[24] Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the Word of the LORD, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt *(I think it is obvious that while Satan hates both men and women, he hates women in particular. It was the woman he first approached in the Garden of Eden, and the hatred intensified when the Lord told him, "And I will put enmity [hatred] between you and the woman, and between your seed [mankind which doesn't serve God] and her Seed [the Lord Jesus Christ]; it [He] shall bruise your head [what Jesus did at the Cross], and you shall bruise His heel" [the sufferings of Calvary; Gen. 3:15]):

[25] Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, saying; You and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the Queen of Heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: you will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows. (If these people were determined to accomplish their vows of evil, God, on His part, was resolved to perform His in their destruction.)

[26] Therefore hear you the Word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, I have sworn by My great Name, says the LORD, that My Name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord GOD lives. (The vows of these rebels had been given with sarcasm; but this Vow of the Lord is given with a cold finality. The idea is: no Jews will be left alive in Egypt, with the exception of a small number that will escape — probably those who did not succumb to the sin of idolatry. The others would die tragically!)

[27] Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them. (This is the worst judgment that could be imagined!)

of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah, who are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, Mine, or theirs. (It is not known who was in this "small number who escaped the sword and returned to Judah," nor how many were in it, but it is believed that it consisted of those who refused to offer incense to this "Queen of Heaven," and who did not join in the sarcastic answer to the Lord.)

29 And this shall be a sign unto you, says the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that you may know that My Words shall surely stand against you for evil:

30 Thus says the LORD; Behold, I will give Pharaoh-hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them who seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and who sought his life. (History records the miserable end of Pharaoh-hophra at the hand of his enemies, led by Amasis, a rebel. The civil war which this man provoked facilitated the conquest of Egypt by Nebuchadnezzar. It is said that the Egyptians who were "his enemies" took him and strangled him. Therefore, the Lord punished Pharaoh for his opening Egypt to the rebellious remnant of Judah.

I suspect this statement, "Whose words shall stand, Mine or theirs," rang in the ears of these hapless rebels on the eve of their life.)

CHAPTER 45

(607 B.C.)

PROPHECY TO BARUCH, JEREMIAH'S SCRIBE

[1] The word that Jeremiah the Prophet spoke unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a Book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying (this Prophecy was given about 18 years before the destruction of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar [II Ki. 23:36; 24:18]. We see in the five short Verses of this Chapter the care and concern the Heavenly Father has for all His Children. In the midst of His efforts to save the entirety of a nation, He would not forget one lone worker, namely "Baruch"!)**,

[2] Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, unto you, O Baruch (with the words, "O Baruch," the Holy Spirit proclaims a distinctive care, as well as a slight reprimand!)**;

[3] You did say, Woe is me now! for the LORD has added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest. (Baruch's grief, added to his sorrow, was possibly his grief at the burning of the Roll and his sorrow at being suspected of treason. The admonishment by the Holy Spirit, "You did say," suggested to him that he should have rejoiced rather than sighed because he was deemed worthy to suffer shame for Jehovah's Name.)

[4] Thus shall you say unto him, The LORD says thus; Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land. (At least part of the reason for Baruch's sorrow and sighing is that he is griefstricken at what is going to happen to Judah and Jerusalem.)

5 And seek you great things for yourself? seek them not: for, behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh, says the LORD: but your life will I give unto you for a prey in all places whither you go. ("You" is emphatic. When the eye keeps steadfastly fastened on God's judgments upon a guilty world and upon His assured Promise of personal Salvation, then the heart is delivered from Earthly expectations and is, at the same time, prepared to suffer calamities in sympathy with national distress.)

PROPHECIES CONCERNING EGYPT

[1] The Word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the Prophet against the Gentiles (the next six Chapters contain Prophecies concerning the Gentile nations, with the last Chapter of Jeremiah giving further historical narrative concerning the destruction of Jerusalem. In these Prophecies, ten Gentile powers are addressed under the headship of Babylon.

"Against the Gentiles," means "concerning the nations")*;

[2] Against Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt, which was by the River Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah. (The word "against" would have been better translated "concerning Egypt." This Prophecy was delivered after the death of king Josiah in the Battle of Megiddo [II Chron. 35:20-25], and four years prior to the Battle of Carchemish on the Euphrates, where Nebuchadnezzar defeated Pharaoh-necho. This battle took place in May-June 606 B.C.)

[3] Order you the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle. (This proclaims the total control by the Lord regarding the direction and destiny of nations.)

[4] Harness the horses; and get up, you horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, and put on the brigandines. (Verses 3 and 4 portray Egypt's preparations for battle. From the description, it seems that they prepared with the idea of certain victory; however, the Lord, Who controls all, would deem it otherwise!)

[5] Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are fled apace, and look not back: for fear was round about, says the LORD. (The question, "Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back?", concerns itself with what Jeremiah saw in the Spirit, even some time before it actually happened!

"And their mighty ones are beaten down," portrays their boastfulness at defeating the Babylonians; but they were instead defeated themselves.)

[6] Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; they shall stumble, and fall toward the north by the River Euphrates. (The mobilization and march of the Egyptian army are pictured in Verses 3 and 4; its defeat in Verses 5 and 6; its self-confidence in Verses 7 through 9; its destruction, as ordained by God, in Verse 10; its hopelessness of recovery in Verse 11; and the worldwide knowledge of its destruction in Verse 12.)

[7] Who is this who comes up as a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers? (This question in Verse 7 is asked by the Holy Spirit and refers to the boastfulness of Egypt.)

[8] Egypt rises up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and he says, I will go up, and will cover the Earth; I will destroy the city and the inhabitants thereof. (The Holy Spirit delineates this boastfulness of Egypt, because it was in direct conflict with the Will of God. Egypt, of course, would have had little knowledge of Jehovah, and would have considered her gods as superior, because king Josiah of Judah had been defeated a short time previously. Consequently, they felt very secure in their boastfulness, not realizing it was God's Will that the Babylonians reign supreme.)

[9] Come up, you horses; and rage, you chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; the Ethiopians and the Libyans, who handle the shield; and the Lydians, who handle and bend the bow. (We find here that the "Ethiopians," the "Libyans," and the "Lydians" are confederates of Egypt, which makes Egypt's power invincible, or so they think!)

[10] For this is the day of the Lord GOD of Hosts, a day of vengeance, that

He may avenge Him of His adversaries: and the sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood: for the Lord GOD of Hosts has a sacrifice in the north country by the River Euphrates. (This "vengeance" refers to judgment on Pharaoh-necho, who, a short time before, had killed Godly king Josiah [II Chron. 35:20-24].

The last phrase of the Verse represents the self-revealing side of the Divine Nature; it is not merely poetical ornamentation, but corresponds to terrible, objective reality. Divine vengeance exists and must exercise itself on all who oppose the Divine Will.

The word "sacrifice" is the purpose for which this immense host "rolls up from Africa" — it is that it may fall by the Euphrates as proof of God's justice and warning to transgressors.)

[11] Go up into Gilead, and take balm, O virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vain shall you use many medicines; for you shall not be cured. (The idea is that Egypt, at least as a world power, is destroyed and, thereby, needs medicine.)

[12] The nations have heard of your shame, and your cry has filled the land: for the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together. (Egypt's defeat would be so severe that it would be the talk of all surrounding "nations.")

[13] The Word that the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the Prophet, how Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt. (The conquest of Egypt by Nebuchadnezzar is foretold in Verses 13-26.)

[14] Declare you in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes: say you, Stand fast, and prepare you; for the sword shall devour round about you. (The Prophecy directs itself to the great cities in Egypt, as they are called upon to prepare to meet the foe, but in vain!)

[15] Why are your valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the LORD did drive them. (It seems that the Holy Spirit through the Prophet is referring to Apis, the sacred bull in which the Egyptians believed the supreme god Osiris was incarnate. For this Apis [bull] to be "swept away" like ordinary plunder or "cast down" in the slaughtering-trough was a token indeed that the glory of Egypt had departed.)

16 He made many to fall, yes, one fell upon another: and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword. (This refers to the mercenaries hired to fight for Egypt, but who now, due to the great slaughter, had lost their ardor and were proposing desertion.)

17 They did cry there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he has passed the time appointed. ("Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise," is spoken by Egyptians rather than the mercenaries. They were actually saying, "Call you the name of Pharaoh king of Egypt, desolation," meaning that he is now a fallen monarch.)

18 As I live, says the King, Whose Name is the LORD of Hosts, Surely as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, so shall he come. (The Lord points to "Tabor" and "Carmel," two prominent mountains in Israel, and claims that as surely as they exist, Nebuchadnezzar will invade Egypt.)

19 O you daughter dwelling in Egypt, fur nish yourself to go into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

20 Egypt is like a very fair heifer, but destruction comes; it comes out of the north.

21 Also her hired men are in the midst of her like fatted bullocks; for they also are turned back, and are fled away together: they did not stand, because the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation. (The Lord had marked Egypt for destruction, and irrespective as to what precautions they might take, all would be to no avail!)

22 The voice thereof shall go like a serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood. (The "axes" have to do with battleaxes, which will be used by the Babylonians against the Egyptians, chopping them as they would chop wood. It is not a pretty picture!)

[23] They shall cut down her forest, says the LORD, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are innumerable. ("They shall cut down her forest," speaks of Egypt's army being cut down by the Babylonians.)

[24] The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north. ("She shall be," is emphatic, stating the certitude of the action — that God will deliver them up to Babylon.)

[25] The LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says; Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods, and their kings; even Pharaoh, and all them who trust in him *(the idea is that the gods of Egypt have come up against "The LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel"; consequently the viability of Jehovah will be obvious to all):

[26] And I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterward it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, says the LORD. (The words, "And afterward it shall be inhabited," refer to the coming Millennial Reign; this, of course, has not yet been fulfilled. However, as surely as the former was fulfilled, the latter will come to fruition as well!)

JEREMIAH COMFORTS THE JEWS: ISRAEL TO BE RESTORED

[27] But fear you not, O My servant Jacob, and be not dismayed, O Israel: for, behold, I will save you from afar off, and your seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and be in rest and at ease, and none shall make him afraid. (Admonition as well as consolation is the Message of Verses 27 and 28. They assured the safety and restoration of the captive Jews in Babylon and, by implication, the doom of the self-willed exiles in Egypt [Chpt. 44].

Thus God, amid the welter of warring nations, watches over and guards His People, using public calamities as instruments for their discipline.)

28 Fear you not, O Jacob My servant, says the LORD: for I am with you; for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven you: but I will not make a full end of you, but correct you in measure; yet will I not leave you wholly unpunished. (In looking at the might and power of Babylon and other kingdoms that followed her, Israel could little understand her survival against such power. However, they are told here by the Lord that these empires will come and go, "but I will not make a full end of you," meaning that He would chastise them greatly, but also would guarantee their survival, "correct you in measure.")

PROPHECY AGAINST THE PHILISTINES

[1] The Word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the Prophet against the Philistines, before that Pharaoh smote Gaza. (God did not wish that even one Philistine should perish. So, in His Love, He warned them to flee from the coming wrath. But they refused to listen and obey.)

[2] Thus says the LORD; Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and all that is therein; the city, and them who dwell therein: then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl. (The word "waters" in this Verse refers to the Chaldeans. Babylon would defeat the Philistines as well!)

[4] Because of the day that comes to spoil all the Philistines, and to cut off from Tyrus and Zidon every helper who remains: for the LORD will spoil the Philistines, the remnant of the country of Caphtor. (Three lessons are taught by this Prophecy concerning Philistia: the Wrath of God upon sinners; the inability of man to save himself or his fellows from this Wrath; and the Grace of God in warning sinners of its coming so they may repent and escape.

"Of the country of Caphtor," probably refers to where the Philistines originated, which many Scholars believe to have been a province of lower Egypt.)

5 Baldness is come upon Gaza; Ashkelon is cut off with the remnant of their valley: how long will you cut yourself? (The ancients, especially in the Middle East, when in extreme grief, plucked out their hair and cut themselves.)

6 O you sword of the LORD, how long will it be ere you be quiet? put up yourself into your scabbard, rest, and be still. (The sword of Babylon is here called the "sword of the LORD.")

7 How can it be quiet, seeing the LORD has given it a charge against Ashkelon, and against the sea shore? there has He appointed it. ("There has He appointed it," refers to that being carried out exactly as the Lord designs. Men rule, while God overrules!)

CHAPTER 48

PROPHECY CONCERNING MOAB: INVASION BY BABYLON

[1] Against Moab thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; Woe unto Nebo! for it is spoiled: Kiriathaim is confounded and taken: Misgab is confounded and dismayed. (This Prophecy was given about 23 years before the overthrow of Moab by the Babylonians. Moab was in modern day Jordan, actually bordering the southern extremity of the Dead Sea.)

[2] There shall be no more praise of Moab: in Heshbon they have devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation. Also you shall be cut down, O Madmen; the sword shall pursue you. ("There shall be no more praise of Moab," refers to her military power and courage.)

[3] A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction. (The city "Horonaim" was probably located on the border of Edom. Heshbon being on the opposite border shows the scope of the desolation that would afflict Moab.)

[4] Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. ("Her little ones" refer to children. They would suffer greatly!)

[5] For in the going up of Luhith continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction. (A little over a hundred years before, as prophesied by Isaiah, Moab was subdued by Assyria and compelled to pay tribute [Isa., Chpts. 15-16]. But after Assyria fell, Moab was free again, but only until the Babylonians overran it. Therefore, the Moabites had been warned by God on at least two occasions regarding coming judgment, but they would heed neither warning!)

FLIGHT OF MOAB

6 Flee, save your lives, and be like the heath in the wilderness. ("Flee, save your lives," could be literally translated: "Flee, save your souls." The statement is actually a plea by the Holy Spirit through the Prophet for Moab to get right with God. Proper Repentance, if not stopping the Babylonians, would at least have guaranteed favorable treatment, ensured by the Lord. In fact, this Prophecy is actually given for that very reason, that Moab may hear and, thereby, heed the Words of the Lord. It would have saved them terrible suffering and agony had they done so.)

7 For because you have trusted in your works and in your treasures, you shall also be taken: and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity with his priests and his princes together. (The urge for Repentance in the Sixth Verse is followed by the reason for the great need of Repentance. It speaks of their trust in idols, in this case, "Chemosh." Moab is called the land of the "people of Chemosh," the patron-god, the king and lord, of this people. This was a most hideous, heathenistic god, with the sacrifice of children as a burnt offering being a part of their worship of him [II Ki. 3:27]. All of this, and we speak of this system of worship, would be destroyed by the Babylonians.)

8 And the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape: the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD has spoken. ("The spoiler" is the Babylonian army.)

9 Give wings unto Moab, that it may flee and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein. (The spirit of this Verse is the haste with which the Moabites will attempt to flee from their cities because of the attacking Babylonians.)

10 Cursed be he who does the work of the LORD deceitfully, and cursed be he who keeps back his sword from blood. (Babylon has been appointed by the Lord as the instrument of chastisement for Moab. They are admonished not to "keep back the sword from blood"; hence, the fleeing of the Moabites from the cities!)

THE DESOLATION OF MOAB

11 Moab has been at ease from his youth, and he has settled on his lees, and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither has he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed. (Moab derived its name from a son of Lot who was born by an incestuous union between Lot and his older daughter [Gen. 19:37]. Moab is here likened to wine, and the Babylonian monarch to a pourer-out of wine.)

12 Therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will send unto him wanderers, who shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles. (This speaks of the Babylonians pouring out the wine, i.e., the prosperity of Moab.)

13 And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the House of Israel was ashamed of Beth-el their confidence. ("As the House of Israel was ashamed of Beth-el their confidence," refers to Jeroboam, who set up a golden calf at Beth-el as a symbol of the strong God Jehovah. Even though symbolizing Jehovah, God called it idolatry, and it was odious in His sight.

The Lord is here saying that as the "calf" was helpless to deliver Israel, likewise, "Chemosh" will be just as helpless.)

14 How say you, We are mighty and strong men for the war? (The Holy Spirit here belittles the supposed power of Moab.)

15 Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, says the King, Whose Name is the LORD of Hosts. ("Says the King, Whose Name is the LORD of Hosts," refers to the boasts of the king of Moab versus the acclamation of the "King of Glory."

The Holy Spirit is emphatic in this statement comparing "Kings": the absolute helplessness of the one and the absolute Sovereignty of the Other.)

16 The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hastes fast.

(Even though the Holy Spirit uses the phrases, "Near to come" and "Hastes fast," it would still be approximately 20 years before "the calamity of Moab." And yet, when the destruction would come, it would seem as though the time had passed very quickly.)

17 All y ou who are about him, bemoan him; and all you who know his name, say, How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod! (This expresses the sympathy extended by the surrounding nations concerning Moab's destruction. The country they thought was impregnable is destroyed by the Babylonians.)

18 You daughter who does inhabit Dibon, come down from your glory, and sit in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab shall come upon you, and he shall destroy your strong holds. ("Sit in thirst," actually refers to sitting in the dust of defeat. Incidentally, "Dibon" was where the famous Moabite stone containing the inscription of king Mesha was found [II Ki. 3:4]. This account commemorated the revolt of the king of Moab against Israel and his subsequent rebuilding of many important towns. This occurred approximately 300 years before Jeremiah [II Ki. 3:4-5].

The stone was found on August 19, 1868 by the Rev. F. Klein, a German Missionary working with the Church Missionary Society. The great importance of the inscription on the stone linguistically, religiously, and historically lies in its close relation to the Old Testament.)

19 O inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and espy; ask him who flees, and her who escapes, and say, What is done? (It is interesting that "the way" was probably the king's highway, over which Moses had requested passage about 800 years before, but was refused [Deut. 2:27-30]. It is now traveled by Moabite fugitives fleeing for their lives from the Babylonian army.)

20 Moab is confounded; for it is broken down: howl and cry; tell you it in Arnon, that Moab is spoiled (the word "confounded" means "to be brought to shame"),

21 And judgment is come upon the plain country; upon Holon, and upon

Jahazah, and upon Mephaath,

22 And upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblathaim,

23 And upon Kiriathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon Beth-meon,

24 And upon Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near. (The purpose of these Verses is to portray the total destruction brought upon the entirety of Moab.)

25 The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, says the LORD. ("The horn of Moab" refers to the "king of Moab.")

REASONS FOR JUDGMENT

26 Make you him drunken: for he magnified himself against the LORD: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision. ("For he magnified himself against the LORD," indicates a further reason for the judgment. At any earlier point, the Prophet said it was the callousness produced by long prosperity [Vs. 11]; but here another sin is mentioned — Moab's haughty contempt for Jehovah.

In effect, this says that offenses against Israel, God's chosen People, irrespective of their spiritual condition, were also offenses against Israel's God. For instance, Moab laughed with derision when the Assyrians carried the Ten Tribes into captivity.)

27 For was not Israel a derision unto you? was he found among thieves? for since you spoke of him, you skipped for joy. (The question, "For was not Israel a derision unto you?", pertains to the unwarranted animosity of Moab for Israel, primarily because they were the people of Jehovah.)

28 O y ou who dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock, and be like the dove that makes her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth. (Upon the advance of the Babylonians, the Moabites would try to hide in the rocks and caves.)

29 We have heard the pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud) his loftiness, and his arrogancy, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart. (The major cause of this "pride" which God hated was the worship of their heathenistic god, "Chemosh." They prided themselves that their god was greater than all others, even greater than the God of Israel and Judah. They were not content to merely believe this; they, as well, voiced it, and loudly! Hence, all the prosperity they attributed to Chemosh would be taken away by Jehovah of Judah.)

30 I know his wrath, says the LORD; but it shall not be so; his lies shall not so effect it. ("I know his wrath, says the LORD," refers to Moab's railings against Jehovah.)

LAMENT FOR MOAB

31 Therefore will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; my heart shall mourn for the men of Kir-heres. (The judgment against Moab is to be so severe that Jeremiah, while understanding the justness of that judgment, still cannot help but be greatly moved, and "cry out for all Moab.")

32 O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for you with the weeping of Jazer: your plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon your summer fruits and upon your vintage. (This that they boasted Chemosh had given them is now to be taken away, and Chemosh will be helpless to stop it.)

33 And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting. ("Their shouting shall be no shouting," means that there will be shouting, but not that of the peaceful vintagers at their work; instead, it will be the "shouting" of pain and sorrow.)

34 From the cry of Heshbon even unto Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even unto Horonaim, as an heifer of three years old: for the waters also of Nimrim shall be desolate. (This Passage speaks of the beautiful valleys of Moab which, because of their solitude, were thought to be beyond the grasp of the Babylonians. Such was not to be!)

35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, says the LORD, him who offers in the high places, and him who burns incense to his gods. (This speaks of the idol worship of Moab. The abominable "offerings in the high places" included the sacrifice of little baby boys and all its attendant horror! Therefore, the phrase, "I will cause to cease," irrespective of the manner, is welcomed by the honest heart.)

36 Therefore my heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and my heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: because the riches that he has gotten are perished. (This refers to what was given, they claimed, by Chemosh, but would now be taken away by Jehovah.)

37 For every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth. (Cutting the hair, lacerating the hands, and wearing sackcloth were expressions of mourning in that society of long ago.)

38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the housetops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like a vessel wherein is no pleasure, sa ys the LORD. (Moab's usefulness as a nation has come to an end. Because of its many sins, it has reached the place that it must be excised, like a surgeon removing a cancer from a patient.)

39 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how has Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab be a derision and a dismaying to all them about him. (This Verse proclaims the end of the pride of Verse 29. Instead of pride, "Moab now has turned the back with shame!")

REASON FOR BABYLONIAN INVASION

40 For thus says the LORD; Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread his wings over Moab. (The pronoun "he" refers to Nebuchadnezzar, and the Verse refers to his speed in overrunning Moab, i.e., "fly as an eagle.")

41 Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. (The hearts of her "mighty men," who had heretofore boasted of their invincibility, now palpitate as "the heart of a woman in her pangs.")

42 And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he has magnified himself against the LORD. ("Has magnified himself against the LORD," expresses the cause of the demise of all who ignore the Book, i.e., "the Bible.")

43 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon you, O inhabitant of Moab, says the LORD. (This Scripture proclaims the fact that "Chemosh" has not saved his people and in fact cannot save his people.)

44 He who flees from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he who gets up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, says the LORD. (This refers to a particular time that judgment would come upon Moab if they did not repent.)

45 They who fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon because of the force: but a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and shall devour the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones. (This is quoted from Num. 21:28. But, whereas it meant one thing then [the conquest of Moab by Sihon, the giant king of the Amorites, some 800 years before], it now refers to Moab's destruction by the Babylonians.)

46 Woe be unto you, O Moab! the people of Chemosh perish: for your sons are taken captives, and your daughters captives. (This Passage is based on Num. 21:29. They had offered "sons" and "daughters" to this god in human sacrifice, and now their "sons" and "daughters" would be taken captive by the Babylonians.)

FUTURE RESTORATION OF MOAB

47 Yet will I bring again the captivity of Moab in the latter days, says the LORD. Thus far is the judgment of Moab. (In all forty-seven Verses of this Chapter, this is the only mention of the coming Restoration of these ancient people called "Moabites." It will take place at the Second Coming.)

CHAPTER 49

PROPHECY CONCERNING THE AMMONITES

[1] Concerning the Ammonites, thus says the LORD; Has Israel no sons? has he no heir? why then does their king inherit Gad, and his people dwell in his cities? (The "Ammonites" are the descendants of Ben-ammi, Lot's younger son by his daughter [an incestuous union], born in a cave near Zoar [Gen. 19:38]. They were regarded as relatives of the Israelites, who were commanded to treat them kindly [Deut. 2:19]. This country was on the east side of the Jordan River, and bordered Moab on the south.

The Ammonites worshipped Molech [I Ki. 11:1, 5, 7, 33]. This worship was associated with the sacrifice of children in the fire [II Ki. 17:31; 23:10; Jer. 32:35].

The question, "Has Israel no sons?", refers to a part of Israel which the Ammonites were occupying, but which actually was owned by the Tribe of Gad.

The question, "Has he no heir?", concerns the following generation of Gadites, who should have inherited the land, but instead it was taken by the Ammonites.)

[2] Therefore, behold, the days come, sa ys the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in Rabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto them who were his heirs, says the LORD. (The chief city of Ammon was "Rabbah," which the Babylonians would make a "desolate heap.")

[3] Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, you daughters of Rabbah, gird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges; for their king shall go into captivity, and his priests and his princes together. ("For their king shall go into captivity," refers to their idol god, "Molech."

"Howl, O Heshbon," refers to the same city, Heshbon, mentioned in the previous Chapter, which was on the Moabite and Ammonite border, and whose ownership was constantly contested between the two countries.)

4 Wherefore gloriest you in the valleys, your flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? who trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me? (The question, "Who shall come unto me?", is now answered by the Prophet. The Ammonites will not escape the approaching Babylonian horde.)

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon you, says the Lord GOD of Hosts, from all those who be about you; and you shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him who wanders. (When Jeremiah gave this Prophecy, which was approximately 20 years before its fulfillment, the Ammonites had only that long to exist as a cohesive country. But still, just as the Moabites, they refused to repent!)

6 And afterward I will bring again the captivity of the Children of Ammon, says the LORD. (This statement is very similar to the prediction concerning the Moabites, which, in effect, states that Ammon will also be restored in the coming Kingdom Age. Perhaps it will be because of "righteous Lot" [II Pet. 2:7-8].)

PROPHECY AGAINST EDOM: DESOLATION

7 Concerning Edom, thus says the LORD of Hosts; Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished? (This Prophecy concerning Edom, which began with Esau and his country Idumea, should be read in the light of Heb. 12:16, where the Holy Spirit speaks of him as "a profane person." Hence his judgment as a nation will be as final as that of Sodom and Gomorrah. Edom was situated south of Moab, with its northern extremity touching the southern end of the Dead Sea.

The idea of this Verse is that for all the vaunted "wisdom" of the Edomites, they could not halt the coming Babylonians.)

8 Flee you, turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him. (Edom had long been a bitter enemy of Israel, and would rejoice over the destruction of Jerusalem by the Chaldeans. They also showed great cruelty to the Jews who fled to them for refuge during that time. The Prophet is telling them that their rejoicing will be short-lived, because shortly after the fall of Jerusalem, Nebuchadnezzar will take out the countries east of the Jordan River, as well!)

9 If grapegatherers come to you, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? if thieves by night, they will destroy till they have enough. (The argument of Verses 9 and 10 is that a grape-gatherer might leave a few grapes, or a house-breaker some pieces of property; but God, in His just severity, would absolutely extinguish Edom.)

10 But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and he is not. ("His secret places" referred to Petra and other mountain strongholds. "And he is not," means that Edom shall cease to exist as a nation, even as Isaiah had also prophesied!)

11 Leave your fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let your widows trust in Me. (There is a promise here that the Lord will somewhat protect the women and children of Edom, a promise that was not given to Moab.)

12 For thus says the LORD; Behold, they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken; and are you he who shall altogether go unpunished? you shall not go unpunished, but you shall surely drink of it. (The Lord did not plan for Israel to have to "drink of the cup of judgment." However, due to their forsaking Him and going into idol worship, they "have assuredly drunken."

The Lord then asks the question, "If I have punished My Own, shall you go unpunished?" He then answers His Own question by saying, "but you shall surely drink of it!")

13 For I have sworn by Myself, says the LORD, that Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes. (Bozrah, a hill city, seems to have been the capital of Edom at one time.)

INVASION BY BABYLON; JUDGMENT AND FUTURE DESOLATION

14 I have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather you together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle. (The result of these Prophecies will be the coming Babylonian horde.)

15 For lo, I will make you small among the heathen, and despised among men. (Edom, for all her boasts, will be humbled, and even extinguished.)

16 Your terribleness has deceived you, and the pride of your heart, O you who dwells in the clefts of the rock, who holds the height of the hill: though you should make your nest as high as the eagle, I will bring you down from thence, says the LORD. ("Your terribleness has deceived you," refers to the worship of her idol god, "Molech." "O thou who dwells in the clefts of the rock," refers to Petra, which was a secure place for Edom for many centuries, and in fact was impregnable — until the Babylonians came!)

17 Also Edom shall be a desolation: every one who goes by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof. (The "astonishment" is the reversal of this once flourishing kingdom.)

18 As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, says the LORD, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it. (The sense of this Verse does not mean that fire and brimstone will be the agents of destruction for Edom, but that the desolate appearance of Edom will remind one of the area around the Dead Sea [Isa.

13:19; Amos 4:11].)

19 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like Me? and who will appoint Me the time? and who is that shepherd who will stand before Me? (The "he" in the first phrase is Nebuchadnezzar. "But I will suddenly make him [Nebuchadnezzar] run away from her," does not imply this Monarch being defeated; instead it actually means that he will conquer Edom speedily and then go on to other conquests.

The questions of this Verse are meant to point to the total inadequacy of the heathenistic god, Molech, while calling attention to the total supremacy of Jehovah.)

20 Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that He has taken against Edom; and His purposes, that He (the Lord) has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he (Nebuchadnezzar) shall make their habitations desolate with them. ("The counsel of the LORD," is meant to imply that such is "framed" from eternity [Isa. 22:11; 37:26]; therefore, the statement does not imply a hastily called meeting, which would be incongruous to Deity.)

21 The Earth is moved at the noise of their fall, at the cry the noise thereof was heard in the Red Sea. ("The Earth is moved," refers to the extinction of Edom as a nation, with no chance of restoration.)

22 Behold, he (Nebuchadnezzar) shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. (Therefore, the last Scripture of the Prophecy concerning Edom does not close with a promised Restoration, as with Moab and Ammon, but with pain and suffering.)

PROPHECY AGAINST DAMASCUS

23 Concerning Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad: for they have heard evil tidings: they are fainthearted; there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet. (Damascus is the capital city of Syria, one of the oldest cities in the world [Isa. 7:8]. The "evil tidings," which produce the "fainthearted" spirit, are caused by the coming Babylonians. Syria will not escape. "There is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet," probably refers to the Mediterranean, which Syria then bordered on the west.)

24 Damascus is waxed feeble, and turns herself to flee, and fear has seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail. (The picture drawn by the Holy Spirit is one of extreme anxiety, which reached from border to border.)

25 How is the city of praise not left, the city of My joy! (The helplessness of Damascus is the subject of the lamentation.)

26 Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, sa ys the LORD of Hosts. ("And all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, says the LORD of Hosts," refers not only to the Babylonian invasion, but to the coming Antichrist, as well. Every indication, according to Daniel's Prophecies, is that the Antichrist will be a "Syrian Jew" [Dan. 7:24-25; 8:9; 11:40-45].)

27 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Ben-hadad. (The name "Ben-hadad" was the official title of the kings of Syria [I Ki. 15:18; II Ki. 13:3].)

PROPHECY CONCERNING KEDAR AND HAZOR

28 Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus says the LORD; Arise you, go up to Kedar, and spoil the men of the east. (The implication of this Verse is that the idea in the mind of Nebuchadnezzar regarding the destruction of both "Kedar" and "Hazor" was placed there by the Lord, though unknown to the monarch.)

29 Their tents and their flocks shall they take away: they shall take to themselves their cur tains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, Fear is on every side. (Everything will be taken by the Babylonians, including "their tents and their flocks.")

30 Flee, get you far off, dwell deep, O you inhabitants of Hazor, says the LORD; for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has taken counsel against you, and has conceived a purpose against you. (The "purpose against you" refers to the Will of God placed, unknown to him, in the mind of Nebuchadnezzar. His plans were no doubt different from the Lord's, but God's "purposes" were carried out!)

31 Arise, get you up unto the wealthy nation, that dwells without care, sa ys the LORD, which have neither gates nor bars, which dwell alone. (It was unusual in those days for cities to not have walls, but "Kedar" had none. They thought their peaceful intentions would preserve them from all harm. They were to be greatly disappointed!)

32 And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil: and I will scatter into all winds them who are in the utmost corners; and I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, says the LORD. (Repentance could have greatly lessened the blow, with Babylon even possibly granting these people a degree of autonomy. However, Repentance was not forthcoming. Therefore, judgment came, because "thus says the LORD.")

33 And Hazor shall be a dwelling for dragons, and a desolation forever: there shall no man abide there, nor any son of man dwell in it. (Nothing is said of the future of "Kedar," while "Hazor" is consigned to "desolation forever.")

PROPHECY CONCERNING ELAM: DESTRUCTION AND DISPERSION BY BABYLON

34 The Word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the Prophet against Elam in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying ("Elam" was the name of the country originally possessed by the Persians, named after Elam, son of Shem [Gen. 10:22], which is present-day Iran. As this Prophecy predicted, it was subjected by Nebuchadnezzar, along with all other countries round about Babylon [Dan. 2:37-38].

"In the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah," tells us that this Prophecy was given about 11 years before Jerusalem was destroyed. In fact, Elam probably fell before the destruction of Jerusalem),

35 Thus says the LORD of Hosts; Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might. (The archers of Elam were famous for their accuracy with the bow; however, this would not help them! They would be defeated by Nebuchadnezzar.)

36 And upon Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of Heaven, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation whither the outcasts of Elam shall not come. (Upon her defeat, the phrase says, "And there shall be no nation whither the outcasts of Elam shall not come." Elam will be defeated by the Babylonians, with her people fleeing to all the surrounding nations, just as many in Judah attempted to do.)

DISMAY AS JUDGMENT COMES

37 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them who seek their life: and I will bring evil upon them, even My fierce anger, says the LORD; and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them (the word "evil" means "judgment" because of the "fierce anger" of the Lord, caused by their sins, which were no doubt the same as the others, i.e., "idol worship," etc.):

38 And I will set My throne in Elam, and will destroy from thence the king and the princes, says the LORD. ("And I will set My throne in Elam," refers to the throne of Nebuchadnezzar, because it was God Who was giving the kingdom to the Babylonian monarch. As a result, the leadership of Elam will be no more!)

FUTURE RESTORATION OF ELAM

39 But if shall come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring again the captivity of Elam, says the LORD. (Elam is another of several nations God has promised to restore in the latter days, which will be the time of the Kingdom Age.)

CHAPTER 50

PROPHECY CONCERNING BABYLON: INVASION BY MEDO-PERSIA

[1] The Word that the LORD spoke against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the Prophet. (According to Gen. 10:10, Nimrod founded Babylon as his capital. The name "Babylon" comes from the Hebrew word "Babel," and was derived from the action of the Lord in "confounding their language." "Babel" means "confusion," which had to do with the confusion of languages, but more so with the confusion of man tendered by the Fall. Therefore, "Babylon," throughout its history, became a symbol of the pride of man in his inevitable Fall.)

[2] Declare you among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces. (When Isaiah, well over 100 years before, predicted the rise of Babylon and its subsequent fall, it was, at that time, of little consequence. It actually was a vassal state of the Assyrian Empire, of which Nineveh was the capital city. Therefore, to the carnal ear, Isaiah's Prophecies would have been ludicrous!

As well, Jeremiah's Prophecies concerning the fall of this mighty Empire, which was then the greatest in the world, would have been just as unbelievable.)

[3] For out of the north there comes up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast. ("Out of the north," refers to the Medes and the Persians, who would come from the north. "And none shall dwell therein," has not actually been fulfilled, at least according to the Bible. While it is true that it is "desolate" today, and has been for quite some time, still, the Scripture tells us that it will be rebuilt in the last days, and then completely destroyed [Rev., Chpt. 18].)

THE REGATHERING OF ISRAEL

4 In those days, and in that time, says the LORD, the Children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping: they shall go, and seek the LORD their God. ("In those days, and in that time," has a double meaning! It refers, first of all, to the fall of Babylon at the hands of the conquering Medes and Persians, which allowed Israel to be restored to her land again. However, the greater fulfillment of this Verse pertains to the Second Coming of Christ, when Israel will be completely restored.)

5 They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten. (This will take place at the Second Coming of Christ.)

6 My People have been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their restingplace. (This Passage will have its complete fulfillment in the coming Great Tribulation. At that time, a "foolish shepherd," i.e., the Antichrist [Zech. 11:15], will deceive the ancient people, Israel, with them believing he is the Messiah. This shepherd will "cause them to go astray." They will do so because "they have forgotten their restingplace," i.e., "Jehovah and the Bible.")

7 All who found them have devoured them: and, their adversaries said We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice, even the LORD, the hope of their fathers. ("We offend not," pertains to Israel's enemies. They thought that because Israel had "sinned against the LORD" and had in fact been slated for judgment, their actions would be condoned. However, these enemies overstepped their bounds and did "offend God." By such, they incurred wrath upon themselves.)

INVASION OF BABYLON

8 Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he goats before the flocks. (This Passage is telling Israel to be ready to leave when the change of government — from the Babylonians to the Medes and the Persians — takes place. Even though this Prophecy was given at the beginning of the dispersion, it would no doubt be a source of great encouragement to the exiles awaiting its fulfillment.)

9 For, lo, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty expert man; none shall return in vain. (This refers to the Medes, the Persians, and other nations which came against Babylon and defeated her. The "mighty expert man" was Darius, who headed up the Medes, and Cyrus, who headed up the Persians. It is said that both were present at the fall of Babylon; therefore, either one could have fulfilled the Prophecy.)

10 And Chaldea shall be spoil: all who spoil her shall be satisfied, says the LORD. (Babylon was so rich that all the invaders filled themselves to the full with the "spoil.")

11 Because you were glad, because you rejoiced, O you destroyers of My heritage, because you are grown fat as the heifer at grass, and bellow as bulls ("Because you were glad, because you rejoiced," refers to Babylon taking her commission too far as the "destroyers of My heritage." While it is true these idols worshippers were used by God as an instrument of chastisement, they did not do it with pity, but with rejoicing, which brought the judgment of God upon their own heads)**;

12 Your mother shall be sore confounded; she who bore you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. ("Your mother shall be sore confounded," refers to the city of Babylon as the nourisher of the kingdom, but with the area gradually diminishing until it finally became "a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert," which it is presently.)

13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate: every one who goes by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues. (For it to be fully understood, this Passage must be linked to Verses 39 and 40. Its total fulfillment awaits a future day, actually at the conclusion of the Great Tribulation [Rev., Chpt. 18].)

14 Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all you who bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she has sinned against the LORD. ("For she has sinned against the LORD," refers to the sins of Verse 11, which were the reason for the success of the Medes and the Persians, even though they would have had no knowledge of such.)

15 Shout against her round about: she has given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down: for it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; as she has done, do unto her. (What Babylon did to Judah would be done to her; and so it was. It is the same thing as said by Christ, "And with what measure you mete, it shall be measured to you again" [Mat. 7:2].)

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him who handles the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land. (This Verse expresses the thought that upon the invasion by the Medes and the Persians, many of the people from other countries who were in Babylon, whether slaves or high officials, would take the opportunity to flee.)

BABYLON PUNISHED; ISRAEL TO BE RESTORED TO HER LAND

17 Israel is a scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away: first the king of Assyria has devoured him; and last this Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones. (Ironically, the emblem of both the Assyrians and the Babylonians, who greatly persecuted both the Northern Kingdom of Israel and the Southern Kingdom of Judah, was the "lion.")

18 Therefore thus sa ys the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. ("Thus saith the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel," is often used in these Passages to denote the power of Jehovah.)

19 And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon Mount Ephraim and Gilead. (This Passage goes beyond the Restoration of Israel after the dispersion; it leaps ahead to the Second Coming of Christ and Israel's acceptance of Him as Messiah and Lord, which will take place in the coming Kingdom Age.)

20 In those days, and in that time, says the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve. ("In those days," refers to the final Restoration of Israel at the Second Coming of Christ [Zech. 13:1].)

COMMAND TO DESTROY BABYLON

21 Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, says the LORD, and do according to all that I have commanded you. (Through the Prophet, the Holy Spirit actually gives Babylon three symbolic names:

1. Merathaim: it means "doubly rebellious."

2. Pekod: the word means "visitation" or "punishment."

3. Sheshach: the name conveys the meaning of "humiliation," meaning that God would humiliate Babylon, even as He did!)

22 A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction. (These Passages pertain not only to the destruction of Babylon by the Medes and the Persians, but also point to the coming Battle of Armageddon in the closing days of the Great Tribulation.)

[23] How is the hammer of the whole Earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations! (Babylon, i.e., "Nebuchadnezzar," was God's "hammer" to break the nations; but judgment fell upon her because she rejected the Divine Revelation given to her through Daniel, when she exceeded her instructions [Dan. 5:17-23; Isa. 47:5-6; Zech. 1:15]. And yet, there is some small evidence that ultimately Nebuchadnezzar actually accepted the Lord [Dan. 4:34-35].)

[24] I have laid a snare for you, and you are also taken, O Babylon, and you were not aware: you are found, and also caught, because you have striven against the LORD. ("I have laid a snare for you, and you are also taken, O Babylon," refers to Cyrus diverting the Euphrates so he could use the river-bed as an entrance into the city.)

[25] The LORD has opened His armoury, and has brought forth the weapons of His indignation: for this is the Work of the Lord GOD of Hosts in the land of the Chaldeans. (This Passage refers to the fact that the Lord has the ability to use whatever He desires — be it nations, the elements, Angels, or individuals — in order to carry out His Work!)

[27] Kill all her bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: woe unto them! for their day is come, the time of their visitation. ("Kill all her bullocks," does not refer to cattle, but rather "princes"!)

[28] The voice of them who flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of His Temple. ("To declare in Zion," refers to the remnant of Jews who will be allowed to return to the Land of Israel after the overthrow of "Babylon," who will tell of the destruction of that kingdom.

"The vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of His Temple," is recorded in Dan. 5:1-5, which records the dishonor done to the Temple of Jehovah, when Belshazzar and his nobles drank wine out of the sacred vessels of the Temple, which then would cry aloud for vengeance. Of all the sins that Belshazzar committed, this was the worst!)

29 Call together the archers against Babylon: all you who bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she has done, do unto her: for she has been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel. (Even though Babylon was commissioned as God's hand of judgment against His Own People, she took the commission too far and engaged in wanton destruction and cruelty. Now her kingdom would be destroyed.)

30 Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, says the LORD. (When God fights, the efforts of resistance are useless!)

31 Behold, I am against you, O you most proud, says the Lord GOD of Hosts: for your day is come, the time that I will visit you. ("O you most proud," actually says, in the Hebrew, "O Pride"! As she represents the whole of mankind in his rebellion against God, "pride" is her crowning sin.)

32 And the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him. ("And the most proud shall stumble and fall," refers to Belshazzar, who was slain the very night the handwriting appeared on the wall [Dan. 5:30].

In this Verse, the pronoun "him" is used because it refers not only to Belshazzar, but also to the Antichrist. In the other Scriptures, Babylon is feminine in its translation, but here it is masculine, hence agreeing with "pride" and the Antichrist.)

33 Thus sa ys the LORD of Hosts; The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together: and all who took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go. (The statement, "They refused to let them go," refers to the Assyrians, who refused to release the captives of the Northern Kingdom, just as the Babylonians refused to release the captives of the Southern Kingdom of Judah. However, the Lord would terminate this captivity at His time, irrespective of the wishes of the captors.)

34 Their Redeemer is strong; the LORD of Hosts is His Name: He shall thoroughly plead their cause, that He may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon. ("He shall thoroughly plead their cause," refers to the Deliverance of the Children of Israel by God coming about not by mere power, but by Righteousness. For He pleads their cause, the plea being the Person and Atoning Work of their High Priest and Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ.)

IMMEDIATE JUDGMENT

35 A sword is upon the Chaldeans, says the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon her wise men. (The "sword" is called by their "Strong Redeemer," and refers not only to the Medes and Persians, but also to the coming Battle of Armageddon.)

36 A sword is upon the liars; and they shall dote: a sword is upon her mighty men; and they shall be dismayed. (The Chaldeans claimed to be wise men. They especially boasted of their astrological knowledge. But, in this Verse, they are declared to be "liars," who shall be shown to be foolish by the nonfulfillment of their prognostications.)

37 A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all the mingled people who are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed. (It was the duty of her "wise men," who were astronomers and astrologers at the various observatories in Babylonia, to submit monthly reports of the appearances in the sky, which were regarded as having an occult political significance. However, in their demon-inspired prognostications, they did not see the "sword," because God did not allow them to see the truth, but instead to see a lie and, thereby, "be robbed.")

[38] A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of graven images, and they are made upon their idols. ("And they are made upon their idols," refers to their "terror" at realizing their idols and prognostications from their vaunted astrological predictions have fooled them, and in fact they are going to be destroyed!)

FUTURE JUDGMENT

[39] Therefore the wild beasts of the desert with the wild beasts of the islands shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited forever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation. (This Verse pertains to Babylon, which will be rebuilt [Rev., Chpt. 18], and then completely and totally destroyed in the last weeks of the Great Tribulation, never to rise again [Isa. 13:6, 9, 19-22; Rev. 16:17-21; 18:1-24].)

[40] As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, says the LORD; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein. (When the Medes and Persians overthrew the Babylonian Empire, it was not at that time destroyed, as were "Sodom and Gomorrah," but in fact continued to exist as a city for some 500 more years. However, Rev. 16:19 does record the destruction of future Babylon as "Sodom and Gomorrah"!)

[41] Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the Earth. (The "people from the north" are the Medes and Persians. The Holy Spirit now reverts back to the destruction of Babylon at the time of Daniel.)

[42] They shall hold the bow and the lance: they are cruel, and will not show mercy: their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against you, O daughter of Babylon. (History records that the Medes and Persians "showed no mercy.")

43 The king of Babylon has heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble: anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail. ("And his hands waxed feeble," refers to Belshazzar, of whom Daniel said was discomfited [Dan. 5:6], referring to the handwriting on the wall which foretold his defeat by the opposing army.)

44 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan unto the habitation of the strong: but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like Me? and who will appoint Me the time? and who is that shepherd who will stand before Me? (Who will do what I want to be done?)

45 Therefore hear you the Counsel of the LORD, that He has taken against Babylon; and His purposes, that He has purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely He shall make their habitation desolate with them. ("The Counsel of the LORD" is that Babylon must be destroyed!)

46 At the noise of the taking of Babylon the Earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the nations. (Babylon was considered by the other nations of the world to be impregnable. Therefore, its destruction by Cyrus was hailed as one of the great feats of arms of that time, and by all nations.)

CHAPTER 51

THE LORD'S JUDGMENT ON BABYLON

[1] Thus says the LORD; Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them who dwell in the midst of them who rise up against Me, a destroying wind (the essence of this Verse is: the Word of the Lord had been given to the Babylonian leaders by Daniel, the Hebrew children, and possibly others, but it was rejected; in fact, for the most part, it was greatly opposed!

"A destroying wind," referred to the coming Medes and Persians);

[2] And will send unto Babylon fanners, who shall fan her, and shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about. ("And will send unto Babylon fanners," has reference to the threshingfloor, where the grain was separated from the chaff. The violent crushing of the stalk preceded this, typifying the destruction of Babylon.)

[3] Against him who bends let the archer bend his bow, and against him who lifts himself up in his brigandine: and spare you not her young men; destroy you utterly all her host. (The idea of this Verse is that the expert "archers" of the Medes and Persians will find that their marksmanship is even more accurate, inasmuch as the Lord will actually help them, even though they will not be aware of such!)

[4] Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and they who are thrust through in her streets. ("Thrust through" has to do with the accuracy of the "archers" of Verse 3.)

JUDAH AND ISRAEL STILL GOD'S CHOSEN PEOPLE

5 For Israel has not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of Hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel. ("Though their land was filled with sin," means to be full of desolation in consequence of their guilt. The argument is that although the desolation of Israel seemed to evidence Jehovah's desertion of His People, the destruction of Babylon proved the contrary, hence, the importance of the word "For.")

FUTURE DESTRUCTION OF BABYLON

6 Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for this is the time of the LORD's vengeance; He will render unto her a recompence. (The command to flee out of Babylon actually pertains to Rev. 18:4.)

7 Babylon has been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that made all the Earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad. (Babylon was the head of gold [Dan. 2:38], and the golden cup of dominion in the Earth was committed to her princes. But they filled that pure and costly vessel with the maddening wine of idolatry; hence, the justice of their doom.

"That made all the Earth drunken," refers to man's efforts to rebuild the Garden of Eden without the Tree of Life in its midst, i.e., "Christ."

Once again, this points to the coming Great Tribulation.)

8 Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed. (The prediction of this Verse yet awaits fulfillment, for ancient Babylon was slowly, not suddenly, destroyed. Restored Babylon will perish like Sodom [Rev. 16:19; Chpts. 17-18].)

IMMEDIATE DESTRUCTION

9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country: for her judgment reaches unto

Heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies. ("We would have healed Babylon," refers to Daniel and the Hebrew children, plus others, attempting to turn Babylon from her evil ways, but to no avail. Similarly, the efforts of God's present people have also failed to heal corrupt Christendom, the modern spiritual Babylon. Hence, Paul would say, "Come out from among them" [II Cor. 6:17].)

[10] The LORD has brought forth our righ teousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the Work of the LORD our God. (This Verse pertains to the Deliverance of the exiles, as well as their Restoration at a future day. In other words, it reaches even unto the coming Kingdom Age, which will see the last great Restoration.)

[11] Make bright the arrows; gather the shields: the LORD has raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of His Temple. (The argument of Verses 11 through 14 is the uselessness of a military defense of Babylon, for God has purposed and would accomplish her destruction.)

[12] Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the LORD has both devised and done that which He spoke against the inhabitants of Babylon. (God's dealings with this world concern two things: His children and His Plan. Consequently, anything that impacts His Children, as did Babylon, also involves His Plan and is, therefore, given to us in the Bible.)

[13] O you who dwells upon many waters, abundant in treasures, your end is come, and the measure of your covetousness. (The future reference of this Passage has to do with the efforts of the Antichrist to take over the world, which he will be well on his way to doing. In fact, he would succeed, but for the Coming of the Lord. However, the Second Coming will "cut him off.")

[14] The LORD of Hosts has sworn by Himself, saying, Surely I will fill you with men, as with caterpillars; and they shall lift up a shout against you. (No doubt, Babylon's population during the siege by the Medes and the Persians swelled to possibly even several hundreds of thousands of people. But still, the great numbers would do no good, because the opposing force would be larger, and would "lift up a shout against you," i.e., a "victory shout.")

15 He has made the Earth by His power; He has established the world by His wisdom, and has stretched out the heaven by His understanding. (The creative Power, Glory, and Wisdom of God are contrasted with the ignorance of idolaters and the vanity of their idols. The indication of this Verse is this:

The Earth was made by the Lord and consequently belongs to Him. As well, "He has established" all its laws regarding its governance. This includes "the heavens," i.e., the Universes, as well!

As such, He has the right to perform the necessary acts to save it from those who would destroy it; consequently, every system that is not of His making will ultimately be eliminated.)

16 When He utters His voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and He causes the vapours to ascend from the ends of the Earth: He makes lightnings with rain, and brings forth the wind out of His treasures. (This Verse says: The Lord controls the elements and does so by "uttering His Voice"; the elements instantly obey, but rebellious man will not obey!)

17 Every man is brutish by his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image; for his molten image: is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. ("Every founder is confounded by the graven image," means that the worshipper of idols becomes like the idols. "His molten image is falsehood"; therefore, this "brutish man" is a lie and lives a lie. Such is the world without God!)

18 They are vanity, the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. ("They are vanity," speaks of all the works of man. Because of the way man fell in the Garden of Eden, and because of his unlawful quest to be like God [or, in fact, to be God], he has tried to fashion his own salvation. It is a "work of errors.")

19 The portion of Jacob is not like them; for He is the former of all things: and Israel is the rod of His inheritance: the LORD of Hosts is His Name. ("The portion of Jacob," refers to Emmanuel. When the "Portion" is not Christ Alone, Babylon swallows the Church, even as Babylon has swallowed the Church.

As "Israel" was the "rod," i.e., scepter, "of His inheritance," so today is the Church. The phrase means that Israel, as a son, will ultimately inherit the total kingdom.)

THE MEDES, GOD'S INSTRUMENT AGAINST BABYLON

20 You are My battle axe and weapons of war: for with you will I break in pieces the nations, and with you will I destroy kingdoms ("You are My battle axe and weapons of war," refers to Cyrus as the head of the Medes and Persians, who would execute God's vengeance and "destroy kingdoms")**;

21 And with you will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with you will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider (while the Medes and the Persians would be the instruments, Jehovah would be the Author)**;

22 With you also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with you will I break in pieces old and young; and with you will I break in pieces the young man and the maid (the judgment was just because all were involved in the rebellion against God. Cyrus, as stated, was to be this instrument)**;

23 I will also break in pieces with you the shepherd and his flock; and with you will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with you will I break in pieces captains and rulers.

24 And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, says the LORD. (The commission given to Cyrus reveals the justice which inflicted on Babylon miseries similar to those that she inflicted on others.)

25 Behold, I am against you, O destroying mountain, says the LORD, which destroyed all the Earth: and I will stretch out My hand upon you, and roll you down from the rocks, and will make you a burnt mountain. (In the Bible, great empires are addressed as "mountains," with the phrase, "Destroying mountain," referring to all the conquests of the Babylonian Empire. However, despite all of its power, the Lord said that He would make it a "burnt mountain." And so He did!)

BABYLON TO BE DESOLATE FOREVER

26 And they shall not take of you a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but you shall be desolate forever, says the LORD. (Once again, this Passage reaches forward to the coming Great Tribulation, when Babylon, the rebuilt city, will then be totally and completely destroyed, and done so instantly, one might say [Rev., Chpt. 18].)

27 Set you up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz; appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillars. (The countries represented in this Passage are modern Armenia and Asia Minor. Verses 17 through 33 are another call for the immediate destruction of Babylon by the Medes and Persians, but with certain phrases referring to the coming Great Tribulation.)

28 Prepare against her the nations with the kings of the Medes, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion. (Jeremiah is giving this Prophecy about 50 years before the fall of Babylon, and yet the Lord proclaims the fact that it will be the "Medes" who will overcome this mighty Empire.)

29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant. (Once again, the essence of the Text leaps forward to the coming Great Tribulation.)

30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborn to fight, they have remained in their holds: their might has failed; they became as women: they have burned her dwellingplaces; her bars are broken. (This Passage predicts the coming softness of Babylon because of corruption. When the Medes and the Persians laid siege to the city, Babylon was no longer depending on her mighty army, but rather on the defenses of the impregnable city; impregnable they thought! Its leaders and military had grown lazy, corrupt, soft, and effeminate. Consequently, the Scripture aptly describes them when it says, "they became as women.")

31 One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to show the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end ("That his city is taken at one end," refers to the eastern portion being taken, after which the western portion fell!)**,

32 And that the passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are affrighted. (Cyrus diverted the river, marched his soldiers down the dry bed, and seized the boats or ferries at each gate. He found the gates unlocked, which should have been closed to keep invaders out of the city. But through negligence, the gates were left open. Verses 30 through 32 proclaim this fact some 50 years before it actually happened.)

33 For thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel; The daughter of Babylon is like a threshingfloor, it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come. ("For thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel," portrays the absolute control held by the Lord regarding the disposition of men, nations, and empires.)

ISRAEL'S COMPLAINT

34 Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me, he has crushed me, he has made me an empty vessel, he has swallowed me up like a dragon, he has filled his belly with my delicates, he has cast me out. (Even though Nebuchadnezzar was commissioned by God to destroy Judah and Jerusalem, still, it seems he carried his commission too far, engaging

Judah and Jerusalem with great cruelty.

But yet, the Lord dealt greatly with "Nebuchadnezzar" through the Prophet Daniel, with some indication that he made Jehovah his Saviour [Dan. 4:37].)

35 The violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say. (As "violence was done to me," i.e., Judah and Jerusalem, likewise, "violence" will be done to Babylon.)

GOD WILL AVENGE ISRAEL

36 Therefore thus says the LORD; Behold, I will plead your cause, and take vengeance for you; and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry. ("And I will dry up her sea," refers to Cyrus diverting the Euphrates, which enabled him to take the city. In this, the Lord would "plead the cause" of Israel.)

37 And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwellingplace for dragons, an astonishment, and an hissing, without an inhabitant. (The total fulfillment of this Passage awaits its future rebuilding and subsequent destruction, which will be done instantly [Rev., Chpt. 18].)

38 They shall roar together like lions: they shall yell as lions' whelps. (Babylon is symbolized by the Holy Spirit as a "lion" [Dan. 7:4]. However, their "roar," when attacked by the invader, will be as a little cub and, therefore, unable to defend themselves.)

39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, says the LORD. (The drunken and boastful feast of Belshazzar is pictured in Verses 38 through 40. Historians suggest it was celebrated in honor of the great goddess "Shac," and was accompanied by grossly obscene ceremonies. The introduction of the Temple vessels [Dan. 5:2] into such an orgy of idolatry and impurity emphasizes the bold vileness of the Babylonian monarch. That night they died!)

40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he goats. (As Jerusalem was a "lamb to the slaughter," likewise was Babylon!)

41 How is Sheshach taken! and how is the praise of the whole Earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations! (There is some evidence that one of the goddesses of the Babylonians was "Shac," i.e., "Sheshach."

"The whole Earth surprised," refers to the supposed impregnability of Babylon and its subduction by Cyrus. As such, it "became an astonishment among the nations.")

42 The sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof. (The "sea" and the "waves" are metaphors referring to the Medes and the Persians.)

43 Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwells, neither does any son of man pass thereby. (Once again, this pertains to the coming Great Tribulation, when rebuilt Babylon will be totally decimated, and in the time of one hour [Rev. 18:10].)

44 And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he has swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him: ye s, the wall of Babylon shall fall. ("Bel" was the patron deity of Babylon. The wall of Babylon was 300 feet high, 90 feet wide, and 60 miles long. It formed a square having 25 huge gates of brass and 250 towers on each face — in all, 100 brazen gates and 1,000 towers. However, these great walls were breached by the Medes and the Persians.)

COMMAND TO LEAVE BABYLON; JUDGMENT COMING

45 My People, go you out of the midst of her, and deliver you every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD. (If possible, the captive Jews were to leave the city at the time of the siege by the Medes and the Persians, because it was sure to fall and result in a great slaughter.)

46 And lest your heart faint, and you fear for the rumour that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler. (History records that the first year a rumor reached Babylon of the Median preparations for invasion; in the second year, a rumor arrived announcing that the Medes had set out on the expedition; and the following year, which was the third year of Belshazzar, they captured the city.)

47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her. (Some 50 years before it actually happened, the Lord warned of the coming "judgment" because of Babylon's continued idol worship. Not only was this warning given here, but it was also given by Daniel and the Hebrew children, even at a later time. Therefore, Babylon was without excuse.)

48 Then the heaven and the Earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, says the LORD. ("Shall sing for Babylon," refers to rejoicing in both "Heaven" and "Earth" because of her destruction. This speaks of the coming Great Tribulation, when Babylon will be destroyed under the Seventh Vial [Rev., Chpt. 18].)

49 As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the Earth. (This Passage refers to the coming destruction of Babylon, as stated, under the Seventh Vial [Rev. 16:17-21]. In the last half of the Great Tribulation, Israel will face what looks like certain annihilation. Babylon, i.e., the Antichrist, will press for her destruction and come very close to succeeding, and would succeed, but for the Coming of the Lord; this Coming will occasion the slaying of possibly millions [Ezek., Chpts. 38-39].)

COMMAND TO RETURN TO ZION

50 You who have escaped the sword, go away, stand not still: remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind. ("You who have escaped the sword," refers to the fact that possibly some of the exiles were killed in Babylon by the invasion by Cyrus. The exiles were to plan to return to Jerusalem just as soon as Cyrus gave the command [Ezra 1:1-4].

"Remember the LORD afar off," referred to His desired dwellingplace in Jerusalem. Hence, this was to be on their "mind.") 51 We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame has covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's House. (This refers to the soldiers of Nebuchadnezzar, who, when taking Jerusalem, went into the Temple, taking all its treasures, and then destroying the building.

As a result, because of their 70 years of captivity, they have suffered "reproach" and "shame has covered our faces.")

JUDGMENT ON BABYLON

52 Wherefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will do judgment upon her graven images: and through all her land the wounded shall groan. (And that day did come, and the Babylonian Kingdom fell!)

53 Though Babylon should mount up to Heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from Me shall spoilers come unto her, sa ys the LORD. (The "height of her strength" refers to her walls being fortified, but to no avail! She would not recognize God; therefore, He sent "spoilers unto her," which spelled out trouble of every description, until finally she fell to the Medes and the Persians.)

54 A sound of a cry comes from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans (this was the "cry of defeat"!)**:

55 Because the LORD has spoiled Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great voice; when her waves do roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered (the "great voice" and "waves" were the loud boastings of Babylon. The boastings were silenced!):

56 Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, every one of their bows is broken: for the LORD God of recompences shall surely requite. ("For the LORD God of recompenses shall surely requite," proclaims that which is true of not only God's dealings with ancient Babylon, but in every other circumstance, as well! [Mat. 7:2].)

57 And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, says the King, Whose Name is the LORD of Hosts. (The "perpetual sleep" refers to the phrase, "In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain" [Dan. 5:30]. The title "king" concerning Belshazzar is compared with the title "King, Whose Name is the LORD of Hosts." Of the two Kings, there is no comparison.)

58 Thus says the LORD of Hosts; The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the people shall labour in vain, and the folk in the fire, and they shall be weary. (Immense multitudes of slaves were employed in building the mighty walls and fashioning in the fire the brazen gates of Babylon; but their labor was in vain, and only secured weariness. This result is emphatically declared twice in Verses 58 and 64. Such is the one and only and invariable result of human toil, whether religious or physical, without God.

Thus, this Fifty-eighth Verse concludes the Prophecy given to Jeremiah concerning Babylon and its destruction, which, as stated, was given about 50 years before the actual fact. It came true in totality, even as every Word of the Lord is true in totality!)

59 The word which Jeremiah the Prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a quiet prince. ("In the fourth year of his reign," refers to the reign of Zedekiah, when he and Seraiah went to renew vows of allegiance to Babylon. However, soon after returning home, Zedekiah broke his vows and rebelled against the king of Babylon [II Ki. 24:17-20].

"Seraiah" was probably in charge of the gifts that were to be made to the king of Babylon.)

60 So Jeremiah wrote in a Book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon. (This Volume of Prophecies concerning Babylon was dispatched to that city some 6 years before the destruction of Jerusalem by the Babylonians. The exiles were instructed to read the Prophecies carefully, which no doubt strengthened them greatly, even in the time of their supreme calamity.)

61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When you come to Babylon, and shall see, and shall read all these words *(upon hearing these Prophecies read, the exiles probably wondered how such could even begin to come to pass; and yet those with faith knew that most assuredly they would come to pass);

62 Then shall you say, O LORD, You have spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate forever. (What a statement, especially in view of the present splendor of Babylon! Only God could predict such, and many years before the fact, and bring it to pass.)

63 And it shall be, when you have made an end of reading this Book, that you shall bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates:

64 And you shall say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah. (The sinking of the stone with the Prophecies attached portrayed Babylon's demise. As well, this world's system, symbolized by Babylon of old, is going to "sink" and will "not rise from the evil [judgment] that God will bring upon her." This will happen at the Second Coming!)

THE REIGN OF ZEDEKIAH

[1] Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. (It is not known if Jeremiah is the author of this final Chapter, as the closing words of the last Verse of the previous Chapter might very well affirm that those words closed his Prophecies.

The capture of Jerusalem and the deportation of its people have little interest for historians, but so great an interest for God that the event is narrated four times with considerable detail [II Ki. 24:25; II Chron., Chpt. 36; Jer. 29:52]. Incidentally, the Jeremiah of this Verse is not the Jeremiah of this Book.)

[2] And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. (Irrespective of God's Love, appalling chastisement must visit aggravated sinfulness. Therefore, Judah and Jerusalem were taken into captivity.

Actually, Zedekiah was not of the royal line of David and, therefore, the last king to grace the throne who was in the royal line of David was Jehoiachin [Coniah].)

[3] For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till He had cast them out from His presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. (The first part of this Verse refers to sin as the reason, which God cannot abide. "Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon" because he thought Egypt would come to his rescue. Actually, Zedekiah rebelled against the Lord.)

THE FALL OF JERUSALEM

4 And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about. (The Holy Spirit records the exact day of the siege, because it was "against Jerusalem," which was His City and the place of His Dwelling. However, He would now leave it, as recorded in Ezek. 11:23.)

5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. (Jerusalem, in her backsliding, did not understand Who her Saviour was and, therefore, trusted in Egypt, who could not even save herself, much less Judah and Jerusalem! Therefore, the Holy Spirit proclaims, "the city was besieged.")

6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. (Exactly what Moses said in Deut., Chpt. 28, was now coming to pass.)

7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about:) and they went by the way of the plain. (For some 40 years, Jeremiah had warned of this time, pleading with the people to repent, but to no avail! Now, and exactly as the Holy Spirit through the Prophet had said, all comes to pass. How this must have crushed the already broken heart of the Prophet!)

JUDGMENT ON ZEDEKIAH

8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. (No amount of skill or sagacity can defeat the purposes and judgments of God. Zedekiah and his soldiers thought to escape by making a hole in the city wall at nighttime; but they were defeated and captured at the very scene of Israel's first victory many hundreds of years before, which was "Jericho.")

9 Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; where he gave judgment upon him. (The "king of Babylon" was Nebuchadnezzar. "Where he gave judgment upon him," refers to a terrible severity.)

10 And the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he killed also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

11 Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death. (The prison was a house of hard labor. And yet, there is some small evidence that Zedekiah came to the Lord while in this "prison.")

JERUSALEM DESTROYED; FINAL CAPTIVITY OF JUDAH; A REMNANT LEFT

12 Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, which served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem *(II Ki. 25:8 says, "The seventh day of the month." However, there is no discrepancy. II Kings uses the words, "unto Jerusalem," whereas the words here are "into Jerusalem." The two are not the same; the former refers to the approach to the city, while the latter refers to actually entering the city. Evidently, "Nebuzar-adan" needed some three days of preparation after arriving outside the city before entering it),

13 And burned the House of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire *(the Lord allowed "His House" to be burned because His People had discredited it):

14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls of Jerusalem round about. (Their protection and security depended on their obedience to God. Upon obedience, no power on Earth could defeat them. Upon disobedience, the Lord lifted His Hand of protection, and the walls were broken.)

15 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people who remained in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude. (Upon the advent of disobedience, the Lord's Hand is lifted, and the end result is the same as then, i.e., captive of Satan.)

16 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land for vinedressers and for husbandmen. (The "poor of the land" refers to those who had been slaves, or else nearly so, and had consequently been denied ownership of property, but now would be the possessors of the finest "land" and "vineyards" in Judah.)

TEMPLE RICHES TAKEN

17 Also the pillars of brass that were in the House of the LORD, and the bases, and the Brazen Sea that was in the House of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon. (The breaking of these symbols and the carrying of them to "Babylon" would sadly signify the victory of the flesh over the Spirit. Such was the ruin of Judah, and such is the ruin of the modern Believer.)

18 The caldrons also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away. (These words could hold little meaning to the carnal mind, but are given here with a sob by the Holy Spirit. These symbols of worship were removed, because the people no longer worshipped God, but rather idols.)

19 And the basons, and the firepans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away. (These beauteous and precious vessels and pillars pictured the Power and Glories of Christ, which Judah no longer desired. So they lost them!)

20 The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brazen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the House of the LORD: the brass of all these vessels was without weight. (These "twelve brazen bulls" or oxen were designed by the Holy Spirit, with the design given to David, and he to Solomon. They represented the Word of God [I Ki. 7:25-26]. These oxen or "bulls" were placed three to the side, portraying the Word of God as applicable to all directions: north, south, east, and west.)

21 And concerning the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a fillet of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow.

22 And a chapiter of brass was upon it; and the height of one chapiter was five cubits, with network and pomegranates upon the chapiters round about, all of brass. The second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these. ("Pomegranates" are fruit, and thus symbolized the fruitfulness of the Child of God [Jn. 15:1-5]. In the Passage in St. John, He says, "Every branch in Me that bears not fruit, He takes away," symbolizing the removal carried out by Babylon.)

23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and all the pomegranates upon the network were an hundred round about. (Such symbolized the "much fruit" spoken of by Christ in Jn. 15:5. Each "pomegranate" was precious to Him, and should be precious to us, as well!)

PRIESTS AND PRINCES EXECUTED

24 And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the Chief Priest, and Zephaniah the second Priest, and the three keepers of the door (the "three keepers of the door" were taken and executed, because they did not truly "keep the door." The Preacher of the Gospel is the "keeper of the door," and if he does not keep Babylon from it, Babylon will come into it)**:

25 He took also out of the city an eunuch, which had the charge of the men of war; and seven men of them who were near the king's person, who were found in the city; and the principal scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, who were found in the midst of the city. (II Ki. 25:19 records "five men." This marks accuracy and not error, for the greater includes the less, and since Riblah was many days journey from Jerusalem, two of the captives may have escaped or died during the journey.)

[26] So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

[27] And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death in Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive out of his own land. (Of all the captivity spread out over a number of years, the captivity of this Verse is actually the great captivity when Jerusalem was destroyed.)

THREE DEPORTATIONS TO BABYLON

[28] This is the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand Jews and three and twenty (the Hebrews and the Babylonians did not reckon time in exactly the same manner. Hence, the seventh year of Nebuchadnezzar according to the one reckoning would be the eighth according to the other [II Ki. 24:12, 14, 16]. This is the first deportation, which was under Jehoiakim. During this time, Daniel and the three Hebrew children were taken to Babylon, with many others)**:

[29] In the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two persons (this would have been the second deportation under Jehoiachin. In this, Mordecai and Esther were taken to Babylon [Esther 2:5-6])**:

[30] In the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred. (This was the last deportation, which was under Zedekiah, during which time Jerusalem was completely destroyed, including the Temple.)

JEHOIACHIN RELEASED IN BABYLON

31 And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon in the first year of his reign lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison, ("Jehoiachin" was only 18 years old when he began to reign, and actually only reigned for "three months and ten days in Jerusalem." As well, Jehoiachin was the last king in the Davidic line, as Zedekiah, although of the royal family, was not in the kingly line, being only an uncle of Jehoiachin.

Jehoiachin was in captivity for 37 years; thus, he would have been 55 years old at the time he was freed from prison.)

32 And spoke kindly unto him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon (these were perhaps captive kings who had been taken in the many campaigns of Nebuchadnezzar)**,

33 And changed his prison garments: and he did continually eat bread before him all the days of his life. (It is not known why Jehoiachin was favored by the king of Babylon. As well, nothing is known of his spiritual condition.)

34 And for his diet, there was a continual diet given him of the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life. ("Evil-merodach" was the son of Nebuchadnezzar. Perhaps his favorable treatment of "Jehoiachin" was the result of the influence of his father Nebuchadnezzar, who showed some inclination in his closing years of turning to Jehovah.)

OF JEREMIAH

Chapters

1 — 2 — 3 — 4 — 5

CHAPTER 1

SORROW OVER JERUSALEM'S DESOLATE STATE

[1] How does the city sit solitary, that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary! (The word "How" opens the "Lamentations of Jeremiah." What makes the word so amazing is that it is asked by the Holy Spirit, not as a question, but as an exclamation! How could this have happened to Jerusalem? These, who are now on their way to captivity in Babylon, are the People of God. This ruined city is His City! The Temple where He once dwelt now lies a smoking ruin. How could this have happened?!)

[2] She weeps sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks: among all her lovers she has none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they are become her enemies. (Who are these "lovers" and "friends" who have "dealt treacherously with her" and "become her enemies"? These are the Edomites, Ammonites, Moabites, etc. These are the neighboring nations with which Judah formed alliances, which included Egypt, as well! The Holy Spirit brings it out that she preferred these to Jehovah. As well, their gods were made her gods. But where are they now?

The spirit of the Text is that trust must never be placed in man, but in God Alone [Prov. 18:24].)

[3] Judah is gone into captivity because of af fliction, and because of great servitude: she dwells among the heathen, she finds no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits. (Judah's captivity was to be an exile of "affliction" and "great servitude." She served heathen gods; now she must serve their master, Satan. She will find him a hard taskmaster! "She now dwells among the heathen." She desired their ways, and now she is given nothing but their ways. Consequently, she "finds no rest.")

4 The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate: her Priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness. (The "ways of Zion" were the Ways of God; however, Judah forsook those Ways for the world. But she found only "bitterness.")

5 Her adversaries are the chief, her enemies prosper; for the LORD has afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy. (Long before Judah was a people or Jerusalem was a city, Moses had said that this would happen if she turned her back on God [Deut., Chpt. 28].)

6 And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer. ("All her beauty is departed," refers to "her glory." This "glory" was God, Who is now "departed." The "pursuer" is Satan, and Judah has no "strength" to resist him.)

JERUSALEM'S PAST MEMORIES

7 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths. (The "days of old" refer to the times when God was paramount, and Judah and Jerusalem enjoyed His Blessings. These are "pleasant things." Now they are gone! As she suffers in "affliction and misery," she can only "remember"!)

8 Jerusalem has grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all who honoured her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness: yes, she sighs, and turns backward. (Sin was the procuring cause of the city's ruin. She had "grievously sinned." As a result of her refusing to repent, "she is removed." Those who once "honored her" now "despise her."

Satan does that! He uses a person up, and then he throws them aside.)

9 Her filthiness is in her skirts; she remembers not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O LORD, behold My affliction: for the enemy has magnified himself. ("Her filthiness is in her skirts," means that for a period of time her defilement was hidden underneath her skirts [Jer. 13:22]. Now these skirts have been removed, and her "nakedness" is obvious to all!

The expression, "O LORD, behold My affliction," is the Messiah impersonating Jerusalem. Now, their affliction becomes His affliction. Such Love one cannot understand! Such is His Intercessory role, not only then, but now [Heb. 7:25].)

10 The adversary has spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she has seen that the heathen entered into her Sanctuary, whom You did command that they should not enter into Your congregation. ("The heathen entered into her Sanctuary," refers to the soldiers of Nebuchadnezzar entering into the Temple, and even into the Holy of Holies, and all because Judah had long since lost the meaning of these things [Deut. 23:3; Ezek. 44:9].)

11 All her people sigh, they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile. ("They seek bread," refers to natural food, which was in short supply. They had come to this place, the place of starvation, because they forsook the "spiritual bread," i.e., the Word of God.)

JERUSALEM'S SORROW; JUDGMENTS

12 Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by? behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the LORD has afflicted me in the day of His fierce anger. (The Holy Spirit desires the Reader to know and understand that it is not Nebuchadnezzar who brought this on, but "the LORD." His "anger" was "fierce" because Judah's sin was "fierce.")

13 From above has He sent fire into my bones, and it prevails against them: He has spread a net for my feet, He has turned me back: He has made me desolate and faint all the day. (When the Messiah's soul was made an Offering for sin upon the Altar of Calvary [Isa. 53:10], then Verses 12 through 15 were fulfilled; for although these words have an application to Jerusalem, their interpretation belongs to Him.)

14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by His hand: they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck: He has made my strength to fall, the LORD has delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up. (As stated, Jerusalem is addressed, but Christ is intended. As God compelled Judah to bear the punishment of her sins like wearing a yoke or wreath around her neck, likewise, He compelled Christ to do the same in order to deliver man [II Cor. 5:21].

The Lord did such to Jerusalem because they would not heed His clarion call to repent, and He did it to Christ in order that man may be delivered from the terrible, crushing blow of sin. The load was so heavy that they were "not able to rise up"; however, the Lord, i.e., "Adonai," raised Christ from the dead, and He will yet restore Judah and Jerusalem.)

15 The LORD has trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me: He has called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the LORD has trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a winepress. (This Verse proclaims the fact that Judah trusted in her "mighty men" and her "young men" rather than God. As a result, "the LORD has trodden under foot" all those on whom Judah depended.)

16 For these things I weep; my eye, my eye runs down with water, because the comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed. (If Judah had wept as Jeremiah now "weeps," the "enemy" would never have "prevailed.")

17 Zion spreads forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her: the LORD has commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him: Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman among them. (Judah spurned the call so long, until "the LORD has commanded concerning Jacob" that judgment must come; and judgment did come! As a "menstruous woman," Jerusalem must go through her period of uncleanliness and, thereby, become purified before she will be acceptable. This will happen as the Second Coming. The Prophet Zechariah said so [Zech. 13:1].)

18 The LORD is righteous; for I have rebelled against His Commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity. (True Repentance vindicates God and condemns self!)

19 I called for my lovers, but they deceived me: my Priests and my Elders gave up the ghost in the city, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls. (These "lovers" were the surrounding nations, who had proclaimed their devotion to Judah, but in fact "deceived me." Judgment was poured out upon the "Priests" and "Elders" as well! In fact, they were singled out, because they led the parade of rebellion against God and against His Word.)

JEREMIAH'S DISTRESS

20 Behold, O LORD; for I am in distress: my bowels are troubled; my heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: abroad the sword bereaves, at home there is as death. (The Holy Spirit here proclaims to us the fact of Judah's "distress," her "trouble," and her "broken heart." All of this is because they have "grievously rebelled" against God.)

21 They have heard that I sigh: there is none to comfort me: all my enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that You have done it: You will bring the day that You have called, and they shall be like unto me. ("They are glad that You have done it," refers to the gloating of Judah's enemies over her destruction. Jehovah shows His People that their safety, security, and protection never were in these nations or alliances with them, but in Jehovah. It's a lesson the modern Church desperately needs to learn!)

22 Let all their wickedness come before You; and do unto them, as You have done unto me for all my transgressions: for my sighs are many, and my heart is faint. (The terms of this proclamation are found in Jer., Chpts. 50-51, which declare that the Medes will inflict the same cruelty upon Babylon which Babylon inflicted upon Jerusalem. From this fact may be learned the lesson not to rejoice when calamity falls upon an enemy. The evil which brought judgment upon him also dwells in us! As such, none has any right to boast, but rather to mourn.)

ZION UNDER JUDGMENT

[1] How has the LORD covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in His anger, and cast down from heaven unto the Earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not His footstool in the day of His anger! (The deep sorrow of this Chapter is occasioned by the recognition of the fact that the wrath which overthrew the Temple was Divine Wrath. Never had there been, therefore, such sorrow. But this foreshadowed the Wrath which smote the True Temple at Calvary. That was sorrow indeed, for that Temple was without blemish and undefiled, while the Temple at Jerusalem, which God had planned and set up, had been polluted by man.)

[2] The LORD has swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and has not pitied: He has thrown down in His wrath the strongholds of the daughter of Judah; He has brought them down to the ground: He has polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof. (These Verses plainly proclaim the fact that God was the sole Source of Judah's blessings, as He is the sole Source of the blessings of the Church. If He is repeatedly insulted by sin, with a refusal to repent, He will "throw down" the Church "in His Wrath," exactly as He did Jerusalem of old. Paul said so [Rom. 11:18-22].)

[3] He has cut off in His fierce anger all the horn of Israel: He has drawn back His right hand from before the enemy, and He burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devours round about. ("The horn of Israel," refers to the kings of Israel. He had "cut them off in His fierce anger" because of sin. "He has drawn back His right hand from before the enemy," refers to the Lord lifting His Hand of protection over Israel, permitting the enemy to destroy His People. Repentance would have stopped this, but, despite Prophet after Prophet being sent by the Lord, with Jeremiah being the last, Jacob would not repent [Mat. 23:37].)

4 He has bent His bow like an enemy: He stood with His right hand as an adversary, and killed all who were pleasant to the eye in the Tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: He poured out His fury like fire. (Even though Nebuchadnezzar was the instrument, the Lord was the Author. He actually became Israel's "Adversary.")

5 The LORD was as an enemy: He has swallowed up Israel, He has swallowed up all her palaces: He has destroyed His strongholds, and has increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation. ("The LORD was as an enemy," does not actually say that He was an enemy, but "as an enemy." In other words, He Who was accustomed to blessing Israel now does them harm, as an enemy would do, again, because they would not repent.)

6 And He has violently taken away His Tabernacle, as if it were of a garden: He has destroyed His places of the assembly: the LORD has caused the solemn Feasts and Sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and has despised in the indignation of His anger the king and the Priest. (This Verse proclaims the apparatus of the entire worship of God being taken away. It included "His Tabernacle," which pertained to all the Holy Vessels, which symbolized the Coming Redeemer. In fact, He took everything away, because Israel had grossly polluted it.)

7 The LORD has cast off His Altar, He has abhorred His Sanctuary, He has given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have made a noise in the House of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast. ("The LORD has cast off His Altar," is awful indeed! This was the Brazen Altar, which was a type of Calvary. They didn't want the "Cross," so the Lord took the "Cross" away!)

8 The LORD has purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion: He has stretched out a line, He has not withdrawn His hand from destroying: therefore He made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together. ("He has stretched out a line," expressed unsparing demolition [II Ki. 21:13].)

ZION'S HUMILIATION

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; He has destroyed and broken her bars: her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the Law is no more; her Prophets also find no vision from the LORD. ("The Law is no more," is devastating! A material Temple was indispensable to its continued existence and enforcement; however, the Temple was destroyed and the Sacrifices were stopped! The only Light was now extinguished!)

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground. (If the action of this Verse had been done when the Lord commanded them to repent, the horror of this time would never have happened!)

11 My eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the Earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city. (This speaks of acute shortage of food, with the children staggering because of physical weakness. Israel was brought to this state, with some of them even becoming cannibals and eating their own sons and daughters, because of their sinfulness against Jehovah. This was predicted by Moses [Lev. 26:29; Deut. 28:53].)

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for you? what thing shall I liken to you, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to you, that I may comfort you, O virgin daughter of Zion? for your breach is great like the sea: who can heal you? (The statement of this Verse is that it is impossible to console Jerusalem by pointing to others in a like affliction, for her misery was greater than there had ever been, and for the obvious reasons. In fact, her misery was so bad that only the Lord could heal such!)

14 Your prophets have seen vain and foolish things for you: and they have not discovered your iniquity, to turn away your captivity; but have seen for you false burdens and causes of banishment. ("And they have not discovered your iniquity," means that these false prophets would not point out Israel's sins; they rather preached what Israel wanted to hear. The words, "false burdens," refer to false prophecies. The Holy Spirit here says that the "false prophets" led this parade, which led to total destruction.)

15 All who pass by clap their hands at you; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole Earth? (Jerusalem had been the capital of the "whole Earth," because the Lord Himself dwelt in Jerusalem, actually in the Temple between the Mercy Seat and the Cherubim. But now all of that is gone!)

16 All your enemies have opened their mouth against you: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it. (These "enemies" are some of the nations that Judah and Jerusalem thought were her friends. Jerusalem embraced their gods and, thereby, forsook Jehovah. All the time these "friends" were secretly "hissing and gnashing their teeth in anger"; they hated Judah and Jerusalem.

The world is not our friend!)

JUDGMENT ON JUDAH; ADMONITION TO PRAY

17 The LORD has done that which He had devised; He has fulfilled His Word that He had commanded in the days of old: He has thrown down, and has not pitied: and He has caused your enemy to rejoice over you, He has set up the horn of your adversaries. ("The LORD has done that which He had devised," refers to the fulfilling of His Word which He had given to the Prophets many years before, and many times. So Israel had no excuse!)

18 Their heart cried unto the LORD, O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night: give yourself no rest; let not the apple of your eye cease. (While it is true that Judah and Jerusalem are under the judging Hand of God, still, the Holy Spirit through the Prophet implores the people to come before the Lord with a broken heart, and Mercy, at least in some respect, will be given.)

[19] Arise, cry out in the night: in the beginning of the watches pour out your heart like water before the face of the LORD: lift up your hands toward Him for the life of your young children, who faint for hunger in the top of every street. (Despite the anger of the Lord against Judah and Jerusalem [because they would not repent], still, the Lord was their only hope, as He had always been their only hope. So, they were exhorted to "cry out in the night" to Him. Even though Judah and Jerusalem could not be spared, as is now obvious, still, the Lord tells these hapless survivors that He can help, and He in fact will help, if they will only seek His Face.)

JEREMIAH'S PRAYER

[20] Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom You have done this. Shall the women eat their fruit, and children of a span long? shall the Priest and the Prophet be killed in the Sanctuary of the LORD? (Even though Judah and Jerusalem have grievously sinned and refused to repent, which is the cause of all this problem, Jeremiah pleads for help. Inasmuch as the Holy Spirit allowed this to be recorded, the indication is that the Lord would "consider" and show Mercy.)

[21] The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; You have killed them in the day of Your anger; You have killed, and not pitied. (The idea of this petition in this Verse is that Jeremiah pleads to the Lord that great judgment has already been carried out on the people, with many killed and others in a state of acute starvation, so now surely the Lord will show Mercy. "You have killed, and not pitied," portrays the past tense; surely at the present "pity" can be shown!)

[22] You have called as in a solemn day my terrors round about, so that in the day of the LORD's anger none escaped nor remained: those whom I have swaddled and brought up has my enemy consumed. ("Those whom I have swaddled and brought up has my enemy consumed," seems to refer to the possibility of some of Jeremiah's relatives being killed in the carnage. If in fact this did happen, it would have been a just vengeance carried out by the Lord, because these very individuals, Jeremiah's family, had sought his life because they did not like what he preached [Jer. 12:6].)

LAMENT OVER JERUSALEM'S DOWNFALL

[1] I am the man who has seen affliction by the rod of His Wrath. (The Prophet speaks here as a representative of the nation. He speaks as a true Intercessor, thereby associating with the sin of the people, even though he himself had not sinned.

Such was Christ. He Who knew no sin entered into the penalty of our sin in order to make proper Intercession for the Believer, which He does by simply being in the Presence of the Father [Heb. 1:3; 7:25]. Everything which makes possible Intercession on our behalf was done and finished at Calvary.)

[2] He has led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light. (The idea is: if a person wills Light, God wills Light unto him; however, if he wills darkness, such is willed unto him!)

[3] Surely against me is He turned; He turns His hand against me all the day. (Upon obedience, "His hand is for me." Upon disobedience, "His hand is against me.")

[4] My flesh and my skin has He made old; He has broken my bones. (The Lord promised healing to His People as long as they followed Him [Ex. 15:26; Ps. 103:3]. Conversely, if they did not follow Him, there would be no healing.)

[5] He has built against me, and compassed me with gall and travail. (The idea is: the Lord can "compass" us with blessing or trouble, all dependent upon our obedience or disobedience!)

[6] He has set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old. (Even though these were God's chosen People, still, sin would destroy them just as readily as it destroyed the heathen of old, i.e., "the flood.")

7 He has hedged me about, that I cannot get out: He has made my chain heavy. ("He has made my chain heavy," corresponds to the "chain" or the "weight" [sin] that we are admonished to lay aside, which we can do only by looking to Christ and the Cross [Heb. 12:1]. If we do not look to Christ and the Cross, it cannot be laid aside, and it will become heavier and heavier until we are imprisoned.)

8 Also when I cry and shout, He shuts out my prayer. (The Psalmist said, "If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me" [Ps. 66:18].)

9 He has inclosed my ways with hewn stone, He has made my paths crooked. (As the Lord had taken great measures to bless His People, now He takes great measures to do the very opposite. However, it is meant to be corrective rather than destructive.)

10 He was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places. ("Bears" and "lions" are carnivorous animals, fierce by nature. Therefore, for the Lord to position Himself in this manner regarding His Children demonstrates His use of measures of extremity. Instead of Him being the Shepherd, He now turns to be the Destroyer of the sheep, as Judah woefully found out!)

11 He has turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces: He has made me desolate. (In just judgment, the Divine Hand has broken to pieces the nation which that same Hand had established. What He builds up, He is able to pull down.)

12 He has bent His bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow. (The target once was Israel's enemies. Now Israel has turned to be the enemy of God and, therefore, the "mark for His arrow.")

13 He has caused the arrows of His quiver to enter into my reins. (The "reins" speak of the very seat of one's being. The Lord shoots the arrow to the place where the sin begins, which is the heart.)

14 I was a derision to all my people; and their song all the day. (The phrase would probably have been better translated, "I was a derision to all people," referring to the surrounding nations, as they looked upon the destruction of Judah and Jerusalem.

"And their song all the day," refers to songs of mockery and derision by the heathen regarding the destruction of God's People.)

15 He has filled me with bitterness, He has made me drunken with wormwood. (The word "bitterness" means "bitter troubles." The word "wormwood" actually means "to curse." Instead of the Lord blessing Judah, He now curses Judah.)

16 He has also broken my teeth with gravel stones, He has covered me with ashes. ("He has covered me with ashes," is a figurative expression of great humiliation.)

17 And You have removed my soul far off from peace: I forgot prosperity. (This may have been a quotation from Ps. 88:14. The "prosperity" addressed here is spiritual prosperity, which results in all other prosperity, as well!)

18 And I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD (Judah, because of spiritual declension, forgot that her "strength" and "hope" were in the Lord. He was the Source of all her blessings. But being lifted up in pride, she began to think that Jehovah would not and could not abandon her, because of her unique place and position as His special People. They would find that the Lord could not abide sin, irrespective as to who the people were)**:

19 Remembering my affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall. (The word "remembering" is the state to which the Holy Spirit desires to draw the person. He wants the person to remember the cause of the "affliction" and "misery" resulting in "the wormwood and the gall.")

20 My soul has them still in remembrance, and is humbled in me. (Verses 19 and 20 are very similar to Ps. 42:5. Now the individual, or in this case Judah, remembers why she is in this condition, "and is humbled.")

HOPE THROUGH GOD'S MERCY

21 This I recall to my mind, therefore have I hope. (This Verse could well have been taken from Ps. 42:4. Jeremiah's statements thus far concerning Judah have been of despair, but now God's Promises of Mercy and Grace come to his "mind." Only this can give him "hope," as this is the only sure "hope" for anyone!)

22 It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not. (As the Prophet enters the Intercessory role, he will now learn that God Himself, in the absence of all outward spiritual fellowship, is a sufficing portion for Faith, and even in the face of what looks like catastrophic defeat.

The Holy Spirit directs Jeremiah's attention, and hence Judah's, away from their plight to "the LORD's Mercies.")

23 They are new every morning: great is Your faithfulness. (In a sense, God's Mercy cannot be exhausted, because it begins "anew each and every morning." As well, one can be certain that this will never change, because the Holy Spirit says, "Great is Your faithfulness.")

24 The LORD is my portion, says my soul; therefore will I hope in Him. ("The LORD is my portion," proclaims the fact that anything and everything that one truly needs is found in the Lord, and only in the Lord [II Pet. 1:3-4; Ps. 16:5].)

25 The LORD is good unto them who wait for Him, to the soul that seeks Him. (The intimation is: if we properly "seek Him," even though it may take some time, we will "find Him" [Lk. 11:5-13].)

26 It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD. (It means to wait in travail, and with great burden of soul. Of necessity, it is placed beside "quietly wait," which speaks of serenity. Therefore, this waiting will incorporate times of travail interspersed with times of serenity.)

[27] It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth. (This Verse may have been derived from Ps. 119:71.)

[28] He sits alone and keeps silence, because He has borne it upon him. (The idea is: the individual should not blame God for the problem, neither should he complain about his woeful situation, but instead "keep silence" and "bear it with patience," believing that most surely the Lord will come to his rescue and deliver him.

Also, he will learn the lesson that the affliction is designed to teach, thereby, coming out the better man for the trial.)

[29] He puts his mouth in the dust; if so be there may be hope. ("He puts his mouth in the dust," is an oriental manner of expressing submission, which is one of the lessons the Holy Spirit desires to teach.)

[30] He gives his cheek to Him Who smites him: he is filled full with reproach. ("He gives his cheek to Him Who smites him," means that he bears the affliction with patience, attempting to learn the reason from the Lord and to profit thereby. Even though "he is filled full with reproach," and, as Job, is ridiculed by others, still, he knows the Lord is in control, and that victory most assuredly will come.)

[31] For the LORD will not cast off forever *(the Lord will not afflict forever, meaning that it will come to an end, if we will only trust Him):

[32] But though He cause grief, yet will He have compassion according to the multitude of His mercies. (We have the assurance that any "grief" He causes is brought about for our good, and is done with "Compassion" and "Mercy." What a wonderful Lord we serve!)

[33] For He does not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men. (God does not afflict in a malicious spirit, as man does. Men afflict others in order to hurt. God afflicts in order to help, i.e., "to bring us to a place of maturity.")

[34] To crush under His feet all the prisoners of the Earth (in this instance, the "prisoners of the Earth" refer to the unhappy Jewish captives of the Babylonians. Even though they had terribly sinned and were, therefore, under the just judgment of God, still, He would not allow them to be "crushed." Ultimately, He would deliver them.)**,

[35] To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the Most High (the idea is: the "Most High" is the Heavenly Supreme Court. Irrespective of what the individual has done, as Judah, if they will sincerely repent, the Lord will guarantee Deliverance and Restoration, and will not "turn aside the right of that man")**,

[36] To subvert a man in his cause, the LORD approves not. ("His cause" refers to the Word of God being applied to a person's life and his trust in it. "To subvert a man" refers to those who claim God will no longer show Mercy, etc. "The LORD approves not," means that irrespective of what unbelievers may say, the Lord will not "approve" of their denial of Mercy and Grace to anyone who meets God's conditions.)

[37] Who is he who says, and it comes to pass, when the LORD commands it not? (The Holy Spirit asks the question through Jeremiah, "Who is he who says it cannot, when God says it can?", or "Who is he who says it can, when God says it cannot?" It is what "the LORD commands," not man!)

[38] Out of the mouth of the Most High proceeds not evil and good? (The Lord does not say He will, when He won't! Neither does He say He won't, when He will! [James 3:9-11].)

JEREMIAH'S CONFESSION AND REPENTANCE FOR ZION

[39] Wherefore does a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? (Judah is not to complain of her present condition, because it is "punishment for her sins." As such, it should be suffered with dignity, realizing it is just, but also tempered with Mercy. The next Verse tells Judah, as well as all others, exactly what must be done!)

[40] Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD. (The purpose of the affliction allowed by the Lord is given in this Verse. "And turn again to the LORD," means that we have been turning to other than the Lord. Self-will is always the cause of this, which leads one astray from the Bible and, thereby, from God.

The word "search" means to ferret out that which has been concealed. Our troubles being caused by our sins, let us search them out and allow the Lord to correct them.)

41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens. (If one is to notice, the mere "lifting up of the hands," within itself, is not enough! The "heart," with its corresponding action of Repentance, must accompany the physical gesture.)

42 We have transgressed and have rebelled: You have not pardoned. (The pronouns, "we" and "You," as expressed in the Hebrew, are meant to be spoken with heavy emphasis. Such acknowledges the sin and takes responsibility for wrongdoing, and is correspondent with I John 1:9.

"You have not pardoned," does not have reference to forgiveness of sin, but rather has reference to the effect of that sin, which has continued. Thus, the affliction.)

43 You have covered with anger, and persecuted us: You have slain, You have not pitied. (These are the just results of their sin. The "anger" represents a long pent-up anger that is finally released because of constant transgression, rebellion, and refusal to repent, as recorded in Verse 42.

"Persecuted us," refers to Judah's enemies having their way with her.)

44 You have covered Yourself with a cloud, that our prayer should not pass through. (Prayer cannot "pass through" to God if sin is being harbored, with a refusal to repent, which was the situation in Judah and Jerusalem.)

45 You have made us as the offscouring and refuse in the midst of the people. (If the Lord builds up, He can also tear down. If He plants, He can also uproot. As He is the Author of one, He is also the Author of the other!)

46 All our enemies have opened their mouths against us. (When Judah was walking with the Lord, these "enemies" did not dare do such! Now that God is no longer with her because of her sins, these "enemies" feel free to say and do whatever they desire. Consequently, their scorn and sarcasm knew no bounds!)

47 Fear and a snare is come upon us, desolation and destruction. (All of this is brought on by sin and a refusal to repent!)

48 My eye runs down with rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of my people. (In this Verse, Jeremiah returns to his own personal grief over the terrible condition of both Judah and Jerusalem. He was called the Weeping Prophet, and not without reason! For about 40 years, he had prophesied of the coming destruction, and had watched that destruction come closer and closer. Still, the people would not repent, but instead grew worse in their obstinacy and rebellion. And then he was an eyewitness to the actual destruction, seeing exactly what he had prophesied come to pass, which brought about the deaths of tens of thousands of people, etc.)

49 My eye trickles down, and ceases not, without any intermission ("trickles down," in the Hebrew instead says, "pours down." Therefore, this Passage speaks of the burden of a broken heart so heavy that it even threatens the life of the Prophet. It was a burden "without any intermission.")**,

50 Till the LORD look down, and behold from Heaven. (As far as is known, Jeremiah is one of a precious few who interceded for Judah and Jerusalem.)

51 My eye affects my heart because of all the daughters of my city. (The Babylonians had no mercy, not even on the women and children.)

PRAYER FOR VENGEANCE ON ENEMIES

52 My enemies chased me sore, like a bird, without cause. (This Prophet of God had many "enemies," who constantly attempted to silence his voice, therefore, "chasing him like a bird." Furthermore, it was "without cause," just as the anger and actions of the Pharisees against Christ were "without cause," of which this a type.)

53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast a stone upon me. (This incarceration is given in Jer. 38:6. "They have cut off my life," means that they intended for Jeremiah to die in this dungeon, which would have happened, had the Lord not intervened.)

54 Waters flowed over my head; then I said, I am cut off. (Even though there was no water actually in this dungeon [Jer. 38:6], still, his enemies, no doubt, removed at times the stone and poured water, which was probably filthy, into the dungeon, which "flowed over Jeremiah's head.")

55 I called upon Your Name, O LORD, out of the low dungeon. (In any and every situation, the Lord is the only One Who can truly help. For whatever problem, we need to always call upon "His Name." At this terrible time, Jeremiah no doubt reminded the Lord of the Promise made to him at the very beginning of his Prophetic Ministry [Jer. 1:19].)

56 You have heard my voice: hide not Your ear at my breathing, at my cry. (With us, at times, even as with Jeremiah, the Lord will allow adverse things to take place in our lives in order that we may learn to trust Him, to believe Him, and to call on Him. Everything the Lord does and allows in our lives is for a purpose; to be sure, He guides everything. In other words, nothing happens to a Believer but that the Lord causes it or allows it, and all is for our good.

Verse 56 portrays the physical weakness of Jeremiah while in this dungeon, but yet his great spiritual strength.)

57 You drew near in the day that I called upon You: You said, Fear not. (In this terrible situation, when Jeremiah called upon the Lord, the Word of the Lord came back, "Fear not." That Word, as it was given to Jeremiah, is also given to every true Believer.)

58 O LORD, You have pleaded the causes of my soul; You have redeemed my life. (To do this, to redeem the life of the great Prophet, the Lord would use "Ebed-melech the Ethiopian.")

[59] O LORD, You have seen my wrong: You judge my cause. ("O LORD, You have seen my wrong," does not necessarily mean that Jeremiah had committed a wrong, but that the Lord was implored to search his life. Jeremiah believed that the Lord would find no "wrong." On that basis, he would ask that the Lord would "judge his cause," which the Lord definitely did, and delivered him.)

[60] You have seen all their vengeance and all their imaginations against me. (It is certain that the Lord sees all; recompense will be made according to the evil deeds of all concerned.)

[61] You have heard their reproach, O LORD, and all their imaginations against me (this pertains to the plans that these individuals had devised in order to harm or even kill Jeremiah)**;

[62] The lips of those who rose up against me, and their device against me all the day. (It was very easy to speak against Jeremiah during the 35 years of his prophesying before Jerusalem fell. No one believed in him. But, to be sure, the Lord heard every derogatory thing these people said against the Prophet.)

[63] Behold their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their music. ("I am their music," speaks of the ribald songs of scorn and ridicule they made up and sang concerning him.)

[64] Render unto them a recompence, O LORD, according to the work of their hands. (This prayer, at least this part, is derived from Ps. 28:4, which was also a prayer of David. Such a prayer is not wrong and can be prayed presently by Christians, providing their heart is clean before God. Jeremiah is speaking of people here who refused to repent.)

[65] Give them sorrow of heart, Your curse unto them. ("Your curse unto them," is not known or understood by most Christians. However, Deut., Chpt. 28, proclaims the Truth that God blesses obedience while cursing disobedience. Even though this is the day of Grace, the principle now is the same as then.)

66 Persecute and destroy them in anger from under the heavens of the LORD. (And that's exactly what happened! Once again, "what we sow, we reap.")

CHAPTER 4

JERUSALEM'S FORMER GLORY AND LATTER CONDITION

[1] How is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the Sanctuary are poured out in the top of every street. (The "gold" in this Verse is figurative. It stands for the greatness and glory of the Temple in Jerusalem, and signifies Deity. It being "dim" proclaims the fact that Jehovah, while having left Judah and Jerusalem, still watches over her from afar.

"How is the fine gold changed!" refers to the Lord's changed manner of operation, typified by the Sanctuary being torn down, stone by stone.)

[2] The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter! (The People of God, typified as "the precious sons of Zion," and compared to "fine gold," have now been reduced to no more than a cheap "earthen pitcher," which is easily broken and thrown away.

In regard to this, we might ask ourselves the question, "How does the Lord look at us?" Does He see "fine gold" or a cheap "earthen pitcher"?)

[3] Even the sea monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: the daughter of My People is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness. ("Sea monsters," would have been better translated "jackals." The idea is: the people of God had so lost their way until cruelty was the norm.)

[4] The tongue of the sucking child cleaves to the roof of his mouth for thirst: the young children ask bread, and no man breaks it unto them. (This Verse proclaims the fact that little children at the time of the siege were begging for bread, and the adults who had bread would share none with them. Their hearts had grown so hard and cold that they could see a child staggering in the street for want of food and show no concern.)

5 They who did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: they who were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills. (The Prophet speaks of the Nobles of Jerusalem, once rich, but now scavenging the streets for a little food. All of this could have been avoided, if, at any time during the many years of Jeremiah's Prophecies, they had only heeded the Word of the Lord.)

6 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her. (Sodom sinned greatly and had to be destroyed; however, Judah sinned against Light, which is far worse! As such, they became worse than the surrounding heathen!)

7 Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire *(Jeremiah now alludes to Judah and Jerusalem as they once were, when they lived for God and consequently were greatly blessed by Him):

8 Their visage is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaves to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick. (Jeremiah, having thought back to the Jerusalem of the past, now portrays their present condition!)

9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field. (Exactly as the Prophet had predicted, the living now are worse off than the dead.)

10 The hands of the pitiful women have s odden their own children: they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people. (Moses, about a thousand years earlier, had prophesied that if Israel turned her back on God, the people would sink to the level of eating their own children. And that's exactly what happened! [Deut. 28:57].)

[11] The LORD has accomplished His fury; He has poured out His fierce anger, and has kindled a fire in Zion, and it has devoured the foundations thereof. (God cannot abide sin in any form, nor in any people. It must be judged. Wondrously so, it has been judged in Christ and what He did at the Cross. However, if men do not accept His Atoning Sacrifice, they will themselves become a sacrifice, but a sacrifice which will not atone.)

[12] The kings of the Earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem. (The miraculous acts of God among His People were legend among the nations of the world of that day. Even though they would not serve Him, they knew of His great Power. But when God's People sinned against Him and refused to repent, even after repeated warnings, all that was great had to be destroyed.)

REASONS FOR THE JUDGMENT

[13] For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her Priests, who have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her (the blame is laid at the feet of the spiritual leaders, so-called, of Jerusalem, i.e., her prophets who prophesied falsely and her priests who perverted the Law. It is the same presently in the modern Church!)**,

[14] They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments. (They were the blind leading the blind, and all fell in the ditch [Mat. 15:14]. "They have polluted themselves with blood," means that the blood of the people lost because of their false preaching would be required at their hands [Ezek. 3:17-18].)

[15] They cried unto them, Depart you; it is unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there. (The idea of this Verse concerns the Jews who left the city for foreign lands before and after the fall of Jerusalem. They would be maltreated at each place they would go, with the people of that particular country saying, "Depart you."

"It is unclean," has the same idea as the leper who was unclean. In other words, in all these foreign countries, the Jews were treated as "lepers.")

16 The anger of the LORD has divided them; he will no more regard them: they respected not the persons of the Priests, they favoured not the Elders. (This refers to the fact that Judah had shown favor to the heathen priests of the idol gods who came to Jerusalem, but now, as they fled from the Babylonian horde, Judah's Priests were shown no respect or favor by these heathen.)

17 As for us, our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us. ("The nation that could not save us" was Egypt. If they had sought the Lord, they would have been saved!

"Vain help," adequately describes what Egypt provided; it also describes all that man can do in any circumstances or at any time!

These words should be read by those in the modern Church who advocate humanistic psychology as the answer to the perversions of man!)

18 They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come. (The word "they" refers to the Chaldeans. Jeremiah now takes the Reader back to the moment of the fall of Jerusalem.)

19 Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness. (The Jews who tried to escape the city at the time of the siege were easily caught by the Chaldeans.)

20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen. ("The anointed of the LORD" probably refers to king Zedekiah. He was the last king of Judah. The idea was probably held by some Jews that they could escape to a "heathen country" and live there under their own king. Such thinking was foolish!)

21 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwells in the land of Uz; the cup also shall pass through unto you: you shall be drunken, and shall make yourself naked. ("Edom," a neighbor of Judah, rejoiced when Judah fell. However, the Prophet says that they would suffer the same judgment that Judah suffered. And so they did!)

FINAL RESTORATION OF JUDAH

22 The punishment of your iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion; He will no more carry you away into captivity: He will visit your iniquity, O daughter of Edom; He will discover your sins. (For Edom, there is no promise of Restoration, but, on the contrary, a disclosure of her sins; for Zion, a full judgment, but a covering up of her sin, which will ultimately result in a complete Restoration, which will take place at the Second Coming.)

CHAPTER 5

PRAYER: CONFESSION OF GUILT AND REPENTANCE

[1] Remember, O LORD, what is come upon us: consider, and behold our reproach. (As in the Psalms, so in these Elegies, the Spirit of God expresses His Thoughts through those whom He chooses as vessels of His testimony in circumstances exhibiting the judgment of God on that which He had Himself founded.

This is one of the beauties and marvels of Inspiration. The Spirit Himself furnishes a picture of His Own activities in the hearts of evil men. Such is His Love for them. He hearkens to their sighs, records their fears, and registers their victories. Tragically, there is no victory here, only "reproach."

This prayer would be answered, with the Lord not only beholding their reproach, but also beholding them in view of future Restoration. Therefore, the lesson is learned that the Lord does indeed "consider," and He constantly works for the Restoration of the chastised one.)

[2] Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens. (The "inheritance" spoke of their land which had been "given" to Abraham [Gen. 13:25; 17:8], and was consequently inherited by Abraham's posterity. Consequently, this was God's Land and God's People; and yet, it was "turned to strangers.")

[3] We are orphans and fatherless, our mothers are as widows. (Without the Lord, they definitely were "orphans.")

[4] We have drunken our water for money; our wood is sold unto us. (Spiritually speaking, their inheritance had been reduced to "water" and "wood." And even that was horrendously scarce!)

5 Our necks are under persecution: we labour, and have no rest. (They have now become slaves of the Babylonians. As such, they were forced into hard labor, with the slightest infraction resulting in beatings.)

6 We have given the hand to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread. (The idea of this Verse is: now, instead of looking to the Lord, they had to look to the Egyptians or Assyrians for food. To "give the hand" means to beg. And these were God's chosen People!)

7 Our fathers have sinned, and are not; and we have borne their iniquities. (This Verse tells us that the iniquity of Judah had spanned many generations.)

8 Servants have ruled over us: there is none that does deliver us out of their hand. (The Egyptians were the children of Ham, and it is thought that the Assyrians and the Chaldeans may have been, as well! As such, they were "servants" and, according to the Prophecy of Noah, should not have ruled over the sons of Shem [Gen. 9:27].)

9 We got our bread with the peril of our lives because of the sword of the wilderness. (The people of God are now prey to anyone who desires to take what little they have left!)

10 Our skin was black like an oven because of the terrible famine. (The word "black" probably should have been translated "glows," which is the feverish glow produced by gnawing hunger, which is what is actually meant.)

11 They ravished the women in Zion, and the maids in the cities of Judah. (When the Babylonians took the city, the women and the young girls of the city were fair game for the animal passion of drunken soldiers.)

12 Princes are hanged up by their hand: the faces of Elders were not honored. (None were respected at the fall of Jerusalem. The "Princes" and "Elders" were treated as brutally as any and all.)

13 They took the young men to grind, and the children fell under the wood. (What men were left were reduced to slavery, with even the children put to work gathering wood.)

[14] The Elders have ceased from the gate, the young men from their music. ("The gate" was a term used for the buildings at the main entrance of the city where legal proceedings were conducted. Such have ceased! Most of the "Elders" are dead, and there are no legal proceedings to conduct.

As well, the "music" has ceased, unless it is a funeral dirge.)

[15] The joy of our heart is ceased; our dance is turned into mourning.

[16] The crown is fallen from our head: woe unto us, that we have sinned! ("The crown is fallen from our head," refers to the supremacy of Judah and Jerusalem for nearly 500 years. No nation in the world was their equal. No city compared to Jerusalem. They were God's chosen, but have now forfeited everything, and all because of sin!)

JEREMIAH'S APPEAL FOR MERCY

[17] For this our heart is faint; for these things our eyes are dim.

[18] Because of the mountain of Zion, which is desolate, the foxes walk upon it. ("Zion" was where the Temple was located. And now it is trod upon by jackals. These jackals were the Babylonians!)

[19] You, O LORD, remain forever; Your Throne from generation to generation. (In effect, the Holy Spirit through the Prophet is saying that even though Judah and the Temple are no more, still, "the LORD remains forever." As great as His "Throne" was yesterday, as great it is today, that is, if men will only believe Him, and shall be "from generation to generation.")

[20] Wherefore do You forget us forever, and forsake us so long time? (The idea is: Jehovah's Power is unbroken, and consequently He can restore Israel. And that He shall [Rom., Chpt. 11].)

21 Turn Thou us unto You, O LORD, and we shall be turned; renew our days as of old. ("Turn Thou us unto You," shows that true conversion is a Divine and not a human action. "And we shall be turned," speaks of true heartfelt Repentance, which must be enjoined before Salvation is granted. This, Israel will do in the coming Day, when Jesus comes back [Zech. 13:1].)

22 But You have utterly rejected us; You are very wroth against us. (It may seem that the Book of Lamentations concludes on a very negative note. However, the Prophet turns from the fulfillment of the Promises at a future day back to the present. Now they are "utterly rejected." Now the anger of God still burns hot against them. This simply says that the present must be dealt with before the future can be guaranteed.)

EZEKIEL'S VISION OF GOD'S GLORY

[1] Now it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river of Chebar, that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. ("The thirtieth year" probably refers to the thirtieth year of the Babylonian Empire. "By the river of Chebar," does not exactly tell us where Ezekiel was. Some think that this is the river now known as Khabour, which flows into the Euphrates about 200 miles north of Babylon. At any rate, it was somewhere in Babylonia.

The phrase, "That the heavens were opened," signifies the beginning of Ezekiel's Prophetic Ministry.)

[2] In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity (at this time, Ezekiel had been in captivity approximately five years. At this time, the false prophets of Judah were prophesying of the overthrow of Babylon and the return of Jehoiachin within two years [Jer. 28:3]. The expectations thus raised were probably shared by many of Ezekiel's companions in exile. However, Ezekiel knew better, adhering to the counsels of the letter which Jeremiah had sent to the Jews of the captivity [Jer. 29:1-23]. Thus, in this atmosphere he began his Prophecies)**,

[3] The Word of the LORD came expressly unto Ezekiel the Priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the Hand of the LORD was there upon him. ("The Word of the LORD came expressly unto Ezekiel," means "in reality" or "without doubt." "In the land of the Chaldeans," refers to the Divine Truth that wherever a searching heart is, God will be found. Actually, the deeper the darkness, the brighter the Light.)

4 And I looked, and, behold, a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire. ("And I looked, and, behold," refers to the fact that what was described could be seen. In other words, it was not a figment of Ezekiel's imagination.

The phrase, "A whirlwind came out of the north," refers to the Holy Spirit. It was the same "rushing wind" that came on the Day of Pentecost [Acts 2:2]. Actually, Ezekiel is given a vision of the traveling Throne of God, one might say.)

5 Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four Living Creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man. (We learn from 10:1 that these "Living Creatures" are Cherubims.)

6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings. (Their hands and their wings were in proportion, which means that equal intelligence indwelt their entire being, and the One Spirit energized them all.)

7 And their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brass. (The phrase, "Straight feet," means they were shaped like those of an ox, which emphasizes the fact that they did not move by walking. Even though like an ox, there their similarity ended.)

8 And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings. (The number "four" is not without intense meaning. Four refers to fourfold and, therefore, "completion," i.e., complete within itself, which can only speak of the Creator, and not the Creation. These Creatures attend the Throne of God [Rev. 4:6-8].)

9 Their wings were joined one to another; they turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward. (When adding Verses 11 and 24, two of the wings were always down, and, when the Living Creatures moved, two were extended upwards, so that their tips touched, and were in this sense "joined." When at rest, these were let down again.

"They turned not when they went," refers to the fact that the four wings were not in motion as wings normally are when the Cherubim moved. In other words, their power of movement was not in the wings.)

[10] As for the likeness of their faces, they four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side: and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle. (First of all, it is impossible to exhaust the meaning of the symbolism given here. One can connect all of this with the human face of the Son of Man, Who shared in the Glory of the Father: the Ox, with that of His Sacrifice; the Lion, with that of His Sovereignty, as the Lion of the Tribe of Judah [Rev. 5:5]; the Eagle, with that of His bearing His People, as on Eagles' Wings unto the highest heavens [Ex. 19:4; Deut. 32:11].)

[11] Thus were their faces: and their wings were stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and two covered their bodies. ("Thus were their faces," seems to imply that the Holy Spirit desired for us to understand the symbolism, at least as far as is possible for man to do!)

[12] And they went every one straight forward: whither the Spirit was to go, they went; and they turned not when they went. ("And they went every one straight forward," seems to imply that from point to point, they always traveled in a straight line, thereby denoting perfect knowledge of direction and perfect ability to travel the designated course.

The phrase, "Whither the Spirit was to go, they went," refers to the Holy Spirit giving direction, which the Cherubim instantly obeyed. [The Hebrew word for "Spirit" is a noun, and should have been translated "the Spirit," as in Gen. 1:2.])

[13] As for the likeness of the Living Creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the Living Creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. (It seems that these "Living Creatures" were bathed, as it were, in the fire that played around them, yet were not consumed. "Fire," as distinct from "Light," seems to be the symbol of the Power of God, as manifested against evil [Deut. 4:24; Heb. 12:29].)

14 And the Living Creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning. (The idea is of speed incomprehensible to the human mind and overwhelming in brightness. Perhaps one can say that they traveled with the "speed of thought.")

15 Now as I beheld the Living Creatures, behold one wheel upon the Earth by the Living Creatures, with his four faces. (The "wheels" represent direction, hence the "eyes" of Verse 18.)

16 The appearance of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel. (Strangely enough, and as we shall see, these "wheels" which accompanied the Cherubim were not attached in any way. "A wheel in the middle of a wheel," seems to imply two wheels in one.)

17 When they went, they went upon their four sides: and they turned not when they went. ("And they turned not when they went," probably indicates that they traveled in a straight line and that the "wheels" did not turn as wheels normally do. This suggests the idea of orderly and harmonious working.)

18 As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their rings were full of eyes round about them four. (John the Beloved, on the Isle of Patmos, described the Living Creatures he saw as "full of eyes before and behind" [Rev. 4:6], whereas Ezekiel describes his as the "rings [rims of the wheels] full of eyes round about them four." These "eyes" see all of the Holiness of God [Rev. 4:8].)

19 And when the Living Creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the Living Creatures were lifted up from the Earth, the wheels were lifted up. (First of all, we should understand the laws of nature have absolutely nothing to do with these Cherubim. They seem to be subject to no laws except the sphere pertaining to their own creation and design by God.)

[20] Whithersoever the Spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the Living Creature was in the wheels. ("Whithersoever the Spirit was to go," refers to the Holy Spirit, and should have been capitalized in the English translation. As well, the phrase, "Thither was their spirit to go," implies their own personal spirit, soul, and body, regarding these "Living Creatures." However, it should be emphasized that their body is not physical, but rather a "spirit body."

The phrase, "For the spirit of the Living Creature was in the wheels," seems to have to do with the "eyes" and concerns their ability to "know.")

[21] When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the Earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the Living Creature was in the wheels. (This Verse is very similar to Verse 20. Laws indigenous to man are only a part of the laws created by God. We are now seeing the laws of the Heavenly creation, which are far ahead of anything we presently know. We will know these laws after the Resurrection of Life, when we are given Glorified Bodies.)

[22] And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the Living Creature was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

[23] And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: everyone had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies. (According to Verse 9, when the Cherubim moved, their wings were straight up with the tips touching. When they stopped, they were let down pointing straight forward with the tips continuing to touch. The other pair "covered their bodies.")

[24] And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings. (Even though there is no evidence that the "wings" moved except from a vertical to a horizontal position when stopped, still, he "heard the noise of their wings." The only explanation is that their movement signified great praise to God [Rev. 19:6].)

[25] And there was a Voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings. (This is the Voice of God, even though we are not told what was said.)

[26] And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it. (Ezekiel sees the appearance of God here, which was similar to a "Man," but with a spirit body.)

[27] And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of His loins even upward, and from the appearance of His loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about. (Ezekiel did not say that God was clothed in fire, but "the appearance of fire round about within it." In other words, there was a glow which made the Lord's Spirit Body seem as if it was on fire.)

[28] As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the Glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a Voice of One who spoke. (Ezekiel saw a rainbow round about the Throne of God exactly as did John in his vision [Rev. 4:2-3]. The "Glory of God" denotes the revelation of God's being, nature, and presence to mankind, sometimes with material and spiritual phenomena, as here.

"And when I saw it [the Glory of God], I fell upon my face," portrays the experience of most under these circumstances [Mat. 17:1-8; Mk. 9:2-8; Lk.

9:28-36; Gen. 17:3; Ex. 3:1-6; Num. 22:31; Josh. 5:14; Dan. 8:17; Jn. 18:6; Acts 9:4]. This proclaims the fact that "being slain in the Spirit" is Scriptural.)

CHAPTER 2

EZEKIEL'S COMMISSION

[1] And He said unto me, Son of man, stand upon your feet, and I will speak unto you. (Apart from the four Gospels, the term, "Son of man," is not used in the New Testament; and apart from Ezekiel, it is found only in Dan. 8:17.

The entire Glory of God is outlined here and elsewhere; man falling on his face before it proclaims man's fallen state as a result of the Fall in the Garden of Eden.

"Son of man, stand upon your feet," reflects the "born-again" experience, and the lifting up of man from his fallen state.)

[2] And the Spirit (Holy Spirit) entered into me when He spoke unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard Him Who spoke unto me. (The phrase, "And the Spirit entered into me," refers to Ezekiel being given the Holy Spirit in order to perform a particular service. It is not the same as the Baptism with the Holy Spirit, which could be entered into after the Cross of Christ [Jn. 14:17].)

[3] And He said unto me, Son of man, I send you to the Children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that has rebelled against Me: they and their fathers have transgressed against Me, even unto this very day. (Ezekiel, in this Book, is addressed as "son of man," and not as a son of Abraham, for Israel was now Lo-Ammi [Hos. 1:9]. Jesus was "The Son of Man." This was His title in rejection; hence He forbade His Disciples to announce Him as the Messiah, for He, as "The Son of Man," was to suffer [Lk., Chpt. 9].

"I send you to the Children of Israel," refers to Ezekiel's first Commission. Actually, this great Prophet began His Ministry some five or six years before the destruction of Jerusalem in 586 B.C.)

4 For they are impudent children and stiffhearted. I do send you unto them; and you shall say unto them, Thus sa ys the Lord GOD. (The words which Ezekiel were to speak were to be the words of Adonai Jehovah. God was their Author. In the Hebrew, the Name "Lord GOD" is "Adonai Jehovah." As such, it is characteristic of Ezekiel's Prophecies. It occurs 214 times.)

5 And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there has been a Prophet among them. (For the first time, the Lord designates the calling of "Prophet" to Ezekiel! The Lord is speaking primarily of the Exiles.)

6 And you, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns be with you, and you do dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house. (Their rebellion was against God, and despite the miracles, Law, Patriarchs, and Prophets. They simply would not obey the Bible.)

7 And you shall speak My Words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are most rebellious. ("And you shall speak My Words unto them," is encouraging in that the Words conveyed would be those given by Jehovah. At the same time, there is a warning against the intermingling of lower thoughts and self-originated message, which is the bane of the modern Church. As Jehovah spoke thus to Ezekiel of old, He speaks the same today! Only God's Words are to be given to the people.)

8 But you, son of man, hear what I say unto you; Be not you rebellious like that rebel lious house: open your mouth, and eat that I give you. ("Be not you rebellious like that rebellious house," is a warning against the Prophet's natural weakness. "Open your mouth, and eat that I give you," concerns the Lord giving him the Words he was to say.)

9 And when I looked, behold, an hand was sent unto me; and, lo, a roll of a Book was therein (the "books" of that day were actually several skins sewn together to make a long piece which was rolled up from each end. "An hand was sent unto me," seems to imply that even though it came from the One on the Throne, still, it was separate from Him or the Living Creatures. It seemed to appear mysteriously by itself, as in the history of Belshazzar's feast [Dan. 5:5]. In one sense of the word, as it wrote the doom of Belshazzar's kingdom years later, it was now writing the doom of God's Own People, Judah and Jerusalem!)**;

[10] And He spread it before me; and it was written within and without: and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe. (As the Lord "spread it before him," he finds that it is no message of glad tidings, but instead of "lamentations, and mourning, and woe.")

EZEKIEL EATS THE ROLL

[1] Moreover He said unto me, Son of man, eat that you find; eat this roll, and go speak unto the House of Israel. ("Eat that you find," is a reminder that the True Prophet does not choose his message [Acts 4:20], but delivers what is given unto him by the Lord. As well, the word "eat" signifies that he was to be thoroughly acquainted with its contents in order to deliver this message to "Israel.")

[2] So I opened my mouth, and He caused me to eat that roll. (This implies that the Lord helped Ezekiel to understand what was written. Actually, he did not literally eat a Book or Roll, as all of this is given in a Vision [1:1].)

[3] And He said unto me, Son of man, cause your belly to eat, and fill your bowels with this roll that I give you. Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness. (The Word of God is ever sweet to a spiritual palate; however, it is bitter to the flesh [3:14]; for the Word of the Lord judges the nature and activities of the flesh, and announces the Wrath of God which is coming upon it.)

HIS SECOND COMMISSION: TO SPEAK GOD'S MESSAGES TO ISRAEL

[4] And He said unto me, Son of man, go, get you unto the House of Israel, and speak with My Words unto them. (Ezekiel's Ministry begins here. Its character should be compared with that of Jeremiah's. His Ministry was begun at least while God was still in relationship with Israel, and while He yet spoke of them as "My People.")

[5] For you are not sent to a people of a strange speech and of an hard language, but to the House of Israel (as Ezekiel was sent to "Israel," likewise, Christ was sent to Israel. As Israel would not hear him, Israel would not hear Christ! In both cases, they went to their doom!)**;

[6] Not to many people of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words you can not understand. Surely, had I sent you to them, they would have hearkened unto you. (The Divine statement, "Surely they would hearken unto you," throws a shaft of light across the darkness of the heathen world, and actually, in shadow, proclaims the coming Gentile Church.)

[7] But the House of Israel will not hearken unto you; for they will not hearken unto Me: for all the House of Israel are impudent and hardhearted. (The word "impudent" means to be contemptuous, and in this sense holding the Word of God in contempt and exhibiting a cocky boldness. The word "hardhearted" means "unfeeling and pitiless.")

[8] Behold, I have made your face strong against their faces, and your forehead strong against their foreheads. (As the rebellion is deep, the Lord gives Ezekiel a powerful anointing that he may be able to continue to minister despite their obstinacy.)

[9] As an adamant harder than flint have I made your forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house. (The word "adamant" could be translated "diamond," which is the hardest substance known to man. The phrase, "Neither be dismayed at their looks," proclaims the fact that the Prophet had a natural tendency to shrink back from their threats, revilings, and their scowls of hatred. Irrespective, he was to deliver the Message, even "though they be a rebellious house.")

[10] Moreover He said unto me, Son of man, all My Words that I shall speak unto you receive in your heart, and hear with your ears. (The stress is laid on the word "all." The Prophet was not to pick and choose out of the Message, but was to deliver "all the counsel of God" [Acts 20:27].)

people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus says the Lord GOD; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear. ("And go, get you to them of the captivity," refers to his Message being directed to this group. Due to the Northern Kingdom having been taken captive well over a hundred years previous, and some from the Southern Kingdom now being taken captive, the total number in captivity would have been quite large.

Ezekiel's responsibility was to deliver the Message, rather than their response to it.)

EZEKIEL VISITS THE EXILES BY THE RIVER CHEBAR

[12] Then the Spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the Glory of the LORD from His place. (The exclamation, "Blessed be the Glory of the LORD from His place," probably means that the Glory awakens Praise wherever it goes, and so could make even Babylonia "God's place."

"Then the Spirit took me up," refers to the Holy Spirit, Who energized the Cherubim and the wheels, and then took hold of Ezekiel to energize him.)

[13] I heard also the noise of the wings of the Living Creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great rushing. (All of this which Ezekiel has been observing, such as the Cherubim, etc., he now becomes a part of!)

[14] So the Spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the Hand of the LORD was strong upon me. (The phrase, "And I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit," refers to the wrath or anger of the Prophet respecting the sins of the people and their opposition and rebellion against God.)

[15] Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, who dwelt by the river of Chebar, and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days. (All that is known of "Tel-abib" is said here. It is by the "river of Chebar." "And I sat where they sat," refers to Ezekiel beginning his Ministry in silence.)

16 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying (Ezekiel did not move until the Lord said so!),

COMMISSIONED TO BE A WATCHMAN TO ISRAEL

17 Son of man, I have made you a watchman unto the House of Israel: therefore hear the Word at My mouth, and give them warning from Me. (In the ancient world, watchmen walked the walls in order to spot any hostile action against the city. They were also there to give word to the king of any person approaching the city wall [II Sam. 18:24-27; II Ki. 9:17-20]. Ezekiel was to be a "watchman.")

18 When I say unto the wicked, You shall surely die; and you give him not warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at your hand. (This Passage tells us that ignorance of the Gospel does not save one. As well, the Preacher is to warn the wicked, and in no uncertain terms. If the wicked aren't warned, meaning that the Preacher preaches a false message, while the wicked person will die in his sin, still, his blood will be required at the hand of the false preacher.

In fact, every single Preacher in the world should read this Text every day.)

19 Yet if you warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul. ("But you have delivered your soul," means that the judgment passed on the Prophet does not depend on the results of his Ministry, whether men will hear or whether they will forbear, but rather that he has "delivered his soul," i.e., "has done his duty as a watchman." Therefore, the implication is that the Prophet will lose his soul if he does not faithfully deliver the Word of God.)

20 Again, When a righteous man does turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die: because you have not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at your hand. (This Passage lays to rest the unscriptural doctrine of Unconditional Eternal Security. As well, the Preacher is not only to preach to the lost, but he is to also warn the righteous who turns from his righteousness. If the Preacher doesn't do so, once again, even though that person will be lost, the Lord says, "I will require at your hand" that individual's blood.

How many modern Preachers are faithfully warning the wicked? the righteous?)

[21] Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he does not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also you have delivered your soul. (This tells us that the righteous must be constantly warned, or else many, if not most, righteous will be turned aside. This puts a tremendous responsibility on the Preacher of the Gospel. God help us if we fail in that responsibility!)

GOD'S HAND ON EZEKIEL; VISION OF GOD'S GLORY

[22] And the Hand of the LORD was there upon me; and He said unto me, Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with you. (To hear the Word from His Mouth, the servant of the Lord must be willing to withdraw into the "plain" or "low place," for it is there that the Master speaks with the servant and afresh reveals Himself in His Glory to him, and where he receives a fresh enduement of Spiritual Power. [In the Hebrew, the expression, "the plain," means "a low place reached with difficulty through obstacles."]

[23] Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and, behold, the Glory of the LORD stood there, as the Glory which I saw by the river of Chebar: and I fell on my face. ("And I fell on my face," is spoken of Ezekiel six times [Vs. 23; 1:28; 9:8; 11:13; 43:3; 44:4]. Once again, this tells us that it is Scriptural for people to be "slain in the Spirit.")

[24] Then the Spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spoke with me, and said unto me, Go, shut yourself within your house. ("Then the Spirit entered into me," refers to the Holy Spirit, Who will lead us into

[25] But you, O son of man, behold, they shall put bands upon you, and shall bind you with them, and you shall not go out among them (when under the control of the Holy Spirit [a control which indeed must be freely given], the lips are taught when to be dumb and when to speak)**:

[26] And I will make your tongue cleave to the roof of your mouth, that you shall be dumb, and shall not be to them a reprover: for they are a rebellious house. ("For they are a rebellious house," implied that his subjects were far more "rebellious" than he realized, and he must have the absolute leading of the Spirit in all action of Ministry. As well, the Lord had other things He wanted to do with the Prophet before he began his preaching Ministry, as the next two Chapters will affirm.)

[27] But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall say unto them, Thus says the Lord GOD; He who hears, let him hear; and he who forbears, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house. (These Passages proclaim the manner of operation regarding the imparting of the Word to the hearer by the Holy Spirit. It is done by the messenger proclaiming the Message, and the subject hearing what is proclaimed [Rom. 10:17].)

SYMBOLS OF THE SIEGE: THE TILE

[1] You also, son of man, take you a tile, and lay it before you, and pourtray upon it the city, even Jerusalem (the "tile" was the manner in which records were kept in ancient times. They were all sizes, which the average being about two feet long and one foot wide. They were covered with very small writing, at least in most cases, and, at times, pictorial representation.

The symbolism of the "tile" is the first the Lord will use through Ezekiel, all to portray His Message. A portrayal of the outline of the city of Jerusalem was to be put on the tile):

[2] And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set battering rams against it round about. (This was taking place in Babylonia approximately four years before Jerusalem would be destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar; therefore, the time of destruction is drawing near, which the Lord desires to portray to the Exiles.

The Prophet was to exhibit this "tile" portraying the outline of Jerusalem, and to make of wood or dirt all the necessary articles of destruction against the city, describing a "siege."

This was probably left in a conspicuous place for quite some time, and no doubt studied minutely by many of the Exiles, who very easily discerned its message.)

THE IRON PAN, A SIGN

3 Moreover take you unto you an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between you and the city: and set your face against it, and it shall be besieged, and you shall lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the House of Israel. (The "iron pan" signified a "wall of iron" surrounding the city in question, or at least from the side of the siege, portraying the power of the army of the Babylonians.)

THE LENGTH OF GOD'S PUNISHMENT: THE SIGN OF LYING 390 DAYS ON THE LEFT SIDE — PUNISHMENT OF ISRAEL

4 Lie you also upon your left side, and lay the iniquity of the House of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that you shall lie upon it you shall bear their iniquity. (The Lord will now use another type of symbolism, that of Ezekiel physically lying on his left side 390 days, and then on his right side for 40 days. This was to be done for a few minutes each day.

The symbolism was to portray both the Northern Kingdom of "Israel" and the Southern Kingdom of "Judah." It was meant to portray these two kingdoms crushed to the ground.)

5 For I have laid upon you the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shall you bear the iniquity of the House of Israel. (The "390 days" was to represent the "390 years of their iniquity," counting both the Northern and the Southern Kingdoms. The Lord showed extreme displeasure with the Northern Kingdom as a result of their splitting the nation and going into idol worship [I Ki. 12:16-20, 28-30].)

THE SIGN OF LYING ON THE RIGHT SIDE 40 DAYS — PUNISHMENT OF JUDAH

6 And when you have accomplished them, lie again on your right side, and you shall bear the iniquity of the House of Judah forty days: I have appointed you each day for a year. (As the Northern Kingdom had been symbolized, likewise, the Southern Kingdom of Judah would be symbolized by the "40 days" of Ezekiel lying on his "right side." This was not to be 40 days added to the 390 days, but rather that the 40 was to be simultaneous with the 390, with both periods ending with the fall of Judah and Jerusalem.)

THE SIGN OF THE BARE ARM BOUND — JERUSALEM HELPLESS TO AVERT HER DOOM

7 Therefore you shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and your arm shall be uncovered, and you shall prophesy against it. (Ezekiel lying on his left side and then on his right side was possibly immediately before the symbolism of the "tile." He was to "face" this model of the siege, with one arm "uncovered." This was meant to denote the fact that both Judah and Israel, because of sin, were naked to the judgment of God.)

8 And, behold, I will lay bands upon you, and you shall not turn yourself from one side to another, till you have ended the days of your siege.

THE FAMINE DURING THE SIEGE

9 Take you also unto you wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make you bread thereof, according to the number of the days that you shall lie upon your side, three hundred and ninety days shall you eat thereof. (The "390 days" did not mean that the siege would last for this period of time; in fact, it lasted about 2 years. Rather, it was meant to imply that the destruction of Jerusalem and Judah pertained to the entire time of the iniquity, which was 390 years, at least for the Northern Kingdom, and which included the Southern Kingdom of Judah.)

10 And your meat which you shall eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shall you eat it. (The "twenty shekels a day" would buy about ten ounces, which was to be consumed each day. As Ezekiel went through this regimen each day, the sameness of the procedure could not help but have a lasting effect on the Exiles, as it portrayed by Prophetic symbolism that which was coming shortly to Jerusalem.)

11 You shall drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shall you drink. ("The sixth part of an hin" would be about a half pint. This was, as the food, to be doled out once a day. To "drink also water by measure" showed that water would be at a premium, as food, in the coming siege.)

12 And you shall eat it as barley cakes, and you shall bake it with dung that comes out of man, in their sight. (The implication of the Lord is that fuel to heat the stoves would be in such short supply that the population would be forced to use the dried contents of the cesspools of Jerusalem for fuel in order to try to cook their food, such as it was.)

13 And the LORD said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them. (Under the ceremonial Law of Moses, bread cooked by the fuel of human dung was "defiled." This was to serve as a symbolism of the banishment of the Jews among the Gentiles, whom the Jews called unclean. As such, they considered themselves defiled and ceremonially unclean, and constantly!)

14 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! behold, my soul has not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dies of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth. (Ezekiel, as a Priest, had faithfully followed the Law of Moses, and had done his best to keep himself from any kind of defilement. That of which he speaks is noted in Ex. 22:31 and Lev. 7:24, 11:39-40, and 17:15.)

15 Then He said unto me, Lo, I have given you cow's dung for man's dung, and you shall prepare your bread therewith. (In response to the plea of the Prophet, the Lord would allow Ezekiel to use "cow's dung" rather than "man's dung." However, this also was more than likely ceremonially unclean, but at least not as repugnant in Ezekiel's sight. Without going into explanation, these were ceremonial and not moral laws, which means there was no actual sin involved either way.)

16 Moreover He said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall drink water by measure, and with astonishment (this pertained to the terrible famine which ensued as a result of the siege of Jerusalem, and which was also described by Jeremiah upon its fulfillment [Lam. 4:8-10])*:

17 That they may want bread and water, and be astonied one with another, and consume away for their iniquity. (To the horror of the famine and its physical privation, there was to be added the consciousness that it was caused by their own sins.)

SIGNS OF JERUSALEM'S FATE: RAZOR, KNIFE, AND FIRE

[1] And you, son of man, take you a sharp knife, take you a barber's razor, and cause it to pass upon your head and upon your beard: then take you balances to weigh, and divide the hair. (Again, the Lord uses symbolism to portray the desired Message. It is the symbol of the "barber's razor." In Old Testament times, the head and beard being shaved represented shame, and was symbolic of the leper who was required to shave his head and beard. Therefore, Judah and Jerusalem were classified by the Lord as "spiritual lepers.")

[2] You shall burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled: and you shall take a third part, and smite about it with a knife: and a third part you shall scatter in the wind; and I will draw out a sword after them. (The symbolic action predicted that the fire, i.e., the Wrath of God [in pestilence and famine], should destroy approximately one-third of the nation, with war destroying a second part, and the Exiles representing the third part, which would be "scattered in the wind." Many of these also were to perish by sword and famine. In short, the carnage, when it did take place, was terrible, to say the least!)

[3] You shall also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in your skirts. (This "number" represented the "few" who would not fall into the categories of Verse 2. In a population of several million, such would be normal! The next Verse tells what will happen to them.)

[4] Then take of them again, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for thereof shall a fire come forth into all the House of Israel. (The judgment is to be so complete that even those who thought they had escaped, by whatever means, would find the "fire" of judgment chasing them, of which they could not escape.)

JUDGMENT COMING BECAUSE OF SINS

5 Thus says the Lord GOD; This is Jerusalem: I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about her. (The phrase, "This is Jerusalem," is strong indeed! She, as representing the all of Israel, was placed in the center of the nations in order to shed upon them the light of the Gospel. But she rebelled against Truth more than the heathen, multiplied idols, and sank morally lower than her neighbors.)

6 And she has changed My Judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and My Statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they (the Jews) have refused My Judgments and My Statutes, they have not walked in them. ("She has changed My Judgments into wickedness," refers to the Law of Moses, which was not only ignored, but was twisted and "changed" to mean something else entirely!)

7 Therefore thus sa ys the Lord GOD; Because you multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in My Statutes, neither have kept My Judgments, neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you *(the idea of this Verse is that the heathen nations were at least true to the gods whom they worshipped, while Jerusalem had rebelled against Jehovah);

8 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, am against you, and will execute Judgments in the midst of you in the sight of the nations. ("I, even I," emphasizes the certitude of the Wrath of God, just as Isa. 43:25 emphasizes the certitude of the pardoning Love of God; and it rebukes the unbelief of the natural heart which denies both these activities of the Divine Essence.)

9 And I will do in you that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all your abominations. ("And I will do in you that which I have not done," refers to the soon destruction of Jerusalem. "I will not do any more the like," has reference to the present and to the future. It held both Promise and Judgment!)

10 Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of you, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute Judgments in you, and the whole remnant of you will I scatter into all the winds. (This was literally fulfilled during the siege of the city by the Chaldeans, as it had occurred years before in the siege of Samaria [II Ki. 6:28-29], and was to occur afterwards, in connection with the siege by the Romans in A.D. 70.)

11 Wherefore, as I live, sa ys the Lord GOD; Surely, because you have defiled My Sanctuary with all your detestable things, and with all your abominations, therefore will I also diminish you; neither shall My eye spare, neither will I have any pity. (The righteous Judgments, consequent upon the abominations of this Verse, which are detailed in Verses 8 through 17, are still in operation, and will reach a crisis under the reign of the Antichrist, when the "indignation" against Israel will be consummated [Dan. 11:36; 12:1].)

12 A third part of you shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of you: and a third part shall fall by the sword round about you; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them. (Ezekiel draws this Passage, no doubt, from Lev. 26:33. Verse 12 describes the manner in which the judgment will fall.)

13 Thus shall My anger be accomplished, and I will cause My fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the LORD have spoken it in My zeal, when I have accomplished My fury in them. (Righteousness must, from its nature, be restless till evil is judged. Then it is comforted. Such was the effect of the judgment of sin at Calvary; and those who recognize this Gospel fact and take refuge in the great God and Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, Who was the Participant in it, taste the sweetness of the Divine comfort.)

14 Moreover I will make you waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about you, in the sight of all who pass by. (Of all the suffering experienced by Judah, perhaps the worst of all was the "reproach among the nations," and "in the sight of all who pass by.")

15 So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment unto the nations that are round about you, when I shall execute judgments in you in anger and in fury and in furious rebukes. I the LORD have spoken it. (This is drawn perhaps from Deut. 28:37. The phrase, "So it shall be a reproach and a taunt," refers to Jerusalem, which is to be the great object lesson in God's education of mankind. The idea was that if Jehovah would do this to His Own City and People, He would do at least as much to the heathen. This He did, and this He does! He calls it "furious rebukes.")

16 When I shall send upon them the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your staff of bread (as an arrow shot by an expert marksman goes true to its target, so will these "arrows" unleashed by the Lord; they will be "arrows" of "famine" and "destruction"; they are of necessity called "evil arrows."

"And will break your staff of bread," refers to the fact that Judah always reaped abundant harvests, and consequently felt that "famine" was impossible. Nevertheless, the Lord warns them that not only is such possible, but most surely will come, which it did!):

17 So will I send upon you famine and evil beasts, and they shall bereave you; and pestilence and blood shall pass through you; and I will bring the sword upon you. I the LORD have spoken it. (The "evil beasts" speak of the Babylonian horde! The Chapter ends with the words, "I the LORD have spoken it," which is the final stroke of all, guaranteeing that even though the words came from Ezekiel, they, of necessity, belong to the Lord. As such, they were guaranteed of fulfillment.)

PROPHECY AGAINST THE MOUNTAINS OF ISRAEL

[1] And the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

[2] Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them (while the prior Message attacked idolatry in the city of Jerusalem, this Message attacks it in the Land of Judah. The "mountains of Israel" are especially pointed out because of idol temples, which usually were erected on mountains and hills, and by water courses, and in valleys. These were, as should be obvious, an insult to Jehovah. Despite repeated admonitions, they had not been removed. Now they would be removed by force)**,

[3] And say, You mountains of Israel, hear the Word of the Lord GOD; Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys; Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places. (Just as the Prophet [I Ki. 13:2] disdained to speak to the king and addressed himself to the idolatrous altar, so here Ezekiel addresses the idolatrous centers of worship.)

[4] And your altars shall be desolate, and your images shall be broken: and I will cast down your slain men before your idols. (The phrase, "And your altars shall be desolate," refers to the fact that these "altars" were theirs and not God's. The Lord had only one Altar, which represented Calvary and the Sacrifice of His Only Son, which would take place in the future. Every other altar represented a false way of Salvation.)

[5] And I will lay the dead carcases of the Children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars. (The idea of this Verse is that God will not tolerate any other "altar" than His Sacred Altar of Calvary. As it was true then, it is most definitely true now!)

6 In all your dwellingplaces the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished. (This Verse illustrates the expression, "abomination of desolation," which is the desolation brought on by the moral and material result of idolatry. This fundamental moral principle, i.e., that desolation is produced by idolatry, may be verified in modern as well as ancient times, for today vast portions of the richest districts in the world are now desert because of idolatry. In the case of multitudes, a sad personal experience demonstrates this fact, as well! If the heart is governed by an "idol," and religious idols are the worst of all, there is inward desolation, with spiritual fruit, wealth, and beauty virtually unknown [Rev. 3:17].)

7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and you shall know that I am the LORD. (God can be known in Grace or in Wrath, in Salvation or in Judgment. Israel proved Him by experience to be a Saviour when He redeemed them out of Egypt [Ex. 10:2]; likewise, they proved Him by experience to be a Judge when He abandoned them to exile because of idolatry, as it evidenced in this Verse.)

A REMNANT WILL BE SAVED

8 Yet will I leave a remnant, that you may have some who shall escape the sword among the nations, when you shall be scattered through the countries. ("When you shall be scattered through the countries," occurred in Ezekiel's day, but occurred in earnest in A.D. 70, when Titus destroyed Jerusalem, with over one million Jews dying in that horror, and with well over one million being sold into slavery.)

9 And they who escape of you shall remember Me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which has departed from Me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. (The phrase,

"Because I am broken with their whorish heart," could be translated to mean that God's heart was broken because of Israel's determined idolatry. "And they shall loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed," will not actually be fulfilled until the Second Coming [Zech. 12:10].)

[10] And they shall know that I am the LORD, and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them. (Someone has said that the greatest thing one can do regarding the Lord is to simply believe His Word. Regrettably, most did not then, and most do not now!)

THE LAND WILL BE MADE DESOLATE

[11] Thus says the Lord GOD; Smite with your hand, and stamp with your foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the House of Israel! for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.

[12] He who is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he who is near shall fall by the sword; and he who remains and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish My fury upon them. (It is amazing when one considers the continued Prophecies of Jeremiah and Ezekiel proclaiming coming doom, and yet unheeded!)

[13] Then shall you know that I am the LORD, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols. (The phrase, "Then shall you know that I am the LORD," implies that Judah little believed the predictions of the Prophet.)

[14] So will I stretch out My Hand upon them, and make the land desolate, yes, more desolate than the wilderness toward Diblath, in all their habitations: and they shall know that I am the LORD. (The Holy Spirit through the Prophet would not continue making the statement, "And they shall know that I am the LORD," if the unbelief of Judah, Jerusalem, and the exiles had not been so pronounced!)

(594 B.C.)

JUDGMENT ON THE LAND OF ISRAEL

[1] Moreover the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

[2] Also, you son of man, thus says the Lord GOD unto the land of Israel; An end, the end is come upon the four corners of the land. (The "end" of the pleadings through Jeremiah and Ezekiel for Judah and Jerusalem to repent have come! They have refused to repent and therefore, the judgment will fall!)

[3] Now is the end come upon you, and I will send My anger upon you, and will judge you according to your ways, and will recompense upon you all your abominations. (This Verse proclaims a side of the Lord mostly denied, the side of Judgment. However, if Mercy is rejected, whether then or now, ultimately Judgment must come.)

[4] And My eye shall not spare you, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense your ways upon you, and your abominations shall be in the midst of you: and you shall know that I am the LORD. (If men will not repent, the Lord cannot "spare" or "have pity.")

[5] Thus sa ys the Lord GOD; An evil, an only evil, behold, is come. (This "evil" refers to the soon to come Babylonian invasion. "Only evil," pertains to it being all judgment, with no mercy or pity. In other words, there will be no respite!

The phrase, "Behold, is come," refers to the Truth that if the people repented, even though their souls would be saved, the City, the Temple, and the Land would not now be spared. Repentance at an earlier time would have avoided this, but it is now too late to save the City and the Temple.)

6 An end is come, the end is come: it watches for you; behold, it is come. (The repetition guarantees the certitude of fulfillment.)

7 The morning is come unto you, O you who dwell in the land: the time is come, the day of trouble is near, and not the sounding again of the mountains. (The Verse means: as the day begins, Judgment is beginning. The Prophet says, "the time is come.")

8 Now will I shortly pour out My fury upon you, and accomplish My anger upon you: and I will judge you according to your ways, and will recompense you for all your abominations. (This Verse is very similar to Verse 3. Its repetition, as given by the Holy Spirit, only increases its severity.)

9 And My eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense you according to your ways and your abominations that are in the midst of you; and you shall know that I am the LORD Who smites. (The Lord either touches to heal, as was evidenced in Christ, Who came not to condemn, but to save, but if rejected, will "smite," exactly as Jerusalem was smitten in A.D. 70.)

10 Behold the day, behold, it is come: the morning is gone forth; the rod has blossomed, pride has budded. (The phrase, "The rod has blossomed," refers to Nebuchadnezzar, who was ready to strike. "Pride has budded," pertains to Israel's determined sin which demanded the rod, and is unique here. It means "proud luxuriance." In other words, the Blessing of God had been turned into license.)

11 Violence is risen up into a rod of wicked ness: none of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of any of theirs: neither shall there be wailing for them. (The "violence" goes with the "pride" of Verse 10. Wherever there is "pride," there will be "violence," as self-righteous men demand to have their way! "Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness," refers to the fact that by violent injustice they destroyed and impoverished each other. As the Nobles of Judah practiced this "rod of wickedness" on the weak and the helpless, the Lord then practiced it on them!)

12 The time is come, the day draws near: let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn: for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof. (The idea is: the conduct of business, which had become all-important to Judah, was soon to come to an end. This, within itself, was only the tip of the iceberg concerning the judgment that was coming.)

13 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they were yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, which shall not return; neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life. (The phrase, "For the seller shall not return to that which is sold," refers to the false prophecies claiming the immediate restoration of the Exiles. The "sellers" would not see their estates again, even though their children might! They were to be in Babylonia for some 70 years, at least from the time of the first deportation, which had about 50 years to run.)

THE DEATH AND SUFFERING OF THE PEOPLE

14 They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready; but none goes to the battle: for My wrath is upon all the multitude thereof. ("They have blown the trumpet," refers to the Year of Jubilee, when lands that had been sold reverted to their original owners [Lev., Chpt. 25]. The prediction here was that none of these sellers and buyers would live to see the next Jubilee. In fact, the "trumpet" would be blown, but it would not be for Jubilee, but rather for "battle.")

15 The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he who is in the field shall die with the sword; and he who is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him. (The idea is that one cannot escape from the coming Judgment.)

16 But they who escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity. (It is a Law of God that if one does not "mourn" for their sin, they will "mourn" because of their sin [Gal. 6:7-8]. All true Repentance is born of a sense of sin against God.)

17 All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water. (All of this for fear of the Babylonians.)

18 They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads. ("Gird themselves with sackcloth," speaks of a last minute effort to repent. But it will be too late!)

19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed: their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels: because it is the stumblingblock of their iniquity. (The "stumblingblock of their iniquity" was their sin of making idols out of silver and gold, and the subsequent idolatry. They had traded Jehovah for a stupid looking idol made of metal or wood. Consequently, they became like the idol they worshipped — dumb, stupid, senseless, and without spiritual intelligence. Such characterizes almost all the present world.)

20 As for the beauty of His ornament, He set it in majesty: but they made the images of their abominations and of their detestable things therein: therefore have I set it far from them. ("As for the beauty of His ornament, He set it in majesty," refers to the Temple in Jerusalem. "And of their detestable things therein," refers to the Hebrew idolaters who set up the idols in the Temple.)

21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the Earth for a spoil; and they shall pollute it. (This refers to the Temple and all of its ornaments being given to the Chaldeans, who were "strangers" to God.)

22 My face will I turn also from them, and they shall pollute My secret place: for the robbers shall enter into it, and defile it. ("My secret place" pertained to the "Holy of Holies," where resided the Ark of the Covenant, the Mercy Seat, and the Cherubim, and where God also resided. When Jerusalem fell, heathen Babylonians would come into this "Holy of Holies.")

THE SIGN OF A CHAIN SIGNIFYING CAPTIVITY AND JUDGMENT

[23] Make a chain: for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence. (The words, "Make a chain," are a symbolic prediction of the captivity, just as the "rod of wickedness" foretold the invasion of Verse 11.)

[24] Wherefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be defiled. (The "worst of the heathen" referred to the coming Babylonians. It is as if the Holy Spirit is saying of the religious leaders of Jerusalem, "You desire to practice evil; therefore, I will bring upon you those who are experts in this practice.")

[25] Destruction comes; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none. ("And they shall seek peace, and there shall be none," refers to overtures made to the Babylonian Generals, which were rejected!)

[26] Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumour shall be upon rumour; then shall they seek a vision of the Prophet; but the Law shall perish from the Priest, and counsel from the ancients. (On the very eve of destruction, the people of Jerusalem would turn to the "Prophet, Priest, and Elders." But, alas, these were corrupt. Consequently, no help would come from this source.)

[27] The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do unto them after their way, and according to their deserts will I judge them; and they shall know that I am the LORD. ("The king shall mourn," probably refers to Zedekiah. He rightly had something to mourn about, but he also was a weak individual, which would have exacerbated his mental state. "And the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled," refers to all commerce, political life, and business — down even to the day laborers. Everything would come to a grinding halt.)

A VISION OF THE ABOMINATIONS IN JERUSALEM

[1] And it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the Hand of the Lord GOD fell there upon me. (This is Ezekiel's second vision, or rather series of visions, and would take place "in the sixth year," referring to his sixth year of captivity, which was approximately five years before the destruction of Judah and Jerusalem. This Prophecy closes at Chapter 11.)

[2] Then I beheld, and lo a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of His loins even downward, fire; and from His loins even upward, as the appearance of brightness, as the colour of amber. (The fiery appearance that Ezekiel saw had the likeness of a man. He was the God of Israel and was accompanied by the Glory. And He it was Who spoke in vision to the Prophet.)

[3] And He put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between the Earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looks toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy. (All of this was in a vision. "The image of jealousy," was probably the "Asherah," which was set up close to the "Brazen Altar." This idol was upon a pedestal, wounding with jealousy the Love that shone forth in the Glory of God.

The phrase, "Provokes to jealousy," pertains to Ex. 34:12-14.)

[4] And, behold, the Glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain. (The Holy Spirit is careful to emphasize that it is "the Glory of the God of Israel" which they had forsaken for this stone

THE WORSHIP OF IDOLS AND IMAGES

5 Then said He unto me, Son of man, lift up your eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up my eyes the way toward the north, and behold northward at the gate of the Altar this image of jealousy in the entry. (Some of the religious leaders of Judah had placed this idol "at the gate of the Altar." This was the Brazen Altar, where the Temple Sacrifices were supposed to be offered for the sins of the people, typifying Calvary. How many "idols" presently have we added to the Cross? Humanistic psychology is definitely one. And any way other than "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" must also be construed as an idol.)

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, do you see what they do? even the great abominations that the House of Israel commits here, that I should go far off from My Sanctuary? but you turn yet again, and you shall see greater abominations. ("That I should go far off from My Sanctuary," refers to the Lord leaving the Temple as Ezekiel will shortly outline. This was now a "God-deserted" place. His visitation now would be one of Judgment, and as a Destroyer.)

7 And He brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold a hole in the wall. (The "door," in whatever capacity in the Temple, spoke of Christ. This "door," it seems, was boarded up with "a wall.")

8 Then said He unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door. (The Prophet was demanded to "dig now in the wall," i.e., "break down the wall," so that the door will be made plainly visible.)

9 And He said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here. (These "wicked abominations" were being conducted and carried out in the very Temple of God, which was His residing Place [I Cor. 3:16].)

10 So I went in and saw; and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the House of Israel, pourtrayed upon the wall round about. (This was during the time of the reign of Zedekiah, when he was endeavoring to bring about an alliance between himself and Pharaoh. To impress the Egyptians, he had allowed their worship to be brought into the Temple, which is described by the Holy Spirit as "creeping things and abominable beasts.")

[11] And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the House of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up. (In this chamber of Egyptian idolatry, in the very Temple itself, stood all the seventy members of the Hebrew Synod worshipping the loathsome reptiles portrayed on the walls. The deep pain of this scene is sharpened by the presence of Jaazaniah. His father, Shaphan, had taken part in the Godly reformation of Josiah [II Ki., Chpt. 22], and two of his brothers were friendly to Jeremiah [Jer. 26:24; 36:10, 25].)

[12] Then said He unto me, Son of man, have you seen what the ancients of the House of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, the LORD sees us not; the LORD has forsaken the Earth. (Men deny a future Judgment, and claim that God, if He exists at all, takes no active part in the affairs of man. They are terribly wrong on both counts, as was Judah of old!)

[13] He said also unto me, Turn you yet again and you shall see greater abominations that they do. (The degree of evil will now increase, as all evil must increase unless rooted out by Christ.)

WOMEN WEEPING FOR THEIR GOD, TAMMUZ

[14] Then He brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's House which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz. ("Tammuz" was a Phoenician deity. It was in July when the ceremonies concerning this supposed deity were to be conducted. The women were to pour themselves out in lamentations over the waxen image of a beautiful dead young man who had perished in his prime. As well, they were to engage in orgiastic joy over his return to life, which brought on the rainy season and the consequent revival of nature.)

15 Then said He unto me, Have you seen this, O son of man? turn you yet again, and you shall see greater abominations than these. (The only power in Heaven or Earth that can break the deadly cycle of sin is Faith in Christ and what He did for us at Calvary. That Alone sets the captive free!

The Catholic worship of the Virgin Mary, although with a change of names, is derived from the worship of Tammuz, which the Lord portrayed to Ezekiel as an abomination!)

THE WORSHIP OF THE SUN

16 And He brought me into the inner court of the LORD's House, and, behold, at the door of the Temple of the LORD, between the porch and the Altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the Temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east. (The final and most appalling form of idolatrous abomination was that of the High Priest and the Chiefs of the twenty-four courses of Aaron standing in the Holy Place in the Temple, with their backs to the Most Holy Place, worshipping the sun!

The sun-worship here is to have had a Persian character, as being offered to the sun itself as a solar god. Of such worship, traces are found in Deut. 4:19 and 17:3, Job 31:26, and II Ki. 23:5, 11; it was expressly forbidden.)

JUDGMENT FOR THESE SINS

17 Then He said unto me, Have you seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the House of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke Me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose. (Four times in the Hebrew Scriptures, the Holy Spirit addresses the Messiah as "the Branch," that is, as the Author of Life. Satan's parody of this was the "Asherah" — the Greek Phallus [a man's reproductive organ]. The ancients, in their efforts to reach back to the origin of life and worship it as a god, arrived at the lowest depth of moral and intellectual degradation by the institution of Phallic worship.

That this was the deepest depth of abomination is affirmed by the words of burning indignation: "Lo, they put the branch to My nose!" Or freely translated: "Look at them; they are thrusting the branch into My face!") 18 Therefore will I also deal in fury: My eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they cry in My ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them. (Idolatry blinds! The God of Glory was actually present in His Temple [Vs. 4], but the Priests and Elders declared He was not there. This blindness is affirmed again in the following Chapter [Vss. 3, 9].

Such blindness exists today. The heart that is governed by any form of idolatry, whether material, scientific, or philosophic, is insensible to fellowship with God, and cannot see His Glory as revealed in the Face of Jesus Christ [II Cor. 4:6].)

JUDGMENT COMMANDED; THE RIGHTEOUS MARKED FOR DELIVERANCE

[1] He cried also in my ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them who have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand. (One should consider the "loud voice" of Verse 18 of Chapter 8 with the "loud voice" in Verse 1 of this Chapter. The former "loud voice" represents an unrepentant heart which demands mercy, with the latter "loud voice" guaranteeing judgment.

The phrase, "Cause them who have charge over the city to draw near," refers to the seven supernatural beings who will mark each individual person for death or life, depending on their relationship with Christ. This gives us a view into the spirit world of the action of God concerning events.)

[2] And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, which lies toward the north, and every man a slaughter weapon in his hand; and one Man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side: and they went in, and stood beside the Brasen Altar. (These seven beings were evidently supernatural. Even though Ezekiel spoke of them as men, they were, in reality, Angels. Six were ministers of wrath and one of Grace. "And one Man among them was clothed with linen," seems to imply that He was part of the six. However, the original Hebrew sets Him apart from the six, making a total of seven. Because He was "clothed in linen," which symbolizes Righteousness, and because His Ministry was to set a Divine mark upon all who judged and bewailed the abominations that were practiced in the City and Temple, this white-robed Minister pictures Israel's True and Great High Priest, the Lord Jesus Christ [Rev., Chpts. 7, 14].)

3 And the Glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the Cherub, whereupon He was, to the threshold of the house. And He called to the Man clothed with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn by His side (the One doing the calling seems to be God the Father, while the One to Whom He called is God the Son)**;

4 And the LORD said unto Him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men who sigh and who cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof. (This refers to the entire righteous population which was small.)

THE DEATH OF THE GUILTY

5 And to the others He said in my hearing, Go you after Him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have you pity (the "others" refer to the "six" who were slated to mark for Judgment, as the "One" was slated to mark for Salvation and Protection)**:

6 Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at My Sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house. (These Angels did not actually kill these people, but only marked them for destruction; this action was unseen and unfelt by the individuals involved. The few who were marked for righteousness were to be spared.

"Begin at My Sanctuary," proclaims the fact that "Judgment begins at the House of God" [I Pet. 4:17]. There is a throb of anguished love in the words, "My Sanctuary.")

7 And He said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the dead: go you forth. And they went forth, and killed in the city. (As stated, the Judgment would begin at the House of God.)

8 And it came to pass, while they were killing them, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, Ah Lord GOD! will You destroy all the residue of Israel in Your pouring out of Your fury upon

Jerusalem? ("And I was left," refers to all the Priests marked for death except himself. As is obvious here, almost all the people, including the Priests, were marked for destruction.)

9 Then said He unto me, The iniquity of the House of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perverseness: for they say, the LORD has forsaken the Earth, and the LORD sees not. (While it is true that the Lord does not see the sins which are washed in the Blood of the Lamb, still, He most definitely sees the sins of the Believer which are unconfessed and for which there is no Repentance [Jn. 1:6-10].)

10 And as for Me also, My eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will recompense their way upon their head. (Three times it is declared that "pity" will not be shown [8:18; 9:5, 10]; but this is not the triple language of pleasure, but of agony. It is Love compelled to keep reminding itself of the sad necessity of Judgment.)

11 And, behold, the Man clothed with linen, which had the inkhorn by His side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as You have commanded Me. (As stated, "The Man clothed with linen" was most probably a pre-incarnate appearance of Christ [II Tim. 4:1]. "The inkhorn by His side" proclaims the names of the redeemed written in the "Lamb's Book of Life" [Rev. 20:15].)

CHAPTER 10

GOD'S GLORY DEPARTS FROM THE TEMPLE; DESCRIPTION OF THE CHERUBIM

[1] Then I looked, and, behold, in the firmament that was above the head of the Cherubims there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. (The departure of the Glory of God from the Temple is the Vision of this Chapter. It retires unwillingly. Its Throne was the Most Holy Place. This Chapter plus the next will show the God of Israel in lingering Love forsaking His City and Temple, not to return until 43:4, which yet lies in the future.

We also learn here that the "Living Creatures" are "Cherubims.")

[2] And He spoke unto the Man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the Cherub, and fill Your hand with coals of fire from between the Cherubims, and scatter them over the city. And He went in in my sight. (Righteousness is the foundation of Divine action, whether in Redemption or Judgment. He Who in Grace set the mark upon the redeemed also casts the burning fire upon the rebels. The Righteousness of God in His Judgment of sin at Calvary and in His Faithfulness in fulfilling His Promises to the Believer is the foundation of the Christian's assurance of Salvation. And it is the Righteousness of God which assures eternal condemnation to the rejecter of Christ.

The "coals of fire from between the Cherubims" are the same as 1:13. They signify God's Judgment against sin.)

[3] Now the Cherubims stood on the right side of the house, when the Man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. (The phrase, "And the cloud filled the inner court," was the same cloud that filled the house over 400 years before when Solomon dedicated the Temple [II Chron. 5:14]. Then it was coming, now it is going. The Reader must sense the great sadness that filled the heart of the Prophet as he observes this scene.)

4 Then the Glory of the LORD went up from the Cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's Glory. (As He leaves the Temple, the "Glory of the Lord" pauses "over the threshold of the house," which is its entrance. It is as if He does not want to go, but has no choice but to leave, because He is no longer wanted. One can literally feel the pathos of the heart of God in this description.)

5 And the sound of the Cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of the Almighty God when He speaks. (It is beautiful and yet amazing that the Holy Spirit uses the Name "Almighty God" respecting this event. In the Hebrew, it says "El Shaddai," which means "The Breasted One," or "The All-Sufficient One." But yet, Judah took no advantage at all of this One Who can meet every need.)

6 And it came to pass, that when He had commanded the Man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the Cherubims; then He went in, and stood beside the wheels.

7 And one Cherub stretched forth his hand from between the Cherubims unto the fire that was between the Cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of Him Who was clothed with linen: Who took it, and went out. (This is similar to what John saw when he spoke of the "Angel, who took a censer and filled it with the fire of the Altar, and cast it into the Earth" [Rev. 8:5].)

8 And there appeared in the Cherubims the form of a man's hand under their wings. (The detailed statement of Verses 8 through 22 is not a meaningless repetition of Chapter 1. What the Holy Spirit repeats claims the deeper attention of the Believer. Much instruction is suggested here. The God of Glory Who appeared to the obedient captives by the River Chebar in blessing was the very same God of Glory Who appeared in Judgment to the rebels at Jerusalem. This was quite opposed to the religious thinking of the citizens of that guilty city. They thought themselves blessed and the captives cursed.)

9 And when I looked, behold the four wheels by the Cherubims, one wheel by one Cherub, and another wheel by another Cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a beryl stone. (The indication is that the "wheels" have to do with direction because of the "eyes" [Vs. 12].)

10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel. (The "wheel in the middle of a wheel" simulates constant activity, referring to sure and certain direction.)

11 When they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went. ("Wheels" normally turn, but these do not: "they turned not as they went." "But to the place whither the head looked they followed it," refers to the "chief" or "principal" wheel, which it seems determined the course of the others.

All of this is beyond the comprehension of man. Even though it was given in vision to Ezekiel, still, the Lord did not explain any of these things concerning the Throne of God. So, Ezekiel just reported what he saw, without any explanation.)

12 And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had. (In 1:18, Ezekiel said that the "rings" or "rims" of the wheels were "full of eyes round about them four." However, in this Passage, he adds to it, saying that the "whole body" of the Cherubims, even including their "backs," "hands," and "wings," were "full of eyes round about.")

13 As for the wheels, it was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel. ("O wheel," should read, "As for the wheels, it was cried unto each one of them, 'Move!'" That is, each wheel was commanded to move in order to execute the Divine purpose.)

14 And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle. (This description is slightly different from the first, inasmuch as the "Cherub" was substituted for the "ox" [1:10]. Here, it is first in order instead of being, as there, the third. It is as though, in this second Vision, he recognizes that this was emphatically the Cherubic form. In other words, the face of the "ox," because of the Glory of the Lord, was made to look Cherubic.)

15 And the Cherubims were lifted up. This is the Living Creature that I saw by the river of Chebar.

16 And when the Cherubims went, the wheels went by them: and when the Cherubims lifted up their wings to mount up from the Earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them. (The "wheels" and the "wings" of the Cherubims all move as by one harmonious impulse.)

17 When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lifted up themselves also: for the Spirit of the Living Creature was in them. ("For the Spirit of the Living Creature was in them," implies the Holy Spirit, as it does in 1:20.)

18 Then the Glory of the LORD departed from off the threshold of the house, and stood over the Cherubims. (This portrays the Holy Spirit leaving the Temple in Jerusalem. One is reminded of the wife of Phinehas, who, shortly before she died, "named the child Ichabod, saying, The Glory is departed from Israel" [I Sam. 4:21].)

19 And the Cherubims lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the Earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were beside them, and every one stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD's House; and the Glory of the God of Israel was over them above. (This describes the place of departure of the "Glory of the Lord" and also of its return, as described in 43:4, which has not yet happened, but most surely will, when the Temple is restored after the Second Coming of Christ.)

20 This is the Living Creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were the Cherubims. ("This is the Living Creature that I saw under the God of Israel," refers to the Cherubim being a part of the Throne of God, which is borne out by John the Beloved [Rev. 4:6-11].)

[21] Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. (The difference in John's description and Ezekiel's is that John's has six wings, whereas Ezekiel's has four wings [Rev. 4:8].)

[22] And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: they went every one straight forward. (The phrase, "They went every one straight forward," signifies that with "the Father of Lights there is no variableness, neither shadow of turning" [James 1:17].)

EVIL PRINCES REBUKED

[1] Moreover the Spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto the east gate of the LORD's house, which looks eastward: and behold at the door of the gate five and twenty men; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people. ("Moreover the Spirit lifted me up," refers to the Holy Spirit. Three times it says the Spirit lifted up the Prophet [3:14; 8:3; 11:1]. It also says that it carried him [37:1]. The "five and twenty men" could have been those mentioned in 8:16. However, those were probably Priests, and at least two of these are named as "princes of the people." Irrespective of who they were, they represented rebellion against God.)

[2] Then said He unto me, Son of man, these are the men who devise mischief, and give wicked counsel in this city ("And give wicked counsel in this city," referred to any counsel which contradicted the Prophecies of Jeremiah and Ezekiel, but mostly referred to Jeremiah, because he was the one prophesying in Jerusalem. These men denied any coming invasion by the Babylonians, and that their city would be destroyed, along with the Temple)**:

[3] Which say, It is not near; let us build houses: this city is the caldron, and we be the flesh. ("This city is the caldron, and we be the flesh," refers to the claims by these false prophets that the inhabitants of Jerusalem were as secure as if surrounded by iron.)

JUDGMENT ANNOUNCED

[4] Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man. (The Holy Spirit tells the Prophet to strongly oppose the false message of these false prophets. So much for those who claim that such Preaching should not be brought forth.)

5 And the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak; Thus says the LORD; Thus have you said, O House of Israel: for I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them. (The Omniscience of the Lord is brought forth in this statement, "For I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them." This is in response to Judah's statement, "The Lord has forsaken the Earth, and the Lord sees not" [9:9].)

6 You have multiplied your dead in this city, and you have filled the streets thereof with the dead. (The idea of this Verse is that the terrible destruction coming upon Jerusalem is not the fault of God, but the fault of the spiritual leaders in their rebellion against God. Therefore, the Lord lays the blame at their feet.)

7 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; Your dead whom you have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron: but I will bring you forth out of the midst of it. (The princes declared this city to have a ring of iron around it, i.e., they claimed it was what one might call impregnable. It was instead to be a boiling pot, i.e., "cauldron," and the people in it as boiling "flesh." As a result, the "dead" would be many.

"But I will bring you forth out of the midst of it," concerns some of the princes, if not all, who would be taken captive to Riblah and there put to death.)

8 You have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, says the Lord GOD. (Observing the Babylonian Empire seeking to extend its borders, and having already suffered two deportations, the Nobles of Judah and Jerusalem, despite their bluster and bravado, feared the oncoming horde. They were well aware of the ferociousness of the Babylonians, and rightly "feared the sword.")

9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you. ("And I will bring you out of the midst thereof," refers back to the words of Moses. He said, "That the land spue not you out also, when you defile it, as it spued out the nations that were before you" [Lev. 18:28].)

10 You shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and you shall know that I am the LORD. ("I will judge you in the border of Israel," refers to the princes being carried to Riblah and there put to death.)

11 This city shall not be your caldron (fortress), neither shall you be the flesh in the midst thereof (protected in the fortress); but I will judge you in the border of Israel (the Lord was not speaking here of the majority of the population of the city, but of the king and many of the nobles who thought they may escape):

12 And you shall know that I am the LORD: for you have not walked in My Statutes, neither executed My Judgments, but have done after the manners of the heathen who are round about you. (The Believer is "in" the world, but he is not to be "of" the world!)

THE PROMISE OF RESTORATION AND RENEWAL

13 And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord GOD! will You make a full end of the remnant of Israel? (Pelatiah, evidently, was one of the leaders of those who "gave wicked counsel in Jerusalem" [Vss. 1-2]. The emphasis is that his death was a judgment from God.)

14 Again the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

15 Son of man, your brethren, even your brethren, the men of your kindred, and all the House of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from the LORD: unto us is this land given in possession. (Ezekiel is comforted by the Message that his real brethren and kindred were the captives in Babylon, at least those who truly served the Lord, and not the Priests in Jerusalem, who had proudly said to the Exiles, "You are far from the Lord, for this land is given unto us in possession!") 16 Therefore say, Thus says the Lord GOD; Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as a little Sanctuary in the countries where they shall come. (The comfort the Lord gave Ezekiel was deepened by the Prophecy that though the captives had no material Temple, yet God Himself would be to them a Sanctuary for the "little while" their exile was to last, i.e., the predicted seventy years.

The idea is: it is "The Presence of Jehovah" that makes the Sanctuary, and not the Sanctuary that secures the Presence.)

17 Therefore say, Thus says the Lord GOD; I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel. (This was fulfilled partially upon the return of the Exiles some seventy years after the first deportation; however, its total fulfillment yet speaks of a future time, which will actually take place in the coming Kingdom Age.)

18 And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof and all the abominations thereof from thence. (Once again, this Prophecy will be fulfilled totally after the Second Coming of Christ.)

19 And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh *(this will be fulfilled at Christ's Second Coming and the acceptance of Him as their Saviour):

20 That they may walk in My Statutes, and keep My Ordinances, and do them: and they shall be My People, and I will be their God.

21 But as for them whose heart walks after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own heads, says the Lord GOD. (This Verse now returns to the present and Israel's rebellion against the Lord.)

22 Then did the Cherubims lift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the Glory of the God of Israel was over them above. ("The Glory of the God of Israel" was the strength of this Land, City, Temple, and people, and yet they little knew or understood it. They are now about to lose it.)

23 And the Glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city. ("The mountain which is on the east side of the city" is the Mount of Olivet. "And the Glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city," denotes a reluctance to leave. However, the Holy Spirit is no longer wanted or desired; therefore, He has no choice but to leave.

Having reluctantly left the Temple, the Glory then forsook the city, lingering for a while with sorrowing Love upon this Mountain. But the Glory returned to that Mount, veiled in the sinless flesh of the Messiah; once more Love looked upon the Beloved but rebellious City and wept over it [Lk. 19:41].

A few weeks later, Christ ascended from that same Mountain; and yet, in a future day, in the Glory of His Second Advent, His Feet shall stand, once again, upon it [Zech. 14:4]. Then shall Israel have one heart and a new spirit.)

24 Afterwards the Spirit took me up, and brought me in a Vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the Vision that I had seen went up from me. ("And brought me in a Vision," denotes the fact that Ezekiel did not go to Jerusalem literally, but only in a "Vision.")

25 Then I spoke unto them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shown me. (As Ezekiel related to his compatriots what the Lord had shown him, they were no doubt very much comforted with the wonderful revelation that Israel's God of Glory was in their midst as a Sanctuary, a True and Pure Temple; that He would continue to be so for the entire period of the captivity; that He shared their Exile with them; and that He would certainly restore them to the homeland.)

(594 B.C.)

SIGNS AND SYMBOLS — PROPHECIES OF BABYLONIAN CAPTIVITY

1 The Word of the LORD also came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, you dwell in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house. (The idea, as given by the Holy Spirit, is that they had "spiritual eyes," but refused to see, and "spiritual ears," but refused to hear.)

3 Therefore, you son of man, prepare you stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and you shall remove from your place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house. (The teaching by Vision ceases, and now that of direct message or symbolic acts are resumed. In this object lesson, the Prophet predicted the attempted escape and capture of king Zedekiah. The Prophecy preceded the event by about five years.

Ezekiel was commanded to make a bundle as for a journey, which was to portray the futile attempt of king Zedekiah to escape. There is every reason to believe that Zedekiah received this Message from Ezekiel, but, sadly, refused it.)

4 Then shall you bring forth your stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing: and you shall go forth at evening in their sight, as they who go forth into captivity. (The "stuff" represented the baggage of Zedekiah, which would be gathered for the escape attempt.)

5 Dig you through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby. (The Prophet, in his object lesson, was not to take the "stuff" through the door of the house, but instead "dig through the wall," thus illustrating Zedekiah's escape attempt by going through a broken part of the wall of Jerusalem.)

6 In their sight shall you bear it upon your shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: you shall cover your face, that you see not the ground: for I have set you for a sign unto the House of Israel. (What must have been Zedekiah's response when he read these predictions from Ezekiel, as he, at the same time, heard the similar Prophecies of Jeremiah?)

7 And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the evening I dug through the wall with my hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bore it upon my shoulder in their sight. (I wonder how many of the people took this lesson seriously, and how many ridiculed the "sensationalism" of the Prophet?)

8 And in the morning came the Word of the LORD unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, has not the House of Israel, the rebellious house, said unto you, What doest thou? (Even though the Prophet carried out what the Lord told him to do, still, it seems that at this passage of time, he little knew what it represented; therefore, he had to tell them that he would wait and see what the Lord told him, which was soon coming, actually the next "morning.")

10 Say you unto them, Thus says the Lord GOD; This burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem, and all the House of Israel that are among them. (The phrase, "This burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem," referred to Zedekiah. The word "prince" [instead of "king"] was used by the Holy Spirit because, at least in the Mind of God, Zedekiah was not the true king of Judah, only one who served as a stopgap measure. In the Mind of God, Jehoiachin was the last king, at least in the line of David — the line which was absolutely necessary to sit on the Throne. Actually, Zedekiah was Jehoiachin's uncle, with the word "brother," at least in this account, meaning "next of kin" [II Chron. 36:10].)

11 Say, I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them:

they shall remove and go into captivity. ("Say, I am your sign," referred to Ezekiel and the captives, who were a "sign" to the people in Judah and Jerusalem, meaning that as they had been brought into captivity, "so shall it be done unto them," i.e., Jerusalem will be taken captive.)

12 And the prince who is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes. (The minute detail in which this was given to Ezekiel is startling indeed! However, it should be quickly stated that it was done out of Love by God for the king in Jerusalem, but still unheeded.)

13 My net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in My snare: and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there. (All, as fore-pictured, came to pass [II Ki., Chpt. 25; Jer., Chpt. 39]. Zedekiah, disguised so as not to be recognized, and with a few articles for the journey, forsook the city by night through a hole made in the city wall, and fled to the plains of Jericho. But God, using the Chaldean army as a net, captured him and brought him to Riblah; they put out his eyes and transported him to Babylon, where he died.

Josephus said that this Prophecy was sent to Zedekiah. But he declared that Jeremiah contradicted Verse 13 of this Chapter, because it stated that he should not see Babylon, and Jeremiah predicted he would be carried there. He, therefore, concluded to believe neither [Jer. 24:8-9].)

14 And I will scatter toward every wind all who are about him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them. (Thus, the false expectations of the captives that they would be immediately restored to their native land and the equally false expectations of the people of Jerusalem that they would never be conquered by the Babylonians were all destroyed by the symbolic Prophesy of these Verses.

Just as did Zedekiah, Ahab, many years before, tried, but in vain, to outwit God. Their actions were the more wicked because God, in His Love and pity, told them beforehand their fate if they persisted in their folly. He did not want them to perish.)

15 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries. (All who refused to flee from the Wrath to come must get to know God in Judgment. Those who obeyed the Commands shall get to know Him in Grace, as the next Verse implies.)

A REMNANT SAVED

16 But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the LORD. (The few reserved from destruction were spared that they might vindicate God's action by informing the nations of the abominations which justified it. Dan. 9:5-14 illustrates this prediction.)

EATING AND DRINKING IN DESPAIR

17 Moreover the Word of the LORD came to me, saying,

18 Son of man, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and with carefulness (all of this was in order to symbolize the coming judgment upon Judah and Jerusalem)**;

19 And say unto the people of the land, Thus says the Lord GOD of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel; They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may be desolate from all that is therein, because of the violence of all them who dwell therein. (The phrase, "Because of the violence of all them who dwell therein," refers to the reason for the Judgment. When the Lord is denied, Mercy and Grace are no more, with men's attitudes, actions, and efforts then becoming "violent.")

20 And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate; and you shall know that I am the LORD. ("Waste" and "desolation" are the two words describing that which is soon to come.)

GOD WILL EXECUTE SPEEDY JUDGMENT

21 And the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

22 Son of man, what is that proverb that you have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision fails? (So corrupt and unbelieving is man that he turns the patience and longsuffering of God into a mocking proverb.)

23 Tell them therefore, Thus says the Lord GOD; I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, The days are at hand, and the effect of every vision. (The Lord tells the Prophet to institute a new proverb: "The days are at hand when the true vision will be fulfilled." In other words, the true vision will not fail; it is at hand; every word will be fulfilled in total reality.)

24 For there shall be no more any vain vision nor flattering divination within the House of Israel. (The "vain vision" and "flattering divination" pertain to the messages of the false prophets. The Holy Spirit is saying that soon their messages will be shown to be what they really are: lies.)

25 For I am the LORD: I will speak, and the Word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the Word, and will perform it, says the Lord GOD. (God's Word is looked at even above His Name. It has the guarantee of His Power behind it in order that it be fulfilled [Ps. 138:2].)

26 Again the Word of the LORD came to me, saying,

27 Son of man, behold, they of the House of Israel say, The vision that he sees is for many days to come, and he prophesies of the times that are far off. (Those in exile with Ezekiel did not call him a false prophet, but instead said that his Prophecies little concerned the present, but rather pertained to the distant future. In other words, they desired to believe the false prophets who proclaimed that the Exiles would be restored to Judah within a matter of months.)

28 Therefore say unto them, Thus says the Lord GOD; There shall none of My Words be prolonged any more, but the Word which I have spoken shall be done, says the Lord GOD. (This statement insinuates that the fulfillment of the Prophecies of Judgment had in fact been "prolonged" in order that Judah and Jerusalem may repent, but to no avail! Now, the Holy Spirit says, "The prolonging has ended.")

CHAPTER 13

FALSE PROPHETS CONDEMNED

[1] And the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

[2] Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say you unto them who prophesy out of their own hearts, Hear you the Word of the LORD (as there were false prophets and prophetesses in Jerusalem, there were such among the Exiles, as well! The Holy Spirit will now direct His attention to them in no uncertain terms!)**;

[3] Thus says the Lord GOD; Woe unto the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing! (The phrase, "Who follow their own spirit," means that they did not follow the Holy Spirit. They preached what the people wished to hear, in this case a speedy restoration to the Land of Judah.)

[4] O Israel, your prophets are like the foxes in the deserts. (Foxes made their homes in the desert among ruins. The false prophets likewise made financial profit out of the ruin of Israel, and, in effect, made that ruin worse.)

[5] You have not gone up into the gaps, neither made up the hedge for the House of Israel to stand in the battle in the day of the LORD. (These "foolish prophets" made merchandise of the time by telling the people a lie instead of the truth. They made them feel comfortable in their sins, and further told them that peace and prosperity were just around the corner. This slandered the Prophecies of Jeremiah and Ezekiel, and in effect also slandered God.)

and the LORD has not sent them: and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word. (The phrase, "They have seen vanity and lying divination," means that they have believed their own lies and have tried to confirm their own predictions. They did so by claiming, "The LORD says," when in fact "the LORD has not sent them," and had not said anything to them.)

7 Have you not seen a vain vision, and have you not spoken a lying divination, whereas you say, The LORD said it; albeit I have not spoken? (The Lord called the utterances of these false prophets "a vain vision" and "lying divinations." Regrettably, it is the same presently in the modern Church. False prophets abound!)

8 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; Because you have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, says the Lord GOD. (The word "vanity" means "empty nothings," which constituted the messages of these individuals. As well, they "saw lies," because they did not see the Word of God.)

9 And My hand shall be upon the prophets who see vanity, and who divine lies: they shall not be in the assembly of My People, neither shall they be written in the writing of the House of Israel, neither shall they enter into the Land of Israel; and you shall know that I am the Lord GOD. (The Judgment denounced against these prophets was that on the restoration of Israel, which would ultimately come to pass, they shall be excluded from the Church and people and the Land of Israel, so their names should be blotted out of the Book of Life. In other words, they lost their souls!)

10 Because, even because they have seduced My People, saying, Peace; and there was no peace; and one built up a wall, and, lo, others daubed it with untempered morter (there is a seduction about false doctrine, because it tells the people what they want to hear instead of what they need to hear)**:

11 Say unto them which daub it with untempered morter, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and you, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it. (Christ said that the storms are coming, and only the house that is built on the Rock will stand. Quite possibly, Christ had this very Passage in mind when He uttered His Words in Mat., Chpt. 7.)

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith you have daubed it? (The false message of peace given by the false prophets was likened to a wall that was built with "untempered mortar," which has to do with mortar that will not hold the stones together; it is, in fact, only mud which quickly dries, losing its holding ability. When this wall falls, symbolically speaking, the people who had been seduced by the false message will then question the false prophet, but it's too late. They should have questioned what they heard in the beginning.)

13 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; I will even rend it with a stormy wind in My fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in My anger, and great hailstones in My fury to consume it. (The thoughts of the Lord regarding these false prophets can be summed up in the word used twice in this Verse: "fury"!)

14 So will I break down the wall that you have daubed with untempered morter, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and you shall be consumed in the midst thereof: and you shall know that I am the LORD. (The mud-house then and the mud-house now are both built by those who do not desire to obey God or His Word; they are being "whitened," falsely so, by "modern Preachers.")

15 Thus will I accomplish My wrath upon the wall, and upon them who have daubed it with untempered morter, and will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither they who daubed it (the phrase, "Thus will I accomplish My wrath upon the wall," refers to God's Anger against all that is false)**;

16 To wit, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, says the Lord

GOD. (As far as is known, at least at this time, Jeremiah and Ezekiel were the only two Prophets being used of God concerning the fate of Judah and Jerusalem. Daniel was being used mightily at this time, but in another capacity. However, the "prophets" spoken of here seem to have been many, even as the false prophets abound presently.)

THE SINS OF THE PROPHETESSES

17 Likewise, you son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy you against them. (In addition to the false prophets, there were false prophetesses. Ezekiel was told, "Prophesy against them." In the modern Church that is a "no-no." But according to the Word of God, somebody has to stand up and say, "That's right," or "That's wrong"!)

18 And say, Thus says the Lord GOD; Woe to the women who sew pillows to all armholes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature to hunt souls! Will you hunt the souls of My People, and will you save the souls alive who come unto you? (The "wall" of Verses 10 through 15 was not literal; it was instead meant to symbolize false teaching. Likewise, the "pillows" and "kerchiefs" of this Verse are symbolic, as well. The implication is that the men prophets built the house, and the women prophets furnished it. The "pillows" symbolize the teaching which gave a false rest, and which the people wished to hear. The ornamental coverings for the head picture attractive and pleasing doctrines which obscure the facts of death and the judgment to come.)

19 And will you pollute Me among My People for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls who should not die, and to save the souls alive who should not live, by your lying to My People who hear your lies? (The idea of this Verse is that false prophetesses were selling out cheap, i.e., "handfuls of barley and pieces of bread." However, irrespective of the amount of money, fame, or popularity received for the false divination, still, the idea of selling their lies in the Name of the Lord would bring a judicial judgment upon their heads.)

THEIR JUDGMENT

[20] Wherefore thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith you there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that you hunt to make them fly. ("To make them fly," refers to making their hearers fly into their nets of bondage so that they might plunder them. "And I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go," refers to the people being "delivered out of the snare of the fowler" [Ps. 91:3; 124:7]. These people would no longer be in the power of those who traded on their credulity.)

[21] Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver My People out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and you shall know that I am the LORD. (The idea of this Verse is that even though the people have been deceived by these false prophets and prophetesses, yet the Lord has promised to so move and "deliver My People out of your hand." As well, there is to be absolutely no doubt as to Who has done this. "You shall know that I am the LORD.")

[22] Because with lies you have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life (the heart of Ezekiel was saddened greatly by the false message of these individuals who "strengthened the hands of the wicked" by promising them eternal life without them having to forsake their evil way. As well, such characterizes most modern Churches. It should sadden "the heart of the righteous")**:

[23] Therefore you shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will deliver My People out of your hand: and you shall know that I am the LORD. (This was certainly accomplished by the few who were delivered when Judah and Jerusalem were destroyed. Still, its total fulfillment awaits a future date.)

THE HYPOCRISY AND IDOLATRY OF THE ELDERS

[1] Then came certain of the Elders of Israel unto me, and sat before me. (The "Elders of Israel" concerned those among the captives.)

[2] And the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

[3] Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: should I be enquired of at all by them? (The phrase, "These men have set up their idols in their heart," goes to the very seat of the problem. The statement means that these Elders were hankering after the old false worship in which they had once taken part. They had left Egypt, so to speak, but Egypt was still in them. In fact, this one Verse characterizes so much of modern Christianity. The "idol" in the heart was just as real as if they had been falling down to false gods as did the heathen.)

[4] Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus says the Lord GOD; Every man of the House of Israel who sets up his idols in his heart, and puts the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the Prophet; I the LORD will answer him who comes according to the multitude of his idols (God can have no fellowship with evil. He, therefore, not only refuses to answer such prayers, but He replies to them with just judgments. Let me quickly state: Any object of faith other than "Christ and Him Crucified" is constituted by the Lord as an "idol" [I Jn. 5:21])**;

[5] That I may take the House of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from Me through their idols. (However fair the outward profession of faith in God may be, the Holy Spirit can unmask the evil lodged within the heart.)

6 Therefore say unto the House of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD; Repent, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations. (God loved and pitied these hypocrites and the fact of this Love added to the certitude and horror of the just doom that was impending over them. He cried to them to repent, no longer to keep far from Him, and He would receive and acknowledge them as "My People.")

7 For every one of the House of Israel, or of the stranger who sojourns in Israel, who separates himself from Me, and sets up his idols in his heart, and puts the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and comes to a prophet to enquire of him concerning me; I the LORD will answer him by Myself (the idea is: these particular individuals wanted help from God, but did not want to rid themselves of their sins. "I the LORD will answer him by Myself," is found in the next Verse; however, it means that one cannot hold to God with one hand while holding to the world with the other)**:

JUDGMENT ON THE IDOLATERS

8 And I will set My face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of My People; and you shall know that I am the LORD. (The threatenings in this Prophecy are, in substance and language, all found in Leviticus and Deuteronomy. This Passage, as so many others, completely refutes the unscriptural doctrine of "Unconditional Eternal Security." "I will cut him off from the midst of My People," says, at the same time, that for one to be "cut off," one has to first of all be attached.)

JUDGMENT ON THE FALSE PROPHETS

9 And if the prophet be deceived when he has spoken a thing, I the LORD have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out My hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of My People Israel. ("I the LORD have deceived that prophet," actually means that the Lord permitted that prophet to be deceived, and actually aided the process, because this is what the prophet wanted. It is most just that God should cause one who deceives others to himself be deceived. The history of Jacob illustrates this moral principle.)

[10] And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him who seeks unto him (both the false prophet and his hearers can expect judgment. This is a clear condemnation, not only to the false prophet, but also to those who entertain and support his false message);

[11] That the House of Israel may go no more astray from Me, neither be polluted any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be My People, and I may be their God, says the Lord GOD. (The heart of God beats in this Verse. It is the cry of the Holy Spirit that all "transgressions" be put away, and that these people "may be My people, and I may be their God." This will eventually be realized in the New Earth [Rev. 21:3-7; 22:3].)

JUDGMENTS ON JERUSALEM

[12] The Word of the LORD came again to me, saying (here, a new section of Prophecy begins. What follows is strikingly similar to Jer. 15:1-2),

[13] Son of man, when the land sins against Me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out My hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it (we find from this Verse that the prosperity of a nation is directly linked to the spiritual prosperity of its people):

[14] Though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls, by their righteousness, says the Lord GOD. (In Jer. 15:1, Jerusalem was told that the Intercession of Moses and Samuel [Ex. 32:11-14; Num. 14:13-20; I Sam. 7:8-12] would fail to revert her coming doom. In this Chapter it is added that the presence of Noah, Daniel, and Job would also fail to preserve it from destruction. From this, we learn that sinners cannot be saved by the righteousness of others.)

[15] If I cause noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts (the four sore judgments mentioned in this Chapter are: famine [Vs. 13], wild beasts [Vs. 15], war [Vs. 17], and pestilence [Vs. 19])**:

[16] Though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only shall be delivered, but the land shall be desolate. (Once again, let us state: the righteousness of others cannot save the sinner. He must personally come to the Lord and be Born-Again [Jn. 3:3].)

[17] Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off man and beast from it (anytime war comes to a people or a nation, this Passage plus others tell us that the Lord allows such because of the wickedness of the people. As well, it proclaims that the Godly, by their Godly lives and Intercession, can at times hold off such. However, the wickedness of a people can become so great that even the righteous cannot hold back the judgment)**:

[18] Though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves. (Four times the Holy Spirit repeats this phraseology [Vss. 14, 16, 18, 20]. Such repetition is meant to impress upon all the severity of the situation.)

[19] Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out My fury upon it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast (in the Hebrew, the word "blood" expresses every kind of unnatural death)**:

[20] Though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness. (The Lord testifies here to the Righteousness of Noah, Daniel, and Job. Of the three, Daniel was still alive.)

[21] For thus says the Lord GOD; How much more when I send my four sore judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword and the famine, and the noisome beast, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast? (The argument of this Verse is that if these three men could not turn aside one judgment, how could they turn aside four sore ones?)

22 Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be brought forth, both sons and daughters: behold, they shall come forth unto you, and you shall see their way and their doings: and you shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it. (The "remnant" addressed here concerns the few who would be saved from the judgments of Verse 21 and brought as captives to Babylonia. This means that the nation will be spared. And so it has been!)

23 And they shall comfort you, when you see their ways and their doings: and you shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, says the Lord GOD. (No doubt many of the faithful captives had very near and dear relatives who were still living in Jerusalem. That the Wrath of God should fall on these must have perplexed and deeply agitated the Exiles. But when they were told of the evil and wickedness of Jerusalem, even among its spiritual leaders, they were comforted concerning the evil that God would bring upon them.)

JERUSALEM LIKE A USELESS VINE: CONSUMED, SIGNIFYING JUDGMENT

[1] And the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

[2] Son of man, What is the vine tree more than any tree, or than a branch which is among the trees of the forest? (In the Scriptures, Israel is symbolized as a "Vine," as an "Olive," and as a "Fig Tree." The "Vine" symbolized spiritual privilege. The one and only business of the Vine is to bear grapes. Otherwise it is worthless, except as fire wood [Jn. 15:6]. Israel was the Vine brought out of Egypt, whose one duty and privilege was to bear moral fruit unto God [Mat. 21:33-46].

The question, "What is the Vine Tree more than any tree?", refers to the truth that if the Vine does not bring forth fruit, it is not even as valuable as any other tree in the forest. Its sole function is to bear fruit.)

[3] Shall wood be taken thereof to do any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon? (The analogy drawn by the Holy Spirit is that the Vine can be used for nothing except to bear fruit. It is useless and valueless even as timber, and actually not fit to even make simple pegs "on which to hang a vessel.")

[4] Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire devours both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burned. Is it meet for any work? ("Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel," refers to the judgment that was coming to this "Vine" because of sin. "And the midst of it is burned," refers to Jerusalem, which was then on the eve of being burned by the Chaldeans.

The question, "Is it meet for any work?", refers to the Work of God, and is answered in the next Verse.)

5 Behold, when it was whole, it was meet for no work: how much less shall it be meet yet for any work, when the fire has devoured it, and it is burned? (Before Jerusalem was burned, it was useless as a moral agent; therefore, it was wholly useless when burned. Its total purpose was to be a reflector of the Light of Christ. With the reflector marred because of sin, Israel was of no more use.)

6 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. (II Ki. 25:9 records the fulfillment of this prediction.)

7 And I will set My face against them; they shall go out from one fire, and another fire shall devour them; and you shall know that I am the LORD, when I set My face against them. ("They shall go out from one fire," referred to the destruction of Jerusalem, when multitudes perished. "And another fire shall devour them," referred to the captivity, during which much of the residue perished.)

8 And I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass, sa ys the Lord GOD. (The cause of their doom is declared in this Verse. They perversely fell into determined rebellion. In other words, they sinned against Light. Consequently, they were not merely sinners, as the surrounding nations; they were worse, for they were apostates, transgressors, and rebels. They sinned against Light, for to them alone had been given the Law, i.e., "the Bible.")

(594 B.C.)

THE SIGN OF A CHILD; JERUSALEM, A FOUNDLING

[1] Again the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

[2] Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations ("Jerusalem" is the subject, because she, as the capital and where the Temple was located, answers for the entirety of Judah)**,

[3] And say, Thus says the Lord GOD unto Jerusalem; Your birth and your nativity is of the land of Canaan; your father was an Amorite, and your mother an Hittite. (The phrase, "Your birth and your nativity," refers to her origin, which was not heavenly, but earthly. Such is said because religious pride had so filled Jerusalem, as she held herself spiritually far above other cities and nations, that she no longer saw herself for what she really was. With a piercing blow, the Holy Spirit through the Prophet strikes at her pride, saying, "Your birth is of the land of Canaan.")

[4] And as for your nativity, in the day you were born your navel was not cut, neither were you washed in water to supple you; you were not salted at all, nor swaddled at all. (The interpretation of this Prophecy belongs to that city and nation, but in application truly describes the moral condition of all men by natural birth; for these Verses give a true picture of man's essential corruption.)

[5] No eye pitied you, to do any of these unto you, to have compassion upon you; but you were cast out in the open field, to the loathing of your person, in the day that you were born. ("No eye pitied you," refers to all the surrounding nations, from then until now.")

[6] And when I passed by you, and saw you polluted in your own blood, I said unto you when you were in your blood, Live; yes, I said unto you when you were in your blood, Live. (The Grace of the Redeemer, in loving such a foul being, in making her His Bride, and in giving her such a priceless trousseau, surpasses all human experience.)

7 I have caused you to multiply as the bud of the field, and you have increased and waxed great, and you are come to excellent ornaments: your breasts are fashioned, and your hair is grown, whereas you were naked and bare. (Israel really never became a nation until the advent of David as king. Under Saul, who was man's choice [as David was God's choice], Israel little came together as a unified people. Only under David, of which these Passages speak, did Israel become a cohesive unity.

"And you are come to excellent ornaments," refers to the Ark of the Covenant, and ultimately the Temple, where God dwelt. No other nation in the world was blessed with such "excellent ornaments," which also inspired the enmity of the nations.

"Your breasts are fashioned," referred to her spiritual maturity, in that she was to nurture the nations of the world in the knowledge of God. Sadly, in this she failed!)

GOD RESCUES HER

8 Now when I passed by you, and looked upon you, behold, your time was the time of love; and I spread My skirt over you, and covered your nakedness: yes, I swore unto you, and entered into a Covenant with you, says the Lord GOD, and you became Mine. ("And I spread My skirt over you, and covered your nakedness," is illustrated by Ruth lying at the feet of Boaz [Ruth 3:9]. The "Covenant" into which the Lord entered with Israel was actually the Covenant of Ex. 24:7-8. All of this is also spelled out in Deut., Chpt. 28. There, the positives and negatives of the Covenant are given. The Lord never broke the Covenant, but Israel did, and repeatedly! God's fidelity to the Covenant is enjoined in the words, "I swore unto you, and entered into a Covenant with you.")

9 Then washed I you with water; ye s, I thoroughly washed away your blood from you, and I anointed you with oil. (The "water" refers to the Word of God, and the "oil" refers to the Holy Spirit, which Israel alone of the nations had.)

[10] I clothed you also with broidered work, and shod you with badgers' skin, and I girded you about with fine linen, and I covered you with silk. (This Passage speaks of the following:

A. "I clothed you with broidered work": speaks of the "Garment of Praise" [Isa. 61:3];

B. "I shod you with badgers' skin": a type of the Incarnation of Christ;

C. "I girded you about with fine linen": speaks of Righteousness;

D. "I covered you with silk": prosperity!)

[11] I decked you also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon your hands, and a chain on your neck. (More gifts:

E. "I decked you also with ornaments": this consisted of the holy utensils used in the Temple for the worship of Jehovah;

F. "And I put bracelets upon your hands": this speaks of the Blessings of God;

G. "And a chain upon your neck": this typifies the umbilical cord to Christ.)

[12] And I put a jewel on your forehead, and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown upon your head. (Gifts continue:

H. "And I put a jewel in your forehead": this speaks of possession, and means that Israel belonged solely to the Lord;

I. "And earrings in your ears": this signifies that they were to hear only His Voice;

J. "And a beautiful crown upon your head": as such, they were signified as the head of all nations.)

13 Thus were you decked with gold and silver; and your raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and broidered work; you did eat fine flour, and honey, and oil: and you were exceeding beautiful, and you did prosper into a kingdom. (The blessings continue:

K. "Thus were you decked with gold and silver": the gold spoke of Deity, and the silver spoke of Redemption. Jehovah was their Head and He had redeemed them;

L. "You did eat fine flour": such portrays the Incarnation of the spotless Son of God;

M. "And honey": typified the sweet "Word of God" [Ps. 119:103];

N. "And oil": as would be obvious, typifies the Holy Spirit, which is the second time He is typified, denoting great help [Vs. 9];

O. "And you were exceeding beautiful": they were the nation of nations; however, all of their blessing and beauty came totally and solely from the Lord;

P. "And you did prosper into a kingdom": under David and Solomon they became the most powerful nation in the world.)

14 And your renown went forth among the heathen for your beauty: for it was perfect through My comeliness, which I had put upon you, says the Lord GOD. (That a mighty Prince should make of an abandoned infant His Queen is amazing. But what adds to the wonder of it all is that this Divine Prince knew beforehand that His Bride would forsake Him and ultimately betray Him and crucify Him.

Such affection is impossible among men, for when a man adopts a child, he hopes for a recompense in the love of the child; but who would adopt a child knowing beforehand that the child would hate and murder its benefactor?

The Love that provided such a marriage, as described in Verses 10 through 14, is a Love that passes knowledge.)

THE FOUNDLING BECOMES A PROSTITUTE: THE SINS OF JUDAH

15 But you did trust in your own beauty, and played the harlot because of your renown, and poured out your fornications on every one who passed by; his it was. (The two especially horrible features of the impure and cruel forms of idolatry to which Jerusalem madly gave herself are described in Verses 15 through 34. They were impure; for in her frenzied rage for idol worship, she especially adopted the idolatries of Egypt and Chaldea, both characterized by obscenity. The cruelty of her favored form of worship was the burning alive of little children in honor of the idol god, Moloch.)

16 And of your garments you did take, and decked your high places with divers colours, and played the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so. (The phrase, "The like things shall not come, neither shall it be so," refers to a frenzied fervor of debauchery that has never been witnessed before, at least to this degree, and shall never again be witnessed!)

17 You have also taken your fair jewels of My gold and of My silver, which I had given you, and made to yourself images of men, and did commit whoredom with them ("And made to yourself images of men, and did commit whoredom with them," is thought to intimate phallus worship, i.e., the Asherah — the male reproductive organ),

18 And took your broidered garments, and covered them: and you have set My oil and My incense before them. ("And you have set My oil and My incense before them," refers to this filthy idol possibly being placed even in the very Holy of Holies beside the Ark of the Covenant, or at least in the Holy Place beside the Altar of Worship. It is thought by some that Manasseh did this [II Chron. 33:3-7].)

19 My meat also which I gave you, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed you, you have even set it before them for a sweet savour:

and thus it was, sa ys the Lord GOD. (The phrase, "And thus it was, says the Lord GOD," means "I saw it; it is really true, says Adonai-Jehovah." The sense here is: How could such a shameful object of worship, made of wood, stone, or metal, give "rest" to either heart or conscience?)

[20] Moreover you have taken your sons and your daughters, whom you have borne unto Me, and these have you sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Is this of your whoredoms a small matter,

[21] That you have slain My children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them? (The throbbing agony of these two Verses can be felt by the Reader. Divine indignation and anguish combined in crying out to this faithless wife, "Bad as was your conduct in forsaking Me for vile and worthless lovers, yet greater is your guilt and cruelty in putting My children to so horrible a death.")

[22] And in all your abominations and your whoredoms you have not remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, and were polluted in your blood. (Israel forgot that the Lord raised her up from nothing, and even less than nothing, if possible!)

[23] And it came to pass after all your wickedness, (woe, woe unto you! says the LORD GOD [the phrase, "Woe, woe unto you!" refers to the coming judgment upon Judah and Jerusalem by the Chaldeans: it is because of "all your wickedness]**;)

[24] That you have also built unto you an eminent place, and have made you an high place in every street. (This "high place" or "eminent place" referred to these religious ceremonies of idol worship.)

[25] You have built your high place at every head of the way, and have made your beauty to be abhorred, and have opened your feet to everyone who passed by, and multiplied your whoredoms. ("You have built...," proclaims the industry of Judah and Jerusalem in the increase of their sin.)

[26] You have also committed fornication with the Egyptians your neighbors, great of flesh; and have increased your whoredoms, to provoke Me to anger. ("You have also committed fornication with the Egyptians," points to the political and commercial alliances in themselves as whoredom [Isa. 23:17; Nah. 3:4].

Please note the terms of "fornication" and "whoredoms," which had to do in essence with "spiritual adultery." The Apostle Paul used virtually the same terminology concerning Christians, who are married to Christ but yet look to things other than the Cross for victory [Rom. 7:1-4].)

[27] Behold, therefore I have stretched out My hand over you, and have diminished your ordinary food, and delivered you unto the will of them who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of your lewd way. ("The daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of your lewd way," is striking indeed! Israel had sunk lower even than these heathen people. And then the judgment begins, with the Lord trying to bring Israel back to her rightful place.)

[28] You have played the whore also with the Assyrians, because you were unsatiable; yes, you have played the harlot with them, and yet could not be satisfied. ("You have played the whore also with the Assyrians," includes political alliances like that of Ahaz with Tiglath-Pileser [II Ki. 26:7], as well as the adoption of idolatrous worship.

The word "unsatiable" referred to one being incapable of being satisfied, in this case, desiring to sin more and more!)

[29] You have moreover multiplied your fornication in the land of Canaan unto Chaldea; and yet you were not satisfied herewith. (The Holy Land became morally "the land of Canaan" because of its adoption of the foul and ancient religion of Canaan. "And yet you were not satisfied herewith," once again reinforces the truth that lust is never satisfied. The more one sins, the more one must sin.)

[30] How weak is your heart, sa ys the LORD GOD, seeing you do all these things, the work of an imperious whorish woman (the phrase, "How weak is your heart," refers to Israel, spiritually speaking, giving herself to anyone and everyone)**;

31 In that you build your eminent place in the head of every way, and make your high place in every street; and have not been as an harlot, in that you scorn hire ("And have not been as an harlot, in that you scorn hire," refers to the fact that a harlot was paid for her services, but Israel was so eager to commit spiritual adultery that she gave herself away to any and all for the asking; if they didn't ask, it was freely offered)**;

32 But as a wife who commits adultery, which takes strangers instead of her husband! (God considered Israel as His Covenant wife. She was unfaithful to Him, in that she gave worship and adoration to "strangers instead of her husband," i.e., Jehovah.)

33 They give gifts to all whores: but you give your gifts to all your lovers, and hire them, that they may come unto you on every side for your whoredom. ("That they may come unto you on every side for your whoredom," points to Judah and Jerusalem actively soliciting alliances with the heathen and eagerly desiring to worship their false gods.)

34 And the contrary is in you from other women in your whoredoms: whereas none follows you to commit whoredoms: and in that you give a reward, and no reward is given unto you, therefore you are contrary. ("And the contrary is in you from other women in your whoredoms," refers to other nations which remained true to their gods, and did not take upon themselves the worship of the gods of other countries. But Judah forsook the worship of Jehovah, engaging in the worship of foreign gods. In this, they were contrary to other nations.

The phrase, "Whereas none follows you to commit whoredoms," meant that Judah, at least among the nations, was alone in committing this foul sin.)

JUDGMENT ON JERUSALEM

35 Wherefore, O harlot, hear the Word of the LORD (the Holy Spirit through the Prophet addresses Judah as "O harlot"! Is the Lord saying the same thing about the modern Church? Inasmuch as the modern Church has left Christ, and, in fact, serves "another Jesus," which means that it's a Jesus without the Cross [II Cor. 11:4], then the modern Church must be judged the same as Judah of old!):

36 Thus says the Lord GOD; Because your filthiness was poured out, and your nakedness discovered through your whoredoms with your lovers, and with all the idols of your abominations, and by the blood of your children, which you did give unto them (the word translated "filthiness" actually should have been translated "brass." It probably referred to the money spent by Jerusalem on the establishment and maintenance of idol worship. Silver figured clean money and spoke of Redemption, while brass figured the unclean.

"And by the blood of your children, which you did give unto them," refers to Judah going into idol worship to such an extent, and seeking to please these foreign countries, that she actually offered up her own children in sacrifice to heathen gods);

37 Behold, therefore I will gather all your lovers, with whom you have taken pleasure, and all them that you have loved, with all them that you have hated; I will even gather them round about against you, and will discover your nakedness unto them, that they may see all your nakedness. ("Your lovers," refers to the Assyrians, Egyptians, and the Chaldeans. "All them that you have hated," refers to the Moabites, Ammonites, and the Philistines. The phrase, "And will discover your nakedness unto them," pertains to her coming defeat which will expose her to those she thought were her friends, but in reality were her enemies. It also refers to those who had always been jealous of her and who would now gloat over her defeat.)

38 And I will judge you, as women who break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will give you blood in fury and jealousy. (The Holy Spirit, in this Passage, is referring to Lev. 20:10 and Deut. 22:22. Joining Verse 38 with Rom. 7:1-4, we learn that God judges as a "spiritual adulterer" any person who allows the object of their faith to be other than the Cross of Christ.)

39 And I will also give you into their hand, and they shall throw down your eminent place, and shall break down your high places: they shall strip you also of your clothes, and shall take your fair jewels, and leave you naked and bare. (This Verse proclaims the fact that not only would these places of idol worship be destroyed by the coming conquerors, but the true glory of Judah and Jerusalem would also be destroyed.)

40 They shall also bring up a company against you, and they shall stone you with stones, and thrust you through with their swords. (The phrase, "Stone you with stones," probably refers to the great engines of war employed by the Chaldeans, which hurled great stones against the walls of the city, and even into the city.)

41 And they shall burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments upon you in the sight of many women: and I will cause you to cease from playing the harlot, and you also shall give no hire any more. (This refers to the city being sacked and burned and, therefore, no longer able to finance idolatrous worship, or even to engage in it, except in their hearts. "In the sight of many women," refers to the surrounding nations, which were also likened by the Holy Spirit to harlots [Vs. 34], which would observe with glee the defeat and destruction of Jerusalem.)

42 So will I make My fury toward you to rest, and My jealousy shall depart from you, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry. (From the Word of God, we learn that the Wrath of God is a reality; the language and teaching of Scripture are calculated to impress upon us the severity by which it is characterized.)

43 Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have fretted Me in all these things; behold, therefore I also will recompense your way upon your head, says the Lord GOD: and you shall not commit this lewdness above all your abominations. ("Because you have not remembered the days of your youth," presents a more tender tone than the previous statements, hence mixing Mercy with Wrath, thus sparing a Remnant.)

adopted the loathsome form of idolatry practiced by the Canaanites, she, therefore, morally became their daughter.)

45 You are your mother's daughter, who loathes her husband and her children; and you are the sister of your sisters, which loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite. (This Verse proclaims Judah conducting herself not as belonging to the Lord of Glory, but rather belonging to the heathen nations surrounding her, because she had adopted all of their ways.)

46 And your elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters who dwell at your left hand: and your younger sister, who dwells at your right hand, is Sodom and her daughters. (Historically, Sodom, as the oldest representative of evil, seemed to claim precedence. However, Samaria influenced Judah far more regarding evil, and was, therefore, called the elder sister, primarily because Sodom had been destroyed even before Israel became a nation. Nevertheless, empires which did greatly influence Judah for evil, such as Assyria and the Chaldeans, had been greatly influenced by the evil of Sodom, as had the entire world of that day, hence, the phrase, "Sodom and her daughters.")

47 Yet have you not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations: but, as if that were a very little thing, you were corrupted more than they in all your ways. (The idea of this Verse is: Judah was not only as bad as the heathen nations, but actually became much worse!)

48 As I live, says the Lord GOD, Sodom your sister has not done, she nor her daughters, as you have done, you and your daughters. (When Judah was placed beside Sodom, she was found wanting! Such is almost beyond imagination. And yet Christ would say the same thing concerning the Israel of His day [Mat. 11:24].)

49 Behold, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom, pride, fullness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. (Four sins, as given here, characterized Sodom, but "pride" headed the list.)

50 And they were haughty, and committed abomination before Me: therefore I took them away as I saw good. (The "abomination" they committed was the sin of homosexuality, i.e., "sodomy.")

51 Neither has Samaria committed half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have justified your sisters in all your abominations which you have done. (The idea is: all the heathen nations, including Sodom, were made to appear innocent by comparison with the guilt of Jerusalem — not positively, but relatively [II Ki. 21:9].)

52 You also, which have judged your sisters, bear your own shame for your sins that you have committed more abominable than they: they are more righteous than you: yes, be you confounded also, and bear your shame, in that you have justified your sisters. (The Lord called Judah "more abominable than they." To make the case even more ironclad, He turned it around and said: "they are more righteous than you.")

REGATHERING OF ISRAEL

53 When I shall bring again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of your captives in the midst of them (the future Restoration of Jerusalem together with Samaria and Sodom is predicted in Verses 53 through 63. This will take place in the coming Kingdom Age.

The amazing nature of the Grace that will perform this regeneration is preceded by the argument of Verses 53 through 59, which appears to be that Jerusalem had no more claim to forgiveness and Restoration than either Sodom or Samaria. Therefore, her recovery was as eternally hopeless as theirs.

However, the principle of Grace now appears as Paul outlines in Rom. 11:34. But a Grace rich enough to forgive Jerusalem must, in its nature, be rich enough to forgive her less guilty companions, for there is no difference — all have sinned):

54 That you may bear your own shame, and may be confounded in all that you have done, in that you are a comfort unto them. (The fact of pardon being granted to Jerusalem brings "comfort" to Samaria and Sodom. As stated, this will take place in the coming Kingdom Age!)

55 When your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then you and your daughters shall return to your former estate. (It is humbling to religious pride to be compelled to seek Mercy in the company of the most degraded and fallen, and of those formerly despised.)

SINS OF JUDAH

56 For your sister Sodom was not mentioned by your mouth in the day of your pride (the name of Sodom was not even uttered by Judah in the days of her prosperity. It was too vile for utterance except as a byword of reproach. Isaiah had in vain reminded her that she had made herself like them [Isa. 1:9-10]. Such is self-righteousness!)**,

57 Before your wickedness was discovered, as at the time of your reproach of the daughters of Syria, and all that are round about her, the daughters of the Philistines, which despise you round about. ("Before your wickedness was discovered," refers to Judah being humbled as those she had despised.)

58 You have borne your lewdness and your abominations, says the LORD. (This Scripture presents the reason that Judah sank to the spiritual level, or even below, of their surrounding heathen neighbors, i.e., "lewdness" and "abominations.")

59 For thus sa ys the Lord GOD; I will even deal with you as you have done, which have despised the oath in breaking the Covenant. (The "Oath" and "Covenant" formed the marriage bond of Sinai, which was the Law. Jerusalem was unfaithful to that bond; but not so her Heavenly Husband, as the next Verse will declare.)

GOD'S COVENANT: RESTORATION OF ISRAEL

60 Nevertheless I will remember My Covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish unto you an Everlasting Covenant. (Even though Judah did not keep the Covenant, the Lord did. And as such, He has made an everlasting marriage bond with her. This is yet future, in that she will be fully restored, which will take place at the Second Coming, when Israel will repent and finally accept Christ as her Saviour, Messiah, and Lord.

"I will remember My Covenant with you in the days of your youth," refers to the Promises made to Abraham, the Patriarchs, and the Prophets. Despite Israel's wickedness, and because of her Repentance, each of these Promises will be kept in full. The "Everlasting Covenant" refers to the New Covenant of Grace already given, which Israel would not accept, but now shall in totality [Heb. 13:20].)

61 Then you shall remember your ways, and be ashamed, when you shall receive your sisters, your elder and your younger: and I will give them unto you for daughters, but not by your covenant. (At the time this New Covenant is ratified with Israel, and upon her acceptance of Christ as her Lord and Saviour, He will, at the same time, give her, as bridesmaids, so to speak, her sisters, Sodom and Samaria. This will take place shortly after the Second Coming [Zech. 13:1].)

62 And I will establish My Covenant with you; and you shall know that I am the LORD (the "Covenant" of which the Lord now speaks is not the Law of Moses, but rather the "New Covenant" perfected by Christ by Him giving His Life on the Cross of Calvary, and doing so for the entirety of the world, Israel included!)**:

63 That you may remember, and be confounded, and never open your mouth any more because of your shame, when I am pacified toward you for all that you have done, says the Lord GOD. ("When I am pacified toward you," means that Israel is forgiven. The Lord has accepted a propitiation for Israel. This propitiation was consummated at Calvary. It provides the righteous ground upon which God may meet and forgive the vilest sinners without injury to the Righteousness which is the establishment of His Throne. For if God were to forgive sins unrighteously, He would wreck His Throne and cease to be God.)

(594 B.C.)

PARABLE OF A GREAT EAGLE: NEBUCHADNEZZAR

[1] And the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

[2] Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the House of Israel ("Put forth a riddle," speaks of an enigma — a dark saying. It was also a parable, that is, the comparison of one thing to another)**;

[3] And say, Thus says the Lord GOD; A great eagle with great wings, longwinged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar ("A great eagle with great wings," speaks of Nebuchadnezzar. "Came unto Lebanon," actually speaks of Jerusalem; the houses therein were built of cedar from Lebanon. The phrase, "And took the highest branch of the cedar," speaks of Jehoiachin being taken captive after serving only three months as king of Judah [II Ki. 24:8, 15-16])**:

[4] He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffic; he set it in a city of merchants. (This speaks of the more eminent citizens of Jerusalem also being taken captive along with Jehoiachin.)

[5] He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow tree. ("He took also of the seed of the land," refers to Nebuchadnezzar making Zedekiah king of Judah. "And planted it in a fruitful field," refers to the possibility of Zedekiah's reign being fruitful, with the land of Judah enjoying prosperity, that is, if he had only submitted himself to Nebuchadnezzar, as the Lord had directed. However, this he did not do.)

[6] And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs. ("And it grew," refers to prosperity under Zedekiah, at least for a short time.)

THE SECOND GREAT EAGLE: PHARAOH

[7] There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation. (The one referred to as "another great eagle with great wings and many feathers" was Pharaoh-Hophra, king of Egypt.)

[8] It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine. (The idea of this Verse is that if Zedekiah had obeyed the Prophet of the Lord, placing himself and Judah under the domain of Nebuchadnezzar, then Judah would have had a fair measure of prosperity. The vine might have borne fruit.)

ZEDEKIAH'S REBELLION

[9] Say you, Thus says the Lord GOD; Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof. (The question, "Thus says the Lord GOD; Shall it prosper?", refers to this alliance between Zedekiah and Pharaoh. The answer is: "No." For he, Nebuchadnezzar, would uproot Zedekiah and destroy his kingdom.)

[10] Ye s, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind touches it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew. (The phrase, "It shall wither in the furrows where it grew," means that this alliance with Egypt will die aborning, and will infuriate Nebuchadnezzar, with awful results.)

JEHOIACHIN'S CAPTIVITY

[11] Moreover the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

[12] Say now to the rebellious house, Know you not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and has taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon (this is the same as Verses 3 and 4, which speak of Nebuchadnezzar taking Jehoiachin and the princes to Babylon);

[13] And has taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him, and has taken an oath of him: he has also taken the mighty of the land (the "king's seed" was Zedekiah, whom he made king of Judah. "And made a covenant with him, and has taken an oath of him," refers to the fact that Zedekiah did this in the Name of Jehovah, and the Lord expected him to keep it):

[14] That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand. ("It might stand," refers to God's loving purpose, which was the peace and prosperity of His People in subjection to the Gentiles, at least at this time; and that they should be a witness for Him. So should they have been His recognized People and a Light to lighten the Gentiles. But their rebellion lost this prosperity and that glory.)

ZEDEKIAH'S REBELLION AND HIS TRUST IN EGYPT

[15] But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape who does such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered? (This refers to Zedekiah actively seeking an alliance with the Egyptians, which was totally opposed to the Will of God, and which would bring ruin to Judah.)

[16] As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die. (Zedekiah was taken captive by Nebuchadnezzar, blinded, and then sent to Babylon, where he died. So much for the alliance with Egypt. This Prophecy was probably written when the hopes of Zedekiah and his counselors were at their highest point, when the Chaldeans had in fact raised the siege of Jerusalem in anticipation of the arrival of the Egyptian army [Jer. 37:5-11]. Ezekiel, like Jeremiah, declared that the relief would be but temporary. And so it was!)

17 Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company make for him in the war, by casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons (Pharaoh coming against Nebuchadnezzar proved to be more blow and bluster than anything else. Egypt was quickly neutralized)**:

18 Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when, lo, he had given his hand, and has done all these things, he shall not escape. (As stated, when Zedekiah broke the covenant with Nebuchadnezzar, it was the same as breaking it with the Lord.)

19 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; As I live, surely My Oath that he has despised, and My Covenant that he has broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head. (Zedekiah freely agreed by covenant to rule Judah under Nebuchadnezzar. He took an oath to obey him, but rebelled after serving for several years. He turned to Egypt for help. For this, God cursed him.)

20 And I will spread My net upon him, and he shall be taken in My snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will plead with him there for his trespass that he has trespassed against Me. (The words, "And will plead with him there," along with Jer. 32:5 and 34:4-5, suggest that in his Earthly prison and physical blindness, Grace gave Zedekiah inward eyesight and spiritual freedom. In other words, it seems that he finally made his peace with God, even after long years of rebellion.)

21 And all his fugitives with all his bands shall fall by the sword, and they who remain shall be scattered toward all winds: and you shall know that I the LORD have spoken it. (This Passage refers to the terrible carnage which developed when Jerusalem fell to the Babylonians.)

RESTORATION OF THE DAVIDIC KINGDOM UNDER THE MESSIAH

22 Thus says the Lord GOD; I will also take of the highest branch of the high cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the top of his young twigs a tender one, and will plant it upon an high mountain and eminent (the Kingdom predicted in Verses 22 through 24 is that of the Messiah. It will take place in the coming Kingdom Age)**:

23 In the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it: and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell. (The Kingdom of the Messiah will have no end. At that time, all the nations of the world will look to Christ for all prosperity. They will not be disappointed!)

24 And all the trees of the field shall know that I the LORD have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: I the LORD have spoken and have done it. (The phrases, "high tree" and "green tree," both refer to man's proud dominion, which will be brought down and dried up. The "low tree" and "dry tree" refer to Israel, which will then be made to flourish, becoming the most powerful nation in the world. As stated, this will be in the coming Kingdom Age.)

THE SINNER SHALL DIE

1 The Word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,

2 What mean you, that you use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge? (The miseries suffered by the people in Jerusalem because of the Babylonian war were declared by them to be due to their fathers' sins, for they themselves, or so they claimed, were righteous. Hence, their proverb of Verse 2, repeated in Verse 19, was insisted upon in Verses 25 and 29. That is, they charged God with injustice, for man always throws the blame upon God, as did Adam [Gen. 3:12; Ex. 20:5].)

3 As I live, says the Lord GOD, you shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel. (Actually, this proverb declared, even in a round about way, that there was unrighteousness with God. They were taking a proverb which had a measure of truth in it and distorting it into a falsehood.)

4 Behold, all souls are Mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is Mine: the soul that sins, it shall die. (Emphatically, the Lord through the Prophet declares that these people are suffering for their own sins, not the sins of their fathers. "The soul that sins, it shall die," proclaims the truth that God judges each person upon his own actions, not upon the actions of others.)

THE RIGHTEOUS SHALL LIVE

5 But if a man be just, and do that which is lawful and right (the righteous principle upon which God acts in pardoning original sin and personal sins is revealed in Rom. 3:21-26),

6 And has not eaten upon the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the House of Israel, neither has defiled his neighbor's wife, neither has come near to a menstruous woman (the idea of this and the following Verses is not the promotion of Salvation by works, but instead that if a person has truly repented and is attempting to do "that which is lawful and right," such action will portray itself in a definite way in his life, thereby, showing True Repentance),

7 And has not oppressed any, but has restored to the debtor his pledge, has spoiled none by violence, has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment (true Faith, Faith in Christ and the Cross, always produces good works; however, good works can never produce true Faith);

8 He who has not given forth upon usury, neither has taken any increase, who has withdrawn his hand from iniquity, has executed true judgment between man and man (traits of the righteous!),

9 Has walked in My Statutes and has kept My Judgments, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live, says the Lord GOD. (Once again, we state: true Faith will always result, in one way or the other, in true works.)

THE WICKED SON OF A RIGHTEOUS MAN SHALL DIE

10 If he (the righteous man) beget a son who is a robber, a shedder of blood, and who does the like to any one of these things (Verses 10 through 13 portray the wicked son of a righteous father, in which the righteousness of the father does not atone for the wickedness of the son),

11 And who does not any of those duties, but even has eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbour's wife (once again, the truth is conveyed that unrighteous individuals produce unrighteous acts),

12 Has oppressed the poor and needy, has spoiled by violence, has not restored the pledge, and has lifted up his eyes to the idols, has committed abomination (as the righteous is ever upward, the unrighteous is ever downward)**,

[13] Has given forth upon usury, and has taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he has done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be upon him. ("He shall surely die," means that he will lose his soul, that is, if he continues in such a lifestyle.)

THE RIGHTEOUS SON OF A WICKED FATHER SHALL LIVE

[14] Now, lo, if he beget a son, who sees all his father's sins which he has done, and considers, and does not such like (this son is the exact opposite of the son of Verse 10; he will be treated accordingly, which the Holy Spirit brings out)**,

[15] Who has not eaten upon the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the House of Israel, has not defiled his neighbor's wife (the Holy Spirit goes to all lengths to place responsibility upon the individual involved, meaning that each person will give account, irrespective as to the disposition of his father, whether righteous or unrighteous)**,

[16] Neither has oppressed any, has not withheld the pledge, neither has spoiled by violence, but has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment (Christianity that shows no love for one's fellow man, despite the loud profession, has no love for God)**,

[17] Who has taken off his hand from the poor, who has not received usury nor increase, has executed My Judgments, has walked in My Statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live. ("He shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live," places the responsibility upon the individual involved. The father is not responsible, spiritually speaking, for the sins of his son, as the son is not responsible for the sins of the father. Each person, in the Eyes of God, is responsible for his own sins.)

THE WICKED FATHER SHALL DIE FOR HIS SINS

18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall die in his iniquity. (The Holy Spirit again and again proclaims the truth that the ungodly father is not saved as a result of the Godly son, as the ungodly son is not saved as a result of a Godly father.)

INDIVIDUAL RESPONSIBILITY; THE WAYS OF GOD ARE JUST

19 Yet you say, Why? does not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son has done that which is lawful and right, and has kept all My Statutes, and has done them, he shall surely live.

20 The soul that sins, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him. (This proclaims in no uncertain terms that Salvation is entirely a personal matter.)

21 But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he has committed, and keep all My Statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die. (So far from God punishing a man for the sins of others, He will not even punish him for his own sins, if he repents and avails himself of God's Salvation, which is Christ. As well, this Promise is given to any and all, with none excluded!)

22 All his transgressions that he has committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he has done he shall live. (Actually, this Passage, although in a veiled way, speaks of Justification by Faith.)

23 Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? says the Lord GOD: and not that he should return from his ways, and live? (The question of this Verse is answered in Verse 32. The Lord has no pleasure in the death of the wicked. Actually, for every wicked person who dies without God, the terrible death of Christ on Calvary was in vain.)

24 But when the righteous turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, shall he live? All his righteousness that he has done shall not be mentioned: in his trespass that he has trespassed, and in his sin that he has sinned, in them shall he die. (As all sins are blotted out upon one's Repentance, likewise, all righteousness is blotted out if one ceases to have faith in Christ and what He has done at the Cross. This, thereby, completely refutes the unscriptural doctrine of Unconditional Eternal Security [Heb. 6:4-6; 10:26-29].)

25 Yet you say, The Way of the LORD is not equal. Hear now, O House of Israel; Is not My Way equal? are not your ways unequal? (Self-righteous men object to God's justice, however plainly manifested, because they do not wish to recognize it. They want God to condone sin. That, however, if He is to be true to His Nature, He cannot do!)

26 When a righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and dies in them; for his iniquity that he has done shall he die. ("When a righteous man," actually means "any righteous man," and denotes that God is no respecter of persons. All come under the same rules, whether wicked or righteous, which is for the benefit of all.)

27 Again, when the wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has committed, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. (The word, "Again," refers to the Holy Spirit going to the trouble of repeating the same thing He has said in Verse 21. Once again, the offer is given for all past transgressions to be blotted out and new life to be given to the individual. It is mankind's greatest offer! The Holy Spirit emphatically states, "He shall save his soul alive." The manner in which this is done is for the individual to accept Christ and what Christ has done for us at the Cross [Jn. 3:16].)

28 Because he considers, and turns away from all his transgressions that he has committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die. ("He shall not die," refers to spiritual death, not physical death.)

29 Yet sa ys the House of Israel, The Way of the LORD is not equal. O House of Israel, are not My Ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

(God's Ways are always equal, because He demands the same of all, irrespective of their status, position, gender, or the period of time in which they live. Man's ways are grossly unequal, because unrighteous judges can be bought off. Legislatures make laws which favor some and abuse others, with prejudice, racial and religious bias playing their insidious parts relative to mankind.

To be frank, the ways of man are so unequal as to be preposterous! And as unequal as man's ways are, as equal are God's Ways!)

SINNERS ARE ENCOURAGED TO REPENT AND LIVE

30 Therefore I will judge you, O House of Israel, every one according to his ways, says the Lord GOD. Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. (The Holy Spirit through the Prophet now gives an Altar Call. It is one of the clearest, most impassioned pleas found in the entirety of the Bible.)

31 Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby you have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will you die, O House of Israel? (Conversion and Regeneration can only be effected by the Holy Spirit. But the sinner is responsible to repent and to seek this new moral nature. Directly he tries to provide himself with these, he discovers his helplessness. Broken in spirit and casting himself on God for Salvation, the Holy Spirit reveals Christ to him and, thus, works the mighty miracle of the New Birth.)

32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him who dies, says the Lord GOD: wherefore turn yourselves, and live you. (Twice the Holy Spirit emphasizes the truth that the Lord has no pleasure in the death of the wicked. The repetition is not by accident.)

LAMENTATION FOR THE PRINCES OF ISRAEL; JEHOAHAZ

[1] Moreover take you up a lamentation for the princes of Israel (the word "lamentation" is used referring to the woe upon the nation of Judah by the ungodly action of two of its kings, Jehoahaz and Jehoiakim. The mourner is Immanuel)**,

[2] And say, What is your mother? A lioness: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelps among young lions. (The question, "What is your mother?", refers to Jerusalem as the great lion, and in a good sense [Isa. 29:1]. "She lay down among lions," refers to the surrounding heathen nations, which she was supposed to lead to God, but she was instead led astray herself! She adopted their cruelty and ferocity, thereby losing the Glory of God.

The phrase, "She nourished her whelps among young lions," refers to Jehoahaz and Jehoiakim taking the cue from the "young lions," i.e., "kings of the surrounding nations," rather than from the Lord.)

[3] And she brought up one of her whelps: it became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men. ("One of her whelps," points to Jehoahaz, who became like the heathen princes in the surrounding countries.)

[4] The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of Egypt. (Jehoahaz was taken prisoner by Pharaoh-Necho and brought in chains to Egypt.)

JEHOIAKIM

5 Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion. (This relates to Jehoiakim, who reigned eleven years and was made king in the place of his brother, Jehoahaz.)

6 And he went up and down among the lions, he became a young lion, and learned to catch the prey, and devoured men. ("And he went up and down among the lions," refers to him associating with the heathen nations, exactly as did his brother, Jehoahaz. Josephus, the Jewish Historian, says: "He was unjust and wicked by nature, and was neither reverent toward God nor kind to man.")

7 And he knew their desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fullness thereof, by the noise of his roaring. ("And he knew their desolate palaces," means that he plundered the nation in order to pay Egypt and to build his costly edifices. "And the fullness thereof, by the noise of his roaring," refers to his violent nature in imposing his will upon Judah.)

8 Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him: he was taken in their pit. (In this dallying with Egypt, he angered the Babylonians, and they "set against him on every side.")

9 And they put him in ward in chains, and brought him to the king of Babylon: they brought him into holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel. ("And brought him to the king of Babylon," does not mean that he was taken to Babylon, but that he was taken before Nebuchadnezzar. Even though the Scripture does not say how he died, it is believed that he died on the way to Babylon, drawn and cast forth and unburied. He was 36 years old when he died, without God and unlamented!)

was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters. ("Your mother is like a vine," is referred to in 17:6, and refers to Judah as a Vine. The phrase, "She was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters," refers to the Blessings of God given unto her, which made her the envy of the nations.)

11 And she had strong rods for the scepters of them who bore rule, and her stature was exalted among the thick branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches. ("And she had strong rods for the scepters of them who bore rule," refers to the kingly line of David, which was God-appointed, and thereby blessed, actually becoming the greatest among nations.)

12 But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit: her strong rods were broken and withered; the fire consumed them. ("But she was plucked up in fury," refers to the Judgment of God which came upon her because of her great sin. The Judgment was not light, but did come in stages.)

13 And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground. (Whereas she had once been "planted by the waters," i.e., the Blessings of God, now she is "in a dry and thirsty ground," i.e., with no spiritual sustenance whatsoever, because of her rebellion against the Lord.)

14 And fire is gone out of a rod of her branches, which has devoured her fruit, so that she has no strong rod to be a sceptre to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation. ("And fire is gone out of a rod of her branches," refers to the evil capacity of her kings after Josiah, and the Judgment of God which was swiftly coming upon them. As such, all the glory described in Verses 10 and 11 is now gone, and sin "has devoured her fruit."

"And shall be for a lamentation," refers to Zedekiah, whose doom was still future at the time that this lament was given by the Spirit to the Prophet.)

THE ELDERS' ENQUIRY

[1] And it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the Elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and sat before me. (This is a new Prophecy; it begins with this Verse and follows through the conclusion of Chapter 23. The "seventh year" pertains to the length of the Prophet's captivity up to this time.

The Elders came before Ezekiel because the false prophets among the Exiles were at this time predicting a speedy restoration to Judah [Jer. 28:11]. These Elders desired Ezekiel to preach the same comfortable message, but he refused to do so. On the contrary, he exposed the deep-seated idolatry of their hearts and announced an accession of the Wrath of God upon them.)

GOD'S ANSWER: ISRAEL'S REBELLION AND DEFILEMENT WITH EGYPTIAN GODS

[2] Then came the Word of the LORD unto me, saying,

[3] Son of man, speak unto the Elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus says the Lord GOD; Are you come to inquire of Me? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you. (The last phrase is a startling statement indeed! The Lord will not accede to their request and will not hear their prayers. These men outwardly professed the worship of God, but inwardly they loved idolatry.)

[4] Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? cause them to know the abominations of their fathers (the Holy Spirit, by "causing them to know the abominations of their fathers," will in no uncertain terms proclaim the justness of God's Actions; furthermore, He will relate their own culpability)*:

[5] And say unto them, Thus says the Lord GOD; In the day when I chose Israel, and lifted up My Hand unto the seed of the House of Jacob, and made Myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up My Hand unto them, saying, I am the LORD your God (the phrase, "In the day when I chose Israel," reverts back to Chapter 16, portraying the truth that the Lord did not choose them because they were great or grandiose, but instead because He loved them);

[6] In the day that I lifted up My Hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands ("Flowing with milk and honey," appears first in Ex. 3:8, and became proverbial. This entire Verse is also a portrayal of the great Plan of Redemption affording God's Salvation. The Lord not only delivers the believing sinner from bondage, but also delivers them to Blessing, all through Christ, and by the means of the Cross):

[7] Then said I unto them, Cast you away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: I am the LORD your God. (This Verse portrays the fact that they were idol worshippers in Egypt, and the Lord demanded their disengagement from such abominations.)

[8] But they rebelled against Me, and would not hearken unto Me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will pour out My Fury upon them, to accomplish My Anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. ("To accomplish My Anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt," portrays Israel's wrongdoing, even in the midst of being delivered. This is not so pointedly outlined in the Book of Exodus, as that account concerns itself more so with their deliverance than with their obedience; nevertheless, this portrays the truth that God was almost as angry with His Own as He was with the Egyptians. This Passage tells us that there was little, if any, difference in the two peoples.)

ISRAEL'S REBELLION IN THE WILDERNESS

[9] But I wrought for My Name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made Myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt. (The phrase, "But I wrought for My Name's sake," refers to the truth that the only reason they were spared was not their holiness, but His Holiness and "Name's sake.")

[10] Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness.

[11] And I gave them My Statutes, and showed them My Judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them. (The "Statutes" and "Judgments" spoken of here pertain to the Law of Moses given to the Children of Israel on Mount Sinai. They were to "live" by these Laws.)

[12] Moreover also I gave them My Sabbaths, to be a sign between Me and them, that they might know that I Am the LORD Who sanctifies them. (The "Sabbaths" were typical of the "rest" which could be found only in Christ. Serving Christ today constitutes "keeping the Sabbath"; that particular day is no longer in force, because the One it typified, the Lord Jesus Christ, has come.

The Divine Title "Jehovah-Mekaddishkem" [Lev. 20:8] is repeated here in the words, "I Am the LORD Who sanctifies them." This portrays the fact that Israel could not sanctify themselves, and neither can any modern Believer.

Presently, all Believers are sanctified, and remain that way, simply by constantly looking to Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross. Then the Holy Spirit can effect Sanctification within our lives, and on a constant basis [Rom. 8:1-2, 11].)

[13] But the House of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness: they walked not in My Statutes, and they despised My Judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and My Sabbaths they greatly polluted: then I said, I would pour out My Fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them. (When fathers are hardened in sin, as Verses 13 through 17 will portray, hope has recourse in their children; but then, as now, these are found to possess the same corrupt nature as their parents, and consequently to love the same sins, as Verses 18 through 21 will also proclaim!)

14 But I wrought for My Name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out. (This, as Verse 9, portrays God's reason for not destroying the Children of Israel.)

15 Yet also I lifted up My Hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands (from this Passage, we learn how absolutely close that Israel came to being totally exterminated in the wilderness. It was only the Intercession of Moses which caused them, after a fashion, to be spared [Num. 14:11-35])**;

16 Because they despised My Judgments, and walked not in My Statutes, but polluted My Sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols. (This Passage portrays to us the truth that Laws, even if they do originate with the Lord, cannot change an individual. Only a work effected in the "heart" can bring about this change. It is called the "New Birth" [Jn. 3:3].)

17 Nevertheless My Eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness. (His "Eye spared them" for His Name's sake.)

18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk y ou not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols (the phrase, "But I said unto their children in the wilderness," refers to the generation who followed those who died off in the wilderness because of their rebellion)**:

19 I Am the LORD your God; walk in My Statutes, and keep My Judgments, and do them;

20 And hallow My Sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God. (Once again, the keeping of a particular day called the "Sabbath" is not imposed upon Christians. The Sabbath of the Old Covenant was a day of "rest." It typified Christ, Who would give perfect rest to those who would believe Him [Mat. 11:28-30]. Serving Christ now constitutes keeping the Sabbath.)

21 Notwithstanding the children rebelled against Me: they walked not in My Statutes, neither kept My Judgments to do them, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; they polluted My Sabbaths: then I said, I would pour out My Fury upon them, to accomplish My Anger against them in the wilderness. (As they did in Egypt, as described in Verse 8, and as the fathers did in the wilderness, the children had the same corrupt nature as their parents. Consequently, they loved the same sins.)

22 Nevertheless I withdrew My Hand, and wrought for My Name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth. ("For His Name's sake" the Lord allowed the second generation to go into the Promised Land. He did it so the heathen would not be able to mock His Name by claiming that He had brought them into the wilderness and could not deliver them.)

23 I lifted up My Hand unto them also in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the heathen, and disperse them through the countries (they were not to think that because He had allowed them to go into the land, that this was a sign of His Approval)**;

24 Because they had not executed My Judgments, but had despised My Statutes, and had polluted My Sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. (As the fathers had sinned, so did the children! As their fathers were judged, so were they!)

25 Wherefore I gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live (the phrase, "Wherefore I gave them," means that He permitted them to pollute themselves)**;

26 And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that opens the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I Am the LORD. (God commanded that their children should be passed over to Him and live. Idolatry commanded that they should pass through to Moloch and die.)

ISRAEL'S IDOLATRY IN THE LAND OF PROMISE

27 Therefore son of man, speak unto the House of Israel, and say unto them, Thus says the Lord GOD; Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed Me, in that they have committed a trespass against Me. (It actually says, "They trespassed a trespass." That is, they were guilty of a supreme trespass, i.e., they associated idols with God.)

28 For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up My Hand to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their drink offerings. (The fourfold repetition of the word "there," stipulating the places of idol worship, is employed to emphasize the contrast with the one Divinely appointed place of acceptance, i.e., Calvary, as foreshadowed by Mount Moriah.

Access to God, Forgiveness, and Righteousness, as Abel proved, can only be enjoyed through Christ's Atonement; for He is, as He Himself said, the One and Only Way to God [Jn. 14:6].)

29 Then I said unto them, What is the high place whereunto you go? And the name thereof is called Bamah unto this day. (The word "Bamah" means "high place." This word became a byword expressing the displeasure of God upon such places — a memorial of the guilt of the people. In fact, the very name, "high place," convicted these worshippers of rebellion, and not of ignorance [Deut. 12:1-5].)

30 Wherefore say unto the House of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD; Are you polluted after the manner of your fathers? and commit you whoredom after their abominations? (This period of Israel's idolatrous history is the subject of Verses 30 through 32. It pertains to the Exiles.

Every evidence points to the fact that they polluted themselves with idolatry after the manner of their fathers. For the words, "ye" and "you," of these Verses are emphatic, and the interrogative form is adopted here to express strong affirmation.)

31 For when you offer your gifts, when you make your sons to pass through the fire, you pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day: and shall I be inquired of by you, O House of Israel? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you. (Ezekiel, by Inspiration, refused to pray for his visitors. They must have been very angry with him, for, instead of preaching to them the comfortable messages which the other prophets announced, he exposed their idolatries and hypocrisies and predicted their eternal ruin, as is stated in Verse 38.

The expression, "As I live," and as used by the Lord, was to emphasize the absolute Truth of what was being spoken.)

32 And that which comes into your mind shall not be at all, that you say, We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone. (If the Temple were to be destroyed, as Jeremiah and Ezekiel were prophesying, this would mean, at least in their minds, that they could no longer worship Jehovah, and would be free to "be as the heathen," to serve "wood and stone"! In their thinking, if Jehovah did not intend for them to do this, then there would be no destruction of the Temple, and no dispersion among the nations.

They could not be more wrong!)

FUTURE REGATHERING AND JUDGMENT

33 As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty Hand, and with a stretched out Arm, and with Fury poured out will I rule over you (the Lord now answers the thoughts of their minds in stating to them that they could not abrogate their high position; they would remain under the burden of its responsibilities)**:

34 And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein you are scattered, with a mighty Hand, and with a stretched out Arm, and with Fury poured out. (These baseless inquiries by the Elders of Judah in exile will occasion the Holy Spirit giving these profound Prophecies concerning Israel's future Salvation. This Scripture will not be fulfilled until the Second Coming and the beginning of the Kingdom Age, which are yet future.)

35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I plead with you face to face. (This Passage pertains to the time when the Antichrist will actually invade Israel and defeat her, with a million or more escaping to the "wilderness," i.e., "Petra," which is in modern Jordan. Then Israel will realize what a fool she has been in thinking that the Antichrist was the Messiah. At that time, the Lord will really begin to deal with them [Isa. 16:1-5; 42:11-13; Hos. 2:14-23; Rev. 12:6, 13-16].)

36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, sa ys the Lord GOD. (During this time of "pleading," they will be brought "face-to-face" with their failures, rebellion, and iniquities.)

37 And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the Covenant (the phrase, "And I will cause you to pass under the rod," refers primarily to the rod of chastisement. It concerns itself with the latter half [3½ years] of the Great Tribulation, when Israel will come close to extinction. Jesus said it will be the worst time ever [Mat. 24:21])**:

38 And I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them who transgress against Me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and you shall know that I Am the LORD. (The purging will take place during the last three and a half years of the Great Tribulation, and will have to do with the two-thirds who will be destroyed during that time, and especially during the Battle of Armageddon.)

39 As for you, O House of Israel, thus says the Lord GOD; Go you, serve you every one his idols, and hereafter also if you will not hearken unto Me: but pollute you My Holy Name no more with your gifts, and with your idols. (The Holy Spirit through the Prophet now brings the Prophecy away from the future back to the present. The Elders are addressed.

The Lord tells them: "Go you, serve you every one his idols," but do not make the sin worse by the hypocrisy of unreal worship, by mixing the Name of Jehovah with the ritual of Moloch. By their double worship of Him and idols, they were "polluting His Holy Name.")

FUTURE RESTORATION

40 For in My Holy Mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, says the Lord GOD, there shall all the House of Israel, all of them in the land, serve Me: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the firstfruits of your oblations, with all your holy things. (Now the Holy Spirit reverts back to Prophecies concerning the future. Redeemed Israel, in the happy day of her future glory, will recognize and confess that all her happiness is due to the worthfulness of the Name of Jesus, and not to any moral value in herself, for her "ways" were evil and her "doings" were corrupt.

This Passage pertains to the coming Millennial Reign, when Christ will Personally reign supreme from Jerusalem. Then the contesting of the Land will end.)

41 I will accept you with your sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein you have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen. (The acceptance of the worshipper is the result of the value of the victim offered in Sacrifice for sin. Hence, Believers are engraced in the Beloved One [Eph. 1:6], Christ; for we have no Grace in ourselves.)

42 And you shall know that I Am the LORD, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I lifted up My Hand to give it to your fathers. (This refers to the tremendous Prophecies which seem so impossible to the natural mind, and yet, which the Lord declares that He is able to bring to pass, and which He did!)

43 And there shall you remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein you have been defiled; and you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that you have committed. (This concerns Israel's acceptance of Christ at the Second Coming, when they realize Who He is, and especially how they crucified Him and brought upon themselves such judgment and sorrow.)

44 And you shall know that I Am the LORD when I have wrought with you for My Name's sake, not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O you House of Israel, says the Lord GOD. (Israel will know in that day that their Salvation and Restoration are not brought about because of their holiness; in fact, their ways were "wicked" and their doings were "corrupt." Their Restoration will be for His Name's Sake.)

THE PROPHECY AGAINST THE SOUTH: DESTRUCTION OF JUDAH AND JERUSALEM

45 Moreover the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying (the balance of this Chapter speaks of the near Judgment upon Judah and Jerusalem. As is by now obvious, rebellion against God ensconced in their idol worship was basically the cause)**,

46 Son of man, set your face toward the south, and drop your word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the south field (this Prophecy forms an introduction to Chapters 21 through 32. The phrase, "Set your face," determines direction and certitude of accomplishment. The fourfold repetition of the word "south" made absolute Judah as the scene of the approaching Judgment)**;

47 And say to the forest of the south, Hear the Word of the LORD; Thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour every green tree in you, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burned therein. (The "green tree" symbolizes the righteous, while the "dry tree" symbolizes the wicked. The inclusion of the righteous with the wicked in national and universal Judgments is one of the principles of God's moral Government. It is important to recognize this principle. He does not promise exemption to His People from the suffering which justly follows national sin; but He makes this great distinction: that the wicked perish under such suffering, while the righteous are sustained in it, and finally, in Resurrection, delivered from it [Heb. 11:35].)

48 And all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it: it shall not be quenched. (The accomplishment of the prediction proves the Divine Origin of the Prophecy.)

49 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! they say of me, Does he not speak parables? (The ridicule of unbelief is often more painful than the anger of unbelief!)

CHAPTER 21

(593 B.C.)

THE SIGN OF THE DRAWN SWORD: COMPLETE DESTRUCTION

[1] And the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying (this is a part of the Prophecy of the previous Chapter, which continues without interruption),

[2] Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and drop your word toward the Holy Places, and prophesy against the land of Israel (this Verse is very similar to Verse 46 of the previous Chapter, with the words, "Jerusalem" and "Holy Places," replacing the word "south" in that Verse. The words, "Holy Places," refer to the Temple in Jerusalem),

[3] And say to the land of Israel, Thus says the LORD; Behold, I am against you, and will draw forth My Sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked. (As in the previous Verse, the words, "the righteous and the wicked," replace "the green tree and the dry tree" of Verse 47 in the previous Chapter. "Thus says the LORD; Behold I am against you," records Judah's doom, as nothing else!)

[4] Seeing then that I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall My Sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh from the south to the north ("Against all flesh from the south to the north," refers to total destruction of the country, leaving no part untouched, and having no mercy on the old, or even on little children):

[5] That all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn forth My Sword out of his sheath: it shall not return any more. ("My Sword" proclaims the fact of God's independent Action.)

CONVULSIVE SIGHING, A SIGN OF SUFFERING

6 Sigh therefore, you son of man, with the breaking of your loins; and with bitterness sigh before their eyes. (The phrase, "Sigh therefore, you son of man," refers to Ezekiel being so burdened with the portent of this coming disaster that it "breaks his loins," i.e., breaks his heart.)

7 And it shall be, when they say unto you, Wherefore sighest you? that you shall answer, For the tidings; because it comes: and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it comes, and shall be brought to pass, says the Lord GOD. (What Ezekiel now experiences will be exactly what will happen to the entirety of the Exiles some four years later, when word was received of the fall and destruction of Jerusalem. This is emphasized in the words, "For the tidings." These tidings will be awful indeed!)

THE SHARPENED SWORD: FOR JUDGMENT

8 Again the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying (the Holy Spirit will now go into great detail regarding the coming carnage, which is meant to portray to the people the severity of the Judgment, and hopefully to instigate Repentance; however, the Repentance never materialized!)**,

9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus says the LORD; Say, A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furbished (this Verse speaks of the Divine mission of the Chaldean sword, i.e., the Babylonian army, and its success against Judah and against Ammon; this Prophecy preceded the destruction of Judah by some four or five years, and of Ammon, by ten years.

The minuteness of detail in these predictions, years before they actually became history, is one of the striking facts of Inspiration):

10 It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter; it is furbished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? it contemns the rod of My Son, as every tree. ("It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter," refers to the Lord handing the sharpened sword to the Chaldean slayer in order that it may be used against the Judean wrongdoer.)

11 And He has given it to be furbished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the slayer. (The Babylonian Monarch no doubt thought himself to be a free agent. But long before his campaign against Judah, his victory over Zedekiah, his recourse to divination at the parting of the high roads in northern Israel, and his victory over the Ammonites, all were foretold here.)

12 Cry and howl, son of man: for it shall be upon My People, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel: terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon My People: smite therefore upon your thigh. (In Verse 10, the Holy Spirit uses the phrase, "My Son," as He uses it in this Verse, "My People." The Grace and Love that recognizes here idolatrous Judah in this capacity awaken wonder and worship in the heart.)

13 Because it is a trial, and what if the sword contemn even the rod? it shall be no more, says the Lord GOD. (The meaning of this Passage is that a test of strength between Nebuchadnezzar and Zedekiah will soon commence; the latter will be defeated, his scepter forever broken.)

14 You therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite your hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men who are slain, which enters into their privy chambers. ("And let the sword be doubled the third time," predicts the third and final campaign against Jerusalem. The first invasion took place in 605 B.C., the second happened in 597 B.C., and the last occurred in 586 B.C., which was some four or five years in the future.)

15 I have set the point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied: ah! it is made bright, it is wrapped up for the slaughter. (Judah had many opportunities to repent, but instead they hardened their hearts. Each time they refused the admonishment of Jeremiah and Ezekiel, they "multiplied" the Judgment that was coming, thereby "multiplying the ruins.")

16 Go you one way or other, either on the right hand, or on the left, whithersoever your face is set. (The idea of this Verse is that the sword is promised success here in whatever direction it turns. Such is demanded by the Lord.)

17 I will also smite My Hands together, and I will cause My Fury to rest: I the LORD have said it. ("And I will cause My Fury to rest," refers to the truth that His Fury will not rest until every single prediction is fulfilled concerning the destruction of Judah and Jerusalem. To emphasize the certitude of this action, the Holy Spirit says, "I the LORD have said it.")

GOD USES BABYLON AS A SWORD OF JUDGMENT

18 The Word of the LORD came unto me again, saying (Ezekiel sees, as in a Vision, Nebuchadnezzar and his army on the march)**,

19 Also, you son of man, appoint you two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land: and choose you a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city. ("Appoint you two ways," refers to two different roads. When Nebuchadnezzar reached Damascus [or somewhere nearby], there was an intersection; one road led to Rabbath, the capital of the Ammonites [Deut. 3:11; II Sam. 11:1], and the other road led to Jerusalem.

The Exiles and the people of Judah thought that Rabbath would be Nebuchadnezzar's destination and, therefore, Judah would be spared. It was not to be that way!)

20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defenced. (The balance of this Passage actually speaks of the sword coming to both cities, but now the decision is to be made as to which city comes first!)

21 For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he made his arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the liver. (Two arrows, one marked "Ammon" and the other marked "Jerusalem," were placed in a quiver by Nebuchadnezzar. Whichever one the king drew was accepted as an omen. As well, the liver of a beast or a fowl offered in sacrifice was also examined; its healthy or unhealthy condition accepted as favorable or unfavorable.

However, and unknown to Nebuchadnezzar, the Lord would make the choice.)

22 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint Captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort. (Nebuchadnezzar placed his hand into the quiver to pull out one of the arrows; he looked at it; he saw that it signified Jerusalem.

The phrase, "To appoint Captains," referred to orders and instructions being given for the siege of Jerusalem.)

23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, to them who have sworn oaths: but He will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken. ("And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight," refers to the false prophets in Jerusalem, who still continued to preach peace and prosperity, causing the king and the people to believe that Nebuchadnezzar was not going to come to Jerusalem.

"To them who have sworn oaths," referred to Zedekiah, who had sworn an oath to Nebuchadnezzar but had dallied with the Egyptian faction, conspiring to throw off their subjugation. In fact, Zedekiah went to Babylon in 593 B.C., possibly to allay suspicion concerning his involvement in the plot [Jer. 51:59].)

JUDGMENT ON JUDAH

24 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear: because, I say, that you are come to remembrance, you shall be taken with the hand. (This Verse further emphasizes the treachery of Zedekiah. The iniquity, the transgression, and the sin was this breach of the oath of allegiance taken in the Name of Jehovah. The plural of majesty is used here to emphasize that great transgression and that great sin.)

25 And you, profane wicked prince of Israel, whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end. (The Holy Spirit calls Zedekiah a "wicked prince of Israel.")

26 Thus says the Lord GOD; Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same: exalt him who is low, and abase him who is high. ("Remove the diadem," refers to the Mitre of the High Priest, who would no longer have a Temple nor an avenue for his services. "And take off the crown," refers to the Throne of Judah being abolished by Nebuchadnezzar. The Mitre and the Crown shall alike pass away — taken from their unworthy wearers.)

27 I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no more, until He come Whose right it is; and I will give it Him. ("I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it," refers to Judah being destroyed as a nation, and especially its supreme authority and its throne never again being established, at least not "until He come Whose right it is." This is the despised Jesus of Nazareth, Who will return. To Him shall the diadem be given, "Whose right it is." Meanwhile, God overturns all efforts to give that Crown to another.)

JUDGMENT ON THE AMMONITES

28 And you, son of man, prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; even say you, The sword, the sword is drawn: for the slaughter it is furbished, to consume because of the glittering ("Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the Ammonites," refers to these ancient enemies of Israel. When Nebuchadnezzar took the road to Jerusalem instead of coming to Rabbath, the Ammonites thought surely they had escaped the Judgment. This Prophecy proclaims differently!

"And concerning their reproach," concerns their rejoicing at the destruction of Jerusalem. However, some five years after the fall of Jerusalem, the Chaldeans invaded Ammon; they destroyed it so effectually that it ceased to exist as a nation):

29 While they see vanity unto you, while they divine a lie unto you, to bring you upon the necks of them who are slain, of the wicked, whose day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end. (The phrase, "While they see vanity unto you," refers to the pride of Ammon. "While they divine a lie unto you," refers to the soothsayers among them who divined that Nebuchadnezzar would not attack them as he would Jerusalem, but that they would be spared. The Holy Spirit called their divination "a lie.")

30 Shall I cause it to return into his sheath? I will judge you in the place where you were created, in the land of your nativity. ("I will judge you in the place where you were created," refers to Nebuchadnezzar bringing his army directly into the land, and so destroying Ammon that she would no more exist.)

31 And I will pour out My Indignation upon you, I will blow against you in the fire of My Wrath, and deliver you into the hand of brutish men, and skilful to destroy. (No mercy would be shown by the Babylonians to Ammon. This was because of their gloating over the fall of Judah and Jerusalem.)

32 You shall be for fuel to the fire; your blood shall be in the midst of the land; you shall be no more remembered: for I the LORD have spoken it. ("You shall be no more remembered," refers to all hope of restoration being dashed. Therefore, it seems that God judged them more severely even than He did Sodom [Ezek. 16:53]. The Prophecy spelled their eternal doom.

However, their destruction was not instantaneous. They survived into the Second Century B.C., which was about 300 years after this Prophecy. Today there are no more Ammonites and there will never be again.)

(593 B.C.)

THE SINS OF JERUSALEM

[1] Moreover the Word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

[2] Now, you son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? yes, you shall show her all her abominations. (As the previous Prophecy concerned itself with the land of Judah as a whole, this Prophecy concerns itself with the city of Jerusalem. Concerning the city, and coupled with the review of Israel's moral history in Chapter 20, and with the entire Book of Jeremiah, there should be extraordinary interest because these things mark the transference of the government of the world from Israel to the Gentiles.)

[3] Then say you, Thus says the Lord GOD, the city sheds blood in the midst of it, that her time may come, and makes idols against herself to defile herself. (The blood shed in the city was that of children sacrificed to Moloch, and of people murdered for the sake of gain [Vss. 6, 9, 12-13].)

[4] You are become guilty in your blood that you have shed; and have defiled yourself in your idols which you have made; and you have caused your days to draw near, and are come even unto your years: therefore have I made you a reproach unto the heathen, and a mocking to all countries. ("And you have caused your days to draw near," refers to the soon-to-come Judgment.)

[5] Those who be near, and those who be far from you, shall mock you, which are infamous and much vexed. (The phrase, "And much vexed," refers to Jerusalem in a state of moral tumult and disorder as the consequence of its guilt.)

6 Behold, the Princes of Israel, every one was in you to their power to shed blood. (The kings of Israel used their power for violence, injustice, and murder, and not for protection, peace, and righteousness.

"Every one was in you to their power to shed blood," refers to the fact that there was no restraint upon the doer of evil other than the limitation of his capacity.)

7 In you have they set light by father and mother: in the midst of you have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in you have they vexed the fatherless and the widow. ("In you," refers to Jerusalem, which should have provided the leadership for the entire nations and, in fact, the world; however, they did the very opposite!)

8 You have despised My Holy Things, and have profaned My Sabbaths. (The phrase, "My Holy Things," refers to the entirety of the Law and the Divine Ordinances. They not only forsook them, but they "despised" them, proving that sin never remains static, but always involves itself in its increase.)

9 In you are men who carry tales to shed blood: and in you they eat upon the mountains: in the midst of you they commit lewdness. ("In you are men who carry tales to shed blood," pertains to the Lord knowing and seeing through every plot, irrespective of how much men may think their sins are hidden.)

10 In you have they discovered their fathers' nakedness: in you have they humbled her who was set apart for pollution. (The phrase, "In you have they discovered their fathers' nakedness," speaks of incest between a son and his mother, which constituted the vilest of vile sins, and seems, horribly so, to have been quite common.

"In you have they humbled her who was set apart for pollution," refers to women being forced to commit the sex act even during the time of their monthly period. This was forbidden by the Lord, because the monthly period of the woman, which discharged impurities from her physical body, was meant by the Lord to portray as such the Fall of man and the subsequent spiritual condition of all babies born thereafter. As a result of this serving as such a symbol, the Lord forbade intercourse during this particular time each month. By ignoring this Command of the Lord, at least at this time, the guilty party was, in effect, refuting the lostness of man and the need for a Saviour.)

[11] And one has committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and another has lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in you has humbled his sister; his father's daughter. (This Passage, as well, speaks of adultery and incest.)

[12] In you have they taken gifts to shed blood; you have taken usury and increase, and you have greedily gained of your neighbours by extortion, and have forgotten Me, says the Lord GOD. (Added to the sexual immorality was the immorality of murder and greed.)

JUDGMENT; THE DROSS A SIGN OF PUNISHMENT FOR SIN

[13] Behold, therefore I have smitten My Hand at your dishonest gain which you have made, and at your blood which has been in the midst of you. (The Lord will no longer tolerate such actions, and the gesture signifies a soon conclusion with the coming of great Judgment. The idea is: the Lord will stop the evil, and use whatever means necessary to do so!)

[14] Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with you? I the LORD have spoken it, and will do it. (The question of this Verse implies an answer in the negative.)

[15] And I will scatter you among the heathen, and disperse you in the countries, and will consume your filthiness out of you. (The actions threatened in Verse 14 are described in Verses 15 and 16. The Divine Purpose was that Israel should be apart from and enthroned as queen above the nations of the Earth; but her own conduct caused her to lose that supremacy, and thus, she profaned herself by making herself a common nation.)

[16] And you shall take your inheritance in yourself in the sight of the heathen, and you shall know that I Am the LORD. (Her inheritance was squandered by trying to become as the "heathen.")

17 And the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, the House of Israel is to Me become dross: all they are brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are even the dross of silver. (This Passage refers to the unholy mixture of idol worship with the worship of the True God. Silver is used by the Holy Spirit as a symbol of Redemption and Righteousness. The baser metals were used as symbols of unrighteousness.)

19 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; Because you are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. ("Because you are all become dross," speaks of so few righteous being in the city that it could not be spared.)

20 As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in My Anger and in My Fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you. (The Lord appeals for Repentance; if such is forthcoming, it is always met with approval and resultant blessing. If such is not forthcoming, Judgment is the only other recourse, and is always done in "My Anger and in My Fury.")

21 Ye s, I will gather you, and blow upon you in the fire of My Wrath, and you shall be melted in the midst thereof. (This refers to the bellows which blew upon the fire in the crucible, supplying more oxygen and, thereby, greater heat. The Lord here says that He will serve as those bellows.)

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall you be melted in the midst thereof; and you shall know that I the LORD have poured out My Fury upon you. (The phrase, "And you shall know," proclaims the truth that even though they did not previously believe, there would come an hour, and shortly, that they would believe, but it would be too late!)

PROPHECY AGAINST ISRAEL; THE EXTENT OF THE APOSTASY

[23] And the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying (a third Prophecy now opens, with the Prophet addressing himself not to Jerusalem only, but to the entire Land of Judah),

[24] Son of man, say unto her, You are the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation. (The conscience that is not cleansed by the Precious Blood of Christ and the heart that is not fertilized by the Rain of the Holy Spirit are necessarily unclean, however adorned with religious ceremonies the outward life may be.)

[25] There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof. (The phrase, "There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof," refers to false prophets who conspire against Jeremiah and Ezekiel, but more particularly against Jeremiah, because he prophesied in Jerusalem. They determined by collusion to fill the land with their false prophecies and, thereby, counteract his true Prophecies.)

[26] Her Priests have violated My Law, and have profaned My Holy Things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they showed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from My Sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. ("Her Priests have violated My Law," did not mean that the Priests suppressed the Bible, of which they were the custodians, but that they violated it. For example, they denied its Inspiration and Authority; they profaned its teachings, that is, they lowered the Book to the common level of other books; they thrust aside its teaching as to separation from evil; and by making the Sabbath as under the Law similar to rest of the days of the week, they degraded its Author to a position in the common multitude of gods, and thus profaned Him.)

[27] Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain. (The Holy Spirit referred to the leaders of Judah as "wolves ravening the prey.")

28 And her prophets have daubed them with untempered morter, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus sa ys the Lord GOD, when the LORD has not spoken. (The princes and their popular Preachers had one main object in view — the amassing of wealth by fair means or foul.)

29 The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yes, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully. (Not only were the leaders and the prophets corrupt, but the common people of the land fell into the same category; they took their cue from the leaders and the prophets.)

30 And I sought for a man among them, who should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before Me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none. ("And I sought for a man among them," portrays Judah and Jerusalem in dire straits indeed! Jeremiah, it is true, was there; but he had been taken out by God from among them and forbidden to pray for them [Jer. 11:14]. Among the citizens, none were found able or willing to attempt a Reformation or call the nation to prayer.)

31 Therefore have I poured out My Indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of My Wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, says the Lord GOD. (Neither a reformer ["the hedge"] nor an Intercessor ["the gap"] was found in the guilty city to save it from destruction. "Therefore have I poured out My Indignation upon them.")

PARABLE OF TWO SISTERS; AHOLAH (SAMARIA) AND AHOLIBAH (JERUSALEM)

[1] The Word of the LORD came again unto me, saying (this Chapter clearly and graphically illustrates the sin and wickedness of both the Northern and the Southern Kingdoms of Samaria and Judah),

[2] Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother (pictures both Kingdoms, Samaria and Judah. The phrase, "The daughters of one mother," refers to Sarah, who gave birth to Isaac, who sired Jacob, from whom sprang the twelve sons representing the Twelve Tribes of Israel):

[3] And they committed whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity. (This Chapter reviews their conduct from Egypt to the final destruction of their city and the nation. Thus, under this lengthened test of about 1,100 years was demonstrated the incurable idolatry of man's fallen nature. Idolatry continues today in the realm of Believers making something other than the Cross of Christ the object of their faith.)

[4] And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister: and they were Mine, and they bore sons and daughters. Thus were their names; Samaria is Aholah, and Jerusalem Aholibah. ("Aholibah" in the Hebrew means "Shalibah," and refers to Jerusalem and means "My tent is in her." "The elder," referring to "Aholah" [Samaria], probably would have been better translated "the greater," because, at least at the beginning, the power of the Northern Kingdom of the Ten Tribes was greater, because they greatly outnumbered the population of the Two Tribes of Judah.)

AHOLAH'S IDOLATRY AND PROSTITUTION

5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was Mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbours ("And Aholah played the harlot," refers to her adopting the gods of the "Assyrians." This was probably the worship of Ishtar [Ashtoreth] as the Queen of Heaven. "When she was Mine," refers to the whole of Israel belonging to the Lord by the Mosaic Covenant, which the Lord had made with them, and caused them to become His Wife by Covenant relationship [Isa. 54:5])**,

6 Which were clothed with blue, Captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses. (This Passage brings before us the magnificent array of the Assyrian Cavalry — a force in which Israel, throughout its history, was deficient [Judg. 5:10; Zech. 9:9; Isa. 36:8].)

7 Thus she committed her whoredoms with them, with all them who were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled herself. (This refers to the Northern Kingdom of Samaria being enamored by the power and pomp of the Assyrians. "With all their idols she defiled herself," proclaims her attempting to gain the plaudits of "these chosen men of Assyria" by accepting their idols.)

8 Neither left she her whoredoms brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her. (This tells us that the worship of Egyptian idols was never completely expunged from Samaria. As well, the presence of this wickedness made it much easier to accept the Assyrian idols.)

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted. (What Believers want, if they insist upon it, the Lord will ultimately allow them to have, whether good or bad.)

10 These discovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became famous among women; for they had executed Judgment upon her. (To be "naked" meant to be open to the Judgment of God, which would allow heathen nations to have their way, as with Assyria. "She became famous among women," actually means that she became infamous, because of the Judgment of God upon her, among the surrounding nations.)

JUDAH'S GREATER SINS WITH ASSYRIA AND BABYLON

11 And when her sister Aholibah saw this, she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms more than her sister in her whoredoms. (Judgment, having already destroyed Samaria in sweeping its people into captivity, now a similar doom is impending over Jerusalem. She, far from taking warning from the fate of her northern sister, plunged deeper into the abominations of idolatry.

There was no moral difference between these sisters. The same conduct showed the same nature. The heart at the close was the same as at the beginning. They both were idolaters.)

12 She doted upon the Assyrians her neighbours, Captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men. (Jerusalem, as her northern sister, courted the alliance of the kings of Assyria, as in the case of Ahaz [II Ki. 16:7-10] and Tiglath-Pileser. Even Hezekiah followed in the same line, though his trust was in Egypt — and afterwards rebelled. Manasseh too paid tribute and made Jerusalem the scene of a confluent idolatry, which included that of Assyria.)

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way (this refers to the way of disobedience rather than God's Way)**,

14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with vermilion (this pertains to pictures of gods, which were painted on the walls in various government buildings in Babylon)**,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity (when Judah began to lose her way, because of pulling farther and farther away from Jehovah, they lost the Presence of God, and then the glitter of other nations became very enticing)**:

16 And as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea. (This refers to Judah actively seeking alliances with the Babylonians, which was not at all pleasing to the Lord. The idea is: the Believer must put total and complete Trust and Faith in the Lord, and for all things. If we look to man, we get what man can supply, which is nothing. If we look to God, we get what God can supply, which is everything!)

17 And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and her mind was alienated from them. (All of these terms, such as "whoredom," etc., pertained to Judah being unfaithful to the Lord, and doing so by worshipping idols. "And her mind was alienated from them," is a strange statement! It means that what she thought she was getting, she did not receive. Impure love usually ends in open hatred. So Israel, in the end, hated the Egyptians, the Assyrians, and the Babylonians, and they hated her.)

18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then My Mind was alienated from her, like as My Mind was alienated from her sister. (Because of her sin, the "Mind" of the Lord was alienated from Judah. Whether Judah or a lone Believer, the end result of such disposition on the part of God is catastrophic.)

19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt. (Recalling old sins frequently leads to a resumption of them.)

20 For she doted upon their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses. ("For she doted upon their paramours," refers to the Egyptian princes, whose favor Judah courted. She threw herself into the idolatrous ritual of Egypt with an almost orgiastic passion.

The last phrase is likened to a wife who, in her unfaithfulness, not only commits adultery with a man, but has sexual relations with an animal. He uses such as an example to portray Judah leaving His Presence for the presence of the idol worshipping heathen.)

21 Thus you called to remembrance the lewdness of your youth, in bruising your teats by the Egyptians for the paps of your youth. (The harlot nation returned, as it were, to her first love and renewed the whoredoms of her youth, actually, the very whoredoms from which she was delivered [II Pet. 2:20-22].)

BABYLON, GOD'S INSTRUMENT OF WRATH AGAINST JERUSALEM (AHOLIBAH)

22 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I will raise up your lovers against you, from whom your mind is alienated, and I will bring them against you on every side *(the Passage refers to the Babylonians and others, which would turn against Judah. In other words, the very safety and protection she thought she was securing would turn out to be the very opposite!);

23 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: all of them desirable young men, Captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses. ("Pekod, Shoa, and Koa" were eastern nations. They are all named in the Babylonian inscriptions. "Riding upon horses," refers to something which once greatly impressed Judah; but now they ride over her in destruction.)

24 And they shall come against you with chariots, wagons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against you buckler and shield and helmet round about: and I will set Judgment before them, and they shall judge you according to their judgments. (The Passage refers to the fact that no pity will be shown whatsoever to hapless Judah.)

25 And I will set My Jealousy against you, and they shall deal furiously with you: they shall take away your nose and your ears; and your remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take your sons and your daughters; and your residue shall be devoured by the fire. (The phrase, "They shall take away your nose and your ears," refers to the manner in which the Babylonians mutilated their prisoners by cutting off their nose and ears. They slaughtered others, or even burned them alive. Others, they stripped of their property and clothes, making them slaves.)

26 They shall also strip you out of your clothes, and take away your fair jewels.

27 Thus will I make your lewdness to cease from you, and your whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that you shall not lift up your eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more. (The fact that Israel was an idolater in Egypt is again recalled, because she had never fully overcome the propensity toward this evil.)

28 For thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I will deliver you into the hand of them whom you hate, into the hand of them from whom your mind is alienated (refers to a former love for Babylon that had now passed into loathing. They will now receive with disgust their fill of that for which they had once so ardently sought)**:

29 And they shall deal with you hatefully, and shall take away all your labour, and shall leave you naked and bare: and the nakedness of your whoredoms shall be discovered, both your lewdness and your whoredoms. (All of this speaks of them forsaking Jehovah and resorting to idols.)

30 I will do these things unto you, because you have gone a whoring after the heathen, and because you are polluted with their idols. ("And because you are polluted with their idols," refers to what always happens to the Child of God concerning involvement with the world. It always brings "spiritual pollution.")

31 You have walked in the way of your sis ter; therefore will I give her cup into your hand. (This refers to the Northern Kingdom of Samaria, with her way referring to idol worship and, above all, the way of the world instead of the Way of God.)

32 Thus says the Lord GOD; You shall drink of your sister's cup deep and large: you shall be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it contains much. ("You shall drink of your sister's cup deep and large," pertains to the Judgment being far more severe than anyone contemplated.

The phrase, "You shall be laughed to scorn and had in derision," refers to them laughing at the Prophecies of Jeremiah and Ezekiel, who had been sent by the Lord. Now, in turn, the surrounding nations will do the same to Judah upon her fall.

"It contains much," refers to them answering the Prophets by saying that it contained little!)

33 You shall be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of your sister Samaria. (The "drunkenness" of the first phrase does not refer to alcohol inebriation, but instead the drunkenness of anguish — an anguish so great as to cause the captives to beat their bosoms in despair.)

34 You shall even drink it and suck it out, and you shall break the sherds thereof, and pluck off your own breasts: for I have spoken it, says the Lord GOD. ("You shall even drink it and suck it out," refers to not only the entire cup being drunk, but the bitter dregs at the bottom being consumed, as well. The mutilation of "your own breasts" refers to the anguish being so severe that many would take a "shard," a fragment of brittle substance, and cut themselves with it.)

35 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; Because you have forgotten Me, and cast Me behind your back, therefore bear you also your lewdness and your whoredoms. (The first phrase pertains to Judah forsaking the Word of God and, thereby, forsaking God. The latter phrase refers to idol worship with all its attendant demon spirits.)

GOD'S JUDGMENT ON AHOLAH (SAMARIA) AND AHOLIBAH (JERUSALEM)

[36] The LORD said moreover unto me; Son of man, will you judge Aholah and Aholibah? yes, declare unto them their abominations (the phrase, "Yes, declare unto them their abominations," pertains to the sins being named, which they were)**;

[37] That they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, and have also caused their sons, whom they bore unto Me, to pass for them through the fire, to devour them. ("They have committed adultery," refers to idol worship, because the Lord looks at Judah as His Wife and He, her husband [Isa. 54:5]. The phrase, "To pass for them through the fire, to devour them," had to do with Judah offering up her sons in human sacrifice to the hideous god, Molech.)

[38] Moreover this they have done unto Me: they have defiled My Sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned My Sabbaths. (The phrase, "Moreover this they have done unto Me," proclaims the truth that the deepest depth of evil is the association of idolatry with God, which these Judahites did!)

[39] For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into My Sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, thus have they done in the midst of My House. (In other words, they would offer up their children as sacrifice in the morning [which is horrible beyond contemplation], and then they would take a lamb to the Temple that afternoon and offer it up in Sacrifice.)

[40] And furthermore, that you have sent for men to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent; and, lo, they came: for whom you did wash yourself, painted your eyes, and decked yourself with ornaments (this refers to ambassadors which had been sent from time to time by both Samaria and Jerusalem to Egypt, Assyria, and Babylon, seeking alliances; to secure those alliances, they embraced the idol worship of each respective country)**,

41 And sat upon a stately bed, and a table prepared before it, whereupon you have set My Incense and My Oil. ("And sat upon a stately bed," has reference to the "Altar," or "Table of worship," which sat before the Veil immediately in front of the Holy of Holies. There the Priests would offer up Incense after partaking of idol worship.)

42 And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men of the common sort were brought Sabeans from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads. ("And a voice of a multitude [tumult] being at ease was with her," refers to the fact that Jerusalem had strayed so far from God that now the heathen were "at ease with her." The reason: Judah's religion was no different than theirs!)

43 Then said I unto her who was old in adulteries, Will they now commit whoredoms with her, and she with them? (This pertains to the heathen nations which Judah courted, and which had been long in debauchery — actually all of their existence.)

44 Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman who plays the harlot: so went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah, the lewd women. (Here the Lord calls Samaria and Jerusalem, "the lewd women.")

45 And the righteous men, they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women who shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands. (The idea of Verses 45 through 49 is that inasmuch as Jerusalem is both a murderess and an adulteress, she shall suffer the punishment of stoning, which the Law commanded for such [Lev. 20:10; Deut. 22:22, 24]. It refers to a sentence of death, which the Babylonians carried out!)

46 For thus says the Lord GOD; I will bring up a company upon them, and will give them to be removed and spoiled. (The phrase, "And will give them to be removed and spoiled," refers to the people being removed from the Promised Land.)

47 And the company shall stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire. (As stated, the sentence was "death"!)

[48] Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness. (The "lewdness" refers to idolatry, which would be made "to cease out of the land." And that's exactly what ultimately happened!

"That all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness," refers to the heathen nations who were supposed to have been taught about the Lord by Judah, but instead were taught otherwise. Therefore, at least in part, they abrogated their very reason for existing.)

[49] And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and you shall bear the sins of your idols: and you shall know that I Am the Lord GOD. (Jerusalem suffered the just doom of an adulteress; her walls were beaten down with stones, her houses burned with fire, and her children slain with the sword. This fearful doom was occasioned by their own conduct; it could not be ascribed to Divine injustice.

"And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you," refers to her receiving the very opposite of what she thought she would receive by her alliances with these heathen nations.)

PARABLE OF THE BOILING POT

[1] Again in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying ("Again in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month," refers to the very day that Nebuchadnezzar came against Jerusalem to destroy it completely. The siege lasted about 18 months before the fall of the city)**,

[2] Son of man, write you the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem this same day. (For some 38 years, Jeremiah had been prophesying of this time, and Ezekiel about 4 years. Tragically, even with Nebuchadnezzar at their door, and no one allowed to go in or come out of the city, the people still would not repent. Their hopes were on Egypt to come to their rescue, and not the Lord. Such shows the incurable disposition of their wicked hearts, in that they would rebel against the Lord unto the very last.)

[3] And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus says the Lord GOD; Set on a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it (Jerusalem was the pot, and the fire under it represented the Babylonians, who were besieging the city)**:

[4] Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones. (The expressions, "every good piece" and "choice bones," represented the Nobles and chief men of the people. The intent of the statement is that these would suffer the same fate as the common people.)

[5] Take the choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein. ("And make it boil well," refers to the agony of this time not being short, but instead protracted and exceedingly painful.)

6 Wherefore thus says the Lord GOD; Woe to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! Bring it out piece by piece; let no lot fall upon it. (The phrase, "And whose scum is not gone out of it," refers to the entirety of the pot being "scum," which is how the Lord characterized Jerusalem.)

7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock; she poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust *(this refers to the Law as commanded in Lev. 17:13. It stated that blood should be hidden in the earth. Jerusalem's guilt was visible and open, and cried as loudly for Judgment as blood exposed on the top of a rock. God, therefore, dealt with her as a blood-stained city);

8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered. ("I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered," in its simplest form means that if they would not allow Christ to cover their sins, their sins and the resultant Judgment would be open to all.)

9 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; Woe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great. (Once again, and about Jerusalem, we have the words which Nahum had used of Nineveh because of its terrible cruelty.)

10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burned. (This Verse expresses the severity of the Judgment that has already begun.)

11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the brass of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed. ("Scum" pictures idolatry, as the people had become like that which they worshipped; they were, therefore, to be "consumed.")

12 She has wearied herself with lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire. ("She has wearied herself with lies," refers to all that which was not the Word of God. Jerusalem chose to believe the lie instead of believing the truth.)

13 In your filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged you, and you were not purged, you shall not be purged from your filthiness any more, till I have caused My Fury to rest upon you. ("Filthiness" must be purged by Calvary, or else it will be purged by Judgment, but purged it shall be!)

14 I the LORD have spoken it: it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to your ways, and according to your doings, shall they judge you, says the Lord GOD. (The gist of this Verse is that Judah had gone so far down the road of wickedness that even Repentance would not spare the nation, although it would save their souls.)

THE DEATH OF EZEKIEL'S WIFE; A SIGN — NO MOURNING, SIGNIFYING JUDGMENT

15 Also the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

16 Son of man, behold, I take away from you the desire of your eyes with a stroke: yet neither shall you mourn nor weep, neither shall your tears run down. (By the words, "The desire of your eyes," we know that the relationship of this husband and wife was very close. His love for her was excelled only by his love for God. The death of the Prophet's wife was to be a sign to the Exiles.)

17 Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead, bind the tire of your head upon you, and put on your shoes upon your feet, and cover not your lips, and eat not the bread of men. (A son of Aaron, as Ezekiel was, was permitted to remove his turban as a sign of grief [Lev. 10:6; 13:45; 21:10]. Ezekiel was denied this privilege. He was to show no sign of mourning whatsoever!)

18 So I spoke unto the people in the morning: and at evening my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded. (Ezekiel, knowing that his wife had but hours left to live, yet obeyed the Lord in conducting a service "in the morning." The Text simply says: "And at evening my wife died." When she expired, he, no doubt, was by her side. His hand must have held hers and caressed her so tenderly and gently, but then the deadly "stroke" came, and she was gone.)

[19] And the people said unto me, Will you not tell us what these things are to us, that you do so? (There is no way that one can know the sorrow that filled Ezekiel's heart that eventful night. And yet, his strange demeanor, which the Lord demanded of him, had the effect it was meant to have. It aroused these Exiles to ask questions.)

[20] Then I answered them, The Word of the LORD came unto me, saying (it seems that the Lord had given Ezekiel little reason as to why his wife was to be taken. But now, almost immediately after her death, the explanation will be given)**,

[21] Speak unto the House of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I will profane My Sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pities; and your sons and your daughters whom you have left shall fall by the sword. (Ezekiel's wife was a symbol of the Temple, the desire of the eyes of Israel. As his wife died, so the Temple would die. And there is no way that one could properly explain what the loss of the Temple meant to Israel, and for the entirety of the world, for that matter! This was where God dwelt, between the Mercy Seat and the Cherubim. It was His Building and, in fact, the only building on Earth that had been designed and occupied by Him, at least at that time. From there He governed His People, with His Presence constantly hovering over them.)

[22] And you shall do as I have done: you shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men. (As a sign to these hapless Exiles, Ezekiel had not been allowed by the Lord to weep or mourn over the passing of his wife. Likewise, the Exiles were not to weep over the plight of their loved ones back home.)

[23] And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: you shall not mourn nor weep; but you shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one toward another. (The idea, as presented by the Lord, is that national calamity is going to be so severe that personal grief would be swallowed up in that sorrow. As well, the people were to understand that this calamity had come upon them because of "your iniquities.")

[24] Thus Ezekiel is unto you a sign: according to all that he has done shall you do: and when this comes, you shall know that I am the Lord GOD. ("And when this comes," refers to the destruction of Jerusalem being yet future, but only months away.)

[25] Also, you son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their minds, their sons and their daughters ("when I take from them their strength," refers to the Temple, which will be destroyed, and which is their strength; in fact, they had ceased to understand what the Temple really represented)**,

[26] That he who escapes in that day shall come unto you, to cause you to hear it with your ears? (All that Jeremiah and Ezekiel had prophesied, which the people had refused to believe, now they would "hear it with their ears.")

[27] In that day shall your mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and you shall speak, and be no more dumb: and you shall be a sign unto them; and they shall know that I Am the LORD. (After this message, it seems that the Prophet was to speak no more to his people, but was instead to "be dumb" until the arrival some months later of the messengers announcing the fall of Jerusalem and the destruction of the Temple.)

THE PROPHECY AGAINST THE AMMONITES

[1] The Word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

[2] Son of man, set your face against the Ammonites, and prophesy against them (the country of Ammon, with Rabbah as its chief city, bordered Israel on the east [modern day Jordan]. The Holy Spirit tells Ezekiel: "Prophesy against them");

[3] And say unto the Ammonites, Hear the Word of the Lord GOD; Thus says the Lord GOD; Because you said, Aha, against My Sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the Land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the House of Judah, when they went into captivity (the Ammonites rejoiced when Judah and Jerusalem fell. We must learn from this that we should not rejoice when God punishes guilty men, for that will bring His Anger upon those who do so. Psalm 83, the Prophecy of Obadiah, Psalm 137, Amos 1:11, and Lamentations, Chapter 4 should be read in connection with this Prophecy);

[4] Behold, therefore I will deliver you to the men of the east for a possession, and they shall set their palaces in you, and make their dwellings in you: they shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk. (The "men of the east" referred to Babylon. About five years after the destruction of Jerusalem, the Babylonians took Ammon.)

[5] And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the Ammonites a couching place for flocks: and you shall know that I Am the LORD. (As Ammon had humiliated Judah, now they would be humiliated.)

[6] For thus says the Lord GOD; Because you have clapped your hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced in heart with all your despite against the land of Israel ("Stamped with the feet," means that they danced with joy when the Temple was burned and Jerusalem was destroyed)**;

7 Behold, therefore I will stretch out My Hand upon you, and will deliver you for a spoil to the heathen; and I will cut you off from the people, and I will cause you to perish out of the countries: I will destroy you; and you shall know that I Am the LORD. (Exactly as predicted, the Babylonians destroyed Ammon, and the country actually ceased to exist about 300 years later.)

PROPHECY AGAINST MOAB

8 Thus says the Lord GOD; Because that Moab and Seir do say, Behold, the House of Judah is like unto all the heathen (the sin of "Moab" and "Seir" was like that of Ammon in that they exulted in the fall of Jerusalem)**;

9 Therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim (Moab and Seir bordered Israel on the east and lay immediately south of Ammon)**,

10 Unto the men of the east with the Ammonites, and will give them in possession, that the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations. (This is the second time that the Lord says that Ammon will be no more. This is not idle repetition, but to denote the certitude of the promised action.)

11 And I will execute judgments upon Moab; and they shall know that I Am the LORD. (As Ammon, the Lord says, "So will be Moab.")

PROPHECY AGAINST EDOM

12 Thus says the Lord GOD; Because that Edom has dealt against the House of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them (Judgment is pronounced upon Edom likewise, and for the same sin of rejoicing in the fall of Judah and Jerusalem)**;

[13] Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; I will also stretch out My Hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; and they of Dedan shall fall by the sword. (The Judgment upon Edom is demanded by Gen. 25:23.)

[14] And I will lay My Vengeance upon Edom by the hand of My People Israel: and they shall do in Edom according to My Anger and according to My Fury; and they shall know My Vengeance, says the Lord GOD. (Edom took vengeance upon Judah [Vs. 12], and now the Lord will take vengeance upon them.)

PROPHECY AGAINST THE PHILISTINES

[15] Thus says the Lord GOD; Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance, with a despiteful heart, to destroy it for the old hatred. ("Old hatred," proclaims the fact that the Philistines and Israel had been enemies for centuries. It is from their name that the modern name "Palestine" is derived. However, the modern Palestinians are not descendants of the Philistines, but rather they are Egyptians, Syrians, Jordanians, etc.)

[16] Therefore thus sa ys the Lord GOD; Behold, I will stretch out My Hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethims, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast. (The "Cherethims" are probably the same as the "Cherethites" [II Sam. 8:18; 15:18]. They also would be destroyed. All of this proclaims the Lord's Dominion over all Gentile powers, in fact, the entirety of the world.)

[17] And I will execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes; and they shall know that I Am the LORD, when I shall lay My Vengeance upon them. (Thus, these four nations [Vss. 5, 11, 14, 17] would get to know, to their sorrow, that the God of Israel exists, and that He judges sin.)

CHAPTER 26

PROPHECIES AGAINST TYRUS

[1] And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying (the Holy Spirit devotes Chapters 26 through 28 to Tyre. We will find out the reason as we proceed),

[2] Son of man, because that Tyrus has said against Jerusalem, Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people: she is turned unto Me: I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste (according to Herodotus, Tyre was founded in 2700 B.C.; the city became prosperous and became the principal Phoenician port controlling the Phoenician coast; it was on the border of Israel to the north; "the gates of the people," referring to Jerusalem, proclaimed the fact of Jerusalem's supremacy; Tyre also rejoiced over her fall):

NEBUCHADNEZZAR WILL BE GOD'S INSTRUMENT OF DESTRUCTION

[3] Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against you, O Tyrus, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes his waves to come up. ("As the sea causes his waves to come up," refers to the first great wave of the Babylonians against Tyre, and the last, the Greeks; for the Prophecy of this Chapter embraces both destructions.)

[4] And they shall destroy the walls of Tyrus, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock. (The "walls" refer to the first destruction by Nebuchadnezzar, with the phrase, "I will also scrape her dust from her," referring to Alexander the Great, who built a causeway to attack the new Tyre. History records that his soldiers, in order to complete the causeway, gathered the dust of old Tyre in baskets and emptied them into the waters, fulfilling this Prophecy.)

5 It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea: for I have spoken it, says the Lord GOD: and it shall become a spoil to the nations. (All of this was fulfilled in entirety.)

6 And her daughters who are in the field shall be slain by the sword; and they shall know that I Am the LORD. (The "daughters" refer to the neighboring towns which were dependent upon Tyre.)

7 For thus sa ys the Lord GOD; Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people. ("Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus...," refers to the Lordship of Christ as Sovereign Ruler over all. One may notice that the title, "a king of kings," is given to Nebuchadnezzar by the Holy Spirit. This was so, for many other kings submitted to him. However, Christ is "The King of kings," and is the only One Who will ever serve in this capacity.)

8 He shall slay with the sword your daughters in the field: and he shall make a fort against you, and cast a mount against you, and lift up the buckler against you. (This Verse proclaims the nature of the siege that Nebuchadnezzar would lay against Tyre. The siege lasted thirteen years before Tyre eventually fell.)

9 And he shall set engines of war against your walls, and with his axes he shall break down your towers. (The "engines of war" consisted of huge catapults designed to hurl great stones at the walls in order to make a breach in them.)

10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover you: your walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into your gates, as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach. (When the walls were finally breached by Nebuchadnezzar, the might and power of his army and cavalry quickly overran the city.)

11 With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all your streets: he shall slay your people by the sword, and your strong garrisons shall go down to the ground. (The "he" and "his" of Verses 9 through 11 proclaim Nebuchadnezzar; the "they" of Verse 12, the soldiers of Alexander. The two invasions were separated by about 150 years.)

12 And they shall make a spoil of your riches, and make a prey of your merchandise: and they shall break down your walls, and destroy your pleasant houses: and they shall lay your stones and your timber and your dust in the midst of the water. (As stated, the last phrase of this Verse, concerning the "dust in the midst of the water," refers to Alexander's invasion.)

13 And I will cause the noise of your songs to cease; and the sound of your harps shall be no more heard. (Tyre was eminent no less for its culture than for its commerce.)

14 And I will make you like the top of a rock: you shall be a place to spread nets upon; you shall be built no more: for I the LORD have spoken it, says the Lord GOD. ("You shall be built no more," speaks of this "rock" where old Tyre was located. Today, as for centuries past, the sight of the ancient city, as described here, is a bare rock upon which fishermen dry their nets. However, a short time before World War II, a new Tyre was built somewhat inland, but stretching to the sea. It presently has a population of 10,000 – 20,000.)

THE LAMENT OF THE SEAPORT RULERS OVER TYRUS

15 Thus says the Lord GOD to Tyrus; Shall not the isles shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of you? (That which happened to Jerusalem would ultimately happen to Tyre.)

16 Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their broidered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be astonished at you. ("Princes of the sea," referred to the merchant princes who had made Tyre one of the greatest centers of commerce in the world. Now they are astonished at the fall of Tyre, which they thought could not happen.)

[17] And they shall take up a lamentation for you, and say to you, How are you destroyed, that was inhabited of seafaring men, the renowned city, which was strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, which cause their terror to be on all who haunt it! (Due to the riches and power of Tyre, the surrounding countries did not think she would fall, and especially considering that it took Nebuchadnezzar 13 years to subdue the city.)

[18] Now shall the isles tremble in the day of your fall; yes, the isles that are in the sea shall be troubled at your departure. (The troubling of the surrounding countries is due to the commerce of Tyre, which had contributed to their prosperity, but would now be lost.)

[19] For thus says the Lord GOD; When I shall make you a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep upon you, and great waters shall cover you (the city that had been so rich and prosperous now will be made "desolate")**;

[20] When I shall bring you down with them who descend into the pit, with the people of old time, and shall set you in the low parts of the Earth, in places desolate of old, with them who go down to the pit, that you be not inhabited; and I shall set Glory in the Land of the Living ("When I shall bring you down with them who descend into the pit," is actually a portrayal of Hell itself, and her shut up with the antediluvians, i.e., "with the people of old time." "And I shall set Glory in the Land of the Living," refers to the Messiah ultimately reigning in Glory in the Land of the Living, at Jerusalem, in the midst of the redeemed sons of Israel, which will take place in the coming Kingdom Age)**;

[21] I will make you a terror, and you shall be no more: though you be sought for, yet shall you never be found again, says the Lord GOD. (This Passage and all the information given about Tyre [which represents the system of this world] portray the fact that this system is going to ultimately perish, and Jesus Christ will reign supreme. In fact, that time is nearer now than ever!)

CHAPTER 27

(588 B.C.)

THE LAMENTATION OVER TYRUS; HER SPLENDOR AND WEALTH

1 The Word of the LORD came again unto me, saying (the reason the Holy Spirit gives such detail concerning Tyrus is because this city is a symbol of Satan's efforts to build an earthly kingdom and, thereby, meet the needs of man without God. As such, Tyre serves in the Old Testament as a symbol of the world's corrupt system, as a rebuilt Babylon will serve in the New Testament. As the Lord destroyed the former, He likewise will destroy the latter!)**,

2 Now, you son of man, take up a lamentation for Tyrus (the "lamentation" for Tyrus is given by the Holy Spirit because this city and its commerce was helped greatly by Satan, and was, thereby, used as a spiritual projection of his gospel of deception)**;

3 And say unto Tyrus, O you who are situate at the entry of the sea, which are a merchant of the people for many isles, Thus says the Lord GOD; O Tyrus, you have said, I am of perfect beauty. ("O Tyrus, you have said, I am of perfect beauty," refers to the pride of that city, which Chapter 28 will address more thoroughly. In fact, the same phrase is used of Satan [28:12].)

4 Your borders are in the midst of the seas, your builders have perfected your beauty. (The phrase, "Your builders have perfected your beauty," refers to the merchants of this great commercial activity, in effect, being helped by Satan regarding the prosperity of the city.)

5 They have made all your ship boards of fir trees of Senir: they have taken cedars from Lebanon to make masts for you. (Many years before, these "cedars" had been used to build the Temple, the dwellingplace of Jehovah under the old economy of God.)

6 Of the oaks of Bashan have they made your oars; the company of the Ashurites have made your benches of ivory, brought out of the Isles of Chittim. (The use of ivory in ship- or house-building seems to have been one of the arts for which Tyre was famous.)

7 Fine linen with broidered work from Egypt was that which you spread forth to be your sail; blue and purple from the Isles of Elishah was that which covered you. (This refers to some of the fine, broidered sails that graced some of the ships of Tyre, relative to the common sails of most ships.)

8 The inhabitants of Zidon and Arvad were your mariners: your wise men, O Tyrus, who were in you, were your pilots. (The intent of this Verse is to proclaim the fact that the common sailors came from Zidon and Arvad, while Tyre furnished the officers. Thus, Tyre is held as a cut above the others, even as Satan intended! [Zidon, sometimes spelled "Sidon," was about 30 miles north of Tyre.])

9 The ancients of Gebal and the wise men thereof were in you your calkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you to occupy your merchandise. (This refers to the constant business activity of the merchant ships in continuing, and without fail, to increase the riches of Tyre.)

TYRUS' MILITARY MIGHT

10 They of Persia and of Lud and of Phut were in your army, your men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in you; they set forth your comeliness. (The phrase, "They set forth your comeliness," means they guarded the riches.)

11 The men of Arvad with your army were upon your walls round about, and the Gammadims were in your towers: they hanged their shields upon your walls round about; they have made your beauty perfect. (This Scripture proclaims the military might of Tyre; consequently, she was so strong that had not the Lord helped Nebuchadnezzar, he would never have been able to take the city.)

THE MERCHANTS OF TYRUS

12 Tarshish was your merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in your fairs. (The phrase, "Tarshish was your merchant," refers to Spain, where Jonah had attempted to go [Jonah 1:3].)

13 Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were your merchants: they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass in your market. ("They traded the persons of men and vessels of brass in your market," referred to the buying and selling of slaves, as well as merchandise.)

14 They of the House of Togarmah traded in your fairs with horses and horsemen and mules. ("Togarmah" was Armenia. The area was famous for its "horses and horsemen and mules.")

15 The men of Dedan were your merchants; many isles were the merchandise of your hand: they brought you for a present horns of ivory and ebony. ("Ebony" is a rock-hard heavy wood, yielded by various old world tropical dicotyledonous trees. It was very valuable and used to make fine furniture, etc.)

16 Syria was your merchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of your making: they occupied in your fairs with emeralds, purple, and broidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and agate. (As is obvious in these Passages, Tyre was the trading point of the world. Therefore, her wealth must have been extensive, to say the least!)

17 Judah, and the land of Israel, they were your merchants: they traded in your market wheat of Minnith, and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and balm. (When "Judah" and the "Land of Israel" are mentioned, even though the Holy Spirit does not highlight their mention, still, there is a quickening of the Spirit.)

18 Damascus was your merchant in the multitude of the wares of your making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Helbon, and white wool.

19 Dan also and Javan going to and fro occupied in your fairs: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were in your market. (The "Dan" spoken of here is not the Tribe of Dan, but instead a place in Arabia known for its steel used for sword-blades, for which Yemen was famous, hence, "bright iron.")

20 Dedan was your merchant in precious clothes for chariots. (This probably referred to a type of colorful carpet used as saddlecloths. As well, the material was used to ritually decorate expensive chariots.)

21 Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they occupied with you in lambs, and rams, and goats: in these were they your merchants. ("Dedan" and "Kedar" both were in Arabia.)

22 The merchants of Sheba and Raamah, they were your merchants: they occupied in your fairs with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold. (It is readily observable that every single thing in the world of that day was traded, with Tyre being the center of all such activity.)

23 Haran, and Canneh, and Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad, were your merchants. ("Haran" was the same city where Abraham lived for a while before going on into the Land of Canaan. It was about 300 miles north of Damascus.)

24 These were your merchants in all sorts of things, in blue clothes, and broidered work, and in chest of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among your merchandise.

25 The ships of Tarshish did sing of you in your market: and you were replenished, and made very glorious in the midst of the seas. ("Tarshish" was in Spain, showing the distance to which the trade extended. "And made very glorious in the midst of the seas," refers to vessels from all over the world of that day, signifying the port of Tyre as their destination.)

THE TOTAL DESTRUCTION OF TYRUS

[26] Your rowers have brought you into great waters; the east wind has broken you in the midst of the seas. (Beginning with this Verse and through the remainder of the Chapter, all the glory and glamour of Tyre is predicted to be brought to ruin, and meant to serve as a symbol of Satan and his kingdom of darkness ultimately being brought to destruction.)

[27] Your riches and your fairs, your merchandise, your mariners, and your pilots, your calkers, and the occupiers of your merchandise, and all your men of war, who are in you, and in all your company which is in the midst of you, shall fall into the midst of the seas in the day of your ruin. (As stated, as the Lord destroyed the Tyrus of the Old World, He will also destroy the Tyrus of the New World [Babylon], both symbols of the efforts of Satan to rebuild the Garden of Eden without the benefit of the Tree of Life, Who is the Lord Jesus Christ. In fact, Rev., Chpt. 18, corresponds with Verses 27 through 36 of this 27th Chapter of Ezekiel.)

[28] The suburbs shall shake at the sound of the cry of your pilots. (The fall of Tyre, which came about 15 years later, and which the city thought impossible, would result in a "shaking" of all the sister cities and countries which depended on her.)

[29] And all who handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land (as stated, this has a similarity to the coming destruction of Babylon, which is yet future [Rev. 18:18-19]);

[30] And shall cause their voice to be heard against you, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust upon their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes:

[31] And they shall make themselves utterly bald for you, and gird themselves with sackcloth, and they shall weep for you with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing. (Riches were their god, and now that the riches are lost, they have nothing! Such are all who place their confidence in anything other than the Lord. Not only do they lose their souls, but they also lose the very thing for which they sold their souls for!)

[32] And in their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for you, and lament over you, saying, What city is like Tyrus, like the destroyed in the midst of the sea?

[33] When your wares went forth out of the seas, you filled many people; you did enrich the kings of the Earth with the multitude of your riches and of your merchandise. (Considering the riches of Tyre, why did Nebuchadnezzar desire to destroy her? Whatever his personal reasons were, the overriding factor was that the Lord had chosen him as an instrument for the destruction of this city. Likewise, many nations of the world cannot presently understand why the leaders of the former Soviet Union, which outwardly looked so monolithic, allowed it to destruct before the eyes of the world! But yet, it was done because God commanded that it be done.)

[34] In the time when you shall be broken by the seas in the depths of the waters your merchandise and all your company in the midst of you shall fall. (As stated, because the Lord deemed it so!)

[35] All the inhabitants of the isles shall be astonished at you, and their kings shall be sore afraid, they shall be troubled in their countenance. (The entire Verse indicates that world leaders were shaken as a result of Tyre's destruction.)

[36] The merchants among the people shall hiss at you; you shall be a terror, and never shall be any more. (With her destruction by Nebuchadnezzar, and again about 150 years later by Alexander the Great, the greatness and glory of Tyre died, never to rise again. This is the Old Testament portrayal of that which will happen in a coming day, when rebuilt Babylon will likewise be destroyed, signifying the end of a system that has brought only death, destruction, and darkness. To be sure, as Tyre was destroyed, likewise Babylon and all of its system also will be destroyed. This will happen immediately before the Second Coming [Rev., Chpts. 17-

JUDGMENT ON THE PRINCE OF TYRUS

[1] The Word of the LORD came again unto me, saying (regarding the spirit world, this Chapter is one of the most remarkable in the Bible. As the Holy Spirit through Ezekiel had concerned Himself with the city, He now concerns Himself with its ruler, who is symbolic of Satan. In fact, this Chapter, in combination with Isa., Chpt. 14, gives us great insight into the ruler of darkness, Lucifer)**,

[2] Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus says the Lord GOD; Because your heart is lifted up, and you have said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet you are a man, and not God, though you set your heart as the heart of God (it is noticeable that Paul's description of the "man of sin" [II Thess. 2:4] presents the same picture in nearly the same words. Even though this Passage speaks of the earthly "Prince of Tyrus," nevertheless it is Satan himself who energizes his victim. The characterization of this earthly prince is "pride," which denotes the foundation sin of all sin)**:

[3] Behold, you are wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that they can hide from you (he was not really wiser than Daniel, only wiser in his own eyes)**:

[4] With your wisdom and with your understanding you have gotten yourself riches, and have gotten gold and silver into your treasures (Daniel's wisdom was used to carry out the Will of God, while this man's wisdom was used to gain riches, as most of the wisdom of this world is used)**:

[5] By your great wisdom and by your traffic have you increased your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches (if successful, and even in the things of the Lord, men quickly become lifted up in themselves):

6 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; Because you have set your heart as the Heart of God (this is the great sin of mankind, fueled by pride. Satan wants to be God, and all who follow Satan have the same spirit);

7 Behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon you, the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and they shall defile your brightness. (This refers to the army of Babylon, which will soon come against this rich city and its king. Men rule, but God overrules!)

8 They shall bring you down to the pit, and you shall die the deaths of them who are slain in the midst of the seas. ("They shall bring you down to the pit," refers to Hell itself. "And you shall die the deaths of them who are slain in the midst of the seas," means that he would not be given a royal funeral, but that his body would be thrown into the waters, as are all who die on ships.

It is not known from secular history as to exactly what did happen to Ithobal, King of Tyre. Nebuchadnezzar, as stated, laid siege to the city for thirteen years. After his conquest, Judges were appointed, and these ruled for periods of several months each. All this indicates a period of confusion and anarchy — the consequence of a great catastrophe.

Unless a specific date is given, it must be remembered that most Prophecies germinate over a period of time. This means that what the Prophet saw in vision, as wrought out in a moment of time, was actually the outcome, at least in many cases, of the slow decay of centuries, and of catastrophes separated from each other by long intervals of dwindling history. Sometimes, the main facts of that history may be briefly stated, with the totality of the Prophecy covering many years, even centuries, but ultimately being brought to pass.)

9 Will you yet say before him who kills you, I am God? but you shall be a man, and no God, in the hand of him who kills you. (Up beside Nebuchadnezzar, the Tyrian Monarch will prove to be no match, because Nebuchadnezzar was God's Instrument.)

10 You shall die the deaths of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, says the Lord GOD. (This Scripture refers to the Tyrian Monarch dying lost.)

LAMENTATION FOR THE ANGELIC KING OF TYRUS: SATAN

11 Moreover, the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying (the tenor of this Chapter will now change from the earthly Monarch, the "Prince of Tyre," to his sponsor, Satan, of which the earthly king was a symbol)**,

12 Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus says the Lord GOD; You seal up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty. (As is obvious, even though the king of Tyrus is used as a symbol, the statements made could not refer to any mere mortal. In fact, they refer to Satan.

The phrase, "You seal up the sum," means that Lucifer, when originally created by God, was the perfection of wisdom and beauty. In fact, the phrase intimates that Lucifer was the wisest and most beautiful Angel created by God, and served the Lord in Holiness and Righteousness for a given period of time.

"Perfect in beauty," means that he was the most beautiful of God's Angelic creation. The Holy Spirit even labeled his beauty as "perfect.") 13 You have been in Eden the Garden of God; every precious stone was your covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of your tabrets and of your pipes was prepared in you in the day that you were created. ("You have been in Eden the Garden of God," does not actually refer to the "Eden" of Gen., Chpt. 3, but rather to the "Eden" which existed on this Planet before Adam and Eve, which evidently was ruled by Lucifer before his rebellion.

"Every precious stone was your covering," presents itself as very similar to the dress of the High Priest of Israel [Ex. 28:17-20].

"The workmanship of your tabrets and of your pipes," has to do with music. There is every indication that Lucifer's leadership had something to do with the Worship of God. As well, he is called, "O Lucifer, son of the morning" [Isa. 14:12]. When the Earth was originally created, the Scripture says, "The morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy" [Job 38:4-7]. So, if the idiom, "son of the morning," can be linked to the "morning stars," these Passages tell us that Lucifer, at least before his fall, was greatly used in leading the Worship of God.

In fact, this is the reason that Satan has done everything within his power to corrupt the music of the world, and to corrupt the music of the Church above all. Inasmuch as the Book of Psalms is the longest Book in the Bible, we learn from this that music and singing are among the highest forms of Worship of the Lord.)

14 You are the anointed Cherub who covers; and I have set you so: you were upon the Holy Mountain of God; you have walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. ("You are the anointed Cherub who covers," means that Lucifer was chosen and "anointed" by God for a particular task and service. This probably was the "worship" to which we have just alluded.

"You were upon the Holy Mountain of God," speaks of his place and position relative to the Throne [Rev. 4:2-11]. "You have walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire," has reference to his nearness to the Throne [1:26-27]. As well, the phrase, "Walked up and down," seems to imply that not just any Angel would have been given such latitude.)

15 You were perfect in your ways from the day that you were created, till iniquity was found in you. (Pride was the form of this iniquity [Lk. 10:17-18]; the rebellion of Lucifer against God probably caused the catastrophe which occurred between the First and Second Verses of Gen., Chpt. 1.)

16 By the multitude of your merchandise they have filled the midst of you with violence, and you have sinned: therefore I will cast you as profane out of the Mountain of God: and I will destroy you, O covering Cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire. ("Violence" has been the earmark of Satan's rule and reign in the world of darkness [Jn. 10:10]. Lucifer being "cast out" of the "Mountain of God" refers to him losing his place and position, which he had held with God since his creation. It was because "he had sinned," which spoke of pride that caused him to lift himself up against God.)

17 Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty, you have corrupted your wisdom by reason of your brightness: I will cast you to the ground, I will lay you before kings, that they may behold you. ("Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty," tells us the reason for his fall. As stated, it was pride. He took his eyes off of Christ, noticing his own beauty as it grew more and more glorious in his eyes. At some point in time, his "heart" was changed from Christ to himself. As far as we know, this was the origin of evil in all of God's Creation.

"You have corrupted your wisdom by reason of your brightness," does not refer to the loss of wisdom, but instead refers to wisdom corrupted, hence, the insidious design practiced upon the human family [Jn. 10:10].

"I will cast you to the ground," refers to his ultimate defeat [Rev. 12:7-12]. "I will lay you before kings, that they may behold you," refers to him ultimately being cast into the Lake of Fire, where all the kings of the Earth who have died lost will behold him in his humiliation [Mat. 25:41; Rev. 20:10].)

18 You have defiled your sanctuaries by the multitude of your iniquities, by the iniquity of your traffic; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of you, it shall devour you, and I will bring you to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them who behold you. (When Satan at long last will be thrown into the Lake of Fire [Rev. 20:10], all the billions he has duped, who also are in Hell because of him, will hate him with a passion that words cannot begin to express, and a hatred which will last forever and forever.)

19 All they who know you among the people shall be astonished at you: you shall be a terror, and never shall you be any more. (Then the prayer of Christ, "Your Will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven," will finally be answered and brought to pass [Mat. 6:9-10].)

THE PROPHECY AGAINST ZIDON

[20] Again the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

[21] Son of man, set your face against Zidon, and prophesy against it (Zidon [Sidon] was about 30 miles north of Tyre. Tyre and Zidon were sister cities, but yet Tyre served as the chief city)**,

[22] And say, Thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against you, O Zidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of you: and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her. (Suffering, but not extinction, was the judgment of Zidon. She exists today, but her history has been one of pestilence and blood. The phrase, "Shall be sanctified in her," refers to the truth that the Lord will be sanctified either by righteous living on the part of His Subjects or righteous Judgment on those who rebel against Him.)

[23] For I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her on every side; and they shall know that I am the LORD. (The "pestilence" and "blood into her streets" have to do with the terrible invasions she suffered from this time forward.)

[24] And there shall be no more a pricking brier unto the House of Israel, nor any grieving thorn of all who are round about them who despised them; and they shall know that I am the Lord GOD. (They — the Zidonians — shall get to know [to their sorrow] that I am Adonai-Jehovah. They will "prick" Israel no more!)

RESTORATION OF ISRAEL

[25] Thus says the Lord GOD; When I shall have gathered the House of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to My Servant Jacob. (The gathering of Israel, as stated here, will take place in the coming Kingdom Age. "Then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to My Servant Jacob," refers to the longest conflict that has engaged this Planet, speaking of the conflict over the Land of Israel. In this Passage and many others, the Lord proclaims that He has given this Land to His People; He also specifies exactly where this Land should be [Gen. 15:18]. When He uses the phrase, "My Servant Jacob," He, at the same time, is saying that He did not give it to Esau, i.e., the Arabs. The Palestinians, as well as the entirety of the world, should read this Verse.)

[26] And they shall dwell safely therein, and shall build houses, and plant vineyards; yes, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have executed Judgments upon all those who despise them round about them; and they shall know that I am the LORD their God. (The return of the Hebrews to the Land of Israel is foretold in many Prophecies [Deut. 30:3-4; Isa. 11:11-13; 27:12-13; Jer. 31:8-10; 32:37; Ezek. 34:13; 37:21; Amos 9:14-15; Rom., Chpt. 11].)

PROPHECIES AGAINST EGYPT; JUDGMENT

[1] In the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying (this Prophecy was given about six months before Jerusalem fell; they cover the period from 587-572 B.C.; they appear in moral, and not in chronological order; in fact, each of these Prophecies [or else a portion of the Prophecy] was called forth by the political events of the time, and should be studied in connection with them)**,

[2] Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt (Egypt is the last world-kingdom addressed by Ezekiel. It is first addressed by Jeremiah [Jer., Chpt. 46], while Babylon is the last [Jer., Chpt. 50])**:

[3] Speak, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon who lies in the midst of his rivers, who has said, My river is my own, and I have made it for myself. (This Verse begins a pronounced Judgment against Egypt, which would ensure its denigration, at least until the Second Coming of the Lord. Pharaoh considered himself to be god, and thus, the creator, which caused him to say of himself: "My river is my own, and I have made it for myself.")

[4] But I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will cause the fish of your rivers to stick unto your scales, and I will bring you up out of the midst of your rivers, and all the fish of your rivers shall stick unto your scales. ("The fish of your rivers" refer to Pharaoh's adherents. The idea is, Pharaoh and the entire land of Egypt will be destroyed. Tragically, this man, Pharaoh-Hophra, was the one Zedekiah relied upon for deliverance from Nebuchadnezzar.)

5 And I will leave you thrown into the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers: you shall fall upon the open fields; you shall not be brought together, nor gathered: I have given you for meat to the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven. (It is said that Pharaoh attacked Tyre and Zidon and then failed in an enterprise against Cyrene. He was then deposed by Amasis in 596 B.C. It was probably this expedition against Cyrene which led to the revolt of Amasis against Pharaoh-Hophra, which resulted in his defeat, of which this Scripture and others refer!)

CAUSE OF JUDGMENT ON EGYPT

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been a staff of reed to the House of Israel. (At least one of the causes of God's great Anger outlined against Egypt is because of her betrayal of Judah. Even though it was God's Will that Babylon serve as the chastiser of Judah, still, His Anger at Egypt for promising what they could not deliver, which at least in some fashion added to Judah's plight, would now cause Judgment to be brought on them.)

7 When they took hold of you by your hand, you did break, and rend all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon you, you broke, and made all their loins to be at a stand. (As a result of Egypt's promises that they would deliver Judah, Zedekiah held out against Nebuchadnezzar. This greatly incensed the Babylonian Monarch and caused him to wreak terrible vengeance when his army finally breached the walls of Jerusalem. Egypt was partly responsible for this; this is that of which the Lord speaks here.)

8 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I will bring a sword upon you, and cut off man and beast out of you. (This refers to what the Babylonians would do to them; and it was designed by the Lord.)

9 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD: because he (Pharaoh) has said, The river is mine, and I have made it. (The Holy Spirit through the Prophet refers back to the boastful pride of Pharaoh by the phrase which the Egyptian Monarch used: "The river is mine, and I have made it." The idea is: if Pharaoh created the river, surely he can stop the "desolation and waste." But, of course, Pharaoh is helpless to do this, because, despite his bluster, he is just a man, and as such is helpless in the Face of God.)

DESOLATION FOR FORTY YEARS; EGYPT'S FUTURE LOWLY ESTATE

10 Behold, therefore I am against you, and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia. (It should read, "from Migdol to Syene, even unto the border of Ethiopia." Migdol represented the northern extremity of Egypt, as Syene represented the southern; therefore, the entirety of Egypt is included in the statement.)

11 No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years. (The idea is that no "man" or "beast" shall pass through Egypt regarding the prosperity of the nation. There would certainly be men and beasts there, but they would be subject to foreign rulers, which actually lasted for "forty years.")

12 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years: and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. (Even though there is no historical records of the fulfillment of these particular Passages, still, knowing that Nebuchadnezzar invaded Egypt after the destruction of Jerusalem, we may assume, with little risk of doubt, that he "scattered the Egyptians among the nations." Such was the practice of invaders, in order that it would be deprived of its elite and, therefore, incapable of insurrection.)

13 Yet thus says the LORD GOD; At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered *(at approximately the time that Israel was allowed by Cyrus to go back to the Promised Land, likewise, Egypt was then allowed a measure of statehood):

14 And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitation; and they shall be there a base kingdom. ("A base kingdom," means one that is a subordinate kingdom, which Egypt has been from then until now. In other words, her greatness of the past was never again duplicated.)

15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations. (It came to pass exactly as the Lord said. Today, Egypt is basically little more than a shabby sextant of ancient tombs; however, in the coming Kingdom Age, Egypt will be restored and blessed [Isa., Chpt. 19].)

16 And it shall be no more the confidence of the House of Israel, which brings their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord GOD. (Israel "looked after" the Egyptians instead of "after" Jehovah; by so doing, they kept bringing their iniquity [unbelief] to God's Remembrance. The phrase, "And it shall be no more the confidence of the House of Israel," refers to the Biblical Truth that the Lord desires His People, whether Israel of old or the modern Church, to trust solely in Him instead of the world. As this was Israel's great temptation, it is the great temptation of the modern Church also!)

EGYPT TO BE GIVEN TO NEBUCHADNEZZAR FOR HIS WAGES

17 And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying (adding Verses 1 and 17 together, we find that the Prophecy of Verses 17 through 21 was given seventeen years after the Prophecy of Verses 1 through 17. They were introduced here to secure the unity of the subject)**,

18 Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it (as stated, the siege of Tyre lasted 13 years. The Babylonian king undertook it at God's Command [Jer. 25:9]. He captured the city, but secured no treasure, for the Tyrians had removed it and most of the citizens to other cities by sea):

19 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. (Of course, Nebuchadnezzar had no knowledge of what the Lord was doing; nevertheless, the Babylonian Monarch carried out the Will of God, whether he realized it or not!)

20 I have given him the land of Egypt for his labour wherewith he served against it, because they wrought for Me, says the Lord GOD.

A PROMISE TO ISRAEL

21 In that day will I cause the horn of the House of Israel to bud forth, and I will give you the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD. (The words, "In that day," refer to the coming restoration of Israel at the beginning of the Kingdom Age. Israel will be the central nation in the midst of all the nations of the world, because then Christ will be her ultimate King, even "The King of kings," meaning that He will be the Lord of the entirety of the Earth.)

CHAPTER 30

EGYPT'S APPROACHING DOOM

[1] The Word of the LORD came again unto me, saying (Williams says, "The natural heart quickly wearies of these repeated threatenings of judgment, hence, the Book of Jeremiah and Ezekiel are by and large unpopular in Christendom, and largely unread. But these repetitions reveal God's Heart and man's heart — the one so loving, the other so evil. Love sought continually to save; rebellion refused continually to listen")**,

[2] Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord GOD; Howl you, Woe worth the day! (This Chapter is basically divided into two sections. Verses 1 through 9 have to do with the coming Great Tribulation, while Verses 10 through 26 have to do with the judgment that Egypt was facing from Babylon in Ezekiel's day.

"Woe worth the day," actually says, "Woe be to the day." It refers, as stated, to the coming Great Tribulation. It actually will be a time when the entirety of the world will "howl.")

[3] For the day is near, even the Day of the LORD is near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the heathen. ("The Day of the LORD," refers to the Second Advent of Christ and continues through the Millennium. The Holy Spirit through the Prophet is saying that the Great Tribulation means that the Second Coming "is near."

The phrase, "A cloudy day," speaks of the judgments just referred to, which will encompass the whole of humanity. This "cloudy day" will last for seven years, called "Daniel's Seventieth Week" [Dan. 9:27].)

[4] And the sword shall come upon Egypt, and great pain shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down.

[5] Ethiopia, and Libya, and Lydia, and all the mingled people, and Chub, and the men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword. (These two Verses have to do with the opening of the "second seal" in the coming Great Tribulation, when power will be given to the Antichrist to "take peace from the Earth" [Rev. 6:4]. Even though the Tribulation will be worldwide, its greatest concentration will be, according to the Bible, in the area around the Mediterranean and Northern Africa.)

[6] Thus says the LORD; They also who uphold Egypt shall fall: and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, says the Lord GOD. (The description furnished in this Passage pertains to "one end of Egypt to the other.")

[7] And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted. (The desolation that is referred to in this Verse will have its fulfillment in the "third seal." There it says, "Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he who sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand" [Rev. 6:5]. This speaks of terrible famine, resulting in terrible desolation, which will grip Egypt when that nation is destroyed by the Antichrist.)

[8] And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and when all her helpers shall be destroyed. (Even though the Antichrist will attack Egypt, making his bid for world dominion, of which Egypt will be the first, still, the Lord is the One setting the parameters for the Antichrist, and actually for all else.)

[9] In that day shall messengers go forth from Me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt: for, lo, it comes. ("For, lo, it comes," proclaims the certitude of the Prophecies. There is no way that man can avoid it, but with one exception! I speak of the Rapture of the Church [I Thess. 4:13-18; 5:9].)

IMMEDIATE JUDGMENT BY BABYLON

10 Thus says the Lord GOD; I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. (As is often done with Bible Prophecy, the thrust of direction will automatically change, and without warning [Isa. 61:1-3; Lk. 4:18-19]. Now, the Holy Spirit through the Prophet is speaking of the soon-to-come destruction of Egypt by Nebuchadnezzar.)

11 He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land: and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain. ("The terrible of the nations," refers to the power of the Babylonians as those who were to execute the Divine Judgments.)

12 And I will make the rivers dry, and sell the land into the hand of the wicked: and I will make the land waste, and all who are therein, by the hand of strangers: I the LORD have spoken it.

13 Thus says the Lord GOD; I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of Noph; and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt. ("Noph" was the Greek Memphis, the capital of lower Egypt and the chief center of the worship of the god "Phthah." These were destroyed by the invading Babylonians.

The phrase, "And there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt," had an immediate fulfillment, for from the days of the Persians through Roman rule, which lasted for about 1,500 years, the kings of Egypt were not Egyptians by race. Due to their subjugation and subsequent decline, thus, always being under the hand of conquerors, there was a perpetual "fear in the land of Egypt.")

14 And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments in No. (These were all major cities in Egypt; each was the location of concentrated idol worship.)

15 And I will pour My Fury upon Sin, the strength of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No. ("Sin" was a major Egyptian city in the Egyptian Delta. It stood on the eastern branch of the Nile, surrounded by swamps, and its position made it, in modern terminology, the "key" of Egypt. Ezekiel, describing it as "the strength of Egypt," proclaims its strategic location.

"No" was another major Egyptian city, situated on the Tanitic branch of the Nile Delta. It was the sacred name of the Egyptian Thebes.)

16 And I will set fire in Egypt: Sin shall have great pain, and No shall be rent asunder, and Noph shall have distresses daily. (The Babylonians were so sure of their victory that they gave little respect to Egyptian defenses, as prophesied by Ezekiel.)

17 The young men of Aven and of Pi-beseth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity. (These two cities, "Aven" and "Pi-beseth," are Heliopolis and Bubastis, where a famous temple to the Sun was situated. Bubastis was located on what is now the Suez Canal; it derived its name from the cat-headed goddess "Pasht"; it was the chief seat of the gnome which was named after it.

Special Judgments seemed to be tendered toward these cities steeped in heathenistic idolatry!)

18 At Tehaphnehes also the day shall be darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt: and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity. ("Tehaphnehes" was the "Tehaphnehes" of Jer. 43:7. It was located on the Syrian frontier of Egypt. "When I shall break there the yokes of Egypt," pertains to the oppressive rule imposed by Egypt on other nations. "As for her, a cloud shall cover her," addresses itself to the predictions given by the Lord concerning her becoming "a base kingdom" [29:14].

The phrase concerning her "daughters" has reference not only to the women being led into captivity, but also to her idols, i.e., "daughters," which were taken by Nebuchadnezzar to Babylon, where he would have ensconced them in the temple of the god Bel.)

[19] Thus will I execute Judgments in Egypt: and they shall know that I am the LORD. ("And they shall know that I am the LORD," is used repeatedly by the Holy Spirit through Ezekiel. The statement is made in order to counter the boastful, prideful, arrogant attitudes of not only Egypt, but every other nation, as well!)

GOD WILL BREAK THE ARMS OF PHARAOH

[20] And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying (this was about three months before the destruction of Jerusalem [II Ki. 25:2-3]; as well, it was about 16 years before Nebuchadnezzar invaded Egypt; Verses 20 through 26 seem to have been written at about the time of the abortive attempt of Pharaoh-Hophra to come to the relief of Jerusalem)**,

[21] Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, it shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword. (This Verse pertains to the destruction of Egypt by Nebuchadnezzar, and it never rising again as a world power.)

[22] Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. ("And will break his arms," actually has reference to two distinct engagements. The first arm was broken at Carchemish by Nebuchadnezzar, as prophesied by Jeremiah [Jer. 46:2]. The other arm also was broken by Nebuchadnezzar when he invaded Egypt a few years later.)

[23] And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. (This, Nebuchadnezzar did!)

[24] And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put My Sword in his hand: but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man.

[25] But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put My Sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt. (The facts were: the Lord would "strengthen" the "king of Babylon," while He would "weaken" the "arms of Pharaoh." As a result, his arms would "fall down.")

[26] And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countries; and they shall know that I am the LORD. (After the scattering, they will see that they have been fighting against God. So the Prophet ends this Chapter with the ever-recurring formula, "they shall know that I am the LORD.")

PROPHECIES AGAINST PHARAOH

[1] And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying (this Chapter was written about two or three months before the fall of Jerusalem. It deals with the ruin of two mighty empires, Egypt and Assyria [the latter had fallen years before], and their banishment to Eternal Hell. The language is striking, and leaves nothing to the imagination)**,

[2] Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; Whom are you like in your greatness? (The question, "Whom are you like in your greatness?", is speaking of Sardana-Palus, the last king of Assyria, who was conquered by Nebuchadnezzar. Possibly, Pharaoh looked up to this now dead despot; however, his end will be as Sardana-Palus', defeated and lost!)

[3] Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs. (The Prophet likens empires to great trees, and their kings to the highest branches. The Prophecy penetrates the world of the dead, and reveals the disembodied spirits of deceased kings as no longer royal personages, but members of the general multitude of the dead and the damned. Thus, this Chapter is one of the few which unveils the mysterious spirit world.)

splendor of the Assyrian kingdom, and how it was thought to be impossible to be brought to destruction.)

5 Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the multitude of waters, when he shot forth. (The "exaltation" was enjoyed because of the supremacy of the Assyrian empire; however, this supremacy was gained by brute terror and force.)

6 All the fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations. ("And under his shadow dwelt all great nations," imposes the fact that much of the riches and greatness of the Assyrian empire was derived from heavy taxation levied on those subjugated nations.)

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters. (The Holy Spirit uses the word "greatness" in describing the Assyrian empire, but yet it was a "greatness" in the eyes of man, and not God.)

8 The cedars in the Garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chestnut trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the Garden of God was like unto him in his beauty. ("In the Garden of God," represents the Sovereignty of the Lord over these nations, even though they did not know Him, nor even recognize Him, but were rather idol worshippers.)

9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the Garden of God, envied him. ("Envied him," not only pertains to Pharaoh, but also to the other nations of the world. Tragically, even Israel, the Northern Kingdom, which was supposed to be the People of God, and consequently looking to Jehovah, instead "envied him," i.e., "Assyria.")

10 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; Because you have lifted up yourself in height, and he has shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height ("Because you have lifted up yourself in height," reveals the reason for the destruction of Assyria. It was great pride!)**;

[11] I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness. ("The mighty one of the heathen" refers to Nebuchadnezzar, who would subjugate the mighty Assyrian empire, because the Lord deemed it necessary.)

[12] And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the Earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him. (The idea of the Holy Spirit is to impress upon Pharaoh the cause of the destruction upon the proud empire of the Assyrians, and that the Egyptians were facing the same ruin, because they were traveling in the same wicked direction.)

[13] Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches (the idea of this Verse is that once this tree stood tall and proud, but now it is no more, and the vultures and jackals hover and creep over the carcass of the dead, decaying trunk)**:

[14] To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the Earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them who go down to the Pit. (The phraseology in this Verse suggests that Hell [or Sheol] is situated in the center of the Earth. In that "Pit," the greatest monarchs rank with the disembodied spirits of the generality of men. The mightiest and the greatest are "in the midst of the children of men, with them who go down to the Pit."

What a warning to the whole of humanity! But, it is largely ignored!)

[15] Thus sa ys the Lord GOD; In the day when he went down to the grave

I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. ("In the day when he went down to the grave," does not refer to the burying of a body in a grave, as the word is commonly used, but rather refers to "Sheol." This is the place of departed spirits who are in Hell, and who have full consciousness. Jesus said so [Lk. 16:19-31].)

16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to Hell with them who descend into the Pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all who drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the Earth. ("When I cast him down to Hell with them who descend into the Pit," pertains to the Lord casting the last king of the Assyrian empire, Sardana-Palus, down into Sheol, i.e., Hell.

The phrase, "Shall be comforted in the nether parts of the Earth," refers to the mighty empire and nations, already fallen and in Hell. They are "comforted" with the thought that yet another kingdom mightier than they has fallen as they fell.)

17 They also went down into Hell with him unto them who be slain with the sword; and they who were his arm, who dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen. (Sadly and regrettably, almost all of mankind has died eternally lost, which means they went to Hell. Jesus said so [Mat. 7:13-15].)

18 To whom are you thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shall you be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the Earth: you shall lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them who be slain by the sword. This is Pha raoh and all his multitude, says the Lord GOD. (The question, "To whom are you...?" is repeated as it was given in Verse 2. The answer here is that Pharaoh was only comparable to ordinary monarchs, and that his death would be without honor. And so it fell out, for he was strangled. So the Prophet exclaims, pointing to him: "This is Pharaoh.")

A LAMENTATION OVER PHARAOH

[1] And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying (this Prophecy was uttered over a year after the destruction of Jerusalem),

[2] Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, You are like a young lion of the nations, and you are as a whale in the seas: and you came forth with your rivers, and troubled the waters with your feet, and fouled their rivers. (The first Prophecy of this Chapter [Vss. 1-16] links the Divine Judgments on Egypt at the time of the Exodus [Vss. 6-7] with those about to be executed, and with the future Judgments of the Antichrist and his kingdom, of which Pharaoh and Egypt are symbols.)

THE SWORD OF BABYLON WILL FALL ON EGYPT; JUDGMENT

[3] Thus says the Lord GOD; I will therefore spread out My Net over you with a company of many people; and they shall bring you up in My Net. (It is an apt illustration, "My Net," signifying the Babylonians appointed by the Lord to take Egypt down, which they did.)

[4] Then will I leave you upon the land, I will cast you forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon you, and I will fill the beasts of the whole Earth with you.

[5] And I will lay your flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with your height. (As Pharaoh surveyed his troops and, no doubt, admired their supposed power, he little realized that their destiny had already been decided, and that those of which he thought so highly would soon be rotting

6 I will also water with your blood the land wherein you swim, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of you. (The Nile Valley is formed by the Eastern and Western Mountains. As the waters were turned into blood in the days of Moses, so the land would be drenched with blood in the days of Nebuchadnezzar.)

7 And when I shall put you out, I will cover the heaven, and make the Stars thereof dark; I will cover the Sun with a cloud, and the Moon shall not give her light. (This Verse leads back to the plague of darkness that gripped Egypt during the time of Moses [Ex. 10:21]. Then it was literal; now it is poetical, and intending the overthrow of the imperial and executive governments. As such, their light would go out and they would be no more.)

8 All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over you, and set darkness upon your land, says the Lord GOD. (This Verse, although obscure and little thought of [as its surrounding Passages], has to do greatly with the rise and fall of nations. The degree of their Judgment has to do with the Light once given, and rejected.)

9 I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring your destruction among the nations, into the countries which you have not known. (The idea is: concerning the "vexing of hearts," if Egypt could not stand against the mighty Babylonians, where did that leave smaller and weaker nations?)

10 Yes, I will make many people amazed at you, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for you, when I shall brandish My Sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of your fall. (The idea of this Verse proclaims the helplessness of those who have boasted of their invincibility, hence, "tremble at every moment." Men can easily boast of their power, but when God begins to make His Power felt, the mighty efforts of even the strongest men quickly are shown to be insignificant.)

[11] For thus says the Lord GOD; The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon you. (Very plainly, the Prophet proclaims the coming destruction of Egypt by the Babylonians, and even several years before it actually happened, but with no favorable response from Pharaoh. Pharaoh did not believe Jehovah, so why should he believe His Prophet?)

[12] By the swords of the mighty will I cause your multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations, all of them: and they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed. (The phrase, "And they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt," refers to Egypt's pride, which was boasting itself through Pharaoh-Hophra; however, this "pomp" would be destroyed, as he was strangled to death by his own men.)

[13] I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them. ("The foot of man," pertained to individuals who peddled an apparatus designed to lift water from the Nile in order to irrigate the land. The invasion by Nebuchadnezzar would cause the cattle to be killed or taken as a war prize, with all irrigation stopped, which means the crops would be nonexistent that year.)

[14] Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, says the Lord GOD.

[15] When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be destitute of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them who dwell therein, then shall they know that I Am the LORD. (The idea is: the heathen did not believe the Prophecies, the Prophets, or Jehovah Who sent them; however, their unbelief would have no effect whatsoever on the carrying out of these Prophecies. They would know that Jehovah was "Lord GOD," in contrast to their gods, which had no power against the Most High.)

[16] This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, says the Lord GOD. (In the minds of these heathen, the contest was always between gods. Therefore, before the fact, the idea of Jehovah, Who had already suffered defeat by the Babylonians [at least in their thinking], being stronger than their gods was laughable. And then, when the destruction came, their "lamentation" was great, not only for the destruction of Egypt, but for the testing of her gods by Jehovah, which put them in jeopardy, as well!)

EGYPT WILL JOIN OTHER NATIONS IN HELL

17 It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying (these Passages are some of the few which permit a momentary glance into the dreadful mystery of the spirit world)**,

18 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the Earth, with them who go down into the Pit. (The phrases, "Nether parts of the Earth" and "The Pit," refer to "Hell." This, as stated, is in the center of the Earth.

The loss of their nation was dreadful to say the least, but the loss of their souls even worse! Hence, the Holy Spirit records this fact.)

19 Whom do you pass in beauty? go down, and be you laid with the uncircumcised. (The word, "uncircumcised," occurs some ten times in this Prophecy. It expresses non-relationship to God and corresponds to the modern word "unconverted.")

20 They shall fall in the midst of them who are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword: draw her and all her multitudes. (The phrase, "Slain by the sword," is repeated twelve times in this Prophecy. It signifies Divine Judgment.)

21 The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of Hell with them who help him: they are gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword. (The "strong" refers to the other Pharaohs and other mighty kings, such as the Assyrians, who had already gone to Hell and would "speak to him," i.e., Pharaoh. That which they will speak will not be words of encouragement, respect, or appreciation, but instead words of scorn.)

22 Asshur is there and all her company: his graves are about him: all of them slain, fallen by the sword *(the word, "graves," at least in this instance, refers to the tomb or sepulcher, the place of the body, not the place of the soul. It merely means that they died, with the next Verses telling the eternal abode of their souls and spirits):

23 Whose graves are set in the sides of the Pit, and her company is round about her grave: all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terror in the land of the living. (The idea is: the mightiest of the mighty on Earth, when in Hell, will have no more sway or influence than the lowliest of the low.)

24 There is Elam and all her multitude round about her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the Earth, which caused their terror in the land of the living; yet have they borne their shame with them who go down to the Pit. (The phrase, "Their shame," refers to the fact that on Earth they were robed with honor, while in Sheol, they are "clothed with shame.")

25 They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet have they borne their shame with them who go down to the Pit: he is put in the midst of them who be slain. (The pronoun "they" refers to Assyria and Elam. The pronoun "her" refers to Egypt; the pronoun "him" refers to Pharaoh.)

26 There is Meshech, Tubal, and all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living. (The pronoun "him" refers once again to Pharaoh. He is in the midst of these other fallen and slain: "Meshech, Tubal," and the others mentioned.)

27 And they shall not lie with the mighty who are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to Hell with their weapons of war: and they have laid their swords under their heads, but their iniquities shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living. (The idea of the Verse is that "Meshech" and "Tubal" have a lower place in Hell, if such is possible. "Which are gone down to Hell with their weapons of war," does not mean that such items are taken down to Hell with the lost soul, but that there was no honor at all in their death, and they were buried without the honor of war. In other words, their swords were not placed beneath their heads at the burial.)

[28] Yes, you shall be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shall lie with them who are slain with the sword.

[29] There is Edom, her kings, and all her princes, which with their might are laid by them who were slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with them who go down to the Pit. ("There is Edom," is used by the Holy Spirit as an exclamation! It is said in this manner because the exultation which the Edomites had shown over the fall of Jerusalem [Ps. 137:7] had exacerbated their already perilous spiritual condition. As such, this would guarantee their destruction.)

[30] There be the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Zidonians, which are gone down with the slain; with their terror they are ashamed of their might; and they lie uncircumcised with them who be slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them who go down to the Pit. (Inasmuch as the Holy Spirit through the Prophet names the "Zidonians" and the "princes of the north," it suggests the direction of Northern Syria, including cities like Damascus, Hamath, Arpad, and others. These too went to Hell!)

[31] Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army slain by the sword, says the Lord GOD. (As other nations were glad that Pharaoh would join them in Hell and likewise share their misery, now Pharaoh is glad to see others come to share his misery. All are sharers alike in the fiend-like temper which exults in the miseries of others.)

32 For I have caused my terror in the land of the living: and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with them who are slain with the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord GOD. (The election of Nebuchadnezzar as God's "sword" and "terror" is one of the great facts of Scripture. The sword humbled Egypt, in whom Israel trusted. It also humbled all the neighboring nations and, thus, destroyed many snares which entrapped the sons of Israel. All these Judgments reached forward to a future day, and will be followed by the establishment in Grace of the redeemed nations in union with the New Israel [Isa., Chpt. 19], so forming the one flock of Jn. 10:16 in the Shepherd-care of the Messiah.)

THE WATCHMAN'S DUTIES

[1] Again the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

[2] Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their watchman (a great part of this Chapter will deal with the Ministry of the "watchman," to which Ezekiel is appointed by the Lord. In 24:15-27, the Prophet had been committed to silence, at least regarding Israel, but is now permitted to resume his ministry to the Exiles)**:

[3] If when he sees the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people (the responsibility of the "watchman" is to correctly "see" and "warn." He was to "warn" by "blowing the trumpet." The modern Preacher is to do the same thing by correctly preaching the True Gospel [I Cor. 1:17])**;

[4] Then whosoever hears the sound of the trumpet, and takes not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head. (If one is to notice, there is a demand by the Holy Spirit that the people be allowed to "hear" that which is Truth. What they do with it is then "upon his own head.")

[5] He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he who takes warning shall deliver his soul. (The opportunity to accept or reject is demanded by the Holy Spirit. Therefore, it is incumbent upon the True Preacher of the Gospel to blow a certain and sure sound. The responsibility is then with the hearer. If he "takes not warning," the loss of his soul will be his own responsibility.)

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand. (Two types of warnings are given in this Passage: the "warning" that should be given to the people by faithful watchmen; and the "warning" that should be given by the Holy Spirit to unfaithful watchmen.)

7 So you, O son of man, I have set you a watchman unto the House of Israel; therefore you shall hear the Word at My Mouth, and warn them from Me. (The commission of Ezekiel is once again enjoined. He is called, "O son of man," which is the same designation that will be given to "The Son of Man," the Lord Jesus Christ [Mat. 13:37; Lk. 9:44, 56].)

8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, you shall surely die; if you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at your hand. (This Chapter is similar in many ways and to a great degree to Chapter 3. The repetition, due to the extreme seriousness of the matter, is by design.)

9 Nevertheless, if you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul. (The True Preacher is not responsible for the response of the individual to the Message, but the True Preacher most definitely is responsible that the right Message be delivered.)

GOD'S DEALINGS ARE JUST

10 Therefore, O you son of man, speak unto the House of Israel; Thus you speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how should we then live? (This Scripture addressed itself to the scorn, incredulity, and derision heaped upon the Prophet, when he told of the coming Judgment. The people trusted in the promises of the false prophets [13:6]. Now they stand face-to-face with the fulfillment of the Prophet's words.

The question, "How should we then live?", proclaims the hopelessness of the people, inasmuch as they now realize the seriousness of their sin.)

[11] Say unto them, As I live, says the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn you, turn you from your evil ways; for why will you die, O House of Israel? (This is a plea for Repentance, without which these individuals will be lost!)

[12] Therefore, you son of man, say unto the children of your people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turns from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sins. (This Passage and many others are a plain and clear rebuke to those who teach the unscriptural doctrine of unconditional eternal security. If the Believer turns from his righteousness and begins to live a life of sinning, and refuses to repent, he will die lost. Conversely, if the wicked individual quits his wickedness by turning to the Lord, his wickedness will not be remembered against him.)

[13] When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he has committed, he shall die for it. (The idea of this Verse is: if an individual thinks he can trust his past righteousness to save him when he has committed sin and continues therein, refusing to repent, his past "righteousness shall not be remembered." Again, this completely refutes the unscriptural doctrine of unconditional eternal security.)

[14] Again, when I say unto the wicked, You shall surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right;

[15] If the wicked restore the pledge, give again that he had robbed, walk in the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die. ("Give again that he had robbed," illustrates the power of the new life in Christ to fulfill the requirements of the Moral Law as it was evidenced in the conversion of Zacchaeus [Lk. 19:1-10].)

16 None of his sins that he has committed shall be mentioned unto him: he has done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live. (The first part of this Verse constitutes Justification by Faith. These sins are not mentioned any more because in the Mind of God they do not exist and, in fact, they have never existed.

"He shall surely live," constitutes Salvation, i.e., "the born again experience," which negates spiritual death [Jn. 3:3]. This constitutes the greatest thing that can happen to any human heart and life.)

17 Yet the children of your people say, The Way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal. (Israel, as most, was claiming that their righteousness and unrighteousness should be balanced one against the other. They construed the Ways of the Lord as unequal, inasmuch as He did not judge in that manner. In fact, it was not God's Ways which were unequal, but their ways.

Even in the practical application of life, that which they were contending, the balancing of one against the other, does not hold true. For instance, if a man lives 1,000 days without taking poison and then on the 1,001 day takes poison, all the previous days free of poison will not assuage the results.)

18 When the righteous turns from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, he shall even die thereby. (The Holy Spirit is emphatic in that the present condition is what counts with God; it is also that which should count with man.)

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby. (As well, the Lord judges the "wicked" exactly as He does the "righteous," all according to their present status. If the wicked man repents, the Lord will instantly save, wiping out all past wickedness.)

20 Yet you say, The Way of the Lord is not equal. O you House of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways. (Perfect love beams in Verse 11; perfect justice, in Verse 20. The Judgment is just, equal, fair, and right in that "every one is judged after his ways," which shows no partiality.)

THE NEWS OF JERUSALEM'S FALL

21 And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one who had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me saying, The city is smitten. (The phrase, "The city is smitten," even though said by the messenger [whoever he was], is given as a sob by the Holy Spirit. How so unnecessary this was! But yet, it was done only after the Lord had exhausted every means to bring the people to Repentance, but to no avail!)

22 Now the Hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, afore he who was escaped came; and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb. ("And my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb," refers back to 24:26-27. It is not exactly known how long he was not permitted to prophesy regarding Judah. But now he is to prophesy again.)

PROPHECY TO THE REMNANT; THEIR SINS AND JUDGMENT

23 Then the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, they who inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance. (The argument of this ungodly remnant was that if a mighty nation was born of one man, Abraham, how much more powerful a nation could spring out of the many sons of Abraham who had been left in Judah by the Babylonian king! In fact, the faith that said, "the land is given us for inheritance," was a proud and carnal faith and would not be honored by God. Judgment upon their iniquities, not blessings snatched by presumption, would be the result of their carnal and ungodly thinking.)

25 Wherefore say unto them, Thus says the Lord GOD; You eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood: and shall you possess the land? (To "eat with the blood" violated Lev. 19:26 and was done in honor of an idol. Consequently, this was a double sin against the Law. Though they claimed to be children of Abraham [therefore, Children of God], they were idolatrous, self-confident, violent, and impure.)

[26] You stand upon your sword, you work abomination, and you defile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall you possess the land? (The Holy Spirit through the Prophet, even though many hundreds of miles away from destroyed Judah, still, speaks the same thing as the Prophet Jeremiah had prophesied. Despite the Judgment, this "remnant" in Judah continued to be idol worshippers, rebels against God, and dependent upon their own feeble military preparation; this actually bordered on idiocy, inasmuch as they were a defeated people.)

[27] Say you thus unto them, Thus says the Lord GOD; As I live, surely they who are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him who is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured, and they who be in the forts and in the caves shall die of the pestilence. (Concerning the ungodly remnant in Judah, Ezekiel prophesies, exactly as Jeremiah had prophesied, that there was no escape for them from the judging Hand of God, and rightly so, because of their rebellion.)

[28] For I will lay the land most desolate, and the pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through. (Concerning Judah, the phrase, "And the pomp of her strength shall cease," was brought to pass in stark reality, undeniable by all!)

[29] Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed. (At any time along the way, if Repentance had been engaged for these "abominations," they would have been instantly forgiven and put away, with Mercy and Grace extended. Inasmuch as there was no Repentance, their sins, i.e., "abominations," brought about the desolation, as such will bring about desolation in any nation, heart, or life!)

EZEKIEL WILL BE VINDICATED

[30] Also, you son of man, the children of your people still are talking against you by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the Word that comes forth from the LORD. (It seems that the word "against" would have been better translated "of." If so, it would mean that the Exiles were proud of their Prophet Ezekiel, admiring his preaching and crowding to hear him, but did not for a moment intend any change of conduct. Similar features present themselves today in the professing Christian Church.)

[31] And they come unto you as the people comes, and they sit before you as My People, and they hear your words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their covetousness. (The words, "As My People," mean "professing to be My People." "Their covetousness," refers to money-getting and all forms of self-pleasing. "They show much love," means that they profess love, but in truth have no love of God, or for God.)

[32] And, lo, you are unto them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear your words, but they do them not. ("A very lovely song," refers to the people coming to hear the Prophet as they would to hear a hired singer at a banquet. The Prophet's words passed over them and left no lasting impression.)

[33] And when this comes to pass, (lo, it will come,) then shall they know that a Prophet has been among them. (The Revelation of the rebellious corruption of the listeners' hearts saved the Prophet from the self-complacent corruption of his own heart, which his popularity as a Preacher would naturally excite.

"And when this comes to pass," refers back to Verses 10 through 20 and demands Repentance. It means that unless they repent, they will "surely die." The Holy Spirit emphasizes the statement by saying, "lo, it will come," meaning the time of eternal destiny.

When this time would come, they would "know that a Prophet has been among them," and that they had been listening, not to a hireling singer, but to a Prophet of Jehovah.)

CHAPTER 34

(587 B.C.)

PROPHECY AGAINST THE SHEPHERDS (LEADERS) OF ISRAEL; THEIR SINS

[1] And the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

[2] Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus says the Lord GOD unto the shepherds; Woe be to the shepherds of Israel who do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks? ("Shepherds" in this Chapter refer to rulers, more specifically, the four last kings of Judah; however, the general meaning definitely includes spiritual leaders of any stripe.)

[3] You eat the fat, and you clothe yourself with the wool, you kill them who are fed: but you feed not the flock. (The only motive of these false shepherds is to get, instead of to give.)

[4] The diseased have you not strengthened, neither have you healed that which was sick, neither have you bound up that which was broken, neither have you brought again that which was driven away, neither have you sought that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty have you ruled them. (The "diseased" refers to weak sheep, while the "sick" refers to those who are suffering from more definite maladies. The "broken" are those which have fallen from a rock, or from some such precipice and thus, maimed themselves. Each case required the appropriate treatment.

As well, the fourfold "neither" should be noticed. The idea is: the Holy Spirit notes each particular need and the required care for that need by true shepherds, which these were not!)

became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered. (They had no true shepherd to protect them [Mat. 9:36].)

6 My Sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yes, My Flock was scattered upon all the face of the Earth, and none did search or seek after them. (Of the Northern Kingdom of Israel, not a single shepherd, i.e., king, was Godly. Thankfully, several in Judah were Godly, but the last four, as stated, were anything but Godly. These four were: Jehoahaz, Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin, and Zedekiah.)

THEIR JUDGMENT

7 Therefore, you shepherds, hear the Word of the LORD (Ezekiel had been told to "hear the Word at My Mouth and warn them from Me" [33:7], and now that warning will come, as delivered faithfully by the Prophet)**;

8 As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely because My Flock became a prey, and My Flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did My Shepherds search for My Flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not My Flock ("As I live, says the Lord GOD," is strong indeed! It is actually an oath taken by the Lord that the shepherds would be destroyed, inasmuch as they destroyed the sheep. The modern "money gospel" fits this description!)**;

9 Therefore, O you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

10 Thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require My Flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the Flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver My Flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them. (This will not come to pass until the coming Kingdom Age, when Israel will finally accept the Great Shepherd, the Lord Jesus Christ [Zech. 13:1].)

RESTORATION OF THE FLOCK

11 For thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, will both search My Sheep, and seek them out. (The action, the love, and the unselfishness of the True Shepherd are set out in Verses 11 through 16.)

12 As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out My Sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. (The "cloudy and dark day" refers to the coming Great Tribulation, when Israel will come close to annihilation. Zechariah said that two-thirds of the people will be destroyed [Zech. 13:8].)

13 And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country. ("To their own land," refers to the country promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; and this is to be theirs forever — the Land of Israel.)

14 I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel. (The repetition given in Verses 13 and 14 is done by design. The Holy Spirit seeks to bring out the truth of sincerity, peace, satisfaction, fulfillment, and acceptance. All this is finally done because of a right relationship with Christ. This will take place, as stated, during the coming Kingdom Age.)

15 I will feed My Flock, and I will cause them to lie down, says the Lord GOD. ("I will feed My Flock," refers to the tender care of the Shepherd watching with an individualizing care over each sheep that has been brought back. Every broken limb will be bound up. Every sickness will be treated with its appropriate means of healing.

"And I will cause them to lie down," refers to total serenity, peace, safety, protection, dependence, trust, and reliance upon the Lord, the Great Shepherd.)

16 I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with Judgment. (In this Verse, "The fat and the strong" are contrasted with the "broken" and the "sick." The idea is this: When He comes, the Great Shepherd, the Lord Jesus Christ, will "destroy the fat and the strong," which refers to the nations of the world which threw in their lot with the Antichrist, attempting to destroy Israel. They will "be fed with Judgment," and given no more place and position regarding supremacy.)

THE LORD'S CARE FOR HIS FLOCK; FALSE LEADERS SEPARATED FROM THE FLOCK

17 And as for you, O My Flock, thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the he goats. (This Passage actually has to do with the Judgment of the nations, which will take place immediately after the Second Coming of Christ [Mat. 25:31-33].)

18 Does it seem a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but you must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but you must foul the residue with your feet? (This pertains to the nations of the world which, during the time of the Great Tribulation, tried to harm Israel.)

19 And as for My Flock, they eat that which you have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which you have fouled with your feet. (In other words, the Jews, at least in the minds of many, were looked at like refuse.)

20 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD unto them; Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle. (At the beginning of the Kingdom Age, the Lord will judge all nations, and the Judgment will be according to how they treated Israel.)

21 Because you have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till you have scattered them abroad (whether nations which lorded it over the Jews, or even the false shepherds of Israel, all will answer!)**;

22 Therefore will I save My Flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and

I will judge between cattle and cattle. ("Between cattle and cattle," probably would have been better translated, "between sheep and sheep."

In the coming Kingdom Age, and after Israel has accepted Christ, they will no longer be at the mercy of the world, as they, in fact, have been for so many centuries.)

RESTORATION; DAVIDIC KINGDOM SET UP

[23] And I will set up One Shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even My Servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their Shepherd. (The Hebrew Text reads, "A Shepherd, One," that is, One Preeminent and Unique Shepherd — the Only One of His Kind, to Whom none other is comparable. The word "David" here means "The Beloved One," i.e., the True David, the Messiah [Isa. 55:3-4; Jer. 30:9; Hos. 3:5].

However, as it refers to the "Son of David," it also refers to "David," the same David who was chosen by God and anointed by Samuel. He will rule Israel under Christ!)

[24] And I the LORD will be their God, and My Servant David a prince among them; I the LORD have spoken it. (The phrase, "And My Servant David a prince among them," fulfills the Promise made to David by the Lord, as recorded in II Sam. 7:8-29.)

[25] And I will make with them a Covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. ("And I will make with them a Covenant of peace," will be carried out, and can be carried out, because of Israel's acceptance of Christ.

"And will cause the evil beast to cease out of the land," is a euphemism referring to demon spirits as "beasts.")

[26] And I will make them and the places round about My Hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be showers of blessing. (The phrase, "There shall be showers of blessing," refers to Spiritual Blessings which will generate economic, physical, and domestic Blessings as well!)

[27] And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the Earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those who served themselves of them. (There are two particulars that are noted in this Scripture: the first is, "fruit, increase, and safety"; the second is, "broken bands and deliverance." The former is the result of the latter.)

[28] And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid. (At long last, Israel will be what the Lord intended all along. As stated, it will be during the coming Kingdom Age!)

[29] And I will raise up for them a Plant of Renown, and they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen any more. (The "Plant of Renown" is none other than Jesus Christ, Whom they rejected, but will now accept. That "Plant" will be so rich with nourishment that they who feed upon it shall be no more pinched with hunger, and their happy condition will secure Renown for the Plant and not for themselves. However, in securing it for "Him," they, at the same time, will secure it for themselves.)

[30] Thus shall they know that I the LORD their God am with them, and that they, even the House of Israel are My People, says the Lord GOD. (Even though they are the People of God, still, they forsook the Lord; consequently, He has not been with them, except from afar, for some 2,000 years. Now, upon their acceptance of Him, the Lord Jesus Christ, this "Plant of Renown," this "Branch" [Isa. 4:2; 11:1; Jer. 23:5; 33:15], they will know that He is "with them." Then the Lord can truly say of them, "They are My People.")

[31] And you My Flock, the Flock of My Pasture, are men, and I am your God, says the Lord GOD. (The idea of this Verse is that even though the word "sheep" was used as a metaphor, still, the Lord is speaking of "men," and not merely just “sheep.” But there is here also a deeper meaning. Helpless, sinful “men” could never do such marvels, only the God Who is Adonai-Jehovah.)

CHAPTER 35

(587 B.C.)

PROPHECY AGAINST MOUNT SEIR (EDOM): JUDGMENT

[1] Moreover the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

[2] Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it (this Prophecy concerns Edom; therefore, it leaves the glorious future and returns to the destitute present. One of the great reasons for God's Anger against Edom is this country's hatred of Israel, which was not only regarded as personal, but was also expressive of man's enmity against the People of God in every age)**,

[3] And say unto it, Thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, O Mount Seir, I am against you, and I will stretch out My Hand against you, and I will make you most desolate. (To have one nation pitted against another nation is one thing, but to have God pitted against a nation is something else altogether!)

[4] I will lay your cities waste, and you shall be desolate, and you shall know that I am the LORD. (Ezekiel formerly prophesied against Edom [25:12-14], but that Prophecy was several years before the fall of Jerusalem. This Prophecy is after the fall of the city and concerns itself with Edom's disposition at that time, along with their previous sins against God's People.)

[5] Because you have had a perpetual hatred, and have shed the blood of the Children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end (Edom had been Israel's hereditary foe from the days of Esau and Jacob [Gen. 25:22; 27:37]; however, that which brought all of this to a head was that Edom rejoiced at the fall of Jerusalem, and they actually helped the Babylonians to kill Israelites. When they did that, they crossed the line!)**:

6 Therefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, I will prepare you unto blood, and blood shall pursue you: since you have not hated blood, even blood shall pursue you. (In that Edom did not "hate" or detest the shedding of the "blood" of the people of Judah and Jerusalem, the Holy Spirit emphasizes the fact that "blood" would be their destiny — their blood.)

7 Thus will I make Mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it him who passes out and him who returns. (The Lord decides here the controversy between Edom and Israel. To the one He adjudges perpetual desolation; to the other, ever-enduring prosperity. This is the last message to Esau, so to speak!)

8 And I will fill his mountains with his slain men: in your hills, and in your valleys, and in all your rivers, shall they fall who are slain with the sword. (Some may take exception to the terminology given here. However, no one would fault a surgeon for removing a malignancy. Likewise, no one should fault the Lord for doing the same!)

9 I will make you perpetual desolations, and your cities shall not return: and you shall know that I am the LORD. (The use of the phrase, "You shall know that I am the LORD," means that Edom would note, to her sorrow, Jehovah's Power to punish.)

10 Because you have said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas the LORD was there (the words, "two nations," refer to Ephraim, the Northern Kingdom, and Judah, the Southern Kingdom. Edom coveted this Land. She would have done much better to have coveted any land in the world except this Land. The Palestinians and the Arabs should read this Passage, as well!)**:

11 Therefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, I will even do according to your anger, and according to your envy which you have used out of your hatred against them; and I will make Myself known among them, when I have judged you. ("When I have judged you," sums up the Verse. The suffering which people desire for others sometimes falls upon themselves. Far from Edom securing Israel, she would ultimately be deprived of her own land, and would in fact perish forever as a nation.)

12 And you shall know that I am the LORD, and that I have heard all your blasphemies which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to consume. (To persecute those who are God's is to persecute God. Likewise, to slander one of God's is to slander God.)

13 Thus with your mouth you have boasted against Me, and have multiplied your words against Me: I have heard them. (These Passages should be a solemn lesson to all! "Bitter words against God's People are accounted by God as spoken against Himself." The phrase is emphatic, "I have heard them.")

14 Thus sa ys the Lord GOD; When the whole Earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. (The idea is: when the sons of the Kingdom enter into joy, their haters shall descend into the gloom.)

15 As you did rejoice at the inheritance of the House of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto you: you shall be desolate, O Mount Seir, and all Idumea, even all of it: and they shall know that I am the LORD. ("You shall be desolate, O Mount Seir," sums up the Verse. That's exactly what happened!)

CHAPTER 36

GOD WILL JUDGE ISRAEL'S ENEMIES

[1] Also, you son of man, prophesy unto the mountains of Israel, and say, You mountains of Israel, hear the Word of the LORD (this Prophecy is divided into two parts, with Verses 1 through 15 connecting with the previous Chapter, and the second part beginning with Verse 16 and closing at 37:14. The subject of the first part is Israel's restoration):

[2] Thus says the Lord GOD; Because the enemy has said against you, Aha, even the ancient high places are ours in possession (this "enemy" was Edom):

[3] Therefore prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord GOD; Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that you might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and you are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people (the sense of Verse 3 is that the heathen charged Jehovah with inability to protect His Land):

THE FUTURE RESTORATION OF ISRAEL

[4] Therefore, you mountains of Israel, hear the Word of the Lord GOD; Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision to the residue of the heathen who are round about (God chastens His People, as this Verse proclaims, but destroys their enemies);

[5] Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; Surely in the fire of My Jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, which have appointed My Land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey. (Edom not only proposed to take "My Land," but to do so with a "gleeful joy," and with "despiteful minds," i.e., "with contempt of soul," meaning that Edom held Judah and Judah's God, Jehovah, in contempt.)

[6] Prophesy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I have spoken in My Jealousy and in My Fury, because you have borne the shame of the heathen (the key to this Verse is the phrase, "You have borne the shame of the heathen," which means that the shame of God's People is temporary, while that of their enemies is perpetual. The Law of Retribution is demanded by the absolute Righteousness of God. The judicial visitations of God cannot possibly be one-sided. That which has been meted out to Israel for their sin will be meted out to Edom, as well as all other opposing nations)**:

[7] Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; I have lifted up My Hand, Surely the heathen who are about you, they shall bear their shame. (The certitude is found in the phrase, "I have lifted up My Hand," which refers to God taking an oath that what He has stated about the heathen and their punishment will come to pass.)

[8] But you, O mountains of Israel, you shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to My People of Israel; for they are at hand to come. (The phrases, "O mountains of Israel" and "The everlasting hills" of Gen. 49:26, are terms expressive of the moral elevation of Israel over the physical elevation of Edom.)

[9] For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and you shall be tilled and sown (as the Lord said that He was "against Edom" [35:3], He, conversely, says of Israel, "I am for you")**:

[10] And I will multiply men upon you, all the House of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be built (as the Lord outlined the destruction of Edom and other nations, He here outlines the coming blessing and prosperity of "the House of Israel")**:

11 And I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: and you shall know that I am the LORD. (This pertains to the coming Kingdom Age.)

12 Yes, I will cause men to walk upon you, even My People Israel; and they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance, and you shall no more henceforth bereave them of men. (Edom said they would possess the Land. They are indicative of the modern Palestinians. The Lord says, "My People Israel shall possess you," i.e., the Land.)

13 Thus says the Lord GOD; Because they say unto you, Your land devours up men, and has bereaved your nations (concerning Israel, the heathen spread the evil report that the Land of Israel had devoured its inhabitants and was, therefore, cursed!)**;

14 Therefore you shall devour men no more, neither bereave your nations any more, says the Lord GOD. (The idea of the Verse is this: the great Spiritual conflict between Light and darkness has brought about the terrible contest for the Land of Israel, which began immediately upon its inception, and which has continued throughout its history.

Upon the return of Christ, the cause of this conflict will be removed; hence, it will "devour men no more, neither bereave the nations.")

15 Neither will I cause men to hear in you the shame of the heathen any more, neither shall you bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shall you cause your nations to fall any more, says the Lord GOD. (This was not fulfilled, not even in the slightest, upon the return of the Exiles from their bondage, but will be fulfilled totally in the coming Kingdom Age.)

ISRAEL'S PAST SINS AND JUDGMENTS

16 Moreover the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, when the House of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their own way and by their doings: their way was before Me as the uncleanness of a removed woman. (The "uncleanness" pictures the vileness of the sinner in God's Sight. The first statement of Verse 29 declares the Ability of the Saviour to fully cleanse the sinner.

"As the uncleanness of a removed woman," refers to a woman's monthly period, and was used as an example of Israel's uncleanness.)

[18] Wherefore I poured My Fury upon them for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it (this Verse proclaims that the idol worshipped produced the shedding of blood and the offering up of little children in human sacrifices. Because of this, the Anger of the Lord knew no bounds)**:

[19] And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them. (This not only concerned Ezekiel's day, but also concerned itself with A.D. 70, when Titus destroyed Jerusalem. This was done because they had shed "the Blood of Christ.")

[20] And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they profaned My Holy Name, when they said to them, These are the People of the LORD, and are gone forth out of His Land. ("These are the People of the LORD," is the key phrase to this Verse. Their being defeated caused the heathen to conclude that Jehovah had either behaved capriciously toward His People and cast them off, or had proved unequal to the task of protecting them. In either case, the Honor of Jehovah had been lessened in the mind and tarnished by the words of the heathen. This had been brought about by Israel's sin.)

[21] But I had pity for My Holy Name, which the House of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went. (The idea is: the Lord will restore Israel, but not because of any good in them, but because of good in Himself.)

THE REGATHERING AND RESTORATION OF ISRAEL

22 Therefore say unto the House of Israel, thus says the Lord GOD; I do not this for your sakes, O House of Israel, but for My Holy Name's sake, which you have profaned among the heathen, whither you went. (This Scripture further reinforces the statement regarding Verse 21, in that the Lord is not doing what He is doing for Israel's sake, but instead "for His Holy Name's sake.")

23 And I will sanctify My great Name, which was profaned among the heathen, which you have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, says the Lord GOD, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. (God's Acts of Grace toward guilty men — solely because of His Name as Saviour and not because of any moral excellence in them — are shown in Verses 21 through 23 and 32. The sinner's only claim for Life and Righteousness is the admitting of his sinfulness and not his righteousness, of which he has none.)

24 For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land. (This Passage was not fulfilled when the Children of Israel came back from Babylonian captivity, and has not even been fulfilled as of yet! It will be fulfilled immediately after the Second Coming of Christ.)

25 Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and you shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. (The word "then" marks the time for the fulfillment of these Prophecies. Israel, as a nation, will not be won to Christ until the Antichrist is defeated by the Second Coming of Christ. Israel "then" will accept Christ as Saviour, Lord, and Messiah.)

26 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. (This speaks of the New Birth, and totally refutes the claims of those who say that modern Israel will not be restored, and that they have no part or parcel in the Gospel program, presently or in the future.)

27 And I will put My Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in My

Statutes, and you shall keep My Judgments, and do them. ("And I will put My Spirit within you," refers both to Regeneration, as carried out by the Holy Spirit at the time of one being Born-Again, and also to the Baptism with the Holy Spirit, which was first evidenced on the Day of Pentecost [Acts 2:1-4]. The entrance of the Holy Spirit is made possible solely by the Cross of Christ [Jn. 14:17], and the "Statutes" and "Judgments" fall into the same category. In other words, one can keep those only by and through the Power of the Holy Spirit, Who works exclusively within the framework of the Finished Work of Christ, which demands the constant Faith of the Believer [Rom. 6:3-5; 8:1-2, 11; Lk. 9:23-24].)

[28] And you shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and you shall be My People, and I will be your God. (The conflict regarding the Land of Israel will be solved only when Christ comes back. All hinges on Christ, as all always hinges on Christ.)

[29] I will also save you from all your uncleannesses: and I will call for the corn, and will increase it, and lay no famine upon you. (Regeneration, not reformation – a new heart, and not a changed heart – is essential to Salvation.)

[30] And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that you shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen.

[31] Then shall you remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. (The effect of Grace is self-judgment, which will then make possible the Blessing of Verse 30.)

[32] Not for your sakes do I this, says the Lord GOD, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O House of Israel. (All that is done for the Child of God is done "for Christ's sake" [Eph. 4:32; 1 Jn. 2:12].)

[33] Thus says the Lord GOD; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be built. (Israel's Conversion to Christ will precipitate their Blessing. Only when all iniquities have been "cleansed" can the individual then "dwell" in the inheritance, with the "wastes" then being reclaimed, i.e., "built.")

[34] And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all who passed by. (For nearly 2,000 years, the Land of Israel lay "desolate." This was the Promised Land, and yet there was little semblance of that which originally was. It is now beginning to be restored, but will not fully be made right until the Coming of the Lord.)

[35] And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the Garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited. (Tyre and Assyria claimed to be like the Garden of Eden. But this similitude belongs only to Israel [Ezek. 28:13; 31:8-9; Isa. 51:3].)

[36] Then the heathen who are left round about you shall know that I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it. (All that the Lord says He will do in this Verse is predicated on Israel's acceptance of Him as Lord and Saviour.)

[37] Thus sa ys the Lord GOD; I will yet for this be enquired of by the House of Israel, to do it for them; I will increase them with men like a flock. ("I will yet for this be enquired of by the House of Israel," refers to the coming Great Tribulation of the future, which will bring them to utter desolation and threatened annihilation, which will precipitate their crying to Him for Deliverance. This will bring Israel to a full Repentance and dependence upon God [Isa., Chpt. 64; Zech. 12:10; 13:1; Mat. 23:37-39; Rom. 11:25-29].)

[38] As the holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn Feasts; so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men: and they shall know that I am the LORD. (The theme of these Chapters is the relationship between Jehovah and His People. Hence, there are no details given respecting the First Advent. The Chapters present a general picture of the Last Days, of the rebirth of Israel, and of her enjoyment of Earthly Glory and Blessing, which will take place in the coming Kingdom Age.)

CHAPTER 37

VISION OF THE VALLEY OF DRY BONES

[1] The Hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the Spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones (as the last Chapter graphically spoke of Israel's coming Restoration, Chapter 37 graphically portrays the Spiritual manner of that Restoration)**,

[2] And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry. (The repetition of "behold" fastens the attention upon the two facts — that the bones were very many and very dry. "Very dry," speaks of a total absence of spirituality.)

[3] And He said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, You know. (Ezekiel's answer to the question of the Lord, "O Lord GOD, You know," signifies that within the realm of human endeavor the task was impossible!)

PROPHECY AND THE RESULTS

[4] Again He said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O you dry bones, hear the Word of the LORD. (The Prophet is told to "Prophesy upon these bones," meaning that the Lord will give a "Word" which will guarantee their Restoration and Revival; however, such could only be done according to the "Word of the LORD.")

[5] Thus says the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live (the "breath" spoken of is the same breath as when God "breathed into his nostrils the breath of life," respecting Adam, and he "became a living soul" [Gen. 2:7]. The life that is spoken of in this Passage is national life and Spiritual Life. National life of the nation has already begun, having its beginning in 1948 and continuing. However, Spiritual Life will begin in the coming Great Tribulation, when 144,000 Jews will accept Christ as their Saviour. But the fullness of Spiritual Life will not come until the Second Coming [Zech. 13:1, 9]):

6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am the LORD. ("You shall live," i.e., "you shall come to life again, so shall you get to know that I am Jehovah." God demonstrates His Existence and Power by raising the dead [Jn. 5:21; Rom. 1:3-4; 4:17; II Cor. 1:9].)

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone. ("There was a noise," in the Hebrew actually says, "a voice.")

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them. (As stated, national Israel began in 1948; however, the phrase, "But there was no breath in them," signifies the fact that national Israel presently has no spiritual life.)

9 Then said He unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus says the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live. ("Prophesy unto the wind," actually says in the Hebrew, "Prophesy unto the Spirit." "Come from the four winds," actually says in the Hebrew, "Come from the four breaths."

The number "four" is symbolic of "fourfold," denoting an absolute, total, and complete Restoration.)

10 So I prophesied as He commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army. (As the preceding Verses spoke of Israel's national identity, now this Verse speaks of Israel's Spiritual Identity, signifying their Spiritual Revival, which will take place at the Second Coming.

The phrase, "And stood upon their feet," speaks of Spiritual Life enabling such. For a long time, even over 2,000 years, Israel has not "stood upon their feet" spiritually. But in that coming Glad Day, they shall! Then they shall be an "exceeding great army," but an "exceeding great army" for the Lord.)

THE WHOLE HOUSE OF ISRAEL TO BE REGATHERED

11 Then He said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole House of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts. ("The whole House of Israel," speaks of the entirety of the thirteen Tribes. The latter part of this Verse, "behold, they say," refers to the latter half of the coming Great Tribulation. At that time, it will look like the entirety of their nation will be totally destroyed, with "hope lost" and "cut off for our parts." This has reference to Zechariah's Prophecy, when he said, "two parts therein shall be cut off and die" [Zech. 13:8].)

12 Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, O My People, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the Land of Israel. (As Prophecy sometimes does, the previous Verse spoke of the last few months or even weeks before the Coming of the Lord and, therefore, the relief of Israel, whereas this Verse goes back even to World War II and forward.)

13 And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O My People, and brought you up out of your graves *("And brought you up out of your graves," has reference in totality to the fact that Israel, and for all practical purposes, in the Battle of Armageddon is all but totally destroyed; actually, there is no Earthly way they can be salvaged. However, there is a Heavenly Way! And that Heavenly Way is Christ),

14 And shall put My Spirit in you, and you shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall you know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, says the LORD. (This Passage signals the great Revival that will take place in Israel at the Coming of the Lord. Zechariah gave in greater detail the happening of this great moving of the Holy Spirit [Zech. 12:10-14; 13:1, 9].)

THE SIGN OF TWO STICKS: ISRAEL AND JUDAH REJOINED

15 The Word of the LORD came again unto me, saying (now begins the second Prophecy predicting the unity of the nation, and its happy settlement under the Government of the Messiah)**,

16 Moreover, you son of man, take you one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the Children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim and for all the House of Israel his companions (the "two sticks" represent the two Houses of Israel, the Northern Confederation of Israel, sometimes called Ephraim or Samaria, and the Southern Kingdom known as Judah. "His companions," refers to Benjamin and Levi, and also possibly Simeon, being joined with Judah. The other Tribes pertained to Ephraim)**:

17 And join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in your hand. (This Verse predicts that both Kingdoms will now become one Kingdom, signifying one people, which can only be brought about by the "Hand of the Lord," which means that they will never again be divided.)

18 And when the children of your people shall speak unto you, saying, Will you not show us what you mean by these? (This Prophecy, which incorporates the balance of the Chapter, predicts the future union of the Tribes, their Restoration to the Land of Israel, and their settlement there under One Shepherd, and teaches that a Divinely wrought union is real and enduring, and brings its subjects into fellowship with God, and disposes them around a Divine center.)

RESTORATION OF ISRAEL AND JUDAH UNDER MESSIAH AND DAVID

19 Say unto them, Thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the Tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in My Hand. (When God takes groups of His Servants and unites them, they actually become one in His Hand. This means that not only is the old division gone, but the cause of division has also been erased.)

20 And the sticks whereon you write shall be in your hand before their eyes. (It is amazing that the Lord would take something that simple, such as "sticks," to express and portray something of such vital consequence [I Cor. 1:27].)

21 And say unto them, Thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the Children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land (the total fulfillment of this will take place in the coming Kingdom Age)**:

22 And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and one King shall be King to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all ("in the Land," refers to the Land of Israel, as promised to Abraham [Gen. 12:7]; its boundary on the west is the Mediterranean; on the south, the Suez Canal, which includes the Arabian Peninsula; on the east, the Euphrates River; on the north, Lebanon)**:

23 Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwellingplaces, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be My People, and I will be their God. (This will take place almost immediately after the Second Coming of Christ.)

24 And David My Servant shall be king over them; and they all shall have One Shepherd: they shall also walk in My Judgments, and observe My Statutes, and do them. (David was ever looked at as the example for all the kings of Israel, and will consequently serve in this capacity under Christ

25 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob My Servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they, and their children, and their children's children for ever: and My Servant David shall be their prince for ever. (This Passage goes back to the Messianic Promise of II Sam. 7:12-16. Some have concluded that the name "David" refers to the Messiah; however, the Holy Spirit uses the phrase, "My Servant David," but never once is Christ called "My Servant David." So it is obvious that king David is the one predicted here to be "their prince forever.")

A NEW AND EVERLASTING COVENANT

26 Moreover I will make a Covenant of Peace with them; it shall be an Everlasting Covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set My Sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore. (The setting of the "Divine Sanctuary" in Jerusalem will cause the heathen to know that God has especially chosen Israel for His Peculiar Treasure. This Sanctuary is described in Chapters 40 through 48.)

27 My Tabernacle also shall be with them: yes, I will be their God, and they shall be My People. (This "Tabernacle" refers to an ozone type of covering, much greater than presently, which will be during the Millennium, when the light of the sun will be increased sevenfold and the light of the moon will be as the present light of the Sun [Isa. 4:5].)

28 And the heathen shall know that I the LORD do sanctify Israel, when My Sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore. (God's Presence with Israel is the sign that He is with them and that the world must, and in fact will, recognize this approval.)

CHAPTER 38

PROPHECY AGAINST GENTILE POWERS AT ARMAGEDDON; GOD TO BE REPULSED

[1] And the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

[2] Son of man, set your face against Gog, the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him ("Gog" is another name for the Antichrist),

[3] And say, Thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against you, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal (for many years, Bible teachers have thought that these Passages referred to Russia, but a closer investigation of the statements prove otherwise; therefore, the phrase, "Behold, I am against you, O Gog," is not referring to Russia, but instead to the Antichrist):

[4] And I will turn you back, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you forth, and all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords (this Prophecy refers to the Battle of Armageddon, which will be the second invasion by the Antichrist of Israel, in which he will be totally destroyed. The first invasion will take place in the midst of the Great Tribulation, when the Antichrist will then show his true colors):

[5] Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya with them; all of them with shield and helmet:

[6] Gomer, and all his bands; the house of Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands: and many people with you. (These Passages merely reinforce the statements previously made, that the army of the Antichrist will consist of people from many countries, including Russia.)

7 Be you prepared, and prepare for yourself, you, and all your company who are assembled unto you, and be you a guard unto them. ("Be you prepared," merely refers to a taunt given by the Holy Spirit to the Antichrist. In other words, "Prepare yourself to the very best of your ability, and still it will avail you nothing, as you will be totally defeated.")

GOG TO INVADE ISRAEL IN THE LAST DAYS

8 After many days you shall be visited: in the latter years you shall come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell safely all of them. (The two phrases, "After many days" and "In the latter years," refer to this present time and the immediate future; therefore, any claims that this Chapter has already been fulfilled are spurious.

"The land that is brought back from the sword," refers to the many conflicts Israel has had since becoming a nation in 1948.

"And is gathered out of many people," refers to the various nations, such as Egypt, Syria, Iraq, etc., which did not desire Israel to become a nation, and which, therefore, greatly opposed her.

"But it is brought forth out of the nations," pertains to the United Nations voting that Israel would become a State, with even Russia voting her approval.

"And they shall dwell safely all of them," refers to the terrible horror of the Holocaust in World War II, with some 6,000,000 Jews being slaughtered by Hitler, and Israel then demanding a homeland instead of being scattered all over the world. Their feeling was that if this could be obtained, then they would be "safe.")

9 You shall ascend and come like a storm, you shall be like a cloud to cover the land, you, and all your bands, and many people with you. (As stated, this is the Battle of Armageddon.)

[10] Thus says the Lord GOD; It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into your mind, and you shall think an evil thought (the "evil thought" will consist of the plans of the Antichrist, inspired of Satan, to destroy Israel and the Jews. That plan is the Battle of Armageddon!)**:

[11] And you shall say, I will go up to the land of unwalled villages; I will go to them who are at rest, who dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates (the phrases, "The land of unwalled villages," "Dwelling without walls," and "Having neither bars nor gates," refer to Israel's efforts at mobilization to be rather weak, at least in the mind of the Antichrist)**,

[12] To take a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn your hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people who are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, who dwell in the midst of the land. (This is the invasion of Israel by the Antichrist, called the "Battle of Armageddon," which will precipitate the Second Coming of the Lord.)

[13] Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto you, Are you come to take a spoil? have you gathered your company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil? (The questions asked by these particular nations are not meant to proclaim an adversarial position; in fact, they will probably throw in their lot with the Antichrist, hoping to get a part of the "great spoil.")

GOG'S ATTACK AGAINST GOD'S LAND

[14] Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus says the Lord GOD; In that day when My People of Israel dwell safely, shall you not know it? (The idea of this Verse is: despite the Antichrist invading Israel and defeating her at the midpoint of the Great Tribulation, thereby breaking his seven-year pact, still, due to him having pressing business elsewhere [Dan. 11:44], Israel will then filter back into the land, reoccupying it, and seemingly will dwell safely. This will no doubt infuriate the "man of sin," and he will set about to handle the situation once and for all!)

15 And you shall come from your place out of the north parts, you, and many people with you, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army *(the "north parts" do not refer to Russia, as some think, but rather to Syria. In fact, the Antichrist [Gog] will come from Syria; however, the Syria of Daniel's Prophecies, of which this speaks, included modern Syria, Iraq, and Iran):

16 And you shall come up against My People of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring you against My Land, that the heathen may know Me, when I shall be sanctified in you, O Gog, before their eyes. ("In the latter days," refers to the last of the last days, which pertain to the present and near future. In other words, these Prophecies have already begun to come to pass, and, with each passing day, will accelerate their fulfillment.)

MANY PROPHECIES TO BE FULFILLED

17 Thus says the Lord GOD; Are you he of whom I have spoken in old time by My Servants the Prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years that I would bring you against them? (The Lord is actually speaking here of the Prophecies given to Ezekiel, of which this is one, as well as those of Isaiah, Daniel, Zechariah, and others!)

GOG TO BE DESTROYED AT ARMAGEDDON

18 And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, says the Lord GOD, that My Fury shall come up in My Face. (Once again, this is the Battle of Armageddon. "My Fury shall come up in My Face," corresponds to the statement of Zechariah [Zech. 14:3].)

19 For in My Jealousy and in the fire of My Wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel (the "great shaking in the Land of Israel" can only transpire in the Battle of Armageddon, and only by the Hand of the Lord)**;

20 So that the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men who are upon the face of the Earth, shall shake at My Presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. (This Verse pertains to the Second Coming, which will be the most cataclysmic event in human history.)

21 And I will call for a sword against him throughout all My Mountains, says the Lord GOD: every man's sword shall be against his brother. (This portrays the fact that the Lord has control over all things!)

22 And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people who are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone. (This Verse proclaims the fact that the Lord will use the elements, over which neither the Antichrist nor any other man has any control.)

23 Thus will I magnify Myself, and sanctify Myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the LORD. ("Thus will I magnify Myself," has reference to anger held in check for a long time, and then exploding with a fury that defies description.)

THE PROPHECY AGAINST GOG: THE SLAUGHTER OF GOG'S ARMY

[1] Therefore, you son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against you, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal (this Chapter proclaims Gog's defeat by the Lord Jesus Christ. As stated, it is the Battle of Armageddon, as described in Rev. 16:16)**:

[2] And I will turn you back, and leave but the sixth part of you, and will cause you to come up from the north parts, and will bring you upon the mountains of Israel (five-sixths of the army of the Antichrist will be killed by the Second Coming of the Lord. "And will cause you to come up from the north parts," does not, as previously stated, refer to Russia. It instead refers to the invasion route being the same as it was for the Assyrians, Babylonians, Grecians, and others in the past)**:

[3] And I will smite your bow out of your left hand, and will cause your arrows to fall out of your right hand. (The Antichrist, called "Gog," will think he is fighting Israel only, when, in Truth, he is fighting the Lord, a battle he cannot hope to win.)

[4] You shall fall upon the mountains of Israel, you, and all your bands, and the people that is with you: I will give you unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured. (The idea is that the defeat of the Antichrist and his armies will be so severe that vultures and beasts will feed upon the multitudes of dead bodies littering the "mountains of Israel."

"You shall fall," signifies not only the defeat of the "man of sin," but also the collapse of corrupt human society, which includes corrupt human government.)

5 You shall fall upon the open field: for I have spoken it, says the Lord GOD. ("Open field," refers to the time of the defeat of the Antichrist. It will be in the very midst of the Battle, with the Antichrist bearing down on Jerusalem, thinking that victory is within his grasp [Zech. 14:1-3].)

6 And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them who dwell carelessly in the isles: and they shall know that I am the LORD. ("Send a fire on Magog," simply means that the Lord will personally use the elements of the heavens to destroy the vast Gentile armies following the Antichrist.

"And among them who dwell carelessly in the isles," pertains to other nations of the world, which, in their minds, are neutral and are simply turning a blind eye to this wholesale slaughter against Israel by the Antichrist.)

7 So will I make My Holy Name known in the midst of My People Israel; and I will not let them pollute My Holy Name any more: and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel. (This Verse captures all the Promises made by the Lord to the Patriarchs and Prophets of old!)

8 Behold, it is come, and it is done, sa ys the Lord GOD; this is the day whereof I have spoken. (This Verse pertains to the coming Great Tribulation, and more especially to these events at the very conclusion of that particular time, including the Battle of Armageddon [Zech. 14:7].)

9 And they who dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the handstaves, and the spears, and they shall burn them with fire seven years (to think of something being burned "with fire seven years" allows us to know the extent of the destruction)**:

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: and they shall spoil those who spoiled them, and rob those who robbed them, says the Lord GOD.

SEVEN MONTHS TO BURY THE DEAD OF GOG'S ARMY AFTER ARMAGEDDON

[11] And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of Hamon-gog. (No doubt, several millions of men are going to be killed in that which is known as "the Battle of Armageddon." Even employing modern equipment to hasten the burial of so many human bodies, still, the stench will "stop the noses of the passengers.")

[12] And seven months shall the House of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the land.

[13] Yes, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown the day that I shall be glorified, says the Lord GOD. (The Lord links this spectacle to the sanctifying of His Name.)

[14] And they shall sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those who remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search. (The Executive Government of Israel will employ and pay the men described in this Verse to collect the human bones, wherever found, and bury them in the huge trench or area of Verse 11. This project, as stated, will require seven months.)

[15] And the passengers who pass through the land, when any sees a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog. (It seems that all the bones will be collected and taken to "the valley of Hamon-gog," and there buried. If this is the case, it will be done for a reason, the portraying of such as a monument to Satan's defeat, and the victory, even the great Victory, of the Lord Jesus Christ.)

cleanse the land. (The name "Hamonah" means "multitude." No doubt, it will be a "city" of graves, housing the silent dead, and not a city of the living.)

THE BIRDS AND ANIMALS GATHERED FOR A SACRIFICIAL FEAST

17 And, you son of man, thus says the Lord GOD; Speak unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to My Sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great Sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that you may eat flesh, and drink blood. (This is the same command as Rev. 19:17-18, 20.)

18 You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the Earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan. (The words, "The mighty" and "princes," signify the military and political elite of the army of the Antichrist. As well, the "rams, lambs, goats, and bullocks" signify the same!)

19 And you shall eat fat till you be full, and drink blood till you be drunken, of My Sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. (The idea is that if they would not accept the Sacrifice of Christ at Calvary, then they would be made a sacrifice, which they were, but which would not save their souls, but would serve as a part of the salvation of the world.)

20 Thus you shall be filled at My Table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, says the Lord GOD. (The Antichrist will think to set a "table" is portraying the defeat of Israel, but instead he and his army will be the "table," i.e., "My Table," i.e., the Table of the Lord.)

THE PURPOSE OF GOD

21 And I will set My Glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see My Judgment that I have executed, and My Hand that I have laid upon them. (The Bible regards as "the heathen" all who do not accept the Lord Jesus Christ as their Saviour. Therefore, that includes almost all the world.)

[22] So the House of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day and forward. (Along with "the heathen" seeing this glorious spectacle, likewise, "the House of Israel" will now "know" exactly Who the Messiah is. They will know that the One they rejected and crucified is actually "the LORD their God." They will know it "from that very day and forward.")

[23] And the heathen shall know that the House of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against Me, therefore hid I My face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword. (The dispersions under the Assyrians and the Romans having been effected by the sword, as well as all who have been exiled through the centuries, and more particularly the terrible Holocaust of World War II, it can justly be stated: "they all fell by the sword."

"They trespassed against Me," refers to Israel's rebellion from the very beginning, which finally necessitated their destruction and dispersion; however, the crowning "trespass" of all was their rejection of Christ and His Crucifixion. As a result, they were given over "into the hand of their enemies," where they have remained for nearly 2,000 years.)

[24] According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and hid My Face from them. (As they did not desire Him, He "hid His Face from them." This was all He could do! Regrettably, this scenario has not yet ended. Continuing to reject Him, Israel will instead accept "another" as their messiah [Jn. 5:43]. This will happen in the very near future, and will bring Israel yet another Holocaust! [Mat. 24:21-22].

However, and finally, Israel will come out of the darkness into the light, and will accept Christ as their Saviour and Messiah. The next Passages tell us how!)

ISRAEL TO BE RE-GATHERED AND CONVERTED

[25] Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have Mercy upon the whole House of Israel, and will be jealous for My Holy Name (He will have "Mercy" because of their Repentance, which will take place at the Second Coming. The phrase, "And will be jealous for My Holy Name," is a fearsome statement. "His Holy Name" stands behind His Word. He is "jealous" that His Honor be protected and that every single Prophecy be fulfilled)**;

[26] After that they have borne their shame and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against Me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid. (The idea of this and succeeding Verses is the explanation of the word "now" in the previous Verse. The "shame" resulting from the "trespasses" is now over. "Now" they can "dwell safely in their land, and none shall make them afraid.")

[27] When I have brought them again from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations (this great gathering will take place after the Second Coming of Christ, and will include every Jew from every country in the world, who will be brought, and gladly, to Israel. "And am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations," refers to His Plan for them finally being realized)**;

[28] Then shall they know that I am the LORD their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there. (So certain is the future Restoration of Israel that the past tense is used here in predicting it.)

[29] Neither will I hide My Face any more from them: for I have poured out My Spirit upon the House of Israel, says the Lord GOD. (This Passage and many others emphatically state that Israel will never again go astray because of the "poured out Spirit of God" upon them. This Vision opens and closes with a valley of dry bones. The first Vision saw the resurrection of those bones [Chpt. 37]; in the second part of the Vision, nothing but bones will remain, signifying the catastrophic end of the armies of the Antichrist.

So these two valleys contrast the one with the other — the one, a testimony to God's Faithfulness and Love; the other, to His Fidelity and Judgment.)

CHAPTER 40

EZEKIEL'S VISION OF THE TEMPLE (THE MILLENNIAL SANCTUARY)

[1] In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, in the selfsame day the hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither. ("In the five and twentieth year of our captivity," concerns itself with the first invasion of Jerusalem by Babylon, which occurred in 605 B.C. During this invasion, the city was partly destroyed and many of the people were carried away captive. The city was further devastated in 597 B.C. and finally burned and desolated in 586 B.C.)

[2] In the Visions of God brought He me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain, by which was as the frame of a city on the south. (The events of Chapters 40 through 48 concern things in the Kingdom Age, when Christ will Personally rule from Jerusalem. This will immediately follow the Battle of Armageddon and the Second Coming of the Lord.)

[3] And He brought me thither, and, behold, there was a Man, Whose Appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in His Hand, and a measuring reed; and He stood in the Gate. (If we compare the descriptions given in Ezek. 1:26-27, Dan. 10:6, and Rev. 1:15, the "Man Whose Appearance was like the appearance of brass" is Christ. Personally, He will give the Prophet the information regarding the coming Glory and Grandeur of restored Jerusalem and the Temple.

"With a line of flax in His Hand, and a measuring reed," speaks of Righteousness.)

THE EASTERN WALL AND GATE

4 And the Man said unto me, Son of man, behold with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your heart upon all that I shall show you; for to the intent that I might show them unto you are you brought hither: declare all that you see to the House of Israel. ("Son of man, behold with your eyes, and hear with your ears," portrays the Truth that all given concerning dimensions, portrayals, and specifications have a Spiritual reference, with all pertaining to Christ.

The carnal heart will see little blessing in these tedious statements and measurements, and consequently will reap little! However, the Spiritual Heart will dig and probe that these nuggets of Spiritual Gold may be brought to the surface [Col. 2:3].)

5 And behold a wall on the outside of the House round about, and in the Man's Hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and an hand breadth: so He measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed. (A "reed" represents nine feet. It is interesting that the Tabernacle had no wall, nor did the Temple, or at least no wall that was an essential part of the Sacred Structure. Here, however, the wall constitutes an integral portion of the whole, and was designed "to make a separation between the Sanctuary and the profane place." This "wall" encloses the square in which will stand the Sacred Palace.)

6 Then came He unto the Gate which looks toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the Gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the Gate, which was one reed broad. (In the construction of these three Places of Worship, nothing is left to man's taste or imagination. Everything, even in the matter of measurements, was commanded by God, and, as stated, holds great Spiritual Meaning.

For instance, the phrase, "And went up the stairs thereof," pertains to God's Plan of Salvation. Even though the number of steps is not given here, they are mentioned in Verses 22 and 26 concerning the Northern and Southern Gates as being "seven."

"Seven" is God's number, implying perfection, completion, and totality. Such is God's Salvation, afforded by Christ Jesus and offered freely to man.)

7 And every little Chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little Chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the Gate by the Porch of the Gate within was one reed. (These are actually guard-chambers intended for the Levite sentinels who stood guard over the House. It is not that guards are needed; they are for decorative purposes only! Nevertheless, the Spiritual Application is appropriate. The Child of God is ordered to "watch" and to "pray" [Mk. 13:33].)

8 He measured also the Porch of the Gate within, one reed.

9 Then measured He the Porch of the Gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the Porch of the Gate was inward. (Christ is the One Who measures; as the Lord of Glory, He is Perfect in His design.)

10 And the little Chambers of the Gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

11 And He measured the breadth of the entry of the Gate, ten cubits; and the length of the Gate, thirteen cubits. (This is the Eastern Gate to the Temple; it is nearly twenty feet high.)

12 The space also before the little Chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and the little Chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. (This area or "space" immediately before the "little Chambers" most likely was to enable the guardsman, by stepping beyond his cell, to observe the happenings in the Gate without interrupting those coming and going. Spiritually speaking, what kind of guard do we have which observes what goes in and what comes out? Nothing should be allowed to enter that stains, corrupts, pollutes, or spoils.)

13 He measured then the Gate from the roof of one little Chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door. (If the Guard Chambers are scrutinized this closely, as to measurement and direction, then the significance should not be lost upon us. To guard our mind, which is the doorway to our spirit, in order that defilement not enter, can be done only as the Believer places his Faith in Christ and what Christ has done for us at the Cross. In essence, Christ must not be separated from the Cross, and we speak of its benefits [Rom. 6:3-5; 8:1-2, 11; I Cor. 1:17-18, 23; 2:2; Gal. 6:14].)

14 He made also posts of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the Court round about the Gate. (These "posts" are ninety feet high, and are different than the little short posts mentioned in Verse 10. I think the Holy Spirit does not desire this "post" of ninety feet height to be contrasted with the little "post" of only three feet height [Vs. 9]. To serve in any capacity in the Kingdom of God is of utmost significance. As one is needed, the other is also needed!)

15 And from the face of the Gate of the entrance unto the face of the Porch of the Inner Gate were fifty cubits. (The "fifty cubits" are seventy-five feet. This comprised the whole length of the Eastern Gate, from the outer entrance to the inner exit.)

16 And there were narrow windows to the little Chambers, and to their posts within the Gate round about, and likewise to the arches: and windows were round about inward: and upon each post were palm trees. (Similar windows existed in the Temple of Solomon [I Ki. 6:4]. It is notable that the only type of trees mentioned as being a part of the decoration of the Millennial Temple is the "palm tree." This tree symbolizes "rest.")

OUTER COURT

17 Then brought He me into the Outward Court, and, lo, there were Chambers, and a pavement made for the Court round about: thirty Chambers were upon the pavement.

18 And the pavement by the side of the Gates over against the length of the Gates was the lower pavement.

19 Then He measured the breadth from the forefront of the Lower Gate unto the forefront of the Inner Court without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward. (The Hebrew word for "pavement" suggests ornamental pavement. The pavement of the Outer Court was called "the lower pavement" to distinguish it from that laid in the Inner Court, which stood at a higher elevation.)

THE NORTHERN GATE OF THE OUTER COURT

20 And the Gate of the Outward Court that looked toward the north, He measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 And the little Chambers thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the arches thereof were after the measure of the first Gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

22 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm trees, were after the measure of the Gate that looks toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them. (There will be no West Gate, for the Messiah, when seated on His Throne within the Temple, will face the East; the worshippers will enter by the North and South Gates and stand before Him; behind Him will, perhaps, stand the Cherubims of Glory.

The "seven steps," as we have explained, denote perfection, totality, completion, and universality; "seven" is God's Number and applies to Christ Himself.)

23 And the Gate of the Inner Court was over against the Gate toward the north, and toward the east; and He measured from Gate to Gate an hundred cubits. (The distance is identical from the north, east, and south: 150 feet.)

THE SOUTHERN GATE OF THE OUTER COURT

24 After that He brought me toward the south, and behold a Gate toward the south: and He measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures.

25 And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof. (All three Gates, east, north, and south, have "seven steps" leading up from the outside of the outer wall. Actually, the design of the Temple area is very simple, forming a square, with the dimensions identical from all entrances. This portrays the exactness, perfection, and harmony of God's Salvation Plan, exemplified in Christ, Who is Perfect from every side. In fact, any way one looks at Christ, one sees nothing but perfection. If one comes through the South Gate, it is identical to that which leads through the North Gate; therefore, whichever one enters, there is no confusion. What a beautiful picture of True Bible Christianity!)

THE INNER COURT GATES AND WALLS

27 And there was a Gate in the Inner Court toward the south: and He measured from Gate to Gate toward the south an hundred cubits.

28 And He brought me to the Inner Court by the south Gate: and He measured the south Gate according to these measures;

29 And the little Chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

30 And the arches round about were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad.

31 And the arches thereof were toward the Outer Court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps. (There were "eight steps" that led to the South Inner Gate, whereas there were "seven" that led to the North Outer Gate. God's Number, which is "seven," cannot be improved upon, and is not meant to be improved upon; therefore, the number "eight," respecting the steps that lead to the "Inner Court," should be added to the seven, totaling fifteen.

This corresponds to the Pilgrim Psalms, or "Songs of Degrees" or "Ascents," which were fifteen. They are Psalms 120 through 134. They were supposed to have been sung, one upon each step, by the choir of Levites, as they ascended first into the Outer and then the Inner Court of Solomon's Temple.

These "Songs of Degrees" symbolize the Spiritual Journey of every Believer. The first Psalm of each group speaks of distress and trouble [Ps. 120, 123, 126, 129, 132]; the second Psalm of each group speaks of trust and deliverance by God [Ps. 121, 124, 127, 130, 133]; the third Psalm of each group speaks of Blessing and Triumph upon Zion [Ps. 122, 125, 128, 131, 134].)

32 And He brought me into the Inner Court toward the east: and He measured the Gate according to these measures.

33 And the little Chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the Outward Court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

35 And He brought me to the north Gate, and measured it according to these measures:

36 The little Chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

37 And the posts thereof were toward the Outer Court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps. (The same minute specifications are again repeated, as if to show that all parts in this Divinely-fashioned edifice are of equal moment and, therefore, symbolize Christ.)

38 And the Chambers and the entries thereof were by the posts of the Gates, where they washed the Burnt Offering. (The Sacrifices included the "Whole Burnt Offering," which spoke of Christ giving His all.)

TABLES FOR PREPARING THE SACRIFICES

39 And in the Porch of the Gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the Burnt Offering and the Sin Offering and the Trespass Offering.

40 And at the side without, as one goes up to the entry of the north Gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the Porch of the Gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the Gate; eight tables, whereupon they killed their Sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the Burnt Offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they killed the Burnt Offering and the Sacrifice.

43 And within were hooks, an hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering. (Actually, three types of Offerings would be offered here, the "Burnt Offering," the "Sin Offering," and "Trespass Offering." There were twelve tables in all, eight on which the Sacrifices were placed, and four for placing the instruments employed in killing the animals.

Although reinstituted, as under the Old Covenant, the Sacrifices do not now take away sin any more than they did then [Heb. 10:4]. The Sacrifices are merely symbolic, and are meant to portray the Great Sacrifice made by Christ at Calvary. This is to never be forgotten; the daily offering of the Sacrifices will be a constant ritual, so that the entire world will never forget.

That which saved man, the shed Blood of Jesus Christ at Calvary, did not come cheaply or easily; therefore, it is thought of so highly in the Mind of God, and rightly so, that the never-ending repetition of Sacrifices will constantly be offered as an ongoing reminder.)

CHAMBERS OF THE SINGERS

44 And without the Inner Gate were the Chambers of the singers in the Inner Court, which was at the side of the north Gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east Gate having the prospect toward the north. (The "singers," whose worship will accompany the Sacrifices, portray the Truth that the great price paid at Calvary brought eternal joy to the human heart, and is ever to be expressed accordingly. Therefore, the Truth is evident here that if the Church goes further than Calvary, it loses its way with God. As well, if Calvary is ever lifted up as the focal point of man's Redemption and Sanctification, which it most certainly is, then great joy always accompanies this great Truth [Rom. 6:3-14].)

BUILDING FOR THE PRIESTS

45 And He said unto me, This Chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the Priests, the keepers of the charge of the house. (The indication is that this Chamber is exclusively for the "Priests.")

46 And the Chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the Priests, the keepers of the charge of the Altar: these are the sons of Zadok among the sons of Levi, which come near to the LORD to minister unto Him. (The two Chambers mentioned in Verses 45 and 46 both pertain to the Priests. Those in Verse 45 face toward the south and are for those in charge of the Temple. The one facing north is for those having charge of the Altar.)

THE PORCH OF THE HOUSE

47 So He measured the Court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the Altar that was before the House. (The "cubit" was about 18 inches long. The Great Altar was situated in the very center of the four squares, and is 18 feet square. The Revelation of all of this testifies to the interest of God in His People. He will rebuild His Sanctuary among them; and He has informed them of this fact, and of its details, as a testimony of His Faithful Love, and as a Message to their hearts and consciences. Therefore, the Prophet was commanded to show these things to the House of Israel [Vs. 4].)

48 And He brought me to the Porch of the House, and measured each post of the Porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the Gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

49 The length of the Porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and He brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side. (The "Most Holy Place," specified in Verse 4 of the next Chapter, is larger than the "Porch of the House," or entrance, thus signifying that God's Grace is far greater than anything that could be brought to it. Consequently, this fact illustrates a great Spiritual Truth. In this building and its dependencies, the measurements of "foundations" and the "posts" have great importance; for the one word expresses stability, the other, permanence.

In the Bible, the "posts" of the door mean the whole House as an erect structure, and they figure its strength. This is imitated in the massive stone door-posts of the Egyptian Temples. If, therefore, the posts of the door shake, the whole House shakes.

In this House of Jehovah, all the foundations will be of like measure, signifying its Great Strength, which is Christ.)

CHAPTER 41

THE MEASURING OF THE TEMPLE

[1] Afterward He brought me to the Temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the Tabernacle. (The massiveness and loftiness of the "posts" or "pillars" proclaim the strength and magnificence of the Temple. "Six" is used for a reason, because it denotes the number of man, and corresponds with the Words of Christ [Rev. 3:12].)

[2] And the breadth of the Door was ten cubits; and the sides of the Door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and He measured the length thereof, forty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits. ("And the breadth of the Door was ten cubits," refers to the "Door" that led into the Holy Place, which was fifteen feet wide. This corresponds again to Jesus as "the Door" [Jn. 10:7]. The Holy Place was sixty feet long and thirty feet wide. This was the same dimensions as Solomon's Temple.)

[3] Then went He inward, and measured the post of the Door, two cubits; and the Door, six cubits; and the breadth of the Door, seven cubits. (The phrase, "Then went He inward," speaks of the Most Holy Place, which was situated immediately behind the Holy Place. No one but the High Priest could go into the "Most Holy Place," and that was only once a year; therefore, Christ, it seems, went in Alone, leaving Ezekiel outside.

The height of the Door is "six cubits"; this refers to Christ as the Door to Salvation, i.e., man's approach to God, since "six" is man's number; the width of the Door is "seven cubits," which portrays God's Perfect Salvation in Christ, God's Number being "seven," which speaks of perfection.)

[4] So He measured the length thereof, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the Temple: and He said unto me, This is the Most Holy Place. (The "Most Holy Place" was the place where the Ark of the Covenant was kept in the Tabernacle and in Solomon's Temple. Actually, the dimensions were the same as Solomon's Temple: thirty feet long and thirty feet wide.

At Solomon's Temple, the "Altar" was thirty feet long and thirty feet wide, the same size as the "Most Holy Place." However, in the Millennial Temple, the "Altar" will be smaller than the Most Holy Place, only eighteen feet square.

Solomon's Altar was larger because it represented a price yet to be paid, while the "Altar" in the Millennial Temple is smaller, thereby representing a price already paid [II Chron. 4:1; Ezek. 43:16].)

5 After He measured the wall of the House, six cubits; and the breadth of every side Chamber, four cubits, round about the House on every side. (The wall of this "House" will be "six cubits," or nine feet, thick. The massive thickness of the "wall" will no doubt serve as a symbol of strength and indestructibility concerning Christ as the True Temple. In other words, this House is secure, whereas the house built by man fell!)

6 And the side Chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the House for the side Chambers round about, that they might have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the House.

7 And there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side Chambers: for the winding about of the House went still upward round about the House: therefore the breadth of the House was still upward, and so increased from the lowest Chamber to the highest by the midst. (The width of the wall for the first story was 7½ feet, whereas this was diminished to 6 feet for the second story, and to 4½ feet for the third story.)

8 I saw also the height of the House round about: the foundations of the side Chambers were a full reed of six great cubits. (The "foundations" of these Chambers were 9 feet thick, constituting a "firm foundation.")

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side Chamber without, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side Chambers that were within. (The symbolism is here intended to convey the Spiritual Message desired: in this case, the firm foundation of our Spiritual Experience in Christ, along with the firm walls denoting the structure of Salvation and the reign of Christ as being absolutely secure and eternal in its consequence.)

10 And between the Chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the House on every side.

11 And the doors of the side Chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place at the end toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits. (This building was a separate place, or structure, which was built behind the Temple on the west, which was marked off from the rest of the ground on which the Temple, with its Courts and Chambers, stood; it was most likely devoted to less sacred purposes. Actually, behind Solomon's Temple lay a similar space [II Ki. 23:11; I Chron. 26:18].)

13 So He measured the House, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long;

14 Also the breadth of the face of the House, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits. (That which is instituted, even though it would contain some of the trappings of the Mosaic Law, still, is carried forth mostly as a symbol or memorial that men never forget what Christ did at Calvary for the human family in order that men may be Saved.)

15 And He measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the Inner Temple, and the Porches of the Court;

DETAILS ABOUT THE INTERIOR OF THE TEMPLE

[16] The door posts, and the narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories over against the door, cieled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered;

[17] To that above the door, even unto the inner House, and without, and by all the wall round about within and without, by measure. (These three-storied Houses, as the Palace itself, will be finished off with wooden wainscotting ornamented with Cherubims and Palm Trees. The wood, no doubt, typified the Incarnation of Christ, when God became Man in order to become the Last Adam, and to redeem humanity.)

[18] And it was made with Cherubims and Palm Trees, so that a Palm Tree was between a Cherub and a Cherub; and every Cherub had two faces (as in Solomon's Temple [I Ki. 6:29], the wainscotting was adorned with artistic coverings of Cherubims and Palm Trees, a Palm Tree and a Cherub standing alternately. As the wood denoted Christ's humanity, likewise, the "Cherubims" denote His Holiness. The "Palm Trees" denote the lifting of the curse from the Earth and from man, with harmony now prevailing, typifying "rest")**;

[19] So that the face of a man was toward the Palm Tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the Palm Tree on the other side: it was made through all the House round about. ("So that the face of a man was toward the Palm Tree on the one side," refers to God becoming Man, "The Man Christ Jesus," in order to redeem man and lift the curse.

The phrase, "And the face of a young lion toward the Palm Tree on the other side," refers to Christ coming "as a Lion from the Tribe of Judah" [Rev. 5:5].)

[20] From the ground unto above the door were Cherubims and Palm Trees made, and on the wall of the Temple. (Throughout the Temple, "even unto the Inner House" [Vs. 17], the Holy of Holies will be the symbols.)

21 The posts of the Temple were squared, and the face of the Sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other. (They were "squared," which signified the fourfold Gospel of Jesus Christ: Salvation by the Blood, the Baptism with the Holy Spirit, Divine Healing, and the Second Coming of Christ. All now, in the Kingdom Age, are reality, hence, "the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.")

22 The Altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and He said unto me, This is the Table that is before the LORD. (This is not the Altar of Sacrifice, which sat in the center of the 100-cubit square and in front of the Temple, but instead the "Altar of Incense." It is in the Holy Place, immediately in front of the Holy of Holies, exactly where it sat in the Tabernacle and in Solomon's Temple.)

23 And the Temple and the Sanctuary had two doors. (These "doors" led to the "Holy Place" and the "Most Holy Place.")

24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the Temple, Cherubims and Palm Trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the Porch without. (As Solomon's Temple also represented the coming Kingdom Age, likewise, this Temple, which is the Kingdom Age, has the same symbols. They stand for Holiness and Harmony.)

26 And there were narrow windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the Porch, and upon the side Chambers of the House, and thick planks. (Solomon's Temple was heavily ornamented with gold, whereas such is not present in the Kingdom Temple, because Christ, which the gold represented, is now present; therefore, the gold is no longer necessary. The implication is this: the abundance of gold made Solomon's Temple beautiful; however, Christ will so far eclipse the luster of mere gold that even if gold were present, it would not be noticed for the Glory of the Lord.)

THE NORTH OUTER COURT

1 Then He brought me forth into the Utter Court, the way toward the north: and He brought me into the Chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north. (The Utter Court actually refers to "Outer Court." The survey of the Temple has now been completed, and Ezekiel is taken outside by Christ into the "Outer Court.")

2 Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits. (The length is 150 feet; the width is 75 feet. This building contains the Priests' Chambers.)

3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the Inner Court, and over against the pavement which was for the Utter Court, was gallery against gallery in three stories. (This building is three stories high, with a "gallery" or "porch" running the length of the building on all three stories.)

4 And before the Chambers was a walk to ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors toward the north.

5 Now the Upper Chambers were shorter: for the galleries were higher than these, than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building. (The Verse seems to mean that the "Upper Chambers," or the second and third stories, were smaller than the bottom floor.)

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the Courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground. (The bottom floors being smaller suggests, in the Spiritual Sense, an enlarged vision enjoyed in communion; the upper stories being smaller suggests a humbling experience gained in service.

In communion with the Lord, and sensing His Great Presence, the recipient of this Presence, and for the moment, thinks himself capable of miraculous events. However, the actual service quickly demonstrates the inabilities of the flesh, and humbles the participant.)

7 And the wall that was without over against the Chambers, toward the Utter Court on the forepart of the Chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the Chambers that were in the Utter Court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the Temple were an hundred cubits.

EAST ENTRANCE — OUTER COURT

9 And from under these Chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goes into them from the Utter Court. (Quite possibly, the elevation of this building, regarding ground level, will be higher than the Outer Court, but lower than the Temple area. Consequently, the "entry" is represented as lying under the Chambers.)

10 The Chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the Court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the Chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the Chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one enters into them.

CHAMBERS OF THE PRIESTS

13 Then said He unto me, The north Chambers and the south Chambers, which are before the separate place, they be Holy Chambers, where the Priests who approach unto the LORD shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the Meat Offering, and the Sin Offering, and the Trespass Offering, for the place is holy.

14 When the Priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the Utter Court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people. (The regulation as to the Priestly garments of the sons of Zadok reveals a feature of the Spiritual Life peculiar to the modern Christian, that there are affections, energies, and ministries which belong exclusively to the life of communion and intercession, and must, therefore, be reserved expressly for the Lord. Refreshed and enabled by this inner communion, the Christian can then go out to minister to the world.

Observing Christ as the King of kings and Lord of lords, despite the nail-prints in His Hands, resplendent in beauty and glory, one is apt to forget what He did to redeem humanity. These repetitive sacrificial rituals will be a constant reminder.)

THE MEASUREMENTS OF THE TEMPLE AREA

15 Now when He had made an end of measuring the Inner House, He brought me forth toward the Gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about. (As the Lord measures the dimensions for the Kingdom Temple, likewise, He measures the government, operation, and service of His Church. As His dimensions are exact for the coming Temple, likewise, they are exact for His Church.)

16 He measured the east side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

17 He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

18 He measured the south side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed.

19 He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. (This is called the "Most Outer Court" or the "Profane Place," which could be used by the people coming to the Sanctuary itself.)

20 He measured it by the four sides: it had a wall round about, five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the Sanctuary and the profane place. (The Sanctuaries given by Inspiration to Moses and to David were built, and thus, set visibly before the eyes of Israel. The Sanctuary given in Vision to Ezekiel is yet to be built. But its details are revealed in writing [43:11] as a testimony and instruction to Israel.

These details make real God's Interest in His ancient People, and gives substance to His Promise to establish His Home among them. Thus, this Vision is a perpetual call to Repentance [43:10-11].)

THE GLORY OF THE LORD FILLS THE TEMPLE

[1] Afterward He brought me to the Gate, even the Gate that looks toward the east (this Chapter is glorious indeed, inasmuch as it heralds the return of the Holy Spirit to the Millennial Temple and, therefore, to Israel. Ezekiel saw Him leave [11:23] and now he sees Him return. Atonement, as the eternal foundation of God's Relationship with man, is the keynote of this Chapter, which will occasion the Coming of the Spirit. As stated, this will be at the beginning of the Kingdom Age)**:

[2] And, behold, the Glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and His Voice was like a noise of many waters: and the Earth shined with His Glory. (Israel rejected Him and so He left! Now Israel has been washed and cleansed by the Blood of the Lamb and, therefore, He returns.)

[3] And it was according to the appearance of the Vision which I saw, even according to the Vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city: and the Visions were like the Vision that I saw by the River Chebar; and I fell upon my face. (Taking the latter phrase first, "And I fell upon my face," one is left with the proper position in the Presence of the Lord of Glory. The phrase, "That I saw when I came to destroy the city," does not mean that Ezekiel personally destroyed it, but that he was the announcer of this tragic event!

The idea of Ezekiel's terminology is that as God, in the past, had shown Himself as One of Justice and Judgment by overturning and destroying the old, likewise, He will now exhibit Himself as a God of Grace and Mercy by condescending to establish His Abode in the new. Consequently, Ezekiel saw the destruction and the restoration, and in a manner unlike any other Prophet before or since!)

4 And the Glory of the LORD came into the House by the way of the Gate whose prospect is toward the east (comes into the newly built Millennial Temple)**.

5 So the Spirit took me up, and brought me into the Inner Court; and, behold, the Glory of the LORD filled the House. (The Lord is now entering into and taking possession of the "House," as formerly He had entered into and taken possession of the Tabernacle and the Temple of old [Ex. 40:34-35; I Ki. 8:10-11].)

6 And I heard Him speaking unto me out of the House; and the Man stood by me. (It is the Holy Spirit Who is speaking to Ezekiel. As well, the "Man" standing by Ezekiel is none other than the Lord Jesus Christ, Who has conducted Ezekiel through the entirety of this manifestation [40:3-4].)

7 And He said unto me, Son of man, the place of My Throne, and the place of the soles of My Feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the Children of Israel for ever, and My Holy Name, shall the House of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places. (The words, "This is," are to be supplied before "the Place of My Throne." The phrase, "Where I will dwell in the midst of the Children of Israel forever," goes beyond anything that had been spoken concerning either the Tabernacle of Moses or the Temple of Solomon.)

EXHORTATION TO ISRAEL

8 In their setting of their threshold by My Thresholds, and their post by My Posts, and the wall between Me and them, they have even defiled My Holy Name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in My Anger. (The wording of "their threshold," "My Thresholds," "their post," and "My Posts" refers to their idol Temple erected by the side of God's Holy House, which, of course, occasioned their destruction.)

9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcases of their kings, far from Me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever. (The theology here presented harmonizes with that of the Old and New Testament writers, who invariably proclaimed purity of heart and life as a necessary condition of God's abiding in the heart, while asserting such Divine indwelling in the heart as the only certain Creator of such purity; for one cannot create such himself [Isa. 1:16, 25; 26:12; Jn. 14:23; II Cor. 6:17; James 4:8]. The idea of this Verse is not that such sin dwelt in Israel at this particular time [the time of the Millennium], but that God's attitude toward sin never changes. In fact, such sin will never again happen in Israel!)

10 You son of man, show the House to the House of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the pattern. (This refers to iniquities of the past, and not of the present. But yet they are to be ashamed of their past, as we should be ashamed of all sin, especially personal sin.

"And let them measure the pattern," concerns itself with the Great Sanctuary, which will be the dwelling-place of the Lord. Comparing this glorious Palace with the pagan and Papal Temples of idolatrous worship, the people will be ashamed of shrines, both ancient and modern, of which they are now so proud.

Similarly, a comparison between the Way of Salvation and Holiness patterned in the Scriptures and those invented by man fill the contrite heart with self-condemnation.)

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, show them the form of the House, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them. (The idea of this Verse is that God will not dwell in anything except that which He Himself has made. Only that which is of God, all of God and only of God, can be accepted. And this has been the problem with religious man from the beginning until now. He seeks to insert that of his own making into that which is of God, which the Lord will never tolerate. The Message always has been, and always will be, "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" [I Cor. 1:23].)

12 This is the Law of the House; Upon the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the Law of the House. (As the Holy of Holies, the Tabernacle, and the Temple of old were "most holy," likewise, the entirety of that which pertains to this Sanctuary is to be considered as a "Holy of Holies." In fact, the entire summit of this mountain is to be reserved for Immanuel.)

MEASUREMENTS OF THE ALTAR

13 And these are the measures of the Altar after the cubits: The cubit is a cubit and an hand breadth; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span: and this shall be the higher place of the Altar. (As stated at the beginning of this Chapter, Atonement is the eternal foundation of God's Relationship with man, of which the "Altar" is symbolic. Such symbolizes Calvary, and will forever serve as a reminder and a memorial of what Christ did in order that humanity be redeemed.)

14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit. (The "cubit" is approximately 18 inches long.)

15 So the Altar shall be four cubits; and from the Altar and upward shall be four horns.

16 And the Altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and his stairs shall look toward the east. (This Altar was 18 feet long and 18 feet wide. It is approximately 10½ feet high.)

ORDINANCES OF THE ALTAR

18 And He said unto me, Son of man, thus says the Lord GOD; These are the Ordinances of the Altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer Burnt Offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon. (The "Ordinances of the Altar," as given here, do not pertain to the regulations for the Sacrificial worship to be afterwards performed upon this Altar, for the rites to be observed at this time were for its consecration only. In other words, it was to be dedicated by a special ceremony before being brought into ordinary use. The same was done for the Tabernacle and Solomon's Temple [Ex. 29:1-46; Lev. 8:11-33; I Ki. 8:63-66; II Chron. 7:4-10].)

19 And you shall give to the Priests the Levites that be of the seed of Zadok, which approach unto Me, to minister unto Me, says the Lord GOD, a young bullock for a Sin Offering. (The "Priests" who would participate in this dedication and cleaning were to be "of the seed of Zadok," David's faithful High Priest. Hence, by the choosing of these "sons of Zadok," the Holy Spirit proclaims to us the value of faithfully adhering to the Will of God, instead of the will of man.)

20 And you shall take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shall you cleanse and purge it. (The "blood" formed an integral part of every expiatory offering. It was to be placed on the "four horns" of the Altar, which pointed in every direction, signifying that Redemption was the same the world over. It was also to be smeared on the "four corners of the settle," which formed a part of the base or foundation of the Altar. It also was to be smeared on the "border," with the implication being that the blood was smeared around the entire border. Thus was the "Altar" cleansed and purged.

Consequently, when Christ died on Calvary, His Blood, which stained the Cross and the Earth beneath it, purged and cleansed this most vile form of death.)

[21] You shall take the bullock also of the Sin Offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the House, without the Sanctuary. (The idea is: the skin and dung of the bullock should be burned without the camp [Ex. 29:14; Lev. 4:12, 21; 9:11, 15].)

[22] And on the second day you shall offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a Sin Offering; and they shall cleanse the Altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock. (The Reader must wonder as to the need for different animals, or another animal at all? Actually, there were five Levitical Offerings given in the Law of Moses, with all typifying what Christ would do at Calvary. In other words, it took five Offerings to wholly portray His One Sacrificial Offering on the Cross. They were: the Whole Burnt Offering, the Peace Offering, the Sin Offering, the Trespass Offering, and the Meat [Meal] Offering.)

[23] When you have made an end of cleansing it, you shall offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.

[24] And you shall offer them before the LORD, and the Priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a Burnt Offering unto the LORD. (A comparison here with Leviticus is instructive. There, the Burnt Offering preceded the Sin Offering; here, it follows. Then Faith praised in looking forward to the Sin Offering of Calvary; in the future day, Faith will praise looking back to Calvary. Thus, the great Sin Offering of the Lamb of God stands in the midst of the ages, and is preceded and followed by praise.

Actually, there will be no Day of Atonement in Millennial Worship; for the Sacrifices then will recall the One All-Sufficing Atonement perfected at Golgotha.

The "salt" placed on the Offerings typifies the fact that all of this is according to the Word of God.)

[25] Seven days shall you prepare every day a goat for a Sin Offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. (The perfection of the Atonement appears in the seven days of its action. "Seven," as God's Number, denotes perfection, completion, fulfillment, totality, and universality.)

[26] Seven days shall they purge the Altar and purify it; and they shall consecrate themselves. (Likewise, as this consecrated the Priests, it consecrates all who believe in the vicarious, atoning Offering of Christ at Calvary.)

[27] And when these days are expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the Priests shall make your Burnt Offerings upon the Altar, and your Peace Offerings; and I will accept you, says the Lord GOD. (As a result of Calvary, this House shall stand, whereas every other house has fallen. God can accept mankind only on the basis of the Sacrifice of Calvary, and our Faith in that Finished Work. By any way other than the Cross, acceptance is denied [Eph. 2:13-18].)

THE GATE OF THE PRINCE

[1] Then He brought me back the way of the Gate of the outward Sanctuary which looks toward the east; and it was shut. (Inasmuch as the Messiah has entered His Palace, the Inner Gate of the eastern entry shall be shut, thus giving a memorial of the fact, and an assurance that He never again will forsake His Temple.)

[2] Then said the LORD unto me; This Gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut. (Jehovah, the God of Israel, is the Messiah. The North and South Gates will be the principal entry points of worshippers day and night, who no doubt will come from all over the world, and continually.)

[3] It is for the prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by the way of the Porch of that Gate, and shall go out by the way of the same. (Exactly who this "Prince" is, is not known! However, he is probably the High Priest.)

[4] Then brought He me the way of the north Gate before the House: and I looked, and, behold, the Glory of the LORD filled the House of the LORD: and I fell upon my face. (The result of the "Glory of the Lord" filling the House was Ezekiel falling on his face. Thus, is man humbled!)

[5] And the LORD said unto me, Son of man, mark well, and behold with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I say unto you concerning all the Ordinances of the House of the LORD, and all the Laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the House, with every going forth of the Sanctuary. (The phrase, "Mark well," means "sit the heart upon." The heart, the eyes, and the ears are all to be engaged with Jehovah's House and its Ordinances, Laws, and Statutes. On entering God's Presence, it is of the utmost importance that the heart should be deeply affected; it also should be deeply exercised when going forth from the Divine Presence.)

6 And you shall say to the rebellious, even to the House of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD; O you House of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations (actually, the Lord takes the Prophet back to the original happenings at the North Gate, for this was the scene of the "abominations," which, at least in part, caused the original destruction of Judah and Jerusalem [8:5]. Consequently, a stern reminder and warning is given that the nations should now be preserved from lapsing into similar transgression. Thankfully, there will be no repeating by Israel of these "abominations"),

7 In that you have brought into My Sanctuary strangers, uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My Sanctuary, to pollute it, even My House, when you offer My Bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken My Covenant because of all your abominations. (Those who do not know the Lord profane a True Temple of Worship by professing to be what they are not.)

8 And you have not kept the charge of My Holy Things: but you have set keepers of My Charge in My Sanctuary for yourselves. (The implication is: in the Old Economy of God, the Levites, who were supposed to attend to the duties of the Temple, grew weary of this service, and engaged others, even Gentiles [uncircumcised in the flesh or heart], to discharge the services [Neh. 13:3-9].)

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRIESTS

9 Thus says the Lord GOD; No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into My Sanctuary, or any stranger who is among the Children of Israel. (It seems from this Verse that in the coming Kingdom Age that the Lord intends for Israel only to serve in the capacity of the Temple, and even certain ones in Israel, "the sons of Zadok," with the "Levites" in lesser positions. Israel is to be what the Lord intended for them to be at the very beginning, "a Kingdom of Priests" [Ex. 19:6].)

10 And the Levites who are gone away far from Me, when Israel went astray, which went astray from Me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity. (Due to the transgressions of the past, of which the Levites were some of the leaders, they now cannot take part in the sacred ministry of the Millennial Temple. However, they will be used, but in a lower type of service.)

11 Yet they shall be ministers in My Sanctuary, having charge at the Gates of the House, and ministering to the House: they shall slay the Burnt Offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them.

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the House of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lifted up My hand against them, says the Lord GOD, and they shall bear their iniquity. (The Levites, appointed to teach the Law, turned from that Holy Book and taught man's way of salvation. In this, they have many modern imitators.)

13 And they shall not come near unto Me, to do the office of a Priest unto Me, nor to come near to any of My Holy Things, in the Most Holy Place: but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. (The Levites will be confined to the Court of the Priests and not permitted to enter the Temple itself. Such will be their punishment all through the Millennial Age.)

14 But I will make them keepers of the charge of the House, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein. (Some may think it cruel that sentence be imposed on these Levites, who had nothing to do with the sins committed by their fathers many, many centuries in the past; however, the Lord is not holding them responsible personally, but only the Order of Levites itself! Actually, it is Grace fueled by Love that affords them even this privilege. As a Jew, to have the privilege to serve in the Sanctuary in any capacity, irrespective of how small it may seem to be, is a privilege indeed!)

15 But the Priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, who kept the charge of My Sanctuary when the Children of Israel went astray from Me, they shall come near to Me to minister unto Me, and they shall stand before Me to offer unto Me the fat and the blood, says the Lord GOD (those "sons of Zadok" who had remained true to the Southern Kingdom will have charge of the most holy services in the Millennial Temple)**:

16 They shall enter into My Sanctuary, and they shall come near to My Table, to minister unto Me, and they shall keep My Charge. (Once again, these are the sons of Zadok [I Ki. 2:35].)

17 And it shall come to pass, that when they enter it at the Gates of the Inner Court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, while they minister in the Gates of the Inner Court, and within. ("They shall be clothed with linen garments," suggests the Righteousness of Christ, of which they were symbols. "And no wool shall come upon them, while they minister," pertains to that which would cause sweat, symbolizing one's own efforts. Salvation is not of works; it is the Gift of God [Eph. 2:8-9].)

18 They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causes sweat. ("Linen bonnets upon their heads," implies that they are to understand, and understand fully, that their Righteousness is of Christ, and not of themselves. As well, the "linen breeches" symbolize the Truth that all that is done for Christ is due to His Righteousness freely imputed to us who believe, and not to our own abilities.)

19 And when they go forth into the Utter Court, even into the Utter Court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the Holy Chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall not sanctify the people with their garments. (Not sanctifying the people with their garments is meant to make a statement. Man is unholy, while Christ is Holy! As well, there is nothing that man can do within himself to obtain holiness, except freely admit that he is unholy, and then look exclusively to Christ and the Cross; upon Faith, Christ will then freely impute Holiness and Righteousness to such a Believer.)

[20] Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads. (Egyptian priests and Roman monks shaved the head and those of the Greek Church wore their hair long. God's Priests will follow neither fashion.)

[21] Neither shall any Priest drink wine, when they enter into the Inner Court. (The drinking of intoxicating beverages caused the deaths of Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron. They offered strange fire before the Lord [Lev. 10:1-2, 9].)

[22] Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her who is put away (divorced): but they shall take maidens of the seed of the House of Israel, or a widow who had a Priest before. (Consequently, celibacy is not advised or sanctioned, except in certain cases; hence, the celibacy of the Roman Catholic Priests has occasioned untold problems for the Catholic Church, in that it is unnatural and unscriptural!)

[23] And they shall teach My People the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean. (This has always been the duty of the God-called Preacher of the Gospel, whether as Priests under the Old Economy or Preachers under the New Covenant [II Tim. 4:1-2].)

[24] And in controversy they shall stand in Judgment; and they shall judge it according to My Judgments: and they shall keep My Laws and My Statutes in all My Assemblies; and they shall hallow My Sabbaths. (This simply means that everything is to be "judged" according to the Word of God.)

[25] And they shall come at no dead person to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister who has had no husband, they may defile themselves. (The Priests will not be allowed to touch any dead person, with the exception of very close relatives. Death is symbolic of the fruit of sin and, therefore, the prohibition [Rom. 6:23].)

[26] And after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him seven days. (Even in touching the dead body of a close relative, the Priest would have to go through a cleansing ceremony for seven days.)

[27] And in the day that he goes into the Sanctuary, unto the Inner Court, to minister in the Sanctuary, he shall offer his Sin Offering, says the Lord GOD. (Along with going through the seven days of ceremonial cleansing, such a Priest would also be required to offer up a "Sin Offering." This did not mean that he had personally sinned, but that in his required duties, which pertained to the touching of a dead body, such spoke of the awful effect of sin.)

[28] And it shall be unto them for an inheritance: I am their inheritance: and you shall give them no possession in Israel: I am their possession. (This Passage declares that during the Millennial Reign all Priests should have Jehovah as their possession, and not any territorial or tribal tract such as should be assigned to the other Tribes [Chpt. 48].)

[29] They shall eat the Meat Offering, and the Sin Offering, and the Trespass Offering; and every dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs. (All of their sustenance will come from the Temple and its many services.)

[30] And the first of all the firstfruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the Priest's: you shall also give unto the Priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the Blessing to rest in your House. (The firstfruits, probably one-tenth, of all the Tithes which will go to the Temple belong to the Priests. The phrase, "That he may cause the Blessing to rest in your House," implies that if the people do not obey, the Blessing will cease; this principle will automatically ensure obedience.)

[31] The Priests shall not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast. (The idea is: The animals brought for Sacrifice must not be animals that have died of natural causes or been killed by beasts, but instead the healthiest of the healthy. Calvary, of which all of this was a Type, will be shown to be the Divine Center of God's Purposes of Grace and Wrath.)

A PORTION OF THE LAND TO BE AN OBLATION TO THE LORD

[1] Moreover, when you shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, you shall offer an oblation unto the LORD, an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about. (Verses 1 through 8 portray the portions of land in Israel which are to be allotted to the Sanctuary, the City, and the Prince. The length of this Holy Oblation [area of land] is about 42 miles. The width is roughly 17 miles. "When you shall divide by lot the land for inheritance," probably means that it is the area already allotted by the Holy Spirit.)

[2] Of this there shall be for the Sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the suburbs thereof. (This is probably referring to the Outer Court, which is 750 feet square. This area includes not only the Outer Court, but the Inner Court, as well as the Temple and Altar area. All of it is looked at primarily as the "Sanctuary."

God's Love for man and His hatred of injustice appear in Him making His Dwelling-place among them, and in His Laws respecting land [Vs. 8], Courts of Justice, excessive taxation, evictions [Vs. 9], and commercial property [Vss. 10-12]. Thus, the poor and defenseless will be cared for by Him.)

[3] And of this measure shall you measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the Sanctuary and the Most Holy Place. (In this area, some 42 miles long and 17 miles wide, the "Sanctuary" and "Most Holy Place" will be situated.)

4 The holy portion of the land shall be for the Priests the ministers of the Sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the LORD: and it shall be a place for their houses, and an Holy Place for the Sanctuary. (This area will be occupied not only by the "Sanctuary," but also by the "houses" of the Priests.)

5 And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the House, have for themselves, for a possession for twenty Chambers. (The portion of the Levites, forty-two miles long and seventeen miles wide, will be the same as the portion of the Priests. All Priests were Levites, but all Levites were not Priests.)

6 And you shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole House of Israel. (This Passage represents a third tract of territory exclusively for Jerusalem itself. It is about forty-two miles long and about eight and a half miles wide, which constitutes a rather large city.)

THE PRINCE AND THE LAND

7 And a portion shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward: and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border. (From the description, it seems like the "portion for the Prince" will lie on both sides of the Holy Portion, or the portions of the Priests and the Levites. Even though the Scripture is not exactly clear as to the size of these "portions," still, some think it will be quite large, even about four miles square. This we do know: the Prince will be in charge of all the Millennial Worship [Vss. 16-17].)

8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel: and My Princes shall no more oppress My People; and the rest of the land shall they give to the House of Israel according to their Tribes. (This Scripture should read, "As touching the Land, this shall be his possession in Israel," i.e., the Prince shall have no Land other than these two portions.)

9 Thus says the Lord GOD; Let it suffice you, O Princes of Israel: remove violence and spoil, and execute Judgment and justice, take away your exactions from My People, says the Lord GOD. (The "Prince" is to set the example for the entirety of the world, which he will do under Christ. And for the first time, the entirety of the world will know fairness, honesty, and integrity in government.)

VARIOUS OTHER REGULATIONS: HONEST WEIGHTS

10 You shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.

11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer, and the ephah the tenth part of an homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer.

12 And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh. (The idea of these Passages is to portray a justice system which cannot be bought, bribed, or set aside. In other words, there will be no favoritism! The "ephah" and "bath" are the same, being about one bushel. A "homer" or a "cor" is about ten bushels. The "shekel," as it is here portrayed, would be worth about ten dollars in 2004 currency. However, it is very difficult to equate the purchasing power of Bible money with that of present times.)

13 This is the oblation that you shall offer; the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of wheat, and you shall give the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of barley:

14 Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, you shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is an homer of ten baths; for ten baths are an homer:

15 And one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Israel; for a Meat Offering, and for a Burnt Offering, and for Peace Offerings, to make reconciliation for them, says the Lord GOD. (The word "Oblation" means that which is offered as a Sacrifice or Gift to the Lord. The amounts here represented, or the equivalency in money, were to be given to the Sanctuary by all Israelites in order to support the rulers of Israel.)

SUMMARY OF MILLENNIAL AND ETERNAL WORSHIP

16 All the people of the land shall give this oblation for the Prince in Israel. (These Offerings will be incumbent upon all!)

17 And it shall be the Prince's part to give Burnt Offerings, and Meat Offerings, and Drink Offerings, in the Feasts, and in the new moons, and in the Sabbaths, in all solemnities of the House of Israel: he shall prepare the Sin Offering, and the Meat Offering, and the Burnt Offering, and the Peace Offerings, to make reconciliation for the House of Israel. (The phrase, "To make reconciliation for the House of Israel," refers to Atonement; however, it is to be ever understood that it is only symbolic, as Christ has already made Atonement, thereby, reconciling Israel and all the world to God by His Death at Calvary.)

OFFERINGS ON CERTAIN HOLY DAYS

18 Thus says the Lord GOD; In the first month, in the first day of the month, you shall take a young bullock without blemish, and cleanse the Sanctuary (the contrast between the legislation of Verses 18 through 25 and that of Leviticus emphasizes the difference between Mosaic and Millennial Worship; here the year begins with a demonstration of accomplished Redemption and the provision of a pure ground of worship; thus, shall Atonement be made for the house on the first day, and for the worshippers on the seventh day; the year will, therefore, begin with the memorial of a perfected Atonement for sin; in Leviticus the year closed with an Atonement pointing forward to a cleansing yet to be accomplished):

19 And the Priest shall take of the blood of the Sin Offering, and put it upon the posts of the House, and upon the four corners of the settle of the Altar, and upon the posts of the Gate of the Inner Court. (As the "young bullock" of Verse 18 typified Christ, Who died in the prime of His Manhood, this Verse typifies His shed Blood, on which the foundation of Salvation is based. Inasmuch as these Sacrifices will be carried on forever, and strictly as a memorial of what Christ did at Calvary, this should, by all means, portray to us the value placed here by the Lord on the Finished Work of Calvary.)

20 And so you shall do the seventh day of the month for every one who errs, and for him who is simple: so shall you reconcile the House. ("Every one who errs," refers to those who have drifted from the straight path through ignorance or foolishness. The "simple" pertains to the one who, for whatever reason, does not fully understand the ramifications of his actions.

These Passages portray to us the absolute abhorrence of sin by the Lord and, therefore, the absolute perfection demanded. Inasmuch as such is not possible even for redeemed man [not yet in the Glorified State], provision is here made.)

21 In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the Passover, a Feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. (The two Feasts of Passover and Tabernacles will be marked by sevenfold Offerings in contrast to the twofold ones of Leviticus. And this is because these Offerings will testify to the perfection of the cleansing for sin fulfilled at Calvary.

The character of worship in that future day and the sense of the sufficiency of Christ's Sacrifice of Himself as the Sin Offering and the Burnt Offering will be perfect. Thus, these two Feasts will celebrate the perfection and sufficiency of the Atoning Work of Christ. Together with the Feasts of the Sabbath and the New Moon, they testify to the fulfillment of God's Promises to Israel in bringing them into rest and making them to be a light to the Gentiles [Isa., Chpts. 60, 66].)

22 And upon that day shall the Prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bullock for a Sin Offering. (The "Passover," as conducted here, will continue forever, fulfilling [Ex. 12:14].)

23 And seven days of the Feast he shall prepare a Burnt Offering to the LORD, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a kid of the goats daily for a Sin Offering.

24 And he shall prepare a Meat Offering of an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and an hin of oil for an ephah. (The "Prince" will be in charge of the Sacrifices, which is the work of the High Priest.)

25 In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, shall he do the like in the Feast of the seven days, according to the Sin Offering, according to the Burnt Offering, and according to the Meat Offering, and according to the oil. (Whereas the Passover was celebrated in the first month, this Feast is celebrated in the seventh month, thereby representing the Feast of Tabernacles. As stated, these two Feasts, Passover and Tabernacles, will be celebrated forever.)

CHAPTER 46

SABBATH AND NEW MOON OFFERINGS; DUTIES OF THE PRINCE

[1] Thus says the Lord GOD; The Gate of the Inner Court that looks toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the Sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened. (This Chapter opens with "Thus says the Lord GOD," emphasizing the seriousness of these Commands inasmuch as obeying them guarantees the prosperity, both spiritually and economically, of the entirety of the world [Isa. 60:3].)

[2] And the Prince shall enter by the way of the Porch of that Gate without, and shall stand by the post of the Gate, and the Priests shall prepare his Burnt Offering and his Peace Offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the Gate: then he shall go forth; but the Gate shall not be shut until the evening. (The Prince will provide the Offerings and the Priests will present them. The Offerings of the Sabbath will number seven, denoting the Perfection of Christ, but there will be no wine. In Leviticus, they numbered four, and with wine.)

[3] Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this Gate before the LORD in the Sabbaths and in the new moons. (The reason the Prince has greater access, even unto the Porch, is because he is a Type of Christ. However, even he cannot go beyond the inner door. The "Sabbath" signifies the "rest" afforded only in Christ, which Israel will truly have in the coming Kingdom Age. The "New Moon" signifies the perpetuity of this "rest," guaranteeing its existence forever.)

[4] And the Burnt Offering that the Prince shall offer unto the LORD in the Sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish.

5 And the Meat Offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the Meat Offering for the lambs as he shall be able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah. (The Divine foundation being laid — the blood and the oil — the heart is given freedom to express its joy and its communion in the Meal Offering, i.e., fellowship with God in the enjoyment of Christ as the Bread that came down, and comes down, from Heaven, whereof if a man eat, he shall never die [Jn. 6:50-51].)

6 And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish.

7 And he shall prepare a Meat Offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according as his hand shall attain unto, and an hin of oil to an ephah. (The Offerings of the Feasts of the New Moon number nine without wine; this stands in contrast with the nineteen of Leviticus with wine.)

8 And when the Prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the Porch of that Gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof. (The "Prince" is the High Priest, and, as a Type of Christ, shall enter the Sanctuary by the way of the Eastern Gate.)

9 But when the people of the land shall come before the LORD in the solemn Feasts, he who enters in by the way of the north Gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south Gate; and he who enters by the way of the south Gate shall go forth by the way of the north Gate: he shall not return by the way of the Gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it. (The idea is, one must partake of all of Christ and not just part of Christ. To go all the way through, irrespective of what side one came in, signifies the partaking of all [Jn. 6:53].)

10 And the Prince in the midst of them, when they go in, shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth. (This Verse seems to imply that in such times of worship, the Prince will stand on a level with the people, and both enter and retire by the same door. This signifies Christ, Who became One with the people in the Incarnation. However, He did not become one with them in their sin; this is represented here by the "Prince" associating with the worship of the people only on a certain level, and at certain times.)

RULES GOVERNING OFFERINGS

11 And in the Feast and in the solemnities the Meat Offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah. (The amounts stipulated here differ from the Law of Moses in that they are increased [Num. 15:1-9]. Such typifies the fulfillment of the Promise, whereas the Law of Moses typified the Promise of the fulfillment.)

12 Now when the Prince shall prepare a voluntary Burnt Offering or Peace Offerings voluntarily unto the LORD, one shall then open him the Gate that looks toward the east, and he shall prepare his Burnt Offering and his Peace Offerings, as he did on the Sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the Gate. (As repeatedly stated, all the Offerings typify Christ, and will be done as a memorial of what He did at Calvary. Thus, this momentous occasion, which happened so long ago, will never lose its significance and meaning among the people, and will continue to portray the reason for our deliverance and blessing.)

13 You shall daily prepare a Burnt Offering unto the LORD of a lamb of the first year without blemish: you shall prepare it every morning.

14 And you shall prepare a Meat (Meal) Offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of an hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a Meat Offering continually by a perpetual ordinance unto the LORD.

15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the Meat Offering, and the oil, every morning for a continual Burnt Offering. (Under the Law of Moses, there was the Morning and Evening Sacrifice, but under perfected Righteousness, which characterizes the Millennium, there will be only the Morning Lamb; for to that Day there will be no evening.)

RULES CONCERNING INHERITANCES

16 Thus says the Lord GOD, If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance.

17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to the Year of Liberty; after it shall return to the Prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them. (Unlike gifts to his sons, which are forever, that given to servants will be theirs only until "the Year of Liberty," i.e., "Year of Jubilee," which comes every 50 years. At this time, the "Gift" will be returned to the Prince.)

18 Moreover the Prince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession: that My People be not scattered every man from his possession. (God's hatred of robbery, oppression, and injustice appears in the legislation of Verses 16 through 18; and His Loving Care for the physical needs of His Servants is shown in Verses 19 through 24.)

PLACE FOR PREPARING THE OFFERINGS

19 After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the Gate, into the Holy Chambers of the Priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the two sides westward.

20 Then said He unto me, This is the place where the Priests shall boil the Trespass Offering and the Sin Offering, where they shall bake the Meat Offering; that they bear them not out into the Utter Court, to sanctify the people. (There is a Ministry to God only, typified in this Verse, whereas there is a ministry to man, as is typified in Verse 24. In service for the Lord, this distinction must be observed; and the richer will be the ministry to man if that to God be given first place.

The idea of this Verse is: Such Offerings as specified here were for the Priests only, and thereby, typified their personal worship of the Lord. This also typified that even though they were God's Chosen, and even Priests, still, they were sinners and, therefore, desperately needing a Saviour.)

[21] Then He brought me forth into the Utter Court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the Court; and, behold, in every corner of the Court there was a Court. (This Verse signifies that in all four corners of the Outer Court these places were located in order that the Priests may prepare Sacrifices for themselves.)

[22] In the four corners of the Court there were Courts joined of forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four corners were of one measure.

[23] And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling places under the rows round about.

[24] Then said He unto me, These are the places of them who boil, where the Ministers of the House shall boil the sacrifice of the people. (The Sacrifices were to be prepared in a certain way, and these places were designated for that preparation.)

CHAPTER 47

THE RIVER FLOWING FROM THE TEMPLE

[1] Afterward He brought me again unto the Door of the House; and, behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the House eastward: for the forefront of the House stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the House, at the south side of the Altar. (The first twelve Verses portray the River of the Sanctuary, with the remainder portraying the Borders of the Land. "The Door of the House" speaks of the Sanctuary from which the waters will flow. As well, the "Door" is Christ [Jn. 14:6]. "And, behold, waters issued out," signifies the Holy Spirit, Who issues forth from Christ. It is not "water" but "waters." It literally issues from the "House," with its Source being the Throne of Jehovah [Jn. 7:37-39].

"From under the threshold of the House eastward," shows that the waters shall grow of themselves, and not, as in nature, by accession from side streams. The "threshold" speaks of the floor, and, in the Spiritual sense, denotes humility.

"At the south side of the Altar," denotes the channel, or course, of the River. It is the Altar of Jehovah, i.e., Calvary.)

[2] Then brought He me out of the way of the Gate northward, and led me about the way without unto the Utter Gate by the way that looks eastward; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side. ("Then brought He me out of the way of the Gate northward," simply means that the East Inner Gate was shut, and the East Outer Gate was shut as well; therefore, the Lord led him outside of the Inner and the Outer Courts by the North Gate.

There is a Spiritual meaning in this seemingly obscure Passage. Many hunger for the Lord, but do not know exactly how to receive Him. Admittedly, the course, although direct, is not reached in a direct way. However, all will receive who persist, because all are invited to come [Rev. 22:17].)

3 And when the Man Who had the line in His Hand went forth eastward, He measured a thousand cubits, and He brought me through the waters; the waters were to the ankles. (The "Man" is Christ! As the waters issue out from under the threshold of the Sanctuary, and as they flow eastward, the channel begins to widen. At this first stage, it is about 1,500 feet wide, and is still very shallow, only "to the ankles." The "ankles" represent the entrance into the River, thereby portraying Salvation.)

4 Again He measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again He measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins. ("Knees" signify prayer and a total dependence on the Lord, those things being done by the Power of the Holy Spirit instead of the flesh. So, the "knees" also portray the Baptism with the Holy Spirit [Acts 2:4].

The implication in these Passages is that the "Man with the line in His Hand" be followed, as that is what He intends!

The "loins" represent the procreative part of man, which points to the miracle-working Power of God, which should be prevalent with all Spirit-Baptized people.)

5 Afterward He measured a thousand; and it was a River that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a River that could not be passed over. (The stream has widened, until it is now "a River that could not be passed over." This "River" represents the last progression, with itself open-ended, which symbolizes the whole Gospel for the whole man. In a sense, the "River" is a physical type of the Holy Spirit, and His Work within our lives.)

6 And He said unto me, Son of man, have you seen this? Then He brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the River. (Christ will now turn the attention of Ezekiel from the "Course" of the River to the "Force" of the River. Therefore, in this scenario, one has the "Source," which is the Sanctuary, the "Course," which is by the Altar, and now the "Force," which will portray that which the River does.)

[7] Now when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the River were very many trees on the one side and on the other. ("Very many trees" signify "much fruit" [Jn. 15:5]. The "trees" grow on both sides of the River.)

[8] Then said He unto me, These waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea: which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed. (The idea of the River is to bring life to the "desert," as the Holy Spirit Alone through Christ can bring life to unregenerate man, who is dead in trespasses and sins. Literally, this speaks of the Dead Sea, which contains no life whatsoever. The "Dead Sea" will then be healed, symbolic of what the Lord can do through the Holy Spirit in a person's life [Jn. 7:37-39].)

[9] And it shall come to pass, that every thing that lives, which moves, whithersoever the Rivers shall come, shall live: and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the River comes. (The word "Rivers" signifies two great Rivers. As this River flows eastward out from the Sanctuary, it will then turn south toward the Dead Sea. At some point on the southern journey, it will split, with one side continuing on to the Dead Sea, with the other going to the Mediterranean [Zech. 14:8]. As a result, and by whatever means, whereas the Dead Sea formerly contained no life, now "there shall be a very great multitude of fish," signifying an abundance of life. Once again, this portrays what Christ can do in the heart and life of any individual.

"And every thing shall live whither the River comes," portrays the result of the Born-Again, Spirit-filled life.)

[10] And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand upon it from En-gedi even unto En-eglaim; they shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many. (This is speaking of the Dead Sea, which is no longer dead, but teeming with life. It speaks of many different kinds of fish, "exceeding many." This speaks of the harvest, in which the Holy Spirit has always engaged.)

11 But the miry places thereof and the marishes thereof shall not be healed; they shall be given to salt. (The reason these places aren't healed is because imperfection will continue to exist during the Millennium, for man will still be under trial. He will have freedom of choice. If he accepts the rule of the Messiah, he will enjoy the Blessings pictured in Verses 1 through 10 and Verse 12. But if he rejects that government, he, like Lot's wife, will be turned into salt, for Grace despised involves bitterness and death. [This speaks of natural people and not Glorified Saints.]

Millennium Blessing will be powerful and abiding. It will greatly surmount and almost efface evil, but not entirely. For only in the New Heaven and New Earth will there be perfection.)

12 And by the River upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all Trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the Sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine. (Now Ezekiel is shown the purpose of these miracle Trees which grow on either side of these Rivers. These "Trees" shall perpetually bring forth new fruit because they are nourished by waters issuing from the Sanctuary. The fruit will heal as well as nourish. Such is the character of a Life and Ministry based upon Calvary, and energized by the Holy Spirit.

In fact, the population of the world [which will include all, with the exception of the Glorified Saints] will continue to live perpetually by the means of the "fruit" and the "leaf" of these Trees. In other words, the aging process will be halted. [Glorified Saints will not need such.])

BORDERS OF THE LAND AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR DIVIDING IT

13 Thus says the Lord GOD; This shall be the border, whereby you shall inherit the land according to the twelve Tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions. (In Joshua, the Land was divided from south to north. In the coming day of Restoration, it will be apportioned from north to south. "Joseph shall have two portions," is because he personally received none, but instead it went to his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.)

[14] And you shall inherit it, one as well as another: concerning the which I lifted up My Hand to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance. ("And you shall inherit it, one as well as another," refers to each Tribe, irrespective of their size, receiving equal portions. The latter phrase proclaims the certitude of this action.)

[15] And this shall be the border of the land toward the north side, from the great sea, the way of Hethlon, as men go to Zedad;

[16] Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazar-hatticon, which is by the coast of Hauran.

[17] And the border from the sea shall be Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus, and the north northward, and the border of Hamath. And this is the north side. (The Northern Border of the Promised Land, at least in that day, will begin on the Mediterranean Sea and go to the other side of Damascus, which will take in all of modern Syria.)

[18] And the east side you shall measure from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the Land of Israel by Jordan, from the border unto the East Sea. And this is the east side. (The Eastern Border of the Promised Land in that day will take in all of modern Jordan, for "Gilead" is that area. The "East Sea" probably speaks of the Persian Gulf.)

[19] And the south side southward, from Tamar even to the waters of strife in Kadesh, the river to the great sea. And this is the south side southward. (The Southern Border will extend down into the Sinai, for this is where Kadesh is located. Actually, this does not include the whole South of the Promised Land; that will take in all the Arabian Peninsula, when Gen. 15:18-21 and Isa. 11:13-16 and 19:17-25 are fulfilled.

As well, the Eastern Border, as given in Verse 18, will extend to the Euphrates River, which means that at least a part of Iraq will be included.)

20 The west side also shall be the great sea from the border, till a man come over against Hamath. This is the west side. (The Western Border is easily defined: the Mediterranean Sea.)

21 So shall you divide this land unto you according to the Tribes of Israel.

22 And it shall come to pass, that you shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you, and to the strangers who sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you: and they shall be unto you as born in the country among the Children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the Tribes of Israel.

23 And it shall come to pass, that in what Tribe the stranger sojourns, there shall you give him his inheritance, says the Lord GOD. (The word "strangers" refers to Gentiles. Inheritance to the Gentiles was forbidden under Law; but, in the Millennium, it will be fully granted. Then will God's Original Purpose be effected — Israel will first be possessed, and then the greater territory promised to Abraham secured.)

CHAPTER 48

THE DIVISION OF THE LAND

[1] Now these are the names of the Tribes. From the north end to the coast of the way of Hethlon, as one goes to Hamath, Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus northward, to the coast of Hamath; for these are his sides east and west; a portion for Dan. ("A portion for Dan," portrays this Tribe mentioned first. As is obvious, it is the Holy Spirit Who draws off the "portions." None are decided by men, all by the Lord.)

[2] And by the border of Dan, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Asher.

[3] And by the border of Asher, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Naphtali.

[4] And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Manasseh.

[5] And by the border of Manasseh, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Ephraim.

[6] And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Reuben.

[7] And by the border of Reuben, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Judah. (Seven Tribes will have their possession north of the Oblation, and five Tribes, south of the Oblation, i.e., "Sacrifices.")

THE LAND FOR THE PRIESTS AND LEVITES

8 And by the border of Judah, from the east side unto the west side, shall be the Offering which you shall offer of five and twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the other parts, from the east side unto the west side: and the Sanctuary shall be in the midst of it. (This portion is approximately 42 miles long and 42 miles wide. It seems to be out of proportion compared to the allotment to the other Tribes. However, it is thought by some that quite possibly the portions concerning the Priests, Levites, and the City are included in this portion.

This much is clear: The totality of the Promised Land in the coming Kingdom Age will be approximately 100 times larger than it is presently.)

9 The oblation that you shall offer unto the LORD shall be of five and twenty thousand in length, and of ten thousand in breadth.

10 And for them, even for the Priests, shall be this holy oblation; toward the north five and twenty thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south five and twenty thousand in length: and the Sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the midst thereof. (As all the Tribes were proportioned around the Tabernacle in the wilderness [Num., Chpts. 1-3], they are likewise proportioned here, although not in the same order. And yet, as everything was in proportion to the Tabernacle then, everything is in proportion to the Sanctuary now!

The reason is simple, it is where the Lord dwells! This is the crowning Truth portrayed by the Holy Spirit in these directions and instructions.)

11 It shall be for the Priests who are sanctified of the sons of Zadok; which have kept My Charge, which went not astray when the Children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray.

12 And this oblation of the land that is offered shall be unto them a thing most holy by the border of the Levites. (The faithfulness of "Zadok" [I Ki. 1:8] is ever called to account, as faithfulness will ever be remembered!

The area in Verse 12 called "most holy" is the area of the "Sanctuary.")

13 And over against the border of the Priests the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand.

14 And they shall not sell of it, neither exchange, nor alienate the firstfruits of the land: for it is holy unto the LORD. (The portion here described is that reserved for the Levites, who will have a part in Sanctuary duties, but not the Sacrifices. That will be attended to solely by the "sons of Zadok." Their portion will be about 42 miles long and 17 miles wide. They will not be able to "sell, neither exchange, nor alienate" this portion. It is holy.

The "firstfruits" of the land, i.e., the first crop the land produces, is not to be sold, but instead given to the Lord as an offering. This typifies our inheritance in Christ!)

A PORTION FOR THE CITY FOR GENERAL USE

15 And the five thousand, that are left in the breadth over against the five and twenty thousand, shall be a profane place for the city, for dwelling, and for suburbs: and the city shall be in the midst thereof. (The term, "profane place," simply means that it is not dedicated to sacred use in the same sense as the Sanctuary. The area will be about 42 miles long and 8 miles wide.

"The city shall be in the midst thereof," concerns a city unlike any the world has ever seen or known. It will be a city totally free from crime, poverty, hunger, hate, war, greed, etc. Even though every other city in the world at that time will fall into the same category, still, none will have the Glory of God as this "city" [Isa. 62:2-3].)

16 And these shall be the measures thereof; the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. (These dimensions speak of the city proper, pertaining to business, etc. It will be about five miles square. The measurement is given for each side of the city in repetition in order that it may be known that this city is just as grand on one side as on the other.)

17 And the suburbs of the city shall be toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty. (There will be about a half mile laid out on each side of the city called "the suburbs," which will probably be left as a garden or park.)

18 And the residue in length over against the oblation of the holy portion shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward: and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion; and the increase thereof shall be for food unto them who serve the city.

19 And they who serve the city shall serve it out of all the Tribes of Israel. (These Scriptures portray the fact that two sections of land will be set aside, reserved for farming, on either side of the city. Each side will measure approximately 17 miles long and 8 miles wide. This will be ample land to support the city with food, plus the Sanctuary area. Inasmuch as the curse will be lifted, the abundance produced will be more than enough.

The phrase, "They who serve the city," will probably be representatives from all the Tribes of Israel; therefore, there will be no partiality shown, nor favoritism.)

20 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: you shall offer the holy oblation foursquare, with the possession of the city. (The entirety of the area, including city, suburbs, farming land, and the place of the Sanctuary, will measure about 42 miles long and 42 miles wide. It will be, as stated, "foursquare," thereby, signifying the totality of the Gospel of Jesus Christ as the whole Gospel for the whole man.

Of all the world, this area will be the most important on Earth, because Christ is there.)

A LAND FOR THE PRINCE

21 And the residue shall be for the Prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the city, over against the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward over against the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, over against the portions for the Prince: and it shall be the holy oblation; and the Sanctuary of the House shall be in the midst thereof. (The land East and West of the Holy Oblation will be for the Prince of Israel. This area on both sides is called "the residue." It seems these portions given to him will be about 8½ miles long and 8½ miles wide. They will be on the East and West corners, respectively. Therefore, he will have access to whatever he needs from either side.

Once again, the Holy Spirit by design repeats the phrase, "And the Sanctuary of the House shall be in the midst thereof." It is meant to impress upon the Believer that all Blessing flows from this Sanctuary and, therefore, from Christ.)

22 Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the Prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the Prince. (One portion for the Prince [High Priest] will border the Tribe of "Judah," while the other portion will border the Tribe of "Benjamin." These were the two Tribes that remained true to the Temple and the Worship of God when the nation of Israel was divided upon the death of Solomon. Therefore, their faithfulness is not forgotten, but will ever portray their allegiance to the Lord of Glory and His Word.)

PORTIONS FOR OTHER TRIBES

23 As for the rest of the Tribes, from the east side unto the west side, Benjamin shall have a portion.

24 And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side unto the west side, Simeon shall have a portion.

25 And by the border of Simeon, from the east side unto the west side, Issachar a portion.

26 And by the border of Issachar, from the east side unto the west side, Zebulun a portion.

27 And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side unto the west side, Gad a portion.

28 And by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar unto the waters of strife in Kadesh, and to the river toward the great sea.

29 This is the land which you shall divide by lot unto the Tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their portions, says the Lord GOD. ("Divide by lot," originally referred to the Urim and the Thummim, which were held by the High Priest and used to discern the Mind of God [Josh. 13:7; 15:1; 16:1; 17:1]. Therefore, the statement, as recorded here, simply means that each possession and its boundaries have been decided by the Holy Spirit.

The phrase, "These are their portions, says the Lord GOD," proclaims the fact that the portions will never again be changed or taken by an enemy.)

THE CITY OF JERUSALEM TO BE FOURSQUARE, PATTERNED AFTER THE HEAVENLY JERUSALEM

30 And these are the goings out of the city on the north side, four thousand and five hundred measures. (This final portion is dedicated to the gates, dimensions, and name of the city. "And these are the goings out of the city," refers to the walls around the city and its measurement, which will be about 7½ miles on each side.)

31 And the Gates of the city shall be after the names of the Tribes of Israel: three Gates northward; one Gate of Reuben, one Gate of Judah, one Gate of Levi. (This city will be foursquare, with three Gates to each side, totaling twelve Gates; the "names of the Tribes of Israel" will be on the twelve Gates.)

32 And at the east side four thousand and five hundred: and three Gates; and one Gate of Joseph, one Gate of Benjamin, one Gate of Dan.

33 And at the south side four thousand and five hundred measures: and three Gates; one Gate of Simeon, one Gate of Issachar, one Gate of Zebulun.

34 At the west side four thousand and five hundred, with their three Gates; one Gate of Gad, one Gate of Asher, one Gate of Naphtali.

35 It was round about eighteen thousand measures: and the name of the city from that day shall be, The LORD is there. (The city will be about 30 miles in circumference at its perimeter. Even though this Glorious Name, "The LORD is there," is given here, this is only one of a number of new names for the Earthly Jerusalem.

The phrase, "The LORD is there," means in Hebrew, "Adonai-Shammah" or "Jehovah-Shammah," meaning literally what it says. For the Messiah will be there reigning visibly and eternally in Israel [Isa. 9:6-7; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 20:4-10].)

Daniel

Chapters

1 — 2 — 3 — 4 — 5 — 6 — 7 — 8 — 9 — 10 — 11 — 12

CHAPTER 1

THE FIRST DEPORTATION TO BABYLON

1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it. ("In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim," seems to be a contradiction in that Jeremiah records this siege of Jerusalem as occurring in the fourth year of king Jehoiakim [Jer. 24:1]. However, in this there is no discrepancy, for Daniel points to the setting out of the Babylonian Monarch toward Jerusalem, while Jeremiah relates his arrival the following year.)

2 And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the Vessels of the House of God: which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; and he brought the Vessels into the treasure house of his god. ("And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand," refers to the Lord being totally the Disposer of events. "With part of the Vessels of the House of God," tells us of the plunder of a part of the Temple. Exactly which Vessels were plundered is not stated.

Nebuchadnezzar's placing of these Vessels in the "house of his god" proclaims the fact that the heathen Monarch erroneously thought his god Nebo was greater than Jehovah of Israel.)

DANIEL AND HIS FRIENDS CHOSEN FOR THE KING'S SERVICE

3 And the king spoke unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the Children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes (the boys chosen belonged to the royal family and, therefore, to nobility; they were most probably in their teens. Daniel and the three Hebrew children were included. The word "eunuchs" has as its primary meaning "court officer." In some cases, these individuals were castrated; however, this does not seem to be the case with Daniel and his companions, for they were "without blemish");

4 Children in whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans. ("The tongue of the Chaldeans," probably referred to the learning of the Aramaic language and the cuneiform style of writing employed by ancient Babylon.)

5 And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king. (The "three year" period had to do with their education and their physical well-being. The type of "wine" used here had to do with the gods worshipped by Nebuchadnezzar. In fact, it was wine which had been offered to idols. The thinking of the Babylonians was that the drinking of this particular "wine" would enhance the intelligence of Daniel and the others.)

6 Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah (no doubt, there were many, possibly hundreds, who were set apart, groomed to serve as wise men of the Babylonian Empire. Daniel and the Hebrew children were only "among these"):

THEIR NAMES CHANGED

7 Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: for he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego. (By giving these men new names, Nebuchadnezzar was trying to blot out the name and memory of Jehovah, the God of the Hebrews.)

DANIEL'S PURPOSE

8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. ("But Daniel purposed in his heart," means that he was resolutely determined, whatever the price that would have to be paid. In other words, he stood ready to give up his life before he would disobey the Lord, if that's what was demanded.)

[9] Now God had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs. (Men rule, but God overrules!)

[10] And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your meat and your drink; for why should he see your faces worse liking than the children which are of your sort? then shall you make me endanger my head to the king. (What Daniel was demanding was a very serious thing. To not partake of the "meat" and "wine" was an insult to the king. However, the Lord would give Daniel wisdom as to the disposition of this problem.)

[11] Then said Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah ("Melzar" was the steward, or butler, who had charge of the king's meat and wine; he answered to the "prince of the eunuchs")**,

THE TEN-DAY TEST

[12] Prove your servants, I beseech you, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink. (Daniel proposed a test of "ten days" during which they would be given only vegetables to eat and water to drink. This didn't mean that Daniel and the others were vegetarians, but rather that the meat provided by the Babylonians was unlawful to eat because of being unclean, or else it was not properly prepared!)

[13] Then let our countenances be looked upon before you, and the countenance of the children who eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as you see, deal with your servants.

[14] So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

(Evidently, the Lord told Daniel to do this. The Lord also helped Daniel, because otherwise ten days would not be enough time to show much either way.)

15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

16 Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse. (It is evident that the Lord took a hand in the proceedings.)

GOD'S BLESSINGS; THEIR SUPERIORITY TO OTHERS

17 As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. ("God gave," refers to the proclamation by the Holy Spirit that the three years of their training in all the sciences and arts of Babylonian learning did them no good whatsoever. It was the Lord Who gave them what they needed.)

18 Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. (When these young men stood before Nebuchadnezzar, the ruler of the world, little did the Monarch realize how prominently four of them, and especially Daniel, would figure in the remainder of his life.)

19 And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king. (The king found "these four children" were far superior to all others.)

20 And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king enquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers who were in all his realm. (This is astounding, considering that these four were still only boys, probably still in their teen years, or in their early twenties at the most.)

21 And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus. (The word "continued" means that he continued in office until the first year of King Cyrus. He actually lived two or three years longer. He witnessed the commencement and the ending of the seventy-year captivity.)

NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S DREAM; HIS WISE MEN CALLED

1 And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep broke from him. (The "second year" of this Verse concerns his reign as sole king. Actually, he had reigned as co-regent with his father for several years, in which some or all of the three-year time period took place. The "dream" which "troubled" him was sent by the Lord.)

2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to show the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king. (The king's action in consulting priests and mediums is one of the many proofs of the accuracy of this history, for in their difficulties unconverted men seek help in every direction other than from the Lord.)

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S DEMAND

4 Then spoke the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack, O king, live for ever: tell your servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation. (Had the dream been told unto them, the "interpretation" they would have given would have been something made up out of their own minds, and would not have been the true interpretation.)

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if you will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, you shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill. (The Lord directed this scenario that Nebuchadnezzar couldn't even remember his dream, much less its meaning.)

6 But if you show the dream, and the interpretation thereof, you shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: therefore sh ow me the dream, and the interpretation thereof. (As Nebuchadnezzar had threatened these magicians and astrologers with death upon their lack of ability, now he promises them great riches if they will but only live up to their advertisement.)

7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that you would gain the time, because you see the thing is gone from me. (Their answer to him has the very opposite effect than they had hoped.)

9 But if you will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you: for you have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can show me the interpretation thereof. (The king now knows that their silence was due to their inability to answer.)

INABILITY OF THE WISE MEN

10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth who can show the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, who asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean. (They were wrong! There was at least one man who could, but only because he knew the Lord. His name was Daniel.)

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requires, and there is none other who can show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh. (The king was wrong in using the word "gods." There were no "gods," only One God, Jehovah. The king would soon learn about Jehovah!)

NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S DECREE

12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. (The idea is: he had lost faith, at least to some degree, in his gods, Nebo and Bel, whom his wise men represented.)

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

DANIEL'S OFFER TO INTERPRET THE DREAM AND HIS PRAYER FOR HELP

14 Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. (This proclaims "Arioch," who is spoken of favorably by the Holy Spirit, seeking to find a way out of this dilemma.)

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would show the king the interpretation. ("And that he would show the king the interpretation," shows an assurance on Daniel's part that the Lord would reveal such to him. God's Plan was being brought about exactly as designed by the Holy Spirit!)

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions:

18 That they would desire mercies of the God of Heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. (They called a prayer meeting!)

THE DREAM REVEALED TO DANIEL

19 Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of Heaven. (This Passage means that the same dream that was given to Nebuchadnezzar was now given to Daniel, and no doubt that very night.)

20 Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the Name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are His (in this and the following Passages, we are given an account of the total and absolute rulership and control by the Lord of all His Creation)**:

21 And He changes the times and the seasons: He removes kings, and sets up kings: He gives wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them who know understanding ("He changes the times and the seasons," has reference to the successive Empires, as allowed by the Lord and seen by Daniel in the vision of the night)**:

22 He reveals the deep and secret things: He knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with him. (God is not only the God of nature, of providence, and of man, but also of Revelation. He can make known to man what otherwise man could never know. He is the very Source of all light and enlightenment [I Tim. 6:16].)

23 I thank You, and praise You, O Thou God of my fathers, Who has given me wisdom and might, and has made known unto me now what we desired of You: for You have now made known unto us the king's matter. (Daniel now particularizes his reasons for praise and thanksgiving. He addresses God as the God of his fathers. He appeals to Him as the Covenant God of Israel, Who had led their fathers through the wilderness.)

DANIEL BEFORE NEBUCHADNEZZAR; GLORIFIES GOD; TELLS THE KING THE DREAM

24 Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will show unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the captives of Judah, who will make known unto the king the interpretation. (How much that Daniel had revealed unto Arioch, if anything, we aren't told.)

26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Are you able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king has demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, sh ow unto the king (there is a shade of rebuke to the king implied in Daniel's answer. He asks this question, no doubt, at the instigation of the Holy Spirit)**;

28 But there is a God in Heaven Who reveals secrets, and makes known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head upon your bed, are these ("What shall be in the latter days," is revealing indeed! Those who claim that Daniel's Prophecies have no reference to the last days, but instead were fulfilled at the time of Christ, evidently have not read this Verse)**;

29 As for you, O king, your thoughts came into your mind upon your bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and He Who reveals secrets makes known to you what shall come to pass. (The idea of Daniel's statement is to let the king know that this dream and its interpretation is of tremendous import, hence, the reason for the king being so troubled as to know what it was and its meaning.)

30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes who shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that you might know the thoughts of your heart. (Daniel gave all glory to the Lord! As well, in all of this the Lord took pity on these heathen sages! Such is God, and such is His Mercy!

"And that you might know the thoughts of your heart," presents the beginning of the appeal of the Holy Spirit to this heathen Monarch, which quite possibly ultimately resulted in his Salvation.)

31 You, O king, saw, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before you; and the form thereof was terrible. (The two words, "excellent" and "terrible," both characterize the history of Gentile powers from the days of Nebuchadnezzar and continuing on to the coming of Christ with His Saints. Excellent and terrible things often exist side by side. When Christ sets up His Millennial Kingdom, only that which is excellent will exist.

The "great image" would portray all the World Empires for the future, at least as they related to Israel.)

32 This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass,

33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay. (The Holy Spirit outlines the successive kingdoms by a representation of precious metals, iron, and clay.)

34 You saw till that a Stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and broke them to pieces. (The "Stone" is the Lord Jesus Christ, and symbolizes His Second Coming. "Without hands," is an expression emphasizing the absence of all human instrumentality and the act of God alone. This destroys the popular belief that Christianity will take over the world, with the Gospel gradually conquering all of mankind.

Actually, Bible Christianity ultimately will cover the entirety of the Earth, but only after the Second Coming, even as this Verse proclaims.)

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the Stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole Earth. (This portrays the Second Coming of the Lord and the destruction of all Gentile powers, meaning that never again will Gentile power hold sway, for that time is forever ended.

After the Second Coming, Christ will set up His Kingdom of Righteousness, with Israel then being the predominant nation in the world, and remaining that way forever. Hence, the promises made to the Patriarchs and Prophets of old will be fulfilled in totality.)

THE INTERPRETATION: HEAD OF GOLD IS BABYLON

36 This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

37 You, O king, are a king of kings: for the God of Heaven has given you a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory. (This confirms the statement of Daniel in Verse 21, "He removes kings, and sets up kings.")

38 And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven has He given into your hand, and has made you ruler over them all. You are this head of gold. ("This head of gold" represented the Babylonian Empire, which was the grandest of all, at least as far as splendor and glory were concerned.)

BREAST AND ARMS OF SILVER: MEDO-PERSIA; BELLY AND THIGHS OF BRASS: GRECIA

39 And after you shall arise another kingdom inferior to you, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the Earth. (The first kingdom [after Babylon] is the "Medo-Persian Empire," which would replace the Babylonian Empire, and which would come up in a few years. It would be "inferior" only in grandness and glory, not in strength. The "third kingdom" mentioned here is the Grecian Empire, which will proclaim the rise of Alexander the Great. It would come about in a little over two hundred years from this time.)

LEGS OF IRON: ROME

40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaks in pieces and subdues all things: and as iron that breaks all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise. (This "fourth kingdom" is the Roman Empire, and is represented by the "legs of iron." It would be the strongest of all!)

FEET OF IRON AND CLAY: REVISED ROMAN EMPIRE

41 And whereas you saw the feet and toes, part of the potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as you saw the iron mixed with miry clay. (All that we have previously studied represents Empires that have come and gone; however, the "feet" and "toes" of this statue of iron and clay represent that which is yet to come.)

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. (This Verse represents the ten-nation confederation, with the "toes of the feet" symbolic of this confederation, which will greatly oppose Israel in the very near future.)

43 And whereas you saw iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay. (Their confederation will not succeed, because of the "miry clay," which expresses that some of the kingdoms are weak. As stated, this will take place in the near future.)

THE STONE: THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN ON EARTH UNDER THE MESSIAH

44 And in the days of these kings shall the God of Heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. (This Verse is basically the same as Verses 34 and 35. It portrays the Coming of the Lord and the Millennial Kingdom, which He will bring about.)

45 Forasmuch as you saw that the Stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold, the Great God has made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure. (Inasmuch as the king has seen all of this in his dream, he consequently now has no excuse to continue worshipping his dead idols; he should rather worship the "Great God" Who "has made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter.")

DANIEL PROMOTED

46 Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him. (There is no indication that Daniel accepted this worship.)

47 The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing you could reveal this secret. (The word "answered" supports the conviction that Daniel refused Divine honors and directed the king away from himself to God. In his statement, Nebuchadnezzar concedes that Jehovah is the greatest, at least as it regards the "revealing of secrets.")

48 Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon. (Therefore, next to the king, Daniel was the most powerful man in the world. He was also looked at as the wisest man in the world, and rightly so!)

49 Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel sat in the gate of the king. ("But Daniel sat in the gate of the king," means he was appointed Prime Minister, the most powerful position in the world of that day other than the king himself. The "gate" means "the door" to the king.)

THE IMAGE OF GOLD AND THE COMMAND TO WORSHIP IT

[1] Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. (According to the Septuagint, Nebuchadnezzar built the image of gold in the 18th year of his reign, about a year before he burned Jerusalem [586 B.C.]. Daniel and his friends had been in Babylon now for nearly 20 years. The erection of this image was approximately 15 years after the events of the dream and its interpretation. This illustrates the darkness and incurable rebellion of the natural heart. It proves that, apart from a new Spiritual Birth, no circumstances, however powerful, can teach man to know and worship God.)

[2] Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasure rs, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

[3] Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. (There is some indication that this group of notables also included all of the conquered nations. However, it is only an indication and by no means certain from the original text.)

[4] Then an herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages,

[5] That at what time you hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of music, you fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has set up:

6 And whoso falls not down and worships shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. (Satan not only demands worship, and in many and varied ways, but also attaches a penalty to all those who will not obey. Actually, only a tiny few refuse to obey!)

7 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. (This Passage indicates that all of the leaders from the conquered nations from all over the Babylonian Empire were brought in.)

SHADRACH, MESHACH, AND ABED-NEGO ON TRIAL FOR DISOBEDIENCE

8 Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and accused the Jews. ("Accused the Jews," was pointed more particularly at "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego," but actually pertained to all Jews.)

9 They spoke and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, O king, live for ever.

10 You, O king, have made a decree, that every man who shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image:

11 And whoso falls not down and worships, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

12 There are certain Jews whom you have set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, have not regarded you: they serve not your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up. (Upon reading this narrative, one may think that these proceedings only related to the swollen ego of this Monarch. While this no doubt strongly entered into the proceedings, still, this entire scenario pertained to the supremacy of Babylon and the worship of its gods.)

[13] Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king. (Quite possibly, along with their disobedience, the jealousy of the Babylonian officials showed itself regarding these "certain Jews." These, under Daniel, had been elevated to high positions of power in the Empire; therefore, with great joy, the accusers will point a finger of accusation at "these men," as they are called, demanding that Nebuchadnezzar take steps.)

[14] Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said unto them, Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, do not you serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? (The question, "Is it true?" concerning their refusal to bow, is actually asked of every single person in one form or the other. The answer has no middle ground; it is either an unequivocal "yes" or "no"!)

[15] Now if you be ready that at what time you hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, you fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if you worship not, you shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that God Who shall deliver you out of my hands? (The king was to quickly find out as to Who exactly "that God" was!)

[16] Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer you in this matter. ("We are not careful to answer you in this matter," is somewhat clumsy in the English translation. It actually means that it is not something they have to think about or give careful consideration to, as the matter is not open to discussion. It is a decision they made a long time ago, and the consequences are of no concern.)

[17] If it be so, our God Whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and He will deliver us out of your hand, O king.

(At this stage, they have no assurance that they will be delivered, only that the Lord is able to deliver.)

18 But if not, be it known unto you, O king, that we will not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up. (The words, "but if not," do not show a lack of Faith, but only that they are not functioning in the realm of presumption, as do so many Believers.)

NEBUCHADNEZZAR SENTENCES THEM TO THE FIERY FURNACE

19 Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated. (To express his wrath and to appease the gods, he will order the furnace to be heated sevenfold hotter. The Babylonians recognized seven planets and seven gods of the planets, one for each. Therefore, the number "seven" may have been used to appease these "gods.")

20 And he commanded the most mighty men who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. (These "mighty men" were no doubt chosen for a particular reason. The king might be ready to admit that no accumulation of human power could equal Divine Power, yet it is obvious that these men of might were chosen for the purpose that, despite Divine Power [at least if such should manifest itself], the royal sentence might still be carried out.)

21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their hosen, and their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. (This was, no doubt, done because the king thought that these items of clothing, being of flammable material, would hasten their deaths. Conversely, it did the very opposite, proving the miracle-working Power of God.)

22 Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men who took up

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. (The furnace was so hot that the "mighty men" employed by Nebuchadnezzar were killed by the excruciating heat.)

GOD'S SUPERNATURAL DELIVERANCE; THE KING AMAZED

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonied, and rose up in haste, and spoke, and said unto his counselors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king. (The word "astonied" means "terrified." What the king saw terrified him!)

25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God. (The original language reads: "a son of God.")

26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spoke, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, you servants of the Most High God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth of the midst of the fire. (The constant repetition of the names, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego," is not due to poor sentence structure on the part of the Holy Spirit, but is instead by design. The Holy Spirit desires the world to know that it was the same three men who went into the fire who also came out of the fire.)

27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counselors, being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them. (The Babylonian god of fire was "Iz-bar." Consequently, this event was all the more important to the Babylonians. The God of Israel was thus manifested as so much higher than this "Iz-bar," inasmuch that He could deliver His Servants even when in the very element in which "Iz-bar" supposedly had his power.)

28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spoke, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, Who has sent His Angel, and delivered His Servants who trusted in Him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. (There is no evidence, even regarding the statements made by the Monarch, that he accepted the Lord at this time. Actually, all evidence is that he did not! This would come at a later date. But still, before all he acknowledges the supremacy of Jehovah in comparison to his national deities.)

NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S DECREE

29 Therefore I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill: because there is no other god who can deliver after this sort. (The idea expressed in this Verse is that words spoken against Jehovah might excite His Wrath and bring down damage on the Empire. Therefore, Nebuchadnezzar was not necessarily jealous for the honor of Jehovah, but rather for the safety of the Babylonian supremacy. In this, he at least had more sense than most modern political leaders.)

30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon. (A few minutes before, the king was commanding their deaths, and now he is commanding their promotion. Such is the Lord!)

CHAPTER 4

THE KING'S PROCLAMATION

[1] Nebuchadnezzar the king, unto all people, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the Earth; Peace be multiplied unto you. (The salutation is actually the benediction. The king begins this account of a terrible seven-year period of insanity by giving Glory to God. He begins after the fact, showing that all was unnecessary and was brought on by his pride and stubbornness before God. He now recognizes that and begins the Chapter by praising the Lord, which shows Repentance on his part.

The phrase, "In all the Earth," must be understood as all the Earth under Nebuchadnezzar — not elsewhere.)

[2] I thought it good to show the Signs and Wonders that the High God has wrought toward me.

[3] How great are His Signs! And how mighty are His Wonders! His Kingdom is an Everlasting Kingdom, and His Dominion is from generation to generation. ("The Signs and Wonders that the High God has wrought toward me," is all because of Daniel and the three Hebrew Children. How fortunate was this king to have had such in his Empire, and, above that, that he had the foresight to recognize it, and ultimately to be blessed.)

NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S VISION OF A TREE

[4] I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace:

[5] I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. (Now the king will begin to give his account of what happened to him, which brought him to the place evidenced in Verses 1 through 3. This was the 18th year of his reign, which would have been about 15 years after the dream of the image and the interpretation. It was about a year before the capture of Jerusalem, which, according to Jer. 52:12, happened in the 19th year of Nebuchadnezzar. Therefore, he burned Jerusalem almost immediately before his insanity.)

6 Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.

7 Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof. (Quite possibly, they gave him some type of "interpretation" which he knew in his spirit was wrong. Therefore, he sent for Daniel.)

8 But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and before him I told the dream, saying ("Whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god," reflects him still leaning toward these fake Babylonian deities. The great miracle he had seen years before, regarding the Revelation of the dream and the interpretation, and the recent miracle of the fiery furnace were tremendously impressive and gave the king serious pause; but they did not involve him personally, at least in a negative way, and consequently, they did not bring him to surrender.

The phrase, "And in whom is the spirit of the holy gods," portrays him putting the God of Daniel in a superior position, but still clinging to the old gods),

9 O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof. (The manner in which Nebuchadnezzar referred to Daniel did not mean that he was a part of the magicians, etc., but rather that he was recognized as having more wisdom than all the so-called wise men of the Babylonian Empire.)

[10] Thus were the visions of my head in my bed; I saw, and behold a tree in the midst of the Earth, and the height thereof was great. (Actually, the Assyrians, whom the Babylonians had defeated, had a sacred tree, the symbol of life, which was perpetually introduced into the sculptures of Nineveh, and seen also in some Babylonian cylinders, especially in connection with royal acts of worship.)

[11] The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the Earth:

[12] The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it. (As this tree is symbolic of the Babylonian Empire, its description is apt. From the Persian Gulf to the Mediterranean Sea, it stretched, in all probability, from the Cataracts of the Nile into Asia Minor.)

[13] I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a Watcher and an Holy One came down from Heaven *(the word "Watcher" occurs only in this Chapter in the Bible; however, it is used a score of times in the Book of Enoch, which was supposed to have been written about 130 B.C. That Book, as is obvious, is not included in the Canon of Scripture);

[14] He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches *(the "Watcher" gives instructions as to what is to be done with the tree):

[15] Nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the Earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the Earth (the "tree" is not to be destroyed, but only cut down; it will, therefore, sprout again. Actually, the "band of iron and brass" symbolizes the mental darkness Nebuchadnezzar will be under, with him bound, at least to some extent, with fetters):

16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven times pass over him. (This Verse leaves absolutely no doubt that the Holy Spirit is speaking here of a man. "Seven times" represents seven years.)

17 This matter is by the decree of the Watchers, and the demand by the word of the Holy Ones: to the intent that the living may know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomsoever He will, and sets up over it the basest of men. (In other words, in one way or the other, God controls all!)

18 This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now you, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but you are able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in you. (This would be totally unlike the dream of years before, when Daniel exclaimed to him, "You are this head of gold" [2:38]. Now this "head of gold" will be reduced to a "stump.")

DANIEL INTERPRETS THE KING'S DREAM

19 Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonied for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spoke, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble you. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them who hate you, and the interpretation thereof to your enemies. (When Daniel heard the king's dream, the interpretation which the Lord gave to him literally terrified him, even so much that his countenance was changed.)

20 The tree that you saw, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the Earth;

21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

[22] It is you, O king, who are grown and become strong: for your greatness is grown, and reaches unto heaven, and your dominion to the end of the Earth. (These statements proclaim the fact that the Monarch's dominion was vast, but it had been given to him by the Lord. This he did not recognize, and hence the Judgment that came upon him!)

[23] And whereas the king saw a Watcher and an Holy One coming down from Heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the Earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him ("Hew the tree down, and destroy it," refers to Nebuchadnezzar being cut down from his place of position and authority by the reason of insanity. "Yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the Earth," refers to his life being spared, with a restoration intended for the future. The phrase, "And let it be wet with the dew of heaven," refers to the type of insanity, which caused him to seek habitation in the open as an animal. Some think his form of insanity was a disease known as "lycanthropy," in which a man imagines himself to be some form of animal)**;

[24] This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of The Most High, which is come upon my lord the king ("The Most High," is an appellative denoting supremacy of supremacy. This is the One Who has the final say! This is the One Who everyone will answer to ultimately!)**:

[25] That they shall drive you from men, and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make you to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet you with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over you, till you know that The Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomsoever He will. (Despite all that Nebuchadnezzar had seen, still, pride and ego were the culprits of his rebellion against God. He considered himself to be the master of his own fate and the ruler of his own kingdom. He would not recognize that he had been placed in this position by "The Most High," but gave himself credit, making himself a god. However, the Lord loved him enough to resort to drastic measures in order to bring him to his senses.)

[26] And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; your kingdom shall be sure unto you, after that you shall have known that the heavens do rule. (Once again, the Holy Spirit repeats the cause and reason for this Act of God: "After that you shall have known that the heavens do rule.")

ADVICE GIVEN TO THE KING; THE ADVICE REJECTED

[27] Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto you, and break off your sins by righteousness, and your iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of your tranquility. (An offer of Repentance is extended, which, if accepted, will negate this Judgment. Regrettably, it was not accepted.)

[28] All this came upon the King Nebuchad nezzar. (It came upon him, because he rejected the Word of the Lord. He was given twelve months respite in order that he may repent, but to no avail!)

[29] At the end of the twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon. ("He walked in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon," denotes a prideful attitude, filled with pomp, majesty, a sense of well-being and, in his case, the master of the world, or so he thought! He was his own man, captain of his own fate and, therefore, subservient to none! Was not this "palace" and the city itself proof of such?)

[30] The king spoke, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty? (He now gives his answer to the appeal of the Holy Spirit. It will be a pompous answer, as is most of the world. To be sure, as he was called to account, all will ultimately be called to account.)

THE DREAM FULFILLED

31 While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a Voice from Heaven, saying, O King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from you. ("The kingdom is departed from you," is a stupefying statement indeed! All this which he claimed for his own and made by his own hand instead would be proved otherwise. It could be said, concerning the Bible and all its warnings and pleadings to the whole of humanity, "to you it is spoken!")

32 And they shall drive you from men, and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make you to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over you, until you know that The Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomsoever He will. (The actual stipulation of the Judgment is repeated here almost identically with the original verdict of Verse 25, no doubt because the king, during the twelve-month period of respite, had discounted this dire prediction, thinking that such a strange thing could never come to pass.)

33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws. ("The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar," means that his mind snapped almost immediately after the Voice was heard from Heaven.)

NEBUCHADNEZZAR RESTORED; PRAISES GOD

34 And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up my eyes unto Heaven, and my understanding returned unto me, and I blessed The Most High, and I praised and honoured Him Who lives for ever, Whose Dominion is an Everlasting Dominion, and His Kingdom is from generation to generation (exactly as the Holy Spirit through Daniel had stated, upon the completion of the "seven years," his sanity returned as quickly as it had left. The phrase, "I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up my eyes unto Heaven," signifies that, upon his return to sanity, he repented and gave Glory to God)**:

35 And all the inhabitants of the Earth are reputed as nothing: and He does according to His Will in the army of Heaven, and among the inhabitants of the Earth: and none can stay His Hand, or say unto Him, What doest You? ("And all the inhabitants of the Earth are reputed as nothing," has reference to Nebuchadnezzar and all who would think their place or position signifies their importance. The idea is: no man has ever reigned quite as did Nebuchadnezzar; consequently, no man has ever been brought lower than Nebuchadnezzar, portraying the supremacy of Jehovah.)

36 At the same time my reason returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counselors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto me. (As the kingdom was taken away, it is now restored. Actually, one of the Functions of the Holy Spirit is Restoration.)

37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of Heaven, all Whose Works are Truth, and His Ways Judgment: and those who walk in pride He is able to abase. (The Verse begins with the word "Now." It is after he has been humbled, chastened, and restored. Before his insanity, he did not "praise and extol and honor the King of Heaven" at all! "Now" that is all he does!)

BELSHAZZAR'S FEAST

[1] Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand. (Timewise, this Chapter follows Chapter 8. Daniel did this possibly because he wanted the prophetical sections to be uninterrupted. Belshazzar and the companions of his orgy drank wine out of the Sacred Vessels of the Temple of God.)

[2] Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the Golden and Silver Vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the Temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein. (The contempt shown by this man was double: A. To use these Sacred Vessels at all; and, B. To use them as a sacrifice to heathen gods.)

[3] Then they brought the Golden Vessels that were taken out of the Temple of the House of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them. (The bringing of the "Golden Vessels" was by design. Inasmuch as Bel had given them the victory over the Judeans, or so they thought, this would afford an occasion for praising Bel, who surely would give them the victory over the Medes and the Persians, or so they thought!)

[4] They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone. (These "gods" which they praised were more than likely the gods of the nations which they had conquered. Therefore, they insulted Jehovah and praised these monstrosities.)

THE HANDWRITING ON THE WALL

5 In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaister of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote. (This is the same "hand" which inscribed the Ten Commandments on two tables of stone, and which wrote on the ground concerning a poor, accused woman [Jn. 8:6, 8].)

6 Then the king's countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another. ("And his knees smote one against another," shows him now to be dead sober, but stricken with fear.)

7 The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spoke, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and show me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom. ("Third ruler in the kingdom," means that Belshazzar was only the second ruler in the kingdom, with Nabonidus, his father, being first.)

8 Then came in all the king's wise men: but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof. (These "Astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers" will do him no more good than they had done his grandfather, Nebuchadnezzar. "Whosoever shall read this writing," seems to prove that the language was not Chaldee or even Hebrew. There is no indication as to what language it was!)

9 Then was king Belshazzar greatly trou bled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords were astonied. (The word "astonied" refers to tremendous fear, resulting in uncontrolled trembling of the body, with possibly even the loss of bodily functions.)

THE QUEEN'S ADVICE

10 Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: and the queen spoke and said, O king, live for ever: let not your thoughts trouble you, nor let your countenance be changed (it seems that the "Queen" was not present during the revelry, but only came into the "banquet house" upon hearing of this strange phenomenon)**:

11 There is a man in your kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of your father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the King Nebuchadnezzar your father, the king, I say, your father, made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers (this signifies that the Queen, Belshazzar's mother, knew Daniel; however, it seems that Belshazzar did not know him, only having "heard of" him. At this time, Daniel was probably between seventy and eighty years old)**;

12 Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and showing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation. ("Forasmuch as an excellent spirit," proves that she possibly had spent considerable time being taught by Daniel, and had been greatly impressed by the Christlike Spirit radiating from him. She had no faith in the "astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers," but she had faith in Daniel!)

BELSHAZZAR CALLS FOR DANIEL

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spoke and said unto Daniel, Are you that Daniel, which are of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Jewry? ("Then was Daniel brought in," shows the king, true to fallen man's unchanging action, seeking help from God as a last resource, and not as the first. But even then the great big pompous fool condescendingly says, "I have even heard of you" [Vs. 14]. Furthermore, he does not add that "the Spirit of the Holy God is in you," as the Queen Mother had said, but rather that "the spirit of the gods" is in you.)

14 I have even heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in you. (And yet, he had never consulted him!)

15 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not show the interpretation of the thing (no, they would not "show the interpretation of the thing," and neither can the modern prognosticators! Actually, the "handwriting on the wall" is presently obvious and apparent in all the world, but few now, as then, can "show the interpretation of the thing")**:

16 And I have heard of you, that you can make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if you can read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, you shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom. (It is sad, but the modern Church, as Belshazzar, is promising the same thing.)

DANIEL REBUKES THE KING

17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let your gifts be to yourself, and give your rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 O you king, The Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour:

19 And for the majesty that He gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down. (Daniel emphatically states that the might, majesty, splendor, glory, and greatness of the Babylonian Empire were all because of "The Most High God," and not these foolish idols.)

20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him (Daniel is telling this king that his grandfather's pride caused him to "be deposed from his kingly throne" and, likewise, the same is about to happen to Belshazzar. However, Nebuchadnezzar repented and was restored, whereas his grandson showed no inclination whatsoever toward Repentance and, therefore, was not restored):

21 And he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that The Most High God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that He appoints over it whomsoever He will. (Daniel, with words of burning power, thrust the Sword of the Spirit into the king's heart and conscience.)

22 And you his son, O Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this (due to the peculiarity of the Chaldee, the phrase, "his son," is literally "his grandson");

23 But have lifted up yourself against the Lord of Heaven; and they have brought the Vessels of His House before you, and you, and your lords, your wives, and your concubines, have drunk wine in them; and you have praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in Whose Hand your breath is, and Whose are all your ways, have you not glorified (all the sins of Belshazzar and his lords and ladies could be summed up in the last line of this Verse, concerning the Lord of Glory, of Whom it was said, "have you not glorified"):

24 Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written. (It seems that the fingers of a hand were still on the wall, poised in mid-air, which would have been a fearful sight. "And this writing was written," signifies such that cannot be changed! It is from Jehovah, therefore, unalterable.)

25 And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHAR-SIN. (The repetition of the word "MENE" announced the immediateness of the doom.)

DANIEL INTERPRETS THE WRITING ON THE WALL

[26] This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God has numbered your kingdom, and finished it. (Actually, the word "MENE" being repeated twice means "numbered, numbered"; the repetition was for the sake of emphasis and to declare, as stated, the immediate fulfillment, which did occur!)

[27] TEKEL; You are weighed in the balances, and are found wanting. (The word "TEKEL" means "weighed.")

[28] PERES; Your kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians. (There is no contradiction in the Scripture. The word "UPHAR-SIN" or "PHARSIN" is the plural of "PERES," meaning division. So it means that the great Babylonian Empire will be split up and given to the Medes and Persians.

The Septuagint says, "Numbered is the time of your kingdom; ceases your kingdom; cut short and ended has been your kingdom; to the Medes and the Persians has it been given.")

[29] Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom. (Even though Belshazzar did treat Daniel with kindness and respect, there is no evidence that he repented, even in the face of impending doom.)

THE WRITING FULFILLED

[30] In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain. ("In that night," refers to the very night of the drunken feast and the "handwriting on the wall.")

[31] And Darius the Median took the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old (62 years old)**.

CHAPTER 6

THE PLOT AGAINST DANIEL

1 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom (the number of princes fluctuated according to need. A short time before, it was 127 [Esther 1:1]);

2 And over these three presidents; of whom Daniel was first: that the princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage. (This portrays the fact that Daniel was the most powerful man in the world after Darius.)

3 Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm. (This also gives the reason for the jealousy exhibited in Verses 4 and 5.)

4 Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him. (At this time, Daniel was upwards of eighty years of age. He was just as faithful to Truth in his old age as when he was a young man. His enemies no doubt hated him because of his determined opposition to bribery and corruption, and most of all because of his attachment to the Word of God.)

5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the Law of his God. (Even his enemies could not find any occasion of fault in him. What a testimony!)

6 Then these presidents and princes assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, live for ever. (The phrase, "These presidents," refers to those other than Daniel, i.e., the ones plotting against him. In fact, the entire conspiracy is the work of Daniel's co-presidents.)

7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counselors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, save of you, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. (Their plot was well conceived.)

8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which alters not. (The king, no doubt, was perfectly agreeable with this, especially considering that religion was so much a part of national life and was the secret of his success, or so he thought. In his mind, the proper gods of the Medes and the Persians would be suitably worshipped, and the foreign deities would be put in their proper place of submission. Therefore, he willingly signed the "decree.")

9 Wherefore king Darius signed the writ ing and the decree. (The king would have signed this, giving little, if any, thought to Daniel whatsoever. He probably reasoned that inasmuch as the Temple in Jerusalem was in ruins and that Daniel did not pray to idols, that he could make no objection to this order. So the king signed it.)

THE STEADFASTNESS OF DANIEL

10 Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime. ("And his windows being opened in his chamber toward Jerusalem," implied that he prayed toward Jerusalem constantly. There was a reason for this, which has nothing to do with the New Covenant. It is obvious that Daniel was a man of prayer — "three times a day.")

11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God. (In fact, Daniel was the very reason for the plot.)

[12] Then they came near, and spoke before the king concerning the king's decree; Have you not signed a decree, that every man who shall ask a petition of any God or man within thirty days, save of you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which alters not. (The law of the Medes and the Persians, once enacted, was supposed to be unalterable.)

[13] Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, which is of the children of the captivity of Judah, regards not you, O king, nor the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day. (Now they lie about Daniel, claiming that he has no regard for the king.)

THE KING'S EFFORTS

[14] Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him. (His efforts were directed to find some way out of the constitutional dilemma into which he had been entrapped. He probably now full well realizes the extent of this trap set for Daniel and his own unwitting complicity.)

[15] Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establishes may be changed. (While it was true that the king could not save Daniel, still, the Lord could and did!)

DANIEL IN THE LIONS' DEN

[16] Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spoke and said unto Daniel, Your God Whom you serve continually, He will deliver you. (There are some who believe that this "Darius" was Astyages, who, some years before, married Esther, choosing her as his Queen. If that in fact was the case, Darius would have had some knowledge about God.)

17 And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel. (The king sealing the "stone" with his "own signet" would serve the purpose of God. When Daniel was delivered, none could say a trick had been played and Daniel escaped accordingly!)

DANIEL DELIVERED BY GOD

18 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were instruments of music brought before him: and his sleep went from him. (As the night descends, the king realizes what a foolhardy thing he has allowed himself to be led into.)

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions. (The actions of the king portray graphically so his regard and love for Daniel.)

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spoke and said to Daniel, O Daniel, Servant of the Living God, is your God, Whom you serve continually, able to deliver you from the lions? (There is some indication that the king took with him these "presidents" and others who had maneuvered him into signing this decree. Thus, they all stand before the lions' den in the early morning hour.)

21 Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever. (The trap is now sprung, but it is not on Daniel, but rather on his enemies.)

22 My God has sent His Angel, and has shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before Him innocency was found in me; and also before you, O king, have I done no hurt. (The phrase, "My God has sent His Angel," insinuates that Daniel saw the Angel sent to him.)

DANIEL'S ENEMIES DESTROYED

[23] Then was the king exceedingly glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God. ("Because he believed in his God," is referred to in Heb. 11:33.)

[24] And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and broke all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den. (Daniel had no more say regarding the king's command to cast these men and their families into the lions' den than he had had over his own situation.)

THE DECREE BY DARIUS

[25] Then king Darius wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the Earth; Peace be multiplied unto you. (The Septuagint says: "Then Darius wrote to all nations and tongues and countries dwelling in all his land, saying, 'Let all men who are in my kingdom stand and worship, and serve the God of Daniel, for He Alone abides, and lives to generation of generations forever. I, Darius, will worship and serve Him all my days, for none of the idols that are made with hands are able to deliver as the God of Daniel did Daniel.'")

[26] I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: for He is the Living God, and stedfast for ever, and His Kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and His Dominion shall be even unto the end. (His statement concerning "His Kingdom" and "His Dominion" and their eternal consequence portrays a knowledge which could only be acquired by careful observation.)

[27] He delivers and rescues, and He works signs and wonders in Heaven and in Earth, Who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions. (Despite the unbelief of religious dignitaries and the disavowal of much of the Word of God, God still "delivers" and "rescues"; and He will do it for any and all who will dare to believe Him.)

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian. (There is every evidence that "Cyrus the Persian" was the son of Darius and Esther, and was brought up in Jewish training and taught about God and His Word.)

CHAPTER 7

DANIEL'S VISION OF THE FOUR WINDS AND THE FOUR BEASTS

[1] In the first year of Belshazzar King of Babylon Daniel had a Dream and Visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the Dream, and told the sum of the matters. (Chapters 7 through 12, sometimes called The Second Book of Daniel, is mainly occupied with the predictions of the "fourth beast," which pertain to the Endtime.)

[2] Daniel spoke and said, I saw in my Vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea. ("The four winds of the heaven," refers to wars, strife, and Judgments from God [Jer. 25:32-33; Rev. 7:1-3]. "Strove upon the great sea," refers to large numbers of people [Rev. 13:1; 17:1, 15].)

[3] And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another. ("Beasts" in symbolic Passages represent kingdoms [Rev. 17:8-11] and their rulers, and more than all the fallen Angels behind these kingdoms [Rev. 11:7; 13:18; 17:8]. As stated, "the sea" has reference to great numbers of people, i.e., "came up from the people.")

THE FIRST BEAST, A LION: BABYLON

[4] The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the Earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it. ("The first was like a lion," refers to the Babylonian Empire. The "eagle's wings" symbolize the rapid pace with which the Babylonian Empire conquered its enemies and gained its ascendancy. The phrase, "I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked," pertains to the rapid expansion of this Empire, until Nebuchadnezzar went insane as a result of pride [4:25-26].)

THE SECOND BEAST, A BEAR: MEDO-PERSIA

5 And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh. (On the statue of Chapter 2, the Medo-Persian Empire was represented by a breastplate of silver. The statue as seen in Nebuchadnezzar's dream represented these kingdoms as man sees them. The Dream given to Daniel represents these kingdoms as God sees them, i.e., "ferocious."

The term, "Raised up itself on one side," simply means that the strength of the Persians ultimately was greater than the Medes. The "three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth" refer to the bear devouring much flesh. It symbolized the conquest of Babylon, Lydia, and Egypt.)

THE THIRD BEAST, A LEOPARD: GRECIA

6 After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it. (This short description defines the Grecian Empire under Alexander the Great as a "leopard." This Empire would come to the fore about 200 years from Daniel's day. The "four wings of a fowl" symbolized swiftness out of proportion to normal conquests.

The "four heads" symbolized the breakup of this Empire after the death of Alexander at 32 years of age. Heads always symbolize kingdoms in Bible Prophecy. Those four divisions were: Greece, Thrace, Syria, and Egypt.)

THE FOURTH BEAST, NON-DESCRIPT: ROMAN EMPIRE

7 After this I saw in the night Visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. (This beast represents the Roman Empire, which was the strongest and most powerful of all. It lasted for nearly a thousand years.

The phrase, "And it had ten horns," speaks of that which was a part of this beast, and for a particular reason. But it had nothing to do with the conquests of the original Roman Empire. These "ten horns" portray ten kingdoms which will arise in the latter days, in fact, in the very near future. These ten nations will persecute Israel.)

THE TEN HORNS AND THE "LITTLE HORN": REVISED ROME AND REVIVED GRECIA

8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things. (At first, Daniel did not understand the horns. Even though the Roman Empire has come and gone, still, the "ten horns" have not yet risen to power; however, the breakup of the former Soviet Union is the beginning of the fulfillment of this Passage. If one is to notice, the "ten horns" were a part of the non-descript beast, which has to do with the territory which the old Roman Empire controlled.

"There came up among them another little horn," means this one came up after the "ten horns" were fully grown. The "little horn" is the Antichrist.

Three of the horns will be plucked by the "little horn," meaning that he will defeat these countries in battle, with the others then submitting to him. This will take place in the first half of the Great Tribulation.)

THE JUDGMENT

9 I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, Whose Garment was white as snow, and the Hair of His Head like the pure wool: His Throne was like the fiery flame, and His Wheels as burning fire. (The phrase, "I beheld till the thrones were cast down," speaks of all the Empires, even from Babylon straight through to the Antichrist. All of them have already been "cast down" with the exception of the "ten horns" and the "little horn." However, as surely as the others were cast down, these two kingdoms also will be cast down.

"And the Ancient of days did sit," refers to God the Father and His Dominion. His Kingdom will remain!)

10 A fiery stream issued and came forth from before Him: thousand thousands ministered unto Him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him: the Judgment was set, and the Books were opened. (In the Hebrew, the number is "chiliads of chiliads." It is a Hebraism meaning "countless numbers." "The Judgment was set, and the Books were opened," has to do with the Judgment of the nations, which will take place at the beginning of the Millennial Reign.)

THE "LITTLE HORN" DESTROYED

11 I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke: I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame. ("The great words which the horn spoke" speak of great opposition against God. At the Second Coming of Christ, the Antichrist will be killed and cast into Hell.)

THE BEASTS PRECEDING THE RULE OF THE "LITTLE HORN"

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time. ("As concerning the rest of the beasts," refers to the kingdoms preceding the little horn, beginning back with the Babylonian Empire. Even though these Empires have long since passed away, still, Gentiles rule the world; this is referred to as the "Times of the Gentiles" [Lk. 21:24]. The "prolonging" will continue until the Second Coming.)

THE SECOND ADVENT OF THE MESSIAH

13 I saw in the night Visions, and, behold, One like the Son of Man came with the clouds of Heaven, and came to the Ancient of Days, and they brought Him near before Him. (This "One like the Son of Man" is "The Lord Jesus Christ." We have here the Trinity represented: God the Father, i.e., "the Ancient of Days," "The Son of Man," Who, as stated, is Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit, Who inspired this.)

14 And there was given Him Dominion, and Glory, and a Kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve Him: His Dominion is an Everlasting Dominion, which shall not pass away, and His Kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. (This Verse corresponds with 2:35. This Kingdom of Righteousness will begin immediately after the Second Coming, with Christ as its Supreme and Eternal Head.)

THE INTERPRETATION OF THE VISION

15 I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the Visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came near unto one of them who stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. (The phrase, "One of them who stood by," refers to the countless numbers who are standing before the Throne of God. Quite possibly, this was Gabriel; however, we have no proof.)

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the Earth. (The "four kings" are, as stated, Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, and Rome. "Which shall arise out of the Earth," simply means that they are of the people, of man, and, therefore, not of God. The Kingdom of Verse 14 is of God and from God, and consequently will last forever.)

18 But the Saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever. ("The Saints" in this Passage refer to Israel, which will be restored and become the leading Nation in the world under Christ.)

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet (the "fourth beast," as stated, is a symbol of the old Roman Empire, the fourth of four kingdoms in succession. It is mentioned by name only in the New Testament [Jn. 11:48; Acts 2:10; 16:21].

"And his nails of brass," presents something added, which is not mentioned in the description given in Verses 7 and 8. They symbolize the Grecian Empire element of the image of 2:39, 45.

This means that the Antichrist will have characteristics of both the Roman Empire and the ancient Grecian Empire);

[20] And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows. (The "other which came up" is the same as the "little horn" of Verse 8, and is the Antichrist, who will come on the world scene shortly after the Rapture of the Church [II Thess. 2:7-8].)

[21] I beheld, and the same horn made war with the Saints, and prevailed against them (the "Saints" mentioned here are not the Church, but rather Israel. The "war" spoken of here concerns the Antichrist signing a seven-year nonaggression pact with Israel, and then breaking it at approximately the midpoint, then declaring war on Israel)**;

[22] Until the Ancient of days came, and Judgment was given to the Saints of the Most High; and the time came that the Saints possessed the kingdom. ("Until the Ancient of days came," refers back to Verses 9, 13 and 14. It does not actually mean that God the Father will come to Planet Earth at this time, but instead that He will direct the proceedings from His Throne.

"And the time came that the Saints possessed the kingdom," refers to the Second Coming of the Lord, when Israel will then accept Christ as Saviour, Lord, and Messiah, and will be restored and brought back to her rightful place and position.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon Earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole Earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. (The Angel Gabriel speaks in Verses 17 and 18 in answer to Daniel's request; then Daniel asks more questions in Verses 19 through 22. Gabriel now picks up the dialogue and continues with the explanation through Verse 27.

"And shall devour the whole Earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces," refers to the ferocity and the total power of the Roman Empire. It ruled the world not too much short of a thousand years.)

24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings. (Some teach that the ten toes and ten horns of Daniel, Chapters 2 and 7, are ten barbarous tribes which overran the old Roman Empire between A.D. 351-474. However, this is error because of the following:

The God of Heaven is to set up a Kingdom on Earth "in the days of these kings" [2:44-45; Rev. 19:11-20:7]. It should be obvious to all that the Lord did not set up such a Kingdom in A.D. 351-474. In fact, He has not yet done so; therefore, it is obvious that the "ten horns" representing ten nations are yet future.)

25 And he shall speak great words against the Most High, and shall wear out the Saints of the Most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time. ("And he shall speak great words against the Most High," is used several times by the Holy Spirit in various ways, drawing our attention to the blasphemy of the Antichrist.

The phrase, "And they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time," refers to Israel being defeated and being greatly persecuted for a period of three and a half years.)

26 But the Judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end. (The Angel refers back to Verse 10. "But the Judgment shall sit," refers to the Throne of God and the Judgment passed upon the Antichrist by that Heavenly Court.)

27 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the Saints of the Most High, Whose Kingdom is an Everlasting Kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey Him. ("The greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven," refers to the entirety of the Earth, with Christ Jesus reigning supreme.)

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart. (This Verse indicates that Daniel, despite the interpretation of the Angel, still did not fully comprehend the extent of his vision.)

DANIEL'S VISION OF THE RAM AND HE GOAT: THE TIME OF THE VISION

1 In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a Vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first. (The phrase, "In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar," means that this Vision was given some two years after the Vision of Chapter 7. Consequently, this was not long before the overthrow of the Babylonian Empire, as described in Chapter 5. So, chronologically, both Chapters 7 and 8 preceded Chapter 6.)

2 And I saw in a Vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a Vision, and I was by the river of Ulai. ("Shushan" was the chief city of Persia.)

THE RAM: MEDO-PERSIA

3 Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. ("A ram which had two horns," symbolized the Medo-Persian Empire, ruled by two kings, Darius of the Medes and Cyrus of Persia. "And the two horns were high," spoke of their power, which was great enough to overthrow the mighty Babylonian Empire, to which they had been subject for many years. The phrase, "But one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last," pertains to Persia developing after the Median Empire, but ultimately growing into the stronger of the two.)

4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great. (The "ram" is used here by the Holy Spirit as symbolic of the Empire of the Medes and the Persians. "I saw the ram pushing westward," refers to an event of the recent past, the taking of Babylon. "And northward," refers to Lydia, while "southward" refers to Egypt.)

THE HE-GOAT: GRECIA

5 And as I was considering, behold, an he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. (In Nebuchadnezzar's dream, the Grecian Empire is represented by the "belly and thighs of brass." In Daniel's first Vision in Chapter 7, a "leopard with four wings and also four heads" symbolized this Empire. In this Vision, it is symbolized by an "he goat."

The phrase, "And touched not the ground," refers to the speed of Alexander's conquests, which were symbolized in the first Vision by a leopard with four wings. In thirteen years, he conquered the whole known world. The "notable horn" refers to its first king, Alexander the Great.)

WAR: MEDO-PERSIA AND GRECIA

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power. ("The fury of his power," portrays the speed of his conquests and the ferociousness of his attack, plus military strategy that completely overwhelmed the much larger force of the Medes and the Persians.)

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and broke his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none who could deliver the ram out of his hand. (As Daniel sees this, of course, it is yet future. The word "choler" means that Alexander was greatly angry at the Medo-Persians.)

8 Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven. ("And when he was strong, the great horn was broken," refers to the untimely death of Alexander the Great in 323 B.C., when he was at the apex of his strength. He was 32 years old when he died.

"And for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven," is referring to his kingdom being split into four parts upon his death.)

THE "LITTLE HORN": ANTICHRIST

9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land. ("And out of one of them came forth a little horn," refers to the future Antichrist coming out of one of these four divisions of the old Grecian Empire. "Toward the south" refers to Egypt; "toward the east" refers to Syria, Iraq, and Iran; "toward the pleasant land" refers to Israel. From this area, the Antichrist will make his bid for world dominion.)

10 And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them. ("And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven," refers to the "little horn" [Antichrist] breaking his seven-year Covenant with Israel, which Daniel speaks of in a future Vision [9:27], actually declaring war on Israel at that time, seeking to destroy her. This is symbolized by the phrase, "And it [little horn] cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them," referring to Israel being defeated at that time, which is yet future.)

11 Yes, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. ("Yes, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host," refers to the Antichrist usurping authority over the High Priest of Israel. These Verses actually speak of the war which will be instituted by the Antichrist when he breaks his seven-year Covenant with Israel and other countries, actually invading the "pleasant land." He will defeat Israel and stop the daily sacrifices, which will have been re-instituted by Israel after a lapse of approximately 2,000 years. This tells us that the Jewish Temple is going to be rebuilt.)

12 And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practiced, and prospered. ("By reason of transgression," refers to the Antichrist breaking his seven-year covenant with Israel, therefore, committing "transgression." As stated, he will then stop the "daily sacrifice." "And it practiced, and prospered," refers to the fact that much of the world will applaud him in these actions.)

13 Then I heard one Saint speaking, and another Saint said unto that certain Saint which spoke, How long shall be the Vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the Sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot? (These are "Saints" in Heaven; Daniel overheard their conversation, but had no identification as to who they were. The "Sanctuary" spoken of here is the rebuilt Temple. The "Host to be trodden under foot," refers to the worshippers, with their worship stopped, as well as the High Priest and associating Priests abruptly stopping their duties, if not being killed. This is when the Antichrist invades Israel in the middle of the seven-year tribulation period [9:27].)

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the Sanctuary be cleansed. (This Verse makes reference to 2,300 evenings and mornings [Vss. 11-13, 26], as there are two sacrifices a day. Cutting that in half, which has reference to the number of days, the number is 1,150 [in Daniel's day, the years were counted as 360 days long, instead of our present method of using 365 days]. Hence, the three years, two months, and ten days are the whole and actual length of the doing away of the daily sacrifices in the Temple before they are offered again by the Jews when the Sanctuary is cleansed of the abomination of desolation. Jesus mentioned this [Mat. 24:15-16].)

THE INTERPRETATION; ANGELIC INTERPRETERS

15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the Vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man. (This is actually the mighty Angel, "Gabriel," who stands in the Presence of God [Lk. 1:19].)

16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the Vision. (It is not known whether the "man's voice" spoken of here refers to an Angel or a redeemed man. At any rate, he will inform "Gabriel" that he is to "make Daniel to understand the Vision.")

TIME OF FULFILLMENT

17 So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the Vision. ("For at the time of the end shall be the Vision," refers to the Endtime, namely the very days in which we now live, extending into the immediate future.)

18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright. ("My face toward the ground," is not by accident! Daniel senses his tremendous unworthiness, especially in such Presence.)

19 And he said, Behold, I will make you know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be. ("What shall be in the last end of the indignation," concerns God's past, present, and future indignation against Israel. To that indignation, He has set an appointed limit. However, the far greater part of the "indignation" spoken of here concerns the "last end," i.e., the last days, the Great Tribulation.)

THE RAM: MEDO-PERSIA

20 The ram which you saw having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia. (Daniel served in this Empire for a number of years before his death.)

THE HE-GOAT: GRECIA

[21] And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. (The "great horn" is Alexander the Great.)

THE FOUR HORNS: GREECE, TURKEY, SYRIA, AND EGYPT

[22] Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power. ("That being broken," refers to the "great horn," symbolizing the death of Alexander the Great. "Whereas four stood up for it," refers to four generals who took the Empire after the death of Alexander, dividing it up among themselves. "But not in his power," means that Alexander did not designate these kingdoms to them, because he was dead.)

THE "LITTLE HORN"

[23] And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. ("And in the latter time of their kingdom," pertains to the coming of the Antichrist. "When the transgressors are come to the full," refers to the nation of Israel reaching the climax of her guilt by accepting the Antichrist instead of Christ, as predicted by the Lord Himself [Jn. 5:43]. "A king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up," proclaims the Antichrist having a majestic presence and superhuman knowledge, which is actually inspired of Satan.)

THE "LITTLE HORN'S" POWER AND WAR ON THE SAINTS

[24] And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practice, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy People. ("And he shall destroy wonderfully," refers to Rev. 6:4-8. "And shall prosper, and practice," means that his efforts will be extremely successful. "And shall destroy the mighty and the holy People," refers to Israel.)

HIS EXALTATION AND WAR WITH THE MESSIAH

25 And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand. (The word "craft" in the Hebrew is "mirmah," meaning "deceit." The Antichrist will be the greatest deceiver of all [II Thess. 2:8-12; Rev. 13:14; 19:20]. The last phrase, "He shall stand up against the Prince of princes," refers to his war against Christ, which will culminate with the Battle of Armageddon [Joel, Chpt. 3; Zech., Chpt. 14; Rev. 16:13-16; 19:11-21].)

THE TIME OF THE VISION

26 And the Vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true: wherefore shut you up the Vision; for it shall be for many days. ("For it shall be for many days," signifies that the Vision from Daniel's day would be a long time in coming to fulfillment. Actually, it has not yet been fulfilled, but it most definitely shall be in the near future.)

27 And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterward I rose up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the Vision, but none understood it. ("But none understood it," refers to the fact that the comprehension of events in the distant future was difficult. Presently, in the light of the history of many of these things, especially considering that they are beginning now to come to pass, our understanding of those things which the Angel Gabriel intended is being enlightened!)

DANIEL'S VISION OF SEVENTY WEEKS OF YEARS; HIS CONFESSION AND PRAYER FOR HIMSELF AND ISRAEL

[1] In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, which was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans (this Vision was seen about a year after the one in Dan., Chpt. 8. The unique glory of this Chapter and of this Prophecy is that this alone foretold the time of the Messiah's appearing and the very year of His Crucifixion.

This Chapter will detail Daniel's third Vision: the seventy weeks of years [490 years] and their application to Israel);

[2] In the first year of his reign I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the Word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the Prophet, that He would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem. (This "seventy years" has nothing to do with the seventy weeks of years which Daniel will see in the Vision in the latter part of the Chapter [Vss. 24-27]. The information of this Verse did not come about through Visions, but through the Scriptures which God had already given to Jeremiah. Daniel read the Revelations of Jeremiah; by thoroughly studying this Prophecy, he understood the number of years of the exile. The information of seventy years of captivity followed by a restoration is recorded in Jeremiah [Jer. 25:11-12; 29:1, 5-10; II Chron. 36:21].)

[3] And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes (Daniel was seeking God for the deliverance of Israel from this seventy-year captivity as was promised by the Lord. His prayer was based upon the "Books," i.e., the Bible [Lev., Chpt. 26; II Chron., Chpt. 36; Jer., Chpts. 25 and 29])**:

[4] And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the Covenant and Mercy to them who love Him, and to them who keep His Commandments (there is a reference here to Deut. 7:9, from which the latter clause is quoted verbatim. This particular Chapter in Deuteronomy exhibits God's Love for Israel and, hence, as that Love is his plea, Daniel appeals to it. As well, one should note the evidence of careful acquaintance with preceding Scripture)**;

5 We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from Your Precepts and from Your Judgments (Daniel includes himself in this confession of wrongdoing. "Even by departing from Your Precepts and from Your Judgments," defines what sin is. It is a departing from the Word of God. As it was then, so it is now! It is summed up in the word "rebellion")**:

6 Neither have we hearkened unto Your Servants the Prophets, which spoke in Your Name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. (Judah had suffered seventy years of captivity because she would not listen to the one True Prophet, Jeremiah, who was raised up by the Lord; they rather heeded the false prophets.)

7 O LORD, righteousness belongs unto You, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, who are near, and who are far off, through all the countries whither You have driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against You. ("But unto us confusion of faces," refers to shame. Sin always brings shame, and only God can take it away.)

8 O Lord, to us belongs confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against You. (The Lord will only accept from the truly repentant heart, i.e., "we have sinned against You," because all sin, in one way or the other, is directed against God.)

9 To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses; though we have rebelled against Him (Mercy will always be shown and forgiveness will always be tendered if the individual, irrespective as to what has been done, will only humble himself before God);

[10] Neither have we obeyed the Voice of the LORD our God, to walk in His Laws, which He set before us by His Servants the Prophets. (Once again, the Word of God is held up as the guideline for all living. It is called "the Voice of the LORD our God.")

[11] Yes, all Israel have transgressed Your Law, even by departing, that they might not obey Your Voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the Law of Moses the Servant of God, because we have sinned against Him. (When a curse is promised for certain action, it will be done according to God's Word, just as a reward is granted for obedience.)

[12] And He has confirmed His Words, which He spoke against us, and against our judges who judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven has not been done as has been done upon Jerusalem. (God will always confirm His Word and curse those who sin and bless those who obey [Gal. 6:7-8]. His Attitude in this respect does not change from the Old Covenant to the New. That we are presently under Grace and God does not look at sin as He once did is a facetious idea indeed! God's Attitude toward sin has never changed and, in fact, cannot change.)

[13] As it is written in the Law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand Your Truth. (The idea of this Verse is: Judah would not repent although repeatedly warned before the Judgment; they also would not repent after the Judgment.

"And understand Your Truth," means that the Truth here is extended to its fullest meaning, "God's Supreme Reality." God, being God, implies necessarily that every Word of Promise or Threatening He utters is true; veracity and faithfulness are equally involved in Jehovah being God.)

[14] Therefore has the LORD watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all His Works which He does:

for we obeyed not His Voice. (The idea is: what the Lord has done is the right thing to have done, and His Righteousness is vindicated in Judgment on sin that refuses to be repented of.)

[15] And now, O Lord our God, Who has brought Your People forth out of the land of Egypt with a Mighty Hand, and have gotten You renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. (The phrase, "And have gotten You renown, as at this day," is an exact quotation from Jer. 32:20, as in the original Text. The short phrase, "Your People," tells us that Israel, even in apostasy and dispersion, was considered the chosen People of God. In the sense of the Promises made to the Patriarchs and Prophets of old, they still fit this category. However, this designation has to do only with the Promises and Covenants, and in no way specifies Salvation.)

[16] O LORD, according to all Your Righteousness, I beseech You, let Your Anger and Your Fury be turned away from Your City Jerusalem, Your Holy Mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Your People are become a reproach to all who are about us. (In effect, Daniel is asking that the "Anger" of the Lord, which has been poured out for the last seventy years on "Jerusalem" and "Your People," be abated. The appeal is made to God's Righteousness, because now the seventy years were nearing their end, and God's Righteousness is involved in the time not being exceeded.)

[17] Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of Your Servant, and his supplications, and cause Your Face to shine upon Your sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's Sake. (Daniel is calling the Lord to the petition of the Psalmist, where Asaph said, "Turn us again, O God, and cause Your Face to shine; and we shall be saved" [Ps. 80:3]. This has reference to the Blessings of God.)

[18] O my God, incline Your Ear, and hear; open Your Eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by Your Name: for we do not present our supplications before You for our righteousnesses, but for Your great Mercies. (God's Blessings are not given because we deserve them, because, in fact, we do not.)

[19] O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for Your Own Sake, O my God: for Your City and Your People are called by Your Name. (Daniel repeatedly uses the title, "Adonai," in saying, "O Lord, hear." The short sentences give a feeling of intensity to the prayer suitable to the circumstances.)

GABRIEL'S INTERPRETATION OF THE VISION OF THE SEVENTY WEEKS

[20] And while I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the Holy Mountain of my God (Daniel declared that Jerusalem has been called by God's Name, and has been chosen by God. Actually, it will be the capital of His Eternal Kingdom on Earth [Ps. 2:6; 48:2; 87:2; 102:16; 132:13; Isa. 2:2-4; Ezek., Chpt. 48; Zech., Chpt. 14])**;

[21] Yes, while I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the Vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening Oblation. (Once again, "Gabriel" is sent to Daniel's side. The phrase, "About the time of the evening Oblation," referred to 3 p.m., which was the time of the evening Sacrifice; however, this does not imply that those Offerings were made in Babylon, but simply that, through the nearly seventy years that had intervened since the fall of Jerusalem, the sacred hour had been kept in remembrance, and possibly as one consecrated to prayer.)

[22] And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give you skill and understanding. ("To give you skill and understanding," refers to the future of Israel and last-day events.)

[23] At the beginning of your supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to show you; for you are greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the Vision. (The study of Bible Prophecy was not for Daniel a mere intellectual entertainment, but moral and Spiritual Nourishment.)

[24] Seventy weeks are determined upon your people and upon your holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the Vision and Prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy. ("Seventy weeks are determined upon your people," actually means seventy sevens, which translates into 490 years. This period of time has to do with "your people" and "your holy city," referring to the Jews and Jerusalem. The Second Coming of Christ and their acceptance of Him will "finish the transgression."

"To make reconciliation [atonement] for iniquity," refers to the fact that Israel will not only accept Christ at the Second Coming, but will also accept what He did for us at Calvary. One can well imagine this moment, for they are the ones who crucified Christ.

The phrase, "To anoint the Most Holy," has to do with the building of the Millennial Temple, even as described by Ezekiel in Chapters 40 through 48 of his Book.)

[25] Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the Commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times. (If one is to notice in this Scripture, the "seventy weeks" of years is broken up into two periods. One "shall be seven weeks" [49 years] and the other will be "threescore and two weeks" [434 years], totaling 483 years. "That from the going forth of the Commandment to restore and rebuild Jerusalem," is the beginning of this 490-year period. However, from that time until it was actually finished was some 141 years. Actually, the clock stopped and started several times in this 141-year period, totaling some 49 years when work was truly in progress, comprising the first seven weeks of years [49 years].

The second block of time started at the end of the 49 years and ended with the Crucifixion of the Lord Jesus Christ, which was 434 years. Combining, as stated, the 49 years with the 434 years brings the total to 483 years.

The third block of time, which we will study in the last Verse, will be the last week of years, totaling seven years, which will make up the Great Tribulation period, concluding Daniel's Prophecy of seventy weeks of years.

Again, it must be remembered that these 490 years did not run consecutively. There were stoppages, as stated, in the first 49 years; then there has been a huge halt of nearly 2,000 years from the time that Christ was crucified, which has not concluded yet. In other words, the last week of years [seven years] is yet to come.)

[26] And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for Himself: and the people of the prince who shall come shall destroy the city and the Sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined. (The phrase, "And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off," gives us the exact time, even the very year, that the Messiah would be crucified. The words, "cut off," refer to His Crucifixion.

"But not for Himself," refers to Jesus dying for mankind and taking upon Himself the penalty for mankind. In other words, He did not die for crimes He had committed, but rather for the crimes mankind had committed.

"And the people of the prince who shall come shall destroy the City and the Sanctuary," refers to the Romans, who fulfilled this Prophecy in A.D. 70. However, the "prince," as used here, actually refers to the Antichrist, who has not yet come, but will come from among the ten kingdoms yet to be formed inside the old Roman Empire territory. The next Verse proves this.)

[27] And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the Oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate. ("And he shall confirm," refers to the Antichrist. The phrase, "And in the midst of the week," refers to three and a half years, at which time the Antichrist will show his true colors and stop the sacrifices in the newly-built Temple. At that time, he will actually invade Israel, with her suffering her first defeat since her formation as a Nation in 1948.

"Even until the consummation," means until the end of the seven-year Great Tribulation period. The phrase, "And that determined shall be poured upon the desolate," refers to all the Prophecies being fulfilled regarding the great suffering that Israel will go through the last three and a half years of the Great Tribulation [Mat. 24:21-22].)

DANIEL'S FOURTH VISION: ISRAEL IN THE LAST DAYS UNDER THE ANTICHRIST: TIME AND PLACE

[1] In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the Vision. ("And the thing was true, but the time appointed was long," has reference to the fulfillment of this Vision being in the far distant future, at least from Daniel's day. In fact, it will be fulfilled shortly!)

[2] In those days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks. (It is thought that this Vision was given about five years after the Vision of the seventy weeks of the previous Chapter.)

[3] I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled. (There are some who argue that Daniel was on a total fast, in other words, abstaining from any food whatsoever; however, the phrase, "No pleasant bread," seems to indicate otherwise, meaning that he was on a partial fast, with his diet being vegetables, which is the same thing he ate in Chapter 1 when presented to Melzar [1:5, 8, 12-16].)

[4] And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel (the "Hiddekel" is the modern Tigris River)**;

VISION OF THE MESSIAH

[5] Then I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and behold a certain Man clothed in linen, Whose Loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz (the similarity of the apparition in Verses 5 and 6 and in Rev. 1:13, 16 suggests that it was Immanuel Himself Who appeared to Daniel)**:

6 His Body also was like the beryl, and His Face as the appearance of lightning, and His Eyes as lamps of fire, and His Arms and His Feet like in colour to polished brass, and the Voice of His Words like the voice of a multitude. (I think there is no doubt that this is a pre-incarnate appearance of Christ.)

THE EFFECT OF THE VISION

7 And I Daniel alone saw the Vision: for the men who were with me saw not the Vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves. (Even though these companions "saw not the Vision," still they greatly felt the Power of the Presence, for "a great quaking fell upon them." This means they were terrified!)

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great Vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength. (The phrase, "For my comeliness was turned in me into corruption," underlies the true meaning of this Passage. When our Righteousness is compared with that of Christ's, there truly is no comparison.)

9 Yet heard I the Voice of His Words: and when I heard the Voice of His Words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground. (This is the same reaction that Daniel had upon the appearance of Gabriel, concerning the Vision of Chapter 8. The experience of Peter, James, and John on the Mount of Transfiguration was similar.)

10 And, behold, an hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands. (Even though the Scripture is unclear, it seems that the "hand" that "touched" Daniel was not necessarily the Hand of Christ, of Verses 5 and 6. Every implication is that it is Gabriel's.)

11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto you, and stand upright: for unto you am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling. (The message that Gabriel is about to give Daniel will be the concluding "Vision," and will actually tie all the other Visions together.)

ANGELIC INTERPRETER; GABRIEL DETAINED BY SATAN'S FORCES OVER PERSIA

[12] Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that you did set your heart to understand, and to chasten yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I am come for your words. ("For from the first day," speaks of his petition to God and his effort to understand God's Purpose concerning His People. Then God commissioned Gabriel to come to him.)

[13] But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the Chief Princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia. ("The prince of the kingdom of Persia," refers to an evil angel appointed by Satan to control the Persian Government, which, of course, was done without the knowledge of its earthly king. This Passage appears to reveal that Satan places an agent in charge of every nation [fallen angel]; and, if so, this may explain national hatreds and national movements.

Similarly, God has His Angelic Agents operating in opposition to Satan's. The conflict of Eph., Chpt. 6 and the Battle of Rev., Chpt. 12 harmonize with this supposition.)

OBJECT AND SUBJECT OF THE VISION: EFFECT ON DANIEL

[14] Now I am come to make you understand what shall befall your people in the latter days: for yet the Vision is for many days. ("What shall befall your people," refers solely to the Jews [9:24; 12:1]. Therefore, the Gentile nations are included, but only as they affect Israel, and only as Israel is ensconced in her land and offering Sacrifices in the Temple; in fact, this Temple will soon be built.)

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb. (Quite possibly, the many times mentioned concerning the Vision being fulfilled in the "latter days" is because Daniel may have thought that these things would happen shortly, with Israel ultimately being restored to her place and position of power and supremacy.)

16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spoke, and said unto Him Who stood before me, O my Lord, by the Vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength. (Quite possibly, this was Christ, because Daniel addressed Him as "O my Lord!")

17 For how can the Servant of this my Lord talk with this my Lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me. (The implication is that it is not the Vision alone causing the physical weakness, but rather the very Presence of Christ.)

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me,

19 And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto you, be strong, yes, be strong. And when He had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my Lord speak; for You have strengthened me. (It seems that this is the Lord, in a pre-incarnate appearance, actually speaking to Daniel.)

THE PRINCE OF GRECIA

20 Then said He, Know you wherefore I come unto you? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come. (It seems that now Gabriel once again picks up the conversation. "And now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia," did not mean that he would leave immediately, but, when the Vision was completed, he would resume the conflict with this Satanic prince.

"And when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come," refers to Gabriel ultimately being successful in this conflict, allowing the Satanic prince to bring in the Grecian Empire. This would take place less than 200 years in the future.

The "prince of Grecia" is not an earthly prince, but instead a fallen angel working under the direct instructions of Satan, who would control the Grecian Empire when it did come into being. It was this evil prince which helped Alexander the Great conquer the known world of that day, although without his knowledge. This "prince" is now confined to the underworld, but will be released in the last days in order to help the Antichrist [Rev. 17:8-14].

It is the same presently, with fallen angels controlling entire nations [Eph. 6:12].)

MICHAEL AND GABRIEL

[21] But I will show you that which is noted in the Scripture of Truth: and there is none who holds with me in these things, but Michael your prince.
("The Scripture of Truth" refers to the dream originally given to Nebuchadnezzar [2:39], which showed these Empires, as well as the two Visions already given to Daniel, as noted in 7:5-6 and 8:3-8. "And there is none who holds with me in these things, but Michael your prince," denotes the Truth that as these fallen angels reigned supreme over certain empires, Michael served in the same position over Israel, and in fact still does!)

CHAPTER 11

THE INTERPRETATION OF DANIEL'S VISION: FROM THE PERSIAN EMPIRE TO ALEXANDER'S DEATH

[1] Also I in the first year of Darius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him. ("I stood to confirm and to strengthen him," refers to Michael the Archangel helping Gabriel as it regards the conflict in question. We see from all this that force has to be used to remove certain Satanic rulers [fallen angels] regarding particular nations, so that another fallen angel can take their place, even as it was with the Grecian Empire taking over the Medo-Persian Empire. All of this happens in the spirit world and is unseen with the natural eye; however, the effects can definitely be felt.

All of this tells us that there is always conflict in Satan's kingdom, which is here made obvious.)

[2] And now will I show you the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia. (These three Persian kings were Cyrus, Cambyses, and Darius I. The fourth was Xerxes, who fulfilled this Verse according to riches. Actually there were six Persian kings after the four mentioned in this Verse; however, the conflict against Greece began with Xerxes, who Gabriel said would "stir up all against the realm of Grecia.")

[3] And a mighty king shall stand up, who shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. (This pertains to Alexander the Great, who gained the throne when he was only 19 years old.)

[4] And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those. ("And when he shall stand up," means when he was at the height of his power, and refers to Alexander the Great. "His kingdom shall be broken," has to do with his sudden death at 32 years old, and to the breaking up of the Grecian Empire into four divisions, which were taken over by four of his Generals. "And not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled," speaks of his son, who should have gotten the throne, but did not. It must be remembered that these Prophecies were given by Daniel nearly 200 years before they actually came to pass.)

WARS BETWEEN THE PTOLEMIES AND SELEUCIDS

5 And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion. ("And one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion," refers to Seleucus I, called Nicator, the Conqueror. He founded the Seleucid Empire, 312-280 B.C. To the unspiritual mind, this Chapter is without interest; to the skeptical and critical mind, untruthful; for it is contended that these pretended Prophecies were written after the events took place. But students of history know that these Prophecies were written before they began to come to pass, and that their most important predictions yet await fulfillment [Vss. 35-45].

Further, the heart that is in fellowship with God takes an intense interest in all this history, both past and future, because it concerns God's dearly-loved People and His pleasant Land.)

6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they who brought her, and he who begat her, and he who strengthened her in these times. ("For the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement," refers to Ptolemy II, the king of the south, and Antiochus, the king of the north. "The king's daughter" was Berenice, daughter of Ptolemy. The "agreement" pertains to Syria and Egypt agreeing to terminate their differences; however, the agreement was based on the marriage of Berenice to Antiochus II, king of Syria. It didn't work out, inasmuch as she and her son were murdered.)

7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail (the brother of Berenice, who had just been murdered, was Ptolemy III, who had just succeeded to the Egyptian throne. The "king of the north" was Seleucus II. Ptolemy invaded Syria and defeated Seleucus)**:

8 And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north. ("And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods," referred to Ptolemy carrying back to Egypt the gods which Cambyses, king of Persia, had taken from Egypt nearly 300 years before, along with much booty.)

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land. (Even though he won many victories elsewhere, Ptolemy was having problems back in Egypt, his home base.)

10 But his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress. ("But his sons shall be stirred up," refers to the sons of Seleucus II. They were determined to recover their father's dominion, which had been taken by Ptolemy III, king of the south, Egypt.

Antiochus III was the only one who did actually war against Egypt, with his brother Seleucus III, and was poisoned by two of his own generals.)

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand. ("The king of the south" was Ptolemy Philopater, and he defeated Antiochus, "the king of the north," thereby fulfilling the Prophecy, "but the multitude shall be given into his hand.")

[12] And when he has taken away the multi tude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it. (The pronoun "he" refers to "the king of the south," Ptolemy Philopater. He was greatly lifted up by his victory and oppressed many in his own land, especially the Jews; irrespective, his kingdom suffered a steady decline.)

[13] For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches. (The "king of the north" is Antiochus III, called "the great." He ruled from 223-187 B.C. "Shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former," pertains to him returning some 14 years later to fight the Egyptians, and with a greater army than ever before. He would win!)

[14] And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the robbers of your people shall exalt themselves to establish the Vision; but they shall fall. (The first phrase refers to Antiochus the Great and Philip of Macedonia uniting in order to conquer Egypt. He won; however, Rome stepped in and forced him to surrender his conquest. "Also the robbers of your people shall exalt themselves to establish the Vision," refers to the Jews who thought by helping Antiochus they would bring about the fulfillment of Prophecy and, therefore, the independence of Judah. But the results were that they all perished at the hand of the Egyptians, fulfilling the Prophecy, "but they shall fall."

Had they read the Prophecy correctly to begin with, they would not have suffered this defeat.)

[15] So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand. (Egypt would be defeated by the "king of the north," i.e., Syria.)

[16] But he who comes against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed. ("And he shall stand in the glorious land," refers to Judea, and the Jews attempting to help Antiochus the Great defeat Ptolemy, which he did. Even though Antiochus showed the Jews great favor, still, Israel's dependence was not on the Lord, but instead on man; consequently, Judea was greatly reduced to poverty through the long wars, fulfilling the phrase, "which by his hand shall be consumed.")

17 He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him. (This Verse speaks of Antiochus the Great making a treaty with Ptolemy V, that is, a treaty of peace, fulfilling the phrase, "And upright ones with him." The conditions were that Antiochus' daughter, Cleopatra, aged 11, should marry Ptolemy. The Holy Spirit here describes her as "the daughter of women," denoting great beauty.

The phrase, "Corrupting her," means that her father, Antiochus the Great, ordered her to be a spy in the Egyptian Court in his interests, but she ultimately sided with her husband, and defeated her father's plans by inviting the protection of the Romans, fulfilling the Prophecy, "but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.") 18 After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him. (Antiochus attacked Asia Minor and Greece, but the Roman General, Lucius Scipio, defeated him and restored the prestige of the Roman name, which had suffered "reproach" because the Roman Senate had failed to protect Egypt and Greece.

Scipio turned the "reproach" from the Romans onto Antiochus by offering him great conditions of peace.)

19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found. (In trying to raise the money demanded by Rome, he plundered a popular temple; the enraged worshippers then killed him, fulfilling the Prophecy, "but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found.")

20 Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle. ("Raiser of taxes," referred to Seleucus IV mainly engaged in raising money to satisfy the Roman tribute. Concerning "the glory of the kingdom," this speaks of him sending Heliodorus into Judah to plunder the temple. On his return, Heliodorus poisoned him, and thus he died "neither in anger nor in battle," fulfilling that Prophecy.)

PERSECUTION OF ISRAEL BY ANTIOCHUS EPIPHANES

21 And in his estate shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries. ("In his estate," refers to the kingdom of Syria, including the ancient Assyria, and even the modern Armenia. The "vile person" refers to Antiochus IV, called Epiphanes, the Illustrious. Verses 21 through 34 refer to him. Antiochus Epiphanes, in his character, actions, and cruelties illustrates the closing predictions of this Chapter, but does not fulfill them. Despite the claims of some, Antiochus Epiphanes was not the Antichrist.)

22 And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflown from before him, and shall be broken; ye s, also the prince of the covenant. (The pronoun "they" refers to his opponents, who were overthrown in their attempt to take the throne. "Also the prince of the covenant," concerns the High Priest of Israel, who was deposed, with Antiochus installing Jason in his place [Judah was a small part of his kingdom].)

23 And after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people. ("He shall work deceitfully," refers to the fact that the league was broken with Jason, when he put wicked Menelaus in the office of High Priest. Menelaus offered him more money than had Jason.)

24 He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yes, and he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

[25] And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him. ("And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south," refers to his making war on Egypt and being victorious. He had himself crowned king of Egypt.)

[26] Yes, they who feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain. (The amazing detail of these Prophecies actually staggers the imagination! Only God could forecast, and in such detail, the actual events, which would take place concerning great nations, kings, and mighty armies, with every detail coming to pass exactly as predicted.)

[27] And both of these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed. (The two kings spoken of here are Antiochus Epiphanes of Syria and Ptolemy Philometor of Egypt. "For yet the end shall be at the time appointed," means that it was not God's Will that Antiochus Epiphanes take Egypt at this time. That would come later, at least after a fashion.)

[28] Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the Holy Covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land. ("And his heart shall be against the Holy Covenant," pertains to him turning against the Jews, because he heard there had been rejoicing in Jerusalem, because they thought he had been killed. This angered him greatly and he made the decision to break his Covenant with Judah.)

[29] At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter. (The phrase, "At the time appointed he shall return," has to do with the latter portion of Verse 27, which now has come of time. He will take a second expedition into Egypt, but will not be as successful as before!)

30 For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the Holy Covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them who forsake the Holy Covenant. ("For the ships of Chittim shall come against him," refers to the coming of the Romans demanding his discontinuance of his war on Egypt. "Therefore he shall be grieved, and return," specifies the reason for the grief, as he was within seven miles of Alexandria, the great city of Egypt. He then turned against Jerusalem, killing some 40,000 Jews and selling many as slaves.

"And have intelligence with them who forsake the Holy Covenant," refers to the apostate Jews who helped him pollute the Temple and place within it "the abomination of desolation," which was a sow on the Temple Altar, as well as doing away with Temple Sacrifices.)

31 And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the Sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that makes desolate. ("And arms shall stand on his part," refers to him having military power to take Jerusalem and to carry out his will. "And shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that makes desolate," refers to the offering up of a sow, as mentioned, on the Altar, thereby greatly polluting it, as would be obvious.)

32 And such as do wickedly against the Covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits. ("And such as do wickedly against the Covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries," refers to his old method of deceit, and some Jews being led into apostasy, thereby helping him because he flattered them. The latter phrase refers to the Jews under the Maccabees.)

33 And they who understand among the p eople shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity and by spoil, many days. (This proclaims the constant struggle by God's People from Daniel's day forward to the birth of Christ. As we have attempted to outline, especially the activity of the Maccabees, their situation, at times, was perilous.

"And they who understand among the people shall instruct many," refers to a terrible spiritual drought from Malachi's time to John the Baptist, when Israel, for some 400 years, would not hear the voice of a Prophet. However, there would be some, although not of prophetical status, who would labor faithfully, attempting to get the people to obey the Law of Moses.)

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries. ("Now when they shall fall," refers to many Jews falling by the sword in the many conflicts that took place. The phrase, "But many shall cleave to them with flatteries," refers to an inducement to apostatize regarding the Jews who faithfully followed the Lord. Satan has two weapons against faithfulness to Truth; one is violence, the other is flattery.)

WARS BETWEEN SYRIA AND EGYPT IN THE LAST DAYS

35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed. (With this Verse begins the account of the Endtime, which will continue through the Twelfth Chapter. Therefore, the entirety of the time, now totaling nearly 2,000 years, is omitted in Scripture, which includes the entirety of the Church Age, because Gabriel told Daniel, "These Prophecies only pertain to 'your people,' and more particularly, 'in the latter days'" [10:14].)

36 And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak mar velous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done. ("And the king shall do according to his will," refers to the Antichrist, who will pretty much have his way until the Second Advent of Christ. "And magnify himself above every god," actually refers to him deifying himself [II Thess. 2:4]. At this time, and according to 9:27, he will take over the newly-built Temple in Jerusalem, do away with the Jewish Sacrifices which have not long since begun, and will set up an image of himself [Rev. 13:15].

"And shall speak marvelous things against the God of gods," means that he will literally declare war on Christ. His campaign of declaring himself "god" will, of necessity, demand that he blaspheme the True God as no one has ever blasphemed.

"And shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished," means that much of the world will accept his claims, joining with him in their hatred of the God of the Bible.)

37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all. ("Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers," no doubt, refers to him being a Jew. He will not regard the God of "Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob."

"Nor the desire of women," probably refers to him turning against the Catholic Church and, thereby, the Virgin Mary.

"Nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all," refers to all the religions of the world, all of which will be outlawed, at least where he has control, demanding that worship be centered upon him.)

38 But in his estate shall he honour the god of forces; and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. ("And a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour," refers to a "strange god" mentioned in the next Verse, who is actually the Fallen Angel who empowered Alexander the Great. He is called "the Prince of Grecia," which does not refer to a mortal, but instead a Fallen Angel [10:20]. This "god," his fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob did not know.)

39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain. ("Thus shall he do in the most strong holds," refers to the great financial centers of the world, which will be characterized by rebuilt Babylon. This "strange god," as stated, is a Fallen Angel; therefore, he will probably think he is giving praise and glory to himself, when in reality he is actually honoring this "Fallen Angel."

"And he shall cause them to rule over many," refers to the many nations he will conquer because of the great power given to him by this Fallen Angel, instigated by Satan.)

THE KING OF THE NORTH (SYRIA) ANTICHRIST VICTORIOUS OVER KING OF THE SOUTH (EGYPT); THE EIGHTH EMPIRE, REVIVED GREECE, FORMED IN MIDDLE OF DANIEL'S SEVENTIETH WEEK

40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south (Egypt) push at him: and the king of the north (the Antichrist, Syria) shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over. (The phrase, "And at the time of the end," refers to the time of the fulfillment of these Prophecies, which in fact is just ahead. It is known that "the king of the south" refers to Egypt, because that's who is referred to at the beginning of this Chapter, which spoke of the breakup of the Grecian Empire. As well, "the king of the north" proves that the Antichrist will come from the Syrian division of the breakup of the Grecian Empire. So the Antichrist will more than likely be a Syrian Jew.)

41 He shall enter also into the glorious land (into Israel), and many countries shall be overthrown (those in the Middle East): but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. (Edom, Moab, and Ammon comprise modern Jordan. His entering into the "glorious land" refers to his invasion of Israel at the midpoint of his seven-year nonaggression pact with them, therefore, breaking his covenant [9:27].

The countries listed comprise modern Jordan, where ancient Petra is located, to which Israel will flee upon the Antichrist "entering into the Glorious Land" [Rev. 12:6].)

42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape. ("Egypt" refers to "the king of the south" of Verse 40, as stated.)

43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps. (The "precious things of Egypt" no doubt refer to the ancient mysteries of Egypt, regarding the tombs, the pyramids, etc. He will no doubt claim to unlock many of these mysteries; he very well could do so, regarding the supernatural power given to him by the powers of darkness.)

ADVERSARIES TO THE NORTH AND EAST

44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many. (After the Antichrist breaks his covenant with Israel, actually "entering into the Glorious Land," he will be prevented from further destroying her by the "tidings of the east and out of the north" that "shall trouble him." No doubt, these will be nations, probably led by Russia [north], Japan, and China [east], forming a union against him, but which will have no success.)

KING OF THE NORTH (SYRIA) ANTICHRIST SETS HIS THRONE IN THE TEMPLE IN JERUSALEM

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious Holy Mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him. ("And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace," refers to him. taking over the newly-built Temple and stopping the Sacrifices, as prophesied in 8:9-12.

The phrase, "Between the seas in the glorious Holy Mountain," refers to the Dead Sea and the Mediterranean Sea. The "glorious Holy Mountain" is Mount Moriah, where the Temple is located.

"Yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him," is tied to the first part of this Verse, which speaks of him desecrating the Temple. This ensures his destruction by the Lord, which will take place at the Second Coming.)

CHAPTER 12

THE GREAT TRIBULATION

[1] And at that time shall Michael stand up, the Great Prince which stands for the children of your people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who shall be found written in the Book. ("Michael" is the great "Archangel"; he is also referred to as "the Great Prince." He is the Lord Protector of Israel, "which stands for the children of your people." If not for him, Israel would no doubt be annihilated at this time.

"A time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time," is the same thing Jesus would say, and concerns the last three and a half years of the Great Tribulation [Mat. 24:21].

"And at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who shall be found written in the Book," refers to the translation of the 144,000 Jews at approximately the middle of the Great Tribulation. This is the "man child" of Rev. 12:5.

Exactly how these 144,000 Jews will find Christ as their Saviour, especially during the first half of the Great Tribulation when Israel in fact will think the Antichrist is the Messiah, is unknown at present; however, if the Bible says it will happen [which it definitely does], then it will happen!

There is no mention here of the Church except possibly in Verse 3. The reason is simple: these Prophecies have to do with "your people" [10:14].

The "Book" spoken of is the Book of Life [Rev. 22:18-19].)

THE RESURRECTIONS

2 And many of them who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to Everlasting Life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. (There are two Resurrections pointed to in this Verse. These are separated by a long period of a thousand years [Rev. 20:3, 5-6; Jn. 5:28]. Those who will be resurrected to "Everlasting Life" speak of the First Resurrection, which pertains to every Believer who has ever lived from the time of Abel forward. This is when the Church, so to speak, will be raptured [I Thess. 4:13-18].

The Second Resurrection, which is the Resurrection of Damnation, will take place at approximately a thousand years after the First Resurrection, actually at the end of the Millennium. It will include all the wicked who have died from the very beginning. This will be the time of the Great White Throne Judgment [Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15].)

REWARDS FOR THE RIGHTEOUS

3 And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. (The "wise" are they who live for God and do everything they can to take the Gospel to others.)

SEALING THE PROPHECIES FOR FUTURE FULFILLMENT

4 But you, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the Book even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased. ("But you, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the Book," means that Daniel has been given the entire blueprint concerning the fate of Israel, and nothing else is to be said. The phrase, "Even to the time of the end," has reference to the fact that the Prophecies recently given by Daniel have reference to the Endtime.

"Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased," refers to the tremendous increase in technology, which made its great debut at the beginning of the Twentieth Century. It also refers to knowledge of the Word of God being greatly increased in these last days, especially knowledge concerning Bible Prophecy.)

5 Then I Daniel looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river. (Daniel is speaking of the River "Hiddekel," i.e. the Tigris, which is close to the Euphrates. The "other two" spoken of here probably refer to Angels, with no identification given.)

6 And one said to the Man clothed in linen, Who was upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders? ("The Man clothed in linen," no doubt, refers to the same One described in 10:5-6. He is Christ. The phrase, "Who was upon the waters of the river," actually says, "Who was above the waters of the river," meaning that Christ, seemingly, was suspended in mid-air, immediately above the river.)

7 And I heard the Man clothed in linen, Who was upon the waters of the river, when He held up His Right Hand and His Left Hand unto Heaven, and swore by Him Who lives forever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he (the Antichrist) shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. (The "swearing" of this "Man" proves Him to be a Divine Person, for not one time in Scripture does an ordinary Angel make an oath to God or man.

"That it shall be for a time, times, and an half," refers to three and a half years. This is the last half of the Great Tribulation, when tremendous persecution will be brought to bear upon Israel by the Antichrist. Therefore, the Lord Himself gives the time that these things will happen.

"And when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people," refers to the Antichrist attempting to destroy Israel, but in fact only scattering them.)

8 And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?

9 And He said, Go your way, Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end. (This Verse declares that these Prophecies belong to the future. However, "the time of the end" is now very close!

The word "end" does not mean the end of the world, but instead "the end of these things," i.e., the Prophecies concerning Israel and the last days.)

10 Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand. ("Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried," could refer to the Church, but could also refer to the 144,000 Jews who will come to Christ during the first half of the Great Tribulation.

"None of the wicked shall understand," refers to the world not at all understanding the Vision or even caring about it.

"But the wise shall understand," refers to the few who truly know the Lord and who avidly search the Scriptures, believing them to be the very Word of God.)

11 And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away *(at the midpoint of the Great Tribulation), and the abomination that makes desolate set up *(refers back to 8:9-12), there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

12 Blessed is he who waits, and comes to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days. (This is forty-five days more than the number of days given in Verse 11, and seventy-five more days than given in Verse 7. Why the extra forty-five days over Verse 11? First, we know that those who come to this time will be "blessed." This has to do with the beginning of the Kingdom Age and the events carried out to establish the beginning of the Kingdom.)

13 But go You your way till the end be: for you shall rest, and stand in your lot at the end of the days. ("But go You your way till the end be," refers to Daniel dying and then being a part of the First Resurrection of Life. Until that time, Christ said, "you shall rest."

The phrase, "And stand in your lot at the end of the days," refers to Daniel having a part in the glorious things that will take place after the Second Coming.)

INTRODUCTION: AUTHOR AND BACKGROUND

[1] The Word of the LORD that came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel. (The name "Hosea" means "Salvation." He was a contemporary of Isaiah. "In the days...," refers to four kings of Judah, "Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah." One "king of Israel," the Northern Kingdom, is mentioned, "Jeroboam." Hosea's ministry began when he was a young man, while "Uzziah" was on the Throne of Judah and "Jeroboam II" was on the Throne of Israel.)

HOSEA'S MARRIAGE WITH GOMER, A PROSTITUTE; BIRTH OF JEZREEL: MEANING

[2] The beginning of the Word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, Go, take unto you a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms: for the land has committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD. ("Go, take unto you a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms," actually means "children of idolatry." The Nation of Israel, constituting the Northern Kingdom, is appealed to under the figure of an unfaithful wife, because of its devotion to idols and forsaking of Jehovah.)

[3] So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bore him a son. (There is some evidence that "Gomer" was the name of a harlot well known at that particular time. If so, the shame heaped upon Hosea would have been multi-fold.)

[4] And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel. (The name

"Jezreel" means, "God will scatter or sow." This was Hosea's first son.

The phrase, "And I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu," has reference to the commission given to Jehu by the Lord, in carrying out God's Judgment upon the house of Ahab. However, Jehu carried this commission too far, exacting greater Judgment than the Lord intended. And then, above all, he went into the same sins for which the Lord had judged Ahab [II Ki. 10:31-36].

"And will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel," signals the beginning of the end for the Northern Kingdom of Israel, even though it would take some seventy years for it to be brought to a total consummation.)

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel. (The sign of the coming fall of this kingdom was the breaking of the "bow," because the Northern Kingdom of Israel was famous for its use of the bow.)

THE BIRTH OF LO-RUHAMAH: MEANING

6 And she conceived again, and bore a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name Lo-ruhamah: for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; but I will utterly take them away. ("Lo-ruhamah" means "not pitied." Because of Israel going into total idolatry and refusing to repent, even though great Prophets were sent unto them, the Northern Kingdom would be destroyed as a nation, never to rise again, at least in that capacity.)

7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen. (About 200 years before, ten Tribes had broken away and continued to refer to themselves as "Israel." The larger Tribe of Judah remained, and referred to itself as "Judah," with the Tribe of Benjamin throwing in their lot with Judah [II Chron. 10:12-19]. Even though the Lord here pronounces judgment upon the Northern Kingdom of Israel, He says here that the Southern Kingdom of Judah will be spared.

He is referring here to the deliverance from Sennacherib in the days of Hezekiah, when in one night the Angel of the Lord smote 185,000 of the flower of the Assyrian host [II Ki., Chpt. 19; Isa., Chpt. 37]. Still, its total fulfillment belongs to the future [II Thess., Chpt. 2].)

THE BIRTH OF LO-AMMI: MEANING

8 Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bore a son. (Even though it would be about 70 years before the fall of Israel, still, the children are born in quick succession, proclaiming the finality of the Judgment of God.

As the three deportations would in later years be a warning to Judah, likewise, the births of these three children are warnings to Israel; however, whereas the deportations were some years apart, the births of these children were in quick succession, denoting the absence of any Spiritual Quality.)

9 Then said God, Call his name Lo-ammi: for you are not My People, and I will not be your God. ("Lo-ammi" means "not My People." As stated, the Prophet's children symbolized, step by step, Israel's fast coming calamity. There will be no reprieve, because there will be no Repentance.)

FUTURE REGATHERING OF ISRAEL

10 Yet the number of the Children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, You are not My People, there it shall be said unto them, You are the sons of the Living God. (There is no contradiction between Verses 9 and 10. Even though the Northern Kingdom of Israel was totally destroyed as a nation, and in fact will never, as such, rise again, still, "the Children of Israel" were not destroyed, and, in truth, will be, in a future happy day, completely restored. Consequently, this Passage and Verse 11 have to do with the coming Kingdom Age.)

11 Then shall the Children of Judah and the Children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel. (The restoration under Zerubbabel did not satisfy the prediction of Verses 10 or 11, for it was very small, and did not secure national independence. However, the future will satisfy the Prophecy, for then will God "sow" the Hebrew people unto Himself in Righteousness. As stated, it will be in the coming Kingdom Age, when, at the beginning of it, Israel will accept Christ.)

CHAPTER 2

GOMER, A PICTURE OF ISRAEL; GOD'S LOVE FOR HIS UNFAITHFUL PEOPLE

[1] Say you unto your brethren, Ammi; and to your sisters, Ruhamah. (These words are addressed to a small company of true Believers, which was then ensconced in backslidden Israel, and which the Lord has in all ages, and which is here distinguished by the affectionate titles of "My People" [Ammi] and "the engraced" [Ruhamah].)

[2] Plead with your mother, plead: for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts ("Plead with your mother, plead," speaks of the whole people of Israel taken together as a national unit. The "pleading" to Israel is to be done by those who still love and serve their Lord. In effect, they were to act as Evangelists.

"For she is not my wife, neither am I her husband," in its strict sense, refers to Gomer, who had left Hosea, even after bearing him three children, going back out into the world of sin and iniquity. As Gomer left Hosea for whoredoms, likewise, Israel had left God for whoredoms. So the marriage in both cases was dissolved);

[3] Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst. (The first phrase refers to the fact that Gomer, rather than gaining prosperity, was instead reduced to abject poverty, as future Verses will portray.)

[4] And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms. (The nation as a whole with its body politic is spoken of as the parent. Its citizenry is spoken of as the "children." The children proved themselves to be no better than the mother who bore them; they were the worthless progeny of a worthless parent.)

5 For their mother has played the harlot: she who conceived them has done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, who give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink. (Likewise, Israel, of which Gomer was a symbol, ran after her "lovers," who were the Assyrians and the Egyptians. As a result, Israel worshipped the idols of these heathen nations, and also ascribed her blessings as not from Jehovah, but from these idol gods.)

6 Therefore, behold, I will hedge up your way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths. (Both Gomer and Israel had avowed their determination to pursue their evil course shamefully and sinfully, as if in despite and defiance of the Almighty; consequently, the Lord affirms His Determination to thwart their course of sin and shame.)

7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now. (Partially so, regarding Israel, of which Gomer was a type, this Scripture was fulfilled about 200 years later, with some of Israel returning with Judah from Babylonian captivity; however, it was only a partial fulfillment. The total fulfillment awaits the Second Coming of the Lord.)

8 For she did not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Baal. ("For she did not know that I gave...," portrays an unnecessary Spiritual ignorance. Israel forgot that the great Blessings she was showered with came from Jehovah. She claimed them as hers, and as having been given to her by her idols. But God said that He gave them to her, that they were His, and that He would now take them back.)

9 Therefore will I return, and take away My Corn in the time thereof, and My Wine in the season thereof, and will recover My Wool and My Flax given to cover her nakedness. (The action here is one of chastisement and, therefore, of love, for the Lord "chastises those He loves" [Heb. 12:5-

10 And now will I discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of My Hand. (Israel would find that none of her idols could deliver her from the Assyrians, which would take her captive.)

11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts. (As Israel had said by her actions that she did not desire these things, which in truth were the cause of her blessings, the Lord in turn would remove her to where there would be no opportunity to partake of these Ordinances.)

12 And I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, whereof she has said, These are my rewards that my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them. (As Israel had forgotten Who truly was the Source of her prosperity, even attributing such to idols, the Lord would take away their prosperity. Then she would be made to see as to exactly Who had been her Benefactor. It definitely was not her idols.)

13 And I will visit upon her the days of Baalim, wherein she burned incense to them, and she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgot Me, says the LORD. ("And I will visit upon her the days of Baalim," simply means "I will punish them for serving Baal." The name of "Baal" came to be used generally as the designation of any idol or false god; consequently, the "days of Baal" were the days consecrated to Baal, and on which the worship of the True God was transferred to that idol.)

ISRAEL IS RESTORED

14 Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her. (The balance of the Verses of this Chapter predict the restoration of Israel under the Covenant of Grace as opposed to that of Law. The nation is pictured as a faithless and debauched wife betrothed as a spotless bride to Immanuel. This impossibility will be effected by the miracle of the New Birth. The old impure Israel will die and a pure virgin will appear as the new nation. As stated, this will take place at the beginning of the coming Kingdom Age.)

15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt. ("And I will give her her vineyards from thence," signifies that the way to the "vineyards" is through the wilderness. Spiritual discipline precedes blessing and fits it for joy. Hence, the words "from thence."

"And the valley of Achor for a door of hope," signals back to a vale of horror as described in Josh. 7:24, but which is to become for Israel "a door of hope."

The Truth is presented here by the Holy Spirit that where the Wrath of God justly fell, the Grace of God is to brightly shine. The valley of horror becomes the vale of hope. Such was Calvary — a place of horror to the Suffering Saviour under the Wrath of God, but a door of hope to the redeemed sinner under the Grace of God.

Thus, this "valley of Achor" proclaims to the Believer who has suffered defeat that the very area of such defeat can become their area of victory.)

16 And it shall be at that day, sa ys the LORD, that you shall call Me Ishi; and shall call Me no more Baali. (The word "Ishi" means "my Husband," while the word "Baali" means "my Lord." In other words, Israel will no more refer to Baal as her Lord, but will rightly serve Jehovah.)

17 For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name. (The names of Baal shall become so abhorrent to blood-washed Israel that they shall pass away at once from their mouths and from their memories, never more to be mentioned and never more to be remembered.)

18 And in that day will I make a Covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the Earth, and will make them to lie down safely. ("And in that day will I make a Covenant for them," refers to the New Covenant, which Israel will accept immediately after the Second Coming. At that time, there will be no more war, which speaks to the universal safety of not only Israel, but of the entirety of the world.)

[19] And I will betroth you unto Me forever; yes, I will betroth you unto Me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies. (This betrothal between the Lord and Israel will take place immediately after the Second Coming of Christ. Israel will then accept Him, not only as Saviour, but also as Messiah and Lord.)

[20] I will even betroth you unto Me in faithfulness: and you shall know the LORD. ("You shall know the LORD," means that all evils come from not knowing Him [Isa. 1:3; Lk. 19:42, 44].)

[21] And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, sa ys the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the Earth (this speaks of the "Earth that shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea" [Isa. 11:9]);

[22] And the Earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jezreel. (Whereas the name "Jezreel" pertained to judgment when originally given, now it refers to the very opposite. Whereas the Lord scattered and sowed Israel in heathen lands, now He scatters and sows them in the Land of Israel proper, and in prosperity. In other words, the blessing of Israel will be the blessing of the entirety of the world, and the world will also realize that!)

[23] And I will sow her unto Me in the Earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not My People, You are My people; and they shall say, You are my God. (Israel was Lo-ruhamah and Lo-ammi, meaning "no more mercy" and "not My People." Now, Israel will become "Ruhamah," i.e., "pitied one," and "Ammi," i.e., "My People."

"And I will say to them which were not My people, You are My People," is quoted in Rom. 9:25. It refers in that case to the Gentiles, as an illustration of what may be true in their case as well as in Israel's.)

HOSEA AND THE ADULTERESS

[1] Then said the LORD unto me, Go yet, love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD toward the Children of Israel, who look to other gods, and love flagons of wine. (The phrase, "Then said the LORD unto me," signals another step that is to be taken by the Prophet, this one perhaps even more severe than the first. The short phrase, "Go yet," means that the Lord is not through with His object lesson concerning Israel. That which will now be portrayed, even though painfully executed, will nevertheless portray the Love of God in a fashion that nothing else could.

The Command of the Lord to Hosea is to "love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress." The idea of the entirety of this scenario is that Gomer, who was an adulteress, and which symbolized the idolatry of Israel, proved faithless to the Prophet and fell into degraded bondage. Nevertheless, Hosea was commanded still to love her, to redeem her from slavery, to remain faithful to her for a lengthened period, and then to fully restore her.

The phrase, "Beloved of her friend," is striking indeed! It means that Gomer was loved by Hosea, but she had forfeited by her misconduct the right to use the honorable words of "wife" and "husband." Therefore, the word "friend" instead would be used, because she was "yet an adulteress.")

[2] So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and for an homer of barley, and an half homer of barley (the redemption price of a slave was thirty pieces of silver [Ex. 21:32] and so much barley. Fifteen pieces of silver and so little barley marked the worthlessness of this slave. No one can fully understand the pain and suffering evidenced in the words, "So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver." Gomer was now used up, therefore, wanted and desired by no one!

One can only guess at the hurt that filled Hosea's heart as he stood before Gomer. She was no doubt dressed in rags and had been reduced by abuse to less than a slave. She must have reasoned, "How could he love me after all this?"

He could do so, because, about 800 years later, One would hang on a Cross, Who had also been sold for thirty pieces of silver, the price of a slave. That One took her place of suffering that she might take His Place of Glory.

And thus it is with us all!):

3 And I said unto her, You shall abide for me many days; you shall not play the harlot, and you shall not be for another man: so will I also be for you. (The idea is: Gomer had left Hosea for "many days" and had now come back to him, even though in a deplorable condition; now she would be his wife again. This symbolizes Israel, who will come to Christ at the Second Coming. She will then call Him "Ishi," i.e., "my Husband"; and she will never again "play the harlot.")

4 For the Children of Israel shall abide many days without a King, and without a Prince, and without a Sacrifice, and without an Image, and without an Ephod, and without Teraphim (Gomer leaving Hosea and going back into whoredoms typify Israel leaving the Lord, which has now lasted for nearly 2,000 years, i.e., "many days"):

ISRAEL TO BE RESTORED UNDER THE MESSIAH

5 Afterward shall the Children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and His Goodness in the latter days. (While Verse 4 is in the state of fulfillment, Verse 5 remains to be fulfilled. The words, "His Goodness," should be translated "His Gracious One," that is, the Messiah [14:2; Eph. 1:6].

The phrase, "Latter days," refers to the coming Kingdom Age.)

CHAPTER 4

GOD'S INDICTMENT OF ISRAEL

[1] Hear the Word of the LORD, you Children of Israel: for the LORD has a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land. (All of this Chapter, except Verse 15, is addressed to the Ten Tribes; and yet Grace calls them "My People" [Vss. 6, 8]. The phrase, "For the LORD has a controversy with the inhabitants of the land," is a strong statement indeed! It refers to a judicial inquiry and cause.)

[2] By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood touches blood. ("They break out," speaks of the terrible sins mentioned and presents the allusion of water overflowing its banks and spreading in all directions. It means to "break through the wall.")

JUDGMENT ON ISRAEL

[3] Therefore shall the land mourn, and everyone who dwells therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yes, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away. ("Therefore shall the land mourn," is the result of the sins of Verse 2, for the evils detailed result from not knowing God. The phrases concerning the "Beasts of the field," "Fowls of heaven," and "Fishes of the sea" specify that all of Creation, animate and inanimate, suffer as a result of man's sin [Rom. 8:22].)

[4] Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for your people are as they who strive with the Priest. (This refers back to the true position of the High Priest in Israel, whose word was Law; consequently, there was no point in striving with him. Consequently, it is also useless concerning the coming Judgment.

"Nor reprove another," refers to further admonishment as being hopeless!)

5 Therefore shall you fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with you in the night, and I will destroy your mother. (The first part of this Verse has to do with both "people" and "prophet," which actually refers to false prophets, and that all would fall alike, whether day or night. The destruction of the "mother" has to do with the entirety of the nation. As a nation, they would exist no more.)

6 My People are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you, that you shall be no Priest to Me: seeing you have forgotten the Law of your God, I will also forget your children. ("My People are destroyed for lack of knowledge," is the cause of all the problems in the church, and the world, for that matter! The "knowledge" spoken of is the Bible. This "lack of knowledge" was not ignorance, but rather a willful rejection of the Law of God. They didn't know, but it was because they didn't want to know!)

7 As they were increased, so they sinned against Me: therefore will I change their glory into shame. (The "increase" speaks both numerically and economically. "Therefore will I change their glory into shame," may also read: "My glory have they changed into shame"; that is, they substituted an idol for God.)

8 They eat up the sin of My People, and they set their heart on their iniquity. ("They eat up the sin of My People," actually meant that the Priests ate the Sin Offering instead of offering it as a "Burnt Offering," as they were supposed to do.)

9 And there shall be, like people, like Priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them their doings. ("Like people, like Priests," they were one in guilt and, therefore, justly one in punishment. The word "reward" is generally used in the positive sense, but here it is used in the negative!)

10 For they shall eat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have left off to take heed to the LORD. ("They shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase," means that because of "whoredom," i.e., idolatry, the Lord will stop the numerical increase of the nation. A large population was then desired, because it represented strength. It was "because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.")

11 Whoredom and wine and new wine take away the heart. (Idol worship and its licentious rites destroy the understanding and make men insensible to their own good.)

ISRAEL'S IDOLATRY; JUDGMENT

12 My People ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declares unto them: for the spirit of whoredoms has caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God. (The phrase, "Their stocks," refers to wooden idols. "Their staff" refers to divination rods [Ezek. 21:21-22].)

13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14 I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people who do not understand shall fall. (The tops of mountains, of hills, and of houses were chosen for the worship of idols because they were nearer to the sun, moon, and stars. The wives and daughters were guilty of actual adultery, because their husbands and fathers had volunteered them to temple prostitution; consequently, the Lord, impatient with the recital of such shameful licentiousness and indignant at such presumptuous sinning, closes abruptly with the declaration of the ruin of all such offenders with the words, "the people who do not understand shall fall."

In other words, anyone who would have no more spiritual sense than this, especially those who belong to God, can expect coming Judgment.)

WARNING TO JUDAH

15 Though you, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend; and come not you unto Gilgal, neither go you up to Beth-aven, nor swear, The LORD lives. ("Though you, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend," means that Israel had passed the point of no return. Judah is advised to not follow suit. "Nor swear, The LORD lives," refers to idol worship which associated God with idols.)

16 For Israel slides back as a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place. (This Verse could read, "Israel is refractory as a refractory heifer," that is, one who throws the yoke off its neck. "Now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place," means that He will scatter them in Exile throughout the whole world of that day. They will resemble a lamb taken into a wilderness and left to range the wild and live at large, but without provision and without protection. Consequently, untended by the shepherd's watchful care, unguarded from ravening wolves or other beasts of prey, such a lamb is in a lost and perishing condition.)

17 Ephraim is joined to idols: let him alone. (Ephraim, being the dominant Tribe, gave its name, along with Israel, to the Northern Kingdom. "Joined to idols," means that he is mated or united to his idols and will not get a divorce from them.

"Let him alone," refers to the Lord ceasing any and all effort to salvage the situation; consequently, Jehovah says to the Prophet, "cease to reprove, for it is of no use.")

18 Their drink is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: her rulers with shame do love, Give you. ("Committed whoredom continually," shows that idolatry was the cause of their Spiritual condition, which would result in their destruction. "Her rulers with shame do love, Give you," pertains to the leaders of the nation, who were supposed to lead the People to Jehovah, but instead led them toward idol worship, encouraging them in this direction, with the words, "Give you," i.e., "Give you devotion to idols!")

19 The wind has bound her up in her wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices. ("The wind," i.e., the spirit of idolatry [Vs. 12], carries its devotees into bondage, and the result of their sacrifices is that they are put to shame. As a result, the "wind" will become a strong storm of Divine Wrath, which will seize on Ephraim, wrapping her up with its wings, and will carry her away.

While the time would come that she would be "ashamed because of these heathen sacrifices," still, it would be too late, for the nation by then would have been completely destroyed.)

CHAPTER 5

GOD'S DISPLEASURE WITH ISRAEL AND JUDAH

[1] Hear you this, O Priests; and hearken, you House of Israel; and give you ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because you have been a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor. (Neither the kings nor priests of the Northern Kingdom were legitimate, but they claimed to be kings and priests, and God met them on their own ground, and in Grace warned them of the judgment about to fall upon them because of the idolatry established at Mizpah and Tabor.

Instead of being safeguards of the people, as they were supposed to be, these priests and kings of the Northern Kingdom had been a snare to them.)

[2] And the revolters are profound to make slaughter, though I have been a rebuker of them all. (This Verse may be better translated, "And the apostates are deeply resolved to slaughter victims in sacrifice, but I will be a rebuker of them all." The idea of the Verse is that despite the "rebukes" of the Lord, which should have been a cause of warning, but which instead were ignored, they continued with this terrible sin of human sacrifice. God calls them "revolters"; to Him, they are "revolting.")

[3] I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from Me: for now, O Ephraim, you commit whoredom, and Israel is defiled. ("Ephraim" was the largest Tribe; consequently, the entirety of the Northern Kingdom went by that name. Similarly, Judah became the name of the Southern Kingdom, because of it being the ruling Tribe.

"Ephraim," being the largest, led the other Tribes of the Northern Kingdom into idolatry, and hence, defiled the entirety of the nation.)

4 They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD. (In these Prophecies, the term, "to know the LORD," means in Hebrew to know experientially rather than from a mere intellectual stance.

In this Verse, the evil doings are traced to an "evil spirit of whoredoms," i.e., of idolatries, which impels them blindly to not resist evil; and, at the same time, it expels the knowledge of God.

The phrase, "And they have not known the LORD," means that this generation had not known Him at all. They were actually heathen at heart.)

5 And the pride of Israel does testify to His Face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them. ("And the pride of Israel does testify to His Face," means that this pride, as all pride, was in the very Face of God, and consequently was an unending stench in His Nostrils. Now, Hosea mentions Judah, and in a negative sense.)

6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find Him; He has withdrawn Himself from them. (The idea of this Verse is that in the not-too-distant future, Israel would see the calamity of Assyria coming upon them, and would then try to bargain with God, but too late.

The "flocks" and "herds" speak of Sacrifice, but not with sincerity.

"But they shall not find Him," refers to Ephraim seeking after the Lord in all the wrong ways, as so many do presently.

"He has withdrawn Himself from them," proclaims such being done simply because the Lord had no other choice. He could not tolerate a "marriage of convenience," so to speak!)

7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD: for they have begotten strange children: now shall a month devour them with their portions. ("They have dealt treacherously against the LORD," presents the reason their sacrifices were not accepted. "For they have begotten strange children," refers to those who were not really serving God, but rather bound to their idols. "Now shall a month devour them with their portions," probably refers to Shallum reigning for only a month [II Ki. 15:13]. The "portions" refer to idols [Deut. 32:9; Isa. 57:6].)

8 Blow y ou the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: cry aloud at Beth-aven, after you, O Benjamin. (These areas seem to be the line of march of the Assyrians coming into the Northern Kingdom. Even though it would be some 50-60 years into the future, still, the Holy Spirit outlines it as if it has already happened. The Tribe of "Benjamin" is mentioned because these areas are near Israel's borders; consequently, they would be affected by this excursion.)

9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the Tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be. (The first phrase refers to Ephraim's present prosperity but that which shall surely end. "Among the Tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be," proclaims the fact that the Lord was constantly warning Israel before Judgment came, so they are without excuse.)

10 The princes of Judah were like them who remove the bound: therefore I will pour out My Wrath upon them like water. (The Princes of Judah, like those of Israel, removed "the bound," i.e., broke away from the Bible [Deut. 19:14; 27:17], just as the professing Churches do today.

The pronoun "them" actually refers to both Ephraim and Judah. Ahaz, the king of Judah, set aside the Bible and the Altar [II Ki. 16:10-18]. To forsake the Bible is to ultimately incur the Wrath of God, whether then or now!)

11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the commandment *(walked after the commandment of men rather than after the Commandment of the Lord).

12 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness. (If the Ways of the Lord are followed, it means blessing; however, if the Ways of the Lord are rejected, it means Judgment.)

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound. (The word "Judah" should be supplied before "sent to king Jareb." Jareb was king of Assyria and his name numerically spells "666." Concerning this Verse, Calvin says, "Here God declares that whatever the Israelites might seek would be in vain. 'You think,' He says, 'that you can escape My Hand by these remedies; but your folly will at length betray itself, for he will avail you nothing; that is, King Jareb will not heal you.'")

14 For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him. (If no Repentance was forthcoming, which it was not, then the pressure would become fierce, as it did!)

15 I will go and return to My Place, till they acknowledge their offence, and seek My Face: in their affliction they will seek Me early. ("I will go and return to My Place," refers to the Lord having carried out His Purpose and Design; He now withdraws His Presence and Spirit from the offending people.

The phrase, "In their affliction they will seek Me early," refers to the fact of chastisement, but does not guarantee Repentance. However, if Repentance is forthcoming, it will be because of "affliction.")

CHAPTER 6

REPENTANCE OF ISRAEL PROPHESIED FOR THE LAST DAYS

[1] Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for He has torn, and He will heal us; He has smitten, and He will bind us up. (This speaks of Israel, in the last half of the Great Tribulation, under great persecution finally turning back to the Lord. And how do we know that? We know it because Israel as a nation has never come to the Lord in the fashion represented here, but which they will do immediately before and after the Second Coming [Zech. 13:1].)

[2] After two days will He revive us: in the third day He will raise us up, and we shall live in His Sight. (This Verse could very well apply prophetically to the period of Israel's subjection, affliction, and Restoration. Her subjection has lasted 2,000 years, or nearly so [two days], and her Millennial Reign will last for 1,000 years [the third day].

The word "day" normally refers to a twenty-four hour period of time. However, it can be, and often is, used figuratively for a specified or unspecified period of time.

"In the third day He will raise us up," refers to the Second Coming of Christ, when He will deliver Israel from the Antichrist.)

[3] Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: His going forth is prepared as the morning; and He shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the Earth. ("His going forth is prepared as the morning," signals that His Second Coming is fixed as surely as the morning is eternally fixed to come at a certain time daily.

The "Latter and former rain" actually refer to two outpourings of the Spirit, the "former" pertaining to the Early Church, with the "latter" pertaining to the present time, stretching into the Millennium [Acts 2:17-21]. The "latter" is mentioned here before the "former" because Christ was rejected at His First Advent, but will be accepted by Israel at the Second Advent.)

GOD'S CASE AGAINST ISRAEL

4 O Ephraim, what shall I do unto you? O Judah, what shall I do unto you? for your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goes away. (The question, "What shall I do unto you?", refers to the Lord using every possible method to turn both kingdoms around, but to no avail. "For your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goes away," refers to a superficial religious effort, which had no substance and quickly dissipated [Mat. 13:5-6].)

5 Therefore have I hewed them by the Prophets; I have killed them by the words of My Mouth: and your judgments are as the light that goes forth. ("Therefore have I hewed them by the Prophets," is a figurative statement borrowed from the hewing of hard wood and shaping it so as to assume the required form. Despite the powerful statements by the "Prophets," which were given by the Lord, Israel was unmoved.

"I have killed them by the words of My Mouth," refers to an Anointing so powerful upon the "Prophets" that it was enough to make anyone listen, but still, to no avail!

The phrase, "And your judgments are as the light that goes forth," proclaims that Faith can always take refuge in God, Whose "Judgments" are perfect!)

6 For I desire mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than Burnt Offerings. (This Passage was quoted in part by Christ [Mat. 9:13; 12:7]. Israel tried to replace "Mercy" and "the knowledge of God" with mere ritual!)

7 But they like men have transgressed the Covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against Me. (The word "men" in the Hebrew is

"Adam" and should have been translated accordingly. "The Covenant" spoken of concerns the prohibition respecting the forbidden fruit. Adam's children, like their father, perpetually transgressed and dealt treacherously. Loss of fellowship with God and expulsion from Eden were the penal consequences that immediately followed upon Adam's transgression; likewise, the expulsion of Israel from the Promised Land.)

8 Gilead is a city of them who work iniquity, and is polluted with blood. (The area of "Gilead" consists of the east side of the Jordan. In the New Testament, it is spoken of under the name of Perea. Jeremiah would say, "Is there no balm in Gilead...?" [Jer. 8:22].)

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way by consent: for they commit lewdness. ("Gilead" was also known as "Ramoth Gilead." It had been originally chosen by the Lord as a City of Refuge. Now it was a city of workers of iniquity and the road to it was tracked with blood.

"By consent," should have been translated "Shechem," for it also was a City of Refuge. Likewise, its priests, instead of saving men, "murdered" them by making them idolaters, for they taught them to commit lewdness, i.e., to practice idol worship.)

10 I have seen an horrible thing in the House of Israel: there is the whoredom of Ephraim, Israel is defiled. (The "whoredom of Ephraim" was idol worship. God calls it "an horrible thing.")

11 Also, O Judah, He has set an harvest for you, when I returned the captivity of My People. (The idea of this Verse spans a length of time all the way to the coming Great Tribulation. That will be the "harvest of wrath," which will come upon Judah at that time. "When I return the captivity of My People," refers to Israel ultimately making her way back to God, which will take place at the Second Coming.)

CHAPTER 7

ISRAEL HAS REBELLED AGAINST GOD

[1] When I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the wickedness of Samaria: for they commit falsehood; and the thief comes in, and the troop of robbers spoils without. (The first seven Verses of this Chapter declare the inherent evil of man's heart, and the remaining Verses the weakness, folly, and rebellion which are its fruit. The phrase, "When I would have healed Israel," refers to the fact that the Lord not only wanted and desired to heal "Israel," but eagerly searched for a way to do so! However, because of their great sin, there was no way to make this rotten apple whole.

The sense of this Verse is: "When I wished to blot out the old sins of My People on account of ancient idolatry, Ephraim and Samaria discovered new idols.")

[2] And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before My Face. (Evil conceived in the heart produces manifest fruits which are seen by both God and man. "And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness," proclaims these people as placing God in a position of less than Deity. This is far more serious than meets the eye.)

[3] They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies. (Wicked kings and princes welcome religious teachers who assure them that there is no Wrath to come or Lake of Fire. These lies make glad the hearers.)

[4] They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, who ceases from raising after he has kneaded the dough, until it be leavened. ("They are all adulterers," speaks of idol worship, i.e., "spiritual adultery." This Verse in essence says, "Sin, if left unchecked, will, as leaven, corrupt the whole.")

5 In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners. (The idea is: the corruption and spiritual rot permeated the whole of Israel from the Throne to the hovel. All were leavened.)

6 For they have made ready their heart like an oven, while they lie in wait: their baker sleeps all the night; in the morning it burns as a flaming fire. (The idea of this Verse is that the heart of the people is compared to an oven, but with this difference: no baker was needed to sit up all night to keep up its temperature, for it was so enflamed with wickedness that it burned in the morning as a flaming fire. Thus, this Verse stands in relation to Verse 4.)

7 They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges; all their kings are fallen: there is none among them who calls unto Me. ("There is none among them who calls unto Me," means that amid the horrid scenes of blood and violence, of disorder and anarchy, there were none of these kings who realized the calamities of the times or recognized the cause. Consequently, there was no one to discover the remedy and apply it to the True and only Source of relief, which was the Lord.)

TRUSTING IN OTHER NATIONS

8 Ephraim, he has mixed himself among the people; Ephraim is a cake not turned. ("Ephraim, he has mixed himself among the people," refers to them adopting the idolatries of the neighboring nations in addition to their own semi-idolatry of the calves. The phrase, "Ephraim is a cake not turned," has reference to the first phrase in that it is burned on one side and raw on the other. It has insinuation of being partly a Jew and partly a Gentile, at least in actions.)

9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knows it not: yes, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knows not. (The "gray hairs" signal the end of life and the approach of death. Yet, Israel "knows it not.")

10 And the pride of Israel testifies to his face: and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek Him for all this. ("And they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek Him for all this," emphasizes their obstinate blindness and perverseness.)

11 Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart: they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria. (In effect, the Lord calls "silly" all those who refuse to seek Him, or else do so improperly.)

12 When they shall go, I will spread My Net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, as their congregation has heard. (The warnings in the Law and those given by the Prophets repeatedly declared that Judgments would fall upon the disobedient and rebellious [Lev. 26:14-39; Deut. 28:15-68; 32:15-35].)

13 Woe unto them! for they have fled from Me: destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against Me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against Me. (Spiritual declension is further marked by: 1. Turning away from the Lord; 2. Transgressing against Him; 3. Speaking lies respecting Him; and, 4. Rebellion against Him.)

14 And they have not cried unto Me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against Me. (They cried with a voice but not with the heart. It was not the soft sobbing of Repentance, but the howling with pain of a hurt beast; in other words, a ritual, or an act, if you please!)

15 Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against Me. (The Lord helped Jeroboam II to win all his victories; yet his response and that of his subjects was to imagine mischief against that Gracious God, that is, they planned and kept on practicing idolatry [II Ki. 14:24].)

16 They return, but not to the Most High: they are like a deceitful bow:

their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the land of Egypt. (“They return, but not to the Most High,” concerns them seeking help from other sources. “They are like a deceitful bow,” refers to a bow that warps so that to shoot straight is impossible. In Egypt they trusted, and by Egypt they were ridiculed because of their Fall.)

IDOLATRY OF ISRAEL

[1] Set the trumpet to your mouth. He shall come as an eagle against the House of the LORD, because they have transgressed My Covenant, and trespassed against My Law. (The one king trusted the Assyrians; the other, a "defenced city." Neither sought help from God. Thus, there is no difference between the "flesh" of an idolater and the "flesh" of a nominal Christian.

"He shall come as an eagle against the House of the LORD," refers to the Assyrian Monarch. The cause of this, as the last phrase implies, was disobedience to the Bible.)

[2] Israel shall cry unto Me, My God, we know You. (Their profession of the knowledge of God and of attachment to Him was false [Mat. 7:22; Jn. 8:54-55].)

[3] Israel has cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him. (The "good" which Israel rejected is God, the One Good; Jehovah, the Greatest Good; the Law, which was good; and also all the goodness which the Lord bestowed on such as keep His Covenant.)

[4] They have set up kings, but not by Me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off. ("Not by Me," means that these kings were not sanctioned by the Lord. As well, they took their prosperity, i.e., "the silver and the gold," and made "idols" with it.)

[5] Your calf, O Samaria, has cast you off; My Anger is kindled against them: how long will it be ere they attain to innocency? (The actual meaning of this Verse is that idol worship had been the cause of their rejection. The question, "How long will it be ere they attain to innocency?", only shows their hypocrisy.)

6 For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces. (The phrase, "For from Israel was it also," refers to the people inventing the calf. It was broken in pieces by the Assyrians and thus was demonstrated its impotency to save. Regrettably, concerning most of that presently which goes under the guise of Christianity, one also would have to say, "the workman made it," meaning, "therefore, it is not of God.")

DISPERSION OF ISRAEL; JUDGMENT

7 For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it has no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up. (The analogy drawn by the Holy Spirit is of a man attempting to sow seed in the face of a strong wind. Obviously, the seed will be blown away, with the harvest reaping only that which the "whirlwind" gives.)

8 Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel wherein is no pleasure. (The Assyrian "swallowed up" the Ten Tribes, and they have been thrown aside as a despised vessel ever since.)

HARLOTRY AND IDOLATRY

9 For they are gone up to Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim has hired lovers. ("For they are gone up to Assyria," portrays them seeking help from the very ones who would destroy them. "A wild ass alone by himself," portrays the nature of such an animal who stands alone by itself, even as stupid and stubborn as that animal is, which does so to secure its independence.

"Ephraim has hired lovers," portrays her as not even having as much sense as a stupid, wild ass. What an indictment!)

10 Yes, though they have hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall sorrow a little for the burden of the king of princes. (Assyria would demand great tribute, throwing a tremendous hardship on the people. Excavations at about the turn of the Twentieth Century at Nineveh show Menahem's name [King of Israel] as a vassal in the inscriptions.)

11 Because Ephraim has made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin. (The idea is: to him who wills to sin, God wills further sin!)

12 I have written to him the great things of My Law, but they were counted as a strange thing. (The "strange thing" was a matter with which they had no concern, speaking of the Bible. As then, so now! The Bible today is accounted as outside of and unconnected with personal, family, and political life.)

13 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of My Offerings, and eat it; but the LORD accepts them not; now will He remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: they shall return to Egypt. ("They shall return to Egypt," did not mean a literal return to Egypt, but that their captivity in Assyria would be, in its nature, as the Egyptian bondage.)

14 For Israel has forgotten his Maker, and built temples; and Judah has multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof. (The phrase, "For Israel has forgotten his Maker, and built temples," refers to Israel building shrines to idol gods on high places. As well, the phrase, "Judah has multiplied fenced cities," portrays her trusting in these "fenced cities" and not in Jehovah. The consequences would be disastrous!)

CHAPTER 9

CAPTIVITY TO EGYPT AND ASSYRIA

[1] Rejoice not, O Israel, for joy, as other people: for you have gone a whoring from your God, you have loved a reward upon every cornfloor. (Evil Menahem, now king of the Northern Kingdom, had probably made a treaty with the Assyrians, which occasioned this "joy." The Lord's admonishment, "Rejoice not, O Israel, for joy, as other people," proclaims Him being extremely agitated at this act. "As other people," proclaims Israel attempting to be like the other nations, which the Lord pointedly tells them they are not! The phrase, "For you have gone a whoring from your God," is what God calls this treaty!

"You have loved a reward upon every cornfloor," is a reference to them giving honor to their idol gods for the blessings of the harvest, and for their treaty with Assyria. Loss of fellowship with God and loss of fruitfulness for God result from the association of idols with God. When the world, which is idolatry, is permitted to share the heart with Christ, fellowship and fruit cease [Jn. 15:1-11].)

[2] The floor and the winepress shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her. (Treaties were made in order to secure the future. In essence, the Lord is saying that instead of Israel making her future secure by making this treaty, she actually has guaranteed the insecurity of her future. To be sure, all such compromises, whether then or now, lead to the same conclusion. The bountiful harvest expected from their idols failed of realization.)

[3] They shall not dwell in the LORD's land; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat unclean things in Assyria. ("They shall not dwell in the LORD's land," is emphatic! In other words, this alliance, which they had made to secure the land of Israel, would now be the occasion of casting them out of the land. The effect of the Verse is that they should have made an alliance with the Lord instead.

"But Ephraim shall return to Egypt," did not refer to an actual sojourn into Egypt, but that, spiritually speaking, Israel had returned to the bondage of Egypt [II Pet. 2:22]. "And they shall eat unclean things in Assyria," implies the coming captivity to Assyria [II Ki., Chpt. 17; Ezek. 4:13].)

4 They shall not offer wine offerings to the LORD, neither shall they be pleasing unto Him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all who eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the House of the LORD. (Worship in imitation of the Levitical model was observed, but was disowned by God and declared by Him to be polluted.)

5 What will you do in the solemn day, and in the day of the Feast of the LORD? (The idea of this Verse is: the time would shortly come, which it did, that they, held captive in a strange land, would strongly desire to keep the "Feasts of the LORD," but such would be impossible to do! Away in a distant foreign land, without Temple and without ritual, they would bewail the loss of their annual celebrations, their national festivals, and religious solemnities.)

6 For, lo, they are gone because of destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their Tabernacles. (The answer to the question in Verse 5 is found in this Verse. It means that religious festivals would be impossible because the Land of Israel would be denuded of its inhabitants. This is evidenced in the phrase, "For, lo, they are gone because of destruction.")

7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of your iniquity, and the great hatred. ("The days of visitation are come," refers to the Wrath of God. In this Verse, the Lord calls the false prophets "fools." As well, the Lord declares "mad," i.e., spiritually insane, those who claim spirituality while at the same time worshipping idols.)

CORRUPTION OF ISRAEL

8 The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the House of his God. (The phrase, "The watchman of Ephraim was with my God," refers to what Ephraim [Israel] had been, but had now changed! In the days of Joshua, Israel was a true watchman in fellowship with Hosea's God, but she had now become a false prophet, a provocation in the house of her false god — and hence, a moral snare, with the result that she sank to the horrid depths of Gibeah in vileness, as recorded in Judg., Chpt. 19.)

9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins. (This reference to the "days of Gibeah" shows that at this time the Book of Judges was well known to all the people. The historical event here alluded to was the abominable and infamous treatment of the Levite's concubine by the men of Gibeah. This was the foulest blot on Israel's history during all the rule of the Judges.)

10 I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the firstripe in the fig tree at her first time: but they went to Baal-peor, and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved. (Grapes in the wilderness and first-ripe figs are most refreshing and delicious to the traveler. Such was Israel to God at the first; but they went away from Him and served Baal-peor [Num., Chpt. 25; Deut., Chpt. 4] and consecrated themselves unto that shameful worship, prostitution being its highest religious action. Its moral result was that the worshippers became as abominable as the object of their worship.)

CALAMITY OF EPHRAIM

11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception. (This Verse predicts the complete destruction of Ephraim and their dispersion among the nations.)

[12] Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yes, woe also to them when I depart from them! (The thrust of this Verse is that God would continue to deal with Israel, even in Judgment, attempting to bring them back to Himself; however, the day would come that upon continued rebellion, He would be forced to say to them, according to the name of Hosea's third child, "Lo-ammi," i.e., "not My people.")

[13] Ephraim, as I saw Tyrus, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer. ("Tyre" was also beautifully situated, as was Ephraim at the beginning; but now her fruitful birthrate only provided victims for the murderer, i.e., Assyria.)

[14] Give them, O LORD: what will you give? give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts. (The prayer of this Verse is a prayer of compassion. Of two evils, the Prophet chooses the lesser. Better to be childless than to provide children for the murderer.)

[15] All their wickedness is in Gilgal: for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of My House, I will love them no more: all their princes are revolters. ("In Gilgal" they dethroned Immanuel [I Sam. 8:7; 11:14-15], and later they enthroned the golden calf under Jeroboam. Hence, the expression, "all their wickedness," i.e., their chief guilt, was found there. "For the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of My House," portrays an outraged husband who has entered into divorce and has put his guilty wife outside the house. God is Love, and He must, of necessity, hate evil and judge it. His Righteousness demands no less!

"I will love them no more," does not mean that He doesn't love them now, but that if they continue on their present course, His Love and Protection will be withdrawn. The actual meaning is that love cannot be forever expressed to someone who will not return the love.)

16 Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit: yes, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb. (Without the Love of God, "Ephraim is smitten." Even though they did not know it, their sustenance, blessing, glory, strength, and power existed totally in Jehovah. Without Him, "their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit.")

17 My God will cast them away, because they did not hearken unto Him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations. ("My God will cast them away," refutes the unscriptural doctrine of Unconditional Eternal Security. History records the fulfillment of the prediction, "and they shall be wanderers among the nations." In 1948, after nearly 2,000 years of "wanderings," Israel once again became a nation, which again strains toward the fulfillment of Prophecy regarding their Restoration, which will take place at the Second Coming.)

CHAPTER 10

ISRAEL'S IDOL ALTARS WILL CRUMBLE

[1] Israel is an empty vine, he brings forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he has increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly images. ("Israel is an empty vine," meant that it was abundant in leaves, but had no "fruit." And what little "fruit" that was brought forth was not unto God, but "unto himself." The fruit that was brought forth was not used for the Lord, but only to "increase the altars," i.e., altars to idol gods.)

[2] Their heart is divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall break down their altars, he shall spoil their images. (The phrase, "Their heart is divided," proclaims the fact that this was the source of their evil. Their heart was divided, so they halted between two opinions — between the worship of Jehovah and the worship of idolatry.)

[3] For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us? (The natural heart, due to the Fall, is opposed to God. It sets up in self-will a king, declaring him to be a necessity, but, when God removes him in Wrath, they at once say, "We can do very well without him; what use is he?"

In sin, all Israel had asked for a king, when the Lord was their King; in sin, Ephraim had made Jeroboam king; in sin, their subsequent kings were made without the counsel and advice of God; now, at the close of all, they reflect how fruitless it all was.)

[4] They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springs up as hemlock in the furrows of the field. (Israel swore allegiance to the Assyrian Monarch and, at the same time, made a treaty with the king of Egypt. Therefore, Divine Wrath would cover the whole

Land as the common weeds springing up in the furrow.)

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the priests thereof who rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it. ("The calves of Beth-aven refer to the golden calf of Bethel. "The people therefore shall mourn over it," refers to the people of Israel now being called the people of the calf, as they once had been called the People of Jehovah. They had chosen the calf for their god. Now they mourn for their idol, which can neither help itself nor them.)

6 It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel. ("King Jareb" is Shalmaneser. The phrase, "It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present," refers to the calf, the national god of Israel.

"His own counsel," refers back approximately 175 years to the first king of the Northern Kingdom, Jeroboam, who set up the golden calf [I Ki. 12:28]. He thought this was a very clever stroke of policy, which would keep the people of Israel from going down to Jerusalem to worship at the true Temple of the Lord. His "counsel" led to the destruction of Israel.)

7 As for Samaria, her king is cut off as the foam upon the water. (Such was the king of Samaria, sometimes called Israel and sometimes called Ephraim, because the position was not God-ordained, but was rather a position that was man-made.)

8 The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us. ("The high places also of Aven," pertains to Bethel. Aven means "emptiness" or "vanity." What was the House of God — Bethel — became the house of vanity, the sin of Israel. Such is corrupt Christendom at the present.

This Verse speaks of the coming day when Israel will be destroyed, which it was by the Assyrians. Consequently, thorns and thistles grew up around these heathen altars.)

ISRAEL'S FORTS WILL FALL

9 O Israel, you have sinned from the days of Gibeah: there they stood: the battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them. (The Holy Spirit uses the incident at Gibeah, which took place nearly 500 years before, and pertained to the shameful outrage committed on the Levite's concubine by the men of Gibeah. In the battle that followed over this incident, the Tribe of Benjamin was all but exterminated, with only about 600 men left alive [Judg., Chpt. 19]. Thus, the Holy Spirit is drawing a comparison in that the Ten Tribes will come close to extinction.)

10 It is in My Desire that I should chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them, when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows. (That is: both Judah and Israel would be carried into captivity and made to toil like oxen, each in his own furrow. Judah would fall about 133 years after the fall of Israel. The phraseology of this Verse expresses God's Determination to punish sin and vindicate His Justice as the infinitely Holy One.)

11 And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loves to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods. (The sense of this Verse is that inasmuch as both kingdoms [Israel and Judah] were unwilling to bear the easy yoke of their Divine Ruler, they would, therefore, be subjected to the tyrant mastery of man. Sadly, these Prophecies, as given by Hosea to both the Northern and Southern Kingdoms, would go unheeded.)

12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till He come and rain Righteousness upon you. (In the midst of the dire warnings, Grace sends a message of Mercy, which, had it been accepted, would have saved them; however, it was not accepted.

The command, "Break up your fallow ground," denotes effort that must be expended on the part of the individual. That effort is summed in the invitation to "seek the LORD"!)

JUDGMENT INEVITABLE

13 You have plowed wickedness, you have reaped iniquity; you have eaten the fruit of lies: because you did trust in your way, in the multitude of your mighty men. (Tragically, they did not "sow righteousness," but rather sowed wickedness; therefore, they reaped "iniquity" and "lies." Their inward trust was "their way," i.e., their false religion, and their outward confidence was their standing army. Both these saviours would fail them and Samaria would perish at the hand of Shalmaneser.)

14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among your people, and all your fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children. ("And all your fortresses shall be spoiled," refers to the invasion by Shalmaneser, king of Assyria, which would come in the near future. It is referred to in II Ki., Chpt. 17.

"As Shalman spoiled Beth-arbel in the day of battle," pertains to one of the previous invasions of Israel by Assyria. Actually, there were several invasions, of which the last saw their total captivity and destruction.

"The mother was dashed in pieces upon her children," portrays the ferocity of the former invasions, which should have been a warning of what would ultimately happen!)

15 So shall Beth-el do unto you because of your great wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off. (The phrase, "So shall Beth-el do unto you because of your great wickedness," refers to their idolatry, and to where it had brought them, and that the cruelties to be suffered by them were not to be chargeable to God, but rather to themselves.

The "king of Israel" was Hoshea [II Ki., Chpt. 17]. "Cut off," refers to the nation literally ceasing to be.)

CHAPTER 11

PERSISTENT REBELLION

[1] When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called My Son out of Egypt. (This Passage was quoted concerning Christ in Mat. 2:15. It properly explains how Prophecy can have a double fulfillment.

First of all, it pertains to Israel being delivered from Egyptian bondage. And then it also pertains to Christ, as a baby, being taken to Egypt by Joseph and Mary in order to escape the murderous intent of Herod. When King Herod died, which evidently was brought about shortly, an Angel then told Joseph that it would now be safe to leave Egypt and go back to Israel, which they did [Mat. 2:13-21].)

[2] As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burned incense to graven images. ("As they called them," refers to the Prophets calling Israel to Repentance. "So they went from them," pertains to Israel turning a deaf ear to those who were their truest friends and best advisors. They continued to offer sacrifices to Baal, and "burn incense to graven images.")

[3] I taught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that I healed them. (The first phrase is a picture of God's guiding and guarding care over His People, and that despite their waywardness. "They knew not that I healed them," pertains to their going astray, suffering its consequences, and then being picked up by the Lord, Who handled them tenderly and gently, healing their hurts and misdirection. However, they did not apprehend or appreciate God's gracious Design and dealings with them. To use an old adage, they "bit the hand that fed them.")

[4] I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love: and I was to them as they who take off the yoke on their jaws, and I laid meat unto them.

(The idea of the Verse is that the Lord was abundantly good to Israel, and in every way, but they still had no desire for Him.)

5 He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return. (The phrase, "He shall not return into the land of Egypt," refers to Ephraim's expectation of help from the king of Egypt, as found in II Ki. 17:4. However, that help was not forthcoming, because the Lord had decreed, "but the Assyrian shall be his king."

All of this happened because they refused to repent and "return to the Lord.")

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels. (The phrase, "Because of their own counsels," refers to their clever plan of playing off the king of Assyria against the king of Egypt. However, those "counsels" would lead to their destruction.)

7 And My People are bent to backsliding from Me: though they called them to the Most High, none at all would exalt Him. (The first phrase of this Verse is extremely expressive, with almost every word having an emphasis of its own. With all their sinfulness and shortcomings, Israel was still the People of God — "My People." Moreover, the "backsliding" was not an occasional lapse, but was their habit, their tendency.

"Though they called them to the Most High," refers to the Prophets calling Israel from their idols to Jehovah, but all to no avail. "None at all will exalt Him," refers to them refusing to abandon their idols and give allegiance to the "Most High.")

GOD STILL LOVES ISRAEL

8 How shall I give you up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver you, Israel? how shall I make you as Admah? how shall I set you as Zeboim? My Heart is turned within Me, My repentings are kindled together. (The agony of the love which pulsates in this Verse touches the heart. Admah and Zeboim were the companion cities of Sodom and Gomorrah and suffered like destruction [Gen. 14:2, 8s]. Ephraim had become so sinful that there was nothing left to do but destroy — hence, the pleadings of God for the nation to seek Him and do that which was right in His Sight.

The word "repentings," as it refers to God, which it does in this case, implies no change of purpose on the side of God, but only a change of procedure consistent with His Purpose of Everlasting Love.)

9 I will not execute the fierceness of My Anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of you: and I will not enter into the city. (Verses 9 through 11 proclaim the Second Advent of Christ, when the Lord will come from Heaven, with all the Saints, and will set up the Kingdom Age. "I will not return to destroy Ephraim," refers to the Lord's Second Coming, which will not be to destroy Ephraim, but instead to save Ephraim.

The phrase, "For I am God, and not man," refers to Him being able to see the end from the beginning.

"The Holy One in the midst of you," pertains to Israel's stupidity in not accepting such a One, Who is able to lead them, guide them, and give them protection from all their enemies. Even though He was "in the midst" of them, and not in other nations, still, they would not serve Him, heed Him, or obey Him.)

GOD WILL RESTORE ISRAEL

10 They shall walk after the LORD: He shall roar like a lion: when He shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west. (The word "west" is interesting! Of the approximate 12,000,000 Jews in the world, approximately 5,000,000 are in Israel proper, and approximately 5,000,000 are in the United States, which is "west" of Israel. These will gladly leave America in order to reside with Christ, Whom they will then recognize as their Messiah.

The word "tremble" is also interesting, in that Israel, although delirious with joy because of their great Deliverance from the Antichrist, still, will realize that the One Who has saved them is the One Whom they crucified so long ago.)

[11] They shall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, sa ys the LORD. ("And I will place them in their houses, says the LORD," refers to all the Jews, and from all over the world, being restored to the Land of Israel, and made safe and secure, i.e., "in their houses.")

SINS OF ISRAEL

[12] Ephraim compasses Me about with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet rules with God, and is faithful with the Saints. (This Prophecy contrasts Ephraim and Jacob — the former, self-reliant and trusting the kings of Assyria and Egypt; the latter [Judah], weak, dependent, and trusting Jehovah, the God of his father Isaac. So the lesson is here once more taught that God cannot give victories to the flesh, and that Jehovah's servant, Judah, is strong when he is weak [II Cor. 12:10].)

CHAPTER 12

ISRAEL'S CAPTIVITY TO ASSYRIA COMING

[1] Ephraim feeds on wind, and follows after the east wind: he daily increases lies and desolation; and they do make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil is carried into Egypt. (The first phrase refers to the treaties with the Assyrians and with the Egyptians. "Wind" is employed figuratively to denote what is empty, vain, and of no real worth or practical benefit. "He daily increases lies and desolation," refers to Israel's dependence on these foreign powers, which was based on "lies," and which resulted in "desolation."

The last phrase refers to the abundance of olive oil in the Land of Israel and the object of sending it to Egypt as a present to secure their interest and help against Assyria.)

GOD'S CASE AGAINST JUDAH (JACOB)

[2] The LORD has also a controversy with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will He recompense him. (While most of these Prophecies pertain to the Northern Kingdom of Israel, still, "Judah," the Southern Kingdom, was not without sin.

What was this controversy with Judah? It was little different than with Israel except, at least at this time, Judah had not abandoned themselves totally to sin and wickedness as their northern sister, Israel.)

[3] He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he had power with God ("He took his brother by the heel in the womb," refers to Jacob's birth. It is recorded in Gen. 25:26. "And by his strength he had power with God," refers to his wrestling with the Angel [Gen. 32:24-32].

Prevention and humiliation are both Divine instruments. Jacob was prevented by the Lord from achieving what he desired through the flesh, and was humiliated by his weakness in the coming confrontation with his brother Esau, which drove him to the Lord):

4 Yes, he had power over the Angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication unto Him: He found him (found Jacob) in Beth-el, and there He spoke with us ("Yes, he had power over the Angel, and prevailed," actually refers to Jacob wrestling with the Lord; for the Angel was God.

The short phrase, "He wept," shows brokenness and humbling before the Lord, the place to which Jehovah had been seeking to bring him all along.

"And made supplication unto Him," refers to Jacob's statement, "I will not let You go, except You bless me" [Gen. 32:26].

"He found him in Beth-el, and there He spoke with us," refers to the fact that Beth-el, now a seat of idolatry [I Ki. 12:28-33], can be made into "Beth-el," a "House of God," that is, if Israel will only repent. As Jacob found God in Beth-el, likewise, Israel can find God in Beth-el, but not in these idols!);

5 Even the LORD God of Hosts; the LORD is his memorial. ("Even the LORD God of Hosts" is declared to be the hope of Israel, as He was of Jacob. The Holy Spirit pleads with Israel, that if they will allow the Lord to be their "Memorial," as He was with Jacob, instead of foreign powers or idol gods, they too can reap the benefits given to Jacob.)

APPLICATION TO ISRAEL; HER SINS RESTATED

6 Therefore turn you to your God: keep mercy and judgment, and wait on your God continually. (The argument of this Verse is: imitate Jacob, turn to Jehovah, live uprightly, and keep trusting Him.)

7 He is a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loves to oppress. (The Hebrew word for "merchant" and "Canaanite" is the same word. With holy contempt, the Spirit of God calls here Ephraim a

"Canaanite." Self-reliant and clever, he defrauded ["oppressed"], and boastfully declared that "they," i.e., the Prophets, should find nothing wrong in his business activities, for his commercial prosperity demonstrated his honest dealing. The idea of the Verse is that Jacob was once the "deceiver" and the "oppressor," but was changed by the Power of God. Israel can be changed, as well, if only they will turn to the Lord!)

8 And Ephraim said, Yet I am become rich, I have found me out substance: in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me that were sin. ("And Ephraim said," shows a haughtiness on Ephraim's part. The very phraseology speaks of pride, hardness, and dependence on self. Ephraim equated financial prosperity with the favor of God, exactly as the modern Church. They were to find, to their dismay, that they did not have the favor of God.)

9 And I that am the LORD your God from the land of Egypt will yet make you to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feast. (The thrust of this Verse is yet future. As 11:9-11 spoke of the coming Kingdom Age, likewise, this Verse also does!)

10 I have also spoken by the Prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, by the ministry of the Prophets. (The three modes of Divine Communication referred to here are: "prediction [Prophets], vision, and similitude." "Similitudes" refer to illustrations, such as Hosea's marriage to Gomer and the birth of their three children, etc. Thus, God left no means of admonishing them untried.)

11 Is there iniquity in Gilead? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in Gilgal; yes, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields. (Gilead and Gilgal had become wholly idolatrous, and the idol altars were as numerous as the heaps of stones and the furrows of the fields. In stony agricultural countries, such heaps are numberless.)

12 And Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep. (The lowest form of servitude in the east is that of a shepherd. This is the fourth reference to Jacob and completes the argument that weakness wins victories. As an infant, his feeble hand won the Birthright; as a penniless vagabond, he won the Kingdom; as a slave, he won Rachel; and as a cripple, he won a Title.

The Divine Jacob, i.e., Immanuel, is the Great Antitype; for, by weakness, He won the Birthright, the Throne, the Kingdom, and the Bride.)

13 And by a Prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a Prophet was he preserved. (The Text says, "by a Prophet," i.e., Moses — not a soldier, but a Prophet. Nations are saved by Prophets such as Whitfield, Wesley, and Moody, and not by military generals.)

14 Ephraim provoked him to anger most bitterly: therefore shall he leave his blood upon him, and his reproach shall his Lord return unto him. (Ephraim refused to listen to the Prophets and provoked Immanuel most bitterly. It is only love that can be thus provoked.)

ISRAEL'S JUDGMENT AND DOOM IMPENDING

[1] When Ephraim spoke trembling, he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended in Baal, he died. (The thrust of this Verse speaks of Ephraim, who once walked with God, as in the days of Joshua, and spoke with authority to which the people trembled. He had position of dignity and power. But he turned to idolatry and died spiritually, as Adam did when he sinned.

The Christian has moral power and dignity so long as his heart is wholly governed by Christ and is free from idolatry.)

[2] And now they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men who sacrifice ki ss the calves. (The phrase, "Their own understanding," refers to a self-will worship [Col. 2:23], which is the principle of idolatry. And its ritual, as at the present day, necessitates the labor of many craftsmen, and I speak of anything in which faith is placed other than the Cross of Christ.

"Let the men who sacrifice kiss the calves," was an expression of adoration. The kissing of images, statues, and so-called sacred pictures and icons is a prominent feature of modern idolatrous worship.)

[3] Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passes away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney. (Israel is likened here to four figures: "the morning cloud, the early dew, the chaff, and the smoke." All express brevity and worthlessness.)

[4] Yet I am the LORD your God from the land of Egypt, and you shall know no god but Me: for there is no Saviour beside Me. (Israel's greatest glory was that Jehovah was her God and Shepherd. The two titles, "God" and "Saviour," present the Lord not only as Deity, but also as Deity Who will save. The phrase, "Yet I am the LORD your God from the land of Egypt," does not mean that He was not their God before this time, for actually He was, beginning with Abraham; but never before had the evidence of His Power and Love to His People been so signal and conspicuous as at the period of the Exodus and onward.

"And you shall know no god but Me," should be studied carefully by modern Christians, as Israel of old! To worship Christ minus the Cross constitutes "another Jesus" [II Cor. 11:4], and is the bane of the modern Church.)

5 I did know you in the wilderness, in the land of great drought. ("I did know you," refers to the Lord knowing them as a shepherd knows his sheep [Jn. 10:27]. "The wilderness, in the land of great drought," refers to the fact that there was absolutely no means of sustenance or livelihood in this howling waste except for Him. In fact, spiritually speaking, it is the same presently with this world. In Christ Alone, there is sustenance.)

6 According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted; therefore have they forgotten Me. ("According to their pasture, so were they filled," sadly refers to the fact that Israel did not know that it was the Lord Who was blessing them. "They were filled, and their heart was exalted," means that in proportion as God prospered them, so did they forget Him. In Verse 2, they associated an idol with Him; in this corresponding Verse, they forgot Him. Such is ever the moral action of the natural heart. It associates idols with God and then forgets Him; it degrades Him and then suppresses Him.)

7 Therefore I will be unto them as a lion: as a leopard by the way will I observe them:

8 I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: the wild beast shall tear them. (The four wild beasts of these two Verses predict the military monarchies of Babylon [the lion], Persia [the bear], Greece [the leopard], and Rome [the wild beast]. Forsaking the Lord, Israel was at the mercy of the Gentile powers.)

FINAL RESTORATION OF ISRAEL; PRESENT JUDGMENTS; REDEMPTION PROMISED

9 O Israel, you have destroyed yourself; but in Me is your help. (The argument of this Verse is: in turning away from her True Helper, Israel brought all her calamities upon herself.)

10 I will be your King: where is any other who may save you in all your cities? and your judges of whom you said, Give me a king and princes? (In answer to the question, "Where is your king?", the reply to be supplied is, "In prison," for it was there that Shalmaneser put Hoshea. As well, this Passage has reference to the coming Antichrist who, in effect, would be their king. Of all their sad choices of the past, this will be the saddest of all [Jn. 5:43].)

11 I gave you a king in My Anger, and took him away in My Wrath. (The king given in anger was Jeroboam I, and the king taken away in wrath was Hoshea. Jeroboam was Ephraim's first king and Hoshea was her last king. However, its future fulfillment concerns the Antichrist, whom the Lord, in "His [God's] anger," will allow Israel to have.

In the Battle of Armageddon, the Lord will "take him away in My Wrath," referring to the Antichrist being destroyed by the Lord at the time of the Second Coming [Rev. 19:19-20].)

12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is hid. (The idea of this Verse is that the day of reckoning would certainly come for Ephraim, because their sin was neither forgotten nor blotted out, because they would not repent.)

13 The sorrows of a travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for he should not stay long in the place of the breaking forth of children. (The Holy Spirit through the Prophet likens this Verse to a woman who cannot escape the anguish of childbirth — she is helpless. As well, a son who lingers where there is an abundance of men and a scarcity of work is foolish, for he does not look ahead and recognize the certain prospect of poverty.

The idea is: a prudent man foresees the evil, but the senseless sinner lives for the moment and takes no steps to escape approaching calamity.)

14 I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: O death, I will be your plagues; O grave, I will be your destruction: Repentance shall be hid from My Eyes. ("I will ransom them from the power of the grave," looks ahead to Israel's coming Redemption, which will take place at the beginning of the Kingdom Age. In effect, Mercy rejoices against Judgment, and so Grace bursts out with a cry: "Guilty, sinful, and foolish though they be, yet will I ransom them" [I Cor. 15:55].

"Repentance shall be hid from My eyes," has reference to that coming future day when Israel's "Repentance" will be "hid," which means "bound up" and noted carefully by God, exactly as her sins had once been "hid" or "bound up." Now sins are replaced by Repentance. As a result, this "Repentance" causes the sins to be washed away and, therefore, "hidden from God's Eyes." It is called "Justification by Faith.")

COMPLETE DESOLATION FIRST

15 Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the Wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall spoil the treasure of all pleasant vessels. (As quickly as the Prophet switched from pronounced Judgment to coming Restoration, he as quickly switches back to Judgment.

"An east wind shall come, the Wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness," refers to the Assyrians. It was a wind, not coming by chance, but commissioned by Jehovah as a minister of vengeance to execute His Wrath. As a result, this "flourishing tree of Ephraim" will dry up.

"He shall spoil the treasure of all pleasant vessels," refers to Shalmaneser, the Assyrian Monarch, as God's unwitting Instrument.)

16 Samaria shall become desolate; for she has rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword: their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up. (This Verse proclaims the Truth that the coming Judgment will not be tepid, but instead flaming hot — in other words, "awful"!)

CHAPTER 14

ISRAEL INTREATED TO RETURN TO GOD

[1] O Israel, return unto the LORD your God; for you have fallen by your iniquity. (This Chapter is the presentation of a glorious Altar Call. In fact, it also tells of Israel's Restoration in a coming Glad Day, but which could have taken place in Hosea's time or any time forward, if Israel had only repented. The Lord is always ready to receive all who come to Him. He will always do so, gladly, kindly, and with open arms. He offers no condemnation, only acceptance.)

[2] Take with you words, and turn to the LORD: say unto Him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips. (Divine Love provides the fitting words for the truly repentant tongue. "Take with you words," in essence, says, "Not sacraments, not ceremonies, but 'words.'"

"Turn to the LORD," proclaims the fact that these "words" are not to be taken to men, but rather to the Lord.

The phrase, "Say unto Him, Take away all iniquity," presents what these "words" ought to be.

"And receive us graciously," refers to the fact that we are saved by Grace through Faith, it is the Gift of God [Eph. 2:8-9]. Grace is simply the goodness of God extended to undeserving people. It is received, whether by the sinner or the Saint, by Faith evidenced in Christ and what He did for us at the Cross. In fact, the Cross is what makes the Grace of God [the Goodness of God] available to all.

"So will we render the calves of our lips," refers to Sacrifice, and, in reality, the Sacrifice of the Cross. In essence, we are to thank the Lord for saving us, and that it was made possible by and through the Cross.)

3 Asshur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses: neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, You are our gods: for in You the fatherless find mercy. ("Asshur shall not save us," pertains to the fact that man cannot save man. The phrase, "We will not ride upon horses," means that we will not trust in what man can do. "For in You the fatherless find mercy," refers to Israel as "Lo-ruhamah" [no more mercy] and "Lo-ammi" [not My people]. Despite these facts, the Lord says that if Israel [or anyone, for that matter] will truly turn to Him, He will receive and accept them [Eph. 2:13-18].)

RESTORATION; THE PROMISE OF GOD'S BLESSING

4 I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for My anger is turned away from him. (The Divine response of Verses 4 through 8 exhibits the moral result of true conversion.)

5 I will be as the dew unto Israel: he shall grow as the lily, and cast forth his roots as Lebanon. (The "dew" speaks of the Holy Spirit, the "lily" speaks of Righteousness, and the "roots of Lebanon" speak of one's place and position in Christ. All of this awaits the believing sinner!)

6 His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive tree, and his smell as Lebanon. ("His branches shall spread," speaks of Spiritual Growth. "And his beauty shall be as the olive tree," speaks of "fruit." The phrase, "And his smell as Lebanon," proclaims the fact that certain types of trees emit aromas which repel all insects and reptiles. Spiritually, it speaks of protection from the powers of darkness by Faith in Christ and His Cross [Rom. 6:3-5].)

7 They who dwell under His shadow shall return; they shall revive as the corn, and grow as the vine: the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon. (This Verse speaks of Israel restored and now reigning supreme in the coming Kingdom Age.)

8 Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have heard him, and observed him: I am like a green fir tree. From Me is your fruit found. (This Verse may be thus displayed:

Ephraim, "What have I to do any more with idols?"

Immanuel, "I have heard him and observed him."

Ephraim, "I am like a green fir tree."

Immanuel, "Yes, but remember that from Me is your fruit found."

The question concerning Ephraim, "What have I to do any more with idols?", is a full, final, and forever renunciation of idolatry.)

9 Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for the Ways of the LORD are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressors shall fall therein. (This Verse forms the epilogue to the whole Prophecy. God's Way of Salvation is a stepping stone to the Believer, but a stumbling stone to the unbeliever. Christ is a Rock of defense to the one, but a Rock of offense to the other [I Cor. 1:23].)

Joel

1 — 2 — 3

CHAPTER 1

THE DEVASTATION WROUGHT BY THE LOCUSTS

[1] The Word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel. (This signifies that the Prophecy was not originated by Joel; God composed it and gave it to him, as to all the Prophets [Lk. 1:7]. As well, the Prophecy of Joel is undated, for it is general. It covers the period of "the times of the Gentiles," that is, from Nebuchadnezzar to the Antichrist. Hence, it speaks of the Temple and its Levitical worship, but makes no mention of a king.

The name "Joel" means "Jehovah is God."

Even though the exact time of Joel's Ministry is not known, it is believed that he ministered shortly before Jeremiah.)

[2] Hear this, you old men, and give ear, all you inhabitants of the land. Has this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers? (The idea of this Scripture is that the judgments to come would be so exceptional as to be without previous experience.)

[3] Tell y ou your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation. (The manner in which this solemn announcement is given, i.e., using the phraseology in the Second Verse, "Hear this" and "give ear," is meant to impress upon the hearers the significance of the Message delivered. The coming Judgment is proclaimed, along with the sin that caused it, together with a plea for Repentance, and is meant to speak to every generation, etc.)

[4] That which the palmerworm has left has the locust eaten; and that which the locust has left has the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm has left has the caterpillar eaten. (At the time this Prophecy was given by God to Joel, quite possibly Judah was utterly devastated and ruined by a plague of locusts; this fact was used to illustrate the Divine Judgments that were about to be inflicted upon the land, which would have their climax in the dread "Day of the Lord" at the close of Judah's history. These Judgments, as previously stated, would be so exceptional as to be without previous experience, and all because of sin!)

CALL TO AWAKE

5 Awake, you drunkards, and weep: and howl, all you drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth. ("Awake, you drunkards, and weep," has to do with the Spiritual state of Judah. Instead of crying to God from a position of Spiritual Strength, they were, instead, faced with the problem of awakening the "drunkards" from their stupefaction. In other words, there was no Spiritual base upon which to build.

"Because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth," is meant to impress upon the "drunkards" that shortly the enemy was going to come into their country, with all vineyards being destroyed, with them either killed or taken captive; consequently, there would be no more "wine.")

6 For a nation is come up upon My Land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he has the cheek teeth of a great lion. ("For a nation is come up upon My Land," has a twofold meaning: First of all, it refers to the soon-to-come Babylonian invasion of Judah. Actually, Babylon is symbolized by a "lion" [Dan. 7:4]. Second, the phrase, "And he has the cheek teeth of a great lion," refers to the coming Antichrist, who will come from Syria and Babylon [Ezek., Chpts. 38-39; Dan. 11:41-45; II Thess. 2:3-4; Rev. 13:2; 16:13-16; 19:11-21].)

7 He has laid My Vine waste, and barked My Fig Tree: he has made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white. (The destruction of the "vine" and "fig tree" denotes the devastation of the Land of Judah, which would take place upon the advent of the Babylonian invasion.)

THE LOCUSTS, A SIGN OF COMING JUDGMENT BY THE ASSYRIANS AND CHALDEANS

[8] Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth. (The idea of this Verse concerns a young lady about to be married. But tragically, her sweetheart is killed before the wedding can take place. As she would "lament" for him, and rightly so, Judah is admonished to weep and cry for the destruction that is soon to come upon the land. Tragically, Judah would not heed!

It is believed, as stated, that Joel was prophesying to Judah a few years before Jeremiah.)

[9] The Meat Offering and the Drink Offer ing is cut off from the House of the LORD; the Priests, the LORD's Ministers, mourn. (This Verse proclaims the coming destruction of the Temple.)

[10] The field is wasted, the land mourns; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languishes. (This Verse proclaims the devastation and desolation of the land upon the invasion of Nebuchadnezzar.)

[11] Be you ashamed, O you husbandmen; howl, O you vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished. (The idea of this Passage is "shame." There was no excuse for Judah's plight. Sin was the cause of their ruin, but could have been repented of at any time, thereby ensuring the commencement of the Blessings of God. But Judah would not repent!)

[12] The vine is dried up, and the fig tree languishes; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men. (This Verse shows a definite link of economic depression, which always follows Spiritual depression.)

[13] Gird yourselves, and lament, you Priests: howl, you ministers of the Altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, you ministers of my God: for the Meat Offering and the Drink Offering is withheld from the House of your God. (The idea is: unless Repentance is enjoined, the Sacrifices will be no more, because the Temple will be no more. As well, the "Priests" were to take the lead if the nation was to follow suit.)

[14] Sanctify you a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the House of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD. (Step by step the Holy Spirit, through the Prophet Joel, tells Judah what she must do, which, if done, would avoid destruction. But sadly, it was to no avail.)

DESTRUCTION IN THE DAY OF THE LORD

[15] Alas for the day! for the day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come. (This Prophecy leaps forward to the coming Great Tribulation, which has not even yet come to pass, but will shortly [Rev. 6:17].)

[16] Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yes, joy and gladness from the House of our God? (If it was true that locusts had already denuded the land, then the Prophecy concerns something already at least partially fulfilled; however, it also refers to the coming Great Tribulation, when Israel will experience suffering as never before [Mat. 24:21].)

[17] The seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered. (All of this took place in the Babylonian invasion, but the greater fulfillment concerns the coming Great Tribulation.)

[18] How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yes, the flocks of sheep are made desolate. (It is obvious from this Passage and many others in the Bible that animals suffer much because of the sins of man.)

[19] O LORD, to You will I cry: for the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame has burned all the trees of the field. (The words, "O LORD, to You will I cry," pertain to Faith, which hides herself in the very God Who executes the Judgment. Such is the reason for the Judgment, in that the people would realize their sin and cry to the Lord.)

20 The beasts of the field cry also unto You: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness. (As this happened not too many years from Joel's day, even more so it will happen in the coming Great Tribulation.)

CHAPTER 2

CALL TO ALARM

[1] Blow you the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in My Holy Mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD comes, for it is near at hand (the terms, "Zion," "My Holy Mountain," and "The Land," define Israel and Jerusalem as the scene of these future events. The phrase, "Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble," refers to Israel, where the Battle of Armageddon will take place. "For the Day of the LORD comes, for it is near at hand," refers to the period in the future when the Messiah will interfere on behalf of His ancient People and deliver and restore them. Its details are predicted in the Book of Revelation.

As well, modern Preachers must "sound an alarm" at the condition of the modern Church, for these events of which Joel speaks are near at hand. This also means that the Rapture of the Church, which will precede these events, is very near [I Thess. 4:13-18; II Thess. 2:7-12]);

THE ARMIES OF GOD AT ARMAGEDDON DESCRIBED

[2] A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; there has not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations. ("A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness," refers to the beginning days of the Battle of Armageddon, when the Antichrist "shall ascend and come like a storm, and [he] shall be like a cloud to cover the land" [Ezek. 38:9].

"Neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations," describes the Coming of the Lord with His mighty Army, which the world has never seen before and will not see again until the end of the Millennium, when Satan and his angels and demons will appear on Earth in an effort to once again take it over, at which time God will send His Army of Heaven against them for the second time [Isa. 24:22; Rev. 20:7-10].

This is what the "many generations" refer to, which concerns a time span of about a thousand years between the Second Coming and the end of the Millennium.)

3 A fire devours before them; and behind them a flame burns: the land is as the Garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yes, and nothing shall escape them. (This Verse corresponds with Ezek. 38:22, "and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone," which refers to the Second Coming of the Lord, which will take place in the Battle of Armageddon [Zech. 14:3].)

4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run. (The pronoun "them" refers to all the Saints who will be with the Lord at the Second Coming, which corresponds with Rev. 19:14. All the Saints of God who have ever lived will then come back with the Lord, and will be riding on "white horses." These, of course, will be spirit horses.)

5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devours the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array. (This Verse tells us that the Second Coming will not only be glorious, but its power will express itself in a manner which the world has never known before. The phrase, "As a strong people set in battle array," will be in answer to the boasts and taunts of the Antichrist, which will fill the world the last three and a half years of the Great Tribulation.)

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained: all faces shall gather blackness. (The Antichrist, seeing this tremendous power arrayed against him, "shall be much pained.")

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march everyone on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks (the initial thrust of this Verse is that the Second Coming of the Lord will not, at least in its initial stages, be for the blessing of the world, but instead for the destruction of evil. Hence, they are called "men of war." As well, "they shall not break their ranks" until this job of defeating the Antichrist and his armies is completed; and, completed it will be!)**:

8 Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk everyone in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded. (The phrase, "And when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded," shows that the Glorified Saints, the army of the Lord, will have Glorified Bodies, which are impervious to harm. In other words, they cannot be killed.)

9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief. (The idea of this Verse is that no place will be inaccessible to this Army of the Lord.)

10 The Earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining (the sense of this Verse is that the coming of the Son of God will be so resplendent with Glory, with the very heavens lit up to such a degree that they will literally "tremble"; moreover, the "sun," the "moon," and the "stars" will be so outshone that it will seem as if they have no light. Jesus mentioned this [Mat. 24:27-30])**:

11 And the LORD shall utter His Voice before His Army: for His camp is very great: for He is strong Who executes His Word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can abide it? (The phrase, "And the LORD shall utter His Voice before His Army," speaks of all the happenings of Verses 2 through 11. "For He is strong Who executes His Word," proclaims the Lord having the Power to back up His Word, and that all these predictions shall come to pass exactly as stated. All of this speaks of the Second Coming!)

CALL TO REPENTANCE AND FASTING

[12] Therefore also now, says the LORD, turn you even to Me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning (as Verses 2 through 11 spoke of the Second Coming, Verses 12 through 17 portray the call to Repentance for Israel, which will take place at the Second Coming, and will guarantee her future Restoration; it also speaks to the Judah of Joel's day, but more so to the Second Coming and what will then happen)**:

[13] And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repents Him of the evil. (This is a description of what will take place in Israel at the Second Coming, as it regards Israel's Repentance.)

[14] Who knows if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him; even a Meat Offering and a Drink Offering unto the LORD your God? (As the Righteousness of God demands Judgment upon unconfessed sin, likewise, the same Righteousness demands Blessing when sin is repented of and turned from.)

[15] Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly (in essence, this speaks of the events in Israel immediately after the Second Coming. Even though Israel at that time will not be able to literally blow a trumpet, just the same, the image is sufficient. As well, even though none of this pertains to the Church, the example could also well apply!)**:

[16] Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the Elders, gather the children, and those who suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. (As stated, all of this will take place immediately after the Second Coming, when Israel finally repents.)

[17] Let the Priests, the Ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the Altar, and let them say, Spare Your People, O LORD, and give not Your heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them:

wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God? (The idea of this Repentance in that coming day pertains, in effect, to Israel's rejection of Christ and their crucifying Him. They will now learn that the One Whom they crucified is, in fact, their Messiah; hence, the religious leaders of Israel at that time will lead in this contrition before the Lord.)

THE FORGIVENESS OF GOD AND RESTORATION

18 Then will the LORD be jealous for His Land, and pity His People. (Upon Israel's Repentance, the phrase, "Be jealous for His Land," proclaims the fact that as the Lord sought once to destroy it because of sin, now He will be quick to bless the Land and all that is in it. "And pity His People," means that the Lord will accept Israel's Repentance and restore them to their rightful place and position in the world.)

19 Yes, the LORD will answer and say unto His P eople, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and you shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen (now, because Israel has properly repented before the Lord, the "reproach" is finally gone and prosperity now begins!)**:

DESTRUCTION OF ENEMIES

20 But I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea, and his hinder part toward the utmost sea, and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he has done great things. (The total fulfillment of this Prophecy speaks of the coming Antichrist, who will be defeated in the Battle of Armageddon [Ezek. 38:15].

The "east sea" is the Dead Sea and the "utmost sea" is probably the Mediterranean. Therefore, the defeat of the Antichrist will be total!

"And his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up," refers to the great number of the soldiers of the Antichrist being killed, as prophesied in Ezek. 39:11-16.

"Because he has done great things," refers to the Antichrist magnifying himself to do great things; for he will propose to attack and defeat Immanuel Himself [Rev. 19:19]. The "great things" of the Antichrist will prove to be nothing, while the "great things" of the next Verse, as accomplished by the Lord, will be magnificent.)

RESTORATION OF THE LAND AND PEOPLE

21 Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the LORD will do great things. (All of the following pertains to what the Lord will do for Israel at the beginning of the Kingdom Age, which is immediately after His Return and Israel's Repentance.)

22 Be not afraid, you beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree bears her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength. (This portrays the coming Kingdom Age, when the wild, carnivorous nature of the animal kingdom will be changed, because the curse has been lifted.

"For the pastures of the wilderness do spring," refers to the deserts blossoming as the rose [Isa. 35:1]. "For the tree bears her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength," refers, as stated, to the curse being lifted, with the land all over the world producing that which was originally intended. In other words, it will be a time of such plenty and prosperity as the world has never known.)

23 Be glad then, you children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for He has given you the former rain moderately, and He will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month. (The phrase, "Be glad then, you children of Zion," refers to Israel now restored as the premier nation of the world, which is her rightful place. In other words, the world cannot be properly blessed until Israel is in her rightful place, which she will be not long after the Second Coming.

The "former rain" and the "latter rain" refer to the two rainy seasons in Israel. The first, or "former," coming in October, promoted the germination and growth of the seed previously sown; the "latter," coming in April, matured the crops and got them ready for harvest. Spiritually speaking, the "former rain" speaks of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the Early Church. The "latter rain" speaks of the outpouring of the Spirit, which began at approximately the turn of the Twentieth Century and which will continue on through the Millennial Reign [James 5:7].)

[24] And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. (This speaks of the harvest of prosperity which will be gathered in the coming Kingdom Age.)

[25] And I will restore to you the years that the locust has eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmerworm, My great army which I sent among you. ("And I will restore to you the years," refers to that period of time which began with Nebuchadnezzar and which now has lasted for about 2,500 years. The mention of the "locusts," etc., is meant to be symbolic of the years lost to the "times of the Gentiles." The phrase, "My great army which I sent among you," speaks of the great empires which ruled Israel because of Israel's sin and refusal to repent.)

[26] And you shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the Name of the LORD your God, Who has dealt wondrously with you: and My People shall never be ashamed. (Now, Israel will function as she should; as a result, they will "eat in plenty, and be satisfied." As well, never again will God's People "be ashamed.")

[27] And you shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and My People shall never be ashamed. (Once again, the Holy Spirit through the Prophet uses the phrase, "And My People shall never be ashamed," because Israel in fact has lived in "shame" for over 2,500 years.)

THE OUTPOURING OF GOD'S SPIRIT

[28] And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions (the word "afterward" refers to the occurrences predicted in Verses 30 through 32.

This Promise of the Spirit is placed out of chronological order in order to couple it with the material blessings of Verses 21 through 27 and to provide for Acts, Chpt. 2. In fact, the phrase, "And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh," even though beginning on the Day of Pentecost, still, will not be totally fulfilled until the coming Kingdom Age.

"And your sons and your daughters shall prophesy," refers to the Gifts of the Spirit, which accompanied the outpouring of the Holy Spirit during the time of the Early Church, and which continues to this hour [I Cor. 12:7-11]; however, and as stated, this will have a complete fulfillment in the coming Kingdom Age. As well, the outpouring of the Spirit is for all — old and young, men and women):

29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out My Spirit. (Even though the words, "In those days," actually refer to the coming Kingdom Age, still, and according to what was said by the Apostle Peter, that which happened on the Day of Pentecost was the beginning of the "pouring out of My Spirit," which continues unto this day, and as stated, will be fully realized in the coming Kingdom Age.)

SIGNS PRECEDING THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST AND THE DAY OF THE LORD

30 And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the Earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. (This pertains to the Great Tribulation, which will immediately precede the Second Coming.)

31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD come. (This is fulfilled in Rev. 6:12 under the "sixth seal.")

32 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the Name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD has said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call. (The entirety of these Passages proclaim three great outpourings of the Holy Spirit:

1. On the Day of Pentecost, which continues unto this hour [Acts 2:1-28:31];

2. During the future Great Tribulation [Acts 2:16-21]; and,

3. During the Millennium [Isa. 32:15; 44:3; Ezek. 36:26-27; 39:29; Zech. 12:10].)

CHAPTER 3

JUDAH AND JERUSALEM RESTORED

[1] For behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem (this Chapter follows the preceding one without a break; in it, the Spirit describes: the future Deliverance of Israel; the Judgment of the nations that oppressed her; the ascension of Immanuel upon the Throne of Jehovah at Jerusalem; His vindication of His ancient People; the destruction of the army of the Antichrist; the moral glory of Jerusalem; its appointment as a center of blessing to the Earth; and the future amazing fertility of the Land of Israel.

"When I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem," is a Hebrew idiom for Restoration),

JUDGMENT ON HER ENEMIES

[2] I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for My People and for My heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted My Land. ("I will also gather all nations," refers to soldiers from many nations of the world aiding and abetting the Antichrist in his efforts to destroy Israel. Whatever the plans of these people, it will be the Lord Who is doing the gathering.

"And will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat," pertains to the valley of Megiddo. The name "Jehoshaphat" means "Jehovah has judged."

The words, "And will plead with them there for My People and for My heritage Israel," refers to the Second Coming of the Lord, when He will fight as He once fought in the day of battle [Zech. 14:1-3].)

[3] And they have cast lots for My People; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink. (The idea of this Verse speaks for all time. Even though the statements pointedly concern the coming Antichrist, and consequently the Battle of Armageddon, still, the Holy Spirit is referring to all ages and times. In other words, He is saying that such treatment of Israel is over.)

[4] Yes, and what have you to do with Me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will you render Me a recompence? and if you recompense Me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head (even though these people, the Jews, are presently far away from God, still, the Promise the Lord made to Abraham ever holds true. He said, "And I will bless them who bless you, and curse him who curses you" [Gen. 12:3])**;

[5] Because you have taken My silver and My gold, and have carried into your temples My goodly pleasant things (in other words, when people or nations touched Israel in a negative way, they touched God!)**:

[6] The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have you sold unto the Grecians, that you might remove them far from their border. (The "Grecians" have reference to the Antichrist, who will come from the Syrian division of the old Grecian Empire.)

[7] Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither you have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head (the words, "sold them," do not necessarily refer to selling them as slaves, at least in this case, but actually refers to the dire straits to which they have been forced as a result of the actions of the Antichrist. "Out of the place," no doubt pertains to Petra, where Israel will be forced to flee in the Great Tribulation, when the Antichrist declares war on her [Rev., Chpt. 12]. The last phrase says that the Antichrist is now going to be called to account)**:

[8] And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off: for the LORD has spoken it. ("And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah," refers to the defeat of the Antichrist in the Battle of Armageddon, when all Gentile powers will then come under the domain of Israel, including the Arabs, symbolized by the "Sabeans.")

MOBILIZATION FOR WAR

9 Proclaim you this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up (Verses 9 through 11 picture the assembling of the mighty army which the Antichrist will lead against Jerusalem)**:

10 Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong. (This proclaims the nations of the world under the domain of the Antichrist preparing for war against Israel, who is now recovering herself somewhat since her defeat by the Antichrist some three and a half years before.)

11 Assemble yourselves, and come, all y ou heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause your mighty ones to come down, O LORD. (This Scripture refers to Rev. 16:16.)

12 Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about. (This Passage pertains to the Battle of Armageddon, when the Lord will judge the nations of the world; it will not be a pretty picture [Ezek., Chpts. 38-39].)

DESTRUCTION OF ANTICHRIST AND HIS ARMIES AT ARMAGEDDON

13 Put you in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great. (This Verse has to do with Rev. 14:16, 20.)

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision. (This "Valley of Jehoshaphat," where the Battle of Armageddon, at least partially, shall be fought, is called here "the valley of decision." It means that the Lord has made the "decision" to there meet Satan and his man, the Antichrist, which will instigate the Second Coming.)

15 The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining. (This will be a literal happening at the Second Advent of Christ [Mat. 24:19-31].)

16 The LORD also shall roar out of Zion, and utter His Voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the Earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of His People, and the strength of the Children of Israel. (All of this refers to the Almighty Power of the Lord Jesus Christ, which will be used to defend Israel, which refers to the defeat of the Antichrist.)

FUTURE RESTORATION OF ISRAEL FOLLOWING THE BATTLE OF ARMAGEDDON: THE LORD REIGNING IN ZION

17 So shall you know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, My Holy Mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her anymore. (The first phrase refers to the fulfillment of Ezekiel's Vision of the building of the Millennial Temple, and actually the city itself [Ezek., Chpts. 40-48]. "And there shall no strangers pass through her anymore," means "to pass through in order to destroy"!)

MATERIAL BLESSINGS FOR ISRAEL

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, and a fountain shall come forth out of the House of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shittim. (This Verse pertains to the great prosperity that will come to Israel in the Kingdom Age, which will bless the entirety of the world. "And a fountain shall come forth out of the House of the LORD," pertains to the river that will come from the Temple in Jerusalem, as seen by the Prophet Ezekiel [Ezek. 47:1-12].

This will be a literal river coming out from under a literal Temple in Jerusalem, which will take place in the Kingdom Age.

"And shall water the valley of Shittim," refers to the Dead Sea valley, which will now be productive.)

ISRAEL'S ENEMIES DESOLATE

19 Egypt shall be a desolation, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence against the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land. (There is no contradiction concerning Egypt between Verse 19 and Isa., Chpt. 19. The Judgment here predicted is past; the Promise there [Isaiah] is future.)

JUDAH AN ETERNAL PEOPLE

20 But Judah shall dwell forever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation. (In that day, Judah will include all the Children of Israel from all the Tribes, for all will be there [Ezek. 48:1-29]. The Promise of God is that this Land, "Judah," and this city, "Jerusalem," will last forever. It will be occupied by Jews, and not by Muslims!)

21 For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed: for the LORD dwells in Zion. (The word "cleanse" means "to avenge." This Prophecy ends, like that of Ezekiel, with the fact of God living visibly on the Earth with men.)

CHAPTER 1

PROPHECIES OF JUDGMENT ON ISRAEL'S NEIGHBOURS

[1] The words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. ("The words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of Tekoa," specifies him as a shepherd. The phrase, "Which he saw concerning Israel," could very well have been a vision. Man's words cannot be "seen," only God's Words.

"In the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel," concerns the time of the moving of the Holy Spirit upon Amos, and the delivering of his Prophecy. Incidentally, this was Jeroboam II. "Two years before the earthquake," is said by Josephus, the Jewish historian, to be attributed to God's displeasure at Uzziah's usurpation of the Priest's office [II Chron. 26:16].)

[2] And he said, The LORD will roar from Zion, and utter His Voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither. ("The LORD will roar from Zion," portrays Jerusalem. Here was Jehovah's Throne. The kings of the nations uttered their feeble voices from their governmental centers, but Jehovah roared as a lion from out of Zion.

The phrase, "And the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn," refers to the coming Judgment of the Lord to be so severe that it would affect every part of Israel, even the peaceful pastures of the shepherds, even to "the top of Carmel.")

THE JUDGMENT AGAINST DAMASCUS

3 Thus says the LORD; For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron ("For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four," portrays an abrupt change by the Holy Spirit from His pronouncement of Judgment on Israel to the proclamation of punishment on neighboring heathen nations for their injurious treatment of His Own People)**:

4 But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad. (This probably referred to "Ben-hadad III," the son of Hazael, who was a Monarch of small ability; under his sway, Syria sank into insignificance [II Ki., Chpt. 13]. Incidentally, "Ben-hadad" is a title corresponding to Pharaoh, Caesar, etc.)

5 I will break also the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven, and him who holds the sceptre from the house of Eden: and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, sa ys the LORD. ("And the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, says the LORD," no doubt, pertains to the invasion some 50 years later of the Assyrian, Tiglath-Pileser, who killed Rezon and sacked Damascus, as well as leading multiple thousands of Syrians "into captivity unto Kir," exactly as prophesied.)

THE JUDGMENT AGAINST GAZA (PHILISTIA)

6 Thus says the LORD; For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom (the phrase, "Three transgressions... and for four," is a Hebrew idiom expressive of "many." The phrase, "To deliver them up to Edom," speaks of the Philistines handing over the captive Israelites to their bitterest enemies, the Edomites, as slaves. God's Anger, as is obvious here, burns against such treachery and slavery, hence, the judgment on Gaza)**:

7 But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof ("Gaza" is used here as the representative of the five cities of the Philistines):

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him who holds the sceptre from Ashkelon, and I will turn My Hand against Ekron: and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, says the Lord GOD. (Exactly as prophesied, there is no trace of "Philistines" left at this time, with part of this area presently occupied by the modern Palestinians, who are Egyptians, Syrians, Jordanians, etc.)

THE JUDGMENT AGAINST TYRUS

9 Thus says the LORD; For three transgressions of Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not the brotherly covenant (evidently, to warrant this judgment, Tyre, in some way, had gotten its hands on some Israelitish prisoners, whom they delivered over to the Edomites. This cruel conduct was quite unprovoked, as no Jewish king had ever made war against Phoenicia or its capital.

"And remembered not the brotherly covenant," refers to the original covenant made with Tyre by David and Solomon [II Sam. 5:11; I Ki. 5:1, 7-11; 9:11-14; II Chron. 2:11]):

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, which shall devour the palaces thereof. (The punishments by Sargon of Assyria, and later by Nebuchadnezzar, who besieged the city for thirteen years, as well as its capture and destruction by Alexander the Great, are well-known.)

THE JUDGMENT AGAINST EDOM

11 Thus said the LORD; For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever (now, the Prophet commences his denouncements against the three nations that were more kindred to Israel: Edom, Ammon, and Moab. "And he kept his wrath forever," refers to Edom's relentless persecution, inhumanity, savage fury, and persistent anger against Israel. Edom sprang from Esau, and, in effect, is a brother of Israel, i.e., "Jacob"):

12 But I will send a fire upon Teman, which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.

THE JUDGMENT AGAINST AMMON

13 Thus says the LORD; For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ripped up the women with child of Gilead, that they might enlarge their border ("Ammon" was connected with Israel by being an offspring of Lot, which "Moab" was, as well! "That they might enlarge their border," concerns their greed for more territory, especially in later years when they seized the possessions of the Tribe of Gad — a proceeding which brought upon them the denunciation of Jeremiah [Jer. 49:2-6]):

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind ("Rabbah" was the capital of Ammon, about 25 miles northeast of the Dead Sea, and is the same as present-day Ammon, Jordan):

15 And their king shall go into the captivity, he and his princes together, says the LORD. (All these judgments were occasioned by the persecution inflicted by these heathen nations on God's People, Israel.)

CHAPTER 2

THE JUDGMENT AGAINST MOAB

[1] Thus says the LORD; For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime (Amos now denounces Moab, also connected by ties of blood with Israel. The phrase, "Because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime," shows that God's Anger burns against unnatural and cruel crimes, even though their victims be as cruel and wicked as was the king of Edom)**:

[2] But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kirioth: and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet (the phrase, "And Moab shall die with tumult," refers to her destruction beginning with Nebuchadnezzar. In fulfillment of this Passage, the Moabites ultimately ceased to have independent existence as a nation)**:

[3] And I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, says the LORD. (These six nations, "Syria, Philistia, Tyre, Edom, Ammon, and Moab," defiled Immanuel's land, for they lived within its original boundaries; judgment, therefore, expelled them.)

PROPHECIES AGAINST GOD'S COVENANT NATIONS: AGAINST JUDAH BY BABYLON

[4] Thus says the LORD; For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have despised the Law of the LORD, and have not kept His Commandments, and their lies caused them to err, after the which their fathers have walked (as God pronounced judgments upon heathen nations, which Judah and Israel no doubt thought were amply deserved, likewise, the thrust is now turned toward Judah, even the people who retained the Temple and its worship. This amply portrays that God cannot abide sin in His Own any more than He can those who are not His private possession):

5 But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem. (And that's exactly what happened! Not too many years later, the nation and city were completely destroyed by the Babylonians.)

AGAINST ISRAEL BY ASSYRIA

6 Thus says the LORD; For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes (as the Northern Kingdom of Israel sank lower and lower into sin and depravity, all justice flew out the window. They sold the "righteous" and the "poor" into slavery, and for a pittance);

7 That pant after the dust of the Earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek: and a man and his father will go in unto the same maid, to profane My Holy Name (these Passages portray the fact that Israel had laid aside the Word of God for their own inventions. In other words, they had made up their own laws and concocted their own salvation. Now, they were progressive, liberal, and unrestricted by the old-fashioned ideas of the Bible; however, the Lord was carefully observing all they did; upon refusal to repent, they would face judgment, and terrible judgment at that!):

8 And they lay themselves down upon clothes laid to pledge by every altar, and they drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god. (As is obvious here, the Lord observed all that was being done.)

9 Yet destroyed I the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath. (The name "Amorite" [Josh. 24:18] is meant to serve as a representative of the seven nations of Canaan, who were dispossessed by the Israelites [Gen. 15:16; Ex. 23:27; 24:11].)

10 Also I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and led you forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite. (The Lord not only defeated the "Amorite," but also gave their land to Israel as an inheritance. "And led you forty years through the wilderness," is meant to bring to mind that terrible odyssey, which, by all rights, should have forfeited the Blessings, but instead the Grace of God gave them everything.)

11 And I raised up of your sons for Prophets, and of your young men for Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O you children of Israel? says the LORD. ("Nazarites" were those who took a special vow, whether temporary or lifelong. Of perpetual Nazarites, we have as instances Samson, Samuel, and John the Baptist.

The question, "Is it not even thus, O you children of Israel? says the LORD," is meant to specify that these things stated are undeniable, thereby signaling favor from God, making Israel separate from other nations, and binding them to be a holy people.)

12 But you gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the Prophets, saying, Prophesy not. (The idea of the Verse is: this ungrateful nation systematically tried to silence the voices which were a standing rebuke to them.)

13 Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves. (The sense of this Verse is that God is burdened and wearied with their sins.)

14 Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself (upon hearing the Message of Amos, the people seemingly made light of his Prophecy, as Verse 12 outlines. Their attitude was that such could not happen; and, if such a preposterous thing somehow actually did happen, they certainly would be able to properly defend themselves.

The Holy Spirit, knowing their thoughts, addresses them forthwith by implying that He will fight for the enemy, and against them):

15 Neither shall he stand who handles the bow; and he who is swift of foot shall not deliver himself: neither shall he who rides the horse deliver himself. (By their sins and rebellion, the people of Israel no longer desired God's Deliverance, but claimed they could deliver themselves; however, the Holy Spirit says otherwise!)

16 And he who is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, says the LORD. (The word "naked" means to be "weaponless." When he runs away, a soldier throws aside his armor and weapons in order to more easily escape; this would be the plight of Israel — so says the Lord!)

CHAPTER 3

THE LION ROARS

[1] Hear this Word that the LORD has spoken against you, O Children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying (having addressed several nations dwelling near the Promised Land, God now addresses the whole family of Israel redeemed from the land of Egypt. This family alone He recognized "known" as His; for this reason, He would punish them for their iniquities)**,

[2] You only have I known of all the families of the Earth: therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities. (Of all the nations in the world, Israel alone belonged to the Lord. "You only have I known," means loved, acknowledged, and chosen. "Therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities," means that they must not presume upon their privileges. Their retention of God's Favor depended upon obedience to His Word [Ex. 19:5]. The nearer they were brought to God, the greater their guilt if they fell from God.)

[3] Can two walk together, except they be agreed? (Companionship with God can only be enjoyed upon the basis of separation from evil.)

[4] Will a lion roar in the forest, when he has no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing? (As the lion roars when it has found its prey, God, therefore, makes the Prophet utter his voice because He is ready to execute vengeance.)

[5] Can a bird fall in a snare upon the Earth, where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the Earth, and have taken nothing at all? (The idea is: the bird is caught because it is too close to the trap. The trap which the sinner sets for himself is sin.)

6 Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the LORD has not done it? (Two great principles — one of Law, the other of Grace — appear in Verses 6 through 8. First: God will judge evil. Second: He forewarns those whom He is about to judge. There is just cause when He should judge evil, but love intervenes with her warning.)

7 Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but He reveals His Secret unto His Servants the Prophets. (Consequently, this is the Grace spoken of here. The Lord forewarned those whom He is about to judge. Such is done to provoke Repentance, that is, if possible, that the judgment be halted.)

8 The lion has roared, who will not fear? the Lord GOD has spoken, who can but prophesy? (The idea is: as the lion's roar causes fear, likewise, when the Lord speaks, the Prophet must be fearful not to prophesy.)

ISRAEL'S SINS

9 Publish in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the oppressed in the midst thereof. (The Philistines and the Egyptians are invited to behold the great evils and oppressions in the midst of Samaria [Israel] and to recognize the justice of God in sending them. This principle appears frequently in the Scriptures: the heathen are oftentimes righteous judges of the professing People of God. The implication is: it was the eternal disgrace of Israel that there were doings in her cities which the very heathen would condemn.)

10 For they know not to do right, sa ys the LORD, who store up violence and robbery in their palaces. (Persistence in the evil of covetousness and the love of money deadens moral consciousness.)

CAPTIVITY TO ASSYRIA

11 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD; An adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down your strength from you, and your palaces shall be spoiled. ("An adversary there shall be," at least in this case, refers to Sennacherib, the Assyrian king; he emptied the palaces in Israel filled with the spoils robbed from the poor, etc.)

[12] Thus says the LORD; As the shepherd takes out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so will the Children of Israel be taken out who dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus in a couch. (So thorough would be the action of Sennacherib that the few people left alive would only be comparable to a piece of an ear of a sheep taken out of the mouth of a lion to prove to the owner that it was killed. "In Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus in a couch," denotes the luxurious rich; but Israel would find that such riches would not save them.)

[13] Hear you, and testify in the house of Jacob, says the Lord GOD, the God of Hosts (to the insults and denials of these individuals in Samaria, Amos claims, and rightly so, that his words are really the Words of the "Lord GOD," the "Almighty God")**,

[14] That in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him I will also visit the altars of Beth-el: and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground. (The word "altars" is plural of magnitude, for the great altar erected at Beth-el by Jeroboam I for the worship of the golden calf. "And the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground," referred to the altar of the golden calf. The "horns" represented the most sacred of this heathen altar; the prediction is that when judgment comes, these "horns" will be broken off, signifying God's rejection of this man-made altar as an atonement for sin.

Be it known: Just as in this prediction, the "horns" of every man-made altar [which attempts to take the place of Calvary] shall ultimately be cut off and "fall to the ground.")

[15] And I will smite the winter house with the summer house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, says the LORD. (This Passage speaks of the obvious prosperity of Samaria, where luxury, ease, and comfort, among other things, had sapped all Spiritual Strength from God's People. The phrase, "And the great houses shall have an end, says the LORD," refers to every house in this world which is built on sand. They will ultimately fall [Mat. 7:26].)

CHAPTER 4

THE DEPRAVITY OF ISRAEL

[1] Hear this word, you kine of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink. (The phrase, "Hear this word, you kine of Bashan," pertains to the rich pastureland east of Jordan, where cattle there fed became strong and fat. The Nobles of Samaria are compared to them here.

"Which oppress the poor, which crush the needy," registers God's Love for the poor and His indignation against oppression, which is a feature of the Book of Amos.

The phrase, "Which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink," refers to the Nobles appealing to Jeroboam II to provide them with luxurious banquets furnished by money robbed from the poor.)

[2] The Lord GOD has sworn by His Holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fishhooks. (This Scripture addresses the Assyrian Monarch, who, upon subjugating an enemy, passed hooks through the lower lips of their captives and thus led them away to slavery. This would happen to Israel!)

[3] And you shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and you shall cast them into the palace, says the LORD. (They will be led forth, not through the gates of the city of Samaria, but through its broken walls; they will go quietly and in a straight line so as to mitigate the pain of their tortured lips. The last phrase could be better said, "You shall be cast as slaves into the palace of Sennacherib." In other words, the luxury of Samaria would be reduced to slavery.)

ISRAEL'S FAILURE TO REPENT

4 Come to Beth-el, and transgress; at Gilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after three years:

5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free offerings: for this liketh you, O you children of Israel, says the Lord GOD. (The invitation of Verses 4 and 5 is meant to portray irony. "Go to Beth-el — but not to worship Me — to transgress against Me!" Israel professed to be God's worshippers, but they adored Him under the similitude of the golden calf — as multitudes do today under the similitude of man-made directions other than the Cross of Calvary. God denounces as "idolatry" all worship that is not based on the atoning work of Calvary.)

6 And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet have you not returned unto Me, says the LORD. (In this and the following Verses, the Holy Spirit through the Prophet sets forth instances of judgment which He had sent at various times to correct Israel. The phrase, "Yet have you not returned unto Me, says the LORD," proclaims God's unwearied Love, which had not conquered their rebellion.)

7 And also I have withheld the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered. (All of this proclaims the Lord having total control, as should be obvious!)

8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have you not returned unto Me, says the LORD. (The phrase used again, "Yet have you not returned unto Me, says the LORD," has reference to the fact that while they were staggering from one city to another in order to find water, still, their hearts were so hard that their acute circumstances were not enough to bring them to Repentance.)

9 I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: when your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees increased, the palmerworm devoured them: yet have you not returned unto Me, says the LORD. (The Lord dealt with Israel with famine, drought, and now blight, but to no avail!)

[10] I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have you not returned unto Me, sa ys the LORD. ("I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt," has no reference to the plague of Ex. 9:3, etc., but was an allusion to the plague which was reckoned to be epidemic in Egypt and other loathsome diseases for which that country was notorious. No judgments seemed to be enough to bring Israel back to the Lord!)

[11] I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and you were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have you not returned unto Me, says the LORD. ("And you were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning," refers to the fact that it was only the Mercy of God which stopped the destruction short of total; but impenitence was the unchanging response to each stroke — "yet have you not returned unto Me.")

[12] Therefore thus will I do unto you, O Israel: and because I will do this unto you, prepare to meet your God, O Israel. (As a consequence, they are now warned of a Supreme Judgment — that is, to meet God Himself. "Prepare to meet your God, O Israel," means to make ready to meet God in Judgment, turning to Him with changed heart, praying that He will forgive and withdraw His heavy Hand.)

[13] For, lo, He Who forms the mountains, and creates the wind, and declares unto man what is his thought, Who makes the morning darkness, and treads upon the high places of the Earth, The LORD, The God of Hosts, is His Name. (The Majesty of God is set forth in this Scripture. The mountains may be seen; the wind, unseen; man's thought, unread; day and night, unchangeable; and the revolution of the Earth in its orbit, invariable: but all was in the power of this dread Judge — "Jehovah Elohim Sabaioth” is His Name!)

CHAPTER 5

(787 B.C.)

A SONG OF LAMENT AND GRIEF OVER ISRAEL

[1] Hear you this word which I take up against you, even a lamentation, O House of Israel. ("Hear you this word which I take up against you," refers to the certitude of the coming judgment because Israel would not repent, because they saw no need to repent. The phrase, "Even a lamentation, O House of Israel," is the same as a funeral dirge.)

[2] The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up. (The Northern Kingdom is here compared to a virgin, because never hitherto conquered. "She shall no more rise," means that she will never again be restored as a separate nationality.)

[3] For thus sa ys the Lord GOD; The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the House of Israel. (So great would be the destruction of her armies in the battles with the Assyrians that battalions a thousand strong, or companies a hundred strong, that marched away from the cities to the war would only have a hundred, or ten, survivors, respectively.)

GOD'S CALL FOR ISRAEL TO REPENT AND AVERT JUDGMENT; "SEEK ME AND YOU SHALL LIVE".

[4] For thus says the LORD unto the House of Israel, Seek you Me and you shall live (this is a pure and plain offer to repent, which would avoid the Judgment, but sadly, all to no avail!)**:

[5] But seek not Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall come to nought.

(Beth-el was the great center of the worship of God under the similitude of a calf. But that idol could not quench the fire that broke out in the house of Joseph. Gilgal, Beer-sheba, and Beth-el are in Judah. The idea is: those from the Northern Kingdom who tried to escape to the Southern Kingdom, that is, when judgment came, would not succeed. Whatever their plans were, they "shall surely go into captivity.")

[6] Seek the LORD, and you shall live; lest He break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el. (The idea is: "Turn to the Lord, or suffer the fire of judgment!")

[7] You who turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off Righteousness in the Earth (God can have no fellowship either with falsehood in doctrine [Vs. 5] or evil-doing in conduct, as is described in this Verse. The latter denounces bribery and injustice. Justice was cast to the ground and perverted to most bitter wrong),

[8] Seek Him Who makes the seven stars and Orion, and turns the shadow of death into the morning, and makes the day dark with night: Who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out upon the face of the Earth: the LORD is His Name (the "seven stars" refer to the "Pleiades." "Orion" is the constellation commonly known as "the Giant." The space in the sword of the Giant alone is estimated to be 2,200,000,000,000,000,000 [two quintillion, two hundred quadrillion] times larger than the sun. Therefore, what is here discussed, referring to God's Creation, is so large that it beggars description.

The entirety of the phrase, "The shadow of death into the morning," pertains to the coming Resurrection of Life. As well, "And makes the day dark with night," refers to the coming Resurrection of Damnation):

[9] Who strengthens the spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress. (The idea is that God can smite the strongest; no fortress is a refuge from Him.)

[10] They hate him who rebukes in the gate, and they abhor him who speaks uprightly. (The pronoun "they" refers to the Judges of Israel. The pronoun "him" refers to Amos, who was hated because he "spoke uprightly." He no doubt stood in the "gate of the city" and rebuked the worshippers who were coming to Beth-el. If so, this would have been extremely annoying to the religious leaders!)

11 Forasmuch therefore as your treading is upon the poor, and you take from him burdens of wheat: you have built houses of hewn stone, but you shall not dwell in them; you have planted pleasant vineyards, but you shall not drink wine of them. (God's Anger burns against exactions ["burdens"] upon the poor; the luxury obtained by such oppression is short-lived; He knows the multitude and magnitude of such cruel deeds.)

12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time. (The pronoun "they" refers to evil Judges. "Turn aside" addresses the perversion of justice. Consequently, prudent men suffered wrong in silence and did not prosecute those who injured them, knowing it to be useless, because of the corruption of the courts of law.)

14 Seek good, and not evil, that you may live: and so the LORD, the God of Hosts, shall be with you, as you have spoken.

15 Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the LORD God of Hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph. (The prescription for the avoidance of these terrible judgments is given here. In effect, the Holy Spirit condescends to give another Altar Call by saying, "Seek good, and not evil, that you may live.")

REASON FOR LAMENTATION

16 Therefore the LORD, the God of Hosts, the LORD, says thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will pass through you, says the LORD. ("Wailing shall be in all streets," refers to the coming invasion of the Assyrians, because Israel refused to seek the Lord. Such speaks of terrible suffering. "And in all vineyards shall be wailing," portrayed the fact that the carnage would be not only in the cities, but the countryside, as well!)

18 Woe unto you who desire the day of the LORD! to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light. (A double "Woe" is the burden of this Message. The first was pronounced upon false profession [Vss. 18-27]; the second, upon false peace [Chpt. 6]. "Woe unto you who desire the day of the LORD!" professes Israel's claim of readiness to welcome the establishment of Messiah's Kingdom, which would commence with the Coming of the Lord.

The idea of the Verse, and which precipitated their audacious reply concerning the "Day of the LORD," is in answer to Amos' demand, "prepare to meet your God, O Israel" [4:12].)

19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him. (The idea of this Verse is: Israel, because of refusal to repent, is destined for death. It cannot be avoided!)

20 Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it? (Amos further appeals to them, by asking the question, "Do you not feel in your inmost hearts that, in the case of such guilt as yours, the Lord can visit but to punish?")

GOD HATES HYPOCRISY

21 I hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies. (Regarding their man-made religion, even though it closely resembled God's True Way of Salvation, still, the Lord's response is, "This I hate." Let it be understood: God "hates" every proposed form of "atonement" other than the Cross of Christ [Gal. 5:2].

"And I will not smell in your solemn assemblies," pertains to the "sweet savor" which ascended to the Lord upon proper "Burnt Offerings" being offered unto Him [Ex. 29:18]. He is saying that no sweet savor ascends to God from such sacrifices. So the phrase is equivalent to "I will not accept" and "I will take no delight in" [Gen. 8:21; Ex. 29:18; Lev. 26:31].)

22 Though you offer Me burnt offerings and your meat offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beasts. (This Passage proclaims the fact that they maintained the formal ritual of the Mosaic worship in their idolatry. It is the same presently as it regards "Christ and the Cross." Such are mentioned by the modern Church; however, as Israel of old, the object of faith is something else entirely.)

23 Take you away from Me the noise of your songs; for I will not hear the melody of your viols. (The idea is: while the sacrifices were being offered before the golden calf, Psalms and Hymns of praise were being offered to God, accompanied by exquisite sacred music. But the Lord would have none of this! Why? The object of their faith was in the ritual, and not at all in what the sacrifices were supposed to represent, namely, the Coming Redeemer, Who would give His Life on the Cross!)

24 But let judgment run down as waters, and Righteousness as a mighty stream. (Improper faith always results in improper justice. Proper faith, which is Faith in Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross, always results in "Righteousness" [Gal. 2:20-21].)

THEIR IDOLATRY AND JUDGMENT

25 Have you offered unto Me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O House of Israel? (Verses 25 through 27 reveal that the evil of associating idols with God had been their rule from the beginning, and now re-appeared in the calf of Beth-el — it was the resurrection of the Golden Calf. In other words, they were without excuse!)

26 But you have borne the tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which you made to yourselves. (God did not question the fact that they did offer sacrifices in the wilderness. His objection was that the sacrifices were not always to Him. The "unto Me" is emphatic. If God is not served Alone, and with the whole heart, He is not served at all. If the Offering is accepted, then the offeror is accepted. If the offering is rejected, then the offeror also is rejected. Israel's offering was rejected! [Gen., Chpt. 4].)

27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, says the LORD, Whose Name is The God of Hosts. (Enemies of Inspiration affirm that Stephen erred in saying, "Babylon" and not "Damascus" [Acts 7:43]. However, there are two replies to this:

First, Babylon is beyond Damascus. Second, Stephen did not say, "As it is written in the Book of the Prophet," but rather, "in the Book of the Prophets," i.e., the Scriptures. The Prophets more than once predicted a captivity beyond Babylon. And so it fell out. The Ten Tribes were carried beyond Damascus and the two Tribes beyond Babylon.)

CHAPTER 6

WOE TO THOSE WHO ARE AT EASE IN ZION AND TRUST IN MEN

[1] Woe to them who are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, which are named chief of the nations, to whom the House of Israel came! (The phrase, "Woe to them who are at ease in Zion," is the second "Woe" pronounced, and it denounces a false peace. The first "Woe," found in 5:18, addresses itself to the insulting sarcasm of Israel's self-righteousness.)

[2] Pass you unto Calneh, and see; and from thence go you to Hamath the great: then go down to Gath of the Philistines: be they better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border? (The cities mentioned in this Verse were great and prosperous at this particular time. But yet, both Judah and Israel are invited by the Holy Spirit to go and compare their condition with that of other countries, from the furthest east to the north and to their own neighbors, and they will see that God has done so much more for them than for these others. Israel is bidden to remember that she is much more favored than all these.)

[3] You who put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near ("You who put far away the evil day," addresses the approaching day of God's Wrath. The "seat of violence" refers to the corrupt Court of Justice. Upon hearing Amos' stern words, the religious leaders of Samaria assigned a distant date to the time of punishment and calamity, that is, if it should come at all!)**;

[4] Who lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall ("Who lie upon beds of ivory," is meant to portray their Spiritual insensibility, somewhat a result of their prosperity; however, their gain was ill-gotten);

5 Who chant to the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of music, like David (as is obvious, prosperity, producing ease and luxury, was coupled with entertainment; this is not so much different than the modern Church);

6 Who drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments: but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph. ("Who drink wine in bowls," actually referred to the sacrificial bowls, which were used in libations of wine and in the sprinkling of blood, regarding the sacrifices. "And anoint themselves with the chief ointments," could very well have referred to the "holy ointment," as described in the Law of Moses, which was to be used only to anoint "the Ark," "the Table," "the Candlestick," etc. It was definitely not to be put on one's flesh [Ex. 30:32-33].)

CAPTIVITY TO ASSYRIA

7 Therefore now shall they go captive with the first who go captive, and the banquet of them who stretched themselves shall be removed. ("Therefore now shall they go captive with the first who go captive," speaks of Israel falling to the Assyrians about 133 years before the Southern Kingdom of Judah fell to the Babylonians. The last phrase refers to the Nobles of Israel being "removed," which is a gross understatement, to say the least! They would be "removed" as slaves, at least the ones who were not killed.)

8 The Lord GOD has sworn by Himself, says the LORD the God of Hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city with all that is therein. ("The Lord GOD has sworn by Himself," speaks of the threat proceeding directly from Him; it is, therefore, immutable. The balance of this Scripture does not mean that God hates prosperity, but that He hates prosperity that is not gained by His Hand.)

9 And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die. (Pestilence would accompany captivity, or follow it, so deadly that even a large family of ten persons should have but one survivor, if that!)

10 And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he who burns him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him who is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with you? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold your tongue: for we may not make mention of the Name of the LORD. (The phrase, "For we may not make mention of the Name of the LORD," refers to the fact that so conscious would be the survivors that it was a Divine Judgment, they would feel that they dare not use the ordinary language of Spiritual consolation uttered at funerals.)

11 For, behold, the LORD commands, and He will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts. (The "great house" pertains to the Ten Tribes of the Northern Kingdom, while the "little house" refers to the Two Tribes of the Southern Kingdom.)

12 Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? for you have turned judgment into gall, and the fruit of Righteousness into hemlock ("For we have turned judgment into gall, and the fruit of Righteousness into hemlock," refers to Israel turning the Word of God, and all that it promised, against themselves instead of for themselves. Obedience brings blessing, while disobedience brings the opposite!)**:

13 You which rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength? ("You which rejoice in a thing of naught," pertains to Israel trusting idols. The question, "Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength?", refers to military strength and Israel's belief that they were impregnable. Their boast was a consequence of the successful wars with the Syrians [II Ki. 14:25-28]. The Prophet proceeds to demolish their proud vaunt.)

14 But, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, O House of Israel, says the LORD the God of Hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entering in of Hemath unto the river of the wilderness. (The first phrase refers to the Assyrians. The latter phrase predicts the entirety of Israel being wrecked by the Assyrians.)

CHAPTER 7

(787 B.C.)

PROPHECIES (SIGNS) OF DESTRUCTION: GRASSHOPPERS

[1] Thus has the Lord GOD showed unto me; and, behold, He formed grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings. (The revelation of the first nine Verses is: persistence in evil, after repeated forgiveness, will meet with eternal judgment. The first phrase refers to locusts coming upon the harvest. The latter phrase refers to the king taking the first crop of hay and the locusts taking the second, with nothing remaining for the unhappy people. The entirety of this Passage points to the moral Government of God, Who uses Nature to work His Purposes.)

[2] And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech You: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small. (When praying for personal pardon, sin should be magnified; when pleading for the pardon of a neighbor, sins should be minimized.

The first phrase refers to the exhaustion of all sustenance, with no one to help them but the Lord. And sadly, they had no right to ask Him for anything, because they had sinned greatly against Him. The last phrase records Amos acting as an Intercessor on behalf of this hapless people, which the Lord graciously answered.)

[3] The LORD repented for this: It shall not be, sa ys the LORD. (The first phrase literally means that God changed His Direction. The use of the word "repent," at least as it refers to the Lord, infers no wrongdoing whatsoever on His part. It merely means that He wills a change, without changing His Will; for that He cannot do.

"It shall not be, saith the LORD," concerns this particular destruction, in this particular way, but not the overall thrust of the judgment, barring the people's Repentance.)

THE FIRE

4 Thus has the Lord GOD showed unto me: and, behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part. ("Thus has the Lord GOD showed unto me," refers to a further judgment that had been decided in the high counsels of Heaven against Israel. It was a "judgment by fire," and was to be so great that it would "devour the great deep," which means to drink up the very ocean itself.

As bad as this seems, due to the prayer of Amos, it appears that this judgment was lessened in its intensity dramatically so; therefore, the people were given more time to repent, which, sadly, they did not.)

5 Then said I, O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech You: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small. (This petition is the same as in Verse 2, except Jacob says here, "cease," instead of "forgive." Actually, the word "cease" fits perfectly, in that the second invasion of Tiglath-Pileser II was cut short, no doubt in answer to this prayer.)

6 The LORD repented for this: This also shall not be, says the Lord GOD. (Once again, Amos importunes, and once again, the Lord answers. It is similar to that which Abraham asked of the Lord concerning Sodom and Gomorrah [Gen., Chpt. 18].)

THE VISION OF THE PLUMBLINE: NO MORE MERCY

7 Thus He showed me: and, behold, the LORD stood upon a wall made by a plumbline, with a plumbline in His Hand. (Every evidence is that Amos actually saw the Lord in a vision. "And, behold, the LORD stood upon a wall made by a plumbline," actually speaks of the "wall" as the Kingdom of Israel, once carefully built up, solidly constructed, and accurately arranged.

In effect, the Lord is saying that Israel, from henceforth, will have to measure up to the "plumbline," and that all the mercy that could be shown to Israel, due to the petitions of Amos, had been shown, and could not be extended.)

8 And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the LORD, Behold, I will set a plumbline in the midst of My People Israel: I will not again pass by them anymore *(the first phrase portrays the intimacy of the fellowship between Immanuel and the Prophet, and appears with peculiar sweetness in the Prophet being addressed as "Amos" [Jn. 10:3]. "I will not again pass by them anymore," means He would not spare or forgive any more, and the Prophet is thereby instructed to intercede no more. The judgment is irremediable, with the final conquest by Shalmaneser typified here):

9 And the high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword. (The first phrase refers to the entirety of Israel. The latter phrase was fulfilled, as recorded in II Ki. 15:10.)

AMOS AND AMAZIAH

10 Then Amaziah the priest of Beth-el sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the House of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words. (The first phrase portrays the fact that the type of preaching done by Amos was out of place in the Royal Chapel. A State Religion negates any civil and religious liberty. If it is of human origination, it cannot endure the testimony of Truth.

Not to be a member of the State Church is to be, in a degree, a rebel. The king, being the head of the Church, no religious teaching could be permitted which was displeasing to him and to the priests whom he appointed [I Ki. 12:31; 13:1-4]. Amaziah was one of these man-made priests. He was not of the house of Aaron. His charge that Amos predicted the death of the king was a falsehood. Amos predicted the doom of the "house of Jeroboam."

The middle phrase means that at least some few of the Israelites had been convinced by the Prophet's words and had joined ranks with him. Hence, Amaziah speaks of a "conspiracy" against the king.

The phrase, "The land is not able to bear all his words," reveals the effect the Ministry of Amos had on Israel. God give us more today as Amos!)

[11] For thus Amos said, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land. (As stated, the first phrase pertains to the false accusation by Amaziah that Amos had predicted the death of the king. The latter phrase was correct in that it predicted the captivity of Israel. Such is the most hurtful lie of all, in that it contains some truth!)

[12] Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O you Seer, go, flee you away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there *(in other words, you are not wanted here! There is no record that Jeroboam took any steps in consequence of this accusation, either deeming the words of Amos to be unworthy of serious consideration or, like Herod [Mat. 14:5], fearing the people, who had been impressed by the Prophet's words and bold bearing. Consequently, Amaziah seeks by his own authority to make Amos leave the country. He evidently thought that Amos, like himself, preached for money):

[13] But prophesy not again any more at Beth-el: for it is the king's chapel, and it is the king's court. (This heathen priest, as he speaks of the "king's chapel" and the "king's court," acts as if human authority is everything, and the Lord, of Himself, had no claims on the land or the place.)

[14] Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no Prophet, neither was I a Prophet's son; but I was an herdman, and a gatherer of sycomore fruit *(the first phrase proclaims the fact that Amos was not a Preacher of his own will, nor of the will of others. He was not meaning that he was not a "Prophet," but that his calling was not of human origin, but of God):

[15] And the LORD took me as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto My People Israel. (The first phrase proclaims the fact that Prophets are not born such, nor are they self-made, nor made by others. "Go, prophesy unto My People Israel," specifies that the Lord gave Amos a direct Message for Israel, which was not to be added to or taken from!)

16 Now therefore hear thou the Word of the LORD: You say, Prophesy not against Israel, and drop not your word against the house of Isaac. (God had not renounced His Rights as the God of Israel. He called them "My People Israel," and, therefore, pronounced this judgment upon Amaziah. "Now therefore hear thou the Word of the LORD," refers to a Prophecy being directed to this heathen priest personally. The pronoun "thou" emphasizes this.)

17 Therefore thus says the LORD; Your wife shall be an harlot in the city, and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be divided by line; and you shall die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land. (If, in Amos, we have an example of a faithful Prophet, in Amaziah, we have an example of an unfaithful priest. The fate predicted for Amaziah was indeed terrible; but we discern in its appointment, not the malice of a human foe, but the justice of a Divine Ruler.

Concerning the demand of Amaziah, "you shall not prophesy," Amos' keen retort was, "Thus says the LORD." Such will always be the case with the True Prophet of God.)

CHAPTER 8

(787 B.C.)

THE VISION OF THE BASKET OF RIPE FRUIT: ISRAEL SOON TO PERISH

[1] Thus has the Lord GOD showed unto me: and behold a basket of summer fruit. (The gathering of fruit was the last harvest of the year, and was done in October. As it was the last harvest of the year, it also fitly typified the final warning to Israel.)

[2] And He said, Amos, what do you see? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, The end is come upon My People of Israel; I will not again pass by them anymore. (The last phrase means that the Lord will not forgive them anymore, nor show any more Mercy, because of their refusal to repent.)

[3] And the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, sa ys the Lord GOD: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth with silence. ("Howlings" portray the coming disposition of Israel changed from its present occupation of revelry, luxury, and entertainment to one of judgment, desolation, destitution, and stark horror. The Lord is represented here as casting dead bodies to the ground so that death is everywhere, with the interjection, "Hush!" as an admonition to bend beneath the hand of an avenging God.)

SINS OF ISRAEL

[4] Hear this, O you who swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail (God's Love for the poor and His burning Anger against their oppressors once more appear)**,

[5] Saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit? (By reducing the size of the ephah, by overcharging, and by falsifying the scales, they robbed the defenseless; plunging them into debt, they sold them into slavery for a trifle, in defiance of Lev. 25:39.

"Saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell corn?", refers to the first day of the month on which all trade was supposed to be suspended. Num. 28:18 proclaims this. These greedy individuals kept the festivals, but they grudged the time given to them, and considered them as wasted. In other words, they had no time for the Lord!)

6 That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yes, and sell the refuse of the wheat? (The idea of this Verse is that the poor, because of the dishonesty of much of the upper class, kept getting poorer, and they were compelled to pay their debt by selling themselves into slavery. "And the needy for a pair of shoes," means that they dealt harshly even for the smallest debt.

"Yes, and sell the refuse of the wheat," referred to a type of scale, which, when the grain was poured into it for weighing, had openings in the bottom, not visible to the seller, which caused as much as 10-20 percent of the grain to sift into an unseen container, giving a short weight. They would then sell that which was called "refuse," which had actually been stolen, adding more dishonest gain to their already dishonest gain.)

JUDGMENT AND WANDERINGS

7 The LORD has sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works. ("The excellency of Jacob," speaks of God Himself. In Verse 2, He says, "I will not forgive"; now He says, "I will never forget," expressing His pity for the oppressed and His eternal Anger against the oppressors.)

8 Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn who dwells therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Egypt. (The idea is that coming Judgment shall flood the land.)

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, sa ys the Lord GOD, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the Earth in the clear day (this speaks of an eclipse of the sun. At exactly what time the Holy Spirit is speaking of in this particular Passage is not known)**:

10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day. (The last phrase, "And the end thereof as a bitter day," sums up the entirety of this Passage. It speaks of the attack by the Assyrians and the shock of its brutal force finally registering upon Israel.)

11 Behold, the days come, says the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the Words of the LORD (what the leaders of Israel had demanded of Amos, they will now get! They will be carted away to captivity, at least those who were left, with the results being that there would be no more "hearing the Words of the LORD." What Israel wanted, Israel got; however, what she got did not turn out to be what she thought she wanted!)**:

12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the Word of the LORD, and shall not find it. (Then the Word of the Lord would be eagerly desired, but not realized; sought, but not found; called for, but not answered! And it must be quickly added, nothing could be worse! On all counts, the prosperity of a people and a nation is "the Word of the LORD." Deprived of that, the people are left aimless and without direction.)

13 In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst. (The "thirst" spoken of here concerns Spiritual Thirst, which can only be satisfied by the "Word of the LORD.")

14 They who swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, Your god, O Dan, lives; and, The manner of Beer-sheba lives; even they shall fall, and never rise up again. (Samaria, Dan, Beth-el, Gilgal, and Beer-sheba were centers of idolatry in Israel [Hos. 4:15; 9:15; 12:11; I Ki. 12:26-30]. This truth is demonstrated by the fate of the Jews who will not receive Christ as the promised Messiah and consequently have fallen to "never rise up again." And so shall it be for all who reject Christ as their eternal Saviour!)

CHAPTER 9

STRIKING THE LINTEL; GOD'S JUDGMENTS ARE INESCAPABLE

[1] I saw the LORD standing upon the Altar: and He said, Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and cut them in the head, all of them; and I will kill the last of them with the sword: he who flees of them shall not flee away, and he who escapes of them shall not be delivered. (The first phrase refers to Amos actually and literally seeing the Lord, as He stood upon the "Brazen Altar" in front of the Temple in Jerusalem. Even though the pronouncement of judgment is more pointedly against the Northern Kingdom, still, the whole of both kingdoms is meant, because the restoration of both kingdoms is referred to in Verses 11 through 15.

The phrase, "And He said, Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake," refers to the destruction of the Temple, which would take place a little over 150 years from Amos' time. The implication is: total destruction from summit to base.)

[2] Though they dig into Hell, thence shall My Hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down (the Holy Spirit, upon reading the minds of the people as they heard the words of Amos, proclaims to them the folly of their thoughts of escape. Men presently, and for all time, have "dug into Hell," i.e., delved into witchcraft, but found that demon spirits could not protect them from the Hand of God. As well, they have "climbed up to heaven," the exploration of near space; but, despite the Russian Cosmonauts declaring that they nowhere saw God, still, "He brought them down," i.e., destroyed the Soviet Union)**:

[3] And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence: and though they be hid from My Sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them (the idea is: there will be no escaping this coming judgment!):

4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them; and I will set My Eyes upon them for evil, and not for good. (For the Lord to do such a thing means that countless opportunities for Repentance have been spurned, with every plea by the Holy Spirit rejected.)

FINAL PROPHECY OF DISPERSION

5 And the Lord GOD of Hosts is He Who touches the land, and it shall melt, and all who dwell therein shall mourn: and it shall rise up wholly like a flood; and shall be drowned, as by the flood of Egypt. (The title, "Lord GOD of Hosts," in the Hebrew is "Jehovah Elohim Zebaoth," and represents God not only as ruler of the heavenly bodies, but as the Monarch of a multitude of Heavenly Spirits, who execute His Will, worship Him in His Abiding-place, and are attendants and witnesses of His Glory.

As the Nile River in Egypt floods at times and covers the land, likewise, the Judgment of God will cover Israel.)

6 It is He Who builds His Stories in the Heaven, and has founded His Troop in the Earth; He Who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out upon the face of the Earth: The LORD is His Name. ("It is He Who builds His Stories in the Heaven," refers to God's Headquarters on Planet Heaven. "And has founded His Troop in the Earth," seems, in the original language, to have the idea of making the arch of the heavens above the Earth, that is, the immediate heaven surrounding the Earth, i.e., the expanse, clouds, atmosphere, etc.

The phrase, "The LORD is His Name," refers to God as Creator of all things, and not mindless evolution.)

7 Are you not as children of the Ethiopians unto Me, O Children of Israel? says the LORD. Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt? and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir?

(The proud boast of the Israelites, namely, that they were God's peculiar People and that their Redemption from Egypt demonstrated that they were His Favorites, was a fleshly boast, and is combatted by this Verse.

Spiritually, they were "as Ethiopians" [Jer. 13:23]; historically, they could only rank as the Philistines and the Syrians, whom God, in His Providence, had also delivered from captivity and probably had also brought out of Egypt originally. Consequently, as Israel of old, election by God cannot, and in fact does not, guarantee Salvation when the conduct does not correspond with God's Word.)

8 Behold, the Eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the Earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, says the LORD. ("And I will destroy it from off the face of the Earth," refers to both Israel and ultimately Judah ceasing as independent nations. The Ten-Tribe Kingdom was destroyed by the Assyrians a few years after the time of Amos, never to rise again. About 133 years after their destruction, Judah also fell!

After the dispersion, elements of all the Tribes came back to the Promised Land, although as a vassal state to a foreign power until their destruction in A.D. 70. For nearly 2,000 years, they ceased to be a nation, but did remain as a people. Only since 1948 have they enjoyed Statehood, but they are to see some very difficult days not too far into the future.)

9 For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the House of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth. (In Verses 8 and 9, the Lord says, "I will destroy," "I will command," "I will sift." God Himself promises to be the Principal. Even though it sounds extremely negative, still, this is all lovely and consoling to Faith. It secures the absolute Salvation of the Remnant. The smallest grain is as sure of eternal safety as the largest, hence the phrase, "Yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.")

10 All the sinners of My People shall die by the sword, which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us. (Even though the Lord calls them "My People," still, He also calls them "sinners"; barring Repentance, these

"sinners" will "die by the sword." As well, they will lose their souls!)

RESTORATION OF DAVID'S KINGDOM UNDER THE MESSIAH

11 In that day will I raise up the Tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old ("In that day," refers to the future day of Restoration, which will follow the present night of desolation. As well, it is the "Tabernacle of David" which is to be raised up, and not of Jeroboam, nor of Jehu, etc. "And I will build it as in the days of old," is also quoted in Acts 15:14-18. It refers to the fact that this will be fulfilled only after the Church Age, actually in the Kingdom Age)**:

12 That they may possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, which are called by My Name, says the LORD Who does this. ("That they may possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen," actually refers to "Adam," that is, all of mankind. The new-born Israel, after the Second Coming of the Lord, will take possession of all nations and bring them to Immanuel, thus, totally fulfilling the Commission of Mat. 28:19. As well, these nations will come willingly and gladly, realizing that Israel is the source of all blessings.)

13 Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him who sows seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt. ("Behold, the days come, says the LORD," pertains to the certitude of this action. As the day of Judgment was sure to come, likewise, the day of Blessing is sure to come, as well!

This speaks of the coming Kingdom Age, when Israel will truly be a Land flowing with "milk and honey," which will bless the entirety of the Earth.)

14 And I will bring again the captivity of My People of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them. (Verses 13 through 15 concern the coming Restoration of Israel, which will take place immediately following the

Second Coming. "And I will bring again the captivity of My People of Israel," concerns a length of time that has now lasted for nearly 2,000 years; if we count the time they were a vassal state, it is some 2,500 years.

The tone and intent of the Verse also claim that the contesting of the Land of Israel will be forever ended. This signifies that Satan's day is done!)

15 And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, says the LORD your God. (Thus, Amos closes his great Book with the words, "says the LORD your God," which seal the Predictions and Promises.)

Obadiah

EDOM'S FALL PREDICTED

[1] The vision of Obadiah. Thus says the Lord GOD concerning Edom; We have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise you, and let us rise up against her in battle. ("The vision of Obadiah" is actually the title of the Book, that is, if this short Prophecy could be declared as such. The word "vision" concerns the manner in which the Holy Spirit gave this Word to Obadiah.

The meaning of the word "Edom" is "red" or "rosy," the same as Adam. Hence, Edom typifies the first Adam, who failed and, therefore, the flesh, while Israel typified the Last Adam, Christ, Who succeeded by the Power of the Holy Spirit.

The last phrase refers to the Lord guiding these particular nations respecting opposition to Edom, portraying His minute Involvement, not only in the affairs of individuals, but even entire nations.)

[2] Behold, I have made you small among the heathen: you are greatly despised. (The Edomites boasted of their strength, the impregnability of their country, and their wisdom. Actually, the Edomites at this time were a powerful nation, and possessed an almost impregnable seat at Petra. But yet, the words of Verse 1, "Let us rise up," refer to the nations coming against her, with little fear of her boasts.)

[3] The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; who says in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground? (The phrase, "The pride of your heart has deceived you," refers to the reason for God's opposition to these people. "You who dwell in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high," refers to the capital city of Petra. Consequently, not only were they "high" respecting topography, but "high" in their own hearts, as evidenced in this Scripture.

Their question, "Who shall bring me down to the ground?" was directed at Israel's God as much as at any nation. They considered themselves superior to Israel and their god superior to Jehovah.)

4 Though you exalt yourself as the eagle, and though you set your nest among the stars, thence will I bring you down, says the LORD. (Even though such is spoken to Edom, the thrust of the Message is directed at Edom's sponsor, Satan [Isa. 14:13-15].)

5 If thieves came to you, if robbers by night, (how are you cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grapegatherers came to you, would they not leave some grapes? (The idea is: foreign powers would heavily tax the country, thereby representing the "thieves," while ultimately Edom would be invaded, signifying violence. The Prophet then exclaims, "How are you cut off!" signifying a total desolation, which is exactly what happened down through the centuries, until there are no Edomites left.)

THE REASON FOR JUDGMENT EXPLAINED: SIN

6 How are the things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden things sought up! (Edom sprang from Esau, Jacob's brother; it is believed that Esau may have founded the city of Petra. Considering that this city was a great emporium of trade between Arabia and Syria and that in it great treasures were stored, this Verse predicts that these "hidden things" will be "sought up" and pilfered!)

7 All the men of your confederacy have brought you even to the border: the men who were at peace with you have deceived you, and prevailed against you; they who eat your bread have laid a wound under you: there is none understanding in him. (The first phrase probably refers to Moab, Ammon, Tyre, and Zidon, who joined together to resist Nebuchadnezzar and were smitten by him [Jer. 27:3]. Edom sent ambassadors to these allies, asking help, but the messengers were conducted back to their borders with their request not granted, because the allies were unwilling to entangle themselves in the fate of Edom.

The middle phrase refers to these nations mentioned of their confederacy, but which would not give Edom the help promised. As well, no amount of argument could persuade them to change their political stance, hence fulfilling the Passage, "and prevailed against you."

The next to the last phrase implies the closest friendship being violated by deception and treachery.

The last phrase, "There is none understanding in him," portrays the shock of this defection of allies, to where they [Edom] did not know where to turn or what to do.)

8 Shall I not in that day, says the LORD, even destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the Mount of Esau? (The first phrase refers to the Lord Himself Personally intervening in the thinking processes of the individuals involved, so that they should not anymore be able to offer prudent counsel or suggest plans of safety. The conclusion of the question, "And understanding out of the Mount of Esau?" is not thus designated by chance. It is meant to infer that all human wisdom, irrespective of its brilliance and sagacity, will ultimately be brought to extinction.

The entirety, therefore, of the prediction, even though applying to "Edom" of old, nevertheless points to the entirety of the human family and the cause of all problems and its destruction.)

9 And your mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the Mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter. ("To the end," concerns a judicial blindness inflicted that all may perish, and by the Lord at that! The last phrase tells us that they do not go quietly into that dark night.)

10 For your violence against your brother Jacob shame shall cover you, and you shall be cut off for ever. (The first phrase refers to the ruin and captivity of the children of Judah and Jerusalem, which caused great jubilation among the sons of Esau. As well, her opposition included far more than jubilation over Israel's troubles, but instead included hostile action.

Their conduct was aggravated by the fact that the victim was their "brother Jacob," who was commanded not to hate the Edomites [Deut. 23:7]. As stated, they were descendants of Esau, Jacob's brother, which, in a sense, made them brothers to Israel. Nevertheless, the Edomites had always been actively hostile to Israel.)

[11] In the day that you stood on the other side, in the day that the strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even you were as one of them. (In this Verse, it is not likely that Obadiah was speaking of the sack of Jerusalem and Nebuchadnezzar, because every evidence is that his Prophecy was given before that time. So the reference is probably to the Philistines and Arabians [II Chron. 21:16].

The phrase, "Even you were as one of them," places Edom, even though a blood relative of Israel, in the same category as the "strangers" and "foreigners," meaning they were such to the God of Israel.)

[12] But you should not have looked on the day of your brother in the day that he became a stranger; neither should you have rejoiced over the Children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither should you have spoken proudly in the day of distress. (As the previous Verse spoke of past offenses, this Verse speaks of future offenses. Consequently, it should have been translated, "Do not look," "Do not rejoice," etc. Obadiah, knowing their past behavior, knowing that Jerusalem will suffer another and more fatal conquest, warns the Edomites against repeating this malicious conduct.

They first looked, and now they rejoiced, but they never dreamed that God is observing all of their actions. In fact, they didn't even believe in Jehovah.)

[13] You should not have entered into the gate of My People in the day of their calamity; yes, you should not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity (Three times the Holy Spirit uses the phrase, "In the day of their calamity," referring to Israel, in order to make certain of the time of which He speaks. Such insinuates their helplessness, and the anger expressed by the Lord at Edom taking advantage of that helplessness. It didn't sit well, not at all, with the Lord!);

14 Neither should you have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of His who did escape; neither should you have delivered up those of His who did remain in the day of distress. (Even though Judah had greatly sinned and was suffering the Judgment of God, still, the Lord looked with jaundiced eye at those who would seek to further hinder them, as did Edom.)

EDOM IN THE DAY OF THE LORD; THEIR FATE

15 For the day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen: as you have done, it shall be done unto you: your reward shall return upon your own head. ("The day of the LORD," points to the far off future day of God's Wrath, at least "far off" from Obadiah's day. At this point, the Prophecy passes on to the future and predicts an annihilation of all the nations, as nations, that seek to injure God's ancient People.

The phrase, "As you have done, it shall be done unto you," was, in effect, quoted by Christ [Mat. 7:2].)

16 For as you have drunk upon My Holy Mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually, yes, they shall drink and they shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been. ("For as you have drunk upon My Holy Mountain," is to be taken literally. It quite possibly refers to the destruction of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar, with the Edomites gloating over the Fall of the city and the destruction of the Temple, with them also indulging in unseemly revelry and then profaning with their idolatrous festival the mountain which had been hallowed by God's Presence. The "drinking" here, as stated, is literal, while, in the following phrase, it is figurative.

"So shall all the heathen drink continually," does not refer to them drinking wine, but to drinking the Wrath of God [Jer. 25:15].

Even though this Judgment will take into consideration all the many centuries past, still, the heavier weight will fall on the activity during the Great Tribulation. Then the Antichrist will make his debut, not only to take over the entirety of the world; but, as Hitler, he will also seek to totally annihilate the Jews!)

ISRAEL'S ULTIMATE TRIUMPH AND RESTORATION

17 But upon Mount Zion shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness; and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions. (The restoration and age-enduring prosperity of the house of Jacob are the themes of Verses 17 through 21. The entire land from the Euphrates to the river of Egypt, promised to Abraham, shall become the possession of his children. All of this will take place in the coming Kingdom Age!)

18 And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau; for the LORD has spoken it. (About 2,500 years ago, this prediction was written. Today no Edomite can be found. But the symbolic Edom persists and will persist up to the Day of the Lord [Isa. 63:1-6]. In the Spiritual Sense, and as we have stated, "Edom," or "this house of Esau," represents all who oppose God and His Plan. Of this, the Scripture plainly says, "And there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau; for the Lord has spoken it.")

19 And they of the south shall possess the Mount of Esau; and they of the plain the Philistines: and they shall possess the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria: and Benjamin shall possess Gilead. (The idea of this Verse is that Israel will finally possess the entirety of her land, with it never to be contested any more. This will be done by the Power of God; in fact, Israel, at that time, the Kingdom Age, will be the most powerful nation in the world.)

20 And the captivity of this host of the Children of Israel shall possess that of the Canaanites, even unto Zarephath; and the captivity of Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the south.

(“And the captivity of this host of the Children of Israel,” concerns all the Jews in the world, who will then come back to Israel, and gladly so!)

21 And saviours shall come up on Mount Zion to judge the Mount of Esau; and the Kingdom shall be the LORD’s. (“And saviours shall come up on Mount Zion to judge the Mount of Esau,” refers to the coming of the Lord, together with all His Glorified Saints, and all the Angels [Isa. 63:1-6; Zech. 14:1-5, 14; II Thess. 1:7-10; Jude 14-15; Rev. 19:11-21].

“And the Kingdom shall be the LORD’s,” refers to the Kingdom which will never end, and which was seen by Nebuchadnezzar in his dream of the statue, which was interpreted by Daniel [Dan. 2:44-45].)

Jonah

Chapters

1 — 2 — 3 — 4

CHAPTER 1

(862 B.C.)

GOD COMMISSIONS JONAH

[1] Now the Word of the LORD came unto Jonah the son of Amittai, saying (it is thought that the Book of Jonah was written about 800 B.C., or possibly a little later. Jonah means "a dove," while Amittai means "true." "The Word of the LORD," is a decisive statement, which claims and demonstrates the truthfulness of the entire Book. The same statement is used some seven times in the entirety of the Book, with the number "seven" exclaiming the totality and perfection of the statement [1:1; 2:10; 3:1,3; 4:4, 9-10].

"Unto Jonah the son of Amittai, saying," specifies the Prophet and that he is to deliver the Message, and no one else),

[2] Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before Me. ("Nineveh" was the capital of the mighty Assyrian Empire, which was the dominant force in the world of that day. The Message given to Jonah by the Holy Spirit, "Arise, go to Nineveh," must have been a shock to the Prophet, to say the least! No Prophet had ever been sent, as such, to the Gentiles, and especially to those as cruel as the Ninevites.

As well, the command given by the Lord, "Cry against it," certainly was not a word that would endear him to the people of that city. To warn men of their sins and to tell them of Judgment to come, whether near or far, is seldom met with approbation. It is normally met with hostility and censure; consequently, many Prophets were killed.)

JONAH REFUSES AND FLEES FROM GOD

3 But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the Presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the Presence of the LORD. ("Tarshish" was located on the south coast of Spain; it was in the opposite direction to Nineveh. Jonah was sent to the far east, while he fled to the distant west. "From the Presence of the Lord," is repeated twice by the Holy Spirit, which is not by accident, but by design.)

THE LORD SENDS A STORM

4 But the LORD sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken. ("But the LORD sent out a great wind into the sea," is but the first of several phases of this nature, where the Lord took a direct hand in guiding the affairs of the Prophet.)

THE MARINERS' PRAYERS

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep. (There is no conscience so insensible as that of a disobedient Believer. The sailors were praying, but Jonah was sleeping. He first went down to Joppa, then down into the ship, and then down into the sides of the ship.

The storm was powerful, and the sailors on-board tried to do everything possible to save their ship. But the problem wasn't their goods; it was Jonah!)

JONAH TOLD TO PRAY

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon your God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not. (Here the Prophet's stupor is rebuked by the heathen's faith. "Arise, call upon your God," petitions Jonah to pray to Jehovah. "If so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not," is interesting indeed! Even though these mariners worshipped many gods, they here use the word "God" with the article, "Ha Elohim" ["the God"], as if they have a dim notion of One Supreme Deity, which no doubt they did!)

CASTING LOTS; JONAH CHOSEN

[7] And they said everyone to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah. (The "lot" they cast did not tell them the problem, but only of the person who could point out the problem. That person was "Jonah.")

JONAH'S CONFESSION

[8] Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray you, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is your occupation? and from where do you come? what is your country? and of what people are you? (Considering how they probed Jonah, the questions asked by these heathen hit at the very heart of the Plan of God, not only for Israel, but for the entirety of the human family, and for all time!)

[9] And he said unto them, I am a Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of Heaven, which has made the sea and the dry land. (The last phrase means, at least to the ears of these heathen, that Jehovah was not a local deity like the false gods whom they worshipped, but the Creator of Heaven and Earth, the Maker and Ruler of sea and dry land. By his statement, they perfectly understood of Whom he was speaking; the next Verse proclaims their response.)

[10] Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why have you done this? For the men knew that he fled from the Presence of the LORD, because he had told them. ("Then were the men exceedingly afraid," proclaims their understanding of the Greatness of Jehovah and the terrible risk incurred by one who offends Him. The last phrase proclaims their amazement that one who worshipped the Almighty Creator should disobey His Command. To them, this seemed outrageous and even criminal, which it was!)

[11] Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto you, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous. (By now, they are very cognizant of the fact that their plight is not ordinary, that they are facing power far beyond anything they have ever known, and that this man Jonah is the pivot point. The last phrase tells us that the storm was growing more intense even by the moment.)

[12] And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you. (There is a note of resignation in this statement given by Jonah, portraying that he had come to the place of recognition regarding his disobedience, and that it would do no good to resist further. He was willing to suffer the fate that was due him because of his disobedience, which he thought was death!)

[13] Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them. (The first phrase proclaims the fact that even though they were sure about him being the cause, still, they were not certain as to what his God would do to them, inasmuch as throwing him overboard would mean his certain death. The storm was now raging, and they knew that Jehovah was the cause of such; whatever they did, they did not want to further offend the Lord.

"For the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them," refers to the Lord bringing the waves against them to just an extent that it would stop their progress but not destroy their ship.)

[14] Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech You, O LORD, we beseech You, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for You, O LORD, have done as it pleased You. (This prayer is remarkable, considering that they neither knew nor served Jehovah!)

JONAH CAST OVERBOARD

15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ceased from her raging. ("So they took up Jonah," means "with reverence." "And cast him forth into the sea," means they did so with great regret, thinking they were certainly sending him to his doom.

Immediately this was done, the sea ceased from her raging, showing it had been sent on Jonah's account, and that they had not sinned or committed any type of wrongdoing by executing this sentence upon him.)

16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows. (There is evidence here that they accepted Jehovah because of what they had seen. "Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly," has reference to the Truth that they feared God even more than Jonah did, at least up to this point.

"And offered a Sacrifice unto the LORD," probably means that they offered up an animal immediately, which the original Text implies. Quite possibly, there was a lamb or a small calf on board, which was used for this purpose.

"And made vows," means that they promised themselves to continue to offer Sacrifices unto Jehovah. Thus, their actions portray their belief in God, the renouncing of idol worship, and their conversion to Judaism.)

17 Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights. ("Now the LORD had prepared a great fish," does not mean that the fish was created then and there, but that the Lord ordered it to be at a certain place and at a certain time in order to swallow Jonah.

Frank Bullen, a famous writer of the early 1900's, states in his books that he often saw in the stomach of whales whole fish, ten to twelve times the size of a man.

"And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights," refers to at least 72 hours, because it spoke of three literal days and three literal nights.

The historical nature of this occurrence is even more so substantiated by Christ's reference to it as a figure of His Own Burial and Resurrection.)

CHAPTER 2

JONAH'S PRAYER, REPENTANCE, AND DELIVERANCE

[1] Then Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly (the three short words, "Then Jonah prayed," pertain to the place to which the Holy Spirit had been attempting to bring the Prophet all along)**,

[2] And said, I cried by reason of my affliction unto the LORD, and He heard me; out of the belly of Hell cried I, and You heard my voice. (In Verses 2 through 9, the Prophet quotes from eight Psalms — 120, 43, 31, 69, 18, 116, 3, 142.

"Out of the belly of Hell cried I, and You heard my voice," does not mean that Jonah actually went to the burning side of Hell, or even to Paradise [which, in fact, is a part of Hell]. He is using a metaphor, or a symbolism, concerning the terrible ordeal which he experienced.

As well, from the Text, there is no evidence that he literally died and was resurrected, as some teach. It basically refers to destitution and a situation so terrible, from which only the Lord could deliver.

Consequently, and with great joy, he once again says, "And You heard my voice.")

[3] For You had cast me into the deep, in the midst of the seas; and the floods compassed me about: all Your Billows and Your Waves passed over me. ("For You had cast me into the deep, in the midst of the seas," refers to the sailors, as the agents of Divine Will, carrying out this unsavory task.

"And the floods compassed me about: all Your Billows and Your Waves passed over me," pertains to the time between when he was thrown into the sea and when he was swallowed up by the "great fish." During this time, he thought he was going to drown!

No doubt, his praying commenced at that moment; however, the "belly of Hell" of Verse 2 is actually speaking of the belly of the "great fish.")

4 Then I said, I am cast out of Your Sight; yet I will look again toward Your Holy Temple. (The first phrase refers to his despair when cast overboard. His words are similar to Ps. 31:22.

"Yet I will look again toward Your Holy Temple," refers to him praying to the Lord and importuning Him for Mercy.)

5 The waters compassed me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head. (There is evidence that the ship in which Jonah was sailing was not very far offshore when the storm broke, because the mariners attempted to row back to shore to put Jonah back on land [Vs. 13]. Consequently, the possibility exists that the waters were not so deep at this particular place, and that he could have gone to the bottom, or nearly so, when he was thrown overboard, resulting in "weeds being wrapped about his head." "The waters compassed me about, even to the soul," refers to Jonah nearly drowning.)

6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the Earth with her bars was about me forever: yet have You brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God. ("I went down to the bottoms of the mountains, the Earth with her bars was about me forever," expresses Jonah's near-drowning experience. "Yet have You brought up my life from corruption," has reference to him being saved from drowning and from the "corruption" of the past few days, referring to his running from God.

He gives the Lord all the Praise and Glory for this great act of Mercy, with the statement, "O LORD my God." The phrase shows that Jonah is now back in fellowship with the Lord!)

7 When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD: and my prayer came in unto You, into Your Holy Temple. (The first phrase refers to desperation! The last phrase refers to that desperation causing him to cry unto the Lord!)

8 They who observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy. (The fact that suffering and self-ruin result from self-will and the negation of God had now become a matter of personal experience to the Prophet, for he had forsaken God and united in travel with idolaters.

"Forsake their own mercy," is interesting indeed! It means that God is ready, able, and willing to show "Mercy" to any and all who will dare to believe Him. To forsake that is to forsake everything!)

9 But I will sacrifice unto You with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD. ("Salvation is of the LORD," presents the last lesson that proud man consents to learn; for it teaches him that he cannot contribute to his own Salvation — for what could Jonah do inside the great fish — and so, if man is to be saved, the Salvation must be wholly Divine.

"But I will sacrifice unto You with the voice of thanksgiving," refers to the "Peace Offering," which Jonah hoped to offer when possible [Lev. 7:11-12].)

10 And the LORD spoke unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land. ("And the LORD spoke unto the fish," once again portrays the Lord in total control over all His Creation. The "fish" quickly obeyed the Lord, while Jonah did not come to this position so easily.)

CHAPTER 3

JONAH'S SECOND COMMISSION; HIS OBEDIENCE

1 And the Word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying (Chapter 1 is the story of Jonah's call and rebellion, while Chapter 2 portrays his Repentance and Salvation from what looked like certain death. Chapter 3 proclaims Jonah's preaching in Nineveh and the Repentance of that city.

"The second time," seems to imply that Jonah earnestly sought the Lord regarding his continued commission; fearful he would do something the Lord did not desire, he waited until there was a definite re-commission. Such does not show a reticence on his part, but rather a compelling desire to please God),

2 Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid you. (The commission given here is basically the same as that given in Verse 2 of Chapter 1. There the Holy Spirit said, "Cry against it," where here He says, "Preach unto it."

"And preach unto it the preaching that I bid you," refers to the Lord being the Author of all that Jonah was to say.)

3 So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the Word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city of three days' journey. ("Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city of three days' journey," concerns the size of the city and not the distance of Jonah's travel. The city was about 64 miles around, which would take a man about three days' walking to get around the city.)

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown. (The first phrase probably means that Jonah came into the city about 12 miles distance. "And he cried," proclaims him standing possibly in some marketplace or at a busy intersection, lifting up his voice, loudly shouting the Message the Lord had given him. His Message was as follows: "Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown."

As recorded in Mat. 16:1-4 and Lk. 11:30, Jonah was a "sign" to the Ninevites; that is, he was a personal illustration of the Wrath and Grace of God.)

NINEVEH REPENTED; GRANTED MERCY

5 So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. (We have here one of the few times in history where people, even heathen, actually believed the Prophet sent by the Lord. As such, they repented, "from the greatest of them even to the least of them," i.e., from the king down to lowest servant.)

6 For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. ("For word came unto the king of Nineveh," proclaims the fact that the tokens of penitence mentioned in Verse 5 were not exhibited in obedience to any royal command; rather, as the impression made by the Prophet spread among the people, and as they adopted these modes of showing their sorrow, the news of this movement reached the king, and he put himself at the head of it.

The reigning Monarch was probably either Shalmaneser III or one of the two who succeeded him, Asshur-Danil or Asshur-Nirari.

"And he arose from his throne," proclaims a heartfelt disposition which abdicated his lofty position as the leading Monarch of the world in favor of Jehovah. In other words, he was saying, "Lord, You are King, and not I."

"And he laid his robe from him," also signifies a total commitment to the Commands of the Lord.

7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything: let them not feed, nor drink water (to be sure, the "decree of the king and his nobles" in no way caused the Repentance, but was rather a result of what was already happening. Repentance cannot be legislated, and Salvation cannot be legislated. Such action always must be a "result of" rather than a "cause of")**:

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yes, let them turn everyone from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands. (True Repentance always involves separation from evil. "And cry mightily unto God," refers to all people, from the least to the greatest, admitting their sin before God and that they deserve destruction, but were pleading for mercy.

"Yes, let them turn everyone from his evil way," is, as we have said, the very ingredient of Repentance. The idea is to turn from the "evil way" to "God's Way." God does not save "in sin," but instead "from sin." Therefore, the idea that the Blood of Jesus Christ is the only difference between the saved and the unsaved is facetious indeed!

"And from the violence that is in their hands," refers to the "acts of violence" that their hands had committed. This was, in fact, the special sin of the Assyrians — always grasping after empires, oppressing other nations, and doing so with great violence. They were an extremely cruel people!)

9 Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from His fierce anger, that we perish not? (His terminology, in the form of a question, "Who can tell if God will...?" proclaims an understanding of God that is of far greater dimension than most. Even though the Scripture is silent, still, it seems that Jonah may have had a personal audience with the king, for Verse 6 says, "For word came unto the king of Nineveh." It is unlikely that he would have had merely by hearsay a firm grasp of Spiritual matters, which it seems he did have.

"That we perish not," concerns the Monarch truly believing the Word of the Lord, which is not the case with most presently!)

10 And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that He had said that He would do unto them; and He did it not. (Fear and a sense of guilt cause a man to repent; love and a sense of pity, God; for He reserves liberty of action to Himself. With God, Repentance means a change of purpose or action and never wrongdoing on His Part. With man, Repentance also means a change of purpose or action, but always refers to wrongdoing on his part.

The phrase, "And God saw their works," does not refer to Salvation being of works, but that their faith had works, which was Repentance [James 2:26].)

CHAPTER 4

JONAH'S DISPLEASURE, ANGER, AND COMPLAINT

[1] But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry. (Man's moral consciousness demands punishment for evil, and a fleshly orthodoxy requires suppression of mercy and compassion. Jonah was religiously indignant that the crimes and cruelties of Nineveh should be lightly regarded by God in this fashion and forgiven, just as a moral man is shocked at the idea that God will forgive, cleanse, and pardon in a moment's time, even the vilest of sin, upon proper confession and admission to Him [I Jn. 1:9].)

[2] And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray You, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that You are a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and You repent of the evil. (In this Verse, Jonah quotes Ex. 34:6 and Num. 14:18. He no doubt reasoned that a total destruction of Nineveh, manifestly Divine, would advantage his own nation Spiritually and politically. It would remove her oppressor and, at the same time, convince his countrymen of the wickedness and folly of idolatry.

As well, God's Plan was to teach Israel by the example of Nineveh how inexcusable was their own impenitence and how inevitable their ruin.

There is every evidence from his question, "Was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country?", that the Lord had already told him that Nineveh would repent, if the Message was properly delivered. Jonah did not desire this, so, at first, he refused to go.

His statement, "Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish," tells us that he did not desire Nineveh to be spared. Such an attitude is unthinkable, but yet such attitude continues to plague the modern Church.)

3 Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech You, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live. (First of all, Jonah probably thought that his fellow countrymen would not be happy at all with the turn of events regarding Nineveh; and of that, he was probably right. However, what others think is of little consequence; it's what God knows that counts!)

GOD'S LESSON TO JONAH

4 Then said the LORD, Do you well to be angry? (Irrespective of Jonah's attitude, the Lord's handling of the Prophet, as always, was with gentleness. The Lord bids him to consider whether his anger is reasonable?)

5 So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city. (The phrase, "So Jonah went out of the city," respects the view that he thought there still may be a possibility that God would destroy Nineveh. We see him leaving this Move of God because he took no joy in seeing the conversion of these people.)

6 And the LORD God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah was exceeding glad of the gourd. ("And the LORD God prepared a gourd," proclaims the same action as the "Lord preparing the great fish," and later "preparing the worm," and the "east wind." So, Jonah pouts, while the Lord positions.)

7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered. (Religious emotions, which are personal and not of the Holy Spirit can be easily affected by the provision or loss of material comforts, because such actually are not Faith. So now, the Lord will prepare a worm to smite the gourd. The Lord is teaching the Prophet that He can give and He can take away!)

8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live. (He could have been in Nineveh rejoicing with the people at the Mercy of God, but instead he is sitting out in the desert wishing to die! Self-will is Satanic; therefore, the Holy Spirit will go to all lengths to rid us of this malady. Someone has well said: The Lord died on Calvary not only to save us from sin, but also to save us from self.)

9 And God said to Jonah, Do you well to be angry for the gourd? and he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death. (It is very striking when one begins to notice the variety of names used of the Lord in these Passages [Vss. 6-9]. The production of the gourd is attributed to "Jehovah-Elohim" [Vs. 6], which is a composite name, which serves to mark the transition from "Jehovah" in Verse 4 to "Elohim" in Verses 7 and 8.

"Jehovah" Who replies to the Prophet's complaint [Vs. 4] prepares the plant as "Elohim," the Creator, and the worm as "Ha Elohim," the Personal God.

Likewise, "Elohim," the Ruler of nature, sends the east wind to correct the Prophet's impatience. In Verse 10, "Jehovah" sums up the history and teaches the lesson to be learned from it.

Despite the Prophet's attitude, the Lord continued to be patient with him! What a wonderful Lord we serve!)

10 Then said the LORD, You have had pity on the gourd, for the which you have not laboured, neither made it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night ("For the which you have not labored, neither made it grow," refers to the Prophet having no investment whatsoever in the plant, but yet being grieved at its loss, because it represented a loss to him personally)**:

11 And should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand (120,000) persons who cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle? (Many have misunderstood this Scripture, thinking that Nineveh contained only 120,000 people. However, the phrase, "Who cannot discern," is speaking only of infants. Therefore, the population of the city must have been somewhere around 500,000 or more!

The Book ends abruptly, but its object has been accomplished. Jonah is silenced; he can make no reply; he can only confess that he is entirely wrong, and that God is Righteous — hence, the reason for the Book.

Jonah learned the lesson that God would have all men to be saved, and that anything which would stand in the way of this all-important task is extremely displeasing to Him and alien to His Design.

How long Nineveh remained true to the Lord, we aren't told.)

Micah

Chapters

1 — 2 — 3 — 4 — 5 — 6 — 7

CHAPTER 1

INTRODUCTION

[1] The Word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morasthite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem. (Micah ministered at the same time as Isaiah, which was about 750 years before Christ. Of the kings mentioned here, "Jotham" was righteous, while "Ahaz" was wicked. And yet, "Hezekiah," the son of Ahaz, was one of the Godliest kings to grace the Throne [II Ki. 18:5; II Chron. 29:2].)

SECOND ADVENT OF MESSIAH

[2] Hear, all you people; hearken, O Earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord GOD be witness against you, the LORD from His Holy Temple. (This Verse may read, "Adonai Jehovah shall be a witness against you." The Lord, knowing men's hearts and acquainted with every action of our lives, is truly a most powerful witness.)

[3] For, behold, the LORD comes forth out of His place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the Earth. (This Verse implies God's absolute Sovereignty over the universe, which He created.)

[4] And the mountains shall be molten under Him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place. (The language is figurative and describes the Second Coming, with the Antichrist and all his armies destroyed by the mighty Power of God. The Holy Spirit likens His Power as so Almighty that "mountains shall be molten [melted] under Him.")

THE SINS OF JUDAH AND ISRAEL

5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the House of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem? (The transgression of Jacob was the idol worship set up at Samaria; and the sins of the high places of Judah, the idolatrous altar set up in Jerusalem. The Prophecy suddenly shifts from a portrayal of the Second Coming, which has not even yet happened, back to the sins of Judah and Israel.)

ISRAEL'S CAPTIVITY BY ASSYRIA

6 Therefore I will make Samaria as an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof. (The terminology of this Passage tells us that this Prophecy was delivered before the destruction of Samaria in the fourth year of Hezekiah.)

7 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burned with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot. (The words, "The hires thereof," refer to the costly vessels donated to the idol temples. "For she gathered it," speaks of the wealth gained by idolatry, which would be carried off by the Assyrian idolaters.)

LAMENTATION FOR ISRAEL

8 Therefore I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the owls. (The idea of Verses 8 through 16 refers to the lamentation for Israel. At this time, Samaria was rich, prosperous, and strong! Therefore, the notion that the time was shortly coming that this city and its people would "wail and howl," denoting tremendous suffering and pain, was strange to the ears of the people.

The phrase, "Go stripped and naked," denotes captivity; therefore, the destruction would be total!)

9 For her wound is incurable; for it is come unto Judah; he is come unto the gate of My P eople, even to Jerusalem. ("For her wound is incurable," pertains to the terrible sin of Samaria, which was so deep that even Repentance at this late hour, although saving the soul, could not save the nation.

"He is come unto the gate of My People, even to Jerusalem," predicts that Sennacherib will come to the gate of Jerusalem, but no further; for the city was delivered in answer to Hezekiah's prayer, thereby fulfilling the Prophecy of Micah [II Chron., Chpt. 32; Isa., Chpt. 37].)

10 Declare you it not at Gath, weep you not at all: in the house of Aphrah roll yourself in the dust. (The destructive and triumphant march of the Assyrian host upon Jerusalem is poetically described in Verses 10 through 16, and a corresponding description appears in Isa. 10:28-32. The towns would call to each other for help, and Jerusalem would appeal to them all for assistance, but in vain.)

11 Pass you away, you inhabitant of Saphir, having your shame naked: the inhabitant of Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of Beth-ezel; he shall receive of you his standing. (The idea of this Verse is: if the Lord had not delivered Jerusalem from the Assyrians, it could not have been delivered!)

12 For the inhabitant of Maroth waited carefully for good: but evil came down from the LORD unto the gate of Jerusalem. (This refers, as stated, to the proposed invasion of Jerusalem by Sennacherib, and it being stopped at the very "gate of Jerusalem." Even though the army of the Assyrians did not come this far, still, Rabshakeh, who headed up the Assyrian expedition, did stand before the gate at Jerusalem to deliver his haughty message, as described by Isaiah [Isa., Chpt 36].)

13 O you inhabitant of Lachish, bind the chariot to the swift beast: she is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zion: for the transgressions of Israel were found in you. (In a short time, the Northern Kingdom of Samaria [Israel] would fall; however, it would be about 10 years before Sennacherib would make his foray against Jerusalem.

"Lachish" was about 30 miles southwest of Jerusalem. It was taken by Sennacherib, as well as most all of Judah, with the exception of Jerusalem, as predicted here by the Prophet.)

14 Therefore shall you give presents to Moresheth-gath: the houses of Achzib shall be a lie to the kings of Israel. (Lachish had introduced Samaria's idolatry to Zion; the Lord, accordingly, gave Lachish to Sennacherib.)

15 Yet will I bring an heir unto you, O inhabitant of Mareshah: he shall come unto Adullam the glory of Israel. (The first phrase refers to Sennacherib, whom God appointed as heir to the inhabitants of the city of Mareshah. "He shall come unto Adullam the glory of Israel," means that when Sennacherib would lay siege to these cities, some of its richest nobility would flee to the cave of Adullam.)

16 Make you bald, and poll you for your delicate children; enlarge your baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from you. ("For they are gone into captivity from you," actually has reference to the Fall of Jerusalem some 133 years after the Fall of the Northern Kingdom of Samaria.

Very few captives were taken by Sennacherib in his expedition into Judah. His plan certainly was terminated by the visitation of the Angel who killed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers in one night [II Ki. 19:35]. Therefore, the prediction would leap ahead to the Babylonian captivity, when Jerusalem would be completely destroyed, with the Temple razed to the ground and with tens of thousands taken captive to Babylonia.)

CHAPTER 2

THE SINS OF ISRAEL

[1] Woe to them who devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand. (The first phrase pertains to men planning iniquity, to whom, in turn, the Lord will plan calamity. "Because it is in the power of their hand," means that they had the ability to do so; therefore, in their eyes, their might makes right.

As well, the Hebrew has the idea of this translation, "Because it is in the power of their hand, which is their god.")

[2] And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage. (The Commandment against coveting [Ex. 20:17] taught the Jews that God regards sins of thought as well as of action.)

JUDGMENT ON ALL ISRAEL

[3] Therefore thus says the LORD; Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which you shall not remove your necks; neither shall you go haughtily: for this time is evil. (The first phrase proclaims the fact that as they devised evil, God devised a penalty. "From which you shall not remove your necks," means that even though some may escape man's vengeance, none will escape God's!

"Neither shall you go haughtily," means with head erect. In other words, their pride would be brought low. The short phrase, "For this time is evil," refers to that which is planned for them, which speaks of the coming Assyrian invasion.)

LAMENTATION FOR ISRAEL

4 In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he has changed the portion of My People: how has He removed it from me! turning away He has divided our fields. (Man generally blames God as the Author of the evils which his own sins cause. God has not "changed" or broken His Covenant, as Verses 12 and 13 prove; but, in a just anger, He divided the fields of Israel to the invader.

The words, "Turning away He has divided our fields," means that "to an apostate He divided our fields." The apostate is the king of Assyria, and then later Chaldea.)

5 Therefore you shall have none who shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD. ("[To] cast a cord," means to measure a farm. They had abused the privilege of owning the land, as is described in Verse 3, and now they would suffer its loss.

As a result, there would be no one else going into the Temple, i.e., "the congregation of the LORD," checking these various boundaries, as originally designed by the Holy Spirit through Joshua, as they had done for centuries. The land would no longer belong to them, but would be confiscated by the heathen.)

SINS AND JUDGMENT ON THE HOUSE OF JACOB

6 Prophesy you not, say they to them who prophesy: they shall not prophesy to them, that they shall not take shame. (Israel refused the testimony of Truth; by a just judgment, it was replaced by a spirit of falsehood. If men will not listen to the Holy Spirit, they will be condemned to listen to the unholy one.

"Prophesy you not," was directed at Micah by the false prophets, and also by the people who took the side of the false prophets.)

7 O you who are named the house of Jacob, is the Spirit of the LORD straitened? are these His doings? do not My Words do good to him who walks uprightly? (The first question of the Verse should have been translated, "Is the Spirit of the LORD shortened?", meaning, "Does He not know what He is saying, and to whom He is saying it?" In effect, Micah is saying that when they criticized him, they were criticizing the Lord, and, more so, the Spirit of God.

The second question of the Verse holds the key. God's "Words" toward people will be a blessing only if they will "walk uprightly," i.e., "abide by the Word of God.")

8 Even of late My People is risen up as an enemy: you pull off the robe with the garment from them who pass by securely as men averse from war. ("Even of late My People is risen up as an enemy," implies recent action — and repeated. These were not old offenses of which the Lord was speaking, but sins of recent and daily occurrence.

The last phrase has to do with the poorest of the poor in the land being treated as badly as prisoners of war.)

9 The women of My People have you cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have you taken away My Glory for ever. (The first phrase refers to the widows, who ought to have been protected and cared for. "Have you cast out," refers to violent expulsion, which saw them literally thrown on the street without any means of support. The last phrase refers to the setting aside of the Law of Moses, which is called here "My Glory," and which the children, the coming generation, would not be privileged to have.

Such was totally true, for in a few years the Northern Kingdom of Israel was totally destroyed by Assyria, with tens, if not hundreds, of thousands of people being led away into slavery, where they would never again have the privilege of living according to the Law of Moses.)

10 Arise you, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction. ("Arise you, and depart," concerns the Lord taking action on these heartless oppressors by promising them that they would be banished from their homes and land, even as they had torn others from their homes. What they measured would be measured unto them again [Mat. 7:2].

"For this is not your rest," refers to Canaan as a resting place for Israel, actually, their own Promised Land [Deut. 12:9-10; Josh. 1:13]. However, this land is about to be taken from them and given to oppressors [the Assyrians], with the people being sold as slaves.

The reason? "Because it is polluted," which refers to the land being polluted by the sins of its inhabitants. Consequently, "it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction," which speaks of the land vomiting the people out.)

11 If a man walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto you of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people. ("If a man walking in the spirit [evil spirit] and falsehood do lie," speaks of false prophets, who prophesied by a lying spirit of falsehood and deceit. "I will prophesy unto you of wine and of strong drink," does not necessarily refer to literal "wine" and "strong drink," but rather to "temporal blessings." In other words, they dwelt on God's Promises of material prosperity. As such, they were identical to the modern false prophets of the "Greed Gospel."

"He shall even be the prophet of this people," pertains to the ones who were popular, i.e., those preaching the "Greed Gospel," namely, the ones to whom the people would listen.)

SECOND ADVENT OF THE MESSIAH

12 I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of you; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men. (To the unknowing eye and ear, it may seem as if the Twelfth Verse is totally unconnected to the Eleventh. However, such is not the case!

In Verse 11, Micah was pointing out the false prophets who were promising peace and prosperity now. In Verse 12, he tells the people that it is certainly true that peace and prosperity is coming. Still, it would be a long way off. At present, it has been about 2,700 years, and this Prophecy is still not fulfilled; but it most certainly shall be in the future.

"I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of you," actually refers to the Second Coming of Christ. This is known because such has never happened in the past and will only happen at that Coming Glad Day.

" I will surely gather the remnant of Israel," refers to sure Repentance on Israel's part and them gladly gathering at the Banner of Christ, with Him now being their Shepherd, even as He always wanted to be [Mat. 23:37].)

13 The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and their king shall pass before them, and the LORD on the head of them. ("The breaker" is the Antichrist, the one making a breach. The last phrase has to do with the triumphant entry of Christ, which will take place immediately after the Second Coming, which this Verse portrays; at this time, Christ will then be accepted, not only as "Lord," but also as Messiah.)

CHAPTER 3

THE SINS OF THE RULERS OF ISRAEL

[1] And I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and you princes of the House of Israel; Is it not for you to know judgment? (This Scripture is addressed to the Magistrates. The question, "Is it not for you to know judgment?", refers to the fact that they, of all men, should know and practice what is just and fair.)

[2] Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones (the first phrase proclaims these Magistrates as hating the Bible and loving their own laws and ways, which were "evil." The last phrase speaks of greatly oppressing the poor, charging exorbitant rates of interest, and being bribed in order to circumvent the law, etc.)**;

[3] Who also eat the flesh of My People, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron. (The idea is: the people are treated as animals, such as cattle or sheep, etc., chopped and broken up as meat for the cook-pot. Once the Word of God, as here, is violated, cruelty becomes the norm.)

JUDGMENT ON ISRAEL'S LEADERS

[4] Then shall they cry unto the LORD, but He will not hear them: He will even hide His Face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings. (The pronoun "they" refers to the Magistrates. "But He will not hear them," is fearsome indeed, in that their only hope of help is now cut off. "He will even hide His Face from them at that time," refers to the time of the coming Assyrian invasion. It refers back to 2:3. The last phrase, "As they have behaved themselves ill in their doings," means that men cannot do ill and fare well.)

JUDGMENT ON THE PROPHETS

5 Thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who make My People err, who bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he who puts not into their mouths, they even prepare war against Him. (The first phrase refers to the lying prophets of whom Jeremiah also complained [Lam. 2:14]. "Who bite with their teeth," refers to an abundance of food, and is another way of expressing the "peace and prosperity" proclaimed by these false prophets.

"And cry, Peace," refers to the fashionable preacher proclaiming "Peace," i.e., that there is no future Wrath of God, no Lake of Fire, and no Judgment to come. The True Preacher, as in Verse 8, denounces sin and announces Judgment. "And he who puts not into their mouths," pertains to these preachers who preach for large salaries; they, therefore, trim their message according to what they are paid.

"They even prepare war against him," pertains to the false prophets being at war with the True Prophets.)

6 Therefore night shall be unto you, that you shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that you shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them. (The gist of this Verse is: at the time of this coming judgment, all the false preachers shall be confounded. They shall cover their lips, i.e., be compelled to silence, for they shall have no answer from God.)

7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yes, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer of God. ("Then shall the seers be ashamed," refers to the false prophets, who prognosticated peace and prosperity, but instead saw the very opposite. They will be "ashamed" because their oracles are proved to be delusive.

"And the diviner confounded," pertains to the fact that everything they said was utterly wrong. "For there is no answer of God," means that what the false prophets said was not from God, even though they claimed it was. It was instead out of their own minds.)

MICAH, A TRUE PROPHET

8 But truly I am full of power by the Spirit of the LORD, and of Judgment, and of Might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin. (In contrast to the false prophets, Micah says the very opposite; actually, he claims three things in the Text, and the Holy Spirit says it is so:

1. Full of Power by the Spirit.

2. A Correct Judgment of the Word of God.

3. And of Might, which refers to the Anointing of the Holy Spirit, Who helped him to deliver the Message.)

SINS OF THE LEADERS

9 Hear this, I pray you, you heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the House of Israel, who abhor judgment, and pervert all equity. (Micah, after projecting what the future will be for these false prophets and their followers, now reverts back to the present. He plainly and bluntly advises the Spiritual leadership of both Israel and Judah to "hear this." As usual, it would not be a Message they desired to hear, but instead one which angered them greatly!)

10 They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity. (The idea is: great palaces were built with money gained by extortion, rape, and judicial murders, like that of Naboth [I Ki., Chpt. 21]. The phrase, "And Jerusalem with iniquity," refers to gain, but by unlawful means.)

11 The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the LORD, and say, Is not the LORD among us? none evil can come upon us. ("The heads thereof judge for reward," means that they took bribes. The "priests" taught what the people wanted to hear instead of what they needed to hear. They were thereby paid well. Also, the false prophets sold their revelations, pretending they came from God. They "divine for money"!

In all of this, they claimed they were doing the Will of the Lord and that "no evil can come upon us." They claimed God as the Author of their prosperity, and that Micah's predictions of coming judgment were facetious.)

DESTRUCTION OF JERUSALEM AND THE TEMPLE

12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest. (This is the Prophecy quoted by the elders to King Jehoiakim [Jer. 26:18]. "Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field," was not fulfilled when Nebuchadnezzar later took the city, but was fulfilled with its destruction by Titus in A.D. 70. At that time, the Temple was completely razed, with plows actually run over the very ground on which it sat.

The destruction on Samaria [1:6] and that on Jerusalem were similar — both a heap of stones — but the causes, dissimilar. Doctrine doomed Samaria; conduct, Jerusalem.)

CHAPTER 4

MILLENNIAL RESTORATION; MESSIAH'S KINGDOM

[1] But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the House of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it. (Verses 1 through 3 are quoted virtually verbatim in Isa. 2:1-4; however, which Prophet gave them first is not actually known. Micah also prophesied during the time of Isaiah, at least in Isaiah's early years. This Verse speaks of the coming Kingdom Age!)

[2] And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the House of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of His Ways, and we will walk in His Paths: for the Law shall go forth of Zion, and the Word of the LORD from Jerusalem. ("And many nations shall come, and say, Come," presents the new revelation of Righteousness, which shall be so conspicuous and so attractive that all men shall hear and desire to become partakers of it.

"And let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the House of the God of Jacob," presents the Gentiles coming to the Temple from all over the world. Then they will do what the Lord intended for them to do all along [Mk. 11:17].

"For the Law shall go forth of Zion, and the Word of the LORD from Jerusalem," does not really pertain to the Mosaic Law, but instead a rule for life [Prov. 6:23]. This is the reason given by the Prophet for the eagerness of the nations to resort to Christ in Jerusalem.)

UNIVERSAL PEACE

3 And He shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. ("And He shall judge among many people," means to "arbitrate between." The result of His arbitration and reproving will be the abolition of war and the establishment of universal peace and prosperity.

"And rebuke strong nations afar off," actually means to "act as umpire for" disputes and differences. The arbitration of the sword shall no more be used.

The last three phrases of the Verse speak of the fact that the economy of the world, which, to a certain degree, has always been geared for war, will now be geared for peace.)

UNIVERSAL PROSPERITY

4 But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the Mouth of the LORD of Hosts has spoken it. (The phrase taken from the midst of this Verse, "And none shall make them afraid," is undoubtedly one of the greatest statements ever made. Fear will be a thing of the past, because that which brings about fear is now gone, "for the mouth of the LORD of Hosts has spoken it.")

SPIRITUAL COMMITMENT

5 For all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the Name of the LORD our God for ever and ever. (The first phrase, "For all people will walk every one in the name of his god," has reference to the time in which Micah lived, as well as before and after. It refers to idol worship by the nations, or their rejection of the Lord of Glory, etc., as most have done for all these many centuries.

However, Micah says, "And we will walk in the Name of the LORD our God forever and ever," meaning that Israel's God is the only True God; despite Israel's failings, this must never be lost.

The idea is: Israel's God, "The LORD our God," will ultimately lead the nations of the world out of idolatry into true worship. This will be during the coming Kingdom Age!)

RESTORATION OF ISRAEL: AN ETERNAL NATION UNDER THE MESSIAH

6 In that day, says the LORD, will I assemble her who halts, and I will gather her who is driven out, and her whom I have afflicted *(the first phrase refers to "Jacob," who did not become "Israel" till he was maimed. So, "Jacob," as a nation, will not be restored and blessed until she is spiritually maimed by affliction, hence fulfilling the last phrase, "And her whom I have afflicted." This Verse speaks of Israel's restoration. Israel, which was driven out, will now be brought back);

7 And I will make her who halted a remnant, and her who was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD shall reign over them in Mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever. ("And I will make her who halted a remnant," refers to the portion of Israel which will come out of the Great Tribulation [Zech. 13:8]. "And her who was cast far off a strong nation," refers to them being "cast far off" after their Crucifixion of Christ, but now being regathered. As well, of this small remnant, the Lord will make a "strong nation." The last phrase proclaims the certitude of these Prophecies.)

8 And you, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto you shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem. ("And you, O tower of the flock," refers to Jerusalem. "The stronghold of the daughter of Zion, unto you shall it come," is wrapped up in the phrase, "Even the first dominion," which speaks of the former dominion under Solomon.

To assure the doubting heart, the Spirit adds: "The Kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem," i.e., the second dominion, which is not named, but implied, referring to the coming restoration. Hence, it is called "the daughter of....” Micah is predicting the restoration of that Kingdom, which will take place in the Kingdom Age.)

BABYLONIAN CAPTIVITY FIRST

9 Now why do you cry out aloud? is there no king in you? is your counselor perished? for pangs have taken you as a woman in travail. (The “Now” of Verses 9, 11, and 5:1 should instead read, “Meanwhile.” That is, during the long period preceding restoration, the Hebrew people shall suffer extreme affliction. That affliction has now lasted for about 2,500 years.)

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shall you go forth out of the city, and you shall dwell in the field, and you shall go even to Babylon; there shall you be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem you from the hand of your enemies. (The first phrase was partially fulfilled with Babylonian captivity, but will be totally fulfilled in the coming Great Tribulation. “And you shall go even to Babylon,” was fulfilled approximately 150 years from the time of this Prophecy. The phrase, “There shall you be delivered,” refers to the conclusion of their seventy years of captivity, with a remnant being brought back to Judah and Jerusalem.)

ISRAEL TO BE REESTABLISHED; THE KINGDOM TO BE SET UP

11 Now also many nations are gathered against you, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion. (The Holy Spirit now jumps from the coming servitude to Babylon to the distant Great Tribulation and the Battle of Armageddon, which is described in the phrase, “Now also many nations are gathered against you” [Zech. 14:14-15].)

12 But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they His Counsel: for He shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor. (The nations of the world at that time will not understand that it is the Lord Who is gathering them to the Battle of Armageddon [Rev. 16:14-16]. “Neither understand they His Counsel,” refers to His employing Israel as His Instrument to judge them there, as is outlined in the next Verse.)

13 Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make your horn iron, and I will make your hoofs brass: and you shall beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole Earth. ("Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion," refers to Israel being given supernatural strength and ability at the Second Coming. As such, she will throw off the Antichrist and his armies, but with the help of the Lord. At that time, the wealth of the nations will be gathered from the battlefield of Armageddon and divided in the midst of victorious Judah.)

CHAPTER 5

THE FIRST ADVENT OF THE MESSIAH; HIS REDEMPTIVE WORK

[1] Now gather yourself in troops, O daughter of troops: he has laid siege against us: they shall smite the Judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek. (Verses 1 and 2 have to do with the First Advent of the Messiah and His Redemptive Work. "Now gather yourself in troops, O daughter of troops," refers to Judah. The word "troops" is used because of the coming invasion of Titus, the Roman General.

"They shall smite the Judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek," speaks of the mockers and persecutors of the Messiah, both Jews and Romans [Mat. 26:68; 27:30]. To "smite upon the cheek" is the grossest insult, and was done repeatedly to Christ.

It is interesting that the Holy Spirit refers to Christ as "the Judge!" To be sure, that He certainly is, but not only the Judge of Israel, but of all men [Mat. 25:31-46; Acts 17:31].)

[2] But you, Beth-lehem Ephratah, though you be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of you shall He come forth unto Me Who is to be Ruler in Israel; Whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting. (The question could be asked as to why the Holy Spirit would give these Prophecies in this fashion, having little or no chronological order? The answer probably falls into the same category as to why the Lord, in His earthly Ministry, mostly spoke in Parables [Lk. 8:10].

"But you, Beth-lehem Ephratah," speaks of the birthplace of Christ. "Though you be little among the thousands of Judah," signifies a small place, though the birthplace of David, as well! "Yet out of you shall He come forth unto Me, Who is to be Ruler in Israel," speaks of Christ coming from the Tribe of Judah. This was prophesied by Jacob long before [Gen. 49:10].

"Whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting," is meant to portray to any and all that this is not just any person, but rather, as Isaiah prophesied, "Immanuel, God with us" [Isa. 7:14].)

ISRAEL GIVEN UP UNTIL HER REPENTANCE

3 Therefore will He give them up, until the time that she which travails has brought forth: then the remnant of His brethren shall return unto the Children of Israel. ("Therefore will He give them up," refers to their rejection of the Judge of Israel at His First Advent and their consequent destruction at the hands of Titus in A.D. 70. "Until the time that she which travails has brought forth," has already been about 2,000 years; however, the time of Israel's great "travail" has not yet come, but will take place in the latter half of the coming Great Tribulation [I Thess. 5:3].

The phrase, "Then the remnant of His brethren shall return unto the Children of Israel," refers to Israel's conversion to Christ at the Second Coming [Isa. 66:7-8; Zech. 10:12-13:1; Rom. 11:25-29].)

ISRAEL TO BE DELIVERED FROM THE ANTICHRIST AT THE MESSIAH'S SECOND ADVENT

4 And He shall stand and feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the Name of the LORD His God; and they shall abide: for now shall He be great unto the ends of the Earth. (The phrase, "And He shall stand and feed in the strength of the LORD," refers to the "Ruler" or "Shepherd," i.e., the Messiah. The word "feed" concerns the Lord feeding His Flock, with them allowing Him to feed them, which they would not do upon His First Advent.

"And they shall abide," refers to His Sheep [Israel] dwelling in permanent security. "For now shall He be great unto the ends of the Earth," speaks to His "Strength" and "Majesty" being great, not only in Israel, but all over the world.

In effect, at that time, there will be a one-world government, with Christ as its Head [Isa. 9:6].)

5 And this Man shall be the Peace, when the Assyrian shall come into our land: and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight principal men. ("And this Man shall be the Peace," refers to Christ, Who will come at the time of the Battle of Armageddon, defeating the Antichrist and restoring Israel. "When the Assyrian shall come into our land," refers to the Antichrist. "And when he shall tread in our palaces," concerns the time that the Antichrist will break his seven-year covenant with Israel and take over the future Jewish Temple at Jerusalem [Dan. 9:27; 11:44-45; Mat. 24:15; II Thess. 2:3-4; Rev. 11:1-2].

"Then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight principal men," leaves no clue as to who these are. Possibly the meaning is in the numbers. "Seven" refers to God's Perfect Number, denoting completion, totality, and perfection, which could refer to a total victory. "Eight" pertains to God's Resurrection Number, and could denote the resurrection of Israel.)

6 And they shall waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in the entrances thereof: thus shall He deliver us from the Assyrian, when He comes into our land, and when He treads within our borders. (The first phrase speaks of the supernatural strength which will be given to the army of Israel at the Coming of the Lord. "And the land of Nimrod in the entrances thereof," refers to Babylon; from this description, therefore, it seems that the Battle of Armageddon will cover not only the Land of Israel but also the entirety of the Middle East.

"Thus shall He deliver us from the Assyrian," proclaims Christ defeating the Antichrist, which will be at the Battle of Armageddon [Ezek., Chpts. 38-39]. The last phrase concerns the Antichrist invading Israel and the Anger of God aroused because of the audacity of this man.)

ISRAEL WILL BE RESTORED WHEN THE MESSIAH RETURNS

7 And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people as a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the grass, that tarries not for man, nor waits for the sons of men. (In that great day of Restoration, the Nation of Israel will be to the world as "Dew" and as a "Lion" [Vs. 8]; that is, they will be the channel of Divine Grace toward the obedient and the instrument of Divine Wrath upon the rebels. Both energies are independent of human cooperation.

"And the remnant of Jacob," means that the number will be few — but, O so mighty! The last phrase tells us that in that day, i.e., at the beginning of the Kingdom Age, Israel's supernatural strength and ability will be wholly from God and not dependent whatsoever upon man.)

8 And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep: who, if he go through, both treads down, and tears in pieces, and none can deliver. (It is interesting that the Holy Spirit would continue to use the phrase, "And the remnant of Jacob," denoting its small numbers, but yet expressing its tremendous Might. That Might is Christ. This portrays Israel as a terrible power among the nations and invincible in strength.

"Shall be among the Gentiles," refers to every nation in the world. Furthermore, she will be "in the midst of many people as a lion among the beasts of the forest," meaning that she is the king of the forest [nations] as a "Lion" is king of the beasts. She is that because Jesus is the "Lion of the Tribe of Judah" [Rev. 5:5].

"As a young lion among the flocks of sheep," portrays the fact that all other nations of the world will be in comparison to Him, and also to Israel, as a lamb is to a lion.

The last phrase refers perhaps to some few, who, at the outset, may seek to test His Power. They will be quickly dispatched, because "none can deliver" out of His Hand! As Jesus is the True Man, the True Church, He is also the "True Israel.")

9 Your hand shall be lifted up upon your adversaries, and all your enemies shall be cut off. (In that day, the Kingdom Age, there will be no such thing as Buddhism, Islam, Mormonism, Hinduism, etc. All "enemies shall be cut off.")

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, says the LORD, that I will cut off your horses out of the midst of you, and I will destroy your chariots (this simply means that the nations of the world will disarm [Isa. 2:4])**:

11 And I will cut off the cities of your land, and throw down all your strong holds (the "cities" and "strongholds" mentioned here refer to centers of idolatry, etc. Consequently, Rome, as the seat of Catholicism, will be totally changed. Bangkok, as the center of Buddhism, will also be changed! Mecca, in Saudi Arabia, will be changed, and totally. Every vestige of demon worship, which centers up in these false religions, will be totally eliminated; therefore, Salt Lake City, as the center of Mormonism, will be no more, at least in that capacity)**:

12 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of your hand; and you shall have no more soothsayers (in fact, at that time, and we speak of the Kingdom Age, every demon spirit, every fallen angel, and Satan will be in the bottomless pit [Rev. 20:1-3])**:

13 Your graven images also will I cut off, and your standing images out of the midst of you; and you shall no more worship the work of your hands. (Every vestige of religion will be eliminated. A part of the reason why Cain's sacrifice was rejected was because it was a "work of his hands," and not a "Work of God's Hands." Only the true worship of Christ will remain, and that speaks of the Crucified Christ [Zech. 13:6].)

14 And I will pluck up your groves out of the midst of you: so will I destroy your cities. (These Verses constitute the remaking of this planet, which includes all of its civilizations and societies, with every evil way eliminated.)

15 And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard. (“Such as they have not heard,” actually means “which have not hearkened.” In other words, all who are disobedient will not be allowed to continue in this rebellion, but will quickly experience the “anger and fury” of the Lord. That which has caused the pain and suffering of the past will not be allowed to take root in the coming Kingdom Age.

“And I will execute vengeance,” speaks of a swift retribution on those who will try the metal of Christ, so to speak!)

CHAPTER 6

(710 B.C.)

THE LORD'S CONTENTION WITH ISRAEL

[1] Hear you now what the LORD says; Arise, contend you before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice. (In view of the tremendous Prophecies given through Micah by the Holy Spirit concerning Israel, the Prophet will now make a strident appeal to the people in order that some of them, hopefully, will repent.

"Arise, contend you," has reference to the fact that Micah's task will not be easy. In effect, he is contending with a rebellious, stiff-necked, hard-hearted people!)

[2] Hear y ou, O mountains, the LORD'S controversy, and you strong foundations of the Earth: for the LORD has a controversy with His people, and He will plead with Israel. ("Hear you, O mountains, the LORD's controversy," is strong indeed! Once again, the creation of nature is called upon as a witness. "For the LORD has a controversy with His People," makes the "controversy" extremely personal. He calls them "His People," even though they are no longer living for Him, and they are actually heading rapidly toward an eternal doom.)

[3] O My People, what have I done unto you? and wherein have I wearied you? testify against Me. (In the entirety of the Bible, no "pleading" is done so graphically and tenderly as is here brought out. "Testify against Me," is the same as a Court of Law. The Lord is bringing forth His case and He demands that Israel bring forth her case. It must be quickly said that throughout the entirety of the Earth, and for all time, no person can stand and honestly "testify against God" that He has wronged them in any way.)

[4] For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of servants; and I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

(The Lord reminds Israel that He is their Saviour. As well, He gave them great leadership in Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.)

[5] O My People, remember now what Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim unto Gilgal; that you may know the Righteousness of the LORD. (A period should follow the word "him" and the word "remember" should be repeated before "from Shittim unto Gilgal." The idea of this Verse is as follows: After Israel experienced the great deliverance from Egyptian bondage, they now faced the sorcery of "Balak king of Moab." The word "consulted" refers to the manner in which the snare against Israel would be laid. "Balak" would employ "Balaam the son of Beor," seeking to ensnare Israel. It is recorded in Num., Chpts. 23-24.

"Remember from Shittim unto Gilgal," speaks of "Shittim" as the Israelite's last station before crossing the Jordan, and "Gilgal," the first in the land of Canaan. God bids them "remember" all that happened to them between those places — their sin in Shittim and the mercy then shown them [Num., Chpt. 25], the miraculous passage of the Jordan, and the renewal of the Covenant at Gilgal [Josh. 5:9].)

THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE LORD

[6] Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the High God? shall I come before Him with Burnt Offerings, with calves of a year old? (Even though the tone changes slightly, still, this is the Lord continuing to speak to Israel, in effect, telling Israel what she must do. Israel now held the idea that the ritual of Sacrifices offered Salvation, which it did not! [Heb. 10:4])

[7] Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? (The question, "Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams?", insinuates that the people came to the place where they thought quantity enhanced the value, etc. In this Verse, the Lord is plainly saying that none of these things, even the offering up one's son or daughter, "the fruit of my body," can atone for

"the sin of my soul." Consequently, He cuts through all the false ideas and false doctrine that permeated the society of His People. It permeates it no less today!)

[8] He has shown you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God? (The Revelation given here is found in Deut. 10:12; consequently, there was no excuse! In this Verse, the Lord proclaims not so much the Way of Salvation, but instead the results of true Salvation. The phrase, "He has showed you, O man, what is good," draws Israel back to the Bible. The answer to the question, "And what does the Lord require of you?", is here given:

1. Honesty!

2. Mercy!

3. Humility!)

[9] The LORD's Voice cries unto the city, and the man of wisdom shall see your name: hear you the rod, and Who has appointed it. ("The LORD's Voice cries unto the city," refers to Jerusalem. "And the man of wisdom shall see your name," refers to true wisdom recognizing the just action of judging the city because of its evil. "Hear you the rod," in effect, says, "Hear, O Jerusalem, what punishment awaits you, and from Whom.")

[10] Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable? (The words, "Are there yet....?", describe the practice of abominations of fraud, falsehood, and robbing of the poor. The entirety of the question, "Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked?", means that all these sacrifices brought by these individuals to the Temple were treasures obtained by wrongdoing.)

[11] Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights? (The idea is: the people thought their religious activity atoned for their crimes. In effect, the Lord is saying that these sacrifices offered up to Him were looked at in His Sight as "deceitful" and as

"wicked balances." Consequently, they turned the Temple into a "house of the wicked" instead of a "House of God."

Due to the Cross presently being ignored in most Churches, this means that they are "houses of wickedness" instead of "houses of Righteousness.")

12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth. (This is sad that God's People were violent, liars, and deceitful!)

13 Therefore also will I make you sick in smiting you, in making you desolate be cause of your sins. (The idea is: the Judgment will be awful and certain! As the sin, so the Judgment.)

14 You shall eat, but not be satisfied; and your casting down shall be in the midst of you; and you shall take hold, but shall not deliver; and that which you deliver will I give up to the sword. (Money will not satisfy. "Your casting down shall be in the midst of you," means that Jerusalem would fall because of internal distress rather than outward attack. Even though Nebuchadnezzar would be the instrument used by God, still, it was not his might and power that brought about the Fall of the city, but instead Jerusalem's sin.

"And you shall take hold, but shall not deliver," refers to their money-bags filled by fraud and their attempting to escape and carry them away, but being unable to do so. In fact, some few would escape, but they too would fall into the hands of the enemy, thereby being stricken by the sword. Man is foolish to think he can outwit God!)

15 You shall sow, but you shall not reap; you shall tread the olives, but you shall not anoint yourself with oil; and sweet wine, but shall not drink wine. (All of this means that others would reap the harvest for which the Hebrews had labored. These Verses proclaim God's Anger instead of His Blessing.)

16 For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the work of the house of Ahab, and you walk in their counsels; that I should make you a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore you shall bear the reproach of My People. (All of this proclaims that Judah was immersed in idolatry; and because of such, the Lord would "make you a desolation." This means that the punishment was connected with the sin.)

CHAPTER 7

(710 B.C.)

ISRAEL DESOLATE OF RIGHTEOUSNESS

[1] Woe is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grapegleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: my soul desired the firstripe fruit. (The exclamation, "Woe is me!" presents Micah representing repentant Israel by confessing its corruption and lamenting the necessity of punishment. The phrase, "For I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits," means that there is no fruit left, even though one searches diligently. Israel has borne no good fruit for the Lord!)

[2] The good man is perished out of the Earth: and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net. (The idea is: the entirety of the fabric of the nation of Judah was so spoiled, with corruption and vileness beginning at the top and filtering down, that there was nothing good that could be said!)

[3] That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asks, and the judge asks for a reward; and the great man, he utters his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up. (The first phrase proclaims that the people were ready enough to do evil; the next phrase says they can be bribed to do anything. "And the great man, he utters his mischievous desire," means that the rich man communicates to the judge the evil he proposes against the poor, and "they," i.e., the rich man and the judge, concoct the matter between them, i.e., "they wrap it up.")

[4] The best of them is as a brier: the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of your watchmen and your visitation comes; now shall be their perplexity. (The first phrase, in referring to their best, lets us know just how vile were their worst. "The day of your watchmen and your visitation comes," refers to the Prophets of old who predicted this coming wrath. "Now shall be their perplexity," proclaims "a problem without a solution," which characterizes all those who disregard the warnings of the Lord.)

5 Trust ye not in a friend, put you not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of your mouth from her who lies in your bosom. (Verses 5 and 6 portray the low level to which Israel and Judah had sunk, showing that selfishness reigned everywhere, and not even the closest relations could be trusted.)

6 For the son dishonours the father, the daughter rises up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house. (The Lord [Mat. 10:35-36] quotes this Verse to prove that Gospel Grace, when rejected, arouses the iniquity of the heart; further, the entrance and nearness of Perfect Love, i.e., Christ, exasperate into activity its hatred. The idea is: Light rejected becomes darkness deepened.)

RESTORATION OF ISRAEL; HER REPENTANCE IN THE LAST DAYS

7 Therefore I will look unto the LORD; I will wait for the God of my Salvation: my God will hear me. (With most of the Prophets, the Holy Spirit, even after announcing severe judgment, would leap ahead and portray the glorious future which Israel will ultimately see, thereby fulfilling the Promises made to the Patriarchs and Prophets of old! In fact, Verses 7 through 9 portray Israel's Repentance in the last days [Zech. 12:10]. Such is evidenced by the phrase, "Therefore I will look unto the LORD.")

8 Rejoice not against me, O my enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a Light unto me. ("Rejoice not against me, O my enemy," refers to all those who had written Israel off. "When I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a Light unto me," refers to the darkness that has lasted now for nearly 2,000 years, and which will even deepen during the first half of the Great Tribulation, when Israel will think the Antichrist is the Messiah. But during the coming Battle of Armageddon, Israel will call on the Lord; at that time, He "shall be a Light unto me.")

9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against Him, until He plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: He will bring me forth to the Light, and I shall behold His Righteousness. (The Prophet, energized as was Daniel [Dan., Chpt. 9] by the Spirit of Intercession proper to the High Priest of Israel's confession [Heb. 3:1], confesses that nation's sins as his own; accepts the Wrath of God as just; and confidently awaits a future vindication. This is a most touching feature of the prophetic office. "If," said Jeremiah, "he be a Prophet, let him make intercession to Jehovah" [Jer. 27:18].

"And I shall behold His Righteousness," pertains to the Lord's Second Coming, with the Antichrist destroyed, and more perfect their acceptance of His Salvation.)

ISRAEL'S ENEMIES HUMBLED

10 Then she that is my enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, Where is the LORD your God? my eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets. (The question, "Where is the LORD your God?", pertains to the boasts of Sennacherib [II Chron. 32:17] and the future Assyrian, who will likewise taunt Israel accordingly. "My eyes shall behold her," means that Jerusalem beheld the destruction of the Assyrian host and will likewise behold the destruction of the Antichrist.

"Now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets," refers to the Angel who was sent against the Assyrians and the Lord Jesus Christ, Who will come against the Antichrist.)

ISRAEL REGATHERED

11 In the day that your walls are to be built, in that day shall the decree be far removed. (The first phrase describes Zion as a vineyard where the fence had been destroyed but which now has been rebuilt. It speaks of the coming restoration at the beginning of the Kingdom Age. "In that day shall the decree be far removed," concerns Israel's captivity, which was decreed because of her sin and rejection of Christ, but which has now been removed. It has been removed because Israel now accepts Christ, which will take place immediately after the Second Coming.)

12 In that day also he shall come even to you from Assyria, and from the fortified cities, and from the fortress even to the river, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain. (The first phrase continues to refer to the restoration, which will begin the Kingdom Age, with "Assyria" used as a type of the greatest enemy of God. "And from the fortified cities," pertains to Egypt, which symbolizes the world. "And from the fortress even to the river," actually concerns itself, and symbolically so, from Egypt to the Euphrates. This part of the world presently, and in the past, has been Israel's greatest nemesis. The last phrase refers to every nation in the world giving up the dispersed of Israel, who all will return home to Israel proper.)

13 Notwithstanding the land shall be desolate because of them who dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings. (The word "Notwithstanding" actually means "but before this" shall be desolation! This desolation lasted for nearly 2,000 years before Israel finally became a State again in 1948.

The phrase, "For the fruit of their doings," proclaims the reason for Israel's past state and their near-future judgment at the hands of the man of sin.)

14 Feed your people with your rod, the flock of your heritage, which dwell solitarily in the wood, in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old. (The prayer of this Verse is addressed to the Messiah, the Great Shepherd of His People. This rod will comfort them and not smite them. His People will dwell solitarily; that is, they shall enjoy distinct nationality [Num. 23:9] in absolute security [the wood] and with abounding prosperity. Once again, this is the Kingdom Age!)

JUDGMENT ON ISRAEL'S ENEMIES

15 According to the days of your coming out of the land of Egypt will I show unto him marvelous things. (Verses 15 through 17 give the Great Shepherd's prompt reply to the prayer of Micah. "Will I show unto him marvelous things," records the Lord doing great things for Israel, which will commence with the Second Coming.)

16 The nations shall see and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf. (Without Christ, Israel is nothing! With Christ, Israel, in the Kingdom Age, will be the greatest nation on the face of the Earth. In fact, all prosperity for the entirety of the world will be because Israel now occupies her rightful place and position.)

17 They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the Earth: they shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall fear because of you. ("They shall lick the dust like a serpent," is a figure of complete defeat. This is the Battle of Armageddon and the immediate aftermath. "They shall be afraid of the LORD our God," means that the armies of the Antichrist and the nations of the world shall be driven by terror to acknowledge the God of Israel because of the demonstration of the Lord's Almighty Power.)

ISRAEL'S CONFIDENCE IN GOD

18 Who is a God like unto You, Who pardons iniquity, and passes by the transgression of the remnant of His Heritage? He retains not His Anger forever, because He delights in Mercy. (Upon the Revelation of this tremendous coming Restoration, Micah exclaims, "Who is a God like unto You?" The Lord "pardons," He "forgives," "His righteous Anger quickly cools," and "He delights in Mercy." There is no one like Him, as there can be no one like Him!)

19 He will turn again, He will have compassion upon us; He will subdue our iniquities; and you will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. ("He will turn again," means that as He has had compassion before, and many times, He will do so again. The phrase, "He will subdue our iniquities," actually means that He will literally tread under foot "our iniquities," consequently totally rescuing us from their grasp.

"And you will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea," is the nearest to the oft-quoted statement about "casting sins into the sea of forgetfulness to be remembered no more." Thus, the Prophecy, like the Epistle to the Romans, begins with God's Wrath against sin and closes with God's Forgiveness of sin.)

20 You will perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which You have sworn unto our fathers from the days of old. (The general meaning of this Verse is that God will absolutely perform the Promises made to the forefathers. The two words, "have sworn," are the certitude of this coming action. In other words, the fulfillment of these Promises is guaranteed!)

Nahum

Chapters

1 — 2 — 3

CHAPTER 1

(713 B.C.)

ATTRIBUTES OF GOD

[1] The burden of Nineveh. The Book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite. (It seems that Nahum was from the village of Capernaum, which means "village of Nahum." The Book of Jonah records the repentance of Nineveh, while Nahum predicts its destruction. Nahum prophesied about 100 years after Jonah, with the city being destroyed about 100 years after that.

While the Book is undated, it seems that Nahum was a contemporary of Isaiah and Hezekiah.

"The burden of Nineveh," concerns the weight of the Message that the Lord had laid on the Prophet's heart concerning that city.)

[2] God is jealous, and the LORD revenges; the LORD revenges, and is furious; the LORD will take vengeance on His Adversaries, and He reserves wrath for His Enemies. ("God is jealous," means that He has a jealous Love for His People and will allow no one to injure them, though He may employ nations as instruments to chastise them. Actually, one of the names of Jehovah is "Jealous" [Ex. 34:14].

"And the LORD revenges," means rather "avenges." He avenges His People on their adversaries and possesses wrath for their enemies.)

[3] The LORD is slow to anger, and great in Power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the LORD has His Way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of His F eet. (The Lord's Longsuffering is not due to impotency, for He is great in Power. "And will not at all acquit the wicked," means that a passage of time in no way, at least in the Mind of God, lessens the guilt. "And the clouds are the dust of His Feet," probably refers to the scientific discovery that clouds owe their beauty and even their very existence to the presence of dust-particles in the atmosphere; this undoubtedly was completely unknown to Nahum. The vapor, it is said, condenses on these particles, which then become visible as clouds, hence the scientific accuracy of Nahum's statement.)

4 He rebukes the sea, and makes it dry, and dries up all the rivers: Bashan languish es, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languishes. (The great physical changes and convulsions in the world are tokens of God's Wrath on sinful nations. "He rebukes the sea, and makes it dry," refers to the Red Sea, when it was pushed back to allow the passage of the Children of Israel [Ex. 14:21]. The phrase, "And dries up all the rivers," refers to the Jordan [Josh. 3:17; II Ki. 2:8, 14].

The areas of "Bashan," "Carmel," and "Lebanon" were known as being remarkable for their fertility. Even so, they are used here proverbially to express the Truth that God can cause the most luxuriant region to wither at His Word.)

5 The mountains quake at Him, and the hills melt, and the Earth is burned at His Presence, yes, the world, and all that dwell therein. (This Verse is meant to portray that not only does the Lord have total latitude in respect to His People, Israel, but also the entirety of "the world, and all that dwell therein." Nature, whether animate or inanimate, is represented as being actuated by the terror of conscious guilt.)

6 Who can stand before His Indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of His Anger? His Fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by Him. (The Holy Spirit takes the opportunity to show that the Lord is perfectly capable of destroying the mighty Assyrian Empire; He also is able to bring to heel the entirety of the world, which He soon shall do!

The question, "Who can stand before His Indignation?", has to do with the coming Great Tribulation [Rev. 6:17; 14:10]. The last phrase of the Verse refers to the sixth Seal of Rev. 6:12-17.)

7 The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and He knows them who trust in Him. (Pure and simple, "The LORD is good!" "A stronghold in the day of trouble," was proved by Hezekiah, when he took refuge in the Lord and was delivered and the Assyrians destroyed.

"And He knows them who trust in Him," concerns the delight the Lord takes in those who place their trust in Him and His Word, and not on the frail arm of man. The two words, "He knows," are a consolation to all who totally trust Him; their trust, though maligned by the world and by most of the Church, is rather recognized and blessed by Him.)

[8] But with an overrunning flood He will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue His Enemies. ("But with an overrunning flood," was literally fulfilled! An usually heavy and long-continued flood of the River Tigris carried away a large section of the huge ramparts surrounding the city. Through this gap, the Babylonians forced their way within the walls and captured the place.

"He will make an utter end of the place thereof," was literally fulfilled, as well! When the city fell, it was plundered by the Medes, and was left to fall into a heap of desolate ruin, which it is today. This happened [it is believed] in August 612 B.C., approximately 100 years after Nahum's Prophecy.)

NINEVEH'S JUDGMENT: DESTRUCTION

[9] What do you imagine against the LORD? He will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time. (The question, "What do you imagine against the LORD?", pertains to the Assyrians attempting to take Jerusalem. The phrase, "He will make an utter end," refers to the Assyrian Empire being destroyed, and by the Lord at that! "Affliction shall not rise up the second time," means that as Assyria had in fact subdued the Northern Kingdom and had greatly threatened Judah and Jerusalem, they would never have the power to do so again.)

[10] For while they be folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry. (Continuing to speak of the Assyrians, the Lord says that even though they be "folded together," i.e., militarily equipped as an overwhelming army, impregnable as the folded thorns of the east, and drunk with pride and strength, yet should they "be devoured as stubble, fully dry." The idea of the Verse addresses itself to the boasts of the Assyrians and their slurs against Jehovah.

"And while they are drunken as drunkards," has as its primary meaning, "drunk with power.")

[11] There is one come out of you, who imagines evil against the LORD, a wicked counselor. (Sennacherib, or possibly Rabshakeh, is intended here; but, as well, to the future Antichrist, Nahum points.)

JUDAH'S DELIVERANCE

[12] Thus says the LORD; Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when He shall pass through. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more. (The great boasts of Sennacherib, through Rabshakeh, were made in Verse 11; consequently, the Lord now answers and says what will actually happen. "Though they be quiet, and likewise many," means that the Assyrians will feel secure, because of their tremendous numbers. In their thinking, Jerusalem is ripe for the plucking, and they are quick to say so.

"Yet thus shall they be cut down, when He shall pass through," refers to the Lord passing through the Assyrian host in judgment and killing 185,000 of them, just as He "passed through" the land of Egypt and killed the firstborn.

"Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more," refers not to the Assyrians, but to Israel. They were afflicted, but only in measure; the Assyrians, eternally.)

[13] For now will I break his yoke from off you, and will burst your bonds in sunder. (Thus was the Assyrian yoke broken from off Hezekiah! The phrase, "And will burst your bonds in sunder," concerns an instant deliverance and not a protracted one. And that's exactly what happened, with the Angel killing 185,000 of their choice leaders and soldiers; as a result, Sennacherib canceled all plans for the subjection of Jerusalem and straggled back to his own country [II Ki. 19:35].)

14 And the LORD has given a Commandment concerning you, that no more of your name be sown: out of the house of your gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image: I will make your grave; for you are vile. (Such speaks of Sennacherib and his boasts! As Sennacherib had made his boasts concerning the Lord, now "the Lord has given a Commandment concerning you." Whereas the Assyrian was incapable of carrying out his boasts, the word "Commandment" guarantees that God's Prediction will be carried out, which it was!

The phrase, "That no more of your name be sown," pronounces the finality of Assyrian power, which would come to an end in a little over 100 years.

"Out of the house of your gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image," pertains to the fact that as the Assyrians destroyed the images of the gods worshipped by conquered nations [II Ki. 19:18], likewise, the Lord would do such to their gods.

"I will make your grave," proclaims the death of Sennacherib; he was killed in the temple of his idol, slain by his own sons.

The reason? "For you are vile." The word "vile" in the Hebrew is also translated "light," and means "weighed in the balances and found wanting," as in Dan. 5:27.)

HER MISSIONARY PROGRAM IN THE MILLENNIUM

15 Behold upon the mountains the feet of him who brings good tidings, who publishes peace! O Judah, keep your solemn feasts, perform your vows: for the wicked shall no more pass through you; he is utterly cut off. (Upon the visitation of the Angel and the destruction of 185,000 Assyrian soldiers in one night, the excited messengers hastened over the mountains to Jerusalem with these glad tidings. Actually, the 126th Psalm was written [probably by Hezekiah] respecting this great deliverance.

"For the wicked shall no more pass through you," in effect, refers to the coming Antichrist and the greatest victory of all regarding Israel, which will actually occasion the Second Coming.)

CHAPTER 2

(713 B.C.)

JUDAH ENCOURAGED AGAINST THE ASSYRIAN INVADER

[1] He who dashes in pieces is come up before your face: keep the munition, watch the way, make your loins strong, fortify your power mightily. (This Verse has to do with the coming destruction of Nineveh, which is predicted and described here. It would be carried out by the Babylonians under Nabopolassar, father of Nebuchadnezzar. Such is Bible Prophecy! Over 100 years before the actual siege and destruction would take place, the mode of its capture is minutely foretold.

"He who dashes in pieces is come up before your face," speaks of the army of the Medes, which, at the time of the Prophecy, didn't even exist, but which would humble Nineveh on that coming day.

"Make your loins strong, fortify your power mightily," speaks of preparation, but says, in effect, that whatever is done, irrespective of the warning given here, Nineveh will fall!)

[2] For the LORD has turned away the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches. (The first phrase has to do with the Lord humbling the Ten Tribes, using the Assyrian as His Instrument; they "emptied out" the whole land of the Northern Kingdom of Israel. "And marred their vine branches," refers to the Fall and destruction of Israel, as well as the effort to subdue Judah; the latter did not succeed!)

NINEVEH TO EXPERIENCE JUDGMENT: BATTLE IN HER STREETS

[3] The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir trees shall be terribly shaken. (This Verse describes the Babylonian Host, which would come against Nineveh a little over 100 years into the future.)

[4] The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall justle one against another in the broad ways: they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings. (The language of these Verses vividly describes an ancient army marching into battle. "The chariots shall rage in the streets," refers to the tremendous number of these instruments of war owned by Nabopolassar, the Babylonian king.

Incidentally, this Verse does not apply to the modern automobile, as some claim. It refers rather to the invasion by the Medes.)

[5] He shall recount his worthies: they shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the defence shall be prepared. (This Verse pictures the vain effort of the king of Nineveh and his troops to defend the city. The preparation of their defenses, even though extensive, was fruitless, simply because the Lord was fighting against them. As such, they could not hope to win.)

[6] The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be dissolved. (This explains the flood of 1:8 that made the Fall of the city possible. The Hebrew verb here translated "dissolved" may be better read as "become molten," which describes the king of Nineveh, Sardanapalus, collecting his wives and his treasures into the palace and setting it on fire, with all perishing in the flames. Thus, remarkably and minutely does the Prophet describe the capture and fate of Sardanapalus some 50 years before he was born!)

NINEVEH'S CAPTIVITY

[7] And Huzzab shall be led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves, tabering upon their breasts. ("Huzzab" was probably the queen who escaped the burning of the palace and was led away captive.)

8 But Nineveh is of old like a pool of water: yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they cry; but none shall look back. (The first phrase refers to the multiple thousands of traders and merchants who flocked to the city as water flows into a pool. "Yet they shall flee away," pertains to the siege of the city and its ultimate Fall, which saw all of these people running away, concerned only for their own safety, despite the captains saying, "Stand, stand." Irrespective, they fled and "none shall look back.")

NINEVEH SPOILED

9 Take you the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold: for there is none end of the store and glory out of all the pleasant furniture. (This Verse is addressed to the invading Babylonians. The word "glory" here signifies abundance and costliness. Many valuables have been found in the ruins of Nineveh, but no gold or silver, showing how completely the Babylonians responded to this injunction. The last phrase pertains, as well, to its riches. Sardanapalus is said to have placed 150 golden beds and as many tables of the same metal on his funeral pyre, plus gold and silver vases and ornaments in enormous quantities, along with costly raiment.)

HER UTTER RUIN

10 She is empty, and void, and waste: and the heart melts, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness. ("She is empty, and void, and waste" portrays three Hebrew words, all similar in sound, each having more syllables than its predecessor, thus, expressing the solemnity and finality of the city's doom. The Hebrew words for "empty," "void," and "waste" are "bukah," "bukahum," and "um'bulakah.")

11 Where is the dwelling of the lions, and the feedingplace of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid? (The Hebrew word "where" expresses wonder and awe. The question, "Where is the dwelling of the lions?", pictures Nineveh as a lion's den, but secure and well fed. "Even the old lion, walked," refers to its original builder, Nimrod [Gen. 10:11]. From the construction of the Hebrew Text, it seems that Asshur may have built Nineveh, but under the guidance and direction of Nimrod.

"The old lion," could have referred to the age of Nineveh, which was nearly 2,000 years old when it was destroyed. The phrase, "And none made them afraid," referred to her tremendous strength, which caused her to stand for so many years.)

12 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravin. (The "lion" was the symbol of Assyria; "Nergal," its war god, was portrayed as a winged lion with a man's face. "The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps," refers to the expansion of the Assyrian Empire and their plundering of other nations, fulfilling the phrase, "And filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravin.")

GOD IS HER DESTROYER

13 Behold, I am against you, says the LORD of Hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour your young lions: and I will cut off your prey from the Earth, and the voice of your messengers shall no more be heard. (After denoting the tremendous strength of the Assyrian Empire, noted by its capital city, Nineveh, the Prophet says, "Behold, I am against you, says the LORD of Hosts." "And I will cut off your prey from the Earth," means that the Lord would stop once and for all the pillage of other countries by the Assyrians. The phrase, "And the voice of your messengers shall no more be heard," signifies its end, with the same being said of the former Soviet Union.)

CHAPTER 3

NINEVEH'S CRIMES AND WARS: THE REASON FOR HER DOOM

[1] Woe to the bloody city! it is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departs not (Nineveh is described here by the Holy Spirit in three words, "bloodshed, deceit, and violence")**;

[2] The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the pransing horses, and of the jumping chariots. (Verses 2 and 3 describe the Babylonian army advancing to the attack upon Nineveh, with the cracking of the whips urging on the chariot horses, and with the noise of the chariot wheels.)

[3] The horseman lifts up both the bright sword and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcas ses; and there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses (the number of the dead was so great that the invaders themselves are impeded by the heaps of dead bodies which they have to climb over, fulfilling the Passage, "they stumble upon their corpses")**:

[4] Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the wellfavoured harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that sells nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts. (The word "whoredoms" actually refers to "idolatries." The "well-favored harlot" refers to being "idolatrous." Idolatry and its accompaniments of oppression and violence caused the ruin of Nineveh.

"The mistress of witchcrafts," pertained to the Assyrians conquering nations and then erecting symbols of their [Assyrian] deities and compelling conquered nations to receive them and pay them divine honor. The phrase, "That sells nations through her whoredoms," literally means that nations were bought and sold by idolatry.)

JUDGMENT FROM GOD

5 Behold, I am against you, says the LORD of Hosts; and I will discover your skirts upon your face, and I will show the nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame. ("Behold, I am against you, says the LORD of Hosts," places the Assyrian Empire, for all its might, in an untenable position. "And I will discover your skirts upon your face," pertains to her being unable to defend herself as the mighty Babylonian army approached. "And I will show the nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame," spoke of her utter defeat, with her great city being ransacked, her leaders killed, and her gods destroyed as helpless!)

6 And I will cast abominable filth upon you, and make you vile, and will set you as a gazingstock. (The custom of the ancients was to strip a debauched woman, exposing her to the public, and then to spatter her with all kinds of filth. Nineveh's character and doom are here so pictured.)

7 And it shall come to pass, that all they who look upon you shall flee from you, and say, Nineveh is laid waste: who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for you? (The idea of Assyria being defeated, especially at this particular time, was preposterous, at least in the minds of the wise men of the world. As well, to be defeated to this degree, "that all they who look upon you shall flee from you," was unthinkable!

"Nineveh is laid waste," was a statement which not a single person in the world believed, except those who believed God. The last phrase concerns the world of that day being pleased that this empire of great cruelty had now received her just dues.)

THE RIGHTNESS OF DIVINE JUDGMENT

8 Are you better than populous No, that was situate among the rivers, that had the waters round about it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea? ("Populous No" means No-Ammon, i.e., "Thebes." This great city, like Nineveh, was so fortified by the Nile and its canals as to be deemed impregnable; yet was it captured by the Assyrians. Its stupendous ruins excite even today the astonishment of the world.

The Prophet here asks Nineveh, "Are you 'better' or more strongly situated than Thebes, Egypt?")

9 Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; Put and Lubim were your helpers. ("And it was infinite," concerning the "strength" of Ethiopia and Egypt, respects them as being thought to be so strong that they were impregnable. But yet, and as the Holy Spirit calls to attention, Assyria defeated these mighty empires.)

10 Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity: her young children also were dashed in pieces at the top of all the streets: and they cast lots for her honourable men, and all her great men were bound in chains. ("Yet was she carried away," refers to the destruction of Thebes [No], despite her strong position and infinite resources. Likewise, Nineveh would fare no better!)

11 You also shall be drunk: you shall be hid, you also shall seek strength because of the en emy. (The word "drunk" means to be drunk with the cup of God's Wrath. "You shall be hid," means to be covered up with the sands of the desert, which she was after her terrible defeat by the Babylonians. In fact, she was so effectually "hidden" that her very site was discovered only in the last 100 or so years.

"You also shall seek strength because of the enemy," actually means that they would seek to leave the city and find another stronghold of defense; however, history records that the effort to retreat from Nineveh during the siege was unsuccessful.)

12 All your strong holds shall be like fig trees with the firstripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater. (The Holy Spirit forecasts here, about 100 years before it happened, the actual thoughts that would come into the minds of the defenders of Nineveh, of endeavoring to retreat to a second line of defense. He is telling them here through the Prophet that such would be useless.)

13 Behold, your people in the midst of you are women: the gates of your land shall be set wide open unto your enemies: the fire shall devour your bars. ("Behold, your people in the midst of you are women," denotes the fighting ability of the Assyrians being so diminished that they were incapable of defense. The phrase, "The gates of your land shall be set wide open unto your enemies," refers to the part of the wall that was swept away by the flood, leaving gaping holes. "The fire shall devour your bars," actually pertains to the gates of the city that were set on fire after the Babylonians had gained access to the city because of the flood.)

[14] Draw you waters for the siege, fortify your strong holds: go into clay, and tread the morter, make strong the brickkiln. (In effect, the Lord is saying that irrespective of what is done, Assyria is going to go down, and nothing can stop it.)

[15] There shall the fire devour you; the sword shall cut you off, it shall eat you up like the cankerworm: make yourself many as the cankerworm, make yourself many as the locusts. (The argument of Verses 15 through 17 is: though the soldiers of Nineveh were as countless as the locusts, and her merchants more in number than the stars, yet should they perish as the locusts that flee from the rising sun.)

[16] You have multiplied your merchants above the stars of heaven: the cankerworm spoils, and flees away. (The first phrase pertains to the extensive trading carried on by Nineveh, which was really, at that time, the hub of commerce for much of the world. The last phrase has to do with the city spreading herself everywhere, and now is gone, as if disappeared.)

[17] Your crowned are as the locusts, and your captains as the great grasshoppers, which camp in the hedges in the cold day, but when the sun arises they flee away, and their place is not known where they are. (This Verse proclaims the fabric of this vast number of world leaders and empire builders coming apart like rotten cloth.)

[18] Your shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria: your nobles shall dwell in the dust: your people is scattered upon the mountains, and no man gathers them. ("Your shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria," refers to their military generals sleeping the sleep of death. "Your people is scattered upon the mountains," concerns their terrible defeat at the hands of the Babylonians, with the people being leaderless as a result of the decapitation of its leadership. "No man gathers them," means that there will be no leaders left to rally them, hence the empire would go into oblivion.)

19 There is no healing of your bruise; your wound is grievous: all who hear the bruit of you shall clap the hands over you: for upon whom has not your wickedness passed continually? ("There is no healing of your bruise," means that there was no remedy for the coming destruction. "Your wound is grievous" points to the fact that the leaders of Assyria had passed the point of no return. The phrase, "All who hear the bruit of you shall clap the hands over you," concerns the nations of the world who hear the tidings [bruit] of Assyria's defeat and rejoice greatly!)

Habakkuk

Chapters

1 — 2 — 3

CHAPTER 1

WHY DOES GOD PERMIT INJUSTICE AND ALLOW OPPRESSION?

[1] The burden which Habakkuk the Prophet did see. (This "burden" concerned an oracle of judgment upon Judah, which was to be destroyed and taken captive by the Chaldeans. This Prophecy was given only about 40-50 years before Nebuchadnezzar's first incursion into Jerusalem in 605 B.C. Jeremiah's prophetic Ministry began about 627 B.C., not long after Habakkuk's; therefore, the earlier Prophet's Ministry would have served as a staging area for Jeremiah.

Considering that Babylon had not yet come into power, and considering that Habakkuk spoke of the coming Chaldeans, such would have aroused more curiosity than fear; nevertheless, it would come to pass exactly as the Holy Spirit predicted.)

[2] O LORD, how long shall I cry, and You will not hear! even cry out unto You of violence, and You will not save! ("O LORD, how long shall I cry, and You will not hear!", proclaims the Prophet's heart, jealous for God and the Law, asking why God is silent and inactive in view of the cruelties ["iniquities"], oppression ["grievance"], robbery, violence, strife, and contention practiced by the rich in Zion against the poor, owing to the slackness of law and the corrupt administration of justice.

The exclamation, "O LORD, how long shall I cry, and You will not hear!", implies that the Prophet had long been complaining of the moral depravity of Judah and calling for help against it. He was discouraged that the Lord did not seem to answer his petition.

The last phrase pertains to the Prophet frustrated in the knowledge that God has the Power to do something about these things, but seemingly does nothing. The implication is: the helpless and poor of the land had appealed to Habakkuk to cry to the Lord on their behalf regarding their oppression by the ruling aristocracy, who no longer cared for the things of God but rather their own enrichment.

They are crying in the Prophet's ears; therefore, he cries into God's Ears, but with what looks like little result.)

3 Why do You show me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are who raise up strife and contention. (The question, "Why do You show me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance?", has reference to the Prophet's frustration.)

4 Therefore the Law is slacked, and judgment does never go forth: for the wicked does compass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceeds. ("Therefore the Law is slacked," means that the Law of Moses was ignored, or even set aside, by the ruling aristocracy of Judah. Where the Bible does not rule, injustice does!

The phrase, "And judgment does never go forth," means a lack of fair and equitable judgment for all.)

GOD'S USE OF THE CHALDEANS (THE BABYLONIAN CAPTIVITY)

5 Behold you among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvelously: for I will work a work in your days, which you will not believe, though it be told you. (The Apostle Paul, in Acts 13:41, quotes this Verse. His argument was: just as the Hebrews would not believe Habakkuk foretelling the destruction of Jerusalem by the Chaldeans, and the Salvation offered to Israel, so the Jews did not believe Paul foretelling the destruction that then impended at the hands of the Romans, and the Salvation proclaimed through Christ.

"Behold you among the heathen," is meant to point to Babylon, which shall be the instrument used by Jehovah to punish Judah. This was something that Habakkuk did not understand, in that God would use those more wicked that Judah to punish Judah. Therefore, he would "regard" and "wonder marvelously."

"For I will work a work in your days," is actually part of the answer to Habakkuk's inquiry. The words, "In your days," meant that some of those now living would see this coming chastisement; therefore, Judah was beginning the countdown, a countdown which would ultimately lead to her destruction.

"I will work," signifies that the Lord will "work" to bring destruction, upon an absence of Repentance, just as He "works" to bring blessing upon obedience. "Which you will not believe, though it be told you," was fulfilled in totality. The people did not believe Habakkuk, and they did not believe Jeremiah, even when on the very eve of destruction.)

6 For, lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwellingplaces that are not theirs. ("For, lo, I raise up the Chaldeans," would have presented a somewhat puzzling spectrum to the people of Judah. At this time, Babylon did not even exist as an empire. In fact, at least at this time, such a thought was preposterous. However, the short phrase, "I raise up," portrays the Lord as able to do what He says that He will do. The Babylonians will take the land of Judah!)

7 They are terrible and dreadful: their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of them selves. ("They are terrible and dreadful," is meant to emphasize not only what the Babylonians will be but also the entirety of Gentile dominion. This Gentile dominion was carried out by the Babylonians, by the Medes and Persians, by the Greeks, and by the Romans. It will also continue under the coming Antichrist.

"Their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves," means that the Babylonians would be led not at all by God, but their own selfish desires — in reality, by Satan.)

8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hastes to eat. (These "horsemen," although beginning with the Babylonians, would also pertain to the Medes and the Persians, the Greeks, the Romans, the Barbarians, the Turks, the Arabs, the Spanish, etc., and the Germans. Tragically, it has not ended even yet; it will culminate with the Antichrist. It pertains to the "times of the Gentiles" [Lk. 21:24].)

[9] They shall come all for violence: their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand. ("They shall come all for violence," concerns the manner of operation of the Babylonians, as well as all who would follow thereafter.)

[10] And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it. (The first phrase pertains to the fact that no mercy will be shown even to the Potentates. "They shall deride every stronghold," means that Judah's strongest defense would be as nothing to them.)

[11] Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, imputing this his power unto his god. ("Then shall his mind change," refers to the arrogance of Nebuchadnezzar, when he became lifted up in pride. The phrase, "Imputing this his power unto his god," means that he defied the Lord and made his might his god.)

GOD'S CHARACTER; WHY SHOULD HE USE THE WICKED TO PUNISH THE LESS WICKED?

[12] Are you not from everlasting, O LORD my God, my Holy One? we shall not die. O LORD, You have ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty God, You have established them for correction. (In the balance of this Chapter, the Prophet complains of the Divine action in employing for chastisement a people more wicked than the Jews, whom they were commissioned by God to punish. This perplexed Habakkuk. "And, O mighty God, You have established them for correction," means that the Lord has set in motion a series of events, which will establish the Babylonians in power that they may bring about these corrective measures to Judah.)

13 You are of purer eyes than to behold evil, and cannot look on iniquity: wherefore look You upon them who deal treacherously, and hold Your Tongue when the wicked devours the man who is more righteous than he? ("You are of purer eyes than to behold evil, and cannot look on iniquity," means that God cannot look with complacency on evil. And yet the Lord proposes to permit evil men, called the "Chaldeans," to afflict the Holy Seed. This is the Prophet's perplexity, which he lays before the Lord.

The question, "And hold Your Tongue when the wicked devours the man who is more righteous than he?", is a question that has perplexed more than Habakkuk.)

14 And make men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, who have no ruler over them? (The Verse refers to the Babylonians showing no restraint, because God did not rule them. They were ruled by men, and evil men at that, who had no respect for decency, compassion, or mercy.)

15 They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad. (In this Scripture, Habakkuk refers to the people as fish [all of them] and the "net" as the army of the Babylonians.)

16 Therefore they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat plenteous. (The phrase, "Therefore they sacrifice unto their net," means that they gave their idol gods the credit for their vast success, little understanding that Jehovah had allowed their place and privilege.)

17 Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations? (Habakkuk now realizes that the Lord is the Author of this which is coming.)

CHAPTER 2

GOD'S ANSWER: HE WILL PUNISH THE CHALDEANS LATER; THEY ARE ROBBERS

[1] I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what He will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved. ("I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower," pertains to a watchtower that is speaking symbolically [Ezek. 3:17; 33:2, 6; Mic. 7:4]. "And will watch to see what He will say unto me," means that Habakkuk, totally unlike the modern prophets, believed that a man could pray and the Lord would answer.

"And what I shall answer when I am reproved," seems to imply that Habakkuk felt that his questions addressed to the Lord may not be proper. He expects "reproof," but instead will be given an in-depth answer by the Lord.)

[2] And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the Vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run who reads it. ("Write the Vision, and make it plain upon tables," was carried out to the letter by Habakkuk, in the form of the Book that bears his name; consequently, the Lord wanted not only Habakkuk to hear the answer, but all men, and for all time. The phrase, "That he may run who reads it," speaks of those who are charged with a Divine Message, who were to use all dispatch in making it known.)

[3] For the Vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry. ("For the Vision is yet for an appointed time," actually speaks of the Second Coming of Christ, as proved in Heb. 10:37; however, it could also pertain to something promised personally by the Lord to an individual, but long delayed! Even though delayed, it is not forgotten, but is actually for an "appointed time."

"But at the end it shall speak," actually says in the original, "at the end it shall breathe," meaning that it breathes and pants or hastes toward the end. "And not lie," expresses the certitude of this coming action.

"Though it tarry, wait for it," means that it is not going to happen at the moment; consequently, faith is to wait with confidence for that which the Vision promises. In doing so, the heart oppressed by feelings to which Faith itself gives birth is sustained and comforted. God, Who values Faith, will certainly intervene and not tarry.)

4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his Faith. (The first phrase of this Verse speaks of one who is proud, presumptuous, thinking much of himself, despising others, and who is not straightforward and upright before God. As such, he carries in himself the seeds of destruction. "But the just shall live by his Faith," implies a loving trust in God, confident in His Promises, resulting in due performance of His Will.

This Passage can be translated, "As to the just, through his Faith, he shall live." This is the great Passage used by the Apostle Paul on the basis of his great argument of Faith versus works [Rom. 1:17].)

5 Yes also, because he transgresses by wine, he is a proud man, neither keeps at home, who enlarges his desire as Hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathers unto him all nations, and heaps unto him all people (Habakkuk now begins to express the results of the individual who trusts in his own resources and not God, and speaks of the person proclaimed at the beginning of Verse 4.

"Yes also, because he transgresses by wine," is meant to express the ways of the world, more so than literal inebriation. "Neither keeps at home," refers to the unfettered sexual appetites, unfaithfulness, as well as ever attempting to conquer new horizons, even at the expense of family and home.

"Who enlarges his desire as Hell," means that as Hell is never satisfied with the number of people who enter its confines, neither is the worldling satisfied, irrespective of his attainments or accomplishments. "And is as death, and cannot be satisfied," proclaims the lustful desire of the human family which does not know God.

"But gathers unto him all nations," signifies the Babylonians overrunning one nation after the other, but still not satisfied. The phrase, "And heaps unto him all people," refers to the Babylonians, as all conquerors, putting more and more people under subjection to them [Mat. 20:25-26]):

6 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Woe to him who increases that which is not his! how long? and to him that lades himself with thick clay! (The question in the form of an exclamation concerns itself with this spirit made evident in the previous Verse, which has characterized humanity for all time. Sooner or later, oppressed people rise up against their oppressors, exactly as was done in the former Soviet Union, and has been done through the ages. The idea is: as all these oppressors, wherever they may be, oppress the people by ruinous taxation or levies, likewise, the oppressor is piling up debt to Almighty God, Who cares for the oppressed [Jer. 17:11].)

7 Shall they not rise up suddenly who shall bite you, and awake who shall vex you, and you shall be for booties unto them? (The question, "Shall they not rise up suddenly who shall bite you...?", actually refers to the Persians, who destroyed the Babylonian power as quickly and as unexpectedly as it had arisen. As well, it applies even to the individual who oppresses others, that ultimately the oppressor will be "bitten."

"And you shall be for booties unto them," concludes this question asked by the Lord. As the Babylonians looted their conquered peoples, likewise, they shall be looted!)

8 Because you have spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil you; because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all who dwell therein. (Even though Nebuchadnezzar was an Instrument of God in punishing Judah and Jerusalem, still, he took his commission too far, as is described here by the Lord. He laid a heavy hand of "violence" on God's People, and likewise the Babylonian Empire would suffer the same injustice. The idea is that God's People, whether Jews or Gentiles, are to be treated only as the Lord dictates.)

THE CHALDEANS ARE COVETOUS: WOE TO THEM

9 Woe to him who covets an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil! (As the first "Woe" concerned oppression, this "Woe" concerns covetousness. The idea of this Verse pertains to rich men gathering wealth in order to establish their families in assured affluence; but they, in reality, devise shame to their children and ruin to their own souls because of the injury done to others.

"Woe to him who covets an evil covetousness to his house," actually refers to the leadership of Babylon, which would conclude in Belshazzar, who thought to secure its stability and permanence by amassing godless gain.)

10 You have consulted shame to your house by cutting off many people, and have sinned against your soul. (This Passage refers to the very means the Empire took to secure its power, but proved to be its ruin.)

11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it. (This is evidenced by the great palace in Babylon, as well as the other great buildings, which were built by the enforced labor of miserable captors and adorned with the fruits of fraud and pillage.)

12 Woe to him who builds a town with blood, and stablishes a city by iniquity! (This is the third "Woe" mentioned; it concerns violence and cruelty. The other two are found in Verses 6 and 9. The phrase, "Woe to him who builds a town with blood," concerns mighty Babylon, or any city for that matter, built by riches gained by the murder of conquered nations. "And stablishes a city by iniquity!" refers to a city, or anything, built as the result of sin.)

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of Hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?

(God has ordained for the "fire" the great and strong cities and palaces which the nations weary themselves in building.)

GOD'S ULTIMATE PURPOSE IN THE EARTH

14 For the Earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the Glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea. (This Passage is very similar to what Isaiah said in 11:9 of his Book. As the Lord answers Habakkuk, His Statements, although alluding to coming Babylon, rather uses Babylon to symbolize the world as a whole without God. However, the Holy Spirit proclaims: "For the Earth shall be filled," not with injustice, murder, greed, avarice, hate, or oppression, but instead "with the knowledge of the Glory of the LORD." This will take place in the coming Millennium, beginning immediately after the Second Coming of Christ.)

WOE TO DRUNKARDS

15 Woe unto him who gives his neighbour drink, who puts your bottle to him, and makes him drunk also, that you may look on their nakedness! (This "Woe" speaks of drunkenness. "Woe unto him who gives his neighbor drink," refers, first of all, to the deepened idol worship and debauchery to which the conquered nations were exposed upon their defeat by the Babylonians. All sense of nationhood was taken away from these conquered peoples, with them virtually reduced to slaves; consequently, they were reduced to constant inebriation in order to try to stand the pain, etc.

As well, even though in a secondary position, it pertains to all those who make and distribute alcoholic beverage. The Lord has pronounced a "Woe" of "violence" on all who participate in this scourge of debilitation to one's fellow man.

"That you may look on their nakedness!" refers to the total debilitation of the individual. "Nakedness" refers to the person having no covering or protection, being exposed to the mercy of others, of which there is precious little.)

16 You are filled with shame for glory: drink you also, and let your foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the LORD's right Hand shall be turned unto you, and shameful spewing shall be on your glory. ("You are filled with shame for glory," proclaims the very opposite type of glory to that in the Promise of the "knowledge of the Glory of the LORD." That "Glory" is wonderful to behold, while this "glory" is "shame."

"Drink thou also, and let your foreskin be uncovered," refers to the uncircumcised. To be uncircumcised meant that the person was not in Covenant relationship with the Lord and was consequently judged as a heathen.

The idea of the phrase is: the Babylonians, i.e., the world, have no relationship or Covenant with God. Consequently, "the cup of the LORD's right Hand shall be turned unto you," which means that judgment will surely come, and figures not only the destruction of the Babylon of ancient times, but the entirety of spiritual Babylon, the world's system.

"And shameful spewing shall be on your glory," refers to the "cup" of the Wrath of God, which will be poured out upon her.)

17 For the violence of Lebanon shall cover you, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid, because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all who dwell therein. ("For the violence of Lebanon shall cover you," pertains to violence against Jerusalem and the Temple — called here "Lebanon," because it was built with cedars brought from thence. "And the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid," here pictures the nations as wild beasts, which would rend the Chaldean Monarchy. This was effected by the Medes and Persians.

The last phrase refers to Judah and Jerusalem. When Nebuchadnezzar took the city, the slaughter was terrible, with the Lord promising vengeance because of the "violence." And yet, this Prophecy is given before the Babylonians even came to power or Nebuchadnezzar was even born!)

WOE TO IDOLATERS

18 What profits the graven image that the maker thereof has graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusts therein, to make dumb idols? (The question, "What profits the graven image that the maker thereof has graven it?", goes to the heart of Babylonian thought. They would attribute all their success to their gods. "The molten image," further reinforces the fact that the thing is made, designed, and fashioned by man and, therefore, worthless.

The phrase, "And a teacher of lies," refers to the customs and culture built around this idol, which encouraged its worshippers in lying delusions, which is an entire contrast to Jehovah, Who is Truth.)

19 Woe unto him who says to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it. (This is the fifth and final "Woe," and speaks to idolaters. "Woe unto him who says to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach!", actually means, in the Hebrew, "shall this teach?" — an emphatic question expressing astonishment.

"Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver," implies that in the mind of the "maker" the precious metal denotes some type of special worth. While the precious metal may be valuable, still, that was true before it was placed on that idol.

"There is not breath at all in the midst of it," presents the fact that despite the accoutrements, it is still a dead, lifeless object!)

20 But the LORD is in His Holy Temple: let all the Earth keep silence before Him. (The first phrase refers to Heaven itself and means that man should consult Him, not these dumb idols. He is a Living God, whereas these other things "have no breath in them." As such, He will demonstrate this fact so effectually that all the Earth will stand hushed in silence before Him. In idolatry the idol is silent and its worshippers eloquent.)

CHAPTER 3

(626 B.C.)

A PRAYER OF HABAKKUK: ASKS FOR MERCY

[1] A prayer of Habakkuk the Prophet upon Shigionoth. (The word "Shigionoth" is the plural of "Shiggaion," and means "a crying aloud.")

[2] O LORD, I have heard Your speech, and was afraid: O LORD, revive Your Work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy. (This Verse may be thus paraphrased: "O Jehovah, I have heard Your fame, and I bowed in reverent worship. O Jehovah, repeat Your doings of old in the midst of these years of affliction; in the midst of these years of sorrow, demonstrate Your Power; in wrath, remember Mercy.")

GOD SAVES THE RIGHTEOUS; THE WICKED ARE CONDEMNED

[3] God came from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah. His Glory covered the heavens, and the Earth was full of His Praise. (This phrase, "God came from Teman," refers to Sinai. It refers to the Lord leading the Children of Israel out of Egypt through this barren wasteland. The phrase, "And the Holy One from Mount Paran," refers to Mount Sinai proper, where the Law was given.

The one word "Selah" pronounces the entirety of this Chapter, especially considering the last line in Verse 19, as a song or ode, given by the Lord to Habakkuk, and him reciting or singing it with the worship choir in the Temple.)

[4] And His Brightness was as the light; He had horns coming out of His Hand: and there was the hiding of His Power. ("And His Brightness was as the light," refers to the Glory of God, which is of such magnitude that mere mortals, especially in the unconverted state, could not stand it. "He had horns coming out of His Hand," has the idea of beaming rays of Glory and Power coming out of His Hands for healing and miracles [Lk. 14:4]. The phrase, "And there was the hiding of His Power," has reference to His full Power, which was hidden in His Being.)

[5] Before Him went the pestilence, and burn ing coals went forth at His Feet. (The idea of the Verse concerns Judgment on sin and rebellion. Even though He has evidenced such in the past, still, the greatest portrayal of this Judgment concerning the "pestilence," etc. will be brought to bear in the coming Great Tribulation.)

[6] He stood, and measured the Earth: He beheld, and drove asunder the nations; and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow: His Ways are everlasting. ("He stood, and measured the Earth," has to do with measuring it for Judgment, and more particularly, the land of Egypt in the deliverance of the Children of Israel. He will measure it again in the coming Great Tribulation [Rev. 11:1-2].

The phrase, "He beheld, and drove asunder the nations," has to do with the nations that occupied Israel, which were defeated by God's Power as Joshua and the armies of Israel took the land of Canaan.

"And the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow," has to do with Creation obeying Him explicitly, while man doesn't!

"His Ways are everlasting," has reference to His unchangeability. What He was yesterday, He is now, and will ever be. As such, man can trust His Word, because it proclaims His unchangeable "Ways.")

[7] I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction: and the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble. ("I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction," refers to Egypt at the death of the firstborn. The phrase, "And the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble," refers to the country between Egypt and Canaan. The idea is: God took stringent measures upon the enemies of His People when He was delivering them from Egyptian bondage. So, Habakkuk's song or ode recounts the great victories given to Israel by the Lord against her enemies, the enemies, therefore, of God.)

[8] Was the LORD displeased against the rivers? was Your Anger against the rivers? was Your Wrath against the sea, that You did ride upon Your Horses and Your Chariots of Salvation? (The question, "Was the LORD displeased against the rivers?", uses the plural of majesty for the great river, the Nile, when turned by Moses into blood. "The sea" concerns the Red Sea, when it was divided and a passage was made for the Children of Israel who were leaving Egypt.

The idea is: the Lord was not angry with His Creation, but with the manner in which Egypt had made a god out of the Nile and thought to use the Red Sea to trap the Israelites. In other words, they were trying to use God's Creation against God. Consequently, He used His Creation to serve His Purpose, showing them exactly Who God is!

The last phrase speaks of the Lord as the Leader of a mighty Host, which came with chariots and horses to defend the Israelites and to crush their foes.)

[9] Your Bow was made quite naked, according to the oaths of the Tribes, even Your Word. Selah. You did cleave the Earth with rivers. ("Your Bow was made quite naked," refers to God's Word. "According to the oaths of the Tribes, even Your Word," refers to a plural of excellence for the great Promise, confirmed with an oath, made to Abraham and to the Tribes, for they were then in his loins. "You did cleave the Earth with rivers," refers to the Lord bringing forth water out of the rock to quench the thirst of Israel [Ex. 17:6].)

[10] The mountains saw You, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high. (The first phrase concerns the earthquake that shook Sinai at the Presence of the Lord, when the Law was given [Ex. 19:18]. "The overflowing of the water passed by," refers to the opening of the Jordan for Israel under Joshua to pass through. The last phrase is a poetic figure picturing the Jordan lifting up its voice and hands in worship to God.)

[11] The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: at the light of Your Arrows they went, and at the shining of Your glittering Spear. (The first phrase concerns the miracle given to Joshua when he faced the combined forces of the enemy at Gibeon. There "the sun stood still, and the moon stayed" [Josh. 10:13-14]. "At the light of Your Arrows they went," has to do with the Lord "casting down great stones from Heaven" upon the enemy in this great victory given to Joshua [Josh. 10:11].)

[12] You did march through the land in indignation, You did thresh the heathen in anger. ("The land" speaks of Canaan; "the heathen" refers to the inhabitants who possessed it, who were to be driven out. The Lord was "indignant" against them because of their idol worship and deep sin.)

[13] You went forth for the Salvation of Your People, even for Salvation with Your Anointed: You wounded the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah. (The first phrase refers to the Lord as being the General directing the activities of Joshua in the taking of the land of Canaan. "Even for Salvation with Your Anointed," pertains to Joshua and God's People Israel, but more perfectly to the Heavenly Joshua, the Lord Jesus Christ. The Hebrew name for Jesus is "Joshua."

"You wounded the head out of the house of the wicked," refers to the five kings of the Amorites, who were defeated by Joshua and executed [Josh. 10:5, 26]. The last phrase concerns Joshua telling his captains to put their feet upon the necks of these kings, thereby proclaiming total victory over them [Josh. 10:24].)

[14] You did strike through with his staves the head of his villages: they came out as a whirlwind to scatter Me: their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly. (The first phrase continues respecting the great victory given by the Lord to Joshua concerning the defeat of the five kings. "They came out as a whirlwind to scatter Me," refers to the confederation of the five kings determined to overwhelm Joshua and the army of Israel. The last phrase pertains to the plans of the five kings to destroy Israel, looking at them as "poor," i.e., without modern weapons, at least modern for that time. The word "secretly" addresses their secret plans, which, of course, were not secret to God.)

15 You did walk through the sea with Your Horses, through the heap of great waters. (The first phrase refers to the seven nations of Canaan. The words, "with Your Horses," refer back to Verse 8 and the Lord fighting for Joshua, undoubtedly encircling the enemy with these unseen "horses and chariots of Salvation." "Through the heap of great waters," pertains to the confederacy of the enemy, as mentioned, and the Lord defeating them greatly.)

DESPITE ADVERSITY, HABAKKUK HAS FAITH

16 When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he come up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops. (The first phrase addresses the effect of the entirety of that given to him by the Lord, as denoted in this short Book. He "trembles," realizing that God has shown him a picture, not only of Judah at present, but also of the coming Gentile world powers and the Power of the Lord to deliver, which He ultimately will.

"Rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself," refers to the coming Babylonians, and the grief they would cause for Judah. "That I might rest in the day of trouble," concerns this coming invasion by the Chaldeans, and his plea to the Lord that it may be far enough into the future that he will have lived out his lifespan and would not see this terrible thing. Every indication is that his request was granted.

The last phrase refers to the Chaldeans invading the People of God and overcoming them.)

17 Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls (in effect, the Prophet is asking the Lord to grant his request that the invasion be held off until his demise. But if he is fated to witness the devastation of the country, he will still rejoice in the Lord, Who, as his strength, will enable him morally to walk above the trials and sorrows of the times, just as a deer walks securely upon the edge of the giddiest precipice)*:

[18] Yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my Salvation. (Such is the triumph of Faith! It trusts God in the darkest hours and sharpest trials; it awaits His Vindication of His Actions and looks forward with conviction to the sure dawning of the promised Day of Glory.)

[19] The LORD God is my strength, and He will make my feet like hinds' feet, and He will make me to walk upon my high places. To the chief singer on my stringed instruments. (The reason the Prophet could rejoice, irrespective of what happened in the future, was because "the LORD God [was his] strength." "To the chief singer on my stringed instruments," implies that this last Chapter was used as a musical composition or ode for worship in the Temple. It was adapted for the public service to the accompaniment of stringed instruments. As well, from the statement, "my stringed instruments," it could be inferred that Habakkuk was a Levite and, therefore, had a right to take part in the Temple services. Also, part of the Verse could be translated, "He makes me to mount upon the high places, that I may conquer by His Song," thus, by Faith,) singing a song of triumph as Deborah of old [Judg., Chpt. 5].)

Zephaniah

Chapters

1 — 2 — 3

CHAPTER 1

(630 B.C.)

GOD'S JUDGMENT ON JUDAH AND JERUSALEM: BABYLONIAN CAPTIVITY

[1] The Word of the LORD which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hizkiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah. (It is believed that Zephaniah began his Prophetic Ministry immediately before the Prophet Jeremiah, or in the beginning days of Jeremiah's Ministry. Josiah was the last godly King to grace the Throne of Judah, and Zephaniah may well have had some godly influence on the king, which propelled him in the right direction. In fact, Zephaniah was a great-grandson of Hezekiah, and also a distant relative of King Josiah.)

[2] I will utterly consume all things from off the land, says the LORD. (The Gospel in Zephaniah, as in the Epistle to the Romans [Rom. 1:18], begins with the Wrath of God; consequently, any other so-called gospel is false! In the original Hebrew, the warning given here is so strong that it actually has the same connotation of the awful warning of the judgment of the Flood.

"All things from off the land," actually says, "from the face of the Earth," not the land of Judah alone. This pertains to the Truth that, due to the fact that Judah alone knew Jehovah, her state and position affected the entire Earth of that day.)

[3] I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, says the LORD. (The phrase, "I will consume man and beast," is not mere hyperbole, but instead expresses the terrible blight of sin as a result of the Fall, which affects not only man, but even the lower Creation. Even material nature suffers from man's sin

[Gen. 3:17; Rom. 8:22].)

4 I will also stretch out My Hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the Chemarims with the Priests ("Stretching out the Hand," is an expression used when God is about to do great things or inflict notable punishment [Ex. 3:20; Deut. 4:34; Isa. 5:25].

"And I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place," speaks of the sin of God's chosen People being more severe than that of the heathen. The heathen did not know better, while Judah did know better! They ought to have abhorred idolatry and maintained the True Faith.

*"And the name of the Chemarims with the Priests," referred to the black-robed priests of Baal here found in fellowship with the Priests of Jehovah);

5 And them who worship the host of heaven upon the housetops; and them who worship and who swear by the LORD, and who swear by Malcham (the first phrase addresses the sin of idolatry which characterized much of the ancient world, and even the present world. Planetary bodies were believed to guide the destiny and fortune of events; consequently, the flat roofs of the houses in that part of the world were used as places to erect altars for family worship of the heavenly bodies. Here they burned incense [Jer. 19:13] and offered animal sacrifices [II Ki. 23:12].

*"And them who worship and who swear by the LORD," did not actually mean that they worshipped the Lord, but rather that they claimed to worship Him; in reality, they worshipped "Malcham." "Malcham" actually was "Moloch," to whom was offered human sacrifices and other forms of worship);

6 And them who are turned back from the LORD; and those who have not sought the LORD, nor enquired for Him. (Four companies appear in Verses 5 and 6: idolaters, uniters of Jehovah and idols, backsliders, and agnostics. The Wrath of God does not distinguish between these.

At that day, as today, it was fashionable to profess and practice the fundamental unity of all religions, and so to make the Salvation of the Bible complementary to the great religions of the east, etc. But there are only two ways of worship in existence; they are antagonistic, and the one will destroy the other. These ways are: man's religion and God's Salvation.)

THE DAY OF THE LORD: PUNISHMENT

7 Hold your peace at the Presence of the Lord GOD: for the Day of the LORD is at hand: for the LORD has prepared a sacrifice, He has bid His Guests. (This Verse holds a double meaning: first of all, the "sacrifice" mentioned here speaks of the coming Babylonian invasion, which would take place about 50 or 60 years in the future; however, its plenary fulfillment will take place at the Second Advent of Christ, and we speak of the Battle of Armageddon.

"He has bid His Guests," refers to the beasts and fowls that will eat the dead bodies of the slain of Nebuchadnezzar's invasion; but, most of all, it pertains to the multitudes which will be slain at the Battle of Armageddon [Isa. 34:6; Jer. 46:10; Mat. 24:27-28; Lk. 17:34-37].)

8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel. (This Verse can be summed up in the phrase, "And all such as are clothed with strange apparel": the word "strange" implies foreign apparel; it also implies foreign manners and habits. Israel even had a special way to dress, which was designed by the Lord, because they were a peculiar people, consecrated to God's Service [Num. 15:37-39; Deut. 22:12]; however, Judah forsook the design of the Lord and assumed the dress of the Egyptians and the Babylonians.)

9 In the same day also will I punish all those who leap on the threshold, which fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit. ("Leap on the threshold," was a common term then for burglary and stealing with violence. The idea is: many of the Nobles of Judah employed thieves to steal and plunder.)

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, says the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, and a howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills. (Verses 10 and 11 describe the arrival of the Chaldean army at Jerusalem and its victorious penetration of the city from the northern fish gate to Maktesh, where the wealthy merchants had their palaces. "And a howling from the second," pertains to the second district or the lower city upon the hill Acra, which was north of Zion.)

11 Howl, you inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the merchant people are cut down; all they who bear silver are cut off. ("Howl, you inhabitants of Maktesh," pertains, as stated, to the places where the wealthy merchants had their homes in Jerusalem.)

12 And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men who are settled on their lees: who say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will He do evil. ("And punish the men who are settled on their lees," pertains to those who are hardened in their evil habits. The phrase, "Who say in the heart, the LORD will not do good, neither will He do evil," proclaims these individuals as "fools," who denied God's moral government of the world. In other words, they did not deny that there was a God and did not openly ridicule Him, but instead ignored Him; and by that action, they made themselves god.)

13 Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof. (Verses 13 through 18 give a vivid picture of the coming sack of Jerusalem and, in fact, the ruin of the whole country.)

THE NEARNESS OF THE DAY

14 The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hastens greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly. (Verses 14 through 18, in effect, have a double meaning. They refer, first of all, to the near destruction of Jerusalem, which would be about 50 years in the future. As well, they speak of the coming Great Tribulation and the Battle of Armageddon, which is even yet to come to pass.)

15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness (Joel, who prophesied about 100 years before Zephaniah, basically used the same terminology of this Verse, "a day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of black darkness" [Joel 2:2]. As stated, the Verse speaks of the near destruction of Jerusalem and then the coming day of the Antichrist.)**,

16 A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung. (Jerusalem would experience this shortly; however, its greatest fulfillment will be when blood will flow to the horses' bridles in the Battle of Armageddon [Rev. 14:20]. No doubt, this will be blood mixed with water because of the overflowing rain, as prophesied by Ezekiel [Ezek. 38:22].)

18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD's Wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of His Jealousy: for He shall make even a speedy riddance of all them who dwell in the land. (All of man's security is nothing without the Lord.)

CHAPTER 2

(630 B.C.)

AN ADMONITION TO JUDAH

[1] Gather yourselves together, yes, gather together, O nation not desired (the first three Verses of this Chapter are an appeal to Israel to repent, but, sadly, to no avail! Man's problem is sin, and the only solution to that problem, even as it always has been, is "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" [I Cor. 1:23])**;

[2] Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce Anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD's Anger come upon you. (If one is to notice, the word "before" is used four times in this one Verse. It is another graphic plea by the Holy Spirit through the Prophet for Judah to repent.)

[3] Seek you the LORD, all you meek of the Earth, which have wrought His Judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be you shall be hid in the day of the LORD's Anger. (This Third Verse is not only addressed to the people, but even more importantly, to King Josiah and his supporters, who wrought God's Judgment upon the idols [I Ki. 13:2; II Ki. 23:17]. They were admonished to keep on seeking the Lord, and seeking righteousness and meekness, so escape might be possible for them.

In fact, Josiah was a Godly king, actually one of the Godliest to ever grace the Throne of Judah. He was a true son of David. And yet, despite his qualitative leadership, and even though Judah reformed outwardly, still, in their hearts they continued to worship idols and to rebel against Jehovah.)

GOD'S JUDGMENT ON SURROUNDING NATIONS: AGAINST GAZA AND THE PHILISTINES

4 For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon day, and Ekron shall be rooted up. (Without a break in stride, the remainder of this Chapter predicts the fierce anger of God upon the Philistines on the west, the Moabites and Ammonites on the east, the Egyptians on the south, and the Assyrians on the north.

Why would the Holy Spirit, without breaking stride or changing the subject, suddenly cease the denunciation of Judah and immediately pronounce judgment on the Gentiles? It speaks of the fact that Israel will one day be restored and that the "Times of the Gentiles" will come to an end, which is even yet future [Lk. 21:24], which will happen at the Second Coming of the Lord.)

5 Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! the Word of the LORD is against you; O Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy you, that there shall be no inhabitant. (This Passage was fulfilled some years later; however, its plenary fulfillment yet awaits! "Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast," as well, pertains to the modern Palestinians, who presently occupy this area, and which, according to modern treaty, have established, at least in theory, a Palestinian State.

"The Word of the LORD is against you," signifies the impossibility of their success, despite every effort made on their behalf. True, the Palestinian question will not be solved until the Second Coming, but then, most definitely, it will be solved!)

6 And the sea coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks. (This area, the Gaza Strip in Israel, that is now so hotly contested and which will be even more contested in the future, will ultimately, however, be as the Lord intends for it to be — docile, peaceful, and serene. The Word of the Lord shall bring it to pass.)

7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening: for the LORD their God shall visit them, and turn away their captivity. (This was partially fulfilled on the return of the Jews from Babylonian exile; however, its total fulfillment awaits the Second Coming!)

MOAB AND AMMON JUDGED

8 I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached My People, and magnified themselves against their border. (As Verses 4 through 7 spoke of the Philistines and their inhabiting the sea coasts next to the Mediterranean, Verses 8 through 11 speak to Moab and Ammon on the eastern side of Israel. "And magnified themselves against their border," speaks of Israel's border. God had Himself assigned these boundaries to Israel; therefore, to invade these was, and is, an offense against Him.)

9 Therefore as I live, sa ys the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and saltpits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of My People shall spoil them, and the remnant of My People shall possess them. ("Therefore as I live, says the LORD of Hosts," pledges God's Determination to the Truth of His Declaration [Deut. 32:40; Isa. 49:18]. By using the phrase, "LORD of Hosts," He is signifying that He is able to carry out that which He speaks.

"Moab" and "Ammon" are no more, exactly as the Lord said; the area is now occupied by modern Jordan. However, in the coming Kingdom Age, Israel will occupy the entirety of that area, plus much, much more.)

10 This shall they have for their pride, be cause they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the Lord of Hosts. (It is remarkable that the Lord would pronounce coming judgment on Judah, and then turn around and also pronounce judgment on those who have "reproached and magnified themselves against the People of the Lord of Hosts." This should let all and sundry know that the Lord looks at all persecution of His Children with a jaundiced eye. In other words, every Believer must be treated kindly — not so much because of who they are, but to Whom they belong!)

11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for He will famish all the gods of the Earth; and men shall worship Him, everyone from his place, even all the isles of the heathen. ("For He will famish all the gods of the Earth," means He will deprive the idols of their worshippers. "And men shall worship Him," refers to the coming day when all the inhabitants of the Earth will worship the Lord, which will be in the coming Kingdom Age.)

ETHIOPIA AND ASSYRIA JUDGED

12 You Ethiopians also, you shall be slain by My Sword. (But yet the judgment of extinction was not pronounced on them; therefore, they survive unto this hour!)

13 And He will stretch out His Hand against the north, and destroy Assyria; and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness. ("And He will stretch out His Hand against the north, and destroy Assyria," would have sounded strange to the hearers. At that time, the Assyrian power was total. The idea that such could come was preposterous to the carnal mind. However, the Lord said it would come; and come it did, even in about 20-25 years.

After its destruction by the Babylonians, Nineveh was not rebuilt and became exactly as prophesied: "a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.")

14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds; for he shall uncover the cedar work. ("For he [Nebuchadnezzar] shall uncover the cedar work," respects the destruction of the great and beautiful palaces of the Assyrians. The entirety of the Verse speaks of total destruction, which came about exactly as prophesied.)

15 This is the rejoicing city that dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! everyone who passes by her shall hiss, and wag his hand. ("That said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me," has Nineveh, in effect, claiming for herself the attributes of Almighty God. However, the Lord has promised, and for all world powers who have defied him, that they will “become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in!”)

CHAPTER 3

WOE TO SINFUL JUDAH

[1] Woe to her that is filthy and polluted, to the oppressing city! ("Woe to her" is now pronounced against Jerusalem. The phrase, "That is filthy and polluted," has to do with idol worship and all its attendant filth, i.e., both male and female prostitution. Such polluted the city.)

[2] She obeyed not the voice; she received not correction; she trusted not in the LORD; she drew not near to her God. (The love that throbs in these words, "her God," is pathetic. Proud and polluted as Jerusalem was, yet God said she was His, and that He was "her God." The following are the charges:

1. She obeyed not the voice;

2. She received not correction;

3. She trusted not in the Lord; and,

4. She did not draw near to her God.)

[3] Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow. (Princes, judges, Preachers, and Priests were workers of iniquity and teachers of falsehood. "They gnaw not" would be better translated: "They defer not till tomorrow to gnaw the bones." Ravenous wolves gnaw the bones, immediately they have devoured the flesh.)

[4] Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the Sanctuary, they have done violence to the Law. ("Her prophets are light and treacherous persons," referred to false prophets, who had no true mission from God. The word "light" means that they were "frivolous and empty boasters."

"Her priests have polluted the Sanctuary," actually means they polluted what was holy. "They have done violence to the Law," means that they abrogated the Law of Moses by distorting its meaning, neither observing it themselves nor teaching others to keep it.)

5 The Just LORD is in the midst thereof; He will not do iniquity: every morning does He bring His Judgment to light, He fails not; but the unjust knows no shame. (Jehovah, as the Just Judge, is here contrasted with the unjust judges of Verse 3.)

6 I have cut off the nations: their towers are desolate; I made their streets waste, that none passes by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant. ("I have cut off the nations," respects all the many nations that God defeated in the past relative to protecting Israel. This was well known to all the people of Judah, and should have served as a dire warning to the people. However, Judah felt themselves above the heathen and would not believe the True Prophets, even though the Lord repeatedly spoke through them respecting coming Judgment. In other words, they felt they were in a class unto themselves, and that the Lord would not require of them what He required of the heathen.)

7 I said, Surely you will fear Me, you will receive instruction; so their dwelling should not be cut off, howsoever I punished them: but they rose early, and corrupted all their doings. ("So their dwelling should not be cut off," respected the Lord not desiring at all to bring Judgment. In fact, He made every effort to bring the people to Repentance, but to no avail! "Howsoever I punished them," speaks of chastisements which were ignored.

The phrase, "But they rose early, and corrupted all their doings," means that they hardened their hearts and ignored the warnings of the Prophets. Consequently, the Lord was left with no choice, because the light within them had been turned to darkness.)

THE LAST DAYS: ARMAGEDDON

[8] Therefore wait you upon Me, says the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for My Determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them My Indignation, even all My fierce Anger: for all the Earth shall be devoured with the fire of My Jealousy. (This Passage actually has to do with the coming Battle of Armageddon, which will precipitate the Second Coming [Rev. 16:13-17].)

CONVERSION OF ALL NATIONS

[9] For then will I turn to the people a pure language, that they may all call upon the Name of the LORD, to serve Him with one consent. (The Hebrew for "pure language" is "barar sepheth," which means "cleansed or purged lips or speech in contrast with unclean lips" [Isa. 6:5]. "That they may all call upon the Name of the LORD," refers to the entirety of the world calling upon God in the Name of Jesus, with all other religions, idols, and false ways of worship done away with.

"To serve Him with one consent," constitutes the fulfillment of what is referred to as the Lord's Prayer [Mat. 6:10].)

[10] From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia My suppliants, even the daughter of My dispersed, shall bring My offering. (The idea of the Verse is: respecting the particular nations in which the Jews are ensconced, the Gentiles will help get them to Israel, and gladly so. This will be at the outset of the Kingdom Age.)

JUDAH PURGED OF REBELS

[11] In that day shall you not be ashamed for all your doings, wherein you have transgressed against Me: for then I will take away out of the midst of you them who rejoice in your pride, and you shall no more be haughty because of My Holy Mountain. ("In that day," refers to the beginning of the Kingdom Age, when Christ will reign supreme over the entirety of the world, and do so from Jerusalem. At that time, Israel will be the supreme nation on the face of the Earth. Then, the haughty spirit of Israel will be broken, because Israel will have accepted Christ as Saviour, Lord, and Messiah.)

[12] I will also leave in the midst of you an afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the Name of the LORD. (The "afflicted and poor people" spoken of in this Passage portrays the Jews who have come through the fire of the Great Tribulation, and who have allowed it to refine them and make them "poor in spirit." It means their self-confidence has been abolished, with trust being placed solely in the Lord.)

[13] The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid. ("The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies," actually addresses false prophets, who will no longer be in the land. Zechariah also mentions this [Zech. 13:2]. The last phrase, "For they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid," proclaims the total security of Israel in that coming Glad Day, when the Lord will be their Shepherd. This, they could have had all along, if they had only obeyed, because it was promised to them in the Law [Lev. 26:5-6].)

MESSIAH REIGNING IN ZION

[14] Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem. (Beginning with Verse 8 through the remainder of the Chapter, the Restoration of Israel is promised. It was a Restoration they could have had at the First Advent of Christ, but brutally refused by murdering their Messiah. When they finally do accept Christ, which will be immediately after the Second Coming, there will be "great joy" in Israel.)

[15] The LORD has taken away your judgments, He has cast out your enemy: the king of Israel, even the LORD, is in the midst of you: you shall not see evil anymore. ("The LORD has taken away your judgments," refers to Divine Chastisements being halted. This will be in the Kingdom

Age, when Israel will have accepted Christ. "You shall not see evil anymore," refers to the terrible judgments that came upon Israel in the past, which now will never happen again, because the Lord resides in the midst of her, with her gladly serving Him.)

16 In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear you not: and to Zion, Let not your hands be slack. (For nearly 2,000 years now, the Jews have lived in "fear." Considering the terrible persecution over many centuries, they have had just cause to fear. In the coming Kingdom Age, "Jerusalem" will be, in essence, the capital city of the world. One might well call it, "Jerusalem, D.C.," i.e., "David's Capital."

"And to Zion, Let not your hands be slack," means that they must make up for all the time that has been lost. This they shall do, and more, because Christ reigns among them.)

17 The LORD your God in the midst of you is mighty; He will save, He will rejoice over you with joy; He will rest in His Love, He will joy over you with singing. (Verse 17 contrasts with Verse 5; the latter is past; the former, future. In Verse 5, He was in the midst of rebellious Jerusalem offering Himself as a Righteous Judge able to correct its evil; in Verse 17, He will reside in redeemed Jerusalem mightily to prevent any evil.)

RESTORATION OF ISRAEL

18 I will gather them who are sorrowful for the solemn assembly, who are of you, to whom the reproach of it was a burden. (The corruption of Israel and the consequent reproach leveled at it by the heathen were, and are, burdens upon the hearts that lived in fellowship with God. The "reproach" in that coming day will be ended!)

19 Behold, at that time I will undo all who afflict you: and I will save her who halts, and gather her that was driven out; and I will get them praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame. (After Israel accepts Christ, she will be restored to her rightful place as the leading nation of the world; then, the "shame" will be forever ended!)

[20] At that time will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name and a praise among all people of the Earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, says the LORD. (Concerning Israel, this is one of the greatest Promises of all! In the Prophet's eye, the restoration from captivity and the times of the Messiah are synchronous. The former is so closely connected in idea with the latter that he speaks of both under one set of terms, applying the same imagery to both.)

Haggai

Chapters

1 — 2

CHAPTER 1

(520 B.C.)

THE PEOPLE ENCOURAGED TO REBUILD GOD'S TEMPLE; GOD'S ANSWER TO THE OBJECTORS

[1] In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the Word of the LORD by Haggai the Prophet unto Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the High Priest, saying (the Ministry of Haggai was separated from the Prophet Zephaniah by approximately 100 years. The exiles returned to the Holy Land from Babylon in 536 B.C., fulfilling the seventy-year period of captivity prophesied by Jeremiah [Jer. 25:11; 29:10].

At that time, Zerubbabel, a descendant of David and of the Royal House of Judah, led the first group of nearly 50,000 people from Babylonia to the Holy Land. Almost immediately, the foundation of the Temple was laid; however, the work was greatly hindered and actually stopped until 520 B.C., when a fresh beginning was made. This fresh beginning was inspired by the prophesying of both Haggai and Zechariah, which saw the Temple completed.

The Book of Haggai records the unwillingness of the returned exiles to build, their shame over the inferiority of the new House, and their fear of the Persian Government because they built without special permission [Ezra, Chpts. 4-6]. Haggai probably wrote his Book in about 530 B.C.

"In the second year of Darius the king," probably refers to Darius Hystapes Ahasuerus Artaxerxes the Persian. He reigned about 15 years after the Cyrus who commanded the building of the city and the laying of the foundation of the Temple, and who was thought to have been the son of Esther [Ezra, Chpt. 1; Isa. 45:13].

Haggai was the first Prophet after the captivities to Babylon),

2 Thus speaks the LORD of Hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD's House should be built. (Unbelief never fails of arguments, but always has this capital defect of leaving God out. The religious argument at that time was: the time, i.e., the seventy years of captivity, was not yet expired; therefore, the building of the Temple should wait. As another excuse, they said that they did not have the king's permission [Ezra, Chpt. 4].)

3 Then came the Word of the LORD by Haggai the Prophet, saying ("Then came the Word of the LORD," is repetition by the Holy Spirit, and by design. It is meant to impress upon the people the severity of the situation and the depth of their sin)**,

4 Is it time for you, O you, to dwell in your cieled houses, and this house lie waste? (The question, "Is it time for you... ?", has the emphasis placed on the pronoun "you." It is used in derision, as the phrase "This people" is used in Verse 2 instead of "My People." "O you, to dwell in your cieled houses," has the Holy Spirit comparing their houses with His House. The comparison is not very favorable toward the people.)

5 Now therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts; Consider your ways. (The word "consider" actually means "set your heart upon.")

6 You have sown much, and bring in little; you eat, but you have not enough; you drink, but you are not filled with drink; you clothe yourselves, but there is none warm; and he who earns wages earns wages to put it into a bag with holes. (Seldom does the Holy Spirit so clearly and plainly delineate the cause of lack of progress as He does in this particular Verse. Among other things, He shows us that to divert money from God's Work to personal use causes poverty of soul and oftentimes of pocket. Though they did have fine houses to dwell in, it seems that they had been visited with scanty harvest and weak bodily health. In these statements, given by the Holy Spirit through the Prophet, one is made to realize what God can do and what He will not do.)

7 Thus says the LORD of Hosts; Consider your ways. (The Holy Spirit prefaced Verse 5 with the same admonition. Now, for effect, He repeats it.

It is done by design.)

[8] Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, sa ys the Lord. (The Holy Spirit quietly reminds them that the materials for doing the job were just a short distance away. The implication is: no costly offerings were required, only a willingness to work.)

[9] You looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when you brought it home, I did blow upon it. Why? says the LORD of Hosts. Because of My House that is waste, and you run every man unto his own house. (God first is the secret of Spiritual and temporal prosperity. The phrase, "You looked for much, and, lo, it came to little," is one step further than the first phrase of Verse 6. There they sowed much and brought in little; here, they expect much and get little.

"And when you brought it home, I did blow upon it," signifies that what little harvest they did get was cursed by the Lord, because they were not attending to His Work. Please understand: this was for all the people, not just the Priests, etc.)

[10] Therefore the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the Earth is stayed from her fruit. (No doubt, the people ascribe the meagerness of their crops to natural causes; they would not see the judicial nature of their infliction. The phrase, "And the Earth is stayed from her fruit," is an actual portrayal of the problems of the Planet, even unto this day!)

[11] And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground brings forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands. (This Verse portrays the Truth that every single thing in Judah of that particular time, including "the labor of the hands," was cursed by God; consequently, and irrespective of the amount of labor, ingenuity, ability, and investment, the people could not hope to prosper.

There was a tremendous urgency by the Holy Spirit for the Temple to be completed, as is evident in this Book. Consequently, the opposition by the Samaritans and the demand to cease construction by the Persian king were not recognized by the Lord. In fact, absolutely no excuse should ever be allowed to hinder work that should be done for the Lord.)

THE PEOPLE ARE MOVED TO REBUILD

12 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech, the High Priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the Voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the Prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him, and the people did fear before the LORD. ("Zerubbabel" was the "Governor of Judah," no doubt appointed by the King of Persia. Thankfully, the leadership of the nation, headed up by Zerubbabel and Joshua the High Priest, led the way regarding obedience. The last phrase, "And the people did fear before the LORD," proclaims their reaction upon hearing the Message, and rightly so!)

13 Then spoke Haggai the LORD's Messenger in the LORD's Message unto the people, saying, I am with you, says the LORD. (The obedient heart of Verse 12 always is rewarded with the "I am with you" of this Verse. There could be no greater blessing than for the Lord to be with a person — any person!)

14 And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the High Priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and did work in the House of the LORD of Hosts, their God *(this is one of the few recorded instances of all rulers and people stirred to obedience),

15 In the four and twentieth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king. (It seems that the Prophetic Message was delivered on the first of the sixth month [Vs. 1] and obeyed on the 24th of the same month. Thankfully, they did obey; however, such portrays the slowness of the heart to accept and obey the Word of the Lord.

The phrase, "In the second year of Darius the king," recognizes the supremacy of the Gentiles and the sin of Judah which resulted in this supremacy. They would not have the Lord as their King; therefore, the Lord gave them a Gentile king.

Worse still, about 550 years later, the leaders of Israel would say, concerning the Kingship of Christ, "We have no king but Caesar" [Jn. 19:15]. They have found, to their terrible dismay, that Caesar has been a hard taskmaster.)

CHAPTER 2

MESSAGE ON THE TEMPLES: CONCERNING SOLOMON'S TEMPLE

[1] In the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the Word of the LORD by the Prophet Haggai, saying (as Haggai's first Prophecy filled the entirety of Chapter 1, his second Prophecy spans Verses 1 through 9 of this Chapter. The 21st day of this particular month was the last and great day of the Feast of Tabernacles [Lev. 23:34])**,

[2] Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the High Priest, and to the residue of the people, saying (Haggai is instructed by the Lord, first of all, to direct his Message to the Civil and Spiritual Leaders, and then to the people. This, of course, is the order as it should be; but, if the Leaders will not comply, it is doubtful that many of the people will comply. Thankfully, Judah, at this particular time, had Godly Leaders)**,

[3] Who is left among you who saw this house in her first glory? and how do you see it now? is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing? (The question as asked by the Lord, "Who is left among you who saw this house in her first glory?", is addressed to some who had seen Solomon's Temple. Some have even thought that Haggai may have been in that number.

Solomon's Temple was destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar in 586 B.C. As it is now 520 B.C., sixty-six years had elapsed since the Temple's destruction. Some of these old men who were present that day had undoubtedly, as young boys, seen the original Temple in all of its splendor and glory.

The second question, "And how do you see it now?", is meant to express the thoughts of their hearts, which tended toward faithlessness because of what greeted their eyes. The Holy Spirit, in reading their minds, answers the question for them by saying, "is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing?"

At all times, the Child of God must "see" with the eye of Faith rather than surrounding circumstances.)

4 Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, says the LORD; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Josedech, the High Priest; and be strong, all you people of the land, says the LORD, and work: for I am with you, says the LORD of Hosts (the "strength" mentioned here comes about only by and through Faith in the Lord and His Word. Faith having Christ and the Cross as its object can always be assured of the Presence of the Holy Spirit; hence the Promise, "for I am with you, says the LORD of Hosts"):

5 According to the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, so My Spirit remains among you: fear you not. ("According to the Word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt," actually speaks of the Law of Moses [Ex. 19:5-6; 29:45-46; Deut. 7:6; Jer. 7:23]. "So My Spirit remains among you," refers to the Holy Spirit speaking by the Prophets and blessing all who would follow the Lord, according to God's Word.

When we do what the Lord desires that we do, we need have no "fear.")

RENOVATION OF HEAVEN AND EARTH

6 For thus says the LORD of Hosts; Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the Earth, and the sea, and the dry land (The first phrase could be translated, "Once again within a little time." The Holy Spirit through the Prophet desires to show the people the far larger picture than their Temple they are presently building; consequently, He launches from that present time even into the coming glorious future, when He will "fill this House with Glory," and thereby the entirety of the world.

The phrase, "And I will shake the heavens, and the Earth, and the sea, and the dry land," has a double meaning:

1. The coming Great Tribulation outlined in the Book of Rev., Chpts. 6-19;

2. The future renovation of the heavens and Earth by fire, when certain things will be removed and others will remain [Rev. 21:1].

The idea is: the building of this Temple, as unimpressive as it may have seemed to be, was linked to all of these great things which are even yet to come to pass. This is meant to show us how important the Work of God is in every capacity, no matter how small it may seem to be at the present. We must always remember: it is linked to something far larger, meaning we must not fail in our task);

MESSIAH'S SECOND ADVENT; THE MILLENNIAL TEMPLE

7 And I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come, and I will fill this House with Glory, says the LORD of Hosts. ("And I will shake all nations," refers to the coming Great Tribulation and, more specifically, the Battle of Armageddon, which Christ will interrupt by His Second Coming. "And the desire of all nations shall come," actually means the "object of the desire," which does not refer to things, but instead to Christ Alone, Who can and will satisfy the desire of all nations. "And I will fill this House with Glory, says the LORD of Hosts," speaks of the coming Kingdom Age.)

8 The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine, says the LORD of Hosts. (The reason for this Passage interspersed between Verses 7 and 9 is because the people were thinking of what this present Temple would be by comparison to Solomon's Temple. Whereas the former had much silver and gold, Zerubbabel's Temple would have little or none. They were grieved over this. However, the Lord through the Prophet tells them that the Glory of the Temple is not in "silver" or "gold," but instead in His Spirit.

As well, the Lord informs the people that all the "silver" and "gold" are His; if He were so minded, He could fill the House with such ornamentation. So, the lack was by design. He wanted the people's eyes to be not on the ostentatiousness of this building, but on the Spirit of God. In fact, silver and gold are never the end result of the great Plan of God, but instead that the Spirit of God may be with us and, in Truth, in us, and functioning mightily [Eph. 2:22].)

9 The Glory of this latter House shall be greater than of the former, says the LORD of Hosts: and in this place will I give peace, says the LORD of Hosts. (The first phrase addresses itself to the future Millennial Temple, which will be built in Jerusalem, described by Ezekiel in Chapters 40 through 48 of his Book. Even though all the Temples are looked at basically as one, still, this "latter House" will be "Greater" than all, simply because of the Presence in that day of the "Prince of Peace," the Lord Jesus Christ.

The phrase, "And in this place will I give peace," proclaims the fact that in that coming day all war will cease. The name of the first builder of the Temple was Solomon, which means "peaceful." This latter Temple will be glorified by the Presence of the "Peace-Bringer" [Gen. 49:10].)

REASONS WHY THEY WERE NOT BLESSED

10 In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the Word of the LORD by Haggai the Prophet, saying (this is Haggai's third Prophecy, and occupies Verses 10 through 19. It was given about two months after the second Prophecy. As an aside, between the second and third Prophecies, Zechariah's first Prophecy was uttered [Zech. 1:2-6]. "In the second year of Darius," once again is given by the Holy Spirit in order that all may know that the Gentiles now rule God's chosen People because of the rejection of the Lord as her King by Judah),

11 Thus says the LORD of Hosts; Ask now the Priests concerning the Law, saying ("Ask now the Priests concerning the Law, saying," is meant to direct the Priests, who were to carry out the ritual and Spiritual duties, back to the Bible),

12 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the Priests answered and said, No. (Verses 12 through 14 proclaim the Truth that Sacrifices, however holy in themselves, cannot sanctify disobedience and self-will. That which is holy cannot sanctify what is profane; but that which is unclean defiles that which is holy. The presence of evil destroys Holiness, but the Presence of God excludes evil. And when He is acknowledged, the Power of His Presence banishes defilement and brings blessing. The legislation of Verse 12 and 13 is found in Lev. 6:27 and 10:10-11.

"If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment," speaks of the Sacrifice [meat] being borne by the Priests. As well, the Priests who carried this Sacrifice were, according to the Commandments of the Lord, to be holy.

In Truth, anything that touched the flesh of the Sacrifice was to be holy; therefore, unholy things, such as the "wine," "oil," etc., were not allowed to touch the Sacrifices. If such did happen, it would necessitate ceremonial cleansing before the Priestly work could be carried on again. Consequently, the answer, "No," by the Priests to Haggai's question was what it should have been.)

13 Then said Haggai, If one who is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the Priests answered and said, It shall be unclean. (The entirety of this Text is found in Num. 6:6, 11. The implication is: death was caused by sin and came upon man as a result of the Fall; consequently, the touching of a dead body by anyone made one ceremonially unclean. To become clean again, one would have to go through the ceremony of the "Law of the red heifer," as found in Num. 19:22. Therefore, in respect to the touching of a dead body, the Priests answered and said, "It shall be unclean.")

14 Then answered Haggai, and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before Me, sa ys the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean. (The indictment, as given by the Lord, is severe! If one is to notice, the Lord says "this people" instead of "My People," because, by their acts, they had disowned God [1:2]. "And so is every work of their hands," means that as they were unclean, likewise, so was their labor. Therefore, an unholy vessel cannot produce a holy result.

"And that which they offer there is unclean," refers to their Sacrifices, which, in effect, were not accepted by the Lord. Part, if not most, of the problem was that they thought the Sacrifices within themselves were enough, and that the other duties carried on in the Temple [when there was a Temple] were of little consequence. Therefore, by their actions, they had determined, reckoning the Plan of God, what was necessary and what was not necessary, thereby making up their own salvation.

How many Preachers and people today are pronounced "unclean" by the Lord because they have neglected, ignored, or flatly disbelieved part of His Word?")

15 And now, I pray you, consider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the Temple of the LORD *("And now, I pray you, consider from this day and upward," demands a Spiritual inventory to be presently taken. "From before a stone was laid upon a stone in the Temple of the LORD," goes back some 16 years to the time the foundation was laid. Through the Prophet, the Holy Spirit is going to show the people exactly where they are, where they have been, and the reason for their difficulties):

16 Since those days were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the pressfat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty. ("Since those days were," concerns the entirety of the past 16 years. It was a long time to be out of the Will of God, for to be out of His Will is to be out of His Blessing. The idea of the Verse is: when they expected a certain amount from their harvests, they actually only received about half that much.)

17 I smote you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the labours of your hands; yet you turned not to Me, says the LORD. ("I smote you...," plainly spells out the Lord's judicial Actions regarding His People. These judgments were sent upon them in order that they may hopefully turn to the Lord. However, the Scripture says, "yet you turned not to Me, says the LORD.")

18 Consider now from this day and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from the day that the foundation of the LORD's Temple was laid, consider it. (The idea of this Verse is that the Lord wanted them to "consider now this day." He is speaking of the "twenty-fourth day of the ninth month," which is the very day and moment that this Prophecy was being given. The Lord is actually telling them that they are to consider these years of loss; then, beginning this very day, they are to watch Him as He blesses them as they obey Him, which they will now begin to see.)

[19] Is the seed yet in the barn? yes, as yet the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, have not brought forth: from this day will I bless you. (At this particular time, the early part of the season, there was no way they could yet tell exactly what the harvest would be. However, the Lord through the Prophet is saying that, irrespective as to how the "vine," "fig tree," "pomegranate," and "olive tree" presently look, He will see to it that the harvest will be abundant. He says, "from this day will I bless you."

That day, as stated, was to be the "twenty-fourth day of the ninth month." In other words, because of their obedience, they could point back to this day as the beginning of God's Blessings.

Incidentally, the word "Blessing" means "to endue with power for success, prosperity, longevity, etc." In essence, one who is blessed is given a rich and abundant life.

Can this great Promise, "from this day will I bless you," be pulled over to this present time? Without a doubt it can, if proper obedience is rendered to the Lord.)

THE LORDS' PROMISE TO ZERUBBABEL: GOD WILL TRIUMPH; GENTILE NATIONS OVERTHROWN AT MESSIAH'S SECOND ADVENT

[20] And again the Word of the LORD came unto Haggai in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying (even though this was the fourth Prophecy given by Haggai, still, it was given on the same day as the third Prophecy. It spans Verses 21 through 23),

21 Speak to Zerubbabel, Governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the Earth (Verse 6 of this Chapter is here repeated. "I will shake the heavens and the Earth," is letting this Godly dispossessed king [Zerubbabel] know that Israel's captive state will not remain this way forever. There is coming a day when the Lord will change the order of events; this change will be so cataclysmic that it will literally "shake the heavens and the Earth." He is speaking of the Battle of Armageddon and the Second Coming of the Lord, which will bring Israel back to her rightful place)**;

22 And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those who ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother. (This awaits fulfillment in the coming Great Tribulation, and, more particularly, the Battle of Armageddon. This will be at the Second Advent of Christ, when He takes over the kingdoms of this world [Isa. 63:1-5; Ezek., Chpts. 38-39; Zech. 14:1-21; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-21].)

23 In that day, says the LORD of Hosts, will I take you, O Zerubbabel, My Servant, the son of Shealtiel, says the LORD, and will make you as a signet: for I have chosen you, says the LORD of Hosts. (Even though addressed to Zerubbabel, because he was in the lineage of David, still, it actually concerns Him of Whom Zerubbabel was a type, the Messiah, God's Chosen One.

"And will make you as a signet," refers to the Signet Ring on the Hand that is to overthrow all thrones. The Prophecy teaches us that war and fratricidal slaughter will continue up to the Advent of the Great King of Israel.

"For I have chosen you, says the LORD of Hosts," was not actually a personal assurance only to Zerubbabel, because, as stated, neither he nor his natural seed reigned in Jerusalem, at least as king, but instead must be looked at for fulfillment in Christ [Lk. 1:26, 32-33].)

CHAPTER 1

GOD'S CALL FOR REPENTANCE

[1] In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, came the Word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the Prophet, saying (the Book of Zechariah was written by the Prophet, probably at about the same time as the Book of Haggai, which was about 530 B.C. His and Haggai's Prophetic Ministries would be the last, with the exception of Malachi, who would follow approximately 100 years later, after which Israel would plunge into a night of prophetic silence lasting about 400 years. The advent of John the Baptist, the forerunner of Christ, would break that silence.

As well, it is believed that Zechariah was the one Jesus spoke of [Mat. 23:35], who was murdered by the sons of Israel. If, in fact, that was the case, counting Christ, Israel murdered two of the last four Prophets sent to them.

Zechariah began his Ministry some two months after Haggai began to prophesy [Hag. 1:1]),

[2] The LORD has been sore displeased with your fathers. (Their present disposition and the past captivity are obvious evidence of this sad truth.)

[3] Therefore say you unto them, Thus says the LORD of Hosts; Turn you unto Me, says the LORD of Hosts, and I will turn unto you, says the LORD of Hosts. ("Thus says the LORD of Hosts," is used some three times in this one Verse, which signifies the Authorship of the Message. The words, "Turn you," speak of Repentance, meaning sincerely and from the heart, and not only outwardly, in the renunciation of idolatry, as described in Verse 4.)

4 Be you not as your fathers, unto whom the former Prophets have cried, saying, Thus says the LORD of Hosts; Turn you now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto Me, says the LORD. (The first phrase refers to the Prophets previous to the captivity. This would have included Isaiah, Jeremiah, Hosea, Joel, Amos, etc. "But they did not hear, nor hearken unto Me, says the LORD," marks, sadly, the attitude of most. Men hearken unto other men readily, but little to the Lord.

The phrase, "Turn you now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings," characterizes the result of True Repentance. Otherwise, it is not true!)

5 Your fathers, where are they? and the Prophets, do they live forever? (The argument of the Verse is that both Preachers and hearers have died, but the Message of the True Prophets, being Divine, was not dead; therefore, the judgment predicted overtook Jerusalem and she was carried into captivity.

The question, "Your fathers, where are they?", is meant to portray the sad conclusion of those who did not heed the Word of the Lord.)

6 But My Words and My Statutes, which I commanded My Servants the Prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, Like as the LORD of Hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so has He dealt with us. ("But My Words and My Statutes," spoke of the Law of Moses and the Word of the Prophets, as given by the Lord. The question, "Did they not take hold of your fathers?", rather means, "did not the threatened chastisements, however long delayed, reach your fathers in the end?"

The phrase in the middle of the Verse, "And they returned and said," means only that the Jews to whom Zechariah was ministering turned so far as to acknowledge that the threats had been fully accomplished and carried out. It does not mean that, in their acknowledgment, they sought to do the Will of the Lord, which they obviously didn't in their long delay in rebuilding the Temple.)

VISION OF A MAN ON A RED HORSE AMONG MYRTLE TREES

[7] Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the Word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the Prophet, saying (this Message is given about three months after the Message recorded in Verse 1. "Which is the month Sebat," refers to parts of our January and February. This was about five months since the building of the Temple, which, upon the Prophecies of Haggai, had been resumed. It seems that Haggai had finished his Prophecies by now, and Zechariah carries on the Revelation.

The first of his Visions will now commence and will show what is the nature of the restored theocracy, and what shall befall it),

[8] I saw by night, and behold a Man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the bottom; and behind him were there red horses, speckled, and white. ("I saw by night," simply means that the Vision came at night, and while Zechariah was awake. In other words, it was not a Dream, but a Vision. "And behold a Man riding upon a red horse," is to be taken literally. The "Man" was probably a preincarnate appearance of Christ. These "horses" were "spirit horses.")

[9] Then said I, O my Lord, what are these? And the Angel Who talked with me said unto me, I will show you what these be. (The question, "Then said I, O my Lord, what are these?", refers to Zechariah referring to the appearance of this Being as "Lord," proving Him to be Christ. The name or designation "Angel," as used in the Bible, can refer to either the Lord, man, or Angels [as we think of Angels]. The proper understanding, as here, must be derived from the context.)

[10] And the Man Who stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, These are they whom the LORD has sent to walk to and fro through the Earth. ("These are they whom the LORD has sent to walk to and fro through the Earth," pertains to Angels, who were riding the other spirit horses, and who were sent forth as instruments to execute God's Wrath upon the oppressors to whom He had committed the government of the world, but who, at ease themselves, were indifferent to the misery and ruin of God's People. Even though the word "Earth" is used, it does not actually speak of the entirety of the Earth, but only the part that had to do with Israel.)

[11] And they answered the Angel of the LORD Who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the Earth, and, behold, all the Earth sits still, and is at rest. (The first phrase seems to imply that the One speaking to Zechariah, Who is the Lord of Glory, had not previously been with the others, but now joins them, in respect to information that will be given to the Prophet. As well, the designation, "Angel of the LORD," Who was "the Man riding upon the red horse" [Vs. 8], further confirms this One as Deity. It is a term usually held to denote a manifestation of the Logos, the Second Person of the Holy Trinity, namely, a preincarnate appearance of Christ.

"And, behold, all the Earth sits still, and is at rest," probably means that the leadership of the Medo-Persian Empire, which then ruled the world of that day, little regarded the plight of the Jews in Jerusalem, but now would be stirred to action, which they were.)

JUDGMENT OF JUDAH'S ENEMIES

[12] Then the Angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of Hosts, how long will You not have Mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which You have had indignation these threescore and ten years? ("Then the Angel of the LORD answered," seems to refer to a different Angel than the One mentioned in Verse 11. That "Angel" is Jehovah, while this Angel is one of the attending Angels on one of the other spirit horses.

The question, "O LORD of Hosts, how long will You not have Mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah?", is asked that Zechariah may be given more information and that Judah would be comforted. The last phrase signifies that the Lord strongly desires to have Mercy; He was wanting the time period of some seventy years of chastisement to end, even more so than the people to whom it was intended, His People, the Jews.

However, at times, the Lord can little show Mercy simply because of the apathy of Believers, even as is evidenced here.)

[13] And the LORD answered the Angel who talked with me with good words and comfortable words. (The answer of "the LORD" is in regard to the question asked by the Angel of Verse 12. Due to the people favorably responding to the prophesying of Haggai and Zechariah, at least at this time, the answer of the Lord will be "good words and comfortable words," which the Lord desires to give to all, if Believers will only obey Him.)

[14] So the Angel who communed with me said unto me, Cry you, saying. Thus says the LORD of Hosts; I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. (The first phrase seems to present an Angel other than Jehovah, who will convey the Message of the Lord to the Prophet. The phrase, "Cry you, saying, Thus says the LORD of Hosts," proclaims a Message of great blessing and prosperity. It is in two parts, with the second part found in the next Verse.

First of all, He says, "I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy": this means that however humiliated the present position of His People, still, He loves them supremely. As well, the term implies ardent love, which cannot bear itself to be slighted, or the object of its affection to be injured, hence the term "with a great jealousy.")

[15] And I am very sore displeased with the heathen who are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction. (The first phrase pertains to the present leader of Medo-Persia, who some time back had stopped work on the Temple. With this, the Lord was "very sore displeased." "For I was but a little displeased," is not speaking of the Persians, as the first phrase did, but instead of Israel. God had been angry with His People, but only in measure, chastising them and not destroying them.

"And they helped forward the affliction," once again refers to "the heathen," in this case, the Babylonians, who were used as instruments of God to bring about the chastisement. Therefore, "they [the Babylonians] helped forward the affliction.")

JUDAH YET TO BE RESTORED

16 Therefore thus says the LORD; I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: My House shall be built in it, says the LORD of Hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem. (The first two phrases proclaim the fact that the Lord will now have "mercies" upon the city of Jerusalem. "My House shall be built in it, says the LORD of Hosts," pertains to the Temple, which will be finished shortly; then Temple duties shall begin, which will restore Fellowship and Communion of the Lord with His People. Regrettably, the people, it seems, had not been too concerned about this.

"And a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem," pertains to the ultimate destiny of Jerusalem, which actually speaks of the Headquarters of the Messiah, which will take place in the coming Kingdom Age. In other words, the Lord is addressing Himself to this city and to its present ruined condition, telling the people to look beyond the present and into the prophetic future. What they now see is not good, but what they then see will be Glory beyond compare.

The "stretching of the line" refers to the certitude of this coming action.)

17 Cry yet, saying, Thus sa ys the LORD of Hosts; My Cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem. (This prediction concerns the immediate future from Zechariah's day, but, more importantly, speaks of the coming Kingdom Age. In fact, Josephus tells us that in later times Jerusalem outgrew its walls and once again became a thriving metropolis.)

THE HORNS AND THE CARPENTERS

18 Then lifted I up my eyes, and saw, and behold four horns. (Horns are symbols of strength and power.)

19 And I said unto the Angel who talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem. ("These are the horns which have scattered...", speaks in the past tense, even though, at that time, at least two were yet future — Rome and the Antichrist. In fact, one is still future — the coming Antichrist. However, it is spoken in this way because, in the Mind of God, it is already a settled fact, and is decreed to surely happen. Therefore, it is spoken accordingly:

1. The first "horn" was the Assyrians, which scattered the Northern Kingdom of Israel;

2. The Babylonians destroyed Judah and Jerusalem in 586 B.C.;

3. The Romans destroyed Jerusalem in A.D. 70, which, of course, was then future from Zechariah's day;

4. The Antichrist is the one who will scatter Israel who is yet to come. After that their scattering will be over!)

[20] And the LORD showed me four carpenters. (These "four carpenters" represent four Divine Instruments or agencies raised up by God to overthrow these Empires, which will all be symbolized in the coming Antichrist. As to exactly who these "four carpenters" actually are, we aren't told. They could be Heavenly Angels [Mat. 24:31; II Thess. 1:7-10], the Resurrected Saints [Zech. 14:5; Jude 14-15; Rev. 19:14], or Israel [Zech. 14:14]. However, the greatest Carpenter of all will be "Christ," Who is the Head of all [Mat. 24:29-31; Rev. 19:11-21].)

[21] Then said I, What come these to do? And he spoke, saying, These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which lifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it. ("So that no man did lift up his head," refers to the helplessness of Israel as it regards these Empires, especially considering that they had cast away the Lord as their King, instead accepting Gentile dominion. Consequently, it was a sorry trade, with Israel suffering terribly so, even unto today.

"But these are come to fray them," pertains to these "four carpenters," who will defeat the Antichrist, who represents all of these Empires, at the Battle of Armageddon. "To cast out the horns of the Gentiles," means the end of Gentile dominion; Jesus referred to it as "the Times of the Gentiles" [Lk. 21:24].

All of this will happen at the Second Coming, when the "carpenters" will "cast out the horns of the Gentiles." Then Israel will be restored as the Lord intended at the very beginning.)

CHAPTER 2

(519 B.C.)

THE MAN WITH THE MEASURING LINE

[1] I lifted up my eyes again, and looked, and behold a man with a measuring line in his hand. (Three Visions were given to Zechariah in Chapter 1 and concerned Israel's outward prosperity. Three more Visions are given in Chapters 2 and 3 and concern Israel's inward purity. Nations as well as individuals must be cleansed from their sins and endowed with a new moral nature or else prosperity will be a hindrance instead of a help to them. Beautifying a pump will not purify the foul water that is in the well.

"I lifted up my eyes again, and looked," concerns the fourth Vision that is about to be given to the Prophet. "And behold a man with a measuring line in his hand," does not portray Christ, as some have claimed, but instead one of the Angels riding the spirit horses spoken of in Chapter 1.

The "measuring" is meant to portray the future Jerusalem as it shall be under the Messiah in the coming Kingdom Age, when He will rule in Splendor and Glory. The measuring is meant to encourage the small remnant in Jerusalem, as they observe the present ruined city, by pointing to the future and, thereby, exclaiming what that day will bring forth.)

[2] Then said I, Whither goest you? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof. (The "measuring" of Jerusalem, concerning its breadth and length, more so concerns its purity and prosperity than its actual size. As well, that particular measurement, because it is of Christ, knows no "breadth and length," because Christ is inexhaustible, as the next Verses proclaim. This will all take place in the coming Kingdom Age.)

[3] And, behold, the Angel who talked with me went forth, and another Angel went out to meet him (now another "Angel" joins the first one, who was proceeding toward the measuring),

JERUSALEM UNDER THE MESSIAH

4 And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein ("Towns without walls," as stated, speaks of the coming Kingdom Age and the fact that Jerusalem will then be at peace and will not need any protection such as walls. In fact, at that coming day, that will be the first "peace" that Jerusalem will have seen, at least for any period of time):

5 For I, says the LORD, will be unto her a Wall of fire round about, and will be the Glory in the midst of her. (The ancient Arabs built watch-fires for protection around their camps, but the Messiah will be a Wall of fire to Jerusalem and a Canopy of "Glory in the midst of her.")

ISRAEL REGATHERED

6 Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, says the LORD: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, says the LORD. (The first phrase speaks of the millions of Jews scattered all over the world, who will, in the coming Kingdom Age, all come to Judah and Jerusalem. "For I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, says the LORD," concerns their "scattering" being carried out by the Lord, and done so many centuries ago, because of their rebellion.)

7 Deliver yourself, O Zion, who dwells with the daughter of Babylon. (This was partially fulfilled with the return of the Exiles to the Holy Land, which was carried out immediately after the dispersion. However, its plenary fulfillment awaits the coming day when Israel will be delivered from "spiritual Babylon" [Rev., Chpt. 17].)

8 For thus says the LORD of Hosts; After the glory has he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he who touches you touches the apple of His Eye. (The "nations which spoiled" Israel did so under the guidance of the Lord, even though they were not aware of such. As well, and as stated here, Dan., Chpt. 10, proclaims the Lord sending Angels, even Michael and Gabriel, into the Medo-Persian Empire to ultimately bring about its downfall and to usher in the Grecian Empire. In other words, the Lord's Hand was in all of these proceedings, ever what they might have been, and we speak of the proceedings which involved Israel.

The phrase, "For he who touches you touches the apple of His Eye," speaks of God's Eye. It is meant to portray God's constant Love for His People [Gen. 12:3].)

9 For, behold, I will shake My Hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and you shall know that the LORD of Hosts has sent Me. ("For, behold, I will shake My Hand upon them," for instance, was amply illustrated by the "handwriting on the wall," which overthrew the mighty Chaldean Empire, making it possible for Israel to come back to the Holy Land [Dan. 5:5-6]. "And they [Israel] shall be a spoil to their servants," implies that the roles will ultimately be reversed. In other words, Israel will one day be the dominant nation of the world and will, in turn, rule the Gentiles, with the Gentiles then being servants. That will be in the coming Kingdom Age.

"And you shall know that the LORD of Hosts has sent Me," refers to the Deity and Humanity of the Messiah asserted here, Who will bring all of this to pass. For He is the Sender in the one case and the Sent in the other.

This overthrow of ancient Babylon and Restoration of Zion but feebly pictures the future Deliverance of Jerusalem. For, in that day, whole nations will be converted to God and shall become one with Israel, with all loving and serving the Saviour. But the special Promises of Supremacy and Priesthood to Israel will be fulfilled, for Zion shall be the Lord's Throne, with Judah as His Portion and Israel as His Land.)

MESSIAH REIGNING IN ZION

10 Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of you, says the LORD. (The first phrase speaks of the coming Kingdom Age, when Israel will have accepted Christ, not only as her Saviour but also as her Messiah. "For, lo, I come," speaks of the Second Coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. The last phrase pertains to Christ, upon His Second Coming, dwelling in Jerusalem, actually in the Holy Temple [Ezek. 43:7; 48:35; Dan. 7:13-14; Zech., Chpt. 14; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:1-5; 20:1-10].)

ALL NATIONS CONVERTED

[11] And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be My People: and I will dwell in the midst of you, and you shall know that the LORD of Hosts has sent Me unto you. (The first phrase refers to the many Gentile nations which will accept the Lord as Saviour at the outset of the Kingdom Age. They will be looked at as God's People, exactly as Israel. However, this doesn't necessarily mean that every person in these nations will accept the Lord, for some won't. They will, however, be forced to serve the Lord, whether they accept Him or not!

The last phrase, "You shall know that the LORD of Hosts has sent Me unto you," refers to the fact that Israel, at the Second Coming, will then know, beyond the shadow of a doubt, that the Christ they crucified was, and is, their Messiah [13:6].)

[12] And the LORD shall inherit Judah His Portion in the Holy Land, and shall choose Jerusalem again. (The first phrase actually includes the entirety of the Thirteen Tribes, as is evident in Ezek., Chpt. 48.

"And shall choose Jerusalem again," actually speaks of Jerusalem being chosen the first time as the capital of Israel and the site of the Temple; however, at the First Advent of Christ, Jerusalem, which included the Jewish religious leadership, rejected Christ and crucified Him. At that time, the Lord forsook Jerusalem, because Jerusalem had forsaken Him. As a result, it was totally destroyed by the Romans in A.D. 70.

At the Second Coming, the Lord "shall choose Jerusalem again.")

[13] Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for He is raised up out of His Holy Habitation. (During this present period of His Indignation against Israel, which has lasted now for about 2,000 years, the Lord is silent. The mouths of the nations have been, and are, filled with proud boasting. But the day is coming when He will come forth from His present Retirement, hence, "raised up out of His Holy Habitation," and will come back to this Earth to claim His Own.)

CHAPTER 3

JOSHUA, THE HIGH PRIEST

[1] And He showed me Joshua the High Priest standing before the Angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him. (At about this time, the Lord had spoken through the Prophet Haggai, "from this day will I bless you" [Hag. 2:19]. Consequently, this Blessing, which will be both material and Spiritual, now commences, with the material part promised to Haggai and the Spiritual part given to Zechariah.

The first phrase speaks of the first High Priest, "Joshua," after the captivity, succeeding his father Josedech, who died in Babylon. Joshua, as the High Priest, was representative of the entirety of the Priesthood, and also of Israel. The "Angel of the LORD," at least in this instance, is Jehovah, as proved in the next Verse. Zechariah is seeing all of this in a Vision, which gives us a glimpse into the spirit world.

"And Satan standing at his right hand to resist him," is the same personality described in Job 1:6-12 and 2:1. As well, Joshua the High Priest didn't see the Vision, only Zechariah. Satan resisting Joshua the High Priest, in effect, is resisting all of Israel, with an effort to stop these Prophecies from being fulfilled.)

[2] And the LORD said unto Satan, The LORD rebuke you, O Satan; even the LORD Who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire? (The first phrase contains the Lord's Answer to Satan's accusation of Joshua the High Priest and, in effect, all of Israel. The Lord's Rebuke paralyzed the hostile power. "Even the LORD Who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you," portrays the second rebuke by the Lord of Satan, and is done so by design. It is not that the second rebuke is needed, at least as far as Satan is concerned, but that the certitude of God's action is not lost on any, and especially the Believer. In other words, the Lord is saying that these predictions concerning the Restoration of Israel are most definitely going to come to pass. Satan will not be able to stop this.)

[3] Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the Angel. (At stated, Joshua was a representative of the entirety of Israel. The truth, as evidenced here, was: Israel, in fact, had no moral worth, to which Satan points, thereby claiming his right to hinder.)

[4] And He (the Lord) answered and spoke unto those who stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him He said, Behold, I have caused your iniquity to pass from you, and I will clothe you with change of raiment. (The idea of this Verse is: the Lord is going to cleanse filthy Israel, which will take place at the Second Coming, but only when Israel properly repents, which she most definitely will do, thereby accepting as her Saviour, Lord, and Messiah the One Whom she crucified, the Lord Jesus Christ. The "filthy garments" cannot be taken "from him," i.e., "Israel," until this Repentance is enjoined.)

[5] And I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the Angel of the LORD stood by. ("And I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head," proclaims a request of Zechariah. The "fair mitre" stood for the official headdress of Aaron, which was to be worn by all High Priests, and which bore upon its front the golden plate inscribed: "Holiness unto the Lord" [Ex. 28:36-38].

This proclaims the fact that, at the Second Coming, Israel will be restored and will in fact become a nation of Priests for the entire world. The phrase, "So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments," proclaims the Priestly garments, which now are pure and clean.)

CHARGE TO JOSHUA

[6] And the Angel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, saying (the word "protested" here means "to solemnly and earnestly admonish," meaning that even though all of this would happen in the distant future, still, Joshua, who was the type, must also serve as an example of Righteousness),

[7] Thus says the LORD of Hosts; If you will walk in My Ways, and if you will keep My charge, then you shall also judge My House, and shall also keep My Courts, and I will give you places to walk among these who stand by. (Five things are said in this Verse; since "five" is the number of Grace, we know that it is only enabling Grace which can help the High Priest to obey the charge and reap the benefits.)

VISION OF GOD'S SERVANT: THE BRANCH; HIS ANOINTING

[8] Hear now, O Joshua the High Priest, you, and your fellows who sit before you: for they are men wondered at: for, behold, I will bring forth My Servant the BRANCH. (The first phrase proclaims the fact that Joshua and all who are with him are to give all of their attention to this very important announcement that is about to be made. Even though Joshua was not privileged to see the Vision as Zechariah, no doubt Zechariah related it to him word for word. The two words, "your fellows," refer to his fellow Priests, who aided him in his ministerial duties, and who took their orders from him and sat with him in counsel.

"For they are men wondered at," implies that they are a foreshadow of future events, which actually spoke of good things. "For, behold, I will bring forth My Servant the BRANCH," speaks of Christ, Who Alone will be able to bring all of this to pass. He will do so by going to the Cross, which Israel eventually must, and will, accept!)

[9] For behold the Stone that I have laid before Joshua; upon one Stone shall be seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, says the LORD of Hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that Land in one day. ("For behold the Stone that I have laid before Joshua," is symbolic of the Messiah, called "The BRANCH" [Isa. 28:16; Ps. 118:22; Mat. 21:42; Acts 4:11; Eph. 2:20-21; I Pet. 2:4-7]. "Upon one Stone shall be seven eyes," signifies the Holy Spirit upon Christ, with the number "seven" implying a perfect union. John saw the same Vision, but enlarged [Rev. 5:6].

John also saw "seven horns," which Zechariah did not see, which pertain to total dominion. This was because Christ had already gone to the Cross, thereby guaranteeing this dominion, which had not yet taken place at the time of Zechariah. Whereas the "seven eyes" speak of perfect illumination, likewise, and as stated, the "seven horns" speak of perfect dominion, all made possible by what Christ did at the Cross.

"Behold, I will engrave the graving there, says the LORD of Hosts," has to do with the Incarnation. Christ, as The BRANCH, supplies life and food to His People, who rest beneath its shadow. As the Stone, He is to them an imperishable foundation.

"And I will remove the iniquity of that Land in one day," refers to the day of Christ's visible Return to Earth, when all Israel shall be saved and ungodliness turned from Jacob [Zech. 12:10-13:1; Rom. 11:25-29]. Israel will mourn and repent for three days; on the third day, they will live [Hos. 6:2].)

UNIVERSAL PROSPERITY

10 In that day, says the LORD of Hosts, shall you call every man his neighbour under the vine and under the fig tree. ("In that day," has to do with the coming Kingdom Age, when the Lord will Personally reign supreme from Jerusalem, and over the entirety of the world. There will then be universal peace and prosperity, of which this last phrase is a symbol [Mic. 4:4].)

CHAPTER 4

THE GOLDEN CANDLESTICK AND THE OLIVE TREES

[1] And the Angel Who talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man who is wakened out of his sleep (the "Angel" is Jehovah and is the same One in this Vision as in the previous; it is not known how long it was between the previous Vision and this Vision; "Wakened out of his sleep," shows that this was not a Dream, but rather a "Vision")**,

[2] And said unto me, What seest you? And I said, I have looked, and behold a Candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and His Seven Lamps thereon, and Seven Pipes to the Seven Lamps, which are upon the top thereof (the Vision consists of a "Candlestick" with its "Seven Lamps" fed to two "Olive Trees"; the Prophet is told to describe it. The "Candlestick all of gold" describes Christ, with "gold" symbolizing His Deity, even though He will be "Incarnate." In other words, even though He became "Very Man," He never, even for a moment, ceased to be "Very God." He was 100% Man and 100% God [Phil. 2:8].

"With a bowl upon the top of it," signifies the Holy Spirit. In other words, Christ and what He would do at the Cross would make it possible for there to be an uninterrupted supply of the Holy Spirit to the Believer [Jn. 14:16-17; 16:7-15].

"And His Seven Lamps thereon," pertains to perfect illumination, which the Holy Spirit Alone can give. This is meant to illuminate the Word to God's People, which most definitely will be done, that is, if Believers will humble themselves and tremble at God's Word [Isa. 11:1-2; 66:2].

The phrase, "And Seven Pipes to the Seven Lamps, which are upon the top thereof," pertains to a total supply of the Holy Spirit to the Spirit-filled Believer, symbolized by the number "seven," all made possible by the Cross

3 And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof. ("And two Olive Trees by it," picture, at least in this instance, Zerubbabel and Joshua in the work of restoring the Temple and the nation of Judah after the Babylonian activity. However, the Vision reaches on to Rev., Chpt. 11, for two other representatives appear, but with this difference: they themselves are "Lampstands" and "Olive Trees."

These "two Olive Trees," as representative of all are, in effect, told to carefully observe God's method of the supply of Spiritual energy, for this is what it represents. It is so easy for man to get his eyes on other than that which is the True Source, Who is Christ, and by the Power of the Holy Spirit, with all made possible by the Cross.

As one was on either side of the Candlestick, the idea is: just as the Holy Spirit was the Source of Power for Israel of old, likewise, He is for the modern Church, as well. God has not changed His Methods.)

4 So I answered and spoke to the Angel Who talked with me, saying, What are these, my Lord? (The question, "What are these, my Lord?", is meant to speak of the entirety of the Vision. Even though he plainly observed it, he was not sure if he understood what it all meant. In reply to his question, the answer is forthcoming.)

ZERUBBABEL ANOINTED WITH THE SPIRIT AND POWER

5 Then the Angel Who talked with me answered and said unto me, Know you not what these be? and I said, No, my Lord. (The reply of the Lord in the form of a question was not meant to point out the Prophet's slowness of comprehension, but instead to call attention to the answer that is about to be given.)

6 Then He answered and spoke unto me, saying, This is the Word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit, says the LORD of Hosts. (The Message of the Vision to Zerubbabel and also to all others, at least according to the need, was: not by military might, nor by political power, but by Spiritual energy, he would certainly complete the building of the Temple.

"Not by [human] might, nor by [human] power, but by My Spirit," presents God's Method of accomplishing His Work. Everything that has ever been done on this Earth, as it regards the Godhead, has been done by the Holy Spirit, with the exception of Christ and His Crucifixion; however, the Holy Spirit even superintended that from beginning to end [Lk. 4:18-19].

If it is claimed to be for the Lord, whatever is being done must be done by the Moving, Operation, Power, and Person of the Holy Spirit through Believers. Otherwise, it will not be recognized by God; in fact, it will be constituted as a "work of the flesh" [Rom. 8:1].

"Says the LORD of Hosts," presents God's Supreme Personal Power over everything in the material and Spiritual universe. All is organized under His Command. As well, the word "Hosts," as used here, is associated with warfare and relates to the word "armies." In other words, He is the "LORD of Armies.")

[7] Who are you O great mountain? before Zerubbabel you shall become a plain: and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it. (The question, "Who are you O great mountain?", is meant to refer to Hystapes, king of the mighty Medo-Persian Empire, who made a decree that the work on the Temple should cease [Ezra, Chpt. 4]. Cyrus, who in fact was Esther's son, had, some 16 years earlier, made the decree that the Temple should be rebuilt. This was in 536 B.C. [Ezra 1:1-2]. He reigned for nine years; his son, Cambyses, reigned seven years; and then Hystapes followed him. He is the one who gave the order that no Temple was to be built in Jerusalem, countermanding, in effect, the order given by Cyrus.

The question, "Who are you O great mountain?", is asked in sarcasm by the Holy Spirit. In other words, the Holy Spirit is saying, "Who do you think you are, attempting to stop the Work of God?"

"Before Zerubbabel you shall become a plain," means that the Lord will shave the face of this empire, with this king being totally removed. In fact, this was fulfilled in totality; this man was executed by Darius I. He was, in fact, removed because of his efforts to hinder the Work of God.

"And he [Zerubbabel] shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it," refers to the Ministry of Christ, which would ultimately come, in which all of this played its part [Jn. 1:17].)

THE RESTORATION OF THE TEMPLE TO BE FINISHED BY ZERUBBABEL

8 Moreover the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it; and you shall know that the LORD of Hosts has sent me unto you. (The first phrase refers back to the beginning of the foundation of the Temple some 16 years earlier, and now he's finishing it, even in the face of tremendous opposition. However, the greater meaning pertains to Christ; the Lord laid the foundation of the House, and the Lord will finish it. Paul said, "Jesus Christ Himself being the Chief Cornerstone" [Eph. 2:20-21].

The pronoun "me" refers to the Prophet Zechariah being sent by the Lord with this all-important Message.)

10 For who has despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; they are the Eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole Earth. (The question, "For who has despised the day of small things?", has to do with the leaders of returned Israel, who had little regard for this new Temple, at least in comparison to the Temple of old. It was humble, with no costly ornamentation, and seemed, at least in their eyes, unworthy of the Lord. However, the Lord was to give them several assurances respecting the situation.

The phrase, "For they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel," signifies that the Temple will be completed. The short phrase, "With those seven," speaks of the "Eyes of the Lord, which run to and fro through the whole Earth." This refers to the absolute and Perfect Knowledge and Illumination of the Lord. Those Eyes being all-seeing and all-understanding, they could well provide for and defend Zerubbabel.)

EXPLANATION OF THE OLIVE TREES

11 Then answered I, and said unto Him, What are these two Olive Trees upon the right side of the Candlestick and upon the left side thereof?

12 And I answered again, and said unto Him, What be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves? (As the Lord had two witnesses, Zerubbabel and Joshua, after the restoration from Babylon, He will likewise have His two witnesses in the future Restoration of Israel. They are comparable now, and will be comparable then, to Olive Trees and Lampstands.)

13 And He answered me and said, Know you not what these be? And I said, No, my Lord. (In fact, there was no way that Zechariah could know what all of this meant without a proper explanation from the Lord, which is now given.)

14 Then said He, These are the two anoint ed ones, who stand by the LORD of the whole Earth. (Israel was designed to be, and will yet be, a Golden Lampstand — gold representing Divine relationship — which will enlighten the whole world — Christ, as King and Priest, ministering the Holy Spirit as the Oil to nourish the Light. This will happen in the coming Kingdom Age.

The "two anointed ones" will be Elijah and Enoch, who will come on the scene for the last three and a half years of the coming Great Tribulation. These two men have never died, but rather were translated. They will contend with the Antichrist and do great things for three and a half years. Then the Lord will allow them to be killed [Rev. 11:3-12]; and then they will be shortly resurrected.)

CHAPTER 5

THE FLYING ROLL

[1] Then I turned, and lifted up my eyes, and looked, and behold a flying roll. (This signifies a new Vision. The "roll" was actually a "scroll." Inasmuch as this "roll" was "flying," it denotes the speedy arrival of Judgment, which will characterize the coming Great Tribulation, with which this Vision is concerned.)

[2] And He said unto me, What do you see? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits. (This "flying roll" was thirty feet long and fifteen feet wide.)

THIS IS THE CURSE

[3] Then said He unto me, This is the curse that goes forth over the face of the whole Earth: for everyone who steals shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and everyone who swears shall be cut off as on that side according to it. (The first phrase refers to the "curse of the Law," which pronounced death upon Lawbreakers. This is its function, hence the word "curse," which means "sentence of death" [Rom. 5:12; Gal. 3:10]. Inasmuch as it covered "the whole Earth," escape was impossible. The last three words of this Scripture, "according to it," mean that the word of the roll was to be the judge, not man's religious opinions.

The two sins of "stealing" and "swearing" stand for all offenses against the Ten Commandments, which form the core of the moral law.)

[4] I will bring it forth, says the LORD of Hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him who swears falsely by My Name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof. (This Passage basically speaks of the coming Great Tribulation, when the Wrath of God will be poured out on a world that has forgotten God days without number. "And it shall enter into the house of the thief...," simply has reference to the entirety of the world answering to God in a collective, yet personal, way.

"And into the house of him who swears falsely by My Name," speaks of all the false religions of the world, especially the part of Christianity which is apostate. The phrase, "And it shall remain in the midst of his house," refers to the evil of the Antichrist, and his sudden and cataclysmic defeat in the Battle of Armageddon by the Coming of the Lord, which will finish him and all such evil.

"And shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof," refers to Christ bringing Judgment on the entirety of the world and all that man has built, with the "Times of the Gentiles" being brought to a sudden and cataclysmic end. This pictures the Stone coming from Heaven and smashing the feet of the statue, as seen by Nebuchadnezzar and interpreted by Daniel [Dan. 2:34-35].)

THE VISION OF AN EPHAH

5 Then the Angel Who talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now your eyes, and see what is this that goes forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And He said, This is an ephah that goes forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the Earth. (The "ephah" is a dry measure containing about six gallons. "Six" is the number of man, therefore, of imperfection and incompleteness; this tells us, consequently, that all idolatrous systems are similar. In fact, this addresses Rev. 17:7.

"He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the Earth," has reference to all the religions of the world. Irrespective of what they look like or proclaim, if they are not according to the Bible, they are evil and wicked. They all have the same father, Satan.

The word "resemblance" actually means "their eye," i.e., their evil purpose, that is, the aim to corrupt everything, which religion does!)

7 And, behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead: and this is a woman who sits in the midst of the ephah. (This woman is used figuratively in an evil sense; she represents wickedness, fallacy, uncleanness, and unfaithfulness. She represents all false religion [Ezek. 16:15, 22, 26, 28-59; 23:1-49; 36:17; Hos. 1:2; 2:2-17; 3:1; Rev., Chpt. 17].)

8 And He said, This is wickedness. And He cast it into the midst of the ephah; and He cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof. ("And He said, This is wickedness," plainly tells us what all of this represents. It is the culmination of all evil headed up under the Antichrist in the coming Great Tribulation. It is marked by all the false religions of the world, which represent man's rebellion against God and His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

"And He cast it into the midst of the ephah," refers to the woman attempting to get out, with the Angel casting the lid of lead back onto the ephah and closing its mouth. All of this proclaims the efforts of the Antichrist in the coming Great Tribulation to take over the world, to do so by declaring himself to be God, and then to declare total war on Israel, hoping to abrogate all the many Prophecies of her Restoration and the setting up the Kingdom Age under Christ. He would succeed but for the Coming of the Lord, evidenced by the "casting of the weight of lead on the mouth thereof," which speaks of the Antichrist being totally defeated, with Satan locked away [Rev. 20:1-3].)

9 Then lifted I up my eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the Earth and the heaven. (The "two women" here represent evil; in fact, they portray the false prophet and the Antichrist. "And the wind was in their wings," has to do with the speed of the Antichrist and his coming march of world conquest [Rev. 13:2]. "For they had wings like the wings of a stork," makes reference to an unclean bird [Lev. 11:19; Deut. 14:18]. This symbolizes what Daniel saw, as well [Dan. 7:6]. The phrase, "And they lifted up the ephah between the Earth and the heaven," represents the coming bold thrust of the Antichrist in his efforts to take over the entirety of the world.

The ephah being "between the Earth and the heaven" symbolizes that the Antichrist's efforts are as much religious as they are military and political.)

[10] Then said I to the Angel Who talked with me, Where do these bear the ephah? (Even though the efforts of the Antichrist will be to take over the entirety of the world, still, his beginning thrusts will be from the Middle East; consequently, this Passage tells us where the foment of this coming time will begin, hence all the problems in the Middle East at present, which will not get better but will rather worsen.)

[11] And He said unto me, To build it an house in the land of Shinar: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base. ("Shinar" is Babylon. This re-built city, whether a system or the city proper, and no doubt both, will be the center and headquarters of the commercial enterprises and religious activity of the Antichrist. In other words, it all began there, and it all will end there. The excursion of the United States into Iraq has great significance, in that all of this is being prepared for the fulfillment of Bible Prophecy concerning Endtime events. This should tell us how close we are to the Coming of the Lord.

"And it shall be established, and set there upon her own base," specifies this area as the headquarters of the Antichrist. As to exactly how the Lord will bring this about, we aren't told. However, it is possible that the United States might overcome Muslim terrorism in Iraq, with the area then becoming a great commercial center. In fact, Iraq has one of the greatest deposits of oil in the world, which will undoubtedly help fuel the economic enterprises of the Antichrist, when that time does come.)

CHAPTER 6

THE FOUR CHARIOTS

[1] And I turned, and lifted up my eyes, and looked, and behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass. (This portrays yet another Vision! "And, behold, there came four chariots from between two mountains," denotes emissaries from the Lord; they are, in fact, very similar to the ones described in 1:8. The entirety of the Earth, it seems, is sectioned off between the Angelic occupants of these four chariots; perhaps, at times, they all cover a given area. As this was true then, it is undoubtedly true presently!

"And the mountains were mountains of brass," must symbolize the Judgment of God, inasmuch as "brass" [copper] was the metal which covered the wood of the Brazen Altar, which itself symbolized judgment upon sin.)

[2] In the first chariot were red horses; and in the second chariot black horses;

[3] And in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot grisled and bay horses. (It is generally agreed that the colors of these horses are significant in their meaning, simply because the Holy Spirit is so careful to delineate such. These portray the symbolic horses of Rev., Chpt. 6, which portray the beginning of the Great Tribulation and the Judgment of God, which, at that time, will cover this Earth.

We are given here a glimpse into the spirit world. Evil men think they are the shakers and movers; however, they can only do, as described here, what the Lord allows them to do.)

GOD'S JUDGMENT

4 Then I answered and said unto the Angel Who talked with me, What are these, my Lord?

5 And the Angel answered and said unto me, These are the four spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the LORD of all the Earth. ("And the Angel answered and said unto me," is probably the same Angel as previous, in reality, a pre-incarnate appearance of Christ.

"These are the four spirits of the heavens," indicates, from other descriptions, that they are spirits of Judgment delegated by the Lord to various places of the Earth. "Which go forth from standing before the LORD of all the Earth," indicates that their instructions come strictly from Him.)

6 The black horses which are therein go forth into the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grisled go forth toward the south country. (If one is to notice, the "red horses" are not mentioned here, possibly because they were not in function at that time, due to the absence of war.

"The black horses which are therein go forth into the north country," refers to north of Israel, as this Land is always the focal point. All of this has to do with the situation of the world during Zechariah's day, concerning the overthrow of the Babylonian Empire and the rise of the Medo-Persians. Men thought they were running the show, but we are told here that the Lord was guiding it all.)

7 And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the Earth: and He said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the Earth. So they walked to and fro through the Earth. (The thrice-repeated phase, "Walk to and fro," heightens the sense of the wholehearted energy of these mighty executors of Divine Justice.

All of this represents judgment upon the Earth in Zerubbabel's time. Many who do not understand God or His Ways consider these actions as cruel, especially when the judgment is severe. What they fail to realize is that there is such wickedness, corruption, and evil in the world that, if certain measures were not taken, the wickedness and evil would only be intensified. Even though the surgery may be painful, still, the disease is far worse. If surgery [judgment] was not performed, the disease [sin] would destroy the patient [the world].)

8 Then cried He upon me, and spoke unto me, saying, Behold, these who go toward the north country have quieted My Spirit in the north country. (This probably refers to the defeat of the Babylonians by the Medes and the Persians, with the consequent rise to power of Cyrus, who gave the decree that the Temple was to be rebuilt in Jerusalem [Ezra 1:1-3]. The building project was interrupted for a time, but it was ultimately brought to fruition, which "quieted [God's] Spirit.")

JOSHUA CROWNED: A SIGN OF ENCOURAGEMENT FOR RESTORED JUDAH

9 And the Word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

10 Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah, which are come from Babylon, and come you the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah *(through the Prophecy of Zechariah, the men here named are given a task, which, as we see, is very important);

11 Then take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them upon the head of Joshua the son of Josedech, the High Priest ("Joshua" symbolizes the Messiah with His double crown of Kingship and Priesthood; Heldai, of the previous Verse, and his companions foreshadow the future Exiles of Zion, who will return thither bringing their wealth with them, and who will become builders of the Temple, of which the Messiah will be the Master-Builder.

The plural "crowns" is used, but not necessarily denoting more crowns than one. In Rev. 19:12, Christ is said to have upon His Head many crowns, by which is meant a diadem composed of several circles. In fact, the Mitre of the High Priest is never called a "crown"; consequently, that which was placed upon the head of Joshua was a royal crown, a token of royal dignity, not his own, but His Whom he represents — Christ, the Eternal Priest, the Universal King);

JOSHUA, A SYMBOL OF THE PRIEST-KING, THE MESSIAH, WHO WILL BUILD THE MILLENNIAL TEMPLE

[12] And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaks the LORD of Hosts, saying, Behold the Man Whose name is The BRANCH; and He shall grow up out of His Place, and He shall build the Temple of the LORD ("And speak unto him, saying," refers to Zechariah speaking to Joshua, the High Priest. "Behold the Man Whose name is The BRANCH," literally says in the Hebrew, "Behold the Man, BRANCH is His Name." Christ is called "The Man" in both Testaments — in this Verse and in I Tim. 2:5.

The name "BRANCH" has reference to the Son or "Shoot" of David; consequently, it is speaking of the Incarnation, i.e., God becoming Man [Isa. 7:14].

"And He shall grow up out of His Place, and He shall build the Temple of the LORD," actually, even in the same Passage, refers to both the First and the Second Advents. "Growing up out of His Place" speaks of Christ being born of the Virgin Mary and of the Tribe of Judah. "Building the Temple of the LORD" speaks of His Second Advent, when He will come with Power and Glory and will set up His Eternal Kingdom):

[13] Even He shall build the Temple of the LORD; and He shall bear the Glory, and shall sit and rule upon His Throne; and He shall be a Priest upon His Throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between Them Both. ("And He shall bear the Glory," refers to the "Glory" that Christ should have received, but did not, at His First Advent, but now certainly shall. "And He shall be a Priest upon His Throne," proclaims the Eternal Priesthood of Christ, with Him serving as an Intercessor on behalf of all Believers [Heb. 7:26-8:2].

"And the counsel of peace shall be between Them Both," presents the two offices of King and Priest combined in One Person, the Lord Jesus Christ. Neither office is exalted higher than the other; consequently, there will be no enmity between the two offices as there is when two men fill them.)

14 And the crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the Temple of the LORD. (The great "Crown" ["Crowns" — plural of excellency] was made with the silver and gold brought by Exiles as a gift to the Temple then being built. It was deposited in the Temple as a memorial of the faith and love of these Believers and of their hopes. It also was a memorial pledging the fulfillment of the promised appearance and glorious reign and Priesthood of the Man Whose Name is The BRANCH.

Even though the "Crown" would certainly speak of the First Advent of Christ, more perfectly it speaks of His Second Advent, when He will truly realize His proper Place and position.)

MANY WILL COME AND HELP BUILD

15 And they who are far off shall come and build in the Temple of the LORD, and you shall know that the LORD of Hosts has sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if you will diligently obey the Voice of the LORD your God. (The "Temple of the LORD" spoken of in this Verse is of far greater import than the Temple being built by Zerubbabel. Even though that was implied, still, the greater meaning had to do with Christ and the building of His Church [Mat. 16:18], and the privilege of His Body in the helping of this building [Eph. 4:11-12].)

CHAPTER 7

THE QUESTION ABOUT EXTRA FASTS

[1] And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Darius, that the Word of the LORD came unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in Chisleu (this "Word of the LORD" came about two years after the beginning of Zechariah's Ministry. The year was probably 518 B.C. In some two years, the Temple will be finished [Ezra 6:15], and, at this time, the work was no doubt proceeding rapidly. "Chisleu" refers to part of our November and December)**;

[2] When they had sent unto the house of God Sherezer and Regem-melech, and their men, to pray before the LORD.

[3] And to speak unto the Priests which were in the House of the LORD of Hosts, and to the Prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years? (These inquirers asked the Priests if they were bound to keep commemorating the fasts of the fifth and seventh months observed during the captivity. These fasts commemorated, respectively, the destruction of Jerusalem and the murder of Gedaliah [Jer., Chpt. 41].

It is not recorded what reply the Priests made, but this first Message records the reply that God interposed. The only fast day enjoined by the Law of Moses, therefore given by the Lord and held inviolable, was the Great Day of Atonement, which was on the tenth day of the seventh month of the year [Lev. 23:26-32]. However, the Jews added several others, and, by the time of Christ, the total fast days had risen to at least 104 each year, all of them man-designed.)

GOD'S ANSWER: THE DECEITFULNESS OF THEIR FASTS

4 Then came the Word of the LORD of Hosts unto me, saying,

5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the Priests, saying, When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, even those seventy years, did you at all fast unto Me, even to Me? (Men are quite ready, from time to time, to separate themselves from their occupations and associations, which usually tire them, in order to observe what they call a retreat. But they are little willing to separate from their sins, which they like.

The question, "Did you at all fast unto Me, even to Me?", proclaims that these fasts were not God's Command and, therefore, they did Him no honor.)

6 And when you did eat, and when you did drink, did not you eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? (The idea from the latter part of Verse 5 and all of Verse 6 is that whatever they did, "fasting" or "eating," it was "for themselves," not unto God. In effect, it is "self" that is concerned.)

7 Should you not hear the Words which the LORD has cried by the former Prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited the south and the plain? (The Lord directs Israel back to the years immediately before the captivity. At that time, had they obeyed the Word of the Lord given through the Prophets, i.e., Jeremiah, etc., there would have been no captivities, and consequently no reasons for instituting these fasts.

The question, "Should you not hear the Words which the LORD has cried by the former Prophets...?", directs the people to the Word of God. It had been a common cry of the Prophets from early times that men must not put their trust in the observance of outward ceremonies, but instead attend to the cultivation of moral obedience and purity.

The balance of the Scripture speaks of Israel before the captivity, when they were then prosperous; they could have remained that way, had they only obeyed the Lord.)

WHY THEIR PRAYERS WERE UNANSWERED AND JUDGMENTS HAD COME

[8] And the Word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying (this is the second Message given to the Prophet; it states that God requires moral conduct rather than self-invented religious ceremonies)**,

[9] Thus speaks the LORD of Hosts, saying, Execute true judgment, and show mercy and compassions every man to his brother ("Thus speaks the LORD of Hosts," uses, in the Hebrew, a forceful verb which means "past, present, and future." In other words, what He said then was right, what He says now is right, and what He will say in the future is right!

All their religious ceremony should have translated itself into action toward others; however, religious ceremony never does that, but only inflates the self-righteousness of the participant):

[10] And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart. (We are shown here that the only real way that a person can truly say they love God is that they love their fellowman. To claim the former while omitting the latter portrays hypocrisy [I Jn. 3:17].)

[11] But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear. (The Lord is speaking of Judah just before the captivity and also of any and all who fit the category, which number untold millions.)

[12] Yes, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the Law, and the Words which the LORD of Hosts hast sent in His Spirit by the former Prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of Hosts. ("Therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of Hosts," refers, at least in this case, to the seventy-year captivity.)

[13] Therefore it is come to pass, that as He cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, says the LORD of Hosts (the statement is that He will hear our cry only if we hear His Cry!)**:

14 But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not. Thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the pleasant land desolate. (Thus, God ordained then, and since the Roman overthrow, that Israel would remain practically uninhabited and uncultivated, which it was, until 1948, when the Jews finally returned after some 1,900 years wandering all over the world.)

CHAPTER 8

(518 B.C.)

GOD PROMISES TO RESTORE HIS PEOPLE (ISRAEL)

[1] Again the Word of the LORD of Hosts came to me, saying,

[2] Thus says the LORD of Hosts; I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury. ("Thus says the LORD of Hosts," occurs ten times in this Chapter and proclaims the certitude of the coming action. "I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy," carries, in its verb, the force of: "I was, I am, and I will be jealous."

The entirety of this Passage portrays God's great Love for Israel and that love being shown in the punishment of her enemies.)

[3] Thus says the LORD; I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a city of Truth; and the mountain of the LORD of Hosts the holy mountain. ("I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem," only had a limited fulfillment with the restoration of Israel from Babylon. Its greater fulfillment awaits a Coming Day, when Jesus Christ will Personally return to this Earth. It will be the coming Kingdom Age.

"And Jerusalem shall be called a city of Truth," means that it will be a "faithful city" [Isa. 1:26], in which all that is true and real shall flourish. The phrase, "And the mountain of the LORD of Hosts the Holy Mountain," refers to the Temple site, which is outlined in Ezek., Chpts. 40-48.)

[4] Thus sa ys the LORD of Hosts; There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age. (Even though this had a partial fulfillment at the time of Zechariah and thereafter, still, its complete and future glorious fulfillment awaits the coming Kingdom Age. Consequently, this Passage does not speak of those who are decrepit in years, but instead of vitality and zest of life, despite being "old" or "for very age.")

[5] And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof. (This Passage continues to speak of the coming Kingdom Age and notes a city free of crime, which also speaks of the entirety of the world of that day.

Incidentally, marrying and having children does not include those who are a part of the First Resurrection, who, consequently, have Glorified Bodies. They [we] will be like Christ [Mat. 22:30; I Jn. 3:2].)

[6] Thus sa ys the LORD of Hosts; If it be marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvelous in My Eyes? says the LORD of Hosts. (If the restoration from Babylon was wonderful, how much more wonderful will be Israel's future Restoration! The former was marvelous in men's eyes; should the latter be marvelous in God's Eyes?)

[7] Thus says the LORD of Hosts; Behold, I will save My People from the east country, and from the west country (to some degree, this Passage began to be fulfilled in 1948, when Israel, and for the first time in 1,900 years, became a sovereign State. From that time, Jews have continued to be gathered to Israel, with the latest incursion being from the former Soviet Union. Nevertheless, the plenary fulfillment of this Passage awaits the beginning of the Kingdom Age, when every single Jew on the face of the Earth will then gladly return to Israel.

"Behold, I will save My People," proclaims the greatest Salvation the world has ever known, which will take place immediately after the Second Coming [13:1]);

[8] And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and they shall be My People, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness. ("And I will bring them," denotes the certitude of the action, because it is performed by Jehovah Himself. "And they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem," will, once and for all, proclaim the ownership of this city. It does not belong to the Arabs, as presently claimed, but to these ancient people, the Jews, the seed of Abraham, the seed of Isaac, and, above all, "your Seed, which is Christ" [Gal. 3:16].

The phrase, "And I will be their God, in Truth and in Righteousness," means that as He deals truly and righteously with them, they, and for the first time, will deal truly and righteously with Him. In actuality, God cannot deal with anyone, except in "Truth and Righteousness," which is the very essence of His Nature. Then these twin attributes will prevail in the world, whereas presently the lie and unrighteousness prevail!)

RESTORED JUDAH WILL BE BLESSED IF THE CONDITIONS ARE MET

9 Thus says the LORD of Hosts; Let your hands be strong, you who hear in these days these words by the mouth of the Prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the House of the LORD of Hosts was laid, that the Temple might be built. ("Thus says the LORD of Hosts; Let your hands be strong," simply means to believe God and to not allow hindrances to deter one from carrying out their duly appointed mission.)

10 For before these days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him who went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour. (The idea of this Verse is that the state of affairs during the cessation of the work on the Temple was sad indeed! Due to the people not obeying God by not forging ahead with what He had told them to do, which was the construction of the Temple, the Lord allowed certain detriments to take place.

Neglect of their duty caused the three judgments of this Verse, with its obedience securing the four Blessings of Verse 12.)

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, says the LORD of Hosts. (The phrase, speaking of the Lord, "But now I will not be...," refers to the Lord's Attitude changing for the better toward the people, because of their obedience.)

12 For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things. (He said, "I will cause...," referring to Him manipulating the ground, the heavens, the enemies, etc. He does no less presently, at least for those who will believe and obey Him!)

13 And it shall come to pass, that as you were a curse among the heathen, O House of Judah, and House of Israel; so will I save you, and you shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong. (God's People in harmony with Him are a blessing to all! God's People out of harmony with Him are a curse to all!)

14 For thus says the LORD of Hosts; As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked Me to wrath, says the LORD of Hosts, and I repented not (this Verse portrays the past disobedience of Israel, with the words, "I repented not," speaking of the Lord not altering His Purpose, but actually banishing Israel for seventy years. With equal fixity of purpose, He will now do them good and restore them, even as the next verse proclaims. Disobedience was the cause of the judgment, while obedience is the cause of the Blessing)**:

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem and to the House of Judah: fear you not. (Even though Israel had been disobedient in the past 16 years in not finishing the Temple, still, upon proper heartfelt Repentance, the Lord turns His Attitude toward Israel from mild judgment to blessing. Consequently, He tells them, "fear you not.")

16 These are the things that you shall do; Speak you every man the truth to his neighbour; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates (very clearly the Holy Spirit says, "These are the things that you shall do." Consequently, as the Prophet spells it out, the people have no excuse. They know exactly what is expected of them)**:

17 And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, says the LORD. (This shows that the prevalent sins of this time were not idolatry but rather cheating, lying, and injustice, vices which they may have learned in exile, when they turned their energies to the traffic of commerce instead of serving the Lord. In other words, the ways of Babylon had become their ways.)

GOD'S ANSWER CONCERNING FASTS (7:1-3)

18 And the Word of the LORD of Hosts came unto me, saying,

19 Thus says the LORD of Hosts; The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the House of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love the truth and peace. (Religious men, bent on self-will, invent fasts, which only exacerbate their self-righteousness; God appoints feasts, which are the very opposite! These feasts might then, and ever since, have been enjoyed, had the Commands of Verses 16 and 17 been obeyed. They were not obeyed, though man's fasts and traditions were rigidly observed.

As a result, the Lord tells them to cease their fasts on these particular days, and, in turn, convert these days into times of "joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts.")

JERUSALEM TO BE THE SPIRITUAL CENTER OF THE EARTH

20 Thus says the LORD of Hosts; It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities *(this pertains to the coming Kingdom Age, because it has not happened in the past, at least in this capacity, which is a capacity of peace of prosperity):

21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to pray before the LORD, and to seek the LORD of Hosts: I will go also. (During the Kingdom Age, Israel will then eagerly seek the Lord, because they have accepted the Lord. "I will go also," refers to the Gentiles and their eagerness to also worship the Lord, exactly as the Jews.)

22 Yes, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of

Hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD. (At this time, the coming Kingdom Age, the greatest nations in the world will constantly be sending emissaries to Jerusalem in order "to seek the LORD of Hosts" and "to pray before the LORD.")

JEWS WILL EVANGELIZE OTHER NATIONS

[23] Thus says the LORD of Hosts; In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him who is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you. (Whereas for centuries men have spoken of the Jew as being cursed, then they will speak of the Jew as being blessed, and will strongly desire to be associated.)

CHAPTER 9

ISRAEL DELIVERED FROM HER ENEMIES

[1] The burden of the Word of the LORD in the land of Hadrach, and Damascus shall be the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the Tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD. (The last section of this Book, beginning here, contains two "burdens" [9:1; 12:1]. These concern: first, the oppressor [Chpts. 9-11], and second, the oppressed [Chpts. 12-14]. Judgment having begun at the House of God [Chpts. 7-9], it now passes on to the enemies of that House — first, the enemies within Immanuel's Land [Vss. 1-8], and then the enemies exterior to that Land [Vss. 10-15].

Verses 1 through 8 pertain somewhat to the approximately 500 years from Zechariah's time to Christ, but will have its greater fulfillment at the Second Coming of the Lord. The first phrase concerns the defeat of the Antichrist at the Battle of Armageddon, with the Lord bringing total victory to Israel. Then, for the first time, Syria, represented by "Hadrach and Damascus," which has always opposed Israel almost from her beginning, shall now be "at rest."

This is proclaimed in the Passage, "When the eyes of man, as of all the Tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD." This has not happened in the past; therefore, it remains to happen in the future.)

[2] And Hamath also shall border thereby; Tyrus, and Zidon, though it be very wise. ("Though it be very wise," has to do with Ezek., Chpt. 28, where the leader of Tyre claimed to be "wiser than Daniel" [Ezek. 28:3]. However, their wisdom will not be able to help them either in that near future or in the coming day.)

[3] And Tyrus did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets. (This concerns the "Tyrus" of Zechariah's day and following.)

4 Behold, the LORD will cast her out, and He will smite her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire. (This took place with the siege of Alexander the Great.)

5 Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and Ekron; for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited. (The order of this Chapter is that judgment by Alexander the Great would first of all come upon the nations bordering the Promised Land.)

6 And a bastard shall dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines. (The word "bastard" would probably have been better translated "mongrel race." "And I will cut off the pride of the Philistines," refers to their nationality being totally lost. Incidentally, the modern Palestinians, who now occupy a part of Israel, are not descendants of these people, but are rather Jordanians, Egyptians, Syrians, etc.)

7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he who remains, even he, shall be for our God, and he shall be as a governor in Judah, in Ekron as a Jebusite. (As the previous Verses spoke of destruction that followed about 200 years after Zechariah, with the invasion of Alexander the Great, Verse 7 leaps ahead to the coming Kingdom Age, further proving that the plenary fulfillment of these Passages lies yet in the future.

"And I will take away his blood out of his mouth," has to do with the practice of drinking the blood of sacrifices as an act of worship. "And his abominations from between his teeth," addresses the eating of those sacrifices.

"But he who remains, even he, shall be for our God," pertains to the fact that whoever occupies this area in the coming Kingdom Age will serve the Lord Jesus Christ.)

8 And I will encamp about My House because of the army, because of him who passes by, and because of him who returns: and no oppressor shall pass through them anymore: for now have I seen with My Eyes. ("And I will encamp about My House because of the army," refers to the Lord defending Jerusalem in the coming Battle of Armageddon. That Battle is described by the phrase, "Because of him who passes by, and because of him who returns," with the pronoun "him" referring to the Antichrist and his invasion of Israel.

"And no oppressor shall pass through them anymore," pertains to the many conflicts seen by Judah and Jerusalem, with this one, the invasion of the Antichrist, being the last. "For now have I seen with My Eyes," pertains to the Second Coming, when Christ, in Person, will look at the armies of the Antichrist and even the son of perdition himself, measuring them for total defeat!)

MESSIAH'S FIRST ADVENT

[9] Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, your King comes unto you: He is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass. (This Scripture pertains to the First Advent of Christ, and is a definite prediction that the Messiah would be the King of the Jews. It is said that in this Verse the four Gospels appear:

As portrayed in Matthew, He is "your King"; in Mark, He is "lowly," hence, a Servant; in Luke, He is "just," hence, the Man; in John, He is God, therefore, "having Salvation." He thus appears as the Prince of Peace in His First Advent — not as in His Second Advent, mounted on a war-horse as the Mighty Conqueror [Rev., Chpt. 19].

"Behold, your King comes unto you," refers to Jesus riding into Jerusalem on "the foal of an ass" on the first day of the week in which He was crucified.)

MESSIAH'S SECOND ADVENT

[10] And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle bow shall be cut off: and He shall speak peace unto the heathen: and His Dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the Earth. (As Verse 9 refers to the First Advent, Verse 10 refers to the Second Advent. At His First Advent, He came in peace; at His Second Advent, He will come in war. Between these two Verses, over 1,900 years have already passed; this period has been filled by the Church, which is not here mentioned, because this Passage pertains only to Israel.

"And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim," refers to the Battle of Armageddon. "And He shall speak peace to the heathen," means that Christ will extend the peace He brings to the entirety of the world, teaching the heathen to receive His Spiritual Rule and, in effect, to accept Him as Lord and Saviour, which many, if not most, will do!

The last phrase refers to His Total Dominion of the entirety of the world [Gen. 12:3].)

11 As for you also, by the Blood of your Covenant I have sent forth your prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water. (Taking the latter phrase first, "I have sent forth your prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water," refers to Israel's miserable condition and the even worse condition at the Second Coming. "As for you also, by the Blood of your Covenant," refers to God's Covenant to Zion made with Abraham and secured by the Precious Blood of Calvary, as foreshadowed by the death of the Covenant victim of Gen. 15:17-18. In effect, it will be the "New Covenant," of which the "Old Covenant" was a shadow [Mat. 26:28; Heb. 8:6; 9:15].)

GOD IS JUDAH'S DEFENSE AGAINST THE ANTICHRIST (AND THE REVIVED GRECIAN EMPIRE) AT ARMAGEDDON

12 Turn you to the strong hold, you prisoners of hope: even today do I declare that I will render double unto you ("You prisoners of hope," is beautiful indeed, because it portrays Israel as a "prisoner" of their own rebellion, but yet with "hope," which pertains to these Prophecies. "Even today do I declare that I will render double unto you," is identical to Job, with the Lord making his latter end doubly as prosperous as his beginning);

13 When I have bent Judah for Me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and made you as the sword of a mighty man. ("And raised up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece," presents a Passage, among others, which predicts the revival of the Grecian Empire under the Antichrist to fight against Israel in the Battle of Armageddon. As it involved the "revived Grecian Empire," it is speaking only of that which is in the realm of the spirit world. In fact, the same fallen angel who helped Alexander the Great will help the Antichrist [Rev. 13:2; 17:8].

The phrase, "And made you as the sword of a mighty man," pertains to the prowess of Israel during that time, even though poorly armed. The Lord will, in fact, give them superhuman strength.)

14 And the LORD shall be seen over them, and His Arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the LORD God shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south. ("And the LORD shall be seen over them," refers to the Battle of Armageddon and the Second Coming.)

15 The LORD of Hosts shall defend them; and they shall devour, and subdue with sling stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, and as the corners of the Altar. ("And they shall devour, and subdue with sling stones," refers to the resurgence of the tiny army of Israel, which, upon the Advent of Christ, will suddenly be endued with Power from on High. "And they shall be filled like bowls, and as the corners of the Altar," speaks of the blood that filled the sacrificial vessels upon the sacrifice of the lambs. In fact, so great will be the bloodshed in the Battle of Armageddon, of which this is a description! [Rev. 14:20])

16 And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of His People: for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon His Land. (The first phrase has a far greater meaning beyond the mere deliverance from their enemies. It speaks of God's glorious Salvation given to Israel, as they are "saved by Grace" [Eph. 2:8-9]. As well, "The flock of His People," has to do with the Twenty-third Psalm, which will then be fulfilled in totality in the coming Kingdom Age.

"Lifted up as an ensign upon His Land," pertains to Restored, Redeemed Israel finally occupying the Land as was originally intended. In other words, the Lord will look at them as precious stones beautifying the Land.)

17 For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! corn shall make the young men cheerful, and new wine the maids. (The Text should read, "How great shall be their beauty and how great shall be their prosperity!" For it speaks entirely of Israel.)

CHAPTER 10

(487 B.C.)

NATURAL AND SPIRITUAL RAIN

[1] Ask you of the LORD rain in the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field. (Even though this Chapter has some reference to the Prophet's time, and even before, still, its basic and plenary fulfillment awaits the future. "Ask you of the Lord rain in the time of the latter rain," seems to be a strange thing — asking rain in the time of rain. The idea is this:

Because of Israel's Spiritual condition during the time of Jeremiah, the promised "Latter Rain" was withheld and the harvests were, therefore, sparse. Consequently, the Holy Spirit is saying that, had Israel not turned aside to idols, they would have received the early rain and the latter rain and would not have been carried away into captivity.

The phrase, "So the LORD shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain," speaks of the Lord as totally controlling the climatic conditions which either helped or hindered Israel's harvests.

"To every one grass in the field," speaks of a bountiful harvest, which, in its totality, will take place in the coming Kingdom Age.)

[2] For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled, because there was no shepherd. ("For the idols have spoken vanity," takes Israel back to the cause of her captivity — idols. The word "vanity" means "empty nothings." "And the diviners have seen a lie," is the second superstition, and speaks of soothsayers, i.e., persons who pretended to predict the future.

"And have told false dreams," speaks of a third group, which claims to have dreamed certain things, which speaks of direction, but is actually deceit.

The Scripture bluntly states: "They comfort in vain!" In other words, the poor dupes who believed this foolishness experienced a little comfort, but it proved to be short-lived.

"Therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled," refers to being led away into captivity. It was all because they trusted in vain superstitions instead of the Lord.

The Holy Spirit bluntly states: "because there was no shepherd," i.e., no one to distinguish between right and wrong, no "righteous shepherd.")

JUDAH STRENGTHENED TO FIGHT AT ARMAGEDDON

[3] My Anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the goats: for the LORD of Hosts has visited His Flock the House of Judah, and has made them as His goodly Horse in the battle. ("My Anger was kindled against the shepherds," has to do with the latter part of Verse 2. This speaks of Judah's last four kings. It was said of the last three of them, "he did that which was evil in the Sight of the Lord" [II Chron. 36:6, 9, 12].

"And I punished the goats," refers to the other countries which overstepped their commission in the punishment of Israel.

"For the LORD of Hosts has visited His Flock the House of Judah," refers to their coming Restoration; in fact, the first stages have already begun. The last phrase refers to the Lord giving Israel super strength in the Battle of Armageddon, as they oppose the Antichrist.)

[4] Out of Him came forth the corner, out of Him the nail, out of Him the battle bow, out of Him every oppressor together. (The Messiah is described here. He is the "Cornerstone," He is the "Tent Pole," He is the "Battle Bow," and He is the "Ruler." "Out of Him every oppressor together," could have been better translated, "from Him every expeller of oppression.")

5 And they shall be as mighty men, which tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and the riders on horses shall be confounded. (The entire Scripture refers to great "might" given to Israel by the Lord during the Battle of Armageddon.)

JOSEPH AND JUDAH REGATHERED

6 And I will strengthen the House of Judah, and I will save the House of Joseph, and I will bring them again to place them; for I have mercy upon them: and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their God, and will hear them. (The introduction of "Joseph" in this Verse and "Ephraim" in Verse 7, for they both mean the same and refer to the Northern Kingdom of Israel, decide the futurity of this Prophecy; for they had no existence, as such, in Zechariah's day, nor have they at the present.

The first phrase of the Verse refers to both the Northern and Southern Kingdoms being once again joined and never again separated. This will take place in the coming Kingdom Age.)

7 And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine: yes, their children shall see it, and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD. (This speaks of the time that Israel will accept Christ as Saviour, Lord, and Messiah. It will be almost immediately after the Second Coming [13:1].)

8 I will hiss for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them: and they shall increase as they have increased. ("I will hiss for them, and gather them," actually means that the Lord summons them. "And they shall increase as they have increased," refers to an explosive increase in population; again, this will take place in the Kingdom Age.)

THE DISPERSING AND REGATHERING OF ISRAEL

9 And I will sow them among the people: and they shall remember Me in far countries; and they shall live with their children, and turn again. ("And I will sow them among the people," refers to Jews increasing among the nations of the world where they were to be scattered. This scattering took place first of all in the Babylonian Empire, and then, some 500 years later, by Rome.

This one phrase, "I will sow," proclaims the Lord's watchful Eye over them all of these centuries, even though they were out of Covenant. "And they shall remember Me in far countries," means that they will attempt to maintain the Jewish way of worship wherever they may be.

The phrase, "And they shall live with their children," simply means that despite all the efforts of Satan to exterminate these ancient people, the Promise is given here that Satan will not be successful. The three words, "And turn again," have to do with their ultimate return to the Land of Israel, which, of course, began in 1948 [Isa. 35:10].)

10 I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon; and place shall not be found for them. (Egypt and Assyria here represent all of Israel's foes; for Egypt was the first and the Assyrian, i.e., Antichrist, will be the last. "And place shall not be found for them," simply refers to the large number which will return to Israel in that coming Glad Day.)

11 And He shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up: and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and the sceptre of Egypt shall depart away. (The idea of this Verse is: "He [Messiah] shall pass through the sea of affliction." As Captain of His People's Deliverance, He will accompany them through their future affliction, as He led them through the Red Sea and through the Jordan.

"And the pride of Assyria shall be brought down," refers to the Antichrist and his defeat at the Battle of Armageddon. "And the scepter of Egypt shall depart away," concerns the "Times of the Gentiles" coming to an end, expressed in this manner.)

12 And I will strengthen them in the LORD; and they shall walk up and down in His Name, says the LORD. (To be strengthened in the Lord is the greatest strength of all! "They shall walk up and down in His Name," means "in God's Beloved Son," and in safety, with dignity, as conquerors.)

CHAPTER 11

THE FIRST ADVENT OF THE MESSIAH: THE SHEPHERD KING REJECTED

[1] Open your doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour your cedars. (This Chapter proclaims the First Advent of Christ and His rejection, with the last three Verses proclaiming the coming Antichrist. "Open your doors, O Lebanon," speaks of the coming destruction of Israel by the Romans. The way the word "Lebanon" is used here, it does not refer to the country itself, which borders Israel on the north, but instead refers to the houses in Jerusalem, which were largely built of cedar from Lebanon [Hab. 2:17].)

[2] Howl, fir tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the mighty are spoiled: howl, O you oaks of Bashan; for the forest of the vintage is come down. (The trees of this Verse symbolize the cities destroyed by the Romans as they marched through Israel onto Jerusalem. The argument is: some of these cities were strong, and they were still unable to stand; so, how much more sure was the Fall of Jerusalem?!

The phrase, "For the forest of the vintage is come down," refers to Jerusalem fortifying itself, but to no avail because the Holy Spirit says, "It will come down." And so it did, with over one million Jews being killed, with hundreds of thousands of others being sold as slaves all over the world.)

[3] There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is spoiled. ("There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds," refers to the Priests, who were lamenting the destruction of the Temple. "A voice of the roaring of young lions," refers to the Nobles of Jerusalem. "For the pride of Jordan is spoiled," proclaims Joshua crossing the Jordan about 1,500 years earlier, and his taking of the Land of Israel, with Jerusalem under David ultimately being made its Capital. Now the "pride" of that conquest, Jerusalem, is spoiled.)

4 Thus says the LORD my God; Feed the flock of the slaughter (The phrase, "Feed the flock of the slaughter," is an admonition given to Zechariah, and yet Israel ultimately will not accept what is fed them; they will, therefore, be "slaughtered."

*Even though it is addressed to Zechariah and, as stated, to all who are in places of Spiritual leadership, still, it really refers to Christ, Who will "feed this flock" as they have never before been fed, but yet that which they will not accept!);

5 Whose possessors slay them, and hold themselves not guilty: and they who sell them say, Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not. ("Whose possessors slay them, and hold themselves not guilty," refers to the Spiritual leadership of Israel at the time of Christ. The "possessors" were the Pharisees, Sadducees, and Herodians. They, as most religious professors, were deceived by their own deception; consequently, they did not "hold themselves guilty" and would, therefore, not repent.

The two words, "Slay them," concern the people being killed spiritually by unbelief and the "traditions of men" [Mk. 7:13]. "And they who sell them say, Blessed be the LORD," means that they cloaked their entire ungodly procedure with religion. It further means that they rejected and crucified Christ in the "Name of the Lord."

The four words, "For I am rich," hold the idea that their wealth, even though ill-gotten, meant, in their minds, that God had blessed them. "And their own shepherds pity them not," meant, in effect, that they had no True Shepherds [Mat. 9:36].)

6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, says the LORD: but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them. (The first phrase pertains to Israel being turned over to "slaughter" because of their rejection and crucifixion of God's only Son and their Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ. "But, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbor's hand," refers to the Romans, who ruled Israel during the time of Christ.

"And they shall smite the land," refers to Titus and the Roman Tenth Legion laying siege to Jerusalem and totally destroying it in A.D. 70. The phrase, "And out of their hand I will not deliver them," means that inasmuch as Israel rejected the True King, now they would have to accept what the false king would do unto them.)

BEAUTY AND BANDS

[7] And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands; and I fed the flock. ("And I will feed the flock of slaughter," refers back to Verse 4. He would feed them, i.e., give them Christ, but they would not accept Christ. Hence, they were destined for "slaughter." "Even you, O poor of the flock," refers to the Disciples and others who received Him, and who consequently formed the nucleus of what would be called "the Church" [Mat. 16:18].

"The one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands," pertains to "graciousness" [beauty] and "union" [bands]. These two staves, which were found with all shepherds, intimate the manifold Character of God for His Flock from the earliest times and the two Blessings which He designed to bestow, as the names of the staves proclaim.

First of all, He dealt with them with "Grace," which means the Favor of God. Second, He meant for them all to be one, hence the word "Bands," or "the Union" of all the members of the flock, especially that between Israel and Judah. This made one flock under one Shepherd.

"And I fed the flock," refers to God's care all through the history of Israel by giving them Prophets — and ultimately the greatest Gift of all, the Lord Jesus Christ.)

8 Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and My Soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred Me. (These three shepherds are unnamed, but probably refer to the "Pharisees, Sadducees, and Herodians." The words, "cut off," mean "to be destroyed," which they all were with the Fall of Jerusalem in A.D. 70.)

9 Then said I, I will not feed you: that who die, let it die; and that who is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another. (Due to the fact that Israel rejected her Messiah, crucifying Him, they were "cut off." Consequently, in this one Verse is predicted a horror upon Jerusalem and Judah to such an extent as they had never before known. They wanted Caesar, so they got Caesar! It would prove to be a sorry trade [Jn. 19:15].)

GOD'S GRACIOUSNESS (BEAUTY) CUT OFF: NO MORE MERCY ON ISRAEL UNTIL MESSIAH'S SECOND ADVENT

10 And I took My Staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break My Covenant which I had made with all the people. (The first phrase means that the Lord withdrew His Grace from Israel, in effect, leaving them to the mercy of their foes. The last phrase speaks of the breaking or abolishment of the Old Covenant made with Moses and all the people about 1,500 years before.

Scripture is very clear that the Law of Moses was fulfilled by Christ on the Cross [II Cor. 3:6-15; Gal. 3:13-25; Col. 2:14-17]. It literally came to an end and was broken in one day, the day of the Crucifixion of Christ, even as the next Verse proclaims.)

11 And it was broken in that day: and so the poor of the flock who waited upon Me knew that it was the Word of the LORD. ("And so the poor of the flock...," refers to the few, among them His Disciples, who paid respect to His Words and, therefore, believed Him. However, the bulk of the nation took no heed, learned no lesson and, therefore, suffered the horrible consequence.

"Who waited upon Me knew that it was the Word of the LORD," means that only the few who knew their Bibles understood His Mission. However, even these were slow to understand, as is borne out in the Gospels.)

MESSIAH SOLD BY THE PEOPLE (THE FLOCK)

12 And I said unto them, If you think good, give Me My Price; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for My Price thirty pieces of silver. (The first phrase refers to the Lord speaking, even though He uses the Prophet as His Instrument. The Lord is speaking in the Person of the Great Shepherd. He asks His hire of the flock, because the flock represents men.

"And if not, forbear," means "I leave it to you to decide." The phrase, "So they weighed for My Price thirty pieces of silver," proclaims what Israel thought of their Messiah and His Care through all the many centuries. They valued Him at thirty shekels, the price of an injured slave [Ex. 21:32].

It is amazing that the Pharisees, who claimed to be such sticklers for the Law, would read these words, especially after the act had been performed, and still not relate it to themselves. Such is the marvel of unbelief!)

13 And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the potter: a goodly price that I was prised at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the House of the LORD. ("And the LORD said unto me," now refers to His Response to their actions. This was all prophesied about 500 years before it would actually take place. The phrase, "Cast it unto the potter," implies the contemptuous rejection of the paltry sum; at the same time, it intimates the ultimate destination, i.e., a field in which to bury the penniless [Mat. 27:3-10]. This was fulfilled to the letter by the action of Judas Iscariot.

"A goodly price that I was prised at of them," is used as sarcasm. Such was the "price" that they valued Him. The pronoun "them" is used strongly by the Holy Spirit, and of contempt; it speaks of the leadership of Israel at that time!

"And I took the thirty pieces of silver...," is quoted in Mat. 27:9. The phrase, "And cast them to the potter in the House of the LORD," represents that all of this took place in the Temple.)

THE BANDS (UNION) CUT OFF: ISRAEL DISPERSED

14 Then I cut asunder My other Staff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel. (The first phrase concerns the union of the Twelve Tribes being broken by the destruction of the Romans in A.D. 70. When Grace was taken away [Vs. 10], then the union could not help but be destroyed.

"That I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel," pertains to it being so completely broken that most Jews now have no idea to which Tribe they originally belonged. As the breaking of the first staff [Vs. 10] indicated the withdrawing of God's Care, the breaking of this staff, called "Bands," signified the utter dissolution of all the bonds that held the nation together. They rejected Him and now He rejects them.

As He was their total Protection, whenever He rejected them, there was nothing left but anarchy, confusion, and ruin.)

A WORTHLESS SHEPHERD TAKES THE GOOD SHEPHERD'S PLACE: AFTER ANTICHRIST, ISRAEL WILL APPRECIATE THE GOOD SHEPHERD

15 And the LORD said unto me, Take unto you yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd. (In this Verse, the "foolish shepherd," the future Antichrist, is described.)

16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those who be cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor feed that that stands still: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces. (The contrast is given here between the True Shepherd, the Lord Jesus Christ, Who was rejected by Israel, and the "false shepherd," the Antichrist, who will deceive and seek to destroy them. They would not accept Christ, so He would see to it that a false shepherd would be given to them, hence the words, "For, lo, I will raise up....")

17 Woe to the idol shepherd who leaves the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened. ("Woe to the idol shepherd," has reference to the Antichrist, who will claim to be God and who also will demand worship [II Thess. 2:3-4; Rev. 13:16-18]. "Who leaves the flock," pertains to the Antichrist breaking his seven-year covenant with Israel and then attacking her, when she will suffer her first military defeat since becoming a nation in 1948 [Dan. 9:27]. This will happen at the midpoint of the coming Great Tribulation.

The Antichrist will set out with the "sword" to destroy Israel, but, in turn, will be destroyed. This will be at the Second Coming and will also signal the Restoration of Israel.)

CHAPTER 12

BURDEN FOR ISRAEL: SIEGE OF JERUSALEM BY THE ANTICHRIST

[1] The burden of the Word of the LORD for Israel, says the LORD, which stretches forth the heavens, and lays the foundation of the Earth, and forms the spirit of man within him. (The "burden" of the first phrase concerns wholly the future, as the first "burden" [9:1] concerned both the present and future. As well, it foretells Israel's deliverance by Him Whom they rejected and pierced, their consequent conversion, and Zion's resultant glory.

"Which stretches forth and lays the foundation of the Earth," portrays the force of three Hebrew verbs as both past and present. Immanuel made and maintains all things [Col. 1:16]. His Power as Creator and Sustainer assures the fulfillment of His Promises; consequently, the Holy Spirit opens this section proclaiming the certitude of the coming action.

"And forms the spirit of man within him," proclaims one of two Hebrew words translated "spirit" in the Bible. The one is "spirit" as common to man and the animal creation; the other is an emanation from God possessed only by man, and ever existing, i.e., the Holy Spirit.

The "spirit of man within him," and, thus, "formed" by God, proclaims man's spirit as higher than the spirit of animals. In fact, man is in a class by himself, i.e., in the Image of God [Gen. 1:26].)

[2] Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem. (The Holy Spirit uses the word "Israel" in Verse 1, while using the word "Judah" in this Verse. Both are interchangeable and mean the same thing.

The first phrase pictures this city, Jerusalem, as the focal point of the nations of the world. This will take place in the coming Great Tribulation. "When they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem," concerns the Battle of Armageddon.)

[3] And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all who burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the Earth be gathered together against it. (The first phrase refers to a "stone" which is difficult to lift or to move. The efforts of the Antichrist to displace it will cause his own destruction, for the Stone of Daniel, Chapter 2, will fall upon him from Heaven.

"All who burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces," concerns any and all nations of the world which join with the Antichrist in his efforts to destroy Jerusalem and Judah at the Battle of Armageddon.)

MESSIAH'S SECOND ADVENT; JUDAH AT ARMAGEDDON

[4] In that day, says the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open My Eyes upon the House of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness. ("In that day, says the LORD," refers to the Battle of Armageddon. "I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness," pertains to a frenzy inspired by terror. In fact, the last phrase is the same as the first, but repeated to emphasize its certitude.)

[5] And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of Hosts their God. (This Verse portrays, possibly, the very first collective faith of the leaders and people of Israel in the Lord their God since the days of Josiah, if even then. This will no doubt be at the instant of the Lord's Return, with Israel in the process of repenting at that very time.)

[6] In that day will I make the governors of Judah like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem.

(Concerning the first phrase, the idea is: the Lord, upon His Return, will give the "governors of Judah" wisdom and strength respecting the closing hours of the battle to a degree that possibly man has never known. The phrase, "And Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem," refers to the city being saved from the onslaught of the man of sin. It being "inhabited again" concerns the rebuilding by the Messiah. It will, no doubt, be the most beautiful city on the face of the Earth.)

[7] The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the House of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem do not magnify themselves against Judah. (The idea of this Verse is: Judah recognizes and confesses as a source of strength the Faith of Jerusalem; the Messiah will reward this humility by rescuing Judah first; thus, will there be equality of glory to both. "Judah" refers to the entirety of the area given to the Tribe of Judah during the time of Joshua. The reason for this is because Jesus came from the Tribe of Judah [Gen. 49:10].)

[8] In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he who is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the House of David shall be as God, as the Angel of the LORD before them. (This refers to the coming Battle of Armageddon. "And he who is feeble among them at that day shall be as David," refers back to Verse 6. David was Israel's greatest warrior and was that because of the anointing of the Holy Spirit upon him for this purpose. Likewise, the Holy Spirit tells us here that, at that coming day, the most "feeble among them" will have the strength of a "mighty David."

"And the House of David shall be as God," has to do with the Tribe of Judah. "As the Angel of the LORD before them," pertains to Jehovah, Who led Israel through the wilderness after their Deliverance from Egypt.)

[9] And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. (Once again, this is the Battle of Armageddon.)

MESSIAH REVEALED TO ISRAEL

10 And I will pour upon the House of David and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the Spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon Me Whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for Him, as one mourns for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for Him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn. ("And I will pour...," refers to the Lord pouring out fire upon Zion's adversaries, but the Holy Spirit upon her inhabitants [II Thess., Chpt. 1]. If one is to notice, the Messiah Himself is speaking in the entirety of this Chapter as far as the word "pierced"; then the Holy Spirit points to the moral effect produced by the revelation. "Upon the House of David," proclaims the Promise originally given to David concerning his seed upon the Throne of Israel [II Sam. 7:12-16].

The phrase, "I will pour upon them the Spirit of Grace," concerns the goodness of God and means they are no longer trusting in their Law, but instead the "Grace of God," which is found only in the Lord Jesus Christ. "And I will pour upon them the Spirit of Supplications," speaks of Israel supplicating the Lord and the Lord supplicating the Father on their behalf. The word means "to ask humbly and earnestly."

"And they shall look upon Me Whom they have pierced," identifies who and what they are and Who He is. "And they shall mourn for Him, as one mourns for his only son," now proclaims the moral effect produced by this Revelation, as given by the Holy Spirit. They will then make their supplications to Him for Mercy and Forgiveness. "And shall be in bitterness for Him," means "a sense of intense shame." It speaks of True Repentance.

The last phrase, "As one who is in bitterness for his firstborn," refers to the loss of an only son, the firstborn. In effect, they killed their own son, and the firstborn at that, which meant that the family line could not continue; it was, in fact, destroyed, at least as far as the Covenant was concerned; however, this "Son," or "Firstborn," rose from the dead. Even though they would not accept it then, they will accept it now — and because He lives, they shall live also!)

ISRAEL'S REPENTANCE

11 In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. (As Verse 10 proclaims, there is personal "mourning," with national "mourning" in Verse 11, and domestic "mourning" in Verses 12 through 14. Every man will feel himself guilty of piercing Immanuel, which is the way they should feel.

The last phrase refers to King Josiah being killed in this place [II Chron. 35:22-25]. His reign was the one gleam of light in the gloom that covered the nation from Manasseh to the captivity. Consequently, there was great "mourning" respecting his death.)

12 And the land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the House of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart;

13 The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of Shimei apart, and their wives apart (the House of David and Nathan speaks of the princely line of Israel, while the family of Levi and Shimei speaks of the Priests. Consequently, these two Verses proclaim a personal and general Repentance on the part of both the civil and Spiritual leadership)**;

14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart. ("All the families that remain," speaks now of the balance of Israel. Judah's repentance and conversion will not be motivated by fear of punishment, but by the overwhelming sense of guilt affecting the heart, when they recognize that their Deliverer is Jesus Whom they crucified, and that all along, despite their hatred and their conduct, He kept on loving them!)

THE FOUNTAIN OF CLEANSING FOR ISRAEL

[1] In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the House of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness. ("In that day," occurs eighteen times from 9:16 through 14:21. This shows how precious "that day" is to the Messiah's Heart. In that day, His Victory over the enemies of His People will be great, but greater will be His Moral Victory over His People themselves.

The Christian's true triumphs are God's Triumphs over him, and God's Triumphs over His People are their only victories. Such was Jacob of old, who represented Israel in that coming Glad Day. The conversion of the Apostle Paul illustrates the future conversion of Israel. He hated Jesus, but on the Damascus Road, he looked upon Him Whom he had pierced, mourned, and wept.

The phrase, "In that day there shall be a fountain opened," does not mean that it is first opened there, but that Israel will only begin to partake of it "in that day," i.e., the beginning of the Kingdom Age. This fountain was historically opened at Calvary, but will be consciously opened to repentant Jews in the future day of her Repentance. For the fact and function of that fountain only becomes conscious to the awakened sinner.

A true sense of sin and guilt in relationship to God awakens the sense of the need of cleansing, and so the shed and cleansing Blood of the Lamb of God becomes precious to convicted conscience. As well, the ever-living efficacy of Christ's Atoning Work, with its power to cleanse the conscience and the life, is justly comparable to a fountain and not to a font. The sense of the Hebrew Text is that this Fountain shall be opened and shall remain open.

"To the House of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness," portrays the possibility that, of all sinners, the Jerusalem sinners may be accounted the greatest. It was Jerusalem that stoned the Prophets and crucified the Messiah; therefore, great sinners may hope for pardon and cleansing in this Fountain opened for the House of David.

The entrance of Christ judges sin, unmasks its true character, and arouses a moral consciousness which approves that judgment. That entrance dominates, adjusts, disciplines, instructs, and cleanses man's affections, relationships, and desires. All of this must be cleansed, not only in Israel of a future day, but also in any and all of who come to Christ. That Fountain is open to all!)

2 And it shall come to pass in that day, says the LORD of Hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land. (Through sin, man has so degraded his emotions that God must cleanse and adjust them. When this is done, the effect is that man's moral consciousness is so harmonized with God's Nature that man will not only abolish idolatry, but he will put to death his own child who tries to support it, as the next Verse proclaims.

Israel's problems of the past had much to do with literal "idols." Such will be so utterly abolished that their very names will perish. As well, "false prophets," which once abounded in Israel, will be no more.

"And the unclean spirit to pass out of the land," is, among other things, the lying spirit which works in false prophets [I Ki. 22:19-23]. In fact, Satan, along with all demon spirits and fallen angels, will be consigned to the "bottomless pit" [Rev. 20:1-3].)

FALSE PROPHETS EXECUTED

3 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy *(prophesy falsely), then his father and his mother who begat him shall say unto him, You shall not live; for you speak lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother who begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesies. (The most dangerous form of idolatry is that which speaks lies in the Name of the Lord. Such is the part of Christendom that is corrupt.

This Verse does not mean that there actually will be false prophets in Israel during the time of the Kingdom Age, for there will not. The idea is: so zealous will be Israel for the Lord in that coming hour that even if a son would begin to prophesy falsely, he would be properly restrained by his parents, even to the place of execution, if necessary.

The Holy Spirit is impressing upon the Reader how different Israel will be in that coming Glad Day after their conversion.)

4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he has prophesied; neither shall they wear a rough garment to deceive (the idea of this Verse is: in the coming Kingdom Age, so knowledgeable will most people be in the Word of God that those who are false will not dare attempt to propagate "his false vision")**:

5 But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am an husbandman; for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth. (In essence, this Verse proclaims that most preachers ought to simply quit, because they have not been called by God in the first place. The Truth is: "they are no prophet," but instead "an husbandman," i.e., a follower of secular employment.)

THE CRUCIFIED MESSIAH REVEALED

6 And one shall say unto Him, What are these wounds in Your Hands? Then He shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of My friends. (In these Passages, the false prophets are placed beside the True Prophet, the Lord Jesus Christ. They, before the Coming of the Lord, too oftentimes were rewarded, while He, as each True Prophet, was greatly opposed, even crucified. The false prophets thrust themselves forward and claimed reverence and position; He Himself, the greatest of the Prophets, did not claim to be a professional Prophet — that was not His Mission in coming to Earth — but became a Bond-servant and a Shepherd; made and appointed such in the Divine Purpose of Redemption. For man having sold himself into slavery, it was necessary that Christ should take that position in order to redeem him.

"And one shall say unto Him," refers to the moment of recognition, as outlined in 12:10, where it says, "And they shall look upon Me Whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for Him." This will be immediately after the Second Coming, with the Antichrist now defeated and Christ standing before Israel. They will then know, beyond the shadow of a doubt, that He is the Messiah; then will they ask, "What are these wounds in Your Hands?"

These wounds, which He will ever carry, will be an instant and constant reminder of Who He is and what was done to Him, which presents Him as the Sin-Bearer of the world. Even though He was the Redeemer of all mankind, still, this shows how He was treated by man, especially by His Own.

"Then He shall answer," will be an answer that will cause their terrible "mourning" of 12:10-14. It will also be the cause of the "Fountain opened to the House of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness" [13:1].

"Those with which I was wounded in the house of My friends," proclaims His Crucifixion and those who did it to Him. The words, "My friends," are said in irony.)

ISRAEL'S REDEMPTION THROUGH THE SUFFERING OF THE MESSIAH

7 Awake, O sword, against My Shepherd, and against the Man Who is My Fellow, says the LORD of Hosts: smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn My Hand upon the little ones. ("Awake, O sword, against My Shepherd," concerns the Crucifixion of Christ, because Christ was the "Good Shepherd" [Jn. 10:11], in effect, "God's Shepherd." "And against the Man Who is My Fellow, says the LORD of Hosts," refers to Christ as the "Fellow" of Jehovah.

"Smite the Shepherd," pertains to the fact that not only was sin upon the sinless Substitute at Calvary, but the Substitute Himself, Jehovah's equal. He Himself must die in order that man might live; for the curse that rested upon man was the doom of death [separation from God] because of sin. Christ's Death was, therefore, necessary to satisfy that claim and to vindicate and magnify Divine Righteousness.

"And the sheep shall be scattered," pertains to them "scattered" as a nation, but not finally lost, for His Hand, pierced by the flock, shall cause the "little ones" to return to Zion, which these Passages and many others proclaim! "And I will turn My Hand upon the little ones," pertains to the Coming of the Lord and the Restoration of Israel, which will bring "the little ones" back.

In astronomy, a near planet and a distant fixed star may appear side-by-side in the heavens, though the one is millions of miles more distant than the others; so, in the Scriptures, often two Prophecies may be side-by-side in the Text but, as here, be separated by many hundreds, sometimes thousands, of years.)

ISRAEL PURGED AND PURIFIED DURING THE TRIBULATION

8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, says the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein. (This Verse pertains to the Great Tribulation, more particularly, the last half of that dreadful time. Zechariah predicts that two-thirds of the population of Israel will die during those last three and a half years, leaving one-third to fight the Antichrist at Armageddon and to make up the nation that will be brought into being at the Second Coming of Christ [Rom. 11:25-29].

There are approximately five million Jews in Israel presently. If there are six million at that time, this means that some four million will be killed. Very few times in history has such a large percentage of the population of a nation been destroyed, if ever!)

9 And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on My Name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is My People: and they shall say, The LORD is my God. (The phrase, "And I will bring the third part through the fire," refers to those who are left alive after the Battle of Armageddon, who will look upon Him Whom they pierced and repent [12:10-14]. The "fire" is the Great Tribulation, which Jesus mentioned [Mat. 24:21].

"And will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried," proclaims the purpose of the coming Great Tribulation. "They shall call on My Name, and I will hear them," refers to proper relationship being restored.

"I will say, It is My People: and they shall say, The LORD is my God," pertains to the remnant who has been "refined" as silver and "tried" as gold. These will repent; as a result, they will once again be owned by the Lord, as He says, "It is My People." He will do so because they shall say, "The LORD is my God," i.e., Jesus Christ is Lord!

At that time, the Prophecy of Hosea will be fulfilled: "You shall call Me Ishi; and shall call me no more Baali" [Hos. 2:16]. "Ishi" means "My Husband.")

CHAPTER 14

(487 B.C.)

THE DAY OF THE LORD: BEGINNING AT ARMAGEDDON

[1] Behold, the day of the LORD comes, and your spoil shall be divided in the midst of you. ("Behold, the day of the LORD comes," presents this day as beginning with the Second Coming and lasting until the end of the Millennium. At that time, the end of the Millennium, the "Day of God" begins and will continue through eternity [I Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; II Pet. 3:10-13].

"And your spoil shall be divided in the midst of you," concerns the Antichrist coming against Israel [Ezek. 38:11-12].)

[2] For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city. (The first phrase refers to the mobilization of the nations to Armageddon [Ezek., Chpts. 38-39; Joel, Chpt. 3; Rev. 16:13-16; 19:11-21]. "And the city shall be taken," actually means that the Antichrist will prepare to take Jerusalem, with actually half of it being taken. The phrase, "And the houses rifled, and the women ravished," expresses extreme cruelty practiced by the army of the Antichrist.

"And half of the city shall go forth into captivity," means that half of Jerusalem will fall to the advances of the Antichrist, with the other half fighting furiously to save themselves, but with futility, other than the Coming of the Lord. Actually, the phrasing of the sentence structure portrays Israel fighting with a ferocity that knows no bounds, but yet not able to stand against the powerful onslaught of the combined armies of the man of sin.

"And the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city," refers to the army of Israel already cut to pieces, but determined to defend the city, even house to house, and, if necessary, to die to the last man.)

3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when He fought in the day of battle. ("Then" is the key word!

1. "Then": when Israel will begin to cry to God for Deliverance, knowing that He is their only hope.

2. "Then": when half of Jerusalem has fallen and it looks like the other half is about to fall.

3. "Then": when it looks like every Jew will be annihilated, with two-thirds already killed.

4. "Then": when it looks like the Promises of God made to the Patriarchs and Prophets of old will fall down.

5. "Then": when it looks like the Antichrist will win this conflict, which will make Satan the lord of the Earth.

"Then shall the LORD go forth," refers to the Second Coming, which will be the most cataclysmic event that the world has ever known. "And fight against those nations," pertains to the nations under the banner of the Antichrist, which have set out to destroy Israel, and actually with annihilation in mind.

"As when He fought in the day of battle," probably refers to the time when the Lord led the Children of Israel out of Egypt by way of the Red Sea [Ex. 14:14; 15:3]. This was Israel's first battle when Jehovah Messiah "went forth" and fought for them. Israel then passed through a valley between mountains of water; in this, their last battle, they will escape through a valley between mountains of rock, which the next Verse proclaims.)

MESSIAH'S SECOND ADVENT: CHANGES IN PALESTINE

4 And His Feet shall stand in that day upon the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the Mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south. (The first phrase refers to Christ literally standing on the Mount of Olives, which will be His landing point at the Second Coming, fulfilling the prediction of the two Angels at His Ascension [Acts 1:10-11]. "And the Mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west," actually speaks of a great topographical change, which Israel will use at that hour as a way of escape from the Antichrist. With every road blocked, the Lord will open a way through the very center of the mountain, as He opened a path through the Red Sea.

"And there shall be a very great valley," refers to the escape route of Israel. "And half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south," refers to the wall of rock on either side of escaping Israel, which makes it similar to the wall of water on either side when Israel escaped Egypt.)

5 And you shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yes, you shall flee, like as you fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the LORD my God shall come, and all the Saints with you. ("And you shall flee to the valley of the mountains," should read "through the valley." As stated, this will be Israel's escape route from the Antichrist. "For the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal," probably refers to Beth-ezel, mentioned in Micah 1:11 as a village on the east of Olivet.

"Yes, you shall flee," is that the people might not be involved in the judgments which shall fall upon the enemy. The phrase, "Like as you fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah," also pertains to an earthquake which the Lord will use to produce this phenomenon.

"And the LORD my God shall come, and all the Saints with you," pertains to the Lord coming at this particular time, which will have caused the cataclysmic events in the first place. The Passage, "All the Saints with you," refers to every Saint of God who has ever lived being with the Lord at the Second Coming [Rev. 19:14].)

6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be clear, nor dark ("And it shall come to pass in that day," refers to the very day that Christ appears on Earth, during the Battle of Armageddon. At that time, the day will be extended, thereby giving the Antichrist no respite)**:

7 But it shall be one day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening time it shall be light. (The entirety of the Battle of Armageddon will last many days; however, the "day" mentioned here will probably be extended to last approximately 24 hours.)

THE RIVER FROM UNDER THE SANCTUARY

8 And it shall be in that day, that Living Waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be. (The Prophecy now jumps from the Battle of Armageddon to the finished Sanctuary in Jerusalem. From under that Sanctuary will flow a river, prophesied by Ezekiel [Ezek. 47:1-12], with the river parting after a distance, with one part going to the Dead Sea, called "the former sea," making it teem alive with fish, with the other part going to the Mediterranean, termed "the hinder sea."

The words, "Living Waters," are used in this Verse because of the river's life-giving properties, totally unlike any other river the world has ever known. In fact, Ezekiel said, "And everything shall live whither the river cometh" [Ezek. 47:9]. No doubt, these "Living Waters" will be responsible for the trees which will grow on both sides of this river, which will "bring forth new fruit according to his month," and "the leaves thereof for medicine." The "fruit" and "leaves" will no doubt be transported all over the world. The "fruit" will probably guarantee unending life, while the "leaves" serve as "medicine" for any and all sickness, which will be more preventive than anything else [Ezek. 47:12].

"In summer and in winter shall it be," proclaims the continuance of the seasons.)

THE EXTENT OF MESSIAH'S REIGN

9 And the LORD shall be King over all the Earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and His Name One. (The first phrase refers to the Lord Jesus Christ and his total dominion over all nations. "In that day shall there be one LORD," rather says, "Jehovah shall be One." He shall be universally acknowledged as "the Blessed and only Potentate" [I Tim. 6:15].)

CHANGES IN ISRAEL

10 All the land shall be turned as a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem: and it shall be lifted up, and inhabited in her place, from Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananeel unto the king's winepresses. (This Verse proclaims that there will be a tremendous topographical change in the Jerusalem area, where a great plain will be formed; upon that mighty platform, the future city and palace of Jehovah Messiah will be built. This great platform will be the "Holy Oblation" of Ezek. 45:1-5. Through it will pass the broad and noble "Living Waters," which will connect the Dead Sea with the Mediterranean.

As well, the phrase, "From Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem," refers to almost all, if not all, of the original territory of the Tribe of Judah.)

JERUSALEM RESTORED

11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no more utter destruction; but Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited. ("And men shall dwell in it," refers to unending peace and safety. "And there shall be no more utter destruction," literally says, "there shall be no more anathema," or curse! The phrase, "But Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited," pertains to the Lord dwelling there as the Supreme Authority Who will guarantee these Promises.)

DESTRUCTION OF THE ARMIES AT ARMAGEDDON

12 And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people who have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth. (The Prophecy now reverts back to the Battle of Armageddon. The mighty power of the Lord will be used at the Second Coming to destroy the Antichrist and his armies, a power which the world has never previously seen, at least in this fashion!)

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold everyone on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour. (At this time, the weaponry used by the Lord will also cause a mental discomfiture, bringing about that predicted.)

JUDAH'S PART OF THE SPOILS OF WAR AT ARMAGEDDON

14 And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance. ("And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem," refers to the army of Israel that has escaped Jerusalem as a result of the "very great valley" formed, due to the Coming of the Lord, as outlined in Verse 4. After having made their escape, they will then turn around and attack the remainder of the vast armies of the Antichrist, now surrounded in Jerusalem.

"And the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together," refers to the tremendous spoil which will be taken from the defeated massive armies of the Antichrist. The Antichrist went against Israel to "take a spoil," but instead will be himself "spoiled" [Ezek. 38:11-13].)

PLAGUE ON THE ANIMALS

15 And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague. (This Verse speaks of "the plague," which will not only befall men at the Battle of Armageddon, as spoken in Verses 12 and 13, but also on the animals! Inasmuch as modern warfare little includes such animals, the reference is actually to the airplanes, tanks, artillery, and mechanized equipment of the armies of the Antichrist.

"As this plague" destroys men, it will also make ineffective the mechanical mechanisms of machinery, and we speak of that which belongs to the Antichrist.)

WORSHIP AT JERUSALEM

16 And it shall come to pass, that everyone who is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of Hosts, and to keep the Feast of Tabernacles. (This "Feast of Tabernacles" was a delightful week of holiday in the month of October at the close of the year's toil, and was kept, at least it was supposed to be kept, all during the time of the Mosaic Law [Ex. 23:16; Lev. 23:33-43; Deut. 16:13]. This "Feast" will be re-instituted in the Kingdom Age, which will be kept not only by Israel, but also by all the other nations of the world.)

THE NATIONS CONQUERED AND ISRAEL SACRED TO THE LORD

17 And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the Earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of Hosts, even upon them shall be no rain. (This Scripture tells us that even though Jesus Christ is "King" and "LORD of Hosts," still, there will be some in the Earth, despite all the tremendous blessings and prosperity, who will not accept Him as Saviour and Lord, who, therefore, will not properly serve

Him. To be sure, they will not be allowed to foment rebellion, wickedness, or evil, but will be forced to subscribe to the letter of the Law, if not the spirit. In other words, they will not be allowed to entertain the evil thoughts of their hearts. Also, all of this proclaims the Truth that the coming Kingdom Age will not be ruled by force, but rather by love; and yet force will be used where it is absolutely necessary.

The phrase, "Even upon them shall be no rain," speaks of these recalcitrant leaders of nations who will not desire to be subservient to the "King," i.e., the Lord Jesus Christ. The Lord will then take care of the situation by stopping the rain, which will hinder the harvests, which will be felt by the people. The people will then take active measures to see to it that their appointed leaders from henceforth obey the Law of the Lord.)

18 And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, who have no rain; there shall be the plague, wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen who come not up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles. (This speaks of the nations of the world which did not depend on rain, as "Egypt," being dealt with in another fashion. As to exactly what this "plague" will be, we aren't told!)

19 This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles. (The certitude of its affliction is especially repeated in this Verse. In other words, this Law will not be abrogated, despite who the people are, as it is so often presently. As well, inasmuch as it is the Lord Who makes the decisions in these cases, one can be certain that the judgment, if needed, will be fair and equitable.)

20 In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the LORD's House shall be like the bowls before the Altar. (The idea of this Verse and the following is that, in this coming day in Israel, even the most common things used by men shall be signified as holy, whether used in work, profit, or ornament. All shall be consecrated to God's Service.

"In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD," signifies the same inscription used upon the golden plate of the mitre [hat] of the High Priest [Ex. 28:36]. Then, only the High Priest, Who was a Type of Christ, carried this inscription, whereas now, even the lowliest things, as "bells of the horses," will be signified as such! Such is meant to portray the atmosphere which will guarantee the action of the preceding Verses. It is "HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD"; and the Lord will not allow it to be changed by the evil hearts of wicked men.

The phrase, "Shall be like the bowls before the Altar," concerns the Vessels which held the blood of the victims in Old Testament times for sprinkling upon the Altar, and were considered of superior sanctity. The Prophet announces that now all shall be holy, the lowest equal to the highest.)

21 Ye s, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness unto the LORD of Hosts: and all they who sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein: and in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the House of the LORD of Hosts. (These two Verses speak of the entirety of the Land of Israel being holy unto the Lord, and not just a designated part, as the Temple of old! As is obvious here, the "Sacrificial System" will be re-instituted; but, as of old, it will not save. It will be strictly for a memorial [6:14].

"And in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the House of the LORD of Hosts," means that there will be no more a trafficker in the House of the LORD [Jn. 2:14-16]. In other words, the Sacred Ministry will cease to be adopted because of salaried profession or other secular interests.

The word "Holy" [or "Holiness"] simply means to be set apart for sacred use. It is removed from the realm of the common and moved to the sphere of the sacred.)

Malachi

Chapters

1 — 2 — 3 — 4

CHAPTER 1

(397 B.C.)

GOD'S LOVE FOR JACOB (ISRAEL)

[1] The burden of the Word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi. (Malachi was one of the three Prophets after the Exile, the others being Haggai and Zechariah; however, he ministered about 100 years later than Haggai and Zechariah. In fact, the greater bulk of his Ministry was during the time of Nehemiah's second visit to Jerusalem, of which we have only the barest and most summary account [Neh. 13:7-31].

Malachi's Book proves, as history affirms, that reformations and revivals are short-lived. It also demonstrates the corruption of the natural heart; for although God preferred Israel to Edom [1:2-5], had just delivered them from captivity, and blessed their land with abundance [Hag. 2:19]; yet, they questioned His Love, treated with contempt His worship, and put aside the Book of the Law.

After Malachi, there was no Prophet until John the Baptist, claiming an interval of prophetic darkness for about 400 years.)

[2] I have loved you, says the LORD. Yet you say, Wherein have You loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother? says the LORD: yet I loved Jacob ("I have loved you, says the LORD," is meant to proclaim to the people God's Love and its past action, in contrast to their ingratitude for that Love. The question, "Yet you say, Wherein have You loved us?", provides the unjust complaints of the people. They doubted God's Love and Faithfulness, because events had not turned out as they expected.

The question, "Was not Esau Jacob's brother?", was meant to draw Israel's attention to the miserable condition of the Edomites, who were descendants of Esau, in comparison to the fortunate and blessed condition of the Israelites, who were descendants of Jacob, despite their Spiritual declension! "Says the LORD: yet I loved Jacob," does not refer to an arbitrary choice. The Lord loved Jacob because Jacob loved Him),

3 And I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness. ("And I hated Esau," is used here as an idiom of preference [Lk. 14:25-27]. It does not express personal malice as we think of such presently. In fact, if Esau, as Jacob, would have honestly sought the Lord in Repentance, he would have been treated with the same kindness, love, and help that his brother, Jacob, received.

"And laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness," refers to the ultimate destruction of Edom, which sprang from the loins of Esau. By comparison, Israel was greatly blessed.)

4 Whereas Edom says, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus says the LORD of Hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD has indignation forever. ("Whereas Edom says," presents this country in defiance of God. Edom boasted that she would be restored; however, Edom never actually recovered its power. It became the prey of the Persians and others, with the Mohammedan conquests finally effecting its utter ruin.

"And they shall call them, The border of wickedness," means "the territory of iniquity." "The people against whom the LORD has indignation forever," is a statement spelling the doom, not only of this people, but also of any and all against whom it is uttered.

While the Lord is "angry with the wicked every day" [Ps. 7:11], the indignation spoken of here concerns an added infraction, which in Edom's case was their gloating over Judah's fall to the Babylonians.)

5 And your eyes shall see, and you shall say, The LORD will be magnified from the border of Israel. ("And your eyes shall see, and you shall say," portrays the very opposite concerning Israel, relative to Edom. The last phrase means that Israel will yet become as the Garden of Eden; and its beauty and fertility will magnify Jehovah-Messiah. This will transpire in the coming Kingdom Age.)

ISRAEL'S DISOBEDIENCE: SINS OF THE PRIESTS

[6] A son honors his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a Father, where is My Honour? and if I be a Master, where is My Fear? says the LORD of Hosts unto you, O Priests, who despise My Name. And you say, Wherein have we despised Your Name? (The Priests and the people despised the ineffable Name by agreeing that anything was good enough for God. They showed Him no respect, gratitude, or acceptable service. The Lord was the Father of Israel, and consequently, they were His Children. As such, they were to honor Him as any child, at least one who is trying to do right, would honor his Earthly father. However, they did not do such.)

[7] You offer polluted bread upon My Altar; and you say, Wherein have we polluted You? In that you say, The Table of the LORD is contemptible. ("You have offered bread upon My Altar," is a covering term for all Sacrifices. The word "pollution" spoke of imperfect Sacrifices, which is outlined in the next Verse.

The question, "And you say, Wherein have we polluted You?", means that they did not acknowledge the Truth that when the Sacraments were violated, He Himself, Whose Sacraments they were, was violated. It is ironical that they considered the ritual itself as containing Salvation, and yet they would offer improper Sacrifices!

The phrase, "In that you say, The Table of the LORD is contemptible," refers to the Brazen Altar. Even though they probably did not actually say the words, still, their actions did say it, and loudly!)

[8] And if you offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if you offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto your Governor; will he be pleased with you, or accept your person? sa ys the LORD of Hosts. (The question, "And if you offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil?", has reference to the Law of Moses, which ordered that the victims [lambs] should be perfect and without blemish [Lev. 22:19-25]. The question, "Offer it now unto your Governor, will he be pleased with you, or accept your person?", is speaking of the rulers set over Judah by the Persian King. The Lord is actually saying, "Would you dare offer such things to your Governor?", irrespective as to who the Governor was!)

9 And now, I pray you, beseech God that He will be gracious unto us: this has been by your means: will He regard your persons? says the LORD of Hosts. (The first phrase is not actually an earnest, sincere appeal of repentance, but rather irony. In other words, the Prophet is saying, "Will you come and beseech the Lord with these polluted sacrifices?" "This has been by your means," refers to the Priests, who were responsible for this disobedience to God's Word, for they were appointed to teach that Word [2:7].

The question, "Will He regard your persons? says the LORD of Hosts," actually has reference to the Priests acting as mediators, which they were called to do. The Lord is actually saying that He would not accept them as mediators between God and the people, simply because of their sinful actions.)

10 Who is there even among you who would shut the doors for nought? neither do you kindle fire on My Altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, sa ys the LORD of Hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand. (The idea of this Verse is: it would be morally better to close the Temple than to continue such hypocritical services; actually, the Priests had come to the place that they would not perform the smallest function without pay. "I have no pleasure in you, says the LORD of Hosts," is a striking term indeed! It points to God's Displeasure and places the blame at the doorstep of religious leadership.

"Neither will I accept an offering at your hand," refers to any type of Offering, even the "Meal Offerings," which were naturally pure and unpolluted. Presently, it strikes at motive of the heart for God not to accept what we give. Paul said that we give to the Lord "to prove the sincerity of our love" [II Cor. 8:8].)

GOD'S PLAN FOR THE MILLENNIUM: PURE WORSHIP UNIVERSAL

11 For from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same

My Name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto My Name, and a pure offering: for My Name shall be great among the heathen, says the LORD of Hosts. (The first phrase presents a prediction and was fulfilled when the Gospel went to the Gentiles [Acts, Chpt. 10]. Actually, this prediction has come to pass exactly as the Lord promised, with the Church made up mostly of "Gentiles." "And in every place incense shall be offered unto My Name, and a pure offering," refers to prayer and praise based on the Offering of Calvary [Heb. 9:14; 10:10], and presented by the Great High Priest, the Lord Jesus Christ [Heb. 13:15].)

THEIR HYPOCRISY AND CORRUPT OFFERINGS TO GOD

[12] But you have profaned it, in that you say, The Table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even His meat, is contemptible. ("But you have profaned it," refers to the fact that the Work of God can be profaned; tragically so, it is profaned most of the time! "In that you say, The Table of the LORD is polluted," refers to the Priests saying that it was polluted, but not for the same purpose and reason as spoken by the Lord.

The phrase, "And the fruit thereof, even His meat, is contemptible," is a complaint offered by the Priests of the sickly animals brought for Sacrifice, which provided them sustenance, because it was, as the next Verse proclaims, "torn, lame, and sick."

Of most of the Sacrifices offered, the Priests were to receive a portion of it for their own use, which provided a part of their living and sustenance for them and their families. However, the Sacrifices were so "contemptible" that there was nothing for the Priests. In other words, the people were bringing as Sacrifice their sickly animals instead of the best; this is what the Lord is addressing.

The Priests didn't care about the Lord being insulted — only that they didn't get what they wanted.)

[13] You said also, Behold, what a weariness is it! and you have snuffed at it, says the LORD of Hosts; and you brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus you brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand? says the LORD. (The first phrase portrays the Priests complaining because the service and worship of God was a drudgery. Such proclaims those who do not have a proper relationship with the Lord. "And you have snuffed it, says the LORD of Hosts," means that the people complained by sniveling at this service for God.

"And you brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick," means they gave to the Lord that which was of no service to them. In other words, they could not sell it or even give it away, so, in their minds, and inasmuch as the offerings were to be burned on the Brazen Altar, why not bring these "torn, lame, and sick"?

They completely misunderstood the meaning of the Sacrifices. It had degenerated until it was a mere ritual. They did not understand anymore that these Sacrifices represented the Coming Redeemer, the Lord Jesus Christ, and, as such, were to be "without blemish."

"Thus you brought an Offering," is said with contempt! The answer of the Lord is: "Should I accept this of your hand? says the LORD." The idea is: He did not accept it!)

14 But cursed be the deceiver, which has in his flock a male, and vows, and sacrifices unto the LORD a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, says the LORD of Hosts, and My Name is dreadful among the heathen. ("But cursed be the deceiver," concerned those who offered a female of "his flock," claiming that he had no male lamb, when such was not true. The phrase, "And vows, sacrifices unto the Lord a corrupt thing," concerns a vow made to the Lord and then paying it by presenting a blemished animal [Lev. 3:1, 6].

"For I am a great King, says the LORD of Hosts," is meant to portray the seriousness of the matter, in that God should be given our very best. A "Great King" deserves a "Great Sacrifice." "And My Name is dreadful among the heathen," refers to the tremendous miracles God has performed, of which the heathen were aware, and yet even though they held Him in high regard, His Own People showed Him nothing but disrespect.)

CHAPTER 2

GOD REBUKES HIS PRIESTS, WARNS THEM OF JUDGMENT

[1] And now, O you Priests, this Commandment is for you. (This reveals a pointed direction by the Holy Spirit and leaves absolutely no doubt as to who or what is intended. The first nine Verses of this Chapter form a special Message to the Priests; the remaining Verses, a special Message to the people. It is also a "Commandment" and not a suggestion!)

[2] If you will not hear, and if you will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto My Name, says the LORD of Hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your Blessings: yes, I have cursed them already, because you do not lay it to heart. ("If you will not hear," concerns the free moral agency of man. They can "hear" or refuse to "hear"! "And if you will not lay it to heart," speaks of the manner in which man responds to the Lord. It is not merely to be an intellectual response, but rather a "heart" response!

"I will even send a curse upon you," pertains to a blight upon all the efforts of the people. The phrase, "And I will curse your Blessings," actually means to stop the Blessings, and has to do with the first fourteen verses of Deut., Chpt. 28. In these verses, Blessing after Blessing is intoned; however, in Verses 15 through 68 of the same Chapter, curses are listed, which in the event of disobedience, will cancel out the Blessings; therefore, the Blessings were cursed because of sin!

The last phrase proclaims the fact that the curse had already begun to work with these Israelites.)

[3] Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and one shall take you away with it. (The idea of this Verse is: if they considered anything good enough for God, then anything was good enough for them. In effect, because they offered to Him in Sacrifice the "torn, lame, and sick," the Lord is saying they have offered no more than "dung." I wonder how the Lord looks at our offerings presently?)

4 And you shall know that I have sent this Commandment unto you, that My Covenant might be with Levi, says the LORD of Hosts. (The first phrase proclaims the fact that the Lord's threats are not being made in vain. In other words, God says what He means, and means what He says! The last phrase presents the Lord as saying that He desired to have a body of Priests who would keep their vows and maintain the true Priestly character.)

5 My Covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared Me, and was afraid before My Name. ("My Covenant was with him of life and peace," refers to that which God promised to these Levites, which pertained to the Blessings of life, abundance, prosperity, and also the privilege of serving as a Type of Christ, which, within itself, brought untold Blessings.

The Lord is referring to the Blessing pronounced on Phinehas for his conduct in the matter of Zimri [Num. 25:12-13]. That day, because of the faith of Phinehas, the Tribe of Levi won the Priesthood; a "Covenant" went with it, which conferred certain privileges and also involved certain duties.

"And I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared Me," simply means: "I gave him the fear of Me." This expresses man's part in the Covenant. In other words, the Blessings would come on the condition that he feared, reverenced, worshipped, and obeyed the Lord.

"And was afraid before My Name," means that Phinehas, with whom this original Covenant was made, and who was the High Priest of the Tribe of Levi, faithfully kept the Covenant before the Lord [Ex. 32:26-29; Num. 25:10-13]. Phinehas lived about a thousand years before, but is still used as an example.)

6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with Me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity. (The life and service of Phinehas, which all Priests who followed were to emulate, turned many to God, which is always to be the case, and proves that competent Spiritual leadership brings about the same in the people, i.e., "truth, peace, and equity.")

[7] For the Priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the Messenger of the LORD of Hosts. (Priests were to know the Word of God, should give that Word to the people, and do so in undiluted form, serving actually as "the Messenger of the LORD of Hosts.")

[8] But you are departed out of the way; you have caused many to stumble at the Law; you have corrupted the Covenant of Levi, sa ys the LORD of Hosts. (The Priests of Malachi's day made void this Covenant, causing many to stumble in the Law by superimposing their traditions [Mat. 15:3-6] and having respect of persons in administering the Law, which the next Verse proclaims. "But you are departed out of the way," means that the Priests of Malachi's time had departed from "the Law of Truth," thereby substituting something else to take its place.

"You have caused many to stumble at the Law," means that they did not properly teach the Law, which caused Spiritual weakness in the people [Ezek. 3:20]. "You have corrupted the Covenant of Levi, says the LORD of Hosts," pertains to the broken Covenant; therefore, Jehovah held Himself no longer bound by it; consequently, the "blessings" would be cursed.)

[9] Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as you have not kept My Ways, but have been partial in the Law. (Thus, these nine Verses record the corruption of Truth by the sons of Levi; and the following seven Verses, the violation of the institution of marriage by the people. Both violations resulted in disobedience to the Word of God. "Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people," means that as the Priests no longer honored Him, He no longer honored them.

"But have been partial in the Law," means that some people were given preferential treatment. As an example, when some brought sick animals to be used for Sacrifice, they were sorely reprimanded, while others were allowed to do so without rebuke!)

THE TREACHERY OF JUDAH; JUDGMENT FOR TREACHERY

[10] Have we not all one father? has not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the Covenant of our fathers? (The question, "Have we not all one father?", actually has a double reference. It speaks of Abraham and of God. The question, "Has not one God created us?", is not actually meant to portray the Lord as Creator of each person, but instead the Creator of Israel as a nation. So, in effect, they were saying that by simply being born a Jew, this meant they were saved!

The last phrase proclaims the Truth that when men began to break their Covenant with God, they then began to "deal treacherously" against their fellowman; even more specifically, against their "brother," i.e., in the Lord. The two, "violation of the Covenant" and "dealing treacherously," go hand in hand!)

[11] Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the Holiness of the LORD which He loved, and has married the daughter of a strange god. ("Judah has dealt treacherously," here has to do with Judah's dealings with the Lord, in that there were mixed marriages with heathen women. This was against the Law of God [Ex. 34:16; Deut. 7:3; Josh. 23:12-13]. "And an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem," is meant, by the mention of the two names of "Judah" and "Jerusalem," to mark the seriousness of this sin. The mention of these names marks God's Covenant with these people — the Mosaic Law.

"For Judah has profaned the Holiness of the LORD which He loved," portrays the result of this sin [intermarriage with foreign women] and of any sin. In other words, all sin is designed by Satan and carried out by the perpetrator, whether realized or not, as an affront against the "Holiness of the LORD."

"And has married the daughter of a strange god," referred to women who were idolatresses, i.e., they adhered to a foreign deity.)

[12] The LORD will cut off the man who does this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him who offers an offering unto the LORD of Hosts. ("The LORD will cut off the man who does this," refers to the sins of Verse 11. The words, "cut off," mean "to lose one's soul"! The phrase, "And him who offers an offering unto the LORD of Hosts," concerned all the people who came to offer Sacrifices at the Temple.)

[13] And this have you done again, covering the Altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that He regards not the offering any more, or receives it with good will at your hand. ("And this have you done again," refers to Ezra, nearly 100 years before, who had effected a reform in this same matter, but with the people now lapsing again into this same sin [Ezra, Chpt. 10]. We speak of Jews marrying "strange women," i.e., foreign women who worshipped "strange gods." Satan, once again, attempts to pull Israel back into idolatry.

"Covering the Altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out," does not pertain to hypocrisy, as some have thought, but instead to divorced wives and children who had been wronged, taking their case to the Lord. To be sure, as recorded here, the Lord saw their "tears" and heard their "crying."

"Insomuch that He regards not the offering any more, or receives it with good will at your hand," means that the wrongdoers [in this case, the husbands] could not assuage their sin with sacrifices. For the sin to be assuaged and the sacrifices to be effective, the problem had to be correctly addressed!)

[14] Yet you say, Wherefore? Because the LORD has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously: yet is she your companion, and the wife of your covenant. (The question, "Yet you say, Wherefore?", proclaims the Holy Spirit through the Prophet mimicking the people in their asking the Prophet just exactly why the Lord would not accept their sacrifices! They, as most, would not acknowledge their guilt. This question, "Wherefore?", shows they were as insensible to natural affection as to Divine affection. The latter insensibility quickly occasions the former.

The phrase, "Because the Lord has been witness between you and the wife of your youth," signifies the Lord seeing all and not being fooled whatsoever by the sacrifices, as He is not fooled presently! "Yet is she your companion, and the wife of your covenant," refers to the solemn vow made when the ceremony of marriage was engaged. In effect, it was "till death do us part."

One sin leads to another still deeper. The restored Exiles [Neh. 13:23], contrary to the Bible [Deut. 7:3], married heathen wives. To this evil they now added the deeper one of divorcing their Hebrew wives in order to marry a foreign woman.)

15 And did not He make one? Yet had He the residue of the Spirit. And wherefore one? that He might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.
(The question, "And did not He make one?", means that God made only one wife for Adam. This condemns polygamy [being married to several wives at the same time] and divorce! The phrase, "Yet had He the residue of the Spirit," means that God, being the Author of life, could have given Adam, if He so desired, many wives and so have instituted polygamy. Therefore, what God originally did and intended must not be changed.

The question, "And wherefore one?", has reference to Abraham, to whom God gave one wife and a godly seed by her [Isaac]. Malachi's critics objected that Abraham had two wives, referring to Sarah and Hagar, and that they might also, to which Malachi had a double reply: 1. Abraham took a second wife, not to gratify passion, but to procure an heir; and, 2. That in so acting, he grieved God and brought suffering upon himself and others. God's appointment of monogamy is here stated in order to produce holy children [I Chron. 7:14].

"Therefore take heed to your spirit," has to do with the corruption of one's own spirit, which leads to all types of sin, i.e., making one dead to the conviction of the Holy Spirit. "And let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth," has some inference to the beauty fading with the passing years, with the youth of the foreign women becoming more attractive, and even possibly more accessible. At any rate, it was a wicked direction these men were taking.)

16 For the LORD, the God of Israel, says that He hates putting away: for one covers vio lence with his garment, says the LORD of Hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that you deal not treacherously. ("For the LORD, the God of Israel," in its structure, portrays the tremendous significance of the statement about to be made. The phrase, "Says that He hates putting away," means that God hates divorce. The reasons should be obvious.

Divorce is contrary to God's original institution and, in effect, constitutes a direct attack on the sacredness of the home and family unit, which was originally prescribed by God in the Garden of Eden. There are two Scriptural conditions given for divorce and remarriage.

They are:

1. Fornication is committed by one partner [Mat. 5:32];

2. Desertion by one partner, and because of the Gospel; in other words, an unequal yoke [I Cor. 7:1-16].

The phrase, "For one covers violence with his garment, says the LORD of Hosts," is actually a negative term. The "garment" is used in the sense of the bridegroom casting the skirt of his garment over her who is betrothed to him [Ruth 3:9]. So the idea is: when one engages in divorce and remarriage without Scriptural grounds, one is throwing his "garment" over "violence," for such will be the end result of this action.

In view of these dire predictions, which most certainly are true because they are uttered by the Lord, divorce and remarriage should not even be considered unless there is absolutely no other alternative.)

17 You have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet you say, Wherein have we wearied Him? When you say, Everyone who does evil is good in the Sight of the LORD, and He delights in them; or, Where is the God of judgment? ("You have wearied the LORD with your words," concerns the very things these backslidden Jews were saying. This should cause us to realize and understand that God hears what we say, and He is either offended or gladdened by our statements.

The Jews were claiming that it really didn't matter too much what one did, inasmuch as some of the nations around them were idolatrous and wicked, and yet were prosperous, which seemed to mean, at least in their minds, that God approved of wickedness. The question, "Where is the God of judgment?", is a challenge to Malachi by these malcontents, that, in effect, said: "Produce proofs that God judges evil!" The answers to their accusations and questions are found in the first six Verses of Chapter 3.)

CHAPTER 3

MESSIAH'S FIRST ADVENT

[1] Behold, I will send My Messenger, and he shall prepare the way before Me: and the LORD, Whom you seek, shall suddenly come to His Temple, even the Messenger of the Covenant, Whom you delight in: behold, He shall come, says the LORD of Hosts. ("Behold, I will send My messenger, and he shall prepare the way before Me," predicts the First Advent of Christ, with 4:4-6 predicting the Second Advent. But the moral facts of the First cover both. Now Israel's question of 2:17 is answered. The "Messenger" is John the Baptist [Mat. 3:3; 11:10; Mk. 1:2-3; Lk. 1:76; 3:4; 7:26-27; Jn. 1:23].

"And he shall prepare the way before Me," means to remove moral obstacles and bring one to contrition of heart. This would happen some 400 years after being predicted by Malachi, speaking of John the Baptist preparing the way for Christ.

"And the LORD, Whom you seek, shall suddenly come to His Temple," actually means: "in Whom you delight." The Jews eagerly desired the coming of a conquering Prince who would set them at the head of the nations and endow them with wealth and glory. In effect, they had a totally erroneous conception of Who and What the Messiah would be! Israel did not desire a Judge Who would expose their sins.

"Even the Messenger of the Covenant, Whom you delight in," proclaims Christ as the Messenger not only of the First Covenant [Ex. 3:2-6; Acts 7:38], but also the Messenger of the Second. This "Messenger" is Christ and not the "messenger" of the first phrase, who is John the Baptist.

"Behold, He shall come, says the LORD of Hosts," proclaims the certitude of this action. In other words, this is not a conditional Prophecy, but rather an unconditional Prophecy, meaning that whatever happens, at the appointed time, Christ would come. And so He did!)

MESSIAH'S SECOND ADVENT

[2] But who may abide the day of His Coming? and who shall stand when He appears? for He is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap (Verses 2 and 3 are another instance of the First and Second Comings of Christ being referred to in the same Passage.

The question, "But who may abide the day of His Coming?", addresses the accusation of the Jews to Malachi, "Where is the God of Judgment?" As well, this phrase speaks of His Second Coming rather than His First.

The question, "And who shall stand when He appears?", concerns Him coming with Power, Glory, and with vengeance on the Antichrist and on all who are associated with this evil despot. At that time, Christ will judge the nations [Mat. 25:31-43]. Israel, at that time, will be judged as well! Then, the question, "Where is the God of Judgment?", will be answered.

"For He is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap," defines the manner in which He will judge all. The "refiner's fire" separates the precious metal from the refuse. "Fullers' soap" speaks of cleansing [Zech. 13:1]):

[3] And He shall sit as a Refiner and Purifier of silver: and He shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in Righteousness. ("And He shall sit as a Refiner and Purifier of silver," refers to the purifier who sits watching the silver and maintaining the temperature; directly when he sees his face reflected in the metal, he stops the process. In other words, when the Lord sees Himself sufficiently in Israel, He will then say, "It is enough," and the dire process of "refining" and "purifying" will be ended. In essence, the time of "Jacob's Trouble" will be forever ended [Jer. 30:7].

"And He shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver," refers to Judgment beginning at the House of God. "That they may offer unto the LORD an offering in Righteousness," speaks of True Repentance, in which these "sons of Levi" will, at long last, engage; they will, in turn, receive the True "Righteousness," which only Christ can give.)

ISRAEL RESTORED

4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years. (The word "Then" refers to the Second Advent of Christ, when He shall come back to judge and purify men. After Israel's True Repentance, "Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD." "As in the days of old, and as in former years," refers to the times when the Sacrifices were offered in the right attitude and spirit, pointing to the One Who was to come, namely Christ.

To be sure, as the Book of Ezekiel bears out, the Sacrifices will be maintained in the coming Kingdom Age as a memorial.)

JUSTICE WILL BE METED OUT

5 And I will come near to you to Judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those who oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not Me, says the LORD of Hosts. (They had asked the question in 2:17, "Where is the God of Judgment?" He now tells them, and in no uncertain terms, "I will come near to you in Judgment." Witchcraft, immorality, false prophets, and those who practice injustice will be judged.

"And that turn aside the stranger from his right," refers to Israel forgetting that they were "strangers" in Egypt, and that they should ever remember this by treating all "strangers" kindly! "And fear not Me, says the LORD of Hosts," proclaims the reason for practicing these sins. There is no fear of God!)

6 For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore you sons of Jacob are not consumed. ("For I am the LORD, I change not," refers to the Nature and

Character of God, which cannot change. "Therefore you sons of Jacob are not consumed," pertains to the Lord having made Covenants with the Patriarchs, and those Covenants being kept by Him [Gen. 12:1-3; Chpt. 15; Hag. 2:20-23; Zeph. 3:18-20, etc.].

The reason why the Hebrews were not as totally destroyed as the Philistines and other nations was because of the unchangeableness of God's electing Love and Promises. To be sure, these Promises were not secured by Israel's unchangeable love to God, but by His unchangeable Love to them.)

7 Even from the days of your fathers you are gone away from My Ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto Me, and I will return unto you, says the LORD of Hosts. But you said, Wherein shall we return? (The first phrase pertains to the displacement of the Holy Scriptures as the authority and rule of life. Such originated declension and corruption. "And have not kept them," refers to the Holy Spirit through the Prophet bluntly telling them that despite what they say, they have not adhered to the Word of God.

"Return unto Me, and I will return unto you," is a plea for Repentance and is as simple as the language enjoined. The question, "But you said, Wherein shall we return?", proclaims Israel so spiritually deadened that they did not even know their true Spiritual condition.)

8 Will a man rob God? Yet you have robbed Me. But you say, Wherein have we robbed You? In Tithes and offerings. (The question, "Will a man rob God?", is blunt and to the point; it instantly portrayed Israel's present condition, in that they had, in fact, robbed God! "Yet you have robbed Me!" proclaims unequivocally that they had robbed God, which is a serious charge indeed!

The question, "But you say, Wherein have we robbed You?", brings back the quick answer through the Prophet, "In Tithes and offerings." Some claim that "tithes" are a part of the old Mosaic system and are not applicable under the New Covenant! However, paying tithes was practiced long before the Law [Gen. 14:20; 28:22]; it was also commanded under Grace in the New Testament [Mat. 23:23; Rom. 2:22; I Cor. 9:7-14; 16:2; Gal. 6:6; Heb. 7:1-10].

Abraham, a type of all Believers, paid tithes to Melchizedek, a Type of Christ [Gen. 14:20], which sets the standard; inasmuch as we are children of Abraham, we are to continue to pay tithes to the Work of God, which, in effect, is the propagation of the Message of Christ and Him Crucified [Gal. 3:6-7; I Cor. 1:23].)

9 You are cursed with a curse: for you have robbed Me, even this whole nation. ("You are cursed with a curse," is dire indeed! The effect of this curse was scarcity and barrenness, as we see from Verses 10 through 12. Robbing God of tithes and offerings brings a curse. These belong to God by virtue of Covenant agreements with man; to use them for personal gain is robbery of that which rightly belongs to Him.

The phrase, "For you have robbed Me, even this whole nation," proclaims the reason for the poverty, among other things, of the nations of the world.)

10 Bring you all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in My House, and prove Me now herewith, says the LORD of Hosts, if I will not open you the Windows of Heaven, and pour you out a Blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. ("Bring you all the tithes into the storehouse," referred to the Temple and cities of the Levites under the Old Covenant. Under the New Covenant, it refers to the place where one's soul is fed, wherever that might be. Some have claimed that the local Church is the "storehouse" where all giving is to be brought; however, that is incorrect, inasmuch as those who propose such fail to understand what "Church" actually is! "Church" is made up of all members of the Body of Christ, irrespective of who they are or where they are. It has nothing to do with the building, organization, or religious institution. It is the "Message" which must be supported — not an institution.

The phrase, "That there may be meat in My House," has reference to the support of the Priesthood in the Temple of old. The Lord has no such "house" at present, because Jesus fulfilled all that the ancient Temple represented, with Him now residing through the agency of the Holy Spirit in the hearts and lives of all Believers [I Cor. 3:16].

"And prove Me now herewith, says the LORD of Hosts," presents a challenge presented by the Lord for men to prove Him regarding the rewards of tithing. "If I will not open you the Windows of Heaven, and pour you out a Blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it," speaks of a superabundant amount. The same phrase, "Windows of Heaven," is used in Gen. 7:11 regarding the flood; therefore, we are speaking of Blessings unparalleled!)

11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, sa ys the LORD of Hosts. (In the first phrase, the Holy Spirit uses the word "devourer"; then, He uses the pronoun "he," symbolizing a personality behind the destruction, i.e., Satan. As well, the word "rebuke" means "to turn back" or "keep down."

So, if we fail to give to God, the Lord proclaims that He will not turn back the "devourer." This will result in the "fruits" of our efforts being destroyed. To give to God means the opposite. Crops will be abundant, with efforts resulting in prosperity.

The last phrase simply speaks of the harvest being gathered, and abundantly so, and not being lost.)

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for you shall be a delightsome land, says the LORD of Hosts. (The first phrase speaks of the Blessings of the Lord as being so abundant that other nations will enquire as to the reason.)

13 Your words have been stout against Me, says the LORD. Yet you say, What have we spoken so much against You? (The manner in which the Lord used Malachi is different than any other Prophet. The accusation by the Lord is given, with the remonstrance of the people also given. Such left absolutely no room for doubt as to what was being said.

"Your words have been stout against Me," portrays their deeds having been exposed, their words are now recalled. They were "words" against God! The question, "Yet you say, What have we spoken so much against You?", has to do with what they said in their conversations one with another. Now, He will tell them exactly what they have said and the reason they said it!)

14 You have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept His Ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of Hosts? ("You have said, It is vain to serve God," once again harks back to 2:17. The word "vain" means "empty nothings," and claims them saying that serving God brought no acknowledgement or reward.

The question, "And what profit is it that we have kept His Ordinance?", has to do with His Commandments and Laws. In effect, they had not "kept His Ordinances," willfully deceiving themselves and others by pretending obedience they never really did.

The question, "And that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of Hosts?", concerned their fasts that they had entered into, of which the Lord had already spoken years before through Zechariah, "Did you at all fast unto Me, even to Me?" [Zech. 7:5]. These "fasts" were merely religious observances and were not out of reverence and awe to Jehovah.)

15 And now we call the proud happy; ye s, they who work wickedness are set up; yes, they who tempt God are even delivered. (The first phrase proclaims Israel as considering the "happy ones" to be those who scoffed at God, who seemingly were prosperous. They fell into the same trap as Asaph of old, as is recorded in Psalm 73.

"Yes, they who work wickedness are set up," means that these wicked have wealth and families and leave a name behind them; their not serving God seemed to have brought them no ill consequences. The phrase, "Yes, they who tempt God are even delivered," means that they, whoever they may have been, provoked God by their sin and rebellion and yet escaped punishment. In other words, they resist God and are yet safe.

Let it, however, ever be known: The "tempting of God" may, for a time, evoke only silence from Jehovah; but ultimately, there will be a reckoning day.)

16 Then they who feared the LORD spoke often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before Him for them who feared the LORD, and who thought upon His Name. (Irrespective of the majority in Israel, the Lord had then, as now, those who loved and feared Him. "Then they who feared the LORD spoke often one to another," proclaims the necessity of united worship, even though it may be only "two or three" [Mat. 18:20]. As well, the word "often" should proclaim the necessary frequency.

"And the LORD hearkened, and heard it," means that He attends every service, even as He said in Mat. 18:20. The last phrase portrays Heaven lovingly recording the worship of little groups of believing people whom Earth despises. What intense interest these records will excite when published in the coming Millennial Day!)

[17] And they shall be Mine, says the LORD of Hosts, in that day when I make up My Jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him. ("And they shall be Mine, says the LORD of Hosts," has reference to these precious ones as being His Peculiar Treasure. They lived for Him, served Him, and were faithful to Him, when most did the very opposite. "In that day when I make up My Jewels," has reference to the jewels on the Breastplate of the High Priest; likewise, the Lord considers each Believer as a "jewel." The last phrase refers to the fact that these "jewels" will never be judged in a negative sense.)

[18] Then shall you return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God and him who serves Him not. ("Then shall you return," refers to the proud skeptics and oppressors of Verses 7 and 15. These denied any distinction on the part of God between a righteous man and a wicked man; but the day appointed by God will compel them to turn from their skepticism, and to recognize and confess that God does distinguish between His Servants and His enemies [3:17; 4:1, 3].

The "Then" of Verse 18 is to be contrasted with the "Then" of Verse 16. The latter is the Believer's present day of affliction; the former, the unbeliever's future day of doom. "And discern between the righteous and the wicked," means that the day is coming when there will be absolutely no doubt as to God's Direction.

The phrase, "Between him who serves God and him who serves Him not," is actually what everything boils down to. Men are either serving Him or they are not serving Him. There is no in-between!)

CHAPTER 4

(397 B.C.)

DESTRUCTION OF THE UNGODLY

[1] For, behold, the day comes, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yes, and all who do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that comes shall burn them up, says the LORD of Hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. ("For, behold, the day comes," has a double meaning: 1. It refers to the coming Battle of Armageddon, which will precipitate the Coming of the Lord, Who will come with flaming fire; and, 2. It refers to the "Great White Throne Judgment," which will take place after the Millennial Reign [Rev. 20:11-15].

The latter phrase refers to the coming day when the entirety of the Earth shall be cleansed by fire. It pertains to the coming New heavens and New Earth [II Pet. 3:12-13]. "Neither root nor branch," means that not one vestige of sin nor rebellion against God will remain anywhere in the universe. Peter likened it to a "New Earth wherein dwells Righteousness.")

SALVATION FOR THE RIGHTEOUS

[2] But unto you who fear My Name shall the Sun of Righteousness arise with healing in His Wings; and you shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall. ("But unto you who fear My Name," refers to the small remnant of 3:16. It refers to all who, from the very beginning, have truly lived for God. "Shall the Sun of Righteousness arise with healing in His Wings," pertains to the Second Advent of Christ, when He will come back, bringing healing to every person on Earth, not only for physical sickness, but for Spiritual sickness, as well!

Here, Christ is compared to the "Sun," with its healing rays of light coming over the Earth [Isa. 30:26]. As well, the word "wings" does not refer, at least in this case, as wings would normally be understood, but actually refers to something that is overspreading. The Hebrew word is "kanaph," which means "an edge or extremity." When Christ comes back in what is referred to as the "Second Coming," healing rays will be coming from Him in a way that can only be compared with the "Sun."

The last phrase is a symbolism expressing great joy. When calves are released from the stall into a sunny field, they skip for joy.)

THE WICKED TRODDEN DOWN BY THE RIGHTEOUS AT ARMAGEDDON

[3] And you shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, says the LORD of Hosts. (The proud now treat as dirt beneath their feet the confessors of Messiah's Name. In the future, that position will be reversed. "In the day that I shall do this, says the LORD of Hosts," pertains to the coming Kingdom Age, when Righteousness shall prevail, with Christ ruling supremely over the entirety of the Earth. Now, and sadly so, unrighteousness prevails. But, in the coming Glad Day, Righteousness will be the order of all mankind.)

THE COMMAND TO OBEY GOD'S LAWS

[4] Remember you the Law of Moses My servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, with the Statutes and Judgments. ("Remember you the Law of Moses My servant," addresses the last command in the Old Testament, for Malachi would be the last Prophet before John the Baptist, a time frame of some 400-plus years. When Christ came, the Law of Moses would be abolished and annulled on the Cross [II Cor., Chpt. 3; Gal., 3:19-25; 4:21-31; Col. 2:14-17; Heb., Chpts. 7-10]. Consequently, the remembering of the Law of Moses, with its "Statutes" and "Judgments," was a requirement for the period before Christ, but does not apply to the time of the New Covenant.

Of course, that which applied to moral particulars was carried over into the New Testament and is certainly to be "remembered" and adhered to.

However, the moral law is kept perfectly when one places one's Faith entirely in Christ and what He did for us at the Cross [Rom. 8:1-2].)

THE LAST PROPHECY TO JUDAH BEFORE MESSIAH'S FIRST ADVENT; THE COMING OF ELIJAH BEFORE MESSIAH'S SECOND ADVENT

5 Behold, I will send you Elijah the Prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD (the phrase, "Behold, I will send you Elijah the Prophet," does not refer to the coming of John the Baptist, who only came in the spirit of Elijah. It actually refers to "Elijah the Prophet," who was translated about 500 years before the time of Malachi, and who will be sent back to the Earth by the Lord in the midst of the coming Great Tribulation.

At that time, he and Enoch of Rev. 11:3 will be used of God mightily as they prophesy in Jerusalem. Their Ministry will last for the entirety of the last three and a half years of the Great Tribulation. Both will be killed by the Antichrist at the end of the Great Tribulation, "when they shall have finished their testimony." However, after three and a half days, they will be resurrected and raptured [Rev. 11:11-12].

*As John the Baptist prepared the way for the First Advent of Christ, these two, Elijah and Enoch, will prepare the way for the Second Coming of Christ. "Before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD," addresses the coming Great Tribulation, and, more specifically, the Second Coming. It will be a "great day" for God's People and a "dreadful day" for His enemies!):

6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the Earth with a curse. (The first phrase proclaims "Elijah" and "Enoch" beginning the process, in the latter half of the Great Tribulation, of "turning the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers." The "fathers" speak of the Patriarchs and Prophets of old. "Lest I come and smite the Earth with a curse," proclaims the obvious fact that there is no word following "curse" in this last Verse of the Old Covenant, meaning there is more to follow. Thank God!

In contrast, the word "Amen" follows the last words of the Book of Revelation, closing out the Canon of Scripture, because after "Grace," which is the theme of the Ministry of Christ, there is nothing left to be said but "Amen." Thank God! The world was not left with the "curse," but Jesus Christ came and "redeemed us from the curse of the Law, being made a curse for us" [Gal. 3:13].

Hallelujah!)

CHAPTER 1

(A.D. 1)

THE GENEALOGY OF JESUS CHRIST

1 The Book (account) of the generation (lineage) of Jesus Christ (Saviour, Messiah), the Son of David, the Son of Abraham (the Incarnation, God becoming man [Isa. 7:14; II Sam. 7:16, 19; Gen. 12:1-3; 17:7; Gal. 3:16]).

2 Abraham begat (fathered) Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

3 And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

4 And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon;

5 And Salmon begat Boaz of Rahab (Rahab was not the actual mother of Boaz, but his mother several times removed); and Boaz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse;

6 And Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her who had been the wife of Uriah;

7 And Solomon begat Rehoboam; and Rehoboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa;

8 And Asa begat Jehoshaphat; and Jehoshaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias;

9 And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias;

10 And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias;

11 And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon (about 593 B.C.):

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zerubbabel;

13 And Zerubbabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;

14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud;

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob;

16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus (Saviour), Who is called Christ (the Anointed, the Messiah).

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

THE BIRTH OF JESUS CHRIST

18 Now the Birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as His Mother Mary was espoused (engaged) to Joseph, before they came together (before they were married), she was found with Child of the Holy Spirit (by decree of the Holy Spirit).

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily (to quietly break the engagement).

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the Angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto you Mary your wife; for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit.

21 And she shall bring forth a Son, and you shall call His Name JESUS (Saviour): for He shall save His people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the Prophet, saying,

23 Behold, a Virgin shall be with Child, and shall bring forth a Son, and they shall call His Name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us (Isa. 7:14).

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the Angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife (immediately went ahead with the wedding ceremony):

25 And knew her not (had no sexual relations with her) till she had brought forth her Firstborn Son: and he called His Name JESUS (meaning Saviour; after the Birth of Christ, Joseph did have relations with Mary, with four other boys being born, and several sisters [Mat. 13:55-56]).

CHAPTER 2

(A.D. 1)

THE VISIT OF THE MAGI FROM THE EAST

[1] Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea (Mic. 5:2) in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came Wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

[2] Saying, Where is He Who is born King of the Jews? for we have seen His Star in the east, and are come to worship Him.

[3] When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

[4] And when he had gathered all the Chief Priests and Scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

[5] And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written by the Prophet,

[6] And thou Bethlehem, in the Land of Judah, are not the least among the princes of Judah: for out of you shall come a Governor, Who shall rule My people Israel (Mic. 5:2).

[7] Then Herod, when he had privily (privately) called the Wise men, inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

[8] And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when you have found Him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship Him also.

[9] When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young Child was (not Bethlehem, but some other place, maybe Nazareth).

10 When they saw the star (where the star stopped), they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 And when they were come into the house (not the stable where He was born in Bethlehem), they saw the young Child with Mary His Mother, and fell down, and worshipped Him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto Him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

THE FLIGHT INTO EGYPT

13 And when they were departed, behold, the Angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young Child and His Mother, and flee into Egypt, and stay there until I bring you word: for Herod will seek the young Child to destroy Him.

14 When he arose, he took the young Child and His Mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the Prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called My Son (Hos. 11:1).

SLAUGHTER OF THE CHILDREN IN BETHLEHEM

16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the Wise men (they ignored his demand that when they found the Child, they were to come back and report to him), was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and killed all the children who were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the Wise men (these words decide that two years, or nearly so, had elapsed since Herod had seen the Wise men).

[17] Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the Prophet, saying,

[18] In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not (Jer. 31:15).

THE RETURN FROM EGYPT TO NAZARETH

[19] But when Herod was dead, behold, an Angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt (this is the third of four dreams given to Joseph by the Lord), [20] Saying, Arise, and take the young Child and His Mother, and go into the Land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young Child's life.

[21] And he arose, and took the young Child and His Mother, and came into the Land of Israel.

[22] But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judaea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee (the fourth and final dream recorded as given by the Lord to Joseph):

[23] And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene (the word "Nazarene" is meant to portray the action instead of the location; He would be despised, as Nazareth was despised [Jn. 1:46]).

CHAPTER 3

(A.D. 29)

THE PREACHING OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

[1] In those days (immediately preceding the introduction of Christ) came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea (the area near Jericho);

[2] And saying, Repent you (recognize one's wrong direction): for the Kingdom of Heaven (Kingdom from the heavens, headed up by Jesus Christ) is at hand (was being offered to Israel).

[3] For this is he (John the Baptist) who was spoken of by the Prophet Isaiah, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare you the Way of the LORD, make His paths straight (Isa. 40:3).

[4] And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leather girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

[5] Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the region round about Jordan (the Jordan River),

[6] And were baptized of him in Jordan (dipped completely under), confessing their sins.

[7] But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees (two sects of self-righteous and zealous Jews) come to his baptism (Water Baptism), he said unto them, O generation of vipers (snakes), who has warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

[8] Bring forth therefore fruits (evidence) meet for (befitting) Repentance:

[9] And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father

(pride): for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham (the Lord has raised up the Gentiles as children unto Abraham [Gal. 3:7, 14]).

10 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which brings not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire (Israel was cut down because of unbelief [Rom. 11:20]).

11 I indeed baptize you with water unto Repentance (Water Baptism was an outward act of an inward work already carried out): but He (Christ) Who comes after me is mightier than I, Whose Shoes I am not worthy to bear: He shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit, and with fire (to burn out the sinful dross [Acts 2:2-4]):

12 Whose fan is in His Hand (the ancient method for winnowing grain), and He will thoroughly purge His Floor ("purging it, that it may bring forth more fruit" [Jn. 15:2]), and gather His Wheat into the garner (the end product as developed by the Spirit); but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire (the wheat is symbolic of the Work of the Spirit, while the chaff is symbolic of the work of the flesh).

JOHN'S BAPTISM OF JESUS

13 Then came Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him (signifying the greatest moment in human history thus far; the earthly Ministry of Christ would now begin).

14 But John forbad Him, saying, I have need to be baptized of You, and come You to me?

15 And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now (permit Me to be baptized): for thus it becomes us to fulfill all Righteousness (Water Baptism is a type of the death, burial, and Resurrection of Christ [Rom. 6:3-5]). Then he suffered Him.

16 And Jesus, when He was baptized (this was the beginning of His earthly Ministry), went up straightway (immediately) out of the water (refers to Baptism by immersion and not by sprinkling)*: and, lo, the Heavens were opened unto Him (the only One, the Lord Jesus Christ, to Whom the Heavens would be opened), and he saw the Spirit of God (Holy Spirit) descending like a dove, and lighting upon Him (John saw a visible form that reminded him of a dove):

[17] And lo a Voice from Heaven, saying (the Voice of God the Father), This is My Beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased (the Trinity appears here: the Father speaks, the Spirit descends, and the Son prays [Lk. 3:21]).

CHAPTER 4

(A.D. 29)

THE TEMPTATION OF JESUS IN THE WILDERNESS

[1] Then (immediately after the descent of the Holy Spirit upon Him) was Jesus led up (urgently led) of the Spirit (Holy Spirit) into the wilderness (probably close to Jericho) to be tempted of the Devil (as the Last Adam, He would be tempted in all points like as we are [Heb. 4:15; I Cor. 15:21-22, 45, 47]).

[2] And when He had fasted forty days and forty nights, He was afterward hungry (other than Christ, three men in the Bible fasted forty days and forty nights: Moses [Deut. 9:9, 18, 25; 10:10], Joshua [Ex. 24:13-18; 32:15-17], and Elijah [I Ki. 19:7-8]).

[3] And when the tempter (Satan) came to Him, he said, If You be the Son of God (since You are the Son of God), command that these stones be made bread (Christ was tempted to use His Power for His Own benefit, which He was to never do).

[4] But He answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every Word that proceeds out of the Mouth of God ([Deut. 8:3]; man is a spiritual being as well as a physical being; therefore, dependent on God).

[5] Then the Devil took Him up (a powerful force) into the Holy City (Jerusalem), and set Him on a pinnacle of the Temple (its highest point, which Josephus stated, was about 700 feet from the ravine below),

[6] And said unto Him, If You be the Son of God (since You are the Son of God), cast Yourself down (literally spoken): for it is written, He shall give His Angels charge concerning You: and in their hands they shall bear

You up, lest at any time You dash Your foot against a stone (derived from Psalms 91:11-12).

[7] Jesus said unto him, It is written again, you shall not tempt the Lord your God ([Deut. 6:16]; to tempt God is to question His Word, which casts doubt on His ability to do what He has promised).

[8] Again (the third temptation), the Devil took Him up into an exceeding high mountain (not definitely known, but probably Nebo), and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them (showed them to Him, not in a physical sense, but rather in a spiritual sense);

[9] And said unto Him, All these things will I give You, if You will fall down and worship me (the temptation was that Christ abrogate the Cross, through which He would regain all things).

[10] Then said Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan (presents Christ for the first time Personally addressing Satan): for it is written, you shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only shall you serve (Satan desires that mankind worship and serve him; we are to worship and serve the Lord Alone).

[11] Then the Devil left Him ("departed from Him for a season," meaning that there would be other temptations [Lk. 4:13]), and, behold, Angels came and ministered unto Him (in what manner they ministered, we aren't told).

JESUS BEGINS HIS MINISTRY; REJECTED IN NAZARETH — MOVES TO CAPERNAUM

[12] Now when Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison (John's Ministry was now finished; he had properly introduced Christ), He (Jesus) departed into Galilee (where the central core of His Ministry would be);

[13] And leaving Nazareth (refers to His rejection there [Lk. 4:16-30]), He came and dwelt in Capernaum (made this city His Headquarters), which is upon the sea coast (refers to the Sea of Galilee), in the borders of

Zabulon and Nephthalim (refers to these two Tribes bordering the Sea of Galilee)**:

[14] That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the Prophet, saying (Isaiah prophesied of Christ more than any other Prophet)**,

[15] The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthalim, by the way of the sea (Sea of Galilee), beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles (the great Roman Road ran near the Sea of Galilee from Damascus; almost all Gentiles traveling in this direction did so on this road; the Headquarters of Christ was within the confines of the Tribe of Naphtali)**;

[16] The people which sat in darkness (implies a settled acceptance of this darkness; the moral darkness was even greater than the national misery) saw great Light (Christ is the Light of the world, and the only True Light); and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death (spiritual death is the result of this spiritual darkness) light (spiritual illumination in Christ) is sprung up.

[17] From that time (the move to Capernaum) Jesus began to preach (the major method of the proclamation of the Gospel), and to say, Repent (beginning His Ministry, the first word used by Christ, as recorded by Matthew, was "Repent"): for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand (the Kingdom from Heaven, headed up by Christ, for the purpose of reestablishing the Kingdom of God over the Earth; the Kingdom was rejected by Israel)**.

JESUS CALLS FOUR FISHERMEN

[18] And Jesus, walking by the Sea of Galilee, saw two Brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishermen.

[19] And He said unto them, Follow Me (the Messiah's advent was signaled by three great words: "Repent," "Follow," and "Blessed" [Mat. 5:3]), and I will make you fishers of men (the greatest call of all)**.

[20] And they straightway (immediately) left their nets (their fishing business), and followed Him.

[21] And going on from thence, He saw other two Brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and He called them (the first three called, Peter, James, and John, were the closest to Christ).

[22] And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed Him (He called them to a higher fishing, as He called David to a higher feeding [Ps. 78:70-72]).

SECOND TOUR OF GALILEE; JESUS' FAME SPREADS

[23] And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their Synagogues, and preaching (preaching proclaims the Gospel, while Teaching explains it) the Gospel of the Kingdom (the good news of the establishment upon Earth of the perfect Government of Heaven; as stated, it was rejected), and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people (Jesus is not only the Saviour; He as well is the Healer).

[24] And His fame went throughout all Syria (the account of what He did went beyond the borders of Israel): and they brought unto Him all sick people who were taken with divers (different kinds) diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils (demons), and those which were lunatic (insane, whether by demon possession, or physical disabilities), and those who had the palsy, and He healed them (He turned no one away).

[25] And there followed Him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis (the eastern side of the Jordan River), and from Jerusalem, and from Judaea, and from beyond Jordan.

CHAPTER 5

(A.D. 31)

SERMON ON THE MOUNT: INTRODUCTION

[1] And seeing the multitudes, He went up into a mountain (unknown, but probably was a small mountain near the Sea of Galilee; two sermons, both delivered on mountains, opened and closed the Lord's public Ministry; the last was upon Olivet near Jerusalem [Mat., Chpt. 24]): and when He was set (He sat down in order to Teach, which was the custom at that time), His Disciples came unto Him (referring not to the Twelve, but to any and all who closely followed Him at that time)**:

[2] And He opened His Mouth (signifying a carefully thought out Message of purpose and will), and taught them, saying (begins the greatest moment of spiritual and Scriptural instruction that had ever been given in the history of mankind)**,

THE BEATITUDES

[3] Blessed (happy) are the poor in spirit (conscious of moral poverty): for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven (the moral characteristics of the citizens of the Kingdom of the heavens; and so it is apparent that the New Birth is an absolute necessity for entrance into that Kingdom [Jn. 3:3]; this Kingdom is now present spiritually, but not yet physically)**.

[4] Blessed are they who mourn (grieved because of personal sinfulness): for they shall be comforted (what the Holy Spirit will do for those who properly evaluate their spiritual poverty)**.

[5] Blessed are the meek (the opposite of the self-righteous; the first two Beatitudes guarantee the "meekness"): for they shall inherit the earth (speaks of the coming Kingdom Age, when the "Kingdom of Heaven" will be brought down to Earth, when the Saints will rule, with Christ as its Supreme Lord).

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst (intense desire) after Righteousness (God's Righteousness, imputed by Christ, upon Faith in His Finished Work): for they shall be filled (but first of all must be truly empty of all self-worth).

7 Blessed are the merciful (shows itself in action which goes beyond the thought): for they shall obtain mercy (to obtain mercy from God, we must show mercy to others).

8 Blessed are the pure in heart (those who have received a new moral nature in regeneration): for they shall see God (will see Him manifest Himself in one's life).

9 Blessed are the peacemakers (pertains to peace with God, which comes with Salvation, and all who proclaim such are called "peacemakers"): for they shall be called the Children of God (expresses the "peacemaker" and the one who has received the "peace").

10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for Righteousness' sake (means that those who operate from the realm of self-righteousness will persecute those who trust in God's "Righteousness"): for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven (having God's Righteousness, which is solely in Christ, such have the Kingdom of Heaven).

11 Blessed are you, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for My sake (only Christ could say, "For My sake," for He is God; there is an offence to the Cross [Gal. 5:11]).

12 Rejoice (the present inner result of one who is "blessed"), and be exceeding glad (self-righteousness persecuting Righteousness is the guarantee of the possession of Righteousness, and the occasion for great joy): for great is your reward in Heaven (meaning it will not necessarily come while on Earth): for so persecuted they the Prophets which were before you (presents the fact that "God's Way" will bring "persecution," severely so, at times by both the world and the Church)**.

BELIEVERS ARE AS SALT AND LIGHT

[13] You are the salt (preservative) of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men ("Salt" is a Type of the Word of God; the professing Believer who no longer holds to the Word is of no use to God or man)**.

[14] You are the Light of the world (we are a reflector of the Light which comes from Christ). A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid (proper light will not, and in fact, cannot be hid)**.

[15] Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick (the light is not to be hid); and it gives light unto all who are in the house (that is the purpose of the light)**.

[16] Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works (proper Faith will always produce proper works, but proper works will never produce proper Faith), and glorify your Father which is in Heaven (proper works will glorify our Heavenly Father, while improper works glorify man)**.

CHRIST AND THE LAW

[17] Think not that I am come to destroy the Law (this was the Law of Moses), or the Prophets (the predictions of the Prophets of the Old Testament): I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill (Jesus fulfilled the Law by meeting its just demands with a Perfect Life, and satisfying its curse by dying on the Cross [Gal. 3:13])**.

[18] For verily I say unto you (proclaims the ultimate authority!), Till Heaven and Earth pass (means to be changed, or pass from one condition to another, which will take place in the coming Perfect Age [Rev., Chpts.

21-22]), one jot (smallest letter in the Hebrew alphabet) or one tittle (a minute ornamental finish to ancient Hebrew letters) shall in no wise pass from the Law, till all be fulfilled (the Law was meant to be fulfilled in Christ, and was in fact, totally fulfilled by Christ, in His Life, Death, and Resurrection, with a New Testament or New Covenant being brought about [Acts 15:5-29; Rom. 10:4; II Cor. 3:6-15; Gal. 3:19-25; 4:21-31; 5:1-5, 18; Eph. 2:15; Col. 2:14-17]).

19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least Commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the Kingdom of Heaven (those who are disloyal to the authority of the Word of God shall be judged; "He shall be called the least," means that he will not be in the Kingdom at all): but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven (the Lord sets the Bible as the Standard of all Righteousness, and He recognizes no other).

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the Scribes and Pharisees (which was self-righteousness), you shall in no case enter into the Kingdom of Heaven (the absolute necessity of the New Birth is declared here as imperative in every case).

JESUS AND ANGER

21 You have heard that it was said by them of old time (referring back to the Law of Moses), Thou shall not kill (should have been translated, You shall not murder); and whosoever shall kill (murder) shall be in danger of the judgment (Ex. 20:13; Lev. 24:21; Num., Chpt. 35; Deut. 5:17; 19:12);

22 But I say unto you (Christ gives the true interpretation of the Bible, with in fact, the Bible and Christ, in essence, being one and the same), That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause (places unjust anger in the same category as murder, i.e., "springs from an evil heart") shall be in danger of the judgment (certain of judgment): and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca (the words "Raca" and "thou fool" were Hebrew expressions of murderous anger), shall be in danger of the Council (Sanhedrin): but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire (men may beat justice in a human court of law, but will never do such in God's Court of Law).

ON RESTITUTION AND PRAYER

[23] Therefore if you bring your gift to the Altar (referring to the Brazen Altar as used in the offering of Sacrifices in the Law of Moses), and there remember that your brother has ought against you (is meant to describe our relationship with our fellowman);

[24] Leave there your gift before the Altar (the intimation is that the Lord will not accept our "gift" unless we do all within our power to make things right with the offended party), and go your way (make every effort to bring about reconciliation, if at all possible); first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift (worship will not be accepted by the Lord, if we have wronged our brother, and have not done all within our power to make amends).

CHRISTIAN RELATIONSHIPS

[25] Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are in the way with him (if we offend our brother and do not make amends, the Lord becomes our adversary, or opponent, which places one in a serious situation indeed); lest at any time the adversary deliver you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and you be cast into prison (regarding a Believer who offends a fellow Christian, and will not make amends, God becomes that person's Adversary, and thereby is Judge instead of his Saviour, and spiritually speaking, puts such a person in a spiritual prison).

[26] Verily I say unto you (the absolute solemnity of this statement), You shall by no means come out thence (come out of this spiritual prison), till you have paid the uttermost farthing (the Lord's method of teaching was symbolic and figurative; if the Believer doesn't make amends with his fellowman who he has wronged, he will suffer one reverse after the other; God will see to it).

JESUS' TEACHING ON ADULTERY

[27] You have heard that it was said by them of old time (the Mosaic Law), You shall not commit adultery (the Seventh Commandment [Ex. 20:14]).

[28] But I say unto you (the phrase does not deny the Law of Moses, but rather takes it to its conclusion, which could only be done by Christ; the Old Covenant pointed the way to the New Covenant, which came with Christ), That whosoever looks on a woman to lust after her (to look with intense sexual desire) has committed adultery with her already in his heart (the Lord addresses the root of sin, which is an evil heart; the Cross is the only answer).

[29] And if your right eye offend you, pluck it out, and cast it from you (as stated, the Lord's method of teaching was symbolic and figurative): for it is profitable for you that one of your members should perish, and not that your whole body should be cast into Hell (the Lord does not intend for His statement to be taken literally, as He has already explained that the offence is not in the "eye" or "hand," but, instead, the heart!; in effect, a blind man can lust).

[30] And if your right hand offend you, cut it off, and cast it from you: for it is profitable for you that one of your members should perish, and not that your whole body should be cast into Hell (showing the fact that if such action is not stopped, the person will lose their soul; as stated, the Cross is the only means by which evil passions can be subdued [Rom. 6:3-5, 11, 14]).

ON DIVORCE AND REMARRIAGE

[31] It has been said (Deut. 24:1-4), Whosoever shall put away his wife (refers to divorce proceedings), let him give her a writing of divorcement (the Jews had perverted the Law, greatly weakening the sanctity of marriage):

[32] But I say unto you (the Lord now gives the true meaning of the Law),

That whosoever shall put away his wife (divorce her), saving for the cause of fornication (cohabiting with others, thereby breaking the marriage vows), causes her to commit adultery (if she marries someone else, but the intimation is that the fault is not hers): and whosoever shall marry her who is divorced commits adultery (the man who marries the woman who is divorced unscripturally, even though it's not her fault, commits adultery as well; we should learn here the sanctity of marriage, with divorce and remarriage allowed only on the grounds of fornication and spiritual desertion [I Cor. 7:10-11]).

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF WORDS

[33] Again, you have heard that it has been said by them of old time (such phraseology means that the Word of God had been twisted to mean something it did not say), You shall not forswear yourself, but shall perform unto the Lord your oaths (Vss. 33-37 have to do with the Third Commandment, "You shall not take the Name of the Lord your God in vain" [Ex. 20:7]):

[34] But I say unto you (proclaiming the true meaning of the Law), Swear not at all; neither by Heaven; for it is God's Throne (this has nothing to do with profanity, but rather of flippantly using God's Name):

[35] Nor by the earth; for it is His footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King (not only must the Name of God not be flippantly used, but as well, His Creation is off limits also).

[36] Neither shall you swear by your head, because you cannot make one hair white or black (man is God's highest creation).

[37] But let your communication be (verbal communication with others), Yes, yes; No, no: for whatsoever is more than these comes of evil (the followers of Christ must stand out by their truthfulness, honesty, and integrity; subterfuge and doubletalk are out).

RETALIATION

38 You have heard that it has been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth ([Ex. 21:24; Lev. 24:20; Deut. 19:21]; the letter of the Law was that which God would carry out in His Own way [Mat. 7:2] man was not to resort to such, even as Jesus will now say)**:

39 But I say unto you, That you resist not evil (do not reward evil with evil): but whosoever shall smite you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also (once again, the language is figurative, for the Lord when smitten on the cheek [Jn. 18:22-23] did not turn the other cheek but with dignity rebuked the assailant)**.

40 And if any man will sue you at the law, and take away your coat, let him have your cloak also (this does not refer to righteous action, which is sometimes necessary, but rather to a contentious spirit, which demands one's rights, down to the minute detail)**.

41 And whosoever shall compel you to go a mile, go with him two (the entirety of the idea has to do with the heart of man, not so much his outward actions, but which most surely would guide his actions accordingly)**.

42 Give to him who asks of you, and from him who would borrow of you turn not you away (this pertains to those truly in need, and not those who are lazy and will not work [II Thess. 3:10]).

THE LAW OF LOVE

43 You have heard that it has been said, You shall love your neighbor, and hate your enemy (once again, Christ is correcting the perversion of Scripture; the "hating of the enemy" was probably derived from Deut. 7:1-6; but nowhere in that Passage does it say to hate the enemy; while we are to hate the sin, we are not to hate the sinner [Jn. 3:16]).

44 But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them who curse you, do good to them who hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you (the actions of the enemies of goodness and of righteousness are to be "hated" with a holy hatred; but personal hatred is to be met by love);

45 That you may be the Children of your Father which is in Heaven: for He makes His sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust (we are to imitate our Heavenly Father).

46 For if you love them which love you, what reward have you? do not even the publicans the same? (Only those who have the true Love of God in their hearts can love those who do not love them.)

47 And if you salute your Brethren only, what do you more than others? do not even the publicans so? (If our love is of no greater definition than that of the world, then our claims are empty.)

48 Be you therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in Heaven is perfect (Jesus is not teaching sinless perfection, for the Bible does not teach such; He is teaching that our imitation of our Heavenly Father must be as perfect as possible; the Holy Spirit Alone can help us do these things, which He does according to our Faith in Christ and the Cross [Rom. 8:1-2, 11]).

CHAPTER 6

JESUS' TEACHING ON GIVING

[1] Take heed (a serious matter) that you do not your alms (Righteousness) before men, to be seen of them (what is the reason for our giving?): otherwise you have no reward of your Father which is in Heaven.

[2] Therefore when you do your alms (in this case, giving, and portrays the necessity of giving), do not sound a trumpet before you (do not make a show), as the hypocrites do in the Synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men (be seen of men). Verily I say unto you, They have their reward (God will not reward such, whether on Earth or in Heaven).

[3] But when you do alms (Righteousness, and once again, proclaims the necessity of giving), let not your left hand know what your right hand does (not meant to be taken literally, but rather to point to the intent of the heart):

[4] That your alms may be in secret (simply means that from the heart it is done as unto the Lord, and not for the praise of men): and your Father (Heavenly Father) which sees in secret Himself shall reward you openly (both on Earth and when you get to Heaven).

JESUS' TEACHING ON PRAYER

[5] And when you pray (the necessity of prayer), you shall not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the Synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men (they do it for show). Verily I say unto you, They have their reward (meaning that there will be no reward from God in any capacity).

6 But you (sincere Believer), when you pray, enter into your closet, and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father which is in secret; and your Father which sees in secret shall reward you openly (the word "closet" is not to be taken literally, but means that our praying must not be done for show; if we make God's interests our own, we are assured that He will make our interest His Own).

7 But when you pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do (repeating certain phrases over and over, even hundreds of times): for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking (they will not be heard by God).

8 Be not you therefore like unto them: for your Father (Heavenly Father) knows what things you have need of, before you ask Him (He is omniscient, meaning that He knows all things, past, present, and future).

THE MODEL PRAYER

9 After this manner therefore pray you (is meant to be in total contrast to the heathen practice; as well, it is to be prayed in full confidence, that the Heavenly Father will hear and answer according to His Will): Our Father (our prayer should be directed toward our Heavenly Father, and not Christ or the Holy Spirit) Who is in Heaven, Hallowed be Your Name (we reverence His Name).

10 Your Kingdom come (this will definitely happen at the Second Coming), Your Will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven (the Will of God is all-important; it will be carried out on Earth, beginning with the Kingdom Age).

11 Give us this day our daily bread (we are to look to the Lord for sustenance, both natural and spiritual).

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors (the word "debts" here refers to "trespasses" and "sins"; His forgiveness on our part is predicated on our forgiving others).

13 And lead (because of self-confidence) us not into temptation (help us not to be led into testing — the idea is, in my self-confidence, which stems from the flesh and not the Spirit, please do not allow me to be led into temptation, for I will surely fail!), but deliver us (the trap is more powerful than man can handle; only God can deliver; He does so through the Power of the Holy Spirit, according to our Faith in Christ and the Cross [Rom. 8:1-2, 11]) from evil (the Evil One, Satan himself): For Yours is the kingdom (this Earth belongs to the Lord and not Satan; he is an usurper), and the power (God has the Power to deliver, which He does, as stated, through the Cross), and the glory (the Glory belongs to God, and not Satan), forever (none of this will ever change). Amen (this Word expresses a solemn ratification; in the Mind of God, the defeat and destruction of Satan and, therefore, all evil in the world, is a foregone conclusion)**.

14 For if you forgive men (it must be the God kind of forgiveness) their trespasses (large sins), your Heavenly Father will also forgive you (forgiveness rests totally on the Atoning Work of Christ; it is an act of sheer Grace)**:

15 But if you forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses (if we want God to forgive us, we must at the same time forgive others; if not, His forgiveness for us is withheld; consequently, such a person is in jeopardy of losing their soul)**.

JESUS' TEACHING ON FASTING

16 Moreover when you fast (no set time), be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward (so much in the religious realm falls into this category; it is done for "show" whether it be fasting or giving, etc.; the Lord will never reward such)**.

17 But you (referring to those who are truly God's Children), when you fast, anoint your head, and wash your face (the "anointing" and the "washing" were actually symbols of joy; this was the opposite of the sad countenance)**;

18 That you appear not unto men to fast (there is to be no appearance of fasting), but unto your Father (Heavenly Father) which is in secret: and your Father, which sees in secret, shall reward (bless) you openly (the implication is God was not the "Father" of the Pharisees, and will not be the "Father" of any who follow in their train).

TREASURES IN HEAVEN

19 Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth (everything on the Earth is temporal), where moth and rust does corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal (if the eye be set upon treasures on Earth, the life and character of the Believer will be shrouded in moral darkness):

20 But lay up for yourselves treasures in Heaven, where neither moth nor rust does corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also (a man's aim determines his character; if that aim be not simple and Heavenward but earthward and double, all the faculties and principles of his nature will become a mass of darkness; it is impossible to give a divided allegiance).

THE LIGHT

22 The light of the body is the eye (a figure of speech; He is, in effect, saying that the light of the soul is the spirit): if therefore your eye be single (the spirit of man should have but one purpose, and that is to Glorify God), your whole body shall be full of Light (if the spirit of man is single in its devotion to God [meaning not divided] then all the soul will be full of light).

23 But if your eye be evil, your whole body shall be full of darkness (if the spirit be evil, the entirety of the soul will be full of darkness). If therefore the light that is in you be darkness (the light is not acted upon, but rather perverted), how great is that darkness (the latter state is worse than if there had been no light at all)!

24 No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon (this is flat out, stated as, an impossibility; it is total devotion to God, or ultimately it will be total devotion to the world; the word, "mammon" is derived from the Babylonian "Mimma," which means "anything at all")**.

AGAINST WORRY AND ANXIETY

[25] Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what you shall eat, or what you shall drink; nor yet for your body, what you shall put on (don't worry about these things). Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment? (Life is more than things, and the physical body is more than the clothes we wear.)

[26] Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your Heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much better than they? (The fowls of the air are a smaller part of God's great Creation. If the Lord has provided for them, most assuredly, He has provided for His Children.)

[27] Which of you by taking thought (worrying and fretting) can add one cubit unto his stature? (Whatever is going to happen cannot be stopped by worry; and if it doesn't happen, there is nothing to worry about. For His Children, the Lord always fills in the bottom line.)

[28] And why do you take thought (worry) for (about) raiment (clothes)? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin (the man grows the flax [toil] the woman weaves it [spins]; the statement is meant to proclaim the fact that the beauty of the lily has nothing to do with its effort, but is given completely by the Creator)**:

[29] And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these (it is said that the lilies of Israel had brilliant coloring, and especially the purple and white Huleh Lily found in Nazareth)**.

[30] Wherefore, if (since) God so clothed the grass of the field (is meant to portray God's guarantee), which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven (portrays how inconsequential is this part of His Creation, and yet, how much care He expends on it), shall He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? (We are told here the reason for our lack; it is "little faith"; because God is Faithful, He can be trusted fully to completely carry out His commitments to us in Christ [I Cor. 1:9; 10:13; II Cor. 1:18; I Thess. 5:24; II Thess. 3:3; etc.].)

31 Therefore take no thought (don't worry), saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? (The Greek Text actually means that even one anxious thought is forbidden. Such shows a distrust of the Lord.)

32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) (Gentiles had no part in God's Covenant with Israel; consequently, they had no part in God's Economy, and, basically, had to fend for themselves) for your Heavenly Father knows that you have need of all these things. (The phrase is meant to express the contrast between those who do not know the Lord and those who do. If we live for Him, ever seeking His Will, we have the guarantee of His Word, which He will provide for us. Is God's Word good enough? I think it is!)

33 But seek you first the Kingdom of God, and His Righteousness (this gives the "condition" for God's Blessings; His interests are to be "first"); and all these things shall be added unto you (this is the "guarantee" of God's Provision).

34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow (don't worry about the future): for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself (this is meant to refer back to Verse 27). Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof. (This means that we should handle daily difficulties in Faith, and have Faith for the future that the present difficulties will not grow into larger ones. We have God's assurance that they won't, that is, if we will sufficiently believe Him.)

CHAPTER 7

JUDGING OTHERS

[1] Judge not, that you be not judged (this statement by Christ harks back to Verses 25 through 34 of the previous Chapter; the idea is, God may permit poverty to test His Child, but fellow Believers are not to err, as Job's friends did, and believe the trial to be a judgment for secret sin; as well, the word, "judging," as used here, covers every aspect of dealing with our fellowman)**.

[2] For with what judgment you judge, you shall be judged (whatever motive we ascribe to others, such motive will ultimately be ascribed to us): and with what measure you mete, it shall be measured to you again (a double emphasis is given here in order to proclaim the seriousness of the Words of our Lord; when we judge others, we are judging ourselves)**.

[3] And why do you behold the mote that is in your brother's eye (the Believer is not to be looking for fault or wrongdoing in the lives of fellow Believers), but consider not the beam that is in your own eye? (We have plenty in our own lives which need eliminating, without looking for faults in others. The "mote" and "beam" are contrasted! The constant judging of others portrays the fact that we are much worse off than the one we are judging.)

[4] Or how will you say to your brother, Let me pull out the mote out of your eye (the seriousness of setting ourselves up as judge, jury, and executioner); and, behold, a beam is in your own eye? (Once again draws attention to the fact that the person doing the judging is in far worse spiritual condition than the one being judged.)

[5] You hypocrite (aptly describes such a person), first cast out the beam

out of your own eye; and then you shall see clearly to cast out the mote out of your brother's eye (the very fact that we do not address ourselves, but rather others, portrays the truth that our personal situation is worse; when we properly analyze ourselves, then, and only then, can we "see clearly"; this is speaking of character assassination and not the correction of doctrine)**.

[6] Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast you your pearls before swine (there may be problems in the Church, as Verses 1 through 5 proclaim, but still, the Church is never to reach out into the world, i.e., "dogs," for help in order to solve its internal disputes), lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you (no help will be coming from the world, but rather destruction.; we are to take our problems to the Lord, obeying His Word, concerning disputes [Mat. 18:15-17])**.

GETTING THINGS FROM GOD

[7] Ask, and it shall be given you (if we ask for wisdom as it regards the settling of disputes, or for anything, it shall be given); seek, and you shall find (the answer may not be forthcoming immediately; therefore, we should "seek" to know the reason why); knock, and it shall be opened unto you (we must make sure that it is His door on which we are knocking; if it is, it definitely will be opened to us)**:

[8] For every one who asks receives; and he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks it shall be opened (assumes that the person's heart is sincere before the Lord)**.

[9] Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone? (Even a human being will not do such, much less God!)

[10] Or if he asks a fish, will he give him a serpent? (If, in fact, what we are asking for is not God's Will, and would turn out to be a "stone," or "serpent," He will guard us from receiving such, and during the time of waiting and consecration, will show us what we truly need.)

[11] If you then, being evil (refers to parents sometimes giving their children things which are not good for them, as well as things which are good), know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in Heaven give good things to them who ask Him? (The Lord gives only good things.)

THE GOLDEN RULE

12 Therefore all things whatsoever you would that men should do to you, do you even so to them; for this is the Law and the Prophets (this rule does not authorize capricious benevolent action, but only what is reasonable and morally helpful, and controlled by Divine imitation [Mat. 5:48]; this principle of action and mode of life is, in fact, the sum of all Bible teaching).

THE NARROW WAY AND THE BROAD WAY

13 Enter you in at the strait gate (this is the Door, Who is Jesus [Jn. 10:1]): for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leads to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat (proclaims the fact of many and varied religions of the world, which are false, and lead to eternal hellfire):

14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leads unto life, and few there be that find it (every contrite heart earnestly desires to be among the "few"; the requirements are greater than most are willing to accept).

FALSE PROPHETS AND DECEPTIONS

15 Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves ("beware of false prophets" is said in the sternest of measures! there will be and are false prophets, and are some of Satan's greatest weapons).

16 You shall know them by their fruits (this is the test as given by Christ as it regards identification of false prophets and false apostles). Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? (It is impossible for false doctrine, generated by false prophets, to bring forth good fruit.)

[17] Even so every good tree brings forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree brings forth evil fruit (the good fruit is Christlikeness, while the evil fruit is self-likeness).

[18] A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit (the "good tree" is the Cross, while the "corrupt tree" pertains to all of that which is other than the Cross).

[19] Every tree that brings not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire (Judgment will ultimately come on all so-called gospel, other than the Cross [Rom. 1:18]).

[20] Wherefore by their fruits you shall know them (the acid test).

AGAINST MERE PROFESSION

[21] Not every one who says unto Me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the Kingdom of Heaven (the repetition of the word "Lord" expresses astonishment, as if to say: "Are we to be disowned?"); but he who does the Will of My Father which is in Heaven (what is the Will of the Father? Verse 23 tells us).

[22] Many will say to Me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not Prophesied in Your Name? and in Your Name have cast out devils? and in Your Name done many wonderful works? (These things are not the criteria, but rather Faith in Christ and what Christ has done for us at the Cross [Eph. 2:8-9, 13-18]. The Word of God alone is to be the judge of doctrine.)

[23] And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you (again we say, the criteria alone is Christ and Him Crucified [I Cor. 1:23]): depart from Me, you who work iniquity (we have access to God only through Christ, and access to Christ only through the Cross, and access to the Cross only through a denial of self [Lk. 9:23]; any other Message is Judged by God as "iniquity," and cannot be a part of Christ [I Cor. 1:17]).

THE TWO BUILDERS: A WISE MAN AND A FOOLISH MAN

[24] Therefore whosoever hears these sayings of Mine, and does them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock (the "Rock" is Christ Jesus, and the Foundation is the Cross [Gal. 1:8-9]):

[25] And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not; for it was founded upon a rock (the Foundation of our belief system must be Christ and Him Crucified [Gal. 6:14]).

[26] And every one who hears these sayings of Mine, and does them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand (but for the foundation, this house looked the same as the house that was built upon the rock):

[27] And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it (while the sun shines, both houses look good; but, when adversity comes and come it shall, Faith, which is alone in Christ and Him Crucified will stand [I Cor. 1:18]).

[28] And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings (ended the Sermon on the Mount), the people were astonished at His Doctrine (this Message proclaimed the True intent of the Law of Moses, and, above all, laid the Foundation for the New Covenant):

[29] For He taught them as one having authority (refers to Divine Authority, which He had by the Power of the Holy Spirit; this Sermon and that of Lk., Chpt. 6 are probably one and the same; the Holy Spirit lays the emphasis here on the heart, while in Luke, emphasis is laid on actions produced by the heart; consequently, the distinction between "standing" and "state" is apparent), and not as the Scribes (those who claimed to be expert in the Law of Moses).

CHAPTER 8

(A.D. 31)

JESUS HEALS A LEPER

[1] When He was come down from the mountain (this particular Message is now finished), great multitudes followed Him (this is the result of the "authority" with which He taught).

[2] And, behold, there came a leper (leprosy was then considered a symbol of sin) and worshipped Him (did so as Lord, recognizing Him as the Messiah), saying, Lord, if You will, You can make me clean (C hrist Alone can cleanse from sin, of which leprosy was a type).

[3] And Jesus put forth His Hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be you clean (this statement forever settles the Will of God as it regards Salvation and Healing; His touch did not cleanse him, but rather His Word; according to the Greek, by the time His Hand touched the man he was already clean; so, Jesus did not break the Law by touching a leper). And immediately his leprosy was cleansed (immediately upon the word "I will" being spoken).

[4] And Jesus said unto him, See that you tell no man (the Mission of our Lord in His First Advent was to deal with sin and suffer its judgment at Calvary; He suppressed anything that would hinder that purpose of Grace, and so forbade the man to publish the fact of his healing); but go your way, show yourself to the Priest, and offer the gift that Moses Commanded, for a Testimony unto them (the Law of the Cleansing of the leper is found in Lev., Chpts. 13 and 14).

HEALING OF THE CAPTAIN'S SERVANT

5 And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum (His Headquarters), there came unto Him a Centurion (a Roman Captain over 100 men), beseeching Him (strongly requesting of Him, begging Him; Jesus came not only to cleanse Israel, but to liberate the Gentile as well, and, accordingly, the servant of the Roman officer was set free from his malady),

6 And saying, Lord (the leprous Jew had called Jesus, "Lord," and now, the Gentile Centurion calls Him "Lord," proclaiming Him Lord of All), my servant lies at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented (this disease was a paralysis with contraction of the joints, accompanied with intense suffering; the man's life was threatened).

7 And Jesus said unto him, I will come and heal him (the emphasis is not on the coming, but, instead, on the One Who is coming, Namely Christ; the "I" is emphatic, meaning, "I can, and I will!" once again, the "I will" settles the question regarding Divine Healing).

8 The Centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that You should come under my roof (probably his referral to being a Gentile): but speak the Word only, and my servant shall be healed (the Word of Christ was all that was needed, and the soldier knew that).

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goes; and to another, Come, and he comes; and to my servant, Do this, and he does it (the intelligence of this Centurion was remarkable; he argued that the soldiers had to obey him because in his person resided the authority of the Emperor, and, similarly, disease obeyed Jesus because in Him was the Authority of God).

10 When Jesus heard it, He marveled (records one of the only two times He marveled; the "faith" of this Gentile, and the "unbelief" of the Jews [Mk. 6:6]), and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel (this is a portrayal of the fact that the Gentiles would accept Christ, while Israel would not).

11 And I say unto you (proclaims the acceptance of Christ by the Gentiles, and His rejection by the Jews), That many (Gentiles) shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the Kingdom of Heaven (would come into the Abrahamic Covenant [Gen. 12:1-3; Gal. 3:14]).

[12] But the children of the Kingdom (Israel) shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth (would die without God, thereby going to Hell, because of rejecting Christ).

[13] And Jesus said unto the Centurion, Go your way; and as you have believed (believe, not doing), so be it done unto you. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

PETER'S MOTHER-IN-LAW HEALED

[14] And when Jesus was come into Peter's house (in Capernaum), He (Jesus) saw his wife's mother laid (Peter's mother-in-law), and sick of a fever.

[15] And He (Jesus) touched her hand, and the fever left her (immediately): and she arose, and ministered unto them (prepared a meal).

DEMONS CAST OUT; MANY HEALED

[16] When the evening was come (when the Sabbath ended at sunset), they brought unto Him (Jesus) many who were possessed with devils (demons): and He cast out the spirits with His Word, and healed all who were sick:

[17] That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet Isaiah (Isa. 53:4), saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bear our sicknesses (took our sin penalty and sicknesses).

TESTS OF DISCIPLESHIP

[18] Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about Him, He gave commandment (instructions) to depart unto the other side (the eastern side of the Sea of Galilee).

[19] And a certain Scribe (expert in the Law of Moses) came, and said unto Him, Master, I will follow You wherever You go.

[20] And Jesus said unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head (the Earth had room for foxes and birds, but not Christ; "Son of Man" refers to the fact that He will take back dominion, which was done at the Cross).

[21] And another of His Disciples (not one of the Twelve) said unto Him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father (take care of my father until he dies).

[22] But Jesus said unto him (tone of censure), Follow Me (nothing must stand in the way); and let the dead bury their dead (let the spiritually dead bury their physically dead).

JESUS STILLS THE STORM

[23] And when He was entered into a ship, His Disciples followed Him,

[24] And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea (great storm), insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but He was asleep.

[25] And His Disciples came to Him, and awoke Him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish (He Alone can save us).

[26] And He said unto them (the reason for their dilemma), Why are you fearful, O you of little faith (misplaced faith)? Then He arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea (great power); and there was a great calm ("O you of little faith" occurs four times [care, Mat. 6:30; fear, Mat. 8:26; doubt, Mat. 14:31; reasoning, Mat. 16:8]).

[27] But the men marveled (were astonished), saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him! (He is man, but as well

He is God.)

THE GERGESENE DEMONIACS

[28] And when He was come to the other side (eastern side of Galilee) into the country of the Gergesenes, there met Him two possessed with devils (demons), coming out of the tombs (where they lived), exceeding fierce (maniacs), so that no man might pass by that way.

[29] And, behold, they cried out (speaking to Christ), saying, What have we to do with You, Jesus, Thou Son of God? (The demons had more intelligence than do the disciples of modern thought.) Are You come here to torment us before the time? (Judgment [Rev. 20:1-3].)

[30] And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine (hogs) feeding.

[31] So the devils (demons) besought Him, saying, If You cast us out (since You are casting us out), suffer us to go away into the herd of swine (leave the men and inhabit the hogs).

[32] And He said unto them, Go (proclaims His approval). And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea (the Sea of Galilee), and perished in the waters.

[33] And they that kept them fled (quickly), and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils (his complete deliverance).

[34] And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw Him (took a little while to find Him), they besought Him that he would depart out of their coasts (borders).

CHAPTER 9

(A.D. 31)

JESUS HEALS A PARALYZED MAN

[1] And He entered into a ship, and passed over and came into His Own city (Capernaum).

[2] And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy (paralyzed), lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith (the action of faith) said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; your sins be forgiven you (the sickness was caused by sin).

[3] And, behold, certain of the Scribes (experts in the Law of Moses) said within themselves (murmured among themselves), This man blasphemes (they did not recognize Him as Lord).

[4] And Jesus knowing their thoughts said (revealed to Him by the Spirit), Why do you think evil in your hearts? (Unbelief!)

[5] For whether is easier, to say, Your sins be forgiven you; or to say, Arise, and walk? (Original sin and its corresponding result, sickness.)

[6] But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins (proclaims His Deity), (then said He to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up your bed, and go unto your house (power to forgive sins and heal).

[7] And he arose (the physical action of a spiritual result), and departed to his house.

[8] But when the multitudes saw it (healing of the man), they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men (the multitudes still didn't understand that He was the Messiah).

THE CALLING OF MATTHEW

9 And as Jesus passed forth from thence, He saw a man, named Matthew (the Spirit directed Him), sitting at the receipt of custom (Matthew was a tax collector — a publican): and He (Jesus) said unto him (Matthew), Follow Me (the call to be one of the Twelve). And he arose (immediately), and followed Him.

10 And it came to pass (after a few days), as Jesus sat at meat (a meal) in the house (Matthew's house), behold, many Publicans (tax collectors) and sinners came and sat down with Him and His Disciples (on His terms, and not on theirs).

11 And when the Pharisees saw it (heard of it a little later), they said unto His Disciples, Why does your Master eat with Publicans and sinners (self-righteousness)?

12 But when Jesus heard that (a short time later), He said unto them (His Disciples), They who be whole need not a physician, but they who are sick (He came for sinners, which includes all).

13 But go you and learn what that means, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice (the keeping of rituals, i.e., sacrifices, won't save; asking for mercy will): for I am not come to call the Righteous (self-righteous), but sinners to Repentance.

FASTING

14 Then came to Him the Disciples of John (John was now in prison), saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but Your Disciples fast not? (They fasted twice a week.)

15 And Jesus said unto them (introduction of the New Covenant), Can the children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? (Jesus is the Bridegroom, so it was not the time to fast) but the days will come, when the Bridegroom shall be taken from them (Death, Resurrection, and Ascension of Christ)*, and then shall they fast (fasting pictures something wrong that needs remedying, which the Coming of Christ will address).

[16] No man puts a piece of new cloth (New Covenant) onto an old garment (Old Covenant), for that which is put in to fill it up takes from the garment (a patch), and the rent is made worse (to revert to Law is to worsen the situation; the Cross is the New Covenant).

[17] Neither do men put new wine (New Covenant) into old bottles (skins): else the bottles break (new wine splits the wineskin), and the wine runs out (reverting to Law frustrates Grace [Gal. 2:21]), and the bottles (skins) perish (Law destroys Grace): but they put new wine into new bottles (new skins), and both are preserved (the New Covenant can only function by Faith [new skins] and not law).

MIRACLES

[18] While He spoke these things unto them (subject matter of previous Verse), behold, there came a certain Ruler (Jarius), and worshipped Him (as Lord and Messiah), saying, My daughter is even now dead (is dying): but come and lay Your hand upon her, and she shall live.

[19] And Jesus arose, and followed him (immediately), and so did His Disciples.

[20] And, behold (an interruption), a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood (physically and ceremonially unclean [Lev. 15:25] probably from a female disorder) twelve years, came behind Him, and touched the hem (border) of His garment (a blue and white tassel worn at the four corners of the upper garment [Num. 15:37-41]):

[21] For she said within herself (inasmuch as she could not get a private audience), If I may but touch His garment, I shall be whole (her faith).

[22] But Jesus turned Him about (in response to her touch), and when He saw her (took a moment to find her), He said, Daughter (a change of relationship from "woman" to "daughter")*, be of good comfort (don't fear); your Faith has made you whole (if He doesn't touch you, you can touch Him). And the woman was made whole from that hour (tradition says her name was Veronica).

[23] And when Jesus came into the Ruler's house (Jarius, ruler of the Synagogue), and saw the minstrels (paid mourners, which was the custom then; by now the child had died) and the people making a noise (making lamentation over the death of the child), [24] He said unto them, Give place (leave the room where the child was): for the maid is not dead, but asleep (will not remain dead). And they laughed Him to scorn (they knew the child was dead, and surmised that He could do nothing).

[25] But when the people were put forth (they didn't go quietly), He went in (He wouldn't go in until the skeptics left), and took her by the hand, and the maid arose (He raised her from the dead; life touched death; no one died or stayed dead in His Presence).

[26] And the fame hereof went abroad into all that land (all over Israel and beyond).

THE BLIND HEALED

[27] And when Jesus departed thence (left the home of Jarius), two blind men followed Him, crying, and saying, Thou Son of David (the Messianic title), have mercy on us (a cry to which He always responds).

[28] And when He was come into the house (probably the house of Peter), the blind men came to Him (they no doubt heard He had raised the dead): and Jesus said unto them, Do you believe that I am able to do this? (He only required Faith.) They said unto Him, Yes, Lord.

[29] Then touched He their eyes (light touched darkness), saying, According to your Faith be it unto you (the Law of Faith).

30 And their eyes were opened (instantly); and Jesus straitly (strongly) charged them, saying, See that no man know it (His fame was already such that Israel would shortly clamor to make Him king, but for all the wrong reasons).

31 But they, when they were departed, spread abroad His fame in all that country (at least they spread His fame and not theirs).

DUMB MAN HEALED

32 As they went out (from the house, probably Peter's), behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil (a demon spirit had caused the dumbness).

33 And when the devil (demon) was cast out, the dumb spoke: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel (demon spirits are the cause of many things).

34 But the Pharisees said (strongest religious group in Israel, and were bitterly opposed to Christ), He casts out devils (demons) through the prince of the devils (by the power of Satan).

35 And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching (explaining truth) in their Synagogues, and preaching (proclaiming truth) the Gospel of the Kingdom (good news), and healing every sickness and every disease among the people (preaching, teaching, and healing are the Gospel program).

LABOURERS NEEDED

36 But when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion on them (had great pity and sympathy), because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd (no spiritual leadership).

37 Then said He unto His Disciples, The harvest (souls to be saved) truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few (not many Preachers of Righteousness)*;

[38] Pray you (intercede) therefore the Lord of the Harvest (Christ is the Lord), that He will send forth labourers into His Harvest (the harvest of souls is His, and must be gathered in His way).

CHAPTER 10

(A.D. 31)

THE TWELVE

[1] And when He had called unto Him His Twelve Disciples (for instruction and a special mission), He gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease (all such power comes from God).

[2] Now the names of the Twelve Apostles are these; The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother (none of the twelve were of the aristocracy of Israel);

[3] Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican (tax collector); James the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbaeus whose surname (last name) was Thaddaeus;

[4] Simon the Canaanite (the zealot), and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him (eleven were Galileans; one, Judas Iscariot, was a Judaean).

THE MISSION

[5] These Twelve Jesus sent forth, and Commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter you not (Israel must be addressed first; after the Cross, Resurrection, and Ascension, the Command would be to go into all the world [Mk. 16:15]):

[6] But go rather to the lost sheep of the House of Israel (notice the "lost sheep," which refutes unconditional eternal security.

[7] And as you go, preach, saying, The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand (the Kingdom was rejected by Israel).

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils (demons): freely you have received, freely give (a monetary charge is never to be made).

9 Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses (the Lord is to be depended upon for everything),

10 Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: for the workman is worthy of his meat (it is criminal to receive the fruit of the labor, without labor).

11 And into whatsoever city or town you shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy (of like faith); and there abide till you go thence (work with them).

12 And when you come into an house, salute it (bestow peace).

13 And if the house be worthy (of like faith), let your peace (blessing) come upon it: but if it be not worthy (proves not to be of like faith), let your peace return to you (don't bless it).

14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when you depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet (a curse is now upon such).

15 Verily I say unto you (extremely important announcement), It shall be more tolerable (degrees of punishment) for the land of Sodom and Gomorrha in the Day of Judgment (Great White Throne Judgment, Rev., Chpt. 20), than for that city.

PERSECUTION

16 Behold, I send you forth (Christ does the sending) as sheep in the midst of wolves (most wolves are in the Church): be you therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.

17 But beware of men (religious apostates): for they will deliver you up to the Councils, and they will scourge you in their Synagogues (the religious world is opposed to Christ and the Cross);

ENMITY

18 And you shall be brought before Governors and Kings (persecution by the Church is often followed by that of the State) for My sake (animosity against Christ), for a testimony against them (take the opportunity to witness to them) and the Gentiles (a prediction of the soon to come Church).

19 But when they deliver you up (not "if" but "when"), take no thought how or what you shall speak (defense is left up to the Lord): for it shall be given you in that same hour what you shall speak (unction of the Spirit).

20 For it is not you who speaks, but the Spirit of your Father (Holy Spirit) which speaks in you ("in you," Baptism with the Spirit [Acts 2:4]).

21 And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death (animosity against Christ and the Cross is greater than love for loved ones).

22 And you shall be hated of all men for My Name's sake (the offense of the Cross): but he who endures to the end shall be saved (persecution will continue until the Second Coming).

23 But when they persecute you in this city (the certainty of opposition), flee you into another (keep evangelizing): for verily I say unto you (remember this), You shall not have gone over the cities of Israel (due to persecution, which was the case), till the Son of Man be come (boldly announcing the Second Coming).

INSTRUCTION

24 The disciple is not above his master (as they persecuted Christ, they will persecute His followers), nor the servant above his lord (said in two ways to emphasize certitude of fulfillment).

25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord (the Believer must experience the same opposition as his Lord). If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub (of the Devil), how much more shall they call them of his household?

26 Fear them not therefore (fear must not guide the Message): for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known (a reckoning is coming).

27 What I tell you in darkness (in prayer), that speak you in light (openly): and what you hear in the ear (what the Spirit reveals), that preach you upon the housetops (publicly).

28 And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul (don't fear men): but rather fear Him (God) which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing (cheap)? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father (without His Knowledge or Will).

30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered (seek to please God Who knows all things, and can do all things).

31 Fear you not therefore (what do we have to fear, serving One Who is all-knowing, and all-powerful?), you are of more value than many sparrows (if God takes care of them, and He does, will He not take care of you?).

32 Whosoever therefore shall confess Me before men (to tie man to God), him will I confess also before My Father which is in Heaven (upon one's confession of Christ, a corresponding confession is made by Christ).

33 But whosoever shall deny Me before men (Christ Alone is the focal point), him will I also deny before my Father which is in Heaven.

OPPOSITION

[34] Think not that I am come to send peace on earth (the entrance of Christ into the world manifests the evil of the heart): I came not to send peace, but a sword (the sword against the Righteous will be the response of religious reprobates).

[35] For I am come to set a man at variance (odds) against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

[36] And a man's foes shall be they of his own household (speaks not only of immediate family, but at times, of one's Church family).

DISCIPLESHIP

[37] He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me (Christ must come first in all things): and he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me (worthy to receive what I did for him at the Cross).

[38] And he who takes not his cross (total "Faith" in the Cross to the exclusion of everything else), and follows after Me (we can only follow Him by the "Way" of the Cross), is not worthy of Me (not worthy of the blessings afforded by the "victory" of the Cross).

[39] He who finds his life shall lose it (he who refuses the Cross loses his life): and he who loses his life for My sake shall find it (places his life into Christ, which is done by the Cross [Rom. 6:3-5]).

REWARDS

[40] He who receives you receives Me (he who receives My Messenger receives Me), and he who receives Me receives Him (God the Father) Who sent Me.

41 He who receives a Prophet in the name of a Prophet (because he is a true Prophet) shall receive a Prophet's reward; and he who receives a Righteous man in the name of a Righteous man (because he is a Righteous man) shall receive a Righteous man's reward (one on a Righteous Mission).

42 And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones (newest Believer) a cup of cold water only in the name of a Disciple (because he is a follower of Christ), verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward (a reward is guaranteed).

CHAPTER 11

JOHN THE BAPTIST

[1] And it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding His Twelve Disciples (refers to the teaching of the previous Chapter; He commanded, which is different than suggesting), He departed thence to teach and to preach (to explain and to proclaim) in their cities.

[2] Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ (John is now imprisoned, and discouraged), he sent two of his disciples (sent them to Jesus),

[3] And said unto Him, Are You He Who should come, or do we look for another? (Doubt is the nemesis of Faith, and plagues every Christian at one time or the other.)

JESUS' ANSWER TO JOHN THE BAPTIST

[4] Jesus answered and said unto them (if we ask, we will receive [Mat. 7:8]), Go and shew John again those things which you do hear and see (the Divine answer referred him to Isaiah 35:5-6; 61:1-2):

[5] The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the Gospel preached to them (Jesus called John's attention away from the political scene — restoring at that time the Kingdom to Israel — to the true purpose of His Mission, the restoration of the individual).

[6] And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in Me (the Lord adds another Beatitude to those given in Chapter 5).

JESUS' TESTIMONY OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

[7] And as they departed (the two disciples of John the Baptist), Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went you out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind? (Despite appearances — John being in prison — Jesus proclaims what John really is.)

[8] But what went you out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they who wear soft clothing are in kings' houses (if Herod's gold could have bought John, he would not now be in prison).

[9] But what went you out for to see? (The third time this question is posed.) A Prophet? yes, I say unto you, and more than a Prophet (more than all Prophets before him).

[10] For this is he, of whom it is written (proclaims John as the last of the Old Testament Prophets), Behold, I send My messenger before Your face (John was that messenger), which shall prepare Your way before You (John prepared the way for Christ).

[11] Verily I say unto you, Among them who are born of women there has not risen a greater than John the Baptist (places John at the forefront of the Prophets): notwithstanding he who is least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he (speaks of the New Covenant [Heb. 8:6]).

[12] And from the days of John the Baptist (John introduced "the Kingdom of Heaven") until now (speaks of Christ Who would bring in the New Covenant) the Kingdom of Heaven suffers violence (the Crucifixion, the price that Christ paid [Gen. 3:15]), and the violent take it by force (speaks of Christ taking the dominion away from Satan, who had taken it from Adam [Col. 2:14-15]).

[13] For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John (the Prophets and the Law testified of the coming Christ, and John was the last of those Prophets).

[14] And if you will receive it (if you will receive the Kingdom of Heaven), this is Elijah, which was for to come (had the nation received John, he would have represented Elijah to them, and would have been reckoned by God as Elijah [Mal. 4:5-6])**.

15 He who has ears to hear, let him hear (Israel would not hear)**.

16 But whereunto shall I liken this generation? (That generation most privileged, rejected Christ.) It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows,

17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented (Israel refused to mourn with the Baptist when he demanded Repentance, or to rejoice with Christ).

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He has a devil (demon — what the religious said; John had no social life)**.

19 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, a friend of Publicans and sinners (this is what Christ's enemies said of Him, and not what was actually true). But wisdom is justified of her children (wisdom justified both courses, that of John and Christ. Israel rejected both)**.

JUDGMENT

20 Then began He to upbraid the cities wherein most of His mighty works were done, because they repented not (He is speaking mostly of the religious leaders of these places)**:

21 Woe unto you, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes (what a condemnation of Israel!).

22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable (different degrees of punishment) for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment (Great White Throne Judgment), than for you (the pronoun "you" is emphatic; in the Mind of God, the "Judgment" has already been pronounced).

23 And you, Capernaum ("you" again emphatic, reserving this city for the worst judgment of all), which are exalted unto Heaven (exalted not because of Christ, but rather because of its economic prosperity), shall be brought down to hell (most of its inhabitants went to Hell): for if the mighty works, which had been done in you, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day (what an indictment on Capernaum!).

24 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom, in the day of judgment, than for you (the Christ-rejecter is morally lower than the idolaters of Tyre and Sidon, or the citizens of Sodom, and will be punished accordingly).

REJOICING OVER DIVINE REVELATION

25 At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank you, O Father, Lord of Heaven and Earth, because You have hid these things from the wise and prudent (a judicial judgment on the Religious Leaders of Israel), and have revealed them unto babes (to other than the religious leaders).

26 Even so, Father (His Own Personal Father): for so it seemed good in Your sight (the Gospel is hidden to those who reject Christ and the Cross whomever they might be, and revealed to those who accept Christ and the Cross; this is "good" in God's sight [Jn. 3:16]).

27 All things are delivered unto Me of My Father ("All things" mean that Christ is both Saviour and Judge): and no man knows the Son, but the Father (Christ is an eternal Member of the Godhead); neither knows any man the Father, save the Son (the only way to God the Father is through Christ [Jn. 14:6]), and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal Him (Salvation is never a matter of education but of Revelation).

THE GREAT INVITATION

28 Come unto Me (is meant by Jesus to reveal Himself as the Giver of Salvation)*, all you who labor and are heavy laden (trying to earn Salvation by works), and I will give you rest (this "rest" can only be found by placing one's Faith in Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross [Gal. 5:1-6]).

[29] Take My yoke upon you (the "yoke" of the "Cross" [Lk. 9:23]), and learn of Me (learn of His Sacrifice [Rom. 6:3-5]); for I am meek and lowly in heart (the only thing that our Lord Personally said of Himself) : and ye shall find rest unto your souls (the soul can find rest only in the Cross).

[30] For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light (what He requires of us is very little, just to have Faith in Him, and His Sacrificial Atoning work).

CHAPTER 12

JESUS IS LORD OF THE SABBATH

[1] At that time Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the corn (either wheat or barley); and His Disciples were hungry, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat (to pluck the sheaf's of wheat or barley).

[2] But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto Him (these religious leaders, by now, were watching every move made by Christ and His Disciples; they were trying to find fault), Behold, Your Disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the Sabbath day (this was a law they had made up themselves; the Law of Moses permitted them to do what they were doing [Deut. 23:25]).

[3] But He said unto them (His defense was not the Law of Moses, although He could have referred to that, but rather, if David the King when rejected ate the Showbread, the Son of David, when in a similar case might enjoy a similar privilege), Have you not read what David did, when he was hungry, and they who were with him;

[4] How He entered into the House of God (the Tabernacle), and did eat the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the Priests (Sam. 21:6)?

[5] Or have you not read in the Law, how that on the Sabbath days the Priests in the Temple profane the Sabbath, and are blameless? (The Priests did as much work, if not more, on the Sabbath Day in their preparing the Sacrifices, plus other duties, than possibly any other day! and yet they were not accused of breaking the Law.)

[6] But I say unto you (meant to portray the Truth of the Word of God), That in this place is One greater than the Temple (He was speaking of Himself; He was a greater Prophet than Moses, and a greater King than David).

[7] But if you had known what this means, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice (sacrifice was the means, mercy the end; sacrifice the road, mercy the goal; Israel had lost sight of what the sacrifices actually meant), you would not have condemned the guiltless (He and His Disciples were guiltless, and all who trust Him are likewise guiltless).

[8] For the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath day (rejected by the nation as Messiah the King, He now presented Himself to them as Elohim the Creator of the Sabbath).

HEALING ON THE SABBATH

[9] And when He was departed thence (refers to the following taking place some days later), He went into their Synagogue (probably happened during the first two and one-half years of His Ministry, as He was banned from most Synagogues the last year):

[10] And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered (the "withered hand" was a portrayal of the spiritual condition of Israel and, as well, of all mankind). And they asked Him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath days? that they might accuse Him (the Pharisees were completely devoid of the understanding and purpose of Christ or the Sabbath).

[11] And He said unto them (He always answered their questions), What man shall there be among you, who shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the Sabbath Day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out? (The answer to the question was obvious!)

[12] How much then is a man better than a sheep? (The answer should have shamed them! However, the hardened heart has no shame.) Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the Sabbath Days (His question and His answer showed that the religious leaders of Israel thought more of sheep than they did of men; regrettably, that spirit persists still!).

13 Then said He to the man (He did not ask their permission, and because they could not control Him, they hated Him), Stretch forth your hand (spiritually, Christ is still saying the same thing to all men). And He stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

14 Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against Him, how they might destroy Him (His love only excited their hatred).

MULTITUDES HEALED

15 But when Jesus knew it (refers to the plotting of the Pharisees and Herodians against Him) , He withdrew Himself from thence (went to another town): and great multitudes followed Him, and He healed them all ("all" is emphatic, meaning that not one single person left without healing);

16 And charged them that they should not make Him known (He would not allow the fame of His miracles to hinder His purpose of offering up Himself as a sacrifice for sin; the latter was His real mission):

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the Prophet, saying (Isaiah is quoted in the Gospels more than any other Prophet),

18 Behold My Servant (He was the Father's Servant), Whom I have chosen (chosen by God and not man, hence rejected by man); My Beloved, in Whom My soul is well pleased (to please God and not man, should be the goal of every Believer): I will put My Spirit upon Him (Holy Spirit), and He shall show judgment to the Gentiles (speaks of the coming Church, which is made up virtually of Gentiles).

19 He shall not strive, nor cry (will not demand His rights); neither shall any man hear His voice in the streets (He never promoted Himself).

20 A bruised reed shall He not break, and smoking flax shall He not quench (even though they rejected Him, He will not give up on Israel), till He send forth judgment unto victory (Israel will accept Him at the Second Coming).

21 And in His Name shall the Gentiles trust (His Name means "Saviour," and even though the Jews rejected Him, the Gentiles accepted Him).

BLIND AND DUMB MAN HEALED

22 Then was brought unto Him one possessed with a devil (Demon), blind, and dumb (the man represented Israel, and in fact, all of mankind): and He healed him, insomuch that the blind and the dumb both spoke and saw (those who are "born-again" can now spiritually speak and spiritually see)**.

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David? (Had their religious leaders properly led them, the people of Israel would have accepted Christ.)

BLASPHEMING THE HOLY SPIRIT

24 But when the Pharisees heard it (heard what the people were saying about Jesus being the Son of David, which He was), they said, This fellow (the Pharisees never referred to Him even one time by His Name) does not cast out devils (demons), but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils (they didn't deny His Power, but claimed that it was of Satan)**.

25 And Jesus knew their thoughts (revealed to Him by the Holy Spirit), and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand (the idea of the statement is that Satan does not oppose himself! He does not possess one with an evil spirit and then cast out that spirit)**:

26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand? (Jesus admits here that Satan has a kingdom, which is the kingdom of darkness.)

27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils (demons), by whom do your children cast them out? (The Pharisees and their disciples claimed to cast out demons, but in reality they didn't; because they were as well of Satan.)

therefore they shall be your judges (the word "children" refers to the disciples of the Pharisees; Jesus by posing this question did not deny or affirm that they, in fact, actually did cast out demons; He was using the statement only as argument to prove His point)**.

[28] But if I cast out devils (demons) by the Spirit of God (Jesus did not cast out demons because He was God, but as a man filled with the Spirit), then the Kingdom of God is come unto you (this placed the Pharisees in an untenable position; if the Spirit of God was actually helping Him and He had already made it clear that such could not be done without the Spirit of God, then they must admit that He is the Messiah; their accusation backfired on them!)**.

[29] Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house (Satan is pictured here as strong — stronger than men), and spoil his goods (which Jesus did at the Cross), except he first bind the strong man? (Only Jesus could bind this strong man.) and then he will spoil his house (at Calvary Satan was totally defeated [Col. 2:14-15])**.

[30] He who is not with Me is against Me (it is impossible to take a neutral position regarding Christ; the word "against" denotes intense opposition); and he who gathers not with Me scatters abroad (refers to the Truth that one cannot be with "Christ" and "against" His true servants; the presence of Immanuel tests everything and everybody).

[31] Wherefore I say unto you (addressing the most fearsome statement), All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men (that is if they properly confess the sin to the Lord [I Jn. 1:9]): but the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit shall not be forgiven unto men (when they accused Him of casting out demons by the power of Satan, when in reality He was doing so by the Power of the Holy Spirit, they blasphemed the Spirit of God; blaspheming the Holy Spirit can only be committed by someone who professes to know the Lord, as the Pharisees of old, or else has once known Him, and then turned against Him; the unredeemed, who have never known the Lord, cannot blaspheme the Holy Spirit simply because they have no true knowledge of the Spirit)**.

32 And whosoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it shall be forgiven him (once again, if forgiveness is sought): but whosoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come (such a person is doomed! however, the statements do not mean that a backslider cannot come back to the Lord; but they do mean that one who has actually blasphemed the Holy Spirit, will have no desire to come to the Lord, but in fact, will continue to oppose Him; anyone who desires to come to the Lord, which desire is placed there by the Holy Spirit, can do so [Rev. 22:17]).

GOOD AND CORRUPT FRUIT

33 Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit (a single tree cannot bring forth both good fruit and corrupt fruit; either the Pharisees were right, or He was right; both could not be right! His fruit was good, inasmuch as it produced changed lives; their fruit produced nothing but corruption).

34 O generation of vipers (Jesus called the Pharisees snakes, and did so to their face), how can you, being evil, speak good things? (Due to being evil, they could not produce good fruit.) for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks (men's words reveal their thoughts and character).

35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart brings forth good things (the "good man" of this Verse is the same as the "good tree" of Verse 33; as the "good tree" will bring forth good fruit, likewise, the "good man" will bring forth "good treasure" out of his heart): and an evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth evil things (an evil heart cannot do otherwise).

36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak (concerns claims of righteousness which did not exist), they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment (the Great White Throne Judgment [Rev. 20:11-15]).

37 For by your words you shall be justified (a confession of Christ and the price that He paid on the Cross, justifies any person [Rom. 5:1-2]), and by your words you shall be condemned (a confession of anything other than Christ and the Cross will condemn, i.e., "eternally lost").

THE SIGN OF JONAH

38 Then certain of the Scribes and of the Pharisees (the Scribes were a part of the Pharisees, because they shared the same doctrine) answered, saying, Master (teacher), we would see a sign from You (there were signs galore! for instance, they had just seen the man blind, dumb, and demon possessed instantly delivered, and healed; the sign, however, which they actually wanted, was not Deliverance from sin and its effects, but rather from Rome).

39 But He answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign ("adulterous" spoke of Israel's spiritual unfaithfulness to God; they were committing spiritual adultery, which means that they were worshiping something other than God; had they been worshiping God, they would have accepted Christ); and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the Prophet Jonah (He was speaking of His Death and Resurrection)**:

40 For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the Earth (Christ would be dead three days and three nights; during this time, He would be in Paradise, and would preach to the spirits in prison who were fallen angels [Lk. 23:43; I Pet. 3:19-20] there is no scriptural record that Jesus was in the burning side of Hell, as some teach)**.

41 The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it (Jesus proclaims here the Gentiles of Nineveh as far more righteous than the Pharisees, for they repented, while the Pharisees wouldn't; this infuriated these religious leaders): because they re pented at the preaching of Jonah; and, behold, a greater than Jonah is here ("this generation" of Israel, was visited by no less than the Son of God, whereas Nineveh was privileged to hear only the Prophet Jonah; as well, Christ performed the greatest miracles ever known, while Jonah performed none; Israel was left with no excuse).

42 The queen of the south (Queen of Sheba, another Gentile) shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here (this woman marks a higher stage of inquiry and faith, inasmuch as she traveled a great distance to hear the wisdom of Solomon; by contrast, Jesus came directly to Israel, but still they wouldn't receive Him, even though He was far greater than Solomon in both wisdom and power; what an indictment!).

THE RETURN OF UNCLEAN SPIRITS

43 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man *(regarding Israel, unclean spirits would retreat before Christ), he (the unclean spirit) walks through dry places, seeking rest, and finding none (these spirits of darkness were not actually cast out of Israel, but only retreated before Christ, because He was the stronger Man).

44 Then he (the unclean spirit) says, I will return into my house from whence I came out *(which happened when Israel rejected Christ); and when he (the evil spirit) is come, he finds it (Israel) empty, (empty of the Spirit of God) swept *(clean of the things of God, meaning there was nothing of God left), and garnished (filled with religious ritual).

45 Then goes he *(the evil spirit), and takes with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there *(which is what happened when Israel rejected Christ): and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation (having rejected Christ, Israel was now far worse than she was before He came; it is the same with the modern Church, which hears the Message of the Cross, and then rejects it).

JESUS' TRUE FAMILY

46 While He (Christ) yet talked to the people (concerns the terrible Word He has just delivered concerning Israel's present and future state), behold, His mother and His brethren stood without, desiring to speak with Him (Jesus was probably in a particular house, with it being filled with people, with no more room for others to come in, hence His family not able to get to Him; their desire to speak with Him was not in a positive sense).

47 Then one said unto Him, Behold, Your mother and Your brethren stand without, desiring to speak with You (they had things to say to Him, but they little desired to hear what He had to say to them; thankfully, that would change after His Death and Resurrection).

48 But He answered and said unto him who told Him, Who is My mother? and who are My brethren? (This totally refutes the claims later made by the Catholic Church.)

49 And He stretched forth His Hand toward His Disciples (refers to the original Twelve, but is not limited to them, as it refers to any and all who follow Him, as the next Passage proclaims), and said, Behold My mother and My brethren!

50 For whosoever (increases the dimensions of His family to include all who follow Him) shall do the will of My Father which is in Heaven (proclaims the qualifications for being a part of the Family of God), the same is My brother, and sister, and mother (places no significance on physical birth, but everything on spiritual birth).

CHAPTER 13

THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER

[1] The same day (the day the teaching was given as recorded in the previous Chapter) went Jesus out of the house (probably Peter's house), and sat by the sea side (Sea of Galilee).

[2] And great multitudes were gathered together unto Him (they wanted Him to teach them, which He did), so that He went into a ship, and sat (which was the custom then regarding sitting while one taught); and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

[3] And He spoke many things unto them in Parables (a comparison illustration, used in order to explain a truth), saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow (concerns an illustration with which all would have been familiar);

[4] And when he sowed, some seeds (Word of God) fell by the way side, and the fowls (demon spirits) came and devoured them up:

[5] Some (seed) fell upon stony places, for they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth (no depth):

[6] And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away (because of having no depth, persecutions soon caused them to fall by the wayside; all of this pertains to the presentation of the Gospel, and as obvious, completely refutes the unscriptural doctrine of unconditional eternal security).

[7] And some (seed) fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them (other things were allowed to come in and hinder the growth of the Word in the heart):

8 But other (seed) fell into good ground (receptive ground), and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold (Jn. 15:1-8).

9 Who hath ears to hear, let him hear (whoever hears is responsible to hear, i.e., to obey, and will be so judged; the secret of this first Parable is that only about one-fourth of the expended efforts succeed, and three-fourths fail; subsequent history demonstrates the accuracy of this Prophecy).

JESUS EXPLAINS THE PURPOSE OF SPEAKING IN PARABLES

10 And the Disciples came, and said unto Him (seems to pertain to a later time when they were alone), Why do You speak to them in Parables? (This portrays consternation on their part!)

11 He answered and said unto them (concerns the Lord's method of dealing with two different classes of people, those who really wanted to know God's Ways and those who were merely curious), Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, but to them it is not given (two categories are presented here; in which category are you?).

12 For whosoever has (and wants more), to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance (if one wills Righteousness, the Lord wills more Righteousness to them): but whosoever has not (no interest for more), from him shall be taken away even that he has (he not only loses what he could have had, but even that which he has; to those who accept the Cross, they will have even more, and to those who reject the Cross, they will lose everything, even that which they previously had).

13 Therefore speak I to them in Parables (in order to separate those who hunger and thirst for Righteousness from those who don't): because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand (that is, they do not wish to see or hear or understand; and hence by a just judgment they lose this triple moral ability).

14 And in them (those who reject the Cross [I Cor. 1:23]) is fulfilled the Prophecy of Isaiah, which says, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive (a willful deafness, a willful blindness, and a willful dullness; this Passage is quoted in one form or the other some seven times in the New Testament [Mat. 13:14-15; Mk. 4:12; Lk. 8:10; Jn. 12:39-40; Acts 28:26-27; Rom. 11:8]):

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross (this is the reason for their spiritual dullness and, therefore, rejection of Christ; Spiritual rejection or acceptance begins in the heart), and their ears are dull of hearing (they have heard, and heard, and little acted on what they heard, and the Holy Spirit pulls back until they lose even that which they have had), and their eyes they have closed (deliberately did so, even in the face of irrefutable proof); lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them (they would not turn to Him; had they done so He would most certainly have healed them morally, and spiritually; this speaks of those who have accepted the Lord, but for various reasons will fall by the wayside; as stated, this completely refutes the unscriptural doctrine of unconditional eternal security).

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear (this is the group who desires to know the Lord in an even greater way).

17 For verily I say unto you (signals a very important statement), That many Prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see (that which Christ presented to Israel, but which were rejected), and have not seen them; and to hear those things which you hear, and have not heard them (contrasted were the many, who "desired" to see, hear, and to understand).

PARABLE OF THE SOWER EXPLAINED

18 Hear ye therefore the Parable of the sower (Christ will now explain it).

19 When any one hears the Word of the Kingdom (refers to the Word of God; it speaks of God's Way vs. Satan's way), and understands it not (does not refer to one who is incapable of understanding, but instead, to one who has no desire to understand), then cometh the wicked one (Jesus compares Satan to a vulture), and catches away that which was sown in his heart (refers to Satan being allowed to do such a thing by the individual involved; the initiative does not lie with the Lord or with Satan, but with the person). This is he which receives seed by the way side (the word "way side" refers to the fact that the individual doesn't give it credence, i.e., "unbelief")**.

20 But he who receives the seed (Word of God) into stony places (refers to the second group), the same is he who hears the Word, and anon (immediately) with joy receives it (they make a good start, but then fall by the wayside)**;

21 Yet has he not root in himself (refers to the "stony places"), but endures for a while (he hears the Word of God, believes it, and accepts Christ; it is all done with joy; but then something else happens): for when tribulation or persecution arises because of the Word (which it definitely will), by and by (immediately) he is offended (the offense of the Cross [Gal. 5:11])**.

22 He also who received seed (the Word of God) among the thorns is he who hears the Word (he receives the Word; the soil is fertile and good with plenty depth); and the care of this world (ways of this world), and the deceitfulness of riches (deceitful, simply because the acquiring of such makes a person believe erroneous things), choke the Word (stops its growth), and he becomes unfruitful (such a one is ultimately lost [Jn. 15:2, 6])**.

THE PARABLE OF THE WHEAT AND TARES

[24] Another Parable put He forth unto them, saying (presents the second Parable), The Kingdom of Heaven is likened unto a Man (Christ) which sowed good seed (the Word of God) in his field (the world):

[25] But while men slept (the Church is often asleep), His (Christ's) enemy came (Satan) and sowed tares (apostates) among the wheat (true Christians), and went his way (Satan works mostly through professed Believers).

[26] But when the blade was sprung up (refers to the good seed taking root, growing, and having a healthy start), and brought forth fruit (refers to its intended purpose), then appeared the tares also (the Church has both the true and the false).

[27] So the servants of the householder came and said unto him (refers to those who had helped sow the "good seed"), Sir, did not you sow good seed in your field? from whence then has it tares? (No tares were sowed, so why are they there?)

[28] He said unto them, An enemy has done this (refers to Satan and his ministers [II Cor. 11:13-15]). The servants said unto him, Will you then that we go and gather them up? (Rid the field of the tares?)

[29] But he said, No; lest while you gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them (while the tares [false doctrine] were to be pointed out, no force was to be used to take them out of the field; to do so, would be to destroy some wheat).

[30] Let both grow together until the harvest (refers to the First Resurrection of Life): and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers (refers to the Lord performing this all-important task, because only He has the Wisdom and Ability to do), Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them (the tares will be eternally lost):

but gather the wheat into my barn (refers to those who will be in the First Resurrection [I Thess. 4:13-18]).

THE PARABLE OF THE MUSTARD SEED

31 Another Parable put He forth unto them, saying (the third Parable), The Kingdom of Heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed (Word of God), which a man took (Christ), and sowed in his field (the world):

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds (concerns the small beginnings of the Gospel of Jesus Christ): but when it is grown (which it now is), it is the greatest among herbs (Christianity is the largest faith on Earth, with approximately two billion adherents), and becomes a tree (a mustard bush that becomes a tree is abnormal), so that the birds of the air (all kind of birds, representing all kinds of doctrine) come and lodge in the branches thereof (thus in conduct and in doctrine the failure of what is called Christianity is revealed here beforehand).

THE PARABLE OF THE LEAVEN

33 Another Parable spoke He unto them (the fourth); The Kingdom of Heaven is like unto leaven (invariably presented in Scripture as a symbol of evil), which a woman took (frequently in Scripture the woman as well is presented as an agent of idolatry), and hid in three measures of meal (the meal is the Word of God), till the whole was leavened (more tares than wheat).

JESUS' USE OF PARABLES

34 All these things spoke Jesus unto the multitude in Parables (relates only to this segment of His Teaching); and without a Parable spoke He not unto them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet (Asaph [Ps. 78:2]), saying, I will open My Mouth in Parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world (refers to Truths which have never before been revealed, but are now given, albeit in shadow; as an example, the Gentiles being brought in).

THE PARABLE OF THE WHEAT AND THE TARES EXPLAINED

[36] Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house (He had been teaching by the seaside, and now goes into Peter's home): and His Disciples came unto Him, saying, Declare unto us the Parable of the tares of the field (a private audience).

[37] He answered and said unto them, He who sows the good seed (Word of God) is the Son of Man (Christ is the Lord of the Harvest);

[38] The field is the world (not just the Jews, which in effect, speaks of the coming Church); the good seed are the children of the Kingdom (refers to true Believers of the Word of God); but the tares are the children of the wicked one (they profess to be children of the Kingdom, but in effect, were Satan's ministers in one way or the other [II Cor. 11:13-15]);

[39] The enemy that sowed them (bad seed) is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world (end of the age; the Judgment); and the reapers are the Angels (the Angels which will come back with Christ, and all redeemed Saints, at the Second Coming [Rev., Chpt. 19]).

[40] As therefore the tares (bad seed) are gathered and burned in the fire (Great White Throne Judgment [Rev. 20:11-15]); so shall it be in the end of this world (end of this age).

[41] The Son of Man shall send forth His Angels, and they shall gather out of His Kingdom (separate the tares from the wheat) all things that offend, and them which do iniquity (Great White Throne Judgment);

[42] And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth (the Second Resurrection of Damnation, i.e., "the Second Death" [Rev. 20:11-15]).

43 Then (the beginning of the Kingdom Age) shall the Righteous shine forth as the sun in the Kingdom of their Father (the perfect age to come [Rev., Chpts. 21-22]). Who has ears to hear, let him hear (proclaims the certitude of such action).

THE PARABLE OF THE HIDDEN TREASURE

44 Again (the fifth Parable), the Kingdom of Heaven is like unto treasure (the New Covenant) hid in a field (the world); the which when a man has found (the treasure is Christ), he hides it, and for joy thereof goes and sells all that he has, and buys that field (the moral is, Christ is worth more than everything else, and by far).

THE PARABLE OF THE PEARL OF GREAT PRICE

45 Again (the sixth Parable), the Kingdom of Heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls (this man is rich, but yet not satisfied, and rightly so; "Pearls" are the only substance which cannot be improved by man; this Pearl represents Christ):

46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price (this one pearl among many pearls, which was greater than all, i.e., "Christ"), went and sold all that he had, and bought it (this Pearl is worth everything, and everything is what it will take to obtain it).

THE PARABLE OF THE NET

47 Again (the seventh Parable), the Kingdom of Heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind (all type of Believers come into the Church):

48 Which, when it was full (when the dispensation of the Church runs its course; it is almost over), they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away (the separation of the tares and the wheat).

49 So shall it be at the end of the world (at the end of the age): the Angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just (the "just" are those who trust in Christ and the Cross),

50 And shall cast them (the wicked) into the furnace of fire (Great White Throne Judgment [Rev. 20:11-15]): there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

THE HOUSEHOLDER

51 Jesus said unto them, Have you understood all these things? They say unto Him, Yes, Lord.

52 Then said He unto them, Therefore every Scribe (all Believers are likened here as Scribes, which means they diligently search the Word of God) which is instructed (versed in the Word, which should be all Believers) unto the Kingdom of Heaven is like unto a man who is an householder (possesses the keys to the Kingdom), which brings forth out of his treasure things new and old (can enrich others out of his store of Divine Truth; that Truth as to time is old, i.e., eternal, as to experience, power, and character perpetually new).

JESUS REJECTED AT NAZARETH

53 And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these Parables, He departed thence.

54 And when He was come into His own country (Nazareth), He taught them in their Synagogue (Lk. 4:16-30), insomuch that they were astonished (rendered speechless), and said, Whence has this Man this wisdom, and these mighty works? (Meant to cast aspersions on Christ.)

55 Is not this the carpenter's son? (This was a denial of His claim regarding Messiahship.) is not his mother called Mary? and His brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas? (They were denying as well, His Virgin Birth.)

56 And His sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then has this Man all these things? (If all of these things were so, they were saying, His family, by now, would have mentioned it.)

57 And they were offended in Him (Luke said they were "filled with wrath," and would have killed Him had they been able to do so [Lk. 4:28-30]). But Jesus said unto them, A Prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house (the last phrase "in his own" is revealing; it proclaims the fact that His own family didn't believe in Him [Jn. 7:5]).

58 And He did not many mighty works there (in Nazareth) because of their unbelief (they would not bring the sick and afflicted to Him; unbelief was the reason).

CHAPTER 14

(A.D. 32)

JOHN THE BAPTIST BEHEADED

[1] At that time Herod the Tetrarch (the son of Herod who slew the infants of Bethlehem) heard of the fame of Jesus (it speaks of the miracles Christ performed, even to the raising of the dead),

[2] And he said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist (a guilty conscience); he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

[3] For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison (the Castle of Machaerus on the shores of the Dead Sea) for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife (refers to the reason John had been arrested by Herod and placed in prison).

[4] For John said unto him, It is not lawful for you to have her (Herodias was his niece and the wife of his brother Phillip).

[5] And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

[6] But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.

[7] Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

[8] And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger (the mother of Salome, Herodias, was one of the most wicked women who ever lived).

9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat (a meal), he commanded it to be given her (to save face).

10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus (the mission of John the Baptist was to introduce Jesus; that he did!).

JESUS FEEDS THE FIVE THOUSAND

13 When Jesus heard of it, He departed thence by ship into a desert place apart (He was grieved over the death of John, His beloved forerunner; He could have stopped the execution; however, it was not the Will of God to do so): and when the people had heard thereof, they followed Him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and He healed their sick.

15 And when it was evening, His Disciples came to Him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past (the people had been without food all day, and if they were going to find food, they would need to leave now); send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; give ye them to eat (He was speaking then of the physical sense, but His words carried a higher spiritual cogitation; the Body of Christ is to be fed regarding the Word of God).

17 And they say unto Him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes (little is much if God be in it!).

[18] He said, Bring them hither to Me (the secret is Christ! we are to bring what little we have to Him).

[19] And He commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass (this presents order and a method by which the distribution was made), and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to Heaven, He blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to His Disciples, and the Disciples to the multitude (He took, He Blessed, He did break, and He gave; that is His order with Believers as well).

[20] And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full (an astounding miracle!).

[21] And they who had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children (possibly as many as fifteen thousand people).

JESUS WALKS ON THE WATER

[22] And straightway Jesus constrained (firmly demanded) His Disciples to get into a ship, and to go before Him unto the other side (back to Capernaum), while He sent the multitudes away (but He sent them away, filled both physically and spiritually).

[23] And when He had sent the multitudes away (implying that they did not want to leave), He went up into a mountain apart to pray (expresses what He often did [Mat. 26:36; Mk. 6:46; 14:32; Lk. 6:12; 9:28; Jn. 17:9-20]): and when the evening was come, He was there alone.

[24] But the ship was now in the midst of the sea (concerns not only the Sea of Galilee, but as well, the Sea of Life), tossed with waves (turbulence): for the wind was contrary (difficulties, as well, facing mankind as a result of the Fall).

[25] And in the fourth watch of the night (between 3 a.m. and 6 a.m.) Jesus went unto them (the Holy Spirit revealed to Him, that they were in trouble), walking on the sea (even though the waters were very turbulent, where He walked, it became calm).

26 And when the Disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were troubled (it was more than they could grasp), saying, It is a spirit (they did not actually think it was Jesus); and they cried out for fear (they thought they were about to die).

27 But straightway (immediately) Jesus spoke unto them (once they saw Him), saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid (we are to face adverse circumstances with cheer, knowing the Lord will handle the situation).

28 And Peter answered Him and said, Lord, if it be You (better translated, "since it is You"), bid Me come unto You on the water.

29 And He (Jesus) said, Come (the Master's response to Faith). And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid (he now sees the wind instead of Jesus); and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me (a prayer the Lord will always answer).

31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth His hand, and caught him (this prevented him from sinking further), and said unto him, O you of little faith, wherefore did you doubt? (We must not allow circumstances to bring about doubt.)

32 And when they were come into the ship (every evidence is, after Jesus caught him, Peter walked on the water the second time), the wind ceased (the Power of Christ over the elements).

33 Then they who were in the ship came and worshipped Him (as God), saying, Of a truth You are the Son of God (recognized Him as the Messiah).

JESUS HEALS THE SICK

34 And when they were gone over (came back to Capernaum), they came into the land of Gennesaret (on the western side of the Sea of Galilee, somewhat inward).

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of Him (knowledge of His Presence in their vicinity), they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto Him all who were diseased;

36 And besought Him that they might only touch the hem of His garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole (if the Hem of His garment is so rich with Blessing, how rich must be His Hand and Heart!).

CHAPTER 15

(A.D. 32)

JESUS REBUKES THE SCRIBES AND PHARISEES

[1] Then came to Jesus Scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying (almost all of the opposition to Christ came from religious leaders),

[2] Why do your Disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? (Their confidence was in their man-made rules rather then the Word of God.) for they wash not their hands when they eat bread (had no sanitary meaning; this tradition taught that an evil spirit could sit on the hands of people, and when the hands were washed, the evil spirit would be removed).

[3] But He answered and said unto them (proclaims Christ drawing them back to the Word of God), Why do you also transgress the Commandment of God by your tradition? (He ignored their tradition because it was not Scriptural. He then tells them that their traditions were causing them to transgress the Commandment of God.)

[4] For God commanded, saying, Honour your father and mother: and, He who curses father or mother, let him die the death (Ex. 20:12; 21:17).

[5] But you say (in direct contradiction to what God commanded), Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift (dedicate their estate to the Temple so that they wouldn't have to take care of their aged parents, and a crooked Priest would then give it back to them, after taking a percentage), by whatsoever you might be profited by Me (making an illegal profit off of God, which compounded their sin);

[6] And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free (free from responsibility). Thus have you made the Commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 You (was said to their faces) hypocrites, well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying,

8 This people draw near unto Me with their mouth, and honor Me with their lips; but their heart is far from Me (this defines the hypocrite).

9 But in vain they do worship Me (worship that was not accepted by God indicative of much of the modern Church as well!), teaching for doctrines the commandments of men (anything that adds to or takes away from the Word of God).

THE THINGS THAT DEFILE

10 And He called the multitude, and said unto them (did so in front of the Scribes and Pharisees), Hear, and understand (what He will now say, will be the opposite said by the Scribes and Pharisees):

11 Not that which goes into the mouth defiles a man; but that which comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man (Christ draws the minds of the people away from externals to the true condition of the heart).

12 Then came His Disciples, and said unto Him (concerns a time of private contemplation regarding the things said by Christ), Do you not know that the Pharisees were offended (scandalized), after they heard this saying? (As one divine of old said, "if offence arises from the statement of the Truth, it is more expedient that offence be permitted to arise than that the Truth should be abandoned.")

13 But He answered and said (He did not remain silent, but further proclaimed His position), Every plant, which My Heavenly Father has not planted, shall be rooted up (means that the doctrine of the Pharisees was not of divine origin, but of earthly origin; the day is coming when the tares will be removed from among the wheat).

14 Let them alone (does not mean to not address their error, but means that them being offended is not to be a deterrent to preaching the Truth): they be blind leaders of the blind (a designation applied to all who were not following the Word of God)*. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch (a guaranteed ultimate conclusion).

[15] Then answered Peter and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable (give us more explanation).

[16] And Jesus said, Are you also yet without understanding? (The great reason for the need to be filled with the Spirit, and led by the Spirit [Rom. 8:14].)

[17] Do you not yet understand, that whatsoever enters in at the mouth goes into the belly, and is cast out into the draught? (Proclaims the fact that the eating of food has nothing to do with the spiritual side of man.)

[18] But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man (not everything that comes out of the mouth of a man is defiling, but only that which proceeds from an evil heart).

[19] For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies (this proclaims the depravity of the unconverted human heart, which was the condition of the Pharisees, despite their religiosity):

[20] These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashed hands defile not a man (Satan is a master at placing the emphasis on the insignificant, instead of the real problem).

THE HEALING OF THE DAUGHTER OF THE CANAANITE

[21] Then Jesus went thence (left Capernaum), and departed into the coasts (borders) of Tyre and Sidon.

[22] And, behold, a woman of Canaan (a Gentile) came out of the same coasts (borders), and cried unto Him (the woman was desperate), saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, Thou Son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil (demon).

23 But He answered her not a word (being a Gentile, her petition was wrong, addressing Him as "Son of David"; only the Jews were then privileged to use that term). And His Disciples came and besought Him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us (better translated, "do something for her").

24 But He answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel (His Mission, at least in His First Advent, was exclusively to the Jews).

25 Then came she and worshipped Him, saying, Lord, help me (her position is now beginning to change!).

26 But He answered and said, It is not meet (appropriate) to take the children's bread (that which belonged to the Jews), and to cast it to dogs (Gentiles were looked at as "dogs," so in effect, He was testing her faith).

27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table (when she took the place of a "dog," thus admitting that she had no claim, throwing herself on His Grace as Lord, He at once responded, just as He will presently).

28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is your faith: be it unto you even as you will. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour (the Lord always responds to faith; only two people are spoken of as having "great Faith"; the first was the Gentile Centurion [Mat. 8:5-10], and now this Gentile woman).

JESUS HEALS THE SICK

29 And Jesus departed from thence, and came near unto the Sea of Galilee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there (probably on the northeast side of the Sea of Galilee).

30 And great multitudes came unto Him (could have been several thousands of people), having with them those who were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and he healed them (He healed them all):

31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.

JESUS FEEDS FOUR THOUSAND

32 Then Jesus called His Disciples unto Him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with Me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way (probably ten thousand or more, had had very little to eat in the last three days and nights).

33 And His Disciples say unto Him, Where should we get so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude? (Did they not remember the great Miracle He performed a short time before of this same nature? How so quick we are to forget as well!)

34 And Jesus said unto them, How many loaves have you? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

35 And He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36 And He took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave thanks, and broke them, and gave to His Disciples, and the Disciples to the multitude (the Disciples had to keep coming to Jesus for fresh supplies for the need of the multitude; they had no resources of their own; they were dependent totally upon Him; this is what He is teaching us).

37 And they did all eat, and were filled (satisfied): and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.

38 And they who did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children (probably near ten thousand people).

39 And He sent away the multitude (but sent them away filled physically, and spiritually)*, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Magdala (a small town located about ten miles south of Capernaum).

CHAPTER 16

(A.D. 32)

JESUS REBUKES THE PHARISEES

[1] The Pharisees also with the Sadducees came (proclaims the joining of these two groups who were normally antagonistic to each other), and tempting desired Him that He would show them a sign from Heaven (they wanted Him to call fire down from Heaven, as did Elijah; but they would not accept the recent feeding of the thousands with seven loaves and a few fish).

[2] He answered and said unto them (His answer to them shows the hostility of the natural heart), When it is evening, you say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red.

[3] And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day: for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, you can discern the face of the sky; but can you not discern the signs of the times?

[4] A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign (regrettably, this characterizes this present generation as well); and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the Prophet Jonah (Jesus was sent from Heaven, but they would not accept Him; He was the greatest sign of all). And He left them, and departed (He departed both physically and spiritually).

[5] And when His Disciples were come to the other side (from the western shore of the Sea of Galilee, to the northeastern shore), they had forgotten to take bread.

THE LEAVEN

6 Then Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware of the leaven (false doctrine) of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

7 And they reasoned among themselves (shows an appalling lack of Scriptural and Spiritual knowledge), saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jesus perceived, He said unto them (the Holy Spirit told Him what they were "reasoning"), O you of little faith (Faith in Christ and the Cross is the one necessary ingredient), why reason you among yourselves, because you have brought no bread?

9 Do you not yet understand (the insensibility of the Disciples to the Lord's Actions and to His Teaching, is a humiliating proof of the darkness of man's heart to moral realities), neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets you took up?

10 Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets you took up?

11 How is it that you do not understand that I spoke it not to you concerning bread (bread that one can eat), that you should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees? (Is meant to censure their want of spiritual discernment.)

12 Then understood they how that He bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

PETER'S CONFESSION

13 When Jesus came into the coasts (borders) of Caesarea Philippi (about thirty miles north of the Sea of Galilee), He asked His Disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of Man am? (The third form of unbelief manifested itself in popular indifference, indolence, or mere curiosity respecting the Messiah Himself. Upon the answer to this all-important question, hinges the Salvation of man.)

14 And they said, Some say that You are John the Baptist: some, Elijah; and others, Jeremiah, or one of the Prophets (this form of unbelief manifests itself in the frivolity of the natural heart).

15 He said unto them, But whom say you that I am? (Addressed personally to the Twelve.)

16 And Simon Peter answered and said, You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God (the Great Confession).

17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed are you, Simon Bar–jona (Peter is the son of Jonah, as Jesus is the Son of God): for flesh and blood have not revealed it unto you (mere human ingenuity), but My Father Who is in Heaven (all Spiritual knowledge must be by Revelation).

18 And I say also unto you, That you are Peter (the Lord changed his name from Simon to Peter, which means "a fragment of a rock"), and upon this rock (immovable mass; Jesus is the Living Rock on which the Redeemed as living stones are built; for other foundation can no man lay [I Cor. 3:11]) I will build My Church (the Church belongs to Christ, and He is the Head [Col. 1:18]); and the gates of Hell shall not prevail against it (the power of death caused by sin, shall not prevail against it, which victory was won at the Cross [Vss. 21, 24]).

19 And I will give unto you ("you" refers to all Believers) the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven (refers to symbols of authority, the privilege of preaching or proclaiming the Gospel, which is the privilege of every Believer): and whatsoever you shall bind on earth shall be bound in Heaven (Christ has given the authority and power to every Believer to bind Satan and his minions of darkness, and to do so by using the Name of Jesus [Mk. 16:17-18; Lk. 10:19]): and whatsoever you shall loose on earth shall be loosed in Heaven (looses the Power of God according to the usage of the Name of Jesus; this is the authority of the Believer).

20 Then charged He *(Commanded)*His Disciples that they should tell no man that He was Jesus the Christ (the Name as used here, is a proclamation of Messiahship; by this time, it is painfully obvious that Israel has rejected her Messiah and, therefore, any further proclamation is pointless!).

JESUS FORETELLS HIS DEATH AND RESURRECTION

[21] From that time forth began Jesus to show unto His Disciples, how that He must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the Elders and Chief Priests and Scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day (His sufferings, and the glories that should follow are always associated in Scripture [I Pet. 1:11; 4:13]; the Cross was ever His destination, the very reason He came; the Resurrection was never in doubt).

[22] Then Peter took Him, and began to rebuke Him (Peter chides Jesus for speaking of suffering and death; regrettably, many Preachers continue to do the same, as they reject the Cross), saying, Be it far from You, Lord: this shall not be unto You (at that time Peter, nor any of the Disciples, understood the Cross as it regarded its necessity).

[23] But He turned, and said unto Peter (respects strong action; would be the sternest of rebukes), Get thee behind Me, Satan (Jesus used nearly the same words in rebuking Peter, and the other Disciples that He had used to the Devil, and His temptation [4:10]; all denial of the Cross in any form, is of Satan): you are an offence unto Me (speaks directly to Peter, because he is now being used by Satan): for you savor not the things that be of God, but those that be of men (if it's not the Cross, then it's of men, which means it is of Satan).

[24] Then said Jesus unto His Disciples, If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself (not asceticism, but rather the denial of one's own strength and ability), and take up his cross (the benefits of the Cross, what Jesus did there [Col. 2:14-15]), and follow Me (if Christ is not followed by the means of the Cross, He cannot be followed at all).

[25] For whosoever will save his life shall lose it (tries to live his life outside of Christ and the Cross; it can only be lived in Christ through the Cross): and whosoever will lose his life for My sake shall find it (lose his life to Christ, which means to give his life to Christ, which can only be done through the Cross; he then finds "newness of life" [Rom. 6:3-5]).

[26] For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? (Christ refers here to "gain" and "loss.") or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? (Nothing is more important than the soul, because it is eternal.)

[27] For the Son of Man shall come in the Glory of His Father with His Angels (while the Son must suffer, nevertheless, Glory will follow; He speaks here of the Second Coming); and then He shall reward every man according to his works ("every man" refers first of all to the Saints and the Judgment Seat of Christ, where rewards will be handed out, and to the unredeemed at the Great White Throne Judgment, where eternal damnation will be meted out [Rev. 20:11-15]).

[28] Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of Man coming in His Kingdom (refers to the Transfiguration of Christ, which would take place in a few hours, and would be observed by Peter, James, and John).

CHAPTER 17

(A.D. 32)

THE TRANSFIGURATION

[1] And after six days (is exclusive, meaning, that all the days and time are not included; Luke said, "about eight days," but is inclusive, meaning that everything is included) Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and brought them up into an high mountain apart (does not tell us which mountain; "apart" from the other Disciples)**,

[2] And was transfigured before them (means that the Glory did not shine upon Jesus, but instead, shone out from Him through His raiment): and His Face did shine as the sun (Rev. 1:16), and His Raiment was white as the light (the light made it white)**.

[3] And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elijah talking with Him (Moses and Elijah represented the Law and the Prophets, the dead, and raptured Saints; they spoke with Him of His Atoning Death [Lk. 9:31]; this doctrine is the great theme of Heaven [Rev. 1:5; 5:6, 9; 7:14])**.

[4] Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if you will, let us make here three Tabernacles; one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah (God will not have even the greatest Saints associated with His Beloved Son in worship or teaching)**.

[5] While He yet spoke, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them (this was a demonstration of the Shechinah, a token of the presence of the Most High, which had appeared over the Tabernacle in the wilderness): and behold a Voice out of the cloud (the "cloud" overshadowing them was a fore-view of the Work of the Holy Spirit after the Day of Pentecost in glorifying Christ [Jn. 16:14]), which said, This is My Beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased (we have here the Trinity, the Voice out of the cloud, which was the Father, Jesus, standing in a radiant light, and the Holy Spirit present with the overshadowing cloud); hear ye Him (Hear Him Alone; everything comes through Christ, and what Christ did at the Cross; the Holy Spirit works accordingly [Rom. 8:2]).

6 And when the Disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid (the words, "sore afraid," meant that they were fearful that they would die).

7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid (ever the Voice of the Saviour to those who are truly sincere, but yet wrong).

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes (proclaims them earnestly surveying the locality), they saw no man, save Jesus only (everything hinges on Jesus, and what He did at the Cross).

9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them (Commanded them), saying, Tell the Vision to no man, until the Son of Man be risen again from the dead (as stated, due to the Victory of the Cross, the Resurrection was never in doubt).

JOHN THE BAPTIST AND ELIJAH

10 And His Disciples asked Him, saying, Why then say the Scribes that Elijah must first come? (They were referring to Mal. 4:5. As well, they were confusing the First and the Second Comings.)

11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elijah truly shall first come, and restore all things (Christ speaks here of Elijah who will come in the middle of the Great Tribulation, heralding the Second Coming [Rev., Chpt. 11]).

12 But I say unto you, That Elijah is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed (had Israel received John the Baptist, they would have received Christ, and John would have been Elijah to Jerusalem at that time, because he came in the spirit and power of Elijah [Lk. 1:17])*. Likewise shall also the Son of Man suffer of them (Jesus once again predicts the Cross; nine passages in this Gospel foretell the Crucifixion [16:21; 17:12, 22; 20:17-19, 28; 26:20, 28, 31, 45]).

13 Then the Disciples understood that He spoke unto them of John the Baptist.

THE DISCIPLES' LACK OF POWER

14 And when they were come to the multitude (to the foot of the mountain), there came to Him a certain man, kneeling down to Him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatic, and sore vexed: for ofttimes he falls into the fire, and often into the water (caused by a demon spirit).

16 And I brought him to Your Disciples, and they could not cure him (the inadequacy of man, even believing man).

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation (wrong direction), how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? (Perturbed at the lack of faith on the part of His Disciples.) bring him hither to Me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the devil (demon); and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour (the Word of Christ is such that demons must obey).

PRAYER AND FASTING

19 Then came the Disciples to Jesus apart (privately), and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief (improper understanding regarding Christ and the Cross): for verily I say unto you,

If you have faith as a grain of mustard seed (symbolism), you shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove (the impossible made possible); and nothing shall be impossible unto you (that which is the Will of God).

[21] Howbeit this kind goes not out but by prayer and fasting (the fasted life [Lk. 9:23-24]).

AGAIN FORETELLS DEATH AND RESURRECTION

[22] And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them (lends credence to the thought that it was Mount Tabor, which was in Galilee, where the Transfiguration took place), The Son of Man shall be betrayed into the hands of men (draws the Disciples back to the Mission at hand; that Mission was the Redemption of humanity, which would require the offering of the perfect Sacrifice, which was His Body):

[23] And they shall kill Him (but only because He allowed such [Jn. 10:17-18]), and the third day He shall be raised again (Resurrection). And they were exceeding sorry (but still without understanding).

MIRACULOUS PROVISION

[24] And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received tribute money came to Peter, and said, Does not your master pay tribute? (Temple tax, of about a half shekel per person, required of every Jew yearly [Ex. 30:13].)

[25] He (Peter) said, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented (confronted) him, saying, What do you think, Simon? (Revealed by the Spirit, Jesus questions Peter even before Peter broaches the subject.) of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers? (Assumes the answer.)

[26] Peter said unto him, Of strangers (the correct answer). Jesus said unto him, Then are the children free (Jesus was Lord of the Temple, therefore, did not owe the tax, nor His Disciples).

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them (proclaims Him paying the tax, even though not owed, in order that His enemies not have any occasion against Him), go thou to the sea (Galilee), and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first comes up; and when you have opened his mouth, you shall find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them from Me and you (it was a shekel, which was enough to pay the tax for both Peter and Christ).

CHAPTER 18

(A.D. 32)

JESUS EXPLAINS GREATNESS

[1] At the same time came the Disciples unto Jesus (probably in the home of Peter), saying, Who is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven? (Jesus addresses wrong attitudes.)

[2] And Jesus called a little child unto Him, and set him in the midst of them (the single greatest lesson taught by Christ),

[3] And He said, Verily I say unto you, Except you be converted (Born-Again), and become as little children (a child is totally dependent on its parents, and Believers must be as dependent on Christ), you shall not enter into the Kingdom of Heaven (failure of total dependence on Christ and the Cross, will pull one into unbelief, and, thereby, a lost condition).

[4] Whosoever (no exceptions to this rule) therefore shall humble himself as this little child (requirement for greatness), the same is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven (direct opposite of the standard of the world).

[5] And whoso shall receive one such little child in My Name receives Me (Believers who depend on self, will not accept the Cross, for this is what this means and, therefore, will not receive such a one who does [Lk. 9:27-28]).

THE SERIOUSNESS OF OFFENCES

[6] But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in Me (doesn't refer to weak Christians as some believe, but rather to those who trust Christ and the Cross exclusively), it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea (Christ again uses symbolism).

[7] Woe unto the world because of offences! (Offences against true Believers.) for it must needs be that offences come (due to the Fall); but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh! (All who touch true Believers touch Christ.)

[8] Wherefore if your hand or your foot offend you, cut them off, and cast them from you (symbolism): it is better for you to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire (while not offending true Believers will not save one, offending them will definitely bring about the most serious degree of punishment in eternity).

[9] And if your eye offend you, pluck it out, and cast it from you: it is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire (Christ continues to use symbolism).

[10] Take heed that you despise not one of these little ones (one who trusts in Christ and the Cross); for I say unto you, That in Heaven their Angels do always behold the Face of My Father which is in Heaven (every true Believer is assigned an Angel, who reports to the Heavenly Father, any and all things pertaining to that Believer).

THE LOST SHEEP

[11] For the Son of Man is come to save that which was lost (Salvation was paid for at great price; therefore, all who accept that Salvation become the property of God the Father [I Cor. 6:20]).

[12] How do you think? if a man has an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, does he not leave the ninety and nine, and go into the mountains (proclaims the extensive efforts of the Lord to find the lost one), and seeks that which is gone astray? (Proves that Believers can go astray and, therefore, refutes the unscriptural doctrine of unconditional eternal security.)

13 And if so be that he find it (proclaims the fact, that it is possible, that the sheep be not found), verily I say unto you, he rejoices more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray (is not meant to place any approval on the straying, but instead, on being found; such proclaims a great victory over Satan).

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in Heaven, that one of these little ones should perish (proclaims the fact that a Believer can cease to believe and, therefore, become an unbeliever; if so, such a one will be lost; this shows the preciousness of the soul).

DISPUTES AMONG BELIEVERS

15 Moreover if your brother (brother in the Lord) shall trespass against you (sin against you), go and tell him his fault between you and him alone: if he shall hear you, you have gained your brother (the way to settle disputes).

16 But if he will not hear you, then take with you one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established (in the hearing of impartial witnesses).

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the Church (Elders of the Church): but if he neglect to hear the Church, let him be unto you as an heathen man and a publican (there can be no fellowship).

THE POWER OF BELIEVERS

18 Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever you shall bind on Earth shall be bound in Heaven: and whatsoever you shall loose on Earth shall be loosed in Heaven (if the Believer conducts himself Scripturally, the decision reached will be honored and ratified in Heaven).

THE POWER OF UNITED PRAYER

[19] Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of My Father which is in Heaven ("anything" is conditional on it being the Will of God; God will never allow His Word to be used against Himself).

[20] For where two or three are gathered together in My Name, there am I in the midst of them (the requirement is to meet in His Name; doing such by even two or three, in the Eyes of God, constitute a "Church").

FORGIVENESS

[21] Then came Peter to Him, and said, Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? (One of the most important questions asked by any Disciple.)

[22] Jesus said unto him, I say not unto you, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven (there must be unlimited forgiveness [Lk. 17:4]).

[23] Therefore is the Kingdom of Heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants (a Parable illustrating the principle of forgiveness).

[24] And when he had begun to reckon (to check the books), one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents (if in gold, it represented approximately four billion dollars; if silver, it represented approximately eighty million dollars; a tremendous sum to say the least!).

[25] But forasmuch as he couldn't pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made (this represents the sinner who cannot hope to pay such a staggering amount, no matter what he does!).

[26] The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay you all (he couldn't pay such a vast debt, and neither can we, which is meant to illustrate that which we owe to God).

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt (to forgive one, is at the same time, to loose him).

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him an hundred pence (represents about three hundred dollars): and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that you owe (he did not show the compassion that had been shown him; it becomes more heinous when one considers the difference in the debt).

29 And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay you all (basically says the same thing, as the first debtor had said).

30 And he would not (would not forgive him the three hundred dollars): but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt (which means that him being in prison makes it virtually impossible for him to pay the debt; so he will likely stay there until he dies).

31 So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done (to be sure, the Lord always knows what was done).

32 Then his lord (Christ is Lord of all), after that he had called him (the one he had forgiven the ten thousand talents), said unto him, O you wicked servant, I forgave you all that debt, because you desired it of me (unforgiveness of others is wicked, and puts one in the category of a "wicked servant"):

33 Should not you also have had compassion on your fellow-servant, even as I had pity on you? (We must never forget how much the Lord has forgiven us, and likewise, show the same spirit toward others, who owe us much less than we owe the Lord.)

34 And his lord was wroth (angry), and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him (lack of forgiveness of others revokes the forgiveness of God to us; a sobering thought!)*.

35 So likewise shall My Heavenly Father do also unto you, if you from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses (true forgiveness comes from the heart, and God knows when it is true).

CHAPTER 19

(A.D. 33)

JESUS SPEAKS CONCERNING DIVORCE

[1] And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, He departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts (borders) of Judaea beyond Jordan (He would not come back; it was His farewell to the scene of most of His Miracles and Ministry);

[2] And great multitudes followed Him; and He healed them there (the multitudes trusted Him; the Pharisees tempted Him).

[3] The Pharisees also came unto Him, tempting Him (trying to trap Him), and saying unto Him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? (The question of divorce and remarriage was the overriding question in Israel of that particular time.)

[4] And He answered and said unto them, Have you not read, that He (God) which made them at the beginning made them male and female (destroys the theory of evolution; Jesus was actually the Creator [Jn. 1:1-3]),

[5] And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? (Proclaims God as the founder of marriage, which makes it a Divine institution.)

[6] Wherefore they are no more twain (two), but one flesh (God looks at a man and his wife not as two, but instead "one"). What therefore God has joined together, let not man put asunder (the Will of the Lord is to be sought regarding marriage; however, God recognizes the institution of marriage whether His Will or not).

[7] They say unto Him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away (Deut. 24:1-2)?

[8] He said unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so (divorce is not the Will of God; regarding a Christian husband and wife, there are no true grounds for divorce — if both conduct themselves Scripturally, there will never be a need for divorce).

[9] And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication (an adulterous lifestyle), and shall marry another, commits adultery: and whoso marries her which is put away doth commit adultery (if the marriage is dissolved for Scriptural grounds — fornication or desertion [I Cor. 7:15], remarriage is Scripturally allowed).

[10] His Disciples say unto Him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry (their thinking was wrong [Prov. 18:22]).

[11] But He said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given (in effect, Christ is saying that all should marry, save the few who are called of God to do otherwise; the next Verse tells us what that is).

[12] For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb (accident of birth — no sex drive whatsoever): and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men (castrated, in order to serve the State, which was a custom then): and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the Kingdom of Heaven's sake (personal resolve, were not castrated, as the Apostle Paul). He who is able to receive it, let him receive it (refers to the last group, and speaks of those called of the Lord for such a task, which would be few).

JESUS BLESSES LITTLE CHILDREN

[13] Then were there brought unto Him little children, that He should put His hands on them, and pray: and the Disciples rebuked them (a number of women, hearing the teaching on the sanctity of marriage as given by Christ, brought their children to Jesus for Him to Bless them; their intelligence was higher than that of the Disciples, who tried to prevent this action).

14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto Me: for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven (children are dependent on parents; Believers are to be totally dependent on Christ, of which children are an example).

15 And he laid His hands on them, and departed thence.

THE RICH YOUNG RULER

16 And, behold, one came and said unto Him, Good Master (addressed Him merely as a teacher), what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? ("Doing" is not the answer, but rather, "believing" [Jn. 3:16].)

17 And He said unto him, Why do you call Me good? (You don't recognize Me as God.) there is none good but One, that is, God (Jesus wasn't saying that He wasn't good; in fact, He definitely was good, because He is God): but if you will enter into life, keep the Commandments (is meant to answer the man on the same grounds which he has asked — the grounds of good works! He will show him that he, in fact, cannot attain to eternal life by "keeping Commandments," i.e., "good works").

18 He said unto him, Which? (A ridiculous question!) Jesus said, you shall not commit murder, you shall not commit adultery, you shall not steal, you shall not bear false witness (Jesus didn't say keep one Commandment, but rather all of them, which the man had not done, nor any other man for that matter — except Christ),

19 Honour your father and your mother: and, you shall love your neighbour as yourself (this latter Commandment is taken from Lev. 19:18; it was not a part of the original Ten, but actually summed up all the Commandments, which dealt with one's fellowman).

20 The young man said unto Him, All these things have I kept from my youth up (he was mistaken; he had not): what lack I yet? (This question proclaims the fact that something was wrong.)

[21] Jesus said unto him, If you will be perfect, go and sell that you have, and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in Heaven: and come and follow Me (Jesus put His finger on the two great Commandments of the Law and said: "If you love your neighbor as yourself, then share your wealth with him; and if you love Jehovah your God with all your heart, then follow Me, for one only is good, that is God, and I am He")**.

[22] But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions (the Gospel makes mad, sad, or glad; Naaman went away in a rage; the rich ruler went away sorrowful; but Zacchaeus received Christ joyfully)**.

A WARNING TO THE RICH

[23] Then said Jesus unto His Disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the Kingdom of Heaven (this was contrary to Jewish doctrine, for they taught that riches signified God's approval)**.

[24] And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God (it is impossible for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, and it is equally impossible for the most deeply religious man to enter Heaven on the principle of merit)**.

[25] When His Disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved? (Entrance into the Kingdom of God by man as man, however cultivated and moral, is here declared by the Infallible Judge to be impossible.)

[26] But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible (so then what cannot be obtained by merit may be received by gift; for the Gift of God is eternal life [Rom. 6:23])**.

REWARDS FOR CONSECRATION

[27] Then answered Peter and said unto Him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed you; what shall we have therefore? (This proclaims the fact that it is just as hard for the poor man to leave his little house as it is for the rich noble to forsake his great palace.)

[28] And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That you which have followed Me, in the regeneration (the Millennium) when the Son of Man shall sit in the throne of His glory (during the coming Kingdom Age Jesus will reign Personally from Jerusalem and, in effect, govern the entirety of the world), you also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel (this graphically answers the question posed by Peter; they had exchanged a little fishing boat for a Kingdom; it pays to live for God)**.

[29] And every one who has forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for My Name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold (Mark added, "now in this time" [Mk. 10:30] Christ meant exactly what He said, but we must take everything into account), and shall inherit everlasting life (this is freely given on acceptance of Christ [Rom. 6:23])**.

[30] But many who are first shall be last; and the last shall be first (Israel was "first" and the "Church" is last in relation to time, but in respect to position the last shall be first)**.

CHAPTER 20

THE PARABLE OF THE LABORERS

[1] For the Kingdom of Heaven is like unto a man who is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard (a Parable — in effect, Jesus is answering Peter's question, "what shall we have therefore?", the primary lesson that we will learn is that reward of the Kingdom is not of debt, but of Grace).

[2] And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day (about forty dollars a day in our present money), he sent them into his vineyard.

[3] And he went out about the third hour (9 a.m. in the morning), and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,

[4] And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way (they left the amount of payment up to the householder).

[5] Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour (12 o'clock noon and 3 p.m. in the afternoon), and did likewise.

[6] And about the eleventh hour (5 o'clock in the afternoon) he went out, and found others standing idle, and said unto them, Why stand you here all the day idle?

[7] They say unto him, Because no man has hired us. He said unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive (they as well, took him at his word).

[8] So when evening was come (about 6 p.m.), the lord of the vineyard said unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first (the ones hired last were to be paid first, with the ones hired first being paid last).

[9] And when they came who were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny (about forty dollars for the one hour's work).

[10] But when the first came (the first ones hired), they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny (forty dollars).

[11] And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house, [12] Saying, These last have wrought (worked) but one hour, and you have made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.

[13] But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do you no wrong: did not you agree with me for a penny?

[14] Take that which is yours, and go your way: I will give unto this last, even as unto you (our Lord is teaching Grace here, which means that we do not obtain Salvation from Him by merit, but as well, it speaks of Israel and the Church; the Church although last, will receive just as much as Israel, who was first).

[15] Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is your eye evil, because I am good? (No man has the right to make a claim on God because of merit. It must all be by Faith in Christ and the Cross [Rom. 3:20-31].)

[16] So the last shall be first, and the first last (the Church was chosen last, but will be first, because Israel which was chosen first, rejected the Lord): for many be called, but few chosen (many are called, but only a few choose to heed the call).

JESUS AGAIN FORETELLS HIS DEATH AND RESURRECTION

[17] And Jesus going up to Jerusalem (when and where He would be Crucified) took the twelve Disciples apart in the way (privately), and said unto them,

[18] Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of Man shall be betrayed unto the Chief Priests and unto the Scribes, and they shall condemn Him to death,

[19] And shall deliver Him to the Gentiles (the Romans) to mock, and to scourge (to beat Him), and to crucify Him: and the third day He shall rise again (both the Jews and the Gentiles condemned Christ).

THE MOTHER OF JAMES AND JOHN

[20] Then came to Him the mother of Zebedee's children (Salome) with her sons (James and John), worshipping Him, and desiring a certain thing of Him (the fourth prediction of the Crucifixion failed like that of 17:22-23 to displace in the hearts of the Disciples self-interest and self-importance).

[21] And He said unto her, What do you want? She said unto Him, Grant that these my two sons (James and John) may sit, the one on your right hand, and the other on the left, in Your Kingdom (we see here the first signs of politics in the Church).

[22] But Jesus answered and said, You know not what you ask (unless the Holy Spirit enlightens the heart, the clearest spiritual teaching has neither meaning nor power; this fact humbles man's pride). Are you able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of (the cup of suffering), and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? (This is the baptism that's of suffering. The Cross will illicit opposition from both the Church and the world, but more so from the Church.) They say unto Him, We are able (they did not know what they were saying; they were thinking of thrones in glory, and definitely not of suffering).

[23] And He said unto them, you shall drink indeed of My cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with (every true Christian will suffer the indignities of the Cross; if not, they aren't living and preaching the Cross, which means they are not living and preaching the Gospel): but to sit on My right hand, and on My left, is not Mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of My Father (positions in the Kingdom of the Son were planned by the Father, and the Son, and the Unity of the Godhead, would only give such positions to those to whom the Father had determined to grant them).

[24] And when the ten (remaining Disciples) heard it (heard what was requested by Salome), they were moved with indignation (they wanted the positions themselves) against the two brethren (James and John).

[25] But Jesus called them (all twelve) unto Him, and said, you know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they who are great exercise authority upon them (worldly greatness, which is the opposite of spiritual greatness).

[26] But it shall not be so among you (the Believer is not to aspire to worldly greatness): but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister (servant);

[27] And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant (one giving himself wholly to another's will, at least that which is scriptural):

[28] Even as the Son of Man came not to be ministered unto (not to have servants wait on him), but to minister (to serve others), and to give His life a ransom for many (which He did on the Cross).

JESUS HEALS TWO BLIND MEN

[29] And as they departed from Jericho (the only time He went to Jericho of which we are aware), a great multitude followed Him (Jesus is on His way to Jerusalem).

[30] And, behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, Thou Son of David (Bartimaeus was one of these men; both were healed).

31 And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace (demanded that they be quiet): but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, Thou Son of David (this designation recognized Christ as the Messiah).

32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will you that I shall do unto you?

33 They say unto Him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

34 So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him (two blind men are mentioned by Matthew in keeping with his Gospel; they represent the Hebrew nation in its two divisions of Israel and Judah; and their receiving sight illustrates and predicts the light that will shine upon the nation in the future day, when the Son of David will make His grand entrance into Jerusalem at the Second Coming).

CHAPTER 21

THE TRIUMPHAL ENTRY INTO JERUSALEM

[1] And when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem (the last six days of the Lord's earthly life began here), and were come to Bethphage (very near Jerusalem), unto the Mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two Disciples (tradition says that it was Peter and John),

[2] Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you (probably refers to Bethphage), and straightway (immediately) you shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto Me.

[3] And if any man say ought (anything) unto you, you shall say, The Lord has need of them; and straightway (immediately) he will send them.

[4] All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

[5] Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, your King comes unto you, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass (Zech. 9:9).

[6] And the Disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

[7] And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes (a saddle of sorts), and they set Him thereon (He rode the colt, with the other one, its mother, following with its back also prepared for a rider, nevertheless absent, which served as a symbol of Israel which rejected Christ).

[8] And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way (concerned the thousands who were coming into Jerusalem to celebrate the three great Feast's, "The Passover, Unleavened Bread, and First-fruits"; Christ would fulfill all three); others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed (scattered) them in the way (probably referred to palm fronds and branches from olive trees).

9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed (represents Israel before and the Church which followed), cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David (this was a Feast of Tabernacles expression, but premature): Blessed is He Who comes in the Name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest (all of this was terminology by the people recognizing Him as the Messiah; but He was not recognized as such by the religious leaders of Israel).

10 And when He was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this? ("Was moved" refers to "quake" as in an earthquake; thousands before and behind Him, were making the city ring with the great Salutation, "Hosanna in the Highest".)

11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus the Prophet of Nazareth of Galilee (this is the title that was most understandable to the people. On this day, the 69 th week [483 years] of Daniel's prediction was completed [Dan. 9:27]).

THE CLEANSING OF THE TEMPLE

12 And Jesus went into the Temple of God, and cast out all them who sold and bought in the Temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them who sold doves (this was in the Court of the Gentiles; it was a different incident than that narrated in Jn. 2:13; the first commenced the beginning of His Ministry, this last one, its close),

13 And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but you have made it a den of thieves (Isa. 56:7).

14 And the blind and the lame came to Him in the Temple; and He healed them (Heaven condemned the wrong use of the Temple, He now showed them the right use of it).

15 And when the Chief Priests and Scribes saw the wonderful things that He did, and the children crying in the Temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David; they were sore displeased (most of the modern Church world is "sore displeased" as well, at any demonstration of the Holy Spirit),

16 And said unto Him, do You hear what these say? And Jesus said unto them, Yes; have you never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings (little children) You have perfected praise? (The strength of the weak is praise, and worship of Christ is strength [Ps. 8:2].)

THE BARREN FIG TREE CURSED

17 And He left them (the religious leaders), and went out of the city (Jerusalem) into Bethany (home of Lazarus, Mary, and Martha); and He lodged there (probably out in the open; there was no room for Him when He began His Life, and no room for Him at the end of His Life).

18 Now in the morning as He returned into the city (Jerusalem), He hungered (suggests that He did not spend the night with Lazarus, Mary, and Martha, but rather in the open).

19 And when He saw a fig tree in the way, He came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only (symbolic of Israel; all leaves and no fruit), and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on you henceforward for ever (during the whole of time unto Israel's present position). And presently the fig tree withered away (immediately began to wither; Israel, upon her rejection of Christ, immediately began to whither).

20 And when the Disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away! (This was the next day. They saw the miracle, but did not know what the miracle was intended to teach.)

21 Jesus answered and said unto them (He deals with them on their level, not on the level the miracle was intended to convey), Verily I say unto you, If you have faith, and doubt not, you shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if you shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done (symbolic terminology respecting the power of true Faith; all Faith must rest in Christ and Him Crucified, meaning that its correct object is always the Cross; the Will of God will then be carried out, and mountains of difficulties removed).

22 And all things, whatsoever you shall ask in prayer, believing, you shall receive ("all things" according to the Will of God; "Believing" pertains to the correct object of Faith, which must always be the Cross [I Cor. 1:17-18, 23; 2:2]).

JESUS ESTABLISHES HIS AUTHORITY

23 And when He was come into the Temple (early in the morning), the Chief Priests and the Elders of the people (religious leaders) came unto Him as He was teaching (interrupted His teaching), and said, By what authority do You do these things? and who gave You this authority? (If He claimed that God gave Him this authority that would have been admittance that He was the Messiah. This they wanted Him to do, in order to accuse Him of blasphemy.)

24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if you tell Me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things (in effect, by the question He will pose, will be the answer).

25 The Baptism of John (of repentance), from where was it? from Heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From Heaven; He will say unto us, Why did you not then believe him? (John introduced Christ as the Messiah.)

26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; for all hold John as a Prophet (whichever way they answered, put them in a dilemma; if they admitted that John was the predicted forerunner of Christ, then they were bound to receive Jesus as the Messiah).

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell (this was untrue; they were the religious leaders of Israel and were supposed to know right from wrong). And He said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things (Jesus showed that they knew and were unwilling to answer.; in effect He said, "If you will not be honest with Me and the people, it is pointless to continue this conversation")**.

THE PARABLE OF THE TWO SONS

[28] But what think you? (This Parable and the next are directed to these religious leaders, as well as the people.)A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work today in my vineyard (the "certain Man" represents the Lord; the "two sons" represent the unredeemed, who made no pretense at Salvation, while the second represented the Pharisees and their followers, who made every pretense of religion)**.

[29] He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went (this represents the first son, who at the outset made no pretense of Salvation, but later repented)**.

[30] And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and he went not (this represents the Pharisees and their followers, who claimed much, but had nothing)**.

[31] Which of the two did the will of his father? They say unto Him, The first (this proclaims the only answer that could be given; they little realized in their self-righteous piety that the Parable was directed at them; they were the ones who proclaimed their allegiance to God and His Word, but in reality, had no allegiance at all!). Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the Kingdom of God before you (He said this to their faces, and before the people; He could not have insulted them more, putting them beneath publicans, whom they considered to be traitors, and harlots)**.

[32] For John (John the Baptist) came unto you in the way of righteousness, and you believed him not (speaking to the religious leaders): but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and you, when you had seen it, repented not afterward, that you might believe him (they saw the changed lives as a result of John's Gospel, but still wouldn't believe)**.

THE WICKED HUSBANDMAN

33 Hear another Parable: There was a certain householder (represents God the Father), which planted a vineyard (the vineyard illustrated the Kingdom of Heaven, which was entrusted to Israel), and hedged it round about (the Lord protected it), and dug a winepress in it (represents Blessings), and built a tower (represents the position of watchmen who were to serve as protectors of the vineyard), and let it out to husbandmen (at the time of Christ, the husbandmen represent the Scribes and the Pharisees), and went into a far country (left the vineyard in their care):

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near (the time when Israel was to extend the Kingdom among other nations), he sent his servants to the husbandmen (the Prophets were sent to Israel), that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And the husbandmen (religious leaders) took his servants (the Prophets), and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another (Mat. 23:37).

36 Again, he sent other servants (Prophets) more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all he sent unto them his son (the Lord Jesus Christ), saying, They will reverence my son (this Parable also asserts the Doctrine of the Trinity).

38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir (the religious leaders of Israel knew that Jesus was the Son of God and, therefore, the Messiah of Israel); come, let us kill Him (the religious leaders of Israel were murderers), and let us seize on His inheritance (they imagined that if they could destroy Christ, they could continue in their position of the inheritance; they killed that they might possess, but killing was the road to their sure destruction).

39 And they caught Him (that which would take place a few hours later), and cast Him out of the vineyard (excommunicated Him, in effect, claiming to Israel that He was an imposter), and slew Him (was done only after they had pronounced their curses upon Him, which in their minds legitimized their hideous action of murder).

40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard comes, what will he do unto those husbandmen? (The religious leaders are not quite sure where Jesus is going with this, and consequently, will continue to bite until they hang themselves.)

41 They say unto Him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men (they little realized that they were speaking of themselves), and will let out His vineyard unto other husbandmen (is exactly what happened! the Lord turned from the Jews to the Gentiles [Acts 18:6]), which shall render him the fruits in their seasons (after a fashion, the Church has done that).

42 Jesus said unto them, Did you never read in the Scriptures (Jesus directs them to the Word of God), The Stone (Christ) which the builders rejected (Israel rejected Christ [Ps. 118:22-23]), the same is become the Head of the corner (everything hinged on Christ): this is the Lord's doing (the Plan of God), and it is marvellous in our eyes? (In the eyes of those who accept Christ.)

43 Therefore I say unto you, The Kingdom of God shall be taken from you (taken from the religious leaders and the people of Israel, which it was in 70 A.D., when Titus, the Roman General destroyed Jerusalem; in "saving their lives they lost them" [Mat. 16:25]), and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof (refers to the Gentiles, of which most of the Church consists, who took the place of the Jews in the Plan of God [Acts 13:46-49; 15:13-18; Rom. 10:19; 11:26]).

44 And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken (refers to Judgment and not Blessing, as some claim): but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder (refers to those who put themselves in active opposition to Christ and His Kingdom; they will ultimately be destroyed, and without hope of recovery, which includes every religion of the world).

45 And when the Chief Priests and Pharisees had heard His Parables, they perceived that He spoke of them (speaks of the very leading religious leaders, who had conveyed to them that which Jesus had said).

46 But when they sought to lay hands on Him (proclaims the wickedness of their evil hearts), they feared the multitude (their only restraint), because they took Him for a Prophet (the last "they" speak of the multitude, and not the Pharisees and Chief Priests, etc.).

CHAPTER 22

(A.D. 33)

THE PARABLE OF THE MARRIAGE FEAST

[1] And Jesus answered and spoke unto them again by Parables, and said (Jesus is still in the Temple, and continuing with His Message; "them" refers to the religious leaders of Israel),

[2] The Kingdom of Heaven is like unto a certain king (God the Father), which made a marriage for his son (the Lord Jesus Christ),

[3] And sent forth his servants (the Prophets) to call them (Israel) who were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come (they rejected the Prophets and even their Messiah; the phrase proclaims a studied and deliberate rejection).

[4] Again, he sent forth other servants (which could well refer to His personal Disciples, and the Apostle Paul, and those in the Early Church, whose Ministry was yet future), saying, Tell them which are bidden (this is an invitation directed personally to the people of Israel; the first few Chapters of the Book of Acts will bear this out), Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready (a strong sense of urgency, for time is running out): come unto the marriage (respects the last invitation given to the Jews that could well have been given by the Apostle Paul [Acts, Chpt. 23]).

[5] But they made light of it (Israel's response to the Gospel), and went their ways (their ways instead of God's Ways), one to his farm, another to his merchandise (Israel had no interest in the Gospel; they were more interested in money; how much does this characterize the modern Church!):

6 And the remnant (those of Israel who didn't want the Gospel, which included the religious leaders) took his servants (the Apostles), and entreated them spitefully, and slew them (the time of the Early Church was glorious, but as well, a time of intense persecution).

7 But when the king (the Heavenly Father) heard thereof, he was wroth (extremely angry): and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city (exactly what happened in A.D. 70, when Titus destroyed Jerusalem)**.

8 Then said he to his servants (the Plan of God is not halted, only its direction), The wedding is ready (will go as planned, but with a change of guests), but they which were bidden were not worthy (concerns Israel who would not accept the worthiness of Christ)**.

9 Go ye therefore into the highways (the balance of the world), and as many as you shall find (love invites "the many"), bid to the marriage (give an invitation to the Gentiles, which was the Lord's Plan all along, but not in this fashion)**.

10 So those servants (Apostles and Prophets) went out into the highways (world evangelism, actually begun by the Apostle Paul), and gathered together all as many as they found (the Gospel invitation given to everyone; none are excluded), both bad and good (proclaims the fact that the "good" need Salvation, as well as the "bad"): and the wedding was furnished with guests (respects the redeemed who will be made up of both Jews and Gentiles)**.

11 And when the king (God the Father) came in to see the guests (it was customary for the host to come and see their guests after they were assembled), he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment (a wedding garment supplied by the King, which was the custom in those days)**:

12 And he said unto him, Friend (used in a negative way), how did you think you could come in hither not having a wedding garment? (You have on your own garment, which is self-righteousness, and have refused *my garment, which is the Righteousness of Christ.)And he was speechless *(this man deemed his own garment of self-righteousness good enough for the feast; and it suited him very well until the king came in, and then he was exposed, and cast out).

[13] Then said the king (God the Father) to the servants *(Angels, in this case), Bind him hand and foot, and take him away *(also refers to true Preachers who proclaim Salvation to Christ-acceptors, and doom to those who are Christ-rejecters), and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth *(Hell is the end result of all self-righteousness).

[14] For many are called *(includes the whole world, which are many — and called by God), but few are chosen *(few respond favorably to the call).

TRIBUTE MONEY TO CAESAR

[15] Then went the Pharisees *(the self-righteous hypocrites to whom Christ was speaking), and took counsel (with the Herodians and Sadducees) how they might entangle Him in His talk *(trap Him so they could arrest Him; how foolish they were!).

[16] And they sent out unto Him their Disciples (Disciples of the Pharisees) with the Herodians *(those who claimed Herod to be the Messiah), saying, Master *(teacher), we know that Y ou are true, and teach the way of God in truth, neither carest Thou for any man: for You regard not the person of men *(flattery, which they did not at all believe, but was a part of their clever trap; they were foolish to try and match wits with Him, but in their stupidity they kept trying).

[17] Tell us therefore, What do you think? Is it lawful (the Law of Moses) to give tribute (pay taxes) unto Caesar, or not? (This question raged in Israel at that time. In their thinking, either way He answered would trap Him. If He said it was not lawful, this would have put Him in opposition to the Roman government. Had He said it was lawful, He would have denied His claim as Messiah, the King of Israel.)

18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness (pertains to the hypocrisy which prompted their question), and said, Why tempt you Me (He saw through their craftiness), you hypocrites? (He said this to their faces.)

19 Show Me the tribute money (the type of coin used to pay the tax). And they brought unto Him a penny (the coin).

20 And He said unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? (Was probably the image of Tiberius on the coin.)

21 They say unto Him, Caesar's. Then said He unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's (lawful government is here recognized, and support for government approved; if done correctly, support for government and support for God will not clash).

22 When they had heard these words (in this short statement, a new sphere of government was introduced, the two spheres of Church and State to be distinct and not joined), they marveled (were left speechless), and left Him, and went their way (they were silenced, but their evil hearts were not changed).

THE RESURRECTION

23 The same day came to Him the Sadducees (the third party in Israel which tried to trap Him), which say that there is no Resurrection (they did not believe in a future life of the soul, or the Resurrection of the body), and asked Him,

24 Saying, Master (teacher), Moses said (they studied the Bible, but not for it to mold their life), If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother ([Deut. 25:5-10] this was only under the Old Covenant, and was not carried over into the New Covenant).

25 Now there were with us seven brethren (a hypothetical case): and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased (died), and, having no issue

[26] Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

[27] And last of all the woman died also.

[28] Therefore in the Resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her (they now spring their trap).

[29] Jesus answered and said unto them (that which seemed to be unanswerable to others, was simple for Him), You do err, not knowing the Scriptures (once again, He takes them to the Word of God), nor the power of God (addresses itself to the denial by the Sadducees of the supernatural).

[30] For in the Resurrection (this proclaims by Christ the validity of the Doctrine of the Resurrection) they (all who are saved) neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the Angels of God in Heaven (do not die; as well, Christ proclaims existence of Angels, which the Sadducees also denied).

[31] But as touching the Resurrection of the dead (guarantees their Resurrection and as well, life after death), have you not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying (Ex. 3:6, 16), [32] I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living (portrays the fallacy of the great Plan of God being built and predicated on that which is non-existent; the Lord is saying that these men of whom He spoke, and all others who had died in the Faith were then alive, and will be ever alive; in this, Christ teaches the immortality of the soul and that God is the God of all departed souls; also, the great investment that Christ would make at the Cross, was definitely not to be made for all the Sainted dead who will have no existence).

[33] And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at His doctrine (at the simplicity of what He said concerning the Resurrection, by using examples from the Word of God).

THE GREAT COMMANDMENT

[34] But when the Pharisees had heard that He had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together (they normally hated each other).

[35] Then one of them, which was a lawyer (Scribe), asked Him a question, tempting Him, and saying,

[36] Master (teacher), which is the great Commandment of the law? (The Law of Moses.)

[37] Jesus said unto him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind (this is the foundation of all the Law, and as well, applies to the present Day of Grace).

[38] This is the first and great Commandment (Love of God must be "first" before anything else can be claimed).

[39] And the second is like unto it, You shall love your neighbour as yourself (as one loves their neighbor, accordingly, one loves God).

[40] On these two Commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets (this includes the New Testament, as well!).

DAVID'S SON

[41] While the Pharisees were gathered together (refers to Jesus speaking to the great crowd in the Temple, which contained many Pharisees), Jesus asked them (concerns the most important question they will ever be asked, because it pertains to the Person of Christ, the Messiah),

[42] Saying, What do you think of Christ? (What were their thoughts concerning the Messiah?) whose Son is He? *(He will now bring them face-to-face with His identity.)*They say unto him, The Son of David (this is the correct answer as outlined in II Sam., Chpt. 7).

43 He said unto them, How then does David in spirit call Him Lord, saying (the Messiah was David's Son — in his lineage — and as well, David's Lord; this was revealed to David by the Holy Spirit, and brings together Christ's Humanity and Deity)**,

44 The LORD said unto My Lord ([Ps. 110:1] this refers to God the Father speaking to God the Son), Sit Thou on My Right Hand (refers to Christ being exalted to the highest position in Heaven, which immediately followed the ascension [Phil. 2:9-11]), till I make Your enemies Your footstool? (Refers to all enemies being put down during the Millennium and at its conclusion [I Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10].)

45 If David then call Him, Lord, how is He his Son? (He is David's Lord because He is God; He is David's Son because He became man through Mary of the House of David [Lk. 1:34-35; 3:23-38] this one question presents to them the truth of His Incarnation — God becoming Man.)

46 And no man was able to answer Him a word (they could not refute His argument), neither does any man from that day forth ask Him any more questions (portrays the fact that His Spiritual and Scriptural intelligence far exceeded anything they had ever seen or known).

CHAPTER 23

(A.D. 33)

THE SINS OF THE SCRIBES AND PHARISEES

[1] Then spoke Jesus to the multitude, and to His Disciples (this is not the Jesus of the modern Church or fashionable pulpit),

[2] Saying, The Scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat (the "Scribes" proclaimed to be interpreters of the Law of Moses for the people):

[3] All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do (concerned a correct interpretation of the Scriptures, and not their glosses); but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not (they do not practice what they preach; remember, Jesus is saying this, in the Temple, before the Pharisees and the people).

[4] For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders (concerns the glosses and additions that had been made to the law by these hypocrites); but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers (they do not themselves do what they demand of others).

[5] But all their works they do for to be seen of men (self-righteousness): they make broad their phylacteries (a small box worn on the arm or forehead, and containing Scriptures), and enlarge the borders of their garments (tassels composed of white and blue threads, intended to remind the wearers of the Commandments of the Lord; they made these overly large to draw attention to themselves),

[6] And love the uppermost rooms at feasts (the most honored place at the table), and the chief seats in the synagogues (seats of honor),

7 And greetings in the markets (flowery salutations), and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi ("teacher," a favorite title claimed by the Pharisees).

8 But you are not to be called Rabbi (it concerned the greedy ambition which loved the empty title, and took any means to obtain it): for One is your Master (Teacher, Leader, Guide), even Christ (the Lord Jesus Christ); and all you are brethren (no one Believer is higher than another, and neither can have from Christ any authority over other Believers [I Pet. 5:1-8]).

9 And call no man your father upon the earth (eminent teachers to whom the people were taught to look to rather than God): for one is your Father, which is in Heaven (all true Bible teachers must cause men to look to God, and not to themselves as the source of power and truth).

10 Neither be ye called masters (means that Preachers are not to be called spiritual leaders): for one is your Master, even Christ (actually means that God and Christ are the only One's Who have any right to these titles).

11 But he who is greatest among you shall be your servant (the definition of Christian greatness, i.e., "the servant principle").

12 And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased (pride and vanity); and he who shall humble himself shall be exalted (is the universal Law of God's dealings with men).

WOES UPON THE SCRIBES AND PHARISEES

13 But woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! *(The first of eight woes, and said to their faces. There could be no greater insult to them than being called "hypocrites"!)*for you shut up the Kingdom of Heaven against men (is the first scheme of Satan, and is carried out through religion): for you neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them who are entering to go in (they refuse to accept Christ, and stood in the door to bar access to any and all who would attempt to come in).

14 Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer (projects a false piety which deceives people, and the most helpless at that): therefore you shall receive the greater damnation (this tells us that religious wickedness is the greatest wickedness of all).

15 Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you compass sea and land to make one proselyte (working zealously to draw people to themselves, instead of the Lord), and when he is made, you make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves (religious people are the hardest of all to bring to the Lord).

16 Woe unto you, you blind guides (these religious leaders were spiritually blind, but yet they were serving as spiritual guides for the people, which guaranteed the people's spiritual destruction; is it any different presently?), which say, Whosoever shall swear by the Temple, it is nothing (an oath that need not be kept); but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the Temple, he is a debtor! (If one does such, he is bound to hold to his oath.)

17 You fools and blind (proclaims Christ adding to the epithets of hypocrites and blind, the word "fools!"): for whether is greater, the gold, or the Temple that sanctifieth the gold? (The answer of Christ was not meant to place a seal of approval on swearing oaths, but instead, the foolishness of such a position. The "gold" didn't sanctify the "Temple" but rather, the opposite!)

18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the Altar, it is nothing (an oath that doesn't need to be kept); but whosoever sweareth by the gift *(Sacrifice)*that is upon it, he is guilty (if one swears an oath by the Sacrifice on the Altar, he's bound to keep such an oath, or so they said).

19 You fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift (Sacrifice), or the Altar that sanctifieth the gift? (The religious leaders of Israel had a wrong conception of the entirety of the Plan of God.)

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the Altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon (all were equally important).

[21] And whoso shall swear by the Temple, sweareth by it, and by Him Who dwells therein (their sin was the sin of making God a part of their evil; it is the same presently with many modern Preachers).

[22] And he who shall swear by Heaven swears by the Throne of God, and by Him Who sits thereon (Christ says here that to swear by "Heaven" includes God and His Throne whether realized or not).

[23] Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you pay tithe of mint and anise and cumin (small plants used for seasoning), and have omitted the weightier matters of the Law, Judgment, Mercy, and Faith (they were meticulous about these insignificant things, but gave little or no heed at all, to those things which really mattered): these ought you to have done (pertaining to Scriptural Judgment, Mercy, and Faith), and not to leave the other undone (make sure, as well, that you pay tithe on all that you have; all of the Word of God is to be obeyed, not just part).

[24] You blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel (this is self-righteousness taken to an ultra extreme).

[25] Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter (outward show), but within they are full of extortion and excess (the heart).

[26] You blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter (the heart), that the outside of them may be clean also (has to do with moral purity which comes from within, and if such is the case, the outside will be clean as well).

[27] Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward (once a year, the Jews white washed the tombs in order to make them conspicuous that men may not contract ceremonial defilement by touching or walking over them [Num. 19:16]), but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness (this symbolized the Pharisees).

[28] Even so you also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within you are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

[29] Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! (Presents the eighth and final "woe"!), because you build the tombs of the Prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous (speaks of the honors paid to departed Saints, while at the same time, planning to murder living Saints, even Christ!)**,

[30] And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the Prophets (all the time they were plotting to murder Christ)**.

[31] Wherefore you be witnesses unto yourselves (be honest with yourself), that you are the children of them which killed the Prophets (you have the same murderous hearts as those you condemn)**.

[32] Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers (their wickedness was about to bring judgment, which it did!)**.

[33] You serpents, you generation of vipers (He likens them to that old serpent, their father, the Devil [Jn. 8:44; Rev. 12:9; 20:2]), how can you escape the damnation of Hell? (Eternal destiny of these religious leaders would be Hell. What an indictment!)

[34] Wherefore, behold, I send unto you Prophets, and wise men, and Scribes (pertains to those of the Early Church): and some of them you shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall you scourge in your Synagogues, and persecute them from city to city (the Book of Acts records all of this, exactly as stated by Christ)**:

[35] That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth (speaks of the cup of iniquity being filled; Judgment was about to come, which it did!), from the blood of righteous Abel (Gen., Chpt. 4) unto the blood of Zechariah, son of Barachias, whom you killed between the Temple and the Altar (more than likely, Zechariah the Prophet [Zech. 1:1])**.

36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation (and it did! about thirty-seven years later, in 70 A.D., Jerusalem was totally destroyed by Titus, the Roman General).

JESUS WEEPS OVER JERUSALEM

37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem (presents Jesus standing in the Temple when He gave this sorrowing account), you who kill the Prophets, and stone them which are sent unto you (presents the terrible animosity tendered toward these Messengers of God), how often would I have gathered your children together, even as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, and you would not! (Proclaims every effort made by the Lord, and made "often," to bring Israel back to her senses.)

38 Behold, your house (the Temple or Jerusalem, are no longer God's habitation) is left unto you desolate (without God, which means they were at the mercy of Satan).

39 For I say unto you, you shall not see Me henceforth, till you shall say, Blessed is He Who comes in the Name of the Lord (the Second Coming).

CHAPTER 24

(A.D. 33)

DESTRUCTION OF THE TEMPLE PREDICTED

[1] And Jesus went out, and departed from the Temple (when He left, God left): and His Disciples came to Him for to show Him the buildings of the Temple (this structure was one of the most beautiful in the world of that day).

[2] And Jesus said unto them, Do you not see all these things? (Is asked by Christ in response to the remarks made by His Disciples concerning the beauty of the Temple.) verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down (was fulfilled in total exactness; it took place in 70 A.D.).

SIGNS OF THE ENDTIME

[3] And as He sat upon the Mount of Olives (the coming siege of Jerusalem by the Romans some thirty-seven years later, began at this exact spot where Christ was sitting), the Disciples came unto Him privately (out of earshot of the many Pilgrims in the city for the Passover), saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? *(Has to do here with the utterance He had just given concerning the destruction of the Temple.)*and what shall be the sign of Your coming (refers to the Second Coming), and of the end of the world? (Should have been translated "age.")

[4] And Jesus answered and said unto them (will now give the future of Israel, and how it will effect the entirety of the world), Take heed that no man deceive you (places deception as Satan's greatest weapon).

[5] For many shall come in My Name (concerns itself primarily with the time immediately before the coming Great Tribulation, and especially its first half), saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many (the greatest of these will be the Antichrist, who will claim to be the Messiah).

6 And you shall hear of wars and rumours of wars (has abounded from the beginning, but will accelerate during the first half of the Great Tribulation): see that you be not troubled (concerns true Believers): for all these things must come to pass (we are very near presently to the beginning of fulfillment of what Jesus said), but the end is not yet (the end will be at the Second Coming).

7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places (few places in the world, if any, will be exempt from these judgments).

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows (first half of the Great Tribulation).

9 Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you (pertains to the mid-point of the Great Tribulation when the Antichrist, whom Israel thought was the Messiah, will show his true colors): and you shall be hated of all nations for My Name's sake (no nation will come to her rescue; Israel hates Christ, but Christ is the reason that the world hates Israel).

10 And then shall many be offended (some Jews will accept Christ, which will be an offence to others), and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another (the Jews who accept Christ, will be the brunt of this animosity).

11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many (they will help the Antichrist).

12 And because iniquity shall abound (the Antichrist called "the man of sin" [II Thess. 2:3]), the love of many shall wax cold (some who accept Christ, will turn their backs on Him).

13 But he who shall endure unto the end (refers to the end of the Great Tribulation), the same shall be saved (speaks of survival, and not the Salvation of the Soul).

14 And this Gospel of the Kingdom (refers to the same type of Gospel preached by Christ and Paul) shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations (not every person, but to all nations; this is close presently to being fulfilled); and then shall the end come (the Second Coming).

THE ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION

15 When you therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the Prophet, stand in the Holy Place (speaks of the Antichrist invading Israel, and taking over the Temple), (whoso reads, let him understand:) (Reads it in the Word of God [Dan. 8:9-14; 9:27; 11:45; 12:1, 7, 11].)

16 Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains (when the Antichrist invades Israel at the mid-point of the Great Tribulation):

17 Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house (houses are flat on top in that part of the world; during the summer, people often sleep on top of the house; speaks of the necessity of haste):

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

19 And woe unto them who are with child, and to them who give suck in those days! (The necessity of fleeing will be so urgent, that it will be difficult for pregnant women, and mothers with little babies.)

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter (bad weather), neither on the Sabbath Day (concerns the strict religious observance of the Sabbath, doesn't permit travel):

GREAT TRIBULATION

[21] For then shall be great tribulation (the last three and one half years), such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be (the worst the world has ever known, and will be so bad that it will never be repeated).

[22] And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved (refers to Israel coming close to extinction): but for the elect's (Israel's) sake those days shall be shortened (by the Second Coming).

[23] Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not (don't be deceived).

[24] For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets (the Antichrist and the false prophet [Rev., Chpt. 13]), and shall show great signs and wonders (which will be offered as proof); insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect (will attempt to deceive Israel).

[25] Behold, I have told you before (is meant to emphasize the seriousness of the matter).

[26] Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not (the next Verse will tell the manner of His Coming, which will eclipse all pretenders).

THE COMING OF THE SON OF MAN

[27] For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west (is meant to proclaim the most cataclysmic event the world has ever known); so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be (no one will have to ask, is this really Christ; it will be overly obvious!).

[28] For wheresoever the carcase is (speaks of the Battle of Armageddon), there will the eagles be gathered together (should have been translated, "there will the vultures be gathered together" [refers to Ezek. 39:17]).

29 Immediately after the tribulation of those days (speaks of the time immediately preceding the Second Coming) shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light (the light of these orbs will be dim by comparison to the light of the Son of God), and the stars shall fall from Heaven (a display of Heavenly fireworks at the Second Coming), and the powers of the Heavens shall be shaken (will work with the Son of God against the Antichrist, at the Second Coming)**:

30 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of Man in Heaven (pertains to the Second Coming, which will take place in the midst of these Earth and Heaven shaking events): and then shall all the tribes of the Earth mourn (concerns all the nations of the world which possibly will see this phenomenon by Television), and they shall see the Son of Man (denotes Christ and His human, Glorified Body) coming in the clouds of Heaven with power and great glory (lends credence to the thought that much of the world will see Him by Television as He makes His descent)**.

31 And He shall send His Angels (they will be visible) with a great sound of a trumpet (announcing the gathering of Israel), and they shall gather together His elect (Israel) from the four winds, from one end of Heaven to the other (Jews will be gathered from all over the world, and brought to Israel)**.

THE PARABLE OF THE FIG TREE

32 Now learn a Parable of the fig tree (the Bible presents three trees, the fig, the olive, and the vine, as representing the nation of Israel, nationally, spiritually, and dispensationally); When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves (is meant to serve as the illustration of Israel nationally), ye know that summer is near (refers to Israel as the greatest Prophetic Sign of all, telling us that we are now living in the last of the last days)**:

33 So likewise ye (points to the modern Church), when you shall see all these things (which we are now seeing as it regards Israel), know that it is near, even at the doors (the fulfillment of Endtime Prophecies)**.

34 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass (the generation of Jews which will be alive at the beginning of the Great Tribulation; as well, it was a prediction by Christ, that irrespective of the problems that Israel would face, even from His day, they would survive), till all these things be fulfilled (there is no doubt, they will be fulfilled).

35 Heaven and earth shall pass away (doesn't refer to annihilation, but rather a change from one condition or state to another), but My Words shall not pass away (what the Word of God says, will be!).

36 But of that day and hour knows no man, no, not the Angels of Heaven, but My Father only.

DESTRUCTION OF THE WICKED

37 But as the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be (the men of Noah's day were insensible to the Prophecies predicting the coming flood, and so will men be blind to these Prophecies announcing the coming of the Son of Man).

38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage (refers to an absolute lack of concern respecting Noah's Message of a coming flood), until the day that Noah entered into the Ark (means they watched him build the Ark, and heard him preach Righteousness for many years, but took no heed),

39 And knew not until the flood came (didn't believe the Message until the water began its precipitous rise), and took them all away (they were all drowned, and consequently, eternally lost); so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be (the similarity with Noah's time).

40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left (does not refer to the Rapture as many believe, but rather to the terrible loss of life during the Great Tribulation).

41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 Watch therefore (a warning to Israel to be prepared): for you know not what hour your Lord does come (present Believers know that the Second Coming will take place during the Battle of Armageddon [Zech., Chpt. 12] but unredeemed Israel will not know).

43 But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up (as unexpected as this, will likewise be the Coming of the Lord).

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as you think not the Son of Man cometh (when Israel, during the Battle of Armageddon, will have given up hope, Jesus will come!).

PARABLE OF THE FAITHFUL AND UNFAITHFUL SERVANT

45 Who then is a faithful and wise servant (refers to all Believers for all time), whom his Lord has made ruler over His household (in this case, the Church), to give them meat in due season? (God-called Preachers are responsible for properly feeding the flock.)

46 Blessed is that servant, whom his Lord when He comes shall find so doing (refers to faithfulness till the Rapture).

47 Verily I say unto you, That He shall make him ruler over all his goods (refers to the Resurrected Saints being made "rulers" in the coming Kingdom Age, and the faithful of Israel being placed in the same capacity as the premiere nation in the world).

48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My Lord delays His coming (exactly what many in the modern Church are now saying);

49 And shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken (not only to be in the world, but to be as well, of the world);

50 The Lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looks not for Him, and in an hour that he is not aware of (not ready for the Rapture;

most of the modern Church, sadly, falls into this category)*,

51 And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites (despite his profession): there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth (will lose his soul, and go to an eternal Hell; most in the modern Church, sadly and regrettably, fall into this category; they are religious but lost!).

CHAPTER 25

THE PARABLE OF THE TEN VIRGINS

[1] Then shall the Kingdom of Heaven be likened unto ten *(the number "10" in the Bible speaks of perfection)*virgins (represents those who belong to the Lord), which took their lamps (represents the light of Christ in all Believers), and went forth to meet the bridegroom (Christ).

[2] And five of them were wise, and five were foolish (indicative of modern Christianity).

[3] They who were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them (began to live outside the domain of the Holy Spirit):

[4] But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps (a constant flow of the Spirit within their hearts and lives, which can only come about and be maintained, by one's Faith in Christ and the Cross [Rom. 8:1-2, 11]).

[5] While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept (does not imply by this that they were doing something wrong).

[6] And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him (the Rapture of the Church).

[7] Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps (but without the oil, the trimming was useless; it is religious activity without the Holy Spirit).

[8] And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out (it's too late now!).

[9] But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go you rather to them who sell, and buy for yourselves (proclaims the truth that spiritual energy cannot be derived from others).

[10] And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they who were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut (there will come a time, when it's too late; today is the day... [Heb. 3:15]).

[11] Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us (because they were religious, they thought they were saved).

[12] But He answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not (millions presently are in the Church, but not in Christ).

[13] Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of Man cometh (our lives are to be lived as if Jesus would come today).

THE PARABLE OF THE TALENTS

[14] For the Kingdom of Heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods (represents Christ at His first Advent).

[15] And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway (immediately) took his journey (every single Believer, none excluded, is given a proper Ministry).

[16] Then he who had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents (the talents were awarded according to faithfulness).

[17] And likewise he who had received two, he also gained other two (he was faithful with what he had).

[18] But he who had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money (he wasn't faithful).

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them (service for the Lord ends at death; however, the reckoning is reserved for the Rapture).

20 And so he who had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, you delivered unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more (this will take place at the Judgment Seat of Christ).

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of your Lord (as is obvious, it is faithfulness here that is being rewarded; contrary to popular thought, God hasn't called us to be successful, but rather to be faithful).

22 He also who had received two talents came and said, Lord, you delivered unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them (faithfulness as well!).

23 His Lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of your Lord (if it is to be noticed, both received equal rewards; as stated, the criterion is faithfulness and not other things).

24 Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I know you and that you are an hard man, reaping where you have not sown, and gathering where you have not planted (pure and simple, his statements constitute a lie):

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid your talent in the earth: lo, there you have that which is Yours (the purpose of the "talent" was not preservation, but rather, multiplication; his action proclaims not only indolence, but as well, insolence; untold numbers, who claim to be Christians, fall into this category).

26 His Lord answered and said unto him, You wicked and slothful servant, you knew that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not planted (if you really believed that, you would not have done what you did):

[27] You ought therefore to have put My money to the exchangers, and then at My coming I should have received mine own with usury (regrettably, the majority of professors of religion, fall into this category).

[28] Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which has ten talents (this is the law of the faithful; light rejected, is light taken, and given to the one who already has an abundance of light).

[29] For unto every one who has shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him who has not shall be taken away even that which he has (in fact, this happens unnumbered times, every single day; observe religious denominations, which have rejected light!).

[30] And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth (these individuals do not merely lose reward, but rather their souls; all of this, as should be overly obvious, completely refutes the unscriptural doctrine of unconditional eternal security).

JUDGMENT ON THE NATIONS

[31] When the Son of Man shall come in His glory, and all the Holy Angels with Him, then shall He sit upon the Throne of His glory (the Second Coming):

[32] And before Him shall be gathered all nations: and He shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats (this is called the "judgment of the nations," which will commence at the outset of the Kingdom Age):

[33] And He shall set the sheep on His right hand (refers to nations which would not cooperate with the Antichrist), but the goats on the left (nations which cooperated with the Antichrist).

34 Then shall the King say unto them on His right hand, Come, you blessed of My Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world (has nothing to do with Salvation, but rather these particular nations being allowed to enter into the Kingdom Age):

35 For I was hungry, and you gave Me meat: I was thirsty, and you gave Me drink: I was a stranger, and you took Me in (although the adage proves true for all time, Christ is basically speaking here of Israel and her treatment by various nations during the Great Tribulation):

36 Naked, and you clothed Me: I was sick, and you visited Me: I was in prison, and you came unto Me.

37 Then shall the righteous answer Him, saying, Lord, when did we see you hungry, and fed You? or thirsty, and gave You drink? (The word, "righteous," does not pertain to the Righteousness of Christ given to Believers at Salvation, but instead, righteous dealings with Israel by these nations.)

38 When saw we You a stranger, and took You in? or naked, and clothed You?

39 Or when did we see You sick, or in prison, and came unto You?

40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as you have done it unto one of the least of these My brethren, you have done it unto Me (as stated, the adage holds true for all time, but Christ is primarily speaking here of Israel, and the help given her by certain nations during the Great Tribulation).

41 Then shall He say also unto them on the left hand (the goat nations), Depart from Me, you cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels (nations that hindered or tried to harm Israel during the Great Tribulation):

42 For I was hungry, and you gave Me no meat: I was thirsty, and you gave Me no drink:

[43] I was a stranger, and you took Me not in: naked, and you clothed Me not: sick, and in prison, and you visited Me not.

[44] Then shall they also answer Him, saying, Lord, when did we see You hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto You?

[45] Then shall He answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as you did it not to one of the least of these, you did it not to Me (to bless one who belongs to God, is to bless God; to harm one who belongs to God, is to harm God; we see here the results of such action).

[46] And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal (all of this will happen soon after the Second Coming; the leaders of the nations who tried to help the Antichrist against Israel, during the Great Tribulation, will evidently be executed, and consequently will die eternally lost; conversely, the leaders of the nations who tried to help Israel at that time, will be given an opportunity to accept Christ as Saviour, which they no doubt will, and will thereby be given "life eternal").

CHAPTER 26

THE PLOT TO KILL JESUS

[1] And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, He said unto His Disciples (this concluded His public teaching, even though other discourses were given to the Disciples only [Jn. 13:31; 17:26]),

[2] You know that after two days is the Feast of the Passover, and the Son of Man is betrayed to be Crucified (the Holy Spirit revealed to Christ the fact that Judas would betray Him).

[3] Then assembled together the Chief Priests, and the Scribes, and the Elders of the people (possibly other members of the Sanhedrin), unto the palace of the High Priest, who was called Caiaphas (these men plotted to kill Christ, as they would kill a wild beast; Caiaphas committed suicide about two years later),

[4] And consulted (the topic of their conversation was the most diabolical crime ever conceived in the hearts of wicked men) that they might take Jesus by subtilty (they couldn't do it openly, so they plotted to do it undercover), and kill Him (their actions would result in the destruction of their nation, and in such a bloody way as to defy description!).

[5] But they said, Not on the feast day (should have been translated, "not during the Feast"), lest there be an uproar among the people (many of the people loved Christ).

MARY OF BETHANY ANOINTS JESUS

[6] Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper (it is believed by some that Martha was the wife of Simon the leper, Lazarus and Mary being, consequently, brother-in-law and sister-in-law to Simon),

7 There came unto Him a woman (Mary [Jn. 12:3]) having an alabaster box of very precious ointment (worth about twelve thousand dollars in 2003 money), and poured it on His head, as He sat at meat (anointing Him while He was alive, proved that she believed in His Resurrection; seemingly, she was the only one who did; there was only one anointing).

8 But when His Disciples saw it, they had indignation (Judas originated this complaint [Jn. 12:4]), saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor (Judas said this [Jn. 12:4] his motives were probably to steal the money [Jn. 12:6]).

10 When Jesus understood it, He said unto them, Why do you trouble the woman? for she has wrought a good work upon Me (it concerned His Death at Calvary).

11 For you have the poor always with you; but Me you have not always (He spoke of His human body being removed from the touch and sight of men, and is even now in Heaven).

12 For in that she has poured this ointment on My body, she did it for My burial (this was normally done after death, but Mary believed that He would rise from the dead).

13 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this Gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman has done, be told for a memorial of her (opponents of inspiration deny the fact of prediction; but they cannot deny the fact of this Prophecy; it was made nearly two thousand years ago, and has been fulfilled untold times).

THE BETRAYAL

14 Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the Chief Priests,

15 And said unto them, What will you give me, and I will deliver Him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver (this was the price of a slave [Ex. 21:32]; as well, it was prophesied hundreds of years before, that Jesus would be sold for thirty pieces of silver [Zech. 11:13]).

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray Him.

PREPARATION FOR THE PASSOVER

17 Now the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread (it meant the day was approaching, which was Thursday; the day the following question was asked was Tuesday) the Disciples came to Jesus, saying unto Him, Where will You that we prepare for You to eat the Passover? (Jesus would eat the Passover a day early. In fact, He was the Passover, with His Death fulfilling some fifteen hundred years of this ritual.)

18 And He said, Go into the city (He went into Jerusalem, for He was presently at Bethany) to such a man (who the man was is not known; some think he was the father of John Mark, who wrote the Gospel of Mark), and say unto him, The Master says, My time is at hand (the statement that carries with it the meaning of the ages); I will keep the Passover at your house with My Disciples (what an honor for that family and that house).

19 And the Disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the Passover (speaks of the last Passover that would ever be offered, at least that God would recognize!).

THE LAST PASSOVER

20 Now when the evening was come, He sat down with the twelve (it was probably about 6 p.m. Tuesday night; but by Jewish reckoning at that time, it would have been the first hour of the new day of Wednesday; their new day always started at sunset, instead of midnight as it now does for us).

21 And as they did eat, He said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray Me (presents Christ giving Judas a last chance of Repentance before the final act; in fact, Christ made several such like efforts regarding Judas)**.

22 And they (all the Disciples) were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto Him, Lord, is it I? (They realized the import of these words, but it seems that none, at least at this time, suspected Judas.)

23 And He answered and said, He who dips his hand with Me in the dish, the same shall betray Me (this was spoken to all the Disciples, inasmuch as all had dipped into the dish; consequently, the information was not too revealing)**.

24 The Son of Man goeth as it is written of Him (refers to all that the Prophets had said concerning this time): but woe unto that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born (proclaims the eternal consequence of Judas' action, as well as all others who refuse Christ)**.

25 Then Judas, which betrayed Him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, You have said (the Lord's reply was evidently so quiet that the others did not hear)**.

THE LORD'S SUPPER INSTITUTED

26 And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and broke it, and gave it to the Disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is My body (this was the symbol of that which He would do, and become; He was the "bread" and consequently, "blessed," likewise, His Body was "broken" at Calvary; as well, He "gave" the results of this action at Calvary to the world, for all who would believe [Jn. 3:16])**.

27 And He took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it (the cup is meant to serve as a symbol of His shed Blood at Calvary)**;

[28] For this is My Blood of the New Testament (New Covenant), which is shed for many for the remission of sins (His Death at Calvary would settle forever the sin debt, and for all of humanity, at least for all who will believe [Jn. 1:29]; as is obvious, the Lord's Supper ever directs the Believer to the Cross).

[29] But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's Kingdom (refers to the coming Kingdom Age).

[30] And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the Mount of Olives (refers to Psalms 115 and 118).

JESUS FORETELLS PETER'S DENIAL

[31] Then said Jesus unto them, All you shall be offended because of Me this night (all of them would forsake Him, but He would never forsake them): for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad (Zech. 13:7).

[32] But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee (it seemed that none believed what He said).

[33] Peter answered and said unto Him, Though all men shall be offended because of you, yet will I never be offended (boastful pride!).

[34] Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto you, That this night, before the rooster crows, you shall deny Me thrice.

[35] Peter said unto Him, Though I should die with You, yet will I not deny You. Likewise also said all the Disciples (all made boastful claims).

JESUS IN THE GARDEN

[36] Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane (just across the Kidron Valley from Jerusalem, about two hundred yards from the city wall), and said unto the Disciples, Sit you here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And He took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee (James and John), and began to be sorrowful and very heavy (tremendous stress and pressure).

38 Then said He unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death (means that He, as a Man, could not have endured it but for added Angelic strength [Lk. 22:43-44]): tarry ye here, and watch with Me (He needed their presence, even though it would prove to be of little solace).

39 And He went a little farther (more than physical, the distance He went in agony and prayer at this time, no human being could follow), and fell on His face, and prayed (He did so repeatedly, meaning that He would fall to the ground, struggle to get up, and then fall again), saying, O My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from Me (this "cup" was threefold: bearing the sin penalty of humanity, separation from the Father, and death): nevertheless not as I will, but as You will (proclaims the Divine Will as the expression of Divine Righteousness and Love, which limits the exercise of Divine Power and, therefore, supplies the necessary check to the expectations which might otherwise arise from the belief in Omnipotence).

40 And He came unto the Disciples, and finding them asleep (portraying the fact that they did not realize the acute danger for which they were ill-prepared), and said unto Peter (evidently awaking him), What, could you not watch with Me one hour?

41 Watch and pray, that you enter not into temptation (a warning of the temptation that was about to come upon them — the temptation to forsake Him): the spirit (spirit of man) indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak (this battle can be won only by our Faith being placed exclusively in Christ and His Cross, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work within our lives [Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11]).

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O My Father, if this cup may not pass away from Me, except I drink it, Your will be done (a total acquiescence to God's Will)**.

[43] And He came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy (Love is always ready to excuse weakness, for example, the lateness of the hour, and the fact that they were sleeping for sorrow [Lk. 22:45])**.

[44] And He left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words (sometimes we must pray the same words again, and again)**.

[45] Then cometh He to His Disciples, and said unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest (may be translated, "do you sleep on now, continuing to take your rest"?): behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners (refers to Judas, who is even now entering the Garden with the Temple guard and others in order to arrest Christ)**.

[46] Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand who does betray Me (the Holy Spirit had told Him exactly what was happening, and when it would happen)**.

THE BETRAYAL AND ARREST OF JESUS

[47] And while He yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came (is given in this fashion by the Holy Spirit in order to enhance his guilt. Never in human history has so perfidious an act been carried out against One Who was so good, kind, and gracious), and with him a great multitude with swords and staves (the Temple guard, and some Roman soldiers), from the Chief Priests and Elders of the people (the Church has ever killed the Lord, in the Name of the Lord)**.

[48] Now he who betrayed Him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is He: hold Him fast (speaks of the most despicable, treacherous moment in human history)**.

[49] And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, Master; and kissed Him (Ps. 55:21)**.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Friend (said in kindness and not sarcasm), wherefore are you come? *(Could be translated, "do that for which you are come.")*Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took Him (presents the beginning of the action of the murderous hearts of the religious leaders of Israel; they hated Christ, and would have done this much sooner, had the opportunity presented itself).

51 And, behold, one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the High Priest's, and smote off his ear (John said this was Simon Peter; as well, the name of the servant is Malthus; incidentally, Jesus healed the man's ear, which was His last miracle before His Death).

52 Then said Jesus unto him (unto Peter), Put up again your sword into his place (the Magistrate to whom God gives a sword, is responsible to use it against evildoers; that is "his place" [Rom. 13:4]): for all they who take the sword shall perish with the sword (the sword has no place in the propagation of the Gospel).

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to My Father, and He shall presently give Me more than twelve legions of Angels? (Seventy-two thousand Angels.)

54 But how then shall the Scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be? (The word "must" affirms the Divine Inspiration of the Scriptures; for had they been composed by men there would have been no necessity compelling their fulfillment.)

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes (believed to have been approximately six hundred men), Are you come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take Me? I sat daily with you teaching in the Temple, and you laid no hold on Me (Jesus pointing out the fact that they didn't arrest Him in the Temple, because they feared the people).

56 But all this was done (could have been translated, "all this has come to pass"), that the Scriptures of the Prophets might be fulfilled (through foreknowledge, the Holy Spirit predicted this many centuries in advance [Gen. 3:15; 49:10; Isa. 7:14; Chpt. 53; Zech. 11:12] the Scriptures were ever the foundation of all that was done, and had better be the same presently). Then all the Disciples forsook Him, and fled (fulfilled that which was written [Zech. 13:7]).

THE TRIAL

57 And they that had laid hold on Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas the High Priest (Matthew omits the account of Jesus being led first before Annas, the former High Priest, as recorded in Jn. 18:13, 19-24), where the Scribes and the Elders were assembled (pertains to the palace or court of the High Priest).

58 But Peter followed Him afar off (presents the Apostle turning back toward Christ from Whom he had fled at first; no doubt, he is ashamed of his actions, and now in a quandary, timidly follows the route taking Jesus to the Palace) unto the High Priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.

59 Now the Chief Priests, and Elders, and all the council, sought false witness (they didn't care if the witness was true or false) against Jesus, to put Him to death (these were the religious leaders of Israel);

60 But found none (found none who would collaborate each other): yes, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses (these seized upon a statement made by Christ, and twisted it out of context),

61 And said, This ("fellow" was inserted by the translators, and was not in the original Text; the accuser might have pointed a finger at Christ, referring to Him contemptuously, as "This!") fellow said, I am able to destroy the Temple of God, and to build it in three days (this is a distortion of what He actually said; Jesus had actually said, "destroy this Temple [speaking of His physical body], and in three days I will raise it up" [Jn. 2:19]).

62 And the High Priest (Caiaphas) arose, and said unto Him, Answerest thou nothing? (Presents Christ answering His accusers not at all.) what is it which these witness against You?

63 But Jesus held His peace (fulfilled the Scripture, "He was oppressed, and He was afflicted, yet He opened not His Mouth [Isa. 53:7]). And the High Priest answered and said unto Him, I adjure You by the Living God, that You tell us whether You be the Christ, the Son of God.

64 Jesus said unto him, You have said (presents Christ giving a direct affirmation, with Mark saying it even clearer, "I am" [Mk. 14:62]): nevertheless I say unto you (would have been better translated, "but moreover I say unto you"), Hereafter shall you see the Son of Man (speaking of Himself) sitting on the right hand of power (actually speaks of the Great White Throne Judgment; they are now judging Him; He will then judge them), and coming in the clouds of Heaven (Second Coming)**.

65 Then the High Priest rent his clothes (ripped the shawl thrown across His shoulder, signifying his supposed horror of Jesus referring to Himself as the Son of God), saying, He hath spoken blasphemy (meaning He had made Himself One with God); what further need have we of witnesses? (Means they can dispense with all the liars.) behold, now you have heard His blasphemy (the entire Sanhedrin had heard His statement; but He did not blaspheme; He spoke the truth)**.

66 What do you think? (Was spoken by Caiaphas to the Sanhedrin, which was composed of seventy-one members, if all were present.) They answered and said, He is guilty of death (when they sentenced Him to death, they sentenced themselves as well!)**.

67 Then (refers in the modern vernacular to "fair game") did they spit in His face (considered to be the greatest insult to a person), and buffeted Him (hit Him with their fist, probably done by the Temple guards, but was undoubtedly done as well by some members of the Sanhedran); and others smote Him with the palms of their hands (should have been translated, "smote Him with rods"; the Prophet had said, "as many as were astonished at You; His visage was so marred more than any man, and His form more than the sons of men" [Isa. 52:14])**,

68 Saying, Prophesy unto us (Jesus had just done this [Vs. 64]), Thou Christ (the words were spoken contemptuously! Christ means "the Anointed," and spoke of the Messiah; they were making fun of His claims, and consequently, ridiculing the Anointing of the Holy Spirit upon Him; they were doing what they had accused Him of doing — blaspheming), Who is he who smote you? (Mark and Luke said they blindfolded Him [14:65; 22:64].)

PETER'S DENIAL

69 Now Peter sat without in the palace (the way the Court was constructed, Peter could see Christ, and Christ could see Peter [Lk. 22:61]): and a damsel came unto him (probably referred to the lady who kept the door, which gave entrance into the court yard), saying, You also were with Jesus of Galilee (with sarcasm)**.

70 But he denied before them all (first denial, spoken before a number of people standing with the girl), saying, I know not what you say.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch (referred to him seemingly trying to remove himself from those who had just fingered him), another maid saw him, and said unto them who were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth (as well, with sarcasm)**.

72 And again he denied with an oath (what the oath was, we do not know), I do not know the man (He claims not even to know His Name)**.

73 And after a while (represents according to Lk. 22:59, about an hour of time) came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely you also are one of them; for your speech betrays you (he was a Galilean, as were all the Disciples, with the exception of Judas)**.

74 Then began he to curse and to swear (not profanity, but rather to take a solemn oath such as men do in a Court of Justice, and then to call upon God to curse him if the oath was false; it was a sin of appalling magnitude and depth), saying, I know not the man (meaning that he swore by the name of God that he did not know Christ). And immediately the cock

(rooster) crowed*.

[75] And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the rooster crows, you shall deny Me thrice (Vs. 34). And he went out, and wept bitterly (tradition says that for the rest of his life, Peter could not hear a rooster crow without falling upon his knees and weeping).

CHAPTER 27

(A.D. 33)

JESUS SENT TO PILATE

[1] When the morning was come (referred to Wednesday morning; Jesus would be crucified in a matter of hours; He was not crucified on Good Friday as many claim!), all the Chief Priests and Elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death (the morning session was that of the entire Sanhedrin; it followed the unofficial meeting in the High Priest's house [26:57]):

[2] And when they had bound Him, they led Him away (refers to His Hands being tied behind His back with a rope), and delivered Him to Pontius Pilate the governor (he held this office for some ten years, at the end of which time he was removed for cruelty and extortion, and banished to Vienne in Gaul, where he committed suicide).

JUDAS KILLS HIMSELF

[3] Then Judas, which had betrayed Him, when he saw that He was condemned (refers to what the religious leaders had done to Jesus and their brutal treatment of Him; in fact, he probably saw Jesus, and was sickened by what he saw), and repented himself (in the Greek, means to have a deep remorse at the consequence of sin, but not deep regret at the cause of it; the word is never used of genuine Repentance to God), and brought again the thirty pieces of silver (the price he had been given) to the Chief Priests and Elders (concerns the blood money, and the religious leaders with blood on their hands),

[4] Saying, I have sinned (presents him confessing this sin to man, an evil man at that, but not to God) in that I have betrayed the innocent blood

("the" emphasizes that the Blood of Christ was the only truly innocent blood that has ever been). And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that (they knew that Jesus was innocent, but did not care!).

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the Temple (presents him flinging the shekels onto the marble floor), and departed, and went and hanged himself (he probably hanged himself with his own sash, which was wound around his waist; tradition says that the limb broke from the tree to which the sash was tied, and he fell heavily to the rocks below, where a passing wagon, unable to stop, crushed and disemboweled him).

6 And the Chief Priests took the silver pieces (represents the blood money now in their hands where it rightfully belonged all the time!), and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood (it is ironic! they were gagging at a gnat and swallowing a camel).

7 And they (the Sanhedrin) took counsel (institutionalized religion opposed Christ from the very beginning; it still does!), and bought with them (the thirty pieces of silver) the potter's field, to bury strangers in (Gentiles — a place on the south of Jerusalem, across the valley of Hinnom).

8 Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day (was not the name given it by the religious leaders of Israel, but others! up to the mid 1800's, it was still being used for this purpose, the burying of the unhonored dead of Jerusalem).

9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the Prophet (although the Scriptures do not say, this was probably originally spoken by Jeremiah, and done so by the Holy Spirit, but not written down; it was then repeated and recorded by that same Spirit in Zech. 11:12-13 or else a copyist made a mistake in copying it from the original text; no original text remains), saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of Him that was valued, Whom they of the Children of Israel did value (this was the price of a slave; it is given in this manner by the Holy Spirit in order to emphasize the fact that this was the price or worth that Israel placed upon her Messiah);

10 And gave them (thirty pieces of silver) for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed Me (appointed the Messiah; did not the religious leaders of Israel know about this Prophecy?).

JESUS BEFORE PILATE

11 And Jesus stood before the governor (speaks of Pontius Pilate): and the governor asked Him, saying, are You the King of the Jews? (In reality, Jehoiachin, who reigned some six hundred years before, was the last King recognized by God, to sit on the Throne of Judah [II Chron. 36:9-10].) And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest (in effect, says, "I am the King of the Jews"; as far as is recorded, this is the first time Jesus had made such a claim; John added more of the answer of Christ, with Jesus saying, "My Kingdom is not of this world" [Jn. 18:36]; consequently, Pilate knew that His claims were spiritual and, therefore, not of this world).

12 And when He was accused of the Chief Priests and Elders, He answered nothing (He would not defend Himself before people who cared nothing for the truth).

13 Then said Pilate unto Him, Do You not hear how many things they witness against You? (Pilate was somewhat confused as to why Jesus did not defend Himself against these accusations.)

14 And He answered him to never a word (fulfilling Isaiah 53:7); insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly (Pilate was astonished that Jesus defended Himself not at all against these accusations, seeing that they could lead to His Death).

JESUS CONDEMNED; BARABBAS RELEASED

15 Now at that feast (the Passover) the governor was wont (accustomed) to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would (in other words, the people could choose, and the one chosen would be released; Pilate thought he had found a way out of his dilemma; he knew that Jesus was innocent).

16 And they had then a notable prisoner (should have been translated "notorious"), call ed Barabbas (Mark said that Barabbas was a murderer, and had led an insurrection against Roman authority [Mk. 15:7])**.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together (Pilate and Jesus standing on the porch of the hall, before the people below), Pilate said unto them, Whom will you that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ? (In some manuscripts, Barabbas is referred to as "Jesus Barabbas." So the people were faced with a choice, "Jesus Barabbas, the murderer," or "Jesus Christ, the Giver of Eternal Life.")

18 For He knew that for envy they had delivered Him (they envied the respect given Him by the people, and His Miracles).

19 When he was sat down on the judgment seat (a chair on a raised platform in front of the praetorian), his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just Man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of Him (her name was Claudia — another name Procula; tradition says that she ultimately became a Christian; what her dream was, the record does not say; however, in all of the account of the sufferings of Christ this last week before His Death, she, a Gentile is the only one, it seems, who gave Him a kind word)**.

20 But the Chief Priests and Elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas (asked for the release of Barabbas the murderer; consequently, murderers have ruled them from then until now, even unto this hour, considering the bombings in Israel), and destroy (kill) Jesus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the two will you that I release unto you? (Presents no alternative but Jesus or Barabbas.)They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? (The greatest question ever asked. The answer to it decides the eternal destiny of the human soul.) They all say unto him, Let Him be crucified (they specified "crucifixion," because such a death would cause all the people, they thought, to turn against Him; the Law of Moses condemned anyone hanged upon a tree as being cursed by God [Deut. 21:23]).

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil has He done? *(He had done no evil. He was perfect! He had never sinned.)But they cried out the more, saying, Let Him be crucified (proclaims them offering no answer to the question of Pilate, because they had no answer; as the morning sun begins to break over Olivet, it will dawn on a day of infamy such as the world has never seen before or since).

24 When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made (he feared that if he did not give in to their demands, a riot might occur, with him then being accused before Rome of refusing to punish a pretender to the Jewish Throne), he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude (by this act, he attempted to clear himself of guilt, and to cast the guilt upon the people, as if the administration of Justice lay with them and not with him), saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see you to it (him saying it here, did not make it so! he didn't have the courage to do what was right; one cannot take a neutral position as it regards Christ).

25 Then answered all the people, and said, His Blood be on us, and on our children (the malediction they invoked upon themselves and upon their children rests upon them still, and was, and is, a malediction of appalling horror and suffering).

26 Then released he Barabbas unto them (proclaims the choice of the people): and when he (Pilate) had scourged Jesus (a punishment so horrible, that sometimes it killed the victim before the act of crucifixion could be employed [Isa. 50:6]), he delivered Him to be crucified (Isa., Chpt. 53).

JESUS CROWNED WITH THORNS

27 Then the soldiers (Roman soldiers) of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto Him the whole band of soldiers (about two hundred men, which was the third part a "cohort").

28 And they stripped Him (referred to His Robe, not the inner garments), and put on Him a scarlet robe (either a worn-out officer's cloak or else a cast-off garment from the wardrobe of Herod).

29 And when they had platted a crown of thorns (called "victor's thorns" and which grew up to six inches in length), they put it upon His head (the Greek word for "crown" is "stephanos," and means "a victory crown"; even though they meant it for shame and mockery, by this crown of thorns, the Lord portrayed the Victory of the Cross and its certitude, even before Jesus actually died), and a reed in His right hand: and they bowed the knee before Him, and mocked Him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews! (At the coming Great White Throne Judgment, these same soldiers will once again stand before Christ, and once again bow the knee to Him. But this time, it will not be in mocking tone.)

30 And they spit upon Him, and took the reed, and smote Him on the head (driving the thorns deeper, which no doubt caused His head to swell).

31 And after that they had mocked Him, they took the robe off from Him, and put His own raiment on Him, and led Him away to crucify Him (Crucifixion is supposed to have been invented by Semiramis, Queen of Nimrod, who founded the Babylonian system of mysteries).

32 And as they came out (on the way to Calvary), they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name (Alexander and Rufus were the sons of Simon [Mk. 15:21; Rom. 16:13]): him they compelled to bear His cross (it was not the entire Cross, but probably the "patibulum," or the cross bar; it would have weighed not much short of a hundred pounds; in His weakened condition, Jesus could not bear that load).

THE CRUCIFIXION

33 And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull (tradition says that Adam was buried here, and that his skull was found here),

34 They gave Him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when He had tasted thereof, He would not drink (this was a stupefying potion, given to help alleviate sufferings; Christ refused it).

[35] And they crucified Him, and parted His garments (this was their "extra pay" for serving this ghastly duty), casting lots (they drew straws, so to speak): that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet, They parted My garments among them, and upon My vesture did they cast lots (Ps. 22:18).

[36] And sitting down they watched Him there (made sure that friends didn't come and take the condemned One down, before He died);

[37] And set up over His head His accusation written (this pertained to the crime for which the accused was condemned), THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS (it is said that this was written in three languages, Hebrew, Greek, and Latin; they printed this in mockery, but no words were ever more true).

[38] Then were there two thieves crucified with Him (Isa. 53:12), one on the right hand, and another on the left.

[39] And they who passed by reviled Him, wagging their heads (for the most part, these were the religious leaders of Israel [Ps. 109:25]), [40] And saying, You who will destroy the Temple, and build it in three days (Jesus never said that! He did say, that His physical Body would be destroyed, and in three days He would raise it up, which is exactly what happened), save Yourself (He didn't come to save Himself, but rather others). If You be the Son of God, come down from the Cross (had He come down from the Cross, no one would've ever been saved, and those in the prison of Paradise, would have remained there forever).

[41] Likewise also the Chief Priests mocking Him, with the Scribes and Elders, said (this is religion at work!),

[42] He saved others (that He did, but the "others" did not include these religious leaders, because they would not accept Him); Himself He cannot save (the actual truth, Himself He will not save). If He be the King of Israel, let Him now come down from the Cross, and we will believe Him (blasphemers are also liars!).

[43] He trusted in God (Ps. 22:8); let Him deliver Him now, if He will have Him (they wouldn't have Him, but God would): for He said, I am the Son of God (represents exactly what He said!).

[44] The thieves also, which were crucified with Him, cast the same in His teeth (they both did at first, but a little later, one repented, recorded by Luke 23:42).

THE DEATH OF JESUS

[45] Now from the sixth hour (12 Noon) there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour (3 p.m. — for these three hours, God would literally hide His Face from His Son; during this time, Jesus did bear the sin penalty of mankind [II Cor. 5:21]. "This darkness" was not the result of an eclipse, for then the moon was full; it was brought on by God in that He could not look upon His Son, as He did bear the sin penalty of the world).

[46] And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice (showing He didn't die from weakness, but rather laid down His Own Life [Jn. 10:17-18]), saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why have You forsaken Me? (The question as to why God had forsaken Him was not asked in a sense of not knowing, but in a sense of acknowledging the act. God didn't deliver Him, even as He always had, because, to have done such, would have forfeited Redemption for mankind. Incidentally, Jesus spoke in Aramaic, which was commonly used by the Lord.)

[47] Some of them who stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calls for Elijah (this would have referred to Jews, because Romans would have known nothing about Elijah).

[48] And straightway (immediately) one of them ran, and took a sp onge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave Him to drink

(the evidence is, it touched His lips, and He died; it had nothing to do with His Life or Death).

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elijah will come to save Him (said in mockery!).

50 Jesus, when He had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost (He freely laid down His Life, meaning that He didn't die from His wounds; as well, He didn't die until the Holy Spirit told him to do so [Heb. 9:14]).

51 And, behold, the Veil of the Temple (that which hid the Holy of Holies; Josephus said it was sixty feet high from the ceiling to the floor, four inches thick, and was so strong, that four yoke of oxen could not pull it apart) was rent in twain from the top to the bottom (meaning that God alone could have done such a thing; it also signified, that the price was paid completely on the Cross; signified by the rent Veil; regrettably, some say, the Cross — didn't finish the task with other things required; this Verse says differently); and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent (represented an earthquake, but had nothing to do with the renting of the Veil, which took place immediately before this phenomenon);

52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the Saints which slept arose (does not teach "soul sleep" as some claim, but rather that the bodies of the Sainted dead do sleep; not the soul and the spirit, which then went to Paradise, but since the Cross, at death, now go to be with Christ [Phil. 1:23]),

53 And came out of the graves after His resurrection, and went into the holy city (Jerusalem), and appeared unto many (while all were delivered out of Paradise, and taken to Heaven, some, even many, stopped over in Jerusalem for a short period of time, "and appeared unto many"; how many there were, we aren't told, and to whom they appeared, we aren't told; Matthew alone gives this account).

54 Now when the centurion, and they who were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God (he was the first Gentile to render this testimony of Faith; tradition affirms that the Centurion's name was Longinus, and that he became a devoted follower of Christ, preached the Faith, and died a martyr's death).

[55] And many women were there beholding afar off, which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto Him (concerns those who came from Galilee, and were with Him unto the end)**:

[56] Among which was Mary Magdalene (Jesus had delivered her [Mk. 16:9; Lk. 8:2]), and Mary the mother of James and Joseph (probably the wife of Cleophas [Jn. 19:25]), and the mother of Zebedee's children (Salome [Mk. 15:40] the mother of James and John)**.

THE BURIAL OF JESUS

[57] When the evening was come (referred to a period of time between 3 p.m. until sunset, the Passover Sabbath — not the weekly Sabbath), there came a rich man of Arimathaea, named Joseph (he was a member of the Sanhedrin, but was no doubt, not present at the so-called trial of Jesus), who also himself was Jesus' Disciple (he was a follower of Christ, which means that he had accepted Him as Lord)**:

[58] He went to Pilate (proves that he had access to the governor), and begged the body of Jesus (it seems that his devotion to Christ had previously been "in secret for fear of the Jews" [Jn. 19:38]). Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered (proclaims the Roman Governor as the only one who could give such an order)**.

[59] And when Joseph had taken the body (had taken it down from the Cross), he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth (this was the physical body, prepared by God, to be used as a Sacrifice, which it was, in order to redeem Adam's fallen race [Heb. 10:5])**,

[60] And laid it in his own new tomb (which had never been used), which he had hewn out in the rock (it was cut out of solid rock): and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed (this is the same

"great stone" that the Angel rolled away [28:2]).

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary (the wife of Cleophas, and the sister of Mary, the Mother of Jesus), sitting over against the sepulcher (all of this shows that none of them actually had any faith that Jesus would come from the dead; it seems that only Mary of Bethany actually believed such [26:6-13]).

THE TOMB SEALED AND GUARDED

62 Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation (refers to the High Sabbath and the Chief Day of the Passover Festival), the Chief Priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate (referred to the day after the Crucifixion), 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while He was yet alive, After three days I will rise again (their testimony here confirms that Jesus died and did not merely swoon as some modern unbelievers claim).

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day (insures three days and three nights in the Tomb), lest His Disciples come by night, and steal Him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead (by their actions, they will make the proof of His Resurrection irrefutable): so the last error shall be worse than the first (their claiming that the people's belief in Him had been an "error," and if they in any way thought He had risen from the dead, this would be an even greater "error").

65 Pilate said unto them, You have a watch (referred to a guard of four soldiers which was changed every three hours, meaning that it was continuous): go your way, make it as sure as ye can (they not only had the soldiers at their command, but were free to do whatever else they saw fit to guarantee the security of the Tomb).

66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone (they passed a cord around the stone that closed the mouth of the sepulcher to the two sides of the entrance; this was sealed with wax or prepared clay in the center and at the ends, so that the stone could not be removed without breaking the seals or the cord), and setting a watch (the four soldiers took up their position at the mouth of the Tomb and in front of the Stone; His enemies made the proof of His Resurrection incontrovertible).

CHAPTER 28

(A.D. 33)

THE RESURRECTION OF CHRIST

[1] In the end of the Sabbath (the regular weekly Sabbath, which was every Saturday), as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week (this was just before daylight on Sunday morning; Jesus rose from the dead some time after sunset on Saturday evening; the Jews began the new day at sunset, instead of midnight, as we do presently), came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulcher (they wanted to put spices on the body of Christ).

[2] And, behold, there was a great earthquake (presents the second earthquake, with the first taking place, when Christ died [27:51]): for the Angel of the Lord descended from Heaven (was probably observed by the Roman soldiers, who alone witnessed it and gave the account), and came and rolled back the stone from the door (Christ had already risen from the dead and had left the Tomb when the stone was rolled away; His glorified Body was not restricted by obstacles), and sat upon it (this was done as a show of triumph; in other words, death was vanquished!).

[3] His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow (there is no evidence that any of the women or Disciples saw this glorious coming of the Angel; however, the next Verse tells us that the Roman guards did see it, and were terrified!):

[4] And for fear of Him (the Angel) the keepers (guards) did shake, and became as dead men (inasmuch as this happened at night, the situation was even more frightful).

[5] And the Angel answered and said unto the women (this was just before dawn, and after the soldiers had run away), Do not fear: for I know that you seek Jesus, which was crucified (the Angel now uses this word, "Crucified," in a most glorious manner; it is now "the Power of God and the Wisdom of God" [I Cor. 1:23-24])**.

6 He is not here (is the beginning of the most glorious statement that could ever fall upon the ears of mere mortals): for he is risen (a dead and risen Saviour is the life and substance of the Gospel [I Cor. 15:1-4]), as He said (the Angel brought to the attention of the women, the fact that Christ had stated several times that He would be crucified and would rise from the dead). Come, see the place where the Lord lay (they were looking for a corpse, but instead, would find a risen Lord; they were looking for a Tomb containing a corpse, but instead, would find it empty)**.

7 And go quickly, and tell His Disciples that He is risen from the dead (the Disciples should have been the ones telling others, but because of unbelief, the women will tell them; this is the greatest Message that humanity has ever received); and, behold, He goes before you into Galilee; there shall ye see Him (He would reveal Himself to whom and to where He so desired): lo, I have told you (guarantees the certitude of this action)**.

THE TESTIMONY OF THE WOMEN

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulcher (they had actually gone into the burial chamber, and had seen with their own eyes that Jesus was not there [Lk. 24:3]) with fear and great joy (this was a "healthy fear," which every Believer ought to have; and as is understandable, there was "great joy"); and did run to bring His Disciples word ("they did run" because they had a Message to tell, and what a Message it was! this would be the greatest "word" the Disciples would ever hear)**.

9 And as they went to tell His Disciples, behold, Jesus met them (this was not the first appearance of Jesus, that being to Mary Magdalene [Mk. 16:9]), saying, All hail (actually meant, "all joy"!). And they came and held Him by the feet, and worshipped Him (they would find that they were touching a human body of flesh and bone, and that it was not an apparition or ghostly figure; they knew He had been raised from the dead; still, they were not at all certain as to what was meant by that; His appearance to them, with them touching Him, removed all doubts as to what the Resurrection meant).

10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid (it definitely is understandable that they were afraid): go tell My brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see Me (means more than merely an appearance; actually, He would also appear to them in Jerusalem, even proclaiming great Truths [Jn. 20:19-23]; John in the last Chapter of his Book gives the appearance in Galilee in detail).

THE REPORT OF THE SOLDIERS

11 Now when they were going (referring to the women after seeing Jesus, going to the Disciples), behold, some of the watch (soldiers) came into the city, and showed unto the Chief Priests all the things that were done (speaks of the four soldiers who had actually seen the coming of the Angel — him rolling the stone away from the mouth of the Tomb).

12 And when they (Chief Priests) were assembled with the Elders (the Sanhedrin), and had taken counsel (how they could counteract what had happened), they gave large money unto the soldiers (all now knew, and beyond the shadow of a doubt that Jesus was Who He had said He was; they knew they had Crucified the Son of God; they knew these Roman soldiers were not making up this story; for them to desert their post was a capital offence; in other words, they could be executed for such an act, but still, they did not repent! such is the hardened heart), 13 Saying, you say, His Disciples came by night, and stole Him away while we slept (what an absurd story, but yet, many Jews believe it unto this hour).

14 And if this come to the Governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you (meaning that the Sanhedrin would take full responsibility for this action; no harm ever came to the soldiers; evidently Pilate believed that Jesus had risen from the dead; it is said in one of the Chronicles, of that time, that Pilate sent an account of this matter to Tiberius, who, in consequence, we are told, endeavored to make the Roman Senate pass a decree enrolling Jesus in the list of Roman gods; Tertullian attests this fact).

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught (means that the matter was rehearsed over, and over again by the Sanhedrin until all had the same story): and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day (it is said that the Jews at that time sent emissaries in all directions to spread this false report).

THE TESTIMONY OF THE DISCIPLES

16 Then the eleven Disciples went away into Galilee (the sequence seems to indicate that it took place at least a week after the Resurrection [Jn. 20:26; 21:1]; the number "11" is specifically mentioned, in that the Holy Spirit desires that the betrayal not be forgotten), into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them (gives no evidence as to exactly where this mountain was; the word, "appointed," specifies that this was a designated meeting, which would have insured a definite place).

17 And when they saw Him (seems to indicate that there were more present than the eleven), they worshipped Him (and rightly so!): but some doubted (not the eleven! who they were, we do not know; why they doubted, we do not know; however, it seems the doubts soon faded).

THE GREAT COMMISSION

18 And Jesus came and spoke unto them (the same meeting on the mountain, and constitutes the Great Commission), saying, All power is given unto Me in Heaven and in Earth (this is not given to Him as Son of God; for, as God nothing can be added to Him or taken from Him; it is rather a power, which He has merited by His Incarnation and His death at Calvary on the Cross [Phil. 2:8-10]; this authority extends not only over men, so that He governs and protects the Church, disposes human events, controls hearts and opinions; but the forces of Heaven also are at His Command; the Holy Spirit is bestowed by Him, and the Angels are in His employ as ministering to the members of His Body. When He said, "all power," He meant, "all power!").

19 Go ye therefore (applies to any and all who follow Christ, and in all ages), and teach all nations (should have been translated, "and preach to all nations", for the word "teach" here refers to a proclamation of truth), baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit (presents the only formula for Water Baptism given in the Word of God):

20 Teaching them (means to give instruction) to observe all things (the whole Gospel for the whole man) whatsoever I have commanded you (not a suggestion): and, lo, I am with you always (It is I, Myself, God, and Man, Who am — not "will be" — hence, forever present among you, and with you as Companion, Friend, Guide, Saviour, God), even unto the end of the world (should have been translated "age"). Amen (it is the guarantee of My Promise).

CHAPTER 1

THE MINISTRY OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

[1] The beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God (could read, "the beginning of the Good News concerning Jesus, the Messiah, the Son of God"; the Holy Spirit begins this Book by testifying to the Kingship and Deity of Christ before setting out His Perfection as a Servant; the actual beginning of this Gospel is the Ministry of John the Baptist);

[2] As it is written in the Prophets (proclaims the Old Testament as the Word of God), Behold, I send My Messenger (John the Baptist) before Your Face (Christ), which shall prepare Your Way before You (preparation for the introduction of the Messiah [Mal. 3:1]).

[3] The voice of one crying (the preaching of John the Baptist was full of emotion and feeling) in the wilderness (typical of Israel's spiritual condition), Prepare ye the Way of the Lord (the sense of a military command), make His paths straight (rightly discern the Word, and obey it).

[4] John did baptize in the wilderness (Water Baptism in this fashion was unique), and preach the baptism of Repentance (Repentance of the individual) for the Remission of sins (should have been translated, "because of the remission of sins"; the people were being baptized because they had already repented in their hearts; there is no Salvation in the ceremony of Water Baptism).

[5] And there went out unto him all the land of Judaea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins (meaning that the confessing of sins and the act of Water Baptism, were at times, simultaneous).

6 And John was clothed with camel's hair (characteristic of the doctrine which John taught, namely penitence and contempt of the world), and with a girdle of a skin about his loins (a sash); and he did eat locusts and wild honey (the locust were dried to a crispness in the sun and eaten with honey, not uncommon in those days);

7 And preached (deep emotion), saying, There comes One (not merely "one," but rather "The One") mightier than I ("The Almighty One") after me (I will prepare the way), the latchet of Whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose (the difference being, the former was a created being, while the Latter is the Creator).

8 I indeed have baptized you with water: but He shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit (due to the Cross, the Holy Spirit can now come into the heart and life of the Believer to abide permanently [Jn. 14:16-17]).

THE BAPTISM OF JESUS

9 And it came to pass in those days (the close of the Ministry of John the Baptist), that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee (respects the beginning of the Ministry of Christ), and was baptized of John in Jordan.

10 And straightway (immediately) coming up out of the water (Water Baptism is by immersion, which alone can satisfy the type, not by sprinkling), he (John) saw the Heavens opened (saw the Heavens rent asunder, whatever that might mean), and the Spirit like a dove descending upon Him (Luke said, "in a bodily shape like a dove" [Lk. 3:22] exactly what he saw, we don't know, but he definitely did see something):

11 And there came a Voice from Heaven (The Voice came from the rent or opened heavens, no form was seen, but a "voice" was heard), saying, You are My Beloved Son (in contradistinction to all others), in Whom I am well pleased (this means that God is pleased with us, only as long as we are in Christ; we have here the Trinity, the Voice from Heaven, God the Father, the Holy Spirit being sent, and the Son on Whom He is sent).

THE TEMPTATIONS OF JESUS

[12] And immediately (the first act of the Spirit on Christ) the Spirit (Holy Spirit) driveth Him (strongly moved upon Him) into the wilderness (believed to be near Jericho).

[13] And He was there in the wilderness forty days (probationary period), tempted of Satan (tempted constantly during the forty days and nights); and was with the wild beasts (the last Adam had an entirely different setting than the first Adam, which was Paradise); and the Angels ministered unto Him (as to exactly how, we aren't told).

THE CALL

[14] Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, Preaching the Gospel (Good News) of the Kingdom of God (a realm in which a King, namely Christ exercises His Power to act and control),

[15] And saying, The time is fulfilled (as predicted by the Prophets, Christ has now come), and the Kingdom of God is at hand (is available): repent ye, and believe the Gospel ("repent and believe" may be regarded as a summary of the method of Salvation. This means that Repentance and Faith are the conditions of admission into this Kingdom, i.e., "the New Covenant").

[16] Now as He walked by the sea of Galilee, He saw Simon (Peter) and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

[17] And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after Me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

[18] And straightway (immediately) they forsook their nets, and followed Him.

[19] And when He had gone a little farther thence, He saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

[20] And straightway He called them (the Ministry is a "call" not a career): and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after Him (it seems they had the blessings of their father).

AUTHORITY OVER DEMON SPIRITS

[21] And they went into Capernaum (where Jesus made His Headquarters); and straightway (immediately) on the Sabbath Day He entered into the Synagogue, and taught.

[22] And they were astonished at His doctrine (what He taught, and the way He taught it; His Doctrine was the Word of God, while the Scribes basically taught tradition): for He taught them as One Who had authority, and not as the Scribes (a group supposed to be expert in the Law of Moses).

[23] And there was in their Synagogue a man with an unclean spirit (the word, "unclean" runs the gamut of all the activity of Satan from immorality to deceptive, lying, religious spirits [Rev. 16:13-16]); and he cried out,

[24] Saying, Let us alone (the lead demon cried out, but there were more demons than one in this man); what have we to do with You, Thou Jesus of Nazareth? (They resented the intrusion of Christ into their domain.) Are You come to destroy us? (They knew that He had the power to do whatever needed to be done.) I know You Who You are, the Holy One of God (demon spirits knew Who He was, but the religious leaders of Israel didn't know, or rather refused to know).

[25] And Jesus rebuked him (the lead demon), saying, Hold your peace, and come out of him (in effect, He said, "shut up, and come out of him").

[26] And when the unclean spirit had torn him (hastily, trying to come out), and cried with a loud voice (represents a screech of fear — fear of Christ, and fear not to obey Christ immediately), he came out of him (there was no delay).

[27] And they were all amazed (speechless), insomuch that they questioned among themselves (the Scribes animated, prolonged discussion), saying, What thing is this? (In effect, "Who is this Man," referring to the possibility, and their thinking, that He might be the Messiah.) what new doctrine is this? (Doesn't refer to "new" in respect to time, but instead, in comparison to the dry as dust droning of the Scribes.) for with authority commands He even the unclean spirits, and they do obey Him (this is absolute power over Satan and all demon spirits, and with obedience carried out immediately).

[28] And immediately His fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee (when it would spread to Jerusalem, it would infuriate the religious leaders).

HEALING

[29] And forthwith, when they were come out of the Synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon (Peter) and Andrew (Peter's brother), with James and John (these four were probably the only Disciples He had at that time, which was the early part of His Ministry).

[30] But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever (bedridden), and anon (immediately) they tell Him of her (there is no mention of the wife of Peter by name in the New Testament; according to the testimony of Clement of Alexandria, and Eusebiu, she suffered martyrdom, and was led away to death in the sight of her husband, whose last words to her were, "remember thou the Lord").

[31] And He (Jesus) came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her (healed immediately), and she ministered unto them (probably helped prepare a meal).

DEMONS CAST OUT; MANY HEALED

[32] And at evening, when the sun did set (when the Sabbath ended), they brought unto Him all who were diseased, and them who were possessed with devils (demons).

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door (all the sick and afflicted).

34 And He healed many who were sick of divers diseases (many and varied types of diseases, and of every kind), and cast out many devils (demons); and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew Him (means they knew Him to be the Messiah).

A PREACHING TOUR

35 And in the morning, rising up a great while before day (was between 3 a.m. and 6 a.m.), He went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed (the example of a strong prayer life, was a habit with Him, and provides an example for us [Mat. 14: 23; Mk. 1:35; 6:46; Lk. 6:12; 9:28; 11:1]).

36 And Simon and they who were with Him followed after Him (sought to find Him).

37 And when they had found Him, they said unto Him, All men seek for You (the pronoun, "You" is emphatic, meaning that those who sought Jesus would not be satisfied with seeing His Disciples).

38 And He said unto them, Let us go into the next towns (while in prayer, He had heard from Heaven, and had been given direction respecting what to do and where to go), that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth (He was to cover the majority of the land of Israel).

39 And He preached in their Synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils (healing and Deliverance, as important as they were, were secondary to the "preaching" of the Word).

JESUS HEALS A LEPER

[40] And there came a leper to Him, beseeching Him (begging Him), and kneeling down to Him (this was not merely a rendering of honor to an earthly being; it was a rendering of reverence to a Divine Being), and saying unto Him, If You will, You can make me clean (leprosy was so loathsome, that the leper didn't know if Jesus would heal him or not, even though he knew, that Jesus had the Power).

[41] And Jesus, moved with compassion (is a portrayal of the Heart of God), put forth His hand, and touched him, and said unto him, I will; be thou clean (according to the Greek, His Word healed the man, and not His touch; when He touched him, the healing had already been effected, and the man was "clean"; the words "I will" forever settled the question of the Will of God to heal the sick).

[42] And as soon as He had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him (proclaiming the spoken Word to be enough), and he was cleansed.

[43] And He (Jesus) straitly charged him (strongly demanded of him), and forthwith sent him away (sent him to the Priest, as the Law demanded [Lev. 14:2]);

[44] And said unto him, See thou say nothing to any man (not at the present time): but go your way (first), show yourself to the Priest, and offer for your cleansing those things which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them (this pertained to the Law of the cleansing of the Leper, which was a complicated affair [Lev. 14:1-32]).

[45] But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city (was Capernaum), but was without in desert places (because of the press of the great crowds): and they came to Him from every quarter (the man not obeying what Jesus told him to do, gave occasion for the enemies of Christ to accuse Him; in other words, they would say that He had ignored the Law, which of course He hadn't, but the man did, and despite the admonition).

CHAPTER 2

JESUS HEALS A PALSIED MAN

[1] And again He entered into Capernaum after some days (maybe several weeks); and it was noised that He was in the house (Peter's house).

[2] And straightway (immediately) many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and He preached the Word unto them (preaching and teaching always came first).

[3] And they come unto Him, bringing one sick of the palsy (paralysis), which was borne (carried) of four.

[4] And when they could not come near unto Him for the press (the great crowd), they uncovered the roof where He was (houses have flat roofs in that part of the world, usually with steps on the outside leading to the top): and when they had broken it up (there were usually one or more trap doors in the roof, and it was one of these, which they probably enlarged), they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.

[5] When Jesus saw their faith (faith without works is dead), He said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, your sins be forgiven you (the wretched physical condition of the sick man was due to his sinful life, therefore, Jesus first of all, addressed the real cause; no condemnation, just forgiveness and healing).

[6] But there were certain of the Scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts (represents a hostile spirit on their part, which could be felt by Christ),

[7] Why does this man thus speak blasphemies? (Would have been correct had Christ been only a man. Inasmuch as He was God manifested in the flesh, they were totally incorrect. They will now come face-to-face with the Deity of Christ.) who can forgive sins but God only? (Proclaims a truth, but yet, Jesus was God.)

[8] And immediately when Jesus perceived in His spirit that they so reasoned within themselves *(the Holy Spirit revealed their thinking to Him), He said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts? (This must have been startling to them. They had not spoken these things aloud, had only thought them in their hearts.)

[9] Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Your sins be forgiven you; or to say, Arise, and take up your bed, and walk? (God Alone can forgive sins, and God Alone can heal. Therefore, to heal validates the power to forgive sins. As stated, they were now coming face-to-face with His Deity.)

[10] But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins, (He said to the sick of the palsy,) (He did all of this in full view of everyone, even the skeptics, and especially the skeptics!),

[11] I say unto you, Arise, and take up your bed, and go your way into your house *(all there knew, including the skeptics that this man could not take up his bed and carry it, unless he was truly healed; whether they admitted it or not, they also knew that only the Power of God could accomplish this).

[12] And immediately he arose *(the Word of Christ healed him), took up the bed, and went forth before them all *(including the skeptics); insomuch that they were all amazed *(there was no doubt about the healing), and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion *(whether this included the skeptics or not, we aren't told!).

JESUS CALLS MATTHEW

[13] And He went forth again by the sea side *(Sea of Galilee); and all the multitude resorted unto Him, and He taught them.

14 And as He passed by, He saw Levi (Matthew) the son of Alphaeus sitting at the receipt of custom (he was a tax collector, an abomination in the eyes of Israel), and said unto him, Follow Me (it was not a request, but a Command). And he arose and followed Him (he did so instantly, responding to the Master's Command).

JESUS EATS WITH SINNERS

15 And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house (the house of Matthew), many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and His Disciples (expresses a gathering called by Matthew, evidently to celebrate him being Called by Christ; he was giving up the tax-collecting business): for there were many, and they followed Him (the indication is, they accepted Him as Lord and Master of their lives).

16 And when the Scribes and Pharisees saw Him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto His Disciples (it seems that many of the Scribes and Pharisees had heard of the Call of Matthew, and this resulted in their gathering, and had come, although uninvited, to see what was taking place), How is it that He eats and drinks with publicans and sinners? (Poses the idea that they thought that He was committing a great sin by associating with these people. This was their self-righteousness in action.)

17 When Jesus heard it, He said unto them, They who are whole have no need of the physician, but they who are sick (explains fully as to the "why" of His Presence): I came not to call the Righteous, but sinners to repentance (Christ was and is the Physician of sinners, not their companion).

FASTING

18 And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come and say unto Him (unto Jesus), Why do the disciples of John (John the Baptist, who was now in prison) and of the Pharisees fast, but Your Disciples fast not? (Any ordinance or ritual given in the Bible, such as fasting, must never be looked at as holy within itself, but rather as to what it represents.)

[19] And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast (Jesus is the Bridegroom).

[20] But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them (which took place at the Ascension), and then shall they fast in those days (while fasting helps the Believer in many ways, the greatest way of all is what it symbolizes; in essence, fasting states that things aren't right, and will not be right until Jesus comes back; so fasting, at least in part, is a plea for Him to come quickly).

[21] No man also sews a piece of new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up takes away from the old, and the rent is made worse (the "new cloth" symbolizes the New Covenant which Christ would bring in; it would not be a part of the Old Covenant that being done away, but would be completely new; to try to mix the two, as He states, will not work; regrettably, most modern Christians, whether they realize it or not, are in fact, attempting to mix the two).

[22] And no man puts new wine into old bottles: else the new wine does burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles (same principle as the "new cloth," given in a different way to emphasize this Truth).

THE SABBATH

[23] And it came to pass, that He went through the corn fields (should have been translated barley or wheat fields, because there was no corn in the Middle East, or Europe, as we think of such presently, at that time) on the Sabbath Day; and His Disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn (stalks of barley or wheat).

[24] And the Pharisees said unto Him (means in the Greek that they kept on badgering Him about the matter), Behold, why do they (the Disciples) on the Sabbath Day that which is not lawful? (They claimed the Disciples were breaking the Law of Moses by plucking and eating the grain on the Sabbath; Deut. 23:24-25 said, otherwise.)

25 And He said unto them (He could have taken them to Deuteronomy, but instead, he took them to I Sam., Chpt. 21; He would take them at their own game), Have you never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungry, he, and they who were with him? (He was showing them the futility of religion and ceremony, when there was no change in the heart.)

26 How he went into the House of God in the days of Abiathar the High Priest, and did eat the shewbread, which is not lawful to eat but for the Priests, and gave also to them which were with him? (David was not a Priest, so by the Law, could not eat one of these special loaves in the Tabernacle; however, he wisely judged that a positive law forbidding the laity to eat this bread, which it did, ought to yield to a Law of necessity and of nature, which it did!)

27 And He said unto them (its original construction contains the idea that He said these things over, and over; it took some talking to get the idea across to their minds, which were warped with a warped theology), The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath (the force of the argument is this: the Sabbath was made on account of man, not man on account of the Sabbath; the Sabbath was a day of rest; it was meant to point to the "spiritual rest" which would come in Christ):

28 Therefore the Son of Man is Lord also of the Sabbath (in this statement, Christ was saying, "I am the Messiah," and these religious leaders knew what He was saying!).

CHAPTER 3

(A.D. 31)

JESUS HEALS ON THE SABBATH

[1] And He entered again into the Synagogue (on the Sabbath Day, and probably in Capernaum); and there was a man there which had a withered hand (a symbol of withered, undone humanity, as a result of the Fall).

[2] And they watched Him, whether He would heal him on the Sabbath Day; that they might accuse Him (religion really doesn't care for people, only its rules and regulations).

[3] And He said unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth (whatever He did, was done openly; in other words, He threw this challenge to the Pharisees and into their teeth).

[4] And He said unto them (speaks pointedly to the Pharisees, and in front of everyone present), Is it lawful to do good on the Sab bath Days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? (He was telling them that living for God was not a question of keeping rules and regulations, but a question of "doing good or evil!" To have the power to set this man free and not do so was "evil".) But they held their peace (Wuest says, "theirs was a painful, embarrassing silence").

[5] And when He had looked round about on them with anger (proves that "anger" is not necessarily a manifestation of sin and Satan; only its wrong use falls into that category), being grieved for the hardness of their hearts (there is no hardness of the heart like religious hardness; He knew that this would lead the Pharisees and Israel to destruction), He said unto the man, Stretch forth your hand (once again, being done in full view of all). And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other (pictures what Christ can do with the human heart).

6 And the Pharisees went forth (they were angry; they had no concern for the man who had been miraculously healed), and straightway (immediately) took counsel with the Herodians (a group who believed that Herod was the Messiah, and whom the Pharisees normally hated) against Him, how they might destroy Him (this was the condition of the religions leaders of Israel)**.

MANY HEALED

7 But Jesus withdrew Himself with His Disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed Him, and from Judaea,

8 And from Jerusalem (the religious leadership of Israel resided in this city), and from Idumaea (this was south of the Dead Sea, and about one hundred miles from the Sea of Galilee, a long way in those days), and from beyond Jordan (east of the Jordan River, which would have included Paneas and the Decapolis); and they about Tyre and Sidon (about fifty miles north of the Sea of Galilee, mostly inhabited by Gentiles), a great multitude, when they had heard what great things He did, came unto Him (this will be repeated in the coming Kingdom Age, but on a far grander scale)**.

9 And He spoke to His Disciples, that a small ship should wait on Him because of the multitude, lest they should throng Him (this would have been a small boat, pushed out a little distance from the shore, with Him teaching the people from this particular platform)**.

10 For He had healed many; insomuch that they pressed upon Him for to touch Him, as many as had plagues (all were healed and He never turned one away)**.

11 And unclean spirits, when they saw Him, fell down before Him, and cried, saying, You are the Son of God (they kept falling down before Him, and kept constantly crying; they knew He was the Son of God, even though the religious leaders of Israel didn't)**.

12 And He straitly charged them (a military command) that they should not make Him known (He wanted no advertisement from this sort).

THE TWELVE CHOSEN AND ORDAINED

13 And He goeth up into a mountain, and called unto Him whom He would: and they came unto Him (there could have been as many as forty or fifty people personally selected, and maybe even near a hundred).

14 And He ordained (appointed) Twelve (the Biblical number for Government), that they should be with Him (the secret of all power), and that He might send them forth to preach,

15 And to have power (delegated authority, all from Christ) to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils (demons):

16 And Simon He surnamed Peter (a stone);

17 And James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and He surnamed them Boanerges, which is, The sons of thunder (the names suggested their impetuosity and zeal, which characterized both the brothers):

18 And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Canaanite (Simon the Zealot),

19 And Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed Him (the only one of the Disciples who was of the Tribe of Judah; Christ was from that Tribe as well!): and they went into an house (probably referred to Peter's house in Capernaum).

20 And the multitude came together again (when they heard He was present), so that they could not so much as eat bread.

21 And when His friends heard of it (His immediate relatives, as Verse 31 proclaims), they went out to lay hold on Him (means they intended to stop Him, even by using force and against His Will, if necessary!): for they said, He is beside Himself (means, they actually believed He was insane; His open opposition to the Pharisees and the religious leaders of Israel, would have occasioned this, with them knowing that it was ultimately going to bring severe trouble; however, His brothers, at that time, did not actually believe that He was the Son of God [Jn. 7:5]).

THE PHARISEES BLASPHEME THE HOLY SPIRIT

22 And the Scribes which came down from Jerusalem said (evidently sent by the Sanhedrin in order to find something in which they could undermine His influence), He has Beelzebub, and by the prince of the devils casteth He out devils (they blasphemed the Holy Spirit when they accused Christ of casting out devils by the power of Satan).

23 And He called them unto Him (the Scribes), and said unto them in Parables, How can Satan cast out Satan? (Why would Satan undo what he had done?)

24 And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand (internal fighting respecting a family will ultimately lead to the destruction of that family).

26 And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but has an end (would wreck his kingdom of darkness).

27 No man can enter into a strong man's house (in this case the house of Satan), and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man (Jesus overthrew Satan); and then he will spoil his house (Christ defeated Satan at the Cross, by atoning for all sin [Col. 2:14-15]).

THE UNPARDONABLE SIN

28 Verily I say unto you (speaking to all, but more directly to the Scribes),

All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme (providing forgiveness is asked of the Lord; this is a wonderful promise, and has been upheld in the hearts and lives of untold millions)**:

[29] But he who shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit hath never forgiveness (only a Believer who has ceased to believe, in other words, ceases to evidence Faith in Christ, and a professor of religion, such as these Pharisees, etc., can blaspheme the Holy Spirit; an unsaved person, who has made no profession of faith, cannot blaspheme the Spirit; and when one does blaspheme the Holy Spirit, there will not be any desire to serve Christ, as there was no desire by the Pharisees, etc., to serve Christ), but is in danger of eternal damnation (refers to those who would attribute the Power of God to Satan, as the Pharisees had done; to label anything which is actually of God, as being of Satan is a serious offense indeed!)**:

[30] Because they said, He has an unclean spirit (most serious)**.

JESUS' TRUE KIN

[31] There came then His brethren (He had four brothers [Mat. 13:55], and several sisters) and his mother, and, standing without (outside of the house), sent unto Him, calling Him (they sent Him word by way of the crowd that they desired to see Him)**.

[32] And the multitude sat about Him, and they said unto Him, Behold, Your mother and Your brethren without seek for You.

[33] And He answered them, saying, Who is My mother, or My brethren? (He meant to place this relationship in its proper setting.)

[34] And He looked round about on them which sat about Him (presents a look that is serious, but yet not critical), and said, Behold My mother and My brethren! (He gestures toward those who hungrily desired to hear His Words, and answered His Own question.)

[35] For whosoever shall do the Will of God (proclaims the qualifications for the high and lofty position of being in His family)*, the same is My brother, and My sister, and mother (places all Born-Again Believers in a status even greater than flesh-and-blood relationships, while never for a moment demeaning those relationships).

CHAPTER 4

THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER

[1] And He began again to teach by the seaside: and there was gathered unto Him a great multitude, so that He entered into a ship, and sat in the sea (sat in the ship on the Sea of Galilee); and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

[2] And He taught them many things by Parables, and said unto them in His Doctrine (had He stayed upon the shore the diseased could have touched Him and been healed; but His business as a Servant was to deal with sin rather than with its effects),

[3] Hearken (be listening); Behold, there went out a sower to sow (this Parable is given in Mat., Chpt. 13, and repeated in Lk., Chpt. 8, but worded somewhat different; these were illustrations taken from everyday life and living, which people understood. But yet, they seldom understood His Parables):

[4] And it came to pass, as He sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up (the "seed sowed" is the Gospel; the "fowls of the air" represent Satan and his demon powers).

[5] And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

[6] But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away (many start out for Christ, but don't last long; all of this completely refutes the unscriptural doctrine of unconditional eternal security).

[7] And some (seed) fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it (cares of this life, etc.), and it yielded no fruit.

[8] And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred (an hundredfold, etc.).

[9] And He said unto them, He who has ears to hear, let him hear (those who would properly "hear," would attend to these Words of Christ, pondering them, until somehow the Truth was eventually revealed; the Gospel is designed this way purposely by the Holy Spirit, in order to ferret out the insincere).

THE PURPOSE OF PARABLES

[10] And when He was alone, they who were about Him with the Twelve (possibly as many as forty or fifty) asked of Him the Parable (what it meant).

[11] And He said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the Kingdom of God (those who truly want to know): but unto them who are without (who have no desire to know), all these things are done in Parables (Parables were used to reject the merely curious, and to pull in the sincerely desirous):

[12] That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them (Judicial blindness and deafness justly befall those who do not wish to see and hear; the emphasis is on the person and not on God. He desires that all see and hear).

[13] And He said unto them, Know ye not this Parable? (Contains a gentle reproach. The question as given by the Lord, indicates that they should have known.) and how then will you know all Parables? (The Parable of the Sower lays down the principle of all Parables concerning the understanding thereof.)

PARABLE OF THE SOWER

[14] The sower sows the Word (the Word of God. This "seed" must be sowed to the entirety of the world [Mk. 16:15]).

[15] And these (the ones who merely hear but do not receive) are they by the way side, where the Word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan comes immediately, and takes away the Word that was sown in their hearts (the structure of the sentence is these individuals do not have to allow Satan to take away the Word).

[16] And these (those who hear and receive, but have no durability) are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the Word, immediately receive it with gladness (millions fall into this category);

[17] And have no root in themselves (once again, it is the fault of the individual), and so endure but for a time (meaning that they truly were Born-Again): afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the Word's sake (as surely it will), immediately they are offended (can't stand the opposition, because they have no root, meaning that the ground was not sufficiently prepared).

[18] And these (make a great start, and even endure for a while, but they allow the world to stop them) are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the Word,

[19] And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the Word, and it becomes unfruitful (means that they did bear fruit for a while, but allowed the things of the world to choke it off, until they became totally unfruitful, and lost their way; the Parable of the sower completely refutes the unscriptural doctrine of unconditional eternal security, as should be obvious here).

[20] And these (those who hear, receive, bring forth fruit, and continue to bring forth fruit forever; they allow nothing to stop them) are they which are sown on good ground (the individual determines whether the ground is good or not); such as hear the Word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

THE GOSPEL

[21] And He said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick? (The Gospel is not to be merely enjoyed privately, but rather imparted as a lamp imparts its light.)

[22] For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad (the Gospel is not meant to be hid, or kept secret, but is to be spread abroad, throughout the world).

[23] If any man have ears to hear, let him hear (the Lord will make the Gospel known to all Nations, and all will be held responsible who hear it).

[24] And He said unto them, Take heed what you hear (there is no excuse for Believers not hearing correctly): with what measure you mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you who hear shall more be given (in proportion to the diligence given to Bible Study, so will spiritual intelligence be measured to the student).

[25] For he who has, to him shall be given: and he who has not, from him shall be taken even that which he has (spiritual gifts, if exercised, will be developed; if not, they will be lost).

THE PARABLE OF THE SEED

[26] And He said, So is the Kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground (responsibility of Believers to spread the Gospel);

[27] And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knows not how (the Word if properly sown, will without fail, have its proper effect).

28 For the earth brings forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear (this is the Law of the Gospel in "sowing and reaping").

29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he puts in the sickle, because the harvest is come (has reference to the end of the age, when the Church will be called to account).

THE PARABLE OF THE MUSTARD SEED

30 And He said, Whereunto shall we liken the Kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it? (Is meant to proclaim the manner in which Satan will endeavor to corrupt the Word of God.)

31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth (the Church began very small):

32 But when it is sown, it grows up, and becomes greater than all herbs, and shoots out great branches (Christianity is presently the largest religion on Earth, claiming nearly two billion adherents, in one form or the other); so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it (refers to most of Christianity being corrupted by Satanic Powers as explained in Mat. 13:19 and Lk. 8:12).

33 And with many such Parables spoke He the Word unto them, as they were able to hear it (able to understand).

34 But without a Parable spoke He not unto them: and when they were alone, He expounded all things to His Disciples (gave them extended instruction).

JESUS STILLS THE STORM

35 And the same day, when the evening was come (refers to the same day that He had been teaching the people through Parables), He said unto them (the Twelve), Let us pass over unto the other side (presents itself as a microcosm of this present life; the storms come, and it is only with Christ, that we can make it to the other shore).

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took Him even as He was in the ship (meaning that He was very tired, even to the point of physical exhaustion; as a man, He grew tired, just as we do). And there were also with Him other little ships (referred to those who wanted to be near Him, and understandably so!).

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full (represents in the spiritual sense, the storms of life, which come to every person).

38 And He was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake Him, and say unto Him, Master, carest Thou not that we perish? (The Lord had said, "let us pass over unto the other side." This means that despite the storm, or anything else for that matter, they would reach the other shore. The people of God are in the same boat with Christ, and we cannot perish because He cannot perish. But we must expect storms of opposition for they are sure to come [Ps. 93].)

39 And He arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still (the Greek intimates, "Silence! Hush!"). And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm (instantly).

40 And He said unto them, Why are you so fearful? (This type of fear, shows improper love [I Jn. 4:18].) How is it that ye have no faith? (The Disciples had accepted His Messiahship, but had a most inadequate view of what that office carried with it.)

41 And they feared exceedingly (means that their fear of Him, was greater even then their fear had been of the storm), and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him? (The Disciples were right! The wind and sea did obey Him, and so does everything else. So why should we fear?)

CHAPTER 5

THE DEMONIAC DELIVERED

[1] And they came over unto the other side of the sea (refers to the eastern shore of Galilee), into the country of the Gadarenes (the area of the town of Gadara, which was three miles from the Sea of Galilee).

[2] And when He was come out of the ship, immediately there met Him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit (symbolizes the great mission for which Christ came to the world; He had calmed the storm on the sea, and now He would calm the storm in a man's soul),

[3] Who had his dwelling among the tombs (the wages of sin is death); and no man could bind him, no, not with chains (sin and the powers of darkness will yield only to Christ, and what He did at the Cross on our behalf; this rules out humanistic psychology, and anything else instituted by man in order to address this problem):

[4] Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces (superhuman strength given to him by the unclean spirit): neither could any man tame him (once again, reinforces the great Truth that Christ and the Cross alone, are the only answer).

[5] And always, night and day (there is no peace for those who do not know the Lord), he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones (a symbolic picture, which takes place with all unredeemed in the spiritual).

[6] But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped Him (the demon spirit worshiped Him; all demon spirits and Satan himself are made to pay homage to God the Son; Satan and all of his minions were defeated at the Cross [Col. 2:14-15]),

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with You, Jesus, Thou Son of the Most High God? (Refers to this evil spirit knowing exactly as to who Jesus was!) I adjure Thee by God, that You torment me not (a certain time has been appointed by God to which these spirits will be confined to the pit [Rev. 20:1-3]).

8 For He said unto him, Come out of the man, you unclean spirit (constitutes a direct order, which the unclean spirit must obey).

9 And He (Christ) asked him, What is your name? (Why did Jesus ask this question? He did so, because He knew that other spirits inhabited this man also.) And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many (the unclean spirit was the head demon, but many more were there as well).

10 And he besought him (besought Christ) much that He would not send them away out of the country (this area was full of Hellenistic apostate Jews, and evidently was loved by demon spirits; we learn here that demon spirits enjoy places that have little or no mention of Christ).

11 Now there was there near unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding (they were, no doubt, owned by Jews, even though Jews were forbidden by the Law to eat pork).

12 And all the devils (demons) besought Him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them (they could not enter into these hogs without the express permission of Christ, so how much less could they enter into "the sheep of His pasture!").

13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave (means that He did not command them to do this, but instead, gave them permission). And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea (many have questioned the right of Christ to do this, which destroyed other people's property; however, even though the Holy Spirit through Mark didn't explain it, we know that everything the Lord does is right; it's not merely right because He does it, but because it actually is right).

14 And they who fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done (a great multitude).

15 And they come to Jesus (the loss of the animals would have been nothing in comparison to what they would have received upon their acceptance of Christ, at least, had they done so, which they didn't), and see him who was possessed with the devil (had been possessed with demons), and had the legion, sitting, and clothed (clothing, no doubt, given to him by the Disciples), and in his right mind (irrespective as to how much education a person may have, until they come to Christ, they aren't completely in their right mind): and they were afraid (regrettably, they did not allow this fear to bring them to Christ).

16 And they who saw it told them how it befell to him who was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine (lends credence to the thought that the swine-herders had witnessed the entire episode, concerning the action of Christ in delivering the demoniac, and allowing the demons to go into the hogs).

17 And they began to pray Him (Jesus) to depart out of their coasts (it is remarkable!; they thought more of the swine than they did of the eternal life that Christ could have given them; and so it is with most of the world).

18 And when He (Jesus) was come into the ship, he who had been possessed with the devil prayed Him that he might be with Him (he wanted to go with Jesus and the Disciples, and no wonder!).

19 Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but said unto him, Go home to your friends, and tell them how great things the Lord has done for you, and has had compassion on you (A. Go tell; B. Great things which the Lord has done; and, C. Tell of the compassion).

20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis (a region east of the Jordan River, containing a number of towns and cities) how great things Jesus had done for him (he became an Evangelist): and all men did marvel (evidently, many had known him before, and now see what the Lord has done for him; this is the story of untold millions).

HEALINGS AND MIRACLES

21 And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side (back to Capernaum, on the west side), much people gathered unto Him: and He was near unto the sea (means that hundreds, if not thousands, were waiting on the shore for Him to come back to Capernaum).

22 And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the Synagogue, Jairus by name (each Synagogue had several rulers); and when he saw Him (Jesus), he fell at His feet (a posture of worship),

23 And besought Him greatly (an impassioned plea), saying, My little daughter lies at the point of death (actually, she probably died about the time that Jairus was importuning Christ): I pray You, come and lay Your hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live (the Greek actually says, "to save her from death").

24 And Jesus went with him; and much people followed Him (Jesus), and thronged Him.

25 And a certain woman (tradition says her name was Veronica), which had an issue of blood twelve years (speaks of a constant hemorrhage for that period of time. A female disorder),

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians (means that she had suffered extreme pain at the hands of these doctors), and had spent all that she had (many of these physicians had treated her merely for the money, knowing all the time they could not help her), and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse (had not helped her at all, but had worsened the situation),

27 When she had heard of Jesus (the Greek actually says, "the Jesus" distinguishing Him from all others), came in the press behind (the great crowd of people), and touched His garment (probably referred to the touching of the hem of the shawl thrown over His shoulder, which contained a blue fringe, which the Jews were required to wear, to remind them they were God's People [Num. 15:38-41; Deut. 22:12]).

28 For she said (means she kept saying it over and over to herself, or even possibly to others near by), If I may touch but His clothes, I shall be whole (concerns her level of faith).

29 And straightway (immediately) the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague (she knew she was healed).

30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in Himself that virtue (power) had gone out of Him, turned Him about in the press (crowd), and said, Who touched My clothes? (The Holy Spirit had not seen fit to reveal to Him who had touched Him.)

31 And His Disciples said unto Him, You see the multitude thronging You, and You say, Who touched Me?

32 And He looked round about to see her who had done this thing.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before Him, and told Him all the truth (proclaims her now seeking mercy as she had previously sought healing; it would be granted as well!).

34 And He said unto her, Daughter (in the Twenty-fifth Verse, she was addressed merely as "a certain woman," now she is called "daughter," which refers to relationship; He, in effect, had made her a member of the Family of God), your faith has made you whole (if He doesn't touch us, we can touch Him); go in peace (gain Salvation as well as healing), and be whole of your plague (meaning that the malady would never return).

35 While He yet spoke (was speaking to the woman), there came from the ruler of the Synagogue's house certain (a certain one) which said, Your daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further? (The faith of this certain one wasn't high enough to believe that Jesus could raise the dead.)

36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken (He overheard what was being said), He said unto the ruler of the Synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe (in effect, Jesus said, "stop fearing, and be believing").

37 And He suffered no man to follow Him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James (He took these three with Him to the home of Jairus).

38 And He came to the house of the Ruler of the Synagogue, and seeing the tumult, and them who wept and wailed greatly (hired mourners which was the custom in those days).

39 And when He was come in (into the home of Jairus), He said unto them, Why do you make this ado, and weep? (Jesus was not in sympathy with this custom and practice) the damsel is not dead, but sleeps (did not mean that she was actually not dead, but that the child was not dead to stay dead; as well, the word, "sleepeth," brings us to the fact of the Resurrection; in the Scriptures, the dead are constantly referred to as "sleeping"; however, it is only the body which sleeps, with the soul and the spirit at death, instantly going to be with Christ that is, if the person is saved).

40 And they (the paid mourners) laughed Him to scorn (meaning that they ridiculed Him; what simpletons!). But when He had put them all out (demanded that they leave), He took the father and the mother of the damsel, and them who were with Him (Peter, James, and John), and entered in where the damsel was lying (the word, "entereth," actually refers to a person going on a journey; even though only a few feet, at least in this instance, it conveyed the idea of distance; in effect, it pointed forward to the coming Resurrection).

[41] And He took the damsel by the hand (refers to a strong grip), and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto you, arise (this was spoken in Aramic, the same tongue used concerning our Lord's Words on the Cross, "My God, My God why have You forsaken Me?"; as the original language was reported in these two cases, quite possibly they relate to each other; as Jesus defeated death at the home of Jairus, likewise, and for the whole world, He defeated death at Calvary).

[42] And straightway (immediately) the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment (the Scriptures only record three people being raised from the dead by Christ, but Augustine says that He raised many more).

[43] And He charged them straitly (commanded them) that no man should know it (they must not relate the account of this miracle; there were reasons for this, the least not being the furor which religious leaders would cause; but it is certain that such news could not be kept); and commanded that something should be given her to eat (due to her illness, which actually killed her, she probably had not eaten for days).

CHAPTER 6

(A.D. 31)

UNBELIEF IN NAZARETH

[1] And He went out from thence (from Capernaum), and came into His own country (Nazareth); and His Disciples follow Him.

[2] And when the Sabbath Day was come, He began to teach in the Synagogue: and many hearing Him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this Man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto Him, that even such mighty works are wrought by His Hands? (They did not question the wisdom or the works, but rather His right to do such things. In their thoughts, He wasn't worthy!)

[3] Is not this the carpenter (Chrysostom said, that He made ploughs and yokes for oxen; in the minds of His critics, this disqualified Him as a great teacher), the Son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joseph, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not His sisters here with us? (This disproves the claims by the Catholic Church that Jesus had no brothers or sisters.) And they were offended at Him (He did not meet their approval).

[4] But Jesus said unto them (represents His answer to their unbelief), A Prophet is not without honour (to show deference and reverence), but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house (I don't think that Mary was a part of this unbelief, but it definitely included the balance of the family, with Joseph by now, probably having passed on).

[5] And He could there do no mighty work (actually means, not even one; it was not that He couldn't, but they wouldn't bring the sick and the diseased to Him; they would rather see their loved ones sick, than to see Christ heal them!), save that He laid His Hands upon a few sick folk (a few sickly ones), and healed them.

6 And He marveled because of their unbelief (expresses the view of His Humanity; the Holy Spirit mentions Him marveling twice, once at the faith of a Gentile, and at the unbelief of His Own [Mat. 8:10]). And He went round about the villages, teaching.

THE TWELVE SENT OUT

7 And He called unto Him the Twelve (speaks of their first Mission where they were sent without Him), and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits;

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey (is not a suggestion, but a Command), save a staff only (a wooden staff for walking); no scrip (a leather pouch for food), no bread, no money in their purse (means they were not to store up these things before they went, but were to rather trust the Lord)**;

9 But be shod with sandals (spoke of association with the common people who wore such); and not put on two coats (the most simple of quality and quantity were sufficient)**.

10 And He said unto them, In what place soever you enter into an house, (they accept you) there abide till you depart from that place (don't flit from place to place)**.

11 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you (basically refers to the area, even the city, and not the house in which they were invited), when you depart thence (meant to express the significance of the visit), shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them (a symbolic gesture). Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city (has reference to the fact that Sodom and Gomorrha had no Gospel witness, while these places did)**.

12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent (the Message didn't change, and shouldn't change now)**.

13 And they cast out many devils (demons), and anointed with oil many who were sick, and healed them (oil is symbolic of the Holy Spirit, it has nothing to do with medicine [Ex. 27:20; 30:25; Num. 6:15; I Sam. 16:1,13; Ps. 45:7]).

JOHN THE BAPTIST BEHEADED

14 And king Herod (Antipas) heard of Him (Jesus); (for His name was spread abroad:) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do show forth themselves in him (proclaims a troubled and guilty conscience for putting John the Baptist to death).

15 Others said (refers to the Court of Herod, as well as many in Israel), That it is Elijah. And others said, That it is a Prophet, or as one of the Prophets (it seems that Israel would admit to anything except the Truth that He was the Messiah, the Son of the Living God).

16 But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead (means he kept saying it over and over, in response to the prediction of others as to Who Christ was!).

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison (the Holy Spirit wanted to make certain that no one misunderstood that it was Herod who had done this dastardly thing) for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife (John had been in prison because Herod's wife Herodias, had demanded it): for he (Herod) had married her.

18 For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife (means that he said it more than once, to both Herod and the people).

19 Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him (she never let up on her fury toward the Baptist for daring to denounce her private relations with Herod, and waited her time for revenge), and would have killed him; but she could not (means that she did not lack the will, only the way; she would find the way):

20 For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy (means that he was in a continual state of fear respecting the Prophet), and observed him (means he watched over John to keep him safe from the evil plots of Herodias); and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly (he kept going back to the dank prison cell over, and over again to speak with the Prophet; in other words, the Holy Spirit was dealing with Herod's soul).

21 And when a convenient day was come (refers to a convenient time for Herodias to kill John the Baptist), that Herod on his birthday made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee (Herodias would find her time for revenge at this gathering);

22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them who sat with him (she degraded herself in a licentious dance), the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever you will, and I will give it to you (they were probably drunk, or nearly so. Herodias would now spring her trap).

23 And he sware unto her (puts himself under oath), Whatsoever you shall ask of me, I will give it to you, unto the half of my kingdom (he doesn't want to lose face in front of his guests).

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother (implies her knowledge of at least a part of the plan of revenge), What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

25 And she (the daughter of Herodias) came in straightway (immediately) with haste unto the king (presents her immediately making her demand, so the king will have no opportunity to renege on his promise), and asked, saying, I will that you give me by and by (immediately) in a charger (on a platter) the head of John the Baptist.

26 And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him (he would save face), he would not reject her

(the life of the greatest Prophet who ever lived, had boiled down to the worth of a lewd dance, at least to these men).

[27] And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison (the prison was actually connected to the palace where the celebration was being held),

[28] And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother (proclaims Herodias, according to Jerome thrusting the tongue through with a long pen; because she could not bear to hear the truth, therefore, she would puncture the tongue that had spoken the truth; both Herodias and Herod, a short time later, were banished by a decree of the Roman Senate to Lyons where they both perished miserably; Salome, the daughter who danced, died shortly thereafter, by having her head nearly cut off by the sharp edges of broken ice; "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay saith the Lord" [Rom. 12:19]).

[29] And when his disciples heard of it (the disciples of John the Baptist), they came and took up his corpse (Josephus says that after the beheading, the mutilated remains were cast out of the prison and left neglected), and laid it in a tomb (and so concludes the life and Ministry of the greatest Prophet who ever lived).

JESUS FEEDS FIVE THOUSAND

[30] And the Apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus (relates back to Verse 7 where the Twelve had been sent forth "two and two"; they now come back to report to Christ), and told Him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

[31] And He said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

[32] And they departed into a desert place by ship privately (probably one of the vessels belonging to Zebedee).

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew Him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them (presents them waiting for Him whenever the boat docked in this desert place), and came together unto Him.

34 And Jesus, when He came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd (the nation was more religious than ever before, but with few true shepherds): and He began to teach them many things (presents the only true Gospel that many of them had ever heard).

35 And when the day was now far spent, His Disciples came unto Him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed (growing late in the day):

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat (He was speaking in both the physical and the spiritual sense). And they say unto Him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat? (Probably equal to seven or eight thousand dollars presently).

38 He said unto them, How many loaves have you? (They were thinking of thousands of loaves.) go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes (according to Andrew, this small collection belonged to a boy [Jn. 6:8-9]; little is much if God be in it).

39 And He Commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass (considering that the grass was green, it was probably about April).

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when He had taken the five loaves and the two fishes (signifies the beginning of the Miracle, and because it was in His Hands), He looked up to Heaven (it is from God from whence all Blessings come), and blessed

(His Blessing guarantees everything)*, and broke the loaves, and gave them to His Disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided He among them all (the Miracle took place between the breaking and the giving; each Disciple soon exhausted his supply and so had to return to Jesus for more, and was never disappointed).

[42] And they did all eat, and were filled (Jehovah of Psalm 132 revealed Himself here).

[43] And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fish.

[44] And they who did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men (possibly as many as 10,000 to 15,000 total, including women and children).

JESUS WALKS ON THE SEA

[45] And straightway (immediately) He constrained His Disciples to get into the ship (they were reluctant to do so), and to go to the other side before unto Bethsaida, while He sent away the people (but He sent them away healed, fed, and filled).

[46] And when He had sent them away, He departed into a mountain to pray (prayer establishes relationship).

[47] And when evening was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and He alone on the land.

[48] And He saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them (inasmuch as it was night, He could not have seen them physically, so the Holy Spirit must have revealed this to Him): and about the fourth watch of the night He cometh unto them (between 3 a.m. and 6 a.m.), walking upon the sea (the inference is that the sandals of our Lord actually had contact with the water; He walked on the surface of the sea as we walk on a hard pavement), and would have passed by them (should have been translated, "and came near to them").

49 But when they saw Him walking upon the sea (couldn't believe their eyes), they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out (they thought it was an apparition):

50 For they all saw Him, and were troubled (all Twelve saw Him). And immediately He talked with them, and said unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid (He evidently was very near when He said this to them).

51 And He went up unto them into the ship (Mark omits Peter walking on the water, as recorded by Matthew); and the wind ceased (emphasizes the fact that such was done solely because He was now in the ship): and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered (they had witnessed something beyond the power of their comprehension).

52 For they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened (the desire to make Jesus King as John mentioned, was paramount, in the minds of His Disciples; consequently, the true mission of Christ was lost on them, at least at this time; and deviation from the true Will of God always "hardens the heart"; nothing dulls spiritually like the religious enthusiasm of the carnal nature acting in fellowship with the religious world).

JESUS HEALS MANY SICK PEOPLE

53 And when they had passed over (the ship had begun without Jesus, but concludes with Him; what a Miracle!), they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore (was a fertile plain on the north shore of Galilee and west of the Jordan River).

54 And when they were come out of the ship (insinuates a ship of some size; probably one of the larger fishing vessels of Zebedee), straightway (immediately) they knew Him,

55 And ran through that whole region round about (proclaims runners going from village to village announcing that Jesus was in the vicinity), and began to carry about in beds those who were sick, where they heard

He was (this was a pathetic, yet understandable sight!).

[56] And whithersoever He entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought Him that they might touch if it were but the border of His garment: and as many as touched Him were made whole (this had to have been a situation astounding to behold!; what a sight it must have been!; it will be this way when He comes back the second time, and even greater).

CHAPTER 7

(A.D. 32)

JESUS REBUKES THE SCRIBES AND PHARISEES

[1] Then came together unto Him the Phari sees, and certain of the Scribes, which came from Jerusalem (the religious leaders were becoming alarmed at the tremendous popularity of Jesus).

[2] And when they saw (means they were earnestly seeking some fault, by which they might accuse Him) some of His Disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashed, hands, they found fault (had nothing to do with sanitary cleanliness; the Pharisees taught that demons, unseen, could sit on the hands of anyone, and consequently, if the hands were not washed, the demons could be ingested).

[3] For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands often, eat not (ceremonial religion), holding the tradition of the Elders (this tradition was only of man, and not at all of God, as are many traditions in the modern Church).

[4] And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not (spending an inordinate amount of time engaging in this foolishness). And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brasen vessels, and of tables (they had a certain religious way to wash these things, all which amounted to nothing).

[5] Then the Pharisees and Scribes asked Him (means they kept on asking Him, demanding an answer), Why walk not Your Disciples according to the tradition of the Elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands? (All of this was outward show only, and brought Christ into direct conflict with these religious leaders.)

6 He answered and said unto them (runs through Verse 13, and constitutes a startling answer, which pull no punches and minced no words), Well has Isaiah prophesied of you hypocrites (said this to their faces. "You hypocrites" actually says in the Greek, "You, the hypocrites," which means the outstanding ones of all time), as it is written, This people honor Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me (hits at the very heart of what true Salvation is and isn't [Isa. 29:13])**.

7 Howbeit in vain (means empty nothings, no profit) do they worship Me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men (the state [Herod] put to death the Preacher of Righteousness [Mat. 14:10], and the Church [the Scribes], corrupted the Word of Righteousness)**.

8 For laying aside the Commandment of God, you hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things you do (said with sarcasm; they washed cups and pots but not their hearts; the ceremonial washing of their hands could not remove the guilt that stained them)**.

9 And He said unto them, Full well you reject the Commandment of God, that you may keep your own tradition (it was a studied and deliberate rejection)**.

10 For Moses said (drew their attention back to the Word of God), Honor your father and your mother; and, Whoso curses father or mother, let him die the death (is deserving of death)**:

11 But you say (presents a stark contrast to the Word of God), If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever you might be profited by Me; he shall be free (the Pharisees had made it a practice of claiming they were giving their material possessions to the Temple, which absolved them of responsibility toward their parents, with a crooked Priest then giving it back to them for a small percentage).

12 And you suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother (to such extremities did these covetous Scribes and Pharisees drive their victims who, were their aged parents, with no way to care for themselves);

13 Making the Word of God of none effect through your tradition (Jesus had just nailed them with the Fifth Commandment), which you have delivered (meaning that their glosses of the Word had come from men and not from God): and many such like things do you (this which Christ had given as an example, was only the tip of the proverbial iceberg).

JESUS EXPLAINS WHAT DEFILES

14 And when He had called all the people unto Him (He called the people closer so they could hear exactly what He was saying), He said unto them, Hearken unto Me every one of you, and understand (the people have a choice, they can hear Him or these hypocritical Pharisees and Scribes; it is the same presently):

15 There is nothing from without a man, that entereth into him can defile him (refers to food, not intoxicating drinks, narcotics, poisons, or tobacco, etc.): but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man (it is evident that what comes out of the heart must exist in the heart).

16 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear (the Lord is telling the people that they have a choice; they can hear him or the Pharisees, but not both!).

17 And when He was entered into the house (probably Peter's house) from the people (from teaching the people), His Disciples asked Him concerning the Parable (regarding that which enters into a man, and that which comes from his heart).

18 And He said unto them, Are you so without understanding also? (Shows some disappointment on the part of Christ respecting His Disciples.) Do you not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without enters into the man, it cannot defile him (presents the exact opposite of what the Pharisees, and Scribes taught);

19 Because it enters not into his heart (food is not spiritual), but into the belly, and goes out into the draught, purging all meats? (Refers to the digestive and elimination system of the human body.)

[20] And He said, That which comes out of the man, that defiles the man (an evil heart produces evil actions).

[21] For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders (the necessity of the creation of a new heart, i.e., "a new man," is here declared),

[22] Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness (this statement by Christ, destroys the belief that the natural heart is good, and makes foolish modern efforts to improve human nature):

[23] All these evil things come from within, and defile the man (proclaims the result of the Fall, and the absolute necessity of the new birth).

HEALING, THE CHILDREN'S BREAD

[24] And from thence He arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon (has the idea from the Greek Text that He did not merely cross over the border into Gentile territory, but instead, went deep into the heart of that country), and entered into an house, and would have no man know it, but He could not be hid.

[25] For a certain woman (this is the reason He came), whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of Him, and came and fell at His Feet:

[26] The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation (a Gentile); and she besought Him that He would cast forth the devil (demon) out of her daughter.

[27] But Jesus said unto her (begins the odyssey which will proclaim one of the greatest displays of faith ever!), Let the children first be filled (has reference to Israel): for it is not meet (proper) to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs (Jesus used the Word for "little pet dogs").

[28] And she answered and said unto Him (proclaims a level of faith which should be a lesson to all Believers), Yes, Lord (the word, "Lord," in the Greek Text, as used by the woman, does not refer to Deity or of Jesus being the Jewish Messiah; she would have had scant knowledge of this; she, instead, uses the word, "Lord," in the sense of Jesus being an important Person, etc.): yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs (now places her in the position of faith, a position which enables her to receive).

[29] And He said unto her, For this saying (because you have taken a position of humility) go your way; the devil (demon) is gone out of your daughter (means that it is out, and will stay out; it is a permanent cure).

[30] And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed (refers to a restful repose, which indicated that previously she had not been easily restrained).

JESUS HEALS A DEAF AND DUMB MAN

[31] And again, departing from the coasts (borders) of Tyre and Sidon, He came unto the Sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts (borders) of Decapolis (He was now on the eastern side of the Sea of Galilee).

[32] And they bring unto Him one who was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech (proclaims the usual difficulties of the deaf); and they (friends of the deaf man) beseech Him to put His Hand upon him.

[33] And He took him aside from the multitude (there was a purpose for this), and put His Fingers into his ears, and He spit, and touched his tongue (He probably spat on His Finger first, touched the man's tongue, and then put both index fingers in the man's ears; the "spittle" represented His Perfect Life);

[34] And looking up to Heaven (all help comes from above), He sighed

(speaks of the terrible dilemma, due to the Fall, in which man now finds himself), and said unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened (expresses the command).

35 And straightway (immediately) his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke plain (symbolizes in the physical that which takes place in the spiritual, as it regards the Salvation of the Soul).

36 And He charged (commanded) them that they should tell no man: but the more He charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it;

37 And were beyond measure astonished (what Jesus had done, was beyond their comprehension), saying, He has done all things well (means in the Greek that they said this, and continued to say it over, and over): He makes both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak (His whole life on Earth was one connected, continued manifestation of lovingkindness).

CHAPTER 8

JESUS FEEDS FOUR THOUSAND

[1] In those days the multitude being very great (numbering thousands) and having nothing to eat (outside of Christ, the world "has nothing to eat"), Jesus called His Disciples unto Him, and said unto them,

[2] I have compassion on the multitude (portrays the Love of God; it would be the same as saying, "My heart goes out to them"), because they have now been with Me three days, and have nothing to eat (they wanted so much to be in His Presence that they slept where they could, and ate what little they had, if anything, with that long since having run out):

[3] And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers (many) of them came from far.

[4] And His Disciples answered Him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness? (The insensibility of the natural heart appears in this Verse. The Disciples apparently learned nothing from the previous feeding of the multitude [Chpt. 6].)

[5] And He asked them, How many loaves have you? And they said, Seven (before they had "five" loaves, which is God's number of Grace, while now they have "seven," which is God's Perfect number of completion).

[6] And He commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and He took the seven loaves (in the Disciples' hands they were nothing, in His Hands they are everything!; the action is not in the loaves, but rather in Him), and gave thanks, and break, and gave to His Disciples to set before them (proclaims the actual time of the multiplication; the giving was a continual act, until all were filled); and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes (did not give the number): and He blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat (bread) that was left seven baskets.

9 And they who had eaten were about four thousand (probably didn't include women and children, which would have increased it by several thousands): and He sent them away (but only after they were healed and filled).

THE DEMAND FOR A SIGN

10 And straightway (immediately) He entered into a ship with His Disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha (on the western shore of Galilee).

11 And the Pharisees came forth (Matthew said the Sadducees were present as well [Mat. 16:1]), and began to question with Him (they were standing before the Creator of the Ages, Who had the answer to all things, but yet, they are so spiritually stupid, that they will ply Him only with silly questions), seeking of Him a sign from Heaven, tempting Him (and these were the religious leaders of Israel!).

12 And He sighed deeply in His Spirit (meaning, He groaned in His Spirit), and said, Why does this generation seek after a sign? (It is useless to give evidence to unbelief.) verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation (no more signs than what had already been given, which were astounding to say the least, regarding healings and miracles, etc.).

13 And He left them (spiritually speaking, He left them to their doom), and entering into the ship again departed to the other side (the northeastern shore).

THE LEAVEN

14 Now the Disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf (the short trip would take several hours).

15 And He charged them (in the Greek Text, means that He kept on speaking to them, making certain they understood that of which He was speaking), saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees (false doctrine), and of the leaven of Herod (the claim by some Jews that this despot was the Messiah, which they did for financial prosperity).

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread (they had not the slightest idea of what He was speaking).

17 And when Jesus knew it, He said unto them (the Holy Spirit revealed to Him their confusion), Why reason you, because you have no bread? (In other words, I'm not talking about physical bread.) perceive you not yet, neither understand? have you your heart yet hardened? (They were looking too much in the physical, and not at all in the spiritual.)

18 Having eyes, see you not? (Pertains to spiritual eyes they were not using.) and having ears, hear y ou not? (They were not hearing correctly, they were not hearing spiritually.) and do you not remember? (We should remember what the Lord has done for us in the past, and learn a lesson.)

19 When I broke the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took you up? They say unto Him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took you up? And they said, Seven.

21 And He said unto them, How is it that you do not understand? (The question would have been better translated, "do you yet not understand?"; there is a hint in the Greek Text that, in fact, they finally did begin to understand; actually, Matthew tells us this was the case [Mat. 16:12].)

JESUS HEALS A BLIND MAN

22 And He comes to Bethsaida (probably refers to Bethsaida Julias situated on the northeast shore of the Sea of Galilee): and they bring a blind man unto Him, and besought Him to touch him.

23 And He took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town (Jesus had already placed a curse on this city because of their refusal to repent; consequently, He would not perform another miracle in its confines [Mat. 11:21]); and when He had spit on his eyes (pertains to the second time such was done [7:33]; He probably put spittle on His Finger and touched the man's eyes), and put His Hands upon him, He asked him if he saw ought (has in the Greek Text that He kept on asking him)**.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking (the Greek Text actually says, "I see men; for I behold them as trees, walking"; the word, "walking," refers to the men and not to the trees"; there seemed to be a mist of sorts over his eyes, which disfigured things)**.

25 After that He put His hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly (the only incident in the four Gospels, of Jesus dealing with someone the second time in this fashion; why did Jesus have to lay His Hands on him a second time?; the next Verse possibly tells us)**.

26 And He sent him away to his house (implies that he was not a native of Bethsaida Julias), saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town (refers to the fact, as stated, that Jesus had placed a curse on this town for their refusal to repent [Mat. 11:21]; due to this, Christ seemed unwilling to give Bethsaida any more evidence of the visitation of God; this could well be the reason why Jesus had to lay His Hands on the man a second time; the curse had been pronounced and the die cast, consequently, it was as if the door was shut)**.

PETER'S CONFESSION

27 And Jesus went out, and His Disciples, into the towns of Caesarea Philippi (places Him about forty miles north of the Sea of Galilee, and about forty miles south of Damascus): and by the way He asked His Disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am? (Constitutes Who He really was, and the drawing out of the Disciples, as to Who they thought He was. The Greek Text says, "He kept on asking," meaning that the question so startled them that at first they did not answer.)

28 And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say, Elijah; and others, One of the Prophets (their answers were strange, but yet reflected the thinking of much of Israel at that particular time).

29 And He said unto them, But whom say you that I am? (Concerns the greatest question that could ever be asked. It is a question that all must ultimately answer.) And Peter answered and said unto Him, You are the Christ (Peter actually said, "You are the Messiah," because that's what the Word "Christ" actually means; it was the Great Confession).

30 And He charged them (commanded them) that they should tell no man of Him (relates the fact that it was now obvious that Israel had rejected Him, and consequently, there was no further point in projecting the issue).

JESUS FORETELLS HIS DEATH AND RESURRECTION

31 And He began to teach them (proclaims an explanation as to what was to happen, despite the fact that He was the Messiah), that the Son of Man must suffer many things (proclaimed the fact, that they believed otherwise!), and be rejected of the Elders, and of the Chief Priests, and Scribes ("rejected" means that the religious leaders of Israel put Jesus to the test; however, He did not meet their specifications; He was not the kind of a Messiah the Jews wanted; they wanted a military leader who would liberate them from the yoke of Rome, not a Saviour who would free them from their bondage of sin), and be killed (the Crucifixion), and after three days rise again (the Resurrection was never in doubt, due to the victorious success of the Cross in atoning for all sin).

32 And He spoke that saying openly (means that He kept saying it). And Peter took Him (probably put His hands on the shoulders of Christ), and began to rebuke Him (means that He spoke with force, denying what Jesus had said).

33 But when He had turned about and looked on His Disciples, He rebuked Peter (He did not at all take lightly what Peter had said; and now, He made sure that His Disciples understood His reaction), saying, Get thee behind Me, Satan (presents Jesus speaking directly to Satan, and not Peter; however, the Words of our Lord, brands Peter's words as Satanic; the words, "behind Me," in effect, say, "get out of My Face!"): for you (now speaks to Peter) savor not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men (unredeemed man doesn't want what God wants).

34 And when He had called the people unto Him with His Disciples also, He said unto them (speaks of an interval of some period of time between His rebuke of Peter and this present statement), Whosoever will come after Me, let him deny himself (deny his own strength, ability, talent, power, and carnal intellect), and take up his cross (not suffering as many suppose, but rather the benefits of the Cross), and follow Me (implying that Jesus cannot be followed, unless it's by the way of the Cross).

35 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it (if one refuses to place his life in Christ); but whosoever shall lose his life for My sake and the Gospel's, the same shall save it (to place one's life entirely in Christ, which can only be done by way of the Cross, and in doing so, saves one's life, and does so forever).

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? (The simple equation of profit and loss, which states that one's soul, is worth more than the whole world.)

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? (The soul is eternal, therefore, worth more than anything.)

38 Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of Me and of My Words (the present conduct of the individual now determines Christ's future conduct with reference to that person) in this adulterous and sinful generation (pertains to the character of Israel at the time of Christ, and as well, to every generation which has followed); of him also shall the Son of Man be ashamed (means that such attitude will be reciprocated in like kind), when He comes in the Glory of His Father with the Holy Angels (the Second Coming).

CHAPTER 9

(A.D. 32)

THE TRANSFIGURATION

[1] And He (Jesus) said unto them (the twelve), Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them who stand here (in this case, Peter, James, and John), which shall not taste of death (did not mean they would not ultimately die, but that before they died, they would see beyond the veil into the Kingdom), till they have seen the Kingdom of God come with power (this was an anticipatory picture of the coming Millennium).

[2] And after six days (Luke says "eight days" [Lk. 9:28]; there is no discrepancy; in Luke the Greek phrase is inclusive, meaning that all the time was addressed, while in Mark it is exclusive, meaning that all the days and time were not included) Jesus took with Him Peter, and James, and John (the second experience in which they were included, but not the other Disciples; the raising of the daughter of Jairus from the dead was the first), and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves (we aren't told which mountain): and He (Jesus) was transfigured before them (refers to the act of giving outward expression of one's inner character).

[3] And His raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them (the radiance of glory shining from within Him).

[4] And there appeared unto them Elijah with Moses (their appearance had to do with the coming Kingdom Age): and they were talking with Jesus (the Greek Text indicates that the conversation was a protracted one).

[5] And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three Tabernacles; one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah (Peter compounds his error by placing Moses and Elijah in the same category as Jesus).

[6] For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid (terrified).

[7] And there was a cloud that overshadowed them (was the Shekinah Glory Cloud which guided Israel out of Egypt, and which rested above the Mercy Seat in the Holy of Holies in the Tabernacle): and a voice came out of the cloud (proclaims the actual Voice of God), saying, This is My Beloved Son (in the Greek Text, "this is My Son, The Beloved One,"): hear Him (the phrase, "Hear Him," refers to Christ; in other words, Moses and Elijah are not to be placed on the same par with Christ; the phrase actually means, "be constantly hearing Him"; it as well refers to obeying what is heard).

[8] And suddenly (proclaims a sudden change), when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves (they had just witnessed something which no other human beings had ever seen).

[9] And as they came down from the mountain, He charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of Man were risen from the dead.

[10] And they kept that saying with themselves (meaning that they obeyed the Command of the Lord), questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean (they still did not understand the purpose and reason for His coming to this world, which was to redeem man, which would necessitate His going to the Cross; in other words, the Cross was ever His destination).

[11] And they asked Him, saying, Why say the Scribes that Elijah must first come? (They were referring to Mal. 4:5.)

[12] And He answered and told them (but with them still lacking in understanding), Elijah verily cometh first, and restoreth all things (refers to this Prophet coming as one of the two witnesses not long before the Second Advent [Rev. 11:3-12]); and how it is written of the Son of Man, that He must suffer many things, and be set at nought (as predicted by the Prophet Isaiah, Chpt. 53).

[13] But I say unto you, That Elijah is indeed come (refers to John the Baptist who came in the spirit and power of Elijah [Lk. 1:17]), and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of Him (refers to John's execution by Herod).

LACK OF POWER

[14] And when He came to His Disciples (joined the other nine at the foot of the mountain after the Transfiguration), He saw a great multitude about them, and the Scribes questioning with them (actually, taunting them).

[15] And straightway (immediately) all the people, when they beheld Him, were greatly amazed, and running to Him saluted Him (greeted Him with great warmth and admiration).

[16] And He asked the Scribes (supposed experts in the Law of Moses), What question ye with them? (In effect, what is the problem?)

[17] And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto You my son, which has a dumb spirit (a correct analysis of the situation; a demon spirit had bound the boy's tongue and vocal organs, plus as well, had tried to kill him several times);

[18] And wheresoever he (the demon spirit) takes him, he tears him: and he foams, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pines away: and I spoke to Your Disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not (the idea is, they tried repeatedly, but without success; hence, the taunts of the Scribes).

[19] He answered him, and said, O faithless generation (rather, a misplaced faith; Gal., Chpt. 5 will explain it), how long shall I be with you? (Will My short time be enough?) how long shall I suffer you? (Is it possible for even the Twelve who are constantly with Me, to understand?) bring him unto Me (implies that the boy was not immediately with the father, but was being held by others a short distance away).

[20] And they brought him unto Him: and when he (the demon spirit) saw Him (Jesus), straightway (immediately) the spirit (demon spirit) tore him (the boy); and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.

[21] And He (Jesus) asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child (the incident tells us that children can be oppressed or even possessed by demon spirits).

[22] And ofttimes it has cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him (reflects suicidal tendencies, as promoted by this spirit): but if You can do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us (his faith was weak, due to the failure of the Disciples).

[23] Jesus said unto him, If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes (if He has promised it, and you can believe it, you can have it).

[24] And straightway (immediately) the father of the child cried out (speaks of a loud cry that comes from the very depths of the man's soul), and said with tears, Lord, I believe (proclaims belief, but yet imperfect belief!; the "tears" proclaimed the consternation of the battle that is raging in the man's soul); help Thou mine unbelief (proclaims the deficiency of his faith; it is a prayer the Lord will always answer).

[25] When Jesus saw that the people came running together (He evidently was standing a little ways from the people, as He spoke with the man, with the Disciples holding the people back; but they can hold them no longer), He rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, You dumb and deaf spirit, I charge you, come out of him, and enter no more into him (he was to come out, which he did, and was never to come back again).

[26] And the spirit (demon spirit) cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him (it seems that he attempted to kill the boy as he came out): and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, he is dead (the boy lay motionless and pallid as a corpse).

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose (concerned more than just a helping hand; healing power flooded the boy's body, healing that which the demon had damaged)**.

28 And when He was come into the house (doesn't say which house), His Disciples asked Him privately, Why could not we cast him out? (They had been successful at other times, so why not now? There is evidence that this demon was more powerful than any that Jesus had addressed.)

29 And He said unto them, This kind (demon spirits of this power) can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting ("fasting" includes not only, doing without food, but as well, denying one's own strength and ability, and looking exclusively to the Cross [I Cor. 1:17-18])**.

HIS DEATH AND RESURRECTION

30 And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and He would not that any man should know it (by now there was terrible opposition against Him from the religious leaders of the area; in fact, this would get progressively worse).

31 For He taught His Disciples, and said unto them, The Son of Man is delivered into the hands of men (means that His betrayal in the heart of Judas had already begun), and they shall kill Him (the Crucifixion); and after that He is killed, He shall rise the third day (the Resurrection was never in doubt)**.

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask Him (stemmed back to Peter rebuking Him when He had previously made this announcement and His response, which had been strong indeed!)**.

WHO IS GREATEST?

33 And He came to Capernaum: and being in the house (Peter's house) He asked them, What was it that you disputed among yourselves by the way? (Concerned a very serious problem in their lives.)

34 But they held their peace (means they were ashamed to relate to Him what they had been, in fact, discussing): for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest (it is not unlikely that the preference given by our Lord to Peter, James, and John, may have given occasion for this contention)**.

35 And He sat down, and called the Twelve, and said unto them, If any man desire to be first (in response to their question as to whom should be the greatest), the same shall be last of all, and servant of all (means to think of one's self last, with all others first, to minister to others, which is the very opposite of the world)**.

36 And He took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when He had taken him in His arms, He said unto them (will use the child as an example)**,

37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in My Name, receives Me (in effect, says that if the person doesn't have a childlike spirit, he should not be received): and whosoever shall receive Me, receives not Me, but Him Who sent Me (the way to Christ is through a childlike spirit, and the way to the father is through Christ [Jn. 14:6])**.

38 And John answered Him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in Your Name, and he followeth not us: and we forbad him, because he followeth not us (portrays the sectarianism that is beginning to creep in)**.

39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not (Jesus did not say, "receive him," for the man's motive did not appear; however, he does say that the attitude toward such a one should at least be neutral): for there is no man which shall do a miracle in My Name, that can lightly speak evil of Me (providing it truly is a miracle)**.

40 For he who is not against us is on our part (the marks of false teachers are numerous in Scripture, so that no mistake need be made in detecting them [Mat. 7:15-20; 23:1-33; Acts 8:9; 13:8; Rom. 1:18-32; 16:17; I Cor. 1:18-31; I Tim. 4:1-8; II Tim. 3:1-13; 4:3-4; II Pet., Chpt. 2; III Jn., Vss. 9-

10; Jude, Vss. 4-19; Rev. 2:14, 20]).

41 For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in My Name, because you belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward (refers to helping take the Gospel to others; all help respecting this will be rewarded, no matter how small that help might be)**.

CONCERNING OFFENCES

42 And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones who believe in Me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea (as the smallest help will be rewarded, likewise, the smallest offense will be likewise addressed; these admonitions had better be taken seriously)**.

43 And if your hand offend you, cut it off ([symbolic], do not allow yourself to be placed in the position of opposing those who truly are of God): it is better for you to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into Hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched (proves the reality of Hell, and of it being the destiny of those who oppose true Believers, who are truly doing the Work of God)**:

44 Where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched (Christ is proclaiming what one faces who opposes true Believers; the punishment is eternal)**.

45 And if your foot offend you, cut it off: it is better for you to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into Hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

46 Where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched.

47 And if your eye offend you, pluck it out: it is better for you to enter into the Kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into Hell fire:

48 Where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched (when Christ gives an illustration of this magnitude, it is of extreme importance; when He doubles it, as He does here, it becomes extremely important; but when He triples it, as He definitely does, then its significance is of such magnitude as to defy description; most of the opposition against true Believers, and especially against those called of God for specific work, comes from the religious sector; to oppose that apostatized religious sector, may generate harm to one's person; but it is better to endure that harm, than to lose one's soul).

49 For every one shall be salted with fire (whether tested to offend, or tested by the offender), and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt (salt is a type of the Word of God; if the Sacrifice is to be true, it will be centered up in the Cross).

50 Salt is good (the Word of God which acts as a preservative): but if the salt have lost his saltness (the Word of God has been diluted), wherewith will you season it? *(The preservation is now gone.)Have salt in yourselves (abide according to the Word of God), and have peace one with another (abiding by the Word, will guarantee peace).

CHAPTER 10

CONCERNING MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE

[1] And He arose from thence (from Capernaum), and cometh into the coasts (borders) of Judaea by the farther side of Jordan (the east side of the Jordan River; He will not come back to this region, but will be crucified in Jerusalem): and the people resort unto Him again (it was the time of Passover and many people were on their way to Jerusalem); and, as He was wont (accustomed to doing), He taught them again (they so much needed His Teaching, but it was His Death that would set them free).

[2] And the Pharisees came to Him (there were Pharisees in the crowd, going to Jerusalem), and asked Him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? (The question of divorce and remarriage was the great controversy at that time in Israel.) tempting Him.

[3] And He answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you? (Took them to the Word, but not as they thought — not to the Law of Moses.)

[4] And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away ([Deut. 24:1], but they misinterpreted Moses, even as many do).

[5] And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept (the Lord does not deny that Moses permitted divorce; commanded he did not; consequently, for the Pharisees to shelter themselves under the temporary recognition of a necessary evil, was to confess that they had not outgrown the moral stature of their fathers).

[6] But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female (not from the beginning of Creation per se, but rather, from the beginning of the creation of humankind)**.

[7] For this cause (has to do with the way man and woman were created and, therefore, meant to live) shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife (completely debunks the homosexual lifestyle)**;

[8] And they twain (two) shall be one flesh (one of the reasons that adultery and fornication are so wicked): so then they are no more twain, but one flesh (the Will of God carried out to its logical and beautiful conclusion)**.

[9] What therefore God has joined together (places the seal of God's approval on the marriage union; and we speak of the nuclear family of husband, wife, and children), let not man put asunder (there are only two Scriptural grounds for divorce and remarriage: A. Fornication [Mat. 5:32]; and, B. Desertion on spiritual grounds [I Cor. 7:14-15])**.

[10] And in the house (where evidently they had stopped for the night on the way to Jerusalem) His Disciples asked Him again of the same matter (the matter of divorce and remarriage).

[11] And He said unto them (concerns marriage after divorce), Whosoever shall put away his wife (refers to divorce), and marry another, commits adultery against her (refers to having no Scriptural grounds; in doing such, he commits sin not only against God, but also against his wife)**.

[12] And if a woman shall put away her husband (divorce), and be married to another, she commits adultery (again, has no Scriptural grounds; such constitutes the sin of adultery)**.

JESUS BLESSES LITTLE CHILDREN

[13] And they brought young children to Him, that He should touch them (this custom finds its symbolism in Gen. 48:14-15): and His Disciples rebuked those who brought them (presents a paradox; the Disciples were strongly rebuking the people for bringing their children to Jesus, while Jesus was strongly blessing those brought to Him).

14 But when Jesus saw it (saw what the Disciples were doing), He was much displeased (was moved with strong indignation), and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not: for of such is the Kingdom of God (to start a child out right, is to insure its Salvation [Prov. 22:6]).

15 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the Kingdom of God as a little child (the simplicity of the little child is the model and the rule for everyone who desires, by the Grace of Christ, to obtain the Kingdom of Heaven), he shall not enter therein (presents a double negative in the Greek, and consequently, presents an emphatic denial).

16 And He took them up in His Arms, put His Hands upon them, and blessed them (He blessed them fervently).

THE RICH YOUNG RULER

17 And when He was gone forth into the way (refers to Him the next morning leaving the house, and going toward Jerusalem), there came one running, and kneeled to Him (he is not asking for physical help, but rather for spiritual help), and asked Him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? (In the first place, one cannot inherit eternal life. It is a free gift, which comes with the acceptance of Christ [Rom. 10:9-10, 13].)

18 And Jesus said unto him, Why do you call Me good? there is none good but one, Who is, God (is not meant to state that Christ Himself wasn't good, but rather that the word "good" be placed in its proper perspective; Christ is God!).

19 You know the Commandments (draws the young man to the Word of God, in both a positive and negative sense; positive, because the Word alone holds the answer; and negative, because it will show him as a mirror where he is wrong), Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour your father and mother.

20 And he answered and said unto Him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth (there is no eternal life in the keeping of the Commandments, as wonderful as that is; had there been, he would not be seeking the satisfaction of the conscience)**.

[21] Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him (loved him despite the fact that he really had not kept the Commandments, as he was claiming; and of course, Jesus knew that!), One thing you lack: go your way, sell whatsoever you have, and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in Heaven (puts the finger directly on the man's problem): and come, take up the Cross, and follow Me (without explanation, Christ tells the young man here, and all others for that matter, that Salvation is in the Cross alone; and it is only by and through the Cross, that we can truly follow Christ)**.

[22] And he was sad at that saying (concerns the attitude of multiple millions; they, as he, desire Salvation, but on their own terms!), and went away grieved: for he had great possessions (the only possession that really matters is Eternal Life)**.

WARNING TO THE RICH

[23] And Jesus looked round about, and said unto His Disciples (He looks searchingly at His Disciples), How hardly shall they who have riches enter into the Kingdom of God! (It's not the riches which constitute the sin, but the attitude toward them.)

[24] And the Disciples were astonished at His words (the Jews of that time considered riches to be the approval of God; at the same time, they considered poverty to be His disapproval). But Jesus answered again, and said unto them, Children (using this word, He now takes them back to His dissertation concerning receiving the Kingdom of God as a little child; a child does not grasp after things), how hard is it for them who trust in riches to enter into the Kingdom of God! (As stated, it is the trust in riches, which constitutes the sin.)

[25] It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God (the word that Jesus uses here for "needle," doesn't refer to a small hole in the wall as some think, but rather the type of needle used with thread).

[26] And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved? (Presents their theology being completely turned over.)

[27] And Jesus looking upon them said (knew that His statement would produce this type of reaction), With men it is impossible (whether rich or poor, it is impossible to be saved without God), but not with God: for with God all things are possible (only through God, is the Salvation process possible).

THE REWARDS OF CONSECRATION

[28] Then Peter began to say unto Him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed You (by this statement, Peter shows that they are still thinking in terms of material rather than spiritual riches).

[29] And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you (concerns all Believers, not just the Twelve), There is no man who has left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for My sake, and the Gospel's (to many, Jesus is just a means to an end, in other words, to get what they want in the realm of material things; He completely debunks that here; contrary to that, He says here that everything must be placed secondary to Christ),

[30] But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time (refers to this present life), houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands (we have the use of these things, and of that alone, we are to be concerned), with persecutions (regrettably, most of the persecution will come from the Church); and in the world to come Eternal Life (the world to come is eternal, and one must have Eternal Life to enter into that world. That alone is what counts!).

[31] But many who are first shall be last; and the last first (Israel, although first, will be last, because of rejection of Christ; the Church, although last, will be first because of acceptance of Christ)*.

JESUS AGAIN SPEAKS OF HIS COMING DEATH AND RESURRECTION

[32] And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them (presents Christ walking ahead of His Disciples, and for a purpose and reason): and they were amazed (there was something about Him that was now different — a great sadness); and as they followed, they were afraid (speaks not only of the Disciples, but as well, of all who were near Him). And He took again the twelve (apart from the others), and began to tell them what things should happen unto Him (He had already told them this several times, but still they didn't understand),

[33] Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem (they had gone to Jerusalem several times in the past, but this time would be different); and the Son of Man shall be delivered unto the Chief Priests, and unto the Scribes (betrayed by Judas); and they shall condemn Him to death (the Sanhedrin would pass sentence upon Him), and shall deliver Him to the Gentiles (to the Romans):

[34] And they shall mock Him, and shall scourge Him, and shall spit upon Him (both Jews and Gentiles would do such), and shall kill Him (the Crucifixion): and the third day He shall rise again (predicts His Resurrection, even as He had already done several times before; but they actually didn't believe it).

THE REQUEST OF JAMES AND JOHN

[35] And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto Him (Matthew claims Salome, their mother, evidently traveling with them, as making the request [Mat. 20:20], the sons prompted her to do such), saying, Master, we would that You should do for us whatsoever we shall desire (constitutes a most selfish request; how often do we approach Him in the same manner?).

36 And He said unto them, What would you that I should do for you? (In effect, He is asking every Believer the same question!)

37 They said unto Him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on Your right hand, and the other on Your left hand, in Your glory (concerned the most coveted positions; they were speaking of "glory," while He was speaking of "death").

38 But Jesus said unto them, You know not what you ask (characterizes so many petitions made by Believers): can you drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? (Both of these questions signify the Cross!)

39 And they said unto Him, We can (a mere profession of moral courage, not a claim to spiritual power; they really didn't know what they were saying). And Jesus said unto them, You shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall you be baptized (concerns not only the Twelve, but all who follow Christ, and for all time — the Cross demands this)**:

40 But to sit on My right hand and on My left hand is not Mine to give (positions in the Kingdom are determined solely by the Will of God); but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared (Jerome said, "our Lord does not say, 'you shall not sit,' lest He put to shame these two; neither does He say, 'you shall sit,' lest the others should be envious; but by holding out the prize to all, He animates all to contend for it")**.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John (the sons of Zebedee want to be first, and the ten were unwilling to be last!; such was the energy of the carnal nature in all Twelve)**.

42 But Jesus called them to Him, and said unto them, You know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them (the way of the world); and their great ones exercise authority upon them (in the world, the greater the position, the greater the authority)**.

43 But so shall it not be among you (the way of the world, is not the way of the Lord): but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister (servant)**:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest (hold the greater position), shall be servant of all (in the Kingdom of God the greatness of the individual comes from the lowly place he takes as a servant of all)**.

45 For even the Son of Man came not to be ministered unto (proclaims Christ as the example), but to minister (be a servant), and to give His life a ransom for many (He is Very God of Very God, but became incarnate in human flesh and a Servant to mankind; what a rebuke to His Disciples, and to us!)**.

THE HEALING OF BLIND BARTIMAEUS

46 And they came to Jericho (this is the only record of Him being in Jericho; it was to be a red-letter day for some): and as He went out of Jericho with His Disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus (suggests the possibility of Bartimaeus coming from a family of some note), sat by the highway side begging (symbolic of all the sons of Adam's fallen race)**.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth (he had, no doubt, long since prayed for this moment), he began to cry out (means in the Greek that he kept crying over, and over to Jesus), and say, Jesus, Thou Son of David (a title that referred to the Messiah; this blind beggar knew He was the Messiah, but the religious leaders of Israel didn't), have mercy on me (he pled the right kind of petition)**.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace (the word "charged" is strong, meaning to "censure severely"; in other words, they were telling him, and in no uncertain terms, to "shut up"): but he cried the more a great deal (proclaims their demand as having the opposite effect on him), Thou Son of David, have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still (faith caused Christ to stop; it will do the same presently!)*, and commanded him to be called (constitutes the greatest moment in the life of this blind beggar). And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; He calls you (should be the message of every single Believer to every single lost soul).

[50] And he, casting away his garment (this was a garment just for beggars; during the day he would spread it out, for people to throw coins on it, and would use it as a blanket at night; he knew he would never need it again), rose, and came to Jesus (if the whole world came to Jesus, they would receive even more than Bartimaeus [spiritual sight]).

[51] And Jesus answered and said unto him, What will you that I should do unto you? *(That's the question asked of all Believers. Our answer reveals our spiritual condition.)*The blind man said unto Him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

[52] And Jesus said unto him, Go your way; your faith has made you whole ("whole" in the Greek is "sozo," it means, "to save"; it is used either as a physical healing or of spiritual Salvation; consequently, the implication is that Bartimaeus was not only healed, but saved as well!). And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way (tradition says that he followed Jesus to Jerusalem, and became an ardent Disciple in the Early Church).

CHAPTER 11

THE TRIUMPHAL ENTRY INTO JERUSALEM

[1] And when they came near to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives (concerned two villages, suburbs of Jerusalem east of the city), He sent forth two of His Disciples (tradition says Peter and John),

[2] And said unto them, Go your way into the village over against you (probably Bethphage, because it was nearer): and as soon as you be entered into it, you shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat (no one had ever ridden the colt); loose him, and bring him.

[3] And if any man say unto you, Why do you this? (Implying that this would be the case, and so it was.) say you that the Lord has need of him (as God, the Lord needs nothing; as the Son of Man, He did need certain things); and straightway (immediately) he will send him hither (will give permission to use the colt, all of this revealed to Christ by the Holy Spirit).

[4] And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him ("their way" was "His Way").

[5] And certain of them who stood there said unto them, What are you doing, loosing the colt? (Represents that no prior arrangements had been made.)

[6] And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded (the Lord has need of him): and they let them go (an instant obedience; what a privilege these men had to lend their colt to Christ).

[7] And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and He sat upon him (proclaims the beginning of the Triumphal Entry; this was a fulfillment of the Prophecy given by Zechariah [Zech. 9:9])**.

[8] And many spread their garments in the way (this was His formal presentation of Himself as the Messiah; as is obvious, it would be rejected): and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way (probably palm fronds)**.

[9] And they who went before, and they who followed (represents crowds both behind Christ and in front of Christ, as He went into Jerusalem), cried, saying, Hosanna; Blessed is He Who comes in the Name of the Lord (taken from Psalms 118:25-26; this acclamation was given at the "Feast of Tabernacles," as the Priests marched once daily for seven days around the Altar with palm branches in their hands; on the eighth day they marched seven times, which was the "Great Hosanna"; the people believed that Jesus was now about to take the Throne; they felt the great Kingdom Age was now beginning; the truth is, it could have, but the religious leadership of Israel rejected Him)**:

[10] Blessed be the Kingdom of our father David (should have been translated, "Blessed be the Kingdom that comes, the Kingdom of our Father David"), that comes in the Name of the Lord (should have been translated, "Who comes in the Name of the Lord"; Jesus was that Person!): Hosanna in the Highest (meant that He was the Highest One; consequently, the Only One Who could save them)**.

[11] And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the Temple: and when He had looked round about upon all things (He observed all the haggling, bartering, arguing, over prices, which probably was in the Court of the Gentiles; He would come back the next day, and cleanse the place), and now the eventide was come, He went out unto Bethany with the Twelve (it was probably Sunday, and if so, one week later Jesus would rise from the dead; consequently, the intervening week would be one of such magnitude of sorrow as to defy description)**.

JESUS PLACES A CURSE ON A BARREN FIG TREE

12 And on the morrow (suggests it was Monday; Matthew says it was early, probably before 6 a.m., with the Disciples, He has probably spent the night in the open), when they were come from Bethany, He was hungry:

13 And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, He came, if haply He might find any thing thereon (according to all appearances, there should have been figs): and when He came to it, He found nothing but leaves (no fruit); for the time of figs was not yet (means that despite its appearance, which suggested fruit, and which there should have been fruit, it was barren).

14 And Jesus answered and said unto it (proclaims the Lord forgetting His natural hunger and the thought of a spiritual figure which the sight of this tree began to present to His mind), No man eat fruit of you hereafter forever (symbolic of the Jewish nation; a curse was placed on the fig tree, not necessarily for being barren, but for being false; as well, the word "forever," should have been translated "for the age," that is, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled; this will be at the Second Coming). And His Disciples heard it (they will learn a lesson from this, even as we shall see!).

JESUS CLEANSES THE TEMPLE

15 And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the Temple (refers to the fact that its condition, spiritually speaking, had been on His mind all night; He was probably in the Court of the Gentiles), and began to cast out them who sold and bought in the Temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them who sold doves;

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the Temple (He would have the whole of His Father's House regarded as sacred)**.

17 And He taught, saying unto them (no doubt to a large crowd of people who had gathered, watching, as it seems, with open-mouth astonishment!), Is it not written (took the people and His actions to the Word of God), My House shall be called of all nations the House of Prayer? (Signifying, as stated, that He was in the Court of the Gentiles, which had been turned into a market place. His statement is derived from Isa. 65:7 and Jer. 7:11.) but you have made it a den of thieves *(should have been translated "robbers," for the Greek word signifies operations on a large and systematic scale).

18 And the Scribes and Chief Priests heard it (they were the "robbers," because they were in charge of what was taking place there, and actually profited personally from what was being done), and sought how they might destroy Him *(meant to not only kill Him, but to utterly destroy His influence as a great spiritual energy in the world): for they feared Him *(feared that He would use His Power to upset their corrupted place and position), because all the people was astonished at His Doctrine *(a "Doctrine" which was so different than their doctrine).

19 And when evening was come, He went out of the city *(there is no indication that Jesus ever spent the night in Jerusalem, with the exception of the night that He was on trial).

THE LESSON FROM THE WITHERED FIG TREE

20 And in the morning *(probably refers to Tuesday), as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots *(means that it was completely withered away; Israel in a short time would do the same, actually ceasing to be a nation).

21 And Peter calling to remembrance said unto Him, Master, behold, the fig tree which You cursed is withered away *(Jesus could have done the same thing with His enemies, had He so desired; but He never used His Power, except in the way that the Heavenly Father told Him to use it).

22 And Jesus answering said unto them *(indicates Jesus dealing with what happened, rather than why it happened; they were not able yet to grasp the fig tree as a symbol of Israel; that would come later!), Have faith in God *(literally says, "Have the Faith of God"; such a faith judges profession [the fig tree] removes difficulties [the mountain] forgives injuries).

23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he says shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he says (the "mountain" is used as a symbol, i.e., "mountain of difficulties," etc.; God is a Miracle working God, and will do so for any of His Children, "whosoever"; however, every petition must be predicated as well on the Will of God)**.

[24] Therefore I say unto you, What things soever you desire (one seeking to do the Will of God, will want only what God desires), when you pray (the value of prayer, without which these things cannot be done), believe (have faith) that you receive them, and you shall have them (as is obvious here, the receiving of these things, whatever they might be, requires relationship, and that is the key).

[25] And when you stand praying, forgive, if you have ought against any (implying, that the above Promises will not be honored, if we harbor unforgiveness): that your Father also which is in Heaven may forgive you your trespasses (forgiveness from the Lord on our part, is predicated on us forgiving others)**.

[26] But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in Heaven forgive your trespasses (implies, unforgiveness breaks down relationship, which destroys the whole program of God; in such a case, our sins are not forgiven, and neither can we expect God to answer prayer; these are extremely serious implications)**.

JESUS' AUTHORITY QUESTIONED

[27] And they come again to Jerusalem: and as He was walking in the Temple (represents the third day in which He visits this edifice), there come to Him the Chief Priests, and the Scribes, and the Elders (these were the religious leaders of Israel)**,

[28] And say unto Him, By what authority do You do these things? and who gave You this authority to do these things? (They were the custodians of the Temple. Our Lord, by forcibly ejecting those who were engaged in business in the Temple, was claiming a superior jurisdiction.)

29 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one question (His question and the answer, will greatly simplify the issue), and answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things (actually means that the correct response to His question will provide the answer to their questions).

30 The baptism of John, was it from Heaven, or of men? answer Me (John had introduced Christ as the Messiah; if they claimed the Prophet to be of God, then they would have to acknowledge the One he had introduced; they had tried to put Jesus on the spot, and now they are instead on the spot).

31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From Heaven; He will say, Why then did you not believe him? (Refers to believing what John said about Jesus.)

32 But if we shall say, Of men; they feared the people: for all men counted John, that he was a Prophet indeed (the respect for John by the people had even deepened since his martyrdom; they feared if they denied John's calling, the people might stone them then and there).

33 And they answered and said unto Jesus, We cannot tell (their answer was ridiculous to say the least!; they were the very ones who were supposed to know). And Jesus answering said unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things (in effect, "I will not answer you, because your answer to My question is the answer to your own"; Jerome says, "He thus shows that they knew, but would not answer; they saved themselves from this dilemma by professing ignorance").

CHAPTER 12

THE PARABLE OF THE WICKED HUSBANDMEN

[1] And He began to speak unto them by Parables (represents the first time He had used this method in Jerusalem, although it had been used plentifully in Galilee). A certain man planted a vineyard (constitutes no other than God Himself), and set an hedge about it (the Power of God about the nation), and digged a place for the winefat (better translation, "wine-vat"; speaks of the product of the vineyard), and built a tower (would contain a watchman, which was to guard the vineyard from plunderers; it spoke of the spiritual leaders of Israel), and let it out to husbandmen (left it in the hands of the people), and went into a far country (refers to God's residence being in Heaven).

[2] And at the season (harvest season) he sent to the husbandmen a servant (speaks of Old Testament Prophets), that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard (respects that which was rightly his).

[3] And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty (the failure to receive fruit points to the failure of Israel to heed the preaching of the Prophets).

[4] And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

[5] And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some (proclaims an increase in the rebellion and its obvious results; barring Repentance, sin never slows, but instead, increases).

[6] Having yet therefore one son, his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son (refers to the Lord Jesus Christ)**.

[7] But those husbandmen said among themselves (in this case, the Sanhedrin), This is the heir (it means that the religious leaders of Israel knew that Jesus was the Messiah); come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours (constitutes the plan of Satan from the very beginning; he wants that which belongs to God, and will usually work through organized religion to further his purpose)**.

[8] And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard (this was the last effort of Divine Mercy — the sending of the incarnate God, whom the Jews put to death without the city)**.

[9] What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? (The Lord had the Power to do whatever He desired; yet, they treated Him as if He had no power at all!) He will come and destroy the husbandmen (this is exactly what happened in A.D. 70), and will give the vineyard unto others (speaks of the Church, made up mostly of Gentiles, and this being the channel through which God is operating temporarily while Israel is in dispersion, and until Israel will be regathered at the Second Advent, and restored to fellowship and usefulness to God)**.

[10] And have you not read this Scripture (refers to Psalms 118:22-23); The Stone which the builders (the spiritual leaders of Israel) rejected (He was not the type of Messiah they wanted) is become the Head of the Corner (the "Corner" represents the Corner Stone which is the pivot point for the structure; Christ is the Head of the Church, and of the Work of God, due to what He did at the Cross [Zech. 4:7])**:

[11] This was the Lord's doing (refers to the Great Plan of God, which necessitated God becoming flesh and dwelling among men, in order to bring about the Redemption of man), and it is marvellous in our eyes? (It wasn't marvelous in the eyes of Israel of Jesus' day, and the results were awful. As the Church, we should take a lesson, in what He has done. It had better be marvelous in our eyes.)

12 And they sought to lay hold on Him (they were growing even more incensed at Him), but feared the people (whatever they did, would have to be done in secret): for they knew that He had spoken the Parable against them (He predicted that they would kill Him and, as well, what would happen to them; God would destroy them!; but still they wouldn't turn around): and they left Him, and went their way (they definitely didn't go His Way)**.

TRIBUTE TO CAESAR

13 And they send unto Him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians (these two parties normally hated each other), to catch Him in His words (something for which they could incriminate Him)**.

14 And when they were come, they say unto Him (these were the most brilliant minds of the Pharisees and the Herodians), Master ([teacher] the word was not used without design), we know that You are true, and care for no man: for You regard not the person of men, but teach the Way of God in truth (they didn't believe any of this, but they were baiting their trap): Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not? (This question raged in Israel at that time. The Jews were not necessarily discussing the legality of paying a poll tax to Caesar, but whether a Jew should do so in view of his theocratic relationship to God.)

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? (This placed the situation in strictly a "yes" or "no" mode, or so they thought! They would trap Him either way He answered.) But He, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them (He knew they had no desire for the true answer, but only were attempting to embarrass Him before the crowd, or to have something in order to accuse Him to Rome), Why tempt you Me? (This told them that He knew what they were doing.) bring Me a penny, that I may see it (refers to the Roman Denarius, the coin with which the tax was to be paid).

16 And they brought it (there was no coin like this in the Temple, as such was not allowed, so one had to be brought in). And He said unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? (Speaking of the image on the *coin.)And they said unto Him, Caesar's (referred to the image of Tiberius Caesar, the then reigning Roman Emperor; consequently, the coin of the country proved the subjection of the country to him whose image was upon it, in this case, Caesar)**.

17 And Jesus answering said unto them (in a sense, Jesus placed His Approval by His Answer on the separation of Church and State, which did not exist in Israel), Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at Him (the Jewish leaders had used the "give" respecting tribute or taxes paid to Caesar, while Jesus used the word, "render," which speaks of paying something as a debt; in other words, He was saying that Israel owed Rome certain obligations, such as taxes, etc.; it also means that Believers are obligated to pay taxes, and as well, to submit to Civil Government in every respect, providing its demands do not abrogate the Word of God)**.

THE RESURRECTION

18 Then come unto Him the Sadducees (another party in Israel), which say there is no Resurrection (this denial was their major platform; it was a denial of the possibility of such a thing as a Resurrection from the dead); and they asked Him, saying,

19 Master (their use of this title was purely formal; they in no way considered Jesus to be a great teacher), Moses wrote unto us (proclaims them quoting the Scripture, but attempting as many, to subvert it), If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother (quoted from Deut. 25:5-6; this law was given, to prevent the family inheritance from being broken up, among other things)**.

20 Now there were seven Brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed (children): and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also (none of the above Text is in the Law of Moses; it is all a made-up story in order to prove, they think, their argument against the Resurrection; these skeptics will have a good laugh at Jesus' expense)**.

23 In the Resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife (this is the pivot point of their trap)**.

24 And Jesus answering said unto them (proclaims an answer they had never yet received, even though having argued about this matter with the Pharisees for many years), Do you not therefore err, because you know not the Scriptures (points to their ignorance which was inexcusable, seeing that most Sadducees were members of the Priesthood), neither the Power of God? (They assumed either that God could not raise the dead, or that He could raise them only to a life, which would be a counterpart of the present. Their failure to know "the Power of God" stems from unbelief.)

25 For when they shall rise from the dead (proclaims the guarantee by Christ of the coming Resurrection), they neither marry, nor are given in marriage (marriage was instituted by God to bring forth and perpetuate the human race; due to having glorified bodies in Heaven, which will take place in the Resurrection, there will be no death and, therefore, no need to perpetuate the race, therefore, no need for marriage); but are as the Angels which are in Hea ven (only in the sense of which He speaks)**.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise (refers to dead bodies, and not the soul and spirit, which are already with the Lord, that is, if the person was saved when they died): have you not read in the Book of Moses, how in the bush God spoke unto him (Ex. 3:5-6), saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? (God did not say, "I was the God of Abraham..." referring to someone who was dead, out of existence, and was no more. He instead said, "I am the God of Abraham..." meaning that these individuals continued to be alive at the time of Moses, even though their bodies were dead.)

27 He is not the God of the dead (meaning that God is not the God of something which no longer exists), but the God of the Living (meaning that no individual goes out of existence at death, but actually lives forever, whether redeemed or in a fallen state; the soul and the spirit of man are eternal): you therefore do greatly err (not merely "err," but rather "greatly err").

THE GREAT COMMANDMENT

28 And one of the Scribes came (probably a Pharisee), and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that He had answered them well, asked Him, Which is the First Commandment of all? (Was not asked in sarcasm, but sincerely. He is one of the few who took advantage of the Perfect Knowledge of Christ. He was not really referring to the single most important Commandment of the Ten, but rather, which was the most important, the ritual or the ethical?)

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the Commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord (the word, "one" in the Hebrew is "echad," and means "to be united as one, one in number"):

30 And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength: this is the First Commandment (this is the type of "love" which the world doesn't have, and in fact, cannot have, which only a Believer can have, and which can only be given by the Lord).

31 And the second is like, namely this, You shall love your neighbour as yourself. There is none other Commandment greater than these (if we truly love God, we will as well, "love our neighbor"; this is the answer to all war, prejudice, hate, bias, racism, etc.).

32 And the Scribe said unto him, Well, Master, You have said the truth (refers to a Pharisee, who for a change, spoke kindly to and of Jesus): for there is one God; and there is none other but He:

33 And to love Him with all the heart and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more than all whole Burnt Offerings and Sacrifices (proclaims the fact that this Pharisee understood what the Sacrifices actually were all about; in other words, they were not mere rituals)**.

[34] And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, He said unto him (means that this man had a mind of his own, which means he did not blindly follow the religious leaders of his day), You are not far from the Kingdom of God (not there yet, but close!; the distance from the "Kingdom of God" is measured neither by miles, nor by ceremonial standards, but by spiritual conditions; however, being close is not enough; regrettably, millions fall into this category). And no man after that does ask Him any question (none were able to match wits with Christ!; it is tragic that they approach Christ in this fashion, and not in worship and adoration; but how many, approach Christ presently in the same fashion?!).

DAVID'S SON

[35] And Jesus answered and said, while He taught in the Temple (is presented by Matthew as Jesus talking with the Pharisees [Mat. 22:41-42]), How say the Scribes that Christ is the Son of David? (This concerns the Incarnation, i.e., God becoming man, and dwelling among men.)

[36] For David himself said by the Holy Spirit (affirms by Christ that David wrote Psalm 110; as well, it proclaims the fact that it was inspired by the Holy Spirit), The LORD said to my Lord (the first "LORD" is the august title of God in the Hebrew Old Testament, i.e., "Jehovah"; so the first "LORD" refers to God the Father with the second "Lord" referring to God the Son; in effect, the entirety of the Trinity is addressed here; the Holy Spirit makes up the Third Person, the One Who inspired what was said), Sit thou on My Right Hand, till I make Your enemies Your footstool (refers to the time after the Cross, when Christ is exalted, which speaks of the present time [Heb. 1:3]; in essence, all enemies were defeated at the Cross [Col. 2:14-15], but will be defeated in a practical sense by the end of the Kingdom Age [Rev. 20; 1 Cor. 15:24-28])**.

[37] David therefore himself calls Him Lord (recognizes Christ as Deity, actually, the Jehovah of the Old Testament); and whence is He (Christ)

then his son? *(David's Son, which speaks of the Incarnation, God becoming man. Jesus is God, and at the same time, He is David's Son.)And the common people heard Him gladly *(means that the common people believed Him respecting His claim as Messiah, but the religious leaders did not; with this statement about David, He brings them face-to-face with His claim as Messiah, a claim they could not deny; so they said nothing [Mat. 22:46]).

38 And He said unto them in His Doctrine *(specifies that His Doctrine was totally different than that of the Pharisees and the religious leaders), Beware of the Scribes *(those who claim to be expert in the Law of Moses), which love to go in long clothing *(priestly or royal robes), and love salutations in the marketplaces *(to be called "Rabbi," or "Doctor"; He was not condemning these titles, but only the greedy grasping after them),

39 And the chief seats in the Synagogues (seats reserved for officials and persons of distinction) and the uppermost rooms at feasts *(the place for the most honored guest at a feast):

40 Which devour widows' houses *(for money), and for a pretence make long prayers *(praying long and loud for these widows and in their presence, hoping they would make out a will in favor of the Scribes): these shall receive greater damnation *(teaches degrees of punishment in the coming Judgment).

THE WIDOW'S MITE

41 And Jesus sat over against the treasury *(He did so for a purpose), and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury *(not the amount that they cast in, but rather "how" it was cast in): and many who were rich cast in much *(made an ostentatious display of their gift, in order that all may know how much it was).

42 And there came a certain poor widow *(proclaims her being noticed not at all, except by the Lord; the word, "poor," in the Greek Text is "ptochos," and is used to designate a pauper rather than a mere peasant; the woman was destitute), and she threw in two mites, which make a farthing (it was referred to as a "lepton," which was the smallest Greek copper coin, with both of them being presently worth about a dollar, if that, in 2003 currency)*.

43 And He called unto Him His Disciples, and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That this poor widow has cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury:

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living (God judges our gift, not only by the amount, but how much we have left, and our motives).

CHAPTER 13

DESTRUCTION OF THE TEMPLE FORETOLD

[1] And as He went out of the Temple (He went out spiritually as well as physically, which guaranteed its doom), one of His Disciples said unto Him (concerns a conversation no doubt held on the Mount of Olives, as Jesus and the Disciples overlooked the Temple and surrounding area), Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here! (Josephus said that this building was one of the wonders of the world.)

[2] And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? (This included the entire Temple enclosure, pertaining to several buildings.) there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down (this was fulfilled in exact totality, in 70 A.D., by the Roman General Titus).

SIGNS OF THE ENDTIME

[3] And as He sat upon the Mount of Olives over against the Temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked Him privately (it was extremely dangerous to speak of the destruction of the Temple, or anything that resembled such, for fear of the Scribes and Pharisees; so they would "ask Him privately"),

[4] Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled? (They were speaking more than likely of the near future. His answer would incorporate the future of Israel, in essence, forever.)

[5] And Jesus answering them began to say (there is a possibility that one or more of them was taking notes), Take heed lest any man deceive you

(Jesus begins His discourse with a warning of deception; this is Satan's greatest weapon):

6 For many shall come in My Name (after the Ascension of Christ, a number of Jews appeared on the scene, claiming to be the Messiah, who would lead Israel out from under the dominion of the Romans; those false Messiahs led Israel to her destruction in A.D. 70), saying, I am Christ (carries the meaning as well, of saying "I am of Christ"); and shall deceive many.

7 And when you shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled (has to do with the mission at hand of Evangelizing the world; our Lord exhorts the Disciples and all who would follow, not to permit political and national upheavals to distract them from their work of Evangelism): for such things must needs be (due to Israel rejecting Christ, the world was and is subjected to all of these problems); but the end shall not be yet (means that the "end" will not be brought about until the Second Coming).

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom (two thousand years of education, culture, and experience have not ameliorated the problem): and there shall be earthquakes in divers places (proclaims disturbance at the very foundation of the Earth [Rom. 8:22]), and there shall be famines and troubles (the natural product of the course taken by the human family and their rejection of Jesus Christ; and this problem will not be made right until Israel accepts Christ, which she will at the Second Coming): these are the beginnings of sorrows (not short-lived, but of duration; as well, it speaks of the greatest "sorrow" of all, the coming Great Tribulation).

9 But take heed to yourselves (leaves the national scope, and addresses all Believers on a personal basis): for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the Synagogues you shall be beaten (the Early Church records this): and you shall be brought before rulers and kings for My sake (such has happened all over the world, from then until now), for a testimony against them (should have been translated, "For a testimony to them").

10 And the Gospel must first be published among all nations (it didn't say every person, but it did say "all nations"; to a great degree this has been done, and is being done, but yet there is so much more to be done).

[11] But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up (refers to persecution), take no thought beforehand what you shall speak, neither do you premeditate (the Lord does not mean that we are not to premeditate a prudent and wise answer, seeking His Face for guidance, but that we are not to be anxious about it; He is speaking of fear, and that it is not to beset us): but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, you speak that: for it is not you who speaks, but the Holy Spirit (this concerns His constant leading, guidance, companionship, and counsel)**.

[12] Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death (beginning with Verse 11, even though the admonition holds true for other times, it mostly speaks of the coming Great Tribulation; during that time, some Jews will come to Christ, and many of them will lose their lives, betrayed by even their close loved ones)**.

[13] And you shall be hated of all men for My Name's sake (while Israel has been hated for so very long, that hatred will intensify in the coming Great Tribulation; all because of Christ; it is ironic, Israel proper hates the Name of Jesus, and they are hated for His Name's sake!): but he who shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved (concerns the Jews during the coming Great Tribulation who accept Christ, which some few shall, and that they must be "faithful unto death"; if so, the Lord has said, "I will give you a Crown of Life" [Rev. 2:10])**.

THE ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION

[14] But when you shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the Pro phet (speaks of the Antichrist taking over Jerusalem and the Temple, actually declaring war on Israel [Dan. 9:27]), standing where it ought not (refers to this abomination, the image of the Antichrist, being set up in the Holy of Holies in the Temple), (let him who reads understand,) (means there is no reason to misunderstand, because Daniel has plainly foretold this happening) then let them who be in Judaea flee to the mountains (as stated, this refers to the time that the Antichrist will show his true colors, and invade Israel, in which she will be defeated for the first time since becoming a nation again in 1948)**:

15 And let him who is on the housetop (in Israel, the tops of the houses are flat; during the summer time, people sleep, at times, in these areas) not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house (make haste)**:

16 And let him who is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 But woe to them who are with child (pregnant women), and to them who give suck in those days! (Who have little babes in arms.)

18 And pray you that your flight be not in the winter (bad weather)**.

THE GREAT TRIBULATION

19 For in those days (the last three and one half years of the Great Tribulation) shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be (the last half of the Great Tribulation will be worse than the Earth has ever seen, and so bad in fact, that such will never be seen again)**.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved (meaning that every Jew would be killed, and that could apply to the majority of the world): but for the elect's sake (Israel's sake, not the Church, for the Church is now with the Lord), whom He has chosen (the Lord chose these people, actually raising them up from the loins of Abraham and the womb of Sarah), He hath shortened the days (by how much, we aren't told)**.

21 And then if any man shall say to you (the word "then" refers to the last half of the Great Tribulation, a time period of some three and one half years), Lo, here is Christ (Messiah); or, lo, He is there; believe him not (the Lord is actually speaking here of the Antichrist who will make great claims):

22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall show signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect (the word "elect" refers to the Jews, but as it is used here, to those who have accepted Christ).

23 But take ye heed (repeated four times in this Chapter [Verses 5, 9, 23, 33]; "ye" is emphatic, specifically meaning that each individual must take heed): behold, I have foretold you all things (this leaves no one with an excuse).

THE SECOND COMING

24 But in those days (the Second Coming), after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light (pertains to the fifth time the planets will be affected in part, or in whole, during Daniel's 70th week),

25 And the stars of Heaven shall fall (pertains to meteorites, but as well, can definitely pertain to spirit beings of the spirit world of darkness), and the powers that are in Heaven shall be shaken (refers to the Satanic hosts that now rule the air [Eph. 2:1-3; 6:12]).

26 And then shall they see (it is quite possible that Television will portray the Second Coming and do so to the whole world) the Son of Man coming (the Second Coming) in the clouds (doesn't speak of clouds as we think of such, but rather, a great multitude of people who will be with Him, namely all the Saints who have ever lived) with great power and glory (in other words, when Christ truly comes back, no one will have to ask the question, is this really Him?; it will be overly obvious that it is).

27 And then shall He send His Angels, and shall gather together His elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of Heaven (all the Jews then alive on Earth, will be brought to the land of Israel; they will gladly come, even helped by Angels, simply because, they have finally accepted their Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ, Whom they rejected so long ago).

THE PARABLE OF THE FIG TREE

[28] Now learn a Parable of the fig tree (symbolic of Israel and the Second Coming); When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves (refers to the rebirth of Israel as it began in 1948; for about nineteen hundred years this "fig tree" produced nothing, now this tree, taking life from the roots, is beginning to "put forth leaves"), you know that summer is near (Israel is God's prophetic time clock; looking at Israel, we now know that summer is near, i.e., "the Endtime Prophecies are about to be fulfilled"):

[29] So you in like manner, when you shall see these things come to pass (the beginning of these things predicted by Christ, has already begun), know that it is near, even at the doors (should have been translated, "He is near," because it refers to Christ).

[30] Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass (concerns the generation in existence at the time of these happenings, which will be the time of the Great Tribulation), till all these things be done (speaks of the events proclaimed in Rev., Chpts. 6-19).

[31] Heaven and Earth shall pass away (better translated, "Heaven and Earth shall pass from one condition to another"): but My Words shall not pass away (what Christ is saying will come to pass, and without fail!).

THE DAY OF CHRIST'S COMING UNKNOWN

[32] But of that day and that hour knows no man, no, not the Angels which are in Heaven, neither the Son, but the Father (the Son of Man under the self-imposed limitations of the Incarnation, says that even He Himself did not at that time know the hour of the Second Advent, and of the time of the fulfillment of these other things grouped around that event; without a doubt, He now knows, and I'm sure the Angels now know as well; but then they didn't!).

[33] Take ye heed, watch and pray (the idea is a state of watchfulness, which is seasoned by prayer): for you know not when the time is (the "time" itself is not that important, but "watchfulness" is!).

34 For the Son of Man is as a man taking a far journey (Christ is speaking of Himself, when He would go back to Heaven, which He did), Who left His house (refers to the Work He established on Earth, constituted as the "Church" [Mat. 16:18]), and gave authority to his servants (pertains to every Believer), and to every man his work (every Believer is called by God for a particular task, no exceptions), and commanded the porter to watch (conveys the idea of wakefulness).

35 Watch ye therefore: for you know not when the Master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning (Christ is not speaking here of the Rapture of the Church, but specifically to Israel; but yet, the admonition can definitely apply to modern Believers, and should apply as it regards the Rapture):

36 Lest coming suddenly He find you sleeping (regrettably most of the modern Church is spiritually asleep; most little know and realize the lateness of the hour).

37 And what I say unto you (the Disciples and Israel) I say unto all (includes the Church), Watch (the last Word of Christ respecting this dissertation; we should take it very seriously).

CHAPTER 14

THE PLOT

[1] After two days was the Feast of the Passover (the greatest Feast of the Jewish year, celebrating the deliverance from Egypt; it lasted one day), and of Unleavened Bread (the Second Feast, which began on the day of the Passover, and continued for seven days; during that time no leaven was to be placed in bread or anything else; the "Passover" symbolized the price that Christ would pay on Calvary's Cross, and "Unleavened Bread" symbolized His Perfect Life and Perfect Body, which would be offered in Sacrifice): and the Chief Priests and the Scribes sought how they might take Him by craft (deceit), and put Him to death (in doing such, they would destroy themselves as well).

[2] But they said, Not on the Feast Day (Passover), lest there be an uproar of the people.

JESUS ANOINTED AT BETHANY

[3] And being in Bethany (a small village, actually a suburb of Jerusalem, to the east of the city) in the house of Simon the leper (a man whom Jesus had healed), as He sat at meat, there came a woman (probably refers to Mary, the sister of Lazarus [Jn. 11:1-2]) having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious (the Greek word, "pistikos," is used, meaning that it was genuine, not imitation or adulterated; it was very costly.); and she broke the box, and poured it on His head (she broke the seal that kept the fragrance preserved; the pouring upon Him, spoke of her anointing Him for His burial; anointing Him now, which was generally done after death, testified to her belief in the Resurrection; she seems to have been the only one who did believe in His Resurrection before the fact).

4 And there were some who had indignation within themselves (pertained to some, if not all, of the Disciples but with Judas Iscariot taking the lead), and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made? (It is believed by some that this ointment would have been worth about $10,000 in 2003 currency. The truth is, nothing given to Christ is wasted, while much of the world's resources used otherwise are, in fact, wasted.)

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor (originated with Judas [Jn. 12:4-6]; he probably had other things in mind, such as stealing it). And they murmured against her (no case of murmuring has ever been justified or sanctioned by God in Scripture regardless of how right the cause; and to make matters worse, this cause wasn't right)**.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone (it appears from Jn. 12:7 that Jesus addressed Himself here pointedly to Judas); why trouble ye her? (Concerns the murmuring.) she has wrought a good work on Me (even though they didn't understand it, her action showed her Faith in His Resurrection)**.

7 For you have the poor with you always (regrettably, portrays a condition resulting from the Fall in the Garden of Eden), and whensoever you will you may do them good (the two, Himself and the poor, are equivalent in His Sight [Mat. 25:40-45]): but Me you have not always (speaking of His present position, which was soon to change)**.

8 She has done what she could (she had been moved by the Holy Spirit to do this): she is come aforehand to anoint My Body to the burying (His Body had been prepared by God for Sacrifice [Heb. 10:5])**.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this Gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world (a prediction that it would go throughout the whole world, which it has), this also that she has done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her (this act is connected with her and will never be forgotten)**.

THE BETRAYAL

10 And Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve (is noted by design by the Holy Spirit, in that all will know that it is Judas who did this, and that he forfeited one of the most important offices ever given to a human being in the history of mankind), went unto the Chief Priests, to betray Him unto them.

11 And when they heard it (the religious leaders of Israel), they were glad, and promised to give him money (that amount was "thirty pieces of silver" [Mat. 26:15]). And he sought how he might conveniently betray Him (the word, "conveniently," refers to the fact that he would attempt to carry it out in a manner in which his part and activity would be concealed; however, it was not to be!).

PREPARATION FOR THE PASSOVER

12 And the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they killed the Passover (the lamb was killed), His Disciples said unto Him, Where will You that we go and prepare that You may eat the Passover? (A place had to be prepared.)

13 And He sent forth two of His Disciples (refers to Peter and John [Lk. 22:8]), and said unto them, Go ye into the city (Jerusalem), and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water (this was seldom done by men): follow him (in a spiritual sense, this man was a Type of the Holy Spirit).

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house (believed to have been owned by John Mark, or his family, who wrote the Gospel according to Mark), The Master says, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the Passover with My Disciples? (Actually says, "My guestchamber.")

15 And He (the owner of the house) will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared (was in a state of readiness): there make ready for us (has to do with the preparation of the Passover ingredients).

16 And His Disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as He had said unto them: and they made ready the Passover (meant that Peter and John took the Paschal Lamb to the Temple where it was there killed, with the Priests officiating, with the blood poured out at the base of the Brazen Altar; the carcass of the lamb would have then been brought back to this house, where it would have been roasted and prepared by the Disciples)**.

THE LAST PASSOVER

[17] And in the evening He cometh with the Twelve (He would be arrested that night, after He had eaten the Passover)**.

[18] And as they sat and did eat (on the first Passover in Egypt, they were to eat standing, because they had not yet been delivered; now in the Promise Land, their inheritance, they were to eat "sitting," signifying that the work had been done), Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eats with Me shall betray Me (the words, "eat with Me," are not merely to point to the individual who would betray Christ, but to the enormity of the offense)**.

[19] And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto Him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

[20] And He answered and said unto them, It is one of the Twelve, who dips with Me in the dish (all were dipping with Him in the dish, so that statement really did not tell them very much)**.

[21] The Son of Man indeed goeth, as it is written of Him ([Ps. 22; Isa., Chpt. 51; Gen. 3:15], actually, the tenor of the entirety of the Old Testament points to Christ giving His Life as a ransom for many, even to which all the Sacrifices pointed): but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! (This predestined purpose of God did not make the guilt any the less of those who brought the Saviour to His Cross. The "woe" is not of vindictiveness, or even in the nature of a curse, but rather, "reveals a misery which love itself could not prevent.") good were it for that man if he had never been born (obedient to the Divine Purpose, Christ must die as a Sacrifice for sin, but that necessity did not excuse the free agent who brought it about)*.

THE LORD'S SUPPER

22 And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and broke it, and gave to them (this is typical of what the Lord has to do with us; He takes us, blesses us, and then breaks us, and only then can we be given to others), and said, Take, eat: this is My Body (the word "is" means "represents").

23 And He took the cup, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them: and they all drank of it (signifies the shedding of the Saviour's Blood at Calvary, and that which it afforded, Eternal Life, at least to those who will take Christ as Saviour).

24 And He said unto them, This is (represents) My blood of the New Testament (New Covenant), which is shed for many (for the whole world [Jn. 3:16]).

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the Kingdom of God (the coming Kingdom Age).

26 And when they had sung an hymn (Ps. 118), they went out into the Mount of Olives (where He would be betrayed).

PETER'S DENIAL FORETOLD

27 And Jesus said unto them, All you shall be offended because of Me this night (referred to His betrayal, and subsequent arrest by the Romans; "offended" means to, "find occasion of stumbling"): for it is written, I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered ([Zech. 13:7], all the Disciples would flee).

28 But after that I am risen (Resurrection again foretold, but still they didn't believe), I will go before you into Galilee (after the Resurrection, and two appearances in Jerusalem).

29 But Peter said unto Him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I (constitutes presumption on his part, and an insult toward the others).

30 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto you, That this day, even in this night (means that Peter would not even have the strength to last out the night), before the cock crow twice, you shall deny Me thrice (three times).

31 But he spoke the more vehemently (he kept on speaking, disavowing that he would ever fail Christ), If I should die with You, I will not deny You in any wise (Peter was so carried away by the fervor of his zeal and love for Christ that he regarded neither the weakness of his own flesh, nor the truth of his Master's Word). Likewise also said they all.

THE GARDEN OF GETHSEMANE

32 And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane (a garden at the foot of the Mount of Olives; "Gethsemane" means, "the place of the Olive-press"): and He said to His Disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray (if Jesus had to pray, what about us?).

33 And He took with Him Peter and James and John (the third time such a thing was done, in reference to the other Disciples), and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy (Swet says: "The Lord was overwhelmed with sorrow, but His first feeling was one of terrified surprise; His foreseeing the passion was one thing, but when it came clearly into view, its terrors exceeded His anticipations" [Heb. 5:7-8]);

34 And said unto them (to Peter, James, and John), My Soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death (means that grief, so overwhelmed Him that He was close to dying; in fact, Satan definitely tried to kill Him at this time!): tarry you here, and watch (regrettably, they didn't watch very well, but rather went to sleep, but probably from spiritual and physical exhaustion, more than anything else).

35 And He went forward a little, and fell on the ground (actually means that He fell on the ground repeatedly; it portrays the desperation of the struggle), and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from Him (continued to put forth the same petition, saying it over and over; the "hour" spoken of here pertains to the Cross, and His terrible Death in this fashion, which pertained to the bearing of the sin penalty of the world).

36 And He said, Abba, Father (is actually the expression of two languages; He thus in His agony cried to God in the name of the whole human family, the Jew first, and also the Gentile), all things are possible unto You (tells us that God could have affected the Salvation and Redemption of humanity in another way; such was possible!; but such was not His Will!); take away this cup from Me (if He had not offered this petition, He would not have been Who and What He was): nevertheless not what I will, but what You will (proclaims the principle of Faith for all Believers; His Will was subject to the Will of the Father as our wills must be subject).

37 And He comes, and finds them sleeping, and said unto Peter, Simon (addressing him by his old name), sleepest thou? (All of this was a part of the problem of Peter depending on self.) could not you watch one hour? (Pertains to the struggle between the flesh and the spirit.)

38 Watch ye and pray, lest you enter into temptation (this is not a suggestion, but actually, a Command!; prayer is imperative, if proper relationship is to be established). The Spirit truly is ready (the human spirit), but the flesh is weak (the "flesh" pertains to our own personal strength, ability, and will power; these things within themselves are insufficient for the task; unless the Believer properly understands the Cross; as it regards Sanctification, he will inevitably fall back on the flesh).

39 And again He went away, and prayed, and spoke the same words (many times we have to pray the same thing over and over; this is not a sign of lack of faith, but rather of great Faith).

40 And when He returned, He found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) (in the Greek Text means literally they were "weighed down"; their sleep was not deliberate, but the result of an oppressive sorrow) neither wist they what to answer Him (they couldn't account for their condition, so they said nothing).

41 And He cometh the third time, and said unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest (said in irony): it is enough, the hour is come (this is the "hour" which had been planned even before the foundation of the world [Rev. 13:8]); behold, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners (the word "sinners," expresses not only Judas, but the religious leaders as well).

42 Rise up, let us go (this was His hour and He was there to meet it); lo, he who betrays Me is at hand.

THE ARREST OF JESUS

43 And immediately, while He yet spoke, cometh Judas, one of the Twelve (speaks of their arrival, even while Jesus was speaking), and with Him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the Chief Priests and the Scribes and the Elders (sadly this was the "Church" of that day!).

44 And he who betrayed Him had given them a token (proclaims the scheme perpetrated by Judas and the religious leaders), saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is He; take Him, and lead Him away safely (proclaims the most perfidious act in human history; Judas had told his co-conspirators that the one he kissed would be Jesus [Ps. 109:5-20]).

45 And as soon as He was come, he went straightway to Him, and said, Master, Master; and kissed Him.

46 And they (the religious leaders) laid their hands on Him, and took Him (they only could do so, because He allowed them to do so [Jn. 10:17-18]).

47 And one of them who stood by (Simon Peter) drew a sword, and smote a servant of the High Priest, and cut off his ear (the servant's name was "Malchus"; Luke is the only one who mentions the healing of the wound by our Lord [Lk. 22:51]).

48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are you come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take Me? (The Lord protests the manner in which this act is carried out. He was not a thief, so why were they treating Him as one?)

49 I was daily with you in the Temple teaching, and you took Me not (they did not take Him then, because they did not have any legitimate charge to bring against Him; as well, they feared the people): but the Scriptures must be fulfilled (the Holy Spirit through foreknowledge saw what would happen [Isa., Chpt. 53; Zech. 11:13; 13:7])**.

50 And they all forsook Him, and fled (refers to the Eleven Disciples; not being allowed to fight, they fled; the flesh will fight or flee, but it will not "trust")**.

51 And there followed Him a certain young man (even though it is not known for sure, most think that this "young man" was Mark, who wrote this Gospel), having a linen cloth cast about his naked body (the "linen cloth" was not that which people of poor circumstances could have owned; therefore, he belonged to a family of means); and the young men laid hold on him (means the soldiers were setting about to arrest him)**:

52 And he left the linen cloth (in the struggle, his garment was pulled from him), and fled from them naked (probably means that he only had undergarments; there is no evidence that they pursued him)**.

THE TRIAL

53 And they led Jesus away to the High Priest (refers to Caiaphas; however, we learn from Jn. 18:13 that Jesus was first brought before Annas, the father-in-law of Caiaphas): and with him (Caiaphas) were assembled all the Chief Priests and the Elders and the Scribes (proclaims the religious hierarchy of Israel)**.

54 And Peter followed Him afar off (the Holy Spirit delineates the "afar off"; the idea is meant to call our attention to the boasts of Peter, which this following at a distance occasioned), even into the palace of the High Priest (refers to the court of the palace where the guards and servants were assembled): and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

[55] And the Chief Priests and all the Council (the Sanhedrin, the ruling body of Israel) sought for witness against Jesus to put Him to death (they were attempting to legalize their vile action); and found none (refers to the emptiness of their accusations)**.

[56] For many bear false witness against Him, but their witness agreed not together (proclaims such being contrary to the Law of Moses, which required a trial to begin with those things which would acquit the accused, instead of condemning Him)**.

[57] And there arose certain (speaks of two men, as given in Mat. 26:60), and bear false witness against Him, saying (proclaims the Sanhedrin as thinking they finally had a proper accusation against Him; however, they were to see that this was false as well!)**,

[58] We heard Him say, I will destroy this Temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands (they had added the words, "that is made with hands, and I will build another made without hands"; they tried to make it seem as if Jesus was talking about the Jerusalem Temple, when actually what He did say, was speaking of His physical body; He really said: "destroy this Temple," and speaking of His Own body, "and in three days I will raise it up")**.

[59] But neither so did their witness agree together (the idea in the Greek Text is that they made repeated attempts to bring testimony that would warrant conviction, but without success)**.

[60] And the High Priest stood up in the midst (this man had become exasperated by their inability to bring forth a credible witness, and sought to make up by bluster, the lack of evidence), and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest Thou nothing? (He didn't answer, because they had no desire to hear the Truth.) what is it which these witness against You? (He demanded an answer from Christ concerning the accusations, but Jesus said nothing, at least to that charge.)

[61] But He held His peace, and answered nothing (He kept on maintaining His silence). Again the High Priest asked Him, and said unto Him, Are

You the Christ, the Son of the Blessed? (Actually means, "Are You the Messiah?", namely, "The Anointed of God.")

62 And Jesus said, I am (constitutes a bold declaration of who He was; the pronoun "I" is used for emphasis; it is, "as for myself, in contradistinction to all others"; His answer left absolutely no doubt): and you shall see (proclaims the fact, that the entirety of the Jewish Sanhedrin, would ultimately "see" that what Jesus had said was absolutely true) the Son of Man sitting on the Right Hand of Power, and coming in the clouds of Heaven (refers to the Great White Throne Judgment, and the Second Coming, the latter happening first)**.

63 Then the High Priest rent His clothes (this was a sign that he considered what Jesus said to have been blasphemy), and said, What need we any further witnesses? (In their minds this was the sought for evidence. The prisoner had incriminated himself.)

64 You have heard the blasphemy (proclaims the High Priest rendering his conclusion even before testing the claims of Jesus; consequently, it becomes more and more obvious that this farce of a trial was not convened to seek for Truth, but instead, to find any way to condemn Christ): what do you think? (Actually, this is the question of the ages, and a question, that every person must answer.)And they all condemned Him to be guilty of death (Joseph of Arimathaea, and Nicodemus, although members of the Sanhedrin, were not present; so the "all" pertained to those present, and not those absent).

65 And some began to spit on Him, and to cover His Face, and to buffet Him (the "some" included members of the Sanhedrin, as well as the Temple guards and soldiers. Actually, the evidence is that the latter did not join in these indignities until they observed the members of the Sanhedrin engaging in these vile acts), and to say unto Him, Prophesy (they now add spiritual abuse to the physical abuse): and the servants did strike Him with the palms of their hands (Isaiah, some eight hundred years before, had prophesied, "His visage was so marred more than any man" [Isa. 52:14])**.

PETER DENIES JESUS

66 And as Peter was beneath in the palace (speaks of the porch of the palace; the trial of Jesus was held in an upper story), there cometh one of the maids of the High Priest:

67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And you also was with Jesus of Nazareth (the very fact that Peter was there, shows that he did not want to desert Jesus; however, his actions will show that he will not desire to stand up for Him either!).

68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what you say. And he went out into the porch; and the rooster crowed (Peter's test came in an unexpected form, and discovered a weak point — his lack of moral courage).

69 And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them who stood by, This is one of them (this is a different maid).

70 And he denied it again. And a little after, they who stood by said again to Peter, Surely you are one of them: for you are a Galilaean, and your speech agrees thereto.

71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom you speak (this does not refer to profanity but rather "to declare anathema or cursed"; Peter thus declares himself subject to the Divine curse if he is not telling the truth when he disclaims all acquaintance with Jesus; in fact, what he did was much worse than the use of profanity).

72 And the second time the rooster crowed. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the rooster crowed twice, you shall deny Me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept (the word "wept" refers to racking sobs, which came from the depths of his being; in fact, this was the time of Peter's Repentance, which is portrayed by "a broken and a contrite heart" [Ps. 51:17]).

CHAPTER 15

JESUS BEFORE PILATE

[1] And straightway (immediately) in the morning the Chief Priests held a consultation with the Elders and Scribes and the whole Council, and bound Jesus, and carried Him away, and delivered Him to Pilate (sentences of condemnation might not be legally pronounced on the day of trial; yet our Lord was tried, condemned, and crucified on the same day; as they took Him to Pilate, they continued to strike and beat Him).

[2] And Pilate asked Him, Are You the King of the Jews? *(To him, this was a political question. He had no regard or concern for the religious controversy.)*And He answering said unto him, You say it (Jesus answered in the affirmative; in effect, He said, "You say that which is true").

[3] And the Chief Priests accused Him of many things: but He answered nothing (He knew that to refute their erroneous and false charges, was a waste of time).

[4] And Pilate asked Him again, saying, Answerest Thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against You (Pilate had never seen a man, who would not defend himself; he didn't understand Christ!).

[5] But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled (the silence of a blameless life pleads more powerfully than any defense, however elaborate).

[6] Now at that feast (Passover) he (Pilate) released unto them (Israel) one prisoner, whomsoever they desired (immediately before the situation concerning Barabbas, Pilate sent Jesus to Herod, which is omitted by Mark [in Lk., Chpt. 23]; the custom of releasing a prisoner regarding its origin is anyone's guess).

JESUS SENTENCED TO DIE

7 And there was one named Barabbas (this man had been arrested for homicidal political terrorism; there is some evidence that he was referred to as "Jesus Barabbas"; if so, the Jews had the choice of "Jesus Barabbas" or "Jesus Christ"), which lay bound with them who had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him (Pilate) to do as he had ever done unto them (concerned the releasing of a particular prisoner).

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will you that I release unto you the King of the Jews? (Referred to Jesus, in that which Pilate hoped this crowd would do. He used the title "King of the Jews," in sarcasm.)

10 For he knew that the Chief Priests had delivered Him for envy (inasmuch as the "envy" was so obvious that even this pagan could see it, tells us exactly to what level these religious leaders had sunk).

11 But the Chief Priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will you then that I shall do unto Him whom you call the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify Him (they wanted Him crucified, because they thought this would prove to the people that He was not of God).

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil has He done? *(It was not for "evil" that they wanted to Crucify Him, but because of His "good.")*And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify Him (Luke says they repeated the cry again, and again [Lk. 23:23]).

15 And so Pilate, willing to content the people (he was willing to content the people, but not willing to content God; untold thousands of preachers do the same every week), released Barabbas unto them (presents a study in irony!; they accused Christ of being an insurrectionist, which He was not, and yet demanded Barabbas be released, who had actually made insurrection!; such is evil!), and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged Him, to be crucified (the scourging was so severe, that many who experienced this ordeal didn't survive it).

JESUS CROWNED WITH THORNS

16 And the soldiers led Him away into the hall, called Praetorium (this was actually the barracks of the soldiers, which could have numbered as many as six hundred); and they call together the whole band (they would now mock Him).

17 And they clothed Him with purple (they were mocking Him as King), and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about His Head (the Greek word for "crown" as used here, is "stephanos," and means the "the victor's crown"; in the Mind of God, the victory had already been won, because He knew that Calvary would pay the total price),

18 And began to salute Him, Hail, King of the Jews! (He was the King of the Jews, even though they didn't know it, but as well, He was the King of the whole world, which the world will recognize in the coming Kingdom Age.)

19 And they smote Him on the head with a reed (this was a stiff object which would have driven the thorns deep within His Scalp), and did spit upon Him, and bowing their knees worshipped Him (but in mockery).

20 And when they had mocked Him, they took off the purple from Him, and put His own clothes on Him, and led Him out to Crucify Him.

21 And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian (due to the beatings, Jesus could no longer physically carry the Cross, so they pressed this particular man to carry it for Him), who passed by, coming out of the country

(means that he was not a part in any way to these insidious proceedings, but just happened to be standing near when Jesus came by), the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear His Cross (speaks of the sons of Simon who would give their hearts to Christ, becoming well-known Disciples, and all because of what happened here this day).

THE CRUCIFIXION

22 And they bring Him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull (two meanings: A. Some claim this is the place where Adam was buried, and his skull later found; however, there is no evidence whatsoever of this tradition; and, B. Others think the interpretation simply means that the rock face of the hill resembles a skull, which is probably the correct interpretation).

23 And they gave Him to drink wine mingled with myrrh (referred to a strong narcotic made of sour wine and mingled with bitter herbs; it was supposed to dull the sense of pain; some think that Christ was offered the drink twice, but there is some indication that it was offered three times): but He received it not (He would not seek alleviation of the agonies of the Crucifixion by any drug potion which might render Him insensible; He would bear the full burden consciously).

24 And when they had crucified Him (referred to them nailing Him to the Cross), they parted His garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take (His garments, with the exception of the seamless Robe, were divided among the soldiers; not wanting to tear the seamless Robe apart, they cast lots with the winner taking ownership of the garment [Ps. 22:18]).

25 And it was the third hour (9 a.m. in the morning, the time of the morning Sacrifice), and they crucified Him.

26 And the superscription of His accusation was written over (over the Cross), THE KING OF THE JEWS (out of anger, no doubt, toward the Jews, Pilate wrote the title himself [Jn. 19:19]; the Chief Priests were visibly angry over this, and strongly requested that it be changed to read,

"He said, I am King of the Jews"; Pilate answered by saying, "What I have written I have written" [Jn. 19:21-22]; so, Who, and what Jesus really was, were fitly placed over His Head on the Cross).

27 And with Him they crucify two thieves (robbers); the one on His right hand, and the other on His left.

28 And the Scripture was fulfilled, which said, And He was numbered with the transgressors ([Isa. 53:12], He took the place of the transgressors; so His Death, its manner, and with whom He died, were fitting!).

29 And they who passed by railed on Him ([Ps. 22:7-8], "they," referred to the religious leaders of Israel), wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, You Who destroyed the Temple, and build it in three days (they were referring to the statement He did make, recorded in Jn. 2:19-21, which referred to His Body the Temple, its Death, and Resurrection in three days; He wasn't talking about the Temple in Jerusalem),

30 Save Yourself, and come down from the Cross (this jest was the harder to endure since it appealed to a consciousness of power held back only by the self-restraint of a Sacrificed Will; had He saved Himself, no one else could have been Saved).

31 Likewise also the Chief Priests mocking said among themselves with the Scribes, He saved others; Himself He cannot save (they could not deny the fact that He saved others, but they attempted to turn that fact against Him, by alleging that He performed these miracles by the power of Satan, rather than by the Power of God).

32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the Cross (said in mockery), that we may see and believe (they lied!; He rose from the dead after the third day, and they still didn't believe). And they who were crucified with Him reviled Him (while both did revile Him, one shortly thereafter repented and was Saved, which Mark did not mention).

THE DEATH OF JESUS

33 And when the sixth hour was come (12 noon), there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour (until 3 p.m.; as it was now the Passover time the moon was full, so that it could not have been caused by an eclipse; for when the moon is full it cannot intervene between the Earth and the sun; how far this darkness extended, we aren't told; we do know that it went as far as Egypt toward the south, and as far as Bithynia toward the north; it was at this time that He became the Burnt-offering, and the Sin-offering of Lev. 1:4).

34 And at the ninth hour (3 p.m.) Jesus cried with a loud voice (proving that He did not die from physical weakness, but that He purposely, laid down His Own life [Jn. 10:17-18]), saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me? (During this three hour period when darkness covered that part of the world, if not the whole Earth, He bore the sin penalty of mankind, on which the Heavenly Father could not look [Hab. 1:13; I Pet. 2:24].)

35 And some of them who stood by (refers to the Roman soldiers, even some of the religious leaders of Israel), when they heard it, said, Behold, He calls Elijah (mockingly said by the religious leaders of Israel).

36 And one ran and filled a spunge full of vinegar (according to John, this was placed on hyssop [Jn. 19:29] which fulfilled [Ex. 12:22]), and put it on a reed, and gave Him to drink (there is no record that He drank it), saying, Let alone; let us see whether Elijah will come to take Him down (sarcasm!).

37 And Jesus cried with a loud voice (once again, proving that His Death was not brought about by physical weakness), and gave up the ghost (should have been translated, "breathed out His Life"; in fact, He didn't die, until the Holy Spirit told Him to die [Heb. 9:14]).

38 And the Veil of the Temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom (this signified that the price had been paid, with all sin atoned; now, the way to the Holy of Holies was opened up that man might come, for the Veil hid the Holy of Holies).

39 And when the centurion (he was the first Gentile to render this testimony of Faith; tradition affirms that his name was Longinus, and that he became a devoted follower of Christ, preached the Faith, and died a martyr's death), which stood over against Him (beside Christ), saw that He so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God (in effect, he was saying, many have claimed to be God, but this One is God)**.

40 There were also women looking on afar off (speaks of women from Galilee, and not women from Jerusalem): among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joseph, and Salome (there is no record that Mary the Mother of Jesus was there; no doubt, the strain was more than she could bear, and John undoubtedly took her away)**;

41 (Who also, when He was in Galilee, followed Him, and ministered unto Him;) (did what they could to help) and many other women which came up with Him unto Jerusalem (who they were, we aren't told)**.

THE BURIAL OF JESUS

42 And now when the evening was come (soon to come. It was now approximately 3 p.m. — the evening would be at about 6 p.m. so they had about three hours to work), because it was the preparation (to prepare for the Passover, for it would begin at 6 p.m. that evening), that is, the day before the Sabbath (this was the High Sabbath of the Passover Feast, which was Thursday, and not the ordinary weekly Sabbath, which was Saturday [Lev. 23:6-7]; Jesus was crucified on a Wednesday, and not on Friday, as many think, spending three full days and nights in the Tomb, and rose on the first day of the week, even as He had said He would do [Mat. 12:40])**,

43 Joseph of Arimathaea, an honourable counselor (he was a member of the Grand Council of Jerusalem, the Sanhedrin), which also waited for the Kingdom of God (spoke of his spiritual hunger, which was fulfilled in Jesus), came, and went in boldly unto Pilate (means that such was not commonly done)*, and craved the body of Jesus (he strongly requested that he be given the remains).

[44] And Pilate marvelled if He (Jesus) were already dead (it normally took several days for one to die on the cross; Jesus had only been on the cross for six hours, so Pilate was skeptical): and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether He had been any while dead (how long He had been dead).

[45] And when he knew it of the centurion (it was affirmed by the Roman soldier), he gave the body to Joseph (the word "body" in the Greek is "ptoma," and means "a corpse").

[46] And he (Joseph) bought fine linen (a piece of expensive cloth used to wrap around the body of Jesus), and took Him down (took Him down from the Cross), and wrapped Him in the linen, and laid Him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock (the tomb was in the garden adjacent to the place of Crucifixion, most certainly the property of Joseph), and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre (proving that the tomb had never before been used).

[47] And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph beheld where He was laid.

CHAPTER 16

(A.D. 33)

THE TESTIMONY OF THE ANGEL

[1] And when the Sabbath was past (the regular weekly Sabbath of Saturday), Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint Him (proving that they really did not believe that He would rise from the dead; if so, it would have been pointless to have wasted money on the purchase of these expensive items).

[2] And very early in the morning the first day of the week (Sunday morning), they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

[3] And they said among themselves (means in the Greek Text that "they kept on saying among themselves"), Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre? (The stone would have to be rolled away, so they could apply the spices to the corpse.)

[4] And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

[5] And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side (sitting on the raised projection, which had contained the body of Jesus; Him "sitting" portrayed far more than posture; it meant that the work of the Resurrection was completed, and death had been defeated), clothed in a long white garment (the "young man" was an Angel; Expositors remarked that no such robe was worn by young men on Earth); and they were affrighted (no wonder, Matthew said, "his countenance was like lightning" [Mat. 28:3]).

[6] And he said unto them, Be not affrighted (fear not): You seek Jesus of Nazareth, Who was crucified: He is risen (without a doubt, the greatest statement ever made in the annals of human history); He is not here (speaks of victory over death, Hell, and the grave): behold the place where they laid Him (signifies the empty tomb; in other words, He definitely was dead, but is now definitely alive!)**.

[7] But go your way, tell His Disciples and Peter (no censor or reprimand concerning their unbelief; as well, "Peter" is added to let him know that he is included, despite his denial of Christ, because Peter had repented) that He goes before you into Galilee: there shall you see Him, as He said unto you (there were several appearances of Christ to the Disciples in Jerusalem before the Galilee appearance, but it was only during the latter appearance that He recommissioned them [Jn., Chpt. 21])**.

THE TESTIMONY OF THE WOMEN

[8] And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed (proclaims them seeing more than they could comprehend, digest, or even accept for the moment): neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid (they were fearful that they would be accused of stealing the body)**.

[9] Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week (referred to some time after sundown Saturday, which would have been the beginning of the Jewish Sunday, the first day of the week), He appeared first to Mary Magdalene (He appeared to her even before appearing to His Disciples), out of whom He had cast seven devils (gives us at least a hint as to the cause of her love and devotion)**.

[10] And she went and told them who had been with Him (referred to His Disciples), as they mourned and wept (as stated, they had not believed that He would rise from the dead, despite the fact that He had plainly told them so [Mat. 12:40])**.

[11] And they, when they had heard that He was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not (they flatly rejected her testimony; Luke said that it seemed to them "as idle tales" [Lk. 24:11]; the repeated unbelief of the Apostles concerning the Resurrection, destroys the theory that they invented the Resurrection).

THE TESTIMONY OF THE DISCIPLES

12 After that He appeared in another form unto two of them ("another form," in the Greek Text literally says, "In a different outward expression or appearance"; this is given in detail in Lk. 24:13-35), as they walked, and went in to the country (outside of Jerusalem toward Emmaus; it is believed that the two were Cleophas and Luke).

13 And they went and told it unto the residue (to the Disciples): neither believed they them (places them at the position of disbelieving two different and distinct sources).

14 Afterward He appeared unto the Eleven as they sat at meat (could have been His Appearance to them by the Sea of Galilee [Jn. 21:4-23]), and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen Him after He was risen (He rebuked them, and did so sharply).

THE GREAT COMMISSION

15 And He said unto them, Go ye into all the world (the Gospel of Christ is not merely a western Gospel, as some claim, but is for the entirety of the world), and preach the Gospel to every creature ("preaching" is God's method, as is here plainly obvious; as well, it is imperative that every single person have the opportunity to hear; this is the responsibility of every Believer).

16 He who believes (believes in Christ and what He did for us at the Cross) and is baptized (baptized into Christ [Rom. 6:3-5] not water baptism) shall be saved; but he who believes not shall be damned (Jn. 3:16).

17 And these signs shall follow them who believe (not these "sins" shall follow them who believe); In My Name shall they cast out devils (demons — Jesus defeated Satan, fallen angels, and all demon spirits at the Cross [Col. 2:14-15]); they shall speak with new tongues (baptism with the Holy Spirit with the evidence of speaking with other tongues [Acts 2:4]);

18 They shall take up serpents (put away demon spirits [Lk. 10:19] has nothing to do with reptiles); and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them (speaks of protection; in no way does it speak of purposely drinking poison, etc., in order to prove one's faith; the word, "if," speaks of accidental ingestion); they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover (means to do so "in the Name of Jesus" [Acts 5:12; 13:3; 14:3; 19:11; 28:8; I Tim. 4:14; II Tim. 1:6; Heb. 6:2; James 5:14]).

THE ASCENSION

19 So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, He was received up into Heaven (the Ascension), and sat on the Right Hand of God ([Heb. 1:3] signifying that the work of Redemption, was total and complete, i.e., "a finished work").

THE EARLY CHURCH

20 And they went forth (refers to the entirety of the Early Church, and not just the Twelve Apostles), and preached everywhere (at the end of the First Century, the Gospel of Christ had been taken to the greater majority of the Roman Empire), the Lord working with them (He will "work" if His Commands are followed), and confirming the Word (the Word of God, what He had said) with signs following (if the "signs" are not "following," the Gospel is not being preached, but rather something else). Amen (Truth).

CHAPTER 1

INTRODUCTION

[1] Forasmuch as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration (means many were attempting at that time to write accounts of the Life and Ministry of Christ, which proved to have no inspiration of the Holy Spirit, and consequently, were unreliable) of those things which are most surely believed among us (proclaims the Gospel as a narrative concerning facts fully established)**,

[2] Even as they delivered them unto us (concerns those who were there, and actually observed what took place), which from the beginning were eyewitnesses, and ministers of the Word (probably concerned members of the "Twelve" and the "Seventy," as well as others)**;

[3] It seemed good to me also (moved upon by the Holy Spirit to do such), having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first (means that he made absolutely certain of the reliability of these "eyewitness accounts"), to write unto you in order (refers to an orderly design, not necessarily in chronological order), most excellent Theophilus (it is not known exactly as to who this man was; he was evidently a Gentile of high rank in the Roman world of that day, who had accepted Christ as his Saviour)**,

[4] That you might know the certainty of those things (means that he could rely on what Luke told him), wherein you have been instructed (he will now be able to sort the facts from the fiction; Luke writing this Gospel to Theophilus has helped millions to "know" the "certainty of these things")**.

JOHN THE BAPTIST

5 There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judaea (Herod the Great; the event concerning the birth of John the Baptist took place towards the end of his reign), a certain Priest named Zacharias (should be pronounced, "Zechariah"; it means "remembered of Jehovah"), of the course of Abia (pertains to the twenty-four courses for Temple service; each of the twenty-four courses lasted for one week [I Chron. 24:1]; Zacharias was especially distinguished by belonging to the first of the twenty-four courses or families): and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth (meaning that both the husband and the wife traced their lineage back to Aaron, the first High Priest — a coveted distinction in Israel)**.

6 And they were both Righteous before God (tells us that at this time, there were precious few who were actually Righteous before God), walking in all the Commandments and Ordinances of the Lord blameless (proclaims a lifestyle of Righteousness which not many had; what an honor to be called by the Holy Spirit, "blameless!")**.

7 And they had no child (they desperately wanted children), because that Elisabeth was barren (placed her in the same category as Sarah), and they both were now well stricken in years (Elisabeth was now beyond the age of child bearing; consequently, John's birth was just as miraculous as that of Isaac [Rom. 4:17-21; Heb. 11:11])**.

8 And it came to pass, that while he (Zacharias) executed the Priest's office before God in the order of his course (some think this was the month of July, if so, Jesus was conceived six months later [Lk. 1:26], which would have been in January, consequently, being born nine months later in October), 9 According to the custom of the Priest's office, his lot was to burn Incense when he went into the Temple of the Lord (this was done by coals of fire taken from the Brazen Altar, a Type of Christ and His Crucifixion, and taken to the Altar of Incense, with coals placed on the Altar, with Incense poured over the coals; this was done twice a day at the time of the morning and evening Sacrifices)**.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of Incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an Angel of the Lord (Gabriel) standing on the right side of the Altar of Incense (the right side is the side of propitiation, which, in effect, means that God accepts the Sacrifice [Heb. 1:3]).

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the Angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for your prayer is heard (the Greek translation should read, "was heard," implying that it was no longer offered because of their age; but every prayer prayed in the Will of God is always heard by the Lord, and will be answered in His due time); and your wife Elisabeth shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name John (John means, "Jehovah shows favor or grace"; it was an apt description of the one who would introduce the Lord of Glory).

14 And you shall have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth (the rejoicing would be because he would introduce the Messiah).

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord (his greatness would come because of his introduction of Christ), and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink (meant that he was a "Nazarite" [Num., Chpt. 6]); and he shall be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb (has no reference to the Acts 2:4 experience, which had not yet come to pass; he would have unusual help from the Holy Spirit due to his mission, which was to introduce Christ).

16 And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God (he would be the first Prophet since Malachi, a time span of about four hundred years; there would be a great move of the Spirit under his Ministry).

RIGHTEOUSNESS

17 And he shall go before Him (Christ) in the spirit and power of Elijah

(John could have been Elijah to the people, thereby ushering in the Kingdom Age, if Israel had only accepted Christ), to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children (that the Israel of John's day might have the Righteousness of the Godly Patriarchs of the past), and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just (God and His Word); to make ready a people prepared for the Lord (preparation for the coming Messiah, Whom John would introduce).

18 And Zacharias said unto the Angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years (a posture of unbelief).

19 And the Angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel (the same Angel who had come to Daniel [Dan. 8:16; 9:21], and shortly would be sent to Mary [Lk. 1:26]), who stands in the Pres ence of God (may well represent the highest rank of all among Angels); and am sent to speak unto you, and to show you these glad tidings (sent from the throne of God).

20 And, behold, you shall be dumb (there is some indication in the Greek Text that he would be both deaf, and dumb), and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed (he had asked for a sign and had been given one most painful), because you believed not my words (unbelief is a sin), which shall be fulfilled in their season (irrespective of your unbelief, it shall happen).

21 And the people waited for Zacharias (pertained to the usual custom of the Priest finishing his duties, then coming out and pronouncing a blessing upon the people), and marvelled that he tarried so long in the Temple ("marveled" does not show impatience, but rather anticipation; they were not to be disappointed!).

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them (the "sign" had already begun): and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the Temple (probably referred to a possible glow on his countenance): for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished (it was about a week), he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived (we aren't told how old she was, just "well-stricken in years" [Vs. 7]), and hid herself five months, saying (she hid herself in order to seek the Lord regarding how this child was to be raised, and how he should be trained),

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men (she would no longer be childless, but in fact would give birth to the greatest Prophet who ever lived)**.

MARY

26 And in the sixth month (refers to six months after Elisabeth had conceived; consequently, John was six months older than Jesus) the Angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth (strangely enough, Nazareth was held in scorn by Israel at that time)**,

27 To a virgin (in the Greek Text is "parthenos," which refers to a pure virgin who has never known a man, and never experienced a marriage relationship; in the Hebrew, the word is "Ha-alma," which means, "the Virgin — the only one who ever was, or ever will be a mother in this way") espoused (engaged) to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David (he was in the direct lineage of David through Solomon); and the Virgin's name was Mary (Mary went back to David through another of David's sons, Nathan; so their lineage was perfect as it regards the Prophecies that the Messiah would come from the House of David [II Sam., Chpt. 7]).

28 And the Angel came in unto her, and said (presents the greatest moment in human history, the announcement of the coming birth of the Lord of Glory in the Incarnation, i.e., "God becoming man"), Hail, you that are highly favoured (means "much engraced," not "full of grace," as the Catholic Church teaches, but one who, herself meritless, had received signal Grace from God), the Lord is with you (signals her position of humility): blessed are you among women (does not say "above women," as the Catholics teach; however, she definitely was much blessed)**.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying (a total disturbance; not a partial, or light agitation), and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be (she in no way understood the reason that he addressed her as he did).

30 And the Angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for you have found favour with God (should have been translated, "you have received Grace from God").

31 And, behold, you shall conceive in your womb (should have been translated, "You shall forthwith conceive in your womb," meaning immediately), and bring forth a Son (proclaims the Incarnation, "God manifest in the flesh, God with us, Immanuel" [Isa. 7:14; 9:6]), and shall call His name JESUS (the Greek version of the Hebrew, "Joshua"; it means "Saviour," or "The Salvation of Jehovah").

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest (actually means "The Most High," and refers to "Jehovah"): and the Lord God shall give unto Him the throne of His father David (II Sam., Chpt. 7):

33 And He shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of His Kingdom there shall be no end (this will begin at the Second Coming, and will last forever; it could have begun at the beginning of His Ministry, but He was rejected by Israel; but at the Second Coming, they will accept Him as their Saviour, Messiah, and King [Zech., Chpts. 12-14]).

34 Then said Mary unto the Angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? (She was probably in her late teens.)

35 And the Angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Spirit shall come upon you (has the same connotation as, "the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters" [Gen. 1:2]), and the power of the Highest shall overshadow you (has the same reference as, "And God said, let there be light: and there was light" [Gen. 1:3]): therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of you shall be called the Son of God (constitutes the Incarnation, "God becoming Man"; He would be Very God and Very Man).

36 And, behold, your cousin Elisabeth (the word, "cousin," in the Greek Text is "suggenes," which means "countryman," and not necessarily a cousin in the sense of a blood relative; however, Mary definitely could have been personally kin to Elisabeth), she has also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 For with God nothing shall be impossible (what is impossible with man is very much possible with God)**.

38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord (beautifully portrays the humility of this young lady; I think she would be greatly grieved at the unscriptural manner in which Catholicism has elevated her — even to the place of Deity); be it unto me according to your word (she gives this consent in a word that was simple and sublime, which involved the most extraordinary act of Faith that a woman ever consented to accomplish). And the Angel departed from her.

MARY VISITS ELISABETH

39 And Mary arose in those days (concerned the time immediately after the appearance of the Angel Gabriel), and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah (tradition places this at Hebron)**;

40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth (she was welcomed wholeheartedly)**.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary (the account that the Angel Gabriel had given to Mary concerning the birth of Jesus), the babe (the one who would be known as John the Baptist) leaped in her womb (at the mention of Jesus, the Holy Spirit moved upon this unborn child and it responded; it doesn't mean that the unborn child had comprehension); and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit ("filled" in the Greek Text is "pletho," and means to "imbue, influence or supply"; it does not have the meaning of that which happened on the day of Pentecost, referring to Acts 2:4)**:

42 And she (Elisabeth) spake out with a loud voice and said, Blessed are you (Mary) among women (not above women as the Catholics claim; however, Mary was truly blessed, as would be obvious), and blessed is the fruit of your womb (Jesus Christ was that "fruit!").

[43] And whence is this to me (why am I honored in this way?), that the mother of my Lord should come to me? (She used the word "Lord" in its highest sense; great as her own child was to be in the sight of the Lord, here was the mother of One yet greater, even the Lord Himself.)

[44] For, lo, as soon as the voice of your salutation sounded in my ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy (as stated, this was a manifestation of the Holy Spirit Who produced this response).

[45] And blessed is she who believed (refers to Mary and her faith): for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord (the words "shall be" are a certitude of action).

THE MAGNIFICAT

[46] And Mary said (the following actually constitutes a song, and is in the tradition of the "song of Deborah" [Judg. 5:1-31]), My soul doth magnify the Lord (she "magnified the Lord," while the Catholic Church erroneously magnifies her),

[47] And my spirit has rejoiced in God my Saviour (disproves the theory of the "Immaculate Conception," or the total absence of original sin in Mary; God was her Saviour, so she must have been a sinner, in order to be Saved; the Scripture says, "all have sinned" [Rom. 3:23]).

[48] For He has regarded the low estate of His handmaiden (humility): for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed (the word "blessed" is a single syllable here, and simply means "a recipient of Grace").

[49] For He Who is mighty has done to me great things; and Holy is His Name ("Holy" is the essence of His Being, and speaks of God the Father).

50 And His Mercy is on them who fear Him from generation to generation (mercy is extended to those who truly revere, i.e., "respect Him").

51 He has showed strength with His arm (proclaims the Power of God in the manner in which it is used); He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts (proclaims the Messianic reversal of man's conception of what is great and little).

52 He has put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree (the Lord ignored the proud self-exaltation of the religious elite of Israel, and showered His Attention on a little "handmaiden").

53 He has filled the hungry with good things (concerns they who hunger and thirst after righteousness [Mat. 5:6]); and the rich He has sent empty away (refers to those who claim to be rich and increased with goods, and have need of nothing [Rev. 3:17]).

54 He has helped His servant Israel, in remembrance of His mercy (regrettably, Israel didn't want His help, or His Mercy);

55 As He spoke to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever (Mary's song opens with "magnifying the Lord," and closes with the "Promises of God being remembered forever").

56 And Mary abode with her (Elisabeth) about three months, and returned to her own house (every indication is Joseph and Mary were married almost immediately after the appearance of the Angel Gabriel [Mat. 1:18-25]).

THE BIRTH OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

57 Now Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shown great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child (this was the Command originally given to Abraham by the Lord [Gen. 17:10-12]); and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father ("they" referred to friends and relatives, not Zacharias and Elisabeth).

60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John (in obedience to what Gabriel had demanded).

61 And they said unto her, There is none of your kindred who is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called (shows that he could not hear or speak).

63 And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all (upon obedience, as the next verse proclaims, Zacharias could now hear and speak, and possibly related to them the account of the appearance of Gabriel).

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all who dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judaea (God was moving again in Israel; the four hundred year prophetic drought was being broken; once again, they would hear, "Thus saith the Lord...").

66 And all they who heard them (the predictions of Gabriel as related by Zacharias and Elisabeth) laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be! And the hand of the Lord was with him (this is Luke's way of expressing all that would happen to John the Baptist through the entirety of his life).

ZECHARIAH'S PROPHECY

67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Spirit (pertains to the Holy Spirit helping him), and prophesied, saying (concerned what John the Baptist would do and be in his Ministry),

68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for He has visited and redeemed His people (the word "Blessed," as used here, is a double syllable, "Bless-ed," and means that God is full of Grace, and actually the dispenser of Grace; the great Redemption had long been a promise; now it is to be a reality!),

69 And has raised up an Horn of Salvation for us in the house of His servant David ("an Horn of Salvation" is another name given to Christ by the Holy Spirit);

70 As He spoke by the mouth of his Holy Prophets, which have been since the world began (this began with Gen. 3:15):

71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all who hate us (proclaims Salvation by Grace, but as well to Israel, and will be fulfilled at the Second Coming);

72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember His Holy Covenant (Jesus is the bearer of that "Mercy," actually He is Mercy!);

73 The oath which He swore to our father Abraham (this "Oath" is found in Gen. 12:3; 17:4; 22:16-17),

74 That He would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve Him without fear (pertains to Salvation and, as well, to the coming Kingdom Age),

75 In Holiness and Righteousness before Him, all the days of our life (will totally be fulfilled in the coming Kingdom Age).

76 And you, child (John the Baptist), shall be called the Prophet of the Highest: for you shall go before the Face of the Lord to prepare His ways (John the Baptist would be the forerunner of the King about Whom the Prophets had written)*;

77 To give knowledge of Salvation unto His people by the remission of their sins (which would be done by Jesus going to the Cross),

78 Through the tender Mercy of our God; whereby the Dayspring from on high has visited us (another name for Christ, "The Dayspring from on High"),

79 To give light to them who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace (Jesus is the Light of the world).

80 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit (in the ways of the Lord), and was in the deserts till the day of his showing unto Israel (he remained there until he was thirty years of age, before beginning his Ministry, which was the fulfilling of the Law [Num. 4:3]).

CHAPTER 2

THE BIRTH OF JESUS CHRIST

[1] And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus (Caius Octavius, the adopted son and successor of Julius Caesar, reigned 29 B.C. to A.D. 14) that all the world should be taxed (a figure of speech; a whole is put for a part; it was only the part of the world of which it spoke).

[2] (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) (This Verse should have been translated, "This census was before Cyrenius was Governor of Syria.")

[3] And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

[4] And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:) (It was a distance of about 80 miles.)

[5] To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child (the trip must have been very difficult for her).

[6] And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered (this concerned the most important delivery of a baby in human history; God would become flesh, and offer up Himself on the Cross as a Perfect Sacrifice in order to deliver humanity).

[7] And she brought forth her Firstborn Son (this is meant to emphasize the fact that there were no other children up to this time; as well, it refutes the error of the Catholic Church, which claims that Mary, thereafter, had no other children, and remained a Virgin throughout her life; actually, Jesus had four brothers, "James, Joseph, Simon, and Jude," as well as two or three sisters [Mat. 13:55-56]), and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes, and laid Him in a manger (spoke of a feeding place for animals); because there was no room for them in the inn (the Inn of Bethlehem was of ancient duration, being mentioned in Jer. 41:17; this type of "Inn" was for the poorest of the poor, and offered little more than the shelter of its walls and roof).

THE ANGELIC ANNOUNCEMENT

8 And there were in the same country (referred to the area around Bethlehem) shepherds abiding in the field (pertained to the lowest caste in society at that time), keeping watch over their flock by night (gives indication that December 25 th was not the day on which Jesus was born; it was the custom to send flocks out after the Passover, which was in April, to stay until the first rain in October or November).

9 And, lo, the Angel of the Lord came upon them (proclaims the fact that the Birth of the Lord was not announced to the notables of Israel, but rather to obscure shepherds), and the Glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid (this was the visible token of the presence of the Eternal, which appeared first in the bush before Moses, and then in the pillar of fire and cloud, which guided the desert wanderings, and then in the Tabernacle and the Temple).

10 And the Angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people (includes all races).

11 For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord (this Baby was not to become a King and a Saviour — He was born both).

12 And this shall be a sign unto you; You shall find the Baby wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the Angel a multitude of the Heavenly Host praising God, and saying (many other Angels had been with the Angel who spoke to the shepherds, but now the shepherds can see them as well; this presents sinless Angels praising God for sending the Redeemer; if they did so, certainly we should as well), 14 Glory to God in the highest, and on Earth peace, good will toward men (Jesus is that "Peace"; during His approximate 33 years of life on this Earth, the Roman Empire was relatively at peace; it was because the Prince of Peace was here; peace will not return until Jesus returns).

THE SHEPHERDS

15 And it came to pass, as the Angels were gone away from them into Heaven, the Shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord has made known unto us (proclaims one of the greatest honors in the whole of human history; the Lord would dispatch Angels only to these lowly shepherds in exclusion of all others).

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph (means they had to do a small amount of searching), and the baby lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it (should have been translated, "and when they had seen Him"; theirs were the first human eyes to see Jesus after His Birth, other than His foster Father and His Mother), they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this Child (they were the first Preachers to proclaim His Birth, as Mary Magdalene was the first to proclaim His Resurrection).

18 And all they who heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart (means that she thought about them almost constantly, and no wonder!).

20 And the shepherds returned (to their flocks), glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them (this proclaims the fact that these men truly knew the Lord, hence, at least one of the reasons that the Angels appeared to them).

THE NAMING OF JESUS

[21] And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the Child (this was according to the Law of Moses; it is said that the blood did not properly coagulate in the little baby boy until he was eight days old), His Name was called JESUS (meaning Saviour), which was so named of the Angel before He was conceived in the womb.

THE PRESENTATION

[22] And when the days of her purification according to the Law of Moses were accomplished (speaks of forty days after the Birth of Jesus; it was eighty days in the case of a daughter [Lev. 12:1-6]), they brought Him to Jerusalem, to present Him to the Lord (all the firstborn of the boy babies belonged to the Lord, and were to be presented to Him as a token of His rightful claim to them [Num. 3:44; 18:15]);

[23] (As it is written in the Law of the Lord, Every male that opens the womb shall be called Holy to the Lord;) (refers to the firstborn only).

[24] And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the Law of the Lord (Lev. 12:8), A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons (proclaimed that which could be offered in place of a "lamb," providing the offerer could not afford the lamb; this tells us that Mary and Joseph were poor, at least as far as this world's goods were concerned; it also tells us that Mary was not sinless, as claimed by the Catholic Church; if so, she would not have had to offer these Sacrifices for her impurity).

THE PROPHECY OF SIMEON

[25] And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel (is a term describing the Coming and Ministry of the Messiah): and the Holy Spirit was upon him (he was being led by the Spirit).

[26] And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ (consequently, each day he was anticipating this great event).

[27] And he came by the Spirit into the Temple (the Spirit of the Lord had pressed upon him strongly that at this particular time he was to go to the Temple): and when the parents (Joseph and Mary) brought in the Child Jesus, to do for Him after the custom of the Law (Jesus was made of woman under the Law [Gal. 4:4]; the Law is mentioned five times in this Chapter, and so confirms the statement in Galatians; to save man justly doomed to death by the Law, it was necessary that Christ should be born under the Law),

[28] Then took he Him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said (proclaims Simeon the first on record to have "handled the Word of Life," other than Mary and Joseph),

[29] Lord, now let Thou Thy servant depart in peace, according to Your Word (indicates that it had been a number of years since the Lord had revealed to Simeon that he would actually see "the Lord's Christ"):

[30] For my eyes have seen Your Salvation (Simeon didn't have to ask Mary Who the Child was; he recognized Him at once by inspiration as Jehovah's Anointed; Jesus is Salvation, and Salvation is Jesus),

[31] Which You have prepared before the face of all people (opens the door of Salvation to every human being on the face of the Earth, regardless of color, nationality, or country);

[32] A light to lighten the Gentiles (once again, the Holy Spirit includes all people), and the glory of Your people Israel (regrettably, Israel would not accept Him).

[33] And Joseph and His Mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of Him (if it is to be noticed, the Holy Spirit through Luke wrote

"Joseph and His Mother," and not "His Father and Mother"; the reason is obvious! Joseph was only His foster Father, so to speak).

34 And Simeon blessed them (refers only to Joseph and Mary, and not Jesus; while Christ blesses all, none are qualified to bless Christ; sometimes the word, "blessed," is used in the sense of "praise," which then becomes not only acceptable, but desirable), and said unto Mary His mother, Behold, this Child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel (according to the acceptance or rejection of Christ); and for a sign which shall be spoken against (men who have agreed in nothing else have agreed in hating Christ);

35 (Yes, a sword shall pierce through your own soul also,) (pertained to the rejection of Jesus' Ministry by the religious leaders of Israel, and ultimately His Crucifixion on the Cross) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed (presents the purpose of the Gospel of Christ; Mary's own heart, being carnal as all others, had to come under the rays of this great light, and her soul had to feel the piercing of the Divine Sword of the Word of God; she was indeed blessed as the chosen Vessel of the Incarnation, but all women who follow Jesus are as blessed [Lk. 11:27]).

THE ADORATION OF ANNA

36 And there was one Anna, a Prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel (presents this dear lady as a Preacher of the Gospel; in the Bible the first woman to Prophesy was Rachel, even though she is not called a Prophetess [Gen. 30:24]), of the Tribe of Aser (refers to the Tribe of Asher): she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity (means that her husband died seven years after they were married, and she never remarried);

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years (it had been eighty-four years since her husband had died; consequently, she was well over one hundred years old), which departed not from the Temple (she had literally lived in the Temple, probably being provided a small room or chamber, and was assigned some small tasks), but served God with fastings and prayers night and day (notes her wonderful consecration to the Lord).

38 And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord (proclaims the fact that the Holy Spirit revealed unto her that this Child was indeed the Messiah), and spoke of Him to all them who looked for redemption in Jerusalem (she related to all her experience at seeing the Child, and the Lord had revealed to her that He was the Messiah; they both, Simeon and Anna, loved the Courts of Jehovah's House, and He met them there).

39 And when they had performed all things according to the Law of the Lord (referred to the Law of Moses), they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth (Luke does not mention the visit of the Wise men, or the flight into Egypt as Matthew does not mention the shepherds).

40 And the Child grew, and waxed strong in spirit (Jesus did not have a sin nature, so this means that He was never sick, and neither did He ever sin), filled with wisdom (there is every evidence that Jesus began studying the Bible from the time He learned to read): and the Grace of God was upon Him (the Goodness of God).

JESUS AS A BOY

41 Now His parents went to Jerusalem every year at the Feast of the Passover (the word, "went" means that they were accustomed to going, for they were Godly people).

42 And when He (Jesus) was twelve years old (refers to the age at which every Jewish boy became "a son of the Law"), they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the Feast (Jerusalem was where the Feast was held and, in fact, must be held).

43 And when they had fulfilled the days (pertained to seven days, which actually incorporated three Feasts: The Feast of Passover, the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and the Feast of Firstfruits), as they returned (were leaving Jerusalem to go to Nazareth), the Child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem (at twelve years of age, every Jewish boy from henceforth was treated as an Adult, which meant that there was now much less supervision than had previously been); and Joseph and His mother knew not of it (Joseph and Mary were not being lax in their supervision; they were treating Jesus as an adult, which the custom then demanded, and felt that He would join up with them at a given point).

44 But they, supposing Him to have been in the company (with another group going to Nazareth), went a day's journey (again, this was the custom in those days, with all groups headed to a certain destination, meeting at a particular point, and then going together); and they sought Him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

45 And when they found Him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking Him (refers to a diligent search; it also speaks of concern and anxiety).

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found Him in the Temple (probably refers to the third day after originally leaving Jerusalem; they spent the first day traveling from Jerusalem to the designated meeting point; upon not finding Jesus, they then journeyed back to Jerusalem the next day; on the third day, they found Him in the Temple), sitting in the midst of the doctors (included the most famous Bible Scholars of that day), both hearing them, and asking them questions (what a sight this must have been, these most famous doctors of the Mosaic Law with this twelve-year-old Boy sitting in their midst, and with most of the attention directed toward Him; it is believed that Nicodemus was in this group).

47 And all who heard Him were astonished at His understanding and answers (the word, "astonished" in the Greek Text refers to amazement to such an extent that one is beside oneself; in truth, His "understanding and answers" were far beyond that of these learned Doctors).

48 And when they saw Him, they were amazed (referring to His parents): and His mother said unto Him, Son, why have you thus dealt with us? (The possibility does exist that the Holy Spirit had Jesus to do this purposely, in order to awaken Mary and Joseph to His true Mission and Purpose, even though it would not truly begin until He was thirty years of age.) behold, Your Father and I have sought You sorrowing (Mary used the phrase, "Your Father," and Jesus gently reminded her in the next Verse Who His Father actually was; legally, Joseph was His Father, but only in the foster sense).

49 And He said unto them, How is it that you sought Me? (He gently reminded them that they should have known Who He was, and His Mission.) wist you not that I must be about My Father's business? (This was His first recorded utterance; with the words, "It is finished," His last recorded utterance before His Crucifixion [Jn. 19:30], which means He Finished the Father's Business.)

50 And they understood not the saying which He spoke unto them (they should have understood!).

51 And He went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them (concerns the next eighteen years): but His mother kept all these sayings in her heart (refers to all that pertained to Jesus).

52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man (this means that He perfectly kept the Law of God, and did perfectly the Will of God).

CHAPTER 3

JOHN THE BAPTIST

[1] Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar (the stepson of the Emperor Augustus, whom he succeeded; he reigned from 14 B.C. to A.D. 37, consequently covering the entire span of Jesus' Life and Ministry), Pontius Pilate being Governor of Judaea, and Herod being Tetrarch of Galilee (he was known as "Antipas"; he was a son of Herod the Great, and reigned for more than forty years), and his brother Philip Tetrarch of Ituraea and of the region of Trachonitis (the area northeast of the Sea of Galilee, which included Caesarea Philippi, which was actually built by him), and Lysa nias the Tetrarch of Abilene (referred to the district now known as southern Lebanon; the title "Tetrarch" meant "ruler of a fourth part," but actually came to be used of all Governors).

[2] Annas and Caiaphas being the High Priests (the High Priests were supposed to be descendants of Aaron; however, the office was now controlled by Rome, with both men now serving somewhat in this capacity), the Word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness (it was now time for John to begin his Ministry)**.

[3] And he came into all the country about Jordan (the location of his Ministry centered around the Jordan River), preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins (he was preaching personal Repentance which guaranteed remission of sins, which was to be followed by Water Baptism)**;

[4] As it is written in the Book of the words of Isaiah the Prophet (Isa. 40:3-5), saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness (John's Ministry was predicted by Isaiah some 800 years before), Prepare you the Way of the Lord, make His paths straight (Israel must come in line with the Word of God, inasmuch as the Messiah is about to be introduced).

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth (concerns a proper interpretation of the Word of God, which produces proper lives);

6 And all flesh shall see the Salvation of God (all Israel would see the Lord Jesus Christ, their Messiah, Who is the "Salvation of God").

7 Then said he to the multitude who came forth to be baptized of him (Water Baptism in this fashion, was new to Israel), O generation of vipers (this is what the Holy Spirit through John said of the Israel of that time), who has warned you to flee from the wrath to come? (Wrath is guaranteed to come on all Christ rejecters; this means that one can flee that wrath only by accepting Christ.)

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance (in effect, says that Water Baptism would do them no good unless there had first been Repentance, and if there was true Repentance, fruits would be evident), and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father (there is no such thing as a national salvation): for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham (proclaims John striking boldly at the very root of Jewish pride).

9 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees (the "trees" spoke of Israel, and the "axe" spoke of the Judgment of God; it did not say that the axe was then severing the roots, but that it was poised to do so, that is if Repentance was not forthcoming): every tree therefore which brings not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire (this is a Law of God that applies to every individual person).

10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then? (We come again, as will be obvious, to the Fruits of Repentance.)

11 He answered and said unto them, He who has two coats, let him impart to him who has none; and he who has meat, let him do likewise

(John's answer has no reference to the doing of these things as the cause of Salvation, but rather the result).

12 Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do? (Publicans were tax-collectors, in a sense employees of Rome and, thereby, looked at as traitors by Israel as a whole; most didn't even believe that publicans could be saved.)

13 And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you (we find here that John treated the publicans no different than he did the Pharisees, who claimed to be so religious; the message was the same to all).

14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? (Israel had no army, so these could very well have been Gentiles.) And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages (these men, both publicans and soldiers, are not bidden by the inspired Prophet of the Highest to change their way of life, but only its manner).

JOHN'S PREDICTION OF JESUS

15 And as the people were in expectation (proclaims the fact that all of Israel at that time were looking for the Messiah), and all men mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ, or not (had they known the Word, they would have known better);

16 John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water (the best that mortal man can do, even one as holy as John the Baptist); but One mightier than I comes (only the Almighty can set men free), the latchet of Whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose (presents the humility of John, and the humility demanded of all): He shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire (this was made possible by the Cross, and was fulfilled according to Acts 2:4, with untold millions having received this experience):

17 Whose fan is in His hand (the fan used to blow the chaff away from the wheat)*, and He will thoroughly purge His floor (will separate the chaff from the wheat, which is a violent process), and will gather the wheat into His garner (the wheat alone is accepted); but the chaff He will burn with fire unquenchable (all that's not of God will be consigned to Hell).

[18] And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people (preaching was God's Way then, and preaching is God's Way now).

[19] But Herod the Tetrarch, being reproved by him (by John the Baptist) for Herodias his brother Philip's wife (Herod had taken Philip's wife for himself), and for all the evils which Herod had done (an evil depraved man), [20] Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison (the Holy Spirit says that this was the worst thing Herod did; he put his hand on the Lord's anointed).

JOHN BAPTIZES JESUS

[21] Now when all the people were baptized (were being baptized), it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized (this was to testify of His Death, Burial, and Resurrection, of which Water Baptism is a Type), and praying (as He came up out of the water, He came up praying), the Heaven was opened (Heaven had been closed to man since the Fall; through Jesus it would now open),

[22] And the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily shape like a Dove upon Him (the Holy Spirit is a Person, the Third Person of the Godhead, separate from the Father and the Son), and a Voice came from Heaven, which said (the Voice of God the Father), You are My Beloved Son (literally, "as for You," in contradistinction to all others); in You I am well pleased (God is pleased with us, only as long as we are in Christ).

THE GENEALOGY OF JESUS

[23] And Jesus Himself began to be about thirty years of age (at this age a Priest entered into his Office [Num. 4:3]; Jesus is our Great High Priest), being (as was supposed) (should have been translated, "being by legal adoption") the son of Joseph, which was the son of Heli (Joseph was the son of Jacob [Mat. 1:16] by birth and the son of Heli by marriage; it was ordained in Num., Chpt. 36 that the man who married the daughter of a father having no son became the son of that father and inherited his property),

24 Which was the son of Matthat, which was the son of Levi, which was the son of Melchi, which was the son of Janna, which was the son of Joseph,

25 Which was the son of Mattathias, which was the son of Amos, which was the son of Naum, which was the son of Esli, which was the son of Nagge,

26 Which was the son of Maath, which was the son of Mattathias, which was the son of Semei, which was the son of Joseph, which was the son of Juda,

27 Which was the son of Joanna, which was the son of Rhesa, which was the son of Zorobabel, which was the son of Salathiel, which was the son of Neri,

28 Which was the son of Melchi, which was the son of Addi, which was the son of Cosam, which was the son of Elmodam, which was the son of Er,

29 Which was the son of Jose, which was the son of Eliezer, which was the son of Jorim, which was the son of Matthat, which was the son of Levi,

30 Which was the son of Simeon, which was the son of Juda, which was the son of Joseph, which was the son of Jonan, which was the son of Eliakim,

31 Which was the son of Melea, which was the son of Menan, which was the son of Mattatha, which was the son of Nathan, which was the son of

David,

[32] Which was the son of Jesse, which was the son of Obed, which was the son of Booz (Boaz), which was the son of Salmon, which was the son of Naasson,

[33] Which was the son of Aminadab, which was the son of Aram, which was the son of Esrom, which was the son of Phares, which was the son of Juda,

[34] Which was the son of Jacob, which was the son of Isaac, which was the son of Abraham, which was the son of Thara, which was the son of Nachor,

[35] Which was the son of Saruch, which was the son of Ragau, which was the son of Phalec, which was the son of Heber, which was the son of Sala,

[36] Which was the son of Cainan, which was the son of Arphaxad, which was the son of Sem (Shem), which was the son of Noe (Noah), which was the son of Lamech,

[37] Which was the son of Mathusala (Methuselah), which was the son of Enoch, which was the son of Jared, which was the son of Maleleel, which was the son of Cainan, [38] Which was the son of Enos, which was the son of Seth, which was the son of Adam, which was the Son of God (was a son of God by creation, and not by the Born-Again experience; it was the intention of God that humanity bring sons and daughters of God into the world, which they could do by procreation; however, due to the Fall, children cannot be born in the likeness of God, but rather in the likeness of Adam, i.e., the sinful nature; as wonderful as being in the genealogy of Christ was, some, if not many, of these individuals were not saved; and, in fact, some of them were ungodly; this proves that Salvation does not come by inheritance or genealogy; it comes only by accepting Christ as one's Saviour [Jn. 3:16]).

CHAPTER 4

THE TEMPTATION OF JESUS

[1] And Jesus being full of the Holy Spirit (in Christ's case, He received the Spirit without measure [Jn. 3:34; Acts 10:38]) returned from Jordan (His Water Baptism), and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness (speaks of great urgency by the Spirit)**,

[2] Being forty days tempted of the devil (refers to being tempted for the entirety of this time; "forty" is God's number for probation). And in those days He did eat nothing (speaks of Him fasting for forty days and nights): and when they were ended, He afterward hungered (some claim that God suspended hunger during these forty days and nights regarding Christ, but that is not so; Jesus suffered hunger exactly as we do)**.

[3] And the devil said unto Him (Satan is a fallen Angel, who led a revolution against God in eternity past; he is at least one of the most powerful Angels ever created by God, and served God in righteousness and holiness for an undetermined period of time before his Fall [Isa., Chpt. 14; Ezek., Chpt. 28]), If You be the Son of God (should have been translated, "since You are the Son of God"), command this stone that it be made bread (the temptation was that Jesus use His Power for personal gratification, which was outside the Will of God)**.

[4] And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every Word of God ([Deut. 8:3], Jesus answered Satan's temptation with the Word; merely quoting it will not garner the same results; Jesus also said, "you shall know the Truth, and the Truth shall make you free" [Jn. 8:32])**.

[5] And the Devil, taking Him up into an high mountain (constitutes that which was literally done, at least as it regards the mountain), showed unto Him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time (this was not literally, but rather was done by suggestion).

6 And the Devil said unto Him, All this power will I give You, and the glory of them (proclaims Satan's method of operation; he has captured many by the offer of a part of the glory of earthly dominion): for that is delivered unto me (referred back to the Garden of Eden when Satan gained such authority because of the default of Adam and Eve); and to whomsoever I will I give it (makes Satan the pseudo-ruler of this world [Jn. 12:31; II Cor. 4:4; Eph. 2:1-3; Rev. 13:2, 7]; however, even then his authority is limited, with the Lord actually having the final say in everything).

7 If You therefore will worship me, all shall be Yours (was a lie; but yet, the world has fallen for this lie from the beginning of time; Satan was attempting to have Christ gain the world without going through the Cross; he is still proposing the same, and mostly going through the Church to do such; every Believer is an "heir of the world," but only through the Cross [Rom. 4:13]).

8 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind Me, Satan: for it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only shall you serve ([Deut. 6:13; 10:20], the answer given by Christ addresses itself to worship, as the first addressed itself to desire; men desire the wrong thing, the opposite of the Word of God, and worship the wrong thing, that proposed by Satan).

9 And he (Satan) brought Him (Jesus) to Jerusalem, and set Him on a pinnacle of the Temple (seems to have been literally done, meaning that it was not a vision), and said unto Him, If You be the Son of God (since You are the Son of God), cast Yourself down from hence:

10 For it is written, He shall give His Angels charge over You, to keep You (a misquote from Psalms 91:11-12; the correct quotation is, "to keep you in all Your ways," which refers to the "Ways of God"; protection is guaranteed under those circumstances, but not as Satan said):

11 And in their hands they shall bear You up, lest at any time You dash Your foot against a stone (Satan again misquoted the Text by adding the words "at any time," which changes the meaning altogether; this tells us that Satan knows the Word very well, and to his own advantage subtly changes it to make it say something it originally did not say; as well, if one is to notice, Satan didn't quote the Thirteenth Verse in the 91 st Psalm, for it predicts his destruction by the Lord Jesus Christ).

12 And Jesus answering said unto him, It is said, You shall not tempt the Lord your God (expresses the sin of presumption; presumption is an attitude or belief dictated by probability; in other words, God's Word is not probable, but certain).

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from Him for a season (means that he would return, which he no doubt did again and again; the implication is that Jesus was tempted by Satan throughout His Ministry).

14 And Jesus returned in the Power of the Spirit into Galilee (there is no power without the Holy Spirit): and there went out a fame of Him through all the region round about (concerned all the miracles being performed, which actually began with the changing of the water to wine at Cana [Jn. 2:1-11]).

NAZARETH

15 And He taught in their Synagogues, being glorified of all (this was the beginning; it would soon change).

16 And He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up (makes vivid the fact that Jesus was Very Man, even as He was Very God): and, as His custom was (in our language presently He was faithful to Church), He went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up for to read (it was common to ask visitors to expound on the Word).

17 And there was delivered unto Him the Book (Scroll) of the Prophet Isaiah. And when He had opened the Book, He found the place where it was written (Isa. 61:1)**,

[18] The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me (we learn here of the absolute necessity of the Person and Work of the Holy Spirit within our lives), because He has anointed Me (Jesus is the ultimate Anointed One; consequently, the Anointing of the Holy Spirit actually belongs to Christ, and the Anointing we have actually comes by His Authority [Jn. 16:14]) to preach the Gospel to the poor (the poor in spirit); He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted (sin breaks the heart, or else is responsible for it being broken; only Jesus can heal this malady), to preach Deliverance to the captives (if it is to be noticed, He didn't say to "deliver the captives," but rather "preach Deliverance," which refers to the Cross [Jn. 8:32]), and recovering of sight to the blind (the Gospel opens the eyes of those who are Spiritually blind), to set at liberty them who are bruised (the vicissitudes of life at times place a person in a mental or Spiritual prison; the Lord Alone, and through what He did at the Cross, can open this prison door),

[19] To preach the acceptable Year of the Lord (it is believed that the day, on which Jesus delivered this Message was the first day of the year of Jubilee)**.

[20] And He closed the book, and He gave it again to the Minister, and sat down (portrays the custom of that time). And the eyes of all them who were in the Synagogue were fastened on Him (even though most there would fail to see it, this represented a moment far exceeding anything these people had ever known).

[21] And He began to say unto them, This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your ears (in effect, He is saying, "I am the Messiah," the fulfillment of these Scriptures)**.

[22] And all bear Him witness (all understood exactly what He said, but all did not believe Him), and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of His mouth (means that we are given only a small portion of the things He actually said). And they said, Is not this Joseph's Son? (This refers to the fact that they could not equate these "gracious words" with the carpenter they had known for about thirty years.)

[23] And He said unto them, You will surely say unto Me this Proverb, Physician, heal Yourself (how could this carpenter be the Messiah?): whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in your country (perform the same miracles; but they would give him no opportunity to do so).

[24] And He said, Verily I say unto you, No Prophet is accepted in his own country (He predicts their unbelief).

[25] But I tell you of a truth (will proclaim in no uncertain terms Israel's problem of self-righteousness resulting from pride), many widows were in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the Heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land (proclaims the time of Ahab, and the great wickedness concerning the northern kingdom of Israel);

[26] But unto none of them was Elijah sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman who was a widow (she was a Gentile as well).

[27] And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Elisha the Prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian (another Gentile).

[28] And all they in the Synagogue, when they heard these words, were filled with wrath (incensed that He would hold up two Gentiles as examples of receiving from the Lord, while the Jews were shut out; He, in effect, was telling them that this is what would happen to Israel; the Gentiles would receive Him but Israel would refuse Him; "wrath" is generally the response of unbelief),

[29] And rose up, and thrust Him out of the city (means that they bodily seized Him, taking Him by force out of the Synagogue and out of the city; this was their response to their own Messiah, God's only Son, and their only Saviour), and led Him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast Him down headlong (presents Nazareth, His Own village, as the first to seek His Death).

30 But He passing through the midst of them went His way (did so by the Power of God, and left never to return),

HEALINGS AND DELIVERANCE

31 And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee (this would be His Home and Headquarters for the entirety of His Ministry of some three and one half years), and taught them on the Sabbath days (in their Synagogues).

32 And they were astonished at His doctrine (had to do with the manner in which He explained the Scriptures): for His Word was with power (pertained to the Anointing of the Holy Spirit, which they had never experienced before).

33 And in the Synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil (demon), and cried out with a loud voice (the voice of this demon spirit using the vocal cords of the man), 34 Saying, Let us alone (refers to the fact that Jesus Alone has power over these spirits of darkness); what have we to do with You, Thou Jesus of Nazareth? (This portrays the total separation of the spirit world of Light from the spirit world of darkness.) Are You come to destroy us? I know You Who You are; the Holy One of God (knowing Who He was, they also knew that He had come to destroy their kingdom of darkness).

35 And Jesus rebuked him (rebuked the evil spirit in the man), saying, Hold your peace (shut up), and come out of him (a command that had to be obeyed). And when the devil had thrown him in the midst (threw him down), he came out of him, and hurt him not (meaning that he was commanded by the Lord to do no damage upon his exit).

36 And they were all amazed, and spoke among themselves, saying, What a word is this! (presents that which they had never before seen) for with authority and power He Commands the unclean spirits, and they come out (they recognized His "Authority" and "Power").

37 And the fame of Him went out into every place of the country round about.

PETER'S MOTHER-IN-LAW

38 And He arose out of the Synagogue, and entered into Simon's house (this was His headquarters during the three and one half years of His public Ministry). And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever (was life threatening); and they besought Him for her (asked Him to heal her).

39 And He stood over her, and rebuked the fever (indicates that this was an evil spirit causing the fever); and it left her (the spirit left along with the sickness): and immediately she arose and ministered unto them (speaks of an instant recovery, with her probably helping to prepare an evening meal).

CASTING OUT DEMONS

40 Now when the sun was setting (meaning the Sabbath was ending; each new day in Jewish reckoning at that time began at the setting of the sun, where ours begin at midnight), all they who had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto Him; and He laid His hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 And devils (demons) also came out of many, crying out (speaks of deliverances other than healings), and saying, You are Christ the Son of God (speaks of these spirits having personalities and intelligence; they knew who He was, even though the religious leaders of Israel didn't). And He rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that He was Christ (He wanted no testimony from them).

42 And when it was day (insinuates that He Ministered all night long), He departed and went into a desert place (He desired a place of solitude for privacy): and the people sought Him, and came unto Him, and stayed Him, that He should not depart from them (they desired that He spend all

His Time in Capernaum and not go elsewhere).

43 And He said unto them, I must Preach the Kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore Am I sent (modern thought belittles Preaching and exalts ceremony; the Eternal Son of God was wholly a Preacher; this fact, and the opposition of Satan to Preaching, demonstrates its importance).

44 And He Preached in the Synagogues of Galilee.

CHAPTER 5

(A.D. 31)

A BORROWED SHIP

[1] And it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon Him to hear the Word of God, He stood by the lake of Gennesaret (the Sea of Galilee),

[2] And saw two ships standing by the lake (two among the many): but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets (Peter, Andrew, James, and John had fished all night and caught nothing).

[3] And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's (proclaims Him borrowing this vessel to serve as a platform or pulpit), and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And He sat down (the custom then), and taught the people out of the ship.

THE MIRACLE

[4] Now when He had left speaking (had finished preaching and teaching), He said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught (came as a surprise to these fishermen; they had fished all night and caught nothing, so they must have wondered as to what He was doing; in effect, He will pay for the use of the boat; God will owe man nothing).

[5] And Simon answering said unto Him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at Your Word I will let down the net (the idea is that Peter would not have bothered himself to have let down the net on the word of anyone else other than Jesus).

[6] And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net broke (so many fish that it broke the net).

7 And they beckoned unto their partners (Peter and Andrew beckoned to James and John), which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink (Christ had the same power over the fish of the sea as He had over the frogs, lice, and locusts of Egypt).

8 When Simon Peter saw it (proclaims the effect of this lesson is not to give Simon high thoughts of himself, but low thoughts; such is ever the effect of a manifestation of Divine Power and Grace upon the conscience of fallen man), he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord (proclaims this miracle revealing the hidden unbelief of Simon's heart, for without a doubt, when casting the nets he said to himself: "we shall catch nothing").

9 For he was astonished, and all who were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth you shall catch men (the first recorded instance of Jesus using the words, "fear not," with His Disciples; His statement elevated them to being fishers of men, and constituted their call to Discipleship, and as Apostles).

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed Him (means they immediately did so).

JESUS HEALS A LEPER

12 And it came to pass, when He was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy (the man was in the last stages of leprosy, actually close to death): who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought Him, saying, Lord, if You will, You can make me clean (he expressed doubt about the willingness of Jesus, rather than His Power; many Jews at that time, knowing that leprosy was a type of sin, didn't even believe that a leper could be Saved; hence, the statement of this leper concerning the willingness of Christ to cleanse Him).

13 And He put forth His hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean (His answer and action forever settled the question of God's Will regarding the healing of the sick). And immediately the leprosy departed from him (the Greek structure of the sentence proclaims the fact that it was Jesus' Word which healed the man, so when He touched him, healing had already been effected).

14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and show yourself to the Priest, and offer for your cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them (this concerned the Law of the cleansing of the Leper [Lev., Chpt. 14]).

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of Him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by Him of their infirmities.

16 And He withdrew Himself into the wilderness, and prayed (if Jesus had to pray, what about us?!).

HEALING AND FORGIVENESS

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as He was teaching, that there were Pharisees and Doctors of the Law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judaea, and Jerusalem (now the great opposition will begin): and the power of the Lord was present to heal them (the implication is that sick people were being healed without Jesus even addressing their sicknesses or infirmities; the Spirit of God emanating from Him overwhelmed the sicknesses and diseases; in other words, His mere Presence brought healing).

18 And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy (four men as Mark testified; the man had a type of "paralysis"): and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before Him (the place was so thronged with people that they could not get into the house).

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop (houses are normally flat on top in that part of the world), and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus (they probably enlarged a trap door that was in the ceiling).

20 And when He saw their faith (true Faith always has action), He said unto him, Man, your sins are forgiven you (indicates that the wretched physical condition of the sick man was due to his sinful life; yet, Jesus treated him with the utmost of kindness).

21 And the Scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone? (There was a hostile atmosphere in the room, and our Lord sensed it. What they thought in their hearts was expressed on their faces, and in their actions, and very personalities.)

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts (the Holy Spirit revealed to Him what they were thinking), He answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts? (He not only could forgive sins, but He could read the minds of individuals as the Holy Spirit revealed it to Him, proving that He was also God.)

23 Whether is easier, to say, Your sins be forgiven you; or to say, Rise up and walk? (The idea of the question as posed by Christ is that God Alone could do both, "forgive and heal.")

24 But that you may know that the Son of Man has power upon earth to forgive sins (to prove that power), (He said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto you, Arise, and take up Your couch, and go into your house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them (implying that he could not do so previously), and took up that whereon he lay (carried his own bed), and departed to his own house, Glorifying God (he had come sick, unable to walk, and left healed and well; no wonder he Glorified God).

26 And they were all amazed (the Truth was incontestable), and they Glorified God (insinuating that even the Scribes and Pharisees did so), and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things today (in fact, they had seen what no human beings had ever before seen).

JESUS CALLS MATTHEW

[27] And after these things He went forth, and saw a Publican (a tax-collector), named Levi (Matthew), sitting at the receipt of custom (this was a lucrative occupation, but one despised by the Jews; in other words, they hated tax-collectors because they represented Rome; the task was so odious that most Publicans hired others to physically collect the taxes; but it seemed that Matthew little cared what people thought of him): and He (Jesus) said unto him (Matthew), Follow Me (it was not in Indian-file nature, with one following another, but a side by side walk down the same road).

[28] And he left all, rose up, and followed Him (he left his tax-collector's position, and did so immediately).

[29] And Levi made Him (Jesus) a great feast in his own house (speaks of the fact that Matthew was a person of consideration and position): and there was a great company of Publicans and of others who sat down with them (speaks of a group of people who were probably not even allowed in the Synagogues).

THE PHARISEES

[30] But their Scribes (were supposed to be expert in the Law of Moses) and Pharisees (the fundamentalist religious party in Israel) murmured against His Disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with Publicans and sinners? (They would not have even remotely considered having a meal with any of these people, much less treating them in a friendly fashion.)

[31] And Jesus answering said unto them, They who are whole need not a physician; but they who are sick (the association with "Publicans and sinners" was not the Pharisees' problem, but rather their black hearts, which were more wicked in the sight of God even than the ones whom they were condemning).

32 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance (in other words, the very reason I have come is for these people you are condemning).

FASTING

33 And they said unto Him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees (this question was probably asked by the disciples of John the Baptist); but yours eat and drink? (This referred to the Disciples of Jesus in comparison to the disciples of John.)

34 And He said unto them, Can you make the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? (The object of all that is done by the Believer, whether it be fasting or feasting, is Jesus. He Alone is the focal point of all. The fasting done previously under the Old Covenant was in relationship to His Coming, which speaks of the First Advent because, as is obvious, He was not with them at that time. He is now with them, so there is no need for fasting, at least at that particular time.)

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom (Christ) shall be taken away from them (Believers), and then shall they fast in those days (it refers to the period of time of the Church Age, which has lasted now for about 2,000 years; while the reasons for fasting are varied and many, the main reason of all pertains to Him not being here, which involves many things; when He comes back, joy, prosperity, and feasting will then be the order of the entirety of the world).

36 And He spoke also a Parable unto them; No man puts a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new makes a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agrees not with the old (the New Covenant is to be complete within itself, and not a part of the Old; in other words, the New Covenant cannot be patched onto the Old Covenant).

37 And no man puts new wine into old bottles (wineskins); else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish (to try to attach the New Covenant to the Old would destroy both Covenants).

38 But new wine (New Covenant) must be put into new bottles (new skins); and both are preserved (the "new wine" is the New Covenant; the "new bottles" constitute the Church; this means that Judaism will have no place whatsoever in Christianity, even though the roots of Christianity are definitely in Judaism).
