isaiah says [Rom. 7:1-4].)

4 Against whom do you sport yourselves? against whom do you make a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are you not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood (he first phrase of this Verse refers to the fact that this opposition was against God, even though it was directed at the true Prophets [Mat. 25:40]. The "wide mouth" is a statement expressing scorn. "A seed of falsehood," refers to the parents who lived a lie and consequently brought forth a lie, referring to their children! [Prov. 22:6])**,

5 Enflaming yourselves with idols under every green tree, killing the children in the valleys under the clifts of the rocks? (The intent of this Verse is beyond belief! "Enflaming yourselves with idols under every green tree," pertains to a practice so despicable that it defies description! The reference is to the "orgiastic cults in the sacred groves of Palestinian heathenism," which was accompanied by every type of immorality.

The passage, "killing the children in the valleys under the clifts of the rocks," spoke of children offered in sacrifice to the god Moloch. This is how far Judah had fallen!)

6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is your portion; they, they are your lot: even to them have you poured a drink offering, you have offered a meat offering. Should I receive comfort in these? (The question, "Should I receive comfort in these?" actually says, "Shall I endure with patience such cruelties and abominations?" or "Can I, Jehovah, be comforted, when My people indulge in such practices?")

7 Upon a lofty and high mountain have you set your bed: even thither went you up to offer sacrifice. (The word "bed" refers to altars, with sacrifices offered to idols.)

8 Behind the doors also and the posts have you set up your remembrance: for you have discovered yourself to another than Me, and are gone up; you have enlarged your bed, and made you a covenant with them; you loved their bed where you saw it. (The words, "your remembrance," have to do with idolatrous pictures. God commanded His People to put Text of Scripture upon the walls of their rooms. The Hebrews removed these and replaced them with idolatrous emblems, just as today it is the fashion to banish from homes a Bible Text, and instead hang up pictures of the Madonna and child, and ornament the rooms with crosses and crucifixes [Deut. 6:9; 11:20].

"You have enlarged your bed," refers to introducing the worship of every false god.

"You loved their bed where you saw it," refers to the altars that were set up even in the homes of the people, and even in very conspicuous places. In other words, they paraded their false worship, wanting all to know of their brazen rebellion!)

9 And you went to the king with ointment, and did increase your perfumes, and did send your messengers far off, and did debase yourself even unto Hell. ("Went to the king," refers to Moloch, which in Hebrew means "the king." This idol was worshipped with ointments and perfumes.

"And did send your messengers far off," refers to ambassadors sent to distant countries to secure the alliance of idolaters and to bring back their idols and set them up in the Temple of God at Jerusalem.

"And did debase yourself even unto Hell," refers to taking on the yoke of groveling superstition, which debased them to the lowest point conceivable, with the ultimate destination being "Hell.")

10 You are wearied in the greatness of your way; yet said you not, There is no hope: you have found the life of your hand; therefore you were not grieved. (Judah, in straying so far from the Lord, and seeking aid from all quarters, seemingly would have been "wearied" with her quest; but she would not confess her weariness, even though it never brought forth any positive results, even as sin and sinners never bring forth positive results.)

[11] And of whom have you been afraid or feared, that you have lied, and have not remembered Me, nor laid it to your heart? have not I held My peace even of old, and you feared Me not? ("And of whom have you been afraid or feared," refers to the fact that Judah feared man, especially Assyria.

"Have not I held My peace," refers to the Lord suffering them to "go on still in their wickedness" — not interposing on them severe judgment. Therefore, they had ceased to fear Him, and had feared men instead!

"That you have lied," refers to their professed loyalty to Jehovah, but in fact they did not remember Him, nor heartily record His past Goodness and Power; and they misused His long-continued gentleness in not punishing them.)

[12] I will declare your righteousness, and your works; for they shall not profit you. (The word "declare" refers to the fact that God would expose their hypocritical righteousness and their useless works. He would show that their righteousness, so-called, was in fact unrighteousness.

"For they shall not profit you," refers to the eternal Truth that there is no "profit" in anything other than obedience to God's Word.)

THE PENITENT ARE REFRESHED; NO PEACE FOR THE WICKED

[13] When you cry, let your companies deliver you; but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them: but he who puts his trust in Me shall possess the land, and shall inherit My holy mountain (in effect, the Holy Spirit uses sarcasm in telling Judah to "cry" to their idol gods, and see if they will deliver her!

The words, "Let your companies deliver you," refer to the mixture of gods, that if one could not deliver, possibly several could; however, no matter how many gods they produced, all will fail utterly — so utterly, that "the wind," or rather a breath, "shall carry them all away."

Even at this late hour, He says, "he who puts his trust in Me shall possess the land," which means "to inherit the Promises." This corresponds with Christ's great invitation [Mat. 11:28-30]); 14 And shall say, Cast you up, cast you up, prepare the way, take up the stumblingblock out of the way of My People. (The appeal is to the religious leaders of Judah. The Holy Spirit says, "Remove the stumblingblock out of the way of My People." The "stumblingblock" actually was the religious leaders themselves.

It was not an idle threat! Sadly, they would not repent, and this "stumblingblock" was taken out of the way by Nebuchadnezzar, when he destroyed Jerusalem and the Temple, and took these individuals captive into Babylon.

The same thing happened when Israel rejected Christ. The "stumblingblock" was then removed, and in such a way that Israel would be without a nation, and would wander as outcasts all over the world for nearly 2,000 years.)

15 For thus says the high and lofty One Who inhabits eternity, Whose Name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also who is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones. ("Who inhabits eternity," refers to the fact that God has lived in all the eternity past — before the ages of time as we know them now [II Pet., Chpt. 3].

The words, "Whose Name is Holy," refer to God's true Nature.

The Lord condescends to dwell only with those who are "humble" and have a "contrite spirit." To be sure, His Presence is a well of life, springing up within the soul to Everlasting Life [Jn. 4:14].)

16 For I will not contend forever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before Me, and the souls which I have made. (The meaning of the Passage is beautiful! The idea given by the Holy Spirit, "For I will not contend forever," refers to God's Anger that quickly abates. If He were "extreme to mark what is done amiss," none could abide it [Ps. 130:3]. If it were otherwise, man's "spirit should fail before Me." In other words, man, utterly unable to justify himself, would faint and fade away before the Divine fury. If such were the case, the "souls which He has made" would all fail, and all likewise perish.

Every effort by the Lord is always with patience, love, compassion, gentleness, and kindness. Every effort is made to restore the wayward one!)

17 For the iniquity of his covetousness was I wroth, and smote him: I hid Me, and was wroth, and he went on frowardly in the way of his heart. (The word "covetousness" speaks of idolatry here, but yet idolatry that took a different turn.

The words, "I hid Me and was wroth," refers to the fact that God, in His dealings with Israel, time and time again, did not unleash His full fury when He "smote him," i.e., Israel, but gave many warnings before the final catastrophe.

The "froward" manner speaks of perverseness and wrong-headedness! Such was Judah's "heart" and such was the cause of their downfall.)

18 I have seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him and to his mourners. (So long as Israel practiced idolatry there was no healing; it is only promised to a Repentance which forsakes sin. The action of the statement, "I have seen his ways, and will heal him," refers to the fact that God, even though seeing the perverse ways of Israel, still had pity on them, and stood ready to heal them the moment they would turn to Him. The Good Shepherd follows and recalls the wanderers of the flock.)

19 I create the fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to him who is far off, and to him who is near, says the LORD; and I will heal him. (Here God proclaimed "peace" to the Gentiles, who were "far off," and to the Jews, who were "near" [Eph. 2:13-17]. The message of perfect peace is a Divine

Message. It is not of human origination or imagination.

When the Lord "heals him," then "the fruit of the lips" will be praise and thanksgiving.)

20 But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt. (The statement is: the sea is never at rest; it continually casts up mud and dirt. Therefore, it is a true picture of the enemies of Truth. To these there is, and shall be, no peace.)

21 There is no peace, says my God, to the wicked. (The Divine Title here is "Elohim," not "Jehovah."

"Peace," which God Alone gives, refers to the enmity that has been removed between Him and sinful man, and was done so by and through Christ and what He did for us at the Cross; therefore, this glorious "peace" can only be obtained by the Believer exhibiting Faith in Christ and what Christ did at the Cross [Rom. 6:3-5; I Cor. 1:17-18, 23; 2:2].)

CHAPTER 58

A DESCRIPTION OF TRUE SALVATION

[1] Cry aloud, spare not, lift up your voice like a trumpet, and show My People their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins. (In this Verse, God directly addresses His People. He begins with the question of sin. Isaiah was commanded to "cry aloud," referring to sin and, thereby, the guilt of Judah. He was to "lift up his voice like a trumpet," which means that he was to speak in no uncertain terms.

Such a message will never be met by approval, and the greatest disapproval of all will come from the religious community; consequently, there are very few whom God can find to deliver such a Message!)

[2] Yet they seek Me daily, and delight to know My Ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of Me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God. ("Yet they seek Me daily, and delight to know My ways," presents that which is all outward. We have here the representation of people honoring God with their lips, but whose hearts were far from Him.

"As a nation that did righteousness," actually speaks of a legal righteousness, which always promotes self-righteousness.

In doing these things, they felt that all requirements were met, and that God delighted in them! The phrases, "They ask of Me the ordinances of justice" and "they take delight in approaching to God," refer to their claim, at God's Hands, of righteous judgments on their enemies. They thought surely He would do so, because of their outward piety!)

[3] Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and You see not? wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and You take no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast you find pleasure, and exact all your labours. (The fasting spoken of is probably that of the Great Day of Atonement, the only fasting demanded in the Law, which consisted of only one day [Lev. 16:29, 31].

Actually, the "worshippers" regarded their religious observances as "not merely pleasing to God [which they actually were not], but as laying Him under a binding obligation, and almost compelling Him to grant the requests of the worshipper.")

4 Behold, you fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: you shall not fast as you do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high. (The phrases, "Fast for strife and contention" and "smite with the fist of wickedness," mean to use religion as an instrument for oppression. Pointblank God proclaims that He will not hear such prayer nor honor such a fast. Such endeavors to earn its way with God, which God will never accept.)

5 Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? will you call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD? (The Holy Spirit through Isaiah probes deep here into the hypocrisy of Judah by asking the question, "Is it such a fast that I have chosen?" The Holy Spirit says that the "fast that I have chosen" is a "day for a man to afflict his soul." It is not outward show, but inward inspection!)

6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that you break every yoke? (The Lord was telling Judah through Isaiah that if they really loved Him, and truly desired to serve Him, the ritualistic observances would be secondary to the "weightier matters of the Law," such as "judgment, mercy, and faith" [Mat. 23:23]. Jesus called those who fasted for show "hypocrites"! He was no doubt referring to this very Verse.)

7 Is it not to deal your bread to the hungry, and that you bring the poor who are cast out to your house? when you see the naked, that you cover him; and that you hide not yourself from your own flesh? ("Hide not yourself from your own flesh," refers to these "ritual keepers," who strictly observed, or thought they did, the Law, while hiding themselves from the hurting, hungry, wounded, and needy. They were so holy, at least in their own eyes, that they could not dirty their hands with such activities.)

[8] Then shall your light break forth as the morning, and your health shall spring forth speedily: and your righteousness shall go before you; the Glory of the LORD shall be your rereward. (To go God's Way, which is the Way of His Word, brings about a true experience with the Lord, i.e., "then shall your light break forth as the morning."

In effect, the Lord is saying that prayers will no longer go unanswered, or Covenant Promises left in abeyance.)

[9] Then shall you call, and the LORD shall answer; you shall cry, and He shall say, Here I am. If you take away from the midst of you the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity (in these Passages, the Lord pleads with His People, explaining to them, as He would explain such to a child, the reasons their prayers are not answered.

"If you take away from the midst of you the yoke," refers to the ruling class of Judah making virtual slaves out of those who were less privileged.

"The putting forth of the finger," speaks of bribery. The officials, by moving their "finger" a certain way, would let certain ones know that they could be bought!

*"And speaking vanity," rather speaks of plotting evil against others. It spoke primarily of perjury. Truth had fallen in the street!);

[10] And if you draw out your soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall your light rise in obscurity, and your darkness be as the noonday. (The idea of this Passage is that their profession must translate into righteous action, which meant to help the poor and hungry, etc.)

[11] And the LORD shall guide you continually, and satisfy your soul in drought, and make fat your bones: and you shall be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not. (It should be easy to see that the great things promised by the Lord are so much more than the few things that He asks of Judah. It is the same with us today. What little He asks of us is nothing in comparison with what He promises us, and always delivers! And yet, men are loath to trust Him.)

12 And they who shall be of you shall build the old waste places: you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; and you shall be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in. (The "old waste places" refer to that which had been ruined by sin. A revival of the heart will change all of this.

"You shall raise up the foundations of many generations," refers to the fact that all the great Promises of God given in past years will now be brought to pass, because of the present Move of God.

"The repairer of the breach, the restorer of paths to dwell in," proclaims the Preacher directing the people back to the Bible.)

THE OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH

13 If you turn away your foot from the Sabbath, from doing your pleasure on My Holy Day; and call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honourable; and shall honour him, not doing your own ways, nor finding your own pleasure, nor speaking your own words (under the Old Covenant, Israel was commanded to keep the seventh day, which was Saturday. It was to be a day of rest rather than so much as a day of worship. Under the New Covenant, Jesus is the True Sabbath; therefore, denying ourselves and following Him, and taking up the Cross daily, constitutes Sabbath-keeping [Mat. 11:28-30]):

14 Then shall you delight yourself in the LORD; and I will cause you to ride upon the high places of the Earth, and feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father: for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it. (The words, "Then shall you delight yourself in the LORD," refer to the Truth that if the relationship is heartfelt instead of ritualistic, communion with Jehovah will be a real pleasure. Blessings will always come to such a one.

"And feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father," refers to the Truth, as promised by the Holy Spirit, that Israel will ultimately be restored [Rom., Chpt. 11].

The "heritage of Jacob," although long delayed by their own rebellion, will ultimately be realized! Israel will eventually be the premier nation in the world, but only when Christ is received, and Redemption is experienced. This will happen at the Second Coming.

The words, "For the mouth of the LORD has spoken it," is a formula declaring that these Statements and Promises were not originated by the Prophet, but were the utterances of God Himself.)

CHAPTER 59

(698 B.C.)

ISRAEL'S SINS RECOUNTED

[1] Behold, the LORD's Hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither His ear heavy, that it cannot hear (the Lord can "do," and the Lord can "hear," and will do such, but only if His People follow His Way)**:

[2] But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid His face from you, that He will not hear. (The problem is not God's inability to save, or that He cannot hear, but rather that Judah has sinned, which always separates man from God.)

[3] For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue has muttered perverseness. (In this Verse and following, the Holy Spirit, in graphic detail, explains exactly what these "iniquities" are!)

[4] None calls for justice, nor any pleads for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity. (The Lord is speaking here of people, who, while ceremonially religious, were morally unrighteous. The idea of the Verse is that the whole basis of dealings between man and man were unsound, corrupt, and chaotic. Where truth and plain dealing are set aside, all shortly become ruin and confusion.)

[5] They hatch cockatrice' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he who eats of their eggs die, and that which is crushed breaks out into a viper. (The accusation by the Holy Spirit is astonishing here! He uses three dangerous examples to describe the people of Judah. In fact, this one Verse describes the entirety of the world.)

[6] Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover

themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands. (The idea of this Passage is that evil hearts cannot produce Righteousness. The "act of violence in their hands" refers to the fact that violence creates nothing, and, at best, destroys. And yet, the world is bathed in "violence" [Jn. 10:10].)

7 Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths. (Paul quoted this in Rom. 3:15-16. He was speaking of the corruption of the human heart, and how, within itself, it cannot transform itself, neither can it produce Righteousness. Its "feet" can only "run to evil."

The outline of the human family is given here, as stated, in these Verses. It is the cause of the ills of the world, i.e., the corrupt, evil, wicked hearts of men. It tells us why God does not move nor hear.)

8 The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goes therein shall not know peace. (This is a principle which applies to all periods of human history, thereby resulting in human misery. The subject in this Verse is "peace," because the world does not have such.

The phrase, "And there is no judgment in their goings," refers to the fact that their decisions are faulty, and their "judgment" unsure, resulting in confusion.

"They have made them crooked paths," refers to great and elaborate schemes of "peace" based on a rotten foundation, i.e., "crooked paths."

"Peace" is not a philosophy, creed, dogma, theory, or doctrine. It is a Person, and that Person is Christ.)

ISRAEL'S CONFESSION OF SIN

9 Therefore is judgment far from us, neither does justice overtake us: we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness. (The acceptance of Christ, and only the acceptance of Christ, which refers to the following of His Will and Way, will instantly reverse all these actions, and bring about that which the Lord Alone can give, which is the miraculous! But men, it seems, would desire to continue in "darkness.")

10 We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noonday as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men. (The Holy Spirit in these Passages is saying about Judah what they would never admit to themselves. It is not that light is wanting, but that they had no eyes to behold it. This speaks of "willful blindness." It is the same type of "blindness" that grips almost all the world.)

11 We roar all like bears, and mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for Salvation, but it is far off from us. ("We roar all like bears," uses the same verb that is used commonly of the "roaring" of the sea. It, along with the "dove," represents the constant, never-ending murmur of discontent, sorrow, and unhappiness.

They look for "judgment" [justice] and "Salvation," but, in order to receive these, do not want to depart from their sins.)

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before you, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them (this Passage illuminates the fact that Israel's blindness of Verse 10 is a willful blindness. The "transgressions are multiplied" and yet Judah wanted to continue in them. Even though their "sins testify against them," they do not want to stop their sins. They know what their "transgressions" are, as well as their "iniquities." They emphatically state, "We know them!")**;

13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood. (In this Scripture, we are told where the trouble lies. It is the "heart"! [Mat. 15:19]) for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter. (As a consequence, every facet of the person, and even of the entirety of a nation, suffers an inversion. Things are upside down, and consequently do not, and in fact cannot, work right.

14 And judgment is turned away backward, and justice stands afar off:

"Judgment is turned away backward," refers to Righteousness being out, while unrighteousness is in.)

15 Ye s, truth fails; and he who departs from evil makes himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and it displeased Him that there was no judgment. ("A prey" means a victim of persecution. This fact is true of all ages. The few who are faithful to the doctrinal and moral teaching of God's Word are despised, derided, and persecuted by religious professors, and by the world.

The word "judgment" means "Righteousness," as in Verse 14.

The words, "Truth fails," should have been translated "Truth is lacking," for Truth never fails.

"And the LORD saw it," refers to the lack of justice between man and man. No one thought of pronouncing just judgments. The circumstances were such as to invite a Divine interposition.

Sadly, this evil would rise to such a crescendo that the Lord "Himself" would become "a prey," i.e., be crucified!)

RESTORATION BY THE MESSIAH; MESSIAH'S SECOND ADVENT AND COVENANT

16 And He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore His arm brought Salvation unto him; and His Righteousness, it sustained him. (The entirety of this Passage, down through the final Verse of this Chapter, belongs to the future Second Advent, when the Messiah will appear, clothed with vengeance, to recompense tribulation to the adversaries of His Ancient People, but rest to them [II Thess., Chpt. 1].

The phrase, "And He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor," refers to the lack in Judah of spiritual leadership who would occupy the Throne.

The phrase, "Therefore His arm brought Salvation unto him; and His Righteousness, it sustained him," probably refers to Josiah, who, from the time of Isaiah unto Christ, was the only king to occupy the Throne who proclaimed Righteousness [II Chron. 34:2].

It seems that Josiah attempted to be the "intercessor," but the Holy Spirit, in effect, said that Judah had gone too far down the path of sin and evil to be turned around now [II Ki. 23:26].

A short time later, Josiah was killed. The Lord knew that despite Josiah's righteous efforts, Judah would not turn; therefore, the Lord took him out of the way, exactly as Isaiah had prophesied in 57:1.)

17 For He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon His head; and He put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloak. (Paul will somewhat speak of this Passage in Eph. 6:10-18. It is strange, yet beautiful, that the Divine panoply takes no offensive weapon, with the exception of the "Spirit of the LORD," as is outlined in Verse 19.

From Verse 15, commencing with the words, "And Jehovah saw it," and reading to the end of Verse 21, there is the predicted return of the Messiah appearing for the deliverance of Israel, and for the taking of vengeance upon their persecutors. He will do so now, because Israel will repent, which describes the future, and the Second Coming.

The Seventeenth Verse describes Christ in His victorious posture, as the Fifty-third Chapter describes Him in His suffering posture.)

18 According to their deeds, accordingly He will repay, fury to His adversaries, recompence to His enemies; to the islands He will repay recompence. (This speaks of the defeat of the Antichrist and all of his followers at the Second Coming.)

[19] So shall they fear the Name of the LORD from the west, and His Glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him. (The "Standard" is Christ! The "Spirit of the LORD" anointed Christ to set the captive free [Lk. 4:18]. That "Anointing," which could have Saved Israel then, and has consequently Saved tens of millions since then, will now, and finally, save Israel.

As He attempted to proclaim the "acceptable year of the LORD" at His First Advent, and was refused, He will now declare the "acceptable year of the LORD" at His Second Advent, and be accepted.)

[20] And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them who turn from transgression in Jacob, says the LORD. (The "Redeemer" is Christ, and He shall "come to Zion." Paul quoted this in Rom. 11:26. All the "transgressions" mentioned in Verse 12 and corresponding Scriptures will now, and finally, be brought to the Redeemer. Then "Jacob" will finally become "Israel, the Prince with God.")

[21] As for Me, this is My Covenant with them, says the LORD; My Spirit that is upon you, and My Words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth, nor out of the mouth of your seed, nor out of the mouth of your seed's seed, says the LORD, from henceforth and forever. (The words, "As for Me," refer to Jehovah speaking, and not Isaiah. This Scripture proclaims the Divine Trinity: 1. The One speaking is Jehovah; 2. The Redeemer is the Messiah; and, 3. My Spirit, i.e., the Holy Spirit, Who is sent by Jehovah, is still yet another Person [Jn. 14:16, 26].

The words, "My Covenant," refer to the New Testament, i.e., New Covenant, which Israel would not accept the first time, but will now accept!

"My Words" refer to the entirety of the Bible. Israel, even though used by God to bring it into the world, still, never really did abide by it. Now they shall, and it "shall not depart out of your mouth."

As well, the Holy Spirit declares that all succeeding generations will continue to follow the Lord, as referred to by "Your seed's seed." This will all take place during the coming Kingdom Age.)

CHAPTER 60

THE FUTURE GLORY OF ZION

[1] Arise, shine; for your light is come, and the Glory of the LORD is risen upon you. (The Speaker here is the Holy Spirit; the person spoken to is Israel. The words, "Arise, shine," refer not necessarily to Israel's light, for she has no light; rather she reflects the streams of Light that pour from the Person of Jehovah Whose Name is Christ. This Passage refers back to Psalms 67:1.

"And the Glory of the LORD is risen upon you," refers to Israel's Repentance.)

[2] For, behold, the darkness shall cover the Earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon you, and His Glory shall be seen upon you. (The "darkness" mentioned here speaks of the Great Tribulation, when the Church will have been Raptured away, thereby leaving the world without "Light" [I Thess. 4:13-18]; however, the "darkness" will be expelled by the Coming of the Lord, and the destination of the "Glory" will be Israel.)

GENTILES WILL WORSHIP ISRAEL'S GOD

[3] And the Gentiles shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising. ("Your light," does not mean that such originated with Israel, but is to be poured upon her. Because of this, and it being overly obvious, the nations of the world will come to Israel; however, as always, that "Light" is Christ.)

[4] Lift up your eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to you: your sons shall come from far, and your daughters shall be nursed at your side. ("Your sons" and "your daughters" refer to Israelites still scattered among the nations, and then being gathered back to Judah. As stated, this will take place at the beginning of the Kingdom Age.

The words, "shall be nursed at your side," speak of the hurts, wounds, suffering, and pains of the last 2,000 and more years. During this time, they have blamed Christ for their troubles. Now they will realize how wrong they were, and be healed of their stubbornness and rebellion, and know that Christ is the Source of their blessing, and not their bondage!)

5 Then you shall see, and flow together, and your heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be con verted unto you, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto you. (The word "fear" should have been translated "rejoice" or "tremble," i.e., "tremble with holy joy." Verses 5 through 7 proclaim the "abundance" of material prosperity that will come to Israel as well.

"The abundance of the sea shall be converted unto you," does not refer to maritime prosperity, but rather to the multitude of "Gentiles," who will show great favor to Israel.)

6 The multitude of camels shall cover you, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come: they shall bring gold and incense; and they shall show forth the praises of the LORD. ("Multitude of camels," refers to a continual stream of caravans, implying that Jerusalem is not only the center of spiritual Glory, but also of economic power.

"And they shall show forth the praises of the LORD," tells us that the prosperity of the world is tied to "the Praises of the LORD.")

7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto you, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto you: they shall come up with acceptance on My Altar, and I will glorify the house of My Glory. ("And I will glorify the house of My Glory," should read "I will beautify My beautiful house," that is, the palace at Jerusalem, which is to be built. It will be beautiful beyond words!)

8 Who are these who fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows? (This refers to ships coming from all over the world to Israel, which, as stated, will take place in the coming Kingdom Age.)

9 Surely the isles shall wait for Me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring your sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, unto the Name of the LORD your God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because He has glorified you. ("Surely the isles [maritime countries] shall wait for Me," refers to Christ being the focal point of all that is done. Once again, Israel's blessing is totally dependent upon the Lord, as in fact all blessing is totally dependent on the Lord!)

MILLENNIAL GLORY; GOD'S BLESSINGS

10 And the sons of strangers shall build up your walls, and their kings shall minister unto you: for in My wrath I smote you, but in My favour have I had mercy on you. (The "sons of strangers" refer to the allegiance of the Gentiles concerning their favor toward Israel. The words, "In My wrath I smote you," refer to Titus, who in A.D. 70 destroyed Jerusalem, killing over one million Jews. From that point on, they were scattered all over the world as outcasts.

"But in My favor have I had mercy on you," strongly implies that the "mercy" was not deserved, and in fact cannot be deserved.)

11 Therefore your gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto you the forces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought. (The "forces of the Gentiles" speak of the wealth of the Gentiles. "And that their kings may be brought," refers to the leaders of nations coming to Israel and actually being forced to come by their subjects, who know that their own prosperity is involved in complete submission to Christ in Zion. They will, therefore, compel their kings to come and render their homage in person, so there will be no doubt about their allegiance!)

12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish; ye s, those nations shall be utterly wasted. (The implication is that some nations and kingdoms possibly will not desire to serve the Lord; however, there will be no opportunity for them to respond. They shall "perish" and "be utterly wasted." How the Lord will do this, regarding these nations, we aren't told; however, to be sure, it will happen exactly as predicted.)

13 The glory of Lebanon shall come unto you, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of My Sanctuary; and I will make the place of My feet glorious. ("And I will make the place of My feet glorious," refers to Christ literally walking on Earth, and in this beautiful capital building, which will be befitting of His Presence [Ezek. 43:7; Zech. 14:4].)

14 The sons also of them who afflicted you shall come bending unto you; and all they who despised you shall bow themselves down at the soles of your feet; and they shall call you, The city of the LORD, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel. ("Of them who afflicted you," concerns the nations of the world that have grandly opposed Israel; however, those nations "shall come bending unto you." "At the soles of your feet," guarantees total submission; however, it will not be a forced submission, but a voluntary submission!

The last phrase refers to the enemies of Jerusalem, which once bestowed disparaging names on her, such as "forsaken" or "desolate." Now they will substitute for such names titles of honor, such as "City of Jehovah" and "Zion of Israel's Holy One." In fact, the "Holy One" is the cause of all blessing and prosperity!)

15 Whereas you have been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through you, I will make you an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations. (Israel has been "hated" from her very beginning in the days of Abraham, because of animosity against the Lord. Tragically, the True Israel, i.e., Christ, was "hated" upon His First Advent; however, all of this will change in the coming Kingdom Age.)

16 You shall also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shall suck the breast of kings: and you shall know that I the LORD am your Saviour and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob. ("Suck the milk of the Gentiles," refers to a continual stream of material sustenance to help in the restoration of Jerusalem and all of Israel, and to carry on the universal missionary program of the Millennium [Zech. 8:12].

The continuous emphasis by the Holy Spirit relates Israel's blessings to "the LORD your Saviour." This is the Lord Jesus Christ, "your Redeemer." Only He can redeem!)

17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make your officers peace, and your exactors righteousness. (The material splendor throughout the whole description is, no doubt, typical in the main of spiritual glories and excellencies, as well.

"I will also make your officers peace, and your exactors righteousness," refers to the rulers of Israel, who will be officers of peace, and the tax collectors, who will be honest, equitable, and righteous.)

18 Violence shall no more be heard in your land, wasting nor destruction within your borders; but you shall call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise. (The entire cessation of war and violence is one of the most characteristic features of the Kingdom Age, when swords shall be beaten into plowshares and spears into pruninghooks. "The Prince of Peace" shall ultimately establish peace.

"Your Land" refers to Israel. It is emphasized because it has known nothing but war almost from its very beginning. Only during the times of Solomon did it know peace, because Solomon was a Type of Christ, and the Israel of that day, a type of the coming Kingdom Age.

During that coming time, even the very walls will be called "Salvation," and the gates "Praise," because of such perfect conditions.)

19 The sun shall be no more your light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto you: but the LORD shall be unto you an Everlasting Light, and your God your glory. (The splendor of such will make Jerusalem the joy of the whole world. While the "sun" and "moon" will continue to shine as always, still, the Glory of the Lord will be of such magnificence that the light of those orbs will go unnoticed!)

[20] Your sun shall no more go down; neither shall your moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be your Everlasting Light, and the days of your mourning shall be ended. (The phrase, "Your sun shall no more go down," does not mean that the rotation of the Earth will cease, but rather that its rising and its setting will not be noticed at all, due to the Glory of God filling the city with light both day and night. As well, this "Light" will be an "Everlasting Light."

"And the days of your mourning shall be ended," means exactly what it says!)

[21] Your people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land forever, the branch of My planting, the work of My Hands, that I may be glorified. (The reason for the suffering being ended is because "your people also shall be all righteous." Now, the Land that was promised to Abraham in the beginning will be theirs "forever." It is called "the branch of My planting, the Work of My Hands." Their full occupation of it, with His Blessings, will also bless the entirety of the world.

All of this will "glorify the Lord," because it proclaims His Word coming to pass in totality.)

[22] A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in His time. (The "little one" refers to the "little flock" who will ultimately inherit the Kingdom [Lk. 12:32]. This "little one" will grow into a countless multitude [Rev. 7:9]. "In His time," refers to the fixed time in God's Counsels for the final establishment of Christ's Kingdom. If it is to be noticed, it doesn't say "in our time," but rather "in His time," meaning that "the times and the seasons are in the Power of the Father," and not in the power of the Church, etc. [Acts 1:6-7].)

CHAPTER 61

MESSIAH'S FIRST ADVENT

[1] The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon Me; because the LORD has anointed Me to preach good tidings unto the meek; He has sent Me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them who are bound (the first nine Verses of this Chapter present the Messiah and His People. Actually, the Speaker in Verse 1 is the Messiah Himself, as He proclaims His First and Second Comings. That the Speaker is the Messiah is proved by Lk. 4:16-21.

The "Anointing" of Jesus was the Sanctification of His human nature by the Holy Spirit, which commenced in the womb of the Blessed Virgin [Lk. 1:35], which continued as He grew to manhood [Lk. 2:40, 52], which was openly manifested at His Baptism, and never ceased till He took His Glorified Body and Soul to Heaven.

That which the Father anointed Him to do addressed itself to every aspect of life and living. In Truth, Christ Alone can address these problems, which means that humanistic psychology holds no answers);

[2] To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn (this is the Year of Jubilee, as proclaimed in Lev. 25:9. Such was brought about every Fiftieth year, according to the Law of Moses. Scholars point out that the reading of this Verse by the Lord in the Synagogue of Nazareth took place on the first Sabbath of the Year of Jubilee.

The year of "acceptance" contrasts with the day of "vengeance." Nearly 2,000 years have already intervened between this "year" and that "day," though only separated by a comma in the Text.

The Lord, when reading these Verses at Nazareth, stopped in the middle of the second line, and did not go on to read "of the day of vengeance." Thus, He rightly divided the Word of Truth; for the year of acceptance is the present period of Grace connected with His First Coming, and the "day of vengeance," the future day of Wrath connected with His Second Coming. Hence, "He closed the Book," on reaching the Name "Jehovah."

At His Second Coming, He will truly "comfort all who mourn," respecting Israel, who has finally come home to Him [Zech. 12:11-14]);

MESSIAH'S SECOND ADVENT; ZION, WASTEPLACES REBUILT

[3] To appoint unto them who mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that He might be glorified. ("Beauty" refers to a nuptial crown. Wood ashes placed upon the head expressed mourning, a nuptial garland signified gladness. The "trees" of this Verse are the redeemed of 60:21. It should be noticed that no praise is to be given to the beauteous trees, but all praise will be given to their wondrous Planter.

All of this will come to Israel on that coming Glad Day, which, in fact, they could have had 2,000 years ago, had they only accepted Christ.)

[4] And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations. (To assure the reality of these statements, they are repeated. Thus, the first and third lines of the Verse predict the rebuilding of the deserted cities, and the second and fourth lines foretell the fertility of the desolate fields.

Such speaks of the coming Kingdom Age, and in a literal and material sense, but even more so speaks of the spiritual rejuvenation that takes place in the hearts and lives of Believers.

The words, "build," "raise," and "repair," are used to signify the material resurgence, but even more so, the spiritual renewal in the life of the Believer.

The words, "waste" and "desolations," characterize the unbeliever.)

5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers. (To the proud nations of the past and present, it was, and is, a degradation to be associated thus with the Jew; but in the future it will be an honor, but only because of Israel's acceptance of Christ.)

6 But you shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: you shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall you boast yourselves. (In that day of Restoration, the entire nation of Israel will be a nation of Priests and Ministers, and will act as such in relation to God and the inhabited world. Actually, what God intended for Israel to be at the beginning, they shall now be! [Ex. 19:6]. In brief, Ezekiel proclaims this in the last nine Chapters of his Book.)

7 For your shame you shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them. ("Possessing the double" pertained to the following:

In ancient times, if someone in Israel went bankrupt, they were to list all their indebtedness on a skin, and have it posted in a conspicuous place for all to see. At times, a wealthy benefactor would come to the rescue and pay all the indebtedness. He would take down the skin, double it over, hence hiding all of the indebtedness, and then write his name on the front. He would post it as well in a conspicuous place, and all could come to him for payment.

When Jesus died on the Cross, He atoned for all sin. Upon Faith in Him, He took down the list of all our sins, doubled it over, where these sins could no longer be seen, and wrote His Name on the front, meaning that all the indebtedness was settled; therefore, every single Believer in the world has the privilege of "possessing the double.")

8 For I the LORD love judgment, I hate robbery for Burnt Offering; and

I will direct their work in Truth, and I will make an Everlasting Covenant with them. (The word "judgment" here is "justice." Hence, the Lord loves fairness, equality, correct measures, honesty, integrity, truthfulness, and rightness. "I hate robbery for Burnt Offering," refers to nations that robbed Israel of her status and thereby stopped the "Burnt Offerings," which typified Calvary.

"And I will direct their work in Truth," refers to the Lord directing the work, and it, thereby, being guaranteed of Truth. The phrase also means "as they have been wronged, they shall be righted; they shall be faithfully and exactly compensated for what they have suffered." As they have "Everlasting Joy," they now also have an "Everlasting Covenant.")

9 And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all who see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the LORD has blessed. (In that day, the restored sons of Jacob will be a testimony to the moral glory of the Messiah. The "Seed" actually refers to Christ [Gal. 3:16]. "The seed which the LORD has blessed," unequivocally states that one cannot be blessed without Christ. Even in redeemed men, it is Christ within men Who is blessed!)

HYMN OF PRAISE TO GOD

10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, My soul shall be joyful in My God; for He has clothed Me with the garments of Salvation, He has covered Me with the robe of Righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels. (This speaks of Christ and His ornamentation by the Father. In the Incarnation, He lived as a Peasant, and was despised and rejected of men; still, the Lord has blessed this "Seed," and has made His "soul to be joyful in His God."

All of this tells us that "Salvation and Righteousness" belong strictly to Christ.

Whereas He was formerly "decked" with the "form of a servant" [Phil. 2:7], now He is "decked" with "Ornaments and Jewels." These "Jewels" are the Church [Mal. 3:17].

These "Jewels" are strictly "Ornaments," and, as such, are not actually needed by the Messiah, and in fact add no beauty to Him, but He rather adds beauty to them.

So, He decks and adorns Himself with that which He does not need, not in order that it beautify Him, but rather that He beautify us! His Name truly is Wonderful!)

11 For as the Earth brings forth her bud, and as the garden causes the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations. ("Adonai-Jehovah" will introduce a government which will evoke praise. Until then, all man's efforts to set up a praiseworthy rule in the Earth will be fruitless. At the present, wickedness, blasphemy, profanity, and vulgarity spring forth from the nations; however, this will soon change! Ultimately and eventually, "everything that has breath will praise the LORD" [Ps. 150:6].)

CHAPTER 62

THE RESTORATION OF ZION AND ITS GLORY

[1] For Zion's sake will I not hold My peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the Righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the Salvation thereof as a lamp that burns. (The Speaker in this Chapter is the Messiah; in Verses 1 through 9, He speaks to Israel; in Verses 10 through 12, to the nations of the world. He is a faithful High Priest. He pleads unceasingly for His People, and is, at the same time, their Righteousness and their Salvation. If it is to be noticed, Zion, Jerusalem, and Judah are the ones around which all Prophecy revolves. Washington, London, or any other city are not referred to in these predictions.

"For Zion's sake will I not hold My peace," implies that in the past God has kept silent. The nations of the world have been allowed to continue their oppression unchecked; however, this will now change. He will do it "for Jerusalem's sake.")

[2] And the Gentiles shall see Your Righteousness, and all kings Your Glory: and you shall be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name. (The entirety of the world, i.e., the Gentiles, shall easily "see your Righteousness." Instead of the "kings" rebelling against it, they will rather accept it, and, thereby, rejoice in it! What they will see will be the Righteousness and Glory of Israel's High Priest, the Lord Jesus Christ.

The "new name" that will be given will be "Hephzibah," which means "delight" or "in whom is My delight." This "name" is given to her by the "mouth of the LORD," and not man.)

[3] You shall also be a Crown of Glory in the Hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the Hand of Your God. (This Divine Priest can transform defiled and degraded sinners into royal diadems and crowns of glory. In that day, the Lord will exhibit Israel to an admiring world, as a man might exhibit a "crown" or "diadem," which he held in his hand.)

4 You shall no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall your land any more be termed Desolate: but you shall be called Hephzibah, and your land Beulah: for the LORD delights in you, and your land shall be married. ("You shall no more be termed Forsaken," refers to the fact that Judah had believed herself "forsaken" of God, and had actually been, in a certain sense, forsaken "for a small moment" [54:7]. Her enemies, it would seem, had gone so far as to give her this name in derision.

"You shall be called Hephzibah" was the name of Hezekiah's queen, Manasseh's mother [II Ki. 21:1]. The meaning is this:

As Hezekiah's wife mothered evil Manasseh, not necessarily through any fault of her own, with this boy ultimately inspired by Satan in order to sully the coming Promise, the Holy Spirit through the Prophecy of Isaiah proclaims the certitude of Righteousness prevailing, and not evil, as was symbolized in Manasseh.

Beautifully enough, Manasseh, "when he was in affliction," humbled himself before the Lord and repented; therefore, he symbolized Jerusalem, which would go into great evil, but which would come back to God and be restored to greatness and glory.)

5 For as a young man marries a virgin, so shall your sons marry you: and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you. (By changing the vowel points [which are not inspired] in the Hebrew Text of the phrase, "your sons," it would read "your builders," i.e., the plural of majesty for "your Restorer." Thus, the correspondence with the Name of God in the last line would be preserved. To be sure, He will definitely be the Restorer of Jerusalem and, in essence, be said to marry her.)

6 I have set watchmen upon your walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: you who make mention of the LORD, keep not silence (the "watchmen" addressed here can refer to either "Prophets" or "Priests," or even "Angelic Beings." They were to keep perpetual watch, and not hold their peace, but continually cry out until the full restoration of Jerusalem would take place.

Concerning every Promise of God, every Believer should do the same),

7 And give Him no rest, till He establish, and till He make Jerusalem a praise in the Earth. (Faithful watchmen upon the walls of an eastern city keep calling out day and night all matters of interest or of danger. The figure expresses the watchful love and care of Immanuel, and those in fellowship with Him, for His oppressed People.

The idea is not that the Lord forgets, or that we have to badger Him to bring forth results, but is designed accordingly that our faith may be strengthened.)

8 The LORD has sworn by His Right Hand, and by the arm of His strength, Surely I will no more give your corn to be meat for your enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink your wine, for the which you have laboured ("The LORD has sworn," is strong indeed! God solemnly binds Himself by an oath to come to the relief of His People, to restore them to their own land, and to give them the enjoyment of its fruits in peace.

"By His Right Hand, and by the Arm of His Strength," is employed nowhere else in Scripture. God swears "by Himself," because He can swear by no greater than Himself. The "hand and arm" were emblems of His Power to act. This great Promise has behind it the surety of God's Power to carry out what He has promised. No Promise could be greater!):

9 But they who have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they who have brought it together shall drink it in the courts of My holiness. (The idea is that the enemy will not "eat it," but that the Child of God will enjoy the increase of his labor. He will do it, "praising the LORD." This implies fellowship and communion restored, which can only be done upon proper Repentance.)

10 Go through, go through the gates; prepare y ou the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a Standard for the people. (This Passage, looking forward to the future, concerns itself with the Second Coming of the Lord. The statement, "Go through, go through the gates," refers to Israel coming back to the Holy Land, after the Second Coming of Christ, and then filling Jerusalem.

"Cast up, cast up the highway," refers to a way being made for Jews to come back from all over the world. Every hindrance is to be removed, hence, the phrase, "gather out the stones." All of this is being done because of the last line of this Verse, "lift up a Standard for the people." That "Standard" is Christ! They are coming solely because of Him, and every Blessing, as well, is because of Him, i.e., Christ.)

[11] Behold, the LORD has proclaimed unto the end of the world, Say you to the daughter of Zion, Behold, your Salvation comes; behold, His reward is with Him, and His Work before Him. (Zion's "Salvation" is Jehovah. He will return to her bringing both rewards and recompenses with Him — rewards for those who love Him, and recompenses for those who hate Him [II Thess., Chpt. 1].)

[12] And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and you shall be called, Sought out, A city not forsaken. (All of this speaks of the coming Kingdom Age, when Christ will reign supreme, with Israel having accepted Him, not only as their Saviour, but as their Messiah. As a result, all over the world they will be called "The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD."

"A city not forsaken," characterizes the Jerusalem of so many centuries. It was "forsaken" by God, because Jerusalem had forsaken Him! Now they have accepted Him; therefore, it is "A city not forsaken," meaning that God has placed His approval upon it, by making it the capital of Planet Earth, and the domicile of the Saviour.)

CHAPTER 63

MESSIAH'S SECOND ADVENT: VENGEANCE ON ISRAEL'S ENEMIES

[1] Who is this Who comes from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? He Who is glorious in His apparel, travelling in the greatness of His strength? I Who speak in Righteousness, mighty to save. (The question, "Who is this Who comes from Edom?" refers to Christ. This pertains to the Second Coming, with the description in Verses 1 through 6 pertaining to the Battle of Armageddon.

Some have thought that this Vision, concerning the garments dyed with blood, is descriptive of Christ as Saviour; however, this Vision, as the language states, concerns vengeance, which is the opposite of Grace, and it belongs to His future Second Coming in Judgment.)

[2] Wherefore are You red in your apparel, and Your garments like him who treads in the winefat? ("And Your garments like him who treads in the winefat," has to do with one in olden times who treaded down grapes, and, therefore, had his garments splattered with the juice. Such typifies what Christ will do at Armageddon.)

[3] I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with Me: for I will tread them in My anger, and trample them in My fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon My garments, and I will stain all My raiment. (The "winepress" speaks of the terrible carnage and bloodletting at Armageddon. Quite possibly millions will die at this particular time.

"And of the people there was none with Me," refers to the nations of the world, which had joined in opposition to Israel in favor of the Antichrist. None sided with Israel, i.e., Christ. Consequently, He "will tread them in My anger, and trample them in My fury.")

4 For the day of vengeance is in My heart, and the year of My redeemed is come. (This is the time that the Lord will once again, as Zechariah prophesied, "fight against those nations as when He fought in the day of battle" [Zech. 14:3]. As well, this will be the time of Israel's restoration.)

5 And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore My Own arm brought Salvation unto Me; and My fury, it upheld Me. (Those who had no helper and no upholder are the sons of Jacob, who, at the time of Messiah's Second Coming, will be suffering most cruel persecution. However, the Lord will come back in Power and Glory — in fact, such Power and Glory as the world has never seen before. Consequently, He will bring victory to His chosen People.)

6 And I will tread down the people in My anger, and make them drunk in My fury, and I will bring down their strength to the Earth. ("The people," should have been translated "the nations." The destruction is to be so complete that it will be absolutely and utterly overwhelming. There will be no recovery for the Antichrist and those who follow him. They will all be destroyed!)

GOD'S FAVOR SHOWN ISRAEL; PRAISE FOR PAST BLESSINGS

7 I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD has bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which He has bestowed on them according to His mercies, and according to the multitude of His lovingkindnesses. (As praise for present blessings followed the First Advent [61:1-11], so praise for past blessings [Vss. 7-14] here follows the Second Advent, and rightly so!)

8 For He said, Surely they are My People, children who will not lie: so He was their Saviour. (This harks back to the deliverance of the Children of Israel from Egyptian bondage. The Lord at that time was their Saviour.)

9 In all their affliction He was afflicted, and the Angel of His Presence saved them: in His love and in His pity He redeemed them; and He bore them, and carried them all the days of old. ("The Angel of His Presence," occurs nowhere but in this place. It is probably equivalent to "the Angel of God" [Ex. 19:19; Judg. 15:6; Acts 27:23]. It either designates the Second Person of the Trinity, or the highest of the Angelic company, who seems, at least in this instance, to be the Archangel Michael.

Such refers not only to their deliverance from Egypt, but their preservation in the wilderness.)

10 But they rebelled, and vexed His Holy Spirit: therefore He was turned to be their enemy, and He fought against them. (Any rebellion against the Lord or His Word always, and without fail, "vexes the Holy Spirit," without Whom we simply cannot succeed or survive.

"Therefore He was turned to be their enemy," was brought about because of Israel's sin and rebellion. Consequently, "He fought against them," which is a sad state of affairs, to say the least! The Lord, Who desired to fight for them, was forced to fight against them.)

11 Then He remembered the days of old, Moses, and His People, saying, Where is He Who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of His flock? where is He Who put his Holy Spirit within him? (The scene now changes from the ancient deliverance of Israel to the coming Battle of Armageddon. Then the Lord will "remember the days of old." He will remember His Covenants and deal with them again [Lev. 26:33-43; Deut. 30:1-10].)

12 Who led them by the right hand of Moses with His glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make Himself an Everlasting Name? (This speaks of the mighty miracle of the opening of the Red Sea, which the Lord now once again calls to account.

"To make Himself an Everlasting Name," is one of the main purposes of the entire series of miracles wrought in Egypt: "that God's Name might be declared throughout all the Earth" [Ex. 9:16].)

13 Who led them through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble? (What a sight this must have been! Some 5 to 6 million people coming through this created path, with a wall of water standing up on either side of them, and the way so smooth that not one of them "should stumble.")

14 As a beast goes down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest: so did You lead Your People, to make Yourself a glorious Name. (The Glory of all these past blessings is ascribed not to Israel, but to Israel's Great Shepherd — all to make Himself "a Glorious Name," not for egotistical or selfish purposes, but that men throughout the Earth may know that all Blessings and Deliverance come from God, and from God Alone!)

PRAYER FOR DELIVERANCE

15 Look down from Heaven, and behold from the habitation of Your holiness and of Your glory: where is Your zeal and Your strength, the sounding of Your bowels and of Your mercies toward me? are they restrained? (This prayer, in effect, will be prayed by Israel, or rather the Believing Remnant of Israel, prior to the Second Coming.

The faith, attachment, and anguish of the prayer are most effecting, and are made the more so by the way in which the Holy Spirit lends Himself to the feelings of a dependent and desolate heart, recalling past blessings, expressing present distress, acknowledging sin and the justice of God's judicial blinding, but pleading for Deliverance, not because of the Repentance and Faith of the supplicants, but nevertheless required, but because of the election of God and the immutability of His Nature.)

16 Doubtless You are our Father, though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: You, O LORD, are our Father, our Redeemer; Your Name is from everlasting. (The Pharisee based his expectation of Salvation upon his relation to Abraham, but the spiritual Israelite bases his upon his relation to God. When facing Christ at His First Advent, they boasted that they were children of Abraham [Jn. 8:39]. Now at the eve of His Second Advent, they boast no more, but rather confess that Abraham would not even own them, i.e., "be ignorant of us."

They now admit that Israel, i.e., Jacob, would not even "acknowledge them."

"Doubtless You are our Father," rather says, "If You will not be our Father, then we have no Father!" This is the ground of their appeal to God. They acknowledge that their ancient relationship to Abraham and Jacob cannot redeem them. If the Lord does not claim them and redeem them, they are eternally lost!)

17 O LORD, why have You made us to err from Your Ways, and hardened our heart from Your fear? Return for Your servants' sake, the tribes of Your inheritance. (This Verse should read: "O Jehovah, why have You suffered us to err from Your Ways? And why have You let us harden our hearts to Your fear?" Thus, true Repentance confesses that God justly gives men over to a hardened heart when they resist His Will. At the same time, faith holds to it that the Tribes of Jacob were God's inheritance and His holy people.

"Hardened our heart from Your fear," refers to the fact that when men have scornfully and obstinately rejected the Grace of God, God withdraws it from them judicially, giving them up to their wanderings, which makes their heart incapable of faith.

"Return for Your servants' sake," speaks of humility, and no longer of a hardened heart.)

18 The people of Your holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down Your Sanctuary. (The great "inheritance" that God gave unto His People was "possessed by them only a little while." As a result of their sin, "our adversaries have trodden down Your Sanctuary." They are referring to the destruction by Nebuchadnezzar and by Titus, the Roman General. But more than all they are speaking of the Antichrist, whom they erroneously thought was the Messiah, but who turned on them and did "trod down their Sanctuary" [Dan. 9:27].)

19 We are Yours: You never bore rule over them; they were not called by Your Name. (There is no "Thine" [Yours] in the original, and so important a word could not possibly be supplied from without. Therefore, the translation should read, “We are as those over whom You have not ruled from of old, as those upon whom Your Name has not been called; i.e., we have lost all our privileges — we have become in God’s sight no better than the heathen — He has forgotten that we were ever His People.”)

CHAPTER 64

A PRAYER FOR HELP AGAINST THEIR ENEMIES

[1] Oh that You would rend the heavens, that You would come down, that the mountains might flow down at Your Presence (in this Chapter, Israel's prayer continues and concludes. As she asks the Lord to look upon them once more with favor, Israel now asks for a manifestation of the Divine Presence, such as they have experienced in the times of old, and such as shall suffice to strike terror into the hearts of their enemies. Their prayer will be answered!)**,

[2] As when the melting fire burns, the fire causes the waters to boil, to make Your Name known to Your adversaries, that the nations may tremble at Your Presence! (His Coming, as described in Rev., Chpt. 19, will be so cataclysmic in nature, so powerful in actual fact, with such a sure defeat of God's enemies, that "His Name will surely be known to His adversaries." Truly, "the nations will tremble at His Presence!")

[3] When You did terrible things which we looked not for, You came down, the mountains flowed down at Your Presence. (The inference is that God did exceedingly more than Israel ever dreamed He would do, respecting their deliverance from Egypt. His actions transcended their utmost expectations.)

[4] For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither has the eye seen, O God, beside You, what He has prepared for him who waits for Him. (The Apostle Paul, in I Cor. 2:9, alludes to this Verse and states that, under the Second Covenant, the wonders prepared for Believers are revealed. Here Faith declares that neither has the eye seen, nor the ear heard of, a God doing such wonders as the God of Israel did.

In Israel's prayer, and at a most destitute time, such pleadings proclaim Israel's return to God and the Bible. Now Faith begins to come forth, Faith that was lacking upon the First Advent.)

5 You meet him who rejoices and works righteousness, those who remember You in Your Ways: behold, You are wroth; for we have sinned: in those is continuance, and we shall be saved. (The provisions of the Gospel, "prepared" under the First Covenant and "revealed" under the Second Covenant, are foreshadowed in this Verse. God's Way of pardoning and justifying the sinner is opposed to man's way. First, there is the belief of His Revelation respecting sin and its eternal doom, and then the acceptance of the atoning Saviour, Who said, "I am the Way." Such is the Salvation afforded by Christ, and such is the only Salvation that saves!)

CONFESSION OF SIN

6 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. (Here Israel confesses the reason for their desperate condition. At long last, they own up as to exactly what it is, "our iniquities."

"But we are all as an unclean thing," is actually saying before God that they are a spiritual leper. They now recognize that their self-righteousness is no more than "filthy rags," which refer to the menstrual flux of a woman regarding her monthly period.

It is very difficult for men, and especially religious men, to admit to such! Hence, not many religious men are saved!)

7 And there is none who calls upon Your Name, who stirs up himself to take hold of You: for You have hid Your face from us, and have consumed us, because of our iniquities. (Once again, Israel admits that it is her "iniquities" which have brought about the judgment of God upon her. She has only herself to blame!)

8 But now, O LORD, you are our Father; we are the clay, and You our Potter; and we all are the Work of Your Hand. (In this Passage is the gist of the great Salvation Message of Christianity. Only God can change the shape of the clay, thereby molding the vessel into the shape and design that is desired, thereby mending the flaws and weaknesses.)

9 Be not wroth very sore, O LORD, neither remember iniquity forever: behold, see, we beseech You, we are all Your People. (The appeal here is for God to begin all over again, like the potter with the clay. The idea of the phrase, "Be not wroth very sore," refers to the fact that God had become very angry with His People. The reason for that anger was sin on the part of Israel. God cannot abide sin in the lives of His Own People any more than He can in the wicked.)

10 Your holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation. (As we have stated, the entirety of this prayer of Repentance, which began in the Fifteenth Verse of the previous Chapter, will be prayed by Israel at the end of the Great Tribulation — at the Second Advent of Christ.)

11 Our Holy and our beautiful House, where our fathers praised You, is burned up with fire: and all our pleasant things are laid waste. (This speaks of the Temple that is yet to be built in Jerusalem. In fact, when the Antichrist turns on Israel, he will make their Temple his religious headquarters, committing every act of vileness that one could think.)

12 Will You refrain Yourself for these things, O LORD? will You hold Your peace, and afflict us very sore? (Israel first repents of her terrible sins, pleading God's Mercy, Grace, and Love. They then bring to His attention the terrible plight of the "holy cities," and of "Jerusalem." Last of all, they proclaim to Him the destruction of the Temple.

They then ask, "Will You refrain Yourself for these things, O LORD?"

The answer is certain. He will not refrain Himself! He will not hold His peace!)

CHAPTER 65

GOD'S PROPHETIC ANSWER: A REVIEW OF ISRAEL

[1] I am sought of them who asked not for Me; I am found of them who sought Me not: I said, Behold Me, behold Me, unto a nation that was not called by My Name. ("I am sought of them who asked not for Me," refers to the Gentiles coming to Christ and the establishment of the Church, when Israel crucified her Saviour.

"Behold Me, behold Me," refers to the Call of God to the Gentiles. The Apostle Paul, called "the Apostle to the Gentiles," was used by God signally in this great prophetic Plan [Rom 11:13].

"To a nation that was not called by My Name," refers to all except Israel. At that time, the only nation in the world that was called by His Name was Israel. Now, there are many nations that are called by His Name!)

[2] I have spread out My Hands all the day unto a rebellious people, who walks in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts (even though the Lord will give Israel great Promises in His Answer to them, nevertheless, He takes this occasion to once again remind them of the terrible sin they have committed. He calls them "a rebellious people."

The "spreading out of His Hands" was a longing, kind appeal to them to mend their ways. In effect, He is saying to them that the cause of their troubles was not His lack of attention toward them, but because they "walked in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts");

[3] A people who provokes Me to anger continually to My face; who sacrifices in gardens, and burns incense upon altars of brick (although Israel during the time of Christ had outwardly rejected idolatry, yet that evil spirit had returned to its garnished house, bringing other spirits worse than itself and, hence, Stephen charged them, as does the Prophet in this Chapter, with being not only Christ-rejecters, but idolaters [Acts 7:51-53]. They did all of this in the "face" of God, as all sin is performed in the "face" of God, in defiance of Him!);

4 Who remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments, which eat swine's flesh, and broth of abominable things is in their vessels (when people who have once known God rebel against Him, and go their own way, the spiritual depths to which they sink, even as Israel of old, are worse than any);

5 Who say, Stand by yourself, come not near to me; for I am holier than you. These are a smoke in My nose, a fire that burns all the day. (Israel's initiation into heathen mysteries was thought to confer on the initiated a holiness unattainable otherwise. Thus, the heathenized Jew claimed to be holier than the true servants of Jehovah.

In effect, the Lord says this is repugnant to Him. Their sin was like "smoke in My nose," caused by a fire that "burns all the day," sending up its offensive odor.)

6 Behold, it is written before Me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom (he implication is that the Book lies open "before Him," so that their sin is ever in His sight. He would "recompense" accordingly!

As well, it would be a personal "recompense," even "into their bosom"), 7 Your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, sa ys the LORD, which have burned incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed Me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom. (This Verse links together into one guilty company the idolaters of the past and the Pharisees of the present. Both are Christ-rejecters. Therefore, the conduct of the former will be judged in bosom of the latter.

In all of this, the Lord reminds Israel, in graphic terms, as to exactly what the cause of their previous state had been. There must not be a mistake in their understanding this.)

A SEED PROMISED

[8] Thus says the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one says, Destroy it not; for a blessing is in it: so will I do for My servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all. ("As the new wine is found in the cluster," refers to even a single cluster of grapes on the vine-stem. The vine-pruners would say one to another, "Destroy not that stem, but spare it." As well, God will refrain from destroying those stalks in His vineyard which give even a small promise of bearing good fruit.

Therefore, the Lord uses this as an example that He will preserve a Remnant of Israel to be blessed in the eternal society under the Messiah [Rom. 9:27].)

[9] And I will bring forth a Seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an Inheritor of My mountains: and My elect shall inherit it, and My servants shall dwell there. (The "Seed out of Jacob" actually refers to Christ [Gal. 3:16]. The "Inheritor of My mountains" is also the Messiah. The "elect" concerns the Remnant of Israel left after the Battle of Armageddon, which will accept Christ as their Saviour and Messiah. They are as well called "My servants" and "shall dwell there." They are "elected" by Him, because they choose to be "servants.")

[10] And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for My People who have sought Me. (Achor was the place near Jericho where Achan was put to death [Josh. 7:24; 15:7; Hos. 2:15]. In effect, the Grace of God will turn the valley of Achor, which was a scene of Wrath, into a door of hope, while those that were Israel after the flesh shall perish.)

REBELS AND APOSTATES WILL BE PURGED FROM ISRAEL

[11] But you are they who forsake the LORD, who forget My holy mountain, who prepare a table for that troop, and who furnish the drink offering unto that number. (The word "troop," in the Hebrew, has reference to "the god," or rather "the god of fortune," which had to do with the planet Jupiter. "That number," has to do with the goddess "Destiny," that is, the Planet Venus.

All of this referred to the astrological charts that originated with Babylon. The Israelites furnished the sacrifices and drink offerings to these heathenistic gods in order to secure what they believed would be good fortune.)

[12] Therefore will I number you to the sword, and you shall all bow down to the slaughter: because when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not hear; but did evil before My eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not. (As Israel looked to the "numbers," responding to their "god of fortune," i.e., "chance," the Lord says, "Therefore will I number you to the sword." With Israel seeking help from demon spirits, they were, in effect, forfeiting the help that God could give, and also actually making God their enemy, Who would fight against them.

"Because when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not hear," refers to Israel that had the opportunity to hear either demon spirits, i.e., the "god of fortune," or else the "God of Heaven." Sadly and regrettably, they chose to hear the "god of fortune," and refused to "answer" or "hear" the God of Heaven.

As a result, "you shall all bow down to the slaughter.")

[13] Therefore thus says the Lord GOD, Behold, My servants shall eat, but you shall be hungry: behold, My servants shall drink, but you shall be thirsty: behold, My servants shall rejoice, but you shall be ashamed (the idea of this Passage is this:

There would be, as always, a small Remnant who would not choose the way of evil, and as a result, and in all places, would be sustained with spiritual food and "rejoice and sing for joy of heart."

*Conversely, those who stake their claim on the "god of chance" would everywhere feel a craving for the "meat" and "drink" which alone satisfy the soul, and would instead be oppressed with care and with a sense of shame and, thereby, suffer anguish of spirit!):

14 Behold, My servants shall sing for joy of heart, but you shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of spirit. (Solomon said that all such was a "vanity and vexation of spirit," implying that even if there was so-called "good fortune," it would still result in "empty nothings." For that's what the words, "vanity and vexation," actually mean!)

15 And you shall leave your name for a curse unto My chosen: for the Lord GOD shall kill you, and call His servants by another name (because of Israel's rebellion against God, their very name has been cursed. As well, instead of protecting them, the Lord, because they didn't want Him, has allowed them to be slain by their enemies, which have been many.

"And call His servants by another name," refers to the Church, which was grafted in because of Israel's failure [Rom. 11:17]):

16 That he who blesses himself in the Earth shall bless himself in the God of Truth; and he who swears in the Earth shall swear by the God of Truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from My eyes. (The idea of this Passage is that if one is truly blessed, it will be by "the God of Truth." "And he who swears in the Earth shall swear by the God of Truth," refers to God, Who keeps Covenant and Promise, to which the strongest formula of consent is the word "Amen" [Num. 5:22; Deut. 27:15-26; I Ki. 1:36].

"Because the former troubles are forgotten," speaks of the coming Kingdom Age, when all of the rebellion of Israel will be "forgotten."

"And because they are hid from My eyes," refers to the fact of Israel being washed in the Blood of the Lamb, which means their sins are no more [Zech. 13:1].)

17 For, behold, I create new heavens and a new Earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind. (This Scripture, as given by the Holy Spirit through Isaiah, leaps ahead, even beyond the coming Millennium, to the time of the "new heavens and new Earth." "And the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind," means that the Glory of the new heavens and Earth will be such that the absolving of the former ones will not only not be regretted, but will not even be had in remembrance. No one will so much as even think of them!)

18 But be y ou glad and rejoice forever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. (Whereas the Holy Spirit in Verse 17 spoke of the coming "new heavens and new Earth," now He, through Isaiah, beginning with this Verse and continuing through the end of the Chapter, proclaims the Glory of the coming Kingdom Age, when Christ will reign Personally and supremely from Jerusalem.

Actually, this is the reason that "Jerusalem" will be a city of "rejoicing, and her people a joy.")

19 And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in My People: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying. (In fact, Jerusalem has been a place of "weeping and crying." It, as no other city in the world, has known war, heartache, sadness, and sorrow! Satan has contested God's ownership of this city from the very beginning.

But with the coming of the Lord, all of this will be passed. "Weeping" and "crying" will be "heard" no more. Such will be because of Christ, and only because of Christ and what He has done for mankind through the Cross.)

20 There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man who has not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; but the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed. (During the coming Millennium, the Redeemed, with glorified bodies, and even those who have given their hearts to Christ at that time, will experience no death whatsoever. Even among the unredeemed, longevity of life, possibly even for hundreds of years, will be restored.

"But the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed," means that any person living at that time who hasn't given his heart and life to Christ by the time he is 100 years old will be "accursed," meaning that, in all likelihood, he will not be saved.")

21 And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them. (This proves that ordinary natural life and living conditions on the Earth will continue in the Millennium. The idea of this Passage is that work and labor will bring forth fruit and not be cut off by death, sickness, or sin, as at the present. Men, then, can build, construct, labor, and enjoy the fruit of their labor.)

22 They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of My People, and My elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands. ("My elect," speaks of Israel, but also of all who have accepted Christ as their Saviour. "Shall long enjoy the work of their hands," actually speaks of eternity. The "enjoyment" will never cease.

"For as the days of a tree are the days of My people," refers to the longevity of certain types of trees, which are actually thousands of years old.

As is alluded to in this Passage, death will continue through the 1000-year Reign of Christ on Earth, but only for those who refuse to accept Christ and who commit sins worthy of death. If such is the case, they will be executed, for the "Law will go forth from Zion and the Word of the LORD from Jerusalem" [Isa. 2:3].)

23 They shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth for trouble; for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them. (The phrase, "Their offspring with them," tells us that children will be born during the Kingdom Age, and actually will be born forever, even in the "new Earth." This will not pertain to the glorified Saints, but rather to the redeemed who are not glorified, meaning they didn't have part in the First Resurrection, but will keep alive forever by means of the Tree of Life [Rev. 22:1-3]. These will bring forth offspring.)

24 And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear. (This Scripture proclaims the Truth that Christ will be the One Who will solve all problems, answer all questions, meet all needs, and right all wrongs. The answer will not be delayed, hindered, or denied!)

25 The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: and dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain, says the LORD. (Rom. 8:19-22 is based upon the last Verse of this Chapter. The animal creation will enjoy the beneficence of the Messiah's government; but the serpent, i.e., Satan, shall be made to "eat the dust." This is a fine and striking idiom expressing his perpetual impotency and degradation [the language is figurative]. However, the snake, even though not having the curse lifted, will be rendered harmless, and instead of preying upon beasts, birds, or reptiles, shall be content with the food assigned it in the primeval decree.

"They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain, says the LORD," is repeated from 11:9 word for word. In either case, we should not regard the subject of the sentence as limited to the animals only. The meaning is that there shall be no violence of any kind, done either by man or beast, in the happy period described.)

CHAPTER 66

THE RIGHTEOUS RESPECTED; SINNERS DOOMED

[1] Thus says the LORD, The heaven is My throne, and the Earth is My footstool: where is the house that you build unto Me? and where is the place of My rest? (This Chapter takes up and reviews all the prior Chapters concerning this particular Prophesy. The Messiah's First Advent and the judgment which followed it are the subject of the first six Verses; His Second Advent and the judgment which will follow it occupy the rest of the Chapter.

The Chapter opens by contrasting Herod's Temple with that of the Universe — the one so puny and the other so vast.)

[2] For all those things have My Hand made, and all those things have been, says the LORD: but to this man will I look, even to him who is poor and of a contrite spirit, and trembles at My Word. (The Great Temple fashioned by Jehovah's Hand, i.e., the heavens and the Earth, is contrasted in Verse 2, and the statement is made that God's true Temple is the heart that trembles at His Word.

The "contrite man" is one with a broken, crushed, contrite spirit. The only One Who actually fits this description is Christ; therefore, for the Lord to properly look at us, one must be properly in Christ [Rom. 6:3-5].)

[3] He who kills an ox is as if he kill a man; he who sacrifices a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he who offers an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he who burns incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yes, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delights in their abominations. (The Sacrifices which the Pharisees offered so zealously are declared in this Verse to be abominable to God, as if they offered up human sacrifice, or dogs, or swine, and their worship is stated to be as offensive as if addressed to an idol.

Man, tutored by Satan as a minister of righteousness, has succeeded in all times in corrupting the Divine revelation and ordinances. This is very apparent in the modern Church, so that religious services and ceremonies, which are very beautiful to man's judgment and which appeal to his religious feeling, are declared by God to be abominable. The reason?

Simply because the object of faith is something other than Christ and the Cross, which God will not tolerate [I Cor. 1:17-18, 23; 2:2].)

4 I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spoke, they did nor hear: but they did evil before My eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not. (Israel's rejection of Christ at His First Coming is recorded in this Verse, and the persecution of His Disciples predicted in the next Verse.

The choice and delight of the Pharisees are contrasted with the choice and delight of the Messiah.)

ISRAEL'S FUTURE TRAVAIL

5 Hear the Word of the LORD, you who tremble at His Word; Your brethren who hated you, who cast you out for My Name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but He shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed. ("Hear the Word of the LORD," is an admonishment to the Church to not hear the word of man. The words, "You who tremble at His Word," refer to those who are of a "poor and contrite spirit." The prideful never "tremble at His Word," but rather substitute their own word. "Your brethren who hated you, who cast you out for My Name's sake," refers to a formal excommunication, or at least to a renunciation of fellowship. This speaks of persecution by an apostate Church.

"Let the LORD be glorified," is actually a sarcastic statement from these false brethren! This was the sarcastic challenge of the Pharisees. It means: "Let Jehovah manifest His Power and favor in Your behalf." This, in effect, is what they said to Christ when he was hanging on the Cross.

"But He shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed," refers to the fact that God, even though He tarry long, will ultimately vindicate your trust in Him.)

[6] A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the Temple, a voice of the LORD Who renders recompence to his enemies. (After rebuking the hypocrisy of the wicked, God addressed the righteous, promising that they would be blessed in the end, and declared that He would recompense their enemies in due time.)

[7] Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child. (As the Sixth Verse speaks of the Second Coming, this Verse speaks of the events immediately preceding that all-important occasion.

Verses 7 through 17 speak not only of the travail of Israel, which will take place during the Great Tribulation, but, as well, of her Redemption.

"She was delivered of a man child," refers to the 144,000 Jews who will be saved during the first half of the Great Tribulation [Rev. 7:4-8].)

[8] Who has heard such a thing? who has seen such things? Shall the Earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children. (It is as if the Holy Spirit, anticipating the incredulity of the Reader, asks, "Who has heard such a thing?"

The statement, "For as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children," refers to the terrible horror of the latter half of the Great Tribulation, and especially the Battle of Armageddon, when it looks like Israel will be totally annihilated. In this terrible judgment, producing great "travail," Israel will be brought back to God. These birth pangs of Israel are referred to here and in the following [Dan. 12:1; Zech 12:10-13:1; Mat. 24:8, 15-22; Rev. 12:1-6, 14].)

[9] Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? says the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? says your God. (No matter how it looks, the Lord is emphatically stating that Israel will be brought back, irrespective as to how negative her situation may seem. To emphasize the strength of His statement, the Lord uses the analogy of a pregnant woman: "Shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb?" In other words, after the gestation period of nine months has run its course, nothing can stop the birth of the child. As well, it will not be stillborn, but a healthy, vibrant child!

[This birth that is spoken of has nothing to do with the "man child" of the Seventh Verse, as the two are separate incidents.])

A NEW AGE OF PEACE AND PROSPERITY

[10] Rejoice you with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all you who love her: rejoice for joy with her, all you who mourn for her *(the Holy Spirit through Isaiah is contemplating, especially due to the strength of His pronouncements, that the reader must believe what is said and, therefore, "Rejoice you with Jerusalem, and be glad with her"):

[11] That you may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that you may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory. (The Holy Spirit now uses another strong analogy, and does so by using the mother who has now brought forth a child, by saying, "That you may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations." In other words, by Israel's restoration, the entirety of the world will be blessed, and abundantly!)

[12] For thus says the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall you suck, you shall be borne upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees. (The sudden and vast enlargement of the nation of Israel, with her glory, her spiritual wealth, her consolation, and her headship over the nations, and all because of Christ, are pictured in these Verses, and will accompany the Messiah's Second Advent.

"You shall be borne upon her sides," refers to the fact that Jerusalem will at that time, and we speak of the Kingdom Age, be the nurturer of the world. That may seem strange, but it will all be because of Christ!)

13 As one whom his mother comforts, so will I comfort you; and you shall be comforted in Jerusalem. ("As one whom his mother comforts," continues the analogy used by the Holy Spirit concerning the birth [Vs. 9]. Now Israel is presented as a full-grown man. The words, "So will I comfort you," refer to the Lord Himself comforting this man, i.e., Israel.)

14 And when you see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the Hand of the LORD shall be known toward His servants, and His indignation to ward His enemies. (The Passage, "And your bones shall flourish like an herb," refers to the fact that in times past Israel's "bones had been consumed" [Ps. 31:10], and "waxed old" [Ps. 32:3]. Now they shall enjoy a time of refreshing from the Lord. New life shall enter them, and health and growth shall follow. Ezekiel proclaimed this in his Thirty-seventh Chapter.

"And the Hand of the LORD shall be known," refers to a two-pronged thrust. There will be blessing toward Israel and all who serve the Lord, and "indignation toward His enemies.")

THE PUNISHMENT OF THE WICKED

15 For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with His chariots like a whirlwind, to render His anger with fury, and His rebuke with flames of fire. (These Passages are not symbolic, but literal. This is the Second Coming, which Ezekiel describes in detail [Ezek. 38:18-23].)

16 For by fire and by His sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the killed of the LORD shall be many. (The entirety of the army of the Antichrist will be killed, with the exception of a one-sixth part [Ezek. 39:2]. This, of course, continues to speak of the Second Coming.)

17 They who sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, says the LORD. (This Verse signifies that all idolatry in Israel will now end. That abominable day is forever over.)

MILLENNIUM: JEW AND GENTILE TOGETHER GLORIFY GOD

[18] For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see My Glory. (Verses 18 through 21 portray the greatest move of Evangelism the world will have ever known! It is during this time that hundreds of million, or even billions, will accept Christ as their eternal Saviour. The Scripture says, "They shall come, and they shall see." What they will see will be the "Glory of God as it resides in Christ.")

[19] And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those who escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off, who have not heard My fame, neither have seen My Glory; and they shall declare My Glory among the Gentiles. ("And I will set a sign among them," actually pertains to Christ. He will be the sign!

"And I will send those who escape of them unto the nations," refers to the two-thirds who will be killed during the latter half of the Great Tribulation and the Battle of Armageddon, who did not want or desire Christ. The one-third of Israel remaining [Zech. 13:8-9] will then be sent as missionaries to the nations of the world to proclaim Messiah's Glory. They will do so with such success that entire nations will be converted even in "one day" [Vs. 8]. Then Israel will finally fulfill her intended purpose to serve as a light to the world.)

[20] And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to My holy mountain Jerusalem, sa ys the LORD, as the Children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the House of the LORD. (The implication of the Verse is this:

The Gentile world, including all nations, realizing the Glory of Christ and that the blessing resides in His People, will provide every necessary means to help Israel fulfill her obligations to the Lord.

"As the Children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the House of the Lord," refers to the Gentiles strongly desiring Israel to adhere strictly to the Commandments of the Lord. The reason is explained in the following Verse.)

[21] And I will also take of them for Priests and Levites, says the LORD. (The reason that the Gentiles will be so eager to help Israel is because the intermediary between Christ and the Gentile world will be, at least in some small way, the "Priests," who come from the Tribe of "Levi." This does not mean that they will serve as mediators between Christ and man, but that the channel and flow of blessings going to the Gentile nations will pertain in some sense to the Levitical Order, which, according to Ezekiel, will be restored.

As well, it is believed by some that quite possibly proselyte Gentiles will be allowed to serve as "Priests," and thereby taken into the Tribe of "Levi," thereby becoming "Levites.")

NEW HEAVENS AND NEW EARTH; THE WICKED IN HELL

[22] For as the new heavens and the new Earth, which I will make, shall remain before Me, says the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain. (In other words, the order that the Lord will set up "shall remain before Me." This signifies that it will never be overthrown as it was in the past in the Garden of Eden. That which He is going to do will exist and remain forever.)

[23] And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before Me, says the LORD. (This Passage merely reflects the thought that the worship of the Lord will go on from month to month, and forever!

"Shall all flesh come to worship before Me, says the LORD," refers to the entirety of the Earth. Then it will no longer be a mere "Remnant," as it has been through the ages, but now "all" will "worship before Me." This Passage guarantees the perpetuity of God's Kingdom, with Satan locked away forever, with no possibility of rebellion ever again taking place!)

24 And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcases of the men who have transgressed against Me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh. (The eternal doom pronounced in this Verse is confirmed by the Messiah Himself when He said, "Where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched" [Mk. 9:48]. Isaiah commences with a gracious invitation [1:18], and closes with a solemn warning!

This Passage proclaims the fact, which Isaiah has previously mentioned, that there will be certain openings in the Earth into which men can gaze and look upon those who are in eternal Hell.

To the natural mind, this may be horrifying. Yet, this will no doubt serve as the greatest example ever of the horrors of sin, that it must never happen again!)

CHAPTER 1

(629 B.C.)

INTRODUCTION

[1] The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the Priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin (the name "Jeremiah" means "Jehovah is high, Jehovah raises up or launches out." As we shall see, the Ministry of Jeremiah was, in many ways, typical of the Ministry of Christ)**:

[2] To whom the Word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. (From that time to the fall of Jerusalem was approximately 40 years. No doubt, Jeremiah was greatly encouraged at the beginning of his ministry, in view of the fact that "Josiah" was one of the Godliest kings that ever graced the throne of Judah [II Ki. 22:2]. But yet Josiah will be cut down in his prime, possibly fulfilling the Prophecy of Isaiah [Isa. 57:1].)

[3] It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month. (In this Verse, we have the fulfillment of the Prophecies of Moses, as well as others [Deut. 28:36-37]. The length of the time mentioned in this Verse was approximately 40 years, during which Jeremiah continued to prophesy. As well, he prophesied even after the fall of Jerusalem [Jer. 40:1; 42:7; 43:1-44:30].)

GOD CALLS JEREMIAH

[4] Then the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying (this is the first Prophecy that is given in this Book, and concerns itself with the call of Jeremiah)**,

5 Before I formed you in the belly I knew you; and before you came forth out of the womb I sanctified you, and I ordained you a Prophet unto the nations. (In this, one can easily see the doctrine of predestination. But only that the Lord through foreknowledge "knew" what kind of man that Jeremiah would be, and not that Jeremiah had been denied the power of choice and had been forced by God into a certain course of action.

The words, "I sanctified you," refer to the call of Jeremiah, that he had been set apart for this particular use.

The words, "Ordained you a Prophet unto the nations," rather mean "appointed." His message would involve not only Israel, but also those nations which had to do with Israel.)

6 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child. (This does not speak of a preteen child, but a young man ranging from that of a teenager to twenty-five or thirty years of age.)

7 But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for you shall go to all that I shall send you, and whatsoever I command you you shall speak. (Almost immediately upon God's Commands, the flesh, lacking faith, withdraws. So did Moses and Jonah. The call demanded absolute leading and absolute obedience!)

8 Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with you to deliver you, says the LORD. (This Verse implies, and by the Lord at that, that Jeremiah will face great opposition; however, he had the Promise of the Lord to deliver him, but only if Jeremiah fully obeyed.)

9 Then the LORD put forth His Hand, and touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put My Words in your mouth. ("I have put My Words in your mouth," explains Inspiration. The mouth was Jeremiah's, the Words were God's [Acts 3:21; II Tim. 3:16-17; II Pet. 1:21].)

10 See, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant. (As there is so much more threat than promise in Jeremiah's writings, the destructive side of his activity is expressed by four verbs; the constructive, only by two.)

VISION OF AN ALMOND TREE BRANCH

[11] Moreover the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what do you see? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree. (The "almond tree" is, in the east, the first to awake after the sleep of winter. It, therefore, symbolized the nearness of the predicted event.)

[12] Then said the LORD unto me. You have well seen: for I will hasten My Word to perform it. (The urgency was impressed upon Jeremiah that inasmuch as his Call was given, that the Prophecies must begin, because the time of their fulfillment was at hand! It would be some thirty-five or more years, at least concerning Jerusalem and Judah, regarding the fulfillment, but the warnings were to begin immediately.)

VISION OF A SEETHING POT

[13] And the Word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What do you see? And I said, I see a seething pot; and the face thereof is toward the north. (The "seething pot" symbolized the eruption of the Babylonians into Judah.)

[14] Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the north an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land. ("Out of the north," refers to the invasion route. Actually, Babylon was due east of Judah. However, the caravan road which the Chaldean armies had to take entered Judah at Dan, which was due north of Jerusalem.

The words, "an evil," refer to the calamity, which in deepening gloom forms the burden of the Prophet's discourses.)

[15] For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, says the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah. (This was fulfilled approximately thirty-five years later. The word "against" occurs eight times in this Chapter. This emphasizes the fact that man is estranged from God. Scriptural teaching is, therefore, opposed to human teaching. Doctrines which appeal to the natural heart, and which are in harmony with the "assured results" of modern thought, must, therefore, be false; for the natural mind is enmity against God, and is not appealed to by Divine teaching [Rom. 8:7].

The prediction in this Verse is that the kings and generals of the mighty Babylonian Empire would set up the high seat of power and judicial authority near the gate of the city of Jerusalem. And so it ultimately happened [II Ki. 24:12].)

[16] And I will utter My Judgments against them (against Judah) touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken Me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands. (God always makes clear the reasons for His Judgments in time for men to avoid them, if they will only listen. Jeremiah did not go into the detail as did Isaiah concerning these idol gods. It is as if the Lord is weary of His Explanations being rejected; therefore, He only alludes to these "other gods," as if to say that if Jerusalem and Judah do not now know better, there is nothing else He can say!)

[17] You therefore gird up your loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command you: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I confound you before them. (A Promise and a warning is given in this Verse. The Promise is that God would give him the Words that he is to say. The warning is that if there is a want of confidence on Jeremiah's part, his enemies would utterly discomfit him.)

[18] For, behold, I have made you this day a defenced city, and an iron pillar, and brasen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the Priests thereof, and against the people of the land. (The Lord would give Jeremiah the strength to stand against the king, the Priesthood, and the people of the land, but only if he stood strong.)

19 And they shall fight against you; but they shall not prevail against you; for I am with you, says the LORD, to deliver you. (The opposition of the land was predicted. To be sure, the opposition by the modern Church against true prophetic utterance is almost always the case; however, the Promise of Deliverance for the Prophet against this opposition is given here, at least until the Message has been properly delivered.)

CHAPTER 2

(629 B.C.)

THE WICKEDNESS OF ISRAEL

[1] Moreover the Word of the LORD came to me, saying (this "Word" given by Jeremiah is thought by some to be the first Oracle delivered in public)**,

[2] Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus says the LORD; I remember you, the kindness of your youth, the love of your espousals, when you went after Me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown. (This Message was addressed to Judah, but, as it did not flatter them, it was rejected, and its rejection shows that the revival of 629 B.C. did not last [3:10].

"I remember for your good the kindness of your youth," speaks of that of God toward the people, rather than the people toward God.

"Your espousals," refers to Israel's beginnings, the bridal state.

"When you went after Me," refers to the forty years in the wilderness, and the tremendous Miracles wrought by the Lord in response to His People.)

[3] Israel was holiness unto the LORD, and the firstfruits of His increase: all who devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, says the LORD. ("Israel was holiness unto the LORD," refers to their being a consecrated people. This does not necessarily imply a personal holiness and, in fact, definitely did not imply such, but rather an imputed holiness. It is as if the Holy Spirit was attempting to pressure the people to be what they should have been.

"The firstfruits of His increase," is compared to the firstfruits of the land, which were devoted to the House of the Lord [Ex. 23:19; Num. 18:12-13].

"All who devour him shall offend," refers to enemies attempting to hurt or even destroy Israel. By attempting such, they would incur the Wrath of God. Such foreign nations or tribes became guilty of a most serious trespass, having invaded the rights of Jehovah.)

[4] Hear you the Word of the LORD, O House of Jacob, and all the families of the House of Israel *(now the Holy Spirit through Jeremiah will begin a long litany of grievances against Judah. The pleadings by the Holy Spirit present the pathos of a broken heart — the broken heart of God!):

[5] Thus says the LORD, What iniquity have your fathers found in Me, that they are gone far from Me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain? (This Passage refers to God, Who never fails and always keeps Covenants and Promises. Of course, there is no "iniquity" in the Lord! If a man leaves God, it is always wrongdoing on the part of the man, and never on the part of God.

"Have walked after vanity" refers to idols. In the wilderness, they walked after Jehovah; in Canaan, they walked after Moloch and became "vain," for man becomes morally like that which he worships.)

[6] Neither said they, Where is the LORD Who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, Who led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt? (The words, "Neither said they," refer to lack of inquiry on the part of Judah. Even though the Lord had done so many great things for them, they were little interested in recounting His mighty Exploits. They did not want Him now; therefore, they had no desire to recount past Blessings.)

[7] And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof, but when you entered, you defiled My Land, and made My Heritage an abomination. (This Verse simply speaks of the glory of the Land of Israel. It was a "garden-land." If one is to notice, the Holy Spirit says, "My Land," denoting the fact that the Land of Israel belongs to the Lord. He has never relinquished ownership and, in fact, never will.)

8 The Priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they who handle the Law knew Me not: the Pastors also transgressed against Me, and the Prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit. (The Priests, the Magistrates, and the Prophets, i.e., the whole nation, apostatized from God to Baal. Only that which comes from the Lord and His Word is profitable. All else "does not profit.")

9 Wherefore I will yet plead with you, says the LORD, and with your children's children will I plead. (In modern terminology, the Holy Spirit pleads with people. The pleading is always for them to get right with God and draw closer to Him. The word "plead" also refers to chastisement, for the Lord chastises those He loves [Heb. 12:5-11].)

10 For pass over the isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing. (Chittim lay to the west and Kedar to the east of Jerusalem. The challenge here was to find, if possible, either east or west, a nation that had changed its gods. Such a quest would be fruitless.

Here is found an unanswerable argument in support of the credibility of the Bible and in refutation of the popular theory that Jehovah was just another trifle god invented by the Hebrews themselves.

Had such been so, they never would have forsaken Him, but would have clung to Him with the same devotion with which all nations cling to the gods and goddesses of their own creation.)

11 Has a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but My People have changed their glory for that which does not profit. (The question, "Has a nation changed their gods?" actually asks, "Has any heathen nation ever changed its idol god for another?"

Actually, Judah never ceased worshipping Jehovah altogether, but rather incorporated heathen religions in with their worship of the True God. Neither did they wholly forsake the Law, but rather added their own man-made laws to the Law of God. Is the modern Church guilty of the same thing?

"But My People have changed their glory," refers to the fact that they no longer worship God, but rather idols.)

12 Be astonished, O you heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be you very desolate, says the LORD. (Judah at this time should have been trembling with fear, especially considering the awful doom that was soon to break upon them! The "heavens" were afraid, but not Judah! With Judah and Jerusalem, it was business as usual, even with the storm clouds gathering on the horizon.)

13 For My People have committed two evils; they have forsaken Me the Fountain of Living Waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water. (When one forsakes God, they always do such for that which is far, far less! The answer for every problem is found in the Word of God; however, the modern Church has by and large forsaken the Word, and rather resorted to humanistic psychology, which can be defined as nothing other than a "broken cistern.")

THE CONSEQUENCES OF ISRAEL'S SINS: THE COMING CAPTIVITY

14 Is Israel a servant? is he a homeborn slave? why is he spoiled? (Israel was a son, not a slave, yet they were about to become slaves! In fact, Israel had become a "servant," i.e., slave, to the heathenistic gods. As a result, they would soon become a slave to a foreign power.

The question, "Is he a homeborn slave?", is interesting indeed! It has reference to an animal in a zoo. An animal was made by God to be free and unfettered. However, if born in a zoo and knowing nothing but the confines of such, it is a slave without really knowing it. Such was Israel, and such are so many modern Believers!

The question, "Why is he spoiled?", refers to Judah, which had sinned so long with impunity that there was no fear of Divine Retribution.)

15 The young lions roared upon him, and yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burned without inhabitant. (The Prophet will now speak of future events as if they had already happened. Actually, Verse 15 also applied in the past tense to the Northern Kingdom of Israel, which had fallen to Assyria nearly a hundred years earlier. The Holy Spirit uses it as an example of what is going to happen in the near future to Judah.)

16 Also the children of Noph and Tahapanes have broken the crown of your head. (The implication in this Passage is that despite the reforms of Godly Josiah, the Lord, knowing the unrepentant heart of Judah, took Josiah, "the righteous man" [Isa. 57:1], out of the way in order to hasten Judah's judgment. When Josiah was killed, in effect, the Egyptians "broke the crown of your head.")

17 Have you not procured this unto yourself, in that you have forsaken the LORD your God, when He led you to the way? (So long as God leads, there is sonship, liberty, and dignity, but self-will insures slavery.)

18 And now what have you to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? Or what have you to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river? (The "waters of Sihor," referring to Egypt, and the "waters of the river" [Euphrates], referring to Assyria, are what the Holy Spirit is speaking of in Verse 13, when He mentions "broken cisterns." Judah forsook the Lord for that!)

19 Your own wickedness shall correct you, and your backslidings shall reprove you: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that you have forsaken the LORD your God, and that My fear is not in you, says the Lord GOD of Hosts. (The suffering that comes upon men results from their own self-will, and is not justly chargeable to God. So, the idea, as claimed by humanistic psychology, that Believers should "forgive God," borders on blasphemy!)

20 For of old time I have broken your yoke, and burst your bands; and you said, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill and under every green tree you wandered, playing the harlot. ("For of old time I have broken your yoke," refers to their deliverance from Egyptian bondage. "Playing the harlot," is a descriptive term used by the Holy Spirit, referring to idolatry.)

21 Yet I had planted you a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then are you turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto Me? (The implication is that the type of "Vine" planted by the Lord was a "noble Vine," which came from the "right Seed," with the inference referring to Christ and, thereby, designed to bring forth much fruit.

Nevertheless, despite the Lord Himself serving as the Gardener, this "noble Vine" turned into a "strange vine.")

THE GUILT CANNOT BE WASHED AWAY

22 For though you wash yourself with nitre, and take you much soap, yet your iniquity is marked before Me, says the Lord GOD. (The inference by the Holy Spirit is that all of man's efforts cannot take away "your iniquity." Such can only be done by the Blood of Christ. The problem of the modern Church is that it treats the results of man's sin instead of the cause of man's sin! Man doesn't need to be saved nearly so much for what he has done as for what he is — a sinner.)

23 How can you say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? see your way in the valley, know what you have done: you are a swift dromedary traversing her ways (sin deadens and blinds the conscience — here the Prophet indignantly points to the valley of Hinnom, which was filled with idolatrous altars. Judah's fault was not in neglecting the public worship of Jehovah in His appointed Temple, but in super-adding these idolatrous rites, which were anathema to the teaching of the Bible. Such is the problem in the modern Church today!

"You are a swift dromedary traversing her ways," refers to a young she-camel which has not yet had a foal, and is running backwards and forwards at the impulse of passion. In other words, Israel did not know where she was going!);

24 A wild ass used to the wilderness, that snuffs up the wind at her pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they who seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her. (In Verses 23 through 25, Judah is compared to the camel and to the ass, which, in the mating season, run hither and thither after the males, so that these need not weary themselves in searching for them. Thus, Judah ran after idols!)

25 Withhold your foot from being unshod, and your throat from thirst: but you said, There is no hope: no; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go. (Concerning her love for God, Judah said, "No, I love strange gods, and after them will I go"; but the result was shame to their kings, their princes, their Priests, and their Prophets.)

ISRAEL'S IDOLATRY

26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the House of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their Priests, and their Prophets (the blame for Judah's plight is laid at the feet of her spiritual leaders),

27 Saying to a stock, You are my father; and to a stone, You have brought me forth: for they have turned their back unto Me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us. (Judah forsook God as their Father, and worshipped idols. These idols were given credit for Israel's inheritance, as modern psychology is given credit today! The Holy Spirit warns that "a time of trouble" is coming, and then "they will say, Arise, and save us." However, it will then be too late!)

28 But where are your gods that you have made for yourself? let them arise, if they can save you in the time of your trouble: for according to the number of your cities are your gods, O Judah. (The impotency of idols and the mental degradation of idolaters are the sad burden of Verses 27 and 28.)

PUNISHMENT IS AT HAND

29 Wherefore will you plead with Me? you all have transgressed against Me, says the LORD. (The question, "Wherefore will you plead with Me?" refers to Judah's audacity at attempting to justify herself!)

30 In vain have I smitten your children; they received no correction: your own sword has devoured your Prophets, like a destroying lion. ("In vain have I smitten your children," refers to the fact that the Lord brought corrective judgments on Judah, but to no avail! However, "they received no correction," meaning that Judah, despite their chastisements, would not be corrected. Instead, they killed the very ones, i.e., "your Prophets," sent to warn them. As well, their attitude was like a "destroying lion," implying that they did such with a hatred, a vengeance, and malice, which ultimately resulted in their murder of the Messiah.)

31 O generation, see you the Word of the LORD. Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? wherefore say My People, We are lords; we will come no more unto You? (The Lord is asking Judah the question, "Did He lead them into privation and misery?" Of course not! God does not lead His People in lowliness and darkness, but into light and fellowship. The last line of this Verse, "We are lords; we will come no more unto You?" refers to Judah's independence of God. In other words, they were saying, "We are our own master; we prefer the religion of Moloch to that of Jehovah!")

32 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet My People have forgotten Me days without number. (It was completely contrary to nature for Judah to forget God.)

33 Why do you trim your way to seek love? therefore have you also taught the wicked ones your ways. (The "wicked ones" actually mean "wicked women." The idolatrous nations are here compared to debauched women having Judah as their teacher in vileness. It is a sad fact that the rejecter of Biblical Truth falls to a lower moral level than those who have never heard the Gospel.)

34 Also in your skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by secret search, but upon all these. (The "poor innocents" refer to the "helpless." The accusation is: the evidence of Judah's guilt as the destroyer of God's Servants is so visible that a search is not needed.)

35 Yet you say, Because I am innocent, surely His Anger shall turn from me. Behold, I will plead with you, because you say, I have not sinned. (Someone has said, "A revival which is not based upon conviction of sin and the certainty of God's Wrath is a false revival!" Even at this late date, with the cup of iniquity running over, Judah claims "innocence," and then brazenly says, "I have not sinned.")

36 Why do you gad about so much to change your way? you also shall be ashamed of Egypt, as you were ashamed of Assyria. (The question, "Why do you gad about in order to change your way?" refers to the different political parties in Judah, which were seeking alliances, first in this place and then in another. In other words, Judah is no longer being led by the Lord, but rather by men.

"You also shall be ashamed of Egypt," refers to such efforts bringing no lasting solid results.)

37 Ye s, you shall go forth from him, and your hands upon your head: for the LORD has rejected your confidences, and you shall not prosper in them. (Confident schemes which repose upon human promises and which ignore God never prosper. "For the LORD has rejected your confidences," refers to the fact that God will not allow these alliances, or proposed alliances, to prosper. They were not of Him, so He would not sanction them. Such is God with all the schemes of men!)

CHAPTER 3

THE PEOPLE REFUSE TO REPENT

[1] They say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted? but you have played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to Me, says the LORD. (The question, "... and become another man's, shall he return unto her again?", refers to the Command in Deut. 24:1-4. The Holy Spirit is likening Judah to a "harlot" who has gone to "many lovers," i.e., idols, and puts her in the same class as the forbidden one of Deut. 24:1-4. Yet Judah was invited to return! Did God then propose to violate His Own Law?

The answer is found in Rom. 7:1-4. This Passage reveals the Divine method of Sanctification, and sets out its impossibility under the bondage of Law and its certainty under the freedom of Grace.

The argument here is: just as the death of the Saviour is the only force that can liberate from the claims of sin, so is it the only force that can liberate from the claims of the Law.

Paul, in Rom. 7:1-4, illustrates two husbands — the Law and Christ. Union with the Law is bondage and brings forth "fruit unto death," while union with Christ is freedom and brings forth "Fruit unto God."

The Law does not die, neither is its Divine authority affected. On the contrary, its righteous requirements are satisfied by the Fruit brought forth under the Grace of God, made possible by the death of Christ, and the Believer's death in Christ [Rom. 6:3-5].

The old Israel was to die, and a new Israel to be created; and thus, the foul harlot of this Chapter shall become the spotless Bride of Rev. 19:7-8.

Jesus satisfied the demands of the Law in that He died, suffering its judgment for our transgression and, therefore, satisfied its penalty. Now, in Christ, I am free, and so can Israel be free. On the basis of the price that Christ paid, the Lord can now say to Israel, and by faith then could say, "yet return again to Me, says the LORD.")

[2] Lift up your eyes unto the high places, and see where you have not been lien with. In the ways have you sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and you have polluted the land with your whoredoms and with your wickedness. ("As the Arabian in the wilderness," refers to their thirst for plunder, and is likened to Israel's thirst for idolatry.)

[3] Therefore the showers have been withheld, and there has been no latter rain; and you had a whore's forehead, you refused to be ashamed. (The Lord withheld the rains, thereby stunting the crops, trying to get Judah to repent, but to no avail! In effect, the Holy Spirit is saying that Judah is so far gone that they now have a "whore's forehead," meaning that they were so spiritually obstinate and stubborn that they had no inclination to turn to the Lord.)

[4] Will you not from this time cry unto Me, My Father, You are the guide of my youth? (The language, "My Father," was insincere.)

[5] Will He reserve His Anger forever? Will He keep it to the end? Behold, you have spoken and done evil things as you could. (These Passages probe deep into the heart of wayward Judah, revealing not only her actions, but her thoughts, and even the intent of her thoughts. The power of such preaching was enough to turn anyone to God, but Judah still would not heed the admonition of the Lord to "return.")

JUDAH'S SIN AND BACKSLIDING

[6] The LORD said also unto me in the days of Josiah the king, Have you seen that which backsliding Israel has done? she is gone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there has played the harlot. (In Verses 6 through 11, the Northern Kingdom is contrasted with the Southern, and the latter is charged with deeper guilt than the former because she added treachery to apostasy.

The warning is: Judah sits in the same seat of judgment as her wayward sister of years past!)

7 And I said after she had done all these things, Turn you unto Me. But she returned not. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it. (Judah had been an observer to all that had happened in the Northern Kingdom. She heard, saw, witnessed, and experienced the appeal made to Ephraim. She saw her destruction, and knew the reason why! Therefore, her sin was against light, which is the greatest sin of all!)

8 And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also. (The "adultery" named here is "spiritual adultery," i.e., in this case, consorting with idols. As stated, in Rom. 7:1-4, the Apostle Paul likens the Believer who makes the object of his faith something other than Christ as a "spiritual adulterer."

"And given her a bill of divorce," refers to the fact that the Northern Kingdom of Israel forsook the Lord, and not that the Lord forsook them.)

9 And it came to pass through the lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with stocks. ("Committed adultery with stones and with stocks," refers to the worship of idols, some of which were made of "stone." The word "stocks" refers to the manner in which the idols were worshipped.

Is the Lord presently accusing the modern Church of "committing spiritual adultery"? To be sure, if the object of faith for the Believer is anything other than Christ and Him Crucified, then "spiritual adultery" is definitely being committed [Rom. 7:1-4].)

10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah has not turned unto Me with her whole heart, but feignedly, says the LORD. (Judah professed attachment to the Law, but it was a feigned loyalty; and, untaught by the judgment that had fallen upon the Ten Tribes, she secretly and even openly practiced idolatry.

"Whole heart," gives us the manner and, in fact, the only manner, which God will accept! He will not accept a repentance that continues sinning with impunity!)

11 And the LORD said unto me, The backsliding Israel has justified herself more than treacherous Judah. (The reason for Judah's treacherous condition was because of the great light that had been given to her by the advent of at least some Godly kings, when, in fact, Israel did not have a single Godly king! To whom much is given, much is required.)

REPENTANCE WILL RELEASE GOD'S MERCY

12 Go and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, you backsliding Israel, says the LORD; and I will not cause My Anger to fall upon you: for I am merciful, says the LORD, and I will not keep anger forever. (This second prophetic Message was sent by the Holy Spirit through Jeremiah to the Ten Tribes, then and now, in captivity. It assured them that the proclamation of Cyrus, which would be given about 100 years later, would embrace them as well as the exiles of Judah. It must have nourished the faith of those in that dispersion who feared God and loved His Word. The amazing love, pity, and Grace of God for those captives appear in every sentence of this Message.)

13 Only acknowledge your iniquity, that you have transgressed against the LORD your God, and have scattered your ways to the strangers under every green tree, and you have not obeyed My Voice, says the LORD. (The one condition of acceptance is the acknowledgment of one's guilt and a sincere desire to break with sin, which is repeated in each Verse [Vss. 13, 21, 4:1]. This is, in all dispensations, the one fundamental condition accompanying true Repentance.)

14 Turn, O backsliding children, sa ys the LORD; for I am married unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion (this thrice repeated invitation has never yet been fully responded to by the Ten Tribes, but will be in the future, and then God will bring to Zion all who accept it.

The statement, "I am married to the backslider," is derived from this Verse. Here, Jehovah repeats His invitation, assuring Israel that He does not consider the marriage bonds broken. But yet, every indication is that unless they return, they will be eternally lost! This Passage, therefore, destroys the erroneous idea of "unconditional eternal security"):

15 And I will give you Pastors according to My Heart, who shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. (This will take place in the coming Kingdom Age, but not before.)

16 And it shall come to pass, when you be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, sa ys the LORD, they shall say no more, The Ark of the Covenant of the LORD: neither shall it come to mind: neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it; neither shall that be done any more. ("In those days," refers to the future time of Restoration. The "Ark," which was a symbol, will be replaced by Christ Himself, i.e., the Throne, which will be the reality. The Ark and the Glory which shone above it characterize the First Covenant; the Throne, with the Messiah sitting on it, will characterize the Second.

"Neither shall they visit it," should have been translated "miss it." The "Ark" will no longer be needed as a symbol of God's Personal Presence, for the Lord Himself will be Personally present [Ezek. 34:7; Zech. 14:9; Rev. 11:15; 21:3-6; 22:4-5]. This will take place in the coming Kingdom Age.)

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the Throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the Name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the imagination of their evil heart. (The words, "At that time," refer to the coming Kingdom Age, when Christ will reign supreme from Jerusalem. Actually, this city will serve as His "Throne.")

18 In those days the House of Judah shall walk with the House of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers. (In the coming Kingdom Age, Israel will be no more divided as it was in the days of Jeremiah, but will again become one nation.)

[19] But I said, How shall I put you among the children, and give you a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, You shall call Me, my Father; and shall not turn away from Me. (The question, "How shall I put you among the children, and give you a pleasant land?", refers to God's great question in bringing Israel to a place of Repentance in order that He can fulfill the Everlasting Covenants with them, and give them the land as originally promised!

This will be accomplished, but not without great tribulation, suffering, and sorrow, which will take place in the coming Great Tribulation [Mat. 24:21].)

A CALL FOR CONFESSION OF SIN

[20] Surely as a wife treacherously departs from her husband, so have you dealt treacherously with Me, O House of Israel, says the LORD. (In this Passage, the Lord bluntly reminds Israel of her former "treachery." He uses as an example the "unfaithful wife." He likens Himself to Israel's "Husband.")

[21] A voice was heard upon the high places, weeping and supplications of the Children of Israel: for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God. (Verses 12 through 20 are spoken by the Messiah; Verse 21, by the returning supplicants; the first part of Verse 22, by the Messiah again; and the rest of the Chapter, by the returning exiles.

"They have forgotten the LORD their God," refers now to some 2,600 years. It is a long time to forget the Lord; during this time, Israel has suffered as few have suffered!)

[22] Return, you backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we come unto You; for You are the LORD our God. (This will be the call of the Messiah to wayward Israel, immediately after His Second Coming. Finally, their response will be positive.)

23 Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: truly in the LORD our God is the Salvation of Israel. (The argument of this Verse is that as surely as deliverance is vainly hoped for from the multitude of idols placed on the hills and mountains, so surely is Salvation a certitude when sought from Jehovah.

Hence, the Psalmist said he would not lift up his eyes to the hills, that is, to the idols on the hills, for no Salvation was to be obtained from them, but he would lift up his eyes to Jehovah [Ps. 121:1].)

24 For shame has devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth; their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. (Serving God enriches and ennobles; serving idols degrades and impoverishes. The "flocks and herds" refer to animals being offered in sacrifice to idols. As well, "sons and daughters," during the time of these "backslidings," were offered as human sacrifice to idols [Lev. 18:21; 20:2-5; II Ki. 23:10; Jer. 32:35].)

25 We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covers us: for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the Voice of the LORD our God. (In the Fall, man took control of his life out of the Hands of God, placing it into his own domain, i.e., Satan. "Shame" and "confusion" are the result! Now Israel confesses her sin and rebellion, even from the beginning. Now there is no hedging or efforts at self-justification. A free and open admission of sin and failure is tendered: "and have not obeyed the Voice of the LORD our God."

This prayer and action of Repentance will take place immediately after the Second Coming of the Lord.)

CHAPTER 4

(612 B.C.)

GOD CALLED ISRAEL BY HIS PROMISE

[1] If you will return, O Israel, says the LORD, return unto Me: and if you will put away your abominations out of My Sight, then shall you not remove.

[2] And you shall swear, The LORD lives, in Truth, in Judgment, and in Righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in Him, and in Him shall they glory. (The Lord Jesus Christ Himself is Salvation. The closing words of this Prophecy could well be paraphrased: "If you shall put away your abominations out of My Sight, and will not wander from Me, and will worship Me, the Living God, sincerely, justly, and righteously, then shall the nations bless themselves in Him [the Messiah] and in Him shall they glory.")

[3] For thus says the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns. (The previous Prophecy has ended; a new one commences. "Fallow ground" is ground that is unbroken, in a natural state, covered with briars and weeds. It pictures the natural heart of man, which must be broken and contrite before it can receive the good seed of the Kingdom. The call here was to break up their idols. This was a necessary condition of Forgiveness and Deliverance.)

[4] Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, you men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: lest My Fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. (Circumcision of the heart is spoken of three times in the Old Testament, here and in Deut. 10:16 and 30:6. It is frequently met with in the New Testament [Rom. 2:28-29; Phil. 3:3; Col. 2:11]. Such is meant by the Holy Spirit to move the people away from mere religious ceremony to a true heart experience.)

JUDAH THREATENED WITH JUDGMENT

5 Declare you in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow you the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together, and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defenced cities. (The Holy Spirit through Jeremiah looks ahead some 15 years to the coming calamity of Judah's and Jerusalem's fall and proclaims what they will do! Along with a portrait, the Holy Spirit cries for Repentance on the part of the people, which would avoid this coming catastrophe! Sadly, it will not be heeded.)

6 Set up the standard toward Zion: retire, stay not: for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction. ("Set up the standard toward Zion," referred to a tall pole with a flag, pointing in the direction of Zion, for the guidance of fugitives. They would be running away from the coming Babylonians, hoping to find safety in Jerusalem.

The words, "Retire, stay not," refer to the fact that they should not linger, but rather hurry!

The "evil from the north" refers to the coming invasion by Nebuchadnezzar.

The "great destruction" was carried out in totality. The streets of Jerusalem ran red with blood, with the Temple being totally destroyed!)

7 The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make your land desolate; and your cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant. ("The lion" was Nebuchadnezzar. His invasion was so certain that the Prophet speaks of him here as already issued from his lair and on his way to destroy Jerusalem.)

8 For this gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl: for the fierce Anger of the LORD is not turned back from us. (The first phrase of the Scripture refers to that which will take place during the time of the coming judgment;

however, the time of Repentance is now, for then it will be too late! As far as personal Salvation is concerned, it is never too late for men to repent; nevertheless, Repentance can be delayed too long for judgment to be stopped, even though personal Salvation is given! Regrettably, with Judah, there was very little Repentance enjoined.)

9 And it shall come to pass at that day, sa ys the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the Priests shall be astonished, and the Prophets shall wonder. ("The heart" in Old Testament language is the center of intellectual as well as of moral life. "At that day," refers to the time of the coming invasion by the Babylonians. "And the Priests shall be astonished, and the Prophets shall wonder," refers to those who thought that surely, because of their sacred positions as "God's chosen People," Judgment would never come! These "Priests" and "Prophets" busily engaged in their constant religious pursuits, paid no heed to Jeremiah, but actually held him in scorn. The idea that they needed Repentance, at least in their thinking, was laughable!)

10 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! surely You have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, You shall have peace; whereas the sword reaches unto the soul. (Although somewhat cluttered in the translation, the meaning of this statement concerns the preaching of the false prophets. In contrast to Jeremiah's Prophecies, they were saying to the people, "You shall have peace." In this, they greatly deceived the people and Jerusalem.

The meaning is that God permitted these false prophets to greatly deceive the people. This was just Judgment pronounced by the Lord, because the people refused to listen to the truth, and they preferred falsehood. If they preferred such, and they did, God allowed them to have such.)

11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of My People, not to fan, nor to cleanse *(in Verses 11 through 13, the Chaldean army is compared to a hurricane from the wilderness; it would be sanctioned by the Lord as God's instrument of Wrath),

12 Even a full wind from those places shall come unto Me: now also will I give sentence against them. ("Now also will I give sentence against them," actually says, "as they [Judah] have sinned against Me, so will I also now hold a court of justice upon them.")

[13] Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! for we are spoiled. (This Verse signals the coming invasion by Nebuchadnezzar.)

JUDAH CALLED TO REPENTANCE

[14] O Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness, that you may be Saved. How long shall your vain thoughts lodge within you? (The "vain thoughts" concern the idea that their idols would save them, or that the Egyptians would deliver them from the Chaldeans. They were not looking to God, but rather to man. They would find it a poor choice!)

[15] For a voice declares from Dan, and publishes affliction from Mount Ephraim. (Verses 15 through 17 describe the messengers from the northern towns reporting the advance of the Chaldeans, and then their invasion of Jerusalem. The Prophet sees this as happening at present, even though it will be some 15 years in the future. The Holy Spirit does it in this fashion hopefully to get the people to repent. But sadly, there was no Repentance!)

[16] Make you mention to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah. ("Make ye mention to the nations," refers to the surrounding nations that border Judah. They would not escape this carnage either! "Behold, publish against Jerusalem," refers to judgment that is determined against this city, even though it is the City of God. It is because of the wickedness of the "heart," as listed in Verse 14.

The "watchers" refer to the Babylonian besiegers, who watched for people to come from besieged Jerusalem, as well as from other cities, in order to kill them.)

[17] As keepers of a field, are they against her round about; because she has been rebellious against Me, says the LORD. ("As keepers of a field," refers to individuals who guard crops and vineyards. The Babylonian army would lay siege to Jerusalem in the same manner.)

18 Your way and your doings have procured these things unto you; this is your wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reaches unto your heart. (The cause of all this is not God, but "your wickedness." The Fourteenth Verse records the cure!)

JEREMIAH LAMENTS OVER JUDAH

19 My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart makes a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because you have heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. ("My bowels, my bowels!" proclaims the intensity with which Jeremiah felt the pain of what he was being told. "Because you have heard, O my soul," means that Jeremiah actually saw in his spirit the coming destruction and "heard" the din of battle and the literal screams of the people. He felt it to the depths of his "soul." Such is the true Prophet; such is the true Preacher!)

20 Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment. ("Destruction upon destruction is cried," refers to the Prophet seeing such devastation as defies description. Nothing is spared! The words, "And my curtains in a moment," refer to the door or flap of the entrance to the tent, meaning that the Babylonian soldiers would even come into the very tents in order to kill the wounded.)

21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet? (The idea of this Passage is that the Babylonians will not stop until their purpose is carried out, which is the destruction, total destruction, of Judah and Jerusalem.)

22 For My People is foolish, they have not known Me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge. (The last phrase, "They are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge," is striking! They would manufacture many ways to sin, i.e., "wise to do evil," but they had no knowledge of God, despite the fact that they were God's chosen People. Their lack of "knowledge" was because of their abandonment of the Bible. The knowledge to "do good" is found in the Bible, and only in the Bible!)

[23] I beheld the Earth, and, lo, it was without form, and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. (It is thought by some that Verses 23 through 26 pertain to the chaos of the original Earth after the rebellion of Lucifer. As such, it would apply to the first part of Gen. 1:2. No doubt, this is what the Holy Spirit had in mind, and He would use this as an example of what was going to happen to Judah and Jerusalem!)

[24] I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly. (As stated, this took place at the rebellion of Lucifer, which involved at least one-third of the angels, who attempted to usurp authority over God [Isa. 14:12-15].)

[25] I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled. (If, in fact, this does apply to Lucifer's rebellion, then this Verse tells us that there were men on the Earth in the original creation, before Lucifer's fall, and consequently before Adam and Eve. If that is correct, we then have here the origin of demons, which are the spirits of the race that lived on the Earth before Lucifer's rebellion, and their throwing in their lot with him.)

[26] I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the Presence of the LORD, and by His fierce Anger. (If these Verses 23 through 26 do speak to a pre-Adamic civilization, then not only were there men on the Earth at that time, but also "cities," as would be logical. Therefore, if we rightly divide the Word of Truth, we should associate Jer. 4:23-26 with Gen. 1:2 and II Pet. 3:5-6, recognizing that the terminology fits nothing else.)

JUDGMENT COMING BECAUSE OF SIN

[27] For thus has the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate; yet will I not make a full end. (Whereas the previous four Verses spoke of the pre-

Adamic creation and its destruction, this Verse now brings the Bible student back to the problem at hand, the coming judgment upon Judah and Jerusalem.)

[28] For this shall the Earth mourn, and the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turn back from it. (The statement, "I have purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turn back from it," states, in effect, that short of Repentance on the part of Judah and Jerusalem, nothing will deter this coming judgment!

The statement, "For this shall the Earth mourn, and the heavens above be black," refers to the Spiritual Light that was given to the world by Israel, but which will now be stifled! The only nation in the world to point the heathen to God was Israel, and now that light is to be extinguished. Consequently, the Earth will "mourn.")

[29] The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein. (The "whole city" speaks of Jerusalem.)

[30] And when you are spoiled, what will you do? Though you clothe yourself with crimson, though you deck yourself with ornaments of gold, though you rent your face with painting, in vain shall you make yourself fair; your lovers will despise you, they will seek your life. ("Your lovers," refers to heathen powers courted by Judah and Jerusalem, which did not come to their help, and which now hold Jerusalem in contempt. Jerusalem courted the heathen, but she would not court the Lord. He would have given her life, while these "lovers" took "your life.")

[31] For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her who brings forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, who bewails herself, who spreads her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul is wearied because of murderers. (Thus, Zion's soul "fainted before the murderers," i.e., the Babylonians. The "woman in travail" is Jerusalem, who weeps over her destruction and the slaughter of her inhabitants. The Holy Spirit likens it to birth pains, but, in reality, it will be death pains. Her cry is, "Woe is me now!" At any time, she could have said, "Forgive me now," and the prayer would have been instantly answered, and this catastrophe avoided!)

CHAPTER 5

THE SINS AND PERVERSENESS OF JUDAH

[1] Run you to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if you can find a man, if there be any who executes judgment, who seeks the Truth; and I will pardon it. (Other than Jeremiah's little flock, there seemed to be no one in Jerusalem, be they Priest or Prophet, who "executed judgment and sought the Truth." Jerusalem was that far gone, and yet precious few would have even remotely considered such!

Other than Jeremiah and his little flock, there was not a single "man" who sought the Ways of the Lord. What an indictment!)

[2] And though they say, The LORD lives; surely they swear falsely. (The words, "swear falsely," mean "to worship insincerely." Their worship was false, and they even associated idols with the Lord.)

[3] O LORD, are not Your Eyes upon the Truth? You have stricken them, but they have not grieved; You have consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return. ("O LORD, are not Your Eyes upon the Truth?", refers to the Bible. Judah had forsaken the Truth, and would not "receive correction.")

[4] Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for they know not the Way of the LORD, nor the Judgment of their God. (The words, "surely these are poor," refer to Jerusalem being poverty-stricken in a spiritual sense, while very wealthy in a material sense. How much such mirrors the modern Church!)

[5] I will get Me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for they have known the Way of the LORD, and the Judgment of their God: but these have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds. (The "yoke" and "bonds" refer to the Bible. These "great men" rejected the Law of God as a binding authority, as corrupt Christendom does today.)

[6] Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall kill them, and a wolf of the evenings shall spoil them, a leopard shall watch over their cities: every one who goes out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased. (Foreign powers are given the names of wild animals, which would overrun and destroy Jerusalem. Because the sin was great, the Lord would not protect Judah from these enemies. The Lord Alone was their Protector. When they forsook Him, He in turn would have to forsake them. He would have no choice!)

[7] How shall I pardon you for this? your children have forsaken Me, and sworn by them that are no gods: when I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses. (The words, "When I had fed them to the full," refer to the Lord giving a full Revelation in the Pentateuch, and yet Israel practiced idolatry in response; they assembled themselves by troops in the temples of idols. The Lord could not pardon them for this, because they did not seek pardon, but rather went deeper into sin.)

[8] They were as fed horses in the morning: every one neighed after his neighbour's wife. (This Verse could read: "They were as fed [lustful] horses roaming at large, every one seeking his neighbor's god." The implication in these Verses does not pertain to literal adultery, although they were certainly guilty of such, but rather to forsaking the Word of God and resorting to other things.)

[9] Shall I not visit for these things? says the LORD: and shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation as this? (In this Verse, the Lord is speaking of the idol worship of Verses 7 and 8.)

[10] Go you up upon her walls, and destroy; but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are not the LORD's. ("But make not a full end," refers to Judah's degenerate members, who were to be removed, but the vine-stock, i.e., the believing kernel of the nation was to be left. It is the keynote of that which Jeremiah spoke of in 4:27.)

GOD WILL CONSUME JUDAH

11 For the House of Israel and the House of Judah have dealt very treacherously against Me, says the LORD. (Here the Lord speaks of both "Israel" and "Judah," even though Israel had been completely destroyed a little over 100 years before. He concluded both to have committed spiritual high treason. He uses the words, "against Me," referring to the fact that all sin is directed by Satan against God.)

12 They have belied the LORD, and said, It is not He; neither shall evil come upon us; neither shall we see sword nor famine ("It is not He," refers to the fact that Judah denied that God was speaking through Jeremiah.

*"They have belied the LORD," means to give a false representation of something, or to contradict):

13 And the Prophets shall become wind, and the Word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them. (Verses 12 and 13 could be paraphrased: "They have contradicted Jehovah, and said, 'Not He!' Neither shall calamity come upon us, neither shall we see sword nor famine; for the Prophets [i.e. Jehovah's True Prophets] are windbags, and the Word [of God] is not in them; and the miseries which they threaten will come upon themselves!"

Thus, the popular Preachers of that time, as at the present day, said that God never punishes sin and sinners; that He never casts anyone into the Lake of Fire; that, in fact, there is no Lake of Fire; and that those Preachers who announce His coming Wrath belie His Character and talk nonsense.)

14 Wherefore thus says the LORD God of Hosts, Because you speak this Word, behold, I will make My Words in your mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them. (The "fire" that would "devour them" would be the anointing of the Holy Spirit upon Jeremiah. Yet for all this, Judah would not turn.)

15 Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far, O House of Israel, says the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you know not, neither understand what they say. (This nation speaks of the mighty Babylonian Empire.)

16 Their quiver is as a open sepulchre, they are all mighty men. (The idea of this Passage, as given by the Holy Spirit, is to portray the cruelty and the power of the Babylonian invader, all used as the instruments of the Lord.)

17 And they shall eat up your harvest, and your bread, which your sons and your daughters should eat: they shall eat up your flocks and your herds: they shall eat up your vines and your fig trees: they shall impoverish your fenced cities, wherein you trusted, with the sword. ("Which your sons and your daughters should eat," in the original Hebrew actually says, "They shall eat your sons and your daughters," meaning they would be killed!)

18 Nevertheless in those days, says the LORD, I will not make a full end with you. (God's tender pity for guilty men is revealed in the sentences: "I will pardon her" [Vs. 1], but "not make a full end" [Vs. 10], and "I will not make a full end with you" [Vs. 18].)

19 And it shall come to pass, when you shall say, Wherefore does the LORD our God all these things unto us? then shall you answer them, Like as you have forsaken Me, and served strange gods in your land, so shall you serve strangers in a land that is not yours. (The intent of this Passage is that inasmuch as the Jews served foreign gods in Jehovah's Land, they shall become the slaves of foreigners in a land that is not theirs.)

SPIRITUAL AND CIVIL CORRUPTION BRINGS JUDGMENT AND PUNISHMENT

20 Declare this in the House of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying (Jeremiah is told to proclaim this Message to the people of Judah. It is to be "published," meaning to be proliferated among the people)**,

21 Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; who have eyes, and see not; who have ears, and hear not ("without understanding," actually means "without heart"; it means that the people have no heart toward God; they have set a course of deliberate sin, which always perverts a man's moral perceptions; the Prophet first of all states the result, and then the cause.

The statement, "Who have eyes and see not," refers to judicial blindness. In other words, they desired to be such!):

22 Fear you not Me? says the LORD: will you not tremble at My Presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it? (The sense of the Passage is that the sands of the seashore obey God, but His People disobey Him. They disobey Him because they have no "fear" of Him!)

23 But this people has a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone. (The "heart" is the center of the moral and Spiritual Life, virtually equivalent to "the will." "A rebellious heart," refers to actively defying and opposing the Lord. "A revolting heart" refers to turning back from God's Law and service.)

24 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, Who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in His Season: He reserves unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest. (In this Verse, we have another "perpetual decree," as outlined in Verse 22. This one is the "rain" and "appointed weeks of the harvest." The word "perpetual" in Verse 22 means that these Laws are eternal, and consequently the seasons are eternal and unchangeable, and made so by God's Decree [Gen. 8:22]. The "appointed weeks" are the seven weeks which elapse from the second day of the Passover to the "Feast of Pentecost" [Ex. 23:16; 34:22; Deut.

25 Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withheld good things from you. (Let the reader understand that as "sin withheld good things from Judah," likewise, sin withholds good things from any and all.)

26 For among My People are found wicked men: they lay wait, as he who sets snares; they set a trap, they catch men. (Who are these wicked men? They are the "Priests, Pastors, and Prophets" of 2:8. They, in their religious schemes, have no desire to carry out the Will of God, but rather to "catch men" in their web in order to sustain their lavish lifestyles. How so similar to the modern "Word of Faith" doctrine or "greed gospel"!)

27 As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxed rich. (This Verse could be paraphrased: "As a cage is full of birds caught in traps, so their houses are full of riches secured by deceit." God is not opposed to greatness or riches as such, but is deadly opposed to such obtained by Spiritual Fraud and Spiritual Deceit.)

28 They are waxed fat, they shine: yes, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge. ("Yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked," literally means "they overpass the common measure of wickedness." This was the sin that opposed Christ, the sin of the Pharisees.

"They judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless," refers to the fact that their prosperity was at the expense of the poor, and even the poorest of the poor!)

29 Shall I not visit for these things? sa ys the LORD: shall not My Soul be avenged on such a nation as this? (This Verse is a repetition of Verse 9, in order to impress the severity of the situation! This, as Verse 9, carries powerful weight, because it answers the charges of the preceding Verses.)

30 A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land (the words, “wonderful and horrible,” could have been translated “appalling and horrible.” The word “appalling” means “stupefying”);

31 The Prophets prophesy falsely, and the Priests bear rule by their means; and My People love to have it so: and what will you do in the end thereof? (The Priests were appointed to teach the Law. They failed to do so! God then raised up the Prophets to teach the people, but Satan sent out false prophets to oppose and confuse the Truth, and the Priests united with them.)

CHAPTER 6

THE DESTRUCTION OF JERUSALEM PROPHESIED

[1] O you Children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up a sign of fire in Beth-haccerem: for evil appears out of the north, and great destruction. ("O you Children of Benjamin," refers to the Tribe of Benjamin, which bordered the Tribe of Judah. Strangely enough, Jerusalem was not locally a city of Judah, at all. In fact, it belonged, strictly speaking, to the Tribe of Benjamin.

The "evil that appeared out of the north" referred to the Babylonian armies.)

[2] I have likened the daughter of Zion to a comely and delicate woman. (The Lord likened Israel, Jerusalem, Zion, and Judah unto a woman. As such, she was called His Wife, and He, her Husband [3:1, 8; 31:32; Isa. 54:5]. He also likened her departure to idols unto unfaithfulness, and called it "adultery," i.e., "spiritual adultery.")

[3] The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place. (The shepherds and their flocks were the Babylonian generals and their soldiers. They would surround Jerusalem, laying siege to the city.)

[4] Prepare y ou war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe unto us! for the day goes away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. (The Babylonians are the speakers of Verses 4 and 5. In their eagerness to capture Jerusalem, they fight in the burning heat of the midday, lament that the evening hinders their operations, and resolve to fight by night and destroy her palaces. And so it came to pass.

"Woe unto us!" presents the Holy Spirit attempting to impress upon Judah the lateness of the hour! The "day" of Repentance is fast slipping away, with the "shadows" of the "evening" growing longer by the moment. Judah simply does not have much time left!)

5 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces. (The Holy Spirit would proclaim, a little more than 15 years before the actual happening, the actual terminology of the Babylonians and their intent.)

6 For thus has the LORD of Hosts said, Hew y ou down trees, and cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her. ("This is the city to be visited," means "punished." The reason for this punishment is given in the words, "she is wholly oppression in the midst of her," referring to the oppression by the strong and the mighty against the poor, helpless, and dispossessed.)

7 As a fountain casts out her waters, so she casts out her wickedness: violence and spoil is heard in her; before Me continually is grief and wounds. (The "grief and wounds" were afflicted on the poor by their rich oppressors. The words, "Before Me," mean rather "before My Face." God sees it, and is determined to take vengeance on the oppressors!)

8 Be you instructed, O Jerusalem, lest My Soul depart from you; lest I make you desolate, a land not inhabited. (The words, "Be you instructed, O Jerusalem," actually mean "Let yourself be corrected." It means to accept the warning conveyed in the Divine admonition.)

9 Thus sa ys the LORD of Hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back your hand as a grapegatherer into the baskets. (As a grapegatherer keeps putting the grapes into his basket and causes his hand to return to the basket until he has gleaned all the grapes, so is it predicted here that Nebuchadnezzar would keep returning to Jerusalem until he had taken away all of its inhabitants.)

10 To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the Word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it. (The words, "Behold, their ear is uncircumcised," tell us the reason for their Spiritual Impotence. They had forsaken the Word of God.)

[11] Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him who is full of days. ("Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD," refers to Jeremiah personally. "I am weary with holding in," refers to Jeremiah sincerely attempting to keep his personal feelings out of that which he was to deliver. He here proclaims that he could no longer do so!)

[12] And their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out My Hand upon the inhabitants of the land, says the LORD. (The Judgment of this Verse was that predicted in Deut. 28:30.)

[13] For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is give n to covetousness; and from the Prophet even unto the Priest every one deals falsely. (This indictment by the Holy Spirit is severe indeed! The words, "given to covetousness," mean "gaineth gain." However, the word rendered here "gain" implies that it is unrighteous gain. The root means "to tear," referring to taking things by force from the helpless.

The "Prophet" and the "Priest" are included in this group! In other words, money had become their pursuit instead of God.)

[14] They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of My People slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. (When an unconverted man is disquieted [hurt] about death and the Judgment sure to follow [Heb. 11:27], fashionable Preachers heal "the hurt" with a false peace-plaster. They assure him that there is no Judgment to come and, thus, they deal falsely. But they themselves shall perish with their dupes, as is told us in the next Verse.)

[15] Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them who fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, says the LORD. ("Therefore they shall fall among them who fall," refers to the "Prophets and Priests" of Verse 13, who would fall with their dupes. All would go down!

The question, "Were they ashamed?" referring to their "abominations," refers to the fact that they were not only not ashamed, but attempted to make the Lord a part of their terrible sin by claiming that He was blessing them, regarding their ill-gotten gains from "covetousness.")

16 Thus says the LORD, Stand you in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and you shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein. (True rest and healing is to be found in "the old paths" and "the good way," that is, the Gospel as taught in the Bible. "Stand you in the ways," refers to the ardent seeking of the Ways of God.)

17 Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Hearken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken. (With the word "watchmen," a metaphor is used by the Holy Spirit describing the high watchtower [Hab. 2:1], from which the "watchmen," i.e., Prophets, scrutinized the horizon for the first appearance of danger, and gave warning of it by blowing a trumpet.

Once again, the Holy Spirit gives an Altar Call, "But they said, We will not hearken.")

18 Therefore hear, you nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them. (The nations surrounding Judah were to hear this Message, as well!)

19 Hear, O Earth: behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto My Words, nor to My Law, but rejected it. ("Behold, I will bring evil upon this people," is because of their refusal and rejection of the Bible. "The fruit of their thoughts," is strong indeed! It refers to the determination of the people not to hearken to the Word of the Lord.)

[20] To what purpose comes there to Me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto Me. (When the Holy Scriptures are thrust aside, incense and burnt offerings become abominable to God. Placing faith in the ceremony instead of in what the ceremony represented, namely, Christ and Him Crucified, presents the wrong object of faith, which God can never accept.)

[21] Therefore thus says the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumblingblocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish. ("Behold, I will lay stumblingblocks before this people," refers to the coming invader, the Babylonians.)

[22] Thus says the LORD, Behold, a people comes from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the Earth. (This refers to the Babylonians.)

[23] They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roars like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against you, O daughter of Zion. (The Holy Spirit in this Passage goes to great lengths to explain to Judah and Jerusalem exactly as to the "cruelty" and lack of "mercy" among the Babylonians.)

[24] We have heard the fame thereof: our hands wax feeble: anguish has taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail. (The horror will know no bounds!)

[25] Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side. (When this time comes, if the people feel they can escape by fleeing the city, this Passage proclaims the opposite!)

[26] O daughter of My People, gird you with sackcloth, and wallow yourself in ashes: make you mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us. (Yet again in this Verse, a love which calls these idolaters and oppressors, "My People," cries aloud to them to repent, but in vain. "The spoiler" is Nebuchadnezzar.)

[27] I have set you for a tower and a fortress among My People, that you may know and try their way. (In Verses 27 through 30, God speaks Personally to Jeremiah and, under the figure of an assayer of metals, commands him to expose the corruption of the people, and so demonstrate that they refused to yield to Truth and were morally "refuse-silver." "Tower" and "fortress" should read "assayer" and "examiner" or "scrutinizer.")

[28] They are all grievous revolters, walking with slanders: they are brass and iron; they are all corrupters. ("They are all corrupters," refers to the fact that not only are they corrupted, but they seek to corrupt all others, as well!)

[29] The bellows are burned, the lead is consumed of the fire; the founder melts in vain: for the wicked are not plucked away. (The assayer has spared no trouble, all the rules of his art have been obeyed, but no silver appears as a result of the process.)

[30] Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the LORD has rejected them. (So was it with Israel! The furnace of affliction, though very hot, failed to separate the dross, with the result that God adjudged the nation as refuse-silver.)

CHAPTER 7

JEREMIAH CALLS FOR REPENTANCE

[1] The Word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying (the date of the original utterance of this Prophecy seems to have been either the early years or at the midpoint of the reign of Jehoiakim. If that, in fact, is the case, this Prophecy was probably about 5 to 7 years before the first excursion by Nebuchadnezzar)**,

[2] Stand in the gate of the LORD's House, and proclaim there this Word, and say, Hear the Word of the LORD, all you of Judah, who enter in at these gates to worship the LORD. ("Who enter in at these gates to worship the LORD," bespoke the idea that people were constantly coming and going regarding their worship of God, but, in reality, it was "worship" that God would not accept.)

[3] Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. (Once again, the Holy Spirit gives an Altar Call. "And I will cause you to dwell in this place," referred to Jerusalem, and the inheritance that he had originally given them. Once again, the choice is placed before them! Once again, they refused to heed!)

[4] Trust you not in lying words, saying, The Temple of the LORD, The Temple of the LORD, The Temple of the LORD, are these. (The Temple was of Divine Ordination. The men of Judah and Jerusalem had an idolatrous pride in it. They believed that its presence in their city secured their national independence and safety, and that its worship could be made to harmonize with the idolatry and injustice of Verses 6, 9, and 30.

The "lying words" of Verses 4 and 8 were: that the Temple, being the Temple of Jehovah, no calamity would come upon them.)

5 For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if you thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour (here the word "thoroughly" is introduced before the word "amend," lending more credence to the statement, and also saying that a partial repentance would not be accepted)**;

6 If you oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt (the Holy Spirit once again portrays the love and concern of the Lord for the helpless)**:

7 Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, forever and ever. (The words, "I will cause you to dwell in this place," as in Verse 3, have the addition in this Verse "forever and ever.")

SINS OF JUDAH

8 Behold, you trust in lying words, that cannot profit. (As stated, the "lying words" spoke of the claims of the religious leaders of Jerusalem, who asserted that by maintaining Temple worship, they would be protected from all evil. In the broader sense, "lying words" refer to anything and everything apart from the Bible. The Holy Spirit emphatically states that such "cannot profit"!)

9 Will you steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom you know not (the Passage may be thus read: "Is this your way of life — course of theft, murder, lying, and adultery?")**;

10 And come and stand before Me in this House, which is called by My Name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations? ("This House" refers to the Temple. The words, "Stand before Me," refer to God knowing not only the actions of these false worshippers, but also the thoughts and intent of their hearts.

The words, "And say, We are delivered to do all these abominations," refer to their erroneous thinking that their actions cleansed them from all past sins, and they were, therefore, free to continue in their present lifestyles.)

11 Is this House, which is called by My Name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, says the LORD. ("A den of robbers," is that which the Lord calls the people of Jerusalem. They were treating "His House" as a group of thieves would treat a gathering place where they congregated in order to drink, carouse, and even plan robberies.)

12 But go you now unto My Place which was in Shiloh, where I set My Name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of My People Israel. ("Shiloh" was to Israel during the time of the Judges what Jerusalem was to them during the kings. The Lord destroyed it, because of Israel's sin.)

JUDGMENT ON SIN

13 And now, because you have done all these works, says the LORD, and I spoke unto you, rising up early and speaking, but you heard not; and I called you, but you answered not *(the phrase, "Rising up early and speaking," refers to speaking zealously and continually, but yet without favorable response);

14 Therefore will I do unto this House, which is called by My Name, wherein you trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh. (The Prophet pointed to the ruin of Shiloh as illustrating the Wrath of God, which, when corruption enters, falls upon that which He Himself sets up; and He predicted a sure destruction for the Temple.)

15 And I will cast you out of My Sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim. (The expulsion of Ten Tribes over 100 years earlier should have warned Jerusalem; but it did not.)

JUDAH'S IDOLATRY

16 Therefore pray not you for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to Me: for I will not hear you. (To substitute the idols of man's religious will in place of Christ is the sin unto death of I Jn. 5:16. In this Verse, the Lord does not say that He would not forgive them, if they, in fact, came to Him with a broken heart in contrite Repentance! What He does say is that neither Jeremiah's intercession nor the intercession of anyone else would cause Him to change His Mind about their destruction, barring their Repentance.)

17 Do you not see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? (Their sin had become open and without shame! Man becomes what he worships.)

18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke Me to anger. (All ages, as represented by the "children, fathers, and women," were involved in these idolatrous acts, thus justifying the sweeping character of the Judgment, as described in 6:11. The word "queen" in "queen of heaven" is probably the Phoenician title of "Astarte." The Jews concluded that inasmuch as Jehovah created the heavens, the worship of that which He created was the same as worshipping Him [Rom. 1:25].)

19 Do they provoke Me to anger? says the LORD: do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces? ("Do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces?", refers to their confusing the Creator with the created; hence, they "changed the Truth of God into a lie.")

PUNISHMENT FOR JUDAH'S REBELLION

20 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, My Anger and My Fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched. (Man's rebellion against God brings suffering upon the animal creation and blight upon the vegetable kingdom, hence, the plight of this present world.)

[21] Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; Put your burnt offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh. (The flesh of the Burnt Offering was forbidden to be eaten by the worshipper [Lev., Chpt. 1], but that of some of the other Offerings permitted [Lev., Chpt. 4]. This Verse means that, so far as God was concerned, the Sacrifices had become hypocrisies, and they might eat them all, if they like; God accepted none of them.)

[22] For I spoke not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices (the Jews were attempting to make the Sacrifices into a rite of Salvation within themselves. They had lost all understanding as to what these Sacrifices represented, namely, the Coming Redeemer [Heb. 10:4]):

[23] But this thing commanded I them, saying, Obey My Voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be My People: and walk you in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you. (The condition for acceptance is obedience.)

[24] But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward. (Whenever man follows his own counsel, he always "goes backward and not forward." However, in the "imagination of his evil heart," he surely thinks he is improving upon God!)

[25] Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day I have even sent unto you all My Servants the Prophets, daily rising up early and sending them ("Daily rising up early and sending them," refers to the most opportune time, in order that the greatest number of people would hear and be given every opportunity):

[26] Yet they hearkened not unto Me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck: they did worse than their fathers. ("They hearkened not" is their indictment!)

27 Therefore you shall speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to you: you shall also call unto them; but they will not answer you. (Through foreknowledge, God knew that they "would not hearken to Jeremiah." He knew what the outcome would be, and yet He continued to call and plead, knowing it was useless, but doing so anyway!)

28 But you shall say unto them, This is a nation that obeys not the Voice of the LORD their God, nor receives correction: Truth is perished; and is cut off from their mouth. (As they trusted in "lying words" [Vs. 8], they then lost the "Truth.")

29 Cut off your hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the LORD has rejected and forsaken the generation of His Wrath. (The "cutting off of the hair" was a practice of the women of that day when they were rejected and forsaken. "And take up a lamentation on high places," refers to the fact that they worshipped idols there, so they should add the cut hair to their devotional offerings. The Lord is, of course, using sarcasm.

"The generation of His Wrath" refers to the generation on which His Wrath is to be poured out.)

30 For the Children of Judah have done evil in My Sight, says the LORD: they have set their abominations in the House which is called by My Name, to pollute it. (The "abominations" spoken of here included, no doubt, the heathen altars set up by Ahaz in place of the Brazen Altar [II Ki. 16:10-18], plus the altars which Manasseh built [for all the hosts of Heaven in the two courts of the House of Jehovah], and especially the image of the Canaanitish goddess Asherah, which he set up in the Temple itself [II Ki. 21:5-7].)

31 And they have built the high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I commanded them not, neither came it into My Heart. (At these "high places," child sacrifices were offered by fire to the deity Molech. This hideous practice is beyond comprehension!)

32 Therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, not the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter: for they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place. (In essence, the Holy Spirit is saying that if they desire to sacrifice humans here, then humans would be sacrificed here, and to a degree and in a manner that would stagger the imagination, i.e., "the Babylonians would do such!")

33 And the carcases of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the Earth; and none shall fray them away. (The word "fray" means "frighten." "And the carcasses of this people," refers to a scene so desolate that it beggars description!)

34 Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: for the land shall be desolate. ("For the land shall be desolate," rather means "shall become a waste.")

CHAPTER 8

(600 B.C.)

JUDGMENT ON JUDAH

[1] At that time, says the LORD, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his Princes, and the bones of the Priests, and the bones of the Prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves ("At that time," refers to the sack of Jerusalem by the Chaldeans. The repetition of the word "bones" is important. Not only are the objects of their idolatrous worship designated, but also the fact that every class of society had apostatized from Jehovah.

"Out of their graves," refers to the sack of all the tombs, with the Babylonians looking, no doubt, for valuable objects):

[2] And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, not be buried; they shall be for dung upon the face of the Earth. ("And they shall spread them...," refers to the Babylonians leaving the bones on the ground before the planetary bodies which Israel had worshipped. "They shall be for dung on the face of the Earth," portrays God's Thoughts and Actions concerning the bones of these unhappy idol worshippers! While their souls were in Hell, their remains were desecrated, and by fellow idol worshippers, at that!)

[3] And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them who remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places where I have driven them, says the LORD of Hosts. (So great would be the misery of the living in their captivity that they would prefer to die.)

SINS OF JUDAH

4 Moreover you shall say unto them, Thus says the LORD; Shall they fall, and not arise? shall He turn away, and not return? (In this prophetic utterance, the anguish of the speaker reveals the love of God to rebellious man; and the rejection of the Message proves the hatred of rebellious man to God.)

5 Why then is this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? they hold fast deceit, they refuse to return. (The words, "perpetual backsliding," refer to a continuous backsliding, ever going deeper into sin. There was no halting of their spiritual decline. Not once did they make an attempt to turn toward God.)

6 I hearkened and heard, but they spoke not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, as the horse rushes into the battle. (The words, "They spoke not aright," refer to their expression of repentance not being sincere, for no man questioned the character of his actions, but continued to rush toward evil.)

7 Yes, the stork in the heaven knows her appointed times; and the turtle and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their coming; but My People know not the Judgment of the LORD. (Migratory birds have more intelligence than unconverted men. They obey the migratory instinct, and so escape famine and death. Man disobeys his conscience and the Word of God, and so he perishes.)

8 How do you say, We are wise, and the Law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly in vain made he it; the pen of the Scribes is in vain. (The question posed by Jeremiah, "How do you say, We are wise?", is directed toward the Priests and the Prophets, whom he so constantly described as among the chief causes of Judah's ruin, as such is the ruin of the modern Church. As these individuals in Isaiah's day regarded it as an unwarrantable assumption on the part of that Prophet to pretend to instruct them in their duty [Isa. 28:9], likewise, Jeremiah was looked at with ridicule.

The answer of these Priests and Prophets was: "The Law of the LORD is with us." In giving this answer, they bade him keep his exhortations to himself, seeing that they themselves were wise and the divinely appointed teachers of the people.)

9 The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the Word of the LORD; and what wisdom is in them? ("The wise men are ashamed," actually looks forward to the coming calamity and says, "the wise men will be ashamed.")

JUDGMENT COMING

10 Therefore will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them who shall inherit them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to covetousness, from the Prophet even unto the Priest every one deals falsely. (Verses 10 through 12 show that the Prophet Jeremiah, like the Prophet of Nazareth, was not ashamed to repeat the words given him by God. The Holy Spirit through Jeremiah is saying that if Jerusalem follows these "wise men," terrible things will happen. "Them who shall inherit them," actually means "to them who shall take possession of them by violence.")

11 For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of My People slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. (The Holy Spirit says, "There is no peace," and yet they choose to believe liars and their lies rather than the Holy Spirit and His Truth.)

12 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? no, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them who fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, says the LORD. (Israel had had a "time of visitation" of Righteousness under Josiah, but had rejected it. Now they will have a "time of visitation" of Judgment.)

13 I will surely consume them, sa ys the LORD: there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them. (Israel in the Scriptures is presented as a vine, as a fig tree, and as an olive tree. These express Divine relationships. Judah is compared to a vine with bad grapes [2:21]; here the vine does not even pretend to bear fruit.

The words, "And the things that I have given them shall pass away from them," refer to their possession and inheritance of the Land of Israel, plus the prosperity and Blessings. All of these Blessings, plus the land, would be taken from them by the Babylonians.

They gave idols credit for their Blessings and prosperity; therefore, the Lord would give their Blessings and prosperity to idol worshippers, i.e., the Babylonians.)

BABYLONIAN INVASION OF JUDAH FORETOLD

14 Why do we sit still? assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the defenced cities, and let us be silent there: for the LORD our God has put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD. ("For the LORD our God has put us to silence," refers to being decreed to utter destruction. The word "silent" means that there is no defense! "And give us water of gall to drink," is a symbolism of Judgment. It is bitter water, extremely bitter, and they by no means desire to drink it, but have no choice!

"Because we have sinned against the LORD," presents the cause of all trouble and calamity on Earth.)

15 We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, and behold trouble! (The Prophet enters into the minds of the people, expressing their thoughts when this time of terror comes! "We looked for peace, but no good came," refers back to Verse 11, when these "wise men," in contradiction to Jeremiah's Prophecies, said, "Peace, peace." Instead, they find the opposite, which is war! They were told by the false prophets that "good times" were coming, but instead "no good came.")

16 The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan: the whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones; for they are come, and have devoured the land, and all that is in it; the city, and those who dwell therein. (This Scripture pictures the coming invasion of the Babylonians, which also symbolizes the yet future Antichrist, who will come from the same direction, and who will "devour the land" in the same manner!)

[17] For, behold, I will send serpents, cockatrices, among you, which will not be charmed, and they shall bite you, says the LORD. (The Chaldeans will be so terrible that they are compared to serpents and adders, and so fierce that to placate them would be impossible.)

JEREMIAH'S SORROW

[18] When I would comfort myself against sorrow, my heart is faint in me. (The obvious consternation of Jeremiah is expressed in this Passage!)

[19] Behold the voice of the cry of the daughter of My People, because of them who dwell in a far country: Is not the LORD in Zion? is not her king in her? Why have they provoked Me to anger with their graven images, and with strange vanities? (Almost as if in answer to Jeremiah's great "sorrow," the Voice of the Lord explains His Own sadness. The expression, "The daughter of My People," applied to this nation of idolaters, liars, and oppressors, strikingly exhibits the amazing love and pity of God, and proclaims His willingness to forgive the greatest sinners, if they will but turn to Him.)

[20] The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved. (This statement is projected into the future, at the time of the siege of Jerusalem by the Babylonians, and presents the cry, or rather the forlorn expression, of the people. "The summer is ended," spoke of late summer and the fall of the year, just before the winter rains set it. They were expecting the Egyptian army to come to their rescue, but the time for armies to march is now ended. Winter is coming on and "we are not saved.")

[21] For the hurt of the daughter of My People am I hurt; I am black; astonishment has taken hold on Me. ("I am black," refers to mourning in sackcloth and ashes, and does not mean the color of his skin.

“Astonishment has taken hold on me,” refers to the horror that is even greater than he had previously anticipated.)

22 Is there no balm in Gilead; is there no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of My People recovered? (The questions asked by the Lord are meant to receive a negative answer. No earthly “physician” could “recover the health of the people of Judah.” Just as no earthly mortal can recover the health of hurting, dying humanity; however, the “Physician” would ultimately come to Gilead, and He would be the Lord Jesus Christ.)

CHAPTER 9

JEREMIAH'S LAMENT FOR THE PEOPLE'S SIN AND THE PENDING JUDGMENT

[1] Oh that my head were waters, and my eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the dead of the daughter of my people! (Jeremiah was called "the weeping Prophet," and for good reason! After seeing what is coming upon his people, he cannot help but weep, even "day and night." The "dead" will be many!)

[2] Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men. (Because of the vileness of Jerusalem, the Prophet wanted to "go from them," but yet he could not go, because he was the only one standing between them and total destruction. However, they did not regard him at all and, in fact, desired to kill him, and would have succeeded were it not for the delivering Power of the Lord.

The word "treacherous" is used because they actually committed Spiritual High Treason!)

[3] And they bend their tongues like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the Earth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not Me, sa ys the LORD. (This Verse could be translated, "They bend their tongues as it were their bow for falsehoods; and they are grown rich in the land, but not by speaking truth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they refuse to recognize Me, says Jehovah.")

[4] Take you heed every one of his neighbour, and trust you not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will walk with slanders. ("For every brother will utterly supplant," has reference to Jacob, who was a supplanter, or a deceiver. This was before

Jacob, by the Power of God, was changed to Israel, the Prince with God.

"Slanders" have to do with tale-bearing, whether true or false.)

5 And they will deceive everyone his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity. ("And they will deceive everyone his neighbor," speaks of the utter disposition of the entirety of the people. They were deceived, so it was easy for them to be deceivers. Such are Satan and his followers!

"They have taught their tongue to speak lies," is an intimation of the unnaturalness of vice. Not only did they lie, but they practiced lying.)

6 Your habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know Me, sa ys the LORD. (The idea of this Passage is that some of these individuals may feign an appreciation for Jeremiah and his Message; nevertheless, the Holy Spirit tells him here that these individuals cannot "speak the Truth," and should not be trusted.

"Through deceit they refuse to know Me," means that they refused to be converted to the Lord, because that would cost them the loss of the money gained by fraud.)

7 Therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how shall I do for the daughter of My People? (The furnace for the "melting," at least in this instance, would be the 70-year captivity in Babylon. The question, "For how shall I do for the daughter of My People?", rather asks the question, "How shall I act?" or "How otherwise should I act?", referring to Jehovah!)

8 Their tongue is as an arrow shot out; it speaks deceit: one speaks peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in heart he lays his wait. ("Their tongue is as an arrow shot out," refers to their tongue being a sharpened arrow designed to destroy. "It speaks deceit," refers to the fact that it can speak nothing else!)

9 Shall I not visit them for these things? says the LORD: shall not My Soul be avenged on such a nation as this? (The word "visit" means to punish.)

10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle; both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone. (The word "habitations" refers to pastures. The exclamation of this Verse is of a desolation so total that even the birds cannot find subsistence. "They are gone," speaks of a denuding of Judah so severe that nothing is left!)

11 And I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant. (Once again, the Holy Spirit uses the words, "I will," referring to his total control over what was to be done to Judah and Jerusalem.)

12 Who is the wise man, who may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD has spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perishes and is burned up like a wilderness, that none passes through? (The question, "Who is the wise man, who may understand this?", refers to the fact that there were many men in Jerusalem who were worldly-wise, but none who were spiritually wise.)

13 And the LORD says, Because they have forsaken My Law which I set before them, and have not obeyed My Voice, neither walked therein (the doctrine of this Verse, and several of the following, is that unrenewed men, however intelligent, are incapable of recognizing the Hand of God in the private or public calamities that come upon them; that it needs a Revelation from the Holy Spirit to awake them to the fact that such calamities are God's just Judgment; and that those who are thus enlightened are responsible to declare and explain the true nature and the cause of the suffering experienced)**;

14 But have walked after the imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, which their fathers taught them (this Scripture tells us that the Word of God, and not the "teaching of the fathers," is the only authoritative and infallible rule of faith and obedience; for "the fathers" can oppose Truth and, in fact, often do, and consequently perish with their pupils):

15 Therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink. (The "Water of gall to drink" is a fluid secreted by the liver, which is extremely bitter!)

16 I will scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them. (The pronoun "them" refers to those who follow "the imagination of their own heart," and not the Law of God. The error taught by "their fathers" will now have its bitter result in captivity.)

17 Thus says the LORD of Hosts, Consider you, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come (the sense of this Passage is that so many are going to die that the usual practice of hiring individuals to weep and wail at funerals would have to be increased manyfold):

18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters. (The idea of this Passage is that the "mourning women" will weep, not because they are paid for such, but because of the agony and destruction that is everywhere.)

19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out. (When the time of destruction would come, which would be about 5 to 7 years in the future, instead of then ridiculing Jeremiah, "a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion," because of the terrible destruction.)

20 Yet hear the Word of the LORD, O you women, and let your ear receive the word of His Mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and everyone her neighbour lamentation. (The first word of Verse 20 could very well have read, "Yes"; for it was just that the women should share in the suffering, because they had urged their husbands to be idolaters.)

21 For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets. (The statement is hyperbole. No one would really be hired to weep, because every family in Judah would be weeping uncontrollably. But such is given by the Holy Spirit accordingly that it may impress upon the listener the severity of that which is coming.)

22 Speak, Thus says the LORD, Even the carcases of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvestman, and none shall gather them. (In this Verse, the proud Hebrews are compared to dung, and to grains of corn trampled into the ground by the feet of the harvestman and, therefore, worthless to be gleaned.)

KNOWLEDGE OF GOD IS MAN'S GLORY

23 Thus says the LORD, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches:

24 But let him who glories glory in this, that he understands and knows Me, that I am the LORD who exercises Lovingkindness, Judgment, and Righteousness, in the Earth: for in these things I delight, says the LORD. (Verse 23 proclaims the fact that nothing that man has, irrespective of its seeming power, will do in the time of adversity; however, Verse 24 tells us what will stand the test, and that alone, which is the Word of God!)

25 Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will punish all them who are circumcised with the uncircumcised *(the idea is that these were circumcised in the flesh, but not in the heart);

26 Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the Children of Ammon, and Moab, and all who are in the utmost corners, who dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the House of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart. (The prediction here was that the Cup of Wrath for the people of Judah would have this added bitterness of having to be drunk in fellowship with the neighboring nations whom they so despised. These nations practiced circumcision, as Judah did; and, like Judah, they were uncircumcised in heart.)

CHAPTER 10

(600 B.C.)

THE VANITY OF IDOLS

[1] Hear you the Word which the LORD speaks unto you, O House of Israel ("House of Israel," is actually the Kingdom of Judah. It is called such here because of being the only part of Israel that is left. "The LORD speaks unto you," is not only intended to address Israel collectively as a nation, but also personally as to each individual)**:

[2] Thus says the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them. ("The way of the heathen," actually refers to "the religion of the heathen." "The signs of heaven," refers, in this case, to the astrological calculations based upon extraordinary appearances in the sky, or the signs of the zodiac. Israel was commanded by the Lord to pay no heed to these things, because, in reality, they hold no answers whatsoever!)

[3] For the customs of the people are vain: for one cuts a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe. (The word "customs" refers to the "images of wood," i.e., "idols." The word "people" refers to heathen nations. The "vanity" addressed here, concerning the "cutting of the tree out of the forest," is meant by the Holy Spirit to portray the absurdity of thinking that something fashioned by the hands of man could be greater than the hands which fashioned it.)

[4] They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not. (This making of an idol is the same as described in Isa. 41:7 and 44:13-17, which could very well have been read by Jeremiah, with the Holy Spirit impressing him strongly to emphasize this great sin once more. Such does not show a weakness in the Text, but rather an emphasis placed by the Holy Spirit on that which He considers to be very important. And if He considers it to be very important, by all means, we should, as well!

These Passages are sometimes taken to mean the modern Christmas tree, but actually the tree referred to had no branches left on it at all. This refers to a tree trunk being made into an idol, not the Christmas tree.)

5 They are upright as the palm tree, but speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good. (These absurd man-made idols, which "speak not" and which have to be carried about because of having no mobility of their own, are not something to be "afraid of." They don't have the power to do "evil" or "good.")

PROOFS OF THE TRUE AND LIVING GOD

6 Forasmuch as there is none like unto You, O LORD; You are great, and Your Name is great in might. (Verses 6 and 7 contrast God with these blocks of wood.)

7 Who would not fear You, O King of nations? for to You does it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto You. (In this Verse, Jeremiah enlarges on the Truth that God is God not only of Israel, but rather the entirety of the world, i.e., "King of nations.")

8 But they are altogether brutish and foolish: the stock is a doctrine of vanities. ("Doctrine of vanities," is the teaching that such an absurdity is the true god of the nations, which could protect them, etc.)

9 Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing: they are all the work of cunning men. (The idea of this Passage is that the maker of these gods had it in mind that the more valuable the metal, such as "silver and gold," applied to the idol, and the more elaborate its appointments, such as "blue and purple," and the more talented its craftsmen, "cunning men," then surely the more powerful the idol! How foolish the ideas of unregenerate men!)

[10] But the LORD is the True God, He is the Living God, and an Everlasting King: at His Wrath the Earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide His Indignation. (Verses 10 through 13 again contrast God with idols. "The True God," literally means "a God in Truth." It is given in this vein to emphasize the idea of "Truth." Only God and His Ways are Truth, with all else being a fabrication and, thereby, inspired by Satan. "He is the Living God," emphasizes that He is alive by contrast to these idols that have no life. As well, He is "an Everlasting King.")

[11] Thus shall you say unto them, The gods that have not made the heavens and the Earth, even they shall perish from the Earth, and from under these heavens. (This Verse alone in the original Text is written in Chaldee. It provided the Godly exiles with the reply that they were to make to their Babylonian captors when pointing out the impotency and folly of idols.)

[12] He has made the Earth by His Power, He has established the world by His Wisdom, and has stretched out the heavens by His Discretion. (Throughout the Bible, the Holy Spirit declares Jehovah as the Creator of "the Earth." His Almighty Power "made the Earth" and "His Wisdom" established a set of fixed laws which govern its seasons, rotation, and productivity. As well, all the heavens (Universes) were made according to His Understanding and symbolize a fixed order of events each playing their part in the order of things. In other words, nothing that pertains to His Creation is by chance, happenstance, or confusion. Therefore, the idea of evolution is absurd, to say the least, and ludicrous in its explanation.)

[13] When He utters His Voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens, and He causes the vapours to ascend from the ends of the Earth; He makes lightnings with rain, and brings forth the wind out of His treasures. ("When He utters His Voice," emphasizes the Truth that these fixed Laws which govern the Earth, concerning rain and the evaporation process, "vapors to ascend from the ends of the Earth," which in the process causes "lightnings" and "wind," were actually spoken into existence. He decreed them in the same manner that He said, "Let there be

THE STUPIDITY OF IDOLS

14 Every man is brutish in his knowledge: every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. ("Every man is brutish in his knowledge," emphasizes the point that except for those who have been enlightened by Revelation knowledge, i.e., the Lord, all others are without knowledge. In other words, they have no insight into the origin and meaning of the world and all creation; hence, the absurdity of evolution.)

15 They are vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. (The word "vanity" means "empty nothings." "Work of errors," refers to the rewards of disappointment. "In the time of their visitation," refers mostly to coming Judgment. The sense of the Passage is that not only will the idols perish, but their worshippers, as well.)

16 The portion of Jacob is not like them: for He is the former of all things; and Israel is the Rod of His Inheritance: The LORD of Hosts is His Name. ("The portion of Jacob" was totally unlike the portion of the heathen, who did not know God, and had not, as Israel, experienced any Revelation from God. "For He is the former of all things," literally means that Jehovah is the "Maker" of Israel, whereas He was not the "Maker" of these heathen nations, at least as far as their religion was concerned!

The word "Rod" should have been translated "Tribe.")

FLEE THE COMING JUDGMENT

17 Gather up your wares out of the land, O inhabitant of the fortress. (The unhappy captives, when setting out for Babylonia from Jerusalem, would be permitted to take nothing with them but what they could carry by hand.)

18 For thus says the LORD, Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will distress them, that they may find it so. (The Passage refers to the violence of the expulsion!)

[19] Woe is me for my hurt! my wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is a grief, and I must bear it. (In Verses 19 through 22, Judah and Jerusalem speak through the mouth of the Prophet. Jeremiah takes up the cry of Judah, which was to suffer this great distress, hurt, wound, and grief.)

[20] My Tabernacle is spoiled, and all My cords are broken: My Children are gone forth of Me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth My Tent any more, and to set up My Curtains. ("All My cords are broken," refers to the Law and Sacrifices, that even though adhered to outwardly, were not, in fact, adhered to at all as far as God was concerned. Despite the presence of the Temple, the "cords were broken." The words, "My Children are gone forth of Me, and they are not," spoke of those who truly loved His Word, and attempted to follow His Ways, who are now dead, with none to take their place! "They are not!")

[21] For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered. (The "pastors" or "shepherds" refer to Jehoiakim and the Princes. "And all their flocks shall be scattered," referred to him being taken captive by Nebuchadnezzar to Babylon, which, no doubt, included other notables of Judah as well, hence, "scattered.")

[22] Behold, the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a den of dragons. (The Babylonians entered Israel from the north. Zion refused to listen to the Voice of God, and so was compelled to listen to the voice of the Chaldeans.)

[23] O LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man who walks to direct his steps. (Man is a Spiritual Being, tied to his Creator, Who is God. Without the direction that only God can give, man wanders helplessly! However, man is loath to admit such.)

[24] O LORD, correct me, but with Judgment; not in Your Anger, lest You bring me to nothing. (The idea of this Passage is that if full and total correction was given, Judah and Jerusalem would be totally destroyed. As well, the idea presents itself that total destruction is what Judah and Jerusalem deserved. But the plea is for Mercy!)

25 Pour out Your Fury upon the heathen who know You not, and upon the families who call not on Your Name: for they have eaten up Jacob, and devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate. (The sense of the Passage is that even though Judah has sinned and certainly deserved Judgment, still, these heathen Babylonians must not be allowed to remain in their idolatry; they also must suffer Judgment!

Such was true and, therefore, allowed to be prayed by Judah through Jeremiah, and was ultimately answered.)

CHAPTER 11

(608 B.C.)

JUDAH HAS BROKEN THE COVENANT

[1] The Word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying (some have said this is Jeremiah's fourth Commission. "The Word" begins this First Verse, which came from the Lord, and which could have been the Salvation of the nation, but they would not hear)**,

[2] Hear you the words of this Covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem ("this Covenant" refers to the Book of the Law that had been found in the Temple some years previously during the reign of King Josiah, and which originated the revival proposed by that good monarch. Immediately following his death, the nation restored idolatry [Vss. 9-10])**;

[3] And say you unto them, Thus says the LORD God of Israel; Cursed be the man who obeys not the words of this Covenant (the word "cursed," describing the Law, means "condemned to death"; this is the function of Law, it cannot give life to dead men, it condemns lawbreakers; the Law was given to make man conscious of his moral condition as a sinner and of his need for a Saviour; the Tabernacle, and its Sacrifices which accompanied the Law, revealed that Saviour in Symbol)**,

[4] Which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey My Voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall you be My People, and I will be your God (God does not ask men to obey Him as a selfish and tyrannical master orders a slave in order to gratify his own cruel temper, but He commands man's obedience in order to secure man's happiness. Egypt was likened to an "iron furnace" from which the people were delivered, but yet, they seemed determined to go back into this "iron furnace”!):

5 That I may perform the oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, So be it, O LORD. (“A land flowing with milk and honey” is found fifteen times in the Pentateuch, and some five times elsewhere. The Lord kept His Promise, as He always keeps His Promises, and gave them the land; however, His Children did not keep their promises to Him. In truth, man fails in every test to which he is exposed; therefore, it was imperative that God become man, which He did in the Person of Christ, and did for man what man could not do for himself.)

6 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear you the words of this Covenant, and do them. (In effect, the Lord was telling Jeremiah to be a street Preacher, both in Jerusalem and in the cities of Judah. He carried in his hand the Bible, and caused the people to hear its words, and urged his followers to believe and obey them. The urgency of this action by the Holy Spirit portrays the near catastrophe!)

7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey My Voice. (The sense of the Passage is that the protesting did not begin with Jeremiah, but, in fact, has been needful from the time they were delivered “from Egypt.” The cup is now full — not only full, but running over! All He asked was, “Obey My Voice,” and this is all He asks today!)

8 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this Covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did them not. (Jeremiah contrasted the teachings of the Bible with those of the human imagination, and declared the latter to be evil, and that the wrath predicted in the Bible would certainly strike those who accepted this religion of the imagination.)

9 And the LORD said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. (It is clear from Verses 9 and 10 that King Josiah's subjects secretly decided to return to idolatry, and to set aside the Bible at the first favorable opportunity. This is the "conspiracy.")

[10] They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear My Words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the House of Israel and the House of Judah have broken My Covenant which I made with their fathers. ("Their forefathers," refers back to the sins of the Israelites in the wilderness and in Canaan under the Judges. The righteous Prophets were constantly pointing their hearers back to those early times, either for warning [as here] or for encouragement.

"And they went after other gods to serve them," refers not to the past, but to the present. They broke the "Covenant" which the Lord had made with them.)

[11] Therefore thus says the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto Me, I will not hearken unto them. (The words, "I will," once again emphasize the fact that the Lord controls all. "They shall not be able to escape," refers to the idea in the minds of the people of Judah that if the Prophecies of Jeremiah perchance are right, they will find a way of escape, namely Egypt. When the terrible time came, they found no way of escape.)

[12] Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble. (The impotency of idols to protect idolaters is declared in Verses 11 through 14. History attests this fact, for the people of Judah were overthrown by the Chaldeans and carried captive into Babylon.)

[13] For according to the number of your cities were your gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have you set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal. (Not only does idolatry bring shame upon idolaters, but the most popular idol of that time was so shameful that a description of it is impossible.)

14 Therefore pray not you for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto Me for their trouble. (The die has already been cast! There is no hope for their deliverance. It does not mean that if they truly repented, the Lord would not hear! Actually, He definitely would hear in such a case. But it does mean that there is no chance of them doing such! So there is no point in interceding for them. The implication is that they will "cry unto Me" when the Babylonians come, but then it will be too late!)

15 What has My beloved to do in My House, seeing she has wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from you? when you do evil, then you rejoice. (The Jews, it would seem, came to the Temple to pray, but their prayer is not accepted because it is associated with unholy practices. Actually, they were not truly praying, but only going through the form.

"When you do evil, then you rejoice," refers to two things: 1. They "rejoiced" in their idol worship, foolishly thinking that such would deliver them; and, 2. They "rejoiced" in the thought that by their Temple ritual they had paid their debt to Jehovah, and could, therefore, continue in their evil.)

16 The LORD called your name, A green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult He has kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken. ("The green olive tree" was Israel; the "tumult" was the Chaldean invasion, symbolized here by a thunderstorm with lightning. The storm destroys the tree, and the lightning sets it on fire.)

17 For the LORD of Hosts, Who planted you, has pronounced evil against you, for the evil of the House of Israel and of the House of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke Me to anger in offering incense unto Baal. ("For the LORD of Hosts, Who planted you," refers to Israel being a peculiar people under the Lord, as no other people or nation. He was their Sponsor in the sense that He has never been the sponsor of any other people.

"Against themselves," refers to men sinning to their own hurt. The idea is that God is not the cause of this, but they themselves.)

THE PLOT AGAINST JEREMIAH

18 And the LORD has given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then You showed me their doings. ("And the LORD has given me knowledge of it," refers to a plot against Jeremiah's life, and by his own brethren, at that! How the Lord showed him this is not known.

"Their doings" referred to murderous intent against the Prophet, because they could not stand the strength and power of his preaching. Scripturally, they could not refute the Message; therefore, they sought to destroy the Messenger.)

19 But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered. (Jeremiah came unto his own and his own received him not. They resolved to kill him though he was to them as a gentle lamb, and his only crime was that he prophesied to them in the Name of the Lord. Anathoth was his native village. It belonged to the Priests and they, together with the members of the Prophet's family, joined in the plot to destroy him.

So was it with the Messiah, of Whom Jeremiah is here a Type.)

20 But, O LORD of Hosts, Who judges righteously, Who tries the reins and the heart, let me see Your Vengeance on them: for unto You have I revealed my cause. (The prayer of this Verse concerns the conflict between Truth and Righteousness versus falsehood and evil. It corresponds to similar language on the lips of David and of the Apostle Paul [Gal. 1:8; I Cor. 16:22].

Jeremiah would not take vengeance into his own hands, but gave place unto wrath, i.e., stepped aside so as to give room for the Wrath of God to act [Rom. 12:19].)

21 Therefore thus says the LORD of the men of Anathoth, who seek your life, saying, Prophesy not in the Name of the LORD, that you die not by our hand (now that the plot is revealed, the demand is that he stop prophesying. Their anger was because of his Message)**:

22 Therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts, Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine (Verses 22 and 23 record the answer to Jeremiah's prayer. The Lord said, "Behold, I will punish them." However, this punishment would consist of the destruction that was coming by the hand of the Babylonians, and did not necessarily include any extra punishment, unless it contained a guarantee that the perpetrators would be included in "the sword" and "the famine."

The question in many hearts is, "If these had sincerely repented before Jeremiah and before the Lord, would their Repentance have been accepted?"

Most definitely it would have! But sadly, no Repentance was forthcoming):

23 And there shall be no remnant of them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation. (To touch God's is to touch God! As Anathoth was where many Priests resided, this was a special Judgment on the Priesthood, who had been so instrumental in steering Judah and Jerusalem into paths of unrighteousness. Therefore, God's Anger against them was twofold: 1. Because of leading Judah and Jerusalem astray; and 2. Because of the plot against Jeremiah.)

CHAPTER 12

JEREMIAH'S PRAYER AND COMPLAINT

[1] Righteous are You, O LORD, when I plead with You: yet let me talk with You of Your Judgments: Wherefore does the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they happy who deal very treacherously? (The words, "Righteous are You, O LORD," present the answer of Jeremiah, as he hastens to vindicate God, even in the midst of his sorrows and dangers. The Lord judged righteously and was Himself Righteous, yet the Prophet desired to reason with the Lord of His Action in permitting evil, or so it seemed, to prosper.

Such is the question of many!

The questions of Jeremiah are proof that those who are the recipients of special Divine Revelations and who are in close communion with the Lord are not precluded from having doubting thoughts and spiritual distress.)

[2] You have planted them, yes, they have taken root: they grow, yes, they bring forth fruit: You are near in their mouth, and far from their reins. ("You have planted them," refers to 11:17. Jeremiah reasons that if God "planted them" and, in fact, Israel "took root" and became a great nation, i.e., "brought forth fruit," why did they not glorify Him instead of being doers of evil? Instead they brought forth evil fruit [Mat. 7:17]. The answer is found in that last phrase. The words, "You are near in their mouth, and far from their reins," refer to the Priests who mouth the services, but their hearts were bound to their idols and to their sins.)

[3] But You, O LORD, know me: You have seen me, and tried my heart toward You: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter. (In this Scripture, we are delving into the innermost chamber of the heart of Jeremiah. For such, the Lord will carefully and patiently rebuke him.)

4 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them who dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end. ("He shall not see our last end," refers to the Prophet's enemies, who were confident of a successful future for themselves and for Jerusalem, but were determined that Jeremiah should not see their good fortune, nor share in it, for they determined to kill him.

In this Passage, we have the prophetic doctrine that because of "the wickedness of them who dwell therein," the "land mourns," the crops do not grow as they should, and the "beasts and birds" suffer! In this one Verse is easily seen the cause of all the problems which plague humanity. It is "wickedness.")

GOD'S ANSWER TO JEREMIAH

5 If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you, then how can you contend with horses? and if in the land of peace, wherein you trusted, they wearied you, then how will you do in the swelling of Jordan? (Jeremiah has been speaking in the first four Verses, with the Lord now speaking in the remainder. Now comes the Lord's gentle rebuke to the Prophet. The "footmen" represent the men of Anathoth; the "horsemen," the rulers of Jerusalem, whose hatred and bloodthirst would be far worse than Anathoth's. "The land of peace," in which he thought himself secure, was his own village; "the swelling of Jordan," the wild fury that he would have to face in the capital city.)

6 For even your brethren, and the house of your father, even they have dealt treacherously with you; yes, they have called a multitude after you: believe them not, though they speak fair words unto you. ("Though they speak fair words unto you," seems to imply that the Lord is imparting information to Jeremiah that he has not previously had. He now informs him that in the plot to take his life, his own "brethren," and even "the house of his father," which would imply his nearest of kin, are involved. His family urges those who are opposed to Jeremiah to murder him, but to his face they spoke fair words. This Divine Revelation to him of the treachery of his relatives must have deeply pained his heart.

Thus, the Prophet was trained to feel how bitter was the pain that hurt the Heart of God when sinful men, in response to the Messiah's love, met Him with hatred and murder.)

7 I have forsaken My House, I have left My Heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of My Soul into the hand of her enemies. (Now the Lord speaks His Heart, as Jeremiah has spoken his. These Verses, beginning with the Seventh Verse on to the end of the Chapter, apply to Judah and Jerusalem and are, therefore, to be distinguished from those of the previous section, which relate solely to Anathoth.

This Verse even supplies more answers to Verse 1. When God, for reasons satisfactory to Himself, withdraws from active interference in the affairs of men and leaves them to their own Hell-bent desire, the result is oppression of the weak by the strong and the robbery of the poor by the rich. Evil and violent men prosper, and good men suffer.)

8 My Heritage is unto Me as a lion in the forest; it cries out against Me: therefore have I hated it. (So degraded and hostile had idolatry made Judah that they are compared in Verses 8 and 9 to an angry lion and a fierce vulture. Such is man's moral response to God's wondrous Love!

The word "hated" in this Verse means "less cared for" or "less favored." The Hebrew verb is not the same as the verb which means "to hate with malice," but signifies "to love less." For example, "Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated," i.e., "preferred less.")

9 My Heritage is unto Me as a speckled bird, the birds round about are against her; come you, assemble all the beasts of the field, come to devour. ("My Heritage is unto Me as a speckled bird," refers to a bird of beautiful bright plumage which arouses the animosity of its less brilliant contemporaries, who gather around to pull it to pieces. The prosperity of Judah, no doubt, had long been a source of wonder to the surrounding nations! They witnessed her prosperity, greatness, blessing, and grandeur, knowing there was a difference, and a great difference at that, but not quite understanding what the difference was!)

10 Many pastors have destroyed My Vineyard, they have trodden My Portion under foot, they have made My pleasant Portion a desolate wilderness. (The "pastors" here are not as we normally think of such, but rather civil rulers, even heathen rulers at that! Actually, the Passage is speaking of Nebuchadnezzar and the leaders under him who would come into Judah and "trod My Portion underfoot.")

11 They have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourns unto Me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man lays it to heart. (The Holy Spirit, Who has been speaking in the future tense since Verse 7, speaks now as though in the past tense. Through foreknowledge, He knows that despite Jeremiah's continued Prophecies, Judah will not repent; consequently, the awful finality comes through.)

12 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh shall have peace. ("The spoilers" are definitely the Babylonians, with "the sword of the LORD," at least in this case, being Nebuchadnezzar. In other words, Nebuchadnezzar, although unwitting, will be an instrument in God's Hands to carry out God's Will.)

13 They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit: and they shall be ashamed of your revenues because of the fierce anger of the LORD. (The sense of this Verse is: Judah thought surely they were "sowing wheat," regarding their man-made religious worship. In their minds, they were appeasing Jehovah, especially by continuing to offer Sacrifices along with the Temple ritual, as well as the other gods by their idol worship. They had also constructed for themselves a fall-back position by looking to Egypt. It was all man-devised and, therefore, God-rejected! Consequently, instead of reaping wheat, they would "reap thorns.")

14 Thus sa ys the LORD against all My evil neighbours, who touch the inheritance which I have caused My People Israel to inherit; Behold, I will pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the House of Judah from among them. (These "evil neighbors" are Egypt, Edom, Philistia, Ammon, Moab, and Syria. Due to these nations seeking to take advantage of Judah's problems, the Lord would bring Judgment upon them. All this makes the unchangeable Love of God and the unbreakable nature of His Faithfulness clear to His ancient People. He has designed Israel as the center of all earthly governments. This national system is now in confusion because of Israel's fall, for she is the keystone. Her Restoration will be their [the other nations] recovery. The Lord Jesus Christ, as Man and Messiah, will unite in His Person the headship of man and the dominion of Israel, which will take place in the coming Kingdom Age.)

15 And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out I will return, and have compassion on them, and will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land. (As stated, this will take place in the coming Kingdom Age.)

16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of My People, to swear by My Name, The LORD lives, as they taught My People to swear by Baal; then shall they be built in the midst of My People. ("The ways of My People" mean "the Divine Way of Salvation" revealed and committed to Israel. "To swear by My Name," saying "Jehovah lives," is to worship God through Jesus Christ; for "Jesus" is God's Greatest Name.)

17 But if they will not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, says the LORD. (Some of the nations mentioned in Verse 14 will, in fact, not obey and will be destroyed. Those destroyed were Edom, Philistia, Ammon, and Moab. Three of these areas are now occupied by modern Jordan, with Philistia being occupied by Israel and the Palestinians. Egypt and Syria continue and, in fact, will be greatly blessed by God during the coming Kingdom Age because of their acceptance of the Lord Jesus Christ [Isa. 19:23-25]. The area known as modern Syria, in fact, will be incorporated into Israel in the coming Kingdom Age.)

CHAPTER 13

THE SIGN OF THE LINEN GIRDLE

[1] Thus says the LORD unto me, Go and get you a linen girdle, and put it upon your loins, and put it not in water. (In symbolic language, the Holy Spirit through Jeremiah will describe a Divinely-commanded action indicative of the approaching ruin of the people of Judah. This Message was addressed to King Jehoiachin, who was about 18 years of age, to the Queen Mother Nehushta, and to the Priests and people of Jerusalem. The Speaker is Emmanuel, not Jeremiah; he was a mere instrument.)

[2] So I got a girdle according to the Word of the LORD, and put it on my loins. (It was a "linen girdle" and, therefore, meant to be beautiful and ornate.)

[3] And the Word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying (this, as with the "linen girdle" and many other instances in the Bible, lets us know that God's leading is thus by design; such teaches continued faith, leading, leaning, and trust)**,

[4] Take the girdle that you have got, which is upon your loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock. (Due to the phrase, "The second time," in the Third Verse, Jeremiah probably wore the girdle for quite some time. The Holy Spirit evidently meant for the people of Jerusalem to see this girdle on Jeremiah in order that they may ultimately know what it meant. So, Jeremiah makes this long trip of about 400 miles to the Euphrates, which he would have reached first at Carchemish.)

[5] So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me. (Even as this time, it seems that Jeremiah still had little knowledge as to what the Lord was going to do with such a symbol; however, he faithfully obeys.)

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded you to hide there. (The "many days" of this Verse do not tell us of the length of time, but it definitely could refer to several years.)

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and dug, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing. (The original beautiful girdle was used as a touching symbol to teach Israel how Emmanuel had bound her upon His Heart, and worn her as an ornament, the fine linen expressing her purity. Such was His Love for her. But her disobedience compelled the Lord to remove the girdle and bury it at the Euphrates, where it became marred and worthless, showing Judah's present spiritual condition!

This symbolic action foretold the captivity of 70 years in the Euphrates Valley.)

THE APPLICATION TO ALL ISRAEL

8 Then the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Thus says the LORD, after this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. (The words, "After this manner," refer to the girdle and its marred condition. As the girdle had been so beautiful and is now so marred, so will be Judah and Jerusalem. The cause was "pride.")

10 This evil people, who refuse to hear My Words, which walk in the imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing. (The "great pride" of the previous Verse has produced "this evil people.")

11 For as the girdle cleaves to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto Me the whole House of Israel and the whole House of Judah, says the LORD, that they might be unto Me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear. (Both Israel and Judah lost their "glory" because of sin and because "they would not hear" the Word of the Lord.)

THE LESSON FROM THE FILLED BOTTLES; APPLICATION TO JUDAH

[12] Therefore you shall speak unto them this word; Thus says the LORD God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto you, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine? (The "bottle" was a large wineskin made from a lamb's skin or a cowhide. Upon instruction from the Holy Spirit, Jeremiah took several wineskins and hung them up in a straight line. They were then to be filled with wine.)

[13] Then shall you say unto them, Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings who sit upon David's throne, and the Priests, and the Prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. (The "drunkenness" spoken of here is symbolic. The people were symbolized by the bottles and the wine symbolized the Wrath of God against them.)

[14] And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, says the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but destroy them. (The words, "I will dash them one against another," refer to the Lord allowing them to follow their own "imaginations," resulting in utter confusion!)

[15] Hear you, and give ear; be not proud: for the LORD has spoken. (As is obvious, the Lord admonishes Judah to "hear.")

[16] Give glory to the LORD your God, before He cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while you look for light, He turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness. (The light that Judah now has, which is the Word of the Lord through the Prophet Jeremiah, will soon give way to "darkness," because the Light is the Lord and not Judah's foolish imagination. All of these "other gods" are "darkness and death.")

17 But if you will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride; and my eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock is carried away captive. (As the Lord was speaking in previous Verses, Jeremiah speaks in Verses 15 through 17. The Lord is very clear in dealing with His People; therefore, there are no excuses for misunderstanding. Here, the cause, which is sin, is plainly outlined; the cure, which is Repentance, is plainly given! If they do not hear, it is because they do not want to hear.)

18 Say unto the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down: for your principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory. (The fulfillment of this is found in II Ki. 24:15. After a reign of three months, Jehoiachin, who was only 18 years old, and his mother, the reigning Queen named Nehushta, were taken captive by Nebuchadnezzar, along with all Jehoiachin's court.)

19 The cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them: Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive. (This was fulfilled about 12 years later. The captivity being still a thing of the future, the Prophet seeks to awaken the conscience of this king and his mother, but to no avail.)

20 Lift up your eyes, and behold them who come from the north: where is the flock that was given you, your beautiful flock? (Even though Babylon lay due east, the invasion route was "from the north." "The flock that was given you" refers to the people of Judah. The implication is: if the king and his mother would have led the people in a Spiritual Revival, this "beautiful flock" possibly would have followed; however, they had no desire for spiritual things, and their people had no desire for this "son of David" to wholly follow the Lord.)

21 What will you say when He shall punish you? for you have taught them to be Captains, and as chief over you: shall not sorrows take you, as a woman in travail? (The sense of this Verse is that the military Captains and civil rulers of Nebuchadnezzar will now be "chief over you."

Judah would not have the Lord be "captain and chief"; therefore, a heathen monarch with no pity would serve in this capacity.)

22 And if you say in your heart, Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of your iniquity are your skirts discovered, and your heels made bare. ("Iniquity," i.e., idolatry, caused this just Judgment. Nakedness and bare feet express slavery. Upon the coming catastrophe, Judah will exclaim, "Wherefore come these things upon me?" The Holy Spirit tells us the reason. It is "the greatness of your iniquity.")

23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may you also do good, who are accustomed to do evil. (This Passage refutes any and all ideas that man can change himself. He cannot, yet he keeps trying!)

24 Therefore will I scatter them as the stub ble that passes away by the wind of the wilderness. (This refers to the chaff that is separated from the wheat on the threshingfloor. The "wind of the wilderness" refers to great trouble that was coming upon Judah, which, in fact, would be the scattering process.)

25 This is your lot, the portion of your mea sures from Me, says the LORD; because you have forgotten Me, and trusted in falsehood. (What type of "falsehood" is being spoken of in this Passage? In this case, it pertained to idols; however, in any case, it pertains to "false doctrine" perpetrated by "false apostles, deceitful workers, and Satan's ministers" [II Cor. 11:13-15].)

26 Therefore will I discover your skirts upon your face, that your shame may appear. (The spirit of the Text is that Judah has "shamed" the Lord, and now He will "shame" them!)

27 I have seen your adulteries, and your neighings, the lewdness of your whoredom, and your abominations on the hills in the fields. Woe unto you, O Jerusalem! will you not be made clean? when shall it once be? (In this Passage, as in many others, Judah is likened to Jehovah's wife. As such, she has committed spiritual adultery. And these "whoredoms and abominations" have not been slight, but rather as evil as possible!)

CHAPTER 14

(601 B.C.)

THE LESSON ON THE FAMINE; JUDAH DESOLATE

[1] The Word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the dearth. (The word "dearth," which means "drought," is plural in the Hebrew, i.e., "droughts," actually referring to the length of time the drought lasted. This was an act of Judgment sent by God.)

[2] Judah mourns, and the gates thereof languish; they are black unto the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up. (This drought should not have been unexpected, because God had promised such if Israel went into sin [Lev. 26:19; Deut. 28:23]. Therefore, what He says He will do, He will do!)

[3] And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded, and covered their heads. (The "nobles" referred to the upper classes of Judah and Jerusalem. The "little ones" do not refer to children, but to their servants, or even "the common people." Verses 3 through 6 portray the futility of their efforts. There is no water, and they are "ashamed and confounded," to come back empty-handed; therefore, "they covered their heads.")

[4] Because the ground is chapt, for there was no rain in the Earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads. (The word "chapt" spoke of the ground being parched, dry, and barren. This means that the physical drought was symbolic of the spiritual drought!

The "plowmen" are symbolic of Jeremiah, who has no crops, i.e., harvest. The people do not respond to his Altar Calls, because of their hardened hearts, which are symbolized by the seed put into the ground by the "plowmen," which will not germinate for lack of water.)

5 Yes, the hind also calved in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grass. (The "hind" is a young deer. It is noted for its devotion to its offspring, and yet the drought is so severe that it "forsakes it." It does so because there is no grass.)

6 And the wild asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons; their eyes did fail, because there was no grass. ("Their eyes did fail," speaking of the animals, refers to the lack of ability to find "grass," and the weakness that ultimately overtakes them.)

JEREMIAH'S CONFESSION

7 O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, do You it for Your Name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against You. (In this Passage, Jeremiah begins to intercede for the people. The words, "iniquities," "backslidings," and "sins," express the moral character and worthlessness of man, however high may be his religious privileges. Hence, forgiveness can only be prayed for His Name's sake, i.e. in the Name of Jesus. That Name being Perfection, it secures a perfect pardon; however, Judah of old would not trust in that Blessed Name, of which the Sacrifices were a Type.)

8 O the hope of Israel, the Saviour thereof in time of trouble, why should You be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man who turns aside to tarry for a night? (The question, "Why should You be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man who turns aside to tarry for a night?", refers to an individual who is a "foreigner" in the land, someone who was only passing through, and consequently would only stay the night. As such, because they were not citizens, they enjoyed no rights, and had no say-so whatsoever regarding the manner in which the nation conducted itself.

Such was the Lord! Judah treated Him as if He was a foreigner, a stranger, and One Who had no say-so in the affairs of State.)

9 Why should You be as a man astonied, as a mighty Man Who cannot save? yet You, O LORD, are in the midst of us, and we are called by

Your Name; leave us not. (Jeremiah soberly asks the question of the Lord, "Why should You be as a man astonied?" The phrase means, "As one struck dumb." In these words which came from Jeremiah's heart, and also inspired by the Holy Spirit, one can easily see the broken heart of the Lord of Glory. He is "struck dumb" at Judah's reaction toward Him.

The continuing of the question, "As a mighty Man Who cannot save?" refers to One, in this case, the Lord, Who has the might to save Judah, but, in effect, "cannot save" them, because they will not allow Him to save them [Jn. 5:40].)

[10] Thus says the LORD unto this people, Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore the LORD does not accept them; He will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins. (Beginning with the word "therefore," Jeremiah quotes verbatim from Hos. 8:13; therefore, what the Holy Spirit said through Hosea to the Northern Kingdom those many years past, and by now long since in dispersion, He now says identically to the Southern Kingdom of Judah.)

GOD DECLARES THAT JUDGMENT IS COMING

[11] Then said the LORD unto me, Pray not for this people for their good. (This is the third time that the Lord has told Jeremiah to "pray not for this people" [7:16; 11:14]. The seriousness of this cannot be overemphasized!)

[12] When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer Burnt Offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence. (This Scripture does not present the idea that God will not respond to a truly sincere broken heart, crying to Him for Mercy and Forgiveness, but that He was rejecting Judah's heartless formalism and insincerity.)

JEREMIAH COMPLAINS; GOD ANSWERS: THE PROPHETS LIED; JUDGMENT IS COMING

[13] Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, the Prophets say unto them, You shall not see the sword, neither shall you have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place. ("The Prophets" spoken of here were "false prophets." Their message was the exact opposite of Jeremiah's, who stood alone in his pronouncements. In fact, as fast as he proclaimed the Word of God to Judah and Jerusalem, it was contradicted by these false prophets. He was prophesying judgment while they were prophesying "peace.")

14 Then the LORD said unto me, The Prophets prophesy lies in My Name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spoke unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart. (The closing Verses [13-18] predicted the doom of the false prophets, and God's denunciation of them. In fact, the blight of the modern Church is "those prophets who prophesy lies in My Name.")

15 Therefore thus sa ys the LORD concerning the Prophets who prophesy in My Name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed. (The pronouncement by the Lord in this Passage is chilling! "Those Prophets" then and "those Prophets" now will be consumed by the false message they proclaim.)

16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them. (Not only will the false preacher be consumed, but those who listen to him will be consumed as well. This is the tragedy and horror of this Truth.)

17 Therefore you shall say this Word unto them; Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of My People is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow. (The True Prophet, Christ, faithfully told men of their sins and of the wrath to come, but He did so with sobs and tears. Every Preacher controlled by the Holy Spirit, in like manner, warns men with tears [Acts 20:31], either secret or public.)

18 If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them who are sick with famine! yes, both the Prophet and the Priest go about into a land that they know not. (Jeremiah now jumps ahead to the coming destruction. He proclaims that both those "in the field" and "in the city" are stricken! They are either "slain" or "sick." Therefore, these false prophets would be shown up to be as the liars they are!

"Yes, both the Prophet and the Priest go about into a land that they know not," is strong indeed! It means that these false prophets, who were once idolized by the people but who are now shown to be what they really are, are "begging their way" into an unknown land — Babylon — at least the few who have not been killed by the sword or who have not died by famine.)

19 Have you utterly rejected Judah? has Your soul loathed Zion? why have you smitten us, and there is no healing for us? we looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble! (As a true intercessor, Jeremiah identifies himself with those for whom he intercedes; hence the "us," the "we," and the "our" of his prayer.)

20 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers: for we have sinned against You. (True Intercession functions in the same manner as the Great Intercessor, Christ. Jeremiah associated himself with Judah's sin, as Christ associates Himself with us in our sin. Consequently, in that Intercession, Christ pleads as if He sinned, which, of course, He did not. But on our behalf, He truly enters into our failure [Heb. 7:25].

The Intercession of which we speak has already been carried out, and is cataloged in most of the Psalms; consequently, the Presence of the Lord before the Father is now all that is required for Intercession, because Calvary paid it all [Heb. 1:3].)

21 Do not abhor us, for Your Name's sake, do not disgrace the Throne of Your Glory: remember, break not Your Covenant with us. (These efforts made by Jeremiah are given to us by the Holy Spirit in order that we may see the heart of this man. Despite the opposition of the people, Prophets, and Priests to him, he still cries to God on their behalf. Yet, he does not know the depths of their sin as Jehovah does!)

22 Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles who can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? are not You He, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon You: for You have made all these things. ("Vanities" refer to the false gods of the heathen. The inference is that many in Jerusalem were appealing to false gods to bring rain instead of seeking the "LORD our God." They, in effect, have said that they would not "wait upon Him any longer," while Jeremiah exclaims, "We will wait upon You."

The last phrase, "For You have made all these things," refers to the uselessness of appealing to these false gods, when, in reality, the Lord is the Creator of all! Therefore, He, and He Alone, can assuage the terrible problems of the drought and all other problems, for that matter!)

CHAPTER 15

JUDAH IS REJECTED AND FACES JUDGMENT

[1] Then said the LORD unto me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before Me, yet My mind could not be toward this people: cast them out of My sight, and let them go forth. ("Though Moses and Samuel stood before Me," suggests that these two through intercession had persuaded the Lord to change His direction regarding appointed destruction of the people of Israel. It does not mean that God changes His Mind, for He changes not, but that He has designed in His Plan the potential of proper intercession, and, by the proper people, the possibility of a different direction!

"Cast them out of My sight," is the command to the Prophet to do what he has been commissioned to foretell, i.e., their expulsion from the Promised Land, and their exile in Babylon.)

[2] And it shall come to pass, if they say unto you, Whither shall we go forth? then you shall tell them, Thus says the LORD; Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity. (In this Verse, we find that three-fourths of the people were doomed to death, and one-fourth to slavery, and all because of sin!)

[3] And I will appoint over them four kinds, says the LORD: the sword to kill, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the Earth, to devour and destroy. (The judgment of this Verse was a just one, for the people of Judah worshipped the gods of war, the vultures of the heavens, and the wild beasts of the Earth. "And I will appoint over them," means that the full Power of God will be pressed into service in order to bring about the Judgment.)

[4] And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the Earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem. (Manasseh repented of his evil conduct, and was wondrously cleansed and forgiven by the Lord, and is today in Heaven; however, the bitter fruits of his evil conduct prior to his humbling before the Lord remained and occasioned the Wrath of God some 80 years later [II Ki. 21:1-16].

Judah's being "removed into all kingdoms of the Earth" took place several years later upon the invasion of the Babylonians. The kingdoms of the Earth of which the Lord spoke were then ruled by Babylon.)

[5] For who shall have pity upon you, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan you? or who shall go aside to ask how you do? (The implication of this Verse is that "Jerusalem" would fall, suffering horribly, and no one would care. The surrounding nations not only would not care, but would themselves "come to devour" [12:9].)

[6] You have forsaken Me, says the LORD, you are gone backward: therefore will I stretch out My Hand against you, and destroy you; I am weary with repenting. ("I am weary with repenting," refers to the Lord, and not to Judah. He had, over and over again, delayed the Judgment [repented of what He was about to do], and now says He will no longer delay, for the cup of iniquity has long since spilled over, and she must be judged.)

[7] And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land; I will bereave them of children, I will destroy My People, since they return not from their ways. ("In the gates of the land," refers to the fortresses commanding the entrance into Judah, hence, the people being taken captive into Babylon close by these very fortresses designed to protect them.

"Since they return not from their ways," speaks of the cause of not only Judah's problems, but the cause of the problems of the entirety of mankind! Men want "their ways" instead of "God's Ways.")

[8] Their widows are increased to Me above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them against the mother of the young men a spoiler at noonday: I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly, and terrors upon the city. (The "spoiler" is Nebuchadnezzar. He will come at "noonday," referring to his powerful strength, which makes known what he will do, and has the power to carry it out.)

9 She who has borne seven languishes: she has given up the ghost; her sun is gone down while it was yet day: she has been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, says the LORD. (So wholesale would be the destruction of life that a mother of seven sons would not have one left to comfort her. Upon hearing these Prophecies, the people thought them to be lunatic and, therefore, they cursed Jeremiah, as will be proclaimed in the next Verse.)

10 Woe is me, my mother, that you have borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole Earth! I have neither lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury; yet every one of them does curse me. (The Spirit of Christ expresses Itself in Jeremiah. In Christ, the expression is perfect; in Jeremiah, imperfect, because the Prophet was only a man, and sinful. He loved the people, bore their sorrows upon his heart, confessed their sins, suffered in sympathy their judgments; and yet they hated him.

He seems to not be able to comprehend the cause of their tremendous opposition — even to the taking of his life, if the Lord had allowed them!)

THE WICKED ARE JUDGED; A REMNANT SPARED

11 The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with your Remnant; verily I will cause the enemy to intreat you well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction. ("Your Remnant," shows that there were a few who heeded Jeremiah's words and, therefore, followed him, as he followed the Lord. [The Remnant could also refer to the small number left in the land as caretakers after the fall of Judah.]

The "enemy" was the Babylonians, and they truly would treat Jeremiah "well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction." He was treated well by these, but not his own, which prefigured Christ being crucified by His Own, but rather received by the Gentiles [Mat. 12:21].)

12 Shall iron break the northern iron and the steel? (The "iron" is Judah, while the "northern iron" is the Chaldeans. The figure expresses the impossibility of Judah, at least within their own power, defeating the Chaldeans.)

13 Your substance and your treasures will I give to the spoil without price, and that for all your sins, even in all your borders. (This Verse proclaims the "substance and treasures" of Judah being given as "spoil" to the Babylonians.)

14 And I will make you to pass with your enemies into a land which you know not: for a fire is kindled in My anger, which shall burn upon you. (Jeremiah, in this Verse, at least in part, is quoting from Deut. 32:22. "To pass with your enemies" refers to being taken to Babylon. "For a fire is kindled in My anger," speaks of the fire stirred up in the heart of God because of the sins of the people.)

JEREMIAH'S PERSONAL LAMENT

15 O LORD, You know: remember me, and visit me, and revenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in Your longsuffering: know that for Your sake I have suffered rebuke. (The Prophet in this Passage prays for the Remnant. In the Spirit of Christ, he calls their persecutors his persecutors, and pleads that God, in His longsuffering to the persecutors, will not allow the persecuted to perish; adding that in his identification of himself with the Remnant he, therefore, suffered reproach. Verse 19 will enlighten this interpretation even more.)

16 Your Words were found, and I did eat them; and Your Word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of my heart: for I am called by Your Name, O LORD God of Hosts. (The Bible was found in the Eighteenth year of King Josiah, and its Divine Words were the joy and rejoicing of the Prophet's heart. In this Verse, the Prophet is a marked Type of Christ.

"Your Words were found, and I did eat them," reveals Jeremiah's great love for the Word of God.)

17 I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of Your Hand: for You have filled me with indignation. (As his Message was rejected, so was he rejected and, therefore, he "sat not in the assembly of the mockers." "Mockers" mocked his Message and laughed at him; consequently, he was "alone," save the small Remnant. Actually, his own family turned against him [12:6], along with all the Priests and Prophets. From this source, there was no encouraging voice.)

18 Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuses to be healed? will You be altogether unto me as a liar, and as waters that fail? (His indignation against sin, his perpetual pain for the sinner, his consciousness of a moral hopelessness of the nation, all marked the energy and intelligence of the Divine life and love in his soul.

When he asked the question, "Will You be altogether unto me as a liar?", he was referring to God's Promises of protection to him. From the anger of the people, who did continually curse him [Vs. 10], he was fearful for his life, and afraid that God had changed His Mind about his preservation. He asked the question, because his future looked hopeless!)

GOD PROMISES TO PRESERVE JEREMIAH IN THE TROUBLE

19 Therefore thus says the LORD, If you return, then will I bring you again, and you shall stand before Me: and if you take forth the precious from the vile, you shall be as My mouth: let them return unto you; but return not you unto them. (In the last three Verses, the Prophet is addressed as the representative of the Remnant. The Remnant was first to return to Jehovah, thereby separating the precious from the vile; and second, to invite the nation to come over to them — but they were not to return to the nation.

As a result, the Remnant should enjoy protection and deliverance. All this, Daniel and his companions found to be true.)

20 And I will make you unto this people a fenced brasen wall: and they shall fight against you, but they shall not prevail against you: for I am with you to save you and to deliver you, says the LORD. (In effect, the Lord is saying that as He delivered Jeremiah from these staggering odds, He, as well, could have, and in fact would have, delivered Judah from the Babylonians, if they had only trusted Him and served Him.)

21 And I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the hand of the terrible. (These individuals would have killed Jeremiah in a moment but for the Hand of the Lord. Their hearts are so wicked, and their intentions so evil, that the Holy Spirit describes them as "wicked" and "terrible.")

CHAPTER 16

JEREMIAH TO REMAIN UNMARRIED AS A SIGN

[1] The Word of the LORD came also unto me, saying (in the giving of this Prophecy, Jeremiah is no doubt referring back some 20 years earlier when the Prophecy was first given to him by the Lord; he is just now relating to Judah what was said)**,

[2] You shall not take you a wife, neither shall you have sons or daughters in this place. (So certain and so imminent was the coming Wrath of God that Jeremiah was commanded not to marry [Vs. 2], not to mourn [Vs. 5], and not to feast [Vs. 8].)

[3] For thus says the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them, and concerning their fathers who begat them in this land (normally, the dearest thing to parents is their children; therefore, to be told that their children were going to die in the coming catastrophe, and for them to pay no heed, only shows the depths of their unbelief and wickedness!)**;

[4] They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the Earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcases shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the Earth. (The words, "grievous deaths," mean deadly diseases, starvation, and sword. "They shall not be lamented," refers to parents or loved ones who are actually glad that the child or children are dead, simply because death will relieve them of the pain, suffering, and starvation. "Neither shall they be buried," refers to the lack of burial places, due to the Babylonians surrounding the city.)

5 For thus says the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away My peace from this people, says the LORD, even lovingkindness and mercies. ("The house of mourning" actually means "the house of screaming." Such denotes the extensive horror that is going to take place! "For I have taken away My peace from this people," refers to the Lord, Who had protected them, but now will allow the Babylonians to wage war and succeed. The people showed no restraint in their worshipping of idols, therefore, idol worshippers will show no restraint upon them!)

6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them ("the great and the small" signify that none shall escape! As well, none of the usual mourning for the dead would be practiced, because so many will have died)**:

7 Neither shall men tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother.

8 You shall not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink. (In a time of crisis, a true Servant of God must become a personal witness for God, and thus will he best help his perishing fellowmen. Jeremiah's action in withdrawing from sympathizing with his fellow countrymen in either their sorrows or their joys was an announcement of the wrath to come, which they were compelled to hear. But they refused to believe it, and the terrific doom announced against them came to pass, and actually, in a sense, is still in operation.)

9 For thus sa ys the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride. (When Jeremiah gave these Prophecies, Judah and Jerusalem were in a time of great prosperity! His "voice of judgment" sounded foreign to their "voice of mirth," and his "voice of sadness" sounded bitter to their "voice of gladness.")

10 And it shall come to pass, when you shall show this people all these words, and they shall say unto you, Wherefore has the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God? (In this Passage, we learn that sin deadens the conscience.)

11 Then shall you say unto them, Because your fathers have forsaken Me, says the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken Me, and have not kept My Law (the answer to the sarcastic questions which will be asked by the people of Judah and Jerusalem is now given by the Lord. This Scripture proclaims the fact that the cup of judgment has been building for a long time. Twice in this one Verse the Lord says, "have forsaken Me")**;

12 And you have done worse than your fathers; for, behold, you walk every one after the imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto Me (the pronoun "you" is emphatic, meaning to emphasize strongly. In effect, the Lord is saying, "And as for you... ." As bad as the "fathers" were, these "have done worse"! Even after being repeatedly shown their sin, with continued pleading for Repentance, Judah stubbornly refused to yield)**:

13 Therefore will I cast you out of this land into a land that you know not, neither you nor your fathers; and there shall you serve other gods day and night; where I will not show you favour. ("Therefore will I cast you out of this land," refers to the twofold investment by the Lord, referring to both the people and the land. The Land was very special to Him, and had been chosen especially for His People. It was a Land flowing with milk and honey, and had been called "The Promised Land."

"A land that you know not," is Babylon.

"And there shall you serve other gods day and night," means to be compelled by torture to serve [Dan., Chpts. 3, 6].

"Where I will not show you favor," refers to His Divine leading. Such, with some few exceptions, will be lifted during the exile.)

14 Therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD lives, Who brought up the Children of Israel out of the land of Egypt (as the darkness of a tunnel may be realized by contrast with the bright burst of sunshine on issuing from its mouth, so the sunshine of Verses 14 and 15 reveal the darkness of Verses 13 and 16 through 18. Great as was the suffering in Egypt, and great as was the deliverance therefrom, so much greater is Israel's present affliction, and so much more wonderful will be her future Deliverance, that the wonders of the former redemption will be obscured by those of the future)**;

15 But, The LORD lives, Who brought up the Children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither He had driven them: and I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers. (Plainly and beautifully, the Lord says that Israel will not be destroyed, but only severely chastised. It is evident that the restoration from Babylon did not fulfill the language of this Verse, because this proposes the recovery of all the Children of Israel out of all the countries in which they are presently dispersed. This will take place in the coming Kingdom Age.)

16 Behold, I will send for many fishers, says the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks. (The "fishers" and the "hunters" refer to the individuals [possibly even Angels] who will search the entirety of the world in order to bring every single Jew to the Holy Land. This will be after the Second Coming of Christ.)

17 For My eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from My face, neither is their iniquity hid from My eyes. (The sense of this Verse is that God notes all the ways of Israel, both good and bad, as He also does with every Believer!)

18 And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double; because they have defiled My land, they have filled My inheritance with the carcases of their detestable and abominable things. (The words, "And first I will recompense," mean "But first of all." "I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double," does not have the same meaning as Isa.

61:7. There it refers to Mercy and Forgiveness, while here it means punishment, even double punishment. The reason? "They have defiled My Land.")

19 O LORD, my Strength, and my Fortress, and my Refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto You from the ends of the Earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things wherein there is no profit. (The Restoration of Israel during the coming Kingdom Age will ensure the Salvation of the Gentiles. They and the sons of Israel will cast away their idols and learn once for all and forever of the existence and might of Jehovah.

"Day of affliction," refers to all such times, but more particularly to the coming Great Tribulation, which in essence will serve to bring Israel back to God.)

20 Shall a man make gods unto himself, and they are no gods? (The absurdity of the creature forming the Creator is finally expressed in this Verse. All of these false religions are called "gods," and are said to be man-made and therefore useless!)

21 Therefore, behold, I will this once cause them to know, I will cause them to know My Hand and My Might; and they shall know that My Name is The LORD. ("Therefore, behold, I will this once cause them to know," means that "once for all," which refers to the coming Great Tribulation and Jehovah's Deliverance of Israel, which will settle for all time Who Jehovah is!)

CHAPTER 17

THE SIN OF JUDAH

[1] The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is graven upon the table of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars ("Written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond," signifies that the "heart" has become so hard that it takes a "pen" made of "iron," with its tip made of diamond, one of the hardest substances known to man, in order to penetrate such a hard heart.

Such portrays the utter foolishness of man's flimsy self-help programs for bringing about change! Only the Power of God can set such a captive free!);

[2] While their children remember their altars and their groves by the green trees upon the high hills. (The children remembered other children who had been offered as human sacrifice to these horrible and hideous idols. Such would create a horror in the minds of these children, as they wondered if they would be next, or as they grieved over the loss of loved ones. Such further portrays the hardness of heart of the parents, who left Jehovah, the God of Love and Mercy, and instead served these heathen gods.)

[3] O My mountain in the field, I will give your substance and all your treasures to the spoil, and your high places for sin, throughout all your borders. ("O My mountain in the field," refers to Mount Zion, the site of the Temple. "Your substance" and "your treasures" refer to the holy utensils, such as the Brazen Altar, the Brazen Laver, and the Golden Lamp-stand, etc., which would be taken by Nebuchadnezzar as "spoil." As well, all of their heathen idols on the "high places for sin" throughout the entirety of the Judah would also be taken!)

4 And you, even yourself, shall discontinue from your heritage that I gave you; and I will cause you to serve your enemies in the land which you know not: for you have kindled a fire in My anger, which shall burn forever. ("And I will cause you to serve your enemies," refers to being taken to Babylon and serving Nebuchadnezzar. They now revert to the slavery from which they were delivered when they came out of Egypt.

"You have kindled a fire in My anger," refers to God's just "anger" regarding sin and the judicial judgment that always follows.

"Which shall burn forever," means that God will forever conduct Himself accordingly toward willful rebellion and disobedience.)

TRUST IN GOD IS THE ONLY HOPE

5 Thus says the LORD; Cursed be the man who trusts in man, and makes flesh his arm, and whose heart departs from the LORD. (The people of Judah at this time proposed an alliance with the Egyptians as a protection from the Chaldeans. The folly of trusting them and not Jehovah and the wisdom of trusting Jehovah and not them are contrasted in Verses 5 through 8; and [Vs. 9] the nature of the heart — incurably diseased with deceit — which proposed this alliance is exposed. In a sense, Paul's statement in Gal. 1:8-9 is the same as here.)

6 For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good comes; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land and not inhabited. ("The heath" is insensible and fruitless. Such is the Christless man insensible of good, fruitless in life, and a stranger to real fellowship. The sense of this Verse is that inasmuch as the people of Israel treated the Promised Land as they did, they would now "inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land and not [previously] inhabited.")

7 Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is. (Verse 5 says that the man who does not trust in the Lord is "cursed," while this Verse says that the man who trusts in the Lord is "blessed." There you have it! This is where the die is cast.)

[8] For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreads out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat comes, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit. (To trust in the Lord gives one the "Fruit of the Spirit." To trust man is to be "cursed by the Lord." The modern Church should note this in her acceptance of humanistic psychology in place of the Word of God.)

[9] The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? (God knows the hopeless corruption of the natural heart, and so He said to Nicodemus that no one, however cultured and moral, can either see or enter into the Kingdom of God. There must be a new birth.)

[10] I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. ("I the LORD search the heart," refers to the fact that only God knows the heart. "I try the reins," refers to the Lord allowing certain particulars to take place, according to the disposition of the individual involved, in order to bring out what is actually there. The Lord through Omniscience already knows all things, in other words, what is in the heart of man, even before man knows it. But in order that man not be able to say that he is unjustly judged, the Lord allows events to transpire, uncaused or caused by Him, which always reveal exactly what is in the heart, whether good or bad. This is done in order that the Judgment Day will be fair and impartial, and that the record of such actions can be shown in black and white to the individual, who, at that time, will be without argument. Therefore, his judgment will be "according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.")

[11] As the partridge sits on eggs, and hatches them not; so he who gets riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool. (The sense of this Verse is that whoever trusts in wealth is a fool. To trust man [Vs. 5], to trust one's own heart [Vs. 9], or to trust wealth [Vs. 11] ensures ruin.)

[12] A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of Our Sanctuary. (In Verses 12 through 14, the wisdom of trusting Jehovah, the Hope of Israel, and the happiness which results are contrasted with the folly and misery of confidence in human saviours. The pronoun "Our" in the phrase, "Our Sanctuary," is emphatic. The word "Sanctuary" speaks of a place of sacred security; that place is glorious, it is set on high above the reach of calamity, and is long established. It is for the one who trusts exclusively in the Lord!)

[13] O LORD, the hope of Israel, all who forsake You shall be ashamed, and they who depart from me shall be written in the Earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the Fountain of Living Waters. (This refers to the "Fountain of Life," which ever flows forth, in contrast to the "parched places" of Verse 6.)

[14] Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for You are my praise. (In this Verse, the Prophet, pleading on behalf of the people as their representative and identifying himself with them, prays that their incurably sick hearts may be healed. How can a wicked and deceitful heart be trusted? He pleads that God, not the Egyptian Monarch, should save them from the impending danger.)

[15] Behold, they say unto me, Where is the Word of the LORD? let it come now. (The people for whom Jeremiah prayed ridiculed the Divine Judgment which the Prophet announced, and, with skeptical contempt, demanded an immediate demonstration of it.)

[16] As for me, I have not hastened from being a Pastor to follow You: neither have I desired the woeful day; You know: that which came out of my lips was right before You. (Jeremiah, like a true Minister of the Gospel, did not in self-will choose to be a Preacher, nor, when bravely and faithfully announcing the coming Day of Judgment, did he desire that day; and he can sincerely state that the Truth he preached was uttered in the conscious Presence of God.)

[17] Be not a terror unto me: You are my hope in the day of evil. (The words, "Be not a terror unto me," refer to the possibility that the Lord could forsake him, as threatened in 1:17. Thus he appealed to God for protection and vindication.)

18 Let them be confounded who persecute me, but let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction. (Jeremiah now sees the necessity of such destruction and, in effect, sees as God sees!)

KEEPING THE SABBATH

19 Thus said the LORD unto me; Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem (this was to be done so that everyone would hear and so no one would be able to say, "I did not know")**;

20 And say unto them, Hear you the Word of the LORD, you kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, who enter in by these gates (one can well imagine Jeremiah standing first at one gate and then the next, and possibly holding up a Scroll of the Pentateuch, saying, "Hear you the Word of the Lord." His Message, sadly, was not received favorably, but rather was scorned with skepticism and bold opposition)**:

21 Thus says the LORD; Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem (the people have evidently claimed that they had already repented, or else they needed no repentance. At any rate, one test of professed Repentance was proposed to them, the observance of the Sabbath)**;

22 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do you any work, but hallow you the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers. (The length of the captivity — 70 years — was made to correspond with each seventh year, which was supposed to be kept as a Sabbath for the entire year, which they had defiled during the entirety of their 490 years of history from Saul to the exile [Lev. 26:34-35; II Chron. 36:21]. So the Lord would collect His Sabbaths, which numbered exactly 70 years.)

[23] But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction. (All God has ever required is "obedience." "But made their neck stiff," refers to an unbowing [unbending], which manifests itself in the average sinner of all races in all ages. "Nor receive instruction," refers to the fact that the Lord stands ready to give "instruction.")

[24] And it shall come to pass, if you diligently hearken unto Me, says the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein (which means to use the day not only to rest, but to understand that it is God Who has given this for the good of man and, therefore, that He be praised)**;

[25] Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: and this city shall remain forever. (This Prophecy was given no doubt several times, and to as many Kings. Sadly, it was rejected! And yet Grace outlined a picture of glory and happiness for them; for God in His longsuffering, even at the last moment, opened the door of Repentance to them and to their King. But they refused!)

[26] And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing Burnt Offerings, and Sacrifices, and Meat Offerings, and Incense, and bringing Sacrifices of Praise, unto the House of the LORD. (Verse 26 tells us that "the House of the LORD" is the principal interest after Repentance. Verse 21 proclaims the pleasing of themselves, while Verse 26 proclaims the pleasing of God.)

[27] But if you will not hearken unto Me to hallow the sabbath day, and not to bear a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day; then will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched. (Christ is God's Sabbath. To burden that Sabbath with sacerdotalism and its ceremonies and doctrines is to desecrate and destroy it. In other words, under the New Covenant, serving Christ, Who is the True Sabbath, constitutes "keeping the Sabbath.")

CHAPTER 18

(605 B.C.)

THE LESSON FROM THE POTTER

[1] The Word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying (the offer of Repentance will again be enjoined, but with no success. In fact, greater opposition will be plotted against the Prophet),

[2] Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear My Words. (The "potter's house" was where various utensils were made of clay.)

[3] Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels. (Jeremiah was to behold the work of the potter; the lesson would concern Judah.)

[4] And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it. (The lesson of the potter's house is that God never mends what man mars. He creates something new. Man attempts to mend the vessel, i.e., "rehabilitation," which is impossible.)

[5] Then the Word of the LORD came to me, saying (this "Word" will concern the lesson learned),

[6] O House of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? says the LORD. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are you in My Hand, O House of Israel. (The interpretation of this symbol belongs to the "House of Israel." The Verse beginning and closing as it does with these words decides the interpretation of the symbol; but its application is general. God's liberty of action is absolute. There is, and can be, no moral change in Him; but the moral changes in man are recognized by Him, and He, therefore, in His sovereignty, judges or forgives them accordingly. Plainly this symbol proclaims the glaring fact that God can change the person or the situation; however, He must do it in His Own Way.)

[7] At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it (the idea is: Judah, or any nation for that matter, even on the brink of destruction, with judgment already pronounced, if they will repent, as is outlined in the next Verse, "God will repent," i.e., change His direction about what He had previously thought to do! It is not so much that God changes, but rather that men change through Repentance)**;

[8] If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them. (True heartfelt Repentance on the part of men brings about the change on the part of God. Without that Repentance, judgment will continue.)

[9] And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it (the "instant" spoken of in this Passage concerns the moment the Gospel is proclaimed to that "nation"; according to its rejection or acceptance, the Lord will either do "evil" or "good")**;

[10] If it do evil in My sight, that it obey not My voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit them. (The Lord desires to do good to any and all, but what He does depends upon the "obedience" of the individual or individuals involved.)

[11] Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus says the LORD; Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return you now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good. ("Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you," refers to the calamity that God was framing against them at this time, which was the Chaldean invasion.

Again, this Passage implies that God either frames "evil" or "good" against His Children according to their disobedience or obedience!)

12 And they said, There is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart. (Coupling this Verse with Verse 18, the words, "There is no hope," mean: "There is no hope in your preaching! You are a killjoy Prophet! You say our hearts are evil as well as our religious plans, but we deny both charges. Despite all that you are predicting, the Law will not perish from the Priests.")

13 Therefore thus says the LORD; Ask you now among the heathen, who has heard such things: the virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing. (The "very horrible thing" of this Verse was Israel's forsaking Jehovah for Baal. "The virgin of Israel," has to do with what Israel should have been instead of what she actually was. As well, the word "virgin" had to do with Israel being the only nation in the world who knew the True God.)

14 Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon which comes from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken? (In this symbol, Christ is compared to the cool and pure waters which flow from the summit of Lebanon; and man's religion, to the muddy waters of the trampled field. Tragically, Christ has been "forsaken"!)

15 Because My People have forgotten Me, they have burned incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the ancient paths, to walk in paths, in a way not cast up (the word "vanity" actually means "empty nothings." Whenever God is forsaken, men receive nothing for their trade; however, these "nothings" are made very enticing, because men are easily deceived. The "ancient paths" refer to the Bible)**;

16 To make their land desolate, and a perpetual hissing; everyone who passes thereby shall be astonished, and wag his head. (As the forsaking of the Bible "made their land desolate," it is making America desolate, as well! Jerusalem, which had been the city of gold, would now be destroyed, and so completely that passersby would be "astonished" and "wag their heads.")

17 I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity. (The "east wind" was a stormy wind and was used as symbolism regarding the "scattering" of Judah "before the enemy." This refers to the Babylonian invasion, with the terminology portraying the fact that God, not Nebuchadnezzar, designed all!

"I will show them the back, and not the face," refers to Judgment and not Blessing.)

18 Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the Law shall not perish from the Priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the Prophet. Come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words. (This Verse is the answer of the people to Jeremiah's Prophecies!)

JEREMIAH'S PRAYER

19 Give heed to me, O LORD, and hearken to the voice of them who contend with me. (The Speaker in Verses 19 through 23 is Christ. His Spirit in Jeremiah thus prays. It is not a prayer for the gratification of personal vengeance, such as fallen human nature would use, but the prayer of a crowned-counsel justly demanding a righteous judgment upon evildoers in the interest of truth and society. If it is right for God to punish evildoers, then it is right to pray Him to do so; and such men having been forewarned of the consequences to them and to their families, no charge of injustice can be brought against God for carrying out the decrees of these righteous Laws.

This and similar prayers in the Bible belong to the past dispensation of Law and the future dispensation of Righteousness — not to the present dispensation of Grace.)

20 Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have dug a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before You to speak good for them, and to turn away Your wrath from them. (The "good" spoken of by Jeremiah was the Word of God given to them and the intercession he made to the Lord on their behalf.)

[21] Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the force of the sword; and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death; let their young men be killed by the sword in battle. (The action of this prayer, allowed by the Holy Spirit, is that Judah and Jerusalem desired such, and such they would have! If man wills evil, God wills further evil to him. They had denied the veracity of Jeremiah's Prophecies; therefore, there was nothing left for them but "famine," "blood," and "death.")

[22] Let a cry be heard from their houses, when You shall bring a troop suddenly upon them: for they have dug a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet. (The petition of this Verse is that they themselves fall into the "pit they have digged for Jeremiah"!)

[23] Yet, LORD, You know all their counsel against me to kill me: forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from Your Sight, but let them be overthrown before You; deal thus with them in the time of Your Anger. (These individuals hated the Prophet so much that they "took counsel against him to kill him." They were not satisfied to reject the Message; they wanted to destroy the Messenger, as well! Such has been the case throughout the ages.

The Lord could not "forgive their iniquity, nor blot out their sin from His sight," because they did not desire such. God cannot forgive sins that are unconfessed, with the person, thereby, unrepentant! He can only forgive those who come to Him in humble contrition, who earnestly seek His Mercy and Grace; from such He has promised to never turn away [I Jn. 1:9].)

CHAPTER 19

THE LESSON FROM THE BROKEN POTTERY

[1] Thus says the LORD, Go and get a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the Priests (the "earthen bottle" was a bottle made of clay, and, therefore, easily broken. Jeremiah was to take this "earthen bottle" to the "ancients of the people, and the ancients of the Priests," and, after pronouncing judgment, break the bottle in their sight, symbolizing therewith the breaking and destruction of Judah and Jerusalem)**;

[2] And go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell you (it was to this valley, its worm, and its fire to which our Lord pointed when preaching about Hell; but He added that in that dread place [Hell] the worm should not die nor the fire be quenched, because that on which they feed shall never be annihilated; thereby will Hell be different from the valley of Hinnom [Mk. 9:48])**,

[3] And say, Hear you the Word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever hears, his ears shall tingle. (The implication is that the king[s] would enjoy no more respite than the people. As one, so the other! Therefore, no deal could be struck with the king of Babylon ensuring the safety of the Nobles.

"I will bring evil," refers to the sovereignty and ability of God, which are unlimited. It speaks of His total control over all things. Nebuchadnezzar, the heathen monarch, would think the plan is his; but, in reality, he was but a tool!)

[4] Because they have forsaken Me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents ("And have estranged this place," means to devote their worship to strange divinities. "And have filled this place with the blood of innocents," is chilling indeed! It referred to the slaughter of little children, offered up in sacrifice to Moloch)**;

5 They have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spoke it, neither came it into My mind (the Spirit of God in Jeremiah, as afterwards in Christ, did not hesitate to repeat His Messages, so Verses 5 through 6 repeat 7:31-32)**:

6 Therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Tophet, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of slaughter. ("The valley of slaughter" referred to this same valley of "Hinnom," where these awful human sacrifices were carried out. As they had made it a "valley of slaughter," God would now make it a "valley of slaughter," and even on a far greater scale! Jesus plainly said, "With what measure you mete, it shall be measured to you again" [Mat. 7:2].)

7 And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them who seek their lives: and their carcases will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the Earth. (The "counsel of Judah and Jerusalem" was their plan to defeat the Chaldeans by means of the Egyptian alliance. But, in that very valley of Hinnom, the folly of that plan would be demonstrated by the appalling slaughter carried out by the Chaldeans on the men who made it. There were they justly punished for the blood of the tortured children burned alive in sacrifice to Moloch. Such cruelty to children, especially by God's chosen People, never was contemplated by the loving heart of God.)

8 And I will make this city desolate, and an hissing; everyone who passes thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all the plagues thereof. (The response to Jeremiah's Message was met with "hissing"; therefore, the Lord would "make this city an hissing.")

9 And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and straitness, wherewith their enemies, and they who seek their lives, shall straiten them. (This Ninth Verse is quoted almost verbatim from Deut. 28:53. The words, "in the siege," refer to the coming siege of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar. As a result, the city was shut up tight, with no traffic coming in or out. The food, therefore, quickly ran out!)

10 Then shall you break the bottle in the sight of the men who go with you (once again, the Lord will use apt symbolism to make His point!; the breaking of the bottle signified the destruction of Judah and Jerusalem that was soon to come)**,

11 And shall say unto them, Thus s ays the LORD of Hosts; Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again: and they shall bury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury. (By using this type of vessel, the Lord portrays to Judah and Jerusalem their utter worthlessness as far as He was concerned! Conversely, they no doubt had a very high opinion of themselves.

"That cannot be made whole again," refers to the utter destruction of Judah and Jerusalem. In fact, they have never been "whole" from that day until this!)

12 Thus will I do unto this place, says the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, and even make this city as Tophet:

13 And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose roofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink offerings unto other gods. (The worship of the "host of heaven" was especially forbidden in Deut. 4:19. These "other gods" were either Baal or a derivative of Baal, such as Chemosh, etc.)

14 Then came Jeremiah from Tophet, whither the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of the LORD's House; and said to all the people (Jeremiah, having finished his mission in the "valley of Hinnom," now goes, according to the direction of the Lord, to the "court of the LORD's House." This is at the Temple. The Holy Spirit, no doubt, desires to draw attention to the fact that while the people are "pouring out drink offerings unto other gods," they are also worshipping Jehovah in the Temple! In their minds, because of doing this, they are even more religious; but in God's Mind, they are abominable!),

15 Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because they have hardened their necks, that they might not hear My Words. (To "harden the neck" in order not to hear means to refuse to turn the head to a speaker so as to listen to him. Consequently, Jeremiah's words fell upon deaf ears. They ignored him as if he was not there.)

CHAPTER 20

JEREMIAH'S IMPRISONMENT

[1] Now Pashur the son of Immer the Priest, who was also chief governor in the House of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things. (As evil as this man was, he was still "chief governor in the House of the LORD." Too much and too often the religious hierarchy, typified by "Pashur," persecutes the true followers of the Lord, typified by "Jeremiah." This evil man felt he had to stop the preaching of Jeremiah.)

[2] Then Pashur smote Jeremiah the Prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the House of the LORD. (Pashur, the chief officer of the Temple, scourged Jeremiah, as the Apostle Paul afterwards was scourged, and then, without any Scriptural warrant, condemned him, for about twenty-four hours, to the torture of the stocks. This was a beam of timber with five holes in it, through which the head, the hands, and the feet were thrust, thus bending the body so as to cause great suffering.

So it was with Christ! His greatest enemies were the ruling religious order of His day. They opposed Him bitterly then, and they oppose Him bitterly now!)

[3] And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The LORD has not called your name Pashur, but Magor-missabib. ("Pashur" means "security on every side," while "Magor-missabib" means "terror on every side." The words of Verses 3 through 6 were not the hot-tempered utterance of the Prophet, but the solemn warnings of Jehovah.)

[4] For thus says the LORD, Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself, and to all your friends: and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes shall behold it: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword. ("I will make you a terror to yourself, and to all your friends," refers to the coming Judgment heaped upon those who listen to "Pashur" rather than to "Jeremiah.")

5 Moreover I will deliver all the strength of the city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon. (The "strength" and "labor" pertain to the wealth obtained by the people of Judah and Jerusalem. It would all be forfeited to "the king of Babylon." Therefore, they would now lose all the things for which they sold their souls, as all such things are always lost!)

6 And you, Pashur, and all who dwell in your house shall go into captivity: and you shall come to Babylon, and there you shall die, and shall be buried there, you, and all your friends, to whom you have prophesied lies. (The terrible punishment inflicted upon Jeremiah by Pashur little quenched the ardor of the Prophet. His Message is as straightforward now as it was before, and even more so, if possible! This time the Message is directed to "Pashur" and pulls no punches.)

JEREMIAH'S COMPLAINT

7 O LORD, You have deceived me, and I was deceived: You are stronger than I, and have prevailed: I am in derision daily, every one mocks me. (The twice-used word "deceived," in the Hebrew, is "patha," which would have been better translated "persuaded," as it was in Prov. 25:15. Jeremiah is referring to his original call and the powerful persuasive force used by the Lord regarding his call.)

8 For since I spoke, I cried out, I cried violence and spoil; because the Word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision, daily. (The subject of his preaching is expressed in the two words, "violence" and "spoil." This oppression and robbery of the poor so deeply stirred him that he shouted aloud against it, but the only response to his outcries was that he was had in derision daily, and everyone laughed at him.)

9 Then I said, I will not make mention of Him, nor speak any more in His Name. But His Word was in my heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay. (In view of the terrible opposition, even bodily harm, the Prophet actually stopped preaching, at least for a while. The cause of the opposition was "Him" and "His Name."

However, he found it impossible to cease from preaching. The fire of the Divine Wrath against sin burned so fiercely within him that he could not help but resume his work.)

10 For I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side. Report, say they, and we will report it. All my familiars watched for my halting, saying, Peradventure he will be enticed, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him. (The "defaming" and "fear" have relation to the Prophet. "Denounce" and "we will denounce him" are the words of his enemies encouraging one another and his pretended friends to "entice him" to a moral lapse or a charge of heresy against the Law of Moses, and so to denounce him to the judges and have him put to death, or at least destroy any influence he may have.)

11 But the LORD is with me as a mighty terrible One: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail: they shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not prosper: their everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten. (The idea of this Verse is that the persecution of Jeremiah by his enemies hastened their destruction and deepened their punishment. As such, the Holy Spirit says it "shall never be forgotten"!)

12 But, O LORD of Hosts, Who tries the righteous, and sees the reins and the heart, let me see Your vengeance on them: for unto You have I opened my cause. (The words, "You try the righteous, and see the reins and the heart," refer back to his severe persecutions and why they were allowed to take place. This phraseology proves that Jeremiah understands, at least as far as one can understand, the Ways of the Lord in allowing such persecution.)

13 Sing unto the LORD, praise you the LORD: for He has delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evildoers. (Here, Faith gives the victory, foresees the judgment, and sings.)

14 Cursed be the day wherein I was born: let not the day wherein my mother bore me be blessed. (Verses 14 through 18, as far as the time frame is concerned, do not follow Verse 13, but in fact precede it. These words were uttered by the Prophet most probably when suffering the torment of the stocks.)

15 Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, A man child is born unto you; making him very glad.

16 And let that man be as the cities which the LORD overthrew, and repented not: and let him hear the cry in the morning, and the shouting at noontide (Jeremiah is quoting from Job 3:3-12. Deep emotion expresses itself in the language suggested by the moment. The Prophet, even though retouching the discourses, would leave much of the original expression.

The modern Christian, filled with Faith, would have a tendency to demean the Prophet for uttering such words; however, in every human life, even the Godliest, there must be some encouragement in order for the effort to continue. Jeremiah had none! No one complimented him on his Message! Even those who claimed friendship, as outlined in Verse 10, were secretly plotting his overthrow!

Therefore, the question does not pertain itself to the venting of discouragement by the Prophet, but rather that he was able to do as well as he did!);

17 Because He killed me not from the womb; or that my mother might have been my grave, and her womb to be always great with me. (The idea is that inasmuch as they were going to kill him anyhow, it would be better, or so he thought, had he died "in the womb." As stated, this was no doubt said while he was in the stocks and after having experienced the terrible beating. At this time, his faith is sorely tested. He is wondering if God has forgotten His Promise made to him — that over him "his enemies would not prevail” [1:19].)

18 Wherefore came I forth out of the womb to see labour and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame? (This Verse is not a statement but rather a question, and it is answered in the Thirteenth Verse.)

CHAPTER 21

ZEDEKIAH'S INQUIRY

[1] The Word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent unto him Pashur the son of Melchiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the Priest, saying (Chapters 21 through 24 are an entirely different set of Prophecies than those ending with the last Verse of the Twentieth Chapter. This Chapter records the Divine Wrath upon Jerusalem, announced on the eve of the fall of the city, and the following Chapters show the justice of that Wrath.

The "Pashur" of this Chapter is not Pashur the son of Immer of Chapter 20. Some Nineteen years separate the Prophecies addressed to these two Priests),

[2] Enquire, I pray you, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon makes war against us; if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all His wondrous works, that He may go up from us. (The phrase, used by king Zedekiah, "That the LORD will deal with us according to all His wondrous works," portrays man using religious language when he is in trouble and talking of God's "wondrous works." But yet, they can remain, like Zedekiah and the Priests and Princes, unconverted and rebellious.

This illustrates the great Bible doctrine that man is a moral wreck, comparable to a broken vessel of pottery and, therefore, impossible of rehabilitation; hence, he must be re-made [II Cor. 5:17].)

THE DESTRUCTION OF JERUSALEM FORETOLD

[3] Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall you say to Zedekiah (many men, when preaching before a king, are careful only to say what the king would like to hear. But it was not thus with this brave and faithful man of God. The Word of the Lord is the same whether delivered to a president or a pauper):

4 Thus says the LORD God of Israel; Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith you fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, and I will assemble them into the midst of this city. (The message is straight to the point! The Lord, instead of fighting for His People, will fight rather against His People.)

5 And I Myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath. (Every indication is that true Repentance at this late date, even though always accepted by God, and which would have definitely saved their souls, still, would not have effected a turn of events. After repeated offers of Mercy and Pardon, which were repeatedly spurned, the sands of time are speedily running out!)

6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence. (The Holy Spirit through His Prophet presents the Message in crystal clarity. There is to be no misunderstanding as to what the Lord intends; therefore, their rebellion is inexcusable. To sin is bad; to sin against Light is worse; and Judah and Jerusalem sinned against Light!)

7 And afterward, says the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy. (King Zedekiah of Judah need not think that he can work a deal with "Nebuchadnezzar" and, thereby, escape punishment! Actually, there will be no "pity" or "mercy" shown whatsoever.)

8 And unto this people you shall say, Thus says the LORD; Behold, I set before you the way of life, and the way of death. (God, in His Love and Grace, has always offered life to these stout rebels, even at the eleventh hour; however, the deliverance guaranteed is far less than that originally promised. The people had spurned the Call of God for so long that time was rapidly running out. Several years before the offer of Deliverance upon Repentance was of far greater margin. They were virtually guaranteed enduring blessing [17:24-26], whereas now the offer only includes the saving of life.)

9 He who abides in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he who goes out, and falls to the Chaldeans who besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be unto him for a prey. (The words, "His life shall be unto him for a prey," refer to the fact of losing both property and liberty, but not life. Some accepted this offer. Those who believed and acted on this promise are referred to in 39:9 and 52:15.)

10 For I have set My face against this city for evil, and not for good, sa ys the LORD: it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire. (At this time, Judah thinks she will be saved by Egypt. Consequently, the entire energies of the city were spent in this pursuit. They reasoned that inasmuch as the Temple was in their midst, God surely would not allow anything to happen in a negative way. The other cities of Judah, in their thinking, may fall, but not Jerusalem! However, the Lord says differently.)

COMMANDS TO ZEDEKIAH, KING OF JUDAH

11 And touching the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear you the Word of the LORD (Zedekiah had repeatedly heard the word of men. It was prolific, abundant, beautiful in its prose, and promising in its application; however, it was a lie! Now, he is to hear the "Word of the LORD")**;

12 O house of David, thus says the LORD; Execute judgment in the morning, and deliver him who is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, lest My fury go out like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. (Even at the time that the city was being besieged by the Chaldeans, the rich kept oppressing and robbing the poor. God pities the oppressed, and His fury burns like fire against the oppressors. Ultimately, the oppressors have to answer!)

13 Behold, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley, and rock of the plain, says the LORD; which say, Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations? (They have boastingly claimed that the Babylonian army cannot take the city. The boast had come from king to people; however, the boast was in opposition to the Word of the Lord. As such, despite all efforts, it could not stand!)

14 But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, says the LORD: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall devour all things round about it. (To their questions, the Lord gives His answer. Instead of peace and prosperity, He says, "I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings." This "fruit" was their opposition to the Word of the Lord as given by Jeremiah.)

CHAPTER 22

(609 B.C.)

GOD WILL YET SPARE JUDAH: CONDITIONS TO BE MET; OTHERWISE JUDGMENT

[1] Thus says the LORD; Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

[2] And say, Hear the Word of the LORD, O king of Judah, who sits upon the throne of David, you, and your servants, and your people who enter in by these gates (in this Chapter and the prior one, the four kings who hastened and presided at the ruin of their people is contrasted with the Righteous King, Who will restore and bless His People [23:5-6]. These four kings were Jehoahaz [also called Shallum], Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin, and Zedekiah. The king whom Jeremiah addresses in Verses 1 and 2 is Jehoiakim)**:

[3] Thus says the LORD; Execute you judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place. (The Message from the Lord was simple, to the point, with absolutely no reason that it be misunderstood.)

[4] For if you do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people. (This Promise is almost identical to the same Promise given previously [17:25].)

[5] But if you will not hear these words, I swear by Myself, says the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation. ("I swear by Myself, says the LORD," is a solemn oath synonymous with the expression, "As I live, says Jehovah," and refers to the certitude of the Word being carried out.)

6 For thus says the LORD unto the king's house of Judah; You are Gilead unto Me, and the head of Lebanon; yet surely I will make you a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited. ("You are Gilead unto Me, and the head of Lebanon," refers to the beauty of Judah. "Yet surely I will make you a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited," has a terrible significance. It was carried out in totality.)

7 And I will prepare destroyers against you, everyone with his weapons: and they shall cut down your choice cedars, and cast them into the fire. (The "destroyers" were the Chaldeans. The "choice cedars" actually referred to the palaces erected by the king and his nobles. They were built of cedar. As well, they were "burned" by the Chaldeans.)

8 And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to this neigh bour, Wherefore has the LORD done thus unto this great city? (Nebuchadnezzar no doubt thought that it was his military power that "did this unto this great city," Jerusalem; however, he was only an instrument in the Hands of the "LORD.")

9 Then they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the Covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them. (The people of Judah traded the "LORD their God" for "other gods." The "Covenant" was the Bible, and it was "forsaken.")

PROPHECY AGAINST SHALLUM (JEHOAHAZ)

10 Weep you not for the dead, neither bemoan him: but weep sore for him who goes away: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country. ("Weep you not for the dead, neither bemoan him," refers to Josiah [II Chron. 35:24-25]. They had a reason to weep for him, because he was the last Godly king on the throne of David. "But weep sore for him who goes away," refers to king Jehoahaz [Shallum; II Ki. 23:30-34]. "For he shall return no more, nor see his native country," refers to Jehoahaz being taken captive "unto the land of Egypt" [Ezek. 19:1-4]. He only reigned three months and was the youngest son of Josiah.)

11 For thus says the LORD touching Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, who went forth out of this place; He shall not return thither any more (it seems that Shallum [Jehoahaz], although younger, was preferred above his brother Jehoiakim. Pharaoh-Neco preferred his brother to him; therefore, after only a three-month reign, he took him to Egypt, where he died! This was approximately 20 years before the total destruction of Judah and Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar)**:

12 But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more. (Jehoahaz was two years younger than his brother Jehoiakim, and by right should not have had the throne after the death of his father Josiah. However, it seems from II Chron. 36:1 that the people preferred him over Jehoiakim; therefore, he would become king, but only for some three months. As stated, he was taken to Egypt by Pharaoh, and there he died.)

PROPHECY AGAINST JEHOIAKIM

13 Woe unto him who builds his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; who uses his neighbour's service without wages, and gives him not for his work (this speaks of Jehoiakim, who took the place of Jehoahaz, and to whom Jeremiah was sent by the Lord, recorded at the beginning of this Chapter. He reigned for eleven years and was marked by the worst characteristics of idolatry and despotism)**;

14 Who says, I will build me a wide house and large chambers, and cuts him out windows; and it is ceiled with cedar, and painted with vermilion. (This is but one example of palatial excellence being built at the expense of the poor, fatherless, and widowed.)

15 Shall you reign, because you closest yourself in cedar? did not your father eat and drink, and do judgment and justice, and then it was well with him? (The way this palace was built by Jehoiakim violated Lev. 19:13 and Deut. 24:14-15. The question, "Shall you reign...?", rather asks, "Do you prove your royal qualities because you live in a cedar palace?" This tells us that his government was for the benefit of himself and his lackeys around him, and not for the people.

"Your father" refers to Josiah.)

16 He (Josiah) judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him: was not this to know Me? says the LORD. (Because Josiah did these things, the Holy Spirit says, and two times at that, "Then it was well with him." What he did pleased the Lord; therefore, he had the Blessings of God.)

17 But your eyes and your heart are not but for your covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it. (In this Passage, we see that Jehoiakim was the total opposite of his father Josiah!)

18 Therefore thus sa ys the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah; They shall not lament for him, saying, Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah lord! or, Ah his glory! (It is noteworthy that II Ki. 24:6 omits the usual mention of the burial of this deceased king. II Chron. 36:6 records that he was bound in fetters in order to be carried to Babylon, but it does not state that he ever reached that city. Here and in 36:30 his miserable end is predicted, and most certainly the Prophecy came to pass.)

19 He shall be buried with the burial of an ass, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem. (It is strange that the man, even the king, would hear this type of Prophecy, knowing that it was speaking of him, and in no uncertain terms, and still reject it!)

PROPHECY AGAINST CONIAH, WHO WAS ALSO CALLED JEHOIACHIN OR JECHONIAH

20 Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up your voice in Bashan, and cry from the passages: for all your lovers are destroyed. (As the Nineteenth Verse finished with Jehoiakim, this Verse deals with his son and successor, Jehoiachin. "Your lovers are destroyed," refers to the nations to which Judah looked, but which did not help her.)

[21] I spoke unto you in your prosperity; but you said, I will not hear. This has been your manner from your youth, that you obeyed not My voice. (Even though Jehoiachin [Coniah] will be addressed momentarily, at this point the Holy Spirit is speaking directly to Judah.)

[22] The wind shall eat up all your Pastors, and your lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shall you be ashamed and confounded for all your wickedness. (The "Pastors" referred to here actually speak of rulers of all kinds. It does not refer to Pastors of Churches, as we know such today! The "wind" spoken of is the armed force of Nebuchadnezzar, who would either kill or take into captivity all of these individuals.)

[23] O inhabitant of Lebanon, who makes your nest in the cedars, how gracious shall you be when pangs come upon you, the pain as of a woman in travail! (Even though it seems as if Jeremiah is speaking of "Lebanon," he actually is speaking of the nobles of Jerusalem, who built their homes out of the great cedar trees of Lebanon.)

[24] As I live, says the LORD, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet upon My Right Hand, yet would I pluck you thence *(in fact, due to him being the "king of Judah," and, thereby, the leader of God's chosen People, he, in effect, was "the signet upon God's Right Hand." However, the Lord had disowned him, i.e., "yet will I pluck you thence," signifying that the scepter of power would pass from Judah to another, in this case, to the heathen monarch Nebuchadnezzar);

[25] And I will give you into the hand of them who seek your life, and into the hand of them whose face you fear, even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans.

[26] And I will cast you out, and your mother who bore you, into another country, where you were not born; and there shall you die. (Jehoiachin [Coniah] and his mother Nehushta died in Babylon. The mentioning of her, and by the Holy Spirit at that, shows that she was rather influential and had no doubt encouraged Coniah in his rebellion.)

27 But to the land whereunto they desire to return, thither shall they not return. (The words, "they desire to return," no doubt indicate that their stay in Babylon was not a happy one; furthermore, they would never again see the "land" given to them by God, which had been polluted by their sin.)

28 Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol? is he a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not? (The question, "Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol?", is strong indeed! The word "idol" means a despised earthen vessel; the potter has no pleasure in it and, therefore, breaks it.)

29 O Earth, Earth, Earth, hear the Word of the LORD. (The declaration of this Verse is solemn! With the fall of Judah, there would be no nation left in the world who knew anything about Jehovah; consequently, the entirety of the world would suffer as a result of her fall.)

30 Thus says the LORD, Write you this man childless, a man who shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah. (And so it came to pass! Though Coniah had descendents, not one of them ever sat upon the throne at Jerusalem. Great attention is given to this king, even though he reigned only a very short time, because he was the last in the Davidic line of kings; so it ended in him.

While it is true that Zedekiah succeeded him, he was only his uncle. Therefore, not being in the direct lineage of David, he was not actually looked at by God as king, at least in the lineage of David.)

CHAPTER 23

WOE TO FAITHLESS PASTORS

[1] Woe be unto the Pastors who destroy and scatter the sheep of My pasture! says the LORD. (This Chapter is actually divided into two parts, with the first eight Verses dealing with the faithless civil leaders, i.e., kings [Pastors], and the remainder of the Chapter dealing with the faithless Prophets.)

[2] Therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel against the Pastors who feed My People; You have scattered My flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, says the LORD. ("The LORD God of Israel against the Pastors," refers to the Lord as the Great Shepherd of Israel, with the kings serving as under-shepherds. Because of their sins, He sets Himself "against these Pastors," because they did not "feed My People.")

RESTORATION UNDER THE MESSIAH

[3] And I will gather the remnant of My flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase. (Verses 3 through 8 proclaim the regathering of all Israel. In these Verses, the Holy Spirit forges ahead even unto the coming Kingdom Age, when these great Prophecies will then be fulfilled.)

[4] And I will set up shepherds over them who shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, says the LORD. ("Shepherds" are the same as the "Pastors" of Verse 1.)

[5] Behold, the days come, sa ys the LORD, that I will raise unto David a Righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the Earth. (This "Righteous Branch" is the Messiah. The justice and benevolence of His Rule here stand in contrast to the injustice and selfishness of that of the four kings who succeeded Godly king Josiah.

The beautiful title, "The Branch," is given to Him four times in the Old Testament, thus foreshadowing the four Gospels and the necessity that there should be four: the Branch, the King [Matthew]; the Branch, the Servant [Mark]; the Branch, the Man [Luke]; and the Branch, Jehovah [John].)

6 In His days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is His Name whereby He shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. ("In His days," refers to the days of the Messiah, which will be the Millennial Reign. "Judah shall be saved," is in contrast to Judah now being lost!)

7 Therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD lives, which brought up the Children of Israel out of the land of Egypt (during the coming Kingdom Age, the Children of Israel will then exclaim the great Deliverance by Christ from the Antichrist)**;

8 But, The LORD lives, Who brought up and Who led the seed of the House of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land. (The "north country" contains most of the countries where Israel wandered as outcasts for nearly 2,000 years. At the beginning of the Kingdom Age, all Jews will come from these countries to the Land of Israel.)

FALSE PROPHETS

9 My heart within me is broken because of the Prophets; all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine has overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of His Holiness. (As Verses 1 and 2 concerned themselves with the kings of Judah, Verses 9 through 40 concern the false prophets.)

10 For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourns; the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their course is evil, and their force is not right. ("For the land is full of adulterers," refers to idolaters. While no doubt immorality was rampant, still, the idolatry was even worse, which the Lord describes as "adultery," i.e., "spiritual adultery" [Rom. 7:1-4].

"For because of swearing the land mourns," refers to idol worship. It actually means "because of the curse." Beside the original curse on the Earth, as described in Gen. 3:17, the Holy Spirit describes a further deepening of the curse because of added sin.)

11 For both Prophet and Priest are profane; ye s, in My House have I found their wickedness, says the LORD. (The material misery and moral corruption which resulted from the teaching of these false prophets appear in the statement that it did not produce that which was right and that it occasioned a physical drought. The Priests, it seems, set up idols even in the Temple.)

12 Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, says the LORD. ("Their way" refers to their fashionable religion. "The year of their visitation," pertains to the punishment that is to be brought by Nebuchadnezzar.)

13 And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and caused My People Israel to err. (The Holy Spirit through Jeremiah now reverts back well over 100 years to the fall of "Samaria." They had their "prophets" as well!

Incidentally, the Hebrew name for "Baal" was "Ba'al," which means "husband." Therefore, in Israel's mind, they were still worshipping Jehovah, Whom they called "Husband," but they had substituted some figure [idol] that could be touched, held, and felt. In fact, the Baal cults affected and challenged the worship of Jehovah throughout Israelite history.)

14 I have seen also in the Prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evildoers, that none does return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto Me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah. (The guilt of the Prophets of Jerusalem is declared to be greater than that of the Prophets of Samaria. Their "adultery," as stated, was idol worship; consequently, the Lord placed "all of them" in the same status as "Sodom" and "Gomorrah." There could be no worse description!)

15 Therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts concerning the Prophets; Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the Prophets of Jerusalem is profaneness gone forth into all the land. (The moral condition of a nation results from the character of the spiritual teaching given to it. In this Scripture, Judgment is guaranteed to all who claim to be preaching the Word of God but who, in reality, are not!)

16 Thus says the LORD of Hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the Prophets who prophesy unto you: they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD. (The "mouth of the LORD" refers to Inspiration. As false prophets wrecked the Northern Kingdom of Israel and the Southern Kingdom of Judah, likewise, false prophets are destroying the Church in America, as well!)

17 They say still unto them who despise Me, The LORD has said, You shall have peace; and they say unto everyone who walks after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you. (These individuals, even on the eve of destruction, preached a false feel-good gospel which promoted self-esteem.)

18 For who has stood in the counsel of the LORD, and has perceived and heard His Word? who has marked His Word, and heard it? ("For who has stood in the counsel of the LORD," actually refers back to Verse 16. This Verse gives the reason the false prophets were not to be believed. They did not have the Mind of the Lord and, therefore, were not given anything from the Lord; however, they said what the people wanted to hear and, therefore, they were paid well!)

19 Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked. (The false prophets were announcing peace and prosperity, while the Lord through Jeremiah spoke of the soon-to-come "whirlwind." Furthermore, it was "a whirlwind of the LORD" and it had already begun "in fury."

"The wicked" addressed here not only included the false prophets, but all who listened to them.)

20 The anger of the LORD shall not return, until He have executed, and till He have performed the thoughts of His heart: in the latter days you shall consider it perfectly. (The "latter days" mentioned here refer to some years later, with the exiles in Babylon, who would then understand perfectly that Jeremiah had preached the Truth from the Mouth of the Lord, and that his opponents had preached falsehood out of the imagination of their own hearts.

As well, it refers to Israel, which in the last days will accept the false messiah, the Antichrist, and then realize they have been deceived.

This Verse also portrays God as an emotional Being exhibiting "anger" and having "thoughts." Such shows an active involvement in the everyday lives of His People. Sin, and upon the refusal to repent, and even after repeated warnings, brings about "the anger of the LORD."

"Thoughts of His Heart," refers to the Word of God.)

21 I have not sent these Prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. (That which angered Him was that they "prophesied" in His Name when, in reality, He had not "sent them" or "spoken to them.")

22 But if they had stood in My counsel, and had caused My People to hear My Words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings. (The idea of this Verse is that at least some of these Prophets had once known God and had been truly called by Him; however, for whatever reason, they had lost their way!)

[23] Am I a God at hand, says the LORD, and not a God afar off? (The impossibility of false teachers hiding themselves and their doctrines from God is declared in Verses 23 through 27. The implication of this Verse is that God is always "at hand," meaning that He notes all that is being done, whether good or bad. As well, He does so whether near or far.)

[24] Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? says the LORD. Do not I fill Heaven and Earth? says the LORD. (This Verse proclaims the Omnipresence of God. In other words, He is everywhere and, thereby, sees everything.)

[25] I have heard what the prophets said, who prophesy lies in My Name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed. (The Prophet of Verse 18 is God's Prophet in contrast with man's prophet of Verse 25; and the dream of Verse 28, as opposed to that of Verse 25.)

[26] How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies? ye s, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart (it is certain that these Prophecies by Jeremiah concerning these false prophets were not met with approbation, but rather with anger! Especially that the Holy Spirit through the Prophet called them liars!)**;

[27] Which think to cause My People to forget My Name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, as their fathers have forgotten My Name for Baal. (As the people of Israel called the Lord "Master" or "Husband" and called "Baal" by the same name, they no longer could distinguish between the two. Consequently, in modern religion, the Catholic Church equates Mary with the Lord, while too many of their Protestant counterparts equate their religious denominations with the Lord.)

[28] The Prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream; and he who has My Word, let him speak My Word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? says the LORD. (This Verse contrasts the two prophets: false and true. The former one has a "false dream," which is likened to "chaff," while the latter has "God's Word," which is likened to "wheat.")

29 Is not My Word like as a fire? sa ys the LORD; and like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces? (In this Passage, the Word of God is likened to a "fire" and a "hammer"; a fire to burn, a hammer to break. Thus, the doctrine preached reveals the truth or falseness of the Preacher. Preaching which leaves out or denies the Wrath to come is false; and such a Preacher is false.)

30 Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, says the LORD, who steal My Words every one from his neighbour. (The words, "Behold, I am against," respecting these false prophets, are repeated three times in as many Verses. The thrice-repeated admonition proclaims the just anger of God, which will ultimately result in their destruction.

"Who steal My Words, every one from his neighbor," refers to them stealing Jeremiah's methods. They listened greedily to the discourses of the true Prophet, not with a view to spiritual profit, but to making their own utterances more effective.)

31 Behold, I am against the prophets, says the LORD, who use their tongues, and say, He says. (In other words, they preface their prophecies with "Thus says the LORD," adopting the same forms as the true Prophet, but to them only forms.)

32 Behold, I am against them who prophesy false dreams, says the LORD, and do tell them, and cause My People to err by their lies, and by their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, says the LORD. (This Passage proclaims to us the fact of a plethora of false prophets attempting to countermand the true Prophecies of Jeremiah.

"By their lightness," implies arrogance and boastfulness.)

33 And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask you, saying, What is the burden of the LORD? you shall then say unto them, What burden? I will even forsake you, says the LORD.

34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, who shall say,

The burden of the LORD, I will even punish that man and his house. (They were not content to merely reject the Message, they must mock it! However, they would rue the day that they did this!)

[35] Thus shall you say everyone to his neighbour, and everyone to his brother, What has the LORD answered? and, What has the LORD spoken? (This Verse proclaims the Holy Spirit through Jeremiah patiently explaining to the people that their mocking the Word of the Lord by saying, "The burden of the LORD," was placing them in very dangerous circumstances. While it was satisfactory for them to ask the questions, they must never do so in a mocking tone, which they evidently were doing!)

[36] And the burden of the LORD shall you mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for you have perverted the Words of the Living God, of the LORD of Hosts our God. (By the people using the phrase, "The burden of the LORD," and doing so in a mocking tone, they were making light of Jeremiah's Prophecies. He was speaking of coming war and judgment, while they were speaking of peace and prosperity; therefore, they made a joke of what he was saying.)

[37] Thus shall you say to the prophet, What has the LORD answered you? and, What has the LORD spoken? (The Holy Spirit comes back to the same admonishment of Verse 35, imploring the people to hear what the Lord says, and not what these false prophets say! As well, only Jeremiah had the Word of the Lord.)

[38] But since you say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus sa ys the LORD; Because you say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, You shall not say, The burden of the LORD ("But since you say," implies that they ignored the admonishment of the Lord and continued to mock!)**;

[39] Therefore, behold, I, even I, will utterly forget you, and I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of My Presence. (The pronoun "I" is emphatic, emphasizing the solemnity of the moment! "I will utterly forget you," means He will utterly remove them. The "casting out" was so complete that not only were they taken away and the city totally destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar, but the Lord also departed, as seen by the Prophet Ezekiel [Ezek: 11:23], who incidentally was prophesying in Babylonia.)

40 And I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten. (This "everlasting reproach" rested upon Israel until the coming of the Messiah and, due to their rejection of Him, deepened even more! They have suffered this "everlasting reproach" now for some 2,500 years. Sadly, their very name is "a perpetual shame.")

CHAPTER 24

THE BASKETS OF GOOD AND BAD FIGS

[1] The LORD showed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the Temple of the LORD, after that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. (This is the second deportation under Jehoiachin, which included Mordecai and Esther, who were taken to Babylon [Esther 2:5-6]. The first deportation was under Jehoiakim, which included Daniel and the three Hebrew children. The second deportation took place in 597 B.C.

The two deportations before the final and complete destruction were another way of the Lord attempting to warn Judah and Jerusalem to repent, but to no avail!)

[2] One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad. (The two baskets of figs were a symbolism of the two classes of people in Judah and Jerusalem. The "very good figs" represented the few Godly in the nation and the city, who, for the most part, were deported to Babylon. The "very naughty figs" represented the ungodly, who would be left in Judah and Jerusalem and, thereby, slated for destruction.

However, the unspiritual minds of the ungodly thought surely that because they were spared deportation [the first two deportations], this surely was a sign of their Godliness and, thereby, the Blessings of God. They no doubt ridiculed those who were taken away, having no spiritual understanding at all of the intentions of the Lord.

When men, even in modern times, do not follow the Bible, they seriously mistake God's intentions and read into His Hand the very opposite of His Plan.)

3 Then said the LORD unto me, What do you see, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil. (As Jeremiah observes these "figs," he is allowed to see, at least in part, that which God sees.)

APPLICATION OF THE GOOD FIGS

4 Again the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge them who are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good. (Everything that happens to a true follower of the Lord is always caused or allowed by the Lord, i.e., "for their good.")

6 For I will set My eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

7 And I will give them an heart to know Me, that I am the LORD: and they shall be My People, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto Me with their whole heart. (The "whole heart," which speaks of total consecration, is the key to all these Promises!)

APPLICATION OF THE BAD FIGS

8 And as the evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus says the LORD, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, who remain in this land, and them who dwell in the land of Egypt (as the Blessing was pronounced on those taken to Babylon, who obeyed the Commands of the Lord and diligently attempted to follow Him, conversely, the curse is now pronounced upon the "evil figs," symbolizing "Zedekiah," as well as "his princes" and all "who remained in the land," as well as those who were in the "land of Egypt"):

9 And I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the Earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them. (As the Lord would deliver the former to blessing, He now delivers the latter to destruction. It would soon come.)

10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers. (The Lord had slated Judah and Jerusalem for judgment, all because of their sin and refusal to repent. Babylon would be the instrument that He would use. The preaching of Jeremiah demanded that they yield to Babylon. But instead the leaders of Judah claimed deliverance by the hand of the Egyptians or even that the Lord would deliver them. But the Lord says here the opposite will occur, and in a very destructive way.)

CHAPTER 25

THE REBELLION OF JUDAH

[1] The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon (this Chapter records the great Prophecy of the 70 years servitude in Babylon. It also predicts the overthrow of Babylon by the nations whom she had enslaved. However, the Prophecy goes much further than the judgment of ancient Babylon, for the principle of universal judgment is also developed and foretold. The repetition of the Judgment of Verse 10 in Rev. 18:23 shows that the predictions of this Chapter were not exhausted by the destruction of the Chaldean Empire in the days of Cyrus)**;

[2] The which Jeremiah the Prophet spoke unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying (the expression, "Jeremiah the Prophet," is given in this manner to emphasize the fact that this Prophet is the one to whom God is speaking concerning the future of the "people of Judah and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem")**,

[3] From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the Word of the LORD has come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but you have not hearkened. (Jeremiah had been a Prophet from the Thirteenth year of Josiah, which now totaled about twenty-three years. This was eighteen years under Josiah, 3 months under Jehoahaz, and 4 years under Jehoiakim.)

[4] And the LORD has sent unto you all His Servants the Prophets, rising early and sending them; but you have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear. (This actually refers to all the Prophets who had come before Jeremiah. Israel little heard them, as well!)

5 They said, Turn you again now everyone from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD has given unto you and to your fathers forever and ever (settlement in the Land of Promise was contingent upon obedience):

6 And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke Me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt. (Upon relationship with the Lord, the ancient as well as the modern Believer can either gladden the heart of God or "anger Him." Such shows a direct and total involvement in the lives of those who claim His Name.)

7 Yet you have not hearkened unto Me, says the LORD; that you might provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt. (It was not a matter of not hearing or understanding what the Lord was saying, but a matter of not believing what He was saying. Such also is the modern Church!)

SEVENTY YEARS CAPTIVITY FORETOLD

8 Therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts; Because you have not heard My Words (God's Words were given through Jeremiah, but yet they had all been given before in the Bible. In fact, the Book of Deuteronomy was basically the foundation of all of Jeremiah's Prophecies [Deut., Chpt. 28]),

9 Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, says the LORD, and Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations. (The "families of the north" consist of Nebuchadnezzar plus all those who followed him. "My servant," concerning Nebuchadnezzar, does not refer to relationship, but rather as an instrument of punishment.)

10 Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle. ("Moreover I will take from them," refers to total "desolations," and in fact "perpetual desolations," meaning "long-continued.")

[11] And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years. (The Lord sentenced Judah to "seventy years" of service to the king of Babylon, because she had ignored the yearly Sabbath that was supposed to be conducted every seventh year. In fact, they had gone for about 490 years without keeping this yearly Sabbath, which amounted to 70 years they owed the Lord, which He would now collect. However, the fact of the judgment was because of continued unrepented sin. The length of time was for the reason given [Lev. 25:1-7; II Chron., Chpts. 20-21].)

JUDGMENT ON BABYLON

[12] And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, says the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it perpetual desolations. (The "king of Babylon" at that time was Belshazzar. The kings used by God to "punish him" were "Darius the Mede" and "Cyrus the Persian.")

[13] And I will bring upon that land all My Words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this Book, which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. ("My Words... written in this Book," are God's Words, and they were written in a Book of the Bible, i.e., the Book of Jeremiah, the very Book we now hold in our hands. Such is Inspiration! [I Pet. 1:11].)

[14] For many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of them also: and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands. (Although certain nations were commissioned by the Lord to punish Judah and Jerusalem, still, every indication is that they carried this commission too far regarding cruelty and oppression. Now, the Lord will call them to account, as well!)

THE CUP OF WRATH FOR ALL NATIONS

15 For thus says the LORD God of Israel unto me; Take the wine cup of this fury at My Hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send you, to drink it. (This part of the Prophecy leaps ahead to the future, and in fact has not yet been fulfilled. The fulfillment will come in the Great Tribulation [Rev. 16:19].)

16 And they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them. (This refers not only to the coming destruction of Babylon by Darius and Cyrus, but as well to the Great Tribulation when the Antichrist will "take peace from the Earth" [Rev. 6:4].)

17 Then took I the cup at the LORD's Hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent me (this would have proper fulfillment in Jeremiah's near future, and would include all the nations surrounding Judah. But yet, the words, "The cup at the LORD's Hand," jump ahead to the Book of Revelation [Rev. 14:10])**:

18 To wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse; as it is this day (judgment was to begin at Jerusalem because it is the House of God [I Pet. 4:17], and it will end with Babylon [Rev., Chpt. 18])**;

19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people (after Judah, mighty "Egypt" is addressed first of all. "Pharaoh" is especially signaled out, because of Egypt's supposed strength, and because of "Pharaoh" being worshipped as Deity. Egypt as well as others to be listed will all taste of the Wrath of God!)**;

20 And all the mingled people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod (it is interesting that the "land of Uz" is mentioned, inasmuch as it was the home of Job about 1,000 years before),

21 Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon (this is the area that makes up present day Jordan. Strangely enough, this area will escape the hand of the Antichrist in that coming terrible day of Judgment, to which Israel will flee after being invaded and defeated by the Antichrist [Isa. 26:20; Rev., Chpt. 12]),

22 And all the kings of Tyrus, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the isles which are beyond the sea (these two cities, "Tyrus" and "Zidon," situated on the Mediterranean, were to become two of the most powerful cities of commerce in the world of that day. Tyre would become so rich and lifted up with pride that the Holy Spirit would use her king as a symbol of Satan [Ezek., Chpt. 28]),

23 Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all who are in the utmost corners ("Dedan" is on the border of Edom, while "Tema" is the area that Eliphaz came from, regarding one of Job's "friends" [Job 2:11]. "Buz" is the place that Elihu came from, who was the last one to admonish Job, and whom God totally ignored [Job 32:2]),

24 And all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people who dwell in the desert (all are singled out because of their association with Judah, whether near or far),

25 And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes,

26 And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the Earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them. (Many of the statements, such as "All the kingdoms of the world," prove that this Prophecy belongs to the future. It speaks to the coming Great Tribulation.)

27 Therefore you shall say unto them, Thus sa ys the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; Drink you, and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you. ("Because of the sword which I will send among you," refers to God's total control over all the nations of the world.)

[28] And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at your hand to drink, then shall you say unto them, Thus says the LORD of Hosts; You shall certainly drink. ("You shall certainly drink," portrays these nations reaping what they have sown [Gal. 6:7-8].)

[29] For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city which is called by My Name, and should you be utterly unpunished? You shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the Earth, says the LORD of Hosts. ("The city which is called by My Name" is Jerusalem.)

[30] Therefore prophesy you against them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall roar from on high, and utter His voice from His holy habitation; He shall mightily roar upon His habitation; He shall give a shout, as they who tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the Earth. (This Prophecy speaks of the forthcoming glee of the surrounding nations at the destruction of Judah; however, their glee shall be short-lived! As well, the phrase, "Against all the inhabitants of the Earth," proclaims the fact that the fall of Judah would adversely affect the entirety of the world. However, the world was entirely ignorant of that.)

[31] A noise shall come even to the ends of the Earth; for the LORD has a controversy with the nations, He will plead with all flesh; He will give them who are wicked to the sword, says the LORD. (The word "plead" means "to judge." The Prophecy now extends from Jeremiah's day to the coming Great Tribulation, and even the Battle of Armageddon [Rev. 14:20].)

[32] Thus sa ys the LORD of Hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great whirlwind shall be raised up from the coasts of the Earth. (All of this refers to Rev. 16:13-14.)

[33] And the killed of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the Earth even unto the other end of the Earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

(“From one end of the Earth even unto the other end of the Earth,” refers to the Antichrist “taking peace from the Earth,” which will take place in the coming Great Tribulation [Rev. 6:4].)

34 Howl, you shepherds, and cry; and wallow yourselves in the ashes, you principal of the flock: for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are accomplished; and you shall fall like a pleasant vessel. (The Prophecy now reverts back to Jeremiah’s time. These “shepherds” were Zedekiah and his ministers and men of war. The “pleasant vessel” refers to Judah. When a precious but fragile vessel falls, it breaks in pieces beyond repair. Such was Israel, a pleasant vessel, now broken, and never to be repaired. However, a new Israel, a “pleasant vessel” never to be broken, will be made by the Heavenly Potter, which will take place immediately after the Second Coming [Zech. 13:1].)

35 And the shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape. (The last kings of Judah, Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin, and Zedekiah, all came to a miserable end [II Ki. 23:34-24:16; 25:7].)

36 A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and an howling of the principal of the flock, shall be heard: for the LORD has spoiled their pasture. (“His habitation,” i.e., “His pasture,” is now “their pasture,” because disowned by Him.)

37 And the peaceable habitations are cut down because of the fierce anger of the LORD. (We learn from all of this that the Lord can abide sin in His Own no more than He can in the heathen — in fact, not nearly as much!)

38 He has forsaken His covert, as the lion: for their land is desolate because of the fierceness of the oppressor, and because of His fierce anger. (The “oppressor” is the Chaldean, while “His fierce anger” is “God’s anger.”)

CHAPTER 26

JEREMIAH THREATENED WITH DEATH

[1] In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this Word from the LORD, saying (this Prophecy takes us back some 22 years before the Babylonian captivity [II Ki. 23:36; 24:18]. All that happened, at least concerning Judah, as portrayed in the previous Chapter, could have been avoided if the words of the Prophet had been heeded at this early time)**,

[2] Thus says the LORD; Stand in the court of the LORD's House, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's House, all the words that I command you to speak unto them; diminish not a word (as today, so then, people were willing to attend religious services, but not to abandon their sins. In fact, almost all who came to "worship" did not know the Lord)**:

[3] If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may repent Me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings. (The word "turn" means "to repent." This Message was spoken to the religious elite of Judah. Such are the hardest to bring to Repentance.)

[4] And you shall say unto them, Thus says the LORD; If you will not hearken to Me, to walk in My Law, which I have set before you (the criteria was "My Law," i.e., the Mosaic Law. While the Mosaic Law has been completely fulfilled in Christ, presently the criteria still is the Bible and will always be the Bible)**,

[5] To hearken to the words of My servants the Prophets, whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but you have not hearkened (the idea is: due to the persistence of the Lord, Judah was without excuse!)**;

[6] Then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the Earth. ("Shiloh" was the place where the Tabernacle of Moses was located during the time of the Judges. Because of Israel's great sin in those days, the Lord allowed the Philistines to spoil that place and its worship.)

[7] So the Priests and the Prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the House of the LORD. (As Jeremiah prophesied the destruction of the Temple and the city of Jerusalem, and did so in the very Temple itself, such a prediction must have been startling to all who heard it. But to those who placed their confidence in the mere existence of this consecrated building, it was like a blow aimed at their life. In fact, the "Priests" and the "Prophets" were preaching the very opposite of Jeremiah.)

[8] Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the Priests and the Prophets and all the people took him, saying, You shall surely die. (Jeremiah is placed under arrest because of what he is now preaching.)

[9] Why have you prophesied in the Name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the House of the LORD. ("And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the House of the LORD," all too often characterizes the response to all true Prophets. They did not like what he preached, so they were determined to silence him.)

[10] When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the House of the LORD, and sat down in the entry of the new gate of the LORD's House. (The "Princes of Judah" referred to the members of the various branches of the royal family, who acted as Judges and Magistrates. Their "sitting down in the entry of the new gate of the LORD's House" refers to Jeremiah being put on trial for his life.)

11 Then spoke the Priests and the Prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy to die; for he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears. (The accusations of these "Priests" and "Prophets" to the royal Judges fly thick and fast. They want Jeremiah's life!)

JEREMIAH'S ANSWER

12 Then spoke Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard. (In reply to their accusations, Jeremiah little defends himself, but rather uses the occasion to continue his Message. He claims "The LORD" as his sponsor. As well, he claims that his very "Words" that have been "heard" by the people were given to him by the Lord.)

13 Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent Him of the evil that He has pronounced against you. (In effect, Jeremiah will now give an Altar Call! However, it will do little good.)

14 As for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as seems good and meet unto you. (With this statement, he puts himself in the hands of God, but does make the following statement:)

15 But know you for certain, that if you put me to death, you shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD has sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears. (Jeremiah's statement must have sent fear into the hearts of these magistrates, "the princes," because they would not take Jeremiah's side. No doubt, the Lord used these words to speak to their hearts.)

CONTENTION OVER JEREMIAH

16 Then said the princes and all the people unto the Priests and to the Prophets; This man is not worthy to die: for he has spoken to us in the Name of the LORD our God. (It is amazing that these men admitted that "he has spoken to us in the Name of the LORD our God," but yet they would not obey the admonition to repent!)

17 Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying (the "elders of the land" were originally the heads of powerful families in Israel, and probably had their foundation in the fixed number of 70, as described in Ex. 24:1)**,

18 Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus says the LORD of Hosts; Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest. (The "Prophet Micah" was a contemporary with Hosea, Amos, and Isaiah. His Prophecy is recorded in his Book, Micah 1:1 and 3:12. At this time, the Prophecy was over 100 years old.)

19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? did he not fear the LORD, and besought the LORD, and the LORD repented him of the evil which He had pronounced against them? Thus might we procure great evil against our souls. (The elders used "Hezekiah king of Judah" as an example of Righteousness; however, there was a world of difference in Hezekiah and Jehoiakim, who was now the reigning king. By the statement, "Thus might we procure great evil against our souls," the elders seemed to understand, at least in part, their precarious spiritual condition. But yet, because of their fear of man, it seems they did little about it, at least regarding Repentance.)

20 And there was also a man who prophesied in the Name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah (other than this incident, the Scripture is silent concerning the "Prophet Urijah")**:

21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt (this will show that it is disastrous for a servant of God to take shelter in the shadow of Egypt rather than in the secret place of the Most High. The path of duty is usually the path of safety)**;

22 And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt. ("Jehoiakim" was not satisfied to stop the voice of the Prophet Urijah, who evidently was prophesying at the same time as Jeremiah, but he had to kill him, as well! Consequently, he would send his henchmen into Egypt to secure that Prophet.)

23 And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who killed him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people. (Him casting "his dead body into the graves of the common people" was the answer of Jehoiakim to Urijah's Prophecies. Such actions show Jehoiakim's contempt! However, what he did to the Prophet likewise would be done to him [Jer. 22:19].)

24 Nevertheless the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death. (Ahikam was one of those who found the original Scroll of the Pentateuch [II Ki. 22:12] and seemed to have some affinity for that Great Book, as well as for God's Prophet Jeremiah.)

CHAPTER 27

THE LESSON OF THE YOKES: SERVITUDE TO BABYLON

[1] In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying (even though this Prophecy was given to Jeremiah at the "beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim," still, it was not to be delivered until some years later, which was at this particular time, the reign of "Zedekiah")**,

[2] Thus says the LORD to me; Make you bonds and yokes, and put them upon your neck (the word "yokes," in the Hebrew, is plural. This shows that the article was literally constructed as a symbol and a vehicle of doctrine. The yokes expressed a condition of slavery, and the Prophecy symbolized by them was fulfilled)**,

[3] And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah (these "yokes" were made and sent to the various nations by messengers from these nations who came to visit Zedekiah in the ninth year of his reign, when he rebelled against the king of Babylon. These visitors were perhaps discussing a common defense with Judah against what they all felt would be an invasion from Babylon.

Using the "yoke" as a symbol of submission to the Will of God and subjection to the king of Babylon, they were told by Jeremiah what they must do. They were to come under the yoke of the Babylonian Empire. And had they obeyed, they would have saved themselves untold bloodshed);

[4] And command them to say unto their masters, Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; Thus shall you say unto your masters (all of these countries mentioned in Verse 3 were idol worshippers; therefore, what must have been their thoughts when they were given this Message by "the God of Israel"?);

5 I have made the Earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by My great power and by My outstretched arm, and have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto Me. (The declaration of Verses 5 through 11 was such as Gentile princes could easily understand — the Being and Almighty Power of God; His purpose in giving the supreme government to Nebuchadnezzar [Vs. 6]; the punishment of those who should rebel against Him [Vs. 8]; the tranquility of those who would submit [Vs. 11]; and the future doom of Babylon itself [Vs. 7].)

6 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him. ("My servant," concerning Nebuchadnezzar, referred to him as an instrument, not to relationship. "And the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him," indicates the unlimited character of Nebuchadnezzar's power.)

7 And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time of his land come: and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him. ("And then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him," refers to Babylon being overthrown by the great kings of Medo-Persia. History testifies to the accuracy of this prediction, for Nabonidus was co-regent with his son Belshazzar when the Babylonian Empire was overthrown.)

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, says the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand. (Tragically, these other nations, as Judah, would not listen and were "consumed," irrespective of the great Promise given to them by God in Verse 11.)

CONCERNING LYING PROPHETS

9 Therefore hearken not you to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, You shall not serve the king of Babylon (Through Jeremiah, the leaders of these nations were being told that their prophets, so-called, would speak the very opposite of what Jeremiah was saying. They must not heed them, but tragically they did!)**:

10 For they prophesy a lie unto you, to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and you should perish. (These "enchanters" prophesied "lies" to the kings of these nations, as the false prophets prophesied lies to the kings and people of Judah.)

11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, says the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein. (If they submitted to the Word of God, they would continue to remain "in their own land," but with their land under the control of the king of Babylon. If they did not yield to the "king of Babylon," they would, for God's Own Divine purposes, suffer destruction.)

COMMANDS TO ZEDEKIAH, KING OF JUDAH

12 I spoke also to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. (The Message is unequivocally clear!)

13 Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD has spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? (The question, "Why will you die?", proclaims every word beating hotly with the Love of God. So Judah and all these surrounding nations had no excuse for their rebellion. The Word of the Lord came to them most clearly!)

14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets who speak unto you, saying, You shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you. (The same words the Holy Spirit had said through Jeremiah to the heathen, He now says to Judah.)

15 For I have not sent them, sa ys the LORD, yet they prophesy a lie in My Name; that I might drive you out, and that you might perish, you, and the prophets who prophesy unto you. (This is very similar to the statement given to the heathen kings in Verse 10; however, there was a difference. Whereas the "sorcerers" of Verse 9 prophesied from the realm of demon spirits, these false prophets in Judah and Jerusalem were "prophesying a lie in God's Name." They attempted to give authenticity to their lies by using the Name of the Lord. As such, they only deepened their great sin; in fact, they blasphemed by attempting to make God a part of their lying schemes. Consequently, they would "perish," as well!)

COMMANDS TO ALL JUDAH

16 Also I spoke to the Priests and to all this people, saying, Thus says the LORD; Hearken not to the words of your prophets who prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you. (The "vessels" in question were those taken by Nebuchadnezzar in his first two excursions into Jerusalem. They were taken from the House of the Lord [II Ki. 24:13; II Chron. 36:7-10; Dan. 1:1-2].)

17 Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city be laid waste? (The words, "Hearken not unto them," concerning the false prophets, were not only valid for Jeremiah's day, but are also just as valid presently [Gal. 1:8-9].)

18 But if they be prophets, and if the Word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of Hosts, that the vessels which are left in the House of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon. (The false prophets were claiming that the vessels from the Temple which had been taken to Babylon in the first two excursions by Nebuchadnezzar would be brought back, while Jeremiah was saying that not only were the remaining vessels going to be taken to Babylon, but the Temple and the city would also be totally destroyed. Jeremiah says that if these individuals are true Prophets, let them pray that what he has said would not happen. If it does not happen, it will show that they are true and he is false.)

19 For thus says the LORD of Hosts concerning the Pillars, and concerning the Sea (Brazen Laver), and concerning the Bases (that on which the smaller Brazen Lavers sat), and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city,

20 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem (the carrying away of a number of the vessels of the Temple as well as some of the people of Judah and Jerusalem should have been a warning to the people and to the nobles that they must repent; however, those things seemed to have no effect!);

21 Yes, thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the House of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem (these "vessels" were very important, simply because they were a part of the worship of God regarding the Temple at Jerusalem. The Lord allowing such to be removed was, in effect, allowing a part of the means of their worship to be removed, with the prediction that if they didn't repent, all of it would be removed, including themselves);

22 They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, says the LORD; then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place. (In fact, these vessels in Babylon were to be restored, but at a much later date, and by Cyrus; they would be brought to Jerusalem by Ezra [Ezra 1:7, 11]. By using the words, "until the day that I visit them," the Lord is saying that these vessels will be brought back, but only when He says so, not when those false prophets say so! They were to be "restored to this place," but only after the Lord had carried out that which He desired to do, which was the captivity of the people of Judah and Jerusalem, with them suffering the punishment they deserved.)

CHAPTER 28

THE FALSE PROPHECY OF HANANIAH

[1] And it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spoke unto me in the House of the LORD, in the presence of the Priests and of all the people, saying (in this Chapter, we find the reason, at least in part, for Zedekiah's rebellion against Babylon. He was listening to the false prophecies of "Hananiah." Actually, the entirety of this Chapter consists of the confrontation between this false prophet and Jeremiah. Hananiah seemed to be the leader of those who opposed Jeremiah. Most probably he was a Priest, just as was Jeremiah)**,

[2] Thus speaks the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. (If one is to notice, the terminology being used by this false prophet, i.e., "Thus speaks the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel," is very similar to the terminology used by Jeremiah. In this false prophecy he contradicts the true Prophet.)

[3] Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's House, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon (Jeremiah had prophesied that the vessels would be returned, but only after a long period of time [27:21-22]. This false prophet claims they will be returned within two years)**:

[4] And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, who went into Babylon, says the LORD: for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon. ("And I will bring again," concerning "Jeconiah," directly contradicts the Prophecy of Jeremiah that this king would die in a foreign land [22:26-27]. The deportation which took away "Jeconiah" [Jehoiachin] also took away Mordecai and Esther, as well as many others. This false prophet claims they all will be brought back.)

JEREMIAH'S ANSWER

5 Then the Prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the Priests, and in the presence of all the people who stood in the House of the LORD (in modern times, I wonder what the "unity crowd" would think of Jeremiah! Virtually all of Judah and Jerusalem are in unity, with the exception of this lone Prophet Jeremiah. He alone disturbs this unity! However, unity at the expense of compromise is man's way, and not God's Way)**,

6 Even the Prophet Jeremiah said Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's House, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place. ("Even the Prophet Jeremiah said Amen," simply means that he wishes such were true!)

7 Nevertheless hear you now this word that I speak in your ears, and in the ears of all the people;

8 The Prophets who have been before me and before you of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence. (Jeremiah now refers to the Prophets of old who prophesied as he, and who had also been opposed by false prophets foretelling peace.)

9 The prophet which prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD has truly sent him. (Jeremiah is probably referring to Deut. 18:22.)

HANANIAH BREAKS JEREMIAH'S YOKE

10 Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from off the Prophet Jeremiah's neck, and broke it. (As Jeremiah stands with a "yoke" of wood about his neck, symbolizing the Babylonian yoke that would remain and even intensify upon Judah, Hananiah, no doubt, ridicules the stupidity of such and holds up Jeremiah to derision. He then proceeds to take the "yoke" from off "Jeremiah's neck," and then he "breaks it." It was probably done with much favorable response from the people.)

11 And Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus sa ys the LORD; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the Prophet Jeremiah went his way. (However, the Lord has not said anything to Hananiah. "And the Prophet Jeremiah went his way," probably means that he walked out alone, maybe even with the jeers of the people ringing in his ears.)

THE TRUE PROPHECY OF JEREMIAH; PREDICTS HANANIAH'S DEATH

12 Then the Word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the Prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the Prophet Jeremiah, saying ("Then the Word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the Prophet," refers to a lapse of time of possibly several days or even weeks. It is obvious that the Holy Spirit was grossly offended by Hananiah forcibly taking the "yoke" off the neck of the true Prophet and then breaking it. This man set himself to oppose the Word of the Lord, and such is always a dangerous occupation)**,

13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus says the LORD; You have broken the yokes of wood; but you shall make for them yokes of iron. ("You shall make for them," refers to the people! By listening to the false prophecies of Hananiah and others, they were only making the yokes heavier and harder, i.e., "yokes of iron.")

14 For thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve

Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also. (The Message that Jeremiah now delivers is not softened whatsoever, but is rather hardened. It was a "yoke of wood," and now it is a "yoke of iron.")

15 Then said the Prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; The LORD has not sent you; but you make this people to trust in a lie. ("But you make this people to trust in a lie," seems to indicate that people were present when Jeremiah spoke these words to Hananiah. The true Prophet pulled no punches!)

16 Therefore thus says the LORD; Behold, I will cast you from off the face of the Earth: this year you shall die, because you have taught rebellion against the LORD. (As it regards this false prophet, the chilling announcement was "this year you shall die"! In the phrase, "This year," there is ample room for Repentance, but there is no evidence whatsoever that Hananiah did repent; actually, the evidence is that he did not.

"Because you have taught rebellion against the LORD," is also a powerful statement to any and all Preachers. In fact, most of the preaching presently is actually "rebellion against the LORD," i.e., "against His Word.")

17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month. (Hananiah promised the people deliverance within two years, but he was himself struck down by death within two months; however, even that seemed not to turn the people toward God!)

CHAPTER 29

JEREMIAH'S LETTER TO THE CAPTIVES

[1] Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the Prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were carried away captives, and to the Priests, and to the Prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon (the problem with the false prophets in Jerusalem was the same among the captives in Babylon. There were false prophets there, as well, proclaiming that the yoke of Babylon would be thrown off, thereby giving the people there a false hope. Ezekiel was the major exception in Babylon. Jeremiah sent a letter to these captives declaring the opposite of what these false prophets were proclaiming. The captivity, Jeremiah said, was going to be long, even 70 years);

[2] (After that Jeconiah the king, and the queen, and the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem [Jehoiachin, who was the same king as "Jeconiah," only reigned for three months and ten days before he was taken captive along with others; this "letter" also will be given to him];)

[3] By the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon) saying ("Elasah" and "Gemariah" were the sons of the good men who found the original Scroll of the Pentateuch [II Ki., Chpts. 22-23; II Chron. 34:14]; no doubt, they willingly carried Jeremiah's letter to the captives),

[4] Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, unto all who are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon (intelligence in the Ways and Counsels of God, as revealed in His Word, submission to those Counsels, and a recognition of His just Judgments upon unfaithfulness, together with a blameless life and prayer for the peace of the Earthly government ordained by God, bring a measure of tranquility and prosperity to the obedient, but suffering and punishment to the disobedient);

5 Build you houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them (evidently, these unhappy captives had not been doing such, thinking, according to the false prophecies given by the false prophets, that they would be restored any day to Judah. Jeremiah's letter would say the very opposite, and in no uncertain terms);

6 Take you wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that you may be increased there, and not diminished. ("That you may be increased there, and not diminished," pertains to the fact that the nation is to be kept alive.)

7 And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall you have peace. ("And seek the peace of the city," refers to Babylon and the blessing that God's People, even though under chastisement, could be to their host city and country. This proclaims the power of God's People.)

8 For thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and your diviners, who be in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which you cause to be dreamed. (Recognition of God's Judgment upon unfaithfulness was necessary in order to explain why the Divine Promise of Supremacy to the throne of David seemed to be forgotten. The popular preachers of Verses 8 and 9 could point to certain Bible Promises; with a show of spirituality and fidelity, they consoled the people with them. But the true Prophets of Jehovah recognized the temporary forfeiture of these Promises because of sin and they announced the coming Wrath of God; for in the spiritual as in the physical realm, the night precedes the day.)

9 For they prophesy falsely unto you in My Name: I have not sent them, says, the LORD. (How did the people know what to believe, especially in view of the fact that Ezekiel in Babylonia stood alone, as Jeremiah in Jerusalem stood alone? They were to do as Jesus later said, "Check the fruit" [Mat. 7:15-20].)

THE PROMISE OF RESTORATION AFTER SEVENTY YEARS

10 For thus says the LORD, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform My good Word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. (The "seventy years" began with the first deportation, which took place in 605 B.C., with the captivity ending in 536 B.C., for a total of 70 years. "I will visit you," refers to the Lord paying heed to His People and restoring them to Judah and Jerusalem, which would be done after the seventy-year period of time.)

11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end. (Upon obedience to the Lord, with a sincere attempt to follow His Ways and Word, His "thoughts toward us" are always "thoughts of peace, and not of evil.")

12 Then shall you call upon Me, and you shall go and pray unto Me, and I will hearken unto you. (The Restoration under Cyrus fulfilled the Prophecy of Verses 10 through 14. That Restoration was an earnest of the yet greater one of the future.)

13 And you shall seek Me, and find Me, when you shall search for Me with all your heart. (This glorious Promise is given to any and to all, and for all time!)

14 And I will be found of you, says the LORD: and I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, says the LORD; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive. (Verses 13 and 14 are a carte blanche invitation to any and all, irrespective of the need, to come to the Lord for help. And yet, so few take advantage of these great Promises!)

15 Because you have said, The LORD has raised us up prophets in Babylon (other than Ezekiel in Babylonia, there is no record that there were other true Prophets, which means the ones among the captives who were prophesying peace were not sent by the LORD)**;

16 Know that thus says the LORD of the king who sits upon the throne of David, and of all the people who dwell in this city, and of your brethren who are not gone forth with you into captivity (with startling clarity, the Holy Spirit will once again proclaim the Truth to those in Judah and Babylon)**;

17 Thus says the LORD of Hosts; Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil. (The Holy Spirit has repeatedly attempted to get the people to submit to the righteous judgment upon them and thus yield to the Babylonian Empire, but to no avail! Had they yielded to the Command of the Lord, they might have been able to stay in their own land, although subservient to Babylon; however, they would not heed the Word of God, even after two deportations, which were a harbinger which was to come. Despite the Word of the Lord, they resisted until Nebuchadnezzar completely destroyed them.)

18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the Earth, to be a curse, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them (These people, the sons of Jacob, were meant by the Lord to be a blessing to the entirety of the world, but instead they were, because of sin, "a curse, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach")**:

19 Because they have not hearkened to My Words, says the LORD, which I sent unto them by My Servants the Prophets, rising up early and sending them; but you would not hear, says the LORD. ("But you would not hear, says the LORD," pertains to the spiritual insensibility that had resulted from a hardened heart [Heb. 3:13].)

JUDGMENT ON THE FALSE PROPHETS IN BABYLON

[20] Hear you therefore the Word of the LORD, all you of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon (those in "captivity" had been hearing false prophets, and now they are admonished to "hear you therefore the Word of the LORD." They were to understand that they were in Babylonia because God had sent them there; consequently, neither the disposition of Egypt nor who was ruling in Babylon really mattered. Their situation was unchangeable because the Lord was the Author)**:

[21] Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, of Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and of Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, which prophesy a lie unto you in My Name; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall kill them before your eyes (this "Ahab" was not the same as king Ahab who lived many years before Jeremiah's time, nor was this "Zedekiah" the king of Judah. They both were false prophets. As well, the Holy Spirit through Jeremiah called their names and pronounced doom upon them for their false prophecies. They were to be killed by Nebuchadnezzar. So, this puts to rest the idea that true Prophets should not call the names of those who are false)**;

[22] And of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire ("Roasted in the fire," seems to imply that these false prophets were cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. The Lord would deliver the three Hebrew Children [Dan., Chpt. 3] but would not deliver these false prophets. As well, this Passage implies that if the people believe the lies of these false prophets, a "curse" would be upon them)**;

[23] Because they have committed villany in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in My Name, which I have not commanded them; even I know, and am a witness, says the LORD. ("Even I know, and am a witness, says the LORD," is chilling indeed! It refers to the fact that the Lord knows all and sees all, i.e., is "a witness.")

[24] Thus shall you also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying (this man "Shemaiah" seems to have been the leader of the false prophets in Babylon. Thus, Jeremiah again publicly calls the name of another false prophet)**,

[25] Thus speaks the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because you have sent letters in your name unto all the people who are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the Priest, and to all the Priests, saying (the letters of Shemaiah will seek the harm of Jeremiah)**,

[26] The LORD has made you Priest in the stead of Jehoiada the Priest, that you should be officers in the House of the LORD, for every man who is mad, and makes himself a Prophet, that you should put him in prison, and in the stocks. (Shemaiah was demanding that the High Priest "put Jeremiah in prison" and "in the stocks." By using the phrase, "And makes himself a Prophet," he was claiming that Jeremiah was not truly a Prophet of the Lord. He is calling on "Zephaniah" to stop this madman, as he refers to Jeremiah!)

[27] Now therefore why have you not reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth, which makes himself a Prophet to you? (These false prophets were not content to oppose the Lord's Message; they also desired to attack the Messenger!)

[28] For therefore he sent unto us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long: build you houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them. (Jeremiah was saying the very opposite of the false prophets. He was saying, "the captivity is long," i.e., "seventy years," while the false prophets were claiming that it was about over.)

[29] And Zephaniah the Priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the Prophet. (This man "Shemaiah" had stated that it was the duty before God for Zephaniah the High Priest to arrest and imprison Jeremiah; that Jeremiah was a madman and a self-ordained Preacher. However, his command that Jeremiah should be shut up in the prison was met by Divine Judgment, which rather shut him and his children out of restored Jerusalem, as we shall soon see!)

30 Then came the Word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying (surely these false prophets had learned what had happened to "Hananiah the prophet" [28:17], "Ahab" and "Zedekiah"! Nevertheless, in the face of sure judgment, they persisted!)**,

31 Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus says the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite; Because that Shemaiah has prophesied unto you, and I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in a lie (this Verse outlines the responsibility of the Preacher of the Gospel to proclaim the Word of God without fear or favor. How many thousands of Preachers presently "cause people to trust in a lie" and, thereby, cause them to be eternally lost? Judah and Jerusalem would suffer terror at least in part because of these false prophets. Due to the fact that the Gospel of Jesus Christ is the most important and the most serious thing there is, true Preachers must not only preach the Truth, but they also must serve as watchmen and point out error, even calling the names of those who are preaching a false message, exactly as did Jeremiah. To be sure, such will be met by the anger of much of the Church; nevertheless, it must be done!)**:

32 Therefore thus says the LORD; Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither shall he behold the good that I will do for My People, says the LORD, because he has taught rebellion against the LORD. (To "teach rebellion against the LORD" is to teach that which is contrary to God's Word. The Apostle Paul dealt with this in Gal. 1:8-9.

"He shall not have a man to dwell among this people," actually referred to a curse placed upon him by the Lord. It meant his posterity would be cut off, which meant that no sons would be born to him; or else, if he already had sons, none would be born to them. Or it could mean that all would be killed!)

CHAPTER 30

THE PROMISED RETURN OF THE CAPTIVES; REGATHERING OF JUDAH AND ISRAEL TO PALESTINE

[1] The Word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying (Chapters 30 and 31 are as an oasis in the midst of a swamp. They shine out among all Jeremiah's Prophecies. This Chapter proclaims the drawing together of both Israel and Judah into one. God is One, so His People are one. As well, this Chapter proclaims the restoration of Judah to her Land, which will demand a new heart, which will demand a New Covenant)**,

[2] Thus speaks the LORD God of Israel, saying, Write you all the words that I have spoken unto you in a Book. (The "Book" spoken of is the part of the Bible we now have in our possession, the Book of Jeremiah.)

[3] For, lo, the days come, says the LORD, that I will bring again the captivity of My People Israel and Judah, says the LORD: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it. (While Israel would partially fulfill this after the dispersion into Babylon, still, its total fulfillment awaits the coming Kingdom Age.)

THE GREAT TRIBULATION

[4] And these are the words that the LORD spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah. (Again, the Holy Spirit speaks of both "Israel" and "Judah" as being one. In other words, all the Promises that concern one concern both!)

[5] For thus says the LORD; We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace. (Verses 4 through 7 refer to the coming Great Tribulation and the Battle of Armageddon; consequently, they leap over the soon-to-come destruction of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar and go into the future, even beyond our present day.)

[6] Ask y ou now, and see whether a man does travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness? ("And all faces are turned into paleness," refers to Israel's shock when she realizes that she has been played for a fool! The Antichrist is really not the Messiah, but an imposter! Israel has been deceived! Consequently, there seems to be no way out of their dilemma and they face what looks like certain annihilation.)

[7] Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's Trouble; but he shall be saved out of it. (The glory of Israel's restoration, as is proclaimed in the previous Verses, will be preceded by the horror of "the time of Jacob's Trouble." It will be the last three and a half years of the Great Tribulation.

Jesus addressed this when He said it would be the worst that has ever been, so bad that it would never happen again [Mat. 24:21].)

REGATHERING OF ISRAEL UNDER THE MESSIAH

[8] For it shall come to pass in that day, says the LORD of Hosts, that I will break his yoke from off your neck, and will burst your bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him *("I will break his yoke," refers to the last king of Babylon — the Antichrist. This will be done during the Battle of Armageddon, when Jesus Christ comes back):

[9] But they shall serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them. ("The LORD their God" is the Lord Jesus Christ. "And David their king, whom I will raise up unto them," refers to David being resurrected, along with all the Saints, and given a glorified body. He will then serve, and we speak of the coming Kingdom Age, as the king of Israel, and do so under Christ.)

[10] Therefore fear you not, O My servant Jacob, says the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid. (This speaks of Israel's restoration at the beginning of the Kingdom Age. In fact, the phrase, "And Jacob shall return," began to be fulfilled in 1948, when a part of the original Promised Land was declared by the United Nations as the recognized State of Israel; however, it will not be completely fulfilled until the Second Coming of Christ, when all Jews will return from all over the world.)

[11] For I am with you, says the LORD, to save you: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered you, yet I will not make a full end of you: but I will correct you in measure, and will not leave you altogether unpunished. ("Though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered you," refers to nations and empires such as Babylon, Medo-Persia, the Grecian Empire, and the Roman Empire. These nations and empires, despite their might and power, are no more; yet, Israel remains!

"Yet will I not make a full end of you," means that the Lord will not destroy them completely, as He has destroyed mighty nations and empires in the past; however, they have suffered and they will yet suffer greatly, fulfilling the phrase, "And will not leave you altogether unpunished.")

[12] For thus says the LORD, Your bruise is incurable, and your wound is grievous. (The sense of this Verse is that the "bruise" which Israel has is "incurable," i.e., cannot be cured by the world, but only by the Lord, which will be done at the Second Coming. The only cure for this "wound" is the Cross of Christ, as this is the only cure for any such wound [Zech. 13:1].)

[13] There is none to plead your cause, that you may be bound up: you have no healing medicines. (Upon Israel's abandonment of Christ, there is "none to plead your cause." Consequently, the only "healing medicines" are those which come from the Lord, and not from the system of the world.)

[14] All your lovers have forgotten you; they seek you not; for I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the multitude of your iniquity; because your sins were increased. (The "cruel one" is the Antichrist. When he turns on them, breaking his covenant in the middle of the week [seven years], they will then see that "all your lovers have forgotten you." Every nation will then turn against Israel [Dan. 9:27; Zech. 12:3].

The Lord will bring this to pass "for the multitude of your iniquity." This concerns their rejection of Christ! [Jn. 5:43].)

15 Why do you cry for your affliction? your sorrow is incurable for the multitude of your iniquity: because your sins were increased, I have done these things unto you. (The question, "Why do you cry for your affliction?", refers to them "mourning for Him" when they realize that the One they crucified was actually their Messiah, the Lord of Glory [Zech. 12:10-11].

"I have done these things unto you," expresses the Lord's total control. Why? "Because your sins were increased," which states the reasons for the chastisement.)

16 Therefore all they who devour you shall be devoured; and all your adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they who spoil you shall be a spoil, and all who prey upon you will I give for a prey. (This refers to every nation in the world which has opposed Israel, which is opposing Israel at the present, and which will oppose Israel under the Antichrist in the future. They should read these words very carefully!)

17 For I will restore health unto you, and I will heal you of your wounds, says the LORD; because they called you an Outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeks after. (In this Passage, as well as so many others, the "restoration to health" is promised here! Even though no one else in the world could heal the "grievous wound" of Israel, nevertheless, the Lord says, "I will heal you of your wounds.")

REBUILDING OF JERUSALEM

18 Thus says the LORD; Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have mercy on his dwellingplaces; and the city shall be built upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof. ("The palace" refers to the Temple, which will be built in Jerusalem upon the Second Coming of Christ. It shall be inhabited and have a style befitting its glory [Ezek., Chpts. 40-48].)

BLESSINGS ON ISRAEL

19 And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of them who make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small. ("I will multiply them, and they shall not be few," refers to their smallness now, but their greatness then. Israel will then grow into a great nation, with David as their king and Christ as their Messiah. As such, they will be the premier nation of the world, which will bring untold blessings to the entirety of the world.)

20 Their children also shall be as aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before Me, and I will punish all who oppress them. ("And I will punish all who oppress them," is the same as the original Abrahamic Covenant [Gen. 12:1-3]. "And their congregation shall be established before Me," refers to all being in Christ. It can only be established in Him, and not otherwise! To be sure, they tried to establish it without Him, but to no avail!)

21 And their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto Me: for who is this who engaged his heart to approach unto Me? says the LORD. ("And their nobles shall be of themselves," refers to the Gentiles no longer lording it over Israel as they have done for centuries, for "the times of the Gentiles" will be ended [Lk. 21:24; Rom. 11:25-29].

"And their governors shall proceed from the midst of them," signifies the Gentile world looking to Israel for leadership instead of the opposite.

"And I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto Me," refers to Christ finally being accepted as Jacob's Priest. As such, He pledged His life at Calvary in order to put away sin, opened the way to God, and so enabled His People, in fellowship with Himself, to approach the Throne of Grace, not with timidity, but with boldness [Heb. 4:16].)

22 And you shall be My People, and I will be your God. (All of this will have been made possible by the Cross [Zech. 13:1].)

THE GREAT TRIBULATION

23 Behold, the whirlwind of the LORD goes forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind: it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked. (The "whirlwind" pictures Divine Judgment on the nations of the world that have set themselves to foil the Plan of God. The purpose will be to "fall with pain upon the head of the wicked," which specifically points to the Antichrist [II Thess. 2:8].)

24 The fierce anger of the LORD shall not return, until He have done it, and until He have performed the intents of His heart: in the latter days you shall consider it. ("The fierce anger of the LORD shall not return, until He have done it," refers to the fact that evil will be dealt with in the Great Tribulation and at the Second Coming. This is a guarantee!)

CHAPTER 31

[1] At the same time, says the LORD, will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be My People. ("Of all the families of Israel," pertains to the fact that Israel will be no more divided, but in truth will be one nation. The statement, "At the same time," refers to the defeat of the Antichrist at Armageddon and the fact that Israel has now accepted Christ as her Saviour and Messiah. At that "time," He will be their "God," and "they shall be My People.")

[2] Thus says the LORD, The people which were left of the sword found grace in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest. ("The sword" concerns the murderous cruelty of Pharaoh. "Grace in the wilderness" pertains to the many miracles performed by the Lord in this howling wasteland in order to provide for His People.

"When I went" refers to leading them with the Cloud by day and the Pillar of Fire by night!

The words, "To cause him to rest," speak to the establishment of Israel in the Promised Land.)

[3] The LORD has appeared of old unto me, saying, Ye s, I have loved you with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn you. (The argument is: God chose to love Israel with a love from all eternity; therefore, He kept exhibiting proofs of that love with unwearied affection.)

[4] Again I will build you, and you shall be built, O virgin of Israel: you shall again be adorned with your tabrets, and shall go forth in the dances of them who make merry. ("O virgin of Israel," is beautiful indeed! It signals Justification by Faith, which Israel will finally understand and accept at the coming Kingdom Age.

The "tabrets" and "dances" refer to David's victory over Goliath and the rejoicing that followed [I Sam. 18:6]. Goliath was a type of Satan, while David was a Type of Christ. The great rejoicing that will take place on that coming Glad Day when Jesus Christ is enthroned in Jerusalem will be because of the defeat of the future Goliath, the Antichrist.)

5 You shall yet plant vines upon the mountains of Samaria: the planters shall plant, and shall eat them as common things. (Under the Law, the vine-owner had to wait five years before he could gather for himself the fruit of his vineyard [Lev. 19:23-25; Deut. 20:6]. Consequently, he might never enjoy its produce because of the insecurity of the times; however, in the coming Restoration there will be perfect government, and so his enjoyment of the fruit of his labor will be assured.)

6 For there shall be a day, that the watchman upon the Mount Ephraim shall cry, Arise you, and let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God. (In Ephraim's sad past, the watchman summoned the people to go up to Beth-el or up to Dan to worship an idol; but, in the happy future, they will be summoned to go up to Zion unto Jehovah the Messiah.)

7 For thus sa ys the LORD; Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations; publish you, praise you, and say, O LORD, save Your People, the remnant of Israel. ("The chief of the nations" is Israel. "Publish you, praise you," refers to the proclamation of this great Truth by Faith, looking forward to its fulfillment.

"O LORD, save Your People, the remnant of Israel," means that so certain is Salvation sure to those who call upon the Lord that it can be published and praised in advance.)

8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the Earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her who travails with child together: a great company shall return thither. (This refers to the beginning of the Kingdom Age, when every Jew on the face of the Earth will be brought to the Land of Israel, and gladly so!)

9 They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a Father to Israel, and Ephraim is My firstborn. ("They shall come with weeping," does not speak of a sorrowful return, but actually a mixture of joy and sorrow. They will sorrow when they think of their spiritual blindness that lasted so long, and yet the tears of joy shall flow because of their Redemption.

The "rivers of waters" speak of the miracle River which will flow from the Temple in Jerusalem, out from under the threshold at the "south side of the Altar." As it flows, it will widen until it is "a River that cannot be passed over."

After it leaves the Temple, it will divide, with part going toward the Mediterranean and part toward the Dead Sea, which will be dead no longer [Ezek. 47:1, 5, 9; Zech. 14:8].

The words, "My firstborn," have a very special meaning, at least in this instance! In the Israelite ritual, the firstborn of man and beast had a special place. The male firstborn belonged to the Lord [Ex. 13:2; 22:29-30; Num. 3:13]. This was underlined by Israel's deliverance in the final plague upon Egypt.

There were accompanying privileges associated with the firstborn, which included a larger inheritance, a special paternal blessing, family leadership, and an honored place at meal times; consequently, Israel, being "My Firstborn" is guaranteed these privileges among the nations, hence, her being "chief of nations" [Gen. 25:5-6; 27:35-36; 37:21; 42:37; 43:33; Deut. 21:15-17].)

THE BLESSINGS OF ISRAEL

10 Hear the Word of the LORD, O you nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He who scatters Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd does his flock. (The first phrase emphasizes the fact that the restoration of the Chosen People will be so great an event that it will be of worldwide significance.)

[11] For the LORD has redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of him who was stronger than he. (This refers to the Antichrist, who will be much "stronger" than Israel; but, above all, it refers to his sponsor, Satan. Jesus will defeat the Antichrist at the Second Coming and will also ransom Israel.)

[12] Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodness of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all. (The "height of Zion" refers to the Temple. For nearly 2,000 years, they have had no song; now, "they shall come and sing." "And shall flow together to the goodness of the LORD," pertains to the fact of divisions in the past, but which now will be healed of that breach, and "shall flow together."

"And they shall not sorrow any more at all," refers to the terrible sorrow of the past, but the absence of this malady at the present, and as well for the future.)

[13] Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow. ("For I will turn their mourning into joy," refers to the "great mourning" that will take place in Jerusalem and throughout Israel, regarding what they had previously done to the Messiah; they now realize the terrible mistake they made and the horrible sin they committed!)

[14] And I will satiate the soul of the Priests with fatness, and My People shall be satisfied with My goodness, says the LORD. (This tells us that in the coming age of Righteousness that the office of the "Priest" will be restored, as well.)

ADMONITION TO CEASE WEEPING

15 Thus says the LORD; A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rahel (Rachel) weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not. (Rachel was one of the two wives of Jacob. She was the mother of Joseph and Benjamin and, therefore, of the two kingdoms and the two peoples. She wept for her children, figuratively speaking, when they were carried captive to Babylon and again when they were slain by Herod. Thus, to this extent was the Prophecy fulfilled, as stated in Mat. 2:17-18; but the weeping and the Promise of Verses 16 and 17 belong to the future, and pertain to the coming Great Tribulation [Zech. 12:10-13:1, 9; Rom. 11:25-29].)

16 Thus says the LORD; Refrain your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears: for your work shall be rewarded, says the LORD; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy. (To "come again from the land of the enemy," means to be gathered from all over the world, after some 2,000 years of dispersion.)

17 And there is hope in your end, sa ys the LORD, that your children shall come again to their own border. ("And there is hope in your end," is the Lord telling Rachel that her death was not one of darkness and despair, but rather of "hope." In effect, the Lord is saying, "Rachel, you died and left your children, but you will see them again, and your children shall come again to their own border," i.e., Israel.)

REPENTANCE OF ISRAEL

18 I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; You have chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn you me, and I shall be turned; for You are the LORD my God. (True Conversion has God as its Agent and is occasioned by Repentance, which Ephraim will do immediately after the Second Coming.)

19 Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yes, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth. ("Surely after that I was turned," proclaims the act performed that was requested in the previous Verse. Ephraim could not totally turn himself, but he needed the help of the Lord, which was given!)

[20] Is Ephraim My dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spoke against him, I do ear nestly remember him still: therefore My bowels are troubled for him; I will surely have mercy upon him, says the LORD. (In this Verse, the Love of the Heart of God throbs for "Ephraim." He asks the question, "Is Ephraim My dear son?" This is the voice of the Divine Speaker, Who asks if Ephraim, who has so flagrantly sinned against Him, can really be His "dear son," His "pleasant child"?

The phrase, "I do earnestly remember him still," refers to the Promises made regarding Ephraim's restoration.

The words, "Therefore My bowels are troubled for him," literally means to moan. It is something akin to human grief in the Heart of God for Ephraim. Such is the humility of the Lord of the ages [Ps. 18:35].)

[21] Set you up waymarks, make you high heaps: set your heart toward the highway, even the way which you went: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these your cities. (The idea is: Travel the "way" of Repentance; to be sure, there are "waymarks" all along the way, so you will not be confused.)

[22] How long will you go about, O you backsliding daughter? for the LORD has created a new thing in the Earth, A woman shall compass a man. (The question, "How long will you go about, O you backsliding daughter?", refers to "the virgin of Israel" in the previous Verse. Actually, the two terms do not go together. They are contradictory. However, the "virgin of Israel" is what the Lord will make of this "backsliding daughter" upon her Repentance. It is called "Justification by Faith" [Rom. 5:1].)

JUDAH TO BE RESTORED

[23] Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity; The LORD bless you, O habitation of Justice, and mountain of Holiness. (It seems that Israel never quite knew or understood the purpose of the Sacrifices, which pointed to a coming Redeemer, or the purpose of the Temple, which was the habitation of God, and which pointed to another habitation, i.e., our bodies, hearts, and lives [I Cor. 3:16]. Because of her proper Repentance, she now fully understands what the Lord is doing, and she eagerly desires to follow Him. She will then clearly understand that the Lord is "a habitation of Justice" and "mountain of Holiness." "Justice" is His Word and "Holiness" is His Person.)

24 And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they who go forth with flocks. (The idea of this Verse is to proclaim the utter serenity and peace which will envelope "Judah" and "all the cities thereof.")

25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul. ("For I have satiated," literally means "I have watered," speaking of the "weary soul.")

26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me. ("Upon this I awaked, and beheld," means that these words of encouragement concerning Israel's future day of great victory have given Jeremiah great hope. Now he has something to hold to, even though it may be well into the future. As a result, "my sleep was sweet unto me.")

27 Behold, the days come, sa ys the LORD, that I will sow the House of Israel and the House of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast. (The idea is: Israel will once again become a great nation with a large population.)

28 And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, sa ys the LORD. ("As I have watched over them," refers to continued surveillance, even in their dispersion, and even some protection so that they are not totally destroyed.

Now, as the Lord once had to destroy them because of sin, His energy will be spent on "rebuilding." This will take place in the coming Kingdom Age!)

29 In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge. (By the use of this Proverb, the people were saying that the cause of their present difficulty was not because of their own sins, but because of the sins of their fathers. They absolved themselves of blame! But during the coming Millennium, this Proverb will be no more!)

30 But everyone shall die for his own iniquity: every man who eats the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge. (The sense of this Verse is that in the coming day of the Millennium, with Christ Personally ruling, the failure to take responsibility for one's own sins will no longer be possible. There will be perfect judgment and justice in the Earth.)

THE NEW COVENANT

31 Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will make a New Covenant with the House of Israel, and with the House of Judah: *(the "New Covenant" mentioned here is the New Testament, that for which Jesus died; Israel would not accept it at that time, but they will accept it in the coming Kingdom Age):

32 Not according to the Covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which My Covenant they broke, although I was an husband unto them, says the LORD *(Paul quotes these Passages in Heb. 8:7-13. The Lord is referring to the Old Law of Moses, which Israel did not keep):

33 But this shall be the Covenant that I will make with the House of Israel; After those days, says the LORD, I will put My Law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be My People. ("The Covenant" spoken of here, as stated, is the "New Covenant," which we have in our present Bibles. "After those days, says the LORD," refers to the intervening time from the days of Jeremiah even unto the Second Coming, at which time Israel will then accept the

New Covenant, i.e., "Christ.")

34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know Me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, says the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more. (This Verse speaks of the coming Millennial Reign; at its beginning, Israel will accept Christ and what He did for them at Calvary. This will occasion their forgiveness and cleansing [Zech. 13:1].)

35 Thus says the LORD, Who gives the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, Who divides the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of Hosts is His Name (this Verse is given in this manner to proclaim the fact that the Lord, Who is the Creator of all things, has the Power to do what He says He will do)**:

36 If those ordinances depart from before Me, says the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before Me forever. (The Promise of Verses 31 through 34 is that of a new moral nature; and the argument of Verses 35 through 37 is the impossibility of God ceasing to love His ancient people or casting them away because of their past misconduct.)

37 Thus s ays the LORD; If Heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the Earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, says the LORD. (In this Scripture, the Holy Spirit uses an anomaly, which means something that deviates in excess of normal variation [Ps. 99:1].)

JERUSALEM TO BE HOLY UNTO THE LORD FOREVER

38 Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD from the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner. (This refers to the coming Kingdom Age.)

39 And the measuring line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb, and shall compass about to Goath. (In this Passage, "The measuring line" only describes a part of the city, with Ezekiel giving its entirety as "18,000 measures" [43 miles all the way around; Ezek. 48:30-35].)

40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields unto the brook of Kidron, unto the corner of the horse gate toward the east, shall be holy unto the LORD; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more forever. (The idea is that all of these areas in Jerusalem which had been so polluted by Satan will now be cleansed, never again to be corrupted; they will forever more be "holy unto the LORD.")

CHAPTER 32

JEREMIAH BUYS A FIELD AT ANATHOTH: A SIGN OF ISRAEL'S REDEMPTION

[1] The Word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. (This signifies the very eve of Jerusalem's destruction. In fact, the city will be destroyed in approximately one year. Actually, the siege had begun the preceding year [39:1], but had been temporarily raised on the approach of an Egyptian army [37:5, 11].)

[2] For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the Prophet was shut up in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house. (Jeremiah was in prison because he foretold the capture of the city by the Chaldeans. When the Babylonian siege was raised by the Egyptian army, such must have exposed the Prophet and his Message to public ridicule. In fact, the false prophets were proclaiming that the Egyptians would come to their rescue and the Babylonians would be forced to flee. However, the Egyptian's army would prove to be insufficient for the task, with the Babylonians once again resuming the siege. This proved the validity of Jeremiah's Message.)

[3] For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore do you prophesy, and say, Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it (Jeremiah's answer to the approaching Egyptians and their supposed relief was, in effect, that nothing had changed. The Babylonians, despite the Egyptians, would take the city)**;

[4] And Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes (Zedekiah's eyes saw the Chaldean monarch at Riblah; his eyes were then put out, and he was carried to Babylon, where he died. Thus, as predicted by the Prophet Ezekiel, he died in Babylon and yet never saw it [II Ki. 25:6-7; Ezek. 12:13; Jer. 34:3])**;

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, says the LORD: though you fight with the Chaldeans, you shall not prosper. (There is some indication in this Verse, considering the words, "And there shall he be until I visit him," that Zedekiah at the last repented before the LORD, even though it was too late to save Judah and Jerusalem.)

6 And Jeremiah said, The Word of the LORD came unto me, saying (Verses 2 through 5 being somewhat of a parenthesis, the account resumes following Verse 1)**,

7 Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum your uncle shall come unto you, saying, Buy you my field that is in Anathoth: for the right of redemption is yours to buy it. (The Law concerning the Redemption of Land is found in Lev., Chpt. 25 and Ruth, Chpt. 4.)

8 So Hanameel my uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the Word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray you, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is yours, and the redemption is yours; buy it for yourself. Then I knew that this was the Word of the LORD. ("Then I knew that this was the Word of the LORD," seems to imply that Jeremiah was not quite certain that the Lord had really told him this until his cousin "came to the court of the prison.")

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, who was in Anathoth, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver. (Even though the amount of money was small, still, the symbolism for which the Holy Spirit desired to use this was very special in the sight of God. It was to serve as notice that houses, fields, and vineyards would be possessed by the Jews again after many days — actually some seventy years after the beginning of the captivity, and in this very place.)

10 And I subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the Law and custom, and that which was open:

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel my uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses who subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the prison. ("Baruch the son of Neriah" was the brother of Seraiah, the quartermaster to king Zedekiah. Josephus says that he was of noble family. He was a faithful attendant to the Prophet Jeremiah.)

13 And I charged Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days. (The "many days" refer to the seventy years of captivity of 25:9-14, of which some eighteen years had already passed. As such, the Prophecy was not meant to be negative, but rather positive, meaning that the Jews would be restored to this very land at the end of the seventy-year period.)

15 For thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land. (The purchase of this land served as a symbolism and also demonstrated the Prophet's belief in the Divine Promise of Restoration.)

JEREMIAH'S PRAYER

16 Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying,

[17] Ah Lord GOD! behold, You have made the Heaven and the Earth by Your great Power and stretched out Arm, and there is nothing too hard for You (Jeremiah's prayer would have been identical to those prayed today, with one exception. Since the Advent of Christ, Believers now pray to the Father in the Name of Jesus [Jn. 16:23])**:

[18] You show lovingkindness unto thousands, and recompense the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, the Mighty God, the LORD of Hosts, is His Name (the conjunction of love to thousands and of suffering to children because of their parents' sin is an offense to the carnal mind; however, the reasons should be overly obvious)**,

[19] Great in counsel, and mighty in work: for Your Eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: to give everyone according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings ("To give everyone according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings," is the same as "with what measure you mete, it shall be measured to you again" [Mat. 7:2])**:

[20] Who have set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and among other men; and have made You a Name, as at this day ("As at this day," refers to signs and wonders continuing to be performed, equal to those wrought in Egypt and elsewhere)**;

[21] And have brought forth Your People Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders and with a strong Hand, and with a stretched out Arm, and with great terror (God is a miracle-working God!)**;

[22] And have given them this land, which You did swear to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey ("this land" given to them by the Lord was now about to be taken away from them by the Lord!)**;

[23] And they came in, and possessed it; but they obeyed not Your Voice, neither walked in Your Law; they have done nothing of all that You commanded them to do: therefore You have caused all this evil to come upon them (this Verse tells us there were conditions for maintaining the "possession")**:

24 Behold the mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans, who fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what You have spoken is come to pass; and, behold, You see it. ("And the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans," refers to the act already performed, at least in the Mind of God; actually, the city had not yet fallen to the "Chaldeans," but its fall a foregone conclusion.)

25 And You have said unto me, O Lord GOD, Buy you the field for money, and take witnesses; for the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. (The purchase, as stated, was designated by the Holy Spirit to serve as symbolism that, despite the present circumstances, there ultimately would be a restoration.)

JUDGMENT ON ISRAEL AND JUDAH

26 Then came the Word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

27 Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there anything too hard for Me? (In this Verse and those following, the Lord exclaims His Power to do whatever is necessary to bring about His intended results. The question, "Is there anything too hard for Me?", implies that not only is there nothing "too hard for Him," but that there is not even anything "hard" for Him to do!)

28 Therefore thus says the LORD; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it (this Passage denotes the sovereignty of God and His ability to do that which needs to be done. At this juncture, world leadership would pass from the faltering hands of the kings of Judah to the Gentiles, where it has remained ever since [Lk. 21:24])**:

29 And the Chaldeans, who fight against this city, shall come and set fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, upon whose roofs they (the Israelites) have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink offerings unto other gods, to provoke Me to anger. (Since the Hebrews had substituted Moloch, the god of fire, in the place of Jehovah, it was a just judgment which burned their houses with fire [Deut. 3:6].)

[30] For the Children of Israel and the Children of Judah have only done evil before Me from their youth: for the Children of Israel have only provoked Me to anger with the work of their hands, says the LORD. (In the reply to the Prophet's prayer, the two foundation doctrines find expression: the incurable depravity of human nature, even in the most favorable moral conditions; and the necessity of a new Spiritual birth. However, these two doctrines deeply offend moralists.)

[31] For this city has been to Me as a provocation of My anger and of My fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; that I should remove it from before My Face (Solomon, who beautified Jerusalem, also established idolatry in it [I Ki. 11:1-9]. Therefore, the problem of "provocation" persisted from the very beginning, and only increased in intensity as the years passed. Now, the Lord will "remove it from before His Face"),

[32] Because of all the evil of the Children of Israel and of the Children of Judah, which they have done to provoke Me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their Priests, and their Prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. (This Passage tells us that iniquity had permeated every part and parcel of Jewish society.)

[33] And they have turned unto Me the back, and not the face: though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction. ("Have turned unto Me the back, and not the face," signifies a refusal of God's Word.)

[34] But they set their abominations in the House, which is called by My Name, to defile it. (This could have referred to the altars which Manasseh built "for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the House of Jehovah," and especially to the image of the Canaanitish goddess Asherah, which he set up in the Temple itself, and which was most abominable [II Ki. 21:5, 7].)

35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into My Mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin. (The worship of Molech seems to have been associated with the sacrifice of children in the fire. The Law of Moses demanded the death of anyone who offered his child to Molech or as a sacrifice [Lev. 8:21; 20:2-5].

"Neither came it into My Mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin," refers to the fact that even Omniscience is surprised by such action. The phrase does not imply a lack of knowledge.)

36 And now therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof you say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence (the carnal mind passes easily from presumption to despair. But when man is brought to despair, Grace can intervene to infinitely and permanently bless him. Thus, man's incurable sinfulness must be fully demonstrated in order to provide a field of action for the operations of Grace)**;

REGATHERING OF ISRAEL

37 Behold, I will gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in My anger, and in My fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely (the Holy Spirit through Jeremiah now jumps ahead to the coming Kingdom Age, when virtually every Jew from all over the world will be brought to Israel)**:

38 And they shall be My People, and I will be their God (this, God has always intended, and this will ultimately be)**:

39 And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear Me forever, for the good of them, and of their children after them ("I will give them one heart," speaks of Conversion, which can only be brought about by the Holy Spirit and Faith in Christ. Such is the New Covenant, i.e., New Testament, given by Christ, now enjoyed for some 2,000 years, but not by Israel!)**:

40 And I will make an Everlasting Covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put My fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from Me. (After Israel's acceptance of Christ at the Second Coming, there is no record in the Bible that one single Hebrew will in the future turn their back upon Christ, but they will continue along with their children to serve Him forever.)

41 Yes, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with My whole Heart and with My whole Soul. (In the coming Kingdom Age, the Jews are not only promised a new heart and untold blessings, but also the geographical Land of Israel. In fact, the Palestinians and the rest of the world should read this.)

42 For thus says the LORD; Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them. (The "good" and the "evil" are carried out by the Lord on the basis of obedience or disobedience.)

43 And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof you say, It is desolate without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. (The idea is: after the destruction by Nebuchadnezzar, many will say that it can never be restored; however, the Lord has said it would be restored. And so it was!)

44 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south: for I will cause their captivity to return, sa ys the LORD. (Hebrew scholars instance this Verse as illustrating the full force and beauty of the Infinite Absolute in emphasizing the certain fulfillment of its several predictions.)

CHAPTER 33

DESOLATION TO BE FOLLOWED BY RESTORATION

[1] Moreover the Word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the prison, saying ("The second time," concerned the second Prophecy given by Jeremiah while "shut up in the court of the prison." This was the same incarceration given at the beginning of the previous Chapter. It was probably about nine months to a year before the fall of Jerusalem and the final captivity of Jews to Babylon [II Ki. 25:1-2])**,

[2] Thus says the LORD the Maker thereof, the LORD Who formed it, to establish it; the LORD is His Name (this Chapter predicts the Restoration of the people; the prior one foretold the restoration of the land)**;

[3] Call unto Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you know not. (This great Promise, although given specifically to Judah, definitely applies also to any and all Believers [Mat. 21:22; Mk. 11:23-24; Lk. 11:9-13; Jn. 14:14; 15:7].)

[4] For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by the mounts, and by the sword (the statement appears to be that the houses proposed to be demolished in order to form barricades against the Chaldeans, on the contrary, were destined by the Lord to be filled with the dead bodies of Hebrew soldiers)**;

[5] They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have killed in My anger and in My fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid My face from this city. (The "houses of this city" and the "houses of the kings of Judah" referred to the beautiful homes of the wealthiest, and even the palaces of the kings. These were to be filled with multiple thousands of dead bodies stacked up like cordwood.

The "anger" and the "fury" of the Lord are expressed here against "wickedness," which caused Him to "hide His face from this city.")

6 Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth. (Without a break in stride, as if the Holy Spirit desired to hurriedly proclaim the restoration of Judah and Jerusalem, even in the face of their destruction, He then promises "health and cure." However, between Verses 5 and 6 lie a gap that has not even yet been bridged, but which most surely will be. We speak of the coming Kingdom Age.)

7 And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first.

8 And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against Me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against Me.

9 And it shall be to Me a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the Earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it. (The blessing at that coming time will be total!)

10 Thus sa ys the LORD; Again there shall be heard in this place, which you say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast *(what a joy these words must have been to Jeremiah! Through the eye of faith, the Lord invites the Prophet to look ahead, past the soon-to-come "desolation," and then see that which the Lord will ultimately do, which speaks of untold blessing),

11 The voice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of them who shall say, Praise the LORD of Hosts: for the LORD is good; for His Mercy endures forever: and of them who shall bring the Sacrifice of Praise into the House of the LORD. For I will cause to return the captivity of the land, as at the first, says the LORD. ("The Sacrifice of Praise" refers to praise unto the Lord which is anchored in the Cross of Christ, hence, the "Sacrifice." That's the reason that most praise presently is not accepted by the Lord. It is because it's not anchored in the Cross.)

[12] Thus sa ys the LORD of Hosts; Again in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be an habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down. (The idea of this Verse is to portray the certain peace that is coming in contrast to the terrible war about to take place. While this serenity is future, to be sure, it is also certain.)

[13] In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks pass again under the Hands of Him Who tells them, says the LORD. (Not only will the Peace of God fill Jerusalem, and we continue to speak of the coming Kingdom Age, but also throughout the entirety of the Land of Israel shall Peace prevail!

"Shall the flocks pass again under the Hands of Him Who tells them, says the LORD," refers actually to the Great Shepherd, the Lord Jesus Christ [Heb. 13:20-21].)

REIGN OF THE MESSIAH

[14] Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the House of Israel and to the House of Judah. ("That good thing which I have promised" refers to the coming Messiah and full Redemption and Restoration under Him.)

[15] In those days, and at that time, will I cause the Branch of Righteousness to grow up unto David; and He shall execute Judgment and Righteousness in the land. ("In those days, and at that time," refers to the coming Kingdom Age. As well, "the Branch of Righteousness" is none other than the Lord Jesus Christ.

"To grow up unto David," refers to the Throne of David, which was broken off with Jehoiachin [II Ki. 24:10-16], and has been unoccupied from that day until now, and will remain unoccupied until Christ occupies it on His return, with David in his glorified body ruling under Him.)

16 In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the Name wherewith she shall be called, The LORD our Righteousness. (The Messiah's Name is here declared to be "Jehovah-Tsidkenu." This is the Name which will be given to the New Israel. "Tsidkenu" means "Righteousness.")

17 For thus says the LORD; David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the House of Israel (this proclaims the Promise given by God to David, which shall be fulfilled in the coming Kingdom Age [II Sam. 7:12-14])**;

18 Neither shall the Priests the Levites want a man before Me to offer Burnt Offerings, and to kindle Meat Offerings, and to do sacrifice continually. (Again, we continue with the Kingdom Age. Sacrifices before Christ pointed to the coming Redeemer; now, they point backward to the Redeemer Who has already come. In the Kingdom Age, sacrifices will be offered constantly, but only as a reminder, a symbolism, and a memorial.)

DAVIDIC COVENANT CONFIRMED AS ETERNAL

19 And the Word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,

20 Thus says the LORD; If you can break My Covenant of the day and My Covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season (the "Covenant" addressed here is the "Solaric Covenant" made by the Lord as recorded in Gen. 1:14-19 and 8:22)**;

21 Then may also My Covenant be broken with David My Servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the Priests, My Ministers. (This Verse could be thus paraphrased: "If anyone is powerful enough to affect the assigned position and duty of the planetary bodies, including the rotation of the Earth, then may he break My Covenant with David My servant".)

[22] As the Host of Heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David My servant, and the Levites who minister unto Me. (The Promise of this Scripture has to do with the coming Kingdom Age and the premiership of Israel as a nation; in fact, she will serve as "Chief of Nations" [31:7].)

GOD'S COVENANT WITH ISRAEL ETERNAL

[23] Moreover the Word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

[24] Consider you not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD has chosen, He has even cast them off? thus they have despised My People, that they should be no more a nation before them. ("The two families which the LORD has chosen," refers to both Judah and Israel. "This people," pertains to the people of Judah, who regarded the Promises of God as worthless. These were unworthy Jews in Jeremiah's day, who, seeing their nation fallen from its high estate, despaired of its deliverance and regeneration.)

[25] Thus says the LORD; If My Covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of Heaven and Earth (the Solaric Covenant is once again brought back as an example, but with added emphasis! The words, "And if I have not appointed the ordinances of Heaven and Earth," in effect, state that those who do not believe in the future Restoration of Israel must also deny the Solaric Covenant)**;

[26] Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David My servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them. (The sorrows and rejection of the Messiah are not the subject of Jeremiah's Prophecies, but rather the guilt of the nation at that time, the resulting judgments, and the Grace which promised a Restoration. This Grace will be exercised by the Messiah; the Restoration, with all its wealth of Mercy and Blessing, will be based upon His Person and Atoning Work.)

CHAPTER 34

ZEDEKIAH'S OVERTHROW AND CAPTIVITY

[1] The Word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the Earth of his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof, saying (this Prophecy was given by Jeremiah after Nebuchadnezzar had laid siege to Jerusalem and other cities in Judah),

[2] Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel; Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus says the LORD; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire (shortly before Nebuchadnezzar's time, Egypt had ruled all the country up to the River Euphrates. However, when Nebuchadnezzar came to the throne, he defeated the Egyptians at the Battle of Carchemish. Therefore, there was great animosity between Egypt and Babylon. Consequently, Zedekiah thought that Egypt might come to his rescue. Jeremiah tells him that this will not happen):

[3] And you shall not escape out of his hand, but shall surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and your eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with you mouth to mouth, and you shall go to Babylon. (Not only is the future of the city foretold, but Zedekiah's future, as well!)

[4] Yet hear the Word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus says the LORD of you, You shall not die by the sword (meaning that he would be taken prisoner to Babylon, which he was):

[5] But you shall die in peace: and with the burnings of your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so shall they burn odors for you; and they will lament you, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the Word, says the LORD. (The words, "But you shall die in peace," lends some credence to the possibility that Zedekiah, in the misery of his blindness and captivity in Babylon [for he was blinded by his captors], experienced a true Conversion.)

6 Then Jeremiah the Prophet spoke all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem (even though he took his life in his hands by telling the king these words, still, Jeremiah was true to his calling in delivering the Message from the Lord to this king of Judah)**,

7 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for these defenced cities re mained of the cities of Judah. (Nebuchadnezzar's plan in taking the cities of "Lachish" and "Azekah" was to guard against Egypt.)

THE BROKEN COVENANT CONCERNING SERVANTS

8 This is the Word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem to proclaim liberty unto them (it seems that Zedekiah now tried to press fairness and justice for all, even the poorest of the poor, which the Lord demanded, but which was too little, too late!)**;

9 That every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother. (The command was that every Hebrew, whether man or woman, be instantly released from their servitude, which seems not to have been done for many years. In other words, thousands of poorer Jews had literally been pressed into the service of slavery, with others growing very rich at their expense.)

10 Now when all the princes, and all the people, wh o had entered into the covenant, heard that everyone should let his manservant, and everyone his maidservant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go. (It was probably hoped that the slaves, being freed, would now more heartily help in resisting the enemy, etc. The next Verse will show that the repentance of the nobles was not true heart Repentance, but rather the necessity of the moment.)

[11] But afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids. (In the summer of the same year, when the siege was made, and also the covenant was, therefore, made to let the slaves go free in obedience to God's Word, the Egyptians began to advance to the rescue of Jerusalem; so Nebuchadnezzar withdrew to meet their attack.

Seeing their immediate danger lessened and what looked like certain rescue by the Egyptians, the nobles at once forced the slaves back into service. Then God sent Jeremiah with his Message of rebuke and prediction that the Chaldean army would return to complete the destruction of Jerusalem.)

[12] Therefore the Word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying (the absolute lack of sincerity on the part of the people, even in the face of certain judgment, is staggering in its concept and fearful in its principle; consequently, one can readily see the reason for the necessary judgment)**,

[13] Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel; I made a Covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, saying (the Lord reminds them that He had "brought them forth out of the land of Egypt," in effect, delivering them from their slavery, and now, because of their rebellion, the entire nation was about to go back into slavery. The "Covenant" of which the Lord speaks is found in Lev. 25:10, 39-46 and Deut. 15:12-18)**,

[14] At the end of seven years you let go every man his brother an Hebrew, which has been sold unto you; and when he has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you: but your fathers hearkened not unto Me, neither inclined their ear. (The implication is: this Covenant had been ignored by the people for many, many years, which had caused great hardship for many of, if not most of, the people of Judah and Jerusalem.)

15 And you were now turned, and had done right in My sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and you had made a Covenant before Me in the House which is called by My Name ("In the House which is called by My Name," shows that the Covenant was made in the Temple. But the people had broken it)**:

GOD'S CONDEMNATION AND JUDGMENT

16 But you turned and polluted My Name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom you had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids.

17 Therefore thus says the LORD; You have not hearkened unto Me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, says the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the Earth. (God having delivered the Hebrews from slavery, the cruelty of their action in enslaving others was, therefore, made more inexcusable. "Behold, I proclaim a liberty for you," is an antithesis, which means the opposite of what is said.)

18 And I will give the men who have transgressed My Covenant, who have not performed the words of the Covenant which they had made before Me, when they cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof (this was called "cutting the covenant." A calf was killed and cut into two parts, with the contracting parties then walking between the parts. The idea was that if anyone broke the covenant, they would be cut in two pieces, just like the calf [Gen. 15:9-17])**,

19 The princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the Priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf (a distinction and guilt appears to be drawn here between those who originate evil and those who are, through weakness of character, led into evil. The former [Vss. 19-20] were doomed to the major punishment of death; the latter [Vs. 21], i.e., Zedekiah and his princes, to the punishment of slavery);

20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them who seek their life: and their dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the Earth. (They had broken the Covenant which they had solemnly made; therefore, they would pay the penalty.

"I will even give them," proclaims the totality of God's Judgment and rule. And yet, His People conducted themselves toward Him as if He had no control over their lives.)

21 And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them who seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which are gone up from you. (As stated, a distinction was made by the Lord between the guilty parties. Some were condemned to slavery, while others were condemned to death. God Alone knows the human heart; therefore, He Alone can pronounce judgment that is equitable and right.)

22 Behold, I will command, says the LORD, and cause them (the Babylonians) to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant. (Due to the rumored approach of the Egyptian army, the Babylonians lifted their siege from Jerusalem. As a consequence, the Covenant made by Zedekiah, the Priestly Order, and the Nobles of Jerusalem was broken. The slaves who had been "set at liberty" were quickly pressed back into slavery. Such greatly angered the Lord, and judgment was pronounced, as is evident in this Chapter.)

CHAPTER 35

THE OBEDIENCE OF THE RECHABITES

[1] The Word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying (as the Prophecy in the previous Chapter came just months before the fall of Jerusalem, this Prophecy in Chapter 35 came "in the days of Jehoiakim," which was approximately 20 years earlier)**,

[2] Go unto the house of the Rechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the House of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink. (The "House of the LORD" refers to the Temple, with "one of the chambers" referring to one of the many rooms in Solomon's Temple.

"And give them wine to drink," refers to intoxicating beverage. This might seem strange coming from the Lord; however, in the light of the entire episode, we will find this is not so.)

[3] Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziniah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites (the "Jeremiah" spoken of here was not the Prophet Jeremiah, but rather one of the Rechabite rulers)**;

[4] And I brought them into the House of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the door (whoever these "sons of Hanan" were, Jeremiah calls one of their group "the son of Igdaliah, a man of God")**:

[5] And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink you wine.

[6] But they said, We will drink no wine: for Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, You shall drink no wine, neither you, nor your sons forever ("Jonadab" was a Kenite, one of the descendants of the father-in-law of Moses. He lived during the time of Jehu, king of the Northern Confederacy of Israel. There is some small evidence that he may have helped Jehu in his extermination of the evil family of Ahab [II Ki. 10:15, 17]. At any rate, he definitely was not an idol worshipper, and seemed to have a zeal for the Lord. He "commanded" that his sons "nor your sons forever" not drink intoxicating wine or "dwell in houses." These commands were binding from generation to generation, and it seems they had been kept, at least up to this time)**:

[7] Neither shall you build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days you shall dwell in tents; that you may live many days in the land where you be strangers. (The reason for these two commands [the drinking of no wine and not living in houses, but rather tents] seemed to have something to do with the religion of Baal, which was prominent in the time of Jonadab. Seeing this debauchery, it seems that Jonadab chose the very opposite lifestyle. From this account, it seems to have been approved greatly by the Lord, even to the using of Jonadab's descendants as a Godly example to Judah. It should be an example to us, as well!)

[8] Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he has charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters (as stated here, Jonadab impressed this "charge" upon all his descendants)**;

[9] Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed:

[10] But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. (Little did these people realize that the Lord was taking careful note of all their activities; therefore, when the time came for them to be used of the Lord as an example of faith and obedience, they were ready.)

11 But it came to pass, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem. (Inasmuch as every room in Jerusalem no doubt was filled, the "tents" of the Rechabites may have then been the better mode of accommodation.)

12 Then came the Word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

13 Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will you not receive instruction to hearken to My Words? says the LORD. (All of this portrays the "hurt" felt by the Lord of Glory at the spiritual condition of His People.)

14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but you hearkened not unto Me. (The Holy Spirit is actually asking, "If the sons of Jonadab would heed his words, why would not God's 'sons' heed His Words?")

15 I have sent also unto you all My Servants the Prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return you now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and you shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but you have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto Me. (Three times in this one Chapter the Lord uses the phrase, "nor hearkened unto Me" [Vss. 14, 15, and 16]. The repetition portrays to the reader the significance of this command.)

16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them: but this people has not hearkened unto Me (once again, the Holy Spirit points to the comparison of the "Rechabites" and God's People. The Rechabites obeyed, while Judah would not!):

17 Therefore thus says the LORD God of Hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered. (The wickedness of Israel's disobedience is emphasized by the Title, "Jehovah Elohim Zabaoth Elohim of Israel." The full and most solemn use of this Divine Title occurs three times in this Book [35:17; 38:17; 44:7].)

GOD'S COVENANT WITH THE RECHABITES

18 And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he has commanded you:

19 Therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before Me forever. (The form of this Promise is remarkable. Exactly what the Lord meant by this is not clearly stated. This we do know: it was a favor to be compared only to that accorded to His most honored servants among the Israelites — the Patriarchs, the Priests, and the Prophets.

Incidentally, they refused the command to drink the wine, even as the Lord knew they would, and even as they should have refused.)

CHAPTER 36

JEREMIAH'S WORD FROM GOD OF JUDGMENTS WRITTEN DOWN BY BARUCH

[1] And it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this Word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying ("The fourth year of Jehoiakim," takes us back to about 18 years before the destruction of Jerusalem)**,

[2] Take you a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken unto you against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke unto you, from the days of Josiah, even unto this day. (This refers to the Prophecies of some 23 years. It actually formed the part of our Bible that we know as the Book of Jeremiah, at least up to this point, with the balance added as time went by.)

[3] It may be that the House of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin. ("It may be," does not imply a lack of knowledge on God's part, for He is Omniscient, meaning "all-knowing." It does imply that God, in His Love to sinners, warns them beforehand of their danger, even though He knows they will not repent.)

[4] Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah: and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the Words of the LORD, which He had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book. (Baruch was Jeremiah's faithful attendant [32:12]. Josephus, the Jewish historian, said that he was of high rank in the government of Judah. Baruch served as a Scribe for Jeremiah.)

THE BOOK OF JUDGMENTS READ TO JUDAH

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I cannot go into the House of the LORD (some have claimed that the words, "I am shut up," referred to him being in prison, as described in 33:1; however, that imprisonment was under Zedekiah, which would have been some years later. So, if this meant that he actually was now in prison, the incident was not recorded)**:

6 Therefore go you, and read in the roll, which you have written from my mouth, the Words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD's House upon the fasting day: and also you shall read them in the ears of all Judah who come out of their cities. (One of God's objects in writing the Bible is that it should be read to the people and by the people, and that the moral effect of reading it should be amendment of life, and consequently an escape from the Wrath to come.)

7 It may be they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD has pronounced against this people. (This Verse is very similar to Verse 3 in that the Holy Spirit through the Prophet earnestly solicits the Repentance of Judah and Jerusalem, but to no avail!)

8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the Prophet commanded him, reading in the Book the Words of the LORD in the LORD's House. ("Baruch" was faithful in doing that which was commanded of the Lord, in "reading the Words of the LORD in the LORD's House." It was demanded that the people hear, even though they did not receive it favorably.)

9 And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people who came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem. (The Lord had repeatedly demanded Repentance, and the people responded with "a fast." However, it was a mere religious ordinance; it was not accompanied by Repentance and, therefore, it was of no consequence to God and did not turn away the Anger of God.)

10 Then read Baruch in the Book the words of Jeremiah in the House of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the Scribe, in the higher court, at the entry of the new gate of the LORD's House, in the ears of all the people. (Some think that "Gemariah" was a friend to Jeremiah and allowed "Baruch" to read "the words of Jeremiah" at the "entry of the new gate of the LORD's House, in the ears of all the people.")

EFFECT ON MICHAIAH AND THE PRINCES

11 When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the Book all the Words of the LORD,

12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the Scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the Scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. (All these individuals listed in this Scripture are called "princes"; they were, no doubt, a part of the ruling aristocracy of Judah and Jerusalem.)

13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the Words that he had heard, when Baruch read the Book in the ears of the people. ("Michaiah" was the son of "Gemariah." The "Book" referred to was that which we now know as the "Book of Jeremiah," at least almost the first half.)

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in your hand the Roll wherein you have read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the Roll in his hand, and came unto them. (This refers to the Prophecies ultimately being read to the king of Judah.)

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears. (That which the princes were hearing could save their souls, their lives, their city, and their country, but most of them would little heed its words.)

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the Words, they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these Words. ("They were afraid both one and other," means rather "they turned shudderingly one to another.")

[17] And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How did you write all these Words at his mouth? ("Tell us now," implies their natural curiosity as to how these Prophecies came, and how Baruch had them all in one large Scroll.)

[18] Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these Words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the Book. (This implies that Jeremiah read them, no doubt, from existing parchments, with Baruch writing them down "with ink in the Book," actually on one long Scroll.)

[19] Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide you, you and Jeremiah; and let no man know where you be. (The Prophecies were so startling, pronouncing the doom of both Judah and Jerusalem if they did not repent, that these "princes" felt that, upon hearing such pronouncements, some might try to do the Prophet and his Scribe bodily harm.)

JEHOIAKIM BURNS THE SCROLL

[20] And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the Roll in the chamber of Elishama the Scribe, and told all the Words in the ears of the king. (The "princes" did not, at least not at the first, take the Scroll with them when they went into the presence of the king, but rather left it in a safe place. They then "told all the Words in the ears of the king," which he met with sarcasm.)

[21] So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the Roll: and he took it out of Elishama the Scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes who stood beside the king. (Now the Prophecies will be read to the king by an individual named "Jehudi.")

[22] Now the king sat in the winterhouse in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him. (This was December. Jerusalem, being nearly a half mile above sea level, can get quite cool in the winter months.)

23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the Roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth. (The entirety of the scenario implies that as the Scroll was read by Jehudi, certain parts would infuriate the king, who, therefore, out of contempt, commanded that it be cut and thrown into the fire. How many presently, in one way or the other, are doing the same thing with the Word of God? They ignore what they don't like.)

24 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants who heard all these Words. (These individuals showed no "fear" of God, only contempt. There was no evidence of Repentance, only rebellion!)

25 Nevertheless Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the Roll: but he would not hear them. (Regrettably, the greater majority of the human family falls into the same category; they "will not hear"!)

26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the Scribe and Jeremiah the Prophet: but the LORD hid them. ("The LORD hid them," is interesting indeed! Jeremiah and Baruch had already been told by the three in Verse 25 and by others to hide themselves and "let no man know where you be." No doubt, these individuals had the Mind of the Lord when this was done.)

THE BOOK REWRITTEN; JUDGMENTS ADDED; JEHOIAKIM SENTENCED

27 Then the Word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the Roll, and the Words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying (even after the Holy Spirit had been insulted and degraded, still, He would make another attempt to reach this wicked king)**,

28 Take you again another roll, and write in it all the former Words that were in the first Roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned. (The Holy Spirit denotes the seriousness of the king's act by saying, "which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned.")

[29] And you shall say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus says the LORD; You have burned this roll, saying, Why have you written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast? (The king is to be made to know that the very reason for the coming destruction is the rebellion and wickedness registered by "Jehoiakim." His was a representative rebellion of all the people!)

[30] Therefore thus says the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah; He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David: and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. (Jehoiakim was only 36 years old when he died on December 6th, 598 B.C. It seems that his death occurred on the way to captivity [II Chron. 36:6], apparently at the instigation of Nebuchadnezzar, who, according to the Jewish historian Josephus, had his body thrown outside the city wall, as prophesied by Jeremiah [22:18]. Evidently, he was not buried, but allowed to be prey for beasts and vultures.

Such is the ultimate end of Christ-rejecters, and they have no one but themselves to blame!)

[31] And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them; but they hearkened not. ("All the evil that I have pronounced against them" came to pass exactly as the Lord said it would. Few were spared, because few repented!)

[32] Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the Scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the Words of the Book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like Words. (Whether Jehoiakim was given the pronouncement of this second Scroll is not known! Nevertheless, his sinful actions did not stop the Word of God, because "another roll" was written containing all that had been, and more was added. As stated, this was the very Book in your Bible called "the Book of Jeremiah.")

CHAPTER 37

ZEDEKIAH'S ACCESSION TO THE THRONE; THE KING REQUESTS PRAYER

[1] And king Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. ("Zedekiah" was Josiah's son, but not in the kingly line. For instance, Nathan was David's son, but not, as Solomon, in the kingly line.

"Coniah" was Jehoiachin, son of Jehoiakim. In fact, Jehoiachin was the last son of David to reign on the Throne of Judah [22:30]. Thus, the Davidic line of kings came to an end in him. The next King to reign upon that Throne will be the Messiah, the Eternal King of David's seed, and this He will do at His Second Advent.)

[2] But neither he (Zedekiah), nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the Words of the LORD, which He spoke by the Prophet Jeremiah. (Zedekiah and his cabinet ministers, like many today, were willing that God's Servants should pray for them [Vs. 3], but determined to continue to disobey the Word of the Lord. The Holy Spirit is emphatic that basically the entirety of the land of Judah would not heed Jeremiah.)

[3] And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the Priest to the Prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now unto the LORD our God for us. (Quite possibly, Zedekiah, in sending this embassy to Jeremiah, was doing so as Hezekiah had sent such to Isaiah many years earlier in view of Sennacherib's invasion. The king expected Jeremiah to pray for the city to be spared as Isaiah had done [Isa. 37:6]; however, it was God's Will for Jerusalem to be spared during the time of Hezekiah, but not His Will for the land or the city to be spared at this time.)

4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people: for they had not put him into prison. (Even though he was not in prison now, the situation would soon change [he would be incarcerated]. His prison experiences are as follows:

1. He was put in prison for the first time on false charges [37:11-15].

2. He was released, but confined to the court of the prison [37:21]. Chronologically, Chapter 37 precedes Chapter 32, where Jeremiah was in prison, which was at the close of Zedekiah's reign.

3. He was imprisoned again in a miry dungeon [38:1-6].

4. He was released again as before [38:13-28].

5. He was carried away in chains by Nebuchadnezzar [40:1].

6. He was released from chains in Ramah [40:1-4].)

THE CHALDEANS DEPART JERUSALEM; THEY WILL RETURN

5 Then Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem. (At this time, Jeremiah was no doubt ridiculed greatly by the people, because it seemed like the predictions of the false prophets concerning the Salvation of Jerusalem were correct. Jeremiah had constantly prophesied that no help would be forthcoming from Egypt, and that Judah and Jerusalem would not be spared. For a short period of time, it looked like he was wrong!)

6 Then came the Word of the LORD unto the Prophet Jeremiah, saying,

7 Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel; Thus shall you say to the king of Judah, who sent you unto Me to enquire of Me; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land. (Court Preachers are careful to say what kings wish to hear; however, it was not so with Jeremiah.)

8 And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire. (Jehoiakim had taken the leaves of the Bible and thrown them into the fire; now the "Chaldeans" shall take Jerusalem "and burn it with fire." What we sow, we reap!)

9 Thus sa ys the LORD; Deceive not yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart. (Inasmuch as the army of Nebuchadnezzar had withdrawn to fight the Egyptians, the false prophets, and hence the people, were having a field day exclaiming the veracity of their false prophecies while denouncing Jeremiah. They were doing exactly as the Holy Spirit said, "Deceiving themselves.")

10 For though you had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans who fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire. (The idea is: nothing can stop the Prophecies of Jeremiah from being fulfilled.)

JEREMIAH ARRESTED AND ACCUSED

11 And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army (the "Pharaoh" referred to was Hophra, the Apries of Herodotus, the Uah-ab-ra of the monuments. The retreat of the Chaldean army would prove to be short-lived, with the Egyptian army being quickly defeated, and the siege of "Jerusalem" recommencing)**,

12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to separate himself thence in the midst of the people. (When the Chaldean army began to retreat in the face of the coming Egyptians, the situation for Jeremiah must have become unbearable.)

13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the Prophet, saying, You fall away to the Chaldeans. ("Irijah" was the grandson of Hananiah, who was probably the same Hananiah of Chapter 28. If so, this would explain Irijah's action. He would now falsely accuse the Prophet, claiming his defection to the "Chaldeans.")

[14] Then said Jeremiah, It is false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes. (In other words, Irijah arrested the great Prophet.)

JEREMIAH CAST INTO A DUNGEON

[15] Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the Scribe: for they made that the prison. (They accused him of being a traitor.)

[16] When Jeremiah was entered into the dungeon, and into the cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days (the word "dungeon" refers to an underground excavation, with the word "cabins" possibly referring to particular vaults or cells in this place, with Jeremiah put in one of them. He probably remained there for several weeks, or even several months)**;

JEREMIAH RELEASED; PLEADS FOR MERCY

[17] Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, you shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon. (The question asked by Zedekiah, "Is there any word from the LORD?" shows that this man knew in his heart that Jeremiah was a true Prophet of God. But yet he was not strong enough to stand up and do that which was right. The answer to the question was not to the king's liking.)

[18] Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against you, or against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison?

19 Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land? (These false prophets waxed bold upon the coming of the Egyptian army, which resulted in the retreat of the Babylonian army. Jeremiah's name then became a joke! But now, the table has turned. The Egyptians are defeated, with the Babylonians once again laying siege to the city. The false prophets are no longer to be heard. The fallacy of their prophecies has silenced them.)

20 Therefore hear now, I pray you, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray you, be accepted before you; that you cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the Scribe, lest I die there. (Jeremiah's pathetic appeal not to be left to die of starvation in the dungeon, while showing his natural fear of death, makes his courage and testimony the more remarkable, and the result proves that honest reproof sometimes gains more favor than flattery.

Jeremiah was a faithful Preacher of the Divine Message. He most earnestly and affectionately warned the king of the sure Wrath of God and begged him to accept the Grace of God that promised absolute safety from that Wrath. But the king, like most today, chose death rather than life.)

JEREMIAH CONFINED TO THE PRISON COURT

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison. (The city, now under siege by the Babylonians, quickly runs out of food! Hence, if Zedekiah had not "commanded" that Jeremiah be allowed to remain in the "court of the prison," and that they should "give him daily a piece of bread," he would have starved to death.)

CHAPTER 38

THE PRINCES ACCUSE JEREMIAH; DEMAND DEATH

[1] Then Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying (the individuals mentioned in this Verse were high up in government circles; setting themselves against the Will of God, they demanded the life of Jeremiah. They would go to any lengths to stop his voice),

[2] Thus says the LORD, He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he who goes forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live. (There was absolutely no doubt as to what the Message said or its intent; therefore, the leaders of Judah, as well as the people, were without excuse.)

[3] Thus says the LORD, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.

[4] Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech you, let this man be put to death: for thus he weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeks not the welfare of this people, but the hurt. (One must say this: even in the face of what looked like possible death, Jeremiah never compromised his Message.)

JEREMIAH CAST INTO A MIRY DUNGEON

[5] Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he who can do any thing against you. (As is obvious, Zedekiah was a weak king, fearful to stand up for that which was right.)

6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire. (Jeremiah sank in the mire physically, but Zedekiah sank in it morally. The mire to the one was a mantle of glory; to the other, a vesture of shame. Jeremiah was left in this terrible predicament to die of hunger. Such was the cruelty of the haters of Truth; servants of God must not think it a strange thing if God permits such suffering to befall them.)

JEREMIAH RESCUED BY AN ETHIOPIAN

7 Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin ("Ebed-melech the Ethiopian" was the king's slave and, no doubt, of African descent. He was used greatly of God in saving Jeremiah's life and, no doubt, was a convert to Israel's God. For doing this thing, his life would be spared at the sack of Jerusalem [39:15-18])**;

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spoke to the king, saying (to do this, he was taking his life in his hands!)**,

9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the Prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is: for there is no more bread in the city. (This man showed no fear regarding these "princes" who had determined Jeremiah's death. He calls it exactly as it is: "evil." In effect, he is making the "king" culpable, as well!)

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men with you, and take up Jeremiah the Prophet out of the dungeon, before he die. (The courage of this Ethiopian stands here in contrast with the cowardice of the king. He boldly and publicly braved the anger of both princes and people and so shamed the king that he obtained authority to deliver the Prophet. So dangerous was this mission that he needed thirty soldiers as a protecting guard.)

11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah. (This "dungeon" was a place where water was normally kept, but from which the water had recently been used, leaving nothing but sediment, muck, and mire, which was probably several feet thick. In this "gook," Jeremiah had sunk.)

12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under your armholes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison. (The "court of the prison" certainly was not paradise, but still, it was far, far better than this "dungeon.")

ZEDEKIAH SEEKS ADVICE FROM JEREMIAH

14 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the Prophet unto him into the third entry that is in the House of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask you a thing; hide nothing from me. (Zedekiah knew that Jeremiah was God's Prophet and that the words he spoke were from the Lord. But yet, he would not heed them, "for he loved the praise of men more than the praise of God" [Jn. 12:43].)

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto you, will you not surely put me to death? and if I give you counsel, will you not hearken unto me? (The nobility and elevation of Jeremiah's character appear in this, that in his interview with the king, he did not indignantly denounce the brutality of his enemies and demand their just punishment; neither did he in righteous anger rebuke the king for his cowardly conduct in the matter. On the contrary, he earnestly and affectionately urged the king to save his life and theirs by obeying the Word of the Lord and surrendering to the Chaldeans.)

16 So Zedekiah the king swore secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD lives, Who made us this soul, I will not put you to death, neither will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life. ("Who made us this soul," means "May God take my life if I take yours.")

A CONDITIONAL PROPHECY

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus says the LORD, the God of Hosts, the God of Israel; If you will assuredly go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then your soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and you shall live, and your house:

18 But if you will not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and you shall not escape out of their hand. (The choice is crystal clear.)

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews who are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me. (Zedekiah, as millions, feared man more than he feared God. As a result, he had neither the help of man nor God.)

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver you. Obey, I beseech you, the Voice of the LORD, which I speak unto you: so it shall be well unto you, and your soul shall live.

21 But if you refuse to go forth, this is the Word that the LORD has shown me (the words, "But if you refuse to go forth," proclaim man's free moral agency. The Lord will proclaim the right way to the individual, but will never force a person's will. The very nature of obedience demands free moral agency, or else it is not obedience, but rather slavery.

However, to disobey God sets oneself against God's perfect order of creation and the Restoration of all things. Catastrophe is always the result!):

22 And, behold, all the women who are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, Your friends have set you on, and have prevailed against you: your feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back. (That which the Holy Spirit was attempting to impress upon Zedekiah [and upon all, for the principle holds] is that the very thing we fear, and which causes us not to obey God, will, in our disobedience, bring the thing feared upon us, and even in a far greater measure.)

[23] So they shall bring out all your wives and your children to the Chaldeans: and you shall not escape out of their hand, but shall be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and you shall cause this city to be burned with fire. (The rewards for obedience, which have already been enumerated, are grand, while the judgment for disobedience is awful; and yet, Zedekiah, as most, still would not obey.)

ZEDEKIAH FEARS THE PRINCES

[24] Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and you shall not die. (Public opinion was not on the side of Jeremiah, hence Zedekiah's fear. Actually, public opinion is seldom, if ever, on the side of the Word of God.)

[25] But if the princes hear that I have talked with you, and they come unto you, and say unto you, Declare unto us now what you have said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put you to death; also what the king said unto you (in his weakness, the king could not stand up to the princes; therefore, he does not want them to know that he seeks the Word of the Lord from the Prophet)**:

[26] Then you shall say unto them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there.

[27] Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived. (Some have claimed that Jeremiah was not altogether truthful by not relating to these murderers the entirety of the conversation; however, he was under no Scriptural obligation to reveal to these men the entirety of the personal words exchanged between him and Zedekiah.)

28 So Jeremiah abode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken. (The "court of the prison" meant that he was under house arrest, but still had some small measure of freedom.

Regrettably, Zedekiah would not heed the Words given to him from the Lord by Jeremiah; as a result, he would suffer terrible loss, as would the entirety of the city and its people.)

CHAPTER 39

(590 B.C.)

THE FALL OF JERUSALEM

[1] In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it. (In the fourth month of the eleventh year of "Zedekiah," the city was taken. The last siege lasted about 16 months; the first siege lasted about 8 months [before the Egyptian army came]; the combined sieges lasted about 2 years.)

[2] And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up. (The Holy Spirit inspires these words with the sob of a broken heart.)

[3] And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon. (The "middle gate" has reference to the separation of the city. The northern end of Jerusalem was separated from the southern by an interior wall in which was a gate called "the middle gate." The Chaldeans captured that portion of the city, and then took up their position ["sat in"] opposite the middle gate in order to force it. Having these individuals of high rank and title present at the overthrow of Jerusalem no doubt portrayed the significance placed on its capture by Nebuchadnezzar.)

[4] And it came to pass, that when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betw een the two walls: and he went out the way of the plain. (All through his unbelief, disobedience, and cowardice, Zedekiah kept up an outward show of religion. He acted as men do presently. He was practically an unbeliever; up to the very end, he thought he could defeat the Word of the Lord by breaking a passage through the south wall of the city, thus escaping from the Chaldeans [Ezek. 12:1-16]. But he was defeated and captured at Jericho.)

JUDGMENT ON ZEDEKIAH

5 But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment upon him. (Ironically enough, the ancient city of Jericho, which witnessed Israel's first victory, now witnesses its last defeat. The Scripture says, "They brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah," thus fulfilling the Prophecy about Zedekiah seeing the king of Babylon eye to eye and speaking to him mouth to mouth, as predicted in 32:4 and 34:3.)

6 Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon killed all the nobles of Judah.

7 Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon. (Thus, as predicted in Ezek. 12:13 and Jer. 32:4, Zedekiah's eyes saw the eyes of the Babylonian monarch, but not the Babylonian capital, though he died there, because he was blind. This was what the Holy Spirit through Jeremiah had pleaded with Zedekiah to avoid. But the king, fearful of his nobles, refused to obey and suffered the horror here represented.)

JERUSALEM DESTROYED; THE PEOPLE DEPORTED

8 And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem. (Nebuchadnezzar was incensed at Jerusalem's obstinacy and refusal to surrender; therefore, he turned it into a smoking ruin. Thus ended its nearly 500-year reign as the premier city in the world. It would now be subject to Gentile powers, as it is, at least in part, unto this very day.)

9 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people who remained in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to him, with the rest of the people who remained. ("The remnant of the people who remained in the city," referred to the small number left in Jerusalem after the slaughter had subsided. This fulfilled the predictions of the Prophet.

Those who remained, at least the ones selected, were "carried away captive into Babylon." This was the third and final deportation.)

10 But Nebuzar-adan the Captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, who had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time. (The "poor of the people," no doubt, consisted of many who had virtually been made slaves by the nobles of Judah in Jerusalem. In Chapter 34, the Holy Spirit had pleaded through Jeremiah for these hapless individuals to be set free from their lives of servitude to the nobles of the land. The Pleadings of the Holy Spirit were ignored.

For this disobedience, the former slaves are now given "the vineyards and fields" where they once toiled, and as their own possessions. Thus, the Law of Sowing and Reaping was carried out [Mat. 7:2].

We must understand that God says what He means and means what He says!)

NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S CARE FOR JEREMIAH

11 Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying,

12 Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto you. (God sometimes moves heathen princes to honor faithful Preachers of His Word. Jeremiah was thus honored, for the highest officers of the empire were commanded to attend him, remove his fetters [40:1], and do all that he wished.)

13 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushasban, Rab-saris, and Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, and all the king of Babylon's princes;

14 Even they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, and committed him unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people. ("And committed him unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam," was, in effect, committing him to a friend. Whether the Babylonians knew of this friendship between "Gedaliah" and "Jeremiah" is not known.)

GOD'S PROMISE OF DELIVERANCE TO EBED-MELECH, THE ETHIOPIAN

15 Now the Word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying (the time frame of this "Word of the LORD," as well as the remainder of the Chapter, goes back several months, but is introduced here because it pertains to God's Promise of Deliverance to "Ebed-melech the Ethiopian")**,

16 Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus says the LORD of Hosts, he God of Israel; Behold, I will bring My Words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished in that day before you. (Jeremiah was God's Prophet; therefore, all who befriended and helped him were, in turn, befriended and helped by the Lord.)

17 But I will deliver you in that day, says the LORD: and you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid.

18 For I will surely deliver you, and you shall not fall by the sword, but your life shall be for a prey unto you: because you have put your trust in Me, says the LORD. ("Peace through believing" is illustrated by Ebed-melech. He feared the vengeance of the princes of Judah and he feared the sword of the Chaldeans. But, this double fear was dismissed by the Lord's

“I will deliver you,” “I will surely deliver you.” This Divine Promise was made to him because of his faith.)

CHAPTER 40

JEREMIAH LIBERATED

[1] The Word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all who were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away captive unto Babylon. (According to this Verse, we learn that war and captivity cannot prevent the Great Shepherd from speaking to His Own.)

[2] And the Captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him, The LORD your God has pronounced this evil upon this place. (The statement of the "Captain of the guard," concerning "The LORD your God has pronounced evil upon this place," shows the clear vision of the heathen prince, in contrast with the blindness of the men of Judah.

The terminology used by this Babylonian proclaims his interest as more than casual. It seems that he had carefully studied the Prophecies of Jeremiah, and he understood perfectly why judgment had come upon Judah and Jerusalem.)

[3] Now the LORD has brought it, and done according as He has said: because you have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed His Voice, therefore this thing is come upon you. (Once again, we must derive from the terminology used by this man that he had a far greater knowledge of Jehovah than most; there is even some evidence that he may possibly have accepted Jehovah as his God, thereby denouncing the Babylonian deities.)

[4] And now, behold, I loose you this day from the chains which were upon your hand. If it seem good unto you to come with me into Babylon, come; and I will look well unto you: but if it seem ill unto you to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, all the land is before you: whither it seems good and convenient for you to go, thither go. (Jeremiah, seemingly, is set aside from the other prisoners and is given his choice respecting "Babylon" or the whole of Judah and Jerusalem.)

5 Now while he was not yet gone back, he said, Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wheresoever it seems convenient unto you to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go. ("Now while he was not yet gone back," refers to Jeremiah hesitating in respect to his decision as to what he should do. The "reward" mentioned here was probably money, but without any specified amount made known. More than likely, the Prophet was financially destitute; therefore, the financial help given, if in fact it was financial help, was, no doubt, greatly needed!)

6 Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and dwelt with him among the people who were left in the land. (This Passage shows that the Prophet preferred poverty and obscurity with the hostile and degenerate Hebrews to the fame and comfort among the admiring Chaldeans.)

REGATHERING OF THE JEWS

7 Now when all the Captains of the forces who were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the poor of the land, of them who were not carried away captive to Babylon (these were probably individuals who had escaped from the city during the siege or during its actual break-up and who were now filtering back in. Some would prove to be of evil heart)**;

8 Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and

Jezaniah the son of Maachathite, they and their men. (These men had come to meet with Gedaliah, the appointed governor.)

9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan swore unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. ("Gedaliah" here professes the validity of the Prophecy of Jeremiah [27:11]. "And it shall be well with you," implies that it is the Will of God for them to serve the Chaldeans. If they did such, things would go well; if not, not well at all!)

10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah to serve the Chaldeans, wh o will come unto us: but you, gather you wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that you have taken. ("Mizpah" is to be the headquarters of the occupation of Judah, because Jerusalem is destroyed. "The Chaldeans, which will come unto us," refers to the occupation forces from Babylon that will soon occupy the land.)

11 Likewise when all the Jews who were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan;

12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much. (When Jerusalem was threatened by Nebuchadnezzar, it seems that many "Jews" fled to surrounding countries seeking asylum. Now they begin to filter back into the Land.)

ISHMAEL'S CONSPIRACY

13 Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah,

14 And said unto him, Do you certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to kill you? But

Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not. (The situation, as evidenced in these Verses, proclaims the spirit of the world, as men jockey for power. "Baalis the king of the Ammonites" desires to kill Gedaliah, but the reason is not here given. At any rate, he finds a ready accomplice in "Ishmael," who may have been angry at Gedaliah because he had sided with Jeremiah. Perhaps Ishmael thought that he should be governor in place of Gedaliah, which was probably the case!)

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray you, and I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he kill you, that all the Jews which are gathered unto you should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish? (Why "Johanan" did not suggest incarceration is not known. Irrespective, his fear concerning future difficulties, especially with "Ishmael," was well-founded. Satan no doubt engineered this scenario in that "Gedaliah" was a good man, determined to rule with fairness and justice. As well, he was a friend of Jeremiah's, and would have benefited greatly from the Prophet's influence. But sadly, because of perfidy and wickedness, this was not to be.)

16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, You shall not do this thing: for you speak falsely of Ishmael. (It seems that Gedaliah did not seek counsel from Jeremiah concerning this thing. Had he done so, the outcome would no doubt have been far different.)

CHAPTER 41

ISHMAEL SLAYS GEDALIAH

[1] Now it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah. ("Of the seed royal," tells us that "Ishmael" was, no doubt, moved by jealousy to murder Gedaliah because he had been made viceroy.)

[2] Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and killed him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. (In this Chapter, Jeremiah is unseen yet present, but unsought! Gedaliah's not seeking the counsel of the great Prophet would prove to be disastrous!)

[3] Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, and the men of war.

[4] And it came to pass the second day after he had killed Gedaliah, and no man knew it (no one knew who had done it)**,

[5] That there came certain from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the House of the LORD. (This portrays individuals coming to the Temple site, although destroyed, in order to worship God. Faith recognized and approved the appalling judgments that had fallen upon them. They turned not from, but to, Him Who had poured out those judgments and brought Him Thank Offerings of the abundance which Grace provided. While 70 of these men were permitted to perish, still, theirs was the faith that overcomes.)

6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. (A carnal Church has no desire for the true worship of God; therefore, it will seek to kill, as "Ishmael" did, all participants. Its agenda does not include "Offerings" which speak of Calvary, nor "Incense" which speaks of Godly Worship. Actually, it is upon these two rocks, Calvary and Worship of God, that the True Church stands, but which the apostate Church regards not at all!)

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah killed them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men who were with him. (As well, those who are led by "Ishmael" will be destroyed and "cast into the midst of the pit," i.e., "Hell fire.")

8 But ten men were found among them who said unto Ishmael, Kill us not: for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and killed them not among their brethren. (Along with the thirst for power and control, "Ishmael" also desired "treasures." So these "ten men" traded their treasures for their lives!)

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had killed because of Gedaliah, was it which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them who were killed. (This symbolizes the many Godly people through the centuries who have been killed by the religious "Ishmaels.")

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people who were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of

Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the Ammonites. (Evidently, the Babylonians had not occupied the land, that is, if they ever did!)

JOHANAN BECOMES LEADER

[11] But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done,

[12] Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. (The struggle continues, with "Johanan" the son of Kareah entering the picture, whose comport was little better than Ishmael's. None are led by God. In fact, "Johanan" will ultimately, at least in part, be responsible for the death of Jeremiah. Tradition says that Jeremiah was killed in Egypt by his own people, who, at least at first, were led by "Johanan.")

[13] Now it came to pass, that when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the Captains of the forces who were with him, then they were glad. (They had a right to be "glad," because their lives were probably spared by the action of "Johanan." However, they were merely trading one dead Church for another. Their "gladness" was not rooted in proper soil; therefore, they would come to no satisfactory conclusion.)

[14] So all the people who Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about and returned, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah. (The intent of the Holy Spirit, among other things, is to portray a people who should have been depending on God, but who were continuing to depend upon themselves, therefore, floundering without sense of purpose or direction.)

[15] But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites. (This man "went to the Ammonites" because he had a murderous heart identical to these rebels against God. "Ishmael" was, in fact, in the lineage of David; but he knew David's God not at all, showing that natural birth, even from the Godly, does not make one a true "son of David." God has no grandchildren!)

16 Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the Captains of the forces who were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, even mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon (the group that was with "Johanan" probably was the cream of the remnant left in the whole of Judah. Events will show that these individuals will make a pretense at seeking the Will of God by consulting Jeremiah, but the truth will out that their hearts were not after God, but toward Egypt. They did not know the Lord; they would not believe His Prophet; and they had no desire for His Will)**:

17 And they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of Chimham, which is by Beth-lehem, to go to enter into Egypt (while they would consult with Jeremiah, their minds had already been made up "to enter into Egypt")**,

18 Because of the Chaldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land. ("Fear" linked with self-will because of unspiritual hearts would lead them to make a rash and terrible decision. They would attempt to escape the hand of "the king of Babylon," but, even though in Egypt, they would not escape it at all! Had they put their trust in God, depending on Him for protection, guidance, and security, they would have been protected, blessed, led, guided, helped, and looked after as only the Lord can do.)

CHAPTER 42

JEREMIAH COUNSELS JOHANAN

[1] Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even unto the greatest, came near (the treachery and cruelty of Ishmael and his companions and the hypocrisy, obstinacy, rebellion, and unbelief of Johanan and the people revealed the moral condition of the nation and the justness of the calamities which came upon them. Ishmael illustrates the ugliness of the "flesh," and Johanan illustrates its unbelief. For that which is born of the flesh is flesh, and the carnal mind is enmity against God as much when making a show of religion as when shedding blood. Cain illustrates this fact, for he was just as hostile to God when worshipping at his aesthetic altar as he was when murdering his brother. The Holy Spirit [I Jn. 3:12] says that Cain's religious works were evil)**,

[2] And said unto Jeremiah the Prophet, Let, we beseech you, our supplication be accepted before you, and pray for us unto the LORD your God, even for all this remnant; (for we are left but a few of many, as your eyes do behold us [unconverted people use very pious and very humble language, but the humility of the natural man is as abhorrent to God as the pride of the natural man (Col. 2:18, 23)]**:)

[3] That the LORD your God may show us the way wherein we may walk, and the thing that we may do. (They wanted the Lord to "show them the way," but only if it was the way they had already selected and chosen.)

JEREMIAH PRAYS FOR DIRECTION; THE JEWS PROMISE OBEDIENCE

[4] Then Jeremiah the Prophet said unto them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass, that whatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; I will keep nothing back from you. (In asking Jeremiah to seek the Lord on their behalf, the people were at the threshold of blessing and prosperity; nevertheless, they were expected by the Lord to obey Him and to follow exactly what He desired. They came so close; and yet, because of their obstinacy and self-will, they were so far away.)

5 Then they said to Jeremiah, The LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not even according to all things for the which the LORD your God shall send you to us. (Men are very quick to make promises to God, even with an oath: "The Lord be a true and faithful witness between us." In other words, they were saying that if they broke their promise, Jehovah was to "witness against them" by punishing them.)

6 Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the Voice of the LORD our God, to Whom we send you; that it may be well with us, when we obey the Voice of the LORD our God. (They spoke with great resolve, but the words only came from their mouths and not from their hearts.)

GOD'S MESSAGE: SAFETY IN JUDAH; DESTRUCTION IF THEY GO TO EGYPT

7 And it came to pass after ten days, that the Word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah.

8 Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest,

9 And said unto them, Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, unto Whom you sent me to present your supplication before Him;

10 If you will still abide in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up: for I repent Me of the evil that I have done unto you. (In 41:18, it says that they feared the Chaldeans. But in this Passage, the Lord tells them that the Babylonians are not pulling the strings, so to speak; He is!)

[11] Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid; be not afraid of him, says the LORD: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand. (What a delight to serve One Who is subservient to no person or thing. He answers to no one, while all answer to Him. How foolish it is to serve anyone or anything else! Only the Lord can "save," and only the Lord can "deliver." Men rule, but God overrules!)

[12] And I will show mercies unto you, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land. (The Truth given in this Verse is that everything that happens to a Believer is either caused or allowed by the Lord.)

[13] But if you say, We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the Voice of the LORD your God (if one will notice, far more attention is given to the negatives than to the positives because of the propensity of man to go astray. Three Verses are devoted to the Promise of God's great Blessings, while nine Verses are devoted to solemn warnings. This same method is employed in Deut., Chpt. 28)**,

[14] Saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell (whatever their reasons, it seems the major cause of the failure of the remnant was their lack of trust in God)**:

[15] And now therefore hear the Word of the LORD, you remnant of Judah; Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; If you wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there (the exclamation, "Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel," is meant to impress upon the "remnant" the Power and Omniscience of God)**;

[16] Then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which you feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof you were afraid, shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there you shall die. (In fact, Nebuchadnezzar would shortly invade Egypt, even though that was not known at the present. Therefore, if they went to Egypt, the very war they were seeking to avoid would be brought to them, which is exactly what happened!)

[17] So shall it be with all the men who set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there; they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them. (The predictions of this Verse all came to pass, but none could say that they were not warned!)

[18] For thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; As My Anger and My Fury has been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so shall My Fury be poured forth upon you, when you shall enter into Egypt: and you shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and you shall see this place no more. (It is folly for men to deny the fact of the Wrath of God.)

[19] The LORD has said concerning you, O you remnant of Judah; Go you not into Egypt: know certainly that I have admonished you this day. (So what they did was not out of ignorance, but out of abject disobedience and rebellion. To sin against Light is the worst sin of all.)

[20] For you dissembled in your hearts, when you sent me unto the LORD your God, saying, Pray for us unto the LORD our God; and according unto all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we will do it. (The Lord, knowing their hearts, plainly predicts what their choice will be. Human intelligence is incapable of the knowledge shown in Verses 20 and 21. The Holy Spirit revealed to the Prophet the hypocrisy of the petitioners and their predetermined resolve to disobey the Voice of the God.

The word "dissembled" means "to hide under a false appearance" or "to conceal facts and intentions." The Lord's knowing the "hearts of the remnant of Judah" and His predicting the resultant outcome show the folly of attempting to lie to God.)

[21] And now I have this day declared it to you; but you have not obeyed the Voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing for the which He has sent me unto you. ("You have not obeyed," i.e., "you have not intended to obey.”)

22 Now therefore know certainly that you shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither you desire to go and to sojourn. (The words, “Know certainly that you shall die,” could not be stronger. And yet even in the face of full disclosure, the remnant determined to disobey, which they did, and brought upon themselves “certain death.”)

CHAPTER 43

REBELLION OF THE REMNANT

[1] And it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the Words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these Words ("All the Words of the LORD their God," represented life or death for these people, all according to their obedience or disobedience. Regrettably, they disobeyed!)**,

[2] Then spoke Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, You speak falsely: the LORD our God has not sent you to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there (it is positive that all these individuals were well aware of the Prophecies Jeremiah had given for many years. Before their very eyes, they had seen these Prophecies come true. Judah was a desolation, and Jerusalem a smoking ruin, exactly as Jeremiah had prophesied. Yet they now accuse him of lying!

What could make the heart of man so intractable, obstinate, stubborn, unyielding, and unbelieving? The Holy Spirit tells us by calling them "proud men"):

[3] But Baruch the son of Neriah sets you on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

[4] So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the Voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah. (If they had "dwelled in the land of Judah," as demanded by the Lord, they would have been blessed, and greatly so!)

THE MIGRATION TO EGYPT

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah ("Johanan the son of Kareah" seems to have been the ringleader of this rebellion against God)**;

6 Even men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the Prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah. (As portrayed here, "Jeremiah the Prophet" and "Baruch the son of Neriah" are forced to go into Egypt with this rebellious group.)

7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: thus came they even to Tahpanhes. ("Tahpanhes" was a fortress on the Syrian frontier of Egypt. It was a royal palace.

"So they came into the land of Egypt," is recorded by the Holy Spirit for a greater purpose than mere historical narrative. They had been delivered out of Egyptian bondage many centuries before, and now they will go back into Egyptian bondage. This shows their total trust in man, i.e., the flesh, Egypt; and likewise their total distrust of the Lord.)

NEBUCHADNEZZAR TO CONQUER EGYPT

8 Then came the Word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying (these rebels, if they had not wanted to hear the Word of the LORD, would have been much better off to have left Jeremiah in Judah)**,

9 Take great stones in your hand, and hide them in the clay in the brickkiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah ("Take great stones," was to represent a symbolic act. Jeremiah is directed to take these stones and embed them in the mortar in the brick pavement [brickkiln] at the entry to the palace. When the events predicted came to pass, these stones would testify that Jeremiah had predicted them. This "brick platform" or "brick pavement" was discovered by a man named "Petrie" in 1886);

10 And say unto them, Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My Servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them. (Josephus, the Jewish historian, records the fact that this was done by Nebuchadnezzar, exactly as Jeremiah had prophesied.)

11 And when he comes, he shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliver such as are for death to death; and such as are for captivity to captivity; and such as are for the sword to the sword. (Seated there, Nebuchadnezzar condemned to slavery or death the captives brought before him, which included those from Judah.)

12 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace. ("He shall burn them," referred to the gorgeous and imposing temples which filled Egypt, dedicated to her many gods, and the idols in them made of wood.

"He shall array himself with the land of Egypt," refers to Nebuchadnezzar grasping Egypt with his hand, so to speak, and flinging it around him like an easily managed garment, in order to leave the land as an absolute conqueror clothed in this attire of booty, in peace, without an enemy.)

13 He shall break also the images of Beth- shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall he burn with fire. (The sinking of the Egyptians' great stones and the brick pavement, as characterized in Verse 9, and the setting of the Chaldean throne upon them [Vs. 10] symbolize the downfall of the Egyptian monarchy and the supremacy of the Chaldean, which, as stated, was fulfillment to the letter concerning Jeremiah's Prophecies.)

CHAPTER 44

THE JEWISH REFUGEES TO PERISH IN EGYPT

[1] The Word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at Migdol, and at Tah-panhes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying (the Jews, after arriving in Egypt, had spread over the land, some going north and some south. It seems that the occasion for this Prophecy by Jeremiah was at some type of festival that drew representatives of the Jews from all over Egypt, if not most Egyptians, as well! This is Jeremiah's last Prophecy relating to Israel. The remaining Prophecies of the Book concern the Gentiles.

The Jews lived in hopes of being able to return to Judah soon. But, because of their unbelief and rebellion against God, only a few would actually see Judah again),

[2] Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; You have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwells therein (this Scripture refers to the righteous Judgment of God against His chosen People because of their gross idolatry and rebellion. The word "evil" means "judgment"!)**,

[3] Because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke Me to Anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, you, nor your fathers. (Although the destruction of Jerusalem and Judah was a fact that could not be denied, yet these obstinate unbelievers refused to recognize its cause. On the contrary, they declared that their misfortunes arose from their lack of devotion to the Queen of Heaven, i.e., the Great Mother of God [Vss. 17-19].)

[4] Howbeit I sent unto you all My Servants the Prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate. ("Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate," is a plaintive cry from the Holy Spirit, breathing an agony that only Divine Love could feel and utter.)

5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods. (Even though the Lord is speaking in the past tense here, future Passages will show that this sin was still prevalent among the remnant, even while in Egypt.)

6 Wherefore My Fury and My Anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day. (The words, "wasted and desolate," aptly describe the results of sin.)

7 Therefore now thus sa ys the LORD, the God of Hosts, the God of Israel; Wherefore commit you this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain ("To cut off from you...," refers to Judah and Jerusalem, which have already been denuded; this present sin will destroy even the remnant)**;

8 In that you provoke Me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither you be gone to dwell, that you might cut yourselves off, and that you might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the Earth? (The words, "In that you provoke Me unto wrath with the works of your hands," suggest that the sinning of the people was more than failure; it was a dare to God. It was as though they were daring Him to do anything about their rebellion.)

9 Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? (The Holy Spirit here points out the culpability of the "wives" as well as their husbands, showing that the wives of nobles, princes, and kings have been, in the past, and at times in the present, the most active introducers of idolatry. Instead of helping each other toward Heaven, husband and wife often ripen each other for Hell.)

[10] They are not humbled even unto this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in My Law, nor in My Statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers. (The change from the third to the second person is designed to express how idolatry alienates from God.)

[11] Therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will set My Face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah. (These individuals no doubt believe that by putting aside the Bible and worshipping the Egyptian gods, they would secure a prosperous return to their native land, while those who surrendered to the Chaldeans, who rejected idolatry, and who clung to the Bible would perish. The exact opposite, however, is a historic fact.)

[12] And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach. (Once again, these rebels hear the same Prophecy as was given by Jeremiah just before they left Judah [42:17].)

[13] For I will punish them who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence *(this prediction is given again because these people, no doubt, thought they were totally safe in Egypt. They paid absolutely no attention to Jeremiah's Prophecies, because they had already formed their opinion, which was contrary to the statement of the Lord):

[14] So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return but such as shall escape. ("But such as shall escape," must have referred to those who, like "Jeremiah" and "Baruch," refused to burn incense to the idol. God always has, and always has had, His "few" [Mat. 7:14; I Pet. 3:20; Rev. 3:4]. The awakened heart cries: "O to be one of that few!")

15 Then all the men wh o knew that their wives had burned incense unto other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great multitude, even all the people who dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying ("Had burned incense," really means "were burning incense," because the practice was still going on. Here we have the formal commitment of Israel in Egypt to the moon goddess instead of Jehovah. Thus, they made their choice and, in effect, signed their own death warrant)**,

16 As for the Word that you have spoken unto us in the Name of the LORD, we will not hearken unto you. (Their answer, "we will not hearken unto you," while directed to the Prophet, was actually spoken to the Lord.)

17 But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goes forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the Queen of Heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil. ("Queen of Heaven," was the name given to the moon goddess by these rebels of Judah, but was called "Ashtoreth" or "Astarte." She was the wife of Baal, or "Molech," who was called the King of Heaven by the Phoenicians. The male and female pair of deities symbolized the generative powers of nature; hence, the introduction of prostitution in connection with such worship.

The Babylonians worshipped the goddess as "Mylitta" [generative]. The moon became the symbol of female productiveness, and all women converts were to submit to immorality at least once in this worship.)

18 But since we left off to burn incense to the Queen of Heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine. (Unregenerate men are incapable of recognizing the Hand of God in calamities.)

19 And when we burned incense to the Queen of Heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our men? (If one will notice, their boldness in their sin is characterized here by their open confession of idol worship. The slide downward into sin is accelerated by each act performed, with a searing of the conscience and a deadening of the soul. Now they have no shame whatsoever!)

20 Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying (the Lord would answer through His Prophet, but it would be not at all what the people desired to hear)**,

21 The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, you, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into His Mind? ("And came it not into His mind?", refers back to the Prophecy of 32:35. In that Prophecy, He was referring to human sacrifice; He is referring now to the worship of the "Queen of Heaven." Both have their origination in demon spirits!

Judah went far deeper into sin than could be contemplated by the natural mind.)

22 So that the LORD could not longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which you have committed; therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day. (According to these Passages and many similar others, the Truth is proclaimed that all disfavor shown by God resulting in judgment or chastisement is due to sin, i.e., "the evil of your doings.")

23 Because you have burned incense, and because you have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the Voice of the LORD, nor walked in His Law, nor in His Statutes, nor in His Testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day. (The Lord exclaims to these people that they can claim as much as they desire that their problems were caused by their "leaving off to burn incense to the Queen of Heaven," but in truth their problems have been brought about "because you have sinned against the Lord.")
