[2] And he came up, and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines: now therefore get her for me to wife. (Samson's history illustrates the tendency of the Christian to fall at any moment from the position of whole-hearted separation unto God into all that in which the world finds its joy and strength. We find here that while God made use of Samson's marriage to a Philistine in order to punish that people, still, that did not excuse Samson's folly and disobedience. The Law of God said that there was to be no marriage with the heathen; therefore, had he yielded himself unto God, and his members as instruments of righteousness [Rom. 6:13], how much greater and more glorious would have been the victories granted to him!)

[3] Then his father and his mother said unto him, Is there never a woman among the daughters of your brethren, or among all my people, that you go to take a wife of the uncircumcised Philistines? And Samson said unto his father, Get her for me; for she pleases me well.

[4] But his father and his mother knew not that it was of the LORD, that He sought an occasion against the Philistines: for at that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel. (Concerning this, Williams says, "The depths of Satan may be recognized in his action toward Israel in connection with the Philistines. The other nations 'mightily oppressed' Israel, but it is not stated that the Philistines did so. They simply 'ruled' Israel; and so insensible had Israel become to slavery that they accepted this yoke. This is the sad history of many a Christian life. Bondage to some inward form of evil is submitted to, its rule accepted, and spiritual insensibility results.

"Satan, therefore, introduced this new form of rule and bondage as distinct from the former violence and cruelty; and Samson's countrymen were satisfied with it. He, therefore, could not get them to join him in a general revolt, as was the case with former Judges; and, therefore, it was necessary that a private cause of quarrel should arise. Samson's proposed marriage furnished such an occasion, and God used it to that end.")

SAMSON AND THE LION

5 Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to Timnath, and came to the vineyards of Timnath (in a sense, the vineyards typify the Fruit of the Spirit): and, behold, a young lion roared against him (Satan, as a roaring lion, seeks to stop the spiritual progress of the Child of God [I Pet. 5:8]).

6 And the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he (Samson) rent him as he would have rent a kid (small lamb), and he had nothing in his hand: but he told not his father or his mother what he had done (the Spirit of the Lord enabled him to kill this lion with his bare hands).

7 And he went down, and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well.

8 And after a time he returned to take her (possibly several weeks), and he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion: and, behold, there was a swarm of bees and honey in the carcass of the lion (the "honey" represents here the Blessings of the Lord, which come to us in respect to the defeat of Satan, which we accomplish by our Faith; however, it must be Faith in Christ and the Cross; so, if the Believer "walks after the Spirit" [Rom. 8:1-2], Satan will be defeated, and his attack turned into blessing).

9 And he took thereof (the honey) in his hands, and went on eating, and came to his father and mother, and he gave them, and they did eat: but he told not them that he had taken the honey out of the carcass of the lion (in other words, the Spirit of the Lord had begun His glorious work in the life of Samson, and did so by strengthening him to such an extent that he could kill a lion with his bare hands, which typified Christ overcoming the powers of darkness, and bringing about the sweet results of victory; victory, incidentally, which is ours, because we are in Him [Jn. 14:20]).

THE FEAST AND THE RIDDLE

10 So his father went down unto the woman: and Samson made there a feast; for so used the young men to do (to celebrate the wedding).

11 And it came to pass, when they (the Philistines) saw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him (indicating that Samson's family was one of wealth and position).

12 And Samson said unto them, I will now put forth a riddle unto you: if you can certainly declare it me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty sheets (shirts) and thirty change of garments:

13 But if you cannot declare it me, then shall you give me thirty sheets (shirts) and thirty change of garments. And they said unto him, Put forth your riddle, that we may hear it (riddles and their interpretation were a favorite form of entertainment at that particular time).

14 And he said unto them, Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And they could not in three days expound the riddle (in effect, he was telling the Philistines that the Spirit of the Lord had already begun to come upon him, which began with the killing of the lion, which was a type of Satan and the Philistines; the resultant honey was the sweetness that would come forth from this great deliverance; however, the Philistines, of course, had no idea as to what he meant).

SAMSON'S WIFE

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said unto Samson's wife, Entice your husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, lest we burn you and your father's house with fire: have you called us to take that we have? is it not so? (In other words, we're not giving this Israelite anything.)

16 And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, You do but hate me, and love me not: you have put forth a riddle unto the children of my people, and have not told it me. And he said unto her, Behold, I have not told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell it you?

17 And she wept before him the seven days, while their feast lasted (trying to get him to relate to her the answer to the riddle): and it came to pass on the seventh day, that he told her, because she lay sore upon him: and she told the riddle to the children of her people.

18 And the men of the city said unto him on the seventh day before the sun went down, What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a lion? And he said unto them, If you had not plowed with my heifer, you had not found out my riddle (Samson knew that his wife had told them the answer).

SAMSON'S VENGEANCE

19 And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon, and killed thirty men of them, and took their spoil, and gave change of garments unto them which expounded the riddle. And his anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house. (The Philistines would find the answer to the riddle, but they as of yet had no idea as to who exactly Samson was, nor the damage he would do to them.)

20 But Samson's wife was given to his companion, whom he had used as his friend. (So he was betrayed on all counts: by the Philistines, typifying the world; by his wife, typifying companionship with the world; and by his friend, typifying an unholy alliance.)

CHAPTER 15

(1141 B.C.)

REVENGE

[1] But it came to pass within a while after, in the time of wheat harvest (late May or early June), that Samson visited his wife with a kid (a small lamb); and he said, I will go in to my wife into the chamber. But her father would not suffer him to go in.

[2] And her father said, I verily thought that you had utterly hated her; therefore I gave her to your companion: is not her younger sister fairer than she? take her, I pray you, instead of her. (Life is usually marked by folly, when self-will is the spring of action. To the contrary, when God's Will governs the life, prudence and prosperity result. Accordingly, Samson foolishly returned to the woman who so basely betrayed him.)

[3] And Samson said concerning them, Now shall I be more blameless than the Philistines, though I do them a displeasure (my revenge will be a just one).

[4] And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes (should have been translated "jackals"), and took firebrands, and turned tail to tail, and put a firebrand in the midst between two tails.

[5] And when he had set the brands on fire, he let them go into the standing corn (wheat) of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks, and also the standing corn, with the vineyards and olives (considerable damage!).

THE PHILISTINES

[6] Then the Philistines said, Who has done this? And they answered,

Samson, the son in law of the Timnite, because he had taken his wife, and given her to his companion. And the Philistines came up, and burnt her and her father with fire (as stated, they little knew, so to speak, as to exactly whom they were fooling with).

A GREAT SLAUGHTER

7 And Samson said unto them, Though you have done this (killed his wife and her father), yet will I be avenged of you, and after that I will cease (in essence, "If this is the way you treat me, be sure that I will not cease until I have had my full revenge").

8 And he smote them hip and thigh with a great slaughter: and he went down and dwelt in the top of the rock Etam. (The Believer may wonder how the Lord could be in all of these things. However, it must be understood that Israel was at an extremely low state at this particular time. In fact, I think it can be said that Samson, for all of his weaknesses, was the best of the lot.

In a sense, Samson was a Type of Christ, at least as it regards his victories. These victories represent the Lord overcoming every enemy, all on our behalf.)

9 Then the Philistines went up, and pitched in Judah, and spread themselves in Lehi (they prepared for war against Israel).

10 And the men of Judah said, Why are you come up against us? And they answered, To bind Samson are we come up, to do to him as he has done to us.

THE SLAUGHTER OF A THOUSAND PHILISTINES

11 Then three thousand men of Judah went to the top of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Know you not that the Philistines are rulers over us? what is this that you have done unto us? And he said unto them, As they did unto me, so have I done unto them. (The language of these cowardly men portrays the fact as to how completely the Philistine yoke was fastened upon the necks of Judah. The opposition of the world is bitter to the Nazarite Christian, but the opposition of the Church is more bitter. The Philistines ruled over Israel, and Israel was content to have it so. They did not wish to have a Nazarite in their midst who would disturb their peace and excite the world against them. They were quite ready to hand Samson over to a cruel death in order to maintain their so-called peace. This condition of spiritual degradation marks, and has marked, the history of the Christian Church. Instead of hailing Samson as a deliverer, the Israelites treated him as an enemy.

Believers are very quick to talk about the foibles of Samson, but very seldom mention the leaders of Israel, who were in far worse spiritual condition.)

12 And they said unto him, We are come down to bind you, that we may deliver you into the hand of the Philistines. And Samson said unto them, Swear unto me, that you will not fall upon me yourselves (evidently, they had agreed with the Philistines that if they could deliver Samson to them, the Philistines would not start the war; the truth is, they didn't care about Samson, and neither did they care about the Will of the Lord; they sought only to appease the world, which is the attitude of most of the modern Church).

13 And they spoke unto him, saying, No; but we will bind you fast, and deliver you into their hand: but surely we will not kill you. And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him up from the rock (they thought they had their problem solved).

14 And when he came unto Lehi, the Philistines shouted against him: and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and the cords that were upon his arms became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his bands loosed from off his hands.

15 And he found a new jawbone of an ass (the skeleton), and put forth his hand, and took it, and killed a thousand men therewith. (By far, this was his mightiest achievement to date. As stated, Israel should have helped him, and, in fact, had they done so, they would have been delivered from the Philistine yoke at that moment. But they were so far away from God that they were quite satisfied with that yoke. They reasoned that their situation was not nearly so bad as it had been under other conquerors. So, they would live with this problem, and they didn't want Samson rocking the boat.

How so like far too many modern Believers. They are quite satisfied to live under the dominion of Satan, providing it doesn't get too bad. So, when they hear the Message of the Cross, which is the only means of deliverance, they by and large shrug it off, thinking that such is not necessary for them. They know of others who desperately need the Message of the Cross, but they never put themselves in the same category. At best, such Christians are of no use to the Kingdom of God, and, at worst, they lose their souls.)

[16] And Samson said, With the jawbone of an ass, heaps upon heaps, with the jaw of an ass have I slain a thousand men (a song of sorts).

[17] And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking, that he cast away the jawbone out of his hand, and called that place Ramath-lehi (meaning "the casting away of the jawbone," referring to the fact that the jawbone had no special qualities at all, but rather that this was carried out by the Spirit of God; had he not thrown away this item, Israel would have probably worshipped the thing; such is the human heart).

[18] And he was sore athirst, and called on the LORD, and said, You have given this great deliverance into the hand of Your servant: and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised? (We may note from this that the more God gives, the more He encourages us to ask.)

[19] But God clave an hollow place (possibly even in a rock) that was in the jaw (where he had thrown the jawbone), and there came water thereout; and when he had drunk, his spirit came again, and he revived: wherefore he called the name thereof En-hakkore, which is in Lehi unto this day (means "the well of him who called," or, "cried" [Ps. 34:6]).

[20] And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

CHAPTER 16

(1120 B.C.)

SAMSON AT GAZA

[1] Then went Samson to Gaza, and saw there an harlot, and went in unto her. (The word "then" tells us that this incident occurred after the slaughter of the thousand Philistines, but it doesn't tell us how long after. Samson could rend lions and conquer Philistines, but he could not rend his lust nor conquer his appetites.

There is only one way that victory over these things can be accomplished, not five ways, or two ways, just one way. The Believer must understand that Christ is the Source of all things which we need, and the Cross is the Means. This means that the Believer should anchor his Faith squarely in Christ and the Cross, ever making such the Object of his Faith. This occasions the Holy Spirit, Who works entirely within the parameters of the Finished Work of Christ, greatly helping us. In fact, He will help us only on these terms [Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11].)

[2] And it was told the Gazites (the inhabitants of Gaza), saying, Samson is come hither. And they compassed him in, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, In the morning, when it is day, we shall kill him.

[3] And Samson lay till midnight, and arose at midnight, and took the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts, and went away with them, bar and all, and put them upon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of an hill that is before Hebron. (All of this could well have weighed a thousand pounds or more. Within himself, he could not even remotely have done such a thing. But, with the help of the Holy Spirit, it could be done, and, in fact, was done.

In a sense, but without the unholy union, this was a Type of Christ, Who descended to Earth, not to have guilty union with its fallen inhabitants, but to redeem them. And, at the dawning of the day, He burst the bars of the tomb, and ascended to the Heavenly Hebron, thereby securing Eternal Life for the degraded sons of men [Jn. 3:16].)

SAMSON AND DELILAH

4 And it came to pass afterward, that he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah. (A Believer, when governed by self-will, can fall deeper into folly and sin than even a man of the world. This explains Samson's incredible conduct with Delilah.)

5 And the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and said unto her, Entice him, and see wherein his great strength lies, and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to afflict him: and we will give you every one of us eleven hundred pieces of silver (by now, the Philistines were extremely wary of Samson; in fact, they could not see any way to defeat him; but yet, they knew there must be some secret to his strength; in fact, there was!).

6 And Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, I pray you, wherein your great strength lies, and wherewith you might be bound to afflict you.

7 And Samson said unto her, If they bind me with seven green withs (probably refers to "catgut") that were never dried, then shall I be weak, and be as another man.

8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven green withs which had not been dried, and she bound him with them.

9 Now there were men lying in wait, abiding with her in the chamber. And she said unto him, The Philistines be upon you, Samson. And he broke the withs, as a thread of tow is broken when it touches the fire. So his strength was not known (the secret of his strength).

NEW ROPES

10 And Delilah said unto Samson, Behold, you have mocked me, and told me lies: now tell me, I pray you, wherewith you might be bound.

11 And he said unto her, If they bind me fast with new ropes that were never occupied, then shall I be weak, and be as another man.

12 Delilah therefore took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon you, Samson. And there were liers in wait abiding in the chamber. And he broke them from off his arms like a thread.

THE HAIR

13 And Delilah said unto Samson, Hitherto you have mocked me, and told me lies: tell me wherewith you might be bound. And he said unto her, If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web. (For the first time, he mentions his hair, which is a symbol of his strength. It is not possible to have close communion with the world without at last becoming a part of the world. And that which happened to Samson will happen to anyone. As God doesn't change, neither do the allurements of the world, nor its dangers, change.)

14 And she fastened it with the pin, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon you, Samson. And he awaked out of his sleep, and went away with the pin of the beam, and with the web.

THE SECRET

15 And she said unto him, How can you say, I love you, when your heart is not with me? you have mocked me these three times, and have not told me wherein your great strength lies.

16 And it came to pass, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, so that his soul was vexed unto death (he should have never been in this place; it is not possible, I think, for any Believer to submit himself to such a situation but that the end result will be exactly as that of Samson; fellowship with the world is at least one the greatest dangers, if not the greatest danger, to the Child of God [I Jn. 2:15-17]);

17 That he told her all his heart, and said unto her, There has not come a razor upon my head; for I have been a Nazarite unto God (separated unto God) from my mother's womb: if I be shaved, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man.

18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this once, for he has showed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought money in their hand (the love of money is the root of all evil).

19 And she made him sleep upon her knees; and she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him.

THE DEPARTURE OF THE LORD

20 And she said, The Philistines be upon you, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out as at other times before, and shake myself (shake off the Philistines). And he wist not that the LORD was departed from him (there is nothing worse that can be said of a person than that the Spirit of the Lord has departed).

21 But the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass; and he did grind in the prison house. (The Philistines put his eyes out and degraded him to the abject position of grinding meal and making sport of him. Such is ever the moral result of association with the world — it obtains the mastery, the Christian loses his eyesight and liberty, and becomes a mere purveyor of entertainments to the Church — and that is basically the far lower level to which the modern Church has succumbed. It is no more than a social center, which provides good entertainment. God help us!)

SAMSON'S RESTORATION

[22] Howbeit the hair of his head began to grow again after he was shaved (the fallen Believer can come back; the hair, spiritually speaking, can begin to grow again).

[23] Then the lords of the Philistines gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice unto Dagon their god, and to rejoice: for they said, Our god has delivered Samson our enemy into our hand. (They equated Samson's loss of strength as their god, Dagon, defeating Jehovah, the God of the Israelites. Dagon had the head, breast, and hands of a human, and the balance of the body shaped like a fish.)

[24] And when the people saw him, they praised their god: for they said, Our god has delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country, which killed many of us.

[25] And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, that they said, Call for Samson, that he may make us sport (they didn't seem to realize that his hair had grown back). And they called for Samson out of the prison house; and he made them sport: and they set him between the pillars (the two pillars which held up this house of Dagon worship).

[26] And Samson said unto the lad who held him by the hand, Suffer me that I may feel the pillars whereupon the house stands, that I may lean upon them.

[27] Now the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Philistines were there; and there were upon the roof about three thousand men and women (no doubt, the elite of the Philistines), who beheld while Samson made sport (made sport of him, which, in his blindness, he had no recourse).

[28] And Samson called unto the LORD (the type of prayer prayed by Samson will always be heard by the Lord), and said, O Lord GOD (the term "Lord GOD" refers to the "God of Covenants," which, in itself, speaks volumes), remember me, I pray You (a petition of humility), and strengthen me, I pray You, only this once, O God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.

29 And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and on which it was borne up, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left. (I wonder what these thousands of Philistines were thinking, when they saw him put his arms around these two pillars? The jesting and the mocking could probably be heard for quite a distance.)

30 And Samson said, Let me die with the Philistines (he did not commit suicide, but rather gave his life). And he bowed himself with all his might; and the house fell upon the lords, and upon all the people who were therein. So the dead which he killed at his death were more than they which he killed in his life.

31 Then his brethren and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the buryingplace of Manoah his father. And he judged Israel twenty years. (Had they come to him when he was alive, instead of only when he was dead, the situation might have been different.)

CHAPTER 17

MICAH'S IDOLS

[1] And there was a man of Mount Ephraim, whose name was Micah. (The balance of this Book no longer concerns itself with Judges raised up by the Lord, but rather the internal affairs of Israel. It is done, of course, for purpose, which is to show the inward moral condition of the Nation, which was despicable, to say the least. It is a sad picture of confusion, idolatry, sin, and violence; it all resulted from neglect of the Bible. Four times in this section of the Book it states, "Every man did that which was right in his own eyes.")

[2] And he said unto his mother, The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken from you, about which you cursed, and spoke of also in my ears, behold, the silver is with me; I took it. And his mother said, Blessed be you of the LORD, my son. (Evidently, Micah had stolen this amount of silver from his mother. As we shall see, it is connected with idolatry.)

[3] And when he had restored the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother (worth about $6,000 in 2004 currency), his mother said, I had wholly dedicated the silver unto the LORD from my hand for my son, to make a graven image and a molten image: now therefore I will restore it unto you. (As we see here, the greater part of Israel, of which the Holy Spirit desires that this household serve as a type, equated the Lord and idols as one and the same.

Presently, any doctrine in the modern Church which is not based squarely on the Foundation of "Christ and Him Crucified" [I Cor. 1:23], pure and simple, is idolatry. Such false worship is "another Jesus, brought about by another spirit, which gives us another gospel" [II Cor. 11:4]. If that, in fact, is correct, and it definitely is, due to the paucity of the preaching of the 4 Yet he restored the money unto his mother; and his mother took two hundred shekels of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made thereof a graven image and a molten image: and they were in the house of Micah (far too many modern Churches are actually founders of graven and molten images, but in a different form now than then; it is now in the form of Denominationalism, methodology, false doctrine, etc.).

5 And the man Micah had an house of gods, and made an ephod, and teraphim, and consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest. (These images, together with the ephod, teraphim, and priests, suggest that this domestic chapel was a corrupt imitation of the Tabernacle. All was contrary to the Word of God. The Word commanded one place of worship only; it forbade images. And it permitted none to be Priests but the sons of Aaron. No description is given in the Bible of the "teraphim"; however, it is believed they were a particular object shaped in the form of an idol, which was consulted.)

6 In those days there was no king in Israel, but every man did that which was right in his own eyes. (Due to improper leadership in the modern Church, which, in the Eyes of God, is no leadership at all, most of the people are being led wrong. Yesterday it was "Promise Keepers," and presently it is "The Government of Twelve," or "Seeker Sensitive Churches," or "The Word of Faith doctrine," etc., all falling into the unscriptural column. The difference between now and then is that the people are not so much presently doing that which is right in their own eyes, but rather in the eyes of someone else, who is rather a wolf in sheep's clothing [Mat. 7:14-20].)

THE PRIESTS

7 And there was a young man out of Beth-lehem-judah of the family of Judah, who was a Levite, and he sojourned there (the statement in this Verse doesn't mean that this Levite was from the Tribe of Judah, but rather that he had made his home in Bethlehem, which was in the realm of the Tribe of Judah).

8 And the man departed out of the city from Beth-lehem-judah to sojourn where he could find a place: and he came to Mount Ephraim to the house of Micah, as he journeyed (if Phinehas, the High Priest, and the nation had obeyed the Scriptures, this Levite would not have had to travel about looking for a place to serve).

9 And Micah said unto him, From where do you come? And he said unto him, I am a Levite of Beth-lehem-judah, and I go to sojourn where I may find a place.

10 And Micah said unto him, Dwell with me, and be unto me a father and a priest, and I will give you ten shekels of silver by the year, and a suit of apparel, and your victuals. So the Levite went in. (Micah called his chapel a "House of God," which it actually is in the original Hebrew, but the Holy Spirit called it a house of idols [Vs. 5]. The true House of God was neglected and as hard to find then as it is today; and too often when found, amusements rather than worship characterize it [21:21-23]. It seems that Preachers are for sale now, just as they were then.)

11 And the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was unto him as one of his sons.

12 And Micah consecrated the Levite; and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah.

13 Then said Micah, Now know I that the LORD will do me good, seeing I have a Levite to my priest. (It didn't exactly turn out this way, for he was afterwards robbed of both his idols and his priest. He had, like some people at the present time, a little knowledge of Scriptural Worship, but only sufficient to make him idolatrous and superstitious.)

CHAPTER 18

MICAH AND THE DANITES

[1] In those days there was no king in Israel: and in those days the Tribe of the Danites sought them an inheritance to dwell in; for unto that day all their inheritance had not fallen unto them among the Tribes of Israel. (The time frame of this Chapter probably occurred when Othniel was the Judge in Israel. The portion assigned to the Tribe of Dan was in the area of the Philistines [Josh. 19:40]. However, it seems they did not have enough faith to overcome the Philistines; so, instead, and out of the Will of God, they undertook an expedition against a small and defenseless people in the extreme north of the land, built a city there, which they called "Dan" — thus originating the expression "from Dan even to Beersheba" — and publicly established idolatry. This is probably the reason for the omission of their name in Rev., Chpt. 7.)

[2] And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their coasts (borders), men of valour, from Zorah, and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, Go, search the land: who when they came to Mount Ephraim, to the house of Micah, they lodged there.

[3] When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite: and they turned in thither, and said unto him, Who brought you here? and what are you doing in this place? and what have you here?

[4] And he said unto them, Thus and thus dealt Micah with me, and has hired me, and I am his priest.

[5] And they said unto him, Ask counsel, we pray you, of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous. (They should have themselves prayed before they left, and they would have then known the Will of God, instead of depending on someone else.)

[6] And the priest said unto them, Go in peace: before the LORD is your way wherein you go. (The action of the Danites in asking this Levite to divine for them — no doubt by means of the teraphim or the ephod — shows how far at this early date the Word of God was departed from. They ought to have been shocked and grieved at a Levite assuming Priestly functions; and they should have been indignant at the existence of a house of idols in rivalry with the Tabernacle of Jehovah.)

[7] Then the five men departed, and came to Laish (about 30 miles north of the Sea of Galilee), and saw the people who were therein, how they dwelt careless, after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and secure; and there was no magistrate in the land, that might put them to shame in any thing; and they were far from the Zidonians, and had no business with any man.

[8] And they came unto their brethren to Zorah and Eshtaol: and their brethren said unto them, What do you say?

[9] And they said, Arise, that we may go up against them: for we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good: and are you still? (still desirous to take the land?) be not slothful to go, and to enter to possess the land (in other words, do it now!).

[10] When you go, you shall come unto a people secure, and to a large land: for God has given it into your hands; a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the Earth. (Even though they used the name of "God," there is no record that the Holy Spirit had allotted to the Tribe of Dan this territory up north. This was their own doings, and, accordingly, would not turn out well.)

STOLEN IMAGES

[11] And there went from thence of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men appointed with weapons of war.

12 And they went up, and pitched in Kirjath-jearim, in Judah: wherefore they called that place Mahaneh-dan unto this day: behold, it is behind Kirjath-jearim.

13 And they passed thence unto Mount Ephraim, and came unto the house of Micah.

14 Then answered the five men who went to spy out the country of Laish, and said unto their brethren, Do you know that there is in these houses an ephod, and teraphim, and a graven image, and a molten image? now therefore consider what you have to do (in other words, take the images).

15 And they turned thitherward, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, even unto the house of Micah, and saluted him.

16 And the six hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the entering of the gate.

17 And the five men who went to spy out the land went up, and came in thither, and took the graven image, and the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image: and the priest stood in the entering of the gate with the six hundred men who were appointed with weapons of war.

18 And these went into Micah's house, and fetched the carved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image. Then said the priest unto them, What are you doing?

19 And they said unto him, Hold your peace, lay your hand upon your mouth, and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest: is it better for you to be a priest unto the house of one man, or that you be a priest unto a tribe and a family in Israel?

20 And the priest's heart was glad, and he took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the graven image, and went in the midst of the people (the priest was for sale, and the Tribe of Dan paid more, so he went with them).

21 So they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the cattle and the carriage before them.

MICAH

22 And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men who were in the houses near to Micah's house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan (a goodly number of men who were neighbors to Micah joined him to try to retrieve the stolen items from the children of Dan).

23 And they cried unto the children of Dan. And they turned their faces, and said unto Micah, What ails you, that you come with such a company?

24 And he said, You have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and you are gone away: and what have I more? and what is this that you say unto me, What ails you? (It is strange, but Micah worships gods which he made, and which can be taken by others, proving they are of no value; and, yet, almost all the modern world functions presently in the same manner. It worships gods that it has made, and the god of religion is the biggest god of all.)

25 And the children of Dan said unto him, Let not your voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows run upon you, and you lose your life, with the lives of your household.

26 And the children of Dan went their way: and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back unto his house.

THE CITY OF DAN

27 And they took the things which Micah had made, and the priest which he had, and came unto Laish, unto a people who were at quiet and secure: and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire.

[28] And there was no deliverer (no deliverer for those of Laish), because it was far from Zidon, and they had no business with any man; and it was in the valley that lies by Beth-rehob. And they built a city, and dwelt therein.

[29] And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born unto Israel: howbeit the name of the city was Laish at the first. (The Holy Spirit using the name of "Israel" in this Verse emphasizes the depth of Dan's guilt in setting up idolatry.)

IDOLATRY

[30] And the children of Dan set up the graven image: and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were priests to the Tribe of Dan until the day of the captivity of the land. (Jonathan was the grandson of Moses. So ashamed were the Jews of what this man had done, and so unwilling to dishonor Moses by publicly reading aloud his name in this Verse, they instead used the name "Manasseh" in the place of Moses.)

[31] And they set them up Micah's graven image, which he made, all the time that the House of God was in Shiloh. (All of this was especially forbidden by the Lord, and, therefore, constituted idolatry. And, worse still, Moses' grandson headed up this terrible form of idolatry.)

CHAPTER 19

(1406 B.C.)

THE CONCUBINE

[1] And it came to pass in those days, when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite sojourning on the side of Mount Ephraim, who took to him a concubine out of Beth-lehem-judah. (As to exactly when this was, we aren't told; however, it was definitely before the time of Saul.

The Lord said that Moses, because of the hardness of their hearts, suffered them to have more than one wife, but that in the beginning it was not so. The Levite, therefore, in having a secondary wife — they were called concubines — did not stand in a dishonorable relation to her.)

[2] And his concubine played the whore against him, and went away from him unto her father's house to Beth-lehem-judah, and was there four whole months. (This woman, in sinning against her husband, little dreamed of the dreadful doom that would result from her action. The Devil pays hard wages. Concerning this, Williams says, "The terrible story pictures the misery, shame, and ruin that comes upon the heart that, unfaithful to the True Husband, lives in guilty union with the world. The night in such a heart is dark indeed; and all the world gives is abuse and not honor [Vs. 25].)

[3] And her husband arose, and went after her, to speak friendly unto her, and to bring her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of asses: and she brought him into her father's house: and when the father of the damsel saw him, he rejoiced to meet him.

[4] And his father in law, the damsel's father, retained him; and he abode with him three days: so they did eat and drink, and lodged there.

5 And it came to pass on the fourth day, when they arose early in the morning, that he rose up to depart: and the damsel's father said unto his son in law, Comfort your heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward go your way (in other words, have breakfast before you go).

6 And they sat down, and did eat and drink both of them together: for the damsel's father had said unto the man, Be content, I pray you, and tarry all night, and let your heart be merry (he wanted him to stay another night).

7 And when the man rose up to depart, his father in law urged him: therefore he lodged there again (stayed the extra night).

8 And he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart (had stayed there five days): and the damsel's father said, Comfort your heart, I pray you. And they tarried until afternoon, and they did eat both of them.

9 And when the man rose up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his servant, his father in law, the damsel's father, said unto him, Behold, now the day draws toward evening, I pray you tarry all night: behold, the day grows to an end, lodge here, that your heart may be merry; and tomorrow get you early on your way, that you may go home (tries yet to get him to stay even another night).

GIBEAH

10 But the man would not tarry that night, but he rose up and departed, and came over against Jebus, which is Jerusalem; and there were with him two asses saddled, his concubine also was with him.

11 And when they were by Jebus, the day was far spent; and the servant said unto his master, Come I pray you, and let us turn in into this city of the Jebusites, and lodge in it.

12 And his master said unto him, We will not turn aside hither into the city of a stranger (Gentile), that is not of the Children of Israel; we will pass over to Gibeah (actually, a suburb of Jerusalem).

13 And he said unto his servant, Come, and let us draw near to one of these places to lodge all night, in Gibeah, or in Ramah.

14 And they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down upon them when they were by Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin (the Tribe of Benjamin).

15 And they turned aside thither, to go in and to lodge in Gibeah: and when he went in, he sat him down in a street of the city: for there was no man who took them into his house to lodging. (Pulpit says, "The absence of the common rites of hospitality toward strangers was a sign of the degraded character of the men of Gibeah." In those days, there were very few inns; consequently, travelers stayed, normally, in people's homes [Lk. 11:5-13].)

16 And, behold, there came an old man from his work out of the field at evening, which was also of Mount Ephraim; and he sojourned in Gibeah: but the men of the place were Benjamites.

17 And when he had lifted up his eyes, he saw a wayfaring man in the street of the city: and the old man said, Where are you going? and from where have you come?

18 And he said unto him, We are passing from Beth-lehem-judah toward the side of Mount Ephraim; from thence am I: and I went to Beth-lehem-judah, but I am now going to the House of the LORD; and there is no man who receives me to house (no man who gives me lodging; the "House of the LORD" probably refers to the Tabernacle at Shiloh).

19 Yet there is both straw and provender for our asses; and there is bread and wine also for me, and for your handmaid, and for the young man which is with your servants: there is no want of anything (in other words, I will not be a burden to anyone, because I have my own food, etc.).

20 And the old man said, Peace be with you; howsoever let all your wants lie upon me; only lodge not in the street.

21 So he brought him into his house, and gave provender unto the asses: and they washed their feet, and did eat and drink.

THE SODOMITES

22 Now as they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain sons of Belial (worthless individuals), beset the house round about, and beat at the door, and spoke to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring forth the man who came into your house, that we may know him. (These were homosexuals; it would have been better for the Levite to have spent the night with the heathen Jebusites than with the professed children of God; for the latter had already become viler than the former, although Joshua was not long dead! The singular resemblance of the whole narrative to that in Gen., Chpt. 19 suggests that the Israelites, by their contact with the accursed Canaanites, had reduced themselves to the level of Sodom and Gomorrah. The illustration given in this Chapter proclaims the wisdom of the command to destroy utterly these workers of abomination. Some sins are worse than others, and the sin of homosexuality is one of the most vile. It is the only sin that has occasioned the destruction of entire cities, and we speak of Sodom and Gomorrah, and done so instantly, and done so by God. The United States, and especially this country, because of the great Gospel Light it has been given, will ultimately face the Judgment of God in its sanctioning of homosexual marriages, so-called. The sin itself is bad enough; however, to legitimize it, which this nation is doing, will ultimately bring upon our heads the Wrath of God, and rightly so!)

23 And the man, the master of the house, went out unto them, and said unto them, No, my brethren, no, I pray you, do not so wickedly; seeing that this man is come into my house, do not this folly.

24 Behold, here is my daughter a maiden, and his concubine; them I will bring out now, and humble you them, and do with them what seems good unto you: but unto this man do not so vile a thing. (Lot's last night in Sodom gives a similar illustration of the loathsome depths to which men sink when they cease to retain God in their knowledge [Rom. 1:18-32].)

25 But the men would not hearken to him: so the man took his concubine, and brought her forth unto them; and they knew her, and abused her all the night until the morning: and when the day began to spring, they let her go. (How despicable was her husband, who allowed such a thing!)

26 Then came the woman in the dawning of the day, and fell down at the door of the man's house where her lord was, till it was light.

27 And her lord rose up in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go his way: and, behold, the woman his concubine was fallen down at the door of the house, and her hands were upon the threshold.

28 And he said unto her, Up, and let us be going. But none answered. Then the man took her up upon an ass, and the man rose up, and gat him unto his place. (The woman died from the abuse she had taken that night. God help us!)

VENGEANCE

29 And when he was come into his house, he took a knife, and laid hold on his concubine, and divided her, together with her bones, into twelve pieces, and sent her into all the coasts of Israel.

30 And it was so, that all who saw it said, There was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the Children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt unto this day: consider of it, take advice, and speak your minds. (The closing Chapters of the Book of Judges picture the moral darkness that settles down upon a nation, or a Church, when the Bible is disregarded, and men follow the religious and social teachings of their own minds and hearts. The general sense of the whole Nation was to call a national council to decide what to do. At least, and despite his cowardice, the Levite had succeeded in arousing the indignation of the Twelve Tribes to avenge this terrible wrong.)

CHAPTER 20

THE ACCOUNT

[1] Then all the Children of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered together as one man, from Dan even to Beersheba, with the land of Gilead, unto the LORD in Mizpeh. (Mizpeh seemed to have been a national meeting place. As well, the phrase, "unto the LORD," could mean that the Tabernacle was brought here from Shiloh [Vs. 26].)

[2] And the chief of all the people, even of all the Tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen who drew sword (it was a mighty gathering).

[3] (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the Children of Israel were gone up to Mizpeh.) Then said the Children of Israel, Tell us, how was this wickedness? (The inquiry regarding details is now made.)

[4] And the Levite, the husband of the woman who was slain, answered and said, I came into Gibeah that belongs to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to lodge.

[5] And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and beset the house round about upon me by night, and thought to have slain me: and my concubine have they forced, that she is dead.

[6] And I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel: for they have committed lewdness and folly in Israel. (How painful it must have been to the Spirit of God to have to record such vileness!)

WAR

7 Behold, you are all Children of Israel; give here your advice and counsel. (However, there is no record that they sought the Lord, at least at this time, which would prove to be disastrous. The men of Israel were shocked at the fruits of the "flesh" in Gibeah, but they were blind to the activities and power of that same principle of evil in themselves. They were filled with anger because of the conduct of these men against a Levite and his wife; but there is no record of their sense of the terribleness of this sin against God, and of the evil of idolatry, which, at the time, existed in their midst. So it is presently. A sin against God is lightly regarded, but a sin against society is mercilessly judged.)

8 And all the people arose as one man, saying, We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will we any of us turn into his house (no one would go home until due punishment had been afflicted upon Gibeah of Benjamin).

9 But now this shall be the thing which we will do to Gibeah; we will go up by lot against it (the word "lot" could refer to the Urim and the Thummim; however, if this, in fact, is the case, it doesn't mean they asked the Will of the Lord in the matter regarding whether to go or not, but rather who would go)**;

10 And we will take ten men of an hundred throughout all the Tribes of Israel, and an hundred of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch victual for the people, that they may do, when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly that they have wrought in Israel.

11 So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together as one man.

12 And the Tribes of Israel sent men through all the Tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness is this that is done among you?

13 Now therefore, deliver us the men, the children of Belial, which are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the Children of Israel (it is believed that they did not ask properly; irrespective, Benjamin's response was totally wrong, and they would suffer dearly, along with the balance of Israel)*:

THE BENJAMITES

14 But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to go out to battle against the Children of Israel (Satan loves it when God's people are fighting each other).

15 And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time out of the cities twenty and six thousand men who drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men.

16 Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men lefthanded; every one could sling stones at an hair breadth, and not miss.

17 And the men of Israel, beside Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men who drew sword: all these were men of war (meaning they were proficient in battle).

ISRAEL BEATEN

18 And the Children of Israel arose, and went up to the House of God, and asked counsel of God, and said, Which of us shall go up first to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, Judah shall go up first (once again, Israel did not ask the Lord as to whether they should go or not, but as to who were to go).

19 And the Children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel put themselves in array to fight against them at Gibeah.

21 And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed down to the ground of the Israelites that day twenty and two thousand men. (Why would the Lord tell Judah to go forth to the battle, and then they would lose this great number? Had the Children of Israel acted at the beginning as they did later on, in Verse 26, they would not have suffered the two defeats of Verses 21 and 25. Their planning without God was one of the fruits of that fallen nature which they shared in common with the men of Gibeah. It is true that, after they had made their plans, they prayed, but only after the plans were made.

Williams says, concerning this, "There is instruction in this for Believers for all times. Before the Tribes were fitted to judge evil in others they needed a sharp discipline to teach them to judge evil in themselves. So dead in their souls had the people become that they never thought of asking God how the matter was to be dealt with; nor were they conscious that they themselves were guilty of sins which cried out for Divine wrath.

"It was necessary, therefore, that they should learn a deep moral lesson; for God cannot give victories to man's natural will.")

ISRAEL BEATEN AGAIN

22 And the people the men of Israel encouraged themselves, and set their battle again in array in the place where they put themselves in array the first day.

23 (And the Children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until evening, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him.)

24 And the Children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day.

25 And Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the Children of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword (in other words, strong men of war, and yet they were beaten; in fact, in the two battles they had lost some 40,000 men, which, as is obvious, is a catastrophe).

TRUE REPENTANCE

[26] Then all the Children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came unto the House of God, and wept, and sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until evening, and offered Burnt Offerings and Peace Offerings before the LORD. (The offering up of "Burnt Offerings" and "Peace Offerings" proclaims the fact that Israel is now engaging in true Repentance, because their Faith is once again in the shed Blood of the Lamb. The Nation at last draws near to God in Repentance and sorrow, confessing themselves to be sinners. As interpreted by the New Testament, they confessed their own guilt, they declared themselves worthy of the Wrath of God, and they pleaded the Person and Work of Christ, the Lamb of God, for pardon and acceptance; their souls now humbled and taught, they were in a fit moral state to go up against Gibeah. It indeed deserved wrath, and will receive that wrath, but Israel merited wrath herself, and had, in a figure, to suffer it in and with Christ before drawing the sword against Benjamin.

God recognizes nothing with the exception of Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross. This means that man is recognized only so long as his Faith is in Christ, and, more than all, what Christ has done for us at the Cross. This shows that man understands as to who exactly he is, a sinner in need of a Saviour, and exactly as to Who Christ is, the only Redeemer.)

[27] And the Children of Israel enquired of the LORD, (for the Ark of the Covenant of God was there in those days, [28] And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the LORD said, Go up; for tomorrow I will deliver them into your hand (but only on the basis of the slain lamb; we must never forget that, because it hasn't changed unto this moment and, in fact, will never change; that's why Paul referred to it as "The Everlasting Covenant" [Heb. 13:20]).

BENJAMIN NEARLY DESTROYED

[29] And Israel set liers in wait round about Gibeah.

[30] And the Children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.

[31] And the children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and they began to smite of the people, and kill, as at other times, in the highways, of which one goes up to the House of God, and the other to Gibeah in the field, about thirty men of Israel (about 30 were killed).

[32] And the children of Benjamin said, They are smitten down before us, as at the first. But the Children of Israel said, Let us flee, and draw them from the city unto the highways.

[33] And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baal-tamar: and the liers in wait of Israel came forth out of their places, even out of the meadows of Gibeah (they did so to spring the trap).

[34] And there came against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was sore: but they knew not that evil was near them (the army of Benjamin didn't know).

[35] And the LORD smote Benjamin before Israel (now the Lord will take a hand in the battle, because Israel has finally repented before Him): and the Children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty and five thousand and an hundred men: all these drew the sword (proficient men of war, who were killed).

[36] So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: for the men of Israel gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted unto the liers in wait (in ambush) which they had set beside Gibeah.

37 And the liers in wait hasted, and rushed upon Gibeah; and the liers in wait drew themselves along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword.

38 Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Israel and the liers in wait, that they should make a great flame with smoke rise up out of the city.

39 And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons: for they said, Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle.

40 But when the flame began to arise up out of the city with a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and, behold, the flame of the city ascended up to Heaven.

41 And when the men of Israel turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that evil was come upon them.

42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel unto the way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them; and them (the Benjamites) which came out of the cities they (the men of Israel) destroyed in the midst of them.

43 Thus they inclosed the Benjamites round about, and chased them, and trode them down with ease over against Gibeah toward the sunrising.

44 And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of valour.

45 And they turned and fled toward the wilderness unto the rock of Rimmon: and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men; and pursued hard after them unto Gidom, and killed two thousand men of them.

46 So that all which fell that day of Benjamin were twenty and five thousand men who drew the sword; all these were men of valour.

47 But six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness unto the rock Rimmon, and abode in the rock Rimmon four months.

48 And the men of Israel turned again upon the children of Benjamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword, as well the men of every city, as the beast, and all who came to hand; also they set on fire all the cities that they came to. (Counting both men of Israel and those of Benjamin, the total loss was a little over 65,000 men; all because of sin in the realm of vice, which plagued Benjamin, and self-righteousness, which plagued the men of Israel. It is ironic that more were lost to self-righteousness than to vice. Just think about the sorrow and heartache that this brought to untold thousands of families in Israel, husbands, fathers, brothers, and sons! As stated, sin will take one further than one desires to go, and cost more than one can afford to pay.)

CHAPTER 21

(1406 B.C.)

SORROW

[1] Now the men of Israel had sworn in Mizpeh, saying, There shall not any of us give his daughter unto Benjamin to wife. (A circumstance not mentioned before was now brought forward, as is another in Verse 5.)

[2] And the people came to the House of God, and abode there till evening before God, and lifted up their voices, and wept sore;

[3] And said, O LORD God of Israel, why is this come to pass in Israel, that there should be to day one Tribe lacking in Israel? (When people are governed by excitement, and not by the Word of God, they bind themselves by oaths which lead to difficulty, and even to bloodshed.

It is true that the Benjamites merited punishment, because their refusal to judge the evil at Gibeah showed that they thought little of it, or that they sympathized with it. And again, had Israel followed the Word of the Lord from the beginning, and had they waited upon God for direction, how different would be the history of this Chapter!)

[4] And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people rose early, and built there an Altar, and offering Burnt Offerings and Peace Offerings (the men of Israel are now functioning correctly; they are depending on the slain lamb).

[5] And the Children of Israel said, Who is there among all the Tribes of Israel who came not up with the congregation unto the LORD? For they had made a great oath concerning him who came not up to the LORD to Mizpeh, saying, He shall surely be put to death (referring to those who refused to fight the Benjamites).

6 And the Children of Israel repented them for Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day.

WIVES FOR THE BENJAMITES

7 How shall we do for wives for them who remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them of our daughters to wives? (Evidently, all the women of Benjamin had been killed, causing the death toll to rise to astronomical proportions. What a horror!)

8 And they said, What one is there of the Tribes of Israel that came not up to Mizpeh to the LORD? And, behold, there came none to the camp from Jabesh-gilead to the assembly.

9 For the people were numbered, and, behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead there.

10 And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the valiantest, and commanded them, saying, Go and smite the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the children.

11 And this is the thing that you shall do, You shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman who has lain by man. (Again, several thousand people are killed. And the truth is, none of this was necessary. The Lord did not tell them to do this thing. If they made a rash vow, which they evidently did [Vs. 5], they should have asked the Lord to forgive them, which He most definitely would have done, and let the matter rest; however, the men of Israel were, no doubt, very angry, considering their losses, that the men of Jabesh-gilead did not participate. So, they would kill them, and so they did!)

12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred young virgins, who had known no man by lying with any male: and they brought them unto the camp to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan (evidently they had taken the Tabernacle back to Shiloh).

13 And the whole congregation sent some to speak to the children of Benjamin who were in the rock Rimmon, and to call peaceably unto them (20:47).

14 And Benjamin came again at that time; and they gave them wives which they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh-gilead: and yet so they sufficed them not (there were not enough women to go around).

15 And the people repented them for Benjamin, because that the LORD had made a breach in the Tribes of Israel (it is true, but it was the fault of all the Tribes of Israel, and not of God).

SHILOH

16 Then the elders of the congregation said, How shall we do for wives for them who remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin?

17 And they said, There must be an inheritance for them who be escaped of Benjamin, that a Tribe be not destroyed out of Israel (the word "inheritance" should have been translated "succession," thereby reading, "there must be heirs to succeed and, therefore, we must find wives for them").

18 Howbeit we may not give them wives of our daughters: for the Children of Israel have sworn, saying, Cursed be he who gives a wife to Benjamin.

19 Then they said, Behold, there is a feast of the LORD in Shiloh yearly in a place which is on the north side of Beth-el, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Beth-el to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah. (Williams says, "It gives a sad picture of the condition of the nation at this time that, although the Benjamites lived within a short distance of Shiloh where the Tabernacle was pitched, yet so complete was their neglect of it that the minute directions of Verse 19 had to be given them to enable them to find it; and, further, the mention of only one yearly Feast — God having commanded three — was an added proof of departure from His Word.")

[20] Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards;

[21] And see, and, behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come you out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin (these "dances" showed how heathen customs had invaded the House of God; for no such dancing was ordained in the Book of Leviticus; it is all a mournful illustration of that today, which professes to be the House of God; all too often, amusement displaces worship).

[22] And it shall be, when their fathers or their brethren come unto us to complain, that we will say unto them, Be favourable unto them for our sakes: because we reserved not to each man his wife in the war: for you did not give unto them at this time, that you should be guilty (could be translated, "You need not fear the guilt of the broken oath, because you did not give your daughters, so as to violate the oath, but they were taken from you by force").

[23] And the children of Benjamin did so, and took them wives, according to their number, of them who danced, whom they caught: and they went and returned unto their inheritance, and repaired the cities, and dwelt in them.

[24] And the Children of Israel departed thence at that time, every man to his Tribe and to his family, and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance.

ANARCHY

[25] In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes. (As should be obvious, the lessons of this Book are painful, but yet necessary. These lessons teach us that our Faith must ever be registered in Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross. That being done, the Holy Spirit will have latitude within our lives. To be sure, prayer and the study of the Word will then become prominent within our experience. Let it ever be understood that no height of Christian experience, nor miraculous manifestations, as glorious as they might be, can keep the soul from falling. Only daily fellowship with God, meditation upon and obedience to His Holy Word, and the ever-present Power of the indwelling Holy Spirit, which can only come about, as stated, by Faith in Christ and the Cross, can preserve the Christian from spiritual declension.

It is a solemn truth that experiences of the past, as wonderful as they may have then been, are useless to the heart that is out of fellowship with God. Israel's history abundantly illustrates this fact. God help us to learn from the myriad of illustrations given in this Book, as painful as they are!)

ELIMELECH AND NAOMI

[1] Now it came to pass in the days when the judges ruled (as to exactly when this was, we aren't told), that there was a famine in the land (famines were sent by the Lord upon Israel as a Judgment because of spiritual declension). And a certain man of Beth-lehem-judah (Beth-lehem means "house of bread") went to sojourn in the country of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons (going to a country outside of Israel to live was forbidden by the Lord; and yet, we will see how the Lord would take this wrong and turn it into right, but with great loss, as accompanies all failure).

[2] And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Beth-lehem-judah. And they came into the country of Moab, and continued there (because of the famine; however, better to be in a place of prosperity, and it be filled with idolatry, as was Moab).

SUFFERING

[3] And Elimelech Naomi's husband died; and she was left, and her two sons (to be out of the Will of God always brings suffering).

[4] And they took them wives of the women of Moab (it was not forbidden in the Law for a Hebrew to marry a Moabite woman, but a Moabite, because of being cursed by God, was forbidden to enter the congregation of the Lord [Deut. 23:3]; however, Faith could overcome that, which it did with Ruth); the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth (two Books in the Bible are named after women — Ruth and Esther; in the one, a Gentile woman marries a Hebrew, and, in the other, a Hebrew woman marries a Gentile; both marriages predict, as foretold [Gen. 12:3; 18:18; 22:18; 26:4; Ps. 72:17; Acts 3:25], that the Gentiles, as such, are to be brought into the Kingdom of God in connection with Israel): and they dwelled there about ten years (it's very easy, spiritually speaking, to go into wrong directions; however, very hard to leave that wrong direction in order to come back to the right way).

5 And Mahlon and Chilion died also both of them; and the woman was left of her two sons and her husband (more suffering!).

NAOMI

6 Then she arose with her daughters in law, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard in the country of Moab how that the LORD had visited His People in giving them bread (the Jewish Targums say that an Angel spoke to her and gave this information; in other words, the famine was over; it evidently lasted a number of years).

7 Wherefore she went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in law with her; and they went on the way to return unto the land of Judah.

8 And Naomi said unto her two daughters in law, Go, return each to her mother's house: the LORD deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead, and with me. (It seems that Naomi, at least at this stage, had so little faith in the Promises of God, and such a poor experience as the result of her own disobedience, that she discouraged her daughters-in-law from returning with her. This she should not have done; however, the same faithlessness that caused her and her family to leave Israel plagues her still. But, as we shall see, when she does return to Israel, her faith will begin to come back. Moab was not the place of faith, as the world system is never the place of faith. Israel was the place of faith, and so it is presently, spiritually speaking.)

9 The LORD grant you that you may find rest, each of you in the house of her husband (Naomi knew that there was no "rest" in the land of Moab, because it was a place of idolatry)*. Then she kissed them; and they lifted up their voice, and wept.

[10] And they said unto her, Surely we will return with you unto your people (by the statement, "your people," they were speaking, as well, of Israel's God).

[11] And Naomi said, Turn again, my daughters: why will you go with me? are there yet any more sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands? (Once again, doubt and unbelief rule. Naomi was walking by sight, instead of by Faith. Such a direction always limits God.)

[12] Turn again, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say, I have hope, if I should have a husband also to night, and should also bear sons;

[13] Would you tarry for them till they were grown? would you stay for them from having husbands? (In other words, wait until they were grown, thereby not marrying anyone else.) no, my daughters; for it grieves me much for your sakes that the Hand of the LORD is gone out against me. (Naomi felt that she had suffered the tragic loss of her husband and two sons because of being out of the Will of God, by leaving Israel to come to Moab. There was, no doubt, some truth in that; however, we must always remember, God doesn't work from what might have been, but rather from "what is.")

[14] And they lifted up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah kissed her mother in law; but Ruth clave unto her (Orpah left, and we never hear from her again; how sad!).

[15] And she (Naomi) said, Behold, your sister in law is gone back unto her people, and unto her gods: return thou after your sister in law. (From the statement, "unto her gods," it is obvious that the great contending factor here was the gods of Moab versus the God of Israel. Orpah chose "her gods," and missed the greatest thing that could ever happen to any individual — Eternal Life. In essence, Naomi asked Ruth if that is what she is going to do as well! Exactly as to what Naomi had in mind, we can only guess. It seems that she didn't want to promise them things that she could not fulfill. This seems to have been her intention. But yet, in all of this her faith, it seems, was very, very low.)

16 And Ruth said, Intreat me not to leave you, or to return from following after you: for where you go, I will go; and where you lodge, I will lodge: your people shall be my people, and your God my God:

17 Where you die, will I die, and there will I be buried: the LORD do so to me, and more also, if ought but death part you and me. (This has to be one of the greatest statements, one of the greatest affirmations of Salvation, found in the entirety of the Word of God. In essence, it is that which must characterize all who come to Christ.

In this consecration, there is no looking back. The die is cast. She will forever turn her back on the world of idolatry and rebellion against God. She will forever throw in her lot with those who worship the Lord of Glory. Even when she dies, she does not want to be sent back to Moab, but rather buried in the land of Israel, which she was. She cut all ties with the past, even her family, and everything else. This is exactly the consecration that is demanded by God of all who come to Him. Anything less constitutes no Salvation at all!)

18 When she (Naomi) saw that she (Ruth) was stedfastly minded to go with her, then she left speaking unto her ("steadfastly minded" must be the character of every Believer).

19 So they two went until they came to Beth-lehem. And it came to pass, when they were come to Beth-lehem, that all the city was moved about them, and they said, Is this Naomi? (The words, "they said," proclaim a wealth of information. They carry the idea that the poverty which enveloped Naomi was obvious to all. Beside that, her husband and two sons were absent, meaning they were dead. As well, and above all, she is accompanied by a Moabitess, which was a reproach within itself. Little did the people of Bethlehem realize that this Moabitess would be the ancestress of the Messiah!)

20 And she said unto them, Call me not Naomi, call me Mara (bitter): for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me. (This was not correct! The Lord had not dealt bitterly with Naomi. While problems may be allowed by the Lord, they are because of our wrongdoing, and certainly not His.)

21 I went out full, and the LORD has brought me home again empty (in her thinking, "empty" described her situation; however, she was far more full than she could even begin to think; Ruth would prove to be the greatest blessing of all; unbelief sees "empty," while Faith sees "full"): why then call ye me Naomi, seeing the LORD has testified against me, and the Almighty has afflicted me?

22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter in law, with her, which returned out of the country of Moab (the Holy Spirit wants us to know who Ruth is, that we may know what Ruth becomes; He is, at the same time, telling us that, as He changed Ruth's life, He can change our lives, as well): and they came to Beth-lehem in the beginning of barley harvest. (This was April, Passover time. In effect, the Holy Spirit is saying, "When I see the Blood, I will pass over you." There is no sin the Blood cannot cover. There is no life the cleansing of the Blood cannot change. It will change Ruth; it can change us.)

THE FIELD OF BOAZ

[1] And Naomi had a kinsman of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech; and his name was Boaz. (In a sense, Boaz is a Type of Christ; Ruth, a Gentile, is a Type of the Church. The terrible losses in the land of Moab portray the dispersion and, thereby, judgment of Israel.

Boaz will prove to be the kinsman redeemer of Ruth. There is one Hebrew word for "kinsman" and "redeemer," for he only had "the right to redeem" who was a kinsman. Hence, it was necessary that the Lord Jesus Christ should become Man in order to redeem man. Ruth's marriage, and the wealthy home into which she was brought, picture the satisfying joy and fullness of blessing which union with Christ secures for the heart that trusts Him — Williams.)

[2] And Ruth the Moabitess said unto Naomi, Let me now go to the field, and glean ears of corn (grain) after him in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said unto her, Go, my daughter. (This portrays the fact that Naomi was poverty stricken. The welfare system of Israel in that day, which was given by God in the Law of Moses, stated that the poor, during the harvest, could go into the fields and glean the leavings. In this Law, the reapers were instructed to not glean the corners of the fields, and to leave a little something along the way.)

[3] And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers (we find that Ruth, although a beautiful young lady, was not adverse to hard work; those who are, are seldom, if ever, used by the Lord): and her hap was to light on a part of the field belonging unto Boaz, who was of the kindred of Elimelech. (Of course, the Holy Spirit was guiding her all the way. She did not know Boaz, but the Lord did. When the Lord plans for us, beautiful things result; when we plan for ourselves, there are no positive results!)

FAVOR

4 And, behold, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and said unto the reapers, The LORD be with you. And they answered him, The LORD bless you. (Boaz was extremely wealthy. He was of the Tribe of Judah, and in the direct line of the Messiah.)

5 Then said Boaz unto his servant who was set over the reapers, Whose damsel is this? (This question, even though asked casually by Boaz, would be answered by the Holy Spirit. Ruth would be the great-grandmother of David, and, thereby, of the Son of David.)

6 And the servant who was set over the reapers answered and said, It is the Moabitish damsel who came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab *(to those around her, Ruth was reduced to the level of gleaning, as she was poverty stricken; also, she was a Moabitess, with all its resultant connotations; however, Heaven would answer the question in a much different way):

7 And she (Ruth) said, I pray you *(speaking to the servant), let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves: so she came, and has continued even from the morning until now, that she tarried a little in the house (she has reaped constantly, only resting a short time in the house).

8 Then said Boaz unto Ruth, Hearest thou not, my daughter? Go not to glean in another field, neither go from hence, but abide here fast by my maidens *(Boaz, after being made aware of Ruth, and being introduced to her, now shows her favor):

9 Let your eyes be on the field that they do reap, and go thou after them *(after the maidens): have I not charged the young men that they shall not touch you? and when you are athirst, go unto the vessels, and drink of that which the young men have drawn.

10 Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I found grace in your eyes, that you should take knowledge of me, seeing I am a stranger? (A Gentile! Boaz had done far more than merely take notice of her. Her action toward him denotes humility, a trait, incidentally, enjoyed by precious few.)

11 And Boaz answered and said unto her, It has fully been showed me, all that you have done unto your mother in law since the death of your husband: and how you have left your father and your mother, and the land of your nativity, and are come unto a people which you knew not heretofore. (Boaz makes it clear that he had already been informed of her consecration as a proselyte to the Hebrew faith, and of her decision to leave her own people, her native land, and its gods, to live with a people who were strangers to her. He then pronounced a blessing from the God of Israel upon her. The Hebrew Targum adds to this answer of Boaz: "It has been certainly told me by the word of the wise, that what the Lord has decreed [Deut. 23:3]. And it has surely said to me by prophecy, that kings and prophets shall proceed from you because of the good which you have done")

12 The LORD recompense your work, and a full reward be given you of the LORD God of Israel, under Whose wings you are come to trust (in his own way, Boaz welcomes Ruth into the Family of God).

13 Then she said, Let me find favour in your sight, my Lord; for that you have comforted me, and for that you have spoken friendly unto your handmaid, though I be not like unto one of your handmaidens (she places herself socially beneath the other Jewish girls who were gleaning, with the idea in mind that she is a Gentile).

14 And Boaz said unto her, At mealtime come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dip your morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers: and he reached her parched corn (grain), and she did eat and was sufficed, and left (still, Ruth doesn't actually know who Boaz really is).

15 And when she was risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and reproach her not:

16 And let fall also some of the handfuls of purpose for her, and leave them, that she may glean them, and rebuke her not. (Boaz, in his instructions to the reapers, directed them to give Ruth greater liberty than that commanded by the Law. The "handfuls of purpose," in effect, state that handfuls of grain were to be dropped just for her. As stated, she was truly favored.)

17 So she gleaned in the field until evening, and beat out that she had gleaned: and it was about an ephah of barley (about a bushel).

18 And she took it up, and went into the city: and her mother in law saw what she had gleaned: and she brought forth, and gave to her that she had reserved after she was sufficed (she had gleaned far more than Naomi had thought she would be able to do).

NAOMI'S ADVICE

19 And her mother in law said unto her, Where have you gleaned today? and where have you worked? blessed be he who did take knowledge of you. And she showed her mother in law with whom she had wrought (worked), and said, The man's name with whom I wrought (worked) today is Boaz. (The way that Ruth answered proclaims more than a mere identification. She sensed something more, but Naomi would have to fill in the blanks, which she instantly did.)

20 And Naomi said unto her daughter in law, Blessed be he of the LORD, Who has not left off His Kindness to the living and to the dead (her husband and her two sons). And Naomi said unto her, The man is near of kin unto us, one of our next kinsmen. (Naomi was speaking of the Law of the kinsman redeemer. It referred to buying back a relative's property and to marrying his widow. When a Hebrew was forced to sell his inheritance because of poverty, the nearest relative was to redeem it for him [Lev. 25:25]. If one acted as a kinsman redeemer for one who had died without a son, he was obliged to marry the widow. Should he refuse to take possession of the property, he was not under obligation to marry the widow. Boaz had no right to redeem the property until the nearest kinsman

21 And Ruth the Moabitess said, He said unto me also, You shall keep fast by my young men, until they have ended all my harvest (in other words, Boaz told Ruth to not go glean in any other field except his).

22 And Naomi said unto Ruth her daughter in law, It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his maidens, that they meet you not in any other field (the implication is, Boaz wanted to see more of Ruth).

23 So she kept fast by the maidens of Boaz to glean unto the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest; and dwelt with her mother in law. (During the time of barley harvest, which was in April, three Feasts were to be kept: Passover, Unleavened Bread, and First Fruits. During the time of the wheat harvest, which came in the latter part of May or early June, was to be the Feast of Pentecost. It was fifty days after Passover.)

INSTRUCTIONS

[1] Then Naomi her mother in law said unto her, My daughter, shall I not seek rest for you, that it may be well with you? (In this instance, Naomi is a Type of the Holy Spirit, Who seeks our good. His Business is to ever lead us to Christ.)

[2] And now is not Boaz of our kindred, with whose maidens thou were? Behold, he winnows barley tonight in the threshingfloor (separates the husk from the grain; this is a Type of what the Holy Spirit does for us by separating us from the "flesh," i.e., "the frail strength of man" [Mat. 3:11]).

[3] Wash yourself therefore (this is a Type of Redemption [I Cor. 6:11]), and anoint thee (this speaks of the Baptism with the Holy Spirit, hence the anointing, which follows the Salvation experience [Acts 2:4]), and put your raiment upon you (the garment of praise; it is not only an inward change, but it is an outward change, as well; it is the change effected by the Power of the Holy Spirit working within our hearts and lives; it speaks of an inward change that produces itself outwardly [Isa. 61:3]), and get thee down to the floor (this speaks of humility; the literal meaning of the word "humility" is "a river that runs low" [I Pet. 5:5]): but make not yourself known unto the man, until he shall have done eating and drinking.

[4] And it shall be, when he lies down, that you shall mark the place where he shall lie, and you shall go in, and uncover his feet, and lay thee down; and he will tell you what you shall do. (There was nothing unseemly about this. It was a part of Hebrew Law. She was making a move, as instructed her by Naomi, which would bring Boaz to a place of decision. It is the same as the believing sinner coming to the feet of Christ, after which he will inherit everything that belongs to Christ, exactly as did Ruth regarding Boaz.)

OBEDIENCE

5 And she (Ruth) said unto her (Naomi), All that you say unto me I will do. (Naomi, being a Type of the Holy Spirit, gives instructions, and Ruth promptly obeys.)

6 And she went down unto the floor, and did according to all that her mother in law bade her (which pertains to the next evening, after the day's work had been finished).

7 And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn (grain): and she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and laid her down (she did what Naomi told her to do).

KINSMAN

8 And it came to pass at midnight, that the man was afraid, and turned himself: and, behold, a woman lay at his feet. (Again, let the Reader understand that there was nothing unseemly or untoward going on here. This was a custom in those days, regarding a kinsman redeemer who had not stepped up to carry out the Law.)

9 And he said, Who are you? And she answered, I am Ruth your handmaid: spread therefore your skirt over your handmaid; for you are a near kinsman (this is what Naomi had told her to say, which was correct).

10 And he said, Blessed be thou of the LORD, my daughter: for you have showed more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, inasmuch as you followed not young men, whether poor or rich ("the kindness which you are showing to your husband now that he is gone is still greater than what you did show him while he lived," hence the words, "more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning").

11 And now, my daughter, fear not; I will do to you all that you require: for all the city of my people does know that you are a virtuous woman (for months, the small town had observed Ruth, and the conclusion was one of virtue, as it regarded her).

12 And now it is true that I am your near kinsman: howbeit there is a kinsman nearer than I. (The kinsman nearer to Ruth is the one referred to in 4:1 as "Ho, such a one." We might say that this individual represented the Law. In effect, it had first claim on the Lord Jesus Christ; however, it refused its right of Redemption. It refused because the Law could never save. Only Boaz, our Heavenly Redeemer, could save.)

KINSMAN REDEMPTION

13 Tarry this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will perform unto you the part of a kinsman, well; let him do the kinsman's part *(this particular one was nearer kinsman to Naomi than Boaz): but if he will not do the part of a kinsman to you, then will I do the part of a kinsman to you, as the LORD lives: lie down until the morning (Ruth knew very little about these procedures, but Boaz knew them minutely).

14 And she lay at his feet until the morning: and she rose up before one could know another *(before daylight). And he said, Let it not be known that a woman came into the floor. (In other words, don't relate to anyone what happened last night. There was no impropriety in Ruth's action. It was the Law and custom of the time. To draw a portion of a kinsman's mantle over one was the legal way of claiming protection and Redemption. Ruth effected this with great delicacy and skill. She chose a public place, such as the threshingfloor, where many persons were present: but not to embarrass Boaz, but to give him liberty to act as he wished, she made her claim under the cover of darkness. Boaz, whose character commands admiration, immediately responded to her Faith and love.)

15 Also he said, Bring the veil that you had upon you, and hold it. And when she held it, he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her:

and she went into the city (back to Naomi!).

16 And when she came to her mother in law, she (Naomi) said, Who are you, my daughter? (The question actually was, "Are you Boaz's betrothed?") And she told her all that the man had done to her (had said to her).

17 And she said, These six measures of barley gave he me; for he said to me, Go not empty unto your mother in law. (Christ, symbolized by Boaz, will give us all that we need, and even more, according to what the Holy Spirit, symbolized by Naomi, has told us to do. When we follow the leading of the Spirit, we will not return empty.)

18 Then said she, Sit still, my daughter (herein lies the principle of Salvation by Faith; the Second Chapter of Galatians contrasts two principles for the obtaining of life and righteousness: the first is "works of Law," which pertained to religious ceremonies, personal moral efforts, and works of the flesh; it can never save; the second is "Salvation by Faith," which depends on no works, but totally upon Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross; the Holy Spirit teaches us that nothing can be had upon the first principle, but everything upon the second; so, Ruth would "sit still," wholly trusting Boaz, and, as a result, obtain her heart's desire), until you know how the matter will fall: for the man will not be in rest, until he have finished the thing this day.

THE INHERITANCE

[1] Then went Boaz up to the gate, and sat him down there (this is where business was conducted in cities of that day): and, behold, the kinsman of whom Boaz spoke came by (the one who was nearer kin to Naomi than was Boaz); unto whom he said, Ho, such a one! turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside, and sat down (desirous of knowing what business that Boaz wanted to discuss).

[2] And he took ten men of the Elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they sat down (they were to serve as witnesses).

[3] And he said unto the kinsman, Naomi, who is come again out of the country of Moab, sells a parcel of land (has determined to sell this parcel of land), which was our brother Elimelech's:

[4] And I thought to advertise you, saying, Buy it before the inhabitants, and before the Elders of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it: but if you will not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know: for there is none (before you) to redeem it beside you; and I am after you. And he said, I will redeem it (but found he couldn't!).

[5] Then said Boaz, What day you buy the field of the hand of Naomi, you must buy it also of Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance. (This means that the man must marry Ruth, as well as redeem the land. If a child was born to such a union, that child would inherit the land when the parents died, even though the father may even have other children who were older. In this manner, the inheritance would not be lost, which was the intention.)

6 And the kinsman said, I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I mar my own inheritance (he was probably already married): redeem thou my right to yourself; for I cannot redeem it. (Boaz had to purchase Ruth from a kinsman who had a prior claim, but who declared that he could not redeem her. The Law has a prior claim to sinners, but it cannot redeem them. Christ, the Divine Kinsman, became Man in order to redeem. It cost Boaz nothing to redeem Ruth, beyond the setting aside of himself and his own interests, but it cost Christ everything to redeem sinners.

Thus, Ruth, a "wild olive tree," was grafted into, and became a partaker of, "the root and fatness of the olive tree," i.e., Israel; but she could not boast that this was due to any commanding personal claim; all she could say was, "Why have I found grace in your eyes, seeing I am a Gentile?" [2:10] — Williams.)

7 Now this was the manner in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning changing, for to confirm all things; a man plucked off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was a testimony in Israel (when land was sold, the one previously owning the land would give his shoe to the one who had bought it, signifying that he freely gave up his right to walk upon the soil in favor of the person who had acquired the possession).

8 Therefore the kinsman said unto Boaz, Buy it for you. So he drew off his shoe (in other words, Boaz bought the land).

9 And Boaz said unto the Elders, and unto all the people, You are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi (by all the names being mentioned here, even though there was only one estate, there was a succession in the proprietorship).

10 Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: you are witnesses this day.

BOAZ MARRIES RUTH

[11] And all the people who were in the gate, and the Elders, said, We are witnesses. The LORD make the woman who is come into your house like Rachel and like Leah, which two did build the House of Israel: and do you worthily in Ephratah, and be famous in Beth-lehem (the latter phrase is more a Prophecy than a statement; Bethlehem will ever be famous; the reason is that the Son of David, the great Descendant of Ruth, would be born in Bethlehem some 1,200 years later; how beautifully and wondrously this Prophecy has come to pass)**:

[12] And let your house be like the house of Pharez, whom Tamar bore unto Judah, of the seed which the LORD shall give you of this young woman (to be sure, this "House" was blessed far more than the house of Pharez could ever be blessed, and, in fact, every other house, for it would be the House of the Lord Jesus Christ).

[13] So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife: and when he went in unto her, the LORD gave her conception, and she bore a son. (When she looked at her newborn baby, I wonder what the thoughts were in her mind. Little did she realize the consequences of it all, and neither do we!)

[14] And the women said unto Naomi, Blessed be the LORD, which hath not left you this day without a kinsman, that his name may be famous in Israel. (It is Ruth's little son who is the kinsman referred to, the nearest kinsman, still nearer than Boaz. To be sure, the child, who was the ancestor of David, and, ultimately, the Son of David, is linked to fame in a greater way than even these women could think.)

[15] And he (the child) shall be unto you (Naomi) a restorer of your life, and a nourisher of your old age: for your daughter in law, which loves you, which is better to you than seven sons, has born him (given birth to him).

[16] And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse unto it.

17 And the women her neighbours gave it a name, saying, There is a son born to Naomi (meaning that he was born to Naomi through Boaz and Ruth, who were fulfilling the Law by raising up seed for the dead [Ruth's dead husband], and keeping his name alive; their seed was reckoned, or counted, to carry on his place in Israel [Deut. 25:5-10]; this "Son," Who would be born of Israel [Naomi], will one day rule the world; His Name ultimately would be "the Lord Jesus Christ," the Son of David, the Son of Abraham [Mat. 1:1]); and they called his name Obed: he is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

RUTH, BOAZ, AND DAVID

18 Now these are the generations of Pharez: Pharez begat Hezron (Esrom)**,

19 And Hezron begat Ram (Aram), and Ram begat Amminadab,

20 And Amminadab begat Nahshon (Naason), and Nahshon begat Salmon,

21 And Salmon begat Boaz (Booz), and Boaz begat Obed,

22 And Obed begat Jesse, and Jesse begat David. (Most of the time, the genealogies given in the Bible, exactly as here, are not complete, and neither are they meant to be complete. They are merely meant to link certain individuals with others, although several times removed.

We know that Jesse was the father of David; however, we don't know if Obed was the immediate father of Jesse, or several times removed. In the Hebrew, there is no word for grandfather, or great-grandfather, etc. They are all looked at as the father.

We also know that Rahab married Salmon [Mat. 1:5]; however, we also know that Salmon was not the immediate father of Boaz, simply because Rahab and Salmon lived several hundreds of years before Boaz; however, we do know that Salmon was the father of Boaz several times removed.

All of this is very important, because it is an integral part of the genealogy of King David's great descendant, his "Lord," and ours. In other words, it pertains to the Incarnation of Christ, God becoming Man, in order to redeem humanity by dying on a Cross. Nothing is more important than that!)

CHAPTER 1

SAMUEL'S PARENTS

[1] Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim-zophim, of Mount Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephrathite (Elkanah, the father of Samuel, was a Levite, and of the order of the Kohathites, who were responsible for the Vessels of the Sanctuary [Num. 3:27-31]):

[2] And he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. (We find that Elkanah was not untouched by the corruption of his day, for he had two wives. Domestic misery was the result. Hannah had no children, and, in those days, to be barren was a disgrace.)

[3] And this man (Elkanah) went up out of his city yearly to worship and to sacrifice unto the LORD of Hosts in Shiloh. (The Tabernacle was then at Shiloh.) And the two sons of Eli (the High Priest), Hophni and Phinehas, the Priests of the LORD, were there. (The latter two were evil men, and yet occupied, officially, a certain relationship to God. Under the Covenant of Law, and its Divinely appointed Priesthood, such a position was possible; but under the Covenant of Grace, where there is no Earthly Priesthood, it is impossible. But men, not recognizing the distinction between the two Covenants, have invented an order of priests and clothed them with the sacramental powers of the sons of Aaron!)

[4] And when the time was that Elkanah offered (offered Sacrifices), he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions:

[5] But unto Hannah he gave a worthy portion; for he loved Hannah: but the LORD had shut up her womb. (The Lord did this for a particular purpose, as He does everything for a particular purpose. It was a test of Hannah's faith, as everything is a test of our faith, all meant to do us good.)

6 And her adversary (Peninnah, the other wife of Elkanah) also provoked her sore, for to make her fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb (made fun of her!).

7 And as he (Elkanah) did so year by year, when she (Hannah) went up to the House of the LORD, so she (Peninnah) provoked her; therefore she (Hannah) wept, and did not eat. (This "test" went on for several years. Evidently, Peninnah was provoking Hannah by telling her that she was cursed by God, hence, the failure to bear children. This hurt her much, as would be obvious, and the Lord allowed it to happen. So, this test was not only for Hannah, but Peninnah, as well, with the latter failing miserably!)

8 Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why do you weep? and why do you not eat? and why is your heart grieved? am I not better to you than ten sons?

HANNAH'S PRAYER AND VOW

9 So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk (the Peace Offering). Now Eli the Priest (High Priest) sat upon a seat by a post of the Temple of the LORD (the first time the Tabernacle is referred to as a "Temple").

10 And she (Hannah) was in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept sore (this is the type of praying that the Lord always hears and answers, that is, if such is in His Perfect Will).

11 And she vowed a vow, and said, O LORD of hosts ("Jehovah Sabaioth"; could be translated "Lord of armies"), if You will indeed look on the affliction of Your handmaid (the word "handmaid" denotes "humility"), and remember me, and not forget Your handmaid, but will give unto Your handmaid a man child (she wanted a little boy), then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come upon his head (in other words, she would dedicate him as a Nazarite, even from birth, which he would be all of his life; this was her "vow").

12 And it came to pass, as she continued praying before the LORD, that Eli marked her mouth (evidently, where she was praying, she could be seen by Eli).

13 Now Hannah, she spoke in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard (she was praying silently): therefore Eli thought she had been drunk. (Two things are said here: 1. Eli thinking that Hannah was drunk portrays that such must have been common at the time; and, 2. The spirituality of the High Priest evidently was not what it should have been, or he would have detected the Godly spirit of this woman.)

14 And Eli said unto her, How long will you be drunk? put away your wine from you (this must have stung Hannah).

15 And Hannah answered and said, No, my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soul before the LORD (evidently, Eli had not seen very much of such a prayerful attitude around the Tabernacle; regrettably, much of the modern Church falls into the same category).

16 Count not your handmaid for a daughter of Belial (worthless): for out of the abundance of my complaint and grief have I spoken hitherto.

17 Then Eli answered and said, Go in peace: and the God of Israel grant you your petition that you have asked of Him. (Whatever spiritual condition which characterized Eli, still, God used him to give Hannah this great word of prophecy. Her prayer had been heard after all these years.)

18 And she said, Let your handmaid find grace in your sight. So the woman went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was no more sad. (She knew the Lord had heard, and she knew the answer was on the way. It's a wonderful thing when one knows that the Lord has heard our petition, and the answer is positive.)

19 And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah: and Elkanah knew Hannah his wife (Biblical terminology for sexual relations); and the LORD remembered her (she became pregnant).

THE BIRTH OF SAMUEL

20 Wherefore it came to pass, when the time was come about after Hannah had conceived, that she bore a son, and called his name Samuel, saying, Because I have asked him of the LORD. (Samuel would be the last Judge of Israel, and the first man to stand in the office of the Prophet [Acts 3:24]. In fact, he was one of the greatest men of God who ever lived. He will anoint David to be king, through whose family the Messiah would ultimately come [I Sam. 16:1, 11-13; II Sam. 7:11-13].)

21 And the man Elkanah, and all his house, went up to offer unto the LORD the yearly sacrifice, and his vow (his vow shows that Elkanah had ratified Hannah's words by adding thereto a Thank Offering from himself).

22 But Hannah went not up; for she said unto her husband, I will not go up until the child be weaned (probably 3-5 years old; weaning was delayed much longer in that culture than with us presently), and then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and there abide for ever.

23 And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do what seems thee good; tarry until you have weaned him; only the LORD establish His Word. So the woman abode (stayed home), and gave her son suck until she weaned him.

THE VOW

24 And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her (to the Tabernacle), with three bullocks (for Sacrifice), and one ephah of flour (a Thank Offering), and a bottle of wine (a Drink Offering), and brought him unto the House of the LORD in Shiloh (where the Tabernacle was located): and the child was young (probably close to 5 years old).

25 And they killed a bullock, and brought the child to Eli.

26 And she said, Oh my lord, as your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood by you here, praying unto the LORD.

27 For this child I prayed; and the LORD has given me my petition which I asked of Him:

28 Therefore also I have lent him to the LORD (the word "lent" is not the best translation; actually, Hannah is saying, "I have given him to the LORD"); as long as he lives he shall be lent (given) to the LORD (and he was). And he (should have been translated "they") worshipped the LORD there.

CHAPTER 2

THE SONG OF HANNAH

[1] And Hannah prayed (the Chaldee reads, "And Hannah prayed in the Spirit of Prophecy"), and said, My heart rejoices in the LORD, my horn (a part of a woman's headdress, at least in that culture, at that time) is exalted in the LORD: my mouth is enlarged over my enemies; because I rejoice in Your Salvation (that Salvation is Christ, which Hannah will acknowledge in Verse 10).

[2] There is none holy as the LORD (the reason for her holy joy is first God's absolute Holiness): for there is none beside You (the second reason is His absolute existence, in which she finds the proof of His Holiness): neither is there any rock like our God (in referring to the Lord as a "Rock," she assigns to Him strength, calm, immovable, enduring, but a strength which avails for the safety of His People).

[3] Talk no more so exceeding proudly; let not arrogancy come out of your mouth: for the LORD is a God of knowledge, and by Him actions are weighed. (God judges all things in the light of His Omniscience, which signifies every type of knowledge, past, present, and future. Knowing this, man had best be careful as to what he says.)

[4] The bows of the mighty men are broken, and they who stumbled are girded with strength (the working of this attribute of Deity tells us that human events are not the result of chance, but of God's direction).

[5] They who were full have hired out themselves for bread; and they who were hungry ceased: so that the barren has born seven; and she who has many children is waxed feeble (this Verse typifies the Gentile Church, which is now abundant, by contrast with Israel, who is now barren, even though Hannah would not have understood this [Gal. 4:27]).

6 The LORD kills, and makes alive: He brings down to the grave, and brings up (oftentimes, the Lord brings a man to the very brink of the grave, and then, when all hope seems past, raises him up again).

7 The LORD makes poor, and makes rich: he brings low, and lifts up (therefore, "promotion comes from the Lord" [Ps. 75:6-7]).

8 He raises up the poor out of the dust, and lifts up the beggar from the dunghill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the Throne of Glory: for the pillars of the Earth are the LORD's, and He has set the world upon them. (This speaks of Salvation, when man is raised out of dust to the Glory of God. The "pillars" refer to everything hanging upon God and God Alone. This is a fact of Divine Government, which is distasteful to man.)

9 He will keep the feet of His Saints (the Lord does such by the Believer placing his Faith and trust exclusively in Christ and the Cross, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work in one's life, Who Alone can bring about the needed change and strength [Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11]), and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for by strength shall no man prevail ("the flesh," one's own personal strength [Rom. 8:1, 8]).

10 The adversaries of the LORD shall be broken to pieces (whoever it be who contends with Him); out of Heaven shall He thunder upon them (the Lord is the Supreme Judge): the LORD shall judge the ends of the Earth (the whole Earth up to its remotest quarters); and He shall give strength unto His king (is a distinct prophecy of David's kingdom), and exalt the horn of His Anointed. (Looks onward to the Messiah, David's greater Son. This is the first time that the term "His Anointed" is used, as it refers to the Messiah. It is even more special in that Hannah used it. From this point on, others take up the theme of God's Anointed One — the Messiah [Ps. 2:2; 45:7; Isa. 61:1; Dan. 9:25-26]. And so the song of Hannah ends here, but actually continues on in the hearts and lives of untold millions.)

11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house. And the child (Samuel) did minister unto the LORD before Eli the Priest (certain duties, which he, as a child, could perform, were assigned to him).

ELI'S SONS

12 Now the sons of Eli were sons of Belial (worthless, even though they were priests); they knew not the LORD (how many modern Preachers fall into the same category?).

13 And the priest's custom with the people was, that, when any man offered Sacrifice, the priest's servant came, while the flesh was in seething, with a fleshhook of three teeth in his hand;

14 And he struck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the fleshhook brought up the priest took for himself. So they did in Shiloh unto all the Israelites who came thither.

15 Also before they burnt the fat, the priest's servant came and said to the man who sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest; for he will not have sodden flesh of you, but raw.

16 And if any man said unto him, Let them not fail to burn the fat presently, and then take as much as your soul desires; then he would answer him, No; but you shall give it me now: and if not, I will take it by force.

17 Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD: for men abhorred the Offering of the LORD. (The legal due of the priests was for the right shoulder and the wave breast; but, before he took them, they were to be consecrated to God by the burning of the fat upon the Altar [Lev. 3:5; 7:31, 34]. But, beside the due and legal portion, which, nevertheless, they took in an illegal way, they demanded a part of the flesh reserved for the feast of the offerer, and to which they had absolutely no right [Lev. 8:31; II Chron. 35:13]. Considering the situation, the people of Israel were loathe to bring Sacrifices to the Lord, because of these evil priests.)

SAMUEL

18 But Samuel ministered before the LORD, being a child (in his early teens), girded with a linen Ephod (a linen robe; there seemed to have been many irregularities in the Tabernacle program at that time; first of all, no child was supposed to minister to the Lord in the Tabernacle; even though the Lord would not hold this against Samuel, He would hold it against Eli, who was responsible).

19 Moreover his mother made him a little coat, and brought it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice (this was the garment worn under the Ephod).

HANNAH

20 And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, The LORD give you seed of this woman for the loan which is lent (given) to the LORD. And they went unto their own home (Hannah had not asked simply for a son, but for a son whom she might dedicate to God; and now Eli prays that Jehovah will give her children to be her own).

21 And the LORD visited Hannah, so that she conceived, and bore three sons and two daughters. And the child Samuel grew before the LORD (the prayer of Eli was answered).

JUDGMENT

22 Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did unto all Israel; and how they lay with the women who assembled at the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation (their sin was the greater because the women whom they corrupted were those dedicated to Tabernacle service [Ex. 38:8]).

23 And he said unto them, Why do you such things? for I hear of your evil dealings by all this people. (The two sons of Eli who were priests were Hophni and Phinehas. We may ask as to why the Lord didn't kill these two priests as He killed Nadab and Abihu? [Lev. 10:1-2]. The answer is: the Lord, at that time, was dwelling in power in the camp; but during Eli's time, He had withdrawn Himself because of Israel's apostasy. There is a great difference in an electric wire when charged and not charged.)

24 No, my sons; for it is no good report that I hear: you make the LORD's people to transgress (you make Jehovah's people cease to worship Him).

25 If one man sin against another, the Judge shall judge him: but if a man sin against the LORD, who shall intreat for him? Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, because the LORD would slay them. (They had passed the point of no return, and judgment would soon come. I wonder how many modern Preachers fall into the same category?)

26 And the child Samuel grew on, and was in favour both with the LORD, and also with men. (The Holy Spirit keeps mentioning this, signifying its importance [Vs. 21].)

27 And there came a man of God unto Eli *(the Holy Spirit did not tell us who he was), and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Did I plainly appear unto the house of your father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house?

28 And did I choose him (Aaron) out of all the Tribes of Israel to be My Priest, to offer upon My Altar, to burn incense, to wear an Ephod before Me? and did I give unto the house of your father all the Offerings made by fire of the Children of Israel?

29 Wherefore kick you at My Sacrifice and at My Offering, which I have commanded in My habitation; and honour your sons above Me, to make yourselves fat with the chiefest of all the Offerings of Israel My people? (Eli's sons treated the Ordinances, which had raised them to rank, and given them wealth and power, as if they were mundane and insignificant things. And Eli, instead of removing them from the office which they disgraced, preferred the ties of relationship to his duty to God and the moral welfare of the people.)

30 Wherefore the LORD God of Israel said, I said indeed that your house, and the house of your father, should walk before Me for ever: but now the LORD says, Be it far from Me; for them who honour Me, I will honour, and they who despise Me shall be lightly esteemed. (Smith says, "By thus acting, Eli became an accomplice in the abomination of his sons, and God, therefore, revoked his grant of a perpetual priesthood." The promise had been made to Aaron's family as a whole [Ex. 29:9], and had then been renewed to the house of Eleazar [Num. 25:13]. Under Eli, the line of Ithamar, another son of Aaron, had ascended, but now it will diminish. This means that God's Promises are conditional. He honors those who honor Him, etc.)

31 Behold, the days come, that I will cut off your arm, and the arm of your father's house *(the arm is the usual metaphor for strength), that there shall not be an old man in your house (the prophecy was amply fulfilled in the slaughter of Eli's house, which took place a little later).

32 And you shall see an enemy in My habitation, in all the wealth which God shall give Israel: and there shall not be an old man in your house for ever (while Israel will be blessed, his house will diminish).

33 And the man of yours, whom I shall not cut off from My Altar, shall be to consume your eyes, and to grieve your heart: and all the increase of your house shall die in the flower of their age (cut down as young men, which they were).

34 And this shall be a sign unto you, that shall come upon your two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas; in one day they shall die both of them (they died in battle, as the following account will proclaim).

35 And I will raise Me up a faithful Priest, who shall do according to that which is in My heart and in My mind: and I will build Him a sure house; and He shall walk before My anointed for ever (this speaks of the Lord Jesus Christ, our Great High Priest, Who will rule in the Millennial Reign; the Priests who will serve under Him will also be "anointed," and will be so forever).

36 And it shall come to pass, that everyone who is left in your house shall come and crouch to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and shall say, Put me, I pray you, into one of the Priests' offices, that I may eat a piece of bread. (In the near future, this did happen to the descendants of Eli. After a period of time, it seems that Samuel did much to raise from their misery the descendants of Eli, and there is no reason for imagining that the family ever again fell into distress, nor do the terms of the prophecy warrant such a supposition.)

SAMUEL

[1] And the child Samuel ministered unto the LORD before Eli (served in the Tabernacle). And the Word of the LORD was precious (rare) in those days; there was no open vision. (Although prophetic utterances had been given, even as we witnessed in the last Chapter, still, the Office of the Prophet had not yet been established. In fact, Samuel would be the first one to occupy that office. Considering that the priesthood was corrupt, the nation, for all practical purposes, was then without spiritual leadership.)

[2] And it came to pass at that time, when Eli was laid down in his place, and his eyes began to wax dim, that he could not see (it was night, and, as well, Eli was almost blind);

[3] And ere the Lamp of God went out in the Temple of the LORD (meaning that the Golden Lampstand, which was to be resupplied with oil morning and evening [9 a.m. and 3 p.m.], had obviously been neglected), where the Ark of God was (the Ark of God was in the Holy of Holies, while the Lampstand was in the Holy Place, which was immediately in front of the Holy of Holies, separated by a Veil), and Samuel was laid down to sleep (as stated, it was night);

[4] That the LORD called Samuel: and he answered, Here am I (it is believed that Samuel possibly was about 14 or 15 years old at this time).

[5] And he ran unto Eli, and said, Here am I; for you called me. And he (Eli) said, I called not; lie down again. And he went and lay down.

[6] And the LORD called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for you did call me. And he answered, I called not, my son; lie down again.

7 Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, neither was the Word of the LORD yet revealed unto him (it didn't mean that the boy did not know the Lord regarding Salvation, but that he did not yet know Him regarding the prophetic voice; that is soon to change).

8 And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for you did call me. And Eli perceived that the LORD had called the child (the Lord now reveals Himself to Israel, but to a boy!).

9 Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down: and it shall be, if He call you, that you shall say, Speak, LORD; for Your servant hears. So Samuel went and lay down in his place (from all this, we know that Eli knew the Ways of the Lord, but he had not walked in those ways).

THE MESSAGE

10 And the LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times (the last three times), Samuel, Samuel (this is another proof that the Jehovah of the Old Testament and the Jesus of the New Testament are One and The Same; He Who said, "Samuel, Samuel," was the very same One Who said, "Martha, Martha," and "Simon, Simon"; the style reveals the Author). Then Samuel answered, Speak; for Your servant hears.

11 And the LORD said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of everyone who hears it shall tingle. (Even though the Word of the Lord may be delayed a few years, ultimately, it will be fulfilled. It happened exactly as the Lord said, with the defeat of Israel in battle, the capture of the Ark of the Covenant by the Philistines, and, as well, the destruction of the Sanctuary at Shiloh.)

12 In that day I will perform against Eli all things which I have spoken concerning his house: when I begin, I will also make an end. (With proper Repentance, could Eli have changed the course of events? True Repentance always changes things. Some judgment may have fallen, but it would have been lessened greatly.)

13 For I have told him that I will judge his house for ever for the iniquity which he knows; because his sons made themselves vile, and he restrained them not. (These Messages were warnings, but, despite the warnings, there is no record that Eli changed anything. Why? Probably the greatest reason is unbelief.)

14 And therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be purged with Sacrifice nor Offering forever. (Sacrifices, as Biblical as they were, had no effect if there was no Repentance. It is the same presently. Calvary is a fact; however, its benefits are effective only for those who will truly repent, thereby making the Lord their Saviour.)

THE MESSAGE RELAYED

15 And Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the House of the LORD (which was obviously one of his duties). And Samuel feared to show Eli the Vision.

16 Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel, my son. And he answered, Here am I.

17 And he said, What is the thing that the LORD has said unto you? I pray you hide it not from me: God do so to you, and more also, if you hide anything from me of all the things that He said unto you.

18 And Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. And he said, It is the LORD: let Him do what seems Him good. (Despite Eli hearing these words, there is still no record that the old man repented. True Repentance would have demanded that he move his sons out of the priesthood, and denounce their activities, and do so publicly. For whatever reasons, there is no record that he did such!)

THE PROPHET

19 And Samuel grew (Samuel is now a young man), and the LORD was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground (in other words, his Prophecies were all of the Lord).

20 And all Israel from Dan even to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was established to be a Prophet of the LORD. (As stated, even though there had previously been Prophets in Israel, Samuel was the first one to stand in this established office. Throughout the balance of Israel's history, the Lord led the nation through the Ministry of the Prophet. While some of the announcements of the Prophets were predictions, their Ministry was mostly a Ministry of Righteousness. They were ever called to whip the nation into shape. In fact, John the Baptist, the greatest Prophet of them all, made precious few predictions, but served almost altogether as a Preacher of Righteousness. God is still calling Prophets presently [Eph. 4:11]; however, the Church is presently led by the Ministry of the Apostle, which credentials are a special Message from the Lord as it regards the Church, but which will always coincide with the Word of the Lord [Rom. 1:1-5].)

21 And the LORD appeared again in Shiloh: for the LORD revealed Himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the Word of the LORD (the Lord now begins to speak to Samuel on a regular basis).

CHAPTER 4

THE PHILISTINES

1 And the word of Samuel came to all Israel (this phrase, according to the manuscripts, belongs at the conclusion of the last Verse of the last Chapter; it makes it seem here as if the Lord through Samuel is calling Israel to battle, which is not the case). Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside Eben-ezer: and the Philistines pitched in Aphek (it seems that Israel had enjoyed comparative freedom and peace for a period of time, up to now).

2 And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was smitten before the Philistines: and they slew of the army in the field about four thousand men.

3 And when the people were come into the camp, the Elders of Israel said, Wherefore has the LORD smitten us to day before the Philistines? Let us fetch the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh unto us, that, when it comes among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies. (They didn't ask the Lord if they could take the Ark of the Covenant, neither did the Lord tell them to do so. If Israel had fallen on their faces before God in weeping and contrition, repenting of their sins before the door of the Tabernacle, the future could have been different. Instead, they would try to use the Ark as a magic symbol, thinking, somehow, it would atone for their evil and guarantee the Presence and Blessings of God. How so much today does the modern Church follow suit!)

4 So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD of hosts, which dwells between the Cherubims: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the Ark of the Covenant of God (two evil men accompanied the Ark, which should tell us something about the spiritual condition of Israel).

5 And when the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the Earth rang again. (As the heart gets further and further from God, symbols and ceremonies become very important. As Israel, many try to cover up the barrenness of their possession by the loudness of their profession. Israel had nothing to shout about. They needed to repent.)

6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What means the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the Ark of the LORD was come into the camp.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, Woe unto us! for there has not been such a thing heretofore. (How wonderful it would have been if God had actually come into the camp!)

8 Woe unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness. (The Ark was but a symbol of the Divine Presence. Now, when confronted by the enemy, the symbol was made to displace the Substance; however, such was not to be, even as such could not be. Had God overthrown the Philistines at Aphek, He would thereby have associated Himself with the evil of His people. God can make no compromise with evil; for the Lord to have granted victory that day would have shown that God thought lightly of sin; and that He was willing to identify Himself with the moral condition of a people living in willing bondage to the most gross of evils — Williams.)

9 Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O you Philistines, that you be not servants unto the Hebrews, as they have been to you: quit yourselves like men, and fight. (The Philistine was a domestic, not a foreign, enemy. He illustrates the power of the enemy inside the professing Christian Church, and is more to be dreaded than any enemy who stands outside.)

10 And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten, and they fled every man into his tent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen (a terrible slaughter! They are called "footmen" because the Israelites had neither cavalry nor chariots).

THE ARK CAPTURED

11 And the Ark of God was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain (exactly as the Lord had said [2:34]; the greater tragedy was that the "Ark of God" was taken by the enemy).

THE DEATH OF ELI

12 And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh (where the Tabernacle was located) the same day with his clothes rent, and with earth upon his head (a sign of tragedy).

13 And when he came, lo, Eli sat upon a seat by the wayside watching: for his heart trembled for the Ark of God. And when the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out.

14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What means the noise of this tumult? And the man came in hastily, and told Eli.

15 Now Eli was ninety and eight years old; and his eyes were dim, that he could not see (couldn't see well).

16 And the man said unto Eli, I am he who came out of the army, and I fled to day out of the army. And he said, What is there done, my son?

17 And the messenger answered and said, Israel is fled before the Philistines, and there has been also a great slaughter among the people, and your two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the Ark of God is taken.

18 And it came to pass, when he made mention of the Ark of God, that he fell from off the seat backward by the side of the gate, and his neck broke, and he died: for he was an old man, and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years. (Had he judged in fellowship with God, and in obedience to the Scriptures, the disasters that took place on this day of his death would never have happened; and yet, in his death, he showed that the interests of God's Kingdom had a true place in his heart. Three messages were given to Eli: 1. The battle is lost, and thirty thousand Israelites are dead; 2. Your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead; and, 3. The Ark of God is taken. While each message was tragic, the loss of the Ark of God was the most tragic of all!)

ICHABOD

19 And his daughter in law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near to be delivered: and when she heard the tidings that the Ark of God was taken, and that her father in law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and travailed; for her pains came upon her.

20 And about the time of her death the women who stood by her said unto her, Fear not; for you have born a son. But she answered not, neither did she regard it.

21 And she named the child Ichabod, saying, The glory is departed from Israel: because the Ark of God was taken, and because of her father in law and her husband.

22 And she said, The glory is departed from Israel: for the Ark of God is taken. (Concerning this, Williams says, "The last four Verses of this Chapter throw a shaft of light across the darkness; and the detail into which the Holy Spirit enters in the narrative shows how precious to Him was the measure of Divine life in the soul of this true-hearted woman. She is placed here upon the face of the Divine record with great vividness. The Holy Spirit recalls her affection for her aged father-in-law, and for her godless and faithless husband, but points with emphasis to the fact that grief for God's Kingdom swallowed up the joy of motherhood" [Jn. 16:21].)

THE ARK OF GOD

[1] And the Philistines took the Ark of God, and brought it from Eben-ezer unto Ashdod. (The Ark of God would not be a blessing to unrepentant Israel, but it would be a curse to the mocking Philistines. We will learn from this Chapter that God rules all.)

[2] When the Philistines took the Ark of God, they brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon. (The Philistines, knowing nothing about the ways of God, would automatically think that Israel was defeated because their god Dagon was more powerful than Israel's God, Who was represented by the Ark. Unfortunately, unregenerate men always make ridiculous judgments regarding God [I Cor. 2:14]. This so-called god, Dagon, was portrayed as a man to the waist and with the tail of a fish. The Philistines putting the Ark of the Covenant by this fish-god Dagon was intended as a public demonstration that the God of the Israelites was inferior to, and had been vanquished by, the national deity of the Philistines.)

[3] And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the earth before the Ark of the LORD. And they (the priests of Dagon) took Dagon, and set him in his place again. (At Ashdod, one of the five main cities of Philistia, there was a temple of Dagon, the national god. Their god falling over was a way of God telling the Philistines that "every knee shall bow, and every tongue shall confess" [Rom. 14:11]. There is only one God, and all others that call themselves god, in effect, are no gods at all. They are actually representatives of demon spirits, exactly as false religions fall into the same category presently.)

[4] And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the Ark of the LORD; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold; only the stump of Dagon was left to him (by severing the head and the hands, the Lord was telling the Philistines that their god had no power against Him).

5 Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any who come into Dagon's house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod unto this day (apparently, the Books of Samuel were written some time after the events recorded in them took place).

6 But the Hand of the LORD was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and He destroyed them, and smote them with emerods (skin tumors), even Ashdod and the coasts thereof.

JUDGMENT

7 And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, The Ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us: for His Hand is sore upon us, and upon Dagon our god. (Williams says, "It is not at all a pleasant thing for the people of this world to have God in their midst. He keeps up a perpetual controversy with their sins and their idolatries; and as the Philistines were not willing to become His People, they determined that the best thing they could do was to get rid of Him. In fact, that attitude has not changed, being the spirit of society presently.")

8 They sent therefore and gathered all the lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the Ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the Ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto Gath. And they carried the Ark of the God of Israel about thither (in their superstition, they evidently thought that possibly a change of cities in Philistia would solve their problems; they were to find out differently).

9 And it was so, that, after they had carried it about, the Hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction: and He smote the men of the city, both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts (the idea seems to be that the tumors buried themselves deep in the flesh and, becoming thus incurable, ended in causing the death of the sufferers).

EKRON

10 Therefore they sent the Ark of God to Ekron (another Philistine city). And it came to pass, as the Ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the Ark of the God of Israel to us, to kill us and our people. (It is strange that they saw the great Power of God, but still would not yield to Him. The only thought was, "Get rid of the Ark.")

11 So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, Send away the Ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to His Own place, that it kill us not, and our people: for there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city; the Hand of God was very heavy there ("deadly destruction," in the Hebrew, refers to many who were dying, and many who had died).

12 And the men who died not were smitten with the emerods: and the cry of the city went up to Heaven.

CHAPTER 6

COUNSEL

[1] And the Ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months (it could have been seven months of Heaven, had the Philistines only accepted the Lord; otherwise, it was seven months of Hell!).

[2] And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, What shall we do to the Ark of the LORD? tell us wherewith we shall send it to His Place. (Amazing is the ability of man to resist and reject God. The deep ignorance and incurable rebellion of man's heart appear throughout this episode. When God evidenced His mighty Power before the Philistines, they were convinced, but not converted. Men, presently, proudly declare that they will become Christians if convinced by evidence. They deceive themselves. They are by nature Philistines, and Philistines they will remain, in spite of the most overwhelming proof of God's Being and Power.)

[3] And they said, If you send away the Ark of the God of Israel, send it not empty; but in any wise return Him a trespass offering: then you shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why His hand is not removed from you (they were still trying to convince themselves that quite possibly their problems were not due to the Ark of God).

[4] Then said they, What shall be the trespass offering which we shall return to Him? They answered, Five golden emerods, and five golden mice, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines: for one plague was on you all, and on your lords. (Is it any different presently? We try to give God our talent, education, ability, etc. He will accept none of it. He will only accept His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, and the Blood that was shed at Calvary's Cross [Mat. 3:17].)

5 Wherefore you shall make images of your emerods, and images of your mice that mar the land; and you shall give glory unto the God of Israel: peradventure He will lighten His Hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land. (Thinking that the giving of these images to the Lord would give Him glory presents the normal idea of the unredeemed. They do not know God, nor anything about God. It is called "total depravity." How can one know the Lord, when one is dead [dead to God] in trespasses and sins [Eph. 2:1].)

6 Wherefore then do you harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? when He had wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let the people go, and they departed? (On this reference to Egypt, it is remarkable that Dagon's priests so correctly point out that it was the stubbornness of the Egyptians which made their punishment so severe. They knew all of this, but they still wouldn't accept the Lord.)

7 Now therefore make a new cart, and take two mil k kine (two cows), on which there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves home from them (the separation of the cows from their calves was for the purpose of demonstrating whether the plague was supernatural after all; if, however, the cows acted in a manner contrary to nature, their last doubt would be removed, and that's exactly what happened!)**:

8 And take the Ark of the LORD, and lay it upon the cart; and put the jewels of gold, which you return Him for a trespass offering, in a coffer by the side thereof; and send it away, that it may go (on this cart they would place the Ark of the Covenant. This was contrary to the Law of God, because the Ark was to be borne by Priests who were consecrated and otherwise qualified to do so. Being ignorant of the Word of God, the Philistines would escape the judgment of this act; however, David's "new cart" would produce sad results [II Sam. 6:1-11]).

9 And see, if it goes up by the way of His own coast to Beth-shemesh, then He has done us this great evil: but if not, then we shall know that it is not His Hand that smote us; it was a chance that happened to us (if the cows, unaccustomed to the yoke, left their calves behind, and drew the cart by the most direct route unto the land of Judah, this would give the required proof that the Philistines were smitten by the Hand of Jehovah, and that it was no mere chance that had happened unto them).

THE RETURN OF THE ARK

10 And the men did so; and took two milk cows, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home:

11 And they laid the Ark of the LORD upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their emerods.

12 And the cows took the straight way to the way of Beth-shemesh, and went along the highway, lowing as they went, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the border of Beth-shemesh (this action, the cows leaving their calves, and especially going straight toward Beth-shemesh, proved to the Philistines, beyond the shadow of a doubt, that all of this was of the Lord).

13 And they of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley: and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the Ark, and rejoiced to see it.

14 And the cart came into the field of Joshua, a Beth-shemite, and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they did cleave the wood of the cart, and offered the cows (as) a Burnt Offering unto the LORD.

15 And the Levites took down the Ark of the LORD, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Beth-shemesh offered Burnt Offerings and sacrificed Sacrifices the same day unto the LORD. (As we see here, the Israelites had an inquisitive irreverence in respect to the Ark. God had commanded that it should be veiled by the curtains of the Tabernacle, and only approached through a Divinely appointed High Priest, with confession of sin, and the presentation of atoning blood. These people, like many today, pushed all of the Word of the Lord aside and, assisted by the Levites, exposed the Ark, and, one might even say, the Throne of God, to public view.

The Ark was not only the Throne of God on Earth, but was also, as revealed in the Books of Exodus and Leviticus, a beautiful symbol of Christ in His essential Deity and sinless Humanity. Concerning this, Williams said, "Ever since He rose from the dead, many who profess to be His disciples not only deny Him in His Office as the Atoning Mediator between God and men, but, with bold impiety, try to subject His mysterious nature to the demonstrations of human wisdom, impelled by the same spirit which urged the men at Beth-shemesh to look into the Ark.")

16 And when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

17 And these are the golden emerods which the Philistines returned for a trespass offering unto the LORD; for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one;

18 And the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fenced cities, and of country villages, even unto the great stone of Abel, whereon they set down the Ark of the LORD: which stone remains unto this day in the field of Joshua, the Beth-shemite.

19 And He (the Lord) smote the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked into the Ark of the LORD, even He smote of the people fifty thousand and threescore and ten men: and the people lamented, because the LORD had smitten many of the people with a great slaughter. (First of all, the people of Israel, except for the soldiers in the previous battle lost, had never seen the Ark of God. As well, they evidently had not been taught the proper respect and reverence for this which was the Holiest of God. In fact, their curiosity was little different than the Philistines'.

There is some question here regarding the number given of the people slain, simply because of the smallness of the population in this area and the similarity of the Hebrew letters, which could have caused a copyist mistake. In fact, the Septuagint reads, "He smote among them seventy men, including fifty of the men's thousand." Even seventy killed in such a small place would constitute a great loss. At any rate, whatever the actual number, men died because of their casual curiosity.)

[20] And the men of Beth-shemesh said, Who is able to stand before this Holy LORD God? and to whom shall He go up from us? (Seeing what had happened, the men of this area, as well, wanted to rid themselves of the Ark. Presently, far too many desire a semblance of God, but only a semblance. There is no danger in the semblance, and great danger in the reality, that is, if the Lord is treated with contempt; therefore, many presently are satisfied with the mere echo!)

[21] And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath-jearim, saying, The Philistines have brought again the Ark of the LORD; come you down, and fetch it up to you. (When the cover is pulled off and we are put to the test, the modern Church, as Beth-shemesh, little wants the Lord. If God is there, the spectacle of His Blessing and Judgment are side by side. The Church has repeatedly through the ages tried to have only one aspect of God, namely the Blessing. That is not possible! We must never forget that there is Redemption, and there is Judgment; consequently, there is Heaven, and there is Hell. Moses said, "I set before you the way of life and the way of death" [Deut. 30:19].)

THE HOUSE OF ABINADAB

[1] And the men of Kirjath-jearim came, and fetched up the Ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the Ark of the LORD. (There is much evidence that the Ark was neglected and not at all respected. Kirjath-jearim was about eight miles northeast of Beth-shemesh. It would remain in this location for approximately twenty years, in which time Israel was more or less under the yoke of the Philistines. It seems, as well, that it would remain there during the forty-year reign of Saul. David would reign approximately ten years [seven years in Judah and three years over the whole of Israel] before the Ark would be brought to Jerusalem. This is a total of approximately seventy years.

Furthermore, when the Ark was finally found by David, it seems that it had been discarded and was standing alone out in a field next to the woods. The Psalm of David says, "Lo, we heard of it at Ephratah: we found it in the fields of the wood" [Ps. 132:6]. Whether that can be taken literally or not, we cannot say; yet, I wonder if the Glory of God has not been abandoned in the modern Church even more so than it was with Israel?)

[2] And it came to pass, while the Ark abode in Kirjath-jearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the House of Israel lamented after the LORD. (The time is always long, when one is out of the Will of God. One possibly could as well say, "The Lord lamented after Israel.")

REPENTANCE

[3] And Samuel spoke unto all the House of Israel, saying, If you do return unto the LORD with all your hearts (this was a Message of Repentance; God's true servants always preach as Samuel preached; they arouse people to a consciousness of their sinful condition before God; they set forth the Lamb of God evidently crucified among them [Gal. 3:1; 5:9, 17] as the Divine Way of Pardon and Righteousness; and they denounce all compromise with evil), then put away the strange gods and Ashtaroth from among you (everything that's not "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" is idolatry, i.e., "strange gods"), and prepare your hearts unto the LORD (people are not won to the Lord by the route of intellectualism, but rather by appealing to their hearts), and serve Him only (the bane of Israel was serving the Lord as well as idols; it is the same presently! Paul refers to such worship as "another Jesus, another spirit, and another gospel" [II Cor. 11:4]): and He will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines. (The die is cast! The Lord will deliver, but only on His terms, and those terms are spelled out in Samuel's Message. God hasn't changed; if deliverance is to be obtained presently, He demands the same now as He did of Israel of old.)

4 Then the Children of Israel did put away Baalim and Ashtaroth, and served the LORD only.

5 And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you unto the LORD. (Israel is about to see a Move of God, the first one seen in a long, long time. It is time, as well, for the Church!)

6 And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and drew water, and poured it out before the LORD (this was a Type of Christ pouring out His All on the Cross, which He did without reservation), and fasted on that day, and said there, We have sinned against the LORD (and sin is the cause of all problems). And Samuel judged the Children of Israel in Mizpeh (and did so according to the Word of the Lord).

VICTORY

7 And when the Philistines heard that the Children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the Children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines. (It would seem that what the Philistines had seen, as it regards the Ark of God, would have caused them to have the exact opposite reaction; however, miracles seldom draw people to God! As well, Israel, now that Repentance was the order of the day, had no reason to be afraid.)

[8] And the Children of Israel said to Samuel, Cease not to cry unto the LORD our God for us, that He will save us out of the hand of the Philistines (if there is not a strong spiritual leader, the people perish [Eph. 4:11]).

[9] And Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered it for a Burnt Offering wholly unto the LORD (the whole Burnt Offering was a Type of Christ giving His Perfection to imperfect people, at least to those who will believe; Samuel was a Levite and, accordingly [I Chron. 23:27-32], he could offer a Burnt Offering; he could not enter the Tabernacle, though, not being a son of Aaron; in fact, the Tabernacle, at this time, was useless as a center of worship; for the Throne of God, that is, the Ark, had been removed from it): and Samuel cried unto the LORD for Israel; and the LORD heard him. (Every generation must have a Samuel, or else the Church is set back immeasurably, oftentimes taking a century or more to recover.)

[10] And as Samuel was offering up the Burnt Offering, the Philistines drew near to the battle against Israel (however, Israel's strength now is based upon the shed blood of the slain lamb): but the LORD thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and discomfited them; and they were smitten before Is rael. (As is obvious here, the Lord cannot give victory to sinful man. He can give victory only to His Son, and our Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ; however, if we are properly in Christ, which we can only be by virtue of what He has done for us at the Cross, His Victory will be ours, and that's the way it's meant to be [Jn. 14:20].)

[11] And the men of Israel went out of Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, until they came under Beth-car. (It is the Will of God for us to pursue the Devil, in the sense of discomfiting him, instead of him pursuing us. But let us not forget, we can do such a thing only in the Power of the Slain Lamb, i.e., "the Cross".)

12 Then Samuel took a stone ("and that Rock was Christ" [I Cor. 10:4]), and set it between Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name of it Eben-ezer, saying, Hitherto has the LORD helped us (and again I say, the Lord will always help us, providing Christ is looked at as the Source, with the Cross as the Means).

13 So the Philistines were subdued, and they came no more into the coast of Israel: and the Hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. (Every enemy of our soul can be subdued, and "come again no more," as long as our Faith is in Christ and Him Crucified [I Cor. 1:23].)

14 And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even unto Gath; and the coasts (borders) thereof did Israel deliver out of the hands of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites ("were restored to Israel"; the Lord wants to give back all that Satan has stolen and, in the Cross, it can be done, and only in the Cross can it be done).

SAMUEL JUDGES ISRAEL

15 And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. (In fact, Samuel was the last Judge, with the order of events now being changed, but not by God, but rather by the people. Ideas and schemes which are born by man can never be blessed by God.)

16 And he went from year to year in circuit to Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and judged Israel in all those places.

17 And his return was to Ramah; for there was his house; and there he judged Israel; and there he built an Altar unto the LORD. (From this, we see that the Aaronic Priesthood was now in abeyance, meaning that Samuel was not only a Prophet and a Judge, but also a Priest. Thus, he was a Type of Christ! Under David the Priesthood would be restored, with the Ark brought back to its rightful place, but that would be some years yet.)

CHAPTER 8

SAMUEL'S SONS

1 And it came to pass, when Samuel was old, that he made his sons Judges over Israel. (Samuel was probably about 60 years old at this time. As godly as Samuel was, the Text reveals the fact that he wasn't perfect. There is no hint that he asked the Lord for guidance as it regards putting his sons in places of authority. Simply put, they were not spiritually qualified.)

2 Now the name of his firstborn was Joel; and the name of his second, Abiah: they were Judges in Beer-sheba.

3 And his sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after lucre (money), and took bribes, and perverted judgment. (This sin was expressly forbidden by the Law [Ex. 23:6, 8; Deut. 16:19], and it marks the high spirit of the nation that it was so indignant at justice being thus perverted.)

4 Then all the Elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto Ramah (because of the corruption of Samuel's sons)**,

5 And said unto him, Behold, you are old, and your sons walk not in your ways: now make us a king to judge us like all the nations. (Israel's sin was twofold: 1. They wanted their own ways instead of God's Ways and 2. Their desire for a king to be like other nations was a work of the flesh and not of the Spirit. It would, thereby, bring untold sorrow.

A king whom they could see, although he would be only a feeble, foolish, and dying man, was preferred to an unseen, Almighty King, Wise and Eternal.

The nation wished to be like the surrounding nations, forgetting that their glory and happiness consisted in being unlike these nations.

It was God's Will for them to have a king, but not at this present time. To be sure, there was no way they would correct the wrong that was then being done in Israel by committing another wrong. In other words, by not looking exclusively to the Lord, proverbially speaking, they were jumping out of the frying pan into the fire.)

A KING

6 But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And Samuel prayed unto the LORD (Samuel's displeasure had nothing to do with them rejecting his sons, but rather because of the rebellion and impatience of the people in not waiting for the king whom God had promised [Gen. 17:7, 16; Num. 24:17; Deut. 17:14-20]).

7 And the LORD said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto you: for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me, that I should not reign over them. (Oftentimes, when it is thought that a particular man is rejected, and for reasons which some think are valid, in reality, it is God Who has been rejected. This is a sobering thought that we should deeply contemplate. To reject God is simply the most serious thing that a person can do, and for a Believer to reject Him presents something even far worse.)

8 According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken Me, and served other gods, so do they also unto you (to reject God's man is to reject God!).

9 Now therefore hearken unto their voice: howbeit yet protest solemnly unto them, and show them the manner of the king that shall reign over them. (God, in His Tender Love, would plainly tell them the treatment they would receive from the king of their own choice. Six times the fact is repeated: "he will take," and referring to this particular king. Oftentimes, through a work of the flesh, we can bring things into existence which are contrary to God's Will. No matter the face that we put upon it, it will only bring troubles and difficulties.)

10 And Samuel told all the words of the LORD unto the people who asked of him a king (so they had no excuse!).

THE WARNING

11 And he said, This will be the manner of the king who shall reign over you: He will take your sons, and appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his chariots.

12 And he will appoint him Captains over thousands, and Captains over fifties; and will set them to ear his ground (plant the crops), and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots.

13 And he will take your daughters to be confectionaries (makers of ointments and scents, i.e., "perfume"), and to be cooks, and to be bakers.

14 And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your oliveyards, even the best of them, and give them to his servants.

15 And he will take the tenth of your seed (a tenth of the harvest as a tax), and of your vineyards, and give to his Officers, and to his servants.

16 And he will take your menservants, and your maidservants, and your goodliest young men, and your asses, and put them to his work.

17 He will take the tenth of your sheep: and you shall be his servants.

18 And you shall cry out in that day because of your king which you shall have chosen you; and the LORD will not hear you in that day. (As with Israel, so in many cases, God permits self-will to have its own way. But how much happier would it have been for Israel to have placed themselves and their difficulties in God's Hands and asked Him to plan for them! As stated, it was God's Will for them to have a king, but in His due Time. In fact, that first king was to be David, but Israel wasn't prepared to wait.)

THE DEMAND

19 Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, No; but we will have a king over us (Williams says, "Just as impoverishment and servitude resulted as predicted by Samuel from Israel's self-willed establishment of a human government, so spiritual poverty and loss of liberty follow in the Christian life when there is subjection to the commandments and doctrines of men, instead of to the authority of the Word of God");

20 That we also may be like all the nations; and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles (it is true, because of the corrupt judgment of Samuel's sons, that Israel had problems; however, taking matters into their own hands, instead of being led by the Lord, did not make the matter better, but rather worse).

21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he rehearsed them in the Ears of the LORD (prayed about what was being said and done).

22 And the LORD said to Samuel, Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said unto the men of Israel, Go you every man unto his city. (We find from this example, and scores of others in the Bible, while the Lord will speak to us, deal with us, move upon us, all with the effort of bending us to His Will, He will never force the issue. If we are determined to go in a wrong direction, He will let us go, but the end results will never be good.)

CHAPTER 9

(1095 B.C.)

THE GENEALOGY OF SAUL

[1] Now there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, and mighty man of power (of wealth).

[2] And he had a son, whose name was Saul, a choice young man, and a goodly: and there was not among the Children of Israel a goodlier person than he: from his shoulders and upward he was higher than any of the people. (It is believed that Saul was about 7 feet tall. For a moment, let us look at the contrast to the Apostle Paul. Both men had the same name; both were members of the same Tribe, Benjamin; but the one exhibits the power of the "flesh," the other of the "Spirit." As to physical strength and personal attractive appearance, Saul of Tarsus was wholly unlike King Saul, for Paul's "bodily presence" was weak [II Cor. 10:10]; King Saul "was a work of the flesh," and would bring only destruction. Paul of the New Testament was "a work of the Spirit," and would bring only life. Beauty and height of stature distinguish the son of Kish, but his life illustrated the fruitless effort of the "old man" to live as the "new man" [Rom., Chpt. 7].)

THE LOST ANIMALS

[3] And the asses of Kish Saul's father were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son, Take now one of the servants with you, and arise, go seek the asses. (The entire Passage from Verses 3-27 illustrates the Gospel Message. It pictures a wanderer vainly seeking a lost possession. So man vainly seeks lost innocence.)

[4] And he passed through Mount Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalisha, but they found them not: then they passed through the land of Shalim, and there they were not: and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they found them not.

5 And when they were come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, Come, and let us return; lest my father leave caring for the asses, and take thought for us (be concerned that we met with trouble).

6 And he said unto him, Behold now, there is in this city a man of God, and he is an honourable man; all that he says comes surely to pass: now let us go thither; peradventure he can show us our way that we should go. (It is amazing! Saul seemed to have little knowledge of Samuel, if any at all. He was totally ignorant of the man of God. The servant had to tell Saul as to who exactly Samuel was, "a man of God." Likewise, we must be Christ's servants and tell the lost about Jesus.)

7 Then said Saul to his servant, But, behold, if we go, what shall we bring the man? for the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to the man of God: what have we? (As Saul, man tries to purchase Redemption, when he does hear of it. Saul would try to purchase Samuel's favor. Sinners conceive that it is possible to purchase Salvation by religious efforts and emotions — which are absolutely valueless.)

8 And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, I have here at hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver: that will I give to the man of God, to tell us our way.

9 (Beforetime in Israel, when a man went to enquire of God, thus he spoke, Come, and let us go to the Seer: for he who is now called a Prophet was beforetime called a Seer [one who sees into the future].)

10 Then said Saul to his servant, Well said; come, let us go. So they went unto the city where the man of God was.

11 And as they went up the hill to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said unto them, Is the Seer here?

12 And they answered them, and said, He is; behold, he is before you: make haste now, for he came to day to the city; for there is a sacrifice of the people today in the high place (these young ladies pointed the way; the Lord can use any Believer to point the way; we are "way-showers," while Jesus is the "Way" [Jn. 14:6])**:

13 As soon as you be come into the city, you shall straightaway find him, before he go up to the high place to eat: for the people will not eat until he come, because he does bless the Sacrifice; and afterwards they eat that be bidden. Now therefore get you up; for about this time you shall find him.

14 And they went up into the city: and when they were come into the city, behold, Samuel came out against them, for to go up to the high place (the Tabernacle had been destroyed by the Philistines, so, as of now, this place at Ramah was where Sacrifices were offered and, at this time, sanctioned by the Lord).

ANOINT SAUL

15 Now the LORD had told Samuel in his ear a day before Saul came, saying (simply refers to the fact that the Lord told Samuel as to what would transpire the next day regarding Saul)**,

16 Tomorrow about this time I will send you a man out of the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him to be Captain over My people Israel, that he may save My people out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have looked upon My people, because their cry is come unto Me. (Though Samuel had lightened the yoke of the Philistines by his victory at Mizpeh, yet he had by no means altogether broken their power. Saul, as a Benjamite, belonged to the bravest and most warlike Tribe of Israel, and one whose country was the seat of perpetual combat with the Philistines; therefore, whatever victory that Samuel had won in the recent past, still, Israel was again suffering from Philistine domination. The Lord desires that His People be free; and freedom can only come by the Believer placing his Faith exclusively in Christ and the Cross, through which the Holy Spirit works. The victory we need and, in fact, everything we receive from the Lord, has to be accomplished in our lives by the Power of the Holy Spirit, and the Cross is the Means by which this is done, which ever requires the Cross as the Object of our Faith, and the only Object of our Faith.)

[17] And when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said unto him, Behold the man whom I spoke to you of! this same shall reign over My people.

[18] Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray you, where the Seer's house is (as stated, Saul had little or no knowledge at all of Samuel, which, within itself, tells us volumes).

[19] And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the Seer: go up before me unto the high place; for you shall eat with me today, and tomorrow I will let you go, and will tell you all that is in your heart. (Of course, the Lord knew exactly what the future held; still, as the record will show, He will do everything to try to make it work, but, as we shall see, all to no avail!)

[20] And as for your asses that were lost three days ago, set not your mind on them; for they are found. And on whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not on you, and on all your father's house? (Saul evidently looked great to Samuel, considering that he was imposing, actually, about 7 feet tall. So, the Lord would also teach Samuel a lesson in all of this. It is so easy for even the best of us, whoever that might be, to look at the outward appearance of something, and be fooled thereby!)

[21] And Saul answered and said, Am not I a Benjamite, of the smallest of the Tribes of Israel? and my family the least of all the families of the Tribe of Benjamin? wherefore then speak you so to me? (Saul was right about the Tribe of Benjamin, it almost having been destroyed some years earlier [Judg. 21:6].)

[22] And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the parlour, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them who were bidden, which were about thirty persons. (Saul being seated in the chief place and, as well, given a portion of the Sacrifice, i.e., "the Peace Offering," stated, within itself, that Saul was the chosen one, with all present understanding that.)

[23] And Samuel said unto the cook, Bring the portion which I gave you, of which I said unto you, Set it by you.

[24] And the cook took up the shoulder, and that which was upon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Behold that which is left! set it before you, and eat: for unto this time has it been kept for you since I said, I have invited the people. So Saul did eat with Samuel that day. (When, on the previous day, the Revelation was made to Samuel that Israel's future king would present himself the next day, the Prophet at once made preparations to receive him with due solemnity, and for this purpose arranged a Sacrifice, and invited thirty of the chief citizens of Ramah to assemble at the high place, and to sit at the banquet with him.)

[25] And when they were come down from the high place into the city, Samuel communed with Saul upon the top of the house (houses in that part of the world are normally flat on top; oftentimes, especially during the summer, people slept on top of the house to catch the cool breezes).

[26] And they arose early: and it came to pass about the spring of the day, that Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Up, that I may send you away. And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad. (Evidently, Saul and his servant had slept on the top of the house that night.)

[27] And as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the servant pass on before us, (and he passed on), but stand you still a while, that I may show you the Word of God. (Samuel will now tell Saul that he is to be king.)

CHAPTER 10

SAMUEL ANOINTS SAUL

[1] Then Samuel took a vial of oil, and poured it upon his head, and kissed him (the kissing was the mode in that day of expressing homage to a Sovereign), and said, Is it not because the LORD has anointed you to be Captain over His inheritance? (We find that all the outward trappings of God's Help is here; however, that which was outward could not change that which was inward — an evil heart of unbelief. That which is not God's Will can easily be outwardly anointed by men, and often is; still, such is not God's choice, and will bear no good fruit.)

[2] When you are departed from me today, then you shall find two men by Rachel's sepulchre in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say unto you, The asses which you went to seek are found: and, lo, your father has left the care of the asses, and sorrows for you, saying, What shall I do for my son? (Meeting two men by Rachel's sepulchre was meant to be a sign to Saul; however, Saul would little understand that. Jacob loved Rachel greatly, as God loved Saul. But, still, Rachel was barren, as Saul was barren. Part of her problem was her hatred of Leah [Gen. 29:31]. Then Rachel would resort to superstition [mandrakes — Gen. 30:14]. Saul will ultimately resort to witchcraft, as well. Thankfully, Rachel would find her way with God. Saul would not!)

[3] Then shall you go on forward from thence, and you shall come to the plain of Tabor, and there shall meet you three men going up to God to Beth-el, one carrying three kids (baby lambs), and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine:

[4] And they will salute you, and give you two loaves of bread; which you shall receive of their hands. (These signs were for many things; however, mainly they were designed to confirm in Saul's mind the conviction that Samuel was indeed the Prophet of the Lord; for it must not be forgotten that although but a few miles separated their homes, yet 9:6 makes it clear that Saul was such a stranger to God and His Kingdom that he did not know even of the existence of this mighty Prophet. So, why would the Lord choose such a man to be the king of Israel? In reality, the Lord did not choose him; he was rather chosen by the people.)

5 After that you shall come to the hill of God, where is the garrison of the Philistines *(this shows that most of the Tribe of Benjamin was subject to that nation and, as well, disarmed; but, probably, as long as the tribute was paid, its internal administration was not interfered with): and it shall come to pass, when you are come thither to the city, that you shall meet a company of Prophets coming down from the high place with a psaltery, and a tabret, and a pipe, and a harp, before them: and they shall prophesy *(we find here that music dedicated to the Glory of God is a great aid in the worship of God, and in the exercise of the gifts; years afterwards David was thus educated, and learned at one of Samuel's schools that skill in meter and psalmody which, added to his natural gifts, made him "the sweet singer of Israel"):

6 And the Spirit of the LORD will come upon you, and you shall prophesy with them, and shall be turned into another man (the Lord would do all that He could to help Saul be the man that he should be).

7 And let it be, when these signs are come unto you, that you do as occasion serve you; for God is with you (press onward, and the kingdom is your own, and success is sure).

8 And you shall go down before me to Gilgal; and, behold, I will come down unto you, to offer Burnt Offerings, and to sacrifice Sacrifices of Peace Offerings: seven days shall you tarry, till I come to you, and show you what you shall do. (In this, Samuel was telling Israel's future king that success depended upon Faith in the "Burnt Offerings" and "Peace Offerings," which were symbolic of Christ and Him Crucified. Regrettably, Saul would never see this, as most modern Christians never see it; unfortunately, the end result of these modern Christians will be the same as

THE CHANGED HEART

9 And it was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart: and all those signs came to pass that day. (Smith says, "The Hebrew is remarkable here: 'When he turned his shoulder to go from Samuel, God also turned for him another heart,' i.e., God turned him around by giving him a changed heart. He grew internally up to the level of his changed circumstances.")

10 And when they came thither to the hill, behold, a company of Prophets met him *(exactly as Samuel said would happen); and the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them. (Saul should have learned from all of this to lean heavily upon Samuel. But, regrettably, he didn't!)

11 And it came to pass, when all who knew him beforetime saw that, behold, he prophesied among the Prophets, then the people said one to another, What is this that is come unto the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the Prophets? (As stated, the Lord would do all with this man that was humanly possible, but it would all be to no avail!)

12 And one of the same place answered and said, But who is their father? Therefore it became a Proverb, Is Saul also among the Prophets? (The idea of all of this, gifts from the Lord aren't inherited. They come from God [I Cor. 12:28-31].)

13 And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

14 And Saul's uncle said unto him and to his servant, Where did you go? And he said, To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were nowhere, we came to Samuel (this would be Abner [14:50-51; I Chron. 8:33]).

15 And Saul's uncle said, Tell me, I pray you, what Samuel said unto you.

16 And Saul said unto his uncle, He told us plainly that the asses were found. But of the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spoke, he told him not.

SAUL INSTALLED AS KING

17 And Samuel called the people together unto the LORD to Mizpeh;

18 And said unto the Children of Israel, Thus says the LORD God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of them who oppressed you (Samuel points out in his address to the assembled people that Jehovah always had done for them the very thing for which they desired a king; they wish for deliverance from the Philistines, but their deliverance by Jehovah had been made dependent upon their own conduct; they were required to repent of their sins, and to purge the land from idolatry, before victory could be theirs; what they actually wanted was national independence freed from this condition of Repentance, etc., and secured by an organization of their military resources)**:

19 And you have this day rejected your God, Who Himself saved you out of all your adversities and your tribulations; and you have said unto Him, No, but set a king over us. Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes, and by your thousands. (Even though what they desired and, in fact, demanded, was so wrong, but yet God would grant their request, it being a law of His Providence to leave men free to choose.)

20 And when Samuel had caused all the Tribes of Israel to come near, the Tribe of Benjamin was taken (the Lord pointed out that Tribe to Samuel, which Samuel already knew, but which was done for the sake of the people).

21 When he had caused the Tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was taken, and Saul the son of Kish was taken: and when they sought him, he could not be found. (In all of this, we will find that Saul was the greatest work of the flesh that could be found, and yet, even as we shall see, that was woefully insufficient, as it is always woefully insufficient.)

22 Therefore they enquired of the LORD further, if the man should yet come thither. And the LORD answered, Behold, he has hid himself among the stuff. (At the beginning, Saul's humility is commendable; regrettably, it would not remain this way.)

23 And they ran and fetched him thence *(because the Lord had revealed where he was): and when he stood among the people, he was higher than any of the people from his shoulders and upward. (As stated, he looked every bit a king. But still, it was but a work of the flesh, because this was not God's Way, but rather the way of man. It would fail, as all such ways fail. But regrettably, most of the Church world base their judgment on what can be seen outwardly.)

24 And Samuel said to all the people, See you him whom the LORD has chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, God save the king. (The lesson of the "flesh" is not easily learned. Even the great Prophet Samuel would have to learn this lesson. He too was enamored with Saul, but would find, to his dismay, that no matter the effort made, "they who are in the flesh cannot please God" [Rom. 8:8].)

25 Then Samuel told the people the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

26 And Saul also went home to Gibeah; and there went with him a band of men, whose hearts God had touched. (The Lord not only gave Saul a new heart, but those around him a "touched heart," as well! As stated, every effort was being made to make this thing work.)

27 But the children of Belial (worthless ones) said, How shall this man save us? And they despised him, and brought him no presents. But he held his peace. (Even though it was not the Will of God for Israel at this time to have a king, still, what these men did was very wrong, and the Holy Spirit noted it by referring to them as "worthless," for that's what the word "Belial" means.)

CHAPTER 11

THE AMMONITES

[1] Then Nahash the Ammonite came up, and encamped against Jabesh-gilead: and all the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash, Make a covenant with us, and we will serve you. (The Ammonites were old enemies of the Israelites, alleging that Israel had taken possession of territory east of the Jordan which rightfully belonged to them [Judg. 11:13]. But after their defeat by Jephthah, their power was so broken that they allowed a century to elapse before they ventured again to assert their claim. Jabesh-gilead was a city on the eastern side of Jordan, in the Tribe of Manasseh.

The name "Nahash" means "bright shining serpent." "Jabesh-gilead" means "hill of witnessing." Satan will encamp against us to destroy our "witness." If we make a "covenant" with him, even as "the men of Jabesh" tried to do, our "witness" will be destroyed. No covenant of any fashion can be made with Satan.)

[2] And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, On this condition will I make a covenant with you, that I may thrust out all your right eyes, and lay it for a reproach upon all Israel. (Men in those days fought behind a shield, with the top covering their face with the exception of their right eye. That being put out, they could not see to fight; consequently, they would be a reproach.

Regrettably, most of the modern Church little sees how to fight, because their right eye has been blinded. They have made a covenant with Satan, which means they are preaching everything except "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" [I Cor. 1:23].)

[3] And the elders of Jabesh said unto him (unto Nahash), Give us seven days' respite, that we may send messengers unto all the coasts of Israel:

and then, if there be no man to save us, we will come out to you (Nahash would hold them in such contempt that he would accede to their request).

[4] Then came the messengers to Gibeah of Saul, and told the tidings in the ears of the people: and all the people lifted up their voices, and wept.

[5] And, behold, Saul came after the herd out of the field (Saul had been plowing); and Saul said, What ails the people that they weep? And they told him the tidings of the men of Jabesh.

[6] And the Spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard those tidings, and his anger was kindled greatly (the only answer to Satan is the "Spirit of God," Who works exclusively within the framework of the Finished Work of Christ [Jn. 14:16-17]; Saul was angry, and Believers today should likewise be angry at the threats of Satan).

[7] And he took a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the coasts (borders) of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosoever comes not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done unto his oxen (in other words, the enemy would take everything they had). And the fear of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out with one consent (if the modern Church cannot agree on anything else, surely it can agree on the fact that Satan is making havoc of God's People; the only answer to that is the Cross [11:15; Gal. 6:14]).

[8] And when he (Saul) numbered them in Bezek, the Children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand (the Lord "numbers" all who will fight the good fight of Faith [I Tim. 6:12-13]).

[9] And they said unto the messengers who came, Thus shall you say unto the men of Jabesh-gilead. Tomorrow, by that time the sun be hot (about 8 a.m.), you shall have help. And the messengers came and showed it to the men of Jabesh; and they were glad (the Holy Spirit now is our Helper [Jn. 14:16]).

[10] Therefore the men of Jabesh said (to the Ammonites), Tomorrow we will come out unto you, and you shall do with us all that seems good unto you (Israel was playing for time, in order to get the army together).

[11] And it was so on the morrow, that Saul put the people in three companies (those three companies are "the Name of Jesus," "the Blood of the Lamb," and "the Word of God"); and they came into the midst of the host in the morning watch (between 6 and 9 a.m.), and killed the Ammonites until the heat of the day (until noon): and it came to pass, that they (the Ammonites) which remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

SAUL CONFIRMED KING

[12] And the people said unto Samuel, Who is he who said, Shall Saul reign over us? bring the men, that we may put them to death (the people now were drawn to Saul, and bitterly opposed to those who were not).

[13] And Saul said, There shall not a man be put to death this day: for today the LORD has wrought Salvation in Israel (one of the few times that Saul acted in Righteousness).

[14] Then said Samuel to the people, Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there ("Gilgal" means "the reproach has rolled away"; it was appropriate for the Kingdom of Israel to be started and accepted at Gilgal, for this was their first place of entrance into Canaan [Josh. 5:2-10]).

[15] And all the people went to Gilgal (about 35 miles south of Jabesh-gilead); and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal (his confirmation); and there they sacrificed Sacrifices of Peace Offerings before the LORD; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly. (The "Peace Offerings" signified the Cross of Jesus, thereby the putting to death of self-will. As well, it was the secret of power for war — as illustrated by Joshua's starting from and returning to that center many years before — a war in which the weapons are spiritual and not carnal. Saul could physically accompany Samuel there, and also "rejoice greatly," and yet remain a stranger, as we shall see, to the real and inward significance of the place.)

CHAPTER 12

SAMUEL RETIRES AS JUDGE

[1] And Samuel said unto all Israel, Behold, I have hearkened unto your voice in all that you said unto me, and have made a king over you. (However, it was their voice, and not the Voice of God. The Voice of God had said the opposite [8:5-7].)

[2] And now, behold, the king walks before you: and I am old and grayheaded; and, behold, my sons are with you: and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day (in effect, Samuel is retiring as the governmental leader of the people and, as well, his sons will have no more place and position).

[3] Behold, here I am: witness against me before the LORD, and before His anointed (before Saul): whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any bribe to blind my eyes therewith? and I will restore it you (other than his sons, his life was spotless).

[4] And they said, You have not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither have you taken ought of any man's hand.

[5] And he said unto them, The LORD is witness against you, and His anointed is witness this day, that you have not found ought in my hand. And they answered, He is witness (we are told here unequivocally that the Lord witnesses all things).

SAMUEL'S MESSAGE

[6] And Samuel said unto the people, It is the LORD Who advanced Moses and Aaron, and Who brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt. (If the Lord does not advance the subject, there is, in reality, no advancement. As well, we should only desire the advancement that God gives. It is seldom that religious leaders advance anyone except to make that person beholden to them.)

[7] Now therefore stand still, that I may reason with you before the LORD of all the righteous acts of the LORD, which He did to you and to your fathers.

[8] When Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cried unto the LORD, then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, which brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place (in other words, neither this king nor any other king did such, only the Lord).

[9] And when they forgot the LORD their God, He sold them into the hand of Sisera, Captain of the host of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they (the Moabites) fought against them (against Israel; if the Believer rebels against the Lord, ultimately, the Lord will "sell" that Believer into the hand of the enemy; the only cure for this is the Cross [I Cor. 1:18]).

[10] And they cried unto the LORD, and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD, and have served Baalim and Ashtaroth: but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve You (the Lord Alone can deliver!).

[11] And the LORD sent Jerub-baal, and Bedan (Barak), and Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and you dwelled safe (while the Lord uses human instrumentation, but is not confined to such, still, it is the Lord Alone Who delivers).

[12] And when you saw that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, you said unto me, No; but a king shall reign over us: when the LORD your God was your king (they didn't want the Almighty Arm of God to lean on, but rather the frail arm of a human being; how so like the modern Church!).

13 Now therefore behold the king whom you have chosen (their choice, and not God's), and whom you have desired! and, behold, the LORD has set a king over you (He has given you what you demanded, even though He knows that it will ultimately bring you great harm).

14 If you will fear the LORD, and serve Him, and obey His voice, and not rebel against the Commandment of the LORD, then shall both you and also the king who reigns over you continue following the LORD your God (however, even though the Blessings of God are promised here, without proper leadership, and in Saul they would not have that proper leadership, such Blessings were impossible):

15 But if you will not obey the Voice of the LORD, but rebel against the Commandment of the LORD (against His Law), then shall the Hand of the LORD be against you, as it was against your fathers. (As portrayed here, the Hand of the Lord for us is conditional. We must obey His Commandments, and this can be done only by the Believer trusting solely in Christ, and what Christ has done for us at the Cross. Jesus has obeyed the Law in every capacity, and has satisfied its just demands by what He has done at the Cross, and did it all for us. Trusting in Him exclusively gives us His victory [Rom. 8:15-17].)

16 Now therefore stand and see this great thing, which the LORD will do before your eyes (take your places in solemn order).

17 Is it not wheat harvest today? (first part of June.) I will call unto the LORD, and He shall send thunder and rain (which almost never happened at that time of the year); that you may perceive and see that your wickedness is great, which you have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking you a king (it was the Will of the Lord for Israel to ultimately have a king, but not now; the first king that was meant to be was David).

18 So Samuel called unto the LORD; and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day: and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel (the thunderstorm being sent at this time of the year was Divine evidence of the just anger of God because of their rejection of Him).

[19] And all the people said unto Samuel, Pray for your servants unto the LORD your God, that we die not: for we have added unto all our sins this evil, to ask us a king.

SAMUEL'S EXHORTATION

[20] And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not: you have done all this wickedness: yet turn not aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart (the answer to sin is not discontinuing our serving the Lord, but rather in throwing ourselves at His Feet, asking forgiveness, and continuing to serve Him "with all our hearts")**;

[21] And turn you not aside: for then should you go after vain things, which cannot profit nor deliver; for they are vain (whether we succeed or fail, God is the answer; whether there is victory or defeat, God is still the answer; everything else is "vain"; it has no answer).

[22] For the LORD will not forsake His People for His great Name's sake: because it has pleased the LORD to make you His People. (The Lord does not work from the position of "what might have been," but rather from the position of "what is.")

[23] Moreover as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you: but I will teach you the good and the right way (even though Samuel had abdicated the position of governmental leader, he definitely had not abdicated the position of spiritual leader)**:

[24] Only fear the LORD, and serve Him in truth with all your heart (Truth is "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" [I Cor. 1:23]): for consider how great things He has done for you (and that He has!).

[25] But if you shall still do wickedly, you shall be consumed, both you and your king (God cannot abide unrepentant wickedness, even in His chosen People).

CHAPTER 13

WAR AGAINST THE PHILISTINES

1 Saul reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Israel (this statement of Verse 1 is the sad record given by the Holy Spirit that Saul only "reigned" two years in fellowship with God; his entire reign was forty years [Acts 13:21], which means that for thirty-eight years he was not in fellowship with God; the length of time between Verse 1 and Verse 2 was approximately twenty years; they are passed over in silence by the Spirit of God)**,

2 Saul chose him three thousand men of Israel; whereof two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in Mount Beth-el, and a thousand were with Jonathan (his son) in Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent.

3 And Jonathan smote the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard of it (Jonathan is a fine illustration of the possibilities and energies of a Divinely-given Faith in the face of hostile circumstances both of parentage and environment). And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear (Jonathan acted in the energy of Faith, Saul in the energy of nature; Jonathan would call his people "Israelites," as God called them; Saul called them "Hebrews," as the Philistines called them).

4 And all Israel heard say that Saul had smitten a garrison of the Philistines (Saul, as a natural man, and as God's officially-appointed king, could follow the impulse of faith in the heart of Jonathan, but he did not personally possess it; that which seeks its strength in the wisdom and energy of man can never go beyond the source from which it springs), and that Israel also was had in abomination with the Philistines. And the people were called together after Saul to Gilgal (Israel held in abomination by the Philistines presented a far cry from that which God had intended!).

5 And the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the sea shore in multitude: and they came up, and pitched in Michmash, eastward from Beth-aven (whenever Faith acts, Satan opposes; and, hence, the Philistines are found quickly encamped against Israel; Satan, who knows and dreads the power of Faith, brought up his agents in multitude as the sand which is on the seashore).

6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait, (for the people were distressed,) then the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in high places, and in pits (this is a sad commentary as it regards the people of God; they were to be the head of all nations, but instead they are hiding in "pits"; regrettably, spiritually speaking, this is the condition of the modern Church!).

7 And some of the Hebrews (used here contemptuously) went over Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead (ran away in a cowardly manner). As for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling (trembling for fear).

SELF-WILL

8 And he tarried seven days, according to the set time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him (scattered from Saul; Williams says, "It is plain from Verses 8 and 13 that Samuel, from the mouth of the Lord, had commanded Saul to summon the people to Gilgal, and there to wait seven days for him; and this was purposely designed by God as a test as to whether Saul would subject himself to God's Will or act in the energy of his own." As we shall see, he didn't pass the test).

9 And Saul said, Bring hither a Burnt Offering to me, and Peace Offerings. And he offered the Burnt Offering. (He did not offer it himself, but rather by the hand of the attendant Priest, Ahiah, who was, we know, with him [14:3]. Saul, who was in charge, and who gave instructions for such to be done, is said to have done it himself. By Saul doing this, it showed that he had no confidence in what the Sacrifices represented; they were to him a mere ceremony. Millions presently treat the Cross in the same manner. It is just a ceremony!)

10 And it came to pass, that as soon as he had made an end of offering the Burnt Offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might salute him.

11 And Samuel said, What have you done? And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that you came not within the days appointed (but he did!), and that the Philistines gathered themselves together at Michmash;

12 Therefore said I, The Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication unto the LORD: I forced myself therefore, and offered a Burnt Offering. (Saul had, as men have today, a religious argument in favor of his disobedience. He had his eyes upon the people, as recorded in Verse 11, and not upon God and His Commandments.)

SAMUEL ANNOUNCES JUDGMENT

13 And Samuel said to Saul, You have done foolishly: you have not kept the Commandment of the LORD your God, which He commanded you: for now would the LORD have established your kingdom upon Israel for ever.

14 But now your kingdom shall not continue *(Saul's line would not continue as king; he did not lose the throne because of the power of the Philistines, but rather because of the fault that was between his heart and God): the LORD has sought Him a man after His Own Heart *(that man would be David), and the LORD has commanded him to be Captain over His People, because you have not kept that which the LORD commanded you. (Had Saul truly repented, he might have been forgiven; for God's threatenings, like His Promises, are conditional. There is no fatalism in the Bible, but a loving discipline for man's recovery. But behind it stands the Divine foreknowledge and omnipotence; and so, to the prophetic view, Saul's refusal to repent, his repeated disobedience, and the succession of David were all revealed as accomplished facts — Smith.)

SAUL'S ARMY

15 And Samuel arose, and got him up from Gilgal unto Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people who were present with him, about six hundred men (this small number was to face the 30,000 chariots and 6,000 horsemen, plus foot-soldiers as the sand which is on the seashore [Vs. 5]).

16 And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people who were present with them, abode in Gibeah of Benjamin: but the Philistines encamped in Michmash (Saul represents modern Christendom as officially the visible Kingdom of God upon Earth, but corrupted and enslaved; yet within this broken kingdom it is still possible for Faith to win her victories, as Jonathan won his, even as we shall see).

17 And the spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned unto the way that leads to Ophrah, unto the land of Shual:

18 And another company turned the way to Beth-horon: and another company turned to the way of the border that looks to the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness (the conduct of the Philistines is that of men overconfident in their strength).

19 Now there was no smith (blacksmith) found throughout all the land of Israel: for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears (this accounts for the contemptuous disregard of Saul by the Philistines; the people were disarmed, and resistance impossible; the picture here is truly sad! Those who professed to be the people of God and heirs of the Promises are found unarmed in the presence of enemies who despoil them; but Faith in God may be exercised no matter what the condition of the People of God may be; and God will ever honor it):

20 But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, and his coulter, and his axe, and his mattock.

21 Yet they had a file for the mattocks, and for the coulters, and for the forks, and for the axes, and to sharpen the goads.

22 So it came to pass in the day of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan: but with Saul and with Jonathan his son was there found. (Only Saul and Jonathan had a spear. So, not only were there but 600 Israelites who were to face this horde of Philistines, but even the 600 had no weapons of war. This is a perfect picture of the modern Church, which has no spiritual weapons in order to engage in spiritual warfare, because it doesn't understand the Cross respecting Sanctification [Rom. 6:3-14].)

23 And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the passage of Michmash.

CHAPTER 14

JONATHAN'S EXPLOIT

[1] Now it came to pass upon a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man who bore his armour, Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison, that is on the other side. But he told not his father. (Without a doubt, the Lord told Jonathan to do this. Williams says, "If the last Chapter shows the folly and effects of unbelief, this Chapter shows the wisdom and results of Faith; for wherever Faith is found, God displays His Strength. Thus, the ugliness of unbelief in Saul is contrasted with the beauty of Faith in Jonathan.")

[2] And Saul tarried in the uttermost part of Gibeah under a pomegranate tree which is in Migron: and the people who were with him were about six hundred men (and, as we have said, without weapons)**;

[3] And Ahiah, the son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the LORD's Priest in Shiloh, wearing an Ephod. And the people knew not that Jonathan was gone (the Hebrew word here used for "Ephod" refers as well to the Breastplate, which contained the Urim and the Thummim, by which the Will of God was sought [Lev. 8:7-8]).

[4] And between the passages, by which Jonathan sought to go over unto the Philistines' garrison, there was a sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. (Faith never lessens nor creates difficulties. Her path is open, very narrow, and made difficult by sharp rocks on either hand.)

[5] The forefront of the one was situate northward over against Michmash, and the other southward over against Gibeah.

6 And Jonathan said to the young man who bore his armour, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these uncircumcised: it may be that the LORD will work for us: for there is no restraint to the LORD to save by many or by few. (Williams says, "Jonathan did not think of himself; and his words to his armor-bearer do not express doubt as to God's ability to overcome them, but assurance. Faith's fair flower looks never so fair as when blooming in such a rocky and savaged defile, beset with enemies, such as is pictured here.")

7 And his armourbearer said unto him, Do all that is in your heart: turn thee; behold, I am with you according to your heart. (The greatest asset a man or a woman of God can have is for individuals to follow them in their Faith. As well, it must be said, "Woe be unto the individual who follows a man in his unbelief.")

8 Then said Jonathan, Behold, we will pass over unto these men, and we will discover ourselves unto them (reveal themselves to the Philistines, which, no doubt, the Lord told him to do; it was quite true that Israel, at this time, was no more than a moral ruin; but Faith overcomes all of this, and reaches out toward God, expecting great and mighty things — and God never fails).

9 If they say thus unto us, Tarry until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up unto them.

10 But if they say thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up: for the LORD has delivered them into our hand: and this shall be a sign unto us. (Faith is not presumption, and, in fact, is never presumptuous. Most of that today which is called "faith" is, in fact, presumption. It presumes upon that which God has not said and does not intend. True Faith never creates difficulties, nor leaps from the pinnacle of the Temple expecting God to bear the consequences. Thus, there was no boasting in Jonathan, as there is in presumption. There is only expectation from God.)

11 And both of them discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they had hid themselves (only two men!; but there is a third with them, yet unseen; it is the Lord).

12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armourbearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will show you a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armourbearer, Come up after me: for the LORD has delivered them into the hand of Israel (Faith always lifts men up, hence Jonathan saying, "Come up after me").

13 And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armourbearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and his armourbearer killed after him (evidently, the Lord turned the attention of the Philistines elsewhere in order that they not see the ascent of Jonathan and his armor-bearer).

14 And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armourbearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were an half acre of land, which a yoke of oxen might plow (God will not begin to move until Faith begins to act).

THE MIRACULOUS VICTORY

15 And there was trembling in the host, in the field, and among all the people: the garrison, and the spoilers, they also trembled, and the Earth quaked: so it was a very great trembling (Faith's great passion is always that God should manifest Himself; a supernatural terror seized the Philistines, for it was manifest that God and not Jonathan was the Author of these manifestations).

16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and, behold, the multitude melted away, and they went on beating down one another (the words "melted away" do not exactly give the meaning; the Philistines were not dispersing, but rather were "reeling," moving to and fro purposeless, and in confusion; they also carry the idea of "terror").

17 Then said Saul unto the people who were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armourbearer were not there (at the very moment that God is giving a tremendous victory to Israel with the Philistines being defeated, the flesh in the person of Saul is trying to find out what's going on; the "flesh" refers to the frail ability of man, which God can never bless [Rom. 8:8]).

18 And Saul said unto Ahiah, Bring hither the Ark of God. For the Ark of God was at that time with the Children of Israel. (In Jonathan is seen the quietness and confidence of the "new man," but in Saul the fussiness, excitement, folly, and impotence of the "old man." Unbelief never knows what to do, but it can furnish itself with accessories of religious ceremony. It can build an Altar [Vs. 35], call for the Ark [Vs. 18], and lean upon the priestly member of a condemned house [Vs. 19], but it never knows what to do. It is all excitement, activity, and emotion, but no Faith.)

19 And it came to pass, while Saul talked unto the Priest, that the noise that was in the host of the Philistines went on and increased: and Saul said unto the Priest, Withdraw your hand (Saul, impatient of delay, cannot wait till the Will of God is made known to him).

20 And Saul and all the people who were with him assembled themselves, and they came to the battle: and, behold, every man's sword was against his fellow *(the Philistines were killing each other), and there was a very great discomfiture.

21 Moreover the Hebrews who were with the Philistines before that time, which went up with them into the camp from the country round about, even they also turned to be with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan (in this great Revival, one might say, the Children of God who had lost their way completely, going out into the world, now come back to the Lord as a result of Jonathan's Faith).

22 Likewise all the men of Israel which had hid themselves in Mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle (a move of God evidenced by Faith, which results in victory, brings out even the cowardly and the timid; but that's what Faith is supposed to do!).

23 So the LORD saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over unto Beth-aven (if the Lord can get someone to believe Him, He can do great things; to be sure, God, Who is Almighty, doesn't need the help of anyone; however, He has purposely allowed Believers to have a part in His great Work, and that great part is Faith [Rom. 10:17]).

SAUL'S FOOLISH OATH

24 And the men of Israel were distressed that day: for Saul had adjured the people, saying, Cursed be the man who eats any food until evening, that I may be avenged on my enemies. So none of the people tasted any food. (Now the "flesh" continues to hinder the Spirit of God. The flesh must do something, so Saul will forbid the people to eat any food. Carnal zeal hinders or limits victory, and when man intrudes himself into the Work of God — bringing his own strength into it — he stops it. His foolish command to put to death those who failed to obey his laws only made more visible the disobedience of his own heart to obey God's Laws. Men love to make laws, and religious men most of all! And they love to force people to obey them, which has been the cause of so much heartache and even bloodshed down through the ages.)

25 And all they of the land came to a wood; and there was honey upon the ground. (In the path of Faith, there is honey; and in the path of unbelief, there is hunger. God furnishes ample refreshment upon the Heavenly Way, so that there was a "stream of honey" upon the very battlefield. But that which is an invitation of faith made it a duty, under sentence of death, to partake of it. The corrupt Christian Church is a sad illustration today of the same intrusion of man's will into God's Kingdom.)

26 And when the people were come into the wood, behold, the honey dropped; but no man put his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the oath (man-made laws keep God's People from accepting and, thereby, benefiting from that which God has provided; God help us!).

JONATHAN

27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in an honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were enlightened (there are those today who, like happy Jonathan, live and fight with God, and whose Faith in Him leads them so far ahead on the Celestial Road that they neither hear nor heed the senseless laws which poor men, holding official office in Christendom, make).

28 Then answered one of the people, and said, Your father straitly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man who eats any food this day. And the people were faint (unscriptural laws made by religious men only tend to make the people "faint").

29 Then said Jonathan, My father has troubled the land: see, I pray you, how my eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey (has brought disaster to the land; this disaster was the incompleteness of the victory, owing to the people being too exhausted to continue the pursuit; once again, senseless religious laws, which have no Scriptural foundation, only tend to hinder the victory).

30 How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely to day of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for had there not been now a much greater slaughter among the Philistines? (Unscriptural religious laws only hinder Faith; they never help!)

31 And they smote the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon: and the people were very faint (insinuating that a much greater victory could have been brought about, were it not for Saul; as a Believer, you can be a hindrance or you can be a help).

THE SIN OF ISRAEL

32 And the people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and killed them on the ground: and the people did eat them with the blood (without properly draining the blood from the carcasses, which was unlawful!).

33 Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the LORD, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, You have transgressed: roll a great stone unto me this day (the purpose of this stone was to raise up the carcasses of the slaughtered animals from the ground, so that the blood might drain away from them).

34 And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and kill them here, and eat; and sin not against the LORD in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and killed them there.

35 And Saul built an Altar unto the LORD: the same was the first Altar that he built unto the LORD (the Altar was a Type of the Cross on which Christ would die; however, it is not a magic talisman to be used at one's convenience).

36 And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seems good unto you. Then said the Priest, Let us draw near hither unto God (to consult the Lord; Ahiah may have done this because he disapproved of Saul's project, or because generally God ought to be consulted before undertaking anything of importance; already this neglect on the part of Saul had led to no good results).

37 And Saul asked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? will You deliver them into the hand of Israel? But He answered him not that day.

38 And Saul said, Draw you near hither, all the chief of the people: and know and see wherein this sin has been this day. (The fault is in him and him alone, and not the people!)

39 For, as the LORD lives, which saves Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people who answered him (thus, twice in the same day he is guilty of the sin of rash swearing; the people condemn him by their silence).

40 Then said he unto all Israel, Be you on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what seems good unto you.

41 Therefore Saul said unto the LORD God of Israel, Give a perfect lot (give us the answer). And Saul and Jonathan were taken: but the people escaped (it seems that the Urim and the Thummim were being used by the Priests to divine an answer; Saul is claiming that someone has sinned, and that's the reason the Lord will not answer him; so now, the answer is towards both Saul and Jonathan, but not in the way one would think).

42 And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken (while the Holy Spirit points out Jonathan, in no way does this imply that Jonathan has sinned; it is rather meant to portray the fact that it is Saul who has disobeyed the Lord, with his foolish rules, and just how foolish they have been).

THE PEOPLE SAVE JONATHAN FROM DEATH

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what you have done. And Jonathan told him, and said, I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in my hand, and, lo, I must die (the statement made by Jonathan could be in the form of a question, or even sarcastic resignation).

44 And Saul answered, God do so and more also: for you shall surely die, Jonathan (the "flesh" will always try to kill the "Spirit"!).

45 And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who has wrought this great salvation in Israel? God forbid: as the LORD lives, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he has wrought with God this day. So the people rescued Jonathan, that he died not (the answer of the Lord through the people is, "God forbid"!).

SAUL'S VICTORIES

46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place (so long as Jonathan by Faith took the lead, everything prospered, but when Saul, that is, unbelief, put himself at the head, the effect was to lose the full fruit of the victory).

47 So Saul took the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he turned himself, he vexed them.

48 And he gathered an host, and smote the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them. (These Verses account for his victories. Even now, God would accept Saul and bless him greatly, if only he would turn with his "whole heart" to the Lord. But that was not to be!)

SAUL'S FAMILY

49 Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishui, and Melchi-shua: and the names of his two daughters were these; the name of the first born Merab, and the name of the younger Michal:

50 And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of the Captain of his host was Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's uncle.

51 And Kish was the father of Saul; and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

52 And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when Saul saw any strong man, or any valiant man, he took him unto him. (If the Philistines plague us "all our days," it must tell us that flesh is attempting to thwart the Philistine instead of the Holy Spirit. If we walk after the flesh, we die. If we follow after the Spirit, we live [Rom. 8:1-2]. Ultimately, Saul would die at the hands of the Philistines. Ultimately, David would live at the hands of the Holy Spirit.

The principle is the same presently. To live a victorious life, the Believer must anchor his Faith exclusively in Christ and the Cross, which constitutes "walking after the Spirit." That being done, the help of the Holy Spirit will be forthcoming, with great victories brought about in such a life [Rom. 8:1-2, 11; Gal. 6:14].)

CHAPTER 15

AMALEK

[1] Samuel also said unto Saul, The LORD sent me to anoint you to be king over His People, over Israel: now therefore hearken you unto the voice of the Words of the LORD. (We find that Saul was tested twice and failed under each test. The Philistine was God's instrument in the first test; the Amalekite, in the second. The first test proved him to be carnal, for he waited on God, but not for God. The second test showed him to be disobedient, for he set his own will above God's Will. In the first test, he failed to trust God; in the second test, to obey God. These two words, "trust" and "obey," are keynotes in the Christian life, and are impossible to those outside that life — Williams.)

[2] Thus says the LORD of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, how he laid wait for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt (the Lord forgets neither wrongs nor rights, unless the wrongs are washed by His Blood, and then they are forgotten).

[3] Now go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but kill both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass. (The key word is "utterly destroy." Amalek, in Old Testament typology, is a "type of the flesh." The flesh pertains to the "Adamic nature" or the "sin nature." It characterizes man's own efforts to save himself, whether by good works, money, education, or religion. It is the bane of the Child of God. It is the source of the Christian's greatest conflict. Paul said, "For if you live after the flesh, you shall die" [Rom. 8:13].)

SAUL'S INCOMPLETE OBEDIENCE

4 And Saul gathered the people together, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah.

5 And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and laid wait in the valley.

6 And Saul said unto the Kenites, Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them: for you showed kindness to all the Children of Israel, when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 And Saul smote the Amalekites from Havilah until you come to Shur, that is over against Egypt. (The Amalekites were the determined and cruel enemies of the people of God. They were the first to attack them in the desert [Ex., Chpt. 17]. When Israel was faint and weary, they attacked the feeble among them [Deut. 25:18]. Because of this hatred, God commanded their extinction, and urged His People not to forget that duty so soon as they were settled in Canaan [Deut. 25:19]. They did forget; but God did not forget.

In fact, God gave Amalek five hundred years respite for Repentance, but in vain. That nation, like the seven nations of Canaan, resisted every Divine impulse, and finally became so corrupt that, in the interests of humanity, love decreed its absolute extinction.)

8 And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. (This has always been the problem of Christians. We desire to destroy "everything that is vile and refuse"; however, it is very difficult for us to destroy "the best."

What do we mean by "the best"? It pertains to anything and everything which we trust, other than Christ and what Christ has done for us at the Cross. Anything that becomes the object of our faith, other than the Cross, no matter how good it might be in its own right, must be eliminated. Faith in everything else must be "utterly destroyed.").

9 But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but everything that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly. (And so we have here a perfect picture, not only of that time, but, as well, of modern Christendom. The only thing that God will accept is "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" [I Cor. 1:23]. The Message of the Cross is easy to understand, but not easy to believe. Religious man still likes to hold on to his own particular efforts and works, whatever they might be, which God can never accept.)

JUDGMENT

[10] Then came the Word of the LORD unto Samuel, saying,

[11] It repents Me that I have set up Saul to be king: for he is turned back from following Me, and has not performed My Commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the LORD all night. (These words, as given by the Lord, simply mean that God had changed His Purpose or Plan concerning Saul. Had he been obedient, then his kingdom would have been established [13:13], but because he had been disobedient, and it seemed he was continuing to function in this capacity, his kingdom would not continue with him.)

[12] And when Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to Carmel, and, behold, he set him up a place, and is gone about, and passed on, and gone down to Gilgal.

[13] And Samuel came to Saul (it probably took several days to reach Saul, because of the distance): and Saul said unto him, Blessed be thou of the LORD: I have performed the Commandment of the LORD (and so he had performed the Commandment of the Lord, halfway, as men generally keep God's Commandments, doing that part which is agreeable to themselves, and leaving that part undone which gives them neither pleasure nor profit — Smith).

[14] And Samuel said, What means then this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear? (Unfortunately, in the modern Church, the "bleating of the sheep" and the "lowing of the oxen" are so constant that they are hardly noticed anymore.)

15 And Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the LORD your God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed. (The Holy Spirit says that "Saul and the people" spared Agag and the best of the spoil [Vs. 9], but Saul said that it was "the people who spared them," trying to absolve himself of blame!)

16 Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell you what the LORD has said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on (the Message would not be too pleasant!).

17 And Samuel said, When you were little in your own sight, were you not made the head of the Tribes of Israel, and the LORD anointed you king over Israel?

18 And the LORD sent you on a journey, and said, Go and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they be consumed.

19 Wherefore then did you not obey the Voice of the LORD, but did fly upon the spoil, and did evil in the sight of the LORD?

20 And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, I have obeyed the Voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21 But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the LORD your God in Gilgal.

22 And Samuel said, Has the LORD as great delight in Burnt Offerings and Sacrifices, as in obeying the Voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. (It is much better to obey the Lord in the first place than to disobey and then to have to ask for forgiveness, trusting in the Sacrifice of Calvary. While forgiveness is always available [I Jn. 1:9], it is better to not need forgiveness!)

23 For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft (the taproot of all sin is "rebellion"; witchcraft is the effort to manipulate the spirit world through demon spirits; how is that like rebellion? To rebel against God's order, which is "Christ and Him Crucified," is to take matters into one's own hands, which is the same as witchcraft), and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry ("stubbornness" is an intractable spirit that refuses to believe God's Word). Because you have rejected the Word of the LORD, He has also rejected you from being king.

SAUL'S HUMILIATION

24 And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned: for I have transgressed the Commandment of the LORD, and your words: because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice.

25 Now therefore, I pray you, pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD. (All these statements were falsehoods. Saul's professions of Repentance were false, for he thought only of the threatened punishment and his own honor. True Repentance is toward God — and hence David said, "I have sinned against Jehovah," while Saul said only, "I have sinned.")

THE REJECTION OF SAUL

26 And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with you: for you have rejected the Word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel (to reject the Word of the Lord is to be rejected by the Lord)**.

27 And as Samuel turned about to go away, he (Saul) laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and it rent.

28 And Samuel said unto him, The LORD has rent the kingdom of Israel from you this day, and has given it to a neighbour of yours, that is better than you. (Even though David is not mentioned here, David is the one of whom the Holy Spirit speaks. Even though Saul would continue to serve for a period of time as king of Israel, in God's mind the change had begun in the spirit realm at that moment.)

29 And also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent: for He is not a man, that He should repent. (This was quoted by Samuel from the account of Balaam, as given in Numbers 23:19. The Divine title, "the Strength of Israel," refers to the Lord, and is used here for the very first time in Scripture.)

30 Then he said, I have sinned: yet honour me now, I pray you, before the Elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD your God. (It seems that Saul was more concerned about how he looked in regards to the people than with God. So it is with the majority of that which is presently called "the Church.")

31 So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped the LORD (although Samuel turned again after Saul, it does not say that he joined him in his act of official worship, for as soon as possible he left him forever).

SAMUEL SLAYS AGAG

32 Then said Samuel, Bring you hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites. And Agag came unto him delicately *(the Hebrew word rendered "delicately" should have been translated "in bonds"). And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past (Agag came trembling for his life).

33 And Samuel said, As your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal. (The Passage means that Samuel commanded the execution to be carried out; he did not do it personally. In the spiritual sense, we love our "Agags." The idea of hewing them in pieces is very distasteful; nevertheless, all "works of the flesh," of which Agag was a type, must be "hewed in pieces.")

34 Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to Gibeah of Saul.

35 And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death: nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul: and the LORD repented that He had made Saul king over Israel. (Saul, due to rebellion against God, was no longer the representative of Jehovah and, consequently, Samuel no more came to him, bearing messages and commands, and giving him counsel and guidance from God. The Lord had cut him off.)

CHAPTER 16

JESSE THE BETH-LEHEMITE

[1] And the LORD said unto Samuel (interrupts the great Prophet's negative thoughts), How long will you mourn for Saul (Samuel was mourning and, at the same time, God was planning the greatest moment in Israel's history; the truth is, we have nothing to mourn, for, at this moment, God is planning great things for us; we must remember that!), seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? (The Lord rejects all who will not obey His Word.) fill your horn with oil (a Type of the Holy Spirit), and go (if the Holy Spirit is present, it is always in order that a mission be accomplished), I will send you to Jesse the Beth-lehemite: for I have provided Me a king among his sons (of course, that was David, but, above all, the provision was the Greater Son of David).

[2] And Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul hear it, he will kill me (the "flesh" always tries to kill the Spirit; the two cannot abide; this work of the flesh demanded by Israel will hinder and, quite possibly, delay the work of the Spirit; how so much the Church deprives itself because it follows the ways of man and not of the Lord; it is said that the very work of the flesh which causes us so much difficulty and problem is, in fact, created by our own design). And the LORD said, Take an heifer with you, and say, I am come to Sacrifice to the LORD (the selection of David centered up in the Sacrifice of Calvary, and this was the real mission of the Prophet).

[3] And call Jesse to the Sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do: and you shall anoint unto Me him whom I name unto you (if it is to be noticed, the Lord did not divulge to Samuel as to which of Jesse's sons He would choose).

[4] And Samuel did that which the LORD spoke, and came to Beth-lehem.

And the Elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, Do you come peaceably? (They feared the Prophet, because they knew that whatever he said always came to pass. But this time, they had nothing to fear.)

5 And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD: sanctify yourselves, and come with Me to the Sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the Sacrifice (the Lord is calling the entirety of mankind to "Come to the Sacrifice," which refers to coming to the Cross; there is no Salvation or Victory outside of the Cross of Christ).

DAVID CHOSEN

6 And it came to pass, when they were come (Jesse and his sons), that he (Samuel) looked on Eliab, and said, Surely the LORD's anointed is before him. (This was David's brother, and he looked the part of the king. This shows us that even a great Prophet like Samuel cannot trust his own intuition. To have done so would have grossly violated the Will of God. We must ardently seek God concerning His Will, as it regards all things, both small and large.)

7 But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the Lord sees not as man sees; for man looks on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart (and only God knows the heart of man).

8 Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, Neither has the LORD chosen this.

9 Then Jesse made Shammah to pass by. And he said, Neither has the LORD chosen this.

10 Again, Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, The LORD has not chosen these.

11 And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all your children? And he said, There remains yet the youngest, and, behold, he keeps the sheep (a Type of Christ as the good Shepherd). And Samuel said unto Jesse, Send and fetch him: for we will not sit down till he come hither. (David was the youngest, and apparently his father Jesse thought it would be useless to bring him into the house. Generally, those who are totally rejected by men are the very ones whom God chooses.)

12 And he sent, and brought him in. Now he was ruddy (red-haired), and withal of a beautiful countenance (the Hebrew says, "with beautiful eyes"), and goodly to look to (to look at, handsome). And the LORD said, Arise, anoint him: for this is he. (It is believed that David was probably about 15 years of age at this time. It would be years before he would take the throne, but this is the beginning of the glory days of Israel.)

13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren (this was Samuel's last and crowning work; he would train the man who more nearly than any other approached unto the ideal of the theocratic king, and was to Israel the Type of their coming Messiah; it was Samuel's wisdom in teaching his young men music which gave David the skill to be the sweet singer of the Sanctuary; and we may feel sure also that when David arranged the service of the House of God, and gave Priests and Levites their appointed duties [I Chron. 23:26], the model which he set before him was that in which he had so often taken part with Samuel at Ramah, with, of course, the Lord guiding it all — Smith): and the Spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day forward (which would be the means by which all things good were accomplished in David's life; David's name would be the very first human name in the New Testament and the very last human name in the New Testament; in fact, the Messiah would be referred to as "the Son of David," because He would come through the lineage of David's family [II Sam., Chpt. 7]). So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD DEPARTS FROM SAUL

14 But the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD troubled him. (The Spirit of the Lord did not arbitrarily depart from Saul, but did so because Saul no longer wanted God. Because the Holy Spirit was not wanted, an evil spirit was allowed to go to Saul and trouble him, but only because of Saul's rebellion.)

[15] And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubles you.

[16] Let our lord now command your servants, which are before you, to seek out a man, who is a cunning player on an harp: and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon you, that he shall play with his hand, and you shall be well. (Verses 14-23 do not follow the previous part of the Chapter in chronological order. Actually, this latter Passage comes between 19:9 and 19:10, to show the contrast between the two spirits of Saul and David and the success of one and the failure of the other. Quite possibly, the attendants of Saul had learned the value of consecrated music from Samuel.)

[17] And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man who can play well, and bring him to me.

[18] Then answered one of the servants, and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, who is cunning (skillful) in playing, and a mighty valiant man, and a man of war, and prudent in matters, and a comely person, and the LORD is with him. (Williams says, "God did not at once set David upon the throne as He had done in the case of Saul. He had first to be tested, and humbled, and made to feel his dependence on God, and the sufficiency of God to uphold him and maintain him. Hence, at the outset of his career, he is brought face-to-face with Satan. So was it with the Blessed One, of Whom David was a Type. His public life began with an encounter with the Devil. It was thus, and by his subsequent sufferings, that David was molded and trained to be the channel through which the Psalms were given to the world.")

SAUL SENDS FOR DAVID

[19] Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David your son, which is with the sheep.

[20] And Jesse took an ass laden with bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid (baby lamb), and sent them by David his son unto Saul.

[21] And David came to Saul, and stood before him: and he loved him greatly; and he became his armourbearer (it was apparently after the combat with Goliath that Saul sent to Jesse, and asked that David might be always with him, at least until his jealousy intervened).

[22] And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David, I pray you, stand before me; for he has found favour in my sight.

[23] And it came to pass, when the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took an harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him. (When we read this Verse, we are actually reading the very first mention of God's use of music for worship, for refreshing, and for healing. In fact, music is one of the greatest healing agents on the face of the Earth, and it is derived from the 23rd Verse, "So Saul was refreshed, and was well"; however, for such to be, it has to be music that is ordained by the Lord and, thereby, sanctified by the Spirit.)

CHAPTER 17

GOLIATH

[1] Now the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle, and were gathered together at Shochoh, which belongs to Judah, and pitched between Shochoh and Azekah, in Ephes-dammim. (We are told, "There was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul" [14:52]. The Philistines were an inward foe, which is much worse than an outward foe. Because Saul never did quite defeat this inward foe, at least conclusively, that inward foe would ultimately defeat him.

piritually, it is the same presently. We must defeat all inward foes. This can be done only by the Believer placing his Faith exclusively in Christ and the Cross. The Cross must not be eliminated or pushed aside. If this is done, the Holy Spirit will not help us, and that leaves such a person with no course but that of defeat [Rom. 7:15].)

[2] And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and pitched by the valley of Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines.

[3] And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them.

[4] And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. (This means that he was over 9 feet tall. In a spiritual sense, this is exactly what every Believer faces; and, to be sure, it is not possible for us to defeat such opposition within our own power and strength. There is only one way it can be done, and that is by looking to the Cross. When the Holy Spirit through Paul told Believers how to live for God, He took us, first of all, to the Cross. It is found in Romans 6:3-5. If the Believer doesn't understand the Cross as it regards Sanctification, then it's impossible for such a Believer to defeat the Goliaths which come against him [Rom., Chpt. 7; Gal., Chpt. 5].)

5 And he had an helmet of brass upon his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass (about 125 pounds)**.

6 And he had greaves of brass upon his legs, and a target of brass between his shoulders.

7 And the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron (about 15 pounds): and one bearing a shield went before him. (The number "six" is stamped upon Goliath. He was six cubits high, and he had six pieces of armor, counting the weapons. The number "six" was stamped upon Nebuchadnezzar's golden image. And it will identify the future Antichrist, the number of whose name will be 666 [Rev. 13:18].)

8 And he stood and cried unto the armies of Israel, and said unto them, Why are you come out to set your battle in array? am not I a Philistine, and you servants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me. (Goliath was one of the last giants which were a product between fallen angels and women [Gen. 6:4]. This effort of Satan was meant to corrupt the bloodline, which would stop the coming of the Messiah, which occasioned Noah's flood, with this last insurgence meant to take over the Promised Land, which would deny God's People a place, and thereby, as well, stop the coming of the Messiah.)

9 If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall you be our servants, and serve us. (Regrettably, most Christians are now serving the Philistines, i.e., "bondages," because they do not understand the Cross [Rom. 6:3-14.)

10 And the Philistine said, I defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together. (The only "fight" we are called upon as Believers to engage is the "good fight of Faith" [I Tim. 6:12].)

11 When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid. (If they were going to attempt to fight him by natural means, they had every right to be afraid; once again, in reading these words, the Believer should understand that in the spiritual realm you are facing Goliaths. There is no way you can defeat these terrible powers of darkness, unless you do it according to God's Prescribed Order [Rom. 6:14].)

DAVID

12 Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Beth-lehem-judah, whose name was Jesse; and he had eight sons: and the man went among men for an old man in the days of Saul.

13 And the three eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliab the first born, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third Shammah.

14 And David was the youngest: and the three eldest followed Saul.

15 But David went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Beth-lehem. (This seems to be after the occasion of David playing the harp for Saul, which probably happened about two years earlier. Two years for a teenager brings about great changes, which is probably the reason that Saul did not recognize David, as we shall see.)

16 And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days. (The probationary number in the Bible is 40. Through David, who, in this instance, was a Type of Christ, Israel would pass this test.)

17 And Jesse said unto David his son, Take now for your brethren an ephah of this parched corn, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to your brethren;

18 And carry these ten cheeses unto the Captain of their thousand, and look how your brethren fare, and take their pledge (meaning they would give some token to David to take back to them, signifying that they were well and healthy).

[19] Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines (actually, there had not been any heavy fighting as of yet, but such fighting was the intention).

[20] And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the trench, as the host was going forth to the fight, and shouted for the battle.

[21] For Israel and the Philistines had put the battle in array, army against army.

[22] And David left his carriage (stuff) in the hand of the keeper of the carriage, and ran into the army, and came and saluted his brethren.

THE TAUNT OF THE GIANT

[23] And as he (David) talked with them (his brothers), behold, there came up the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the armies of the Philistines, and spoke according to the same words: and David heard them (the challenge of Verses 8-10).

[24] And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were sore afraid.

[25] And the men of Israel said, Have you seen this man that is come up? surely to defy Israel is he come up: and it shall be, that the man who kills him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel (probably meant that the family was free from taxes, and maybe even personal service in the army).

[26] And David spoke to the men who stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man who kills this Philistine, and takes away the reproach from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the Armies of the Living God?

[27] And the people answered him after this manner, saying, So shall it be done to the man who kills him.

[28] And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spoke unto the men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, Why did you come here? and with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? (Meant sarcastically.)I know your pride, and the naughtiness of your heart; for you are come down that you might see the battle (said with contempt!).

[29] And David said, What have I now done? is there not a cause? (In effect, David said, "I was only talking about this challenge, and was doing no wrong.")

[30] And he (David) turned from him (Eliab) toward another, and spoke after the same manner: and the people answered him again after the former manner (they told him that Saul would enrich anyone who killed the giant).

[31] And when the words were heard which David spoke, they rehearsed them before Saul: and he sent for him (evidently, David had been stating that he would fight the giant, which seems to have infuriated his brother).

DAVID KILLS GOLIATH

[32] And David said to Saul (after he was taken to the king), Let no man's heart fail because of him; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine (undoubtedly, at this point, the Lord had already told David what to do; consequently, his statements are now made on the basis of the principle of Faith).

[33] And Saul said to David, You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for you are but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth (in the natural, all of this was correct!).

34 And David said unto Saul, Your servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock:

35 And I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and killed him (all of this because the Spirit of the Lord was upon David from the time of his anointing [16:13]).

36 Your servant killed both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he has defied the Armies of the Living God (to boast accordingly in the natural would have been foolish indeed; however, and as stated, the Lord had, no doubt, already told David what to do).

37 David said moreover, The LORD Who delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, He will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Go, and the LORD be with you.

38 And Saul armed David with his armour, and he put an helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail.

39 And David girded his sword upon his armour, and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them. And David put them off him. (The "flesh" will ever try to hinder Faith by clothing it with unbelief. Saul's armor will defeat no Philistines. It will destroy no Goliath and, yet, the Church keeps trying to wear it. Take it off and put on the whole armor of God.

avid would be detained a moment by unbelief, but would soon gather his spiritual perspective and allow faith to proceed. The "armor" of Saul is the bane of the Church!)

40 And he took his staff in his hand (a Type of the Word of God; in fact, the history of these families was carved upon the staffs and, in David's case, would have included the Lord's dealings with him), and chose him five smooth stones (five is the number of Grace; with an uninterrupted flow of Grace, which is the Goodness of God freely given to us, anything can be done) out of the brook (a Type of the Holy Spirit), and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had (represents the Gifts of the Spirit), even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Philistine.

41 And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and the man that bore the shield went before him (before Goliath).

42 And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and of a fair countenance (the Giant made fun of David and, more than likely, the Philistine army was laughing, as well).

THE RESPONSE OF THE GIANT

43 And the Philistine said unto David, Am I a dog, that you come to me with staves? And the Philistine cursed David by his gods (he probably claimed the help of Dagon, the Philistine god).

44 And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give your flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field (or so he thought!).

THE RESPONSE OF DAVID

45 Then said David to the Philistine, You come to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come to you in the Name of the LORD of Hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, Whom you have defied (as Goliath cursed David by his gods, David now invokes the "Name of the LORD of Hosts"; so, in effect, it is Jehovah against "Dagon").

46 This day will the LORD deliver you into my hand (as stated, the Lord had already told him what to do); and I will smite you, and take your head from you; and I will give the carcases of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the Earth; that all the Earth may know that there is a God in Israel. (David wasn't dealing from presumption, but rather from a sure Word of the Lord; hence, he could boast!)

47 And all this assembly shall know that the LORD saves not with sword and spear: for the battle is the LORD's, and He will give you into our hands. (To be sure, the "battle is the LORD's"; however, we have to function against the giants which come against us according to God's Prescribed Order, or else we will lose the conflict. That "Order" is Christ and what He did for us at the Cross, which must ever be the Object of our Faith. That being the case, the Holy Spirit will then take our part, exactly as He did for David, and we are assured of victory [Rom. 8:1-2, 11].)

48 And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came, and drew near to meet David, that David hasted, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine (Faith does not retreat, but rather runs toward its foe).

49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth. (This was a Type of what Jesus would ultimately do to Satan. It had been predicted by the Lord immediately after the Fall, when He said to Satan through the serpent, "And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her Seed; it [He] shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise His Heel" [Gen. 3:15].)

50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and killed him; but there was no sword in the hand of David. (God is not limited as to what He can use to bring about victory. In this case, He would use "a sling and a stone," but possessed by a boy who had Faith.)

51 Therefore David ran, and stood upon the Philistine (the Christian is meant to stand upon his Goliaths, and not them standing upon him), and took his sword (the Sword of the Spirit), and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and killed him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until you come to the valley, and to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shaaraim, even unto Gath, and unto Ekron.

53 And the Children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled their tents (took all the spoils which had been left).

54 And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armour in his tent (about a thousand years later, our Heavenly David would walk out of the tomb with the head of Satan, so to speak, in His Hand; and, because He lives, we shall live also).

55 And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said unto Abner, the Captain of the host, Abner, whose son is this youth? And Abner said, As your soul lives, O king, I cannot tell.

56 And the king said, Enquire you whose son the stripling is.

57 And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

58 And Saul said to him, Whose son are you, you young man? And David answered, I am the son of your servant Jesse the Beth-lehemite (as stated, possibly some two years or more had passed since David had played the harp for Saul, so he didn't recognize the young man as the same one who had calmed him with music).

CHAPTER 18

(1063 B.C.)

JONATHAN AND DAVID

[1] And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that the soul of Jonathan (the son of Saul) was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul (Jonathan was to David as an older brother).

[2] And Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more home to his father's house (brought David into the court).

[3] Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

[4] And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle. (The covenant basically meant that whatever belonged to Jonathan now belonged to David. [In effect, he was giving David the kingdom, because he knew that God had called him for such.] Whatever belonged to David now belonged to Jonathan, as well! They would go so far as to lay down their lives for each other, if necessary. It would also extend to their children; hence, this is the reason that David would bring Mephibosheth into the palace and give him place and position [II Sam., Chpt. 9].

The covenant that is spoken of is basically a Type of the New Covenant made by Christ on the Cross. We enter into that Covenant by the virtue of Faith in Christ and what He has done for us [Jn. 3:16].)

SAUL BECOMES JEALOUS OF DAVID

5 And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and behaved himself wisely (the Holy Spirit will bear this out concerning David several times; he did this by the help of the Spirit): and Saul set him over the men of war (a special group), and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

6 And it came to pass as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tabrets, with joy, and with instruments of music (because of their victories).

7 And the women answered one another as they played, and said, Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands.

8 And Saul was very angry, and the saying displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and what can he have more but the kingdom? (When Saul had stood powerless before the enemy, a shepherd boy had stepped forth and given him the victory. This stripling, taken to be his companion in arms, had shown so many great qualities that the people reckoned him at ten times Saul's worth. Due to a total lack of spirituality, Saul could not handle this.)

9 And Saul eyed David from that day and forward (with intent to harm him).

10 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house (however, he wasn't prophesying by the Spirit of God, but rather by the power of demon spirits): and David played with his hand, as at other times (played the harp): and there was a javelin in Saul's hand.

11 And Saul cast the javelin; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall with it. And David avoided out of his presence twice (instead of allowing David to draw him to the Lord, he took the opposite road, and tried to kill David).

12 And Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him, and was departed from Saul (in effect, he sees the handwriting on the wall!).

13 Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his Captain over a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people. (Evidently the administrative affairs of the kingdom had been neglected, with David now functioning somewhat in this capacity. In a sense, Saul promoted David, giving him the charge of a thousand men; but David was no longer in the presence of Saul. Evidently, Saul didn't know what to do with him, because he was so popular with the people.)

14 And David behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and the LORD was with him (that was the reason for the blessings).

15 Wherefore when Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he was afraid of him.

16 But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them (he was totally trustworthy, and, as stated, "behaved himself wisely"!).

DAVID MARRIES SAUL'S DAUGHTER

17 And Saul said to David, Behold my elder daughter Merab, her will I give you to wife: only be you valiant for me, and fight the LORD's battles. For Saul said, Let not my hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be upon him (constantly sending David out to battle, Saul believed that he would ultimately be killed, which he desired).

18 And David said unto Saul, Who am I? and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son in law to the king?

19 But it came to pass at the time when Merab Saul's daughter should have been given to David, that she was given unto Adriel the Meholathite to wife. (The king's promise to give his daughter to the victor was not kept; but, on the contrary, a snare was set for David's foot. Merab was indeed proposed, but upon the added condition that David should venture his life and slay more of the Philistines, and thereby, as Saul hoped, lose his life. But this plan having failed, the king laid another snare for him. He grossly insulted him by giving the bride, a day or two before the marriage, to another man. By this, no doubt, he hoped to sting David into some disloyal language or conduct that would justify his being put to death. But this also failed.)

20 And Michal Saul's daughter loved David: and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.

21 And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, You shall this day be my son in law in the one of the twain (David will marry the other daughter).

22 And Saul commanded his servants, saying, Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king has delight in you, and all his servants love you: now therefore be the king's son in law.

23 And Saul's servants spoke those words in the ears of David. And David said, Seem it to you a light thing to be a king's son in law, seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?

24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, On this manner spoke David (they told Saul what David said, which means that David said nothing as it regards what Saul had done to him, by giving his first daughter to another man, instead of to David, as promised).

25 And Saul said, Thus shall you say to David, The king desires not any dowry, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the kings' enemies. But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines (this was the snare which he planned).

26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son in law: and the days were not expired (David was given a certain period of time for this to be done).

27 Wherefore David arose and went, he and his men, and killed of the Philistines two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full tale to the king, that he might be the king's son in law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife. (All of this was so known among so many people that Saul couldn't go back on this. Some may blanch at David killing so many Philistines; however, they were God's enemies and, in slaying them, David acted as God's Servant, and not as Saul's instrument.)

28 And Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal Saul's daughter loved him.

29 And Saul was yet the more afraid of David; and Saul became David's enemy continually.

30 Then the princes of the Philistines went forth: and it came to pass, after they went forth, that David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was much set by (we learn from all of this that what God has blessed, nothing can curse!).

CHAPTER 19

JONATHAN'S FRIENDSHIP WITH DAVID

1 And Saul spoke to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David. (As we have repeatedly said, the "flesh" must always persecute the "Spirit." This is a spiritual war that began at the very outset [Cain and Abel], and will not cease until the Trump of God sounds. The biggest enemy to the Work of God is religion, which is a product of the flesh. That's where Satan does his best and most destructive work. [Religion is a concoction of man, designed to reach God, or to better one's self in someway. In any form it is unacceptable to God.])

2 But Jonathan Saul's son delighted much in David: and Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeks to kill you: now therefore, I pray you, take heed to yourself until the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide yourself:

3 And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will commune with my father of you; and what I see, that I will tell you.

4 And Jonathan spoke good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king sin against his servant, against David; because he has not sinned against you, and because his works have been to you-ward very good:

5 For he did put his life in his hand, and killed the Philistine, and the LORD wrought a great salvation for all Israel: you saw it, and did rejoice: wherefore then will you sin against innocent blood, to kill David without a cause?

6 And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul swore, As the LORD lives, he shall not be killed.

7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan showed him all those things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as in times past.

SAUL AGAIN TRIES TO KILL DAVID

8 And there was war again: and David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and killed them with a great slaughter; and they fled from him.

9 And the evil spirit from the LORD was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his javelin in his hand: and David played (the harp) with his hand.

10 And Saul sought to smite David even to the wall with the javelin; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he smote the javelin into the wall: and David fled, and escaped that night.

11 Saul also sent messengers unto David's house, to watch him, and to kill him in the morning: and Michal David's wife told him, saying, If you save not your life tonight, tomorrow you shall be slain. (Williams says, "Saul presents here a sad and terrible picture! One moment generous and kind; the next, murderous and cruel! One moment controlled by the Spirit of God; the next, by the spirit of the demon! A useless ruined vessel, his life was wrecked because he hated David. Apart from that hatred, little is recorded to lead to the belief that his public or private conduct was unworthy of a man and a king; and men would have little known that there were such depths of malignity in his character had David never appeared. David's person and victories made manifest Saul's true character.

"So was it with man when the Greater than David appeared. His apparition immediately made manifest fallen man's true nature; just as light makes manifest darkness.")

12 So Michal let David down through a window: and he went, and fled, and escaped.

13 And Michal took an image, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster, and covered it with a cloth.

14 And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sick.

15 And Saul sent the messengers again to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may kill him.

16 And when the messengers were come in, behold, there was an image in the bed, with a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster.

17 And Saul said unto Michal, Why have you deceived me so, and sent away my enemy, that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said unto me, Let me go; why should I kill you? (Michal pretends that David had told her not to force him to kill her by refusing to give aid in his escape.)

SAMUEL

18 So David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth.

19 And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah (a school for Prophets).

20 And Saul sent messengers to take David: and when they saw the company of the Prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as appointed over them, the Spirit of God was upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied (which turned them away from their murderous mission).

21 And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also.

22 Then went he also to Ramah, and came to a great well that is in Sechu: and he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, they be at Naioth in Ramah.

23 And he went thither to Naioth in Ramah: and the Spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on, and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah (this records the last attempt by God to salvage Saul; as would be obvious, this prophesy was from the "Spirit of God" and not evil spirits).

24 And he stripped off his clothes also, and prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Wherefore they say, Is Saul also among the prophets? (It does not mean that Saul stripped off his clothing. It means that he stripped off his armor and kingly robes. In other words, he was "naked" of these items, but not naked as we think of nakedness.

As stated, this was God's last attempt to bring Saul back to the right way. After this, Saul would go even deeper into spiritual oblivion.)

CHAPTER 20

A NEW COVENANT BETWEEN JONATHAN AND DAVID

[1] And David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, What have I done? what is my iniquity? and what is my sin before your father, that he seeks my life? (As Saul, who represented the leadership of Israel, rejected David, with a part of that leadership, who is Jonathan, accepting him, this portrays the highest of Israel rejecting the Lord Jesus Christ, with part of its leadership accepting Him; however, as Jonathan, the small part of the leadership which did accept Christ [Joseph of Arimathaea and Nicodemus] had very little influence on the decision of the hierarchy. In this instance, David was, and is, a Type of the true King of Israel, now rejected and hated by the world. But just as the kingdom came ultimately to David, and just as he gave high positions in that kingdom to those who had loved him when an outcast, so will Christ the Lord ultimately receive the dominion of the Earth, and He will appoint to great honor those who now love and follow Him.)

[2] And he (Jonathan) said unto him (David), God forbid; you shall not die: behold, my father will do nothing either great or small, but that he will show it me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? it is not so. (Jonathan, who still had hopes that his father would come to his senses, is a picture of those in the institutionalized Church who are torn between David, God's anointed, and Saul, man's anointed. As Jonathan was dearly beloved by the Lord, so are these individuals, whoever they may be. Still, as Jonathan died trying to defend Saul, likewise, they will die trying to defend man's anointed.)

[3] And David swore moreover, and said, Your father certainly knows that I have found grace in your eyes; and he says, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved: but truly as the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, there is but a step between me and death (David was right!).

4 Then said Jonathan unto David, Whatsoever your soul desires, I will even do it for you.

5 And David said unto Jonathan, Behold, tomorrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat: but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field unto the third day at evening.

6 If your father at all miss me, then say, David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to Beth-lehem his city: for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.

7 If he say thus, It is well; your servant shall have peace: but if he be very wroth, then be sure that evil is determined by him.

8 Therefore you shall deal kindly with your servant; for you have brought your servant into a covenant of the LORD with you: notwithstanding, if there be in me iniquity, kill me yourself; for why should you bring me to your father?

9 And Jonathan said, Far be it from you: for if I knew certainly that evil were determined by my father to come upon you, then would not I tell it to you?

10 Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? or what if your father answer you roughly?

11 And Jonathan said unto David, Come, and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field. (David's question had shown Jonathan that there were grave difficulties in the situation, and so Jonathan proposes that they should take a walk into the country, to be able to talk with one another more freely, and to try to make plans for the future.)

12 And Jonathan said unto David, O LORD God of Israel, when I have sounded my father about tomorrow any time, or the third day, and, behold, if there be good toward David, and I then send not unto you, and show it you;

13 The LORD do so and much more to Jonathan: but if it please my father to do you evil, then I will show it to you, and send you away, that you may go in peace: and the LORD be with you, as He has been with my father.

14 And you shall not only while yet I live show me the kindness of the LORD, that I die not:

15 But also you shall not cut off your kindness from my house for ever: no, not when the LORD has cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of the Earth. (From these Passages, we learn that Jonathan knew that David would one day be king of Israel. In that event, he is asking David to show mercy to his family. As we will later see, that's exactly what David did!)

16 So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, Let the LORD even require it at the hand of David's enemies. (Because David had made the covenant with Jonathan, even David's enemies would have to recognize it, or else deal with David. In a sense, this is the same Covenant that we now have as Believers with the Lord Jesus Christ, of Whom David is a Type. Even the Lord's enemies, and we speak of the powers of darkness, have to recognize this Covenant, and, above all, recognize this Covenant!)

17 And Jonathan caused David to swear again, because he loved him: for he loved him as he loved his own soul.

18 Then Jonathan said to David, Tomorrow is the new moon: and you shall be missed, because your seat will be empty.

19 And when you have stayed three days, then you shall go down quickly, and come to the place where you did hide yourself when the business was in hand, and shall remain by the stone Ezel.

20 And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a mark.

21 And, behold, I will send a lad, saying, Go, find out the arrows. If I expressly say unto the lad, Behold, the arrows are on this side of you, take them; then you can come: for there is peace to you, and no hurt; as the LORD lives.

22 But if I say thus unto the young man, Behold, the arrows are beyond you; go your way: for the LORD has sent you away.

23 And as touching the matter which you and I have spoken of, behold, the LORD be between you and me forever (all of this would tell David of Saul's true disposition toward him).

JONATHAN AND SAUL

24 So David hid himself in the field: and when the new moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat.

25 And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, even upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, and David's place was empty.

26 Nevertheless Saul spoke not anything that day: for he thought, Something has befallen him, he is not clean; surely he is not clean (supposing some ceremonial defilement [Lev. 15:2-16]).

27 And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second day of the month, that David's place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore comes not the son of Jesse to meat (to the meal), neither yesterday, nor today?

28 And Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Beth-lehem:

29 And he said, Let me go, I pray you; for our family has a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he has commanded me to be there: and now, if I have found favour in your eyes, let me get away, I pray you, and see my brethren. Therefore he comes not unto the king's table.

30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, You son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own confusion, and unto the confusion of your mother's nakedness? (In that culture, the greatest possible insult to a man is to call his mother vile names. The latter phrase refers to a mother feeling ashamed and disgraced at having born such a son.)

31 For as long as the son of Jesse lives upon the ground, you shall not be established, nor your kingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he shall surely die.

32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, Wherefore shall he be slain? what has he done?

33 And Saul cast a javelin at him (at Jonathan) to smite him: whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to kill David.

34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame (had done David shame!).

THE PARTING OF JONATHAN AND DAVID

35 And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him.

36 And he said unto his lad, Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot. And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

37 And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, Is not the arrow beyond you? (This was the prearranged sign that David was in acute danger [Vs.

38 And Jonathan cried after the lad, Make speed, haste, stay not. And Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master.

39 But the lad knew not anything: only Jonathan and David knew the matter (the child had no knowledge what was taking place, at least as it regards the matter between David and Jonathan).

40 And Jonathan gave his artillery unto his lad, and said unto him, Go, carry them to the city.

41 And as soon as the lad was gone, David arose out of a place toward the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David exceeded (broke down, and was completely mastered by his grief).

42 And Jonathan said to David, Go in peace, forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the Name of the LORD, saying, The LORD be between me and you, and between my seed and your seed for ever (the covenant would stand [18:3-4]). And he (David) arose and departed: and Jonathan went into the city.

CHAPTER 21

DAVID FLEES FROM SAUL

[1] Then came David to Nob to Ahimelech the Priest (High Priest): and Ahimelech was afraid at the meeting of David, and said unto him, Why are you alone, and no man with you? (It seemed strange to Ahimelech that David was traveling in this manner, considering that he was the king's son-in-law.)

THE SHEWBREAD

[2] And David said unto Ahimelech the Priest, The king has commanded me a business (which was a lie), and has said unto me, Let no man know anything of the business whereabout I send you, and what I have commanded you: and I have appointed my servants to such and such a place. (All of this teaches the bitter lesson that departure from the path of Faith not only means loss of all personal dignity, but it involves injury to others as well! Thus, as Abraham, when he left the path of Faith, became the occasion of sickness and disease to the Egyptians [Gen. 12:17], so David's conduct caused the death of the High Priest and 85 of his fellow Priests, together with their wives and children [22:18-19].)

[3] Now therefore what is under your hand? give me five loaves of bread in my hand, or what there is present.

[4] And the Priest answered David, and said, There is no common bread under my hand, but there is hallowed bread (these were the twelve loaves of the Shewbread, which were baked fresh every week and placed on the Table of Shewbread; at the end of the week, they were then eaten by the Priests in the Holy Place [Lev. 24:8-9], with fresh loaves then replacing that which had been eaten); if the young men have kept themselves at least from women. (As Ahimelech could not venture to refuse David's request, he asked if his attendants are at least ceremonially clean, as in that case the urgency of the king's business might excuse the breach of the letter of the Commandment. Our Lord in Matthew 12:3 cites this a case in which the inward spirit of the Law was kept, and the violation of its literal precept thereby justified — Smith.)

5 And David answered the Priest, and said unto him, Of a truth women have been kept from us about these three days, since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in a manner common, yes, though it were sanctified this day in the vessel (the whole Chapter sets David before us in a very humiliating light).

6 So the Priest gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the shewbread, that was taken from before the LORD, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away.

7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD (shut up in close seclusion within the precincts of the Tabernacle, either for some vow, or for purification); and his name was Doeg, an Edomite, the chiefest of the herdmen that belonged to Saul.

DAVID TAKES GOLIATH'S SWORD

8 And David said unto Ahimelech, And is there not here under your hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste.

9 And the Priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the valley of Elah, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the Ephod: if you will take that, take it: for there is no other save that here. And David said, There is none like that; give it me (the sword of Goliath did not save the giant; neither could it save David).

DAVID FLEES TO GATH

10 And David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath (in effect, David was going over to the enemies of God; so much of the wrongdoing that comes by the Child of God is caused by fear).

11 And the servants of Achish said unto him, Is not this David the king of the land? did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands? (To be sure, they were nonplussed at David appearing among them.)

12 And David laid up these words in his heart, and was sore afraid of Achish the king of Gath.

13 And he changed his behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and scrabbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard (as is obvious, this is an extremely low point in David's life; however, it portrays what even the greatest will do, even as David, when we depart from the path of faith).

14 Then said Achish unto his servants, Lo, you see the man is mad: wherefore then have you brought him to me?

15 Have I need of mad men, that you have brought this fellow to play the mad man in my presence? shall this fellow come into my house? (Evidently, David's ploy worked, with the Philistines thinking that he was crazy and, thereby, letting him go his way. He should never have been there to begin with.)

CHAPTER 22

DAVID FLEES TO ADULLAM

[1] David therefore departed thence, and escaped to the cave Adullam: and when his brethren and all his father's house heard it, they went down thither to him. (This cave was a large one near the city of Adullam in Judah, which was about 12 miles southwest of Bethlehem. This would be David's headquarters for a period of time. He would compose Psalm 57 on this occasion. Actually, many of the Psalms which were composed by David and, we might add, inspired by the Holy Spirit, were written during times of great distress. As well, he composed Psalm 56 when he was in the land of the Philistines.)

[2] And everyone who was in distress, and everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented, gathered themselves unto him; and he became a Captain over them: and there were with him about four hundred men. (David's position in the "cave Adullam" is a type of the small Remnant who truly are called of God and live for God. This is the position today in Christendom. The outward form of a testimony for God exists, but its living reality is only found among those who know, love, and serve their rejected Lord. Such persons are despised by the great and proud and, as well, by much of the religious hierarchy; however, the Lord calls them "the excellent in the Earth," and He says that in them is all His delight [Ps. 16:3].)

[3] And David went thence to Mizpeh of Moab: and he said unto the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother, I pray you, come forth, and be with you, till I know what God will do for me. (Faith is an unworldly virtue. It very seldom explains more than a step at a time. To fully realize its benefits and to gather all its guarantees, one must learn trust and dependence. These David would learn the hard way!)

4 And he brought them (his parents) before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the hold. (As Saul had waged war on Moab [14:47], the king was probably glad to help one who would keep Saul employed at home. As well, some think that the phrase "the hold" refers to Masada; however, that is only speculation.)

5 And the Prophet Gad said unto David, Abide not in the hold; depart, and get you into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hareth. (Thus, we are now introduced to Gad the Prophet. Gad, probably by Samuel's command, came to be David's counselor. In fact, the advice he now gives is most important. David was to leave Moab and go back to Judah, which he did. "Hareth" was about 3 miles from the cave of Adullam.)

6 When Saul heard that David was discovered (back in Judah), and the men who were with him, (now Saul abode in Gibeah under a tree in Ramah, having his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him [Saul evidently was holding a formal court to decide what steps should be taken now that David had openly revolted from him];)

7 Then Saul said unto his servants who stood about him, Hear now, you Benjamites; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all Captains of thousands, and Captains of hundreds;

8 That all of you have conspired against me, and there is none who shows me that my son has made a league with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you that is sorry for me, or shows unto me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day? (These statements proclaim the fact that Saul knew that there was a covenant between Jonathan and David. Saul has lied so much about David that he now has come to believe his own lies.)

DOEG THE EDOMITE

9 Then answered Doeg the Edomite, which was set over the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub (it should have been translated, "Doeg the Edomite, who stood there with the servants of Saul"; these Benjamites would not have endured to have an Edomite set over them).

[10] And he enquired of the LORD for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

THE PRIESTS

[11] Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the Priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the Priests who were in Nob: and they came all of them to the king (they little realized what was in store for them!).

[12] And Saul said, Hear now, you son of Ahitub. And he answered, Here I am, my lord.

[13] And Saul said unto him, Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him bread, and a sword, and have enquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

[14] Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who is so faithful among all your servants as David, which is the king's son in law, and goes at your bidding, and is honourable in your house?

[15] Did I then begin to enquire of God for him? be it far from me: let not the king impute anything unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for your servant knew nothing of all this, less or more (Ahimelech's answers are those of an innocent man who had supposed that what he did was a matter of course).

[16] And the king said, You shall surely die, Ahimelech, You, and all your father's house (Saul imagines conspiracies on every hand; the wicked flee when no man pursues).

[17] And the king said unto the footmen who stood about him, Turn, and kill the Priests of the LORD; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not show it to me. But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the Priests of the LORD.

18 And the king said to Doeg, Turn thou, and fall upon the Priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the Priests, and killed on that day fourscore and five (85) persons who did wear a linen Ephod. (The fact that they were thus clad in their official dress added not to the wickedness, but to the impiety of this revolting act — Smith. That day, Saul would kill all the Priests with the exception of "Abiathar," who escaped and fled after David, even as we shall see. Saul would kill some 85 men of God, as well as women and children.

Incidentally, Abiathar was of the line of the priests of Eli. He had a son who was also joint Priest with Zadok for a while [I Chron. 18:16; 24:6]. Solomon, many years later, deposed Abimelech because he espoused his brother's cause to become king, and Zadok became sole High Priest [I Ki. 1:7-42]. Thus, the prophecy to Eli of the cutting off of his house as Priests was finally fulfilled [I Sam. 2:31], for Abiathar was the last of his line to be High Priest. Eli and Abiathar were of the house of Ithamar, and Zadok was of the house of Eleazar. By this act of Saul, he caused the transfer of the Urim and Thummim to David and, as stated, the prophecy to Eli of the cutting off of his house was fulfilled.)

19 And Nob, the city of the Priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword. (This act perpetrated by Saul, in the killing of the Priests and the massacre of all in the city of Nob, was an act unparalleled in Jewish history for its barbarity. Nor was it an act of barbarity only, but also of insane and wanton stupidity. This is the end result of rebellion against God!)

ABIATHAR

20 And one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped, and fled after David.

21 And Abiathar showed David that Saul had slain the LORD's Priests.

22 And David said unto Abiathar, I knew it that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul: I have occasioned the death of all the persons of your father's house.

23 Abide you with me, fear not: for he who seeks my life seeks your life: but with me you shall be in safeguard.

CHAPTER 23

(1061 B.C.)

DAVID DEFEATS THE PHILISTINES

[1] Then they told David, saying, Behold, the Philistines fight against Keilah, and they rob the threshingfloors (by leaving Moab, and coming back to Judah, and thus protecting the people from the Philistines, which Saul could no longer do, David grew in reputation and power and, from the list of those who joined him at Ziklag [I Chron. 12:1-22], it is evident not only that such was the case, but that there was a strong enthusiasm for him at this time, throughout not merely Judah, but all Israel).

[2] Therefore David enquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the LORD said unto David, Go, and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah. (More than likely, David's means of communicating with the Lord was by the "Urim and Thummim." As we have stated elsewhere, what the "Urim and Thummim" were, no one exactly knows. It is known that whatever they were, they were kept in some type of pocket or container in the back of the "Ephod." This was a vest-like garment worn by the Great High Priest. The word "Urim" means "lights," with the word "Thummim" meaning "perfection." It seems that questions were asked, and, when the lot was drawn from the "Ephod," it would give a "Yes" or "No" answer.)

[3] And David's men said unto him, Behold, we be afraid here in Judah: how much more then if we come to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines? (Though David had heard from the Lord, still, the men with him were not eager at all to fight the Philistines; but yet, David did not proudly and scornfully scold them for their want of faith, as many would do presently, but he sympathized with their fears, and said he would again ask God for guidance.)

4 Then David enquired of the LORD yet again. And the LORD answered him and said, Arise, go down to Keilah; for I will deliver the Philistines into your hand.

5 So David and his men went to Keilah (they evidently now acquiesced to David), and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

SAUL ATTEMPTS TO KILL DAVID

6 And it came to pass, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David to Keilah, that he came down with an Ephod in his hand.

7 And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah. And Saul said, God has delivered him into my hand; for he is shut in, by entering into a town that has gates and bars. (It is interesting! Saul had become so demented that he thought that God was actually helping him; however, most who walk paths of evil claim God as their partner!)

8 And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men.

9 And David knew that Saul secretly practised mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the Priest, Bring hither the Ephod.

10 Then said David, O LORD God of Israel, your servant has certainly heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake.

11 Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down, as your servant has heard? O LORD God of Israel, I beseech you, tell Your servant. And the LORD said, He will come down.

12 Then said David, Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the LORD said, They will deliver you up. (David had saved them from the Philistines, and yet they would deliver him to Saul! To tell the truth, the modern Church, like Keilah of old, cannot abide David, even though he has delivered them. Again, as Keilah, it opts for Saul. What a travesty!)

DAVID ESCAPES TO THE WILDERNESS

13 Then David and his men, which were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went whithersoever they could go. And it was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah; and he forbare to go forth (Saul ceased his pursuit of David).

14 And David abode in the wilderness in strong holds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God delivered him not into his hand. (David's way may have seemed precarious and, to the natural eye, it was; however, Saul's way was impossible. What God has placed His Anointing upon, men, despite their eagerness and effort, cannot overcome.)

15 And David saw that Saul was come out to seek his life: and David was in the wilderness of Ziph in a wood.

JONATHAN AND DAVID

16 And Jonathan Saul's son arose, and went to David into the wood, and strengthened his hand in God. (Evidently, there was a strong conviction in Jonathan's mind that the Lord was transferring the kingdom from Saul to David, and that consequently David's final success was inevitable! Jonathan, no doubt, relayed his feelings to David, which probably greatly encouraged the Psalmist.)

17 And he said unto him, Fear not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not find you; and you shall be king over Israel, and I shall be next unto you; and that also Saul my father knows.

18 And they two made a covenant before the LORD: and David abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house. (Jonathan would in no way have helped his father Saul in his attempts to kill David, but, at the same time, he never fully threw in his lot with David either. If he had broken with Saul completely, joining David in his test of Faith and not returning to his house, quite possibly that which he said, "And I shall be next unto you," would have been realized. He did not do that, and he was never heard from again in the Holy Scriptures until he appears slain by the Philistines on Mount Gilboa.)

THE ZIPHITES

19 Then came up the Ziphites to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Does not David hide himself with us in strong holds in the wood, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of Jeshimon? (The Ziphites would seek to betray David to Saul.)

20 Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of your soul to come down; and our part shall be to deliver him into the king's hand.

21 And Saul said, Blessed be you of the LORD; for you have compassion on me. (How many presently, as Saul, use Scriptural terminology, but their hearts, as Saul's, are black with sin!)

22 Go, I pray you, prepare yet, and know and see his place where his haunt is, and who has seen him there: for it is told me that he deals very subtilly.

23 See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hides himself, and come you again to me with the certainty, and I will go with you: and it shall come to pass, if he be in the land, that I will search him out throughout all the thousands of Judah.

24 And they arose, and went to Ziph before Saul: but David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the plain on the south of Jeshimon.

25 Saul also and his men went to seek him. And they told David: wherefore he came down into a rock, and abode in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon.

[26] And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain: and David made haste to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men compassed David and his men round about to take them. (Sometimes God, in His Wisdom, does not deliver His Servant until all appears lost, and Faith seems a deception. David was apparently overcome, with escape impossible. But, at the very last moment, he was delivered.)

DAVID ESCAPES SAUL

[27] But there came a messenger unto Saul, saying, Haste you, and come; for the Philistines have invaded the land. (This was Divine intervention to protect David when Saul was about to overtake him. Faith may bring its results at the last minute, but it is never late. All faith must be tested, and great Faith must be tested greatly.)

[28] Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines: therefore they called that place Sela-hammahlekoth.

[29] And David went up from thence, and dwelt in strong holds at En-gedi (this is very near the shore of the Dead Sea).

CHAPTER 24

DAVID SPARES SAUL'S LIFE

1 And it came to pass, when Saul was returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-gedi. (We learn at least two great truths in this Chapter: 1. The great lengths that Saul will go to in order to kill David. Saul is a type of apostate religion that must kill, or at least attempt to kill, that which is of God, of which David is a Type; and, 2. The great reluctance that David will have to harm Saul. This portrays the true Child of God, who will not take matters into his own hands, but will place all in the Hands of the Lord.)

2 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats. (Saul's enemy was not David; it was the Philistines. But yet, most of his energy is spent trying to kill God's anointed. Once again, this is a picture of apostate Christianity at work.)

3 And he came to the sheepcotes by the way, where was a cave; and Saul went in to cover his feet: and David and his men remained in the sides of the cave (of course, Saul didn't know they were there).

4 And the men of David said unto him, Behold the day of which the LORD said unto you, Behold, I will deliver your enemy into your hand, that you may do to him as it shall seem good unto you. Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul's robe privily. (Evidently, Saul had laid down to rest, and had gone to sleep. The supposed promise of this Verse had actually never been given by God. Such is man! Promises that are given, he lightly esteems, and Promises that are not given, he invents and believes. The Child of God must be careful that he does not read into the Word of God what is not there. As well, he should not fail to claim all the Promises of God.)

5 And it came to pass afterward, that David's heart smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt. (The carnal mind immediately takes advantage of such an opportunity; however, the spiritual mind knows that this is not God's Way. The Lord had evidently told David that he was not to touch Saul; that's the reason for his consternation at this time.)

6 And he said unto his men, The LORD forbid that I should do this thing unto my master, the LORD's anointed, to stretch forth my hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the LORD. (This does not mean that Saul was anointed by the Holy Spirit, for he was not. It means that he had been "anointed" to be king of Israel. Even though Saul was man's choice, still, God had played a part in allowing this man to be king of Israel. So, if it was wrong to stretch forth one's hand regarding harm against one like Saul, who was, in fact, demon-possessed, how much more is it wrong to touch one who is truly God's anointed!)

7 So David stayed his servants with these words, and suffered them not to rise against Saul. But Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way.

DAVID SPEAKS TO SAUL

8 David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth and bowed himself.

9 And David said to Saul (evidently, David was on the side of a hill, with Saul on another hill, with a ravine running between), Wherefore hear you men's words, saying, Behold, David seeks your hurt?

10 Behold, this day your eyes have seen how that the LORD had delivered you today into my hand in the cave: and some bade me kill you: but my eye spared you; and I said, I will not put forth my hand against my lord; for he is the LORD's anointed.

11 Moreover, my father, see, yes, see the skirt of your robe in my hand:

for in that I cut off the skirt of your robe, and killed you not, know you and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in my hand, and I have not sinned against you; yet you hunt my soul to take it.

12 The LORD judge between me and you, and the LORD avenge me of you: but my hand shall not be upon you.

13 As says the proverb of the ancients, Wickedness proceeds from the wicked: but my hand shall not be upon you.

14 After whom is the king of Israel come out? after whom do you pursue? after a dead dog, after a flea?

15 The LORD therefore be Judge, and judge between me and you, and see, and plead my cause, and deliver me out of your hand.

SAUL ACKNOWLEDGES HIS WRONG

16 And it came to pass, when David had made an end of speaking these words unto Saul, that Saul said, Is this your voice, my son David? And Saul lifted up his voice, and wept. (Evidently, the Spirit of the Lord was dealing with Saul and, for a moment, he seemed to have turned toward the right way; regrettably, it wouldn't last long.)

17 And he said to David, You are more righteous than I: for you have rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded you evil.

18 And you have showed this day how that you have dealt well with me: forasmuch as when the LORD had delivered me into your hand, you killed me not.

19 For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? wherefore the LORD reward you good for that you have done unto me this day.

20 And now, behold, I know well that you shall surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand. (Obviously, Saul knew the Prophecy concerning David, as had been given by Samuel the Prophet. In fact, this is the very reason he had been trying to kill David. His repentance wouldn't last long. Saul is a perfect picture of the apostate Church, which will go to any length to preserve its power. As well, it should be a perfect picture of the true Church of Jesus Christ, which will go to any length not to intrude into the sole domain of the Lord; however, this in no way prevents the true Child of God from "contending for the faith once delivered unto the Saints.")

21 Swear now therefore unto me by the LORD, that you will not cut off my seed after me, and that you will not destroy my name out of my father's house.

22 And David swore unto Saul. And Saul went home; but David and his men got them up unto the hold. (When David became king, the only one left of the house of Saul was Mephibosheth. David showed great kindness to this grandson of Saul, exactly as he had promised [II Sam., Chpt. 9].)

CHAPTER 25

THE DEATH OF SAMUEL

1 And Samuel died; and all the Israelites were gathered together, and lamented him, and buried him in his house at Ramah. And David arose, and went down to the wilderness of Paran. (It is supposed that Samuel died when he was about 98 years of age. He probably died about 2 years before Saul was killed. Whether David went to the funeral of Samuel is not known, but to him it was clear that with Samuel's death came the removal of the last restraining power in Saul's life; so David went down into the wilderness of Paran, which was south of Judea.)

NABAL

2 And there was a man in Maon, whose possessions were in Carmel; and the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

3 Now the name of the man was Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail: and she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance: but the man was churlish and evil in his doings; and he was of the house of Caleb. (The name "Nabal" means "fool," and, to be sure, the man lived up to his namesake. He was "of the house of Caleb," but not of the spirit and faith of Caleb.)

4 And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal did shear his sheep.

5 And David sent out ten young men, and David said unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name:

6 And thus shall you say to him who lives in prosperity, Peace be both to you, and peace be to your house, and peace be unto all that you have.

7 And now I have heard that you have shearers: now your shepherds which were with us, we hurt them not, neither was there ought missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel.

8 Ask your young men, and they will show you. Wherefore let the young men find favour in your eyes: for we come in a good day: give, I pray you, whatsoever comes to your hand unto your servants, and to your son David.

9 And when David's young men came, they spoke to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and ceased. (David had a right to ask this favor, considering that he and his men had, in a sense, been a protector to the great flocks of Nabal, keeping bandits away, etc.)

NABAL REFUSES TO HELP

10 And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there be many servants now a days who break away every man from his master. (The man insults David, insinuating that David is a mere slave who has run away from his master, who is Saul.)

11 Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it unto men, whom I know not whence they be?

12 So David's young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those sayings (in other words, he gave them nothing!).

13 And David said unto his men, Gird you on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword; and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David about four hundred men; and two hundred abode by the stuff (stayed in the camp; no man is perfect, even though he be a Type of Christ; and David, like the Apostle Paul [Acts 23:3], stung with the injustice of Nabal's language, started out to punish him; but the Lord delivered him from the snare; Abigail, as we shall see, was the instrument of that deliverance).

ABIGAIL

14 But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master; and he railed on them.

15 But the men were very good unto us, and we were not hurt, neither missed we anything, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields:

16 They were a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep. (David's men, encamped close by Nabal's possessions, were a blessing instead of a hindrance. As Nabal did not know, understand, or even care for these things, likewise, the world in general does not realize or recognize the "salt of the Earth" that is in its midst.)

17 Now therefore know and consider what you will do; for evil is determined against our master, and against all his household: for he is such a son of Belial, that a man cannot speak to him ("Belial" means "worthless"; so coarse and violent was Nabal that it was hopeless to expostulate with him).

18 Then Abigail made haste, and took two hundred loaves (very large loaves of bread), and two bottles of wine (two large wineskins, with each holding many gallons), and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn (either barley or wheat, for there was no such thing as "corn," as we know such, in the Middle East of that day; corn was first introduced by Indians to the early settlers of the North American continent), and an hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses.

19 And she said unto her servants, Go on before me; behold, I come after you. But she told not her husband Nabal.

20 And it was so, as she rode on the ass, that she came down by the covert of the hill, and, behold, David and his men came down against her; and she met them. (Not only is Abigail beautiful in person, but she is even more beautiful in character. Her faith and her intelligence are admirable. She judges both Nabal and Saul as God judged them. She recognizes in David his title as king, despite his personal imperfection. She also recognizes his valor in fighting God's battles and, where others only see a rebel, she sees a redeemer. All of this is not merely just the intelligence of the head; it is accompanied by the affection of the heart as well!)

[21] Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him: and he has requited me evil for good.

[22] So and more also do God unto the enemies of David, if I leave of all who pertain to him by the morning light any who urinates against the wall (David fully intended to kill Nabal, and any who resisted with him).

ABIGAIL MEETS DAVID

[23] And when Abigail saw David, she hasted, and lighted off the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, [24] And fell at his feet, and said, Upon me, my lord, upon me let this iniquity be: and let your handmaid, I pray you, speak in your audience, and hear the words of your handmaid.

[25] Let not my lord, I pray you, regard this man of Belial, even Nabal: for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him: but I your handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom you did send (from the Text, it seems that Nabal's great wealth had been brought about by the wisdom of his wife).

[26] Now therefore, my lord, as the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, seeing the LORD has withheld you from coming to shed blood, and from avenging yourself with your own hand, now let your enemies, and they who seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal (the lady begins her appeal by affirming that it was Jehovah Who thus made her come to prevent bloodshed).

[27] And now this blessing which your handmaid has brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men who follow my lord (the "blessing" pertained to the foodstuff).

[28] I pray you, forgive the trespass of your handmaid: for the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house; because my lord fights the battles of the LORD, and evil has not been found in you all your days. (From these statements, we learn that Abigail knew all about David and, most definitely, her husband, Nabal, did as well. So his response to the appeal for help was not on the basis of ignorance, but rather from the basis of stupidity.)

[29] Yet a man is risen to pursue you, and to seek your soul *(she speaks of Saul): but the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the LORD your God *(meaning that God is determining David's destiny); and the souls of your enemies, them shall He sling out, as out of the middle of a sling (and that's exactly what ultimately happened!).

[30] And it shall come to pass, when the LORD shall have done to my lord according to all the good that He has spoken concerning you, and shall have appointed you ruler over Israel *(she knows, as did most of Israel, that David had been anointed by Samuel to be king);

[31] That this shall be no grief unto you, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that you have shed blood causeless, or that my lord has avenged himself: but when the LORD shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember your handmaid (in other words, Abigail tells David not to do something that may cause him problems later on, which, of course, was excellent advice).

DAVID SPARES NABAL

[32] And David said to Abigail, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which sent you this day to meet me *(David sees the Hand of God in the remonstrance of this woman):

33 And blessed be your advice, and blessed be you, which has kept me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself with my own hand.

34 For in very deed, as the LORD God of Israel lives, which has kept me back from hurting you, except you had hasted and come to meet me, surely there had not been left unto Nabal by the morning light any who urinates against the wall (all the men who were with Nabal would have been killed).

35 So David received of her hand that which she had brought him, and said unto her, Go up in peace to your house; see, I have hearkened to your voice, and have accepted your person.

NABAL'S DEATH

36 And Abigail came to Nabal; and, behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king (he had food for all of this, but none for David); and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk: wherefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light.

37 But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became as a stone.

38 And it came to pass about ten days after, that the LORD smote Nabal, that he died. (By his actions toward David, this man's life was cut short by a number of years; however, it was the Lord Who did this, and not David. How so often we hurt ourselves by not leaving things in the Hand of the Lord.)

DAVID MARRIES ABIGAIL

39 And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the LORD, Who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has kept His servant from evil (the Lord used Abigail to do this)*: for the LORD has returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife.

40 And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spoke unto her, saying, David sent us unto you, to take you to him to wife.

41 And she arose, and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let your handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.

42 And Abigail hasted, and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of hers who went after her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife.

43 David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel; and they were also both of them his wives.

44 But Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Phalti the son of Laish, which was of Gallim. (Williams says, "Had David kept closely to the teaching of the Bible, he would have had but one wife; for so it was ordained 'from the beginning'" [Mat. 19:8]. By this action, David set a poor example for his son Solomon, who took many wives, some of them of heathen nations, which turned his heart away from God.)

CHAPTER 26

DAVID SPARES SAUL'S LIFE AGAIN

[1] And the Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, Does not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon? (This is the third time that David would be betrayed by his own countrymen — actually twice by the Ziphites. These individuals sought to curry favor with Saul by betraying David.)

[2] Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph. (In this Chapter, we see a portrayal of the unregenerate religious man, totally controlled by the Adamic or sin nature. We also witness the regenerate God-called man, even though still retaining the sin nature, nevertheless, not being controlled by it.)

[3] And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon, by the way. But David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness. (It would seem from the 24th Chapter, and according to the great display of love that David showed toward Saul, that this man would have ceased his relentless quest to kill "God's anointed." However, we see that "the natural man," totally controlled by the "sin nature," is the helpless but willing tool of evil. We also see that the "spiritual man" never accustoms himself to evil, even though at times failing. Saul illustrates the first example; David, the second.)

[4] David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come in very deed. (Saul knew that David was God's chosen king, and that he would certainly reign and, yet, he again and again sought to destroy him. Such is the power of evil! Satan is also the helpless but willing agent of sin; this fact respecting man's fallen nature proves the absolute necessity of a new moral creation.)

5 And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the Captain of his host: and Saul lay in the trench, and the people pitched round about him. (David illustrates the truth that the "spiritual nature" can never accustom itself to evil. Man's sinful, unregenerate, wicked nature accustoms itself to evil after a little time, even ceasing to be shocked by its manifestations.)

6 Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with you. (As Ahimelech is mentioned before Abishai, he must have held an honorable place with David, as did subsequently another Hittite, Uriah [II Sam. 11:3].)

7 So David and Abishai came to the people by night: and, behold, Saul lay sleeping within the trench, and his spear stuck in the ground at his bolster (pillow): but Abner and the people lay round about him.

8 Then said Abishai to David, God has delivered your enemy into your hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray you, with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time (in other words, Abishai would kill Saul with the first thrust)**.

9 And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against the LORD's anointed, and be guiltless? (David forbids the deed, not because of Saul's character, but because of Saul's office; consequently, he leaves him in Jehovah's Hand, even as he should have done.)

10 David said furthermore, As the LORD lives, the LORD shall smite him; or his day shall come to die; or he shall descend into battle, and perish. (Whenever religious man usurps Christ's position as "Head of the Church," he eagerly will kill God's anointed, thinking he is doing God a service. However, when the Spirit of Christ reigns, the Headship of Christ is never abrogated.)

11 The LORD forbid that I should stretch forth my hand against the LORD's anointed: but, I pray you, take you now the spear that is at his bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go. (It would seem so natural to the carnal mind, even though a follower of God's anointed, for one to take advantage of this opportunity; however, God's Ways are not man's ways. In retrospect, if David had killed Saul, it would have been a black stain on David's life that would have sullied the title, "A man after God's Own Heart." In David's actions regarding Saul, we see "God's Own Heart." God is ever seeking the sinner; He is ever showing Mercy; He is ever extending Grace. God's Hand ever calls, "Come unto Me." So, as we view David's actions regarding Saul, we are viewing the actions of Christ toward even the vilest of sinners who seek to destroy God's Work.)

12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster; and they got them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked: for they were all asleep; because a deep sleep from the LORD was fallen upon them. (The Lord would supernaturally protect David; however, had David taken matters into his own hands, as was suggested by his associate, quite possibly this protection by the Lord would not have been forthcoming. We can only expect God's best, if we go entirely God's Way.)

DAVID REPROACHES ABNER

13 Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of an hill afar off; a great space being between them (in this world, there is "a great space" between the "spiritual" and the "natural" natures, just as is described in this Verse; "these two 'natures'" are eternally separated; it is impossible to cultivate the one so that it will develop into the other; many have believed this to be possible; it is known as the doctrine of "moral evolution"; even though man has tried to bridge this gap with education, culture, religious activity, etc., still, there is a great gulf fixed between these two natures, which makes a transition from the one to the other impossible; hence, the necessity of being "created anew in Christ Jesus" [Eph. 2:10])**:

14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying,

Answer you not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who are you who cries to the king?

15 And David said to Abner, Are you not a valiant man? and who is like to you in Israel? wherefore then have you not kept your lord the king? for there came one of the people in to destroy the king your lord.

16 This thing is not good that you have done. As the LORD lives, you are worthy to die, because you have not kept your master, the LORD's anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his bolster.

DAVID PLEADS WITH SAUL

17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said, Is this your voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king.

18 And he said, Wherefore does my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in my hand?

19 Now therefore, I pray you, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If the LORD has stirred you up against me, let Him accept an Offering: but if they be the children of men, cursed be they before the LORD; for they have driven me out this day from abiding in the Inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, serve other gods. (In effect, Saul, and those with him, had told David to go serve heathen gods, for there was no room for him in Israel. As the situation then, modern religion follows suit. It will not serve God, and tries to hinder all who would serve the Lord.)

20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the Face of the LORD: for the king of Israel is come out to seek a flea, as when one does hunt a partridge in the mountains. (The point of David's appeal is not that his life may be spared, but that he may not thus be driven far away from the land where Jehovah manifests Himself. As well, David is telling Saul that instead of trying to cause David problems, he should be opposing those who are truly enemies of the Lord; however, like Saul, the institutionalized Church follows suit.)

SAUL ACKNOWLEDGES HIS SIN

[21] Then said Saul, I have sinned: return, my son David: for I will no more do you harm, because my soul was precious in your eyes this day: behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly. (While Saul's words are correct, and possibly sincere for the moment, still, self-will would shortly gain the upper hand, as it always did. For the modern Christian, "self" can only be handled at the Cross. Self-ability must be denied, with Faith placed totally in Christ and what Christ has done for us at the Cross. Only then can the Holy Spirit develop within us His Fruit [Gal. 5:22-23; Lk. 9:23-24].)

[22] And David answered and said, Behold the king's spear! and let one of the young men come over and fetch it.

[23] The LORD render to every man His Righteousness and His Faithfulness: for the LORD delivered you into my hand today, but I would not stretch forth my hand against the LORD's anointed. (This was the second time that such a situation had been brought about. Much of this was a test originated by the Lord, as it regards David. In fact, every single thing that happens to a Believer is a test. How will we act? How will we react?)

[24] And, behold, as your life was much set by this day in my eyes, so let my life be much set by in the Eyes of the LORD, and let Him deliver me out of all tribulation. (These words proclaim the fact that it is the Lord Who Alone can truly deliver. We must never forget that!)

[25] Then Saul said to David, Blessed be you, my son David: you shall both do great things, and also shall still prevail (should have been translated, "You shall both do mightily, and you shall surely prevail"). So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

CHAPTER 27

(1060 B.C.)

DAVID GOES TO GATH

[1] And David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul (David now resorts to fear instead of Faith; a short time before he had remonstrated that the Lord would deliver him; as the pressure intensifies, it becomes increasingly more difficult to keep one's eye on nothing but the Promises of God; fear crowds from every side, so he says, "I shall now perish"): there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in any coast (border) of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand (David seems to forget the sure Promises made to him — Promises that even Saul acknowledged [24:20]; there is no place for the Believer among the Philistines!).

[2] And David arose, and he passed over with the six hundred men who were with him unto Achish, the son of Maoch, king of Gath. (There is no half way house between fellowship with God and fellowship with the Philistine. If the Philistine is made a refuge, then must David dwell in the midst of them, and declare himself ready to fight with them against the people of God. In this position, no Believer delights to find himself. Faith never leads one on this path, only fear.)

[3] And David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, even David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's wife (David knows that Saul will not follow him here, knowing that such would provoke a war, for which he was not now prepared).

[4] And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: and he sought no more again for him.

DAVID AT ZIKLAG

5 And David said unto Achish, If I have now found grace in your eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may dwell there: for why should your servant dwell in the royal city with you?

6 Then Achish gave him Ziklag that day: wherefore Ziklag pertains unto the kings of Judah unto this day. (This phrase proves that the Book of Samuel must have been compiled at a date subsequent to the revolt of Jeroboam, while the concluding words, "unto this day," equally plainly indicate a date prior to the Babylonian exile.)

7 And the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was a full year and four months (16 months out of the Will of God).

DAVID DECEIVES ACHISH

8 And David and his men went up, and invaded the Geshurites, and the Gezrites, and the Amalekites: for those nations were of old the inhabitants of the land, as you go to Shur, even unto the land of Egypt.

9 And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, and the oxen, and the asses, and the camels, and the apparel, and returned, and came to Achish. (Here was a man who would not harm Saul when given the opportunity, yet would ruthlessly kill hundreds or even thousands of men and women among the heathen, and probably even the children. While it is true that God had given directions that these tribes [Geshurites, Gezrites, and Amalekites] were to be destroyed, He did not thus intend in this fashion. No doubt, David justified his actions, as we justify our actions in wrongdoing; still, this did not make it right.)

10 And Achish said, Where have you made a road today? And David said, Against the south of Judah, and against the south of the Jerahmeelites, and against the south of the Kenites.

11 And David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring tidings to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on us, saying, So did David, and so will be his manner all the while he dwells in the country of the Philistines (David wanted the Philistine king to think that he was invading villages in Judah, which, of course, he wasn't!).

12 And Achish believed David (believed David's lie), saying, He has made his people Israel utterly to abhor him; therefore he shall be my servant for ever (David's action in joining Achish, and then carrying out the deeds which he did, which were evil, no doubt delayed his possession of the kingdom).

CHAPTER 28

(1056 B.C.)

WAR

[1] And it came to pass in those days, that the Philistines gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Israel. And Achish said unto David, Know you assuredly, that you shall go out with me to battle, you and your men (it was probably the rapid decline of Saul's power which encouraged the Philistines to attempt once again to place their yoke upon the neck of Israel).

[2] And David said to Achish, Surely you shall know what your servant can do. And Achish said to David, Therefore will I make you keeper of my head for ever. (When a Christian seeks the protection and patronage of a man of the world, he must place himself and his spiritual gifts at the disposition of his protector. This is a sad and degrading bondage. This was David's unworthy and God-dishonoring relation with Achish. In such circumstances, Satan does not fail to provide earthly honors and, accordingly, Achish makes David Captain of his bodyguard.)

[3] Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city (immediately in this Verse, the Holy Spirit records, "Now Samuel was dead"; the spiritual tide of Israel had never been worse; David was God's only light, and now it dims low). And Saul had put away those who had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land (which he should have done!).

[4] And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and pitched in Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in Gilboa.

SAUL CONSULTS THE MEDIUM

5 And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart greatly trembled (Mercy and the Grace of God had been extended to Saul for some 40 years; he had spurned each Gospel Call).

6 And when Saul enquired of the LORD, the LORD answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by Prophets (it must be quickly added that Saul did not inquire of the Lord in humble Contrition and Repentance; to have truly repented, he would have to have made things right with David; that he did not do; we can only expect an answer from the Lord when we ask on God's terms; regrettably, most do not desire to do that).

7 Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman who has a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and enquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman who has a familiar spirit at En-dor. (Sadly, the majority of the world, through horoscopes, psychic readings, fortune-telling, and psychologists, endeavor to receive instruction, guidance, counsel, or leading. All of these, and many more that we have not named, have demon spirits as the underlying factors. Demon spirits are always the underlying agents in all false doctrine, error, or direction that leads one astray from the Word of God. The Bible forbids any trafficking with demon spirits, whether directly or indirectly.)

8 And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray you, divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up, whom I shall name unto you.

9 And the woman said unto him, Behold, you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off those who have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land: wherefore then lay you up a snare for my life, to cause me to die? (Evidently, she didn't know that she was speaking directly to Saul.)

10 And Saul swore to her by the LORD, saying, As the LORD lives, there shall no punishment happen to you for this thing. (Not only had Saul in the earlier part of his reign been earnest in his zeal for the Mosaic Law, but even now it seems as if a witch was in danger of death; for he has to take an oath before she will acknowledge that she practices any illicit art. All of this portrays the fact that the Law, no matter how zealously kept, cannot change a person's heart.)

11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto you? And he said, Bring me up Samuel.

12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spoke to Saul, saying, Why have you deceived me? for you are Saul (now she recognizes the king).

13 And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what saw you? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw gods ascending out of the Earth.

14 And he said unto her, What form is he of? And she said, An old man comes up; and he is covered with a mantle. And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground, and bowed himself. (The Scripture doesn't say that Saul actually saw Samuel, but that, from her description, he perceived that it was Samuel.)

SAUL IS GREATLY DISTRESSED

15 And Samuel said to Saul, Why have you disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answers me no more, neither by Prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called you, that you may make known unto me what I shall do.

16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then do you ask of me, seeing the LORD is departed from you, and is become your enemy?

17 And the LORD has done to him, as he spoke by me: for the LORD has rent the kingdom out of your hand, and given it to your neighbour, even to David:

18 Because you obeyed not the voice of the LORD, nor executed His fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore has the LORD done this thing unto you this day.

[19] Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with you into the hand of the Philistines: and tomorrow shall you and your sons be with me (shall be dead): the LORD also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines. (There is much controversy by Bible Scholars as to whether Samuel actually came up, or whether it was a demon spirit impersonating Samuel. Either could have been possible; however, this truth should be made known:

Saul received absolutely no help whatsoever from trying to communicate with the dead; likewise, all others seeking such will receive the same — nothing.)

THE REACTION OF SAUL

[20] Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.

[21] And the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, your handmaid has obeyed your voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have hearkened unto your words which you spoke unto me.

[22] Now therefore, I pray you, listen also unto the voice of your handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before you; and eat, that you may have strength, when you go on your way.

[23] But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, compelled him; and he hearkened unto their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed.

[24] And the woman had a fat calf in the house; and she hasted, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof:

25 And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they rose up, and went away that night. (Saul's namesake, Saul of Tarsus, also "fell to the earth" [Acts 9:4]. But how great was the contrast! The one rose and went away "that night," with a deeper night in his soul, to his doom; the other rose and went his way, with a great Light in his heart, to receive the Crown of Righteousness that was laid up for him — Williams.)

CHAPTER 29

(1056 B.C.)

THE PHILISTINES MISTRUST DAVID

1 Now the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek: and the Israelites pitched by a fountain which is in Jezreel. (This Chapter records the story of failure, both on the part of David and Saul. David will climb out, ever depending on the Lord, while Saul will not. The Holy Spirit will graphically record the happenings.)

2 And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands: but David and his men passed on in the rereward with Achish (as stated, David and his men were bodyguards for Achish, the Philistine leader).

3 Then said the princes of the Philistines, What do these Hebrews here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which has been with me these days, or these years, and I have found no fault in him since he fell unto me unto this day? (The term, "Hebrews," was a Philistine term of contempt.)

4 And the princes of the Philistines were wroth (angry) with him (with Achish); and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, Make this fellow return, that he may go again to his place which you have appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he be an adversary to us: for wherewith should he reconcile himself unto his master? should it not be with the heads of these men?

5 Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, Saul killed his thousands, and David his ten thousands? (Bible Scholars have long since argued what David's intentions were regarding the events of this Chapter. We can only form conclusions according to that which the Holy Spirit gives us. This was not a high point of David's life to date. Actually, it would be the lowest and most wretched to this moment. It would seem that he would profess himself ready and eager to fight against God's beloved People, and to help Satan destroy them! He told many lies to Achish, the king of the Philistines, but the lie of this Chapter was the crowning lie to date. He professed devotion to the Philistine monarch, while, no doubt, rejoicing secretly at escaping from so dreadful a position. All of this shows how deeply a Child of God can fall when he leans upon the hand of man, and not upon the Hand of God.)

ACHISH DISMISSES DAVID

6 Then Achish called David, and said unto him, Surely, as the LORD lives, you have been upright *(Achish using the name of Jehovah seems strange), and your going out and your coming in with me in the host is good in my sight: for I have not found evil in you since the day of your coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless the lords favour you not. (Concerning this, Williams says, "The path of faith is wearying to nature; and there is an ever-present temptation to seek ease from the thorns through which that path sometimes leads. The persecution by professors of religion has oftentimes the effect of throwing the servant of God into the arms of the enemies of God; just as Saul's hatred drove David to the Philistines. But this only happens when the Christian follows his own will, and thinks, by doing so, to avoid the very difficulties which, had he walked with God, would have become channels of teaching and refreshment to his soul. The more glorious a work there is for faith, the more sure is nature to weary if faith grows feeble.")

7 Wherefore now return, and go in peace, that you displease not the lords of the Philistines.

8 And David said unto Achish, But what have I done? and what have you found in your servant so long as I have been with you unto this day, that I may not go fight against the enemies of my lord the king? (It should always be remembered that failure, despite the Grace of God, always, and without exception, carries with it its own punishment — even more in the life of the one who has been grandly touched by the Holy Spirit. Too often Christendom reads only perfection into the life of God's champions; however, they do so by ignoring the Word of God. The individual is never called by God because he meets God's requirements. Actually, he never does. Always, he is woefully unprepared, immature, and lacking in proper faith. It is the Work of the Holy Spirit, among other things, to bring David, and others like him, to the place of maturity that God desires. It does not come easily. A great call always demands a great test.

Sooner or later, there will be failure; it is inevitable. It may not be known all the time to the general Christian public, but God knows. It is a part of the growing process. Regrettably, oftentimes one learns more from the failures than one does from the victories. The reason should be obvious. At times, faith shines brighter during failure than during victory, the reason being the pressure applied. Faith will either rise to the occasion, or else quit. True men of God may fail, but they do not quit.)

9 And Achish answered and said to David, I know that you are good in my sight, as an Angel of God: notwithstanding the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battle.

10 Wherefore now rise up early in the morning with your master's servants who are come with you: and as soon as you be up early in the morning, and have light, depart.

11 So David and his men rose up early to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel. (Despite David's failure of faith, and all failure is, in some way, a failure of faith, the Lord will keep David from sinning even greater. God uses failures to teach. Regrettably, fellow Christians oftentimes use failures to destroy.)

CHAPTER 30

(1056 B.C.)

ZIKLAG BURNED

[1] And it came to pass, when David and his men were come to Ziklag on the third day (the third day after they had left the Philistines), that the Amalekites had invaded the south, and Ziklag, and smitten Ziklag, and burned it with fire;

[2] And had taken the women captives, who were therein: they killed not any, either great or small, but carried them away, and went on their way. (This bitter trial brings David back to the Lord and effects a true Restoration of his soul. Suffering and loss accompany departure from the Lord and His Ways, and there must be chastisement in order for communion to be restored. While chastisement is grievous, still, it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness [Heb. 12:11].)

[3] So David and his men came to the city, and, behold, it was burned with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captives. (The Amalekites spared their lives, not because they were merciful, but because women and children were valuable as slaves. They probably intended to send the best to Egypt for sale.)

[4] Then David and the people who were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep (they knew what was in store for their loved ones)**.

[5] And David's two wives were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

DAVID'S GREAT DISTRESS

6 And David was greatly distressed (this, no doubt, was the low-watermark in David's life, as he stood looking at the ashes of Ziklag, knowing that his family, as well as the families of all of his men, had been taken captive; many people have to be brought to a "burnt Ziklag" before finally making things right with the Lord; even though it would look grievous, still, all of this was allowed by the Lord because He loved David); for the people spoke of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters (Williams says, "The first resource of nature was seen in David's men — they murmured and grew angry. The first resource of Faith appeared in David — he cast his burden upon the Lord"): but David encouraged himself in the LORD his God (the Hebrew says literally, "He strengthened himself in Jehovah"; he turned to the Lord, because the Lord was the only One Who could help; it is the same presently; however, the modern Church seems to turn to everything except the Lord).

THE ANSWER FROM THE LORD

7 And David said to Abiathar the Priest, Ahimelech's son, I pray you, bring me hither the Ephod. And Abiathar brought thither the Ephod to David. (The Ephod contained the Urim and the Thummim, which was designed by the Holy Spirit that direction might be received from the Lord. In the Twenty-seventh Chapter, when David went over to the Philistines, there is no record that he "enquired of the Lord." But now victory has been restored. David is once again seeking counsel from the One Who can really help him.)

8 And David enquired at the LORD, saying, Shall I pursue after this troop? shall I overtake them? And He answered him, Pursue: for you shall surely overtake them, and without fail recover all. (When it says that the Lord answered David, that is one of the most beautiful statements that could ever be made. Spiritual victory must be ours before material, financial, or physical victory can come. David now proceeds with the assurance that the Lord is with him and, that being the case, he will "recover all." It is the Will of the Lord that you recover all that Satan has stolen from you.)

DAVID PURSUES

9 So David went, he and the six hundred men who were with him, and came to the brook Besor, where those who were left behind stayed (David pursued hurriedly; just because the Lord has promised success, doesn't mean that we aren't to do our part).

10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men: for two hundred abode behind, which were so faint that they could not go over the brook Besor.

11 And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he did eat; and they made him drink water;

12 And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, his spirit came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and three nights.

13 And David said unto him, To whom do you belong? and from where did you come? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me, because three days agone I fell sick.

14 We made an invasion upon the south of the Cherethites, and upon the coast which belongs to Judah, and upon the south of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire.

15 And David said to him, Can you bring me down to this company? And he said, Swear unto me by God, that you will neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring you down to this company.

16 And when he (the Egyptian) had brought him (David) down, behold, they were spread abroad upon all the earth, eating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah.

VICTORY

17 And David smote them from the twilight even unto the evening of the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon camels, and fled.

18 And David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away: and David rescued his two wives.

19 And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: David recovered all (exactly as the Lord had said he would do).

20 And David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drove before those other cattle, and said, This is David's spoil. (They recovered all they had personally lost and, as well, they gained much more besides, probably five or ten times what they had lost. So, when the Lord helps us to recover what has been lost, He always gives us much more besides.)

DIVISION OF THE SPOILS

21 And David came to the two hundred men, which were so faint that they could not follow David, whom they had made also to abide at the brook Besor: and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people who were with him: and when David came near to the people, he saluted them (in victory!).

22 Then answered all the wicked men and men of Belial (worthless individuals), of those who went with David, and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them ought of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead them away, and depart.

23 Then said David, You shall not do so, my brethren, with that which the LORD has given us, Who has preserved us, and delivered the company that came against us into our hand.

24 For who will hearken unto you in this matter? but as his part is who goes down to the battle, so shall his part be who tarries by the stuff: they shall part alike. (Paul, in Romans, Chapter 10, basically says the same thing, "The sender is just as important as the one sent.")

[25] And it was so from that day forward, that he made it a Statute and an Ordinance for Israel unto this day.

[26] And when David came to Ziklag, he sent of the spoil unto the Elders of Judah, even to his friends, saying, Behold a present for you of the spoil of the enemies of the LORD (there is no blessing that comes from man's choice, which had been Saul; there is great blessing that comes from God's choice, which is David; the leadership of Israel demanded that no help be given unto David, so those who helped David during these years of crisis did so at their own risk; now, there would begin a blessing to these individuals that would never stop)**;

[27] To them which were in Beth-el, and to them which were in south Ramoth, and to them which were in Jattir,

[28] And to them which were in Aroer, and to them which were in Siphmoth, and to them which were in Eshtemoa,

[29] And to them which were in Rachal, and to them which were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to them which were in the cities of the Kenites,

[30] And to them which were in Hormah, and to them which were in Chor-ashan, and to them which were in Athach, [31] And to them which were in Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men were wont to haunt.

CHAPTER 31

(1056 B.C.)

THE DEATH OF SAUL AND HIS SONS

1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain in Mount Gilboa. (If Saul had yielded totally to the Lord, the Philistines would have long since been defeated, and this battle would have never taken place.)

2 And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul and upon his sons; and the Philistines killed Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Melchi-shua, Saul's sons. (How much we lose when we go the wrong way! How many Philistines are left fighting us when, if our consecration had been complete, they would long since have ceased to be?)

3 And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers hit him; and he was sore wounded of the archers. (There was no other way it could go. Samuel was dead and David had been spurned by Saul, who had attempted many times to kill him. As well, Saul had now resorted to demon spirits.)

4 Then said Saul unto his armourbearer, Draw your sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword, and fell upon it. (The horror of total despair records every moment of this scene. How different it could have been! There was a time that the Spirit of God came upon Saul, but now the Philistines come upon him instead. Israel's first king commits suicide.)

5 And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise upon his sword, and died with him.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armourbearer, and all his men, that same day together. (Williams says, "Self-will wrecked Saul's life [I Chron. 10:13-14]. Only a Spirit-born man can serve and please God. Saul was raised up, as a king after the people's heart, to deliver them from the Philistines; and if it were possible for 'the natural man' to do God's Will, then Saul would have succeeded; but he perished at the hands of the very enemies whom he set out to conquer! Such must ever be the result when 'the flesh' attempts to do battle for God.")

7 And when the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley, and they who were on the other side Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them. (As stated, the flesh can win no victories. The Spirit of the Lord Alone can do such! The way to "walk after the Spirit," and the only way, is for the Believer to place his Faith exclusively in Christ and the Cross, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work [Rom. 8:1-2, 11]. To "walk after the flesh" is simply to trust in anything except Christ and the Cross; such will always bring about defeat [Rom. 8:8].)

8 And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen in Mount Gilboa. (As the spoiling was deferred to the next day, the struggle must have been obstinately contested, and decided only just before nightfall. But no matter how intense the struggle, the flesh simply cannot win. It is impossible!)

9 And they cut off his head (this was probably done not simply in retaliation for what had happened to their champion, Goliath, but in accordance with the customs of ancient warfare), and stripped off his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to publish it in the house of their idols, and among the people. (The fierce joy of the Philistines over the fallen Saul proves how great had been their fear of him, and how successful he had been in breaking their yoke off Israel's neck, at least up to a point. They gave the credit to their god, Dagon [I Chron. 10:10].)

10 And they put his armour in the house of Ashtaroth: and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth-shan (as also the bodies of his sons).

11 And when the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead heard of that which the Philistines had done to Saul;

12 All the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan, and came to Jabesh, and burnt them there.

13 And they took their bones, and buried them under a tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days. (Cremation, though highly practiced among certain nations, is mentioned here for the first time in Holy Scripture, and was probably resorted to on this occasion, rather than burying them, to ensure the bodies of Saul and his sons against further maltreatment.)

CHAPTER 1

DAVID LEARNS OF SAUL'S DEATH

[1] Now it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had abode two days in Ziklag (using the phrase, "when David was returned," the Holy Spirit has far more in mind than the return to Ziklag; David had, as well, returned from some 16 months of disobedience to God; what a glorious moment when the Child of God realizes his fault and his failure, and then "returns to total dependence on God")**;

[2] It came even to pass on the third day, that, behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head: and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeisance.

[3] And David said unto him, From where do you come? And he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped.

[4] And David said unto him, How went the matter? I pray you, tell me. And he answered, That the people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also.

[5] And David said unto the young man who told him, How do you know that Saul and Jonathan his son are dead?

[6] And the young man who told him said, As I happened by chance upon Mount Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned upon his spear; and, lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him.

[7] And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called unto me. And I answered him, Here am I.

8 And he said unto me, Who are you? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite.

9 He said unto me again, Stand, I pray you, upon me, and kill me: for anguish is come upon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

10 So I stood upon him, and killed him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord. (The story of the Amalekite is a most improbable fiction, and utterly untrue. He knew nothing as to the manner of Saul's death, but found the body, probably sometime after the king had fallen. He then took these particular items from the corpse.)

11 Then David took hold on his clothes, and rent them; and likewise all the men who were with him:

12 And they mourned, and wept, and fasted until evening, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the House of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword.

13 And David said unto the young man who told him, Who are you? And he answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite.

14 And David said unto him, How was it that you were not afraid to stretch forth your hand to destroy the LORD's anointed?

15 And David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him. And he smote him that he died.

16 And David said unto him, Your blood be upon your head; for your mouth has testified against you, saying, I have killed the LORD's anointed. ("Amalek" is a type of the flesh. We will either kill it, or it will kill us. As well, it must ever be remembered that we cannot kill the "Amalekite" in our own strength. Flesh cannot overcome flesh. The Holy Spirit through us must slay "Amalek," which He does upon our Faith being placed consistently in Christ and the Cross [Rom. 8:1-2, 11].)

THE LAMENTATION OF DAVID

17 And David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son *(this is really a martial ode, and one of the first and finest odes in the Old Testament; David's own sufferings are forgotten while his fervent love and deep grief for his king and his best friend, Jonathan, are expressed; there is no bitter or revengeful word or exultation over the death of his greatest enemy, Saul):

18 (Also he bade them teach the Children of Judah the use of the bow: behold, it is written in the book of Jasher *[the title of the ode in Hebrew is "Kesheth, the bow." The Book of Jasher would be equivalent to "Hero-book." The Hebrews always looked to the moral rather than the physical prowess of their great men].)

19 The beauty of Israel is slain upon your high places: how are the mighty fallen! (Only a Divine love could cause David to speak thusly about the man who had made many attempts to kill him.)

20 Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Askelon; lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph (in the course of time, "Tell it not in Gath" became a proverb [Mic. 1:10]).

21 You mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew, neither let there be rain, upon you, nor fields of offerings: for there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, the shield of Saul, as though he had not been anointed with oil (it should have been translated, "For there the shield of heroes, yea, the shield of Saul, was defiled," stained, that is, with blood).

22 From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan turned not back, and the sword of Saul returned not empty.

23 Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided: they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions. (Jonathan had ever been his father's faithful friend and companion; moreover, his affection for David never made him untrue to the ties of natural affection. And David generously commends his friend for thus acting.)

[24] You daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet, with other delights, who put on ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

[25] How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! O Jonathan, you were slain in your high places.

[26] I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan: very pleasant have you been unto me: your love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women (never was there a purer friendship than that of Jonathan for David).

[27] How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished! (Saul won many great victories for Israel, but never conquered the demons within himself; consequently, he was ultimately killed by that from without, because he never conquered that from within. It is a lesson we should studiously learn.)

CHAPTER 2

DAVID BECOMES KING OF JUDAH

1 And it came to pass after this, that David enquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And the LORD said unto him, Go up. And David said, Where shall I go up? And He said, Unto Hebron. (There is a marked spiritual turn in David's life from Ziklag on. The Ziklags are terrible to the flesh and invigorating to the spirit. David is now seeking the Lord and receiving directions from the Lord.)

2 So David went up thither, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail Nabal's wife the Carmelite.

3 And his men who were with him did David bring up, every man with his household: and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

4 And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the House of Judah. And they told David, saying, That the men of Jabesh-gilead were they who buried Saul. (So begins the Golden Age of Israel, and yet for seven and a half years only a small part of the Church of that day will accept God's anointed.)

5 And David sent messengers unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, and said unto them, Blessed are you of the LORD, that you have showed this kindness unto your lord, even unto Saul, and have buried him.

6 And now the LORD show kindness and truth unto you: and I also will requite you this kindness, because you have done this thing.

7 Therefore now let your hands be strengthened, and be you valiant: for your master Saul is dead, and also the House of Judah have anointed me king over them. (As we shall see, active opposition to Christ and His Kingdom quickly follows upon the establishment of a rival kingdom in the heart. Abner, having set up his own king, very quickly took the further step of attacking God's King and Kingdom.)

ABNER

8 But Abner the son of Ner, Captain of Saul's host, took Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim;

9 And made him king over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel. (More than likely, David's consorting for the past 16 months with the Philistines now causes him great problems. Many in Israel distrust him, giving Abner room to do what he did; irrespective, it was not God's Will for someone else to be king of Israel.)

10 Ish-bosheth Saul's son was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and reigned two years. But the House of Judah followed David.

11 And the time that David was king in Hebron over the House of Judah was seven years and six months.

CIVIL STRIFE

12 And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon. (David had taken no steps to obtain for himself the kingdom "over all Israel." Therefore, this opened the door for Abner to win Judah as well.)

13 And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out, and met together by the pool of Gibeon: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool. (All of this pictures "the house of Saul" and "the House of David." They stand in opposition one to the other. The one pictures the life as governed by self; the other, the life as governed by God. The latter life alone secures Victory.)

14 And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men now arise, and play before us. And Joab said, Let them arise (the statement is grim enough, though intended to gloss over the cruel reality).

15 Then there arose and went over by number twelve of Benjamin, which pertained to Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David. (On each side twelve of the most skillful champions were to be selected, who were to fight in stern earnest with one another, while the rest gazed upon the fierce spectacle. It is by no means certain that Abner meant that this single combat should decide the war, but the conclusion was to give indication.)

16 And they (the men of Joab) caught every one his fellow by the head (the men of Abner), and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: wherefore that place was called Helkath-hazzurim, which is in Gibeon.

17 And there was a very sore battle that day; and Abner was beaten, and the men of Israel, before the servants of David. (The battle followed the contest, with only 19 of David's warriors falling, while Abner lost 360, and was forced to flee.)

ABNER KILLS ASAHEL

18 And there were three sons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel: and Asahel was as light of foot as a wild roe (deer).

19 And Asahel pursued after Abner; and in going he turned not to the right hand nor to the left from following Abner (the sharp swords which mutually destroyed the young men should have been used against the Philistines, not against one another; the destructive energy which rival groups within the Church employ against each other would accomplish great things if used otherwise).

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said, Are you Asahel? And he answered, I am.

21 And Abner said to him, Turn you aside to your right hand or to your left, and lay you hold on one of the young men, and take you his armour. But Asahel would not turn aside from following of him.

22 And Abner said again to Asahel, Turn you aside from following me: wherefore should I smite you to the ground? how then should I hold up my face to Joab your brother?

23 Howbeit he refused to turn aside: wherefore Abner with the hinder end of the spear smote him under the fifth rib, that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place: and it came to pass, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died stood still (so violent was the blow, that Asahel dropped down dead without a struggle).

24 Joab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lies before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon (the sight of their slaughtered brother made them only the more determined in the pursuit).

FURTHER STRIFE AVERTED

25 And the Children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of an hill.

26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the sword devour forever? know you not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long shall it be then, before you bid the people return from following their brethren?

27 And Joab said, As God lives, unless you had spoken, surely then in the morning the people had gone up every one from following his brother (Joab throws the whole blame, and rightly so, on Abner).

28 So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more (Joab was not a man of a tender heart, but he was wise and sensible, and fully aware that the slaughter of Abner and his men, even if he could have destroyed them all, would only have rankled in the minds of all Israel, and set them against David and his rule).

29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plain, and passed over Jordan, and went through all Bithron, and they came to Mahanaim.

30 And Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel.

31 But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, so that three hundred and threescore (360) men died.

32 And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-lehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at break of day. (This last Verse of this Chapter closes with the words, "And they came to Hebron at break of day." The sun was now beginning to rise for Israel. The long night of spiritual declension was over. There would be other hardships and difficulties; however, the sun was not setting; it was rising.)

CHAPTER 3

DAVID'S FAMILY IN HEBRON

[1] Now there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: but David waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker. (Williams says, "The house of Saul was opposed to, and persecuted, the House of David. Fellowship was impossible. As then, he who was born after the flesh persecuted him who was born after the Spirit, so is it now [Gal. 4:29]. A carnal nature is the enemy of the spiritual; but victory is assured to the latter," that is, if the Believer follows God's Prescribed Order.)

[2] And unto David were sons born in Hebron: and his firstborn was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess;

[3] And his second, Chileab, of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur;

[4] And the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital;

[5] And the sixth, Ithream, by Eglah David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron. (Without once inquiring of the Lord for direction in any of these matters, David follows a crooked, tortuous path, in effect, the dark ways of man. Neglecting the teaching of the Book of Genesis, he became a polygamist — marriages which bore bitter fruit in Amnon, Absalom, and Adonijah. Other mistakes, as we shall see, were made as well.

Had David fully consulted the Lord in all these matters, his "house" would have grown stronger much faster.)

ABNER DESERTS TO DAVID

6 And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made himself strong for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and Ish-bosheth said to Abner, Wherefore have you gone in unto my father's concubine? (The harem of a deceased king was looked upon as the special inheritance of his successor. So, in a sense, Abner had greatly overstepped his bounds.)

8 Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ish-bosheth (this extreme indignation on Abner's part is not easy to understand; for he could scarcely have expected Ish-bosheth to endure quietly what at least was a great insult), and said, Am I a dog's head, which against Judah do show kindness this day unto the house of Saul your father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered you into the hand of David, that you charge me today with a fault concerning this woman?

9 So do God to Abner, and more also, except, as the LORD has sworn to David, even so I do to him;

10 To translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Beer-sheba.

11 And he (Ish-bosheth) could not answer Abner a word again, because he feared him.

12 And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? saying also, Make your league with me, and, behold, my hand shall be with you, to bring about all Israel unto you.

13 And he said, Well; I will make a league with you: but one thing I require of you, that is, You shall not see my face, except you first bring Michal Saul's daughter, when you come to see my face. (There is no record that David sought the Lord about this matter. How long does it take us to learn that no "league" can ever be made between the flesh and the Spirit? One is carnal and of the world and, thereby, of Satan. The other is spiritual and of Heaven and, thereby, of God.)

14 And David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth Saul's son, saying, Deliver me my wife Michal, which I espoused to me for an hundred foreskins of the Philistines (David did not pray about this matter either!).

15 And Ish-bosheth sent, and took her from her husband even from Phaltiel the son of Laish. (Besides David's affection for Michal, there were political reasons for demanding her restoration. Saul's despotic act in giving her in marriage to another man, when she had already been engaged to David [I Sam. 25:44], had been a public disavowal of David as the son-in-law of the royal house. In effect, David's rights were all declared null by such an act. Now, Ish-bosheth must with equal publicity reverse his father's deed, and restore to David his lost position. As well, for David to demand such, and Ish-bosheth not being able to do anything about the situation, portrayed his great weakness.)

16 And her husband went with her along weeping behind her to Bahurim. Then said Abner unto him, Go, return. And he returned. (Phaltiel had been Michal's husband for eight or nine years, and, as well, he had no part, as far as we know, as it regards the situation between David and Saul; thereby, his sorrow at losing her excites sympathy for them both.

Should David have done what he did? Inasmuch as his reasons were political, which we have already addressed, I think, had he spoken to the Lord about the matter, the Lord would not have allowed such to happen.)

17 And Abner had communication with the Elders of Israel, saying, You sought for David in times past to be king over you:

18 Now then do it: for the LORD has spoken of David, saying, By the hand of My servant David I will save My people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies. (If Abner knew all of this, and he definitely did, why did he wait this long? Regrettably, most Believers will not do right, until it is in their best interest to do so. In other words, if it costs them something, they will not step up to the plate, so to speak!)

19 And Abner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and that seemed good to the whole House of Benjamin.

20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David made Abner and the men who were with him a feast.

21 And Abner said unto David, I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel unto my lord the king, that they may make a league with you, and that you may reign over all that your heart desires. And David sent Abner away; and he went in peace. (There is no record that David sought the Lord concerning this, as well! The Christian is in danger in the time of war and in the time of peace; however, he is probably in greater danger in the time of peace. During war, he has a greater tendency to seek the help of the Lord, because he knows that it is the Lord Alone Who can deliver. In peace, the temptation is to coast.)

JOAB KILLS ABNER

22 And, behold, the servants of David and Joab came from pursuing a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them: but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace.

23 When Joab and all the host who were with him were come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he has sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24 Then Joab came to the king, and said, What have you done? behold, Abner came unto you; why is it that you have sent him away, and he is quite gone?

25 You know Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive you, and to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you do.

26 And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him again from the well of Sirah: but David knew it not.

27 And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him quietly, and smote him there under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

28 And afterward when David heard it, he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before the LORD for ever from the blood of Abner the son of Ner:

29 Let it rest on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not fail from the house of Joab one who has an issue, or who is a leper, or who leans on a staff, or who falls on the sword, or who lacks bread.

30 So Joab, and Abishai his brother killed Abner, because he had killed their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle (what Joab did was wrong and probably delayed the Plan of God in some way for several years).

DAVID MOURNS FOR ABNER

31 And David said to Joab, and to all the people who were with him, Rend your clothes, and gird you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David himself followed the bier.

32 And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept.

33 And the king lamented over Abner, and said, Died Abner as a fool dies?

34 Your hands were not bound, nor your feet put into fetters: as a man falls before wicked men, so fell you. And all the people wept again over him.

35 And when all the people came to cause David to eat meat while it was yet day, David swore, saying, So do God to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or ought else, till the sun be down.

36 And all the people took notice of it, and it pleased them: as whatsoever the king did pleased all the people.

37 For all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to kill Abner the son of Ner.

38 And the king said unto his servants, Know you not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

39 And I am this day weak, though anointed king; and these men the sons of Zeruiah be too hard for me: the LORD shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness. (Abner was related to Ish-bosheth as Joab was to David. Joab was clever, ambitious, bloodthirsty, and heartless. He was an ungodly man who deemed it politically correct to effect a zeal for God [24:3]. In fact, Abner was morally superior to Joab; but yet Abner was a traitor to his master and a rebel to his God. He had no real heart for David as God's king, but was moved to help him by wounded pride. He reaped as he sowed; however, and as stated, his reaping did not absolve Joab of blame.)

CHAPTER 4

ISH-BOSHETH MURDERED

1 And when Saul's son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands were feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled. (Ish-bosheth knew that the Lord had called David to be the king of Israel; however, as with so many, he wasn't that interested in the Will of God, but rather his own self-will. It would cost him dearly!)

2 And Saul's son had two men who were Captains of bands: the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon a Beerothite, of the Children of Benjamin: (for Beeroth also was reckoned to Benjamin.

3 And the Beerothites fled to Gittaim, and were sojourners there until this day.)

4 And Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son that was lame of his feet. He was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel, and his nurse took him up, and fled: and it came to pass, as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame. And his name was Mephibosheth. (This is mentioned to show that Saul's lineage virtually became extinct on Ish-bosheth's death. Mephibosheth, the heir, was a cripple, and physically incapable of reigning, for that was the custom of those days.)

5 And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth, who lay on a bed at noon.

6 And they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat; and they smote him under the fifth rib: and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

7 For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bedchamber, and they smote him, and killed him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and got them away through the plain all night.

8 And they brought the head of Ish-bosheth unto David to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul your enemy, which sought your life; and the LORD has avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his seed. (While Saul had sought David's life, there is no record that Ish-bosheth was a party to such attempts. Still, had he been victorious, David, as his rival, would certainly have been put to death.)

DAVID EXECUTES THE MURDERERS

9 And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said unto them, As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all adversity,

10 When one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, thinking to have brought good tidings, I took hold of him, and killed him in Ziklag, who thought that I would have given him a reward for his tidings:

11 How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed? shall I not therefore now require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the Earth?

12 And David commanded his young men, and they killed them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it in the sepulchre of Abner in Hebron. (The cutting off of their hands and feet was not intended for the purpose of mutilation, but to carry out an eastern idea of retaliation. The hands were cut off because they had committed the murder; the feet, because they had brought the head to Hebron. Still, David was violating the spirit of the Mosaic Law. It ordered that the body of a man who had been put to death should be buried the same day [Deut. 21:23].

However, the previous Chapter tells us that David took no action whatsoever regarding the murder of Abner by Joab. Why?

God's men do not always do everything right, but we can be assured that God's men always pay the penalty for doing wrong. Joab would be a thorn, so to speak, in David's side for the entirety of his reign.)

CHAPTER 5

(1048 B.C.)

DAVID MADE KING OVER ALL ISRAEL

[1] Then came all the Tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and spoke, saying, Behold, we are your bone and your flesh. (Finally, after so much bloodshed, the Will of God begins to be carried out in Israel. It was easy to get Saul, man's choice, on the throne; however, it was difficult to get David, God's choice, on the throne.)

[2] Also in time past, when Saul was king over us, you were he who led out and brought in Israel: and the LORD said to you, You shall feed My people Israel, and you shall be a Captain over Israel (the Elders of Israel knew this all the time, and yet waited seven and a half years to carry out the Will of God).

[3] So all the Elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and king David made a league with them in Hebron before the LORD: and they anointed David king over Israel. (Actually, this was the third anointing; first, by Samuel, when David was but a boy; second, when he was anointed to be king over Judah; and now, over the entirety of Israel. Why did it take Israel so long to do this?

Believers, regrettably, are not prone to do right, until it's in their best interest to do so. So, the Elders of Israel will now anoint David to be king over all of Israel, because they think it's in their best interest.)

[4] David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years. (David was a Type of Christ; therefore, Christ began His public ministry when He was 30 years old. He reigned over the powers of darkness, albeit not over Israel. One day soon He will reign, not only over the powers of darkness, but over Israel as well and, in fact, over the entirety of the world.)

5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.

DAVID CAPTURES JERUSALEM

6 And the king and his men went to Jerusalem unto the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land (though the Jebusites had been conquered by Joshua [Josh. 11:3], and Jerusalem captured [Judg. 1:8], yet, as the Children of Judah did not occupy it, but "set the city on fire," it seems to have been soon repopulated by its old inhabitants; through the entirety of his forty-year reign, Saul never captured it either; so we had the enemy situated right in the middle of the Promised Land; the taking of this city was the first thing that David did; if we do not destroy the enemy within, we will be ultimately defeated by the enemy without, as was Saul!): which spoke unto David, saying, Except you take away the blind and the lame, you shall not come in hither: thinking, David cannot come in hither (to paraphrase, the Jebusites taunted David by saying, "We are so strong, and you are so weak, our blind and lame can keep you out of the city"; to be sure, Satan will taunt the Believer, telling him that there is no way that he can be victorious)**.

7 Nevertheless David took the strong hold of Zion: the same is the city of David. (It seems that the Seventy-sixth Psalm may have been written to glorify God and to commemorate this great victory. The Lord intends for that which has been the stronghold of Satan in our lives to become the "stronghold of Zion." This can be, but only if our Faith is exclusively in Christ and the Cross, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work within our lives [Rom. 8:1-2, 11, 13].)

8 And David said on that day, Whosoever gets up to the gutter, and smites the Jebusites, and the lame and the blind, that are hated of David's soul, he shall be chief and Captain (in essence, David is saying, in the spiritual sense, that he "hated" anything that would cause Israel to be spiritually "lame" or "blind"). Wherefore they said, The blind and the lame shall not come into the house. (This is not meant to be a sarcastic statement regarding the handicapped, but rather it is said in the spiritual sense. No Believer needs to be spiritually blind or lame. But regrettably, due to not understanding the Cross, most presently are!)

9 So David dwelt in the fort, and called it the city of David. And David built roundabout from Millo and inward. (The "gutter" mentioned in Verse 8 had to do with an underground water tunnel, through which Joab's men found their way into the city, which was otherwise impregnable. This is a Type of the "water of life" afforded only by Christ, and what He did at the Cross, which then affords the help of the Holy Spirit [Rom. 8:1-2, 11; Jn. 7:37-39].)

10 And David went on, and grew great, and the LORD God of hosts was with him. (Had he not dislodged this cancer right in the midst of Israel, he would not have "gone on and grown great." If you as a Believer allow strongholds of Satan to remain in your life, they will destroy you. They must be removed, and they can be removed, by Faith in Christ and the Cross.)

HIRAM BUILDS DAVID A HOUSE

11 And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons: and they built David an house. (When David, the Type of Christ, became king, Hiram, the Gentile, brought gifts to David; likewise, the Gentile world will bring gifts to Christ when He begins to rule in the Kingdom Age.)

12 And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that He had exalted his kingdom for His People Israel's sake. (It was the Will of the Lord for David to be the first king of Israel, and not Saul; however, the people jumped the gun, so to speak, demanding a king before it was time, and Saul was the result. It didn't turn out well. Now, with Israel in the center of God's Will, the Nation will prosper greatly.)

DAVID'S FAMILY AT JERUSALEM

13 And David took him more concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron: and there were yet sons and daughters born to David.

14 And these be the names of those who were born unto him in Jerusalem; Shammuah, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon,

15 Ibhar also, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Japhia,

16 And Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphalet. (Verses 13-16 refer to David's polygamy, which was not the Will of God; however, Grace in the midst of failure will shine. In the Fourteenth Verse, the two names "Nathan" and "Solomon" are given unto us. The Davidic line all the way to Christ will follow through Solomon. As well, the kingly line through Mary will come through Nathan.)

DAVID DEFEATS THE PHILISTINES

17 But when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel (Satan has little concern until he hears of the "anointing"; nothing will break his yoke except the "anointing"), all the Philistines came up to seek David; and David heard of it, and went down to the hold. (The moment the person makes Jesus King in his life, the Philistines will appear. Many are discouraged and surprised on meeting strong opposition directly upon the establishment of Christ's Kingdom in their hearts; but it must ever be so till He comes in glory.)

18 The Philistines also came and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim ("Rephaim" means "giants"; so Satan throws his biggest and his best at us).

19 And David enquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up to the Philistines? will You deliver them into my hand? And the LORD said unto David, Go up: for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into your hand (as Believers, we must seek the counsel of the Lord in everything; having that, we cannot lose; and, to be sure, if we ask, He will hear and answer [Lk. 11:5-13]).

[20] And David came to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there, and said, The LORD has broken forth upon my enemies before me, as the breach of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place Baal-perazim ("Baal-perazim" means "the plain of breaches"; David made a breach in the lines of the Philistines).

[21] And there they left their images, and David and his men burned them (should have been translated, "took them away"; they took them as trophies, showing that these "gods" were helpless!).

[22] And the Philistines came up yet again, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim (Satan will always be back; the battle is unceasing, this "fighting the good fight of Faith" [I Tim. 6:12]).

[23] And when David enquired of the LORD, He said, You shall not go up (previously, the Lord had said, "Go up"; now, He says, "You shall not go up"; we must never take the Will of God for granted; what may have been His Will previously, may not be His Will presently!); but fetch a compass behind them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees (the Philistines, no doubt, would have been expecting the army of Israel to come the same way as they did before).

[24] And let it be, when you hear the sound of a going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then you shall bestir yourself: for then shall the LORD go out before you, to smite the host of the Philistines. (The sound of a "going" meant the sound of a mighty army on the march, which struck terror to the Philistines, and caused them to be confused and panic-stricken. It is said that the sound was the noise of horses' hoofs. The Philistines would have reasoned that some other mighty army was appearing suddenly behind them to help David. This was God's Way of bringing the victory. How easy are His Ways; how difficult are our ways!)

[25] And David did so, as the LORD had commanded him; and smote the Philistines from Geba until you come to Gazer.

CHAPTER 6

(1042 B.C.)

DAVID BRINGS THE ARK TO JERUSALEM

[1] Again, David gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. (I Chronicles 13:1 says, "David consulted with every leader." Before fighting the Philistines, David "enquired of the LORD." Before performing the Work of God, David will not enquire of the Lord, but rather men. Why? His not doing so would cause tremendous problems.)

[2] And David arose, and went with all the people who were with him from Baale of Judah, to bring up from thence the Ark of God, whose name is called by the Name of the LORD of hosts Who dwells between the Cherubims. (For approximately 70 years, the Ark of God had been without a home. Actually, it had been at the "house of Abinadab." There is some indication, according to the Psalms that it was little attended to, possibly even sitting out in a field [Ps. 132:6]. Regrettably, the modern Church treats the Presence of God, of which the Ark was a Type, in pretty much the same fashion. To be frank, in most Churches, His Presence simply isn't wanted or desired.)

[3] And they set the Ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in Gibeah (the Law of Moses said that the Priests must carry the Ark upon their shoulders; the Priests were Types of Christ; but Israel borrowed the way of the Philistines, and set the Ark, contrary to the Word of God, on a "new cart"; unfortunately, "new carts" abound presently!): and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart (how many spiritual leaders, so-called, presently are driving the "new carts," thinking all the time they are doing great things for God?).

[4] And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab which was at Gibeah, accompanying the Ark of God: and Ahio went before the Ark (that which seemed to begin so greatly would end so poorly).

5 And David and all the House of Israel played before the LORD on all manner of instruments made of fir wood, even on harps, and on psalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals. ("New carts" are always accompanied by great religious activity; however, all of this is a work of the flesh.

Had David enquired of the LORD and consulted the Bible [Num. 4:15], success and not disaster would have resulted. But he consulted man [I Chron., Chpt. 13], imitated the Philistine, and organized a great public function in which David and his plans largely obscured God and His Glory; consequently, the day ended in anger and fear. All of this was the planning of the "flesh.")

UZZAH DIES

6 And when they came to Nachon's threshingfloor, Uzzah put forth his hand to the Ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen shook it. (What man has set up, he feels himself bound to sustain. But the God of Israel needed not, as the gods of the nations, a human hand to uphold Him. It must be learned that God will judge the "flesh" even more in an Israelite than in a Philistine. The Living God is a Consuming Fire to the actions of the carnal nature, whether inside or outside the Family of God.)

7 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and God smote him there for his error; and there he died by the Ark of God (of all people, Uzzah, who was supposed to have attended the Ark of God for all of his adult life, should have known better than to touch the Sacred Vessel).

8 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place Perez-uzzah to this day (displeased or not, God would not change His Word, even for one who was "after His Own Heart").

9 And David was afraid of the LORD that day, and said, How shall the Ark of the LORD come to me? (Had David consulted the Bible, he would have known how the Ark of the Lord should come to him!)

10 So David would not remove the Ark of the LORD unto him into the city of David: but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. (What had been a curse to Uzzah now would be a Blessing to Obed-edom. We say, "We need revival!" However, if true revival actually comes, it will bring both death and life. So, most Christians are very much willing to just leave the Ark in the "field of the wood.")

11 And the Ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months: and the LORD blessed Obed-edom, and all his household. (Evidently, Obed-edom consulted the Word of God, and attended to the Ark in the correct manner. Such brought tremendous Blessing.)

THE ARK IS BROUGHT TO JERUSALEM

12 And it was told king David, saying, The LORD has blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertains unto him, because of the Ark of God. So David went and brought up the Ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladness. (Now David knew that God was not angry with him without cause. So, according to the Word of the Lord, he corrects the situation, and brings up the Ark of God "with gladness.")

13 And it was so, that when they who bore the Ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings (about every 18 feet; to the carnal mind, this would seem extravagant; however, when we speak of Calvary, of which the Sacrifices were representative, there can be no extravagance).

14 And David danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was girded with a linen ephod. (Now it is not mere religious ceremony, but rather "in the Spirit," because it says "before the LORD." Religious ceremony producing religious activity has no spiritual merit whatsoever; however, activity produced by the "Spirit" is the Blessing of the Church. The "linen ephod" was probably a garment like that worn by little children.

It is doubtful that David would have donned a Priestly garment, which he had no right to wear.)

15 So David and all the House of Israel brought up the Ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet. (We are looking here at Holy Spirit Revival. This is the strength of Israel, not its mighty army, not its wealth, but "the Ark of the LORD," which represented the Presence of God.)

16 And as the Ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal Saul's daughter looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart. (This Verse tells us that the "flesh" can never approve of the things of the "Spirit." Speaking of David's wife, Michal, she is referred to here by the Holy Spirit as "Saul's daughter." David did not do himself well by demanding that she come again to be his wife [3:14-16].)

17 And they brought in the Ark of the LORD, and set it in His Place, in the midst of the Tabernacle that David had pitched for it: and David offered Burnt Offerings and Peace Offerings before the LORD.

18 And as soon as David had made an end of offering Burnt Offerings and Peace Offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

19 And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to everyone a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine. So all the people departed every one to his house. (This speaks of Jesus as the Bread of Life, giving His Perfect Body on Calvary's Cross for our Salvation, and through which comes the Joy of the Lord.)

DAVID REPROVES MICHAL

20 Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to day, who uncovered himself to day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovers himself! (All that happened in the realm of the Holy Spirit was repulsive to "the daughter of Saul." Likewise, the Moving of the Holy Spirit is always repulsive to those in the Church, in which there seems to be an abundance of "the flesh.")

[21] And David said unto Michal, It was before the LORD, who chose me before your father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the People of the LORD, over Israel: therefore will I play before the LORD.

[22] And I will yet be more vile than thus, and will be base in my own sight: and of the maidservants which you have spoken of, of them shall I be had in honour. (And to be sure, he was! David was honored more than any other human being by him being the namesake of the Messiah, "the Son of David.")

[23] Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death (for the "flesh" — let it be ever so dignified — cannot bring forth fruit unto God; such was the pride of the "flesh").

CHAPTER 7

(1042 B.C.)

THE TEMPLE

1 And it came to pass, when the king sat in his house, and the LORD had given him rest roundabout from all his enemies (this pictures the Lord Jesus Christ in a posture of absolute Lordship; the great Plan of Redemption has been won at Calvary, and He today is "sat down at the right hand of the Father" [Heb. 1:3]; every enemy has been defeated, and He did it all for us; consequently, it is the Will of God for us as Believers to have victory over every enemy of our soul; this can be done only by and through what Christ did at the Cross, and our Faith in that Finished Work)**;

2 That the king said unto Nathan the Prophet (here Nathan the Prophet first appears; he will figure prominently in David's life), See now, I dwell in an house of cedar, but the Ark of God dwells within curtains (it was in a tent)**.

3 And Nathan said to the king, Go, do all that is in your heart; for the LORD is with you (at the moment, Nathan did not seek the Lord; consequently, his answer was rash and, thereby, wrong!)**.

GOD'S COVENANT WITH DAVID

4 And it came to pass that night, that the Word of the LORD came unto Nathan, saying,

5 Go and tell My servant David, Thus says the LORD, Shall you build Me an house for Me to dwell in? (There is no disapproval of David's purpose as such; but only the deferring of its full execution unto the days of his son, Solomon. But there is more than this. The idea which runs through the Divine Message is that the dwelling of Jehovah in a tent was a fitting symbol of Israel's unsure possession of the land. In fact, they had conquered the land a long time before, but had never been able to maintain their liberty unimpaired. David would rectify that.)

[6] Whereas I have not dwelt in any house since the time that I brought up the Children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked in a tent and in a Tabernacle.

[7] In all the places wherein I have walked with all the Children of Israel spoke I a word with any of the Tribes (Judges) of Israel, whom I commanded to feed My people Israel, saying, Why build you not Me an house of cedar? (For a proper House for the Lord to be built, proper leadership must first be established — leadership that would properly feed the people. To properly feed is to properly govern. David was the first one to fit this bill, so to speak; therefore, the plans would be given to him, but not the right to actually build. That would go to Solomon.)

[8] Now therefore so shall you say unto My servant David, Thus says the LORD of Hosts, I took you from the sheepcote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My People, over Israel (now the Lord tells David that admittance into this House will be by the way of humility and the shed blood, hence, "the sheep")**:

[9] And I was with you wheresoever you went, and have cut off all your enemies out of your sight, and have made you a great name, like unto the name of the great men who are in the Earth. (The widespread conquests of David, and his great empire, were not for the sake of mere Earthly dominion. It was, first of all, a Type of Messiah's reign, to Whom God has promised the heathen for His Inheritance, and that His Gospel shall be carried to the ends of the Earth [Mk. 16:15].)

[10] Moreover I will appoint a place for My People Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them anymore, as beforetime (in Genesis, Chapter 15, God promised the land to Abraham's Seed. In this Chapter, He promises the Throne to David's Seed. The Seed is Christ; and, therefore, in each instance the Covenant is unconditional, for there can be no failure on Christ's part),

[11] And as since the time that I commanded Judges to be over My people Israel, and have caused you to rest from all your enemies. Also the LORD tells you that He will make you an house. (In Genesis 49:10, through Jacob, the Lord promised that the Messiah would come from the Tribe of Judah. And now, He selects the family in Judah which will bring forth the Messiah, and David is clearly chosen. David had thought to build the Lord a house, but, instead, the Lord tells him that He [the Lord] will build David a house.)

[12] And when your days be fulfilled, and you shall sleep with your fathers, I will set up your seed after you, which shall proceed out of your bowels, and I will establish His Kingdom (this speaks of the Lord Jesus Christ).

[13] He shall build an house for My Name, and I will stablish the Throne of His Kingdom for ever (as stated, this is an unconditional Promise; it will most definitely come to pass).

THE THRONE ESTABLISHED FOREVER

[14] I will be his father, and he shall be my son. If he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men (this pertains to Solomon and those who would follow after him in the lineage of David, through whom the Messiah would come, which pertains to the first phrase of the Verse):

[15] But My Mercy shall not depart away from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before you (this means that whatever happened, the Messiah would come through the lineage of David).

[16] And your house and your kingdom shall be established for ever before you: your throne shall be established for ever (and so shall it be in Christ, and will be established at the Second Coming).

[17] According to all these Words, and according to all this Vision, so did Nathan speak unto David (no doubt, we only have a small portion here of what Nathan actually said, but yet the full ingredients).

DAVID'S THANKSGIVING TO GOD

[18] Then went king David in, and sat before the LORD, and he said, Who am I, O LORD God? and what is my house, that You have brought me hitherto? (The magnitude of all this overwhelms David, as well it should! God's Thoughts are always so much bigger than our thoughts.)

[19] And this was yet a small thing in Your sight, O LORD God; but You have spoken also of Your servant's house for a great while to come. And is this the manner of man, O LORD God? (While there is no direct reference here to the Messiah in David's words, yet the Psalms indicate that he did connect the duration of his house with the Messiah's Advent [Ps. 2:8; 89:27]. In effect, he was saying, "So this is the manner in which You will redeem man. You will do so by God becoming Man, fulfilling Genesis 3:15.")

[20] And what can David say more unto You? for You, LORD God, know Your servant ("LORD God," in the Hebrew, is "LORD Jehovah," signifying Covenant relationship).

[21] For Your Word's sake, and according to Your Own Heart, have You done all these great things, to make Your servant know them (from this statement we know that David knew that the Lord had chosen him for this great honor, not because He saw something good in David, but because of the good within Himself).

[22] Wherefore You are great, O LORD God: for there is none like You, neither is there any god beside You, according to all that we have heard with our ears (until we see God as David did, in His Mercy and Grace, we really do not know Him).

[23] And what one nation in the Earth is like Your people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to Himself, and to make Him a name, and to do for You great things and terrible, for Your land, before

Your people, which You redeemed to Yourself from Egypt, from the nations and their gods? (Israel both was and remains to this day a Nation unique in its history, both in those early dealings of God with it, and also in its later history, and even its marvelous preservation unto this day.)

[24] For You have confirmed to Yourself Your people Israel to be a people unto You forever: and You, LORD, are become their God. (Until Jesus came, the people of Israel, with the exception of a few proselytes, were the only people on Earth who truly knew God. Even though Israel rejected her Messiah, and has suffered terribly, the prediction by the Prophets, and especially by the Apostle Paul, is that Israel will be restored, which is yet future, and will take place at the Second Coming [Rom. 11:25-27].)

[25] And now, O LORD God, the Word that You have spoken concerning Your servant, and concerning his house, establish it forever, and do as You have said.

[26] And let Your Name be magnified forever, saying, The LORD of Hosts is the God over Israel: and let the house of Your servant David be established before You (the special relation of Jehovah to Israel is throughout constantly in view; for Jehovah is the Name of Deity in Covenant with His People).

[27] For You, O LORD of Hosts, God of Israel, have revealed to Your Servant, saying, I will build you an house: therefore has Your servant found in his heart to pray this prayer unto You (could be translated, "Therefore has Your Servant been bold to pray this prayer").

[28] And now, O Lord GOD, You are that God, and Your Words be true, and You have promised this goodness unto Your servant (could be translated, "You are the One True God; consequently, Your Words are True")**:

[29] Therefore now let it please You to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue forever before You: for You, O Lord GOD, have spoken it: and with Your Blessing let the house of Your servant be blessed for ever (David prays that the Blessing may now at once begin to take effect; it is the language of firm Faith, and should be rendered, "And now begin of Your Own good Will, and bless the house of Your servant").

CHAPTER 8

(1040 B.C.)

DAVID EXTENDS HIS KINGDOM

1 And after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them: and David took Metheg-ammah out of the hand of the Philistines. (We have in this Chapter a brief summary of the wars which raised Israel from the position of a struggling and oppressed race to the possession of widest empire, in effect, what the Lord had promised Abraham. "Metheg-ammah" refers to the reigning mother city, Gath, and all her towns, the head city of the Philistines from which they held sway over Israel. While it is true that in our spiritual lives we have defeated many of the lesser demons, still, we must also defeat the "spiritual wickedness in high places" [Eph. 6:12].)

2 And he smote Moab, and measured them with a line, casting them down to the ground; even with two lines measured he to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive (what a refreshing thought that the Holy Spirit is measuring our enemies for defeat instead of the enemy measuring us for defeat). And so the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts (they paid an annual tribute).

3 David smote also Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his border at the river Euphrates. (Thus, for the first time, Israel extends her possessions to the River Euphrates, the eastern border of the Promised Land. It was promised in Gen. 15:18-21 and I Chron. 18:3. The Word of God has promised us complete Victory. Have we taken all the land, or is there some that is still occupied by the enemy?)

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for an hundred chariots (the word

"houghed," as used here, refers to the fact that they were made useless for war but not for agriculture).

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to succour Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men. (David is here a Type of the conquering Christ. So when we read these accounts, spiritually we should understand that Christ Alone can defeat the enemies in our lives. In fact, He has already defeated these enemies, and did so at Calvary [Col. 2:14-15].)

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus: and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought gifts. And the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went (these great victories were all as a result of the Hand of the Lord, as all such victories must be of the Hand of the Lord).

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem (before David, what little that Israel had was taken by the enemy; now, with David, because he was God's choice, the spoil of the enemy is brought to Israel).

8 And from Betah, and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, king David took exceeding much brass (all of this would ultimately be used in the construction of the Temple).

9 When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the host of Hadadezer,

10 Then Toi sent Joram his son unto king David, to salute him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer, and smitten him: for Hadadezer had wars with Toi. And Joram brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass (the material value of the gifts is left in the background; their worth lies in their being the acknowledgment of the Divine Favor resting upon David; in Psalms 18:43-44, we have proof of the great pleasure which this embassy from so great a Nation gave to David):

11 Which also king David did dedicate unto the LORD, with the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all nations which he subdued (dedicated to the Lord in regard to the future construction of the Temple, which would be carried out by Solomon)**;

12 Of Syria, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah. (All of these heathen were worshippers of idol gods, but now saw how useless their gods were beside David. Is the Holy Spirit at this moment cataloging the victories we have won, which can only be won in Christ?)

13 And David got him a name when he returned from smiting of the Syrians in the valley of salt, being eighteen thousand men (should have been translated "the Edomites"; the Edomites, believing that David was engaged in a struggle beyond his powers with the Syrians, took the opportunity to invade Israel; it was a bad mistake on their part; David defeated both the Syrians and the Edomites [I Chron. 18:12]).

14 And he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom put he garrisons, and all they of Edom became David's servants. And the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went (once again, the Holy Spirit proclaims to us the secret of David's great victories).

15 And David reigned over all Israel; and David executed judgment and justice unto all his people (this is the type of government, whether it be civil or spiritual, that God demands).

DAVID'S OFFICERS

16 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host (the commanding general of the army); and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder (it was his office to reduce the king's decrees to writing, and also to see that they were carried into execution)**;

17 And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, were the Priests (in effect, at least at this time, there were two High Priests); and Seraiah was the Scribe (similar to the Secretary of State)**;

[18] And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over both the Cherethites and the Pelethites (these were either the bodyguards of David, or else they served in some similar type of position); and David's sons were chief rulers (the term "chief rulers" refers more to a spiritual capacity than anything else)**.

CHAPTER 9

MEPHIBOSHETH

[1] And David said, Is there yet any that is left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake? (This Verse proclaims the great truth that God pardons and blesses sinners "for Christ's sake" [Eph. 4:32]. There is no merit in any of us that would warrant the "kindness" of God, but all is done for us because of Christ. David is actually referring back to the happenings of I Sam., Chpt. 18, where he made a covenant with Jonathan. The Covenant pertains to the great price that Jesus paid at Calvary. Verse 1 shows David seeking Mephibosheth. Ever is the Lord seeking the sinner [Jn. 3:16].)

[2] And there was of the house of Saul a servant whose name was Ziba. And when they had called him unto David, the king said unto him, Are you Ziba? And he said, Your servant is he.

[3] And the king said, Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may show the kindness of God unto him? And Ziba said unto the king, Jonathan has yet a son, which is lame on his feet. (Jesus desires to show the kindness of God to sinners. In fact, that's what He came to do, and did so by dying on the Cross. "Lame on his feet," presents an apt description of the lost soul which doesn't know the Lord Jesus Christ. Spiritually speaking, they cannot walk properly.)

[4] And the king said unto him, Where is he? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he is in the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, in Lo-debar ("Lodebar" means "the desert place"; that's where all unsaved people live, irrespective of their financial or social position; they live in a "desert place," which refers to the fact that they are bereft of all things of God).

5 Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar (we talk about finding the Lord, but, in reality, He found us; and, when He found us, He sent the Holy Spirit to "fetch us").

6 Now when Mephibosheth (his name means "the shameful thing," which portrays all who don't know the Lord), the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul (meaning that he was the lost son of a doomed race), was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence (to be accepted, there must be a brokenness before the Lord; the Lord gives Grace to the humble, but He resists the proud). And David said, Mephibo-sheth. And he answered, Behold your servant!

7 And David said unto him, Fear not (in those days, potential heirs to the throne, as Mephibosheth, were instantly killed by those in power; many think of the Lord in the same fashion; however, the Word of the Lord has always been "fear not"): for I will surely show you kindness for Jonathan your father's sake (God shows us kindness for Jesus' sake), and will restore you all the land of Saul your father ("Restoration" is the great truth of the Gospel; coming to Christ, we regain what was lost by Adam); and you shall eat bread at my table continually (the greater part of Salvation is the fellowship we can now have with the Lord).

8 And he bowed himself, and said, What is your servant, that you should look upon such a dead dog as I am? (Mephibosheth did what is so hard for most people to do. He admitted that he was a spiritual cripple, deformed, and unable to save himself.)

9 Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him, I have given unto your master's son all that pertained to Saul and to all his house (what has been lost can be regained, but only in Christ).

10 You therefore, and your sons, and your servants, shall till the land for him (Ziba was to do this for Mephibosheth), and you shall bring in the fruits, that your master's son may have food to eat: but Mephibosheth your master's son shall eat bread alway at my table. Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

11 Then said Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king has commanded his servant, so shall your servant do. As for Mephibosheth, said the king, he shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons. (All of this portrays "Restoration," then "productivity" [fruit-bearing], and "fellowship.")

12 And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Micha. And all who dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants unto Mephibo-sheth (this son of Mephibosheth became the representative of the house of Saul, and had numerous offspring, who were leading men in the Tribe of Benjamin until the captivity [I Chron. 8:35-40; 9:40-44]).

13 So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem: for he did eat continually at the king's table; and was lame on both his feet. (This grand Blessing was all because of the covenant made between David and Jonathan; likewise, there is a Covenant presently called "the New Covenant," and all are free to enter, and the Blessings will be of untold degree.)

CHAPTER 10

(1037 B.C.)

DAVID'S VICTORIES

[1] And it came to pass after this, that the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead.

[2] Then said David, I will show kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash (means "shining serpent"), as his father showed kindness unto me. And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants for his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon. (Remarkably enough, Verse 1 of Chapter 9 starts out with the words, "that I may show him kindness." So, there is a vast similarity in David's dealings, both with Mephibo-sheth and also the heathen king, "Hanun." However, the responses were totally different.)

[3] And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, Do you think that David does honour your father, that he has sent comforters unto you? has not David rather sent his servants unto you, to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it? (Most foolish advice which they gave the young king.)

[4] Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away. (In that culture, the beard was the mark of a man being free. To cut it off on one side was not merely an insult to David's ambassadors, but was treating them like slaves. The entire episode was the height of insult.)

[5] When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed: and the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they stank before David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth-rehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king Maacah a thousand men, and of Ish-tob twelve thousand men.

7 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men (the idea is, the Israelites had now become practiced in war and, thereby, veterans).

8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entering in of the gate: and the Syrians of Zoba, and of Rehob, and Ish-tob, and Maacah, were by themselves in the field.

9 When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians (the objective of Joab was to prevent at all hazards the junction of the Syrians with the Ammonites, and he was only just in time to throw himself between them)**:

10 And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammon (of the two, the Syrians were the stronger).

11 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then you shall help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for you, then I will come and help you.

12 Be of good courage, and let us play the men for our people, and for the cities of our God: and the LORD do that which seems Him good. (The honor of Israel's God was in jeopardy. Come good or bad, he and Abishai would do their utmost.)

13 And Joab drew near, and the people who were with him, unto the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Abishai, and entered into the city. So Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

15 And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered themselves together.

16 And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the river: and they came to Helam; and Shobach the Captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them (Hadarezer summoned troops from all the surrounding states in order to attack Israel).

17 And when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him (the presence of David guaranteed victory).

18 And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed the men of seven hundred chariots of the Syrians, and forty thousand horsemen, and smote Shobach the Captain of their host, who died there (the Hebrew word for "chariots" refers to any vehicle or animal for riding).

19 And when all the kings who were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were smitten before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more (in other words, the kings which had been subject to Hadarezer now place themselves under the supremacy of David, and pay to him the tribute which they had previously paid to Zobah).

CHAPTER 11

DAVID'S SIN WITH BATH-SHEBA

[1] And it came to pass, after the year was expired, at the time when kings go forth to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried still at Jerusalem. (This Chapter portrays one of the saddest accounts concerning failure found in the entirety of the Word of God. The sin could not have been blacker or the crime more heinous. David, the man after God's Own Heart, would murder one of his choice servants in cold blood and then take his wife; however, out of this horror will come the great attributes of God that will be a signal portrayal of the Grace of God.

This Chapter testifies to the inspiration of the Bible, for only the Holy Spirit would record so faithfully such infamy and horror. It gives us a true insight into man's nature as sinful and fallen, and it teaches the reader the humbling lesson that such is the nature he possesses.

Also, if Divine Restraints are withheld and temptation sufficiently attractive and skillfully proffered, there is no depth of evil, shame, and falsehood into which man will not fall.)

[2] And it came to pass in an eveningtide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon. (No blame, at this juncture, must be attached to Bath-sheba. The place where she was bathing was regarded as perfectly secluded, and probably neither she nor her husband Uriah had ever suspected that what went on there could be observed from the roof of the king's palace.)

[3] And David sent and enquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this

Bath-sheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite? (Uriah was one of David's mighty men, which means that he was an elite warrior [23:39].)

4 And David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in unto him, and he lay with her; for she was purified from her uncleanness (even though she committed an act of gross immorality, she nevertheless carefully observed the ceremonial enactment commanded in Leviticus 15:18): and she returned unto her house.

5 And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, I am with child. (In fact, her crime was one that made her liable to the penalty of death [Lev. 20:10]. Had David immediately repented of his sin, a sin incidentally against God, against Uriah, against Bath-sheba, and against the people of Israel, and then cast himself with anguish of heart upon God, the Lord would have made a way of escape and forgiveness consistent with Himself and morally instructive to David. Instead, David attempts to cover-up his sin.

It should be ever understood that there is no covering of sin except for the precious Blood of Jesus Christ. As well, that cannot be obtained unless one humbly and truly repents before God.)

DAVID'S PLAN TO COVER HIS SIN

6 And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David (Joab, at this stage, had absolutely no idea as to why David sent for Uriah).

7 And when Uriah was come unto him, David demanded of him how Joab did, and how the people did, and how the war prospered (as well, Uriah had no idea as to why David sent for him).

8 And David said to Uriah, Go down to your house, and wash your feet (in other words, take a little time off). And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there followed him a mess of meat from the king.

9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house (no doubt, the Lord had a hand in what Uriah did).

10 And when they had told David, saying, Uriah went not down unto his house, David said unto Uriah, Came you not from your journey? why then did you not go down unto your house?

11 And Uriah said unto David, The Ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in tents; and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open fields; shall I then go into my house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? as you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing. (David had felt sure that Uriah would go to his house and be with his wife, and then the pregnancy would be covered. Everyone would think that the child was Uriah's. But Uriah didn't go along with David's plans.)

12 And David said to Uriah, Tarry here to day also, and tomorrow I will let you depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the morrow.

13 And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him drunk (David thus adds sin to sin; but, even when intoxicated, Uriah kept to his determination): and at evening he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house (so, everything that David does to cover-up his sin fails, as fail it must!).

DAVID ARRANGES THE DEATH OF URIAH

14 And it came to pass in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah. (The warrior didn't know it, but David had written Uriah's death warrant. It will amount to murder in cold blood, and of one of his loyal subjects.)

15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, Set you Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and retire you from him, that he may be smitten, and die. (How could the man who wrote the 23rd Psalm do this? Sin never betters itself. The slide is always downward. Irrespective of how holy man has been or how educated he might be, sin is a force and power that can only be dealt with by the precious Blood of Jesus Christ. Sin is so powerful that even though God could speak worlds into existence, still, due to His Nature, He could not speak sin out of existence. He would have to die on a cruel Cross, offering up Himself as a Perfect Sacrifice in order to pay in full sin's demands.

The Holy Spirit intends for us here to see not only David's terrible sins, but also our sins as well!)

16 And it came to pass, when Joab observed the city, that he assigned Uriah unto a place where he knew that valiant men were (the most dangerous and hottest part of the battle).

17 And the men of the city went out, and fought with Joab: and there fell some of the people of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite died also.

18 Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war;

19 And charged the messenger, saying, When you have made an end of telling the matters of the war unto the king,

20 And if so be that the king's wrath arise, and he say unto you, Wherefore approached you so near unto the city when you did fight? did you not know that they would shoot from the wall?

21 Who smote Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth (Gideon)? did not a woman cast a piece of a millstone upon him from the wall, that he died in Thebez? why went you near the wall? then you say, Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also (the wording of the Text tells us that Joab now knew at least something about the situation, if not its entirety).

22 So the messenger went, and came and showed David all that Joab had sent him for.

23 And the messenger said unto David, Surely the men prevailed against us, and came out unto us into the field, and we were upon them even unto the entering of the gate (chased after them).

24 And the shooters shot from off the wall upon your servants; and some of the king's servants be dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

25 Then David said unto the messenger, Thus shall you say unto Joab, Let not this thing displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another: make your battle more strong against the city, and overthrow it: and encourage you him (give Joab a message of encouragement from me).

DAVID MARRIES BATH-SHEBA

26 And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband (Uriah died serving his king, never knowing that his king had made his wife pregnant, and had, in fact, ordered his own death, but God knew!).

27 And when the mourning was past, David sent and fetched her to his house, and she became his wife, and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD (the record reveals that God will show no more favor to "His anointed" than He will to the most ungodly!).

CHAPTER 12

NATHAN THE PROPHET

1 And the LORD sent Nathan unto David. (On Nathan's last visit to David, as recorded in Chapter 7, the Prophet had brought the greatest message that could ever be brought to a mere mortal. He said to David that through his lineage would come the Messiah, the King of kings [II Sam. 7:18-19]. Now God, by the same Prophet, sends the worst message that a man could ever hear. Beautifully and strangely enough, because of the Grace of God, the second Message of doom because of David's great sin does not nullify the great Message of honor and Redemption that had been given at the beginning.) And he came unto him, and said unto him, There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor.

2 The rich man had exceeding many flocks and herds:

3 But the poor man had nothing, save one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter.

4 And there came a traveler unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man who was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man who was come to him.

5 And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, As the LORD lives, the man who has done this thing shall surely die (the correct translation should be, "A man who would do such a thing is a wretch who deserves to die")**:

6 And he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity (the sentence that he passed, of fourfold restitution, is exactly in accordance with the Mosaic Law [Ex. 22:1]).

DAVID IS THE GUILTY ONE

7 And Nathan said to David, You are the man. (Abruptly, and with sudden vehemence, comes the application to David himself. So skillfully had the parable been contrived, that up to this point David had no suspicion that he was the rich man who had acted so meanly by his poorer neighbor Uriah. And now he stood self-condemned! When we pass judgment, we had better be careful, as David, that we aren't passing judgment on ourselves.) Thus says the LORD God of Israel, I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul (consequently, his sin was worse)**;

8 And I gave you your master's house, and your master's wives into your bosom, and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would moreover have given unto you such and such things.

9 Wherefore have you despised the Commandment of the LORD, to do evil in His sight? (All sin is against God. It is an insult to God, a slap in His Face, a denial of His Rulership, a threat against His Kingdom. It is the ruination of all that is good.) you have killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and have taken his wife to be your wife, and have slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon (what David had covered, the Lord openly and fully revealed).

THE PENALTIES

10 Now therefore the sword shall never depart from your house; because you have despised Me, and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife. (And so it was! This sentence was fulfilled in the murder of Amnon [13:28], who had been encouraged in his crime by his father's example. Upon this followed Absalom's rebellion and death [18:14]. And finally, when, in his last hours, David made Solomon his successor, he knew that he was virtually passing the sentence of death upon Adonijah, the eldest of his surviving sons. But what a fearful choice! For had he not done so, then Bath-sheba and her four sons would doubtless have been killed.)

11 Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will raise up evil against you out of your own house (this was fulfilled for political purposes by Absalom, under the advice of Bath-sheba's grandfather [16:22]), and I will take your wives before your eyes, and give them unto your neighbour, and he shall lie with your wives in the sight of this sun (Absalom, in his evil, fulfilled this prediction [16:20-22]).

12 For you did it secretly: but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun.

13 And David said unto Nathan, I have sinned against the LORD (David had a true knowledge of God and, therefore, when charged with his sin, his first thought was not the punishment that would surely follow, but the injury done to God). And Nathan said unto David, The LORD also has put away your sin; you shall not die (God's response to true Repentance was the same as it always has been; however, that does not abrogate the penalty for sin, which, incidentally, must be left up to the Lord and not man).

14 Howbeit, because by this deed you have given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme, the child also that is born unto you shall surely die (considering the stigma it would have carried, the Lord did the child a favor).

THE BABY DIES

15 And Nathan departed unto his house. And the LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bore unto David, and it was very sick. (If it is to be noticed, over and over again, the Holy Spirit refers to Bath-sheba as "Uriah's wife.")

16 David therefore besought God for the child; and David fasted, and went in, and lay all night upon the earth (he hoped that the Lord would have pity and change the direction).

[17] And the Elders of his house arose, and went to him, to raise him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them (grieved as he was at the child's sickness, and at the mother's sorrow, yet his grief was mainly for his sin; and he was willing that all should know how intense was his shame and self-reproach).

[18] And it came to pass on the seventh day, that the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spoke unto him, and he would not hearken unto our voice: how will he then vex himself, if we tell him that the child is dead?

[19] But when David saw that his servants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David said unto his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead.

[20] Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the House of the LORD, and worshipped (the sweet Psalmist of Israel knew the Ways of the Lord, and the Lord accepted his worship): then he came to his own house; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he did eat.

[21] Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that you have done? you did fast and weep for the child, while it was alive; but when the child was dead, you did rise and eat bread.

[22] And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept: for I said, Who can tell whether GOD will be gracious to me, that the child may live?

[23] But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me. (Every single parent who has trusted Jesus Christ as his Saviour, upon the death of a tiny loved one, can say the same identical thing, because of the price paid at Calvary and the Resurrection.)

THE BIRTH OF SOLOMON

24 And David comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and she bore a son, and he called his name Solomon: and the LORD loved him. (Sadly, I suppose that the majority of the Church world would curse the fruit of this union called "Solomon." But the Scripture says, "The LORD loved him.")

25 And he sent by the hand of Nathan the Prophet; and he called his name Jedidiah, because of the LORD. ("Jedidiah" means "beloved of the Lord." This child, of all of David's sons, would ultimately rule Israel, and oversee its greatest prosperity, while, at the same time, being a Type of Christ.)

VICTORY OVER THE AMMONITES

26 And Joab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city.

27 And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Rabbah, and have taken the city of waters.

28 Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it: lest I take the city, and it be called after my name.

29 And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it.

30 And he took their king's crown from off his head, the weight whereof was a talent of gold with the precious stones: and it was set on David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city in great abundance. (As David came to take the surrender of the king of Rabbah, his eyes, no doubt, looked at the place by the wall where Uriah had died. Quite possibly, in David's heart, he said of Uriah, as he had said of the child who died, "I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.")

31 And he brought forth the people who were therein, and put them under saws, and under harrows of iron, and under axes of iron, and made them pass through the brickkiln: and thus did he unto all the cities of the children of Ammon. So David and all the people returned unto Jerusalem. (It is not known exactly as to what the "brickkiln" actually was; however, some think it may have been where the Ammonites sacrificed their children to the god Moloch. Perhaps David put some of the people to death in this way.)

CHAPTER 13

AMNON'S SIN AGAINST TAMAR

[1] And it came to pass after this, that Absalom the son of David had a fair sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her. (Tamar was the half-sister of Amnon. She was the daughter of Maacah, a princess of Geshur, one of David's wives. Amnon was David's first-born, the son of Ahinoam of Jezreel. Absalom was also the son of Maacah. At this time, Amnon was about 22 years old; Absalom, 20; Tamar, 15; and Solomon, 2. David was 53 years old. This Chapter begins with "Absalom," as if the Holy Spirit is warning us that the coming rebellion led by Absalom begins here.)

[2] And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin (his problem was lust, with the end result being incest; it was all inspired by Satan); and Amnon thought it hard for him to do anything to her (the wives of David had each their own dwelling, and the daughters were kept in strict seclusion).

[3] But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother: and Jonadab was a very subtil man (the word "subtil," as here used, is not used in a bad sense, but means "clever, ready in devising means").

[4] And he (Jonadab) said unto him (Amnon), Why are you, being the king's son, lean from day to day? will you not tell me? And Amnon said unto him, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister.

[5] And Jonadab said unto him, Lay you down on your bed, and make yourself sick: and when your father comes to see you, say unto him, I pray you, let my sister Tamar come, and give me meat, and dress the meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand (Jonadab was unscrupulous enough to suggest a plan that would make Tamar her brother's victim).

[6] So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick (made as if he was sick): and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray you, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat at her hand.

[7] Then David (suspecting nothing) sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to your brother Amnon's house, and dress him meat. (It would seem that David should have suspected something, but evidently he didn't, not dreaming at all at the evil that was being plotted. Sadly, this evil actually began with David.)

[8] So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took flour, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

[9] And she took a pan, and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, Have out all men from me. And they went out every man from him.

[10] And Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of your hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

[11] And when she had brought them unto him to eat, he took hold of her, and said unto her, Come lie with me, my sister (as stated, this definitely was not love, but rather lust).

[12] And she answered him, No, my brother, do not force me; for no such thing ought to be done in Israel: do not you this folly (literally, "do not humble me"; all of this bears testimony to the nobleness of the Hebrew women, who regarded their chastity as their crown of honor).

[13] And I, whither shall I cause my shame to go? and as for you, you shall be as one of the fools in Israel (to call a man "a fool" in Israel was to attribute to him every possible kind of wickedness [Mat. 5:22]). Now therefore, I pray you, speak unto the king; for he will not withhold me from you. (Marriages between half-brothers and half-sisters were strictly forbidden according to Levitical Law [Lev. 18:9; Deut. 27:22]. It is certain that Tamar knew this, but possibly she was trying anything to stop the ungodly advances of her half-brother.)

14 Howbeit he would not hearken unto her voice: but, being stronger than she, forced her, and lay with her (in other words, he raped her).

15 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly (he blamed her for what he had done); so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her (it doesn't mean that he really loved her, but is given in this manner to express the degree of his present hatred; as stated, he falsely blamed her). And Amnon said unto her, Arise, be gone.

16 And she said unto him, There is no cause: this evil in sending me away is greater than the other that you did unto me. But he would not hearken unto her.

17 Then he called his servant who ministered unto him, and said, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her. (How ever much we may disapprove of Absalom's conduct in avenging his sister, Amnon richly deserved the punishment which he ultimately got.)

18 And she had a garment of divers colours upon her: for with such robes were the king's daughters who were virgins apparelled. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her.

19 And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went on crying (this particular garment denoted her as the king's daughter, and her virginity).

20 And Absalom her brother said unto her, Has Amnon your brother been with you? but hold now your peace, my sister: he is your brother; regard not this thing. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house (Absalom now plotted revenge, although every evidence is that he did not relate such to Tamar).

[21] But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth (angry).

ABSALOM'S PLOT

[22] And Absalom spoke unto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad (Absalom's outward demeanor was one of utter indifference, concealing a cruel determination): for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar (had raped her).

[23] And it came to pass after two full years (Absalom did bide his time), that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons.

[24] And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold now, your servant has sheepshearers; let the king, I beseech you, and his servants go with your servant (Absalom was inviting David, plus all his half-brothers, to the feast).

[25] And the king said to Absalom, No, my son, let us not all now go, lest we be chargeable unto you. And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but blessed him (David would not himself go).

[26] Then said Absalom, If not, I pray you, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go with you? (It seems that David should have suspected something here, but inasmuch as approximately two years had passed, with Absalom saying nothing about the rape of his sister Tamar, perhaps David thought that the incident had been forgotten.)

[27] But Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him (Absalom got what he wanted; he really didn't want David to be there in the first place).

THE MURDER OF AMNON

28 Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark you now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not: have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be valiant (though Tamar's wrong was the mainspring of Absalom's conduct, yet, Absalom being the second in line to the throne, neither he nor his men could forget that Amnon, the first-born, stood between him and the crown).

THE CRIME COMMITTED

29 And the servants of Absalom did unto Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man got him up upon his mule, and fled.

30 And it came to pass, while they were in the way, that tidings came to David, saying, Absalom has killed all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left (evidently, some of the servants who fled immediately upon Amnon's death thought that Absalom was intending to kill all the king's sons, which was not the case; but this is the message that David then received).

31 Then the king arose, and tore his garments, and lay on the earth; and all his servants stood by with their clothes rent (the bitter payments of sin are now coming due).

32 And Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother, answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they have slain all the young men the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead: for by the appointment of Absalom this has been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar (evidently, at the time, Jonadab did not reveal his complicity in helping Amnon in the first place, in getting his sister into his evil clutches).

33 Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead: for Amnon only is dead.

34 But Absalom fled. And the young man who kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came much people by the way of the hill side behind him (David's other sons were returning).

35 And Jonadab said unto the king, Behold, the king's sons come: as your servant said, so it is.

36 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of speaking, that, behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voice and wept: and the king also and all his servants wept very sore (no doubt, at this time, the terrible thought came to David's mind, which had been told him by the Lord concerning his sin with Bath-sheba, that "the sword should never depart from his house").

ABSALOM FLEES

37 But Absalom fled, and went to Talmai, the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day (mourned for Amnon, his first-born).

38 So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years.

39 And the soul of king David longed to go forth unto Absalom (longed to have him return): for he was comforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

CHAPTER 14

JOAB'S PLOT

1 Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was toward Absalom. (The Hebrew word rendered "toward" should have been rendered "against," for that is its actual meaning. "The king's heart was against Absalom," because of the crime he had committed, even though David loved him dearly.)

2 And Joab sent to Tekoah and fetched thence a wise woman, and said unto her, I pray you, feign yourself to be a mourner, and put on now mourning apparel, and anoint not yourself with oil, but be as a woman who had a long time mourned for the dead:

3 And come to the king, and speak on this manner unto him. So Joab put the words in her mouth (told her what to say and do).

THE WOMAN OF TEKOAH

4 And when the woman of Tekoah spoke to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, Help, O king.

5 And the king said unto her, What ails you? And she answered, I am indeed a widow woman, and my husband is dead.

6 And your handmaid had two sons, and they two did strive together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one smote the other, and killed him.

7 And, behold, the whole family is risen against your handmaid, and they said, Deliver him who smote his brother, that we may kill him, for the life of his brother whom he killed; and we will destroy the heir also: and so they shall quench my coal which is left, and shall not leave to my husband neither name nor remainder upon the Earth (there is a great force and beauty also in the description of her son as the last live coal left to keep the family hearth burning, hence, her using such terminology).

8 And the king said unto the woman, Go to your house, and I will give charge concerning you.

9 And the woman of Tekoah said unto the king, My lord, O king, the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house: and the king and his throne be guiltless.

10 And the king said, Whosoever says ought unto you, bring him to me, and he shall not touch you anymore.

11 Then said she, I pray you, let the king remember the LORD your God, that you would not suffer the revengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son. And he said, As the LORD lives, there shall not one hair of your son fall to the earth. (Williams says concerning this, "The argument of the woman was very clever. It dealt with the secret wish of the king to pardon his son, and with the hindrance thereto which public opinion and the Divine Law presented. She skillfully persuaded him that exceptional provocation justified a setting aside of the Law, and a defiance of the people; and she got the king to pledge himself to this in the interests of her supposed son.")

12 Then the woman said, Let your handmaid, I pray you, speak one word unto my lord the king. And he said, Say on.

13 And the woman said, Wherefore then have you thought such a thing against the people of God? for the king does speak this thing as one which is faulty, in that the king does not fetch home again his banished (of course, she is speaking of Absalom, saying all the things that Joab has told her to say).

14 For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; neither does God respect any person: yet does He devise means, that His banished be not expelled from Him. (The woman's argument is as follows: she says, "Death is not a penalty exacted as a punishment, but, on the contrary, God is merciful, and, when a man has sinned, instead of putting him to death, the Lord is ready to forgive and welcome back one rejected because of his wickedness."

The application is plain. The king cannot restore Amnon to life, and neither must he kill the guilty Absalom, but must recall his banished son.

The argument is full of poetry, and touching to the feelings, but it is not spiritually or Scripturally sound. For God requires Repentance and change of heart; and there was no sign of contrition on Absalom's part. At any rate, David fell for the ploy.)

15 Now therefore that I am come to speak of this thing unto my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid: and your handmaid said, I will now speak unto the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his handmaid.

16 For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together out of the Inheritance of God.

17 Then your handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be comfortable: for as an Angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and bad: therefore the LORD your God will be with you (in other words, her story about her son was fiction; it had all been a ploy regarding Absalom).

JOAB

18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray you, the thing that I shall ask you. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak.

19 And the king said, Is not the hand of Joab with you in all this? And the woman answered and said, As your soul lives, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from ought that my lord the king has spoken: for your servant Joab, he bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of your handmaid:

20 To fetch about this form of speech has your servant Joab done this thing: and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an Angel of God, to know all things that are in the Earth.

ABSALOM IS BROUGHT BACK

21 And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Absalom again. (When dependence upon God and subjection to His Word cease to govern the life, then is it easy for the wisdom of this world to entangle the heart. Therefore, it was that the wise woman of Tekoah easily entrapped David to indulge his affection as a father rather than performing his duty as a ruler.

The Law of God commanded the death of Absalom. The king should have obeyed the Law. Had he done so, many lives would have been saved, and much sin and suffering escaped. Had he obeyed the Word of the Lord and put Amnon to death, still greater evil would have been thereby prevented. All this teaches the lesson, which man is so slow to learn, that a Christian embitters his days by acting independently of God. Amid all the movements of this Chapter was the Will of God sought? No, the Lord does not once appear — Williams.)

22 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and thanked the king: and Joab said, Today your servant knows that I have found grace in your sight, my lord, O king, in that the king has fulfilled the request of his servant. (Joab's design in this matter was to make Absalom indebted to him, and thus to get both the present and future king, for Absalom was in line for the throne, into his power, or so he thought!)

23 So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

24 And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face. So Absalom returned to his own house, and saw not the king's face (allowing him to return home, still, David would have no fellowship with him).

25 But in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him (once again, a work of the flesh, which looked beautiful outwardly, but inwardly was a ravening wolf; but yet, as usual, the people would fall for this outward expression, because the flesh appeals to the flesh).

26 And when he polled his head, (for it was at every year's end that he polled it: because the hair was heavy on him, therefore he polled it [cut it]:) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels after the king's weight (about six pounds when wet).

27 And unto Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar: she was a woman of a fair countenance. (She was named after her aunt, the girl who had been raped, and, like her, possessed great beauty. The Septuagint states that she became the wife of Rehoboam, the king who succeeded Solomon, and the mother of Abijah, who succeeded Rehoboam.)

ABSALOM DEMANDS TO SEE DAVID

28 So Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, and saw not the king's face (in other words, David would not see him).

29 Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to have sent him to the king; but he would not come to him: and when he sent again the second time, he would not come.

30 Therefore he said unto his servants, See, Joab's field is near mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire. And Absalom's servants set the field on fire (which Absalom felt would guarantee Joab coming to see him, which it did!).

31 Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have your servants set my field on fire?

32 And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent unto you, saying, Come hither, that I may send you to the king, to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? it had been good for me to have been there still: now therefore let me see the king's face; and if there be any iniquity in me, let him kill me.

33 So Joab came to the king, and told him: and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king: and the king kissed Absalom (David's kiss was, as in the case of the prodigal son, the sign of reconciliation, and of the restoration of Absalom to his place as a son, with all its privileges).

CHAPTER 15

ABSALOM REVOLTS AGAINST DAVID

[1] And it came to pass after this, that Absalom prepared him chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him. (This was the accompaniment of royalty. In other words, Absalom was preparing the way for his revolt.)

[2] And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate (most business dealings and judicial renderings were normally done at the gate of the city, with buildings constructed there for just such a purpose): and it was so, that when any man who had a controversy came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said, Of what city are you? And he said, Your servant is of one of the Tribes of Israel.

[3] And Absalom said unto him, See, your matters are good and right; but there is no man deputed of the king to hear you (in other words, the king may not decide in your favor, but I definitely would, if I had the power).

[4] Absalom said moreover, Oh that I were made Judge in the land, that every man which has any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice!

[5] And it was so, that when any man came near to him to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed him.

[6] And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel who came to the king for judgment: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel. (Absalom easily deceived people by a profession of devotion to them, and as easily deceived his father by a profession of devotion to God. Because man has fallen from God's moral image, therefore, he can readily deceive and be deceived [II Tim. 3:13]. He deceived the people of Israel by flattery, which was altogether insincere! All too often, the Absalom spirit still prevails in the modern Church. A deceitful heart projects such, and a deceitful mind accepts such.)

7 And it came to pass after forty years *(some have said that this is a copyist mistake, and it should have been rendered "four years"; however, others say that this was speaking of David, and not Absalom; David was about 16 years old when he was anointed king by Samuel [I Sam., Chpt. 16]; considering that he was now about 56 years old, this means that it was forty years since his anointing; either one could be true), that Absalom said unto the king, I pray you, let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed unto the LORD, in Hebron (the Lord was the furthest thing from the mind of Absalom).

8 For your servant vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the LORD shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.

9 And the king said unto him, Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron.

10 But Absalom sent spies throughout all the Tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall say, Absalom reigns in Hebron. (Absalom would now attempt to take the throne away from his father. But God had not called Absalom to the throne, but rather David.)

11 And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, who were called; and they went in their simplicity, and they knew not anything (were not aware of Absalom's plot to take the throne).

12 And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counselor, from his city, even from Giloh, while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong; for the people increased continually with Absalom. (Ahithophel was Bath-sheba's grandfather. He was one of the wisest men in Israel, but evidently showed little wisdom here. He should have known that if Absalom had truly been successful in becoming king, that Bath-sheba and all her sons would be killed; however, most probably, Absalom had guaranteed their safety.

Israel was, at the present time, the most prosperous Nation on the face of the Earth, and that prosperity was due to David; however, Israel evidently didn't see that, and would now seek to throw David over. How so much like the modern church! It seeks to destroy that which is its Salvation, and accepts that which is its ruin. Why?

The reason is the same now as then. "Flesh responds to flesh," which means that most of the church is "walking after the flesh," which refers to walking after their own wisdom, and not that of God [Rom. 8:1, 8].)

DAVID FLEES FROM JERUSALEM

13 And there came a messenger to David, saying, The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom.

14 And David said unto all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us flee; for we shall not else escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly, and bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword.

15 And the king's servants said unto the king, Behold, your servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord the king shall appoint.

16 And the king went forth, and all his household after him. And the king left ten women, which were concubines, to keep the house. (At this time, David wrote several Psalms [Ps. 3-4, 40-41, 63]. All of this, the writing of the Psalms as given to him by the Holy Spirit, despite his past problems, show just how close to God that David now was.)

17 And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and tarried in a place that was far off.

18 And all his servants passed on beside him; and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men which came after him from Gath, passed on before the king (these were powerful warriors).

DAVID'S ADVICE TO ITTAI

[19] Then said the king to Ittai the Gittite, Why do you go also with us? return to your place, and abide with the king: for you are a stranger, and also an exile (this man was evidently a Gentile, but now a proselyte to the Jewish Faith).

[20] Whereas you came but yesterday, should I this day make you go up and down with us? seeing I go where I may, return you, and take back your brethren: mercy and truth be with you.

[21] And Ittai answered the king, and said, As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will your servant be (a consecration very similar to that of Ruth the Moabitess).

[22] And David said to Ittai, Go and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones who were with him. (The presence of all his family with him shows that this man had broken entirely with the Philistines, and left his country for good, vowing to go with David, wherever David went. In other words, David's fortunes would be his fortunes, whatever that may have meant. This converted Gentile showed more spiritual sense than most of Israel.)

[23] And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the wilderness.

DAVID'S ADVICE TO ZADOK

[24] And lo Zadok also, and all the Levites were with him, bearing the Ark of the Covenant of God: and they set down the Ark of God; and Abiathar went up (both men, Zadok and Abiathar, served as High Priests at that time), until all the people had done passing out of the city.

25 And the king said unto Zadok, Carry back the Ark of God into the city: if I shall find favour in the Eyes of the LORD, He will bring me again, and show me both it, and His habitation:

26 But if He thus say, I have no delight in you; behold, here am I, let Him do to me as seems good unto Him (David places himself entirely now within the Hands of the Lord).

27 The king said also unto Zadok the Priest, Are you not a seer? return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar (and take the Ark of the Covenant with you).

28 See, I will tarry in the plain of the wilderness, until there come word from you to certify me.

29 Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the Ark of God again to Jerusalem: and they tarried there (they obeyed David).

DAVID WEEPS AND PRAYS

30 And David went up by the ascent of Mount Olivet, and wept as he went up, and had his head covered, and he went barefoot: and all the people who were with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up (the Grace of God is the basis of all blessing; David was conscious that he merited only wrath; and this he publicly confessed with bared foot, covered head, and tear-dimmed eye).

31 And one told David, saying, Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, O LORD, I pray You, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness (David prayed, but his faith seemed to be weak).

DAVID'S ADVICE TO HUSHAI

32 And it came to pass, that when David was come to the top of the Mount, where he worshipped God, behold, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat rent, and earth upon his head (signifying his grief at what was happening):

33 Unto whom David said, If you pass on with me, then you shall be a burden unto me (most likely because Hushai was old and infirm):

34 But if you return to the city, and say unto Absalom, I will be your servant, O king; as I have been your father's servant hitherto, so will I now also be your servant: then may you for me defeat the counsel of Ahithophel. (David had prayed for the help of the Lord, but what he now proposes was not really such help. David was meeting treachery by treachery, which the Lord could not condone. Jehovah can never be a party to sin or wrongdoing of any nature! Hushai was evidently also one of the wise men of Israel.)

35 And have you not there with you Zadok and Abiathar the Priests? therefore it shall be, that what thing soever you shall hear out of the king's house, you shall tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the Priests.

36 Behold, they have there with them their two sons, Ahimaaz Zadok's son, and Jonathan Abiathar's son; and by them you shall send unto me everything that you can hear.

37 So Hushai David's friend came into the city, and Absalom came into Jerusalem (came to take the Throne).

CHAPTER 16

ZIBA LIES ABOUT MEPHIBOSHETH

1 And when David was a little past the top of the hill, behold, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him, with a couple of asses saddled, and upon them two hundred loaves of bread, and an hundred bunches of raisins, and an hundred of summer fruits, and a bottle of wine.

2 And the king said unto Ziba, What do you mean by these? And Ziba said, The asses be for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine, that such as be faint in the wilderness may drink.

3 And the king said, And where is your master's son (speaking of Mephibosheth)? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he abides at Jerusalem: for he said, Today shall the House of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father (Ziba lied about Mephibosheth).

4 Then said the king to Ziba, Behold, you are all that pertains unto Mephibosheth. And Ziba said, I humbly beseech you that I may find grace in your sight, my lord, O king. (This man Ziba lies and schemes to effect a gain of property. At this time of all times, every man in Israel should have been crying to God for help; however, some would take advantage of the crisis as opportunity for personal gain. I'm afraid that "Ziba" is too much akin to so many in the modern Church.)

SHIMEI CURSES DAVID

5 And when king David came to Bahurim (the Holy Spirit uses the word "king," as it refers to David, to portray the fact that, even though many of the people were claiming that Absalom was now king, the Holy Spirit said otherwise), behold, thence came out a man of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera: he came forth, and cursed still as he came (cursed David! The words given in this Verse do not mean that this man was a near relative of Saul, but that he was a member of the Tribe of Benjamin).

6 And he cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David: and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left.

7 And thus said Shimei when he cursed, Come out, come out, you bloody man, and you man of Belial (he refers to David as one worthless):

8 The LORD has returned upon you all the blood of the house of Saul (the man was lying! David had not shed any of the blood of this particular house), in whose stead you have reigned; and the LORD has delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son: and, behold, you are taken in your mischief, because you are a bloody man (in effect, Shimei was accusing David of being the murderer of Saul; that was wholly untrue! However, David could not resent it, because he was the murderer of Uriah).

9 Then said Abishai the son of Zeruiah unto the king, Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? let me go over, I pray you, and take off his head.

10 And the king said, What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? so let him curse, because the LORD has said unto him, Curse David. Who shall then say, Wherefore have you done so? (David evidently suffered this as a part of the chastening of God for his sin with Bath-sheba. His answer to Abishai expressed a deep and humble resignation to the course of providence. Insults such as this are very difficult to endure, but not for David, as he fully recognized himself as under the Divine Hand of chastening for his sin. For the balance of his life, he was mindful of this cursing by Shimei, but he was determined never to avenge it in his lifetime. He left the matter to the wisdom of Solomon, with it being one of the last things he mentioned in his dying hour [I Ki. 2:8-11].)

11 And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my son, which came forth of my bowels, seeks my life: how much more now may this Benjamite do it? let him alone, and let him curse; for the LORD has bidden him (evidently, the Lord spoke this to David's heart).

12 It may be that the LORD will look on my affliction, and that the LORD will requite me good for his cursing this day (so I should accept it without recourse).

13 And as David and his men went by the way, Shimei went along on the hill's side over against him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and cast dust (in front of all the people, as would be overly obvious, this was a great insult to the king of Israel and, in fact, one worthy of death).

14 And the king, and all the people who were with him, came weary, and refreshed themselves there.

ABSALOM ENTERS JERUSALEM

15 And Absalom, and all the people the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him (advising Absalom as to what he should do).

16 And it came to pass, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, was come unto Absalom, that Hushai said unto Absalom, God save the king, God save the king.

17 And Absalom said to Hushai, Is this your kindness to your friend? why went you not with your friend? (Absalom knew that Hushai was a very close friend of his father, David.)

18 And Hushai said unto Absalom, No; but whom the LORD, and this people, and all the men of Israel, choose, his will I be, and with him will I abide (while there had been general lamentation at David's departure [15:23], yet the citizens had admitted Absalom without a struggle, and submitted to him).

19 And again, whom should I serve? should I not serve in the presence of his son? as I have served in your father's presence, so will I be in your presence. (Hushai was not telling the truth! While the cause was right, the method was wrong. God cannot sanction lying. But yet, the Grace of God, as it has with all of us at one time or the other, overrode the wrong direction, and brought it all out to a successful conclusion; however, He could have done so in a much better way, had David looked to the Lord exclusively, instead of praying, and then trying to answer his own prayers [15:31-37].)

AHITHOPHEL

20 Then said Absalom to Ahithophel, Give counsel among you what we shall do.

21 And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Go in unto your father's concubines, which he has left to keep the house; and all Israel shall hear that you are abhorred of your father: then shall the hands of all who are with you be strong. (This fulfilled what the Lord said would happen [12:11]. Ahithophel's counsel was abominable, even though the deed would not be regarded by any of the Israelites as incestuous. A king inherited his predecessor's harem, and Absalom's act was a coarse and rude assertion that David's rights were at an end, and that crown and lands and property, even unto his wives, now all belonged to the usurper. So, Ahithophel, for his own selfish purposes, led Absalom on to a crime which rendered a reconciliation with David impossible, and which pledged all the conspirators to carry out the matter to the bitter end.)

22 So they spread Absalom a tent upon the top of the house; and Absalom went in unto his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel (it was when walking on this very roof that David had given way to guilty passion, and now it is the scene of his dishonor).

23 And the counsel of Ahithophel, which he counseled in those days, was as if a man had enquired at the oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom. (As stated, Ahithophel was Bath-sheba's grandfather. Why in the world did he do what he was doing? Why did he have such a hatred for David, who, in fact, had given him everything that he presently had? Considering that this man was perhaps the wisest man in Israel, he should have known better.

To every great gift there is a drawback. Ahithophel obviously trusted his own wisdom instead of looking to the Lord for guidance. As wise as he was, he simply wasn't wise enough, and neither is any other man.)

CHAPTER 17

AHITHOPHEL AND HUSHAI

[1] Moreover Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night (this Chapter symbolizes the rejection of the Son of David by Judas; it is exactly as the Israel of Jesus' day; most of the people loved David, but much of its leadership seemingly didn't; most of the people of Israel loved Jesus, but its leadership, at least for the most part, didn't; Ahithophel, like Judas, betrayed David, and then hung himself; so we are seeing here a forepicture of what would happen approximately a thousand years later)**:

[2] And I will come upon him while he is weary and weak handed, and will make him afraid: and all the people who are with him shall flee; and I will smite the king only (the proposal to single out David and murder him "pleased Absalom well, and all the Elders of Israel" [Vs. 4]; and yet Absalom was David's son; as well, all the Elders of Israel had received nothing from him but good! How true is it that the heart is desperately wicked [Jer. 17:9])**:

[3] And I will bring back all the people unto you: the man whom you seek is as if all returned: so all the people shall be in peace (Ahithophel tells Absalom that his plan will guarantee the throne).

[4] And the saying pleased Absalom well, and all the Elders of Israel. (As we have stated, the prosperity of Israel, which was then the greatest in the world, was all due to the Blessings of the Lord upon David. And yet the Elders of Israel did not seem to know this. How so like most modern religious leaders!)

[5] Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he says (the Lord, no doubt, engineered this).

6 And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spoke unto him, saying, Ahithophel has spoken after this manner: shall we do after his saying? if not; speak you.

7 And Hushai said unto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel has given is not good at this time.

8 For, said Hushai, you know your father and his men, that they be mighty men, and they be chafed in their minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field: and your father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people.

9 Behold, he is hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when some of them be overthrown at the first, that whosoever hears it will say, There is a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom.

10 And he also who is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly melt: for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant men.

11 Therefore I counsel that all Israel be generally gathered unto you, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that you go to battle in your own person.

12 So shall we come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falls on the ground: and of him and of all the men who are with him there shall not be left so much as one.

13 Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there.

14 And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For the LORD had appointed to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom. (The Lord used Hushai to appeal to the pride of Absalom. This upstart could see himself marching at the head of thousands of troops, with all of Israel at his feet. Truly, Ahithophel's counsel had been perfect. David did not yet have time to marshal his forces and, at this stage, was not ready to fight. Ahithophel knew this, but his advice was not taken, which was ordered by the Lord.)

HUSHAI'S COUNSEL TO DAVID

15 Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the Priests (High Priests), Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the Elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counseled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily pass over (pass over the Jordan River); lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people who are with him (Absalom may change his mind, and adopt Ahithophel's advice after all; so David must hurry!).

17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz stayed by En-rogel; for they might not be seen to come into the city (Jonathan was the son of Abiathar, while Ahimaaz was the son of Zadok, all who were confederate with David, even though Absalom was not aware of such; the two young men were sent by Hushai to give David the message as to what he ought to do): and a wench went and told them; and they went and told king David (the word "wench" should have been translated "maidservant"; in this Verse, we see this "handmaid" named along with the mighty king of Israel, "king David," and all by the Holy Spirit; this is an encouraging instance of how useful the most insignificant person can be to the Lord of Glory in the interests of His Kingdom).

18 Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told Absalom: but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a man's house in Bahurim, which had a well in his court; whither they went down (the two young men hid in the well for a short period of time).

19 And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground corn thereon; and the thing was not known (the two young men were not discovered).

20 And when Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said unto them, They be gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem (of course, she had hidden them in the well).

21 And it came to pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David, and said unto David, Arise, and pass quickly over the water (over the Jordan River): for thus has Ahithophel counseled against you (they told David all the plans of Ahithophel, and then how Hushai had gotten Absalom to listen to him instead, which would give David time, which he desperately needed).

22 Then David arose, and all the people who were with him, and they passed over Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them who was not gone over Jordan.

AHITHOPHEL'S SUICIDE

23 And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and got him home to his house, to his city, and put his household in order, and hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father. (So died the man who would not forgive David and had fomented a rebellion to dethrone "God's anointed." The Child of God must ever understand that he is obligated to forgive those whom God forgives. To do less is to set oneself on the road to disaster.)

ABSALOM PURSUES DAVID

24 Then David came to Mahanaim. (The word means "two camps." It was on the east side of Jordan. It was named by Jacob of old, when he came out of Syria at the behest of the Lord on the way back to the Promised Land.

He was met by two camps of Angels, hence the name [Gen. 32:1-2]. One must wonder if David came here intentionally. As well, did he have Jacob in mind at this time of great distress, when he "came to Mahanaim"? This we do know, it was at this time that he wrote the Forty-second and Forty-third Psalms.) And Absalom passed over Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom made Amasa Captain of the host instead of Joab: which Amasa was a man's son, whose name was Ithra an Israelite, who went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Joab's mother. (It is ironic that both Joab and Amasa were David's nephews. Joab, at this time, remained loyal; Amasa joined the rebellion.)

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead. (All who joined the rebellion would rue this day. If men could only understand that they must follow "God's anointed," rather than the "Absalom spirit." Admittedly, sometimes it takes great Faith to do so, especially when we realize that God rests His Spirit in "earthen vessels." Regrettably, not all men have Faith.)

BARZILLAI'S KINDNESS TO DAVID

27 And it came to pass, when David was come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim,

28 Brought beds, and basons, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentiles, and parched pulse,

29 And honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of kine (cattle), for David, and for the people who were with him, to eat: for they said, The people is hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness. (Three men brought these gifts, "Shobi," "Machir," and "Barzillai." At a time like this, for anyone to say, "I love you," is a Blessing that can only be understood if one has walked where David walked. The Holy Spirit was so gracious as to record the kindness of these men. He will likewise record for eternity the kindness of all those who will stand by "God's anointed.")

CHAPTER 18

(1023 B.C.)

ABSALOM DEFEATED

[1] And David numbered the people who were with him, and set Captains of thousands and Captains of hundreds over them.

[2] And David sent forth a third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite (this man was a Philistine, who had become a proselyte to the God of Israel). And the king said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you myself also.

[3] But the people answered, You shall not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us: but now you are worth ten thousand of us: therefore now it is better that you succour us out of the city (the chief argument of the people is that David would be of more use if, posted with a body of troops at this city, he could help any division that might be in danger).

[4] And the king said unto them, What seems you best I will do. And the king stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands.

[5] And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the Captains charge concerning Absalom.

[6] So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the wood of Ephraim;

[7] Where the people of Israel were killed before the servants of David, and there was there a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men. (This is speaking of the army of rebellious Israel. It doesn't say how many men David's army lost, if any.)

8 For the battle was there scattered over the face of all the country: and the wood devoured more people that day than the sword devoured. (Because of this rebellion, 20,000 men would lose their lives, bringing untold sorrow and heartache to Israel and all because they followed the "Absalom spirit." Rebellion against that which belongs to God is rebellion against God!)

ABSALOM SLAIN BY JOAB

9 And Absalom met the servants of David. And Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the Heaven and the Earth; and the mule that was under him went away (Josephus writes that Absalom was entangled by his long hair in the boughs of the tree; his death must, therefore, have been one of prolonged agony, until terminated by the lances of his former friend Joab and those men with him).

10 And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak.

11 And Joab said unto the man who told him, And, behold, you saw him, and why did you not smite him there to the ground? and I would have given you ten shekels of silver, and a girdle.

12 And the man said unto Joab, Though I should receive a thousand shekels of silver in my hand, yet would I not put forth my hand against the king's son: for in our hearing the king charged you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Beware that none touch the young man Absalom.

13 Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against my own life: for there is no matter hid from the king, and you yourself would have set yourself against me.

14 Then said Joab, I may not tarry thus with you. And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak.

15 And ten young men who bore Joab's armour compassed about and smote Absalom, and killed him.

16 And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the people (stopped the slaughter).

17 And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and laid a very great heap of stones upon him: and all Israel fled everyone to his tent. (This "heap of stones" marked the aim and the end of ambition. Such must ever be the inglorious end of all who rebel against God's elect King, the Lord Jesus Christ — for He is exactly the One Whom Absalom rebelled against.)

18 Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself a pillar, which is in the king's dale: for he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name: and it is called unto this day, Absalom's place. (What was the difference in David's sin and Absalom's sin? Of course, all sin is heinous in the eyes of God, and is actually directed against Him. The difference is the following: David's sin was a sin of passion, with the murder of Uriah an effort to cover-up the sin. Absalom's sin had as its fountain the sin of Satan himself in his rebellion against God. In other words, Absalom entered into Satan's rebellion. It was a far more heinous sin than his father David's; however, most of the Church world does not see it that way, but actually would join Absalom, because outwardly it looks so right.

David's sin was not joined by anyone else, whereas Absalom's sin was joined by the majority of Israel. In other words, they became associates with his sin, which, in fact, threatened the very foundation of Israel's existence.

David repented immediately when his sin was found out, because he was a man of God. There is no record that Absalom ever really knew God and, therefore, there was no Repentance.)

NEWS OF THE VICTORY

19 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, Let me now run, and bear the king tidings, how that the LORD has avenged him of his enemies.

20 And Joab said unto him, You shall not bear tidings this day, but you shall bear tidings another day: but this day you shall bear no tidings, because the king's son is dead (in other words, the king will not receive your message as you think).

21 Then said Joab to Cushi, Go tell the king what you have seen. And Cushi bowed himself unto Joab, and ran (Joab was unwilling to expose Ahimaaz to the king's displeasure, and we gather from Verse 27 that the sending of a person of low rank, which Cushi was, would be understood to signify evil tidings).

22 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok yet again to Joab, But howsoever, let me, I pray you, also run after Cushi. And Joab said, Wherefore will you run, my son, seeing that you have no tidings ready? (Should have been translated, "Seeing that you have no message that will find for you the king's favor and reward.")

23 But howsoever, said he, let me run. And he said unto him, Run. Then Ahimaaz ran by t he way of the plain, and overran Cushi (Ahimaaz would not be denied, so Joab allowed him to go).

24 And David sat between the two gates: and the watchman went up to the roof over the gate unto the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold a man running alone.

25 And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, there is tidings in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew near (if David's army had been defeated, then there would be many stragglers hurrying back; but, since there was only one man coming, and then a second one a short time later, this bade good tidings).

26 And the watchman saw another man running: and the watchman called unto the porter, and said, Behold another man running alone. And the king said, He also brings tidings (this second one was Cushi).

27 And the watchman said, Me think the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man, and comes with good tidings.

28 And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the king, All is well. And he fell down to the earth upon his face before the king, and said, Blessed be the LORD your God, which has delivered up the men who lifted up their hand against my lord the king.

DAVID INQUIRES ABOUT ABSALOM

29 And the king said, Is the young man Absalom safe? and Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the king's servant, and me your servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what it was. (Ahimaaz did know what had happened to Absalom, but, seeing the king's face, now knew why Joab was reluctant for him to come bearing this particular message. So, he is evasive in his answer.)

30 And the king said unto him, Turn aside, and stand here. And he turned aside, and stood still.

31 And, behold, Cushi came; and Cushi said, Tidings, my lord the king: for the LORD has avenged you this day of all them who rose up against you.

32 And the king said unto Cushi, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Cushi answered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise against you to do you hurt, be as that young man is.

33 And the king was much moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he said, O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! would God I had died for you, O Absalom, my son, my son! (David's bitter grief was, no doubt, deepened by the consciousness that his own sin had perhaps contributed in some way toward Absalom's rebellion and death. As well, the pain and the hurt were deepened by the realization that there was no hope in such a death. He knew that Absalom died lost.)

CHAPTER 19

(1023 B.C.)

JOAB REPROVES DAVID

[1] And it was told Joab, Behold, the king weeps and mourns for Absalom.

[2] And the victory that day was turned into mourning unto all the people: for the people heard say that day how the king was grieved for his son. (The "mourning" was justified, but not for Absalom. Israel was in a terrible state, considering that the majority of the nation had joined in the rebellion with Absalom, thereby rebelling against David, who was God's anointed. As well, Verse 9 says, "And all the people were at strife throughout all the Tribes of Israel.")

[3] And the people got them by stealth that day into the city, as people being ashamed steal away when they flee in battle (the soldiers returned from victory, but yet were met with what seemed like defeat).

[4] But the king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son! (Absalom died lost, and this was the reason for David's great grief and, of course, he blamed himself!)

[5] And Joab came into the house to the king, and said, You have shamed this day the faces of all your servants, which this day have saved your life, and the lives of your sons and of your daughters, and the lives of your wives, and the lives of your concubines;

[6] In that you love your enemies, and hate your friends. For you have declared this day, that you regard neither princes nor servants: for this day I perceive, that if Absalom had lived, and all we had died this day, then it had pleased you well. (Amid the incessant movement of this Chapter, it is not once mentioned that David "enquired of the LORD." The result was that he allowed his selfish and excessive affection for his rebellious son to smother the affection which he should have shown for his brave and faithful soldiers.)

7 Now therefore arise, go forth, and speak comfortably unto your servants: for I swear by the LORD, if you go not forth, there will not tarry one with you this night: and that will be worse unto you than all the evil that befell you from your youth until now.

8 Then the king arose, and sat in the gate. And they told unto all the people, saying, Behold, the king does sit in the gate. And all the people came before the king: for Israel had fled every man to his tent (by thus acting in accordance with Joab's wise counsel, David probably saved the nation from years of anarchy, and a fresh civil war).

DAVID IS ACCEPTED AGAIN AS KING

9 And all the people were at strife throughout all the Tribes of Israel, saying, The king saved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he is fled out of the land for Absalom. (Due to David's great sin, the people had lost confidence in the king. If they had faced the situation according to the Word of God, and understood and accepted David's Repentance, the confidence would not have been lost; nevertheless, like so many, everything is consulted but the Word of God. It must ever be stated that the Word of God is the criteria for any and all situations. What man says or thinks is of little import, if it does not agree with the Word of God. The state of Israel, as presented here, is a perfect picture of the Church in most times of crisis. Man's opinions and viewpoints are adhered to, with the Word of God little consulted.)

10 And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why speak you not a word of bringing the king back? (With this anointing, there must also have been a formal renunciation of David's rule and, being thus dethroned, he does not attempt to return until the nation summons him back.)

11 And king David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the Priests, saying, Speak unto the Elders of Judah, saying, Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king, even to his house.

12 You are my brethren (the Tribe of Judah), you are my bones and my flesh: wherefore then are you the last to bring back the king? (The rebellion had begun at Hebron, which was a large city in Judah, and probably many of the leading chiefs were deeply implicated in Absalom's proceedings. Probably they now regretted it, but hung back through fear of punishment. They wanted to first of all be sure of David's kindly feelings toward them!)

13 And say you to Amasa, Are you not of my bone, and of my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if you be not Captain of the host before me continually in the room of Joab. (This was a most unwise move on the part of David. Not one time in this Chapter does it say that David inquired of the Lord; consequently, he was making decisions which were faulty!)

14 And he (David) bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as the heart of one man; so that they sent this word unto the king, Return you, and all your servants.

DAVID RETURNS TO JERUSALEM

15 So the king returned, and came to Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over Jordan.

16 And Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite, which was of Bahurim, hasted and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David.

17 And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went over Jordan before the king (Shimei evidently desired to impress David with his greatness, hoping that he now would not kill him).

18 And there went over a ferry boat to carry over the king's household, and to do what he thought good. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, as he was come over Jordan;

19 And said unto the king, Let not my lord impute iniquity unto me, neither do you remember that which your servant did perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart.

20 For your servant does know that I have sinned: therefore, behold, I am come the first this day of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king.

21 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD's anointed?

22 And David said, What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should this day be adversaries unto me? shall there any man be put to death this day in Israel? for do not I know that I am this day king over Israel?

23 Therefore the king said unto Shimei, You shall not die. And the king swore unto him. (David pardoned this man, swearing unto him by Jehovah — an oath which he should not have taken [I Ki. 2:8-9] — when he ought to have judged him. But yet, he probably felt that, due to his own sin against Uriah, he could little execute judgment upon Shimei. Nevertheless, one of the last requests that David made when dying was to ask Solomon to deal with this man as he saw fit when he turned the kingdom over to him [I Ki. 2:8-9, 36-46].

Even though Verse 20 records him claiming that he had sinned, he in no way truly repented from the heart. Shimei's statement was a matter of expediency. This proved to be so when he rebelled against Solomon, and paid with his life.)

MEPHIBOSHETH'S FAITHFULNESS

24 And Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came again in peace (not only did Mephibosheth love David, but, as well, he knew that if Absalom had succeeded in his rebellion, he would have been one of the many who would have been killed).

25 And it came to pass, when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said unto him, Wherefore went not you with me, Mephibosheth?

26 And he answered, My lord, O king, my servant deceived me: for your servant said, I will saddle me an ass, that I may ride thereon, and go to the king; because your servant is lame.

27 And he has slandered your servant unto my lord the king; but my lord the king is as an Angel of God: do therefore what is good in your eyes. (Ziba did what Mephibosheth commanded; however, he left Mephibosheth in the lurch, went to David, and lied about his Master [16:1-4].)

28 For all of my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king: yet did you set your servant among them who did eat at your own table. What right therefore have I yet to cry any more unto the king?

29 And the king said unto him, Why speak you any more of your matters? I have said, You and Ziba divide the land.

30 And Mephibosheth said unto the king, Yes, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace unto his own house. (David condemned Mephibosheth when he should have done him justice; he rewarded Ziba when he should have punished him. Once again, he never consulted the Lord about this matter!)

BARZILLAI REWARDED

31 And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan.

[32] Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even fourscore years old (80 years old): and he had provided the king of sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man.

[33] And the king said unto Barzillai, Come you over with me, and I will feed you with me in Jerusalem.

[34] And Barzillai said unto the king, How long have I to live, that I should go up with the king unto Jerusalem?

[35] I am this day fourscore years old: and can I discern between good and evil? can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? wherefore then should your servant be yet a burden unto my lord the king?

[36] Your servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompense it me with such a reward?

[37] Let your servant, I pray you, turn back again, that I may die in my own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and of my mother. But behold your servant Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good unto you.

[38] And the king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto you: and whatsoever you shall require of me, that will I do for you.

[39] And all the people went over Jordan. And when the king was come over, the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned unto his own place. (In the eveningtide of his life, the Holy Spirit portrays Barzillai standing by the side of God's anointed, irrespective of the conduct of the majority of Israel. This man knew the Word of God. He did not deter from the righteous path. What a glorious way to live, and what a glorious way to go out!)

[40] Then the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him: and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of Israel (David remembered Barzillai's kindness to the last and, on his dying bed, especially commended Chimham and his brothers to the care of Solomon).

ISRAEL'S JEALOUSY OF JUDAH

41 And, behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen you away, and have brought the king, and his household, and all David's men with him, over Jordan?

42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is near of kin to us: wherefore then be you angry for this matter? have we eaten at all of the king's cost? or has he given us any gift?

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David than you: why then did you despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel. (Verses 41-43 record the division between Judah and Benjamin, on the one side, and the ten Tribes on the other. Little by little, it crystallized and became even wider with each new crisis. About 50 years from this time, they were definitely divided into two kingdoms [I Ki., Chpt. 12].)

CHAPTER 20

SHEBA REVOLTS AGAINST DAVID

1 And there happened to be there a man of Belial (worthless), whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite: and he blew a trumpet, and said, We have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to his tents, O Israel.

2 So every man of Israel went up from after David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri: but the men of Judah clave unto their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem. (The ten Tribes had come down to the Jordan to bring the king back in triumph, but, on finding that the men of Judah had forestalled them, they had a quarrel. It ended in open revolt, and they transferred their allegiance to the worthless Sheba. So David now has a great problem on his hands!)

3 And David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ward, and fed them, but went not in unto them (these whom Absalom had desecrated). So they were shut up unto the day of their death, living in widowhood (it actually meant until the day of David's death).

JOAB MURDERS AMASA

4 Then said the king to Amasa, Assemble me the men of Judah within three days, and be you here present.

5 So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah: but he tarried longer than the set time which he (David) had appointed him. (These Verses proclaim David's intention of replacing Joab with Amasa as the military leader of Israel; however, Amasa's lack of energy showed incapacity or disloyalty, for the Scripture says, "He tarried longer than the set time.")

6 And David said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take you your lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced cities, and escape us.

7 And there went out after him Joab's men, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

8 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them. And Joab's garment that he had put on was girded unto him, and upon it a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out.

9 And Joab said to Amasa, Are you in health, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him.

10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so he smote him therewith in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and struck him not again; and he died. So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri.

JOAB PURSUES SHEBA

11 And one of Joab's men stood by him, and said, He who favours Joab, and he who is for David, let him go after Joab. (It must be understood that Joab's occupation of this position is not because of fidelity to the Lord or His anointed, but because of place and position. How many today are in the Church, fulfilling particular duties, not because of love for God, but because of position, money, popularity, or self-will?)

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that everyone who came by him stood still.

13 When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri (those who had been following Amasa now follow Joab, showing the hold that Joab had over the army of Israel).

THE DEATH OF SHEBA

14 And he went through all the Tribes of Israel unto Abel, and to Beth-maachah, and all the Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him.

15 And they came and besieged him (besieged Sheba) in Abel of Beth-maachah, and they cast up a bank against the city, and it stood in the trench: and all the people who were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down.

16 Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither, that I may speak with you.

17 And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, Are you Joab? And he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of your handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

18 Then she spoke, saying, They were wont to speak in old time, saying, They shall surely ask counsel at Abel: and so they ended the matter (in other words, the judgment rendered in Abel was given up to be very wise).

19 I am one of them who is peaceable and faithful in Israel: you seek to destroy a city and a mother in Israel: why will you swallow up the inheritance of the LORD?

20 And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy.

21 The matter is not so: but a man of Mount Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has lifted up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to you over the wall.

22 Then the woman went unto all the people in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it out to Joab. And he blew a trumpet, and they retired from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the king (the revolt of Sheba had been quelled).

THE OFFICERS OF DAVID

23 Now Joab was over all the host of Israel: and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and over the Pelethites:

24 And Adoram was over the tribute: and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder:

25 And Sheva was Scribe: and Zadok and Abiathar were the Priests (both were High Priests):

26 And Ira also the Jairite was a chief ruler about David. (Verses 23-26 record by the Holy Spirit the restoration of David's kingdom, but at great cost. All that had gone on before was the effort of Satan. The ordered structure under David was now recorded, despite the ungodliness of some of its participants, such as Joab, as God's Will. How so much better off Israel would have been had they adhered to that in the beginning.

This Verse says, "About David." Israel would have inserted "Absalom," or even "Sheba." Man, and even the church, so seldom desire God's Ways.)

CHAPTER 21

A THREE-YEAR FAMINE

[1] Then there was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year; and David enquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he killed the Gibeonites. (Famines were generally a sign from God of His disapproval concerning Israel's spiritual declension. David finally asked the Lord as to the cause of the famine. The Lord said it was because Saul "slew the Gibeonites." Nearly 500 years before, Joshua had made a Covenant with the Gibeonites, promising to protect them [Josh., Chpt. 9]. Saul had broken that Covenant, and killed some of the Gibeonites. This Chapter will portray to us the fact that God keeps His Promises. Joshua had made a Covenant with these people and God expected that Covenant to be kept.)

[2] And the king called the Gibeonites, and said unto them; (now the Gibeonites were not of the Children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; and the Children of Israel had sworn unto them: and Saul sought to kill them in his zeal to the Children of Israel and Judah [the Scripture is silent as to when this happened]**.)

[3] Wherefore David said unto the Gib-eonites, What shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that you may bless the inheritance of the LORD? (The Lord had told David the reason for the famine, but there is no record that He had told David what to do about it. David should not have asked the Gibeonites; he should have asked the Lord as to how the anger of God could be appeased.)

[4] And the Gibeonites said unto him, We will have no silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shall you kill any man in Israel. And he said, What you shall say, that will I do for you.

5 And they answered the king, The man who consumed us, and who devised against us that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the coasts of Israel,

6 Let seven men of his sons be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up unto the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, whom the LORD did choose. And the king said, I will give them.

SEVEN SONS OF SAUL HANGED

7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the LORD's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

8 But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth (not the son of Jonathan, but another Mephibosheth); and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite:

9 And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the hill before the LORD: and they fell all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest. (Once again, David did not inquire of the Word of the Lord. For the Law of Moses plainly said, "Neither shall the children be put to death for the father's: every man shall be put to death for his own sin" [Deut. 24:16]. So, David taking these relatives of Saul and executing them for Saul's sin was ungodly and unscriptural. When we deviate from the Word of God, terrible injustice is always done.)

THE BURIAL

10 And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night (the two sons of Rizpah were hanged with the other five).

11 And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done (she maintained a vigil in the open field on that shadeless rock, exposed to heat by day and cold by night, for about 5 months).

12 And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh-gilead, which had stolen them from the street of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had killed Saul in Gilboa:

13 And he brought up from thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son; and they gathered the bones of them who were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son buried they in the country of Benjamin in Zelah, in the sepulchre of Kish his father: and they performed all that the king commanded. And after that God was intreated for the land (even though this was not done God's Way, still, the Lord ended the famine).

ABISHAI RESCUES DAVID FROM THE GIANT

15 Moreover the Philistines had yet war again with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines: and David waxed faint. (However, it should be quickly added that David "waxed faint" because he was fighting the battles of the Lord. The only ones who never wax faint are those who never fight. Regrettably, the Church is full of them.

Unfortunately, the Church doesn't look too favorably upon those who "wax faint." Regrettably, the Church as a whole does not fight many Philistines either. The reason?

The modern Church is not only "in" the world, but basically it is also "of" the world.)

16 And Ishbi-benob (his name means "a man who dwells on the mountain"), which was of the sons of the giant (some think he was the son of Goliath, whom David had killed over 40 years before), the weight of whose spear weighed three hundred shekels of brass (copper) in weight (nearly 20 pounds), he being girded with a new sword, thought to have killed David. (These were the product of fallen angels and the daughters of men, actually the last uprising [Gen. 6:4].)

17 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. (Abishai had to have been helped by the Lord in the doing of this. Presently, it seems that Ishbi-benob has joined the Church. So the question must be asked, "Which are you, an Ishbi-benob or an Abishai?" One would try to kill David; the other would "succour" him.) Then the men of David swore unto him, saying, You shall go no more out with us to battle, that you quench not the light of Israel. (How could they call David the light of Israel, especially after the episode with Bath-sheba and Uriah? They called him "the light of Israel" because he was "the light of Israel." It shows that God not only forgives sin, but He forgets sin. The Child of God should do the same.)

18 And it came to pass after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob: then Sibbechai the Hushathite killed Saph, which was of the sons of the giant (could have been another son of Goliath).

19 And there was again a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim, a Beth-lehemite, killed the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20 And there was yet a battle in Gath, where was a man of great stature, who had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant.

21 And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimeah the brother of David killed him.

22 These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants. (And yet, the great feats of courage evidenced by David's servants were only because of David's anointing. David was a giant-killer, and those who came under him followed suit.)

CHAPTER 22

DAVID'S LAST SONG

[1] And David spoke unto the LORD the words of this song (this Song, or Psalm, is virtually identical to the Eighteenth Psalm, but with some minor exceptions) in the day that the LORD had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul (only the Lord can truly deliver; as well, this probably refers to the close of his life)**:

[2] And he said, The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer (the words used here portray the fact of the power arrayed against us as Believers; we are delivered by Faith in Christ and the Cross, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work in our lives; He can overcome anything, for He is God [Rom. 8:1-2, 11])**;

[3] The God of my rock; in Him will I trust: He is my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my refuge, my saviour; You save me from violence ("Rock" suggests an immovable might; it is often used for God's Glory as being the Strength and Protection of His People; the "shield," of course, is for defense, while the "horn" is for attack; the "high tower" signifies a place of refuge, which saves the blessed one from the violence of his enemies).

[4] I will call on the LORD (actually says, in the Hebrew, "Whenever I call, I am saved"), Who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from my enemies (in all times of difficulties, praise brings immediate deliverance).

[5] When the waves of death compassed me, the floods of ungodly men made me afraid (Satan, time and time again, attempted to kill David, as he does many Believers)**;

6 The sorrows of Hell compassed me about; the snares of death prevented me (the attacks originated in Hell);

7 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried to my God: and He did hear my voice out of His Temple, and my cry did enter into His Ears (the Lord is the only One Who can actually help; the implication is, if we truly call on Him, He will always hear; the "Temple" should have been translated "Heavenly Temple").

8 Then the Earth shook and trembled; the foundations of Heaven moved and shook, because He was wroth (this is intended to magnify to us the spiritual conception of God's justice coming forth to visit the Earth and to do right with equal justice).

9 There went up a smoke out of His nostrils, and fire out of His mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it (this has to do with when the Lord descended on Mount Sinai, with the manifestations resembling this which David says; out of this came the Law, in effect, the Righteousness of God).

10 He bowed the heavens also, and came down; and darkness was under His feet (all of this portrays the Glory of God).

11 And He rode upon a Cherub (His traveling Throne), and did fly: and He was seen upon the wings of the wind (once again, portrays Mount Sinai, and the various manifestations of His Appearance, with some who actually observed Him [Ex. 24:9-11]).

12 And He made darkness pavilions round about Him, dark waters, and thick clouds of the skies (the dark storm-clouds are gathered round the Almighty, to veil His awful Form from sight as He goes forth for judgment).

13 Through the brightness before Him were coals of fire kindled (this brightness is the "Shechinah," to which Paul also refers, where he says that God's dwelling is in "the unapproachable light").

14 The LORD thundered from Heaven, and the Most High uttered His Voice. (This happened at Sinai, and it also happened for Israel when the Lord thundered against the Philistines [I Sam. 7:10]. It also happened on the Day of Pentecost [Acts 2:2].)

15 And He sent out arrows, and scattered them; lightning, and discomfited them (once again, the Lord is speaking of various happenings of this nature, when He helped Israel against her enemies [I Sam. 14:15]).

16 And the channels of the sea appeared, the foundations of the world were discovered, at the rebuking of the LORD, at the blast of the breath of His nostrils (the word "discovered" should have been translated "laid bare").

17 He sent from above, He took me; He drew me out of many waters (the Lord will do the same, and we speak of Deliverance, of anyone and everyone who will call on Him out of a repentant heart)**;

18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them who hated me: for they were too strong for me (to be sure, Satan will always attack with overwhelming force; within ourselves, we are no match; Believers presently, at least since the Cross, are meant to place their Faith exclusively in Christ and His Cross, which will then give the Holy Spirit the latitude to work within our lives, bringing about the desired victory [Rom., Chpt. 6; 8:1-2, 11]).

19 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay (David faced death many times, but the Lord always delivered him).

20 He brought me forth also into a large place: He delivered me, because He delighted in me (the Lord "delights" in us, only according to our Faith in Christ and His Cross; basically it was the same before the Cross, but centered up in the Sacrifices, which were a Type of the Cross).

21 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness: according to the cleanness of my hands has He recompensed me (the "cleanness" of any hands can only be claimed by Faith in Christ and His shed Blood, which cleanses from all sin; otherwise, it is a farce [I Jn. 1:7; Eph. 2:13-

22 For I have kept the Ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God (David is not claiming here sinless perfection, but rather that he did not try to address his sins other than by Faith in the Lord, and that alone; to do otherwise is to sin wickedly).

23 For all His Judgments were before me: and as for His Statutes, I did not depart from them (once again, David went to the Word of God for help, whether in time of affliction, or respecting forgiveness for sin; he did not depart from the Word of God).

24 I was also upright before Him, and have kept myself from my iniquity (he took the iniquity to the Lord, and left it there [Ps. 51]).

25 Therefore the LORD has recompensed me according to my righteousness; according to my cleanness in His Eyesight (this Psalm has two persons as its intended subjects, David and the Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ; however, the greater meaning is, by far, referring to our Lord; it points prophetically to the Messiah, Who, in His sufferings and the glories which are to follow, will fulfill and satisfy the language of these utterances).

26 With the merciful You will show Yourself merciful, and with the upright man You will show Yourself upright (the Holy Spirit placed this Psalm at the conclusion of the historical narrative of David to portray the difference of fallibility, which was David, and infallibility, which was the Holy Spirit upon David; self-righteousness can never understand the Grace of God; it can only see David's terrible sins and faults; it can never see the repentant heart, or the Blood of Jesus Christ that cleanses from all sin).

27 With the pure You will show Yourself pure; and with the froward You will show Yourself unsavoury (it is not by luck or good fortune that prosperity attends the righteous, nor is it by chance that things go awry with the fraudulent, but it is by the Law of God's providence).

28 And the afflicted people You will save: but Your eyes are upon the haughty, that You may bring them down ("God resists the proud, but gives Grace to the humble" [James 4:6]).

[29] For You are my Lamp, O LORD: and the LORD will lighten my darkness ("the Lord is a Lamp unto our feet, and a Light unto our path" [Ps. 119:105]).

[30] For by You I have run through a troop: by my God have I leaped over a wall (the Lord gives strength to those who trust Him).

[31] As for God, His Way is perfect; the Word of the LORD is tried: He is a Buckler to all them who trust in Him (this does not mean only that it is proved by experience and found true, but that it is absolutely good and perfect like refined gold).

[32] For Who is God, save the LORD? and Who is a Rock, save our God? (Jehovah Alone is God and He Alone is a Rock of safety for His People.)

[33] God is my strength and power: and He makes my way perfect (it signifies that God will direct the upright man in his good way).

[34] He makes my feet like hinds' feet (as fast as the feet of deer): and sets me upon my high places (master over everything).

[35] He teaches my hands to war; so that a bow of steel is broken by my arms (as the Lord gave Israel great victory over her enemies, likewise, He gives the present Believer victory over the powers of darkness [Col. 2:14-15]).

[36] You have also given me the shield of Your salvation: and Your gentleness has made me great ("gentleness" is a fruit of the Spirit [Gal. 5:22-23]).

[37] You have enlarged my steps under me; so that my feet did not slip (we "walk after the Spirit," because we keep our eyes on Christ and the Cross [Rom. 8:1]).

[38] I have pursued my enemies, and destroyed them; and turned not again until I had consumed them (this can be done only by one trusting in Christ, which refers to what He did for us at the Cross [I Cor. 1:17-18], and doing so exclusively).

[39] And I have consumed them, and wounded them, that they could not arise: yes, they are fallen under my feet (all victory comes through the Cross of Christ [Col. 2:14-15]).

[40] For You have girded me with strength to battle: them who rose up against me have You subdued under me (as David overcame his enemies in the physical sense, likewise, we do so in the spiritual sense [Rom. 6:14]).

[41] You have also given me the necks of my enemies, that I might destroy them who hate me (every Believer is intended to be completely victorious over the world, the flesh, and the Devil, and can do so through the Cross, and only through the Cross [Rom. 6:3-14]).

[42] They looked, but there was none to save; even unto the LORD, but He answered them not (the Lord will not help or answer those who trust in self, or anything else other than the Cross [I Cor. 1:21, 23; 2:2]).

[43] Then did I beat them as small as the dust of the Earth, I did stamp them as the mire of the street, and did spread them abroad (this is what we are to do with every "sin which doth so easily beset us" [Heb. 12:1]; we are to overcome all, and nothing must overcome us; it can be done only in Christ).

[44] You also have delivered me from the strivings of my people, You have kept me to be head of the heathen: a people which I knew not shall serve me (while this happened with David, its greater fulfillment awaits the greater Son of David, which will take place upon His Second Advent; the entire world will then serve Him).

[45] Strangers shall submit themselves unto me: as soon as they hear, they shall be obedient unto me (once again, refers to the Second Coming, with the whole world bowing at the Feet of Christ; it will happen!).

46 Strangers shall fade away, and they shall be afraid out of their close places (Christ shall rule with great Power; strangers to His Grace and Ways will soon be no more).

47 The LORD lives; and blessed be my Rock; and exalted be the God of the Rock of my Salvation (after the Cross, He was most definitely "exalted" [Phil. 2:9]).

48 It is God Who avenges me, and Who brings down the people under me (the Believer must not take vengeance into his own hands, but leave all such to the Lord [Rom. 12:19-21])**,

49 And Who brings me forth from my enemies: You also have lifted me up on high above them Who rose up against me: You have delivered me from the violent man (as David was delivered from Saul, we are delivered from the powers of darkness, but only as our Faith is placed in Christ and the Cross [Gal., Chpt. 5]).

50 Therefore I will give thanks unto You, O LORD, among the heathen, and I will sing praises unto Your name (because He has done so much for us!).

51 He is the tower of Salvation for His King: and shows Mercy to His Anointed, unto David, and to his seed for evermore (speaks of David, but more particularly to the Son of David).

CHAPTER 23

THE LAST WORDS OF DAVID

[1] Now these be the last words of David (we know what the heart of David was by these "last words"). David the son of Jesse said, and the man who was raised up on high, the anointed of the God of Jacob (this refers to God, Who met Jacob when he had nothing, and deserved nothing, and Who promised him all things — the God of all Grace; in effect, David puts himself in the same category as this poor, scheming Jacob, who was ultimately changed by God), and the sweet Psalmist of Israel (refers to the fact that God had given David many of the Psalms; actually, he wrote over half of these great songs), said,

[2] The Spirit of the LORD spoke by me, and His Word was in my tongue (this means that the mouth belonged to David, but the Words were those of the Lord; this statement claims and guarantees Inspiration).

[3] The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spoke to me, He Who rules over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God (both Verses 3 and 4 speak of the Advent of Christ, and compare His Rule with that of man).

[4] And He shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun rises, even a morning without clouds; as the tender grass springing out of the earth by clear shining after rain. (Verses 3 and 4 foretell the Advent of One Who should rule men righteously, in the fear of God; and that His Rule, contrasted with man's, would be comparable to the cloudless sunshine of a beautiful morning following the black shadows of a dark night, and to the rich herbage produced by refreshing rain, which alone can clothe barren land. In fact, these two Verses leap ahead to the coming Millennial Reign, when Christ will rule supreme.)

5 Although my house be not so with God (meaning that neither he nor any member of his family fulfilled, or, in fact, could fulfill, the promises of this Prophecy); yet He has made with me an Everlasting Covenant, ordered in all things, and sure: for this is all my Salvation, and all my desire, although He make it not to grow. (The last phrase should be translated, "Shall He not make it to grow?" In the statement of this Fifth Verse, the Holy Spirit through David says that even though David had failed in realizing the better purposes of his heart, still, it was God's good pleasure that the Covenant, despite personal failure, will remain firm and secure. There would be born into his family the great King described in these Verses. That King would be Christ, and so it was!)

6 But the sons of Belial shall be all of them as thorns thrust away, because they cannot be taken with hands ("Belial" means "worthless," and, in this case, "vicious worthlessness"; it is from this worthlessness that opposition arises; it cannot be defeated by man's ability, but only by the Lord)**:

7 But the man who shall touch them must be fenced with iron and the staff of a spear; and they shall be utterly burned with fire in the same place (in other words, there is no way that man, with his limited power, can overcome the powers of darkness; he can only win the victory by being "fenced with iron," which speaks of the Power of the Holy Spirit, which will burn out the dross in our lives with unquenchable fire [Mat. 3:11]; God's Prescribed Order of Victory is Christ and the Cross, with the Cross ever being the Object of our Faith, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work within our lives, bringing about the desired results [I Cor. 1:17-18, 21, 23; 2:2; Gal. 6:14; Col. 2:14-15]).

DAVID'S MIGHTY MEN

8 These be the names of the mighty men whom David had (it must be understood that they were "mighty" because of being with David): The Tachmonite who sat in the seat, chief among the Captains; the same was Adino the Eznite: he lift up his spear against eight hundred, whom he killed at one time. (Humanly possible? No! But with God, all things are possible. The Holy Spirit gave this man amazing power, in order for him to accomplish this feat against God's enemies. The enemies of our soul must be killed. No compromise can be entertained.)

9 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philistines who were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel were gone away (Israel was being defeated, and its soldiers were fleeing)**:

10 He arose, and smote the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave unto the sword: and the LORD wrought a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to spoil. (One man stemmed the tide, one man who had Faith. Eleazar refused to run, but rather "arose and began to smite the Philistines," and did so to such an extent that, when it was all over and with the battle won, others had to pry his fingers loose from the sword. God give us men and women who will be as tenacious for the Lord presently as was Eleazar then!)

11 And after him was Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered together into a troop, where was a piece of ground full of lentiles (a pea patch): and the people fled from the Philistines. (Israel would plant her crops, and then, as here, when they were ready to be harvested, the Philistines would swoop down and take it all. This is so indicative of so many modern Christians. We work and labor, and then allow Satan to take the harvest.)

12 But he stood in the midst of the ground, and defended it, and killed the Philistines: and the LORD wrought a great victory. (In effect, Shammah said, "Even though all of the other Israelites have fled, I will stand my ground and defend what is rightly mine." The Lord gave him special strength and, thereby, a great victory was won. We must learn two things from this:

1. Faith does not go into action until we put it into action; and, 2. You've got to tell the Devil, "I've left this pea patch my last time!")

13 And three of the thirty chief went down, and came to David in the harvest time unto the cave of Adullam: and the troop of the Philistines pitched in the valley of Rephaim.

[14] And David was then in an hold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Beth-lehem (this was before David became king).

[15] And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the gate! (David was a Type of Christ. God help us to be so close to the Heart of Christ that we can hear His Sigh regarding the great needs of those in other parts of the world, who desperately need to be touched with the "Water of Life.")

[16] And the three mighty men broke through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: nevertheless he would not drink thereof, but poured it out unto the LORD (all Drink Offerings poured out before the Lord in Old Testament times pictured Christ pouring out Himself for the sin of mankind, which He did at Calvary's Cross).

[17] And he said, Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this: is not this the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty men (the Holy Spirit called them "mighty"; how many is He referring to as such presently?).

[18] And Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief among three. And he lifted up his spear against three hundred, and killed them, and had the name among three (in this Verse, Joab is only mentioned as "the brother of Abishai," not as one of David's mighty men).

[19] Was he not most honourable of three? therefore he was their Captain: howbeit he attained not unto the first three (the first three were Adino, Eleazar, and Shammah).

[20] And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man, of Kabzeel, who had done many acts, he killed two lionlike men of Moab: he went down also and killed a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow (he was a very important person throughout David's reign, being commander of the bodyguard [8:18], and General of the third brigade of 24,000 men [I Chron. 27:5]):

21 And he killed an Egyptian, a goodly man: and the Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.

22 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among three mighty men (they were "mighty" because the Lord was with them).

23 He was more honourable than the thirty, but he attained not to the first three. And David set him over his guard (as stated, he was the head of the bodyguard of David).

24 Asahel the brother of Joab was one of the thirty; Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem (this man was killed by Abner [2:18-23]),

25 Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite,

26 Helez the Paltite, Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite,

27 Abiezer the Anethothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite,

28 Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite,

29 Heleb the son of Baanah, a Netophathite, Ittai the son of Ribai out of Gibeah of the Children of Benjamin,

30 Benaiah the Pirathonite, Hiddai of the brooks of Gaash,

31 Abi-albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite,

32 Eliahba the Shaalbonite, of the sons of Jashen, Jonathan,

33 Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sharar the Hararite,

34 Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai, the son of the Maachathite, Eliam the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite,

35 Hezrai the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite,

36 Igal the son of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite,

37 Zelek the Ammonite, Nahari the Beerothite, armourbearer to Joab the son of Zeruiah,

38 Ira an Ithrite, Gareb an Ithrite,

39 Uriah the Hittite: thirty and seven in all. (Verses 24-39 record other mighty men. All of these typify that records are kept in the portals of Glory concerning the acts of Faith of every Child of God. What does the record show concerning you and me?)

CHAPTER 24

DAVID'S SIN IN TAKING A NATIONAL CENSUS IN AN UNSCRIPTURAL WAY

1 And again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and He moved David against them to say, Go, number Israel and Judah. (The word "again" signals the fact that the Lord had been angry with Israel many times before. I Chron., Chpt. 21 says, "And Satan... provoked David to number Israel." There is no contradiction. While Satan did this, it was the Lord Who allowed it to be done. Why?

The evidence seems to be that both David and Israel had grown prideful in the power of the Nation, seemingly forgetting that it was the Lord Who gave all of this.)

2 For the king said to Joab the Captain of the host, which was with him, Go now through all the Tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, and number you the people, that I may know the number of the people. (The taking of the census was not unlawful or displeasing to God; however, the reason it was taken, and the neglect of the Word of God, is what made it so sinful. When a census was taken, a half-shekel of silver, with silver being a token of Redemption, was to be paid for each man numbered [Ex. 30:11-16]. This portrayed the fact that Israel's blessing and prosperity were anchored solely in the shed blood of the lamb. This is the reason that all were to pay the same amount alike. In the matter of Atonement, all worshippers stood on one common ground — the slain lamb. David ignored this extremely important Command of the Lord.)

3 And Joab said unto the king, Now the LORD your God add unto the people, how many soever they be, an hundredfold, and that the eyes of my lord the king may see it: but why does my lord the king delight in this thing? (It is easy to detect the "flesh" in another, and so Joab, a man of the world, readily recognized the folly of David. David's action ministered only to his self-importance, for he said in Verse 2, "that I may know.")

4 Notwithstanding the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the Captains of the host. And Joab and the Captains of the host went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel. (Other than Joab, the chief Officers also attempted to dissuade David, but to no avail. David had made up his mind, and would take no advice.)

5 And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in Aroer, on the right side of the city that lies in the midst of the river of Gad, and toward Jazer:

6 Then they came to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi; and they came to Dan-jaan, and about to Zidon,

7 And came to the strong hold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites: and they went out to the south of Judah, even to Beer-sheba.

8 So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 And Joab gave up the sum of the number of the people unto the king: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men (portrays the fact as to how strong the Tribe of Judah actually was).

DAVID'S REPENTANCE

10 And David's heart smote him after that he had numbered the people (one of the chief Operations of the Holy Spirit is to smite with conviction when sin has been committed; the modern Church is trying to eliminate this capacity of the Holy Spirit; however, to eliminate any part of His Work is to eliminate Him altogether; He will not function with half measures). And David said unto the LORD, I have sinned greatly in that I have done (to be forgiven of sin, one has to admit that one has sinned, and do so to the Lord [I Jn. 1:9]): and now, I beseech you, O LORD, take away the iniquity of Your Servant (the Lord Alone can take away our iniquity; and He does such by virtue of Christ and what He has done at the Cross; the Cross is the only answer for sin, which was typified by the Altar of the Tabernacle [Heb. 10:12-14]); for I have done very foolishly (sin makes fools, even out of the wisest and most brilliant of men).

11 For when David was up in the morning, the Word of the LORD came unto the Prophet Gad, David's Seer, saying (the Ministry of the Prophet is to call the nation and, in this case, the king, to Righteousness; while the Prophet at times foretells, the greater part of his or her Ministry is to call the nation and the Church to Repentance; most of all, the Prophet is a Preacher of Righteousness [Mat. 3:1-12]),

DAVID CHOOSES HIS PUNISHMENT

12 Go and say unto David, Thus says the LORD, I offer you three things; choose you one of them, that I may do it unto you (there is always a penalty to sin; even though the Lord forgives and cleanses, there is still a penalty; however, it is the Lord Alone Who stipulates and carries out the penalty, and not man).

13 So Gad came to David, and told him, and said unto him, Shall seven years of famine come unto you in your land? or will you flee three months before your enemies, while they pursue you? or that there be three days' pestilence in your land? now advise, and see what answer I shall return to Him Who sent me.

14 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait (sin always puts an individual in a great strait): let us fall now into the Hand of the LORD; for His Mercies are great: and let me not fall into the hand of man (man shows little mercy, and religious man none at all).

THE PLAGUE

15 So the LORD sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning even to the time appointed (three days and nights): and there died of the people from Dan even to Beer-sheba seventy thousand men. (This is a staggering number of men to have died in so short a time. This tells us of the awfulness of sin! It might be shocking to realize that wars, pestilence, earthquakes, famine, etc., which presently plague parts of the Earth, follow in the same train of that which happened to Israel of so long ago.)

DAVID PRAYS FOR MERCY

16 And when the Angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it (who instigated the plague as well), the LORD repented Him of the evil (the Repentance of the Lord is not the same as that of man; man repents of sin; God merely changes His Direction, because of certain actions on Earth), and said to the Angel that destroyed the people, It is enough: stay now your hand. And the Angel of the LORD was by the threshingplace of Araunah the Jebusite (actually, this would be the very spot where the great Temple would be built by Solomon).

17 And David spoke unto the LORD when he saw the Angel who smote the people, and said, Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly: but these sheep (speaking of Israel), what have they done? let Your hand, I pray You, be against me, and against my father's house (this was true intercession on the part of David).

THE PLAGUE IS STAYED

18 And Gad came that day to David, and said unto him, Go up, rear an Altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Araunah the Jebusite (the only answer for sin, and I mean the only answer, is the "Altar," i.e., "the Cross," of which the Altar was a Type).

19 And David, according to the saying of Gad, went up as the LORD commanded.

20 And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him: and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king on his face upon the ground (Araunah was a Jebusite and, in fact, condemned to death; his life was spared by the mercy of David).

[21] And Araunah said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, To buy the threshingfloor of you, to build an Altar unto the LORD, that the plague may be stayed from the people.

[22] And Araunah said unto David, Let my lord the king take and offer up what seems good unto him: behold, here be oxen for burnt sacrifice, and threshing instruments and other instruments of the oxen for wood (evidently, Araunah knew some things about the Sacrificial System of Israel, even though he was a heathen).

[23] All these things did Araunah, as a king, give unto the king. And Araunah said unto the king, The LORD your God accept you (in his own words, he was praying that the Lord would accept the Sacrifice).

[24] And the king said unto Araunah, No; but I will surely buy it of you at a price: neither will I offer Burnt Offerings unto the LORD my God of that which does cost me nothing. So David bought the threshingfloor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver (all of this tells us that everything we offer to the Lord must be offered on the basis of the Lord Jesus Christ, and what He did for us at the Cross; otherwise, we are attempting to offer to God that which costs nothing, and which God will never accept).

[25] And David built there an Altar unto the LORD, and offered Burnt Offerings and Peace Offerings. So the LORD was intreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel. (There is a "plague" called "sin" that is destroying this world, and causing multiple hundreds of millions to be eternally lost. There is only one cure for that plague, and that is the precious, atoning, Vicarious Offering of the Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ, which was done at the Cross, and our acceptance of Him. All the Churches in the world will never stay the "plague." All the good works, good intentions, money, religion, prestige, or education will not stop this plague of sin. Only the precious Blood of Jesus Christ can, here symbolized by the "Altar.")

CHAPTER 1

DAVID'S LAST DAYS

[1] Now king David was old and stricken in years (at this time, David was either 69 or 70 years old); and they covered him with clothes, but he got no heat (the first king of Israel, Saul, is not once mentioned in I Kings or II Kings; it is as if he never existed, because Saul was the people's choice, while David was God's choice).

[2] Wherefore his servants said unto him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin: and let her stand before the king, and let her cherish him, and let her lie in your bosom, that my lord the king may get heat (a common experience of the aged; David's early hardships and later sorrows and anxieties appear to have aged him prematurely; as well, what was suggested was somewhat common in those days; nothing sexual is intimated).

[3] So they sought for a fair damsel throughout all the coasts of Israel, and found Abishag a Shunammite, and brought her to the king.

[4] And the damsel was very fair, and cherished the king, and ministered to him: but the king knew her not (had no intimate relations with her).

ADONIJAH PLOTS TO BE KING

[5] Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be king: and he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him. (This is the fourth son of David, and now apparently the oldest surviving son. Adonijah, Joab the military leader, and Abiathar the High Priest would set up their kingdom in opposition to God's elect king. God had no place in their hearts, and so Solomon did not suit them either. In fact, God's choice never does suit man. This unholy triumvirate is a type of that which controls so much of the Church world presently.)

6 And his father had not displeased him at any time in saying, Why have you done so? and he also was a very goodly man; and his mother bore him after Absalom (as well, he had the Absalom spirit).

7 And he conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the Priest: and they following Adonijah helped him. (Abiathar had been very close to David; so, he must have chafed at sharing the Priesthood with Zadok, and now makes his move to gain the number one spot all to himself. Such an attitude has no regard for the Will of God or the Call of God. Unfortunately, the modern Church is full of these "religious leaders.")

8 But Zadok the Priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the Prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men which belonged to David, were not with Adonijah (the Holy Spirit is quick to point out these individuals who placed no stock in Adonijah, even though he was the eldest son, but rather waited on the Lord).

9 And Adonijah slew sheep and oxen and fat cattle by the stone of Zoheleth, which is by En-rogel, and called all his brethren the king's sons, and all the men of Judah the king's servants (even though sacrifices were offered, which gave it a religious leaning, still, for Adonijah to be king was not the Will of God; in fact, had he gained the throne, it would have destroyed Israel, as all such usurpation "steals, kills, and destroys," because it is of Satan [Jn. 10:10]):

NATHAN WARNS BATH-SHEBA ABOUT ADONIJAH

10 But Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother he called not (it is clear from this Verse that Adonijah perfectly understood that he had in Solomon a rival; the word had no doubt gotten around that it was the Will of God that Solomon succeed David).

11 Wherefore Nathan spoke unto Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith does reign, and David our lord knows it not? (In other words, David has had nothing to do with the aspirations of Adonijah, proving that they were not of the Lord.)

[12] Now therefore come, let me, I pray you, give you counsel, that you may save your own life and the life of your son Solomon. (The idea is, these men would go to any lengths to secure their positions, even to killing Bath-sheba and Solomon, and anyone else, for that matter, who would seem to stand in their way. Such is the way and world of religion.)

[13] Go and get thee in unto king David, and say unto him, Did not you, my lord, O king, swear unto your handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? why then does Adonijah reign? (This oath of David to Bath-sheba is not elsewhere recorded, but it was evidently well known to Nathan, and, no doubt, to others as well.)

[14] Behold, while you yet talked there with the king, I also will come in after you, and confirm your words (the meaning is not to amplify, but rather to corroborate).

BATH-SHEBA ASKS DAVID TO CROWN SOLOMON KING

[15] And Bath-sheba went in unto the king into the chamber: and the king was very old (here the word refers to feebleness rather than age); and Abishag the Shunammite ministered unto the king (introduced to show the king's helplessness).

[16] And Bath-sheba bowed, and did obeisance unto the king. And the king said, What would you? (It rather means, "What do you want?" or "What is your business?")

[17] And she said unto him, My lord, you swore by the LORD your God unto your handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne.

18 And now, behold, Adonijah reigns; and now, my lord the king, you know it not (I know that you didn't have anything to do with this concerning Adonijah):

19 And he has killed oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and has called all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the Priest, and Joab the captain of the host: but Solomon your servant has he not called. (She says it in this manner to prove there was a plot. Spence says, "It showed the cloven foot.")

20 And you, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are upon you, that you should tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him (it is certain that all of Israel was indeed abuzz about this).

21 Otherwise it shall come to pass, when my lord the king shall sleep with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted offenders (in other words, we will be killed).

NATHAN SUPPORTS THE PLEA OF BATH-SHEBA

22 And, lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the Prophet also came in.

23 And they told the king, saying, Behold Nathan the Prophet. And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground.

24 And Nathan said, My lord, O king, have you said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? (Nathan puts it thus forcibly, in order to draw from the king a disclaimer.)

25 For he is gone down this day, and has slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and has called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the Priest; and, behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, God save king Adonijah (put to him in this manner, David will now have to take action).

26 But me, even me your servant, and Zadok the Priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon, has he not called (this speaks volumes!).

27 Is this thing done by my lord the king, and you have not showed it unto your servant, who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him? (The repetition is well calculated to impress upon the king the importance of nominating a successor at once.)

DAVID'S OATH TO BATH-SHEBA

28 Then king David answered and said, Call me Bath-sheba. And she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king (Bath-sheba had evidently left the chamber when Nathan came in; she now joins Nathan before David).

29 And the king swore, and said, As the LORD lives, Who has redeemed my soul out of all distress (in essence, David uses the term, "by the life of Jehovah," which gives his statement about to be uttered great force), 30 Even as I swore unto you (Bath-sheba) by the LORD God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; even so will I certainly do this day.

31 Then Bath-sheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to the king, and said, Let my lord king David live forever.

DAVID INSTRUCTS ZADOK AND NATHAN

32 And king David said, Call me Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the king (the order of the names marks the position of the persons with respect to the matter at hand).

33 The king also said unto them, Take with you the servants of your lord (these were the Cherethites and Pelethites, about 600 men, a formidable force, to say the least), and cause Solomon my son to ride upon my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon (the riding of David's mule was not merely a mark of honor, but a public and very significant indication of David's will respecting his successor; the populace would perceive at once who was destined to sit in David's seat; actually, it was death to ride on the king's mule without his permission):

34 And let Zadok the Priest and Nathan the Prophet anoint him there king over Israel (the "anointing," and especially considering that it was done by Zadok the High Priest and Nathan the Prophet, signified the spiritual aspect of the office of King over Israel; in fact, this was the single most important position on the face of the Earth; through this family would come the Messiah, the King of kings and Lord of lords, the Lord Jesus Christ): and blow ye with the trumpet (signifying the proclamation of a new king), and say, God save king Solomon (which chant was expected to be picked up by all the people of Israel).

35 Then you shall come up after him, that he may come and sit upon my throne (in every possible way, his accession was to be proclaimed and confirmed); for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah ("he" and "him" are emphasized in the original Hebrew Text).

36 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, Amen: the LORD God of my lord the king say so too (Benaiah is saying, in effect, "This is of the Lord").

37 As the LORD has been with my lord the king, even so be He with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David (this was said from a full and honest heart, not to flatter David's vanity; it is thoroughly characteristic of Benaiah, so far as we know him; and the prayer was fulfilled).

SOLOMON ANOINTED KING

38 So Zadok the Priest (High Priest), and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites

(these latter two groups had the military might to back up whatever was done; they were David's royal bodyguard, consisting of sizable forces), went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and brought him to Gihon (considering this crack special guard accompanying Solomon, this must have been quite a procession).

[39] And Zadok the Priest took an horn of oil out of the Tabernacle, and anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and all the people said, God save king Solomon (this was the "holy anointing oil" [Ex. 30:25, 31]; they fulfilled exactly what David had told them to do; Solomon was confirmed in his office and, as well, by the approval of the people).

[40] And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the Earth rent with the sound of them (there was great joy in Jerusalem).

ADONIJAH'S SUBMISSION TO SOLOMON

[41] And Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating (celebrating, they thought, their new position). And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, Wherefore is this noise of the city being in an uproar? (Joab seems at once to have suspected the significance of the blowing of the trumpet.)

[42] And while he yet spoke, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the Priest came: and Adonijah said unto him, Come in; for you are a valiant man, and bring good tidings (Adonijah's misgivings reveal themselves in these words; he fears the worst, but strives to put on a cheerful face, and to encourage his guests — Spence).

[43] And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, Verily our lord king David has made Solomon king.

[44] And the king has sent with him Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule:

45 And Zadok the Priest and Nathan the Prophet have anointed him king in Gihon: and they are come up from thence rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise that you have heard.

46 And also Solomon sits on the throne of the kingdom.

47 And moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, God make the name of Solomon better than your name, and make his throne greater than your throne. And the king bowed himself upon the bed (bowed himself in worship of the Lord, because he knows that he has just carried out the Will of God).

48 And also thus said the king, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which has given one to sit on my throne this day, my eyes even seeing it (this is exceptional, because most kings die before they are succeeded by others).

49 And all the guests who were with Adonijah were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his way (this fear and flight betray a consciousness of guilt).

50 And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and arose, and went, and caught hold on the horns of the Altar (by "laying hold of the horns," the offender, thereby, placed himself under the protection of the Saving and Helping Grace of God, at least if it was agreed to by the authorities).

51 And it was told Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah fears king Solomon: for, lo, he has caught hold on the horns of the Altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear unto me to day that he will not slay his servant with the sword (by Adonijah referring to Solomon as the king, it is a virtual abdication of his claim to the throne, and a direct acknowledgment of the new Monarch; in this statement, Adonijah indirectly confesses that he has merited death).

52 And Solomon said, If he will show himself a worthy man, there shall not an hair of him fall to the earth: but if wickedness shall be found in him, he shall die.

53 So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the Altar. And he came and bowed himself to king Solomon: and Solomon said unto him, Go to your house (this was not a sentence of banishment from the Court, but merely a dismissal to a private life, involving a tacit admonition to live quietly and be thankful that his life was spared him — Spence).

CHAPTER 2

(1014 B.C.)

DAVID'S CHARGE TO SOLOMON

[1] Now the days of David drew near that he should die; and he charged Solomon his son, saying (how long David lived after making Solomon king is not stated, but it was probably only a few months),

[2] I go the way of all the Earth: be thou strong therefore, and show yourself a man (David's charge was not that of a revengeful private person, but rather the judicial act of a Chief Magistrate conscious of his responsibility when handing over his office to his successor);

[3] And keep the charge of the LORD your God, to walk in His Ways, to keep His Statutes, and His Commandments, and His Judgments, and His Testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do, and whithersoever you turn yourself (David points out to Solomon that success lay only in close adherence and full subjection to the written Word of God; it has not changed from then until now):

[4] That the LORD may continue His Word which He spoke concerning me, saying, If your children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail thee (said He) a man on the throne of Israel (in effect, David is saying that whoever sits on the throne of Israel must adhere strictly to the Word of God, hence, him giving this great charge in the previous Verse).

[5] Moreover you know also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, and what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, unto Abner the son of Ner, and unto Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet (David is proclaiming the fact that Joab is a murderer, meaning that he was stained with innocent blood, blood which cried to Heaven for vengeance [Gen. 4:10]).

6 Do therefore according to your wisdom, and let not his hoar head go down to the grave in peace (the Lord had no doubt told David what was to be done, as it regards Joab).

7 But show kindness unto the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those who eat at your table: for so they came to me when I fled because of Absalom your brother (as the Holy Spirit gave directions of Judgment concerning Joab, as well, He gives directions of Blessing concerning the sons of Barzillai; the old man had helped David when David was in dire straits; David never forgot it, telling us that the Holy Spirit never forgets anything, good or bad, with the exception of sins that are washed by the Blood of the Lamb).

8 And, behold, you have with you Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite of Bahurim, which cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I swore to him by the LORD, saying, I will not put you to death with the sword.

9 Now therefore hold him not guiltless: for you are a wise man, and know what you ought to do unto him; but his hoar head you bring down to the grave with blood (David's words were not inspired by malice or cruelty, but rather for the sake of the Kingdom of God; these men so named in judgment had no regard for God, or the Ways of the Lord; so they had to be dealt with, or they would cause grievous problems shortly!).

THE DEATH OF DAVID

10 So David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David. (And so died one of the greatest men of God who ever lived. David wrote over half of the Psalms. In some ways, he filled the Offices of Prophet, Priest, and King. He was a Type of Christ, and his successor would ultimately be called "The Son of David," and then "King of kings and Lord of lords." Despite the sins, faults, and failures, his heart was ever after

God.

His name is the first human name in the New Testament [Mat. 1:1] and the last human name in the New Testament [Rev. 22:16]. During the great Kingdom Age to come under the Lord Jesus Christ, David will once again rule Israel in all her glory, fulfilling the great Prophecies that were given to him by Nathan the Prophet.)

11 And the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years: seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem (in the coming Kingdom Age, under Christ, he will reign in Jerusalem for a thousand years).

12 Then sat Solomon upon the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was established greatly. (As David was a Type of Christ Who brought Salvation to Israel and the world, likewise, Solomon is a Type of Christ Who will reign over an established kingdom, with all enemies defeated, in what is known as the "Kingdom Age," or the "Millennial Reign." However, it must ever be remembered that David and Solomon were but Types, and poor, frail, human Types at that, who ultimately always fail; nevertheless, the One to Whom they pointed, the Lord Jesus Christ, has never failed and, in fact, will never fail.

Solomon was perhaps about 20 years of age when he took the throne.)

ADONIJAH IS EXECUTED

13 And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, Do you come peaceably? And he said, Peaceably (foiled in his purpose to mount the throne by direct means, Adonijah and his advisors had recourse to intrigue and subtlety; by the aid of Abishag, he hopes to accomplish what his chariots and horsemen had failed to effect).

14 He said moreover, I have somewhat to say unto you. And she said, Say on.

15 And he said, You know that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's: for it was his from the LORD (the "me" is emphatic by its position; so is the "mine" used just before; in fact, these statements were not correct; anyway, this Verse shows that Adonijah had not renounced his pretensions to the throne; if he couldn't get it one way, he will try another; his stating that the throne was Solomon's, "from the LORD," was stated only to placate Bath-sheba; in fact, he believed no such thing).

16 And now I ask one petition of you, deny me not. And she said unto him, Say on.

17 And he said, Speak, I pray you, unto Solomon the king, (for he will not say you nay,) that he give me Abishag the Shunammite to wife (as husband of the late Monarch's widow, Abishag, and as the older brother, Adonijah could dispute the throne with Solomon; his asking for Abishag revealed his purpose and manifested his treason; it is amazing that Bath-sheba did not seem to be aware of these implications!).

18 And Bath-sheba said, Well; I will speak for you unto the king.

19 Bath-sheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand.

20 Then she said, I desire one small petition of you; I pray you, say me not nay. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother: for I will not say no to you.

21 And she said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother to wife (possibly she thought that she held the threads of a love story in her hands, that it would be a small thing for Solomon to make these handsome lovers happy; she seemed to be ignorant of Adonijah's real motives).

22 And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom also; for he is my elder brother; even for him, and for Abiathar the Priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah. (Immediately, Solomon saw through the scheme, and that Abiathar and Joab were complices in this high treason — for that's what it was! For one to marry the wife of a former king gave such a person a claim to the throne, and this is exactly what Adonijah was attempting to do.)

[23] Then king Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah have not spoken this word against his own life.

[24] Now therefore, as the LORD lives, which has established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and Who has made me an house, as He promised, Adonijah shall be put to death this day.

[25] And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him that he died (this was right and just in the Eyes of God; had Adonijah had his way, which incidentally was inspired by Satan, he would have taken over the throne, killed Solomon, who was God's choice and, as well, would have killed Bath-sheba and all others around the throne; Israel would have quickly become a Hell).

ABIATHAR IS REMOVED FROM THE PRIESTHOOD

[26] And unto Abiathar the Priest said the king, You get to Anathoth, unto your own fields; for you are worthy of death: but I will not at this time put you to death, because you did bear the Ark of the Lord GOD before David my father, and because you have been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted.

[27] So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being Priest unto the LORD; that he might fulfill the Word of the LORD, which he spoke concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh (this removal of Abiathar from the Priesthood was a definite fulfillment of the cutting off of the house of Eli; here we have the fulfillment of God's rejection of the house of Ithamar [I Chron. 24:3], to which Eli belonged, and the reestablishment of the High Priesthood in the line of Eleazar, which had long before been predicted [I Sam. 2:31-35]).

JOAB IS EXECUTED

28 Then tidings came to Joab: for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after Absalom. And Joab fled unto the Tabernacle of the LORD, and caught hold on the horns of the Altar (his action is almost certain evidence of his guilt; it is thought that Joab had suggested to Adonijah the plan of marriage with Abishag).

29 And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled unto the Tabernacle of the LORD; and, behold, he is by the Altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall upon him.

30 And Benaiah came to the Tabernacle of the LORD, and said unto him, Thus says the king, Come forth. And he said, No; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me. (Joab had had the privilege of being associated, and very closely, with the greatest man of God in the world of that day, David. In a sense, he was "in" the Church, but not "of" the Church, exactly as are millions presently. He knew of David's God, but he did not really know David's God. He knew the way, but he didn't want to walk in the way. So, at the last moment, he seems to have put his hope in the Altar, i.e., the Cross. Whether it was superstition or sincerity, the Judgment Day alone will tell. I pray that it was sincerity.)

31 And the king said unto him, Do as he has said, and fall upon him, and bury him; that you may take away the innocent blood, which Joab shed, from me, and from the house of my father (Solomon evidently believed that the guilt of blood regarding Joab was upon him and his house so long as Abner's and Amasa's blood remained unavenged; the truth is, Jewish Law imperatively demanded the death of Joab, and to spare him was to violate all law and to imperil the throne and the people).

32 And the LORD shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing thereof, to wit, Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah (Solomon thinks of the unjust suspicions which these crimes cast upon his father).

33 Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from the LORD (had there been true Repentance on the part of Joab those years earlier, Mercy would have been shown to him, exactly as it had been shown to David regarding his murder of Uriah; however, there was no Repentance on the part of Joab, so the Law must take its course).

34 So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and killed him: and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness (and so died Joab, not in battle fighting the enemies of the Lord, but as a traitor to his king and his Lord).

35 And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host: and Zadok the Priest did the king put in the room of Abiathar.

SHIMEI IS EXECUTED

36 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any whither (where he could be under surveillance and where his sinister influence with the men of Benjamin would be neutralized).

37 For it shall be, that on the day you go out, and pass over the brook Kidron, you shall know for certain that you shall surely die: your blood shall be upon your own head (Shimei could not say that he had not been sufficiently warned).

38 And Shimei said unto the king, The saying is good: as my lord the king has said, so will your servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

39 And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto Achish son of Maachah king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, Behold, your servants be in Gath.

40 And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath (he went to Gath with his eyes open, and nothing but a great provocation, such as mockery and defiance, will account for his going).

41 And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again (evidently, Solomon had Shimei under surveillance).

42 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make you to swear by the LORD, and protested unto you, saying, Know for a certain, on the day you go out, and walk abroad any whither, that you shall surely die? and you said unto me, The word that I have heard is good.

43 Why then have you not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I have charged you with? (It would seem, concerning what had happened to Adonijah and Joab, that Shimei should have reckoned that Solomon meant what he said; but evidently his arrogance caused him to think otherwise.)

44 The king said moreover to Shimei, You knew all the wickedness which your heart is privy to, that you did to David my father: therefore the LORD shall return your wickedness upon your own head (according to these words, Solomon is carrying out the Word of the Lord in pronouncing death upon Shimei);

45 And king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever (it is inconceivable that Solomon could have spoken thus if he had been conscious either of sharp practice, spite, or cruelty; the words are those of one who is sure that he is doing God service — Spence).

46 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; which went out, and fell upon him, that he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon. (This Verse proclaims the approval by the Holy Spirit of Solomon's actions regarding "Joab, Abiathar, and Shimei," for it says, "And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.")

CHAPTER 3

SOLOMON MARRIES PHARAOH'S DAUGHTER

[1] And Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt (even though this was not an "alliance," but rather a relationship, still, Solomon broke the Law of God, which forbade making alliances and intermarrying with foreign nations, lest they should lead the hearts of Israel away from Jehovah to other gods [Ex. 34:16; Deut. 7:3-4]; we do not find the Lord rebuking him in this Chapter, even though the Holy Spirit did record the event; nevertheless, it was unlawful; we find it referred to elsewhere as his folly [11:1-9]), and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the city of David (even though Solomon was not reprimanded now by the Lord, still, what he did was wrong; the worst thing that can happen to a Believer is for the Believer to succeed in his wrongdoing, even as Solomon did here; in such a case, success is taken for approval; but disobedience of the Word of God is never right, and will always ultimately lead to great trouble), until he had made an end of building his own house, and the House of the LORD, and the wall of Jerusalem round about (despite the great Work of God being done here, the Holy Spirit is, as well, showing us the seed of destruction that is being planted in its very midst, which was because of self-will on the part of Solomon; it is a warning to us not to do the same).

[2] Only the people sacrificed in high places, because there was no house built unto the Name of the LORD, until those days. (This seems to be more a statement of regret rather than censure. It introduces a contrast by the writer, seeming to say that this was a blight on the flourishing condition of the Nation. The Law of God did not necessarily condemn a high place, but the wrong use of one for idolatry. All high places used for idolatry were to be destroyed [Deut. 12:2]. In effect, these high places, mentioned here by the Holy Spirit, although now used for the worship of God, would later lead to idolatry.)

SOLOMON ASKS FOR WISDOM

3 And Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the Statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt Incense in high places (the "high places" seemed to be an ignorance that God winked at, at least at this time).

4 And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the great high place: a thousand Burnt Offerings did Solomon offer upon that Altar. (Gibeon was about 4 miles from Jerusalem. The Tabernacle Moses made was located here [II Chron. 1:3-4]. There was, as well, another Tabernacle in Jerusalem [3:15], which housed the Ark of the Covenant. So, Verses 2 and 4 suggest that there were, contrary to the Law, divided places of worship in Israel.

In all of this, we learn of the frailty of the human family and the glory of the Grace of God. The Holy Spirit is ever seeking to lead the individual into that which is totally God's Way. God starts with imperfect people and concludes with imperfect people. He looks for a yielding, obedient heart.

To offer a thousand animals in sacrifice portrayed, at that time, that Solomon understood that the prosperity, strength, and veracity of Israel were all based on the shed Blood of the Lamb.)

5 In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give you. (The offering up of the sacrifices probably took several days and, at the end of their being offered, the Lord appeared to Solomon. So we might say that this which followed was based strictly upon the Cross of Christ.)

6 And Solomon said, You have showed unto Your Servant David my father great Mercy, according as he walked before You in Truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with You; and You have kept for him this great kindness, that You have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

7 And now, O LORD my God, You have made Your Servant king instead of David my father: and I am but a little child: I know not how to go out or come in (Solomon was about 20 years old at the time).

[8] And Your Servant is in the midst of Your People which You have chosen, a great people, who cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude.

[9] Give therefore Your Servant an understanding heart to judge Your People, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this Your so great a people? (In effect, Solomon asks for wisdom!)

SOLOMON GETS WISDOM AND RICHES

[10] And the speech pleased the LORD that Solomon had asked this thing (some claim that he should have asked for this or that, etc., but the Scripture says that this for which Solomon asked "pleased the Lord"; if it pleased the Lord, it certainly should please us).

[11] And God said unto him, Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked for yourself long life; neither have asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the life of your enemies (destruction of enemies in battle); but have asked for yourself understanding to discern judgment;

[12] Behold, I have done according to your words: lo, I have given you a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like you before you, neither after you shall any arise like unto you (referring to the degree of wisdom given to Solomon by the Lord).

[13] And I have also given you that which you have not asked, both riches, and honour: so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto you all your days (during the time of Solomon, Israel was the most powerful Nation on the face of the Earth, and was that because of the Blessings of the Lord upon Solomon).

[14] And if you will walk in My Ways, to keep My Statutes and My Commandments, as your father David did walk, then I will lengthen your days (regrettably and sadly, Solomon did not do this, and died at 60 years old).

15 And Solomon awoke; and, behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD, and offered up Burnt Offerings, and offered Peace Offerings, and made a feast to all his servants. (This means there must have been another Brazen Altar at the Tabernacle in Jerusalem, as there was at Gibeon. If this was so, then it was not according to the Commandment of the Lord. It would not be rectified until some years later, when the Temple would be completed.)

WISDOM

16 Then came there two women, who were harlots, unto the king, and stood before him (I think the reason the Holy Spirit placed the account of two women who were harlots into the Sacred Text is to portray the fact that justice was equal for all in the reign of Solomon, typifying that that's the way it ought to be).

17 And the one woman said, O my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house.

18 And it came to pass the third day after that I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also: and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, save we two in the house.

19 And this woman's child died in the night; because she overlaid it.

20 And she arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while your handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom.

21 And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead: but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, which I did bear.

22 And the other woman said, No; but the living is my son, and the dead is your son. And this said, No; but the dead is your son, and the living is my son. Thus they spoke before the king.

23 Then said the king, The one says, This is my son who lives, and your son is the dead: and the other says, No; but your son is the dead, and my son is the living.

24 And the king said, Bring me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king (I wonder what the thoughts were of the many who, no doubt, were present that day, when the king asked for a sword?).

25 And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other.

26 Then spoke the woman whose the living child was unto the king, for her bowels yearned upon her son, and she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise kill it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it.

27 Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she is the mother thereof.

28 And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that the Wisdom of God was in him, to do judgment.

CHAPTER 4

SOLOMON'S OFFICERS

[1] So king Solomon was king over all Israel. (Verses 2-19 give his principal officers. It seems their appointment was made according to Solomon's great wisdom, which, in effect, was an appointment by the Holy Spirit. Had the "work of the flesh" of Chapter 2 prevailed concerning "Adonijah" and "Joab," with "Abiathar," tyrants would now have ruled Israel, making life utterly miserable for the whole kingdom.)

[2] And these were the Princes which he had; Azariah the son of Zadok the Priest (Zadok was the High Priest, with many other Priests under him)**,

[3] Elihoreph and Ahiah, the sons of Shisha, Scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the recorder (Jehoshaphat held the same office under David, and is mentioned in all three lists [II Sam. 8:16-17; 20:24-25; I Chron. 18:15]).

[4] And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the host: and Zadok and Abiathar were the Priests (Abiathar is probably mentioned here simply because he had been High Priest along with Zadok for a short period of time when Solomon first came to power; there is no record that he was restored)**:

[5] And Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers: and Zabud the son of Nathan was principal officer, and the king's friend (the "Nathan" mentioned here was probably David's son and, thereby, Solomon's half-brother; if, in fact, this is the same Nathan, then Mary, the Mother of our Lord, had her lineage to David through this Nathan)**:

[6] And Ahishar was over the household: and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the tribute.

7 And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, which provided victuals for the king and his household: each man his month in a year made provision.

8 And these are their names: The son of Hur, in Mount Ephraim:

9 The son of Dekar, in Makaz, and in Shaalbim, and Beth-shemesh, and Elon-beth-hanan:

10 The son of Hesed, in Aruboth; to him pertained Sochoh, and all the land of Hepher:

11 The son of Abinadab, in all the region of Dor; which had Taphath the daughter of Solomon to wife:

12 Baana the son of Ahilud; to him pertained Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-shean, which is by Zartanah beneath Jezreel, from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah, even unto the place that is beyond Jokneam:

13 The son of Geber, in Ramoth-gilead; to him pertained the towns of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead; to him also pertained the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, threescore great cities with walls and brasen bars:

14 Ahinadab the son of Iddo had Mahanaim:

15 Ahimaaz was in Naphtali; he also took Basmath the daughter of Solomon to wife:

16 Baanah the son of Hushai was in Asher and in Aloth:

17 Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar:

18 Shimei the son of Elah, in Benjamin:

19 Geber the son of Uri was in the country of Gilead, in the country of Sihon king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan; and he was the only officer which was in the land.

SOLOMON'S DAILY PROVISION

[20] Judah and Israel were many, as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking, and making merry. (All of this resulted from the one fact that Solomon, God's choice, was king.

The destruction of the rebels and the enthronement of God's elect prince originated this universal contentment and prosperity. It is a fore-picture of the happy day that awaits the Earth, when the rebels who now govern it and fill it with misery will be overthrown, and the Prince of Peace, the greater than Solomon [Mat 12:42], will take unto Himself His great Power and reign gloriously before His ancient People, Israel.

The present miseries that oppress the nations, which they vainly try to remove by repeated efforts, will have an end whenever the Messiah returns and takes the government of this world into His Mighty Hands — Williams.)

[21] And Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from the river (the Euphrates, which would have taken in about half of present day Iraq) unto the land of the Philistines (the Mediterranean shore was the western border of his realm), and unto the border of Egypt (this was probably all the way to the Gulf of Suez, which included the entirety of the Sinai Peninsula; actually, David had conquered all of these territories, which included that promised by the Lord to Abraham [Gen. 15:18]): they brought presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life (likewise, the nations of the world will serve Christ during the coming Millennial Reign, of Whom Solomon was a Type).

[22] And Solomon's provision for one day was thirty measures of fine flour (about 6 bushels), and threescore measures of meal (about 12 bushels), [23] Ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and an hundred sheep, beside harts (deer), and roebucks, and fallowdeer, and fatted fowl.

SOLOMON'S GREATNESS AND WISDOM

[24] For he had dominion over all the region on this side the river, from Tiphsah even to Azzah, over all the kings on this side the river: and he had peace on all sides round about him. (As Solomon then had dominion, Christ will have "dominion" over the entirety of the Earth during the coming Kingdom Age. Tyrants, rebels, and despots will have no place in this coming grand and glorious Kingdom; consequently, there will be peace. In fact, there can only be peace when the Prince of Peace returns!)

[25] And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon. (Once again, this pictures the peace and prosperity which will prevail in the Earth during the reign of the Messiah. Just as surely as it was with Solomon, who was a Type of Christ, as surely it will be under Christ, and even far, far greater. For a greater than Solomon is here.)

[26] And Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen. (In the parallel Passage in Chronicles, the number is stated as four thousand. Four thousand agrees, and forty thousand does not, with the other numbers given here. Consequently, this must have been a mistake by a Scribe. The Hebrew language does not contain numbers, but rather uses letters for its numbers; and some of the letters are very nearly identical, making it easy to miscopy. At any rate, Solomon was a very rich man, in fact, the richest man on the face of the Earth of his day.)

[27] And those officers provided victual for king Solomon, and for all who came unto king Solomon's table, every man in his month: they lacked nothing (unfortunately, at the present time, millions go to bed hungry; however, let it ever be said that according to the Word of God, when Jesus Christ returns, of every nation and every person on the face of the Earth, it will be said, "They lacked nothing.")

[28] Barley also and straw for the horses and dromedaries (mules) brought they unto the place where the officers were, every man according to his charge.

29 And God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the sea shore (these different words indicate the variety and scope of his talents, which were beyond compare; in fact, and as stated, there has never been one before or after like Solomon).

30 And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the east country, and all the wisdom of Egypt (the learning of Egypt was of great repute in the Old World; Solomon exceeded that!).

31 For he was wiser than all men; than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all nations round about (typical of the fame of Christ, which will spread over the entirety of the Earth, in the coming Kingdom Age [Isa. 66:19]).

32 And he spoke three thousand proverbs: and his songs were a thousand and five (of his Proverbs, less than one-third are preserved in the Book of Proverbs; the rest are lost to us; of his songs, the only two remaining are Psalms 72 and 127; some think he may have also written Psalm 128).

33 And he spoke of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon even unto the hyssop that springs out of the wall: he spoke also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes (this means that his knowledge was not only speculative, but scientific; in his acquaintance with natural history, he outshone the Egyptians; he dealt with the least productions of nature, as well the greatest).

34 And there came of all people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the Earth, which had heard of his wisdom. (Not only was Israel greatly blessed, but every nation that took advantage of Solomon's wisdom was blessed as well. The great questions were brought to Solomon, and the answers were forthcoming, resulting in tremendous prosperity for all.

In the days of the coming Kingdom Age, when Jesus Christ rules and reigns in Jerusalem, "All kings of the Earth" will come to Him as well.)

CHAPTER 5

(1014 B.C.)

SOLOMON'S AGREEMENT WITH HIRAM

[1] And Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants unto Solomon; for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the room of his father: for Hiram was ever a lover of David. (The Hiram during the time of Solomon was the son of Hiram who reigned during the time of David. There was never a record of any type of conflict between Lebanon and Israel during the time of David or Solomon. The Hebrews were always at peace with the Phoenicians. They would now share in the great Blessing of God that would come upon Israel. "Hiram" is a type of the Gentile kings, presidents, and world leaders during the time of the Kingdom Age, who will ever be "lovers of the Lord Jesus Christ.")

[2] And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying (according to Josephus, he wrote a letter, which, together with Hiram's reply, was preserved among the public archives of Tyre)**,

[3] You know how that David my father could not build an house unto the Name of the LORD his God for the wars which were about him on every side, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet (Hiram could not fail to know this, as his relations with David had been close and intimate — Spence).

[4] But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side, so that there is neither adversary nor evil occurrent. (Since the Garden of Eden, Planet Earth has suffered and labored under the curse of sin. Satan has ruled as a "prince of the powers of the air." The results have been chaos, murder, hatred, pain, starvation, and war. When Jesus comes back, there will be "rest on every side." As well, there will be "neither adversary nor evil occurrent." Sickness, suffering, starvation, and want will no longer be.)

5 And, behold, I purpose to build an house unto the Name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spoke unto David my father, saying, Your son, whom I will set upon your throne in your room, he shall build an house unto My Name. (Spence says, "He thus gives Hiram to understand that he is carrying out his father's plans, and plans which had the Divine sanction, and that this is no fanciful project of a young prince.")

6 Now therefore command you that they hew me cedar trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with your servants: and unto you will I give hire for your servants according to all that you shall appoint (whatever their wages should be): for you know that there is not among us any who can skill to hew timber like unto the Sidonians (the Zidonians constructed their houses of wood, and were celebrated from the earliest times as skillful builders).

HIRAM REJOICES GREATLY

7 And it came to pass, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be the LORD this day, which has given unto David a wise son over this great people (from the historic accounts, there seems to be no record that Hiram had accepted Jehovah, but that he did believe that Jehovah existed, and used language here that he knew would be acceptable to Solomon; it is a shame, as so many others, he came close, but not close enough!).

8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have considered the things which you sent to me for: and I will do all your desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir (it is said that the art of writing was communicated to the Greeks by the Phoenicians).

9 My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon unto the sea; and I will convey them by sea in floats unto the place that you shall appoint me, and will cause them to be discharged there, and you shall receive them: and you shall accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household (this was no small task, conveying these huge timbers from Lebanon to Israel; this was at least one of the reasons that this Temple, which would be built by Solomon, would be the most expensive building ever constructed).

[10] So Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees and fir trees according to all his desire.

[11] And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat for food to his household (about 4,000 bushels), and twenty measures of pure oil (about 60 gallons): thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year (so long as the construction lasted, and it's possible that the agreement may have been for a still longer period).

[12] And the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him: and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they two made a league together (cut a covenant; Hiram did not have nearly the wisdom that Solomon had, but he had enough sense to look to the one who had wisdom).

[13] And king Solomon raised a levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men.

[14] And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses: a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home: and Adoniram was over the levy (not a great hardship at all!).

[15] And Solomon had threescore and ten thousand (70,000) who bore burdens, and fourscore thousand (80,000) hewers in the mountains (these 150,000 were not Israelites, but Canaanites; we learn from II Chron. 2:17-18 that "all the strangers who were in the land of Israel" were subjected to forced labor by Solomon; these occupied a very different position from that of the 30,000 Hebrews);

[16] Beside the chief of Solomon's officers which were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, which ruled over the people who wrought in the work.

[17] And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, and hewed stones, to lay the foundation of the house (it is said that the largest stone that has been found in modern Jerusalem, which may have come from the Temple of Solomon, is 38 feet, 9 inches long, and weighs a little bit over 100 tons; no doubt, there were many stones like this).

18 And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders did hew them, and the stonesquarers: so they prepared timber and stones to build the house. (Understanding that there were at least 183,300 laborers and overseers who worked on the Temple, and considering the length of time it took to build the Temple [7 years], along with the costly materials, one can understand the reason for the price tag in 2004 inflated dollars. To duplicate the Temple now, and to build it in the same manner as it was then built, using the same type of equipment, etc., the price tag would be over $1 trillion [$1,000,000,000,000].)

CHAPTER 6

(1012 B.C.)

SOLOMON BUILDS THE TEMPLE

[1] And it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the Children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Zif, which is the second month, that he began to build the House of the LORD. (The 480 year number given in the Text has been debated for many centuries. It is virtually impossible to tally up the years of the Judges, considering that the possibility exists that some of these times overlapped. I personally feel that the number "480 years" is correct as stated, but with the following variations:

This Verse illustrates the Promise that God not only forgives sin, but also forgets sin. Thus, the years of Israel's bondage to the nations are omitted. The lesson, at the same time, is taught that years or days spent in bondage to the world are forever lost. Thus, what appears to be a chronological error in the Sacred Text is found to be a designed Message of comfort and warning.

It is doubtful that the 480 years stated in the Text include the whole period of time between the Exodus and the fourth year of Solomon's reign. It really refers to the 480th year of the security of Israel as a Nation. It does not include the 40 years of Sinai and the wandering in the wilderness, the period of the conquest of Canaan and division of the land [about 10 years], or the three years of confusion under Abimelech and the 111 years of servitude during the Judges.

It is believed that the entire period from the Exodus to the fourth year of Solomon was approximately 645 years. However, as stated, there is a possibility that some of the periods of the Judges overlapped with other periods, which could shorten the entirety of the time by a number of years.

But this we do know:

The beginning of the construction of the "House of the Lord," as designated here by the Holy Spirit, was extremely significant in the great Plan of God.)

2 And the House which king Solomon built for the LORD, the length thereof was threescore cubits (counting 18 inches to the cubit, this would mean it was 90 feet long), and the breadth thereof twenty cubits (30 feet wide), and the height thereof thirty cubits (45 feet high).

3 And the porch before the Temple of the House, twenty cubits (30 feet) was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the House; and ten cubits (15 feet) was the breadth thereof before the House (according to the chronology of Ussher, Solomon began building the Temple in 3,000 B.C., in our month of May).

4 And for the House he made windows of narrow lights.

5 And against the wall of the House he built chambers round about, against the walls of the House round about, both of the Temple and of the Oracle (Holy of Holies): and he made chambers round about (the floors were divided by partitions into distinct compartments):

6 The nethermost chamber was five cubits broad (7½ feet), and the middle was six cubits broad (9 feet), and the third was seven cubits broad (10½ feet): for without in the wall of the House he made narrowed rests round about, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the House (these measurements are those of the interior; the remarkable way in which this thing was built should be of note; the stories were shaped and prepared beforehand in the quarry, so that there was nothing to do on their arrival in the Temple area but to fit the stones to their place in the building).

7 And the House, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the House, while it was in building. (The plans for this Building were totally of the Lord, and none of man. In fact, they were given to David, but he was not allowed to construct the edifice, that being the task of his son who succeeded him. As the Tabernacle, the Temple, in all of its Grace, symbolized Christ in His Atoning, Mediatorial, and Intercessory Work. Inasmuch as the Holy Spirit would be the One Who would occupy the Holy of Holies in this Building, it was to be constructed in absolute silence. For a structure of this nature, especially considering the huge stones, etc., this presents an astounding feat. This is one of the many reasons that the structure cost so much to build.)

[8] The door for the middle chamber was in the right side of the House: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third (the third story).

[9] So he built the House, and finished it; and covered the House with beams and boards of cedar.

[10] And then he built chambers against all the House, five cubits (7½ feet) high: and they rested on the House with timber of cedar.

[11] And the Word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying (probably through the Prophet Nathan)**,

[12] Concerning this House which you are in building, if you will walk in My Statutes, and execute My Judgments, and keep all My Commandments to walk in them; then will I perform My Word with you, which I spoke unto David your father (while no man was able to keep the Law perfectly, and for any number of reasons, still, the idea was that every effort be made to do so. If the heart was after God, a desire to carry out His Will, and to do so at all cost, even though at times the Law was broken, a repentant heart would always automatically see an instant Restoration, with all the great Promises of God guaranteed to such an individual. David was that kind of man, and was ever held up as the example. He sinned at times, and did so grievously; however, he was always quick to repent. Sadly, we will find that Solomon drifted, and did so in a terrible way)**:

13 And I will dwell among the Children of Israel, and will not forsake My People Israel. (God had previously pledged His Presence to the Tabernacle [Ex. 25:8; 29:45; Lev. 26:11]. The Temple, as well, was reared to be His Dwelling-place [II Chron. 6:2]. He now assures the royal builder that He will occupy it.)

14 So Solomon built the House and finished it.

15 And he built the walls of the House within with boards of cedar, both the floor of the House, and the walls of the ceiling: and he covered them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the House with planks of fir.

16 And he built twenty cubits (30 feet) on the sides of the House, both the floor and the walls with boards of cedar: he even built them for it within, even for the Oracle, even for the Most Holy Place (this was the Holy of Holies, where the Ark of the Covenant was kept, and which was actually the dwelling-place of the Lord, Who dwelt between the Mercy Seat and the Cherubim).

17 And the House, that is, the Temple before it, was forty cubits long (60 feet).

18 And the cedar of the House within was carved with knops and open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen (actually, the cedar wasn't seen either, because all of it was covered with gold).

19 And the Oracle he prepared in the House within, to set there the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD.

20 And the Oracle in the forepart was twenty cubits in length (30 feet), and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof: and he overlaid it with pure gold; and so covered the Altar which was of cedar. (This tells us that the "Holy of Holies" was 30 feet square and 30 feet high. This was the same width as the House. In II Chron., Chpt. 4, we also see that the great Brazen Altar was also 20 cubits square [30 feet]. The reason was that Atonement and Glory are one. Atonement is the theology of Heaven, and the entrance to God's Home is as wide as the Home itself. What a thrilling Revelation! In other words, Calvary is just as large as the House of God.)

[21] So Solomon overlaid the House within with pure gold: and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the Oracle; and he overlaid it with gold. (Gold typified Deity, meaning that the One Who occupied this House was God. As well, the One Whom the House symbolized, namely the Lord Jesus Christ, is also God!)

[22] And the whole House he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the House: also the whole Altar that was by the Oracle he overlaid with gold.

[23] And within the Oracle he made two Cherubims of olive tree, each ten cubits high (15 feet high).

[24] And five cubits (7½ feet) was the one wing of the Cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the Cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing unto the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits (15 feet).

[25] And the other Cherub was ten cubits (15 feet): both the Cherubims were of one measure and one size (these were in the Holy of Holies).

[26] The height of the one Cherub was ten cubits (15 feet), and so was it of the other Cherub.

[27] And he set the Cherubims within the Inner House (the Holy of Holies): and they stretched forth the wings of the Cherubims, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other Cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the House. (Each Cherub had four wings, two stretching out behind which touched the back wall, and two stretching out in front which touched the wings of the other Cherub. So the wings of both Cherubs spanned the entirety of the Holy of Holies. Actually, this particular room, it is said, sat immediately above the rock where Abraham was to offer Isaac, and where presently the Dome of the Rock of the Muslims is built.)

28 And he overlaid the Cherubims with gold.

29 And he carved all the walls of the House roundabout with carved figures of Cherubims and palm trees and open flowers, within and without. (The "Cherubims" speak of the Holiness of God and, thereby, that all about Him must be Holy. The "palm trees" speak of a perfect climate, meaning that the elements will no longer be in revolt after the Second Coming of Christ. The "open flowers" speak of beauty, which will characterize the Kingdom Age, of which the Temple is a Type.

Due to the fact that the Cherubims symbolize the Holiness of God, they likewise must symbolize Judgment. Their wings met over the blood-sprinkled Mercy Seat and reached, as stated, to either extremity of the Most Holy Place. God's Judgments have Calvary for their center, and are as wide as His Home.)

30 And the floor of the House he overlaid with gold, within and without.

31 And for the entering of the Oracle he made doors of olive tree: the lintel and side posts were a fifth part of the wall. (Beneath the huge Cherubims, whose wings stretched from wall to wall, was placed the Ark of the Covenant with the Mercy Seat. The smaller Cherubim that Moses had made were attached to the Mercy Seat and made of the same mass of gold. The smaller Cherubims looked downward upon the sprinkled blood; the huge Cherubims, made of olive wood and covered with gold, looked outward. Whereas Moses' Tabernacle in the wilderness, before the erection of the Temple, was a Type of Calvary and Redemption, Solomon's Temple was a type of the Kingdom Age and of Righteousness.

God's Perfect Judgments will, in the Millennium, be enabled to look out from Calvary upon a Kingdom wherein shall dwell Righteousness. This is not now possible, for Righteousness retreated to Heaven when Christ went to the Father [Jn. 16:10].)

32 The two doors also were of olive tree; and he carved upon them carvings of Cherubims and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the Cherubims, and upon the palm trees.

33 So also made he for the door of the Temple posts of olive tree, a fourth part of the wall.

34 And the two doors were of fir tree: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.

35 And he carved thereon Cherubims and palm trees and open flowers: and covered them with gold fitted upon the carved work.

36 And he built the inner court with three rows of hewed stone, and a row of cedar beams.

37 In the fourth year was the foundation of the House of the LORD laid, in the month Zif (our May):

38 And in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the House finished throughout all the parts thereof, and according to all the fashion of it. So was he seven years in building it. (As stated, Solomon's Temple was a type of the coming Kingdom Age, when and where Righteousness will fill the Earth, because Christ is then present, with Satan and all of his minions of darkness locked away [Rev. 20:1-3].)

CHAPTER 7

(1005-992 B.C.)

SOLOMON'S PALACE

1 But Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house. (As the Temple was built first, likewise, it will be built first in the coming Kingdom Age, and then the government buildings will be constructed. The Temple must be first, because the Worship of God, of which the Temple is a type, is the singular most important thing there is [Ezek., Chpts. 40-48].)

2 He built also the house of the forest of Lebanon; the length thereof was an hundred cubits (150 feet), and the breadth thereof fifty cubits (75 feet), and the height thereof thirty cubits (45 feet), upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars.

3 And it was covered with cedar above upon the beams, that lay on forty five pillars, fifteen in a row.

4 And there were windows in three rows, and light was against light in three ranks.

5 And all the doors and posts were square, with the windows: and light was against light in three ranks.

6 And he made a porch of pillars; the length thereof was fifty cubits (75 feet), and the breadth thereof thirty cubits (45 feet): and the porch was before them: and the other pillars and the thick beam were before them (this was, no doubt, a covered colonnade; it had a roof but no sides; in fact, the pillars were its only walls).

7 Then he made a porch for the throne where he might judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar from one side of the floor to the other.

8 And his house where he dwelt had another court within the porch, which was of the like work. Solomon made also an house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch (this would seem to have been the private residence of the queen, not the harem where all the wives and concubines were gathered).

9 All these were of costly stones, according to the measures of hewed stones, sawed with saws, within and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and so on the outside toward the great court.

10 And the foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits (15 feet), and stones of eight cubits (12 feet; the foundations of the palaces, consequently, were much less than those of the Temple platform, with some of those stones measuring some 24 feet).

11 And above were costly stones, after the measures of hewed stones, and cedars.

12 And the great court round about was with three rows of hewed stones, and a row of cedar beams, both for the inner court of the House of the LORD, and for the porch of the house.

HIRAM OF TYRE

13 And king Solomon sent and fetched Hiram out of Tyre (even though this man bore the same name, this Hiram was not the king of Tyre; he was a metalworker, and had charge of all the castings of pillars, the Brazen Sea, and many other things used in the Temple furnishings).

14 He was a widow's son of the Tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass (in a sense, Hiram, as addressed here, is a Type of the Holy Spirit; as well, the brass [copper] is a type of humanity; it can be shined to a high gloss, but, at the same time, it can tarnish very easily): and he was filled with wisdom, and understanding, and cunning to work all works in brass (typical of the Holy Spirit). And he came to king Solomon and wrought all his work (the Holy Spirit is attempting to make the Child of God what the Lord Jesus wants, not necessarily what we want).

[15] For he cast two pillars of brass, of eighteen cubits high apiece (27 feet): and a line of twelve cubits (18 feet) did compass either of them about (in a sense, these pillars are types of the Child of God; Jesus said, "Him who overcomes will I make a pillar in the Temple of My God" [Rev. 3:12]; as the Temple was a Type of Christ, and the pillars a type of the Child of God, Jesus no doubt had these pillars in mind when He made the statement concerning the overcoming Christian).

[16] And he made two chapiters of molten brass, to set upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one chapiter was five cubits (7½ feet), and the height of the other chapiter was five cubits:

[17] And nets of checker work, and wreaths of chain work, for the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars; seven for the one chapiter, and seven for the other chapiter (the "chain work" represents the umbilical cord, so to speak, between Christ and the Believer).

[18] And he made the pillars, and two rows round about upon the one network, to cover the chapiters that were upon the top, with pomegranates (a type of the Fruit of the Spirit): and so did he for the other chapiter.

[19] And the chapiters that were upon the top of the pillars were of lily work (typifies purity) in the porch, four cubits (6 feet).

[20] And the chapiters upon the two pillars had pomegranates also above, over against the belly which was by the network: and the pomegranates were two hundred in rows round about upon the other chapiter.

[21] And he set up the pillars in the porch of the Temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called the name thereof Jachin (the name means "he shall establish"): and he set up the left pillar, and called the name thereof Boaz (means "in it is strength").

22 And upon the top of the pillar was lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished. (The reason this much description is given of the pillars is because, and as stated, they typify the Child of God in relationship to Christ. The pillars sat in front of the Temple, but actually they did not hold up anything. They stood alone facing the east. When the sun would come up each morning over Mount Olivet, its first rays would strike the highly polished pillars, which was a sight to behold.

Pillars normally serve as a support; however, these are for ornamentation only. The idea is this:

The Lord really doesn't need us. In a sense, we are ornamentation; however, through His Love and Grace, He gives us the most prominent position in His Kingdom. But we must remember, the reflection of our glory, of which these pillars were types, is strictly from Christ. It is none of us and all of Him.)

SACRED VESSELS

23 And he made a Molten Sea (the Brazen Laver), ten cubits (15 feet) from the one brim to the other: it was found all about, and his height was five cubits (7½ feet): and a line of thirty cubits (45 feet) did compass it round about.

24 And under the brim of it round about there were knops compassing it, ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about: the knops were cast in two rows, when it was cast.

25 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward (the "twelve oxen" symbolized the Government of God, which will encompass the Earth during the time of the Kingdom Age; that Government will be the strongest the world has ever known, hence typified by the "oxen"; as well, it will be the same all over the world, hence all four points of the compass being named).

[26] And it was an hand breadth thick, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies (symbolizing the fact that this Government of God will be pure, the only pure Government that has ever existed): it contained two thousand baths.

[27] And he made ten bases of brass; four cubits (6 feet) was the length of one base, and four cubits the breadth thereof, and three cubits (4½ feet) the height of it.

[28] And the work of the bases was on this manner: they had borders, and the borders were between the ledges:

[29] And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and Cherubims: and upon the ledges there was a base above: and beneath the lions and oxen were certain additions made of thin work.

[30] And every base had four brasen wheels, and plates of brass: and the four corners thereof had undersetters: under the laver were undersetters molten, at the side of every addition.

[31] And the mouth of it within the chapiter and above was a cubit: but the mouth thereof was round after the work of the base, a cubit and an half: and also upon the mouth of it were gravings with their borders, four square, not round.

[32] And under the borders were four wheels; and the axletrees of the wheels were joined to the base: and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit (it must be remembered, the Lord designed all of this in totality; none of it, not even the tiniest amount, was the work of a human being; it was all of God).

[33] And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axletrees, and their naves, and their felloes, and their spokes, were all molten.

[34] And there were four undersetters to the four corners of one base: and the undersetters were of the very base itself.

35 And in the top of the base was there a round compass of half a cubit high: and on the top of the base the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the same.

36 For on the plates of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof, he graved Cherubims, lions, and palm trees, according to the proportion of every one, and additions round about.

37 After this manner he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one size.

38 Then made he ten lavers of brass: one laver contained forty baths: and every laver was four cubits: and upon every one of the ten bases one laver.

39 And he put five bases on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward over against the south. (The entirety of this huge apparatus weighed 25 to 30 tons. It would have held well over 15,000 gallons of water, and, with the water, would have weighed over 100 tons. There were ten small lavers that were supposed to contain roughly 300 gallons of water each, with these lavers weighing about 2 tons each. Jewish writers say that the water was changed daily, so as to always be pure for use in the ceremonial worship.

At the front of the Tabernacle in the wilderness there was but one laver; in the Temple of Solomon there were eleven. These magnificent vessels of polished brass, highly ornamented, foreshadowed the purity, the glory, the grace, the sufficiency, the perfection, and the power of the government which Immanuel will establish in the future Millennial Earth.

In this Chapter, the Holy Spirit designedly omits any mention of the great Brazen Altar, for here attention is drawn to the King Himself, and not to the subject of access to Him!)

HIRAM

40 And Hiram made the lavers, and the shovels, and the basons. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made king Solomon for the House of the LORD:

41 The two pillars, and the two bowls of the chapiters that were on the top of the two pillars; and the two networks, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars;

42 And four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, even two rows of pomegranates for one network, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters that were upon the pillars;

43 And the ten bases, and ten lavers on the bases;

44 And one sea, and twelve oxen under the sea;

45 And the pots, and the shovels, and the basons: and all these vessels, which Hiram made to king Solomon for the House of the LORD, were of bright brass (copper).

THE CASTING OF THE VESSELS

46 In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarthan. (All of these brass fixtures had consisted of ornamentation in heathen temples, etc., which David had taken as spoils after particular battles. They are types of you and me being taken out of the world by our Heavenly David.

All of these vessels were then cast into a furnace and melted, typifying the fact that all the old identity of the new Believer which he had when he was in the world must be totally lost. It can only be melted down in the furnace of affliction. It is then cast into a mold and made into vessels in the service of the Lord, all typifying the consecration and making of the Believer by the Holy Spirit.)

47 And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because they were exceeding many: neither was the weight of the brass found out. (The spiritual meaning has to do with what we were before conversion. Ever how so great we thought we were, the Holy Spirit tells us here that, in the Eyes of God, all we were didn't matter. It is rather what He will make of us.)

FURNISHINGS OF GOLD IN THE TEMPLE

48 And Solomon made all the vessels that pertained unto the House of the LORD: the Altar of gold (the Altar of Incense), and the Table of gold, whereupon the shewbread was,

49 And the Candlesticks (Lampstands) of pure gold, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the Oracle (Holy of Holies), with the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs of gold (there was only one golden Lampstand in the Tabernacle, but here there are ten, five on each side; as well, there were ten Tables of Shewbread, five on each side [II Chron. 4:8]; all of these, including the Altar of Incense, were in the Holy Place, which was immediately in front of the Holy of Holies; in fact, as it regards the main structure of the Temple, there were only two rooms, the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies),

50 And the bowls, and the snuffers, and the basons, and the spoons, and the censers of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the Inner House, the Most Holy Place, and for the doors of the House, to wit, of the Temple.

51 So was ended all the work that king Solomon made for the House of the LORD. And Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated; even the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, did he put among the treasures of the House of the LORD. (It seems that all the precious metal that David had prepared was not absorbed in the construction of the Temple. There would seem to have been a considerable overplus, which was stored in the Temple treasury.)

CHAPTER 8

(1004 B.C.)

BRINGING THE ARK INTO THE TEMPLE

[1] Then Solomon assembled the Elders of Israel, and all the heads of the Tribes, the chief of the fathers of the Children of Israel, unto king Solomon in Jerusalem, that they might bring up the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion. (The Eighth Chapter portrays the dedication of the Temple, and also prefigures the origination of worship in the coming Kingdom Age. Approximately a year would lapse between the completion of the Temple and its dedication. This great event would occur in the Year of Jubilee, during the Feast of Tabernacles, and in connection with the Great Day of Atonement. The Feast of Trumpets, which was a type in Jewish history of the Rapture of the Church, would be extended to last for some seven days. This would be followed by the Great Day of Atonement, which prefigures the cleansing of Israel at the beginning of the Kingdom Age. Then following the Great Day of Atonement was the Feast of Tabernacles, which, within itself, symbolizes the Kingdom Age. These three great Jewish Feast days have not yet been fulfilled in type. They will be fulfilled when the great Millennial Temple is built, as is recorded in Ezekiel, Chapters 40 through 48, of which Solomon's Temple was a Type. All of this took place in the month of October.

For many years [over 100], the Ark of the Covenant and the Tabernacle had been separated. The Tabernacle was now at Gibeon with the other of its holy vessels, while the Ark of the Covenant was elsewhere in Jerusalem.)

[2] And all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto king Solomon at the feast in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month (October).

[3] And all the Elders of Israel came, and the Priests took up the Ark (the Priests alone were set apart to carry the Ark [Deut. 10:8]; Solomon, therefore, did not make the mistake David had made by seeking to bring it to Jerusalem on a cart).

4 And they brought up the Ark of the LORD, and the Tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tabernacle, even those did the Priests and the Levites bring up (as far as we know, none of these vessels, with the exception of the Ark of the Covenant, were used; they were simply preserved as treasures of the past, and placed in the treasury of side-chambers).

5 And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled unto him, were with him before the Ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be told nor numbered for multitude (the sacrifice of all of these animals proclaims the fact that, despite the gold and glamour of the great Temple, the most expensive structure ever built, still, Calvary was the foundation for everything, of which all of these sacrifices were Types; the Cross has always been the Foundation for everything).

6 And the Priests brought in the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD unto His Place, into the Oracle of the house, to the Most Holy Place, even under the wings of the Cherubims (these were the two huge Cherubims that were made of olive wood and overlaid with gold; their wingspan spread from one wall to the other wall; the two wings covering the Ark were the inner wings of the Cherubim that touched each other in the center of the room; each Cherubim had two sets of wings, with the outside wings reaching to the back wall, and the front set of wings reaching forward, touching the wings of the opposite Cherubim; the wingspread of each was about 15 feet; the Ark rested under all of this).

7 For the Cherubims spread forth their two wings over the place of the Ark, and the Cherubims covered the Ark and the staves thereof above (the Ark of the Covenant rested in complete darkness, under the outstretched wings of the Cherubims; God dwelt here between the Cherubims and the Mercy Seat, which, in effect, was the lid of the Ark).

8 And they drew out the staves, that the ends of the staves were seen out in the Holy Place before the Oracle, and they were not seen without: and there they are unto this day (the two staves, which went into the rings on either side of the Ark, were partially taken out, so that the ends could be seen from the Holy Place, which was the room immediately in front of the Holy of Holies, but not from the porch outside the Holy Place; this way, the Ark never needed to be handled, as the staves could easily be put back into the rings without even touching the Ark; it seems that it was unlawful to take them wholly out of the rings; pulling the staves out so the ends could be seen indicated the Ark had found its resting place in the Temple, and was not to be carried anymore; it had a permanent house, not a tent, as before).

9 There was nothing in the Ark save the two tables of stone (the Ten Commandments), which Moses put there at Horeb (over 500 years before), when the LORD made a Covenant with the Children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt. (In Hebrews 9:4, Paul mentioned the golden pot of Manna and Aaron's rod being in the Ark. He was speaking of the Ark while in the Tabernacle instead of the Temple. It is not known when these two things were removed; it was either by the Philistines when they had the Ark, or when the events of I Sam., Chpts. 5 and 6, took place. At any rate, whatever did happen, God did not allow the "two tables of stone" containing the Ten Commandments to be taken. There was a reason for this.

"Aaron's rod" and the "pot of Manna" were Types of Christ, which in type would not be necessary with the advent of Christ Himself; however, the "Ten Commandments" were a Type of the Word of God, which endures forever. For the Law of God was hidden in the Messiah's Heart [Ps. 119:11], as it was hidden in the Ark. The Law will be the basis and rule of Righteousness which will govern the Millennium in the coming Kingdom Age.)

10 And it came to pass, when the Priests were come out of the Holy Place, that the cloud filled the House of the LORD (the "cloud" represented the Glory of God and, thereby, signified the Presence of God)**,

11 So that the Priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the Glory of the LORD had filled the House of the LORD. (It simply means that the Power of God was so strong that the knees of the Priests buckled. The "Glory" is the secret of the Church, without which the Church is nothing more than a human institution; however, with this, "the cloud," the Church is a living organism, different than anything on the face of the Earth. Regrettably, the modern Church knows precious little about the Glory of God.)

SOLOMON'S MESSAGE

12 Then spoke Solomon, The LORD said that He would dwell in the thick darkness (is probably referring to Ex. 19:9 and 20:21).

13 I have surely built You an House to dwell in, a settled place for You to abide in forever (the Temple was more than anything a shrine for the Ark, between the Cherubims of the Mercy Seat [where God dwelt]; due to the Cross, He now abides within the heart and life of the Believer [I Cor. 3:16]).

14 And the king turned his face about, and blessed all the congregation of Israel: (and all the congregation of Israel stood;)

15 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which spoke with His Mouth unto David my father, and has with His hand fulfilled it, saying,

16 Since the day that I brought forth My People Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the Tribes of Israel to build an House, that My Name might be therein; but I chose David to be over My People Israel (Satan would fight this choice, as he ever fights all of God's choices).

17 And it was in the heart of David my father to build an House for the Name of the LORD God of Israel.

18 And the LORD said unto David my father, Whereas it was in your heart to build an House unto My Name, you did well that it was in your heart.

19 Nevertheless you shall not build the House; but your son who shall come forth out of your loins, he shall build the House unto My Name (Solomon did not mention here the reason for this [II Sam. 7:11-12]).

20 And the LORD has performed His Word that He spoke, and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built an House for the Name of the LORD God of Israel.

21 And I have set there a place for the Ark, wherein is the Covenant of the LORD, which He made with our fathers, when He brought them out of the land of Egypt.

SOLOMON'S PRAYER

22 And Solomon stood before the Altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven (actually Solomon was close by the Brazen Altar of Sacrifice, on a platform about 4½ feet high; all these rites took place in the open air)**:

23 And he said, LORD God of Israel, there is no God like You, in heaven above, or on Earth beneath, Who keeps Covenant and Mercy with Your Servants who walk before You with all their heart (the meaning is: the God of Israel stands Alone, and Alone is God)**:

24 Who has kept with Your servant David my father that You promised him: You spoke also with Your Mouth, and have fulfilled it with Your Hand, as it is this day (Solomon sees in this a special pledge of God's Faithfulness and Truth).

25 Therefore now, LORD God of Israel, keep with Your servant David my father that You promised him, saying, There shall not fail you a man in My sight to sit on the throne of Israel; so that your children take heed to their way, that they walk before Me as you have walked before Me (God keeping His Promise was contingent on their keeping His Commandments).

[26] And now, O God of Israel, let Your Word, I pray You, be verified, which You spoke unto Your servant David my father.

[27] But will God indeed dwell on the Earth? behold, the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain You; how much less this house that I have built? (Solomon never denies for a moment that the Temple was a real habitation of Jehovah, or that a real Presence was manifested there. He only denies that the Deity can be contained in earthly Temples. He had no unworthy ideas, such as were prevalent in that age, of God as a local deity, limited to space. His words clearly prove his grasp of the Omnipresence and Infinity of God.)

[28] Yet have You respect unto the prayer of Your servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which Your servant prays before You today:

[29] That Your eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which You have said, My Name shall be there: that You may hearken unto the prayer which Your Servant shall make toward this place (now that God has revealed His Presence in the Temple, the Jew, wherever he might be, would, and, as a matter of fact, did, pray toward it [Dan. 6:10; Ps. 5:7; Jonah 2:4]).

[30] And hearken You to the supplication of Your servant, and of Your People Israel, when they shall pray toward this Place: and hear You in Heaven Your Dwelling Place: and when You hear, forgive.

[31] If any man trespass against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to cause him to swear, and the oath come before Your Altar in this House (the Altar of Sacrifice is meant; in fact, every prayer to the Lord must come via Calvary; all of our worship must go through Calvary; all of our position in Christ must be at Calvary)**:

[32] Then hear You in Heaven, and do, and judge Your servants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

33 When Your people Israel be smitten down before the enemy, because they have sinned against You, and shall turn again to You, and confess Your Name, and pray, and make supplication unto You in this House:

34 Then hear You in Heaven, and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which You gave unto their fathers.

35 When heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against You; if they pray toward this place, and confess Your Name, and turn from their sin, when You afflict them:

36 Then hear You in Heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants, and of Your people Israel, that You teach them the good way wherein they should walk, and give rain upon Your land, which You have given to Your people for an inheritance (forgive, because they have learned the lesson Your discipline of drought was meant to teach; the chastisement has fulfilled its purpose).

37 If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, blasting, mildew, locust, or if there be caterpillar; if their enemy besiege them in the land of their cities; whatsoever plague, whatsoever sickness there be;

38 What prayer and supplication soever be made by any man, or by all Your people Israel, which shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this House:

39 Then hear You in Heaven Your Dwelling Place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his ways, whose heart You know; (for You, even You only, know the hearts of all the children of men;)

40 That they may fear You all the days that they live in the land which You gave unto our fathers (Solomon anticipates that a Godly fear will be the result of Forgiveness and Restoration).

41 Moreover concerning a stranger (Gentile), who is not of Your people Israel, but comes out of a far country for Your Name's sake;

[42] (For they shall hear of Your great Name, and of Your strong hand, and of Your stretched out arm;) when he shall come and pray toward this house (Solomon is continuing to speak of Gentiles);

[43] Hear You in Heaven Your Dwelling Place, and do according to all that the stranger calls to You for: that all people of the Earth may know Your Name, to fear You, as do Your people Israel; and that they may know that this House, which I have built, is called by Your Name.

[44] If Your people go out to battle against their enemy, whithersoever You shall send them, and shall pray unto the LORD toward the city which You have chosen (Jerusalem), and toward the house (the Temple) that I have built for Your Name (these words clearly imply that the war, whether defensive or offensive [for the chastisement of other nations], is one which had God's sanction and, indeed, was waged by His appointment; they have gone God's Way, they may, therefore, look the way of God's House for help; executing God's Commission, they might justly expect His Blessing):

[45] Then hear You in Heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

[46] If they sin against You, (for there is no man who sins not [the question is not "if man sins"; the question is "when man sins"; even for the best of us, whoever that might be, were it not for the constant intercession of Christ, we wouldn't last a day],) and You be angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy (because they have sinned), so that they carry them away captives unto the land of the enemy, far or near;

[47] Yet if they shall bethink themselves in the land where they were carried captives, and repent, and make supplication unto You in the land of them who carried them captives, saying, We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness (that which the Lord demands [I Jn. 1:9]);

[48] And so return unto You with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies, which led them away captive, and pray unto You toward their land, which You gave unto their fathers, the city which

You have chosen, and the House which I have built for Your Name (under the New Covenant, we do not pray toward Jerusalem, because the Lord no longer dwells in a building made by hands, but rather within the heart and life of each respective Believer [Jn. 14:16-17]; we now pray directly to the Father in Heaven [Mat. 6:9-13])**:

[49] Then hear You their prayer and their supplication in Heaven Your Dwelling Place, and maintain their cause (even though God is everywhere, still, His "Dwelling Place" is Heaven; in fact, God the Father is in Heaven, while God the Holy Spirit would occupy the Temple, residing between the Mercy Seat and the Cherubim, functioning on the premise of what God the Son would do at Calvary, typified by the Sacrifices; and yet there is only One God, but manifested in Three Persons)**,

[50] And forgive Your people who have sinned against You, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against You, and give them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them (this Verse shouts "forgiveness" and "compassion," which are the hallmarks of the great Grace of God)**:

[51] For they be Your people, and Your inheritance, which You brought forth out of Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron (only the Lord can deliver; so to have His Deliverance, we must function according to His Directions, which, in reality, is Faith in Christ and what He did for us at the Cross, which then gives us the help of the Holy Spirit [Ex. 12:13; Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11])**:

[52] That Your eyes may be open unto the supplication of Your servant, and unto the supplication of Your people Israel, to hearken unto them in all that they call for unto You.

[53] For You did separate them from among all the people of the Earth, to be Your inheritance, as You spoke by the hand of Moses Your servant, when You brought our fathers out of Egypt, O LORD God (there is a constant recurrence throughout the Old Testament to Israel's great deliverance from Egypt; and with good reason, for it was the real birthday of the Nation, and was also a pledge of future health and favor)**.

SOLOMON BLESSED GOD

54 And it was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the LORD, he arose from before the Altar of the LORD (the huge Brazen Altar situated immediately in front of the Temple), from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven.

55 And he stood, and blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying (the words of blessing given here prove that Solomon did not assume Priestly functions in putting a blessing upon the people, which only the Priests, who were Types of Christ, could do [Num. 6:27]; he rather blessed the Lord, which all of us should do, and constantly), 56 Blessed be the LORD, Who has given rest unto His People Israel, according to all that He promised: there has not failed one word of all His good Promise, which He promised by the hand of Moses His Servant (Lev. 26:3-13; Deut. 28:1-14; Josh. 21:44).

57 The LORD our God be with us, as He was with our fathers: let Him not leave us, nor forsake us:

58 That He may incline our hearts unto Him, to walk in all His Ways, and to keep His Commandments, and His Statutes, and His Judgments, which He commanded our fathers (these were the conditions on which God's Blessings were guaranteed).

59 And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before the LORD, be near unto the LORD our God day and night, that He maintain the cause of His servant, and the cause of His people Israel at all times, as the matter shall require:

60 That all the people of the Earth may know that the LORD is God, and that there is none else (the thoughts of Solomon now go not only to Israel, but to the entirety of the world; the House now dedicated, he prays that the Gentiles will come to its Light [Isa. 2:2-3]).

61 Let your heart (the hearts of the people of Israel) therefore be perfect with the LORD our God, to walk in His Statutes, and to keep His Commandments, as at this day.

SOLOMON OFFERS UP SACRIFICES

62 And the king, and all Israel with him, offered Sacrifice before the LORD (proclaiming the fact that Israel's safety, protection, blessing, and prosperity depended solely upon the shed Blood of the Lamb).

63 And Solomon offered a Sacrifice of Peace Offerings, which he offered unto the LORD, two and twenty thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the Children of Israel dedicated the House of the LORD. (The tremendous number of Sacrifices offered typified the great Sacrifice of Christ. But yet, even though all these sheep and oxen were offered, they still were insufficient to take away sin. They only covered sin until Christ would come [Heb. 10:4], Who would take sin away [Jn. 1:29].)

64 The same day did the king hallow the middle of the Court that was before the House of the LORD: for there he offered Burnt Offerings, and Meat Offerings, and the fat of the Peace Offerings: because the Brasen Altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the Burnt Offerings, and Meat Offerings, and the fat of the Peace Offerings. (In fact, the great Altar was thirty feet wide and thirty feet long, actually the same size as the Holy of Holies, signifying that His Answer to sin, which is the Cross, is as great as His Throne, signified by the Holy of Holies. But yet, even the great Altar was too small to receive all the Offerings, so the entirety of the Court was used, at least for the slaughter. No doubt, this lasted for several days.)

65 And at that time Solomon held a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt, before the LORD our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days. (All the people were required to eat their portion of the "Peace Offerings," which signified that "Peace with God" had been restored, now that the proper Burnt Offerings had been sacrificed. The Burnt Offerings signified that the Lord would give His all, His Perfection, to the people. The Sin and Trespass Offerings signified that the people would give their sin and trespasses to the Lord.)

66 On the eighth day he sent the people away (on the eighth day of the second feast, which, together with the first feast, totaled fourteen days): and they blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that the LORD had done for David His servant, and for Israel His people. (This typifies the coming Kingdom Age, when Christ will personally reign supreme from Jerusalem, and do so over the entirety of the world. Then there will be "joy and gladness of heart" for all people [Jer., Chpts. 30-31; Zech. 12:4-14; Chpts. 13-14].)

CHAPTER 9

(992 B.C.)

GOD'S COVENANT WITH SOLOMON

[1] And it came to pass, when Solomon had finished the building of the House of the LORD, and the king's house, and all Solomon's desire which he was pleased to do,

[2] That the LORD appeared to Solomon the second time (approximately 20 years after the first appearance [Vs. 10]), as He had appeared unto him at Gibeon (appeared in a dream [3:5]).

[3] And the LORD said unto him, I have heard your prayer and your supplication, that you have made before Me: I have hallowed this house, which you have built, to put My Name there forever; and My eyes and My heart shall be there perpetually. (In II Chron. 7:12, we read, "And have chosen this place to Myself for a House of Sacrifice," proclaiming the fact that the Cross, so to speak, was the foundation of Israel's blessings and prosperity.)

[4] And if you will walk before Me, as David your father walked (David was ever used as the example; self-righteousness would have great difficulty in accepting David as such, especially considering his great failures; however, only Pharisees or self-righteousness would have such difficulty; those who truly know themselves and truly know God and His Grace have no difficulty whatsoever), in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you, and will keep My Statutes and My Judgments:

[5] Then I will establish the throne of your kingdom upon Israel for ever, as I promised to David your father, saying, There shall not fail you a man upon the throne of Israel. (The committal to Solomon and Israel was conditional upon obedience. This means that the path of safety pointed out by God to Solomon was obedience and attachment to the Bible.)

6 But if you shall at all turn from following Me, you or your children, and will not keep My Commandments and My Statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods, and worship them:

7 Then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and this House, which I have hallowed for My Name, will I cast out of My sight; and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all people (tragically and sadly, that's exactly what happened)**:

8 And at this House, which is high, everyone who passes by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, Why has the LORD done thus unto this land, and to this House? (In effect, the Lord is telling Solomon that it doesn't matter how "big" or how "high" this House is, it will be pulled down. And when the world asks, "Why?" the next Verse records the answer!

9 And they shall answer, Because they forsook the LORD their God, Who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: therefore has the LORD brought upon them all this evil. (The Lord delivered Israel out of Egypt by virtue of the slain lamb. And if Israel forsakes that way, they will be lost, which they were. Regrettably, the modern Church seems to be quickly following suit.)

10 And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the House of the LORD, and the king's house, (In a sense, both houses are regarded as one house. If the House of Sacrifice, i.e., "the Cross," maintains its way, the other house, which symbolizes government, the Government of God, will be correct, as well. When the Cross is ignored, or rejected, the government also goes awry.)

11 (Now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar trees and fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire,) that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. (Even though this area bordered the kingdom of Tyre, Solomon should not have done this. No part of Immanuel's land must be conveyed to a foreigner, that they may have dominion over the people of the Lord [Lev. 25:23; Deut. 17:15].)

12 And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they pleased him not.

13 And he said, What cities are these which you have given me, my brother? And he called them the land of Cabul unto this day. ("Cabul," in a sense, means "worthless." They were not at all worthless to the Lord, because Galilee would be the area where the Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ, would make His Headquarters. This shows that Solomon did not realize their significance either. Not one part of our life or living as a Believer must be given over to Satan.)

14 And Hiram sent to the king sixscore talents of gold (equal to approximately $30 million in 2004 calculations).

15 And this is the reason of the levy which king Solomon raised; for to build the House of the LORD, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer.

16 For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and killed the Canaanites who dwelt in the city, and given it for a present unto his daughter, Solomon's wife (Gezer, nearly 600 years before, had been allotted to Ephraim [Josh. 16:3], and was designated as a Levitical city [Josh. 21:21]; but apparently, the Canaanite inhabitants had never been dispossessed, until Pharaoh dispossessed them).

17 And Solomon built Gezer, and Beth-horon the nether (nearby Gezer)**,

18 And Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land,

19 And all the cities of store that Solomon had, and cities for his chariots, and cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

20 And all the people who were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, which were not of the Children of Israel, 21 Their children who were left after them in the land, whom the Children of Israel also were not able utterly to destroy, upon those did Solomon levy a tribute of bondservice unto this day.

22 But of the Children of Israel did Solomon make no bondmen: but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen.

23 These were the chief of the officers who were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, which bore rule over the people who wrought in the work.

24 But Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David unto her house which Solomon had built for her: then did he build Millo. (The daughter of Pharaoh had dwelt in David's palace on Mount Zion, but Solomon was constrained to relieve her, because he looked upon all the precincts now as consecrated [II Chron. 8:11].)

25 And three times in a year did Solomon offer Burnt Offerings and Peace Offerings upon the Altar (the great Brazen Altar, which sat in front of the Temple) which he built unto the LORD, and he burnt Incense upon the Altar that was before the LORD (situated in the Holy Place, immediately before the Ark of the Covenant; in reality, Solomon did not do these things, but saw to it that the Priests, who alone could do such, officiated accordingly). So he finished the house (the "three times in a year" were Passover, in April; Pentecost, in June; and Tabernacles, in October; a representative male from each household was required to be there at these three respective times).

26 And king Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion-geber, which is beside Eloth, on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom (this subjugation of Edom is mentioned in II Sam. 8:14).

27 And Hiram sent in the navy his servants, shipmen who had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon (the Tyrians helped Solomon form his fleet).

28 And they came to Ophir, and fetched from thence gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon (it is not known exactly where Ophir was).

CHAPTER 10

(992 B.C.)

THE QUEEN OF SHEBA

[1] And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the Name of the LORD, she came to prove him with hard questions. (Sheba, a grandson of Cush, settled in Abyssinia. Even though many Gentile kings and potentates came to Solomon, none of these monarchs are mentioned particularly, except the Queen of Sheba, the Holy Spirit reserving that dignity for a woman. She is further honored by the Lord Himself in Mat. 12:42, where He predicts her reappearance in the Resurrection.

Evidently, the Queen of Sheba heard many wonderful things about Solomon, but it seems that at first she did not believe the reports. But after a little, moved by its repetition, she determines to put the matter to the test. She undertakes a long and expensive journey, and her quest was not disappointing.

How many today, as this African Queen of old, hear of the fame of the "greater than Solomon" and, like her, they do not believe the report, but, unlike her, they do not bestir themselves to test what they have heard — Williams.

In the coming Kingdom Age, great men and women will come from all over the world to sit at the feet of Jesus, and will do so to have their "hard questions" answered, as it regards agriculture, industry, science, medicine, and other things. As Solomon of old, our Saviour will give these ambassadors the answer to their hardest questions.)

[2] And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bore spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

(Our Lord lays great stress on this long journey [Mat. 12:42; Lk. 11:31]. "That was in her heart" pertained to Spiritual questions, which were answered readily by Solomon. All the other, the gold, the precious stones, etc., were mere window dressing by comparison to the great questions of Deity and eternity.)

3 And Solomon told her all her questions: there was not anything hid from the king, which he told her not. (Whatever these questions were, the greater question, as the Text indicates, was spiritual. She now knew that it was God Who had given Solomon these great gifts.)

4 And when the queen of Sheba had seen all Solomon's wisdom, and the house that he had built,

5 And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, and his cupbearers, and his ascent by which he went up unto the House of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her. (This is indicative of what will take place in the coming Kingdom Age, when ambassadors from all over the world come to Christ and, for the first time in human history, man will see what this planet can be like with Satan locked away, and the Lord Jesus Christ reigning as King of kings and Lord of lords.)

6 And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in my own land of your acts and of your wisdom (even though it is a "true report," many today, even most, will not believe the Lord, but, in the coming Kingdom Age, they will, and unreservedly!).

7 Howbeit, I believed not the words, until I came, and my eyes had seen it: and, behold, the half was not told me: your wisdom and prosperity exceed the fame which I heard (whatever can be said about Christ, of Whom Solomon was a Type, the "half has not been told" [I Cor. 2:9-10]).

8 Happy are your men, happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you, and who hear your wisdom (happy are all those who follow Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross).

9 Blessed be the LORD your God, which delighted in you, to set you on the throne of Israel: because the LORD loved Israel for ever, therefore made He you king, to do judgment and justice (proclaiming the fact that this queen now knows the Lord, having thereby accepted Him as the Lord of her life).

10 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold (about $60 million in 2004 currency), and of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon (in the coming Kingdom Age, of which all of this is a type, such gifts will be given to Christ, but always, and without exception, what He gives back will be far, far greater!).

11 And the navy also of Hiram, that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir great plenty of almug trees, and precious stones.

12 And the king made of the almug trees pillars for the House of the LORD, and for the king's house, harps also and psalteries for singers: there came no such almug trees, nor were seen unto this day (it is said that the wood of these almug trees was most sought after for the making of musical instruments).

13 And king Solomon gave unto the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside that which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants. (She left with far more than she came. According to the custom of that time, tradition says that she bore Solomon a son, Melimelek by name, from whom the past sovereigns of Abyssina [Ethiopia] claimed to derive their descent.)

SOLOMON'S GREAT WEALTH AND FAME

14 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred threescore and six talents of gold (about $350 million in 2004 currency; however, it is not possible presently to know the true worth, simply because we do not know the purchasing power of gold during the time of Solomon; more than likely, it would have been worth much, much more than the amount we have given, possibly even several billions of dollars), 15 Beside that he had of the merchantmen, and of the traffic of the spice merchants, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the governors of the country.

16 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of gold went to one target (nearly a quarter of a million dollars per target; a "target" was an exceedingly large shield).

17 And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three pounds of gold went to one shield (about $20,000 each): and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon (the governmental house built in Jerusalem of timber from the forest of Lebanon).

18 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the best gold (the ivory was solid, and then overlaid with gold).

19 The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behind: and there were stays on either side on the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the stays. (Even though Solomon was a Type of Christ, he was only a type. The number "six" is stamped upon his government. The weight of gold paid each year to Solomon was 666 talents. He had six steps up to his throne, which stamps imperfection upon all his glory. "Six" is the number of man, who, incidentally, was created on the sixth day, and comes short of "seven," which is God's number of perfection. So, this tells us that, as glorious as was Solomon's reign, it was still stamped with imperfection, hence the number "six." The reign of Christ will be perfect. It will not fall short in anything.)

20 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom. (It is most probable that the Lord gave Solomon the design for all of this, with the number "twelve" signifying God's Government. It is that Government which made Israel so prosperous at this time, far above any other kingdom at that time in the world.)

21 And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; none were of silver: it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon (there was so much gold that they did not even bother to count the silver, even though in abundance).

22 For the king had at sea a navy of Tharshish with the navy of Hiram: once in three years came the navy of Tharshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

23 So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the Earth for riches and for wisdom.

24 And all the Earth sought to Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart (this is indicative of Christ, of Whom Solomon was a Type, which will be made evident to the entirety of the world, in the coming Kingdom Age [Zech. 14:8-10, 16-21]).

25 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and armour, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year (paying tribute to Solomon and to Israel, in order to partake of his wisdom).

26 And Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the cities for chariots, and with the king at Jerusalem (all of this was maintained strictly for the sake of pomp and display).

27 And the king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore trees that are in the vale, for abundance (the sycamore trees of that time were of extreme value, equal to the cedars).

28 And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

[29] And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out by their means. (For many years, it was claimed by critics that Hittite kings did not exist at that time; however, excavations in Asia Minor proved that assumption to be false. Hittite kings did exist at that time. As a result of such incidents, most archaeologists presently refrain from making announcements if they excavate something that seems to contradict the Bible. Just a little later, as it has proved time and time again, future excavations will prove the Bible to be true.

For instance, except for the Bible, it was claimed that no historical proof was found that David ever existed; however, in 2002, if I remember the year correctly, archaeological excavations proved that king David actually existed. But, of course, Believers of the Word of God do not need archaeological excavations to prove its veracity, even though that particular proof is always forthcoming.)

CHAPTER 11

SOLOMON'S WIVES AND IDOLATRY

[1] But king Solomon loved many strange women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites (we have already heard of the multiplication of silver and gold [10:14-25], in defiance of Deuteronomy 17:17, and of the multiplication of horses [10:27-29], in disregard of Deuteronomy 17:16; we now read how the ruin of this great prince was completed by the multiplication of wives, and heathen wives at that)**;

[2] Of the nations concerning which the LORD said unto the Children of Israel, You shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you: for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods: Solomon clave unto these in love (to disobey the Word of God is to invite disaster)**.

[3] And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away his heart. (Why? Past Blessings from God, even though of tremendous import at the time, will not suffice for today's journey. There must ever be fresh revelations. Due to Solomon's backsliding, there were no fresh revelations.

The great gift of wisdom did not deter Solomon's transgression. Such cannot take the place of a constant day-by-day walk of holiness and humility before the Lord.

As well, pride played its part, and probably the biggest part.

All of this shows us that Believers do not fare too very well in a life of blessings only. These tend to take their eyes off of God, and onto themselves.)

4 For it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father. (Self-righteousness could never understand this statement, especially due to the fact of the horrid sin of David with Bath-sheba and then the murder of her husband, Uriah. David failed in many other areas, as well; however, his heart was perfect toward God, because he always took these terrible sins to God [Ps. 51]; moreover, David suffered terribly for these sins, which is always the case with sin.)

5 For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. (The words "and served them" should be added. There is no sadder picture in the Bible than that of Solomon's fall. His extraordinary gift of wisdom did not save him from disobedience to the Law of God. His neglect of that Law, and his loss of the fellowship of God which gives power to it, opened the door wide to the entrance of every form of evil. Had he clung to the Sacred Scriptures, how bright would have been his life! He was probably about 50 years of age when he apostatized.)

6 And Solomon did evil in the sight of the LORD, and went not fully after the LORD, as did David his father. (David was always held up as the example, because, as stated, he always turned to the Lord. The ironical thing was, Solomon continued to worship the Lord, at least after a fashion, while at the same time worshipping idols. How so indicative of the modern Church!)

7 Then did Solomon build an high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem (the Mount of Olivet), and for Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon (with some of these, human sacrifice was offered up, most of the time that of little children; however, we have no record of Jewish children being sacrificed to idols before the time of Ahaz, which was a little over 200 years after Solomon)**.

8 And likewise did he for all his strange wives, which burnt incense and sacrificed unto their gods.

GOD'S JUDGMENT ON SOLOMON

9 And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned from the LORD God of Israel, which had appeared unto him twice, (there is a special Hebrew verb used in the Bible for "to be angry"; it is only used of Divine anger; it occurs fourteen times; here, and in five other passages, a form of the verb is used expressing the forcing of oneself to be angry with a person who is loved; in other words, the Lord, because of His Nature, and despite Solomon's spiritual declension, had to force Himself to be angry with Solomon; He loved him that much!)

10 And had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the LORD commanded (the idea is: the Lord dealt with him over and over again about this matter)**.

11 Wherefore the LORD said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this is done of you, and you have not kept My Covenant and My Statutes, which I have commanded you, I will surely rend the kingdom from you, and will give it to your servant. (This message was probably delivered by the Prophet Ahijah. Even though the Lord appeared in a dream to Solomon twice, there is no record that there was a third appearance.)

12 Notwithstanding in your days I will not do it for David your father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of your son. (The threatening had two gracious and merciful limitations: 1. The blow would not fall until after his death [I Ki. 21:29]; and, 2. The disruption should be but partial.)

13 Howbeit I will not rend away all the kingdom; but will give one Tribe to your son for David My servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen. (This was probably one Tribe other than Judah, which was Benjamin. As well, the Tribe of Simeon, which was within the boundaries of the Tribe of Judah, also would be in this small group. It could be said that the Tribe of Levi was a part of the group, as well, although they had no certain boundaries, but was rather scattered over Israel. This would take place under Rehoboam, Solomon's son.)

SOLOMON'S ADVERSARIES

14 And the LORD stirred up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the king's seed in Edom (functioning outside of the Will of God pulls down the hedge that is around every Believer; in some rare cases, as with Job, it can be pulled down by the Lord through no fault of the individual; however, that is rare [Job, Chpts. 1-2])**.

15 For it came to pass, when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the host was gone up to bury the dead, after he had smitten every male in Edom;

16 (For six months did Joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom [possibly the cruelties of the Edomites had provoked this act of retribution (Ps. 137:7; Obad., Vss. 10-14)]**:)

17 That Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt; Hadad being yet a little child.

18 And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran: and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, unto Pharaoh king of Egypt; who gave him an house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land (his relations with the royal family of Egypt were so extremely intimate, it is believed, that he may have been fed from the royal table)**.

19 And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, and sister of Tahpenes the queen (this was probably during the time of David)**.

20 And the sister of Tahpenes bore him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house: and Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh.

21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may go to my own country.

22 Then Pharaoh said unto him, But what have you lacked with me, that, behold, you seek to go to your own country? And he answered, Nothing:

howbeit let me go in any wise.

ANOTHER ADVERSARY

[23] And God stirred him up another adversary, Rezon the son of Eliadah, which fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah:

[24] And he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a band, when David killed them of Zobah: and they went to Damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus.

[25] And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, beside the mischief that Hadad did: and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria. (David subdued Syria [II Sam., Chpt. 8]. Solomon, weakened by sin, lost it.

It is to be understood that Hadad joined Rezon, and, on the death or disappearance of that chieftain, became king of Syria and founder of the Dynasty afterward known as Ben-hadad, and which brought such suffering upon Israel. The sin of today ensures the suffering of tomorrow, for Solomon's conduct originated Ben-hadad.)

JEROBOAM

[26] And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephrathite of Zereda, Solomon's servant, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow woman, even he lifted up his hand against the king. (All of this was permitted by the Lord, because of Solomon's sin. Had the Word of God been obeyed, all of this would have been avoided.)

[27] And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king: Solomon built Millo, and repaired the breaches of the city of David his father.

[28] And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon seeing the young man that he was industrious, he made him ruler over all the charge of the house of Joseph. (Spence says concerning this: "The Tribe of Ephraim, with its constant envy of Judah, must have been mortified to find themselves employed — though it was but in the modified service of Israelites — on the fortifications of Jerusalem. Their murmurings revealed to Jeroboam the unpopularity of Solomon, and perhaps suggested thoughts of overt rebellion to his mind.")

[29] And it came to pass at that time when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the Prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field (Ahijah the Prophet; the Prophet Nathan was no doubt by now dead):

[30] And Ahijah caught the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelve pieces:

[31] And he said to Jeroboam, Take you ten pieces: for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten Tribes to you:

[32] (But he shall have one Tribe for my servant David's sake [one Tribe other than Judah, which would be Benjamin], and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the Tribes of Israel [the Tribe of Benjamin incorporated Jerusalem on the northern side, while the Tribe of Judah incorporated Jerusalem on the southern side]:)

[33] Because that they have forsaken Me, and have worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon, and have not walked in My Ways, to do that which is right in My eyes, to keep My Statutes and My Judgments, as did David his father. (More than likely, this same Prophet had delivered this same message to Solomon some time earlier, but evidently to no avail!)

[34] Howbeit I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand: but I will make him prince all the days of his life for David My servant's sake, whom I chose, because he kept My Commandments and My Statutes (this doesn't mean that David was perfect in his life, for, as is overly obvious, he wasn't; it does mean that whatever the problem, sin or otherwise, David ultimately took it to the Lord; as well, David was untouched by idolatry):

[35] But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it unto you, even ten Tribes.

[36] And unto his son will I give one Tribe (one Tribe other than Judah, which was Benjamin), that David My servant may have a light alway before Me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen Me to put My Name there (the idea is not so much that of a home, but rather a family issue — David's family, through whom the Messiah would come).

[37] And I will take you, and you shall reign according to all that your soul desires, and shall be king over Israel.

[38] And it shall be, if you will hearken unto all that I command you, and will walk in My Ways, and do that is right in My sight, to keep My Statutes and My Commandments, as David My servant did; that I will be with you, and build you a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel unto you. (Observe, however, there was no promise to Jeroboam, as there was to David, of an enduring kingdom. It was not God's design to take away the kingdom from David in perpetuity.)

[39] And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not for ever (it will be brought back in the coming Kingdom Age [Acts 15:16]).

[40] Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam. And Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, unto Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon. (It has been assumed that Solomon did this because of this Prophecy; however, there is no record that Solomon ever heard of the Prophecy. It is believed that Jeroboam, not willing to wait for the Lord to work out the situation, sought to bring about an insurrection almost immediately; consequently, he incurred the wrath of Solomon. His rebellion is the more inexcusable because Ahijah had expressly stated that Solomon was to retain the kingdom during his lifetime.)

THE DEATH OF SOLOMON

41 And the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon? (The sources of this history are mentioned more specifically in II Chronicles 9:29 — Pulpit.)

42 And the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years. (The first three kings of Israel, Saul, David, and now Solomon, each reigned forty years.)

43 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead. (So far as appears, his only son. Verse 42 presents the last statement made by the Holy Spirit about Solomon personally. The next fact records his death. Did he repent at the end? The Scripture doesn't say. We can only hope that the writer of Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and Song of Solomon definitely did make his way back to God. There is some small evidence that he did, which we will address in II Chronicles.)

CHAPTER 12

REHOBOAM MADE KING

[1] And Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king. (The first step taken by Rehoboam was a judicious one. He, no doubt, sought to cement the dissatisfied Ephraimites to himself by being crowned in their chief city. This should have caused them to submit to the Tribe of Judah, as this was a great honor given them.

Shechem lay on the flank of Mount Gerazim, directly opposite Mount Ebal, the Mounts of curses and blessings [Deut. 11:29; 27:1-8]. It was a national sanctuary [Josh. 24:1], and the site of Abraham's first Altar [Gen. 12:6]. Isaac and Jacob had both lived here. Joseph was buried here; Jacob's well was also located here [Jn. 4:5].

Because of the unrest, Rehoboam's motives, no doubt, were political. Sadly, the majority of the motives of the modern Church are too often political. Jerusalem was the city where God had chosen to place His Name. It was where the Temple was constructed, and that by the Command of the Lord. Jerusalem was the spiritual center of Israel. This should have been the place to crown Rehoboam king; however, Rehoboam, as many, if not most, chose the political way instead of the spiritual.)

[2] And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was yet in Egypt, heard of it, (for he was fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt;)

[3] That they sent and called him. And Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came, and spoke unto Rehoboam, saying (while Rehoboam was trying to appease the northern kingdom of Israel, they were sending to Egypt to bring in Jeroboam)**,

4 Your father made our yoke grievous: now therefore you make the grievous service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve you.

5 And he said unto them, Depart yet for three days, then come again to me. And the people departed.

6 And king Rehoboam consulted with the old men, who stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, and said, How do you advise that I may answer this people?

7 And they spoke unto him, saying, If you will be a servant unto this people this day, and will serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants for ever (their words were wise and right).

8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, and consulted with the young men who were grown up with him, and which stood before him:

9 And he said unto them, What counsel give you that we may answer this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke which your father did put upon us lighter?

10 And the young men who were grown up with him spoke unto him, saying, Thus shall you speak unto this people who spoke unto you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter unto us; thus shall you say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father has chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. (This was a scourge, and more painful than a whip. In the action of Rehoboam and of the people is exhibited the folly of the natural heart and its incurable hostility to God. In the difficulty in which they find themselves, the king consults "man" instead of God; and the people trust themselves into the cruel hands of Jeroboam, instead of the gracious hands of Emmanuel.)

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day.

13 And the king answered the people roughly, and forsook the old men's counsel that they gave him;

14 And spoke to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke: my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 Wherefore the king hearkened not unto the people; for the cause was from the LORD, that He might perform His saying, which the LORD spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat. (Through foreknowledge, the Lord knew what Rehoboam would ultimately do, and, thereby, pressured him to listen to the wrong advice, which his heart was prone to do at any rate. The Lord didn't force his will, and neither did He interfere to stop the wrong decision.)

THE TEN TRIBES REVOLT

16 So when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: to your tents, O Israel: now see to your own house, David. So Israel departed unto their tents. (This was the beginning of over 250 years of division and strife between the two nations of Judah and Israel. While Rehoboam was foolish, the northern kingdom of Israel, sometimes referred to as Ephraim or Samaria, didn't better themselves by their action.)

17 But as for the Children of Israel which dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the tribute; and all Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. Therefore king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. (Such a man as Adoram, guided by such counselors, and inflated by the sense of his own power and importance, would naturally think of force rather than of conciliation or concessions. The situation turned out very badly.)

19 So Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

20 And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none who followed the house of David, but the Tribe of Judah only (as the following Verses proclaim, the Tribe of Benjamin was included with Judah, as well).

21 And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, with the Tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand (180,000) chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

22 But the Word of God came unto Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

23 Speak unto Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying,

24 Thus says the LORD, You shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the Children of Israel: return every man to his house; for this thing is from Me. They hearkened therefore to the Word of the Lord, and returned to depart, according to the Word of the Lord. (Three times in this one sentence the "Word of the Lord" is referred to, showing its great significance. The Holy Spirit is telling us that if the "Word of the Lord" had been adhered to all along, Israel would not have come to this sad state.)

JEROBOAM LEADS ISRAEL INTO IDOLATRY

25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in Mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built Penuel (Jeroboam made Shechem the capital of the northern kingdom).

[26] And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David (Jeroboam saw that fortresses and armies would be of no avail for the defense of his realm, so long as Jerusalem remained the one Sanctuary of the land; so he would do something about this)**:

[27] If this people go up to do sacrifice in the House of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah.

[28] Whereupon the king took counsel (but not from God), and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold your gods, O Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt.

[29] And he set the one in Beth-el, and the other put he in Dan. (The great Redemption given to Israel by God concerning their deliverance from Egypt was now attributed to a "golden calf." I wonder if we are doing any differently today in the modern Church, when we attribute the help that God gives us to humanistic psychology?)

[30] And this thing became a sin: for the people went to worship before the one, even unto Dan. (The expression concerning Jeroboam, "made Israel to sin," is used twenty-three times. This "sin" was idolatry, which led to all other types of sin.)

[31] And he made an house of high places, and made Priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sons of Levi (the Levites had all migrated to Jerusalem; so, Jeroboam selected the base and the vile to be his priests; to be sure, this would suffice for the worship of golden calves).

[32] And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that is in Judah, and he offered upon the Altar. So did he in Beth-el, sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Beth-el the priests of the high places which he had made (he conducted his feasts at the same time that Judah conducted the Feasts of the Lord).

[33] So he offered upon the Altar which he had made in Beth-el the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart; and ordained a feast unto the Children of Israel: and he offered upon the Altar, and burnt incense. (We may perhaps see in Jeroboam's ministering and person not only the design to invest the new ordinance with exceptional interest and splendor, but also the idea of encouraging his new priests to enter on their unauthorized functions without fear. The history, or even the traditions, of Nadab and Abihu [Lev., Chpt. 10] and of Korah and his company [Num. 16:40] may very well have made them hesitate. And that their fears of a Divine interposition were not groundless, the sequel shows — Spence.)

CHAPTER 13

A PROPHET FROM JUDAH WARNS JEROBOAM

[1] And, behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the Word of the LORD unto Beth-el: and Jeroboam stood by the Altar to burn incense. (Israel, the northern kingdom, is very comfortable with her new religion — "the two calves of gold." Jeroboam, arrayed as king and priest, stands by his altar offering incense to his "god." The entire court assists, together with a vast multitude of worshippers, so-called. In fact, nothing is lacking to win the admiration of the religious world. But then, the spectacle is interrupted by a "man of God out of Judah," who has a "Word from the LORD.")

[2] And he cried against the altar in the Word of the LORD, and said, O altar, altar, thus says the LORD; Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name; and upon you shall he offer the priests of the high places who burn incense upon you, and men's bones shall be burnt upon you. (This altar, one might say, was a "bastard" altar, designed by man, which referred to golden calves as god. There was only one Altar in all of Israel that God would recognize, and that was in Jerusalem. The Altar that was in Jerusalem at the Temple was designed by the Holy Spirit, and it portrayed Calvary, yet to come. This "altar" of Jeroboam would deliver no one. It is representative of the multitudinous altars of this world, devised by the hand of man, with many of them in Christendom.

"Josiah," nearly 350 years later, exactly as the prophecy predicted, would destroy this altar; likewise, all false religion in Israel, and elsewhere in the world, will ultimately be destroyed by "a child that shall be born unto the house of David" with the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ [Zech. 13:2].)

[3] And he gave a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which the LORD has spoken; Behold, the Altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out (which was to happen almost immediately!).

4 And it came to pass, when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the Altar in Beth-el, that he put forth his hand from the Altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him. (Man has ever tried to stop the Word of God. He will listen to every false message that is given, by every heathen priest, with no reaction, but the moment the "Word of the LORD" is pronounced, he will resort even to violence to stop it.

The extended "dried up" hand of Jeroboam is a picture of that which will happen to the Antichrist during the Battle of Armageddon. The "man of sin" will put forth his hand against the Lord Jesus Christ, and he will see it "dry up" before his very eyes.)

5 The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the Altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the Word of the LORD.

6 And the king answered and said unto the man of God, Intreat now the face of the LORD your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God besought the LORD, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before. (Despite the fact that one of the most striking displays of power is recorded, still, Jeroboam did not repent. It is amazing at man's ability to see and sense the Power of God in operation and still rebel. Miracles, as wonderful as they are, do not bring people to Jesus. It is the convicting Power of the Holy Spirit upon a weeping heart that does so.)

7 And the king said unto the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward. (This is the greatest danger that the Church presently faces. It is very difficult to turn down the "reward." The modern Church all too often seeks after the accommodations of the world, its plaudits, approval, and reward, and, to receive such, it will compromise its message, substitute its altar, and seek “unity” at any price.)

8 And the man of God said unto the king, If you will give me half your house, I will not go in with you, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place:

9 For so was it charged me by the Word of the LORD, saying, Eat no bread, nor drink water, nor turn again by the same way that you came. (The Prophet’s refusal to participate was consequently a practical and forcible disclaimer of all fellowship, a virtual excommunication, a public repudiation of the calf-worshippers.)

10 So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el.

THE PROPHET’S DISOBEDIENCE AND DEATH

11 Now there dwelt an old Prophet in Beth-el; and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el: the words which he had spoken unto the king, them they told also to their father. (This “old Prophet” had long since turned his back on God. Why didn’t God use the “old Prophet” to speak to Jeroboam? He, no doubt, lived within walking distance of the “altar.” The word “old” signifies that the man had once known the Lord, but now had compromised his ministry and his message.)

12 And their father said unto them, What way went he? For his sons had seen what way the man of God went, which came from Judah.

13 And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the ass. So they saddled him the ass: and he rode thereon,

14 And went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak: and he said unto him, Are you the man of God who came from Judah? And he said, I am.

15 Then he said unto him, Come home with me, and eat bread.

16 And he said, I may not return with you, nor go in with you: neither will I eat bread nor drink water with you in this place:

17 For it was said to me by the Word of the LORD, You shall eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that you came.

18 He said unto him, I am a Prophet also as you are; and an Angel spoke unto me by the Word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with you into your house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him (even if an Angel did speak, which he really didn't, still, nothing must take precedence over the Word of God [Gal. 1:8]).

19 So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water. (This was in direct disobedience to the Word of God. It would cost him his life. As well, it will cost the life of the Church. The two greatest dangers of the Church are the "Jeroboams," who represent the world and its ways, and, second, "the old Prophets," who represent the apostate Church.

The old Prophet, whose duty it was to have testified against the evil around him, bore with it, and, by his silence, sanctioned it; therefore, he was very anxious that the "man of God" should approve his unfaithfulness by association with it; consequently, the "man of God" was ensnared.)

20 And it came to pass, as they sat at the table, that the Word of the LORD came unto the Prophet who brought him back:

21 And he cried unto the man of God who came from Judah, saying, Thus says the LORD, Forasmuch as you have disobeyed the mouth of the LORD, and have not kept the Commandment which the LORD your God commanded you,

22 But came back, and have eaten bread and drunk water in the place, of the which the LORD did say to you, Eat no bread, and drink no water; your carcase shall not come unto the sepulchre of your fathers. (Strangely enough, the Lord will use the "old Prophet" to cry out "against the man of God," and to deliver a message of judgment against him. He would disobey God by originally listening to this man, and, in turn, God would have this man pronounce his doom. Many blanch at the fierceness of the Lord in bringing about the demise of the man of God. However, the sin of compromising the Word is far worse than sins of passion. God's pronouncement of judgment upon a wayward Israel was now compromised by the "man of God" associating with its backslidden "old Prophet." In God's eyes, the compromise of the "old Prophet" was as bad as Jeroboam's two golden calves. The true Prophet of God entered into that compromise when he disobeyed the Lord by going to this man's house.)

23 And it came to pass, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the ass, to wit, for the Prophet whom he had brought back.

24 And when he was gone, a lion met him by the way, and killed him: and his carcase was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it, the lion also stood by the carcase (the lion was sent and instructed by God).

25 And, behold, men passed by, and saw the carcase cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carcase: and they came and told it in the city where the old Prophet dwelt.

26 And when the Prophet who brought him back from the way heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who was disobedient unto the Word of the LORD: therefore the LORD has delivered him unto the lion, which has torn him, and killed him, according to the Word of the LORD, which He spoke unto him.

27 And he spoke to his sons, saying, Saddle me the ass. And they saddled him.

28 And he went and found his carcase cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcase: the lion had not eaten the carcase, nor torn the ass (which was completely contrary to the nature of such an animal).

29 And the Prophet took up the carcase of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back: and the old Prophet came to the city, to mourn and to bury him.

30 And he laid his carcase in his own grave; and they mourned over him, saying, Alas, my brother!

31 And it came to pass, after he had buried him, that he spoke to his sons, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre wherein the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones (he had no problem being with him in death, but he would not stand with him in life):

32 For the saying which he cried by the Word of the LORD against the altar in Beth-el, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to pass.

JEROBOAM PERSISTS IN HIS EVIL

33 After this thing Jeroboam returned not from his evil way, but made again of the lowest of the people priests of the high places: whosoever would, he consecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the high places. (According to Josephus, the old Prophet now explained away the miracles of the Prophet of Judah, alleging that the altar had fallen because it was new, and the king's hand had become powerless from fatigue.)

34 And this thing became sin unto the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the face of the Earth. (The just anger of God in destroying his idolatrous altar and the amazing Grace of God in restoring his withered hand are alike resisted by him. The word "sin" in this Verse should read "the sin," because it contains the definite article. It spoke of idolatry, but more than anything of the repudiation of the True Cross, and the substituting of another. In fact, that has always been the sin. The Message is, "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" [I Cor. 1:23]. Man has ever attempted to change that, and, regrettably, the Church most of all.)

CHAPTER 14

(956 B.C.)

JEROBOAM SENDS HIS WIFE TO AHIJAH THE PROPHET

[1] At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick. (Through this sickness, which will result in death, the Lord makes a final appeal to Jeroboam, just as He has made such to untold millions.)

[2] And Jeroboam said to his wife, Arise, I pray you, and disguise yourself, that you be not known to be the wife of Jeroboam; and get you to Shiloh: behold, there is Ahijah the Prophet, which told me that I should be king over this people. (Concerning this, Williams says, "The darkness of Jeroboam's heart is further seen in his asking the Queen to disguise herself lest the people should know her to be the Queen. To openly seek help from God on behalf of his son would show the people that he himself had no faith in the idol he had set up, and would affect the stability of his kingdom. His folly is further to be seen in that his wife was to try to deceive the God of Israel, although she sought unto Him for Truth!")

[3] And take with you ten loaves, and cracknels, and a cruse of honey, and go to him: he shall tell you what shall become of the child (his idol gods surely couldn't tell him, and, in his heart, he knew that the True God of Israel held the answer, and that He Alone held the answer).

[4] And Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. But Ahijah could not see; for his eyes were set by reason of his age. (In Verses 1-4, one can see the depths of sin to which Jeroboam had taken Israel. He had no confidence in these "golden calves," which had taken the northern kingdom of Israel to the depths. The "calves" were merely political expediency to keep Israel from going to Jerusalem to worship God. He knew that Jehovah controlled all. Still, he would not serve Him.)

5 And the LORD said unto Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam comes to ask a thing of you for her son; for he is sick: thus and thus shall you say unto her: for it shall be, when she comes in, that she shall feign herself to be another woman. (Few men have been dealt with by the Lord such as Jeroboam. It almost seems as if the Lord is pleading with him to repent.)

6 And it was so, when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said, Come in, you wife of Jeroboam; why do you feign yourself to be another? for I am sent to you with heavy tidings. (Even the "heavy tidings" was the Hand of God. He would try to bring Jeroboam to his senses, as He has tried to bring multiple hundreds of millions to their senses, but, tragically, to no avail!)

THE PROPHECY AGAINST JEROBOAM

7 Go, tell Jeroboam, Thus says the LORD God of Israel, Forasmuch as I exalted you from among the people, and made you prince over My people Israel (even though the Lord gave him this position, he executed the position totally contrary to the Will of the Lord; every Preacher should read these words very carefully)**,

8 And rent the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it you: and yet you have not been as My servant David, who kept My Commandments, and who followed Me with all his heart, to do that only which was right in My eyes (a self-righteous Church world can never understand this, especially considering Bath-sheba and Uriah; nevertheless, the answer is simple; David repented! All sin repented of, and, consequently, washed by the Blood of Jesus Christ, is not only forgiven by God, but forgotten; it is called "Justification"; it then stands in the Eyes of God as though it never happened)**;

9 But have done evil above all that were before you: for you have gone and made you other gods, and molten images, to provoke Me to anger, and have cast Me behind your back (it would seem from this statement that Jeroboam had once known the Lord in a very real way; he had received Prophecies, and then was promised a sure house and a kingdom if he would obey; this one Passage alone, along with all the many others in the Word of God, dispute the fallacious doctrine of "unconditional eternal security" [Heb. 6:1-6; 10:26-31]):

10 Therefore, behold, I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam him who urinates against the wall (all the men of the family), and him who is shut up and left in Israel, and will take away the remnant of the house of Jeroboam, as a man takes away dung, till it be all gone (the Lord set up Jeroboam, and the Lord will take down Jeroboam).

11 Him who dies of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat; and him who dies in the field shall the fowls of the air eat: for the LORD has spoken it. (There could be no greater disgrace to a Jew than this. As well, we see that the Prophet Ahijah did not mince words, even though he was talking with the queen. How many Prophets presently will deliver the Word of the Lord without addition or deletion? I'm afraid not many!)

12 Arise you therefore, get you to your own house: and when your feet enter into the city, the child shall die. (The word "child" in the Hebrew, as used here, has reference to one who could be in his late teens, or even early twenties. There are few men whom God dealt with as He dealt with Jeroboam. If the death of a son [or daughter] has no effect on a parent regarding their relationship with God, then there is very little else that God can do.)

13 And all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him: for he only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing toward the LORD God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam. (Evidently, Abijah had some qualities in him toward God that endeared him to the whole of Israel. So, God would take the young man, as a flower would be plucked from a garbage dump.)

14 Moreover the LORD shall raise Him up a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam that day: but what? even now. (Even though it began at that moment, it would be some twenty years before Baasha would destroy all of Jeroboam's seed. This Prophecy in no way meant that Baasha would be Godly; in fact, he was evil. It does show that God rules in the affairs of men, setting up one and pulling down another.)

15 For the LORD shall smite Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water, and he shall root up Israel out of this good land, which he gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond the river, because they have made their groves, provoking the LORD to anger. (This refers to the River Euphrates, when Israel would be taken captive by the Assyrians. It happened about 250 years after the Prophecy was given.)

16 And He shall give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, who did sin, and who made Israel to sin. (The very fact that Jeroboam sent his wife to the Prophet Ahijah shows that the Lord was dealing with him. So why did he not repent then? As we shall see, the Prophecy given to him by his wife, as it had been given to her by the Prophet, even with the death of his son, had no effect. He continued on in his evil ways, and would not repent. It is remarkable as to the stubbornness of the human heart when it comes to God. Men do not repent quickly or easily!)

THE DEATH OF JEROBOAM'S SON

17 And Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah: and when she came to the threshold of the door, the child died (exactly as the Prophet said would happen [Vs. 12]);

18 And they buried him; and all Israel mourned for him, according to the Word of the LORD, which He spoke by the hand of His servant Ahijah the Prophet. (If the Word of the Lord is ignored, the end result will not be happy!)

THE DEATH OF JEROBOAM

19 And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

20 And the days which Jeroboam reigned were two and twenty years: and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his stead. (The exploits of this long reign find no mention in Scripture; the historian dwells exclusively on the sin, the consequences of which were of so much greater moment.)

THE REIGN OF REHOBOAM; THE SINS OF JUDAH

21 And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD did choose out of all the Tribes of Israel, to put His Name there. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess. (The writer of I Kings reminds us that Jerusalem was by God's appointment the spiritual center of the land; that Bethel and Dan were no sanctuaries of His choosing; and that, however much the realm of Rehoboam was restricted, he still reigned in the capital of God's choice — Spence.)

22 And Judah did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they provoked Him to jealousy with their sins which they had committed, above all that their fathers had done. (For the first three years the nation remained steadfast in the faith [II Chron. 12:1]. The defection commenced when Rehoboam began to feel himself secure [II Chron. 11:17; 12:1]. Idolatry was unfaithfulness to God, and provoked the Lord to jealousy.)

23 For they also built them high places, and images, and groves, on every high hill, and under every green tree. (The word "images" actually refers to pillars or statues. This was probably the Asherah, which was the male reproductive member. Its system of worship incorporated all types of immoral rites. In other words, it was the most abominable of the abominable.)

24 And there were also sodomites in the land: and they did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD cast out before the Children of Israel. (Sodomites are homosexuals [Gen., Chpt. 17]. Here it refers to male prostitutes dedicated to idolatry involving this sin [II Ki.

23:7]. Such was forbidden by the Law of God [Deut. 23:17-18]. The Lord refers to this sin as an "abomination." A nation begins to lose its way when three sins become prominent: "pedophilia," "homosexuality," and "murder.")

SHISHAK OF EGYPT SPOILS JERUSALEM

25 And it came to pass in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem (Shishak was founder of the 22nd Egyptian Dynasty)**:

26 And he took away the treasures of the House of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he even took away all: and he took away all the shields of gold which Solomon had made.

27 And king Rehoboam made in their stead brasen (copper) shields, and committed them unto the hands of the chief of the guard, which kept the door of the king's house.

28 And it was so, when the king went into the House of the LORD, that the guard bore them, and brought them back into the guard chamber. (The "shields of gold," in some way, represented God's Blessings upon Israel. The "shields of copper," in some way, represented the sorry state in which Israel now found herself. Just a short time before, she was the most powerful nation on the face of the Earth. And now, because of her transgression against God, the Lord allows the "king of Egypt" to do damage to Israel. The "gold" was a Type of Deity, referring to the fact that God ruled in Judah. Brass, or copper, was a type of humanity, which states that men are now guiding Judah instead of God, hence the disruption and declension.)

REHOBOAM DIES

29 Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

30 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days.

31 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David (Jerusalem). And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess. And Abijam his son reigned in his stead. (Twice the Holy Spirit refers to the mother of Rehoboam as "the Ammonitess." It can hardly be doubted that she was one of the "Ammonitesses" who turned away Solomon's heart. In fact, she was the one who brought the worship of Moloch to Jerusalem, and was, as well, influential, no doubt, in the spiritual declension of her son, and, thereby, the wreckage of Judah.)

CHAPTER 15

(951 B.C.)

THE SHORT, WICKED REIGN OF ABIJAM

[1] Now in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat reigned Abijam over Judah.

[2] Three years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom. (In II Chron., Chpt. 11, it is stated that she was the daughter of Absalom; II Chron., Chpt. 13, states that she was the daughter of Uriel. In the Old Testament, there were no terms for granddaughter, etc. In fact, the terms for both "daughter" and "granddaughter" are identical. The Bible does not distinguish between the two. It seems that his mother was the daughter of the son-in-law of Absalom.)

[3] And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father (his "heart not being right" proclaims the fact that the "Absalom spirit" had its deadly effect on all whom it touched; once again, David is held up as the example of Righteousness).

[4] Nevertheless for David's sake did the LORD his God give him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem ("for David's sake," the Blessings of the Lord would be given to Judah and Jerusalem; likewise, "for Jesus' sake," we, who deserve nothing, are given everything)**:

[5] Because David did that which was right in the Eyes of the LORD (it is not important regarding the "eyes of man," but very important regarding the "Eyes of the LORD"; if all men smile and God frowns, the smile of man will serve little; if all men frown and God smiles, then all the frowns will not hinder), and turned not aside from anything that He (the Lord) com manded him all the days of his life, save only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. (This statement about Uriah proclaims the Grace of God and, at the same time, the anger of God against sin, which He cannot condone in any case. The only place for sin is at the foot of the Cross; nothing else will have any measurable impact.)

6 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life. (Israelites fighting each other is exactly what Satan desired. Regrettably, too much of the modern Church seems to follow suit.)

7 Now the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam (Abijam evidently took up where his father Jeroboam left off).

8 And Abijam slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead. (In II Chron. 12:16, the king's name is recorded as Abijah; but the sacred affix "Jah" was very quickly changed by the Holy Spirit into the word "jam." Such is the case in many a life; there is a fair start, but a foul ending! The first title means "Jehovah is my Father"; the second, "the Sea is my Father." The Heavenly contrasted with an earthly birth — the restless sea with the peace-filled Heaven.)

ASA'S LONG REIGN

9 And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel reigned Asa over Judah.

10 And forty and one years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom. (This is the same as Verse 2. Probably the best explanation is that she was the same one of Verse 2, and was actually the grandmother of Asa. There is no word for "grandmother" in the Hebrew language. She could have retained her position, maybe by force of character, or because Asa's mother was dead.)

11 And Asa did that which was right in the Eyes of the LORD, as did David his father. (How refreshing it is to see a king over Judah spoken of by the Holy Spirit in this fashion!)

12 And he took away the sodomites out of the land (what he did with them, we aren't told), and removed all the idols that his fathers had made.

13 And also Maachah his mother (grandmother), even her he removed from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove; and Asa destroyed her idol, and burnt it by the brook Kidron.

14 But the high places were not removed: nevertheless Asa's heart was perfect with the LORD all his days (the failure to remove the "high places" was brought out by the Holy Spirit for a reason; they were generally locations where altars to Jehovah were built and proper sacrifices offered; however, most of them were soon turned into idolatry, where every immoral act imaginable was practiced; we are given very little information, and it seems that the Holy Spirit absolved Asa of responsibility, considering what He says about him).

15 And he brought in the things which his father had dedicated, and the things which himself had dedicated, into the House of the LORD, silver, and gold, and vessels (these were probably the spoils of the war with the Ethiopians [II Chron. 14:15; 15:11]).

WAR BETWEEN ASA AND BAASHA

16 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days (probably refers to hostility).

17 And Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not suffer any to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

18 Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the House of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: and king Asa sent them to Ben-hadad, the son of Tabrimon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, who dwelt at Damascus, saying (Asa's calling Ben-hadad to his aid was condemned by the Prophet, Hanani [II Chron. 16:7]), 19 There is a league between me and you, and between my father and your father: behold, I have sent unto you a present of silver and gold; come and break your league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

20 So Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of the hosts which he had against the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-beth-maachah, and all Cinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.

21 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard thereof, that he left off building of Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah.

22 Then king Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah; none was exempted: and they took away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had built; and king Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.

ASA'S DEATH

23 The rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? Nevertheless in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. ("Old age" refers to the time of his death. The Holy Spirit also signifies that his resorting to the physicians of that day was displeasing to the Lord [II Chron. 16:12]. Most "physicians" then functioned in the realm of demon spirits, hence the objection by the Holy Spirit. He didn't lose his soul by this act, but the implication is that he shortened his life.)

24 And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead.

THE EVIL REIGN OF NADAB, KING OF ISRAEL

25 And Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned over Israel two years.

26 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin (idolatry) wherewith he (Jeroboam) made Israel to sin.

THE REIGN OF BAASHA, THIRD KING OF ISRAEL

27 And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha smote him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon. (Had Nadab attacked idolatry instead of attacking the Philistines, how different would have been his conclusion!)

28 Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Baasha kill him, and reigned in his stead.

29 And it came to pass, when he reigned, that he smote all the house of Jeroboam; he left not to Jeroboam any who breathed, until he had destroyed him, according unto the saying of the LORD, which He spoke by His servant Ahijah the Shilonite (14:10-14):

30 Because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and which he made Israel sin, by his provocation wherewith he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.

31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

32 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, twenty and four years.

34 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin (idolatry) wherewith he (Jeroboam) made Israel to sin. (As the account, whether righteous or unrighteous, is inscribed by the Holy Spirit, and for all eternity, so it is with every person [Rev. 20:12-13].)

CHAPTER 16

JEHU'S PROPHECY AGAINST BAASHA

[1] Then the Word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying (the reigns of these five kings of Israel are related with great brevity; the Holy Spirit is concerned only with the events of their reigns insofar as they relate to the Kingdom of God),

[2] Forasmuch as I exalted you out of the dust, and made you prince over My people Israel; and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made My people Israel to sin, to provoke Me to anger with their sins (according to Verse 1, the message was not "to him," but rather "against him");

[3] Behold, I will take away the posterity of Baasha, and the posterity of his house; and will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat ("take away" means "exterminate").

[4] Him who dies of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and him who dies of his in the fields shall the fowls of the air eat (all the Prophets in succession have the same Message from God for the same sins).

[5] Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the Book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? (Their wars and their acts are stated to be recorded in the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel. Where is this book? It is lost. Why? Because there is no profit to be had from the doings of the workers of iniquity.)

[6] So Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah: and Elah his son reigned in his stead.

[7] And also by the hand of the Prophet Jehu the son of Hanani came the Word of the LORD against Baasha, and against his house, even for all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, in provoking Him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam; and because he (Baasha) killed him (killed Jeroboam; it seems like Baasha executed the judgment with personal and cruel delight, therefore, God smote his family; later on in the Bible, this same principle reappears; the Babylonians were judged by God because they also mercilessly executed His Wrath upon Israel; Believers should never indulge in personal satisfaction on witnessing or hearing of Divine chastisement upon others).

ELAH'S TWO-YEAR REIGN OVER ISRAEL

8 In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, two years.

ZIMRI'S SEVEN-DAY REIGN

9 And his servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza steward of his house in Tirzah.

10 And Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead.

11 And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he killed all the house of Baasha: he left him not one who urinates against a wall, neither of his kinsfolks, nor of his friends (he was not content with exterminating the royal family; he, as well, put to death all who were connected with Baasha in any way).

12 Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the Word of the LORD, which He spoke against Baasha by Jehu the Prophet,

13 For all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, by which they sinned, and by which they made Israel to sin, in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities (these kings leave one sad record upon the page of sacred history — that they did evil).

14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

THE WICKEDNESS OF OMRI

15 In the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah did Zimri reign seven days in Tirzah. And the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.

16 And the people who were encamped heard say, Zimri has conspired, and has also killed the king: wherefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp.

17 And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.

18 And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the palace of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died,

19 For his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin (all of this tells us that the Lord cut short the lives of these kings because of their evil).

20 Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel? (The casual reader may wonder why all of this is important. It is important because these people were raised up by God to carry His Name in the Earth. In fact, Israel and Judah were the only two nations in the world which knew Jehovah. Sadly and regrettably, they were poor examples, and were such until they were finally destroyed; however, the promises and predictions of the Prophets are clear that Israel will be restored, and that restoration has already begun. It will come to its successful conclusion at the Second Coming, when Israel then accepts Christ as her Saviour and her Lord.)

21 Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri.

22 But the people who followed Omri prevailed against the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

23 In the thirty and first year of Asa king of Judah began Omri to reign over Israel, twelve years: six years reigned he in Tirzah.

24 And he bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill, Samaria (because of this, the northern kingdom at times was referred to as "Samaria").

25 But Omri wrought evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all who were before him (this seems to point to the organization of the calf-worship into a regular formal system).

26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities. (It seems this man Jeroboam was the epitome of evil, because all evil was judged against his evil. His wickedness was not merely a wickedness of passion, but rather of design; therefore, it was more evil.)

27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he showed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

WICKED AHAB REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

28 So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

29 And in the thirty and eighth year of Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty and two years.

30 And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD above all who were before him (under Ahab, positive idolatry was established and fostered — the worship of foreign and shameful deities).

AHAB MARRIES JEZEBEL

31 And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him. (Baal was the supreme male god of the Canaanitish races, as Ashtoreth was their great female divinity. Jezebel would introduce Baal worship in Israel in a manner that it had not known previously — a sin that God hated supremely.)

32 And he reared up an Altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria (the house and its contents alike were ultimately destroyed by Jehu [II Ki. 10:27]).

33 And Ahab made a grove; and Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him (without sincere Repentance, evil can only get worse and worse!).

34 In his days did Hiel the Beth-elite build Jericho: he laid the foundation thereof in Abiram his firstborn, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest son Segub, according to the Word of the LORD, which He spoke by Joshua the son of Nun. (The Holy Spirit takes the occasion in this Verse to introduce the fulfilling of the Prophecy given to "Joshua, the son of Nun." Ignoring or despising the Bible, Hiel moves against the prediction of Joshua given some 500 years before and rebuilds the walls which the judgment of God had thrown down. Upon laying the foundations, his oldest son is smitten with death. It also seems that his youngest son died whenever the wall was finished. Ahab should have learned from this how vain and how deadly are the results of opposing God.)

CHAPTER 17

THE ENTRANCE OF THE PROPHET ELIJAH

[1] And Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead (his name means "God is Jehovah"; he is considered one of the greatest of the Prophets; he is brought on the scene by the Holy Spirit without fanfare, and even without introduction), said unto Ahab, As the LORD God of Israel lives, before Whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word. (The idolatrous priests no doubt claimed for Baal dominion over nature and absolute control over the clouds and rain; however, Elijah would portray the fact that it was Jehovah Who ordered the elements, and not Baal. The impotency of Baal to remove the ban would prove the impotency of their god and their claims.)

THE RAVENS FEED ELIJAH

[2] And the Word of the LORD came unto him, saying (in all this which he did, Elijah was guided by the Word of the Lord, which cannot fail)**,

[3] Get you hence, and turn you eastward, and hide yourself by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan ("Cherith" means "separation"; even though Elijah was in Israel, which at the time was notoriously wicked, he was separate from its impurity, which the Lord intended; as Believers, we are to be "in" the world, but not "of" the world).

[4] And it shall be, that you shall drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there (as the Lord had total control over the elements, as well, He had total control over the fowls of the heavens, which He had created and, in fact, He has control over everything; when we tap into His Resources, we are tapping into an unlimited supply).

5 So he went and did according unto the Word of the LORD: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

6 And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook (to deny this is to deny the fact that God has total control over His Creation).

7 And it came to pass after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land (as to exactly how long this was, we aren't told; it is almost positive, however, that it was more than two years that the Prophet dwelt there).

ELIJAH RAISES THE WIDOW'S SON

8 And the Word of the LORD came unto him, saying,

9 Arise, get you to Zarephath, which belongs to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain you (this woman was a Gentile, and, as we shall see, she was also poverty stricken; Jesus mentioned this incident [Lk. 4:25-26]).

10 So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman was there gathering of sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray you, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink (even though this woman was a Gentile and, therefore, not a part of the Covenant of Abraham, it must have been that she had turned her back on the heathen gods which she had previously worshipped, and had now called on Jehovah, the God of Israel; irrespective as to where it is, or from whom it comes, God will always honor Faith).

11 And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray you, a morsel of bread in your hand (what Elijah knew at this point, we aren't told; however, the Lord was about to test her, just as He tests all of us).

12 And she said, As the LORD your God lives (notice, she subscribed Jehovah to Elijah, and not to herself; she had not been serving Jehovah, but rather heathen idols; but things are about to change), I have not a cake (a piece of bread), but an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and, behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die (as is obvious, her situation was desperate!).

[13] And Elijah said unto her, Fear not; go and do as you have said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto me, and after make for you and for your son. (This was her test. What would she do? A great lesson is taught here. The economy of the Lord was about to be introduced to this woman. The world says, "Give to me first, and then maybe I'll give something back to you." However, the Lord says, "Give to Me first, whatever it is you have, however meager it might be, at least if it represents your best, and then I will give back to you.")

[14] For thus says the LORD God of Israel, The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that the LORD sends rain upon the Earth. (The woman now had the Promise before her. Would she believe it and act upon it? Or would she reject it? Thank God, she believed the Promise, and acted accordingly.

To be sure, that Promise given by the Holy Spirit through Elijah so long, long ago is just as apropos today as it was then. If we "seek first the Kingdom of God, and His Righteousness; then all of these things shall be added unto us" [Mat. 6:33].)

[15] And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, did eat many days ("her house" refers to her relatives, and possibly even her friends; no matter how much meal she took out of the barrel, or how much oil was taken from the cruse, as much or more remained; once again, please allow me to state that this is a Law of God, which applies even now, at least for those who will dare to believe Him).

[16] And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the Word of the LORD, which He spoke by Elijah (having received a Prophet in the name of a Prophet, she received a Prophet's reward [Mat. 10:41-42]).

17 And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him (he was dead!).

18 And she said unto Elijah, What have I to do with you, O you man of God? are you come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to kill my son? (Whenever the Lord moves mightily, as He did here, Satan will then attack. This means that the second trial of Faith is oftentimes harder than the first trial. But please remember: all of it, irrespective of the course it might take, is a test of our Faith.)

19 And he said unto her, Give me your son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into a loft, where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed. (Elijah laid the corpse upon his own bed. Why did the Prophet take the boy to his own personal room, afforded him by the widow? It was done as a token to show that his presence in her house was definitely a blessing and not a curse.)

20 And he cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, have You also brought evil upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by killing her son? (Elijah proclaims the fact that God controls all things, and especially life and death.)

21 And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, I pray you, let this child's soul come into him again. (Again, this shows that the boy was dead. Why "three times"? The Lord evidently told him to do this. It actually had nothing to do with the miracle which transpired, but was rather to symbolically portray the Triune God — "God the Father," "God the Son," and "God the Holy Spirit.")

22 And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived (recovered, and did so instantly!).

23 And Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto his mother: and Elijah said, See, your son lives. (Death had been suspended by and through the barrel of meal and the cruse of oil not failing, and now, again, it had been suspended by being miraculously dismissed [Jn. 10:10].)

[24] And the woman said to Elijah, Now by this I know that you are a man of God, and that the Word of the LORD in your mouth is truth (presents a statement of Faith far greater than the present miracle; this Gentile woman is exclaiming the fact that Israel's God is now her God).

CHAPTER 18

ELIJAH GOES TO MEET AHAB

[1] And it came to pass after many days, that the Word of the LORD came to Elijah in the third year (the third year of the drought), saying, Go, show yourself unto Ahab; and I will send rain upon the Earth. (The New Testament distinctly states that the drought lasted "three years and six months" [Lk. 4:25; James 5:17]. So, there must have been several months from the time that the Lord spoke to Elijah until he actually did see Ahab, which would total the three and a half years which the drought lasted.)

[2] And Elijah went to show himself unto Ahab. And there was a sore famine in Samaria. (The famine that was in the land of Samaria due to the drought was also indicative of the spiritual condition. Presently, despite the innumerable Churches in America, I'm afraid the true picture is actually far different than appears on the surface. There is presently a famine in the land, as it refers to the Word of God.)

[3] And Ahab called Obadiah (this is not the same Prophet who wrote the Book which bears that name), which was the governor of his house. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly (the Lord placed this man in this high office in Samaria that He might use him to protect true Prophets of the Lord, among other things):

[4] For it was so, when Jezebel cut off the Prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took an hundred Prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.)

[5] And Ahab said unto Obadiah, Go into the land, unto all fountains of water, and unto all brooks: peradventure we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, that we lose not all the beasts (as is obvious, the situation had become desperate).

6 So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

7 And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Are you that my lord Elijah?

8 And he answered him, I am: go, tell your lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

9 And he said, What have I sinned, that you would deliver your servant into the hand of Ahab, to kill me?

10 As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord has not sent to seek you: and when they said, He is not there; he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they found you not. (Why was Ahab this desperate to find Elijah? The answer is simple; it was Elijah who had stopped the rain, and it was Elijah alone who could bring back the rain [James 5:17-18].)

11 And now you say, Go, tell your lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

12 And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from you, that the Spirit of the LORD shall carry you whither I know not; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find you, he shall kill me: but I your servant fear the LORD from my youth.

13 Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the Prophets of the LORD, how I hid an hundred men of the LORD's Prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water? (Considering the drought and the famine, this was a considerable undertaking.)

14 And now you say, Go, tell your lord, Behold, Elijah is here: and he shall kill me.

15 And Elijah said, As the LORD of Hosts lives, before Whom I stand, I will surely show myself unto him to day (because the Lord had told him to do so [Vs. 1]).

16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17 And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Are you he who troubles Israel?

18 And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but you, and your father's house, in that you have forsaken the Commandments of the LORD, and you have followed Baalim (in other words, this was the cause of all of Israel's problems).

19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto Mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the Prophets of the groves four hundred, which eat at Jezebel's table (these were two different sets of false prophets, totaling 850; 400 were supported by Jezebel).

THE CONTEST ON MOUNT CARMEL

20 So Ahab sent unto all the Children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto Mount Carmel (this took some days, and possibly several weeks).

21 And Elijah came unto all the people (when they all had gathered at Mount Carmel), and said, How long halt you between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow Him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word (the objective of Elijah was to prove that Jehovah, and not Baal, was God).

22 Then said Elijah unto the people, I, even I only, remain a Prophet of the LORD (not the only Prophet of the Lord in Israel, but the only one present that day on Mount Carmel); but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men (one man against 450).

23 Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under (the Lord had no doubt told him to do this):

[24] And call you on the name of your gods, and I will call on the Name of the LORD: and the God Who answers by fire, let Him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken (Baal claimed to be the Sun-god and lord of the elements and forces of nature; while Jehovah, as well, identified Himself with this token [Lev. 9:24; I Chron. 21:26; II Chron. 7:1]).

THE FUTILE EFFORTS OF BAAL'S PROPHETS

[25] And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and dress it first; for you are many; and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under.

[26] And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any who answered. And they leaped upon the altar which was made. (Let the words, "there was no answer," be amply heard! Of all the religious superstition in the world presently, there is no answer from that source. As then, so now!)

[27] And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud: for he is a god; either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or perhaps he sleeps, and must be awakened (in other words, Elijah is mocking them!).

[28] And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancets, till the blood gushed out upon them (they were becoming desperate!).

[29] And it came to pass, when midday was past, and they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice (about 3 p.m.), that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any who regarded (their petitions went unanswered).

THE FIRE FROM HEAVEN CONSUMES ELIJAH'S SACRIFICE

[30] And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the Altar of the LORD that was broken down. (The "Altar" was a Type of the coming Cross, and what Jesus would do there. As is obvious, Israel no longer believed in the Altar of Jehovah and, above all, what it represented, namely the Cross. Elijah repaired the Altar, which had once been used, but had fallen into disrepair. The Church presently desperately needs to "repair the Altar of the Lord that is broken down." In other words, it desperately needs to re-establish its faith in Christ and the Cross.)

[31] And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the Tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the Word of the LORD came, saying, Israel shall be your name:

[32] And with the stones he built an Altar (repaired the Altar) in the Name of the LORD ("twelve" is God's number of Government; all of this plainly tells us that God's Government must have the Cross as its foundation, or else it's not God's Government [I Pet. 1:18-20]): and he made a trench about the Altar (the "trench" speaks of separation from the world, which the Cross will always bring about), as great as would contain two measures of seed.

[33] And he put the wood in order (typifying the Cross), and cut the bullock in pieces (typifying the death of Christ), and laid him on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water (typical of the Word of God, with the number "four" typifying all four corners of the compass, referring to the fact that Jesus died for the whole world [Jn. 3:16]), and pour it on the Burnt Sacrifice, and on the wood (signifying that the Word of God, symbolized by the water, covered everything that Jesus would do)**.

[34] And he said, Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time (once again, signifying the Triune God!)**.

[35] And the water ran round about the Altar; and he filled the trench also with water (typifying that all were saturated in the Word of God, of which the water was a Type).

[36] And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the evening Sacrifice, that Elijah the Prophet came near, and said, LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that You are God in Israel, and that I am Your servant, and that I have done all these things at Your Word (in other words, the Lord told him exactly what to do in all of this situation).

[37] Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that You are the LORD God, and that You have turned their heart back again (all of this would be done to turn the hearts of Israel back to God).

[38] Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the Burnt Sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench (the "fire" was a Type of the Judgment of God that would fall on Christ when He hung on the Cross, with Him suffering death, and all on our behalf).

[39] And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, He is the God; the LORD, He is the God (not Baal, but Jehovah).

[40] And Elijah said unto them, Take the Prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape. And they took them: and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and killed them there (there is no record that Elijah carried out this task himself, but rather that the people of Israel did).

RAIN IS COMING

[41] And Elijah said unto Ahab, Get you up, eat and drink; for there is a sound of abundance of rain (the people had been directed back to the Cross, of which the Altar was a Type, and now the Rain of the Spirit could fall; before the Holy Spirit can work, the Church must come back to the Cross; there is no other way!).

[42] So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees (the posture witnessed to the intensity of his supplication), [43] And said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again seven times ("seven" is God's number of perfection; in other words, the rain that was coming would be in proportion to God Who was sending it; even though the Lord had promised this, we find that Elijah had to persevere; this should be a lesson to us; if we ask and we do not receive, we ought to keep asking [Lk. 11:6-13])**.

[44] And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there arises a little cloud out of the sea, like a man's hand. And he said, Go up, say unto Ahab, Prepare your chariot, and get you down that the rain stop you not.

[45] And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel.

[46] And the Hand of the LORD was on Elijah; and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel (for Elijah to have been able to physically do this would once again demand the Power of God; it was done in order to show Ahab that the supernatural Power of God was on Elijah the Prophet, as if what had just happened concerning the falling of the fire was not enough!)**.

CHAPTER 19

(906 B.C.)

ELIJAH FLEES FROM JEZEBEL

[1] And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and withal how he had killed all the prophets (of Baal) with the sword.

[2] Then Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time. (She claimed she would kill Elijah. It should have been obvious to the Prophet that her threats were empty. Almost immediately after a great victory in the Lord, Satan often attacks with great success. In this, we must remember that the faith of yesterday does not suffice for the need of today. The Child of God must ever have a continued deposit of the touch of God, even on a daily basis. If Jezebel was so sure of her position, why did she not send soldiers to kill Elijah, instead of a messenger with the threat? She did not do so, because she feared for the life of the soldiers, and even herself. As the fear of Elijah was totally unfounded, so is the fear of every other Child of God unfounded.)

[3] And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there. (The mighty Prophet is now operating from a position of fear. Fear always leads one away from the Will of God. Faith always leads one toward the Will of God. But fear is now in control.

As well, fear always seeks isolation, so he left his servant in Beer-sheba.)

[4] But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness (the "wilderness" is somewhat of a type of his own spiritual position), and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers. (Elijah, by Faith, has just overcome 450 prophets of Baal and, now, he is fearful of one woman. Satan's threats come in every direction. Too often we believe his lies instead of the Truth of the Word of God.)

5 And as he lay and slept under a juniper tree, behold, then an Angel touched him, and said unto him. Arise and eat (did he know this was an Angel?).

6 And he looked, and, behold, there was a cake baken on the coals, and a cruse of water at his head. And he did eat and drink, and laid him down again (in fact, the Angel of the Lord had followed him all the way from Mount Carmel).

7 And the Angel of the LORD came again the second time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat; because the journey is too great for you. (This was a journey not ordained of God. In fact, it would be a round-trip of approximately 500 miles, all of it out of the Will of God. And yet, in this wayward journey, the Lord would never leave Elijah's side. How many wayward trips have all of us taken? And yet the Lord never leaves us nor forsakes us.

The fact is: every journey of fear is too great for us. The reason is: our energy is from the flesh and not the Spirit.)

ELIJAH GOES TO HOREB

8 And he arose, and did eat and drink, and went in the strength of that meat forty days and forty nights unto Horeb the Mount of God. (Horeb was about 180 miles from where he had sat under a "juniper tree." Evidently, the food prepared for him by the Angel was supernatural, and provided a supernatural strength.)

9 And he came thither unto a cave, and lodged there; and, behold, the Word of the LORD came to him, and He said unto him, What are you doing here, Elijah? (Even though it cannot be proven, there is a possibility that the cave that Elijah arrived at was the "clift of the rock" in which Moses had stood while the Lord passed by [Ex. 33:22]. He had come all this distance, and now the Lord asks him as to why he is here?)

10 And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of Hosts: for the Children of Israel have forsaken Your Covenant, thrown down Your Altars, and killed Your Prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away. (The angry Prophet, crouching with embittered heart in the cavern, pictured the nation. The "flesh" in him was just as hateful as the "flesh" in them. He is invited to come forth and meet God. As Israel refused, Elijah likewise refuses. He must, therefore, be compelled to come forth.)

11 And He said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake:

12 And after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice. (While the Lord was the cause of all of these things, this was not the manner in which He would speak to the Prophet. Unfortunately, far too many in the modern Church have traded the "still small voice" for the fire, wind, earthquake, etc. And then they wonder why they get into trouble!)

13 And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. And, behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, What are you doing here, Elijah? (Why does the Lord keep asking the Prophet this question? He does so for all the various reasons. The Lord didn't bring him here, so why has he come? If it's not the Lord, it should not be done! I personally think the Lord is asking this same question of many, even at this present time. What are you doing here?)

14 And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of Hosts: because the Children of Israel have forsaken Your Covenant, thrown down Your Altars, and killed Your Prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away. (As is obvious here, Elijah's emphasis is strictly on himself and not the Lord. When self is not properly hidden in Christ [Jn. 14:20], self always becomes king, and brings about many problems. That's the reason that Jesus told us that we must "deny ourselves" [Lk. 9:23].)

15 And the LORD said unto him, Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus: and when you come, anoint Hazael to be king over Syria:

16 And Jehu the son of Nimshi shall you anoint to be king over Israel: and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah shall you anoint to be Prophet in your room. (There is no record that Elijah physically anointed anyone. It may very well have happened, but no more information is given.

In the first place, Syria was by and large the enemy of Israel. So, it's hard to imagine that any Syrian would have allowed Elijah to do such, considering that, in some way, it would have been a recognition of Jehovah, which, of course, Syria would not do.

All of this is probably the Lord telling Elijah what is going to happen in the near future.)

17 And it shall come to pass, that him who escapes the sword of Hazael shall Jehu kill: and him who escapes from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha kill. (Some of this was literal, but, concerning the Prophet Elisha, who would take the place of Elijah, the term was used strictly in the spiritual sense, for Elisha was a man of peace.)

18 Yet I have left Me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which has not kissed him. (We gather from Job 31:26-27 that it was customary to kiss the hand of the idol, or object of worship — Pulpit. Whether the number "seven thousand" is to be taken literally or not, we have no way of knowing. It could very well have been symbolic and, again, it could very well have been literal.)

THE CALL OF ELISHA

19 So he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth: and Elijah passed by him, and cast his mantle upon him. (Nearby was a school of the Prophets, but upon none of these did Elijah cast his mantle; but, guided by the Holy Spirit, he cast it upon a plowboy. How different are God's thoughts from man's! He chose "Amos," who was a gatherer of sycamore fruit, and "Paul," who was not one of the Twelve, and "Moody," who was uneducated. Through men like these, He rebukes and refreshes the "official Ministry.")

20 And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me, I pray you, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you. And he said unto him, Go back again: for what have I done to you? (A greater readiness to obey the prophetic summons Elisha could not well have shown. He only asked that he be allowed to go bid his parents farewell, which was the right thing for him to do, and to which Elijah readily acquiesced.)

21 And he returned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen, and killed them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and ministered unto him. (This was a symbolic act, expressive of Elisha's entire renunciation of his secular calling. This was a farewell, not a religious feast. He was in essence saying that he would not be back. He was obeying the call to the full, even as he should have done.)

CHAPTER 20

BEN-HADAD BESIEGES SAMARIA

1 And Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his host together: and there were thirty and two kings with him, and horses, and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria, and warred against it (evidently, these 32 kings were vassals, not allied powers; at any rate, it was a formidable force).

2 And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the city, and said unto him, Thus says Ben-hadad (as he laid siege to the city),

3 Your silver and your gold is mine; your wives also and your children, even the goodliest, are mine. (Even though Israel was far, far from God, still, whatever it is they had belonged to God. So, Ben-hadad's threat was actually against the Lord, even though he would not have realized such.)

4 And the king of Israel answered and said, My lord, O king, according to your saying, I am yours, and all that I have (as we shall see, Ben-hadad didn't exactly believe Ahab).

5 And the messengers came again, and said, Thus speaks Ben-hadad, saying, Although I have sent unto you, saying, You shall deliver me your silver, and your gold, and your wives, and your children;

6 Yet I will send my servants unto you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house, and the houses of your servants; and it shall be, that whatsoever is pleasant in your eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away (the object of Ben-hadad was to couch his message in the most offensive and humiliating terms).

7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, Mark,

I pray you, and see how this man seeks mischief: for he sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I denied him not.

[8] And all the elders and all the people said unto him, Hearken not unto him, nor consent.

[9] Wherefore he said unto the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that you did send for to your servant at the first I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him (Ben-hadad) word again.

[10] And Ben-hadad sent unto him (Ahab), and said, The gods do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people who follow me (my army is big enough to reduce Samaria to a pile of dust).

[11] And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Let not him who girds on his harness boast himself as he who puts it off (this was the message sent by Ahab to Ben-hadad).

[12] And it came to pass, when Ben-hadad heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings in the pavilions, that he said unto his servants, Set yourselves in array. And they set themselves in array against the city (against Samaria).

GOD PROMISES VICTORY FOR AHAB

[13] And, behold, there came a Prophet unto Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus says the LORD, Have you seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into your hand this day; and you shall know that I am the LORD. (Despite the great evil being committed by Israel, the Lord, at this time, would deem it desirable to deliver His people. Israel belonged to Him, even though most were far from God.

We learn from this that all had best be careful in laying their hands on that which belongs to the Lord. In fact, God gives no man the right to chastise another brother or sister in the Lord [James 4:12]. While the Lord, at times, may use human instrumentation to carry out chastisement, it is always unwitting on the part of the subjects. In other words, the individuals being used are not conscious of such a fact.)

14 And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, Thus says the LORD, Even by the young men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall order the battle? And he answered, You.

VICTORY OVER THE SYRIANS

15 Then he numbered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty two: and after them he numbered all the people, even all the Children of Israel, being seven thousand (a miserably small group of men to meet the powerful Syrian army).

16 And they went out at noon. But Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings who helped him.

17 And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben-hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, take them alive.

19 So these young men of the princes of the provinces (from Israel) came out of the city, and the army which followed them (such as it was!).

20 And they killed every one his man: and the Syrians fled; and Israel pursued them: and Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on an horse with the horsemen.

21 And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and killed the Syrians with a great slaughter (of course, all of this was done by the Lord!).

THE PROPHET WARNS AHAB

22 And the Prophet (the same one who came at the first, whom the Word of God does not identify) came to the king of Israel, and said unto him, Go, strengthen yourself, and mark, and see what you do: for at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against you.

23 And the servants of the king of Syria said unto him, Their gods are gods of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we; but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. (The Syrians recognized that it was God Who had defeated them, but they looked at Jehovah as a local deity, and, in this case, a God of the hills. So, if they fight in the valley, the God of Israel will be helpless, or so they think. Unredeemed man has no idea of Who God is, or what God is!)

24 And do this thing, Take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their rooms (put veteran military men at the head of each unit):

25 And number you an army, like the army that you have lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. And he hearkened unto their voice, and did so.

26 And it came to pass at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad numbered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek, to fight against Israel (exactly as the Prophet had said would happen).

27 And the Children of Israel were numbered, and were all present, and went against them: and the Children of Israel pitched before them like two little flocks of kids (a tiny army); but the Syrians filled the country (outnumbered Israel, probably 100 to 1, or even more).

28 And there came a man of God, and spoke unto the king of Israel, and said, Thus says the LORD, Because the Syrians have said, The LORD is God of the hills, but He is not God of the valleys, therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD. (Whether this "man of God" was the same person as the "Prophet" of Verses 13 and 22 is not quite clear. This was being done for Israel by the Lord for their benefit, but also that neighboring nations might learn His Power, and that His Name might be magnified among them.)

[29] And they pitched one over against the other seven days. And so it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined: and the Children of Israel killed of the Syrians an hundred thousand footmen in one day (did so by the Power of God, for that was the only way it could be done).

[30] But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and there a wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the men who were left. And Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, into an inner chamber (evidently, the 27,000 men had gotten on the wall, or else were sitting against the wall, when the Lord caused it to fall; whatever happened, it was caused totally by the Lord).

AHAB SINS IN SPARING THE LIFE OF BEN-HADAD

[31] And his servants said unto him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings: let us, I pray you, put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel: peradventure he will save your life.

[32] So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Your servant Ben-hadad says, I pray you, let me live (compare this abject petition for life with the arrogant insolence of Verses 6 and 10). And he (Ahab) said, Is he (Ben-hadad) yet alive? he is my brother (a most ridiculous position for Ahab to take).

[33] Now the men did diligently observe whether any thing would come from him, and did hastily catch it: and they said, Your brother Ben-hadad. Then he said, Go you, bring him. Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot.

[34] And Ben-hadad said unto him, The cities, which my father took from your father, I will restore; and you shall make streets for you in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. Then said Ahab, I will send you away with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and sent him away (which was greatly displeasing to the Lord!).

THE PROPHET REBUKES AHAB

35 And a certain man of the sons of the Prophets said unto his neighbour in the Word of the LORD, Smite me, I pray you. And the man refused to smite him. (The "neighbor" was a companion Prophet, hence the seriousness of his ignoring the Word of the Lord. In fact, this was a school of the Prophets, which owed its existence, more than likely, to Samuel, who began it about 200 years before.)

36 Then said he unto him, Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as you are departed from me, a lion shall kill you. And as soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and killed him (at first glance, it may seem as if the punishment was severe; however, again we emphasize: to ignore the plain, clear, and simple Word of God is a most serious thing).

37 Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray you. And the man smote him, so that in smiting he wounded him.

38 So the Prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with ashes upon his face.

39 And as the king passed by, he cried unto the king: and he said, Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and, behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man unto me, and said, Keep this man: if by any means he be missing, then shall your life be for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver (through the Prophet, the Lord presents an object lesson to Ahab).

40 And as your servant was busy here and there, he was gone (escaped). And the king of Israel said unto him, So shall your judgment be; yourself have decided it (Ahab himself now pronounces that the judgment is just).

41 And he hasted, and took the ashes away from his face; and the king of Israel discerned him that he was of the Prophets.

42 And he said unto him, Thus says the LORD, Because you have let go out of your hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction (whom the Lord appointed), therefore your life shall go for his life, and your people for his people (Ahab has seriously displeased the Lord in letting Ben-hadad go free; he will now pay the price, even though it will be a couple of years in coming).

43 And the king of Israel went to his house heavy and displeased, and came to Samaria.

CHAPTER 21

NABOTH REFUSES TO SELL HIS VINEYARD TO AHAB

[1] And it came to pass after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a Vineyard, which was in Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. (The entirety of this Chapter concerns this Vineyard. Naboth's Vineyard is a Type of the spiritual inheritance that every Child of God has. As his Vineyard bordered Ahab's palace, so our spiritual inheritance [Vineyard] borders the world.)

[2] And Ahab spoke unto Naboth, saying, Give me your Vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near unto my house: and I will give you for it a better vineyard than it; or, if it seem good to you, I will give you the worth of it in money. (The same pressure that was applied by Ahab against Naboth to sell his Vineyard will be applied to us by the forces of darkness to compromise our convictions. As this battle was to the death, so will the battle that we fight be unto the death. We have but one of two choices: 1. We can refuse Satan any part in that which God has given us; or, 2. We can sell out to Ahab — the world.

The first one will bring physical death but spiritual life. The second one will bring physical life but spiritual death.

Satan professes to have better vineyards. He lies. If he has better vineyards, why does he want yours?)

[3] And Naboth said to Ahab, The LORD forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto you. (As Naboth's Vineyard was given unto him by the Lord of Glory, likewise, our Vineyard of Salvation is given to us by the Lord of Glory.

Actually, the Law of Moses forbade the sale of ancestral rights, except in extreme destitution and, even then, the property would always return to the original owners in the Year of Jubilee [Lev. 25:23-25; Num. 36:7].)

4 And Ahab came into his house heavy and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him: for he had said, I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers. And he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread (pouting).

JEZEBEL HAS NABOTH KILLED

5 But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said unto him, Why is your spirit so sad, that you eat no bread?

6 And he said unto her, Because I spoke unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and said unto him, Give me your Vineyard for money, or else, if it please you, I will give you another vineyard for it: and he answered, I will not give you my Vineyard.

7 And Jezebel his wife said unto him, Do you now govern the kingdom of Israel? arise, and eat bread, and let your heart be merry: I will give you the Vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite (I will give it to you; you don't need to buy it).

8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles who were in his city, dwelling with Naboth.

9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people (a place of honor):

10 And set two men, sons of Belial (worthless), before him, to bear witness against him, saying, You did blaspheme God and the king. And then carry him out, and stone him, that he may die. (They first pretended to honor him, and now they claim to have found this great fault in him; so he must be stoned to death.)

11 And the men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did as Jezebel had sent unto them, and as it was written in the letters which she had sent unto them.

12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people.

13 And there came in two men, children of Belial, and sat before him: and the men of Belial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died (it was all a planned farce from the very beginning).

14 Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and is dead.

15 And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the Vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money: for Naboth is not alive, but dead.

16 And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the Vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it (this was the day after the murder).

ELIJAH PRONOUNCES JUDGMENT ON AHAB AND JEZEBEL

17 And the Word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

18 Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, which is in Samaria: behold, he is in the Vineyard of Naboth, where he is gone down to possess it.

19 And you shall speak unto him, saying, Thus says the LORD, Have you killed, and also taken possession? And you shall speak unto him, saying, Thus says the LORD, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick your blood, even yours (Jesus said, "With what measure you mete, it shall be measured to you again" [Mat. 7:2]).

20 And Ahab said to Elijah, Have you found me, O my enemy? And he answered, I have found you: because you have sold yourself to work evil in the sight of the LORD. (This Chapter opens with Ahab refusing to listen to God's loving Voice, which is spoken to him so plainly in the remarkable victory given to him over the Syrians, but willingly listening to Jezebel's cruel voice prompting him to commit perhaps the blackest of his black crimes.)

21 Behold, I will bring evil upon you, and will take away your posterity, and will cut off from Ahab him who urinates against the wall, and him who is shut up and left in Israel,

22 And will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the provocation wherewith you have provoked me to anger, and made Israel to sin (Ahab and Jezebel led Israel ever deeper into sin).

23 And of Jezebel also spoke the LORD, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel (retribution should overtake her near the scene of her latest crime [II Ki. 9:36]; by this, the just judgment of God would be made the more conspicuous).

24 Him who dies of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him who dies in the field shall the fowls of the air eat.

25 But there was none like unto Ahab, whom did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up (Ahab was the most wicked king of Israel thus far; and, in fact, this program of ever-increasing wickedness continued until the whole nation had to be destroyed).

26 And he did very abominably in following idols, according to all things as did the Amorites, whom the LORD cast out before the Children of Israel.

AHAB'S REPENTANCE

27 And it came to pass, when Ahab heard those words, that he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly. (It seems that this man's Repentance was sincere — at least for a time. God would not have spoken to a halfhearted repentance.)

28 And the Word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

29 Do you see how Ahab humbles himself before Me? because he humbles himself before Me, I will not bring the evil in his days: but in his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house. (There is no threat of punishment against the innocent instead of the guilty, as might at first sight appear. For, in the first place, God knew well what the son would be, and, in the second place, if the son had departed from his father's sins, he would have been spared, as well [Ezek. 18:14]; judgment was deferred to give the house of Ahab another chance, but, regrettably, to no avail!)

CHAPTER 22

JEHOSHAPHAT AGREES TO HELP AHAB

1 And they continued three years without war between Syria and Israel. (This was because of the two great defeats that Syria had suffered at the hands of Israel, and because of Ahab's Repentance. But now, Ahab resorts to his old ways.)

2 And it came to pass in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel (he not only came down topographically, but spiritually as well).

3 And the king of Israel said unto his servants, Know you that Ramoth in Gilead is ours, and we be still, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria? (This great frontier fortress was, in the hands of Syria, even after many reverses, a constant menace against Israel.)

4 And he said unto Jehoshaphat, Will you go with me to battle to Ramoth-gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses (in reality, Jehoshaphat was totally unlike Ahab).

AHAB LISTENS TO FALSE PROPHETS

5 And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Enquire, I pray you, at the Word of the LORD today (remembering how Ahab's late victories had been foretold by a Prophet, and had been won by the help of Jehovah, Jehoshaphat might well suppose that his new ally would be eager to know the Word of the Lord).

6 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king. (These prophets claimed to be of the Lord, but were not. They characterize the myriad of those who call themselves Prophets in Christendom today. In fact, there were precious few true Prophets of God then; there are precious few true Prophets of God now.)

[7] And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a Prophet of the LORD besides, that we might enquire of him? (The falsity of these prophets was evident to Jehoshaphat. The tragedy is: the Church presently hardly knows the difference in the prophets who prophesy out of their own minds, and those who speak, "Thus says the Lord.")

[8] And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so. (Elijah was also alive at this time, and had already given several messages to Ahab, but was now ignored, or perhaps he was elsewhere in the kingdom.

The truth is, the true Prophet's task is a thankless task. He is seldom sent to bring good news, but mostly bad. By and large, he is hated, not only by the world, but by a carnal Church as well!)

[9] Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, Hasten hither Micaiah the son of Imlah.

[10] And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, having put on their robes, in a void place in the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

[11] And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron: and he said, Thus says the LORD, With these shall you push the Syrians, until you have consumed them.

[12] And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the king's hand. (The major words in modern Christendom today are, as then, "prosperity" and "success." These messages, as delivered then by false prophets, are delivered today by false prophets. The word should be "Repentance" and "Repentance.")

MICAIAH'S TRUE PROPHESY

[13] And the messenger who was gone to call Micaiah spoke unto him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king with one mouth: let your word, I pray you, be like the word of one of them, and speak that which is good (true Prophets seldom speak that which is good, at least about the present time!).

[14] And Micaiah said, As the LORD lives, what the LORD says unto me, that will I speak (God give us men, as Micaiah, that money cannot buy, who will not compromise their message, who will hear only what "thus says the Lord," and who will not be fearful of delivering that Word to a lost and dying world!).

[15] So he came to the king. And the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we forbear? And he answered him, Go, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king. (No doubt Micaiah's mocking tone showed that his words were ironical; but Ahab's hollow tone had already proved to Micaiah that he was insincere, that he did not care to know the Will of the Lord, and that he wanted prophets who would speak to him smooth things and prophesy deceits [Isa. 30:10].)

[16] And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure you that you tell me nothing but that which is true in the Name of the LORD? (Ahab's feigned desire to hear the truth is spoken for the benefit of Jehoshaphat. In reality, he has no desire to hear the truth.)

[17] And he (Micaiah) said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the hills, as sheep that have not a shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master: let them return every man to his house in peace (Ahab was a false shepherd and, whether he believes it or not, he is about to die).

[18] And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell you that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil? (It is clear that Ahab had understood perfectly the purport of Micaiah's words — Pulpit.)

[19] And he (Micaiah) said, Hear you therefore the Word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on His Throne, and all the Host of Heaven standing by Him on His right Hand and on His left (Micaiah is given a vision of the Throne of God and its happenings there, which he now relates to both Ahab and Jehoshaphat).

[20] And the LORD said, Who shall persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner (the meaning is that Ahab's death in battle had been decreed in the counsels of God, and that the Divine Wisdom had devised means for accomplishing God's purpose — Spence).

[21] And there came forth a spirit (an evil spirit), and stood before the LORD, and said, I will persuade him. (We learn from this, as well as from Job, Chpt. 1, that spirits of darkness, as well as Satan, at times have access to the Throne of God. During the coming Great Tribulation, Satan and all such will be cast out of Heaven, allowed no more access [Rev. 12:7-9].)

[22] And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And He said, You shall persuade him, and prevail also: go forth, and do so. (This "lying spirit" would inspire these false prophets to prophesy the evil that was desired. All of this reveals that God and His Heavenly Hosts, including demons on certain occasions, have conferences concerning the affairs of men on Earth.

The idea is that God permitted such deception to take the place of the rejected truth. If men will not have the truth, they will automatically have a substitute that will be more in harmony with their wicked ways for the time being. Ahab would not have the truth, and would not listen to Jehovah, despite all the attempts made by the Lord to reach this man, but he would believe lies and listen to his false prophets.

This Passage simply gives an insight into the spirit realm, showing that behind all human acts there are good and bad spirits seeking to carry out the respective wills of their masters. The Lord protects as long as He can and, when there is nothing else He can do to turn men from their wicked ways, error, and harm, at least by righteous means, He then permits demon spirits to deceive. This causes the individual in question to go further astray — and, in this case with Ahab, even unto death.)

23 Now therefore, behold, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets, and the LORD has spoken evil concerning you (true enough, it was not what Ahab wanted to hear).

24 But Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near, and smote Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto you? (The prophesy of Zedekiah and the prophecy of Micaiah were totally different. The first spoke of blessing, while the latter spoke of doom. Both could not be right. In essence, it is the same presently.

Thousands of false prophets are prophesying blessings and victory upon an apostate Church, while the few true Prophets are attempting to call the Church to Repentance. As with Ahab, both cannot be right.)

25 And Micaiah said, Behold, you shall see in that day, when you shall go into an inner chamber to hide yourself (which no doubt happened when news came of Ahab's death).

26 And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back unto Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

27 And say, Thus says the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.

28 And Micaiah said, If you return at all in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, O people, every one of you. (The bravery of Micaiah condemns the cowardice of Jehoshaphat. Jehoshaphat should have stepped down from his throne, thrown his mantle around the courageous Prophet, and valiantly taken his stand at his side.

There is no one more cowardly and contemptible than a Christian who walks with the religious world. Micaiah is led away to prison and to torture, and Jehoshaphat raises neither a hand nor a voice on his behalf.)

THE DEATH OF AHAB

29 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

30 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and enter into the battle; but you put on your robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle. (Two royal fools at once meet in these Verses. Jehoshaphat was a fool to go into battle, at Ahab's suggestion, in his royal robes, or at all, for that matter. Ahab was a greater fool to propose to escape the Divine doom pronounced upon him by going into battle without his royal robes.)

31 But the king of Syria commanded his thirty and two captains who had rule over his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel (the Syrians intended to kill Ahab!).

32 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the king of Israel. And they turned aside to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cried out (it was a cry for Divine help, and the Lord heard and answered).

33 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him (they wanted Ahab, not Jehoshaphat).

34 And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness: wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot, Turn your hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am wounded (Ahab's attempt to disguise himself served no purpose; a Syrian archer shot, not even knowing where he was shooting, and the Lord had the arrow and Ahab to meet in the same place).

35 And the battle increased that day: and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at evening: and the blood ran out of the wound into the midst of the chariot (the servants of Ahab propped him up in the chariot until he died).

36 And there went a proclamation throughout the host about the going down of the sun, saying, Every man to his city, and every man to his own country (it does not appear that Israel had been utterly defeated, or had suffered great loss; but their king was dead, so they now retreated).

37 So the king died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria (exactly as the Prophet Micaiah said would happen!).

38 And one washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood; and they washed his armour; according unto the Word of the LORD which He spoke (this prediction was given by Elijah [I Ki. 21:19]).

39 Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he made, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? (The Lord loved Ahab, and sought to save him again and again, but all in vain.)

40 So Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead (the name "Ahaziah" means "whom Jehovah upholds"; Ahab giving his son this name suggests that, notwithstanding his idolatries, Ahab had knowledge of the Lord; however, despite the constant spiritual tug, he wouldn't serve the Lord).

JEHOSHAPHAT'S REIGN OVER JUDAH

41 And Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. (In this Book, Jehoshaphat's reign is disposed of in 10 Verses, but 102 Verses are devoted to it in II Chronicles.

The meaning is this:

To the unspiritual eye, Jehoshaphat would have been uninteresting beside the glitter of Ahab. But, to the spiritual eye, which is given in II Chronicles, Ahab is of no interest at all, with Jehoshaphat demanding God's attention. Both Books of Kings portray events as men saw them, with both Books of the Chronicles portraying events as God saw them.)

42 Jehoshaphat was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

43 And he walked in all the ways of Asa his father; he turned not aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD: nevertheless the high places were not taken away; for the people offered and burnt incense yet in the high places. (There was to be only one place of Sacrifice, and that was to be at the Temple in Jerusalem. So, it seems that the Holy Spirit was displeased with Jehoshaphat's actions in not taking away the high places.)

44 And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel. (For some 70 years, from the date of their separation to the time of Asa's death, there had been little peace between Judah and Israel. Jehoshaphat seeks to remedy this situation, but, at times, as we have seen, by using methods that were displeasing to the Lord.)

45 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he showed, and how he warred, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

46 And the remnant of the sodomites, which remained in the days of his father Asa, he took out of the land. (There seemed to have been only a few "sodomites" left; however, the Holy Spirit is quick to proclaim the fact that Jehoshaphat removed even these few. Too often the Child of God is willing to allow "the remnant" of evil to remain. The Holy Spirit demands that everything that is evil be "taken out," which can only be done by the Believer placing his Faith exclusively in Christ and the Cross, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work within our lives, thereby bringing about the desired victory [Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11; I Cor. 1:17-18, 21, 23; 2:2; Gal. 6:14].)

47 There was then no king in Edom: a deputy was king (implies that this officer was appointed by the king of Judah; in other words, Judah controlled Edom).

48 Jehoshaphat made ships of Tharshish to go to Ophir for gold: but they went not; for the ships were broken at Ezion-geber.

49 Then said Ahaziah the son of Ahab unto Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go with your servants in the ships. But Jehoshaphat would not. (Jehoshaphat formed an alliance with Ahab's son, Ahaziah; however, the Lord was not pleased with this alliance and, thereby, destroyed the ships. Jehoshaphat would not permit Ahaziah to join him after that.)

JEHOSHAPHAT'S DEATH

50 And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead (all of this is important regarding the kings of Judah, because they were in the lineage of David, from which would come Christ the Redeemer [II Sam. 7:16]).

AHAZIAH REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

51 Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned two years over Israel.

52 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin:

53 For he served Baal, and worshipped him, and provoked to anger the LORD God of Israel, according to all that his father had done. (This was at least one of the reasons and, in fact, the primary reason, that the Lord was sorely displeased with Jehoshaphat forming an alliance with Ahaziah.)

CHAPTER 1

(896 B.C.)

THE SICKNESS OF AHAZIAH

[1] Then Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab. (Moab had originally been conquered by David [II Sam. 8:2; 23:20] and, after the division of Judah and Israel, it passed to Israel. The Moabites were greatly oppressed by Omri and Ahab and, on the death of Ahab, Mesha, king of Moab, rebelled and gained independence.)

[2] And Ahaziah fell down through a lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said unto them, Go, enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron whether I shall recover of this disease. (Ahaziah cast away the last remnant of faith in the Salvation afforded by the Lord and believed in by the Patriarchs of Israel, and consulted a foreign oracle, as if the Voice of God was silent in his own country.

By and large, the sin of the modern Church is little different from the sin of Ahaziah. Having opted for the humanistic, even atheistic, fallacy of psychology, it has, by and large, forsaken the God of the Bible. It has tried to cover its sin by labeling its foray into modernism with the term, "Christian psychology." However, such does not exist. Psychology is not a true science; its various methods of treatment are worthy of a Roman circus. It has its roots in atheism, evolution, and humanism. It is the total opposite of the Bible. "Christian psychology," so-called, is no different whatsoever from any other type of psychology. The name "Christian" is given to it only to deceive a gullible Christian public that has, as well, by and large, forsaken the Bible.)

[3] But the Angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that you go to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? (The action of Ahaziah presents a complete and absolute denial of the Divinity of Jehovah. To consult a foreign oracle is equivalent to saying that the Voice of God is wholly silent in one's own land. This was going further in apostasy than Ahab had gone.

As stated, the modern Church is doing the same thing in its acceptance of humanistic psychology. It does so under the farce of the guise that "all truth is God's truth." The meaning is: "If it is truth, it must come from God." However, let it ever be stated: truth is not a philosophy; it is a Person, and that Person is the Lord Jesus Christ [Jn. 14:6; 17:17; I Jn. 5:6]. The Word of God claims to hold the answer to all of man's spiritual problems, and the Word of God alone does this [II Pet. 1:3].)

4 Now therefore thus says the LORD, You shall not come down from that bed on which you are gone up, but shall surely die. And Elijah departed. (The word "therefore" is emphatic, and means "for this reason" or "on this account." Because Ahaziah had apostatized from God, the Lord sentenced him to die from the effects of his fall, and not recover. It is implied that he might have recovered, if he had acted otherwise.)

5 And when the messengers turned back unto him, he said unto them, Why are you now turned back? (When the messengers came back so soon to Ahaziah, he perceived that they could not have been to Ekron and come back in this amount of time. So, he asks them as to why they have come back so soon.)

6 And they said unto him, There came a man up to meet us, and said unto us, Go, turn again unto the king who sent you, and say unto him, Thus says the LORD, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that you send to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? therefore you shall not come down from that bed on which you are gone up, but shall surely die.

7 And he said unto them, What manner of man was he which came up to meet you, and told you these words?

8 And they answered him, He was an hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said, It is Elijah the Tishbite. (He knew Elijah and all the miracles which this great Prophet had seen, but yet would not call him in, but rather would send for these heathenistic gods.

"Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" is the answer for man's dilemma, and the only answer. But the trouble is, the modern Church little believes in the Cross; therefore, it resorts to humanistic psychology, etc.)

9 Then the king sent unto him a captain of fifty with his fifty (with 50 soldiers). And he went up to him: and, behold, he (Elijah) sat on the top of an hill. And he (the captain) spoke unto him, You man of God, the king has said, Come down.

10 And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, then let fire come down from Heaven, and consume you and your fifty. And there came down fire from Heaven, and consumed him and his fifty. (Elijah, within himself, had no power to do good or harm. He could but pray to the Lord and, in the Lord's Wisdom and Perfect Goodness, He could either grant or refuse the prayer. God's answer, in sending the fire, is His Response to Ahaziah and those who served him.)

11 Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said unto him, O man of God, thus has the king said, Come down quickly.

12 And Elijah answered and said unto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from Heaven, and consume you and your fifty. And the fire of God came down from Heaven, and consumed him and his fifty. (If men do not trust the Lord and what He has done to redeem humanity, and I speak of Christ and the Cross, then ultimately the fire of judgment will fall upon them. It is inevitable!)

13 And he sent again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, O man of God, I pray you, let my life, and the life of these fifty your servants, be precious in your sight.

14 Behold, there came fire down from Heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in your sight.

15 And the Angel of the LORD said unto Elijah (this was the Lord Himself), Go down with him: be not afraid of him. And he arose, and went down with him unto the king.

16 And he said unto him, Thus says the LORD, Forasmuch as you have sent messengers to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, is it not because there is no God in Israel to enquire of His Word? therefore you shall not come down off that bed on which you are gone up, but shall surely die. (Due to the fact that the Lord sent Elijah to Ahaziah, if the king had truly repented, it seems that, even at this late date, the sentence of death could have been altered; however, there was no Repentance!)

AHAZIAH'S DEATH

17 So he died according to the Word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And Jehoram reigned in his stead in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; because he had no son (because Ahaziah had no son, he was succeeded by his younger brother, Jehoram).

18 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

CHAPTER 2

(896 B.C.)

THE REVELATION OF ELIJAH'S TRANSLATION

[1] And it came to pass, when the LORD would take up Elijah into Heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal. (Elisha, since called of God, had now been with Elijah for approximately 10 years. The "Gilgal" mentioned here is the Gilgal close to Jericho, not another Gilgal that was close to Shiloh in Samaria.)

[2] And Elijah said unto Elisha, Tarry here, I pray you; for the LORD has sent me to Beth-el. And Elisha said unto him, As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. So they went down to Beth-el. (Elisha knew that Elijah was about to be taken, but probably, at this stage, not how he would be taken; consequently, he will not let the great Prophet out of his sight.)

[3] And the sons of the prophets who were at Beth-el came forth to Elisha, and said unto him, Know you that the LORD will take away your master from your head today? And he said, Yes, I know it; hold you your peace (how they knew this, we aren't told!)**.

[4] And Elijah said unto him, Elisha, tarry here, I pray you; for the LORD has sent me to Jericho. And he said, As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. So they came to Jericho (it is the persistent soul who reaps the benefits of what Christ has done for us at Calvary, and only the persistent soul [Lk. 11:5-13])**.

[5] And the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho came to Elisha, and said unto him, Know you that the LORD will take away your master from your head today? And he answered, Yes, I know it; hold you your peace.

6 And Elijah said unto him, Tarry, I pray you, here; for the LORD has sent me to Jordan. And he said, As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. And they two went on.

ELIJAH DIVIDES THE JORDAN

7 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood to view afar off: and they two stood by Jordan.

8 And Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it together, and smote the waters, and they were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on dry ground (by the Power of God, the Jordan River opened).

THE DOUBLE PORTION

9 And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for you, before I be taken away from you. And Elisha said, I pray you, let a double portion of your spirit be upon me (in essence, a double portion of the Spirit of God, which was on Elijah).

10 And he said, You have asked a hard thing (the word "hard," in the Hebrew, actually means "you have made a great claim"; the bane of the modern Church is that we make a much lesser claim, or no claim at all; as Believers, understanding that we are serving a great God, we should stake a great claim): nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so unto you; but if not, it shall not be so. (The great question should be, even to modern Believers, "What do you see?" Do we see the miracle-working Power of God, or do we see other things?)

THE TRANSLATION OF ELIJAH

11 And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into Heaven (in the original Hebrew, it says, "And Elijah went up in a storm into the heavens"; there is no mention of a "whirlwind"; two only of the seed of Adam, Enoch and Elijah, have passed from Earth to Heaven without dying).

12 And Elisha saw it, and he cried, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof (Elijah had been the strength of Israel). And he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces (Elisha tearing the clothes portrays the fact that he is no longer a learner, but now the Prophet).

ELISHA DIVIDES THE JORDAN

13 He took up also the mantle (the outer garment) of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of Jordan (probably where he and Elijah had crossed it a short time earlier);

14 And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where is the LORD God of Elijah? and when he also had smitten the waters, they parted hither and thither: and Elisha went over (the Lord proclaimed to Elisha that He was with him by enabling him to repeat Elijah's last miracle, and thus gave him an assurance that He would be with him thenceforth in his Prophetic Ministry).

15 And when the sons of the prophets which were to view at Jericho saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah does rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him (they recognized the Power of God upon him).

16 And they said unto him, Behold now, there be with your servants fifty strong men; let them go, we pray you, and seek your master: lest peradventure the Spirit of the LORD has taken him up, and cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, You shall not send (evidently, they didn't understand what they saw regarding Elijah, that is, if they had seen anything at all; so they ventured the opinion that the body of Elijah would be found nearby, etc.).

17 And when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but found him not (exactly as Elisha knew they would do).

18 And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho,) he said unto them, Did I not say unto you, Go not? (He waited at Jericho until the fifty men returned from their vain search, and then reminded them that his advice to them had been not to start on a useless errand.)

JERICHO HEALED

19 And the men of the city said unto Elisha, Behold, I pray you, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees: but the water is naught (poisoned), and the ground barren (because of the poisoned water. Jericho is the city of the curse, and by God at that, simply because of its heathen worship in the days of Joshua. As well, the world is cursed, because of sin. In fact, it could be, as Jericho, a pleasant place; but instead, the water is poisoned and the ground barren).

20 And he said, Bring me a new cruse (this is symbolic of the sinless Body of the Lord Jesus Christ, because the cruse was made of clay), and put salt therein (the "salt" in it — a type of the incorruptible Word of God, that in its plenitude dwelt in Him — was the vehicle of this great healing power). And they brought it to him.

21 And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and cast the salt in there (the Word of God must be cast into the poisoned spring; there is no other answer; that's the reason that it is imperative that this great Gospel of Jesus Christ be taken to the whole world [Mk. 16:15]), and said, Thus says the LORD, I have healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more death or barren land (Christ Alone can heal the broken heart, can set the captive free [Lk. 4:18-19]).

22 So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spoke (it was not a mere temporary, but a permanent, benefit which Elisha bestowed upon the town; when Christ comes in, there is "no more death or barren land").

23 And he went up from thence unto Beth-el: and as he was going up by the way, there came forth little children out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, Go up, you bald head; go up, you bald head (the words, "little children," are probably an unfortunate translation; the Hebrew word is "na'ar"; it can mean anything up to 40 years old; as well, the words, "bald head," do not necessarily mean that Elisha had no hair on his head; it could have signified a "worthless fellow"; at any rate, it was a term of contempt).

24 And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed them in the Name of the LORD (placed a curse on them). And there came forth two she bears out of the wood, and tore forty and two children of them (when they insulted the man of God, they, in effect, were insulting the Lord).

25 And he went from thence to Mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

CHAPTER 3

(895 B.C.)

JEHORAM REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

1 Now Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.

2 And he wrought evil in the sight of the LORD; but not like his father, and like his mother: for he put away the image of Baal that his father had made.

3 Nevertheless he cleaved unto the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom. (Jehoram removes the obscene idol erected by his father, but resolutely holds on to the great sin of Jeroboam, that is, the golden calf. In the Books of Kings, as in the first Epistle of John, "sin" principally means the substitution of a god other than the Lord Jesus, and "evil" means fidelity to that false god and false saviour.)

ELISHA PREDICTS VICTORY OVER MOAB

4 And Mesha king of Moab was a sheepmaster, and rendered unto the king of Israel an hundred thousand lambs, and an hundred thousand rams, with the wool (tribute rendered each year)**.

5 But it came to pass, when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6 And king Jehoram went out of Samaria the same time, and numbered all Israel (prepared for war)**.

7 And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab has rebelled against me: will you go with me against Moab to battle? And he said, I will go up: I am as you are, my people as your people, and my horses as your horses. (These words were probably a common formula expressive of willingness to enter into the closest possible alliance.

The incurable insubjection of the natural will, even in a Christian, to the Word of the Lord is seen in Jehoshaphat. Despite two severe lessons from God, he, for the third time, unites with the religious world in a "laudable" enterprise. The result will be that he nearly loses his life.)

8 And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way through the wilderness of Edom (Edom, though under a native king, was a dependency of Judah [I Ki. 22:47]; so, this would be an easier route for invasion)**.

9 So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom: and they fetched a compass of seven days' journey: and there was no water for the host, and for the cattle that followed them (the baggage animals)**.

10 And the king of Israel said, Alas! that the LORD has called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab! (Even though an idol-worshipper, Jehoram blames the Lord for their predicament!)

11 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a Prophet of the LORD, that we may enquire of the LORD by him? And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, which poured water on the hands of Elijah. (Had Jehoshaphat enquired of such before he came, he would not now be in this predicament. Believers all too often seek the Lord after the die has been cast. It's best to seek Him beforehand, and for all things. It would save us much trouble.)

12 And Jehoshaphat said, The Word of the LORD is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him (went to the Prophet Elisha)**.

13 And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, What have I to do with you? get you to the prophets of your father, and to the prophets of your mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, No: for the LORD has called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab (Elisha regards it as incumbent on him to rebuke the monarch from Israel, who, though he had "put away the image of Baal which his father had made," still "wrought evil in the sight of the Lord," and "cleaved to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat" [3:2-3]; the King of Israel answered wisely!)**.

14 And Elisha said, As the LORD of Hosts lives, before Whom I stand, surely, were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward you, nor see you (this states that, in effect, Jehoram and the king of Edom owed their lives to Jehoshaphat)**.

15 But now bring me a minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the Hand of the LORD came upon him (most probably, these were musicians who came, sang, and played the Psalms; music which is touched by the Lord refreshes, heals, and delivers [I Sam. 16:23])**.

16 And he (Elisha) said, Thus says the LORD, Make this valley full of ditches.

17 For thus says the LORD, You shall not see wind, neither shall you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, that you may drink, both you, and your cattle, and your beasts (there would be rain, but it would be a distance away, actually out of sight, with the water running down into the valley and, thereby, filling the ditches)**.

18 And this is but a light thing in the sight of the LORD (God, the Author of nature, has full control over nature, and it is an easy matter for Him to produce at will any natural phenomena): He will deliver the Moabites also into your hand (victory!)**.

19 And you shall smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all wells of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones (in other words, Moab was to be scorched earth, because of her great wickedness against the Lord).

20 And it came to pass in the morning, when the Meat Offering was offered, that, behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water (evidently, there were flash floods out of distance of the valley, but with the runoff filling the valley).

MOAB DEFEATED

21 And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they gathered all who were able to put on armour, and upward, and stood in the border (a large army).

22 And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood (the Moabites concluded that the red-looking liquid was blood):

23 And they said, This is blood: the kings are surely killed, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil (they thought that Judah, Israel, and Edom had turned on each other, because there had been bad blood in the past between these countries).

24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country (the smiting of the enemy can only be carried out by the Believer as Faith is evidenced in Christ and the Cross; the Holy Spirit, Who Alone can help, works entirely within the framework of the Finished Work of Christ).

25 And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: only in Kir-haraseth left they the stones thereof; howbeit the slingers went about it, and smote it (fulfilling the predictions of Elisha).

26 And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew swords, to break through even unto the king of Edom: but they could not (the attempt failed; Edom was too strong).

27 Then he (the king of Moab) took his oldest son who should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall (human sacrifice was widely practiced by the idolatrous nations who bordered on Israel and Judah, and by none more than by the Moabites). And there was great indignation against Israel (by the Moabites): and they (Judah, Samaria, and Edom) departed from him (from the Moabite king), and returned to their own land.

CHAPTER 4

THE MIRACLE OF THE INCREASE OF THE WIDOW'S OIL

[1] Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the Prophets unto Elisha, saying, Your servant my husband is dead; and you know that your servant did fear the LORD: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen. (There is some intimation that this woman's husband, one of the sons of the Prophets, was known to Elisha. Many a Christian is like this widow. There are depression, poverty, and bondage in the life, instead of joy, wealth, and liberty. The truth is: the plight of this home was not God's Will. It is God's Will that we be in health and prosper, even as our soul does prosper [III Jn., Vs. 2]. Satan never ceases in his efforts to deprive the Child of God of his rightful inheritance in Christ Jesus.)

[2] And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for you? tell me, what have you in the house? And she said, Your handmaid has not anything in the house, save a pot of oil (for the Christian, the "house" is our physical body [I Cor. 3:16]; the Holy Spirit, represented by the "pot of oil," is supposed to fill the house; this woman had a small pot of oil, but nothing else)**.

[3] Then he said, Go, borrow you vessels abroad of all your neighbours, even empty vessels; borrow not a few (far too many are satisfied to subsist on meager spiritual rations, when, if we could provide more empty vessels, God would fill them up — "borrow not a few")**.

[4] And when you are come in, you shall shut the door upon you and upon your sons, and shall pour out into all those vessels, and you shall set aside that which is full (the Holy Spirit, represented by the "oil," is inexhaustible; as long as there are "empty vessels," it will continue to "pour out")**.

5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured out.

6 And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil stayed (our problem is that we gather too few vessels).

7 Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay your debt, and you and your children live of the rest (the Lord always gives enough and more!).

HOSPITALITY OF THE GREAT WOMAN OF SHUNEM

8 And it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where was a great woman; and she constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread (this woman was wealthy, yet she did not allow her riches to lift her up in pride, as happens to so many, but rather allowed it to draw her closer to God).

9 And she said unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is an holy man of God, which passes by us continually.

10 Let us make a little chamber (room), I pray you, on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he comes to us, that he shall turn in thither (she was wise; to bless the man of God, she, in effect, would bless herself, and greatly).

11 And it fell on a day, that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there (used the room, as they requested).

THE SHUNAMMITE WOMAN IS PROMISED A SON

12 And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him.

13 And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, you have been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for you? would you be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among my own people.

14 And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, Verily she has no child, and her husband is old (if the woman will suggest nothing herself, can Gehazi suggest anything?).

15 And he said, Call her. And when he had called her, she stood in the door.

16 And he said, About this season, according to the time of life, you shall embrace a son. And she said, No, my lord, you man of God, do not lie unto your handmaid (like Sarah of old, the woman was incredulous; she could not believe the good tidings, and thought the Prophet was only raising hopes to disappoint them; but she would find out that the Lord never deceives anyone).

17 And the woman conceived, and bore a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life (a miracle!).

THE DEATH OF THE SON

18 And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers.

19 And he said unto his father, My head, my head. And he said to a lad, Carry him to his mother.

20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died (evidently died of a sunstroke).

21 And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him, and went out (she evidently reasoned that if the Lord through Elisha could give her the child, through Elisha the child could be raised from the dead).

THE MIRACLE OF THE BOY BEING RAISED FROM THE DEAD

22 And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray you, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.

23 And he said, Wherefore will you go to him today? it is neither new moon, nor sabbath. And she said, It shall be well (evidently, the father didn't know the child had died; the wife not telling him shows that she believed the child would be raised from the dead).

24 Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; slack not your riding for me, except I bid you (she would herself go to the Prophet).

25 So she went and came unto the man of God to Mount Carmel. And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, yonder is that Shunammite (the Prophet evidently knew her at a distance):

26 Run now, I pray you, to meet her, and say unto her, Is it well with you? is it well with your husband? is it well with the child? And she answered, It is well (Elisha suspected that something was wrong; only Faith could answer, "It is well!").

27 And when she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught him by the feet: but Gehazi came near to thrust her away. And the man of God said, Let her alone; for her soul is vexed within her: and the LORD has hid it from me, and has not told me. (He knew something was wrong, but he didn't know exactly what. Gehazi, who represents religion, "thrust her away," as religion must! But Elisha, who represents Grace, says, "Let her alone." Oh, that somehow we would turn from Gehazi to Elisha!)

28 Then she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? did I not say, Do not deceive me? (In other words, her son was given to her by the Lord, and she did not expect the Lord to take him away.)

29 Then he said to Gehazi, Gird up your loins, and take my staff in your hand, and go your way: if you meet any man, salute him not; and if any salute you, answer him not again (the object of all these injunctions is haste): and lay my staff upon the face of the child.

30 And the mother of the child said, As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. And he arose, and followed her (she would not be satisfied with whatever the servant was to do; she wanted Elisha to go to where the child was; and so he did!).

31 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, The child is not awaked. (What purpose Elisha had in mind regarding the staff upon the child, we aren't told. Perhaps we could say that it represented ceremony, which means that a dead staff laid upon a dead face cannot give life. Religious ceremonies, however scriptural, are paralyzed in the presence of death. Religion has never set anyone free; ceremonies have never set anyone free. It is only the Power of Jesus Christ, made available to us through the Cross, and given by the Holy Spirit, that can bring life [Jn. 7:37-39].)

32 And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed.

33 He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them twain (that he may not be disturbed), and prayed unto the LORD.

34 And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands: and he stretched himself upon the child; and the flesh of the child waxed warm (evidently, the Lord told him to do this).

35 Then he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes (perhaps Elisha conducting himself as he did toward the dead child was meant to symbolize the fact that Jesus could not save mankind by passing a decree; He saved man by becoming one with man [Isa. 7:14]).

36 And he called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So he called her. And when she was come in unto him, he said, Take up your son (one can only imagine the joy that filled this woman's heart at this time).

37 Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and took up her son, and went out.

THE POISONOUS POTTAGE

38 And Elisha came again to Gilgal: and there was a dearth in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him: and he said unto his servant, Set on the great pot, and seethe pottage for the sons of the prophets (Elisha offers God's provision, for surely the Gospel occupies a great container).

39 And one went into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered thereof wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred them into the pot of pottage: for they knew them not. (One man was not satisfied with that which the Lord had provided, so he went out in the "field to gather herbs," and the herbs were from a "wild vine." These "herbs of the wild vine" represent all false doctrine. Men are ever trying to add to the Word of the God; it will only bring death.)

40 So they poured out for the men to eat. And it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, O you man of God, there is death in the pot. And they could not eat thereof. (The herbs were poison — all false doctrine brings death. Sadly, much, if not most, doctrine in the Church presently is unscriptural. In fact, if every doctrine is not built exclusively upon the Cross of Christ, then, in some way, it is spurious [I Pet. 1:18-20].)

41 But he (Elisha) said, Then bring meal. And he cast it into the pot; and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat. And there was no harm in the pot. (The meal is a Type of the Word of God, which was, and is, the only answer for the "death in the pot." When will we quit trying to take away or add to the Word of God? Every time, it brings "death.")

A HUNDRED MEN FED MIRACULOUSLY

42 And there came a man from Baal-shalisha, and brought the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley, and full ears of corn in the husk thereof. And he (Elisha) said, Give unto the people, that they may eat.

43 And his servitor said, What, should I set this before an hundred men? He said again, Give the people, that they may eat: for thus says the LORD, They shall eat, and shall leave thereof.

44 So he set it before them, and they did eat, and left thereof, according to the Word of the LORD. (The same power that multiplied this food multiplied the loaves and fish regarding Christ. Men judge our Lord the same as the Prophet's servant judged the barley cakes. They do not believe that He can satisfy the hunger of their hearts; however, all that the world offers can never satisfy man's hunger. Jesus Alone can satisfy and give even more. So, there was plenty, and there was even some left.)

CHAPTER 5

(894 B.C.)

THE HEALING OF NAAMAN THE LEPER

[1] Now Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honourable, because by him the LORD had given deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man in valour, but he was a leper. (Leprosy in the Old Testament was a type of the spiritual condition of unregenerate man. There was no earthly cure for leprosy, just as there is no earthly cure for sin. All of these great things said about Naaman did not save or heal him; he was still a leper. And so are the untold millions in the world who think their state, status, and position mean something with God. They don't!)

[2] And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she waited on Naaman's wife. (This "little maid" would figure prominently in history. The Holy Spirit does not even give her name; however, her testimony will affect nations.

It would have been very easy for her to have been bitter, morose, and angry toward God, for Him allowing her to be taken captive away from her land and family, and made a slave in Syria. But she exhibited none of these evil traits. She retained her testimony. The things she did not understand, she left in the Hands of God. What an example!)

[3] And she said unto her mistress, Would God my lord were with the Prophet who is in Samaria! for he would recover him of his leprosy (in effect, she said, "I know somebody, who knows somebody, who knows what to do for you!")**.

[4] And one went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel (should have been translated, "Naaman went in, and told his lord, Ben-hadad, the king of Syria").

5 And the king of Syria said, Go to, go, and I will send a letter unto the king of Israel. And he (Naaman) departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of raiment (approximately $3 million, in 2004 currency; man has ever been trying to purchase something from God, when, in reality, the Lord has nothing for sale; it is all a free gift [Jn. 3:16]).

6 And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, Now when this letter is come unto you, behold, I have therewith sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may recover him of his leprosy.

7 And it came to pass, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man does send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? wherefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeks a quarrel against me. (Unfortunately, much of the modern Church is trying to evangelize the world by political means, which are worse than useless. They are attempting to establish some type of "pseudo-Christian kingdom age philosophy." There is nothing in the Word of God that even remotely hints at such. Evangelism is carried on by the preaching of the Gospel, and by no other means [Mk. 16:15; I Cor. 1:17-18, 23; 2:2].)

8 And it was so, when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Wherefore have you rent your clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a Prophet in Israel (evidently, it became obvious that the king of Israel was upset at such a request, so the news comes to Elisha; the Prophet says, in effect, "Send him to me!").

9 So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha (the entire entourage).

10 And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall come again to you, and you shall be clean (Naaman expects to be waited on, courted, and to receive every possible attention; but Elisha just sends a messenger out to him, and tells him what to do).

11 But Naaman was wroth (very angry), and went away, and said, Behold, I thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the Name of the LORD his God, and strike his hand over the place, and recover the leper. (Naaman was a powerful man and warranted, he thought, much more than this curt dismissal; entire nations trembled at his presence; after all, he was the mightiest military chieftain on the face of the Earth.

All of this is pride, which is the crowning sin of the human race. It's the reason that most never receive from God. Every individual must come to the Lord the same way, the great, the rich, the poor, the small — they are all the same to the Lord — poor, wretched lepers.)

12 Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage. (Actually, the two rivers, Abana and Pharpar, were some of the clearest streams in the world, so why this muddy Jordan?

In fact, the Jordan, at least at this time, was a Type of Calvary. Yes, it is muddy; yes, there are other rivers much more beautiful; however, there are no healing qualities in the other rivers, as beautiful as they may be, where there is total healing and cleansing in this Jordan, i.e., "Calvary.")

13 And his servants came near, and spoke unto him, and said, My father, if the Prophet had bid you do some great thing, would you not have done it? how much rather then, when he said to you, Wash, and be clean? (Men are ever asking, "What can I do to earn Salvation?" Most of the world is trying to earn its salvation by good works; but, in reality, all one has to do, as it regards Calvary, is to "wash, and be clean.")

14 Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean. (Why "seven"? There was nothing magical about the number, only that it denoted God's total and complete Redemption — in other words, a "finished work." Salvation makes a man whole. How many millions have dipped into the waters of Calvary, and have seen all of their sins washed away? Man is spiritually dirty. This "dirt" cannot be cleansed by the "soap" of this world, but only by the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ.)

ELISHA REFUSES NAAMAN'S GIFTS

15 And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him: and he said, Behold, now I know that there is no God in all the Earth, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray you, take a blessing of your servant (he wanted to give Elisha an Offering).

16 But he (Elisha) said, As the LORD lives, before Whom I stand, I will receive none. And he urged him to take it; but he refused. (There is some evidence that Elisha did receive offerings at other times. So, why not this time?

This entire episode was a picture portrayed by God of His Grace. One cannot purchase Grace. Money or good works are not the coin of this realm. If Elisha had taken money, it would instantly have nullified the work of Grace. It would have made a mockery of the Blood of Jesus Christ.)

17 And Naaman said, Shall there not then, I pray you, be given to your servant two mules' burden of earth? for your servant will henceforth offer neither Burnt Offering nor Sacrifice unto other gods, but unto the LORD (Naaman now knew that the Lord of Israel was truly God, and not the heathen idols he had been worshipping in Syria; he desired to offer "Burnt Offerings" to the Lord of Israel, and felt that the soil of Syria was improper; inasmuch as Israel was "God's land," Naaman was far more theologically sound, at least at that time, than we might at first realize).

18 In this thing the LORD pardon your servant, that when my master (the king of Syria) goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon (to the god "Hadad"): when I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon your servant in this thing.

19 And he (Elisha) said unto him (Naaman), Go in peace. So he departed from him a little way (Elisha approved of his request).

THE SIN AND PUNISHMENT OF GEHAZI

20 But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master has spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: but, as the LORD lives, I will run after him, and take somewhat of him. (This proclaims the efforts of Gehazi to change the great Plan of Salvation from "the Grace of God" to "salvation by works." It was met, as we shall see, with severe and stern judgment.)

21 So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, Is all well?

22 And he said, All is well. My master has sent me, saying, Behold, even now there be come to me from Mount Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets: give them, I pray you, a talent of silver, and two changes of garments (his story was altogether most plausible, and his demand prudently moderate, at least as far as Naaman was concerned).

23 And Naaman said, Be content, take two talents. And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they bore them before him.

24 And when he came to the tower, he took them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house: and he let the men go, and they departed.

25 But he went in, and stood before his master. And Elisha said unto him, Where did you come from, Gehazi? And he said, Your servant went no whither (he lied!).

26 And he said unto him, Went not my heart with you, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and maidservants? (The same question could be asked presently! The world is dying without God, and so many modern Preachers are proclaiming a message of money. To be sure, their sin is no different than that of Gehazi.)

[27] The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave unto you, and unto your seed for ever. And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow. (Gehazi's sin and his incurring of Naaman's leprosy is a type of man voiding the Grace of God by "works salvation." Gehazi's acceptance of money was, in effect, saying that Salvation could be purchased. He had made the Grace of God of none effect [Gal. 5:4].)

CHAPTER 6

(893 B.C.)

THE AXE HEAD MADE TO FLOAT

[1] And the sons of the prophets said unto Elisha, Behold now, the place where we dwell with you is too strait for us. (It seems that the unbelief registered in Chapter 2 concerning the sons of the prophets seems to at least have given way to some Faith. Prayerfully, their association with Elisha had done much to direct them toward the Lord; however, there is little record that God used these individuals in much capacity.)

[2] Let us go, we pray you, unto Jordan, and take thence every man a beam, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. And he (Elisha) answered, Go you (of all the things that the sons of the prophets studied in this school, their association with Elisha was, by far, their greatest instruction)**.

[3] And one said, Be content, I pray you, and go with your servants. And he answered, I will go (one of the number was not satisfied with the Prophet's mere approval of the enterprise, but wished for his actual presence; Elisha acquiesced to the request)**.

[4] So he went with them. And when they came to Jordan (the river Jordan), they cut down wood.

[5] But as one was felling a beam, the axe head fell into the water: and he cried, and said, Alas, master! for it was borrowed (presently, the axe head seems an insignificant matter; however, in that day, it represented a sizable investment, and, thereby, a heavy loss)**.

[6] And the man of God said, Where fell it? And he showed him the place. And he cut down a stick, and cast it in thither; and the iron did swim.

(The "stick," no matter how crude, was symbolic of the Cross of Jesus Christ. We learn from this the tremendous lesson of the Power of Calvary. Every single blessing received by the Child of God comes through Calvary. Elisha applied the Cross to the problem. Regrettably, most in the modern Church have set the Cross aside, resorting to other things, which only bring death.)

7 Therefore said he, Take it up to you. And he put out his hand, and took it. (The Cross is a Finished Work. Consequently, all the Believer has to do is simply stretch out his hand and take it. All that the Cross represents is ours for the asking.)

ELISHA AND THE SYRIANS

8 Then the king of Syria warred against Israel, and took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place shall be my camp *(this was some time, even possibly several years, after the healing of Naaman).

9 And the man of God (Elisha) sent unto the king of Israel, saying, Beware that you pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians are come down. (Despite Israel's spiritual degeneracy, the Lord helped them through Elisha. He disclosed three or more times the plans of the king of Syria.)

10 And the king of Israel (Jehoram) sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of, and saved himself there, not once nor twice.

11 Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was sore troubled for this thing; and he called his servants, and said unto them, Will you not show me which of us is for the king of Israel? (The Syrian king thought someone in his cabinet was relaying vital information to Israel.)

12 And one of his servants said, None, my lord, O king: But Elisha, the Prophet that is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedchamber. (For this man to know this means that Elisha evidently made no secret of the instructions that he was giving to the king of Israel concerning the king of Syria. It seems from this that the king of Syria should have been convicted in his heart for his misdeeds, but he was not. Man's ability to resist God is simply amazing! In his stupidity, he sends his army to take Elisha.)

13 And he said, Go and spy where he (Elisha) is, that I may send and fetch him. And it was told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan.

14 Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a great host: and they came by night, and compassed the city about (all for just one man).

15 And when the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, an host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! how shall we do? (The Holy Spirit is telling us here not to be daunted by that which appears on the surface. The Believer is not to walk "after the flesh," but rather "after the Spirit" [Rom. 8:1]. The trouble with most Christians is, they know what is happening, but they don't know what's going on.)

16 And he (Elisha) answered, Fear not (over 300 times in the Word of God, the Holy Spirit tells us, "Fear not"): for they who be with us are more than they who be with them (we should ever remember this; for the Promise applicable then is most assuredly applicable now!).

17 And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray You, open his eyes (the eyes of the servant), that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha. (The Holy Spirit allowed this to happen that you and I may understand by Faith that we are surrounded by such, even though not seen by the natural eye. What an encouragement! In this Passage, we are given a glimpse into the spirit world of Righteousness.)

18 And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the LORD, and said, Smite this people, I pray you, with blindness. And He smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha. (The same Gospel that softens also hardens. As well, that which opens blinded eyes can close open eyes. The Gospel always has a powerful effect on anyone, whether it be positive or negative. The effect is according to the response of the individual.)

19 And Elisha said unto them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek. But he led them to Samaria. (No, this was not a lie. Their intention was to stop Elisha, because he was hindering them from getting to the king of Israel. The king of Israel was the one whom they were really seeking.)

20 And it came to pass, when they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see. And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and, behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.

21 And the king of Israel said unto Elisha, when he saw them, My father, shall I smite them? shall I smite them?

22 And he (Elisha) answered, You shall not smite them: would you smite those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master (this Verse pictures a great work of Grace; the king of Israel would kill them; however, Elisha proclaims the Love of God to them)**.

23 And he prepared great provision for them: and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel (at least at that time!)**.

BEN-HADAD BESIEGES SAMARIA

24 And it came to pass after this (several years have now passed), that Ben-hadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria. (This would never have happened had Ahab put Ben-hadad to death when he was in his power. The sufferings recorded in this Passage would have been avoided. This siege and its horrors fulfill the Prophecy then made to Ahab by the rebuking Prophet [I Ki. 20:31-34].)

25 And there was a great famine in Samaria (because of its sin): and, behold, they (the Syrians) besieged it (the Lord allowed this to happen, because of Israel's sin), until an ass's head was sold for fourscore pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a cab of dove's dung for five pieces of silver.

[26] And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, saying, Help, my lord, O king.

[27] And he said, If the LORD do not help you, whence shall I help you? out of the barnfloor, or out of the winepress? (Do you suppose that I have stores of food at my disposal?)

[28] And the king said unto her, What ails you? And she answered, This woman said unto me, Give your son, that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.

[29] So we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the next day, Give your son, that we may eat him: and she has hid her son. (The siege had become so severe that the people of Israel, God's chosen People, had resorted to cannibalism. Moses had predicted that this would happen, if the people turned their backs upon God [Deut. 28:53-57].)

JEHORAM BLAMES ELISHA

[30] And it came to pass, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he rent his clothes; and he passed by upon the wall, and the people looked, and, behold, he had sackcloth within upon his flesh. (There was no Repentance on the part of Jehoram; the sackcloth was only a ceremony. While it was definitely a sign of his tremendous problems, it did not point to the cause of those problems, which was his terrible sin. In fact, the Church presently is loaded with similar ceremonies; however, the ceremonies are not based on the Cross and, therefore, aren't valid.)

[31] Then he said, God do so and more also to me, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stand on him this day. (His opposition to Elisha shows his spiritual condition. As well, Law will always attack Grace. Instead of the modern Church realizing the cause of its problems, and thereby repenting, it attacks the ones who are preaching the answer, namely the Cross.)

32 But Elisha sat in his house, and the elders sat with him; and the king sent a man from before him: but before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, See you how this son of a murderer has sent to take away my head? look, when the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door: is not the sound of his master's feet behind him? (Elisha was supernaturally warned of what was about to take place — that an executioner was coming almost immediately to take away his life, and that the king himself would arrive shortly after.)

33 And while he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came down unto him *(to admit the king, for he had now arrived): and he (the king) said, Behold, this evil is of the LORD *(now, Jehoram blames the Lord); what should I wait for the LORD any longer? (Jehoram had, apparently, to some extent repented of his hasty message, and had hurried after his messenger to give Elisha one further chance at life. We must understand that they had been in communication previously on the subject of the siege, and that Elisha had encouraged the king to "wait for" an interposition of Jehovah. The king now urges that the time for waiting is over. In effect, he says, "What use is there in waiting any longer? Why should he not break with Jehovah, behead the lying Prophet, and surrender the town? What has Elisha to say in reply?" — Pulpit.)

CHAPTER 7

(892 B.C.)

ELISHA'S PROPHECY

[1] Then Elisha said, Hear you the Word of the LORD; Thus says the LORD, Tomorrow about this time shall a measure of fine flour be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria. (How amazing is Grace, that, in response to the murderous unbelief of the king's heart and the scornful unbelief of the messenger, promised such an abundance of food, and so soon that it was to be had almost for nothing!)

[2] Then a lord on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if the LORD would make windows in Heaven, might this thing be? And he (Elisha) said, Behold, you shall see it with your eyes, but shall not eat thereof (the reward of unbelief would be death, as the reward of unbelief is always death)**.

FOUR LEPERS

[3] And there were four leprous men at the entering in of the gate: and they said one to another, Why sit we here until we die? (Leprosy in the Old Testament was a type of sin. Its horrid desperation was such that, in the eyes of Israel, a leper was hopeless. How many Christians find themselves presently in such a perilous condition, a condition, we might add, so disastrous that there is no help from any quarter except God. Nevertheless, no condition is such that God cannot change it.

"Why sit we here until we die?" In these very words, you can feel Faith. How many Christians have given up? How many have quit? Faith demands action. So, these four lepers act.)

4 If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there: and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall unto the host of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die (in other words, we have nothing to lose, because we are dying anyway).

5 And they rose up in the twilight (in the evening, near dark), to go unto the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the uttermost part of the camp of Syria, behold, there was no man there (the camp was empty, deserted).

THE CONFUSION AND FLIGHT OF THE SYRIANS

6 For the LORD had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host: and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us. (The Syrians thought some powerful army from a higher nation was coming upon them and fled. How easy it is for the Lord to do anything. How so important it is for the Christian not to limit God and, sadly, how so much we do limit Him. Evidently, when these four lepers began to walk toward the camp of the Syrians, the Lord magnified their footsteps, until it sounded like the march of a mighty army. We exhibit Faith, and God does the rest; but what we do must be in the Will of God.)

7 Wherefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.

8 And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it.

9 Then they said one to another, We do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, some mischief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the king's household. (The sun had set the day before on a day of disaster for Samaria, but the sun will now rise on one of the greatest days of blessing in her history. Faith in God would do this thing.

In type, Samaria is a picture of the world with its hunger, starvation, pain, and agony. The lepers, as pitiful as they were, are a type of Preachers of the Gospel of Good News. The abundance that we have found is a product of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, which alone can satisfy the hunger and the craving of a starving world.

As the lepers, "we must not hold our peace." We have good news to bring, in fact, the greatest news than man has ever known. "Jesus saves, Jesus heals, Jesus baptizes with the Holy Spirit, Jesus delivers, and Jesus is coming again.")

10 So they came and called unto the porter of the city: and they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents as they were.

11 And he called the porters; and they told it to the king's house within.

12 And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, I will now show you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we be hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city (unbelief always thinks the negative)**.

13 And one of his servants answered and said, Let some take, I pray you, five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city, (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel who are left in it: behold, I say, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites who are consumed:) and let us send and see.

14 They took therefore two chariot horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see.

15 And they went after them unto Jordan: and, lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels (scattered about the way), which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. And the messengers returned, and told the king.

ELISHA'S PROPHECY OF PLENTY IS FULFILLED

16 And the people went out, and spoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the Word of the LORD.

17 And the king appointed the lord on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate (the man of unbelief of Verse 2): and the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him.

18 And it came to pass as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be tomorrow about this time at the gate of Samaria:

19 And that lord answered the man of God, and said, Now, behold, if the LORD should make windows in Heaven, might such a thing be? And he said, Behold, you shall see it with your eyes, but shall not eat thereof.

20 And so it fell out unto him: for the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died (they ran over him, trying to get to the food).

CHAPTER 8

(885 B.C.)

A SEVEN-YEAR FAMINE

1 Then spoke Elisha unto the woman, whose son he had restored to life (4:18-37), saying, Arise, and go you and your household, and sojourn wheresoever you can sojourn: for the LORD has called for a famine; and it shall also come upon the land seven years. (Almost everything that happened to Elijah was doubled with Elisha, which pertained to the double portion received by Elisha. The famine in the days of Elijah was three and a half years, and this famine under Elisha is seven years. With the double blessings also came double judgment.)

2 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God: and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years (the Lord sent the famine on Israel because of her sin; the famine did not include the land of the Philistines)*.

THE SHUNAMMITE'S INHERITANCE RESTORED

3 And it came to pass at the seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines: and she went forth to cry unto the king for her house and for her land (evidently, other people had taken it over)*.

4 And the king talked with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray you, all the great things that Elisha has done. (Yet all of these great things had not served the purpose to cause this king or Israel to repent. The king desired to hear the story of miracles, but nothing could be said of Righteousness, Temperance, or Judgment to come. Regrettably, it is the same presently!

Chapter 5 records Gehazi being stricken with leprosy. So, the account of the healing of Naaman may not have been given in chronological order. In other words, it is possible that it happened after this incident. If that is incorrect, then possibly Gehazi had been healed; however, there is no Scriptural record of such.)

5 And it came to pass, as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead body to life, that, behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life.

6 And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain officer, saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now. (The Holy Spirit went to great lengths in relating this, for the express purpose of showing God's watchful care over this woman. The Lord had her come to the palace at exactly the same time that Gehazi was telling her story. For the good deed she had done to the Lord's Prophet, in building him an apartment onto her house some ten years earlier, the Lord would continue to bless her. Our gifts to Him are so fleeting. His Blessing to us is everlasting.)

HAZAEL BECOMES KING OF SYRIA

7 And Elisha came to Damascus; and Ben-hadad the king of Syria was sick; and it was told him, saying, The man of God is come hither *(it seems that respect for Elisha had grown considerably, even in the heathen country of Syria).

8 And the king said unto Hazael, Take a present in your hand, and go, meet the man of God, and enquire of the LORD by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease? (It's amazing how much faith a wicked king like Ben-hadad would have in Elisha, and in the Lord, as well, and still not repent of his wrongdoing.)

9 So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, Your son Ben-hadad king of Syria has sent me to you, saying, Shall I recover of this disease? (Whether Elisha received or accepted this gift is not known. To be sure, it was a gift of sizable proportions.)

10 And Elisha said unto him, Go, say unto him, You may certainly recover: howbeit the LORD has showed me that he shall surely die. (In other words, he could recover, but he won't. The reason? Hazael will kill him.)

11 And he (Elisha) settled his countenance stedfastly, until he (Hazael) was ashamed: and the man of God wept. (Elisha fixed on Hazael a long and meaning look, until Hazael felt embarrassed, and his eyes fell. Elisha wept, because of the long series of calamities which Israel would suffer at the hands of Syria during Hazael's reign.)

12 And Hazael said, Why weeps my lord? And he answered, Because I know the evil that you will do unto the Children of Israel: their strong holds will you set on fire, and their young men will you kill with the sword, and will dash their children, and rip up their women with child.

13 And Hazael said, But what, is your servant a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, The LORD has showed me that you shall be king over Syria.

14 So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, What said Elisha to you? And he answered, He told me that you should surely recover.

15 And it came to pass on the morrow, that he took a thick cloth, and dipped it in water, and spread it on his (Ben-hadad's) face, so that he died: and Hazael reigned in his stead.

JEHORAM REIGNS OVER JUDAH

16 And in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being then king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah began to reign. (At this point, the history of the kingdom of Judah is taken up. Jehoram's reign was sometimes counted from the seventeenth year of his father, when he was given the royal title; sometimes from his father's twenty-third year, when he was associated; and sometimes, from his father's death, in his twenty-fifth year, when he became sole king. In other words, he reigned jointly with his father Jehoshaphat for a period of time.)

17 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his wife: and he did evil in the sight of the LORD (these Verses proclaim the result of Jehoshaphat's sin regarding his union with Ahab and that wicked family)**.

19 Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah for David His servant's sake, as He promised him to give him always a light, and to his children. (The "light" here refers to a king and a kingdom according to the Davidic Covenant of II Sam., Chpt. 7. A natural consequence of Jehoram's apostasy would have been the destruction of the house of David, and the starting of another dynasty, as in the case of Jeroboam [I Ki. 14:10], but the promises to David prevented this, and Jehoram was punished in other ways.)

20 In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves.

21 So Joram (because this king of Judah did evil in the sight of the Lord, the Holy Spirit excises from his name the Jehovah-syllable, reducing it to "Joram") went over to Zair, and all the chariots with him: and he rose by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him about, and the captains of the chariots: and the people fled into their tents.

22 Yet Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time (all as a result of sin)**.

23 And the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

24 And Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead (Joram died after an illness that lasted two years, of an incurable disease of his bowels; there was no regret at his death).

AHAZIAH'S ONE-YEAR REIGN IN JUDAH

25 In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel did Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah begin to reign (it is conjectured that he began to reign as viceroy to his father during his severe illness in Jehoram's eleventh year, and became sole king at his father's death in the year following).

26 Two and twenty years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri king of Israel.

27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, as did the house of Ahab: for he was the son in law of the house of Ahab (Jehoshaphat's sin of "unity" would take its deadly toll for years to come).

28 And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to the war against Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth-gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram.

29 And king Joram went back to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick. (This "Joram" is the king of Israel, while the "Joram" of Verse 21 was the king of Judah.)

CHAPTER 9

JEHU ANOINTED AS KING OF ISRAEL

[1] And Elisha the Prophet called one of the children of the prophets, and said unto him, Gird up your loins, and take this box of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead (the judgment of the house of Ahab now commences; Jehu is the Divine instrument chosen to execute that judgment; we will find that Jehu illustrates how zealous an unconverted man can be for God when it suits his personal interests and ambitions to attack national evils; what he did on behalf of Righteousness he did well and with energy; however, his zeal was carnal; he utterly destroyed Baal but permitted the golden calves to remain; this fact alone shows that his heart was a stranger to Divine Faith; he was an instrument of God's wrath, carrying out God's Will, at least in the destruction of Ahab and his family; but he never had a personal knowledge of God; so, now the second part of Elijah's Prophecy those years earlier, concerning the anointing of Jehu as king over Israel, comes to pass [I Ki. 19:16])**:

[2] And when you come thither, look out there Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him arise up from among his brethren, and carry him to an inner chamber (secrecy was of extreme importance, lest Joram should get knowledge of what was happening, and prepare himself for resistance; had he not been taken by surprise, the result might have been a long and bloody civil war)**;

[3] Then take the box of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, Thus says the LORD, I have anointed you king over Israel. Then open the door, and flee, and tarry not (the conference was to be behind closed doors, that no one might either hear or see what took place; and then the messenger was to leave instantly)**.

4 So the young man, even the young man the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead.

5 And when he came, behold, the captains of the host were sitting; and he said, I have an errand to you, O captain. And Jehu said, Unto which of all us? And he said, To you, O captain (Jehu was thus singled out as the object of the message).

6 And he arose, and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said unto him, Thus says the LORD God of Israel, I have anointed you king over the People of the LORD, even over Israel (even though Israel was in a sad state spiritually, the Lord still longingly referred to them as "His People").

7 And you shall smite the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge the blood of My servants the Prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel.

8 For the whole house of Ahab shall perish: and I will cut off from Ahab him who urinates against the wall, and him who is shut up and left in Israel:

9 And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah:

10 And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled (all of this is plainly a command, and not a prophecy; Jehu is expressly ordered by God to "smite," to utterly destroy, the whole house of Ahab; in fact, Elijah had prophesied, years before, of the awful end of Jezebel [I Ki. 21:23]).

11 Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said unto him, Is all well? wherefore came this mad fellow to you? And he said unto them, You know the man, and his communication (the sudden appearance and disappearance of the messenger had evidently created an impression that all was not well).

12 And they said, It is false; tell us now. And he said, Thus and thus spoke he to me, saying, Thus says the LORD, I have anointed you king over Israel (Jehu reveals to the others present what the young Prophet had said to him).

13 Then they hasted, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew with trumpets, saying, Jehu is king (it seems that the captains threw themselves with ardor into his cause).

JEHU KILLS JEHORAM (JORAM)

14 So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi (not the same Jehoshaphat who had been the king of Judah) conspired against Joram. (Now Joram had kept Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria.

15 But king Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Jehu said, If it be your minds, then let none go forth nor escape out of the city to go to tell it in Jezreel (as soon as he is proclaimed king, Jehu addresses himself to the captains, denoting that he has the military behind him, and proposes a policy; he swears everyone to secrecy).

16 So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram (the great object of Jehu was to surprise Joram, and to kill or capture him before he could take any steps to organize a defense).

17 And there stood a watchman on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Joram said, Take an horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace?

18 So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus says the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What have you to do with peace? turn you behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he comes not again (in other words, the messenger was not allowed to take back any message whatsoever).

19 Then he sent out a second on horseback, which came to them, and said, Thus says the king, Is it peace? And Jehu answered, What have you to do with peace? turn you behind me (the same was done with this messenger, as well).

20 And the watchman told, saying, He came even unto them, and comes not again: and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he drives furiously (the watchman on the wall conjectures that Jehu must be leading the company, since he had a character for impetuosity).

21 And Joram said, Make ready. And his chariot was made ready. And Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and met him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite (Divine Providence has so ordered matters that vengeance for the sin of Ahab was exacted upon the very sin of his guilt regarding Naboth; the mills of God grind slowly, but they grind exceedingly fine; in other words, the Lord misses nothing).

22 And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, What peace, so long as the whoredoms of your mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so many? ("Whoredoms" mean idolatries, as so frequently used in the Old Testament [Lev. 19:29; 20:5; Jer. 3:2, 9; 13:17; Ezek. 16:17; etc.)

23 And Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, There is treachery, O Ahaziah (as Joram was king of Israel, Ahaziah was king of Judah).

24 And Jehu drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot.

25 Then said Jehu to Bidkar his captain, Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when I and you rode together after Ahab his father, the LORD laid this burden upon him (Jehu and Bidkar, who had personally ridden in the same chariot with Ahab, had heard the sentence of punishment addressed toward this evil king, as spoken by Elijah the Prophet [I Ki. 21:17-26]);

26 Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, says the LORD; and I will requite you in this plat, says the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him into the plat of ground, according to the Word of the LORD (the evil prophesied against Ahab had been formally and expressly deferred to the future days of his son, because of Ahab's Repentance [I Ki. 21:29]).

JEHU SLAYS AHAZIAH, KING OF JUDAH

27 But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. And Jehu followed after him, and said, Smite him also in the chariot. And they did so at the going up to Gur, which is by Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo, and died there (from a spiritual point of view, Jehu felt he could justify this act; the commission given to him [Vs. 7] was to smite all the house of Ahab, and Ahaziah was Ahab's grandson).

28 And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the city of David (Ahaziah had reigned but a year [8:26]).

29 And in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah.

JEHU KILLS JEZEBEL

30 And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her face, and tired (tiered) her head, and looked out at a window (she looked out to see, but more so to be seen; it would not turn out well for her).

31 And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Had Zimri peace, who killed his master? (Ever how the question asked by Jezebel is to be interpreted, it seems that it is in a conciliatory attitude rather than that which is threatening.)

[32] And he (Jehu) lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs (the eunuchs who "looked out" to Jehu were probably the chief eunuchs of the palace, who had authority over the others, and indeed over the court officials generally).

[33] And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trode her under foot (there appears to have been no hesitation; the boldness of Jehu communicated itself to those whom he addressed; Jehu had his chariot driven over the prostrate corpse, so that the hoofs of his horses, and perhaps his own person, were sprinkled with her blood).

[34] And when he was come in, he did eat and drink, and said, Go, see now this cursed woman, and bury her: for she is a king's daughter (he calls Jezebel "a cursed woman," not inappropriately; she had brought a curse on her husband, on her sons, and on her grandsons, as well as on the entirety of Israel and Judah; she had been the prime mover in a bloody persecution of the worshippers of Jehovah; so now, she must answer to the Lord, and that she has).

[35] And they went to bury her: but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands (evidently, she was eaten by wild dogs).

[36] Wherefore they came again, and told him. And he said, This is the Word of the LORD, which He spoke by His servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel shall dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel (the Prophecy referred to is that recorded in I Kings 21:23):

[37] And the carcase of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel; so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel. (The fragments of the body were so scattered that there could be no collective tomb, no place where admirers could congregate and say, "Here lies the great queen — here lies Jezebel." To rest in no tomb was viewed as a shame and a disgrace — Pulpit. And so concludes the life of this woman who had wrought such evil in both Israel and Judah. In one way or the other, all who reject Jesus Christ have an ignoble end. To die without God is the death of eternal darkness.)

CHAPTER 10

JEHU KILLS AHAB'S SONS

[1] And Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, unto the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to them who brought up Ahab's children, saying (the word "sons" in the Hebrew being used as well for grandsons and even great-grandsons, most of these probably refer to his grandsons; however, Ahab showed he was doing all within his power to continue his dynasty.

Jezreel is the scene of the cruel murder of Naboth and his sons, with it now becoming the theater of the just wrath of God upon Naboth's murderers. Here may be learned something of how God regards sin and judges it. If, in longsuffering Grace, He delays the judgment, this longsuffering heightens the terror of the Divine anger. In harmony with this, how appalling is the expression in the Book of Revelation, "the wrath of the Lamb" — not the wrath of the lion, but "the wrath of the Lamb"),

[2] Now as soon as this letter comes to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fenced city also, and armour;

[3] Look even out the best and meetest of your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house.

[4] But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, two kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand? (The kings addressed are Joram and Ahaziah, who had confronted Jehu, and had met their deaths.)

[5] And he who was over the house, and he who was over the city, the elders also, and the bringers up of the children, sent to Jehu, saying, We are your servants, and will do all that you shall bid us; we will not make any king: do you that which is good in your eyes.

[6] Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If you be mine, and if you will hearken unto my voice, take you the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by tomorrow this time. Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, which brought them up (Jezreel was not more than twenty miles from Samaria).

[7] And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and killed seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent him them to Jezreel (Jehu had told them to personally bring the heads to him; but this was a degradation to which they did not feel bound to submit; they, therefore, sent the heads by trusted messengers).

[8] And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay you them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning (thus, all who entered into the town or left the town would see them and, being struck by the ghastly spectacle, would make inquiry and learn the truth — Pulpit).

[9] And it came to pass in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, You be righteous: behold, I conspired against my master, and killed him: but who killed all these? (Politically, Jehu seeks to absolve himself of blame concerning the deaths of these individuals.)

[10] Know now that there shall fall unto the Earth nothing of the Word of the LORD, which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab: for the LORD has done that which He spoke by His Servant Elijah (Jehu declares that what has been done has been according to the Word of the Lord, and so it was [I Ki. 21:19, 21, 28-29]).

[11] So Jehu killed all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his kinsfolks, and his priests, until he left him none remaining (the entire Ahab faction was blotted out).

JEHU KILLS THE PRINCES OF JUDAH, DESCENDANTS OF

AHAB'S DAUGHTER

[12] And he arose and departed, and came to Samaria (the capital of Israel). And as he was at the shearing house in the way, [13] Jehu met with the brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are you? And they answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah (who had been king of Judah); and we go down to salute the children of the king and the children of the queen (hearing of the great unrest in Samaria, they had probably been sent by Athaliah to render any assistance that they could to the house of Ahab).

[14] And he said, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and killed them at the pit of the shearing house, even two and forty men; neither left he any of them (as well, these were also descendants of Ahab).

THE BALANCE OF AHAB'S HOUSE IN SAMARIA KILLED BY JEHU AS THE LORD INSTRUCTED

[15] And when he was departed thence, he lighted on Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him: and he saluted him, and said to him, Is your heart right, as my heart is with your heart? And Jehonadab answered, It is. If it be, give me your hand. And he gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot (Jehonadab was the founder of the sect of the Rechabites [Jer. 35:6-19]; he joins affinity with Jehu).

[16] And he said, Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD. So they made him (Jehonadab) ride in his (Jehu's) chariot (man can be very zealous for God, as Jehu, and yet not know Him, but this zeal only goes as far as it suits personal interests or religious and political pursuits; the zeal of such persons only lasts so long as it suits their purposes).

[17] And when he came to Samaria, he killed all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD, which he spoke to Elijah (I Ki. 21:17-22]).

JEHU KILLS THE WORSHIPPERS OF BAAL

[18] And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them, Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu shall serve him much (probably, as yet, no suspicion had touched the public mind that Jehu would be a less zealous worshipper of Baal than his predecessor).

[19] Now therefore call unto me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal; whosoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But Jehu did it in subtilty, to the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal ("subtilty" was characteristic of Jehu, who always preferred to gain his ends by cunning rather than in a straightforward way).

[20] And Jehu said, Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it (no opposition was made to the king's wish; however, they had no idea as to what he was about to do).

[21] And Jehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was full from one end to another (Ahab had erected a temple to Baal in Samaria shortly after his marriage to Jezebel [I Ki. 16:32]; so this is where they would gather).

[22] And he said unto him who was over the vestry, Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments (the keeper of the wardrobe obeyed the order given him, and supplied the vestments to all the worshippers, whatever those vestments may have been).

[23] And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal, and said unto the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the worshippers of Baal only.

[24] And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings, Jehu appointed fourscore men without, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, he who lets him go, his life shall be for the life of him.

25 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in, and kill them; let none come forth. And they smote them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal (they made their way into the inner sanctuary).

26 And they brought forth the images out of the house of Baal, and burned them (they were evidently made of wood).

27 And they broke down the image of Baal, and broke down the house of Baal, and made it a draught house unto this day (made it into a garbage dump).

28 Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel (the measures taken were effective; the worship of Baal was put down, and is not said to have been revived in the kingdom of the ten tribes; regrettably, Moloch-worship seems to have taken its place — Pulpit).

29 Howbeit from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, the golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan (it seems that Jehu was not prepared to eradicate all idol worship in Israel; his "zeal for Jehovah" did not reach so far; thus his "reformation of religion" was but a half-reformation, a partial turning to Jehovah, which brought no permanent blessing upon the nation).

A SUMMARY OF JEHU'S KINGSHIP

30 And the LORD said unto Jehu, Because you have done well in executing that which is right in My eyes, and have done unto the house of Ahab according to all that was in My heart, your children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel (these four generations were: Jehoahaz [13:1-9], Joash [13:10-25; 14:1-16], Jeroboam II [14:16-29], and Zachariah [14:28-29; 15:8-12]).

31 But Jehu took no heed to walk in the Law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart: for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, which made Israel to sin.

32 In those days the LORD began to cut Israel short: and Hazael smote them in all the coasts of Israel;

33 From Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan. (What a golden opportunity Jehu had to incur the Blessings of God, but he had no real love for the Lord. Everything he did only suited himself. So now the Lord will allow troubles to begin in Israel, which will finally culminate in her ceasing to be as a nation, and all because of sin.)

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

35 And Jehu slept with his fathers: and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his stead.

36 And the time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty and eight years. (Jehu's reign was the longest reign of an Israelite king, with the exception of Jeroboam II, who is said in 14:23 to have reigned 41 years. The kings of Judah, it seems, by and large, were longer-lived. In fact, not one single king of the northern confederation of Israel was said by the Lord to be righteous.)

CHAPTER 11

ATHALIAH, AHAB'S DAUGHTER, DESTROYS THE ROYAL SEED

[1] And when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal. (Once more, we see the terrible effects of Jehoshaphat's sin in attempting to align himself with idolatrous Israel.

This woman, "Athaliah," was the only woman who ruled as a queen in Judah. She was the granddaughter of Omri [II Chron. 22:2], and the daughter of Ahab and Jezebel. The marriage between Jehoram, king of Judah, and Athaliah, daughter of Jezebel, was part of Satan's grand design to introduce idolatry into Judah so that Athaliah might do for Judah what Jezebel did for Israel.

Jehoshaphat began this sordid situation by marrying his son to the idolatrous daughter of Israel's worst rulers, Ahab and Jezebel. Whatever were Jehoshaphat's ideas, Satan used them to work his devious design, which was to destroy the "seed of the woman," making it impossible for the Messiah to be born into the world.)

JOASH IS SAVED

[2] But Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons which were killed; and they hid him, even him and his nurse, in the bedchamber from Athaliah, so that he was not killed. (Jehosheba, wife of Jehoiada the High Priest, was sister to the late king and, therefore, aunt to the infant Joash. She must have been a woman of nerve and ability. It was a courageous act on her part to enter such a slaughterhouse. It may be assumed that she did so to look with grief and horror upon her murdered nephews and cousins. The infant Joash lay among them, apparently dead; she found him still living, stole him, and hid him.)

3 And he was with her hid in the House of the LORD six years. And Athaliah did reign over the land (over Judah; she thought she had killed all the lineage of David, but such was not the case)**.

JEHOIADA, THE PRIEST, OVERTHROWS ATHALIAH; JOASH ANOINTED KING

4 And the seventh year Jehoiada sent and fetched the rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guard, and brought them to him into the House of the LORD, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the House of the LORD, and showed them the king's son (after waiting, impatiently, we may be sure, for six long years, and seeing the young prince grow from an infant to a boy of seven years of age, Jehoiada deemed that the time was now come, to act)**.

5 And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that you shall do; A third part of you that enter in on the sabbath shall even be keepers of the watch of the king's house (the object was to secure the palace, but not to prevent the queen from leaving it)**;

6 And a third part shall be at the gate of Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the guard: so shall you keep the watch of the house, that it be not broken down.

7 And two parts of all you who go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the House of the LORD about the king (these Jehoiada commanded to enter the Temple and protect the young king)**.

8 And you shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand: and he who comes within the ranges, let him be killed: and be you with the king as he goes out and as he comes in.

9 And the captains over the hundreds did according to all things that Jehoiada the Priest commanded: and they took every man his men who were to come in on the sabbath, with them who should go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the Priest.

[10] And to the captains over hundreds did the Priest give king David's spears and shields, that were in the Temple of the LORD.

[11] And the guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, round about the king, from the right corner of the Temple to the left corner of the Temple, along by the Altar and the Temple (the "Altar" of Burnt Offering, which stood in the great court, a little way from the porch right in front of it).

[12] And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the Testimony (either a copy of the Ten Commandments, or else a copy of the entirety of the Law of Moses, by which the young king should govern and mete out justice to the people); and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, God save the king (literally, "Long live the king!").

ATHALIAH IS SLAIN

[13] And when Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into the Temple of the LORD (it would seem that she was still unsuspicious of danger, and brought no guards with her or any large body of attendants).

[14] And when she looked, behold, the king stood by a pillar, as the manner was, and the princes and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets: and Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, Treason (there was treason all right, but it had been committed by this evil queen).

[15] But Jehoiada the Priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the host, and said unto them, Have her forth without the ranges: and him who follows her kill with the sword. For the Priest had said, Let her not be killed in the House of the LORD (Jehoiada had previously given an order that her execution should take place outside the Temple).

16 And they laid hands on her; and she went by the way by the which the horses came into the king's house: and there was she killed.

REVIVAL UNDER JEHOIADA

17 And Jehoiada made a Covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, that they should be the LORD's people; between the king also and the people (the meaning is that the High Priest renewed the Old Covenant understood to exist between king and people on the one hand, and God on the other; that they would be faithful to God, and God to them — that they would maintain His worship and that He would continue His Protection [Ex. 19:5-8; 24:3-8; 34:10-28]).

18 And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, and broke it down; his altars and his images broke they in pieces thoroughly, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the Priest (Jehoiada) appointed officers over the House of the LORD (Jehoiada re-established the regular courses and the worship).

19 And he took the rulers over hundreds, and the captains, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings (not till he had placed Joash on the royal throne of his ancestors, in the great throne-room of the palace, was Jehoiada content with the work of the day).

20 And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was in quiet: and they killed Athaliah with the sword beside the king's house (the intention of the writer is to connect the period of tranquility with the removal of Athaliah and, therefore, to point her out as the cause of Judah's great difficulties).

21 Seven years old was Jehoash (Joash) when he began to reign.

CHAPTER 12

(878 B.C.)

JOASH REIGNS OVER JUDAH

[1] In the seventh year of Jehu (who was king of Israel) Jehoash (Joash) began to reign (over the southern kingdom of Judah); and forty years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

[2] And Jehoash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all his days wherein Jehoiada the Priest instructed him (after Jehoiada died at the age of 130 years, Joash did evil in God's sight and brought judgment upon his people, as well as himself; the Godliness of Jehoiada was evidently a great influence upon Joash; consequently, the Lord allowed him to live long past the normal age).

[3] But the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places (evidently, Jehoiada attempted to get Joash to remove these "high places," but was not successful; there was to be but one center of worship for Israel, as there is but one place of worship for the Christian, that is, Calvary; to Israel, Christ is "the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world"; to the Church, He is "the Lamb slain from before the foundation of the world" [I Pet. 1:20; Rev. 13:8]).

THE REPAIR OF THE TEMPLE

[4] And Jehoash said to the Priests, All the money of the dedicated things that is brought into the House of the LORD, even the money of everyone who passes the account, the money that every man is set at, and all the money that comes into any man's heart to bring into the House of the LORD (the Fourth Verse seems to imply that the Priests were little considered, with all the funds being designated toward repair),

5 Let the Priests take it to them, every man of his acquaintance: and let them repair the breaches of the house, wheresoever any breach shall be found (even though weak in other matters, it seems that Joash proved himself capable, as it regards this task).

6 But it was so, that in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash the Priests had not repaired the breaches of the house (no charge is made against the Priests of embezzlement; they had simply been negligent, and probably because of lack of money).

7 Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the Priest, and the other Priests, and said unto them, Why repair you not the breaches of the House? (This was, of course, the Temple.) now therefore receive no more money of your ac quaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the House (in other words, funds would be received in a different way).

8 And the Priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repair the breaches of the house (they consented to the new way).

9 But Jehoiada the Priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the Altar (the Brazen Altar), on the right side as one comes into the House of the LORD: and the Priests who kept the door put therein all the money that was brought into the House of the LORD (the suggestion was probably that of Joash, but the Ecclesiastical and civil authorities worked harmoniously with the suggestion).

10 And it was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's scribe and the High Priest came up, and they put up in bags, and told the money that was found in the House of the LORD (they counted the money that had been placed in the chest, put there for the repair of the Temple).

11 And they gave the money, being told, into the hands of them who did the work, that had the oversight of the House of the LORD: and they laid it out to the carpenters and builders, that wrought upon the House of the LORD (it must be remembered that no coins existed as yet; and the lumps of silver which passed as shekels were of very uncertain weight; consequently, to know the value of the money in each bag, it was necessary not only to count the pieces, but to weigh each bag separately),

12 And to masons, and hewers of stone, and to buy timber and hewed stone to repair the breaches of the House of the LORD, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it (the Temple by now had been standing for a little over a hundred and fifty years; so it is obvious as to the needed repairs).

13 Howbeit there were not made for the House of the LORD bowls of silver, snuffers, basons, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the House of the LORD (none of the money was used for the items listed, but was spent strictly on the repair of the structure; there is no contradiction between this statement and that of II Chronicles 24:14, which tells us that "after all of the repairs were completed," the surplus money was expended on the purchase of Temple vessels, etc.):

14 But they gave that to the workmen, and repaired therewith the House of the LORD (used the money solely on repairs).

15 Moreover they reckoned not with the men, into whose hand they delivered the money to be bestowed on workmen: for they dealt faithfully (the overseers of the project dealt faithfully with the money).

16 The trespass money and sin money was not brought into the House of the LORD: it was the Priests' (this particular income went for the maintenance of the Priests and, consequently, was not used for the repair of the building).

JOASH PAYS RANSOM TO HAZAEL OF SYRIA

17 Then Hazael king of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it: and Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem (threatened to invade the city).

18 And Jehoash king of Judah took all the hallowed things that Jehoshaphat, and Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own hallowed things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the House of the LORD, and in the king's house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria: and he went away from Jerusalem (all of this happened after the death of the Godly Priest Jehoiada, after which Joash went into deep sin; while all trouble is definitely not caused by sin, much of it, in fact, is!)**.

JOASH'S DEATH; AMAZIAH REIGNS

19 And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20 And his servants arose, and made a conspiracy, and killed Joash in the house of Millo, which goes down to Silla (this judgment came upon him because, as the writer of Chronicles says, "They had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers" [II Chron. 24:24-26])**.

21 For Jozachar the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, smote him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 13

(856 B.C.)

JEHOAHAZ REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

[1] In the three and twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah king of Judah Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seventeen years.

[2] And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom (Jehoahaz kept up the worship of the calves, and in no way suffered this worship to decline).

[3] And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and He delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael, all their days (Israel's troubles were strictly because of her sin; while righteous living doesn't forego all difficulties, it definitely foregoes most).

[4] And Jehoahaz besought the LORD, and the LORD hearkened unto him: for He saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them (how much "oppression" do we encounter because of our sin? This one thing is clear, irrespective of what we have done or how bleak the situation, the only answer is, "And Jehoahaz besought the LORD").

[5] (And the LORD gave Israel a saviour, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians: and the Children of Israel dwelt in their tents, as beforetime. [A "saviour" means a deliverer from the hand of the Syrians. The gift of Jehovah and the principle which turned away wrath and provided a Saviour was not the existence of any moral worthiness in Israel, for she had none, but the unconditional Covenant made with Abraham, as stated in Verse 23. In effect, it was "for Abraham's sake," and then, at times, "for David's sake," and then, "for Jonathan's sake." All illustrate the principle of Ephesians 4:32, "for Christ's sake." This great principle of Salvation gives all the glory to the Saviour and none to the person saved.]

6 Nevertheless they departed not from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who made Israel sin, but walked therein: and there remained the grove also in Samaria *[the devotion with which the ten Tribes worshipped the golden calf rebukes and instructs the Christian; it rebukes for, alas, how defective is the loyalty of even the most saintly person to Christ? — Williams].)

7 Neither did he leave of the people to Jehoahaz but fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and had made them like the dust by threshing *(before the "Saviour," Syria had laid Israel to waste).

THE DEATH OF JEHOAHAZ; JOASH HIS SUCCESSOR

8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

9 And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria: and Joash his son reigned in his stead *(to rest with their fathers in the same royal sepulchre was to be duly honored at their death; to be excluded from it was a disgrace).

JEHOASH REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

10 In the thirty and seventh year of Joash king of Judah began Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years *(he had the same name as the king of Judah; actually, the two Joashes were contemporary monarchs for the space of three years).

11 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD; he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin: but he walked therein (all of this tells us that Jehovah Elohim was not a Divinity invented by the Israelites, as some have claimed; for, had that been so, then would they have served Him faithfully; but the fact that they were continually forsaking Him, and turning to idols, and that there was perpetual contention between them and God, proves the Testimony of the Bible, that the God of Israel is God over all, blessed forever).

12 And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might wherewith he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel? (The account of the war with Judah is found in II Chronicles 25:17-24.)

13 And Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat upon his throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel (that Joash should call his eldest son Jeroboam, after the founder of the kingdom, indicated a thorough approval of that founder's policy and conduct, which, of course, were evil).

ELISHA AND THE ARROW OF THE LORD

14 Now Elisha was fallen sick of his sickness whereof he died (it is believed that Elisha was at least 80 years old at this time; his illness was probably the result of mere natural decay). And Joash the king of Israel came down unto him, and wept over his face, and said, O my father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof (it is amazing how Joash, as well as previous kings of Israel, knew of the worth of Elisha, but still would not serve Elisha's God; men love their sins!).

15 And Elisha said unto him, Take bow and arrows. And he took unto him bow and arrows (although not mentioned here, evidently, Joash had sought direction from the Lord through Elisha, as it regards the threat of Syrian domination; the Holy Spirit evidently tells Elisha what to do).

16 And he said to the king of Israel, Put your hand upon the bow. And he put his hand upon it: and Elisha put his hands upon the king's hands (the intention was, no doubt, to show that the power which would be manifested was not the king's own power, but "came from the Lord" through the mediation of His Prophet).

17 And he said, Open the window eastward (why eastward? The sun rose in the east; therefore, the Lord, through Elisha and this symbolism, was telling the king of Israel that if true Repentance would be forthcoming, Israel's sun would not be setting, but rather rising). And he opened it (thus far, the king operates in faith). Then Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, The arrow of the LORD's deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: for you shall smite the Syrians in Aphek, till you have consumed them (what a promise!)**.

18 And he (Elisha) said, Take the arrows. And he took them. And he said unto the king of Israel, Smite upon the ground (signifying the defeat of Syria). And he (the king of Israel) smote thrice, and stayed.

19 And the man of God was wroth with him, and said, You should have smitten five or six times; then had you smitten Syria till you had consumed it: whereas now you shall smite Syria but thrice. (The promise of total and complete victory over the Syrians had been given, but, because of lack of faith, Israel fell short. To the king of Israel, defeating the Syrians three times was big in his sight. However, the Lord was ready to give much more. How often do we fail to achieve God's best, simply because we stop short of total victory?)

DEATH OF ELISHA; THE MIRACLE AT HIS TOMB

20 And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year (Jerome says that the place of his sepulchre was near Samaria; according to Josephus, his funeral was magnificent)**.

21 And it came to pass, as they (the Moabites) were burying a man, that, behold, they spied a band of men; and they cast the man (the corpse) into the sepulchre of Elisha: and when the man was let down, and touched the bones of Elisha, he revived, and stood up on his feet (this was the final miracle attributed to Elisha, even though he was now dead; this last miracle fulfilled the Promise of God, in that his ministry numbered twice as many miracles as Elijah's, and some were twice as great; so the double portion held true, even to the very end [2:9-10]).

ISRAEL'S VICTORY OVER SYRIA

22 But Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz (the writer now returns to the subject of Syrian oppression)**.

23 And the LORD was gracious unto them (unto Israel), and had compassion on them, and had respect unto them, because of His Covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from His Presence as yet (ultimately, they were cast away, rejected, and removed out of God's sight, because they continued to spurn His Mercy and Grace)**.

24 So Hazael king of Syria died; and Ben-hadad his son reigned in his stead (Hazael, the usurper, gave his eldest son the name of the monarch whom he had murdered)**.

25 And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael the cities, which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. Three times did Joash beat him, and recovered the cities of Israel (exactly as Elisha said would happen!)**.

CHAPTER 14

(839 B.C.)

AMAZIAH REIGNS OVER JUDAH

[1] In the second year of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel reigned Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah (this was the fourth good king in Judah, but with reservations).

[2] He was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

[3] And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like David his father (his father, several times removed): he did according to all things as Joash his father did. (David is ever used as the example, and that despite his sins and failures. God thinks of his true nature, faithful heart, and zeal for Jehovah in living free from idolatry and the gross wickedness of so many of the rulers in those days. David was a man after God's own Heart, who loved Jehovah, considered Him, and obeyed Him when corrected.)

[4] Howbeit the high places were not taken away: as yet the people did sacrifice and burnt incense on the high places. (Over and over again in the Sacred Text, the Holy Spirit points this out. The Temple in Jerusalem was to be the only place where the people were to offer sacrifice and burn incense, because the great Brazen Altar there was a Type of the Cross. Even though they burned sacrifice and incense to the Lord in these "high places," still, the Lord was displeased, because, in a sense, they pointed to "another Cross" [II Cor. 11:4].)

Irrespective of our supposed worship, if it is not built supremely on the Cross of Christ, it is unacceptable to God. Regrettably, precious little worship today is, in fact, anchored in the Cross!)

5 And it came to pass, as soon as the kingdom was confirmed in his hand, that he killed his servants who had killed the king his father (he put down the insurrectionists).

6 But the children of the murderers he killed not: according unto that which is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, wherein the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall be put to death for his own sin (Deut. 24:16; this was at the beginning of Amaziah's reign, and it seems that he was doing all within his power to obey the Word of God; had he continued thusly, great victory would have been his and Judah's; as Amaziah, so many begin well, and end poorly).

7 He killed of Edom in the valley of salt ten thousand, and took Selah (Petra) by war, and called the name of it Joktheel unto this day (this Verse proclaims his great victory in taking the almost impregnable Petra, called Selah; the name "Joktheel" means "subdued by God"; thus, he honored God, Who gave him the victory).

AMAZIAH'S WARS AGAINST JOASH OF ISRAEL

8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face (Amaziah had a cause of complaint against Jehoash, the king of Israel, which does not appear in this narrative, but does in II Chron., Chpt. 25; however, Amaziah was wrong in doing this!).

9 And Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle (according to Josephus, the reply to the challenge was given in a formal letter, which was in the form of a parable).

10 You have indeed smitten Edom, and your heart has lifted you up:

glory of this, and tarry at home: for why should you meddle to your hurt, that you should fall, even you, and Judah with you? (Your victory over Edom has caused you to be lifted up in pride.)

[11] But Amaziah would not hear. (How many Christians have been given a "correct word" that was sent to them by the Lord, but "would not hear"?)Therefore Jehoash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah (went to battle!)**.

[12] And Judah was put to the worse before Israel; and they fled every man to their tents (the complete account tells us that God allowed Judah to be defeated, because Amaziah had "sought after the gods of Edom" [II Chron. 25:20])**.

[13] And Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim unto the corner gate, four hundred cubits (according to Josephus, Joash threatened his prisoner with death, unless the gates of Jerusalem were opened to him, and his army admitted into the town; the breach in the wall was, therefore, not the result of siege operations, but the act of a conqueror, who desired to leave his enemy as defenseless as possible)**.

[14] And he (Joash, king of Israel) took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the House of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria (because of Amaziah's pride, Judah lost the war, the protection of the wall of Jerusalem, all the public silver and gold, all the vessels of the Temple, and all the treasures of the king's house, and was completely humiliated before her enemies; it took years to recover what was lost in a few hours of time, all through pride and selfishness)**.

DEATH OF JEHOASH, KING OF ISRAEL

[15] Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

16 And Jehoash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son reigned in his stead (Jeroboam II).

DEATH OF AMAZIAH, KING OF JUDAH; AZARIAH (UZZIAH) HIS SUCCESSOR

17 And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years.

18 And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

19 Now they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem: and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish, and killed him there (the author of Chronicles connects this conspiracy with the idolatry of which Amaziah was guilty [II Chron. 25:27]).

20 And they brought him on horses: and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David (as stated, he began well, and ended poorly!).

21 And all the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah (this king was also known as "Uzziah").

22 He built Elath, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers (it was in the year that this king died that Isaiah had the great vision where he saw the Lord, which began his great prophecies [Isa., Chpt. 6]).

JEROBOAM II REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

23 In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah

Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria, and reigned forty and one years.

[24] And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam (after whom he was named) the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin (judgments which had fallen upon Jehu and Jehoahaz on account of these sins did not teach any lesson, it seems, to Joash or Jeroboam II; the fatal taint, which was congenital with the Israelite monarchy, could never be purged out; they clung to it until the end).

[25] He restored the coast of Israel from the entering of Hamath unto the sea of the plain, according to the Word of the LORD God of Israel, which He spoke by the hand of His servant Jonah, the son of Amittai, the Prophet, which was of Gath-hepher (this "Jonah" was the author of the Book of Jonah, who was commanded by God to go preach in the city of Nineveh; the victories of Jeroboam II were of the Lord, but not recognized as such by Jeroboam II).

[26] For the LORD saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter: for there was not any shut up, nor any left, nor any helper for Israel (the prosperous reign of Jeroboam II seemingly conflicts with the fact that he worshipped the golden calf; however, Verses 25-28 reveal the profound depths of Love and Grace in the heart of God toward His erring children; but still, Jeroboam II would not turn).

[27] And the LORD said not that He would blot out the name of Israel from under Heaven: but He saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash (even though Israel deserved to be "blotted out," on the contrary, the Lord gave the nation a breathing-space, a gleam of light, a second summer, so to speak, before the winter set in — a further opportunity of repenting, but all to no avail!).

[28] Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered Damascus, and Hamath, which belonged to Judah (had belonged to Judah during the times of David and Solomon), for Israel (recovered them for Israel), are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

29 And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, even with the kings of Israel; and Zachariah his son reigned in his stead. (Over and over again in these Passages concerning the kings of Israel and Judah, the Holy Spirit points out to us the reason for their blessings, which was the Grace of God, and the reason for their failure, which was sin. We would do well to heed this!)

CHAPTER 15

(772 B.C.)

AZARIAH'S (UZZIAH'S) LONG AND GOOD REIGN OVER JUDAH

[1] In the twenty and seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel began Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign.

[2] Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned two and fifty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem.

[3] And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done (how refreshing it is for the Holy Spirit to say, "And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD"; but yet, even though he started well, as his father Amaziah, he finished poorly)**;

[4] Save that the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burnt incense still on the high places (from this we should learn how it grieves the Holy Spirit to have any abiding sin within our lives; the constant repetition of these statements presents the Holy Spirit warning us by repetition of our own shortcomings).

[5] And the LORD smote the king, so that he was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house. And Jotham the king's son was over the house, judging the people of the land. (We have to go to Chronicles for an explanation [II Chron. 26:16-23]. It was at this juncture that the Prophets Hosea, Joel, Amos, Micah, Isaiah, and Jonah exercised their ministries; consequently, their prophecies should be studied in connection with the history of these kings. They foretold the doom of both the northern and southern kingdoms.)

6 And the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

7 So Azariah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead. (The writer of Chronicles gives us more detail. He was not buried in the rock-sepulchre which contained the bodies of the other kings, but in another part of the field wherein the sepulchre was situated. This was quite in keeping with the Jewish feeling with respect to the uncleanness of the leper [II Chron. 26:23].)

ZACHARIAH REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

8 In the thirty and eighth year of Azariah king of Judah did Zachariah the son of Jeroboam reign over Israel in Samaria six months. (We may wonder at the significance of all of this. However, let the reader understand that everything that happened to Israel and Judah had to do with the great Plan of Redemption; accordingly, all of these happenings, be they good or bad, proclaim to us the means of God in bringing Redemption to the world, which would be through His Son, and our Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. All of these things played their part in this; consequently, this means that all of these happenings are of great significance.)

9 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin (some 21 times the Holy Spirit solemnly records this terrible fact; the Lord can cancel out the effects of sin, but only through the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ, and our Faith in that Finished Work; however, Satan, thank God, cannot cancel out the effects of Righteousness).

10 And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and smote him before the people, and killed him, and reigned in his stead (Zachariah reigned only six months).

11 And the rest of the acts of Zachariah, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

[12] This was the Word of the LORD which He spoke unto Jehu, saying, Your sons shall sit on the throne of Israel unto the fourth generation. And so it came to pass (this prophecy was fulfilled in the death of Zachariah [10:30]).

SHALLUM REIGNS OVER ISRAEL FOR ONE MONTH

[13] Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the nine and thirtieth year of Uzziah (Azariah) king of Judah; and he reigned a full month in Samaria.

[14] For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and killed him, and reigned in his stead (Josephus says that there was a battle in which Shallum was killed).

[15] And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

MENAHEM'S TEN-YEAR REIGN OVER ISRAEL

[16] Then Menahem smote Tiphsah, and all that were therein, and the coasts thereof from Tirzah: because they opened not to him, therefore he smote it; and all the women therein who were with child he ripped up (one can see the depravity of this man regarding the type of sin that he committed).

[17] In the nine and thirtieth year of Azariah king of Judah began Menahem the son of Gadi to reign over Israel, and reigned ten years in Samaria.

[18] And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

19 And Pul the king of Assyria came against the land (against the northern kingdom of Israel): and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand (it is not coincidence that the first distinct mention of Assyria in Scripture as an aggressive power immediately follows the account of the terrible sin of Menahem, even to the murdering of thousands of women and little children; by this time, Assyria had been rising to a great power for nearly a century, and had reached far beyond the River Euphrates, even to Egypt; from here on the history of the two kingdoms of Israel and Judah is linked with that of Assyria and Babylon).

20 And Menahem exacted the money of Israel, even of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and stayed not there in the land (Menahem bribed the king of Assyria in order that he not attack Israel).

21 And the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

22 And Menahem slept with his fathers; and Pekahiah his son reigned in his stead.

PEKAHIAH'S TWO-YEAR REIGN OVER ISRAEL

23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two years.

24 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

25 But Pekah the son of Remaliah, a captain of his, conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria, in the palace of the king's house, with Argob and Arieh, and with him fifty men of the Gileadites: and he killed him, and reigned in his room (it does not appear that Pekah had any grievance; his crime seems to have been simply prompted by ambition).

26 And the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

PEKAH REIGNS OVER ISRAEL FOR TWENTY YEARS

27 In the two and fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty years.

28 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

29 In the days of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abel-beth-maachah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and carried them captive to Assyria (this was the first carrying away of the Israelites into captivity; it continued until the ten-Tribe kingdom of Israel was destroyed).

30 And Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and smote him, and killed him, and reigned in his stead, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah (Azariah).

31 And the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

JOTHAM REIGNS OVER JUDAH

32 In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel began Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah to reign.

33 Five and twenty years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok.

34 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD: he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done (the author of Chronicles says the same, but adds, "Howbeit he entered not into the Temple of the Lord" — i.e., he did not repeat his father's act of impiety — Pulpit).

35 Howbeit the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burned incense still in the high places. He built the higher gate of the House of the LORD (Azariah had paid great attention to the fortifying and arming of Jerusalem [II Chron. 26:9, 15], and his son now followed in his footsteps).

36 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

37 In those days the LORD began to send against Judah Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah. (Because Jotham walked righteously before the Lord, the coming fury that would burst forth under sinful Ahaz was held off until that time. It is interesting to note the terminology, in that the Lord was the Author of what Syria did, even though Syria had no knowledge of such.

Our obedience brings Blessings from God, while our sin brings chastisement from God in the form of judgment, in order that we may repent. Some few do repent; regrettably, most never do.)

38 And Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 16

(740 B.C.)

REIGN OF AHAZ OVER JUDAH

[1] In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah (king of Israel) Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign. (Ahaz was one of the worst of all the kings of Judah. He imitated the worst of the kings of the ten Tribes — Ahab and Ahaziah — by establishing Baal worship in Judah, when it had been rooted out of the ten Tribes by Jehu [10:19-31], and out of Judah by Jehoiada [11:17-21]. Ahaz even made his sons to pass through the fire, according to all the abominations of the heathen.)

[2] Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD his God, like David his father. (In all that the Holy Spirit says about King Ahaz in the Books of Kings, Chronicles, and Isaiah, there is a throbbing of anguish, which the reader can feel, and also a note of indignation, as, for example, in the words, "This is that king Ahaz" [II Chron. 28:22]. His full name, as it appears in the Assyrian state records, was Jehoahaz, which means "the possession of Jehovah," but the Spirit of God strikes the Jehovah-syllable out of his name, and invariably calls him "Ahaz," which means "possession." Such was his life, for he was led, influenced, and possessed by anyone or anything except God.)

[3] But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yes, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the Children of Israel. (This refers to the heathen idol, "Moloch," the god of fire. A fire would be built in its bulbous belly, until its outstretched arms became red-hot. Little children, as sacrifices to these demonic images, would be tied to its outstretched arms, and burned alive, while black-robed priests beat drums to drown out the screams of these little ones. The horror of Ahaz' sin knows no bounds.)

4 And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him (no doubt, Ahaz was lifted up in pride because of his successful defense against the kings of Syria and Israel; however, his victory had nothing to do with his ability or righteousness, but, instead, was because of the promise that the Lord had made to the house of David).

6 At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drove the Jews from Elath: and the Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt there unto this day.

AHAZ MAKES AN ALLIANCE WITH ASSYRIA

7 So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, I am your servant and your son: come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, who rise up against me. (The Lord through the Prophet Isaiah earnestly counseled him not to invite the king of Assyria to help him against the confederate kings of Israel and Damascus; however, he followed his own counsel with success, but with the ultimate result of ruin. His history illustrates how disastrous it is to the spiritual profit of a man when his own plans succeed.)

8 And Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the House of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria.

9 And the king of Assyria hearkened unto him: for the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and took it, and carried the people of it captive to Kir, and killed Rezin.

AHAZ BUILDS A HEATHEN ALTAR

10 And king Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus: and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the Priest the fashion of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanship thereof. (Ahaz was not satisfied with the great Altar which sat in front of the Temple in Jerusalem, and which had been designed by the Lord, and which was a Type of Calvary. He desired a heathen altar, and the priesthood of Judah helped him carry out this evil design.

This is the sin of modern Church. It has not totally forsaken the Altar, i.e., "the Cross," but has substituted another sacrifice, in fact, the same as did Cain of old [Gen., Chpt. 4].)

11 And Urijah the Priest built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus: so Urijah the Priest made it against king Ahaz came from Damascus (the modern Church is presently building its new altars; they go under the names of "psychological counseling," "Word of Faith," "seeker-sensitive," "the government of twelve," etc.).

12 And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king approached to the altar, and offered thereon (having no confidence in the Altar designed by the Lord, which typified the Cross, he would build his own altar, which was more to his liking; it is true that the Cross of Christ is an offense, but offense or not, the Cross of Christ alone can deliver men from sin; everything else is a mere window-dressing [Gal. 5:11]).

13 And he burnt his burnt offering and his meat offering, and poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings, upon the altar (upon the heathen altar, which God would never accept, and will never accept).

14 And he brought also the Brasen Altar (the Altar designed by the Lord, on which alone sacrifices were to be offered), which was before the LORD (in front of the Temple), from the forefront of the House, from between the altar and the House of the LORD, and put it (put the Brazen Altar) on the north side of the altar (the heathen altar; so now he has two altars, but with the true Altar unused, which, again, so very much typifies the modern Church).

15 And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the Priest, saying, Upon the great altar (the heathen altar) burn the morning burnt offering, and the evening meat offering, and the king's burnt sacrifice, and his meat offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meat offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the Brasen Altar (the true Altar) shall be for me to enquire by (I shall hereafter determine what use, if any, it shall be put to; once again, this is the exact state of the modern Church; it hasn't totally abandoned the Cross, but it has set it aside, while the sacrifices are offered on the modern altars, which will ultimately bring the judgment of God).

16 Thus did Urijah the Priest, according to all that king Ahaz commanded (all too often the modern ministry apes Urijah of old!).

17 And king Ahaz cut off the borders of the bases (the stands of the ten brazen lavers), and removed the laver (ten brazen lavers) from off them; and took down the sea (the great Brazen Laver) from off the brasen oxen that were under it, and put it upon a pavement of stones. (The "Laver" is a Type of the Word of God. Even though it remained, the oxen, which had been designed by the Holy Spirit, on which it sat, were given away. The "oxen" represented the Power and Assurance of the Word of God.

Basically, Ahaz is saying that he has no more confidence in the Word of God. All too often, the modern Church is saying the same thing. The Bible has not been completely thrown away; it has just been discarded to the place of "no confidence." The Church as a whole has turned to psychology. The degradation of the Laver illustrates the hostility of man's heart to the great Bible Doctrine of "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" as the only answer for man's sin [Rom. 6:3-14; I Cor. 1:17-18, 21, 23; 2:2; Eph. 2:13-18; Gal. 6:14; Col. 2:14-15].)

18 And the covert for the sabbath that they had built in the House, and the king's entry without, turned he from the House of the LORD for the king of Assyria (this appears to mean that a building inside the Temple area, having some relation to the Temple itself, was divorced from that purpose, and fitted up as a palace for the king of Assyria).

DEATH OF AHAZ; HEZEKIAH HIS SUCCESSOR OVER JUDAH

19 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead. (The writer of Chronicles tells us that even though this evil man was buried in Jerusalem, still, "they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings." Like Uzziah, he was not thought worthy of burial in the royal catacomb [II Chron. 28:27].)

CHAPTER 17

(721 B.C.)

HOSHEA REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

[1] In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah began Hoshea the son of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel nine years.

[2] And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him. (While Hoshea's general attitude towards Jehovah was much the same as that of the former kings of Israel, still, he was not guilty of any special wickedness; in other words, he set up no new idolatry.

Regrettably, he turned a deaf ear to the teaching of the Prophets Hoshea [who had the same name] and Micah, who addressed their warnings to him.)

[3] Against him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and gave him presents (rendered him tribute; Hoshea had been placed on the throne by Tiglath-pileser; upon this man's death, it seems that Hoshea revolted, and resumed his independence; Shalmaneser, having become king, came up against Hoshea and forced him to resume his position of Assyrian tributary).

[4] And the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea: for he (Hoshea) had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year (paid no tribute): therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison (evidently, Hoshea, at some point, ceased to pay tribute to the king of Assyria, and appealed to the king of Egypt to come to his rescue; his plan would not succeed).

THE FALL OF SAMARIA AND THE CAPTIVITY OF ISRAEL

5 Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years. (Now the judgment begins. The ten Tribes of the Northern Kingdom will be ultimately carried "away into Assyria." Egypt would be of no help. Egypt, as a type of the world, is never any help.)

6 In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

7 For so it was, that the Children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods,

8 And walked in the statutes of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the Children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they had made.

9 And the Children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against the LORD their God, and they built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

10 And they set them up images and groves in every high hill, and under every green tree:

11 And there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom the LORD carried away before them; and wrought wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger:

12 For they served idols, whereof the LORD had said unto them, You shall not do this thing (this Verse gives the reason, "For they served idols").

13 Yet the LORD testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all the Prophets, and by all the Seers, saying, Turn you from your evil ways

(repent)*, and keep My Commandments and My Statutes, according to all the Law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by My servants the Prophets *(they were sufficiently warned!).

[14] Notwithstanding they would not hear, but hardened their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, that did not believe in the LORD their God (the problem then was "unbelief," and the problem now is "unbelief"; they did not believe in the Cross of Christ then, and they do not believe in the Cross of Christ now!).

[15] And they rejected His Statutes, and His Covenant that He made with their fathers, and His Testimonies which He testified against them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and went after the heathen who were round about them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them, that they should not do like them (when Israel rejected God's Statutes, they adopted "the statutes of the heathen," and "walked in them"; if the Ways of the Lord are rejected, religious man must then adopt the ways of the world).

[16] And they left all the Commandments of the LORD their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made a grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal (exactly as the heathen).

[17] And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire (human sacrifice), and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger (willingly became slaves of Satan).

[18] Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of His sight: there was none left but the Tribe of Judah only ("the Tribe of Judah" stands for the kingdom of the two Tribes of Judah and Benjamin, into which the greater part of the Tribes of Dan and Simeon had also been absorbed; this became now, exclusively, God's "peculiar people," the object of His Love and of His Care).

[19] Also Judah kept not the Commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the Statutes of Israel which they made (even though Judah lasted for some 133 years longer, still, they ultimately lost their way, as well).

[20] And the LORD rejected all the seed of Israel (which refers to both kingdoms of Israel and Judah), and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until He had cast them out of His sight (after the captivity of the ten Tribes, as recorded here, Judah, as well, went deeper into sin, and finally had to be destroyed and taken into captivity; all of this shows the total control of the Lord in all matters; He could deliver them into the hands of their enemies, or into the position of victory; whichever depended upon their disobedience or obedience).

[21] For He rent Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drove Israel from following the LORD, and made them sin a great sin. (Without proper leadership, all is lost! One can be a religious leader, or one can be a Prophet. One cannot be both! The former seeks to appease the people, while the latter seeks to obey God. Regrettably, we presently have far too many religious leaders.)

[22] For the Children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them;

[23] Until the LORD removed Israel out of His sight, as He had said by all His servants the Prophets. So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day (the time of the writing of this account, which was probably about 570 B.C., by which time the southern kingdom of Judah had also been carried away into captivity).

THE BEGINNING OF THE SAMARITANS

[24] And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the Children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof. (This is the beginning of the New Testament Samaritans. These individuals subsequently intermixed with the Jews who returned from captivity; hence, this culminated in a mixed breed. The Jews in Jesus' day would basically have nothing to do with them.)

25 And so it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not the LORD: therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which killed some of them. (The expulsion of the Israelites from God's pleasant land and the introduction of lions into it by God show that both the people and the land belonged to Him. Because the people were His People, He carried them away. Because the land was His Land, He brought the lions in. The Holy Spirit states that the lions were instruments of God's Discipline and Teaching.)

26 Wherefore they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which you have removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore He has sent lions among them, and, behold, they kill them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land (it was the general belief of the heathen nations of antiquity that each country and nation had its own god or gods, who presided over its destinies, etc.; so they complained that they are not familiar with the manner of this God of Israel).

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the Priests whom you brought from thence; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land.

28 Then one of the Priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear the LORD (it seems that this Priest, even though from the northern kingdom, did have an understanding of the true worship of God, which he related, evidently, to the Samaritans).

29 Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt (along with "fearing the Lord," they also set up idol worship to their particular gods).

30 And the men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima,

31 And the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burnt their children in fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim (these individuals, who had been brought from other countries and placed in the territory of the former northern kingdom of Israel, brought, as well, their heathen gods with them, which they continued to worship).

32 So they feared the LORD, and made unto themselves of the lowest of them priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places (with their idolatrous worship, they combined also the worship of Jehovah, which, of course, the Lord would not recognize).

33 They feared the LORD, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations whom they carried away from thence (this means that they were afraid of Jehovah, but not enough to serve Him or keep His Laws).

34 Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the LORD (meaning, as stated, that, while they did fear Him, they did not fear Him enough to serve Him), neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the Law and Commandment which the LORD commanded the Children of Jacob, whom He named Israel (their so-called worship of Jehovah did not include obedience to His Laws; unfortunately, that is basically the tenor of the modern Church, as well!)**;

35 With whom the LORD had made a Covenant, and charged them, saying, You shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them (for the "Covenant," see Exodus 19:5-8; 24:3-8)**:

36 But the LORD, Who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and a stretched out arm, Him shall you fear, and Him shall you worship, and to Him shall you do sacrifice (true worship of God cannot be mixed with other things; we are to look to Him Alone as the Supplier of every need).

37 And the Statutes, and the Ordinances, and the Law, and the Commandment, which He wrote for you, you shall observe to do for evermore; and you shall not fear other gods (there is no need for "fear," providing we obey the Lord; presently, all of these Statutes and Laws have been kept in Christ, Who obeyed them perfectly; simple Faith in Him and what He did at the Cross automatically fulfills these Commands).

38 And the Covenant that I have made with you you shall not forget; neither shall you fear other gods. (The "Covenant" intended is not the Covenant of circumcision, which God made with Abraham [Gen. 17:9-14], but the Covenant of protection and obedience made at Sinai between God and the entirety of the people of Israel [Ex. 19:5-8], and most solemnly ratified by sprinkling with blood, and by a Covenant Feast, as is related in Exodus 24:3-11. This was the Covenant which Israel had been warned so frequently not to forget — Pulpit.)

39 But the LORD your God you shall fear; and He shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies (there was victory in every case declaring itself in favor of God's people, when they were faithful and obedient, while reverses always befell them in the contrary case [I Chron. 5:20-22; 10:13; 14:10-16; II Chron. 12:1-12; 13:4-18; 14:9-12; 20:5-30]).

40 Howbeit they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner (this mixed race, which now occupied the Northern Kingdom of Israel, with their mixed religion, though professing to be worshippers of Jehovah, paid no attention to the warnings and threatenings of the Law).

41 So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images, both their children, and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day. (Continuing to speak of the Samaritans, this was certainly true up until the time this account was written. However, little by little, they began to forsake their idol gods and draw closer to Jehovah. In 409 B.C., they erected a Temple to Jehovah on Mount Gerizim, which, of course, the Lord couldn't recognize. However, they then laid aside their idols, accepting the Pentateuch as their religious Textbook, and began to attempt to observe the whole Law.

The Samaritans were ostracized by Israel as a whole, and thought of in a very negative manner; nevertheless, Jesus ministered to them extensively during His 3½ years of public ministry.)

(710 B.C.)

HEZEKIAH REIGNS OVER JUDAH

1 Now it came to pass in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign (so begins the reign of one of Judah's Godliest kings; he began his reign as a vassal of the king of Assyria, by whom he was placed upon the throne during the lifetime of his father Ahaz).

2 Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Abi, the daughter of Zachariah (Hezekiah's accession to the throne may be placed almost certainly in 727 B.C.).

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father did. (Once again, David is used as the example. Few would come up to this example, as did Hezekiah. In fact, such unqualified praise is only assigned to two other kings of Judah — Asa [I Ki. 15:11] and Josiah [I Ki. 22:2]. It is curious that all three were the sons of wicked fathers. Hezekiah was probably, at an early age, brought under the influence of the Prophet Isaiah [Isa. 7:3-16].)

4 He removed the high places, and broke the images, and cut down the groves (over and over again, in previous Chapters, the Holy Spirit records that Israel yet sacrificed in the high places; but now, refreshingly, it records the very opposite), and broke in pieces the brasen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the Children of Israel did burn incense to it: and he called it Nehushtan. ("Nehushtan" means "a piece of copper." Originally, the "brazen serpent" was set up by God as a symbol of the coming Redemption of Calvary. But so prone is the heart to idolatry that the Holy Spirit records here the action of Hezekiah with approval.

Likewise, many in the modern Church have made idols out of water baptism, the Lord's Supper, particular religious denominations, etc. [I Cor. 1:17; Num. 21:9].)

5 He trusted in the LORD God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any who were before him (Hezekiah discarded trust in man and put his trust wholly in God; this was exactly what God required then, and exactly what He requires now [Isa. 30:1-7]).

6 For he clave to the LORD, and departed not from following Him, but kept His Commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses (this doesn't mean that Hezekiah was perfect, for no man is; it does mean that he tried with all of his heart to obey the Lord; and, when there was failure, he would take it to the Lord, even as did David).

7 And the LORD was with him (of no other king of Judah or Israel is this said, except only of David [II Sam. 5:10]; in fact, it's the greatest thing that can be said of anyone); and he prospered whithersoever he went forth (prosperity is dependent upon obedience): and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not. (The Child of God is to serve God Alone! However, as Assyria, do not expect Satan to go quietly! He seeks to dominate the Child of God, and will do so, if the Believer doesn't understand God's Prescribed Order of Victory, which is "Christ and Him Crucified," and our Faith in that Finished Work. Such Faith then gives latitude to the Holy Spirit, Who Works exclusively within the parameters of the Finished Work of Christ, to work mightily within our lives [Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11].)

8 He smote the Philistines, even unto Gaza, and the borders thereof, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city (this victory over the Philistines, who were an internal enemy, and the later victory over the Assyrians, who were an external enemy, illustrate the fact that victory over both inward and outward temptation is promised to the overcomer [Rom. 6:14]).

9 And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it (Verses 9-12 repeat the information already given in the previous Chapter; it is, no doubt, introduced designedly by the Holy Spirit as a solemn reminder to the house of David, and to Christian people of today, that God has the same controversy with evil, and will judge it with a like judgment, whether it be practiced by the followers of David or of Jeroboam).

[10] And at the end of three years they took it: even in the sixth year of Hezekiah, that is the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken (the fall of the northern kingdom).

[11] And the king of Assyria did carry away Israel unto Assyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes:

[12] Because they obeyed not the Voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed His Covenant, and all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear them, nor do them. (This, and this alone, disobedience of the Word of the Lord, was the cause of the fall of the northern kingdom. Let the reader understand that it is the same presently.

How does the modern Christian properly obey?

We render obedience by placing our Faith and trust in Christ and the Cross exclusively, which then gives us the help of the Holy Spirit. This alone helps us to live a holy life. This, and this alone, is God's Prescribed Order of Victory [Rom. 6:3-14].)

SENNACHERIB, KING OF ASSYRIA, INVADES JUDAH

[13] Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah did Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them. (As stated, Satan does not go quietly! This was eight years after the captivity of the ten Tribes. If Hezekiah had yielded, Sennacherib, no doubt, would have taken the whole kingdom of Judah into captivity. As it was, at least for a period of time, he took the entirety of the nation, with the exception of Jerusalem. Ultimately, God gave Hezekiah victory over the Assyrians. It was not until some 125 years later that Judah fell, and then to the Babylonians.)

HEZEKIAH PAYS TRIBUTE

14 And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, I have offended; return from me: that which you put on me will I bear. And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

15 And Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the House of the LORD (the Temple), and in the treasures of the king's house.

16 At that time did Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the Temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria. (The repetition of Hezekiah's name in Verse 16, after being given in the Fifteenth Verse, emphasizes a lesson. The very Hezekiah who overlaid the pillars of the Temple of Jehovah with gold was the very same Hezekiah who cut off the gold and sent it to the Assyrian king as tribute. Unbelief is costly, and compromise seldom delivers. Had Hezekiah at this time trusted fully in the Lord, he would not have suffered this abuse to the Temple of the Lord.)

JUDAH INSULTED

17 And the king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rab-saris and Rab-shakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great host against Jerusalem (the balance of Judah had already fallen). And they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the high way of the fuller's field. (Irrespective of Hezekiah's efforts of compromise, it didn't work! It appears that Sennacherib, content with his tribute from Hezekiah, however, did go back to Nineveh. Hezekiah, left to himself, repented of his submission and commenced negotiations with Egypt, which implied treason against the king of Assyria; hence, the invasion. As well, Hezekiah should not have sought help from Egypt.

As stated, no consecration is perfect. In fact, these enemies appeared because of Judah's unfaithfulness. So it is in the modern Believer's life.

Fidelity to the Lord and to His Word saves the Christian from those trials which a lack of fidelity surely brings. And yet, the pitying Love and Wisdom of God may use these very griefs as instruments of spiritual enrichment to those who, like Hezekiah, really love Him, even though that love, as with all of us, is imperfect.)

[18] And when they had called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder (as Jerusalem was surrounded by Sennacherib, Hezekiah sends out three officials to address the general in command).

[19] And Rab-shakeh said unto them, Speak you now to Hezekiah, Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria *(Sennacherib), What confidence is this wherein you trust? (Sennacherib is inquiring of Hezekiah, as to what strength on which does he rely? What is the ground of his confidence?)

[20] You say, (but they are but vain words,) I have counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom do you trust, that you rebel against me? (Sennacherib imagines that Hezekiah's real trust is in the "fleshly arm of Egypt." He could not be more wrong, even though Hezekiah may, in fact, have welcomed help from that source.)

[21] Now, behold, you trust upon the staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all who trust on him.

[22] But if you say unto me, We trust in the LORD our God: is not that He, Whose high places and Whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and Jerusalem, You shall worship before this Altar in Jerusalem? (The heathen monarch totally misunderstood what Hezekiah had done, as it regards the "high places," etc., being removed; he thought that Hezekiah had seriously offended the God of Israel by doing this.)

23 Now therefore, I pray you, give pledges to my lord the king of Assyria (so says Rab-shakeh), and I will deliver you two thousand horses, if you be able on your part to set riders upon them (this is a strong expression of contempt for the military power of the Jews).

24 How then will you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

25 Am I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it. (In effect, he is erroneously claiming the help of Jehovah. He no doubt does this based on the fact that Assyria, a short time earlier, had destroyed the northern kingdom of Israel, who purportedly served the same God as Judah. So, he reckoned he would do to Judah what he had done to Israel. These statements are meant as contempt of both Jehovah and Judah. In fact, he does feel very secure, considering that all of Judah has fallen to him, with the exception of Jerusalem. And now he will destroy it, or so he thinks!)

JUDAH'S ANSWER

26 Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rab-shakeh, Speak, I pray you, to your servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and talk not with us in the Jews' language in the ears of the people who are on the wall.

RAB-SHAKEH OF ASSYRIA BOASTS AND INSULTS GOD

27 But Rab-shakeh said unto them, Has my master sent me to your master, and to you, to speak these words? has he not sent me to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own urine with you? (The contempt continues!)

28 Then Rab-shakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spoke, saying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria (history scarcely presents any other instance of such coarse and barefaced effrontery):

29 Thus says the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand:

30 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria (Rabshakeh is appealing to the people of Jerusalem to surrender; it is useless, he continues, for them to depend on God!).

31 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus says the king of Assyria, Make an agreement with me by a present (make terms with me, but on my own demands), and come out to me, and then eat you every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink you every one the waters of his cistern (you can avoid the war by coming under my control):

32 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil olive and of honey, that you may live, and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he persuades you, saying, The LORD will deliver us (in other words, all of Jerusalem, as well as Judah, will be taken captive into a foreign land; evidently, Rabshakeh knew something of Jehovah, and of Hezekiah's faith).

33 Has any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? (Rabshakeh here equates Jehovah with the heathen gods of other countries which Assyria had defeated.)

34 Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? (Rabshakeh is claiming that no god had hitherto delivered any city which the Assyrians had attacked.)

35 Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? (“Produce an example of deliverance,” Rabshakeh means to say, “before you speak of deliverance as probable, or even possible.” This heathen field commander cannot conceive the idea that Jehovah is anything but a local god, on a par with all the other gods of the countries which incidentally Assyria had defeated.)

36 But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king’s commandment was, saying, Answer him not (evidently, Hezekiah had expected something like this, so he forewarns the people).

37 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh (they had rent their clothes, not so much in grief, or in alarm, as in horror at Rab-shakeh’s blasphemies).

CHAPTER 19

HEZEKIAH SEEKS HELP FROM GOD

[1] And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the House of the LORD. (The "renting of the clothes" referred to a total lack of dependence on one's own ability, or in Judah's strength. The word "sackcloth" refers to his humbling himself in the sight of God. The "House of the Lord" refers to the Temple, where God dwelt in the Holy of Holies, between the Mercy Seat and the Cherubim. The only help for Judah was God; likewise, the only help for us today is God. But how so far removed are we from total dependence on Him? As well, our petition must be clothed in humility, or God will not heed.)

[2] And he sent Eliakim, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the Priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the Prophet the son of Amoz. (This is the first mention of the Prophet Isaiah in the Bible. However, Hezekiah was the fourth king in whose reign Isaiah had prophesied [Isa. 1:1]. The Passages in the Book of Isaiah which refer to these events are 10:5-19; 14:24-27; 22:1-25; 36:1-37.)

[3] And they said unto him, Thus says Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth (the idea is, within herself, Judah has no strength; they must look to the Lord!).

[4] It may be the LORD your God will hear all the words of Rab-shakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to reproach the Living God; and will reprove the words which the LORD your God has heard: wherefore lift up your prayer for the remnant who are left (it is the prayer of Hezekiah that God has "heard" the blasphemy of Rab-shakeh, would note it, and punish it).

ISAIAH FORETELLS ASSYRIA'S DEFEAT

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah (regrettably, most of the modern Church is going to a humanistic psychologist!).

6 And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall you say to your master (to Hezekiah), Thus says the LORD, Be not afraid of the words which you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me (the Lord's word to His People is, "Be not afraid!").

7 Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land (all of this would be fulfilled to the letter, but over time).

SENNACHERIB'S MESSAGE TO HEZEKIAH

8 So Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish (Lachish had fallen).

9 And when he heard say of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against you: he sent messengers again unto Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall you speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not your God in Whom you trust deceive you, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria (in other words, because Egypt is coming against me, who was then ruled by a Pharaoh of Ethiopian birth, don't think this will help you).

11 Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly: and shall you be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed; as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Thelasar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah? (We have defeated the gods of all these other nations, so don't think that your Jehovah will save you. As we defeated them, we will defeat Him likewise!)

THE PRAYER OF HEZEKIAH

14 And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the House of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD (Sennacherib had made all of these above statements in a letter sent to Hezekiah; so, Hezekiah takes this letter to the Temple, and "spreads it before the Lord").

15 And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Israel, which dwells between the Cherubims, You are the God, even You alone, of all the kingdoms of the Earth; You have made Heaven and Earth (in other words, all these gods of the other nations mentioned by Sennacherib do not, in fact, even exist; Jehovah is God Alone, and the Creator of all things; hence, Hezekiah begins his prayer).

16 LORD, bow down Your Ear, and hear: open, LORD, Your Eyes, and see: and hear the words of Sennacherib, which has sent him (it, the letter) to reproach the Living God (the tirade by the heathen monarch is against God, which was rightly so!).

17 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands, 18 And have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them (all the heathen gods were mere figments of men's imagination; and, if there was any power connected with such, it was always from demon spirits).

[19] Now therefore, O LORD our God, I beseech You, save You us out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the Earth may know that You are the LORD God, even You only (this was answered to the letter; after the great victory of Judah, "then said they among the heathen, The LORD has done great things for them" [Ps. 126:2]).

ISAIAH'S PROPHECY OF DELIVERANCE

[20] Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus says the LORD God of Israel, That which you have prayed to Me against Sennacherib king of Assyria I have heard (while God certainly "hears" all things, still, the way the word "heard" is here used refers to the fact that the petition will be granted; it is "heard" in order to be answered).

[21] This is the Word that the LORD has spoken concerning him (concerning Sennacherib); The virgin the daughter of Zion has despised you, and laughed you to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you (now, the Lord as well uses scorn, sarcasm, and contempt, as it regards the boasts of Sennacherib).

[22] Whom have you reproached and blasphemed? and against Whom have you exalted your voice, and lifted up your eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel (basically, the Lord is saying to Sennacherib, "You are not now addressing yourself to the little fake deities of these other nations, but rather to the Creator of the Ages").

[23] By your messengers you have reproached the LORD, and have said, With the multitude of my chariots I am come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and will cut down the tall cedar trees thereof, and the choice fir trees thereof: and I will enter into the lodgings of his borders, and into the forest of his Carmel (Sennacherib had not actually said these words attributed to him, but he had thought them; and God accounts men's deliberate thoughts as their utterances).

[24] I have digged and drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of besieged places (Jehovah continues to read the thoughts and claims of the heathen monarch).

[25] Have you not heard long ago how I have done it, and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that you should be to lay waste fenced cities into ruinous heaps (now the Lord, in this Verse, switches from parroting Sennacherib to making statements of Himself).

[26] Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the house tops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up (mighty nations are raised up by God and torn down by God; in fact, these nations are but "grass," which today is, and tomorrow is gone, all at the command of God).

[27] But I know your abode, and your going out, and your coming in, and your rage against Me (human pride should stand abashed before such Absolute Knowledge).

[28] Because your rage against Me and your tumult is come up into My Ears, therefore I will put My hook in your nose, and My bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came. (Sculptures show that the kings of Assyria and Babylon actually put rings or fishhooks through the flesh of the captives, mostly through the lips, then attaching a thong or slender rope and, thereby, leading them about, as with a bridle. Thus, God threatens Sennacherib with a punishment he had inflicted on others many times. The Lord did not do this literally, so it expresses figuratively the complete defeat and humiliation of Sennacherib, whenever he would be judged by Jehovah.)

[29] And this shall be a sign unto you, You shall eat this year such things as grow of themselves, and in the second year that which springs of the same; and in the third year sow you, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof (this entire episode lasted for some two years, with the Children of Israel not planting crops because of the feared invasion; this tells Judah that they would be free from any siege, and could roam the fields to gather such food as grew of itself for the rest of this particular year and the next; after that, they would sow and reap again in a normal way).

30 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall yet again take root downward, and bear fruit upward (be prosperous once again!).

31 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of Mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD of Hosts shall do this (the meaning is that God's zealous Love and Care for His People will effect their complete Restoration to prosperity and glory, difficult as it was at the time to imagine such a Restoration — Pulpit).

32 Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a bank against it (there shall be no siege).

33 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, says the LORD (as he came, he will go, meaning there will be no victory for him).

34 For I will defend this city, to save it, for My own sake, and for My servant David's sake (it was not because of any moral beauty in Hezekiah that God delivered Jerusalem, but for His Own sake, and for David's sake — the true David, the Lord Jesus Christ).

GOD'S VENGEANCE ON ASSYRIA

35 And it came to pass that night, that the Angel of the LORD went out, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred fourscore and five thousand (185,000): and when they arose early in the morning (when the inhabitants of Jerusalem arose), behold, they (the Assyrians) were all dead corpses. (Only one Angel did this! Such is the Power of God. How it was done, we aren't told!)

36 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh (he came back to Nineveh without victory, which is the first time, it is believed, that such a thing happened; he was to find that Jehovah was not the same as these little tin-horned deities).

37 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Armenia. And Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead. (Sennacherib promised the throne to his youngest son, Esar-haddon, instead of to the eldest. In fact, thinking he had offended his god, because of his terrible defeat regarding Jerusalem, he had promised to sacrifice his two older sons to that divinity. These two young men, prompted by fear on the one hand, and by jealousy on the other, murdered their father in December of that year. But then they had to flee to another country to escape their younger brother, Esar-haddon.)

CHAPTER 20

HEZEKIAH'S SICKNESS AND PROPHECY OF HEALING

[1] In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. (This was about the fourteenth year of his reign, which would have made Hezekiah about 39 years old. These events transpired some time in the two-year period of the invasion of Judah by the Assyrians, and immediately preceding the miraculous deliverance of the Nineteenth Chapter. So, this Chapter is not in chronological order.) And the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz came to him, and said unto him, Thus says the LORD, Set your house in order; for you shall die, and not live. (In this Passage, the reason is not given for Hezekiah's sickness; however, II Chron., Chpt. 32, in effect, says that Hezekiah, due to the Blessings of God, had become lifted up in pride. It seems that the people of Judah and Jerusalem had likewise gone into sin; therefore, the Assyrian invasion and Hezekiah's sickness, with threatened death, were the judgments of God because of sin. Hezekiah had begun his reign with one of the greatest spiritual reforms ever; consequently, God blessed him abundantly, and then the Blessing turned his head.)

[2] Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, saying (the monarch turned his face away from all the riches, glory, and grandeur of Judah and Jerusalem; as well, he saw himself as undone, helpless, and totally dependent on the Mercy of God)**,

[3] I beseech you, O LORD, remember now how I have walked before You in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in Your sight. And Hezekiah wept sore. (It would seem here that the prayer of the king is somewhat prideful; however, he is merely saying to the Lord that he has tried to keep the Law of God to the very best of his ability. His "weeping" refers to the fact that he now understands that his diligent effort to keep the Law of God, as noble as it was, gained him no merit with God.

Instead, he had allowed "Justification by Faith" to be turned into "justification by works," which generated pride in his heart, which such always does.)

4 And it came to pass, afore Isaiah was gone out into the middle court, that the Word of the LORD came to him, saying (God will always respond to a broken heart)**,

5 Turn again, and tell Hezekiah the captain of My People, Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father, I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears: behold, I will heal you: on the third day you shall go up unto the House of the LORD. (The watchword of the Church once was, "You need Jesus." Now, sadly, the watchword of the Church is, "You need counseling." How so regrettably sad! Hezekiah could have been counseled forever, and there would have been no help from that source; however, he went to the Lord, and God turned an extremely ugly situation around. He is no respecter of persons. What he did for the monarch, He will, as well, do for you and for me.)

6 And I will add unto your days fifteen years (Hezekiah was one of the few men in history who knew basically the exact day on which he would die — fifteen years later); and I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city for My Own sake, and for My servant David's sake (for Jesus' sake, the Greater Son of David).

7 And Isaiah said, Take a lump of figs. And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered. (The critic may argue that if God healed him, why was the lump of figs needed as a poultice? Did God need the figs to complete the healing?

The truth is: God needs nothing! Everything He does is always done for purpose, and is generally to generate Faith in the heart and life of the individual in question. God does nothing to cater to the pride of our heart, only to Faith.

As well, what difference does it make if God heals instantly, or uses a doctor, medicine, or other means, to bring about His desired effect? God's purposes are far greater than ours. Most of the time, we can only see the desired healing; God sees Spiritual Growth, as well, and will function accordingly.)

MIRACULOUS SIGNS OF HEZEKIAH'S HEALING: THE SUNDIAL GOES BACKWARD

8 And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the House of the LORD the third day? (The "third day" refers to the coming of the Messiah, and that he would rise from the dead on the third day. Considering that this "sign" had to do with the Messiah, neither the Lord nor the Prophet was angry at the request of Hezekiah.)

9 And Isaiah said, This sign shall you have of the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that He has spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees?

10 And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees (forward): no, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees (both, going forward or backward, were impossible; however, going backward was even more impossible!).

11 And Isaiah the Prophet cried unto the LORD: and He brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the dial of Ahaz. (This was a notable miracle and would make a "long day"; the event of this "long day" was known over the world of that day.

With the word of its origination having spread far and wide, inquiries came from Babylon to learn more about the God Who could not only stop the rotation of the Earth, but actually make it go backwards for a period of time. Several centuries later, Greek historians informed Alexander the Great that this was one of the great wonders recorded in their scientific books.)

HEZEKIAH RECEIVES ENVOYS FROM BABYLON; ISAIAH'S PROPHECY OF JUDAH'S CAPTIVITY

12 At that time Berodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present unto Hezekiah: for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. (Secular history relates that, at this moment in history, the king of Babylon was seeking allies to strengthen him against the king of Assyria; hence, this was one of his reasons for his embassage to Hezekiah.

At this time, Babylon was not nearly the power that Nineveh was. So, the Prophecy that Isaiah would shortly give concerning the coming supremacy of Babylon would certainly not seem practical at this particular time; however, as are all Prophecies given by the Lord, they always come to pass exactly as stated.)

13 And Hezekiah hearkened unto them, and showed them all the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah showed them not. (Although Hezekiah's object in showing the Babylonians the house of his armor and the house of his treasures was to convince these ambassadors of the power of Judah, he would have done far better to have related to them the Grace and Glory of Jehovah!)

14 Then came Isaiah the Prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto you? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country, even from Babylon.

15 And he said, What have they seen in your house? And Hezekiah answered, All the things that are in my house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them. (As stated, he did not show the ambassadors from Babylon the things of God, but rather the riches of Judah. He will be rebuked for it. The greatest treasure of all, the Glory of God, it seems he mentioned not at all.)

16 And Isaiah said unto Hezekiah, Hear the Word of the LORD.

17 Behold, the days come, that all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have laid up in store unto this day, shall be carried into

Babylon: nothing shall be left, says the LORD. (This refers to the coming time, when Judah would completely lose her way with God, and be taken in chains to Babylon. It would be fulfilled about 125 years later.)

18 And of your sons who shall issue from you, which you shall beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. (The whole Prophecy of Verses 17-18 was very remarkable, because, at that time, Babylon was a feeble kingdom.)

19 Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, Good is the Word of the LORD which you have spoken. And he said, Is it not good, if peace and truth be in my days? (Hezekiah accepts the rebuke, thereby acknowledging himself to have been in the wrong, and submits without remonstrance to his punishment. It is a relief, however, to hear that the blow will not fall during his lifetime.)

DEATH OF HEZEKIAH; ACCESSION OF MANASSEH

20 And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made a pool, and a conduit, and brought water into the city, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah? (That conduit is still there. Up until 2003, it was claimed by some that Hezekiah was not the one who actually made this conduit underground; however, archaeologists discovered proof, in the latter part of 2003, which verifies the Scripture.

The truth is: the Scripture doesn't need anything to verify it, while all such discoveries must have the Scripture to verify them.)

21 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers: and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 21

(698 B.C.)

MANASSEH REIGNS OVER JUDAH

[1] Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hephzi-bah. (As Hezekiah was at least one of the Godliest kings of Judah, his son Manasseh was the most ungodly — and then, strangely enough, he would reign the longest, 55 years. But, at the last, he would come to the Lord.)

[2] And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out before the Children of Israel.

[3] For he built up again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal (the fire-god), and made a grove (this was the "Asherah," the phallus; it is a Greek word, and means the male organ of procreation; it was the most debased of all forms of idolatry), as did Ahab king of Israel; and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them (the sun, moon, and stars).

[4] And he built altars in the House of the LORD, of which the LORD said, In Jerusalem will I put My Name (he created altars to other gods in the very Temple of Jehovah; this was spiritual pollution beyond anything any other evil king had ever done).

[5] And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the House of the LORD (idol gods were also set up in both the inner and outer Courts of the Temple).

[6] And he made his son pass through the fire (human sacrifice), and observed times, and used enchantments, and dealt with familiar spirits and wizards (witchcraft): he wrought much wickedness in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger (sin is the one thing which angers God).

7 And he set a graven image of the grove that he had made in the House, of which the LORD said to David, and to Solomon his son, In this House, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all Tribes of Israel, will I put My Name for ever (Manasseh was not satisfied to introduce his new religions into the land; he went further and set up the most hideous of idols, the "Asherah," in the very Temple itself, and it is believed by some that he put it in the very Holy of Holies):

8 Neither will I make the feet of Israel move any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; only if they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the Law that My servant Moses commanded them (this Verse proclaims the Lord desiring to do great things for Israel, if only they would obey Him).

9 But they hearkened not: and Manasseh seduced them to do more evil than did the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the Children of Israel ("Manasseh seduced them"; this is not said of any other king of Judah; he not only sinned himself, but spent time and effort to seduce others to join him in his sinning).

PROPHECY OF JUDGMENT ON MANASSEH FOR HIS EVIL REIGN

10 And the LORD spoke by His servants the Prophets, saying,

11 Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these abominations, and has done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, which were before him, and has made Judah also to sin with his idols:

12 Therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever hears of it, both his ears shall tingle. (Let it ever be known that sin will forever be punished. The punishment fell upon Christ, which He took at the Cross of Calvary and, if Christ's Cross is rejected, the punishment will fall upon the sinner — but fall it must!)

13 And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipes a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down (I will do to Jerusalem as I have done to Samaria; I will execute upon it a similar judgment; the metaphor of "wiping the dish" expresses contempt, as well as condemnation).

14 And I will forsake the remnant of My inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies *(the years which immediately followed the captivity were years of terrible suffering to the remnant whom Nebuchadnezzar left in the land; every petty power in the neighborhood felt itself at liberty to make incursions into Judah at its pleasure, to plunder and ravage, and drive off captives, or massacre them in cold blood, or commit any other atrocity);

15 Because they have done that which was evil in My sight, and have provoked Me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day (the moral and spiritual depravity of Judah, though it only came to a head in the time of Manasseh, had its roots in a long-distant past).

16 Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; beside his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD (this was probably a bloody persecution of the faithful; Josephus declares positively that Manasseh "cruelly put to death all the righteous among the Hebrews, and did not even spare the Prophets"; a tradition, very widely received, declared Isaiah to have been one of the victims).

DEATH OF MANASSEH; AMON HIS SUCCESSOR

17 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah? (Even though it is not recorded here, the captivity and restoration of Manasseh are recorded in II Chron. 33:11-19. It is a remarkable story of the Grace of God; and it can only be explained by the Grace of God!)

18 And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

AMON'S EVIL TWO-YEAR REIGN OVER JUDAH

19 Amon was twenty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

20 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh did.

21 And he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them:

22 And he forsook the LORD God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the LORD (he did not even maintain an outward observance of the Law of Moses, but set it wholly aside).

DEATH OF AMON; JOSIAH HIS SUCCESSOR

23 And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and killed the king in his own house (the Scripture doesn't say why).

24 And the people of the land killed all them who had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead (after having punished the conspirators with death, they sought out the true heir and, having found him, though he was a boy of but 8 years of age, placed him upon his father's throne).

25 Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

26 And he was buried in his sepulchre in the garden of Uzza: and Josiah his son reigned in his stead (in the same place as his father).

CHAPTER 22

(641 B.C.)

JOSIAH REIGNS OVER JUDAH THIRTY-ONE YEARS; THE LAST GOOD KING OF JUDAH

1 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah of Boscath. (Josiah was the second youngest king to begin his reign, with Joash being the youngest, at seven years old. Manasseh, Josiah's grandfather, was brought up under Godly Hezekiah, his father. Sadly, Manasseh became the worst king of all, but repented at the end. Josiah, the grandson of Manasseh, was brought up under his wicked father, Amon, but became one of the Godliest kings.)

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left (Josiah was predicted by name more than 300 years before his birth [I Ki. 13:2]; in noting the comments made by the Holy Spirit concerning these particular kings, it should give us pause regarding what He might be saying concerning us).

THE TEMPLE REPAIRED

3 And it came to pass in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, the Scribe, to the House of the LORD, saying (the Prophet Jeremiah stood in the same relation to Josiah as Isaiah was to Hezekiah; there is a possibility that Josiah and Jeremiah were boys together, and that Jeremiah helped in the conversion of Josiah; in fact, his conversion took place when he was 16 years old [8 years into his reign]; Jeremiah was called to be a Prophet in the thirteenth year of Josiah's reign [Jer. 1:2], when Josiah was 21 years old)**,

4 Go up to Hilkiah the High Priest, that he may sum the silver which is brought into the House of the LORD, which the keepers of the door have gathered of the people (after the wicked doings of Manasseh and Amon, a renovation of the sacred building was required, and the money needed was being raised by a collection):

5 And let them deliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, that have the oversight of the House of the LORD: and let them give it to the doers of the work which is in the House of the LORD, to repair the breaches of the House (the "doers" are not the actual workmen, but the superintendents or overseers of the workmen),

6 Unto carpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the House.

7 Howbeit there was no reckoning made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand, because they dealt faithfully (the superintendents and overseers were impeccably honest).

THE BOOK OF THE LAW DISCOVERED

8 And Hilkiah the High Priest said unto Shaphan the Scribe, I have found the Book of the Law in the House of the LORD. And Hilkiah gave the Book to Shaphan, and he read it. (Actually, this was the original Pentateuch, which had been written by Moses, and had been laid up by the side of the Ark. It probably was hidden there during the reigns of Manasseh and Amon, because of their wickedness in turning against Jehovah. It had been written by Moses from the Mouth of God more than 800 years before Josiah was born. So, this was an incredible discovery.)

9 And Shaphan the Scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, Your servants have gathered the money that was found in the House, and have delivered it into the hand of them who do the work, who have the oversight of the House of the LORD (we have carried out the king's orders exactly, in every particular).

10 And Shaphan the Scribe showed the king, saying, Hilkiah the Priest has delivered me a Book. And Shaphan read it before the king (exactly as to how much he read, we aren't told; however, it must have been a goodly portion; the Pentateuch consists of the first five Books of the Bible).

JOSIAH HEARS THE WORD OF GOD; REPENTS

11 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the Book of the Law, that he rent his clothes (it is easy for a man to know whether he has spiritual life or not if, when reading the Bible, he is neither comforted nor terrified; then it is evident that his soul is dead; Josiah was truly born from above, for he trembled exceedingly when hearing words written by God those many years before).

12 And the king commanded Hilkiah the Priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Michaiah, and Shaphan the Scribe, and Asahiah a servant of the king's, saying, 13 Go you, enquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this Book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not hearkened unto the words of this Book, to do according unto all that which is written concerning us (Josiah recognized that Judah had done, and was still doing, exactly those things against which the threatenings of the Law were directed; Judah had forsaken Jehovah, gone after other gods, made to themselves high places, set up images, etc.).

14 So Hilkiah the Priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah, went unto Huldah the Prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college;) and they communed with her. (The word "college" has nothing to do with institutions of learning, but rather referred to "the lower city." The highest officers in the land were sent unto a woman Preacher. Why were they not commanded to go to the great men Preachers, Jeremiah and Zephaniah, who were, at this time, attached to the Court? No doubt the Holy Spirit, for whatever reason, moved upon Josiah to go to Huldah. There are other women Preachers mentioned in the Bible, as well: Miriam, Deborah, Isaiah's wife Nodiah, Anna, and Philip's daughters, together with many women Preachers forever framed in the letters of the Apostle Paul.)

THE PROPHECY OF HULDAH: JUDGMENT ON JUDAH

15 And she said unto them, Thus says the LORD God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me,

16 Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the words of the Book which the king of Judah has read:

17 Because they have forsaken Me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore My wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

18 But to the king of Judah which sent you to enquire of the LORD, thus shall you say to him, Thus says the LORD God of Israel, As touching the words which you have heard;

19 Because your heart was tender, and you have humbled yourself before the LORD, when you heard what I spoke against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and have rent your clothes, and wept before Me; I also have heard you, says the LORD (a true, sincere heart, broken before God, will always be recognized by the Heavenly Father; this which Josiah did is that which the modern Church desperately needs to do, as well!).

20 Behold therefore, I will gather you unto your fathers, and you shall be gathered into your grave in peace; and your eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again. (Josiah died in battle against the Egyptians, but was buried in peace, meaning that he did not see the terrible evil which came upon Judah, ultimately bringing about the destruction of the nation. While Josiah was Godly, Judah, by and large, continued on in her evil ways; consequently, judgment could not be withheld any longer, so the Lord took the Godly king into Paradise, even as we shall see in the following Chapter.)

CHAPTER 23

(624 B.C.)

THE LAW READ TO THE PEOPLE

[1] And the king sent, and they gathered unto him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. (Josiah instituted one of the greatest spiritual reforms ever known to Judah; still, according to Jeremiah, even at the time that Josiah was destroying idolatry, the nation was secretly planning its restoration, which was quickly effected after Josiah's death. But, still, Josiah did all that he could to bring the people back to the Bible.)

[2] And the king went up into the House of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the Priests, and the Prophets, and all the people, both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the Book of the Covenant which was found in the House of the LORD. (This shows us that the Word of God is for everyone, and not just a privileged few. Regrettably, the Bible in the modern pulpit is basically used as window-dressing. Instead, the latest psychological fad is too often preached as gospel, when, in reality, it is no gospel at all.)

JOSIAH'S COVENANT

[3] And the king stood by a pillar, and made a Covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep His Commandments and His Testimonies and His Statutes with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this Covenant that were written in this Book. And all the people stood to the Covenant (the terms expressed here include the totality of the Law, all its requirements, without exception).

JOSIAH'S REFORMS

4 And the king commanded Hilkiah the High Priest, and the Priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the Temple of the LORD all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove (worship of the Asherah, the male reproductive organ), and for all the host of heaven: and he burned them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the ashes of them unto Beth-el (the ashes carried to Bethel to defile the altar of Jeroboam was predicted in I Ki. 13:2, where even the name of Josiah was mentioned, over 300 years before he was born, and nearly 350 years before the prediction was fulfilled; the Temple of the Lord had been turned into the abomination of idol worship).

5 And he put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; them also who burned incense unto Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the host of heaven (these were the black-robed priests instead of the white-robed Priests who belonged to God; they were not the "kohen" appointed by God, but "kemarim" appointed by man; each separate idol had its own priest, so there were then many orders of priests in Israel; the word "planets" referred to the twelve signs of the zodiac).

6 And he brought out the grove (Asherah) from the House of the LORD, without Jerusalem, unto the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and stamped it small to powder, and cast the powder thereof upon the graves of the children of the people (the idea that such abomination was in the very House of God, where the Lord dwelt between the Mercy Seat and the Cherubim, is unthinkable; this shows how far down Judah had sunk).

7 And he broke down the houses of the sodomites (homosexuals), who were by the House of the LORD, where the women wove hangings for the grove (so we see here what God thinks of the terrible sin of homosexuality; to be sure, the same-sex marriages, so-called, presently being engaged in certain parts of the United States indicate the nation's downward slide, which will ultimately guarantee judgment).

8 And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests (ungodly priests) had burned incense, from Geba to Beer-sheba, and broke down the high places of the gates that were in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city (these "high places" were throughout the entire kingdom, both North and South; although God Alone was worshipped on most of them, still, the Law commanded that incense and sacrifice be confined to the one Altar at Jerusalem; as well, the modern Child of God has one Altar, which is Calvary; these priests who officiated in these "high places" were allowed to come to the Temple at Jerusalem and to officiate in some limited manner, but not at the Altar of Jehovah).

9 Nevertheless the priests of the high places came not up to the Altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they did eat of the unleavened bread among their brethren (as stated, they were given limited duties, which did not include the Altar of the Lord).

10 And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech (on this idol, little children were placed and tied to its arms; fire was then built in its bulbous belly, with the arms becoming red-hot; priests of this particular order would then loudly beat the drums, drowning out the screams of the dying child; this is how bad that Judah had become).

11 And he took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entering in of the House of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the chamberlain, which was in the suburbs, and burned the chariots of the sun with fire (Josiah burnt all the material objects that had been desecrated by the idolatries; the persons and animals so desecrated he "removed," or deprived of their functions; this was a Persian practice, which had been adopted by Judah).

12 And the altars that were on the top of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the House of the LORD, did the king beat down, and broke them down from thence, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron (as then, the modern Church seemingly has many altars; however, let it be remembered, there is only one Altar which God recognizes, and that is "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" [I Cor. 1:23]).

[13] And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the Mount of corruption (Mount of Olives), which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile.

[14] And he broke in pieces the images, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men (all graves were considered to be unclean; therefore, all of this unclean refuse was deposited in graveyards, so to speak).

[15] Moreover the altar that was at Beth-el, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he broke down, and burned the high place, and stamped it small to powder, and burned the grove (the Asherah; we see from all of this that Jerusalem was then literally filled with idols!).

[16] And as Josiah turned himself, he spied the sepulchres that were there in the mount, and sent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burned them upon the altar, and polluted it, according to the Word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words (I Kings 13:2; the meaning of the last phrase is that Josiah acted as he did, not in order to fulfill the Prophecy, but, that in thus acting, he unconsciously fulfilled it).

[17] Then he said, What title is that that I see? And the men of the city told him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that you have done against the altar of Beth-el (this Verse proves that Josiah did not actually know he was fulfilling Prophecy until after it was done).

[18] And he said, Let him alone; let no man move his bones. So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the Prophet who came out of Samaria (he would show honor to the "man of God" [I Ki., Chpt. 13]).

19 And all the houses also of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Beth-el (the cleansing process included the northern kingdom of Israel, which was now occupied by the Samaritans).

20 And he killed all the priests of the high places who were there upon the altars, and burned men's bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem (the "priests" of these particular "high places" were different than those priests of Verses 8-9; the former were priests of idolatry; the latter were priests of God, but functioning in the wrong way).

THE PASSOVER RESTORED

21 And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the Passover unto the LORD your God, as it is written in the Book of this Covenant (Verses 21-23 record the greatest Passover ever conducted at Jerusalem).

22 Surely there was not holden such a Passover from the days of the Judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah (in fact, the Word of God, as is overly obvious, had been sorely neglected)**;

23 But in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, wherein this Passover was holden to the LORD in Jerusalem.

THE LORD'S ANGER AGAINST JUDAH

24 Moreover the workers with familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the images, and the idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might perform the words of the Law which were written in the Book that Hilkiah the Priest found in the House of the LORD (Laws against such practices as Josiah now put down are found in Ex. 22:18; Lev. 19:31;

20:27; Deut. 18:10-12).

25 And like unto him was there no king before him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the Law of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him (and it is the Holy Spirit Who said this!).

26 Notwithstanding the LORD turned not from the fierceness of His great Wrath, wherewith His anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocations that Manasseh had provoked Him withal (regardless of the great Reformation of Josiah, the Lord did not see fit to turn away all His Wrath, for He knew the change would last only during the days of Josiah, and that Judah would follow the old pattern of most of the previous kings of Israel and Judah, by continuing to sin, and to sin grossly).

27 And the LORD said, I will remove Judah also out of My sight, as I have removed Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the House of which I said, My Name shall be there (if there had been true Repentance on the part of the people of Judah, meaning that the people would turn away from their terrible sins, the Lord most assuredly would have turned away from His Wrath).

28 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

DEATH OF JOSIAH; JEHOAHAZ HIS SUCCESSOR

29 In his days (days of Josiah) Pharaoh-nechoh king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates: and king Josiah went against him; and he killed him (Pharaoh killed Josiah in battle) at Megiddo, when he had seen him (as stated, the Lord allowed Josiah to be killed, not because of any wrongdoing on the part of Josiah, but because of the judgment that must come; it could not be delayed).

30 And his servants carried him in a chariot dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own sepulchre. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead (even though he died in battle, he was buried in peace, because he had Peace with God; regrettably, Jehoahaz would not emulate his father).

JEHOAHAZ REIGNS OVER JUDAH

31 Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

32 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done (the three-month reign of Jehoahaz is briefly dismissed by the Holy Spirit by simply saying, "And he did evil in the sight of the LORD").

DEATH OF JEHOAHAZ; JEHOIAKIM HIS SUCCESSOR

33 And Pharaoh-nechoh put him in bands at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a tribute of an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold (Judah now becomes a vassal of Egypt).

34 And Pharaoh-nechoh made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the room of Josiah his father, and turned his name to Jehoiakim, and took Jehoahaz away: and he came to Egypt, and died there (Nechoh required him to take a new name, as a mark of subjection).

35 And Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh: he exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, of every one according to his taxation, to give it unto Pharaoh-nechoh (Judah now has to pay heavy tribute to Pharaoh, which was a great hardship on the people).

JEHOIAKIM REIGNS OVER JUDAH

36 Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zebudah, the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.

37 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done. (Josephus calls him "an unjust man and an evildoer, neither pious in his relations towards God, nor equitable in his dealings with his fellowmen.")

CHAPTER 24

JEHOIAKIM SUBDUED BY NEBUCHADNEZZAR

1 In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years: then he turned and rebelled against him. (In the Book of Daniel, God reveals the fact that He took the government of the world out of Israel's hand, and placed it in the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, to whom it was said: "You are this head of gold" [Dan. 2:38]. It was God's Will that unrepentant Judah be punished for her many sins, and that Nebuchadnezzar would be the chastening rod; consequently, when this Verse says that "he rebelled against him," this was very displeasing to the Lord.)

2 And the LORD sent against him (against Jehoiakim) bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the Word of the LORD, which He spoke by His servants the Prophets (God could command either way, whether judgment or Blessing; it all depends on obedience or disobedience).

3 Surely at the commandment of the LORD came this upon Judah, to remove them out of His sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did (the meaning is not that the nation was punished for the personal sins and crimes of the wicked Manasseh 40 or 50 years previously, but that the class of sins introduced by this king, being persisted in by the people, in other words, continuing, brought the stern judgments of God upon them — Pulpit)**;

4 And also for the innocent blood that he shed: for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; which the LORD would not pardon (like the other "sins of Manasseh," the shedding of innocent blood continued, both in the Moloch offerings [Jer. 7:31], and in the persecution of the righteous [Jer. 7:6, 9], etc.).

DEATH OF JEHOIAKIM; SUCCEEDED BY JEHOIACHIN

5 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

6 So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead (it says nothing about him being buried, as would be normal, when, in fact, he was buried, but like an animal [Jer. 22:18-19]).

7 And the king of Egypt came not again any more out of his land: for the king of Babylon had taken from the river of Egypt unto the river Euphrates all that pertained to the king of Egypt (this speaks of the ascension of the mighty Babylonian Empire; in fact, Babylon had now conquered Egypt).

JEHOIACHIN'S REIGN; THE SECOND SEIZURE OF JERUSALEM

8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. And his mother's name was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem (his mother was probably the ruling spirit of the time during her son's short reign).

9 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done (the Prophet Jeremiah calls him "a despised broken idol" and "a vessel wherein is no pleasure" [Jer. 22:28]).

10 At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged (the short phrase, "at that time," refers to the reign of Jehoiachin).

11 And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, and his servants did besiege it (while the siege conducted by his generals was still going on, Nebuchadnezzar made his appearance in person before the walls, which brought about the surrender of Jerusalem).

12 And Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his officers: and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign (the eighth year of Nebuchadnezzar's reign; this Verse portrays the surrender of Jerusalem).

13 And he carried out thence all the treasures of the House of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the Temple of the LORD, as the LORD had said (thus the Prophecy by Isaiah to Hezekiah was fulfilled [20:17-18]).

14 And he (Nebuchadnezzar) carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths: none remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land (in this first deportation were carried away Mordecai, Ezekiel, Daniel, and Nehemiah).

JEHOIACHIN TAKEN CAPTIVE TO BABYLON

15 And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers, and the mighty of the land, those carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

16 And all the men of might, even seven thousand, and craftsmen and smiths a thousand, all who were strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon (thus, the nation of Judah was left with no guiding force).

REIGN OF ZEDEKIAH OVER JUDAH

17 And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah his father's brother king in his stead, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

18 Zedekiah was twenty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah (this was not Jeremiah the Prophet, who was at Anathoth).

19 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done (among other things, he fell into the old error of "putting trust in Egypt," which was an act of rebellion against God, and against the Babylonian Empire).

ZEDEKIAH REBELS AGAINST BABYLON

20 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until He had cast them out from His presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. (God permitted Zedekiah to rebel, for it was determined that Judah should be destroyed at this time and go into captivity because of repeated sinning. Because of repeated rebellion against His Word, the anger of the Lord had risen to a white-hot pitch.)

CHAPTER 25

THE FALL OF JERUSALEM

1 And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign (the reign of Zedekiah), in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he, and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it; and they built forts against it round about. (The exact day of this siege was revealed to Ezekiel in a vision in faraway Babylonia [Ezek. 24:1]. The Holy Spirit records the exact day that this began, simply because of its significance. Israel, destined to be a light unto the world, lost her way, and would become a vassal state to heathen powers, which was never intended by God, but brought on because of Israel's persistent rebellion. God cannot condone sin, even if it is in His chosen People!)

2 And the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah (the writer omits all the details of the siege, and hastens to the final catastrophe).

3 And on the ninth day of the fourth month the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land (a third part of the inhabitants died of the famine, and the plague which grew out of it [Ezek. 5:12]; this could well have been nearly a half million people).

4 And the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between two walls, which is by the king's garden: (now the Chaldees were against the city round about:) and the king went the way toward the plain (Zedekiah tried to slip out of the city and avoid capture by the Babylonians; he would not be successful).

5 And the army of the Chaldees pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho: and all his army were scattered from him (it is probable, though not certain, that Zedekiah intended to cross the Jordan River, and seek a refuge in Moab, when he was apprehended).

6 So they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they gave judgment upon him (as a rebel who had broken his covenant and his oath [Ezek. 17:16, 18], Zedekiah was brought to trial before Nebuchadnezzar and his great lords; while his life was spared, yet the judgment was still sufficiently severe).

7 And they killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon. (The Prophets Jeremiah and Ezekiel predicted that Zedekiah should see the king of Babylon, but not the city of Babylon, and yet he would die there. So it came to pass. He saw the king of Babylon at Riblah, where his eyes were put out. He was then carried to Babylon. Being blind, he could not see the city. And he died there.)

THE CAPTIVITY OF JUDAH; JERUSALEM AND THE TEMPLE DESTROYED

8 And in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which is the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem (extreme exactness with respect to a date indicates the extreme importance of the event dated; in the whole range of the history contained in the two Books of the Kings, there is no instance of the year, month, and day being all given, except in this present Chapter, where we find this extreme exactness four times [Vss. 1, 3, 8, 27])**:

9 And he burnt the House of the LORD (the Temple), and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man's house burnt he with fire (the Temple, built by Solomon, had stood for some 470 years).

10 And all the army of the Chaldees, that were with the captain of the guard, broke down the walls of Jerusalem round about (it seems to be that they made breaches in the walls at given points).

[11] Now the rest of the people who were left in the city, and the fugitives who fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carry away.

[12] But the captain of the guard left of the poor of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen.

TEMPLE VESSELS AND METALS TAKEN TO BABYLON

[13] And the pillars of brass that were in the House of the LORD, and the bases, and the Brasen Sea (Brazen Laver) that was in the House of the LORD, did the Chaldees break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon (these giant copper pillars represented the people of God; there were two of them; they sat at the immediate front of the Temple; as these were no more God's people, these two symbols were broken up; likewise, the "Brazen Laver" was a Type of the Word of God; with the people refusing to obey the Word, the symbol was no longer needed; consequently, it was broken up along with the pillars).

[14] And the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away. (Vss. 13-17 have little interest for the unspiritual mind, but, to the heart which knows God, how full of agony they appear! These precious vessels and all this gathered wealth, designed by God Himself to express the Millennial Glories of Christ as King and Priest, were broken, dishonored, and carried to Babylon. This was a sad result of the unbelief of the elect nation to whom God had entrusted such glories.)

[15] And the firepans, and the bowls, and such things as were of gold, in gold, and of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away.

[16] The two pillars, one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the House of the LORD; the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

[17] The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits (27 feet), and the chapiter upon it was brass: and the height of the chapiter three cubits (4½ feet); and the wreathen work, and pomegranates upon the chapiter round about, all of brass: and like unto these had the second pillar with wreathen work (all of this was broken in pieces, aptly describing the Children of Israel, who were, as well, literally broken in pieces).

THE LEADERS OF JUDAH SLAIN

18 And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door:

19 And out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war, and five men of them who were in the king's presence, which were found in the city, and the principal scribe of the host, which mustered the people of the land, and threescore men of the people of the land who were found in the city:

20 And Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard took these, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah:

21 And the king of Babylon smote them, and killed them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away out of their land (the nation ceased to be, at least at that time).

GEDALIAH MADE GOVERNOR OF THE REMAINING JEWS; HIS ASSASSINATION

22 And as for the people who remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ruler (Nebuchadnezzar's choice of Gedaliah for governor was probably made from some knowledge of his having sided with Jeremiah, whose persistent endeavors to make the Jews submit to the Babylonian yoke seemed to have been well-known, not only to the Jews, but to the Babylonians, as well).

23 And when all the captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, there came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men (the persons mentioned, that is, with the soldiers under them, came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and placed themselves under him as his subjects — Pulpit).

[24] And Gedaliah swore to them, and to their men, and said unto them, Fear not to be the servants of the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon; and it shall be well with you.

[25] But it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldees that were with him at Mizpah. (Josephus says that Ishmael was a wicked and crafty man, who, during the siege of Jerusalem, had made his escape from the place, and fled for shelter to Baalim, king of Ammon, with whom he remained until the siege was over. Gedaliah had been warned about him, but treated the warning with little significance. He would pay dearly.)

[26] And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose, and came to Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chaldees. (They went to Egypt in defiance of the Lord and His Prophets [Jer., Chpts. 42-43]. Jeremiah told them that Egypt would also be given to Nebuchadnezzar, and they, therefore, would still be in his dominion [Jer. 44:29-30].)

JEHOIACHIN RESTORED AND HONORED IN BABYLON

[27] And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon in the year that he began to reign did lift up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison;

[28] And he spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon;

29 And changed his prison garments: and he did eat bread continually before him all the days of his life.

30 And his allowance was a continual allowance given him of the king, a daily rate for every day, all the days of his life. (This event was intended as a comforting sign, to the whole of the captive people, that the Lord would one day put an end to their banishment, if they would acknowledge that it was a well-merited punishment for their sins that they had been driven away from before His Face, and would turn again to the Lord their God with all their hearts.

Thus, Jehovah's Throne at Jerusalem was cast down, and man's throne at Babylon was set up and, strangely, God recognized it, and committed to it the government of the world. With it commences the "times of the Gentiles," which are to continue up to, and close with, the reign of the last great king of Babylon, the Antichrist [Lk. 21:24].)

CHAPTER 1

(4004 B.C.)

GENEALOGIES FROM ADAM TO THE BABYLONIAN CAPTIVITY: DESCENDANTS OF ADAM TO NOAH

1 Adam, Sheth (Seth), Enosh (the Writer of Chronicles began abruptly with "Adam," supposing that His readers would understand from the First Book of the Bible about the origin of Adam, the first man from whom all other men have their beings [Gen. 1:26-31; 2:7]; this Divine Diary, for Chronicles is a Diary kept by God, begins with the First Adam, and carries on the story of Grace, in essence, to the Last Adam; in fact, this Book is placed as the last in the Hebrew Bible, and the reader passes at once to the First Chapter of Matthew),

2 Kenan, Mahalaleel, Jered,

3 Henoch, Methuselah (who lived longer than any other human being, 969 years), Lamech,

4 Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth (from these last three came all the descendants of planet Earth).

DESCENDANTS OF JAPHETH

5 The sons of Japheth; Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras (the descendants of Japheth populated Europe, some parts of the Far East, England, and eventually the United States).

6 And the sons of Gomer; Ashchenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

7 And the sons of Javan; Elishah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

DESCENDANTS OF HAM

8 The sons of Ham; Cush, and Mizraim, Put, and Canaan (the descendants of Ham first went into the Middle East, where they were exterminated or driven out by the "sons of Shem," and eventually populated Africa).

9 And the sons of Cush; Seba, and Havilah, and Sabta, and Raamah, and Sabtecha. And the sons of Raamah; Sheba, and Dedan.

10 And Cush begat Nimrod (it is believed that he led the first organized rebellion against God [Gen. 10:8-10]): he began to be mighty upon the Earth.

11 And Mizraim begat Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim, 12 And Pathrusim, and Casluhim, (of whom came the Philistines,) and Caphthorim (the Philistines were ever a thorn in the side of Israel and, in some sense of the word, this continues even unto this very hour in modern Israel).

13 And Canaan begat Zidon his firstborn, and Heth,

14 The Jebusite also, and the Amorite, and the Girgashite,

15 And the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite,

16 And the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite (in the taking of the land of Canaan, Israel opposed most of these Tribes; it was because of their great evil that they were allowed by God to be driven out; regrettably, just as we have studied in II Kings, Israel herself, because of great sin, was also driven out, and made captives of the Babylonians, where they remained for some 70 years before finally being allowed to come back into the land of Israel).

DESCENDANTS OF SHEM

17 The sons of Shem; Elam, and Asshur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram, and Uz (where Job resided [Job 1:1]), and Hul, and Gether, and Meshech (these "sons of Shem" ultimately overran the Middle East).

18 And Arphaxad begat Shelah, and Shelah begat Eber.

19 And unto Eber were born two sons: the name of the one was Peleg; because in his days the Earth was divided: and his brother's name was Joktan (it is believed that at one time in the distant past all the continents of the Earth were joined together; but during the days of Peleg, which was about 4,000 years ago, the continents were divided; this upheaval seemed to follow the Tower of Babel episode with the confusion of tongues, which scattered the people over the face of the Earth [Gen. 11:7-9]).

20 And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, 21 Hadoram also, and Uzal, and Diklah,

22 And Ebal, and Abimael, and Sheba,

23 And Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan.

THE LINE OF SHEM TO ABRAHAM

24 Shem, Arphaxad, Shelah,

25 Eber, Peleg, Reu,

26 Serug, Nahor, Terah,

27 Abram; the same is Abraham.

SONS OF ABRAHAM

28 The sons of Abraham; Isaac, and Ishmael (Isaac, though younger than Ishmael, is placed first as the legitimate heir, since Sarah was the only true wife of Abraham; but in the genealogy which follows the sons of Ishmael and of Abraham's second wife are put first, so that the true line of the Messiah might be dealt with more fully, for that is the real purpose of all the genealogies).

SONS OF ISHMAEL

29 These are their generations: The firstborn of Ishmael, Nebaioth; then Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam,

30 Mishma, and Dumah, Massa, Hadad, and Tema,

31 Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. These are the sons of Ishmael (Ishmael, Abraham's son through Hagar, had twelve sons, as did Jacob; they were also the heads of twelve Tribes, making 24 Tribes which descended from Abraham through two of his sons).

DESCENDANTS OF ABRAHAM AND KETURAH

32 Now the sons of Keturah, Abraham's concubine: she bore Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah. And the sons of Jokshan; Sheba, and Dedan.

33 And the sons of Midian; Ephah, and Epher, and Henoch, and Abida, and Eldaah. All these are the sons of Keturah.

SONS OF ABRAHAM AND ISAAC

34 And Abraham begat Isaac. The sons of Isaac; Esau and Israel (now, the Author comes back to Isaac and his seed, Esau and Jacob, and follows the main purpose of His writing, dealing briefly with the seed of Esau first before going into the more lengthy genealogies of the seed of Jacob or Israel; after this, He writes twelve Chapters recording the genealogies of Jacob's sons to the time of Saul and David).

DESCENDANTS OF ESAU

35 The sons of Esau; Eliphaz (this was the Eliphaz of the Book of Job, who was a Temanite [Job 2:11; 4:1]), Reuel, and Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah.

36 The son of Eliphaz; Teman, and Omar, Zephi, and Gatam, Kenaz, and Timna, and Amalek. (This man, a descendant of Esau, was noted for his opposition to Israel. The Amalekites were the first to attack Israel as they came out of Egypt. For this God swore that they would have war from generation to generation and ultimately be destroyed. This was true; they were finally destroyed by Saul — all but a few. One of the reasons Saul was cut off was because he spared some of the Amalekites [I Sam., Chpt. 15]. They were a symbol of the flesh ever at war with the Spirit.)

37 The sons of Reuel; Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah.

38 And the sons of Seir; Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, and Dishon, and Ezar, and Dishan.

39 And the sons of Lotan; Hori, and Homam: and Timna was Lotan's sister.

40 The sons of Shobal; Alian, and Manahath, and Ebal, Shephi, and Onam. And the sons of Zibeon; Aiah, and Anah.

41 The sons of Anah; Dishon. And the sons of Dishon; Amram, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran.

42 The sons of Ezer; Bilhan, and Zavan, and Jakan. The sons of Dishan; Uz, and Aran.

KINGS OF EDOM BEFORE ISRAEL'S KINGS

43 Now these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the Children of Israel; Bela the son of Beor: and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

44 And when Bela was dead, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead.

45 And when Jobab was dead, Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his stead.

46 And when Husham was dead, Hadad the son of Bedad, which smote Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Avith.

47 And when Hadad was dead, Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his stead.

48 And when Samlah was dead, Shaul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his stead.

49 And when Shaul was dead, Baal-hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead.

50 And when Baal-hanan was dead, Hadad reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Pai; and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

DUKES OF EDOM

51 Hadad died also. And the dukes of Edom were; duke Timnah, duke Aliah, duke Jetheth,

52 Duke Aholibamah, duke Elah, duke Pinon,

53 Duke Kenaz, duke Teman, duke Mibzar,

54 Duke Magdiel, duke Iram. These are the dukes of Edom.

CHAPTER 2

(1471 B.C.)

THE SONS OF ISRAEL (JACOB)

[1] These are the sons of Israel; Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun, [2] Dan, Joseph, and Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

DESCENDANTS OF JUDAH

[3] The sons of Judah; Er, and Onan, and Shelah: which three were born unto him of the daughter of Shua the Canaanitess. And Er, the firstborn of Judah, was evil in the sight of the LORD; and he killed him. (As is obvious here, Judah is dealt with first. In fact, he was to be the chief and ruling Tribe of the Twelve, and the Messiah was to come through him [Gen. 49:8-12].

The evil thing that caused the Lord to slay Er was not recorded either in Genesis, Chapter 38, where this account is given, or elsewhere in Scripture. It could have been the same sin for which God killed Onan, as in Genesis 38:8-10 — that of refusing to have offspring. Incorporated in that, Er was the firstborn of Judah and, thereby, in the lineage of the coming Messiah. The evidence is: he cared not at all for that, and Satan endeavored to use him to stop the Plan of God; therefore, the reason for the actions of the Lord.)

[4] And Tamar his daughter in law bore him Pharez and Zerah. All the sons of Judah were five.

[5] The sons of Pharez; Hezron, and Hamul (the line of the Messiah [Isa. 7:14] came through Pharez [Ruth 4:18; Lk. 3:23-38]; the kingly line also came through him [Mat. 1:1-17]).

6 And the sons of Zerah; Zimri, and Ethan, and Heman, and Calcol, and Dara: five of them in all.

7 And the sons of Carmi; Achar, the troubler of Israel, who transgressed in the thing accursed (this was Achan of Joshua 7:1).

8 And the sons of Ethan; Azariah.

9 The sons also of Hezron, that were born unto him; Jerahmeel, and Ram, and Chelubai.

10 And Ram begat Amminadab; and Amminadab begat Nahshon, prince of the Children of Judah;

11 And Nahshon begat Salma, and Salma begat Boaz,

12 And Boaz begat Obed, and Obed begat Jesse,

13 And Jesse begat his firstborn Eliab, and Abinadab the second, and Shimma the third,

14 Nethaneel the fourth, Raddai the fifth,

15 Ozem the sixth, David the seventh (actually, we know that Jesse, David's father, begat eight sons [I Sam. 16:6-11; 17:12-14]; here, only seven are numbered and named; David was the youngest [I Sam. 16:11], so the eighth may have died while young and without offspring; while it was proper to mention eight sons in the history, it was unnecessary to do so in the genealogy):

16 Whose sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail. And the sons of Zeruiah; Abishai, and Joab, and Asahel, three (these three nephews of David played important roles in David's kingdom, especially Joab, who was captain of the host until the death of David).

17 And Abigail bore Amasa: and the father of Amasa was Jether the Ishmeelite.

18 And Caleb the son of Hezron begat children of Azubah his wife, and of Jerioth: her sons are these; Jesher, and Shobab, and Ardon.

19 And when Azubah was dead, Caleb took unto him Ephrath, which bore him Hur.

20 And Hur begat Uri, and Uri begat Bezaleel.

21 And afterward Hezron went in to the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead, whom he married when he was threescore years old; and she bore him Segub.

22 And Segub begat Jair, who had three and twenty cities in the land of Gilead.

23 And he took Geshur, and Aram, with the towns of Jair, from them, with Kenath, and the towns thereof, even threescore cities. All these belonged to the sons of Machir the father of Gilead.

24 And after that Hezron was dead in Caleb-ephratah, then Abiah Hezron's wife bore him Ashur the father of Tekoa.

25 And the sons of Jerahmeel the firstborn of Hezron were, Ram the firstborn, and Bunah, and Oren, and Ozem, and Ahijah.

26 Jerahmeel had also another wife, whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.

27 And the sons of Ram the firstborn of Jerahmeel were, Maaz, and Jamin, and Eker.

28 And the sons of Onam were, Shammai, and Jada. And the sons of Shammai; Nadab and Abishur.

29 And the name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail, and she bore him Ahban, and Molid.

30 And the sons of Nadab; Seled, and Appaim: but Seled died without children.

31 And the sons of Appaim; Ishi. And the sons of Ishi; Sheshan. And the children of Sheshan; Ahlai.

32 And the sons of Jada the brother of Shammai; Jether, and Jonathan: and Jether died without children.

33 And the sons of Jonathan; Peleth, and Zaza. These were the sons of Jerahmeel.

34 Now Sheshan had no sons, but daughters. And Sheshan had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Jarha.

35 And Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his servant to wife; and she bore him Attai.

36 And Attai begat Nathan, and Nathan begat Zabad,

37 And Zabad begat Ephlal, and Ephlal begat Obed,

38 And Obed begat Jehu, and Jehu begat Azariah,

39 And Azariah begat Helez, and Helez begat Eleasah,

40 And Eleasah begat Sisamai, and Sisamai begat Shallum, 41 And Shallum begat Jekamiah, and Jekamiah begat Elishama.

42 Now the sons of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were, Mesha his firstborn, which was the father of Ziph; and the sons of Mareshah the father of Hebron.

43 And the sons of Hebron; Korah, and Tappuah, and Rekem, and Shema.

44 And Shema begat Raham, the father of Jorkoam: and Rekem begat Shammai.

45 And the son of Shammai was Maon: and Maon was the father of Beth-zur.

46 And Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, and Moza, and Gazez: and Haran begat Gazez.

47 And the sons of Jahdai; Regem, and Jotham, and Gesham, and Pelet, and Ephah, and Shaaph.

48 Maachah, Caleb's concubine, bore Sheber, and Tirhanah.

49 She bore also Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbenah, and the father of Gibea: and the daughter of Caleb was Achsa.

50 These were the sons of Caleb the son of Hur, the firstborn of Ephratah; Shobal the father of Kirjath-jearim, 51 Salma the father of Beth-lehem, Hareph the father of Beth-gader.

52 And Shobal the father of Kirjath-jearim had sons; Haroeh, and half of the Manahethites.

53 And the families of Kirjath-jearim; the Ithrites, and the Puhites, and the Shumathites, and the Mishraites; of them came the Zareathites, and the Eshtaulites.

54 The sons of Salma; Beth-lehem, and the Netophathites, Ataroth, the house of Joab, and half of the Manahethites, the Zorites.

55 And the families of the scribes which dwelt at Jabez; the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and Suchathites. These are the Kenites that came of Hemath, the father of the house of Rechab (the Kenites were the descendants of Jethro, father-in-law of Moses [Judg. 1:16; 4:11-17]; it is unusual that they should be alluded to as the descendants of Judah; this was because they were attached to the tribe of Judah, and had become intermixed with them for so many centuries)*.

CHAPTER 3

(1053 B.C.)

DESCENDANTS OF DAVID

[1] Now these were the sons of David, which were born unto him in Hebron; the firstborn Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; the second Daniel, of Abigail the Carmelitess (the whole of this Chapter is occupied with the descendants of David, because through his family the Messiah would ultimately be born [II Sam., Chpt. 7]):

[2] The third, Absalom the son of Maachah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur: the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith:

[3] The fifth, Shephatiah of Abital: the sixth, Ithream by Eglah his wife.

[4] These six were born unto him in Hebron; and there he reigned seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years (David reigned over the Tribe of Judah for seven and a half years, and over the entirety of Israel for thirty-three years, making a total of a little bit more than forty years).

[5] And these were born unto him in Jerusalem; Shimea, and Shobab, and Nathan (this was Mary's family line [Lk. 3:23-38], through which the Messiah would actually come), and Solomon (Joseph, Mary's husband, was of the kingly line through Solomon; so, the lineage of Christ was perfect, as it regards Him being the Son of David, for both Mary and Joseph went back to David in their lineage), four, of Bath-shua (Bath-sheba) the daughter of Ammiel:

[6] Ibhar also, and Elishama, and Eliphelet,

[7] And Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia,

8 And Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphelet, nine.

9 These were all the sons of David, beside the sons of the concubines, and Tamar their sister.

DESCENDANTS OF SOLOMON

10 And Solomon's son was Rehoboam, Abia his son, Asa his son, Jehoshaphat his son (there were 21 royal descendants of David through Solomon who occupied the throne of Judah),

11 Joram his son, Ahaziah his son, Joash his son,

12 Amaziah his son, Azariah his son, Jotham his son,

13 Ahaz his son, Hezekiah his son, Manasseh his son,

14 Amon his son, Josiah his son.

15 And the sons of Josiah were, the first born Johanan, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, the fourth Shallum.

16 And the sons of Jehoiakim: Jeconiah his son, Zedekiah his son.

17 And the sons of Jeconiah; Assir, Salathiel his son, (He was also called "Jehoiachin" or "Coniah." Though Jehoiachin had eight sons, not one of them, nor any descendant of any one of them, could ever sit on the throne of David and rule in Jerusalem over Israel, for God had cursed him and his seed forever, cutting them off from kingship.

The next king of Judah was not of his seed; he was an uncle.

All of these kings of Judah led up to the Messiah, and were intended to do so. This is the Incarnation, God becoming Man.

Jesus did not come through the kingly line, yet He had to obtain the throne rights through the kingly line to fulfill the Davidic Covenant regarding an eternal king of David's seed. However, this requirement was totally satisfied in Mary, the virgin mother of the Messiah, who came through Nathan, the son of David, who was not of the kingly line, and in Joseph, who was the legal heir to the throne through Solomon, the son of David.

When Joseph and Mary were married, Jesus, being the firstborn of the family, therefore, became the legal heir to the throne of David. And yet, He did not come through Jehoiachin [Coniah], so that the curse of Jeremiah 22:4-30 was literally fulfilled)

18 Malchiram also, and Pedaiah, and Shenazar, Jecamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah.

19 And the sons of Pedaiah were, Zerubbabel, and Shimei: and the sons of Zerubbabel; Meshullam, and Hananiah, and Shelomith their sister:

20 And Hashubah, and Ohel, and Berechiah, and Hasadiah, Jushab-hesed, five.

21 And the sons of Hananiah; Pelatiah, and Jesaiah: the sons of Rephaiah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Obadiah, the sons of Shechaniah.

22 And the sons of Shechaniah; Shemaiah: and the sons of Shemaiah; Hattush, and Igeal, and Bariah, and Neariah, and Shaphat, six.

23 And the sons of Neariah; Elioenai, and Hezekiah, and Azrikam, three.

24 And the sons of Elioenai were, Hodaiah, and Eliashib, and Pelaiah, and Akkub, and Johanan and Dalaiah, and Anani, seven.

CHAPTER 4

(1300 B.C.)

DESCENDANTS OF JUDAH

1 The sons of Judah; Pharez, Hezron, and Carmi, and Hur, and Shobal.

2 And Reaiah the son of Shobal begat Jahath; and Jahath begat Ahumai, and Lahad. These are the families of the Zorathites.

3 And these were of the father of Etam; Jezreel, and Ishma, and Idbash: and the name of their sister was Hazelelponi:

4 And Penuel the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushah. These are the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephratah, the father of Beth-lehem.

5 And Ashur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah.

6 And Naarah bore him Ahuzam, and Hepher, and Temeni, and Haahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah.

7 And the sons of Helah were, Zereth, and Jezoar, and Ethnan.

8 And Coz begat Anub, and Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel the son of Harum.

9 And Jabez was more honourable than his brethren: and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, Because I bore him with sorrow. (The Holy Spirit began the notation concerning Jabez by making the statement concerning him being more honorable. The reason was the trust in God and hunger for God which Jabez had.

In Hebrew culture, the mother, with some few exceptions, always named the child. In that culture, the name was very important. If the Holy Spirit did not impress upon her the name that was to be given, as He sometimes did, she would name the child according to what she wanted him to be, or because of something that had happened in the family that was either a blessing or a curse [especially the boys]. This lady, in naming her little boy "Jabez," which means "he makes sorrow," either did not want him, or else felt she could not properly care for him; therefore, the child, by being given this name, would always be reminded of the negative circumstances of his birth. This severe hindrance could have turned him toward bitterness, which would have destroyed him, or toward God. Jabez allowed it to turn him toward God.

Every difficulty in the life of any person who knows the Lord, irrespective of its severity, can be turned into a blessing. In fact, God specializes in turning the curse into a blessing.)

10 And Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying, Oh that You would bless me indeed *(every Believer should ask the Lord for "the blessing," for God is a Blessing God), and enlarge my coast *(give me a greater vision), and that Your hand might be with me *(the Hand of God can do anything), and that You would keep me from evil, that it may not grieve me! (This is the last entreaty of the prayer of Jabez, and is the largest and most far-seeing. It referred to "evil" in general but, more than that, it referred to evil which had evidently plagued his family in the past.) And God granted him that which he requested *(He will do the same for all who will dare to believe Him, exactly as He did for Jabez).

11 And Chelub the brother of Shuah begat Mehir, which was the father of Eshton.

12 And Eshton begat Beth-rapha, and Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of Ir-nahash. These are the men of Rechah.

13 And the sons of Kenaz; Othniel, and Seraiah: and the son of Othniel; Hathath.

14 And Meonothai begat Ophrah: and Seraiah begat Joab, the father of the valley of Charashim; for they were craftsmen.

15 And the sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh; Iru, Elah, and Naam: and the sons of Elah, even Kenaz.

16 And the sons of Jehaleleel; Ziph, and Ziphah, Tiria, and Asareel.

17 And the sons of Ezra were, Jether, and Mered, and Epher, and Jalon: and she bore Miriam, and Shammai, and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa.

18 And his wife, Jehudijah bore Jered the father of Gedor, and Heber the father of Socho, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah. And these are the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh, which Mered took. (This Passage makes Bithiah, the daughter of Pharaoh, immortal! She was an Egyptian and, as well, the daughter of Pharaoh. She joined the people of God, thereby forsaking Egypt, and, as well, the high state and position she could have occupied in that culture, with the Lord giving her a new name, "Bithiah," which means "the daughter of Jehovah"!

The proud daughter of the Egyptian monarch degrades herself [in Egypt's eyes] by becoming the wife of a Hebrew slave. No doubt, her name was, therefore, with ignominy, erased from the royal genealogy of Egypt, but — what eternal Glory — engraved among the daughters of the Royal Family of Heaven!)

19 And the sons of his wife Hodiah the sister of Naham, the father of Keilah the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Maachathite.

20 And the sons of Shimon were, Amnon, and Rinnah, Ben-hanah, and Tilon. And the sons of Ishi were, Zoheth, and Ben-zoheth.

21 The sons of Shelah the son of Judah were, Er the father of Lecah, and Laadah the father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of them who wrought fine linen, of the house of Ashbea, 22 And Jokim, and the men of Chozeba, and Joash, and Saraph, who had the dominion in Moab, and Jashubi-lehem. And these are ancient things.

23 These were the potters, and those who dwelt among plants and hedges:

there they dwelt with the king for his work. (Verses 22-23 may thus read: "Jokim and Saraph, who married in Moab, returned to Beth-lehem." [These records are ancient.]

These were the potters who dwelt among plants and hedges with the king for his work. Like Ruth and Naomi [Ruth 1:19], they returned from Moab to Beth-lehem and were employed on the royal estate in a very humble position. The Holy Spirit seems to add with exquisite Grace that the work, though lowly, was work "for the king," and they dwelt there "with the king"!

Such is Grace that today points to some hidden ministries, and ennobles them by recording that "they dwell with the king for his work." To be sure, all Work for the Lord Jesus Christ, irrespective as to what it might be, is of profound significance, even as brought out in these Passages.)

DESCENDANTS OF SIMEON

24 The sons of Simeon were, Nemuel, and Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, and Shaul:

25 Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, Mishma his son.

26 And the sons of Mishma; Hamuel his son, Zacchur his son, Shimei his son.

27 And Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brethren had not many children, neither did all their family multiply, like to the Children of Judah.

28 And they dwelt at Beer-sheba, and Moladah, and Hazar-shual,

29 And at Bilhah, and at Ezem, and at Tolad,

30 And at Bethuel, and at Hormah, and at Ziklag,

31 And at Beth-marcaboth and Hazar-susim, and at Beth-birei, and at Shaaraim. These were their cities unto the reign of David.

32 And their villages were, Etam, and Ain, Rimmon, and Tochen, and Ashan, five cities:

33 And all their villages that were round about the same cities, unto Baal. These were their habitations, and their genealogy.

34 And Meshobab, and Jamlech, and Joshah the son of Amaziah,

35 And Joel, and Jehu the son of Josibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel,

36 And Elioenai, and Jaakobah, and Jeshohaiah, and Asaiah, and Adiel, and Jesimiel, and Benaiah,

37 And Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah;

38 These mentioned by their names were princes in their families: and the house of their fathers increased greatly.

39 And they went to the entrance of Gedor, even unto the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.

40 And they found fat pasture and good, and the land was wide, and quiet, and peaceable; for they of Ham had dwelt there of old.

41 And these written by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and smote their tents, and the habitations that were found there, and destroyed them utterly unto this day, and dwelt in their rooms: because there was pasture there for their flocks.

42 And some of them, even of the sons of Simeon, five hundred men, went to Mount Seir, having for their captains Pelatiah, and Neariah, and Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi.

43 And they smote the rest of the Amalekites who were escaped, and dwelt there unto this day.

CHAPTER 5

(1300 B.C.)

DESCENDANTS OF REUBEN

1 Now the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel, (for he was the firstborn; but, forasmuch as he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel [Jacob]: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright. [Reuben, being the firstborn of Jacob, should have had the birthright, but he forfeited it due to sin on his part (Gen. 35:22). This is why his genealogy was not given first. In his place, Judah inherited the kingly rights (Gen. 49:10), and Joseph inherited the other blessings of the birthright (Jesus would be born of the Tribe of Judah).]

2 For Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the chief ruler; but the birthright was Joseph's [the "chief ruler" was David and, in him, "David's greater Son and Lord"]:)

3 The sons, I say, of Reuben the firstborn of Israel were, Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

4 The sons of Joel; Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son,

5 Micah his son, Reaia his son, Baal his son,

6 Beerah his son, whom Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria carried away captive: he was prince of the Reubenites.

7 And his brethren by their families, when the genealogy of their generations was reckoned, were the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah,

8 And Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in Aroer, even unto Nebo and Baal-meon:

9 And eastward he inhabited unto the entering in of the wilderness from the river Euphrates: because their cattle were multiplied in the land of Gilead.

10 And in the days of Saul they made war with the Hagarites, who fell by their hand: and they dwelt in their tents throughout all the east land of Gilead.

DESCENDANTS OF GAD

11 And the children of Gad dwelt over against them, in the land of Bashan unto Salcah:

12 Joel the chief, and Shapham the next, and Jaanai, and Shaphat in Bashan.

13 And their brethren of the house of their father's were, Michael, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jachan, and Zia, and Heber, seven.

14 These are the children of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz;

15 Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, chief of the house of their fathers.

16 And they dwelt in Gilead in Bashan, and in her towns, and in all the suburbs of Sharon, upon their borders.

17 All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

LEADERS AND ACTIVITIES OF THE TWO-AND-A-HALF TRIBES

18 The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and half the Tribe of Manasseh, of valiant men, men able to bear buckler and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skillful in war, were four and forty thousand seven hundred and threescore, that went out to the war.

19 And they made war with the Hagarites, with Jetur, and Nephish, and Nodab.

20 And they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for they cried to God in the battle, and He was intreated of them; because they put their trust in Him (the simple words, "put their trust in Him," is the key to all victory).

21 And they took away their cattle; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, and of asses two thousand, and of men an hundred thousand.

22 For there fell down many killed, because the war was of God. And they dwelt in their steads until the captivity.

23 And the children of the half tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land: they increased from Bashan unto Baal-hermon and Senir, and unto Mount Hermon.

24 And these were the heads of the house of their fathers, even Epher, and Ishi, and Eliel, and Azriel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, mighty men of valour, famous men, and heads of the house of their fathers.

25 And they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went a whoring after the gods of the people of the land, whom God destroyed before them (Israel went into idolatry).

26 And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria, and he carried them away, even the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and brought them unto Halah, and Habor, and Hara, and to the river Gozan, unto this day. (The heathen nation of "Assyria" was God's rod of chastisement. As it regards God's people, the methods that God chooses may vary, but it is still God.)

CHAPTER 6

(1280 B.C.)

SONS OF LEVI: THEIR HABITATIONS AND SERVICES

1 The sons of Levi; Gershon, Kohath, and Merari (these three sons of Levi represented the three branches of the Levites, who were responsible for various services to the Tabernacle, and then to the Temple).

2 And the sons of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel.

3 And the children of Amram; Aaron, and Moses, and Miriam. The sons also of Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

4 Eleazar begat Phinehas, Phinehas begat Abishua,

5 And Abishua begat Bukki, and Bukki begat Uzzi,

6 And Uzzi begat Zerahiah, and Zerahiah begat Meraioth,

7 Meraioth begat Amariah, and Amariah begat Ahitub,

8 And Ahitub begat Zadok, and Zadok begat Ahimaaz,

9 And Ahimaaz begat Azariah, and Azariah begat Johanan,

10 And Johanan begat Azariah, (he it is that executed the Priest's office in the Temple that Solomon built in Jerusalem:)

11 And Azariah begat Amariah, and Amariah begat Ahitub,

12 And Ahitub begat Zadok, and Zadok begat Shallum,

13 And Shallum begat Hilkiah, and Hilkiah begat Azariah,

14 And Azariah begat Seraiah, and Seraiah begat Jehozadak,

15 And Jehozadak went into captivity, when the LORD carried away Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

16 The sons of Levi; Gershom, Kohath, and Merari.

17 And these be the names of the sons of Gershom; Libni, and Shimei.

18 And the sons of Kohath were, Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel.

19 The sons of Merari; Mahli, and Mushi. And these are the families of the Levites according to their fathers.

20 Of Gershom; Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son, 21 Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah his son, Jeaterai his son.

22 The sons of Kohath; Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir his son,

23 Elkanah his son, and Ebiasaph his son, and Assir his son, 24 Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uzziah his son, and Shaul his son.

25 And the sons of Elkanah; Amasai, and Ahimoth.

26 As for Elkanah: the sons of Elkanah; Zophai his son, and Nahath his son, 27 Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, Elkanah his son.

28 And the sons of Samuel; the firstborn Vashni, and Abiah.

29 The sons of Merari; Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzza his son, 30 Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, Asaiah his son.

THE MINISTRY OF MUSIC

31 And these are they whom David set over the service of song in the House of the LORD, after that the Ark (Ark of the Covenant) had rest (the great part that music plays in worship, by and large, had its beginning with David and the choirs).

32 And they ministered before the dwelling place of the Tabernacle of the congregation with singing, until Solomon had built the House of the LORD in Jerusalem: and then they waited on their office according to their order. (It is said that often, with some saying that it occurred every day, the various choirs, under three lead singers [Heman, Asaph, and Ethan], gathered at the site where the Temple would be built, and ministered in worship and singing. Some even said that this was done each day at the rising of the sun. This greeted Jerusalem at the beginning of each new day with worship and praise unto the Lord. Incidentally, Heman was Samuel's grandson — Verse 33.)

33 And these are they that waited with their children. Of the sons of the Kohathites: Heman a singer, the son of Joel, the son of Shemuel,

34 The son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah,

35 The son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai,

36 The son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah,

37 The son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, 38 The son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel.

39 And his brother Asaph, who stood on his right hand, even Asaph the son of Berachiah, the son of Shimea,

40 The son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malchiah,

41 The son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah,

42 The son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei,

43 The son of Jahath, the son of Gershom, the son of Levi.

44 And their brethren the sons of Merari stood on the left hand: Ethan the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch,

45 The son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah,

46 The son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shamer,

47 The son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

48 Their brethren also the Levites were appointed unto all manner of service of the Tabernacle of the House of God.

DESCENDANTS OF AARON AND THEIR SERVICES

49 But Aaron and his sons offered upon the Altar of the Burnt Offering, and on the Altar of Incense, and were appointed for all the work of the Place Most Holy, and to make an atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded. (Only the Priests were allowed to do this work, not the kings or Prophets, unless they were of the Tribe of Levi. Kings were never of this Tribe, being of the Tribe of Judah, but sometimes a Prophet would also be a Levite. All the Levites, whether Priests or choir directors, etc., came from one of the branches of "Gershon, Kohath, and Merari." The term "Levite" refers to the descendants of Levi.)

50 And these are the sons of Aaron; Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son,

51 Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son,

52 Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son, 53 Zadok his son, Ahimaaz his son.

CITIES OF THE LEVITES

54 Now these are their dwelling places throughout their castles in their coasts, of the sons of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites: for theirs was the lot.

55 And they gave them Hebron in the land of Judah, and the suburbs thereof round about it.

56 But the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

57 And to the sons of Aaron they gave the cities of Judah, namely, Hebron, the city of refuge, and Libnah with her suburbs, and Jattir, and Eshtemoa, with their suburbs,

58 And Hilen with her suburbs, Debir with her suburbs,

59 And Ashan with her suburbs, and Beth-shemesh with her suburbs:

60 And out of the Tribe of Benjamin; Geba with her suburbs, and Alemeth with her suburbs, and Anathoth with her suburbs. All their cities throughout their families were thirteen cities.

61 And unto the sons of Kohath, which were left of the family of that tribe, were cities given out of the half tribe, namely, out of the half tribe of Manasseh, by lot, ten cities.

62 And to the sons of Gershom throughout their families out of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.

63 Unto the sons of Merari were given by lot, throughout their families, out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.

64 And the children of Israel gave to the Levites these cities with their suburbs.

65 And they gave by lot out of the Tribe of the Children of Judah, and out of the Tribe of the Children of Simeon, and out of the Tribe of the Children of Benjamin, these cities, which are called by their names.

66 And the residue of the families of the sons of Kohath had cities of their coasts out of the Tribe of Ephraim.

67 And they gave unto them, of the cities of refuge, Shechem in Mount Ephraim with her suburbs; they gave also Gezer with her suburbs,

68 And Jokmeam with her suburbs, and Beth-horon with her suburbs,

69 And Aijalon with her suburbs, and Gath-rimmon with her suburbs:

70 And out of the half tribe of Manasseh; Aner with her suburbs, and Bileam with her suburbs, for the family of the remnant of the sons of Kohath.

71 Unto the sons of Gershom were given out of the family of the half tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan with her suburbs, and Ashtaroth with her suburbs:

72 And out of the Tribe of Issachar; Kedesh with her suburbs, Daberath with her suburbs,

73 And Ramoth with her suburbs, and Anem with her suburbs:

74 And out of the Tribe of Asher; Mashal with her suburbs, and Abdon with her suburbs,

75 And Hukok with her suburbs, and Rehob with her suburbs:

76 And out of the Tribe of Naphtali; Kedesh in Galilee with her suburbs, and Hammon with her suburbs, and Kirjathaim with her suburbs.

77 Unto the rest of the children of Merari were given out of the Tribe of Zebulun, Rimmon with her suburbs, Tabor with her suburbs:

78 And on the other side Jordan by Jericho, on the east side of Jordan, were given them out of the Tribe of Reuben, Bezer in the wilderness with her suburbs, and Jahzah with her suburbs,

79 Kedemoth also with her suburbs, and Mephaath with her suburbs:

80 And out of the Tribe of Gad; Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, and Mahanaim with her suburbs, 81 And Heshbon with her suburbs, and Jazer with her suburbs.

CHAPTER 7

(1400 B.C.)

DESCENDANTS OF ISSACHAR

1 Now the sons of Issachar were, Tola, and Puah, Jashub, and Shimrom, four.

2 And the sons of Tola; Uzzi, and Rephaiah, and Jeriel, and Jahmai, and Jibsam, and Shemuel, heads of their father's house, to wit, of Tola: they were valiant men of might in their generations; whose number was in the days of David two and twenty thousand and six hundred.

3 And the sons of Uzzi; Izrahiah: and the sons of Izrahiah; Michael, and Obadiah, and Joel, Ishiah, five: all of them chief men.

4 And with them, by their generations, after the house of their fathers, were bands of soldiers for war, six and thirty thousand men: for they had many wives and sons.

5 And their brethren among all the families of Issachar were valiant men of might, reckoned in all by their genealogies fourscore and seven thousand.

DESCENDANTS OF BENJAMIN

6 The sons of Benjamin; Bela, and Becher, and Jediael, three.

7 And the sons of Bela; Ezbon, and Uzzi, and Uzziel, and Jerimoth, and Iri, five; heads of the house of their fathers, mighty men of valour; and were reckoned by their genealogies twenty and two thousand and thirty and four.

8 And the sons of Becher; Zemira, and Joash, and Eliezer, and Elioenai, and Omri, and Jerimoth, and Abiah, and Anathoth, and Alameth. All these are the sons of Becher.

9 And the number of them, after their genealogy by their generations, heads of the house of their fathers, mighty men of valour, was twenty thousand and two hundred.

10 The sons also of Jediael; Bilhan: and the sons of Bilhan; Jeush, and Benjamin, and Ehud, and Chenaanah, and Zethan, and Tharshish, and Ahishahar.

11 All these the sons of Jediael, by the heads of their fathers, mighty men of valour, were seventeen thousand and two hundred soldiers, fit to go out for war and battle.

12 Shuppim also, and Huppim, the children of Ir, and Hushim, the sons of Aher.

DESCENDANTS OF NAPHTALI

13 The sons of Naphtali; Jahziel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shallum, the sons of Bilhah.

DESCENDANTS OF MANASSEH

14 The sons of Manasseh; Ashriel, whom she bore: (but his concubine the Aramitess bore Machir the father of Gilead:

15 And Machir took to wife the sister of Huppim and Shuppim, whose sister's name was Maachah;) and the name of the second was Zelophehad: and Zelophehad had daughters. (Once again, this man is mentioned, with his fame being derived from the Faith of his daughters [Num. 26:33]. God always honors Faith. Tragically, doubt never dies, unless washed by the Blood of Jesus; and, gloriously, Faith never dies, but extends its influence forever.)

16 And Maachah the wife of Machir bore a son, and she called his name Peresh; and the name of his brother was Sheresh; and his sons were Ulam and Rakem.

17 And the sons of Ulam; Bedan. These were the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh.

18 And his sister Hammoleketh bore Ishod, and Abiezer, and Mahalah.

19 And the sons of Shemidah were, Ahian, and Shechem, and Likhi, and Aniam.

DESCENDANTS OF EPHRAIM

20 And the sons of Ephraim; Shuthelah, and Bered his son, and Tahath his son, and Eladah his son, and Tahath his son,

21 And Zabad his son, and Shuthelah his son, and Ezer, and Elead, whom the men of Gath who were born in that land killed, because they came down to take away their cattle.

22 And Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brethren came to comfort him.

23 And when he went in to his wife, she conceived, and bore a son, and he called his name Beriah, because it went evil with his house.

24 (And his daughter was Sherah, who built Beth-horon the nether, and the upper, and Uzzen-sherah.)

25 And Rephah was his son, also Resheph, and Telah his son, and Tahan his son,

26 Laadan his son, Ammihud his son, Elishama his son,

27 Non his son, Jehoshuah his son.

28 And their possessions and habitations were, Beth-el and the towns thereof, and eastward Naaran, and westward Gezer, with the towns thereof; Shechem also and the towns thereof, unto Gaza and the towns thereof:

29 And by the borders of the children of Manasseh, Beth-shean and her towns, Taanach and her towns, Megiddo and her towns, Dor and her towns. In these dwelt the children of Joseph the son of Israel.

DESCENDANTS OF ASHER

30 The sons of Asher; Imnah, and Isuah, and Ishuai, and Beriah, and Serah their sister.

31 And the sons of Beriah; Heber, and Malchiel, who is the father of Birzavith.

32 And Heber begat Japhlet, and Shomer, and Hotham, and Shua their sister.

33 And the sons of Japhlet; Pasach, and Bimhal, and Ashvath. These are the children of Japhlet.

34 And the sons of Shamer; Ahi, and Rohgah, Jehubbah, and Aram.

35 And the sons of his brother Helem; Zophah, and Imna, and Shelesh, and Amal.

36 The sons of Zophah; Suah, and Harnepher, and Shual, and Beri, and Imrah, 37 Bezer, and Hod, and Shamma, and Shilshah, and Ithran, and Beera.

38 And the sons of Jether; Jephunneh, and Pispah, and Ara.

39 And the sons of Ulla; Arah, and Haniel, and Rezia.

40 All these were the children of Asher, heads of their father's house, choice and mighty men of valour, chief of the princes. And the number throughout the genealogy of them that were apt to the war and to battle was twenty and six thousand men. (Quite often in the Text, the Writer refers to some of the men of Israel being "choice and mighty men of valor," etc. The might and glory of Israel, when they were actually serving God, were almost beyond our comprehension. Regrettably, through sin, it was all lost!

However, one day the glory of Israel will be re-established. It will be at the Coming of the Lord [Rom. 11:12].)

CHAPTER 8

(1400 B.C.)

DESCENDANTS OF BENJAMIN

1 Now Benjamin begat Bela his firstborn, Ashbel the second, and Aharah the third,

2 Nohah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth.

3 And the sons of Bela were, Addar, and Gera, and Abihud,

4 And Abishua, and Naaman, and Ahoah,

5 And Gera, and Shephuphan, and Huram.

6 And these are the sons of Ehud: these are the heads of the fathers of the inhabitants of Geba, and they removed them to Manahath:

7 And Naaman, and Ahiah, and Gera, he removed them, and begat Uzza, and Ahihud.

8 And Shaharaim begat children in the country of Moab, after he had sent them away; Hushim and Baara were his wives.

9 And he begat of Hodesh his wife, Jobab, and Zibia, and Mesha, and Malcham,

10 And Jeuz, and Shachia, and Mirma. These were his sons, heads of the fathers.

11 And of Hushim he begat Abitub, and Elpaal.

12 The sons of Elpaal; Eber, and Misham, and Shamed, who built Ono, and Lod, with the towns thereof:

13 Beriah also, and Shema, who were heads of the fathers of the inhabitants of Aijalon, who drove away the inhabitants of Gath:

14 And Ahio, Shashak, and Jeremoth,

15 And Zebadiah, and Arad, and Ader,

16 And Michael, and Ispah, and Joha, the sons of Beriah;

17 And Zebadiah, and Meshullam, and Hezeki, and Heber,

18 Ishmerai also, and Jezliah, and Jobab, the sons of Elpaal;

19 And Jakim, and Zichri, and Zabdi,

20 And Elienai, and Zilthai, and Eliel,

21 And Adaiah, and Beraiah, and Shimrath, and sons of Shimhi;

22 And Ishpan, and Heber, and Eliel,

23 And Abdon, and Zichri, and Hanan,

24 And Hananiah, and Elam, and Antothijah,

25 And Iphedeiah, and Penuel, the sons of Shashak;

26 And Shamsherai, and Shehariah, and Athaliah,

27 And Jaresiah, and Eliah, and Zichri, the sons of Jeroham.

28 These were heads of the fathers, by their generations, chief men. These dwelt in Jerusalem. (This proves that the Tribe of Benjamin adhered to the worship of the True God and remained loyal to Judah. As well, it seems that Simeon, whose inheritance was within the inheritance of Judah, had remained loyal also. We speak of the division of the kingdom, with Judah being the southern kingdom, and Israel the northern kingdom.)

29 And at Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon; whose wife's name was Maachah:

30 And his firstborn son Abdon, and Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Nadab, 31 And Gedor, and Ahio, and Zacher.

32 And Mikloth begat Shimeah. And these also dwelt with their brethren in Jerusalem, over against them.

DESCENDANTS OF SAUL

33 And Ner begat Kish, and Kish begat Saul, and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchi-shua, and Abinadab, and Esh-baal.

34 And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal; and Merib-baal begat Micah.

35 And the sons of Micah were, Pithon, and Melech, and Tarea, and Ahaz.

36 And Ahaz begat Jehoadah; and Jehoadah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begat Moza,

37 And Moza begat Binea: Rapha was his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son:

38 And Azel had six sons, whose names are these, Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel.

39 And the sons of Eshek his brother were, Ulam his firstborn, Jehush the second, and Eliphelet the third.

40 And the sons of Ulam were mighty men of valour, archers, and had many sons, and sons' sons, an hundred and fifty. All these are of the sons of Benjamin.

CHAPTER 9

(1200 B.C.)

SUMMARY OF THE GENEALOGIES OF THOSE RETURNING FROM BABYLONIAN CAPTIVITY

[1] So all Israel were reckoned by genealogies; and, behold, they were written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah, who were carried away to Babylon for their transgression. (This is a book which we do not now have, but which, no doubt, contained a complete record of the genealogies of every family in Israel. From this, the Author of Chronicles took only a part to serve His purpose of identifying certain key men in the history of the nation, by giving their background, so that something could be known of the coming Messiah's ancestors.

During the time of Christ, the genealogy of every Tribe, and also of every family in Israel, was kept in the Temple. This was very important for several reasons:

1. Each family in Israel could trace their ancestry all the way back to Abraham.

2. Each family could know to which Tribe they belonged.

3. As well, Israel knew that the Messiah was to come through the Tribe of Judah [Gen. 49:10], and that, if the kingly line of David from the Tribe of Judah had continued, Jesus would now be the king of Israel. So, there was no excuse for Israel not to know His identity.)

[2] Now the first inhabitants who dwelt in their possessions in their cities were, the Israelites, the Priests, Levites, and the Nethinims. (It is believed that the "Nethinims" were the descendants of the Gibeonites who deceived Joshua at the beginning of the occupation of Canaan, and who were made "hewers of wood and drawers of water unto all the congregation" [Josh.

9:21]. This referred to wood and water for the sacrifices at the Tabernacle, and then the Temple.)

3 And in Jerusalem dwelt of the Children of Judah, and of the Children of Benjamin, and of the Children of Ephraim, and Manasseh (the children of the two Tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh were representative of the ten Tribes, for the northern ten-Tribe kingdom was often called "Ephraim");

4 Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Pharez the son of Judah.

5 And of the Shilonites; Asaiah the firstborn, and his sons.

6 And of the sons of Zerah; Jeuel, and their brethren, six hundred and ninety.

7 And of the sons of Benjamin; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hasenuah,

8 And Ibneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri, and Meshullam the son of Shephathiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah;

9 And their brethren, according to their generations, nine hundred and fifty and six. All these men were chief of the fathers in the house of their fathers.

PRIESTS AND LEVITES RETURNING FROM BABYLON

10 And of the Priests; Jedaiah, and Jehoiarib, and Jachin,

11 And Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the House of God;

12 And Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah, and Maasiai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer;

13 And their brethren, heads of the house of their fathers, a thousand and seven hundred and threescore; very able men for the work of the service of the House of God.

14 And of the Levites; Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;

15 And Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph;

16 And Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, that dwelt in the villages of the Netophathites.

17 And the porters were, Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren: Shallum was the chief;

18 Who hitherto waited in the king's gate eastward: they were porters in the companies of the Children of Levi.

19 And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren, of the house of his father, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the gates of the Tabernacle: and their fathers, being over the host of the LORD, were keepers of the entry.

20 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar was the ruler over them in time past, and the LORD was with him.

21 And Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was porter of the door of the Tabernacle of the congregation.

22 All these which were chosen to be porters in the gates were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by their genealogy in their villages, whom David and Samuel the Seer did ordain in their set office. (Here we have proof that Samuel and David counseled together and received revelations of the coming Temple worship.)

23 So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the House of the LORD, namely, the House of the Tabernacle, by wards.

24 In four quarters were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south.

25 And their brethren, which were in their villages, were to come after seven days from time to time with them.

26 For these Levites, the four chief porters, were in their set office, and were over the chambers and treasuries of the House of God.

27 And they lodged round about the House of God, because the charge was upon them, and the opening thereof every morning pertained to them.

28 And certain of them had the charge of the ministering vessels, that they should bring them in and out by tale.

29 Some of them also were appointed to oversee the vessels, and all the instruments of the sanctuary, and the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices.

30 And some of the sons of the Priests made the ointment of the spices.

31 And Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the set office over the things that were made in the pans.

32 And other of their brethren, of the sons of the Kohathites, were over the shewbread, to prepare it every sabbath.

33 And these are the singers, chief of the fathers of the Levites, who remaining in the chambers were free: for they were employed in that work day and night. (This refers to the re-building of the Temple and Jerusalem after the captivity in Babylon. It seems that, at this time, great efforts were being made to carry on the worship of God as it had been instituted by David about 500 years before.)

34 These chief fathers of the Levites were chief throughout their generations; these dwelt at Jerusalem.

SAUL'S DESCENDANTS

35 And in Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon, Jehiel, whose wife's name was Maachah:

36 And his firstborn son Abdon, then Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab, 37 And Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth.

38 And Mikloth begat Shimeam. And they also dwelt with their brethren at Jerusalem, over against their brethren.

39 And Ner begat Kish; and Kish begat Saul; and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchi-shua, and Abinadab, and Esh-baal.

40 And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal: and Merib-baal begat Micah.

41 And the sons of Micah were Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, and Ahaz.

42 And Ahaz begat Jarah; and Jarah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begat Moza;

43 And Moza begat Binea; and Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.

44 And Azel had six sons, whose names are these, Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan: these were the sons of Azel.

CHAPTER 10

(1056 B.C.)

THE DEATH OF SAUL AND HIS SONS

[1] Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down killed in Mount Gilboa. (The Holy Spirit, in the last ten Verses of the Ninth Chapter, recites the pedigree of King Saul, and then, in Chapter 10, repeats the circumstances of that monarch's death, which thus presents an introduction to the kingdom of David.)

[2] And the Philistines followed hard after Saul, and after his sons; and the Philistines killed Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchi-shua, the sons of Saul. (These were the ones who accompanied him into the battle. There were other sons who stayed at home, and did not die. The Holy Spirit places Jonathan's name first. Of all of these, Jonathan was the only one who was godly, at least that is known.)

[3] And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers hit him, and he was wounded of the archers.

[4] Then said Saul to his armourbearer, Draw your sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. So Saul took a sword, and fell upon it. (He committed suicide! He started so well, and concluded so poorly. He failed to defeat the enemies within, which were self-will, jealousy, and pride; therefore, the enemy without, "the Philistines," ultimately defeated him. This should be a lesson to us!)

[5] And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and all his house died together.

7 And when all the men of Israel that were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, then they forsook their cities, and fled: and the Philistines came and dwelt in them. (That which the Lord gave to Israel is now occupied by the Philistines. It is the same with us presently. Satan desires to inhabit that which God has given us; therefore, the battle ever rages, with the enemy trying to mar our inheritance.)

8 And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, that they found Saul and his sons fallen in Mount Gilboa. (The evidence is obvious that Satan wants the last drop of blood. There can be no compromise with the evil one. We destroy him or he destroys us.)

9 And when they had stripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry tidings unto their idols, and to the people. (It was customary to take the heads of conquered kings and make sport with them in the houses of the gods, and in the cities of their own people. But this was a tragedy, because these were God's people who were being so maltreated.)

10 And they put his armour in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon (thereby giving their gods credit for this victory)**.

11 And when all Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul,

12 They arose, all the valiant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days. (I Sam., Chpt. 31 records the fact of Saul's death. I Chron., Chpt. 10 records the reason. Men could see the outward historic event, but only the Spirit of God could reveal the cause of this event. The next Verse tells us the cause.)

13 So Saul died for his transgression which he committed against the LORD, even against the Word of the LORD, which he kept not, and also for asking counsel of one who had a familiar spirit, to enquire of it;

14 And enquired not of the LORD: therefore He killed him, and turned the kingdom unto David the son of Jesse. (In fact, Saul did enquire of the Lord [I Sam. 28:6]; however, it was an enquiry with no thought in mind of truly repenting. Had Saul truly repented at that time, the Lord definitely would have heard him and helped him. But man seems determined to insist upon his stubbornness and rebellion, even to his own death.)

CHAPTER 11

(1047 B.C.)

DAVID MADE KING OVER ALL ISRAEL

1 Then all Israel gathered themselves to David unto Hebron, saying, Behold, we are your bone and your flesh.

2 And moreover in time past, even when Saul was king, you were he that led out and brought in Israel: and the LORD your God said unto you, You shall feed My people Israel, and you shall be ruler over My people Israel. (It was the Will of God that David be the first king of Israel, and not Saul. It is just as wrong to get ahead of God as it is to lag behind. Regrettably, Israel, despite the problems with Saul, and even though they knew that David had been anointed by the Lord to be king over Israel, did not, in fact, make him king until it was in their best interest to do so. Very few Believers will carry out the Will of God, if they erroneously feel that it's not in their best interests. The truth is, the Will of God, no matter what the circumstances may seem to be, is always the far better place for the Believer to be. There is no loss by abiding by the Will of God, and great loss by not doing so.)

3 Therefore came all the elders of Israel to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the Word of the LORD by Samuel. (One can literally sense the Presence of God, even reading these words. It had taken some time, and much suffering and sorrow, but Israel has finally come around to God's Way.

Thus David, the commanding figure of the First Book of Chronicles, is introduced. He is a Type of his greater Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. Characteristically, the first event of the Book is the deliverance of Jerusalem from the Jebusites, and David's ascension to the Throne of Jehovah on Zion. Such will be the action of Israel's great King in a future happy day.)

DAVID CAPTURES ZION

4 And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus; where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land. (As a type, the Jebusites symbolize a stronghold that Satan erects within our hearts and lives. Saul never did defeat the Jebusites, who were within; consequently, the Philistines, who were without, eventually defeated him. Likewise, if we do not defeat the strongholds that are within our lives, strongholds of Satan, those without will ultimately overcome us. In connection with this, Paul said: "For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds" [II Cor. 10:4]. This is done, as it only can be done, by the Believer placing his Faith exclusively in Christ and what Christ has done for us at the Cross. That being the case, the Holy Spirit will then mightily help us, without Whom these great battles cannot be won [Rom. 8:1-2, 11].)

5 And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, You shall not come hither. Nevertheless David took the castle of Zion, which is the city of David. (Satan will ever taunt us, declaring that since he has established this stronghold for so long, he cannot be dislodged. Through Christ and the Cross, every stronghold of Satan can be dislodged! [I Cor. 1:17-18].)

6 And David said, Whosoever smites the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain. So Joab the son of Zeruiah went first up, and was chief *(thereby, became the Commander of the army of Israel).

7 And David dwelt in the castle; therefore they called it the city of David *(the reason that Satan attempts to erect strongholds in our lives is because he knows that God intends for this to be our strong point; so David, by the help of the Lord, took this, which had been inhabited by the enemy, and made it his Capital, i.e., "the city of David").

8 And he built the city round about, even from Millo round about: and Joab repaired the rest of the city (rid it of all enemies, that it might be a fit place for the Capital).

9 So David waxed greater and greater: for the LORD of Hosts was with him (the victories were all tied to the Lord, as all victories are always tied to the Lord, and only to the Lord).

DAVID'S MIGHTY MEN

10 These also are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Israel, to make him king, according to the Word of the LORD concerning Israel. (These men were "mighty" only because they came under the anointing of David, whom God had called for a particular task — to be the king of Israel. In fact, there would have been no "might," had they not functioned under David's anointing.

To be sure, they had an anointing all of their own, but it was predicated on them being in the Will of God, as it regarded David. Regrettably, far too many Christians don't understand this.

As a Believer, you should seek the Lord ardently about whom you are to follow, as it regards Preachers. If you guess wrong, or follow after the flesh, it will prove to be destructive. If you find the Mind of God, and it's not hard to find, He will lead you to that which you should follow, and then the anointing that's on that particular Ministry will also, in some way, the way God wants, be on you, as well.)

11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had; Jashobeam, an Hachmonite, the chief of the captains: he lifted up his spear against three hundred killed by him at one time (I think it should be obvious that this man had to have the anointing of the Holy Spirit to perform such a mighty deed against God's enemies; however, had he and all the others not followed David, they would have never been used by God in any capacity).

12 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighties (also, it must ever be understood that God places His anointing only upon a man or a woman; he does not anoint denominations, church officials [just because they are church officials], committees, boards, or groups; there definitely may be individuals occupying these particular positions who are definitely called of God and perform a mighty service, but it's not because of that position).

13 He was with David at Pas-dammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where was a parcel of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines. (Barley, being the least of all the grains, many, perhaps, would have thought it not worthy to defend; however, God desires that Satan be rooted out of every part of our inheritance, no matter how seemingly insignificant. The reason? Little matters quickly grow into large matters!)

14 And they set themselves in the midst of that parcel, and delivered it, and killed the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great deliverance. (The people of God labored intensely to plant and cultivate these crops. And when they were ready to be harvested, the Philistines would swoop down and take what rightly belonged to Israel. This is a perfect example of what Satan attempts to do to the Believer. He attempts to rob you of your inheritance, and will do so, if you do not know how to properly follow the Lord, which is always by having Faith in Christ and the Cross, which then gives the Holy Spirit power to work on our behalf. To be sure, the Holy Spirit, Who is God, can do anything. But He is hindered so much of the time, simply because we are not following the Word of God, in effect, serving "another Jesus," which the Holy Spirit can never recognize. This refers to the fact that we are serving Christ, or claiming to do so, while eliminating the Cross, or ignoring it. If the Cross is ignored, then, pure and simple, we are serving "another Jesus," whom God can never recognize [Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11; I Cor. 1:17-18, 21, 23; 2:2; Gal. 6:14; Col. 2:14-15].)

15 Now three of the thirty captains went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistines encamped in the valley of Rephaim (the valley of the Giants).

16 And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines' garrison was then at Beth-lehem.

[17] And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate!

[18] And the three (Vs. 15) broke through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD, (Beth-lehem was where Jesus was born. The water being poured out by David was symbolic of Christ pouring out His Life on the Cross of Calvary, which guaranteed Salvation for all of mankind, at least all who will believe [Jn. 3:16]. How much David understood of this, we do not know; however, he probably understood far more than we presently realize.)

[19] And said, My God forbid it me, that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mightiest. (This means that the Sacrifice of Christ at Calvary's Cross is to never be used for personal aggrandizement, but always for what it was intended, which is the Salvation of souls, gained only by Christ pouring out His Life.

This is, at least in part, what makes the "Word of Faith" doctrine, so-called, so wrong and false. It attempts to use Christ for personal gain, i.e., "riches." While it is certainly true that God does bless, and bless abundantly, He does so only on the basis of our Faith exclusively being in Christ and the Cross. The truth is, in that particular false doctrine, the only ones getting rich are the Preachers, and that by subterfuge, and the perversion of Scripture.)

[20] And Abishai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three: for lifting up his spear against three hundred, he killed them, and had a name among the three.

[21] Of the three, he was more honourable than the two; for he was their captain: howbeit he attained not to the first three (nowhere in the world were there men like these, and all because of the anointing of the Holy Spirit which was upon them)*.

[22] Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done many acts; he killed two lionlike men of Moab: also he went down and killed a lion in a pit in a snowy day.

[23] And he killed an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits high (seven and a half feet); and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear (once again, the anointing of the Spirit).

[24] These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among the three mighties. (For time and eternity, their names are forever inscribed in the Word of God. What an honor! What a privilege! There is not one single Believer in the world today who cannot, in God's Way, attain to the same energy of power, if they will only truly follow the Lord.)

[25] Behold, he was honourable among the thirty, but attained not to the first three: and David set him over his guard. (There is a great spiritual meaning here. Demon spirits, of which the defeated represent, will attempt to destroy the Child of God. We must "guard" ourselves from their encroachment, as "Benaiah did." In the "Name of Jesus," it can be done, and only in that mighty Name!)

MORE MIGHTY MEN

[26] Also the valiant men of the armies were, Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem,

[27] Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite,

[28] Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Antothite,

[29] Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,

30 Maharia the Netophathite, Heled the son of Baanah the Netophathite,

31 Ithai the son of Ribai of Gibeah, that pertained to the children of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite,

32 Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite,

33 Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite,

34 The sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shage the Hararite,

35 Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal the son of Ur,

36 Hepher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,

37 Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the son of Ezbai,

38 Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Haggeri,

39 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armourbearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah,

40 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

41 Uriah the Hittite (likewise, Uriah was listed in II Sam., Chpt. 23, although dead; an exception in listing him, even though dead, perhaps, was because of the connection with David, as the husband of the woman with whom David sinned; how tragic!), Zabad the son of Ahlai,

42 Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a captain of the Reubenites, and thirty with him,

43 Hanan the son of Maachah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite,

44 Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jehiel the sons of Hothan the Aroerite,

45 Jediael the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite,

46 Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai, and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah the Moabite, 47 Eliel, and Obed, and Jasiel the Mesobaite.

CHAPTER 12

(1058 B.C.)

THE ARMY OF DAVID

[1] Now these are they who came to David to Ziklag, while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the son of Kish: and they were among the mighty men, helpers of the war. (This is a glorious Chapter, as Israel finally begins to do God's Will. It begins with David's darkest days. It closes with unimaginable victory. The present need is "helpers of the war," for we are engaged in a war [II Cor. 10:3; I Tim. 1:18, 6:12; I Pet. 2:11]. However, this war must be fought God's Way, and it is a war of Faith, and that exclusively!)

[2] They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in hurling stones and shooting arrows out of a bow, even of Saul's brethren of Benjamin. (Even though these were Benjamites, and consequently from Saul's Tribe, still, they knew the anointing of God rested on David, and not on Saul. How much faith did it take for these men to forsake Saul and come to David? How much faith does it take today for men to forsake man's religion and come to David, even though he is a fugitive, but has the Anointing of the Holy Spirit?)

[3] The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; and Jeziel, and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; and Berachah, and Jehu the Antothite,

[4] And Ismaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Josabad the Gederathite,

[5] Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite,

6 Elkanah, and Jesiah, and Azareel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korhites,

7 And Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

8 And of the Gadites there separated themselves unto David into the hold to the wilderness men of might, and men of war fit for the battle, who could handle shield and buckler, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were as swift as the roes (deer) upon the mountains (in the spirit world, these men were so anointed by the Holy Spirit that their faces looked like "lions," and their swiftness was as "deer"; what do we look like to the spirit world?);

9 Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

13 Jeremiah the tenth, Machbanai the eleventh.

14 These were of the sons of Gad, captains of the host: one of the least was over an hundred, and the greatest over a thousand.

15 These are they who went over Jordan in the first month, when it had overflown all his banks; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the east, and toward the west. (The Bible says, back up in the Eighth Verse, that the "Gadites [from the Tribe of Gad] there separated themselves unto David." There has to be a separation from man's way to God's Way. There would be hindrances to stop them, such as Jordan overflowing its banks; however, they did not allow this to stop them, and neither must we allow hindrances to stop us.)

16 And there came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the hold (where David was camped) unto David.

17 And David went out to meet them, and answered and said unto them, If you become peaceably unto me to help me, my heart shall be knit unto you: but if you be come to betray me to my enemies, seeing there is no wrong in my hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it.

18 Then the Spirit (Holy Spirit) came upon Amasai, who was chief of the captains, and he said, Yours are we, David, and on your side, you son of Jesse: peace, peace be unto you, and peace be to your helpers; for your God helps you. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band (the phrase, "Yours are we, David, and on your side," must ever be the statement of any Child of God concerning the Lord Jesus Christ; as Amasai burned his bridges behind him, so to speak, we, as children of the Living God, must do the same in our service for Jesus Christ; Amasai was not looking back; we must not look back either).

19 And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle: but they helped them not: for the lords of the Philistines upon advisement sent him away, saying, He will fall to his master Saul to the jeopardy of our heads (some of Manasseh coming to David implies, at the same time, that some did not come; regrettably, that seems to always be the case!).

20 As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zilthai, captains of the thousands that were of Manasseh.

21 And they helped David against the band of the rovers: for they were all mighty men of valour, and were captains in the host.

22 For at that time day by day there came to David to help him, until it was a great host, like the host of God (this was God's time for Israel; David was His man; consequently, all who were in the Will of God came to David; otherwise, they were out of the Will of God).

23 And these are the numbers of the bands who were ready armed to the war, and came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the Word of the LORD. (They were not coming to be armed;

they were "ready armed." So many today in modern Christendom are not armed and, therefore, are of no consequence to the Work of God.

As well, they knew their mission. They were called of God. So many in the Church presently do not know their mission. Our mission is to take this "kingdom of Saul" [the world] and turn it over to our Heavenly David, because it is "according to the Word of the LORD.")

24 The Children of Judah who bore shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, ready armed to the war.

25 Of the Children of Simeon, mighty men of valour for the war, seven thousand and one hundred.

26 Of the Children of Levi four thousand and six hundred.

27 And Jehoiada was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred;

28 And Zadok, a young man mighty of valour, and of his father's house twenty and two captains.

29 And of the Children of Benjamin, the kindred of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto the greatest part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul.

30 And of the Children of Ephraim twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valour, famous throughout the house of their fathers.

31 And of the half tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, which were expressed by name, to come and make David king (these individuals were "expressed by name," and wanted everyone to know that they had "come to make David king"; they were not ashamed of their mission; they wanted all to know their purpose; these are the type who make a full consecration).

32 And of the Children of Issachar, which were men who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do; the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their commandment (if we follow the Holy Spirit like they were then doing, we will, as well, have "understanding of the times"; only those who truly follow the Lord will "know what the Church ought to do").

33 Of Zebulun, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, with all instruments of war, fifty thousand, which could keep rank: they were not of double heart. (Far too many Christians cannot keep rank simply because their hearts are divided between the world and the Lord Jesus Christ, or else between denominational religion and the Lord Jesus Christ. No matter the danger in battle, these men from Zebulun could keep rank.

The "double heart" is also the bane of all of Christendom. The heart is divided between Christ and other pursuits. Our hearts must be single, meaning that all its devotion must be to Christ.)

34 And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty and seven thousand. (How is it that only 6,800 of Judah came [Vs. 24], and 50,000 of the Tribe of Zebulun came? The numbers denote accuracy and fidelity to present-day spiritual facts. Although David himself was of the Tribe of Judah, still, Judah would little respond. Benjamin, Simeon, and Levi were associated with Judah, as well, and the record will show small response. Likewise, these were the Tribes that crucified the Son of David, our Lord. So the seedbed of that crucifixion, which would take place about a thousand years later, was already being planted.)

35 And of the Danites expert in war twenty and eight thousand and six hundred.

36 And of Asher, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, forty thousand.

37 And on the other side of Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, an hundred and twenty thousand.

38 All these men of war, who could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king (Israel, at this time, is finally marching in tune with the Holy Spirit).

[39] And there they were with David three days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them.

[40] Moreover they who were near them, even unto Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and meat, meal, cakes of figs, and bunches of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly: for there was joy in Israel. (Now there is "fellowship," there is "plenty," and there is "joy," all because Israel is now in the Will of God. It should be noted that in the entirety of this Chapter, the seven-and-a-half year reign in Hebron of David over Judah is not referred to once. It was God's Will for David to be king over all Israel, not just Judah; likewise, the Lord must be King over all our lives, not just part.)

CHAPTER 13

DAVID ATTEMPTS TO BRING THE ARK TO JERUSALEM

[1] And David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader (however, it doesn't say that David consulted with God; the results of such action would be disastrous).

[2] And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the LORD our God, let us send abroad unto our brethren everywhere, who are left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the Priests and Levites which are in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us (there was much religious activity at this point, but very little, if any, leading of the Holy Spirit)**:

[3] And let us bring again the Ark of our God to us: for we enquired not at it in the days of Saul (it is ironic that the entire motive for the bringing of the Ark was to "enquire of it," yet David did not enquire of the Lord concerning this all-important task).

[4] And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people (it was right in the Eyes of God, as well, but not in the way it was done).

[5] So David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor of Egypt even unto the entering of Hemath, to bring the Ark of God from Kirjath-jearim. (How many times does the Church, with great fanfare, rush forward to carry out its bold plans, when, in reality, those plans will not bring life, but death? Great religious activity never denotes great spiritual depth; nevertheless, the clatter of religious machinery, combined with the noise of great religious profession, completely fool most people.)

6 And David went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, that is, to Kirjath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the Ark of God the LORD, Who dwells between the Cherubims, Whose name is called on it (during the time of Saul, who was a work of the flesh, the Ark of God was ignored, because spiritual things had no value to Saul; I'm afraid the modern Church, at least for all practical purposes, is following the same course of ignoring the Will of God).

7 And they carried the Ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart. (The Ark of God, by the command of God, was to be carried on the shoulders of Priests, and not on a cart of any kind. The Priests were Types of Christ; the symbolism portrayed the fact that the Presence of God rested solely on Christ, and within Christ.

It must be clearly noted that anything and everything instituted by man is always, and without exception, a "new cart." It is doomed to failure. All directions for all things are laid down in the Word of God [II Pet. 1:3]. Any deviation will always bring death [Ex. 37:5; Num. 4:15; Deut. 10:8; Josh. 3:8-14]. Regrettably, the Church presently is full of "new carts"!)

8 And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, and with singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets. (How much does this characterize our modern-day Church? It is all very religious, but very wrong! It is all very loud, but very lost! It is all with great activity, but not by the Holy Spirit. If it's not according to the Word of God, then all the religious activity will not make it right, and death will be the result.)

UZZA IS SMITTEN

9 And when they came unto the threshingfloor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the Ark; for the oxen stumbled (there is always "a threshingfloor"; the threshingfloor was where the grain was separated from the husk; on this memorable day, the spiritual grain would be separated from the husk as well [Mat. 3:11-12]).

10 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and He smote him, because he put his hand to the Ark: and there he died before God. (Of all people, Uzza should have known better. The Ark had been at his place, for he was a son of Abinadab, where the Ark had been left many years before [I Sam. 7:1]; however, it seems he had not bothered to check out the Word of God, as to exactly what the disposition of the Ark should be.

As well, millions presently think, as Uzza evidently did at that time, that David would be responsible, because he had delegated the responsibility to Uzza. Uzza was to find out differently.

Millions are in Hell presently, because they left responsibility up to a Preacher or a Priest. God demands that each individual know and understand the Word of God, and be responsible accordingly. So, the idea that Believers are to obey someone in authority, and do so without question, irrespective as to whether it's right or wrong, is not taught in the Bible. In fact, the very opposite is taught [Ezek. 18:4].)

11 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called Perez-uzza to this day (the word "displeased" means "saddened"; David had a right to be sad, because he definitely was partly to blame).

12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the Ark of God home to me? (David's displeasure was quickly turned into acute fear. He realized how close he personally had come to death on this day. Sadly, most of the modern Church is only "displeased." There is very little "fear of God" left! Consequently, David's heart sobbed, "How shall I bring the Ark of God home to me?" All must be done God's Way.)

13 So David brought not the Ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite (undoubtedly, David was led by the Lord in leaving the Ark with Obed-edom; as the facts will prove, this man had a great heart for God, and knew how to treat the Ark, so to speak, even to a greater extent, it seems, than did David).

14 And the Ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had. (One man died because of ignoring the Word of God, and one man and his house are greatly blessed because of obeying the Word of God. That was the criteria then, obedience to the Word, and it is the criteria now!)

CHAPTER 14

(1043 B.C.)

HIRAM BUILDS DAVID A HOUSE

1 Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, with masons and carpenters, to build him an house.

2 And David perceived that the LORD had confirmed him king over Israel, for his kingdom was lifted up on high, because of His People Israel. (The first two Verses picture the coming day when Christ, the Shepherd of His people, shall be confirmed by God the Father as King over Israel, and when the Gentile princes, represented here by Hiram, shall bring their offerings to His feet.

David perceived that the Lord had established his kingdom because of this fact, but more so that Israel was the flock of God. Grace had elected that flock and had chosen David as its shepherd.)

DAVID'S FAMILY AT JERUSALEM

3 And David took more wives at Jerusalem: and David begat more sons and daughters (even though this was tolerated by the Lord, still, such was not His Will).

4 Now these are the names of his children which he had in Jerusalem; Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon (Mary, the mother of Christ, went back to David through Nathan, while Joseph went back to David through Solomon)**,

5 And Ibhar, and Elishua, and Elpalet,

6 And Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia,

7 And Elishama, and Beeliada, and Eliphalet.

DAVID'S VICTORY OVER THE PHILISTINES

8 And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard of it, and went out against them (the word "seek" means "to kill him"; the moment there is an "Anointing of the Spirit," Satan will come against it).

9 And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim (this was the valley of the giants; it must be clearly understood that the "flesh" cannot overcome these "giants"; they can be overcome only by "the Spirit of God"; the Philistines dwelt in the land; they illustrate the energies of sin that dwell in the Christian [Rom. 7:17]; whenever Christ is enthroned as King over the whole life, these energies gather themselves together to oppose Him in the Believer's heart, where Divine Faith and a child-like obedience have the upper hand; there must be complete victory over them [Rom. 8:1-2, 11]).

10 And David enquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and will You deliver them into my hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up; for I will deliver them into your hand (it seems that David now had learned his lesson well, concerning a lack of inquiry regarding the bringing up of the Ark; now, he would take nothing for granted; consequently, he would experience victory).

11 So they came up to Baal-perazim; and David smote them there. Then David said, God has broken in upon my enemies by my hand like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place Baal-perazim. (The prefix on this place was called "Baal," which speaks of heathen gods. So, in effect, David is saying, "The Lord has broken through and defeated these idol gods." How many idol gods are in our lives?

The "waters" typify the Word of God, which sweeps away these idol gods, and which must be swept away in our lives also. But we must remember they cannot be destroyed by human ingenuity, only by the Spirit of God!)

12 And when they had left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire (the fire of the Spirit is to burn the dross out of our lives [Mat. 3:11-12]).

13 And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley (our mistake is large, if we think Satan will not return; he probes for an opportunity; just because there has been great victory does not mean that he will not come "yet again"; however, the victory of the first day, and the methods which Grace counseled for the winning of it, are not to be rested upon in order to secure victory for the next day).

14 Therefore David enquired again of God; and God said unto him, Go not up after them; turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees. (Had David thought it unnecessary to pray previous to the second battle, he would, no doubt, have been defeated. He learned that God cannot give victories to the "flesh." Flesh must be humbled! So David is commanded to run away from the Philistines, which was very humbling to so brave a warrior, who then learns to hide, wait, and listen for the Power and Leading of the Holy Spirit.

No two victories are alike; hence, there must be definite exercises of heart and prayer, if the Philistine is to be defeated, not only the first time, but the second time, as well.)

15 And it shall be, when you shall hear a sound of going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then you shall go out to battle: for God is gone forth before you to smite the host of the Philistines (the "sound" which David heard was the coming of the Holy Spirit; He came to stay on the Day of Pentecost [Acts 2:2]).

16 David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gazer (if we have the mind of the Lord, we will always have the victory which such affords).

17 And the fame of David went out into all lands; and the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations (and so shall it be, when the Greater Son of David rules over the entirety of the planet, which will take place after the Second Coming)*.

CHAPTER 15

(1042 B.C.)

ARRANGEMENTS FOR TRANSPORTING THE ARK

1 And David made him houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for the Ark of God, and pitched for it a tent (at this particular time, the Lord had not told David to do otherwise regarding the Ark; that would come later).

2 Then David said, None ought to carry the Ark of God but the Levites: for them has the LORD chosen to carry the Ark of God, and to minister unto Him for ever (David searched the Scriptures and learned how the Ark should be carried [Num. 4:15]; had he done that previously, a man would not have died; Priests were Types of Christ, hence they were ordained to carry the Ark).

3 And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the Ark of the LORD unto his place, which he had prepared for it.

4 And David assembled the children of Aaron, and the Levites:

5 Of the sons of Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twenty:

6 Of the sons of Merari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty:

7 Of the son of Gershom; Joel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and thirty:

8 Of the sons of Elizaphan; Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred:

9 Of the sons of Hebron; Eliel the chief, and his brethren fourscore:

10 Of the sons of Uzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twelve.

11 And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the Priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, 12 And said unto them, You are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, both you and your brethren, that you may bring up the Ark of the LORD God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because you did it not at the first, the LORD our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought Him not after the due order (this Verse speaks of David admitting his sin of some three months earlier; he was speaking of the manner in which the Ark of God was to be transported).

14 So the Priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the Ark of the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the children of the Levites bore the Ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, as Moses commanded according to the Word of the LORD.

SINGERS AND MUSICIANS APPOINTED BY DAVID TO PRAISE GOD BEFORE THE ARK

16 And David spoke to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers with instruments of music, psalteries and harps and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy (this time it will not be an empty profession; the joy will be real, because they are now abiding by the Word of God).

17 So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel (Samuel's grandson); and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the porters.

19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass;

20 And Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries on Alamoth;

21 And Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps on the Sheminith to excel.

22 And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was for song: he instructed about the song, because he was skillful.

23 And Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the Ark.

24 And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the Priests, did blow with the trumpets before the Ark of God: and Obed-edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the Ark. (The great processional that will go into Jerusalem with the Ark of God in its midst will be designed by the Holy Spirit. David seemingly wrote Psalm 68 to commemorate this great event. There were 862 Priests and Levites, plus others consecrated to bear the Ark and to offer Sacrifices.

Three choirs accompanied the Ark. The first choir was led by the Levites. The second choir was made up of maiden singers [Vs. 20]. The third choir was made up of the men singers [Vs. 21].

All three choirs are referred to in Psalms 68:25. The men's choir seemingly went before the musicians, who were following the maidens playing timbrels among or in-between the men singers and the musicians.)

DAVID BRINGS THE ARK TO JERUSALEM

[25] So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom with joy (without proper leadership, such could never have been brought to pass).

[26] And it came to pass, when God helped the Levites who bore the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD, that they offered seven bullocks and seven rams (the Sacrifices typified that all were based upon the shed Blood of the Lamb).

[27] And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites who bore the Ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song with the singers: David also had upon him an ephod of linen (the "linen" represents the "Righteousness of the Saints," and, once again, a Righteousness that did not come from the merit of David, but from the merit of the slain Lamb — hence, the Sacrifices).

[28] Thus all Israel brought up the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps (we find here, as is obvious, all types of musical instruments, and all used for the Glory of God; in fact, the Book of Psalms is the longest Book in the Bible, showing us the emphasis that the Holy Spirit puts upon worship, as it regards music and singing).

MICHAL'S SIN

[29] And it came to pass, as the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart (the "flesh" can never understand things of the "Spirit"; actually, the "flesh" despises all that which is of the "Spirit"; II Sam. 6:20-23 states that "she was childless to the day of her death"; likewise, if the Church disobeys the Word of God, there will be no joy, and the Church also will be barren)*.

CHAPTER 16

(1042 B.C.)

THE SACRIFICES AND MUSIC

[1] So they brought the Ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered Burnt Sacrifices and Peace Offerings before God. (Once again, the Holy Spirit calls attention to the Sacrifices, which typified Calvary. We aren't told where these Sacrifices were offered, whether at Gibeon, where the Brazen Altar was located, or whether a makeshift Altar was constructed nearby the Ark of the Covenant. At any rate, wherever they were offered at this time, everything seemed to be in the Will of God.)

[2] And when David had made an end of offering the Burnt Offerings and the Peace Offerings, he blessed the people in the Name of the LORD (everything was built and ordered on the basis of the Cross, which the Sacrifices typified).

[3] And he dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to everyone a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine. (It is very difficult to explain to the reader the significance of this moment in Israel's history. The "Ark of God" was symbolic of all of Israel's power, strength, and glory. With the "Ark," she was the most powerful nation on Earth; without the "Ark," she was nothing. David understood this; sadly, most of the kings who were to later come did not understand it.

Likewise, the Presence of God in our Churches is the only thing of any real value. But sadly, most Churches are little more than a business. There is no Presence of God and, in fact, there never has been. The sacrificial meal denoted fellowship, joy, and communion.)

[4] And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the Ark of the LORD, and to record, and to thank and praise the LORD God of Israel:

5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom: and Jeiel with psalteries and with harps; but Asaph made a sound with cymbals;

6 Benaiah also and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually before the Ark of the Covenant of God. (The word "continually" means both morning and evening, and at the time of the morning and evening sacrifices. This means that the choirs would worship the Lord by singing the Psalms each day at 9 a.m. [the time of the morning sacrifice] and 3 p.m. [the time of the evening sacrifice]. This would be done each day, with the exception of the Sabbath, which was the day of rest.)

DAVID'S PSALM OF THANKSGIVING

7 Then on that day David delivered first this Psalm to thank the LORD into the hand of Asaph and his brethren. (There are five great words which make up the entirety of this Psalm, which comprises praise and worship in our living for God. They are: "Give," "Sing," "Glory," "Seek," and "Remember.")

8 Give thanks unto the LORD, call upon His Name, make known His deeds among the people (the Believer must constantly give thanks).

9 Sing unto Him, sing Psalms unto Him, talk you of all His wondrous Works (we are to sing to Him, and the song should be about His wondrous Works).

10 Glory you in His Holy Name: let the heart of them rejoice who seek the LORD (our "Glory" is to be in "His Holy Name," which incorporates His Character and Power; we then have the assurance that He will hear our prayers).

11 Seek the LORD and His Strength, seek His Face continually (and about everything!).

12 Remember His marvelous Works that He has done, His Wonders, and the Judgments of His Mouth (His Word and His Works are to ever be remembered);

13 O you seed of Israel His Servant, you Children of Jacob, His chosen Ones (out of all the Earth, chosen!).

14 He is the LORD our God; His Judgments are in all the Earth (He Alone is the Creator).

15 Be you mindful always of His Covenant; the Word which He commanded to a thousand generations (in other words, unending!);

16 Even of the Covenant which He made with Abraham, and of His Oath unto Isaac (Gen. 17:2; 26:3; 28:13; 35:11);

17 And has confirmed the same to Jacob for a Law, and to Israel for an Everlasting Covenant,

18 Saying, Unto you will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance (the Bible is the greatest title deed known to man; pure and simple, it allots here the "land of Canaan" to Israel, and not the so-called Palestinians, as claimed by the Muslims);

19 When you were but few, even a few, and strangers in it.

20 And when they went from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people (before the land of Israel was occupied);

21 He suffered no man to do them wrong: yes, He reproved kings for their sakes (Gen. 12:17; 20:3; Ex. 7:15-18), 22 Saying, Touch not My anointed, and do My Prophets no harm.

23 Sing unto the LORD, all the Earth; show forth from day to day His Salvation.

24 Declare His glory among the heathen; His marvelous works among all nations (evangelize the world!).

[25] For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised: He also is to be feared above all gods.

[26] For all the gods of the people are idols: but the LORD made the heavens (there is One God, and only One, and He is the Creator of all things).

[27] Glory and honour are in His Presence; strength and gladness are in His Place.

[28] Give unto the LORD, you kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength (give Him the credit He is due).

[29] Give unto the LORD the glory due unto His Name: bring an offering, and come before Him: worship the LORD in the beauty of Holiness.

[30] Fear before Him, all the Earth: the world also shall be stable, that it be not moved (that will one day be!).

[31] Let the heavens be glad, and let the Earth rejoice: and let men say among the nations, The LORD reigns (in the coming Kingdom Age, this Scripture will be fulfilled).

[32] Let the sea roar, and the fullness thereof: let the fields rejoice, and all that is therein (rejoice in the Lord!).

[33] Then shall the trees of the wood sing out at the presence of the LORD, because He comes to judge the Earth (the coming Kingdom Age!).

[34] O give thanks unto the LORD; for He is good; for His Mercy endures for ever (what a Promise!).

[35] And say you, Save us, O God of our Salvation, and gather us together, and deliver us from the heathen, that we may give thanks to Your Holy Name, and glory in Your praise.

[36] Blessed be the LORD God of Israel for ever and ever. And all the people said, Amen, and praised the LORD (the entirety of this Psalm can probably be summed up in the great phrase of Verse 25, "For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised").

ATTENDANTS TO THE ARK

[37] So he left there before the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD Asaph and his brethren, to minister before the Ark continually, as every day's work required (the great celebration of worship was not to be discontinued after the installment of the Ark; it was to be "continually"; too often those who name the Name of Christ worship the Lord only on selected days or times; the Holy Spirit is saying here, "Every day, continually")**:

[38] And Obed-edom with their brethren, threescore and eight; Obed-edom also the son of Jeduthun and Hosah to be porters (this man, in whose house the Ark of God had been left by David for some three months, would forsake all that he had in order to be near the "Ark"; he would be associated with the singers and musicians; the Holy Spirit would be so pleased with his actions, dedication, and service that He would mention his name some 20 times throughout the Word of God, and always in a positive way; what an honor!)**:

[39] And Zadok the Priest, and his brethren the Priests, before the Tabernacle of the LORD in the high place that was at Gibeon,

[40] To offer Burnt Offerings unto the LORD upon the Altar of the Burnt Offering continually morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the Law of the LORD, which He commanded Israel (the Ark was in Jerusalem, while the Brazen Altar was at Gibeon, about 5 miles northwest of Jerusalem; evidently, the Table of Shewbread, Golden Lampstand, and Altar of Incense were in Gibeon, as well! They would remain separated until the Temple was built, some years later)**;

[41] And with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest who were chosen, who were expressed by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because His Mercy endures for ever;

42 And with them Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those who should make a sound, and with musical instruments of God. And the sons of Jeduthun were porters (under David, the great worship of God regarding musical instrumentation and choirs actually began; of course, he was led by the Lord to do so; the Book of Psalms was Earth's first songbook; David wrote at least half of those that are recorded, and possibly others that do not bear his name; in fact, some parts of the Psalm given in this Chapter are incorporated into Psalm 105).

43 And all the people departed every man to his house: and David returned to bless his house.

CHAPTER 17

(1042 B.C.)

DAVID'S DESIRE TO BUILD THE TEMPLE

[1] Now it came to pass, as David sat in his house, that David said to Nathan the Prophet, Lo, I dwell in an house of cedars, but the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD remains under curtains (David is here a Type of the Lord Jesus Christ residing in Jerusalem in the glories of the Kingdom Age; all enemies are defeated; David desires to build a house for the Lord; this pictures the beginning of the Kingdom Age, when the Lord Jesus, as a "greater than Solomon" will begin to build His "House").

[2] Then Nathan said unto David, Do all that is in your heart; for God is with you (while the Lord definitely was with David, it was not the Will of God that David build the House; this tells us that irrespective as to who the person might be, even a Prophet such as Nathan, we must not assume that we know what God wants; we must seek His Face about everything, which Nathan did not then do).

GOD'S COVENANT WITH DAVID

[3] And it came to pass the same night, that the Word of God came to Nathan, saying (as to how the Lord spoke to Nathan, we aren't told; however, the main thing is, Nathan was in such a spiritual condition that God could speak to him; regrettably, that isn't the case with most)**,

[4] Go and tell David My servant, Thus says the LORD, you shall not build Me an house to dwell in (the Hebrew marks the personal pronoun, "you," as emphatic; "you" shall not build)**:

[5] For I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up Israel (out of Egypt) unto this day; but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another (the Lord means to remind David how surely and faithfully He had shared the pilgrim lot and unsettledness of His people).

[6] Wheresoever I have walked with all Israel, spoke I a word to any of the Judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed My people, saying, Why have you not built Me an house of cedars? (The Lord had shared their lot, and had shared it unmurmuringly.)

[7] Now therefore thus shall you say unto My Servant David, Thus says the LORD of Hosts, I took you from the sheepcote, even from following the sheep, that you should be ruler over My People Israel (this Verse records the price of admission into this house; it is trust in the "slain Lamb," by the route of humility; as well, David was a shepherd, and the Lord Jesus Christ also would be a Shepherd [Heb. 13:20])**:

[8] And I have been with you whithersoever you have walked, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a name like the name of the great men who are in the Earth (God will be with those who desire to be with Him).

[9] Also I will ordain a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them anymore, as at the beginning (this is God's unconditional Covenant with Israel; however, it must be stated that this unconditional Covenant is unconditional only in the sense that God will bring the Promises to pass irrespective; the only thing that is unconditional is the Covenant itself; to come into the blessing of the Covenant, one must meet its conditions, which is Faith in Christ and what Christ has done at the Cross; those Jews who do this will definitely dwell in the place ordained for them, which is the land of Israel; this includes all Jews who have accepted Christ before death, and all those who will accept Him at the Second Coming)**,

[10] And since the time that I commanded Judges to be over My people Israel. Moreover I will subdue all your enemies. Furthermore I tell you that the LORD will build you an house (the more complete fulfillment of this Promise awaits the coming of the Messiah [Isa. 9:6-7; Rom. 11:25-27]).

GOD PROMISES DAVID AN ETERNAL KINGDOM; HIS SON WILL BUILD THE TEMPLE

11 And it shall come to pass, when your days be expired that you must go to be with your fathers, that I will raise up your seed after you, which shall be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom (this has a double application, with Solomon being spoken of in the immediate present, but far more so in the Lord Jesus Christ as the "Son of David").

12 He shall build Me an house, and I will stablish his throne for ever (the total fulfillment will be in Christ, Who will occupy this Throne in the coming Kingdom Age, and then forever).

13 I will be his father, and he shall be My son: and I will not take My Mercy away from him, as I took it from him (Saul) who was before you:

14 But I will settle him in My House and in My Kingdom for ever: and his throne shall be established for evermore (the Arabs should read these words, and consider them carefully; in fact, the entirety of the world needs to read them, and to consider them carefully).

15 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

DAVID'S PRAYER AND THANKSGIVING

16 And David the king came and sat before the LORD, and said, Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my house, that You have brought me hitherto? (David now knows fully and beyond the shadow of a doubt that the Messiah will come through his lineage.)

17 And yet this was a small thing in Your eyes, O God; for You have also spoken of Your servant's house for a great while to come, and have regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God (even though it is not recorded in this Chapter, still, in II Sam. 7:19, David says, "And is this the manner of man, O LORD God?" This refers to the Promise that the Seed of the woman shall bruise the serpent's head [Gen. 3:15]; that is, from David's line the Messiah will come, bringing eternal Salvation and reigning as the eternal King of the Earth; this would be the highest honor that God could show any man, i.e., "high degree").

[18] What can David speak more to You for the honour of Your servant? for You know Your servant (meaning that David in no way could merit this great and high honor, even as no Child of God can merit the high honor of Salvation freely given by the Lord Jesus Christ).

[19] O LORD, for Your servant's sake, and according to Your own heart, have You done all this greatness, in making known all these great things (once again, David exclaims the Glory of God, which is so much greater than what he at first thought; he wanted to build a house for the Lord; instead, the Lord tells David that He will build him a house, and it will be eternal).

[20] O LORD, there is none like You, neither is there any God beside You, according to all that we have heard with our ears (no heathen god, which, in fact, was no god at all, but rather figments of men's imaginations, could compare with this!).

[21] And what one nation in the Earth is like Your people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be His own People, to make You a name of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before Your People, whom You have redeemed out of Egypt? (Israel constituted the only people on Earth who knew Jehovah, the Creator of the ages.)

[22] For Your people Israel did You make Your own people for ever; and You, LORD, became their God (this meant that Israel was light-years, so to speak, above every other nation in the world).

[23] Therefore now, LORD, let the thing that You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house be established for ever, and do as

You have said (this has only partially been fulfilled, but definitely will be fulfilled in the coming Kingdom Age).

[24] Let it even be established, that Your Name may be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of Hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel: and let the House of David Your servant be established before You (hence Jesus said to the woman at Jacob's well, "For Salvation is of the Jews" [Jn. 4:22]; it was through Israel that Jesus, the Saviour of the world, came!).

[25] For You, O my God, have told Your servant that You will build him an house: therefore Your servant has found in his heart to pray before You (when prayers are found in the heart, they are the result of gratitude or the overflow of some desperate need).

[26] And now, LORD, You are God, and have promised this goodness unto Your servant (God keeps His Promises!)**:

[27] Now therefore let it please You to bless the house of Your servant, that it may be before You for ever: for You bless, O LORD, and it shall be blessed for ever (what God has blessed, nothing can curse [Num. 23:8, 20]).

CHAPTER 18

(1040 B.C.)

EXPLOITS AND VICTORIES OF DAVID

[1] Now after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and her towns out of the hand of the Philistines.

[2] And he smote Moab; and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts (this illustrates the moral fact, always true, that when Christ is set upon the throne of the heart, victory over both inward and outward enemies is assured; but the inward is always first conquered, as in the case of David and the Philistines in this Chapter, and then the outward will be conquered).

[3] And David smote Hadarezer king of Zobah unto Hamath ("Hadarezer" means "my demon helper"; so, despite demon spirits helping this man, David, who was greater, "smote" them), as he went to stablish his dominion by the river Euphrates (this was the northeastern extremity of the kingdom promised to Abraham by the Lord [Gen. 15:18]; through our "Heavenly David," the Lord Jesus Christ, we can conquer and, in fact, must conquer, every part of our inheritance).

[4] And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed (made them unfit for chariot use) all the chariot horses, but reserved of them an hundred chariots (Israel's strength was not chariots, but rather the Lord!).

[5] And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David killed of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men (all this is a Type of Christ, Who will defeat every enemy at the Cross [Col. 2:14-15]; when our Faith and trust are placed exclusively in Him and the Cross,

His victory then becomes our victory!).

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria-damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went (it is the Will of God, and even the insistence of the Lord, that we subdue not just some of our spiritual enemies, but all; we must rule the sin nature, and not the sin nature ruling us [Rom. 6:3-14]).

DEDICATION TO THE LORD

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem (the wealth of Zobah was illustrated by the shields of gold; now this wealth belongs to the people of God, stipulating the coming Kingdom Age).

8 Likewise from Tibhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much brass, wherewith Solomon made the Brasen Sea, and the Pillars, and the vessels of brass (all of this, formerly used for heathen idols, will now be used for God, as it regards the building of the Temple; this symbolizes the Believer, who is brought out of sin and darkness, brought to the Family of God, and made to be "a pillar in the Temple of My God" [Rev. 3:12]).

9 Now when Tou king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah;

10 He sent Hadoram his son to king David, to enquire of his welfare, and to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him; (for Hadarezer had war with Tou;) and with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass (portraying his submission to David).

11 Them also king David dedicated unto the LORD, with the silver and the gold that he brought from all these nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek (if the Lord does see fit to bless us with worldly riches, it must, without fail, be "dedicated unto the LORD," and not to our own selfish desires).

12 Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah killed of the Edomites in the valley of salt eighteen thousand (those who were with David experienced, as well, David's anointing).

13 And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went (this statement is repeated from Verse 6, and with purpose; it is meant to impress upon all that the Lord was the Source of David's victories, and the Lord Alone!).

14 So David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgment and justice among all his people. (This means that no enemy occupied any part of the land. How many of us can say that we "reign over all the possession that God has given us"? It can be done only through Faith expressed in Christ and what Christ has done for us at the Cross, which then gives us the help of the Holy Spirit, without Whom nothing can be done [Rom. 8:1-2, 11].)

15 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host (general of the army); and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, recorder.

16 And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were the Priests; and Shavsha was scribe;

17 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites (these last two groups were probably Philistines who served as David's bodyguards; they had, thereby, thrown in their lot with David, consequently forsaking their past, in effect, symbolic of all Believers); and the sons of David were chief about the king.

CHAPTER 19

(1037 B.C.)

DAVID'S MESSENGERS HUMILIATED AND INSULTED

1 Now it came to pass after this, that Nahash (means "shining serpent") the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead.

2 And David said, I will show kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him (a perfect Type of our Heavenly David sending Godly Preachers and Teachers to the world to comfort them with the Gospel; this comfort alone is valid!).

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, Think you that David does honour your father, that he has sent comforters unto you? are not his servants come unto you for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land? (Evil cannot discern righteousness, but rather sees evil in everything.)

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst hard by their buttocks, and sent them away (greatly humiliated them!).

5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

DAVID DEFEATS AMMON

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-maachah, and out of Zobah.

7 So they hired thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people; who came and pitched before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle (this speaks in prophetic tones of the Antichrist, who will attempt, once and for all, to overthrow Christ and to destroy Israel; however, let the axis hosts be ever so strong, for they cannot overcome the Divine energy which offered Grace and, that being rejected, now decrees Judgment).

8 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men (the Holy Spirit is quick to emphasize the fact that some of these men were "mighty").

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of the city: and the kings who were come were by themselves in the field (the heathen kings were together in a prominent place observing the battle).

10 Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose out of all the choice of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians (set the "mighty men" against the Syrians).

11 And the rest of the people (the army) he delivered unto the hand of Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in array against the children of Ammon (evidently, the Syrians were stronger than the Ammonites).

12 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then you shall help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for you, then I will help you.

13 Be of good courage, and let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God: and let the LORD do that which is good in His sight.

14 So Joab and the people who were with him drew near before the Syrians unto the battle; and they fled before him (resist Satan, and he will flee from you [James 4:7]).

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his (Joab's) brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

DAVID DEFEATS THE SYRIANS

16 And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians who were beyond the river: and Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them (made another excursion).

17 And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him.

18 But the Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed of the Syrians seven thousand men who fought in chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the host.

19 And when the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with David, and became his servants: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more (likewise, at the conclusion of the great Battle of Armageddon, with Jesus Christ reigning as the Lord of Heaven and Earth, the world will make peace with our Heavenly David and, in effect, will become His servant).

CHAPTER 20

AMMONITE WAR: JOAB AND DAVID CAPTURE RABBAH

[1] And it came to pass, that after the year was expired, at the time that kings go out to battle, Joab led forth the power of the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried at Jerusalem. And Joab smote Rabbah, and destroyed it. (This Chapter coincides with II Sam., Chpt. 11, but with a glaring difference. David's sin with Bath-sheba and the sin concerning her husband are totally omitted. Why?

I and II Samuel and I and II Kings give these accounts from the human standpoint; I and II Chronicles, from God's standpoint.

David had repented of these terrible sins [Ps. 51]. So now, as far as the Lord was concerned, it is as if David had never committed these sins, and so it is with all who place their sins at the foot of the Cross [I Jn. 1:7, 9].)

[2] And David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold (about 75 pounds), and there were precious stones in it; and it was set upon David's head: and he brought also exceeding much spoil out of the city (at Calvary, Jesus defeated Satan, and took the crown from his head; this victory is now ours [Col. 2:14-15]).

[3] And he brought out the people who were in it, and cut them with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes (would have been better translated, "appointed them certain tasks," because the Hebrew word for "cut" is "sur," and does not literally mean to cut with something material). Even so dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon (put them into submission to himself). And David and all the people (army) returned to Jerusalem.

PHILISTINE GIANTS SLAIN

4 And it came to pass after this, that there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines; at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite killed Sippai, that was of the children of the giant: and they were subdued (II Sam. 21:18).

5 And there was war again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear staff was like a weaver's beam (II Sam. 21:19).

6 And yet again there was war at Gath, where was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot: and he also was the son of the giant (II Sam. 21:20).

7 But when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea David's brother killed him.

8 These were born unto the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants. (In I Sam., Chpt. 17; II Sam., Chpt. 21; and, I Chron., Chpt. 20, some five giants are spoken of. It seems they were brothers [II Sam. 21:19-22]. These were the last of the mighty races of giants, who were the offspring of fallen angels and women, in Satan's efforts to pollute the human race, so that the Seed of the woman, the Lord Jesus Christ, might not be able to come into the world in order to redeem Adam's fallen race [Gen. 6:4].

These also represent hindrances in our particular Christian lives, which seek to usurp authority over God's rule. Every Satanic "giant" in our lives must be destroyed. There is no room for compromise. The "flesh" must die, and the "Spirit" must reign supreme. This can be done only by the Believer placing his Faith exclusively in Christ and the Cross, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work in our hearts and lives, bringing forth complete victory [Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11].)

CHAPTER 21

(1017 B.C.)

DAVID'S SIN IN TAKING A CENSUS

1 And Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel. (II Sam. 24:1 says, "God moved David" to do such. Is there a contradiction?

No. We learn from these Passages that Satan can do nothing against a Child of God, but that God allows it. He permits Satan a limited power in bringing merited judgment upon men. Why did the Lord allow this against David? The following Passages will tell us.)

2 And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it. (What the Philistines, Ammonites, and Syrians failed to effect, this mental weapon of subtle temptation accomplished. It was "pride"!

What could be more laudable than to verify the truthfulness of the promise made to Abraham that his children should exceed the stars in multitude? However, to seek to carnally verify a Divine Promise brings deadness to the soul! And such a desire leads not to the Bible, but from the Bible.)

3 And Joab answered, The LORD make his people an hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then does my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Israel? (It was not wrong to take a census; however, to do so, Exodus 30:12 demanded a half-shekel of silver be paid for each individual. It was referred to as "ransom money," meaning, in essence, that all the Children of Israel were purchased by the Blood of the Lamb, for "silver" was a type of Redemption in Old Testament terminology. In ignoring this command of the Lord to pay the ransom money, a half-shekel of the sanctuary for each person taken in the census, David was bypassing the Cross, which God can never allow!)

4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem. (It is doubtful that Joab would have known of the admonition of the payment of the half-shekel, but he felt that what David was doing was wrong, which it was. It seems, as well, that David never bothered to consult the Word, even as he didn't bother to consult the Word concerning the transportation of the Ark [Chpt. 13]. God cannot abide a violation of the Word, even in His most choice servants, as David. The results will not be pleasant!)

5 And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men who drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand men who drew sword. (The numbers do not tally with II Sam., Chpt. 24. The explanation is: Chronicles says, "All Israel were 1,100,000 men who drew sword," while II Samuel says, "800,000 valiant men who drew sword." Evidently, 300,000 were young soldiers that could not justly be deemed as "valiant." Similar details appear respecting Judah. II Samuel states that "the men of Judah were 500,000"; Chronicles records the number as "470,000." Evidently, therefore, the remaining 30,000 were either untrained men or non-combatants.)

6 But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king's word was abominable to Joab. (Joab was a man of the world. He had not the spiritual insight of David; and yet, at times, such will have a better spiritual insight than a self-willed Believer. Such is the case here!)

DAVID CHOOSES HIS PUNISHMENT

7 And God was displeased with this thing; therefore He smote Israel. (The Lord was displeased because David had ignored, when taking the census, the payment of the ransom money of silver, which typified Redemption, which, of course, typified Calvary. The Lord will "smite" all who follow this course. In fact, He has no choice. It is the Judgment of God on Christ, which speaks of the Cross, or it's Judgment on the people. If the Cross is ignored, Judgment is the inevitable result.)

[8] And David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech you, do away the iniquity of your servant; for I have done very foolishly. (Let all know and understand, to treat the Cross with disdain is a "great sin." All who ignore the Cross do so "foolishly"!)

[9] And the LORD spoke unto Gad, David's Seer, saying (the Lord presently is speaking to His Prophets, at least what precious few there presently are; regrettably, the modern Church is not hearing and obeying the Message, as David did)**,

[10] Go and tell David, saying, Thus says the LORD, I offer you three things: choose you one of them, that I may do it unto you.

[11] So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus says the LORD, You choose

[12] Either three years' famine; or three months to be destroyed before your foes, while that the sword of your enemies overtakes you; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the Angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coast of Israel. Now therefore advise yourself what word I shall bring again to Him Who sent me. (As stated, sin has to be addressed, whether in Christ and what He did for us at the Cross, or Judgment upon men. Let all understand, the only answer for sin is the Cross of Christ [Heb. 10:12].)

[13] And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait (sin does exactly that; it puts a person in a "great strait"): let me fall now into the hand of the LORD; for very great are His Mercies: but let me not fall into the hand of man (very bad, at any rate, but an extremely wise choice!)**.

[14] So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men (in Exodus 30:12, the Lord said there would be a "plague among them," if the "half-shekel" was not paid as ransom money for each person; it should be understood here that God means what He says; what type of "pestilence" it was, we aren't told!).

15 And God sent an Angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and He repented Him of the evil, and said to the Angel who destroyed, It is enough, stay now your hand. And the Angel of the LORD stood by the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite. (The word "repented," as used of the Lord, doesn't mean that God changes, for, in fact, He never changes [Mal. 3:6]; however, His Direction may vary according to the obedience or disobedience of man.

It was not coincidental that the Angel "stood by the threshingfloor." As always, the wheat must be separated from the chaff, and it takes a threshingfloor to do that [Mat. 3:12].

We find from this Text that the sin of ignoring the Cross is at least one of the worst sins, if not the worst sin, that can be committed. The degree of judgment, 70,000 men dying, guarantees that fact.)

16 And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the Angel of the LORD stand between the Earth and the Heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces (the "sackcloth" denoted humility and Repentance; God has promised to look with favor at such [Isa. 66:2]).

17 And David said unto God, Is it not I who commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is who has sinned and done evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done? let Your hand, I pray You, O LORD my God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on Your people, that they should be plagued. (In a sense, David stood here similar to Moses, when the Lord was about to destroy them, as it regards the golden calf [Ex. 32:11-14]. As well, and even more importantly, David is here a Type of Christ, Who, at this moment, is interceding for all Believers [Heb. 7:25-26].)

DAVID BUYS THE TEMPLE SITE; BUILDS AN ALTAR; MAKES ATONEMENT

18 Then the Angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and set up an Altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite. (This would be the exact place where the Temple would be built. So, "where sin abounded, grace did much more abound" [Rom. 5:20]. That which David had ignored in taking the census, the "Altar," which typified the Cross, must be erected here. This is why Paul said, "We preach Christ Crucified" [I Cor. 1:23]. The modern Church presently casts about in its dilemma, trying to find a solution. The only solution is the Cross. The Church must go back to the Cross.)

19 And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spoke in the Name of the LORD (the true Prophets of God are saying the same thing presently to the modern Church, "Build an Altar"; but, regrettably, they are little heeded).

20 And Ornan (who owned the threshingfloor) turned back, and saw the Angel; and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat. (The picture is striking: the wrath of God about to fall upon the city, the guilty king confessing his sin, the spotless Sacrifice slain, the judgment of God vindicated and honored.

This Grace is the more apparent and all-embracing, when it is noticed that the ground upon which this most satisfactory Sacrifice was offered up belonged to a Gentile, Araunah, the Jebusite.)

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshingfloor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground (he was evidently surprised at seeing the king at this place).

22 Then David said to Ornan, Grant me the place of this threshingfloor, that I may build an Altar therein unto the LORD: you shall grant it me for the full price: that the plague may be stayed from the people.

23 And Ornan said unto David, Take it to you, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give you the oxen also for Burnt Offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the Meat Offering; I give it all (it seems that this Jebusite was very well acquainted with the various Offerings of Israel).

[24] And king David said to Ornan, No; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is yours for the LORD, nor offer Burnt Offerings without cost (sin can never be atoned for without the "full price" of the Blood of Calvary; the problem with the Church is bloodless altars and a cross-less salvation; in fact, such do not exist; man cannot be redeemed by half measures; as stated, it has to be the "full price" — the Precious shed Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ [Jn. 3:16]).

[25] So David gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight (about $60,000 in 2004 money).

[26] And David built there an Altar unto the LORD, and offered Burnt Offerings and Peace Offerings, and called upon the LORD; and He answered him from Heaven by fire upon the Altar of Burnt Offering. (The lightning coming from Heaven and striking the Sacrifice is a picture of God's Judgment on sin — the Judgment, we may quickly add, that should have fallen on David, and on us, for that matter, but, instead, fell upon Christ. The choice belongs to man! Man can accept the Judgment that fell on Christ, and do so by accepting Christ, which sets the sinner free. Or he can rebel against Christ, and suffer the lightning-strike of Judgment upon himself. There is no alternative!).

[27] And the LORD commanded the Angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof (the only thing that stands between Judgment of the entirety of this planet and God Almighty is the Cross of Christ).

[28] At that time when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there (Verses 28-29 proclaim to us that the Lord told David that this site would now become the site of the Temple, soon to be constructed).

[29] For the Tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the Altar of the Burnt Offering, were at that season in the high place at Gibeon (about 5 miles northwest of Jerusalem).

30 But David could not go before it to enquire of God: for he was afraid because of the sword of the Angel of the LORD (the Tabernacle represented the Law, "but Grace and Truth came by Jesus Christ" [Jn. 1:17]).

CHAPTER 22

(1017 B.C.)

PREPARATION FOR BUILDING THE TEMPLE

[1] Then David said, This is the House of the LORD God, and this is the Altar of the Burnt Offering for Israel (in other words, this is where the House of the Lord will be built).

[2] And David commanded to gather together the strangers who were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the House of God (David's heart, until the day of his death, would be for the preparation of the Temple construction).

[3] And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joinings; and brass in abundance without weight (here we have the beginning of gathering the materials for the Temple — not counted in the 7½ years of the actual construction by Solomon);

[4] Also cedar trees in abundance: for the Zidonians and they of Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.

[5] And David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the House that is to be built for the LORD must be exceeding magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death (this "House" was to be "in type" the Millennial Glory of the Messiah, just as the Tabernacle had set forth His Mediatorial Glory).

DAVID CHARGES SOLOMON TO BUILD THE TEMPLE

[6] Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build an House for the LORD God of Israel (Solomon was chosen by the Lord [I Ki. 1:30, 37, 39]).

7 And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build an House unto the Name of the LORD my God:

8 But the Word of the LORD came to me saying, You have shed blood abundantly, and have made great wars: you shall not build an House unto My Name, because you have shed much blood upon the Earth in My sight (David typifies Christ as a Man of war, destroying His enemies; Solomon, as Christ, the Prince of Peace, reigning over a kingdom free from these enemies).

9 Behold, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days (this Verse proclaims that Solomon was named before he was born; he was one of the seven men in the Bible named before birth).

10 He shall build an House for My Name; and he shall be My son, and I will be his Father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever (the complete fulfillment will be in Christ, and will take place in the coming Kingdom Age [Isa., Chpt. 11]).

11 Now, my son, the LORD be with you; and prosper you, and build the House of the LORD your God, as He has said of you (the charge by David given to Solomon).

12 Only the LORD give you wisdom and understanding, and give you charge concerning Israel, that you may keep the Law of the LORD your God (these words said by David may have been the germ of Solomon's own prayer, which "pleased the Lord" [I Ki. 3:5-14; II Chron. 1:7-12]).

13 Then shall you prosper, if you take heed to fulfill the Statutes and Judgments which the LORD charged Moses with concerning Israel: be strong, and of good courage; dread not, nor be dismayed (basically, David quotes the very words given by the Lord to Joshua, which were given about 500 years earlier; however, a general Promise given by the Lord is applicable to anyone who will dare to believe!).

14 Now, behold, in my trouble I have prepared for the House of the LORD an hundred thousand talents of gold (approximately $50 billion in 2004 currency), and a thousand thousand talents of silver (approximately $100 million in 2004 currency); and of brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and you may add thereto (these words confirm what so often appears in the character of David, that all through his stormy life of warfare, his heart was true to one great purpose, the establishment of the House of God, and the Peace of God in the midst of the people of God).

15 Moreover there are workmen with you in abundance, hewers and workers of stone and timber, and all manner of cunning men for every manner of work.

16 Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise therefore, and be doing, and the LORD be with you (this command, "Arise... and be doing," should be the criteria for every Believer, as well!).

17 David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying,

18 Is not the LORD your God with you? and has He not given you rest on every side? for He has given the inhabitants of the land into my hand; and the land is subdued before the LORD, and before His people. (At long last, every enemy has been defeated, and the great Promises of God have been brought to fulfillment. What a moment!)

19 Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God; arise therefore, and build you the Sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the House that is to be built to the Name of the LORD (this is basically the same Word given by Christ in Mat. 6:33).

CHAPTER 23

DAVID MAKES SOLOMON KING

[1] So when David was old and full of days, he made Solomon his son king over Israel. (As previously stated, David was a Type of Christ defeating all His enemies, and putting down Satan and all the minions of darkness, which He did at the Cross. Solomon is a Type of Christ resting in splendor and glory, victorious and triumphant over all enemies, reigning in the coming Kingdom Age, such as the world has never known.)

[2] And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the Priests and the Levites (this is a foretype of the glorious day when the Lord Jesus Christ will reign supreme in Jerusalem, and will, as outlined by Ezek., Chpts. 40-48, gather the worship classes [Priests and Levites] together to establish the worship of God in Israel, and for the entire world, for that matter).

[3] Now the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years and upward: and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty and eight thousand (this was changed to 25 years in Num. 8:24 and to 20 years by David in Verse 27; the reason for the lowering of the age was because of the need for greater numbers to service the Temple in the great Work for God).

[4] Of which, twenty and four thousand were to set forward the work of the House of the LORD; and six thousand were officers and judges:

[5] Moreover four thousand were porters; and four thousand praised the LORD with the instruments which I made, said David, to praise therewith (it is interesting to note that the workers and the worshippers are equal in number; consequently, we have here the tremendous emphasis placed by the Holy Spirit on worship; as well, the worship consisted of singing and music, which constitutes one of the greatest forms of praise and worship there is).

6 And David divided them into courses among the sons of Levi, namely, Gershon, Kohath, and Merari (all the many thousands of Levites who served in the Work of God came under one of these three designations).

7 Of the Gershonites were, Laadan, and Shimei.

8 The sons of Laadan; the chief was Jehiel, and Zetham, and Joel, three.

9 The sons of Shimei; Shelomith, and Haziel, and Haran, three. These were the chief of the fathers of Laadan.

10 And the sons of Shimei were, Jahath, Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei.

11 And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second: but Jeush and Beriah had not many sons; therefore they were in one reckoning, according to their father's house.

12 The sons of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.

13 The sons of Amram; Aaron and Moses: and Aaron was separated, that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons for ever, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister unto Him, and to bless in His Name for ever (all the Priests were to be in the lineage of Aaron).

14 Now concerning Moses the man of God, his sons were named of the Tribe of Levi.

15 The sons of Moses were, Gershom, and Eliezer.

16 Of the sons of Gershom, Shebuel was the chief.

17 And the sons of Eliezer were, Rehabiah the chief. And Eliezer had none other sons; but the sons of Rehabiah were very many.

18 Of the sons of Izhar; Shelomith the chief.

19 Of the sons of Hebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

20 Of the sons of Uzziel; Micah the first, and Jesiah the second.

21 The sons of Merari; Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli; Eleazar, and Kish.

22 And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters: and their brethren the sons of Kish took them.

23 The sons of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jeremoth, three.

THE MINISTRY OF THE LEVITES

24 These were the sons of Levi after the house of their fathers; even the chief of the fathers, as they were counted by number of names by their polls, who did the work for the service of the House of the LORD, from the age of twenty years and upward (this Verse and Verse 27 proclaim the lowering of the age for the Priests and the Levites to 20 years old and upward).

25 For David said, The LORD God of Israel has given rest unto His people, that they may dwell in Jerusalem for ever (regrettably, because of sin, they were driven from Jerusalem and all the Holy Land; but in the future, they will be restored, and will fulfill God's original purpose [Isa. 11:1-12])**:

26 And also unto the Levites; they shall no more carry the Tabernacle, nor any vessels of it for the service thereof (because once the Temple is built, these Vessels will move no more).

27 For by the last words of David the Levites were numbered from twenty years old and above (included in his last instructions)**:

[28] Because their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the House of the LORD, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of the House of God;

[29] Both for the shewbread, and for the fine flour for Meat Offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for that which is baked in the pan, and for that which is fried, and for all manner of measure and size (all these things were a constant necessity, meaning their work never ended; it did end when Jesus went to the Cross, thereby fulfilling all rudiments of the Law, plus its ceremonies and rituals)**;

[30] And to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise at evening (seemingly, a choir met every morning at 9 a.m., and every evening at 3 p.m., at the time of the morning and evening sacrifices, in order to praise the Lord; this was done daily)**;

[31] And to offer all Burnt Sacrifices unto the LORD in the sabbaths, in the new moons, and on the set feasts, by number, according to the order commanded unto them, continually before the LORD (the Priests alone performed the actual sacrifices, which was done every day)**:

[32] And that they should keep the charge of the Tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the Holy Place, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brethren, in the service of the House of the LORD (here the Priests are reminded of their representative character and position, and of the solemn responsibility which rested on them).

CHAPTER 24

(1015 B.C.)

THE GROUPING OF THE PRIESTS: BY LOT INTO 24 COURSES

[1] Now these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. The sons of Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar (these were the four sons of Aaron).

[2] But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children (were stricken dead by the Lord for offering "strange fire" [Lev. 10:1-2]): therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the Priest's office (from the two remaining sons, the order of Priests would derive their office).

[3] And David distributed them, both Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service (these two men were given the responsibility of these offices).

[4] And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and thus were they divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar according to the house of their fathers (these total 24; therefore, all the order of divisions of Priests would come from these original 24 sons, constituting 24 different orders).

[5] Thus were they divided by lot, one sort with another; for the governors of the sanctuary, and governors of the House of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar (as stated, there were 24 courses, which had their origination in the 24 sons of Eleazar and Ithamar, who, incidentally, lived many years before).

[6] And Shemaiah the son of Nethaneel the scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them before the king, and the princes, and Zadok the Priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and before the chief of the fathers of the Priests and Levites: one principal household being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar.

7 Now the first lot came forth to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah (the first order of Priests, consisting actually of many Priests, would have been the "Jehoiarib order or division"; the second, third, and so forth, would have been after their own respective names given in these Passages; the 24 chief men, who went by their respective names given, were governors of the House of the Lord in their own turn, one week at a time; each Priest would serve from Sabbath to Sabbath; Zechariah [Lk 1:5], the father of John the Baptist, belonged to the 8th course, which is the course of Abijah [Vs. 10]; it is interesting to learn from Lk. 1:5 how the Divine Son of David, through all the changes of Israel's history, watched over and maintained these courses of the Priests)**,

8 The third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,

9 The fifth to Malchijah, the sixth of Mijamin,

10 The seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah,

11 The ninth to Jeshuah, the tenth to Shecaniah,

12 The eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,

13 The thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,

14 The fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,

15 The seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Aphses,

16 The nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezekel,

17 The one and twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth to Gamul,

18 The three and twentieth to Delaiah, the four and twentieth to Maaziah.

19 These were the orderings of them in their service to come into the House of the LORD, according to their manner, under Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

THE LEVITES ALSO DIVIDED BY LOT INTO 24 COURSES

20 And the rest of the sons of Levi were these: Of the sons of Amram; Shubael: of the sons of Shubael; Jehdeiah.

21 Concerning Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah.

22 Of the Izharites; Shelomoth: of the sons of Shelomoth; Jahath.

23 And the sons of Hebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.

24 Of the sons of Uzziel; Michah: of the sons of Michah; Shamir.

25 The brother of Michah was Isshiah: of the sons of Isshiah; Zechariah.

26 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi: the sons of Jaaziah; Beno.

27 The sons of Merari by Jaaziah; Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibri.

28 Of Mahli came Eleazar, who had no sons.

29 Concerning Kish: the son of Kish was Jerahmeel.

30 The sons also of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites after the house of their fathers.

31 These likewise cast lots over against their brethren the sons of Aaron in the presence of David the king, and Zadok, and Ahimelech, and the chief of the fathers of the Priests and Levites, even the principal fathers over against their younger brethren. (The words "cast lots" refer to the Urim and the Thummim. In fact, absolutely nothing about the Temple, its furnishings, fixtures, design, the order of the Priests, as well as the Levites, was left to chance. Everything was ordered, guided, and directed by the Holy Spirit.

Verses 20-31 give the order or courses of the Levites. They were 24 courses, as well. Whereas the Priests had to do with the Sacrifices [the Priests were also Levites], the balance of the Levites had to do with the worship, which concerned music and singing, along with maintenance of the Temple.)

CHAPTER 25

THE DIVISION OF THE MUSICIANS

[1] Moreover David and the captains of the host separated to the service of the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals: and the number of the workmen according to their service was (we are now told of the division of the 4,000 singers into 24 courses or weekly periods; there was no such provision for song and worship in the Tabernacle in the wilderness, as in the Temple of Solomon; this was because the former spoke of a provided Redemption, the latter of an accomplished Salvation; as well, musical instrumentation which accompanies Spirit-led singing is constituted as "prophecy" [I Cor. 14:3]):

[2] Of the sons of Asaph; Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and Asarelah, the sons of Asaph under the hands of Asaph, which prophesied according to the order of the king.

[3] Of Jeduthun: the sons of Jeduthun; Gedaliah, and Zeri, and Jeshaiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a harp, to give thanks and to praise the LORD.

[4] Of Heman: the sons of Heman; Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth:

[5] All these were the sons of Heman the king's Seer in the Words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

6 All these were under the hands of their father for song in the House of the LORD, with cymbals, psalteries, and harps, for the service of the House of God, according to the king's order to Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman (the overseership of this service seemed to be divided among the sons of Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman).

7 So the number of them, with their brethren who were instructed in the songs of the LORD, even all who were cunning, was two hundred fourscore and eight (they were helped by 288 skilled musicians and skilled singers).

8 And they cast lots, ward against ward, as well the small as the great, the teacher as the scholar.

9 Now the first lot came forth for Asaph to Joseph: the second to Gedaliah, who with his brethren and sons were twelve:

10 The third to Zaccur, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

11 The fourth to Izri, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

12 The fifth to Nethaniah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

13 The sixth to Bukkiah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

14 The seventh to Jesharelah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

15 The eighth to Jeshaiah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

16 The ninth to Mattaniah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

17 The tenth to Shimei, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

18 The eleventh to Azareel, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

19 The twelfth to Hashabiah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

20 The thirteenth to Shubael, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

21 The fourteenth to Mattithiah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

22 The fifteenth to Jeremoth, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

23 The sixteenth to Hananiah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

24 The seventeenth to Joshbekashah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

25 The eighteenth to Hanani, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

26 The nineteenth to Mallothi, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

27 The twentieth to Eliathah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

28 The one and twentieth of Hothir, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

29 The two and twentieth to Giddalti, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

30 The three and twentieth to Mahazioth, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

31 The four and twentieth to Romamti-ezer, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

CHAPTER 26

THE PORTERS AND OVERSEERS: DIVIDED BY LOT INTO 24 COURSES

1 Concerning the divisions of the porters (there were 4,000 porters [23:5]; they were Levites, as well; they were divided into 24 courses, and were ruled by 93 chiefs; they were workers and helpers of the Temple service): Of the Korhites was Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph. (These were the descendants of Korah, who had led the rebellion against Moses, over 500 years before [Num., Chpt. 16]. We find from this that where sin abounded, Grace did much more abound. The sons of Korah are first chosen as doorkeepers, their duty being to prevent the presumption of which their father was guilty. Such are the ways of God! The sinful sons of a rebellious father are set on high by Him, and Heavenly things are committed to their hands. Such is Grace!)

2 And the sons of Meshelemiah were, Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,

3 Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elioenai the seventh.

4 Moreover the sons of Obed-edom were, Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethaneel the fifth,

5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth: for God blessed him.

6 Also unto Shemaiah his son were sons born, that ruled throughout the house of their father: for they were mighty men of valour.

7 The sons of Shemaiah; Othni and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose brethren were strong men, Elihu, and Semachiah.

[8] All these of the sons of Obed-edom: they and their sons and their brethren, able men for strength for the service, were threescore and two of Obed-edom. (It is remarkable that the Holy Spirit will mention Obed-edom's name some 20 times throughout the Word of God, and it was all because of his love for the things of God [II Sam. 6:10-11].)

[9] And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, strong men, eighteen.

[10] Also Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons; Simri the chief, (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him the chief;)

[11] Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.

[12] Among these were the divisions of the porters, even among the chief men, having wards one against another, to minister in the House of the LORD.

PORTERS OF THE GATES

[13] And they cast lots, as well the small as the great, according to the house of their fathers, for every gate.

[14] And the lot eastward fell to Shelemiah. Then for Zechariah his son, a wise counsellor, they cast lots; and his lot came out northward.

[15] To Obed-edom southward; and to his sons the house of Asuppim.

[16] To Shuppim and Hosah the lot came forth westward, with the gate Shallecheth, by the causeway of the going up, ward against ward.

[17] Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and toward Asuppim two and two.

[18] At Parbar westward, four at the causeway, and two at Parbar.

19 These are the divisions of the porters among the sons of Kore, and among the sons of Merari.

PORTERS OVER THE TREASURES

20 And of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasures of the House of God, and over the treasures of the dedicated things.

21 As concerning the sons of Laadan; the sons of the Gershonite Laadan, chief fathers, even of Laadan the Gershonite, were Jehieli.

22 The sons of Jehieli; Zetham, and Joel his brother, which were over the treasures of the House of the LORD.

23 Of the Amramites, and the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites:

24 And Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was ruler of the treasures.

25 And his brethren by Eliezer; Rehabiah his son, and Jeshaiah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son.

26 Which Shelomith and his brethren were over all the treasures of the dedicated things, which David the king, and the chief fathers, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the host, had dedicated.

27 Out of the spoils won in battles did they dedicate to maintain the House of the LORD. (This Passage recalls the oft-forgotten lesson that the Spiritual Temple of Jehovah must be built up with "spoils won in battle." There must be labor and prayer, battling with wicked spirits in Heavenly Places, and sharp encounters with the Devil and his human servants, if spoil, that is, souls, are to be won for Jesus Christ.)

28 And all that Samuel the Seer, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah, had dedicated; and whosoever had dedicated anything, it was under the hand of the Shelomith, and of his brethren (the doorkeepers were to exclude evil, and treasure-keepers were to guard the Spiritual Wealth; this implies warfare; Paul told Timothy to "war a good warfare"; he was a "doorkeeper" and a "treasure-keeper" [I Tim. 1:3; 4:20]).

THE PUBLIC ADMINISTRATORS

29 Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for the outward business over Israel, for officers and judges.

30 And of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, men of valour, a thousand and seven hundred, were officers among them of Israel on this side Jordan westward in all the business of the LORD, and in the service of the king.

31 Among the Hebronites was Jerijah the chief, even among the Hebronites, according to the generations of his fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valour at Jazer of Gilead.

32 And his brethren, men of valour, were two thousand and seven hundred chief fathers, whom king David made rulers over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, for every matter pertaining to God, and affairs of the king. (Terms such as "mighty men of valor" and "men of valor" were used in connection with the appointment of these officers by David, as it regarded the administrative offices of the kingdom. This shows that God honors and rewards proper business activity as a dedication to His Service. It is to be carried on with the same consecration and dedication to God, even as the Temple worship and service. We must conduct ourselves thusly today, as well!)

CHAPTER 27

(1015 B.C.)

THE OFFICERS AND PRINCES OF THE TRIBES

1 Now the Children of Israel after their number, to wit, the chief fathers and captains of thousands and hundreds, and their officers who served the king in any matter of the courses, which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, of every course were twenty and four thousand.

2 Over the first course for the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

3 Of the children of Perez was the chief of all the captains of the host for the first month.

4 And over the course of the second month was Dodai an Ahohite, and of his course was Mikloth also the ruler: in his course likewise were twenty and four thousand.

5 The third captain of the host for the third month was Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, a chief priest: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

6 This is that Benaiah, who was mighty among the thirty, and above the thirty: and in his course was Ammizabad his son.

7 The fourth captain for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

8 The fifth captain for the fifth month was Shamhuth the Izrahite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

9 The sixth captain for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

10 The seventh captain for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

11 The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zarhites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

12 The ninth captain for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anetothite, of the Benjamites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

13 The tenth captain for the tenth month was Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zarhites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

14 The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

15 The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. (Verses 1-15 pertain to David's standing army, which numbered 288,000. These were divided into twelve monthly courses of 24,000 each. In other words, all 288,000 were not on duty at all times. Only 24,000, in their respective month, would stand duty, with the others going about their business in their homes, etc. Counting all the officers, leaders, and personal guard, the total number would have been approximately 300,000. Of course, during times of emergency, larger numbers than that could easily be marshaled.

It is interesting to note the exact manner in which the Holy Spirit appointed the army, as well as the exact manner in which it would stand guard.)

THE RULERS

16 Furthermore over the tribes of Israel: the ruler of the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri: of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maachah:

17 Of the Levites, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel: of the Aaronites, Zadok:

18 Of Judah, Elihu, one of the brethren of David: of Issachar, Omri the son of Michael:

19 Of Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah: of Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel:

20 Of the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah: of the half tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah:

21 Of the half tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah: of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner:

22 Of Dan, Azareel the son of Jeroham. These were the princes of the Tribes of Israel.

23 But David took not the number of them from twenty years old and under: because the LORD had said he would increase Israel like to the stars of the heavens.

24 Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but he finished not, because there fell wrath for it against Israel; neither was the number put in the account of the chronicles of king David. (This wrath of God against Israel was all because of David disobeying the Word of God, and not supplying the half-shekel of silver of the Sanctuary, as he was commanded to do. This was failure to recognize that Israel's prosperity and protection depended solely upon the shed Blood of the Lamb [Ex. 30:11-16].

Unfortunately, the modern Church is in the same position presently as was Israel at that time. The Cross is being ignored, or openly repudiated. As then, so now, judgment will be the ultimate result.)

ADMINISTRATIVE POSITIONS

25 And over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel: and over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the castles, was Jehonathan the son of Uzziah:

26 And over them that did the work of the field for tillage of the ground was Ezri the son of Chelub:

27 And over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite: over the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite:

28 And over the olive trees and the sycomore trees that were in the low plains was Baal-hanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oil was Joash:

29 And over the herds that fed in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite: and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai:

30 Over the camels also was Obil the Ishmaelite: and over the asses was Jehdeiah the Meronothite:

31 And over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagerite. All these were the rulers of the substance which was king David's.

32 Also Jonathan David's uncle was a counsellor, a wise man, and a scribe: and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons:

33 And Ahithophel was the king's counsellor: and Hushai the Archite was the king's companion:

34 And after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar: and the general of the king's army was Joab. (Verses 33-34 mention "Ahithophel" and "Joab." This illustrates the sad truth that it is possible to have a very high official position in the spiritual household of the King of kings, and yet at heart be a rebel to the Lord Jesus Christ!)

CHAPTER 28

(1015 B.C.)

DAVID'S COUNSEL TO ISRAEL

[1] And David assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the Tribes, and the captains of the companies who ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possession of the king, and of his sons, and with the officers, and with the mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem (this was David's last assembly for Israel).

[2] Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren, and my people: As for me, I had in my heart to build an house of rest for the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building (this address will show that David, in his dying hour, was more concerned with the House of God than with anything else in his kingdom):

[3] But God said unto me, You shall not build an House for My Name, because you have been a man of war, and have shed blood.

[4] Howbeit the LORD God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever (his lineage, culminating in Christ): for He has chosen Judah to be the ruler (Gen. 49:10); and of the house of Judah, the house of my father (of Jesse); and among the sons of my father He liked me to make me king over all Israel:

[5] And of all my sons, (for the LORD has given me many sons,) He has chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel (this expression, not found in its entirety elsewhere, is an emphatic statement of the true theocracy, which should have ever prevailed among the people of Israel, but was set aside because of failure on the part of Israel; it is now paralleled by the Kingship of our Lord in His Own Church).

6 And He said unto me, Solomon your son, he shall build My House and My Courts: for I have chosen him to be My son, and I will be his father.

7 Moreover I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be constant to do My Commandments and My Judgments, as at this day (this provision is emphatically presented again to the attention of Solomon, when the time comes for the direct appeal of God to him [I Ki. 3:14; 8:61; 9:4]).

8 Now therefore in the sight of all Israel the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the Commandments of the LORD your God: that you may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever. (For a time, Solomon was a Child of God. He loved the Lord and walked in all His Statutes [I Ki. 3:3], and the Lord loved him [II Sam. 12:24]. However, in later life, Solomon grew cold toward Jehovah and loved many strange women, who turned his heart away from God [I Ki. 11:1-8]. The Lord then became angry with Solomon and turned against him in his backslidings [I Ki. 11:9-40]. The Lord then took his kingdom from him and finally destroyed it, all because of sin. The Kingdom will be renewed again when Israel comes to Repentance [Zech. 12:10]. Under the Messiah, this Kingdom shall continue eternally.)

DAVID'S CHARGE TO SOLOMON

9 And you, Solomon my son, know you the God of your father, and serve Him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind (actually, this is the only thing that any individual can give to God): for the LORD searches all hearts, and understands all the imaginations of the thoughts (the Lord sees all things and knows all things, past, present, and future): if you seek Him, He will be found of you; but if you forsake Him, He will cast you off for ever. (This is one of the greatest Promises found in the entirety of the Word of God. Irrespective of the disposition of the individual involved, if the person seeks the Lord with all his heart, the Lord will be found. What a consolation! Conversely, if we turn our back on the Lord, He will turn

His back on us; consequently, this completely refutes the unscriptural doctrine of Unconditional Eternal Security.)

10 Take heed now; for the LORD has chosen you to build an house for the Sanctuary: be strong, and do it.

11 Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the Mercy Seat,

12 And the pattern of all that he had by the Spirit (Holy Spirit), of the Courts of the House of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, of the treasuries of the House of God, and of the treasuries of the dedicated things:

13 Also for the courses of the Priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the House of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the House of the LORD. (These Verses declare that the Temple of Solomon was wholly planned by God, and an absolutely full pattern of it and its vessels given to David — nothing was left to his or to Solomon's imagination.)

EXACT MEASUREMENTS

14 He gave of gold by weight for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service; silver also for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service:

15 Even the weight for the candlesticks of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every candlestick, and for the lamps thereof: and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, both for the candlestick, and also for the lamps thereof, according to the use of every candlestick.

16 And by weight he gave gold for the tables of shewbread, for every table; and likewise silver for the tables of silver:

17 Also pure gold for the fleshhooks, and the bowls, and the cups: and for the golden basons he gave gold by weight for every bason; and likewise silver by weight for every bason of silver:

18 And for the Altar of Incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chariot of the cherubims, that spread out their wings, and covered the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD.

THE HAND OF THE LORD

19 All this, said David, the LORD made me understand in writing by His Hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern (David says that this Divine Pattern was communicated to him by him being compelled by the Hand, or the Spirit, of Jehovah, to record it all in writing, which he did!).

20 And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed: for the LORD God, even my God, will be with you; He will not fail you, nor forsake you, until you have finished all the work for the service of the House of the LORD.

21 And, behold, the courses of the Priests and the Levites, even they shall be with you for all the service of the House of the God: and there shall be with you for all manner of workmanship every willing skillful man, for any manner of service: also the princes and all the people will be wholly at your commandment. (Nothing was left, as stated, to Solomon's or David's genius or taste. All was "by the Spirit"; all was Divine!)

CHAPTER 29

DAVID EXHORTS THE PEOPLE TO GIVE OFFERINGS FOR THE TEMPLE

[1] Furthermore David the king said unto all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God has chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not for man, but for the LORD God. (These Verses continue the account of what David said to the whole congregation respecting his son Solomon.)

[2] Now I have prepared with all my might for the House of my God the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; onyx stones, and stones to be set, glistering stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance (David's preparation was never for himself, but for God; however, if the Lord is put first, then blessings will come to such an individual [Mat. 6:33]).

[3] Moreover, because I have set my affection to the House of my God, I have of my own proper good, of gold and silver, which I have given to the House of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the Holy House (in today's inflationary dollar, David would have personally given over $10 billion for the construction of the Temple [the cost of the Temple would be over $1 trillion in 2004 currency])**,

[4] Even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses withal (this is among that which was given personally by David)**:

[5] The gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing to consecrate his service this day unto the LORD? (Our service to God is to always be on a voluntary basis. As well, the Lord accepts the consecration of all, both small and great. As God has freely given to us, will we freely give to Him?)

[6] Then the chief of the fathers and princes of the Tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers of the king's work, offered willingly,

[7] And gave for the service of the House of God of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand drams, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and one hundred thousand talents of iron (they gave freely!).

[8] And they with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the House of the LORD, by the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite.

[9] Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy (the words "perfect heart" specify that their motivation was not one of greed; such giving always elicits "great joy!").

DAVID'S PRAISE AND PRAYER

[10] Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed be You, LORD God of Israel our father, for ever and ever (the majesty of this prayer includes adoration, acknowledgment of the inherent nature of human dependence, self-humiliation, confession, dedication of all the offerings, and prayer both for the whole people in general, and for Solomon in particular).

[11] Yours, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the Heaven and in the Earth is Yours; Yours is the Kingdom, O LORD, and You are exalted as Head above all (similar to the Lord's prayer [Mat. 6:13]).

12 Both riches and honour come of You, and You reign over all; and in Your hand is power and might; and in Your hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

13 Now therefore, our God, we thank You, and praise Your glorious Name.

14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of You, and of Your Own have we given You (even though they gave liberally to the Work of God, it was what God had given to them in the first place, as it is with all of us).

15 For we are strangers before You, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our days on the Earth are as a shadow, and there is none abiding.

16 O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build You an House for Your Holy Name comes of Your hand, and is all Your Own.

17 I know also, my God, that You try the heart, and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen with joy Your people, which are present here, to offer willingly unto You (it may very well be possible that the stress with which David says here, "I know," has its special cause; the thought of God as One Who "tries the heart" is one often brought out in David's Psalms).

18 O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of Your people, and prepare their heart unto You (constantly keep the thoughts of the Lord in our imagination and our heart):

19 And give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep Your Commandments, Your Testimonies, and Your Statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for the which I have made provision.

20 And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the LORD your God. And all the congregation blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the LORD, and the king (David worshipped, as well!).

21 And they sacrificed Sacrifices unto the LORD, and offered Burnt Offerings unto the LORD, on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their Drink Offerings, and Sacrifices in abundance for all Israel (most probably, these Sacrifices were offered on the threshingfloor of Araunah, the Jebusite, where the Temple would be built. All is ever anchored in Calvary. All the gold and silver given on this memorable occasion could not purchase Redemption of even one soul. This could only be brought about by the precious shed Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. The giving of the people pointed toward Calvary; the Temple site pointed toward Calvary; the construction of the Temple itself would point toward Calvary.

In fact, the entirety of the Temple site must have been saturated with blood. To the unspiritual eye, this would have been a gruesome and unacceptable sight. To those who know their Lord and His Love for lost mankind, it would speak of Redemption so glorious that it would beggar description):

SOLOMON MADE KING

22 And did eat and drink before the LORD on that day with great gladness (whenever our worship is anchored in Calvary, there will always be "great gladness"). And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him unto the LORD to be the chief governor, and Zadok to be Priest (the "second anointing" has reference to the first anointing, as is outlined in I Ki., Chpt. 1; however, this anointing is before the entirety of Israel).

23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him.

24 And all the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, submitted themselves unto Solomon the king.

25 And the LORD magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel (speaks of Solomon, but more particularly of the Greater than Solomon, the Lord Jesus Christ, which will come to pass in the coming Kingdom Age).

THE DEATH OF DAVID

26 Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.

27 And the time that he reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

28 And he died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honour: and Solomon his son reigned in his stead. (So concluded the life of one of the greatest men of God who ever lived. David wrote over half the Psalms, and he was given the plans for the Temple, which would be the greatest building ever constructed by the hand of man. Above all, he would be the ancestor of the Incarnation, of Whom the Son of David would be named. His name is the first human name in the New Testament [Mat. 1:1]; it is, as well, the last human name in the New Testament [Rev. 22:16].)

29 Now the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they are written in the Book of Samuel the Seer, and in the book of Nathan the Prophet, and in the book of Gad the Seer,

30 With all his reign and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the countries. (And yet, his greatest time is yet to come. I speak of the coming Kingdom Age, when David will rule and reign over all of Israel, directly under the Lord Jesus Christ [Ezek. 37:24-25].)

CHAPTER 1

(1015 B.C.)

SOLOMON ESTABLISHED AS KING

[1] And Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly (for a time, Solomon, as well, would magnify the Lord, and then would close his life by magnifying himself).

[2] Then Solomon spoke unto all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers (rightly so; Solomon wanted the leaders of Israel to know and realize that their prosperity was based solely on the Blood of the Lamb, symbolized by the Sacrifices).

[3] So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the Tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness (the "Tabernacle" was a type of the wilderness struggle; even though the wilderness struggle was long and hard, still, the Tabernacle remained; likewise, the Lord Jesus, of Which the Tabernacle is a Type, will "never leave us nor forsake us").

[4] But the Ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem. (The "Ark" was a type of the "land possessed"; it represents the Throne of God and victory in the inheritance. The "Temple" represents the glorious Kingdom Age to come; therefore, both mentioned in Chpts. 1-2 portray the Christian life.)

[5] Moreover the Brasen Altar, that Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, he put before the Tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the congregation sought unto it (there all of the great Sacrifices were offered).

6 And Solomon went up thither to the Brasen Altar before the LORD, which was at the Tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thousand Burnt Offerings upon it (the first instance of the Whole Burnt Offering is Gen. 8:20; of the five Levitical Offerings, it was the chief, and was usually preceded by a "Sin Offering" [Ex. 29:36-38; Lev. 8:14]; how long it took to offer up a thousand Burnt Offerings, we aren't told!).

SOLOMON PRAYS FOR WISDOM

7 In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give you (this is the night which followed the days of Sacrifices).

8 And Solomon said unto God, You have showed great mercy unto David my father, and have made me to reign in his stead.

9 Now, O LORD God, let Your promise unto David my father be established: for You have made me king over a people like the dust of the Earth in multitude.

10 Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this Your people, that is so great? (Many criticize Solomon for making such a request, claiming that he should have asked for other things.)

11 And God said to Solomon, Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked riches, wealth, or honor, nor the life of your enemies (to destroy enemies), neither yet have asked long life; but have asked wisdom and knowledge for yourself, that you may judge My people, over whom I have made you king:

12 Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto you; and I will give you riches, and wealth, and honor, such as none of the kings have had who have been before you, neither shall there any after you have the like.

(Concerning this request, I Ki. 3:10 proclaims the Holy Spirit saying, "And the speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing." If the Holy Spirit said that God was pleased with it, and He did, surely it should be good enough for us.)

SOLOMON'S WEALTH AND MIGHT

13 Then Solomon came from his journey to the high place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the Tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel.

14 And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

15 And the king made silver and gold at Jerusalem as plenteous as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycomore trees that are in the vale for abundance (this is a type of the coming Kingdom Age, when prosperity will rule the Earth, completely ridding the world of all hunger and want, because our Lord will be reigning supreme from Jerusalem)**.

16 And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

17 And they fetched up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they out horses for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, by their means (the Holy Spirit doesn't comment on these things, but merely mentions them)**.

CHAPTER 2

(1015 B.C.)

PREPARATIONS FOR BUILDING THE TEMPLE

[1] And Solomon determined to build an house for the Name of the LORD, and an house (a royal residence for himself) for his kingdom (the wording of this Passage proclaims to us that Solomon's determination was even more than the prompting to do so by his father David; the Holy Spirit is, in fact, now helping him).

[2] And Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens (70,000), and fourscore thousand (80,000) to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them. (A total of 153,600. These were all foreigners, Gentiles, actually prisoners of war, justly condemned to hard labor for life. David could easily have put these men to death, as he might justly have done; for when they were captured, they had been attempting to kill David, destroy Israel, and the God of Israel. So, David allowing these people to remain alive was an act of mercy on his part.

As well, any one of these individuals could have subscribed to the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, by submitting to the Law of Moses and to circumcision. They would have then become free men. Possibly, some of them did this.)

[3] And Solomon sent to Huram the king of Tyre, saying, As you did deal with David my father, and did send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me (this was not the Hiram of David's day, but the son of the Hiram of II Samuel 5:11).

[4] Behold, I build an house to the Name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to Him, and to burn before Him sweet incense, and for the continual shewbread, and for the Burnt Offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel (the mention of these three particulars portray Christ; the "Sweet Incense" speaks of His glorious Presence; the "continual Shewbread" speaks of His continual life, for Jesus is the "Bread of Life"; the "Burnt Offerings" speak of His glorious Sacrifice at Calvary, that would forever atone for the sins of man in their Redemption)**.

[5] And the house which I build is great: for great is our God above all gods (the testimony of Solomon, as to the greatness of God above the heathen entities of surrounding nations, is a witness to his boldness of testimony; he did not flinch from proclaiming the greatness of God over the insignificance of the god of Tyre)**.

[6] But who is able to build Him an house, seeing the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain Him? who am I then, that I should build Him an house, save only to burn Sacrifice before Him? (This refers back to the time that David desired to build a House for the Lord [I Chron., Chpt. 17], and the Lord, in effect, told David, "I do not want or need your house, and furthermore, I will build you a house" [I Chron. 17:10]. The major problem of the Church is that it tries to build the Lord a house. We are the ones who need the house, and that House is Jesus.)

[7] Send me now therefore a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and who can skill to grave with the cunning men who are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father did provide (it is remarkable in Solomon's letter that nearly two-thirds extols the God of Glory, with only about one-third of it itemizing his request)**.

[8] Send me also cedar trees, fir trees, and algum trees, out of Lebanon: for I know that your servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and, behold, my servants shall be with your servants,

[9] Even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build shall be wonderful great (it would be "wonderful great," because the Lord would occupy the House; otherwise, it would be just another house)*.

10 And, behold, I will give to your servants, the hewers who cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil (a "measure" equals about 3 gallons, while a "bath" equals about 6 gallons).

HURAM AGREES TO HELP SOLOMON

11 Then Huram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the LORD has loved His people, He has made you king over them. (This Verse and the following are also testimony to the indirect influences on surrounding nations of the knowledge of the One True Creator-God and Ruler-God, Who was domiciled by special Revelation and Oracle [Rom. 3:2] with Israel. Even when nations near were bitter foes, they often feared Israel's God.)

12 Huram said moreover, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, Who made Heaven and Earth, Who has given to David the king a wise son, endued with prudence and understanding, who might build an house for the LORD, and an house (a palace for Solomon) for his kingdom (Hiram and the kingdom of Tyre will, no doubt, be greatly blessed, because of their participation in this great work for God).

13 And now I have sent a cunning man, endued with understanding, of Huram my father's, 14 The son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skillful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson; also to grave any manner of graving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with your cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord David your father.

15 Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine, which my lord has spoken of, let him send unto his servants:

16 And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as you shall need: and we will bring it to you in floats by sea to Joppa; and you shall carry it up to Jerusalem (from Joppa to Jerusalem was about 34 miles).

17 And Solomon numbered all the strangers who were in the land of Israel, after the numbering wherewith David his father had numbered them; and they were found an hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred (Vs. 2).

18 And he set threescore and ten thousand of them to be bearers of burdens, and fourscore thousand to be hewers in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people a work.

CHAPTER 3

SOLOMON BEGINS TO BUILD THE TEMPLE

[1] Then Solomon began to build the House of the LORD at Jerusalem in Mount Moriah (this is the first mention of Mount Moriah since Gen. 22:2; it is never mentioned after this; it is where Abraham was to offer up Isaac), where the LORD appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite (a place of judgment, the destroying Angel [II Sam. 24:16], now turned into a place of Blessing, all by the Grace of God).

[2] And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

DIMENSIONS AND MATERIALS OF THE TEMPLE

[3] Now these are the things wherein Solomon was instructed for the building of the House of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was threescore cubits (90 feet long), and the breadth twenty cubits (30 feet wide; however, this pertained only to the Temple proper; many rooms were also built on each side).

[4] And the porch that was in the front of the House, the length of it was according to the breadth of the House, twenty cubits, and the height was an hundred and twenty (the height is definitely a copyist error in one of the old manuscripts; this would make the Temple 180 feet high — twice as high as it was long; in I Ki. 6:2, it states that the height was 30 cubits, or 45 feet, counting 18 inches to the cubit; this would be normal for the highest part of the Temple, and for the three stories of chambers [I Ki. 6:8]): and he overlaid it within with pure gold (the "gold" signified the Deity of Christ, with every part of the Temple, in fact, portraying Christ, in either

His Atoning, Mediatorial, or Intercessory Work).

5 And the greater house he cieled with fir tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon palm trees and chains (all of this was designed by the Holy Spirit, even down to the most minute detail; it must be adhered to strictly).

6 And he garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim (the "precious stones" speak of the redeemed [Mal. 3:17]).

7 He overlaid also the House, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and graved Cherubims on the walls. (The "Cherubims" speak of God's Holiness. The "palm trees" of Verse 5 speak of the prefect rest found only in Christ, with the "chains" of that Verse speaking of the never-ceasing link of the Child of God with the Lord Jesus Christ.)

THE HOLY OF HOLIES

8 And he made the Most Holy House (the Holy of Holies, which contained the Ark of the Covenant), the length whereof was according to the breadth of the House, twenty cubits (30 feet), and the breadth thereof twenty cubits (30 feet; it was foursquare): and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents (about $300 million in 2004 currency).

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold (about $10,000). And he overlaid the upper chambers with gold.

10 And in the Most Holy House (Holy of Holies, where the Ark of the Covenant was) he made two Cherubims of image work, and overlaid them with gold.

11 And the wings of the Cherubims were twenty cubits long (30 feet): one wing of the one cherub was five cubits (7½ feet), reaching to the wall of the House: and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other Cherub.

12 And one wing of the other Cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the House: and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other Cherub.

13 The wings of these Cherubims spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were inward. (There is some indication that the word "inward" in the Hebrew, as used here, means "toward the house," in other words, outward.

In Moses' Tabernacle, the Cherubim looked down upon the blood-sprinkled Mercy Seat, for only there could their eyes rest with satisfaction all around, being under the reign of sin and death. But here the new Cherubim looked "outward" upon a kingdom governed in Righteousness by the King of Righteousness.)

14 And he made the Veil of blue (signifying that Christ came from Heaven), and purple (signifying that Christ is the King), and crimson (signifying His shed Blood on the Cross of Calvary, which was necessary in order that man be redeemed), and fine linen (signifying His Perfect Righteousness), and wrought Cherubims thereon (signifying His Holiness. The Veil of the Temple is described here as being like that in the Tabernacle of Moses. It is not mentioned in I Kings at all. In I Ki. 6:31, the Holy Spirit records the fact that there were doors made of olive wood between the Most Holy Place and the Holy Place. It does not mention the Veil. In this Passage, it mentions "the Veil," but does not mention the doors. Quite possibly, the Veil hung immediately behind the doors. Therefore, when the doors were opened, the Veil would remain, and continue to hide the Holy of Holies from the inquisitive stare)**.

THE TWO PILLARS

15 Also he made before the House two pillars of thirty and five cubits high (52½ feet high), and the chapiter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits (7½ feet, making a total of 60 feet)**.

16 And he made chains (typifies our union with Christ), as in the Oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars; and made an hundred pomegranates (typifying the Fruit of the Spirit), and put them on the chains.

17 And he reared up the pillars before the Temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left (actually, these two pillars did not hold up anything; they were strictly for ornamentation, and signified Believers [Rev. 3:12]); and called the name of that on the right hand Jachin ("He shall establish"), and the name of that on the left Boaz ("in it is strength"; the actual meaning is "Believers shall be established in the Strength of the Lord").

CHAPTER 4

THE FURNISHING OF THE TEMPLE: THE BRAZEN ALTAR

[1] Moreover he made an Altar of brass, twenty cubits the length thereof (30 feet long), and twenty cubits the breadth thereof (30 feet wide), and ten cubits the height thereof (15 feet high; this means that the Brazen Altar was the same dimensions as the Most Holy Place; the Altar portrayed God's Judgment on sin; the Holy of Holies portrayed His Mercy and Grace; therefore, God's Mercy and Grace are as large as His Judgment).

[2] Also he made a molten sea of ten cubits (15 feet) from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits the height thereof (7½ feet); and a line of thirty cubits (45 feet) did compass it round about.

[3] And under it was the similitude of oxen, which did compass it round about: ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about. Two rows of oxen were cast, when it was cast.

[4] It stood upon twelve oxen (the number "twelve" signifies God's Government, while "oxen" symbolize the Word of God; so, God's Government is built entirely upon His Word, from which we must not deviate at all), three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east (signifying that God's Government is the same throughout the entirety of the Earth; in other words, there is no such thing as a white man's gospel, or a black man's gospel, etc.; it is one Gospel for the entirety of mankind): and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward (signifying that the strength of the oxen holds up the Great Laver, symbolizing the power of the Word of God).

[5] And the thickness of it was an handbreadth (about 4 inches), and the brim of it like the work of the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies (purity of Christ); and it received and held three thousand baths (about 18,000 gallons; I Ki. 7:27 says, "two thousand baths"; there is no contradiction; the three thousand baths were the maximum amount of water that the molten sea would hold; two thousand baths were the amount it generally held).

LAVERS OF BRASS

6 He made also ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: such things as they offered for the Burnt Offering they washed in them (these were used to wash the sacrifices before they were offered); but the sea (Brazen Laver) was for the Priests to wash in (which they had to do, washing both hands and feet, every time they went into the Temple; the Brazen Laver, as well, was a Type of the Word of God; as the Priests looked into the water, they would see their reflection, as in a mirror; likewise, when we read and study the Word of God, we see our reflection in the Word proclaiming to us what we are; the "oxen" stand for the indestructibility, power, and strength of the Word of God).

GOLDEN LAMPSTANDS

7 And he made ten candlesticks (Lampstands) of gold (typifying the fact that Christ is the Light of the world) according to their form, and set them in the Temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.

8 He made also ten tables (tables of Shewbread), and placed them in the Temple, five on the right side, and five on the left (there was only one Lampstand and one Table in the Tabernacle, but here there are ten of each). And he made an hundred basons of gold (the "tables" each held twelve loaves of bread, which had to be eaten by the Priests every Sabbath, with new loaves taking their place; the bread was a Type of Christ as the "Bread of Life" [Jn. 6:48]).

THE COURTS AND DOORS

9 Furthermore he made the Court of the Priests, and the Great Court, and Doors for the Court, and overlaid the Doors of them with brass (the "Doors" also typified Christ; He said, "I am the Door" [Jn. 10:9]; the "brass" signified the humanity of Christ).

10 And he set the Sea on the right side of the east end, over against the south (the Brazen Laver, i.e., "the Sea," had its position as the Tabernacle Laver of old, which was between the Altar and the porch).

SUMMARY OF HURAM'S METAL WORK

11 And Huram made the pots, and the shovels, and the basons. And Huram finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the House of God (in a sense, Huram is a Type of the Holy Spirit, Who will finish the work regarding the Church, thereby presenting us faultless before the Throne of God [Jude, Vs. 24]);

12 To wit, the two pillars, and the pommels (shaped like a ball), and the chapiters which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths (chains) to cover the two pommels of the chapiters which were on the top of the pillars;

13 And four hundred pomegranates (typical of the Fruit of the Spirit) on the two wreaths (chains, which typified our union with Christ); two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two pommels of the chapiters which were upon the pillars.

14 He made also bases, and lavers made he upon the bases (the ten Lavers [Vs. 6] were placed on the bases);

15 One sea, and twelve oxen under it.

16 The pots also, and the shovels, and the fleshhooks, and all their instruments, did Huram his father make to king Solomon for the House of the LORD of bright brass.

17 In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredathah. (This represents death and Resurrection. In a sense, there must be a death to the old self, with the new self raised in the identification of Christ. This means that all former identity for the Believer must be lost; what we were before Salvation is of no consequence. Truly, the Holy Spirit is making a "new creature," which can only be carried out by our understanding that we are "baptized into His death, buried with Him by baptism into death, and raised with Him in newness of life" [Rom. 6:3-4]. So, all of these heathen gold idols, along with the silver and the brass, had to be melted, which means they lost their old identity, and then fashioned into a new mold, in order to be of fit use for the Temple. This is a picture of what the Spirit of God does with us, which is carried out by and through the Cross [I Cor. 1:17-18, 23; 2:2].)

18 Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could not be found out.

19 And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the House of God, the golden Altar also (this was the Altar of Incense, which stood immediately in front of the Holy of Holies), and the tables whereon the shewbread was set;

20 Moreover the candlesticks (Lampstands) with their lamps, that they should burn after the manner before the Oracle (Holy of Holies), of pure gold (the "pure gold" typified the Deity of Christ)**;

21 And the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, made he of gold, and that perfect gold (meaning that it contained no alloy whatsoever)**;

22 And the snuffers, and the basons, and the spoons, and the censers, of pure gold: and the entry of the House, the inner doors thereof for the Most Holy Place, and the doors of the House of the Temple, were of gold (there is no way into this "House of God" except through the Lord Jesus Christ, Who is the "Door" [Jn. 10:9])**.

CHAPTER 5

(1005 B.C.)

THE TEMPLE COMPLETED

[1] Thus all the work that Solomon made for the House of the LORD was finished: and Solomon brought in all the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put he among the treasures of the House of God. (Solomon was seven years in building the Temple [I Ki. 6:38]. Now it is time for the dedication.)

LEADERS ASSEMBLED FOR THE DEDICATION

[2] Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the Tribes, the chief of the fathers of the Children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

[3] Wherefore all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto the king in the Feast which was in the seventh month (this was the Feast of Tabernacles, which convened in October [Lev. 23:33])**.

THE ARK BROUGHT INTO THE TEMPLE

[4] And all the elders of Israel came; and the Levites took up the Ark (these were Priests, who also were Levites, who were the only ones who could carry the Ark; they were Types of Christ, Who Alone is the Door to the Throne of God, of which the Ark was a Type)**.

[5] And they brought up the Ark, and the Tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tabernacle, these did the Priests and the Levites bring up (all of these "holy vessels" were by now a little over 600 years old; they, no doubt, were put "among the treasures of the House of God" in a separate chamber).

6 Also king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled unto him before the Ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude (all the gold and precious stones in this magnificent Temple could not redeem one precious soul; only the Blood of Jesus could do such; consequently, the thousands of animals slaughtered, which soaked the ground with blood, were an eternal Type of the great price that would be paid at Calvary's Cross).

7 And the Priests brought in the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD unto His Place, to the Oracle of the House, into the Most Holy Place, even under the wings of the Cherubims:

8 For the Cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the Ark, and the Cherubims covered the Ark and the staves thereof above.

9 And they drew out the staves of the Ark, that the ends of the staves were seen from the Ark before the Oracle (signifying that it was to be moved no more); but they were not seen without. And there it is unto this day (this proves that this section of II Chronicles was written before the destruction of the Temple).

10 There was nothing in the Ark save the two tables (Ten Commandments) which Moses put therein at Horeb, when the LORD made a Covenant with the Children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt (when Paul, in Heb. 9:4, mentioned the golden pot of Manna and Aaron's rod being in the Ark, he was speaking of the Ark while in the Tabernacle instead of the Temple; it is not known when these two things were removed).

THE GLORY OF GOD APPEARS

11 And it came to pass, when the Priests were come out of the Holy Place: (for all the Priests who were present were sanctified, and did not then wait by course [when the Priests had placed the Ark in the Most Holy Place, they left, never to enter this place again, except for the visit of the High Priest once a year, which was on the Great Day of Atonement]:

12 Also the Levites which were the singers, all of them of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, being arrayed in white linen, having cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the Altar [the Brazen Altar, which sat in front of the Temple], and with them an hundred and twenty Priests sounding with trumpets [all of this signifies worship]:)

13 It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying, For He is good; for His Mercy endures for ever: that then the House was filled with a Cloud, even the House of the LORD (this was the Glory and the Power of God);

14 So that the Priests could not stand to minister by reason of the Cloud (meaning that their knees buckled under them, and they fell to the floor, because of the magnitude of the Power of God being manifested): for the Glory of the LORD had filled the House of God. (Paul says that now we are the Temple of God [I Cor. 3:16], and that the Spirit of God dwells in us. The next question is, "Is He allowed to have His Perfect Way within our lives?" If He is, then "the Glory of the Lord will fill this House of God," as well.)

CHAPTER 6

(1004 B.C.)

SOLOMON'S MESSAGE

[1] Then said Solomon, The LORD has said that He would dwell in the thick darkness (Solomon may have taken this idea from the fact of God's appearance in darkness at Sinai [Ex. 20:21]).

[2] But I have built an House of habitation for You, and a place for Your dwelling for ever (after this Message, the Lord would, in fact, occupy this House).

[3] And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel: and all the congregation of Israel stood (this was a great moment in the history of Israel, as should be obvious!).

[4] And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, Who has with His hands fulfilled that which He spoke with His mouth to my father David, saying,

[5] Since the day that I brought forth My people out of the land of Egypt I chose no city among all the Tribes of Israel to build an House in, that My Name might be there; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over My people Israel (for approximately 500 years God had not chosen any particular place among Israel where a House should be built for Himself, nor had He chosen any man to be a permanent ruler over Israel. Now, He makes it clear that He has chosen Jerusalem as the place of His headquarters on Earth, and David as the one through whom all the future kings of Israel should come [II Sam., Chpt. 7; I Chron., Chpt. 17]. This makes it clear that God did not choose Saul as He chose David):

[6] But I have chosen Jerusalem, that My Name might be there; and have chosen David to be over My people Israel.

7 Now it was in the heart of David my father to build an House for the Name of the LORD God of Israel.

8 But the LORD said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in your heart to build an House for My Name, you did well in that it was in your heart (the Lord was pleased with David's motives):

9 Notwithstanding you shall not build the house; but your son which shall come forth out of your loins, he shall build the House for My Name (Solomon knew exactly what the Lord had told his father David).

10 The LORD therefore has performed His Word that He has spoken: for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the House for the Name of the LORD God of Israel.

11 And in it have I put the Ark, wherein is the Covenant of the LORD, that He made with the Children of Israel (the Law of Moses).

SOLOMON'S PRAYER OF DEDICATION

12 And he stood before the Altar of the LORD (Brazen Altar) in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands:

13 For Solomon had made a brasen scaffold, of five cubits long (7½ feet), and five cubits broad (7½ feet), and three cubits high (4½ feet), and had set it in the midst of the Court: and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward Heaven,

14 And said, O LORD God of Israel, there is no God like You in the heaven, nor in the Earth; which keeps Covenant, and shows mercy unto Your servants, who walk before You with all their hearts (no man will ever be able to say, in all eternity, that God has not kept His part of every agreement with men or that He has not fulfilled every Promise to them):

15 You Who have kept with Your servant David my father that which You have promised him; and spoke with Your mouth, and have fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day.

16 Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, keep with Your servant David my father that which You have promised him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in My sight to sit upon the throne of Israel; yet so that your children take heed to their way to walk in My Law, as you have walked before Me (regrettably, Solomon himself, even after praying this prayer, did not "take heed to walk in God's Law").

17 Now then, O LORD God of Israel, let Your Word be verified, which You have spoken unto Your servant David.

18 But will God in very deed dwell with men on the Earth? behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain You; how much less this house which I have built! (Most definitely, the Lord will indeed dwell with men on this Earth. Rev., Chpts. 21-22 proclaim this fact.)

19 Have respect therefore to the prayer of Your servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which Your servant prays before You (prayer includes every thought and word from the heart that is Godward):

20 That Your eyes may be open upon this House day and night, upon the place whereof You have said that You would put Your Name there; to hearken unto the prayer which Your servant prays toward this place.

MERCY AND GRACE

21 Hearken therefore unto the supplications of Your servant, and of Your people Israel, which they shall make toward this place: hear You from Your dwelling place, even from Heaven; and when You hear, forgive (possibly one could say that the great thought of Solomon now is that the center and core of all worship is prayer).

22 If a man sin against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before Your Altar in this House;

[23] Then hear You from Heaven, and do, and judge Your servants, by requiting the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head; and by justifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteousness (vindicate the righteous).

[24] And if Your people Israel be put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against You; and shall return and confess Your Name, and pray and make supplication before You in this House;

[25] Then hear You from the heavens and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which You gave to them and to their fathers (in this prayer, Solomon seems to sense the future of Israel prophetically; "sin" is the only reason that Israel was ever defeated; in fact, sin is to blame for all the troubles among men; as well, the Lord gave the land of Canaan to Israel, and not the Arabs, even as this Verse proclaims).

[26] When the heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against You; yet if they pray toward this place, and confess Your Name, and turn from their sin, when You do afflict them;

[27] Then hear You from Heaven, and forgive the sin of Your servants, and of Your people Israel, when You have taught them the good way, wherein they should walk; and send rain upon Your land, which You have given unto Your people for an inheritance. (Praying toward the Temple, Jerusalem, and this land is referred to eight times in this prayer. It was done so because, at that particular time, that is where God dwelt. Today, in this great dispensation of Grace, it doesn't really matter which direction a person faces while praying. The reason is that the Lord, through the Power of the Holy Spirit, now lives in the heart of Born-Again man [I Cor. 3:16], wherever such a man is, and not in some particular temple or building. This was all made possible by the Cross.

As well, the land between the River Euphrates and the Mediterranean, and from the Red Sea on the south to Hamath on the north, is the only land promised in all Scripture for all the Tribes of Israel. Theories which teach that America and England are new Promised Lands for Israel are all error. There is no hint of such in Scripture.)

PESTILENCE

28 If there be dearth in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillers; if their enemies besiege them in the cities of their land; whatsoever sore or whatsoever sickness there be:

29 Then what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all Your people Israel, when everyone shall know his own sore and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands in this House:

30 Then hear You from Heaven Your dwelling place, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart You know; (for You only know the hearts of the children of men:)

31 That they may fear You, to walk in Your ways, so long as they live in the land which You gave unto our fathers (in the absence of a healthy fear of God is involved the absence of a healing hopefulness).

GENTILES

32 Moreover concerning the stranger (Gentile), which is not of Your people Israel, but is come from a far country for Your great Name's sake, and Your mighty hand, and Your stretched out arm; if they come and pray in this House;

33 Then hear You from the Heavens, even from Your dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger (Gentile) calls to You for; that all people of the Earth may know Your Name, and fear You, as does Your people Israel, and may know that this House which I have built is called by Your Name. (Solomon, in his wisdom, did not forget the Gentiles, whom God had in mind to bless from the very beginning of His calling of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. All nations were to be blessed through Israel and their seed.

As well, this would imply the preaching of the Gospel, for how could individuals come to the God of Israel, if they do not hear? [Rom. 10:9-17; I Cor. 1:18-24].

In fact, in the Millennium and the New Earth, all nations will go up to Jerusalem to pray and to worship, exactly as they do now [Isa. 2:2-4; Zech. 8:23].)

WAR

34 If Your people go out to war against their enemies by the way that You shall send them, and they pray unto You toward this city which You have chosen, and the House which I have built for Your Name;

35 Then hear You from the Heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause (God does maintain the cause of His people, as long as they live right, but when sin is committed, He Himself becomes their Judge and metes out the penalty for sin)**.

36 If they sin against You, (for there is no man which sins not,) and You be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near (Solomon was right; all have sinned and come short of the Glory of God [Rom. 3:23])**;

37 Yet if they bethink themselves in the land where they are carried captive, and turn and pray unto You in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done amiss, and have dealt wickedly;

38 If they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray toward their land, which You gave unto their fathers, and toward the city (Jerusalem) which You have chosen, and toward the House which I have built for Your Name:

39 Then hear You from the heavens, even from Your Dwelling Place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive Your People who have sinned against You (this speaks of true, heartfelt Repentance, which God will always honor!).

[40] Now, my God, let, I beseech You, Your eyes be open, and let Your ears be attent unto the prayer that is made in this place.

[41] Now therefore arise, O LORD God, into Your resting place, You, and the Ark of Your strength: let Your Priests, O LORD God, be clothed with Salvation, and let Your saints rejoice in goodness. (The word "Saints" in the Hebrew reads "men of grace," that is, those who are subjects of the Grace of God. This plainly shows that those in Old Testament times were under Grace, as well as we are in New Testament times. Actually, everyone who has been saved has been saved by Grace, for there is no other way that an individual can be saved [Eph. 2:8]. And yet, Grace, as we know it under the New Dispensation, which came by Jesus Christ, means that it was all made possible by the Cross. Christ is always the Source, while the Cross is the Means.)

[42] O LORD God, turn not away the face of Your anointed (God's Anointed is the Messiah; every blessing that we receive comes through the Lord Jesus Christ, and what He has done for us at the Cross): remember the mercies of David Your servant.

CHAPTER 7

(1004 B.C.)

GOD'S RESPONSE TO SOLOMON'S PRAYER: THE GLORY OF THE LORD FILLS THE TEMPLE

[1] Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from Heaven, and consumed the Burnt Offering and the Sacrifices; and the Glory of the LORD filled the House. (This is additional to I Ki. 8:63-64, and shows the Divine acceptance by the Lord of the Sacrifices, until Christ should come to offer Himself as the one great eternal Sacrifice for all of humanity. The fire of God from Heaven has fallen several times on such occasions [Gen. 4:4; 15:17; Lev. 9:24; I Chron. 21:26; I Ki. 18:38].)

[2] And the Priests could not enter into the House of the LORD, because the Glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's House (the "Glory of the Lord" can only come through Calvary)**.

[3] And when all the Children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the Glory of the LORD upon the House, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, saying, For He is good; for His Mercy endures for ever. (On the Day of Pentecost, approximately a thousand years later, the fire fell from Heaven in a way that it had never fallen previously. In Old Testament times, it fell upon the Sacrifice. Now that The Sacrifice, the Lord Jesus Christ, has been offered, this same fire can now accompany the Holy Spirit into the heart and life of the Believer, but not with judgment, for the judgment has been expended on Christ. But yet, this "Pentecostal Fire" will definitely correct the Believer [Mat. 3:11-12; Acts 2:3].)

THE SACRIFICES AND REJOICING

[4] Then the king and all the people offered Sacrifices before the LORD.

5 And king Solomon offered a Sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep: so the king and all the people dedicated the House of God (all of this showed Israel that her great blessing was built on the foundation of the shed Blood of Christ; even though the number of Sacrifices offered was staggering, still, it could not begin to portray Calvary; the blood of bulls and goats can never take away sin [Heb. 10:4]; nevertheless, those sacrifices did point to the Lamb of God, Who would take away all sin [Jn. 1:29])**.

6 And the Priests waited on their offices: the Levites also with instruments of music of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because His Mercy endures for ever, when David praised by their ministry; and the Priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood (the worship, heavily anchored in the Sacrifices, portrays the fact that Spirit-led music and singing accompany the Cross and, in fact, are made possible by the Cross)**.

7 Moreover Solomon hallowed the middle of the Court that was before the House of the LORD: for there he offered Burnt Offerings (typified the perfection of Christ being given to the sinner), and the fat (typifying the very best that God has in the offering up of His Son) of the Peace Offerings (this Offering typified that Peace had been restored, as a result of the Burnt Offering), because the Brasen Altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the Burnt Offerings, and the Meat Offerings (the Offering of Thanksgiving), and the fat (the middle Court, which was the Court of women, had to also be used, because the area around the Brazen Altar was too small, considering the great number of Sacrifices being offered)**.

8 Also at the same time Solomon kept the Feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt.

9 And in the eighth day they made a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the Altar seven days, and the Feast seven days (there was a Feast of Dedication of the Temple which was seven days long, and then Solomon also kept the Feast of Tabernacles, for an additional seven days, making altogether the fourteen days of feasting at this time).

10 And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the LORD had shown unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel His people (joy always follows proper worship, which is always anchored in the Cross, typified by the Sacrifices).

11 Thus Solomon finished the House of the LORD, and the king's house (the personal dwelling place of Solomon): and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the House of the LORD, and in his own house, he prosperously effected (carried forth to completion).

THE LORD APPEARS TO SOLOMON; HIS COVENANT WITH SOLOMON

12 And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place to Myself for an House of Sacrifice. (The Lord not only answered Solomon's prayer by a manifestation of the fire falling from Heaven, but, as well, He portrayed what He will do, as it regards Solomon's petition, and in no uncertain terms.

As well, we find here that the Lord referred to the Temple as a "House of Sacrifice." We should take note that the modern Church should fall into the same category, inasmuch as our Message should be, "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" [I Cor. 1:23]. The Cross must be the primary Message [Rom. 6:3-14; I Cor. 2:2].)

13 If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I sent pestilence among My people (if the Lord does such a thing, it will be because of sin, always because of sin);

14 If My People, who are called by My Name (Believers), shall humble themselves (humility), and pray, and seek My Face (the prayer of Repentance), and turn from their wicked ways (which proclaims the manner of true Repentance); then will I hear from Heaven (but not otherwise)*, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land (God's Prescription for spiritual sickness).

[15] Now My Eyes shall be open, and My Ears attent unto the prayer that is made in this place. (As well, prayer from a distance being made toward this place would be answered.

Due to what Christ did at the Cross, the Lord no longer resides in a building, but rather in the hearts and lives of Believers [I Cor. 3:16]. Now we pray to the Father up in Heaven, and do so in the Name of Jesus [Jn. 16:23].)

[16] For now have I chosen and sanctified this House, that My Name may be there forever: and My Eyes and My Heart shall be there perpetually (literally, until the Cross; in general, forever, because the Lord now lives in our hearts and lives [I Cor. 3:16]).

[17] And as for you, if you will walk before Me, as David your father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and shall observe My Statutes and My Judgments (the conditions);

[18] Then will I stablish the throne of your kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David your father, saying, There shall not fail you a man to be ruler in Israel (is unconditional, for it contemplates Christ).

[19] But if you turn away, and forsake My Statutes and My Commandments, which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them;

[20] Then will I pluck them up by the roots out of My Land which I have given them; and this House, which I have sanctified for My Name, will I cast out of My Sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a byword among all nations (which is exactly what happened!).

[21] And this House, which is high, shall be an astonishment to everyone who passes by it; so that he shall say, Why has the LORD done thus unto this land, and unto this House?

22 And it shall be answered, Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them: therefore has He brought all this evil upon them. (Verses 19-22 portray the Solomonic Covenant, which is conditional. In other words, if Solomon or his sons forsake the Lord, the Lord will forsake them.

These two Covenants basically proclaim the correct scriptural teaching on predestination. It is predestined that God would have a nation called Israel [the Davidic Covenant]. This is, and man's acceptance, rejection, failure, or otherwise does not alter the fact. However, who will actually be a part of the Israel which is saved [the Solomonic Covenant] will depend on obedience. Actually, Paul said only a remnant would actually be saved [Rom. 9:27].)

CHAPTER 8

(992 B.C.)

SOLOMON'S BUILDING ACTIVITIES

[1] And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the House of the LORD, and his own house (this Chapter in small measure pictures the peace and plenty which will characterize the Millennial Earth),

[2] That the cities which Huram had restored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the Children of Israel to dwell there (likewise, the coming Millennial Reign, of which all of this is a type, will see the greatest construction boom the world has ever known).

[3] And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it (in the entirety of Solomon's reign, this was the only war that was fought; this typifies the scarcity of such in the coming Kingdom Age).

[4] And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store cities, which he built in Hamath.

[5] Also he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and bars;

[6] And Baalath, and all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion. (So much of the world as designed by man has specialized in destruction instead of construction. However, during the coming Kingdom Age, when Jesus will reign supreme from Jerusalem, and over the entirety of the Earth, there will be no destruction except of that which is evil. Rather, there will be construction. For the first time, the world will see what the Earth could really be like under God's Government instead of man's flawed and faulty government.)

7 As for all the people who were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of Israel,

8 But of their children, who were left after them in the land, whom the Children of Israel consumed not, them did Solomon make to pay tribute until this day (likewise, in the coming Kingdom Age, the Gentile world will pay tribute to the Lord of Glory; but yet, it will not be in the form of ruinous taxation; in fact, it will gladly be paid, because of the great prosperity which will fill the entirety of the Earth)**.

9 But of the Children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen.

10 And these were the chief of king Solomon's officers, even two hundred and fifty, who bore rule over the people (this typifies redeemed Israel and the blood-washed Saints of God in the coming Kingdom Age, who, under Christ, will carry out the Plan of God over the entirety of the Earth)**.

11 And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are holy, whereunto the Ark of the LORD has come (with such a Gentile wife, Solomon was starting out the wrong way, and he did not learn the lesson he should have learned, for he later loved many foreign women, who turned his heart away from God [I Ki. 11:1-9]; Solomon, like all the other Types, was a broken figure of Him Who is to come; nevertheless, the Antitype, Who is Christ, will be Perfect)**.

SOLOMON'S FAITHFULNESS IN WORSHIP

12 Then Solomon offered Burnt Offerings unto the LORD on the Altar of the LORD, which he had built before the porch, 13 Even after a certain rate every day, offering according to the Commandment of Moses, on the Sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn Feasts, three times in the year, even in the Feast of Unleavened Bread (conducted in April), and in the Feast of Weeks (of Pentecost, in June), and in the Feast of Tabernacles (October; all the males of Israel were supposed to gather three times a year on these special Feasts [Ex. 23:14; Deut. 16:16]).

14 And he appointed, according to the order of David his father, the courses of the Priests to their service, and the Levites to their charges, to praise and minister before the Priests, as the duty of every day required: the porters also by their courses at every gate: for so had David the man of God commanded (this was the appointment of the 24 courses of the Priests in their services [I Chron., Chpt. 24], the 24 courses of the Levites to sing and play music regarding praise and worship [I Chron., Chpt. 25], and the 24 courses of the porters [I Chron., Chpt. 26]; all this had been revealed to David by the Holy Spirit, and now it is being obeyed as he had left instructions).

15 And they departed not from the commandment of the king unto the Priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures (as well, we must not presently depart from the "Commandment of the King," the Lord Jesus Christ, i.e., His Word).

16 Now all the work of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the foundation of the House of the LORD, and until it was finished. So the House of the LORD was perfected (this is the desire and the work of the Holy Spirit — that He may "perfect the House of the LORD," that House now being our physical and spiritual persons, which are Temples of the Holy Spirit [I Cor. 3:16]; this is done by the Believer constantly exhibiting Faith in Christ, and what Christ has done at the Cross; the Holy Spirit, Who works exclusively within the parameters of the Finished Work of Christ, will then carry out the work within our lives [Rom. 8:1-2, 11]).

SOLOMON'S GREAT WEALTH

[17] Then went Solomon to Ezion-geber, and to Eloth, at the sea side in the land of Edom.

[18] And Huram sent him by the hands of his servants ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea; and they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and took thence four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon (in fact, the entirety of the world, even as we shall see, beat a path to Solomon's door, exactly as the entirety of the world will come to Christ, availing themselves of His Perfect Wisdom, in the coming Kingdom Age, of which Solomon was a Type).

CHAPTER 9

(992 B.C.)

THE QUEEN OF SHEBA VISITS SOLOMON

[1] And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bore spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart. (Solomon was a Type of Christ, albeit an imperfect Type, as all Types are. Jesus would say of Himself, "A greater than Solomon is here."

The Glory of the Lord having now risen upon Israel, the kings of the Gentiles come to that light, bringing their riches with them, and find there a glory and a wisdom such as the world had never seen. None of these monarchs are mentioned particularly except the queen of Sheba, the Holy Spirit reserving that dignity for a woman. She is further honored by the Lord Himself in Mat. 12:42, where He predicts her reappearance in the Resurrection.

As well, Sheba communed with Solomon. Until one "communes with Christ," they can never know the glory and the splendor of all that Christ is and has. For anyone who cares to investigate, our Lord is waiting.)

[2] And Solomon told her all her questions: and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not (if the honest heart will earnestly seek, that which it desires will be revealed by the Lord Jesus Christ; the Word of God is His Voice)**.

[3] And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the House that he had built (she saw the Glory of God)**,

[4] And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel; his cupbearers also, and their apparel; and his ascent by which he went up into the House of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her (splendor, in fact, greater than anything in the world; this is a comparison, at least as much as a comparison can be in the natural realm, of the coming reign of the Lord Jesus Christ, in the coming Kingdom Age)**.

[5] And she said to the king, It was a true report which I heard in my own land of your acts, and of your wisdom (everything the Word of God says about the Lord Jesus Christ is "a true report")**:

[6] Howbeit I believed not their words, until I came, and my eyes had seen it: and, behold, the one half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me: for you exceed the fame that I heard (the Lord Jesus invites inspection; His appeal to the hungry heart is, "Come...")**.

[7] Happy are your men, and happy are these your servants, which stand continually before you, and hear your wisdom (the only true happiness in the world is that which has been provided by the "Greater Than Solomon"; it is a happiness that is based on the Fruit of the Spirit, which is "joy")**.

[8] Blessed be the LORD your God, which delights in you to set you on His Throne, to be king for the LORD your God: because your God loved Israel, to establish them forever, therefore made He you king over them, to do judgment and justice (due to the fact that the queen spoke of the Lord as being Solomon's God, some have claimed that she really did not accept the Lord; however, the same terminology also suggests, at the same time, that she very well may have accepted the Lord, and probably did!)**.

[9] And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon (what she gave him could be measured; what he gave her could not be measured)**.

[10] And the servants also of Huram, and the servants of Solomon, which brought gold from Ophir, brought algum trees and precious stones.

11 And the king made of the algum trees terraces to the House of the LORD, and to the king's palace, and harps and psalteries for singers: and there were none such seen before in the land of Judah.

12 And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside that which she had brought unto the king. So she turned, and went away to her own land, she and her servants (our "Greater Than Solomon" admonishes us to ask of Him accordingly, and He will give [Lk., Chpt. 11]).

SOLOMON'S RICHES, WISDOM, AND FAME RETOLD

13 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and threescore and six talents of gold (666 talents of gold; Solomon, as well, had 6 steps to his throne; inasmuch as the number "six" is the number of man, and always, of course, comes short of "seven," which is the number of perfection, we find imperfection upon all his glory; man was created on the sixth day; despite all the glory given to Solomon, still, he was but a man, hence the number "six"; perfection comes only in and through the Lord Jesus Christ);

14 Beside that which chapmen and merchants brought. And all the kings of Arabia and governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 And king Solomon made two hundred targets (large shields) of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one target (worth approximately $120,000 per target, according to 2004 money).

16 And three hundred shields made he of beaten gold: three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield (about $60,000 per shield). And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

17 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.

18 And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and stays on each side of the sitting place, and two lions standing by the stays:

19 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps. There was not the like made in any kingdom.

20 And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: none were of silver; it was not any thing accounted of in the days of Solomon (this Verse symbolizes the great prosperity that will characterize the entirety of the Planet when Jesus Christ comes back).

21 For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram: every three years once came the ships of Tarshish bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

22 And king Solomon passed all the kings of the Earth in riches and wisdom (likewise, Jesus Christ, of Whom Solomon was a Type, when reigning from Jerusalem in the days of the coming Kingdom Age, will be the wisest King Who has ever lived and, thereby, will bring riches and prosperity to the entirety of the planet).

23 And all the kings of the Earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, that God had put in his heart.

24 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year (in fact, Israel, at this time, was the most powerful nation on the face of the Earth; however, it was not because of a mighty armed force, but because of the Grace of God).

25 And Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; whom he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

26 And he reigned over all the kings from the river even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt.

27 And the king made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycomore trees that are in the low plains in abundance.

THE DEATH OF SOLOMON

28 And they brought unto Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

29 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the Prophet, and in the Prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the Seer against Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

30 And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

31 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead. (The fact that God did not record the great sins of Solomon in his latter years is some indication that Solomon asked for and received Mercy, Forgiveness, and Grace. If so, these sins would have been washed away, and thereby unrecorded. This is about the only indication that we have that Solomon may have made things right with God before he died.)

CHAPTER 10

(975 B.C.)

REHOBOAM SUCCEEDS SOLOMON

[1] And Rehoboam went to Shechem: for to Shechem were all Israel come to make him king. (Jerusalem was where the Lord had placed His Name, and yet, for political purposes, and without consulting the Lord, Rehoboam would go to Shechem. So much of what is today called "Christianity" is operated upon the rudiment of political expediency, and not according to the Word of the Lord.)

[2] And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king, heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt (heard that Solomon had died.; it is instructive to point out the dissatisfaction of the nation with the glorious reign of Solomon, with all of its prosperity; in fact, much of Israel would elect Solomon's enemy as king; this is a perfect picture of Rev., Chpt. 20.

There it is foretold that although Christ will maintain an absolutely perfect and prosperous government over the entirety of the Earth for one thousand years, yet some of the world will be dissatisfied with that reign of Glory and Righteousness, and will call back Satan from exile, as Israel called back Jeroboam and, for a short time, will enthrone Satan as prince over at least a part of the Earth).

[3] And they sent and called him. So Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

[4] Your father made our yoke grievous: now therefore ease you somewhat the grievous servitude of your father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve you (there is no Scriptural evidence of a "grievous servitude" or "heavy yoke")**.

5 And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed.

6 And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men who had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give you me to return answer to this people? (However, there is no place that it says that he took counsel with God. There seemed to be little desire for the Will of God. All was political expediency.)

7 And they spoke unto him, saying, If you be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be your servants for ever (this was the counsel he should have taken!).

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men who were brought up with him, who stood before him (this would occasion much bloodshed!).

9 And he said unto them, What advice give you that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that your father did put upon us?

10 And the young men who were brought up with him spoke unto him, saying, Thus shall you answer the people who spoke unto you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, but make you it somewhat lighter for us; thus shall you say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 For whereas my father put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. (No doubt, there was much more said than given here. They probably counseled him to conduct himself in a strong manner, etc. It was the worst advice he could have gotten!)

REHOBOAM'S FOOLISH DECISION

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men,

14 And answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people: for the cause was of God, that the LORD might perform His Word, which He spoke by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat (I Ki. 11:29-39; Solomon, although dead, bears his full share of the responsibility of what Rehoboam was, and shortly came to show he was; the Lord didn't do this arbitrarily, but because of Judah's terrible idol-worship, which now characterized the country, and was instigated by Solomon)**.

ISRAEL'S REVOLT

16 And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to your own house. So all Israel went to their tents (this was the beginning of over 250 years of division and strife between Israel, the northern kingdom, and Judah, the southern kingdom; this rupture would result in untold numbers of deaths)**.

17 But as for the Children of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them (the northern kingdom under Jeroboam would be called by several names — Israel, Samaria, and Ephraim; some ten Tribes would be loyal to the northern confederacy; the southern confederacy, called Judah, would have some three Tribes that would remain loyal — Judah, Benjamin, and Levi; Shechem, and then Samaria, would be the capital of the northern confederacy, with Jerusalem being the capital of the southern confederacy)**.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram who was over the tribute (taxes); and the Children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. But king

Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem (wherever Rehoboam was, he realized he was in acute danger, so he went speedily to Jerusalem).

[19] And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

CHAPTER 11

(974 B.C.)

REHOBOAM FORBIDDEN TO FIGHT ISRAEL

[1] And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thousand (180,000) chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam (once again, Rehoboam did this thing without consulting the Lord; nevertheless, the Lord would consult him!).

[2] But the Word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

[3] Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

[4] Thus says the LORD, You shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his house: for this thing is done of Me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam (as God would not force Israel to serve Him, likewise, He will not force men to serve Him today; Salvation must always be from a "willing heart" [Rev. 22:17]).

REHOBOAM FORTIFIES HIS KINGDOM

[5] And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defence in Judah.

[6] He built even Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa,

[7] And Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam,

8 And Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph,

9 And Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah,

10 And Zorah, and Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin fenced cities.

11 And he fortified the strongholds, and put captains in them, and store of victual, and of oil and wine.

12 And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

13 And the Priests and the Levites who were in all Israel (the northern kingdom) resorted to him out of all their coasts (all worship of God had been discontinued in the northern confederacy; consequently, many Priests and Levites moved to Jerusalem).

THE PRIESTS AND LEVITES OF ISRAEL JOIN REHOBOAM BECAUSE OF JEROBOAM'S SINS

14 For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the Priest's office unto the LORD (living for God means forsaking all; it would seem farfetched to the carnal mind for individuals to leave their home, friends, and even family to go where God is moving; nevertheless, this has characterized true followers of the Lord from the very beginning):

15 And he ordained him priests for the high places, and for the devils, and for the calves which he had made. (Because of worshipping Satan, the northern confederacy would be destroyed as a nation about 749 B.C. [II Sam., Chpt. 17]. A little over 130 years later [616 B.C.], Judah was also destroyed for her sins [I Ki., Chpts. 24-25]. Seventy years later [546 B.C.], the Godly of all the thirteen Tribes returned to make a nation again in the land of Israel.)

16 And after them out of all the Tribes of Israel such as set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers (the Temple and the Altar were at Jerusalem; and this was the place that God had chosen, as it regards the site of His Temple)**.

17 So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years: for three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon. (This, of course, was speaking of the southern kingdom of Judah — but for only three years. It is amazing how the Holy Spirit delineated the time, down to almost the day. After this time, Rehoboam and Judah went into deep sin. As a result, God permitted Egypt to conquer them and take away all their treasures [12:2-12]. If Rehoboam had continued in the Godly Way, no kingdom or combination of kingdoms could have overcome him.)

REHOBOAM'S FAMILY

18 And Rehoboam took him Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David to wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse;

19 Which bore him children; Jeush, and Shamariah, and Zaham.

20 And after her he took Maachah the daughter of Absalom; which bore him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.

21 And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore concubines; and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters [Rehoboam was clearly wrong, according to Deut. 17:17]**.)

22 And Rehoboam made Abijah the son of Maachah the chief, to be ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him king.

23 And he dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his children throughout all the countries of Judah and Benjamin, unto every fenced city: and he gave them victual in abundance. And he desired many wives. (The words in the Hebrew, “wise dealing,” are an indication that his conscience was not quite at ease, and that he knew he was wrong. Nothing is so liable to blind judgment as personal affection — Pulpit.)

CHAPTER 12

(972 B.C.)

REHOBOAM'S APOSTASY

[1] And it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom, and had strengthened himself, he forsook the Law of the LORD, and all Israel (Judah) with him. (Judah prospered. Regrettably, prosperity sometimes is not a blessing. Too many times when Believers are blessed, they do exactly as Rehoboam did. They "forsake the Law of the LORD.")

SHISHAK OF EGYPT INVADES JUDAH

[2] And it came to pass, that in the fifth year of king Rehoboam Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against the LORD (in other words, the Lord allowed such, because of Judah's backsliding; the Lord allows such in order to cause people to appeal to Him; sometimes it works, and sometimes it doesn't!),

[3] With twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand (60,000) horsemen: and the people were without number who came with him out of Egypt; the Lubims, the Sukkiims, and the Ethiopians (the troops that accompanied the cavalry and the horse-soldiers were without number).

[4] And he (Shishak) took the fenced cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem (the only way that Shishak could have taken Judah, and especially Jerusalem, was because Judah had forsaken the Lord; the Lord was their power and strength; as long as they kept His Commandments and Statutes, no nation in the world, nor confederation of nations, could defeat them; however, when they "forsook the Law of the LORD," defeat was inevitable).

[5] Then came Shemaiah the Prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, who were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus says the LORD, You have forsaken Me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak (the Lord, in His Mercy, gives Judah warning; no warning could be more clear than this; if we follow the Lord, we will receive His Blessing; if we forsake the Lord, He will allow enemies to intrude upon us; our blessings are tied totally to Him)**.

6 Whereupon the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, The LORD is righteous (regrettably, their Repentance was not very deep; nevertheless, the Lord would honor it; when they said, "The LORD is righteous," this means that they knew that He was justified in what He had done, and that they deserved it)**.

7 And when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the Word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance; and My wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. (Notice the words "some deliverance." They would not have a complete Deliverance, only partial. The reason? Their Repentance was partial; therefore, their Deliverance was partial.)

8 Nevertheless they shall be his servants; that they may know My service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries (this meant that Judah must learn to obey and know the difference between serving God and serving ungodly nations; if they persisted in their ungodly ways, they would serve ungodly nations!)**.

9 So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the House of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had made. (To be sure, considering the riches that Solomon had amassed, what Shishak took must have been astronomical. Let the reader understand:

Satan desires to take away our spiritual treasures, plus everything else. And he will definitely do so, unless we minutely follow the Lord, which means to minutely follow His Word.)

10 Instead of which king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of the king's house. (The world robs the Church of Divine realities and public worship, and the Church tries to hide the loss by substituting imitation. How many Churches presently have "shields of brass" instead of "shields of gold"? The "shields of gold" represent Deity. They are symbolic of God's Glory, Protection, and Power. "Shields of brass" are symbolic of man and man's ways.)

11 And when the king entered into the House of the LORD, the guard came and fetched them, and brought them against into the guard chamber.

12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, that He would not destroy him altogether: and also in Judah things went well (humility is the only coin that will spend in God's economy [Isa. 66:2])**.

DEATH OF REHOBOAM

13 So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the Tribes of Israel, to put His Name there. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess.

14 And he did evil, because he prepared not his heart to seek the LORD. (What an indictment! But yet how true of so many.)

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the book of Shemaiah the Prophet, and of Iddo the Seer concerning genealogies? (A continued register of David's genealogies.) And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: And Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 13

(957 B.C.)

ABIJAH REIGNS OVER JUDAH

[1] Now in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah.

[2] He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Michaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. (The conflict between the northern and southern kingdoms of Israel and Judah continues, and will increase, even as we shall see.)

WAR WITH JEROBOAM

[3] And Abijah set the battle in array with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men: Jeroboam also set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, being mighty men of valour. (A few years before, Rehoboam could muster only 180,000 chosen men [11:1]. This indicates that many thousands of the northern confederacy had come down to become a part of the kingdom of Judah. The Holy Spirit wants us to note that even though these troops of Jeroboam were "mighty men of valor," still, they could not overcome what God had decreed otherwise!)

[4] And Abijah stood up upon Mount Zemaraim, which is in Mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, you Jeroboam, and all Israel;

[5] Ought you not to know that the LORD God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to David forever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt? (A "covenant of salt" is mentioned two other times in the Word of God [Lev. 2:13; Num. 18:19]. This covenant became a symbol of the incorruptibility of God's Covenant, and the perpetuity of man's obligation to Him. This Covenant refers to the solemnizing of any inviolable covenant. In other words, Abijah is telling Jeroboam that he is attempting to destroy what God has ordained. All of this shows that Abijah had a tremendous knowledge of the Word of God.)

6 Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, is risen up, and has rebelled against his lord.

7 And there are gathered unto him vain men, the children of Belial, and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tenderhearted, and could not withstand them.

8 And now you think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and you be a great multitude, and there are with you golden calves, which Jeroboam made you for gods (Abijah reminds Jeroboam of his worship of the "golden calves," which, in some measure, was the same as the religion of Egypt, and was totally detrimental to the Ways of the Lord)**.

9 Have you not cast out the Priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made you priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? so that whosoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are no gods (Jeroboam had substituted his own priesthood for God's Priesthood)**.

10 But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken Him; and the Priests, which minister unto the LORD, are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their business (as the Lord had commanded in the Law of Moses)**:

11 And they burn unto the LORD every morning and every evening Burnt Sacrifices and Sweet Incense: the shewbread also set they in order upon the pure Table; and the candlestick (Lampstand) of gold with the lamps thereof, to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of the LORD our God; but you have forsaken Him (as stated, all of this proclaims an extensive knowledge of the Ways of the Lord and the Law of Moses).

12 And, behold, God Himself is with us for our Captain, and His Priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O Children of Israel, fight you not against the LORD God of your fathers; for you shall not prosper (the Lord anointed Abijah to say these things).

ABIJAH DEFEATS JEROBOAM: 500,000 OF ISRAEL SLAIN

13 But Jeroboam caused an ambushment to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambushment was behind them (Jeroboam, because of having twice as many soldiers as Abijah, thinks his victory is certain; consequently, he ignores Abijah's message; in fact, he surrounded the army of Judah).

14 And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind: and they cried unto the LORD, and the Priests sounded with the trumpets (man's only hope is to "cry unto the LORD"! But sadly, few do).

15 Then the men of Judah gave a shout (a shout of Faith): and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that God smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah (the Holy Spirit is careful to denote the cause of the victory as being God; in the natural there was no way that Abijah's 400,000 men could even hope to defeat Jeroboam's army of 800,000 men; but with God all things are possible!).

16 And the Children of Israel fled before Judah: and God delivered them into their hand (if God fights for us, the enemy cannot win).

17 And Abijah and his people killed them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men (the word "slain" in the Hebrew can also mean "wounded," which it no doubt means here; at any rate the victory was gargantuan!).

18 Thus the Children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the Children of Judah prevailed, because they relied upon the LORD God of their fathers (over and over again, the Holy Spirit makes it known that it is God Who is the Author of this victory; obedience brings blessing, while disobedience brings defeat)**.

19 And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Beth-el with the towns thereof, and Jeshanah with the towns thereof, and Ephrain with the towns thereof.

20 Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah: and the LORD struck him, and he died (the Lord terminated his life, because he had set himself to do evil; how many others fall into the same category?)**.

ABIJAH'S FAMILY

21 But Abijah waxed mighty, and married fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters.

22 And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the story of the Prophet Iddo.

CHAPTER 14

(955 B.C.)

ASA REIGNS OVER JUDAH

[1] So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years (this was ten years without war, ten years of peace and prosperity).

[2] And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God (this is the reason for the peace, quiet, and prosperity):

[3] For he took away the altars of the strange gods, and the high places, and broke down the images, and cut down the groves (evidently, Judah, under Abijah, had been involved at least to some degree in idol worship, hence, the statement made about Abijah in I Ki., Chpt. 15):

[4] And commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do the Law and the Commandment (Asa points Judah to the Bible; how so badly we need Preachers presently who will, as well, point people to the Bible; but all too often the people are pointed in every direction except the Bible).

[5] Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the images: and the kingdom was quiet before him. (This lesson should be plain to every Christian — that sin opens the door for strife, opposition, destruction, and all manner of turbulence, while seeking the Ways of God and following the Word of God insure serenity, rest, and peace. This doesn't mean that Satan will cease to oppose the true Child of God; however, it does mean victory and then peace when Satan does oppose.)

ASA'S BUILDING PROGRAM

6 And he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because the LORD had given him rest (when one properly follows the Lord, "rest" is guaranteed [Mat. 11:28-30]).

7 Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought Him, and He has given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered (five times in these first seven Verses of this Chapter, the Holy Spirit alludes to this great blessing of "rest").

ASA'S ARMY

8 And Asa had an army of men who bore targets (large shields) and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, who bore shields and drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of valour (the Holy Spirit here alludes to the power of Judah; when people are right with God, they have power over the enemy [Acts 1:8]).

ASA'S VICTORY OVER ZERAH

9 And there came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian with an host of a thousand thousand (one million men), and three hundred chariots; and came unto Mareshah.

10 Then Asa went out against him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

11 And Asa cried unto the LORD his God, and said, LORD, it is nothing with You to help, whether with many, or with them who have no power: help us, O LORD our God; for we rest on You, and in Your Name we go against this multitude. O LORD, You are our God; let not man prevail against You. (Even though Asa, in fact, did have a mighty army, still, he did not rely on such. He "cried unto the LORD." All too often blessing and prosperity, even though from God, can turn the hearts and the heads of men away from God, but Asa seems, at least at this time, to have trusted solely in the Lord. If God does bless us with money and numbers, fine, well, and good. However, we must never look to these things, but always, and only, to the Lord.)

[12] So the LORD smote the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled (the Holy Spirit is quick here to proclaim the fact that it was the Lord Who brought about this great victory)**.

[13] And Asa and the people who were with him pursued them unto Gerar: and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before the LORD, and before His host; and they carried away very much spoil. (This is the Way of the Lord! Instead of Satan taking all that we have in the Lord, we are to take all that he has. It can be done only if the Believer will place his Faith exclusively in Christ and the Cross. Then the Holy Spirit will Work mightily on our behalf, even as He did here for Asa [Rom. 8:1-2, 11].)

[14] And they smote all the cities round about Gerar; for the fear of the LORD came upon them: and they spoiled all the cities; for there was exceeding much spoil in them. (The area around Gerar constituted the extreme southern portion of Judah, in fact, that which bordered Egypt. If the Believer has forfeited any of his spiritual inheritance to Satan, it must be regained, and can be regained, and in totality.)

[15] They smote also the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem. (This great victory dated the commencement of a period of comparative internal peace and reform for the kingdom of Judah, which lasted some twenty-one years, and all because of trust in God.)

CHAPTER 15

(955 B.C.)

AZARIAH THE PROPHET GETS A MESSAGE FROM GOD FOR ASA

[1] And the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded (this is the only place that the Prophet Azariah is mentioned):

[2] And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear you me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin; The LORD is with you, while you be with Him; and if you seek Him, He will be found of you; but if you forsake Him, He will forsake you. (Three things are here said: 1. The Lord is with you while you are with Him. 2. If you seek Him, He will be found of you. 3. If you forsake Him, He will forsake you. These eternal facts are true of an individual or a nation, Jews or Gentiles, people under Law or under Grace, in one age as well as another.)

[3] Now for a long season Israel has been without the true God, and without a teaching Priest, and without Law (this, no doubt, refers to the last years of Solomon, the fourteen years of Rehoboam's reign [11:17; 12:1], and the three years of Abijah's reign [I Ki. 15:1-4]).

[4] But when they in their trouble did turn unto the LORD God of Israel, and sought Him, He was found of them (this Promise is clear; God will not forsake those who turn to Him and seek Him; the Scripture is emphatic: "He was found of them").

[5] And in those times there was no peace to him who went out, nor to him who came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countries.

[6] And nation was destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity (even though they were His chosen people, called of Him and loved of Him, still, when they turned their backs on Him, spiritually speaking, He would "vex them with all adversity"; God desires to bless us, but, if we desire to oppose Him, He will, instead, "vex us," and He does it in order to bring us to our spiritual senses)**.

[7] Be you strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak: for your work shall be rewarded (the admonishment by the Holy Spirit was then and now, "Be strong" [I Cor. 16:13; Eph. 6:10; II Tim. 2:1])**.

THE REFORMS UNDER ASA

[8] And when Asa heard these words, and the Prophecy of Oded the Prophet (evidently, Oded, the father of Azariah, prophesied to Asa, as well as his son), he took courage, and put away the abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from Mount Ephraim, and renewed the Altar of the LORD, that was before the porch of the LORD (any time there is a true Move of God, the Lord will bring the people back to the Cross, symbolized here by the "Altar")**.

[9] And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him (tens of thousands from the northern kingdom of Israel moved to Judah when they saw that the Lord was with Asa)**.

[10] So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa (this was probably the Feast of Pentecost, conducted in June)**.

[11] And they offered unto the LORD the same time, of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep. (According to Num. 31:25-54, the Lord's portion, concerning the spoil of war, was to be one animal out of every five hundred from the half that belonged to the men of war, and one out of every fifty of the other half of the spoils that belonged to the congregation. On this basis [eleven animals for the Lord out of every one thousand taken], the total spoil must have numbered approximately 63,000 oxen and 636,000 sheep. When the Fourteenth Verse of the last Chapter said "exceeding much spoil," it meant exactly that.)

12 And they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul;

13 That whosoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman (this probably had to do with Ex. 22:20 and Deut. 13:6-11)**.

14 And they swore unto the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets (music has always accompanied Revival)**.

15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought Him with their whole desire; and He was found of them: and the LORD gave them rest round about (what a great statement, "And He was found of them"; in fact, He can be found of anyone, if, with true sincerity, He is sought!)**.

16 And also concerning Maachah the mother of Asa the king (his grandmother), he removed her from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove: and Asa cut down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron (she was a worshipper of the Asherah, an idol carved in the likeness of the male reproductive organ)**.

17 But the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days (the word "perfect," as used here, does not mean sinless perfection, but that his heart was perfect as far as idolatry was concerned; the "high places," at least in this instance, would have been used to sacrifice to Jehovah; however, still, this was not in keeping with the Commandment of God that the Sacrifices be offered only at the Temple at Jerusalem; consequently, the Holy Spirit mentions the "high places" for a reason)**.

18 And he brought into the House of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no more war unto the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa (Asa had peace the first ten years of his reign [14:1]; then came the Ethiopian invasion of Judah [14:9-15]; after that, there was peace for twenty-five years [15:19]; then came war with Baasha, king of the northern confederacy of Israel [16:1-6]; because he trusted in Syria at that time instead of God, wars were pronounced upon him for the balance of his reign — six more years [16:9])**.

CHAPTER 16

(941 B.C.)

WAR WITH BAASHA: ASA'S UNHOLY ALLIANCE WITH BEN-HADAD

[1] In the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, to the intent that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. (Tens of thousands of people from the northern kingdom of Israel were coming down to Judah, as stated, that they might worship God at the Temple. Baasha, king of Israel, was attempting to stop this flight by building this border city of Ramah.

One of the sure signs that a doctrine, or a so-called gospel, is wrong is when the propagators try to stop people from hearing anything else. One of Satan's greatest ploys is to place the true worship of God "off limits," and to threaten by force anyone who would attempt to exceed those limits.)

[2] Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the House of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, who dwelt at Damascus, saying (rather than trust God to help him regarding Baasha, he hired the king of Syria. Asa's plan would succeed militarily, but fail spiritually. The success of self-made plans is always a spiritual disaster.

It must be remembered that new victories cannot be won by the remembrance of old faith; there must be a fresh exercise of faith in every crisis),

[3] There is a league between me and you, as there was between my father and your father: behold, I have sent you silver and gold; go, break your league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me (Believers are never to join with unbelievers [II Cor. 6:14-18])**.

4 And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the store cities of Naphtali.

5 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard it, that he left off building of Ramah, and let his work cease.

6 Then Asa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was building; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

HANANI, THE PROPHET OF GOD, REBUKES ASA FOR RELYING ON SYRIA

7 And at that time Hanani the Seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, Because you have relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the LORD your God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of your hand (is it possible that God makes plans for us which speak of great victory, and we forfeit those plans by our faithlessness? Rather than trusting Him, we trust man).

8 Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubims a huge host, with very many chariots and horsemen? yet, because you did rely on the LORD, He delivered them into your hand (why did Asa rely on the Lord then, and not rely on Him now? As stated, yesterday's faith will not suffice for today!).

9 For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole Earth, to show Himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward Him. Herein you have done foolishly: therefore from henceforth you shall have wars (when one considers that the Lord is ardently looking for individuals who will believe Him, so that He might "show Himself strong on their behalf," such should give us a very positive perspective on the Ways of the Lord; our Lord desires to help people, but they must evidence Faith in Him, and it must be a continuous Faith).

10 Then Asa was wroth with the Seer, and put him in a prison house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa oppressed some of the people the same time. (This is the same Asa who instituted the great Revival of Chapter 15. How the mighty have fallen! If Asa had truly repented as this time, thereby heeding the Prophet, more than likely the diseases of Verse 12 would not have come upon him and shortened his life.)

[11] And, behold, the acts of Asa, first and last (the statement, "first and last," signifies that there was a difference in Asa in his last years), lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

ASA'S SICKNESS AND DEATH

[12] And Asa in the thirty and ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he sought not to the LORD, but to the physicians. (The Lord permitted this disease as a result of Asa's actions. I wonder how many presently fall into the same category.

The idea of this Verse is that if Asa had sought the Lord, the Lord would have forgiven him and healed him.

The "physicians" who are spoken of here were probably Egyptian physicians, who were in high repute at foreign courts in ancient times, and who pretended to expel diseases by charms, incantations, and mystic arts. In other words, they were Satanic!)

[13] And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign (because of his faithlessness, Asa no doubt cut his life short!)**.

[14] And they buried him in his own sepulchres, which he had made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odours and divers kinds of spices prepared by the apothecaries' art: and they made a very great burning for him (the burning of spices)**.

CHAPTER 17

(912 B.C.)

JEHOSHAPHAT SUCCEEDS ASA

[1] And Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Israel. (Jehoshaphat is a Godly man, yet with one glaring weakness — forming alliances with heathenistic Israel. Strangely enough, he would fortify himself greatly in a military sense against Israel, but, yet he will compromise his spiritual stand by forming an alliance with the same people.

Far too often, the modern Church begins by opposing evil, and then compromises with evil.)

[2] And he placed forces in all the fenced cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken.

[3] And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat (the greatest thing that could ever be said of any man), because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim (it is believed by some Scholars that the name of David is wrongly inserted here; as well, it is not in the Septuagint; most probably, the reference is to Asa, the father of Jehoshaphat; inasmuch as the terminology does not exactly fit David, it is my personal opinion also that the translation is incorrect here, with Asa being the correct name)**;

[4] But sought to the LORD God of his father, and walked in His Commandments, and not after the doings of Israel (idolatry)**.

[5] Therefore the LORD stablished the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought to Jehoshaphat presents; and he had riches and honour in abundance (blessings follow obedience!)**.

REVIVAL UNDER JEHOSHAPHAT

6 And his heart was lifted up in the ways of the LORD: moreover he took away the high places and groves out of Judah. (As previously stated, the people were not sacrificing to idols at these "high places and groves," but were sacrificing to Jehovah. Yet, this was against the Law of God inasmuch as they were supposed to sacrifice in Jerusalem. Almost invariably, the Sacrifices to Jehovah would eventually degenerate into sacrifices to idols. The reason for the one place of Sacrifice, and we speak of the Temple, is because there was to be but one Calvary.)

7 Also in the third year of his reign he sent to his princes, even to Ben-hail, and to Obadiah, and to Zechariah (not the Prophet), and to Nethaneel, and to Michaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah (this proclaims Jehoshaphat doing something that had never been done before — the teaching of the Law throughout Judah)**.

8 And with them he sent Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah, Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, Priests.

9 And they taught in Judah, and had the Book of the Law of the LORD with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught the people (this was the first great teaching mission instituted by any king of Israel; the Law of Moses was taken from city to city and taught to the people; the "Law of the LORD" was the Pentateuch — Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy; fidelity to the Word of God is the key to all blessing from God)**.

JEHOSHAPHAT'S POWER AND PROSPERITY

10 And the fear of the LORD fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat (all of this shows that the Lord was immensely pleased with this which Jehoshaphat was doing; this Passage shows that God can stop enemies from making war, or He can cause them to make war; all depends on our faith and our consecration).

11 Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and tribute silver; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he goats (this is the way it should be! Instead of Satan taking what we have, we should take what he has).

12 And Jehoshaphat waxed great exceedingly; and he built in Judah castles, and cities of store.

13 And he had much business (substance) in the cities of Judah: and the men of war, mighty men of valour, were in Jerusalem.

14 And these are the numbers of them according to the house of their fathers: Of Judah, the captains of thousands; Adnah the chief, and with him mighty men of valour three hundred thousand.

15 And next to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and fourscore thousand.

16 And next him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself unto the LORD; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valour.

17 And of Benjamin; Eliada a mighty man of valour, and with him armed men with bow and shield two hundred thousand.

18 And next him was Jehozabad, and with him an hundred and fourscore thousand ready prepared for the war.

19 These waited on the king, beside those whom the king put in the fenced cities throughout all Judah (very similar to David's "mighty men"!).

CHAPTER 18

(897 B.C.)

JEHOSHAPHAT'S ALLIANCE WITH AHAB TO WAR AGAINST SYRIA

[1] Now Jehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance, and joined affinity with Ahab. (Oftentimes, riches and honor are more dangerous to the spiritual life than contempt and poverty. It is much better for the Preacher if most are cursing him instead of praising him. Probably the greatest danger to the Church is "joining affinity with the world." This leaven that Satan introduced into Judah would ultimately drench Jerusalem with blood.)

[2] And after certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria. And Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people who he had with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to Ramoth-gilead (when the Believer "goes down" to the world, he is received with great hospitality, but immediately is made a tool of the world)**.

[3] And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Will you go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, I am as you are, and my people as your people; and we will be with you in the war (Jehoshaphat answered falsely; he, in fact, was led by God, while Ahab was led by Satan; the people of Judah were worshippers of the True God, with the people of Israel worshipping Baal; in fact, there was no similarity between the two; the Lord was grossly displeased with Jehoshaphat making affinity with Ahab)**.

AHAB'S FALSE PROPHETS

[4] And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Enquire, I pray you, at the Word of the LORD today (if Jehoshaphat had enquired of the Lord previously, he would not even be here with Ahab)*.

5 Therefore the king of Israel gathered together of prophets four hundred men (false prophets), and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for God will deliver it into the king's hand (the modern Church abounds presently with this type of "prophet"; they prophesy continuously, but they prophesy out of their own minds, because precious few are actually from the Lord).

6 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a Prophet of the LORD besides, that we might enquire of him? (At least, Jehoshaphat knew that their prophecies did not ring true; unfortunately, far too many of modern Christendom do not know the false from the true.)

7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil: the same is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so (sadly, the ratio of 400-to-1 would pretty well hold true today; prophets abound on every corner, but precious few are actually from the Lord; the few who are from the Lord are "hated"; of this, one can be certain).

8 And the king of Israel called for one of his officers, and said, Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla.

9 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets (false prophets) prophesied before them (if it is to be noticed, they were prophesying prosperity, exactly as is the modern brand).

10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made him horns of iron, and said, Thus says the LORD, With these you shall push Syria until they be consumed (the false prophets were just as quick to cry, "Thus says the LORD," but the truth was, what they were saying was not from the Lord!).

11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

MICAIAH'S TRUE PROPHECY

12 And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one assent; let your word therefore, I pray you, be like one of theirs, and speak you good (the times have changed; the demand has not; the apostate Church is still saying, "Speak you good"; as Israel of old could not tolerate the truth, the modern Church cannot tolerate the truth, either)**.

13 And Micaiah said, As the LORD lives, even what my God says, that will I speak (his determination to speak only what "Thus says the LORD," would earn him continued imprisonment, the bread and water of affliction, and without Jehoshaphat lifting a hand to help him)**.

14 And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go you up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand (Micaiah begins by answering a fool according to his folly; he answers in sarcasm, which is easily obvious)**.

15 And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure you that you say nothing but the truth to me in the Name of the LORD? (As the facts will prove, Ahab didn't want the truth!)

16 Then he said, I did see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return therefore every man to his house in peace (this "word" must have hit like a bombshell in the ears of wicked Ahab)**.

17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good unto me, but evil? (Unfortunately, there are many false prophets presently, who are ready and willing to prophesy "good," irrespective of what the truth actually is.)

18 Again he said, Therefore hear the Word of the LORD; I saw the LORD sitting upon His Throne, and all the Host of Heaven standing on His right hand and on His left (we are now privy to one of the most astounding pictures of the Throne of God, and the manner in which Heavenly business is conducted)**.

19 And the LORD said, Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spoke saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner (if Ahab had repented, this scene would not have taken place; but despite the warning of the Lord, he will carry out his own self-will; it would be to his doom!)**.

20 Then there came out a spirit (evil spirit), and stood before the LORD, and said, I will entice him. And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? (We learn from this, and from Job, Chpts. 1-2, that Satan, along with evil spirits, presently have access, at least at times, to the Throne of God. There will come a time, and shortly, when all such will be cast out of Heaven, and allowed no more entrance [Rev. 12:9-10]. In fact, just exactly why the Lord has allowed Satan and demon spirits such access is a mystery [Rev. 10:7].)

21 And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets (Ahab's prophets; lying spirits still have access to the mouths of false prophets, even unto to this hour). And the LORD said, You shall entice him, and you shall also prevail: go out, and do even so (the idea is, if men will not have the truth, the Lord will aid and abet their believing a lie)**.

22 Now therefore, behold, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these your prophets, and the LORD has spoken evil against you (we learn from this that God controls not only the Heavenly Host of Righteousness, but also the world of spiritual darkness; Satan can only do what God allows him to do)**.

23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and smote Micaiah upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto you? (Jehoshaphat saw this, and yet did not lift his hand to help the Prophet of God. Judah would pay dearly for Jehoshaphat's sin.)

24 And Micaiah said, Behold, you shall see on that day when you shall go into an inner chamber to hide yourself (which would take place when Ahab was killed!).

25 Then the king of Israel said, Take you Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

26 And say, Thus says the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace (as stated, Jehoshaphat didn't lift a hand to help him!).

27 And Micaiah said, If you certainly return in peace, then has not the LORD spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, all you people (before Micaiah was led away to prison, he turned to all the people who were present, who had heard God's pronouncement, and warned them! Sadly, they did not hearken, and Ahab was killed).

THE DEFEAT AND DEATH OF AHAB

28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead (Jehoshaphat was a foolish man, especially in the face of this prophecy, to accompany Ahab).

29 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and I will go to the battle; but you put on your robes (kingly robes). So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went to the battle (stupid men! If men spent as much time trying to please God as they do trying to outwit God, how much better off they would be).

30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the Captains of the chariots who were with him, saying, Fight you not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel (the Lord had put it in the mind of the king of Syria to seek only Ahab).

31 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel (because of his kingly robes). Therefore they compassed about him to fight: but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved them to depart from him (otherwise, he would have been killed; only by the Mercy and Grace of God was he spared; he had no business being here).

[32] For it came to pass, that, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again from pursuing him.

[33] And a certain man drew a bow at a venture (in other words, he just shot an arrow, not especially aiming at anything), and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness (but God guided the arrow straight toward Ahab): therefore he said to his chariot man, Turn your hand, that you may carry me out of the host; for I am wounded (exactly as the Prophet Micaiah had said; the Word of God always comes to pass).

[34] And the battle increased that day: howbeit the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the evening: and about the time of the sun going down he died. (The sun went "down" for Ahab in more ways than one. He not only lost his life; he lost his soul — despite the fact that God had attempted to show him Mercy and Grace. His death is a portrayal of rebellion — a rebellion that characterizes most of the human race. How many today are headed toward their doom, spurning the Love, Grace, and Mercy of God, along with repeated warnings? Their "sun is going down.")

CHAPTER 19

(896 B.C.)

JEHU REBUKES JEHOSHAPHAT

[1] And Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem. (This Chapter proclaims rebuke and Repentance. Jehoshaphat returned in peace, only because the Lord was merciful to him. The two kings, Ahab and Jehoshaphat, are perfect examples of rebellion against God, which brings death, and serving God, which brings life — and that despite Jehoshaphat's unfaithfulness.)

[2] And Jehu the son of Hanani the Seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Should you help the ungodly, and love them who hate the LORD? therefore is wrath upon you from before the LORD (the Lord was very displeased with Jehoshaphat's alliance with Ahab, and there would be repercussions, even as the word "wrath" proclaims, and which we shall see; sin must never be taken lightly or with impunity; in fact, sin is so powerful that the only answer to this dilemma is the Cross [Heb. 10:12])**.

[3] Nevertheless there are good things found in you, in that you have taken away the groves out of the land (idol worship), and have pre pared your heart to seek God (and it is the heart to which the Lord looks)**.

ADDITIONAL REFORMS UNDER JEHOSHAPHAT

[4] And Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: and he went out again through the people from Beer-sheba to Mount Ephraim, and brought them back unto the LORD God of their fathers (the word "again," as used here, speaks of Repentance on the part of Jehoshaphat and, as well, the second revival of teaching the Law of Moses and bringing the people back to God; the "Word" must always be set before the people; there is no other refuge!)**.

5 And he set judges in the land throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city by city,

6 And said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for you judge not for man, but for the LORD, Who is with you in the judgment (civil duties were to be carried out strictly according to the Word of the Lord).

7 Wherefore now let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of gifts (the latter speaks of bribery; honest judgment by these Judges must be in the Name of the Lord, and all, as stated, according to God's Word).

8 Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set of the Levites, and of the Priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, for the judgment of the LORD, and for controversies, when they returned to Jerusalem. (This concerned cases appealed to the higher court, actually the highest in Israel. There must be justice for the poor, and the rich must not be able to buy their way out of wrongdoing. All of this actually goes back to the Cross, in effect stating that sin cannot be assuaged by any other manner than the Cross [I Cor. 1:17-18, 23; 2:2].)

9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shall you do in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart.

10 And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren who dwell in your cities, between blood and blood, between Law and Commandment, Statutes and Judgments, you shall even warn them that they trespass not against the LORD, and so wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and you shall not trespass (pure and simple, Jehoshaphat warns these Judges that if they do not abide by the Word of the Lord, they will be committing sin, and the Wrath of God will be the result).

11 And, behold, Amariah the Chief Priest is over you in all matters of the LORD (the spiritual); and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the House of Judah, for all the king's matters (Civil duties): also the Levites shall be officers before you (the Law). Deal courageously, and the LORD shall be with the good (at the same time, the latter phrase is stating that the Lord cannot be with the bad).

CHAPTER 20

(896 B.C.)

MOAB INVADES JUDAH

1 It came to pass after this also, that the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them other beside the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle (this invasion was probably allowed by the Lord because of Jehoshaphat's previous alliance with Ahab, which, as stated, greatly displeased the Lord [19:2]).

2 Then there came some who told Jehoshaphat, saying, There comes a great multitude against you from beyond the sea on this side Syria; and, behold, they be in Hazazon-tamar, which is En-gedi (this was more than a skirmish; it was a concentrated effort by the powers of darkness to destroy Judah).

JEHOSHAPHAT PRAYS FOR DELIVERANCE

3 And Jehoshaphat feared (this is not the "spirit of fear" spoken of by Paul, but rather the type of fear that is supposed to drive us to the Lord, and which it did Jehoshaphat), and set himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

4 And Judah gathered themselves together, to ask help of the LORD: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD (regrettably, the modern Church is teaching the people to seek the help of humanistic psychologists; let it ever be known, there is no help whatsoever from that source; the Lord Alone can help!).

5 And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the House of the LORD, before the new court,

6 And said, O LORD God of our fathers, are not You God in Heaven? and rule not You over all the kingdoms of the heathen? and in Your hand is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand You? (Even though these heathen powers did not serve God, still, they could do nothing except that which the Lord allowed them to do. As well, while Satan may be mighty in some respects, God Alone is Almighty!)

7 Are not You our God, Who did drive out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel, and gave it to the seed of Abraham Your friend for ever? (The Lord was Israel's God, and they were His Children. Now, Satan is attempting to take the possession and inheritance that was given by the Lord.

The word "forever" signifies the fact that our inheritance is never to be taken from us by the powers of darkness. God intends for us to keep it forever. In fact, it can be forfeited only by rebellion against the Lord.)

8 And they dwelt therein, and have built You a Sanctuary therein for Your Name, saying (it was a House of Sacrifices, hence the shed Blood of the Lamb being the defense, and the only true defense, of Israel [7:12]), 9 If, when evil comes upon us, as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this House, and in Your Presence, (for Your Name is in this House,) and cry unto You in our affliction, then You will hear and help (Solomon had prayed this prayer many years before [Chpt. 6]; the Lord had promised to answer, that is, if certain conditions were met [7:14])**.

10 And now, behold, the children of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir, whom You would not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them, and destroyed them not (all of this proclaims the fact that Jehoshaphat knew the Word)**;

11 Behold, I say, how they reward us, to come to cast us out of Your possession, which You have given us to inherit (that which Satan ever attempts to do)**.

12 O our God, will You not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that comes against us; neither know we what to do: but our eyes are upon You (within ourselves, we have no might against Satan, and that we must ever learn; our strength is totally in the Lord; as then, so now!)**.

JAHAZIEL PROMISES GOD'S DELIVERANCE

13 And all Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their children (Jehoshaphat had called upon all to seek the Lord)**.

14 Then upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, came the Spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation (the Spirit of the Lord is the answer, and the only answer [Zech. 4:6])**;

15 And he said, Hearken you, all Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat, Thus says the LORD unto you, Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's. (If we try to fight the battle on our terms, we will lose; if we fight the battle on His terms, we will win. What are those terms?

We have to trust in Christ, Who has already fought this battle and won, and did so at the Cross [Col. 2:14-15]. Doing that, the Holy Spirit will then guarantee us the victory of Christ [Rom. 8:1-2, 11].)

16 Tomorrow go you down against them: behold, they come up by the cliff of Ziz; and you shall find them at the end of the brook, before the wilderness of Jeruel.

17 You shall not need to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand you still, and see the Salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem ("stand still" refers to the ceasing and desisting of our own personal efforts, i.e., "the flesh," and thereby trusting the Lord completely, and what He has done for us at the Cross): fear not, nor be dismayed (ever the Word given to us by the Lord)*; tomorrow go out against them: for the LORD will be with you (and if He is with us, who can be against us?).

[18] And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD.

[19] And the Levites, of the Children of the Kohathites, and of the Children of the Korhites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high (indicative of a Pentecostal meeting!).

GOD FULFILLS HIS PROMISE

[20] And they (Judah) rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in the LORD your God (have faith in Him), so shall you be established (established in His Word); believe His Prophets, so shall you prosper (true Prophets!).

[21] And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD (told to do this by the Lord), and that should praise the Beauty of Holiness, as they went out before the army (praise must precede our effort), and to say, Praise the LORD; for His Mercy endures for ever (praise and worship through singing and music constitute the highest form of worship, that is if it is Spirit-directed; to be sure, modern contemporary Christian music, so-called, definitely does not fall into this category, and any Christian who thinks it does is only fooling himself).

[22] And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushments against the Children of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten (the Jewish Targums say that these ambushments were caused by Angels).

[23] For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir, utterly to kill and destroy them (the children of Ammon and Moab became so confused that they began to destroy the Edomites instead of the Israelites)*: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another (they then turned on each other — all of this caused by the Lord).

[24] And when Judah came toward the watch tower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, and, behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and none escaped (all of this portrays to us, in type and shadow, the manner presently in which our battles must be fought and won; Paul said that these are examples for us [I Cor. 10:11]).

[25] And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it was so much (this is the true position of the Child of God; the Lord intends for us to take the spoil of Satan, instead of him robbing us).

[26] And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Berachah; for there they blessed the LORD (thanked Him for what He had done for them): therefore the name of the same place was called, The valley of Berachah, unto this day (the "valley of Blessing").

[27] Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for the LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies (and this the Lord will enable all of us to do, providing we look to Christ as our Source and the Cross as the Means [Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11; I Cor. 1:17-18, 23; 2:2; Gal. 6:14; Col. 2:14-15]).

[28] And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets unto the House of the LORD (they were playing these instruments and praising the Lord as they came into Jerusalem, and unto the Temple).

[29] And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel. (Such a miraculous defeat of the Moabites, Ammonites, and Edomites was soon known by all nations round about. What a victory!)

30 So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet: for his God gave him rest round about (Mat. 11:28-30).

A SUMMARY OF JEHOSHAPHAT'S REIGN

31 And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

32 And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and departed not from it, doing that which was right in the sight of the LORD.

33 Howbeit the high places were not taken away (even though Jehoshaphat had given instructions that this be done [17:6]): for as yet the people had not prepared their hearts unto the God of their fathers (despite the great miracle which they had just experienced in the defeat of their enemies; this shows that miracles do not necessarily turn one to God).

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Jehu the son of Hanani, who is mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel.

35 And after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel (son of Ahab), who did very wickedly:

36 And he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in Ezion-gaber (once again, Jehoshaphat will succumb to his old sin; an old sin is an easy sin).

37 Then Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because you have joined yourself with Ahaziah, the LORD has broken your works. And the ships were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarshish. (The prosperity of Jehoshaphat was not to be found in wicked Ahaziah, but in the Lord, always in the Lord! When it says, in the Thirty-second Verse, that Jehoshaphat departed not from doing that which was right in the sight of the Lord, it was speaking of idol-worship. Despite his sin regarding alliances with the northern kingdom of Israel, he never succumbed in any manner to idol-worship.)

CHAPTER 21

(896 B.C.)

THE REIGN OF WICKED JEHORAM OVER JUDAH

[1] Now Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

[2] And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel (the word "Israel" being used instead of Judah is not an error in transcription; it does show that God recognized the faithful remnant of Judah as His entire people).

[3] And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram; because he was the firstborn (Jehoram was one of the most wicked kings to sit on the throne of Judah; according to the last phrase of this Verse, the implication is that Jehoshaphat did not have the mind of the Lord regarding the selection of Jehoram; most of the time, the law of the firstborn held true even in throne rights, but not always; God overruled in some cases because the firstborn was not the suitable one for a position; to be sure, Jehoram was certainly not the suitable one here).

[4] Now when Jehoram was risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and killed all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Israel (he killed all those of Verse 2; he strengthened himself by murder and ruthlessness, instead of doing it the way his Godly father had done, by the blessing of God).

[5] Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem (it was a dark time for Israel!).

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD (we now see the leaven that was in the life of Jehoshaphat concerning his alliance with Ahab; the awful thing about sin is that it breeds more sin and, in fact, can only be stopped by Faith in Christ and what Christ did at the Cross).

7 Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the Covenant that He had made with David, and as He promised to give a light to him and to his sons forever.

EDOM AND LIBNAH REVOLT

8 In his days the Edomites revolted from under the dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Jehoram went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did Libnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers (over and over again, we see blessing coming because of adherence to the Word of God and, as well, judgment because of failure to adhere to the Word of God).

ELIJAH'S PROPHECY OF THE SICKNESS AND DEATH OF JEHORAM

11 Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and compelled Judah thereto (this was mostly the worship of the "Asherah"; it was the male sex organ, carved out of a tree trunk, and standing anywhere from 10 to 20 feet high; this, as the god of fertility, would be worshipped with all type of sexual sins being practiced).

12 And there came a writing to him from Elijah the Prophet, saying, Thus says the LORD God of David your father, Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

13 But have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go a whoring, like to the whoredoms of the house of Ahab (idol-worship), and also have killed your brethren of your father's house, which were better than yourself:

14 Behold, with a great plague will the LORD smite your people, and your children, and your wives, and all your goods:

15 And you shall have great sickness by disease of your bowels, until your bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day. (Even though Elijah was basically a Prophet to the northern kingdom of Israel, which was sometimes referred to as Samaria, still, the Lord gave him this great word for Jehoram. Had the king repented, all of this could have been avoided. But regrettably, he ignored the Word of the Lord from the Lord through Elijah the Prophet. The end result would be exactly as Elijah prophesied.)

16 Moreover the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, who were near the Ethiopians (we see the Lord's hand in everything, be it negative or positive, all based on disobedience or obedience):

17 And they came up into Judah, and broke into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons (this was the first of two times in this period that the royal line was cut off except for one boy — the line that would be in the lineage of Christ [22:10]).

JEHORAM'S SUFFERING AND DEATH

18 And after all this the LORD smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease (exactly as the Prophet Elijah had predicted, because of his gross wickedness; all sickness in Believers cannot be traced to sin in their lives; however, most definitely, some can!).

19 And it came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness: so he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers (in essence, the Lord gave this wicked monarch "two years" in which to repent; but he didn't!).

20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed without being desired *(what an indictment!). Howbeit they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

CHAPTER 22

AHAZIAH'S WICKED REIGN OVER JUDAH

[1] And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead: for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had killed all the eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned. (This king had three names: "Ahaziah," "Azariah," and "Jehoahaz." All have the same meaning in Hebrew, "Jehovah takes hold"; however, Jehovah had no opportunity to take hold in the life of this wicked king.

As one reads these accounts, it becomes overly obvious that sin does not pay.)

[2] Forty and two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Athaliah the daughter of Omri (the "leaven" that was in the life of Jehoshaphat concerning his alliance with Ahab will now continue its rot; Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, was actually the daughter of Ahab and Jezebel, which made her the granddaughter of Omri; the Hebrew language had no designation such as "granddaughter" or "grandson," etc.).

[3] He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counselor to do wickedly (Jehoahaz followed his wicked father, Jehoram, who had also walked in all the wicked ways of Ahab and Jezebel; his mother killed all of her grandsons except one and seized the throne of Judah, which she kept for six years).

[4] Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab: for they were his counselors after the death of his father to his destruction.

5 He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote Joram (Joram, the king of the northern confederacy of Israel, is the same as Jehoram).

6 And he returned to be healed in Jezreel because of the wounds which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram (who was the king of Israel; he had the same name as Azariah's father) the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick.

JEHU SLAYS AHAZIAH

7 And the destruction of Ahaziah was of God by coming to Joram: for when he was come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab (the Lord determined the destruction of Ahaziah because of his sins; it was brought about by Jehu, whom the Lord caused to be king of the ten Tribes; Jehu killed both Jehoram [Joram], king of the ten Tribes, and Ahaziah of Judah).

8 And it came to pass, that, when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, who ministered to Ahaziah, he killed them.

9 And he sought Ahaziah: and they caught him, (for he was hid in Samaria,) and brought him to Jehu: and when they had killed him, they buried him: Because, said they, he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah had no power to keep still the kingdom (the last phrase in this Verse means that there was no one of the house of Ahaziah who could succeed him; the Hebrew Text does not say, "no one left," simply because Joash was the son of Ahaziah, but he was but an infant at the time).

ATHALIAH USURPS THE THRONE

10 But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah (one of the most wicked women ever!).

11 But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons who were killed, and put him and his nurse in a bedchamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the Priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah,) hid him from Athaliah, so that she killed him not (evidently, this bloody woman thought she had killed them all, not realizing that the infant was not dead; from this bloodstained room, the daughter of Jehoram [Jehoshaphat's son] stole away baby Joash; he was the only one left in the lineage of Christ).

12 And he was with them hid in the House of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land (at this time, the Temple was not in use; the people were worshipping idols on the mountaintops and other places; so, the "House of God" was the logical place for him to be hidden, so he wouldn't be murdered by this evil woman).

CHAPTER 23

JEHOIADA, THE PRIEST, SECURES THE CROWN FOR JOASH

1 And in the seventh year Jehoiada (the High Priest) strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him. (The "seventh year" refers to the length of time between Ahaziah's assassination through the reign of the wicked queen Athaliah. Joash was now seven years old. The "covenant" had to do with making Joash king, who was the rightful heir to the throne. He was the only one left at this time in the lineage of David.)

2 And they (all of Verse 1) went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

3 And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the House of God. And he said unto them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD has said of the sons of David (II Sam. 7:12).

4 This is the thing that you shall do; A third part of you entering on the Sabbath, of the Priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the doors (keepers of the doors of the Temple [I Chron. 9:19]);

5 And a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the House of the LORD (to keep watch).

6 But let none come into the House of the LORD, save the Priests, and they who minister of the Levites; they shall go in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD (the distinction between "the courts of the House of the Lord," which were outside the Temple, and "the House of the Lord," is quite apparent; none but the Priests could enter the Temple).

[7] And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever else comes into the house, he shall be put to death: but be you with the king when he comes in, and when he goes out (the exception to the rule of no one entering the Temple but the Priests, at least at this time, was the boy king, Joash; he was to be surrounded by Priests and Levites when he was brought out of the Temple to the people).

[8] So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the Priest had commanded, and took every man his men who were to come in on the Sabbath, with them who were to go out on the Sabbath: for Jehoiada the Priest dismissed not the courses (was going to set in motion once again the 24 courses ordained by David).

[9] Moreover Jehoiada the Priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in the House of God (some think these may have been the shields of gold that king David took from the servants of Hadadezer [II Sam. 8:7, 11] — Pulpit).

[10] And he set all the people, every man having his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the Temple to the left side of the Temple, along by the Altar and the Temple, by the king round about (Joash was placed by the Altar of Burnt Offerings, which typified Calvary, with rows of guards bristling with weapons before, behind, and round about him).

[11] Then they brought out the king's son (Joash), and put upon him the crown, and gave him the Testimony (the Scrolls containing the Law — probably Exodus and Leviticus), and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, God save the king.

ATHALIAH IS SLAIN

12 Now when Athaliah (the wicked queen) heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the House of the LORD (unto the House of the Lord; she did not go into the Temple, but most definitely would have, had she not been restrained):

13 And she looked, and, behold, the king stood at his pillar at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets, also the singers with instruments of music, and such as taught to sing praise (all of our music should be to render praise to the Lord). Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, Treason, Treason (it was treason directed at her, and of that she was right).

14 Then Jehoiada the Priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges (in the ranges or rows of soldiers): and whoso follows her, let him be killed with the sword (if anyone tries to go into the Temple). For the Priest said, Kill her not in the House of the LORD (in other words, they killed her before she could go into the Temple).

15 So they laid hands on her; and when she was come to the entering of the horse gate by the king's house, they killed her there.

REVIVAL UNDER JEHOIADA, THE HIGH PRIEST

16 And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be the LORD's people.

17 Then all the people went to the house of Baal, and broke it down, and broke his altars and his images in pieces, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars (it seems that a building, dedicated to Baal, had been built alongside the Temple).

18 Also Jehoiada appointed the offices of the House of the LORD by the hand of the Priests the Levites, whom David had distributed in the House of the LORD, to offer the Burnt Offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the Law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as it was ordained by David (all of the 24 courses ordained by David were reinstated, as well as all of the ceremonies of the Law of Moses).

[19] And he set the porters at the gates of the House of the LORD, that none which was unclean in anything should enter in.

[20] And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the House of the LORD: and they came through the high gate into the king's house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom.

[21] And all the people of the land rejoiced: and the city was quiet, after that they had killed Athaliah with the sword (as the sword did rid Judah of this altogether evil influence, likewise, the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God, must, as well, rid every enemy of our souls from our lives [Heb. 12:1; Eph. 6:17]).

CHAPTER 24

JOASH REIGNS WELL AND LONG IN JUDAH

[1] Joash was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Zibiah of Beer-sheba (if it is to be noticed, the mother's name is given, as it regards these kings, because the father often had several wives; Joash was the youngest king to reign in all Israel, and the fifth king to reign for 40 years; he is called "Jehoash" in II Ki. 12:2).

[2] And Joash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the Priest (but only during the lifetime of Jehoiada; under the tutelage of this Godly Priest, he had an excellent beginning; however, when Jehoiada died, Joash went into deep apostasy and sin; there is every indication that he died eternally lost).

[3] And Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he begat sons and daughters (took two wives for Joash).

JOASH REPAIRS THE TEMPLE

[4] And it came to pass after this, that Joash was minded to repair the House of the LORD (not having been used for years, it had fallen into a state of disrepair; presently, in the spiritual sense, there are many houses of the Lord which need repairing [I Cor. 3:16]).

[5] And he gathered together the Priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of all Israel money to repair the House of your God from year to year, and see that you hasten the matter. Howbeit the Levites hastened it not (we are not told why this delay; however, it seemed to rest in some way with Jehoiada).

6 And the king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said unto him, Why have you not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the collection, according to the Commandment of Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the Tabernacle of witness? (It seems that a census was to be taken in Judah, with a half-shekel for each person levied against all the people of Judah [Ex. 30:13-16]. This redemption money was to be used for the repair work. Organizing this, which was the responsibility of Jehoiada, seemed to cause the delay.)

7 For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the House of God; and also all the dedicated things of the House of the LORD did they bestow upon Baalim (most of the damage to the Temple came from wicked kings and, in this case, a wicked queen; likewise, most of the damage done to the Work of God presently is little done by the world, but, instead, by false doctrine in an apostate Church).

8 And at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the House of the LORD (where the census or ransom money would be collected).

9 And they made a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness (again, this was the ransom money of a half-shekel for each person that was to be paid when a census was taken; this money was to go for the upkeep of the Temple, etc.; this is why it was referred to as the "shekel of the Sanctuary" [Ex. 30:11-16]).

10 And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end (when people start living right, people start giving; when people are not living right, people quit giving).

11 Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the High Priest's officer (an officer of Jehoiada) came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

[12] And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the House of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the House of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to mend the House of the LORD (the "House of the LORD" presently [since the Cross] is the heart and life of each Believer [I Cor. 3:16]; the Holy Spirit is the One Who does the repairing, which, from time to time, is needed!).

[13] So the workmen wrought, and the work was perfected by them, and they set the House of God in his state, and strengthened it.

[14] And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, whereof were made vessels for the House of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered Burnt Offerings in the House of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada (once again, the daily Sacrifices were established; however, when Jehoiada died, this too would stop).

JEHOIADA, THE HIGH PRIEST, DIES

[15] But Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of days when he died; an hundred and thirty years old was he when he died (Jehoiada was born in Solomon's reign; he, therefore, lived through six reigns; as is obvious here, the Lord allowed him to live far beyond the normal time, all in order to guide Joash).

[16] And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God, and toward His House (the Temple; what a testimony given by the Holy Spirit to the faithfulness of this man).

JOASH TURNS TO IDOLATRY

17 Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king. Then the king hearkened unto them (at the commencement of his reign, Joash leaned on Jehoiada, who was a Godly man; afterwards, he leaned on the princes of Judah, who were wicked men; to lean on men, whether they be good or wicked, is disastrous; had the king leaned "only upon God," how different would have been his history!).

18 And they left the House of the LORD God of their fathers, and served groves and idols: and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass. (It was the princes of Judah this time who led into sin and apostasy. Usually the king led the princes and the people astray, but not here. The "wrath of God" must always come upon sin. God cannot abide such in any form; so the idea is:

One can accept the wrath that came upon Christ at Calvary's Cross, which was for our sins, and definitely not His, for He had none, or one will experience the wrath of God upon oneself. There is no alternative!)

19 Yet He (the Lord) sent Prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they testified against them (the Prophets testified against them): but they (the people and the princes) would not give ear.

JOASH SLAYS ZECHARIAH, THE PRIEST

20 And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the Priest (who was now the High Priest himself), which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus says God, Why transgress you the Commandments of the LORD, that you cannot prosper? (While a Believer who violates the Commandments of the Lord may occasionally prosper in the financial sense, he definitely cannot prosper in the spiritual sense) because you have forsaken the LORD, He has also forsaken you (the Spirit of the Lord spoke these words through Zechariah, and they are easy to understand; if we forsake the Lord, He will forsake us; if we uphold the Lord, He will uphold us!).

21 And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the House of the LORD (this Zechariah who was stoned here was not the Prophet who wrote the Book of Zechariah, for the latter did not live until after the Babylonian captivities, which were over 150 years later [Zech. 1:1]; both men were stoned, one in the Court of the Temple, and the other between the Temple and the Altar [Mat. 23:35]).

22 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his (Zechariah's) father had done to him, but killed his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and require it (will require Judgment, and that by the Hand of the Lord).

SYRIA INVADES AND DEFEATS JUDAH

23 And it came to pass at the end of the year, that the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of Damascus (this is what the Lord required!).

24 For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Joash (as stated, this "judgment" was caused by the Lord; even though Judah had a very large army, they were helpless to defeat the much smaller army of the Syrians, because the Lord decreed it so).

DEATH OF JOASH

25 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases [the Syrians did not cause the diseases; the idea is, he was greatly ill at the time they invaded the land],) his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the Priest, and killed him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings (it says, "sons of Jehoiada"; however, the Bible only records one son, Zechariah; there may have been other sons, or other relations of Jehoiada covered by the word "sons").

26 And these are they who conspired against him; Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith a Moabitess (the Holy Spirit emphasizes the fact that the two servants who killed him were heathen, which meant that his death was ignominious).

27 Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the burdens laid upon him, and the repairing of the House of God, behold, they are written in the story of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead. (From all of this, we see how obvious it is that the Blessings of God come upon Righteousness; as well, how obvious it is that the Judgment of God comes upon unrighteousness.)

CHAPTER 25

(827 B.C.)

AMAZIAH REIGNS OVER JUDAH

[1] Amaziah was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

[2] And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart (one might say that he had a divided heart; it would lead to his total ruin!).

[3] Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was established to him, that he killed his servants who had killed the king his father.

[4] But he killed not their children, but did as it is written in the Law in the Book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin (at the beginning of his reign, it seems that he tried to follow the Bible [Deut. 24:16]).

AMAZIAH DEFEATS EDOM

[5] Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, who could handle spear and shield.

[6] He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for an hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with you; for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim (the command is clear).

8 But if you will go (go with Israel), do it, be strong for the battle (no matter how strong you are): God shall make you fall before the enemy: for God has power to help, and to cast down (the sum of Verses 7 and 8 may be translated: "Under no circumstances take Israel, and if you do take them, no matter how much you prepare, yet know that God shall destroy you").

9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD is able to give you much more than this (it seems that Amaziah was much more concerned about the money lost than obeying God; sadly, this is the concern of most people, even Christians; that which man deems so very important, the Lord brushes it aside as if nothing).

10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger (this was in anticipation of plunder, which was now denied).

11 And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces (there is little doubt that this is Petra; it seems that he ruthlessly slaughtered 10,000 people).

13 But the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle (those from Israel), fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them (3,000 people), and took much spoil (they satisfied their lust for plunder by ravaging Judah).

AMAZIAH IS REBUKED BY GOD FOR WORSHIPPING THE GODS OF EDOM

14 Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them (how stupid!).

15 Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and He (the Lord) sent unto him a Prophet, which said unto him, Why have you sought after the gods of the people, which could not deliver their own people out of your hand? (How utterly ridiculous! Amaziah will now worship the gods of the people he has just defeated. If they were so great, why didn't these gods help the Edomites? A modern parallel concerns Believers who will forsake the Presence of God for other things.)

16 And it came to pass, as he (the Prophet) talked with him, that the king said unto him, Are you made of the king's counsel? (Are you one of my advisors?) forbear (desist, away with your words); why should you be smitten? *(In other words, if you keep this up, I will kill you.)*Then the Prophet forbore (except for one more statement), and said, I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this, and have not hearkened unto my counsel.

AMAZIAH MAKES WAR ON ISRAEL

17 Then Amaziah king of Judah took advice (took counsel from some of his advisors), and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face (a threat!).

18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle (in this parable, Joash likens Israel to a cedar, and Judah to a thistle; as well, he likens Israel to a "wild beast" that will ride roughshod over the thistle, i.e., "Judah").

19 You say, Lo, you have smitten the Edomites; and your heart lifts you up to boast: abide now at home; why should you meddle to your hurt, that you should fall, even you, and Judah with you?

AMAZIAH IS DEFEATED

20 But Amaziah would not hear; for it came of God, that He might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the gods of Edom (because of idolatry, the Lord is now opposed to Judah).

21 So Joash the king of Israel went up; and they saw one another in the face, both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah (they went to battle, despite the warning of Joash, the king of Israel).

22 And Judah was put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to his tent (with God against them, Judah couldn't win!).

23 And Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits (about 600 feet).

24 And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the House of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria (Obed-edom was a descendant of the Obed-edom of David's time [II Sam. 6:10; I Chron. 13:13], who was a custodian of the treasures in the House of God).

DEATH OF AMAZIAH

25 And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years.

[26] Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?

[27] Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away from following the LORD they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent to Lachish after him, and killed him there (the Holy Spirit will pinpoint the exact "time" that this happened; now he is at the mercy of Satan).

[28] And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah. (When the king turned away from the Lord, the Holy Spirit declined to call his burial place by the lofty titles of "the city of David" or "Jerusalem," but instead, called it "the city of Judah." It seems that idol-worship and pride were the cause of Amaziah's fall. To be sure, idol-worship and pride are the cause of the fall of many Believers.)

CHAPTER 26

(810 B.C.)

UZZIAH (AZARIAH) SUCCEEDS AMAZIAH

[1] Then all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah (Uzziah is named Azariah in II Kings).

[2] He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the king (Amaziah) slept with his fathers.

[3] Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

[4] And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah did (the qualifier is, he started well, and ended poorly).

[5] And he sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the Visions of God (this was not the "Zechariah," the son of Jehoiada, who lived some years prior; he was murdered by Joash, Uzziah's grandfather; neither was he the Zechariah who wrote the Book of Zechariah; all we know about this Zechariah is what is said here): and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him to prosper (what a statement! The words, "sought the Lord," mean not only to desire what God desires, but to seek His Face incessantly; this is the secret of spiritual, domestic, financial, physical, and mental victory).

UZZIAH'S MILITARY SUCCESSES

[6] And he went forth and warred against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities about Ashdod, and among the Philistines.

7 And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians who dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Mehunims.

8 And the Ammonites gave gifts to Uzziah: and his name spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt; for he strengthened himself exceedingly (he was able to strengthen himself, because "God helped him").

UZZIAH'S BUILDING PROGRAM, PROSPERITY, AND ARMY

9 Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them.

10 Also he built towers in the desert, and dug many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country, and in the plains: husbandmen also, and vine dressers in the mountains, and in Carmel: for he loved husbandry (the king's partiality looked to agricultural and pastoral pursuits).

11 Moreover Uzziah had an host of fighting men, who went out to war by bands, according to the number of their account by the hand of Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.

12 The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour were two thousand and six hundred.

13 And under their hand was an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, who made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 And Uzziah prepared for them throughout all the host shields, and spears, and helmets, and habergeons, and bows, and slings to cast stones.

15 And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal. And his name spread far abroad; for he was marvelously helped, till he was strong (this means that God prospered him so greatly that the people marveled; however, when he became strong, he entered into the zone of extreme danger).

UZZIAH'S SIN AND PUNISHMENT

[16] But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction (with pride): for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and went into the Temple of the LORD to burn Incense upon the Altar of Incense. (His transgression was far more serious than we realize. For him to attempt to burn incense upon the Altar of Incense proclaims the fact that he, in essence, was saying that he did not need a Saviour. The Priest, who alone could offer Incense, stood as a Type of Christ, as a mediator between God and man.

As well, the sin of the modern Church is the sin of ignoring, or else outright denying, the Cross. Christ must be worshipped as the Saviour, and He is the Saviour through the Cross [I Cor. 1:17-18, 23; 2:2]. If Jesus is worshipped or sought after in any other manner, He becomes "another Jesus," which God can never accept [II Cor. 11:4; Ex. 25:6; 30:1, 7-8, 34, 37-38; Lev. 16:13].)

[17] And Azariah the Priest (High Priest) went in after him (into the Holy Place, where was the Altar of Incense), and with him fourscore (80) Priests of the LORD, who were valiant men (brave men, who would stand up to the king)**:

[18] And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It appertains not unto you, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the Priests the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn Incense: go out of the Sanctuary (in fact, no one was allowed in the Sanctuary except Priests); for you have trespassed; neither shall it be for your honour from the LORD God.

[19] Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense:

and while he was wroth with the Priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the Priests in the House of the LORD, from beside the Incense Altar. (Because he attempted to worship God without the intervention of an ongoing Saviour, the Lord smote him with leprosy. On the forehead of the High Priest was a golden plate with the words, "Holiness to the Lord"; on the forehead of Uzziah was "sinfulness" [leprosy]. We must ever remember that Christ is the Source of all things, as it pertains to the Believer, and the Cross is the Means by which all of these things come to us. If we attempt to obtain anything from the Lord by means other than the Cross, we have, in effect, like Uzziah, claimed to be our own Saviour.)

[20] And Azariah the Chief Priest, and all the Priests, looked upon him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yes, himself hasted also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him. (To be frank, he was afraid that the Lord would kill him and, but for the Mercy of God, this is exactly what would have happened. The leprosy started in his forehead, because, as stated, this was where the golden plate was worn by the High Priest, stipulating Holiness. Only Christ fits that designation. Man is holy only as he trusts Christ and what Christ did at the Cross. Upon proper trust in Christ, Righteousness and Holiness are instantly imputed to the individual. Otherwise, there is no Holiness!)

[21] And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the House of the LORD: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

DEATH OF UZZIAH

[22] Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, did Isaiah the Prophet, the son of Amoz, write (Isaiah the Prophet asserts that his prophetic inspiration was in Uzziah's time [Isa. 1:1; 6:1]).

[23] So Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead (hopefully he repented, but there is no evidence that he did; the last thing the Holy Spirit said about him was, “He is a leper” — not “was,” but rather “is”)*.

CHAPTER 27

(758 B.C.)

JOTHAM REIGNS OVER JUDAH

[1] Jotham was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

[2] And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah did (the first ways of his father): howbeit he entered not into the Temple of the LORD. (Williams says, "This probably means that, terrified by the fate of his father, he did not associate with the Temple at all. If this be so, then Uzziah, Jotham, and Ahaz illustrate how incurably diseased is the natural heart. The first king boldly intrudes into the Temple, the second timidly stands away from it, and the third shuts it up.") And the people did yet corruptly (this speaks of idol-worship).

[3] He built the high gate of the House of the LORD, and on the wall of Ophel he built much.

[4] Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers (if, instead of building these things, he had broken down the high places at which the people did corruptly, quite possibly it would have brought revival to Judah; regrettably, there has never been a perfect man; all, even when diligently trying to follow the Lord, are, it seems, freighted with failure; it is the Grace of God which gives us the victory, not our perfection).

JOTHAM'S VICTORY OVER AMMON

[5] He fought also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. So much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second year, and the third.

6 So Jotham became mighty, because he prepared his ways before the LORD his God (what a beautiful statement!).

DEATH OF JOTHAM

7 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

8 He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem (evidently, he was 41 when he died).

9 And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 28

(741 B.C.)

AHAZ REIGNS OVER JUDAH

[1] Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father (in fact, Ahaz was one of the most ungodly kings who ever ruled over Judah):

[2] For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also molten images for Baalim (this was a characteristic sin of Israel, but Judah had not previously been guilty of making molten images during the recent past).

[3] Moreover he burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt his children in the fire (human sacrifice), after the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD had cast out before the Children of Israel (the intimation is, if Judah continued in this particular fashion, they would be cast out exactly as the heathen of old; in fact, that's exactly what ultimately happened!).

[4] He sacrificed also and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree (in other words, he engaged in idolatry to the hilt).

AHAZ CONQUERED BY ISRAEL AND SYRIA

[5] Wherefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter.

6 For Pekah the son of Remaliah killed in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, which were all valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers (the reason for the judgment is obviously clear!).

7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah who was next to the king.

8 And the Children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren (of Judah) two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

THE PROPHET

9 But a Prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded: and he went out before the host who came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the LORD God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, He has delivered them into your hand, and you have killed them in a rage that reaches up unto Heaven (the particular language in which this is set forth proclaims the inference of its abomination in God's sight).

10 And now you purpose to keep under the Children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen unto you (slaves): but are there not with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God?

11 Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which you have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you (in other words, the Lord is going to do to you what you have done to Judah, if you do not quickly make amends).

12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them who came from the war,

13 And said unto them, You shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the LORD already, you intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass: for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel (for once, somebody heeded the Prophet of God!).

14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation.

15 And the men which were expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all who were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

EDOMITES AND PHILISTINES INVADE JUDAH

16 At that time did king Ahaz send unto the kings of Assyria to help him (after all the problems of being defeated by both Syria and Israel, still, Ahaz will not seek the Face of the Lord, but, instead, will lean on the arm of man, and heathen man, at that).

17 For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away captives.

18 The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the low country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, and Ajalon, and Gederoth, and Shocho with the villages thereof, and Timnah with the villages thereof, Gimzo also and the villages thereof: and they dwelt there.

19 For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel ("Israel" is used in place of Judah, signifying the fact that the Lord looked at Judah as the legitimate Israel); for he made Judah naked (naked to the Judgment of God), and transgressed sore against the LORD (the judgment that the Lord brings is always redemptive in its application; it is intended to bring the person or the nation to repentance; in this case, it would not).

[20] And Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria came unto him, and distressed him, but strengthened him not (so, his effort to get the king of Assyria to help him only resulted in them walking on him, so to speak).

[21] For Ahaz took away a portion out of the House of the LORD, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not (they took advantage of him, knowing that he could not do anything about it).

[22] And in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the LORD: this is that king Ahaz (the Holy Spirit uses this latter phrase in order to point him out; there are three other especially branded transgressors in the Word of God; they are: Cain [Gen. 4:15], Dathan, and Abiram [Num. 26:9]).

[23] For he sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel (when we read the account of Ahaz, his plight because of his rebellion seems to be so clear, and yet most of the world, and even the Church, seek help from that other than God; I speak of witchcraft or humanistic psychology).

[24] And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the House of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the House of God, and shut up the doors of the House of the LORD, and he made him altars in the every corner of Jerusalem. (Tragically, the Church is presently shutting the covers of the Bible, the only revealed Body of Truth in the world. Most preaching and teaching of that which professes to be the Word of God is, rather, psychology. Psychology places the emphasis on the person or the problem instead of Christ and the Cross. There is no profit in the victim or the symptom; there is only profit in the Victor, Who is Christ.)

[25] And in every several city of Judah he made high places to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers

(anything that departs from the Bible, be it the obvious evil of Ahaz or the subtle proposed solution of psychology, angers the Lord of Glory).

DEATH OF AHAZ

26 Now the rest of his acts and of all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem: but they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead (it is with great relief that the Holy Spirit closes out the sordid history of Ahaz; today he is in Hell, and will be there forever and forever!).

CHAPTER 29

(726 B.C.)

HEZEKIAH REIGNS OVER JUDAH

[1] Hezekiah began to reign when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah.

[2] And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done (David was always used as the yardstick or example; that which is "right in the sight of God" is all that matters; unfortunately, the Church all too often cares little about what is right in God's eyes, making their own eyes the yardstick).

REVIVAL UNDER HEZEKIAH

[3] He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the House of the LORD, and repaired them. (Immediately upon becoming king, Hezekiah began to institute reform. He wasted no time! Under his evil father Ahaz, the doors to the House of the Lord had been closed, meaning that this House was no longer in use. He began to repair things.

In our own spiritual lives, how much presently needs repairing?)

4 And he brought in the Priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the east street,

[5] And said unto them, Hear me, you Levites, sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the House of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place. (The word "sanctify" [or "Sanctification"] simply means in this case "to set apart for the exclusive use of God." In doing this, the "filthiness" would be carried out of the "Holy Place."

Regarding our lives, when given the opportunity, the Holy Spirit will always clean us up. Paul said: "Let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God" [II Cor. 7:1].)

6 For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken Him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and turned their backs (Repentance alone can reverse this situation; this means turning back to the Cross, for the Cross alone can address sin [Heb. 10:12]).

7 Also they have shut up the doors of the porch (Jesus is the Door), and put out the lamps (the Golden Lampstand situated in the Holy Place, which typified Christ as the Light of the world), and have not burned Incense (typifying the Intercession of Christ, all on our behalf) nor offered Burnt Offerings (typifying the Cross, where the perfection of Christ is given to the believing sinner) in the Holy Place unto the God of Israel.

8 Wherefore the wrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and He has delivered them to trouble, to astonishment, and to hissing, as you see with your eyes. (The judgment was obvious! Because the Temple was symbolic of Christ and the Cross, when Christ and the Cross are forsaken, judgment is inevitable! There can be no other way.)

9 For, lo, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this (sin puts people in captivity and it kills).

10 Now it is in my heart to make a Covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that His fierce wrath may turn away from us (that Covenant would simply be to obey the Word of God).

11 My sons, be not now negligent: for the LORD has chosen you to stand before Him, to serve Him, and that you should minister unto Him, and burn Incense (Hezekiah is saying these things to the Priests and the Levites).

THE TEMPLE IS CLEANSED AND PREPARED FOR WORSHIP

[12] Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehalelel: and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah:

[13] And of the sons of Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jeiel: and of the sons of Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah:

[14] And of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel (the names of these fourteen Levites have no interest for the historians of this world, but such an interest for the Holy Spirit that they are all set out here, and they have been read already by hundreds of millions of people for nearly 2,800 years).

[15] And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, by the Words of the LORD, to cleanse the House of the LORD (the Words or Commands of the Lord are such as are written in Ex. 19:22 and Lev. 11:44; nothing can be spiritually cleansed, unless it is done according to the Word of the Lord).

[16] And the Priests went into the inner part of the House of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the Temple of the LORD into the court of the House of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook Kidron. (Only the Priests could enter the Temple, while the Levites' sphere of work and service lay in the courts and round about the Temple.

Spiritually, revival must begin in the "inner part," which means "the heart." It is unthinkable that the Temple was in this condition, but sadly it was. Is it possible that the modern Church is in the same condition now as the Temple of old?)

[17] Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the House of the LORD in eight days; and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the House of the LORD, and the Altar of Burnt Offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the Shewbread Table, with all the vessels thereof (the first thing that happens when Revival begins to take place is that things are cleaned up).

19 Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and behold, they are before the Altar of the LORD.

TEMPLE WORSHIP IS RESTORED

20 Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the House of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a Sin Offering for the kingdom, and for the Sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the Priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the Altar of the LORD. (After the cleansing of the Temple, which made it serviceable, the first thing that is now done, in essence, is that Judah went back to the Cross. I must believe that the Holy Spirit urged Hezekiah to institute "seven" sacrifices each of the various animals. "Seven" signifies perfection, universality, and totality. It is God's number. It means that Israel was to have a complete cleansing. While the Temple could be cleansed of debris, it took the shed Blood of the Lamb to properly cleanse from sin. We as Believers can prepare the way, but only the Blood can cleanse [I Jn. 1:7].)

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the Priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the Altar (the sprinkling of the blood marked the expiation of sin [Lev. 4:7, 18, 30; 5:9; 8:14-15; Heb. 9:12-14, 19-22]): likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the Altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the Altar.

23 And they brought forth the he goats for the Sin Offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their hands upon them (the laying of the hands on the head of the animal signified the transferring of the sins of the person offering the Sacrifice and, in this case, the entirety of the people of Judah, to the victim, which was a Type of Christ taking our sins on the Cross [Isa. 53:6]; this is what Paul was speaking of when he mentioned the "laying on of hands" in Heb. 6:2)**:

[24] And the Priests killed them (the animals, by slitting their throats), and they made reconciliation (a Sin Offering) with their blood upon the Altar, to make an Atonement (a type of what Christ would do at the Cross) for all Israel: for the king commanded that the Burnt Offering and the Sin Offering should be made for all Israel (the Burnt Offering typified Christ giving His Perfection to the sinner; the Sin Offering typified the sinner giving his sin to Christ; He gives His Perfection to us; we give our sin to Him)**.

[25] And he set the Levites in the House of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's Seer, and Nathan the Prophet: for so was the Commandment of the LORD by His Prophets. (Music and joy always accompany proper Faith in the Cross, because all sins have been washed away.

The Bible does not distinguish between a "Seer" and a "Prophet." Sometimes both designations are used for the same individual [I Chron. 21:9; II Chron. 29:25].)

[26] And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the Priests with the trumpets.

[27] And Hezekiah commanded to offer the Burnt Offering upon the Altar. And when the Burnt Offering began, the song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the instruments ordained by David king of Israel. (When Faith is properly placed in Christ and the Cross, worship always follows, as it regards music and singing. Little Cross, little worship! Much Cross, much worship!)

28 And all the congregation worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the Burnt Offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all who were present with him bowed themselves, and worshipped.

30 Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the Seer (the Psalms). And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now you have consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring Sacrifices and Thank Offerings (Meat Offerings) into the House of the LORD. And the congregation brought in Sacrifices and Thank Offerings; and as many as were of a free heart Burnt Offerings.

32 And the number of the Burnt Offerings, which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a Burnt Offering to the LORD.

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep (dedicated to the Lord).

34 But the Priests were too few, so that they could not flay (prepare properly) all the Burnt Offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites did help them, till the work was ended, and until the other Priests had sanctified themselves: for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the Priests (went about these duties with a greater consecration).

35 And also the Burnt Offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the Peace Offerings, and the Drink Offerings for every Burnt Offering (the grape juice poured out on the Altar signified Christ pouring out His Life on the Cross). So the service of the House of the LORD was set in order.

36 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly (Heb. 4:7).

CHAPTER 30

(726 B.C.)

PREPARATION FOR THE PASSOVER

[1] And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the House of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover unto the LORD God of Israel (the Passover is a type of Calvary [Ex. 12:13]).

[2] For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the Passover in the second month.

[3] For they could not keep it at that time (the appointed season), because the Priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem (the Passover was supposed to be kept the first month [Ex. 12:2-3], but, because of all the things that needed to be done, they would have to take the Passover a month late, i.e., "the second month" [Vs. 2]).

[4] And the thing pleased the king and all the congregation.

[5] So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written (in the multitude of an undivided and holy kingdom).

[6] So the posts (messengers) went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, You Children of Israel, turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and He will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria. (The northern kingdom had by now fallen, and so the poorest of the poor had been left by Assyria in the land, with the elite taken out as captives; however, they were precious in God's sight just the same. Regrettably, as we shall see, most would not take this opportunity offered by Hezekiah.)

[7] And be not you like your fathers, and like your brethren, who trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, who therefore gave them up to desolation, as you see (the desolation of the northern kingdom could easily be seen).

[8] Now be you not stiffnecked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into His Sanctuary, which He has sanctified for ever: and serve the LORD your God, that the fierceness of His wrath may turn away from you (the only thing that assuages the wrath of God is Calvary; "His wrath" will either be turned toward the unrepentant Christian or Calvary; the price of sin must be paid; if we accept the price that He paid at Calvary, then His wrath has already been expended toward His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ; if we do not accept the price that was paid at Calvary, then His wrath is turned toward us).

[9] For if you turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children shall find compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land (Hezekiah speaks of a possible restoration, but only if repentance is enjoined): for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away His face from you, if you return unto Him (sincerely repent!).

[10] So the posts (messengers) passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them (these last two phrases speak significant description of the exact moral state in which Israel's Tribes were now to be found; sadly, far too many in the modern Church meet the Message of the Cross with "laughter, scorn, and mockery").

[11] Nevertheless divers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem (while many will laugh and mock, many, as well, will accept and receive; it is to the latter we look!).

12 Also in Judah (the former Verses pertain to the northern kingdom of Israel) the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the Word of the LORD (Judah was far more amenable to the Word of the Lord than Israel).

13 And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month, a very great congregation. (Three Feasts were to be conducted at this time: "Passover, Unleavened Bread, and Firstfruits." They took seven days. Passover commenced on the first day, Unleavened Bread would spread over the entire seven days, and Firstfruits took place the last day. Passover signified Calvary. Unleavened Bread signified the Perfect Life and Perfect Body of Christ, which would be offered in Sacrifice. Firstfruits typified His Resurrection.)

14 And they arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron (idol altars).

THE PASSOVER OBSERVED

15 Then they killed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the Priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the Burnt Offerings into the House of the LORD (speaks of Repentance on the part of the Priests and the Levites; judgment must begin at the House of God [I Pet. 4:17]).

16 And they stood in their place after their manner, according to the Law of Moses the man of God: the Priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the Levites.

17 For there were many in the congregation who were not sanctified: therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the Passovers for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD (which affirms that the original directions of Moses were that the person who brought the victim to offer it was to kill it; but, in this case, the Levites mostly officiated).

18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the Passover otherwise than it was written (had not followed the proper procedure [Deut. 16:1-8]). But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one

19 Who prepares his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the Sanctuary (the reason all of this was so serious is simply because it all pointed to Christ and what He would do to redeem humanity, which all led to the Cross).

20 And the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people (there is no "healing" other than Calvary; all other cisterns are broken and "can hold no water" [Jer. 2:13]).

FEAST OF UNLEAVENED BREAD RESTORED

21 And the Children of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the Priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with loud instruments unto the LORD (once again, worship in the realm of music and singing always accompanies the Cross, and our Faith in that Finished Work).

22 And Hezekiah spoke comfortably unto all the Levites who taught the good knowledge of the LORD: and they did eat throughout the Feast seven days, offering Peace Offerings (of which a part of this Offering was eaten by the offeror), and making confession to the LORD God of their fathers (Repentance!).

THE FEAST CONTINUED FOR SEVEN MORE DAYS

23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days: and they kept other seven days with gladness (making a total of fourteen days).

[24] For Hezekiah king of Judah did give to the congregation a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of Priests sanctified themselves (the conduits carrying the blood from these many sacrifices from the Temple Mount would have caused the Brook Kidron, which ran between the Temple Mount and Olivet, to run red with blood; this is obnoxious and repulsive to the unspiritual eye, but, to those who know their God, Calvary is the greatest sight this side of Heaven; for it was there that man was liberated and set free [Col. 2:14-15]).

[25] And all the congregation of Judah, with the Priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers who came out of the land of Israel, and who dwelt in Judah, rejoiced.

[26] So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem (Calvary alone brings "great joy"; nothing else will).

[27] Then the Priests the Levites arose and blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to His Holy Dwelling Place, even unto Heaven (the only prayer that God will hear is that which is anchored in Calvary's Cross).

CHAPTER 31

(726 B.C.)

THE IDOLS DESTROYED IN ALL ISRAEL

[1] Now when all this was finished, all Israel that were present went out to the cities of Judah, and broke the images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the Children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities (however, they returned with prosperity now made possible).

HEZEKIAH'S PROVISION FOR THE PRIESTS AND LEVITES

[2] And Hezekiah appointed the courses of the Priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the Priests and the Levites for Burnt Offerings and for Peace Offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD (this was thought of as so much foolishness by Ahaz; likewise, the carnal mind sees no profit in such, but the spiritual mind understands its value; if we ignore the Bible, we lose our love for God; if we love the Bible, we will love God; Hezekiah loved the Bible, so he would obey the Bible).

[3] He appointed also the king's portion of his substance for the Burnt Offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening Burnt Offerings (9 a.m. and 3 p.m.), and the Burnt Offerings for the Sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set Feasts, as it is written in the Law of the LORD (Hezekiah did not evade his own responsibilities in the matter of contribution; his "portion" was the tithe).

[4] Moreover he commanded the people who dwelt in Jerusalem to give the portion of the Priests and the Levites, that they might be encouraged in the Law of the LORD (the king meant to set an example, which he did!).

5 And as soon as the commandment came abroad, the Children of Israel brought in abundance the firstfruits of corn, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly (whenever the Church is on fire for God, money is given liberally to the Work of God; otherwise, there is little giving).

6 And concerning the Children of Israel and Judah, who dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of the holy things which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid them by heaps (when we give in "heaps," the Lord gives it back to us even in "greater 'heaps'" [Lk. 6:38]).

7 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month (in the "third month" the Feast of Pentecost was conducted, while in the "seventh month" was conducted the Feast of Tabernacles).

8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD, and His people Israel.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the Priests and the Levites concerning the heaps (the questioning probably had to do with how the superabundant contributions should be utilized or preserved — Pulpit).

THE BLESSINGS OF THE LORD

10 And Azariah the Chief Priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and said, Since the people began to bring the Offerings into the House of the LORD, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty: for the LORD has blessed His people; and that which is left is this great store (under the New Covenant, we have even greater Promises [Heb. 8:6]; if the Work of the Lord is put first, the Lord has promised that a "great store" will accrue to us as well [Mat. 6:33]).

11 Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the House of the LORD; and they prepared them,

12 And brought in the Offerings and the Tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: over which Cononiah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next.

13 And Jehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the House of God.

14 And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter toward the east, was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the LORD, and the most holy things.

15 And next him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the Priests, in their set office, to give to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small (the latter phrase portrays the fact that the duty had not always in the past been honestly discharged):

16 Beside their genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even unto everyone who entered into the House of the LORD, his daily portion for their service in their charges according to their courses (a picture of the little children being fed for the sake of their father's Sanctuary service is a pleasant glimpse);

17 Both to the genealogy of the Priests by the house of their fathers, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their charges by their courses;

18 And to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their set office they sanctified themselves in Holiness (according to the Word of the Lord):

19 Also of the sons of Aaron the Priests, which were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every several city, the men who were expressed by name, to give portions to all the males among the Priests, and to all who were reckoned by genealogies among the Levites (all of this proclaims the fact that all the Priests and the Levites were remembered and carefully provided for, which is the way it was supposed to be).

20 And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and wrought that which was good and right and truth before the LORD his God.

21 And in every work that he began in the service of the House of God, and in the Law, and in the Commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered (true prosperity can only be found in faithfully following the Word of the Lord; this Hezekiah did!).

CHAPTER 32

(710 B.C.)

SENNACHERIB, KING OF ASSYRIA, INVADES JUDAH

[1] After these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought to win them for himself. ("After these things" means after the great revival under Hezekiah. The king of Assyria then made war on Judah. He had already taken the ten Tribes into captivity, and now his heart was lifted up to take Judah also. In this, he overstepped himself, for he had been commissioned by the Lord, although unknown to him, to destroy the ten-Tribe kingdom only. God defeated the Assyrian's purpose and delivered Hezekiah after testing his faith by permitting Judah to be tested.)

[2] And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem (according to II Ki. 18:13-16, Hezekiah had already given Sennacherib great quantities of gold and silver to stop the invasion; these bribes were not pleasing to the Lord; he came against Jerusalem anyway)**,

[3] He (Hezekiah) took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city: and they did help him.

[4] So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains, and the brook that ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water? (Hezekiah stopped the fountain which is now known as the "Virgin's Fount" on the east of Ophel. Through the conduit he made [II Ki. 20:20], the water from this fount was brought down to the lower Gihon [Pool of Siloam]. Now the upper Gihon was simply covered over and hidden from the enemy on the outside, making the water supply of Jerusalem safe by means of the two Gihons.)

5 Also he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired Millo in the city of David, and made darts and shields in abundance (he took all possible means to make himself, the people, and the city strong to withstand the invaders).

6 And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and spoke comfortably to them, saying,

THE MESSAGE OF HEZEKIAH

7 Be strong and courageous, be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for there be more with us than with him (great Faith in a great God would come against a great enemy and win a great victory; as ever, Faith is the ingredient; let all Believers know that whatever Satan brings against us, God has more for us than Satan has against us)**:

8 With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah (our problem is that too often we attempt to defeat the flesh by the flesh; it cannot be done; our strength must be "the LORD our God").

9 After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah who were at Jerusalem, saying,

THE MESSAGE OF SENNACHERIB

10 Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do you trust, that you abide in the siege in Jerusalem? (In other words, the siege is going to be bad!)

[11] Does not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria? (The emissaries of Sennacherib appealed to the people instead of to Hezekiah and his ministers of state, thinking to undermine their morale.)

[12] Has not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, You shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it? (This Verse illustrates the fact that wherever there is obedience to the teaching of the Bible, it will be misinterpreted by people of the world. The written Word commanded that there should be only one Altar in Israel; man approves of many. The emissaries of Sennacherib didn't know what they were talking about.)

[13] Know you not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands? were the gods of the nations of those lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of my hand? (This Passage portrays these emissaries boasting that their god was more powerful than all others, so it was vain to expect Jehovah to rescue the people, especially since He did not rescue their brethren in Samaria [II Ki., Chpt. 17].)

[14] Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of my hand?

[15] Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of my hand? (The mighty Sennacherib was soon to find out just Who the God of Judah actually was!)

[16] And his servants spoke yet more against the LORD God, and against His servant Hezekiah (the Holy Spirit shows us here that the Lord is just as displeased with His servants being spoken against as "Himself").

[17] He wrote also letters to rail on the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver His people out of my hand (the emissaries of Sennacherib intended to intimidate the people of Jerusalem).

[18] Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews' speech (language) unto the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city.

[19] And they spoke against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the Earth, which were the work of the hands of man (over and over again, Jehovah is grossly insulted! To be compared to the gods of other people, which were merely "the work of the hands of man," not only showed the ignorance of Sennacherib, but as well brought the blasphemy to a higher pitch).

ISAIAH

[20] And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and the Prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to Heaven (too many in the modern Church no longer cry to God; instead, they resort to psychology, which has the same source as witchcraft — Satan).

[21] And the LORD sent an Angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they who came forth of his own bowels (his sons) killed him there with the sword (with only one Angel, the Lord struck down 185,000 Assyrians in one night [II Ki. 19:35]; as a result, Sennacherib returned to Nineveh in shame; history records that he did not venture again even toward Judah; some years later, he was murdered by his own sons).

[22] Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side. (What a beautiful statement! The Holy Spirit will lead and guide us into all truth [Jn. 16:13].)

[23] And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth (Judah became one of the most powerful nations on the face of the Earth, all because of Hezekiah's faith, and the Blessings of God).

HEZEKIAH'S SICKNESS AND RECOVERY

[24] In those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and He spoke unto him, and He gave him a sign (this was the sign of the sundial going backwards ten degrees, which was a miracle of unprecedented proportions; this means that the Earth literally went back on its axis, i.e., "its rotation," which brought about a "long day" [II Ki. 20:8-11]).

[25] But Hezekiah rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem (someone has said that "praise and prosperity are the greatest obstacles for a Christian to overcome"; Hezekiah did not overcome them, but rather succumbed to them; this probably referred to him showing all his material riches to the Babylonians [II Ki. 20:12-15] instead of the riches of the God of Israel).

[26] Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart (showing that pride was his sin), both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah (thankfully, Hezekiah repented, and the Lord healed him, giving him fifteen more years of life [II Ki. 20:1-7]).

HEZEKIAH'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS

[27] And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of pleasant jewels;

28 Storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks.

29 Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for God had given him substance very much (in other words, the Lord was the Author of all this prosperity).

30 This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper watercourse of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

31 Howbeit in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent unto him to enquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that he (Hezekiah) might know all that was in his heart (man, even the most dedicated and consecrated Believer, will invariably turn aside if "God leaves us" even for a moment; Hezekiah would find that "the heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?" [Jer. 17:9]).

THE DEATH OF HEZEKIAH

32 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the Prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

33 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the chiefest of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead. (Concerning his burial, such was not said of any man before or after this. It must have meant that he was buried next to David's tomb. Despite his failures, Hezekiah was one of the Godliest kings who ever reigned over Judah.)

CHAPTER 33

(698 B.C.)

MANASSEH REIGNS OVER JUDAH

[1] Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem (Manasseh was one of the most wicked of all the 42 kings of Israel and Judah, yet he reigned longer than any other — 55 years; quite possibly the Lord allowed Manasseh to reign so long because He saw that this hard-riding monarch would repent; everything that God does is an act of Mercy; even His Judgment is redemptive, if only the individual or the nation will allow it to be so):

[2] But did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like unto the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the Children of Israel (not too many years from then, Judah would be cast out as well!).

[3] For he built again the high places (idol-worship) which Hezekiah his father had broken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and made groves (the worship of the Asherah), and worshipped all the host of heaven (the planetary bodies), and served them.

[4] Also he built altars in the House of the LORD (placed heathen altars in the very Temple itself), whereof the LORD had said, In Jerusa lem shall My Name be forever (Deut. 12:11; I Ki. 9:3; II Chron. 6:6).

[5] And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the House of the LORD (heathen altars built in the "court of Israel," which was the closest to the Temple, and the "court of women," which was immediately behind the court of Israel).

[6] And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom (human sacrifice): also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.

[7] And he set a carved image, the idol which he had made (the Asherah, a statue of the male member), in the House of God (some believe he put it in the very Holy of Holies), of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this House, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the Tribes of Israel, will I put My Name for ever:

[8] Neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers; so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole Law and the Statutes and the Ordinances by the hand of Moses (for all the Blessings that the Lord had given Israel, all that He demanded of them was that they make every effort to keep the Law).

[9] So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the Children of Israel (in fact, sin by a Believer is always worse than that by the unredeemed, and for the obvious reasons).

[10] And the LORD spoke to Manasseh, and to His people: but they would not hearken (sadly, this is the story of untold millions; the Lord speaks in varied ways, but they will not hear, which refers to a willful rejection).

MANASSEH'S BABYLONIAN CAPTIVITY AND RESTORATION

[11] Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon (this was an act of Mercy on the part of God, as He attempted to bring Manasseh to his senses; it accomplished its purpose).

[12] And when he was in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers (this is evidently why the Lord allowed Manasseh to rule as long as he did; as well, and as stated, it was the reason the Lord allowed him to be taken captive to Babylon; it had the desired effect upon the monarch; time and time again, the Lord chastises His children in attempting to bring them to a place of Repentance), 13 And prayed unto Him: and He was intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD He was God (there could be no more beautiful illustration of the Mercy and Grace of God than that which was extended to Manasseh; the great lesson learned here is that if the Lord would do that for this king, who had wrought more evil in Judah than any other king before him, He will do it for anyone else; there are only two requirements: to humble oneself, and to pray unto God).

14 Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish gate, and compassed about Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.

REVIVAL UNDER MANASSEH

15 And he took away the strange gods, and the idol out of the House of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the House of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.

16 And he repaired the Altar of the LORD (the great Brazen Altar, on which the Sacrifices were offered), and sacrificed thereon Peace Offerings (the "Peace Offerings" were generally offered after the Sin and Trespass Offerings, signifying that Peace with God had now been restored; this tells us that the Peace of God had now come to Manasseh) and Thank Offerings (to be sure, this king had much to be thankful for, hence the "Thank Offerings" and the emphasis on this by the Holy Spirit), and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

17 Nevertheless the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only (the offering of Sacrifices to the Lord in the high places was contrary to the Word of God; there was to be one national worship in the one Temple, and the Offerings and Sacrifices on the one national Altar, which signified one Calvary).

18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of the Seers who spoke to him in the Name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel.

19 His prayer also, and how God was intreated of him, and all his sins, and his trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled: behold, they are written among the sayings of the Seers.

THE DEATH OF MANASSEH

20 So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead (unlike some of the other kings, Manasseh began his reign as a wicked king, but ended it as a good one).

THE REIGN OF AMON OVER JUDAH

21 Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem.

22 But he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed unto all the carved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them;

23 And humbled not himself before the LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself *(proclaims the fact that the Lord evidently chastised Amon, trying to get him to repent, but to no avail); but Amon trespassed more and more (actually, few humble themselves as Manasseh, with most hardening themselves as did Amon, and that despite the appeal of the Lord).

THE DEATH OF AMON

24 And his servants conspired against him, and killed him in his own house.

25 But the people of the land killed all them who had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

CHAPTER 34

(641 B.C.)

JOSIAH REIGNS OVER JUDAH

[1] Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years (Josiah will be one of the most Godly; and yet, Judah's sun is beginning to set).

[2] And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left (what a beautiful statement!).

JOSIAH'S REFORMS

[3] For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young (16 years old), he began to seek after the God of David his father (in other words, he was converted at 16): and in the twelfth year (when he was 20 years old) he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images (the Holy Spirit, no doubt, dealt with him greatly and inspired him to carry forth this great work).

[4] And they broke down the altars of Baalim in his presence (meaning that he personally saw to their destruction); and the images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he broke in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it upon the graves of them who had sacrificed unto them.

[5] And he burnt the bones of the Priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem. (This is speaking of the ungodly priests who had burned incense on the altar at Bethel nearly 350 years before. A Prophet, at that time, came out of Judah and "cried against the Altar." He prophesied at that time that a "child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name." In other words, the Holy Spirit through him called Josiah's name 320 years before Josiah was born [I Ki. 13:2]).

6 And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their mattocks round about (he extended this effort even into what had been the northern kingdom).

7 And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem (which once again states that he attended to this task personally).

JOSIAH REPAIRS THE TEMPLE

8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign (when he was 26 years old), when he had purged the land, and the House (the Temple), he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the House of the LORD his God (this was five or six years after Jeremiah began to prophesy [Jer. 2:2]; the great Prophet was, therefore, present at the time of these reformations and the great Passover Feast of these Chapters).

9 And when they came to Hilkiah the High Priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the House of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem (the Levites had come back from the area occupied by the Tribes of Manasseh and Ephraim).

10 And they put it in the hand of the workmen who had the oversight of the House of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen who wrought in the House of the LORD, to repair and amend the house:

11 Even to the artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed (there had been much negligence of the Temple, and even outright destruction).

12 And the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and other of the Levites, all who could skill of instruments of music (it seems from this that the Levites played instruments and sang praises unto the Lord while the work on the Temple was being done).

13 Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all who wrought the work in any manner of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters (the Levites had the general oversight of all the work, and thereby filled the offices mentioned here).

THE BOOK OF THE LAW DISCOVERED

14 And when they brought out the money that was brought into the House of the LORD, Hilkiah the Priest found a Book of the Law of the LORD given by Moses (this was no doubt the original Book of the Pentateuch — the one actually personally written by Moses [II Ki. 22:8]; the Hebrew should have been translated literally: "The actual engraving of the Law of the Ever-Living in the hand of Moses"; the Scrolls were nearly 850 years old; they had been hidden in the Temple, and were found somewhat by accident by Hilkiah the High Priest).

15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the Book of the Law in the House of the LORD. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan.

16 And Shaphan carried the Book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was committed to your servants, they do it.

17 And they have gathered together the money that was found in the House of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen.

18 Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the Priest has given me a Book. And Shaphan read it before the king (or read a portion of it).

[19] And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the Law, that he rent his clothes. (The king rent his clothes in grief, because the practice of the nation had diverged so terribly from the ever-to-be-venerated Law. Learning from it how defective his reformation was, he proceeded with a thorough one.

A cleansing of the heart and life under the searchlight of the Word of God differs vastly from a reformation initiated by the feeble light of conscience or by tradition.)

[20] And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the Scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's, saying,

[21] Go, enquire of the LORD for me, and for them who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the Words of the Book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the Word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this Book (the words of the Book convicted Josiah).

[22] And Hilkiah, and they whom the king had appointed, went to Huldah the Prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college [a certain part of the city; has no relationship to academics]:) and they spoke to her to that effect (even though Jeremiah was serving in the office of the Prophet at that time, the Holy Spirit had the High Priest go to a woman, Huldah the Prophetess; in Christ, there is neither male nor female, and we speak of preference [Gal. 3:28]).

[23] And she answered them Thus says the LORD God of Israel, Tell you the man who sent you to me,

[24] Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in the Book which they have read before the king of Judah (Deut., Chpt. 28):

25 Because they have forsaken Me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore My wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched (this Judgment would come in a few years).

26 And as for the king of Judah (Josiah), who sent you to enquire of the LORD, so shall you say unto him, Thus says the LORD God of Israel concerning the words which you have heard;

27 Because your heart was tender, and you did humble yourself before God, when you heard His Words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbled yourself before Me, and did rend your clothes, and weep before Me; I have even heard you also, says the LORD.

28 Behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, neither shall your eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again. (It seems from the pronouncement by the Lord against Judah that Josiah's reforms merely delayed the coming judgment. It did not halt it. In effect, the Lord told the monarch that it would not come in his lifetime. His death would be "in peace," as it regards these judgments.)

THE LAW READ AND THE COVENANT RENEWED

29 Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30 And the king went up into the House of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the Priests, and the Levites, and all the people, great and small (they gathered in the Court in front of the Temple): and he read in their ears all the Words of the Book of the Covenant that was found in the House of the LORD (the Priests did read [Deut. 31:9]).

31 And the king stood in his place, and made a Covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep His Commandments, and His Testimonies, and His Statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the Words of the Covenant which are written in this Book.

32 And he caused all who were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the Covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

33 And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the Children of Israel, and made all who were present in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. And all his days they departed not from following the LORD, the God of their fathers (every true revival is always, and without exception, based on the Word of God; the Bible is the only revealed Truth in the world and, in fact, ever has been; there is not a spiritual problem that is not addressed in the Word; there is not a difficulty for which it does not have a solution; there is not a question that it cannot answer; there is not a life that the God of its pages cannot change; there is not a broken heart that its Words cannot mend; there is not a darkness that its Light cannot dispel; not a sin that the Blood of its pages cannot wash away [Ps. 119:105]).

CHAPTER 35

(623 B.C.)

THE PASSOVER IS KEPT

[1] Moreover Josiah kept a Passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem: and they killed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month (the "Passover" was the foundation of all Israel's worship and God's dealing with His People; it represents Israel's deliverance out of Egypt by the slain lamb and the shedding of innocent blood; likewise, the entirety of the Foundation of Christendom is founded on Calvary, of which the Passover is a type [Ex. 12:13]).

[2] And he set the Priests in their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the House of the LORD,

[3] And said unto the Levites who taught all Israel, which were holy unto the LORD, Put the Holy Ark in the House which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; it shall not be a burden upon your shoulders: serve now the LORD your God, and His people Israel (evidently, the Ark of the Covenant had been taken out of the Holy of Holies, quite possibly by Josiah's wicked father, Amon; it was to be placed in the Holy of Holies and intended to be moved no more)**,

[4] And prepare yourselves by the houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son (in other words, handle everything according to the Word of God).

[5] And stand in the Holy Place (to carry on the work of offering the Incense, keeping the Lamps lit, etc.) according to the divisions of the families of the fathers of your brethren the people, and after the division of the families of the Levites (according to the 24 courses).

6 So kill the Passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the Word of the LORD by the hand of Moses (this records the fact that Josiah believed that Moses wrote the Pentateuch, and Verse 12 shows his acquaintanceship with the Book of Exodus — especially Chapter 12).

7 And Josiah gave to the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the Passover Offerings, for all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance (these were to be offered up as Sacrifices according to the Word of the Lord, and it seems the animals were given to the people free of charge).

8 And his princes (wealthy people) gave willingly unto the people, to the Priests, and to the Levites: Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the House of God, gave unto the Priests for the Passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle (probably sheep), and three hundred oxen.

9 Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave unto the Levites for Passover Offerings five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen.

THE PASSOVER

10 So the service was prepared, and the Priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the king's commandment.

11 And they killed the Passover, and the Priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites flayed them (pulled the skin from their bodies).

12 And they removed the Burnt Offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written in the Book of Moses. And so did they with the oxen.

13 And they roasted the Passover with fire according to the Ordinance (Ex. 12:8-9): but the other Holy Offerings sod they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them speedily among all the people (all the people were carefully attended).

14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the Priests: because the Priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering of Burnt Offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the Priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the Commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's Seer; and the porters waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them. (This Verse proclaims the fact that as the Sacrifices were offered, they were accompanied by music, singing, and worship. When Calvary is held up as the Foundation of the Faith, it always elicits joy. As well, the porters made certain that the Law of the Lord was adhered to regarding the Sacrifices. All of this shows Josiah's adherence to the Word of God.)

16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the Passover, and to offer Burnt Offerings upon the Altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah.

THE FEAST OF UNLEAVENED BREAD

17 And the Children of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days (the Passover was kept on the first day of the seven).

18 And there was no Passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the Prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a Passover as Josiah kept, and the Priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem (this was also said of Hezekiah's observance of the Passover; the statement is true in both cases, for Hezekiah kept the Passover such as had never been kept up unto his day [30:26], and here Josiah kept one that was greater than Hezekiah's).

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this Passover kept (Josiah was now 26 years old).

JOSIAH IS SLAIN IN BATTLE

20 After all this *(Josiah was 39 at this time), when Josiah had prepared the Temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Charchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him.

21 But he (Necho) sent ambassadors to him *(to Josiah), saying, What have I to do with you, you king of Judah? I come not against you this day, but against the house wherewith I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear you from meddling with God, Who is with me, that He destroy you not (this is quite a statement coming from a heathen, but yet the Holy Spirit would ultimately say that he was right).

22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the Mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo (every evidence is that Josiah was wrong in doing this).

23 And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded.

24 His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in one of the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. (It has been argued from then until now as to why Josiah did this. Other than the information given here, the Scriptures are silent.

Every evidence seems to point to the fact that the Lord tried to warn him; however, we can certainly understand Josiah paying no attention at all to a heathen who claimed to hear from God. He didn't and neither would we; therefore, with so little information given, we can only venture an opinion:

Despite Josiah's reforms, Judah, at heart, had little turned to the Lord; consequently, the Lord would take Josiah away, simply because it was time for Judgment to come. Isaiah said, possibly concerning such as this: "The righteous perishes, and no man lays it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come" [Isa. 57:1].)

LAMENT FOR JOSIAH

25 And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing men and the singing women spoke of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the lamentations (not the Book of Lamentations later written by Jeremiah).

26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his goodness, according to that which was written in the Law of the LORD (this sentence pictures Josiah as a careful, loving student of the Word, to the end that he might become a "doer" of it)**,

27 And his deeds, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

CHAPTER 36

(593 B.C.)

THE REIGN OF JEHOAHAZ

[1] Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem.

[2] Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem (this was the shortest of any reign in Judah; in II Kings 23:32, we read that he did that which was evil in the sight of God).

JEHOAHAZ IS DEFEATED: TAKEN CAPTIVE TO EGYPT BY NECHO

[3] And the king of Egypt put him down at Jerusalem, and condemned the land in an hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold (now Judah will become a vassal state of Egypt).

[4] And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

JEHOIAKIM REIGNS OVER JUDAH

[5] Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God (the words, "his God," mean that God fervently dealt with him to bring him to the true way; nevertheless, despite the heavy dealings by the Holy Spirit, Jehoiakim continued to "do evil").

JEHOIAKIM TAKEN CAPTIVE BY NEBUCHADNEZZAR TO BABYLON

6 Against him (Jehoiakim) came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon (at this stage, Egypt begins to wane in power, which now sees the advent and rise of mighty Babylon).

7 Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the House of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon. (These articles were put in the temple of the god Bel [a derivative of Baal]. Inasmuch as there was no "god" in the Temple, Nebuchadnezzar no doubt took some of the Holy Vessels, such as the "Golden Lampstands," etc. This was the first deportation, which included Daniel and the three Hebrew children [II Ki. 24:14; Dan. 5:1-3, 23].)

8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

THE REIGN AND CAPTIVITY OF JEHOIACHIN

9 Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign (should be "eighteen," as in II Kings 24:8; the error was made, no doubt, by a copyist), and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

10 And when the year was expired, king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the House of the LORD (more of these Vessels, which had evidently been left), and made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem (this was the second deportation, which included Mordecai and Esther, as well as Ezekiel; they were taken to Babylon [II Ki. 24:10-16]).

ZEDEKIAH REIGNS OVER JUDAH

11 Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

12 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and humbled not himself before Jeremiah the Prophet speaking from the Mouth of the LORD (once again, the words, "his God," refer to the fact that the Holy Spirit through Jeremiah the Prophet dealt strongly with this man, but all to no avail! Millions presently fall into the same category, refusing to humble themselves before God).

THE REBELLION OF ZEDEKIAH

13 And he (Zedekiah) also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God: but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart from turning unto the LORD God of Israel (the criticism by the Prophet Ezekiel concerning this oath violation on the part of Zedekiah is to be found in Ezek. 17:12-20 and 21:25).

14 Moreover all the chief of the Priests, and the people, transgressed very much after all the abominations of the heathen; and polluted the House of the LORD which He had hallowed in Jerusalem. (This, with the following three Verses, may be regarded as the formal and final indictment of the people of Judah. This Passage tells us that even the Priests practiced abominations!)

15 And the LORD God of their fathers sent to them by His messengers, rising up betimes, and sending; because He had compassion on His people, and on His dwelling place (however, as we shall see, God's compassion can be exhausted; the "messengers" addressed here could very well have been Isaiah, Jeremiah, and Ezekiel, with the emphasis on Jeremiah)**:

16 But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised His Words, and misused His Prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against His people, till there was no remedy. (It is one thing for man to say that there is no remedy, but quite something else altogether for the Lord to say, "Till there was no remedy." In these very words, one can feel the sob of the Holy Spirit!)

17 Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees (Nebuchadnezzar), who killed their young men with the sword in the House of their Sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him who stooped for age: He (the Lord) gave them all into his hand.

18 And all the Vessels of the House of God, great and small, and the treasures of the House of the LORD, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes; all these he brought to Babylon (this was the last deportation, with Jerusalem, as well as the Temple, being completely destroyed).

19 And they burnt the House of God, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof (by the Lord allowing this, in effect, He was saying that Judah was no longer His people; now they belonged to the Babylonian king).

20 And them who had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon; where they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia (a total of seventy years):

21 To fulfill the Word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her Sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept Sabbath, to fulfill threescore and ten years. (The Law of Moses had demanded that every seventh year the entirety of the land [Israel] should rest. It was called "a Sabbath of rest unto the land." On the seventh year, the Lord said, "You shall neither sow your field, nor prune your vineyard" [Lev. 25:3-4].

For some 490 years, Israel ignored this Law of God; consequently, Israel "owed" the Lord 70 years of Sabbaths. Her deportation to Babylon would be for 70 years, thereby guaranteeing that the land would then lay fallow and would "enjoy her Sabbaths." God says what He means, and means what He says.)

THE DECREE OF CYRUS TO BUILD THE TEMPLE

22 Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia (a period of about half a century had elapsed between the last date of the foregoing Verses and the date signalized here; as well, Cyrus was Esther's son), that the Word of the LORD spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished (Jer. 29:10), the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation through out all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

23 Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the Earth has the LORD God of Heaven given me (the Medo-Persian Empire had defeated the Babylonian Empire; no doubt, Cyrus had been greatly influenced by his Godly mother, Esther, in that he now recognizes that it is the Lord Who has raised up the Persian Empire); and He (the Lord) has charged me to build Him an House in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all His people? The LORD his God be with him, and let him go up. (This concerned the re-building of the Temple under Ezra. All the Israelites were now free to go back to the land of Israel. Chapter 2 of Ezra gives us a list of the first group returning from captivity.)

CHAPTER 1

(538 B.C.)

THE PROCLAMATION OF CYRUS

[1] Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia (it is the first year of Cyrus as King of Babylon which is intended; it was 538 B.C.), that the Word of the LORD by the mouth of Jere miah might be fulfilled (Jeremiah had prophesied not only the fact, but the date, of the return, assigning to the captivity a duration of "seventy years" [Jer. 29:10]), the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying (this presents the Prophecy of Isaiah being fulfilled, which had been given over 200 years before [Isa. 44:28; 45:1–4]),

[2] Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of Heaven has given me all the kingdoms of the Earth (proclaims the monarch giving praise to the Lord for his position); and He has charged me to build Him an House (Temple) at Jerusalem, which is in Judah (no doubt, his Godly mother Esther had exerted great influence over him for good; as well, he had been shown the Prophecies by Daniel, his aged Prime Minister, and thereby encouraged to befriend the Hebrews).

[3] Who is there among you of all His people? (Proclaims the monarch addressing himself to all the Tribes equally.) his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the House of the LORD God of Israel, (He is the God,) which is in Jerusalem (this latter statement emphatically declares that Jehovah of Israel is the One True God, beside Whom there is no other, which is quite an admission from a heathen monarch).

[4] And whosoever remains in any place where he sojourns, let the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, beside the freewill offering for the House of God that is in Jerusalem (refers to the fact that he, from the king's treasury, is to give money in order to help this effort).

PREPARATIONS FOR THE RETURN FROM BABYLON

5 Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the Priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit God had raised, to go up to build the House of the LORD which is in Jerusalem (their mission was laid out by the Lord, so there was no need for misunderstanding).

6 And all they who were about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, beside all that was willingly offered (in excess of the offerings which came from the kingdom treasury).

7 Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the House of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods (refers to the Sacred Vessels which had been taken out of the Temple in Jerusalem before it was destroyed);

8 Even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them unto Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah (Sheshbazzar is, in fact, Zerubbabel; if the Davidic dynasty had continued, he would now be king; but because of the judgment pronounced upon Jehoiachin [Jer. 22:24–30], no king will sit on that throne until it is occupied at the beginning of the coming Kingdom Age by Jesus of Nazareth).

9 And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers of silver, nine and twenty knives,

10 Thirty basons of gold, silver basons of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up with them of the captivity that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem. (The list of these vessels possess no interest for the natural heart. But how often must our Lord, as man, have read and reread these words! They were all precious to His Heart; and they are precious to the heart who loves Him.)

CHAPTER 2

(536 B.C.)

THE FIRST GROUP RETURNING FROM CAPTIVITY UNDER ZERUBBABEL

[1] Now these are the children of the province who went up out of the captivity, of those which had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away unto Babylon, and came again unto Jerusalem and Judah, every one unto his city (many, if not most, of these had been born in captivity);

[2] Which came with Zerubbabel: Jeshua, Nehemiah (is not the same man who wrote the Book which bears that name), Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai (may very well have been the same man of the Book of Esther; actually, he was the cousin of Esther; since some came back who had seen the first Temple [3:12], Mordecai could have been one of these, for he was taken captive with Jehoiachin; it is possible that he could have lived through the 70 years of servitude), Bilshan, Mizpar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel:

[3] The children of Parosh, two thousand an hundred seventy and two.

[4] The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two.

[5] The children of Arah, seven hundred seventy and five.

[6] The children of Pahath-moab, of the children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve.

[7] The children of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four.

[8] The children of Zattu, nine hundred forty and five.

9 The children of Zaccai, seven hundred and threescore.

10 The children of Bani, six hundred forty and two.

11 The children of Bebai, six hundred twenty and three.

12 The children of Azgad, a thousand two hundred twenty and two.

13 The children of Adonikam, six hundred sixty and six.

14 The children of Bigvai, two thousand fifty and six.

15 The children of Adin, four hundred fifty and four.

16 The children of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety and eight.

17 The children of Bezai, three hundred twenty and three.

18 The children of Jorah, an hundred and twelve.

19 The children of Hashum, two hundred twenty and three.

20 The children of Gibbar, ninety and five.

21 The children of Beth-lehem, an hundred twenty and three.

22 The men of Netophah, fifty and six.

23 The men of Anathoth, an hundred twenty and eight.

24 The children of Azmaveth, forty and two.

25 The children of Kirjath-arim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty and three.

26 The children of Ramah and Gaba, six hundred twenty and one.

27 The men of Michmas, an hundred twenty and two.

28 The men of Beth-el and Ai, two hundred twenty and three.

29 The children of Nebo, fifty and two.

30 The children of Magbish, an hundred fifty and six.

31 The children of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four.

32 The children of Harim, three hundred and twenty.

33 The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty and five.

34 The children of Jericho, three hundred forty and five.

35 The children of Senaah, three thousand and six hundred and thirty.

36 The Priests: the children of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy and three.

37 The children of Immer, a thousand fifty and two.

38 The children of Pashur, a thousand two hundred forty and seven.

39 The children of Harim, a thousand and seventeen.

40 The Levites: the children of Jeshua and Kadmiel, of the children of Hodaviah, seventy and four.

41 The singers: the children of Asaph, an hundred twenty and eight.

42 The children of the porters: the children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children of Akkub, the children of Hatita, the children of Shobai, in all an hundred thirty and nine.

43 The Nethinims: the children of Ziha, the children of Hasupha, the children of Tabbaoth,

44 The children of Keros, the children of Siaha, the children of Padon,

45 The children of Lebanah, the children of Hagabah, the children of Akkub, 46 The children of Hagab, the children of Shalmai, the children of Hanan,

47 The children of Giddel, the children of Gahar, the children of Reaiah,

48 The children of Rezin, the children of Nekoda, the children of Gazzam, 49 The children of Uzza, the children of Paseah, the children of Besai,

50 The children of Asnah, the children of Mehunim, the children of Nephusim,

52 The children of Bazluth, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsha,

53 The children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Thamah,

54 The children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha.

55 The children of Solomon's servants: the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Peruda,

56 The children of Jaalah, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel,

57 The children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth of Zebaim, the children of Ami.

58 All the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

59 And these were they who went up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsa, Cherub, Addan, and Immer: but they could not show their father's house, and their seed, whether they were of Israel:

60 The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred fifty and two. (The total number returning from Babylon to Israel was 49,897. This included the servants and the singers, but not all are listed here.)

THE PRIESTS

61 And of the children of the Priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai; which took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name:

62 These sought their register among those who were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found (were not found in the genealogy): therefore were they, as polluted, put from the Priesthood (some of those who claimed to be descendants of Aaron and, therefore, Priests, had also lost the evidence of their descent; this loss was held to disqualify them from the exercise of the Priestly office)**.

63 And the Tirshatha (Governor) said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a Priest with Urim and with Thummim (Zerubbabel's expectation was disappointed; the gift of Urim and Thummim, forfeited by disobedience, was never recovered)**.

64 The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore, 65 Beside their servants and their maids, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and there were among them two hundred singing men and singing women.

66 Their horses were seven hundred thirty and six; their mules, two hundred forty and five;

67 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five; their asses, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

68 And some of the chief of the fathers, when they came to the House of the LORD which is at Jerusalem, offered freely for the House of God to set it up in his place:

69 They gave after their ability unto the treasure of the work threescore and one thousand drams of gold, and five thousand pound of silver, and one hundred Priests' garments.

70 So the Priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

CHAPTER 3

(536 B.C.)

RESTORATION OF WORSHIP

[1] And when the seventh month was come, and the Children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem (the "seventh month" corresponded nearly to our October; it commenced with a blowing of trumpets and a holy convocation on the first day [Lev. 23:24], which was followed on the tenth day by the solemn day of Atonement, and on the fifteenth day by the Feast of Tabernacles, or "Ingathering," which lasted until the twenty-second day, incorporating three Festivals: "Trumpets," "Atonement," and "Tabernacles")**.

[2] Then stood up Jeshua (Joshua) the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the Priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and built the Altar of the God of Israel, to offer Burnt Offerings thereon, as it is written in the Law of Moses the man of God. (The "Altar" was the first thing built upon the exiles returning, even before the Temple or the Wall. This proclaimed the fact that the Cross, of which the Altar was a Type, was the very foundation of all that Israel was. It is the same presently with the Church.

By building the Altar, where Burnt Offerings and Sin Offerings would be offered up, they thereby publicly confessed themselves to be guilty sinners, and that only by the shedding of atoning Blood could they be forgiven and brought back to God.)

[3] And they set the Altar upon his bases (means that they placed the new Altar upon the foundation of the old one, making it exactly conform to it); for fear was upon them because of the people of those countries: and they offered Burnt Offerings thereon unto the LORD, even Burnt Offerings morning and evening (proclaims the fact that they were placing their Faith and confidence in the shed Blood of Christ, making that their defense against the heathen; in fact, this is what the Lord told them to do; thus, the daily "morning" and "evening" Sacrifices had begun).

4 They kept also the Feast of Tabernacles (presents the Feast which points toward, and promises, the Millennium, when all Israel shall be saved), as it is written (Ex. 23:16), and offered the daily Burnt Offerings by number, according to the custom, as the duty of every day required (presents the Offerings for each day of the Festival, as carefully laid down in Num. 29:13–38);

5 And afterward offered the continual Burnt Offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set Feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of everyone who willingly offered a freewill offering unto the LORD (pertains to those commanded in Num. 28:11–15, plus the offering up of Sacrifices anytime such Offerings were brought by individual Israelites).

6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer Burnt Offerings unto the LORD (presents their Faith in the shed Blood of Christ). But the foundation of the Temple of the LORD was not yet laid (presents the fact that while everything about the Temple was of immense significance, still, the most significant of all was the "Altar," which typified the Cross).

7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

THE REBUILDING OF THE TEMPLE BEGUN

8 Now in the second year of their coming unto the House of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua (Joshua) the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the Priests and the Levites, and all they who were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the House of the LORD (it was the second year after being in the land of Israel that work was begun on the Temple)**.

[9] Then stood Jeshua (Joshua) with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, together, to set forward the workmen in the House of God: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites (Joshua [Jeshua] was then the High Priest; he was in charge of the work)**.

[10] And when the builders laid the foundation of the Temple of the LORD, they set the Priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the Ordinance of David king of Israel.

[11] And they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; because He is good, for His Mercy endures for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the House of the LORD was laid (this was certainly a time that rejoicing was most appropriate and, as well, it was centered up in music and singing, which the Holy Spirit had orchestrated through David many years before, and which is carried on even unto this present hour — at least with those who truly know the Lord)**.

[12] But many of the Priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, who had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy (the Temple was not destroyed at the beginning of the seventy years captivity; in fact, it had probably been destroyed a little less than 50 years; consequently, there would be many who could remember its grandeur and glory)**:

[13] So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off (in fact, the Jewish people, in their displays of emotion, whether it was joy or sadness, were very demonstrative)**.

CHAPTER 4

ZERUBBABEL REFUSES THE HELP OF THEIR ADVERSARIES

[1] Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity built the Temple unto the LORD God of Israel (Satan now sends his adversaries, endeavoring to hinder the building of the Temple);

[2] Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, let us build with you: for we seek your God, as you do; and we do sacrifice unto Him since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assur (Assyria), which brought us up hither (these were the Samaritans, who occupied what was formerly referred to as the northern kingdom of Israel).

[3] But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, You have nothing to do with us to build an House unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us (the plan fomented here by Satan was designed to destroy the people of God; his proposal through the Samaritans for help, which was no doubt sorely needed, possibly seemed attractive on the surface; however, the Evil One had far more in mind than the Temple; he wanted to dilute the Jewish people by intermarriage with the Samaritans, thereby destroying the pure bloodline through which the Messiah must come).

[4] Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building,

[5] And hired counselors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia (the Lord allowed this opposition in order to test the faith of His people; regrettably, they failed; in fact, everything that happens to the Believer is, in essence, a test of faith).

THE STOPPING OF THE WORK ON THE TEMPLE BY ARTAXERXES, THE KING

6 And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem (a new king has taken the throne, so fresh representations were made to him by the "adversaries," lest the work of the Temple should continue).

7 And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue (Artaxerxes now takes over the Persian kingdom, and the adversaries appeal to him, as well!).

8 Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort:

9 Then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions; the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Susanchites, the Dehavites, and the Elamites (either the Samaritans were not now amalgamated into a single people, or else they thought, by listing all of these different names, that such would portray power and strength to the king, and he would, therefore, accede to their request),

10 And the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Asnapper brought over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest who are on this side the river, and at such a time (who this "great and noble Asnapper" was, we aren't told; they were speaking of the "Jordan River").

11 This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the king; Your servants the men on this side the river, and at such a time.

12 Be it known unto the king, that the Jews which came up from you to us are come unto Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have set up the walls thereof, and joined the foundations.

13 Be it known now unto the king, that, if this city be built, and the walls set up again, then will they not pay toll, tribute, and custom, and so you shall endamage the revenue of the kings.

14 Now because we have maintenance from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore have we went and certified the king;

15 That search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers: so shall you find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed.

16 We certify the king that, if this city be built again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means you shall have no portion on this side the river. (The enemies of the Lord told half-truths and outright lies, in order to hinder the rebuilding of the Temple.)

THE ANSWER OF THE KING TO THE LETTER

17 Then sent the king (Artaxerxes) an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions who dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the river (east of the Jordan River), Peace, and at such a time.

18 The letter which you sent unto us has been plainly read before me.

19 And I commanded, and search has been made, and it is found that this city of old time has made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.

20 There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ruled over all countries beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and custom, was paid unto them.

[21] Give you now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not built, until another commandment shall be given from me.

[22] Take heed now that you fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

[23] Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power (the "adversaries" lost no time in brandishing the letter from the Persian king, demanding that the work stop; by threatened force, the work did stop)**.

[24] Then ceased the work of the House of God which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia (if the work was resumed early in Darius' second year, the entire period of suspension cannot have much exceeded a year and a half; however, the Jews allowed many other things to hinder, which stretched into approximately fifteen years of inactivity, as it regards the rebuilding of the Temple)**.

CHAPTER 5

(520 B.C.)

THE REBUILDING STARTED AGAIN

[1] Then the Prophets, Haggai the Prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem in the Name of the God of Israel, even unto them (the two Books of Haggai and Zechariah should be read in connection with this Chapter).

[2] Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the House of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the Prophets of God helping them (the Prophets now come on the scene, with the Word from the Lord that the work must be resumed, and speedily; the people had become so busy building their own houses and setting themselves up, that little thought was now given to the Temple; without true Prophets, the Church will languish).

THE ENEMIES OF THE JEWS SEEK TO HINDER THE BUILDING AGAIN

[3] At the same time came to them Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, Who has commanded you to build this House, and to make up this wall? (As the work proceeds, Satan will again rear his ugly head, but to no avail.)

[4] Then said we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men who make this building? (The text should read, "Then said they...?")

[5] But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they returned answer by letter concerning this matter (at this time, the Elders who presided over the workmen employed in the restoration were a special subject of God's watchful care, so that those who would fain have hindered them could not).

A LETTER TO KING DARIUS SEEKING TO STOP THE WORK ON THE TEMPLE

6 The copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and his companions the Apharsachites, which were on this side the river, sent unto Darius the king (Tatnai was a just Governor-general of the vast regions to the westward of the River Euphrates; he personally visited Jerusalem, rather than listen to the reports of Israel's adversaries):

7 They sent a letter unto him, wherein was written thus; Unto Darius the king, all peace.

8 Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the House of the great God, which is built with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goes fast on, and prospered in their hands.

9 Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, Who commanded you to build this House, and to make up these walls?

10 We asked their names also, to certify you, that we might write the names of the men who were the chief of them.

11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of Heaven and Earth, and build the House that was built these many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and set up.

12 But after that our fathers had provoked the God of Heaven unto wrath, He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.

13 But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this House of God.

14 And the vessels also of gold and silver of the House of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the Temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one, whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor;

15 And said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the Temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the House of God be built in his place.

16 Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundation of the House of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now has it been in building, and yet it is not finished.

17 Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this House of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter (it is quite possible that this "decree of Cyrus" may still exist in the ruins of Babylon and will one day be discovered).

CHAPTER 6

(515 B.C.)

DARIUS CONFIRMS THE DECREE OF CYRUS AND SUPPORTS THE REBUILDING

[1] Then Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the rolls, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon (it seems that the application made to Darius received his immediate attention).

[2] And there was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written:

[3] In the first year of Cyrus the king the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the House of God at Jerusalem, Let the House be built, the place where they offered Sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits;

[4] With three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expenses be given out of the king's house:

[5] And also let the golden and silver vessels of the House of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the Temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and brought again unto the Temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the House of God.

[6] Now therefore, Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, be you far from thence:

[7] Let the work of this House of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this House of God in his place (as the trumpet had given no uncertain note, the Persian officials, Tatnai and Shethar-boznai, whatever their wishes may have been, had no choice as to their line of action; the king's word was law; they were to leave the Jews alone, and let them finish the work on the Temple).

8 Moreover I make a decree what you shall do the elders of these Jews for the building of this House of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expenses be given unto these men, that they be not hindered (not only was permission given to continue the work, but, as well, the workmen on the Temple were to be paid out of the royal revenue, as well as the expenses of the Sacrifices; the money came out of the taxes levied by the Persians against Syria).

9 And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the Burnt Offerings of the God of Heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the Priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail:

10 That they may offer sacrifices of sweet savours unto the God of Heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons.

11 Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, let him be hanged thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this.

12 And the God Who has caused His Name to dwell there destroy all kings and people, that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this House of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed (Darius left absolutely no doubt as to what he was saying as it regards the building of the Temple; as well, he left absolutely no doubt as it regards the punishment that was to be inflicted if his decree was altered in any way).

THE TEMPLE COMPLETED

13 Then Tatnai, governor on this side the river, Shethar-boznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily (the Persian authorities who dealt directly with the Jews showed no reluctance to obey)**.

[14] And the elders of the Jews built, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the Prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they built and finished it, according to the Commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the commandment of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.

[15] And this House was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king. (The prophesying of both Haggai and Zechariah contributed much toward the finishing of this edifice. The Temple had been approximately twenty-one years in building. Fifteen years of this time had been all but wasted.)

THE TEMPLE DEDICATED WITH SACRIFICES AND JOY

[16] And the Children of Israel, the Priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this House of God with joy, (If it is to be noticed, Ezra is careful to present the returned exiles as "Israel," and not merely "Judah." This indicates that some of all the Tribes of Israel had returned. As well, by the use of the words, "this House," it seems that Ezra does this to link the present with the past, the new Temple with the old, the restored faith with that of former times.)

[17] And offered at the dedication of this House of God an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a Sin Offering for all Israel, twelve he goats, according to the number of the Tribes of Israel (all this proclaims the fact that Israel now rested on the foundation of the shed Blood of the Sacrifices, which pointed to the One Who was to come; the Cross of Christ is likewise the Foundation of the Church; regrettably, the modern Church seems to be forgetting this Scriptural fact)**.

[18] And they set the Priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem; as it is written in the Book of Moses (the respective Offices of these two orders, the Priests and the Levites, are given in Num. 3:6–10 and 8:6–26)**.

THE PASSOVER KEPT AGAIN

[19] And the children of the captivity kept the Passover upon the fourteenth day of the first month (Ex. 12:6).

[20] For the Priests and the Levites were purified together, all of them were pure, and killed the Passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the Priests, and for themselves (this is the first Passover mentioned in all the 21 years of the returned exiles; possibly they conducted other Passovers, but the Scripture does not say).

[21] And the Children of Israel, which were come again out of captivity, and all such as had separated themselves unto them from the filthiness of the heathen of the land, to seek the LORD God of Israel, did eat,

[22] And kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy: for the LORD had made them joyful, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the House of God, the God of Israel (as is obvious here, when Israel set about to carry out the Work of God, then the Lord began to work for them; He will do the same presently!).

CHAPTER 7

(457 B.C.)

THE SECOND GROUP OF EXILES RETURN TO JERUSALEM UNDER EZRA

1 Now after these things (over 50 years have passed between the happenings of the previous Chapter and this Chapter), in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia (this was Artaxerxes Longimanus, who is different than the Artaxerxes of 4:7), Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,

2 The son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

3 The son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

4 The son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

5 The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the Chief Priest (Ezra, as proclaimed here, was a member of the High Priest's family, probably a third cousin to the existing High Priest, Eliashib):

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was a ready Scribe in the Law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him (Ezra now comes from Babylon to Jerusalem; he was a student of the "Law of Moses," in effect, a Scholar; tradition says he was the president of the Great Synagogue, who settled the question of the Jewish Canon of Scripture and, as well, began building Synagogues in Jewish communities).

7 And there went up some of the Children of Israel, and of the Priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king (Ezra came to Jerusalem in 458 B.C.).

[8] And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

[9] For upon the first day of the first month began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him (the journey from Babylon to Jerusalem by Ezra and his party took exactly four months, and the Lord was with him).

[10] For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the Law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in Israel Statutes and Judgments ("to teach Statutes and Judgments" is to inculcate both the ceremonial and the moral precepts of the Law; Ezra was a teacher of Righteousness [10:10–11; Neh. 8:2–18]).

KING ARTAXERXES' SUPPORT OF EZRA

[11] Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the Priest, the Scribe, even a Scribe of the words of the Commandments of the LORD, and of His Statutes to Israel (the "letter" given by king Artaxerxes to Ezra gave him tremendous latitude regarding government, in fact, guaranteeing the might of the Persian Empire to back him up; actually, Ezra was invested with the chief authority over the whole district of Judah).

[12] Artaxerxes, king of kings, unto Ezra the Priest, a Scribe of the Law of the God of Heaven, perfect peace, and at such a time (the phrase, "perfect peace, and at such a time," is meant to proclaim the fact that any obstruction or opposition to this letter which would destroy the peace, would, at the same time, fall out to the destruction of the individual who would be so foolish as to oppose Ezra; in other words, and as stated, he had the full support of the Persian king).

[13] I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his Priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own freewill to go up to Jerusalem, go with you.

[14] Forasmuch as you are sent of the king, and of his seven counselors, to enquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the Law of your God which is in your hand (the latter phrase proclaims the fact that Ezra was not ashamed to stand before the king, Bible in hand, and make known to him the Word of God);

[15] And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counselors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, Whose habitation is in Jerusalem,

[16] And all the silver and gold that you can find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the Priests, offering willingly for the House of their God which is in Jerusalem (many Jews at that time did not desire to go back to Jerusalem; still, they gave freely of their means to supplement what was being given by the Persians):

[17] That you may buy speedily with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their Meat Offerings and their Drink Offerings, and offer them upon the Altar of the House of your God which is in Jerusalem (the king seemed to have quite a bit of knowledge concerning the manner of worship of the Jews regarding their Sacrifices; evidently, Ezra had witnessed to him in depth).

[18] And whatsoever shall seem good to you, and to your brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do after the will of your God (the confidence vested in Ezra by the Persian king is exceptional, to say the least!).

[19] The vessels also that are given you for the service of the House of your God, those deliver you before the God of Jerusalem (these "vessels" do not appear to be the Sacred Vessels, which had already been taken by Zerubbabel).

[20] And whatsoever more shall be needful for the House of your God, which you shall have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house.

21 And I, even I Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the Priest, the Scribe of the Law of the God of Heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily, 22 Unto an hundred talents of silver, and to an hundred measures of wheat, and to an hundred baths of wine, and to an hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much (this is the limit as to how much Ezra could take from the treasury of Persia).

23 Whatsoever is commanded by the God of Heaven, let it be diligently done for the House of the God of Heaven: for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? (This heathen monarch had more fear of God even than most Believers; he was actually afraid not to do all that lay within his power and service toward the Temple and the worship of God.)

24 Also we certify you, that touching any of the Priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or ministers of this House of God, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom, upon them (all persons attached to the Temple service were to be exempt from taxation).

25 And you, Ezra, after the wisdom of your God, Who is in your hand, set magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people who are beyond the river, all such as know the Laws of your God; and teach you them who know them not (Ezra was given the authority to appoint "Magistrates and Judges").

26 And whosoever will not do the Law of your God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment (in effect, Ezra is given here the authority to act as the head of all civil government of the Jewish people, with power to fine, imprison, banish, or even to put to death offenders, as he might think right).

EZRA'S WORSHIP AND PRAISE TO GOD

[27] Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, who has put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the House of the LORD which is in Jerusalem (Ezra doesn't credit the king with this largesse, but rather the "LORD God"):

[28] And has extended mercy unto me before the king, and his counsellors, and before all the king's mighty princes. And I was strengthened as the hand of the LORD my God was upon me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me (there were some leading Jews in Babylon who would go to Jerusalem with Ezra).

CHAPTER 8

(457 B.C.)

THE LIST OF THOSE WHO RETURNED

[1] These are now the chief of their fathers, and this is the genealogy of them who went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king (this is the second expedition led from Babylon to Judah, with the first being led by Zerubbabel; there may have been other expeditions; however, only these two are mentioned in Ezra).

[2] Of the sons of Phinehas; Gershom: of the sons of the Ithamar; Daniel: of the sons of David; Hattush.

[3] Of the sons of Shechaniah, of the sons of Pharosh; Zechariah: and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the males an hundred and fifty.

[4] Of the sons of Pahath-moab; Elihoenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males.

[5] Of the sons of Shechaniah; the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males.

[6] Of the sons also Adin; Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males.

[7] And of the sons of Elam; Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males.

[8] And of the sons of Shephatiah; Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him fourscore males.

[9] Of the sons of Joab; Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males.

10 And of the sons of Shelomith; the son of Josiphiah, and with him an hundred and threescore males.

11 And of the sons of Bebai; Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males.

12 And of the sons of Azgad; Johanan the son of Hakkatan, and with him an hundred and ten males.

13 And of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these, Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them threescore males.

14 Of the sons also of Bigvai; Uthai, and Zabbud, and with them seventy males. (All these individuals named were guaranteed to be Jews, for their genealogy proves such. All of this was very important, because the Messiah would come through these people. Their going back to the land of Israel was extremely significant also, considering that this was the land which God had chosen for these people and, as stated, through whom the Messiah would come.)

EZRA SENDS FOR THE LEVITES

15 And I gathered them together to the river that runs to Ahava; and there abode we in tents three days: and I viewed the people, and the Priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi (as to why this slackness concerning the Levites, we aren't told; however, there certainly seemed to have been a special disinclination to return to Jerusalem on the part of most of the Levites; in fact, only 74 went up with Zerubbabel the years before, when, in fact, there were 4,289 Priests who did return [2:36–40])**.

16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding.

17 And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia, and I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the House of our God (persuade Levites to come, who were needed, as it regards the work for the Temple; if everything else in Israel was successful, but yet the House of God was unattended or not attended properly, then again ruin would come upon Israel)**.

[18] And by the Good Hand of our God upon us they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen (with that "Good Hand," all things can be done and, without that "Good Hand," nothing can be done)**;

[19] And Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty;

[20] Also of the Nethinims (the original Nethinims were the Gibeonites of Josh. 9:23), whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them were expressed by name (the Holy Spirit wants us to know that each individual person was of great significance, thereby "expressed by name")**.

EZRA PROCLAIMS A FAST

[21] Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of Him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance (this "fast" was probably for one day, with the entire group giving themselves to seeking the Lord, as it regarded His Leading and Guidance pertaining to the long journey ahead of them in going from Babylon to Jerusalem)**.

[22] For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them for good who seek Him; but His power and His wrath is against all them who forsake Him (Ezra had boasted to Artaxerxes, and rightly so, of the power and goodness of God, and had spoken of himself and his brethren as being assured of the Divine protection, hence him not asking for military help on the long journey; considering that this way was infested by robbers, this was a great step of faith).

[23] So we fasted and besought our God for this: and He was intreated of us.

TWELVE PRIESTS CHOSEN AS TREASURERS OF THE TEMPLE RICHES

[24] Then I separated twelve of the chief of the Priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them,

[25] And weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the House of our God, which the king, and his counselors, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had offered:

[26] I even weighed unto their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents, and of gold an hundred talents;

[27] Also twenty basons of gold, of a thousand drams; and two vessels of fine copper, precious as gold. (All of this was worth, in 2004 currency, approximately $100 million, or even more; so it is easy to understand how this would be a tempting target for robbers.)

[28] And I said unto them, You are holy unto the LORD (the men appointed of Verse 24); the vessels are holy also; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering unto the LORD God of your fathers.

[29] Watch you, and keep them, until you weigh them before the chief of the Priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the House of the LORD.

[30] So took the Priests and the Levites the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the House of our God (consecrated to God by their Office, the Priests and Levites were the fitting custodians of consecrated things).

EZRA'S ARRIVAL IN JERUSALEM

[31] Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was upon us, and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way (robbers!).

[32] And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days (this tells us that they all arrived safely; in fact, more than likely most, if not all, of the people with Ezra had never seen Jerusalem, having been born in Babylon).

[33] Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels weighed in the House of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the Priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, Levites (Ezra's businesslike action should be followed by all Christian people in money matters, both secular and spiritual);

[34] By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time.

[35] Also the children of those who had been carried away, which were come out of the captivity, offered Burnt Offerings unto the God of Israel, twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he goats for a Sin Offering: all this was a Burnt Offering unto the LORD (on reaching Jerusalem, they hasted to offer up Burnt Offerings and Sin Offerings in great number; that is, they proclaimed that despite their faith, their praying, their fasting, and their costly donations to the Temple, yet were they great sinners, needing a great Saviour; the greatness and sufficiency of that Saviour were typified in the multitude of the animals slain).

[36] And they delivered the king's commissions unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors on this side the river (the west side of Jordan): and they furthered the people, and the House of God.

CHAPTER 9

(457 B.C.)

SIN IS DISCOVERED AND SORROW EXPRESSED

[1] Now when these things were done (speaking of the things in the previous Verses), the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the Priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, and Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites (the matter of the involvement of the people of Israel, as few as they were in the Land at that time, with the heathen around them, regarding "abominations," was serious).

[2] For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons (of the heathen): so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yes, the hand of the princes and rulers has been chief in this trespass (the term "holy seed" does not, in effect, say that the people committing these sins were holy, but rather that this is the designation that the Lord had given them as a people, and what He intended them to be, whether they were, in fact, that or not).

[3] And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonied (astonished; rending the clothes was one of the most common Oriental modes of showing grief).

[4] Then were assembled unto me every one who trembled at the Words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those who had been carried away; and I sat astonied until the evening sacrifice (Ezra chose the time of the evening Sacrifice [3 p.m.] to confess his sin and the sin of the nation, for the poured-out blood of the Sacrifices proclaimed forgiveness and atonement; divinely inspired Repentance always brings the soul to Calvary).

EZRA'S PRAYER AND CONFESSION OF SIN

5 And at the evening Sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God (the time of the Sacrifice, which represented the Cross, was the appropriate time for prayer, especially regarding prayer in which acknowledgment of sin was to form a large part),

6 And said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to You, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens (Ezra, by the use of the pronoun "our," includes himself in this prayer of Repentance, as he also pleads for the entirety of Israel).

7 Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our Priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day (Ezra goes straight to the point, labeling "sin" as the problem, as it regarded Israel, and all others for that matter, and for all time).

8 And now for a little space grace has been showed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in His Holy Place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage (the entirety of the statement given in this Verse proclaims the fact that Ezra is not claiming a full restoration; in other words, by his statement, he is saying that any Grace will be appreciated, for the truth is, they deserve no Grace at all).

9 For we were bondmen; yet our God has not forsaken us in our bondage, but has extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the House of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem (the phrase, "For we were bondmen," should have been translated, "For we are bondmen"; the Jews had not recovered their independence and, in fact, would not do so; even now, the modern State of Israel is limited, and we speak of the Arabs, which occupy a good part of the Land of Israel)**.

[10] And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken Your Commandments (this Verse speaks to the fact that, when sin is committed, it is always, and without exception, against God)**,

[11] Which You have commanded by Your servants the Prophets, saying, The land, unto which you go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their uncleanness (in his prayer, Ezra is speaking of the corrupt character of the Canaanitish nations which formerly occupied the Land that later came to be called Israel)**.

[12] Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that you may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever (Ezra is quoting, at least in part, Deut. 7:3)**.

[13] And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that You our God have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us such deliverance as this (the Lord always punishes less than we deserve; we should always remember this)**;

[14] Should we again break Your Commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations? would not You be angry with us till You had consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping? (Sadly, Israel did "again" fail the Lord, and did so miserably! They "joined" Rome and the "abomination" of the Crucifixion of Christ, which was the most horrifying abomination of all. As a result, the entire nation was destroyed, which took place in A.D. 70, and is only now beginning to come back, which began in 1948.)

15 O LORD God of Israel, You are righteous: for we remain yet escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before You in our trespasses: for we cannot stand before You because of this (Righteousness, in its widest sense, includes Mercy; and so the meaning here may be, "You are good and gracious, of which Your having spared us is a proof").

CHAPTER 10

(457 B.C.)

REPENTANCE RESULTS IN SEPARATION FROM SIN

[1] Now when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and casting himself down before the House of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people wept very sore (in leading the way, Ezra spurred the people to Repentance as well!).

[2] And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing (if sin is present, without fail, the Holy Spirit will point it out).

[3] Now therefore let us make a Covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them (the children), according to the counsel of my lord, and of those who tremble at the Commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the Law (the "Covenant" proposed was that which addressed the problem of the heathen wives, and possibly, as well, the heathen husbands, also the children born to these unlawful unions [9:12]).

[4] Arise; for this matter belongs unto you (Ezra): we also will be with you: be of good courage, and do it (the princes of Israel proclaimed to Ezra that he must take the lead in this thing, as distasteful as it was!).

[5] Then arose Ezra, and made the Chief Priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they should do according to this word. And they swore (all of Israel was to act in the matter as Shechaniah had recommended and put away the adulterous wives).

6 Then Ezra rose up from before the House of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib: and when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned because of the transgression of them who had been carried away (the greater sin had to do with Satan's efforts through intermarriage to destroy the sacred bloodline through which the Messiah was to come, hence the mourning)**.

7 And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem (Ezra and others had greatly sought the Lord; now they will put action to their prayers; they will call an assembly for all in Judah and Jerusalem)**;

8 And that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those who had been carried away (the command was ironclad; all able-bodied men had to come to Jerusalem, irrespective as to where they lived in Judah)**.

9 Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the street of the House of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain (they gathered in the month Chisleu, which corresponds somewhat with our December)**.

10 And Ezra the Priest stood up, and said unto them, You have transgressed, and have taken strange wives, to increase the trespass of Israel (the phrase, "to increase the trespass of Israel," refers to the fact that Israel must not again travel a strange path; the past 70 years of suffering should be warning enough; God's Word is not to be trifled with!)**.

11 Now therefore make confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do His pleasure: and separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives (this sin had to be confessed before the Lord)**.

12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As you have said, so must we do.

13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for we are many who have transgressed in this thing (the phrase, "For we are many who have transgressed in this thing," should have been translated, "We have greatly offended in this thing")**.

14 Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them who have taken strange wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God for this matter be turned from us (each case had to be examined individually; in some cases, the foreign wives may have become proselytes, and the children may have been circumcised, and so accepted into the congregation, which would have given them a claim to remain, which would extend to the mothers as well)**.

15 Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah were employed about this matter: and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them (should have been translated, "Only Jonathan and Jahaziah stood up against this matter, or opposed it"; in other words, they were not happy about this "Covenant")**.

16 And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the Priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter (the people, despite the opposition of Jonathan and Jahaziah, acquiesced to Ezra's decision and acted accordingly)**.

17 And they made an end with all the men who had taken strange wives by the first day of the first month (it took about three months to do this)**.

THE NAMES OF THOSE WHO HAD MARRIED STRANGE WIVES

18 And among the sons of the Priests there were found who had taken strange wives: namely, of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren; Maaseiah, the Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah (Ezra listed the offending Priests first of all, because, of all people, they should have known better than to take "strange wives").

[19] And they gave their hands that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their trespass (the only answer for this sin was the Sacrifice, i.e., "the Cross," as the Cross is the only answer for any sin [I Jn. 1:7, 9]).

[20] And of the sons of Immer; Hanani, and Zebadiah.

[21] And of the sons of Harim; Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uzziah.

[22] And of the sons of Pashur; Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Jozabad, and Elasah.

[23] Also of the Levites; Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah, (the same is Kelita,) Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

[24] Of the singers also; Eliashib: and of the porters; Shallum, and Telem, and Uri.

[25] Moreover of Israel: of the sons of Parosh; Ramiah, and Jeziah, and Malchiah, and Miamin, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Benaiah.

[26] And of the sons of Elam; Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Eliah.

[27] And of the sons of Zattu; Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza.

[28] Of the sons also of Bebai; Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai.

[29] And of the sons of Bani; Meshullam, Malluch, and Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, and Ramoth.

30 And of the sons of Pahath-moab; Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezaleel, and Binnui, and Manasseh.

31 And of the sons of Harim; Eliezer, Ishijah, Malchiah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, 32 Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah.

33 Of the sons of Hashum; Mattenai, Mattathah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei.

34 Of the sons of Bani; Maadai, Amram, and Uel,

35 Benaiah, Bedeiah, Chelluh,

36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

37 Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasau,

38 And Bani, and Binnui, Shimei,

39 And Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adaiah,

40 Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,

41 Azareel, and Shelemiah, Shemariah,

42 Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph.

43 Of the sons of Nebo; Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jadau, and Joel, Benaiah.

44 All these had taken strange wives: and some of them had wives by whom they had children. (One may wonder why the necessity of these individuals and their families being listed, even as Ezra did? However, the Holy Spirit wanted this done in order that we may all understand how awful sin really is, and of any description.)

CHAPTER 1

(446 B.C.)

THE BAD NEWS FROM JERUSALEM

[1] The words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month Chisleu (December), in the twentieth year (the 20th year of the reign of Artaxerxes Longimanus), as I was in Shushan the palace (where Daniel saw the vision of the ram with two horns [Dan. 8:2], and Ahasuerus [Xerxes] made his great feast to all his princes and servants [Esther 1:3]),

[2] That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews who had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem (Hanani was later given the charge of the gates of Jerusalem by Nehemiah [7:2]).

[3] And they said unto me, The remnant who are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire (Hanani and certain others had come from Jerusalem to the Persian Capital, and Nehemiah questions them regarding certain conditions in Jerusalem; he is told that the wall is broken down, and the gates are burned with fire; this is some years after the first group had returned under Ezra).

NEHEMIAH'S PRAYER FOR JERUSALEM

[4] And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of Heaven (the revelation of the actual condition of Jerusalem, especially after all this time, came upon Nehemiah with a shock; so he took the situation to the Lord!),

[5] And said, I beseech You, O LORD God of Heaven, the great and terrible God, Who keeps Covenant and Mercy for them who love Him and observe His Commandments (Nehemiah's words are very similar to the prayer prayed by Daniel [Dan. 9:4]):

[6] Let Your ear now be attentive, and Your eyes open, that You may hear the prayer of Your servant, which I pray before You now, day and night, for the Children of Israel Your servants, and confess the sins of the Children of Israel, which we have sinned against You: both I and my father's house have sinned (as Ezra, Nehemiah includes himself in the need for Repentance [Ezra 9:6]).

[7] We have dealt very corruptly against You, and have not kept the Commandments, nor the Statutes, nor the Judgments, which You commanded Your servant Moses (the Ordinances of the Law are frequently summed up under these three headings [Deut. 5:31; 6:1; 11:1]).

[8] Remember, I beseech You, the Word that You commanded Your servant Moses, saying, If you transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations (this is not a quotation of a particular Verse, but a reference to the general sense of various Passages; in fact, many of the sacred historians habitually referred to the older Scriptures in this way, quoting the spirit of the text rather than the letter):

[9] But if you turn unto Me, and keep My Commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set My Name there (national Repentance is the one great condition of national Restoration).

[10] Now these are Your servants and Your people, whom You have redeemed by Your great power, and by Your strong hand (the reference is especially to the deliverance from Egypt).

[11] O LORD, I beseech You, let now Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant (Nehemiah), and to the prayer of Your servants, who desire to fear Your Name: and prosper, I pray You, Your servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man (Artaxerxes). For I was the king’s cupbearer (not his sole cupbearer, but one of many; therefore, he had access to the king)**.

CHAPTER 2

(445 B.C.)

NEHEMIAH'S REQUEST OF KING ARTAXERXES

[1] And it came to pass in the month Nisan (April), in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence (hitherto I had always worn a cheerful countenance before him — now it was otherwise — my sorrow showed itself despite me — Pulpit).

[2] Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is your countenance sad, seeing you are not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid (those who showed sorrow in the presence of the king were liable to be executed; however, Artaxerxes Longimanus feels compassion, and wishes to assuage the grief of his servant),

[3] And said unto the king, Let the king live forever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lies waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire? (Nehemiah, though holding a high position in the imperial court, did not set his heart upon the glorious city of Shushan, but on the ruined city of Jerusalem. He loved it and its people because both belonged to God.)

[4] Then the king said unto me, For what do you make request? So I prayed to the God of Heaven (upon the king asking this question, it seems that Nehemiah prayed silently and quickly for the Lord to be with him in making his request; how so must we as well emulate his example!).

[5] And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if your servant have found favour in your sight, that you would send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it (speaking of the wall and the gates; it was quite a request!).

6 And the king said unto me, (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall your journey be? and when will you return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time (the queen's name was "Damaspia"; Nehemiah probably mentioned some such time as a year or two years; he stayed away, however, as he tells us [5:14], twelve years, obtaining no doubt from time to time an extension of his leave).

7 Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah;

8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertain to the House (Temple), and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into (the governor's residence). And the king granted me, according to the Good Hand of my God upon me.

NEHEMIAH GOES FROM BABYLON TO JERUSALEM

9 Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

10 When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the Children of Israel (all who venture, in any way, to forward the interests of the Kingdom of Heaven are sure to meet with opposition from the world, and discouragement from the Church; Nehemiah found it to be so; I speak of the opposition offered by Sanballat and his friends, and the discouragement by the men of Judah [4:10; 6:10–19]).

11 So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days (after the long journey, three days of rest).

INSPECTING THE WALLS

12 And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon (all the arrangements are made to avoid notice).

13 And I went out by night by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon well (the pool of Siloam), and to the dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

16 And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the Priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest who did the work.

WORK BEGUN ON THE WALLS OF JERUSALEM

17 Then said I unto them, You see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lies waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach (sadly, the walls of the Church, in many cases, are broken down; I speak of the wall of prayer, the wall of strict adherence to the Scriptures and, above all, the wall of Faith in Christ and what He has done for us at the Cross; as Jerusalem was then a reproach, I'm concerned that the Church presently falls into the same category, at least in the Eyes of God [Rev. 3:14–22]).

18 Then I told them of the Hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work (the original Text says, "And they strengthened their hands for good"; is the Holy Spirit presently saying to us, "Let us rise up and build," as it concerns the great Work of God?).

RIDICULE BY THEIR ENEMIES

[19] But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that you do? will you rebel against the king? (The world, of which Sanballat was a type, continues to laugh to scorn those who truly serve God.)

[20] Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of Heaven, He will prosper us; therefore we His servants will arise and build: but you have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem (Nehemiah claims a Divine sanction for his proceedings; he avoids opposition by concealment as long as he can; but, when opposition nevertheless appears, he meets it with defiance; the world has no part nor place in the Work of God!)**.

CHAPTER 3

(445 B.C.)

THE BUILDERS OF THE WALLS AND GATES

[1] Then Eliashib the High Priest rose up with his brethren the Priests, and they built the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the tower of Meah they sanctified it, unto the tower of Hananeel (it was called the "sheep gate," because through it entered the sheep destined for Sacrifice; this Jerusalem had twelve gates; so shall the future city)**.

[2] And next unto him built the men of Jericho. And next to them built Zaccur the son of Imri.

[3] But the fish gate did the sons of Hassenaah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

[4] And next unto them repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz. And next unto them repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabeel. And next unto them repaired Zadok the son of Baana.

[5] And next unto them the Tekoites repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their LORD. (This Chapter may be regarded as a specimen page from God's Book of remembrance. It is, therefore, to be noted that Meremoth appears twice [Vss. 4, 21], and that the nobles did not put their necks to the work. Had these nobles known that their dereliction of duty would be read by millions down through the ages, they possibly would have done differently. We should look at ourselves in this same light.)

6 Moreover the old gate repaired Jehoiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah; they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

7 And next unto them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, unto the throne of the governor on this side the river.

8 Next unto him repaired Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, of the goldsmiths. Next unto him also repaired Hananiah the son of one of the apothecaries, and they fortified Jerusalem unto the broad wall.

9 And next unto them repaired Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem.

10 And next unto them repaired Jedaiah the son of Harumaph, even over against his house. And next unto him repaired Hattush the son of Hashabniah.

11 Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hashub the son of Pahath-moab, repaired the other piece, and the tower of the furnaces.

12 And next unto him repaired Shallum the son of Halohesh, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, he and his daughters (these young ladies had a share in this great Work for God as well).

13 The valley gate repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of Zanoah; they built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits on the wall unto the dung gate.

14 But the dung gate repaired Malchiah the son of Rechab, the ruler of part of Beth-haccerem; he built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

15 But the gate of the fountain repaired Shallun the son of Col-hozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah; he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of Siloah by the king's garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the city of David.

16 After him repaired Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of the half part of Beth-zur, unto the place over against the sepulchres of David, and to the pool that was made, and unto the house of the mighty.

17 After him repaired the Levites, Rehum the son of Bani. Next unto him repaired Hashabiah, the ruler of the half part of Keilah, in his part.

18 After him repaired their brethren, Bavai the son of Henadad, the ruler of the half part of Keilah.

19 And next to him repaired Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, another piece over against the going up to the armoury at the turning of the wall.

20 After him Baruch the son of Zabbai earnestly repaired the other piece, from the turning of the wall unto the door of the house of Eliashib the High Priest (Baruch, to his undying fame, is recorded to have repaired "earnestly"; little did this man think, as he zealously labored amid the sneers and taunts of the enemy, that 2,500 years later millions of men and women would read about him).

21 After him repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah the son of Koz another piece, from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of the house of Eliashib.

22 And after him repaired the Priests, the men of the plain.

23 After him repaired Benjamin and Hashub over against their house. After him repaired Azariah the son of Maaseiah the son of Ananiah by his house.

24 After him repaired Binnui the son of Henadad another piece, from the house of Azariah unto the turning of the wall, even unto the corner.

25 Palal the son of Uzai, over against the turning of the wall, and the tower which lies out from the king's high house, that was by the court of the prison. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh.

26 Moreover the Nethinims dwelt in Ophel, unto the place over against the water gate toward the east, and the tower that lies out.

27 After them the Tekoites repaired another piece, over against the great tower that lies out, even unto the wall of Ophel.

28 From above the horse gate repaired the Priests, every one over against his house.

29 After them repaired Zadok the son of Immer over against his house. After him repaired also Shemaiah the son of Shechaniah, the keeper of the east gate.

30 After him repaired Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, another piece. After him repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah over against his chamber.

31 After him repaired Malchiah the goldsmith's son unto the place of the Nethinims, and of the merchants, over against the gate Miphkad, and to the going up of the corner.

32 And between the going up of the corner unto the sheep gate repaired the goldsmiths and the merchants. (As is obvious, and as it regards all of these people and their particular occupations, each one contributed his part, showing that the Work of God needs all people from all walks of life.)

CHAPTER 4

(445 B.C.)

NEHEMIAH OPPOSED AND RIDICULED

1 But it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that we built the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews. (Contempt and violence from the enemy and cowardice from the men of Judah [Vss. 3, 8, 10, 12] were defeated by praying and watching [Vss. 4–5, 9]. As stated, all Christian workers must expect opposition from the world and discouragement from the Church; but prayer and watchfulness always bring victory.)

2 And he spoke before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned? (And that's exactly what they did! They took the "burnt stones" and built the wall. There are millions of "burnt stones" in Christendom, whom the Devil has made believe that they can no longer be used in the Work of God. These Passages prove the contrary!)

3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

PRAYER AND WORK IN THE FACE OF CONTINUED OPPOSITION

4 Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity:

5 And cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before You: for they have provoked You to anger before the builders.

(Some have criticized Nehemiah for his prayer. However, it is perfectly Scriptural. These were individuals who were attempting to destroy the Work of God. In fact, the prayer of Nehemiah, if anything, was restrained.)

6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work (it seemed that insult and gibe stimulated them rather than daunted them)**.

7 But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth,

8 And conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it (as well, as the Lord carefully noted the labor expended by individual Jews, He also notes carefully the taunts and threats of the adversaries; no man, at least in his right mind, wants to be crossways with the Lord!)**.

9 Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them ("watch and pray" [Mat. 26:41])**.

10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall (it is never easy to clean up the rubbish, i.e., "to oppose false doctrine"; consequently, there are few who perform this task)**.

11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and kill them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times, From all places whence you shall return unto us they will be upon you (these Jews from other parts of Judah came repeatedly to Jerusalem to warn Nehemiah of the enemy's designs)**.

13 Therefore set I in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not you afraid of them: remember the LORD, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses (spiritually speaking, all Believers must "fight" for the Salvation of their loved ones; this fight is "the good fight of Faith" [I Tim. 6:12]).

15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work (Nehemiah divided the people into two bodies, one of which labored at the wall, while the other kept guard fully armed).

16 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah (in order to direct the battle if such occurred).

17 They which built on the wall, and they who bore burdens, with those who laded, everyone with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, everyone had his sword girded by his side, and so built. And he who sounded the trumpet was by me (whether a "builder" or a "burden-bearer," the Believer is in equal danger, and cannot dispense with the "Sword of the Spirit").

19 And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another.

20 In what place therefore you hear the sound of the trumpet, resort you thither unto us: our God shall fight for us (Justification is the Holy Spirit fighting “for” us, while Sanctification is the Holy Spirit fighting “in” us!).

21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let everyone with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, saving that everyone put them off for washing. (As is obvious, Nehemiah meant to get this work done. He was no doubt moved upon by the Holy Spirit in all of this. Every Believer should be as conscientious for the Work of God, whatever task the Lord has assigned to us, as was Nehemiah!)

CHAPTER 5

(445 B.C.)

OPPRESSION

[1] And there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews (the reason for this "cry" was because of rich Jews loaning money to poor Jews at a high interest rate, when they were not supposed to charge any interest at all, as it regarded fellow Jews [Lev. 25:35–38]; as a result, many were going into bondage, serving in a sense as slaves, to pay off the debt).

[2] For there were who said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many (many poor): therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live (food for which they did not have money to purchase).

[3] Some also there were who said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth (drought; inclement weather conditions were normally caused by Israel not properly obeying the Word of God).

[4] There were also who said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards (to pay taxes to the Persians, of which they were a vassal State).

[5] Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards (due to not being able to pay off the loans, their sons and daughters had to pay off the debts by working for the people to whom money was owed; as stated, in a sense, this was a form of slavery; so they were appealing to Nehemiah for help).

THE PAYMENT OF INTEREST ABOLISHED

6 And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words (speaks of Nehemiah; certain ones were breaking the Law of God, which said, "You shall not oppress one another" [Lev. 25:14–19]).

7 Then I consulted with myself (my heart told me that what was being done was wrong), and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, You exact usury (ruinous interest), every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them (the rich Jews paid no heed to Nehemiah, when he demanded a change; therefore, he called a "great assembly," in order to discuss the situation with all the people).

8 And I said unto them, We after our ability have redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will you even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer (the Lord had delivered Israel from Persian bondage, and now some of the rich Jews were putting some of the people back into bondage; when Nehemiah put it in this manner, the guilty parties had no answer).

9 Also I said, It is not good that you do: ought you not to walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies? (To silence the nobles was not enough. To shame them was not enough. What was wanted was to persuade them. He did so by calling to account the potential wrath of God upon such actions.)

10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off this usury (you who are able should loan your poorer brethren money without interest; and be lenient with their repayment).

11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olive-yards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that you exact of them. (Give back the interest that you have illegally taken. As well, give them back their lands and houses so that they might make a living. And let them repay you as they can. This is God's Way.

All of this was meant to serve as a type of what the Lord has done for us — forgiven us all things, meaning that we should show leniency and mercy to others likewise. And yet, there is no hint here in the Text of the condoning of laziness. As Paul said, "If they don't work, they don't eat" [II Thess. 3:10].)

12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as you say. Then I called the Priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise *(the nobles agreed to restore all).

13 Also I shook my lap *(a Jewish custom), and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, who performs not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and emptied *(in a sense, Nehemiah called a curse upon the nobles who would fail to obey this promise). And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise *(the nobles obeyed!).

NEHEMIAH'S UNSELFISHNESS AND LEADERSHIP

14 Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor *("I, and those who serve under me in the realm of government, have not taxed you at all for our upkeep," even though he was entitled to do so; in other words, what he was asking the nobles to do, he had done, and was doing, himself).

15 But the former governors who had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver; yes, even their servants bore rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God (Nehemiah wasn't condemning these former governors; only two are known, Zerubbabel and Ezra, although there may have been others; he is merely stating what the Lord wanted him personally to do; Jesus said we must "render to Caesar the things which are Caesar's, and to God that which belongs to God" [Mk. 12:17]).

16 Yes, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work (I have donated my time and services to build up Israel, not to do otherwise).

17 Moreover there were at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, beside those who came unto us from among the heathen who are about us (he set a public table daily for over 150 people who were serving in government, and paid for it himself).

18 Now that which was prepared for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people (as stated, even though he had the power to tax the people to pay for all of this, he did nothing of the sort).

19 Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people (and, to be sure, the Lord will always think upon such for good).

CHAPTER 6

(445 B.C.)

CONTINUED OPPOSITION BY SANBALLAT, TOBIAH, AND GESHEM

[1] Now it came to pass, when Sanballat and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had built the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;)

[2] That Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do me mischief (the Hebrew Text bears it out that they were plotting to murder Nehemiah).

[3] And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, while I leave it, and come down to you? (The Lord evidently informed Nehemiah of this snare of treachery.)

[4] Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

[5] Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand (in that culture, to have addressed an "open letter" to a state Governor was a designed insult);

[6] Wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and Gashmu said it, that you and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause you build the wall, that you may be their king, according to these words (all of this was a lie!).

[7] And you have also appointed Prophets to preach of you at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together (none of that happened, or else a Prophecy was misinterpreted by this heathen).

[8] Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as you say, but you feign them out of your own heart.

[9] For they all made us afraid (sought to make us afraid), saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands (which the Lord did).

[10] Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the House of God, within the Temple, and let us shut the doors of the Temple: for they will come to kill you; yes, in the night will they come to kill you (the Divine Word forbade Nehemiah, being a prince of the Tribe of Judah, and not a Priest of the Tribe of Levi, to enter the Temple; thus was Shemaiah shown to be a false prophet; his message contradicted the Bible; every other professed prophet should be judged accordingly; is what is being said in accordance with the Bible?).

[11] And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the Temple to save his life? I will not go in (I will not even go into the Temple to save my life, because I, not being a Levite, would be disobeying the Word of God to do so).

[12] And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him (this Jew was a false prophet); but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him (Nehemiah evidently found this out a short time later).

[13] Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me (unfortunately, even as we have seen, God's people joined with the world in attempting to destroy the man of God; sadly, this is not the only time this has happened!).

14 My God, think You upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, who would have put me in fear. (Evidently, quite a few of the prophets, along with this particular woman, had joined the world against Nehemiah. In fact, the far greater harm always comes from inside the Church. But let it always be understood: if dates and times are put on a prophecy and it doesn't come to pass, or else what is being said is not according to the Word of God, it should be known and understood that those who give forth such are false prophets.

In these modern times, the world abounds with false prophets, and the Church seems to be disinclined to call anyone to account.)

THE WALLS AND GATES OF JERUSALEM FINISHED

15 So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul (September), in fifty and two days.

16 And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen who were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God (even many of the enemies of Nehemiah and of Israel had to admit that the Lord was helping Israel)**.

17 Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them (as stated, it seems that many of the powerful men in Israel were friends of Sanballat and Tobiah)**.

18 For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son in law of Shechaniah the son of Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah. (Why in the world would some of these Jews throw in their lot with these heathen, who were trying to stop the work? Regrettably, it hasn't changed from then until now. Many in the Church oppose the true Work of God!)

19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear. (The Holy Spirit carefully brings all of this out, so that future Believers will not make the same mistake of siding with those who seek to hinder the Work of God. But regrettably, few heed!)

CHAPTER 7

(445 B.C.)

NEHEMIAH APPOINTS NEW RULERS: HANANI AND HANANIAH

1 Now it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed (Nehemiah is preparing things, because he is about to leave and go back to Persia),

2 That I gave my brother Hanani (his personal blood brother), and Hanani ah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many (they were given equal charge, with one man over one-half of Jerusalem and the other man over the other half; the reason was their fear and love for God).

3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, everyone in his watch, and every one to be over against his house (he set up a systemized order regarding protection and business).

4 Now the city was large and great: but the people were few therein, and the houses were not built (over a hundred years before, it had been destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar; there were still many areas in the city which had not been rebuilt).

LIST OF THE RETURNED EXILES

5 And my God put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first, and found written therein (this pertains to the genealogy of Ezra, Chpt. 8),

6 These are the children of the province, who went up out of the captivity, of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one unto his city;

7 Who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number, I say, of the men of the people of Israel was this;

8 The children of Parosh, two thousand an hundred seventy and two.

9 The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two.

10 The children of Arah, six hundred fifty and two.

11 The children of Pahath-moab, of the children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand and eight hundred and eighteen.

12 The children of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four.

13 The children of Zattu, eight hundred forty and five.

14 The children of Zaccai, seven hundred and threescore.

15 The children of Binnui, six hundred forty and eight.

16 The children of Bebai, six hundred twenty and eight.

17 The children of Azgad, two thousand three hundred twenty and two.

18 The children of Adonikam, six hundred threescore and seven.

19 The children of Bigvai, two thousand threescore and seven.

20 The children of Adin, six hundred fifty and five.

21 The children of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety and eight.

22 The children of Hashum, three hundred twenty and eight.

23 The children of Bezai, three hundred twenty and four.

24 The children of Hariph, an hundred and twelve.

25 The children of Gibeon, ninety and five.

26 The men of Beth-lehem and Netophah, an hundred fourscore and eight.

27 The men of Anathoth, an hundred twenty and eight.

28 The men of Beth-azmaveth, forty and two.

29 The men of Kirjath-jearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred forty and three.

30 The men of Ramah and Gaba, six hundred twenty and one.

31 The men of Michmas, an hundred and twenty and two.

32 The men of Beth-el and Ai, an hundred and twenty and three.

33 The men of the other Nebo, fifty and two.

34 The children of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four.

35 The children of Harim, three hundred and twenty.

36 The children of Jericho, three hundred forty and five.

37 The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty and one.

38 The children of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty.

39 The Priests: the children of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy and three.

40 The children of Immer, a thousand fifty and two.

41 The children of Pashur, a thousand two hundred forty and seven.

42 The children of Harim, a thousand and seventeen.

43 The Levites: the children of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, and of the children of Hodevah, seventy and four.

44 The singers: the children of Asaph, an hundred forty and eight.

45 The porters: the children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children of Akkub, the children of Hatita, the children of Shobai, an hundred thirty and eight.

46 The Nethinims: the children of Ziha, the children of Hashupha, the children of Tabbaoth, 47 The children of Keros, the children of Sia, the children of Padon,

48 The children of Lebana, the children of Hagaba, the children of Shalmai,

50 The children of Reaiah, the children of Rezin, the children of Nekoda,

51 The children of Gazzam, the children of Uzza, the children of Phaseah,

52 The children of Besai, the children of Meunim, the children of Nephishesim,

Harsha,

55 The children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Tamah,

56 The children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha.

57 The children of Solomon's servants: the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Perida,

58 The children of Jaala, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel,

59 The children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth of Zebaim, the children of Amon.

60 All the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

THE ONES WHO COULDN'T PROVE THEIR GENEALOGY

61 And these were they which went up also from Tel-melah, Tel-haresha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer: but they could not show their father's house, nor their seed, whether they were of Israel.

62 The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred forty and two.

63 And of the Priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai, which took one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite to wife, and was called after their name.

64 These sought their register among those who were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the Priesthood.

65 And the Tirshatha (Governor) said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things (speaking of the Priests who had been disallowed because of not being able to prove their genealogy), till there stood up a Priest with Urim and Thummim (which could prove that they were actually Jews; there is no record that the "Urim and Thummim" were ever brought back; we are not told in Scripture as to exactly what they were; it is believed that they were two in number, possibly two small stones, with the word "yes" on one, and the word "no" on the other; they were carried behind the Breastplate of the High Priest, and were used to divine the Will of God [Ex. 28:30; Lev. 8:8; Num. 27:21])**.

66 The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore, 67 Beside their manservants and their maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred forty and five singing men and singing women.

68 Their horses, seven hundred thirty and six: their mules, two hundred forty and five:

69 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five: six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses.

70 And some of the chief of the fathers gave unto the work. The Tirshatha gave to the treasure of thousand drams of gold, fifty basons, five hundred and thirty Priests' garments.

71 And some of the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure of the work twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pound of silver.

72 And that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand pound of silver, and threescore and seven Priests' garments.

73 So the Priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinims, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities; and when the seventh month came, the Children of Israel were in their cities.

CHAPTER 8

(445 B.C.)

EZRA READS AND EXPLAINS THE WORD OF GOD

[1] And all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was before the water gate; and they spoke unto Ezra the Scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel. (Blessed people! They are asking for instruction from the Bible, and they have an instinctive feeling that to hear God's Word will help them. Most definitely it did, and most definitely it will!)

[2] And Ezra the Priest brought the Law before the congregation both of men and women, and all who could hear with understanding (even little children), upon the first day of the seventh month (our October, the time then of the Feast of Tabernacles)**.

[3] And he read therein before the street that was before the water gate from the morning until midday (about 6 hours), before the men and the women, and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the Book of the Law (the meaning is: "The ears of all the people were to the Book," fixed on that, and on nothing else)**.

[4] And Ezra the Scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam (these men stood with Ezra, evidently, to support him; how many presently are standing with the man of God?)**.

[5] And Ezra opened the Book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people [standing on an upraised platform];) and when he opened it, all the people stood up (the Jews commonly sat to hear and stood up to pray; but in hearing they occasionally stood up to do great honor to the person or the occasion; it is not to be supposed that they stood during the whole of the six hours that Ezra's reading lasted):

[6] And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground (very similar to modern worship, and we speak of that which is truly of the Spirit).

[7] Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the Law (expounded it during pauses in the reading): and the people stood in their place (this doesn't mean that the people stood all of this time, but that they kept their place all of this time, whatever their posture).

[8] So they read in the Book in the Law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading (identically as true Preachers of the Gospel are to do presently; this is expository teaching, the only kind which will help people to understand the Word; it simply means that the Scripture is read and then explained).

[9] And Nehemiah, which is the Tirshatha (Governor), and Ezra the Priest the Scribe (who wrote the Book of Ezra), and the Levites who taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto the LORD your God; mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the Words of the Law (people wept, for they recognized how deeply they had sinned against so loving a God; it was hearing the Words of the Book that awoke them to this consciousness; however, the weeping, which was contrition for sin, now occasions joy, even as it always does).

[10] Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet (in other words, rejoice in the Lord), and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared (share with those who have nothing): for this day is holy unto our LORD: neither be you sorry (the Lord has forgiven you, so there is no more need to be sorry)*; for the Joy of the LORD is your strength. (They were now encouraged to rejoice, because God was rejoicing in them. This was the Joy that filled God's heart because of their obedience, which meant both strength and safety to them. If we presently follow their example, we too will experience the Joy of the Lord, and it will be our strength. Remember, this is God's Joy, which we are privileged to share.)

[11] So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be you grieved.

[12] And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the Words that were declared unto them ("great rejoicing").

THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES RESTORED

[13] And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the Priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the Scribe, even to understand the Words of the Law (only the leaders gathered on this day, all in order to study further the Word of God).

[14] And they found written in the Law which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the Children of Israel should dwell in booths in the Feast of the seventh month (Feast of Tabernacles).

[15] And that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive branches, and pine branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

[16] So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house (roofs are flat in that part of the world), and in their courts, and in the Courts of the House of God, and in the street of the water gate, and in the street of the gate of Ephraim (those who lived away from Jerusalem made themselves booths in these particular places).

17 And all the congregation of them who were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of Jeshua (Joshua) the son of Nun unto that day had not the Children of Israel done so. And there was very great gladness (it is not to be understood that there had been no previous compliance of this Feast, but only that there had been no such joy and general celebration of the Festival; it is the "very great gladness" that is especially insisted upon — Pulpit).

18 Also day by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the Book of the Law of God. And they kept the Feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according unto the manner (according to the Scripture [Lev. 23:33–43]).

CHAPTER 9

(445 B.C.)

THE PEOPLE FAST AND REPENT

[1] Now in the twenty and fourth day of this month the Children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth upon them (actually, the Law commanded that all of Israel fast on the 10th day of October, which was the Great Day of Atonement; however, for reasons unexplained here, they chose the 24th day of the month to do this [Lev. 23:26–32]).

[2] And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers (their confession shows how attentively they had read the Bible, how well they had learned the lessons of man's total corruption and of God's amazing Grace — Williams).

[3] And they stood up in their place, and read in the Book of the Law of the LORD their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God (three hours were given to Bible reading, and three hours to confession, prayer, and worship).

PRAYER AND CONFESSION OF THE LEVITES

[4] Then stood up upon the stairs (platform), of the Levites, Jeshua (Joshua), and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

[5] Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up and bless the LORD your God for ever and ever: and blessed be Your glorious Name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise (the high honor due to the "Name" of God is taught by the sacred writers with one uniform voice from Moses [Ex. 20:7] to the last surviving original Apostle [Rev. 15:4]).

6 You, even You, are LORD alone; You have made Heaven, the Heaven of heavens, with all their host, the Earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and You preserve them all; and the host of Heaven worships You (the Lord is the Creator of all things, which completely debunks the baseless prattle of evolution).

7 You are the LORD the God, Who did choose Abram, and brought him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gave him the name of Abraham (the Lord chose Abraham, because Abraham had chosen the Lord; predestination is taught in the Bible as a determination of certain things [Rom. 8:29], but those who enter into those things are based on "whosoever will" [Rev. 22:17]; the Bible doesn't teach that God predestines some to be lost and some to be saved, and that they have no choice in the matter; when Jesus died on Calvary, He died for the entirety of the world, not just for a select, chosen few [Jn. 3:16]; Paul said, "For whosoever [and that means anyone, not just certain ones the Lord selects] shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved" [Rom. 10:13]);

8 And found his heart faithful before You (a faithful heart toward God is one of the greatest things that could be said about any individual), and made a Covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and have performed Your Words; for You are righteous (the Lord dispossessed these people from the land of Canaan, because of their terrible evil; the nations driven out were actually "seven" in number [Deut. 7:1]; it is a common figure of speech to put the part for the whole; the other nation omitted is the Hivites):

9 And did see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heard their cry by the Red Sea (Ex. 2:23–25; 14:10);

10 And showed signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for You knew that they dealt proudly against them. So did You get You a Name, as it is this day (Ex., Chpts. 7– 10, 12, 14; 18:11; Jer. 32:20)*.

[11] And You did divide the Sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the Sea on the dry land; and their persecutors You threw into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters (Ex. 14:21; 15:5; Ps. 78:13).

[12] Moreover You led them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

[13] You came down also upon Mount Sinai, and spoke with them from Heaven, and gave them right Judgments, and true Laws, good Statutes and Commandments (they were "right," "true," and "good," not only because God said it, but because they were, in fact, "right," "true," and "good"):

[14] And made known unto them Your Holy Sabbath, and commanded them Precepts, Statutes, and Laws, by the hand of Moses Your servant:

[15] And gave them bread from Heaven for their hunger, and brought forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promised them that they should go in to possess the land which You had sworn to give them.

[16] But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to Your Commandments,

[17] And refused to obey, neither were mindful of Your wonders that You did among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage (someone other than Moses [Num. 14:4]): but You are a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsook them not (the Hebrew actually says, "A God of pardons").

[18] Yes, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is your god who brought you up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations (Ex. 32:4);

19 Yet You in Your manifold mercies forsook them not in the wilderness (even though the Lord knew they would continue to rebel against Him, which they did, with that entire generation dying in the wilderness because of unbelief [Heb. 4:2–6]): the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way wherein they should go.

20 You gave also Your good Spirit (Holy Spirit) to instruct them (Ex. 17:6), and withheld not Your manna from their mouth, and gave them water for their thirst.

THE CONTINUED BLESSINGS OF THE LORD

21 Yes, forty years did You sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not (Deut. 2:7; 8:4; 29:5).

22 Moreover You gave them kingdoms and nations, and did divide them into corners (put them in every corner of the Holy Land): so they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan (even though these were giants).

23 Their children also multiplied You as the stars of heaven, and brought them into the land, concerning which You had promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and You subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gave them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would.

25 And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in Your great Goodness (the actual statement in the Hebrew is: "They grew wanton and self-indulgent").

[26] Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against You, and cast Your Law behind their backs, and killed Your Prophets which testified against them to turn them to You, and they wrought great provocations (Judg. 2:11; I Ki. 14:9; 18:4; Ps. 50:17).

[27] Therefore You delivered them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto You, You heard them from Heaven; and according to Your manifold Mercies You gave them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies (the writer seems to have the history of "Judges" primarily in mind).

[28] But after they had rest, they did evil again before You: therefore You left them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them (the enemies had dominion over Israel): yet when they returned, and cried unto You, You heard them from Heaven; and many times did You deliver them according to Your Mercies;

[29] And testified against them, that You might bring them again unto Your Law; yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto Your Commandments, but sinned against Your Judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them [shall be subject to their penalty (Rom. 10:5)];) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

[30] Yet many years did You forbear them, and testified against them by Your Spirit (the Holy Spirit) in Your Prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore You gave them into the hand of the people of the lands.

[31] Nevertheless for Your great Mercies' sake You did not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for You are a gracious and merciful God (Jer. 4:27).

[32] Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, Who keeps Covenant and Mercy, let not all the trouble seem little before You, that has come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our Priests, and on our Prophets, and on our fathers, and on all Your People, since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day (the kings of Assyria, in the strict sense of the word, had been God's original instrument for punishing His rebellious people [II Ki., Chpt. 17]).

[33] Howbeit You are just in all that is brought upon us; for You have done right, but we have done wickedly (the spirit which true Repentance demands):

[34] Neither have our kings, our princes, our Priests, nor our fathers, kept Your Law, nor hearkened unto Your Commandments and Your Testimonies, wherewith You did testify against them.

[35] For they have not served You in their kingdom, and in Your great goodness that You gave them, and in the large and fat land which You gave before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.

[36] Behold, we are servants this day, and for the land that You gave unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it (we have now no kingdom, the Persian is our master; as we would not be God's servants, we are handed over to him; "the service of God" and "the service of the kingdoms of the countries" are contrasted):

[37] And it yields much increase unto the kings (heathen kings) whom You have set over us because of our sins (the "increase" should have gone to Israel, but instead, because of Israel's sin, went to the heathen): also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress (distress brought upon Israel because of her failure to live for God, despite repeated warnings).

[38] And because of all this we make a sure Covenant, and write it; and our princes, Levites, and Priests, seal unto it. (True Repentance leads to action. They signed a pledge to walk in God's Law. Unfortunately, they broke this Covenant as well!)

CHAPTER 10

(445 B.C.)

THE SIGNERS OF THE COVENANT

[1] Now those who sealed were, Nehemiah, the Tirshatha (the governor), the son of Hachaliah, and Zidkijah,

[2] Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,

[3] Pashur, Amariah, Malchijah,

[4] Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,

[5] Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,

[6] Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,

[7] Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,

[8] Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah: these were the Priests.

[9] And the Levites: both Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel;

[10] And their brethren, Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, [11] Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah,

[12] Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,

[13] Hodijah, Bani, Beninu.

[14] The chief of the people; Parosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, Zatthu, Bani, 15 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,

16 Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,

17 Ater, Hizkijah, Azzur,

18 Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai,

19 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,

20 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,

21 Meshezabeel, Zadok, Jaddua,

22 Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,

23 Hoshea, Hananiah, Hashub,

24 Hallohesh, Pileha, Shobek,

25 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,

26 And Ahijah, Hanan, Anan,

27 Malluch, Harim, Baanah. (God honors those who honor His Book. Accordingly, a role of honor opens this Chapter. None of these men dreamed that 2,500 years after their deaths millions of people would read their names with praise to God.)

TERMS OF THE COVENANT: TO REMAIN A SEPARATED AND PECULIAR PEOPLE

28 And the rest of the people, the Priests, the Levites, the porters, the singers, the Nethinims, and all they who had separated themselves from the people of the lands unto the Law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, every one having knowledge, and having understanding (all who were of age to understand the nature of the Covenant and what was meant by sealing it — not a special "intelligent" or "learned" class);

29 They clave to their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's Law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the Commandments of the LORD our Lord, and His Judgments and His Statutes (the important statement of this Chapter is the acceptance by the restored Israelites of the written Word of God as the sole authority for conduct and worship; they did not say that the Bible belonged to a past age and was now out-of-date; but, on the contrary, they confessed its teaching to be living and binding);

30 And that we would not give our daughters unto the people of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons (referring to the mixed marriages so soon after the reformation of Ezra [Ex. 34:16; Deut. 7:3; Ezra 9:12]):

31 And if the people of the land bring ware or any victuals on the Sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy it of them on the Sabbath, or on the Holy Day: and that we would leave the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt (this precept of the Law, leaving the land fallow every seventh year, had been frequently neglected during the times of the monarchy, and its neglect was one of the sins which the captivity was expressly intended to punish [II Chron. 36:21]).

OFFERINGS GIVEN FOR WORSHIP IN THE TEMPLE

32 Also we made Ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of the shekel for the service of the House of our God (to keep up the Temple and its Services);

33 For the Shewbread, and for the continual Meat Offering (Thank Offering), and for the continual Burnt Offering (the daily morning and evening Offerings), of the Sabbaths, of the new moons, for the set Feasts (three times a year), and for the holy things, and for the Sin Offerings to make an Atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the House of our God (this is the service of which Nehemiah speaks in Verse 32).

TITHES AND OFFERINGS FOR THE PRIESTS AND LEVITES

[34] And we cast the lots among the Priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering (first time this is mentioned; the people were to bring in wood for the fire of the Sacrifices), to bring it into the House of our God, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed year by year (certain times to bring it in), to burn upon the Altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the Law:

[35] And to bring the firstfruits of our ground, and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the House of the LORD (it is believed that "firstfruits" referred to a tenth, or a tithe):

[36] Also the firstborn of our sons (firstborn sons were to be "redeemed" [Ex. 22:29; 34:19], which meant that five shekels had to be given to the Sanctuary [Num. 18:15–16]), and of our cattle, as it is written in the Law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the House of our God, unto the Priests who minister in the House of our God:

[37] And that we should bring the firstfruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, of wine and of oil, unto the Priests, to the chambers of the House of our God; and the Tithes of our ground unto the Levites, that the same Levites might have the Tithes in all the cities of our tillage (Tithing is first mentioned in the Bible with Abraham paying Tithe to Melchizedek; this was long before the Law; this means that Tithing was meant to continue in the Plan of God, even in the New Covenant, for we are all children of Abraham [Gal. 3:7]; also, Melchizedek was a Type of Christ [Heb. 5:5–6, 10], which means that we presently are supposed to continue to pay Tithe in support of the Work of God, headed up by Christ [Col. 1:16–21]).

[38] And the Priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take Tithes (meaning that the Priests were to share with the Levites, inasmuch as the "Tithes" were given for this purpose): and the Levites shall bring up the Tithe of the Tithes into the House of our God, to the chambers, unto the treasure house (the Tithes were to go for the support of the Priests and the Levites; however, the Priests and Levites were as well to take a tenth of that which was given to them and put it in the Temple treasury for the maintenance of the Temple proper).

39 For the Children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the Sanctuary, and the Priests who minister, and the porters, and the singers: and we will not forsake the House of our God (to be sure, all of this was the Will of God!).

CHAPTER 11

(445 B.C.)

THE RESIDENTS OF JERUSALEM

[1] And the rulers of the people dwelt at Jerusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the Holy City, and nine parts to dwell in other cities (for the first time in the Word of God, Jerusalem is now called "the Holy City" by the Holy Spirit; it was not so called in the days of Israel's kingdom and glory; the Spirit of God delights to ennoble and to recognize fidelity to the Word of God in circumstances of weakness, fear, and danger).

[2] And the people blessed all the men, who willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem (Jerusalem was the focal point of greatest danger; and, therefore, the Holy Spirit honors in this Chapter the brave men who garrisoned it; this Chapter, therefore, may be regarded as another specimen page from the Book of Life).

[3] Now these are the chief of the province that dwelt in Jerusalem: but in the cities of Judah dwelt everyone in his possession in their cities, to wit, Israel, the Priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants.

[4] And at Jerusalem dwelt certain of the Children of Judah, and of the Children of Benjamin. Of the Children of Judah; Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalaleel, of the children of Perez;

[5] And Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni.

6 All the sons of Perez who dwelt at Jerusalem were four hundred threescore and eight valiant men.

7 And these are the son of Benjamin; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jesaiah.

8 And after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty and eight.

9 And Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer: and Judah the son of Senuah was second of the city.

10 Of the Priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin.

11 Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was the ruler of the House of God.

12 And their brethren that did the work of the House were eight hundred twenty and two: and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchiah,

13 And his brethren, chief of the fathers, two hundred forty and two: and Amashai the son of Azareel, the son of Ahasai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer,

14 And their brethren, mighty men of valour, an hundred twenty and eight: and their overseer was Zabdiel, the son of one of the great men.

15 Also of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;

16 And Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chief of the Levites, had the oversight of the outward business of the House of God (the outward business of the Temple was committed to two chieftains of Levi).

17 And Mattaniah the son of Micha, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, was the principal to begin the thanksgiving in prayer: and Bakbukiah the second among his brethren, and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

18 All the Levites in the Holy City were two hundred fourscore and four.

19 Moreover the porters, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren who kept the gates, were an hundred seventy and two.

THOSE DWELLING IN OTHER CITIES

20 And the residue of Israel, of the Priests, and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, everyone in his inheritance.

21 But the Nethinims dwelt in Ophel: and Ziha and Gispa were over the Nethinims.

22 The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha. Of the sons of Asaph, the singers were over the business of the House of God. (The inward business of the Temple was given to the singers, the sons of Asaph.

When in captivity [Ps. 137], the hand that should have awakened the song upon the pleasant harp was used to hang it upon the willow tree. But now, restored to Zion, Israel could sing!

The Christian life is outward and inward. The singing is to be inward. If the Song of God is not in the heart, there will be neither melody nor power in the life.)

23 For it was the king's commandment concerning them, that a certain portion should be for the singers, due for every day (the Grace that placed the singers within the House of God provided in tender love for their daily bread, and, accordingly, the Persian monarch was moved to apportion them a fitting maintenance; how admirable is the love of God in making a mighty king supply bread to an obscure Psalm-singer!)**.

24 And Pethahiah the son of Meshezabeel, of the children of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

25 And for the villages, with their fields, some of the Children of Judah dwelt at Kirjath-arba, and in the villages thereof, and at Dibon, and in the villages thereof, and at Jekabzeel, and in the villages thereof,

26 And at Jeshua, and at Moladah, and at Beth-phelet,

27 And at Hazar-shual, and at Beer-sheba, and in the villages thereof,

28 And at Ziklag, and at Mekonah, and in the villages thereof,

29 And at En-rimmon, and at Zareah, and at Jarmuth,

30 Zanoah, Adullam, and in their villages, at Lachish, and the fields thereof, at Azekah, and in the villages thereof. And they dwelt from Beer-sheba unto the valley of Hinnom.

31 The children also of Benjamin from Geba dwelt at Michmash, and Aija, and Beth-el, and in their villages.

32 And at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah;

33 Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,

34 Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat,

35 Lod, and Ono, the valley of craftsmen.

36 And of the Levites were divisions in Judah, and in Benjamin. (These individuals listed were to protect the city. Jerusalem having been recovered from the enemy, and surrounded by a wall, it had now to be garrisoned and held against him. There is a spiritual energy which wins a position for God, but which takes no steps to hold it for God. Nehemiah recognized the necessity of holding what had been won.)

CHAPTER 12

(536 B.C.)

THE PRIESTS AND LEVITES WHO RETURNED FROM CAPTIVITY WITH ZERUBBABEL

1 Now these are the Priests and the Levites who went up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, and Ezra (these last two are not the same as the Prophet Jeremiah or Ezra the Scribe, but are persons of whom nothing more is known to us.

God and the Bible form the center around which the returned captives gathered, hence the prominence given in the Books of Ezra and Nehemiah to the Priests and Levites. The Priests with their Sacrifices typified worship through the Atonement and Intercession of Christ; the Levites were the public teachers of the Law.

Worship and meditation upon the Holy Scriptures form the foundation of the Christian life in the individual, the family, or the Church. If these be destroyed, the Church disappears),

2 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,

3 Shechaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,

4 Iddo, Ginnetho, Abijah,

5 Miamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,

6 Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah,

7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, Jedaiah. These were the chief of the Priests and of their brethren in the days of Jeshua.

8 Moreover the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, which was over the thanksgiving, he and his brethren.

9 Also Bakbukiah and Unni, their brethren, were over against them in the watches.

10 And Jeshua begat Joiakim, Joiakim also begat Eliashib, and Eliashib begat Joiada, 11 And Joiada begat Jonathan, and Jonathan begat Jaddua.

12 And in the days of Joiakim were Priests, the chief of the fathers: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

13 Of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;

14 Of Melicu, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;

15 Of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai;

16 Of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;

17 Of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai;

18 Of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;

19 And of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi;

20 Of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;

21 Of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethaneel.

22 The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers: also the Priests, to the reign of Darius the Persian.

23 The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in the Book of the Chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.

24 And the chief of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, ward over against ward.

25 Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the ward at the thresholds of the gates.

26 These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the Priest, the Scribe. (The first twenty-six Verses of this Chapter are very important, not only as they relate to the spiritual facts which we addressed in Verse 1, but also because these so registered secured the purity of the pedigree of the Aaronic Priesthood. Since the nation was no longer governed by kings, the High Priests marked the chronology of the people up to the advent of the Messiah.)

THE DEDICATION OF THE WALLS OF JERUSALEM

27 And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophathi;

29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had built them villages round about Jerusalem.

30 And the Priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof one went on the right hand upon the wall toward the dung gate (the wall, having been completed, was now dedicated; the entire praise for its erection was given to God and none to the builders; the whole multitude was parted into two companies; headed by a choir, each company moved, one to the right and the other to the left, to make, with sounding of cymbals and of song, the half-circuit, respectively, of the wall; the dual march was so planned that the two companies met again upon the wall opposite the Temple, even as we shall see)**:

[32] And after them went Hoshaiah, and half of the princes of Judah,

[33] And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,

[34] Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah,

[35] And certain of the Priests' sons with trumpets; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph:

[36] And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the Scribe before them.

[37] And at the fountain gate, which was over against them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the water gate eastward.

[38] And the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces even unto the broad wall;

[39] And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above the old gate, and above the fish gate, and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto the sheep gate: and they stood still in the prison gate.

[40] So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the House of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:

41 And the Priests; Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;

42 And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.

43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off (the united choirs "sang loud," while the Priests offered Sacrifices; so all rejoiced, even the little children; one might say, without the fear of contradiction, this was a Campmeeting, and rightly so!)**.

THE TEMPLE OFFICERS RESTORED

44 And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the Offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the Tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions of the Law for the Priests and Levites: for Judah rejoiced for the Priests and for the Levites who waited.

45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.

46 For in the days of David and Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God (as stated, music and singing for the Glory of God constitute one of the highest forms of worship; when a Church is in tune with the Lord, singing and music will always be the result)**.

47 And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion: and they sanctified holy things unto the Levites; and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron. (The words in Verse 44, "Judah rejoiced for the Priests and for the Levites who waited," mean that Judah gave with joy the Tithes for the Priests, etc. The words in Verse 47, "They sanctified for the Levites, and the Levites sanctified for the sons of Aaron," mean that the people gave Tithes for the Levites, and the Levites, in their turn, gave a Tithe of these Tithes to the Priests [Num., Chpt. 18].)

CHAPTER 13

(445 B.C.)

NEHEMIAH'S REFORMS: SEPARATION OF FOREIGNERS FROM WORSHIP

[1] On that day they read in the Book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever (Deut. 31:11–12; II Ki. 23:2; Isa. 34:16);

[2] Because they met not the Children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing (Num. 22:5; 23:11; 24:10; Deut. 23:5; Josh. 24:9–10).

[3] Now it came to pass, when they had heard the Law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude. (On reaching Deut., Chpt. 23 in the course of the public reading of the Scriptures, the returned captives, directly they heard the command of Verses 3–6, obeyed it.

The "mixed multitude" had always been a snare [Num., Chpt. 11] to the Israel of God under the First Covenant; and this snare remains to the present day under the Second Covenant.)

[4] And before this, Eliashib the Priest, having the oversight of the chamber of the House of our God, was allied unto Tobiah:

[5] And he had prepared for him a great chamber (connected to the Temple), where aforetime they laid the Meat Offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the Tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the offerings of the Priests. (Tobiah was an Ammonite. This ruling concerning the Ammonite could be relaxed, that is, if they became a proselyte Jew, as did Ruth. But, to be sure, Tobiah definitely did not fit that bill. And yet, the High Priest had formed a close association with him, even giving him a chamber connected with the Temple.

In the first place, the High Priest, or any Israelite for that matter, should not have desired to have anything to do with this Ammonite, who had tried extremely so to hurt the Work of God. Such should be shunned in the modern Church, as well!)

CLEANSING OF THE TEMPLE

6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and after certain days obtained I leave of the king (after the dedication of the wall, Nehemiah returned to the Persian court; but after some time, possibly two years, he obtained leave of absence and returned to Jerusalem, because, it may be assumed, he had heard of the faithlessness of the High Priest and the nobles to the Covenant to which they had subscribed [Chpt. 10]):

7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib (the High Priest) did for Tobiah (the Ammonite), in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the House of God.

8 And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber (Tobiah had furnished his "chamber" as a dwelling-house).

9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the House of God, with the Meat Offering and the frankincense (how often in the history of an individual or a Church has "the great chamber," which should be filled with Christ and His Preciousness, been fitted up for the Ammonite and his loathsomeness! But now the Temple was cleansed).

THE SUPPORT OF THE LEVITES RESTORED

10 And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers, who did the work, were fled every one to his field. (The people had been lax with their Tithes. With the High Priest conducting himself as he did, one can understand the faithlessness of the entirety of the nation. As the leadership goes, so goes all else.)

11 Then contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is the House of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place (Nehemiah gathered all the rulers together, for they are the ones who had ceased paying their Tithes)**.

12 Then brought all Judah the Tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the treasuries (with proper leadership, namely Nehemiah, the Work of God again begins to function)**.

13 And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the Priest, and Zadok the Scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute unto their brethren (which seemingly, due to their faithfulness, they could be counted on to do)**.

14 Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the House of my God, and for the offices thereof (Nehemiah did not ask his countrymen to do anything for him, to erect a statue to his honor, or recompense him for his public services; he sought the honor that comes from God only)**.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE RESTORED

15 In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine presses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals (the "Sabbath," which was a Saturday, was to be a day of "rest"; it typified Christ, in Whom Alone true rest can be found [Mat. 11:28–30])**.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the Sabbath unto the Children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that you do, and profane the Sabbath day?

18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet you bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the Sabbath (fidelity to the Sabbath characterized the Old Covenant, while fidelity to Christ, of which the Sabbath was a symbol, proclaims fidelity to the New Covenant).

19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the Sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the Sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the Sabbath day.

20 So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge you about the wall? if you do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the Sabbath. (The merchants could not leave their wares unguarded. Thus, a crowd had collected about the gates, which caused disturbance and excitement, which were unsuitable for the Sabbath. To prevent this, Nehemiah threatened to arrest the merchants, whereupon the practice was discontinued.)

22 And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of Your Mercy (Nehemiah's plea for Salvation was based upon the greatness of God's Mercy, and not upon the merit of his own works).

MIXED MARRIAGES DEALT WITH

[23] In those days also saw I Jews who had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:

[24] And their children spoke half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people (once again, we point to the laxness of the High Priest! When suitable leadership is lacking, almost all the time the people will be spiritually lax as well).

[25] And I contended with them (false doctrine must be addressed, and openly), and cursed them (reviled them), and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, You shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves (Nehemiah made them swear not to intermarry with the heathen; if they did, the curse of God should fall upon them).

[26] Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin (the idea is, if the Lord would be bitterly opposed to Solomon, whom He loved very much, concerning these things, then Israel presently couldn't hope to escape [I Ki. 11:1–40]).

[27] Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our God in marrying strange wives? (Shall we give way to you, thus transgressing against God, and provoking Him to destroy us? Surely not! Solomon's example is enough to deter us.)

[28] And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the High Priest, was son in law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me (we may suppose that the son of the High Priest, who had married the Samaritan, refused to repudiate his foreign wife, and, therefore, he left Jerusalem at the insistence of Nehemiah, and went to Samaria).

29 Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the Priesthood, and the Covenant of the Priesthood, and of the Levites (once again, corrupted leadership leads to a corrupted people).

SUMMARY

30 Thus cleansed I them from all strangers, and appointed the wards of the Priests and the Levites, every one in his business (the "cleansing" probably resembled the process adopted by Ezra [Ezra 10:5–17]; Nehemiah also assigned the offices to the various Priests and Levites);

31 And for the wood offering, at times appointed, and for the firstfruits. Remember me, O my God, for good. (And to be sure, the Lord definitely did. The account of Nehemiah was recorded by the Holy Spirit for the Word of God and, accordingly, has been read by untold millions. Because it is the Word of God, it will stand forever!)

CHAPTER 1

(521 B.C.)

AHASUERUS MAKES A ROYAL FEAST

[1] Now it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned, from India even unto Ethiopia, over an hundred and seven and twenty provinces [Ahasuerus is a kingly title, and could have applied to several individuals.

The Book of Esther presents to the reader the captives of Israel scattered among the Gentiles under the just judgment of Hosea 1:9, and yet loved and cared for, in secret, by God. Being "Lo-ammi," He could not publicly recognize them. That recognition could only be given to the Gentile, to whom the Lord had committed supreme power. Without revoking the judgment pronounced through Hosea, the Lord secretly watched over them and, without displaying Himself, shaped public affairs in their interests. They had lost all title to His Protection and, therefore, it is an extremely important and comforting study to observe in this Book how the Lord's hidden Hand prepared and directed everything for a people, in themselves unlovely, but beloved for the Fathers' sake. Hence, the Holy Spirit, with design, is careful not to let the Name of God appear in the Book, though it lies concealed in the Hebrew Text.

As well, the absence, therefore, of that Name is a great encouragement to faith, for the argument and the lesson which its omission conveys is that, behind the visible events of history, there is an Almighty and Faithful Love that cherishes and protects the broken and scattered people of God — Williams]:)

[2] That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace,

[3] In the third year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him (he was the master of the world of that day; this position was given to him by God, even though he did not recognize such):

4 When he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days (many believe this particular Ahasuerus was Xerxes; this festivity lasted for six months).

5 And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people who were present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace (from Verse 9, we gather that this was a feast for men only);

6 Where were white, green, and blue, hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement of red, and blue, and white, and black, marble (this was a mosaic pavement of four different hues, no doubt, exquisitely beautiful).

7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king.

8 And the drinking was according to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure (for this particular feast, the men could drink or not drink; it was their choice).

9 Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus (evidently, this particular feast was for women only).

QUEEN VASHTI REFUSES TO OBEY THE KING

10 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven chamberlains who served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, [11] To bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to show the people and the princes her beauty: for she was fair to look on (this practice was not entirely unusual for kings of that day).

[12] But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth (angry), and his anger burned in him (Vashti, in this instance, was justified in her actions; had she complied, she would have lost the respect not only of the Persian nation, but of the king himself).

VASHTI'S PUNISHMENT

[13] Then the king said to the wise men, which knew the times, (for so was the king's manner toward all who knew law and judgment [the law of the Medes and the Persians]:

[14] And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, which saw the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom [these individuals seemed to have access to the monarch at all times];)

[15] What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she has not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains?

[16] And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen has not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people who are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus. (From this man's reply, we realize that there was no Persian law which provided for a penalty for such a case. The idea seems to be that they will now make up a law, which, of course, was unjust.

However, even though the Lord did not cause these events to take place, He most definitely did take advantage of the events, even as we shall see.)

17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not (all of it is a trumped up charge!).

18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

19 If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate unto another who is better than she.

20 And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall give to their husbands honour, both to great and small.

21 And the saying pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan:

22 For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and that it should be published according to the language of every people (besides publishing the decree, Ahasuerus sent letters prescribing certain things).

CHAPTER 2

(518 B.C.)

THE SEARCH FOR A NEW QUEEN

1 After these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her (the idea seems to be that the king somewhat regretted what he had done concerning Vashti; however, the die was now cast, and he must follow through).

2 Then said the king's servants who ministered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king:

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the custody of Hege the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them:

4 And let the maiden which pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.

ESTHER'S ANCESTRY

5 Now in Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite (Mordecai was with Nehemiah, an exile in Shushan; he held a high position in the palace; at the same time, Daniel was exiled in Babylon, about 200 miles due west of Shushan, with Ezekiel exiled in some other part of Babylonia, of which the exact location is unknown);

6 Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away. (This was the second deportation, which took place in 597 B.C. The first deportation took place in 605 B.C., when Daniel was deported. The third deportation took place in 586 B.C., and Jerusalem was then burned and the Temple completely destroyed — all under Nebuchadnezzar.)

[7] And he (Mordecai) brought up Hadassah (her Hebrew name), that is, Esther (her Persian name), his uncle's daughter (his own first cousin, but probably much younger than he): for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter (not perhaps by a formal adoption, but by taking her to live with him, and treating her as if she had been his own child; from this, we know that the man was kindly and benevolent)**.

[8] So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai (who was in charge of all of this), that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of the Hegai, keeper of the women (evidently, because of her beauty, she was chosen among many others as a possible choice to be the new queen)**.

[9] And the maiden pleased him (Hegai), and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her (as attendants), out of the king's house: and he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women (she obtained the favor of this man, which no doubt was all guided by the Lord)**.

[10] Esther had not showed her people nor her kindred (had not divulged that she was Jewish): for Mordecai had charged her that she should not show it (because of possible prejudice)**.

[11] And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, to know how Esther did, and what should become of her.

ESTHER CHOSEN TO BE QUEEN

12 Now when every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women [a year's purification was considered necessary before any maiden could approach the king];)

13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house (any maiden was entitled to demand anything that she liked, in the way of dress or ornaments, and it had to be given her, so she might look her best, or what she thought was her best).

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name (this was a ritual which was incumbent upon each woman).

15 Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed (Esther would not trust to ostentatious dress or ornaments, but would leave it up to Hegai as to what she should wear, which evidently portrayed her natural beauty). And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them who looked upon her (she stood out above all the rest).

16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign (1:3, coupled with this Verse, proclaim to us that four years had elapsed between the degradation of Vashti and the enthronement of Esther).

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti. (Thus, in the providence of God, and by His overruling of human folly, Esther was seated upon the throne at the very time that Satan made a supreme effort to destroy every member of the Tribe of Judah in particular, and the Israelites in general, so as to make impossible the advent of the promised Redeemer.

He was defeated by the hidden Hand of God. The judgment threatened in Deut. 31:16–18 — "I will hide My Face" — came to pass; but, though Israel proved faithless to Him, He abode faithful to her, for He could not deny Himself and, though He hid Himself, yet was the Lord's care over them as real as ever — Williams.)

18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast (in her honor); and he made a release to the provinces (relaxation from taxes for a short period of time), and gave gifts, according to the state of the king (in celebration of his new queen)**.

MORDECAI SAVES THE KING'S LIFE

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time (evidently, some type of Persian ritual), then Mordecai sat in the king's gate (signifying place, position, and authority, all in the realm of government)**.

20 Esther had not yet shown her kindred nor her people (none knew that she was Jewish); as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up with him (despite the fact that she was now queen, she still heeded the counsel of Mordecai, as always, and rightly so!)**.

21 In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept the door (a position of the highest possible trust), were wroth, and sought to lay hands on the king Ahasuerus.

22 And the thing was known to Mordecai (Josephus says that a certain man by the name of Pharnabazus, a slave of one of the conspirators, betrayed them to Mordecai), who told it unto Esther the queen; and Esther certified the king thereof in Mordecai's name (Esther revealed to the king that Mordecai had relayed to her this information, which would save the king's life).

23 And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree (Bigthan and Teresh): and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king (and so the king's life was saved because of Mordecai and Esther).

CHAPTER 3

(510 B.C.)

HAMAN'S EXALTATION; AND HATRED OF MORDECAI

[1] After these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes who were with him (it is believed that Haman was an Amalekite).

[2] And all the king's servants, who were in the king's gate (government employees, so to speak), bowed, and reverenced Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence (prostration was, in the mind of Mordecai, an act of worship, and it was not proper to worship anyone except God [Rev. 22:9]).

[3] Then the king's servants, who were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why do you transgress the king's commandment? (Mordecai seems, at last, to have explained to them what his objection was, and to have said that, as a Jew, he was precluded from prostrating himself before a man.)

[4] Now it came to pass, when they spoke daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew. (Mordecai explained to the palace officials that his not reverencing Haman was not due to discourtesy to Haman, or disobedience to the king, but because he was a Hebrew; that is, he worshipped the One and Only True and Living God.

Refusal to give this homage brought Daniel into the den of lions, and the three princes into the fiery furnace. It may justly, therefore, be assumed from Mordecai's statement that he was a worthy companion of Daniel and the three Hebrew children.

In fact, Haman, as stated, was an Amalekite. As such, he was an enemy to God, and Jehovah had sworn to have war with him forever [Ex. 17:16]. God's enemies were Mordecai's enemies, for Mordecai was a servant of God. This fact representing Haman was an added reason why faithfulness to God demanded this seeming discourtesy to Haman.)

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath (apparently, Mordecai's disrespect had not been observed by Haman until the "king's servants" called his attention to it)**.

HAMAN PLOTS TO KILL ALL THE JEWS

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had showed him the people of Mordecai (that they were Jews): wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai (in the mind of this evil man, Mordecai, as a Jew, had insulted him, and the Jews, and that meant all the Jews, would pay the penalty)**.

7 In the first month, that is, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar (this Verse does not mean that twelve months were employed in seeking, by means of the lot, a propitious day for the slaughter of the Jews; it means that the diviners [astrologers] sought for a favorable day, month by month, and at last chose the 13th day of the 12th month as promising success, as outlined in Verse 13)**.

8 And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of your kingdom; and their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them (the basic thrust of all of this was a "lie"; there might be an occasional royal edict which a Jew could not obey, but that was rare; anyway, as long as it didn't hurt the kingdom, the Persians allowed all the conquered nations to retain their own laws and usages)**.

9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those who have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries (to pay the expenses of those who would carry out the terrible deed).

10 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy (this was the royal seal, and gave Haman liberty to do about whatever he desired).

11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to you (whatever wealth the Jews had, after they were slaughtered, Haman could take that for himself), the people also, to do with them as it seems good to you (you can do whatever you like to these people, i.e., "the Jews").

THE DECREE TO DESTROY THE JEWS

12 Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring (all edicts were in the king's name, even when a subject had been allowed to issue them, as Haman).

13 And the letters were sent by posts (messengers) into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey (the command was explicit, all were to be killed; as stated, this was Satan's plan to destroy the possibility of the Messiah being born into the world, Who had to come through the Jewish people and, more specifically, the Tribe of Judah [Gen. 49:10]).

14 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day (the 13th day of the 12th month, which was March)**.

15 The posts (messengers) went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city Shushan was perplexed. (These two, having assigned an entire nation to destruction, proceeded to enjoy themselves at "a banquet of wine."

The city of Susa being perplexed had to do with the widespread feeling, among many of other nationalities, that the precedent now being set was a dangerous one. They couldn't see the justice of this, not at all, and were thereby confused.

As well, every time in the Bible that we see alcoholic beverage being used, it is always, as here, in a negative sense.)

CHAPTER 4

(510 B.C.)

FASTING AND PRAYING AMONG THE JEWS

[1] When Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry (this was not totally uncommon for that particular time);

[2] And came even before the king's gate: for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth (due to his manner of dress, he was not allowed to pass through the gate into the palace).

[3] And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes (and no wonder!).

ESTHER AND MORDECAI CONFER

[4] So Esther's maids and her chamberlains came and told it her (about Mordecai). Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not.

[5] Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was (Esther, in the seclusion of the harem, knew nothing of what the king and Haman had determined to carry forth; so, as stated, she didn't know the reason for Mordecai's great consternation).

6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate.

7 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them.

8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to show it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people (Esther's marriage took place in the seventh year of the reign of Ahasuerus [2:16]; this murderous decree was issued five years later [3:7]).

9 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

10 Again Esther spoke unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai;

11 All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days (she did not realize that these past thirty days had been spent by Haman in persuading the king to kill all the Jews).

12 And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.

MORDECAI'S CHARGE TO ESTHER

13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with yourself that you shall escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews ("Due to the fact that you are Jewish," Mordecai says, "you will die as well!").

14 For if you altogether hold your peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place

(Mordecai is confident that God will not allow the destruction of His People); but you and your father's house shall be destroyed (even though the Lord will spare the nation someway, still, many Jews will die, and you and I will definitely be among them): and who knows whether you are come to the kingdom for such a time as this? (And, to be sure, this is exactly why the Lord had raised up Esther to this particular position. The Lord knows all things, past, present, and future; therefore, He functions accordingly. Inasmuch as He is also Almighty, He can basically do whatever He likes, without violating the free moral agency of anyone.)

ESTHER DECIDES TO FACE PERSONAL DANGER FOR THE SAKE OF HER PEOPLE

15 Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer,

16 Go, gather together all the Jews who are present in Shushan, and fast you for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise (her request that a prayer-meeting, lasting for three days and three nights, should be held outside the palace, in unison with a similar prayer-meeting inside, showed her belief that God hears prayer, and that He is a very present help in time of trouble); and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish (this noble woman resolved, if necessary, to sacrifice her life for the sake of her people).

17 So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him (unfortunately, far too many modern Believers, in a time of trouble, are taught to turn to anything and everything except the Lord!).

CHAPTER 5

(510 B.C.)

THE COURAGE OF ESTHER

[1] Now it came to pass on the third day (the third day of the fast), that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house (where the king could see her).

[2] And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre (this was, no doubt, the customary act by which the king's grace was, as it were, accepted and appropriated).

[3] Then said the king unto her, What will you, queen Esther? and what is your request? it shall be even given you to the half of the kingdom.

[4] And Esther answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him. (Concerning this, Williams says, "Esther's intelligence and tact were admirable. Her life and that of her people hung on a thread. She was playing with edged tools, and the slightest mistake would have been fatal. To invite the king to a banquet was a master-stroke of policy; and to include his favorite minister, Haman, in the invitation was not only an added evidence of skill and of a deep knowledge of human nature, but it was, at the same time, a clever plan for getting Haman into her power." No doubt, the Lord had told her exactly what to do.)

[5] Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther has said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is your petition? and it shall be granted you: and what is your request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed (the king sensed that Esther had something more in mind than what was now being done; he knew that she must have a request, a real favor that she wants him to grant; therefore, he repeats the inquiry and the promise that he had made previously)**.

7 Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request is;

8 If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do tomorrow as the king has said. ("I will make known tomorrow my actual request." The repetition of her invitation showed extraordinary wisdom. At the first banquet, the king rightly divined that some important matter lay behind the invitation; else, why should Esther risk her life by coming uninvited into his presence? It was surely not merely to invite him and Haman to a dinner. Esther, by repeating the invitation and postponing the secret petition, enhanced its importance while, at the same time, she increased her personal interest in the king's affections and more deeply excited his curiosity. Furthermore, she more effectually threw Haman off his guard and so secured his fall.)

HAMAN'S JOY AND PRIDE

9 Then went Haman forth that day joyful and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai (Mordecai showed his utter contempt for Haman by not even acknowledging his presence; such infuriated Haman!)**.

10 Nevertheless Haman refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife (it was a plot to know what to do with Mordecai; in other words, killing would not be enough; he wanted his death to be a spectacle)*.

[11] And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

[12] Haman said moreover, Yes, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and tomorrow am I invited unto her also with the king.

HAMAN'S PLAN TO HANG MORDECAI

[13] Yet all this avails me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate (he will find his wife holds the solution to his problem, or so he thinks!).

[14] Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high (75 feet), and tomorrow speak you unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go you in merrily with the king unto the banquet (your problem has been solved). And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made (he was very sure of himself).

CHAPTER 6

(510 B.C.)

THE KING BECOMES AWARE OF MORDECAI'S SERVICE

[1] On that night could not the king sleep (and so ordered by the Lord), and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king (the Holy Spirit no doubt placed this in the king's mind, as well, to have the record read).

[2] And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

[3] And the king said, What honour and dignity have been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him (had Mordecai complained at the time that he saved the king's life [2:21–23] of the non-recognition of his services, he would have lost the extraordinary honors recorded in this Chapter; it is always better and more dignified not to seek for human recognition but to walk in fellowship with God, doing one's duty, and waiting for the honor that comes from above; and it will surely come, as this Chapter proves).

HAMAN IS FORCED TO HONOR MORDECAI

[4] And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king's house (which was no doubt the next morning), to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

[5] And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Haman stands in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.

6 So Haman came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man whom the king delights to honour? Now Haman thought in his heart (literally, "said in his heart"), To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself?

7 And Haman answered the king, For the man whom the king delights to honour,

8 Let the royal apparel be brought which the king uses to wear, and the horse that the king rides upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head (the insignia of the crown on the horse's head, not the head of the man):

9 And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delights to honour, and bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honour (if Haman only knew!).

10 Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as you have said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all that you have spoken. (What must have been Haman's thoughts, when the king said this should be done to Mordecai, when all the time he thought it was for himself? Considering some of the things the Lord does, and He definitely did this, we must come to the conclusion that the Lord has a sense of humor. Only the Lord could work out a situation in this manner.)

11 Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delights to honour (Haman had backed himself into a corner; there was no ground on which he could decline this task thrust upon him; so, he does exactly what the king has commanded to be done, as galling as it must have been; also, Mordecai must have been just as pleasantly surprised as Haman had been dismally dejected).

HAMAN'S FALL PREDICTED

12 And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. But Haman hasted to his house mourning, and having his head covered (a sign of acute dejection).

13 And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom you have begun to fall, you shall not prevail against him, but shall surely fall before him (for one time, these "wise men" were right!).

14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hasted to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had prepared (this was normal for servants to be sent to escort guests of importance from their own homes to the place of entertainment).

CHAPTER 7

(510 B.C.)

ESTHER'S BANQUET FOR THE KING

[1] So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen.

[2] And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is your petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted you: and what is your request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom (the king, obviously, is very pleasantly curious).

ESTHER'S REQUEST FOR HER LIFE AND THE LIFE OF THE JEWS

[3] Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in your sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request:

[4] For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be killed, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage (even in the case of the latter, with all the Jews made into slaves, the king's revenues would have been injured beyond compensation; so the empire was going to lose in every capacity, at least if this thing be carried out).

[5] Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, who does presume in his heart to do so?

[6] And Esther said, The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen (Esther adds the word "enemy" to the list, with the insinuation that, in actuality, Haman was an enemy of the king also; in other words, he was playing the king for all he could get, and was being very successful, at least up until now).

THE KING'S WRATH AND HAMAN'S PLEA FOR MERCY

7 And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath went into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.

8 Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the bed whereon Esther was (actually, reclining on a couch, as was the custom then at banquets). Then said the king, Will he force the queen also before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face. (In his pleading with Esther for his life, he, more than likely, sought to grasp her feet or her garments, as was usual with supplicants in the east. At that moment, the king returned. Misunderstanding Haman's action, or pretending to do so, the king accused Haman of attacking the queen. At that moment, at the king's command, guards standing nearby covered Haman's face, which meant that he was doomed.

To be sure, the Lord orchestrated all of this, even for the king to come back in at the exact moment he did.)

HAMAN IS HUNG ON THE GALLOWS HE MADE FOR MORDECAI

9 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains (eunuchs), said before the king, Behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high (75 feet), which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, stands in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon (evidently, Haman had erected the gallows within the compound of his home, which no doubt was quite large and included many acres of gardens, etc.; now he will hang on his own gallows).

10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified (the king realized that Haman had made a fool of him; so, he determines to settle the score in the worst way of all, which he did)*.

CHAPTER 8

(510 B.C.)

MORDECAI ADVANCED AND HONORED

[1] On that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman the Jews' enemy unto Esther the queen (to be sure, it was considerable, because Haman had been one of the richest men in the empire; now it all belongs to Esther, and Haman is dead, all orchestrated by the Lord). And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was unto her (her uncle).

[2] And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman. (In effect, the king made Mordecai his Prime Minister. Joseph and Daniel were also Prime Ministers to heathen princes.

If God, in the pursuit of His Purposes, places one of His Servants in such a high position, He will give him Grace and Wisdom to glorify the Lord in that position. But an ambitious Christian, who, by his energy and talent and in order to gratify himself, grasps at such a post, cannot count upon God to deliver him from its snares and temptations — Williams.)

ESTHER'S PLEA FOR THE LIFE OF HER PEOPLE

[3] And Esther spoke yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

[4] Then the king held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king (the golden scepter was held out simply to express a readiness to do as Esther desired),

5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces:

6 For how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred? (The laws of the Medes and Persians being irrevocable, the king could not recall his decree; but he could issue a fresh one authorizing Esther's people to defend themselves against all who should attack them.)

A NEW DECREE AUTHORIZES THE JEWS TO RESIST AND SPOIL THEIR ENEMIES

7 Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews (Mordecai is now included in the king's response)**.

8 Write you also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may no man reverse (in effect, he is saying to Mordecai, "Surely you can devise something which will save your people without calling on me to retract my own words, which would break a great principle of Persian law")**.

9 Then were the king's scribes called at the time in the third month, that is, the month Sivan (June), on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language (it seems that copies of the former edict had not been sent especially to the Jews; they had been left to learn their danger indirectly from the people among whom they dwelt; but Mordecai took care that they should be informed directly of their right of defense).

10 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts (messengers) on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries (it seems that the older Manuscripts do not contain the words mules, camels, etc., but rather thoroughbred horses exclusively, which no doubt is correct; that would be the fastest mode of transportation in those days):

11 Wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey (the earlier edict had given permission to the Jews' enemies to kill and to take; the new law, while not forbidding the former, as well gives the Jews the same privilege, and in every respect),

12 Upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar (the month of March; this was the day designated by the former edict to be carried out; now, on this day, the Jews have been given the freedom to protect themselves; so that day, which was determined to be a day of infamy regarding the Jews, would turn out to be the opposite, all because of what the Lord had done).

13 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 So the posts (messengers) who rode upon mules and camels went out (should have been translated "royal studs," in other words, the very fastest horses in the kingdom), being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at Shushan the palace.

MORDECAI AND THE JEWS EXALTED

15 And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad (as the capital city had been perplexed at the first, concerning the original edict, they now rejoiced at the second).

16 The Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honour.

17 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews (proselyte Jews, which means they adopted the Mosaic Law, and thereby the worship of Jehovah as the One True God); for the fear of the Jews fell upon them (because of all that had happened!).

CHAPTER 9

(510 B.C.)

THE JEWS DESTROY THEIR ENEMIES

[1] Now in the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar (March), on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them who hated them;)

[2] The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all people (the number "thirteen," which is so feared by the superstitious children of this world, is a gladsome number to the people of God, for, on that day in March, the Amalekite and all his allies were destroyed).

[3] And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them (due to the fact that he was now Prime Minister, which refers to one who actually runs the government).

[4] For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater.

[5] Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those who hated them (who would have killed the Jews, had the former edict remained in place).

[6] And in Shushan the palace the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men (actually refers to the upper city where the palace was)**.

7 And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha,

8 And Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha,

9 And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha,

10 The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, killed they; but on the spoil laid they not their hand. (All of this was looked at by the Lord as war. It is the same as when Joshua or David overcame the enemy, killing, at times, thousands of them. Presently, the United States has the Scriptural right to put down any nation in the world that is seeking to take peace from the world. Such is sanctioned by the Word of God, but only as a matter of last resort [Rom. 13:1–7].)

11 On that day the number of those who were killed in Shushan the palace was brought before the king (it was customary in all wars for the number of the killed to be carefully made out and recorded)**.

12 And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman (have arrested these ten, with the intention of executing them); what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now what is your petition? and it shall be granted you: or what is your request further? and it shall be done.

13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do tomorrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows (this was the manner in which they would be executed)**.

14 And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

15 For the Jews who were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and killed three hundred men at Shushan; but on the prey they laid not their hand (notwithstanding the clause in the edict which allowed the Jews "to take the spoil of their enemies for a prey," neither in the capital nor in the provinces did the triumphant Israelites touch the property of those opposed to them [8:11]; this was an evident wish to show that they were not motivated by greed, but simply desirous of securing themselves from future harm)**.

16 But the other Jews who were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and killed of their foes seventy and five thousand, but they laid not their hands on the prey, (Some of the older manuscripts had the number "15,000," which is probably the correct number. There are no original copies of Biblical Scrolls left, as would be obvious. However, there are tens of thousands of copies of the entirety, or individual Books, of the Bible. When making copies, sometimes an error would be made, mostly in numbers. In both the Hebrew and the Greek languages there was no such thing as numbers, with letters actually standing for numbers, making it even easier to make a mistake.)

17 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness (the Jews would have lived in daily fear of the vengeance of these men, if they had not been destroyed; Esther's wise conduct gave perfect peace to her people and, at the same time, punished with death men worthy of death)**.

18 But the Jews who were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, who dwelt in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

THE FEAST OF PURIM INSTITUTED

20 And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews who were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both near and far,

21 To stablish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly,

22 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them;

24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them;

25 But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Wherefore they called these days Purim after the name of Pur. Therefore for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them,

27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year;

28 And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed (in fact, this feast has continued among the Jews, at least in some form, even unto this day).

29 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim (the first letter is the one which is mentioned in Verses 20 and 26; a "second letter" of Purim was now issued, "confirming" and establishing the observance; it went forth, not as an edict, or in the king's name, but as a letter, and in the names of Esther and Mordecai).

30 And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth,

31 To confirm these days of Purim in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed for themselves and for their seed, the matters of the fastings and their cry (sort of a history as to what had happened).

32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

CHAPTER 10

(509 B.C.)

MORDECAI'S GREATNESS

1 And the king Ahasuerus laid a tribute (tax) upon the land, and upon the isles of the sea.

2 And all the acts of his power and of his might, and the declaration of the greatness of Mordecai, whereunto the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?

3 For Mordecai the Jew was next unto king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brethren, seeking the wealth of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed (promoting their peace and safety, guaranteeing them, so long as he lived and ruled, a quiet and peaceful existence — Pulpit).

CHAPTER 1

(1520 B.C.)

JOB'S CHARACTER AND RICHES

[1] There was a man in the land of Uz (probably located between Edom and Saudi Arabia), whose name was Job (the son of Issachar, which means that Jacob was his grandfather); and that man was perfect and upright, and one who feared God, and eschewed (hated) evil. (The word "perfect" here doesn't mean sinless perfection, but rather perfect in his efforts in doing all he could to please the Lord.

In fact, the Book of Job is the oldest book in the world. It was probably written by Moses [Lk. 24:27, 44]. It explains the problem of why good men are afflicted. It is in order to effect their Sanctification. It is interesting that this difficult question should be the first taken up and answered in the Bible.)

[2] And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters.

[3] His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east (which means that he was one of the richest men in the world; in other words, God had blessed him greatly).

[4] And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day (every one on his birthday); and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

[5] And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about (came around), that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered Burnt Offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually. (Before the giving of the Law, the father of the family was the Priest of the family. It was his responsibility to bless, purify, and offer Sacrifice.

The offering up of these Sacrifices, a ram for each Burnt Offering, and one for each son and daughter, proclaimed the fact that Job had placed his Faith and trust in the Sacrifice of Christ. However, the offering up of these Sacrifices, although a great blessing to him, could not atone for the sins of his sons and daughters, unless they personally placed their faith in such. There is no evidence they did!)

SATAN PERMITTED TO TEST JOB

6 Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD (used in this sense, it always speaks of Angels, whether righteous or fallen [Gen. 6:2]; this meeting took place in Heaven, at the Throne of God), and Satan came also among them. (In the Hebrew, the definite article is before Satan, meaning that it reads "the Satan," specifying the leader of evil. This tells us that these angelic ministers appear at appointed seasons to give account of their actions to God. This is the first instance in the Bible of this mighty angel being named "Satan," or "the Adversary." Some time in eternity past, he led a revolution against God, with one-third of the Angels throwing in their lot with him [Rev. 12:4, 7–11]. From the time of that revolution unto the present, this war between good and evil, between righteousness and unrighteousness, has raged. However, it is not long before this battle will end [Rev. 20:1–3, 7–10].)

7 And the LORD said unto Satan, Where have you been? (Of course, the Lord already knew the answer to that.) Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the Earth, and from walking up and down in it. (Pulpit says, "Satan searches the whole Earth continually, never pausing, never resting, but 'going about,' as Peter said [I Pet. 5:8], 'like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.'" As stated, the end of his darkness and destruction is very soon [Rev. 20:1–2].)

8 And the LORD said unto Satan, Have you considered My servant Job, that there is none like him in the Earth, a perfect and an upright man, one who fears God, and eschews (hates) evil? (While it doesn't say that Job at that time is the only one on Earth living for God, it does say that he is closer to God than anyone else. We learn from this of the minute attention given by the Lord of all those who love and follow Him. It is a sobering thought to realize that conversations may be conducted in Heaven, even by the Lord Himself, as it regards some of His children. What is He saying about me? About you?)

[9] Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Does Job fear God for nought? (Satan insinuates that Job's motive is purely selfish. He intimates that Job is serving God, not out of love for God, but for what he gets out of it. Regrettably, that just might be true concerning some, hence, Satan asking this question.)

[10] Have You not made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he has on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land (this Verse proves how absolutely secure from Satanic malignity are the Children of God, unless the Lord purposely allows certain things; in other words, Satan can only do, whatever it might be, whatever the Lord allows him to do).

[11] But put forth Your hand now, and touch all that he has, and he will curse You to Your face (the Lord would not do this, but He gave Satan permission to do certain things; again, we state: Satan had to have permission).

[12] And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he has is in your power; only upon himself put not forth your hand. So Satan went forth from the Presence of the LORD. (There were limitations placed on what Satan could do, as there are with all Believers. Concerning this, Williams says: "Job does not symbolize an unconverted, but a converted, man. It was necessary that one of God's children should be chosen for this trial; for the subject of the Book is not the conversion of the sinner, but the consecration of the Saint. It is evident that an unconverted man needs to be brought to the end of himself; but that a man who feared God, who was perfect, and who hated evil should also need this is not so clear.

"We find in this Book that God uses Satan, calamity, and sickness to be His instruments in creating character and making men partakers of His Holiness. Such were the instruments; but the Hand that used them was God's; and the facts of this Book explain to Christian people, who, like Job, are conscious of personal integrity, why calamities, sorrows, and diseases are permitted to afflict them.")

JOB LOSES HIS WEALTH, SERVANTS, AND CHILDREN

13 And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house (one of the birthdays, probably the eldest brother's):

14 And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them:

15 And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yes, they have killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell you.

16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and has burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell you.

17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yes, and killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell you. (All of this shows that this is exactly what would happen to every Believer if the Lord allowed such. Satan's hatred would demand this. But, as stated, the Evil One can only do what the Lord allows him to do.)

18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

19 And, behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell you. (The loss of property is one thing; however, the loss of one's family is something else altogether. Why did the Lord allow the latter?

The Lord did not choose to directly tell us. However, if it is to be noted, the only thing that was said about those sons and daughters was that they were "eating and drinking." I think it is clear that the consecration of Job definitely was not their consecration. Having little, if any, desire for the Lord, they were taken away. This we do know:

Whatever the Lord does is right. It's not right just because He does it, but because, in fact, it is right.)

[20] Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped (while this blow was almost enough to kill a man, still, we see here the depths of his consecration by his worship of the Lord, even at this terrible time; in times like these, only a few worship, while most blame God!)**,

[21] And said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither (return unto the earth): the LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away; blessed be the Name of the LORD. (Satan said that Job would curse God to His Face, if such calamity fell upon him. However, before the entirety of the spirit world, the Lord proved that this would not be the case. In fact, all of us are "compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses" [Heb. 12:1]. What type of testimony are we giving to the spirit world?)

[22] In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly. (Some foolishly claim that Job was not showing faith regarding his words of Verse 21; however, the Holy Spirit says the very opposite!)

CHAPTER 2

(1520 B.C.)

SATAN GRANTED PERMISSION TO TEST JOB FURTHER

[1] Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD (regrettably, Satan always comes "again").

[2] And the LORD said unto Satan, From where do you come? And Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the Earth, and from walking up and down in it (1:7).

[3] And the LORD said unto Satan, Have you considered My servant Job, that there is none like him in the Earth, a perfect and an upright man, one who fears God, and hates evil? and still he holds fast his integrity, although you moved Me against him, to destroy him without cause (the Lord reminds Satan that Job did not do what Satan said he would do, which was to curse God [1:11]).

[4] And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, yes, all that a man has will he give for his life (while that is true for most, it definitely isn't true for all, even as it wasn't true for Job).

[5] But put forth Your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse You to Your face (the trial deepens!).

[6] And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in your hand; but save his life (once again, the Lord sets the limits; Job's health can be affected, and severely so, but Satan cannot take his life; again we state: all of this shows that Satan can only do what the Lord allows him to do).

[7] So went Satan forth from the Presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown (it is believed that this disease was "elephantiasis," which is a strongly developed form of leprosy; while it is a non-contagious disease, it is extremely painful, coming from a burning and ulcerous swelling; generally, it attacks only a certain part of the body; however, Job was afflicted over the entirety of his body, which was not only notoriously painful, but, as well, terribly humiliating, as would be obvious)**.

8 And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal; and he sat down among the ashes (the sores, it is said, emit a fluid with an offensive odor; Job used the potsherd to scrape it away)**.

JOB AND HIS WIFE

9 Then said his wife unto him, Do you still retain your integrity? curse God, and die (in essence, Job's wife said, "Why do you hold on to your religious profession? Throw your idol god aside; there is no eternity; you need not be afraid to die; there is nothing behind death. This religion of Abel, Noah, and Abraham is a fairy tale!")**.

10 But he said unto her, You speak as one of the foolish women speaks. What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin with his lips (this man, who had been the richest man in the east, which means he had been the most powerful, now is reduced to total poverty, his body full of sores, with even his wife condemning him; but yet he did not blame God; what an example!)**.

JOB AND HIS THREE FRIENDS

11 Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him and to comfort him (these three men represent the world of religion that attempts to serve God by means other than Christ and the Cross; the truth is, they were very religious, but very lost, because their faith, even as we shall see, was in the wrong things).

12 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven (Job was so disfigured by the disease that they failed to recognize him; when he was recognized, they instantly realized that the situation was far worse than they could even begin to contemplate).

13 So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spoke a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great (we must remember that Job, at least at this time, had absolutely no knowledge as to what was going on; so the questions must have loomed large and furious in his mind; in fact, this was one of the greatest tests of Faith that one has ever engaged).

CHAPTER 3

(1520 B.C.)

JOB BEWAILS HIS BIRTH

[1] After this (seven days and seven nights) opened Job his mouth, and cursed his day (cursed his birthday; the word "cursed" doesn't speak of profanity, but rather a negativism regarding his birth).

[2] And Job spoke, and said,

[3] Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man child conceived (in other words, he is saying that the birth of a baby boy should have been a great blessing, but it seems it wasn't; Job could not have been more wrong!).

[4] Let that day be darkness; let not God regard it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.

[5] Let darkness and the shadow of death stain it; let a cloud dwell upon it; let the blackness of the day terrify it.

[6] As for that night, let darkness seize upon it; let it not be joined unto the days of the year, let it not come into the number of the months (Job wishes the day of his birth and the night of his conception to be utterly blotted out from the calendar; but, aware that this is impossible, he subsides into a milder class of imprecations — Pulpit).

[7] Lo, let that night be solitary, let no joyful voice come therein. ("Considering what has happened to me, my birth was definitely not the cause of joy." But again, how wrong Job was!

All of this is meant to show us, as Believers, that we cannot look at circumstances, irrespective as to how negative they may presently seem to be.)

[8] Let them curse it who curse the day, who are ready to raise up their mourning (in essence, Job is saying, "Let those who curse life add my name to the list")**.

[9] Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark; let it look for light, but have none; neither let it see the dawning of the day ("everything is dark," for that's exactly the way it looked to Job)**:

[10] Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from my eyes (the light of the day did not prevent the darkness!)**.

JOB LAMENTS HIS INFANCY

[11] Why died I not from the womb? why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly? (Perhaps this one word, "Why?", looms as the largest word in any language!

The Holy Spirit allows the "Why?" because this teaches us trust. With God, everything is a lesson. His desire is that we learn the lesson. All of us desire immediate answers; nevertheless, they are not always immediately forthcoming. True love will truly trust [I Jn. 4:18].)

[12] Why did the knees prevent (receive) me? (The culture of that time placed a new-born child upon the knees of the father, which means he accepted it as his own, and pledged himself to provide for it.) or why the breasts that I should suck?

[13] For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept: then had I been at rest (if I had died, I would now be at rest)**,

[14] With kings and counselors of the Earth, which build desolate places for themselves (that built on the Earth ultimately comes to desolation)**;

[15] Or with princes who had gold, who filled their houses with silver (none of this can stop the sorrow)**:

16 Or as an hidden untimely birth I had not been; as infants which never saw light (I wish I had been born dead!).

17 There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the weary be at rest (but only if they make the Lord their eternal Saviour; otherwise, no matter how bad life has been, at death the real Hell begins!).

18 There the prisoners rest together; they hear not the voice of the oppressor (again, if they know the Lord).

19 The small and great are there; and the servant is free from his master (true freedom is found only in Christ, of which Job would have had only a dim view at that time).

HIS MANHOOD LAMENTED

20 Wherefore is light given to him who is in misery, and life unto the bitter in soul (why would the Lord give life, if it's going to be such misery? Due to his circumstances, I would surely trust that one can understand Job's present frame of mind);

21 Which long for death, but it comes not; and dig for it more than for hid treasures (some of God's greatest have longed for death; however, they were not right in doing so!);

22 Which rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they can find the grave? (Inspiration guarantees that Job made these statements, but inspiration does not guarantee that they are right. In fact, much of what Job is saying here is wrong. The Holy Spirit allowed it to be put in the Sacred Text in order that we as Believers may understand that something is always behind what is taking place. We presently have the benefit of Job's experience, whereas Job didn't have that benefit. So, we shouldn't be hard on him.)

23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, and whom God has hedged in? (The idea is, Job doesn't know what to do!)

[24] For my sighing comes before I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters.

[25] For the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me (many have claimed that it was "fear" which caused Job's problems; however, the Bible doesn't say such; in fact, there is no hint that Job did anything that caused the hedge to come down; it was purely a matter of God allowing the test and the trial, which would be of great benefit to coming generations, and would, as well, turn out to be a great blessing to Job)**.

[26] I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet; yet trouble came (the idea is, "I don't know why this has happened to me!")**.

CHAPTER 4

(1520 B.C.)

ELIPHAZ REBUKES JOB: "INNOCENT PEOPLE AREN'T PUNISHED," HE SAYS!

[1] Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

[2] If we assay to commune with you, will you be grieved? but who can withhold himself from speaking? (Eliphaz' argument will be from human experience, which will prove to be totally wrong.)

[3] Behold, you have instructed many, and you have strengthened the weak hands (it is true that Job did this when he was the most powerful man of the east; now Eliphaz is telling him that what he counseled was wrong; however, it is Eliphaz who is wrong!)**.

[4] Your words have upholden him who was falling, and you have strengthened the feeble knees.

[5] But now it is come upon you, and you faint; it touches you, and you are troubled ("your condition," Eliphaz says, "proves that you were wrong, or else this trouble would not have come upon you")**.

[6] Is not this your fear, your confidence, your hope, and the uprightness of your ways? (Eliphaz puts words in Job's mouth, in essence saying, "Your confidence is gone!")

[7] Remember, I pray you, who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off? (Eliphaz, upon hearing Job curse the day that he was born, had heard enough to convince him that, regardless of Job's past outward goodness in helping the poor, instructing the needy, and upholding the weak, he was a wicked man, who had committed many sinful acts in secret, and now was reaping what he had sown.

Consequently, this "friend" argues that all of Job's past, public, and private acts of goodness were for show, and to cover up his real self. He called attention to the fact that, by observing what had happened to other wicked men, one could see that Job's reaping was only normal, and something to be expected.)

8 Even as I have seen, they who plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same (that much is true! However, many times problems come to those, as Job, who have not "plowed iniquity" or "sown wickedness" [II Corinthians 11:23–27]).

9 By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of His nostrils are they consumed (this statement can be true; however, the Lord is "longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to Repentance" [II Pet. 3:9]).

10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions, are broken (the Lord is stronger than lions, which should be obvious).

11 The old lion perishes for lack of prey, and the stout lion's whelps are scattered abroad (in essence, Eliphaz is referring to Job as an "old lion," who is about done in; in fact, Job is 70 years old at the time, and will live to be 210; so, whatever now seems to be the case is not the case; in fact, every Believer should take a lesson from this).

ELIPHAZ CONCLUDES THAT GOD IS JUST IN PUNISHING JOB

12 Now a thing was secretly brought to me, and my ear received a little thereof (Eliphaz will now relate a personal experience).

13 In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falls on men, 14 Fear came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones to shake.

15 Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up (this no doubt happened):

16 It stood still, but I could not discern the form thereof: an image was before my eyes, there was silence, and I heard a voice, saying,

17 Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than his Maker? (Was this vision that Eliphaz had from the Lord, or from an evil spirit? The Fifteenth Verse says that it was "a spirit," which means that it was not of God. To be sure, Satan and his spirits at times tell the truth, but only to make a big lie bigger. And that's what is happening here.)

18 Behold, He put no trust in His Servants; and His Angels He charged with folly (this "spirit" continues to say these things to Eliphaz)*:

19 How much less in them who dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth? (Meaning that he is saying that man is much less than Angels.)

20 They are destroyed from morning to evening: they perish for ever without any regarding it.

21 Does not their excellency which is in them go away? they die, even without wisdom. (As we shall see at the end of this Book, the direction of all of Job's friends is totally wrong. While they may say some right things, their right things basically come from human wisdom, and not from a true knowledge of God.)

CHAPTER 5

(1520 B.C.)

JOB IS CONCLUDED BY ELIPHAZ TO BE WICKED

[1] Call now, if there be any who will answer you; and to which of the Saints will you turn? (Certain ones in Roman Catholicism have tried to use this Verse to authorize prayers to the Saints. The argument, however, of this Verse is to show the uselessness of such prayer.

Eliphaz' argument will now become more pointed, more direct, more cutting. He will now pour sarcasm upon Job. He is taunting Job, claiming that it's not even possible for Job to get his prayers answered. In other words, Job has sinned so terribly, he says, that God will not even hear him any longer.

As well, there is not another believer [Saint] to whom he can turn. All the Saints, according to Eliphaz, know of Job's hypocrisy.)

[2] For wrath kills the foolish man, and envy kills the silly one (Job is foolish and silly, according to Eliphaz, if he thinks that anyone will hear him now!)**.

[3] I have seen the foolish taking root: but suddenly I cursed his habitation.

[4] His children are far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, neither is there any to deliver them. (Inasmuch as Job's ten children were instantly killed, in effect, Eliphaz is saying that Job is to blame.

To judge what seems to be obvious is, most of the time, wrong, just as here.)

[5] Whose harvest the hungry eats up, and takes it even out of the thorns, and the robber swallows up their substance (once again implying that Job has come to this condition because of his wickedness)**.

6 Although affliction comes not forth of the dust, neither does trouble spring out of the ground (in other words, he is saying that Job is in the condition he's in simply because he has been secretly wicked);

7 Yet man is born unto trouble, as the sparks fly upward (this is true, but it is because of man's corrupt nature, due to the Fall).

ELIPHAZ CLAIMS THAT JOB MUST CONFESS HIS SINS

8 I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause (in other words, Job should confess to God what he really is):

9 Who does great things and unsearchable; marvelous things without number:

10 Who gives rain upon the Earth, and sends waters upon the fields:

11 To set up on high those who be low; that those which mourn may be exalted to safety.

12 He disappoints the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise (Job is judged here to be "crafty," but God, so says Eliphaz, sees through Job's craftiness).

13 He takes the wise in their own craftiness: and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

14 They meet with darkness in the daytime, and grope in the noonday as in the night (which is what is now happening to Job!).

15 But He saves the poor from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty (Job wasn't poor, so this doesn't apply to him, according to Eliphaz).

16 So the poor has hope, and iniquity stops her mouth (Job's mouth has now been stopped, and the "poor" can rest in ease; the truth is, Job had been a great benefactor to the poor).

[17] Behold, happy is the man whom God corrects: therefore despise not you the chastening of the Almighty (true! However, the Lord is not really correcting Job, at least not as Eliphaz thinks):

[18] For He makes sore, and binds up: He wounds, and His Hands make whole.

[19] He shall deliver you in six troubles: yes, in seven there shall no evil touch you (once again, the idea is, at least as expressed by Eliphaz, that if one is walking in righteousness that "no evil will touch you"; so, Job is judged to be unrighteous!).

[20] In famine He shall redeem you from death: and in war from the power of the sword.

[21] You shall be hid from the scourge of the tongue (therefore, since many people are now speaking evil of Job, this means that Job must be wicked): neither shall you be afraid of destruction when it comes (Job is afraid, so this means that something is badly wrong with him in a spiritual sense).

[22] At destruction and famine you shall laugh: neither shall you be afraid of the beasts of the Earth.

[23] For you shall be in league with the stones of the field: and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with you.

[24] And you shall know that your tabernacle shall be in peace; and you shall visit your habitation, and shall not sin (it's very obvious that Job now has no peace, so that means he, according to Eliphaz, has sinned; however, the Lord has said differently [1:10, 22]).

[25] You shall know also that your seed shall be great, and your offspring as the grass of the Earth (inasmuch as Job's ten children were killed, this only furnishes more proof of Job's wickedness, according to Eliphaz).

[26] You shall come to your grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn comes in in his season.

[27] Lo this, we have searched it, so it is; hear it, and know you it for your good (Eliphaz claims that his word is law and gospel; the truth is, it is anything but)**.

CHAPTER 6

(1520 B.C.)

JOB'S REPLY TO ELIPHAZ

[1] But Job answered and said,

[2] Oh that my grief were throughly weighed, and my calamity laid in the balances together!

[3] For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea: therefore my words are swallowed up. (Job struggles to find words to express his sorrow. He has no understanding as to the reasons for these happenings in his life. And, at this time, God does not choose to reveal to him the cause or the reason. He will later.

It would seem to the unbeliever, or even to the carnal Christian, that the Almighty is unjust and cruel for allowing such to happen to Job. And make no mistake about it, God was the One Who allowed Satan to do these things.

The reasons were many. First of all, Job had to discover the worthlessness of self. Then, he had to discover the worthfulness of Christ. And that he would!)

[4] For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison whereof drinks up my spirit: the terrors of God do set themselves in array against me (there is fear now in Job's heart, and no wonder!)**.

[5] Does the wild ass bray when he has grass? or lows the ox over his fodder?

[6] Can that which is unsavoury be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

7 The things that my soul refused to touch are as my sorrowful meat (Job says he will only go so far in his complaints)**.

8 Oh that I might have my request; and that God would grant me the thing that I long for! (Many Christians are pressed to the point that they will request of God that which is not God's Will. Job wanted to die; that was his request. God would not answer this prayer. He had something far better for Job than death.)

9 Even that it would please God to destroy me; that He would let loose His Hand, and cut me off!

10 Then should I yet have comfort; yes, I would harden myself in sorrow: let Him not spare; for I have not concealed the Words of the Holy One. (Job falls back on the Word of God. While none of it had yet been written as of this time [that began with Moses, who was probably then alive, and maybe even helped Job write this Book], still, all the great things of the Lord had been passed down from the very beginning by word of mouth, which could be repeated word for word and in detail.)

11 What is my strength, that I should hope? and what is my end, that I should prolong my life? (In effect, he says he has nothing left for which to live.)

12 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesh of brass? ("There is only so much a human being can stand," is the thought of Job.)

13 Is not my help in me? and is wisdom driven quite from me? (He is at the end of his resources and, considering what the man has been through, it is no wonder! And yet, all of this is necessary in order to bring Job to the end of himself. Satan had one thing in mind, but God had entirely another. Through Job, and the terrible trial which he endured, we will learn God's Way, which is not man's way.)

JOB REPROVES HIS FRIENDS

14 To him who is afflicted pity should be shown from his friend; but he forsakes the fear of the Almighty. (Job looked for pity from his friend, but found none. The Patriarch says that his friend has overstepped his bounds, and has shown, by his attitude, that he has no fear of God. Regrettably, most of Christendom thinks little of roundly accusing or condemning that of which it has no knowledge and no understanding. They do so because they, as well, have precious little fear of God. The reason is self-righteousness.)

15 My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook, and as the stream of brooks they pass away (these individuals came to Job as if they desired to comfort and to help him; instead, they accused and condemned him)**;

16 Which are blackish by reason of the ice, and wherein the snow is hid (toward me they are cold)**:

17 What time they wax warm, they vanish: when it is hot, they are consumed out of their place (if they try to say something good, their warmth soon vanishes)**.

18 The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing, and perish (what they are saying has no merit)**.

19 The troops of Tema looked, the companies of Sheba waited for them (however, these friends could not be trusted)**.

20 They were confounded because they had hoped; they came thither, and were ashamed (Job implies that he is ashamed of having looked for compassion and kindness from his friends; he should have been wiser and known better)**.

21 For now you are nothing; you see my casting down, and are afraid (these friends thought that Job was an object of Divine vengeance, and feared, if they would show him sympathy, they might involve themselves in his punishment)**.

JOB MAINTAINS HIS INDEPENDENCE

22 Did I say, Bring unto me? or, Give a reward for me of your substance? (Have I asked you for help?)

23 Or, Deliver me from the enemy's hand? or, Redeem me from the hand of the mighty? (Job had not called on his friends to do any of these things.)

24 Teach me, and I will hold my tongue: and cause me to understand wherein I have erred (they claim he has sinned, so they should tell him what he has done!)**.

25 How forcible are right words! but what does your arguing reprove? (If your words were right, that would be something else; however, they aren't right!)

26 Do you imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one who is desperate, which are as wind? (Your words and accusations should not be dignified by a response.)

27 Yes, you overwhelm the fatherless, and you dig a pit for your friend (all of this tells us, when one is down, condemnation is of no value; a helping hand is what is needed [Gal. 6:1–2])**.

28 Now therefore be content, look upon me; for it is evident unto you if I lie (what Job desires is that his friends would look him straight in the face; then they would not be able to doubt him; they would see that he is telling the truth)**.

29 Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity, yes, return again, my righteousness is in it (if my cause be well considered, despite how things look, it will be seen that I am in no way blameworthy)**.

30 Is there iniquity in my tongue? cannot my taste discern perverse things? (Job will ultimately find that there is iniquity in his tongue, as there is with all; however, it has nothing to do with these "friends," and what they have said.)

CHAPTER 7

(1520 B.C.)

THE DIFFICULTIES OF LIFE

[1] Is there not an appointed time to man upon Earth? are not his days also like the days of an hireling? (Job, under tremendous pressure, now resorts to cynicism. He has asked to die, and now he thinks he really will die; and, to die in this state makes it seem as though his life has had no purpose. He sees nothing except destruction and hurt, little knowing what is taking place in the spirit world.

I doubt that there has ever been another human being whom the Lord has tested as He did Job. So this means that it was not only for Job's benefit, but for ours, as well. There is far more here than meets the eye.)

[2] As a servant earnestly desires the shadow, and as an hireling looks for the reward of his work:

[3] So am I made to possess months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.

[4] When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and the night be gone? and I am full of tossings to and from unto the dawning of the day (one can well imagine the consternation which filled Job's heart and mind, as it regarded his situation; there was no rest night or day)**.

[5] My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become loathsome (regarding the type of disease which gripped Job, tumors would develop on the skin, followed by a discharge of a virulent and loathsome character)**.

[6] My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope (regarding his loathsome situation, physically, domestically, and financially, he reasons that there is no hope!).

7 O remember that my life is wind: my eye shall no more see good (he was wrong on all counts; through Job's situation, the Lord is showing us that no matter how bad the situation might be, if we know the Lord, there is nothing that He cannot change).

8 The eye of him who has seen me shall see me no more: your eyes are upon me, and I am not (the rich, famous, powerful Job which once existed is no more and, he thinks, will never be again!).

9 As the cloud is consumed and vanishes away: so he that goes down to the grave shall come up no more (all that Job can see ahead of him is death! Little does he realize that, in a sense, his life is just beginning).

10 He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more (that which he was, rich, powerful, and famous, he thinks, is forever over).

JOB SPEAKS TO THE LORD

11 Therefore I will not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul. (In other words, "What difference does it now make what I say?" Perhaps this is the trying point for all Christians. Lacking understanding in the happenings of our life, we are prone to give vent to our emotions. Every time this happens, it is a lack of faith because of unbelief. And yet, the Lord will have amazing patience with Job, and with us.)

12 Am I a sea, or a whale, that You set a watch over me? (A set of physical impediments which leave me no freedom of action.)

13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint;

14 Then You scare me with dreams, and terrify me through visions (along with the terrible affliction of his body, and the loss of all his material goods, Satan, no doubt, terrified Job with demonic dreams and visions; Job thought it was God doing it and, in effect, the Lord was allowing Satan to use this method; so, Job's terrible predicament was not only the loss of his possessions and his physical health, but also the terror of his soul):

15 So that my soul chooses strangling, and death rather than my life ("I am reduced to nothing — my life is vanity").

16 I loathe it; I would not live alway: let me alone; for my days are vanity (fortunately, the Lord will not let us alone, and thank God He won't! If He did, we would be eternally lost).

17 What is man, that You should magnify him? and that You should set Your Heart upon him? (This great question of life would ultimately be answered by God. It would be given to David about 600 years later [Ps. 8:4–6].

It was very difficult for Job to see God's ultimate purpose in the creation of man, especially when he sat in an ash heap with sore boils all over his body, scraping himself with a potsherd.)

18 And that You should visit him every morning, and try him every moment? (Our whole life is a probation, not merely particular parts of it. God "tries us every moment." Everything is a test!)

19 How long will You not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle? (To the natural mind, the thought is intolerable that God's watchful eye should scrutinize every action, but, to the mind enlightened by and subjected to the Holy Spirit, the fact is delightful.)

20 I have sinned; what shall I do unto You, O You Preserver (Observer) of men? why have You set me as a mark against You, so that I am a burden to myself? (A continuation of the complaint that God's Eye is always upon him.)

21 And why do You not pardon my transgression, and take away my iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and You shall seek me in the morning, but I shall not be. (Whatever the problem, in Job's mind, it is now too late! However, let the reader understand that with God, at least as long as there is breath, it is never too late!)

CHAPTER 8

(1520 B.C.)

BILDAD: ANOTHER "FRIEND!"

[1] Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said (as Eliphaz argued from the position of "experience," Bildad argues from the position of "tradition"; he would have nothing good to say about Job)**,

[2] How long will you speak these things? and how long shall the words of your mouth be like a strong wind? (It was not very encouraging for Job, while sitting in an ash heap, to hear this man say that his words were no more than "hot air.")

[3] Does God pervert judgment? or does the Almighty pervert justice? (As Eliphaz, this man knew some things about God, but not the things that really matter.)

[4] If your children have sinned against Him, and He has cast them away for their transgression;

[5] If you would seek unto God betimes, and make your supplication to the Almighty;

[6] If you were pure and upright; surely now He would awake for you, and make the habitation of your righteousness prosperous. (Bildad was really saying that if Job were as pure and upright as he [Bildad] was, then he too would be prosperous, and not in this condition. If one will notice carefully, the entirety of the discourses of these three "friends" will subtly extol their righteousness while proclaiming Job's unrighteousness. In truth, Job was "pure and upright," but only in the Eyes of God. Still, isn't that all that counts?)

[7] Though your beginning was small, yet your latter end should greatly increase ("your 'latter end,'" says Bildad, "shows that your 'beginning' was all wrong as well")**.

[8] For enquire, I pray you, of the former age, and prepare yourself to the search of their fathers (Bildad was speaking of "human tradition"; some traditions are good; most are not [Mat. 15:6])**:

[9] (For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days upon Earth are a shadow [pontificating words, meant to make Bildad seem very wise]**:)

[10] Shall not they teach you, and tell you, and utter words out of their heart? (In other words, "Job, if you had even a modicum of intelligence, you would know the answer to your questions.")

[11] Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flag grow without water?

[12] While it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withers before any other herb (both images represent the prosperity of the wicked, and were probably proverbial)**.

BILDAD CONSIDERS JOB A HYPOCRITE

[13] So are the paths of all who forget God; and the hypocrite's hope shall perish (bluntly, Bildad calls Job a "hypocrite. The truth of the matter was that Job was no hypocrite, but Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar were. Their hypocrisy was the hypocrisy of self-righteousness, which is the worst hypocrisy of all. Men are fond of judging their righteousness by comparing it to others. It made Bildad feel superior to point out Job's alleged shortcomings. He did not dream that while he was judging Job, God was judging him)**:

[14] Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be a spider's web.

[15] He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

16 He is green before the sun, and his branch shoots forth in his garden.

17 His roots are wrapped about the heap, and sees the place of stones.

18 If he destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen you. ("Even the Earth will deny that Job has ever lived here!")

19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the Earth shall others grow ("Job's destruction leaves room for something better to follow," says Bildad!)**.

20 Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will He help the evil doers (how ironclad his argument, he thinks; if Job had been a "perfect man," God would not have cast him away; likewise, God not helping him proves that he is an "evil doer"; how smug Bildad feels in his summation)**:

21 Till He fill your mouth with laughing, and your lips with rejoicing (in other words, Bildad is saying to Job, "If you will confess your evil, the Lord will fill your mouth with laughing")**.

22 They who hate you shall be clothed with shame; and the dwelling place of the wicked shall come to nought. (Whenever man working from human reasoning begins to judge, almost invariably he will call "unholy" what God calls "holy," and "holy" what God calls "unholy"!)

CHAPTER 9

(1520 B.C.)

JOB'S REPLY TO BILDAD

[1] Then Job answered and said,

[2] I know it is so of a truth: but how should man be just with God? (The answer to this question is found in Rom., Chpt. 3.)

[3] If he will contend with Him, he cannot answer Him one of a thousand (if God questions us, we cannot even answer one question of a thousand, at least out of our own ability, no matter how educated we might be)**.

[4] He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who has hardened himself against Him, and has prospered? (No man can win fighting against God!)

[5] Which removes the mountains, and they know not: which overturns them in His anger.

[6] Which shakes the Earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble.

[7] Which commands the sun, and it rises not; and seals up the stars.

[8] Which alone spreads out the heavens, and treads upon the waves of the sea (God is the Creator of all things, and thereby has control of all things, and can change their function as He so desires)**.

[9] Which makes Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south (this Verse shows that the rotundity of the Earth was known at that time, which was about 3,700 years ago)**.

[10] Which does great things past finding out; yes, and wonders without number.

[11] Lo, He goes by me, and I see Him not: He passes on also, but I perceive Him not. (Job says these things in the heat of this tremendous trial. Some things he says are right and some are wrong. In fact, Job does perceive the Lord, but he is now questioning his own experience. In other words, he is saying, "Considering what has happened to me, I'm not sure if my perception is right or not.")

[12] Behold, He takes away, who can hinder Him? who will say unto Him, What do You do? (Job is saying that the Lord has taken away all that he has and, in a sense, that is true, and there was nothing that Job could do to stop or change the situation. Furthermore, he doesn't even know why!)

JOB CANNOT ANSWER GOD BUT WILL PRAY TO HIM

[13] If God will not withdraw His anger, the proud helpers do stoop under Him. (Considering Job's circumstances, surely God, he thinks, must be angry with him. So, all of this tells us that it's very difficult for us to discern the Lord or His Ways. Unless He reveals His Purpose to us, as He did to Job a little later, almost all the time our assumptions are wrong.)

[14] How much less shall I answer Him, and choose out my words to reason with Him? (Job is saying that he did not know how to pray; in fact, he didn't even know what to say. Living under the Old Covenant, Job did not have the privilege of the infilling of the Holy Spirit as we do today under the New Covenant. Truly our New Covenant is based on better Promises [Heb. 8:6].)

[15] Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to my Judge (God is my Judge; prayer is the only rightful attitude of even the best man before his Maker — prayer for Mercy, pardon, Grace, prayer for advance in holiness)**.

[16] If I had called, and He had answered me; yet would I not believe that He had hearkened unto my voice (Job reasons, and wrongly we might add, that due to his condition, God would not hearken unto him)**.

17 For He breaks me with a tempest, and multiplies my wounds without cause (there was a cause, but not in the realm which Job could comprehend, or anyone else at that time for that matter; the "cause" was not Job or anything he had done, but rather the "spirit world")**.

18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but fills me with bitterness (in other words, one blow after the other!)**.

19 If I speak of strength, lo, He is strong: and if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead?

20 If I justify myself, my own mouth shall condemn me: if I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse (about ourselves, there is nothing we can say; in fact, it's what God says that counts; He had already made a gracious statement about Job, but unknown to the Patriarch [2:3])**.

21 Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my soul: I would despise my life (Job is closer to the truth now than he realizes)**.

22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, He destroys the perfect and the wicked (while Job is not concluding himself to be perfect, in effect, he is saying, "It wouldn't matter if I were, it would do me no good"; in that he is wrong!)**.

23 If the scourge slay suddenly, He will laugh at the trial of the innocent (in other words, God laughs at those who claim they are innocent)**.

24 The Earth is given into the hand of the wicked: He covers the faces of the judges thereof; if not, where, and who is he? (Inasmuch as God has to allow things to be done before they can be done, and irrespective as to what they are, still, there is a reason why God does all things, and that reason is valid; the Judge of all the Earth will do right! [Gen. 18:25].)

JOB'S COMPLAINT AGAINST GOD

25 Now my days are swifter than a post (a messenger who quickly comes and goes): they flee away, they see no good (but yet, despite how things now look, there is a better day coming).

26 They are passed away as the swift ships: as the eagle that hastens to the prey.

27 If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself:

28 I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that You will not hold me innocent ("if all of this is happening to me, then it stands to reason that I'm not innocent"; specifically, he was right; particularly, he was wrong!).

29 If I be wicked, why then labour I in vain? ("Why do I try to live right?")

30 If I wash myself with snow water, and make my hands never so clean;

31 Yet shall You plunge me in the ditch, and my own clothes shall abhor me. ("It doesn't matter what I have done to try to live right, the only conclusion to which I can arrive is that 'the Lord abhors me.'" Once again, the great Patriarch was looking at circumstances. He knew what was happening, but he didn't know what was going on.)

32 For He is not a man, as I am, that I should answer Him, and we should come together in judgment. (What a plea for the coming Redeemer! True, God is not a man, but God would become Man, and then God and Man would "come together in Judgment.")

33 Neither is there any daysman betwixt us, that might lay his hand upon us both. (Job did not understand the coming Work of Christ as Mediator between God and man [I Tim. 2:4–5], but he knew in his heart that the need for such was great. Thank God Jesus Christ has come as the Mediator, i.e., "Daysman.")

34 Let Him take His rod away from me, and let not His fear terrify me (little did Job realize that this prayer, no doubt half uttered, would be answered so fully and wondrously in Christ):

35 Then would I speak, and not fear Him; but it is not so with me (but with the coming Christ, it would be so!)*.

CHAPTER 10

(1520 B.C.)

JOB BEWAILS HIS CONDITION

[1] My soul is weary of my life; I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul (it is very easy to condemn Job for his statements and actions; however, if any one of us had been placed in his position, would we have done any better, or even as well?).

[2] I will say unto God, Do not condemn me; show me wherefore You contend with me. ("Why do You contend with me?" Very shortly, the Lord will answer that prayer, and in a far greater way than Job can now imagine.)

[3] Is it good unto You that You should oppress, that You should despise the work of Your hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked? (The Lord was not despising Job's work; in effect, He was refining it.)

[4] Have You eyes of flesh? or do You see as man sees? (The Lord does not see as man sees, but infinitely greater, which means that He knows all things.)

[5] Are Your days as the days of man? are Your years as man's days,

[6] That You enquire after my iniquity, and search after my sin? (Search out things for which to punish Job?)

[7] You know that I am not wicked; and there is none who can deliver out of Your hand (Job makes his case, and in this he is right!).

[8] Your hands have made me and fashioned me together round about; yet You do destroy me (there are times when it seems that God is destroying us; during these times, Satan desires that we throw up our hands and quit and, in effect, "curse God"; God desires that we throw ourselves at the foot of the Cross and draw ever closer to Him, which is what the trial is all about).

9 Remember, I beseech You, that You have made me as the clay; and will You bring me into dust again? (Job has already stated that God can deliver him if He do desires, or else He can kill him. He has the power to do both. Which will it be?)

10 Have You not poured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese?

11 You have clothed me with skin and flesh, and have fenced me with bones and sinews.

12 You have granted me life and favour, and Your visitation has preserved my spirit (in fact, this is a man who has walked with God, who has experienced countless "visitations," and who has known God's Power and even God's Grace; he has been favored, but only because he favored God).

13 And these things have You hid in Your heart: I know that this is with You ("Have You all the time intended to destroy me?").

14 If I sin, then You mark me, and You will not acquit me from my iniquity (God forgives only on the basis of one's Faith in the Atonement of Christ, which was symbolized in the Sacrifices of Job's day).

15 If I be wicked, woe unto me; and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head. I am full of confusion; therefore see You my affliction (at the end, the Lord does not condemn Job for his confusion; Job was asked to undergo what few, if any, had ever undergone; he was asked to do so without explanation; his confusion is understandable);

16 For it increases. You hunt me as a fierce lion: and again You show Yourself marvelous upon me (marvelous means of destruction, and of that Job was right).

17 You renew Your witnesses against me, and increase Your indignation upon me; changes and war are against me (one blow after the other).

JOB LAMENTS HIS BIRTH AND DREADS HIS DEATH

18 Wherefore then have You brought me forth out of the womb? Oh that I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me! ("I wish I had died at birth.")

19 I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

20 Are not my days few? cease then, and let me alone, that I may take comfort a little (this is a prayer that Job would be very glad the Lord didn't answer),

21 Before I go whence I shall not return, even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death (at that time, the understanding of the Resurrection was very dim);

22 A land of darkness, as darkness itself; and of the shadow of death, without any order, and where the light is as darkness (at this stage, Job sees nothing but darkness).

CHAPTER 11

(1520 B.C.)

ZOPHAR SPEAKS: ACCUSES JOB OF BEING A LYING HYPOCRITE

[1] Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said (this man argues from the position of "human merit"),

[2] Should not the multitude of words be answered? and should a man full of talk be justified? (So now, Zophar accuses Job of being full of hot air.)

[3] Should your lies make men hold their peace? and when you mock, shall no man make you ashamed? (Job has been called a hypocrite; now he is called a liar.)

[4] For you have said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in your eyes (to self-righteousness, Job's claims are a joke).

[5] But oh that God would speak, and open His lips against you (ultimately, the Lord will speak, but it will not be against Job);

[6] And that He would show you the secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! Know therefore that God exacts of you less than your iniquity deserves (Zophar knew nothing of Job's life, and yet he felt perfectly free to claim that Job was some kind of great sinner).

ZOPHAR ATTEMPTS TO EXPLAIN WHO GOD IS

[7] Can you by searching find out God? can you find out the Almighty unto perfection? (These questions are sometimes used as proof that God is so great that the most learned cannot comprehend Him, but this is an improper use of the questions. While one cannot learn about God by scientific methods, so-called, one can definitely learn about Him from His Word, and by Revelation.)

[8] It is as high as heaven; what can you do? deeper than Hell; what can you know?

[9] The measure thereof is longer than the Earth, and broader than the sea.

[10] If He cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then who can hinder Him?

[11] For He knows vain men: He sees wickedness also; will He not then consider it? (The idea is, God is so great that there is no point in men trying to find out anything about Him. Were that true, the Lord would not have given us His Word, or sent the Messiah!)

[12] For vain men would be wise, though man be born like a wild ass's colt *(in this statement, Zophar refers to Job as "vain").

JOB IS URGED TO REPENT AND QUIT SINNING

[13] If you prepare your heart, and stretch out your hands toward Him *(here, as always, we have the self-righteous telling the righteous how to seek the Lord; what a travesty!);

[14] If iniquity be in your hand, put it far away, and let not wickedness dwell in your tabernacles *(Zophar so much believes that Job is full of iniquity; self-righteousness always assumes such; the facts are that Zophar is full of iniquity, and Job is not).

[15] For then shall you lift up your face without spot; yes, you shall be stedfast, and shall not fear *(Zophar implies that Job cannot lift up his face without spot):

[16] Because you shall forget your misery, and remember it as waters that pass away *(if Job would only repent, so says his "friend"):

17 And your age shall be clearer than the noonday: you shall shine forth, you shall be as the morning.

18 And you shall be secure, because there is hope; yes, you shall dig about you, and you shall take your rest in safety.

19 Also you shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid; yes, many shall make suit unto you.

20 But the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and they shall not escape, and their hope shall be as the giving up of the ghost. (Zophar declares that Job must be wicked or he would not be suffering like the wicked. What conceit! What self-righteousness!)

CHAPTER 12

(1520 B.C.)

JOB'S REPLY: HE IS INNOCENT

[1] And Job answered and said,

[2] No doubt but you are the people, and wisdom shall die with you (Job uses sarcasm, actually saying the opposite of what he means).

[3] But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you: yes, who knows not such things as these? (These men had treated Job as though he had no understanding of God's Ways and God's Actions. While it was true that Job did not understand the present situation, still, quite possibly at this present time, there were few men on the face of the Earth, if any, who had the knowledge of God and the relationship with God that Job had.)

[4] I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calls upon God, and He answers him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn (such comes about even presently, because the modern Church, as then, little understands "Justification by Faith").

[5] He who is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease (this Verse may be read: "A lamp is for him who is ready to fall, but is despised by him who thinks himself safe"; this was a rebuke to the self-confidence and self-righteousness of his "three 'friends'").

[6] The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they who provoke God are secure; into whose hand God brings abundantly (these "three 'friends'" asserted that prosperity would always follow the one who was right with God; Job replies to this assertion by pointing out that robbers and rebels often prosper).

JOB ACKNOWLEDGES GOD'S OMNIPOTENCE

7 But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach you; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell you:

8 Or speak to the Earth, and it shall teach you: and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto you.

9 Who knows not in all these that the Hand of the LORD has wrought this?

10 In Whose Hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind (all of Creation shows that there is a Creator).

11 Does not the ear try words? and the mouth taste his meat? (The Lord made them that way.)

12 With the ancient is wisdom; and in length of days understanding (wisdom comes slowly, if at all!).

13 With Him is wisdom and strength, He has counsel and understanding (with God dwell wisdom and strength essentially).

14 Behold, He breaks down, and it cannot be built again: He shuts up a man, and there can be no opening (no other power can give release).

15 Behold, He withholds the waters, and they dry up: also He sends them out, and they overturn the Earth.

16 With Him is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver are His (God has not only the wisdom to design the course of events, but the power and ability to carry out all that He designs).

17 He leads counselors away spoiled, and makes the judges fools (the wise of the Earth cannot resist or escape Him; He frustrates their designs and overthrows them)*.

[18] He looses the bond of kings, and girds their loins with a girdle.

[19] He leads princes away spoiled, and overthrows the mighty (while some men may be mighty, God is Almighty; there is a vast difference!).

[20] He removes away the speech of the trusty, and takes away the understanding of the aged (because they have forsaken Him).

[21] He pours contempt upon princes, and weakens the strength of the mighty (he holds in contempt those who would come against Him).

[22] He discovers deep things out of darkness, and brings out to light the shadow of death (God, at times, reveals truths to men which are beyond their power of understanding).

[23] He increases the nations, and destroys them: He enlarges the nations, and straitens them again (the Lord sets up some kingdoms, and then tears down some kingdoms; all are at His Mercy).

[24] He takes away the heart of the chief of the people of the Earth, and causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way (despite all their claimed wisdom).

[25] They grope in the dark without light, and He makes them to stagger like a drunken man (to pursue a devious course instead of a straight one, because they have forsaken Him).

CHAPTER 13

(1520 B.C.)

JOB ACCUSES HIS FRIENDS OF LYING

[1] Lo, my eye has seen all this, my ear has heard and understood it.

[2] What you know, the same do I know also: I am not inferior unto you (whatever they claim to know about God, he knows as well; actually, Job is far superior in knowledge!).

[3] Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God (Job, realizing that God is his only hope, addresses himself to that conclusion; these "friends" cannot help).

[4] But you are forgers of lies, you are all physicians of no value (any Preacher who stands behind a pulpit and holds up anything but the Lord Jesus Christ, and what He did at the Cross, as the answer to the ills of man falls into the same category).

[5] O that you would altogether hold your peace! and it should be your wisdom (what a statement!).

[6] Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips (as his friends have not kept silence, but have spoken, Job claims the right also to be heard!).

[7] Will you speak wickedly for God? and talk deceitfully for Him? (It is sad but true that the majority of those who stand behind pulpits "speak wickedly for God" and "talk deceitfully for Him." They do so because they substitute their own human reasoning for the Word of God.)

[8] Will you accept His person? will you contend for God? (Claiming that what you say is of God?)

9 Is it good that He should search you out? or as one man mocks another, do you so mock Him? (You may impose on a man by so acting, but you will not impose on God.)

10 He will surely reprove you, if you do secretly accept persons (curry favor!)**.

11 Shall not His excellency make you afraid? and His dread fall upon you? (God, Who is no respecter of persons, will hold you accountable for what you are now saying and doing.)

12 Your remembrances are like unto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay (you think what you are saying is of God, but in reality it is of human origin)**.

13 Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and let come on me what will (I don't know much, but you don't know anything)**.

JOB DEFENDS HIS INTEGRITY

14 Wherefore do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in my hand? (The appeal is now to God; but Job prefaces it by excusing his boldness.)

15 Though He kill me, yet will I trust in Him: but I will maintain my own ways before Him (a tremendous statement of Faith)**.

16 He also shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come before Him (meaning that these "friends" hold no salvation for him; as well, he states here that he is not a hypocrite, as they have contended)**.

17 Hear diligently my speech, and my declaration with your ears.

18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause; I know that I shall be justified (Faith is rising!)**.

JOB PRAYS TO THE LORD

19 Who is he who will plead with me? for now, if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the ghost (Job says that he has nothing to lose; he will make his case).

20 Only do not two things unto me: then will I not hide myself from You.

21 Withdraw Your hand far from me (take away the physical pain): and let not Your dread make me afraid (help me not to fear, and my greatest fear is that I have displeased You).

22 Then You call, and I will answer: or let me speak, and You answer me (Job is asking for an audience, irrespective of the outcome).

23 How many are my iniquities and sins? make me to know my transgression and my sin (these "friends" have claimed that I am a great sinner; I will only take Your Word for that, not theirs).

24 Wherefore hide You Your Face, and hold me for Your enemy? (Job believes that the Lord will vindicate him; but he asks if there is a present alienation, and desires to be made acquainted with the cause of it, if, in fact, it does exist.)

25 Will You break a leaf driven to and fro? and will You pursue the dry stubble? (Job compares himself to two of the weakest things in nature — a withered leaf and a morsel of dry stubble.)

26 For You write bitter things against me, and make me to possess the iniquities of my youth (in considering what the indictment against him might be, he can only suppose that these old and long-forsaken sins are being remembered and brought up against him).

27 You put my feet also in the stocks, and look narrowly unto all my paths; You set a print upon the heels of my feet (this was a figure of speech on Job's part, meaning that it seemed as if God had made him a captive to his terrible plight).

28 And he (Job), as a rotten thing, consumes, as a garment that is moth eaten (an allusion to the character of the disease from which he is suffering)**.

CHAPTER 14

(1520 B.C.)

JOB SPEAKS OF LIFE'S WOES

[1] Man who is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble (due to the Fall in the Garden of Eden by our original parents, this is true)**.

[2] He comes forth like a flower, and is cut down: he flees also as a shadow, and continues not (the first phrase is used quite frequently in Scripture [Ps. 103:15; Isa. 28:1, 4; James 1:10–11; I Pet. 1:24])**.

[3] And do You open Your eyes upon such an one, and bring me into judgment with You? (This question is actually the age-old question of man. Why would God, Who is able to create whatever He desires, go to such lengths and trouble to redeem "such an one"?)

[4] Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one. (This question and the answer direct themselves to the inability of man to save himself; therefore, Salvation had to be outside of man, and that it was, in Christ Jesus.)

[5] Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with You, You have appointed his bounds that he cannot pass (the life span of every individual is fixed by God; however, it can be cut short or prolonged, according to disobedience or obedience)**;

[6] Turn from him, that he may rest, till he shall accomplish, as an hireling, his day (the idea is, when his life span is over, he should have accomplished that which was intended; regrettably, only a precious few actually accomplish their appointed task)**.

[7] For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease (in this one Verse, we are told that even if man does fall on hard times, if he will believe God, the fallen tree can sprout and grow again).

8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground;

9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant (the water of the Word can bring it back).

10 But man dies, and wastes away: yes, man gives up the ghost, and where is he? (Before Christ, and even before the Law, the eternal abode of man was only dimly understood.)

11 As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decays and dries up:

12 So man lies down, and rises not: till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep (Job is not addressing himself to the Resurrection, but rather the brevity of this life).

13 O that You would hide me in the grave, that You would keep me secret, until Your wrath be past, that You would appoint me a set time, and remember me! (Due to what has happened to him, Job is confused here, and is asking for relief, even the relief of death.)

14 If a man die, shall he live again? all the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come (plainly, this Passage proclaims the coming Resurrection, although dimly understood; correct understanding would come only with Christ and the Truth He would ultimately give to the Apostle Paul [I Cor. 15:51–57]).

15 You shall call, and I will answer You; You will have a desire to the work of Your Hands (this one Passage tells us that the great Creation of God, as it regards man, will not be lost; that which the Lord originally intended will ultimately be carried out).

16 For now You number my steps: do You not watch over my sin? (The Lord minutely records and catalogs everything about man.)

17 My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and You sew up my iniquity (the transgression of man can be erased only by Faith in the shed Blood of Christ [Eph. 2:13–18]).

18 And surely the mountain falling come to nought, and the rock is removed out of his place.

19 The waters wear the stones: You wash away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth; and You destroy the hope of man (hopes which aren't anchored solidly in the Word of God).

20 You prevail for ever against him, and he passes: You change his countenance, and send him away (man cannot prevail against God, irrespective as to what he might do).

21 His sons come to honour, and he knows it not; and they are brought low, but he perceives it not of them (this Passage answers the question of whether the Saints of God in Heaven know what is transpiring with their loved ones on Earth; in effect, it says they know nothing of the things that happen on Earth; so this destroys the Catholic myth of praying to Saints in Heaven).

22 But his flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall mourn. (This statement is based on Job's present situation. Inspiration guarantees that these things were said, and by the ones to whom they are attributed. However, Inspiration does not guarantee that all that is said is true. In fact, virtually all that is said by the friends of Job would have to be concluded as being incorrect. Most of what Job says is true.)

CHAPTER 15

(1520 B.C.)

THE SECOND SPEECH OF ELIPHAZ

[1] Then answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

[2] Should a wise man utter vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind? (Eliphaz says here that everything that Job has said is nothing but wind.)

[3] Should he reason with unprofitable talk? or with speeches wherewith he can do no good?

[4] Yes, you cast off fear, and restrain prayer before God (Eliphaz now belittles Job's faith)**.

[5] For your mouth utters your iniquity, and you choose the tongue of the crafty (he is accusing Job now of being deceitful)**.

[6] Your own mouth condemns you, and not I: yes, your own lips testify against you (he is repeatedly condemning Job while claiming he isn't; the self-righteous enjoy putting words into the mouths of those whom they condemn)**.

[7] Are you the first man who was born? or were you made before the hills?

[8] Have you heard the secret of God? and do you restrain wisdom to yourself? ("Are you claiming to have an 'in' with God?")

[9] What do you know, that we don't know? what understanding do you have, which is not in us? (Eliphaz is plainly agitated at the statements made by Job.)

10 With us are both the grayheaded and very aged men, much elder than your father (he is here saying that these "friends" are wiser than Job).

11 Are the consolations of God small with you? is there any secret thing with you? (The man is claiming that they have been consoling Job, but that he doesn't seem to appreciate it.)

12 Why does your heart carry you away? and what do your eyes wink at (in other words, "Don't you see your true condition?"),

13 That you turn your spirit against God, and let such words go out of your mouth? (They never say to what particular words they object.)

14 What is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous? (In other words, Job's sins are so grievous that his punishment is just, or so they say!)

15 Behold, He (the Lord) puts no trust in His Saints; ye s, the heavens are not clean in His sight (the first phrase is untrue, while the second phrase is true; however, the heavens and the Earth are going to be cleansed [II Pet. 3:7–13]).

16 How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinks iniquity like water? (It cannot be doubted that Job is individually pointed at here, and not mankind in general. Eliphaz could not be more wrong.)

THE FACT THAT JOB IS SUFFERING JUDGMENT IS A SURE SIGN, SAYS ELIPHAZ, THAT HE MUST BE WICKED

17 I will show you, hear me; and that which I have seen I will declare (Eliphaz now proclaims his judgment upon Job);

18 Which wise men have told from their fathers, and have not hid it (however, this was worldly wisdom, and not wisdom from above [James 3:15]):

19 Unto whom alone the Earth was given, and no stranger passed among them (to dilute their worldly wisdom).

20 The wicked man travails with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor (clearly an overstatement of the truth).

21 A dreadful sound is in his ears: in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him (this is directed toward Job).

22 He believes not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword.

23 He wanders abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? he knows that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.

24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.

25 For he stretches out his hand against God, and strengthens himself against the Almighty (Job is accused of being against God).

26 He runs upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers:

27 Because he covers his face with his fatness, and makes collops of fat on his flanks.

28 And he dwells in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabits, which are ready to become heaps.

29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the Earth (the hypocrisy of Job is now being found out, according to Eliphaz!).

30 He shall not depart out of darkness; the flame shall dry up his branches, and by the breath of his mouth shall he go away (there is no hope for Job, says Eliphaz).

31 Let not him who is deceived trust in vanity: for vanity shall be his recompence (Job is deceived, says Eliphaz, and so all his trust and faith are of no consequence)**.

[32] It shall be accomplished before his time, and his branch shall not be green.

[33] He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive.

[34] For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the tabernacles of bribery (once again, Job is accused of being a hypocrite; some friends!)**.

[35] They conceive mischief, and bring forth vanity, and their belly prepares deceit (the Lord allowed the prattle of these "friends" to be included in the Sacred Text, even as wrong as it was, in order to show us that circumstances rarely present the true picture; understanding this, we had best withhold judgment)**.

CHAPTER 16

(1520 B.C.)

JOB'S REPLY TO ELIPHAZ

[1] Then Job answered and said,

[2] I have heard many such things: miserable comforters are you all (and so they were!).

[3] Shall vain words have an end? or what emboldens you that you answer? (Job was right; their words were "vain.")

[4] I also could speak as you do: if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and shake my head at you (you have accused me of wickedness, when there is much dirt in your house, as well!).

[5] But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips should asswage your grief (from what the Lord said about Job [42:7], there is every evidence, if the tables were reversed, that he would truly have comforted them).

[6] Though I speak, my grief is not asswaged: and though I forbear, what am I eased? (Speaking or silent, my grief is the same.)

[7] But now He (the Lord) has made me weary: You have made desolate all my company.

[8] And You have filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me: and my leanness rising up in me bears witness to my face.

[9] He (the Lord) tears me in His wrath, Who hates me: He gnashes upon me with His teeth; my enemy sharpens his eyes upon me (Job is incorrect in all of this; there was no wrath of God against Job, which he will ultimately see).

10 They (these friends and others) have gaped upon me with their mouth: they have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have gathered themselves together against me (which was true! These statements are very similar to some used about the Lord [Ps. 35:16; 37:12]).

11 God has delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked (this is only partially true).

12 I was at ease, but He (the Lord) has broken me asunder: He has also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me up for His mark (partially true!).

13 His archers compass me round about, He cleaves my reins asunder, and does not spare; He pours out my gall upon the ground.

14 He breaks me with breach upon breach, He runs upon me like a giant (while it was Satan who actually did these things, the Lord allowed him to do so; so, in essence, Job wasn't wrong in this particular statement).

JOB MAINTAINS HIS INNOCENCE

15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horn in the dust (he doesn't see any way out).

16 My face is foul with weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death (he thought he was dying);

17 Not for any injustice in my hands: also my prayer is pure (Job repudiates the charge of rapine and robbery which Eliphaz had brought against him [15:28, 34]; neither has he been guilty of hypocrisy).

18 O Earth, do not cover my blood, and let my cry have no place (after he is dead, he wants the Earth to cry out against the injustice done to him, typifying that of Abel [Gen. 4:10]).

19 Also now, behold, my witness is in Heaven, and my record is on high (believes that he will be vindicated, even if it's after his death).

20 My friends scorn me: but my eye pours out tears unto God (God Alone is his refuge).

21 O that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleads for his neighbour! (Job once again pleads for a true Mediator. That prayer will ultimately be answered in Christ.)

22 When a few years are come, then I shall go the way whence I shall not return (Job thinks he is dying).

CHAPTER 17

(1520 B.C.)

JOB APPEALS TO GOD

[1] My breath is corrupt, my days are extinct, the graves are ready for me.

[2] Are there not mockers with me? and does not my eye continue in their provocation? (The accusations of these "friends" were contributing as much as his physical disability toward Job's possible death. We as Believers should take a lesson from all of this.)

[3] Lay down now, put me in a surety with You; who is he who will strike hands with me? (In other words, "Lord, You are the only One to Whom I can look.")

[4] For You have hid their heart from understanding: therefore shall You not exalt them ("Lord, I know that You will not honor their words")**.

[5] He who speaks flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail (these "friends" will pay for what they have done)**.

[6] He has made me also a byword of the people; and aforetime I was as a tabret (in other words, Job had become a joke in the entirety of that part of the world)**.

[7] My eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, and all my members are as a shadow ("I cannot defend myself!")**.

[8] Upright men shall be astonied at this, and the innocent shall stir up himself against the hypocrite. (Job is saying that even upright men, upon viewing his terrible plight, will be astonished and will surely think him guilty. Even the innocent [little children] will think he is a hypocrite. Perhaps this was the heaviest load of all to bear.)

9 The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he who has clean hands shall be stronger and stronger. (These words are uttered by Faith. Job will not allow these individuals, whoever they might be, to deter him from his hold on God. In fact, the accusations will only make his Faith stronger.)

10 But as for you all, do you return, and come now: for I cannot find one wise man among you (in effect, he is saying that these "friends" can repeat their arguments as often as they wish; even so, not a wise word has yet been uttered, because it was not the Word of God)**.

11 My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even the thoughts of my heart ("I really don't care what others say anymore")**.

12 They change the night into day: the light is short because of darkness (doubt, unbelief, accusations, and condemnation, as offered by these "friends," actually do the work of Satan)**.

13 If I wait, the grave is my house: I have made my bed in the darkness. (He is saying that if he listens to these people, their words will kill him. Are our words to others a blessing or a curse?)

14 I have said to corruption, You are my father: to the worm, You are my mother, and my sister (once again, he is saying that he is ready to die)**.

15 And where is now my hope? as for my hope, who shall see it? (His "friends" are saying that he has no hope in God. There is no greater sin that a person can commit than the sin of denying the hope of the Word of God to any individual.)

16 They shall go down to the bars of the pit, when our rest together is in the dust (they will not be satisfied until they have killed me)**.

CHAPTER 18

(1520 B.C.)

BILDAD'S SECOND SPEECH

1 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long will it be ere you make an end of words? mark, and afterwards we will speak (in other words, "What you say is of no consequence, and what we say is the only wisdom being spoken here").

3 Wherefore are we counted as beasts, and reputed vile in your sight? (Job had not said that these "friends" were "unclean." Bildad, therefore, misrepresents him. But what else is new!)

4 He tears himself in his anger: shall the Earth be forsaken for you? and shall the rock be removed out of his place? (In 16:9, Job complained that God was tearing him in His anger. Bildad says that Job was tearing himself in his bad temper, and asked him if he expected natural and physical laws to be convulsed in support of his pretended innocency?)

5 Yes, the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine (Bildad is saying, "Job, you are wicked, and your pretended light shall be extinguished").

6 The light shall be dark in his tabernacle, and his candle shall be put out with him (no hope for Job, says Bildad).

7 The steps of his strength shall be straitened, and his own counsel shall cast him down (Job is very unwise by not heeding our counsel).

8 For he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he walks upon a snare.

9 The gin shall take him by the heel, and the robber shall prevail against him (and why not! Considering that he is so wicked!).

[10] The snare is laid for him in the ground, and a trap for him in the way.

[11] Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and shall drive him to his feet.

[12] His strength shall be hungerbitten, and destruction shall be ready at his side.

[13] It shall devour the strength of his skin: even the firstborn of death shall devour his strength (imagine how Job must have felt listening to this!).

[14] His confidence shall be rooted out of his tabernacle, and it shall bring him to the king of terrors (in other words, he will die lost).

[15] It shall dwell in his tabernacle, because it is none of his: brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.

[16] His roots shall be dried up beneath, and above shall his branch be cut off.

[17] His remembrance shall perish from the Earth, and he shall have no name in the street. (Job not only has not been forgotten, but, to the contrary. Few men on the face of the Earth, and through all time, have been remembered as Job is remembered, because he placed his trust and Faith in God, and not in man. No name? To the contrary, Job's name is famous, because it is linked to patience, faith, and trust in God. He is looked to as an example by every single person who has ever had to undergo a trial of any nature — and that includes the entirety of the human race.)

[18] He shall be driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world.

[19] He shall neither have son nor nephew among his people, nor any remaining in his dwellings (quite the contrary; the Lord gave Job "seven more sons and three more daughters" [42:13]).

20 They who come after him shall be astonied at his day, as they who went before were affrighted (Job will be a byword, so Bildad says; however, it was the opposite!).

21 Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked, and this is the place of him who knows not God. (How difficult it must have been for Job, especially in his weakened condition, to hear his "friend" say to him that he did not know God. The only thing that a man really has is his faith. And now all will deny that faith. Thankfully, even though they tried, Job never lost his Faith.)

CHAPTER 19

(1520 B.C.)

JOB'S REPLY

[1] Then Job answered and said,

[2] How long will you vex my soul, and break me in pieces with words? (This statement implies that the accusations and the condemnation of his "friends" only added to his hurt.)

[3] These ten times have you reproached me: you are not ashamed that you make yourselves strange to me (this must be a figurative expression meaning a number of times, for literally they have not answered him ten times)**.

[4] And be it indeed that I have erred, my error remains with myself (Job at no time maintains his impeccability)**.

[5] If indeed you will magnify yourselves against me, and plead against me my reproach:

[6] Know now that God has overthrown me, and has compassed me with His net (Bildad insinuates that Job has fallen into his own snare [18:7–9]; Job replies that the snare in which he is taken is from God; and in that he was right)**.

[7] Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard: I cry aloud, but there is no judgment (up to now, all Job's appeals to God have elicited no reply from Him)**.

[8] He has fenced up my way that I cannot pass, and He has set darkness in my paths (nothing vexes him so much as his inability to understand why he is so afflicted)**.

9 He has stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head (that the Lord did, but in order to give him something better)**.

10 He has destroyed me on every side, and I am gone: and my hope has He removed like a tree (but yet, Job has recently said, "For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again" [14:7])**.

11 He has also kindled His wrath against me, and He counts me unto Him as one of His enemies (the actual afflictions take second place to the cause of why he is afflicted, which he thinks is the wrath of God; it isn't!)**.

12 His troops come together, and raise up their way against me, and encamp round about my tabernacle.

13 He has put my brethren far from me, and my acquaintance are verily estranged from me (Job had actual "brothers" [42:11], who forsook him and "dealt deceitfully" with him [6:15] during the time of his adversity)**.

14 My kinsfolk have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me (no one wanted to have anything to do with him, neither his relatives, nor even his friends; in their thinking he was surely under the judgment of God and, consequently, had done terrible things; therefore, they too joined in with accusations)**.

15 They who dwell in my house, and my maids, count me for a stranger: I am an alien in their sight (all, his kinfolk and even his servants, condemned him; there was not one person who stood up for him except God; what a lesson for us when we begin to judge others, especially of things that we know little or nothing about)**.

16 I called my servant, and he gave me no answer; I intreated him with my mouth (in eastern culture, this would have been the insult of all insults)**.

17 My breath is strange to my wife, though I intreated for the children's sake of my own body (his own wife turned against him; the last phrase either speaks of his children who are now dead, or else, as some Scholars claim, his personal brothers and sisters, who also turned against him).

18 Yes, young children despised me; I arose, and they spoke against me (young children, no doubt, had heard their parents speak against Job, so they followed suit).

19 All my inward friends abhorred me: and they whom I loved are turned against me (the rejection was total!).

20 My bone cleaves to my skin and to my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth (so far, he has escaped death!).

JOB APPEALS FOR PITY

21 Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O you my friends; for the Hand of God has touched me (this pathetic appeal should have elicited sympathy, but it did not).

22 Why do you persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh? ("Isn't my condition enough punishment? Why do you want to persecute me more?")

23 Oh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book! (Job would have his prayer answered. The Book of Job, and all of its detail that would give future generations untold direction and counsel, would be the result of his prayer.)

24 That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock forever! (Even greater than that! They were placed as a part of the Word of God.)

JOB REAFFIRMS HIS FAITH

25 For I know that my Redeemer lives, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the Earth (even though Job would not have understood the term, "the Lord Jesus Christ," actually, this is the One of Whom he was speaking; he knew the Redeemer was coming, even though he knew nothing about particulars):

26 And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God (Job portrays here the fact of the Resurrection and the glorified body; this proves that God had made to primitive man a wonderfully full revelation of some New Testament Truth):

27 Whom I shall see for myself, and my eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me ("not by proxy, or merely through faith, or in a vision, but really, actually, I shall see Him for myself"; once again, Job proclaims the Resurrection).

28 But you should say, Why persecute we him, seeing the root of the matter is found in me? (In other words, Job tells these "friends" that they had better be careful as to what they say about him.)

29 Be you afraid of the sword: for wrath brings the punishments of the sword, that you may know there is a judgment (the sword of God's justice will assuredly smite you, if you persecute an innocent man).

CHAPTER 20

(1520 B.C.)

ZOPHAR'S SECOND SPEECH

[1] Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

[2] Therefore do my thoughts cause me to answer, and for this I make haste (he brushes aside Job's warnings concerning judgment, and hastens to answer, again with venom).

[3] I have heard the check of my reproach, and the spirit of my understanding causes me to answer (in his self-righteousness, he says that he admits he has reproached Job, but not nearly to the degree that he should have been reproached; also, because he has great understanding of these matters, he has no choice but to answer).

[4] Know you not this of old, since man was placed upon Earth,

[5] That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment? (So he continues to refer to Job as a "hypocrite.")

[6] Though his excellency mount up to the heavens, and his head reach unto the clouds;

[7] Yet he shall perish for ever like his own dung: they which have seen him shall say, Where is he? (Zophar insults Job, and further says that future generations will ask, "What has become of him?")

[8] He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found: yes, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night.

[9] The eye also which saw him shall see him no more; neither shall his place any more behold him.

10 His children shall seek to please the poor, and his hands shall restore their goods (he now accuses Job of having gained his former riches by oppressing the poor).

11 His bones are full of the sin of his youth, which shall lie down with him in the dust.

12 Though wickedness be sweet in his mouth, though he hide it under his tongue;

13 Though he spare it, and forsake it not; but keep it still within his mouth (even though he won't admit to evil, Job, Zophar says, is full of evil):

14 Yet his meat in his bowels is turned, it is the gall of asps within him (Job is now referred to as a snake, and a poisonous one at that).

15 He has swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again: God shall cast them out of his belly (the wicked man shall be made to disgorge his ill-gotten gains, which he claims that Job has had to do).

16 He shall suck the poison of asps: the viper's tongue shall kill him (Satan will take him out).

17 He shall not see the rivers, the floods, the brooks of honey and butter (he may have once seen such, says Zophar, but he will see it no more).

18 That which he laboured for shall he restore, and shall not swallow it down: according to his substance shall the restitution be, and he shall not rejoice therein.

19 Because he has oppressed and has forsaken the poor; because he has violently taken away an house which he built not (once again, Job is accused of having gained his former riches by deceit and fraud, and especially by oppressing the poor);

20 Surely he shall not feel quietness in his belly, he shall not save of that which he desired (Job was never satisfied, says Zophar, in that he continued to oppress the poor long after he was extremely wealthy).

[21] There shall none of his meat be left; therefore shall no man look for his goods (in other words, the Lord has taken everything away because of his terrible sin).

[22] In the fulness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits: every hand of the wicked shall come upon him (because he is so wicked, says Zophar!).

[23] When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall rain it upon him while he is eating (many, like Zophar, seem to enjoy calling down the wrath of God on others).

[24] He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of steel shall strike him through.

[25] It is drawn, and comes out of the body; yes, the glittering sword comes out of his gall: terrors are upon him.

[26] All darkness shall be hid in his secret places: a fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle (anyone around him is also going to suffer judgment).

[27] The Heaven shall reveal his iniquity; and the Earth shall rise up against him (actually, the very opposite happened; Heaven revealed his Righteousness, and men once again sought his help and advice).

[28] The increase of his house shall depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath (once again, the very opposite happened!).

[29] This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage appointed unto him by God. (Zophar's arguments seemed plausible, enough so that the entirety of all who knew Job agreed with this summation and, therefore, soundly condemned Job themselves. Once again, it shows that the majority is not always right — in fact, they seldom are.)

CHAPTER 21

(1520 B.C.)

JOB'S REPLY TO ZOPHAR

[1] But Job answered and said,

[2] Hear diligently my speech, and let this be your consolations.

[3] Suffer me that I may speak; and after that I have spoken, mock on ("hear what I have to say and, if you do not agree, 'mock on'"; and that's exactly what they did)**.

[4] As for me, is my complaint to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be troubled? ("I'm not looking to man," says Job, "but rather to God!")

[5] Mark me, and be astonished, and lay your hand upon your mouth (in other words, "hear me out")**.

[6] Even when I remember I am afraid, and trembling takes hold on my flesh ("when I think of what has happened to me, I tremble with fear")**.

[7] Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yes, are mighty in power? (Job says that sometimes the wicked live as long as the righteous, and are mighty in power, as well. So the argument of his "friends" doesn't hold water.)

[8] Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes (oftentimes the children of the wicked are blessed, at least with worldly goods)**.

[9] Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the rod of God upon them (and that is true)**.

10 Their bull genders, and fails not; their cow calves, and casts not her calf.

11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.

12 They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the organ.

13 They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave (they die without suffering from any prolonged or severe illness).

14 Therefore they say unto God, Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of Your ways (this pretty well characterizes the attitude of most of the world; hundreds of millions are steeped in heathenistic idolatry; other hundreds of millions know about God, but do not want any part of Him).

15 What is the Almighty, that we should serve Him? and what profit should we have, if we pray unto Him? (The love of money being the root of all evil [I Tim. 6:10], unconverted man only thinks in terms of "profit." Not being spiritually minded, he has no idea as to the "profit" found in serving God and praying unto Him. In fact, this is the greatest "profit" of all.)

16 Lo, their good is not in their hand: the counsel of the wicked is far from me (Job says that the wicked sometimes prosper without being judged by God in this life any more than the righteous; so the reasoning that he was a wicked man because of suffering the judgments of the wicked prove nothing in his case).

17 How oft is the candle of the wicked put out! and how oft comes their destruction upon them! God distributes sorrows in His anger (this is actually a question; God at times does distribute sorrow upon the wicked; however, only at times; the real sorrow comes after death, when Hell awaits them, and from that there will be no reprieve).

18 They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm carries away.

19 God lays up His iniquity for his children: He rewards him (with evil), and he shall know it. ("God," Job's opponents may say, "punishes the wicked through their children." Job does not deny that the Lord may do so, but suggests a better course in the latter phrase. Judgment at times is sent by the Lord on the wicked; oftentimes, in fact!)

20 His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty (and so many do).

21 For what pleasure has he in his house after him, when the number of his months is cut off in the midst? (The wicked, normally, little care about the fate of their children.)

22 Shall any teach God knowledge? seeing He judges those who are high (no matter how powerful a man may be on this Earth, God is above him).

23 One dies in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet.

24 His breasts are full of milk, and his bones are moistened with marrow (continuing to speak of the wicked).

25 And another dies in the bitterness of his soul, and never eats with pleasure (others have to suffer terribly before death comes to them, and their spirit is embittered by their misfortunes).

26 They shall lie down alike in the dust, and the worms shall cover them (however different the circumstances of their lives, men are alike in their death; all die, and become the prey of worms).

JOB APPEALS TO HIS FRIENDS TO CONSIDER WHAT THEY SAY

27 Behold, I know your thoughts, and the devices which you wrongfully imagine against me ("I know," Job says, "what you think of me").

28 For you say, Where is the house of the prince? and where are the dwelling places of the wicked? (The barb is directed against Job.)

[29] Have you not asked them who go by the way? and do you not know their tokens (if they will admit it, they will have to agree that Job is right regarding what he has said about the wicked),

[30] That the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction? they shall be brought forth to the day of wrath (irrespective as to what type of life the wicked may enjoy on this Earth, destruction in eternity awaits them, unless they get right with God).

[31] Who shall declare his way to his face? and who shall repay him what he has done? (Being castigated neither by God nor man, the wicked, at times, seem to enjoy complete impunity.)

[32] Yet shall he be brought to the grave, and shall remain in the tomb.

[33] The clods of the valley shall be sweet unto him, and every man shall draw after him, as there are innumerable before him (they reckon without eternity and Heaven or Hell).

[34] How then comfort you me in vain, seeing in your answers there remain falsehood? (Your position, that the Godly always prosper, while the wicked always are afflicted and brought low, by experience, in other words by your own reckoning, proves false.)

CHAPTER 22

(1520 B.C.)

ELIPHAZ'S THIRD SPEECH

[1] Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

[2] Can a man be profitable unto God, as he who is wise may be profitable unto himself? (Eliphaz, annoyed by the introduction of inconvenient facts, becomes abusive and, whereas in his first two speeches he only hinted at Job's alleged evil conduct, in this, his last speech, he directly accuses Job of wickedness and wrongdoing.)

[3] Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that you are righteous? or is it gain to Him, that you make your ways perfect? (In reply to Job's facts, Eliphaz advances the theory that man's goodness does not add to, nor man's badness take from, God's economy; therefore, God does not prosper some and afflict others for His Own advantage. The cause, therefore, of such action must be found in men themselves, so Job's calamities clearly prove his guilt.)

[4] Will He reprove you for fear of you? will He enter with you into judgment? (In other words, the fact of your reproof is sure evidence of the fact of your guilt.)

[5] Is not your wickedness great? and your iniquities infinite?

[6] For you have taken a pledge from your brother for nought, and stripped the naked of their clothing.

[7] You have not given water to the weary to drink, and you have withheld bread from the hungry (he now openly accuses Job of the worst types of sin).

8 But as for the mighty man, he had the Earth; and the honourable man dwelt in it (Job, this man says, favors the mighty and oppresses the poor).

9 You have sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken (when "friends" conduct themselves in this fashion, the truth is, this has been in their hearts all along).

10 Therefore snares are round about you, and sudden fear troubles you;

11 Or darkness, that you cannot see; and abundance of waters cover you (judgment covers you, and rightly so!).

12 Is not God in the height of Heaven? and behold the height of the stars, how high they are! (Eliphaz now brings God into his denunciation of Job.)

13 And you say, How does God know? can He judge through the dark cloud? (Job had never said any such thing, but it suits Eliphaz' purpose to malign and misrepresent Job.)

14 Thick clouds are a covering to Him, that He sees not; and He walks in the circuit of Heaven.

15 Have you marked the old way which wicked men have trod? (Now Eliphaz puts Job into the seed of Cain before the Flood, who "corrupted their way" [Gen. 6:12].)

16 Which were cut down out of time, whose foundation was overflown with a flood (Noah's flood)**:

17 Which said unto God, Depart from us: and what can the Almighty do for them? (Eliphaz places Job among the most evil, whom God had to destroy with a flood.)

18 Yet He filled their houses with good things: but the counsel of the wicked is far from me ("even though those particular wicked prospered," Eliphaz says, "I will not have any part with them," thereby holding himself up as pious).

19 The righteous see it, and are glad: and the innocent laugh them to scorn (in other words, "it is righteous of me to condemn you!").

20 Whereas our substance is not cut down, but the remnant of them the fire consumes ("I am blessed," Eliphaz says, "and you are severely cursed, which proves my statements").

JOB IS FURTHER INSULTED

21 Acquaint now yourself with Him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto you (Eliphaz implores Job now to repent).

22 Receive, I pray you, the Law from His Mouth, and lay up His Words in your heart (for Job to be insulted by Eliphaz in this manner must have been a bitter pill to swallow).

23 If you return to the Almighty, you shall be built up, you shall put away iniquity far from your tabernacles.

24 Then shall you lay up gold as dust, and the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks ("you'll get rich again," Eliphaz says, "if you will only repent"; so, judgment was equated with poverty, while blessing was equated with riches).

25 Yes, the Almighty shall be your defence, and you shall have plenty of silver ("reduced to poverty," Eliphaz says, "proves, Job, that God is against you").

26 For then shall you have your delight in the Almighty, and shall lift up your face unto God (it's interesting that Eliphaz placed the entirety of his theology on riches and poverty; how so much like some presently).

27 You shall make your prayer unto Him, and He shall hear you, and you shall pay your vows ("if you'll repent, God will hear you").

28 You shall also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto you: and the light shall shine upon your ways.

29 When men are cast down, then you shall say, There is lifting up; and He shall save the humble person (continuing to imply that Job has oppressed the poor).

30 He shall deliver the island of the innocent: and it is delivered by the pureness of your hands (little did Eliphaz realize that shortly Job would deliver these "friends" from the wrath of God by his intercession [42:7–9]).

CHAPTER 23

(1520 B.C.)

JOB'S REPLY TO ELIPHAZ

[1] Then Job answered and said,

[2] Even today is my complaint bitter: my stroke is heavier than my groaning (Job's situation at present is so acute, and seemingly growing worse by the moment, that if God doesn't do something quickly, he cannot last much longer).

[3] Oh that I knew where I might find Him! that I might come even to His Seat! (There is despair in these words. Job knows now that he will receive no help from his "friends," or even his loved ones. The only help that he will receive will come from God. Therefore, he longs for an audience.)

[4] I would order my cause before Him, and fill my mouth with arguments. (A short time later, the Lord will give Job exactly that which he has requested. However, his conduct will be far different from what he had imagined. Actually he will little "order his cause before Him.")

[5] I would know the Words which He would answer me, and understand what He would say unto me (actually, the words that the Lord will say will be far beyond Job's ability to grasp or understand; however, the "words" will be words of comfort, strength, and deliverance, totally different from his "friends").

[6] Will He plead against me with His great Power? No; but He would put strength in me (in fact, God will do exactly what Job had prophesied).

[7] There the righteous might dispute with Him; so should I be delivered forever from my Judge (Job is confident that, if he can bring his cause before God, he will obtain an acquittal and deliverance).

GOD KNOWS MAN'S WAYS

[8] Behold, I go forward, but He is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive Him:

[9] On the left hand, where He does work, but I cannot behold Him; He hides Himself on the right hand, that I cannot see Him (for every Believer, there are times when it seems that God has hidden Himself from us)**:

[10] But He knows the way that I take: when He has tried me, I shall come forth as gold. (This is one of the greatest statements made in the entirety of the Word of God. In effect, Job is saying, "Even though I cannot 'perceive Him,' and it seems like He 'hides Himself,' still, He knows exactly what is happening to me and, when this trial is over, I shall come forth as gold!")

[11] My foot has held His Steps, His Way have I kept, and not declined (Job continues to maintain his rightful direction, and rightly so!).

[12] Neither have I gone back from the Commandment of His lips; I have esteemed the Words of His mouth more than my necessary food (to Job, the most important thing in the world was the "Commandment of the Lord"; so there you have it, "His Will and His Word").

[13] But He is in one Mind, and who can turn Him? and what His Soul desires, even that He does (in other words, Job is saying he is not quite certain as to what the Lord is going to do with him, but he knows, whatever it is, he will "come forth as gold"; Job is right!).

[14] For He performs the thing that is appointed for me: and many such things are with Him (He will assuredly accomplish whatever He has decreed for me).

[15] Therefore am I troubled at His Presence: when I consider, I am afraid of Him (Job means that the fear of an Eternal Being Who has an Eternal Plan, which we cannot doubt, is wise, even though it is inscrutable to us; it is fear mingled with confidence, as we go into the future).

16 For God makes my heart soft, and the Almighty troubles me ("due to what has happened to me, I fear the Lord now more than ever"):

17 Because I was not cut off before the darkness, neither has He covered the darkness from my face (Job doesn't understand the severity of this trial, and no wonder!).

CHAPTER 24

(1520 B.C.)

JOB'S COMPLAINTS

[1] Why, seeing times are not hidden from the Almighty, do they who know Him not see His days? (To make the language more clear to us, Job is asking the question as to why the Almighty does not have set times to judge, or why His followers often do not see His interventions.)

[2] Some remove the landmarks; they violently take away flocks, and feed thereof.

[3] They drive away the ass of the fatherless, they take the widow's ox for a pledge.

[4] They turn the needy out of the way: the poor of the Earth hide themselves together.

[5] Behold, as wild asses in the desert, go they forth to their work; rising betimes for a prey: the wilderness yields food for them and for their children.

[6] They reap every one his corn in the field: and they gather the vintage of the wicked.

[7] They cause the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold.

[8] They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for want of a shelter.

[9] They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor.

10 They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the sheaf from the hungry;

11 Which make oil within their walls, and tread their winepresses, and suffer thirst.

12 Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded cries out: yet God lays not folly to them (this means that God, at times, does not seem to punish wickedness quickly; and yet, God's Judgment will ultimately come for those who persist in their wickedness; it may be in this life or the next life, but come it will).

13 They are of those who rebel against the light; they know not the ways thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof (they will not know, will not have anything to do with, the law of moral restraint).

14 The murderer rising with the light kills the poor and needy, and in the night is as a thief.

15 The eye also of the adulterer waits for the twilight, saying, No eye shall see me: and disguises his face.

16 In the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked for themselves in the daytime: they know not the light (they have no desire to know the Way of the Lord).

GOD'S PUNISHMENT OF THE WICKED IS SOMETIMES DEFERRED

17 For the morning is to them even as the shadow of death: if one know them, they are in the terrors of the shadow of death (they tempt death!).

18 He is swift as the waters; their portion is cursed in the Earth: he beholds not the way of the vineyards.

19 Drought and heat consume the snow waters: so does the grave those which have sinned.

20 The womb shall forget him; the worm shall feed sweetly on him; he shall be no more remembered; and wickedness shall be broken as a tree (wickedness may thrive for a season, but ultimately it will be called to account).

21 He evil entreats the barren who bears not: and does not good to the widow (which, in that culture, was reprehensible).

22 He draws also the mighty with his power: he rises up, and no man is sure of life (the wicked, at times, seem to overcome all obstacles).

23 Though it be given him to be in safety, whereon he rests; yet His (God's) eyes are upon their ways (Job is saying that at times it seems like even the most wicked are in safety, and they rest in that safety; he then says that it seems that God for a time watches the cruelties of oppressors without interference; in other words, He does not immediately punish their wicked conduct).

24 They are exalted for a little while, but are gone and brought low; they are taken out of the way as all other, and cut off as the tops of the ears of corn (this means that many of the wicked live out their lives seemingly experiencing no interference from God, and even die as the righteous do — they die a natural death).

25 And if it be not so now, who will make me a liar, and make my speech nothing worth? (Job is saying that his words are true, and that even his three friends know it. In fact, Job's statements are correct. God will not contradict him. But, at last, when He does appear, He will contradict Job's three "friends."

God deals with each person on an individual basis, be they righteous or unrighteous. In effect, the Lord tells us that it is not our business how He deals with others.)

CHAPTER 25

(1520 B.C.)

BILDAD'S THIRD SPEECH

[1] Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

[2] Dominion and fear are with Him, He makes peace in His High Places (the idea is, Bildad is saying that Job cannot hope to reach God, considering who Job is, and considering Who God is).

[3] Is there any number of His armies? and upon whom does not His light arise?

[4] How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean who is born of a woman? (By Faith in God, which Job surely evidenced, a man could be justified, but which Bildad evidently didn't believe.)

[5] Behold even to the moon, and it shines not; yes, the stars are not pure in His sight.

[6] How much less man, that is a worm? and the son of man, which is a worm? (Job, I'm sure, gets the point. He is being referred to by Bildad as a "worm.")

CHAPTER 26

(1520 B.C.)

JOB'S REPLY

1 But Job answered and said,

2 How have you helped him who is without power? how do you save the arm that has no strength?

3 How have you counseled him who has no wisdom? and how have you plentifully declared the thing as it is? (Job is using irony. He rebukes the worthlessness of Bildad's human reasoning. In fact, all human reasoning, as it regards the Lord and His Work, is worthless.)

4 To whom have you uttered words? and whose spirit came from you? (The facts are that there is no inspiration on any words that come from man, even though so intellectual or lofty, unless they come from the Word of God. And, to be sure, the words of Bildad, and the other "friends" as well, didn't come from God, but rather out of their own minds, as does so much presently.)

5 Dead things are formed from under the waters, and the inhabitants thereof (the "dead things" here addressed refer to the Rephaim, which was the result of the union of fallen angels and women [Gen. 6:4]).

6 Hell is naked before Him, and destruction has no covering (whereas the statements of Bildad and the other "friends" were not inspired, these particular statements concerning God, as given by Job, definitely are inspired).

7 He stretches out the north over the empty place, and hangs the Earth upon nothing (this means that it is the Power of God, evidenced in His fixed laws, which upholds the Earth, and that alone).

8 He binds up the waters in His thick clouds, and the cloud is not rent under them. (Clouds have no texture, but yet they hold great volumes of water. How? By the Power of God, once again, evidenced in fixed laws.)

9 He holds back the face of His Throne, and spreads His cloud upon it (to where that man can only fathom a few of these laws; the evidence is, in the coming Kingdom Age, all of God's laws of creation will be revealed [Isa. 11:9–19]).

10 He has compassed the waters with bounds, until the day and night come to an end (speaks of the firmament [Gen. 1:6]).

11 The pillars of Heaven tremble and are astonished at His reproof (great mountains tremble at His Presence [Ex. 20:18]).

12 He divides the sea with His Power, and by His understanding He smites through the proud (fixes the bounds of the sea).

13 By His Spirit He has garnished the heavens; His Hand has formed the crooked serpent (should be translated, "His hand has pierced the swift serpent," which refers to the defeat of Satan at the Cross, although that was then yet future; however, so sure was this coming event, that the Lord could speak of it in the past tense).

14 Lo, these are parts of His Ways: but how little a portion is heard of Him? but the thunder of His Power who can understand? (Job implies that he has not enumerated one-half of God's great Works — he has just hinted at them.)

CHAPTER 27

(1520 B.C.)

JOB SUMS UP HIS SITUATION

[1] Moreover Job continued his parable, and said (the word "parable," as used here, refers to a comparison of one thing with another, thereby making it simpler to understand),

[2] As God lives, Who has taken away my judgment; and the Almighty, Who has vexed my soul (which is obvious, but yet Job still doesn't know the reason);

[3] All the while my breath is in me, and the Spirit of God is in my nostrils (despite his calamity, he is still alive and the Spirit of God is still in him; he will now give a ringing defense of his own position);

[4] My lips shall not speak wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit (he maintains his correctness of position, even from the beginning; when the Lord did finally appear, He did not contradict Job's statement).

[5] God forbid that I should justify you: till I die I will not remove my integrity from me (the certainty of a position, irrespective of circumstances, can be maintained only if it is fully based on the Word of God).

[6] My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go: my heart shall not reproach me so long as I live (Job says to his "friends" that they have reproached him, but his heart hasn't).

[7] Let my enemy be as the wicked, and he who rises up against me as the unrighteous (this is a bold statement, but Job is right; the truth of the matter is that the three "friends" were the wicked and, therefore, unrighteous).

THE HOPELESSNESS OF THE HYPOCRITE

[8] For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he has gained, when God takes away his soul? ("What shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" [Mk. 8:36].)

[9] Will God hear his cry when trouble comes upon him? (Only if he truly repents!)

[10] Will he delight himself in the Almighty? w ill he always call upon God? (Hypocrisy alienates God from us, and alienates us from God. Such cannot have "delight in the Almighty.")

[11] I will teach you by the Hand of God: that which is with the Almighty will I not conceal (Job claims his words now are inspired of the Lord).

[12] Behold, all you yourselves have seen it; why then are you thus altogether vain? (Therefore, his "friends" should know better.)

[13] This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, which they shall receive of the Almighty (those who oppose the Lord will ultimately be judged).

[14] If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword: and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread. (Some claim that these Passages contradict what Job said in Chapter 24. They do not! Chapter 24 proclaims what it often looks like outwardly regarding the wicked. Chapter 27 tells us what is really happening.)

[15] Those who remain of him shall be buried in death: and his widows shall not weep (forgotten in death).

[16] Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

[17] He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver (a perfect example is the blessing of the United States versus nations of heathenism).

18 He builds his house as a moth, and as a booth that the keeper makes (a house that will not stand, despite all the effort put into such).

19 The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered: he opens his eyes, and he is not (riches flee away much faster than they come).

20 Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest steals him away in the night (this is what is really going on in the heart of the unbeliever who has set himself against God).

21 The east wind carries him away, and he departs: and as a storm hurls him out of his place (he has no protection from calamities, for the Lord is not his Father).

22 For God shall cast upon him, and not spare: he would fain flee out of His Hand (he will not be able to escape God).

23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place (the greed that got his riches is also in the hearts of others who will rejoice at his downfall, which happens constantly).

CHAPTER 28

(1520 B.C.)

THE FEAR OF THE LORD IS TRUE WISDOM

[1] Surely there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they fine it.

[2] Iron is taken out of the Earth, and brass is molten out of the stone (however, the wisdom of God cannot be found in this manner).

[3] He sets an end to darkness, and searches out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death (men mine for precious metals both day and night; if they would do so for such, surely we should be as diligent to find the things of the Lord, which can only be found in His Word).

[4] The flood breaks out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men (the miner goes to great lengths to find precious metals; likewise, we should do no less in searching out the things of God).

[5] As for the earth, out of it comes bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire (fire is used to separate the gold from other metals; likewise, the fire of the Holy Spirit is used to burn the chaff out of our lives [Mat. 3:11–12]).

[6] The stones of it are the place of sapphires: and it has dust of gold (for those who ardently seek the Lord, they will find spiritual sapphires and spiritual gold).

[7] There is a path which no fowl knows, and which the vulture's eye has not seen (this is the "path of life," which demons cannot penetrate [Ps. 16:11])**:

8 The lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it (the one who comes as a "roaring lion," namely Satan, will not be able to trod it or pass by it; this is "the secret place of the Most High" [Ps. 91:1]).

9 He (man) puts forth his hand upon the rock; he overturns the mountains by the roots.

10 He cuts out rivers among the rocks; and his eye sees every precious thing.

11 He binds the floods from overflowing; and the thing that is hid brings he forth to light (all of this in an effort to find precious metals).

12 But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding? (As clever as man is in bringing to the light the wealth hidden in the darkness of the mine, he fails altogether to find out the place of wisdom, because the Wisdom of God cannot be found out by such methods.)

13 Man knows not the price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living (the real value of Heavenly Wisdom cannot be estimated in terms of ordinary human calculations; in fact, a person is not truly educated until he is first educated in the Bible).

14 The depth says, It is not in me: and the sea says, It is not with me.

15 It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.

16 It (wisdom) cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.

17 The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold (the proper understanding of the Word of God is of far greater value than all gold, silver, and jewels).

18 No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.

20 Whence then comes wisdom? and where is the place of understanding? (It is found only in the Word of God!)

21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the air (human intelligence cannot come by this wisdom; it is revealed by the Spirit [I Cor. 2:7–12]).

22 Destruction and death say, We have heard the fame thereof without ears (Heavenly Wisdom, i.e., "the Word of God," alone answers the questions of death and destruction).

23 God understands the way thereof, and He knows the place thereof (God alone understands what true wisdom is, and it is found in His Word).

24 For He looks to the ends of the Earth, and sees under the whole heaven (God is Omniscient, meaning that He knows everything)**;

25 To make the weight for the winds; and He weighs the waters by measure (all according to the laws of creation, which He has made, and, to be sure, everything functions according to those laws).

26 When He made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder (means that God placed the fall of rain under fixed and unalterable laws)**:

27 Then did he see it, and declare it; he prepared it, yes, and searched it out (God foresaw all that was necessary to maintain His universe in perfect order).

28 And unto man He said, Behold, and fear of the LORD, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding (no amount of intelligence, no amount of cleverness, or of information or knowledge, or of worldly or scientific wisdom, will be of any true avail to man, unless he starts with this “beginning” [Ps. 111:10; Prov. 1:7])*.

CHAPTER 29

(1520 B.C.)

JOB SPEAKS OF HIS LIFE BEFORE THE TRIAL

[1] Moreover Job continued his parable, and said,

[2] Oh that I were as in months past, as in the days when God preserved me (Job had yet to learn that "self" must die, whether it be prosperous self, afflicted self, or innocent self, and that he had to be brought to abhor himself, whether innocent or guilty; entrance into the life more abundant can only be experienced when religious self is as heartily abhorred as irreligious self)**;

[3] When His candle shined upon my head, and when by His light I walked through darkness (there is no light other than the Gospel of Jesus Christ; all else is darkness)**;

[4] As I was in the days of my youth, when the secret of God was upon my tabernacle (the "secret of God" was the "light of God," which was the "Word of God," which was passed down then by word of mouth)**;

[5] When the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were about me (although Job does not now know it, the Almighty is with him now even more than ever)**;

[6] When I washed my steps with butter, and the rock poured me out rivers of oil (Job had been very wealthy)**;

[7] When I went out to the gate through the city, when I prepared my seat in the street! (It was customary for elders of the city to sit in the open place at the entrance of the gates. Judgment was meted out here, and many other activities were carried on, as well.)

8 The young men saw me, and hid themselves: and the aged arose, and stood up (all deferred to Job, and rightly so; the touch of God on his life was obvious and evident to all).

9 The princes refrained talking, and laid their hand on their mouth (they would not be so foolish as to speak when Job was present).

10 The nobles held their peace, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth (whatever it is they knew, Job knew more).

11 When the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me (knowing that Job would be fair in his judgment):

12 Because I delivered the poor who cried, and the fatherless, and him who had none to help him.

13 The blessing of him who was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy. (And yet, none of these "poor," or "fatherless," or "widows," would now speak a kind word for him. No doubt, he had helped thousands, or maybe even tens of thousands, but none remembered his kindness to them. Such is humanity!)

14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem (the Word of the Lord was his garment).

15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poor: and the cause which I knew not I searched out.

17 And I broke the jaws of the wicked, and plucked the spoil out of his teeth (if the wicked were going to defraud the poor, they would have to answer to Job!).

18 Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand (there was then no cloud on the horizon).

[19] My root was spread out by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch (it seemed that nothing could destroy Job).

[20] My glory was fresh in me, and my bow was renewed in my hand (unfailing strength).

[21] Unto me men gave ear, and waited, and kept silence at my counsel (Job had the last word, because he had the wise word).

[22] After my words they spoke not again; and my speech dropped upon them (his judgments could not be improved upon).

[23] And they waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain (knowing that Job could help them).

[24] If I laughed on them, they believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down (when Job smiled on anyone, they were signally honored and blessed).

[25] I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one who comforts the mourners (Job was the one to whom all looked in times of distress).

CHAPTER 30

(1520 B.C.)

JOB'S PRESENT POVERTY AND CALAMITIES

1 But now they who are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock (as high as he had been in the estimation of others, as low he has fallen).

2 Yes, whereto might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished? (Job is saying that now it is as if he is so old he is of no more worth.)

3 For want and famine they were solitary; fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste (he looks at himself as "desolate and waste").

4 Who cut up mallows by the bushes, and juniper roots for their meat (from a king's table, Job is reduced to eating scraps).

5 They were driven forth from among men, (they cried after them as after a thief [Job is looked at as no more than human flotsam];)

6 To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, in caves of the Earth, and in the rocks (from a mansion to a cave!).

7 Among the bushes they brayed; under the nettles they were gathered together (Job has been reduced to scavenging).

8 They were children of fools, yes, children of base men: they were viler than the Earth (as stated, the flotsam of humanity!).

9 And now am I their song, yes, I am their byword (the lowest of the low ridiculed Job).

10 They abhor me, they flee far from me, and spare not to spit in my face. (They mocked the Patriarch with ribald songs. Standing at a distance, they spat on him. Because God had loosed His scourge and afflicted him, they too cast off all restraint in their persecution of him. As rabble they stood at his right hand to accuse him. They gave him no standing room in any court of justice and laid snares for him. They did their best to add to his sufferings, even though doing so brought them no personal profit.)

11 Because He has loosed my cord, and afflicted me, they have also let loose the bridle before me (they reasoned that if God had turned His back upon Job, then he was now "fair game").

12 Upon my right hand rise the youth; they push away my feet, and they raise up against me the ways of their destruction.

13 They mar my path, they set forward my calamity, they have no helper (they made sport of Job!).

14 They came upon me as a wide breaking in of waters: in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me (when one began to taunt Job, then they all began to taunt him).

15 Terrors are turned upon me: they pursue my soul as the wind: and my welfare passes away as a cloud (not only is his physical and financial welfare impugned, but he fears now for his soul).

16 And now my soul is poured out upon me; the days of affliction have taken hold upon me.

17 My bones are pierced in me in the night season: and my sinews take no rest (gnawing pain).

18 By the great force of my disease is my garment changed: it binds me about as the collar of my coat (along with the insults, Job's physical condition seems to be deteriorating by the hour).

19 He has cast me into the mire, and I am become like dust and ashes

(perhaps it is not possible for God to sanctify "carnal self" without the individual, in some way, experiencing the "dust and ashes").

[20] I cry unto You, and You do not hear me: I stand up, and You regard me not (it is the worst of all calamities to be God-forsaken, as Job believed himself to be; however, he will soon find out that the Lord had not forsaken him).

[21] You are become cruel to me: with Your strong hand You oppose Yourself against me (it looked like that to Job).

[22] You lifted me up to the wind; you caused me to ride upon it, and dissolved my substance (the wind of adversity was allowed to blow against him in full force).

[23] For I know that You will bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living (Job fully expects to die!).

[24] Howbeit he will not stretch out his hand to the grave, though they cry in his destruction (one part of him wants death, and another part is trying to stop death).

[25] Did not I weep for him who was in trouble? was not my soul grieved for the poor? (But none wept for him!)

[26] When I looked for good, then evil came unto me: and when I waited for light, there came darkness (I have been thinking the situation would change, but instead it has only gotten worse).

[27] My bowels boiled, and rested not: the days of affliction prevented me (there was no respite).

[28] I went mourning without the sun: I stood up, and I cried in the congregation (but no one cared or heard).

[29] I am a brother to dragons, and a companion to owls (as they are awake at night, so am I).

30 My skin is black upon me, and my bones are burned with heat (terrible physical affliction).

31 My harp also is turned to mourning, and my organ into the voice of them who weep (there is no more music in his soul!).

CHAPTER 31

(1520 B.C.)

JOB'S FINAL DEFENSE

[1] I made a covenant with my eyes: why then should I think upon a maid? (Job says here that he's not guilty of the sin of lust.)

[2] For what portion of God is there from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high? (What would the Lord say about such sin? The next Verse tells us.)

[3] Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity? (This is what sin does — ruin both of soul and body.)

[4] Does not He see my ways, and count all my steps? (The Lord sees all!)

[5] If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot has hasted to deceit (in this Passage, Job claims that he is not guilty of deceit)**;

[6] Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know my integrity (in fact, the only "even balance" in the universe is that which is of God; all else is spurious).

[7] If my step has turned out of the way, and my heart walked after my eyes, and if any blot has cleaved to my hands (it is to be remembered that Job has the testimony of God Himself to the fact that he was "a perfect and an upright man, one who feared God, and hated evil" [2:3]; this doesn't mean that Job was sinlessly perfect, for he wasn't; but it does mean that he was attempting to follow the Lord as closely as possible)**;

[8] Then let me sow, and let another eat; yes, let my offspring be rooted out ("if the Lord says I'm guilty, then I will accept my punishment").

9 If my heart has been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbour's door (I have not committed adultery);

10 Then let my wife grind unto another, and let others bow down upon her (if adultery is committed by a husband, the wife suffers, and suffers unjustly).

11 For this is an heinous crime; yes, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges (the crime of adultery subverts the family relation on which it has pleased God to erect the entire fabric of human society).

12 For it is a fire that consumes to destruction, and would root out all my increase (the sin of adultery, lacking Repentance, will bring down the wrath of God upon the person who commits such).

JOB IS NOT GUILTY OF OPPRESSING OTHERS

13 If I did despise the cause of my manservant or of my maidservant, when they contended with me (Job now disclaims the oppression of his dependants; of which he had been accused by Eliphaz [22:5–9]);

14 What then shall I do when God rises up? and when He visits, what shall I answer Him?

15 Did not He Who made me in the womb make him? and did not One fashion us in the womb? (Here the Spirit of God through Job proclaims the equality of all men, irrespective of race, creed, or color.)

16 If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail;

17 Or have eaten my morsel myself alone, and the fatherless has not eaten thereof (Job claims to have always shared his bread with orphans and made them partakers of his abundance);

18 (For from my youth he was brought up with me, as with a father, and I have guided her from my mother's womb;)

19 If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or any poor without covering;

20 If his loins have not blessed me, and if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;

21 If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate (in other words, "I have done everything for the poor and the helpless that I had the power to do"):

22 Then let my arm fall from my shoulder blade, and my arm be broken from the bone.

23 For destruction from God was a terror to me, and by reason of His highness I could not endure ("I could not have committed the sins of which I am accused, because of my fear of God").

JOB'S HOPE WAS NOT IN MONEY

24 If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, You are my confidence;

25 If I rejoice because my wealth was great, and because my hand had gotten much (Job feels that it is wrong even to care greatly for wealth);

JOB IS NOT GUILTY OF IDOLATRY

26 If I beheld the sun when it shined, or the moon walking in brightness (not guilty of idolatry);

27 And my heart has been secretly enticed, or my mouth has kissed my hand (a part of the process of the worship of planetary bodies):

28 This also were an iniquity to be punished by the judge: for I should have denied the God Who is above (the worship of any other god besides the supreme God is tantamount to atheism).

JOB DOES NOT REJOICE AT THE DOWNFALL OF OTHERS

[29] If I rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found him:

[30] Neither have I suffered my mouth to sin by wishing a curse to his soul (Job left all others to the Lord [Rom. 12:17–21]).

[31] If the men of my tabernacle said not, Oh that we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied (all were satisfied with Job's hospitality).

[32] The stranger did not lodge in the street: but I opened my doors to the traveler.

[33] If I covered my transgressions as Adam, by hiding my iniquity in my bosom (Adam tried to hide the true state of his heart from God [Gen. 3:8]):

[34] Did I fear a great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrify me, that I kept silence, and went not out of the door? (Because of his integrity, Job had no fear of facing people.)

[35] Oh that one would hear me! behold, my desire is, that the Almighty would answer me, and that my adversary had written a book (to be sure, the Lord was definitely hearing Job, and noting all that was said by his adversaries).

[36] Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, and bind it as a crown to me ("I am this sure of my integrity").

[37] I would declare unto him (my adversary) the number of my steps; as a prince would I go near unto him (I can face any man without a guilty conscience).

[38] If my land cry against me, or that the furrows likewise thereof complain;

[39] If I have eaten the fruits thereof without money, or have caused the owners thereof to lose their life:

40 Let thistles grow instead of wheat, and cockle instead of barley. The words of Job are ended (Job is not trying here to justify himself before God, but merely answering the charges made against him by his "friends").

CHAPTER 32

(1520 B.C.)

ELIHU SPEAKS

1 So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes (it should be noted that this is what these "three men" said, and not God; actually, the reverse is true; it is the "three 'friends'" who are "righteous in their own eyes," not Job).

2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified himself rather than God (Job was not trying to justify himself in the Eyes of God, but rather he was stating his case; as it regards Elihu, it was his self-righteousness which caused his anger against Job).

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job (Elihu sets himself up as above all who are there, including Job).

4 Now Elihu had waited till Job had spoken, because they were older than he (he would have been wiser yet to have said nothing).

5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled (fools walk where Angels fear to tread).

6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am young, and you are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and did not show you my opinion.

7 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom ("you are older than I am, so you should have more wisdom, but you don't").

[8] But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty gives them understanding (Elihu claims great understanding from God).

[9] Great men are not always wise: neither do the aged understand judgment (in other words, "even though I am younger, I understand more than you do"; what impertinence!).

[10] Therefore I said, Hearken to me; I also will show my opinion (some claim that Elihu was a type of Christ; however, that is contradicted by his statement; the Lord does not give "His opinion," but only "Thus saith the Lord").

ELIHU'S IMPERTINENCE

[11] Behold, I waited for your words; I gave ear to your reasons, while you searched out what to say (to the three friends, "I have heard all that you have said").

[12] Yes, I attended unto you, and behold, there was none of you who convinced Job, or who answered his words (no doubt, there were many others present who also heard this entire exchange)**:

[13] Lest you should say, We have found out wisdom: God thrusts him down, not man (this latter phrase is true; God will have the last say, and not man).

[14] Now he (Job) has not directed his words against me: neither will I answer him with your speeches (I will bring forward fresh arguments).

[15] They were amazed, they answered no more: they left off speaking (the three "friends" were amazed at this young man's impertinence; so they answered him by saying nothing).

[16] When I had waited, (for they spoke not, but stood still, and answered no more [he waited for them to answer, but they said nothing]**;)

[17] I said, I will answer also my part, I also will show my opinion (in other words, “it’s now my turn”!).

18 For I am full of matter (words), the spirit within me constrains me (“I must speak!” To be sure, it was his spirit and not God’s Spirit).

19 Behold, my belly is as wine which has no vent; it is ready to burst like new bottles (only youth would make such foolish statements).

20 I will speak, that I may be refreshed: I will open my lips and answer.

21 Let me not, I pray you, accept any man’s person, neither let me give flattering titles unto man (in other words, he’s not going to show Job any respect).

22 For I know not to give flattering titles; in so doing my Maker would soon take me away (here, he puts himself spiritually above Job).

CHAPTER 33

(1520 B.C.)

ELIHU SPEAKS TO JOB

[1] Wherefore, Job, I pray you, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words (the truth is, Elihu has nothing to say, so God will ignore all that he will say, thereby tendering the worst insult of all; his own self-righteousness screams as loud as the three "friends" or even louder).

[2] Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue has spoken in my mouth.

[3] My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly (he evidently has a high opinion of himself).

[4] The Spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty has given me life (he is coming close here to saying that the words he will utter are from the Lord).

[5] If you can answer me, set your words in order before me, stand up (Job will not answer him, even as he should not have).

[6] Behold, I am according to your wish in God's stead: I also am formed out of the clay (in other words, "even though I am only a man, I can give you all the answers for which you have sought!").

[7] Behold, my terror shall not make you afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon you (how foolish to insinuate that Job would be afraid of him).

[8] Surely you have spoken in my hearing, and I have heard the voice of your words, saying,

[9] I am clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me (Job had not said these things).

[10] Behold, He (the Lord) finds occasions against me, He counts me for His enemy, [11] He puts my feet in the stocks, He marks all my paths (Job did say these things [16:9; 19:11; 31:2, 6, 28, 35–37; 31:4]).

[12] Behold, in this you are not just: I will answer you, that God is greater than man (it is a poor way to justify God by urging that He is all-powerful, and may do what He likes).

[13] Why do you strive against Him? for He gives not account of any of His matters (Job had not striven against the Lord).

ELIHU CONTINUES TO PONTIFICATE

[14] For God speaks once, yes twice, yet man perceives it not (in a sense, Elihu is claiming that God has spoken to Job, but that Job is so lacking in spirituality that he didn't perceive it).

[15] In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls upon men, in slumberings upon the bed;

[16] Then He opens the ears of men, and seals their instruction,

[17] That He may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man (here, Elihu claims that Job is unduly proud of his integrity).

[18] He keeps back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword.

[19] He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain (so he is saying here that Job is being chastened by the Lord; that is not correct):

[20] So that his life abhors bread, and his soul dainty meat.

[21] His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out (he is now referring to Job's "chastisement," regarding his physical sickness).

[22] Yes, his soul draws near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.

[23] If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to show unto man his uprightness (in effect, Elihu is telling Job that he is the "messenger" with the "interpretation" of Job's problems; he is saying, "I am one among a thousand"; only youthfulness, with its immaturity and ignorance, would dare make such a statement)**:

[24] Then he is gracious unto him (Elihu says that he will be gracious to Job), and says, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a ransom (if Job will listen to him, says Elihu, his soul will be settled, his physical body will be healed, and his joy will return).

[25] His flesh shall be fresher than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth:

[26] He shall pray unto God, and He will be favourable unto him: and he shall see His face with joy: for He will render unto man His Righteousness (so, to obtain God's Righteousness, all Job has to do is to listen to Elihu; such words sound greatly familiar!).

[27] He looks upon men, and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not (if Job would only repent...)**;

[28] He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light (so, to keep from going to Hell, Job should listen to Elihu).

[29] Lo, all these things works God oftentimes with man (in essence, Elihu is saying that Job's situation is not uncommon. He could not be more wrong! How many men in history have been the subject of a contest between God and Satan? Perhaps some, but not many!)**,

[30] To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.

[31] Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me: hold your peace, and I will speak (it seems that Job, at this juncture, may have attempted to answer the impertinence of this young man, but he is told by Elihu to keep quiet).

[32] If you have anything to say, answer me: speak, for I desire to justify you (when Elihu claims that he is able to justify Job, Job evidently realizes that it would be foolish to dignify this young man's statements with an answer).

[33] If not, hearken unto me: hold your peace, and I shall teach you wisdom. (What arrogance! Especially in his notion that he could "teach Job wisdom.")

CHAPTER 34

(1520 B.C.)

ELIHU'S ARROGANCE CONTINUES

[1] Furthermore Elihu answered and said,

[2] Hear my words, O you wise men; and give ear unto me, you who have knowledge (the first fifteen Verses of this Chapter are spoken to the "three 'friends,'" with the remaining Verses spoken to Job).

[3] For the ear tries words, as the mouth tastes meat (this was a proverbial expression; it meant, "it is as much the business of the ear to discriminate between wise and foolish words, as of the palate to distinguish between wholesome and unwholesome food").

[4] Let us choose to us judgment: let us know among ourselves what is good.

[5] For Job has said, I am righteous: and God has taken away my judgment (while it was true that Job maintained his "righteousness" in a certain sense, still, he had not maintained his sinfulness).

[6] Should I lie against my right? my wound is incurable without transgression (Job had in fact maintained that transgressions were not the cause of his terrible condition).

[7] What man is like Job, who drinks up scorning like water? (Job had not scorned the Lord.)

[8] Which goes in company with the workers of iniquity, and walks with wicked men (this was totally untrue!).

[9] For he has said, It profits a man nothing that he should delight himself with God (Job had not said this!).

ELIHU PONTIFICATES ABOUT GOD, OF WHOM HE HAS LITTLE TRUE UNDERSTANDING

[10] Therefore hearken unto me, you men of understanding: far be it from God, that He should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that He should commit iniquity (to say that God is not wicked should be obvious!).

[11] For the work of a man shall He render unto him, and cause every man to find according to his ways.

[12] Yes, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert judgment.

[13] Who has given Him a charge over the Earth? or who has discovered the whole world?

[14] If He (the Lord) set His Heart upon man, if He gather unto Himself His Spirit and His breath:

[15] All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto dust. (Why did the Lord desire that the ramblings of this man be placed in the Sacred Text? Among other reasons, He did so to show us that intellectualism is not the answer. In fact, without a true Revelation from the Lord, one cannot understand the Lord or His Word [I Cor. 2:9–10].)

ELIHU NOW SPEAKS DIRECTLY TO JOB

[16] If now you have understanding, hear this: hearken to the voice of my words (the young man insults Job by saying that his words will be so wise that Job possibly will not be able to understand them; in fact, they will actually be the opposite).

[17] Shall even he who hates right govern? and will you condemn Him Who is most just? (Elihu now accuses Job of condemning God.)

[18] Is it fit to say to a king, You are wicked? and to princes, You are ungodly?

[19] How much less to Him Who accepts not the persons of princes, nor regards the rich more than the poor? for they all are the work of His Hands.

[20] In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away without hand.

[21] For His Eyes are upon the ways of man, and He sees all his goings (now Elihu tells Job that the Lord has seen everything that he [Job] has done).

[22] There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves (he accuses Job of being full of iniquity and, therefore, trying to hide himself from God).

[23] For He will not lay upon man more than right; that he should enter into judgment with God (so, according to Elihu, what the Lord has done to Job is "right," because Job is so wicked).

[24] He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their stead (so Job was once mighty, and the Lord has now broken him in pieces; that is true, but not for the reasons that Elihu or the three friends have said).

[25] Therefore He knows their works, and He overturns them in the night, so that they are destroyed.

[26] He strikes them as wicked men in the open sight of others (and thus he describes Job, or so he thinks)**;

[27] Because they turned back from Him, and would not consider any of His Ways (now he accuses Job of forsaking the Ways of God)**:

[28] So that they cause the cry of the poor to come unto Him, and He hears the cry of the afflicted (as the three "friends," Elihu accuses Job of oppressing the poor).

[29] When He gives quietness, who then can make trouble? and when He hides His Face, who then can behold Him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only (Elihu accuses Job of trying to escape the wrath of God):

[30] That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be ensnared (now he calls the great Patriarch a hypocrite).

ELIHU CONTINUES TO REPROVE JOB

[31] Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more (he now tells Job to repent):

[32] That which I see not teach you me: if I have done iniquity, I will do no more.

[33] Should it be according to your mind? He will recompense it, whether you refuse, or whether you choose; and not I: therefore speak what you know (in his feigned piousness, Elihu gives an altar call for Job to get right with God).

[34] Let men of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me (in other words, he tells Job that "if you have any wisdom, you will hearken unto my words").

[35] Job has spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom (what arrogance!).

[36] My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end because of his answers for wicked men (after the manner of wicked men; he wants Job to be afflicted even more).

[37] For he (Job) adds rebellion unto his sin, he claps his hands among us, and multiplies his words against God (so now, he becomes bolder and rasher in his accusations against Job).

CHAPTER 35

(1520 B.C.)

ELIHU CONTINUES

[1] Elihu spoke moreover, and said,

[2] Do you think this to be right, that you said, My righteousness is more than God's? (Job had said no such thing.)

[3] For you said, What advantage will it be unto you? and, What profit shall I have, if I be cleansed from my sin? (Once again, he twists Job's words.)

[4] I will answer you, and your companions with you (so now, Elihu, at least in his own eyes, is wiser than all who are there)**.

[5] Look unto the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds which are higher than you (that should be obvious to all)**.

[6] If you sin, what do you against Him? of if your transgressions be multiplied, what do you unto Him?

[7] If you be righteous, what do you give Him? or what receives He of your hand? (Once again, all of these things should be known by any sincere Believer.)

[8] Your wickedness may hurt a man as you are; and your righteousness may profit the son of man (the meaning is, "We cannot add to God, or take from Him, irrespective of our obedience or disobedience," which all Believers should know)**.

[9] By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty (once again, Job is accused of oppressing others).

10 But none says, Where is God my Maker, Who gives songs in the night;

11 Who teaches us more than the beasts of the Earth, and makes us wiser than the fowls of heaven?

12 There they cry, but none gives answer, because of the pride of evil men.

13 Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it (now, Elihu accuses Job of being "vain").

14 Although you say you shall not see Him, yet judgment is before Him; therefore trust you in Him (in other words, "you are in the condition you are in, because you have not trusted the Lord").

15 But now, because it is not so, He has visited in His anger; yet He knows it not in great extremity *(while God is angry at Job, so says Elihu, due to Job's wickedness, He should have been much more angry):

16 Therefore does Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplies words without knowledge (it is Elihu and the three friends who have multiplied words without knowledge, not Job).

CHAPTER 36

(1520 B.C.)

ELIHU CLAIMS TO BE PERFECT IN KNOWLEDGE

[1] Elihu also proceeded, and said (if Elihu had been led by the Holy Spirit, he would not have even begun, much less proceeded),

[2] Suffer me a little, and I will show you that I have yet to speak on God's behalf (so now, Elihu professes to speak for God).

[3] I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

[4] For truly my words shall not be false: he who is perfect in knowledge is with you (what an arrogant statement!).

[5] Behold, God is mighty, and despises not any: He is mighty in strength and wisdom.

[6] He preserves not the life of the wicked: but gives right to the poor (he tells Job that his life is not going to be preserved; in other words, Job is going to die; the truth is, Job would live another 140 years, for a total of 210 years [42:16]).

[7] He withdraws not His Eyes from the righteous: but with kings are they on the throne; yes, He does establish them forever, and they are exalted (the Lord has the power to raise up one and pull down another; He has pulled down Job, so says Elihu).

[8] And if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;

[9] Then He shows them their work, and their transgression that they have exceeded.

10 He opens also their ear to discipline, and commands that they return from iniquity.

11 If they obey and serve Him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures (in fact, the Righteous are told to expect tribulations and persecutions [Jn. 16:33; Acts 14:22; II Tim. 3:12; Heb. 12:1–11; I Pet. 4:12–13]).

12 But if they obey not, they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

13 But the hypocrites in heart heap up wrath: they cry not when He binds them (Elihu continues to call Job a hypocrite).

14 They die in youth, and their life is among the unclean.

15 He delivers the poor in his affliction, and opens their ears in oppression.

16 Even so would He have removed you out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and that which should be set on your table should be full of fatness ("if you would only repent!").

17 But you have fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: judgment and justice take hold on you.

18 Because there is wrath, beware lest He take you away with His stroke: then a great ransom cannot deliver you. (Elihu is saying that God is so angry with Job that He has taken away all his possessions, plus his health, and is now very close to taking his life — and there is nothing Job can do to stop it.

First of all, there was no wrath with God concerning Job; however, there definitely would be wrath from God concerning these individuals who judged Job [42:7].)

19 Will He esteem your riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

[20] Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.

[21] Take heed, regard not iniquity: for this have you chosen rather than affliction. (He accuses Job of choosing iniquity. The tragedy of Eliphaz, Bildad, Zophar, and Elihu is that they actually were doing the work of Satan. All their accusations, judgmental attitudes, and approaches to Job were far more in keeping with the destructive work of Satan than of God.)

[22] Behold, God exalts by His Power: who teaches like Him?

[23] Who has enjoined Him His way? or who can say, You have wrought iniquity?

[24] Remember that you magnify His Work, which men behold (but instead, Elihu says that Job is magnifying other things).

[25] Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off (in other words, anybody can see how wrong that Job is, so says Elihu).

ELIHU CONTINUES HIS EFFORTS TO EXPLAIN GOD

[26] Behold, God is great, and we know Him not, neither can the number of His years be searched out.

[27] For He makes small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof (all of this is from intellectualism; it shows not at all any relationship with the Lord; regrettably, it is the state of many modern professing Believers)**:

[28] Which the clouds do drop and distil upon man abundantly.

[29] Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of His tabernacle?

[30] Behold, He spreads His light upon it, and covers the bottom of the sea (Elihu says many words, but in reality he says nothing!).

31 For by them judges He the people; He gives meat in abundance.

32 With clouds He covers the light; and commands it not to shine by the cloud that comes betwixt.

33 The noise thereof shows concerning it, the cattle also concerning the vapour (could be translated: "The cattle also are facing the storm").

CHAPTER 37

(1520 B.C.)

ELIHU SPEAKS MANY WORDS, BUT ACTUALLY HAS VERY LITTLE KNOWLEDGE OF GOD

[1] At this also my heart trembles, and is moved out of his place (it seems that Elihu's fear of God was somewhat misplaced; he seems to be far more concerned about God's "acts" than of God Himself).

[2] Hear attentively the noise of His Voice, and the sound that goes out of His Mouth (the facts were that Job had heard; neither Elihu nor the three friends had; they were judging from outward appearance, as all judging is done; that's the reason we are told not to judge [Mat. 7:1–2]).

[3] He directs it under the whole heaven, and His lightning unto the ends of the Earth.

[4] After it a voice roars: He thunders with the voice of His excellency; and He will not stay them when His Voice is heard.

[5] God thunders marvelously with His Voice; great things does He, which we cannot comprehend (if it is to be noticed, all of this says what every Believer knows).

[6] For He says to the snow, Be you on the Earth; likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of His Strength.

[7] He seals up the hand of every man; that all men may know His Work.

[8] Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places.

[9] Out of the south comes the whirlwind: and cold out of the north.

10 By the breath of God frost is given: and the breadth of the waters is straitened (please remember, Inspiration guarantees that what is said was actually said, and by the person to whom it is attributed; however, that doesn't mean that it is true; in fact, much of what the "three 'friends'" and Elihu said was completely untrue).

11 Also by watering He wearies the thick cloud: He scatters His bright cloud:

12 And it is turned round about by His Counsels: that they may do whatsoever He commands them upon the face of the world in the Earth.

13 He causes it to come, whether for correction, or for His land, or for mercy.

14 Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous Works of God (Elihu felt perfectly comfortable in admonishing Job; there was a time that the mightiest of men held their tongues when in Job's presence; now, even this youthful Elihu harshly commands Job to "listen").

15 Do you know when God disposed them, and caused the light of His cloud to shine?

16 Do you know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous Works of Him Who is Perfect in knowledge?

17 How your garments are warm, when He quiets the Earth by the south wind?

18 Have you with Him spread out the sky, which is strong, and as a molten looking glass?

19 Teach us what we shall say unto Him; for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.

20 Shall it be told him that I speak? if a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up (Elihu should have heeded carefully his own statement; God, being God, would certainly hear his prattling, but would totally ignore him).

[21] And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds: but the wind passes, and cleanses them.

[22] Fair weather comes out of the north: with God is terrible majesty.

[23] Touching the Almighty, we cannot find Him out: He is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: He will not afflict.

[24] Men do therefore fear Him: He respects not any who are wise of heart (so, by his own words, Elihu is ruled out!).

CHAPTER 38

THE INFINITE GOD, THE CREATOR SPEAKS

[1] Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said (the Lord, it seems, appeared suddenly and without warning; He did so with some type of atmospheric disturbance; His appearing would have been cataclysmic, startling, and absolutely overwhelming)**,

[2] Who is this who darkens counsel by words without knowledge? (The Lord is not speaking of Job, but rather these "three 'friends'" and Elihu. The Lord said of Job that he had "spoken of Me the thing that is right" [42:7].)

[3] Gird up now your loins like a man (He now speaks to Job); for I will demand of you, and answer you Me (even though Job has been reduced to the most humiliating position, still, God will demand that he stand while being spoken to; in fact, this command of God is the beginning of Job's Restoration; God picks men up; He does not put men down, unless He has no choice but to do so).

[4] Where were you when I laid the foundations of the Earth? declare, if you have understanding. (The Truth that God made all things is obvious according to the Creation. A creation must have a Creator. Therefore, the alleged theory of evolution is a farce. Evolution, in fact, cannot even be honestly called a "theory," because a theory has to have at least some rudiments of facts to buttress its claims. Evolution has no facts whatsoever.)

[5] Who has laid the measures thereof, if you know? or who has stretched the line upon it? (The idea is that God has planned and created the Universe, down to the finest detail.)

6 Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner stone thereof (in fact, the worlds are held up by the Word of God [Heb. 11:3])**;

7 When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy? (The Lord is speaking here of the completion of the Earth and the Universe, and of the celebration that followed by the Angels of Heaven.

Lucifer, before his Fall, was called the "son of the morning" [Isa. 14:12].

There is a possibility that these "morning stars" who "sang together" were led in their worship and celebration by Lucifer, the "son of the morning.")

8 Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it broke forth, as if it had issued out of the womb? (The Lord put boundaries on the mighty oceans. So the fact of global warming, etc., will not noticeably alter those boundaries.)

9 When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddlingband for it,

10 And broke up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors,

11 And said, Hitherto shall you come, but no further: and here shall your proud waves be stayed? (Again, we are told that the oceans have boundaries, and boundaries set by the Lord Himself.)

12 Have you commanded the morning since your days; and caused the dayspring to know his place (all days and nights are fixed by the Lord, and are ruled by the sun, moon, and stars [Gen. 1:14–19; 8:22])**;

13 That it might take hold of the ends of the Earth, that the wicked might be shaken out of it? (The idea is, the "wicked" cannot do anything about God's order.)

14 It is turned as clay to the seal; and they stand as a garment (everything is obvious as to its function, but not so obvious as to exactly how it functions)**.

15 And from the wicked their light is withholden, and the high arm shall be broken (the Lord will allow the "wicked" to go only so far, before He steps in and breaks their arms, which He has done many times in the past, and will yet do in the future).

16 Have you entered into the springs of the sea? or have you walked in the search of the depth? (Can man go to the bottom of anything, explore its secrets, and explain its cause and origin?)

17 Have the gates of death been opened unto you? or have you seen the doors of the shadow of death? (This reveals openings and doors to Hell and Death [Rev. 1:18].)

THE LORD CONTINUES WITH HIS DESCRIPTION OF CREATION

18 Have you perceived the breadth of the Earth? declare if you know it all. (As we read these things said by the Almighty, we wonder how they relate to Job's condition. The reason for the Lord giving this information is manyfold; however, in essence, the Lord is saying to Job, "If I can do all of this, don't you realize how easy it is for Me to change your situation?")

19 Where is the way where light dwells? and as for darkness, where is the place thereof (in fact, Light is a thing quite distinct from the sun [Gen. 1:3, 16])**,

20 That you should take it to the bound thereof, and that you should know the paths to the house thereof? (No man can!)

21 Do you know it, because you were then born? or because the number of your days is great? (In other words, "Job, are you as old as I am?")

22 Have you entered into the treasures of the snow? or have you seen the treasures of the hail (no two flakes of snow or two pieces of hail are alike)**,

23 Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war? (Many times the Lord has used the elements against His enemies [Ex. 9:22–26; Josh. 10:11; Ps. 18:12–13]. In the future, hail will fall again as a part of judgment [Rev. 8:7; 11:19; 16:21].)

[24] By what way is the light parted, which scatters the east wind upon the Earth?

[25] Who has divided a watercourse for the overflowing of waters, or a way for the lightning of thunder;

[26] To cause it to rain on the Earth, where no man is; on the wilderness, wherein there is no man (the animals need rain as well);

[27] To satisfy the desolate and waste ground; and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth? (Plants also need the rain.)

[28] Has the rain a father? or who has begotten the drops of dew? (God is the Father of rain and dew, etc.)

[29] Out of whose womb came the ice? and the hoary frost of heaven, who has gendered it?

[30] The waters are hid as with a stone, and the face of the deep is frozen (the Arctic and the Antarctic).

[31] Can you bind the sweet influences of Pleiades, or loose the bands of Orion?

[32] Can you bring forth Mazzaroth in his season? or can you guide Arcturus with his sons?

[33] Know you the ordinances of Heaven? can you set the dominion thereof in the Earth? (The "sweet influences of the Pleiades" are appealed to as a matter of common knowledge at that time. Modern astronomers do not know very much about them at present.

The ancient Greeks called them the "Seven Stars" and named them the "Pleiades," because their appearance indicated a favorable time for sea voyages. The Chaldaic name means a "pivot," and astronomers, some time ago, claimed to have discovered that the largest of these stars form a pivot around which the solar system revolves.

When it is remembered that the Sun is more than 3,000 billion miles away from the Pleiades, some idea is arrived at of the amazing "influence" of these seven stars in swinging this vast Universe — the Earth included — at the rate of more than 150 million miles a year in an orbit so vast that one revolution occupies thousands of years to make, and yet does so with unvarying regularity and smoothness.

Thus, this remote Verse in what is generally accepted to be the oldest Book in the world speaks of the influences of these stars as a matter of everyday knowledge, and it is remarkable that the expression "sweet" is employed — the very word which engineers use in describing the smooth working of complex machinery.

"Orion" is the constellation commonly known as "the Giant." The space in the sword of the Giant alone is estimated to be two trillion two hundred billion [2,200,000,000,000] times larger than the Sun.

"Mazzaroth" means the twelve signs of the zodiac; it is only mentioned here in Scripture.)

34 Can you lift up your voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover you?

35 Can you send lightnings, that they may go and say unto you, Here we are?

36 Who has put wisdom in the inward parts? or who has given understanding to the heart?

37 Who can number the clouds in wisdom? or who can stay the bottles of heaven (this tells us that all the clouds, coming and going, we might quickly add, are numbered by the Lord)**,

38 When the dust grows into hardness, and the clods cleave fast together?

39 Will you hunt the prey for the lion? or fill the appetite of the young lions,

40 When they couch in their dens, and abide in the covert to lie in wait?

41 Who provides for the raven his food? when his young ones cry unto God, they wander for lack of meat (God provides for all, even the lowliest of creation; if He does this for them, how much more will He care for us, "O you of little faith" [Mat. 6:30]).

CHAPTER 39

(1520 B.C.)

THE LORD CONTINUES TO DESCRIBE HIS CREATION

[1] Know you the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth? or can you mark when the hinds do calve?

[2] Can you number the months that they fulfill? or know you the time when they bring forth?

[3] They bow themselves, they bring forth their young ones, they cast out their sorrows.

[4] Their young ones are in good liking, they grow up with corn; they go forth, and return not unto them.

[5] Who has sent out the wild ass free? or who has loosed the bands of the wild ass? (The first two words of this Chapter, "know you," pretty well tell the story. The fact is that man does not know. Man is able to study each animal and to understand its basic instincts, as well as its habits, strength, or peculiarities; nevertheless, man is totally unable to even begin to understand the manner in which God created the animal kingdom. This we do know:

The Bible declares that, after its own kind [some ten times in Gen., Chpt. 1], everything created by God was given power to reproduce "its own kind." No one thing could break this law and produce any other kind [Gen. 1:20–28]. Now, after more than six thousand years, the law of reproduction is still unbroken, and the fact is that it will remain that way.)

[6] Whose house I have made the wilderness, and the barren land his dwellings.

7 He scorns the multitude of the city, neither regards he the crying of the driver (nothing will induce the wild ass to submit to domestication).

8 The range of the mountains is his pasture, and he searches after every green thing.

9 Will the unicorn be willing to serve you, or abide by your crib? (The word "unicorn" is an unfortunate translation, since there is no word correspondent to "unicorn" in the original. It actually pertains to the wild bull.)

10 Can you bind the unicorn with his band in the furrow? or will he harrow the valleys after you? (In fact, the type of wild bull mentioned here cannot be harnessed.)

11 Will you trust him, because his strength is great? or will you leave your labour to him? (As stated, he cannot be domesticated.)

12 Will you believe him, that he will bring home your seed, and gather it into your barn?

13 Gave you the goodly wings unto the peacocks? or wings and feathers unto the ostrich?

14 Which leaves her eggs in the earth, and warms them in dust,

15 And forgets that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may break them.

16 She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not hers: her labour is in vain without fear;

17 Because God has deprived her of wisdom, neither has He imparted to her understanding.

18 What time she lifts up herself on high, she scorns the horse and his rider (at full pace, the fastest horse can little catch, if at all, the ostrich, at least when she is at full speed).

19 Have you given the horse strength? have you clothed his neck with thunder?

20 Can you make him afraid as a grasshopper? the glory of his nostrils is terrible.

21 He paws in the valley, and rejoices in his strength: he goes on to meet the armed men.

22 He mocks at fear, and is not affrighted; neither turns he back from the sword.

23 The quiver rattles against him, the glittering spear and the shield.

24 He swallows the ground with fierceness and rage: neither believes he that it is the sound of the trumpet.

25 He says among the trumpets, Ha, ha; and he smells the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting (and yet the horse eats only grass or such like feed, and yet is as strong as he is).

26 Does the hawk fly by your wisdom, and stretch her wings toward the south?

27 Does the eagle mount up at your command, and make her nest on high?

28 She dwells and abides on the rock, upon the crag of the rock, and the strong place.

29 From there she seeks the prey, and her eyes behold afar off.

30 Her young ones also suck up blood: and where the dead are, there is she.

CHAPTER 40

(1520 B.C.)

JOB ANSWERS THE LORD

[1] Moreover the LORD answered Job, and said,

[2] Shall he who contends with the Almighty instruct Him? he who reproves God, let him answer it (the basic sin of the human race is "contending with the Almighty"; men have a tendency to blame God for the terrible problems of mankind).

[3] Then Job answered the LORD, and said,

[4] Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer You? I will lay my hand upon my mouth. (Job, convicted of his ignorance, his impotence, and his sinfulness, at last learns the lesson that it seems none of us can learn without at least some such trial. As a son of Adam, he was a total moral wreck and, consequently, he loathed himself, though he had done all he could to live right.

He did not learn this humiliating lesson so long as he confronted the Church, i.e., his "three 'friends,'" but he learned it directly when he entered into the sinless Light of the Presence of God. That Light showed his comeliness to actually be corruption, and his righteousness to be as filthy rags.)

[5] Once have I spoken; but I will not answer: yes, twice; but I will proceed no further (Job now realizes the futility, and even foolishness, of his arguments).

THE LORD ANSWERS JOB

6 Then answered the LORD unto Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

7 Gird up your loins now like man: I will demand of you, and declare you unto Me. (Job is given every opportunity of making good his pleas before God. If he has anything to say that he really wishes to urge, God is ready, even anxious, to hear him — Pulpit.)

8 Will you also disannul My Judgment? will you condemn Me, that you may be righteous? (Men have been trying to disannul the Judgment of God from the very beginning. God's Judgment is His Word.)

9 Have you an arm like God? or can you thunder with a voice like Him?

10 Deck yourself now with majesty and excellency; and array yourself with glory and beauty (of course, Job could not do that, but the Lord could do it for Job and, in fact, ultimately did!).

11 Cast abroad the rage of your wrath: and behold everyone who is proud, and abase him.

12 Look on everyone who is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place (in other words, Job is a mere mortal, and he cannot do what God Alone can do, and neither can any other man).

13 Hide them in the dust together; and bind their faces in secret (which only God can do!).

14 Then will I also confess unto you that your own right hand can save you (man's problem has ever been that he thinks that he can save himself; there is only one answer for man, and that is "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified" [I Cor. 1:23]).

15 Behold now behemoth, which I made with you; he eats grass as an ox (the "behemoth" is probably the hippo; this particular animal eats grass).

16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the navel of his belly.

17 He moves his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his stones are wrapped together.

18 His bones are as strong pieces of brass; his bones are like bars of iron.

19 He is the chief of the ways of God: He Who made him can make his sword to approach unto him (in that day, God Alone could bring down such a beast).

20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food, where all the beasts of the field play.

21 He lies under the shady trees, in the covert of the reed, and fens (this is exactly descriptive of the hippopotamus, and far less so of the elephant, or any other such like animal).

22 The shady trees cover him with their shadow; the willows of the brook compass him about.

23 Behold, he drinks up a river, and hastens not: he trusts that he can draw up Jordan into his mouth.

24 He takes it with his eyes: his nose pierces through snares. (Once again, why would the Lord address these things which seem to have no bearing whatsoever on Job's situation? The idea is, this great contest, with Job caught in the middle between God and Satan, is being played out before the entire spirit world. Among other things, the Lord desires to show the futility of man, or even Satan and fallen angels, contending with Him. It cannot successfully be done.)

CHAPTER 41

(1520 B.C.)

THE LEVIATHAN

[1] Can you draw out leviathan with an hook? or his tongue with a cord which you let down? (This Chapter is, no doubt, one of the most misunderstood in the entirety of the Word of God. Many have ascertained the description as to refer to some type of huge animal; however, there are certain things said that make us understand that God was not speaking of some such creature, but rather this is a description given of Satan. He is portrayed as a great dragon who is the enemy of both God and man.)

[2] Can you put an hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through with a thorn? (The Lord is telling man here that, within himself, he cannot subdue Satan. The battle is not physical, mental, or financial; the battle is spiritual.)

[3] Will he make many supplications unto you? will he speak soft words unto you? (Satan plies the heart of man continually, seeking to deceive him and, thereby, to lead him astray. Deception is his greatest weapon. He uses "soft words" to carry it through to its successful conclusion.)

[4] Will he make a covenant with you? will you take him for a servant forever? (Satan strongly desires to make a covenant with man. He will promise riches, power, influence, fame, etc. Inasmuch as he is a liar and the father of it, he will make any covenant that man likes, knowing that he will not keep his side of the bargain.)

[5] Will you play with him as with a bird? or will you bind him for your maidens? (Unfortunately, untold millions attempt to do this very thing each day; however, they soon find out that Satan and sin are not playthings.)

6 Shall the companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants? (How many hundreds of millions through the centuries have thought that they were man or woman enough to defeat Satan in their own strength? They found out the hard way that they couldn't!)

7 Can you fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish spears? (Satan does not respond to natural weapons.)

8 Lay your hand upon him, remember the battle, do no more. (In effect, the Lord is saying, "When man attempts to do battle with Satan, he should remember that he has lost all these conflicts in the past. Consequently, he should desire to 'do no more' in this capacity." The Lord Jesus Christ has defeated Satan; He did so at Calvary's Cross.)

9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain: shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him? (No one can bargain with Satan. Every effort is in vain. The one who attempts to do business with him will be 'cast down.')

10 None is so fierce who dare stir him up (the foolishness of one who dares to think he can beat the game of sin will meet with none other than the fierceness of Satan): who then is able to stand before Me? (The Lord is referring in this last phrase to Himself. Man cannot defeat Satan, but God can and, in effect, has, by the death, burial, and Resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ, which atoned for all sin, thereby completely defeating the Evil One.)

11 Who has prevented Me, that I should repay him? whatsoever is under the whole Heaven is Mine (all things belong to God; one day, the Lord will make an end of Satan; the Bible tells us so [Rev. 20:1–3]).

12 I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion (in effect, God created him, but not as a fallen angel, but rather the beautiful Angel, Lucifer, who in fact served God in righteous and holiness for an undetermined period of time [Ezek. 28:11–19]).

13 Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him with his double bridle?

14 Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible round about (Satan is very successful at making that which is ugly seem beautiful; that which is wicked seem righteous; that which is evil seem not evil; but behind "his face" is terrible destruction).

15 His scales are his pride, shut up together as with a close seal.

16 One is so near to another, that no air can come between them (the idea of all of this pertains to man being unable to oppose Satan, as he would other creatures).

17 They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be sundered.

18 By his neesings (sneezings) a light does shine, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.

19 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.

20 Out of his nostrils goes smoke, as out of a seething pot or caldron.

21 His breath kindles coals, and a flame goes out of his mouth.

22 In his neck remains strength, and sorrow is turned into joy before him.

23 The flakes of his flesh are joined together: they are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved.

24 His heart is a firm as a stone; yes, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone.

25 When he raises up himself, the mighty are afraid: by reason of breakings they purify themselves (Lucifer was probably the most powerful of all the Angels ever created by God).

[26] The sword of him who lays at him cannot hold: the spear, the dart, nor the habergeon (no natural weapon will suffice against him).

[27] He esteems iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.

[28] The arrow cannot make him flee: sling-stones are turned with him into stubble.

[29] Darts are counted as stubble: he laughs at the shaking of a spear.

[30] Sharp stones are under him: he spreads sharp pointed things upon the mire (Satan cannot be opposed as other creatures).

[31] He makes the deep to boil like a pot: he makes the sea like a pot of ointment.

[32] He makes a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to be hoary (while the path shines, still, it is deception).

[33] Upon Earth there is not his like, who is made without fear.

[34] He beholds all high things: he is a king over all the children of pride. (Pride is the crowning sin that besets the human race; it is the foundation sin of all sin; it is the "'good' side" of the "Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil." Behind every sin, one ultimately will find pride. It is that which God cannot abide. It is the sin that caused the downfall of Lucifer to begin with [Ezek. 28:17]. Pride is the sin that caused the Fall of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden [Gen. 3:5–7]. Pride is the sin that God hates more than any other sin, "a proud look" [Prov. 6:16–17].)

CHAPTER 42

(1520 B.C.)

JOB'S REPLY

1 Then Job answered the LORD, and said,

2 I know that You can do everything, and that no thought can be withheld from You (from the Lord's questions to Job, he knows that God is Omnipotent [all-powerful], as well as Omniscient [all-knowing]).

3 Who is he who hides counsel without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that I understood not; things too wonderful for me, which I knew not (even though it seems that God did not directly accuse Job of such, still, after Job saw and heard the Lord, he realized how woeful that his knowledge of God actually was).

4 Hear, I beseech You, and I will speak: I will demand of You, and declare You unto me (many times in the last few months, Job had longed for this opportunity to speak to God; now the opportunity presents itself; what he will say after seeing the Lord will not be nearly what he thought he would say; he had spoken of how he would demand of God, but now he falls silent, and rightly so).

5 I have heard of You by the hearing of the ear: but now my eye sees You (from this we must believe that God made a visible appearance to Job, and that he was able to see His bodily shape; as well, we must conclude that God is a literal Person with a Spirit Body).

6 Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes. (In effect, Job had previously reported that he had not abhorred himself, but, on the contrary, thought well of himself and had held fast to his moral excellency. The discovery of the deep corruption of the heart is the most painful and humbling that a man can make.

So the Patriarch had to crucify all his goodness as truly as all his badness, and sit in wood ashes as a public confession that he merited death because of his sin-defiled nature.

This moral principle governs the Salvation of the sinner as well as the Sanctification of the Saint.)

JOB PRAYS FOR HIS FRIENDS

7 And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against you, and against your two friends (the Lord completely ignores Elihu): for you have not spoken of Me the thing that is right, as My servant Job has. (We will find that even though the Lord has spoken well of Job, still, everyone had to change except God! This is a crowning Truth that all must understand and believe. It is not God Who needs to change; we do.)

8 Therefore take unto you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a Burnt Offering; and My servant Job shall pray for you: for him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that you have not spoken of Me the thing which is right, like My servant Job. (The answer to Job's "three 'friends'" was Calvary, as Calvary is the answer to all. The number "seven" speaks of the perfect Offering of the Lord Jesus Christ at Calvary by the offering of Himself.)

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted Job (the Lord accepted the intercession of Job on behalf of his "three 'friends'"; Job is thus a Type of Christ, not merely in his sufferings, but also in his mediatorial character).

10 And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends (Job had to humble himself and pray for God to bless these three chieftains who had so despitefully used him and persecuted him, and the three princes themselves had to confess themselves worthy of death and seek forgiveness from God through the Precious Blood of Christ, as foreshadowed in Verse 8, and acceptance before God in the Person of Christ, as typified in Verse 9): also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before (added to all that had been Job's to the double; thus this Book sets off the action of God in leading His Children into a higher Christian experience; the subject of this Book is not how God justifies a sinner so much as it is how God sanctifies a Saint; hence, none but a good man such as Job could have been chosen for the process or profited by it).

11 Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they who had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him (had allowed to be brought upon him): every man also gave him a piece of money, and everyone an earring of gold (all of those who had previously spoken so harshly of him will change their minds now that God has appeared; public opinion is fickle and always according to appearances and circumstances; now they would attempt to atone for their judgmental attitudes by giving Job an offering).

12 So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses. (All goodness and beauty which men recognize in themselves and in others must be nailed in death to the Cross, and the only Man Who is to live must be the risen Man, Christ Jesus.

True self-abhorrence comes not from self-examination, but in looking away from self to Jesus, the Perfecter, as well as the Author of Faith. Job was very much satisfied with himself until he saw God. "Self" is very enticing to man, especially religious self, and self-examination is an interesting occupation and, accordingly, it is found very difficult to learn the lesson to crucify it, and to find that victory is enjoyed only when self is ignored and Christ adored — Williams.)

13 He had also seven sons and three daughters (the Lord replaced what he had lost, and much, much more!).

14 And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch.

15 And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

16 After this lived Job an hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations. (It has been concluded from this statement, combined with that at the close of Verse 10, that Job was exactly seventy years of age when his calamities fell upon him. That being the case, Job would have lived to the age of 210.)

17 So Job died, being old and full of days. (In effect, the Book of Job reveals the death of self, the risen life, the school of God, the emptiness of the world, the ugliness of self-righteousness and, above all, the fullness of Christ.)

CHAPTER 1

THE GENESIS BOOK: THE BLESSEDNESS OF CHRIST

[1] Blessed (happy) i s the Man (Christ Jesus, Who is our Representative Man [I Cor. 15:47]) Who walks (orders His lifestyle) not in the counsel of the ungodly (but according to the Word of God), nor stands in the way of sinners (doesn't trod the evil path of sin), nor sits in the seat of the scornful (but rather evidences Faith in God. All 150 Psalms point to Christ, with the exception of the parts that point to the Evil One and his followers. As the Gospels proclaim the Acts of Christ, the Psalms portray His Heart, in His Atoning, Mediatorial, or Intercessory Work).

[2] But His (our Lord's) delight is in the Law of the LORD (God's Word [119:97–108]); and in His Law does He meditate day and night (this was the manner of Christ as our Representative Man in His Earthly sojourn; as our example, it is meant to be our practice as well).

[3] And He shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water (symbol of the Holy Spirit [Jn. 7:37–39]), that brings forth His Fruit in His Season (Jn. 15:1–8); His Leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever He does shall prosper ("His Leaf" corresponds with the "Tree of Life"; everything that man does dies; everything Jesus does lives forever and is blessed).

THE MISERY OF THE UNRIGHTEOUS

[4] The ungodly are not so (speaks primarily of the Antichrist; however, it includes all who follow Satan): but are like the chaff which the wind drives away (no matter how rich, famous, or powerful the ungodly might be, the Lord refers to them as "chaff").

[5] Therefore the ungodly (the Antichrist) shall not stand in the Judgment (will not be able to pass muster, so to speak), nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous (only those who follow the "Blessed Man," Who is Christ, are judged as righteous)**.

6 For the LORD knows the way of the righteous (Christ and all who follow Him): but the way of the ungodly (the Antichrist) shall perish (it's either Christ or the Antichrist!)**.

CHAPTER 2

A PSALM OF DAVID: MESSIAH'S KINGSHIP AND KINGDOM

[1] Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? (This is the great gathering of the mighty armies of the Antichrist against Christ in Rev., Chpt. 17.)

[2] The kings of the Earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against His Anointed (the Lord Jesus Christ; this is the Battle of Armageddon), saying,

[3] Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us (man has ever tried to disassociate himself from God; the first organized effort was the building of the Tower of Babel [Gen., Chpt. 11]; this last great organized effort will be the Antichrist, who will seek to overcome Christ once and for all; as the first failed, so will the last)**.

[4] He who sits in the heavens shall laugh (man's great efforts against Christ only produce a "laugh" on the part of the Creator): the LORD shall have them in derision (holds them in contempt)**.

[5] Then shall He speak unto them in His wrath, and vex them in His sore displeasure (this pertains to the Second Coming)**.

[6] Yet have I set My King upon My Holy Hill of Zion (which will take place immediately after the Second Coming; the "Blessed Man" of Psalm 1, and the "Crowned King" of Psalm 2 are the One and Same Divine Person, the Messiah, the Son of Man, the Son of God; in both Psalms, He stands in contrast to the first Adam as Man and King in the Earth and over the Earth)**.

[7] I will declare the decree (the Father gives the Son sovereign power over the Universe): the LORD has said unto Me, You are My Son (the Lord Jesus Christ); this day have I begotten You. (What day? The day this was decreed in Heaven, even before the foundation of the world. It speaks of the Plan of God to redeem humanity, by God becoming Man, and going to the Cross [I Pet. 1:18–20.)

[8] Ask of Me, and I shall give You the heathen for Your Inheritance (speaks of two things: the defeat of the Antichrist at the Battle of Armageddon, and the evangelization of the world), and the uttermost parts of the Earth for Your possession (Christ will rule the entirety of the world in the Kingdom Age, and not the Antichrist).

[9] You shall break them with a rod of iron; You shall dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel (meaning that the Kingdom Age will come in with great violence; it pertains to the Second Coming, when the Lord will smite the nations [Ezek., Chpts. 38–39; Dan. 2:34–35]).

[10] Be wise now therefore, O you kings: be instructed, you judges of the Earth (in other words, let this be a warning to you; don't side with the Antichrist).

[11] Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling (the idea is, the Lord is going to win out).

[12] Kiss the Son (the Lord Jesus, meaning to embrace Him), lest He be angry, and you perish from the way, when His wrath is kindled but a little (once again, it speaks of the coming Battle of Armageddon). Blessed are all they who put their trust in Him (which holds for all people for all time).

CHAPTER 3

A PSALM OF DAVID: A PRAYER OF CONFIDENCE IN THE LORD

[1] LORD, how are they increased who trouble Me! many are they who rise up against Me. (The Holy Spirit put these words into David's mouth the morning after his flight from Jerusalem because of Absalom's unnatural rebellion. David is seen here as a Type of the Messiah rejected by His Own people. Though surrounded by enemies, he slept in confidence upon the mountainside beneath Jehovah's sheltering wing, and in the assurance of Faith declared that God would lift up his head and destroy his foes. So, even though many of these Psalms speak of David, they more so speak of our Greater David, the Lord Jesus Christ. In other words, David was a Type of Christ.)

[2] Many there be which say of My soul, There is no help for Him in God. Selah. (As Israel said this of David, likewise, they said it of the Lord Jesus Christ [Mat. 27:43].)

[3] But You, O LORD, are a shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of my head (the latter phrase proclaims the fact that it is the Lord Who put David on the throne, and the Lord will keep him on the throne)**.

[4] I cried unto the LORD with my voice, and He heard me out of His Holy Hill. Selah. (David believed in prayer, and so should we!)

[5] I laid me down and slept; I awaked; for the LORD sustained me (even though in the midst of a terrible problem, with Absalom trying to kill him, David knew that the Lord was in control)**.

[6] I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, who have set themselves against me round about (the Lord, with one man who believes in Him, is a majority [Rom. 8:31])**.

[7] Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God: for You have smitten all my enemies upon the cheek bone; You have broken the teeth of the ungodly (a euphemism or allegory portraying the Lord discomfiting our enemies; the idea is, if we are truly right with God, the enemies of the Lord are also our enemies!).

[8] Salvation belongs unto the LORD (He Alone can save): Your Blessing is upon Your People. Selah. (The Blessings surely aren't on God's enemies.)

CHAPTER 4

A PSALM OF DAVID: AN EVENING PRAYER OF TRUST IN GOD

[1] Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: You have enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer (this Psalm was composed by David on the same occasion as Psalm 3, when Absalom rebelled; as David cried to the Lord, likewise, the Lord Jesus cried to God in the same manner when the Scribes and Pharisees, in the spirit of Absalom, came against Him)**.

[2] O you sons of men, how long will you turn my glory into shame? how long will you love vanity, and seek after leasing? Selah. (Leasing means lying. The sins listed in this Verse are the reason that Absalom rebelled against his father; the Scribes and Pharisees rebelled against Christ; and all men rebel against God.)

[3] But know that the LORD has set apart him who is Godly for Himself: the LORD will hear when I call unto Him (the Lord has set aside Christ as His very Own — made Him a special subject of Grace and Providence; He will do the same for all who properly follow Christ)**.

[4] Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah. (This was perhaps addressed to David's faithful followers, advising them to check their wrath [II Sam. 16:9; 18:5–15]. As well, when reviled, Jesus did not revile again [I Pet. 2:23].)

[5] Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the LORD (in effect, Jesus is saying that He counsels the Pharisees to commune with their own hearts, to be silent in true conversion, and to offer righteous sacrifices and not vain oblations)**.

[6] There be many who say, Who will show us any good? LORD, lift You up the light of Your Countenance upon us (men are always seeking for good while not actually knowing what their true good is; the true good is to have the light of God's Countenance shining on us)**.

[7] You have put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased (the greater Blessings are spiritual rather than material)**.

[8] I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for You, LORD, only make me dwell in safety (even in the face of acute trouble, David did, and the Lord likewise, lay down in perfect peace, and went immediately to sleep, for He was the Prince and Perfecter of Faith [Lk. 21:37; Heb. 12:2])**.

CHAPTER 5

A PSALM OF DAVID: A PRAYER FOR PROTECTION

[1] Give ear to my words, O LORD, consider my meditation. (As the Fourth Psalm was an evening Psalm, a prayer to the Lord concerning the coming night, the Fifth Psalm is a morning Psalm. David awakens to meditate upon God and pray. This pertains likewise to Christ [Isa. 50:4].)

[2] Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto You will I pray (we learn from these Psalms just how strong was David's prayer life, and likewise our Saviour's)**.

[3] My voice shall You hear in the morning, O LORD; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto You, and will look up (he will "look up," simply because his help comes from above; we must never forget that)**.

[4] For You are not a God Who has pleasure in wickedness: neither shall evil dwell with You (there was no wickedness or evil in the Messiah; there was terrible wickedness and evil in Israel)**.

[5] The foolish shall not stand in Your sight: You hate all workers of iniquity (Israel played the fool and rejected the Messiah; consequently, they could not stand in God's sight; God cannot abide wickedness or evil, even in those He calls His "Chosen")**.

[6] You shall destroy them who speak leasing (lies): the LORD will abhor the bloody and deceitful man (this has a double meaning; the first speaks of Ahithophel, who betrayed David; he was David's closest advisor; the second and foremost speaks of Judas, the Lord's Disciple, who betrayed Him)**.

[7] But as for me, I will come into Your House in the multitude of Your Mercy: and in Your fear will I worship toward Your Holy Temple (the "Temple" referred to here is speaking of the Heavenly Temple toward which David prayed and the Earthly Temple into which Jesus went [Jn. 2:16]; so, He came into this "House" in "Mercy" and "fear" and cleansed the Temple of its traffickers).

8 Lead me, O LORD, in Your Righteousness because of my enemies; make Your Way straight before my face (when Jesus cleansed the Temple, He did not fear His "enemies," because He was led by the Holy Spirit because of Righteousness).

9 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth (the Pharisees); their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulchre (the Sadducees); they flatter with their tongue (the Herodians).

10 Destroy You them, O God; let them fall by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against You (in all cases, this prayer was answered; Ahithophel died of suicide, Absalom was killed in the battle to overthrow David; likewise, Judas died of suicide, and the whole of Israel was destroyed in A.D. 70).

11 But let all those who put their trust in You rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because You defend them: let them also who love Your Name be joyful in You (this Passage speaks of the Resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ, and also the Resurrection of David, who was resurrected from potential destruction; David placed his trust in Jehovah, and the Lord restored him to the throne).

12 For You, LORD, will bless the Righteous; with favour will You compass him as with a shield. (The "shield" addressed here is the largest size, which covers the entire body. This shield here is the favor and Grace of Jehovah.

The "Righteous" is the Lord Jesus. All who are in Him are likewise blessed.)

CHAPTER 6

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE INTERCESSORY PRAYER OF CHRIST

[1] O Lord rebuke me not in Your anger, neither chasten me in Your hot displeasure. (This is an example of the complete advocacy of Christ in Intercession. He, though Himself sinless, declares Himself in these Psalms to be the Advocate. And He expresses to God the abhorrence of sin, accompanied by the Repentance and sorrow which man ought to feel and express, but will not and cannot. Similarly, the faith, love, obedience, and worship which man fails to give, He perfectly renders.

Thus, as the High Priest of His People, He, the True Advocate, charges Himself with the guilt of our sins, declares them to be His Own, confesses them, repents of them, declaring at the same time His Own sinlessness, and atones for them. Thus, those Psalms in which the speaker declares his sinfulness and his sinlessness become quite clear of comprehension when it is recognized Who the Speaker is — Williams.)

[2] Have mercy upon me, O LORD; for I am weak: O LORD, heal me; for my bones are vexed. (As David cried these words to the Lord, he was saying that which the Son of David cried for Israel, and as well for every Saint of God. In fact, these particular Psalms constitute the Intercession of Christ on our behalf. So, when you read these words, apply them to yourself, for they were given for you and me.)

[3] My soul is also sore vexed: but You, O LORD, how long? (In essence, Jesus repeated these words later in His Ministry, when He said, "Now is My soul troubled" [Jn. 12:27].)

[4] Return, O LORD, deliver my soul: oh save me for Your Mercies' sake (it is only by and through the Mercy of God that we are Saved or helped; for certain, we do not deserve such!)**.

[5] For in death there is no remembrance of You: in the grave who shall give You thanks? (This means simply that after death there is no more opportunity to be saved.)

[6] I am weary with my groaning; all the night make I my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears (on this particular night, and no doubt on many other nights, Christ in secret wept bitterly over the guilty city, as that day He had wept aloud over it in public [Lk. 19:41])**.

[7] My eye is consumed because of grief; it waxes old because of all my enemies (David's enemies were myriad because David was a Type of Christ, Who as well would be surrounded by many enemies — the Pharisees, etc.)**.

[8] Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity; for the LORD has heard the voice of my weeping. (For three and one half years of public ministry, the Lord importuned the leaders of Israel to return to God; however, they persisted in their iniquity and rebellion. Soon He would depart for Glory, and soon they would depart for eternal darkness [Jn. 7:34].)

[9] The LORD has heard my supplication; the LORD will receive my prayer (the LORD always hears the prayers of the Messiah; He always heeds His Supplication)**.

[10] Let all my enemies be ashamed and sore vexed: let them return and be ashamed suddenly (this prayer regarding Christ has not yet been answered; it will be answered in the not-too-distant future [Zech. 12:10])**.

CHAPTER 7

A PSALM OF DAVID: A PETITION FOR PROTECTION

[1] O Lord my God, in You do I put my trust: save me from all them who persecute me, and deliver me (David more than likely wrote this Psalm [song] while Saul was attempting to kill him; however, in a greater way, this Psalm refers to the suffering of the Messiah in sympathy with the elect remnant of Israel under the persecution of the Antichrist.

I think it would be obvious in all of these Psalms written by David that his personal experiences and moral character were much below the language of the Psalm. It is, therefore, prophetic of the Messiah):

[2] Lest he tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver (all of this answers to these some twenty-one attempts of Saul to kill David [I Sam. 18:1-26:2])**.

[3] O LORD my God, If I have done this; if there be iniquity in my hands (David was accused by Saul of seeking the kingdom and the opportunity to kill the king; David denies these charges here before God, offering to lay down his life if such be true)**;

[4] If I have reward evil unto him who was at peace with me; (yes, I have delivered him who without cause is my enemy [David denies that he has either injured a friend or requited evil to a foe]**:)

[5] Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yes, let him tread down my life upon the Earth, and lay my honour in the dust. Selah.

[6] Arise, O LORD, in Your anger, lift up Yourself because of the rage of my enemies: and awake for me to the judgment that You have commanded (in other words, "Lord, I desperately need Your help")**.

7 So shall the congregation of the people compass You about: for their sakes therefore return You on high ("Lord, come down and do something, and then return to Heaven").

8 The LORD shall judge the people: judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, and according to my integrity that is in me (our Faith in Christ gives us His Righteousness and His Integrity).

9 Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God tries the hearts and reins (it is not so much the removal of the wicked, but the removal of their wickedness, that David desires).

10 My defence is of God, Who saves the upright in heart (one can be "upright in heart" only by trust in Christ!).

11 God judges the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day (God's Anger continues against the wicked as long as their wickedness continues [I Pet. 4:17]).

12 If he turn not, He will whet His sword; He has bent His Bow, and made it ready (every new transgression sets a fresh edge to God's sword).

13 He has also prepared for him the instruments of death; He ordains His arrows against the persecutors (what one sows, one will reap [Gal. 6:7]).

14 Behold, he (the persecutors) travails with iniquity, and has conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood (in particular, it pictures Saul and, in general, the Antichrist).

15 He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made (the fall of both Saul and the Antichrist).

16 His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate (this was fulfilled in Saul when he died fighting the Philistines, and will be fulfilled in particular when the Antichrist is subdued by Christ at the Second Coming [Ezek., Chpts. 38– 39]).

17 I will praise the LORD according to His Righteousness: and will sing praise to the Name of the LORD Most High (the phrase, "Most High," in the Hebrew, is "Elyon," which means "Possessor of Heaven and Earth; the dispenser of God's Blessings in the Earth"; it is one of the titles of the Messiah as "Most High" over all the Earth)**.

CHAPTER 8

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE SOVEREIGNTY OF THE SON OF MAN

[1] O Lord our LORD, how excellent is Your Name in all the Earth! who has set Your Glory above the heavens (this Psalm pictures the happiness that is to fill the Earth when, after the destruction of the Antichrist and his followers, the Messiah will establish His Kingdom of Righteousness and Peace, and His Right to ascend the Throne)**.

[2] Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings have You ordained strength because of Your enemies, that You might still the enemy and the avenger (the word "babes" is figurative and portrays the redeemed; the redeemed will praise Him because He has "stilled the enemy and the avenger" — namely Satan)**.

[3] When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your Fingers, the moon and the stars, which You have ordained (the argument of Verses 3–8 is the amazing Love of Christ in coming forth from the Highest Glory to redeem a being so insignificant as man)**;

[4] What is man, that You are mindful of him? and the son of man, that You visit him? (God became man and went to Calvary in order to redeem fallen humanity. The price that was paid for that Redemption proclaims to us the worth of man, which, in fact, is God's highest Creation.)

[5] For You have made him a little lower than the Angels, and have crowned him with glory and honor (the Hebrew word "Elohim" here translated "Angels" should have been translated "God" or "Godhead," for that's what the word actually means; there is no place in the Old Testament where "Elohim" means "Angels"; this means that man was originally created higher than the Angels, and through Christ will be restored to that lofty position [Rom. 8:14–17])**.

[6] You made him to have dominion over the works of Your Hands; You have put all things under His Feet (in their fullness, these words given here are only true of the God-Man, Jesus Christ [Mat. 28:18]; Christ has been exalted to a place higher than Angels or any other being except the Father; redeemed man is to be raised up to that exalted position with Him [Eph. 2:6–7])**:

[7] All sheep and oxen, yes, and the beasts of the field;

[8] The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passes through the paths of the seas (man was made to have dominion over all this)**.

[9] O LORD our Lord, how excellent is Your Name in all the Earth! (Christ is the Head of the Church, which is His Body; ultimately, that which is given by Promise will, upon the Resurrection of Life, be carried to its ultimate victorious conclusion.)

CHAPTER 9

A PSALM OF DAVID: PRAISE TO GOD, THE GREAT DELIVERER

[1] I will praise You, O LORD, with my whole heart; I will show forth all Your marvelous Works (David praises the Lord for victory; however, the greater fulfillment is praise to the Lord for the victory of Christ over the Antichrist in the coming Battle of Armageddon).

[2] I will be glad and rejoice in You: I will sing praise to Your Name, O You Most High (Possessor of Heaven and Earth).

[3] When my enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at Your Presence (once again, proclaims the defeat of the Antichrist).

[4] For You have maintained my right and my cause; You sat in the Throne judging right (it is the Lord Who decided the victory!).

[5] You have rebuked the heathen, You have destroyed the wicked, You have put out their name for ever and ever (once again, victory over the Antichrist).

[6] O you enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: and you have destroyed cities; their memorial is perished with them ("you, the Antichrist, will destroy no more").

[7] But the LORD shall endure for ever: He has prepared His Throne for Judgment (the beginning of the Kingdom Age, which will commence immediately after the defeat of the Antichrist).

[8] And He shall judge the world in righteousness, He shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness (the government of the world will be upon His shoulder [Isa. 9:6]).

[9] The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble (the "oppressed" will no longer be oppressed)**.

[10] And they who know Your Name will put their trust in You: for You, LORD, have not forsaken them who seek You (the Lord forsakes not His Saints; we are preserved forever [Ps. 37:28])**.

[11] Sing praises to the LORD, Who dwells in Zion: declare among the people His Doings (this is the Kingdom Age, when the Lord reigns supreme from Jerusalem)**.

[12] When He makes inquisition for blood, He remembers them: He forgets not the cry of the humble (God will eventually avenge all the righteous and punish oppressors and criminals; this will take place at the beginning of the Kingdom Age)**.

[13] Have mercy upon me, O LORD; consider my trouble which I suffer of them who hate me, You Who lifts me up from the gates of death (the Lord will deliver Israel from the Antichrist when they are at the very "gates of death")**:

[14] That I may show forth all Your praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will rejoice in Your Salvation (Israel will then accept Christ as Saviour and Lord [Zech. 13:1])**.

[15] The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken (the Antichrist will set a trap for the whole of Israel; however, he will be snared in his own "net")**.

[16] The LORD is known by the judgment which He executes: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah. (The last two words speak of meditation on what has been said.)

[17] The wicked shall be turned into Hell, and all the nations that forget God (every nation that sides with the Antichrist will, in effect, have turned their back on God, and as well will be "turned into Hell")**.

[18] For the needy (Israel) shall not alway be forgotten: the expectation of the poor (Israel) shall not perish for ever (in the midst of the Battle of Armageddon, the Lord will come to the rescue of Israel).

[19] Arise, O LORD; let not man (the Antichrist) prevail: let the heathen be judged in Your sight.

[20] Put them in fear, O LORD: that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah. (Despite the fact that the Antichrist and his followers will strut like gods, the truth is, they are but men; and up beside the Power of God, they are nothing!)

CHAPTER 10

AN APPEAL TO PUNISH THE WICKED

[1] Why do You stand afar off, O LORD? Why do You hide Yourself in times of trouble? (This is referring to "Jacob's trouble," speaking of the Great Tribulation [Jer. 30:7].)

[2] The wicked (the Antichrist) in his pride does persecute the poor (Israel): let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined (they imagined destroying Israel, but instead they will be destroyed).

[3] For the wicked boasts of his heart's desire, and blesses the covetous, whom the LORD abhors (Paul referred to the Antichrist as "the wicked" [II Thess. 2:8]).

[4] The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: God is not in all his thoughts (in the pride of the Antichrist, he will declare that there is no God, or that, if there is, He takes no interest in human affairs).

[5] His ways are always grievous; Your Judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffs at them (the Antichrist will declare that the Judgment of God cannot reach him).

[6] He has said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity (the Antichrist will think himself unbeatable, unstoppable, and immovable).

[7] His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and vanity (all his faculties will be employed in his efforts to destroy Israel).

[8] He sits in the lurking places of the villages: in the secret places does he murder the innocent: his eyes are privily set against the poor (refers to his efforts to destroy the "holy people," Israel).

9 He lies in wait secretly as a lion in his den: he lies in wait to catch the poor: he does catch the poor, when he draws him into his net.

10 He crouches, and humbles himself, that the poor may fall by his strong ones (all of this to destroy Israel; the Antichrist will think to do what Haman, Herod, and Hitler could not do!).

11 He has said in his heart, God has forgotten: He hides His face; He will never see it (Daniel said, "And He shall speak great words against the Most High" [Dan. 7:25]).

A PETITION FOR HELP

12 Arise, O LORD; O God, lift up Your Hand: forget not the humble (the "humble" refers to Israel in the Battle of Armageddon, when it seems as if she will suffer total loss).

13 Wherefore does the wicked contemn God? he has said in his heart, You will not require it (the Antichrist will think himself above God).

14 You have seen it; for You behold mischief and spite, to requite it with Your Hand: the poor commits himself unto You; You are the Helper of the fatherless (at long last "the poor" [Israel] will commit herself unto the Lord; this is the primary purpose of the Great Tribulation — to bring Israel to Christ).

15 Break You the arm of the wicked and the evil man: seek out his wickedness till You find none ("Lord, destroy the Antichrist"; and that's exactly what will happen).

16 The LORD is King for ever and ever (not the Antichrist): the heathen are perished out of His land (the Antichrist and his army will be destroyed in Israel, and taken out [Ezek., Chpts. 38–39]).

17 LORD, You have heard the desire of the humble: You will prepare their heart, You will cause Your ear to hear (at that time, the Battle of Armageddon, Israel will call upon the Lord, and He will hear)**:

[18] To judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the Earth may no more oppress (the apparition of the Messiah will so effectually destroy the Antichrist that he will be no more [Rev., Chpt. 19])**.

CHAPTER 11

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE LORD IS OUR FAITHFUL DEFENDER

[1] In the LORD put I my trust: how say you to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain? (Even though there is no sure way of knowing, this Psalm was probably written when Saul was constantly threatening David with death. To the Lord Alone could David look.)

[2] For, lo, the wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may privily shoot at the upright in heart (as this possibly represented Saul in his effort to destroy David, even more so it represents the Antichrist, who will make every effort to destroy Israel; it will be during the time of the Great Tribulation [Jer. 30:7])**.

[3] If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do? (World law, whether the participants realize it or not, is based at least in part on the Bible; however, the Antichrist will do all within his power to abolish these foundations of law and replace them with lawlessness. Righteous men will then have no legal remedy.)

[4] The LORD is in His Holy Temple, the LORD's Throne is in Heaven: His eyes behold, His eyelids try, the children of men (even during the times when it seems as if the Lord is doing nothing, He sees all, both good and bad)**.

[5] The LORD tries the righteous: but the wicked and him who loves violence His soul hates (the Faith of the righteous must be tested, and great Faith must be tested greatly)**.

[6] Upon the wicked He shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup (true, in general, but particularly to the Antichrist)**.

[7] For the righteous LORD loves Righteousness; His Countenance does behold the upright (“Righteousness” is simply that which is “right”; however, its standard is God’s standard and not man’s)**.

CHAPTER 12

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE RIGHTEOUS ARE DELIVERED

[1] Help, LORD; for the Godly man ceases; for the faithful fail from among the children of men. (This Psalm as well was probably written during the time of persecution by Saul. Violence and falsehood are Satan's two greatest weapons against the servants of God. The violence of the false messiah is the theme in the previous Chapter, with falsehood being the theme in this Chapter.)

[2] They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak (whenever the Bible is displaced by human teaching, a logical result is that righteous men will be persecuted)**.

[3] The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaks proud things (all who do not believe the Word of God will ultimately be "cut off")**:

[4] Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips are our own: who is lord over us? (In the Great Tribulation when the Antichrist prevails, false teachers will abound. They will boast that they are their own masters controlled by no God of the Heavens. They will say that their lips are their own; that their teaching originates with themselves.)

[5] For the oppression of the poor (Israel), for the sighing of the needy (Israel), now will I arise, says the LORD; I will set him in safety from him who puffs at him (speaks of David, but more than all of the Lord's protection of Israel in the coming Great Tribulation)**.

[6] The Words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times (the Word of God is perfectly pure)**.

[7] You shall keep them, O LORD, You shall preserve them from this generation for ever (the time of the Great Tribulation will be Israel's greatest trial; they will be preserved by the Second Coming, and thereby forever [Mat. 24:21])*.

8 The wicked walk on every side, when the vilest men are exalted (pertains to Saul, but more than all to the Antichrist).

CHAPTER 13

A PSALM OF DAVID: A PRAYER OF DISTRESS AND FAITH

[1] How long will You forget me, O LORD? forever? how long will you hide Your Face from me? (Some think this Psalm was written by David during the time of Saul, with others believing that David wrote it after committing the sin concerning Bath-sheba and her husband Uriah.

Even though David here cries for help, the far greater picture pertains to the coming sufferings of Israel during the "times of trouble" under the reign of the false messiah [Jer. 30:7]. However, the ultimate portrayal is the Greater David, the Lord Jesus Christ, interceding for Israel and as Israel.)

[2] How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall my enemy be exalted over me? (Once again, this pertains to David and also to Israel during the coming Great Tribulation. As well, it must be understood that these Psalms are applicable to us as individuals!)

[3] Consider and hear me, O LORD my God: lighten my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death (symbolized by David, this will be the prayer prayed by Israel when it looks like the Antichrist will completely destroy them; actually, you are reading the very words here which will precipitate the Second Coming)**;

[4] Lest my enemy say, I have prevailed against him; and those who trouble me rejoice when I am moved (false apostles always rejoice when true Apostles suffer trouble)**.

[5] But I have trusted in Your Mercy; my heart shall rejoice in Your Salvation (perhaps these words were written immediately after the writing of the Fifty-first Psalm)**.

[6] I will sing unto the LORD, because He has dealt bountifully with me

(the word “bountifully” can be translated “compensated”; it thus reaffirms what so often appears in the Scriptures, that the overcomer will be compensated both here and in the future state for all troubles and sufferings, and that he will learn that perfect wisdom and infinite love will permit and overrule every trial)*.

CHAPTER 14

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE FOOLISHNESS OF MEN

[1] The fool has said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none who does good (the "fool" is the Antichrist, along with all who will follow him; despite all of their promises to "do good," they will do no good at all, only great harm)**.

[2] The LORD looked down from Heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any who did understand, and seek God. (During the Great Tribulation, due to the fact that the Church has been raptured away, there will not be many on Earth living for God, at least according to the entirety of the population.

The word "looked" means literally to bow Himself over to get a better and closer examination of men and their wicked ways.

Most of these Psalms have a threefold application: 1. They apply to the matter at hand, whatever it might be; 2. They apply to every Believer who reads them; and, 3. They have a prophetic meaning, with many of them pointing toward the coming Antichrist and Israel's coming problems.).

[3] They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none who does good, no, not one (applies to the whole human race, with the only solution being Christ and what He did at the Cross)**.

[4] Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up My People as they eat bread, and call not upon the LORD (even though "My People" has a general application, more particularly it speaks of Israel in the coming Great Tribulation)**.

[5] There were they in great fear: for God is in the generation of the righteous (God's people cannot be attacked without provoking Him; we are in Him, and He in us; He will assuredly come to our relief)**.

6 You have shamed the counsel of the poor, because the LORD is his refuge (the "poor" pictures Israel and her coming troubles, with the statement presented that Israel will have no help from any other nation in the world, except the Lord)**.

7 Oh that the Salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! when the LORD brings back the captivity of His People, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad (this speaks of the Second Coming, when Israel will then be redeemed [Zech., Chpt. 14])**.

CHAPTER 15

A PSALM OF DAVID: WHO SHALL DWELL IN YOUR HOLY HILL?

[1] LORD, who shall abide in Your Tabernacle? who shall dwell in Your Holy Hill? (The Messiah Alone satisfies the requirements of Verses 2 through 5.)

[2] He who walks uprightly, and works righteousness, and speaks the truth in His heart. (Verses 2 through 5 pertain to the Perfect Man Who perfectly keeps and perfectly kept God's Perfect Law. He lives blamelessly and always did so live; He practices Righteousness and never practices ought. This is Christ, and Christ Alone!)

[3] He who backbites not with his tongue, nor does evil to his neighbour, nor takes up a reproach against his neighbour.

[4] In whose eyes a vile person is contemned (condemned); but He honours them who fear the LORD. He who swears to His own hurt, and changes not (Christ swore to keep the Law; He did so, and suffered Crucifixion [119:106])**.

[5] He who puts not out his money to usury, nor takes reward against the innocent. He who does these things shall never be moved. (We were not purchased with such corruptible things as silver or gold, but by the Precious Blood of Christ [I Pet. 1:18–20].

God's requirement for eternal life is perfection. No one except the Lord Jesus Christ has ever met that standard and no one ever will; nevertheless, the moment we accept Christ as our Saviour, He becomes our Substitute in all things. Then His Perfection becomes our perfection, and we shall sit with Christ in Heavenly Places [Eph. 2:6].)

CHAPTER 16

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE COMING DAVIDIC KING

[1] Preserve me, O God: for in You do I put my trust (all of the Verses of this Psalm refer to the Messiah, with the first four Verses referring also to David)**.

[2] O my soul, You have said unto the LORD, You are my LORD; my goodness extends not to You (could be translated, "You are my Lord, I have no good beyond and apart from You; You are my highest and only good")**;

[3] But to the Saints who are in the Earth, and to the excellent, in whom is all my delight (thus the Messiah appears as a Man in His relation to God and as a Brother in His relation to Israel and the Church)**.

[4] Their sorrows shall be multiplied who hasten after another god: their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips (anything other than "Christ and Him Crucified" is "another god," i.e., "another Jesus" [II Cor. 11:4])**.

[5] The LORD is the portion of my inheritance and of my cup: You maintain my lot (this Verse expresses the Mission and characterizes the Ministry given to the Messiah and declared by Him to be pleasant and goodly — the Redemption of man)**.

[6] The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage (the Messiah's heritage is the Redemption of man and the Restoration of the Earth to God, all made possible by the Cross [Eph. 1:10; Rev., Chpts. 21–22])**.

[7] I will bless the LORD, Who has given me counsel: my reins also instruct me in the night seasons (Christ, by dwelling in a human body, "learned obedience" [Heb. 5:8]; He did not have to learn to be obedient, for that would imply that He was a sinner by nature, but He "learned obedience," which is quite another thing).

[8] I have set the LORD always before me: because He is at my right hand. I shall not be moved (pertains to the Mission of Redemption).

[9] Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoices: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

[10] For You will not leave my soul in Hell (pertains to Paradise, and not the burning side of Hell as some teach; Jesus never went to that place); neither will You suffer Your Holy One to see corruption (Christ saw no corruption in the grave simply because He atoned for all sin; therefore, there was no doubt about Him being raised from the dead).

[11] You will show me the Path of Life (the Resurrection): in Your Presence is fulness of joy (Christ would be elevated to the very Throne of God [Heb. 1:3]); at Your right Hand there are pleasures for evermore (where He ever lives to make Intercession for the Saints [Heb. 7:26–27]).

CHAPTER 17

A PSALM OF DAVID: A PRAYER FOR PROTECTION

[1] Hear the right, O LORD, attend unto my cry, give ear unto my prayer, that goes not out of feigned lips. (Even though uttered by David, it is a prayer more so of the Greater Son of David. If we lack understanding regarding His Incarnation, it will be difficult for us to understand His praying, as this Psalm proclaims. As He prays, He associates His People with Himself.)

[2] Let my sentence come forth from Your Presence: let Your Eyes behold the things that are equal (could be translated, "Let sentence in my favor be pronounced by You, for Your Eyes discern upright actions")**.

[3] You have proved my heart; You have visited me in the night; You have tried me, and shall find nothing; I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress (Satan found no imperfection in Christ, and God found nothing but perfection in Him)**.

[4] Concerning the works of men, by the word of Your lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.

[5] Hold up my goings in Your Paths, that my footsteps slip not (the "paths of the destroyer" and the "paths of Jehovah" are contrasted in Verses 4 through 5, and the statement is made that preservation from the one and perseverance in the other alone are secured by allegiance to the Scriptures)**.

[6] I have called upon You, for You will hear me, O God: incline Your ear unto me, and hear my speech (this is concentrated intercessory prayer, which is almost unheard of presently!)**.

[7] Show Your marvelous Lovingkindness, O You Who saves by Your right Hand them which put their trust in You from those who rise up against them (in Verses 7 through 14, the Son of David associates His People with Himself; we have the same enemies, and we have the same Deliverer)**.

[8] Keep me as the apple of the eye, hide me under the shadow of Your Wings (the "apple of the eye" is the pupil of the eye; it means that as God looks at His People, figuratively speaking, He can see only His People)**,

[9] From the wicked who oppress me, from my deadly enemies, who compass me about.

[10] They are inclosed in their own fat: with their mouth they speak proudly.

[11] They have now compassed us in our steps: they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth.

[12] Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lion lurking in secret places (Satan comes as a "roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour" [I Pet. 5:8]; he is the enemy of Christ and the enemy of every Child of God)**.

[13] Arise, O LORD, disappoint him, cast him down: deliver my soul from the wicked, which is Your Sword (while this speaks of David, as well as every other Believer, it more pointedly speaks to the Antichrist; Israel must be delivered from him, and will be delivered)**.

[14] From men which are Your Hand, O LORD, from men of the world, which have their portion in this life, and whose belly You fill with Your hid treasure: they are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes (in Verse 13, the enemy is Satan, while in Verse 14, the enemy is men; they are those of the world who have no concern for Heavenly things, and they are full of children, meaning that scores seek to emulate them)**.

[15] As for me, I will behold Your Face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with Your likeness (this statement expresses the highest joy of the spiritual nature; it is the one absorbing desire to see God's Face, and to be like Him)*.

CHAPTER 18

A PSALM OF DAVID: A HYMN OF THANKSGIVING

[1] I will love You, O LORD, my strength. (This is virtually the same Psalm recorded in II Sam., Chpt. 22. David spoke these words to the Lord on the day that the Lord delivered him from the hand of all his enemies from the hand of Saul.)

[2] The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my Deliverer; my God, my strength, in Whom I will trust; my Buckler, and the Horn of my Salvation, and my High Tower (the Lord is all of this through the Cross; Christ is the Source, while the Cross is the means [I Cor. 1:17–18])**.

[3] I will call upon the LORD, Who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from my enemies.

[4] The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of ungodly men made me afraid (in these Verses, David thinks of Saul in his efforts to destroy him)**.

[5] The sorrows of Hell compass me about: the snares of death prevented me (the idea is, Saul would have banned David to Hell if he could have done so; as well, those presently in the apostate Church would do the same to those in the True Church — if they had the power)**.

[6] In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: He heard my voice out of His Temple, and my cry came before Him, even into His ears (these Passages go far beyond David; even more so, they describe the mysterious sufferings of the Messiah at the Cross of Calvary)**.

[7] Then the Earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because He was wroth (when Jesus died on Calvary, an earthquake rent the area of Jerusalem [Mat. 27:51])**.

[8] There went up a smoke out of His nostrils, and fire out of His mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it (this describes God's anger, not at His Son, but at the sin which had caused all of this).

[9] He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was under His feet (Matthew said, at the time of the Cross, there was "darkness over all the land" [Mat. 27:45]).

[10] And He rode upon a Cherub, and did fly: yes, He did fly upon the wings of the wind.

[11] He made darkness His secret place; His pavilion round about Him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

[12] At the brightness that was before Him His thick clouds passed, hail stones and coals of fire.

[13] The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave His voice; hail stones and coals of fire.

[14] Yes, He sent out His arrows, and scattered them; and He shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.

[15] Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at Your rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of Your nostrils.

[16] He sent from above, He took me, He drew me out of many waters.

[17] He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me.

[18] They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my Stay.

[19] He brought me forth also into a large place; He delivered me; because He delighted in me (all of these previous Verses portray the actions of the Heavenly Father as it regards Christ and concerning the Cross of Calvary; these things, whatever they represent, took place in the spirit world).

[20] The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands has He recompensed me (Satan had no claim on Jesus, because He had never sinned; therefore, death could not defeat Him and, in fact, He defeated both Satan and death, because He atoned for all sin [Col. 2:14–15]).

[21] For I have kept the Ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God (Christ was the Perfect Sacrifice, and that He had to be in order to be accepted by the Father).

[22] For all His Judgments were before me, and I did not put away His Statutes from me (the Lord abided by, and kept, every single Statute, Law, and Commandment, failing not even one time [Rom. 10:4]).

[23] I was also upright before Him, and I kept myself from my iniquity (the words, "my iniquity," do not mean that Christ had a besetting sin, nor should they be understood here as intending the iniquity of the Elect whom He had made His Own, but they point to a form of iniquity especially planned by Satan for Him, and to which He Alone could be tempted; the third temptation in the wilderness is an example [Lk. 4:9]).

[24] Therefore has the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in His eyesight (Christ, as the Second Man, did what the first man, Adam, failed to do, which was to render a perfect obedience to God; likewise, such a perfect obedience, upon our Faith registered in Him and what He did at the Cross, becomes our perfect obedience).

[25] With the merciful You will show Yourself merciful; with an upright man You will show Yourself upright (Mat. 5:7);

[26] With the pure You will show Yourself pure; and with the froward You will show Yourself froward (the pure will be met with purity, and the froward will be met with adversity).

27 For You will save the afflicted people; but will bring down high looks (the Lord gives grace to the humble, but resists the proud [I Pet. 5:5])**.

28 For You will light my candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness (the true lamp which enlightens the darkness is the "light of God's Countenance")**.

29 For by You I have run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall (an euphemism for victory)**.

30 As for God, His Way is perfect: the Word of the LORD is tried: He is a Buckler to all those who trust in Him (God's Word is tried in the fire; it has stood all tests; it has never failed those who have pleaded its Promises and met its terms before its Author)**.

31 For Who is God save the LORD? or Who is a Rock save our God? (Absolute confidence may be placed in the Lord, Who is able to protect and preserve to the uttermost all who serve Him.)

GOD'S BLESSINGS

32 It is God Who girds me with strength, and makes my way perfect (perfection is found only in Christ; in the Sin-Offering, the sin of the sinner is given to Christ; in the Burnt-Offering, the Perfection of Christ is given to the sinner)**.

33 He makes my feet like hinds' feet, and sets me upon my high places (He gives me secure possessions)**.

34 He teaches my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by my arms (the language is figurative; when the Herodians, the Pharisees, the Scribes, and the Sadducees warred against Him with their bows of steel, He bent their bows and broke them; He showed the folly of their hard questions and confounded them)**.

35 You have also given me the shield of Your Salvation; and Your right Hand has held me up, and Your gentleness has made me great (the "right hand" speaks of power).

36 You have enlarged my steps under me, that my feet did not slip (pertains to David in the final alternative, but to Christ in totality; His Feet never slipped even one time!).

37 I have pursued my enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed (every sin was atoned for at Calvary; none were left hanging).

38 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet (considering that Believers are the Body of Christ, this means that all enemies are under our feet, because, first of all, they were put under His Feet [Col 1:16–20]).

39 For You have girded me with strength unto the battle: You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.

40 You have also given me the necks of my enemies; that I might destroy them who hate me (and that He did at the Cross).

41 They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto the LORD, but He answered them not (this speaks of the Pharisees, who cried to the Lord against Christ, but a prayer, of course, which could not be answered; no matter how religious man may be, if he opposes Christ and the Cross, God will not answer his prayer).

42 Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind: I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets.

43 You have delivered me from the strivings of the people; and You have made me the head of the heathen: a people whom I have not known shall serve me (due to the Cross, the Gentile world has come to Christ; that obedience will be total in the coming Millennium).

44 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: the strangers shall submit themselves unto me (to the Apostle Paul was given the responsibility of taking the Message of Redemption to the Gentile world; from that time, untold millions have accepted Christ).

45 The strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their close places (which will take place in the coming Millennium).

46 The LORD lives; and blessed be my Rock; and let the God of my Salvation be exalted (at long last, in the Millennial Reign, sin will be put down, Satan will be locked away, and the song of the world will be "The Lord liveth...").

47 It is God Who avenges me, and subdues the people under me.

48 He delivers me from my enemies: yes, You lift me up above those who rise up against me: You have delivered me from the violent man (while David was delivered from Saul, Christ was delivered from all His enemies).

49 Therefore will I give thanks unto You, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praises unto Your Name (at this moment, untold millions in the Gentile world sing praises to the Lord).

50 Great deliverance gives He to His king; and shows mercy to His anointed, to David, and to his seed for evermore (this speaks not only of David and the great victory that God gave him, but it speaks even more so of "His Anointed," meaning the Son of David; also, this same victory is promised to all of us because of the "Son of David," for it says, "to His seed forever more").

CHAPTER 19

A PSALM OF DAVID: THE WONDERFUL CREATION AND COVENANTS OF GOD

[1] The heavens declare the Glory of God; and the firmament shows His Handywork (this Passage means that there is no excuse for man not to believe in God, for we are plainly told here that "the heavens declare the Glory of God").

[2] Day unto day utters speech, and night unto night shows knowledge.

[3] There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard. (This means that the material Earth is the sphere in which the Heavenly Message operates, and the message itself is addressed to the inhabited "world." There is no limitation. All nations are embraced in this gracious revelation. Even though such knowledge does not bring one Salvation, it is the first step toward the acknowledgment of God, and all that pertains to God, which leaves man without excuse.)

[4] Their line (teaching) is gone out through all the Earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them has He set a tabernacle for the sun (this means the heavens and the constellations keep continually pouring forth teaching respecting the Glory of God, so that all nations are without excuse [Rom. 1:19–20]; modern science has discovered that the sun is enclosed in an envelope of fire, but this fact was shown in this Psalm about three thousand years ago),

[5] Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoices as a strong man to run a race (pictures the sun).

[6] His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof (many things are hidden from the light of the sun, but nothing from its "heat," which is the vital force whence the whole Earth receives life and energy, incidentally given here in the Bible first of all).

7 The Law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the Testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple (this tells us that the Bible is Perfect; in fact, the Bible is the only revealed Truth in the world, and in fact ever has been; it alone can "make wise the simple").

8 The Statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the Commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes (they are "right," not merely because they are of the Lord, but because they, in fact, are right).

9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether (this is the instruction afforded by God for fearing Him).

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yes, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb (God's Word is a far greater good to man and, therefore, far more to be desired, than any amount of riches).

11 Moreover by them is Your servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward (one might say that Jesus dwelt in the Scriptures as the sun dwells in the heavens; they "warned" Him, they admonished and taught Him).

12 Who can understand his errors? cleanse You me from secret faults (the only way that one can understand his errors is by going to the Word of God; as well, the only thing that will probe deep into the heart of man, locating the "secret faults," is the Word of God).

13 Keep back Your servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression (the "great transgression" spoken of in this Verse is that of declaring the Word of God insufficient for the problems at hand; this is what makes humanistic psychology so wrong, the embracing of such is a statement that says the Word of God is insufficient).

14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in Your sight, O LORD, my strength, and my Redeemer (our words can only be acceptable unto Him, along with the meditation of our heart, so long as they remain constant in the Word of God)**.

CHAPTER 20

A PSALM OF DAVID: A PSALM OF TRUST: PRAYER FOR VICTORY

[1] The LORD (will) hear you in the day of trouble; the Name of the God of Jacob (will) defend you (in effect, the Holy Spirit prays through David here, stating that the LORD will hear the Messiah regarding His petition; "the Name of the God of Jacob" means the God Who met Jacob when he had nothing and deserved nothing [but wrath] and Who gave him everything; it is the equivalent of the New Testament "God of all Grace" [I Pet. 5:10]);

[2] Send You help from the sanctuary, and strengthen You out of Zion (when on Earth, even though our Lord was not normally close to the Sanctuary, nevertheless, He received great help from what it represented, hence the cleansing of it two times);

[3] Remember all Your Offerings, and accept Your Burnt Sacrifice; Selah. (Our Lord is praying that the Sacrifice of His sinless Life and atoning death will be accepted.)

[4] Grant You according to Your Own heart, and fulfil all Your Counsel (most probably these were the words of the High Priest to the people after offering their Sacrifices; likewise, the Lord cried that His petition would be fulfilled).

[5] We will rejoice in Your Salvation, and in the Name of our God we will set up our banners: the LORD fulfil all Your petitions (the idea is, if the great Sacrifice of Christ is accepted, and it definitely was, then the Salvation of all who put their trust in Christ will be accepted; therefore, we will rejoice).

[6] Now know I that the LORD saves His Anointed (Christ); He will hear Him from His Holy Heaven with the saving strength of His right hand

(the words, "His Anointed," always speak of "His Messiah"; when He prays, God the Father always hears and always grants Him the "saving strength of His right hand").

7 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the Name of the LORD our God (the Antichrist, by trusting in chariots and horses, will be defeated, but the Lord Jesus Christ, by trusting in the Name of the LORD God, will be victorious).

8 They are brought down and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright (all who follow Satan will ultimately be brought down, but all who follow Christ will rise and stand upright).

9 Save, LORD: let the King hear us when we call. (Verses 1–6 refer to the Messiah's calling to God. Verses 7–9 refer to Israel in the Battle of Armageddon calling to the God of Glory and to the King, Who will be the Lord Jesus Christ. God will hear when they call. He will "save.")

CHAPTER 21

A PSALM OF DAVID: THANKS AND PRAISE FOR VICTORY

[1] The king shall joy in Your Strength, O LORD; and in Your Salvation how greatly shall He rejoice! (This Psalm presents the exaltation and crowning of the Messiah as King over all the Earth, and His appointment as the Source and Channel of blessing to all nations.)

[2] You have given Him His heart's desire, and have not withheld the request of His lips. Selah. (This was partially fulfilled in David, but is to be completely fulfilled in David's Son — the Messiah.)

[3] For You prevent (anticipate) Him with the blessings of goodness (You give Him blessings before He asks, and more than He asks): You set a crown of pure gold on His head (no doubt, this happened to David when he became king of the whole of Israel; however, in a greater measure it refers to the Lord of Glory, Who will begin His Kingdom Reign as the rightful King that He is)**.

[4] He asked life of You, and You gave it Him, even length of days for ever and ever (this pertains to the Resurrection of Christ, and it pertains to Believers enjoying the same thing through Christ — eternal life)**.

[5] His Glory is great in Your Salvation: honour and majesty have You laid upon Him (the Lord Jesus Christ is given a Name that is above every name [Phil. 2:9])**.

[6] For You have made Him most blessed for ever: You have made Him exceeding glad with Your Countenance (Jesus Christ will bless the entirety of the world during the Millennial Reign; in effect, He has done so already, at least for those who will believe [Jn. 3:16])**.

[7] For the King trusts in the LORD, and through the Mercy of the Most High He shall not be moved (this King, the Lord Jesus Christ, will not be voted out of office, neither shall He grow old and die; "He shall not be moved")*.

[8] Your Hand shall find out all Your enemies: Your right Hand shall find out those who hate You (during the coming Kingdom Age, it will be easily discernible as to who loves the Lord and who hates Him).

[9] You shall make them as a fiery oven in the time of Your anger: the LORD shall swallow them up in His wrath, and the fire shall devour them (evil will not be tolerated in the coming Kingdom Age).

[10] Their fruit shall You destroy from the Earth, and their seed from among the children of men (evil will not be allowed to gain a foothold).

[11] For they intended evil against You: they imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to perform (this Passage pertains to the Battle of Armageddon, when the Antichrist will literally declare war on Christ, and do so by attacking God's People, Israel; however, the Antichrist will not be able to perform that which he intends).

[12] Therefore shall You make them turn their back, when You shall make ready Your arrows upon Your strings against the face of them (this is the Second Coming [Ezek., Chpts. 38–39]).

[13] Be You exalted, LORD, in Your own Strength: so will we sing and praise Your Power (in the coming Kingdom Age, evil will not be exalted, Jesus Christ will).

CHAPTER 22

A PSALM OF DAVID: CHRIST'S SUFFERING AND COMING GLORY

[1] My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me? why are You so far from helping Me, and from the words of My roaring? (The stark reality of this Psalm portrays the Crucifixion of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Gospels narrate the fact of the Crucifixion, this Psalm the feelings of the Crucified.

Jesus cried this Word while hanging on the Cross [Mat. 27:46]. This portrayal glorifies Him as the Sin-Offering.

It presents a sinless Man, the Lord Jesus Christ, forsaken by God, but only in the sense that God allowed Him to die. Such a fact is unique in history and will never need to be repeated. This sinless Man — Himself God manifest in the flesh — was made to be a Sin-Offering, in effect, the penalty of sin, which, in this case, was physical death [II Cor. 5:21], and thereby pierced with a sword of Divine Wrath [Zech. 13:7]. In that judgment, God dealt infinitely with sin and, in so dealing with it in the Person of His Beloved Son, showed His wrath against sin and His Love for the sinner. Thus, He vindicated Himself and, as well, redeemed man. God revealed Himself at Calvary as in no other place or way.

What the depth of horror was to which the sinless soul of Jesus sank under the Wrath of God as the Sin-Offering is unfathomable for men or Angels; therefore, our efforts to explain these sufferings will, of necessity, fall short of that which He really experienced.)

[2] O My God, I cry in the daytime, but You hear not; and in the night season, and am not silent (as a Sin-Offering and Perfect, still, God could not hear or answer prayer from such, at least at this particular time, but could only pour His Judgment as He had done so through the centuries on the slain lamb)**.

3 But You are Holy, O You Who inhabits the praises of Israel. (This is the closest that the Scripture comes to the statement, "God inhabits the praises of His People." During Christ's Earthly Ministry, He spoke of God as His "Father," and resumed the title after He had triumphantly shouted, "Finished." But while suffering Divine Wrath as the Sin-Offering, He addressed Him as "God." Because God is so Holy, He could not even look upon this particular "Sin-Offering," much less hear and answer prayer, but only for the time when He was bearing the sin penalty on the Cross [Mk. 15:33–34].)

4 Our fathers trusted in You: they trusted, and You did deliver them. (However, Christ could not be delivered from this terrible act. Had He been delivered, humanity could not be delivered.

Had the Messiah been only Man, He would have put His physical sufferings first, and His spiritual sufferings last. But to Him, as the only begotten Son of God, there was no anguish so infinite as the hiding of the Father's face.)

5 They cried unto You, and were delivered: they trusted in You, and were not confounded (this teaches God's people to cling in confidence to the Lord when circumstances seem to say that God has abandoned them; the infinite care of God for us is made possible by what Christ did for us at the Cross, and by no other means)**.

6 But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people (the word "worm," as used here by Christ, means that He took the lowest place among men, to be rejected, scorned, spit upon, and even humiliated in infamy and shame [I Pet. 2:24; Isa. 49:7; 52:14; 53:1–12])**.

7 All they who see Me laugh Me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying (this was done by His Own People while He hung on the Cross in bitter suffering; they had no kind word for Him; they only laughed and mocked Him [Mat. 27:39–43])**,

8 He trusted on the LORD that He would deliver Him: let Him deliver Him, seeing He delighted in Him (at the Cross, the enemies of Christ, His Own People, actually used the very words as recorded in this Eighth Verse [Mat. 27:43]).

9 But You are He Who took Me out of the womb: You did make Me hope when I was upon My mother's breasts (these two Verses [9–10] show the relationship between the Father and the Son, even from the womb of the Virgin Mary; and yet, this relationship that had never before been broken would now be broken, at least for a short period of time, because He was bearing the sin penalty of the world).

10 I was cast upon You from the womb: You are My God from My mother's belly (in a certain sense, this is true of all; but, of the Holy Child, it was most true [Lk. 2:40, 49, 52]).

11 Be not far from Me; for trouble is near; for there is none to help ("all the Disciples forsook Him and fled" [Mat. 26:56] — He was truly One Who "had no helper").

12 Many bulls have compassed Me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset Me round ("bulls" here symbolize the demon-possessed religious leaders of Israel, who were determined to kill the Messiah [Mat. 27:1–66; Acts 2:36]).

13 They gaped upon Me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.
